

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5468 -

Suddenly hearing her own voice in the headlines of an Internet celebrity's parking spot, the impact on Souna is no different from that of a male netizen downloading a video from an unhealthy website and seeing her own face trembling after opening it.

Her inner defenses were breached almost instantly, and she slid directly into the bathtub because of excessive nervousness, taking a sip of the milk-salt-smelling bath water.

Immediately, she sat up in a panic, and looked at the phone again in shock. This time, her eyes were as wide as a pair of copper bells, and her heartbeat seemed to suddenly double as fast!

The self in the picture is bossing around and teaching the Willson family a lesson. Isn't this what happened more than half an hour less than an hour ago? !

Looking at this angle, it was a sneak shot from a small gap in the balcony curtain. Who did it? !

What's more, what she couldn't understand was that the doors and windows of the villa were all laminated and hollow system doors and windows. It is said that in order to ensure sound insulation and heat insulation, the glass interlayer should be filled with inert gas. With the doors and windows closed, even if the fireworks are set off outside, I can barely hear the sound of the explosion. This video was clearly shot from outside, so why is the sound recorded so clearly? It's as if people are talking right in front of your eyes.

Souna is indeed smarter and smarter than Elaine in general, but in this kind of cleverness, she is not as good as Elaine.

Elaine lives in the same villa type as her, and she already knew that candid shots from outside can only capture video, not sound, so she used the three of Zhang Guifen and gave them a reasonable division of labor, and one person took pictures outside. In the video, two people tried to secretly record the sound inside.

Although the sound insulation of the doors and windows of the villa has been achieved to the extreme, it is only for the outside, and the interior doors are not particularly strengthened, so Elaine caught the loophole.

At this time, Souna knew very well that since these videos were exposed, her road to getting rich with live broadcasts and goods had come to an end!

Thinking that after this video was exposed, it would affect his potential income of hundreds of millions or even billions!

Taking people's money is like killing their parents. This old saying is an eternal truth at any time.

At this moment, souna's heart was full of hatred, wishing to find the person who exposed her right away, and then tear her into pieces!

Immediately afterwards, she swiped down on her phone, skipped the video, and started reading the text of the report.

In the content of the text, the script of her live broadcast was fully revealed, as well as her approximate data and income since the live broadcast.

And when she saw one of the lines, she was even more angry and jumped out of the bathtub!

This line reads, "According to a short video platform user named 'Fighting Fighter Elaine'..."

souna was mad with hatred at this time, and immediately cursed, "Elaine! You will break your grandma's money.", "I'll F*cking kill you!"

After she finished speaking, she rushed out of the bathroom like crazy, didn't care to dry off the water droplets on her body, put on her clothes and ran out of the room like crazy, and then drove her car. Mercedes-Benz big g, running desperately all the way to Tangchen Yipin!

Along the way, she ran through countless red lights!

At this time, she didn't have any traffic rules in her mind. She only wanted one thing in her mind, and that was to find Elaine and beat her out of shit until she was alive.

And just as souna was rushing towards Tang Chen Yipin, Claire also saw the push like a tide.

When she understood what was going on, she immediately handed the phone to charlie, and said to him, "Husband...Look quickly! It seems that my mother exposed my aunt..." charlie took the phone and looked at

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5469 -

it Video, said in surprise, "This video looks like it was shot on the terrace outside souna's second floor. Our mother's legs and feet are not good, how can she have the ability to climb up and down?" Claire found

Elaine Pointing to the name of the short video account, he said to charlie, "Look at this exposed account, it's called Elaine, the counterfeit fighter, isn't this her..."

charlie was stunned for a moment, then smiled and said, "Then it seems that Mom has found an ally... This video must have been ordered by her ally to take it... Maybe it's just a person shooting the video outside, and a person secretly recording it inside." Otherwise, the voice could not be so clear."

As he spoke, he suddenly remembered something, and said, "Could it be the three people who live with souna?"

Claire suddenly said in a panic, "Mom. The big aunt exposed her so thoroughly, the big aunt must hate her to death... You said she did something wrong, why did she have to make enemies everywhere..." "

This..." charlie laughed twice and said, " It's not that you don't know about Mom's personality, souna is so terrified in front of her, she must have died of anger, maybe she has been looking for opportunities to take revenge during this time." "

Hey..." Claire sighed In a tone of voice, he said helplessly, "Auntie really has no bottom line in doing this, but to be honest, I don't want my mother to offend people everywhere..." "

charlie comforted, "Honey, it's useless to say these things now, after all, the video has already been sent out by my mother." Well, in the current situation, I think it can only be that the soldiers are coming to block, the water is coming and the soil is covering up, let's take a step and watch, but don't worry, with me here, souna dare not do anything to her mother, she will just run away at most Come and scold the street, give her a hundred guts, and she won't even dare to touch Mommy's finger."

charlie just finished speaking, a roaring engine sound, and a harsh braking sound, instantly broke the darkness of the neighborhood under the night. calm.

souna stopped the Mercedes Benz at the door of charlie's house in a hurry, then jumped out of the car, beat the door with both hands hysterically and made a loud bang bang, and at the same time scolded "Elaine! You You bastard, get me down and see if I don't kill you!"

Elaine opened a crack along the curtain, and couldn't help laughing when she saw souna slamming on the door like a mental patient.

At this time, Elaine was not afraid at all. She turned on the video recording function on her mobile phone, and pushed the door to the terrace on crutches.

Coming to the terrace, Elaine looked down at souna, and asked with a smile, "Oh, souna, what's wrong with you? You didn't enjoy yourself in your hotel at night, but ran to my door and yelled." What are you doing?"

Seeing Elaine's embarrassing look, souna was so angry that she almost vomited blood, and shouted hysterically, "Elaine, are you still a F*cking human? F*cking secretly took pictures of me, and F*cking exposed it on the Internet!"

Elaine curled her lips, and said disdainfully, "Oh, look at what you said, I am now a fighter against counterfeiting! My crackdown on counterfeiting is all about things and people, but I don't have any personal grievances, you livestreamed the goods to fool the public, and as a fighter against counterfeiting, of course I have the unshirkable responsibility to expose you!"

souna was so angry that she jumped to her feet and scolded, "I can go to your mother's anti-counterfeiting fighter! What the hell are you, Elaine? S*x, others don't know, how can I F*cking not know?! You are the most hated person in the whole world! You are jealous and uncomfortable when you see my mother making money! So you try every means to destroy my mother! You give my mother Come down! See if I don't kill you, you bastard!"

Elaine lay on the railing, secretly filming a video, and said solemnly, "souna, I, Elaine, have behaved well and walked upright all my life. No sand! Even if you put a knife on my neck, I will still be obliged to expose you without hesitation!"
