

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5091

In Europe and the United States, family trusts are an extremely safe way to protect assets.

There is a saying in China that only three generations are rich. The reason is that the fathers and grandchildren are in charge of the country, but the children and grandchildren are extravagant, ignorant and incompetent, which can easily lead to the bankruptcy of the family and return to its original shape overnight.

The reason is that the ability and character of the children and grandchildren are uncontrollable. Once there is a problem with his ability and character, it is difficult to avoid the decline of the family.

Not to mention, there are all kinds of natural disasters besides man-made disasters.

However, the family trust effectively eliminates the risk of natural and man-made disasters.

Putting your own money into the trust, on the face of it, even you have given up direct control over the money. Only your descendants or designated heirs can get the money in the trust under certain opportunities.

Therefore, even if they encounter major problems in the future, causing the entire family to become indebted, go bankrupt or even go bankrupt, the government and creditors theoretically have no right to dispose of the other party's family trust.

This is also the fundamental reason why many old-fashioned families in Europe and America have been able to remain prosperous for several or a dozen generations.

Although the Dong family has evaporated, the money has been put into the family trust. This is a foolproof way to keep it. There is no need to worry about losing control of the company when people leave, and there is no need to worry about asset depreciation or accidents when people leave.

This money is thrown into the trust, not only will it not decrease, but it will increase, and even the federal government cannot take away the funds.

This move also means the attitude of the Dong family, or the mysterious organization behind the Dong family.

Evaporation is only a temporary strategic retreat, and they will definitely come back again in the future.

The old man said with a dignified expression at this time: “The Dong family’s series of operations are so calm and decisive. I feel that they should not have been developed by that mysterious organization halfway, and they may have been members of that mysterious organization from beginning to end.”

Speaking of this, he looked at the third Olin, and said seriously: “Olin, from acquaintance to marriage with Dong Liqin, it is likely to be a complete situation!”

Olin hesitated for a moment, then said seriously: “Dad... What you said shouldn’t be right... When I met Dong Liqin, I was still in school, so that organization wouldn’t have targeted me nineteen years ago, right?”

Second brother Homula remembered What, he blurted out: “Olin, you said just now that you and Dong Liqin met nineteen years ago?”

”Yes.” Olin nodded and said truthfully, “I know her. , is the last year of studying for a master’s degree at Harvard, it was indeed 19 years ago.”

Homula murmured: “The eldest sister died twenty years ago...”

”Yes.” Olin said: “It is the eldest sister. The Dong Liqin I met in the second year of my death...”

At this moment, Homula, Asher, and the old man An Qishan all changed their faces!

Homula blurted out: “The second year after the eldest sister died, you met Dong Liqin...Dong Liqin hid by your side for nineteen years, until this accident... The people who wanted to kill us were killed with the eldest sister that year. , they should not be able to get rid of the relationship!”

An Qishan said in awe: “If this is the case, they are not satisfied with killing Bruce, and then they carefully placed a timing next to Olin that would detonate after 19 years. Bomb, what are these guys going to do?! If they want to kill the entire Anjia, why did they wait so long?”

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5092

”Yeah...” The boss, Asher, was also puzzled and said, “They are so strong, if there is any deep hatred, there is no need to wait until today to attack us...”

An Qishan said: “The key is me. I really don’t understand how much enmity and resentment these people have with us, to play such a big game with us...”

Olin couldn't help but said, "Dad, eldest brother, second brother, Dong Liqin may not have been nineteen years ago. I was placed beside me by the other party, right? It is also possible that they were instigated by them or coerced and enticed."

"It's unlikely." Asher shook his head and said, "If Dong Liqin was subverted in the middle, then the Dong family must be insured. They were also rebelled together in the middle, but this series of behaviors of the Dong family cannot be explained. I prefer Dong Liqin, including the entire Dong family, to be a complete scam!" Homula nodded in agreement, and then looked at Olin asked, "Olin, can you recall the specific situation you met at the beginning?"

Olin said, "It was the second year of my master's degree and she just started her master's degree, and she was welcoming new students. At the dance party, a black boy kept harassing her. I felt that everyone was compatriots. Some people couldn't stand it, so I stepped forward to help her out. Since then, we have left each other's contact information, and then we are in a normal relationship. That's it."

Homula and Asher exchanged glances, and then said decisively: "The plot of the hero saving the beauty is not quite right, it sounds like a set deliberately set up for you!"

Olin said: "It's not really a hero saving the beauty, right, but I just said a few words for her, the other party is not a small gangster, he is also a graduate student at Harvard, and he is quite interesting, so he quit at that time."

Asher asked He: "Olin, have you seen that black student later?"

"This..." Olin thought for a while, then said, "I don't have any impression of it, maybe I haven't seen it before, I really didn't Take this person to heart."

Homula sighed and said with emotion: "It seems that this person is just a chess piece to fuel the flames. His appearance is to help Dong Liqin and you create an opportunity to get to know each other."

After speaking, Homula asked again: can you tell me how you fell in love with Dong Liqin? Also, what attracted you to her and made you decide to marry her home?"

he thought about it for a while, and said seriously: "In my impression, she gave me the feeling that she was a woman whose appearance and figure were completely based on my aesthetics..."

"I have always liked that kind of more classical oriental beauty. , not the excessive enthusiasm and unrestrainedness of Westerners, in addition, it is her little bird character, most of the Harvard girls are more assertive, and their characters are relatively strong, not suitable for macho men, but Dong Liqin is relatively soft. When she is with her, she follows me in everything and always makes me feel like a big man.

That's why I decided to marry her, and after so many years of marriage, her love Her character has hardly changed, it has always been the same as when she was in love, no matter what aspect, it gives me a perfect feeling, even if I occasionally mess with flowers outside, she can..."

Asher nodded, decisively. Said: "No doubt, she is the perfect woman that the mysterious organization tailored for you... This game has been around you for nineteen years." The old man suddenly slammed the teacup in his hand to the ground. , shouted angrily: "These people must be the murderers who killed Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) and Bruce back then!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5093

The old man's sudden roar made the three Anjia brothers' faces shudder.

Although everyone has gradually realized this conclusion, when the old man said it, everyone still felt a chill on the back.

Homula said with a puzzled expression: "I don't understand... What kind of grudges do these people have with us? Why do they keep staring at us for 20 years and not give up?"

Olin said suspiciously: " Anjia's asset accumulation is really nothing to hurt the world! Over the years, most of our assets have come from the angel investment of the year, especially my sister, who has supported more than half of Silicon Valley alone, who will follow us Is there such a deep blood feud?"

Asher said with a cold face: "Perhaps, they want to get anything from us."

Olin asked him: "Brother, what do you mean, they want our money? "

I can't tell." Asher said: "I just think that the other party is so deliberate, it is probably not as simple as seeking revenge." The old man An Qishan frowned and said: "If it is seeking money, there is no need to Are we all killed? Most of the property is digital these days, it is a string of numbers in bank accounts, securities accounts and trust accounts, and every penny is registered, even if we kill all of us It's impossible for our assets to fall into his hands!"

Asher nodded: "This is also something I don't understand..." The father and son fell into deep thought.

At this moment, the youngest daughter Tablita knocked on the door and said from the door, "Dad, Miss Fei called and said that she would like to come and visit later."

"Miss Fei..." The old man frowned and asked subconsciously. Said: "That Miss Fei?"

Asher said quickly: "Dad, do you not remember clearly, Miss Fei, I told you this morning that after we had an accident, we were called by that mysterious benefactor to deal with it. Fei Kexin, the aftermath, is the current head of the Fei family."

The old man frowned, and he remembered it after a while, and said quickly, "Miss Fei is also kind to my An Family, so get ready to welcome."

Asher quickly asked Tablita: "Tablita, how did Miss Fei come here?"

Tablita said: "Miss Fei said that she will come by helicopter and land directly on the roof."

The old man said without hesitation, "Help me to the rooftop, and I will go to greet me in person to show attention!"

Asher hurriedly said, "Dad, you are waiting here. Come on, I'll go meet Miss Fei."

The old man said without a doubt: "No, I have to go!"

After speaking, he said to Asher: "Asher, you accompany me to meet, Homula will go. Calling other people to wait in the reception room, Miss Fei has also helped us a lot, and there must be no less etiquette."

Homula nodded immediately and said, "Okay Dad, I'll arrange it."

Seeing this, Asher said: He didn't say anything more, just said to Tablita: "Tablita, please inform the security and do a security check when the time comes. In special times, safety should be the priority." The old man immediately said, "No! Miss Fei helped us. So much, it can't be bad for us, people come to visit, we also do security inspections, this is distrust of others."

Seeing the old man's firm attitude, Asher had no choice but to nod his head, but he still asked Tablita: "Tablita, you must be careful inside, and if there is any emergency, close the entrance in time."

Tablita nodded: "Okay, eldest brother, I understand." The old man said to Asher at this time: "Asher, show me Miss Fei's photo and let me see it, so don't recognize the wrong person."

Asher quickly searched for some photos of Fei Kexin from the Internet on his mobile phone and handed them to the old man.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5094

After reading it a few times, the old man returned the phone to Asher, but he was suddenly stunned, a figure flashed in his mind, and he couldn't help but ask, "By the way, Asher... Was Yalin caught by that person? Miss Fei took it away?"

Asher asked in surprise, "Dad, do you remember Yalin?"

The old man said absentmindedly, "I just had a picture flashing across my mind, as if I remembered the benefactor that day. Say, Yalin is dead..." After speaking, he quickly asked: "Asher, did the benefactor say that Yalin's body would be taken away for a burial?"

Asher was shocked at the Father can still remember a few fragments of that day, while lamenting: "Eunuch did say this at the time, I guess he may leave this matter to Miss Fei." : "I'm sorry Yalin, I'm sorry for his father, I'm sorry for his wife and daughter..."

Asher hurriedly said with relief: "Dad, it's not your fault, it's our Anjia that owes him." The old man asked him "How did you deal with Yalin's wife and daughter?"

Asher said helplessly, "I can't deal with his wife and daughter... On that day, Engong made it clear that he should not disclose his death to anyone. , including his wife and daughter, his wife has been calling me to ask about his whereabouts, and I can only lie that I don't know... Both of them have already called the police, but the New York police haven't found any clues..."

"Hey "... The old man sighed and warned: "Find a way to send some money to his wife and daughter, give $500 million, and prepare another five hundred million. After the child is born, it will be given to the child's name, but it must be given before. Let his son-in-law agree that the child will be born with Yalin's surname Li."

Asher asked in surprise, "Do you still remember?" The master sighed softly, "I remembered only when I was in a trance just now, and maybe I won't remember when I wake up tomorrow. It's up, so you must remember that you must find a way to implement it as soon as possible."

"Okay." Asher nodded and said, "After waiting for a while, I will find a suitable reason to implement this matter. Otherwise, I'm also afraid that his wife and daughter will think too much."

The old man sighed and instructed: "Just don't forget it, it won't be too late to do it when the child is born."

"Okay!" Asher agreed, and then he helped the old man, and the two came to the roof of the top floor together.

At this time, the helicopter that Fei Kexin and Li Yalin took had already flown into the sky over Manhattan.

Li Yalin was sitting at the window, looking at the bustling Manhattan surrounded by tall buildings outside, filled with emotion.

In fact, until now, he has not been able to fully accept the reality that he has "resurrected from the dead".

The helicopter quickly flew over the helipad on the top floor of the Anbang Building, and then slowly descended.

At this time, Li Yalin was still wearing a mask and sunglasses, and he was wearing a researcher's overalls, so no one could see that this was the Chinese detective who had been missing for a while, Li Yalin.

After the helicopter stopped, the co-pilot immediately came out of the cockpit and opened the cabin door for Fei Kexin and Li Yalin.

Fei Kexin stepped down first, Li Yalin followed closely, and at this time, the old man An Qishan also stepped forward with the help of Asher.

Because of Alzheimer's disease, An Qishan actually learned Fei Kexin's memory from his children's mouth in the morning like "listening to a story".

However, he knew that Fei Kexin had helped An Jia a lot at critical moments. With his consistent style of repaying his kindness, he was very grateful to Fei Kexin in his heart

Since I saw Fei Kexin's photo just now, seeing Fei Kexin getting off the helicopter, An Qishan stepped forward and said loudly, "Hello, Miss Fei, we meet again!"
