

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5311 -

Matthew Peterson never expected that Fei Kexin, who was young and smiling like a flower, wanted to kill him!

However, in the next second, he figured out the reason.

Job occupation has always been the most disgusting thing for shareholders of large enterprise groups.

Although the shareholders hold a large number of shares, they generally do not directly intervene in the operation of the enterprise. The operation of the enterprise is generally entrusted to the founders who have a small share of the shares.

This is basically the case for many well-known large companies in the world.

Originally, if the company had a net profit of 500 million US dollars, after setting aside a budget for next year, if the remaining money was to be used, it would be distributed to all shareholders in proportion.

However, although Matthew Peterson is the founder of the company, the company has continued to raise funds and sold many shares during its development and growth. It is precisely by relying on these investment funds that he can achieve the company's market value of tens of billions of dollars as he wished.

However, Matthew Peterson himself only has 10% of the shares left. If all the 500 million US dollars are used for dividends, he can only get 50 million of them, and nearly half of the 50 million US dollars will be handed over to the United States. IRS.

It is precisely because of this that Matthew Peterson started the operation of the mouse warehouse. The 500 million US dollars is not divided, and it is directly used for investment. It is said to be an investment, but it is actually money laundering. Billion dollars into his own pocket, compared to honestly paying dividends to all shareholders, this way of getting more money and faster.

Generally, large-scale listed groups have a large number of acquisitions and mergers and acquisitions every year, and no one can guarantee that every acquisition and acquisition will make money. It is reasonable for some projects to fail.

Based on this, Matthew Peterson single-handedly planned the acquisition.

But he never expected that Emily, who was always obedient to him and even looked a little like a slave, actually had so much evidence of himself, and said it in front of Fei Kexin.

In this way, taking away the 500 million US dollars by himself is equivalent to directly taking away the money that should have been distributed to the Fei family. How could Fei Kexin spare himself if he could become the head of the Fei family?

Moreover, what's more terrible is that Emily also exposed the dirty things between herself and her adopted daughter. Once this matter is exposed to the FBI, she must sit in prison!

Thinking of this, Matthew Peterson almost immediately made up his mind to reconcile with Fei Kexin no matter what.

So, he looked at Fei Kexin and begged bitterly, "Miss Fei, as long as you let me go, I am willing to transfer all my shares to the Fei family at 50% off the market price. Making hundreds of millions of dollars in profits, and helping the Fei family strengthen their control over the entire company, this has far exceeded my damage to the Fei family's earnings, and it is definitely very sincere..."

Fei Kexin smiled slightly, "You think I will take your hundreds of millions of dollars seriously? For the Fei family, money is far less important than reputation. If the Fei family protects a beast like you for hundreds of millions of dollars, wouldn't Fei Haoyang die in vain? Already?"

Matthew Peterson's heart skipped a beat.

Only then did he recall the Fei Haoyang incident that had been raging before.

In order to compensate the families of the victims injured by Fei Haoyang, the Fei family paid out more than one billion US dollars.

Fei Kexin finally managed to turn the tide and help the Fei family restore their reputation. Under such circumstances, how could he let himself go for the sake of his own shares?

Thinking of this, he had already recognized the situation in his heart, and thought to himself, "I want to run away, the sooner the better! It is best to leave the United States tonight!"

After making up his mind, Matthew Peterson stood up slowly, He said with a face of remorse, "Miss Fei, don't worry, I will surrender myself to the police tonight. I will never evade the responsibility that is due to me!"

After finishing speaking, he took advantage of Fei Kexin's inattention, turned around and ran out.

His driver is outside, and his private jet is at the airport. As long as he can get out of the auditorium gate, he can arrive at the airport within half an hour.

As long as he can get on the plane, he will definitely be able to leave the United States tonight. As long as he can leave the United States, he can keep most of his assets while maintaining his personal freedom.

If I can't get on the plane, I'm afraid I will lose my assets and freedom!

Matthew Peterson suddenly got oil on his feet and wanted to escape, but Fei Kexin didn't react for a while. Just when Matthew Peterson thought he would be able to escape, he suddenly felt his body stagnate for an instant, and his whole body froze. The person was instantly strangled by the neck and unable to move.

He looked back subconsciously, and found that it was charlie who reached out and grabbed his collar.

charlie said with a smile on his face at this time, "Mr. Peterson, where are you going in such a hurry?"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5312 -

Matthew Peterson quickly pretended to be calm and said, "Mr. wade, I just said that I will surrender to the police..."

charlie nodded and said with a smile, "It's a good thing to be willing to surrender yourself, but there's no need to go there in person, and crimes committed by the social elite like you usually cannot be dealt with by the police. The FBI will come forward in person, so let Miss Fei contact you." Tell the FBI, let them come here to pick you up."

Matthew Peterson became paralyzed with fright when he heard this, he struggled to break free from charlie's hand, but charlie's hand remained motionless.

Fei Kexin called jay over at this time, and said, "Master jay, inform the person in charge of the fbi and let them send the nearest agent."

"Good lady." jay nodded immediately, took out his mobile phone made a phone call.

Matthew Peterson could no longer support his body, and his whole body lay like mud on the ground. His eyes were full of despair and he begged, "Miss Fei, please let me live, don't kill me... I have worked so hard for so many years to get it. Today, you can't completely destroy me!"

Fei Kexin said in a cold tone, "It's not that I'm going to destroy you, but you are destroying yourself."

Matthew Peterson struggled to death and said, "Miss Fei, really No, I will unconditionally transfer all my shares to the Fei family!"

Fei Kexin smiled lightly, and said, "Did you forget what I said? Your shares will be auctioned off at a low price to compensate the company for losses. As for whether there will be any remaining and how much is left, you will need to go to the prison to wait for a while." Just wait."

While speaking, jay had already come back from the outside.

He came to Fei Kexin and said respectfully, "Miss, I have already called the person in charge of the fbi. They attach great importance to it. They have sent several senior agents from the fbi base in Providence. They sit The helicopter will be there in ten minutes."

In the United States, although the influence of the Fei family is not the highest, it is definitely one of the most influential families. For such a family, the head of the fbi will always Guaranteed 7x24-hour response, and will try our best to solve any situation.

Therefore, jay made a phone call, and the other party responded immediately.

When Matthew Peterson heard this, he completely collapsed, and sat on the ground crying loudly, which aroused the curiosity and attention of many people for a while.

At this time, Matthew Peterson felt as if he had encountered the end of the world. Looking back on his high-spirited appearance ten minutes ago, he was about to lose everything and even go to jail. Matthew Peterson wished he could hit his head and die here.

Emily also slumped on the ground in despair, covering her face and weeping bitterly. She knew that if Fei Kexin asked the FBI to intervene in this matter, the handle Matthew Peterson held in her hands would lose its value in cash. Not only would she lose her job, and lost the last trump card to get rich, and he will completely lose everything.

Fei Kexin didn't want to entangle with these two people anymore, so she said to charlie, "Master wade, leave this to Master jay. Let's find a quiet place inside and sit for a while, what do you think?"

charlie nodded slightly. Nodding, since Fei Kexin has notified the fbi, with the ability of the fbi and Fei Kexin's influence, Matthew Peterson will inevitably be tried by the law, so he doesn't bother to look at the two of them, so he Looking at jay, he said politely, "That's a hard work for Master jay."

jay bowed respectfully, and said, "Master wade, you are being polite, this is all my job."

Fei Kexin told jay, "Master jay, keep an eye on this Matthew Peterson and hand him over to the FBI."

Claire glanced at Emily at this moment, wanted to say something, but hesitated for a long time , and finally did not speak.

charlie saw Claire's performance in his eyes, and knew that she seemed to have compassion for Emily.

However, seeing that Claire still didn't say anything in the end, he acted as if he didn't see it.

When the three came to the banquet hall, Fei Kexin instantly attracted the attention of countless people, so the three simply found an empty corner and sat down temporarily.

After sitting down, Fei Kexin looked at Claire who was beside charlie, and couldn't help saying with some shame, "Claire... Congratulations on your successful graduation... I'm really sorry about the previous things, and I do have many difficulties that I can't talk about." , I hope you can understand..."

In Claire's heart, although she was a little pissed about the fact that Fei Kexin used a false identity to make friends with herself, she could actually understand Fei Kexin.

Although she didn't know what Fei Kexin had experienced, she knew that this kind of rich and noble family must have many difficulties that they could not tell outsiders.

She felt that although Fei Kexin used a pseudonym at the time, she did not do anything to hurt herself. On the contrary, she even gave herself a decoration order and even helped herself win a place in the master class. It's not a small favor for her. Therefore,

Claire also said very politely at this time, "Miss Fei, we are friends. It's too outlandish for you to say that. Although I don't know the reasons for many things, it is understandable."

When Claire said that, his expression became much more relaxed in an instant, and he quickly said, "Claire, you are right! If you have time some other day, I will definitely have a good chat with you, and tell you what happened back then..."

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5313 -

Claire smiled and said, "I have time. After the graduation ceremony is over, we two will go to the hotel bar to chat alone, and let charlie go back to the room first."

Fei Kexin nodded without thinking and smiled, "Okay! Then it's settled! "

Seeing that the two of them seem to have cleared up their previous misunderstanding, charlie couldn't help but feel a little relieved.

Claire is not good at socializing, except for Dong Ruolin, she has no real friends, and when Fei Kexin went to Aurous Hill under the pseudonym Zhan Feier, Claire really regarded her as a good friend.

But then her friend suddenly left without saying goodbye and vanished from the world. She was always worried about it, for fear that something might happen to Fei Kexin.

It wasn't until later that Fei Kexin suddenly appeared on TV media all over the world as the Patriarch of the Fei family that Claire realized that the good friend he thought he had never even told himself his true identity.

From that day on, Charlie could tell that Claire was a little bit lost.

However, the two are now reconciled. Symptoms, if you give the two of them some time and let Fei Kexin tell Claire about her crisis at that time, I believe Claire can completely eliminate all negative emotions.

Moreover, Charlie is not worried that Fei Kexin will say the wrong thing, or leak his mouth, and then leak his key information.

After all, he has hardly ever seen a girl who is smarter than Fei Kexin. She must be able to explain this matter to Claire very truthfully and perfectly, and at the same time limit her role to the category of Fengshui master .

Now for Charlie, as long as he can still limit himself to the scope of the Fengshui master in front of his wife, then he will not be afraid of anything, because he can get round no matter what.

Even the patriarch of a top-level big family like Fei Kexin respects him, and he can explain it.

After all, when Fei Kexin was nearly chased and killed by her uncle, it was he who helped her adjust Feng Shui, made a fortune teller and asked her the way, so that he helped her fight back and regain the position of Patriarch of the Fei family.

With this premise, even if Fei Kexin is respectful to himself, everything can have a reasonable explanation.

A few minutes later.

The FBI helicopter landed in the square outside the auditorium. Several FBI agents wearing sunglasses rushed into the scene and took Matthew Peterson, who was guarded by Jay, out.

Matthew Peterson had completely given up resisting, and was put on the helicopter by two detectives limply.

Countless people saw him being taken away by the fbi, and while they were all shocked, they couldn't help whispering, trying to figure out why this big man in the design circle was suddenly taken away by the fbi.

Jay watched the helicopter take off with his own eyes before returning to the venue to report to Fei Kexin.

Fei Kexin smiled slightly after hearing this, and said to Claire, "Claire, when I take control of Aiyikang, if you are interested, I will invite you to be the president of Aiyikang." Claire was frightened. Waving his hand, "I don't have this level, I'd better run my small company in Aurous Hill..."

Fei Kexin said seriously, "Don't worry, I will reserve this position for you when the time comes. If you are interested, you can come here anytime."

At the same time.

Eastcliff on the other side of the world.

A tall, slender girl of seventeen or eighteen years old, with a pure appearance, was walking briskly in a traditional Eastcliff alley.

It is early in the morning in Eastcliff at this moment, and it stands to reason that this should be the busiest and most lively time in the hutong.

But this deep alley is very deserted, there are no shops and vendors selling breakfast, not even a pedestrian.

The girl walked towards the deepest part of the alley. At the end of the alley, there was a very imposing five-room three-door. The so-called five-room three-door means the width of five rooms and three gates. Specifications.

And the innermost mansion was originally the mansion of a prince in the Qing Dynasty.

The five three-door gates are about three to four meters high, and the doors are full of brass door nails, which are extraordinary in style.

And the huge stone lions on both sides of the door are also magnificently carved.

When the girl walked two-thirds of the way, suddenly, out of nowhere, two middle-aged men in casual clothes appeared.

These two middle-aged men were burly, with resolute expressions, and it was clear at a glance that they were definitely not ordinary people.

The two stopped the girl, and one of them said, "Little girl, this is a private mansion, don't go any further." The girl was stopped by two strong men, she was not afraid at all, but said lightly, "Please tell your old man , just say that Lin Wan'er (Alani) is here and needs to see him."
