

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5489 -

Regarding the video about buying a house in Tomson Yipin, Nanako Ito never planned to hide it from charlie from the very beginning.

Her only thought was to come to Aurous Hill early to give charlie a small surprise. As for the matter of buying a house, she hoped to tell charlie frankly.

charlie really didn't expect that Nanako Ito bought a house in Tomson Yipin, so he asked her curiously, "When did it happen? Which household did you buy it in?" Nanako Ito said with a smile, "I bought the house in Linjiang . High-rise building, the villa has been sold out."

As he said that, Nanako Ito said again, "Actually, I wanted to buy a more classical villa, but Tanaka-san has been here for a few days and has not found a suitable house, so I temporarily bought it yesterday. Tomson Yipin bought a high-rise."

charlie nodded lightly, and said with a smile, "We will be neighbors from now on, and you are welcome to settle in Aurous Hill."

Although charlie had always had a good impression of Ito Nanako, but There is nothing wrong with it. In his heart, he has always regarded Nanako Ito as a confidante whose personality and conversation are the most suitable for his temper.

And since Ito Nanako bought a house in Tomson Yipin, it means that she will definitely come to Aurous Hill often in the future, which is naturally a happy thing for charlie.

Nanako Ito said a little shyly, "I may not come to China too often for the time being, and the family still has some things to deal with, but if the time is right in the future, you can also consider gradually moving the company to China." charlie nodded , Seriously said, "If you really have such an idea, it's okay. In the future, whether it is the Wade family or my own business, there will be many places where I can cooperate with the Ito family." For Nanako Ito, charlie naturally has some preferences

This is why, he also hopes that Nanako Ito can live in Aurous Hill forever.

Moreover, Nanako Ito has always had no reservations about charlie, and charlie integrated the shipping resources of the Banks family to establish Yisu Shipping. Nanako Ito not only took out all the shipping resources of the Ito family, but even replaced charlie without hesitation Chen holds shares in this company for generations, and charlie also hopes to find a suitable opportunity to repay the Ito family in business.

Nanako Ito was worried that coming to Aurous Hill by herself would bring inconvenience to Charlie, but unexpectedly, Charlie not only hoped that she would live in Aurous Hill for a long time, but also hoped that she would transfer the enterprise center here, which made her very happy. The plan to shift the focus of the enterprise to Aurous Hill can finally be officially put on the agenda.

So, she couldn't hide the joy in her heart, and said, "If Mr. Charlie welcomes you, I will make good preparations when I go back this time."

Charlie smiled and said, "Of course I welcome."

Nanako Ito smiled sweetly, nodded and said, "Then I will talk to Ou Dosang should make a good plan, but it will take at least one or two years for such a huge industry and team to transfer to Aurous Hill step by step. The first task is to choose a site in Aurous Hill." Charlie said indifferently, "It's easy, Dihao The group has many properties in Aurous Hill. When I held the Huichundan auction before, I also asked the Moore Group to develop a lot of commercial real estate. At that time, the Ito family can choose from these properties.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5490 -

If they don't like it, or you can use it temporarily first, and at the same time cooperate with Aurous Hill officials to buy a piece of land and build it slowly."

Ito Nanako knew that Charlie made a lot of money through the Huichun Dan auction, and a large part of it was used for investment and development in Aurous Hill. So she asked subconsciously, "Mr. Charlie, will the Huichundan auction be held next year? If Huichundan continues to operate, Aurous Hill will definitely attract a large number of top foreign-funded enterprises to settle in, and maybe a new one will be created through Huichundan." Financial Center!"

Charlie sighed, shook his head and said, "Next year's Huichun Pill Auction is not going to be held for the time being."

Then, Charlie said again, "Actually, I still have a serious problem that has not been resolved. Dan's auction, I'm afraid it will burn me, if I continue to hold it, I will have to wait for me to solve this confidant's trouble."

Before going to the United States this year, when the Huichun Dan auction was held, Charlie didn't know the existence of the Poqing Society.

Fortunately, this year's Rejuvenation Pill Auction was held for the first time, and most of the people who got the news were those traditional rich Europeans who were helped by the old Nordic queen to fool them, but the real top rich did not appear. My uncle came to the auction at that time, it's just his personal behavior, not the decision to settle down.

But now, Charlie has already touched a little of the context of the Poqing Society, knowing that this organization is very powerful, and, in the United States and Northern Europe, he has successively killed and captured many dead soldiers and knight guards, so the current Poqing Society He must be very vigilant. If we hold the Chundan Auction again at this time, I am afraid that we will not be able to keep a low profile if we want to. It may not be a wise move to get angry at that time.

Therefore, what Charlie planned in his mind was to let go of next year's auction first, and restart the auction when he solved the clearing meeting, or when the clearing meeting was no longer a mortal enemy for him.

Although Ito Nanako knew nothing about the Po Qinghui (Benn), she could hear the caution in Charlie's words, so she said without thinking, "Since there are still risks, it's better not to do it for the time being." Saying that, Ito Nanako remembered what he said, "However, since Mr. Charlie is worried about being exposed, I have an idea, I don't know if it's feasible..."

Charlie asked curiously, "What idea? Let's hear it."

Ito Nanako said, "I think we can change a new way of playing the Huichundan Auction. For example, we will not publicize it to the outside world for the time being, and we will not adopt the method of open registration. Instead, one or two months before the opening, the organizer will come forward and give thanks to those who have participated in the Huichundan Auction this year. The people who will meet will send invitation letters in private, inviting these people to come to the new year's auction. These people have witnessed the magic of Huichun Pill last year, and Huichun Pill is no secret to them. Inviting them over, there is no such thing as a leak."

Charlie thought for a moment, then smiled and said, "Nanako, your method is very good! Although these people have already participated in the Huichun Pill auction, most of them came here empty-handed. After all, they must be looking forward to the next auction, and they will definitely not refuse to participate in it again."

Nanako Ito nodded, and said, "Besides, these people know the principle of making money silently, and know that the greater the competition, the lower their hopes, so they will definitely not spread the news of Huichundan everywhere, and the auction will definitely be held smoothly "

Speaking, Nanako Ito said again, "Since the invitation system is adopted, if Mr. Charlie has a big client that you want to invite, you only need to do a background check on him quietly, and confirm that he has nothing to do with your confidant's serious trouble, then you can give it to him." He sent an invitation letter to invite him to be there, so as to avoid leaks."

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5491 -

“Good idea.” charlie couldn’t help but praise, and couldn’t help but think of his uncle Asher in his heart.

If I follow Nanako Ito’s method, although I know that my uncle is using a fake identity, but next year the second Huichun Pill Auction will be held, and I will send an invitation letter to my uncle according to the rules. It will appear at the rejuvenation pill auction site.

After all, I have already set the rules for the Rejuvenation Pill, all successful bidders must take the pill on the spot.

In this way, even if the uncle is invited to participate, he can only bid for himself. Given how filial the An family is to the old man, he will probably give up this opportunity at that time.

Thinking of this, charlie couldn’t help but wonder to himself, should we open a back door to Grandpa and send an invitation letter to let him come to the auction? In that case, he must have the strength to bid for the finale of the whole Rejuvenation Pill, and his physical condition will also be greatly improved.

However, in this way, he would have to earn at least 100 to 200 billion US dollars from his grandfather, and charlie felt that even if he held this money, it would be a bit hot.

So charlie simply stopped thinking about it, and decided to wait until next year when he really decided to launch the Huichun Pill Auction, before thinking about this issue.

The sisters Zara and Xion have been listening silently by the side. At this time, Zara has jealousy in her heart. She can see that charlie has a preference for Nanako, but she didn’t expect that Nanako can also Advise charlie, seeing that the two of them felt like a natural match, she was very envious.

Xion who was on the side was also slightly jealous, but her overall mentality was much better than Zara. In Zara’s heart, charlie was a benefactor and even a sweetheart, while in Xion’s heart, charlie In addition to being a benefactor and a sweetheart, he is also his own master.

The reason why it is called “Master” is mainly because Xion has long decided to be loyal to charlie, so charlie is like an ancient emperor to her, the object of her allegiance.

And precisely because of this level of cognition, she didn’t expect any development between herself and charlie.

As the saying goes, without hope, there is no disappointment.

In this regard, she is much more open-minded than Zara.

Nanako Ito put aside the flower arrangement for the time being, and while everyone was about to take a lunch break, she said to charlie, "Mr. charlie, Odo-san is already waiting for your visit at Tomson Yipin, should we start now?" "

Okay " charlie readily agreed, and said, "Take my car."

"Okay!" Nanako Ito nodded, and ordered the maid she brought to go to the hotel room to rest first, while she took off the apron she wore when arranging flowers. , preparing to go to the new home with charlie to meet his father Ito Yuhiko.

At this moment, Isaac Cameron came over to charlie and said, "Master, Master Banks will land in Aurous Hill in about forty minutes."

Zara, who hadn't spoken much, heard this and asked quickly, "Mr. Chen, my brother is coming soon?"

"Yes." Isaac Cameron nodded and said, "Land in forty minutes."

Zara looked at charlie and asked expectantly, "Mr. Wade, can I pick him up at the airport?" "

Of course." He agreed, and said, "Go to the airport now. After picking him up, go see Aunt Deana first. After noon, I will visit Aunt Deana's home."
