

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5273 -

charlie's words not only shocked Qiu Zhiyuan, but also made him feel mixed feelings deep in his heart at this moment.

Firstly, he couldn't figure out why this young man would be so confident to intervene and challenge the huge Po Qinghui; secondly, he couldn't even understand why the same people had different fates. He and Abbas were both martial arts geniuses. The cultivation before the age of 1000 was not only overwhelming, but even shocking.

To be able to cultivate eight-star warriors before the age of thirty is completely rare in the world of warriors he knew, and it is difficult to pick one out of ten thousand.

Therefore, when he decided to enter the WTO to roam around in search of a breakthrough more than a year ago, he sighed for the future of Abbas.

Because at that time, he felt that although Abbas practiced Yimapingchuan before the age of 30, he was a teacher of himself after all, and the way and mentality of practicing martial arts were exactly the same, so in the future he would definitely face himself for 30 years. An embarrassing situation that cannot be broken through.

When he decided to enter the WTO, Qiu Zhiyuan also talked about his worries to Abbas. He even comforted Abbas and promised him that once he found a chance to break through to the Dark Realm, he would definitely come back to help him.

However, who would have thought that when he made up his mind, took the poison and joined the Poqing Society, and was eagerly waiting for the opportunity to enter the Huben Camp, and then prepared to spend at least ten years in the Huben Camp to seek a breakthrough, his apprentice Abbas, It has already stepped into the sky and stepped into the dark.

This huge psychological gap made Qiu Zhiyuan feel very uncomfortable, even when facing Abbas, he couldn't help feeling a little ashamed in his heart.

The feeling that the master was overtaken by the apprentice really made him feel mixed.

Abbas could also see the loneliness on Master's face, and immediately blurted out, "Master, Mr. Wade is a man with real supernatural powers, and he is also the head of the Huaxia Wade family. This disciple believes that with Young Master Wade's strength and potential, In the future, it will never be a problem to eradicate the Po Qinghui! Moreover, Young Master Wade is generous, repaying grievances with virtue, and convincing others with virtue! When the disciple cut off all the meridians at the beginning, it was Young Master Wade who helped the disciple completely repair them, and he allowed the disciple to step into it in just one stick of incense. The bright realm is perfect, and the disciple can step into the dark realm because of Young Master Wade, if you want, you might as well give your allegiance to Young Master Wade, and together with disciple, help Young Master Wade realize his great wish!"

Qiu Zhiyuan's expression was extremely complicated.

He also knew that joining the Poqing Society was the worst of the worst strategies. If he hadn't been unable to break through for decades and killed him, he would not have been willing to suffer such humiliation.

Among other things, when he was in the Wanlong Palace, although he was not the real talker, he was a patriarch respected by everyone, and his prestige was even higher than that of the Wanpo Army.

But after joining the Poqing Society, he is nothing more than a slave of the Poqing Society.

His status is nothing more than a guard next to the Jiedushi. It seems that he is under one person and above thousands of people here, but in fact, he has no command over the guards and dead soldiers.

And he didn't have any subordinates, he just let Jiedushi call him around.

Not to mention that now, he has become Yechen's prisoner to some extent.

Thinking of this, he knelt down on one knee without hesitation, clasped his fists towards Charlie, and respectfully said, "Mr. Wade, if you don't dislike me, I'll be by your side to do my best for you!"

Charlie nodded slightly, Ask him, "What's the condition for you to talk with the Jiedu envoy? Did he promise you how long it will take for you to become a master of the dark realm?"

Qiu Zhiyuan said truthfully, "Hui Mr. Wade, the condition for my talk with the Jiedu envoy is to stay If you have worked by his side for three years and performed well within three years, you can recommend me to join the Huben camp, and if you join the Huben camp, you can break through to a master of the dark realm within ten years."

Charlie smiled slightly, "That's thirteen years."

"Yes!" Qiu Zhiyuan nodded and said, "It will take thirteen years at the earliest."

This situation is very common in the armies of various countries, and it is the same among mercenaries.

Therefore, Abbas said without hesitation, "Mr. Wade, don't worry, your subordinates will be safe!"

After that, he thought of something, and quickly asked Charlie, "Mr. Wade, there is one thing that my subordinates don't want to understand. Can you please clarify your doubts?"

Charlie nodded, "Tell me."

Abbas said, "If you take all the knights and dead soldiers here under your command, how should your subordinates ensure the stable operation of this place and at the same time break the clear? Will you find any clues?"

Charlie smiled, did not answer his question, but said loudly, "It's almost time, let's go meet those Xiaoqiguards first, and you will know when their problems are resolved. The answer to this question!"

This moment.

More than 200 knights wearing overalls of the copper mine have arrived at the staff hall of the copper mine one after another.

This staff auditorium is a building that already existed when the Qing Dynasty acquired the copper mine. It was built in the 1980s and was mainly used for meetings, celebrations and ceremonies for the staff of the copper mine.

After the Poqing Society took over, all the Xiaoqiguards ( Bickford guards ) were assigned to serve as employees of the copper mine, and most of the Xiaoqiguards ( Bickford guards )' families were used as logistics. On the surface, the copper mine was operating fairly well.

Even if local government officials occasionally came to inspect and inspect, they did not notice any abnormalities.

At this time, these knight guards came to the staff auditorium, giving people the feeling that the copper mine was about to hold a mobilization meeting or a summary meeting.

However, if you stand from the perspective of a bystander, you will soon find a problem, that is, among these uniformly dressed employees, there are more than 20 people holding a towel in their left hand.

And these people holding towels have been faintly excited, because they feel that after tonight, each of them will have a chance to improve to a higher level.

In addition to faintly throbbing with excitement, these people have been paying attention to other people around them, and are always ready to be asked about towels.

However, what surprised them was that no one came to ask about such an abrupt performance of holding a towel.

Everyone with a towel in their hand makes a little eye contact with each other when they see the other person with a towel in their hand.

But those who didn't take their towels didn't seem to care about their towels at all.

Some of these people don't understand, they don't understand why other people's insight is so poor, along the way, these people don't seem to be interested.

What they don't know is that these people have already been ordered to pretend to ignore their weird behavior on the surface, and later just wait for the special envoy to throw a cup as a sign, and the people around them with towels in their hands, Catch them all!

The Xiao cavalry ( Bickford ) guards arrived soon.

After counting their subordinates, the three banner chiefs reported to the chairman respectively.

It's a pity that only Xiao Qiwei ( Bertrand ), who is determined to break with the Po Qinghui ( Benn), knows that the chairman has become a puppet.

At this time, the chairman walked up to the stage and said loudly, "All the cavalry guards obey the order and welcome the special envoy !

The Xiao cavalry ( Bickford ) guards were excited because they thought that they would be able to make contributions immediately;

while the other Xiao cavalry ( Bickford ) guards were excited because they thought that they would be able to completely escape from the control of the Qing Dynasty immediately and realize the greatest dream of their ancestors.

Both sides have their own thoughts and are looking forward to the appearance of the special envoy.

At this time, Charlie, who was wearing a black robe but didn't use a hat to cover his face, stepped onto the stage under everyone's gaze.

The puppet chairman took a few steps back respectfully, leaving the middle position to Charlie.

Seeing the "Master Special Envoy" showing his true colors for the first time, the guards who were divided into two camps in the audience didn't think there was anything unusual.

After all, both sides have their own understanding of Charlie's behavior of revealing his true face.

And Charlie stood on the stage at the moment, looking down at the more than two hundred people in the audience, and said with a smile on his face, "Everyone, I believe that today is a very meaningful day for all of you, and it is worth remembering." One day! It is also a day to make contributions!"

The two people in the audience, because they had their own thoughts, so when they heard this, they all became more excited in their hearts.

Ma Chenfei ( Ula ), who was holding a towel, and his colleagues, who were holding towels like him, subconsciously held the towel tighter in their hands, as if what they were holding was not a towel, but an opening to the next scene. A ticket to prosperity and wealth.

However, they ignored that the knight guards around them who were not holding towels had already started to quietly look at them from the corner of their eyes, and were ready to attack them at any time.

Charlie on the stage smiled slightly, and said, "Today, I have good news for you all. The Lord of England has prepared a new antidote for you. This new antidote can make the poison in your body go away. It happens once every seven days, and it will be extended to fifteen days. I hope everyone can make contributions to the Lord of England in the future !" After finishing speaking

, he waved his right hand and said loudly, "Come here, give me medicine and wine!"

Duan Liye, Qiu Zhiyuan, and Jiedu When the Shi and others heard this, they immediately stepped forward and distributed the antidote to everyone. At the same time, they arranged for several middle-level and senior leaders of the Xiaoqiguards ( Bickford guards ) to bring out the white wine and wine glasses prepared in advance, and poured a glass for each Xiaoqiguard.

Among them, Ma Chenfei ( Ula ) handed the first glass of wine to charlie very attentively.

In his opinion, after today, he will become the commander here, and he will become the leader of the cavalry guards. In the future, he will inevitably meet with the “Master Special Envoy”, so it is naturally best to compliment him more.

charlie took the wine glass and said meaningfully, “Work hard, I’m optimistic about you!”

Ma Chenfei ( Ula ) trembled with excitement, and quickly said respectfully, “Don’t worry, my lord special envoy! My subordinates are ready to be loyal to my lord special envoy! I won’t let you The special envoy is disappointed!”

charlie held his wine glass and said with a smile, “No, it’s not for me, it’s for the Lord of England!”

Ma Chenfei ( Ula ) nodded like a pounding garlic, and quickly changed his words, “You are right! The subordinates should be the Lord of England Be loyal!”

After that, Ma Chenfei ( Ula ) was afraid that other people would see the clue, so he quickly said, “Master Special Envoy, if you have no other orders, the subordinates will return to the team first.”

charlie looked at the towel wrapped around his wrist, nodded slightly, He smiled lightly and said, “Go.”

After all the cavalry guards raised their wine glasses, and the cavalry guards who hadn’t taken the medicine got the new antidote, charlie said, “Everyone, take this antidote. The poison of the poison will completely disappear, and from now on, no one will be able to continue to control your lives with such indecent means!”

All the knight guards who didn’t have towels shouted excitedly, and then swallowed the antidote they just got without hesitation.

Ma Chenfei ( Ula ) and the others ridiculed these idiots in their hearts, especially Ma Chenfei ( Ula ), thinking gloatingly in their hearts, “What a bunch of idiots, do you believe this kind of thing? Don’t even think about it, Lord Ying.” How could it be possible for you to lose control? My lord special envoy is just playing tricks on you!”

However, he suddenly thumped in his heart, and said to himself, “The rebellion of these idiots has been aroused, and now the crowd is excited. I don’t know what will your lord special envoy do soon The end? If these people really want to betray the organization, we, number 20, are not their opponents... I don’t even know if the special envoy tells the truth, can they be captured without a fight?” He was nervous and wondering At that time, the cavalry guards around him already felt the poison disappear from their bodies, and they were all extremely ecstatic.

As for Ma Chenfei ( Ula )'s followers, they were holding the antidote and didn't know whether to take it or not.

At this time, I heard charlie say loudly, "Everyone, I think you already know what I'm going to do tonight, so I won't say any more. I will drink this glass of wine with you today, and I swear that I will destroy you." Qing will eradicate by the roots and never cause future troubles!"

A group of cavalry guards shouted excitedly, "Eradicate by the roots and never cause future troubles!"

Ma Chenfei ( Ula ) was shocked when he heard this, and thought to himself, "Master Special Envoy!" It's too into the drama, dare to say such a rebellious thing..."

Different from him and his followers, those knight guards who had taken the antidote were staring at the wine glass in charlie's hand with hot eyes, waiting for charlie to come back. Chen's last signal!

Just when Ma Chenfei ( Ula ) was terrified by charlie's "big rebellion", charlie suddenly raised his head and drank the white wine in the glass, then threw the wine glass to the ground forcefully, and said loudly, "All officers and soldiers listen to the order!

" Roaring, "The subordinate is here!"

charlie smiled, waved his big hand, and said loudly, "Do it!"
