

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5405 -

When the old lady heard charlie say the words Huichun Pill, she asked in shock, "...you...you know Huichun Pill too?!"

charlie nodded and said frankly, "I know.

That is, in fact, when he came, he specially prepared a Rejuvenation Pill for Mrs. Jiang.

Mrs. Jiang couldn't help but exclaimed, "You are indeed a person with great supernatural powers just like Old Ancestor Meng!"

charlie only smiled slightly, but was even more horrified in his heart.

So far, although he has benefited a lot from the "Nine Xuantian Jing", he still doesn't know who wrote the "Nine Xuantian Jing".

Now, when he learned that Mason had already refined the Rejuvenation Pill more than a thousand years ago, and gave two Rejuvenation Pills to the ancestors of the Jiang family, he couldn't help but ask himself in his heart, "Could it be that the "Rejuvenation Pill" I got? Is the Nine Xuantian Jing written by Mason? The antique that the father-in-law knocked over in the Jiqing Hall of the moore family was indeed a Tang Dynasty jade pot and spring vase, and Mason was also a person from the Linde period of the Tang Dynasty. In this way, the general dynasties are consistent, and coupled with the information related to Huichun Pill that I learned from Grandma, this inference seems to be somewhat possible..."

However, charlie also knew very well that it was impossible to just Based on these two points, it can be concluded that the "Nine Xuantian Jing" was written by Mason.

If you really want to prove this matter, at least you have to find more clues.

So, he kept this question in his heart for a while, and asked the old lady Jiang, "Grandma, how long did your ancestor live to die?" The old lady said, "My ancestor was born in Xiantong in 863 AD He died four years ago and lived to be one hundred and thirteen years old. Since Meng Laozu's wife and children were buried in the middle of the back mountain, my family's ancestors were buried at the foot of the back mountain after death. They were all buried at the foot of the mountain."

charlie couldn't help sighing, "The old man lived to be 113 years old, minus the 40-year life span of the two rejuvenating pills, he also lived to be 73 years old by himself. At that time, It's very rare."

According to the statistics of some unreliable scholars, the average life expectancy of the Tang Dynasty was about 40 or even 50 years old.

However, their statistics and research are very one-sided. They only count the ages of those recorded people when they died from the epitaphs that can be found and recorded history books, and then calculate a so-called average age.

But they overlooked a big problem. Those who can leave their names in the history books, own a tombstone and have someone engrave the epitaph are themselves the elite class of that era.

Moreover, many children who died young and unmarried young people did not leave tombstones after their deaths, let alone those ordinary people who died and buried them hastily with straw mats.

Therefore, the average life expectancy of the elite class calculated by the elite class has no real meaning.

Verifiable history shows that the average life expectancy of the emperors of the Tang Dynasty was only about 44 years old. This was the most elite class in the Tang Dynasty and assembled the best means of living and production in the country. Forty-four years old.

Many objective scholars believe that if the high mortality rate of infants and young children and the average life expectancy of ordinary people are included, the real average life expectancy of the Tang Dynasty should be around 30 years old.

Calculated in this way, the ancestor of the old lady's family lived to be seventy-three years old on his own body, which is longer than any emperor of the Tang Dynasty. This is already very remarkable.

At this time, Mrs. Jiang also nodded and sighed, "It is recorded in the genealogy that when my ancestor was 113 years old, he was not deaf, his eyes were not blurry, and his body was still strong. Everyone thought he would live to 120 years old." At the age of ten, but at the age of one hundred and thirteen, one day he had dinner and sat in front of the charcoal fire for a nap, when he suddenly said excitedly that Old Ancestor Meng had sent a white crane to pick him up, and passed away with a smile on his face after speaking. Already."

charlie said, "It seems that your ancestors really have a deep relationship with that ancestor Meng."

"Yes." The old lady said, "The ancestors left the ancestral instructions during their lifetime. The Jiang family members are not allowed to leave here for generations. They must always guard the tombs of Meng Laozu's wife and children, because Meng Laozu told him when he parted from my family's ancestors. If you find the way of longevity, you will definitely come back to find my ancestor and give him some blessings..."

charlie said in a low voice, "This ancestor Meng hasn't shown up since then?"

"No." The old lady shook her head and said "The Jiang family has not left here for more than a thousand years, and they have never seen the person in the painting appear here. Perhaps the old ancestor Meng failed to find the way of longevity, and he may have passed away at the threshold of two hundred years old..."

charlie nodded and said, "It's not impossible. Although Rejuvenation Pill is a panacea, it can't be superimposed on anyone without limit. With Rejuvenation Pill alone, you can't live to be two hundred years old. Even if you have spiritual energy, you can't live forever." If you want to live forever, you still need other opportunities."

Even in the "Nine Xuantian Jing", there is no record of any method to make people live forever. However, there is no record in the "Nine Xuantian Jing" on how to make the aura more powerful, so powerful that it can reach a state of invincibility and immortality.

Moreover, in the "Nine Xuantian Jing", there is no method that can make people live for more than two hundred years. The ability is close to that of a god, but there is no such kind of elixir that can make people live for a hundred years, or even thousands of years.

Therefore, it is theoretically impossible for Ancestor Meng to still be alive more than a thousand years later, and his life may have stopped at a certain deadline.

This kind of person spends his life only practicing, and may die without a single person by his side. He is driving west in a cave in a deep mountain and old forest, and in the end he will not be able to escape the six words Dust to ashes, Dust to dust. earth. Thinking of this, charlie asked the old lady again, "Grandma, your people, have you not left here for so many years?"

After thinking too much, he said, "My ancestor's ancestral precepts didn't tell us not to leave each other. He hoped that we could stay here, but at the same time, he hoped that we could know the world's affairs, so the Jiang family has always attached great importance to reading. When I was young, my father taught me to read and read, and later sent me down the mountain to study in middle school. In the intervening years, some descendants could not hold back and sneaked out, but most of them have been living here... .."

charlie asked her, "It must be very hard to live here, right?" The old lady smiled and said, "In this deep mountain, except for being sick and troublesome, eating and drinking are not a problem. Our people have been farming in spring and summer and hunting in autumn and winter. Very good, and it is far away from the flames of war. For more than a thousand years, no one has fought here, so we can guarantee that the family inheritance has never been broken.”

charlie asked again, “Other people in this village are Are you a member of the clan?”
The

old lady said, “There are very few people surnamed Jiang here now.”

She said, “The Jiang family has not been prosperous for more than a thousand years, especially males. In the early years, we had many female descendants who wanted to marry. In order not to leave here as much as possible, we had to find a way to find a wife. There are more and more people with foreign surnames, and they are all men. As the yin and yang decline, the Jiang family’s right to speak gradually becomes smaller and smaller; “

“Many men who marry into the family agree that the child they give birth will follow the woman’s surname Jiang. I repented, I have to take the man’s surname, or I have to take the child out of here, there is no way, the Jiang family is a woman’s family, and the arms can’t twist the thighs, so I gradually let them go; “

“Here is a man with a different surname. A child with a foreign surname, and the child with a foreign surname married or married another person with a foreign surname. Over time, there were fewer and fewer people with the surname Jiang. But there are almost no ones surnamed Jiang, only our mother and I are left.”

charlie nodded, and then asked, “Do people with other surnames know these things about Old Ancestor Meng?”

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5407 -

“People with other surnames don’t know.” The old lady replied, “These things have only been known in the Jiang family.”

charlie nodded lightly, and asked her, “The Jiang family hopes to wait here until Old Ancestor Meng .” Appear?” The old lady sighed, and said blankly, “In the past, my grandfather and my father were still looking forward to the appearance of Ancestor Meng. It can start a brand new life...”

Speaking of this, the old lady sighed a little dejectedly, “But I lost three sons in a row, and I didn’t have this youngest son until I was forty-five years old, okay? After Yi Yi pulls him into adulthood, I don’t care about anything else except him.”

charlie said, “If that ancestor Meng is still alive and willing to fulfill his promise, you can also leave the chance of longevity to your son “The old lady gave a wry smile, pointed to her temple, and said with some pain, "My son was born with some dystocia, which caused him to have some problems in his brain after he was born. Don't think he looks like a normal person on the surface, in fact Still a bit duller than the average person, simpler, and less discerning..."

As she spoke, the old lady paused slightly, and continued, "I still dare not let him know these things, because I am afraid that his child will not be able to keep his temper. The secret..."

"To put it bluntly, the Jiang family has been waiting for so many years just to wait for a chance of immortality. Although it is very slim, they are still unwilling to give up;"

"But I don't want to wait now. If I really wait, I won't give up." Maybe I want to live forever, but my yaoer is immature, if I let him live forever, it may be a bad thing for him; If he has a long life, he may have a good death in a public nursing home in the future. If he really has a long life, he may die in a few years..."

charlie nodded in agreement, and said sincerely, "To tell you the truth, one thousand four five A hundred years have passed, and I think Old Ancestor Meng should have passed away, even if we wait, we are doomed to not wait for this opportunity."

The old lady nodded slightly, and sighed, "I also feel that there is little hope, so I was so bewitched by others, wanting to go out to work and earn a lot of money, and take me to live in the city. I also got used to him, so I sold a piece of jewelry handed down by my ancestors." , I made some money, and 1 went to Mexico with him, but I never thought that that time, my mother and I almost lost our lives. Thanks to the rescue of benefactor, we were lucky enough to come back alive..."

Said, The old lady suddenly remembered something, and said, "By the way, my son was dying when he was in Mexico, but when we woke up on the bus, his whole body was in the same state as ordinary people. Is it your blessing?"

charlie nodded, "At that time, he was in a state of dying, and it was impossible to save him by ordinary means, so I gave him a blood-scattering and heart-saving pill, which is very magical, but It is still worse than Huichun Pill." The old lady was surprised, and said gratefully, "You can give me such a precious medicine, this kindness, the old woman will definitely remember it for the rest of her life... But the old woman is nothing. I don't know how I can repay your life-saving grace..."

charlie looked at the phoenix bone and rattan bracelet in his hand, and said calmly, "Grandma , although this junior saved you and your son, this bracelet of yours is extremely precious. I have done this junior a great favor, and from this junior's point of view, even if this junior has done this, I still feel indebted." The old lady said with some trepidation, "Don't think so, benefactor... No matter how precious something is, it is always a thing, and it cannot be compared Life is more important..."

charlie smiled slightly, "When we parted that day, I promised you that I would come to see you in person after returning to China, and that I would let you and your son have no worries in life, so I came here this time to fulfill my promise." As promised, I asked someone to buy a small villa in Shudu and a nearby front house, and you can move there with your son." The old lady quickly said, "Mr. We have nothing to pay for our lives, how can we ask for your real estate anymore..."

charlie waved his hand and said seriously, "Grandma , this little money is not worth a drop in the bucket to me, besides, the bracelet you gave me is of use to me How can I let you and your son continue to live here with peace of mind."

As he said that, charlie said again, "Over a thousand years have passed, Old Ancestor Meng has never appeared, and it is impossible for him to appear in the future. In this case, you don't have to wait any longer because of your ancestor's last wish, why not go with yours?" My son left here to live a stable life in the city."

"Although your son is missing a kidney, but with the blessing of the elixir, it is generally no worse than normal people, and he will definitely be able to marry a wife and have children in the future , to carry on the family line of the Jiang family, but if you stay here, the blood of the Jiang family may really be cut off."

charlie's words suddenly touched on the weakness of the old lady Jiang.

She murmured sadly, "I'm old, and I don't have a few years to live. In fact, it doesn't matter whether I leave here or not. The main reason is that if I don't go out, he won't even be able to get a wife. But if I go out, His ability to take care of himself is somewhat inferior, and I'm worried that he won't be able to take care of himself..."

charlie said with a smile, "Don't worry about this, the reason why I asked people to buy a door-to-door house is because I think the door-to-door house can let your son open a house at the door of your house. A small supermarket." The old lady hurriedly said, "My son is much stupider than ordinary people, he is not good at opening a supermarket..."

charlie smiled and said, "Opening a small supermarket is not as difficult as you think, as long as you are willing to sacrificeBy sacrificing a little profit at the retail end, you can find a supplier who is willing to advance funds to spread the goods for the supermarket.

They are even willing to not help you fill the goods with a penny. It can even be delivered to your door at all times in the follow-up process. Your son only needs to sit in the store and use the QR code scanner to check out the customers. Moreover, the cashier software is now connected to the inventory data, and there will be a reminder when something is about to sell out. , At that time, you only need to call the supplier, and he will deliver the things. “

Speaking, charlie said again, “The biggest cost of opening this kind of small supermarket is manpower and rent. With its own facade, the rent is saved, and the rest is only labor costs, and the small supermarket is not too busy for one person. Come on, open the door if you want to open it, don’t open it if you don’t want to open it, just be casual, you can earn thousands of dollars a month casually, if it’s not possible, you can also rent out the facade directly, the rent is enough for the two of you to live up. “The old lady said anxiously, “, I appreciate your kindness, old lady, but I really can’t accept the house...”

charlie was not in a hurry, but just smiled and said, “Grandma , many girls outside are very realistic. If a man doesn’t have a house or a stable income, they don’t like it at all. You can’t sell the paintings made by your ancestors, can you? “

This...” The old lady didn’t know how to answer for a while.

charlie said again, “Besides, you must also hope to live a few more years and spend more time with your son. If he gets married and has children in the future, you must also want to help him a lot.” Take a grandson for a few years. “The old lady smiled bitterly and said, “I don’t have that life. If I can live to see him get married and have children, I will already be blessed by my ancestors, and I will die without regret...”

charlie nodded, and took out a Rejuvenation Pill from his pocket. , said casually, “Oh, by the way, Grandma , this is a pill I prepared myself, it has the effect of strengthening the body, you can try it by taking one. “
