

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5265 -

Soon, the first Xiaoqiwei who got the antidote from charlie came to the door of the office. He knocked on the door and said respectfully ,

charlie had noticed him as early as when he first met those twelve people. He looked more like a western face, but he also had some Asian features, so he must be of mixed race.

charlie, who was wrapped in a black robe, was sitting behind a large solid wood desk, looked at the middle-aged man in front of him, and asked, “Have you taken the antidote?”

The middle-aged man quickly said, “Master Special Envoy, Already ate it.”

charlie nodded slightly, and asked again, “How do you feel? Did you find anything unusual?” The middle-aged man said without hesitation, “It feels good, and I didn’t find any abnormalities. I can obviously feel that after taking the medicine this time, there is no abnormality in the body. The suppressing power of the toxin is stronger, so it shouldn’t be a problem if it lasts for fifteen days.”

“Okay.” charlie nodded, smiled playfully, and then asked, “By the way, what position do you hold in the Xiaoqiguard? “

The man immediately said, “Master Special Envoy, the commander of the right banner among the three banners of Xiaoqiwei under his subordinates is in command of the entire right banner.”

“The commander of the right banner.” The man hurriedly said, “Master Special Envoy, it is difficult to verify the lineage of my subordinates. As far as my subordinates know, there are Chinese, Japanese, British, German, Russian, and South American bloodlines. My earliest ancestors They are all Chinese, but since a hundred years ago, many other races have been added to the dead, so the bloodlines have become more and more chaotic.”

charlie was secretly surprised, it seems that after so many years of development, the broken Qing Dynasty, The bloodlines of the dead soldiers have already diversified.

Immediately, he waved his hand to that person and said, "Okay, you go down first, let the next person come in."

The man respectfully said, "Your subordinate obeys!"

Soon, the second person knocked on the door, "Chief Xiaoqiwei Zhongqi please see the special envoy!"

charlie said, and the person hurried into the office.

He closed the door, came in front of charlie, and said respectfully, "I have met the special envoy!"

After finishing speaking, he looked at Jiedushi and others standing motionless beside him, and respectfully saluted the commander, "I have met Jiedu!" Your Excellency!"

charlie asked him, "Have you taken the antidote?"

The man hurriedly said, "Go back to Mr. Special Envoy, the subordinate has already taken the antidote!"

After finishing speaking, he hurriedly lowered his voice, and said flatteringly, "Mr. Special Envoy, My subordinates have two important things to report to you!"

charlie raised his eyebrows, and said calmly, "You can tell me anything."

The man hurriedly said, "The first thing is, there is something wrong with this medicine!"

charlie was curious Asked, "What's the problem with the medicine?"

The man explained, "Master Special Envoy, after taking this new antidote, all the toxins in the body disappeared!"

charlie pretended to be surprised and scolded, "It's really It's nonsense, the new antidote is specially prepared by the British Lord for you, in order to extend the interval between each dose of your medicine, so that you can complete more difficult tasks, its function is to make the time for the toxins in your body to attack From 7 days to 15 days, how can you make all your toxins disappear?"

The man said anxiously, "My lord special envoy, everything you said is true, not only the toxins in your body disappeared, The toxins of the other 11 people are no longer there!"

As he said that, the man said, "This will involve the second matter that my subordinates want to report to you. Just now, Li Nianzong, the leader of the Left Banner, has called on us to take the opportunity to seize the copper mine. Control, and even want us to fight against the organization, if you don't kill them as soon as possible, they will probably lead all the knight guards and dead soldiers to completely launch a rebellion!"

charlie paused for a moment, and then asked curiously, "Why did you tell me this? Don't you ever think about getting out of the organization's control?"

When the man heard this, he thought charlie was deliberately probing His loyalty turned pale with fright, and he quickly waved his hand and explained, "Please be clear, my lord, this subordinate is devoted to the organization wholeheartedly, and has absolutely no intention of betraying him! Besides, this subordinate has been able to step up to today and become the central banner here." The boss, it's all the opportunities given by the organization, and the subordinates would rather die than betray the organization!"

charlie smiled and said, "They all said that although the Xiaoqiwei and the dead soldiers obeyed the organization's orders, they were full of love for the organization. Hatred, always wanting to get out of the control of the organization, and now it seems that this is not the case."

The man immediately stepped forward, bowed deeply at ninety degrees, put his fists on the top of his head, and respectfully said, "Master Special Envoy, can this subordinate Today, it is also the result of the joint efforts of many ancestors of the subordinates, how can the subordinates live up to their efforts of so many generations and so many years."

charlie laughed and said, "Haha! You are indeed a malleable talent! To tell you the truth He said, what I asked you to try this time is not a new antidote at all. It is a new poison specially prepared by the British Lord to test your loyalty. At first glance, this poison seems to completely remove the poison in your body Toxin, but in fact, he just let the toxin be temporarily hidden, in order to test who of you has the intention of betraying the organization, and who is loyal to the organization! The man's expression was horrified, but it was quickly replaced by a kind of uncontrollable excitement and excitement.

He couldn't hide his joy, and blurted out, "I was still wondering just now. With the sage of the British Lord, how could it be possible to prepare Such an antidote to the opposite, I did not expect the old man Yingzhu to be so wise! "

charlie nodded, and said lightly, "I'm not going to hide it from you, the British Lord has always known that most of you knight guards and dead soldiers lack loyalty to the British Lord, and are even full of hatred. It's not that I want to find out those traitors who intend to betray, but I want to use this method to dig out your plastic talent! "

Speaking, charlie said again, "Don't worry, I will definitely report your performance today to the hero, and I believe that the hero will reward you for your merits, and maybe I will promote you to be a knight. Commander! "

The man was suddenly ecstatic, knelt on the ground with a plop, kowtowed and said, "Thank you, Mr. Special Envoy, for your support!" " charlie stretched out his hand to signal him to get up, then continued to trick him, and asked with a smile, "As far as you know, how many people like you are truly loyal to the organization among the Xiaoqiguards?" "

The man thought for a while, and said, "I can be sure that there are not many people, but there are at least a dozen of them!" They are all loyal to the organization, and they all hope that through their own efforts, they and their families will be more valued by the organization. "

" Good! "charlie nodded, and said, "After you go out from here, don't let the other eleven people see any clues, and then you go to people who you think will never betray the organization, and quietly tell them the antidote." Let them hold the towel in their left hand when they take the medicine later, so that I can recognize it at a glance, and remember not to leak any information. "

The man blurted out without thinking, "Don't worry, Mr. Special Envoy, this subordinate will do it now!" "

The third person to enter the office was the short-haired man who mobilized the other cavalry guards to take the opportunity to resist.

charlie recognized his voice when he said the phrase "Chief Xiaoqiwei Zuoqi begs to see the special envoy" at the door.

So, from the moment he entered the door, charlie was watching his every move.

This man is about forty years old. Although he has a popular face, there is an unconcealable heroism between his brows.

Seeing charlie, he bowed slightly, and said as a matter of routine, "Master Special Envoy, I have tried the new antidote you gave me, and found nothing abnormal."

charlie smiled slightly and asked him, "What's your name? "The short-haired man didn't know why charlie asked his name. When he was puzzled, he could only answer truthfully, "Report to Mr. Special Envoy, the name of his subordinate is Li Nianzong."

charlie asked again, "I remember that the dead are all named after numbers. The dead men must have been promoted all the way up, why do they have names?" The short-haired man immediately said neither humble nor overbearing, "The subordinates in the dead soldiers camp are indeed named after numbers, but the ancestors of the subordinates put their surnames and first names in the dead soldiers. It has been passed down from generation to generation in the camp, and this is allowed in the camp of dead soldiers.”

charlie nodded, and suddenly took off the huge hat of the black robe, revealing his true face.

Li Nianzong was a little surprised, he didn't know why the special envoy showed his true face, after all, he had never encountered this before.

Moreover, he was a little surprised by charlie's age.

As early as when charlie gave them the antidote just now, he knew that the special envoy had changed this time. It was no longer the old man with a very old voice, but a newcomer who sounded younger.

However, he didn't have any doubts about this. After all, the special envoy was not at the same level as him, and the special envoy's personnel changes would not greet them dead men.

But when he found out that charlie was so young, he couldn't help but feel uneasy.

Because in his opinion, charlie can become a special envoy at such a young age, so he must be very strong.

And being able to have super-class strength at such a young age also proves that this person is extremely talented and absolutely extraordinary.

Therefore, he was very worried that charlie would see the clues.

In addition, charlie's behavior of showing his true face suddenly made him a little more nervous.

This unprecedented situation made him decide in his heart that this young special envoy was absolutely extraordinary. At this time, charlie looked at him and said with a smile, “Li Nianzong

, let me ask you, is there anything abnormal about this antidote?”

There is really nothing abnormal.”

charlie asked him with a smile that was not a smile, “I see, this is the unified rhetoric that you have discussed, right?”

Li Nianzong was startled, but he still forcibly calmed down, pretending to be stupid and said, “Master Special Envoy, the subordinate I don't understand what you mean...”

charlie said calmly, "Li Nianzong, the poison in your body has completely disappeared, am I right?!"

Hearing this, Li Nianzong felt as if he had been struck by lightning.

He looked at charlie in horror and trepidation, and looked at his slightly lazy and casual smile. He suddenly realized that what happened just now in the meeting room next door seemed to him a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. , But looking at it now, it seems that the special envoy in front of him is deliberately playing a cat-and-mouse game with people like himself.

It seemed that everything was already under his control.

Even, all of this may be because he deliberately played with himself and other Xiaoqiwei brothers.

In desperation, Li Nianzong tried to make the last struggle. He shook his head and said to charlie, "Master Special Envoy, please forgive me for being stupid. The situation you mentioned has never been noticed by my subordinates..."

charlie stood up at this time, walked to Li Nianzong, and smiled lightly, "Okay, you don't have to act with me anymore, the antidote you are taking is prepared by myself. What are the effects of these medicines? I am better than you." Be clear."

"What?!" Li Nianzong stared wide-eyed, looked at charlie with a face full of horror, and subconsciously asked, "Master Special Envoy...you...you said that this antidote...was prepared by yourself?!"

charlie nodded and said with a smile, "That's right, I prepared it myself, and it's not the antidote that you took before, which can delay the onset of the poison in your body, but it can make the poison in your body slow down." The real antidote for the poison to disappear completely."

Li Nianzong looked at charlie, and asked suspiciously, "Master Special Envoy...you...why did you do this?! Based on the subordinates' understanding of the organization, the organization has always acted extremely Be cautious, never take such a risk..."

charlie nodded, and said calmly, "You are right, it is impossible for the Poqing Society to come up with such a real antidote, even if they can do it, They will never do it."

Li Nianzong asked subconsciously, "Then why are you..."

charlie looked at him and said with a smile, "Because I am not a special envoy at all, and I am not a member of the Qing Dynasty, but He is the enemy of the Qing Dynasty!"

Li Nianzong was shocked, and blurted out, "This...how is this possible..." After finishing speaking, he couldn't help but look at the Jiedu Envoy and the Jiedu Envoy's personal guards standing on both sides, couldn't help asking Charlie, "Are they all yours too?!"

Charlie waved his hand, "They are not. I came here by myself tonight. They are just controlled by me with psychological hints."

After finishing speaking, Charlie said to Li Nianzong again, "By the way, I came today, and I brought thousands of antidotes that can completely remove the toxins in your body, so that all your knight guards and all dead soldiers can completely get rid of the control of the poison in your body."

“In addition, I have heard what you talked to them in the next door just now. Although the courage is commendable, the strategy is still a bit weak!”

“If you people choose to stay here and stick to this copper mine, it’s only a matter of time before the Poqing Council comes in and kills all of you;

” I will kill you one by one without leaving any future troubles, and it is only a matter of time!”

Li Nianzong was silent for a moment, looked at charlie, He opened his mouth and asked, “Then I dare to ask, if you came here today with the antidote, can you give us a third choice?!”

“Of course!” charlie looked at him, nodded approvingly, and said loudly “I came here today to do three things! One is to control the special envoy and the Jiedu envoy here without bloodshed. As you can see, I have already achieved this.”

After speaking, charlie paused slightly and continued Said, “As for the second thing, it is to remove all the toxins in all of you without the CCP noticing, but the premise is that none of you can escape, and you must stay here and cooperate with me.” , Listen to my orders anytime, anywhere.”

“And the third thing is to let you stay here and cooperate with me inside and outside after detoxification, and prepare for the complete elimination of the Poqing Society!”

Li Nianzong frowned, and then said seriously “Since you want to be the enemy of the Poqing Society, you have a common enemy with us and are our comrades-in-arms, and you are willing to remove the poison in our bodies, then you are our benefactor. The Poqing Society controls us like that, and I, Li Nianzong, would like to follow your lead!”

charlie said calmly, “Since I have brought the antidote that can completely remove the poison in your body, I will naturally not turn around like the Poqing Society. Use such indecent means to control you to work for me.”

Then, charlie said again, “Besides, I don’t need anyone to simply work for me. What I need is that you and I cooperate with each other like comrades-in-arms. Together we will uproot the broken society, and I promise you, after the Poqing Society is eradicated, all of you will be completely free. At that time, where you want to go and what you want to do will be your freedom, and I, charlie, will never stop you! “

Li Nianzong was a little excited when he heard this!

charlie’s words released three huge surprises to him.

The first surprise was that they were able to completely remove the poison in their bodies, and they would no longer be bound by it for life after life!

The second The surprise is that charlie and them share the same goal, which is to eradicate the Po Qing Society. Originally, he never thought that he would have the ability to uproot the Po Qing Society, but charlie's inscrutability made him subconsciously feel that, Following charlie, the probability of success will be infinitely magnified!

As for the third surprise, charlie gave him the promise of freedom!

This is the key to changing the tragic fate of these people for hundreds of years!

Their ancestors all longed for Free body.

But so many years have passed, countless people have sacrificed their lives for the Po Qing Society, and even been killed by the Po Qing Society, but no one has gained freedom in the true sense.

Some Xiaoqiwei and their "scholar" descendants have indeed The Poqing Society worked hard and gained relative freedom. However, as long as the poison is not cleared for a day, the freedom will still be firmly in the hands of the Poqing Society.

A bird in a cage has no freedom, and a rope is tied to its ankle. Parrots in chains also have no freedom.

Therefore, the conditional freedom of the latter has always been despised by Li Nianzong.

If given the opportunity, he would rather fight to the death with the Poqing Society. Even if he dies in the end, it will be considered a worthy death.

However, even though he has such thoughts, he is not a reckless man. He knows very well that if he just recklessly confronts the Po Qinghui, he will basically die in vain.

Until a few minutes ago, charlie's antidote made him He ignited the confidence to fight to the death.

And after charlie told his real purpose, his confidence was even stronger!

As soon as he thought about it, he knelt down on one knee without thinking, clasped his fists with both hands, and said devoutly, "If Mr. can keep his promise, I, Li Nianzong, swear in the name of all ancestors that I will follow Mr. until Poqing will completely disappear from this world!"

As he said that, he suddenly changed his mind and said, "No! I would like to follow my husband and stand on my shoulders until my death. As long as my husband can give freedom to my children and grandchildren, I can live my life with a smile on my face and no regrets!"

charlie nodded, calmly Said, "I will naturally keep my promise, not only to you, but also to all the dead soldiers and knight guards who are controlled by the Poqing Society. On the day the Poqing Society disappears, I will return all the dead soldiers and knight guards to freedom!"
