Personal anchors like souna can directly apply for cash withdrawals from the platform for their income from live streaming on the platform, but the money is pre-tax, and the anchor needs to declare taxes by himself.

But souna has never filed a tax return because she is reluctant to lose a large amount of income.

Now, the taxation department also came to her door, and she panicked all of a sudden, so she could only lie quickly and said, "Comrade, you have also seen the situation in my family. There are indeed two paralyzed patients in my family who need to be taken care of. And An old man needs to be cared for, and he is really busy and dizzy, so he didn't take care of it for a while..."

As she spoke, she had a flash of inspiration, and quickly made up for herself. It's only been a month or so, but I actually plan to file a tax return as soon as I'm done working these few days..." The staff of the taxation department knew that she must be lying, but just as she said, the live broadcast of her The goods have only been shipped for more than a month. If she said she forgot, or was too busy to pay taxes for a while, the tax department would have no way to prove that she was deliberately evading taxes.

So, the tax officer gave her a step up, "We have indeed understood your situation, and there are indeed some objective factors, so we will not investigate whether there is tax evasion. You only need to declare a tax as soon as possible according to your actual income. Yes."

souna subconsciously asked, "What is our personal tax rate?"

The tax officer explained, "Your live delivery of goods belongs to labor service remuneration, and labor service remuneration belongs to citizens' comprehensive income. , the tax rate is applicable to the personal tax ratio of 3 to 45, since your amount has reached the highest level, so the 45 level is applicable." "

Ah?" souna burst into tears, "45 ah... this... this is too much ..."

The tax officer said seriously, "souna, it is the duty of every citizen to pay personal income tax according to the law, and our personal tax is not high in the world. The highest personal tax in Europe and Japan are both Above 50, America is also 45!"

souna wanted to die, but she was able to get a clear picture of the situation at the critical moment. She thought to herself, "Since my income has been exposed, tax payment must be necessary. Anchor, there is basically no good end, and I am sure the same..." "

Besides, I am not so bad luck. After all, I have a short time to make money, so I can use the excuse that I forgot to pay taxes or have no time to pay taxes. Find it yourself, otherwise, when the time comes, you will pay taxes and fines, and the amount will only be even greater!" At this point, souna could only nod honestly and said, "I am willing to pay taxes! I am willing to pay taxes! When I go out, I'll pay the tax immediately!"

At this time, souna thought to herself, even if she cut off her income and paid the income tax, she still had at least a few million cash in hand, although compared with her previous hundreds of millions The fantasy of billions is much less, but a few million is enough to live by yourself.

Seeing that her attitude was not bad, the tax officer gave her some advice and left first.

At this time, souna, as if she had just escaped a catastrophe, slumped on the interrogation chair and let out a sigh of relief.

Seeing this, the policeman said in a cold voice, "souna, let me tell you something from the bottom of my heart. You have to thank Elaine who exposed you. Today, I exposed you and let you rein in the precipice, so that you will not make a big mistake!"

souna After hearing this, she was naturally dissatisfied, and she couldn't stop thinking to herself, "Elaine, that stinky bitch, she cut off my money, and still wants me to thank her? If I don't find a chance to kill her, I'm sorry." Myself!"

Seeing her gloomy expression, the police officer said, "Do you think I'm joking with you? To tell you the truth, we've already seen the video she exposed you. You said you were going to let your husband pretend You got pancreatic cancer, let your son pretend to have uremia, and let your mother-in-law pretend to be blind from crying. The reason why you can only be detained for ten days is because your husband and son are indeed paralyzed. You define it as a crime of fraud, if you really do what you said just now, it will be a proper crime of fraud! At that time, maybe the court will sentence you for ten years!" "Ah?!"

said The man said in horror, "Will the sentence be ten years?"

The police officer said indifferently, "Once it is determined as a crime of fraud, the amount involved in your case is already extremely huge. The starting sentence is ten years, and all illegal gains will be confiscated. If your amount increases again during this period, It will definitely be sentenced to more than ten years or even longer."

souna was stunned, she didn't expect that just selling miserably in the live broadcast would have such serious consequences, and even touch the criminal law.

However, even though Elaine indirectly helped souna rein in the precipice, souna could not forgive her at all. She still secretly vowed in her heart that after she got out, she must find a way to take revenge on Elaine.

at the same time.

souna's video is still fermenting on the Internet.

More and more people who bought things in souna's live broadcast room were filled with righteous indignation when they saw the video exposing souna.

The operation team of the short video platform held an emergency meeting at Eastcliff headquarters.

During the meeting, the executives agreed that the platform must give consumers a satisfactory answer as soon as possible, not only to effectively appease their anger, but also to severely punish souna's behavior so that other anchors can learn from it. Never make the same mistake again.

Therefore, the group's chief lawyer made a suggestion. He felt that the platform should pay these consumers in advance, and return all the orders purchased in souna's live broadcast room in full.

The total turnover of souna's live broadcast room is about 60 million yuan, which is just a drop in the bucket for the platform.

In addition, the platform has to recover from souna and those merchants who asked souna to bring the goods after the first payment, and ask them to bear this part of the cost. If they refuse to bear it, they will be punished. If they sue, once they win the case, they must make compensation. If they still refuse, the platform can also apply to the court for enforcement.

In this way, souna must pay out all the income from her live streaming. If she refuses to pay, she will be punished by law. This will also greatly deter other live streaming anchors!

souna, who had just been sent to the detention center, was still grateful that she could keep at least half of her income after going out to pay taxes.
