

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5149

Seeing the nervous and earnest expression on his son-in-law's face, Li Yalin suddenly felt that the world was a bit magical.

Originally, he admired his son-in-law very much, but he always felt that this boy had the energy to not be overwhelmed, not afraid of being poor, and not to admit defeat or bow his head.

To put it simply, he felt that his son-in-law was very similar to him, and even had a shadow of himself.

It is precisely because of this, and Li Yalin has no son himself, so he treats this son-in-law as a son sincerely.

But the performance of his son-in-law at this moment made him realize that, as a detective who has read countless people, his views on his son-in-law are one-sided, wrong and naive.

I used to think that he was the kind of noble character who was rich and could not be promiscuous, but now it seems that he is just "promiscuous" a little high.

And this, in the past, neither myself nor my son-in-law could touch it at all.

It is as if a person never knows if he is afraid of heights if he has never been there.

Some people are shouting that they are not afraid of the sky, but maybe their legs will become weak at a certain height.

At this moment, Li Yalin suddenly despised him.

However, after thinking about it, I felt that I was not the same?

Although Qian didn't impress him, but about the so-called surname and bloodline inheritance, didn't he impress him?

Both he and his son-in-law have betrayed their own loftiness, but one is kneeling in front of money and the other is kneeling in front of inheritance.

Archer didn't know what Li Yalin was thinking, but when he saw that his expression was cloudy and sunny for a while, the whole person couldn't help but feel a little worried, and couldn't help but say, "Dad, can you do it, you have something to say!"

Li Yalin hesitated for a moment and sighed. With a sound, he waved his hands and said, "Forget it, just do as you said!"

daughter and son-in-law both asked in surprise at almost the same time.

Li Yalin nodded heavily and said, “This is your grandfather An’s heart, but it is really too heavy. I will find a way to pay it back slowly in the future!”

“Great!” The daughter Bella cheered, and the son-in-law was also excited. clenched fist.

Immediately afterwards, the two rushed over excitedly, hugging Li Yalin from left to right, and their excited expressions were beyond words.

On the other hand, Li Yalin’s wife Holly Chen’s expression has not changed from beginning to end.

At this moment, Li Yalin’s daughter suddenly remembered something and asked, “Dad...then...the 10 million from Miss Fei...what are you going to do?”

As soon as Bella said this, Archer, who was beside him, immediately looked at him. Li Yalin, subconsciously blurted out, “Yes, Dad, do you have a plan now?”

For this young couple, the $100 million promised by the Anjia family must be placed in a family trust, and the trust must be The conditions will not be lifted until the child’s first child turns 18.

That is to say, even if Li Yalin has already agreed, they must now wait 18 years for the golden mountain of 100 million US dollars before they can achieve a huge leap in class.

No matter whether it is a luxury house, a luxury car, or a luxurious upper-class life, all of them have to wait eighteen years.

If you count the child’s expected due date of eight months, rounding up equals to 19 years.

However, the $10 million check given by Fei Kexin was different. This was not a conditional family trust, but a real cash check.

Just take this check to any bank in the United States and it can be exchanged for $10 million in cash.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5150

Li Yalin listened to them asking about the 10 million, and couldn’t help but say, “Actually, my original idea was to put the money into the trust, but the trust I checked did not have such a high annualized income as 8. I was based on about 38. Calculated by annualized income, after 18 years, there will be almost 20 million, and then from the 19th year, the interest can be taken out every year, part of the child's education fund, part of the child's living allowance, after the child gets married, you can withdraw one million US dollars at one time, if you have more than two children, then divide the two million US dollars equally, and the rest will continue to be placed in the trust..”

When Li Yalin said this, her daughter Bella hurriedly said, “Dad... You can't put this money into the trust anymore... If that's the case, we will put all the money in 18 years before we can draw it, so from now on, we still have a lot of uncertainty in the next 18 years. For example, if you move to Houston to live with us in the future, plus the child is about to be born in our house, we always have to change to a bigger one. Archer and I don't have to live in an apartment in the city. We can come here and live with you. In this case, you can also help us take care of the children, and if there are more children, the family may have to hire an auntie and purchase various hardware. There are still quite a lot of places where money is needed... Li Yalin looked at the woman and asked her, “

Bella, how do you mean to arrange the ten million?”

Bella thought for a while and said, “Dad, that's what I think, let's take a million dollars for a change.” For the house, you can change to a villa that is closer to the city, bigger, newer, and better, and then upgrade other hardware in the home, such as food and clothing, cars, and home appliances. For the rest, first Put it in a more flexible financial management, and if you need it, you can withdraw it at any time.”

Archer couldn't help but agree, “Yes, Dad, I think this is more flexible. With this money to support, we can give Bella a lot of money. Bella chose a better private hospital to give birth, so that her check-up during pregnancy can be more comfortable and convenient.”

Li Yalin hesitated for a moment, sighed, and said, “Well, as you said, $1 million to buy a house, $500,000 to upgrade the family expenses, and another $500,000 as a reserve for flexible withdrawals, As for the remaining 8 million yuan, all of them will be handed over to your mother. How to arrange the specific arrangements is not counted by the three of us, your mother has the final say.”

Bella couldn't help but ask, “Dad, I only took out two One million, isn't it a little less... Why don't you take out three million first..”

Li Yalin waved his hand, “I have made up my mind, what should I do first? If you have any money to spend next, just do it. Go and apply to your mother.”

As he spoke, he looked at his wife Holly Chen, asked her, “Holly, do you think this is okay?” Holly Chen was stunned for a moment, then she came back to her senses and smiled, “Old Li, if you want me to tell me you don't give me this money, it's not a total of 8 million. Is it? Just put it in the trust, just get a short-term trust. From now on, for the next 18 years, take out one-eighteenth every year until it is fully taken out in 18 years. As for the money taken out How to control it, we have the final say.”

Li Yalin couldn't help but feel a little astonished, but soon realized that his wife also found that the children took money a little more seriously, and didn't want to be the money manager directly.

So, he sighed softly and said, “Okay, just do it like this.”

After saying that, he said, “Oh, by the way, if we want to buy a house, let's do it as soon as possible. I'm going to go to another place in a few days, and I promised to help The old man has something to do with Miss Fei.”

Holly Chen hurriedly asked, “What's the matter? Is it dangerous?”

Li Yalin smiled and said, “Don't worry, it's just to investigate something, it's not dangerous, you know that the old man has a grandson who has never been found, he If you want me to help you find it, it's just looking for someone, there's no risk.”

Holly Chen breathed a sigh of relief, looking at her daughter and son-in-law who was so excited that she couldn't control it and kept winking at each other, she sighed silently and stood up. He said, “Okay, Lao Li, it's getting late, let the children go back first, and we both have an early rest.” The daughter and son-in-law didn't think much about it, and the two of them still had a lot of whispers to talk about, so He agreed without hesitation, and after saying goodbye, he quickly drove back to his apartment in the city.

Seeing that Li Yalin was a little absent-minded and lonely, Holly Chen couldn't help asking softly, “What's wrong? Are you disappointed?”

Li Yalin smiled bitterly, “A little bit... a little disappointed, but I feel It's understandable, so it's more tangled.”

Holly Chen nodded and said earnestly, “Old Li, never test human nature. Human nature is like this real world. It can be as small as the dust, and as big as the universe.”

Speaking of which, she changed the subject and said seriously, “But even the universe has boundaries!”

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5151

the next day.

When Yuhiko Ito and Koichi Tanaka were running in Central Park wearing masks, Xion and his parents, after saying goodbye to Charlie thankfully, went to the airport and took a flight back to Aurous Hill.

Charlie stayed in New York for two more days. After spending two days with Ito Nanako and other members of the Ito family, Ito Nanako also reluctantly said goodbye to Charlie, and the family set off for Japan.

After Ito Nanako left, Charlie gave Wanlong an order to bring back Stella, who handed over the contraband to Elaine, back to New York.

Stella's real name is Yan Suying. In recent years, she has been with her concubine and followed Soleil to go offline. This person's main task is to pretend to be a female entrepreneur under the false identity of Stella, and bring those who need human flesh out of the country. Contraband, handed over to the mule selected by Soleil.

Although this woman did not kill anyone with her own hands, but she followed Soleil to help Zhou and did harm many innocent victims.

If it is reasonable, she should also be allowed to die to apologize.

However, considering that she is now the key to Elaine's release from prison, the people at Wanlong Palace left her alone.

As for her concubine who was also full of evil, she was killed by the soldiers of Wanlong Temple and thrown into the desert near Las Vegas.

At the same time, the Wanlong Palace officers also possessed the identity information of Stella's domestic family, so they used this as a bargaining chip to ask Stella to take the initiative to confess all his crimes to the US police, otherwise, not only would he kill her, but also let her Her family paid the price.

Stella, who knew that he could not escape, did not dare to disobey the requirements of Wanlong Palace.

She knew that if she confessed to the American police, although she would never be able to get out of prison again in her life, she could at least save a dog's life.

Therefore, at the moment, she has no second choice at all.

When Stella was brought back to New York and surrendered to the New York police, he was at the Bedford Hills Correctional Institution on the outskirts of New York City, and it was time for the inmates to have lunch.

According to the regulations of the Bedford Hills Correctional Institution, before the lunch starts, the early warning will conduct a roll call for each cell. After the roll call, the door of the cell will open and everyone will go to the restaurant in an orderly manner. After eating in the restaurant, everyone will Then go to the playground to let the wind out, return to the cell after the wind blowing, and count the number of people again. After confirming that it is correct, close the door and wait for the afternoon meal.

At this moment, Elaine didn't know that his good days had already begun everywhere.

Right now, the number of people in her cell has just been counted, but even though everyone else has already started to line up, Elaine is still lying lazily on the bed, leisurely reading a Chinese book with Erlang's legs crossed.

The female prison guard who counted the number of people turned a blind eye to Elaine's behavior. After confirming that no one escaped from the cell, the female prison guard said loudly, "Now you can go to the restaurant to eat!"

After that, she came to Elaine and said attentively, " Sister Elaine, today the kitchen made pasta with bolognese sauce and shrimp steak, and I asked the chef to prepare you a tomato and egg gravy. If you need it, just go to the restaurant and find Claire directly."

The reason why the female prison guard was right Elaine is so afraid, mainly because Elaine is the object that the warden has specified to be taken care of by all the prison guards, and the previous prison guard Jessica was reduced to a prisoner because of offending Elaine.

Therefore, every prison guard at Bedford Hill Correctional Institution knows that Elaine has a very strong background, so they are very respectful when they see her.

The reason why the warden took care of Elaine was mainly because Elaine was the person Fei Kexin named him to take care of.

Fei Kexin's influence in New York is extraordinary, and it is by no means comparable to a small warden. Therefore, for the warden, Elaine is a perfect opportunity for him to cling to the upper class, so no matter what Don't want to miss it either.

It is precisely because of this that the prison guards in the entire Bedford Hill Correctional Institution are even more afraid of Elaine.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5152

And Elaine is not only authoritative in front of the prison guards, because the combat effectiveness of the three Wanlong Temple female soldiers is really overwhelming, the thorns of the original Bedford Hill Correctional Institution, almost all of them have been cut several times. Now It all stopped, and no one dared to be in prison for the slightest bit.

With the support of these three people, Elaine has long since become the veritable number one person in the Bedford Hills Correctional Institution, and even gave himself a nickname, Bedford Hill Ghosts.

At this time, Elaine looked at the female prison guard, slowly put down the magazine reading in her hand, and said with some dissatisfaction, "Xiao Lu, it's not me talking about you, the magazines delivered in the past few days are too boring, and the story in this is again. It's rotten and vulgar, can't you show me a few books of "Zhiyin" without any nutrition?"

"Ziyin?" The female prison guard is a native Chinese American, so she doesn't know what "Zhiyin" is at all. , so he asked nervously, "Sister Elaine, what do you mean by "Zhiyin"?"

Elaine said arrogantly, ""Zhiyin" is a very in-depth and highly literary Chinese magazine. It is my favorite literary publication for so many years. If it weren't for your Americans' prejudice against our Chinese writers, the author of "Friends" would have won the Nobel Prize for Literature! It's true that imperialism will kill me!"

The female prison guard said embarrassedly, "Sister Elaine, the Nobel Prize is not awarded by us Americans, but mainly by the Swedes..."

Elaine frowned and asked, "Really? Why don't I know?" The female prison guard hurriedly The introduction said, "Because Nobel is a Swede... He donated money to get the Nobel Prize."

Elaine realized that he was shy, and immediately snorted, "So what? What Sweden, Switzerland, Isn't it all controlled by you Americans?" The female prison guard hurriedly said, "Sister Elaine, Nobel this... It really has nothing to do with the United States..."

Elaine said impatiently, "Oh, I won't talk nonsense with you, hurry up and give it to you. I want to find a way to get a batch of "Friends" to have a look."

The female prison guard had to respectfully say, "Okay, Sister Elaine, I'll help you think of a way!"

Elaine hummed and waved her hand, "Okay, you can go out." The female prison guard nodded quickly and said, "Okay Elaine. Sister, then I'll go out first." After the female prison guard left, a group of attentive female prisoners gathered around and said,

“Sister Elaine, how are you resting?”

“Sister Elaine, let’s accompany you. Go eat!”

Elaine hummed, sat up slowly from the bed, and stretched lazily.

Later, she saw the obedient Chloe in the crowd.

That Chloe, the prison tyrant in the previous cell, has been trying every means to oppress Elaine, but unfortunately, in this cell, she has completely become Elaine’s venting object.

Seeing Chloe, Elaine waved to her impatiently and said, “Come on, Chloe, I have something to do with you.”

Chloe suddenly trembled nervously, and quickly asked respectfully, “Ma Madam, what’s the matter with you?”

Elaine asked coldly, “Can’t I call you if I’m okay?”

Chloe kept shaking her head and said, “Yes, of course, Chloe is at your disposal 24 hours a day. ...”

Elaine snorted softly, and said sharply, “You and Jessica don’t go out for dinner today, stay here and wash everyone’s dirty clothes for me to cool, dare to leave one unwashed or If you don’t wash it, I’ll slap you fifty times!!”

Chloe said in horror, “I... We just washed the sheets, quilts and pillowcases that everyone changed yesterday, and we washed them until twelve o’clock at night. Let’s take a moment...”

Elaine threw the reading in his hand directly on Chloe’s face, instantly smashing half of her face flushed, and then said coldly, “If you dare to bargain with him, everyone will be in the future. I’ll let you both wash the lake and bra!”

Elaine asked in a cold voice.
