

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5217 -

Chapter 2844 The best solution

Helena 's voice was soft and sad.

However, charlie, who was sleeping soundly in front of her, still didn't respond.

At this time, charlie was almost completely cut off from the outside world.

Seeing that charlie didn't respond in the slightest, Helena's sadness in her heart was suddenly magnified rapidly.

The tears she shed when she looked at charlie were already on the line.

She stroked charlie's face lightly, choking with sobs in a low voice: "I can see that from the first day I met you, you have been keeping a distance from me. In your heart, I must be a very realistic, very profit-seeking, Even for a woman who will do anything for her superior..."

"If I just had s*x with you without you knowing anything, and at the same time I was lucky enough to conceive your child, you must Will you look down on me even more?"

"Even, you may be full of discrimination and prejudice against our children because you look down on me..."

"If I fail to conceive your child, then you may look down on me because you look down on me." Me, I will stay away from me in this life, and I will never see me again, right?"

Having said that, Helena wiped away her tears and said firmly: "No...I will not deepen this feeling for you again. An opportunity for a wrong perception... Absolutely not! Life is still early, I will definitely use an aboveboard method to let you change your wrong perception of me, and let you know that, except for my poor mother , The only thing I really care about in this world is you!"

After that, Helena bent down again, kissed charlie's lips lightly, and curled up in his arms like a kitten.

Helena, who was hiding in charlie's arms, couldn't help laughing out loud, and said, "I want to hold you and sleep for an hour. Promise me, don't wake up for this hour, so that I can wake up decently." out of here."

After finishing speaking, she put her face on charlie's heart, and slowly closed her eyes.

At this moment, Helena felt that she was the happiest woman in the world.

However, the only regret is that because she was afraid that charlie would wake up earlier than herself, Helena didn't dare to let herself fall asleep completely. Although she was full of happiness, she was somewhat cautious and apprehensive.

In charlie's arms, she fell asleep for nearly an hour, half dreaming and half awake.

This hour is the most satisfying hour since she was an adult.

Seeing that the clock on the wall had pointed to the position of nine o'clock, she got off the bed softly, and put on her clothes again with gentle movements, then tidy up the half of the bed where I slept, and pinch the hair that accidentally fell on charlie's arms.

After doing all this, she stared at charlie, kissed him again uncontrollably, then reluctantly walked out of the room, and closed the door carefully again.....

It was almost noon when charlie slowly opened his eyes.

He felt that he had experienced the longest but most peaceful sleep since he had memory.

Although this sleep did not significantly replenish his aura, it did greatly improve his spirit.

He slowly got up from the bed, stretched his arms wantonly and stretched his body, and suddenly felt that there was a very familiar fragrance on his body.

This smell is the same as the fragrance on Helena's body.

Although charlie had smelled this fragrance when he first entered this room and even when he was lying on the bed, he clearly felt that the fragrance on his body now was even stronger than when he was lying on this bed. , The fragrance already on this bed is even stronger.

charlie also knew very well in his heart that things like fragrance are constantly being worn out, and now the smell is stronger than before, which only means that this smell has been replenished in the middle of his sleep.

Thinking of this, charlie subconsciously stretched his hand into the quilt on the other side of the bed, and could clearly feel that there was still a slight residual warmth in the quilt on the other side where no one was sleeping.

At this moment, charlie suddenly realized something. He lifted the quilt subconsciously, looked down at his underwear, and was slightly relieved when he found that the underwear was still in good condition.

At this time, charlie had already realized that Helena It must have come when I was asleep, and even slept next to me.

The scent on his body, as well as the residual temperature in the bed on the other side, pointed the evidence to her.

charlie didn't understand why Helena sneaked into his bed when he was asleep, but after some consideration, he decided to pretend he didn't know anything about it.

In charlie's view, doing this is the best solution. On the one hand, it can alleviate the embarrassment between the two, and on the other hand, it can prevent this matter from continuing to have any further consequences.

After making up his mind, charlie got up from the bed.

At this time, there is still very little spiritual energy left in the body.

Since the aura that can be absorbed by nature is extremely scarce, if you want to supplement it by absorbing aura from nature, it may be difficult to return to the previous state in a year or so, so charlie took out another Peiyuan Pill to be on the safe side. Let me know first is quickly replenished.

So, he sat cross-legged on the carpet, took out a Peiyuan Pill from his pocket, and put it in his mouth with great distress.

In an instant, the elixir turned into rich aura, which continuously gathered in the body.

However, what surprised charlie was that the aura in his body could be fully replenished with a single Peiyuan Pill.

However, after yesterday's frequent and rapid consumption and replenishment of spiritual energy, the Peiyuan Pill that he just took had only replenished 80% of his spiritual energy.

charlie thought to himself: "It seems that frequent extreme states are not a bad thing, just like athletes can gradually surpass themselves in high-intensity training, I can also pass through this high-intensity state To increase your upper limit, if the upper limit of aura in the body can be doubled, the overall strength will also be greatly increased!"

Thinking of this, charlie couldn't help but feel melancholy.

After all, the Peiyuan Pill was too precious, once it was exhausted and no new pills could be replenished, it would be very difficult for him to replenish his aura.

This is also doomed that he cannot frequently use this extreme state to continuously increase his upper limit.

Afterwards, charlie stood up, walked into the bathroom in the bedroom and took a shower.

When he came out of the bedroom with wet hair, Helena was taking a nap on the sofa in the living room.

Hearing charlie's movement, she quickly opened her eyes, and seeing charlie had come out, she felt nervous for a while.

In order not to be seen by charlie, she hurriedly asked charlie respectfully: "Mr. Wade, are you sleeping well?"

charlie saw that Helena's cheeks were already flushed just as she spoke, and her heart became more firm in her speculation. .

However, he still decided to pretend to be stupid to make this matter turn over smoothly, so he said casually: "I slept very well, I haven't slept so well for a long time."

Helena was indeed relieved when she heard charlie's words. He hurriedly said: "It's already noon now, you must be hungry, do you want to go to the restaurant to have something to eat?"

"Okay." charlie nodded and said: "If you have no other arrangements, you will go back to Austria after dinner." Sioux City, it's time for me to go back to the United States."

Helena suddenly said with some reluctance: "Mr. Wade, are you in such a hurry to go back? You arrived in the early morning, and you haven't stayed in Northern Europe for ten hours."

charlie smiled slightly, and said casually: "My wife is alone in the United States, and I still want to go back to accompany her as soon as possible, not to mention that everything here has been settled, and I have to withdraw as soon as possible to avoid long nights and dreams.
