

Chapter 5171 The Amazing Son In Law

Nyla, who just beat Elaine violently, never dreamed that Abelone, who had just been released from prison on the front foot, was sent back!

At this moment, she was completely frightened!

She has seen the strength of these three people. As long as they are here, no one at the Bedford Hills Correctional Institution will be able to overturn the sky.

Even if Mandy comes back, it can't be their opponent...

This also means that the act of hitting Elaine to vote for Mandina is simply going to be blind!

She was so frightened, she quickly knelt on the ground with a thud, and said tearfully, "Sister Elaine, I'm sorry, Sister Elaine, I really didn't mean it... I... I'm completely obsessed, Sister Elaine..."

Elaine hated mad After seeing this woman, she gritted her teeth and said, "You have the f*cking face to say that you didn't mean it! I, Elaine, have lived so old, and I have never seen a shameless person like you!"

After speaking, she looked at Abelone and choked up. He said, "Abelone, you must be the master for me, and you can't let her go!"

Abelone said without hesitation, "Sister Elaine, don't worry, I hate the trash that is duplicitous and revengeful in my life! Don't take all three of their legs. Interrupt, my surname is not Chen!"

Nyla was so frightened that her face was pale, she knelt on the ground and kept slapping herself, while crying and said, "Sister Elaine...Please don't have the same knowledge as me, Sister Elaine...I was wrong Lan. Sister...you just forgive me this time..."

Nyla's two servants were also extremely frightened at this time, and they all knelt on the ground and kept begging for mercy.

At this time, the three of them also regretted the original. They thought that Elaine lost power, but they never thought that they would turn over so quickly.

Those who were watching the excitement on the playground, and even those who were waiting to attack Elaine, were dumbfounded at this time.

While they resented that Elaine's backer had returned, they were also glad in their hearts. Fortunately, they held back and did not rush to do it, otherwise, they would definitely be hammered to death by these three women.

Elaine was naturally furious in her heart, and she wished she could break the legs of these women with her own hands.

But when he thought that he had to go to the doctor immediately, he could only explain to Abelone, "Abelone, don't let them go! As long as they are here for a day, don't let them feel better!"

Abelone said without hesitation. "Don't worry, Sister Elaine!"

After speaking, she deliberately asked, "Sister Elaine, are you... going to be released from prison?"

"Ah? Me?" At this moment, Elaine suddenly hesitated.

When Abelone and the others were away, Elaine wanted to leave ten thousand, wishing to grow a pair of wings and fly directly out of this purgatory.

However, now that Abelone is back, she feels a little sad about Bedford Hills Correctional Institution.

After all, she experienced the pinnacle of her life here.

That feeling of being alone made her very high.

At this time, Charlie looked at his mother-in-law from a distance from a height, and was a little curious in his heart. He wondered whether his mother-in-law could have a long memory.

If she sees Abelone coming back and decides to stay out of prison for the time being, it will be hopeless.

After a few ideological struggles, Elaine said with difficulty, "Yeah Abelone...I...I'm going to be released from prison..."

Abelone smiled slightly, nodded and said, "Sister Elaine, don't worry, you can get out of prison, these rubbish, I will help you teach a lesson, if you still have someone who needs to be taught a lesson, just tell me the name of the person, and I will solve it!"
When

Chapter 5172 The Amazing Son In Law

Elaine heard this, he nodded vigorously and blurted out, “Abelone, come back After the prison, you must teach me a good lesson to Chloe and Jessica, you just left at noon, these two bastards turned against me, you must not let them go!”

Abelone solemnly promised “” Don’t worry, Sister Elaine, as long as we are here for one day, they will not have a good life!”

At this time, the prison guard on the side said to Elaine, “Sister Elaine, I think you should go to the infirmary with me first, and let the doctor check whether your injury is serious!”

Elaine felt that her right leg was aching. I couldn’t help choking and said, “Can it be serious, my leg seems to be broken again...”

After speaking, Elaine quickly asked her, “Can you take me to the hospital? By the way, give me back my mobile phone, I want to give it to me. Son-in-law, make a call...” The prison guard said, “Your son-in-law has already arrived and is waiting outside to pick you up from prison.”

“Really?” Elaine said with great relief, “Quick, take me out to meet him! The prison guard hurriedly found a colleague, and the two carried Elaine away from the playground together.

What made Elaine extremely gratified was that before she could go far, she heard the tragic wailing from Nyla and the others behind her.

Listening to the screams of those people, Elaine’s mood was a little relieved.

At this time, charlie was already waiting in the family meeting area of Bedford Hill Correctional Institution.

Soon, Elaine, with a bruised nose and a swollen face, was carried by the prison guards into a wheelchair and pushed out. The moment he saw charlie, Elaine burst into tears and said, “Good son-in-law, my mother’s leg was broken again. What can I do...”

charlie shook his head helplessly.

He didn’t expect that those Chinese women would be so ruthless when they hit Elaine.

However, this is indeed Elaine’s own fault. If she knows how to accept it when she sees it, and go out happily when she is ready to release her for the first time, this fight will naturally be avoided.

So, charlie could only say, "Mom, then I'll take you to the hospital first! You have to look at your legs as soon as possible, so as not to leave any sequelae." When

Elaine heard this, she nodded quickly and said, "Yes, yes, yes. , go to the hospital, my leg has broken too many times, if I don't recover well, it will be troublesome if I become a lame..."

charlie then asked the prison guards for help, put Elaine into the car, and then drove to New York City. At the same time, he did not forget to take out his mobile phone and send a message to Jian, asking him about the location of Fei's hospital, and planning to take Elaine sent it over for a simple treatment.

At this time, Elaine was sitting in the back seat, crying and saying, "Good son-in-law, Mom really regrets it! If I knew there would be today, Mom just got out of prison in a hurry yesterday, it's good, this leg I won't be able to land in a month or two... You say my life is so hard!"

charlie asked inexplicably, "Mom, is this prison so comfortable? You don't want to go in. I'm out."

Elaine said angrily, "Didn't Mom tell you the truth on the phone, the main thing is that Mom met a few Chinese girls who were particularly good at fighting. They covered me, and I was in Bedford Hills. No one dares to provoke me, anyone who sees me has to respectfully call me Sister Elaine, that would not be more enjoyable..."

charlie sneered, and said seriously, "Mom, do you know what kind of person can get away from the casino? Did you make money?"

Elaine shook his head, and asked curiously, "Is it the old man?"

"No." charlie said lightly, "It is the person who knows how to stop the profit in time to make money from the casino, as long as you are still there. In a casino, you must understand a truth. Money in a casino is not money, but a pile of worthless plastic chips. Only by exchanging the winning plastic chips into cash and walking out of the casino door can it be called winning money. If you choose to stay in the casino, you will probably lose all your chips in the end, and even take in all the money you had when you came."

After speaking, charlie added, "It's the same for you, you are in Bedford. Deshan is covered. After a few days, no one dares to be addicted to it. This is the net profit. At this time, when the time is right, you should quickly stop the profit and put your money in the pocket. Otherwise, it is very likely that you will lose money. You have to spit it out with profit."

Elaine was stunned for a moment, and said with an annoyed expression, "Good son-in-law, you are right! Why didn't Mom want to understand this truth! I should have understood this truth earlier, I would have done it by now. Jumping around outside..."

Chapter 5173 The Amazing Son In Law

charlie didn't care about Elaine's awakening at this time.

He just pondered in his heart that if Elaine was like this now, if he brought him back to Providence, Claire would definitely feel distressed when he saw it.

Moreover, this Elaine's leg is broken again, and most of her self-care ability has been lost. If she is brought back, who will take care of her daily life?

Claire still has to attend classes, and it is inconvenient to take care of her by herself, so the best way is to let her stay in New York for treatment.

However, there are still two problems, one is how to make Elaine willingly stay in New York, and the other is how to explain to his wife Claire.

But the top priority is to send Elaine to the hospital for treatment first. Although she has a leg injury, half a blood-scattering pill can make her live and live, but charlie still feels that it is somewhat wasteful to use the pill on Elaine. .

So, charlie drove Elaine to the Fei family's private hospital.

Because Jian had greeted him in advance, the hospital was waiting in full force. As soon as Elaine arrived, he was carefully lifted out of the car by several nurses, and then pushed to the orthopaedic treatment room in a wheelchair.

A group of orthopedic specialists surrounded Elaine and used all kinds of professional means to treat her, which made Elaine regain the feeling of being a ghost in Bedford Hill Correctional Institution.

After the doctor's diagnosis, although Elaine's right leg has a certain fracture, it is not too serious and does not require surgical treatment, but still needs to be immobilized in a plaster cast, combined with drug treatment and self-cultivation.

Later, in order to allow Elaine to rest better, they directly arranged Elaine in the best ward, and its interior luxury was much more upscale than a suite in a luxury hotel.

Several nurses gently moved Elaine onto the hospital bed and adjusted it to the most comfortable angle for her, and then one of the nurses said to Elaine, "Ms. Elaine, wait a moment, I'll get you some fruits and vegetables. Dim sum, you need to replenish your physical strength first."

“Okay, okay! It’s really hard for you!” Elaine was in a much better state because of the use of an analgesic pump. In addition, she was lying on a comfortable hospital bed. She was finally able to smile again.

The female nurse said respectfully, “Ms. Elaine, you are welcome, this is what I should do.”

After the female nurse went out, Elaine couldn’t help sighing to charlie while looking at the luxurious surroundings, “Good son-in-law, The hardware conditions of the hospital are also very good. This ward must be at least 100 square meters, right? How can such a luxurious ward not cost more than a thousand dollars a day?!”

charlie smiled and said, “Mom, this hospital is opened by my client’s own home. , he has already said that your treatment here will not cost you a penny, and you will definitely be provided with the best doctors, nurses, and wards.”

“No money?!” Elaine was stunned and blurted out. “Mom, it’s really cool to live in such a tall ward without spending a penny!”

Just after speaking, the female nurse knocked on the door and came in, bringing a plate of very beautiful fruit and desserts.

She put all the food on the small table in front of Elaine, and said respectfully, “Ms. Elaine, please have some fruit snacks first, and I want to introduce to you that the screen at the head of your bed is actually a touch screen, which contains An ordering interface, you can choose the meal you like on it, and we will deliver it to you as soon as possible.”

Chapter 5174 The Amazing Son In Law

Elaine said in surprise, “Mom, so sweet? Let me see what you all have delicious food. Yes .”

Then, she opened the ordering interface and exclaimed, “Chinese food, French food, Japanese food, Italian food... Oh my God, you have so many menus... There aren’t many menus here in general hotels, right? ?” The nurse nodded and said, “We have many Michelin restaurants that cooperate with us. Generally, after you choose, the restaurant will deliver your order within an hour, so you should place your order a little in advance to avoid waiting too long. “

Elaine asked quickly, “Why isn’t there a price on it? I don’t dare to order it without a price. If this meal costs several thousand dollars, wouldn’t the family be bankrupt...”

Female nurse He explained, "Ms. Elaine, what you are in is the top ward of our hospital. Generally, this is for the internal use of our president's family members, so you don't need to pay for everything when you live here."

"My god, it's free??" Elaine asked in surprise and joy, "Then are there any desserts, drinks, perfumes, skin care sa, are these also free?!"

"Yes." The female nurse Nodding his head, "All available services are free. You can order whatever you like. If there is something that is not suitable for your current physical condition, we will give you a professional advice."

Elaine said excitedly, "Okay. OK, then I'll study it carefully later!" The female nurse bowed slightly, "Then you can ring the bell whenever you need something, and I'll be on standby at the nurse center next door to you."

After the female nurse left the ward, Elaine looked at charlie, With a look of admiration, he said, "You have to be my good son-in-law! That's why you have such great skills! In such a good place, it costs nothing to see a doctor and stay in hospital, nor to spend money on food and drink! If there is no time limit, I will I can live here until my 80th birthday!"

After speaking, Elaine hesitated for a moment, and then asked experimentally, "Good son-in-law, do you think Mom can live here, take a good rest, and not go to Provi for the time being? Dens."

charlie didn't expect that Elaine would take the initiative not to return to Providence, so he agreed without hesitation and said, "Actually, I also think it would be better for you to stay here, because there are the best Doctors and nurses who can give you the best treatment and care 24 hours a day than going to Providence Much more, after all, there is no one in Providence who can take care of you 24/7. "

Elaine nodded again and again, and said seriously, "Anyway, you don't need to spend money here, and there are people waiting for you. Such a big advantage, it doesn't take any money!" With that said, Elaine said again, "Oh, yes, Claire's course is estimated to have only a week left. By then, you will definitely be leaving from New York. In my opinion, it is better for me to live here alone." While recuperating, you go to Providence to accompany Claire first, and after Claire graduates, the two of you will come to New York to pick me up, and we will go back to Jinling together.

charlie nodded and said, "This arrangement is quite good, but the only problem is that Claire has always been worried about you. She has to let her know that you are out of prison before she can relax, and she can't let her know. " Your leg is injured, otherwise, she will definitely come to New York to see you as soon as possible. "

"That's easy!" Elaine said without hesitation, "I called Claire in a while and said that I had been released from prison, and then I met a very close inmate in prison. The inmate invited me to play in New York for a few days, so I won't go back yet. When you come from Providence to New York, I'll tell her the truth. Charlie thought that Elaine's idea was a good idea, so he said, "

Okay, if that's the case, then please call Claire.

Elaine took out her cell phone, charged it for a while and turned it on, then called Claire as soon as possible.

Claire had just returned to the hotel from school and suddenly saw her mother's cell phone. No. called myself, the whole person was startled at first, and then realized that my mother was probably out of prison, so I immediately answered the phone, and asked excitedly, "Mom, is that you? ! "

Elaine said quickly, "It's mother, Claire!" Mom wants to tell you good news, Mom has been released from prison! "
