

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5363 -

As the two cars got closer, charlie, out of curiosity, subconsciously glanced at the opposite motorcade.

He could tell that the distinguished guests of Aurous Hill University should be in that Rolls Royce, so the focus was to take a closer look at this car.

However, he didn't have any voyeuristic desires, he just glanced at it roughly, and because of the privacy film pasted inside the car, he could vaguely see that there were four people sitting in the car.

At this time, Lin Wan'er (Alani), who was sitting in the co-pilot and was watching left and right, turned her gaze to the right.

Across the front of the Rolls-Royce, charlie only saw that in the opposite car, the driver was an older middle-aged man, the co-driver was a young girl, and the back seat was an elderly couple. Nothing unusual was noticed.

When the two cars passed by, the shortest distance between charlie and Lin Wan'er (Alani) was only a few meters, and even Claudia, who was sitting in the co-pilot, saw Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s profile.

At this moment, she only felt that the girl's side face was so beautiful, it was a kind of peerless classical beauty, just looking at her side face, she could feel an extraordinary aura.

It's just that charlie glanced at it from a distance just now, and now he has no plans to look any more.

At this time, Claudia couldn't help subconsciously exclaiming, "Wow...that girl is so beautiful!"

charlie subconsciously wanted to see what happened when he heard her words.

At this time, if charlie took another look at the cab of the Rolls-Royce, he would be able to recognize Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s side face at a glance.

But at this critical moment, charlie suddenly felt something jump violently in the right pocket of his trousers!

Immediately afterwards, the thing seemed to have life, beating repeatedly in the pocket at a very high frequency.

This strange phenomenon made charlie not come back to his senses. When he subconsciously looked down into his trouser pocket, he had already passed the Rolls Royce. The whole process only took a second or two.

charlie reached out and touched his trouser pocket, and then he touched the ring that Lin Wan'er (Alani) gave him when he was in Northern Europe.

At this time, the ring was still slightly vibrating in charlie's hand, but the vibration became smaller and smaller until it finally stopped completely.

charlie slammed on the brakes to stop the car, looked at the ring again, and thought to himself, "This ghost thing has been on me for so long, and I have injected so much spiritual energy into it, and it hardly responds. Why is it suddenly Are you moving?"

Claudia on the side saw charlie stop the car, took out another ring and frowned, and couldn't help but ask, "Brother charlie, what's wrong with you?"

charlie frowned, but said casually. Said, "Oh... I don't know who put a ring in my pocket."

Claudia hurriedly said, "Maybe it was put by sister Claire?"

charlie nodded deliberately, "It's also possible, I will ask when I go back. She."

When he said this, charlie thought again in his heart, "It's strange... why did the ring stop after being moved a few times? Do you want to inject some spiritual energy to test it?"

After thinking up to this point, what did charlie think of and his expression There was a sudden change, and I thought to myself, "Nimma, this thing is not going to deceive my spiritual energy again! I know that I am unwilling, so I made a small move to arouse my curiosity, and then deceive me further. Aura..."

Thinking of this, he hurriedly put the ring back into his pocket, recalling the feeling of powerlessness when his aura was emptied a few times, he swore secretly, "Don't worry, I won't be fooled by you again!"

In fact, charlie didn't He knew that the reason why the ring suddenly seemed to wake up was actually because it sensed Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s existence.

This ring is not ordinary in the first place, and it has always been Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s personal belongings, and there has already been some kind of connection between Lin Wan'er (Alani) and Lin Wan'er (Alani).

But Lin Wan'er (Alani) has no aura, so this kind of induction is one-way.

That is to say, only the ring can sense Lin Wan'er (Alani), but Lin Wan'er (Alani) cannot sense the existence of the ring.

Originally, Charlie had a high probability of seeing Lin Wan'er (Alani), but because of the sudden vibration of the ring, Charlie didn't see Lin Wan'er (Alani), and Lin Wan'er (Alani) didn't see Charlie either.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5364 -

But Lin Wan'er (Alani), who had a good intuition, was moved by something in her heart at the moment when the BMW car on the left flashed by. She immediately looked back subconsciously, but she only saw the car that had gone away, and didn't find anything unusual.

She thought that her expression was a little too sensitive, so she didn't take it to heart for a hundred years.

Charlie in the BMW car had already put away the ring again, and said to Claudia, "If you have nothing to do, let's go to the city first, buy a gift before going back."

Claudia nodded quickly, "I'm fine, listen to brother Charlie."

So, the two drove to the shopping plaza in the city center.

And here, Qiu Yingshan's motorcade also stopped slowly on the square outside the Academic Affairs Building.

The retired old principal of Aurous Hill University, together with the current school leaders, are already waiting in line here.

A number of bodyguards came down from several SUVs in the front and back, and two of them came to the back row of the Rolls-Royce one from the left and the other from the right, and opened the doors on both sides.

Qiu Yingshan and his wife got out of the car slowly.

Due to their age, the bodyguards immediately handed them walking sticks, and Mukesh, the old principal of Aurous Hill University, was the first to greet them excitedly, and said enthusiastically, "Old Mr. Qiu, welcome to Aurous Hill University again! "

Qiu Yingshan said with a smile, "Bro Mukesh, you kept a low profile, why did you still engage in such a big fight?" I definitely want to greet you in person. Besides, you have made so much contribution to Aurous Hill University, and the current school leadership admires you a lot, so they all spontaneously came to greet you. I can't stop it even if I want to what."

Qiu Yingshan knew Mukesh very well. This person's style of conduct was comprehensive, and he was impeccable. He gave Qiu Yingshan a big hug.

Therefore, Qiu Yingshan didn't bother with this issue anymore, and just smiled and said, "I haven't been here for so many years. I really feel that I have changed a lot since I entered the school just now. It is worthy of being a double first-class university in China. It really makes people feel different. Mukesh nodded, and said with a smile, "Aurous Hill University can become a double first-class university without the support and help of the country, and it is also inseparable from Mr. Qiu's generous donation. In that era when money was most scarce, It is you who made Aurous Hill University have enough ammunition to stand out from the crowd!"

Qiu Yingshan said earnestly, "I admit to the two points you just said, but I think that the development of Aurous Hill University is inseparable from the hard work of you and everyone. With that said, Qiu Yingshan said again, "As for me, I'm just a businessman who smells like copper. I can't help much except donating some money. It takes ten years to cultivate trees and a hundred years to cultivate people. The development of Aurous Hill University is due to all of you!"

Mukesh said with a smile, "Old Mr. Qiu, you are becoming more and more humble, I think, let's stop flattering each other here, why don't I show you around, by the way, let me introduce to you the progress and improvement that Aurous Hill University has made compared with before!"

He said, "We will also arrange a report meeting later, so that the current management team can follow up Please report on your current work situation!"

Qiu Yingshan smiled slightly and said, "Okay, then let's take a look around first!"

Afterwards, Qiu Yingshan and his wife, accompanied by the school leaders, took a sightseeing battery car to Aurous Hill University. I took a tour around the campus.

At the same time, Lin Wan'er (Alani) pushed the door and walked out of the Rolls Royce, taking advantage of the fact that there were no school staff around.

The driver quickly pushed the door down and followed Lin Wan'er (Alani) silently.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) looked back at him, and said calmly, "I want to walk alone, you don't have to worry about me." The driver hurriedly said, "Miss, master told me to protect you, you'd better not wander around alone "

It's okay." Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled and said, "I'm just looking casually, I won't go far."

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5365 -

The architectural design of Aurous Hill University is still very sophisticated overall.

Because it is the ancient capital of the Six Dynasties, the cultural background here is very profound, so when the new campus was built, it also fully considered the local cultural characteristics of Aurous Hill, and the overall modernity has a bit of simplicity and solemnity, which made Lin Waner (Alani) shine. .

She walked around the campus, and suddenly saw a lush green hill not far away, and muttered to herself, "There should be Qixia Mountain there... Sure enough, seeing it is better than being famous..."

After that, she didn't know what to think of, Those beautiful eyes were suddenly covered with a mist of sadness.

On the other side, Qiu Yingshan and his wife, surrounded by all the stars, visited the campus of Aurous Hill University roughly. In the middle, Qiu Yingshan found an opportunity to pull the old principal Mukesh aside, and said, "Bro Mukesh, this time I Come on, I need your help with something else."

Hearing this, Mukesh quickly said, "Old Mr. Qiu, why are you being so polite to me! I, Mukesh, said something sincerely, Aurous Hill University can have such a big Development, I have always been very grateful to you in my heart, and I have always wanted to repay your kindness, but I never thought that I would have no chance until I retire. Now if you can use me in any place, I would like to do my best for you!"

Although Mukesh is very Can talk, but there is no exaggeration in these words.

He has been retired for many years, and his retirement life is full and rich, and his children and grandchildren are also very competitive. At his age, he no longer needs to please anyone against his will.

And he really admired and appreciated Qiu Yingshan from the bottom of his heart.

In that era, it was actually very rare to be able to spend so much money to help a domestic university develop and build, and Mukesh always kept it in mind.

Seeing Mukesh's sincere expression, Qiu Yingshan said, "Actually, it's not a big deal. It's the great-granddaughter of a distant cousin of mine. She just graduated from high school in Malaysia this year. The family had arranged to send her to study in the United States, but she suddenly changed. My idea is to come to Huaxia to study, my cousin heard that I am going to visit Aurous Hill, and knows that I have some connections with Aurous Hill University, so he wants me to contact her to see if Aurous Hill University can accept her.”

Mukesh asked in surprise, “Old Mr. Qiu, this is what you are talking about?”

“Yes.” Qiu Yingshan nodded, “I hope she can come to Aurous Hill University to study as an undergraduate.”

It’s up to me, and I’ll say hello to Qin Yun later, this kind of thing is just a matter of little effort.”

Qiu Yingshan smiled slightly and said, “That’s good, so I can do business when I go back.”

Mukesh hurriedly asked, “What is the child planning?” When is it time to come?”

Qiu Yingshan said, “I’ve already come, but I didn’t get off the car just now, this little girl is rather withdrawn and doesn’t like crowded places.”

“Understood.” Mukesh nodded, and said, “Well, for a while Let’s go back to the Academic Affairs Building after the visit, and settle the children’s schooling first.”

“Okay!” Qiu Yingshan said with a smile, “Then it’s hard work for you to arrange it!”

Lin Wan’er (Alani) looked at Qixia Mountain for a long time, and she was still in a daze. It wasn’t until she suddenly received a message on her mobile phone that her thoughts were brought back to reality.

She turned on her phone and saw that the message was from Qiu Yingshan, which read, “Miss, please move to the Admissions Office on the fourth floor of the Academic Affairs Building. I will wait for you in the director’s office.”

“Okay.” Lin Wan’er (Alani) replied, and then looked at the Glancing at Qixia Mountain, he turned and went back to the Academic Affairs Building.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5366 -

She walked lightly all the way to the fourth floor, found Director’s office, knocked on the door, but didn’t hear anyone speak, and saw a middle-aged man open the door courteously.

The person who has been guarding the door is the owner of this office, Director.

Interestingly, at this moment, Director stood nervously at the door like a follower.

And on the sofa that Charlie had just sat on, sitting at this time were Qiu Yingshan and his wife, the old principal Mukesh, and the current principal Zhang Qinyun.

Seeing Lin Wan'er (Alani) coming in, Qiu Yingshan smiled and said, "Come on, let me introduce you, this is the great-granddaughter of my distant cousin, Suman."

After finishing speaking, she said to Suman, "Suman, I've come to see Principal, Principal Zhang, and Director of the Admissions Office."

Suman just looked at the three and nodded slightly, without saying a word.

Fortunately, Qiu Yingshan had vaccinated everyone just now, saying that Lin Wan'er (Alani) was withdrawn and not talkative, so everyone didn't mind it.

The current principal, Zhang Qinyun, said enthusiastically, "Miss Suman, I asked Director to prepare all the departments and majors of our Aurous Hill University. You can take a look and see which subjects you are interested in."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) still nodded slightly, quite the taste of aloofness and superciliousness of the eldest daughter of a rich family.

But Qiu Yingshan's background is too big after all, and his great-granddaughter from afar must not be worth much money, so everyone preconceived and understood her state very well.

Director hurriedly passed all the materials that Claudia had read to Lin Wan'er (Alani), and said with a smile, "Miss, the materials are all here. I just sorted them out today, please have a look."

Zhang Qinyun couldn't help but admire "Our admissions director is still very conscientious, and the materials have been collected early."

Director smiled modestly, and thanked Isaac Cameron in his heart, thinking to himself, "These two batches of foreign students enrolled, What a coincidence, otherwise it was Mr. Isaac who came first. I'm afraid it will take some time to sort out these materials temporarily."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) took the information and quickly looked through it. She is actually not interested in going to school, and she is not sure how long she can stay in Aurous Hill.

However, since she has chosen to study at Aurous Hill University as a student, her major must be I still have to choose one.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) looked through it, and found that it was only a subject of history, and she was still a little interested.

Combined with her love of blue and white porcelain, she pulled out the introduction page of the archeology major, and said lightly, "That's it.

Director looked at it, his eyes widened, and he blurted out in surprise, "Another archeology? " ! This year the archeology major seems to be turning around..."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) looked at him with a frown, and asked, "Where did 'again' come from? Director said sincerely, "

To tell you the truth, Ms. Lin, a few minutes before you came, I just accepted an international student from Canada. She is also a girl. She likes mixed blood, so she chose archeology... I At that time, I advised her that the major of archeology is really unpopular, and employment will be a big problem in the future, but she didn't care at all, and she resolutely chose this major... Now you also want to choose this major. In the future, you two will be in the Department of Archeology. I'm afraid the department is going to become the focus of the whole school..."

Director took Claudia's application form and handed it to Lin Wan'er (Alani) graciously, "Miss Lin, look, this is the girl, both of you are from overseas. Come here, if you feel speculative, you can contact more after school starts, maybe you can become friends.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) cast a glance, smiled, shook her head and said, "No need, I don't like making friends very much . "

Oh, that's fine..." Director laughed and took Claudia's application form back.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) suddenly saw something and blurted out, "Wait a minute!" "
