

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5227 -

"You still want the Himalayas?"

The driver snorted coldly, and said contemptuously, "If you want to daydream, get out of the car and go home to do it."

Lolita said angrily, "Obviously you promised me, Why go back on your word?"

The driver said angrily, "You are conditional, after you have completed the matter, and now the matter is gone, you don't need to do it, understand?"

Lolita curled her lips and said coldly He said, "Then I don't care, anyway, you must honor your promises, otherwise I will never end this matter with you!" The driver was about to speak, when the car in front had already started the engine, slowly pulled out of the parking lot, and was about to enter the parking lot. Airport cargo area.

The driver knew in his heart that this was to quickly send the materials transported by these three trucks to the Boeing 777, so that it could be transported back to Nigeria on time, so that no clues would be left on this line.

So, he also started the car, and then said to Lolita, "Get out of the car, don't delay my business."

"I won't get off!" Lolita said with a grim expression, "Let me get out of the car, how dare you! You know me What is your identity?! It's okay if you want me to get out of the car, first tell me when to give me my Himalaya!"

The driver jumped out of the truck furiously, went around to the passenger door, and opened the door directly, and then Like a chick, he lifted Lolita out of the car, then threw her on the ground roughly, and said in a cold voice, "If you want Himalayas, go back to your dad! Say one more nonsense, be careful I'll abolish your dad first tonight!"

After that, he ignored Lolita, turned around and got on the truck, started the vehicle and left the parking lot.

Lolita didn't expect that the other party would become so vicious all of a sudden, and she lost her previous aura in an instant, and she was so scared that she didn't dare to say a word.

She is still young, and although she has been pushed to the fore by this humanitarian organization for a few years, she just speaks and acts according to the requirements of the book, without knowing the underlying reasons and stakes.

She only knows that as long as she does what they ask, she and her family can get a good material foundation, and even be able to use this to enter the upper class.

But she didn't know the real origin of this humanitarian organization.

Some time ago, when Lolita's global reputation was pushed to the peak, she also had the idea of leaving this humanitarian organization and starting her own business.

After all, in her opinion, she is now a well-known figure in the world, has countless fans, and has even been received by many heads of state and praised by them. There is absolutely no need for a higher-level organization to control her.

However, when she mentioned this idea to her father, she was severely reprimanded by her father. Although Lolita was dissatisfied, she did not dare to confront her father directly.

However, now that she has encountered such a rough treatment, in her opinion, it is a good opportunity to break with the other party!

So, she immediately took out her mobile phone and called her father.

As soon as the phone was connected, she cried and said, "Dad! I want to break with them! Never have anything to do with them again!"

Her father was very surprised and asked, "Who are you talking about? What happened? Is something wrong?"

Lolita said angrily, "It's not the human rights organization you're dealing with! They don't respect me at all, and today they asked me to stand for them and promised to give me a Himalayan handbag from Hermes, but they suddenly broke the contract, drove me out of the car!" As she spoke, she continued to say aggrievedly, "Dad! Starting today, I must draw a clear line with these people. From now on, I will be me. What do I want to do with them It has nothing to do with it anymore!"

Lolita thought that her words would make her father feel sorry for her and support the decision she just made, but she never dreamed that her father on the other end of the phone suddenly became furious!

He yelled over the phone, "Lolita, are you crazy? Do you know how you and our whole family got here today?"

Lolita blurted out subconsciously, "Of course I worked hard to get it! I put aside school classes every day, protested everywhere with a sign, and fought for the air everywhere! If it wasn't for my hard work How could our family be where we are today!"

Hearing this, Lolita's father scolded immediately, "Shut up! If they weren't working behind the scenes, even if you dropped out of school at a young age and took to the streets to shout No one will take a second look at you!"

"You have to remember! You can have today because they will help you tailor various marketing scripts behind the scenes, and the media that report on you will not They are the ones who are secretly spending money to operate, and they are the ones who cooperate deeply with the media of various countries to formulate a series of protest directions for you!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5228 -

"Don't forget, even your most famous slogan 'how dare you' is Their planner tailored it for you, otherwise, you thought you could become famous all over the world just by jumping out and shouting a few words?!"

Lolita was a little speechless by her father, After a while, I came back to my senses, and said dissatisfiedly, "So what if they picked me up? I am now a world-renowned environmentalist. My influence is here, and I don't need any support from them anymore." Help can also create a lot of value!"

Lolita's father scolded angrily, "Is there something wrong with your brain? Have you ever thought that when you were picked up by them, you were just a ten-year-old Child, you follow their instructions completely like a marionette. They must have a lot of relevant evidence in their hands. Once you fall out with them, they will immediately reveal all your actual situation. At that time, you We will be ruined! Your mother and I's dream of being in the upper class is also shattered! Our whole family will be beaten back to its original shape, and even fall to the bottom!"

In fact, Lolita's father did not say a word.

Although he didn't know the specific background of this humanitarian organization, he knew that the methods of this organization were very vicious. If he really went against them, he might be killed one day.

Lolita was also taken aback by her father's words at this time. She was simple-minded, but she didn't expect that she had already held countless handles in the other party's hands.

If the other party really exposes these details, then he will definitely lose his reputation and never recover.

The extremely dejected Lolita finally got up silently from the ground, patted the dust off her body, took out a mask from her pocket, put it on, walked to the side of the road, and stopped a car taxi.

The reason why she wears a mask is because she has been calling for environmental protection, and even called on people all over the world not to drive cars. According to her point of view, driving is a crime, not to mention taking a taxi. If you are caught Seeing her take a taxi, I'm afraid it will break her spine.

When Lolita left the airport depressed, the shipment was passing through customs.

Since there is nothing abnormal about these goods, and they are all charitable goods, the clearance speed of the customs is also very fast.

So, the Boeing 777 finally returned to Nigeria at the scheduled time, loaded with a plane full of cargo.

At the same time, on a certain island in this world, a cathedral-like stone building stands majestically on the rock of the island.

What the outside world doesn't know is that this magnificent castle is actually just the tip of the iceberg.

Under the castle, the entire island has been completely hollowed out, and the scale of the internal buildings is more than a hundred times larger than the ground.

At this time, in the central hall of the castle, a luxuriously dressed man in his forties knelt down on one knee, looking at the empty king in front of him.seat, and said respectfully, "My lord! The plane has already withdrawn to Nigeria, and there are no clues for the other seven knight guards." In the huge lobby, the cold and deep voice like a machine immediately came, "Keep looking! We have to dig three feet into the ground, and we have to find them!"

The man clasped his fists above his head and said respectfully, "I obey!"

The Lord's voice came again, "Lin Waner (Alani) must have left Northern Europe, you should send someone immediately Infiltrating into Mongolia, Russia's Far East, Alaska, Canada's Yukon, and Nunavut. This time she was almost caught, and there is a high probability that she will flee to these sparsely populated countries and regions. Maybe she can come One sits and waits!"

The man was slightly startled, and said nervously, "My lord! I have a question, I dare to ask you to answer it!"

The lord said flatly, "Say!"

The man hurriedly said, "My lord, in a short time, We have suffered successive failures. The assassination of Anjia in New York was so carefully planned. In the end, none of the so many dead soldiers we sent came back, and even a single body was not found. It is the same this time when we went to Northern Europe. Wei, they are all top experts, except for the commander who died of taking poison, the whereabouts of all others are unknown, do you think there is any connection behind these two incidents?"

"Contact?" the British Lord asked coldly "Do you think that someone is secretly sniping us?"

The man said, "I can't tell. I just think these two things are too strange. We have definite information on these two things. Lin Waner (Alani), they don't have the strength to resist us, but the result of the incident is that all the troops we sent were lost, which is really unbelievable." The hero said flatly, "The An family is the top family in the public world. To some extent She is a public figure, but Lin Waner (Alani) is a little fox hiding everywhere. Her men usually have no chance to have any contact with the outside world. This time she was able to find her news because she just couldn't help herself. In an antique shop, I bought a piece of blue and white porcelain to reveal my identity, so I don't think there should be any direct connection between them."

The man nodded and said in admiration, "My lord, you have the best solution. You just used some blue and white porcelain to catch Lin Waner (Alani)!"

As he spoke, he quickly asked, "Should we make another batch of top blue and white porcelain, and then put them together?" Put them in antique shops all over the world, waiting for Lin Waner (Alani) to take the bait?" "No need." The Lord Ying said coldly, "Lin Waner (Alani) is the most cunning fox, she will never fall into the same trap twice, no matter how good the blue and white porcelain is, It's impossible to lure her out!"
