

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5153

Elaine's icy voice made Chloe and Jessica pale in fright.

In recent days, their lives have been like hell.

What the two of them did to Elaine before, combined with Elaine's stubborn character, it is doomed that the two of them will not have a good end.

And Elaine also started beating and torturing the two of them, and gradually turned into the extreme humiliation and enslavement of the two of them.

Don't let them eat, find them all kinds of cool work, and watch them work like the American farmer's imprisoned hard work, without a moment's breath, which is Elaine's favorite thing to do.

For example, when the weather is hot, Elaine likes to go barefoot in the cell, so the two of them have to take turns to wipe the floor at least five times a day. If the soles of their feet get dirty after walking in the cell for a day, then the two of them will not want to sleep that night. , When others are sleeping, they have to kneel on the ground and wipe the floor all night.

Right now, Elaine asked the two of them to wash their dirty clothes, and neither of them dared to have any disobedience, so they could only accept it silently with tears.

Seeing that the two of them began to honestly collect the sheets and quilts that everyone replaced, Elaine sneered with satisfaction, then stood up and greeted the people around him, "Let's go, let's eat!" The others hurriedly followed Elaine was beside her and surrounded her out of the cell.

Along the way, no matter who you meet, no matter what the identity, age, or skin color of the other party, they will almost always greet Elaine respectfully in Chinese by saying hello to Sister Elaine.

This feeling of responding to all kinds of calls made Elaine extremely satisfied and extremely inflated, and the whole person was a little flirtatious.

When they came to the restaurant, the people who were queuing for the meal immediately consciously avoided left and right. The woman who was originally in the first line immediately said respectfully, "Sister Elaine, please go first!"

Elaine hummed and walked away. Going to the front, looking at one of the staff, he asked, "Is the tomato egg marinade I want ready?" The staff immediately nodded and said, "Sister Elaine is ready."

Saying that, she took out a heat preservation box from under the dining table, which was filled with scrambled eggs with tomatoes made in Chinese cuisine.

Elaine nodded with satisfaction. This is what she specifically asked the prison guards to arrange for her. The western-style meals in the prison every day really make her feel a little bored. In addition, Americans eat too much meat, sugar, and oil. , so that she now misses the light and simple Chinese food of tomato and egg noodles.

Elaine winked at a female prisoner beside him, and the other party immediately understood, and hurried forward to take the insulation box, and then asked Elaine, "Sister Elaine, what do you want to eat?"

Elaine said lightly, "If you have anything, just Prepare a copy and bring it here."

"Okay!" The female prisoner nodded respectfully, and then, together with another prisoner, put all kinds of food on the plate, and followed Elaine to the dining table used by Elaine. .

This dining table is by the window, with the best and most comfortable view. Ever since Elaine became a ghost at the Bedford Hills Correctional Institution, she has made a rule that she can only use this table in the future.

Originally, almost every day there would be quarrels and even conflicts between prisoners for this table, but since Elaine became the boss here, everyone will consciously stay away from this table to avoid angering Elaine.

After all, Elaine not only has three extremely capable sidekicks, but more importantly, from the prison guards to the warden, they must give her face. It can be said that Elaine is in Bedford Hill Correctional Institution, that is black and white Take it all.

Elaine came to her favorite dining table and sat down. The attendants on both sides hurriedly put the plates and lunch boxes in front of her. A staff member also quickly brought a glass of ice Coke and said respectfully, "Sister Elaine, This is a sugar-free cola, you can drink it without worrying about blood sugar."

Elaine hummed with satisfaction, took a sip of the cola, and immediately felt a refreshing comfort in this hot summer.

She couldn't help but sigh in her heart, "This person is also strange. He never wants to drink Coke when he sees it outside, but here, drinking an ice Coke can be so satisfying."

Just thinking happily, the previous Chinese female prison guard hurried to her dining table and said with joy, "Sister Elaine, Sister Elaine! There is good news, Sister Elaine!"

Elaine saw her excited face, and her heart suddenly felt With a thud, she couldn't help but blurted out and asked, "What's the good news? It made you so excited." The female prison guard hurriedly explained, "Sister Elaine, your lawyer is here!"

"My lawyer?!" Her expression instantly froze, and she exclaimed, "Is that James White? What is he doing here?!" The female prison guard said excitedly, "He came to meet you, saying that there is great news coming to you. Conveyed."

Elaine was stunned for a moment, then frowned, "Could it be... Did he clear my suspicions?!" The female prison guard said without hesitation, "It should be, otherwise how can it be called Tianda's good news?! Sister Elaine, Congratulations, you will be cleared of suspicion immediately and you will be free!"

Elaine's expression was a little depressing, and she thought to herself, "But I don't want to be free now... If I were to be free now, Then how can I be a ghost in Bedford Mountain?" The female prison guard saw that Elaine was a little lost, and couldn't help but reminded, "Sister Elaine, the lawyer is waiting in the interview room now, do you want to come over first?"

After she said that, she quickly said, "Sister Elaine, why don't you eat first, it's the same when you're full and then go there. Just let the lawyer wait in the interview room for a while."

Elaine always felt a little uneasy in her heart. What's going on, you have to see James White to know.

So, she stood up and said, "Take me to see him first, otherwise I really can't eat this meal!" With that, Elaine followed the female prison guard to the interview room of the correctional institution.

At this point, New York's most famous criminal lawyer, James White, was already waiting here.

Seeing Elaine come in, he immediately stood up and said in Chinese with great respect, "Hello, Ms. Elaine, we meet again."

Elaine nodded absently, and then asked him, "What's the matter with you coming to me? Is it?"

James White said with a smile, "Ms. Elaine, I came here to tell you good news, the woman who handed you the contraband at the airport has finally been brought to justice!"

"What?!" Elaine blurted out. "Are you talking about Stella?"

James White explained, "That woman's real name is not Stella, her name is..."

Elaine waved his hand impatiently, interrupted him, and said "I don't care what her name is, I just want to know what the state of the matter is now."

James White thought Elaine couldn't wait to get out, so he said excitedly, "According to my NYPD officer The informant reported that the woman has confessed to the police what she did, and the police can basically confirm that you are innocent. However, the police still need to go through some legal procedures. Issue a certificate to prove that you do not know anything about all this, and then issue a document to Bedford Hills Correctional Institution, and then you will be able to regain your freedom."

Elaine hurriedly asked after hearing this. "Then when will they let me out?"

James White looked at the time and replied, "I'm afraid it's a bit boring today, but tomorrow will be fine!"

"Ah?!" Elaine blurted out with a look of disappointment "Then what... can't you let them slow down for a few more days?"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5155

Elaine's words made James White stunned on the spot.

He subconsciously asked, "Ms. Elaine, what do you mean by a few days later?"

Elaine said angrily, "A few days later means literally, just let them be a few days later, don't be so anxious!"

James White's whole body immediately embarrassed, he really couldn't understand why Elaine made such a strange request.

Confused, he couldn't help but ask, "Ms. Elaine, I'm a little confused, don't you want me to get you out of here as soon as possible? Why don't you want to go out now?"

Elaine said seriously, "Don't hide it. You said, I have fallen in love with here, the people here are very friendly, and I have made a lot of friends here. If I leave like this, it is estimated that many people will never meet again in this life, after all, I am not Americans, we will go back to China in a while."

In fact, Elaine has no real friends here at all, and some are just some flatterers from all over the world.

These people are respectful and flattering to Elaine every day, and even make her feel like a queen.

It is not easy for ordinary people to experience this kind of feeling. After all, the free world has always been a place where there are people outside the world, and it is difficult to find the feeling of being self-reliant.

But in a small environment like a prison, it is relatively easy to implement.

So Elaine also knew very well that if he left Bedford Hills Correctional Institution, he would never be able to find this kind of self-serving experience.

James White was also a little confused at this time. He really couldn't figure out why Elaine fell in love with this ghost place.

So, he said embarrassingly, "Ms. Elaine, this matter is not up to you and me now. In this matter, it all depends on the efficiency of the New York police. If they are efficient enough, you will be released soon. Of course, if they're slow enough, maybe you can stay here for a few more days."

Elaine suddenly thought of something, and quickly said to James White, "By the way, aren't you invited by my son-in-law's client? Then can you ask my son-in-law's client to help me with the police, so that they don't let me go for the time being? Go out, wait another 10 days or so, just let me out!"

Because Stella has already arrived at the case, Elaine is equivalent to taking a reassurance pill.

Although she had been very comfortable here before, she was somewhat worried, what if she couldn't get out by herself?

Prison life is fun, and it's fun to be a ghost in Bedford Hills, but it's all based on experiencing life.

If she really can't get out, so that this kind of life becomes normal, then she can't stand it.

But now I can be completely relieved, Stella has arrived at the case, and his grievances have been washed away, so he can leave whenever he wants.

That being the case, she would prefer to stay at ease for a few more days.

James White was a little embarrassed at this time, but he had a goal of not letting customers down with anything, so he immediately agreed and said, "Ms. Elaine, don't worry, I will definitely help you convey this matter!"

Elaine slightly He breathed a sigh of relief and said, "Then don't forget, I'll be waiting for your good news."

The first thing James White did when he left Bedford Hills Correctional Institution was to immediately take out his cell phone. I called Jian, the old man of the Fei family.

On the phone, he reported Elaine's strange performance to Jian one by one, and Jian hurriedly conveyed Elaine's demands to charlie word for word.

When charlie was on the phone and heard Mr. Fei say that Elaine didn't want to leave the prison for the time being, he himself felt dumbfounded.

He really didn't expect that his mother-in-law would be addicted to squatting in prison.

It seemed that Elaine had a really good life at Bedford Hill Correctional Institution.

At this time, Jian on the other end of the phone said respectfully, "Mr. Wade, it's not too difficult to keep your mother-in-law in Bedford Hill Correctional Institution. I can call my friends in the judicial department. Say hello."

charlie said without thinking at this time, "Forget it, don't bother, let her be released from prison tomorrow."

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5156

In fact, charlie didn't want to let Elaine out so early, after all, he I don't really hope to see Elaine's face every day.

However, he also has to consider the feelings of his wife Claire. He has been away from Providence for some time. During this time, his wife goes to school and lives alone, and he has to worry about Elaine in prison. Life is also a bit torturous.

Although she was 100% sure that she could bring Elaine out at any time, in Claire's view, even if she was more sure of what she said, she would still feel insecure.

After all, from her point of view, her mother was framed this time and stabbed out a big basket, and she might be sentenced to life imprisonment for the slightest carelessness, so she could not reassure herself completely before her mother was released from prison.

charlie didn't want Claire to continue to worry, so he planned to let Elaine come out tomorrow, and then take her to Providence, so that Claire could feel at ease as soon as possible.

Right now, at Bedford Hills Correctional Facility.

Since Elaine met James White, her mood has become uneasy.

When she returned to the restaurant, she lost her appetite even for the tomato and egg braised noodles that the prison guards had carefully prepared for her.

A group of people saw that she couldn't give up, and they quickly asked, "Sister Elaine, what's wrong with you? Is there something wrong?"

Elaine shook her head dejectedly, and said, "It's nothing, you don't have to worry about it."

Elaine But I don't want to tell them that I might be leaving soon.

In that case, it is estimated that many of them will celebrate with the crown.

Even inmates in other cells will celebrate the departure of Bedford Hills in private.

Therefore, Elaine decided not to say a word, and let every second he stayed in the Bedford Hills Correctional Institution be the fearful Bedford Hills.

However, in order to ensure that she could stay in prison for a few more days, she used the public phone in the playground to call charlie when she was in the air.

After charlie connected, Elaine hurriedly said on the other end of the phone, "Good son-in-law, it's Mom!"

charlie said politely, "Mom, how are you doing these two days?"

Elaine said repeatedly, "Okay, okay, okay. Very, Mom called you just to tell you not to worry about Mom, Mom is okay inside."

charlie snorted and said, "That's good, by the way Mom, I heard that the suspect who lied to you has been arrested. It's here, I believe you will be out soon."

Elaine hurriedly said, "Good son-in-law, Mom, you are calling to talk about this matter, can you help Mom to tell your client and ask him to help find a relationship. , Don't let Mom go out so early, Mom doesn't want to go now..."

charlie pretended to be curious and asked, "Mom, what's wrong with you? You finally have a chance to regain your freedom, why don't you want to come out?"

Elaine said hesitantly, "That... Mom made some friends in it, and I'm quite speculative with these people, I want to stay with them for a few more days! charlie, I don't care! You can You must help Mom find a way!"

charlie said vaguely, "Okay, then I'll give it a try, but I'm not sure it will work."

Elaine reminded, "It must work! If you can't help Mom, then Immediately after Mom goes out, give the prison guard a big mouth to see if she can be locked in again!"

charlie smiled helplessly, "Okay, okay, I'll help you think of a way to make you satisfied."

"It's almost the same!"

After receiving charlie's promise, Elaine hung up the phone contentedly.

However, charlie didn't have any idea of helping Elaine get his wish.

He directly sent a voice message to Abbas, which said, "Abbas, all the people you arranged at Bedford Hills Correctional Institution can be evacuated. Find a way for them to complete their evacuation tomorrow when they are out at noon."

Abbas immediately replied with a message, "Okay, Mr. Wade, this subordinate will make arrangements!"
