

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5301 -

Claire didn't intend to chat with Emily too much, so she quickly said to Emily, "Emily, I'm not very good at socializing, so I won't bother your boss."

"Said, "Husband, why don't we go in first."

Emily heard Claire call Charlie's husband, looked at Charlie with a face of surprise, and asked, "Are you Claire's husband?"

Charlie nodded slightly nodding, "That's right, I am." Emily looked Charlie up and down, and said with a smile, "Claire said that you specialize in Feng Shui for people .

Does anyone still believe such deceptive things?"

Chen frowned slightly, and said, "Many things exist if you believe in them, and if you don't believe in them, you don't have them. It's like a religious god. No one has ever seen God, but it doesn't prevent believers from believing in his existence."

Emily grinned said, "God and Fengshui are not the same thing. God is faith, in other words, it is a crystallization of wisdom. As for Fengshui, it is just a feudal superstition used by some charlatans to bluff."

Charlie waved his hand indifferently He laughed and said, "The real Feng Shui theory comes from the Eight Diagrams of the Book of Changes, and the Book of Changes was written in the Western Zhou Dynasty, more than 3,000 years ago. Its history is longer than the three major religions in the world. Therefore, Wang Before you comment on something next time, miss, it's better to find out before you speak, so as not to make you laugh."

Emily didn't expect Charlie to make fun of herself, and her face was a little uneasy, but what Charlie said She had only heard of "Book of Changes", but never had a deep understanding of it, so she was ridiculed by Charlie, and she didn't know how to refute it.

So, Emily hugged her shoulders and let out a cold snort, and asked him, "You know so well, why don't you show me the Feng Shui face, and let me personally experience whether the Feng Shui secret technique you mentioned is reliable or not."

"I didn't want to talk to her, but after looking her up and down, I couldn't help laughing, "Oh, it doesn't matter, Wang seems to have a big problem with her career."

"Career luck?" Emily asked slightly. Dazed, he smiled and said, "You said that my career has a big problem?"

“Yes.” charlie said firmly, “There is indeed a big problem. If I’m not wrong, your career will soon suffer a blow, and all the foundations of your previous painstaking efforts may disappear.”

Mrs. Lewis sneered and said, “Are you kidding me? If you said that I might have other problems, I might believe you one in a thousand times, but you said that my career will suffer, this is simply a joke! “

As she said, Emily said arrogantly, “ae, Ai Kang, you may not know much about this company. This is the world’s top design group, a listed company, with a market value of more than 10 billion U.S. dollars! There are only dozens of people in the world who are senior partners in such a company, and I happen to be one of these dozens of people, and I am the youngest among them!”

“And, to become a senior partner People, the annual income before tax is more than five million US dollars, and the top partners can even make an annual income of more than 100 million US dollars!”

At this point, Emily looked at charlie with a face of sarcasm, and laughed Said, “I just became a senior partner today, and my future is bright. Why do you say that my career will suffer a blow? Is it because of my appearance? What a joke!” He said very patiently, “Your face is indeed flushed today, and you seem to be overjoyed, but your eyebrows are too hostile, which proves that your nature is not good. In addition, although your eyes are big, they are slightly protruding and do not hide your eyes. It can be seen that you are a narrow-minded person with evil in your heart, and your lips are thin, with sharp eyes and sharp mouth. This is a typical thin lip and sharp mouth, which proves that you are usually vitriolic and troublesome, which is easy The characteristics that cause trouble.”

Emily sneered and said, “Hey, you look at Feng Shui, and started to engage in personal attacks? What’s wrong with my big eyes and thin lips? This is easy to cause trouble? Then why don’t you say that I’m tall? Are you beautiful and tall, with a protruding figure?”

charlie smiled and said, “I just wanted to say that your raised eye tails, lowered mouth shape, and moles on your lying silkworm are all standard charming looks. It’s an exaggeration, and the reason why you are overjoyed is necessarily related to your natural charm, to put it bluntly, one day, you can have good luck in your career, and your appearance and body will help a lot.”

When Emily heard this, she suddenly became a little unnatural, and said falteringly, “You... don’t talk nonsense here, let me tell you, I can get to where I am today, that’s all step by step I have never relied on my appearance and body.”

charlie curled his lips, "From the appearance, every rise in your life is inseparable from your body, but you just need to listen to this kind of thing. As long as you know it in your heart."

Emily immediately sneered angrily, "You also said that you are not a personal attack, believe it or not, I can have a lawyer sue you?"

After finishing speaking, she snorted again, and said contemptuously, "Besides, you What's the use of this nonsense? I'm so lucky today, I'm going to the sky in one step, where is the blow you said?"

charlie was about to speak when a middle-aged man walked up to him and said to Emily with a smile, "Emily, Which friend are you chatting with? It's so speculative."

Emily looked at the middle-aged man, and said with a smile, "Chairman, you're here so early!"

The middle-aged man smiled and said, "Your graduation ceremony, I'm sure I'll come over to join you soon."

Then, he looked at Claire with great interest, and asked her, "Emily, what's the name of this beauty that you haven't introduced yet?"

Emily hurriedly said, "Chairman, what's the name of this beauty?" It's the master class classmate I often tell you about, Claire."

After that, she hurriedly said to Claire, "Claire, this is our boss, Matthew Peterson."

Claire just told Ma Hugh Peterson nodded, but did not speak.

Matthew Peterson seemed a little surprised by Claire, and quickly took out a business card, handed it to Claire, and said seriously, "Ms. Xiao, our Ai Yikang is actively absorbing some young blood recently. A promising designer is the partner we most urgently need at present. I wonder if you are interested in coming to Ai Kang for a try? I can give you the status of a partner, with an annual salary of at least one million dollars!"

Claire shook his head, and said lightly, "I'm sorry, Mr. Peterson, I have my own company. Although the company is small, in my opinion, it is much more comfortable than working in any company."

Matthew Peter Sen's expression was a bit disappointed, but he quickly adjusted and said with a smile, "It doesn't matter, we are also looking for some potential start-up design companies around the world. If Ms. Willson wants to cooperate with us or take our investment, We can have an in-depth chat.”

charlie saw that Matthew Peterson had bad intentions, so he said lightly, “Sorry, my wife doesn’t need anyone’s investment except me.”

Matthew Peterson Frowning and looking at charlie, she asked Emily, “Who is this gentleman?”

Emily quickly explained with a smile, “Boss, this is Claire’s husband. After looking at the face, I said that my career will suffer a blow, and you are my boss, please help me to confirm whether my career is going to take off today or fall.”

charlie smiled, Seriously said: “I just said that you are indeed very happy today. Although you have a bad face, after all, you are naturally charming. As long as there is a man who is capable enough to be attracted by your charming, his ability can help you. Suppress the flaws in your facial features.”

Matthew Peterson laughed, and said, “Of course he has taken off!”

After that, he looked at charlie and said with a smile, “Sir, Emily was promoted to a senior partner today. The salary has increased several times, and I am her boss, if I say let her go up, she will definitely go up, I don’t know how you can judge that her career will be destroyed?”

charlie looked at Matthew · Peterson said lightly, “Don’t think that you can influence her future because you are the boss. Feng Shui is the least likely to make mistakes here. Maybe you are the one who really brought her down.”

“Joke.” Ma Hugh Peterson sneersSaid, “I have lived for more than forty years, and this is the first time I have seen such an arrogant young man like you. Do you know how much I value Emily? Even if the sky falls, I can’t give her any disaster.” “

charlie ignored him, just looked at Emily, smiled and said, “I said just now, you are really lucky today, but your mistake is that you shouldn’t wear this outfit, which is either black or white , just formed a strong contrast with your red face, which has already formed a sha in Fengshui!”

charlie paused, and then said, “You know, when people are happy, the most taboo is black and white matching! Black and white matching is only at funerals At any other time, Feng Shui will form. Even if a bride gets married, she only dares to wear a pure white wedding dress. Whoever dares to add black elements to a white wedding dress will inevitably have a lot of troubles after marriage, and your body The combination of black and white has obviously overwhelmed your radiant face, so your luck today will definitely be backlashed by this evil spirit, and your luck happens to be in your career, which means that your career is bound to suffer. Disaster.”

Emily said angrily after hearing Charlie's words, "You are really a bumpkin! What black and white match, you know that this is Chanel's high-end custom style! Ordinary people can't buy it if they have money. "

Charlie smiled and said, "I don't know much about high-end customization, but I dare say that the person who designed this dress must not understand Feng Shui."

Matthew Peterson also mocked, "Emily is tall in Chanel I specially asked the top designer of Chanel to make the final design, and the black and white color scheme is the most classic color scheme of Chanel, if you don't understand anything, don't make fun of me here!"

Emily sneered a few times, looking at Claire sarcastically said, "Claire, after all, you also attended the Rhode Island School of Design's master class. How could you marry such a man who is cheating and cheating? He is too unworthy of you!"

"When Claire heard Emily commenting on Charlie, she was naturally a little angry, so instead of answering Emily's question, she said seriously, "Emily, is my husband showing Feng Shui to others?" Very accurate, he has many prominent clients in the United States, and he will never talk about it."

Matthew Peterson on the side blurted out, "Ms. Willson, people of high status all have one thing in common, that is, they have a high IQ. How could they be deceived by your husband's clumsy deception?"

After finishing speaking, he sighed with a sarcasm, he said, "Rhode Island School of Design is the best design school in the world, and the master classes here are the elite among the elite. I really don't know how you, a swindler like you, got here. In your Huaxia's terms, that's a piece of mouse droppings, ruining a pot of soup."

Just as she was speaking, Emily suddenly looked at the entrance, and exclaimed in shock, "Boss, Fei...Miss Fei is here! "
