

Chapter 5175 The Amazing Son In Law

Hearing that Elaine said that he had been released from prison, Claire immediately breathed a sigh of relief and said excitedly, "Mom, where are you now? Has charlie contacted you?"

Elaine hurriedly said, "charlie is right in front of me. Well, it was he who helped me find a relationship that released me."

Claire was very happy, and quickly said, "Mom, then hurry back with charlie, you don't know how worried I am during this time. You!"

Elaine pursed her lips and said embarrassedly, "That... Claire... Mom doesn't want to go to Providence anymore, that place is really boring, it's better to stay in New York for a few days, just as my mom met in prison. I have a friend, we came out on the same day, and she invited me to stay in New York for a few days." When Claire heard this, she refused almost without hesitation, "Mom, you must never trust anyone outside. , How did you get into the prison, haven't you figured it out yet? Those people outside don't really want to be friends with you, they only have a plan to approach you!"

Elaine explained, "Oh, it's not the first time. Of course, the friend that my mother met in prison is a very real person, and like mother, she was only admitted to the prison after being framed by the gangsters." After speaking

, Elaine moved out of the story of the compatriot she met in the prison. , exclaimed, "Do you know how this sister got into prison? You may not believe it when you say it, it's because you sell hairy crabs to Chinese compatriots in the United States, and as a result, there is a stupid dog who didn't buy it. He was sent to prison and fined a lot of money! How can there be such a bad person in this world?"

Claire also did not understand, but she was still a little worried and said, "Mom , you finally got out of prison, I really don't worry that you are in New York alone, otherwise you should listen to me and come back to Providence with charlie!"

Elaine said firmly, "Aiya , Claire! Do you believe it? There is absolutely no problem with looking at people this time. Just be careful. What else can your mother deceive people now?"

After speaking, Elaine was afraid that Claire would not agree, so he Stubbornly said, "Anyway, I have promised my sister that I will have a good time in New York for a few days!"

Claire was helpless, so he said, "Mom, then give charlie the phone!"

“Okay.” Elaine hurriedly handed the phone to charlie, and then winked at him.

charlie answered the phone and said, “Hello, wife.”

Claire on the other end of the phone asked, “Husband, have you seen the friend Mom said? Is it reliable?”

In order to cooperate with Elaine, charlie, He could only say casually, “I see, it’s quite reliable, and I also asked customers to help me in New York. Mom must be fine here, so don’t worry.” After hearing charlie’s words, Claire was relieved . After a sigh of relief, he said helplessly, “Okay, with my mother’s character, as long as it’s something she decides, even eight horses can’t pull it back. Since you think it’s reliable, then I won’t argue with her...”

Said Then, Claire said again, “Husband, this time is really too hard for you, thank you for all the troubles caused by my mother!”

charlie smiled and said softly, “Wife, you and I Do I still need to be so polite? Besides, your mother is my mother-in-law, this is my duty.”

Claire hummed softly and asked him, “Husband, when are you going to come back? ?”

charlie thought to himself that his current mission in New York had been completed, and it was time to go back to accompany Claire, so he opened his mouth and said, “I will go back later, it will be a few hours’ drive.”

Claire reminded Said, “By the way, husband, don’t forget to thank your customer. They must have been worried about helping them these days. Why don’t they invite them to dinner at night. If you have enough time, wait until you have eaten before driving back. , it’s fine to come back early tomorrow morning, we can’t let others think we’ve lost our manners.”

charlie didn’t plan to invite Jian to dinner, but since Claire said so, he planned to go to Don Albert and Isaac Cameron first. Let them stay at Shangri-La in New York for the time being.

So, he said to Claire, “Good wife, then I’ll make arrangements and go back as soon as possible.”

charlie hung up the phone and said to Elaine, “Mom, you are here to rest for a few days. I’ll go meet the client, and then go back to accompany Claire.”

“Go, go!” Elaine smiled and said, “Mom will definitely be taken care of here, you and Claire don’t have to worry about mom!”

charlie naturally didn't worry about Elaine.

Chapter 5176 The Amazing Son In Law

The treatment given to Elaine by Jian's hospital is basically the highest level that only core members of the Fei family can enjoy.

Elaine recuperating here will definitely make her feel that her broken leg is worth the money.

So, charlie said goodbye to Elaine and prepared to go to Shangri-La Hotel.

But just as he got into the car, he suddenly received a call.

To his surprise, the caller turned out to be Li Yalin, who had just returned home to reunite with his family two days ago.

charlie answered the phone and asked curiously, "Why did Inspector Li call me at this time? Shouldn't you be with your family in Houston?"

Li Yalin sneered, and said, "Master wade, I'm in New York, and I made an appointment for the evening. The flight is going to the Middle East to Syria, so I want to ask if you are still in New York, if you are still in New York, I would like to meet you and chat face-to-face."

charlie was a little surprised, he did not plan to let Li Yalin, so soon So I put myself into the work of investigating that mysterious organization.

After all, he is also a person who has been shut out of the gate of hell for a while. At this time, he would definitely prefer to spend more time with his family.

Therefore, charlie gave him at least a week to reunite with his family.

But it was full of calculations, and it was only two or three days ago that Li Yalin had already arrived in New York.

However, charlie didn't ask too much on the phone, but said very readily, "If that's the case, let's meet at Shangri-La."

Li Yalin said without hesitation, "Okay, Young Master wade, then I'll rush over now. Talk to you!"

charlie arrived at Shangri-La first.

When he first arrived in the presidential suite, Don Albert hurried to report, "Master wade, that Inspector Li is here."

charlie nodded, "Let him come in."

Don Albert hurriedly invited Li Yalin, who was dressed in casual clothes. Come in.

When he saw charlie, Li Yalin bowed his hands to him with respect, and said respectfully, "Master wade, we meet again!"

charlie smiled slightly, pointed to the sofa in front of him, and said, "Inspector Li, please sit down, no. Have you been given more than a week to reunite with your family in Houston? Why are you ready to go to Syria so soon?"

Li Yalin laughed at himself and sighed, "My daughter and son-in-law are busy watching cars and houses every day, and I don't have much time to accompany me, neither do I. I don't want to continue to waste time in Houston, I plan to go to Syria first, meet the live porter you caught last time, and get to know the details."

charlie saw that Li Yalin's expression was a little lonely, he smiled knowingly, and said, "Inspector Li, People have seven emotions and six desires, and material desire is one of the most important ones. People work hard to make money and want a better life, and material desire accounts for at least more than half of them. It is not a bad thing for young people to pursue material desire and enjoy life. You don't have to care too much."

"Yes..." Li Yalin sighed and nodded helplessly, he also knew that charlie was right, but he was still a little disappointed.

charlie persuaded him, then changed the subject and asked, "Inspector Li, have you thought about where you want to start to investigate that mysterious organization this time? According to the confession I got before, this mysterious organization's Information protection is extremely strict, and it may not be easy to find their clues."

Li Yalin admitted "I have thought about this issue carefully these days, and they have hidden the relevant clues very well. Whether it's the dead soldiers or your little aunt's family, basically nothing is left behind that has any substantial relationship with this mysterious organization. The clue, as you told me, those dead men have worked for this organization for hundreds of years, but they don't even know where they are

. Said, "However, I think we can narrow it down a little bit from a large scale. For example, we can first find a way to investigate, which of the seven continents the dead soldiers are stationed in, and which state is locked, and then find a way to go further. Refinement."

charlie sighed, "I'm afraid it's not that simple to determine which of the seven continents they are in. After all, these dead men have been in darkness for so many years, and they haven't found any clues themselves."

Li Yalin was confident. He said, "As long as the job you caught has a high degree of cooperation and a good memory, then I have the opportunity to lock in the approximate range with him."

Then, he further explained, "Master wade, no matter if they are hidden, No matter how hidden they are, they can't get rid of the influence of major geological disasters. If an earthquake occurs, they will definitely feel it. For every detectable earthquake that occurs in the world, the relevant departments also have a clear Records."

"So, the problem now is that they must remember how many earthquakes they could feel, but the problem is that they don't have an accurate timeline, and they don't have outside information to corroborate them.

" He took out a printed document, handed it to charlie, and said, "Master wade, this is the major natural disasters that have occurred all over the world in the past 20 years based on my statistics in the past two days, among which the severe tsunami, Earthquakes and typhoons are the main ones, if you can roughly match the other party's memory, then every memory he has will become a piece of coordinates, as long as there are enough coordinates, you can help me find their approximate location."

charlie asked tentatively. "Is it like the so-called communication base station positioning?"

"That's right!" Li Yalin nodded heavily and said, "That's what it means! Each time they correspond to the last major disaster, their scope can be reduced to a certain extent. If they can correspond to the Indonesian tsunami, it proves that the area they are in is in Within the coverage of the Indonesian tsunami, if they can still correspond to the Japanese tsunami in the past 11 years, then the area where they are located is in the overlapping part of the coverage of the two tsunamis. In this way, the more clues you find, the better the positioning. Accurate."

charlie couldn't help but admire, "Detective Li is indeed a famous Chinese detective in the United States. You can think of this method. It seems that it is only a matter of time before you find out their specific whereabouts!"
