

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5219 -

Hearing that charlie mentioned that he wanted to go back to accompany his wife, Helena unconsciously showed a bit of envy and loneliness.

Recalling what she did just now, Helena couldn't help feeling a little ashamed.

However, she was also thankful in her heart that she hadn't done anything too outrageous before, otherwise she might be self-defeating and completely ruin all possibilities with charlie.

Thinking of this, although she was reluctant to let charlie leave Northern Europe so soon, she still nodded very simply and said, "Mr. Wade, let's go downstairs for dinner first, I will arrange the helicopter to get ready, and we will return to Aosu City after dinner."

"Okay." charlie nodded slightly, and walked out of the room with Helena.

When he was beside Helena, charlie smelled the special fragrance from her body again, which was the same as when he woke up.

However, charlie still decided to pretend to be stupid to the end, and let this matter remain in the hearts of the two of them.

Later, he and Helena came to the restaurant together, remembering the failure of the palace, he said, "By the way, Helena, let the wade family's team responsible for the global Shangri-La hotel project help the Nordic royal family to repair this palace. , all the expenses will be borne by the Wade family."

Helena shook her head quickly when she heard this, and said, "Mr. It's not that I'm really penniless. The main reason is that there are a lot of places where money is needed recently. I want to prioritize and spend the money on things that can improve the reputation and influence of the royal family in the early stage. The palace is not very useful, and there is no need to immediately Make repairs."

charlie waved his hand and said, "After all, you and the Wade family had a relationship, and it is reasonable for the Wade family to help you, and the Shangri-La Hotel of the Wade family has not yet opened in Northern Europe. I want to take this opportunity to let the Wade family enter In the Nordic market, investing in hotels in several important Nordic cities, helping the Nordic royal family to renovate their palaces, is also a publicity for the Wade family's hotel, the best of both worlds."

Helena said a little helplessly, "But...but..."

charlie said calmly, "You don't need to say anything, but I will let Isaac Cameron discuss the specific matters with you later."

Seeing charlie's insistence, Helena nodded lightly and said gratefully, "Thank you, Mr. Wade..."

charlie Smiling slightly, he said again, "By the way, there may be some dangerous factors in Northern Europe during this period. Although there is a high probability that it will not have anything to do with you, but just to be on the safe side, I will ask Abbas to keep a few soldiers with European faces for us." As a bodyguard, you should be prepared, and you should try not to make public appearances outside of Osu City recently, especially don't come to Bergen again in a short time."

Helena nodded slightly, and said, "I listen to Mr. Wade."

At the same time, a Boeing 777 landed at Gothenburg International Airport in Sweden.

The plane took off from Nigeria and arrived in Gothenburg after more than seven hours of flying.

According to the application received by the civil aviation department, the plane belonging to Singapore Yuantai International Express took off from Nigeria empty, and came to Gothenburg to volunteer to help charities in Nigeria. In the hands of humanitarian organizations, they received a batch of charitable supplies.

This batch of charitable materials includes food, medicine, clothing, and some water purification devices, all of which are very scarce for the poor in Nigeria.

At this moment, this batch of goods is still waiting in line to pass through the airport security check, and the person responsible for sending this batch of goods through the security check is the member of this humanitarian organization.

And this humanitarian organization is well-known in Sweden and even the world. On the surface, they are a non-profit humanitarian and charitable organization, but in fact, its real background is that the mysterious organization that charlie is investigating is planted in Sweden and even in the whole of Europe. A bridgehead to the north.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5220 -

Usually, this humanitarian organization actively organizes charitable activities, calling on people to pay attention to the third world, environmental protection and global warming, but once the organization needs it, this organization can immediately respond quickly in central and northern Europe, covering the four northern countries of Europe, and Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania are across the sea from Sweden.

Unlike other espionage and non-governmental organizations, which are extremely low-key, this humanitarian organization usually has a high-profile style of work. Not only does it often use the media to hype itself, it even launched a god-making movement in the field of environmental protection.

A Swedish environmental protection girl who was once popular all over the world is a marionette supported and manipulated by them behind the scenes. They made a seventeen-year-old girl stand in front of people all over the world and call for human beings to shut down factories and Cars, trains, airplanes and ships seem absurd, but they have gained a large number of fans around the world.

And the reason why this organization acts so high-profile, even extremely aggressive, is to be able to achieve sufficient deterrence in the area covered by their mission.

This kind of deterrence will not only make the big companies of these European countries shy away from them, but even the governments and functional departments of these European countries are quite afraid of them.

This is the benefit of standing on the moral high ground. With this moral aura, they can use morality as a weapon to attack anyone they want to attack.

If they want a certain company to shut down, they will organize a large number of people to rush to the door of the company to protest. If they want the government to pass or reject a certain bill, they will organize a group of people to march on the street.

In short, as long as the four characters "Guardian of Morality" are written on the forehead, basically everything will be beneficial.

It is precisely because of this special aura that they have extraordinary convenience in Europe. According to the usual tactics of this organization, if certain prohibited items need to be transported by air, this organization is used under the guise of charitable goods, and then specially Choose a more urgent time window to request rapid clearance from the airport and customs. In this way, exceptExcept that the aircraft cannon cannot be carried on the aircraft, there are almost no problems in the others.

Therefore, according to their plan, after the Xiaoqi guards successfully captured Lin Waner (Alani), they would hand over Lin Waner (Alani) and her personal servants to the linker of this humanitarian organization, and the linker would hide them in charity supplies and quickly pass through customs, Ship to the plane.

After the plane landed, the captain immediately reported to his superiors through a special channel, "The postman has arrived in Gothenburg. When will the goods arrive?" In the special encrypted communication channel, a man's serious voice came out, "Xiaoqiguard is out." They were supposed to change vehicles at the border between Northern Europe and Sweden four hours ago and continue to meet you in Gothenburg, but they haven't shown up until now."

The captain exclaimed, and blurted out, "Master Viscount, You said Xiao Qiwei is missing?!" The other party said, "It seems so." The captain asked subconsciously, "This...is this the same as the black swan incident in New York?!"

The entire army of dead soldiers in New York was wiped out , disappearing from the world, is defined as a rare black swan event by the organization, almost all members have learned of the defeat, and the British Lord has internally asked everyone to learn from this black swan event.

Hearing this, the person on the other end of the phone said coldly, "I can't be sure yet, but I want to remind you not to speculate." The captain was stunned, and quickly ended the topic, saying solemnly, "Then if they don't show up At the border, what should I do here? Should I continue to wait, or request to return immediately? The loading time given to me by the airport is only three hours. If I can't take off after three hours, I'm afraid the original deployment will be disrupted."

"Wait." The other party said firmly, "The British Lord has an order. You wait for the knight guards in Gothenburg for three hours. If you don't see anyone for three hours, start plan b." The captain said without thinking, "Wait for three hours, obey! "

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5221 -

This moment.

In the car park outside the cargo area of Gothenburg Airport.

The head of a humanitarian organization is sitting in the co-pilot of a truck waiting anxiously.

This time, a total of three truckloads of supplies were destined for Nigeria.

According to the original schedule, Xiao Qiwei should have driven the person to the airport in a special transport vehicle at this time, and then they took them into the airport together, and then urged the customs to quickly release the target person to the plane.

In order to ensure that the person can be successfully sent through the customs this time, the person in charge of the humanitarian organization specially called their trump card, the once world-renowned environmental protection girl, and prepared to take her with him to ensure that this mission can go smoothly. Finish.

However, until now, they have not received any information about Xiaoqiwei.

After waiting for another half an hour, there was still no news, and the above only asked them to continue waiting.

The person in charge had no choice but to sit on the truck and watch the time go by little by little. At this time, the driver of the truck behind jumped out of the car, knocked on the co-pilot's door, and asked respectfully, "My lord, can I come up and talk?"

on the bed.

The driver below quickly climbed into the co-pilot seat, and respectfully said to the person in charge, "My lord, Lolita said that she doesn't want to wait any longer..."

"What do you mean?" The person in charge frowned and asked, "What do you mean she doesn't want to wait?" Going down?!"

The driver said helplessly, "She asked me to convey to you that she made an appointment with her classmates this afternoon to have her hair done and sa, and if it doesn't finish in 20 minutes, she will leave first."

"Damn it!" The person in charge was furious and scolded, "She is a brat, dare to talk to me like that?! Does it mean that after becoming an environmental protection star, she doesn't know her last name anymore?!"

The driver said awkwardly, "My lord Baron, you know her behavior style. She usually thinks of what she thinks of. Besides, she doesn't know the actual situation of our humanitarian organization, and she thinks she is the spiritual leader of this organization..." The person in charge He gritted his teeth and said, "Go and tell her that you have to wait here for three hours anyway, and tell her that I donated materials to Nigeria this time. I invited a lot of media, just to give her a detailed report." The driver couldn't laugh or cry. Said, "Lord Baron, I have already told her about this, but she didn't pay attention to it at all. She said that the only European media she liked before was the BBC, but since Brexit, there is no her in the whole of Europe." She can look up to the media, and she also said that she almost won the Nobel Prize. If n and bbc come to interview, she can barely give some face, and she won't talk about anything else..."

"Damn she thought Who is she? If it weren't for us to support her, package her, and operate her behind the scenes, she would be just a useless middle school student who cut classes every day, didn't understand bullshit, and couldn't even get a pass in the f*cking final exam! Now She is a bit famous, and she even played a big game with me, don't you really know how much she weighs?!" The driver said helplessly, "Master Baron, the most urgent task now is to let her stay, otherwise if she really walks away, we have nothing to do. The solution..." The person in charge pondered for a long time angrily, and then said in a cold voice, "Tell her, as long as she cooperates well today, I will give her a Hermes Himalaya afterwards."

"Okay!" The driver nodded and hurried He turned around and got out of the car, and returned to his car.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5222 -

On the co-pilot, a girl with a somewhat ferocious expression was holding her mobile phone and playing a game in battle royale mode. At this time, she was actively killing in the game.

Seeing the driver coming up, she raised her eyelids, stared at the phone again, and smelled "Is it done? I'm leaving in fifteen minutes." The driver quickly said, "The president said, today's event It's very important and meaningful..."

The girl interrupted him directly, and said coldly, "I am passionate about environmental protection, not charity. This kind of activity itself is not the type I like. If you ask me to protest against Asians using chopsticks, Europeans flying, I can be more patient in protesting against Americans driving cars."

At this point, the girl said arrogantly, "What's more, besides Nigerians, who else will pay attention to helping Nigeria? With this time, I might as well go to the United Nations Climate Change Conference to organize protests. My father said that the media all over the world will pay attention to the news of the United Nations and developed countries. News from third-world countries like Nigeria will never make headlines in the Western world. "The driver was dumbfounded, and at the same time extremely annoyed.

However, the matter was so important that he could only patiently say, "The president said, as long as you cooperate well, he will give you a Hermès Himalaya." The girl immediately moved her eyes away from the phone screen and stared at the driver. Surprised and asked, "Really?! Himalayan crocodile skin from Hermes? Are you lying to me?" The driver assured, "Of course not! The president always keeps his word." The girl immediately changed her attitude, He said with a smile, "Then tell him, as long as he does what he says, I am willing to wait until night!"

Just as everyone was anxiously waiting for the Xiaoqiguard to land, a plane took off from the Nordic capital Osu City Airport and headed to Syria.

Abbas has already brought his own men, and the seven knight guards who took refuge in him, and returned to the base of Wanlongdian in Syria.

Soon, another half an hour passed, and there was still no news from Xiao Qiwei.

Seeing that the scheduled time had been exceeded, the person in charge picked up the satellite phone and called his upline.

And his upline, and the pilot's upline, are the same person.

The person answered the phone and asked in a cold tone, "What's the matter?" The person in charge hurriedly said, "Master Viscount, I'm running out of time. I'm afraid I can't wait too long. The pilot has a three-hour time window, but my time window Only one and a half hours, calculated according to the fastest speed of the airport process, I must leave at least one and a half hours to go through the security check and loading process, otherwise it will affect the departure time of the plane!"

Known as the Viscount The adult's man was also very anxious, and blurted out, "Five hours ago, when the Xiaoqiwei didn't show up at the docking point, the higher-ups had already sent a connector to Bergen to investigate. There should be news soon. If there is no latest order issued Before, everyone stood by!"

At the same time.

An old Volvo off-road vehicle drove from Sweden, after several hours of trekking, it stopped in front of the country house where Lin Wan'er (Alani) lived before.

The window of the driver's cab was put down, and a man sat in the driver's cab, carefully observing the villa.

Although it is already afternoon, there is no movement in this villa, and there is no sign of anyone working in the surrounding farms.

He took out the satellite phone and said to the phone, "Master Viscount, I didn't see anyone here. There are still a few cars parked outside the door. It seems that there are traces of hasty cleaning. Do you need me to go in and have a look?" ?" On the other end of the phone, the Viscount's voice came, "Put on the camera, and Ying can see the real-time video!"

"Okay!" The man immediately took out a portable camera from the armrest box, and pinned the camera on the left side of his shirt On the outside of the pocket, after turning it on, he asked respectfully, "Master Viscount, can you see the real-time video over there?" The other party said coldly, "Yes, you can go in and have a look right now!"
