

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5299 -

charlie could see that in Claire's heart, he still regarded Fei Kexin as a friend.

However, the huge disparity in social status between the two made her feel a little discouraged.

charlie understood this very well.

Moreover, for charlie, he doesn't really want his wife to get too close to Fei Kexin.

On the one hand, Fei Kexin already knew her identity, and if his wife got too close to her, she might reveal clues to her identity; on the other hand, Fei Kexin was too smart, compared to Claire In front of her, it was like a primary school student facing a graduate student. One is too smart and the other is too naive. If such two people really become friends, both parties must be very tired in order to compromise with each other.

Therefore, it is the best for the two of them to maintain the current state in charlie's opinion.

So, charlie changed the subject and asked Claire, "Honey, what time does the graduation ceremony start?"

Claire said, "The ceremony will start from 5:00 to 5:30 p.m., and it will officially start at six o'clock."

charlie nodded and said, "Then let's pack up our luggage in the afternoon, and we can drive to New York tomorrow morning.

" I really miss home! My dad ended the exchange a few days ago and returned to Aurous Hill from South Korea. I don't know how he is doing at home by himself these days. He can't cook, and eating alone is a problem. "

charlie laughed and said, "Eating is a trivial matter. With a mobile phone these days, I can't go hungry anywhere, and my mother is not at home. Dad may have a much happier time alone. Maybe he still hopes that we will go back later. , for middle-aged and elderly married men, being able to live at home alone for a few days is more comfortable than being the president of the United States for a few days."

Claire couldn't help but sigh, "If you want to talk about the family, you have to be a woman! You see we just came here When I was in the US, my dad also went to South Korea for an exchange. My mom was the only one at home. According to what you just said, she must be very comfortable and comfortable at home alone, but she still misses us in her heart, so she came all the way to the US Watch us."

charlie was a little dumb for a moment, and thought to himself, "Elaine has us in her heart? Good wife, you don't know your mother well enough. The reason why your mother came to the United States is because I designed it for her to accompany you. It was a small trick to make her spend all the money, but if she had more than one hundred or two hundred thousand in her hand, she would not come to America."

However, charlie couldn't tell the truth, So he smiled and said, "My wife, you are right, our mother still values friendship."

Claire said with a smile, "We will set off tomorrow morning, and we will be home in ten hours. By then, Dad's good days may come to an end ." It 's gone."

While Claire was packing her luggage, charlie came to the terrace of the presidential suite and called Mrs. Lewis in Canada.

As soon as the call was connected, Mrs. Lewis respectfully called "Young Master!"

charlie wanted to persuade Mrs. Lewis not to call himself that, but after thinking about it, he finally gave up the idea.

He knew that even if he told Mrs. Lewis not to call him young master, it would not change the fact that in Mrs. Lewis's heart, he was the young master of the wade family.

In addition, she always felt that the wade family saved her life and arranged for her to retire in Canada. In her heart, she felt that she was the servant of the wade family.

In front of people who don't know charlie's identity, she will directly call charlie's name against her will, but when there are no outsiders, she wants to call charlie "Master" from the bottom of her heart.

Therefore, charlie stopped pointing out the matter, but said with a smile, "Mrs. Lewis, Claire's course in the United States has ended today, and we plan to return to Aurous Hill tomorrow, you and Lisa, how about you?" With Claudia, make some simple preparations, and come to New York to meet us tomorrow."

Mrs. Lewis couldn't help but said happily when she heard this, "That's great, master, during this time, Lisa has been talking to me about going back to Aurous Hill. I'm also thinking about the large orphanage you mentioned, and I'm already looking forward to it."

charlie smiled and said, "That's great, I'm afraid you'd be reluctant to part with the Canadian environment."

Mrs. Lewis said very seriously, "Master, to tell you the truth, when this person gets older, he will not be as good as home anywhere, not to mention I can't wait to be able to shine for those children after I go back."

"Then Okay." charlie also breathed a sigh of relief, and asked again, "By the way, Mrs. Lewis, how are Lisa and Claudia doing?"

Mrs. Lewis replied, "They still go to the supermarket to work every day. After what happened last time, the two The relationship between people is better, like sisters."

charlie asked, "About going to Aurous Hill, did Claudia show any reluctance before, or did she have any concerns?"

Mrs. Lewis thought for a while and said "Since you left, Claudia's mentality seems to be a lot more optimistic, and she is also a lot more cheerful, and she is still looking forward to going to Aurous Hill to start a new life. Vancouver is a place that is too different for her. Good memories, plus the rainy season in Vancouver is too long, so it is relatively dull."

Mrs. Lewis said, "However, the only thing she can worry about is the tomb of her parents and younger brother. Lisa promised her that she will take summer vacation every year in the future. When I come back with her to pay respects to her parents, she has nothing to worry about."

"Okay." charlie felt a little relieved when he heard this.

Although he didn't have much contact with Claudia, he really sympathized with this girl's experience, especially when the whole family died at the hands of relatives, but at the age of eighteen, she endured the humiliation and stuck a piece of her face on her face. It is impossible for an ordinary 18-year-old girl to have the intelligence and forbearance to show people with fake scars.

Fortunately, I helped Claudia kill her enemy, otherwise it would be very difficult for this girl to live a normal life.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5300 -

Come to think of it, this is also a good relationship planted by Claudia herself. If she hadn't discovered that Guo Lei was plotting against Lisa and then warned herself, she might not be able to save Lisa, let alone help her complete revenge.

With emotion in his heart, charlie smiled and said to Mrs. Lewis, "Mrs. Lewis, after going back this time, the houses and supermarkets in Canada can continue to be kept. In the future, if you are really tired and want to retire, you can still return to Canada;"

"In addition, I have arranged for Isaac Cameron to prepare a decent villa for you, Lisa, and Claudia in Aurous Hill. From now on, this villa will be reserved for you to retire in Aurous Hill. If Lisa and Claudia When I get married in the future, it will be the parents' home of the two little girls."

Mrs. Lewis hurriedly said, "You can't do it, young master, you and the Wade family have already given me too much favor, how can I still want your villa again? Just leave us a room in the orphanage..."

Charlie said earnestly, "Mrs. Lewis, today is different from the past, and today's Charlie is no longer the one who works three jobs a day to earn money for the younger brothers and sisters in the orphanage. Charlie is money for books and milk powder. I used to earn two to three thousand yuan a month, and I could give all the money to the orphanage. Now, I have inherited the Wade family and have my own property, a mere villa. If it is converted on a proportional basis, it is not as good as a lunch box when I was working, so you don't have to shirk it."

Then, Charlie said again, "And Mrs. Lewis, you have taken care of me for so many years, you are my benefactor, and now you still have to pay for it." Back to work in Aurous Hill for me, if I don't give you a proper settlement in Aurous Hill, other people will criticize me."

Mrs. Lewis sighed and said sincerely, "Master, in fact, I just did it well after all these years. I don't dare to be a benefactor for my own work..."

Charlie said firmly, "Mrs. Lewis, in my heart, you are my benefactor."

After speaking, Charlie didn't want to continue to dwell too much on this issue. Confused, he changed the topic and said, "By the way, Mrs. Lewis, let Lisa and Claudia start packing their luggage. Take whatever you need and want. I will arrange for Don Albert to fly to Vancouver early tomorrow morning. Ask him to bring someone to pick you up at home."

Mrs. Lewis hurriedly said, "Young master, don't bother, the three of us can go to the airport by ourselves."

Charlie insisted, "Mrs. Lewis, we are tired of traveling, so we should try our best to save our worries. Don Alberthui will take care of everything, so you don't have to worry. We'll meet at the New York airport tomorrow. The plane you and Lisa are on is our plane back to Aurous Hill. When the plane lands in New York, we'll board the plane. When I meet you, you don't have to get off the plane and turn around."

Mrs. Lewis heard Charlie's firm tone, so she had no choice but to agree, and respectfully said, "Then it's hard work, young master, you can arrange it."

"No hard work." Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Mrs. Lewis, see you tomorrow!"

Five p.m.

charlie, who had changed into a suit, and Claire, who was wearing a white evening dress and long skirt, came to the Rhode Island School of Design together.

It was the summer vacation of American college students, so there were no young students in the huge campus, but there were many faculty and staff, and even many media reporters and well-known designers in the design field.

Rhode Island School of Design attaches great importance to the master class every year, so the school's auditorium is specially used to hold the graduation ceremony for the master class.

When charlie and Claire came to the auditorium, the auditorium was already full of voices.

Many designers who participated in the master class invited their relatives and friends, and even their bosses, mentors, and partners in the design field to help out for today's graduation ceremony.

It is said to be a graduation ceremony, but it is actually a salon where industry elites show their identities and make friends with industry dignitaries.

In contrast, Claire, who is only accompanied by her husband and has no industry background, seems a bit out of place here.

When signing in, Claire found an inconspicuous corner on the huge sign-in board, and wrote down his name.

Just as I handed the signature pen to the Miss Etiquette, a woman with an oriental face strode up beside Claire, and beside Claire's signature position, she wrote a series of huge English signature e.

Emily Wang, it seems that she should be of Chinese descent.

However, what makes charlie a little upset is that when this Emily signed her name, she signed her name extraordinarily large, and the letter g at the end threw an exaggerated arc, and even made the letter that Claire had already signed The names are all painted on.

Seeing that his signature was drawn by the other party, Claire was a little taken aback, but he didn't say anything, and that Emily Wang looked at Claire with surprise at this time, and said with a smile, "Oh, Claire!" However, I didn't see you just now, when did you come?"

Claire smiled and said politely, "I just arrived."

Emily nodded and said with a smile, "I'd like to tell you good news. I've become a senior partner of ae construction company, and our boss is here today. I'll introduce you later. You can have a good chat with him." Chat, maybe you also have the opportunity to join ae!"

Claire said with a slight smile, "Thank you, Emily, but I don't plan to find a job, and I plan to return to China after graduation."

Emily said seriously "Go back and continue to run your small decoration company? E on! You are too ambitious! To be a designer is to join the world's best design company, become a senior partner, and then win the world's top 500 companies , and even the whole case design of the Olympic Games and the World Cup, this is the meaning of our master class!" As she spoke, she saw a few people approaching not far away, and said in surprise, "My boss is here! Introducing you a bit!"
