

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5397 -

That night, after Claire came home, charlie told her about going out with Isaac Cameron tomorrow.

In the eyes of ordinary people, Isaac Cameron is the boss of Shangri-La Palace, so Claire thought that charlie was going to help Isaac Cameron with Feng Shui.

Although she was a little distressed that charlie had to go out to see Feng Shui just after returning to China, but charlie claimed that he had already made an appointment with Isaac Cameron, so she didn't stop him.

Early the next morning, charlie and Isaac Cameron flew to Guizhou, which is located in the southwest of China.

Because charlie concluded that the old lady's family background was not simple through the old lady's name, so after the plane took off, he made a special call to Abbas.

When the phone was connected, Abbas asked respectfully, "Mr. Wade, what's your order?"

charlie said, "Abbas, I need you to tell me in detail. After we rescued those victims in Mexico that day, The state and performance of that old lady."

Abbas said, "Returning to Mr. Wade, after the bus left the scene that day, it went to the US-Mexico border overnight. We went through the border inspection there. Wake up."

Saying that, Abbas said again, "The people who woke up at that time didn't remember what happened that night. When they found themselves on the bus, they were quite nervous. Our soldiers explained to them, In our words, we are an international charitable organization. Unlike other charitable organizations, we are not good at donating money and materials, but are good at using violence to control violence. After we have the evidence of the crazy Juarez criminal group, A surprise attack was launched on their lair, and these victims controlled by the crazy Juarez criminal group were rescued."

charlie asked him, "Do these victims believe it?"

Abbas said, "This, I can't be 100% Guaranteed, but the vast majority of people believe it. After all, we did rescue them, but some people don't understand their memory loss. Our soldiers lied that when we attacked Crazy Juárez, in order to avoid as much as possible There were fratricides during the battle, so tear gas containing anesthetic was used, which has a side effect of causing memory loss."

charlie praised, "This argument is very good, and it is very persuasive to people who don't understand."

“Yes.” Abbas said, “These victims can basically accept this argument, but you should focus on it.” The old lady in the past, her behavior is rather strange.”

charlie asked, “What is the strangeness?”

Abbas said, “Before we gave these explanations, everyone was very nervous about memory loss, but the old lady seemed I’m not worried at all, I’ve always been calm.”

Hearing this, charlie couldn’t help frowning.

He couldn’t help thinking to himself, “When the old lady woke up on the bus, she not only lost her memory, but also lost her ancestral bracelet. It’s very calm, could it be that something went wrong when I hid her memory?”

Thinking of this, charlie frowned.

Since mastering Reiki, he has never failed to use Reiki to hide other people’s memories and hypnotize them.

He didn’t quite believe that the old lady was immune to his spiritual energy, but from Abbas’s description, it seemed that something was not normal.

It seems that these questions can only be concluded after meeting the old lady.

So, charlie asked again, “Abbas, how did you arrange these people after arriving in the United States that day?”

Abbas replied, “Mr. Wade, after they woke up, the subordinates arranged for someone to record each of them. Since their passports were all destroyed, I asked someone to help them contact the embassy to reissue their documents, and then bought them a flight ticket to go home, and gave each of them an emergency cash of 3,000 US dollars, one by one. They were all sent to the plane.”

After speaking, Abbas said again, “However, the old lady and her son are exceptions.

“Before leaving, the officers and soldiers in charge of the escort left 100,000 yuan in cash for the old lady and her son according to the instructions of the subordinates, but the old lady insisted on not accepting it. The subordinate thought that you once said that you would go to see it after returning to China. That’s why they didn’t let the soldiers insist on giving them the money.”

"I understand." charlie frowned slightly, although there were many doubts in his heart, all the mysteries could only be solved after meeting the old lady .

After three hours of flight, the plane landed in Zunhuai, Guizhou Province.

As soon as the two arrived, the person in charge of the wade family in your province had already driven a high-performance off-road vehicle to wait outside the airport in advance according to Isaac Cameron's request.

This time, the place the two of them were going to was located in the mountainous area of southern Shu, and the road was quite inconvenient, so charlie planned to drive there with Isaac Cameron, without bringing any followers besides the two of them.

After getting the off-road vehicle, Isaac Cameron was in charge of driving, and charlie sat in the co-pilot. The two traveled through the winding mountains for nearly five hours before finally arriving at a village at the foot of the mountain.

However, this village is not the destination of charlie and Isaac Cameron. The village they are going to is located on the cliff halfway up the mountain. On the side, due to the steep terrain, there is only one steep mountain road up the mountain. Except for motorcycles, no vehicles can climb it.

Fortunately, although the mountain road is difficult to walk, the distance is not too far. The two are strong and strong, so it is no problem to climb this kind of mountain road.

So, after walking for more than an hour on the mountain road, the two came to a small mountain village located on the edge of a cliff in the middle of the mountain.

This mountain village is quite dilapidated. Most of the houses are dark wooden buildings. The houses are old and in disrepair.

It seems that it is rare to see strangers coming here. The old men sitting and chatting together at the head of the village were quite surprised when they saw the two walking to the entrance of the village.

Among the several old people at the entrance of the village, charlie did not see the old lady that day. Fortunately, Isaac Cameron got the video data made by the soldiers of Wanlong Palace from Abbas, and knew which way to get to the old lady from the entrance of the village. at home.

So, although it was the first time for the two of them to come, they found the house where the old lady lived with ease.

charlie and Isaac Cameron set off early in the morning, but it was already evening, and there were already waves of cooking smoke in the courtyard.

The two mottled wooden courtyard doors were only partially covered at this time, and it was just possible to see someone coming out from under the cooking shed in the courtyard, and from the firewood stack at the other end of the courtyard, they took out a handful of branches and firewood.

charlie recognized this person as the youngest son the old lady was talking about, the only one of her four sons who had grown up.

At this time, the old lady's son didn't see the two people standing outside the door. He carried firewood and walked back. At this time, charlie knocked on the false wooden door and asked, "Excuse me, is Grandma?" Home?" The other party stood still and asked with a Sichuan accent, "Where are you from?"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5399 -

Hearing the other party's question, charlie smiled slightly, and said, "You should be Grandma's son, right? My surname is Wade, and my father and father are old acquaintances. Let me come and have a look at Grandma Jiang." The other party asked in surprise, "You Does the old man recognize me?"

charlie nodded slightly.

At this time, an old lady slowly walked out from under the cooking shed. She looked at charlie with some doubts, frowned and asked, "Young man, do you know my husband?"

charlie said, "You are Grandma Jiang, my father knows him ." Your husband." The old lady hesitated for a moment, and quickly said, "Come in, come in!"

Then she said to her son, "Yaoer, please come in and pour water for the guests." The middle-aged man hurried up He opened the door before, and said politely, "Please come in, both of you, and sit inside the room!"

charlie nodded, thanked him, and entered the yard with Isaac Cameron.

This small courtyard is not that big, only a few tens of square meters in size. There are three wooden houses and two thatched sheds, one on the left and one on the right. The stove, and the other is built against the wall, making a circle of cover, the area is not large, it looks like a toilet.

And the three wooden houses are directly opposite the gate, the main room in the middle is wide open, and there are two rooms on the left and right inside, and the doors of the rooms are covered with cloth curtains.

charlie and Isaac Cameron followed the middle-aged man into the main room. There was a long and slender altar table in the middle of the room against the wall. Definitely a very old object.

On the top of the altar, there are incense burners and a number of tablets, and the names of the people written on them are all surnamed Jiang.

And on the wall above the altar, there are three Chinese-style portraits hanging.

The portrait in the center is a middle-aged man wearing a blue gown. Although the man is skinny, he is in good spirits. He stands on a boulder on a mountain with his hands behind his back. His long beard and the hem of his clothes follow him. The wind is blowing, the old man looks up at the sky, his expression is full of pride and ambition;

charlie has been in contact with antiques, he can tell that these paintings are all ancient paintings, and they are quite old.

He couldn't help sighing secretly in his heart, "Although I don't know whether these three paintings are from the hands of famous ancient masters, but just looking at the exquisite craftsmanship and unique charm, it can be concluded that they are not ordinary products. If they are brought to the market, they will not be much more Said, at least hundreds of thousands of a pair, three paintings sold for one million, should be easy."

"One million is not a small number for ordinary people, since the three paintings hanging in the old lady's house are so valuable , why was her son tricked into going to Mexico on the pretext of being a sailor? Even the mother and son almost died in a foreign country..."

At this point, charlie had more questions in his heart.

However, he can also see from this that his guess yesterday was correct. Although the old lady is living in poverty now, her family has been passed down in order for more than a thousand years, and her family background is absolutely extraordinary!

At this moment, the middle-aged man looked at these two well-dressed young men, somewhat nervous and cramped. He pointed to the low wooden table and wooden stool in the middle of the main room, and said with some embarrassment, "Please sit down, please. I'm really sorry, the conditions at home are poor, I've wronged you two, I'll go and pour water for you two."

charlie came back to his senses, smiled and said, "Thank you, don't be so polite, we are not thirsty."

While speaking, Mrs. Jiang washed her hands. Regardless of the drops of water on her hands, she trotted in quickly, and said with some panic, "Two distinguished guests, please sit down quickly. Our family is poor and we don't have decent furniture. Even I don't have any good chairs to sit on, I really feel wronged!"

charlie said respectfully, "Grandma Jiang, please sit down first!"

Mrs. Jiang hesitated for a moment, then smiled and sat down in front of charlie. She looked at charlie kindly, and asked curiously, "Young man, you said that your old man knows my husband. I don't know what your old man is. Your name?"

charlie didn't know how to answer for a moment.

In fact, his previous idea was very simple. After finding the old lady, he gave her a rejuvenation pill with his own hands under the pretext that he was the son of her husband's deceased, and then told her that he had bought a house and facade for her and her son in Shudu, and put them together. Please settle down in Shudu.

If she doubts her identity, or is unwilling to accept it, she has her own way, and that is a psychological suggestion.

At that time, let them continue with a psychological suggestion, let them fully accept my rhetoric, and accept the real estate and funds donated by me with peace of mind, so that I can get out of it unscathed.

However, in the current situation, it can be seen everywhere that this old lady seems not ordinary. charlie wanted to know more about it, but if he asked the old lady a question, he had to use psychological hints in a simple and rude way. He was really sorry, so he didn't know what to do right now.

The old lady also seemed to see charlie's embarrassment and entanglement, so she said to her son, "Yaoer, before it is dark, you take your crossbow arrows and go outside to hunt a pheasant and come back. There are distinguished guests at home today. Always kill a chicken to entertain." The middle-aged man nodded without thinking, and said, "Yes, mother, you entertain the guests first, and I will go out right away." The middle-aged manWith that said, he took a self-made crossbow bolt from behind the door, and then quickly walked out of the house.

charlie could tell that the old lady wanted to send her son away first, so she didn't say anything.

Isaac Cameron was a little surprised and asked her, "Grandma...going out to hunt at such a late hour, wouldn't it be dangerous?" The old lady shook her head and said, "I'm young and capable of hunting, and we don't have many young people here. The old man can't kill his prey, so there are pheasants and wild boars everywhere, he is very familiar with this place, so there will be no danger."

Then, the old lady sighed, and said distressedly, "It's just my son who was cheated by someone a while ago. When he went to Mexico, he was cut off with a kidney and half of his liver. Fortunately, his body recovered very well, he didn't suffer from the sequelae of shedding, and he was alive and well all day long..."

charlie was not surprised when he heard this.

After all, he just used spiritual energy to erase the memory of the old lady and others about him, but the memory of them being cheated, mutilated or witnessing others being mutilated is still there.

So, he followed the old lady's words, and said in surprise, "Is there such a sensational thing?"

" , but I haven't read any books in my life, and I don't like reading. Since I was a child, I like to build some bow traps and hunt in the mountains. I can't find a good job when I go out, and I don't have any social experience. Saying this, I went all the way to Mexico, and almost lost my life there..."

charlie comforted, "People say that if you survive a catastrophe, you will be blessed, so you don't have to be too sad." The old lady nodded and wiped her face gently . Tears, and then looked at charlie, and asked seriously, "Young man, my old lady dares to ask you, are you the savior of our mother and son?"
