charlie's plan to overthrow the nest is complete and meticulous, and the execution rate is high enough, and everyone is given a very clear division of labor. As long as these people can follow his orders at critical moments, and everyone executes their tasks in an orderly manner, it will definitely be possible. In the shortest possible time, make a perfect response.

Moreover, charlie believed that once the day came for the implementation of the plan to overthrow the nest, it would definitely be a huge blow to the Poqing Society.

At that moment, the Poqing Society will realize that the poison they use to control all members has been cracked, and its interior will first fall into chaos, and people's hearts will definitely change.

To the Po Qinghui ( Benn ), it would be like a person who had been invulnerable to a knife and a gun, suddenly had an arm broken by a sudden bullet.

Everyone was very excited at this time, because they knew that charlie's plan to overthrow the nest would be put into action sooner or later, it was just a matter of time.

Once this plan is really launched, it will be their first step in revenge against the Chase Society!

At this time, charlie said to Milan who came from Syria with the Wanpo Army, "Milan, from now on, you stay here. You, like 3900, were born as dead soldiers. They live together, and it must be more suitable for you."

Milan said respectfully, "Thank you, Mr. Wade!"

Seeing Milan's hesitant appearance, charlie said, "Don't worry, maybe The next garrison of dead soldiers that we will take over will be the one where your wife, children and family members are, but you have to understand that this matter cannot be rushed, and it will be exposed again if it is cleared."

Milan choked with tears in his eyes Said, "Thank you, Mr. Wade, for still thinking about your subordinate's wife and children. Judging by what you said, the subordinate's death is worth it!"

charlie smiled slightly, and said, "Live well, and live to see your wife and children. "

Milan nodded heavily with tears in his eyes.

charlie then said to Thirty-Nine Zero, "Five Four Seven is a hard-working person just like you, and I will leave him in your care from now on."

Thirty Nine Zero said without hesitation, "Don't worry, sir, this subordinate will take good care of the fifth brother!"

"Okay." charlie nodded, waved his hand and said, "Okay, you guys go out first, Abbas and Qiu Zhiyuan stay. "

Others got up one after another, respectfully retreated.

charlie looked at Qiu Zhiyuan, and said lightly, "Mr. Qiu, I still have a very important matter that I want to leave to you."

Qiu Zhiyuan quickly stood up, bowed and said, "Mr. Wade, just give me orders, and my subordinates will do their best." Let's go !"

charlie nodded, and said, "All the dead soldiers, as well as the knight guards, after the poison in their bodies was removed, their actual combat capabilities have dropped a lot. This is mainly because the poison in their bodies before, It is also a kind of energy that is constantly accumulating, which can enhance their strength to a certain extent, so I hope you can use the energy that taught you to break the army at the beginning, and teach these dead soldiers and knight guards as your own apprentices. The real martial art."

Qiu Zhiyuan immediately blurted out, "Okay, Mr. Wade, my subordinates will definitely teach them with all they have learned, and will never hide anything!"

charlie is very satisfied with his attitude, most martial arts people, He cherishes the martial arts skills he cultivated very much, and he is unwilling to pass them on to strangers under any circumstances.

Moreover, martial arts skills are not only the undisclosed secret of a warrior, but also a detailed summary of all his martial arts characteristics. If one's martial arts skills are mastered by the enemy, the chances of the enemy defeating oneself will be greatly increased.

Therefore, in the field of martial arts, the vast majority of martial arts mental methods are not passed on to outsiders, but are only passed on within one's own descendants and clan members.

And for some martial arts sects, they will also divide martial arts skills into several parts. The outer disciples can only learn a small piece of fur, while the inner disciples can learn some essence, but I really want to learn the sect. All mental methods in the sect must be the most trustworthy closed disciples to be possible.

charlie asked Qiu Zhiyuan to teach these dead men and knight guards. Even if a normal person would agree, he would definitely hesitate and even struggle.

However, Qiu Zhiyuan didn't hesitate at all, and he didn't intend to hide his secrets. Just from this point, it can be seen that this person is sincerely obedient and full of sincerity.

So, charlie nodded, looked at him, and asked with a smile, "I've been trapped in the Ming Realm for so many years, shouldn't I be very anxious?"

"Yes..." Qiu Zhiyuan nodded sincerely and said, "I've been trapped for decades. If it wasn't for the eagerness to break through, I'm afraid I wouldn't be impatient for a while. I know that drinking poison will quench my thirst, but I still decided to join the Poqing Society..."

charlie nodded slightly, and said calmly, "Breakthrough is important. Talent, but it is more about chance, lack of talent, no matter how hard you work, you may not be able to become a master of the dark realm, but if you don't have the opportunity, even if you wander outside the door for decades, you may not be able to find the way to get started."

Qiu Zhiyuan was ashamed Said, "Mr. Wade's words are true. His subordinates are not talented enough, and the opportunity has not yet arrived. Unlike Abbas, who can get the great opportunity bestowed by Mr. Wade at a young age..."

Abbas looked at his master humbled and ashamed The appearance of my heart is both distressed and happy.

Distressed because I saw my master wasting away for so many years but failed to get what I wanted;

fortunately, it was because I had traveled far less than him.Thirty years less detours.

Life is only more than a hundred years, and the detours of ten years have been avoided. The significance of this is so great that it can no longer be described in words.

charlie chuckled at this moment, and said, "The special envoy of the Po Qinghui ( Benn ) is a master of the dark realm, and the Jiedu envoy before you is also a master of the dark realm. After Abbas and I left, you are the master of the dark realm The highest commander in the world, if you can't reach the dark realm, doesn't it seem that we are worse than breaking the clear..."

Upon hearing this, Qiu Zhiyuan said with an even more ashamed expression, "Mr. Wade, your subordinates are not strong enough. I'm holding you back!"

Abbas on the side heard what charlie meant, and seeing that his master was still confused, he urged impatiently, "Master, thank you charlie Thank you for your promotion!"

"Ah?" Qiu Zhiyuan was taken aback, apparently still not understanding the meaning of Abbas's words.

Abbas was already a little anxious, and hurriedly said, "Master, you don't know Mr. Wade, Mr. Wade can say that, this is to wish you a helping hand and help you break through!" After finishing speaking

, he immediately knelt on charlie In front of him, he said anxiously, "Mr. Wade, this subordinate thinks he is smart. I don't know if he may have misunderstood what you mean. If this subordinate really misunderstands, I hope you can forgive me!"

charlie nodded and smiled, "You are right, I am exactly This is what I mean."

No matter how dull Qiu Zhiyuan was, he had already understood by this time.

Hearing that charlie had confirmed Abbas's guess, he quickly knelt down on the ground, choking with gratitude, "Subordinate... Thank you Mr. Wade for your generosity!"

charlie nodded, and took out the The two blood-dispersing and heart-rescuing pills were handed directly in front of Qiu Zhiyuan, and he said with a smile, "Take the medicine immediately, close your eyes and circulate the medicine power to all meridians, and when you open your eyes again, you will be a master of the dark world!"
