

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5187 -

Chapter 5187

“Nordic?”

Hearing the word “Nordic”, the first person that came to Charlie’s mind was Helena Iliad, who had just been crowned by the new king.

So, Charlie asked Abbas, “How far is the Bergen you said from the Nordic capital of Osu?”

Abbas replied, “About 400 kilometers.”

Charlie heard this and felt a little relieved.

Four hundred kilometers, it seems that the target of the mysterious organization’s operation this time should have nothing to do with Helena.

Immediately, he opened his mouth and said, “Since it took off from Cyprus, there is a high probability that it has nothing to do with the location of May 47. It may be another batch of dead soldiers.”

After speaking, Charlie asked Abbas, “Abbas, Boeing How long does it take for the 777 to fly from Cyprus to Bergen?”

Abbas hurriedly said, “Mr. Wade, wait a moment, I’ll check the map.” After that, he checked the computer for a while, and said, “Mr. Wade, the route distance is about 4,000 kilometers. Left and right, including take-off and landing, it is estimated that the whole journey will take nearly five hours.”

“Five hours.” Charlie nodded and muttered, “What if I fly from New York to the Nordic capital of Osu?”

Abbas marked on the map After leaving the distance, he opened his mouth and said, “Mr. Wade, it is about 6,000 kilometers, and the civil aviation flight takes seven and a half hours.”

Charlie said lightly, “6,000 kilometers, if you let the Concorde fly, it will be two and a half hours, and then fly from Austria. If Sucheng goes there by helicopter, it will take one and a half hours to get to Bergen... It seems that there is still plenty of time.”

Abbas exclaimed, “Mr. Wade, are you planning to go to Northern Europe?”

charlie laughed. That's right, I plan to meet them in the past and steal him by the way, but just to be cautious, I plan to use the Concorde to fly to Osu, the capital of northern Europe, and then transfer to Bergen by helicopter, but my speed Faster, it will definitely reach Bergen one step earlier than them."

Abbas hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade, their plane will take off in 4 hours, and the straight-line distance between Cyprus and Syria is only more than 300 kilometers. If my subordinates fly over from Syria, they will not be much farther than them. , why don't your subordinates rush over now, arrive at Osu City ahead of time to meet you and help you."

charlie thought for a while, and said, "Breaking the army, if the other party is still like last time in New York, he will definitely let him die first. The soldiers fell into a coma, and then smuggled them to Northern Europe, which means that they must have a support in Northern Europe, except for the people on the plane, so they must not be shocked at the beginning." After that, charlie said again, " However, if you really make a move at that time, you will really need someone to clean up the battlefield. So, you bring 20 elite soldiers and prepare to take off immediately. First, fly directly to Osu City. After you arrive at Osu City, immediately disperse and hide on the spot. , Wait for my order, if I need you to deal with the aftermath, I will contact you at that time, if I don't contact you, you will play in Osu City for two days, and then evacuate one after another."

Abbas immediately said respectfully, "Okay. Mr. Wade, I will arrange it and leave immediately!"

In charlie's opinion, since he just caught up with the other party's action, he must go to find out the truth.

Although it is impossible for this mysterious organization and the express company under their command to know that they have been exposed, for the sake of prudence, charlie still intends to use the Nordic capital Osu City to hide the itinerary and clues.

After all, there will be records of plane flights and personal entry. Although it is impossible for the other party to know that they have been exposed, once the number of damages is too many, they will definitely notice the abnormality.

If they turn around at that time, they will carefully investigate the relevant clues before and after each mission failure, and then follow the clues to find the culprit.

If there is a person as meticulous as Li Yalin in the opponent's camp, it is very likely that the clues will be focused on himself.

Therefore, out of prudence, Charlie planned to ask Helena, who was already firmly seated as the Nordic Queen, to do a favor.

Helena, the Nordic queen, and the Nordic royal family behind her are only the mascots of the Nordic people, but the royal family is the royal family after all. Even if the monarchy is already constitutional, the royal family still has some privileges.

Therefore, Charlie planned to fly himself and the soldiers of Wanlong Hall to Aosu City first, and let Helena use the royal channel to send her to Bergen quietly, and then send Abbas and Abbas if necessary. Others were sent along.

In this way, all the official records of everyone going from Osu City to Bergen can be hidden, and the clues can be completely disconnected. This should not be difficult for Helena.

So, Charlie hung up the phone and called Helena again.

At this moment, Helena, who is located in northern Europe, just got out of a special school accompanied by the royal housekeeper and got into her own car.

Recently, Helena has been working hard to increase her exposure in front of the Nordic people, so she frequently organizes and participates in various charitable activities. Today's activity is to go to a special school to visit the disabled children there.

Helena, who had just finished the activity, was sitting a little tired in the royal car. She was thinking of taking the opportunity to close her eyes and rest for a while, when the personal mobile phone in her handbag suddenly vibrated.

She took out her mobile phone and found that it was Charlie who called. Her exhaustion was instantly swept away, and her expression immediately became a little bit expectant and ashamed.

Helena pressed the answer button and said excitedly, "Hello, Mr. Wade!"

"Helena." Charlie asked with a smile, "Did the phone call bother you at this time?"

Helena quickly said, "Why, Mr. Wade! It's not a nuisance when you call at any time!"

"That's good." Charlie went straight to the point "Helena, I'm calling, I want to ask you for help."

Helena said without hesitation, "Mr. Wade, please tell me."

charlie asked her, "If I fly directly to Osu City tonight , can you arrange a helicopter to send me to Bergen without leaving any traces?"

Helena asked in surprise, "Mr. Wade, are you coming to Osu City?!"

charlie hummed and said, " The main purpose is to go to Bergen, but you need to take a turn in Osu City, but you can't leave any traces for verification."

Helena immediately said without thinking, "The Nordic royal family has a palace in Bergen, and I happen to be going to Bergen. Attending a charity event, if you fly to Bergen with me, you will definitely not leave any traces, not even the helicopter I am in will leave any flight records."

charlie did not expect Helena to I went to Bergen, so I asked her, "When are you leaving?"

Helena replied, "I can do it any time, as long as I can be in Bergen tomorrow."

After that, she asked charlie, "Mr. Wade, what time do you have? To Osu City?"

charlie looked at the time and said, "I will take off from Providence in about three hours and arrive at Osu City in two and a half hours."

Helena said, "That's almost the time of Osu City. It's ten o'clock in the evening, and I will wait for you at Osu City! If you are not in a hurry, you can go to Bergen immediately, you can stay in the palace for one night, if you are in a hurry, we can fly over by helicopter overnight."

charlie said immediately "Then go right over there!"
