

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5223 -

The man in the Volvo driver's seat, after wearing the real-time transmission camera, opened the door and got out of the car.

After confirming that there were no people or vehicles passing by, he used the lock picking tool to skillfully pry open the door.

In fact, the house Lin Wan'er (Alani) lives in has, in addition to the ordinary door lock, a hidden deadbolt hidden on the top and bottom of the door frame, and a whole set of Internet of Things control system has been upgraded for the door lock.

Under normal circumstances, whether she was sleeping or going out, she would use her mobile phone to lock the hidden deadbolt. This kind of door lock that can only be unlocked through the Internet, even the best locksmith can't break it.

However, when Lin Wan'er (Alani) and her personal servants evacuated this time, they intentionally did not open the hidden bolt, which made it easy for this person to slip into the room.

At the same time, in many corners of the world, the hero of the mysterious organization, and the four earls who are second only to the hero in power, are watching the real-time transmission in front of the screen.

When the man entered the room, the corpses of many of Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s bodyguards suddenly appeared on the ground. The man didn't seem surprised to see so many corpses. Instead, he approached and reported, "It seems that there was a gun battle here, but These corpses are not from Xiaoqiwei, they should be the other party's bodyguards."

As he spoke, he followed the traces all the way to the study, and found another corpse on the floor of the study.

He immediately stepped forward, and when he saw the face of the corpse, he was startled for a moment, and blurted out, "It's the commander of the Xiao cavalry!"

The voice of the viscount immediately came from the earphones, "Check what happened to him?" Die!"

The man immediately bent down, checked the commander's eyelids and the corpse spots on his neck and hands, and said, "He must have died of poisoning..."

As he spoke, he opened the commander's teeth, The fangs that had been crushed were suddenly found in the mouth, and he immediately added, "It seems that the commander made him commit suicide by crushing the fangs."

The viscount immediately asked, "Where are the other Xiao cavalry guards?! There were eight Xiao cavalry guards sent out this time. Why did he die alone?! Where are the others?" I searched all over, but unfortunately, I didn't find any clues of Xiaoqiguard members at the scene.

So, the man asked, "Master Viscount, is there anything else you need me to do?"

Before the Viscount could speak, a voice that had been processed by a voice changer and had a horribly low voice came from the earphone, "Go back to the study! Go to the desk and have a look!"

The man was startled by the voice.

It was the first time he heard such a cold voice, which made people feel a little creepy.

However, the next moment he realized that this voice was probably the mysterious hero!

He suddenly became nervous, and stammered, "Okay... okay... I... I'll go..."

After finishing speaking, he hurriedly stumbled back to the study.

When he came to the quaint desk, he suddenly found that there was a pair of calligraphy written with a brush on the desk.

He looked down and found that there were only eight characters in this calligraphy work: "The ring has been discarded, and it is useless to chase after it.

" What does it mean, but he also happens to be a calligraphy lover, so he can see that the brush calligraphy is imitated by Wang Xizhi's cursive script, and the writing is round and graceful, and at the same time vigorous and powerful, and every stroke is worthy of Call it impeccable.

If such eight characters are used in today's calligraphy world, they will definitely "be the top of the mountain and see all the mountains and small mountains at a glance"!

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5224 -

The only thing that doesn't match the painting style is that at the end of the eight characters, there is actually a smiling face drawn with a brush.

Although the lines of this smiling face are simple, they are very vivid, and it is even obvious that there is a bit of contempt in that smile.

Just when he was indulging in the impeccability of these eight characters, the deep voice that had been changed suddenly came from the earphone, and he seemed to be very angry and growled, "What a Lin Wan'er (Alani)! Damn it! Damn it!" After saying that, he He roared furiously, "Blow it up for me!"

The man was a little surprised, and subconsciously asked, "Blow it up? Blow up what?"

With a bang, the impact of the high explosives shattered the entire desk into pieces, and the calligraphy written on the rice paper was instantly burned to ashes by the high temperature generated by the explosion.

And the man who came to investigate, before he could figure out what was going on, he felt a sudden sharp pain in his heart, and he flew upside down and died directly in Huangquan!

His death was horrific, the explosives blew a big hole in his heart, and his face also maintained an expression of extreme fear.

He will never know until he dies that he will die in the hands of the portable video camera he wears with him.

The structure of this portable camera is very ingenious. At least half of the internal volume is used to fill high explosives, and a miniature detonator is installed in the explosives. The remote control only needs to use the original communication network and the camera's built-in Lithium battery, just can control detonator to detonate at any time.

The reason why this kind of equipment was developed and assigned to members of the organization is to kill people and destroy corpses when necessary.

At this time, the camera after the explosion caused flames in many places in the room.

The entire interior of the camera is made of flammable materials. After the special plastic shell is burned at high temperature, it will form a viscous object with high viscosity like asphalt, and its flame can last for a long time.

At this time, the damaged desks, wooden floors, and curtains made of chemical fibers were all stained by the sticky matter produced during the explosion, and the sticky matter carried flames, so the fireThe situation quickly intensified.

A few minutes later, a raging fire was already ignited in the study, and the flames gushed out from the study, and then completely ignited the entire villa.

When the neighbors saw that the house was on fire, the fire was completely out of control. Someone called the fire alarm, but this place was relatively remote, and it took the fire engine nearly half an hour to arrive. When the fire engine arrived at the scene, the scene was dead Almost burned to ashes.

And because the main frame of the house here is a wooden structure, when the fire burned to the later stage, the whole villa collapsed instantly and became a ruin.

The firefighters at the scene began to inspect the scene after the open fire was extinguished, but they did not expect to find many charred bodies among the ruins.

For a while, the Bergen police were shocked, and immediately sealed off the scene, ready to investigate.

However, although this case has just happened, it is already destined to be a no-nonsense case, because the registered identities of the people who died here and those who used to live here are all false identities!

At the same time, on a heavy-duty container ship that has already left Northern Europe and headed for Vladivostok, Russia, Lin Wan'er (Alani) is in a cabin that has been carefully remodeled like a hotel suite, and her servant is standing respectfully beside her. behind.

In front of her, there was a huge monitor, and the frozen picture on the monitor was the appearance of her study being ignited by a raging fire.

This picture was captured and transmitted through the pinhole camera hidden in the wall directly in front of her desk.

She manipulated the progress bar with a smile on her face, and went back to a few minutes ago in the video. When she saw the camera on the man's chest suddenly exploded, she couldn't help chuckling and said, "It's boring, I'm getting angry now."

The servant on the side endured She couldn't stop asking, "Miss, do you think they will believe it?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled narrowly, and said casually, "Anyway, what I'm telling is the truth, they will believe it or not."

Seeing Lin Wan'er (Alani) so calm, the servant couldn't help but feel a little more admiration.

At this time, Lin Wan'er (Alani) asked him, "By the way, how long will it take to get to Vladivostok?" The servant replied, "Miss Hui, let's take the Arctic sea route. At the speed of this ship, it will take about 25 days."

"It's too slow." Lin Wan'er (Alani) Indifferently said, "I'm going to disembark at Murmansk and take a plane to Eastcliff." After that, she asked the servant, "Can I get to Murmansk in four days?" The servant hurriedly said, "It should be possible, but miss, Are you going to Huaxia in such a hurry?"

"Yes!" Lin Wan'er (Alani) nodded firmly, and said seriously, "I can't wait to find that charlie as soon as possible, there must be many interesting secrets in this person."

Saying, Lin Wan'er (Alani) pulled the progress bar and went back to the moment when charlie appeared in her study, looked at charlie in the picture, and muttered curiously, "Tell me, why did he appear in Bergen in such a timely manner?"

charlie appeared As for the leaving video, Lin Wan'er (Alani) has actually watched it many times on the way.

She didn't shy away from her most trusted servant, so although the servant's memory was erased by charlie, through the playback of the surveillance video, she still figured out the whole story.

The servant thought for a while and said, "Miss, I can't remember the situation at that time, but I guess from the video, I don't think he knew anything about your situation, miss. I think he appeared in Bergen, he should be chasing that Several Xiao cavalry guards passed by, and he also promised those Xiao cavalry guards to avenge them, I guess he should have blood feud with that organization."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) nodded and said with emotion, "This should be the most likely guess It 's gone." The servant couldn't help asking her, "Miss, where do you think he will send these knight guards?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) was stunned, and smiled slightly, "I'm also thinking about this question. He said at the time that these Xiao cavalry guards should go to the highest mountain in Osu City to meet his people. I really want to follow the past." The servant couldn't help muttering

, "I just don't know how far his strength is compared with that organization."

The assault rifle that was cut in half by charlie's soul-piercing blade was picked up.

She stroked the cut section with her fingers that was so neat that there was almost no burr, and murmured, "I don't know his overall strength, but his personal strength is really strong. Even with modern equipment, it is impossible." Cutting this gun like this, I think his aura has already achieved a little bit, if he can go further in the future, the future must be limitless." The servant asked her, "Miss, speaking of this gun, do you have so many priceless ones?" The antique calligraphy and paintings were not brought out, so why did they bring out this gun?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said calmly, "You have seen what happened just now, their people disappeared while chasing me, then they will definitely send someone over to investigate; "

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5226 -

"Before they saw this gun, they would not have thought about how the Xiaoqiwei missed it. They might think that the Xiaoqiwei was just not prepared enough and was dealt with by the people around me; "

"However, if When they see this gun... then the situation will be different!"

"In this world, there are only a handful of people who can do this, as long as they see this gun, they will realize that there is already a strong enemy, And this formidable enemy possesses spiritual energy."

"There are very few people possessing spiritual energy. In that case, once Charlie reveals his strength, the opponent will immediately lock him in, which will bring him a lot of trouble." trouble." The servant couldn't help sighing, "He's so strong, why didn't he think of this..."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled and said, "The strength is the strength, but the real combat experience should not be rich enough, otherwise, I won't let me Get away under his nose."

Gothenburg, Sweden.

Since they had already obtained the video data of the Bergen scene and saw the eight characters written by Lin Wan'er (Alani) herself, the mysterious organization behind it immediately realized that this mission had completely failed, and Lin Wan'er (Alani) must have escaped long ago.

Although the British Lord was furious, he could only order an early end to this mission that had completely failed.

So, the head of the team who was waiting for Xiaoqiwei outside the gate of Gothenburg Airport received a call from the Viscount.

On the phone, the other party said in a dejected tone, "Don't wait any longer, let's start sending the goods into the customs now, and let it take off normally." The person in charge exclaimed, "Master Viscount, what happened to the Xiaoqiguard?"

The Viscount said in a cold tone, "The eight knight guards have been wiped out, and the target has already escaped. The Lord has his life, and the plan is terminated." The person in charge couldn't help but secretly stunned. The failure of a small place really caught him by surprise.

However, he knows the rules in the organization, there are multiple sets of preparatory plans for everything, success has a successful follow-up plan, and failure has a failed follow-up plan.

According to the current situation, although Xiao Qiwei encountered problems and failed to reach Gothenburg, but in order not to reveal his identity and the pilot, the air transportation task that should be completed still needs to be completed. A plane that has been waiting for a long time, carrying these materials back to Nigeria, in order to prevent someone from finding out the problem through the abnormal empty load of the plane after checking this line.

However, now that the mission of Xiaoqiwei has failed, the target person he was originally responsible for transshipment naturally no longer exists, so there is no need for the environmental protection girl Lolita.

So, he immediately sent a message to his subordinates, telling Lolita to leave in just six words!

The driver who said all the good things to Lolita in the last second, after receiving this message, immediately said to Lolita with a dark face, "Okay, I'm here today, didn't you make an appointment with a friend? Then you can go back now."

"What?" The girl suddenly asked angrily, "Why do you let me go back now? Didn't you agree that after I finish today's task, I will give me a Hermes Himalaya?" The driver He said coldly, "What you said just now is correct. Media reporters are not interested in matters related to Nigeria, so they didn't come here. The original interview was cancelled, and you are no longer needed here." The girl said angrily, "Do you need it?" It's your problem, I don't care if you need it or not, since you promised me, you must fulfill it! If I can't get my Hermes Himalaya, then I will wait here until I see me the Himalayas!"
