

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5464 -

After Zhang Guifen returned to the room and met the two sisters, she saw the righteous indignation and indignation on their faces.

She quickly asked, "Are you ready to record all the recordings? Don't let me lose the chain at this time!"

Samantha said angrily, "Sister Guifen, this family surnamed Wilson is too f*cking useless, you may not be able to hear what they said outside the balcony, souna and that dead old woman are about to call us stinky shit!" "

Yes!" Yadira also said very angrily, "The key is that souna It's not a thing, don't talk about scolding the three of us, even those who spent money on them in the live broadcast room were scolded by her as big injustices, how bad do you think this stinky bitch is?"

Samantha also echoed, "This stinky shameless person, souna is now thinking about other deceptions. She asked her husband and her son to pretend to have advanced pancreatic cancer, and the other to pretend to have uremia, and even gave the other to die. The old woman arranged a script, let her cry slowly and blind her eyes, this is simply a beast!"

Zhang Guifen heard this, and said angrily, "Let me listen to your recording!"

Samantha immediately Handing her her mobile phone, Zhang Guifen pressed the play button, and listened to the conversation of souna's family in the room just now from beginning to end.

Since it was Elaine's idea to let them stuff the earphones and microphones into the crack of the door, the effect of their recording is very clear.

Zhang Guifen listened to the entire conversation verbatim, and her veins were so angry that she wished she could rush downstairs, kick the door open, and drag the Willson family out one by one. Beat up.

However, she quickly realized that the most important thing now is not to beat up these people, but to quickly send all these materials to Elaine, and let Elaine find a way to get souna's family online. Give exposure.

So, she quickly sent the video she took, as well as the audio recorded by Samantha and the others, to Elaine's group.

At this time, Elaine was lying on the bed, tossing and turning, waiting.

She changed to a new short video account and has been watching her live broadcast in souna's live broadcast room.

Seeing that the live broadcast was over, she began to look forward to Zhang Guifen and the others being able to capture the real faces of souna's family behind the scenes, and then quickly send the evidence.

Just when she was burning with anxiety, both video and audio files were sent to the group.

Elaine sat up from the bed in a jerk, and immediately turned on the audio to listen to the conversation.

It didn't matter what he heard, Elaine was both angry and happy when he heard it.

What makes her angry is that souna is really capable. She understands the principles of live broadcasting, selling goods, and setting up people. She can even analyze data. She really has two brushes.

The good news is, with these conversation recordings, how can souna's family not fail?

Thinking of this, she immediately downloaded both the video and audio to her mobile phone, and then opened the video editing software.

If we go back five or six years, how could an old lady like Elaine learn the technique of video editing.

However, thanks to the rapid development and growth of the short video platform in recent years, the threshold for short video entry has been reduced to an extreme value, and many entrepreneurs have developed a lot of fool-like operating software for the short video platform, making video editing a professional experience. The technology has become extremely simple, even the elderly and children can play with ease.

Elaine used to edit small selfie videos, so she is very familiar with the operation of this software.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5465 -

She skillfully opened the software, added the video, then canceled the original sound of the video, and pulled in the audio again.

Next, there is only one slightly laborious process left, which is to match the audio and video time tracks so that the audio and video can be synchronized.

Fortunately, the video file and the audio file are a whole, so Elaine only needs to find one of the clips that is easier to recognize the mouth shape, and then echo the corresponding audio of this clip, then the entire video and audio will be completely matched.

Soon, Elaine found a very convenient lip-sync clip, and synchronized the audio and video 100% completely. Then she previewed the entire video, and after confirming that there were no problems, she exported the video.

After the video was exported, Elaine grinned happily while reviewing it again.

She couldn't help sighing in her mouth, "Oh, souna, souna, I really underestimated you. I didn't expect you to earn hundreds of thousands a day. If you do this, you still can't earn a small goal in a year? No Come to think of it, you stinky bitch really have two skills, and this live broadcast will make you understand it!"

She said with a chuckle, shaking her head and saying, "It's a pity, you never dreamed that your tricks could fall into place!" Is it in the hands of your grandma ? With this video, do you still want to be a billionaire? As long as your grandma releases this video, I don't think you can eat as much shit as you eat!" After speaking, Elaine opened the Own short video software.

Later, she changed her nickname to Elaine, a counterfeit fighter!

The profile was changed to "A righteous person who is active in the society. He can't rub the sand in his eyes. He vowed to expose all the liars! After changing it, she immediately uploaded the video. The title of the video is Internet celebrity souna made up stories and sold them miserably, earning hundreds of thousands of dollars a day by live streaming!

After the video was sent out, Elaine couldn't help muttering, "Shouldn't the video be sent out, and no one will watch it like the previous live broadcast? Although this revelation is very powerful, wouldn't it be over if no one read it? "

Thinking of this, Elaine couldn't help gritting her teeth, "No way! I have to give him some promotion money! And I have to vote a little more, another two thousand! After making up his mind

, Elaine immediately clicked the promotion button and created a promotion plan for this video. The total amount of the promotion plan was 2,000 yuan, all of which were spent onIn terms of increasing the number of clicks, after the creation was completed, she immediately clicked to pay, and found that the actual payment amount was 1995 yuan. Just wondering, she saw a coupon deduction information at the bottom, and then realized that the last time the customer service gave her A coupon for five dollars.

Elaine couldn't help but scolded the customer service again in her heart before completing the payment. Immediately afterwards, she found that her promotion plan was running very fast, and the advertising fee of 2,000 yuan was consumed by 300 yuan in the blink of an eye. many!

And the number of views of this video is also growing rapidly.

In less than two minutes, Elaine's 2,000 yuan advertisements had all gone. She was stunned and couldn't help cursing inwardly, "This is f*cking money. The 2,000 yuan is gone in the blink of an eye." ?!"

But what she didn't know was that the faster the promotion expenses were spent, the higher her ad exposure would be.

Moreover, the push and volume logic of the short video platform are based on algorithms. If a video has a high click-through rate and a high completion rate, the algorithm will list this video as high-quality content, and high-quality content It is possible to continuously obtain more traffic. As long as the conversion performance of this video does not decrease, the system will continuously divert it.

Sometimes an Internet celebrity with tens of millions of fans sends out a video, and there are only tens of thousands of likes, but there are often some videos that only have tens of thousands of fans, but the number of likes can exceed one million, becoming the most popular video in the world. It is an Internet hit, because the quality of this video itself is extremely high, and the data performance is excellent. The platform even actively pushed this video to tens of millions or even hundreds of millions of users.

As for Elaine's video, the click-through rate and completion rate are outrageously high!

Therefore, the number of viewers of this video quickly reached hundreds of thousands, followed by waves of likes, favorites, and comments!

Soon, Elaine was stunned by the countless tweets. She found that the number of likes and thousands of comments on her video just now quickly exceeded 10,000. Speed surge!

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5466 -

Although Elaine has been on the short video platform for a long time, almost none of the boring casual photos she posted can get 10 likes.

So when she saw so many likes and comments, she felt that all this was not so real, as if the slot machine in the casino suddenly hit three 7s, and the number in the amount column continued to roll up, It gave her the illusion of being in a dream.

However, all this is true.

The content of this video itself is very explosive, and its nature is extremely bad, so that all ordinary people will feel righteous indignation when they see it.

It is precisely because of this that the data in this video is outrageous!

Soon, the number of views quickly exceeded one million, and it took less than 5 minutes to go from 1 million to 2 million.

According to the background algorithm of the short video platform, this video is the best performing one on the entire platform at present, not one of them.

It was a work published by a big internet celebrity with tens of millions of fans, and it was not as popular as this work at all!

As a result, on this night, the traffic of the entire platform was tilting crazily towards this video.

At this moment, countless netizens gritted their teeth and scolded souna in front of the mobile phone.

Among them, there are many people who have watched souna's live broadcast, and there are even many fans of her.

People buy things from souna's live broadcast room because they feel that this woman is indeed too pitiful, and she is indeed very tough, with the traditional virtues of being virtuous, virtuous, hard-working and hard-working.

Moreover, these fans usually don't know much about live streaming, and they don't know how much souna can earn when they spend 100 yuan on things in souna's live broadcast room.

They all thought that if they bought something worth 100 yuan, souna would only earn one or two yuan at most, and they thought that all she worked so hard to bring the goods was to earn some medical expenses for her husband and son, and some living expenses for her mother-in-law. That's all.

But who would have thought that this woman could earn hundreds of thousands of dollars from the viewers of these live broadcast rooms just for an ordinary live broadcast on weekdays!

What's even more exasperating is that all of this was directed and acted by this woman herself!

The real souna shown in this video is completely opposite to her appearance in the live broadcast room.

She beat and scolded her husband and son who were paralyzed in bed, without any respect at all.

He was also harsh and rude to his mother-in-law who was over 80 years old.

In her body, where can I see a little bit of traditional virtue, what I can see is almost all despicable and dirty!

What's more, she speaks brazenly, calling all her fans wronged.

This is simply too much!

As a result, many people ran to comment on souna's latest short video, scolding her, and many even began to complain and report to some official accounts of Aurous Hill.

Soon, Aurous Hill netizens exploded.

They didn't expect that there was such a brazen woman in the city they lived in, so they spread this video on various channels, especially in WeChat Moments and WeChat groups.

At this moment, souna had just arrived at the luxury suite of a five-star hotel.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5467 -

On the way here, she had already called the hotel housekeeper and asked her to prepare bath water for herself, as well as imported bath salts and many fresh rose petals.

So, as soon as she arrived at the hotel, she quickly took off her clothes and soaked in the comfortable jacuzzi.

After she took a bath, she made an appointment for an essential oil massage at the hotel. She lay on the bed, closed her eyes and enjoyed the massage until she fell asleep, and then fell asleep with a full body of essential oil. For souna, it had become Her best way to relieve fatigue.

As a big customer of the hotel, he and she don't care what happens when the quilt and bed sheets get dirty, because no matter how messy she makes the room, if she returns tomorrow after leaving, the place will be tidy and spotless.

This is also an important reason why souna especially likes staying in hotels recently.

At this time, souna was lying in the bathtub with her eyes closed, and her mobile phone was placed on the stone platform next to the bathtub.

Because she is already quite an internet celebrity, countless users of the short video platform send her private messages, comments and likes every day, so she has already turned off the push function of the short video platform.

So even though there were already tens of thousands of people attacking and insulting her in various ways, she was still kept in the dark.

At this moment, Christopher and Harold, who were paralyzed in bed, had no chance to surf the Internet because they couldn't hold the mobile phone with both hands, and the old lady Wilson went to bed early because she was really tired from serving the two of them. Wendy was still working overtime at the company for meetings, so no one told Souna about the Internet.

And Elaine's video is still fermenting.

At this time, Elaine couldn't close her mouth in excitement seeing the countless views and the number of likes and comments.

But the only regret is that although his video playback volume has reached several million, his fans have not increased much, only a few thousand people.

After another ten minutes, the incident became more fermented. Elaine's video had exceeded 10 million views, and many news software also began to urgently issue news feeds in response to this matter.

All of a sudden, multiple articles were pushed out one after another.

"Internet celebrities sell miserable live broadcasts, earn hundreds of thousands a day", "Use other people's sympathy to earn hundreds of thousands a day, don't let the public feel cold!", "Live broadcasts with goods are frequently chaotic, and another Internet celebrity overturns!".....

Souna heard the phone popping up notifications suddenly, so she opened her eyes and took the phone over.

She glanced at the screen full of notifications, and knew that another Internet celebrity had overturned.

However, she didn't realize that the person who overturned the car was herself. Instead, she gloated and said to herself, "I don't know which unlucky guy has been exposed again. If I'm as cautious as I am, I won't be able to do it within a year." Those who may be exposed, so what if they are exposed after a year? Anyway, if you earn enough money, then you can just take your passport and fly to a country where no one knows you, and enjoy a good life, won't everyone be happy?" He said

, She couldn't help sneering, and muttered in her heart, "When my live broadcast is stable for another two months, I will seize the time to open an Internet celebrity brokerage company, cultivate more anchors like me, and use my account to guide them. They grow up to make money for me. In this way, my ability to absorb money will be much stronger than it is now. If I can earn one billion, I will immigrate to Europe or the United States immediately. No one will take it with me! One billion is definitely enough for me to spend my life in a lavish and unrestrained way!"

Speaking of this, Souna had already begun to imagine that she held hundreds of millions of wealth in her hands, spending money abroad like water, and being drunk with money life.

At this time, she clicked on one of the tweets, wanting to see who was so unlucky to be exposed on the Internet on such a large scale.

And the push she clicked on, after opening it, first played the video uploaded by Elaine.

Before she could recognize what the sneak shot was, her own voice came from the speaker, "Damn, this hood is too f*cking hot!"
