

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5261 -

When he came to the top floor with Duan Liye, the middle-aged man brought them into his office.

Along with them came in the young man from the Dark Realm, and those masters from the Bright Realm.

The moment the door closed, the young man came up to Duan Liye first, and suddenly knelt on the ground, kowtowed heavily, and said with a sob, "My lord special envoy, please show me your mercy and save me." There are more than 3,700 of us!" The others immediately followed the young man and knelt down, sobbing, "Master Special Envoy, please be merciful!"

Duan Liye was suddenly caught off guard.

The psychological hint charlie gave him was to let him meet these people according to the usual practice.

However, these people suddenly knelt in front of him and begged him for mercy, which made him a little at a loss as to what to do.

The current Duan Liye is more like a machine that executes orders. If the order is recorded in his system, he can execute it immediately, but if there is no record, he will enter a state of program error.

This is also the biggest disadvantage of psychological suggestion. charlie saw that Duan Liye was down, so he asked, "Are you worried that the British Lord will punish you with the same means that he punished others twenty years ago?"

Horrified!

They didn't expect that the entourage who had always been silent by the special envoy's side would speak up on his own initiative today.

What's more, the fear in their hearts was right at the beginning of their mouths!

Several people looked at each other, and then the young man suddenly realized something, knelt and crawled towards Charlie, choked up and said, "Please forgive my blind eyes for not being able to figure out the identity of the special envoy early, and please forgive the special envoy!" When the others saw this, immediately, they suddenly realized that they all knelt and crawled in front of Charlie, pleading with great reverence, "Please forgive me, my lord special envoy!"

Charlie was slightly taken aback, but soon came back to his senses, and thought to himself, "It seems that these people regard me as a real special envoy." The internal information of the Poqing Society is strictly isolated, and they like to release smoke bombs to the outside world. Just like what Duan Liye said, in those companies controlled by the Po Qinghui, the chairman of the board is generally not the real person in charge, and the person in charge is probably just an inconspicuous assistant or accountant next to the chairman.

Just like this copper mine, when outside, it seems that the middle-aged man is the person in charge here, and the young man is the secretary beside him, but once he arrives in this office, the young man immediately becomes the leader among them, everyone looks up to him.

Therefore, the young man now seems to have misunderstood that he, the special envoy's assistant, is probably the real special envoy.

Seeing these people kneeling in front of him begging, Charlie smiled slightly, and asked, "If the British Lord really decides to kill all of you here, do you dare to resist before you die?"

"Hearing this, the whole person was terrified, and his body trembled uncontrollably.

The young man at the head blurted out in extreme panic, "My lord special envoy, by the gods, this matter is that the subordinate did not do well and failed the trust and expectation of the British lord. Even if the British lord asked the subordinate to die immediately, the subordinate and absolutely no complaints!"

Others immediately said repeatedly, "Willing to die for the Lord!"

Charlie snorted and said contemptuously, "Others will kill you all, and instead of having the slightest sense of resistance, you are like a kneeling on the ground like a slave to show your loyalty, don't you have the slightest bit of blood?" When everyone heard Charlie's questioning like this, they were even more frightened out of their wits!

They thought that Charlie was trying to test them on purpose, how dare they show any disobedience at this time, they kept kowtowing in fright.

And the young man in the lead choked up and said, "Master Special Envoy Mingjian, such a rebellious thing, my subordinates really dare not even think about it..."

Looking at his terrified expression, Charlie could tell that this person was indeed full of fear and had no intention of resisting at all.

However, thinking about the identities of these people carefully, Charlie was not surprised.

After all, according to what Duan Liye said, except for the dead warriors, Xiaoqiwei and their families, most of the other members of the Qing Dynasty Society joined voluntarily.

Especially for those martial artists who are eager to quickly break through their cultivation bases, they join the Poqing Society in order to achieve a leap in cultivation, so there is no deep-rooted hatred between them and the Poqing Society.

And the young man in front of him, his cultivation level is not low, and he is also a Jiedu envoy, responsible for the operation and management of the entire base of dead soldiers, and his level is not low.

Even, he is likely to be trained from the Huben camp.

This kind of person may even be grateful to the Po Qinghui, in addition to obeying what they say.

Therefore, from the bottom of their hearts, they would not want to confront the Poqing Society.

Thinking of this, Charlie lost interest in countermeasures against these people. He looked at them and said lightly, "Bergen's failure, the British Lord is indeed very angry, but the British Lord also knows that the responsibility for this failure is not yours, so you don't have to worry too much."

Hearing this, several people breathed a sigh of relief.

The young man in the lead said gratefully, "Thank you for your magnanimity, Lord Ying, and thank you for your kindness and greatness! We will know our shame and then be brave, and we will devote ourselves to the organization until we die!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5262 -

Charlie nodded and stretched out his hand, patted him on the shoulder lightly, and as a trace of aura entered the other's brain, Charlie said calmly, "Very good, but from now on, you will do whatever I say, understand?" The person's eyes froze, and then he said without thinking, "I understand!"

The people behind him were still a little puzzled at this moment, wondering why the special envoy said such words to Jiedushi.

After all, in the Qing Dynasty, the British Lord is the only supreme existence, and no one is allowed to disobey, let alone offend the superior, but the words of this special envoy seem to want to cultivate his confidants within the organization.

Seeing a few people hesitate, Charlie deliberately sneered and asked, "Why? You guys don't want to be loyal to me like him?"

The middle-aged man said without hesitation, "I only follow the lead of the hero!"

Charlie smiled. Nodding his head, he said lightly, "It's really commendable to be loyal! Seeing that you are so loyal to the British Lord, I can feel relieved."

Charlie's words made a few people feel a little relieved, thinking that Charlie was just testing their attitude towards the hero. Organizational loyalty.

At this time, Charlie walked in front of a few people, stretched out his hands and shook hands with them respectively. After everyone's brains had been transfused with spiritual energy by himself, he cleared his throat and said sharply to them, "From now on! In the beginning, your only mission is to be loyal to me, understand?"

"Understood!" At this time, Charlie had completely completed the psychological suggestion of several people, and agreed respectfully one by one.

After controlling these people, Charlie began to prepare to execute his plan.

Through his understanding of the Poqing Society, he can conclude that the dead soldiers and their families must be full of hatred for the Poqing Society in their hearts.

Therefore, as long as the poison in their bodies can be detoxified, they will definitely be instigated by themselves.

However, the Xiaoqiwei group should be relatively cautious.

Because although the Xiaoqiguards are also born as dead men, after all, some Xiaoqiguards have obtained a relatively free status and have entered the promotion ladder that Poqing will tailor for them, so some people must have turned their hearts towards Poqing. Yes, and decided to rely on my own efforts to make great achievements in the Chaqinghui.

Therefore, Charlie came up with an idea to eliminate rape.

He planned to let these management personnel call the heads of Xiaoqiwei at all levels to come here first, and let them take medicine here intensively.

After they take the medicine, calmly give them a chance to have a direct interview with their "special envoy".

The antidote brought by charlie, as long as these Xiaoqi guards take it, the poison in the body will be disintegrated in an instant. At that time, if anyone keeps a secret from himself after taking the medicine and leaves silently, it must be against him. With reservations.

However, if someone comes to inform me immediately after taking the medicine, then this person's heart must have completely fallen to the Po Qinghui.

Through this method, although it is impossible to determine whether those who have reservations are really at odds with the Poqing Society, at least they can screen out the traitors in the Xiaoqiwei first.

So, he asked the Jiedu envoy, "How many leaders are there at all levels in the Xiaoqiguard?" The Jiedushi said without hesitation, "The Xiaoqiguard has a commander, three banner commanders, nine battalion commanders, and twenty-seven Captain."

After that, he said again, "However, the last mission lost a commander, a battalion commander and two captains."

charlie nodded and said lightly, "Divide the rest into three groups, bring a group of people here first, prepare a room for them next door, and let them take medicine there."

Jiedushi immediately said respectfully, "Your subordinates will arrange it!"

charlie hummed and instructed "After you bring the person, come here to find me."

"Okay!"

Waited for about a few minutes.

The Jiedu Envoy came back in a hurry, and respectfully said to charlie, "Master Special Envoy, the first group of twelve people has arrived, please move to the conference room!"

charlie nodded, wrapped in a black robe, and led by the Jiedu Envoy, came to the huge conference room next door.

In the conference room at this time, there were already twelve middle-aged men who were restless.

These people are all leaders of Xiaoqiwei at all levels.

When charlie stepped in, all of these people looked very nervous.

charlie walked up to the top of the conference table, looked at the twelve warrior guards, and said lightly, "Everyone, thanks to the benevolence of the hero, I specially changed the antidote for all the warrior guards. I called you here today to hope Everyone can try this new medicine first." When they heard that it was a new antidote, everyone's expressions were terrified.

At this time, they were all very surprised.

Because, in their memory, they have never heard of the organization changing new drugs.

charlie then continued to say, "Recently, the situation has changed suddenly. I think you have heard that Xiaoqiwei will face more difficult tasks in the future, so the effect of your medicine for the previous seven days is obviously not enough, so the hero has prepared a new one for you. The antidote, the effect of the new medicine will be extended from seven days to fifteen days."

Hearing this, the twelve people immediately dispelled a lot of doubts in their hearts.

charlie took out the antidote he had prepared, and said lightly, "Everyone will take the medicine here this time. After taking the medicine, I will talk to you one by one next door. At that time, I need you to tell me the truth about your feelings about taking the medicine. I will record it and present it to the Lord of England when I go back!"

Hearing charlie's words, the twelve people dispelled their doubts, and at the same time they were slightly excited.

Originally, the antidote was taken once every seven days, but now it will be extended to fifteen days. For them, this is definitely a good thing to celebrate.

Seeing that the twelve people were eager to try, charlie took out the twelve antidotes and handed them one by one, and said calmly, "Five minutes later, you will meet me in the next office one by one according to the order in which the medicines were distributed.

" Add a sentence: "By the way, the British Lord attaches great importance to this new antidote. During the process of testing the drug, if you have any feelings that are different from the previous antidote, you must give me detailed feedback. If there are major discoveries, I will definitely I will ask the British Lord for your credit!"

Everyone quickly nodded respectfully, then glanced at each other, picked up the antidote together, and put it in their mouths.

charlie didn't stay where he was, but came out of the meeting room directly and closed the door at the same time.

In less than a few tens of seconds, these Xiaoqiguards will realize that this antidote will completely eliminate the poison in their bodies.

At that time, whether they choose to conceal it or choose to inform them will depend on each of them's inner tendency to break the Qing Dynasty.

As soon as charlie returned to the office next door, the twelve people in the conference room immediately noticed something was wrong.

One of them opened his eyes first, and exclaimed in a low voice, "Everyone, how do I feel that the poison in my body has disappeared?! Could it be my illusion?!" The other immediately said, "Mine also disappeared... yes It really disappeared, it should not be an illusion!"

"Me too!" The other person said excitedly, "Everyone, could it be that there is a bug in this new antidote?!"

"It must be!" The person sitting in the middle A man with short hair couldn't hide his excitement and said, "No matter what kind of bug he has, now this antidote has removed the poison in our body, does this mean that we no longer have to listen to it? Will it be under control?"

The man sitting next to him quickly asked, "You don't mean to betray the organization, do you? If you are caught by the organization, you will probably die!"

The short-haired man who spoke just now retorted, "What are you afraid of? This time, we have all changed the antidote, as long as we stop talking nonsense and tell the special envoy that the antidote is not abnormal, then he will definitely give the antidote to other people!" After a pause, the man said again, " Don't forget, we have more than 200 Valiant Cavalry Guards, hundreds of family members in the family area, plus thousands of dead soldiers below the copper mine! If the poison in everyone's body can be completely removed, no matter whether it is Jiedushi Even the guards around him, it is impossible to be the opponent of so many of us, even if the special envoy is added, it is impossible to be stronger than us!"

"At that time, we can completely control them, and then occupy the entire Copper Mine!"

Someone immediately questioned, "What's the point of occupying the entire copper mine? Once the organization knows that this place is out of control, they will definitely send people to encircle us!"

Hearing Charlie's words, the twelve people dispelled their doubts, and at the same time they were slightly excited.

Someone immediately questioned, “What’s the point of occupying the entire copper mine? Once the organization knows that this place is out of control, they will definitely send people to encircle us!

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5264 -

” Don’t forget that they controlled us in the past, relying on the antidote and the poison in our body! Do you think I didn’t want to fight against them for so many years? I am willing to give my life for resisting them, but they don’t give us a chance to fight head-on. As long as they stop supplying the antidote, all of us will die for at most seven days! Speaking of this, he said with a firm expression, “As long as the poison in everyone’s body is detoxified, then we will organize everyone to ask their opinions. If they are willing to resist the organization, then we will use this as a base.” , Fight the organization to the end; if they tend to escape the control of the organization, then we will leave Cyprus overnight and disperse and flee around the world! “

With so many people fleeing at once, even if the organization wants to hunt them down, it may be difficult to catch them. As long as everyone escapes and hides their names as much as possible, I believe that some people will survive and live freely.” ! “

After finishing speaking, he looked around the crowd again, and said impassionedly, “Think about it, everyone, our ancestors fought all the way from the dead to the knights, and they couldn't recover their freedom for hundreds of years. The bug of this new antidote is ours. The best opportunity, and it is a fleeting opportunity! Once they find this bug, then we will have no chance! You really want our future generations to be forever shackled by this unbreakable poison What?!

The short-haired man's words made everyone around him eager to try.

One of them clenched his fist and said through gritted teeth, "Damn it, if we don't seize this opportunity, our descendants will never know what to do next." Toxic control for hundreds of years! Since this opportunity is once in a lifetime, we must seize it no matter what! "

After that, he looked at the short-haired man, and said firmly, "Old Li, just say what you want to do, brother, I will obey your orders from now on!" "

"Yes, Chief Zuo Banner, we all follow your command!" "

Others expressed their opinions one after another.

The short-haired man said happily, "Okay!" Since everyone is willing to fight, let's make a plan first. The most important thing right now is to never let the special envoy know that there is something wrong with the antidote, so when he asks us to meet alone later, everyone must With a unified caliber, he said that no problems or abnormalities were found. In this way, heWe will definitely let the next batch of people come to test the medicine. What we have to do is to hurry up and tell them the situation before they are brought here, so that they will be like us and not reveal any clues! "

As he said, he paused slightly, and continued, "In addition, I guess that special envoy can't be here all the time, waiting for all our Xiaoqiwei to test the medicine, and after more than 30 Xiaoqiwei's leaders at all levels try the medicine, he must The medicine will be distributed to us, and let us distribute the medicine to our respective subordinates, so after everyone goes back, they have to say hello to their respective subordinates quietly in advance.

Everyone immediately nodded and said, "No problem! " We all listen to you! "The short-haired man said again, "I will take advantage of the time when the other two groups of people are testing the medicine one after another, I have to go down to the mine to meet some elders among the dead men, tell them about this, and let them share with us. Fight alongside! Everyone was born as a dead man, and they haven't even had the chance to see the sun so far. I believe that they will seize this rare opportunity with all their strength! "

Everyone immediately agreed without hesitation, because in their view, the short-haired man's plan is highly feasible. According to his plan, everyone will first get rid of the other 20 or so heads of the Xiaoqi guards, and then split up to get rid of the other people under their command. Xiao Qiwei, finally mobilize the dead soldiers. In this way, it will be easy to take down the entire copper mine.

However, these people don't know that everything they just discussed has entered Charlie's words verbatim Ears.

There was an appreciative smile on the corner of his mouth. This person's courage, courage, and strategy are obviously superior to those of the others. More importantly, his hatred for the Po Qinghui has not diminished because he became a Xiaoqiguard. The blood is still there.

At this time, he has become a little clear about the follow-up arrangements after occupying the copper mine.
