

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5341 -

Hearing Jacob's words, Charlie couldn't help asking in surprise, "Why is Professor Hank and Auntie Matilda together? When did it happen?"

Jacob said indignantly, "It was when we went to Korea for cultural exchanges this time. For some reason, the two of you saw each other right!"

Charlie asked him, "Are you sure you are together? Has it been announced?"

"Yes..." Jacob said in pain, "Auntie Matilda is looking for me." After talking about this matter, she said that Professor Hank has always had that kind of meaning for her, and it has not been a day or two, and when we ran into him that time, he was already interested in your Aunt Matilda."

Said then, Jacob said again, "That old boy surnamed He has been stalking your Aunt Matilda, and your Aunt Matilda didn't know what was wrong, so she agreed to him."

Charlie laughed and said, "Dad, let me tell you something you don't like to hear, but I actually think they are a good match."

"A good match?!" Jacob exploded when he heard this, and asked angrily, "What's so good about them? What do you want to say?" Good match, you and Auntie Matilda are a match made in heaven. I think back when we two fell in love at school, it was really a talent and beauty recognized by all the teachers and students in the school. If it weren't for Elaine, we two would have been married long ago. I don't even know how many children I have had."

As he spoke, Jacob said angrily, "I really didn't expect that your Auntie Matilda would be able to move on so quickly. In her eyes, is it true that the relationship you have had for so many years? Can't you compare to that surnamed Hank?"

Charlie heard what he said, and said with a serious face, "Dad, what you said is very irresponsible."

Jacob raised his eyebrows, stared and asked, "Why don't I? Are you responsible? Did I say something wrong?"

Charlie asked him back, "You always said that you and Auntie Matilda are talented and beautiful, and they are a match made in heaven, but didn't you marry your mother in the end?"

Jacob said angrily, "My It was all framed by Elaine, if it wasn't for him, how could your Auntie Matilda leave me?"

charlie shook his head, and said lightly, "We won't talk about the old things. Let's talk about what happened after Auntie Matilda came back. I can see that Auntie Matilda did have old feelings for you when she first returned to China." The point is, she gave you a chance, but you don't have the courage to take it, you don't want to take it yourself, and she can't wait for you all the time. In this case, if you meet a more suitable person, everyone will definitely choose the latter, after all, if I choose the former, I don't know how long I will have to wait, and I may even wait for no result in my whole life."

When Jacob heard this, he hesitated with a guilty conscience, "Aren't I also looking for a divorce? Is it the right time to ask your mother for a divorce? But you know her character, I must keep secret and wait for the opportunity, and I can't directly mention it to her!"

charlie snorted and said, "Dad, you say that, do you believe it yourself?"

Jacob argued strongly, "I... I really think so!"

charlie said very directly, "Dad, I know your character, and I also know what you are thinking, you dare not tell me. When Mom mentions divorce, you just want to wait for a good opportunity that falls from the sky. It is best if Mom suddenly disappears from the world, or she doesn't want to live with you and asks you for divorce, so that you can make it happen without any trouble. A pawn, get rid of this marriage, right?"

Jacob didn't expect charlie to speak directly to his inner thoughts, so he said embarrassedly, "I also want to try my best to solve the problem peacefully..."

charlie shook his head and said, "I know, when Aunt Matilda returned to China, my mother happened to be missing for a while, and I can see that you enjoyed the feeling very much during that time, but you didn't realize it, that feeling is only temporary, you can't treat the temporary as eternity."

Then, charlie said sincerely, "Dad, I have some understanding of Professor Hank's situation. To be honest, it seems to me that it is the best choice for Aunt Matilda to be with him. Both of them are single and widowed. Not only do they not have the psychological burden of destroying each other's family, but also there is no need to worry that the other party will rekindle their old relationship with their predecessor, or that their predecessor will come back to trouble them. "

Having said that, charlie looked at Jacob, and said meaningfully, "With my mother's personality, even if you two divorce, if she knows that you and Auntie Matilda are rekindled, she will definitely not let you go. The two of you will definitely be disturbed, unless the two of you leave Aurous Hill and never come back, and don't let him know where you went."

Jacob looked up to the sky and sighed, "charlie...you're right, charlie...I'm afraid Elaine is haunted! For more than 20 years, I have dreamed of getting rid of her every day, but this woman is like a devil, it is impossible to let me go."

charlie said lightly, "This kind of thing needs you Fight for it by yourself, you will be afraid first, so what's the point of talking about other things?" After speaking

, charlie said again, "I didn't finish what I just said, Aunt Matilda and Professor Hank both came back from the United States Yes, and they all graduated from top prestigious universities. They are senior intellectuals in the true sense. Whether they are in the United States or in China, they all have high social status and belong to the absolute elite class. This alone makes them a good match. In contrast, apart from being Aunt Matilda's first love, Dad, you have no advantage over Professor Hank."

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5342 -

Jacob said depressedly, "Isn't he just reading more books than me? Is there anything better than me?"

charlie seriously said, "Dad, he is better at work than you. He is a specially-appointed professor and vice president of the School of Finance and Economics. If he is willing to go to Eastcliff, Tsinghua University will rush to invite him to go there, and his living habits are better than yours. The management is also better than yours. She runs and works out every day. She is fifty years old and looks like she is in her thirties. It just so happens that Auntie Matilda also likes to run, and her body management is also very good. The two must have all kinds of things in common. The topic, Aunt Matilda is with him, it is the best choice, I believe that the two of them will be very happy in their later years."

Jacob was so depressed that he died, and choked up, "charlie, are you here to persuade me or to give me Adding trouble? Let you speak as if your Auntie Matilda was right to give up on me."

charlie nodded, and said seriously, "Not only is it right, but it is very right."

charlie is very clear that once things like feelings are reduced to Pain, we must cut the mess quickly.

It was as if there was a small wound on one leg, but the wound festered repeatedly and did not heal, so the leg must be cut off decisively, otherwise, the whole body would be affected.

Jacob's behavior style, as he himself said, is so cowardly to death, not only to Elaine, but also to himself, how could he give himself heavy medicine to heal his psychological pain?

Therefore, this kind of thing can only be done by my son-in-law.

So, he patted Jacob on the shoulder and comforted him, "Dad, forget it, admit defeat, Professor Hank is much better than you in all aspects, don't look at you living in a big villa and opening Cullinan, you really use your own strength Let's compare, eight of you can't compare to Professor Hank alone, Aunt Matilda is with him, you should be convinced to lose, if you still have any unwilling thoughts in your heart, it's a sign of overestimation."

"Who said that?" Jacob was extremely confused, but he still said bravely, "I think I should hurry up and make a change now, and I won't be any worse than Hank!"

charlie said with a smile, "What are you doing ?" If you can't beat someone, you still insist on a sneak attack. What's the use of talking about it? If you are really in the ring, you will die if you force yourself to fight for a few more rounds! Tell yourself, what is your own condition than Professor Hank? you can say anything, whatever! I don't want to say anything else, Professor Hank dares to love and hate, dare to speak out loudly if he loves, pursues in an open and honest way, this alone will throw you away Thousands of miles away."

"I..." Jacob didn't know how to argue.

Hank is indeed better than him in every aspect Too much show, this time I went to South Korea for cultural exchanges, and what Hank did on the project really made everyone amazed, and the level directly killed all the participants on both sides.

Moreover, when Hank gave a speech on stage, he could switch between Chinese, English, and Korean at will, and he could speak at his fingertips. His personality and charm made a lot of old Korean women stunned for a while.

During the period of cultural exchanges, there were at least seven or eight old Korean ladies who confessed to him, and there were many of them glamorous young women, but Jacob was so envious.

It is also because Hank is so good that Jacob has always felt inferior in front of him, but inferiority comes from inferiority. Jacob still has one thing to comfort himself, that is, Hank likes Matilda, but Matilda likes herself.

Although he is not as good as him in every way, at least he has won against Matilda once.

However, Jacob never expected that, seeing that the cultural exchange was coming to an end, the members participating in the exchange between China and South Korea held a dance party. Who would have thought that Hank was not only knowledgeable and good-natured, but he could even go on stage and play the guitar by himself? An English song was sung, he played the guitar well and sang even better, which made Jacob jealous to death.

Moreover, from Jacob's point of view, Hank was really urging. After singing an English love song, he actually confessed his love to Matilda in public. Matilda is willing to accept herself, and if she is willing, she can dance with herself.

As a result, she never expected that amidst the cheers of the crowd, Matilda stood up and walked onto the stage. After that, the two performed a twist dance that was very popular in the United States in the last century.

Everyone at the scene was impressed by the perfect match between the two, except Jacob, who felt completely defeated and his life fell to the bottom all of a sudden.

So from that day on, Jacob was completely decadent.

Back in Aurous Hill, he shut himself up at home for more than a week, smoking and drinking to anesthetize himself every day, until today.

However, Jacob's pain is pain, but he can't look at the gap between himself and Hank objectively, so he has been aggrieved all the time, hating Hank for taking away the love of his life, and even more hating Matilda for empathizing.

However, now that he heard Charlie's heart-pounding words, he finally came to his senses, and finally realized the gap between himself and Hank.

Thinking of his opponent, who is completely crushing him, Jacob felt sad and cried like a child.

Charlie was about to take advantage of the situation to comfort him, but Claire suddenly rushed out of the elevator and said anxiously, "Husband, something happened! Mom called 110 and got into an argument with the police!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5343 -

"Arguing with the police?!"

Charlie asked in surprise, "Why did Mom quarrel with the police?"

Claire said in a panic, "I don't know. Mom said she needed to go to the bathroom, so I helped her in. Then I came out, and then I heard her calling someone on the inside, and her tone became more and more agitated, and finally quarreled with him, saying that he is not worthy of being a policeman..."

Charlie said hurriedly "I'll go take a look."

After finishing speaking, he looked at Jacob and said seriously, "Dad, you should digest what I just said. If you feel uncomfortable, I will tell you again later."

Jacob was depressed He muttered incomparably, "Forget it...don't sprinkle salt on my wound arrogantly...no...what you sprinkled is not salt, it's sulfuric acid!

" Think about it, I'll go up and have a look first."

After that, charlie and Claire took the elevator to the third floor.

Before entering Malan's bedroom, he heard Malan yelling loudly in the bathroom, "Aren't you the police? Why can't you take care of it? I've given you the evidence so clearly, why don't you arrest people?!"

charlie I heard the other party say on the phone, "Madam, this situation is really not enough to be a fraud. We can't file a case to arrest people. Everyone makes up a random story on the Internet, and our police will arrest them. This is morality." The problem is not a legal problem."

Elaine said angrily, "She cheated people's money! If she didn't cheat people's money, how could she afford to buy a Mercedes-Benz big G?! My son-in-law told me, The car she drives costs at least two million yuan, which is considered a huge fraud in the law, right?! You should arrest him and sentence her to life imprisonment!"

"Ma'am..." The operator on the other side said patiently, "We have already checked with the platform side about the problem you reported just now, and the platform side reported that the money she earned is reasonable and legal, and has been paid by the platform. Withholding personal income tax, the things she sells online are also regular and qualified products produced by regular manufacturers, so you say that she is involved in fraud, which is not supported by any evidence. How can we file a case without evidence? The law is no joke!"

Elaine scolded angrily, "She made up stories to deceive people! She said on the Internet that her husband and son were paralyzed in bed in a car accident. That is a lie. Her husband and son were not paralyzed in a car accident at all. She was beaten and paralyzed!" The other party said helplessly, "Even if what you said is true, the responsibility lies with the beating party, not her, unless her husband and her son were paralyzed by him, Otherwise, we wouldn't be able to catch her."

"You..." Elaine gasped and yelled hysterically, "I think you're deliberately covering her up! You know she's broken the law but you don't catch her. What the hell are you guys doing?" Intentions?" The other party seemed to give up on continuing to explain to her, and said, "Ma'am, we really have no way to file a case for the problem reported, so please don't continue, because this matter takes up public resources, if you can find her illegal and criminal If there is any evidence, then you are welcome to report to our public security organs, as long as there is some proof that she has a problem, we will definitely file a case for investigation!"

"Otherwise, if one person makes a phone call, and there is no evidence to say that another person Suspected of a crime, let us arrest the other party, how many people do we have to arrest every day to solve this problem? What's more, if we really file a case and investigate and find that the other party is wronged, we will not let go of the person who reported the false police. The other party will be held accountable."
