Walking into the entrance of Thompson First, she was about to swipe the gate when a well-dressed, middle-aged woman held her nose and shouted at her, "Where's the Lady from? You're walking here with slop? Do you know what this place is? It's Thompson First! You won't be able to afford any house here for several lifetimes!"

Lady Wilson was tired of vomiting blood, and when she saw a woman pop up out of nowhere and scream at her, she cursed angrily, "Fart your mother! Do you know where I live? I live in villa A04! Have a look at that bird of yours, fancy as a pheasant, I'd say you live in an outlying flat at best!"

As soon as the woman heard this, she rushed over in anger and smacked Lady Wilson directly, cursing, "Dead old woman, my mother's set of flat more than 20 million, and you fucking dare to mock me? You're so poor, and you dare to say you live in a villa, you fucking deserve it!"

Chapter 2003

The new company is expected to be the first in the world to be awarded the title of "The New York Times" by the US Securities and Exchange Commission.

The woman smacked her and cursed in a rage, "Bad old woman, all fucking eating pig food, and still coming to Thompson First to pretend to be a pussy, what a fucking brainiac!"

After saying that, he immediately yelled to the security guard not far away, "Hey, hurry up and come here, are you fucking blind? I spent over 20 million dollars on a house with you and this is how you serve honored homeowners like us? Who is going to protect the owners' feelings and interests when a bad old woman like this pig and dog mixes in?"

Security is nervous too.

Lady Wilson looked somewhat haggard and full of fatigue, not like an Lady from a wealthy family at a glance.

In addition, she carried four large plastic bags in her hands, which were filled with steamed buns and rice, as well as a messy looking vegetable soup, which is even more uncharacteristic of the owners of the Thompson First.

So, he hurriedly said to that Lady, "Excuse me Lady, we are a private residence, idle people are not allowed to go out inside, and please leave quickly."

Lady Wilson was trembling with anger.

Even if you're not the owner of Thompson First A04, you're at least a resident of Thompson First A04! And a resident of one of Aurouss Hilll's finest villas! Why should I be beaten and kicked out?

The enraged Lady Wilson immediately took out her card with great effort, shook it in her hand a few times and said angrily, "Open your dog's eyes and show me clearly, this is the access card for the gate of Thompson First!"

The security guard and the female owner were stunned.

The access card is designed with a very airy design and has the unique logo of Thompson First on it, one of them is the owner of the place and one works here, so they are all too familiar with the card.

When they saw the card, they both had a question in their minds, "Is this bad old woman really the owner of Thompson First?"

The middle-aged woman spoke up, "Just take a card out casually, who knows if it's real or not, good guts you swipe it and try it!"

Lady Wilson said angrily, "Good! You wait! I'm going to paint you!"

Saying so, she immediately swiped her card at the gate's sensor area.

The gate immediately sounded a prompt: "Hello, distinguished resident of Villa A04, welcome home!"

At Thompson First, residents are divided into two categories.

One category is the owner, the one who is clearly listed on the title deed of this property.

The other category, however, is households.

However, occupants are still not to be underestimated.

After all, most of the occupants are immediate family members of the owners, and to a lesser extent, relatives.

As an analogy, as the current head of the Moore family, Jasmine was famous in Aurouss Hilll, and if she bought a villa here, she would be the owner, while her grandfather, other elders in the family, and her siblings would be the residents here.

Although the occupants are not owners, they are not the ones to be messed with because they are close to the owners.

The middle-aged woman, upon seeing that Mrs. Wilson had really swiped her card successfully, and was really a resident of Villa A04, went pale with fear!

The A-series villas, each priced in the hundreds of millions of dollars, were something she simply could not afford.

Chapter 2004

So, it was also clear to her that anyone who could live in a Series A villa must have much more energy than she did.

I'm not sure if I'm going to be able to do that.

Her mind was now anxiously thinking, "It's over, it's over, it's over!"

This is a real disaster! Who would have thought this Lady had some serious skills! I even slapped her just now, so if she wants to get in trouble with me, then I'm in big trouble, right?!"

The security guard was also shaking with fear at this point.

"What's going on? Is this Lady really a resident of a villa in Thompson First? How come I don't remember her anymore?"

"Besides, everyone who can live in the villa area is non-rich and noble, so if this Lady is so rich, so capable, and so well-connected, why would she return to Thompson First with a few bags of leftover food?"

"Is it becoming popular for rich people to eat slop now?"

Lady Wilson angrily questioned the woman at this time, "Open your dog eyes and see clearly? Now you tell me, am I a resident of A04 or not?!"

That woman was scared out of her wits! They are the only ones who have been able to get to the bottom of the issue. Although he saw the back of Old Lady Wilson, he smelled the smell of leftover food before he could see it clearly.

I'm going to hold my nose and plan to walk around the point.

As soon as Jacob Wilson reached the gate, a swipe of his card and an intelligent voice prompted, "Hello, esteemed resident of Villa A05, welcome home."

The gate should open, and as soon as Lady Wilson heard that it was A05, she immediately looked over, recognized him at once, and hurriedly shouted, "Jacob Wilson! Jacob Wilson!"

When Jacob Wilson turned his head, he found that it was his own mother and said with some embarrassment, "Mom, what are you doing here?"

Jacob Wilson's mom scared the woman almost to the point of wetting her pants.

She was panicking in her mind thinking, "Dead dead dead, dead really dead today! What's this Lady's story? Living in Villa A04 for myself and Villa A05 for my son... This looks like a top big family ah! I actually beat up an Lady of a top big family, will their family try to kill me..."

At this time, Lady Wilson, pointing at the woman in front of her, angrily said to Jacob Wilson, "Jacob Wilson! This bitch beat me up! Hurry up and teach her a lesson for me!"

Jacob Wilson was a little embarrassed.

I'm not sure how much I'll be able to do, but I'm sure I'll be able to do a lot more than that," he said.

"Secondly, she treats me so badly, I'm not going to help her out with that, everyone living in Thompson First is neither rich nor rich, if I really mess with someone respectable, won't I get myself in trouble?"

Thinking of this, he said to Mrs. Wilson, "Mom, this kind of thing should call the police, and besides, you can't just take scissors on this New Year's Eve, how can you fight with someone, don't you think?"

Lady Wilson's anger covered her chest and was about to give him a piece of moral kidnapping, Jacob Wilson had already spoken, "Let's say mom, you call the police first, if the police can't solve the problem, you'll find me again, let's say that, okay?"

After saying that, without waiting for the Lady's response, she said, "That, Mom, there's something going on at home, I'm leaving first."

The words didn't stop, and the steps were taken.

He didn't want to be bothered by the Lady, let alone get involved with her again.

After all, tomorrow was the New Year's Eve, and at a time like this, what he wanted most was to spend the New Year's Eve with his family in peace and security, and nothing else mattered.

Chapter 2005

Seeing that Jacob Wilson had run away, Lady Wilson was furious. Her heart cried out in grief and anger, "What kind of son is this? You don't care if your own mother gets beaten up? Is this still human? It's simply beastly!"

But what she didn't know was that the woman across the street was now almost scared out of her wits.

She didn't know what cracks were in the relationship between Jacob Wilson and Old Madam Wilson, but she heard that they were mother and son. She was terrified as she thought to herself, "This old woman and that man are obviously a couple, but they don't live in the same villa, and instead bought two of the best villas to live next to each other, one set of A04 and one set of A05, what kind of a fucking family is this? How much money do we have to make at home? How much energy must be behind it?"

At the thought of it, she regretted her earlier actions in bothering the Lady.

So, she nervously and hastily whispered an apology, "Lady, I'm so sorry... I really didn't expect you to be a resident of the villa area... It's all my fault for just now, please don't be so mean to me..."

Lady Wilson scolded angrily, "You slapped me once and then said you were sorry and that was it?"

The woman quickly asked again, "So what would you like to do about it... Or do you tell me how I can make you feel better? How about you whip me, no matter how many times you whip me, I won't fight back!"

Lady Wilson gritted her teeth, and at that time, she could not wait to rush over and smite this woman's face.

However, she thought carefully, "Although I'm relieving my hatred by smacking her, it won't serve any practical purpose ah... Rather than that, it would be better to blackmail her for some money!"

Thinking of this, Lady Wilson said coldly, "You scolded me and slapped me, you have to give me some compensation for this matter to make sense, right?"

The woman nodded without hesitation, "You're right! I'm willing to make amends! Tell me a number, how much you want, I'll compensate you..."

Lady Wilson was going to open her mouth to call 10,000.

But pondering for a moment, she didn't think it was quite right to call it 10,000.

The current Old Lady Wilson is no longer the same Lady who was like an old Buddha.

It's not just a matter of time, it's also a matter of time.

However, the current Lady Wilson, for a hundred dollars, pulled a plastic bag at the supermarket for a whole day, so 10,000 dollars is a huge amount of money for her now.

So, the Lady thought to herself, "After all, she just slapped me, and if I ask her for 10,000, what if she gets angry and calls the police to report me for extortion and blackmail? Wouldn't that mean I'd be arrested back in the guardhouse?"

"Nowadays, it's not easy to make money, I'm exhausted, I only make a hundred dollars a day, it would be a good deal if I could get a slap for a hundred dollars ah... One hundred, it won't be called extortion, right?" Thinking of this, Lady Wilson said sternly, "I'm so old, you slap me, the problem can be big or small, but I'm always generous, you pay a hundred dollars, this matter is over!"

"One... A hundred?!" The woman's eyes were on the floor. She had thought that since this Lady could afford to live in a04 villa, there must be some cattlemen in her family, and that she was really in trouble for beating her up today. The first thing that I want to do is to get rid of all the old people, and then I'm going to do it," she said. But I didn't expect that the Lady would only ask for a hundred dollars... She was overjoyed, nodding her head and saying, "No problem no problem! I'll get you the money!"

I said, pulling out my wallet, which produced a hundred in cash, handed it to the Lady Wilson, then pointed at the security guard and said: "Lady, we have witnesses here, you just said to give a hundred this matter is over, I also give you the money now, you can't find me in the future."

Lady Wilson was also overjoyed as she took this hundred dollar bill.

Chapter 2006

In the back of my mind, I thought, "That's a hundred dollars for a slap on the wrist, that's a lot more than a hard day's work!"

So, she suppressed her excitement and spoke, "Okay, let's forget about this matter, and remember, when you go out in the future, don't look down on people with dog eyes!"

The other party immediately nodded respectfully, "Don't worry, I will remember..."

When Lady Wilson arrived home with two hundred in her pocket and four large plastic bags, the aroma of food was spreading everywhere in the house.

It was Gena and the three of them who cooked the food.

They work as cleaners in the supermarket today, 120 a day, three people is three hundred and sixty.

These days, three hundred and sixty three people take down the restaurant, which is just an ordinary meal.

But if you cook and eat carefully, this three hundred and sixty is still very rich.

Gena and the three of them were all from the countryside and were also quite practical, and when they thought of being tired after a long day, they wanted to eat more meat to treat themselves, so they went to the market and bought two pounds of pork, bought some potatoes, beans, and vermicelli, and came home straight to a pot of messy stew.

The cost of a pot of stew is less than a hundred dollars, but the quantity is really enough, the smell of the pork burned out, the hood can not be suppressed.

What's even more interesting is that when the pot of stew began to stew out the aroma, Gena turned off the range hood.

Then she also deliberately opened the kitchen door in order for the aroma to spread a little wider.

This was simply great torture for Christopher and Harold who were on the second floor.

Although this kind of stew did not come up to any high level, it was one of the most practical, most delicious and most gluttonous dishes in ordinary people's homes.

What's more, Christopher and Harold were both starving, and when they were starving, their sense of smell became extremely sensitive, so a little fragrance could make them go crazy for it.

The two of them had thought that the rice was cooked by their own family and couldn't wait so they wanted to eat it quickly, but when they called Hannah to ask, they realized that the rice wasn't cooked by their own family, but by their three new tenants.

This made the father and son despair to the extreme.

Wendy and Hannah were equally desperate.

Just at this moment, Lady Wilson pushed the door in with a black face. As soon as she entered, she cursed and said, "Those three rural old women, how insolent! There are tables in the dining room, but you're still running to the coffee table to eat, you really think you're home here!"

Wendy was so excited to see her come in that she said, "Grandma you're back! We're starving, just waiting for you to come back and bring us food!"

Harold also cried, "Grandma! I'm really hungry, if I don't eat something, I'm going to starve to death..."

Lady Wilson sighed, handed the four plastic bags in her hand to Wendy and said, "This is for you, go get some chopsticks and eat quickly."

At the sight of the plastic bags she carried in her hands, the Wilson family couldn't care less about where the food in them came from, only thinking to quickly eat all of it in their stomachs.

Thus, Wendy said excitedly, "Grandma, I'm going to the dining room to get the chopsticks!"

Hannah was also happy, and was busy saying, "You can't take it all by yourself, I'll come with you!"

Lady Wilson snorted, "Hannah, you stop right there! You're not going to eat a single bite of the food I brought back!"

Hannah did not expect that Old Lady Wilson would turn against her at this time.

She pointed at the large plastic bags of food and said, "Mom, you brought back so much food, what's wrong with letting me have a few bites? I've been starving for so long..."

Lady Wilson sneered, "If you want to eat, go out and work by yourself to earn money, relying on me, an old woman, to feed you... do you want to be shameless?"

Hannah became anxious and blurted out, "That's because I was trapped by Jacob Wilson! Otherwise, I'd work as a cashier and make more money than you!"

Lady Wilson trailed off, "It has nothing to do with me if you earn more or less, you earn yours and I earn mine, neither of us is taking advantage of anyone, so don't even think about eating the food I brought back, if you want to eat it, go earn it yourself!"

Hannah looked at her sadly and angrily and took off, "Lady, you're going to fall down on the well, aren't you? I'll run away from home if you force me to!"

Lady Wilson laughed and clapped her hands, "Oh that's great, hurry up and go, I can't wait to buy a firecracker to celebrate when you're gone! If Donald hadn't stopped me, I'd have let you out of our house. Why would I keep you around to be an eyesore? Since you're leaving on your own, it's great that Donald definitely won't blame me!"

Hannah gritted her teeth, "OK! We'll see about that, old thing."

Wendy then hurriedly came out to round things up, "Grandmother, don't be so mean to mom, she's been hungry for so long too, let her have some too!"

"Let her eat?" Lady Wilson sneered, "I wouldn't let her have a bite even if I poured it all out and fed it to the dogs!"

Saying that, Lady Wilson said, "Give me the food, you go get the chopsticks, we'll eat here as a family of four, let her dry watch!"

Hannah cried out and cursed angrily, "Lady Wilson, I married into your Wilson family and gave birth to children for your Wilson family, and now you won't even give me a bite to eat, you're really heartless!"

Mrs. Wilson despised and said: "If you want to eat, just think of your own way, aren't you quite good at picking up wild men? Go out and hook up again! It might even get you on the list!"

"You..." Hannah was suddenly shy and angry.

The Lady always liked to insult her with the things she had done in the Black Coal Kiln, but she couldn't find any strong way to refute it.

So, she could only stomp her foot in resentment and gritted her teeth, "From today onwards, I, Hannah, am done with your Wilson family, once and for all!"

Saying that, he directly slammed the door and went back to his own room. Christopher had already lost half of his feelings for Hannah, so he was completely silent at this point, and in his heart he was also hoping that Hannah would quickly disappear.

But Harold, who was beside her, was somewhat intolerant.

Although Hannah had done some things that were humiliating to the family, in the end, it was his mother.

Seeing that his own mother was going to be forced to leave home, Harold was naturally somewhat intolerant, so he opened his mouth and said to Lady Wilson, "Grandmother, it's not easy for her either, so please forgive her this time."

Lady Wilson said coldly, "Anyone who speaks about this woman again, get out of this house."

Harold was already starving, so anything that conflicted with eating, then he would definitely choose the latter.

Thus, he immediately shut his mouth in good sense and said no more.

Wendy quickly brought some utensils up, and together with Old Madam Wilson, she poured the leftover rice into the container, and Wendy finished a steamed bun with a few bites dipped into the vegetable soup, followed by another steamed bun stuffed into her stomach as well.

Lady Wilson was already full, so she took the chopsticks and fed Jacob Wilson and Harold who were lying on the bed.

This father and son, like a newly hatched chick in a bird's nest, one by one, opened their mouths wide to be fed, and the moment they finally ate, both father and son could not help but burst into tears.

Lady Wilson was somewhat distressed when she saw the two of them in this state, so she said with red eyes, "Tomorrow mom will go to work another day, buy some noodles and meat back at night, and we will wrap dumplings for the four of us to eat!"

Christopher cried and asked, "Mom, can we have meat-filled dumplings here tomorrow?"

Lady Wilson nodded vigorously, "Don't worry, I'll be able to eat it, and then I'll buy it back and wrap it up with Wendy for you and your master!"

Chapter 2008

Christopher said with red eyes, "Mom, when I'm better, I'll go out to work, even if it's to carry cement at a construction site, I'll do everything I can to earn money to subsidize my family, and I won't let your old man go out to run around at such an old age if I say anything!" Harold's mouth was also vague as he said, "Grandma, I'll be there!" Lady Wilson nodded and said, "You two get down to the business of recuperating, and when you're well enough, I'll be counting on you to give me my final rest!"

When the four members of the Wilson family finally had a full meal, Hannah cried her tears dry in her room.

Hungry and cold, not only did Hannah completely despair of the Wilson family, she also made a decision in her heart to leave.

She did not intend to remain in this family, nor did she intend to remain in Aurouss Hilll.

She wanted to return to her mother's home.

Although her mother's family didn't have much money, and she had a brother who followed her parents to gnaw on her, but at least, her mother's family could still manage to feed her, so she wouldn't have to live in such a downward spiral.

However, her mother's home was a bit far away, and a hard-seat train ride would take at least five to six hours, and a train ticket would cost more than a hundred.

After thinking about it, she decided to find a way out from Lady Wilson. That night, Lady Wilson slept very soundly because of the physical labor she had done all day.

In the early hours of the morning, Hannah sneaked into her room and flipped out two hundred from her clothes pocket.

Of these two hundred, one hundred was the Lady's salary, and one hundred more, which the Lady had received a slap in return.

Seeing these two pieces of cash, Hannah was extremely excited.

Two hundred wasn't much, but it was enough to have breakfast after dawn and then take the train back to her mother's house for New Year's Eve!

So, almost without thinking, she pocketed the money, then packed a few clothes and personal belongings, and left Thompson First before dawn with her suitcase.

Before she left, she left a note in her room with only three words on it: "See you later."

Early morning of the 30th day of the New Year.

Claire Wilson Wilson had finally started her vacation.

However, she had already gotten used to going to bed early and waking up early, so she was already up and ready to wash up before seven o'clock.

Charlie Wade saw his wife get up, he also climbed up from the bed, today is the New Year's Eve, there are quite a lot of things to be busy at home, not only do we have to make preparations for the New Year's Eve dinner, but also get the dumpling filling out in advance, after the New Year's Eve dinner, the family will watch the Spring Festival Gala while wrapping dumplings.

Just at this time, Claire Wilson Wilson's phone suddenly rang, and she said in surprise, "Oh my, Loreen called me so early I don't know what's the matter."

Charlie Wade smiled, "Honey, you'll know if you answer it."

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded and answered the phone, "Hey, Loreen, why are you calling so early?"

Loreen laughed and said, "I'm on vacation ah! Today is a holiday, so my noon flight is back to Eastcliff to have New Year's Eve dinner with my family."

She said, "Is it convenient for you later? I'll make a visit to pay my uncle and aunt a New Year's visit."

Claire Wilson Wilson smiled, "Convenient, but you mustn't buy anything to come to the house ah, I didn't even bother to buy gifts for your family, so we're so close, so don't engage in these formalities."

"Okay!" Loreen smiled and said, "Isn't that just a sentence?"

Saying that, Loreen added, "By the way Claire Wilson Wilson, I asked my cousin to visit your home with me, is that okay?"

Chapter 2009

Claire Wilson Wilson had known Loreen for many years, and knew somewhat about her family, and when she heard that she was bringing her cousin along, she asked curiously, "Loreen, the cousin you're talking about can't be Sam, right?"

Jorin Thomas smiled, "That's him."

"Huh?" Claire Wilson Wilson remembered the image of that dude in her mind at once and asked in surprise, "What is your cousin doing in Aurouss Hilll?"

Loreen said, "He, ah, has been in Eastcliff for a long time and is always causing trouble, so he came to Aurouss Hilll to hone his skills for a while."

Claire Wilson Wilson was surprised and asked, "Hone? How do you hone it?"

Loreen laughed, "Living a miserable life, and now he's renting a place to live in the middle of the city village, the conditions aren't just hard."

Claire Wilson Wilson couldn't help but laugh, "Your cousin is such a domineering person, having him live in the city village must be a great torture for him, right? Surely it couldn't have been his own decision, who the hell is so damaged?"

Charlie Wade was more or less amused when he heard this.

After all, the culprit who made Sam come to Aurouss Hilll to live a miserable life was him.

Loreen smiled at this time, "My brother offended a big man in Eastcliff that he couldn't afford to mess with, and they demanded that he had to suffer honestly in Aurouss Hilll for a year before he could return, and today I'm going back to Eastcliff for New Year's Eve, so he'll have to stay here by himself."

Claire Wilson Wilson pursed her lips and said, "Honestly ah Loreen, that cousin of yours is really a bit too arrogant usually, if he can really take it easy this time, it's not a bad thing."

"Yeah." Loreen laughed and said, "When we arrive at your home later, you can't mention this in front of him to save face."

Claire Wilson Wilson was busy, "Don't worry, I know."

Loreen said, "That's fine, we'll be over there in a moment!"

"Yes! I'll wait for you at home!"

After hanging up the phone, Claire Wilson Wilson said to Charlie Wade, "Honey, Loreen and her cousin are coming over to the house later."

Charlie Wade nodded his head and asked, "Are they at home for lunch?"

Claire Wilson Wilson shook her head, "No, Loreen will leave after sitting for a while, she rushed to the airport to take a plane back to Eastcliff."

Said Claire Wilson Wilson, "Oh right husband, Loreen's cousin will also come over later, let me introduce you to her, her cousin seems to be staying in Aurouss Hilll for a whole year."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "I met her cousin when I went to Eastcliff last time, wasn't it you who asked me to send a birthday gift to Loreen her grandmother, at that time her cousin was also there."

"Really?" Claire Wilson Wilson smiled and asked, "So have you had any contact with him?"

Charlie Wade smiled: "Just chatted for a few sentences, and there wasn't much contact."

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded and said, "Her cousin, that person, character is quite uninviting, relying on some money in the family is arrogant as hell, usually speaks with a hatred of nostrils to people, especially flamboyant, later if he is with you to be proud, you must not take it to heart, after all, came as a guest, and it is the New Year, you must not start a conflict with others. "

Charlie Wade smiled slightly, "Don't worry, I know that."

.....

At this moment, Sam was driving the old Mercedes Benz sedan that was allotted to Loreen by the Emgrand Group, following the directions indicated by the navigation to Thompson First.

Chapter 2010

The co-driver fashioned Loreen, who had just hung up the phone with Claire Wilson Wilson, said cryptically, "Loreen, just go to Charlie Wade's house by yourself, don't bring me along, I really don't want to see him for a minute."

Loreen saw Sam's face full of grievances, as if she was a little daughter-in-law who had been bullied, and couldn't help but ridicule, "Brother, you're too wimpy, aren't you? I'm taking you to Charlie Wade's house to pay my respects, it's not like I'm taking you to fight with Charlie Wade, what are you afraid of?"

Sam sighed, "Hey, Loreen, you don't know, I've met this Charlie Wade a total of two times, and every time I see him, it's no good! The first time I swallowed a necklace and had an operation, and the second time I was directly forced by him to pedal a bicycle all the way from Eastcliff to Aurouss Hillll, which if I see him again, what if he's not happy and wants to send me to Africa to mine, then what am I going to do?"

Loreen seriously said, "Brother, you're overthinking this a bit, in fact, Charlie Wade is not a bad person by nature, and he never bullies anyone, it's always others who bully him that he will be cruel to others, so you just need to be a bit more humble and low-key in front of Charlie Wade, he definitely won't find trouble with you."

Sam still had some palpable feelings, "Although that's true, but this person is happy and angry, how do I know if I will offend him because of a certain unintentional word..."

Loreen then instructed, "In that case, when you go, talk less, and when you see Charlie Wade, respectfully call him Mr. Wade, and don't say anything else."

Sam begged, "Oh my, why don't you just go by yourself? I'll park the car at the entrance at that time, I'll just wait for you in the car."

Loreen said with an angry face, "I just told someone Claire Wilson Wilson that you were going to go together, Claire Wilson Wilson must have also told Charlie Wade, in case you don't go in by yourself and let me go alone, Charlie Wade might think you have a problem with him! Think you don't give a shit about him!"

After a pause, Loreen added, "In case he's not satisfied with you then and intentionally gives you small shoes, then don't blame me for not reminding you, after all, Aurouss Hillll is his territory, you can't even fight him in Eastcliff, let alone in his territory?"

Hearing this, Sam shrank his neck and said in an urn, "Alright, alright, can't I just go..."

Loreen said seriously, "I'm telling you, this person Charlie Wade is actually very easy to get along with, but the premise is that you mustn't behave yourself in front of him, you must talk to him nicely, he must be polite to you, if you pretend with him, then you're finished."

Said Loreen, "Once I went to a hot spring with Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson, a bastard scraped my car and then turned around and scolded me, arrogant as hell, do you know what happened afterwards?"

Condron shook his head, "How's it going?"

Loreen said, "Charlie Wade sent his men over and used a knife to carve two words on that man's head."

Sam was jaw-droppingly frightened: "Carve words on the forehead with a knife? That's cruel, isn't it?"

Loreen said, "You're the one who didn't see that guy's virtue, if you did you'd understand that it's actually not cruel at all to carve words on his forehead."

Sam hurriedly asked, "Then can you tell me exactly what words Charlie Wade carved into his head?"

Loreen said, "That guy likes to call others Pathetic Jerks when he opens and closes his mouth, so Charlie Wade had someone carve those two words into his head."

"Fuck..."

Sam was suddenly scared out of his head, he even had a feeling as if those two words were carved on his forehead.

He couldn't help but lament, "This Charlie Wade... What's the difference between it and the devil? It's simply beastly!"

Loreen immediately turned on her face and snapped out, "I forbid you to say bad things about Charlie Wade!"

"Huh?" Sam was confused and said in aggravation, "Loreen, I'm your brother! Why are you turning your elbows out?"

Loreen snorted, "Charlie Wade is a big hero in my heart, if I were to compare myself to you, an uneducated dude, then my elbow would definitely turn towards him!"

Sam cried, "Loreen, you don't like that Charlie Wade, do you?"

Chapter 2011

Sam suddenly asked a question, making Loreen unable to cover up in time, and the whole person was embarrassed, saying, "You... You..... You don't talk nonsense, I... I don't like Charlie Wade!"

"I don't believe you!" Sam trailed off, "I've been picking up girls for so many years, I know women no better, and with the way you're looking right now, you must be secretly in love with Charlie Wade!"

Loreen pretended to be impatient and said, "Oh my, whatever you think, I'm not bothering to talk to you."

Sam reminded, "Loreen, Charlie Wade is married, you better stay away from him, otherwise if it gets out that the Thomas family's eldest daughter likes a married man, the Thomas family's face will be disgraced by you!"

When Loreen heard this, she got angry and took off, "You still have the nerve to talk about me? You swallowed your own necklace to do the surgery thing is all over the city, the whole Eastcliff who does not know ah, then you wore a green helmet, pedal a big two-eight all the way from Eastcliff to Aurouss Hilll, the whole Eastcliff is even more nobody knows, nobody knows, why do not you yourself say that the Thomas family's face is disgraced by you?"

"I..." Sam felt shame on his face and a fire in his stomach, and said in exasperation, "Loreen, is it necessary? Do you have to hurt each other with me?"

Loreen asked him back, "Who told you to talk about me?"

Sam sighed helplessly and said, "Gotta! I really get it, you just have a crush on Charlie Wade..."

Saying that, he muttered depressingly, "It's fucking weird! Where the hell is Charlie Wade, a married man, good? Why do you all like him? Have all the other men in the world died?"

Loreen also no longer hid the fact that she liked Charlie Wade and asked curiously, "Who else likes him?"

Sam was upset, "That's Jasmine of the Aurouss Hilll Moore Family! Why did I swallow the necklace last time, wasn't it because it was Jasmine's birthday? I wanted to chase her down and the two families even arrange a marriage, but I didn't expect that she wouldn't even bother to look at me the whole time, her attention was all focused on that Charlie Wade, that's why I was so angry that I choked up with Charlie Wade..."

Loreen exclaimed, "No way! Jasmine likes Charlie Wade? Brother, you're kidding me, right?"

Sam said, depressed, "Can I still lie to you? What's in it for me? To be honest I quite like Jasmine, and now that she's become the head of the Moore family again, it would be a great help to the Kilgore family if she could marry me, but I didn't expect her to look down on me!"

Jasmine's beautiful and touching appearance immediately came to her mind. Although Loreen was also the eldest daughter of a big family, she was really very lacking in confidence in front of Jasmine.

Firstly, the strength of the Moore family wasn't weaker than the Thomas family, and secondly, people Jasmine was indeed a rare top-notch beauty, not only was she extremely beautiful, but her temperament was also very good, and she was definitely an impeccable top-notch beauty.

Loreen even felt that Jasmine was truly the number one beauty in Aurouss Hilll, and although Claire Wilson Wilson's looks weren't inferior to Jasmine's, Claire Wilson Wilson was still a cut below Jasmine, a lady's daughter, in terms of temperament.

And what was even better was that Jasmine had now become the head of the Moore family.

This wasn't something that a big lady could compare to, after all, most big ladies of big families were outsiders who would marry out in the future, and no big family would hand over the family inheritance to a woman.

But the Moore family was partial to doing so.

Jasmine was now in charge of a hundred billion dollar big family by herself, and was definitely the top female tycoon in the country.

Even Stefanie hadn't actually inherited the Sun family yet, so to really talk about her worth, the current Jasmine would even be above Stefanie!

This kind of a super beauty, but also like Charlie Wade, this time let Loreen aware of the strong competitive pressure.

The first thing that you need to do is to get rid of the old man's body, and then you'll be able to get rid of him. Why is he so popular?"

Chapter 2012

As Sam drove to Thompson First's, the quiet villa area of Thompson First's erupted into a resonant chorus of cursing early in the morning. The one cursing the street was Lady Wilson.

She woke up early in the morning and found that the two hundred dollars in her pocket was gone, and her first thought was that the money had been stolen!

She thought at the time that her money was eighty percent stolen by Gena and the three of them.

But when she wanted to go and pull Hannah and confront Gena together, she realized that Hannah had left a note and the person had disappeared.

In this instant, Mrs. Wilson realized that the 200 dollars of hard-earned money she had taken was stolen by her eldest daughter-in-law, Hannah.

She exploded then!

You know, this two hundred is what she has earned through hardship and beating and scolding, and she didn't even have time to spend any of it, but it was all stolen by Hannah, how could she not be furious?

So, an angry Lady Wilson stood on the second floor terrace and cursed, "Hannah! You stole my hard-earned money! You shall die a horrible death!"

Wendy rushed over and asked, "Grandma, what's going on?"

Lady Wilson cried, "Your thousand cuts mother, stole all my money! My hard-earned money! The money for our family of four to eat dumplings on New Year's Eve, all fucking stolen by her!"

"Huh?!" Wendy asked off the top of her head, "Grandma, what's going on? Did Mom steal your money?"

Lady Wilson handed the note left by Hannah to Wendy and cried out, "Read it yourself! It's from your bitch mother!"

Once Wendy looked at the four words, which were indeed her mother's handwriting, she became giddy and took off, "Mom's gone?! Where did she go? Why didn't she say anything to me..."

Lady Wilson wailed, "That bitch must have left without saying goodbye because she didn't want to stay and suffer, or be dragged into your father and brother's affairs!"

Said Lady Wilson, sitting on her buttocks, slapping the ground with her hands as she cried, "This son of a bitch is really a sin! She can go, get as far away as she likes, but why steal from me! Doesn't her conscience hurt when she steals money from a Lady like me?"

Christopher and Harold also heard the Lady's words, and Christopher shouted from the inside of the house, "Mom, what did you say! That stinking bitch Hannah stole your money and ran away?!"

"Yes!" Lady Wilson cried, "This son of a bitch who took a thousand cuts stole all my money..."

Christopher gritted his teeth and cursed, "Hannah this bastard! Why didn't I see that she was such a son of a bitch earlier!"

Harold was also incredibly angry, "Mom is too much! She's gone, and she doesn't care if our family lives or dies?!"

Lady Wilson cried, "No! I can't let her go! Call the police! Hurry up and call the police!"

Wendy said with red eyes, "But we don't have a mobile phone, the phone has already been taken away by Donald's people..."

Lady Wilson immediately said to Wendy, "Wendy, go out and find a public phone, it's free to call 110 from a public phone, go quickly! The sooner we call the police, the better chance we have of getting that bitch back!"

Chapter 2013

Elaine Ma is cooking on the first floor, and when she hears Lady Wilson scolding the street early in the morning, she quickly comes out on her crutches to watch the fun.

This time, Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson also happened to go downstairs and saw Elaine Ma who came out on crutches.

Elaine Ma hurriedly asked excitedly, "Hey, did you guys hear that dead old woman cursing the street?"

Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson nodded, Claire Wilson Wilson said with some embarrassment, "Grandma doesn't know what's wrong, she's cursing on the second floor terrace early in the morning."

When Elaine Ma heard this, she said excitedly, "Claire Wilson Wilson, quick! Help me upstairs!"

Claire Wilson Wilson said helplessly, "Mom, what's there to see..."

Elaine Ma, with her right arm on the crutch and her left arm slapped on the sitting leg, took off, "What could be better than this? Hurry up and help me, or you won't be able to see the show if you're late!"

Claire Wilson Wilson could only sigh and said, "Then I'll help you up."

When Charlie Wade saw this, he took the first step to help Elaine Ma up and said, "Honey, it's better for me to help Mom."

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded and said, "Then I'll go press the elevator."

The two couples helped Elaine Ma all the way to the third floor, and when Elaine Ma came to the terrace and looked down, she saw old Mrs. Wilson next door sitting on the floor of the second floor terrace and cursing. Previously, in the house, you could only hear Lady Wilson making noise, but you couldn't hear what she was saying, but after coming out, the sound immediately became clearer.

Lady Wilson was still cursing, "You Hannah, you're a thousand cuts! How dare you steal my hard-earned money! Where's your conscience? I curse you for getting hit by a car on your way out!"

When Elaine Ma heard this, he laughed and shouted, "Hey, old woman, what's wrong with this? Isn't your eldest daughter-in-law the most filial and agreeable to you? Why is she stealing your hard-earned money on New Year's Eve?"

Lady Wilson suddenly heard Elaine Ma's voice, looked up and saw Elaine Ma's smiling face, and suddenly became angry and gnashed her teeth and scolded, "Elaine Ma, our family business has nothing to do with you, you shrew! Don't you dare talk sarcasm here!"

Elaine Ma left her mouth: "Lady, you yourself are seventy years old, and you are cursing on the terrace in the morning, why do you still have the face to call me a shrew? You've got some thick skin!"

Lady Wilson said angrily, "You're farting! The biggest shrew in the world is you, Elaine Ma, and you still think you can pretend to be a good person now that you're living in Thompson First and dressing like you're rich?"

Elaine Ma was not angry, and said with a smile, "Oh, old woman, you also said, I am now a resident of Thompson First, this resident of Thompson First ah, the quality must also be mentioned up a bit before it can be done, can not be like you, are living in Thompson First, but also go to steal other people's food, do you want to shame ah?".

Said Elaine Ma, and then hurriedly, "Oh yes! Did your family enjoy the leeks you stole from our house last time?"

"You... You..." Lady Wilson was trembling with anger and gritted her teeth, "Elaine Ma! I haven't paid you back for the daffodil you used on me! Don't you fucking dare mention this to me!"

Elaine Ma laughed and said, "You're the one who stole our leeks, so why can't I mention it? I also heard that it was because she ate our leeks that your eldest daughter-in-law found out she was pregnant, right? So in the end, you have our leeks to thank for this one! If it weren't for our leeks, your son would be a happy father!"

The poisoning from the daffodil and the incontinence were the most helpless moments in her life, and every time she thought of them, her heart felt like a knife.

She was already immersed in the pain of having her hard-earned money stolen, and now she was being mocked by Elaine Ma for revisiting the past, so the fire in her heart was about to ignite this villa!

Just when she wanted to scold Elaine Ma, but didn't know where to begin, a police car drove downstairs in a hurry.

Several police officers stepped out of the car, and Wendy also hurriedly opened the gate, so one of them asked Wendy, "Did your family call the police?"

Wendy hurriedly said, "That's right, that's right, it was my grandmother who told me to call the police..."

As soon as she heard this, Lady Wilson hurriedly stood up and lay down on the terrace guardrail, crying bitterly and shouting out, "Comrade police officer, you must help us! Our house has been burglarized! I can't live with my hard-earned money gone!"

Chapter 2014

As soon as a few police officers heard this, they were in high spirits. After all, the people who could live in Thompson First were financially very strong, and the "hard-earned money" they were talking about must be an astronomical amount.

Come to think of it, for people who can casually live in a villa of over one hundred million, three to five million is nothing to them. Thirty-five million was probably just a frown.

But seeing how this Lady was acting so devastated the entire time, it seemed the amount had to be above thirty-five million!

This could be a very serious theft!

So, a few people hurried through the door and asked Vivian Siu directly, "When did the theft happen? How much property has been stolen?"

Wendy was slightly embarrassed and said, "This... Please go to the second floor and ask my grandmother, the lost money is all hers, she knows the situation best."

"Good!"

A few police officers were busy going upstairs and led by Wendy to the second floor bedroom.

Seeing an old man and a young man sleeping in the second floor bedroom, the police officer was also a little surprised, but didn't think much of it and came directly to the terrace and asked Mrs. Wilson: "Lady, did you lose your belongings?"

"Right! It's me!" Lady Wilson said resentfully, "A woman named Hannah! She stole my hard-earned money and ran away! You've got to catch her!"

The police officer nodded hurriedly, pulled out the police officer's special PDA, and spoke, "Do you know any specific information about this Hannah? Like where you're from, age, and an ID number would be great!"

That way, we can just locate specific information and start arresting people right away."

"ID number?" Lady Wilson thought about it and asked Wendy, "Do you know your mother's ID number?"

Wendy said awkwardly, "I... I can only remember a small part of it, not all of it..."

Lady Wilson hurriedly said, "Go look for your father's marriage certificate with her! That must have her ID number on it!"

Wendy nodded, "Okay grandmother, I'll go find..."

Several police officers exchanged glances with each other, and the one at the head spoke up and asked, "Lady, this Hannah who stole your money, what is his relationship with you?"

Lady Wilson gritted her teeth and said, "That bastard is my eldest daughter-in-law! I really guarded against it day and night, but I didn't realize that home thieves were hard to guard against!"

The lead police officer said awkwardly, "If it's your own family, you have to carefully consider whether to go through the legal process, because theft is not just a small matter, this is a criminal offense."

After a pause, he added, "If you really want to claim that she is a theft, then after we file a case, it will be handed over to the prosecutor's office to initiate a public prosecution, and then in case of a felony conviction, you will have to sit in jail for at least a few years, if not more than ten years, you and your daughter-in-law are family, there is no need to be so serious, right?"

Lady Wilson snorted coldly, "Seriously? I'm not only serious, I'm deadly serious! It's better if you catch her and sentence her to life in prison! How dare she steal my money? How dare she! I'm going to show her today that this old woman of mine can never be bullied just because she wants to! Gotta give her something to look at!"

Seeing this, the head constable stopped persuading and nodded, "Since your side is claiming that the other party is stealing your property, then we'll proceed down the road according to the theft."

Lady Wilson nodded in panic, "Yes, yes, yes! It's to follow the theft down and catch her! Sentence her!"

The lead officer asked again, "Lady, how much property did you lose this time? This includes, but is not limited to, cash, debts, and any personal items of value."

The old woman blurted out, "She stole my whole two hundred dollars! That's all my hard-earned money!"

The police officer was suddenly confused, "How much... How much?! Two hundred?!"

Chapter 2015

In response to the police officer's confirmation, Old Lady Wilson nodded and gritted her teeth, "Yes, it's two hundred!"

The constable thought his ears were out of joint at this point.

"An Lady who lives in one of Thompson First's finest villas would call the police for two hundred dollars? Something's wrong..."

Thinking back, he surmised, "Could it be that rich people talk like this, saying two million into two hundred? Last time at the class reunion, that rich kid in class was the same way when he talked about that luxury car of his, it was obviously a Rolls Royce with over five million dollars, and when he talked about how much it was, he downplayed it by saying over five hundred, is this the common disease of the rich?"

But when he thought about it, he was a bit puzzled, "By all means, this Lady is worth over a hundred million, so even if she lost two million, she wouldn't be so excited."

So he looked at the Lady again and said, "Hello Lady, let me confirm with you again, you said that your daughter-in-law, that is, this Hannah stole two hundred from you, this two hundred, refers to two million, right?"

"No." Lady Wilson said, "It's two hundred, cash, two hundred!"

"Huh?!" Several police officers' jaws could not help but drop to the ground.

The one in the lead said awkwardly, "Lady, your eldest daughter-in-law took two hundred dollars from you and you're going to call the police to arrest her?"

Lady Wilson's eyebrows stood up and questioned, "What? No? She stole my hard-earned money, and I can't call the police?"

The lead police officer said awkwardly, "It can be, but I have to tell you a basic legal common sense, according to our country's law's definition of theft, the sentencing condition for theft is that the amount of money involved must at least meet the standard of a large amount."

Saying that, he explained, "This threshold of a larger amount is between one thousand dollars and over three thousand dollars, and there is no way to pursue criminal responsibility if you cannot reach this standard."

Lady Wilson frowned, "What the hell! She's stealing my hard-earned money! Do you know I worked hard all day yesterday to earn a hundred dollars! I got slapped in the face and someone else paid me another $100! And this two hundred dollars is the money for our family to eat dumplings on New Year's Eve!"

The police officer was dumbfounded, thinking, "This Lady is not joking with us, right? You live in such a big house and call the police for $200? And this $200 is $100 from a part-time job and $100 from a beating? No ordinary person is poor enough for this, let alone her living in such a large luxury villa. It's too magical!"

However, he could only patiently explain, "No way ah Lady, this is expressly stipulated by the law, if the other party just stole two hundred of your dollars, we really can't file a case, we can only register it for you first, if later on she reaches the standard of filing a case because of other things, we can try to help you recover the loss."

Lady Wilson hurriedly said, "Then I remembered wrongly! She didn't steal two hundred dollars from me, she stole two thousand!"

The police officer said awkwardly, "How much money she stole from you, the specific is to see the case solved, even if you now say that it is two thousand, we have filed a case, people also caught, and finally found that you are lying, the other party simply can not reach the standard of filing, then you are legally responsible for your lies."

Said the police officer and reminded her: "And, Lady I want to explain to you again, even if it reaches two thousand dollars, it's only control, not detention, do you understand the meaning of control? No detention of the other party, just a certain degree of restriction of personal freedom, regular community corrections, and then you'll probably be required not to leave Aourouss Hilll or the street where your villa is located, and then you'll pretty much be through."

"What?!" Lady Wilson said off the cuff, "You're too lenient in your management, aren't you! It's theft!"

The police officer sighed helplessly: "Let's say Lady, theft is indeed a crime, but whether to pursue a degree, if the student to report that the same table stole his eraser, worth a dollar, we also go to arrest someone? It's not appropriate."

The police officer said: "Madam, if your son's wife only stole two hundred from you, we really can't file a case on this matter.

The police officer was only using the TV as an analogy, but Lady Wilson suddenly thought of the incident where she sold the TV in Donald's villa with Harold and Christopher, and became frightened and asked nervously, "Comrade police officer, if you stole a TV worth 100,000, what would be the sentence?"

The police officer seriously said, "If this TV is really worth one hundred thousand, that's a particularly huge amount, as long as the value of the theft reaches sixty thousand, then the base sentencing standard is ten years, on top of that, for every four thousand two hundred dollars, the sentence is increased by one month, if a TV is worth one hundred thousand, the sentence is almost eleven years of fixed-term imprisonment."

"What?!" Lady Wilson was scared to death!

"Eleven years for stealing a TV?! That's too scary, isn't it?!"

"Fortunately, Donald didn't call the police then! Otherwise, at my age, I would probably die of old age directly in prison by then..."

In the house, Jacob Wilson and Harold who were lying on the bed were also frightened by these words.

Harold's entire body shivered in fright, and in a whirl, Christopher, who was beside him, felt a wet heat from the sheets and asked out of his mouth, "Harold... You..... Why did you wet the bed?!"

Harold whispered with a bitter face, "Dad, I'm scared... It's too scary to be sentenced to eleven years for stealing a TV..."

Christopher was particularly helpless and lamented incessantly, "Hey! It's scary, but don't wet the bed! That's great, you've got my pants all wet..."

Harold's mouth flattened and his voice choked out, "Dad... I'm sorry... I really didn't hold back... I promise I won't next time..."

Christopher nodded bitterly and whispered, "Listen to what the police officers outside have to say first... Your grandmother is also really, what's the point of calling the police for two hundred dollars! What's the point! In case we accidentally tell about the sale of the TV again, we might have to get everyone involved..."

At this point, Lady Wilson was also a little panicked.

She really didn't think that Hannah stealing two hundred from herself wasn't even enough to file a case.

But her own family stealing and selling Donald's TV was enough to be sentenced for more than ten years, which really scared her to death.

The police officer saw the Lady's face was not right, so he thought she was just angry. And?"

Lady Wilson sighed in depression and said, "Alright, that's it, it's cheap for this son of a bitch!"

The police officer nodded, "It's fine if you can think about it, if there's nothing else, we'll leave first."

At this time, Wendy just happened to come over with a marriage certificate and spoke, "Officer, the marriage certificate is for you."

Lady Wilson said in exasperation, "What else do you need a marriage certificate for, hurry up and send a few police officers down!"

Chapter 2017

Elaine Ma, who was on the third floor balcony, saw the Lady let Wendy send a group of police officers away, so she pulled her voice and said with a smile, "Oh I say Lady, didn't you want to call the police to arrest that big son in law of yours? Why are you going soft now? It seems you still have a soft spot for your eldest daughter-in-law!"

Lady Wilson was already suffocating in her heart, and when she heard Elaine Ma chattering across the street again, she burst into a rage and scolded, "Elaine Ma, my family's affairs have nothing to do with you, so don't whine here!"

"Yo, don't think I'm squealing?" Elaine Ma mocked, "Don't live next door to our house if you don't like my jibberish!"

Saying that, Elaine Ma sneered, "I heard from Jacob Wilson yesterday that you ran off to work at the supermarket? Sure, an old woman who's done nothing all her life and now she's getting old and starting a career? But I've heard that you seem to have a pretty boring career, just pulling plastic bags for people at the supermarket!"

Lady Wilson was furious and sternly scolded, "What I do has nothing to do with you? Do I need you to tell me what to do here?"

Elaine Ma laughed, "What you do really has nothing to do with me, I'm just lamenting that even you, an old thing, will have today."

Saying that, Elaine Ma laughed to herself and sighed, "Oh, forget it, since you're so poor that you're going to work in a supermarket, what's there for me to be bothered with someone like you? We're not of the same world anymore, I live a life that you can't even dream of living, wasting all this talk with you is completely playing to the bull, so I can only wish you good luck."

Lady Wilson was furious with Elaine Ma's blood rushing up to her head and gritted her teeth, "Elaine Ma! Pay attention when it's thundering and raining, I think you'll be struck by lightning sooner or later!"

Elaine Ma laughed in shame, "You've done all sorts of bad things, or else you would have oppressed your two sons, held the financial power of the family, and even sold your own granddaughter's body in exchange for glory and wealth. Chopping you to death eight times won't kill me once!"

Lady Wilson almost collapsed, jumping to her feet as she cursed angrily, "You... You shouldn't be spewing feces all over the place!"

Elaine Ma waved her hand impatiently, "Okay, old thing, don't fix that useless thing, let's see who is having a good day, it's over, look at my leg injury, my son-in-law gave me hundreds of thousands of dollars to buy anything on the Internet, you? Poor into this kind of forced, food can not eat but also go to the supermarket to work, we two ah, that is the difference between the phoenix and pheasant!"

Lady Wilson was so angry that she couldn't speak at all, and her entire body was completely speechless, only feeling her blood pressure rise suddenly, straight to her own heavenly lid.

After saying that, Elaine Ma waved to Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson, "Good son-in-law, good daughter, let's go downstairs and eat, we don't want to get along with that old thing!"

As soon as the words died down, she turned his head and said to old Mrs. Wilson, "Oh old thing, I'm going to eat first, by the way, I'll tell you that our breakfast is particularly sumptuous, there are lobster claws with black bean sauce, steamed ribs with black bean sauce, fresh shrimp siu mai, barbecued pork buns, oh yes, there's also raw rolled fish fillet congee, all of them are authentic Cantonese breakfast tea, you ah, just continue to starve."

Lady Wilson's blood pressure had burst from Elaine Ma's anger, and she only felt dizzy in her head, almost about to fall to the ground.

At this time, Wendy just happened to come back, and upon seeing this, she hurriedly assisted her.

But although Mrs. Wilson was already dizzy, she was still swearing at the top of her voice: "Elaine Ma, don't go, I will never forgive you today! You get out here!"

Elaine Ma had had enough of her mouth before she didn't bother to continue to take care of her and said directly to Charlie Wade, "Good son-in-law, help Mom downstairs."

Claire Wilson Wilson followed after her and asked, "Mom, where did our family get so many wide style refreshments?"

Chapter 2018

Elaine Ma said with a smile, "Silly girl, I was just lying to her, where to buy wide range of refreshments in this New Year? Besides, I wouldn't do it, I'm just mad at that awful woman!"

Elaine Ma then said: "You don't know, your grandmother usually likes Canton-style refreshments, nothing to do is to go to a teahouse to eat a morning, every time to go with the Empress Dowager with the royal meals, a little big table, now she became a downtrodden household, I still have to stimulate her?".

Claire Wilson Wilson sighed helplessly and said, "Mom, it's time to overturn that feud between you and grandma, right? She's so old, so don't you dare to treat her like that."

Elaine Ma said disdainfully, "So what if she's old? I'm telling you, there's just a certain group of people in this society, and the older she gets, the worse she gets! This kind of person, the older they get, the more they can save up a belly full of bad water, all bad and stinking! You have no idea how she tortured me in the detention center in the first place, and I was already merciful for not rushing over and killing her!" There was nothing that Claire Wilson Wilson could do with this mother, so she could only ask, "Alright mom, what are we going to have for breakfast anyway?"

Elaine Ma said, "Eat noodles for breakfast, I'm down tomato and egg noodles."

After saying that, looking towards Charlie Wade, flattered and said, "Good son-in-law you don't mind, when mom's legs are better, every day she will go out and buy all kinds of big fish and meat to make you a big meal!"

Charlie Wade laughed and said, "Mom, I'm not a picky eater, so you'd better cook more delicious food for Claire Wilson Wilson."

"Sure sure sure!" Elaine Ma said with a smile, "Claire Wilson Wilson is preparing for pregnancy, it's to eat more good food to take care of your body."

Claire Wilson Wilson said shyly, "Mom... Why are you talking nonsense again..."

Elaine Ma said in all seriousness, "How can this be called nonsense? Mom is over here, before a woman wants to have a child ah, she must take care of her body to be healthy, you don't want to be like mom, you don't want to get pregnant in a muddle."

Charlie Wade listened with an annoyed face, thinking, "Obviously you borrowed Jacob Wilson to get drunk and take the initiative to have sex with him, which is considered to be a deliberate act, how can you call it being pregnant in a muddle?"

Claire Wilson Wilson didn't want to continue discussing this topic with her mother at this time, and opened her mouth, "Right mom, later Loreen will come over with her cousin to sit down, so don't talk nonsense at that time."

Elaine Ma was surprised and asked, "Loreen is coming? She hasn't returned to Eastcliff yet?"

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded, "Haven't been back ah, isn't she working in the Emgrand Group, office workers are all off today, so she came to visit our home first, then went back to Eastcliff for the New Year."

Elaine Ma asked again, "Is she still coming back to work after the New Year?"

"Come on." Claire Wilson Wilson said, "She kinda likes the job of the Emgrand Group."

Elaine Ma smacked her lips, looking very serious and said, "Something feels a little off!"

Claire Wilson Wilson was surprised and asked, "What's wrong?"

Elaine Ma said very seriously, "The Thomas family is so powerful, how could she possibly like a job at the Emgrand Group? And it's been going on for so long, I think ah, she must have something else in mind!"

Charlie Wade did not expect that Elaine Ma's judgment of Loreen could be so accurate.

In fact, when Loreen had just arrived at the Emgrand Group, Charlie Wade had already guessed her motive.

The Thomas family must have heard that the Wade family had arranged an offspring in Aurouss Hilll and had also bought the Emgrand Group to give to the other party, so the Thomas family thought that this was a good opportunity to take the first step to arrange Loreen over.

Originally, Charlie Wade planned to just not allow Loreen to contact him in the Emgrand Group, so that she would not be able to find her real body for a long time and believed that she would leave Aurouss Hilll before long.

But who would have thought that Loreen would coincidentally fall in love with him.

From the moment she confessed to Charlie Wade, Charlie Wade knew in his heart that this woman, it would be impossible to shake off for a while. On this side, Claire Wilson Wilson heard her mother say that Loreen came to Aurouss Hilll and actually had other plans, so she couldn't help but laugh, "Mom, where were you thinking, she just came to work, how could she have any other plans."

Elaine Ma said with a smile on her face, "Then let me ask you, if your family had a hundred billion dollars, would you take a job that pays several million a year?"

Claire Wilson Wilson thought about it and said, "People might just want to be an independent woman ah, or they might just want to work on their own in the workplace, or maybe it's simply because of sentiment."

"Emotions?!" Elaine Ma waved her hand and said seriously, "Oh daughter, you don't understand! In this world, the poor may really have some so-called sentimentality, but the rich definitely don't!"

Saying that, Elaine Ma added with a certainty, "This group of rich people, all of them are profitless guys, all of their energy is focused on making money, and they can't wait to waste time to utilize and create a little value, so there's no way they will run to a small place to waste time!"

"The only explanation is that they're interested in something in this small place, and it's not possible, ah, our Aurouss Hill is still hiding some great treasure of great value!"

Claire Wilson Wilson said helplessly, "Mom, it was quite a simple thing, how could it be so mysterious as you said..."

Elaine Ma said in a serious manner, "Don't believe it yet! When I was little, I heard from my grandmother that their old home was in a mountain nest, and they didn't see many outsiders all year round, and rich people didn't even go to them, but from a certain year on, every year there would be a few rich people who would go to them and donate money to build temples, some to land temples, some to temples, saying that their gods there were very spiritual..."

"The people in the mountains were all very puzzled and thought, I haven't heard that we have any very spiritual gods here, if we did, how could we be so poor and eat the last meal without the next one? It's not logical, is it?"

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded, "It's indeed a bit strange, then?"

Elaine Ma said: "And then it's been like this for years, dozens of temples of all sizes have been built, but we're still poor as hell, until a big detective from Eastcliff investigated the case all the way to the mountains, and everyone realized that the rich people, who came to the mountains to donate temples, were trying to steal a big tomb from the Ming Dynasty!"

"Huh? Tomb raiding?" Claire Wilson Wilson said awkwardly, "Mom, you've read too many novels, haven't you? Where are all those fictional grave robbers!"

Elaine Ma said seriously, "Do you think the grave robbers in the novels are mysterious? I'm telling you, there are a lot more grave robbers in reality than what's described in fiction!"

Saying that, Elaine Ma pushed up her sleeves and gestured with her hands in excitement, "I'm telling you, that big tomb is under that mountain behind your grandmother's house, but the people in the village have never known about it! During those years, various grave robbers used the name of donating to build a temple to drill dozens of holes underneath the temple, and they were about to hollow out the bottom of a mountain!"

Claire Wilson Wilson laughed, "Mom, the more you talk, the more mysterious you are, and you're digging a robber's cave... You thought you were a gold-touching captain?"

Elaine Ma saw that Claire Wilson Wilson didn't believe her, so she got anxious and said, "You girl, why don't you believe anything Mom says? My grandmother's family has opened up quite a few large tombs over the years, and a few years ago, not far from my grandmother's house, a particularly famous tomb of Marquis Holland was excavated, have you heard of Marquis Holland's tomb?"

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded, "I've heard of it, it seems to be a pretty significant archaeological discovery, what happened to this tomb?"

"What's wrong?" After the villagers called the police, the heritage department found out that there was a big tomb there, and the tomb of Marquis Holland's wife was also there. There are dozens of holes, just a few!"

Claire Wilson Wilson was dumbfounded as he listened, "This gang of tomb robbers is really that powerful?"

Elaine Ma was a little anxious and said, "Don't believe me, search the internet!"

On the side, Charlie Wade nodded his head in agreement: "Wife, you are really a bit lonely on this matter, there are actually many very powerful craftsmen in the private sector, the tomb raiding novels you read, there are actually many tomb raiders in real life, if you don't believe me, ask Dad, there are many unearthed artifacts in the antique circle every year that are traded privately down there, and to be frank, they are all stolen by tomb raiders. "

Said Charlie Wade, "Ten or twenty years ago, in a capital city in the central region, there was a case of Cordyceps theft, a shop dealing with Cordyceps was stolen two hundred kilograms of Cordyceps worth tens of millions of dollars in one night, do you know how the other party stole it?"

Claire Wilson Wilson shook his head, "How did they steal it?"

Charlie Wade said, "It was stolen by hitting a robber hole, they rented the shop opposite the wormwood shop, made a few dozen meters of robber holes underground, drilled directly into the wormwood shop, and then drilled out and stole all the wormwood."

Claire Wilson Wilson said in surprise, "This is too crazy!"

Charlie Wade nodded, "Putting aside their illegal and criminal acts, just saying that their craft of drilling holes is really amazing."

Elaine Ma looked at Claire Wilson Wilson and spoke, "Now you believe what I said, right?"

Claire Wilson Wilson could only nod, "Mom, I believe..."

Elaine Ma mmmmed and said, "Then now you understand what it means to be unprofitable, right? To the tomb robbers, who would go to that poor country to donate a temple if there wasn't that tomb in the mountains? That Loreen is the same, if it wasn't for Arouss Hilll's profitability, why would she, a lady from a big Eastcliff family, come here to waste time? That's why I said that there must be big treasures in Arouss Hilll that we never expected!"

Claire Wilson Wilson frowned and said, "But where is there any treasure in Arouss Hilll, even if there really is an ancient tomb, it's impossible for someone's Thomas family to rob it!"

Elaine Ma said, "The big treasure I'm talking about may not be the tomb! Maybe there's some big people hidden in our Arouss Hilll!"

Claire Wilson Wilson smiled, "A big shot? What kind of big man could interest all the families in Eastcliff?"

After saying that, she pointed at Charlie Wade and ridiculed, "There are many people in Arouss Hilll who call your son-in-law Charlie Wade and say that your son-in-law is some kind of real dragon on earth, is he the hidden big man ah?"

Charlie Wade's heart thumped when he heard Claire Wilson Wilson's ridicule.

He was really afraid that his mother-in-law and wife were idly engaging in reasoning here, pushing and pushing in pushing out his true identity.

So, hearing Claire Wilson Wilson directly placing doubts on himself, Charlie Wade was really a bit nervous.

At this time, instead, Elaine Ma waved her hand, looked at Charlie Wade and said with a flattering smile, "Claire Wilson Wilson ah, this is unlikely that you said, although my good son-in-law is now productive, but that is a recent matter, when Loreen came to Aurouss Hilll, the good son-in-law had not yet raised his head with the dragon, you forget that at that time, Harold that deflated calf contraction even dared to whine with my good son-in-law? "

Claire Wilson Wilson smiled helplessly, "Then I really don't know what that big treasure you're talking about is."

Elaine Ma laughed, "What it is isn't really important, it has nothing to do with our family, I'm just saying all this to tell you that this lady friend of yours isn't simple, she must be hiding a big secret in her heart."

Claire Wilson Wilson said, "Let her be, even if she is hiding a big secret, it has nothing to do with me, I don't want to pry into her privacy either."

Saying that, Claire Wilson Wilson also instructed, "When Loreen comes later, Mom, don't ask blindly ah, don't make it sound like we are gossipy."

Elaine Ma nodded, "Good, I won't talk much then."

Only then did Charlie Wade let out a sigh of relief.

When they went downstairs, Jacob Wilson was already sitting in the restaurant eating noodles.

When he saw the three of them come down, he asked, "What are you three going to see, my mother she's early in the morning, what's the noise outside?"

Elaine Ma laughed and said, "Oh my Jacob Wilson, your mother is now an outstanding person, she has learned to openly curse on the balcony, it seems that she is saying that Hannah has stolen her hard-earned money, and your mother is cursing while she is about to call the police to arrest her!"

Jacob Wilson muttered, "My mother's ability to curse in the balcony is far worse than when you were yelling at the whole neighborhood across the balcony, but it's far worse than when you were yelling at the whole neighborhood."

Elaine Ma slapped the table, "Jacob Wilson, what did you say?!"

Jacob Wilson hurriedly waved his hand, "I didn't say anything."

Then, quickly changing the subject, he spoke, "What is this Hannah stealing my mother's money for? What's this they're singing about again?"

When Elaine Ma saw that Jacob Wilson promptly changed his mind, she didn't continue to question him, and only after glaring at him did she continue to say, "I don't know which show they are singing about."

Jacob Wilson sighed, "It was a good day, but they had to make it all day and night... It's a good thing that all those family businesses that my father created were all ruined by them."

Elaine Ma left her mouth, "It doesn't matter if they have ruined the family business, it has nothing to do with us, as long as they don't come to us with a serene face!"

Jacob Wilson nodded with a complicated expression and did not speak again.

After the three mouths had breakfast, Loreen and Sam arrived.

They boarded the door with bags of gifts, and as soon as they entered, Loreen warmly said to Jacob Wilson and Elaine Ma, "Happy New Year, Uncle and Aunt. I've come early to pay my respects to you two!"

Afterwards, she looked at Claire Wilson Wilson and Charlie Wade, "Claire Wilson Wilson and Charlie Wade, Happy New Year!"

Claire Wilson Wilson and Charlie Wade said in unison, "Happy New Year!"

Sam followed Loreen's side, only like a little chicken boy, seeing Charlie Wade, he was even more scared trembling.

Loreen pointed at Sam beside her and spoke, "This is my cousin, Sam, cousin, you quickly say hello to everyone."

As soon as the words fell, Sam immediately said with fear and trepidation, "Happy New Year from Uncle and Aunt, Happy New Year from Miss Wade, and Happy New Year, Mr. Wade."

After saying that, he even bowed ninety degrees.

Elaine Ma was dumbfounded.

Although she didn't know Sam, she had heard of him and knew that Loreen's aunt had married into the Eastcliff Kilgore family, and that the Kilgore family was also a family of extraordinary strength.

However, she never expected that Sam, as the young master of the Kilgore family, would be so polite and courteous, even a little too polite, and thought to herself, "Oh boy, is this Kilgore family's family discipline so good? It's too grand for the eldest young master to go out to visit a small family in a small place like ours and bow ninety degrees right off the bat, isn't it?"

How did she know that Sam was originally one of the most arrogant and domineering second generation ancestors, the reason why he was now as honest as a quail was solely because he was scared by Charlie Wade.

Sam pedaled his bicycle from Eastcliff to Aurouss Hilll, Charlie Wade gave him the rule that he must arrive within fifteen days, but he took almost twenty days.

So, he was afraid that Charlie Wade would settle the score with him, and if he was unhappy and let himself stay in Aurouss Hilll for an extra year, wouldn't he be devastated?

Chapter 2022

Thinking of this, he immediately subconsciously said to Charlie Wade, "Mr. Wade, I'm so sorry, I was delayed on the road for a few days, I was late..."

Claire Wilson Wilson as well as Jacob Wilson and Elaine Ma were even more surprised.

How did this Sam still apologize to Charlie Wade? Do the two of them know each other?

Charlie Wade saw that his family was full of amazement, so he had a clever idea and smiled slightly, "Young Master Kilgore is polite, since I said that I would treat you to dinner, whether you come early or late, I will honor my promise."

Sam was slightly stunned, first not understanding why Charlie Wade was suddenly so polite to himself.

Then only then did he realize that he might have said the wrong thing. Charlie Wade probably didn't want his family to know that he was in conflict with him.

So, he hurriedly followed Charlie Wade's words and continued, "In that case, thank you in advance Mr. Wade, let's wait for a date after the year."

Charlie Wade nodded, smiled and said to Claire Wilson Wilson as well as his father-in-law and mother-in-law, "When I went to Eastcliff to read feng shui for others, I happened to go to Grandma Thomas's birthday on behalf of Claire Wilson Wilson, and I met Young Master Kilgore at the birthday banquet, and when I heard that he was coming to Aurouss Hilll, I said that I would invite him to dinner when he arrived."

Sam also nodded hurriedly, "Yes, I didn't expect that I would be delayed for a few days on my way here, and it dragged directly to the root of the year."

Elaine Ma was surprised and asked, "Young Master Kilgore, how did you get here from Eastcliff? How can the road still be delayed for a few days? It's only a ten-hour drive, right? The plane is much faster."

Sam said awkwardly, "I... I'm pedaling my bike here..."

"Huh?!" Elaine Ma, Claire Wilson Wilson and Jacob Wilson were all dumbfounded.

The young master of the Kilgore family, pedaling a bicycle from Eastcliff to Aurouss Hilll, what is he after in the cold of winter?

When Sam saw that everyone was surprised, he could only say with a hard scalp, "The reason for pedaling a bicycle is that I actually want to cultivate my emotions..."

Several people looked at each other.

Taoist sentiment? Are all rich kids this boring these days?

Loreen then hurriedly came out to ease the embarrassment and handed the prepared gifts to Jacob Wilson and Elaine Ma and said, "Uncle and aunt, these are some small gifts for you, please smile!"

Jacob Wilson politely said, "Oh Loreen, you said you're a child, you came just to come, what else to buy, how embarrassing to make you break the bank."

Elaine Ma chimed in, "Yes Loreen, coming to Auntie's house, it's just like coming to your own house, no need to be so polite."

Although Elaine Ma said that, while she was still talking, she had reached out her hand and received the gifts they brought from Loreen as well as Sam's hands.

When Loreen saw that Elaine Ma's leg was still in a cast, she was surprised and asked, "Auntie, is your leg still not well?"

Elaine Ma sighed, "Hey, it's good, but wasn't this an accident two days ago, and it was accidentally broken again."

Loreen hurriedly asked, "What did the doctor say? Is it serious?"

Elaine Ma waved her hand, "Harm! It's no big deal, just like last time, just recuperate and recuperate."

Loreen nodded and said, "Then also, I wish you auntie a speedy recovery!"

Elaine Ma smiled and said, "Thank you Loreen!"

The first thing that you should do is to take a look at the newest products that are available in the marketplace, and then you can find out what they are."

Loreen laughed, "Why are you still so polite to me! Next time you have a chance to go to Eastcliff, just come sit at my house again, won't you?"

Saying that, she glanced at Charlie Wade and said to Claire Wilson Wilson, "Claire Wilson Wilson, if you don't have anything to do after the New Year, you can go to Eastcliff with Charlie Wade for two days and stay at my house then! We'll come back together on the seventh day of the New Year!"

Claire Wilson Wilson smiled, "This, I'll take a look at it, I can't determine the time yet."

At this time, the doorbell rang.

Jacob Wilson busily got up and went over, and through the visual intercom screen, he saw that standing outside the door was a very maturely dressed, and somewhat sexy, extremely beautiful woman.

Jacob Wilson was a little surprised and asked, "Hello, who are you looking for?"

The other party asked politely, "Hello, is this Ms. Claire Wilson Wilson's house? I'm Doris Young from the Emgrand Group, please excuse me if I take the liberty of visiting your home!"

Chapter 2023

"Doris Young?!"

Hearing Lori's name, Jacob Wilson only recognized that the sexy beauty on the other side of the video was actually the vice chairman of the Emgrand Group who came to the scene to congratulate his daughter on the opening of her studio.

This made Jacob Wilson doubly surprised.

After all, Doris Young, as the vice chairman of the Emgrand Group and a well-known business elite in Aurouss Hilll, was still very well known in Aurouss Hilll.

Moreover, Jacob Wilson also knew that the Emgrand Group gave Claire Wilson Wilson a lot of renovation business and could be said to be Claire Wilson Wilson's breadwinner in her career.

But he really did not expect that Ms. Young would take the initiative to visit his home, so he hurriedly said to Claire Wilson Wilson, "Claire Wilson Wilson, come quickly, Ms. Young, the vice chairman of the Emgrand Group, is here!"

"Huh?" Claire Wilson Wilson was surprised, then still a little nervous, and said, "Why is Doris here.... I'll go open the door for her!"

Loreen was also surprised.

Although Ms. Young's worth was far less than Loreen's, she was, after all, the vice chairman of the Emgrand Group, the second-in-command of the Emgrand Group, and Loreen's top boss.

Loreen also didn't expect that her top boss would come to visit her best friend's house.

Therefore, she was more or less embarrassed, but now she couldn't leave, and could only wait for Ms. Young to come in with a hard scalp.

Claire Wilson Wilson quickly invited Ms. Young in, Lori said with some apologies: "Sorry Ms. Wilson, took the liberty to disturb."

Claire Wilson Wilson busy: "Ms. Young you are too polite, should I have gone to visit you, but these two days have not taken the time, I also just until today to start vacation."

Ms. Young nodded and handed over the gifts she was carrying in her hand, saying, "This is some New Year's gifts for uncles and aunts, a small gesture, please smile."

Claire Wilson Wilson was very embarrassed and said, "Ms. Young... This..... This is really inappropriate..."

Lori smiled slightly, "We have also worked together for quite a long time, you and I don't need to be so polite, compared to our cooperation, what is this small gesture."

At this time, Jacob Wilson and Elaine Ma also came over, Jacob Wilson marveled at the young and capable temperament of Ms. Young, while Elaine Ma focused her attention on the gift box in her hand.

Claire Wilson Wilson enthusiastically said to Ms. Young, "Ms. Young go sit in the living room for a while."

Ms. Young didn't see Charlie Wade at the foyer, her heart was already a bit lost, and if she really just left, she was more or less a bit regretful, and when she heard Claire Wilson Wilson invite herself in, she smiled and said, "Then I'm sorry to bother you!"

Jacob Wilson on the side smiled and said, "No disturbance, no disturbance, Ms. Young please come in and sit down, I'll ask my son-in-law to make you a nice pot of tea!"

As soon as Ms. Young heard that she had asked Charlie Wade to make tea for her, how could she stand it, she hurriedly waved her hand and said, "Uncle Wilson you are too polite, no need to be so troublesome."

"Oh no it's not troublesome! It's just as well that we have guests at home, let's sit together for a while." Jacob Wilson smilingly responded, then quickly walked two steps to the living room and greeted Charlie Wade, "Good son-in-law, quickly make a pot of tea and entertain the three guests."

Charlie Wade nodded and reached out his hand to open the kettle on the tea sea.

At this time, Ms. Young also walked into the living room, as soon as she entered the living room, her eyes focused on Charlie Wade's body.

Charlie Wade also looked at her, and in the four eyes, Ms. Young's eyes overflowed with a trace of joy.

And Charlie Wade was also somewhat surprised at the Ms. Young in front of him.

Today Ms. Young did not wear the clothes of a strong woman in the workplace, but wore a light curry colored trench coat, with waves of long hair spread over her shoulders, sexy and feminine.

Charlie Wade nodded at her slightly and said politely, "Hello, Ms. Young."

Lori replied in succession, "Hello, Mr. Wade..."

At this time, Loreen stood up and said with a little embarrassment, "Hello Ms. Young..."

Only then did Ms. Young see Loreen and said in surprise, "Oh my, Loreen you're here too? Didn't you go home?"

Loreen said unnaturally, "That... I'll go to the airport later."

The moment Sam on the side saw Ms. Young, his eyes instantly burst into several fires!

Although he had seen many beauties, he had never seen a workplace beauty with such good temperament and such beauty, so he immediately felt a thumping sensation.

He subconsciously stood up and asked Loreen, "Loreen, you haven't introduced who this beauty is?"

Loreen hurriedly introduced, "Oh right Ms. Young, let me introduce you, this is my cousin, Sam Kilgore."

After saying that, she looked at Sam again, "Cousin, this is the vice chairman of our Emgrand Group, Doris Young."

Sam immediately stretched out his hand and said complimenting, "Oh my, I've heard of the great name of Ms. Young long ago, and seeing her today, it's true to her name! I am Sam, a descendant of the Eastcliff Kilgore family."

Lori nodded lightly and politely said, "It's a pleasure to meet you."

However, Ms. Young was not surprised at Sam's identity.

Although she wasn't from a big family, she had worked for a long time in the Emgrand Group and had come into contact with quite a few big families and understood quite a few things about them, so she naturally had some understanding of the Eastcliff Kilgore family. Even the young master of the Wade family, Charlie Wade, she had known for so long, and when she saw the young master of the Kilgore family, Sam, she naturally wouldn't have any unnecessary feelings. Sam had thought that he had moved out of the identity of the young master of the Kilgore family, he would definitely be able to make Ms. Young impressed with himself.

But I didn't expect that Ms. Young didn't seem to care at all about this matter of being the young master of the Kilgore family and couldn't see any waves on her expression.

This made Sam's heart a little depressed, he thought in his heart: "I was trying to take Ms. Young as a key attack object, if I can take down Ms. Young, then my next year in Aurouss Hilll, the days are not too boring....."

"But, this Ms. Young doesn't seem to be very impressed with me ah... She's just a professional manager, and her salary is only a few hundred to ten million a year even higher, so why is she still ignoring me, the young master of the Kilgore family? It's a bit too high-sighted, isn't it?"

So, he continued to persevere and said to Ms. Young, "Ms. Young, I have long heard that you have extraordinary ability and are an elite in the business world, if you are interested in developing in Eastcliff in the future, you can consider coming to our Kilgore Group as a vice chairman, the salary is definitely much higher than you are in the Emgrand Group."

He originally thought that he could lure Ms. Young with a high salary, but he did not expect that Ms. Young would not hesitate to shake her head, "Thank you Mr. Kilgore for your good intentions, but no need, I'm quite good in the Emgrand Group, and I don't plan to change jobs."

Sam heart could not help but feel a little lost, but, still unwilling to concede defeat, so he continued: "Ms. Young, Aurouss Hilll this place is too small, will limit your development, or go to Eastcliff is better, as the saying sea wide fish leap, sky high, let the birds fly Well!"

At this time, Sam was only concerned with picking up girls, but forgot that there was a Charlie Wade by his side that he couldn't afford to offend.

In fact, he didn't think that there was anything wrong with him hooking up with Ms. Young in Charlie Wade's presence.

After all, although he was triggered by him and came to Aurouss Hilll to live a year of misery, Charlie Wade didn't say that he wouldn't let himself pick up girls during this year!

Charlie Wade then saw the trick deep inside Sam's heart and thought, "This Sam, really can't change his dog and eat shit, everywhere he goes he has to pretend to be his Kilgore family's young master identity, since that's the case, let's extend him for another year and let him stay in Aurouss Hilll for two years before leaving!"

Thinking of this, he immediately sent a WeChat to Stefanie: "Daisy, tell your cousin Trevor to convey to the Kilgore family that Sam's punishment period in Aurouss Hilll has been extended by two years, and have them send a WeChat to inform Sam now."

Stefanie immediately replied, "Charlie Wade, did that Sam make you angry again in Aurouss Hilll?"

Charlie Wade replied, "It's not that he didn't provoke me, but he just acted like a pussy in front of me and made me a little upset!"

Chapter 2025

Sam was thinking about how he could find a topic to get a little closer to Ms. Young, when he suddenly received a WeChat from his mother Lydia. The content of the WeChat caused him to be struck by lightning for a moment.

"You bastard brat, how did you mess with Charlie Wade again! Trevor of the Sun family just called and scolded me, saying that you've caused trouble again, and that Charlie Wade wants to extend the time you'll receive punishment in Aurouss Hilll to two years!"

Sam collapsed almost instantly!

"Two years?! Wouldn't that kill me?"

"I've only been living in the city village of Aurouss Hilll for two days and my whole body is already getting fed up, I don't even know how to resist for the next year, why did this Charlie Wade suddenly add another year to my sentence? How did I recruit him?"

Thinking of this, Sam looked at Charlie Wade and subconsciously asked out of his mouth, "Mr. Wade, I..."

Charlie Wade didn't wait for him to speak, he directly handed over a cup of tea, smiled faintly, and said, "Come, Mr. Kilgore, please drink the tea, it's not bad, I brought it back from abroad, drink it, two is still two, if you don't drink it, two is about to become three, and it's even possible to become four or five."

Sam's face immediately became incomparably ugly.

The threat in Charlie Wade's words, he heard it clearly and plainly.

"Charlie Wade definitely means that he wants me to keep my mouth shut, if I honestly drink tea and don't talk nonsense, then let myself stay in Aurouss Hilll for two years, if I don't do what he says, two years could turn into three, four, or even five years..."

Thinking of this, Sam's heart completely collapsed!

"This Charlie Wade, is simply a devil of a devil! What have I ever done to provoke you into doing this to me?!"

"Could it be... Is it because of that Doris?! Did I just offend him by trying to pick up Ms. Young?!"

"Ms. Young isn't his woman either ah! Isn't she the vice-chairman of the Emgrand Group? What's it got to do with you, Charlie Wade? You, Charlie Wade, are too harsh..."

Just when Sam was so depressed that he wanted to die, the others were also surprised and looked at Charlie Wade, completely unaware of what Charlie Wade meant by two changing into three and four.

Claire Wilson Wilson was surprised and asked, "Charlie Wade, what are you talking about, what two changes to three and two changes to four, how come I don't understand..."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "Wife, I was just playing dumb riddles with Mr. Kilgore, when we met last time, we found out that we both quite like playing dumb riddles, so I temporarily gave Mr. Kilgore a question."

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded gently and asked with a smile, "Then what is the end of the riddle?"

Charlie Wade smiled, "The answer to the riddle definitely can't be told ah, it's meaningless to say it."

Saying that, he pushed the cup of tea in front of Sam and asked with a smile, "Mr. Kilgore, I wonder if you want to drink this cup of tea?"

Sam knew that if he didn't take this cup of tea, there was a possibility that he wouldn't be able to leave Aurouss Hilll for the next three or four years.

If he wanted to stop the losses in time, he should drink this cup of tea quickly, so as not to continue to expand his losses. Thinking of this, his eyes turned red and he almost cried out on the spot.

"Two years! Letting me live for two years in a city like this, in a rundown town like that, is no different than going to jail!"

"It might as well be fucking jail!"

"What kind of sin did I do to meet a beastly animal like Charlie Wade!

Before I met him, my life was not too chic, and since the last time I met him on Jasmine's birthday, nothing good has happened to my life!"

At that thought, Sam's heart suddenly screamed, "Shit! That time I offended Charlie Wade because I wanted to court Jasmine! This Charlie Wade is too much of a beast, isn't he? You're married, and your wife is so beautiful, why are you still stopping me from picking up girls? Are these all his women?!"

Sam wanted to die, accidentally bumping into Charlie Wade's gun so many times, he only wanted to stay away from Charlie Wade for the rest of his life...

In resentment, he could only be forced to compromise with Charlie Wade, and respectfully received the cup of tea Charlie Wade pushed over to his mouth with a trembling hand, and said with great pain, "Mr. Wade, thank you for making the tea, I'll drink it!"

Saying that, with one bite and one stomp, he brought up the cup of tea and drank it all in one gulp. Drinking this cup of tea was tacitly accepting Charlie Wade's new arrangement. The one year sentence was suddenly doubled to two years.

Sam had no tears to cry, and his entire body instantly lost his soul, completely losing his spirit. Loreen was also a little surprised at this point. Others didn't know about the conflict between Charlie Wade and Sam, but she knew all about it.

It was Charlie Wade who made Sam pedal his bicycle from Eastcliff to come to Aurouss Hillll in the first place and suffered and reformed in Aurouss Hillll, and now that Charlie Wade suddenly started playing riddles with numbers again, she immediately had a bad premonition.

So, she asked Sam in a low voice, "Brother, what's going on?"

Sam slumped incomparably and handed his phone to Loreen, and on the screen of the phone, it was the WeChat that his mother Lydia had sent to him.

After reading it, Loreen was dumbfounded!

She didn't expect that Charlie Wade would be so cruel as to directly extend her cousin's one-year suffering period by double.

However, she couldn't care less about feeling sorry for Sam.

In her heart, she was reviewing, reviewing where Sam had offended Charlie Wade from the moment he first entered the door until now.

"Did cousin offend Charlie Wade?"

"It doesn't seem like it... He's always been very polite to Charlie Wade, he almost didn't just bend down and call him big brother."

"Did cousin offend Claire Wilson Wilson?"

"Doesn't seem like it either! Cousin is scared to death of Charlie Wade, knowing that Claire Wilson Wilson is Charlie Wade's wife, even if he were to give him ten guts, he wouldn't dare to have any ill thoughts about Claire Wilson Wilson."

"Did the form offend Claire Wilson Wilson's parents?"

"Or not! Cousin's overall behavior from the time he entered the door until now is still very humble, not a dude's second son's appearance at all."

"Then where exactly did it offend Charlie Wade?"

Loreen was suddenly in deep thought.

Then, her gaze suddenly glanced at Ms. Young who was secretly checking out Charlie Wade at the side.

At this instant, her heart suddenly thumped!

"Could it be... Is it because the cousin just offended Charlie Wade after showing his affection for Ms. Young?!"

"But, what relationship does Charlie Wade have with Ms. Young?! Ms. Young is the vice-chairman of the Emgrand Group, she did have some contact with Claire Wilson Wilson, it's impossible to have too much contact with Charlie Wade!"

"Besides, even if Charlie Wade knows Ms. Young, why would he be angry with cousin because he provoked Ms. Young?"

"And, the way Ms. Young looked at Charlie Wade, something didn't seem right! This.... Is there something else hidden in this?!"

Loreen's mind was already a mess when she thought of this.

Reason told her that there should be no relationship between Charlie Wade and Ms. Young.

However, her intuition again told her that the relationship between these two seemed far from as simple as she saw it!

Chapter 2027

Loreen really wanted to find out what the relationship between Charlie Wade and Ms. Young was.

However, today's time clearly did not allow it anymore.

She still had to rush back to Eastcliff to accompany her own family for the New Year, so she could only speak to Claire Wilson Wilson as well as Charlie Wade after sitting for ten minutes, "Claire Wilson Wilson, Charlie Wade, I have to go, I still have to go to the airport to catch my flight, all the flights to Eastcliff are full today, if I delay this one, I will have to spend the New Year in Aurouss Hilll."

Claire Wilson Wilson opened her mouth to ask, "Loreen, do you want us to go to the airport to see you off?"

Loreen hurriedly said, "No need, you guys can stay at home."

After saying that, she greeted Ms. Young again, "Ms. Young, I'm leaving first."

Ms. Young nodded slightly and said, "Have a safe journey, and in addition, I wish you a happy new year in advance."

"Thanks!" Loreen nodded and said goodbye to Claire Wilson Wilson's parents before leaving with the crying Sam.

As soon as they left the house, Sam could no longer tense his depressed emotions and cried out at once, saying, "Loreen, this Charlie Wade is too much! As you can see, from the moment I walked in the door, I didn't move him, I didn't provoke him, I didn't dare to contradict him with a single word, but I didn't expect that he would ask Trevor to add another year to my deadline! And say what I made him feel bad, you judge my brother, where is such a person!"

Loreen sighed and said, "Brother, I suspect that the reason why Charlie Wade doesn't like you is because your attitude towards Ms. Young is a bit too lovey-dovey!"

Sam nodded and lamented, "I'm not going to lie to you, I also guessed it, I reckon there are two possibilities in this matter, either Charlie Wade is upset with me for picking up girls in front of him, or Charlie Wade is upset with me for picking up Ms. Young, one of these two must be true." Loreen nodded, "I share the same opinion as you, the probability is that it has something to do with Ms. Young, but I'm a bit confused again, it's reasonable to say that Charlie Wade should have no friendship with Ms. Young."

Sam said resentfully, "I suspect that the two of them might be having an affair!"

Loreen's heart naturally couldn't accept such a fact, so she said, "It's unlikely that the two of them should, Charlie Wade is still very heartfelt towards his wife."

Sam said, "Knowing people's faces is not knowing their hearts, you don't know what kind of face Charlie Wade has when he's not in front of people..."

Saying that, he depressingly lamented, "If I had known, I wouldn't have come with you! I said I wouldn't come and you had to make me come, this is great, I have to stay in this shitty place in Aurouss Hilll for two years, isn't this killing me?"

Loreen said helplessly and ashamedly, "I'm sorry ah brother, I'm to blame for this, I shouldn't have dragged you along..."

Sam wiped a handful of tears and said, "Instead of telling me you're sorry, why don't you give me an idea on how to persuade Charlie Wade to spare me as soon as possible..."

Loreen hurriedly nodded her head and said, "Brother, don't worry about this, when I return from Eastcliff, I will definitely find an opportunity to plead with Charlie Wade for you."

Saying that, she added firmly, "When I return, I will definitely look into Charlie Wade's matter with Ms. Young to see if they have any ulterior secrets."

Loreen flew back to Eastcliff by plane with strong suspicions.

Sam had no money in his pocket and didn't dare to make a fuss in Aurouss Hilll, so he could only decadently return to the city village.

At the same time in the village in the city, there is also Charlie Wade's arrogant, domineering and uncaring aunt, Cynthia, who is under surveillance and living in the village.

This New Year's Eve would be the most miserable New Year's Eve that the two of them had ever lived in their lives.

Also miserable was Christopher's family.

Chapter 2028

Lady Wilson had originally agreed to work at the supermarket today.

The supermarket had also promised to pay her double pay today.

However, due to her hard-earned money being stolen and being mocked severely by Elaine Ma, Lady Wilson's blood pressure skyrocketed and she couldn't get up once she sat on her chair.

Although she was not physically harmed, the idea of going to work at the supermarket had no choice but to stop because of her anger and soaring blood pressure.

Seeing that her hard-earned money was gone and she had no chance to earn today's wages, Lady Wilson was very desperate inside.

She originally wanted Wendy to go to the supermarket to work and earn back her share of the salary.

But when she thought that her son and grandson were seriously injured in bed and her blood pressure was skyrocketing, she couldn't take care of herself and was unable to take care of them, so she didn't dare to let Wendy leave.

The family of four could only stare at each other in the luxurious villa. Their family of four was now penniless, and the only thing they had was the leftover food that they hadn't finished yesterday.

It was originally a leftover vegetable bottom, and after another night of putting it away, it had been completely tattered into vegetable soup.

Wendy proposed to heat up the leftover food for lunch and eat it together, but Lady Wilson didn't agree.

She said to Wendy, "That bit of leftover food is the only food we have now, and if we eat them now, we'll have to starve at night."

Saying that, Lady Wilson sighed and added, "Tonight is the 30th day of the New Year, what are we talking about? You also can't starve at the New Year's Eve dinner, so it's better to save this bit of leftover food for the night."

Wendy cried and said, "Grandmother, that leftover food is not enough for four of us to eat a half-full meal, so what's the point of keeping it..."

Lady Wilson said seriously, "You don't understand! The New Year's Eve dinner must be eaten, if you can't eat the New Year's Eve dinner, you'll be poor for the next year and won't be able to turn over a new leaf!"

Harold cried when he heard this, "Grandmother, didn't you say that you would wrap meat-filled dumplings for me tonight? Why are you making me eat these leftovers again?"

Lady Wilson was extremely helpless: "Harold, there's nothing Grandmother can do, after all, we don't have a penny now, what can we use to buy noodles and meat?"

Harold was crying especially sadly: "Grandmother, today is New Year's Eve, I can't eat big fish and meat, at least let me have a mouthful of dumplings ah, I really don't want to eat the leftover vegetable soup from yesterday anymore, those vegetable soups smell like brushing pot water and mixed with the taste of rusty kitchen knives, it's too bad..."

Christopher, who was on the side, choked, "Alright Harold, it's good to have something to eat... It's better than going hungry on New Year's Eve..."

Saying that, he gritted his teeth and said, "Blame that bastard of a mother of yours for this! Stealing all of your grandmother's hard-earned money, otherwise, we could at least have a hot dumpling..."

Wendy also cried and sobbed, "Mom is too much, when she stole grandma's money, didn't she think of our family?"

Lady Wilson was even more furious and blurted out, "She wants nothing! If she really had our family in mind, she wouldn't have sold her body in the coal mine. This kind of unruly bitch, if God really has eyes, he should take her away before it's too late!"

Saying that, Lady Wilson sat paralyzed in her chair, patting her thighs as she cried out, "God, open your eyes and look at this family of ours, what kind of life we're living!"

The Lady said, covering her face and crying.

Everyone else kept sobbing as well, and the four members of the family cried in a ball...

Chapter 209

The Charlie Wade family next door, on the other hand, had been preparing the New Year's Eve dinner since after noon.

All kinds of ingredients were piled up all over the kitchen console.

Charlie Wade was the one with the best cooking skills in the family, so he was the chef for this New Year's Eve dinner.

As for Jacob Wilson, she chopped the dumpling filling with a knife by hand.

All four members of the family helped in the kitchen, the atmosphere was harmonious and warm.

As the sky gradually darkened, one dish at a time was brought to the table.

In the A04 villa, Gena and the three women have also started to busy themselves in the kitchen.

In addition to preparing noodles and meat stuffing for dumplings, they bought a chicken, a fish and two pounds of ribs, and made a few meat and vegetable dishes.

Gena felt that the opportunity to live in such a nice villa was a blessing for the three of them, so she also bought an incense burner, a handful of incense, and a very inexpensive portrait of Buddha.

Before eating, Gena brought Samantha and Yadira and knelt in front of the portrait of the Buddha.

Gena held three incense sticks in her hands and said with great devotion, "Buddha, who saves people from suffering, thank you for blessing us three miserable sisters, so that we can live in such a nice villa in this life, and live a good life that we never dared to dream of before, don't worry, we will work hard to earn money in the future, and never be lazy. In addition, disciple Gena also asks you to bless us with a better and better life!"

On either side of her, behind her, were Samantha and Yadira respectively. The two of them followed suit at this point, holding up three incense sticks and opening their mouths, "Buddha who saves suffering and distress, please bless us!"

After that, the three of them kowtowed three times to Buddha.

After kowtowing, Gena stood up and took the lead in inserting the three incense sticks into the incense burner, and after the other two sisters had also inserted the incense, she said with satisfaction, "Let's go sisters, it's time for New Year's Eve dinner!"

They both said in unison, "All right!"

When the three of them went to eat, Wendy and Lady Wilson, had been hiding around the corner of the stairs to watch.

They were smelling the aroma of rice, so they couldn't help but come down to take a look.

Although the Lady had always wanted to save the leftovers she got back yesterday for the New Year's Eve dinner, just after dark, the four of them ate all the leftovers because they couldn't bear the hunger and shared them.

There wasn't much left over, and each person wasn't even half full, so all four of them were still starving.

Seeing these three women cooking a table of home-cooked food, Lady Wilson and Wendy were drooling with hunger.

Seeing the three of them start to eat, Wendy asked the Lady in a low voice, "Grandmother, do you think they will leave a little leftover food or something?"

Lady Wilson shook her head while swallowing her saliva, "I don't know ah, I hope so..."

Wendy said in aggravation, "It would be nice if I could leave two pieces of ribs and a bowl of rice, I'm afraid they won't have anything left..."

After saying that, tears were already rolling down her face. Lady Wilson stared at the incense burner in front of Guanyin Bodhisattva and said seriously, "Don't worry, Wendy, have you seen that incense burner? It's filled with rice! At night, when they go back to their rooms to rest, we'll use the rice from there to make porridge!"

At this time, Charlie Wade's family was in the living room, eating the New Year's Eve dinner while watching the Spring Festival Gala, and the family was having a good time.

It was also rare that Jacob Wilson and Elaine Ma, two old couples who didn't like each other, didn't dislike each other and pinch each other. Jacob Wilson drank some white wine with Charlie Wade, which made Jacob Wilson happy.

Claire Wilson Wilson originally wanted to have some red wine with Elaine Ma, but Elaine Ma snatched the red wine away from her hand and poured it for herself while saying very seriously to Claire Wilson Wilson, "Claire Wilson Wilson, women preparing for pregnancy can't drink alcohol, it's not good for the child!"

After saying that, he smiled at Charlie Wade and said, "Good son-in-law, you also drink less, too much wine will affect the quality of a man's tadpoles! Following this affects the quality of the child!"

Claire Wilson Wilson's entire body was suddenly embarrassed and shy and angry as she said, "Mom... Why are you talking more and more without a handle!"

Elaine Ma seriously said, "I'm teaching you about health care, and this is all from those childcare experts and genetics experts on TV!"

Claire Wilson Wilson was helpless: "Then you don't say it so bluntly! At least be tactful about it!"

Elaine Ma was a little aggrieved, "Didn't I use tadpoles as a substitute for all of them? Isn't that tactful enough?"

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the first few days of your life, and you'll see that it's not just a matter of time before you're ready to take the plunge. My daughter, in the whole country, is one of the top few in terms of quality! Totally inherited my good genes!" Elaine Ma spat and said, "You need some face too! Claire Wilson Wilson, did you inherit your good genes? What good genes do you have? The first time I was able to grow up so beautiful, it's all thanks to my natural beauty!"

"Fart your ass!" Jacob Wilson left his mouth, "With that gene of yours, no one would even pick it up if you threw it down the drain, and it's still excellent? Excellent my ass!"

Elaine Ma slammed her chopsticks and shouted angrily, "What are you doing, Jacob Wilson? I don't want to argue with you on New Year's Eve, so don't be too proud of yourself!"

Jacob Wilson shrank his neck and said somewhat nervously, "Oh my, I'm not imparting experience to my son-in-law, this is a topic between men, so don't get involved."

After saying that, he patted Charlie Wade's shoulder and instructed, "Charlie Wade, you ah, listen to dad, don't think about anything, don't prepare anything, have nothing to do, drink some wine and have fun, then this thing will be done without a doubt!"

Claire Wilson Wilson's face turned red with shame when she heard this, immediately put down her chopsticks and said, "If you guys keep talking about such inappropriate topics, then I'm going back to my room to watch TV."

"Oh no don't don't!" Jacob Wilson hurriedly beckoned, "Can't Dad stop chatting? Tonight is the first time the four of us are spending New Year's Eve alone, and we're staying in such a nice big villa, and we don't have to be squeezed by your grandmother, so we have to make this year complete!"

Elaine Ma, who rarely agreed with Jacob Wilson's viewpoint, said cheerfully, "Yes! We're saying we'll keep the year until twelve this year!"

Claire Wilson Wilson said, "Keeping the year is fine, but you guys should stop talking nonsense..."

"Fine, fine!" Elaine Ma laughed, "I know you're thin-skinned, so I can't stop talking about it."

Jacob Wilson also hurriedly changed the subject and said to Charlie Wade, "Come, good son-in-law, drink!"

Charlie Wade nodded and clinked his wine glass with Jacob Wilson.

Just after finishing the drink, his phone received two WeChats.

Opening it up, the one who sent the WeChat was, surprisingly, Nanako Ito who was far away in Japan.

First, she sent a photo of the courtyard of her old house in Kyoto, which was filled with snow again.

Then, there was a text from her: "Charlie Wade, today is the traditional New Year's Eve night in your country, and I want to wish you a happy new year! Also wanted to share some good news with you: tonight, it's snowing again in Kyoto..."

Charlie Wade looked at that photo, his thoughts inevitably returned to that snowy night in Kyoto many days ago.

It was under that heavy snow that he had saved Nanako, and also happening to save Fitz and Zara.

Thinking of that, he sighed in his heart and replied to Nanako, "Thank you, and happy new year to you as well!"

Charlie Wade didn't make any response about what Nanako said about it snowing in Kyoto.

He knew that he shouldn't have too much emotional communication with Nanako.

In the beginning, he was trying to heal her because he felt that she shouldn't be trapped by the harm that Aurora brought to her all her life.

Now that she was healed and he had saved her life, it was reasonable to say that it had been completely cleared up.

If there was too much more involved, there would only be complications. Charlie Wade himself was also aware that those women who liked him, he might not be able to give them much of an explanation, and the same was true for Nanako.

So, it was better to keep some distance appropriately, and it was also considered to be responsible for her people.

Nanako was truly a gifted girl, and she was able to see Charlie Wade's inner thoughts from Charlie Wade's reply.

So, she replied to Charlie Wade, "Charlie Wade must be spending the festive season with his family right now, so I won't bother you! Once again, happy holidays to you!"

After returning this message, her heart was very sad.

She knew that today was a traditional Chinese festival and it was the most important festival of the year, that's why she sent WeChat to Charlie Wade to wish him well.

At the same time, coincidentally, she happened to accompany her father to the capital to recuperate in the past two days, and it just so happened that a heavy snow fell in Kyoto tonight, so she immediately thought of the night when Charlie Wade descended like a divine soldier.

Thinking about that night, she missed Charlie Wade more and more.

So, she also took the opportunity of the New Year's blessing to share the heavy snowfall in Kyoto with him.

But what she didn't expect was that he didn't even respond with half a word.

Although she was lost in her heart, but Nanako could still understand, she knew that Charlie Wade was a married man, even if she liked Charlie Wade, Charlie Wade still had to keep a certain distance from her.

So, she put away her phone and sat alone on the wooden steps at the side of the courtyard, looking out at the snow that was falling.

Ito Yuhiko, who had his legs amputated, was now controlling the electric wheelchair, slowly approaching.

The sound of the wheelchair didn't even disturb Nanako.

Simply because, at this time, all the attention in her head was not above everything in front of and around her, but on the distant memory.

Ito Yuuhiko sighed as he saw his daughter looking out at the snow.

How could he not understand his own daughter?

Ito Yuuhiko had already seen that his daughter was devoted to and had been thinking of Charlie Wade, and seeing her like this made him feel a little sad.

So, he coughed and spoke up to call out, "Nanako."

It was only then that Nanako came back to her senses and said with some embarrassment, "Father, why did you come out?"

Ito Yuuhiko smiled slightly and said, "I saw that you didn't go in for half a day, so I came out to see you."

Nanako Ito hurriedly said, "Then let's go back, it's quite cold outside, so don't freeze you."

"Never mind." Ito Yuhiko said with a smile, "Nanako, there are some things that cannot be forced or rushed, you have to take things in stride."

Nanako scrambled to cover up, "Dad, what are you talking about, why can't I understand..."

Ito Yuhiko smiled, "Charlie Wade Wade is a good man, and also very capable in a rare way, a man like this is worth waiting a few more years for you."

Nanako blushed red.

Chapter 2032

However, she didn't immediately deny it, nor did she run away on the spot, but instead placed her hands in front of her body and bowed deeply, "Father, I know!"

Ito Yuhiko smiled happily and said, "I'm getting old, I can't feel the cold air when it's blowing a little, I'm going home to rest, you should go to bed early too."

Nanako was busy saying, "Father, I'll see you off."

Ito Yuhiko waved his hand, "No need, if you like to meditate, you can meditate some more."

Saying that, he took control of the electric wheelchair, spun halfway around in place, and went back to his room.

Nanako watched her father's back disappear at the end of the corridor, feeling her face still burn with heat, so she gently covered her hands over the thick snow, followed by covering her face with her hands.

The cold hands brought down the temperature of her cheeks quite a bit, and allowed Nanako's heart to grow calm.

A moment later, she stretched out her hand again and used her fingers to write Charlie Wade's name in the snow.

After that, she held her chin with both hands and watched the snowflakes fall on those words one by one, until they became more and more blurred and finally disappeared.

It was only at this moment that she slowly stood up and returned to her room.

Meanwhile.

Osaka, Japan, which was only a few dozen kilometers away from Kyoto.

A one-armed woman, led by a few Japanese self-defense soldiers, arrived at the self-defense garrison in Osaka.

This one-armed woman, whose surname was Elms, was the first daughter of the four great ancient martial arts families in China.

She was Xion Banks' biological mother, Kairi.

Since the time difference in Japan was an hour faster than at home, it was already ten o'clock at night in Osaka at this moment.

Kairi was led by a soldier and passed through a stringent security check before finally entering the Self-Defense Force garrison.

The soldier then led her down from a building in a high speed elevator.

The high-speed elevator stopped at a depth of fifty meters underground.

This was the Osaka Self-Defense Force's triple defense underground base.

The civilian term for triple-proofing is waterproof, dustproof, and fall-proof.

The military triple defense, on the other hand, refers to protection against nuclear weapons, biological and chemical weapons, and chemical weapons.

So, this triple defense base is the most heavily defended area in Osaka by the SDF.

Now, this triple defense base is used for other purposes, including Xion, more than fifty experts of the Banks Family are all detained here, it is heavily guarded and can effectively prevent them from escaping from prison.

After Kairi was brought in, she was placed directly into an airtight room.

The iron door of this room was twenty centimeters thick, and it was much stronger than a bank vault.

After she sat down in the room, a Japanese soldier reminded her in a low voice, "The people will be here in a moment, you only have five minutes." Kairi nodded hurriedly and said seriously, "Thank you!"

Without another word, the soldier turned around and left the room, and a minute later, a young woman with metal shackles on her hands and feet walked in, led by two soldiers.

This young woman looked somewhat gloomy and her eyes were full of coldness.

However, after she entered the room, her cold and steely eyes immediately stared up in surprise, followed by two hot tears rolling down her face.

She looked at Kairi who was also crying silently before her eyes and choked out, "Mom..."

Kairi quickly took two steps and held her in her arms with one hand, gently stroking the back of her head as he said with immense love and affection, "Xion, you've suffered..."

Chapter 2033

Xion hugged Kairi's waist tightly and asked excitedly, "Mom, what are you doing here! How did you get in here?!"

When Kairi saw that a few Japanese soldiers had already retreated, he spoke up, "Xion, it was your father who sent me."

"Dad?" Xion hurriedly asked, "How is dad now? Has he returned home? Not in any danger, are you?"

Kairi shook her head and said softly, "Don't worry, your dad is fine, he has returned to Eastcliff safely before."

Only then did Xion let out a sigh of relief and murmured, "It's good that Dad is fine..."

Kairi said, "Xion, your father originally wanted to come to Japan to get you out personally, but he is now the subject of strict surveillance by the Japanese national security, so it's inconvenient for him to come to Japan again in a short time, so he let me come over to meet you."

Xion was very confused and asked, "Mom, how did you get in here when the Self-Defense Force locked me up so tightly? Why did they let you in?"

Kairi said, "The Japanese authorities have really reached the highest level of control over you, and your father has made inquiries, and they would love to sentence you and several of the main criminals to death, and your father has spent a lot of money and made good connections in the upper echelons of the Japanese Self-Defense Force in order to save you!"

"Get me out of here?!" Xion exclaimed in shock and asked, "This... How is this possible? The Japanese Self-Defense Force is guarding me very closely right now, and there are tens of thousands of SDF soldiers on this ground, so how can they get me out of here..."

Kairi explained, "Although you are now in the custody of the Japanese Self-Defense Force, but the Self-Defense Force cannot represent the Japanese judiciary after all, so you still have to be tried in a Japanese court, and according to Japanese law, you are to be taken back to the court where the crime happened to be tried."

Xion was busy asking, "So that means we'll be escorted to Tokyo to be tried?"

"Right!" Kairi nodded and said, "At that time, the Japanese Self-Defense Force will use their military transport planes to send you back to Tokyo, and once you arrive in Tokyo, you will be escorted by the Tokyo Police Department's special operations team instead, and at that time, your father will arrange a double in Tokyo to swap you out with the help of a high-ranking member of the Japanese Police Department. "

Xion was dumbfounded, and only after a long while did she ask, "Mom, will it be okay to change me out so openly?"

Kairi took her hand and said earnestly, "Don't worry about this, your father has already made arrangements to buy you twelve hours before the double is revealed, and then your father will arrange for you to leave Japan by boat from Tokyo Harbor."

Saying that, Kairi held Xion's hand tightly and said with emotion, "Xion, your father has thrown down nearly a billion to save you this time to ease the relationship between the Japanese Self-Defense Force and the Tokyo Police Department, if you can return home safely this time, you must repay your father in the future!"

Xion's eyes were red and shedding tears as she nodded her head and choked, "Mom, don't worry, I'll repay dad properly!"

Kairi nodded and said, "Also, after you return to China this time, the Japanese side will definitely do everything they can to catch you again, if they know that you've returned, they will also definitely file an application with our country and extradite you back to Japan for trial, so after you go back, you will have to live under a different name, the name Xion Banks, you won't be able to use it anymore in the future. " Xion hurriedly asked, "Mom, if I can't be called Xion Banks anymore, what should I call myself?"

Kairi said, "Your father said that you can name yourself anything you want, and he'll take care of the relevant household registration information for you."

Xion was suddenly delighted, and was just about to speak when Kairi added, "Xion, your father said that you can still be surnamed Elms, or you can call yourself any name other than Xion Banks, the only thing you can't do is to use the Banks Family's name."

Xion's expression, which was somewhat happy just now, instantly turned bitter, as she looked at Kairi and asked, "Mom, Dad he still doesn't want others to know my identity, right?"

Kairi's expression was ashamed as she said, "Xion, you are after all your father's illegitimate daughter, and not many people know about this, the entire Banks Family except your father, only your grandfather knows about it, your father and his lover are very close, if she knew that your father still has such an illegitimate daughter like you, she would definitely break up with your father completely... "

Xion choked, "Mom, can't I tell people for the rest of my life that Zayne is my father, righteously? Do I have to spend my whole life on the outside, being a girl who grew up without a father?"

Kairi's eyes reddened as she lamented, "Xion, the reason your father had that affair with me back then was entirely my own request, he didn't even know you existed for many years before that, so you can't blame him for not wanting to disclose your identity!"

"And what's more, your father paid a very high price to save you this time, and even if he can't publicly claim you as her daughter, deep down he loves you very much! You can't blame him no matter what, understand?"

When Xion heard this, she sighed lightly, nodded slightly and said seriously, "Mom, I know, don't worry, I'll never mention this matter again, not to mention blaming dad in my heart!"

Kairi squeezed Xion's hand hard and said seriously, "In a few days, you'll be escorted to Tokyo, and someone will contact you then to swap you out and send you to the docks, where Mom will be waiting for you in China!"

Xion hurriedly asked, "Mom, won't you wait for me in Tokyo?"

Kairi shook his head and said, "Your father said that once you succeeded in escaping, the Japanese will definitely check everyone who entered the country recently, and when that happens, if they find out that I came from China, and that I came to Osaka and went to Tokyo before the incident, it will be like I gave a complete lead to the Japanese Homeland Security for nothing, so he told me to return from Osaka immediately after meeting you. So as not to leave clues behind, as for Tokyo, he'll arrange for someone else to meet you."

Xion nodded and said, "Okay mom, I got it! You are at ease in China waiting for me to return!"

At that moment, someone pushed open the door and spoke, "It's about time!"

Kairi reluctantly looked at Xion and instructed, "Xion, take care of yourself these few days, mom will be leaving first!"

Xion nodded gently with tears streaming down her face, "Mom, take care of yourself, and also say thank you to Dad for me..."

Kairi patted her arm and whispered, "Nothing has a 100% success rate, but you must promise Mom to come back alive!"

Chapter 2035

Xion looked at Kairi and nodded heavily, choking with tears in her eyes, "Mom, don't worry, I'll go back to see you alive!"

Kairi touched her face with her one arm and said with love and affection, "After you go back this time, don't go back to the Banks Family for a while, stay with mom at grandma's house for a while, and then go back when you're over this storm."

Xion gave a hmmm and said, "Mom, take care of yourself."

Kairi instructed in a low voice, "The matter of saving you from going out, don't reveal it to anyone who was caught with you, because only you can leave this time, if they know about it, in case they are upset, I'm afraid it will bring trouble."

Xion sighed softly, "Okay mom, I know..."

Kairi nodded her head, which was why she reluctantly left.

As for Xion, she was also brought back to the cell where she was being held by the soldiers.

However, at this time, Xion's heart was filled with gratitude for Zayne. Even though she was just an illegitimate daughter and her father, Zayne, couldn't recognize her identity, but Zayne was willing to pay such a great price to rescue her, which was indeed far beyond Xion's expectations of Zayne, and also moved her deep inside.

Originally, she had been ready to be sentenced to death, and after meeting her mother, Kairi, she had rekindled her hope for the future.

Eastcliff time, ten o'clock at night.

The Charlie Wade Wade family in front of the television was watching the Spring Festival Gala on TV.

Claire Wilson Wilson appeared to be a bit agitated and said to Charlie Wade, "The program list published on the internet says that Stefanie's solo will be at the prime time of 10:10, so it should be almost there!"

Charlie Wade nodded his head, and he couldn't help but feel some anticipation.

Although he knew that Stefanie was a big star, he hadn't really seen many of the movies and TV dramas that Stefanie was in, nor had he heard many of the songs that she sang.

This mainly had to do with Charlie Wade's personality as well, he didn't have any need for entertainment, so naturally he didn't care about the entertainment industry.

However, he naturally cared a bit more about Stefanie, after all, this was his childhood friend that he had grown up with, and the fiancée that his parents had set for him back then.

So, he and Claire Wilson Wilson warped together in front of the TV, looking forward to Stefanie's appearance.

The timing of the Spring Festival Gala was almost unmistakable, and at 10:10, the host said with a smile, "It is said that the taste of first love is the most beautiful feeling in life, and next, Miss Sun Stefanie, a triple star of film, television and song, will bring us her brand new single "First Love"."

Then, Stefanie, wearing an elegant evening gown, stepped onto the splendid stage.

Claire Wilson Wilson was thrilled and said, "Wow! Stefanie's outfit is really beautiful!"

Charlie Wade couldn't help but nod his head repeatedly in agreement as well.

Stefanie on the TV, who deliberately had her long hair gently coiled behind her head, was a bit more demure and flirtatious than before. Elaine Ma looked at Stefanie and couldn't help but exclaim, "Oh my, this girl is indeed pretty! So much prettier than all those actresses!" After saying that, he said with some regret, "Actually, with Claire Wilson Wilson's looks, she can also enter the entertainment circle and become a big star, even compared to this Stefanie, Claire Wilson Wilson is not inferior at all."

Claire Wilson Wilson laughed, "Mom, you're also too much to hold me up, how can I be a star, I want acting skills without acting skills, I want voice without voice."

Chapter 2036

Elaine Ma seriously said, "What's the point? You don't even need acting skills or a voice to be a star these days, just being pretty is enough! Look at the big stars, they can make albums even if they can't speak well, and act in movies even if they can't speak well. Not a good-looking one yet!"

Claire Wilson Wilson shook her head helplessly, "Mom, stop it for now, let me finish the show properly..."

Elaine Ma also didn't forget to add another sentence, "Claire Wilson Wilson, what mom said was true, I think you're really fine..."

At this time, Stefanie had already started to sing.

The moment she opened her voice, Elaine Ma couldn't help but cry out in shock, "Oops! That girl has a great voice!"

Stefanie hurriedly waved her hand, "Mom you don't say anything yet!"

Charlie Wade was also somewhat surprised by Stefanie's voice, although it seemed like she was just an idol star, but as soon as she opened her voice, she showed a very good singing skills, definitely professional level.

The song was melodious and refreshing, similar to the song "Legend" sung by the Diva back then.

Charlie Wade couldn't help but immerse himself in it.

Five minutes later, after Stefanie sang a song, Charlie Wade was still immersed in the wonderful atmosphere created by her singing.

Stefanie's eyes were even redder as she listened, unconsciously applauding and lamenting, "Stefanie's singing is really great! This song is especially touching!"

Saying that, she then said to Charlie Wade, "Hubby, Stefanie is coming to Arouss Hilll for a concert in a while, will you go with me to see it?"

When Charlie Wade heard this, he was embarrassed.

Stefanie did invite him to see her concert, but if he went with Claire Wilson Wilson, this matter always felt a little bit off.

In his heart, he inevitably sighed, "Although I didn't want to divorce Claire Wilson Wilson and honor the marriage contract my parents made for me and Inan back then, I can't bear to take Claire Wilson Wilson to see Daisy's concert, which is somewhat unfair to Daisy..."

Just when Charlie Wade hesitated, Claire Wilson Wilson couldn't help but say coquettishly, "Hubby, just go with me to see it once, whether it's good or not, please..."

After saying that, she added, "I'll go to grab the tickets then, if you can't grab them, then go to a scalper to buy them, you don't have to care about anything, you'll be out of the person then!"

When Charlie Wade heard this, he knew that Claire Wilson Wilson's determination to go to see Stefanie's concert must be very big, even if he didn't promise, she herself would still go.

Moreover, he had also promised to go to Stefanie's concert, so he definitely couldn't break his promise when the time came.

Rather than that, he could only promise to go.

So, he then said to Claire Wilson Wilson, "Wife, don't worry, I will definitely accompany you then."

Saying that, he also said, "Oh right, you don't have to worry about grabbing the tickets, I also went to see the feng shui for Miss Sun's family last time, Miss Sun should more or less give face, and it shouldn't be a problem to ask her for two front row tickets at that time."

Claire Wilson Wilson asked in surprise, "Honey, are you telling the truth?! Can you get a front row ticket from Miss Sun? The front row tickets for Miss Sun's concerts are very sought-after, and are generally not released to the public at all, with scalps selling them for several times or even dozens of times the price, and once in Eastcliff, the tickets for the first row were flipped to 100,000 a piece, the same level as the year's White Diva!"

Charlie Wade smiled, "Miss Sun is still a very generous person, I'm sure she will give this face."

Claire Wilson Wilson was thrilled and said, "That's really great! Thanks to my husband for being so supportive of my star-struck career!"

Charlie Wade couldn't help but sigh in his heart, just at this time, his phone received a WeChat, Stefanie sent a text message, "Charlie Wade, did you watch my show on TV?"

Chapter 2037

The Spring Festival Gala was broadcast live in real time to 1.4 billion viewers across the country, so Charlie Wade's family had just finished watching Stefanie's show in front of the TV, and Stefanie had just finished her performance and arrived backstage.

At this time, she was unable to change her clothes, so she quickly sent a WeChat to Charlie Wade first.

What she was most concerned about was Charlie Wade's opinion of her performance.

Originally, the Spring Festival Gala director team wanted her to perform another one of her famous songs, a song about friendship.

Stefanie had also already promised the director team that she would sing that song, but after meeting Charlie Wade again, she had the idea of changing her song.

So, she negotiated with the director team and expressed her desire to change the song.

At first, the Spring Festival Gala director team was very reluctant. This was mainly because the Spring Festival Gala performances were always very meticulous and prudent, and such things as changing songs temporarily almost never happened.

However, Stefanie has been trying her best, and finally the program team saw that she really wanted to sing today's song, so they had to make a compromise.

The reason why Stefanie chose to sing this song called "First Love" today was also because she wanted to sing Charlie Wade to hear it.

There was a line in this song, which she had written specifically for Charlie Wade, and that line was: from the first time I saw you, you were deeply burned into my heart, I crossed the sea of people and travelled thousands of miles to find you, just to tell you that this life, I will never leave you again.

It was for Charlie Wade and where can't he feel the sentiment in Stefanie's song.

But he could only pretend that he didn't know, and message back to Stefanie: "I watched your performance and it was great! It was very well sung!"

Stefanie rejoiced and sent a message, "Charlie Wade, this song... It was written for you..."

Charlie Wade was surprised and asked, "This song, you wrote it yourself?"

"Yes." Stefanie said, "I'm the songwriter, so it's okay, right?"

Charlie Wade gave her a thumbs-up emoji back and exclaimed, "I never thought that not only are you a good singer, but you can even write your own songs, that's amazing!"

Stefanie sent a playful expression of tongue out and said, "When I was young, I learned to play the piano with my mother, then I was fine and hummed while playing the piano myself, and slowly tried to write a few songs, and after publishing them, I felt the response was pretty good, so I wrote quite a few more in succession."

Charlie Wade praised heartily, "It's really great! Unbeatable!"

Stefanie was satisfied and said, "Charlie Wade, I wrote this song specifically for you a few years ago, I hadn't found you yet at that time, so the lyrics were a different version, after I found you, I made some adjustments to the lyrics again, that's why I have this version now."

Charlie Wade's heart was touched and replied to her: "Thank you Daisy, thank you for always remembering me, and thank you for doing so much for me for so many years."

Stefanie sent a shy expression and said, "These are all due, who let me be your child bride since I was a child..."

Charlie Wade was at once speechless.

The finger-licking since childhood, it wasn't an exaggeration to say that she was a child bride.

At this time, Stefanie sent another message, "Charlie Wade, I won't talk to you for now, my parents are still waiting for me to go back home for New Year's Eve dinner and then keep the New Year together, I have to leave now."

Charlie Wade knew that every actor who participated in the Spring Festival Gala was not easy, they all participated in the performance on the day of New Year's Eve, if they were local actors in Eastcliff, they were relatively okay, after the performance here, they got off the stage and immediately changed their clothes and rushed back home to accompany their families for the festival.

Some of the foreign actors are more sentimental, and can only spend the holiday alone in a different place in order to attend the Spring Festival Gala.

Chapter 2038

The good thing was that Stefanie's house was in Eastcliff, and the time period of her performance was very good, so if you rush back now, it's not yet New Year's Eve, and you can still keep the New Year with your family until midnight.

So Charlie Wade replied to her, "Then go back to your aunt and uncle, help me give them and you a happy New Year!"

Stefanie also replied, "Thank you, Charlie Wade, and Happy New Year to you too!"

Afterwards, Charlie Wade put his phone away and concentrated on accompanying his wife Claire Wilson Wilson to continue watching the Spring Festival Gala.

When it was almost twelve o'clock, Jacob Wilson said with some emotion, "Hey, although the firecracker ban is now environmentally friendly, it's also true that the New Year is a bit less, unfortunately, ah unfortunately..."

"Yeah." Claire Wilson Wilson, who was on the side, also sighed, "When I was small, I especially liked the smell of fireworks from firecrackers blowing up, but now I rarely have the chance to see it."

Charlie Wade said, "Although firecrackers aren't allowed in the city, it's still possible in the suburbs, do you want to go to the suburbs and set off firecrackers to celebrate?"

Claire Wilson Wilson's eyes lit up, then dimmed again and shook his head, "Let's forget about it, everyone is at home for the Spring Festival at this point, where are we going to find firecrackers..."

Charlie Wade thought about it and sent a message to Cameron Isaac, asking him, "Isaac, does your Shangri-La have some fireworks in stock?"

Cameron Isaac immediately replied, "Yes young master, you need?"

"Right." Charlie Wade said, "My wife wants to go to the suburbs to set off firecrackers."

Cameron Isaac was busy, "Then I'll send it over for you."

"No need." Charlie Wade said, "Have a good holiday, don't delay your reunion with your family because of me."

Saying that, Charlie Wade asked him again, "Shangri-La has someone on duty tonight, right?"

"Some young master." Cameron Isaac said, "Shangri-La is open twenty-four hours a day all year round, and there is always someone on duty."

Charlie Wade then said, "Good, then you say hello to the person on duty and I'll drive over to pick it up."

Cameron Isaac was very touched by this approach of Charlie Wade, and he even said, "Young Master, why don't I ask the people on duty to send it to you, they get triple pay for being on duty anyway."

Charlie Wade replied him, "Or not, it's New Year's Eve, I don't want to toss others, it's not appropriate, I'll drive over myself, there's definitely no traffic jam at this time, there's ten minutes to get there."

Cameron Isaac had no choice but to say, "Alright then young master, I'll say hello to the people below, you can go over and pick it up at any time."

After confirming with Cameron Isaac, Charlie Wade said to Claire Wilson Wilson, "Wife, I'm going out for a trip, I'll be back soon."

Claire Wilson Wilson was busy pulling his hand and seriously said, "Honey, don't go out and toss, just stay at home and watch TV, it doesn't matter if you let off fireworks or not."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly, spoiled and said, "It's fine, you wait at home, I will be right back."

After saying that, he got up and took Claire Wilson Wilson's car keys and stepped out of the house.

Claire Wilson Wilson also wanted to stop him, but seeing that he was walking very fast and was already out the door in the blink of an eye, she could only sigh helplessly and instructed him, "You drive slowly, be sure not to rush!"

Charlie Wade's voice came from outside the door, "Okay wife, I got it!" Seeing Charlie Wade leave, Elaine Ma couldn't help but sigh, "Claire Wilson Wilson ah, Mom say something from the bottom of her heart, Charlie Wade is really good to you..."

Saying that, Elaine Ma lamented again, "Before, Mom always thought that Charlie Wade was no good, not worthy of you, you should find a rich family's young master to marry to be considered a good marriage... But Mom didn't understand until now, the most important thing about marriage is actually the emotional foundation, money or not, it's not that important, what's important is that he has to treat you as a treasure, so you can live happily..."

Chapter 2039

Charlie Wade drove straight to Shangri-La, and the men arranged by Cameron Isaac were already waiting at the gate pushing a trolley.

Seeing Charlie Wade arrive, he hurriedly pushed the cart up and said respectfully, "Mr. Wade, Mr. Cameron asked me to prepare some fireworks for you, do you want me to help you carry them in the car?"

Charlie Wade nodded, opened the trunk and said, "Thank you for your hard work."

The other party hurriedly waved his hand and said, "Mr. Wade you're very kind, this is all I should do."

Saying that, he loaded several large boxes of fireworks into the trunk of the BMW.

Charlie Wade said thank you and drove back to the villa, at the same time called Claire Wilson Wilson, asked her and her in-laws to prepare, later directly get into the car, to find a place where fireworks can be set off to find the atmosphere of the New Year.

Claire Wilson Wilson was very happy, and changed into a thick down jacket with her parents, and came early to wait outside the gate of Thompson First.

As soon as Charlie Wade's car arrived, the three members of the family got into the car.

Claire Wilson Wilson asked Charlie Wade, "Honey, where are we going to set off firecrackers?"

Charlie Wade smiled, "As long as it's not within the city limits, it's all right ah, you can think about where to go."

Jacob Wilson suggested at this time, "Why don't we go to the river! The view of the river is also good, and after the fireworks go up, they can still reflect on the river, which is even more meaningful!"

Claire Wilson Wilson smiled, "Dad that's a good idea! Then let's go to the river!"

Jacob Wilson was busy saying, "I know a nice place with a large riverbank!"

As Charlie Wade listened to his wife and father-in-law talk about the river, he suddenly remembered Jasmine from the Moore family.

Previously, when Jasmine was taking him home, she passed by the Yangtze River and suggested that he accompany her for a stroll by the river.

He didn't think much of it and happily agreed.

What he didn't expect was that after taking a stroll by the river and returning, Jasmine dropped him at the gate of the villa of Thompson First and then took the initiative to kiss him in the car.

That scene was still stuck in the depths of Charlie Wade's memory, and sometimes when he thought of it, he would feel a different kind of warmth.

Charlie Wade was imagining things while driving the car all the way to the Yangtze River under the command of Jacob Wilson.

What he didn't expect was that his father-in-law was leading the way to this shoal, but it was the same place that Jasmine had brought herself to in the first place.

Since it was New Year's Eve, there wasn't anyone around.

After Charlie Wade parked the car. Together with his father-in-law, he carried several boxes of fireworks and arrived under the riverbank.

On a concrete poured riverbank, Charlie Wade placed the fireworks at regular intervals.

On the other side, Jacob Wilson had been unable to resist the urge to set off two firecrackers in a row.

The festive sound of firecrackers echoed along the river, instantly making people experience the feeling of New Year.

When the firecrackers burned out, Charlie Wade said to Claire Wilson Wilson, "Claire Wilson Wilson, I'm going to prepare for the fireworks!"

Claire Wilson Wilson immediately pulled out her phone and said excitedly, "Honey wait a moment, I'll turn on the video shoot first!"

"Yes!"

After taking Claire Wilson Wilson's cell phone out and turning on the camera function, Charlie Wade then lit the fuse of the fireworks.

The colorful fireworks soared into the sky and exploded on the river surface, the wide river surface reflected the beautiful colors of the fireworks bursting out of the sky, Claire Wilson Wilson was already dancing happily on the side.

After one set of fireworks had burned out, Charlie Wade immediately set off a second set, followed by a third and fourth set.

Until all the fireworks had burned out, Claire Wilson Wilson's cheeks had turned red with excitement!

It had been a long time since she had had such a feeling, to set off fireworks on New Year's Eve to her heart's content, so she was as excited as a child.

Jacob Wilson and Elaine Ma were also very happy, this time the Lunar New Year, for this family of four, it was already very meaningful.

And this New Year's Eve, having such a perfect night, made them experience an unprecedented sense of happiness.

Twenty-four o'clock on New Year's Eve.

It was also the zero hour of the first day of the new year.

Charlie Wade set off the last set of fireworks, and Jacob Wilson also lit the last firecracker.

Claire Wilson placed her hands over her mouth and shouted, "Happy New Year, husband, parents!"

Chapter 2040

Elaine Ma, on crutches, also shouted excitedly, "Happy New Year!"

Jacob Wilson looked up at the fireworks, the splendid brilliance reflected on his face, and that face that already had many wrinkles was filled with happiness.

At this moment, Jacob Wilson's heart inevitably thought of Matilda.

This was also the first Spring Festival that Matilda had celebrated after she had returned to the country after more than twenty years.

Jacob Wilson quietly pulled out his cell phone and sent a WeChat to Matilda, which only had four words, "Matilda, Happy New Year!"

Charlie Wade's phone was now bombarded with a series of tweets from WeChat.

Many people were sending him New Year's wishes at this moment, and he didn't have the energy to reply to them all, so he sent a text to his friends: "Happy New Year to all my family and friends!"

This night, the entire Aurouss Hilll was lit up with thousands of lights. Charlie Wade's family of four even played at the river until one in the morning before driving back.

The huge majority of people were immersed in the unique happiness of the New Year, and only the Lady Wilson's family was still fighting an uphill battle against hunger.

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the newest and oldest TV set that you can find.

However, for Gena and the three of them, this old, worn-out TV, let them watch the entire Spring Festival Gala in its entirety, bringing them a great sense of satisfaction and happiness.

As they watched the TV, they ate all the New Year's Eve dinner they had prepared, leaving not even a mouthful of vegetable soup behind in the end.

After the three of them finished eating in the living room, they didn't forget to carry the TV back to Gena's room.

In order to prevent Lady Wilson's family, from taking any advantage of them.

Lady Wilson and Wendy had been thinking about the bit of rice in the incense burner, so they stayed hungry until one o'clock before they finally put Gena and the three of them to sleep.

After they were asleep, they started to prepare the porridge.

The rice in the incense burner didn't sell very well because a lot of ashes had fallen off, but Old Lady Wilson and Wendy, who were so hungry that their chests were stuck to their backs, couldn't care less about that.

They did not say a word, and brought the incense burner into the kitchen very quickly, then poured out the rice and rinsed it, then immediately used the rice to cook porridge.

The rice in the incense burner amounted to more than one catty, and a large pot of porridge was made from it.

Lady Wilson and Wendy each drank a bowl of the rice porridge when it was first cooked.

Then, feeling that it wasn't enough to relieve their hunger, they each drank another bowl.

Feeling that the taste was a bit bland, they stole the salt and soy sauce that Gena and the others had bought and put it into the rice porridge to stir and drink.

Gena tried her best not to leave any obvious opportunity for Mrs. Wilson to take advantage of the situation, but with a thousand calculations, she never thought that Mrs. Wilson would miss the rice in her own incense burner, as well as her own salt and soy sauce.

The next morning.

The first day of the Lunar New Year.

Claire Wilson Wilson was somewhat tired because she had gone out for a round last night, and hadn't gotten up yet.

Charlie Wade had woken up and was alone in the downstairs living room making himself a cup of tea.

With nothing else to do, he brushed his circle of friends, and apart from the circle of friends where everyone congratulated the new year, he also saw a circle of friends posted by Jasmine.

"Departing for Japan today, the cycle is estimated to be one week, during this period of time, please also contact Mr. Rueben Moore for matters related to Aurouss Hilll."

Charlie Wade was inevitably surprised, not expecting Jasmine to leave for Japan on the first day of the New Year.

Meanwhile, next door a04.

The three of them, Gena, woke up early, and even though it was the first day of the new year, they still had to continue going to work at the supermarket to earn money.

The first thing you need to do is to burn another incense to the portrait of the Buddha, so that the Buddha can bless you with a peaceful and smooth new year.

She lit the three incense sticks, made a wish, kowtowed, stood up to insert the three incense sticks into the incense burner, when she suddenly found that the feel seems to be a bit wrong.

Originally, when the incense was inserted into the rice in the incense burner, there would be a distinct damping sensation.

But now, she couldn't find any feeling.

When she fixed her eyes on it, she was furious!

She shouted harshly, "This dead old woman surnamed Wilson! How dare you even steal the rice from my mother's incense burner!?"

Chapter 2041

It was not easy for Lady Wilson to have a full meal and a good night's sleep.

But she didn't expect the door to be kicked open early in the morning by an angry Gena!

Before Mrs. Wilson could react, Gena rushed directly to the bed and smacked her in the face, scolding her angrily, "You dead old woman, you even dared to steal the rice inside the incense burner used by my mother to give incense to the Buddha, are you still a human being you?"

Lady Wilson was dizzy from the slap, and then looking at Gena's face which was near at hand, filled with anger, she was scared out of her wits and begged, "Gena, I'm sorry, Gena! I don't want to steal from you either, but I'm just so hungry..."

Gena was furious and snapped through gritted teeth, "Your hunger is your problem, what does it have to do with me? That incense burner is used by me to give incense to the Buddha, and you're disrespecting the Buddha by stealing the rice in there! In case anger comes down, you're just getting me into trouble!"

Lady Wilson couldn't help but choke up, "Gena... It's the New Year... You can't just stand by and watch me, an old woman, starve to death in this house, can you? If I really starve to death in this house, how do you think you'll ever live here again? Does it make you feel better to lie in your upstairs bedroom every night and just think about me starving to death in this room downstairs from you?"

Saying that, Lady Wilson said in tears, "Gena... Think of it as saving my old life. Didn't the Buddha say? Saving someone's life is better than creating a seven-stage pagoda, and this is considered to be a merit!"

Although Gena's expression had softened a little, she still snapped in a cold voice, "For the sake of the Buddha, I can forgive you for stealing the rice, but you must save yourself and pay a price for your actions!"

Lady Wilson hurriedly asked, "Gena, what price do you want me to pay?"

Gena coldly said, "You honestly give the three of us a day to wash our clothes today, and I'll forget this ever happened!"

As soon as Lady Wilson heard this, she immediately begged, "Gena, I was not feeling well and unable to work at the supermarket yesterday, that's why I stole your rice, I have to go to work today if I say anything, otherwise our family of four will be left without rations again today..."

"That I don't care!" Gena said in exasperation, "Either you wash our clothes, or you give me back the rice you ate from me, and I won't blackmail you, just give me back as much as you ate, just fill the incense burner again!"

Lady Wilson wept, "Gena, all the rice has been cooked in the pot by me, what should I take back to you now? How about this, you let me go to work at the supermarket today, and I'll buy rice back to you right after I get the money from work, okay?"

"No!" Gena did not back down and said, "If you choose to return the rice to me, then give it back now, or else, get the hell out of here and go wash my clothes!"

Saying that, Gena threatened again, "If you don't eat the forfeit wine, then don't blame me for being rude to you!"

Lady Wilson saw Gena's fierce expression and knew that this woman was definitely not joking with herself.

Now that she was alone, how could she be a match for her?

So, Lady Wilson could only nod tearfully and choke out, "Okay... I'll wash... I'm going to wash it..."

On this first day of the Chinese New Year, Lady Wilson's family of four did not drip rice.

The three of them, Gena, threw a pile of dirty clothes as well as bed covers to Lady Wilson, demanding that she must finish washing everything today.

So the Lady had no time at all to go out and earn money.

Wendy, on the other hand, was also completely unable to get away because she had to take care of the injured bedridden Christopher and Harold's father and son.

Chapter 2042

No one is making money, so naturally there is no food to cook, so the family can only starve and tough it out.

Since Christopher and Harold kidnapped Elaine Ma and mistakenly kidnapped Cynthia until now, the four members of the Wilson family have all lost a lot of weight, and their lives are miserable.

As for the family next door, at noon on the first day of the new year, they packed up their things and drove to the hot spring villa that Cameron Isaac had given to Charlie Wade, where the family planned to stay for two days to relax.

On the evening of arriving at the hot spring villa, Cynthia sat in the dilapidated rental house, looking at a take-out dumpling full of boredom. Ever since Charlie Wade had detained her in Aurouss Hillll, Cynthia had been living off take-out.

And hatefully, Charlie Wade didn't allow her to order her own takeaway, all the takeaways were ordered and delivered directly by Don Albertt's henchmen, and the price of each meal basically wouldn't exceed thirty dollars.

These past few days, Cynthia was forced to taste many, popular foods that she had yet to eat in her life.

Such as stewed chicken and rice, such as green pepper and shredded pork over rice, Gongbao chicken over rice, and then Lanzhou ramen noodles, Northeast potato noodles and donkey meat fire and so on.

In the eyes of the Wade family, these commonplace delicacies were simply the trash among the trash, and usually, not to mention having a meal, even taking a sip would be disgusting.

But now, Cynthia, who had once been on top of the world, could only feed on this every day.

Yesterday was New Year's Eve, and couldn't order takeaway, so Don Albertt's people gave her two boxes of instant noodles, a bag of ham sausage, and two halved eggs.

Cynthia was so angry that she had to eat this kind of garbage on New Year's Eve that she lost half of her life, and said that if she couldn't eat dumplings on New Year's Eve, she would commit suicide on the spot. So, Don Albertt's people sent her a dumpling they had wrapped themselves. The dumplings are made of pork and pickled vegetables, and since Don Albertt's younger brother's family is from the Northeast, he loves the dumpling filling.

But Cynthia has been eating all mountain and sea food since she was a child, and the dumplings of the Wade family have never been wrapped with pork.

The most commonly eaten dumplings in the Wade family are mixed with the shrimp meat of the top lobster and the fish meat of the wild yellow fish, then chopped by hand into minced meat, and then supplemented with shark fin and abalone boiled out of the minced meat.

And pickled vegetables were something that Cynthia hadn't even had a bite of since she was a child.

For a lady who grew up in a top family like hers, pickled food like sauerkraut was a taboo they would never touch, and almost any food that needed to be pickled and fermented was equivalent to poison in her eyes. Therefore, she just tasted a bite of this pork and pickled dumpling and immediately threw up, then gargled several times before she finally got rid of the taste of pickled vegetables.

Cynthia angrily opened the door and questioned Don Albertt's little brother, "What kind of bullshit dumplings are these you brought, is this something for fucking people to eat?!"

As soon as the man heard this, he became furious, speaking with a northeastern accent, and scolded, "Why the fuck are you talking, you bitch? My mom wrapped these dumplings herself. I was kind enough to give you some, and you're still talking like that? Isn't it a lack of smoking?!"

Don Albertt's men didn't know the specific details of Cynthia.

He only knew that it was a middle-aged woman that the boss required to be closely guarded, and as for who her last name was, where she came from, and what her background was, this person also knew nothing.

So, when Cynthia was furious because of the dumplings he kindly brought, he boarded up a bit, feeling like he was kindly feeding a vicious dog that barked in a snarling rage.

How could Cynthia have thought that one of Charlie Wade's underlings would speak to her in such a tone of voice, and she was suddenly annoyed. She pointed at the other party's nose and snapped harshly, "Do you know who I am? How dare you talk to me like that?"

The other party gritted his teeth and cursed, "I don't care who you are, you insulted the dumplings my mother wrapped for me, I'll smack you with my big fucking mouth and you won't even get over it!"

I'm not sure if you'll be able to find the best way to get rid of it, but I'm sure you'll be able to find the best way to get rid of it. The leaves are fucking rancid and sour, but your mom still wraps them in dumplings, what's wrong with her? Is the family that poor?"

The other party, a northeastern man of over one meter, was red in the face and said in exasperation, "What the fuck do you know! That's the most commonly eaten sauerkraut in the northeast part of my fucking country! Haven't even seen sauerkraut, are you still fucking human?"

Cynthia said with an arrogant face, "This kind of junk food is something that only poor people like you would eat!"

Saying that, she brought the portion of dumplings over and threw them directly into the other party's face.

Cynthia didn't care about the dumplings that spilled all over the floor, she stared at the strong man in front of her and said coldly, "I don't eat this garbage, so go and prepare a lobster dumpling for me!"

The other party saw his mother's hard-working dumplings being so ridiculed by Cynthia, and even dumped all of them on the ground by her, he became so angry that he couldn't control his anger, and raised his hand and slapped Cynthia.

Cynthia was suddenly smacked and cursed in anger, "You... You dare to hit me! I'll fucking kill you!"

The other party ignored her and said coldly, "Today's meal has been delivered to you, if you haven't eaten enough, you'll have to wait for tomorrow."

Cynthia spoke out of turn, "What did you say?! I ate one of your garbage dumplings and threw up!"

The other party said indifferently, "That has nothing to do with me, I've already delivered the rice anyway, whether you eat it or not is your business."

Cynthia gritted her teeth and said, "I don't eat this dumpling of yours, you order me a McDonald's!"

When the other party heard this, they roared in anger, "You're a fucking disgrace! Northeast sauerkraut is garbage to you, but McDonald's in America is not? What a fucking disgrace to the Chinese, what a load of revered foreign goods!"

Saying that, he directly closed the door and padlocked it from the outside.

Cynthia waited without eating a single bite of food, so she was soon famished.

In the evening, Cynthia couldn't help but call her father, Lord Wade, who was far away in Eastcliff, and complained on the phone, adding her own experiences in Aurouss Hilll to her father's story.

Then, she begged her father bitterly, "Dad, put some pressure on that bastard Charlie Wade and tell him to quickly release me back, I really can't stand it anymore..."

Lord Wade listened and said indifferently: "Okay, I've already told you about this matter before, since you're the one who's not doing things right, then you should honestly stay in Aurouss Hilll for a week."

Cynthia choked, "Dad, I really can't stand it anymore, where is this kind of hell life for a human being! I haven't even had a meal all day today, and if I keep this up, it's going to drive me crazy!"

Chapter 2044

Lord Wade frowned and questioned, "As a daughter of the Wade family, how come you don't have any patience at all? If you can't hold on to this little thing, what else can you do?"

Saying that, Lord Wade reminded, "Right, from now on, you don't want to have any more conflicts with Charlie Wade, let alone endlessly with him because of these things, Charlie Wade has promised to come back for the Ancestor Ceremony on Spring Festival, that's a good start for him to return to the Wade family."

Cynthia angrily questioned, "Dad! Why are you always siding with that bastard Charlie Wade who has no respect for his superiors? He's a poor kid who's been out of the country for years, never been to school, what value does he have to our Wade family? You still let him go back for the Ancestor Ceremony, he won't be able to disgrace our Wade family's first lineage then?"

Lord Wade said coldly, "Charlie Wade is still a member of the Wade family's bloodline if you say so, and he still has the marriage contract of the Sun girl on his body, his potential value to the Wade family is now incomparable to anyone, including you! So don't make any more demon moths, I told you to stay in Aurouss Hilll for seven days and you stay well! A serving of pork and pickled dumplings can find fault, you're really floating out of shape!"

After Lord Wade finished speaking, he simply hung up the phone.

Cynthia on this end of the phone was naturally in tears of frustration.

The more she did, the more she hated Charlie Wade in her heart.

In her opinion, she suffered and suffered, and was even scolded by her father, all because of Charlie Wade.

So, she then vowed in her heart that she would find a chance to make Charlie Wade pay the price!

And this is the perfect opportunity to do so!

Thinking of this, Cynthia muttered a vow in her heart, "Charlie Wade! I, Cynthia, will definitely teach you a painful lesson!"

Thinking of this, she wiped her tears dry, opened the door, and said to that Don Albertt's man with an apologetic face, "This gentleman, I was indeed reckless just now, I apologize to you, and I hope you can forgive me..."

Saying that, she bowed deeply.

When the other party saw this, his mood naturally eased a bit, so he spoke, "Alright, for the sake of your good attitude, this matter is over!"

Cynthia was overjoyed and bowed in thanks before asking, "Sir, could I trouble you to pass on a message to your boss for me?"

.....

At night, Charlie Wade, who was in the spa hotel, received a call from Don Albertt.

On the phone, Don Albertt said to him, "Charlie Wade, your aunt asked me to bring you a message today, she said that she has deeply realized her mistake in the past few days, and wanted me to say sorry to you on her behalf, and hoped that you could forgive her for her immaturity."

Charlie Wade said indifferently, "It's impossible for someone like her to willingly apologize to me, she must have another agenda, right?"

Don Albertt said, "She said that she hopes that you will let her return to Eastcliff in advance for the sake of her good attitude."

Charlie Wade sneered, "No! You tell her to stop dreaming, seven days, not a minute less."

Don Albertt was busy saying, "Okay Charlie Wade, I'll relay this to her."

"Mm." Charlie Wade instructed, "After seven full days, let her leave Aurouss Hilll immediately and never allow her to come back ever again!"

Chapter 2045

The overall experience of living in a spa villa in Champs-Elys is much better than that of Thompson First.

It is located on a scenic mid-level hillside, which not only has an excellent view, but also, more importantly, is very quiet, and the distance between villas is very far, so the privacy is very well done. In addition, the Champs-Elys hot spring villas, although the total price is almost half of that of Thompson First's, but in fact, in terms of construction area and courtyard area, are much larger than that of Thompson First's villas.

The Champs-Elys is located in the suburbs, so the land price is much lower than the city.

Claire Wilson Wilson liked the environment here, and for her, it had been a long time since she had the chance to experience this kind of relaxed and quiet life.

Therefore, the family simply decided to take advantage of the New Year's holiday to stay here for a few more days and relax.

Loreen had been trying her best to invite Claire Wilson Wilson and Charlie Wade to visit Eastcliff, but Claire Wilson Wilson was still hesitant, as she felt that going to Eastcliff would inevitably involve another round trip, and that staying in someone else's home was far less comfortable and comfortable than staying in their own home, even if it was no matter how good it was.

On the second day of the Lunar New Year, while Charlie Wade's family was still enjoying their vacation at the hot spring villa, Jasmine was already in Tokyo, meeting with the New Japan Steel executives.

The Moore family's involvement in steel manufacturing this time was a prudent decision made by Jasmine after thinking twice.

The steel industry was the foundation for the development of modern industry, whether it was light industry, heavy industry or military industry, all of them could not do without the support of the steel industry.

The Moore family had been involved in the steel industry earlier, but had never seized the opportunity to become bigger and stronger.

Now, Jasmine took over the Moore family, hoping to pull up the scale of the Moore family's industry and raise it to a higher level as a whole, so she decided to bet heavily on the steel enterprise.

The specific plan was to establish a steel enterprise focused on special steel smelting in the lower Yangtze River in the city of Lancaster, which was the city where Travis Lane was located, which was not too far from Aurouss Hilll.

Although Travis Lane is the richest man in Lancaster, his main focus is on real estate and supporting commercial development, which is highly similar to the Moore Group's development direction and industrial form. Lancaster, as a downstream city of the Yangtze River, is closer to the mouth of the sea, so shipping is very convenient.

The most important part of the steel industry is transportation, and the amount of iron ore used is huge, so it must be supported by shipping conditions in order to minimize costs, which is the main reason why almost all the large steel companies are established in coastal cities, as well as cities along the rivers.

The Moore family had invested many years ago in a large industrial land in the sea city that was just right for building a factory, so now the only thing the Moore family lacked was a partner with strong research and development capabilities and a large number of steel patents.

So, Jasmine set her target for cooperation as Japan's Nippon Steel.

Chapter 2046

She decided to adopt a joint venture approach, as in the case of the automobile companies, to introduce the cutting-edge technology of Nippon Steel in the steel business.

FAW-Volkswagen, GAC-Honda, GM Ford, all basically adopted this joint venture idea, and these enterprises, after 20 or 30 years of joint venture development, also really achieved very proud sales results. Nippon Steel is also very interested in this cooperation, plus the Moore family has the strength, land, and also a certain amount of experience in the steel industry, it is also a very good potential partner for Nippon Steel.

So the two sides hit it off right away, and all that remained was the discussion and formulation of the details of the cooperation.

Jasmine's idea was for the Moore family to hold 51% of the shares and Nippon Steel to hold 49%, but Nippon Steel's idea was for them to hold 51% and the Moore family to hold 49%.

Don't look at such a small percentage difference, but it determines who is in charge of a company.

The 51% shareholder is the unquestionably largest shareholder, and has the absolute power to say one thing or the other on specific matters of the company.

Once this control is handed over to Nippon Steel, the Moore family will lose all dominance in this partnership.

At the negotiation table, the two sides tug back and forth on this issue, but no one is willing to take a step back.

Jasmine said to Nippon Steel's top management: "Gentlemen, our cooperation this time, the reference is the automotive industry's consistent mode of cooperation, in our country, local automotive enterprises, and overseas automotive enterprises to set up a joint venture company's rules is the local enterprise share 51%, the overseas enterprise share 49%, after all, the enterprise is established in our country, also should be held by us, this point! I hope your company will understand!"

The person in charge of negotiating with Jasmine was the vice chairman of Nippon Steel, whose full name was Hashimoto Kensen, and was a member of Nippon Steel's core management.

Hashimoto Kensen this year forty years old, in Japan's society that attaches great importance to seniority, he was able to climb to the core management so early, can be said to be a very right-wing person.

At this time he looked at Jasmine and smiled slightly, "Miss Moore, I know the kind of cooperation model you are talking about in the automotive industry, but that model is not suitable for this cooperation between New Japan Railway and you."

Jasmine said with a calm expression, "Mr. Hashimoto, where exactly is it not suitable for the cooperation between us? I would like to hear more about it."

Hashimoto smiled first and said: "First of all, there are too many head enterprises of the automobile industry, Japan alone has Toyota, Honda and Nissan, Germany has BMW, Mercedes-Benz, Audi and Volkswagen, the United States has General Motors, Ford, Chrysler, Italy those Ferrari, Lamborghini, Maserati is not to mention, in this situation of many competitors, there will inevitably be peers! In relatively minor cases, people often undercut each other's offers for the Chinese market..."

At this point, Hashimoto's near-first expression, serious: "But the steel industry's head enterprises a total of only a few, the world's top ten steel companies, half of the list is based on large output, the real special steel core technology companies, a total of so three or four, the whole of Japan is only our Nippon Steel, the only one, your China has a saying, called 'Rare is precious', and it's normal for Miss Moore to sacrifice more for the sake of such a rare partner as our New Japan Rail!"

Jasmine hesitated again and again, and spoke up, "Mr. Hashimoto, regarding the shares, I really can't give back any more, the Moore Group must hold 51% of the shares in this cooperation, but as compensation for New Nippon Steel, we can give New Nippon Steel a certain inclination in the right to profit, and in the future, New Nippon Steel will enjoy 51% of all the net profits generated by our cooperation. What do you think of that?"

Hashimoto Konen shook his head without thinking and said seriously, "Miss Moore, we won't make any concessions on the equity issue, if we were willing to make concessions on this point, we would have been in deep cooperation with the other steel companies in your country, so why would we wait until today?"

Chapter 2047

Jasmine knew that what the other party said was not true.

In fact, a top steel group like Nippon Steel was a very sought-after meat and potatoes company for any country.

In particular, their strength in special steel was the top in the world. Special steel was very versatile, and the more sophisticated the field, the higher the demand for special steel.

For example, the military industry.

The most common gun barrel and cannon barrel had very harsh requirements for steel.

If the material is perfect, the life expectancy and accuracy of guns and cannons can be optimal, but if the material is not good, the life expectancy and accuracy of guns and cannons will naturally not be good either.

Some of the barrel, fired a few thousand times, will be serious wear and tear to the point of having to replace.

Some barrel, hit a few hundred shells on the life of the life, a little messed up and may blow up the chamber, once put into use on the battlefield, is likely to affect the battlefield and the results.

In addition, the armor of tanks, the armor of helicopters, the deck of aircraft carriers, all have extremely high requirements on steel. Therefore, everyone would like to have in-depth cooperation with a company like Nippon Steel.

But Nippon Steel is also very shrewd.

Not only did they have a huge appetite for foreign cooperation, but they were also very careful with their patents and research results.

Even if they reached a cooperation, they would not bring out their top achievements.

At most, they would just use some neutered versions of their products to cover the civilian field, and the cutting-edge technology in the military field never goes outside.

What they wanted in this cooperation with the Moore family was absolute control.

To have the Moore family contribute people, money, land, and effort while also working under their hands and at their command.

As long as the Moore family agreed to this condition, they would spend a few years gradually turning the Moore family into their puppets or sweeping them out of the picture.

Jasmine didn't expect that she would give the New Japan Railway an extra two points of revenue rights, but the New Japan Railway people still wouldn't agree.

So, she could only bite her teeth and said, "Mr. Hashimoto, I can give New Nippon Steel another part of the profit rights, and in the future, New Nippon Steel will share 55% of the net profit, and the Moore family will share 45%, how about this?"

Giving up five points in one breath was already a great compromise and concession to Jasmine.

Unexpectedly, Hashimoto Kensen shook his head without hesitation and smiled faintly, "Miss Moore, our demand of New Nippon Steel is that we will never give up our controlling interest, and if you can't agree to the issue of controlling interest, then there's no need for us to continue our conversation."

Jasmine felt very passive at once.

She couldn't help but surmise in her heart, "Now, I'm the one who, on behalf of the Moore Family, took the initiative to want to cooperate with New Nippon Iron, so New Nippon Iron directly took hold of me and forcefully demanded a controlling stake, and didn't back down at all... If I continue to insist, then maybe there's nothing left to talk about in this matter..."

"If this time is truly futile, then all the preliminary preparatory work I've done has been dashed..."

Chapter 2048

"But then again, if I give up my controlling interest, that would mean giving up all autonomy, and in the future, almost all the big and small matters of the enterprise will be decided by Nippon Iron, then the Moore family will be too passive..."

Hashimoto Kensen saw that her expression was a bit torn, and said with a smile, "Miss Moore, there's no rush to settle this matter right away, you can go back and think about it first, let's meet again tomorrow for a chat, what do you think?"

After a slight hesitation, Jasmine nodded lightly.

She knew very well that she had absolutely no initiative in this round of negotiations.

Continuing to talk like this would only lead to more and more passivity. It's like buying something in a shop, if the seller is in a hurry to make a move, the buyer's bargaining space will be larger, for example, the seller offers a hundred, and the buyer directly comes with a twenty, and then comes with a you sell, not sell, pull it down, not sell I'll buy elsewhere, followed by a deadly grasp of the initiative.

However, if the seller's mentality is very stable, the buyer to a twenty, the other side directly say you go to other look at it, this time let the buyer lost the initiative.

According to normal logic, the buyer can only a little bit up, until the price can be satisfied with the seller, the specific amount of transaction, depends on the psychological price of the seller, may be fifty, may also be seventy-eight ten, or even ninety.

However, this seller in front of Jasmine was not prepared to make any concessions at all.

He gave Jasmine a very tough attitude, buy this item for one hundred, not a single point less, if you want to take it for ninety-nine, sorry, then go look elsewhere, or go back and think it over.

Jasmine has no room for mediation at this time, the only way, is to suspend the negotiations first, slow down the pace, and continue to come over tomorrow to talk further.

So she nodded and stood up, "Mr. Hashimoto, let's both think about it, and if it's convenient for you, I'll come back tomorrow morning."

"No problem!" Hashimoto stood up first with a smile, shook Jasmine's hand, and said, "Miss Moore, I'll walk you out."

When Jasmine left the New Japan Railway, she and her assistant got into the rented car and headed back to the hotel first.

At the same time, she sent a message to the family's WeChat group in the car: "New Japan Rail side must be 51% controlling interest, not giving an inch, I have conceded the right to the proceeds to 55% they still do not move, I have come out of New Japan Rail, in the evening to organize a good negotiation discourse, tomorrow come back to talk to them for a round."

Lord Mooore immediately sent a voice message: "New Japan Railway's appetite has always been large, but do not take them too seriously, because I learned some time ago, New Japan Railway is not having a good time now!"

The company has been in the process of developing the new product for the past few years, and is now in the process of developing the new product for the next two years. ."

Rueben also sent a message, "Jasmine, don't be in a hurry, look for their weaknesses and then hold them, they will definitely compromise."

"Mm." The old man also said, "It's already February, they will soon be releasing last year's financial report, if the financial data is not good, not only will the shareholders find trouble with them, the stockholders will also grumble, then their share price will definitely fall, if they can announce their cooperation with us before the release of the financial report, it will also boost the mood of the shareholders and stockholders. "

Jasmine replied, "Okay, I'll get ready after I get back to the hotel and talk to them for another round tomorrow!"

At this moment, Hashimoto Konzen's cell phone suddenly rang.

The incoming call showed that the call was coming from the neighboring country of Aurouss Hilll.

Rueben, at this time in his own in the center of Aurouss Hilll in a luxury penthouse apartment, holding a wireless landline to listen to the phone beep.

Nearly Hashimoto answered the phone first and said with a smile, "Lord Mooore is so fast, your sister just left on the front foot, and your call came on the back foot!"

Chapter 2049

At this time, Rueben, who was looking out the window at the river, smiled faintly and spoke up, "Mr. Hashimoto, I also just heard my sister say that the cooperation negotiations with you don't seem to be going well." Hashimoto nearly first laughed, "Your sister does think a little too much, how is it possible to want to cooperate with our New Japan Railway and still want a 51% controlling stake? Also in cooperation, Lord Mooore, you gave me a much better deal than she did!"

Rueben said with a smile, "That's of course, women do things, too petty, so it is difficult to become a climate, as long as Mr. Hashimoto and I cooperate fully, I will then give 51% of the shares to New Japan Railway, the remaining 49%, I privately give Mr. Hashimoto you nine points!"

Hashimoto Konzen was a little excited and said, "Lord Mooore is really magnanimous! With this, you'll only have 40% left in your hands!"

Rueben said calmly, "40% doesn't matter, I'm not doing this for money, but more to make a friend with Mr. Hashimoto."

Hashimoto nearly first smiled and said, "Lord Mooore is so generous! But I want to know, what are our chances of success in this?"

Rueben said seriously, "As long as you have the ability to keep my sister in Tokyo, the chances of success in this matter must be 100%!"

Hashimoto Kon first said, "Lord Mooore, it's not that I don't trust you, it's just that I've heard that before your sister inherited the Moore family headship, the Moore family head seemed to have been your grandfather, so if I leave your sister in Tokyo, then you will definitely be able to take the Moore family headship?"

Rueben sneered and said seriously, "My grandfather is old, he's already at the age of still being able to eat, even if he wanted to sit on the seat of the home lord, he would definitely be too weak to do so."

Saying that, Rueben added, "And Mr. Hashimoto, don't worry, since I've decided to do this, it's a matter of firing the bow without a back arrow, even if it's my own family members standing in my way, I'll do it righteously! So, as long as your side can work well with me, I won't let you down!"

Hashimoto Kon first smacked his lips and lamented, "Tsk, tsk... Lord Mooore is truly courageous and insightful, but there is one thing that I would like to tell the scandal up front."

Rueben hurriedly said, "Mr. Hashimoto please speak."

Hashimoto said word for word first, "Lord Mooore, I can help you solve your sister's trouble, but after I help you solve your trouble, you must honor the promise you gave me, otherwise, the recording of our conversation today may reach the Moore family, or even your country's police!"

Rueben said without thinking, "Mr. Hashimoto, please don't worry about this, after it's done, I'll be sure to honor my promise to you one hundred percent!"

Hashimoto Konzen smiled slightly, "In that case, Lord Mooore will wait patiently for the good news."

.....

The following day, the third day of the Lunar New Year.

Jasmine arrived at Nippon Steel early to continue her negotiations with Hashimoto Kensen on the cooperation.

After returning yesterday, Jasmine had spent the night thinking about what she wanted to do in order to take down Nippon Steel, and she had decided on multiple plans just in case.

After the two sides sat down at the negotiation table, Jasmine was the first to come up with her first plan.

In the first package, she still insisted on a 51% controlling stake, but in return, she was willing to adjust the split to 40% to 60% in the first five years of the cooperation.

In other words, give New Japan Railway 60% of the net profits for the first five years, then adjust it to 55% after five years

Chapter 2050

Hashimoto Konzen's attitude had changed a little from yesterday.

He no longer rejected Jasmine's proposal very simply as he did yesterday, but played Tai Chi with Jasmine.

He made a lot of things ambiguous, neither agreeing nor refusing, and this attitude of neither agreeing nor refusing made Jasmine feel very helpless.

The two sides had been talking from the morning towards the evening, Jasmine had adjusted the profit share for the first five years to 65% for Nippon Steel, but Hashimoto Konzen still refused.

Jasmine really has no choice but to show her cards, opening her mouth: "Mr. Hashimoto, it seems that neither of us are willing to make mutual concessions on the issue of control, if not, you see this line, we each hold 50% of the shares, in any case, are guaranteed to have 50% of each other's voting rights, all matters of cooperation, we are equal and affirmative, if we When the two sides can't progress in the partnership, we both also divide all remaining assets equally on a 50-50 basis!"

In the meantime, Mr. Hashimoto sighed: "Miss Moore, both sides hold 50% of the shares, it means that we do not have the initiative, the future cooperation in case there is a bit of controversy and disagreement on how to resolve it? If no one can get the final pat on the back, won't we be stuck in a death spiral where you don't obey me and I don't obey you, but no one can do anything about the other?"

Jasmine said with a very serious expression: "Mr. Hashimoto, if we both want to make the best of the cooperation, then even if differences arise, I believe that we can calmly and properly resolve them, rather than a single-minded kowtow with each other, since we seek cooperation, is to do a good job, if even this premise is not, then the cooperation is indeed difficult to continue to carry out! Go down."

Saying that, Jasmine added, "So if you really have the sincerity to cooperate with our Moore Group, a fifty-fifty shareholding wouldn't be a problem, but if you don't have that sincerity, then even if you are allowed to take control, the cooperation may not be able to be pushed forward."

Hashimoto Kon first said awkwardly, "Miss Moore, there is a saying in your country that is, the villain first before the gentleman, since it is a cooperation, then it is definitely necessary to consider all the worst case scenarios first, don't you think so?"

Jasmine said, "Mr. Hashimoto, the equity is 50/50, the revenue is still five points more to you, this is our Moore Group's final limit, if you feel that we can cooperate, then we will continue to talk, if you feel that we can't cooperate, then we can only say sorry, so it's all up to you whether you want to continue the conversation or not."

Hashimoto first didn't rush to give Jasmine his position, but looked at the time, and with a wry smile on his face, he said, "Miss Moore, it's not too early now, how about this, I'll give you feedback on your conditions with our chairman, and I'll give you an exact answer at the earliest tonight and tomorrow at the latest, no matter what."

Jasmine hesitated for a moment and spoke, "Alright then Mr. Hashimoto, I'll wait to hear from you!"

Saying that, she stood up and held out her hand to Hashimoto Kensen and said politely, "Mr. Hashimoto, then we'll go back to the hotel today, and you'll be the first to contact me if there's any progress."

Hashimoto nearly first nodded and smiled, "No problem, Miss Moore please wait for my news in peace."

Jasmine, with a few of her assistants, got up and left the office building of New Nippon Steel.

On her way out, Jasmine was in a very complicated mood.

Today, she had already opened her last card, she no longer had any room for mediation, and if the New Japan Railway's top management still couldn't agree, then she would have to return to Japan this time without any success.

New Nippon Steel's upstairs.

Hashimoto Kensen watched Jasmine's commercial vehicle leave the parking lot downstairs, and with a cruel smile on his lips, he picked up his phone and made a call.

As soon as the call came through, he smiled and said, "Lord Moore, your sister is already driving me crazy, I think the time is ripe to do it tonight, after tonight, your sister will disappear from this world completely!"

Honor Moore's voice came from the other end of the phone, "Haha, Mr. Hashimoto, then it's all up to you!"

Chapter 2051

At this moment, Jasmine was in a very bored mood.

She didn't expect that New Japan Railway would be so difficult to work with.

Moreover, throughout the entire negotiation process, she had been very passive and had prepared so many hands of cards, and had failed to finalize the cooperation until the last card was also lifted.

She now had a very strong sense of frustration within her.

And she also had a premonition that she always felt that it would be difficult to fight for the results she wanted in this negotiation.

Maybe, this time it was going to be futile.

On the way back to the hotel, she told her family about her suspicions.

Although Master Moore was a little disappointed, he was still very encouraging and said to her, "Jasmine, this time with New Nippon Steel, you should not have too much pressure, it's good if this matter is negotiated, but if it is not, it's no loss to us, it's just a little less profit, it doesn't matter."

Rueben also sent a message, saying, "Yeah Jasmine, New Japan Railway, this company is famous for being hard to chew, there are so many companies in China that want to cooperate with them in depth, but none of them really talk, so there is nothing to lose on your side even if it really doesn't work out."

Rueben's words instantly stirred up the potentially winning spirit within Jasmine's heart.

She felt that the more things that so many people, so many companies had failed to reach, the more she wanted to take them down!

Otherwise, she would have become one of the countless losers.

However, the current situation wasn't too clear, so Jasmine didn't dare to say anything too confident, so she said in the group, "I'll make one last effort tomorrow, success or no success, forget it."

Moore said, "It's fine, don't take success or failure too seriously, grandpa doesn't want you to aggravate yourself for the sake of business, understand?"

Jasmine felt a little more comfort in her heart and replied, "Okay grandpa, I know."

Rueben smiled at this time and said, "Jasmine, brother believes in your ability, brother believes that when he wakes up tomorrow morning, he will be waiting for the good news that you have successfully signed the contract!"

Jasmine knew that this was her brother comforting her, so she sent a smiling expression and said, "Brother, I'll lend you my good fortune then!"

Back at the hotel, Jasmine had been a bit bored, so she didn't even eat dinner, just stayed alone in her room, repeatedly combing through the plan she had written, trying to find out from it the reason why she had failed to impress New Nippon Steel.

Due to her excessive immersion, Jasmine didn't realize that it was already ten o'clock at night.

At that moment, her doorbell rang.

She stood up, walked to the door, looked through the cat's eyes, and found that it was her personal assistant.

Outside the door, the young female assistant spoke up, "Lady Moore, you haven't eaten anything at night, you must be hungry, do you want me to order you some food from the catering department and have them bring it to your room?"

Jasmine also did feel a bit hungry, so she nodded her head and said, "Okay, you can order some for me at random."

Saying that, Jasmine then asked, "Have you guys eaten yet?"

The female assistant nodded, "We've all eaten."

Jasmine smiled slightly and said, "That's good."

Twenty minutes later, the hotel's waiter pushed the food cart and delivered the dinner the assistant had ordered for Jasmine to her room. Jasmine closed her computer and was just about to sit down for a couple of bites when she suddenly received a phone call from Hashimoto Kon first.

Chapter 2052

Jasmine couldn't help but be a little surprised, wondering, "Why is Hashimoto Konzen calling me so late? Could it be...? Is it because they've already discussed the outcome?!"

Thinking of this, Jasmine was inevitably a little nervous, and she hurriedly connected the phone and asked, "Mr. Hashimoto, what can I do for you at this late hour?"

Hashimoto Kon first smiled and said, "Miss Moore, I've already given feedback to our chairman about your final intention to cooperate today, and he's so impressed with your sincerity that he asked me to inform you that the contract will be signed quickly tonight!"

Jasmine didn't expect to be waiting for the most awaited news and asked in surprise, "Mr. Hashimoto, is it true what you said?!"

Hashimoto nearly first smiled, "I wouldn't dare to say anything about this, after all, I'm only the representative sent by the group to negotiate with you, the real pat on the back is the chairman of our Corporation, and since he has said so, there will definitely be no lies."

Jasmine said excitedly, "That's really great! Mr. Hashimoto, is the chairman of your group hoping to sign the contract tonight?"

"Right!" Hashimoto Kon first said, "What our chairman means is that since Miss Moore is so sincere, we should also show our sincerity and sign the contract as soon as possible."

Jasmine busily said, "Yes! Please give me an address, Mr. Hashimoto, and I'll be right over!"

Hashimoto Kon first said, "Miss Moore is like this, our chairman was supposed to be on vacation at his hilltop villa in West Domo County today, so what he meant was for you to come to West Domo County now to sign the contract."

Jasmine asked, "West Domo County? Where is it? I'm not very familiar with Tokyo, so please forgive me..."

Hashimoto Kon first smiled, "West Domo County is west of Tokyo, it's about seventy to eighty kilometers away, you should be able to get there in an hour or so, your driver must know the location, so if it's convenient for you, you can come over now."

Jasmine said without hesitation, "Okay, no problem, I'll be on my way!"

After hanging up the phone, Jasmine immediately called her assistant again, unable to hide her excitement and commanded, "Clarice, hurry up and get ready, we're leaving in five minutes to sign a contract with the chairman of New Nippon Iron!"

"Huh?!" Jasmine's assistant, Clarice, was surprised and asked, "Lady Moore, New Nippon Steel agreed to sign the contract?!"

"Right!" Jasmine blurted out, "Their chairman wants us to sign now! You and Dee hurry up and get ready, and also have the driver get ready!"

"Okay Moore!"

Five minutes later.

Jasmine breezed out of the room.

Two female assistants joined her at the door, and Clarice spoke up, "Lord Moore, the driver is already waiting at the hotel entrance, let's just go straight down!"

"Yes!" Jasmine nodded and said somewhat impatiently, "Then let's hurry downstairs!"

Getting into the car, Jasmine told the Chinese driver she hired in Tokyo the address Hashimoto had given her first.

The driver immediately entered the address into the navigation, and as he started the car to go there, he said to Jasmine, "Miss Moore, the traffic is smooth right now, we can get there in about an hour and 20 minutes."

"Okay." Jasmine nodded her head.

Clarice, who was on the side, spoke up at this time, "Lady Moore, should we tell Lord Mooore the good news in advance to make him happy?"

"You're right." Jasmine just wanted to pull out her cell phone and call her grandfather to tell her family about her significant progress.

However, when she thought of her brother Rueben's words on the way back in the afternoon, she hesitated and surmised, "This afternoon, my brother, in an effort to cheer me up, joked that he would wake up tomorrow morning to receive the good news that I had successfully signed the contract, in that case, I might as well sign the contract first and wait until tomorrow morning to tell them and give them a real surprise! " With that in mind, Jasmine put away her phone and said to Clarice, "The contract hasn't been signed yet, it's a bit too hasty to say now, let's tell them after the contract is signed and the dust settles."

The vehicle that Jasmine was riding in sped out of downtown Tokyo and continued on towards the mountains in the western suburbs of Tokyo. Although Japan is mountainous, but the capital city of Tokyo is located in the Kanto plain, so the entire Tokyo terrain is flat, there are almost no mountains in the city, to continue to dozens of kilometers west, until the West Domo County, before starting to enter the mountainous areas. The mountainous areas are mostly winding roads, but the roads are in very good condition, and the commercial vehicles gradually gain altitude as they drive along the winding mountain roads.

From aerial view, the only car with lights on was the one that Jasmine rode in, circling through the mountains.

Jasmine was very happy inside at this time.

Although in the final cooperation proposal with New Nippon Steel, the Moore family gave up its controlling stake, the good thing was that the controlling stake did not fall into New Nippon Steel's hands either, which was a relatively compromise solution.

Since succeeding to the Moore family's headship, Jasmine has worked hard, but it is true that she has not immediately made very outstanding achievements.

Therefore, she personally valued this cooperation with Nippon Steel extremely highly.

She also looked forward to using this cooperation to prove to everyone that she was indeed capable of making the Moore family better and better. By this time, the car had already traveled most of the way up the Pan Mountain Road, and occasionally when the car drove to the eastern side of the mountain, it could see the entire night view of Tokyo to the east at the foot of the road.

Clarice, who was sitting next to Jasmine, somewhat excitedly pulled out her cell phone and sighed as she took a picture of the scenery outside the window, "The night view of Tokyo from the mountains is really something else.."

Saying that, she tried to take a few pictures and said with some regret, "Oh my, the phone doesn't take clear pictures at night, it can't capture this mood at all!"

Jasmine smiled slightly and said, "If you take photos at night, you need a longer exposure time because the light is too weak, if you really want to take this kind of night scene, you have to find a place with a wide field of view and use a SLR with a tripod and a long exposure mode to get this kind of feeling."

Clarice was surprised and said, "Lady Moore, you still know photography!" Jasmine smiled, "It's popular to join various interest societies in college, and I'm a person with less singing and dancing cells, so I chose photography."

Clarice smiled, "Then I'll learn from you sometime!"

Jasmine nodded and said, "If the contract is signed successfully, we'll rest and relax in Tokyo for a few days, and then I'll buy a SLR and tripod, and we'll come back here to shoot the night scenes."

"Great!" Clarice said cheerfully, "This will allow me to walk around and see Tokyo!"

As she was saying, the vehicle drove into a u-shaped bend in the Panshan Highway, and the driver subconsciously slowed down to enter the bend, and after a slow and smooth turn, a low roar suddenly came from the front. The driver subconsciously turned on the high beam, only then was stunned to discover that a fully loaded heavy truck is in the middle of the road, through the downhill speeding towards their own dive!

The other car was huge, and was going downhill and extremely fast, and on such a mountainous road, the consequences of a collision would be unthinkable.

The driver of the commercial vehicle kept flashing his lights and siren, but the other party did not move in the slightest.

What's worse, the mountain road itself was very narrow, with only two lanes on the left and right, and the other party was driving in the middle of the road, so it didn't leave any space for the commercial vehicle to dodge!

At the sight of this, several questions instantly flashed through Jasmine's mind, "What's up with that truck! Why isn't it slowing down?!" Before she could think about it, the car blasted right into the front face of the commercial vehicle!

Since this big truck was coming down from an uphill slope and was loaded with debris, it had an enormous tonnage and high inertia.

The commercial vehicle Jasmine was riding in front of it was completely as if it was paper mache!

Chapter 2054

It slammed the entire engine bay of the commercial vehicle right into the front seat!

The driver, and the other assistant in the passenger seat, died instantly on the spot!

Jasmine sat in the middle row of the commercial vehicle and was buckled up, so at the moment of impact, she was securely bound to the seat by the seat belt.

But Jasmine still had four ribs broken by the seatbelt due to the huge inertia of the impact!

And Clarice next to Jasmine wasn't so lucky!

She was a little slack when she got into the car, always feeling like she didn't have to buckle her seatbelt to sit in the back, so at the moment of impact, her whole body went flying right out and slammed into the back of the front passenger seat!

This bumped her entire head to the ground, and the person instantly lost consciousness and deep coma.

Due to her broken ribs, Jasmine felt an incomparable pain throughout her chest, but before she could catch her breath, the commercial vehicle, whose entire front face had been crushed into scrap metal, was toppled backwards by that large truck!

Since both front wheels of the commercial vehicle, along with their hubs, were smashed into a ball of scrap metal, the bottom of the front face of the commercial vehicle was hardened and ground with a cloud of sparks! Jasmine was now struggling to look back and took a backward glance and winced!

The back of the car, it's that u-turn!

But the big car was clearly trying to push the commercial vehicle she was in straight off the cliff!

The height here is at least a hundred meters, so I'm afraid that whatever car rolls off such a high cliff would fall into a pile of scrap metal! And the person sitting in it, I'm afraid, will also die!

At this moment, she immediately realized that it would be no accident or coincidence!

This big car, deliberately not turning on its lights, deliberately driving in the middle of the road, deliberately hitting her own car by going downhill, and not only not slowing down at all after the impact, but even hitting the accelerator, trying to push itself and its car into a cliff!

At this point, she couldn't care less about who was behind the plot to kill her.

Because she knew that she probably only had less than a minute left in her life.

How could she have never predicted before that she would be buried in a foreign land today in her golden years, a strong feeling of grief surfaced in her heart!

At this moment, the first thing that came to her mind was not herself, nor her grandfather and other relatives, but the man she couldn't get out of her heart, Charlie Wade!

She choked in her heart, "I originally thought that there was still a long way to go in life, so even if I waited for Charlie Wade for a few more years or even a dozen years, it would be fine, but who would have thought that my life would be about to fall off a cliff and die a guest death in a foreign land..."

Thinking of this, Jasmine was already filled with tears.

She endured the severe pain in her chest, pulled out her phone, clicked on the topmost image of Charlie Wade, and then clicked on the button for voice messages.

By this time, the commercial vehicle had been pushed to the edge of the cliff by the big truck.

Jasmine cried into her phone, saying, "Charlie Wade, I... I really love you! If there's still a chance, Jasmine will be your woman in the next life..."

As soon as the words fell, the entire commercial vehicle had been completely pushed off the edge of the cliff and tumbled into the abyss...
Chapter 2055

When the commercial vehicle tumbled down the cliff, Jasmine's heart was already tense to the extreme.

However, the more she was in this kind of life-and-death emergency, the more clear her brain became instead.

Her brain was spinning so fast at this moment that many, many things came to mind at once in a flash of lightning.

It was because the brain was thinking so fast that it appeared that time had slowed down.

When the commercial vehicle hit the cliffside boulder, Jasmine felt as if her entire body was completely washed away by the violent impact.

Fortunately, she was still sitting in the luxurious seat of the commercial vehicle, which was very comfortable and safe, and most importantly, the part of the seat that was in contact with her body was very soft.

The soft part of the seat could greatly ease the huge impact on her flesh, it was like putting eggs in a cotton wrapped box, the safety factor was greatly increased.

But spare me, Jasmine was still torn by the huge inertia of the impact, to the point where her entire body almost fainted, the huge inertia even squeezed her internal organs together, the pain was simply unimaginable! But it was at this moment that she suddenly thought of something, something that she had been carrying close to her heart!

At that moment, after the vehicle had hit the boulder, it bounced several meters into the air and continued to roll downwards.

Immediately afterwards, she took out a wooden box the size of a ring box, because the car was still rolling, she could only grasp the wooden box with both hands desperately, not daring to slacken, for fear that the wooden box would fall out of her hands!

Because she knew that what was inside this wooden casket was her only lifeline!

Jasmine quickly opened the wooden box, and when the vehicle was about to have its next collision, she didn't hesitate to put the pill saved in the wooden box into her mouth!

Boom!

This time, the vehicle crash was even worse!

The commercial vehicle went straight down and smashed into a boulder!

In an instant, it smashed a huge dent in the door on the right-hand side of Jasmine's car!

It was so powerful that the dented car door smashed right into Jasmine's right leg at the knee, even breaking her right leg!

The intense pain caused Jasmine to scream, and then the entire vehicle began to roll violently over the steeply sloped rocks!

As the vehicle rolls over, Clarice's entire body repeatedly bumps up and down in the carriage, and her body has been so miserable that she has long since lost her life.

Jasmine watched as her body rolled back and forth in the carriage, wanting to help but simply unable to help herself, she could only watch as tears burst from her eyes!

When the vehicle lifted off again, due to the speed of the tumble and the fact that the window had already completely shattered, it threw Clarice's body right out of the window...

Jasmine collapsed and cried, her own body had been injured all over, her brain, internal organs, limbs, almost all of them were severely damaged, she even felt like she was on the verge of dying .

However, the pill that Charlie Wade had given her had been held in her mouth without being swallowed.

She knew that the pills could only save herself once, and if she swallowed it early, perhaps she would still be dead by the time the vehicle followed in its tumbling fall!

So, in the back of her mind there was only one conviction: "I must persist and persist and persist! Do my best to hang on until the end, and then leave my fate to God!"

Then another thought came to her mind, "No! It's not about leaving your fate to the heavens, it's about leaving your fate, to Charlie Wade!"

Another violent crash.

Jasmine felt like she was about to lose consciousness.

In that last electric moment, she bit down on the pills and swallowed the pills with a few medicinal scents into her stomach!

In the next second, Jasmine had completely lost all consciousness and her body continued to tumble downwards with the commercial vehicle.

At this time, a strong medicinal power was dissolving in Jasmine's abdomen.

The medicinal power was conducting extremely fast, rapidly surging into every part of her body through her meridians.

At this time, Jasmine's body was already almost losing all of its vitality, but at this moment, the powerful medicinal power made her body instantly start to recover again.

Chapter 2056

It was as if an entire city that had been plunged into darkness because of a power outage had been instantly re-lit the moment the power was suddenly restored!

Just as Jasmine's body was recovering rapidly, the commercial vehicle she was riding in had finally fallen to the bottom of the valley.

At this time, the commercial vehicle was already riddled with holes.

The front of the car was completely crumpled into the first row of seats, all the windows were shattered, and the metal body had been cut by stones into countless hideous gouges.

And the entire vehicle had also fallen and shifted as it continued to tumble, like a can that had been stepped on!

Jasmine's consciousness, however, was recovering, with broken ribs, leg bones, and arms, as well as wounds on her body and damaged brain and internal organs, all of which were rapidly regaining life.

In a few moments, she regained her ability to move.

She tried to unbuckle her seatbelt, but the plug had been so badly deformed along with the latch that the seatbelt wouldn't unbuckle at all.

And the seat beneath her had been completely deformed by the impact.

But the good news was that the seatbelt was barely able to get around her body, and she would be able to escape from the deformed seat.

The phone under her feet was still lit, and the screen was badly shattered, but the fact that it was still lit meant that it was still working.

So, Jasmine hurriedly grabbed the phone in her palm and hurriedly fled to the car!

The doors were long gone, but the windows on either side turned into two completely deformed window frames.

She struggled and climbed out of the car.

That's when she heard the sound of water running and also smelled the pungent odor of gasoline.

The gas tank of the family car was almost invariably underneath the car, and most of them were made of engineering plastic.

Although the fuel tank can withstand most collisions and accidents, it's basically hard to protect yourself against such a 360-degree rollover. Therefore, the fuel tank of the commercial vehicle was pierced with several large openings, through which dozens of liters of gasoline continued to pour out.

The fuel tank of the commercial vehicle Jasmine was riding in had a capacity of 70 liters, and with a two-liter Coke bottle as the container, it was able to fill up 35 bottles.

The driver had only just filled up with fuel after returning to the hotel, and had consumed less than ten liters on the way over, with at least sixty liters of gasoline in the car.

You know the gasoline burning energy is very big, not to mention sixty liters of gasoline, even a large Coke bottle so much gasoline, is enough to burn a car to scrap iron!

At this point, the car's damaged engine was still humming and spinning, which meant that the engine's spark plugs were currently firing and injectors were also spewing oil to propel the engine's piston movement. Should there be an oil leak inside the engine compartment, flames would likely escape from the interior of the engine compartment, which would then ignite all the gasoline!

Jasmine didn't dare to delay, although she was surrounded by thick woods and bushes, she could only dive into the woods in order to escape. Just when she was not even ten meters away, a strong fire suddenly burst out from behind her.

Gasoline began to burn from the engine compartment's position, igniting the leaking gasoline around it as well.

The gasoline burned extremely fast, and in the blink of an eye, the commercial vehicle was quickly engulfed in flames.

Jasmine turned around and looked at the burning flames, her eyes filled with tears.

Her other assistant, as well as the nice Chinese driver she had found in Japan, were all in the car at this point.

Although Jasmine knew that they had died as early as the first moment of impact, the thought that their bodies would be burned beyond recognition by the fire still made Jasmine feel a twinge in her heart.

And Clarice...

That little girl who had been talking about learning photography from herself just a few minutes ago, but she was already separated from her yin and yang as well...

After the robbery, Jasmine, unable to care about the burning hot flames, her legs slightly bent, slowly kneeling on the ground, hands covering her face, crying out...

Chapter 2057

When Jasmine was hit in Nishitomo County, Tokyo, Japan, Charlie Wade was preparing to soak in the hot spring at the Champs Spa Villa in the mountains on the outskirts of Aourouss Hilll.

Soaking in the hot spring pool with him was his wife, Claire Wilson Wilson.

Just like when they had soaked in the hot spring with Loreen, Charlie Wade was wearing swim trunks while Claire Wilson Wilson was wearing a one-piece swimsuit.

The manly body posture was on display in front of Charlie Wade, making Claire Wilson Wilson more or less still shy.

In fact, the couple wasn't going to take a hot spring together.

Charlie Wade wanted Claire Wilson Wilson to soak first, and when Claire Wilson Wilson came over in her bathrobe, she happened to be seen by Elaine Ma, so Elaine Ma said that she would let Charlie Wade join Claire Wilson Wilson with her.

Claire Wilson Wilson entered the hot spring water first, while Charlie Wade put their cell phones on the stone platform next to the hot spring pool first, which was the only way to get into the water.

As a result, just at this time, the phone suddenly rang.

It was a WeChat.

He opened his phone and found that the WeChat was actually from Jasmine. Moreover, it was a voice.

This made him feel more or less embarrassed.

A voice message, if you don't click open and listen to it, you don't know what is sent, but if you click open on the spot, what if it says something in it that makes your wife Claire Wilson Wilson misunderstand? Listening in earpiece mode was certainly safer, but it would inevitably make Claire Wilson Wilson think more.

So, Charlie Wade had to click on convert text.

Jasmine's Mandarin was very standard, plus the recognition rate of WeChat's voice to text conversion was also very high, so she was able to completely convert her words in one go.

Charlie Wade looked at that text and his entire body was in shock!

"Why is Jasmine now suddenly sending a voice to say the words I love you to me? Why do you say you'll be your own woman in the afterlife if you get the chance?!"

"Could it be... Is she in some kind of danger?!"

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade hurriedly said to Claire Wilson Wilson, "Wife, you soak for a while, I'll go get a drink."

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded and instructed, "You put on some clothes, don't freeze."

"Good."

Charlie Wade said, draping the thickened bathrobe over his body, turning around and entering the villa.

Both Jacob Wilson and Elaine Ma went back to their respective rooms to rest, so Charlie Wade directly clicked on the voice in the living room. Immediately afterwards, Jasmine's sad, desperate voice came out, "Charlie Wade, I... I really love you! If there's still a chance, Jasmine will be your woman in the next life..."

In this voice message, in addition to Jasmine's voice, there was also the sound of violent impact, the screeching sound produced by metal rubbing against the ground, and the roar of the engine...

Charlie Wade's heart thudded!

By the sound of this, something must have happened to Jasmine!

He immediately called Jasmine and it showed that the other party was temporarily disconnected!

He quickly sent another WeChat voice call invitation to Jasmine, and it was always unresponsive!

Charlie Wade's heart suddenly panicked.

He knew that Jasmine was in Japan and hadn't returned yet, so he could also deduce that something must have happened to her in Japan.

Now that she couldn't get in touch with her whole person, the first thing that came to Charlie Wade's mind was to quickly call Master Moore to ask about the situation.

So, he immediately dialed Master Moore's phone.

Chapter 2058

At this time, Master Moore was ready for bed.

Since taking the Rejuvenation Pill, his body was getting stronger as he aged, but this also made him cherish his hard-won health even more, so he had been adhering to the health philosophy of sleeping early and getting up early, moving more and practicing more, so he rested earlier every day.

Suddenly receiving a call from Charlie Wade, he hurriedly put the call through and opened his mouth, "Oh my, Master Wade, what do you want me to do if you're still calling me so late?"

Charlie Wade spoke up, "Master Moore, I'd like to ask what's going on with Jasmine right now? Why can't you reach her all of a sudden?"

"Jasmine?" Moore was surprised and said, "We still had contact in the evening, she's in Tokyo, Japan, negotiating a cooperation with Japan's New Japan Railway."

Charlie Wade said, "Jasmine sent me a voice message a few minutes ago, suddenly saying something about the next life or something like that, then when I called her back, I couldn't get through anymore, I suspect Jasmine might have suffered some kind of accident in Tokyo!"

"An accident?!"

Master Moore sat up on the bed in a flash and asked out of the blue, "Master Wade, in the voice that Jasmine sent you, does she say she is encountering things?"

"No." Charlie Wade intoned, "That's what I'm most worried about, Jasmine didn't say anything specific in her voice message, but it gave me the feeling as if she was going to say goodbye to me on this."

Master Moore said nervously, "I'll call the people around her and ask what's going on!"

"Yes! Be sure to let me know the first time you hear anything!"

Master Moore hung up the phone and immediately called Jasmine first.

As Charlie Wade had said, Jasmine's phone was simply unreachable.

Master Moore's heart was in awe, and then he quickly called Clarice, the assistant at Jasmine's side, again.

Clarice was Jasmine's close confidant and her right hand man, so if Jasmine encountered anything, she would definitely know about it.

However, what made Master Moore even more nervous was that Clarice's couldn't even get through!

Master Moore is really panicking now!

He immediately called Rueben and opened his mouth, "Rueben, come to my room immediately! Something happened to Jasmine!"

A minute later, Rueben rushed in in a panic, and as soon as he entered, he asked out of nervousness, "Grandpa, what happened to Jasmine?!"

Master Moore said nervously, "Jasmine is missing! I've called both her and Clarice, and both of their cell phones can't be reached!"

Saying that, Master Moore asked, "Rueben, how many people did your sister bring with her to Japan this time?!"

Rueben said, "It seems like she brought two assistants with him, and a driver he found locally."

Moore hurriedly asked again, "Then do you know who the other one is besides Clarice?"

Rueben thought about it and said, "It seems to be called Dee Ridley."

Master Moore hurriedly commanded, "Hurry! Find that Dee's phone number and contact her immediately to see if you can reach her!"

Rueben nodded in a panic, then pulled out his cell phone and called the Moore Group's HR Director, and as soon as he spoke, he said, "Dee Ridley who went to Japan with Jasmine, do you have her contact information?" The other replied, "Yes sir, I'm sending it to you now or?" Rueben said, "Send it to me, quickly!"

Soon, the pair conveniently sent a string of phone numbers to Rueben's phone.

Rueben immediately called, and a moment later, he heard a prompt from the phone: "Sorry, the number you have dialed cannot be reached at the moment, please dial again later..."

Rueben's expression was very tense as he looked towards Master Moore and said, "Grandpa... The two assistants beside Jasmine can't be contacted, this... What's going on here..."

Master Moore was sweating in a hurry as he kept slapping his palms and muttered in a heart-wrenching manner, "Bad, bad, bad! Something must have happened to Jasmine! What to do about this..."

Rueben said without hesitation, "Grandpa, why don't I take someone to Japan! Now!"

Chapter 2059

Rueben took the initiative to go to Japan, and Master Moore's heart was more or less comforted.

He even surmised in his heart, "Rueben and Jasmine are not brother and sister, but it is indeed very rare for Rueben to be so attentive to Jasmine..."

Thinking of this, he sighed lightly and spoke, "Rueben, you go arrange for a plane, I'll go with you!"

Rueben hurriedly said, "Grandpa, you don't have to follow along, you're old, you don't know the place well when you go over there, it will be even more troublesome in case something happens again, and my father he's still abroad, Aurouss Hill side can't be left without someone to sit on the town, your old man just stay at home, I'll find a way to bring Jasmine back!"

Moore was slightly hesitant, and he knew in his heart that it would be really hard to make a difference if he went over there.

Moreover, if both himself and Rueben went to Japan, the Moore Group would be left without a leader.

After all, it is a big family of hundreds of billions of dollars, even during the holidays, every day to deal with the various affairs is very tedious, if there really is no one in charge to stay here to guard, in case of any situation, it is likely to cause great losses.

Thus, Master Moore nodded slightly and said, "That's fine! Then I'll stay at home, you pick some competent people as soon as possible and hurry up and leave as soon as possible!"

Rueben immediately said, "Grandpa don't worry! I'll arrange it!"

Immediately afterwards, Rueben made a phone call and summoned several assistants, as well as more than a dozen bodyguards, as well as arranged for an airport flight to take off directly for Japan an hour later.

Master Moore also called Charlie Wade back and said to Charlie Wade, "Master Wade, Jasmine and the people around her are all unreachable, I'm afraid that something has happened to them, I've arranged for Rueben to leave immediately and head to Tokyo!"

Charlie Wade asked on the other end of the phone, "No clues at all?"

Master Moore sighed, "Yeah, there's no clue whatsoever, I had someone ask the hotel, and the hotel only said that they left by car more than an hour ago, but where they went, no one knows."

Charlie Wade asked again, "Didn't Jasmine tell you guys what she was going out to do?"

"No..." Moore said with great sadness, "Jasmine returned to the hotel from New Japan Rail in the evening, told me about the progress of the negotiations, and said that she might continue to communicate with them tomorrow, but where she went tonight, I have no idea, and she never mentioned a single word."

It had to be said that Rueben was indeed extremely clever in setting up the game.

Back when Jasmine's negotiations with New Japan Railway's Hashimoto Konzen had been continually thwarted, he had been constantly encouraging Jasmine, giving Jasmine chicken blood and making Jasmine even more eager for success.

In the afternoon, he deliberately says "I'll probably get a surprise in the morning", which is a so-called "blessing" that gives Jasmine a psychological hint.

So much so that after receiving a call from Hashimoto to sign the contract, Jasmine naturally thought of a surprise for her family, so when she left the hotel, she didn't tell anyone other than her companions about her trip.

This was just what Rueben wanted.

At this moment, Charlie Wade was very worried.

When he heard that Rueben was going to Japan, he didn't think much about it and certainly didn't have any doubts about Rueben.

He just felt that since Jasmine's whereabouts were unknown in Tokyo, the most important thing he should do now was to get help from someone who was in Tokyo and quickly follow the clues from the hotel where Jasmine was staying to find out where Jasmine had gone after leaving the hotel. Thus, he hung up on Moore first, and then called Nanako.

Chapter 2060

At this time, Nanako had just returned to Tokyo from Kyoto.

A few days ago, she was temporarily accompanying her father to Kyoto for a few days for a small stay and a change of mood to relax and unwind, but because of the numerous family affairs, she stayed for three days and returned to Tokyo.

When she received the call from Charlie Wade, Nanako was still a little surprised, after all, the time in Tokyo was an hour earlier than at home, and it was now 11:30 pm at home.

So, Nanako was excited and surprised and asked, "Charlie Wade, why are you calling me at this time?"

Charlie Wade's voice was a bit raspy as he asked, "Nanako, are you in Tokyo right now?"

"In." Nanako said, "Father and I just got back this afternoon, Charlie Wade, I hear you sounding a bit anxious, is something wrong?"

Charlie Wade said, "A good friend of mine suddenly disappeared in Tokyo, and in the last voice message she sent me, she seemed to have met with an accident, but I can't reach her at all now, so I want to ask you to do me a favor and arrange for someone to investigate exactly where she went tonight."

As soon as she heard this, Nanako hurriedly said, "No problem Charlie Wade! You give me the general information and I'll arrange a full search!"

Our Ito family's influence in Tokyo is still unparalleled, and as long as the person is indeed missing in Tokyo, I will be able to find out where she is!"

"Yes!" Charlie Wade hurriedly told Nanako some of Jasmine's personal information, as well as the information about the hotel she stayed in and the time she left the hotel, and instructed, "Nanako, please arrange for someone to assemble the CCTV footage to see which car she got into, as well as the car she took, and where she drove off to!"

"Okay Charlie Wade!" Nanako also took it very seriously and took off, "I'll arrange that!"

Since the Matsumoto family had collectively gone offline and the Takahashi family had suffered a great loss of energy, the Ito family's influence in Tokyo had naturally increased tremendously.

Many of the dependent forces and organizations that had previously followed the Takahashi and Matsumoto families now took the initiative to show their favor to the Ito family, and Nanako had gradually co-opted some of them, allowing the Ito family's outside forces to expand greatly. This included the major violent clans that were previously controlled by the Takahashi family.

It's just like Don Albertt's little brothers in the underground world. They might not all be able to get on top, but one by one they were all groups that breed in the shadows of the city, so they were like sewer rats with an extremely strong sense of smell, as well as extremely fast mobility.

As soon as they were told to find someone, they all immediately moved. Since the last place where Jasmine appeared was a downtown hotel, the surveillance equipment was perfect, so the outside forces of the Ito family immediately locked onto the commercial vehicle Jasmine was riding in when she left through the hotel's surveillance cameras.

So, everyone began to follow the car's movement little by little through the surveillance system, and since the Ito family offered a reward of hundreds of millions of yen, they all went all out in pursuit of clues, each group hoping to be the first to find Jasmine's whereabouts.

At this moment, in the valley in the western suburb of Tokyo, West Domo County.

Jasmine was walking carefully through the dense forest at the bottom of the valley by herself.

The valley was hundreds of meters deep, with dense forests and vegetation as well as towering mountains on both sides, so her cell phone had no signal at all.

At this time, Jasmine had only one thought: get out of the mountain alive, and as soon as the signal from her cell phone came back, she would immediately ask Charlie Wade for help.

As she trudged through the dense forest, she thought in her heart, "What happened today must be someone's intentional murder of me, if they know I'm still alive, then I definitely won't be able to leave Japan alive!"

At the same time, there was another perception in her subconscious:

"Right now, no one can save me except Charlie Wade!"

Chapter 2061

In the western suburbs of Tokyo, on the Panshan Road in West Domo County. A couple of men in black were looking down from where Jasmine had fallen off the cliff, seeing a fire burning far below, and one of them whispered, "Now, the people in the car should be dead, right?"

The other man sneered, "A fall from such a height, and a fire burning up, if this doesn't kill you through, I'll chop off your head for you." The man laughed, "In that case, you can return to Mr. Hashimoto." The man beside him nodded and said, "Hurry up and clean up the scene first, all the impact debris, glass slag, and tire rub marks on the ground to make sure no one sees that there was an accident here after dawn."

"Good!"

A few men in black immediately began to clear the scene.

The leader, however, pulled out his cell phone and called Hashimoto Kensen, reporting, "Mr. Hashimoto, things are almost done, we'll evacuate after the scene is cleared."

Hashimoto nearly first opened his mouth and asked, "Is the lady dead? Have you identified the body yet?"

The man laughed, "Can't confirm the corpse ah, this cliff is several hundred meters high, even if Amaterasu Daijin himself fell from here, he would probably be finished."

Hashimoto nearly first smacked his lips and said, "Without seeing the body with my own eyes, I'm still a little unsure about this."

The man said, "Mr. Hashimoto, the person has rolled to the bottom of the cliff with the car, and I look from above, the car has burned up, on this fire, Amaterasu Daijin inside will also have to turn into ashes, you just relax."

Hashimoto Konzen couldn't help but complain, "Why are you always making fun of Amaterasu Daijin? Have you no fear in your heart?"

The man trailed off and laughed into the phone, "Awe my ass, I'm a man of many sins, if there really was an Amaterasu Great God, I'm afraid he would have killed me long ago, the fact that I'm alive and continue to sin proves that there is no God in this world!"

Hashimoto Konzen said helplessly, "Okay, okay, I'm not going to talk to you, just make sure the person is dead, I'm sure I trust you one hundred percent."

The man hmmm, and said, "Okay, the final payment will be sent to my house then, remember, I want old bills that are not serialized."

Hashimoto was busy first, "No problem, I'll still send it to you in the morning!"

"Okay, I'll hang up then!"

.....

At this time in the valley.

Jasmine was still struggling to walk through.

She didn't know where she was and from where she could get out of the big mountain, but what she was thinking now was very simple: she had to walk farther before she could climb up the valley, otherwise, if she climbed up and was bumped into by the other party, it would really be doomed.

What made her feel very magical was that in the past ten minutes, her body was actually feeling better and better.

Not only did she soon no longer feel any pain from the injury, but her body didn't even feel like it had just been seriously injured at all.

And now she could still feel that there was still a very powerful energy in her body, which was continuously conducting itself around her body, making her physical condition feel better and better, even feeling like her body was filled with inexhaustible power.

Chapter 2062

She thought to herself, "This power of yours must have originated from the divine medicine that Charlie Wade gave me... When Charlie Wade gave me that pill to keep with me at all times in case of emergencies, I didn't expect that this pill would actually save my life at a critical moment!" Thinking of Charlie Wade, Jasmine felt an unprecedented surge of inspiration on her spiritual level as well. She kept cheering herself up in her heart, "Since Charlie Wade has given me the chance to live, I must return to Aurouss Hilll alive!"

.....

Arouss Hilll.

The ancient capital of six dynasties.

Although not as prosperous as Eastcliff or Highland Falls, nor as rich as the new first-tier cities in the south, it has its own charm and heritage after all.

The people who lived here loved this land and this spring water.

Just as Jasmine vowed to return to Aurouss Hilll alive, a private plane at Aurouss Hilll Airport had slowly moved to the end of the runway.

This was the Moore family's private plane, which could accommodate more than twenty people and also had a separate and independent bedroom.

At this time, Rueben was lying on the bed in the separate bedroom, holding a glass of red wine, with a smile on his lips.

Hashimoto Kensen had just called him and told him, "Lord Mooore, the commercial vehicle that your sister was riding in fell from a cliff hundreds of meters high in West Todoroki County to the bottom of the valley, and the vehicle spontaneously combusted right afterwards, and your sister has been reduced to ashes one hundred percent!"

Rueben smiled grimly, "Good! Great! I've been waiting for this day for a long time, and it's thanks to Mr. Hashimoto's help that I can get what I want today."

Mr. Hashimoto Konen smiled, "Lord Mooore, in the future, it is most important for both of us to cooperate and make more money!"

Rueben said with a smile, "Please don't worry about that, Mr. Hashimoto, we will definitely cooperate with you in the future, and I won't keep a penny of the money that should be paid."

Hashimoto said, "Then when Lord Mooore arrives in Japan, we'll have a good drink!"

Rueben sighed and said, "Oops! This time I'm going to Japan mainly to make a show for the old man, that old thing is old, but he's clear-headed, if I act a little bit wrong, he will definitely notice, so I'm going to Japan this time, it's better for the two of us not to meet in order to avoid suspicion."

Hashimoto nearly asked first, "Lord Mooore, when are we going to sign the contract then?"

Rueben said, "Wait until I bring my sister's body or ashes back to Aurouss Hilll and give her a funeral before I choose an opportunity to sign a contract with Mr. Hashimoto."

Hashimoto Konzen smiled obscenely and said, "Haha, that's no problem, Lord Mooore must be very pained at the loss of his loved one, so let's wait a little longer on the drinking and talking."

Rueben also laughed and said, "Yes, my clever and capable sister died so miserably, this is really painful for me, hahahaha!"

Saying that, he lamented with a bit of regret, "If that old thing hadn't passed on the family headship to my sister and made her feel at ease by my side to assist me, I wouldn't have wanted her dead today."

At this point, Rueben's eyes flashed with a hint of grimness as he said coldly, "If you want to blame it, blame that old thing for establishing her in my path! Anyone who stands in my way must die!"

Nearly Hashimoto spoke first, "Lord Mooore, what if that old man wants to regain the headship of the family? Or what if, when we sign, he doesn't agree to the terms of the partnership we've set up?"

Rueben smiled grimly and said indifferently, "Don't worry, Mr. Hashimoto, none of this you're worried about will happen, I'll find an opportunity to reunite him with his beloved granddaughter, and no one can stop me from becoming the head of the Moore family!"

Chapter 2063

The Ito Family's power in Tokyo was now basically unmatched.

Plus, this was the first time Charlie Wade had opened his mouth and asked Nanako to help with his business, so Nanako took this extremely seriously and sent out almost the entire Ito family's forces.

Tens of thousands of people searched tightly in Tokyo, and soon followed the trajectory of Jasmine's movements all the way to the entrance to the mountain in West Domo County.

Since the road where Jasmine went up the mountain usually had very little traffic, there was no CCTV on this road.

After learning that the trail was interrupted at the foot of the West Domo County mountain, the clever Nanako almost immediately became acutely aware that the location of Jasmine's accident must be right on the West Domo County mountain road.

Not only was the area unpopulated, the elevation of the road was also very high, so if someone had deliberately harmed Jasmine, doing it here would be a perfect choice indeed.

Therefore, Nanako immediately called off the massive search and announced that a heavy prize of 100 million yen would be awarded to the 1st team to find the West Domo County clue.

She then immediately arranged for the Ito clan's ninja to travel to the deep mountains of West Domo County so that they could sneak in and search for clues.

At the same time, Charlie Wade who was in Aurouss Hillll was also a bit restless.

At this time, he was pacing back and forth in the living room, pondering in his heart, "Judging from Jasmine's voice, she must have encountered unusual danger, and it's very likely that someone is trying to deliberately harm her, or even, it's very likely that she's met with an unfortunate accident now..."

"After all, she is just a weak woman, even if she were to face an adult male alone, she wouldn't have any chance of winning, not to mention that she is in a foreign country at this moment, and apart from a few assistants, she doesn't have anyone she can rely on, I'm afraid the situation is more dangerous..."

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade felt his heart ache.

He naturally had a strong fondness in his heart for Jasmine.

It wasn't because Charlie Wade was triple-minded, but because a girl like Jasmine was so rare, so as long as a normal man would have a good feeling for her after spending time with her.

She was beautiful, gentle, sensible, generous, and more importantly, she treated people sincerely, even if it was from the perspective of a normal friend, he would be worried and heartbroken when she was in danger.

What's more, Charlie Wade was fortunate enough to have her heart and first kiss, so when she was in danger, Charlie Wade was even more heartbroken.

Unfortunately, Jasmine was in Tokyo, and even if Charlie Wade had a great ability, he couldn't immediately rush to her side to rescue her.

Therefore, he could only pray for Jasmine's good fortune while praying in his heart, "Wanting, I hope you will always obediently listen to me and carry the pill I gave you close to your body, if you take it with you, it might be able to save your life..."

Half an hour passed.

Nanako returned a call to Charlie Wade, and when she opened her mouth, she said, "Charlie Wade, the people I sent out chased all the way to the western suburbs of Tokyo, West Domo County, where Miss Moore was riding in a car that went up the mountain, the CCTV footage is no longer visible, so I suspect that Miss Moore should be the one who had an accident in the mountain, I have now sent my best ninjas to the deep mountains to search for her, if there is anything else The news, I will inform you first!"

Charlie Wade was even more worried when he heard that Nanako had said that Jasmine had been in an accident in the mountains.

The voice just now was filled with crashing sounds as well as friction, and he thought it was just a car accident, but as soon as he heard that it was an accident in the mountains, he immediately felt that the chances of Jasmine surviving were even smaller!

Chapter 2064

No matter which country you are in, mountain roads are much more dangerous than ordinary roads.

The worst thing you can do in a car accident on a mountain road is to fall off a cliff, and once you tumble off a 100 meter high cliff, the chances of survival are slim to none.

In the rally, the car running the mountain must be equipped with a very strong anti-rolling frame, only then, can ensure that the vehicle in the high-speed rolling, falling can ensure that the cab is not deformed, so as to protect the safety of the driver.

But ordinary civilian cars, even 10 million dollar Rolls-Royces, don't have such things as anti-roll bars at all, so if they fall off a cliff, the Rolls-Royce will fall into a pile of scrap metal!

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade hurriedly said to Ito, "Nanako, I beg you one thing, make sure that your ninja find Jasmine's whereabouts as soon as possible, and as long as she still has a shred of breath, also bring her out of the mountain, to the hospital, and wait for me to come!"

Nanako hurriedly asked, "Charlie Wade, you're coming to Japan?"

"Right!" Charlie Wade cut off the nail and said, "I'm going over there now!"

Nanako's heart leapt for joy!

"Charlie Wade is coming to Japan! Then I can see him again!"

But after a few moments, Nanako's heart was slightly jealous again,

"Charlie Wade came to Japan for that Miss Moore, not for me... Why is he so nervous about that Miss Moore? Is that Miss Moore his confidante?"

Although Nanako's heart was a bit sour, she had a very strong sense of the big picture and quickly threw all these thoughts out of her mind, saying off the top of her head, "Charlie Wade, I'll arrange for a helicopter to wait for you at Tokyo Narita Airport right now!"

"If I find Miss Moore's whereabouts on your way to Japan, then I'll immediately take her to the best hospital and have a helicopter take you to the hospital to meet her as soon as you land on the ground."

"If I haven't found Miss Moore's whereabouts after you arrive in Japan, then I'll have a you to West Domo County and I'll accompany you in your search!"

Seeing that Nanako had arranged things so thoughtfully, Charlie Wade was grateful and said, "Good Nanako! Thank you so much!"

Nanako hurriedly said, "Charlie Wade and Nanako don't have to be so polite, my life was saved by you, this little matter is nothing."

Charlie Wade's heart was more than a little relieved, and spoke, "Nanako, you first arrange for a helicopter to wait for me at Narita Airport, I'll take a direct flight over!"

"Okay Charlie Wade!"

Charlie Wade on this side hung up the phone of Nanako on the other side, and then he immediately called Cameron Isaac, and as soon as the call came through, Charlie Wade immediately ordered, "Isaac, arrange for the plane to make preparations for takeoff, and then send a helicopter to pick me up, I want to get to Tokyo as soon as possible!"

Cameron Isaac was amazed and said, "Young Master, why do you suddenly want to go to Tokyo at this late hour?"

Charlie Wade blurted out, "Jasmine Moore is in trouble in Tokyo, her life and death are unknown, I must get there as soon as possible!"

"Something happened to Miss Moore?!" As soon as he heard this, Cameron Isaac knew that Charlie Wade must be very anxious at the moment, so he immediately spoke, "Young Master, I'll immediately arrange this, it's now 11:00 p.m. The helicopter is expected to arrive at you in fifteen minutes, pick you up and then fly to the airport for almost twenty minutes, counting the landing time, and arrive at the airport at around 11:40!"

"I'll have the plane waiting for you at the end of the runway, you'll get off the helicopter and board directly for immediate takeoff, while flying at maximum speed to Tokyo, where you're expected to arrive at two in the morning, three in the morning, Eastcliff time!"

Chapter 2065

The deep mountains of West Domo County.

Jasmine was still carefully and slowly walking through the valley.

Even though it was winter, the valley was very dense with plants because of the many evergreen plants like pines and cypresses.

Moreover, in this dark and cold valley, there was absolutely no trace of any human visitation, so even a goat path was not present.

So it was extremely difficult to walk in such a place.

Not to mention a female stream like Jasmine, even an expert who was good at exploring through would find it difficult to increase her speed.

Fortunately, it was the winter season, so Jasmine was dressed in thicker clothes, with a thicker cashmere trench coat on top, a black mid-skirt with black corseted bottoms, and a pair of black leather boots, so she wouldn't be hurt by the dense pine needles and dried branches and leaves. Jasmine was already used to the darkness at the bottom of the valley, and she could have used her cell phone, which had a broken screen, to illuminate her surroundings so that she could walk with less effort.

However, she was afraid that the person who wanted to murder her would not give up and was still searching for her whereabouts, so she didn't dare to give off any light.

Occasionally wanting to see if her phone had a signal, she also hid it in her trench coat and wrapped her head and phone completely in it with her trench coat for fear of giving off light.

After groping her way through the valley for two to three hours, although Jasmine was still very strong, her hands and face, which had been repeatedly scratched by the branches and leaves of the trees, were already covered in tiny red marks, some of which even oozed a bit of blood.

But at this time, Jasmine couldn't care less about the pain, her only thought was to grit her teeth and get out of the mountain and live.

.....

At this time, the special plane that Rueben was riding was the first to land at the Tokyo airport.

Once he landed, he didn't hesitate to head straight to the Tokyo Police Department.

He had already thought about it, this time coming to Tokyo was just to make a show for the old man.

When Jasmine's body was found, he would first express his grief, then he would leave the matter to the Tokyo Police Department to investigate, and he could take Jasmine's body or ashes and return to Aurouss Hilll for a big funeral.

On the way to the Tokyo Police Department by car, Rueben received a phone call from the United States.

When he pressed the answer button, he heard his father Theodore's voice on the other end of the phone.

"Hello, Rueben, is it convenient for you to speak now?"

Rueben gave a hmmm and said indifferently, "I'm surrounded by my beloved ones, so don't worry, Dad."

Theodore then asked, "You're in Tokyo?"

"Yes Dad, I'm here."

Chapter 2066

Theodore asked again, "How is Hashimoto nearly done with things first? Pretty?"

Rueben sneered and said, "It should be quite pretty, according to him, the car rolled off a cliff a few hundred meters down and burned into a pile of scrap metal, and the people inside, they were probably all burnt to cinders."

Theodore said with satisfaction, "That's good, that's good!"

And then he asked, "By the way, did your grandfather suspect anything before you came?"

Rueben said, "I don't think so, but I'm not sure if he'll suspect later."

Theodore sneered, "It's fine, he doesn't have anything for later anymore."

Rueben was delighted and hurriedly asked after him, "Dad, is it ready to do something about grandpa?"

Theodore said, "No, not so fast."

Rueben's expression was a bit worried and said, "Dad, don't forget, when that old guy passed the family headship to Jasmine, he said in public that as long as Jasmine doesn't have any offspring yet, the Moore family headship will have to be inherited by Charlie Wade, if we don't finish off the old guy quickly, won't we be giving Charlie Wade a dowry?!"

Theodore said, "If we do something to the old man now, it will be too obvious, with Jasmine's death in a foreign land and the old thing dying in Aurouss Hilll, even if we don't leave any evidence behind, the outside world will think we did it!"

Rueben nervously asked, "What then?! We can't really wait for the old man to invite Charlie Wade to join the Moore family, can we? In that case, we're all screwed! We're definitely not Charlie Wade's match!"

Theodore said, "You don't have to worry about this, I had someone get a batch of neurological drugs used by American agents, the initial stage after taking the drug can make the person taking it incomparably obedient, at that time, the old man will do whatever we say, at that time, we will directly ask the old man to announce the annulment of the previous verbal agreement, and then announce that I will take over the position of the head of the family."

Rueben pursued, "You just said that the initial stage of drug taking can make the other party obedient, what about the middle and later stages? Does the drug wear off?"

"No." Theodore sneered, "After taking this drug for a period of time, it can irreversibly destroy a person's brain, not only can it never be cured, but it can't be detected at all, the apparent symptoms are no different from Alzheimer's, and we can then say that the old man is suffering from Alzheimer's because he was stimulated by Jasmine's death, and anyway, I've become the head of the family, so that he becomes Dementia is good for us."

Rueben smiled excitedly, "Dad! What a brilliant move you've made! When the time comes, we'll just raise the old thing like a mascot and arrange for a few servants to take care of his food, drink, and shelter!"

"Well!" Theodore smiled grimly and said, "The old man just called me and told me to go back as soon as possible, I've already had the medicine brought in through a special channel, I'll find a chance to feed it to him when Jasmine's funeral is over!"

Rueben remembered something and spoke up, "Dad, the old man still has a Rejuvenation Pill! On Jasmine's birthday, Charlie Wade gave it to her and she passed it on to the old guy, what if he took the rejuvenation pill and everything went back to normal? I'm afraid we'll be in big trouble then!"

Theodore said coldly, "Rueben, don't be afraid! There's no turning back on this! For the sake of the Moore family's $200 billion in assets, we must go all the way to the dark side!"

Just saying that, Theodore said, "Besides, if the Rejuvenation Pill can really reverse his brain damage, the worst that can happen is that I'll find a chance to give him some more medicine, and as long as we don't reveal that we killed Jasmine or that we gave the old man the medicine, no one will suspect us."

After a pause, Theodore sneered, "Besides, even if they suspect, so what? We didn't kill Jasmine directly, so who can condemn us? Everything has to be about evidence!"

Rueben said, "You're right, as long as there's no proof that we're behind it, no one can do anything about it!"

Theodore snorted coldly, "The old thing is to blame for this, he's too biased! He really treats me like a piece of meat! This time, we'll take back the entire Moore family! I'm the eldest son of the Moore family, you're the grandson of the Moore family, and the Moore family should have been ours!"

When Charlie Wade left home, Claire Wilson Wilson was still soaking in the hot spring.

She didn't even know that her husband left from the hot spring in a bathrobe, saying that he was going to get a drink, but as a result of this, the person had already taken a helicopter to the airport, and then took a plane to Japan.

She couldn't wait for Charlie Wade left and right, and after coming out of the hot spring, she returned to the living room and didn't see Charlie Wade's shadow.

She picked up her phone to call Charlie Wade, but it showed that the phone was off.

This made her even more puzzled, and when she returned to the bedroom, she didn't find Charlie Wade's shadow either, but only saw a note that Charlie Wade had left for himself on the bedside table.

The note had a line written on it: "Honey, a friend is in danger of losing her life, I have to rush over to save her."

After reading it, Claire Wilson Wilson was shocked: "Save someone?! It's not like something terrible has happened, is it?!"

Thinking of this, she quickly sent a voice to Charlie Wade, "Honey, where have you been? What's going on? Either way, you can be sure to be safe!"

.....

Japan, Tokyo.

The ninjas of the Ito clan, in a helicopter, arrived near the mountains of West Domo Prefecture in the shortest possible time.

The helicopter then landed a few kilometers away from the foot of the mountain, and ten ninjas dressed in black fishtailed out, running at great speed towards the mountain.

The reason why they didn't let the helicopter fly in directly was because Nanako was afraid of spooking the snakes.

She had a similar view as Charlie Wade, Jasmine was most likely murdered, so at this time, if she let them go in to search by helicopter with great fanfare, in case Jasmine wasn't dead and her own people were disturbed, it would cause more trouble instead.

However, the mountains in West Domo County stretched for hundreds of kilometers, and the Pan Mountain Road alone was dozens of kilometers long, so they could only hide in the darkness and follow the Pan Mountain Road on foot to check for clues.

Luckily, the Ito family had more ninjas out this time, and ten ninjas poured out of their nest to start inspecting all the clues from the intersection into the mountain.

Even as they searched, the Ito ninja departed from their home by helicopter to Narita Airport.

It was two in the morning Tokyo time.

As Rueben had personally alerted the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department, a large number of police officers from the Metropolitan Police Department had been ordered to depart in a full-scale search for Jasmine.

The news of Jasmine's disappearance in Tokyo is a nightmare for the Tokyo Police Department's director.

A few days ago, an unprecedented chaos broke out in Tokyo, with all kinds of assassinations, and many rich and powerful bigwigs died one after another in a series of violent incidents that even shocked the entire world.

Not only did it make the world laugh at Tokyo's law and order problems, it also made the Tokyo Police Department lose face in front of the world. After all the hard work to restore things to normal and the law and order is almost peaceful, who would have thought that another famous foreign entrepreneur would be lost in Tokyo!

The Moore Group, with a total market value of nearly 200 billion, Jasmine, as the chairman of the Moore Group, was a proper business elite no matter what country she went to with her worth.

But it was this business elite who had lost contact in Tokyo, and according to her family's report, it was likely that something bad had happened to her!

The head of the Tokyo Police Department feels like he's on his back, if this Jasmine really dies in Tokyo, then Tokyo will simply never want this face again!

So, he immediately rushed to the Police Department to supervise the war and sent thousands of police officers to begin searching for Jasmine. Just like the Ito family, the Tokyo Police Department was using the surveillance cameras to pursue all the clues before Jasmine's disappearance.

Moreover, the police department already had direct access to all the surveillance cameras in all of Tokyo, so they quickly found the relevant clues and locked the location of Jasmine's accident in West Domo County.
Chapter 2068

The Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department officers didn't care about alerting the snakes.

They directly sent hundreds of police officers to drive to West Domo County, intending to block all roads into and out of the mountains, while the Tokyo Police Department also sent six police helicopters to fly to the mountains of West Domo County, intending to find Jasmine's whereabouts as soon as possible.

Nanako quickly got the news and immediately instructed the ninjas she had sent out to keep a low profile and try not to have any direct contact with the Police Department.

Tokyo time, two-thirty in the morning.

The ninja of the Ito clan, after passing through several mountains, smelled the smell of burning near the incident that had been cleared by the murderer.

Then, with this smell, they found their way down to the valley.

Along the way, they found the shattered and gruesome body of Clarice, Jasmine's assistant who had been thrown out of the car.

They immediately passed the news on to Nanako, who was shocked and immediately instructed them, "See if the face is still recognizable, then search the internet for Jasmine's photo to see if it's the same person!" After identifying the body, the head ninja said to Nanako, "My lady, this corpse should not be Miss Moore's, let's continue our search!"

Nanako was relieved and busy, "Get down there and take a look!"

The ninja said, "My lady, there's something I need to tell you."

Nanako was busy saying, "Yes, you say."

The head ninja said, "This cliff, at least a few hundred meters high, we're only just halfway down, from that female corpse just now, we can see that the vehicle tumbled and fell, it received a huge impact as well as the huge inertia from the tumble, so the people inside, most likely won't survive."

"Moreover, the more you can smell the burning smell the further down you go, which proves that the vehicle spontaneously combusted after falling to the bottom of the valley, so it's even less likely that anyone will survive, and even a top ninja would probably have a hard time getting out of this situation..."

Nanako's heart was tight, busy saying, "I know, you guys go down first to see what's going on and report back to me in time!"

The head ninja said, "My lady, our cell phone signal is very unstable right now, if we go any further down we may not be able to find any signal, we may be out of touch for a while, don't worry, once we find a clue, we'll climb up immediately and report back to you!"

Nanako immediately said, "Yes! Go and see what's going on, if you find Miss Moore's corpse, tell me the first time, if you can't find Miss Moore's corpse, then Miss Moore is most likely still alive, search the area well!"

"Okay Missy, we're coming down!"

Whirling around, the ten ninjas jumped quickly downwards like parkour experts.

These people still have excellent eyesight in the middle of the night, and very agile reach, in the steep cliff steep slope, still able to safely, quickly and accurately find the landing point, and soon one by one down to the bottom of the valley.

At the bottom of the valley, the commercial vehicle Jasmine was riding in had already been burned to the ground.

The snow that had accumulated in the valley over the winter ensured that the leaking fuel from the commercial vehicle did not cause a mountain fire, but even so, the burning snow still gathered into a small stream at the bottom.

Inside the commercial vehicle, which had been burned to a pile of scrap metal, were two charred bodies.

The corpses had almost turned into carbon ash, and when the wind blew, they dropped black carbon dust, and if you touched them with your hands, they would probably turn into a cloud of black ash.

By the outline, one could tell that there were two corpses in the car, and that they were a man and a woman.

However, the female corpse was completely unidentifiable.

One of the ninjas exclaimed, "Boss, the people have been burned like this, Amaterasu can't even save them, let's go up and find a signal to revive Missy."

The lead ninja was about to nod his head when he suddenly saw a hint of abnormality on the ground through the faint light.

He immediately lay down on the ground and sniffed it, and then felt the different degrees of softness and hardness of the ground in different locations with his hands, and exclaimed in alarm, "It's a fresh set of footprints! Someone's still alive!"

Chapter 2069

Tokyo time, 2:50 am.

The private plane that Charlie Wade was flying landed at Narita Airport. He didn't have a single person with him this time and rushed to Tokyo by himself.

On this journey, Charlie Wade had been connected to the plane's wireless network since there was only wireless network on the plane and no communication network.

He kept an eye on Jasmine's avatar in WeChat, expecting her to send a message.

However, Jasmine hadn't given him any feedback.

More than two hours of flight, Charlie Wade's entire body was very anxious and was getting more and more demoralized.

He would always involuntarily envision the worst possible outcome: if Jasmine was really dead, what should he do?

Although I had brought the Rejuvenation Pill with me this time, the Rejuvenation Pill, although miraculous, did not have the effect of truly bringing the dead back to life.

If the person was really gone, no amount of rejuvenation pills would be of any help!

And although there were records about higher level pills in the Apocalyptic Book, that information was too profound for Charlie Wade to comprehend, and he simply didn't have the ability to achieve it yet. Therefore, he could only keep praying in his heart that Jasmine was still alive.

Or, even if she only had her last breath left, he could bring her back! Getting off the plane, Charlie Wade passed through the customs as fast as he could.

Then, he saw that Nanako was already waiting at the exit of the customs. Seeing Charlie Wade, her heart leaped for joy and ran towards him in three or two steps, her eyes filled with excitement and admiration and said, "Charlie Wade, you're here..."

Charlie Wade nodded and opened his mouth to ask her, "Nanako, did your people find anything?"

Nanako hurriedly said, "The ninjas I sent out just gave me feedback that they have found the vehicle where Miss Moore was involved in the accident, and three bodies were found at the scene, two women and one man..."

"What?!"

Charlie Wade's heart thudded and asked off the cuff, "Have the bodies been identified?"

Nanako was quick to explain, "The male corpse is Miss Moore's driver, the other two female corpses, one of which has been confirmed not to be Miss Moore herself, and a female corpse that has been burned beyond recognition on the passenger side of the car, but since this female corpse was sitting on the passenger side, I presume she is not Miss Moore herself either. "

Charlie Wade hurriedly asked again, "Then there's no one else at the scene? If no one else was there, where did Jasmine go? Could this burned body be her?"

Nanako added, "It's like this, my ninja told me that fresh footprints were found at the scene, and someone should have escaped before the vehicle spontaneously combusted."

Saying that, Nanako exclaimed, "The ninja told me that this matter is very unbelievable, because the scene is really too tragic, the commercial vehicle fell from a cliff several hundred meters high and spontaneously combusted, under such circumstances, even a ninja would have a hard time surviving, but that person survived and still has the ability to move, it's a miracle of miracles! "

Charlie Wade instantly breathed a sigh of relief when he heard this!

It seems that the person who survived and has escaped should be Jasmine herself.

Chapter 2070

Jasmine must have relied on the pill he had given her, so she was able to stay alive under such a dangerous condition.

So, Charlie Wade hurriedly asked again, "Nanako, did your people find Jasmine's whereabouts?"

Nanako shook her head and said, "Right now they're tracking the traces left by Miss Moore, but they haven't found where she herself is yet, but I'm sure they'll be able to find her since she's alive."

Saying that, Nanako said, "Oh yes Charlie Wade, the police department has sent a large number of police officers to West Domo County to search for her, I believe they are also looking for Miss Moore's whereabouts, and they have many police helicopters, which are more suitable for quick and extensive search and rescue, so I believe they will be able to find Miss Moore's whereabouts soon. "

Charlie Wade shook his head with a heavy expression and said, "The reason why Jasmine met with a bad accident, it seems to me that someone must have tried to assassinate her, if the Tokyo Police Department finds her whereabouts, this matter will definitely be impossible to hide from the person behind the curtain, and I'm afraid that the other party will make a comeback then."

Saying that, Charlie Wade hurriedly asked her, "Nanako, is the helicopter ready yet?"

"Good, get to the place of the incident as soon as possible!"

.....

Helicopters soon whirred up from Narita Airport and crossed half of the Tokyo metropolitan area, heading straight for West Domo County.

At this time, the West Domo County, which had always been peaceful, was suddenly bustling with activity and noise.

Thousands of Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department officers and special operations team members swarmed to the area, and several police helicopters with high-powered searchlights hovered over the mountains. Secretly, the ninjas of the Ito clan were in the valley, pursuing the traces left behind by Jasmine.

After all, Jasmine wasn't a trainer, let alone an expert, so she couldn't hide her trajectory of movement.

The lead ninja was very smart, as he chased the traces left by Jasmine, while not forgetting to order people to eliminate the traces left by Jasmine bit by bit.

This way, no one would be able to find the trail left by Jasmine again. Even if someone from the Tokyo Police Department found the completely destroyed commercial vehicle, they would not be able to find any trace of Jasmine leaving alive.

This would ensure that Jasmine would not be discovered by others to the greatest extent possible.

The Tokyo Metropolitan Police had a large number of people and there were police helicopters searching at high altitude, so it didn't take long for them to find the commercial vehicle where Jasmine's accident occurred. Afterwards, several police helicopters headed towards the valley where the accident occurred, and twenty to thirty heavily armed special operations officers came down from the helicopters.

As soon as these special warriors came down, they immediately protected the scene tightly.

They examined the scene for the first time and confirmed that there were two deceased people in the vehicle, then they retraced their steps upwards from the location of the commercial vehicle and found the body of Jasmine's assistant, Clarice, halfway up the mountain.

So their officer in charge, immediately reported to the headquarters via radio, "We have found the scene of the incident, the vehicle matches the one on the video surveillance, three bodies were found at the scene, one of them was identified as a woman surnamed Chen beside Jasmine, the other two bodies were completely carbonized, only a man and a woman could be identified, but there was no way to confirm the woman's Identity."

The commander-in-chief at the scene rushed over the radio to ask, "Is there anything else on the scene? You've only found three corpses now, but we found out from the CCTV footage that when the commercial vehicle left the hotel, there were four people in the vehicle, one of them was the driver, one of the other three was Jasmine, the other two were Clarice, and Deei, so there can't be only three corpses!"

The head of the task force said, "It's true that only three bodies were found at the scene, and given the tragedy of the accident, it's impossible for anyone to have survived, and there were no signs of life at the scene."

The commander-in-chief sounded incredibly confused and said, "This isn't right! Four people on the bus, only three left after the accident, where did the other one go?"

Chapter 2071

At this moment, Rueben was sitting in the Tokyo Police Department's conference room with an anxious face.

Because the Moore Group is a powerful and well-known company, the Tokyo Police Department is very polite to Rueben.

The director, who had come overnight from home, was now personally entertaining Rueben.

Seeing Rueben's anxious appearance, the director opened his mouth to comfort him, "Lord Moore, our large team has already begun a comprehensive search for your sister's whereabouts in West Domo County, so you don't need to be too anxious, once there are any results and clues, I will report back to you at once."

Rueben sighed lightly and covered his face in pain, choking out, "Jasmine is my only sister and the one I love the most, please do your best to bring her back safe and sound!"

The police inspector nodded and assured, "Please don't worry Lord Moore, we will do our best to find Miss Moore's whereabouts!"

Rueben said gratefully, "That's very kind of you!"

At that moment, someone came in at the door and said urgently, "Chief, our men found Miss Moore's commercial vehicle in the mountains of West Domoshire, the vehicle had crashed to the bottom of a ravine, and they found two charred bodies in it, and another one halfway up a steep hill!" As soon as Rueben heard this, his eyes reddened and he immediately shed two lines of hot tears.

He nervously asked after her, "Director, has something bad happened to Jasmine?"

The hall director sighed and said, "Lord Moore, please be gentle..."

Rueben suddenly covered his face and cried out in pain, "Why... Why is it Jasmine... She's still so young... She's still so young! Why wasn't I the one who died! Why!"

The director stepped forward and gently patted Rueben's shoulder, and was about to open his mouth to comfort a couple of sentences, the person who came to report said again, "Director, we found out through surveillance that when Miss Moore departed from the hotel, there were four people in the car along with her, so there is still one person whose whereabouts are unknown."

Rueben lifted his face up and asked in stunned silence, "What did you say?! There's one more person unaccounted for?!"

"Right!" The man hurriedly said, "Four people got on the bus, there are only three bodies, the other one hasn't found any clues yet, and we highly suspect that the one whose whereabouts are unknown is Miss Moore!"

"What?!" Rueben was so nervous that he asked, "What evidence do you have that the missing person is my sister? Have you identified the body that fell to its death halfway up the hill? Also, was she in those two charred bodies in the car?"

The man explained: "Is so Lord Mooore, the corpse halfway up the hill has been confirmed, is Miss Moore's assistant Clarice, as for the two charred corpses, we are through the high-definition camera carefully compared, when the commercial vehicle left the hotel's seating order, the only male is the driver sitting in the driver's seat, and at that time sitting in the passenger seat, is one of Miss Moore's assistant, Dee. , when Miss Moore got into the car at that time, she was sitting in the back row with her other assistant, Clarice."

At this point, the man continued, "So, it follows that the charred corpse on the passenger side should be Dee, unless Miss Moore swapped places with Dee halfway through the journey, but we believe that this possibility is minimal."

The director reasoned at this point, "Now that we have confirmed the discovery of Clarice's corpse, the other two corpses are most likely the driver and Dee, so in that case, Miss Moore is most likely still alive!" Rueben's entire body almost collapsed when he heard this!

He inwardly strained his abdomen, "What's going on?! What the hell is going on here? Why is Jasmine still alive? Isn't it certain as well as certain that Hashimoto's near-senior people have rolled down the valley with the car and Jasmine! Why is she flying off the handle?!"

So he hurriedly stood up and asked out of the blue, "Have you found my sister's whereabouts? Or have you found anything of value?!"

The person who came to report shook his head and said, "Things are a bit tricky and inconsistent right now, we didn't find any traces of Miss Moore at the scene, nor did we find any signs that anyone survived, but we also didn't find any clues as to whether Miss Moore got off the bus early or not, so everything is still unknown right now."

Rueben's heart was a little scared at this point, "If Jasmine dies, then everything is easy to solve, even if the Tokyo Police Department finds out that she died from a homicide, I have nothing to worry about, I didn't do it anyway, it's almost impossible to find out, and then the Tokyo Police Department can continue to pursue the clues, and I'll bring Jasmine's body back to put on the funeral, Then we'll do away with that old thing, and the Moore family will be mine and Dad's."

"But if Jasmine hadn't died, then I'm afraid all of this would have been for naught! Even if Jasmine doesn't know that I secretly harmed her, as long as she returns to Arouss Hilll alive, she will definitely become extremely vigilant in the future, and then it will be hard to kill her!"

Thinking of this, he couldn't sit still a bit and spoke, "A few people, I want to go out for some air."

The director nodded hurriedly, "Lord Mooore, go ahead!"

Rueben immediately walked out the door to an empty stairwell and dialed Hashimoto Konzen's phone.

"Haha, Lord Mooore, you should be at the Tokyo Police Department right now, right?"

Rueben said coldly, "Mr. Hashimoto, someone from the Tokyo Police Department told me that my sister is missing! What the fuck is going on here?"

Hashimoto Kon first asked in surprise. Missing? How did she go missing?"

Rueben gritted his teeth and roared in a low voice, "That's how they disappeared for no reason! No one knows where she is, and now neither a person nor a body can be found!"

Hashimoto Kensen mumbled, "This isn't right! My people have obviously crashed her and the commercial vehicle she was riding in into the cliff valley, and according to them, the vehicle fell to the bottom of the valley for no more than a minute before it happened naturally, and even Amaterasu Daijin couldn't escape!"

Rueben said angrily, "Don't fucking talk such bullshit to me! Your Amaterasu Great Spirit couldn't escape, so my sister escaped!"

"No one from the police department found her body! She wasn't even there!"

Hashimoto Konzen also tensed up and said with a bit of a tremble in his voice, "This isn't fucking right! I really have a video here, it was taken by one of my men, and you can see on the video that your sister she was obviously still in the car when it hit!"

Rueben Moore questioned angrily, "She was in the car at the time of the crash, and she disappeared when she crashed down the valley, so I'm asking you to answer me, where the hell did she go?"

Hashimoto Konen-sen's voice was all a bit desperate as he said, "She... She should be dead... There's no way anyone could have survived at that height!"

Rueben questioned, "If she dies, will the corpse walk on its own?!"

Hashimoto Konohan fidgeted and said, "This... I don't know about this either..."

Rueben growled, "So that's only one possibility, she must have escaped! I don't care how you do it, just find her and kill her now! Otherwise if this is revealed, we'll both be finished!"

Chapter 2073

Charlie Wade and Nanako flew in a helicopter for about thirty minutes before they approached West Domo County.

As Nanako's ninjas were still tracking Jasmine's whereabouts, a large number of police forces from the Tokyo Police Department were also searching near the site of the incident.

So, Charlie Wade had the helicopter land in a relatively flat place on the top of a mountain about five kilometers away from the incident site.

A distance of five kilometers would temporarily avoid the police department's search, while not being too far away from Jasmine.

After all, she wouldn't be able to walk too fast in the deep mountains on her feet, and it was estimated that she would have walked at most five kilometers since the incident.

Therefore, even if the helicopter that Charlie Wade was riding in was unlucky and landed completely in the opposite direction, the maximum straight line distance between him and Jasmine would not exceed ten kilometers.

Still putting more than two thousand meters to the top of the mountain, the weather was bitterly cold, and Charlie Wade was standing on top of a boulder at the top of the mountain with anxiety in his heart.

The pills he gave Jasmine could save her once, but not twice, and if she was met by criminals again, or if she ran into any danger in the mountain, he was afraid that he wouldn't be able to help her.

At the side, Nanako, seeing Charlie Wade's burning expression, immediately pulled out her phone and prepared to call the ninja she had sent out to inquire about the situation.

At that moment, her phone happened to vibrate, and the one who called her was the ninja headed by the Ito family.

Nanako hurriedly answered the phone and asked, "How's the situation? Have you found out where Miss Moore is?"

The other party immediately said: "Back to Missy, we have found Miss Moore's whereabouts, she is at the site of the incident, about four kilometers northeast of the valley, we just nearest to her, a straight line distance of about 500 meters, but I found Miss Moore's condition is still good, so I did not disturb her, because there is no signal at the top of the mountain, so I went up to the first Halfway called you for instructions, and the others are secretly trailing and protecting her."

Nanako was relieved and said off the top of her head, "That's great!"

Charlie Wade then hurriedly asked after her, "Does Jasmine have a whereabouts?"

Nanako nodded heavily and said to Charlie Wade, "Charlie Wade! My men have found Jasmine, she is now traveling to the northeast, she seems to be in good shape, my men are about five or six hundred meters away from her, they haven't alerted her yet, and have called me specifically for advice, what do you think we should do?"

As soon as Charlie Wade heard this, a stone in his heart fell to the ground.

Coming to Japan in the middle of the night, the only thing he was looking forward to was hearing the news that Jasmine was safe and sound.

So, he immediately said to Nanako, "Nanako, please have your people give a specific location, we're on our way!"

.....

In the valley.

Jasmine was still struggling to move forward.

Since her cell phone had no signal, she couldn't use positioning either, and she herself couldn't figure out how far she had gone.

However, Jasmine was very smart and had been relying on the North Star in the sky to discern her direction.

The North Star was a star in the northern part of the sky, and due to its unique movement pattern, the star was almost immobile from the northern hemisphere.

It is because Polaris remains motionless in the northern part of the sky that it is able to provide the most basic navigation of location.

When one finds the North Star, one can find the North, and when one is facing the North, behind him is the South, while the right-hand direction is the East and the left-hand direction is the West.

In this way, Jasmine was able to ensure that he had been heading northeast, rather than aimlessly and muddledly going back and forth in the valley.

When lost in the mountains, if there was no way to discern the direction, then one would often go in circles without realizing it.

Jasmine wanted to walk as far away from the scene of the incident as possible, and wait for a safe enough distance before climbing up and finding a cell phone signal to call the police for help.

However, she didn't know at this point that she was surrounded by 10 top ninjas.

Fortunately, these ninjas were all sent out by Nanako, and they didn't have any malice towards Jasmine, otherwise, Jasmine was afraid that even if she had the Rejuvenation Pill in her hand, she would be in mortal danger.

And at this time, she was even more unaware that Charlie Wade, whom she was thinking of, had already arrived in Tokyo and was marching fast towards her in the darkness!

Charlie Wade's strength was extraordinary, even if he didn't rely on helicopters, he was able to run fast and walk like a man in this kind of place.

Chapter 2074

However, Nanako and the others were completely unable to keep up with his kind of pace, so they could only wait in place for Charlie Wade's announcement.

Charlie Wade didn't want to directly take a helicopter to pick up Jasmine, because that would probably disturb the others who were searching for her whereabouts.

Therefore, it would be more reliable to rely on his own legs.

It was good that Charlie Wade was not that far away from Jasmine, it was almost two or three kilometers from the positioning.

So, after half an hour of speeding, Jasmine had appeared in Charlie Wade's sight.

At this time, Jasmine was climbing upwards from the bottom of the valley. She felt that she had largely pulled off a safe distance, so she wanted to climb upwards and look for a cell phone signal, then first report to Charlie Wade and her family.

At this time, Jasmine, in her heart, could not help but worry: "If Charlie Wade is talking about the voice I sent to him when I had the accident, then he must be very worried about my safety, right? I don't know if there's a heartbeat right now, but I need to call Charlie Wade and let him know I'm still alive!"

Charlie Wade's heart was suddenly excited when he saw her.

When he arrived from Aurouss Hilll, Charlie Wade was most afraid that Jasmine's life would be threatened.

Now seeing her figure with his own eyes made Charlie Wade completely dispel all his previous tensions and worries.

When Jasmine climbed on top of a relatively flat boulder in the middle of the mountain, she pulled out her cell phone, which still showed no signal at this time.

She walked back and forth on the boulder with her mobile phone, and finally caught a cell phone signal.

So, she hurriedly kept still and then opened her messenger at the first opportunity.

Since the network was very poor, her WeChat kept indicating that it was in connection.

After waiting a few minutes, WeChat changed again from being connected, to being receiving.

Although it showed that it was receiving, she didn't even receive a new WeChat.

So, she could only give up on WeChat and call Charlie Wade directly.

Fortunately, the internet, although only one cell and almost difficult to connect to the internet, was a signal that could already sustain her to make the call out!

After the phone rang twice, she heard Charlie Wade's voice, "Jasmine, how are you doing now?"

When Jasmine heard Charlie Wade's voice, she felt as if Charlie Wade was still in her ears, and was so excited inside that she cried out, "Charlie Wade... I..... I'm still alive..."

Charlie Wade softly said, "I know."

Jasmine was now weeping and choked, "Charlie Wade... Thank you... If it wasn't for you, I would definitely be dead by now..."

Charlie Wade looked at Jasmine's back in distress and said softly, "Jasmine, I have to tell you something, you should never be nervous, let alone afraid."

Jasmine hurriedly said, "Charlie Wade you say!"

Charlie Wade said seriously, "Knowing that something happened to you, I've come to Japan."

"Ah?!" Jasmine excitedly asked, "Charlie Wade, you... You've come to Japan?!"

Charlie Wade said, "That's right, I'm in Tokyo."

Jasmine was now extremely happy and moved, crying, "Charlie Wade, you... You've really come to Tokyo to find me?"

Charlie Wade sighed lightly and said, "Jasmine, I was in the West Domo County where you had your accident."

Jasmine was now full of incredulity and exclaimed in shock, "Charlie Wade, how did you know that I was in the West Domo County where I had my accident? Where are you now?"

Charlie Wade said seriously, "Jasmine, I'm now... Right behind you!"

Chapter 2075

The reason why Charlie Wade told Jasmine in a gradual manner was that he was afraid that he would suddenly call out to her, or suddenly tell her that he was right behind her and scare her.

After all, Jasmine had been walking alone in this kind of deep forest for so long, if she suddenly appeared without any psychological preparation, it would definitely scare her to a certain extent.

That's why Charlie Wade chose to guide her in a gradual manner, first letting her know that she had come to Japan, to Tokyo, to Sidomore County, and then telling her that he was right behind her.

And when Jasmine heard Charlie Wade's words, she immediately turned back subconsciously!

Indeed!

She realized that about ten meters behind her, there was a familiar figure standing about a dozen meters away!

That familiar figure was the same Charlie Wade she still thought of in her heart at the critical moment, Charlie Wade!

Jasmine's heart was almost thrilled to the point of ecstasy!

She never dared to dream that Charlie Wade would actually suddenly appear here!

At this moment, Jasmine's heart was completely filled with emotion and happiness!

She choked in her heart, "Charlie Wade! You actually came to save me... At such a late hour, at such a distance, you actually appeared in front of me within a few hours! It's like that supreme jewel in the movie with the colorful clouds on his feet! To think that my position in his heart must be very important..."

Thinking of this, her entire body had been completely immersed in extreme emotion, and she cried out, "Charlie Wade!"

After saying that, he ran towards Charlie Wade in stride!

Charlie Wade was afraid that she would fall down on the mountain road and hurriedly took two steps quickly as well.

As soon as she reached the front, Jasmine suddenly threw herself into Charlie Wade's arms and cried out, "Charlie Wade... I'm not dreaming, am I? Is that really you? You've really come to save me..."

Charlie Wade gently patted her back and comforted her, "You're not dreaming, it's really me, I've come to save you!"

Jasmine suddenly cried pear-shaped tears and sobbed, "Charlie Wade, I thought I would never see you again in my life..."

Charlie Wade asked her, "Did you take the pill I gave you?"

Jasmine nodded her head like garlic, hugged Charlie Wade tightly and said on his shoulder, "I've been obediently listening to you and carrying that medicine close to my body, after the car I was riding in fell off the cliff, I took that medicine at the first opportunity, thanks to that medicine, otherwise, you might have been unable to see me..."

Charlie Wade sighed lightly and said, "The reason I gave you that medicine in the first place was so that you could use it in case of an emergency, but I never expected that you would actually use it, but today it's a life saver!"

Jasmine choked with gratitude, "Charlie Wade, the greatest luck in my life is to have known you... If it wasn't for you, I might have been long gone... I will never be able to repay your great kindness in my life..."

Jasmine's heart had always been very grateful to Charlie Wade.

Thinking back to the time when her room had accidentally formed a feng shui bureau of a trapped dragon formation due to a misunderstanding, her entire fortune was rapidly depleted and had even endangered her life. If Charlie Wade hadn't defused it in time, she might have already died of an accident.

Not to mention, Charlie Wade had helped her step by step to sit on the Moore family's headship.

Today, she encountered such a great death crisis in Japan, and it was also entirely thanks to the medicine that Charlie Wade gave her that she was able to turn the danger into safety.

Now, Charlie Wade had even travelled thousands of miles and nights to come to the deep mountains of Japan to save her, this kindness had already made Jasmine tears of gratitude.

In addition, she deeply loved Charlie Wade in her heart, so at this moment, she regarded Charlie Wade as a beloved person more important than her own life.

Chapter 2076

Jasmine even had a thought that sprouted within her, she felt, "From today onwards, I, Jasmine, am willing to do anything for Charlie Wade, even if Charlie Wade lets me die immediately, I will willingly die for him and have no complaints whatsoever!"

Charlie Wade didn't know Jasmine's inner activities at this time, he just kept comforting her with a gentle tone: "Jasmine, between you and me, there's no need to say thank you, let alone say any great kindness, you're my friend, it's only right and proper for me to save you, not to mention that you're in Japan, even if you're in the middle of a mountain of fire and knives, I, Charlie Wade, will never say anything."

Charlie Wade was expressing his steadfastness towards his friend and friendship to Jasmine, but he never expected that to Jasmine's ears, these words would become the most touching expression of emotion in the world!

At this moment, she even loved Charlie Wade to the bone, and was even willing to just hold him tightly and rub her entire body into his bones. Her heart was filled with love and emotion for Charlie Wade, and as her brain heated up, she immediately stood on tiptoe and took the initiative to kiss Charlie Wade's lips.

This was the second time Jasmine had kissed Charlie Wade.

It was also the second time in her life that she kissed.

Her lips were cold and still had a faint salty taste from her tears, making Charlie Wade's heart ache all of a sudden.

Jasmine kissed Charlie Wade and her hands also hugged him tighter.

At this moment, how much she longed for time to stop here, to be able to let herself and the man she loved stay in this beautiful moment forever.

Even if this life came to an abrupt end, she was already satisfied.

Unfortunately, reality is not a fairy tale.

While she was immersed in the kiss, the sound of a helicopter whistling came from the valley not far away.

Charlie Wade hurriedly turned his head to look, and in the sky, three helicopters were coming in formation.

At the nose of the helicopter, three high power searchlights were shining back and forth in the valley.

Charlie Wade hurriedly said to her, "We can't stay here for long, now all the police in Tokyo are looking for you."

Jasmine hurriedly said, "Charlie Wade, the police are looking for me just in time for me to call the police!"

Charlie Wade's brow creased slightly as he asked her, "Are you going to call the police?"

"Right!" Jasmine cut to the chase and said, "The truck that hit me was obviously premeditated, and it was meant to kill me!"

Saying that, Jasmine said with red eyes, incomparably angry and sad,

"These bastards, if they want to kill me, just come straight at me, but they prefer to implicate the innocent, my two assistants, and the driver I have, all of them..."

When she said this, Jasmine suddenly couldn't control her emotions again, choking with incomparable sadness, "Clarice and Dee have been with me for so long, they have been reserved, accompanying me to Japan on a business trip on New Year's Eve, and I was planning to bring them to have a good time in Tokyo, but I didn't expect... I didn't expect them..."

At this point, Jasmine could no longer continue and cried out in sorrow.

Charlie Wade hurriedly comforted her, "Jasmine, don't worry, they won't all die in vain!"

Jasmine nodded heavily, wiped away her tears, and said resolutely, "So I'm going to call the police, have the police catch those behind it, bring them to justice, and avenge Clarice and the three of them!" Charlie Wade shook his head and said seriously, "You're not familiar with life in Tokyo, calling the police won't serve any purpose, but instead you might alert the snakes."

Jasmine hurriedly asked, "Charlie Wade, then what you mean is that you won't call the police?"

"Right!" Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Jasmine, we still don't know whether it's someone in Japan who wants you dead or someone at home, so calling the police in Japan won't solve anything, if you trust me, let me handle this matter, I'll find out what happened and give you, and the three people who died, an explanation! "

Chapter 2077

When Jasmine heard Charlie Wade's words, without any thought at all, she cut him off and said, "Charlie Wade, I'll listen to you!"

Charlie Wade nodded and said seriously, "It's still more or less relevant in Japan, I'll bring you to my friend's house first later, during this period you should not contact with anyone, including your grandfather and your other family members, until this matter is investigated to the bottom of the matter."

Jasmine was surprised and asked, "Charlie Wade, can't I tell my grandfather? He must be very worried about me right now, and if I've been unaccounted for, I'm afraid he'll be overly worried and affect his body..." Charlie Wade smiled slightly and comforted, "Don't worry about that, your grandfather has taken the Rejuvenation Pill, so his body will never be affected, and don't forget that the Rejuvenation Pill I gave you on your birthday before is also in his old man's hand, with this Pill in his hand, he will never have any problems."

Saying that, Charlie Wade further explained, "The vast majority of secrets are leaked from the person's own mouth, the real secret should be known by as few people as possible, it's best if no one but yourself knows about it, otherwise, once the secret is known by others, it's hard to make sure that it won't be known by more people."

Although Jasmine's expression was struggling a bit, she quickly raised her head and looked at Charlie Wade seriously, "Okay Charlie Wade, then I won't tell anyone yet."

Charlie Wade nodded and asked her, "You didn't contact your grandfather and the rest of your family just now, did you?"

"No..." Jasmine hurriedly said, "My phone just got a signal, and I immediately contacted you, Charlie Wade, I originally wanted to contact you and then contact my grandfather, but I haven't done so yet."

Charlie Wade hurriedly said, "Then quickly turn off your phone, not only do you not receive any calls, but also do not use WeChat and any other communication software."

Jasmine said good-naturedly, "Okay Charlie Wade, I'll turn off the phone."

Saying that, she immediately pressed and long-pressed the power button to turn off her phone that had a shattered screen.

Immediately, she remembered something and looked at Charlie Wade with a puzzled face and asked, "Charlie Wade, how on earth did you find me in this deep forest?"

Charlie Wade said truthfully, "The eldest lady of the Ito family in Japan is my friend, after your accident I asked her to help me find your whereabouts, she sent some Japanese ninja experts, the legendary ninjas, to the mountains of West Domo County to look for clues related to you." "They found the commercial vehicle where you had your accident, and then followed you all the way here, chasing you, and I rushed over after I got your location."

Jasmine exclaimed, "Huh?! A ninja? Charlie Wade, are you saying that ninjas really exist in this world?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "The ninja is actually no big deal, he's like our Chinese martial arts experts, he's all real."

Jasmine nodded in sudden realization, then remembered something and exclaimed, "They have been secretly tracking me, does that mean that they are also secretly observing us now?"

"Uh... This..."

Charlie Wade laughed somewhat awkwardly and said, "You're right, they have indeed been secretly following."

Jasmine was bashful, "That... That..... Then what we just did, they... Did they see it all?"

Charlie Wade helplessly shrugged his shoulders, "Definitely saw it..."

Jasmine was embarrassed and shyly lowered her head and snapped, "Charlie Wade... You.... Why didn't you remind me... This is too humiliating..."

Charlie Wade spread out his hands and said with an innocent face, "Jasmine... I can't be blamed for this, I didn't know you would suddenly jump over... I was also blank at the time..."

Hearing him say that, Jasmine recalled the scene just now when she took the initiative to jump into Charlie Wade's arms and kiss his lips, her face became more and more red, so she could only shyly whisper, "Oh my... Let's not talk about that... Charlie Wade, where are we going now?"

Chapter 2078

Charlie Wade said, "Let's go to Miss Ito's mansion for a while to hide out and wait and see what happens."

.....

At this moment, Nanako was still waiting in the same spot.

After all, her skills were much, much worse than Charlie Wade's, so it was impossible for her to keep up with Charlie Wade's running pace, so she simply waited in the same spot.

Since there were people from the Tokyo Police Department searching several mountains around her, and there were often police helicopters in the sky patrolling back and forth, she had her helicopter turn off its engine and quietly waited for news of Charlie Wade.

At that moment, the head ninja under her command sent her a message, "My lady, Mr. Wade has found that Miss Moore."

Nanako was relieved, and her fingertips kept tapping on the screen, replying, "That's good, ask Charlie Wade what he plans to do next."

The other party sent an awkward look and said, "Miss... Mr. Wade and Miss Moore were hugging and kissing, so we're too embarrassed to come forward and dawdle ah..."

When Nanako heard this, her entire body went rigid.

Immediately afterwards, her heart also immediately swelled with jealousy. In her sour heart, she secretly thought, "Originally, I also thought that Charlie Wade was a married man after all, and even if I loved him, I couldn't go and destroy his relationship and family..."

"But, I never thought that Charlie Wade and that Jasmine would even embrace and kiss... Could it be that Jasmine is Charlie Wade's extramarital love interest? Or, to put it more bluntly, is Jasmine the lover of Charlie Wade?"

"If Jasmine can be Charlie Wade's lover, then why can't I..."

"I also love Charlie Wade from the bottom of my heart, so why can't I be like Jasmine and be Charlie Wade's lover?"

"Although I don't despise being a third party, if Charlie Wade is willing to give me this chance, I'm willing to hide in the shadows for the rest of my life and be his underground lover..."

"After all, I love him more than anything, fame and reputation are all worthless in front of him..."

Just as she was thinking nonsensically, her phone suddenly vibrated, it was a call from Charlie Wade.

She hurriedly answered the phone, her voice somewhat panicked and unnatural, "Uh... Wade..... Charlie Wade... You..... You've met with Miss Moore?"

Charlie Wade spoke up, "Yes, we found her."

Nanako was busy asking, "Is Miss Moore okay?"

Charlie Wade said, "She's quite good, Nanako, I'm calling you because I want to discuss the next arrangements with you."

Nanako hurriedly said, "Charlie Wade, everything will be at your disposal next, and the entire Ito family's power will be invoked with you!"

Charlie Wade earnestly said, "I'm really thankful Nanako, my current plan is to have the helicopter come over first and bring Jasmine to your mansion so that she can stay at your house for the time being, but you must keep this matter strictly confidential and never leak it out."

Nanako Ito said without thinking, "No problem, Charlie Wade, wait for a moment, I'll be over to pick you up!"

Chapter 2079

When Charlie Wade and Jasmine were together, taking the Ito family's helicopter back to downtown Tokyo, Rueben was in the Tokyo Police Department, already somewhat unable to sit still.

He was incomparably nervous at this time, and surmised, "Jasmine is still alive or dead, and has not found any whereabouts for several hours, and if we delay any longer, it will be dawn, and if we still can't find her then, then this matter will be really tricky!"

"Jasmine's corpse should have stayed honestly in that commercial vehicle, but instead, she has mysteriously disappeared and disappeared into the vast mountains, is she now dead or alive?"

Rueben was very worried because he was afraid that Jasmine wasn't dead. Because, as long as Jasmine didn't die, then the lie that New Nippon Steel's Vice Mr. Hashimoto Konzen had concocted to Jasmine before would be completely debunked.

After all, this matter is Hashimoto Konzen's own initiative, on the one hand, to seek more profit space for Nippon Steel, but also for his own personal interests.

That's why he had cooperated with Rueben to deceive Jasmine, saying that she was told to go to West Domo County to find the chairman of the board to sign the contract, but in fact, the chairman of New Nippon Steel didn't even know about it.

If Jasmine was still alive, as soon as the police asked her why she had gone to West Domo County, it would be a complete shambles.

At that time, the Japanese police would definitely arrest Hashimoto Konzen at the first opportunity.

The police will then arrest Hashimoto for murder, one of the most serious crimes in Japan, and with three people dead, Hashimoto will not hesitate to betray Moore.

At that time, the murder of Jasmine by her father and son will be revealed to the world.

At this moment, Hashimoto is also pacing nervously in his own home. The members of the team responsible for assassinating Jasmine were standing in front of him.

These people are standing side by side in front of the sofa, one by one, with their heads down, not daring to look at Hashimoto Konzen.

Hashimoto had just made a phone call to a friend from the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department, asking for an update on the latest developments.

After learning that Jasmine's fate was still unknown, he was as nervous as Rueben.

He knew very well that if Jasmine was still alive, he would be the first to suffer bad luck!

So, he angrily walked up to these people and smacked them one by one directly with his big mouth, cursing furiously, "You bunch of idiot! Rubbish! What's the use of raising you? Such a simple thing can't be done!"

Several people you look at me, I look at you, no one dared to open their mouths to pick up the fight.

Hashimoto Kensen saw them all silent, even more angry gnashing of teeth: "A bunch of trash! You can't even kill a woman! You've caused me so much trouble! If I'm fucking exposed, none of you will escape!"

.....

Twenty minutes later.

The helicopter slowly landed in the courtyard of the Ito family's mansion.

Ito Yuuhiko, who had lost both his legs, was pushed by his sister Ito Emi and was already waiting in the courtyard.

As soon as the helicopter landed, Ito Emi immediately pushed Ito Yuuhiko to the outside of the cabin.

Charlie Wade just happened to be one step ahead of the helicopter at this time and reached out to assist Jasmine down as well.

Nanako followed behind Jasmine to get off the plane, seeing that Charlie Wade reached out to help Jasmine down, her heart was slightly jealous, but more envious.

Chapter 2080

At the moment when she was slightly lost in thought, Charlie Wade, who was below the helicopter, reached out his hand to her again.

Nanako did not expect that Charlie Wade would still assist her in getting off the plane, and her heart was suddenly as sweet as honey.

Although she was already an expert and had taken the rejuvenation pills, which had increased her strength by a large amount, she was still a small woman at heart, and seeing Charlie Wade so gentlemanly and considerate, she immediately, slightly shyly, handed over her hand and gently said, "Thank you, Charlie Wade."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said indifferently, "It's fine, it should be."

At this time, Ito Yuuhiko was pushed over by Ito Emi, and he said in a somewhat excited tone, "Mr. Wade, I didn't expect us to meet so soon!"

Charlie Wade smiled bitterly, "Yes, I didn't expect to meet again so soon, how is Mr. Ito doing?"

Ito Yuuhiko folded his hands and said respectfully, "Back to Mr. Wade, I've been doing well recently, it's just that since the injury, my health has not been too good, often cold and flu, weak night sweats, it just so happens that these days Tokyo cooled down, so I originally planned to go to the Maldives beach in the past two days to recuperate for a period of time, I did not expect you to suddenly come. "

Charlie Wade nodded and pointed at Jasmine and said, "Mr. Ito, let me introduce you, this is my good friend, Miss Jasmine, the chairman of the Moore Clan, Miss Moore is in a bit of trouble, so I'm here for her this time."

Ito Yuhiko looked at Jasmine and said very politely, "Hello Miss Moore, I'm Ito Yuhiko, Mr. Wade is a guest of the Ito family, you are his friend, so naturally you are one of the guests of the Ito family, welcome to the house."

Jasmine was also very polite and bowed slightly, "Thank you Mr. Ito!"

At this time, Jasmine was very surprised deep inside.

She knew very well what the Ito family's status was in Japan.

In Japan, the most powerful family was the Ito Family.

Other than the Ito Family, the rest were the big clans made up of a few families, but the Ito Family's strength was no less powerful even when compared to those big clans.

Unexpectedly, Ito Family's Ito Yuuhiko was so respectful and polite to Charlie Wade, which made her even more shocked at Charlie Wade's strength.

Ito Yuuhiko was now slandering in his heart, "This Jasmine, looks like she's not inferior to my daughter in terms of looks, figure, and temperament, she's definitely among the top beauties, she's so close to Charlie Wade, could it be that there's some unknown deeper relationship between her and Charlie Wade? If that's the case, then my daughter's chances with Charlie Wade are even smaller!"

Just as he was lamenting in his heart, his sister Ito Emi hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade, it's quite cold outside, let's go inside and talk."

Only then did Ito Yuuhiko come back to his senses and hurriedly said,

"Yes, yes, yes! Hurry up and go in and talk, go in and have the vegetables prepare a tea ceremony to serve the two of you while I have the cook prepare some breakfast."

Inside the Japanese style parlor.

Charlie Wade and Jasmine sat next to each other on the floor.

Nanako, on the other hand, was kneeling at one end of the tea table, elegantly and nonchalantly making tea for everyone.

Charlie Wade then opened his mouth and asked Jasmine, "Jasmine, what happened to you last night? Can you tell me more about it?"

Ito Yuhiko was also in a hurry to speak at this time, "Miss Moore, I'm still considered to have some energy in Japan, you might as well tell us what happened, I'm sure I, as well as the entire Ito family, can help you!"

Jasmine bowed slightly, "Thank you, Charlie Wade, Mr. Ito, and Miss Ito."

Only after thanking her did Jasmine continue, "I came to Japan this time to enter into a strategic partnership with Nippon Steel, and I talked repeatedly with their vice president for several rounds until last night, when their chairman decided to meet me and sign a contract with me..."

"Since their chairman was in West Domo County, I took a car over there overnight, but I didn't expect to be suddenly hit by a car on the road and run into a cliff..."

Yuuhiko Ito frowned and spoke, "Things are a bit strange, the chairman of Nippon Steel and I have a deep friendship, and according to his style, he shouldn't be looking for you to sign a contract in the middle of the night, and even if he did, he wouldn't call you to West Domo County, because his mansion is close to me, just a few minutes away, and he came to visit me at the mansion after dinner yesterday! "

Chapter 2081

Ito Yuuhiko's words made Charlie Wade suddenly alert.

He opened his mouth and asked, "Mr. Ito, are you well acquainted with that chairman of New Nippon Steel?"

"Yes!" Ito Yuhiko said very seriously, "The chairman of New Nippon Steel is named Watanabe Shinwa, and he is very close to me."

Charlie Wade nodded and spoke, "Then please ask him if he's going to cooperate with a Chinese company to build a factory recently, and if so, ask him which one he's cooperating with and if it's set."

Ito Yuhiko said instantly, "Okay Mr. Wade, I'll ask him right now."

Jasmine hurriedly asked Charlie Wade, "Charlie Wade, are you thinking that there is something wrong with Mr. Watanabe?"

Charlie Wade shook his head, "One is this Watanabe Shinwa and the other is the vice chairman who asked you to meet Watanabe Shinwa, both of them are suspicious, but I'm still not sure who is in trouble, and I can't rule out that they're both fine or both."

Jasmine nodded lightly and didn't say anything more.

This was because, in her heart, she was also very clear that this matter was far beyond her control, and since Charlie Wade had already come to Japan for himself, she was completely at his disposal for everything.

As soon as Ito Yuuhiko heard that there might be a problem, he hurriedly patted his chest and said, "Mr. Wade, I am very familiar with Watanabe Shinwa, he is a person who, although his business tactics are slightly cunning, he is still a very honest person, I believe that he should have nothing to do with the matter of murdering Miss Moore."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly, "Mr. Ito, it's not that I don't trust you, but this matter is related to multiple lives, so it's better to be more cautious, please ask this Watanabe Shinwa for me, and also please try to be more natural when you ask, so that he won't hear what you mean."

Ito Yuuhiko nodded and immediately pulled out his phone, finding Watanabe Shinwa's number and calling it.

The call was quickly answered, and a lazy voice came out, "Hey, Ito, what are you calling so early for, you bastard?"

Yuuhiko Ito laughed and said, "Where are you now, Watanabe?"

Shinwa Watanabe yawned, "I'm sleeping, where else would I be! What do you want? Let me sleep a little longer if there's nothing important..."

Ito Yuhiko then said, "I heard you're working with a Chinese company? Is there any firm that you're interested in?"

Watanabe Shinwa asked curiously, "What? You're going into the steel business too?"

Yuuhiko Ito said, "No no, I'm just asking, it just so happens that I also know some friends in China, so if you haven't decided on a partnership on your side, I might be able to help you with the matchmaking."

Shinwa Watanabe said, "We have indeed thought about it, and we do seem to be connecting with some powerful Chinese companies lately, but I'll leave that to Hashimoto."

Yuuhiko Ito asked, "Hashimoto? It's Hashimoto Konzen, right?"

"Yes." Watanabe Shinwa said with a smile, "Speaking from the bottom of my heart, this kind of cooperation to build a factory isn't too big a business for the whole Nippon Steel, I usually don't directly ask, but if you have a friend who wants to cooperate, then I can sell you a face."

Ito Yuhiko smiled, "I'll thank you in advance then, but has Hashimoto's side decided on a partner ah? If he already has a definite candidate on his side, I'm afraid it's not appropriate for my side to suddenly step across the line."

Watanabe Shinwa said indifferently, "You don't need to worry about whether Hashimoto's side is suitable or not, he's just a senior worker, if I don't ask about anything, he'll make the decisions, but if I ask, he'll only take orders."

Ito Yuuhiko laughed, "Okay, I know, I'll ask my friend about it, I'll contact you if I need to."

Shinwa Watanabe then said, "You don't have anything else, do you? If there's nothing else, I'll hang up and go back to sleep!"

"Okay, you sleep!"

When he hung up the phone, Ito Yuhiko said to Charlie Wade, "Mr. Wade, it seems that Watanabe really doesn't know about this, he didn't even ask Miss Moore about the collaboration between Miss Moore and Hashimoto Konen, so how could he be involved in murdering Miss Moore?"

Chapter 2082

Charlie Wade nodded slightly and looked to the side at Jasmine, "Was it that Hashimoto Kon first who called you and asked you to sign with the chairman yesterday?"

Jasmine said firmly, "That's right, it was Hashimoto Konzen who called me and asked me to go to West Domo County to sign a contract with the chairman."

Charlie Wade snorted coldly between his nose, "It seems that the problem lies with this Hashimoto Konzen, he must have deliberately tricked you into going to West Domo County and then set up an ambush on the mountain road in West Domo County."

Jasmine was very confused and asked, "Charlie Wade, I don't understand why Hashimoto Konzen would want to harm me? Why would he design to put me to death when I have no grudge against him and have never even had any previous interaction with him?"

Charlie Wade coldly said, "Many perpetrators and victims are also not acquainted with each other, what really drives him to murder each other is mostly profit, it must be beneficial to kill you, that's why he did it."

Jasmine was even more surprised and asked, "I really can't think of any benefit to him if I die? He won't get anything out of it!"

Charlie Wade looked at Jasmine and said seriously, "It might be hard for him to gain any benefits directly after you die, but the key is to see if there's anyone to give him benefits after you die!"

Jasmine's expression tightened, "Charlie Wade... You..... What you mean is... Someone hired him to kill me?!"

Charlie Wade nodded his head firmly, "I think it should be!"

Jasmine was suddenly a little nervous and at the same time a little confused, her mouth slurred as she said, "But... But..... But this doesn't make sense... I've never usually offended anyone, so who would it benefit if I died?"

Charlie Wade looked at her and smiled but didn't say anything, this was because he already had an answer in his mind at this time.

He felt that the person behind this matter was most likely Rueben and his father Theodore.

The Moore family's situation was very well understood by Charlie Wade. Jasmine's parents had died early, and there were still several uncles and uncles in the family.

Among them, Rueben's father, Theodore, was the most influential.

Because he was the eldest son, he was also the old man's originally set successor.

So, when it came to Jasmine's generation, Rueben was naturally the one with the most influence.

And because Jasmine had no parents and was alone, she hadn't been very influential.

It was also fortunate that Master Moore took care of her and cared for her, so she could still enjoy the treatment of a big sister even if her parents were gone.

In case Master Moore is the kind of old feudal man who prefers men to women, and Jasmine is without her parents, she would have been treated as a marriage tool by the Moore family and married to a rich young man from a big family as a wife.

However, ever since Jasmine met Charlie Wade, her status in the Moore family has risen sharply.

When Moore old man was on the verge of death, it was Jasmine who asked Charlie Wade to pull him back from hell, and then Charlie Wade also gave the old man a rejuvenation pill for Jasmine's sake, so that he could regain his health and be twenty years younger.

So, when Charlie Wade gave the rejuvenation pill to Jasmine as a birthday gift on her birthday, the old master Moore was so excited that he simply passed on the position of head of the family to Jasmine as well.

In this way, Jasmine suddenly became the most powerful one in the Moore family, while the power and influence of Rueben's father and son shrank dramatically in comparison.

Under such circumstances, Rueben and his son must have been very dissatisfied with Jasmine.

Once the discontent kept piling up in their hearts, it would seem logical that the idea of murdering Jasmine would arise over time!

Chapter 2083

Jasmine really couldn't think of who wanted her life.

Although the shadows of Rueben and Theodore flashed in her mind, she immediately dismissed the thought.

She felt that Rueben had grown up with her since childhood and treated her like her own sister, so it was impossible for him to have evil intentions towards her.

It wasn't that Jasmine was so simple or foolish, but she felt that affection was priceless, and she shouldn't have doubted her cousin as well as her uncle.

Charlie Wade could see that she didn't suspect Rueben, so it was just a slapdash point of view on the topic.

He was also only suspicious of Rueben now, and there was no need to go into too much detail with Jasmine until he found definitive evidence.

So, he said to Jasmine, "For these two days, Jasmine, you will temporarily stay at Mr. Ito's house, or as I said, don't contact anyone, let alone let anyone know that you are still alive, I will investigate who exactly wants to harm you."

Jasmine nodded gently and said respectfully, "Charlie Wade, I will listen to your arrangements for everything."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly, "You haven't slept all night, let Miss Ito arrange a room for you to rest after dinner later."

Nanako hurriedly said, "Miss Moore, what style of room do you like? Is it a Japanese-style tatami or a European-style soft bed? I'll get the servants ready to come out ahead of time!"

Jasmine busily said, "Miss Ito is too kind, I'll do anything."

Nanako smiled sweetly and said, "In that case, I'll arrange a Japanese harmony room for you, it's a way of getting into the countryside."

Jasmine said politely, "Then thank you, Miss Ito!"

Ito Nachiko said seriously, "Miss Moore is a good friend of Charlie Wade, and when she comes to the Ito family, she treats this place as if it were her home."

Saying that, Nanako said with some regret, "Miss Moore came to Tokyo, it is reasonable that I should accompany you to have a good stroll, but Charlie Wade doesn't allow you to show your face, so this time I will have to beg you to stay at home, after the matter is settled, I will take you for a good stroll again!"

Jasmine didn't expect that Nanako, as the Eldest Miss of the Ito Family, who was much more valuable and had a much stronger background than herself, would be so polite to her, and was a little flattered for a moment.

However, she quickly realized a very realistic problem in her heart and secretly thought, "I've never met Miss Ito before, isn't she treating me so politely because of Charlie Wade's face? I can only say that Charlie Wade is too capable and too proud..."

While Jasmine was lamenting in the bottom of her heart, Nanako had already prepared the matcha tea in the Japanese tea ceremony, and she was the first one to bring the cup to Charlie Wade, and with some respect and some shyness, she said, "Enjoy your tea, Charlie Wade!"

Charlie Wade nodded slightly and smiled, "Thank you Nanako."

Saying that, he extended his hand to receive the cup of tea.

Nanako brought another cup as she did the same, and handed it to Jasmine. Jasmine found that while Nanako was very polite and courteous when she was serving tea to herself, her eyes were a little less bright than when she was serving tea to Charlie Wade.

The same woman, Jasmine couldn't be clearer, Nanako faced Charlie Wade was, what those few lights in her eyes meant.

If a woman, when looking at a man, had a different kind of light in her eyes, then that man must be the love of her heart.

Because, the light in the eyes was the radiance of love.

Her heart was suddenly a little sad.

The sadness was because, Charlie Wade's side, there always seemed to be no shortage of women who liked him.

Chapter 2084

Moreover, those women who liked him were all tops excellent.

Not to mention the Nanako Ito in front of her, just the Aurouss Hilll, the Aurora of the Quinton family, and Xyla beside Divine Doctor Simmons, which one was not the one most beautiful woman on earth?

But who couldn't see that they were both exceptionally devoted to Charlie Wade?

Thinking of this, the way she looked at Charlie Wade's eyes was more or less grudging, at the same time, her heart was also lamenting, "You bad guy, I really don't know how many women you have provoked outside, there are so many women who love you, so many love debts, I don't see how you'll be able to pay them off in the future..."

At this time, Ito Yuhiko, who was on the side, opened his mouth to say to Jasmine in order to please Charlie Wade, "Miss Moore, you also know about my relationship with the chairman of New Nippon Steel, Watanabe Shinwa, after this matter is investigated to the bottom and the murderer is severely punished, if you still need to cooperate with New Nippon Steel, I can help you matchmaking, and I will definitely help you fight for the best terms of cooperation then. "

Jasmine said gratefully, "I am really thankful to you Mr. Ito..."

Ito Yuhiko said seriously, "Miss Moore, Mr. Wade has helped my Ito family so much, I can say that if it wasn't for Mr. Wade's help in the beginning, my Ito family would have probably met the end of the line!"

Speaking of which, Yuuhiko Ito sighed, "Mr. Wade has been so gracious to us, you are his friend, that is, my Ito family's friend, helping friends is what we should do."

After the Matsumoto family had been wiped out for kidnapping a pair of children from the Banks Familyy, Yuuhiko Ito had often lamented his good fortune.

In the beginning, the Matsumoto family was going to kill the Banks Familyy's children and then frame their own family, but if it wasn't for Charlie Wade, it would have been the Ito family that would have been wiped out.

Not to mention, Charlie Wade had also saved Nanako, so Ito Yuuhiko paid extremely high attention to him.

Seeing that Jasmine was his friend, he was naturally willing to give Charlie Wade face and help Jasmine.

This was something that Charlie Wade, who was on the side, could also see in his eyes.

He couldn't help but say in his heart, "I didn't expect that after Ito Yuuhiko's injury, not only has his temper changed quite a bit, but he has also made considerable progress in doing things."

.....

After breakfast.

Jasmine, who hadn't rested throughout the night, followed Nanako to the Ito family's guest room.

Although she had taken the pills given to her by Charlie Wade and was in good physical condition, the mental fatigue caused by high tension was not something that the pills could solve.

Therefore, she lay down on the Japanese style tatami mats and fell asleep shortly afterwards.

At this time, Ito Yuhiko also said somewhat apologetically after chatting with Charlie Wade for a while, "Mr. Wade, I'm really sorry, my body has been quite weak since the amputation surgery, I woke up too early today, my state is already a bit unbearable, I'll go back to my room to rest for a while, if you need anything, just let me know, Nanako will be available. "

Charlie Wade nodded slightly and spoke, "Mr. Ito, go ahead."

Yuuhiko Ito arched his hands somewhat weakly and said to Emi Ito, "Emi, walk me back to my room."

Emi Ito was busy, "Hajime, Oni-san!"

Oni-san is the Japanese term for elder brother.

Japanese society was very clear about the superiority of elders, so in front of outsiders, Ito Emi had always been respectful to Ito Yuhiko, like a daughter to her father.

Ito Emi then said to Charlie Wade with a face full of guilt, "Sorry Mr. Wade, Oni-san's body is severely damaged and his vitality is injured, the doctor explained that he needs to rest more, please forgive me..."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Ms. Ito, please take Mr. Ito back to rest, when I'm done with this matter, I'll definitely help Mr. Ito to treat him properly, I may not be able to make his severed limb grow again for the time being, but at least I can let his physical state return to the state before the injury, or even better than then."

Chapter 2085

Nanako, who was making tea beside her, got excited when she heard Charlie Wade's words!

She knew how heavy the weight of Charlie Wade's words were.

At first, her own injuries were also extremely serious, and she didn't even dare to imagine that she would have a chance to heal in this lifetime, but what she didn't expect was that Charlie Wade was able to quickly get rid of all her injuries with just a single pill.

Not only that, there was a tremendous long change and improvement in his own physical quality.

Therefore, Nanako believed that as long as Charlie Wade was willing, he would be able to restore his father's body as well.

Of course, Nanako was also very clear in his heart that Charlie Wade would definitely not be able to revive his father's severed limbs, but he could at least make his father's physical condition recover greatly. That way, apart from losing his legs, his father would at least still be a healthy person.

Instead of being like now, his entire body was sickly, very emaciated and heartbreaking.

Therefore, she almost immediately put down the tea set in her hand, got up and bowed deeply to Charlie Wade and said with gratitude, "Charlie Wade, thank you so much!"

Even Ito Yuuhiko knew what Charlie Wade was capable of!

In the beginning, he had tried everything to find all the experts all over Japan, and there was no one who had any solution to his daughter's injury.

He even thought that his daughter would never be able to leave her wheelchair for the rest of her life, and he even thought that her health might get worse under the effects of that kind of injury.

But never in his wildest dreams did he think that Charlie Wade would be able to help his daughter recover as before.

Not only recovered as before, but also took a big step forward.

This was proof enough that Charlie Wade was a person with great skills and great prowess!

So, he also could not hide his excitement as he bowed with both hands, "Mr. Wade! Your willingness to treat me is truly a great blessing to me, and I will never forget your great kindness!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said seriously, "Mr. Ito doesn't have to be so polite, my style of acting has always been like this, if you respect me a foot, I will definitely respect you a foot!"

As Charlie Wade said, he had always done things with a clear grudge.

It wasn't just that he would repay a grudge, but also a kindness.

For example, Auntie Lewis from the orphanage, she had raised him in his childhood, and even though she was Stephen's worker, he was still grateful to her and was even willing to do anything for her.

Another example is Claire Wilson Wilson, when she was so unlucky, she was willing to marry him, and she didn't mock and insult her like other people, but she was respectful to him, and this is something that Charlie Wade can't forget.

In some cases, it is not even necessary to reach the point of so-called kindness, as long as the other party has enough goodwill towards him, he will return more kindness to the other party.

Mr. White had lost his way and Charlie Wade had gifted him with pills .

Mr. Quinton was so devout that Charlie Wade had gifted his family with two pills.

Don Albertt was loyal and devoted, Charlie Wade had not only gifted him with the earliest basic pills, but had also saved his life with the Rejuvenation Pill.

Jasmine had treated him well in the beginning and had always been respectful to him, so he was willing to wish her good luck in taking the master's position and saving her from an overnight trip to Japan.

This was Charlie Wade's code of conduct.

At this time, what Charlie Wade was thinking was very simple: although Ito Yuuhiko was a bit pretentious before, but since he saved Nanako and helped the Ito family through the crisis, he immediately lost his way, so he could be said to be a very sensible person.

Moreover, this time, he was extremely attentive to the fact that he had come to Japan and the things that Jasmine had encountered, which he did see in his own eyes.

Since he was so upbeat, helping him recover a bit was something within his power to do for himself.

Chapter 2086

After all, the Rejuvenation Pill had quite a few of its own, and it was no longer of much use to him, but it was extremely effective for Ito Yuuhiko.

He wasn't a martial arts practitioner, and he wasn't that old, so if you scraped off a tenth of a Rejuvenation Pill and soaked it in water for him to take, I'm sure it would be able to bring his body back to health quickly.

As for why it wasn't given to him immediately now, it was mainly because he wanted to more or less control the pace in such matters.

There were times when being generous to others was all about rhythm.

While generosity is good, it is also like medicine, which can both heal and hurt.

Just like when injecting a drug, it is important to develop a scientific and reasonable rate of administration based on the drug's properties and the patient's condition.

It is not good to give the medicine too fast.

But it's not good to give too slow!

Giving quickly will often make the other side despise the generosity, and may cause the other side to create a bad mentality.

It can be given slowly, often the other party will also lose patience, the original gratitude will be consumed, replaced by a kind of grumbling and dissatisfaction.

Now this kind of pace is just right, not giving immediately, nor will it drag on for a long time, just wait until you are busy with Jasmine and then give immediately.

This would not only make Ito Yuuhiko grateful, it would also make Ito Yuuhiko spontaneously help out more on this Jasmine matter.

Not only would he be able to help Jasmine figure out the culprit behind it, but he would also be able to help Jasmine facilitate the cooperation with Nippon Steel.

It was likely to help Jasmine turn this crisis into an opportunity.

This way, Jasmine will not only be able to survive the crisis without danger, but she will also be able to find out who is behind it, ensure that everything is safe in the future, and even get a cooperation agreement with very generous terms, which is simply the best of both worlds.

Ito Yuuhiko, Nanako, and Ito Emi, all thanked Charlie Wade very respectfully at this point.

Especially Ito Yuuhiko, while thanking him, his eyes were already red.

When Charlie Wade saw that he was emotional, he smiled at him and said, "Alright Mr. Ito, it's better to quickly go back to rest first, I'll tell you in advance when I'm ready to treat you."

Ito Yuuhiko immediately said excitedly, "Okay Mr. Wade! In any case, I am grateful!"

.....

After Ito Yuuhiko was pushed away by Ito Emi, only Yatsuhito and Ito Nachiko were left in the room.

Nanako took the initiative to move her seat and sat down cross-legged directly opposite Charlie Wade, adding tea for him as she asked with a pretty blush, "What's Charlie Wade's next plan? Should we investigate that Hashimoto Konzen? I can send ninjas over there to covertly monitor him if need be!"

Charlie Wade thought about it and nodded, "That's good, after all I'm not ready to startle the snakes yet, to solve this matter once and for all, not only do I need to find out who's behind it, but I also need to have solid evidence."

Saying that, Charlie Wade added, "If Nanako has ninjas who are trustworthy and competent, let them help me monitor Hashimoto Kon first, I want to see what he does every day, where he goes, who he comes into contact with, and what he comes into contact with."

Nanako immediately nodded and said, "Charlie Wade, don't worry, these are all small things, the ninja can handle them, I'll give them the order."

Charlie Wade thanked her and asked her again, "Nanako, your Ito family, how many ninjas in total can be mobilized now?"

Nanako thought about it and said, "There are about fifteen or sixteen ninjas that can be mobilized, all together."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "By the way, Miss Moore's cousin also came to Tokyo, his name is Rueben, but I don't know what hotel he is staying at in Tokyo, can I trouble you to arrange someone to investigate, after the results of the investigation, then send two ninjas to secretly monitor him as well?"

Nanako asked in surprise, "Charlie Wade, do you suspect that the person behind this is Miss Moore's cousin?"

"Yes!" Charlie Wade said gratefully, "This matter, I'll trouble you to keep an eye on some for me."

Chapter 2087

Noon, in the mountains of West Domo Prefecture.

Excellent weather in Tokyo today.

The sky is clear.

The warm sun hangs high in the sky, spreading warmth and brightness throughout the land.

On such a beautiful day, visibility was also at its best, so it was especially suitable for search and rescue.

The Tokyo Police Department searched all night, but could not find any trace of Jasmine, which made the entire department desperate.

The search area, centered around the scene of the incident, spreads to five kilometers and then ten kilometers, but still nothing is found.

The Police Department decided to extend the search area to twenty kilometers, and if the twenty kilometers could not be searched, then they would have to announce that Jasmine was missing.

This made Rueben very anxious.

What he needed now was to find Jasmine's body as soon as possible, otherwise as long as Jasmine wasn't certain of her death, he wouldn't have peace of mind.

Hashimoto Konzen was also anxious, now that the Tokyo Police Department had highly suspected that Jasmine and her party had been deliberately killed, so they had begun to investigate from the scene.

Although Hashimoto's men, have been very careful to handle the scene, but there is no perfect crime in this world, no matter how careful and cautious, will leave clues.

Once the police find the key clue, they can run through the whole thing.

At that time, from the men who actually carried out the murder to Hashimoto Konzen, who gave the order behind the scenes, no one will be able to escape.

Master Moore, who was far away in Aurouss Hilll, was still distraught over the unknown whereabouts of Jasmine.

He made several phone calls to Rueben one morning, pursuing the progress of the Tokyo Police Department, but the feedback he received from Rueben was that he hadn't found any clues.

This also made the old man's heart grow heavier and heavier.

Although he incomparably hoped that his granddaughter was safe and sound, the lack of any news for so long had prepared his heart for the worst.

He knew that the longer it dragged on, the less chance his granddaughter had of surviving.

So, he hurriedly called Charlie Wade.

As soon as the call came through, he choked with a pleading voice,

"Master Wade, please do something to save Jasmine!"

Saying that, the old man didn't tense up for a moment and actually cried out.

Charlie Wade hurriedly consoled, "Don't be anxious first, Master, I will try my best to help with Jasmine's matter."

Master Moore lamented, "Master Wade, you don't know, Rueben has gone to Japan overnight, but the Japanese side still hasn't found Jasmine's whereabouts, and the three people who were with Jasmine have all died, and Jasmine's life and death are unknown, this... How can I not be anxious about this....."

Charlie Wade originally considered whether or not to tell Master Moore the news that Jasmine was already safe.

But after thinking about it, he still felt that he had to hold this mouth shut, and since he said he wouldn't tell, then he wouldn't tell anyone. Whether it was Master Moore, or any other person who asked, he couldn't reveal half of it himself.

So he said to Master Moore, "Don't worry, Master Moore, I've already informed my friends in Tokyo to help find Jasmine's whereabouts, once I have any news, I'll be sure to tell you first."

Master Moore choked, "Master Wade, I'm not going to lie, I have a very bad feeling this time, the Jasmine accident seems like she has met with man-made misfortune, and everyone else has died, but she's missing, I feel like it's very likely that she has met with misfortune, or is about to..."

Charlie Wade spoke up, "Master Moore, there is still no conclusion to this matter, so you don't need to be too pessimistic, I believe that Jasmine's auspicious nature should turn out to be a blessing."

Master Moore was silent for a moment before he pleaded, "Master Wade, if it's possible, I dare to ask you for one thing..."

Chapter 2088

Charlie Wade busily said, "Please speak, old master."

Master Moore said in a trembling voice, "Master Wade, the old man begs you to take the time to go to Japan, in this world, I'm afraid that only you have the chance to save her..."

Charlie Wade didn't tell the Moore family that he had come to Japan.

So, Master Moore still thought that he was in Aurouss Hillll now.

But since Master Moore had said so, he didn't hide it anymore and spoke up, "Master Moore, to be honest, I'm in Tokyo right now, and I'll do my best for Jasmine's matter."

Old Master Moore was surprised and excited as he asked, "Master Wade, you... You're in Tokyo?! When did you go?"

Charlie Wade said truthfully, "Last night, when I heard about Jasmine's accident, I asked Shangri-La's Cameron Isaac to help me arrange a plane and flew over directly."

Master Moore was visibly relieved and said gratefully, "Master Wade, it's really a three-life honor for Jasmine to have a friend like you! You are someone with great powers, I am sure you will be able to save Jasmine..."

Saying that, he hurriedly added, "Master Wade, Rueben also brought some people to Tokyo last night, how about I ask him to meet you and have him do everything you tell him to do over there?"

When Charlie Wade heard this, he frowned.

Seeing Rueben?

He wasn't interested.

However, when he thought that Rueben was the biggest suspect, Charlie Wade felt that it wouldn't hurt to meet him.

Meet him and see if this brat would reveal anything when he faced himself.

So, Charlie Wade said to Master Moore, "Master Moore, ask Rueben Moore to give me a call, I will tell him the time and place to meet."

Master Moore was excited, "Yes, yes! Charlie Wade wait a moment, I'll inform Rueben and have him pay you a visit right away! The future is in Tokyo, let him do everything you tell him to!"

Charlie Wade mmed and said, "Okay, let him give me a call."

Rueben was now worrying in the hotel.

I thought that my trip to Japan was very simple, come and claim Jasmine's corpse, directly discuss with my family on how to bring the corpse back, and then I can go back to Aurouss Hilll to prepare for the big funeral. After the funeral, give grandpa the neurological medication dad had prepared, slowly turn him into Alzheimer's, and then just keep him as a mascot.

But he never expected that after carefully planning everything, he would get stuck directly in the first step.

He was here, but Jasmine's body was gone...

Just when he was riding a tiger and didn't know what to do next, a phone call came from Master Moore.

This was already the eighth phone call that Master Moore had made to Rueben today.

He looked at the word "grandpa" on the phone and couldn't help but curse out, "Fucking old thing! What the fuck are you calling me for? I'm going to bore you to death sooner or later!"

But scoldings aside, but he still did not dare to have any delay, hurriedly pressed up the phone and pressed answer.

As soon as the phone was connected, Rueben immediately seemed like a different person, his voice respectful and with some self-reproach and sadness, he said, "Grandpa, I'm sorry, there's still no news from the Tokyo Police Department, but don't worry, I'll definitely push them again!"

Master Moore gave a hmmm and said, "Rueben, I'm calling you because there's something I want to tell you."

Rueben busily said, "Grandpa, just tell me what you want to command!"

Master Moore said, "Master Wade has also gone to Tokyo."

Rueben's entire body suddenly exploded with shock and sweat, and he spoke out, "What did you say?!"

Chapter 2089

Hearing that Master Wade had come to Tokyo, Rueben trembled with fear! He had never expected that Master Wade would be in Tokyo!

He knew that Jasmine was easy to deal with, and so was the old man, but Master Wade, was by no means an easy man to deal with!

So, when he heard about this, his entire body panicked.

Master Moore on the other end of the phone was a little surprised and asked him, "Rueben, what's wrong with you? What's all the fuss about?"

Only then did Rueben come back to his senses, forcing down the tension in his heart and spoke, "Grandpa, what is Master Wade doing here? I kind of can't believe it, is he here for the Jasmine thing?"

Master Moore gave a hmmm and said, "Master Wade is a righteous man, Jasmine and Master Wade have always had a good relationship, now that something has happened to her, Master Wade rushed to Tokyo at the first time, it shows how much Master Wade values her, with Master Wade's help, the chances of finding Jasmine are much higher!"

Rueben hates madness in his heart!

He roared inwardly, "Shit! Charlie Wade, this bastard, what kind of Tokyo is he coming to at this time! What's he doing in Tokyo when he's not at home with his wife? Tokyo can't turn without him, can it?!"

Charlie Wade's skill was clear to Rueben.

That was why he was worried.

On the one hand, he was worried about exposing himself in front of Charlie Wade; on the other hand, he was also worried about whether Charlie Wade could really find Jasmine out.

If he really rescued Jasmine, what would he do?

At that moment, Master Moore saw his half-hearted lack of response and opened his mouth to ask, "Rueben? Are you still listening?"

Rueben was busy saying, "Listening, I'm listening!"

After saying that, he quickly stated his position again, "Grandpa, it's great that Master Wade can come! I'm so much more at ease with this!"

Moore said, "Yes! As soon as I heard Master Wade say that he has arrived in Tokyo, this heart did become more solid all of a sudden, I believe that with Master Wade here, Jasmine will definitely be able to turn good fortune into good fortune."

Rueben could only echo, "Grandpa you are right, I also feel that with Master Wade here, Jasmine she will definitely be safe!"

Master Moore laughed twice in a rare way and said, "Rueben, when you hang up the phone later, you will immediately call Master Wade and then hurry to meet with him, from now on you will have to do everything he tells you to do in Tokyo, understand?"

Rueben said without hesitation, "Grandpa don't worry, I'll definitely be at Master Wade's head!"

Master Moore said with satisfaction, "Just have this awareness, hurry up and give him a call!"

Rueben was busy saying, "Okay Grandpa! I'll hang up then!"

"Yes!"

Rueben hung up the old man's phone, and his whole body went blue with anger!

He couldn't control his emotions and smashed his fist on the tempered glass coffee table all at once!

At the same time, his right hand was also cut by the glass, and there were several bloody cuts on it.

Rueben couldn't care about the pain at all, he was now full of anger and tension.

He already hated Charlie Wade to the bone, and in his heart, he thought, "This Charlie Wade! Meddling in meddling is too lenient!"

"Do you really think you're in charge of the sky and the air just because people call you Master Wade?!"

"The Moore family's business is my son's family business, so why are you meddling in it?!"

Chapter 2090

"If you hadn't insisted on getting involved in the first place, the old thing wouldn't have been able to go backwards and let Jasmine, a woman, become the head of the Moore family!"

"In that case, I naturally wouldn't think of taking her life!"

Thinking of this, Rueben's eyes were filled with hatred as he said to himself in a cold voice, "Charlie Wade, Jasmine, this matter, you'd better not give me any rampage or make any demon moths, otherwise, I don't care what kind of Master you are, I will find a way to kill you!" Saying that, Rueben calmed his mind again, took out his phone and called Charlie Wade.

Once the call was made, Rueben heard on the other end of the phone, Charlie Wade said, "Hello."

He hurriedly said, "Master Wade? I'm Rueben Moore!"

Charlie Wade said, "Oh, it's Lord Mooore."

Rueben was busy saying, "Master Wade, just call me Rueben, Grandpa called me and said that you also came to Tokyo for Jasmine's sake, he told me to do everything you tell me to, I don't know where you are now?"

Charlie Wade said, "I'm staying at a friend's house."

Rueben didn't think much about it, so he said, "Master Wade, a friend's house may not be convenient, and the conditions may not be really good, so why don't you stay in a hotel, I'll stay at the Aman Hotel Tokyo, and if you need it, I'll have someone give you the best room."

Charlie Wade said indifferently, "No need to bother, it's quite convenient for me to stay at my friend's house."

Saying that, Charlie Wade deliberately used a tone of a leader to a subordinate and commanded, "Rueben, I want to meet with you, you should report to me in person about the situation related to Jasmine and the current progress of the investigation of this matter."

Rueben was ten thousand times unhappy in his heart, but with a very pious mouth, he said, "Okay, Master Wade, give me an address, I'll rush over to meet with you now!"

Charlie Wade deliberately wanted to give Rueben a hard time, so he calmly said, "No, aren't you staying at the Aman Hotel? You wait in the hotel for a while, I will arrange for someone to go over to pick you up, and I will call you when the person arrives."

Rueben still wanted to be polite and said, "Master Wade, what virtues and abilities do I have, how can I deserve to have you send someone to pick me up, it's better for me to personally go over..."

Charlie Wade coldly said, "No need to say anything, just wait for the call."

Saying that, Charlie Wade directly hung up the phone.

Rueben on the other end of the phone was already about to explode his lungs.

He slammed the phone down on the carpet and cursed angrily, "Fuck! Who the fuck do you call Moore? How dare you scream when I tell you to? Is that what you called Moore?"

Afterwards, he hissed in fury, "Shit! And you want me to come see you?

Why are you so fucking arrogant? If you have a friend in Tokyo and a place to stay, you're not the one who's cool? It's fucking smoking!"

However, although Rueben scolded, he still saw this matter very clearly in his heart .

"Even if I am ten thousand times dissatisfied with Master Wade, I must still meet him honestly, follow his instructions honestly, and at the very least, pretend to be very cooperative on the surface..."

"Otherwise, if he senses that there is something wrong with me, won't that be the end of it?"

"Master Wade's temper is known to be bad, he and that sister of mine have always been unclear, if he finds out that I'm the one who harmed her, he might just kill me in Japan, then everything will be cool..."

At this moment, the Ito family mansion.

Jasmine was still resting, and Nanako had been accompanying Charlie Wade.

When Charlie Wade ended his call with Rueben, he said to Nanako beside him, "Nanako, I need to ask you to do me a favor."

Nanako was busy saying, "Charlie Wade, if there's anything you need you can tell me!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "I want to trouble you to send a convoy to pick up someone for me to come here, the convoy should be as grand as possible, the more grand the better!"

Chapter 2091

As soon as she heard Charlie Wade say that she wanted a grand motorcade, Nanako immediately smiled and said, "Charlie Wade, isn't the motorcade a little bit not grand enough? Why don't I just send a couple of helicopters over there!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "This guy is staying at the Aman Tokyo Hotel, isn't it inappropriate to arrange a helicopter in the city center?"

Nanako smiled wanly and said seriously, "Charlie Wade, there is nothing inappropriate about this little matter for the Ito family, if you are willing, you can leave this matter to me to arrange, and I will definitely not let you down!"

Charlie Wade gave it some thought before nodding his head and smiling, "Then I'll leave it to you to help, I only have one goal, to completely shock him."

Nanako smiled and said, "Don't worry, Charlie Wade, I'll definitely give him a vivid realistic education lesson!"

.....

Aman Hotel.

Rueben asked his beautiful assistant, to put some band-aids on his hands. This girl is not only his assistant, but also his lover and his beloved. After she helped Rueben treat the wounds, she said in a distressed voice, "Lord Mooore, you must not be so impulsive in the future, no matter what, you can't joke with your own body!"

Rueben's expression clouded over as he said, "You don't understand, it's not that I'm too impulsive, it's just that that Master Wade is too tricky, and his staying in Tokyo is a huge problem for me!"

The assistant hurriedly said, "Lord Mooore, it's actually not that difficult to deal with such a person, right? Let Hashimoto Kon gather a few more killers first, just find a chance to kill him."

Rueben waved his hand and sighed, "Oh you don't understand, you don't know what this Master Wade is capable of, this man is still extremely capable, ordinary people are not his opponents."

"Moreover, if we rashly look for him, it's very likely that we'll expose ourselves early, and then we'll lose more than we gain."

The assistant asked again, "Lord Mooore, then what should we do now? Is it really as the old man said, that everything is at his disposal?"

Rueben nodded and said in a cold voice, "Right now there is nothing else to do but to cooperate with him superficially and then hope that he doesn't find out about my problem."

Saying that, he sighed, his heart was a bit bottomless, "I just don't know now whether I can remain calm in front of him or not, this person is very shrewd, and if I'm not careful, it's possible that he will see it."

The assistant was busy saying, "Lord Mooore, you are the best psychological person I've ever met, I'm sure that you won't reveal any flaw."

Rueben nodded slightly, "I hope so."

As I was saying that, Rueben's phone suddenly rang.

On the phone, a woman's voice came out, "Is this Mr. Rueben Moore?"

Rueben gave a hmmm and said, "Yes, it's me."

The woman then said, "Hello Lord Mooore, I was sent by Mr. Wade to pick you up, may I ask if you are ready to leave?"

Rueben said, "I'm ready, where shall we meet?"

The woman said, "You're staying at the Aman Hotel, I believe?"

Rueben said, "That's right, I'm in the Presidential Suite of the Aman Hotel."

Rueben deliberately said the words presidential suite, just to find some superiority in front of the other party.

He knew that Charlie Wade was more or less somewhat capable, but he also felt that Charlie Wade's skills should only be useful in Aurouss Hilll, and it would definitely be compromised when he left Aurouss Hilll and went to Japan.

Therefore, he instinctively didn't take Charlie Wade's words about his friend into consideration either.

In his opinion, it was impossible for Charlie Wade, who was a half-prodigy like existence, to befriend any high ranking person in Japan.

It was estimated that the other party would be a Tokyo middle class at most.

Chapter 2092

The woman on the other end of the phone said calmly, "Since Lord Mooore is staying at the Aman Hotel, please Lord Mooore, move to the rooftop now."

"Rooftop?" Rueben frowned, "What do you want me to go to the rooftop for?"

The woman said, "The helicopter is waiting on the rooftop."

"Helicopter?" Rueben's expression was somewhat surprised, but also somewhat despised at the same time.

In his heart, he surmised, "This Charlie Wade and Charlie Wade's friends, also really boring enough, what kind of helicopter to pick up in the city, a bit of money, don't know where to spend it, right? You think you're so cool just because you rent a helicopter? It's a bit too low for this segment, isn't it?"

Thinking of this, he smiled contemptuously, and then, very politely, he said, "In that case, please wait for a moment on the rooftop, I'll be right up."

"Okay, I'll wait for Lord Mooore on the rooftop."

After Rueben hung up the phone, he immediately laughed out despicably, "Hmph, this Charlie Wade is also really interesting, I said that I would go to him, but he had to make me wait for his friend to pick him up, and he had to get a helicopter to pick me up, does it make sense? Do you think I've never seen the world? A helicopter and you're trying to bluff me?"

The assistant smiled slightly, "Lord Mooore, in my opinion, this Charlie Wade is nothing more than the light of a firefly, and he even has the nerve to compete with you, the sun and the moon, he is really a bit ungrateful!"

Rueben sneered, "Oh my, to say that this Charlie Wade is more or less capable, not to mention anything else, that rejuvenation pill in his hand is a damn good thing! I really hope to have one by the time I'm old..."

Saying that, Rueben Moore sighed and waved his hand to his assistant,

"Okay, let's not talk about that, you come with me to the roof."

"Okay Lord Mooore!"

Rueben brought his beloved assistant to the rooftop rooftop of the Aman Hotel.

At this time, on a piece of helipad on the rooftop, there was already a heavy helicopter with black body parked.

Rueben saw this helicopter, slightly surprised, spoke: "ouch I go, Charlie Wade and this friend of his, is really willing to put down money ah, this super puma helicopter, the factory price of more than one hundred and fifty million, a little modification, the price exceeded two hundred million, such a helicopter, rent a short flight also hundreds of thousands. "

The little assistant laughed and said, "Spending hundreds of thousands of dollars just to pretend to be in front of Lord Mooore, this Charlie Wade Wade is also really blind!"

"Yeah." Rueben smirked, "Did you see the three letters on the fuselage of this plane?"

The assistant looked at the white letters on the black fuselage and read them out one by one: "i-t-o? Lord Mooore, what does this mean? There doesn't seem to be this word in English."

Rueben smiled and said, "It's not an English word, it's a Japanese roman sound, the four letters i-t-o, pronounced with a roman sound, should be pronounced as 'Ito'."

"I-To?" The little assistant frowned, "What does this mean ah Lord Mooore, it sounds like something strange."

Rueben seriously said, "You, the world is really a bit short, these 3 letters correspond to the Japanese word for Ito, which means that this plane belongs to the largest family in Japan right now, the Ito family."

"Huh?!" The little assistant exclaimed, "It's the Ito family's plane?! Gosh, does that Charlie Wade still know someone from the Ito family?!"

Rueben trailed off, "With him? And knows the Ito family, does he deserve it?"

The junior assistant was surprised and asked, "So what's with the plane?"

Rueben smiled and said, "You don't know anything about that, the Ito family's industry is spread throughout all walks of life in Japan, and the family themselves have a navigation company, called 'Ito Navigation'!"

"Ito Navigation'?"

"Right!" Rueben explained, "This navigation company mainly does short and medium distance navigation, and it has over two hundred aircraft of all kinds, including over one hundred helicopters, so it is very strong!"

"I reckon that Charlie Wade and his friend rented this helicopter from Ito Navigation'!"

The little assistant nodded and smiled, "I see! You just said that this plane was from the Ito family, it really scared me, I thought that Charlie Wade's friend was from the Ito family."

Rueben sneered, "I just said that he doesn't deserve to know anyone from the Ito family! The Ito family is now in Japan, which is equivalent to our domestic Banks Family, and a guy like Charlie Wade who got up by reading feng shui and jumping up to the big gods isn't even worthy of giving the Ito family a shoe!"

Chapter 2093

In Rueben's heart, the status of the Ito Family was indeed very high.

After all, it was the largest family in Japan, and it had just survived the bitter battle of the three big families in Tokyo, and for that reason alone, the future of the Ito Family was unlimited.

Therefore, Rueben simply didn't believe that Charlie Wade could have any actual relationship with the Ito family.

It must be that he or his friend had paid to rent a helicopter belonging to the Ito family's aviation company.

So, he took his little assistant with him and stepped forward to the helipad.

A beautiful woman in a blue flight attendant uniform stood by the side of the helicopter, and when she saw the two of them reach the front, she looked at Rueben and said with great respect, "You must be Lord Moore, right?"

Rueben nodded and said with a bit of arrogance, "Yes, that's me, are you guys in charge of picking me up?"

The beautiful lady smiled slightly and said, "Yes Lord Moore, Mr. Wade and our Miss are waiting for you at home right now, please board the plane with this lady."

Rueben grinned, "Master Wade is so polite, in the city, there is no need to take any helicopter, just take a car?"

The beautiful lady said calmly, "Lord Moore, our big sister said that it must be grand when picking you up."

Rueben shook his head and laughed, thinking to himself in a despicable manner, "Sending a helicopter is grand? Do you think I'm a bumpkin who's never seen the world? Our Moore family is also lined with private planes, we have private planes and private helicopters, this thing is nothing big in my eyes."

However, since it was a helicopter sent by Charlie Wade, he naturally didn't dare to say such disdainful words to his face, so he said very politely, "In that case, I'll leave it to Master Wade."

Saying that, he brought his assistant with him and got into this heavy helicopter.

This helicopter could originally hold at least twenty people, but now the cabin had been completely transformed into a luxury room, like a top-notch luxury caravan.

Rueben sat down on the couch of the helicopter and asked the beautiful woman, "I wonder how far away Master Wade is from here?"

The beautiful woman smiled and said, "Almost fifteen kilometers."

"Fifteen kilometers?" Rueben said helplessly, "Wouldn't it be a few minutes to fly there?"

The beautiful woman smiled, "It takes less than a few minutes to fly, about half an hour."

"What? Half an hour?!" Rueben was dumbfounded and said, "Fifteen kilometers, even if you pedal a bicycle, pedal faster for half an hour can also get there ah, this helicopter speed, it is impossible to slow down to this level, right?"

The beautiful lady smiled and said, "Lord Moore has no idea, our Missy has arranged a sightseeing route to reflect the importance she attaches to you, you'll know later."

Rueben was a bit confused and asked, "Can I ask who your eldest sister is?"

The beauty shook her head and said apologetically, "I'm sorry Lord Moore, our Missy's identity can't tell you right now, but you'll naturally know when we get to the place."

Rueben could only nod his head and said, "Alright..."

Saying that, he was also muttering in his heart, "I wonder what kind of medicine is in this guy Charlie Wade's gourd? What are you doing here with a helicopter?"

At that moment, the beautiful woman spoke up, "Lord Mooore, our helicopter is about to take off, so please put on your intercom headset while buckling your seat belt."

"Good."

Rueben nodded, put on the intercom headset, and then buckled the seat belt.

Since helicopters generated a lot of noise when they were running, normal conversations in the cabin could not be heard by each other at all.

In order to solve the problem of communication in the cabin, all the helicopter crew and passengers, all wearing very good sound effect headphones, wearing headphones can not only isolate the sound of the engine, but also can use the radio to ensure that each other to talk.

Once the helicopter is up, they can only rely on this way to communicate with each other.

Chapter 2094

At this time, the helicopter's engine slowly revved, then accelerated continuously, and soon began to rise slowly.

Rueben thought to himself, "It's just as well to take this opportunity to see what kind of scenery Tokyo is under the high altitude."

As he was thinking, he heard that beautiful woman's voice in his headset, and she spoke, "Number two and three take off, number four and five start the engines, and number six and seven start preparing!"

Rueben was still a little puzzled and thought to himself, "What number two, three, four and five? What's this lady talking about here?"

Wondering, the assistant on the other side pointed to the roofs of the other two buildings on either side of the window and said in surprise,

"Lord Mooore, the roofs of those two buildings also flew up two helicopters, exactly the same as the one we're sitting on!"

Rueben turned his head, and sure enough!

There were two identical helicopters taking off at the same time and simultaneously on the left and right.

These two aircraft were not only the same as this model they were riding, both were Super Pumas, but also had the same fuselage livery, both were livery of the Ito Navigation Corporation.

Rueben was surprised and asked that beautiful woman, "These two helicopters are also yours?"

The beautiful woman nodded and smiled, "They are doing the entire accompanying flight for you."

Rueben was stunned, "What do you mean by flying with you the entire time?"

The beautiful woman smiled, "It's just to accompany you throughout your flight, just like the fleet's front tail car."

Rueben's expression was a bit startled as he said, "Uh... Is this really necessary? Master Wade won't be too broke, will he?"

The beauty said calmly, "Don't worry, Mr. Wade doesn't have to contribute a single penny."

Rueben nodded and thought to himself, "Needless to say, Charlie Wade should have found another wrongdoer in Tokyo..."

As they were saying that, the two helicopters had risen to the same altitude as them, then the two planes followed the one that Rueben was riding in, and the three planes moved forward at the same speed.

Not even a kilometer after flying out, Rueben's assistant pointed to the two buildings on either side again and said, "Lord Mooore! Two more up here on either side!"

Rueben fixed his eyes and was amazed!

That's five! Is that necessary?

Just after saying that, the assistant pointed very far away and said off the top of his head, "Lord Mooore, there seems to be black helicopters on the roofs of the two buildings in front, too!"

Rueben followed the direction of her finger, and there were indeed two black things the size of ants at a distance of one kilometer away.

Rueben carefully identified the two black things parked on the roof, and they did indeed resemble the same type of helicopter he was riding in!

Just to my surprise, the two helicopters that had just taken off had reached the front.

The fleet went from three helicopters to five.

Soon, the two ant-sized black things, in Rueben's vision grew larger and larger, it was easy to recognize that they were indeed the two helicopters.

After that, the two helicopters also began to soar into the air.

The fleet, again from five, became seven.

At this time, Rueben was already a little numb.

He couldn't understand, what was Charlie Wade doing? It's just a pick-me-up, do you have to make such a big deal out of it?

As I was thinking, I heard the pretty girl say over the intercom, "Two takeoffs are too inefficient, let's take off four at a time next!"

Chapter 2095

Seeing the helicopters really four by four take off, the fleet soon expanded all the way to nearly twenty, Rueben the whole man felt like a big head!

When he couldn't figure it out, he wondered, "What the fuck is going on, sending twenty helicopters to and from a dozen kilometers, that's unbelievable, right?"

"And what's the story of that Tokyo friend of Charlie Wade's! It's a lot of money to rent twenty helicopters, do you have money to burn so wastefully?"

The citizens of Tokyo were now also startled by the helicopter echelons whizzing through the sky, and one by one they stopped and looked up, thinking that something big had happened or that some great big person had come.

The more Rueben couldn't guess Charlie Wade's motives, the more he felt a bit guilty.

Although he and Charlie Wade could not be considered familiar or friends, but at least they were acquaintances, and when acquaintances met, shouldn't it be just a matter of arranging a place and then going there separately? What did Charlie Wade mean by this whole sudden move?

All the while, new helicopters were still taking off and joining the top floors of the high-rise buildings on both sides.

Soon, the total number of helicopter echelons exceeded thirty.

Rueben had never experienced such a battle in his life, and his heart was already a little hairy!

Also, he didn't have the same contempt in his heart that he had at first. His subconscious implicitly told him that Charlie Wade seemed to be much more powerful than he thought, including that Japanese friend of his whom he had never met before.

Maybe, the other party was a local Tokyo bigwig!

The thirty or so helicopters circled around the city of Tokyo and finally hovered over a private estate.

At this time, Rueben found that the thirty or so helicopters around him had turned into a circular layout, surrounding his own plane right in the middle.

And this aircraft was slowly descending.

Rueben looked down at the manor that covered a huge area below, and asked that beautiful woman in surprise, "Excuse me, where is this?"

The beautiful lady said, "Back to Lord Mooore, this is the place where our eldest sister lives."

Rueben didn't know exactly where the Ito family's mansion was, so he couldn't recognize who owned this mansion directly below.

However, looking at this location, this area, and this architectural style, one knew that this was definitely not an ordinary home.

As the helicopter slowly descended, Rueben's heartbeat became faster and faster.

In his heart, he panicked and secretly thought, "Charlie Wade's friends in Tokyo have such a powerful family and their energy must not be underestimated, if Charlie Wade asks them to help investigate Jasmine's matter, then he might really be about to explode with thunder!"

Before, Rueben also thought that there was no point in Charlie Wade even if he came to Japan, he was unfamiliar with life in Japan, he did everything with a blind eye, and without enough connections and human help, it would be difficult to find Jasmine's whereabouts or investigate the cause of her death.

This was the case for the vast majority of people.

Each person's ability to do so had very obvious geographical limitations.

For example, Don Albertt, he was an underground emperor in Arouss Hilll and no one dared to provoke him, but once he left Arouss Hilll, even if he reached southern region, his influence would be greatly reduced.

If he were to come to Tokyo, with that bit of influence he had in Arouss Hilll, any random storm trooper would dare to directly hit him in the face.

This was because the vast majority of Don Albertt's abilities could only be exercised when he was in Arouss Hilll, and the further he left Arouss Hilll, the less he could do.

Rueben originally still felt that Charlie Wade must be the same.

Charlie Wade was a bull in Arouss Hilll, and that was because there was a large group of respectable local bigwigs who held him up in Arouss Hilll.

But once he left Arouss Hilll, his influence was bound to drop significantly.

If he really came to Japan to investigate Jasmine's affairs, he might not even be able to find three or five assistants.

But now, Rueben finally realized how ignorant he was.

Chapter 2096

Because he discovered that Charlie Wade seemed to have extraordinary connections in Japan as well!

The helicopter landed on the lawn of the Ito family's back garden.

As soon as the helicopter landed, there were immediately twenty men in black suits running neatly over.

Then, the twenty men stood on either side of the hatch, very powerfully.

At that moment, the beautiful woman inside the helicopter opened the hatch wide and jumped down first before saying to Rueben, "Lord Mooore, please!"

Rueben swallowed his saliva with some difficulty, drumming in his heart as he stepped apprehensively out of the helicopter.

The beautiful girl said again, "Lord Mooore please follow me, Mr. Wade as well as our family's eldest sister are already waiting in the parlor."

Rueben hurriedly asked with a face full of humility, "Beautiful lady, can you be bold enough to ask, who is your family's eldest sister?"

The beautiful lady smiled, "Our big sister's identity, when you meet her later, she will definitely tell you herself."

Rueben pretended to smile indifferently, but in fact, he was already panicking like a dog.

He could tell that such a mansion, in such a nice part of Tokyo, was worth at least billions or even tens of billions, and a family that could have such a mansion should be much stronger than the Moore family!

At this moment, the beautiful woman gestured at him in a please pose and said with a smile, "Lord Mooore, this way please."

The apprehensive Rueben could only nod his head and followed up with a hard scalp.

He followed the beautiful woman through the entire back garden of the Ito family mansion and then through the long corridor to the door of a Japanese and Japanese style room.

The beauty said to him as well as his assistant, "Please wait for a moment, both of you, I'll go in and make an announcement."

Rueben nodded hurriedly, "Go ahead... We'll wait at the door first..."

The beautiful woman entered the door and said to Charlie Wade, who was drinking tea cross-legged in front of the tea table, as well as Nanako, "Mr. Wade and Miss, the guests have arrived."

Nanako nodded and said indifferently, "Invite the guests in."

The beautiful woman immediately said, "Okay Miss!"

Saying that, she came to the door and said to Rueben, "Lord Mooore, please come in."

At the side, Rueben's assistant asked Rueben in a low voice, "Lord Mooore, do I still go in? I'm a bit nervous, or I'd better not go..."

Rueben saw her expression of panic and knew that she was probably scared by the other party's unimaginably oversized formation, so she didn't dare to go in.

He sighed in his heart, "You're a bit nervous? Do you know that I'm also in a panic right now!"

However, he also knew that the assistant could still back off, but he definitely couldn't, so he could only helplessly speak up, "Then you wait for me outside."

The assistant was relieved, as if she had been pardoned, and nodded hurriedly.

Rueben then summoned up his courage and stepped through the door.

As soon as he entered the door, he saw Charlie Wade who was sipping tea by the tea table.

At this time, Charlie Wade was still as calm as before, and waved his hand slightly at Rueben when he saw him come in.

On the opposite side of Charlie Wade, there was a young looking Japanese woman sitting, this woman was wearing a Japanese kimono and looked not only extremely beautiful, but also gentle and elegant.

Rueben recognized this woman with a glance!

By now his heart was churning with shock waves and he muttered to himself, "This... This woman.... Isn't this woman the Ito family's eldest daughter, the one known as Nanako Ito! Could it be..... Could it be that local friend that Charlie Wade was talking about, is that her?!"

Chapter 2097

Rueben felt like his outlook on life, values, and worldview was completely overturned at this moment.

He had never expected that Charlie Wade would be able to climb into a relationship with the Ito family's eldest sister.

And what was even more frightening was that the Ito family's eldest sister was now wearing a kimono, kneeling opposite Charlie Wade, and pouring him tea like a waiter, respectfully.

This was simply incredible!

Rueben howled in despair deep inside, "What the fuck is this shit? Do the Japanese also believe in Feng Shui metaphysics? Otherwise, how else did Charlie Wade fiddle with Nanako's affairs?"

Just when his head was filled with shock and surprise, Charlie Wade saw him come in, as if he saw his friend's son, smiling and waving at him, "Oh Rueben, come quickly, hurry up and sit down."

Rueben looked at Charlie Wade's calm face, he was even more puzzled and wondered, "Charlie Wade is so close to Jasmine, why has Jasmine disappeared for so long, why has Charlie Wade come to Tokyo and instead of looking for her, he is still so calm and has tea in the Ito family's mansion?"

Although Rueben was confused in his heart, he still came to Charlie Wade's front with a hard scalp and said respectfully, "Greetings, Master Wade!"

After saying that, he looked at Nanako again and said politely, "Hello Miss Ito, it's your first time meeting me, please take care of me!"

With a small smile, Nanako Ito said, "Lord Mooore knows me?"

Rueben nodded, "You are so well known, how could I not know you."

Nanako smiled generously and stretched out her hand, "Lord Moore, please sit down, just to try the Japanese tea ceremony and see if it fits your appetite."

Rueben busily waved his hand and said, "Miss Ito is too polite, I have come to do as Master Wade instructed this time, so it's fine for me to stand."

Charlie Wade faintly waved his hand, "Okay Rueben, I'm an old acquaintance with your grandfather, you don't need to be so formal in front of me, since Miss Ito has asked you to sit, then you can sit."

The tone in which Charlie Wade said this made Rueben very disgusted. He could hear the somewhat condescending feeling in Charlie Wade's mouth. It made his heart very unhappy. However, at this moment, he didn't dare to disobey Charlie Wade in the slightest. After all, Charlie Wade was the guest of honor of the Ito family, and this monetary value was really too great.

So he hurriedly said respectfully, "Since Master Wade has said so, then I will respectfully follow the order."

Saying this, he sat down beside Charlie Wade.

After sitting cross-legged, Rueben's heart was apprehensive, always confused as to what kind of medicine was in Charlie Wade's gourd.

At this time, Charlie Wade opened his mouth and asked, "Rueben, what do you know about what happened to Jasmine? Tell me about it."

Rueben's heart thudded, but on the surface, he tried to control it relatively naturally and spoke, "Master Wade the thing is like this, some time ago, Jasmine wanted to reach a cooperation with Japan's New Japan

Railway, so she brought people to Japan to start negotiations with New Japan Railway, but last night suddenly something happened, the commercial vehicle she was riding in, fell off a cliff in the mountains of West Domo County, the car The other three died on the spot, and Jasmine's whereabouts are now unknown..."

Charlie Wade nodded, looked at him and asked, "What did the Tokyo Police Department say?"

Chapter 2098

Rueben was looked at by Charlie Wade and felt a little guilty, he hurriedly lowered his head and pretended to say respectfully, "Back to Master Wade, the Tokyo Police Department over there has already sent a lot of people to search in West Domo County, but they haven't found Jasmine's whereabouts yet."

Saying that, Rueben hastily added, "However, they are increasing their police force to expand the search area, so hopefully they will be able to find valuable clues as soon as possible, and of course, it would be best to find Jasmine's whereabouts as soon as possible."

Charlie Wade waved his hand and said indifferently, "That's not what I'm asking, what I'm asking is whether the Tokyo Police Department has defined this matter, whether this fall off the cliff was an accident, or a coincidence? Was it an accident, or was it a deliberate murder?"

When he heard the words deliberate murder, Rueben's heart immediately tensed up.

He felt his back had begun to seep out cold sweat, simply because he was wearing a jacket, so it was not so easy to see.

In fact, there was already a clear definition from the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department, and they believed that this matter was a premeditated murder, as the accident scene had clearly been manhandled.

However, they couldn't find any valuable clues yet.

Now that Charlie Wade had asked such a straightforward question, Rueben's heart grew more and more panicked.

He originally thought that Charlie Wade was alone in Japan and couldn't turn over any waves in Tokyo, but now it was different, Charlie Wade had such a good relationship with the Ito family, and as long as he said a word, the Ito family would definitely do everything possible to help him investigate this matter.

The Ito family was very strong in Japan, once they intervened, it was very likely that the sword would be able to find out the truth of the matter faster than the police.

Rueben was nervous inside, not knowing for a moment how to respond to Charlie Wade's question.

And Charlie Wade also asked after him at this time, "Rueben, why aren't you talking?"

Rueben came back to his senses and hurriedly said, "Oh, I'm so sorry, Charlie Wade, I was a little distracted just now thinking about Jasmine and also worrying about her safety..."

After saying that, he sat up straight and said truthfully, "Master Wade, the Tokyo Police Department's definition of this matter is that intentional murder is more likely, but since there are no valuable clues found. So the specifics will have to wait for the results of further investigation, as for the murder, it's just a speculation."

Charlie Wade nodded and said coldly, "The Tokyo Police Department is known for being useless, the Tokyo security was so bad and there were so many major cases some time ago, and the Tokyo Police Department still hasn't solved all those cases, so if we expect them to do something about this Jasmine matter, I don't know how long we have to wait."

Then, Charlie Wade pointed at Nanako and said to Rueben, "Rueben ah, Miss Nanako and I have a deep friendship, and I also have some connections with the Ito family, their power in Japan, I believe you have also heard about it, with Miss Nanako's help, I believe that our progress in finding Jasmine should be faster than the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department. " Nanako immediately said respectfully, "Please feel free to rest assured, Charlie Wade, as long as Your Excellency says so, the entire Ito family is at your disposal!"

Nanako's words caused Rueben to be terrified.

He knew very well that with the strength of the entire Ito family, even if they couldn't find the living Jasmine, they would definitely be able to find out the truth of the matter.

Moreover, the fact that so many helicopters from the Ito family had just picked themselves up with great sound, it was enough to see that the Ito family was very attentive to anything Charlie Wade commanded.

It could also be imagined that once Charlie Wade opened his mouth, the Ito family would definitely go all out to find Jasmine's whereabouts and the truth of the whole matter.

At that time, everything would be all over...

Rueben's heart was in despair at this point. His forehead had even poured out a fine layer of sweat. Charlie Wade had taken in all of his reactions and was already becoming more and more certain that there was definitely something very wrong with Rueben!

Chapter 2099

At the moment when Nanako made her statement to Charlie Wade, Rueben had already started making plans to leave Japan as soon as possible.

He knew that as long as the Ito family interfered, it wouldn't be long before he would definitely be defeated.

If he remained in Japan at the moment of the defeat, then he basically wouldn't have to think about returning alive.

Because, he knew that Charlie Wade would definitely not let him go!

The only way right now was to quickly leave Japan and go back to finish off the old man before she was revealed and completely take over the entire Moore family.

As long as you can take over the entire assets of the Moore family, you can break bread with Charlie Wade.

After all, the one hundred and twenty billion assets of the Moore family was not something that Charlie Wade, a so-called Charlie Wade, could fight against!

Charlie Wade looked at Rueben beside him, his entire body looking a bit restless, and deliberately asked, "Rueben, why do I see you looking a bit absent-minded? Is it something physically uncomfortable?"

Rueben hurriedly waved his hand and said, "No no, Master Wade, I'm just a little worried about Jasmine, she's been missing for a whole night, I'm afraid that the more we delay, the slimmer the chances of her surviving..." Charlie Wade looked at him and said seriously, "Don't worry, as long as I, Master Wade, am here, Jasmine will definitely not die."

Rueben pretended to be pleased and said, "That's really great! Master Wade, it's all up to you to find Jasmine!"

While saying this, Rueben's heart was cursing viciously, "Even if Jasmine is really still alive, I will definitely kill her, even if you Charlie Wade are in front of me it's useless! As long as I, Rueben, am here, she, Jasmine, will not be allowed to live, she must die!"

At this time, Charlie Wade spoke up, "Alright Rueben, you go back to the hotel first, you don't need to interfere in the search for Jasmine, stay well in the hotel and wait for my good news."

Rueben was suddenly a little startled, and secretly thought, "What do you mean? Send dozens of helicopters and a huge crowd to pick me up, and that's all it takes to let me go? With so few words, you can just make a phone call or even send a WeChat to solve the problem, so why all the fuss?!"

However, although Rueben was puzzled in his heart, he didn't dare to disobey in any way with his mouth, and hastily stood up and said earnestly, "Master Wade, in that case, I'll take my leave..."

Charlie Wade nodded and instructed, "Don't go anywhere in Tokyo these days, just stay honestly in the hotel and wait for news from me."

Rueben was busy saying, "Okay Master Wade, I'll be waiting in the hotel for your news in the next few days!"

Nanako spoke up at this time, "Since Lord Mooore wants to go back to the hotel, I'll also have the helicopter take you back."

Rueben was flattered and said, "Miss Ito is really too polite, this place is not far from the hotel, I can just go out and get a car, or you don't need to arrange a helicopter."

Nanako said seriously, "Lord Mooore is Charlie Wade's guest, that's my Ito family's guest, the Ito family has never let a guest leave on his own by taxi, so it's better to ask Lord Mooore to return by helicopter."

Rueben could only nod, slightly embarrassed, "Miss Ito, it's no problem to take a helicopter back, but you really don't need to send is so many helicopters, it's too wasteful, one will be enough..."

Nanako Ito smiled slightly, "Lord Mooore doesn't have to be so polite, the reason why you sent so many helicopters together to pick you up and drop you off is also out of our Ito family's importance to our guests."

Rueben had no choice but to say, "Then I will comply with Miss Ito's arrangements."

Nodding her head, Nanako greeted her own assistant and asked her to escort Rueben out.

Chapter 2100

As soon as Rueben left, Nanako hurriedly said to Charlie Wade, "Charlie Wade, your intuition is really accurate, and after we met, I also think there's something wrong with this Rueben!"

Charlie Wade said coldly, "But anyone with a guilty conscience, even if they are psychologically strong, will definitely reveal some flaw, Rueben obviously became very nervous after seeing you, this must be because he is afraid of the strength of the Ito family and knows that once the Ito family gets involved, this matter will definitely be investigated, so he must be frightened in his heart. "

Saying that, Charlie Wade added, "I think that Rueben will most likely escape before the East Window, you must have your ninjas keep a close watch on him, and never let him escape!"

Nanako nodded and said, "Don't worry Charlie Wade, I've already made all the arrangements, just as Rueben came over, my ninjas have already rushed to the hotel, they will be monitoring Rueben in all directions!"

Charlie Wade smiled in satisfaction and said, "If he has other accomplices, then the first thing he will do when he returns to the hotel must be to get in touch with his accomplices, and you must then eavesdrop on all his conversations and don't miss any clues!"

.....

On the flight back to the hotel, Rueben had been a bit distraught. With such a major change happening, he himself had lost his main focus, and all his hopes were pinned on his father, Theodore.

He now couldn't wait to get in touch with Theodore and tell him everything about the change that had happened here.

However, since he was still sitting on the Ito family's helicopter, he could only resist the urge and wait until he got to the hotel.

On the way back, there were still dozens of helicopters whirling around to escort him.

What looked like a very imposing formation to outsiders was putting a great deal of pressure on Rueben.

The strength of the Ito family was on display during this short flight. According to Ito's assistant, the Ito family's own Ito Navigation Company had taken over eighty percent of the high rise tarmac in the entire Tokyo.

Usually, without stopping at the airport, their helicopters were parked on the top tarmacs of major high-rise buildings in Tokyo.

This had the advantage of having the closest helicopter to the location of the need to quickly take off in case of any demand.

That was why, on the way here, there were constantly the Ito family's helicopters, taking off and lifting off from the roofs of various buildings.

The more the Ito family showed their muscles in front of him like this, the more fearful Rueben's heart became.

When he returned to the Aman Hotel, the first thing he did as soon as he entered the room was to immediately pull out his cell phone and call Theodore.

At this time, Theodore had just landed in Aurouss Hillll after a ten-hour flight.

When the call came through, the first words out of Moore's mouth were, "Dad! I'm about to be exposed, Tokyo and Japan can't stay long, I'm planning to return home quietly tonight, and your side should take care of the old thing as soon as possible too!"

Theodore was shocked and asked off the top of his head, "What's going on?! What's gone wrong?!"

Rueben said with a cry, "It's Charlie Wade Wade! That guy's too damn strong! Dad, you can't even imagine. The Ito family, the biggest in Japan, treats him like their own father! Charlie Wade said he wanted to find Jasmine, and the Ito family immediately stated that all hands were at his disposal! I don't fucking get it, what is this Charlie Wade guy capable of, are all these people sick in the head?!"

Chapter 2101

When Theodore learned that the Ito family was going to do their best to help Charlie Wade find Jasmine's whereabouts and help investigate what happened, he, who was two thousand kilometers away, was also in a cold sweat.

There was no perfect crime in this world, when they were planning to kill Jasmine, all they wanted was to leave the murder clues in Japan, so that everyone would think that Jasmine was killed in Japan and had nothing to do with them, and that would be enough.

However, once people knew that Jasmine's death was related to them, or even that they were behind it, then it would be a big trouble. Not to mention that the old man would be furious, the domestic law enforcement authorities would not let them off either, although they had committed the crime overseas, in the end, it was still their own citizens that were killed, and the laws of their own country would apply. Moreover, once the outside world knows that it was their father and son who killed Jasmine, then their reputation and that of the entire Moore family will definitely plummet. At that time, even if they managed to escape the law, they would be treated like rats on the street and shouted down by everyone all day long!

Thinking of this, Theodore immediately made up his mind and said off the top of his head, "Rueben, if you run back right now, this is undoubtedly telling Charlie Wade that you have a problem, when Charlie Wade makes a phone call to your grandfather, with your grandfather's shrewdness, he'll be able to guess all the links at once, and by then, you'll be in even more trouble!"

Rueben was nervous with a few chokes, "Dad, then what do you think I should do now ah... The Ito family is too strong, and with their help, I'm afraid this matter will come to light in a few days, and at that time, I'll be finished!"

Theodore immediately reassured, "Rueben, you first calm down and wait for my news, I'll find an opportunity to give your grandfather the medicine after I return later!"

Said Theodore with a sneer, "Just turn the old thing into an Alzheimer's patient, I'll call you back from Japan urgently on the grounds that he has a sudden illness, that way, Charlie Wade should not suspect you, at that time we will sell all the assets of the Moore family in China and realize them as fast as possible, and then convert them all into dollars, before this matter is completely cleared up. Before that, immigrate to the U.S. or Canada with tens of billions of dollars in assets!"

Rueben hurriedly asked, "Dad, how long will it take for that medicine of yours to take effect after the old thing takes it?"

Theodore said, "If I increase the dosage a bit, I guess it will be a few hours at most, and I guess he will become an Alzheimer's patient by tonight."

Rueben was slightly relieved and said, "Then in that case, will I be able to fly back tomorrow morning?"

Theodore gave a hmmm and said, "If things go well, tomorrow morning everyone will find out that your grandfather had a sudden onset of Alzheimer's, then I'll inform you to hurry back, then I'll urgently inherit the Moore family's headship, then we can quickly get rid of all the assets."

Rueben asked again, "What about my several uncles? They're also all eyeing the inheritance, there's no way they'll let us dispose of it..."

Theodore said disdainfully, "Don't worry, they've also been looking forward to splitting up for a long time, before Old Thing had been holding the power of the Moore family, they couldn't split up even if they wanted to, then Old Thing made Jasmine take over as the head of the family, although they didn't say anything, they were even more annoyed in their hearts."

Chapter 2102

After a pause, Theodore continued: "And Jasmine's style of doing things you also know, this girl herself is not too high pursuit of quality of life, so they are intent on desperately trying to develop the scale, the Moore Group earned profits, she hates to put all into the new expansion, everyone is so engaged by her, can't share any money, who heart not angry? "

Saying that, Theodore sneered, "If I inherit the Moore family's headship and I propose to divide the family, your uncles will definitely not refuse, when I take a relatively large share and distribute the rest to them, they won't have any problem with it."

Rueben couldn't help but ask, "Then what if they have a problem with it? What if they ask for an equal share per head? Wouldn't we then be working for their benefit after all the hard work we've done?"

Theodore smiled and said, "Don't worry, I've already considered all of these issues, I'll give them two choices after we settle the old thing!" "The first option is for me to continue to be the head of the family, and then I'll be like Jasmine and put all my energy into expanding the business territory, in that case, they won't be able to get a share of the money from the Moore Group for a while, and then they won't have the money to continue to maintain their extravagant and lustful lives, so they'll naturally be anxious to scratch their heads;"

"As for the second option, it's that they voluntarily give up a portion of their share to me, in which case I agree to sell the entire family and realize it, so that they can also get the money and live the life they want earlier."

"All the assets of the Moore Clan now add up to about $20 billion, in order to seek a quick exit, it's still not a big problem to package and sell $20 billion as a whole, my demands are not too high, no matter how much it sells for, our family will take half and give them an equal share of the rest, I'm sure they won't refuse."

Rueben thought about it and said in agreement, "What you say is also reasonable, for them, there is no difference in essence between dividing three billion dollars per person and five billion dollars per person, anyway, they will never be able to spend this much money in their lifetime."

Theodore hummed and said, "From what I know about them, they're definitely willing to give up some of their shares and get all the money early, so that they don't have to live under someone else's roof or look at someone else's face anymore."

Rueben was relieved and said with a smile, "Dad, since you have it all in your chest, I'll wait for your good news in Japan!"

"As soon as you take care of the old stuff here, I'll be back home tomorrow! Let's take care of these follow-ups as soon as possible after we get back, and before the Ito family finds out anything about the hidden circumstances of Jasmine's murder, we'll raise our families and emigrate to the United States!"

"By then, even if they find out that we're behind it, there's nothing they can do to us!"

Theodore also smiled and said, "That's right! A case of this magnitude is usually impossible to investigate in a few months, and we simply don't need that much time, just a week at the most, and that's enough!"

Saying that, Theodore instructed, "Rueben, the only variable now is not the Ito family, but Charlie Wade, this man is mysterious and tricky, you must make sure not to let him see any clues, otherwise, you are alone in Japan, in case he wants to do something to you, dad is so far away, it's also out of reach ah!"

Rueben hurriedly said, "Dad don't worry, I've been very cautious, I've been doing my best to make myself look more natural in front of Charlie Wade, and all around my room, there are all my own people living in the room, and the room has been well checked against eavesdropping, so I'm sure that Charlie Wade won't see anything!"

Theodore laughed, "That's good! That's good! You'll just get down to business at the hotel and wait for my good news!"

Chapter 2103

Knowing that Dad already had a full set of solutions, Rueben breathed a sigh of relief.

What he and dad wanted was not the so-called Moore family head, but most of the assets of the Moore family.

After getting rid of Jasmine, being able to smoothly take charge of the entire Moore family was naturally the best situation, but if this goal was not achieved, taking a step back and being able to get most of the assets would be enough for their father and son.

Therefore, Theodore wasn't afraid of the murder of Jasmine being revealed, he was just afraid that it would be revealed too soon.

He needed to win a time gap that would be enough for him to finish off Master Moore, cash out all the Moore family's assets, and then flee to the United States.

The biggest problem is how long the time gap is.

The company is also looking for a way to get the best out of the company's products and services.

It was only after the trouble with Master Moore had been resolved that he was able to return home as soon as possible, otherwise, if he stayed in Japan, it would be like leaving a hostage for Theodore.

In ancient times, two countries that were hostile or threatening each other would often send each other hostages.

A so-called hostage was an emperor of a country who sent one of his princes to a rival country as a hostage in order to seek peace.

If the two sides engaged in bad blood during this period, then the other side could take out this hostage at any time.

Theodore was afraid of leaving Rueben in Tokyo for too long, or else if Charlie Wade found out something and took his son hostage or simply killed him to take revenge for Jasmine, then he would be considered extinct!

However, neither Theodore nor Rueben knew that the conversation between the two of them had actually been fully monitored by the ninjas of the Ito family.

After they finished their conversation, the entire recording of their conversation was sent to Nanako's phone.

Nanako immediately played the recording to Charlie Wade, who listened to it with a tight frown on his brow.

At the side, Nanako exclaimed, "Charlie Wade is really predictable, this Rueben is really the culprit!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said seriously, "Actually, this is not much of an anticipation, just remember one thing, when the real culprit of a case cannot be found, the real culprit is often the beneficiary of this case."

Saying that, Charlie Wade added, "Rueben is the eldest son and grandson of the Moore family, and by all means, his father should indeed inherit the Moore family's headship, and then pass the headship to him after his father retires."

"But Rueben's grandfather preferred to pass on the family headship to Jasmine, which invariably caused a great loss to Rueben and his son."

"So, any time Jasmine dies, their father and son are the biggest beneficiaries, and as the biggest beneficiaries, they are naturally the most suspicious."

Nanako pondered for a moment and nodded in agreement, "What Charlie Wade said really makes sense! Sometimes profit is the greatest motive for crime!"

Charlie Wade said with a bit of a haze on his expression, "Rueben and his master did have a plan for that bit of property, but they didn't expect to not only murder Jasmine, but also their own father and their own grandfather, it's so abominable!"

Nanako was busy asking, "Charlie Wade, so what are you going to do now? Do you want me to just have Rueben detained and then force his father to turn himself in?!"

Charlie Wade sneered, "It's okay to operate like this, but there are some risks."

Nanako asked, "Charlie Wade, what are the risks?"

Charlie Wade explained seriously, "If Theodore is willing to give up Rueben, then even if I kill Rueben, I won't be able to stop him."

Chapter 2104

Nanako asked again, "Charlie Wade, what are you going to do about it?"

Charlie Wade laughed, "I want to give them a will-o'-the-wisp."

"A will-o'-the-wisp?!" Nanako was surprised and asked, "Charlie Wade, what kind of will-o'-the-wisp specifically?"

Charlie Wade smiled, "Didn't Rueben and his father think that Jasmine's chances of survival were slim? Also, didn't they think they could definitely turn Moore into Alzheimer's? If I do let them have their way, and I announce to the Moore family that the search for Tokyo has turned up nothing, will Rueben and his father and son breathe a sigh of relief?"

Nanako Ito nodded and said, "That's for sure, this father and son might both be happy then to release the salute to celebrate."

Charlie Wade smiled and asked, "Then what would they do if they were to learn, at their most triumphant moment, that Master Moore didn't actually have dementia and that Jasmine wasn't dead at all?"

Nanako pursed her lips and smiled, "Once this kind of happy-go-lucky thing happens, I'm afraid they'll definitely collapse..."

Charlie Wade nodded, "That's right! All I want is for them to be happy and sad!"

Saying that, he pulled out his phone and called Master Moore.

When the call came through, Master Moore asked nervously, "Charlie Wade, have you found any clues about Jasmine?"

Charlie Wade said, "Old Master, I'm calling you because I have a matter to discuss with you."

Old Master Moore hurriedly said, "Charlie Wade what you have to tell me!"

Charlie Wade asked him, "Is it convenient for you to speak now?"

"Convenient!" Master Moore hurriedly said, "I'm in my own room right now, this place has been soundproofed, it's very safe."

Charlie Wade said seriously, "Good, what I am about to say may be a bit shocking and even unbelievable to you, but you must not doubt it, do exactly what I say, and if you do exactly what I say, not only will Jasmine live, but your Moore family will also be safe forever!"

When Master Moore heard this, he said excitedly, "Master Wade, you may command, I dare not disobey!"

Charlie Wade said indifferently, "I need you to take out the Rejuvenation Pill that I gave to Jasmine, scrape off a fifth of the dose with a razor blade and soak it in water and take it."

Master Moore was shocked and spoke out of turn, "Master Wade, why do you want the old man to take the Rejuvenation Pill? And still a fifth, what is your special intention?"

Charlie Wade hummed and said, "One fifth of the Rejuvenation Pill can at least guarantee that you will be invulnerable to a hundred poisons for the next two days."

Master Moore was even more shocked, "Master Wade, what do you mean? Did... Did someone try to poison me?"

Charlie Wade said very bluntly, "Old Master, from now on, you must always keep an eye on your eldest son, Theodore, as far as I know, he will most likely use some kind of nerve-destroying drug to destroy your brain!"

"So, you take one-fifth of the Rejuvenation Pill in advance by soaking it in water, and when you meet him, you'll eat whatever he gives you to eat; you'll drink whatever he gives you to drink, and then you'll also have to act like you don't remember or know anything at the right time."

At this point, Charlie Wade added, "Or let me put it more directly, you'll be playing the role of an Alzheimer's patient in front of Theodore!"

Master Moore was horrified, "Wade... Charlie Wade... You mean to say that... Theodore he... wants to harm me?!"

Charlie Wade didn't hide it and said seriously, "From the information I've gotten so far it's true, so you must make the best of it and see what kind of medicine they're selling!"

Chapter 2105

Aurous Hilll, Moore Family.

As soon as Theodore returned, he was so nervous that he found Master Moore asking questions, his face full of concern for Jasmine.

Master Moore looked at his eldest son, confused deep inside.

He really didn't want to believe that his eldest son, whom he had raised for fifty years, was trying to murder himself.

If this had come from any other person, Master Moore would not have died believing it.

However, when it came from Charlie Wade's mouth, Master Moore had to pay attention to it even if he didn't want to believe it.

Because, in his heart, he knew very well that Master Charlie Wade's skills were astronomical and with his character, he would never say any irresponsible words.

And since he had said that, he must have some proof!

Thinking of this, he looked at his eldest son, Theodore, while pondering in his heart, "It seems that I do have to be cautious! From now on, be sure to hit your stride!"

At that thought, he stood up and said to Theodore, "Hey, Theodore ah, Jasmine's matter has been wearing me out, my body is somewhat unwell, since you're back, you can help me with the big picture first, I need to rest first, my body can't take it anymore."

Theodore hurriedly said, "Dad, then let me help you back to your room."

Master Moore waved his hand and said, "No need, you quickly contact Rueben and ask about the progress in Japan, have you found any news about Jasmine, and tell me when you have news."

After saying that, the old man looked towards the housekeeper, Oscar, and spoke, "Oscar, help me back to my room."

Oscar nodded hurriedly and stepped forward and said respectfully, "Master, please!"

Master Moore stood up, looked at Theodore and instructed, "Theodore, after your brother leaves, he will leave behind this bloodline of Jasmine, you must let her come back alive no matter what, otherwise I will die and have no face to see the two of them, do you understand?"

A few moments of embarrassment flashed in Theodore's eyes, then he returned to his natural state and said seriously, "Don't worry dad, I'll do my best!"

Moore nodded gently, his heart sobbing.

He said this because he wanted to see if he still had the last bit of conscience if this was really Theodore's doing.

If he still had any conscience at all, he should spare his own niece and give his dead brother an afterthought.

But if he is still indifferent to what he has said, and even continues to plot against himself, then for himself, this son can also give up completely.

The company has been in the process of developing the new product for the past few years.

As soon as you enter the door, Master Moore is like a changed person, the whole person is sharp, and his body is no longer as weak as it was earlier, cold voice said to Oscar: "Oscar, close the door, come to the back room study, I'll tell you something."

Master Moore's room was actually a very large suite.

The parlor, bedroom, living room, and study were all in it, and it was very private.

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the entire room.

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the newest addition to your own home.

Chapter 2106

Back then, when Master Moore was in his prime, he was swift and decisive. The company has been in the process of developing the new product for the past two years.

Every time Master Moore was about to do something big, he would be as firm and torchy-eyed as he was now.

He hurriedly followed the old master into the study, and then, after Master Moore waited for him to close the door, the first thing he said startled Oscar!

"Oscar, activate the home surveillance system, and from now on, give me full surveillance of Theodore's every move!"

When Oscar heard this, his entire expression was on edge!

Before moving into this villa, Master Moore had specifically instructed him to find the best security company on the market and quietly install a full set of internal surveillance systems.

There were four systems installed throughout the Moore villa.

The first set was a family security system to guard against thieves and criminals.

The second is an outdoor surveillance system that captures all locations inside and outside the fence and throughout the compound 24 hours a day without a dead zone.

The third system is the emergency escape system, in the event of a natural disaster, or sudden danger, for the owner to escape. These three systems are well known to the Moore family, but the fourth internal monitoring system is only known to two people in the family, one is Moore and the other is Oscar.

The fourth system is the internal monitoring system.

The internal surveillance system, the entire villa of all places are 360 degrees without dead ends secretly monitored, secretly installed cameras each very clever, ordinary people may not be able to find ten years, and these cameras are also equipped with high-fidelity directional microphones, can clearly capture the sound of each room.

The reason why Moore installed this system, not because there is any desire to snoop, but because it is true to see more of the other giants around the internal strife, some even for money sibling rivalry, for money to kill the father and mother, for the benefit of simply everything.

However, this system has never really been used since it was installed, although it has been on 24-hour standby for so many years.

Master Moore was also considered a decent man, and he didn't want to pry into his children's and grandchildren's privacy when they didn't show anything amiss.

But now, he had to use this system to monitor what Theodore was doing to see if he was what Charlie Wade said he was, not only the culprit in Jasmine's murder, but also intent on poisoning himself!

Oscar was very nervous at this point and asked, "Master, you suddenly want to activate this internal monitoring system, is there some major change within the Moore family?"

Master Moore nodded with a heavy face, "Oscar, you and I have been friends for many years, so when problems arise in this family, you are the person I trust the most. I'm going to be acting as an Alzheimer!" "What?!"

Oscar said in stunned silence, "This... This.... Master... You.... You're not joking with me, are you?!"

Master Moore said seriously, "How can you joke about such things? If Master Wade hadn't told me, to death I wouldn't have believed it."

Oscar pondered for a moment, nodded solemnly and said seriously, "Master Wade is not an ordinary person, if he said so, he must have his reasons, this matter, you really should pay attention to it! It must be tightly guarded!"

Master Moore sighed, "This came from Master Wade's mouth, and I naturally take it very seriously, which is why I have to activate the internal monitoring system to see what Theodore is doing and saying when he's not in front of me!"

Chapter 2107

The difficulty of running a big family was comparable to running a country.

Looking at the current big families fighting each other internally, it can be compared to the ancient princes fighting among themselves as recorded in history books.

Ancient princes were willing to kill their brother and father for the sake of the throne.

But such things were common in today's society, especially in big families with assets of over 100 million.

Although the descendants of the Moore family had always acted in unity and harmony before, Master Moore was always preparing for the worst within his heart.

Now, this internal monitoring system he had prepared really came in handy.

Oscar immediately went to the bookshelf and found a hidden switch, then the bookshelf slowly moved to the left, revealing a large display embedded in the wall.

Oscar hurriedly turned the display on, then said to Master Moore, "Master, please verify it!"

Master Moore nodded, pulled out his own phone, and opened an inconspicuous piece of software from it.

This software was the entrance to this internal monitoring system.

To open the software, one also had to go through the same triple authentication as the banking software.

This triple authentication is facial recognition, traditional password and mobile phone real-time verification code, wrong one, are unable to activate the software.

After taking Moore to successfully activate the system, the wall monitor immediately turned into as many as two hundred and ten small grid of images.

These two hundred and ten small compartments of images came from two hundred and ten different locations of the camera.

Master Moore selected four of them, and the two hundred and ten images on the screen disappeared and turned into the four images he had chosen.

These four images were suddenly much larger, and you could clearly see everything on the screen.

The four images that Master Moore chose were Theodore's bedroom, Theodore's study, Theodore's living room, and the gym.

At this time, Theodore had just returned to his room, and in the picture, he passed through the living room to the bedroom and directly laid down on the soft and comfortable bed.

As soon as Moore saw his expression lying on the bed, he immediately believed in Charlie Wade's words with unwavering conviction in his heart. It wasn't that he didn't believe in Charlie Wade before, but he more or less still wanted to have a little hope in his heart.

But at this moment, when he saw Theodore lying on the bed, with his legs crossed and his face full of excitement, he knew that there must be something wrong with Theodore!

Otherwise, his niece's life and death in a foreign country would be uncertain, and no matter what, he shouldn't look like this.

Master Moore pointed at Theodore on the picture and said in a stern voice to Oscar, "Oscar, look at this beast! He was acting so anxious and heartbroken in front of me. It was all a fucking act! Now the expression on this face of his was the true reflection of his innermost being! He's happy! And very happy!"

Oscar nodded and exclaimed, "It seems that what Master Wade said is true, the Eldest Young Master does have a problem..."

Saying that, he couldn't help but exclaim, "Master, this internal surveillance system can not only determine their plot, but also lock down evidence of their crimes! You are truly too prescient!"

Master Moore sighed, "The ancestors said, born in trouble, died in peace and happiness, if a person has no sense of trouble, what's the difference between him and an animal to be slaughtered in the slaughterhouse? Only an ever-present sense of concern can allow one to survive in a dangerous society!"

He said, "But I never thought that my worries would become reality!"

At this moment, a cell phone ringing came from the screen.

It was Theodore's cell phone that rang.

Chapter 2108

Theodore, who was lying on the bed, immediately picked up the phone and said with a smile, "Rueben, I'm home, yes, don't worry, the old thing didn't find anything unusual, he probably stayed up too long feeling unwell and went back to his room to rest."

At this time, the high-fidelity directional microphone, also capturing the phone and Rueben's voice, spoke up and asked, "Dad, when are you going to drug the old thing?"

Theodore smiled and said, "Don't worry, there's no proper reality right now, I just ordered the back kitchen to make a bowl of bird's nest stew for your grandfather, I'll take it later and add the medicine to it before sending it to his room to watch him drink it with my own eyes!"

Rueben hurriedly asked again, "Dad, how long will this medicine take effect approximately?"

Theodore said, "Time is running out, I'll give the old thing an extra dose and it should take effect within an hour or two after he takes it!"

Rueben was excited and said, "That would be great! When the old thing turns into Alzheimer's, he won't have the chance to dictate the Moore family's affairs anymore!"

Theodore gave a hmmm and said, "Rueben ah, you tonight. Have a good rest first, and if that Charlie Wade has anything to tell you to do, then you should honestly do what he tells you to do, and never let him have any doubts. After my side turns the old thing into Alzheimer's, I'll call you to come back, and by then you can just fly back to Aurouss Hilll."

Rueben said excitedly, "Okay dad, then I'll wait for your news!"

When Master Moore heard this, he only felt a rush of anger!

"True!"

"This asshole really is trying to hurt me!"

"I'm his real father! He's now trying to poison me for a little family fortune!"

Master Moore was already shaking with rage at this point.

He stood up, pointed at Theodore on the screen, and roared with rage, "I, Lord Mooore, have never done anything wrong in my life, but I didn't expect to give birth to such a jackal beast! Had I known he was such a beast, I should have strangled him in his swaddling clothes!"

"And that son of a bitch Rueben! I've loved him since the day he was born, but I never thought he would do such a beastly thing for money as well!"

Oscar was similarly filled with shock and anger, but he rushed over to support Master Moore and said seriously, "Master, the priority now is not to be angry, but to think of how to deal with it!"

After a pause, Oscar added, "Not to mention anything else, just the bird's nest he prepared for you, you must never take it!"

"Not only can't we take it, but we have to be in our twelfth spirit, from now on, everything we eat and drink must be strictly guarded, and we must not leave him any opportunity to take advantage of it!"

Old Master Moore shook his head with a sad face and waved his hand, saying, "Oscar, since he already has the intention of harming me, if I remain so tightly guarded, it will instead make him realize that he has been exposed, thus becoming even more vicious! If I delay in letting him have his way, he might not just want to turn me into Alzheimer's, he might want to screw me alive."

Oscar hurriedly asked him, "Master, are you going to let them have their way and be at their mercy?"

Master Moore nodded and said seriously, "Oscar, I have the Rejuvenation Pill here from Master Wade, he specifically instructed me to use it to ward off the poison, so I guess Master Wade won't lie, so I'll just give them a will-o'-the-wisp."

When Oscar heard this, he was relieved and exclaimed, "Fortunately, there's Master Wade!"

Master Moore couldn't help but exclaim, "Hey! Yes! If it weren't for Master Wade, I'd be an old bone, and I don't know how many times I'd have died!"

Oscar nodded gently and said, "Old Master, you have been doing good deeds all your life, Master Wade might be the one that the heavens have arranged to keep you safe for life."

Old Master Moore smiled bitterly and instructed, "Oscar, if I will play the trick, I must play the role of an Alzheimer's patient, and when the time comes, you must not reveal any flaw!"

"Those two beasts know that you are my most trusted man, and if they come to you to ask anything of me, you must know how to use your wisdom to mediate with them!"

"Say what you need to say, say what you can say, and be sure to do everything you know to let them know you're loyal to them too!"

"But don't say a word about what you can't say!"

"Especially the existence of this internal monitoring system must not be known to them, understood?"

Chapter 2109

Hearing Master Moore's explanation, Oscar nodded heavily without hesitation, "Master, don't worry, I'll keep what you've explained firmly in mind!"

Only then did Master Moore put his mind at ease, then he waved his hand somewhat weakly and said, "Oscar, I'm a bit tired, you go and get busy, I'll rest for a while."

Oscar said somewhat nervously, "Master, why don't you go to the bedroom and rest, I'll keep watch outside in the living room, otherwise I really don't feel at ease..."

Master Moore smiled bitterly and asked him, "Are you afraid that you won't be there when they drug me?"

"Yes..." Oscar's eyes reddened as he said incomparably seriously, "Master, Master Wade is certainly very powerful, but this kind of thing, I'm really afraid of a bit of a change..."

Old Master Moore smiled calmly and said, "Don't worry, since some things are beyond your control, you must feel free to leave it to someone more capable, and then trust that person wholeheartedly."

Said Master Moore, "It's like when you first started playing skydiving, before you accumulate enough jumps, you must be led by an instructor, every time you jump from a plane, your fate is not in your own hands, but in the hands of that instructor behind you, all you have to do at such a time is to confidently give your life to him, and let the professionals and go do the professional thing."

Oscar knew that this professional he was talking about in his words was Master Wade, so he nodded gently and said, "Master, then I will do as you say."

Master Moore hummed, then nodded slightly and instructed, "When you go out, do whatever you should do, and don't come to me if you are not called, or if you don't have anything important to do."

Oscar was busy saying, "Okay Master, then you rest for a while, I'm going out!"

Master Moore waved his hand and sighed softly, "Hey... Go!"

After Oscar left, Master Moore had been in front of the monitor, observing his son who had raised him for fifty years.

The more he watched, the more he felt that the man in the video became stranger and stranger.

In the video, Theodore was repeatedly playing with a drug in his hands, his expression not hesitant, only clearly excited and unable to hold back.

Master Moore's heart was a pall, and he was more and more certain that this son of his had almost no affection or kindness for him.

An hour later, Theodore, who had long since been unable to hold back, was beginning to lose his seat.

He didn't want to wait any longer, so he got up and went to the back kitchen.

The chef had followed his instructions and was already using a gentle fire to stew up an iced sugar bird's nest.

As soon as Theodore arrived, he asked, "Has the bird's nest prepared for the Master been stewed?"

The chef panicked, "Back to the Eldest Young Master, there's still a ten minute wait."

Theodore waved his hand, "No more waiting, the old master is hungry and needs something to replenish his strength, just serve me a bowl, I'll personally deliver it to the old master."

The chef didn't dare to disobey, hurriedly propped out a bowl and carefully placed it into the tray, saying to Theodore, "Young Master, the bowl is very hot, be careful."

Theodore gave a hummm and took the tray and went back to his room first.

After returning to his room, he took out the medicine he had already prepared and added all of one of the medicinal liquids to the bird's nest that night.

When Master Moore saw this scene, he smiled bitterly and shook his head. He was the only one in the study at this time, and he couldn't help but say to himself, "Theodore, you and I have been father and son for fifty years, and from this day onwards, our love is broken! All the things of the past are like passing clouds from today onwards; if you blow it away, it is completely gone!"

He then stood up, turned off the monitoring system, and restored the study to its original state.

Then from his phone, he completely deleted that software that authorized the internal monitoring system as well.

From now on, he was going to go exactly as Master Wade said.

Chapter 2110

So, after Theodore drugged himself and before Charlie Wade returned, he was an Alzheimer's patient.

An Alzheimer's patient can't use a cell phone, so you can't even touch it during this time.

So, just in case, it would be more stable to just delete the software. Master Moore then found the Rejuvenation Pill, scraped off a layer from the top, soaked it in water and took it.

Right after that, he went back to his bed and laid down.

Just then, the visual screen on the bed suddenly lit up, and Theodore appeared in the picture, followed by a pleasant ringing of the Turkish March.

It was the doorbell of Master Moore's room.

Due to the fact that his own suite was too large, when one was in the bedroom or study, one couldn't hear anyone knocking outside, which was why he had pressed such a set of visual doorbells.

Seeing that it was his eldest son carrying a drugged bird's nest and arriving outside his own room, Master Moore sighed lightly and pressed the answer button, "Theodore, are you in trouble?"

Theodore hurriedly said to the camera, "Dad, are you still sleeping?"

Master Moore deliberately let his voice be slightly tired as he said, "I just fell asleep and you woke me up, what's so urgent?"

Theodore was busy saying, "Dad, just now I saw that you looked tired, so I asked the back kitchen to cook you a bowl of iced sugar bird's nest, I want you to drink it while it's hot to replenish your strength and also restore your vitality."

Master Moore gave a hmmm and said, "You're kind, come in."

Saying that, he pressed the button to open the door.

When Theodore heard the door make a click, he knew that the lock had been disengaged, so he pushed the door into the room, through the living room, and into the bedroom.

He stepped forward to Master Moore's bed and asked with concern, "Dad, how are you resting?"

Master Moore said absent-mindedly, "It's okay, squinting for a while."

After saying that, he eagerly asked, "How's Jasmine doing? Any news from Japan yet?"

Theodore shook his head and said with a somewhat pained expression, "Dad, there's no valuable news from Japan yet, I'm also continuing to communicate with Rueben, and at the same time I've asked him to put pressure on the Japanese Police Department, once there are any concrete clues, I'll inform you at once."

Moore nodded, exclaiming, "I'm much relieved that you're back."

Theodore smiled slightly and said respectfully, "Dad, iced sugar bird's nest is perfect for tonifying blood, so drink it now while it's hot."

A hint of sadness flashed in Master Moore's eyes.

In the end, this son of his was still going to do something to himself.

So, without hesitation, he sat up and said to Theodore, "Go, help me sit for a while while I go to the living room and drink!"

Theodore was delighted and hurriedly said, "Okay dad! I'll help you to the living room!"

Theodore assisted the old man to the living room and had the old man sit down on the sofa, he immediately eagerly handed over the iced sugar bird's nest and respectfully said, "Dad, you drink it while it's hot."

Without any hesitation, Master Moore nodded and received the bowl of iced sugar bird's nest, took a sip, and exclaimed, "It tastes good, you've got heart!"

Theodore didn't expect things to go so smoothly, his heart was ecstatic and said with a smile, "Dad, why are you still so polite with me, isn't this all I should be doing?"

"Should do?" Old Master Moore smiled and nodded seriously in a whirl, he forced down the sadness in his heart and exclaimed heartily, "Oh my, that's right, it's the right thing to do, indeed it's the right thing to do! I, Lord Mooore, have raised a good son! Hahahaha!"

Chapter 2111

Master Moore's sudden emotion made Theodore feel more or less guilty. However, he carefully observed Old Master Moore and found that there didn't seem to be anything wrong with the old man, so he also put his mind at ease.

He felt that he had almost never disobeyed the old master on a regular basis, and even if he wanted to give the Moore family's headship to Jasmine, he hadn't expressed very strong opposition to it, so the old master shouldn't suspect anything to his head.

So, he smiled slightly and said with a filial face, "Dad, drink more while it's hot, and I'll have the backstage kitchen cook you a cup of Buddha's Jumping Wall in the evening to replenish your body."

Master Moore nodded and did not speak, but ate all of the bird's nest in the bowl in one gulp.

Seeing the old man eat all of the bird's nest in the bowl, Theodore was completely relieved and laughed coldly in his heart, "Jasmine's life and death is uncertain, the old thing has turned into Alzheimer's, no one in the Moore family can be an enemy to himself anymore! Old thing, since time immemorial, it's always the eldest son who inherits the unification, if you insist on giving me this demon moth, then don't blame me for being ruthless!"

Then, he smiled and said to the old man, "Dad, you rest for a while longer, I'll go out and give Rueben a call and ask him how he's progressing."

The old master nodded lightly, "Go ahead."

Theodore stepped out of the old master's room, and didn't really call Rueben right away, but directly found one of his henchmen and called him into his room, and seriously said, "From now on, keep a close eye on the old master's every move, and everything the old master does and says must be told to me, understand? "

The other party immediately nodded, "Understood milord."

At this moment, Master Moore, who was lying on the bed, suddenly felt a headache coming on, and for a moment the pain felt as if his entire brain was being stripped out.

But soon, there was a warm energy in his body that completely drove that pain away from his body.

He knew very well in his heart that the headache must have originated from the neurotoxin that Theodore had given himself.

And that warm energy was the small amount of rejuvenation pills that he had taken in advance.

The old man couldn't help but lament in his heart, "It seems that the Rejuvenation Pill is really as Charlie Wade said, able to resist all kinds of toxins! Now that we've escaped the neurotoxin, the next thing to do is to play dumb for 24 hours and make sure that no one sees any flaws until Charlie Wade returns!"

So he took advantage of his last bit of relative freedom to pull out his phone and look up the symptoms associated with Alzheimer's disease.

He found that Alzheimer's disease, also known as Alzheimer's, causes memory impairment, as well as loss of cognition, speech and vision.

In severe cases of Alzheimer's disease, there is not only severe memory loss, but also incontinence, stiffness, and vacant eyes. Seeing this, Master Moore mused in his heart, "It seems that if I want that adversary to completely believe that I've become Alzheimer's, I must show the symptoms of severe dementia, only then will I be able to completely reassure him..."

An hour later.

Theodore had been keeping an eye on the time, and now that an hour and a half had passed since the old man had taken his medicine, it was reasonable to say that the effects of the medicine should have already taken hold.

Thus, he planned to go to the old master's room to see what was going on. When he arrived in front of the door of the old master's room and pressed the doorbell, there was no response in the room.

He was delighted, but on the surface, he pressed again without showing his face.

This time there was still no response.

So he pretended to be alarmed and said, "Someone! Come on people!"

Chapter 2112

All of a sudden, several servants ran over and asked after him, "Young Master, what's happened?!"

Theodore said, "I pressed the master's doorbell with no response, I'm afraid that someone has had an accident, you guys quickly help me break down the door!"

A few of the servants tensed up as they heard, and one of them volunteered, "I'll do it!"

The other man was busy saying, "I'm with you!"

At that moment, Oscar also heard the news and asked nervously, "Young Master, what's wrong with the Master?!"

Theodore saw him and was busy saying, "Oscar, you're just in time, my father is in his room, he rang the doorbell several times with no response, I'm afraid he had an accident."

Oscar's heart tightened, realizing at once that Theodore should have already drugged the old master, his heart was suddenly a bit angry and also a bit sad as well as worried.

He also didn't know whether Charlie Wade's method would be able to spare the old master or not.

However, he didn't dare to show any hesitation, and hurriedly said, "Then quickly break down the door and go in to have a look!"

Several of the servants had begun to push together, running and crashing into the door, and after a few times, the door crashed open with a bang.

Immediately afterwards, Theodore raked off the left and right people, rushed in with a tense, one-horse race, and once inside, ran straight into the bedroom, shouting, "Dad! Dad are you okay Dad!"

I said, pushing open the bedroom door!

As soon as Theodore entered the door, he was immediately stunned by the sight before him!

And then rushed in Oscar, as well as a few of his servants, frightened by what was happening!

Between now and then, Master Moore was standing at the edge of the bed with a dazed look on his face.

When Master Moore saw so many people suddenly rush in, he was so frightened that he cried out, and his entire body stumbled towards the balcony, crying out, "You... Who are you guys... What are you guys doing..."

Theodore's heart blossomed with joy as he saw the old man looking like this!

"The old thing sure is Alzheimer's! I can't even control my bowels! That's really steady!"

I'm not sure if I'm going to be able to do that, but I think I'm going to be able to do that. Don't you recognize me? I'm Theodore ah!"

Master Moore was angry inside at this point, but he also admired this son of his.

"This beast, it really is able to flex and be open-minded, my son is dirty like this, he can come up and hug me without hesitation even in front of so many people, and he's acting so true, he seems to be number one too!"

Thinking of this, Master Moore couldn't help but mock himself, "What's the difference between me and the others? In order to convince him completely, to even act out something like incontinence, it's considered more open-minded than this beast..."

Although Moore had mixed feelings in his heart, the drama still had to go on, so he desperately tried to break free of Theodore and cried out loudly, "Kill... Kill!"

Theodore cried out loudly, "Oscar! Get a car and take my dad to the hospital! Quick!"

Chapter 2113

Theodore hurriedly went back to his room and changed into clean clothes while Oscar took Lord Mooore to the hospital.

In the process of changing clothes, he had already called Rueben and officially informed Rueben and asked him to return to Arouuss Hilll immediately.

Rueben has been waiting for the news, so he almost immediately began arranging the private jet to prepare for take-off, and was scheduled to leave Tokyo early tomorrow morning.

In order to prevent Charlie Wade from doubting, Rueben also called Charlie Wade respectfully. On the phone, he said respectfully: "Master Wade, my father called me just now. Grandpa's body seems to have a little problem. I rush back as soon as possible, so I may leave Tokyo early tomorrow morning..."

Charlie Wade pretended to be surprised and asked, "Rueben, what's wrong with your grandpa? Isn't it a serious problem?"

Rueben hurriedly said: "Master Wade, don't worry, my dad said there is nothing serious, but his mind seems to be a little unconscious, so I hurried back to take a look."

As he said, he said pleadingly: "Master Wade, I have to leave Tokyo temporarily this time. I can only ask you to find Wanting. Please do your best to find Jasmine and bring her. Back to Arouuss Hilll, I represent our family, thank you!"

Charlie Wade snorted and said, "Don't worry, I will do my best. The best case is that I will be able to take Jasmine back to Arouuss Hilll in a few days."

Rueben on the other end of the phone sneered when he heard this, "The surname is Wade, did you fucking wake up? Jasmine has been missing for more than 24 hours. Even if she didn't die in the car accident, she was in that mountain. I guess there is no way to survive in the old forest after so long!"

"Furthermore, the deep mountains of Nishitama County are inaccessible, and there are many wild animals. Maybe her body is now eaten by the birds and beasts in the mountains and only the bones are left. Do you want to take her back to Aurouss Hilll?! Have your dream of spring and autumn. !” However, even though he thought so in his heart, Rueben still said very sincerely, “Master Wade, thank you so much!”

Charlie Wade said indifferently: “Don’t be so polite, it’s not too early, you take a good rest, go back tomorrow morning, and help me bring Lord Mooore well by the way.”

After hanging up the phone, Charlie Wade wiped a mocking smile from the corner of his mouth.

Theodore and Rueben and his son must be very proud now.

They must feel that Jasmine has a high probability of death, and Lord Mooore himself has become Alzheimer’s, and now the entire Moore family has become their bag.

Okay, let them be proud.

After Rueben left, he sneaked away from Tokyo with Jasmine and returned to Aurouss Hilll quietly, catching them by surprise!

At that time, they thought that Lord Mooore, who had become Alzheimer’s, would also tear off the disguise, interact with them inside and outside, and give them a fatal blow!

Just thinking, Nanako Ito ran over, knocked on Charlie Wade’s half-open sliding door, poked her head in and smiled sweetly, and said, “Charlie Wade, Miss Moore is awake.”

Charlie Wade smiled and said, “She slept all day and finally woke up.”

Nanako Ito smiled and said, “She was frightened last night, and after walking in the mountains for so long, she must be exhausted. It is normal to sleep longer.”

Then, she said: “By the way, Charlie Wade, I have arranged for Miss Moore to go to the hot springs to relieve fatigue. My father sent someone to send a freshly caught bluefin tuna, and the family members prepared two bottles of Yamazaki 50. In the evening, I invite you and Miss Moore to eat sashimi and sushi.”

Bluefin tuna is the most expensive fish, the quality is better, one piece is worth ten million, and the next one kilogram is more than ten thousand dollars.

And this is not the terminal retail price, this is the package auction price of the whole fish.

Chapter 2114

In the past two years, a big Japanese boss bought a bluefin tuna weighing 278 kilograms, which cost a full 3.1 million U.S. dollars, and the average price per kilogram was 11,000 U.S. dollars.

And if this quality of bluefin tuna is delivered to top restaurants, the price will be several times higher.

Eat the most expensive bluefin tuna in the most high-end shops. The price of fish is even more expensive than gold.

As for the Yamazaki Fifty Years Old Whiskey, it is the top whisky of Japan’s national treasure, with a single bottle of more than 3 million. Ito Yuhiko used such expensive ingredients and drinks to host a banquet, which is enough to see how much she values Charlie Wade.

When Charlie Wade came to the restaurant, Ito Yuihiko had been waiting here for a long time.

At this time, a huge bluefin tuna was placed in the center of the huge wooden dining table. The body of this bluefin tuna was covered with ice cubes made of frozen pure water.

A chef is holding a sashimi knife standing next to him. After the meal is opened, he will directly cut different parts of the bluefin tuna from the bluefin tuna for the guests to enjoy.

Seeing Charlie Wade's arrival, Ito Yuhiko hurriedly said with enthusiasm: "Mr. Wade, please take a seat! Mr. Wade has a good fortune today. This is a bluefin tuna brought by the fishing boat just an hour ago. It is the best quality in Tokyo this year. Good one!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said seriously: "Mr. Ito is really too polite. In fact, I don't have much demand for food. You don't have to spend so much."

Ito Yuihiko said very solemnly: "Mr. Wade is a distinguished guest of our unified family, and the best ingredients and wine are naturally used to entertain distinguished guests!"

Then, he asked Nanako Ito: "Nanako, Miss Moore hasn't gotten up yet?"

Nanako Ito smiled and said, "Ms. Moore is in the hot spring. I have ordered the next person to bring her over after Ms. Moore finishes soaking in the hot spring."

"Okay." Ito Xiuhiko nodded lightly and smiled: "Then we will wait for Miss Moore to come."

Charlie Wade remembered something at this time and asked Ito Takehiko: "By the way, Mr. Ito, I want to ask you something."

Ito Yuihiko hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, you don't have to be so polite, just ask if you have anything, I must know everything!"

Charlie Wade nodded and asked him: "If I want to leave Japan quietly without disturbing the customs, do you have any good ideas?"

Ito Yuihiko thought for a while, and said, "If you don't want to disturb the customs, you can only use the smuggling road."

Charlie Wade asked again: "How is it more convenient to smuggle? Is it feasible?"

Ito Yuhiko explained: "There is basically only one way to smuggle from the sea by boat, especially an island country like Japan, which is not bordered by any country. If you want to leave secretly, there are only two roads, the sea and the sky. The aircraft control is extremely strict and there is basically no operating space, so the only option is to go by sea."

With that said, Ito Yuhiko said again: "Japan has a long coastline, and shipping is relatively developed. There are too many ships coming and going. It is not difficult to smuggle out by sea."

Charlie Wade heard this and said to him: "Mr. Ito, please help me prepare a boat. I want to bring Jasmine back to China."

"Smuggling back home?" Ito said in a puzzled way: "Mr. Wade, if you want to smuggle back to your country, you must not only conceal the Japanese customs, but also your domestic customs. It would be a bit too tossing..."

"It doesn't matter." Charlie Wade said seriously: "Aurouss Hilll can solve it easily. I will let people prepare everything. Mainly, I have nothing to do with Japan. The only friend who can ask for help is you. I don't know if you can Get a boat for me and let Jasmine and I leave Japan quietly by boat?"

Chapter 2115

Hearing Charlie Wade's request, Ito said without hesitation: "Mr. Wade, the boat is a small matter. I can prepare a luxury yacht for you at any time and make sure that you can leave Tokyo by sea without any hindrance. I just don't know you. When do you plan to leave?"

Charlie Wade asked him: "How long will it take to return home by sea?"

Ito Takehiko said: "Luxury yachts are generally large in size. Large ships have high stability and strong resistance to wind and waves, but their speed will be slightly slower. The average speed per hour is only about 50 or 60 kilometers. From here to Aurouss Hilll , You must first go to the Yangtze River estuary in Highland Falls City, a distance of about 2,000 kilometers, and at least 30 hours of sailing."

While talking, Ito Yuhiko said again: "But because we are smuggling the country, we still need time to deal with the Coast Guard, and the speed will definitely slow down when we get to the shore. So I estimate that it will take at least three times to get from Tokyo to Highland Falls.

Fifteen hours."

Charlie Wade smacked his lips and said, "Thirty-five hours...it's really a bit longer..."

Ito nodded and said helplessly: "Smuggling is the fastest. You know, smuggling is basically by sea. If you are smuggling from Asia to North America, it will take more than a month to float at sea. "

Charlie Wade said, "This is only the time to get to Highland Falls. From Highland Falls to Aurouss Hilll, it will take at least a few hours?"

Ito Yuhiko explained: "If you still take a boat from Highland Falls to Aurouss Hilll, this is estimated to be another seven or eight hours' voyage. However, if you are in a hurry, I would suggest that you go to Aurouss Hilll by helicopter on the shore of Highland Falls, in that case. , Just over an hour."

Charlie Wade immediately said, "Okay, if that's the case, please trouble Mr. Ito to prepare the ship as soon as possible. I want to leave tonight."

Both Ito Yuhiko and Nanako Ito were shocked. The father and daughter said in unison: "Huh? Let's leave tonight?!"

Charlie Wade nodded, and solemnly said: "Rueben went back by plane, and arrived in Aurouss Hilll in more than two hours. I can't take Jasmine to fly directly. After all, the entire Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department thought Jasmine was lost and dead. Searching hard, the customs is connected with them. If Jasmine suddenly exits the customs, the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department will get the news as soon as possible. At that time, I am afraid that they will be detained by the customs and checked. ."

After speaking, Charlie Wade added: "Furthermore, Theodore and Rueben and his son must still fully monitor Jasmine's whereabouts. Once she appears at the customs, it will be completely exposed. So, to be cautious, let her continue. He remained missing in front of the outside world, and then quietly left Japan and returned to Aurouss Hilll."

Nanako Ito was feeling a little lost at this time, and Ito Yuhiko next to him said, "Mr. Wade, it's hard to come here, why not stay for two days, so that you can do everything you like as a landlord!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "I understand Mr. Ito's kindness, but this matter is really important. If you delay, I am afraid that something will happen in Aurouss Hilll. After all, Jasmine's grandfather is still in Aurouss Hilll."

Ito realized it suddenly, and said hurriedly: "I understand! This is really urgent. Otherwise, I will have someone prepare the ship now, and then take care of the relationship with the coast guard, and strive to get off at one or two o'clock tonight."

Charlie Wade said gratefully, "Thank you so much, Mr. Ito."

Ito Yuihiko quickly waved his hand: "You are welcome, Mr. Wade, you are the great benefactor of the Ito family, you should do things for you!"

As he said, he took out his cell phone and said to Charlie Wade: "Mr. Wade, I'll make arrangements for the call, and let me get out of here."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "I also want to make a call to settle the domestic affairs."

Afterwards, Charlie Wade took out his mobile phone, pulled a group on WeChat, pulled Cameron Isaac and Don Albertt into the group, and said, "Are you two taking it easy now? If it's convenient, let's have a conference call."

The two immediately replied: "Convenient!"

Charlie Wade immediately initiated a group voice call, and Cameron Isaac and Don Albertt connected one after another.

Cameron Isaac came in first, and said, "Master, what do you want?"

Chapter 2116

Then Don Albertt also came in: "Master Wade, what do you want to order?"

Charlie Wade said: "That's right, you two are people I can trust, so what I will tell you next, you must keep it strictly confidential and strictly enforce it, do you understand?"

The two said in unison: "Don't worry! We must keep it strictly confidential! Strictly enforce it!"

Charlie Wade gave a hum, and continued: "Theodore and Rueben are about to usurp the throne in the Moore family. You two quickly contact Theodore and tell me that Lord Moore has something wrong with his body, so I want to visit Moore. Father, pay more attention to Lord Moore's physical condition and personal safety."

Cameron Isaac blurted out: "The Moore family and his son are going to usurp the throne?! Then Miss Jasmine had an accident in Tokyo, did they also do it?"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "Yes, they arranged it alone."

Don Albertt gritted his teeth and said: "Damn! This father and son are really mean-hearted, even their relatives can be dealt with! I will let the brothers hack them to death!"

Charlie Wade exhorted: "Don't be so impulsive, I will solve them, father and son, and what you have to do is to protect the safety of Lord Moore."

Don Albertt had no choice but to say angrily: "Okay Master Wade, I will listen to you!"

Charlie Wade said again: "One more thing, I'm going to take Jasmine to return home by sea. Then the ship will dock at Highland Falls. Isaac, you can arrange a helicopter in advance for me. When we arrive, we will transfer to the helicopter immediately to Aurouss Hill!"

Cameron Isaac said without hesitation: "No problem, Master, I will make arrangements tonight to let the helicopter wait for you at Highland Falls!"

Charlie Wade said with satisfaction: "Okay, you two will closely monitor the Moore family's father and son's every move, and report any actions to me in time."

After the phone call, Jasmine, who had just finished soaking in the hot spring, walked over quickly under the leadership of someone from the Ito family.

When he arrived, he said embarrassedly: "I'm so sorry, I made everyone wait for me..."

Nanako Ito hurriedly smiled and said, "Miss Moore, don't be so polite, we just sat down."

With that, she stood up and said, "Miss Moore, would you like to sit with me?"

Jasmine nodded: "Okay, thank you Miss Ito."

With that, she sat down beside Nanako Ito.

Nanako Ito looked at her still wet hair, and smiled and said, "Miss Moore's hair is really good, black and shiny, and it has a lot of volume. I don't know what to maintain her hair normally?"

Jasmine smiled slightly and said, "I usually use a kind of ginger shampoo, which has a hair growth effect. When combined with a nourishing hair mask, the hair quality can be guaranteed. However, the brand I use should not be available in Japan. After I go back, I will mail you some."

Nanako Ito said excitedly: "Oh, thank you so much, Miss Moore!"

Jasmine smiled and said, "Miss Ito doesn't have to be so polite, and there is no need to always call me Miss Moore, just call me Jasmine."

Nanako Ito said earnestly: "Miss Moore is older than me, then I should call you Sister Jasmine!"

Chapter 2117

Nanako Ito is still in her senior year, 22 years old, about the same age as Aurora.

Jasmine is about the same age as Charlie Wade.

Therefore, Jasmine is four years older than Nanako Ito.

It was reasonable for Nanako Ito to call her sister.

But Jasmine was flattered by Nanako Ito's attitude.

Nanako Ito is now the head of the Ito family, the largest family in Japan, whose family strength is ten times that of the Moore family.

With such strength, she can still be so polite to Jasmine and actively call her sister. Naturally, Jasmine is moved and feels a little closer to Nanako Ito.

After all, it was a woman who shared a lot of topics in common, so the two of them quickly talked in full swing.

At this time, Ito Xiuhiko also came back. He first greeted Jasmine politely, and then he said: "Mr. Wade, the ship has been arranged. To board the ship at the Tokyo container port tonight, you are really lucky. Well, internal sources say that tonight the Coast Guard's patrol is conducting equipment overhauls, so maritime supervision will be very lax, and going to sea tonight is the easiest."

As he spoke, Ito Yuihiko said again: "But I have also greeted the Coast Guard. If they make any changes, they will not conduct any inspections on your boat."

"Okay." Charlie Wade nodded in satisfaction and said: "Mr. Ito has been involved in this matter."

Ito said respectfully: "Mr. Wade and I don't have to be so polite!"

Jasmine, who was whispering to Nanako, suddenly heard this and hurriedly asked Charlie Wade, "Shall we leave tonight?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Let's leave by boat tonight."

Jasmine's heart was tense, and she hurriedly asked, "Master Wade, has something happened in Aurouss Hill?"

Charlie Wade didn't tell her about Theodore and Rueben's medicine for Lord Moore, so he smiled slightly and said, "Don't think about it, nothing has happened, but I want to take it quietly without disturbing anyone. You return home."

Jasmine nodded lightly, and said gratefully: "Thank you, Master Wade." After speaking, he looked at Ito Yuihiko and Nanako Ito, and bowed slightly: "Mr. Ito, Miss Nanako, thank you for your help and care!" Nanako Ito hurriedly said, "Sister Jasmine, don't be so polite with Nanako. Don't forget that you are my elder sister. We are also good sisters. From now on, this will be your home. If you come to Japan anytime, please stay. Come home!"

With that, Nanako Ito looked at Charlie Wade again, and said with dismay: "The same goes for Charlie Wade. Please remember Charlie Wade, this will always be your home in Japan!"

Charlie Wade nodded slightly, smiled and said, "Don't worry, I will remember."

Ito Yuihiko hurriedly said: "By the way, Ms. Moore wants to cooperate with Nippon Steel? Do you want me to call Watanabe Shinka over and let him sign the cooperation agreement with you first?"

Jasmine was speechless in surprise. Charlie Wade took the lead at this time and asked, "Is this person highly credible? Will he disclose Jasmine's situation to the outside world?"

Ito Yuihiko promised: "Mr. Wade can rest assured, Watanabe Shinka is absolutely reliable. I will tell him to keep secrets strictly and he will not talk nonsense."

Charlie Wade nodded: "Well, in that case, please ask Mr. Ito to ask him over for me, and sign the contract tonight."

Jasmine hurriedly said, "Master Charlie Wade, is this appropriate?"

Although she also wanted to win the Nippon Steel's cooperation agreement, this operation was not a normal business cooperation negotiation at all, but completely used Ito's favor. She was very worried that Charlie Wade would owe Ito for herself. Jasmine is too emotional.

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently at this time and said: "You don't have to worry about this matter, I will make the decision."

Jasmine wanted to say something, but after thinking about it, she gave up.

She knew that she already owed Charlie Wade too much. Anyway, her life and heart belonged to him. As long as he nodded his head, her body and even the entire Moore family could belong to him, so she didn't need to care too much. How much do you owe him.

Chapter 2118

Charlie Wade remembered one thing, and said to Ito Takehiko: "By the way, Mr. Ito, I have to trouble you and do one more thing for me."

Ito Yuhiko hurriedly said, "Please tell me."

Charlie Wade said, "What's the name of the vice president of Nippon Steel who docked with Wanting? Hashimoto, right?"

"Yes." Ito Nodded: "It's Hashimoto Kinzie!"

Charlie Wade sneered and said, "You send a few ninjas and tie them to me, but don't send them here after you've tied them. You can get me to the dock directly, and then put them in the cabin. Take it to Aurouss Hilll!"

Ito Yuihiko said without hesitation: "Okay Mr. Wade, I will make arrangements!"

Although Hashimoto Kinxian is an executive of Nippon Steel, he can be regarded as a man of good looks, but he is still far behind the Ito family.

He usually takes a driver and two bodyguards at most, but he certainly can't afford a ninja, such a top Japanese existence, so sending a few ninjas to tie him is absolutely easy.

Yuhiko Ito arranged both matters in an orderly manner.

He asked his family's ninja to immediately tie up Hashimoto Kinmae, and at the same time he called Nippon Steel's chairman Shinwa Watanabe and invited him to talk at home.

Although Shinkazu Watanabe was the chairman of Nippon Steel, he respected Ito Yuhiko, and drove over immediately when he heard his call.

And the two lived very close, so ten minutes later, he had already arrived at Ito's home.

As soon as Watanabe Shinka entered the door and saw Ito Yuhiko, he hurried forward and said with a bit of humility: "Brother Ito, I don't know if you are looking for me so late, what can I tell you?"

Ito Yuhiko smiled slightly, and said playfully: "Calling you over so late will not delay the world of you and your wife?"

Watanabe Shinka smiled awkwardly, his expression a little lonely.

Although Watanabe Shinka is about the same age as Ito Takehiko this year, and his physical condition is relatively good, only in the matter of men and women, there is something unspeakable.

He didn't know what was going on. He was good everywhere, but his ability was getting worse and worse.

Originally, he and his wife lived together at least three times a week, and the two were considered harmonious.

But in the past two years, the desire and ability in this area have plummeted.

From three times a week, to once a week, once every two weeks.

Now, he has reached a month and it is difficult to have a state once.

Shinka Watanabe has been to many hospitals and looked for many experts, but the feedback they gave is that this ability is sometimes irrelevant to the overall condition of the body.

Some people are obviously very healthy, and can even be said to be very strong, but that's not enough.

But some people look at the wind as they fall down, but they are incredibly strong in that respect.

Physical fitness cannot be equated with that ability.

Moreover, the ability in that area is also very troublesome to treat.

Some are physiological degeneration, some are neurological degeneration, and some are psychological degeneration.

All in all, if something goes wrong in this regard, no matter how rich it is, it may not be cured.

Because of this, Watanabe Shinka was only troubled by this incident, but he was ashamed to tell others about this incident, so Ito didn't know anything about it.

However, Charlie Wade saw the melancholy between Watanabe Shin and his expression, and then carefully looked at his expression, and he knew the situation well.

Chapter 2119

At this time, after Ito Yuhiko and Watanabe Shinkazu chatted a few more words, Ito Yuhiko entered the topic.

"Shinwa, I have two things to come to you this time. The first thing is to taste bluefin tuna and taste Yamazaki 50-year-old whiskey."

Watanabe Shinka smiled slightly, and asked with a smile, "What about the other thing?"

Ito Yuihiko smiled and said, "Don't you want to build a joint venture in China? I will introduce you a good partner, Miss Jasmine from the Moore Group."

After that, Ito pointed at Jasmine at the dinner table.

Only then did Watanabe Shinka see Jasmine.

The whole person was immediately stunned.

He was shocked and said: "Moore...Miss Moore?! Isn't it been reported on TV all the time that Miss Moore is still missing after the accident?! Why... how could she be here?!"

Ito Yuihiko said at this moment: "Miss Moore is a distinguished guest in my family. She encountered an emergency this time. Because the matter was more sensitive, she did not disclose her whereabouts. Shinwa, you must keep a secret, understand? ?"

When Watanabe Shinka heard this, he nodded hurriedly and said solemnly: "Brother Ito, don't worry, I will never reveal a word!"

Yuihiko Ito smiled with satisfaction and said, "In that case, you first represent Nippon Steel and sign the cooperation agreement with Miss Moore!"

Having said that, Ito Yuihiko said very seriously: "Brother, I'm selling my face. In terms of cooperation terms, we must make appropriate concessions!"

Watanabe Shinka said without hesitation: "Brother Ito, since you have spoken, I will definitely give the best discount in terms of terms!"

Jasmine hurriedly stood up at this time and said to Watanabe Shinwa: "Mr. Watanabe, I have been admiring the name for a long time! I am Jasmine, and I hope you will take care of it in the future."

Watanabe Shinka nodded and smiled and said, "Miss Moore, since you are a distinguished guest of Brother Ito, you are naturally also my distinguished guest of Shinwa Watanabe. In our daily overseas cooperation, we generally strive for holding, but since Brother Ito speaks. Now, let's just keep it simple. You hold 51% of the shares and we hold 49%. What do you think?"

Jasmine's biggest goal in coming to Japan this time is to reach a holding cooperation with Nippon Steel.

She is completely satisfied with the Moore Group holding 51%.

I talked to that Hashimoto for so long before, and tried to get a 50% shareholding of both parties but failed. So now Watanabe Shinka directly agreed to let the Moore Group hold 51%, which made her immediately excited.

So Jasmine hurriedly bowed to Watanabe Shinwa and thanked: "Mr. Watanabe, thank you so much! I believe we, the Moore Group, will definitely not disappoint you!"

Watanabe Shinka is also very on the road, pointing directly at the Ito Yuhiko next to him, and earnestly said: "Miss Moore, you have to thank Brother Ito for this matter. Brother Ito spoke, I naturally raised my hands in agreement."

For Watanabe Shinka, he doesn't know Jasmine, so he doesn't care if Jasmine owes him favors. What he cares about is letting Ito take his favors in mind, and if he needs it in the future, he will ask Ito Takehiko to get them back.

When Jasmine heard this, she looked at Ito Takehiko gratefully, and said thankfully, "Mr. Ito, thank you for your help. I am indebted!"

Ito Xiuhiko is even more of a human spirit. He doesn't want Jasmine to owe him favor. The reason why he helped is to sell Charlie Wade's face, so he hurriedly said: "Miss Moore, in the final analysis, I still have to thank Mr. Wade for everything!"

Charlie Wade looked at the performance of Ito Yuhiko and Watanabe Shinka, with a slight smile on his face.

He is very clear about the mentality of these two people. It's nothing more than a chain of relationships. Watanabe Shinwa sells Ito Yuhiko's face, Ito Yuhiko sells his own face.

Chapter 2120

If that's the case, then just put the favor of both of them on yourself. And since it's hanging on yourself, don't owe it all the time. In order to avoid long nights and dreams, just pay it back before you leave!

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade said to Jasmine and Nanako Ito, "Jasmine, Nanako, please leave me for a while. We men have something to talk about in private."

Nanako Ito stood up without hesitation and smiled: "Sister Jasmine, do you like puppies?"

Jasmine nodded: "I like it!"

Nanako Ito smiled and said, "I have a few purebred Akita dogs at home, and six little ones who are just two months old. They are very cute. They are raised in the east yard. I will take you to see?"

Jasmine said excitedly: "Great, let's go now!"

"Ok!"

Seeing Nanako Ito and Jasmine go hand in hand, Charlie Wade retracted his gaze, looked at Watanabe Shinka, and said with a smile: "Mr. Watanabe, Jasmine is a good friend of mine. Can you agree to let her work together? I am very grateful for my 51% shareholding."

Watanabe replayed the old and new tunes, and hurriedly said, "Oh, it's all because of Brother Ito's face.."

Charlie Wade waved his hand to interrupt him, and said seriously: "Mr. Watanabe, it's better not to look at the face of Mr. Ito. I want you to look at the face of your own body and make this cooperation concession bigger. ,what do you think?"

Watanabe Shinka was surprised. Defeated in the heart:

"What does it mean to look at the face of my own body?"

"What does it mean to make the concession bigger?"

While wondering, he asked curiously, "Mr. Wade, what do you mean by this?"

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently, and asked with an inscrutable look: "If I read it right, Mr. Watanabe should be very worried about the body now?"

Watanabe Shinkazu hurriedly said: "No, I am very healthy, and I often go to the gym to do exercises. The average middle-aged and elderly men don't pay attention to exercise."

Charlie Wade nodded and said with a smile: "Exercise can naturally strengthen the body, but everyone is a man, and there is no woman present. I will not hide some words. Mr. Watanabe's two years of married life It should be very uncoordinated, right?"

As soon as he said this, Watanabe Shinka's expression was horrified, but also full of embarrassment appeared in his heart, "This is the most difficult hidden illness in my heart, except for my wife and me, and the doctor I have visited. , No one knows, how could Charlie Wade know this?!"

Yuhiko Ito was also a little shocked, and subconsciously asked, "Shinwa, you are not too old. Did something go wrong so early?"

Watanabe Shinka flushed with embarrassment, grabbed his hair in a panic, and said with a smile: "This...this...hey...Mr. Wade is really extraordinary. , Can you even see this kind of thing?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "In the nearly lost ancient Chinese medicine, it is said that people have three types of chi, namely blood chi, vitality and essence."

"Blood chi governs the outside and vitality is the inside. As for the essence, it is more reflected in the affairs of men and women."

"Blood chi is strong, and vitality is long, but neither chi has much to do with essence."

"Don't look at your vitality and vitality, but your energy is sluggish."

"Without the essence, even if your body is strong, you still have strength and energy when doing things with men and women."

At this time, Watanabe Shinka ignored the embarrassment, and blurted out:

"Mr. Wade, since you have such supernatural powers and can see the crux of my body at a glance, don't you know if you can cure me?!"

Chapter 2121

Charlie Wade looked at Watanabe Shinka with a look of excitement and eagerness. He tapped his finger on the table twice, and said with a smile: "Mr. Watanabe, I, Charlie Wade, never say anything that is unsure, if I can't cure it. Of course you won't say it."

Watanabe Shinka was so excited immediately, he blurted out: "Mr. Wade! If you can really cure me, no matter what the conditions are, I will agree!"

For Watanabe Shinkazu, although he is not as rich as Ito Takehiko, he is still one of Japan's top rich.

After having so much money, making money has long ceased to be his first motivation in life.

His first motivation is to enjoy life.

Ironically, when it comes to enjoying life, you lose the body to enjoy life.

For Watanabe Shinka, this kind of pain is an unbearable burden for Watanabe Shinka.

However, this kind of hidden illness often has nothing to do with money. No matter how rich he is, the place cannot be used or cannot be used, and Da Luo Jinxian will not be able to save him.

Charlie Wade looked at Watanabe Shinka at this time, smiled lightly, and pointed to Ito Yuhiko: "Mr. Watanabe, for the face of Mr. Ito and the reason you just promised to cooperate with Miss Moore, I can cure your hidden illness. , But I have another request..."

Watanabe Shinka was very excited: "If you have any requests, please mention it!"

Charlie Wade snorted and said, "It's the terms of cooperation between you and Miss Moore. Make a little more concession."

Watanabe Shinka nodded repeatedly, and couldn't wait to say: "How to make concessions, you decide!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "In this way, both of you will contribute capital at a ratio of five to five, but the equity will be distributed at a ratio of six to four. In other words, Miss Moore's Moore Group has to own 60% of the equity in the joint venture. Do you have any questions?"

As soon as Charlie Wade said this, Ito Yuhiko was blindfolded, and he thought to himself: "Charlie Wade is too dark, right? Is this person always so dark? When he opens his mouth, he will invest five or five shares and share four or six shares. , I ruined 10% of the shares..."

"Furthermore, this is not a project of several hundred million. A steel company that invests at least 20 to 30 billion yuan and takes 10% of other people's shares is equivalent to taking away another two or three billion yuan!"

However, Watanabe Shinka nodded and said without hesitation: "Mr. Wade, as long as you can heal me, I have no opinion on your condition!"
In the past few years, Watanabe Shinka has exhausted all his patience and hope in the process of seeking medical advice everywhere.

Before he saw Charlie Wade, he already had a very clear and affirmative understanding of this matter, that is, even if he let himself take out 10% or even 20% of his personal assets, as long as he can find it again The meaning and pleasure of being a man, he agreed without hesitation. After the money reaches a certain amount, it is just a number, no amount of practical significance.

However, his own male prowess is half the fun of a man's entire life! Give up 10% of the shares and reap the joy of life for the other half of a man. This transaction is really worth it.

Charlie Wade nodded slightly, and said, "I have a medicine here. You can take it and it will take effect."

After that, he looked at Ito Takehiko again and said: "Mr. Ito also helped me and Ms. Moore a lot this time. I said before that I will help you to adjust your body before leaving. Mr. Ito will receive treatment together."

As soon as Ito Yuhiko heard this, his heart was immediately excited. He thought to himself: "From the changes before and after his daughter Nanako Ito, you can see Charlie Wade's supernatural powers!"

"The injury that my daughter suffered at that time was helpless by all top doctors, but I didn't expect that Charlie Wade would heal it!"

"Even my daughter's injury can be cured, so Charlie Wade can treat me with this weak physique, is it not easy?"

Thinking of this, he hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, thank you so much !"

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently, and said: "Wait a moment, I will prepare medicine."

Chapter 2122

After, he stood up and returned to the room arranged by the Ito family. After returning to the room, Charlie Wade took two clean glasses from the coffee table, and then poured half a glass of water into the glasses. After pouring the water, he took another rejuvenation pill from his pocket.

He scraped off some powder from the Rejuvenating Pill, and the powder immediately melted after falling into the water.

Two cups of water, a total of one-tenth of a rejuvenating pill.

Charlie Wade wasn't stingy.

The main reason is that the conditions of the two people are different, and the demand for rejuvenating pills is not large.

The first is Ito Takehiko, who is weak, mainly because of the injuries and shocks he received when he was in the accident, and the damage to his vitality after the amputation operation.

In this case, a little rejuvenation pill is enough to replenish the blood he lost.

As for Watanabe Shinwa.

His main problem is that his energy is sluggish. Rejuvenation pills can naturally replenish his energy, but replenishment is like filling a tank of fuel for a car that is out of fuel. If he drives this tank out of fuel, he will fall into it again. An immobile situation.

Therefore, Charlie Wade prepared to do both.

First use a little water added with Rejuvenating Pill powder to restore his essence, and then use a little aura to help him repair the loss of essence in his body, so that he can produce essence by himself like a normal man in the future. In this way, he will be able to restore his ability in that area.

For Charlie Wade, reiki is the best scalpel. He can use reiki to get rid of the lesions in a person's body, restore a person's blood chi, vitality and essence, and repair the body's damaged meridians.

On the contrary, he can also use reiki to abolish a person's blood, vitality, essence, and even meridians.

When Kenneth Wilson, the chairman of Eastcliff Wilson Group, got together with Wendy, he pretended to be forced in front of Charlie Wade. After Charlie Wade sealed his spirit with reiki, he lost his ability to be a man.

There is also a Japanese Sanda expert like Yamamoto Kazuki, after he had used the reiki to destroy the meridians of his whole body after he talked about the sick man of East Asia.

Therefore, Charlie Wade can now also use reiki to repair Watanabe's new and damaged essence.

When he came out with two glasses of water, both Ito Yuhiko and Watanabe Shinka were a little surprised.

Charlie Wade came to the two of them and handed the water cups to them separately: "Come on, you two, drink the medicine." The two looked at each other for a while.

They didn't expect that the medicine Charlie Wade said was only two glasses of white water?

Seeing the two of them were surprised, Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "You two will drink this glass of water, and you will know whether it will work."

Ito Nodded, picked up the cup, and said seriously: "Okay Mr. Wade, I'll drink now!" After saying that, he drank the white water in the cup.

Watanabe Shinka looked at Ito Yuhiko hesitantly, then at the water glass in front of him, hesitated again and again, and decided to hold the glass up and drink it with his head up.

After a few seconds, both of them felt a different kind of warmth suddenly poured into their bodies, and there was a different kind of warm current flowing from their abdomen throughout their bodies.

At this moment, the two of them were dumbfounded. Looking at each other, they could easily see the deep shock in each other's eyes!

Chapter 2123

To both is is a shocking occasion, Charlie Wade is smiling and looking at new Watanabe, smiled slightly: "To Mr. Watanabe, hold out you hand, I can help you."

Watanabe and is being Nourished by the warmth in the body, the whole person was immersed in it. Hearing Charlie Wade's words, he hurriedly nodded and said: "There is Mr. Wade!" After that, he stretched out his hand immediately.

Charlie Wade put his fingers on Watanabe's Xinde Meridian, and a faint spirit of reiki penetrated into his meridian.

These few auras can already guarantee that he can continue to produce essence in the future, and then make him rejuvenate the male glory.

Watanabe Shinka couldn't help thinking of his beloved wife in his mind at this time.

Thinking of the two gentle scenes, I felt a little change in my body!

This bit of change immediately evolved into a strong impulse, which made him overjoyed!

"This...this...is there any effect so soon?!"

Watanabe Shinka was shaking with excitement.

In order to make sure that the impulse was not fleeting, he hesitated for about two minutes, motionless, without saying a word, using all his attention, he felt his impulse!

In these two minutes, instead of disappearing, his impulse has grown stronger!

At this moment, Watanabe Shinka's excitement burst into tears!

He cried out in ecstasy from the bottom of his heart: "I have been looking forward to it for so many years, and I have been waiting for this day in my dreams, and it is finally realized today!" At this moment, he looked at Charlie Wade and cried, "Wade...Mr. Wade, You are a living god!"

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently, and asked him: "Mr. Watanabe, just for this curative effect, asking you for 10% more shares, is it too much?"

Watanabe Shinhetendi stopped. I got up and blurted out: "Not too much!

Not too much! You are my second-born parents!" On the side, Ito Yuhiko, seeing Shinwa Watanabe put up a bag on his pants, hurriedly waved at him:

"Oh, Shinwa, Sit down, sit down! How well are you!"

Watanabe Shinka looked down, embarrassed and excited at the same time!

"Brother Ito...this...this is the symbol of male power! You don't know, how long have I longed for this power again!!!"

Ito Yuhiko suddenly stunned. . At this moment, he suddenly understood

Watanabe Shinka's excitement. At this moment, he thought of his legs.

Although it didn't take long for me to lose my legs, my desire to stand up again, and to have my legs again, has exceeded everything.

If one day, I can grow legs and regain the state of a healthy person, I am afraid that I will be ten times, or even a hundred times more excited than Watanabe Shinka!

Thinking of this, he sighed in his heart: "Hey, in my life, I am afraid that it is impossible to have legs again. In the future, I don't know that I will face decades of incomplete life... At this moment, I am suddenly envious of Watanabe! He has also experienced several years of crippled life, but he was healed by Mr. Wade, what about me? In this world, I have never heard of a severed limb that can grow... "After a while, he finally realized that Charlie Wade was not black.

He made up for Watanabe's broken life, but only received two or three billion of shares from him.

Chapter 2124

For ordinary people, two or three billion is indeed a sky-high price, but for Watanabe Shinka, it is only one percent, or two percent, of all his assets.

Let anyone who has lost his male prowess spend 1% or 2% of his total assets to regain the coveted ability. I believe that no man in the world will refuse.

Watanabe Shinka was also very excited at this time, and blurted out: "Mr. Wade, I don't know how long my ability can last?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "It must be enough to maintain for twenty years. By then you will be young. It's nearly seventy, and you've grown stronger. If you take care of yourself properly, it's not impossible to maintain it to your seventies."

Watanabe Shinka's face flushed with excitement, her fists clenched, and her voice trembling: "Two ...Twenty years?! This...this is really a dream and I can't even think about it! It's great...it's really great!"

Ito Yuihiko said to the side. "Xinhe, since Mr. Wade has helped you make up for your shortcomings, let Nanako bring Miss Moore back. You should sign the contract first!"

"Yes, yes!" Watanabe Shinwa said without hesitation: "Sign! Must sign!"

Ito Nodded, took out his cell phone, called Nanako, and said: "Nanako, you and Miss Moore will come back soon, and have dinner."

"Good father!"

For a long time, Nanako Ito walked back with Jasmine.

At this time, Jasmine was still holding a small khaki milk dog in her arms.

The puppy was crawling around in her arms at this time, appearing to be very intimate with her.

Nanako Ito smiled and said: "She is very fond of sister Jasmine, and has been stuck to her, so sister Jasmine wants to bring it back to Aurouss Hilll for feeding." Jasmine fondly stroked the little milk dog in her arms while Said to Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, she is a little girl, she seems to like me very much, and I like her very much, so I want to take it back to China. I wonder if it is convenient?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: ". This is what is inconvenient, we can sneak back two large living, not to mention a great little dog milk, board space, fear of a hundred dogs got to pretend to be"

Ito Takehiko also He nodded and laughed: "The boat I prepared for the two of you is indeed very big, and dozens of people are more than enough."

Jasmine was overjoyed, and smiled softly: "Then I will take her home!"

Nanako Ito Hurriedly said: "Sister Jasmine, I will ask someone to prepare some dog food for you. You and Charlie Wade will bring it on board at night!"

Jasmine nodded and thanked: "Thank you so much, Nanako!"

Nanako Ito Blinking and smiling, "Sister Jasmine, don't be so polite with me!"

Jasmine said, "I will name her Bella. Since is leaving with me, would you miss her?"

Nanako quietly glanced at Charlie Wade's face , Smiled and said: "If I want to see it, I will go to Aurouss Hilll to see it. I can also see my sister and Charlie Wade!"

Actually, it was Charlie Wade that Nanako Ito wanted to see most.

However, she knew very well in her heart that Charlie Wade was a married man after all. He traveled all the way to see what he said, his name was not right and his words were not right.

Therefore, when Jasmine took the puppy to Aurouss Hilll, she could at least borrow the reason to see Charlie Wade in Aurouss Hilll.

Although this rhetoric is more or less trivial, at least it can be regarded as a famous teacher.

Jasmine was also aware of it at this time and couldn't help sighing in her heart: "Nanako Ito, such a tender little girl, was completely captured by Master Wade. I really don't know how Master Wade is going to pay these peach blossom debts in the future!"

At this moment, she felt a little distressed for Nanako Ito, and also a little distressed for myself. Although the two have just met, but deep in their hearts, they really feel sorry for the same disease..

Chapter 2125

At this time, Watanabe Shinka She immediately said to Jasmine with a flattering expression: "Miss Moore, Mr. Wade talked with me in depth just now. I also met Mr. Wade immediately, so I decided to readjust our contract terms."

Jasmine was a little surprised, and hurriedly asked: "Mr. Watanabe, how are you going to make adjustments?"

Watanabe Shinkazu laughed: "In this way, both of us will invest in a ratio of five to five, but in terms of equity allocation, your company holds shares. 60%, our Nippon Steel holds 40%!"

Jasmine was immediately stunned!

She wondered, what is the operation of Watanabe Shinka? !

Why did you give up 10% of the shares all at once?

The next moment, she immediately looked at Charlie Wade and told her instinctively that it must have been during the time she left with him.

Charlie Wade had regained this condition with Watanabe Shinwa for herself!

She was shocked in her heart: "What method did Master Wade use to get Watanabe Shinhe to make such a big concession?! In this way, does Master Wade owe Watanabe Shinhe a favor to me?"

Thinking of this, Jasmine felt a little panic. She didn't actually think about taking advantage of Nippon Steel. In fact, she just wanted a 51% controlling stake. Of course, the controlling rights are not in vain. Not only will I invest in a 51% proportion, but also provide land and local relations to promote the rapid implementation of cooperative projects. However, at the moment, Nippon Steel is obviously giving itself a huge bargain!

Just when she didn't know what to do, Charlie Wade said, "Jasmine, since Mr. Watanabe is so sincere, let me tell you to sign the contract now, and when we return to China, we will finish the domestic affairs. Then you can promote cooperation with Mr. Watanabe."

Jasmine heard this and said hurriedly: "Master Wade, this...is this... suitable..."

Charlie Wade She smiled and said, "There is nothing inappropriate, Mr. Watanabe is very sincere, don't you want to cooperate again?"

Jasmine hurriedly waved her hand: "No, no, I didn't mean that..."

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Then you can sign the contract steadily."

Watanabe Shinka also hurriedly echoed: "Yes, Ms. Moore, I am looking forward to cooperating with the Moore Group. We signed the contract earlier to save nights and dreams! Good partners like Miss Moore and the Moore Group, I'm really afraid that you won't cooperate with us and will cooperate with other people instead!"

Jasmine was shocked to the point that she could not add anything.

What Watanabe Shinka said was too much for her and the Moore Group.

To be honest, this is the Moore Group's rush to cooperate with Nippon Steel, and Nippon Steel is the world's top steel group, ranked first in Japan, and the world's top ranking. How could the Moore Group turn to cooperate with others? .

However, Watanabe Shinka said that he had fallen in value and stubbornly praised Jasmine. It could be said that his posture was very low.

Charlie Wade also said at this time: "Jasmine, don't rush, everyone is still waiting to eat, sign the contract quickly, let's have dinner, and prepare after eating, and go to the dock to take a boat."

Jasmine heard He didn't hesitate any more immediately, and he glanced at Charlie Wade gratefully, and then immediately said to Watanabe Shinka, "Mr. Watanabe, let's sign the contract now!"

Watanabe Shinka naturally agreed: "Hurry up and sign!"

Ito Yuihiko ordered his staff to prepare a portable printer. Then the two changed the data on the originally prepared contract on the computer, and then printed it out, and both parties signed each other. Made an exchange.

Jasmine is very excited, because with this contract, the Moore Group will definitely make great progress in the future!

If you manage well, you may be able to become the new first family in Eastcliff in the future.

Chapter 2126

Watanabe Shinkazu is even more excited. It is more important to him to be a complete man again. Moreover, getting acquainted with someone with great magical powers like Charlie Wade, there must be more unimaginable benefits in the future. Therefore, this business is even more valuable to him.

Takehiko Ito was equally excited. After drinking Charlie Wade's glass of water, he obviously felt that his body became much stronger all at once. I used to be a little weak, as if I fell down with one blow, but now the whole person feels that the body and energy are very abundant, and it can't be better.

Except for the amputation of the legs that can't recover, the other feelings are the same as before I was not injured, and even vaguely stronger than then. This is also of great benefit to him. After all, after the body's vitality has been greatly recovered, he can prepare for rehabilitation training. Rehabilitation training for the disabled and amputees is very physically demanding and cannot be carried out when the body is weak.

And if Takehiko Ito wants to wear a prosthesis, he needs to do a series of adaptive training in combination with the prosthesis, which requires more physical strength. Originally, he had to cultivate for at least another six months before it was possible to start rehabilitation training and prosthetic adaptation training.

Now, Charlie Wade helped him save at least half a year. When Jasmine and Shinka Watanabe signed the contract, Yuhiko Ito immediately started to cut the fish, and he also opened the specially prepared 50-year-old whiskey.

The host and the guests enjoyed this meal. Ito Yuhiko is happy, Watanabe Shinka is also happy, Jasmine naturally goes without saying.

Charlie Wade was also in a good mood. After all, a piggyback could help Jasmine seek more benefits. This would provide her with a greater help to control the Moore family in the future and strengthen her control of the Moore family.

However, Nanako Ito felt a little lost.

After all, Charlie Wade was leaving tonight, and when Charlie Wade came to Tokyo this time, she didn't have much chance to get close to him.

Therefore, during a meal, Nanako Ito has been peeking at Charlie Wade, with a deep feeling of reluctance in her gentle eyes. After dinner, in accordance with the rules of Japanese hospitality, all the wine and dishes are removed, and then they are served with the tea ceremony.

However, Watanabe Shinka clearly couldn't sit still.

His body's reaction has always been strong and vigorous, so that he was a little absent-minded and couldn't wait to go home quickly, surprise his wife, and at the same time look for the happy feeling like a fairy.

Therefore, after the meal, he stood up anxiously and bowed to everyone: "Brother Ito, Mr. Wade, Miss Moore, there are still problems in the next home, so let's leave! Thank you Brother Ito for his hospitality! Thank you Mr. Wade for your help! I can't be thankful enough!"

Ito naturally knew what he wanted to do in a hurry, so he nodded and smiled: "Okay, you go back quickly!"

Charlie Wade also smiled and said: "It's not early. Mr. Watanabe, go back to rest earlier."

Shinwa Watanabe said hurriedly and respectfully: "Mr. Wade, I don't know if I have the honor to exchange contact information with you?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly, nodded and said: "When the time comes I will let Mr. Ito send you my mobile phone number."

Watanabe Shinka is overjoyed, as long as Charlie Wade is willing to exchange contact information with him, you can ask him for help if you encounter any problems in the future!

Chapter 2127

At this moment, Tokyo Airport. A military transport plane belonging to the Japanese Self-Defense Force landed at the airport. This C2 military transport aircraft was developed and produced by Kawasaki Heavy Industries, Japan, with a full load capacity of more than 30 tons. In the cabin of the transport plane, nearly a hundred Japanese Self-Defense Force soldiers with live ammunition were escorting more than fifty top Banks Family masters, including Xion.

Their task is to transport these people, including Xion, to Tokyo safely and hand them over to the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department. The Matsumoto family's killing of the door will soon open in Tokyo. By then, everyone including Xion will participate in the trial as defendants.

The Japanese judicial department is preparing to conduct a public trial of Xion and others this time, and simultaneously broadcast live to the whole country and the world through TV and online channels.

The reason for such a huge momentum is mainly because the previous Matsumoto family's killing of the door had a bad influence throughout Japan and even internationally, and it seriously affected the overall image of the Japanese judicial department.

The Japanese judiciary decided to save their face by severely punishing these murderers. After landing, the plane taxied all the way to an open apron. Hundreds of special forces from the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department have been waiting here for a long time. All of them were loaded with live ammunition, and they were full of energy, for fear of any changes in this matter.

Therefore, not only did they dispatch hundreds of elites this time, but also dispatched more than 30 wheeled armored vehicles. These wheeled armored vehicles, which are usually used to deal with terrorists and criminals, are now all mobile prison vehicles for this group of people.

Xion was very nervous at this time.

She knew that her father Zayne had already made arrangements to replace herself with a substitute after arriving in Tokyo. Once she was successfully swapped out, her father's person would immediately arrange for her to leave Japan and return to China.

Xion believed very much in the ability of her father Zayne and believed that she would definitely be able to return to China alive, but deep down in her heart, she couldn't help feeling guilty for the companions around her.

She thought to herself complicatedly: "This time, although I can run away, but these brothers have no such opportunity..."

"In other words, what I want to do now is to betray everything. Comrades-in-arms, leave their lives behind and escape alone!"

"If they knew, they would definitely hate me very much?"

Thinking of this, Xion couldn't help but feel ashamed.

At this moment, the tailgate of the cabin had been opened, and the armed self-defense team members began to demand that these criminal suspects disembark in an orderly manner.

On the outside of the plane, the special forces of the Metropolitan Police Department are ready. Every time a suspect comes down, they will immediately send three members to guard it 3 on 1.

Not only are handcuffs and handcuffs indispensable, but they also covered their heads with a black cloth bag so that they could not see their surroundings.

As the first offender, Xion was taken directly into the first wheeled armored vehicle.

Subsequently, the other suspects took a wheeled armored vehicle for each of them, and the entire convoy left the airport in a mighty manner, preparing to head to the most heavily guarded special prison of the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department.

At this time, on the edge of a crossroad on the highway outside the airport.

Several people in black are using binoculars to observe the convoy coming from a distance.

Chapter 2128

One of them is holding a remote control in his hand, while keeping an eye on the leader of the team and calculating the time.

When the convoy was less than 50 meters away from the intersection, the man pressed the remote control, the original green light began to flash, and then quickly turned into a red light.

Since the airport is in operation 24 hours a day, the traffic volume at this intersection is relatively busy. For the fleet of the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department, the traffic rules must also be observed. Therefore, the first wheeled armored vehicle stopped directly at the frontmost position of the through lane.

The convoy behind, also slowly stopped.

The logic of the red light conversion is to release in turns in four directions, one minute in each direction, so it takes a long time to wait for the next green light, one hundred and eighty seconds.

The special forces on the armored vehicles are all standing by, for fear of any gaps in the escort.

Fortunately, the vehicles that shuttled back and forth on both sides were nothing unusual, and no one approached their convoy.

But who would have thought that at this moment, the special forces in the first wheeled armored vehicle immediately opened the emergency escape port under the vehicle.

This wheeled armored vehicle specially prepared for special forces has very good safety. In order to ensure that the special forces in the vehicle can escape from danger, or after the door is severely hit or exploded, they are specially placed on the bottom of the armored vehicle. Installed an emergency exit opening from the inside to the outside. This emergency exit is like a tank door installed upside down on the bottom of a wheeled armored vehicle.

At this time, after the hatch was opened, a black sewer manhole was facing directly below.

Because it is settled in advance, the manhole cover and the hatch are almost completely vertical.

The hatch was just opened by the special forces in the car, and the sewer manhole cover was also removed at the same time.

Immediately afterwards, someone pushed up a woman with the same figure and clothes as Xion, and also wearing handcuffs and black cloth bags. As soon as the woman was pushed up, several special forces team members immediately pulled her into the car, let her sit beside Xion, and then immediately raised Xion, followed the emergency exit and sent her inside the sewer.

The sewer will leave after the Soviet Union if tap into the sewer immediately for commandos in a wheeled armored vehicle gestures ok gesture, whispered opening: "Red light there thirty seconds fast closing the door" above SCS members nodded and asked: "you can also quickly put the manhole cover to cover, and so again with Miss Banks left the team after we leave kilometer" following the man once said: "Rest assured, I know," he finished, and quickly replace the sewer manhole cover.

The emergency exit of the armored vehicle was also closed at the same time, and everything worked in a tacit agreement, and it was seamless. After a few seconds, the red light turned green, and the armored car in the first place drove out, and the cars behind followed it. No one knew that the important suspect in that car had already been dropped!

After the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department's convoy had left about one kilometer, a black truck came from a distance. When the truck came to the intersection, the traffic light just turned red.

After the car stopped, someone in the box of the truck opened the secret entrance at the bottom and tapped the manhole cover directly below with a stick.

Immediately afterwards, the manhole cover was removed, and Xion, who was covering her head, was pulled into the truck again.

Afterwards, the manhole cover was tightly closed again, and the truck drove off with a kick, as if nothing had happened at the scene.

In the carriage of the truck, a Japanese woman unbuttoned Xion's black headgear and looked at her and said, "Miss Banks, I am entrusted by Mr. Banks to save you from Japan! We are now going to Tokyo Port, where the ship is already waiting. It's you!"

Chapter 2129

Ito House in downtown Tokyo. Charlie Wade and Jasmine are also ready to go. This evening is a good opportunity for smuggling. Because tonight, the Coast Guard patrol unit is going to overhaul the device. Therefore, there will be a few hours of vacuum time at sea.

In addition, the Japanese Coast Guard is strict in terms of entry and exit. Most of their energy is doing everything possible to crack down on illegal immigrants smuggling into Japan or smuggling illegal goods into Japan.

I have little interest in smuggling people and objects out of Japan. So in this way, it will be easier to leave Tokyo.

Ito Yuihiko prepared the convoy and planned to personally send Charlie Wade and Jasmine to the dock. And Nanako Ito also had this idea.

Naturally, she felt unwilling to give up Charlie Wade in her heart, but she knew very well in her heart that she would never be able to leave Charlie Wade.

Therefore, she was very satisfied to be able to send Charlie Wade to the dock.

So, after everyone was ready, Charlie Wade and Jasmine, accompanied by Ito Takehiko and Nanako Ito, took a bus to the pier.

In the car, Ito Yuhiko said to Charlie Wade: "Mr. Wade, Nippon Steel's Hashimoto, Jinxian, has been taken to the dock by the ninja I sent."

Charlie Wade nodded in satisfaction: "Thank you, Mr. Ito."

Ito Yuihiko hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade doesn't have to be so polite, it's all I should do."

After driving for forty minutes, the convoy arrived at the huge port of Tokyo. The entire Port of Tokyo covers a large area, at least several kilometers along the coastline.

Most of the berths are exclusive berths for ultra-large oil tankers and container freighters. These berths are close to the operation area. Not only are there many workers working here, but they are also the worst-hit areas for smuggling, so customs inspections are very strict.

The berth Ito prepared for Charlie Wade and Jasmine is actually a relatively simple and small wharf. This type of terminal can only dock ships under a few thousand tons, and the monitoring is relatively lax. In fact, smuggling does not start from embarking, because Tokyo Port is still within Japan's territory and territorial waters, so embarking from here is not illegal.

Boarding from here, as long as you don't leave the country without authorization, and don't enter the high seas without authorization, it is all reasonable and legal.

At this time, several small and medium-sized yachts were docked at the pier, the largest of which was a luxury cruise ship prepared by Ito Takehiko for Charlie Wade.

The convoy drove directly to the pier and stopped directly at the boarding gate of the yacht. Although Ito Yuhiko lost his legs, he was still supported on a wheelchair and sent off.

After Charlie Wade and Jasmine got off the bus, Ito Xihiko said, "Mr. Wade, the crew and the captain are my confidantes. You can rest assured!" Charlie Wade nodded slightly: "Thank you Mr. Ito."

Ito Yuihiko hurriedly said, "You don't have to be so polite!"

Charlie Wade looked at the time, and said to the father and daughter Ito Xihiko, "It's not early, we have to hurry up, so we won't talk more with them, we will have some time later!"

Yuhiko Ito clasped his fists and said respectfully, "Mr. Wade, there will be a period later!"

Nanako Ito said disheartenedly, "Charlie Wade, there will be a period later!"

Charlie Wade looked at her and smiled and said, "Nanako, please take care!"

Chapter 2130

Nanako Ito nodded with red eyes, then looked at Jasmine who was holding the puppy, choked up and said, "Sister Jasmine, I wish you a good journey. If you have a chance, you must come to Tokyo to see me!"

Jasmine also hurriedly said, "Don't worry, I will definitely! If you have time, you can also come to Aurouss Hilll to see me and Charlie Wade!"

Nanako Ito took a bit of joy and said without hesitation: "Sister, don't worry, I will go to see you after I finish this time!"

At this moment, a middle-aged man walked down from the boat and said respectfully to Takehiko Ito: "Sir, we are ready to set sail at any time."

Yuhiko Ito asked, "Where is Hashimoto?"

The other party said, "Hashimoto was detained in the cabin first, and his limbs were all tied up. I sent a person to stare at him. Nothing will go wrong."

Ito Nodded in satisfaction, and said to Charlie Wade, "Mr. Wade, you and Miss Moore can board the ship!"

Charlie Wade said: "You guys go back too, we are gone!"

Ito Yuihiko shook hands with Charlie Wade, and Nanako Ito also hugged Jasmine gently.

Later, Jasmine came to Ito Takehiko again and said sincerely: "Mr. Ito, this time in Japan, thank you for your care!"

Yuihiko Ito laughed and shook hands gently with Jasmine, and said seriously: "Miss Moore, don't be polite with the Ito family at any time. You, like Mr. Wade, will always be a distinguished guest of the Ito family!"

Nanako Ito came to Charlie Wade's side at this time, blushing and embarrassed.

When she looked at Charlie Wade, she gently opened her arms to see Charlie Wade's next reaction.

She wanted to hug Charlie Wade and bid farewell, but she was worried that Charlie Wade was unwilling, so she could only use this small gesture to test it.

Seeing Charlie Wade smiled slightly and stretched out his hand towards her, Nanako Ito hurriedly stepped forward, rushed into his arms, hugged him tightly, and said nothing.

In fact, Nanako Ito had a lot of things to say to Charlie Wade deep in her heart, but at this moment, in front of her father and Jasmine, those things she wanted to say but couldn't say.

The two hugged for a while, and with Ito Yuuhiko's cough, Nanako Ito hurriedly withdrew from Charlie Wade's arms, and said to Charlie Wade with dismay, "Charlie Wade, take care!"

Charlie Wade nodded lightly, and finally said goodbye to the father and daughter, and walked into the boat with Jasmine.

This cruise ship is very large, with three upper floors and three lower floors. On the uppermost deck, there is even a freshwater swimming pool, which is much more luxurious than the cruise ship that Lord Moore gave to Charlie Wade.

After Charlie Wade and Jasmine got on the ship, they went directly to the top deck, stood in front of the guardrail on the deck, waved to Ito Takehiko and Nanako Ito on the dock below, and said loudly, "It's too late, the sea breeze is getting colder and colder. Let's go back quickly!" Nanako Ito nodded gently and asked her servant to help her father into the car. She also sat in the car obediently, but she was not in a hurry to let the driver drive, but wanted to wait for the boat to leave and watch Charlie Wade leave. .

At this moment, a business car with a one-way black film drove from the entrance of the dock, passed the Ito family's convoy, and continued to drive forward.

In this three-row business car, sitting in the middle row is a beautiful woman with a struggling and painful expression. This woman is Xion. At this time, Xion was still ashamed of her own escape. At the thought of more than fifty followers who followed him and they were about to face severe punishment under Japanese law, Xion was not only ashamed, but also hated.

What she hates is the man who cheated herself and so many of her men at Osaka Airport that day! She still remembers the appearance of that man, if she had a chance, she would kill him by herself and avenge her brothers!

Just as she gritted her teeth, the driver said, "Miss Banks, our ship is right in front, we are ready to set sail!"

Xion wanted to take a look at the ship that was about to take him out of Japan, when she suddenly caught a glimpse of a man standing on the deck of the cruise ship next to him!

At this moment, Xion's pupils suddenly shrank, and her expression became extremely cruel!

She gritted her teeth and murmured, "It turned out to be him! It's really a narrow road to the enemy!"

Chapter 2131

What Xion had originally thought was that after she successfully left Japan and successfully survived this period of wind, he would seek revenge from that nasty man.

But she never dreamed that at the moment when she was about to leave Japan, she actually let herself on the dock and saw the man that she had always hated!

At this moment, Xion's blood boiled suddenly.

Her eyes, which were so beautiful that they were breathtaking, were already blood red because of hatred!

At this moment, she had only one thought in her mind: "Kill him! I must kill him!"

At this time, Charlie Wade, because his eyes and attention were on Nanako Ito sitting in the car, he didn't notice the commercial car passing by the dock.

Moreover, the business car is one-way light. Xion can see him in the car, but he can't see Xion, so he didn't know that at this time, an acquaintance passed him by.

Soon, the tail of Charlie Wade's cruise ship was stirred by the slowly rotating propeller.

The yacht also slowly leaves the dock with the rotation of the propeller. After that, the speed of the boat became faster and faster, and it quickly turned into a small light spot in Nanako Ito's sight, and finally disappeared.

No one noticed that the yacht at the next berth also accelerated away from the dock.

At this moment, in the cockpit of this yacht, Xion gave a cold voice to the captain: "Full horsepower! In any case, we must catch up with the ship ahead!"

The captain hurriedly said: "Miss Banks, our top priority now is to leave Japan's territorial waters and go to the high seas. Only after reaching the high seas can you be considered safe!"

Xion gritted his teeth and said, "You don't understand! There is an enemy of mine on that ship, I must kill him myself!"

The captain said embarrassingly: "Miss Banks, I have taken Master Banks' order to send you to the high seas as soon as possible without any delay, so I can only wrong you."

Xion said angrily: "Call me, I want to call the master!"

The captain hesitated for a moment, picked up the satellite phone on the ship, and said, "Miss Banks, then I will call Master Banks now, you can tell him yourself."

After all, he used the satellite phone to call Lord Banks, the head of the Banks Familyy.

As soon as the phone was connected, Lord Banks immediately asked, "How are things going?"

The captain hurriedly said: "Master, Miss Banks suddenly said that she wanted to chase and kill someone, so I called to ask you for advice."

Lord Banks's stern voice came: "At this time, she hasn't left Japan and headed to the high seas to chase and kill someone? If she gets caught by the Japanese Metropolitan Police Department or the Self-Defense Forces, then the trouble will be big! Japan!"

Xion grabbed the phone and couldn't wait to say: "Master! I'm Xion! I just met the man who pitted us at the dock! Back in Osaka, he revealed our whereabouts to the Japanese Self-Defense Forces. We were all arrested! If I don't retaliate this hatred, I won't die if I die!"

Lord Banks hesitated for a moment, and said: "Okay! If this is the case, let's solve this problem first! Otherwise, if you leave him in the world, I don't know if he will continue to pose other threats to my Banks Familyy!"

Chapter 2132

At this time, Zayne, who had been staying next to Lord Banks, hurriedly said: "Dad, at this time, don't let the extra branches grow. The most important thing is to come back quickly. That person can think of a solution later, but if you leave this time If you can't escape, there will be no chance again!"

Lord Banks sternly said: "If we leave that person, none of us know his true identity, what if he is an enemy of the Banks Familyy? What if he has already deliberately planned to deal with our Banks Familyy in secret?!"

Zayne said, "Dad, we can look for this person slowly in the future. Don't be in a hurry. If you can meet him today, you will definitely have a chance later. Let Xion come back soon!"

Lord Banks immediately scolded: "Asshole! How come you have lost the overall view?! This person has damaged more than fifty generals of my Banks Familyy with his own strength! You know how much loss this has brought us. Isn't it? There are more than a few billions! What if he still has a means against us behind him?!"

Speaking of this, Lord Banks said coldly: "This person is a little fascinating, and his identity is uncertain. If we didn't meet him today, we might not find him in this life, so we must not miss this opportunity! Otherwise! If you do, it will be a big mistake!"

As soon as Zayne heard this, he immediately knew that the old man had made up his mind, and he definitely couldn't convince him, so he could only tell Xion over the phone: "Xion, since you want to get him revenge, then dad won't stop you, listen to your grandpa's instructions, and be sure to find out his true identity!"

The first time Xion heard Zayne talking to herself as the word "Dad", she thought of her identity as an illegitimate daughter. Today, she was finally recognized by her biological father. With mixed feelings, she said excitedly: "Dad. You can rest assured that if you leave me, I will go all out!"

Lord Banks also exhorted at this time: "Xion, it is better to be able to catch alive and take him back to Eastcliff directly. I will try him personally!"

Xion immediately said decisively: "Good lord, after I catch him, I will definitely leave him a dog!"

Lord Banks gave a hum, and said, "Okay, you can just let it go and do it yourself!"

After that, he said: "By the way, the few people who picked you up are all my confidants. They are all very skilled. When you act, let them join you, so that the odds of winning will be greater!"

Xion said without hesitation: "Good lord!"

Lord Banks said loudly: "Tell them, if this thing is done well, I will reward it all!"

"I know!"

After hanging up the phone, Xion immediately said to the captain: "Go ahead at full speed and you must catch up with the ship ahead!"

The captain naturally didn't dare to make a mistake at this time, and immediately nodded and said, "Good Miss Banks!"

After all, maximize the engine thrust!

Several people who had rescued Xion started gearing up at this time because they heard what Lord Banks said.

One of them asked Xion, "Miss Banks, what should we do after we catch up with the other party?"

Xion's expression was stern, and she sternly said: "When we drive to catch up, we will directly use our side to rub the opponent's boat and force the opponent to stop the boat!"

The man asked again, "What if the other party doesn't stop the boat?"

Xion sneered and said, "Don't stop the boat? No matter if he stops, when we are approaching, we jump directly into their boat! After getting on the boat, we will take everyone except the target person Kill it, sink the ship to the bottom of the sea, and leave nothing else alive!"

Speaking of this, Xion clenched his fists, clenched his neat little white teeth, and said coldly, "In any case, we must catch that guy!"

Chapter 2133

After leaving the dock, the boat that Charlie Wade was riding on went all the way toward the open sea. Because Hashimoto was imprisoned in the cabin on the bottom floor, Charlie Wade decided to take Jasmine down to meet this guy for a while. The sailor on the ship took the two to the bottom cabin and pushed open one of the doors.

In the room, a man wearing a high-end wool suit, his limbs are firmly fixed to a chair, his hands are tied to the handle of the chair, his legs and feet are tied to the front legs of the chair, There was also a black bag on top of his head, which covered his entire head.

Charlie Wade speculated that this person should be Hashimoto's approach. For the sake of caution, Ito Yuhiko's people used round steel pipes to firmly put each finger of Hashimoto's Kazumi inside, and then fixed them to the handrails together.

In this way, Hashimoto Jinxian couldn't even bend his fingers, let alone any possibility of escape. In addition, there was a man holding a stun gun standing beside him, staring at him unblinkingly. The security work can be said to be in place.

The man with the stun gun saw Charlie Wade coming in and immediately said respectfully: "Mr. Wade, you are here!"

Charlie Wade nodded, and asked, "Is this Hashimoto Kinzen?"

"Right!" The man immediately tore off the bag that Hashimoto was wearing, and said, "Mr. Wade, this guy is Hashimoto! We've already experienced it!"

At this time, Hashimoto Kinxian had not adapted to the dazzling light, with a towel in his mouth, so he could not speak, but could only whimper, and his body was constantly struggling.

Seeing him struggling desperately, Charlie Wade basically didn't move. He couldn't help but smiled: "You are too cautious, and you just need to tie your hands and feet. You also fixed all your fingers. Seeing that Mr. Hashimoto is anxious."

The man respectfully said: "Mr. Wade, you don't know anything. The villain in the film and television series always ignores the protagonist's hands. So no matter how you tie up the protagonist, the protagonist can find a flaw and escape, so we simply put this guy All of his ten fingers are wrapped in steel pipes, so that even Da Luo Jinxian can't escape!"

Charlie Wade laughed, pointed at Hashimoto Kinzin, and said with a smile: "It's such a thing, it's not worthy of being comparable to the protagonist in the film and television drama."

At this time, Hashimoto Kinxian also gradually recovered his vision. The first thing he saw was Charlie Wade, whose hand was pointing at him. At this moment, he was astonished: "Who is this man?! Did he let someone kidnap me? Did I offend him?"

At this moment, Charlie Wade stretched out his hand and took off the towel from his mouth, and said coldly, "Hashimoto is here, right? Do you know why I tied you here?"

Hashimoto Jinxian subconsciously questioned: "Who are you?! I don't even know you, why are you asking someone to kidnap me?!"

Charlie Wade didn't expect this guy to be stubborn. He immediately slapped him and yelled, "You're so fucking amazing, what sordid and shameless things you have done, don't you know it in your heart? Still dare to question here I?"

Hashimoto blurted out: "I...I am a law-abiding citizen of Japan! I am the vice president of Nippon Steel Group! I have never done anything lawless, but you... .Do you know that kidnapping is a felony?!"

Charlie Wade slapped him again and cursed, "Is it a felony? Okay, then you look at her and tell me whether kidnapping is more serious or murder is more serious!"

After all, he pulled Jasmine to his side. When Hashimoto Jinxian saw Jasmine, he was shocked and dumbfounded!

Chapter 2134

"Moore...Miss Moore?!"

Jasmine looked at Hashimoto Jinxian with a look of disgust, and asked, "Mr. Hashimoto must have never thought that Jasmine is still alive, right?!"

Hashimoto's nervous body shuddered. He knew that his murder of Jasmine was heinous. Jasmine's whereabouts were unknown before, and her two assistants and the driver were all buried in the man-made traffic accident.

Apart from anything else, just killing three people is already an absolute felony. In murder, the plot is extremely bad and the methods extremely cruel. Now, Jasmine was standing in front of Hashimoto Kinzie alive, so he immediately realized that it was Jasmine who came to seek revenge for herself!

He cried and pleaded almost immediately: "Miss Moore, I am not the real mastermind about your unexpected event! The real mastermind is your brother Rueben! Everything is his master behind!"

Jasmine asked coldly, "Oh? It's all Rueben's pot? Then I ask you, who lied to me that Mr. Watanabe was signing a contract with me? Who lied to me to go to the mountains of Nishitama County? And who arranged the person. Did the four of us crash down the cliff with a car?!"

Hashimoto Jinxian was constantly questioned by Jasmine, so frightened, she begged: "Miss Moore, this is your brother's idea. If you want to blame, blame him, don't blame me..."

Jasmine questioned: "According to what you said, if I ask someone to throw you into the sea now, then you can't blame me, right?"

As soon as Hashimoto heard this, his face turned pale in shock, and he hurriedly cried and said, "Miss Moore, I didn't mean that...I...I...I I just want you to spare my life...As long as you can spare me, I will do anything I want!"

Jasmine looked at Charlie Wade and asked, "Master Wade, what are you going to do with this person?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said: "Leave him a dog's life first. When I return to Arouss Hilll, I will give him a chance to make up for his work. If he can grasp it, then keep his dog's life; if he can't grasp it, then Just chop it up and feed the dog!"

Hashimoto Kinxian hurriedly pleaded: "You can tell me what you want me to do! I will do my best to spare my life!"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "When it comes to Arouss Hillll, I will let you face-to-face confrontation with Rueben. At that time, you will tell all the activities between you and Rueben, and dare to miss it. One word, I will kill you!"

Hashimoto Jinxian immediately nodded like garlic, and cried, "Don't worry, I will listen to you and tell the truth!"

Charlie Wade put the towel into his mouth again, and said to Ito Takehiko's men, "Continue to look at him."

The man hurriedly said, "Okay Mr. Wade!"

Charlie Wade said to Jasmine again: "Wanting, this Hashimoto is here for the time being, so I will be locked here for now. After he arrives in Arouss Hillll and confronts Rueben, I will give you a satisfactory solution."

Jasmine respectfully said, "Master Wade decides everything!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said: "Okay, go to the room and rest. I'll stand on the deck for a while."

Jasmine hurriedly asked, "Master Wade, can I go with you to the deck and stay for a while before returning to the room?"

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "Of course you can, then let's go up together!"

Chapter 2135

When the two came to the deck, Charlie Wade couldn't help sighing against the cold sea breeze. Although I have rescued Jasmine safely now, and have begun to take her on the journey home.

However, this matter is far from over. Next, is the most important part. Theodore and Rueben, the vicious father and son, have not yet resolved! Now, Lord Mooore pretends to protect himself from dementia. With his current situation, it is impossible for a single person to beat Rueben and his son.

Once the father and son found out that he was in disguise, they would kill him immediately. Therefore, what I have to do next is to expose the true colors of Theodore and Rueben father and son in public, rescue Lord Mooore, and let Jasmine regain control of the entire Moore family group. However, after this, we still have to face the problem of how to solve Theodore and Rueben. In Charlie Wade's view, the father and son not only committed the crime of intentional homicide, but also directly attacked their loved ones. Not only were they rebellious, but also heinous, even if they resorted to the law, they should be sentenced to death.

Therefore, there is no need for people like this to stay in this world.

However, these two people are after all Jasmine's close relatives. How to deal with them depends on what Jasmine and even Lord Mooore meant.

Jasmine was also standing on the deck at this time, blowing the sea breeze, looking at Tokyo further and further away, and said with emotion: "Master Wade, if it were not for you, Wanting might have died in Tokyo..." Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Don't say such frustrating words, you auspicious people have their own heavens, even without me, you shouldn't die, you won't die."

Jasmine smiled gratefully and asked him, "Master Wade, if I really died, would you be sad?"

Charlie Wade said seriously: "Of course, don't forget, you are my friend."

Jasmine's expression was a little joyful and a little disappointed.

She secretly said in her heart: "Could it be that in my life, the relationship with Master Wade can only stop at the word "friend"?"

All kinds of things from the past kept reappearing in her heart, and she comforted herself from the bottom of her heart: "Master Wade has treated me very well, I should be satisfied..."

At this moment, Charlie Wade looked at Jasmine and asked, "Jasmine, have you ever thought about how to deal with your uncle and cousin after this incident?"

Jasmine was slightly stunned. After thinking for a long time, she shook her head blankly and said, "Master Wade, I haven't thought about this question..."

Charlie Wade nodded and sighed softly: "I haven't thought about it before, now I should think about it..."

Jasmine asked him, "Master Wade, do you have any good suggestions?"

Charlie Wade said: "My suggestion is very simple, just four words, cut the grass and root."

Jasmine's expression flashed a little struggle, her hands clenched the railings, and she said entangledly: "I know what you mean, but... but they are all from the Moore family after all, and they are my dearest relatives, me. I can't do it..."

Charlie Wade said lightly: "You don't need to start this matter, you just have to make a decision."

Jasmine sighed, "I know what you mean, but making this decision is also very difficult. I have to consider not only my own feelings, but also the feelings of my grandfather and the feelings of everyone in the Moore family. It's all a family..."

Charlie Wade asked, "But when they killed you, didn't they treat you as a family?"

Jasmine nodded: "They are really amazing, but I am not them after all..."

After that, Jasmine said again: "Master Wade, actually you... Actually, you don't know. Since the Moore family has been in my generation, it has not been considered a person of bad roots. Grandpa used to be embarrassed about this. I sigh, if the uncle and cousin die again, it must be a bigger blow to him..."

Chapter 2136

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently: "I understand what you mean. After all, blood is thicker than water, and it makes sense to spare their lives, but... there is one thing you should pay attention to."

Jasmine hurriedly said, "Master Wade, please speak!"

Charlie Wade said: "You can keep their lives, but you must remember that capital crimes can be avoided, but living crimes are inevitable. While forgiving them without dying, you must give them enough punishment, and you must fully restrict them in the future. All possibilities, only in this way can future troubles be eliminated to the greatest extent!"

Jasmine nodded: "I know Master Wade, I will definitely consider this matter."

While speaking, Charlie Wade suddenly heard it, and a faint roar came from directly behind.

He turned his head and saw that at a distance of about one or two kilometers from his own ship, a smaller one was rushing towards him at full speed.

When a ship is driving on the sea, the wind noise and the slap of the waves are already very loud. At this time, it is difficult to hear the sound of other ships.

At such a distance, it is difficult to hear the sound even when the siren is fully opened.

If it wasn't for Charlie Wade's hearing sense to be much more sensitive than ordinary people, it would be impossible to hear it.

Seeing that there was still a ship following him on the empty sea,

Charlie Wade immediately felt that something was wrong with this matter.

He immediately said to Jasmine, "Jasmine, you go back to the room first!"

Seeing Charlie Wade's solemn expression, Jasmine felt that something was wrong.

So she hurriedly asked, "Master Wade, has something happened?"

Charlie Wade looked at the light that was approaching in the distance, with a sneer at the corner of his mouth, and said playfully, "We seem to have new guests again."

Jasmine followed his gaze. She only saw a ship on the sea, directly behind their ship, constantly approaching.

She was a little surprised and asked, "Master Wade, do you suspect that the ship's target is us?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "Their goal may be just me, without you."

Jasmine immediately said firmly, "Master Wade, I want to be with you!" Charlie Wade smiled and said, "No, you go back to the room and stay honestly. I can solve any problem alone."
"but....."

Jasmine's expression increased. If there was any danger, she would definitely not want Charlie Wade to stay alone.

Charlie Wade said with comfort at this time: "Jasmine, what's the matter, you can't help me if you stay here, and you may become a burden, so I should go back to the room quickly to make me more at ease."

After speaking, Charlie Wade added: "You are not clear about my situation. It is impossible for ordinary people to hurt me."

Jasmine hesitated again and again, nodded gently, and exhorted: "Master Wade, then you must pay attention to safety!"

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "Okay, don't worry."

As soon as the voice fell, a sailor ran out of the stairs on the deck, and said nervously, "Mr. Wade, there is a boat behind us that has been following us, and is rushing towards us with all his strength! The captain suspects that the other party is not good, let me come Please show what you mean! What are you going to do?"

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently: "They should be here for me. Don't all of you come to the deck later, leave everything here to me."

The sailor hurriedly said, "How can this work? Mr. Wade, Mr. Ito, and the chairman told us that we must safely send you and Ms. Moore to China. If the other party is really bad, then we will fight with them! At the same time Mr. Ito asks for help, let him send reinforcements as soon as possible!"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "No, listen to me, send Miss Moore back to the room, and then everyone stays in the cabin. Without my permission, don't come to the deck anyway!"

Chapter 2137

As the yacht on board was getting closer and closer to Charlie Wade, Xion's face had begun to show the joy of revenge.

She was born in one of the largest martial arts families in China, and she has undergone the country's top martial arts education since she was a child. She is definitely a master of masters.

The strength is countless times stronger than those fancy large-scale goods outside. Therefore, she didn't pay attention to Charlie Wade's own strength at all. In her impression, Charlie Wade is just a guy who owes a lot, and is cheap and sinister.

There may be a little skill and a little background, but it is absolutely impossible to be a top master. After all, what the masters pay attention to is a fair competition, what is the ability to call the police behind their backs? Therefore, she has determined at this time that she must be able to avenge her original revenge today.

At this time, the captain reported: "Miss Banks, we are less than 800 meters away from the target ship!"

Xion wiped the sweat from her palms excitedly, and said, "Give me the telescope!"

Immediately, a sailor handed a high-powered telescope for navigation to her hand.

Xion raised his binoculars and looked at it, and immediately saw Charlie Wade standing on the deck alone, his face full of leisure and contentment!

Because of the extremely high clarity of the telescope, Xion could almost completely see Charlie Wade's expression.

At this moment, Charlie Wade carried a natural indifferent calmness on his face. If there was a smile at the corner of his mouth, he could always give the other party a feeling of being despised.

Therefore, in Xion's view, his current appearance is simply a perfect portrayal of pretending to be so compelling.

At this moment, Charlie Wade's eyes seemed to look in Xion's direction, and the smile on the corners of his mouth grew a bit thicker.

Xion felt an inexplicable nervousness at first, and secretly said, "That kid's expression seems to have seen through me. Does he know that I want to come to him for revenge?!"

Thinking of this, she shook her head again and muttered softly to herself: "It's impossible! Today he arrived at the pier first and got on the boat first. When I arrived at the pier, he was already on board, and I was on board at the time. His car is a one-way glass. It is impossible for him to see me. This means that the situation tonight is the enemy's light and I am dark, so he can't detect me now. It seems that I think too much."

At this point, she couldn't help but smile coldly at the corner of her mouth, gritted her teeth and said, "Boy! Later, grandma won't make you laugh!"

Having said that, she sternly shouted, "Go ahead at full speed!"

"Yes!"

The boat Xion was riding in was smaller than Charlie Wade's, and the speed of the boat was relatively faster, so after running full horsepower, the gap narrowed faster and faster.

In the blink of an eye, the distance between the two sides was only 500 meters.

With the help of a telescope, Xion could even see the sparse scum on Charlie Wade's face.

At this time, Charlie Wade had a stronger smile on his face, and his eyes had been staring in Xion's direction.

Xion couldn't help feeling a little flustered at this time: "If the look in his eyes just now was an accident, then why is he still looking at me now?!"

Thinking of this, Xion gritted his teeth and said to the people around him with a grim look: "Everyone, get ready for battle!"

"Yes!"

Several people immediately responded, and then took out their weapons from their waists.

Japan's gun control is very strict, so they use almost all the hidden weapons commonly used in martial arts.

And the distance between ships is getting closer.

Xion raised her hands, tied her long hair into a crisp, high ponytail, and immediately said to a few people around him: "The captain will hit the opponent's side first, and then slam the direction so that the boat is close. Looking at the other party, when the boat is pasting the other side, the others jumped up with me, grabbed the man on the deck for the first time, and killed all the rest!"

The expressions of several people shrank, and they immediately said in unison: "Yes!"

Killing, Xion never relented.

From the moment she was born, her mother had been instilling a belief in her.

Chapter 2138

That is, her most important task in this life is to do her best to serve her biological father Zayne and the entire Banks Familyy. This belief, over time, has become her unwavering belief in life. Xion was brainwashed by her mother since she was a child, and she has been brainwashed for 21 years.

Therefore, as long as it is beneficial to the Banks Familyy, even if it makes her an enemy of the whole world, she does not hesitate. If someone dared to be disadvantageous to the Banks Familyy, it would even touch her absolute negative scale! This is the fundamental reason why she will destroy the entire Matsumoto family!

She and Charlie Wade not only have personal grievances, but also family grudges! It was precisely because Charlie Wade pitted her and more than fifty other Banks Familyy masters that the Banks Familyy's vitality was severely injured and suffered heavy losses.

Therefore, she now not only wants to avenge herself, but also the Banks Familyy! At this time, the distance between the two ships was only less than two hundred meters. Even without relying on the telescope, Xion could clearly see Charlie Wade's facial features and the strange smile on his face.

This smile makes her feel deja vu now!

When she and other Banks masters were taken away by the Japanese Self-Defense Force in a bus at Osaka Airport, Charlie Wade, who was standing in the cockpit of a private jet, looked at himself with such a smile on his face!

At this moment, Xion realized that Charlie Wade was indeed looking at her all the time. It was from the beginning, and it is still.

She couldn't help being surprised, this guy, could he perceive that she was observing him? !

On this vast sea, and in the middle of the night, thousands of meters away, did he find her? !

In fact, she didn't know that Charlie Wade had not only noticed that she was observing herself, but had even noticed her identity! Just as Xion was shocked, the distance between the two ships was getting closer and closer! One hundred meters, fifty meters, thirty meters!

Xion's eyes were red, and he shouted at the captain: "Continue to accelerate! Hit them!"

The captain yelled: "Miss Banks, the engine thrust has been driven to its maximum!"

Xion shouted: "There are still the last 20 meters, everyone is ready to charge!"

As soon as Xion's voice fell from here, Charlie Wade said loudly with a smile on his face: "Hey, the boat is also bought for money! If it crashes, don't you spend money to repair it?"

Xion was dumbfounded immediately, and blurted out, "He...how can he hear me?!"

Xion was in the cockpit at this time.

Across the windows and doors, coupled with the sound of wind and waves outside, even standing at the door, it is impossible to hear what the people inside are saying.

What's more, this is still 20 meters away.

The captain was also a little panicked, and subconsciously said, "Miss Banks, the wind and waves outside are so big and the distance is so far away, why can we hear his voice clearly?!"

Xion was even more surprised when he heard this! Secretly said in his heart: "Yes! He just spoke as if he was in her ears, how did he do this?!"

At this moment, the captain saw that she didn't respond, and couldn't help but blurt out, "Miss Banks, what should I do now?!"

Xion didn't know what to do at once. The distance between the two ships is only about ten meters.

Charlie Wade continued with a smile at this time: "I urge you to think more about it. If two ships collide with each other and everyone is left on the vast sea, shouldn't you call the Japan Maritime Self-Defense Force for help?"

After speaking, Charlie Wade added: "But I am not afraid, but what about you? There is a serious prisoner on the ship who is at large. If she is caught by the Japanese Self-Defense Force, I am afraid she will be shot directly?"

Chapter 2139

Charlie Wade's words immediately made Xion involuntarily nervous. She is the super felon in the eyes of the entire Japanese judiciary, and the culprit who wiped out the Matsumoto family. If the Japanese Maritime Self-Defense Force was really recruited after the collision, she would definitely not be able to escape.

Moreover, if the Japanese find out that they have escaped from prison, the Japanese will definitely take care of themselves and will never give them a second chance to escape.

Thinking of this, Xion gritted his teeth and said in a cold voice: "Slow down! Just get up, don't hit!"

The captain breathed a sigh of relief and quickly took an emergency brake.

Xion's eyes were full of hatred and determination at this time, and he coldly shouted to the people around him: "Come with me!"

After all, he took the lead in rushing out of the cockpit and directly onto the side of the ship!

At this time, the two ships were almost pasted, and Xion was standing in front of the railing on the side of the ship, and was only three to five meters away from Charlie Wade on the opposite deck.

Face to face with Charlie Wade again, Xion was full of resentment towards him, gritted his teeth and shouted coldly: "Boy! You let you run last time, this time you will never have that good luck again! If you don't take it today Your dog's life, I will not be called Xion!"

Charlie Wade laughed and said happily, "Girl, have you always been so temperamental? Or is it because your life is too depressing in the process of growing up, so your temper is getting worse and worse?"

Xion scolded angrily: "Don't be silly with me! If you tell me your name honestly, I can keep you a whole body! Otherwise, you will be broken into pieces!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Girl, I think you are young, beautiful and generous, so you can be regarded as a top-notch beauty, so don't say things like broken corpses. Isn't it better to be gentle? You? Remember, gentle girls are the most likable to men. With a tigress character like you, you are likely to die alone!"

"What are you talking about?!" Xion pointed at Charlie Wade and gritted his teeth: "Boy! After you die, I will sew your mouth together and let you be a dumb in your next life!"

Charlie Wade smiled playfully: "Then see if you have the ability to kill me! If you have this ability, if you want to kill, you have to do whatever you want, but if you don't have this ability, then I will let you feel my punishment!"

Xion glared and scolded him coldly, "Go to hell!"

After speaking, with one hand on the fence, the whole person suddenly jumped, jumped several meters high, and charged towards Charlie Wade with all her strength!

Charlie Wade stood by the fence with a disdainful smile on his face. Xion is indeed a master, but this master is for ordinary people. For Charlie Wade, her masters were basically the same as the old ladies on the street who had no power to restrain chickens. In other words, it is like an online game. In front of a level 100 boss, there is no real difference between a level 10 player and a level 1 player.

For the one-hundred-level boss, the player who cuts the first level only needs one hit; the player who cuts the tenth level also only needs one hit.

However, Xion didn't know that she was completely vulnerable to Charlie Wade!

She leaped deep onto the deck of Charlie Wade's ship, and saw that Charlie Wade had been standing motionless by the railing. She wanted to choke Charlie Wade's throat directly!

But he didn't expect that Charlie Wade, who had always been calm, took a step back a little later in the critical moment, and immediately escaped Xion's attack.

Charlie Wade could have just stepped forward and used Xion to subdue her, but he didn't plan to do so.

In his eyes, Xion is like a little milk dog encountered on the street. He obviously has no strength, but he likes to bark at people, and sometimes wants to rush to bite people.

Although the character of this kind of little milk dog is very annoying, the key is that it has a pretty high face value. In this way, people have the idea of teasing it.

Chapter 2140

Besides, Charlie Wade saw that Xion had left behind and followed several subordinates. These people had already begun to climb over the railings and climb onto his own ship. If he had solved Xion now, then the others would see it. Definitely turn around and run.

So, you might as well wait for them all to get on your own boat, and then give them a urn to catch turtles.

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade continued to back up a few steps, letting Xion chase him.

When Xion chased Charlie Wade, other people also rushed up.

Seeing this, Charlie Wade smiled with satisfaction: "Since they are all here, then I won't waste everyone's time!"

After that, he suddenly seemed to have changed a person, and his whole body exploded with an astonishing aura!

Xion is a master of the inner family and has already developed a good inner strength, so she immediately felt the momentum released from Charlie Wade's body, and the whole person was suddenly stunned!

"If I didn't feel wrong just now, the inner strength of this kid should be much stronger than me!"

"But, he doesn't look like a master at all! Could it be that I caught it wrong?!"

Just before Xion hadn't figured it out, Charlie Wade had stopped retreating and rushed directly towards her instead.

At this moment, Charlie Wade's whole body was sharp and quick!

Even when running, there is even a sound of breaking through the air!

Compared with the silly dude before, it's a completely different person!

Xion was shocked and immediately stopped, standing still and preparing to respond with all his strength.

However, just as Charlie Wade was about to rush to Xion, his whole person suddenly realized, and he had disappeared from Xion's eyes!

Before Xion could figure out what was going on, she heard a few screams suddenly behind her!

She turned around in a hurry, and the situation in front of her immediately frightened her!

At this moment, of the six men who followed her, three of them were already lying on the ground wailing, and the other was raised in the air with one hand by Charlie Wade, while screaming, and like a javelin at the same time, Charlie Wade threw it out vigorously.

The other two wanted to escape, but one of them was directly knocked to the ground by the person who Charlie Wade had thrown over. In the end, before that person had time to escape, Charlie Wade grabbed him by the neck and was directly lifted by him like a chicken.

The scared soul was frightened, and he cried and shouted, "Big brother, please be forgiving..."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "You're forgiving, right? Okay, don't say I won't give you a chance. You have to fight for the way to survive!"

The man nodded repeatedly and blurted out: "Don't worry, no matter what you say, I will do it!"

Charlie Wade said calmly: "I don't need you to do anything for me. You got on my ship without my permission. I just want you to get out of here, that's all."

When the man heard this, he immediately said with joy, "I'm going to get out of here, here's going to go!"

He thought that Charlie Wade was telling him to roll back to the boat where he came, so he was naturally relieved.

However, he never expected that Charlie Wade directly threw him out with a wave of his hand.

At the moment he rose into the air and flew to the sea, Charlie Wade said coldly: "Whether you can survive or not depends on your own good fortune!"

Chapter 2141

At the moment that person rose into the sky, he sadly discovered that he was thrown to the left side of the cruise ship by Charlie Wade, and the ship when he came was on the right side of the cruise ship!

Moreover, Charlie Wade's hand was so powerful that he threw him for more than ten meters in one fell swoop!

The whole person fell directly into the cold water with a huge splash!

The location here is not far from the open sea, the water depth has reached thousands of meters, and it is winter, and the sea is bitterly cold!

When he fell into the sea with a thump, the impact itself made him feel painful.

Immediately afterwards, the clothes on his body were completely soaked in cold water, and all of a sudden I felt like an ice cellar!

In this case, he could only struggle desperately, trying to swim back to his boat.

However, the sea was very windy and he was just in the downwind direction, so no matter how hard he swam, he still failed to bring him closer to the cruise ship by even a few meters.

Just when he was desperate, there were a few more thumps on the sea.

It turned out that the few people left were thrown into the sea one by one, like Charlie Wade like dumplings.

The lives of these people are far worse than the first one.

After all, the first kid was not beaten and was thrown down.

But other people didn't have such good luck. They were first beaten by Charlie Wade all over their bodies, and then thrown into the sea, which basically eliminated half their lives!

The remaining half-life is not enough in such cold water!

Several people screamed and thumped desperately, for fear of sinking directly to the bottom of the sea and losing their lives here.

On the ship carrying Xion, the captain and several sailors were shocked! what happened? ! Xion led the team, a total of seven people went to fight each other, but six were thrown into the sea? !

The sailor asked at this moment: "Captain, do we want to save it?"

The captain said with an indifferent expression, "Save them? Don't forget our mission! Focus all your energy on Miss Banks. The lives of these people are not worth mentioning!"

When the sailor heard this, he had to shut his mouth with interest.

At this time, on the deck of another ship.

Xion's heart has been cold for more than half!

She really didn't expect Charlie Wade to have such abnormal strength!

Moreover, not only the strength is abnormal, but the working style is also abnormal! He actually threw all his subordinates into the sea! Is this a human job?

As the saying goes, if you want to kill, you have to kill them. Their strength is not good. It doesn't hurt to kill them directly, but why throw them into the sea? Thinking of this, Xion couldn't help but worry about herself. In this way, she was probably not Charlie Wade's opponent. If she was thrown into the sea later, wouldn't it be a shame?

Xion didn't doubt her ability, she believed that even if she was thrown into the sea, she could easily swim back to the boat. It's just that Xion grew up so old and had never suffered such a loss, so she couldn't accept it for a while.

At this moment, Charlie Wade had already thrown all the six young men into the sea, clapped his hands, and said with contempt: "Is the Banks Family's dog so capable? If the Banks Family's strength is so poor, then I Look at the Banks Family, it's almost time to give up the seat of the first family!"

When Xion heard this, she was immediately furious! The thing she can't stand most is that someone dares to be disrespectful to the Banks Family! Although she was still an unrecognized illegitimate daughter, she felt that what was flowing in her bones was the blood of the Banks Family! Therefore, in any case, don't let others blaspheme the Banks Family!

Chapter 2142

So, she angrily reprimanded: "Boy! Dare to be disrespectful to the Banks Familyy, you are looking for death!"

Charlie Wade sneered: "What? This is disrespect to the Banks Familyy? I tell you, one day, I will let Lord Banks and Zayne kneel before me and beg me to forgive them like a dog!"

Xion felt a buzz in her head in this one! Lord Banks is her grandfather! And Zayne is her biological father! Since she was a child, under the indoctrination of her mother, she has a fascination with her father! Therefore, at this time, she could not wait to torture Charlie Wade on the spot in order to avenge him for insulting her father!

At this moment, Xion took out a sharp black-bladed dagger from her waist and said coldly, "Boy, today I must make you die without a place to be buried!"

Xion yelled and rushed towards Charlie Wade!

This time, she no longer wanted to analyze in her heart, Charlie Wade and herself, who is strong and who is weak, who wins and who loses, she has been dazzled by anger! I just want to take advantage of Charlie Wade early and defend the dignity of his father and the Banks Familyy!

However, Charlie Wade is something she can handle! Seeing her holding a dagger and rushing forward, Charlie Wade stood still and waited for her. The closer Xion is to Charlie Wade, the faster the speed!

She has gathered all her internal energy on her right arm, and with the sharp blade of titanium alloy in her hand, even a car can be cut off by her abruptly, let alone a flesh and blood body!

Moreover, she knew very well in her heart that the more internal energy she gathered, the greater the potential energy of this knife!

And the faster you run, the greater the inertia of your body!

Adding the two together, the strength of this blow would be difficult for the gods to resist!

Therefore, at this moment, she was ready to kill Charlie Wade with one blow!

but.....

The moment she rushed to Charlie Wade, the sudden change suddenly appeared!

Charlie Wade did not step back, nor did he dodge, but directly stretched out a hand, and easily grasped Xion's wrist!

Xion felt as if her wrist was completely fixed, unable to move at all, and her heart was shocked!

And her worldview was almost completely subverted at this moment!

She learned the peak martial arts of the Elms family since she was a child. When she was eighteen, she was already the strongest among the younger generation of the Elms family.

Moreover, in the entire Elms family, her strength is second only to several elders including Grandpa.

Her mother, Kairi, was not Xion's opponent because of the loss of an arm!

This shows that her strength is by no means comparable to ordinary people!

At this time, she was terrified in her heart, and said in her heart: "I have just made such a full blow, even if the strongest grandpa in the Elms family is here, it is impossible to resist it so easily! Grandpa must at least go all out to get me All the strength of this blow is removed!"

"But, my full blow, in front of this guy, is like a child's play!"

"This guy just moved his hands and completely resolved my thunderous offensive and brought the whole offensive to an abrupt end!"

"This... how capable is this!"

Xion knew that the overall strength of his attack was not weaker than the bullet that came out of the chamber!

Charlie Wade stretched out his hand to block all her attacks, it was equivalent to stretched out his hand to pinch the bullet that came from a rapid shot!

Therefore, Xion stretched out inwardly and exclaimed, "This...this is simply not something human can do! What magical powers does this man in front of me have?!"

Rarely in her heart, she became flustered and blurted out, "You...who are you?!"

"Me?" Charlie Wade smiled indifferently: "Say a word without blowing or pretending, I am someone you and your entire Banks Familyy can't afford to offend!"

Chapter 2143

Charlie Wade now has nothing to fear. Neither the Wade family nor the Banks Familyy could make him fear at all. With his strength, it may not be difficult to take the heads of Lord Banks and Zayne among ten thousand people.

The reason why I haven't asked Xion's guilt right away is mainly because he wants to wait for the opportunity to give her a complete crush. Not only are the people who are stronger than the Banks Familyy, but they have to form an absolute advantage over the Banks Familyy in the industry. Only in this way can the Banks Familyy bend their knees in the true sense.

However, Xion didn't know Charlie Wade's depth at all. She just felt that the strength of this man was terrible to abnormal! However, even so, he could not be the opponent of the entire Banks Familyy!

But Xion was also very clear in his eccentricity. Now that it doesn't make any sense to say this. The most important thing at the moment is how can I escape from this abnormal man!

Xion is not afraid of death.

However, when she thought of her father spending a lot of energy, financial resources, material resources and manpower in order to rescue herself, her inner desire to survive instantly reached its peak.

So she looked at Charlie Wade and said, "If you let me go, our previous grievances can be wiped out! Otherwise, the Banks Familyy will definitely not let you go!"

Charlie Wade smiled, "The Banks Familyy won't let me go? To tell you the truth, even if the Banks Familyy doesn't look for me, I will look for them!"

Xion's expression was startled, and she blurted out and asked, "You...you have an enemy with the Banks Familyy?"

Charlie Wade nodded, "Of course! And it's an unshakable enemy!"

Xion was in ashes. She felt that since the young man in front of him had an antagonism with the Banks Familyy, he naturally couldn't let her go. It seems that I am going to die here today. Thinking of this, she thought of her parents who were still waiting for her to return home, her eyes filled with tears.

Immediately, she looked at Charlie Wade and said seriously: "Since my skills are not as good as yours, then you can kill me!"

Charlie Wade smiled calmly: "Don't worry, I won't kill you."

"What?!" Xion exclaimed, "You won't kill me?!"

Charlie Wade nodded: "You committed a capital crime in Japan, and now you are an escaped prisoner. As long as I hand you over to the Japanese judicial department, they will naturally sentence you to death."

Speaking of this, Charlie Wade frowned suddenly, and immediately looked at Xion with cold eyes.

He looked Xion up and down, and asked, "The Japanese judicial department hates you so much. The Banks Familyy can save you under this situation. It shouldn't cost less, right?"

Chapter 2144

Xion was afraid that he would notice something, so she avoided his eyes and dared not answer.

She was afraid that Charlie Wade knew that she was the illegitimate daughter of Zayne.

In that way, he might not only use himself as a bargaining chip to threaten her father and the Banks Familyy, but he might even make her identity public.

Although she very much hopes that her father can recognize her identity, she also knows that her father is the son of Banks' Family after all, and he has the original wife and a pair of children. If her identity is exposed at once, her father's reputation and family happiness will be affected. Great negative impact.

Xion only wanted to share his worries for his father all his life, and never thought of causing trouble to his father, so at this time, there was a panic in his heart, for fear that Charlie Wade would notice it. Seeing Xion avoiding his eyes, and at the same time shutting his mouth, he realized that something was wrong in his heart. He sighed with emotion, "You are now Japan's number one serious prisoner. Under such circumstances, they can still get you. After it comes out, the Banks Familyy will have to spend at least one billion, or even more, to make it possible..."

Speaking of this, Charlie Wade stared at Xion and said coldly: "The style of the Banks Familyy, I have also heard that the current Patriarch Lord Banks is not a generous person, he can't be willing to spend so much money to save one servant, even if you do have some strength, you are definitely not worth so much money!"

At this point, Charlie Wade deliberately stretched the tone and sneered: "Unless...you are not a subordinate of the Banks Familyy!"

Although Xion is very strong, her social experience and emotional quotient do not quite pass the test. Upon hearing this, the whole person is obviously a little flustered. There is no silver three hundred taels and said: "No...not you As expected! I...I am indeed a servant of the Banks Familyy..."

Charlie Wade sneered: "It seems that you really lack some social experience. The look in your eyes has given me a clear signal!"

Xion asked in a panic: "Ah?! What signal?!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "The signal I guessed right!"

After that, Charlie Wade asked coldly, "Who are you from the Banks Familyy? I have investigated you, Xion, the subordinate of the Banks Familyy, and the bodyguard of Zayne. Although they also have the surname Banks, they are not in the Banks Familyy. what relationship....."

Xion nodded hurriedly: "Yes...I am indeed just a subordinate of the Banks Familyy..."

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "No, I said, the Banks Familyy can't do such a big fight for a subordinate, so your identity as a subordinate of the Banks Familyy is not the key to let the Banks Familyy save you... ."

Speaking of this, Charlie Wade stared at Xion's somewhat horrified eyes, and said lightly: "So, you must have another identity!"

Xion shook his head repeatedly in shock, and said in a begging voice, "I am not, I really don't have any other identity. If you want to kill me, kill me quickly, don't humiliate me like this again, okay? ..."

Charlie Wade saw her nervous performance in his eyes, and laughed coldly: "The Banks Familyy values you so much, and you protect the Banks Familyy so heartily. This behavior has clearly surpassed the feelings between the master and servant, could it be... ..Could it be that you and the Banks Familyy are related by blood? After all, your surname is Banks!"

Xion shook her head desperately: "Although my surname is Banks, it is just a coincidence... I came to Banks' house when I was 18 years old. My main job is to be Zayne's bodyguard, and occasionally I bring The other subordinates in the family perform some relatively secret tasks! For example, I am responsible for the execution of the killing of Matsumoto Manchi! What I told you is the truth, I really have no other identity..."

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "After you have done it, the little beauty, the more you explain, the more you want to cover it up in my opinion, if you are really just a subordinate of the Banks Familyy and you are ready to die for the master! And you I don't want my life, but I'm here to explain so much to me. Obviously, I'm arguing for the Banks Familyy!"

After that, Charlie Wade ridiculed: "Let me guess, are you the illegitimate daughter of someone in the Banks Familyy? That's why they tried so hard to save you, right?"

Xion turned pale with fright. She shook her head desperately and even threw out her tears. She choked and said, "I'm really not the illegitimate daughter of the Banks Familyy, please believe me..."

Charlie Wade ignored her, shook his head, and muttered: "Whose illegitimate daughter will you be? Lord Banks? It's unlikely. Lord Banks' old dog is about to die, so he shouldn't have the ability to raise a young lady like you. Little girl, besides, if you are really his illegitimate daughter, he will never arrange you to protect Zayne. In that case, Zayne may find out at any time..."

Speaking of this, Charlie Wade looked at Xion up and down, and asked with a smile: "So, you should be Zayne's illegitimate daughter? Zayne simply left you by his side as a bodyguard in order to hide from others. Close contact, without being suspected, you said I guessed it, right?"

Chapter 2145

Charlie Wade just speculated, and by the way, let's see Xion's reaction. Unexpectedly, as soon as these words came out, Xion's body trembled uncontrollably. At this moment, Charlie Wade immediately understood in his heart that he was right.

This Xion is the illegitimate daughter of Zayne! No wonder! No wonder the Banks Familyy was willing to spend so much effort to rescue her from the Japanese judicial department! It turns out that this girl is the flesh and blood of Zayne! Interesting!

Xion was already shocked at this time! She didn't expect that the man in front of her would guess her true identity in such a short time!

You know, the entire Banks Familyy, there are only two people who know their true identity.

One is her biological father, Zayne, and the other is her grandfather, Lord Banks!

Even Fitz and Zara didn't know that the self who had been acting as bodyguards by their side was actually their sister!

And Zayne's original wife, even more ignorant.

Xion was very afraid of the man in front of her and stabbed this matter out. In that case, her father's reputation would suffer a huge blow! Thinking of this, she immediately had a plan to die deep in her heart, and she thought to herself sadly: "As long as I live, I will be Zayne's daughter. No matter how I deny it, all that flows in my body is his blood."

"However, if I die, no one can claim that I am the daughter of Zayne! Even if this man exposes my identity, because I am dead, my father can firmly deny my identity... .."

"It seems that only when I am dead can I become one hundred, and I can keep the secret of my identity forever!"

As soon as she thought of this, she immediately said to Charlie Wade pleadingly, "Please, kill me! Or you can let go of my hand and let me finish it myself!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "How is it possible? Not only will I not kill you, nor will I let you commit suicide!"

Xion asked in horror: "What are you going to do?!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Little girl, don't be afraid, I'll take you home! You must have been wronged for so many years of hiding the secret of your identity? Don't worry, I will help you get back as Miss Banks' identity. Let you enjoy everything you should have enjoyed long ago!"

"No!" Xion immediately broke down and cried, crying in silence, begging, "I have killed countless people and sinned a lot, so you should kill the people and give me joy..."

With that, she tried her best to break free from Charlie Wade's hand.

However, Charlie Wade's hand seemed to be frozen, and she couldn't shake it at all!

Seeing her desperately seeking death, Charlie Wade became more and more interesting, and deliberately teased: "If a beautiful girl like you is dead, it would be a shame! How could I do such a horrible and violent act? What's the matter?"

Xion looked at Charlie Wade and choked with horror: "What do you want..."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "I think it's very simple, take you back to China, make your identity public, and ask your dad to give you an upright name. Isn't that good?"

"I don't want..." Xion's tears became a thread, and with the other hand, she tried desperately to break Charlie Wade's fingers, her eyes were aggrieved and horrified, and said, "I'm fine like this, I don't want to be the eldest lady of the Banks Family, I don't want to cause him any trouble, I beg you, kill me, kill me, and then throw me into the sea..."

Charlie Wade asked in return: "What? Your father gave birth to you and asked him to admit that your identity is justified. Why did it cause him trouble in your eyes?"

Although Xion was in tears, she still stubbornly said, "I don't want to cause trouble to him, and I don't want to cause trouble to my mother..."

Charlie Wade slapped his lips, "Tsk, you are really strange. You can kill dozens of people for the Banks Family without blinking, but now you don't want to cause any trouble to the Banks Familyy. How can you be so selfless to the Banks Familyy? Dedication?"

Chapter 2146

Xion was speechless when asked by Charlie Wade.

The reason for this dedication is because of the brainwashing education she has experienced since she was a child.

She firmly believes that she should give everything for the Banks Familyy and her father, even her life.

However, in this case, she naturally couldn't tell Charlie Wade.

So she could only continue begging in tears: "Sir, although my life is very short, I have never begged anyone. Today I beg you once, please give me a good time and stop torturing me, okay? ...Please..."

Charlie Wade shook his head and said coldly, "Sorry, you can't die now!"

.....

At this moment, in the cockpit of another ship.

The captain and sailor were already stunned!

They really couldn't understand why Xion only had a trick with that man, just as if he had been cursed, standing still and unable to move!

Moreover, she nodded, shook her head for a while, and cried bitterly for a while. To the people on the boat, this scene was a bit too magical.

The captain immediately took out the satellite phone and called a domestic number.

On the phone, he explained what happened here in detail, and then heard the order on the phone, he nodded hurriedly and said, "Okay, I get it! I will do what you want!"

Having said that, he hung up the phone and said coldly, "Go and notify Mr. Johnson, that he has a new order!"

A sailor by his side quickly turned around and ran to the bottom cabin of the cruise ship.

There was a locked door in the bottom cabin. He knocked on the door and shouted, "Mr. Johnson, the captain asked me to tell you that the master has a new order!"

A man's gloomy voice came from the room: "Okay, I'll go up now!"

As soon as the voice fell, the door was opened.

A middle-aged man with triangular eyes and hooked nose carries a specially customized heavy composite crossbow in his hand.

The composite crossbow is the most powerful of all crossbow weapons, and the power of a single crossbow even exceeds that of a gun.

Professional hunters like to use heavy composite crossbows to hunt large prey, such as wild boars with thick skins.

Ordinary pistols and light rifles, bullets hit the wild boar, it is difficult to penetrate the wild boar's panel covered with pine oil and mud, and even the bullet may refract on the wild boar's panel.

However, if the heavy composite crossbow is used well, it can shoot the wild boar through with one arrow, and its power is not inferior to the heavy sniper rifle!

What's even more powerful is that the composite crossbow has a long range and high accuracy. After being paired with a sniper scope, it can be used to sniper at long distances.

The composite crossbow is not only powerful and accurate, but also has a great advantage, that is, the sound is extremely small, and it is especially suitable for assassination!

More importantly, most countries in the world are gun-ban countries and have strict legal restrictions. It is even more difficult for ordinary people to get a pistol, let alone a sniper rifle.

However, composite crossbows do not have so many restrictions. For example, the composite crossbow that this person holds in his hand is enhanced and transformed from a composite crossbow used in sports competitions. It is extremely powerful and can be pierced even in a bulletproof vest. It is a wonderful weapon for assassination!

This person carried this composite crossbow and stepped onto the top cockpit.

The captain said to him immediately: "Mr. Johnson, come on, the master is captured, immediately kill the man on the opposite boat!"

The man glanced at Charlie Wade and Xion on the opposite boat, with a sneer at the corner of his mouth, and said indifferently, "Isn't this the fucking target who is still motionless at such a close distance?"

Having said that, he immediately opened a window and pointed the crosshair of the sniper mirror on the composite crossbow at the left temple of Charlie Wade!

Chapter 2147

The power of a heavy composite crossbow is enough to penetrate a person's head at such a short distance.

In addition, Mr. Johnson is himself a top killer who is extremely good at killing people with a crossbow, so he has absolute certainty that he can kill Charlie Wade with a single blow.

He debuted in the assassin field for fifteen years, and has never missed a kill with a crossbow.

Therefore, after aiming at Charlie Wade with extremely fast speed, he immediately pulled the trigger without hesitation!

The bowstring of the composite crossbow made a humming sound, and then a crossbow arrow made of titanium alloy and carbon fiber galloped straight to Charlie Wade's temple.

The speed of the composite crossbow exceeds 100 meters per second, not to mention this heavy composite crossbow is a modified killing weapon, the speed is almost close to 200 meters per second.

At such a short distance, the speed left for the opponent to react is no more than 0.5 seconds.

In other words, the opponent didn't even have a chance to turn his head and take a look!

Therefore, Mr. Johnson has already made his mind and regards Charlie Wade as a dead person.

He was even ready to witness Charlie Wade's head burst open with his own eyes.

Moreover, he knows very well that the arrow of this crossbow bolt is very poisonous, even if it only pierces the opponent's skin, the opponent will undoubtedly die!

However, what he never expected was that Charlie Wade didn't even look here, just casually stretched out his hand and grabbed it, and grabbed the swift crossbow arrow!

"This... how is this possible!"

That Mr. Johnson was already stunned!

The captain was also stunned, and blurted out: "Mr. Johnson, am I dazzled, am I?! What that guy is holding in his hand is the crossbow arrow you just shot?!"

Mr. Johnson suddenly sweated in cold sweat: "Yes... this guy... is simply a freak! I have never seen such a strong person..."

After all, Mr. Johnson hurriedly asked: "Who is he?!"

The captain was full of horror: "I don't know either! I just received an order from the master to tell you to kill him..."

Mr. Johnson gritted his teeth: "I shoot him another arrow, I don't believe he can catch it!"

This composite crossbow has two sets of bowstrings, which can be used for two crossbow arrows, which can be used for continuous shooting.

After the two crossbow arrows are fired, the bowstring must be re-stringed. For such a heavy crossbow arrow, the bowstring is not an easy task. Even if it is operated by Johnson, it will take at least ten seconds.

Therefore, the remaining crossbow arrow is almost his last chance.

At this moment, the captain suddenly stopped him and blurted out: "Mr. Johnson, the master isn't dead. If you can't get rid of him, start the emergency plan! Are you absolutely sure that you can kill him with this last arrow?"

Mr. Johnson was stunned, hesitated for a moment, and shook his head: "I don't have..."

The captain said with a grim expression, "Mr. Johnson, if you are not absolutely sure, then... then implement the emergency plan!"

Mr. Johnson nodded lightly and said, "Okay, then implement the emergency plan!"

.....

At this time, on the deck of another ship.

Xion saw Charlie Wade grabbing a crossbow arrow that broke through the air with one hand, and the whole person was already shocked!

She exclaimed in her heart: "This person...is this person a human?! The strength of this crossbow arrow is stronger than the strike I just made, and it's much faster than me! He even saw it. You can grab it with one hand without looking at it?! How high is this man's martial arts?!"

At this moment, Charlie Wade saw Xion's expression in shock, and smiled calmly: "What? Do you feel that your worldview has been subverted?"

Xion nodded gently.

Chapter 2148

Although she was unwilling to admit her failures and shortcomings, the strength of the man in front of her was indeed incredible, and he had completely exceeded her knowledge of martial arts.

Charlie Wade sneered and turned to look at the ship opposite.

The killer with the composite crossbow in the boat was startled by the look in his eyes.

He hesitated for a while, and then whispered to the captain, "No matter whether my arrow can be shot or not, you have to drive the boat's horsepower to the maximum and leave at the fastest speed. The man on the opposite side is strong. Too strong, the farther we are from him, the better!"

The captain immediately put his hand on the engine power gear, and at the same time said to the chief mate next to him: "After Mr. Johnson shoots the second crossbow bolt, you will immediately fill the rudder to the left, and I will maximize the horsepower at the same time. I understand. No?"

The first officer blurted out immediately: "I understand!"

"Okay!" The captain nodded, and looked at Mr. Johnson aside nervously.

That Mr. Johnson took a deep breath, then immediately pulled the trigger and shot a cold arrow!

Afterwards, he immediately shouted: "Retreat! Retreat!"

The captain and first officer immediately began to cooperate, controlling the ship's full rudder to the left and preparing to escape at full speed. At the moment when he shot the crossbow arrow, Charlie Wade already felt that the crossbow arrow was coming.

He wanted to reach out and grab it, but suddenly gave up. Because he noticed that the crossbow arrow was not coming at him! Instead, it rushed to Xion beside him! The next moment, Xion suddenly felt a sharp pain in her thigh.

She screamed in pain, and looked down, her right leg had been completely penetrated by a crossbow arrow! The severe pain made her clenched her teeth, and her heart was full of surprise.

"Why? Why would the opponent shoot a crossbow arrow into my leg?!"

As soon as she thought of this, she immediately felt that there was a powerful energy flowing from the wound throughout her body along her blood vessels.

She is a man of martial arts, has a certain internal strength, and suddenly realized that this kind of energy is nothing but poison that can kill people!

Her face suddenly turned pale!

However, after a while, she felt relieved again: "Itself, in the hands of the man in front of me, I can't survive or beg for death. No matter what, I will soon be poisoned to death. In this way, my identity can never be disclosed, and it won't cause trouble to Dad..."

Thinking of this, her face suddenly had a relieved expression.

Seeing this, Charlie Wade couldn't help but frown, and said coldly: "You want to die so? Don't worry, the more you want to die, the less I will let you die so easily!"

Having said that, immediately grabbed her wrist and fingertips to penetrate a trace of reiki from her veins to remove the poison in her body, and at the same time temporarily seal all her meridians, making her completely immobile.

After that, he threw the first crossbow arrow in his hand to the ship that was about to escape.

That Mr. Johnson was staring at the two of them, wanting to see when Xion died from the poison, but he didn't expect a black shadow to fly in front of him!

Immediately afterwards, he felt a sharp pain on his forehead, and the next second, the crossbow bolt shot through his Tianling Cap, killing him on the spot!

When the captain and other crew members in the cabin saw this scene, they were all frightened. The captain convulsed and pushed the power control stick, and blurted out, "Why does this ship go so slow!"

The first officer hugged the rudder and shouted hoarsely: "Captain! The rudder is full left! It is difficult to speed up when turning on the spot, just wait for it!"

Just when the ship desperately wanted to turn to escape, Charlie Wade took a few steps on the deck and suddenly jumped, and the person had already jumped onto the opponent's deck!

At this time, a crew member twitched in shock: "Captain... that person... jumped onto our boat!"

The people on the ship were so scared that they screamed again and again! At this moment, there is no expert on the ship who can still fight Charlie Wade!

Xion was hit by a poisoned arrow, fearing that she would die soon. The remaining Banks Clan's men were all thrown into the sea by Charlie Wade, and some of them had already sunk into the water because of lack of physical strength.

The rest is that Mr. Johnson. He himself was a killer hidden in the boat, and even Xion didn't know his existence. However, he is now completely dead. The only people left in the cabin, except for the captain and chief mate, are just a few sailors.

They had never practiced martial arts, so they were not even Charlie Wade's opponents.

Just when everyone didn't know what to do, the door of the cockpit was suddenly kicked open by Charlie Wade. In the next second, Charlie Wade had already stepped in. Several sailors scared legs felt weak, which is a direct plop kneeling on the ground, crying and pleaded: "!! Brother mercy ah I was a Soviet crew home, I did not do this!"

Several people also knelt on the ground and kowtowed: "Yes, big brother, we are ordinary crew members, we don't know other things!"

Charlie Wade ignored these people's plea and asked, "Who is the captain?" Everyone hurriedly pointed their fingers at the same person.

The captain tremblingly raised his hand and said: "Big brother, I am the captain."

Charlie Wade nodded and said coldly: "Return the boat back, and then turn off the engine!"

"Good brother," the captain did not dare to argue. Then, he hurriedly ordered the first officer: "Right full rudder!" The first officer hurriedly did so, and the two of them posted the boat back towards the boat Charlie Wade was riding.

Afterwards, Charlie Wade said in a cold voice: "Everyone, put your hands on your head and line up on the deck, and climb to the opposite ship!"

Seeing that so many people have died, how can they dare to disobey Charlie Wade at this time? He immediately hugged his head with his hands and walked out of the cockpit in a line. Under the leadership of the captain, everyone climbed over the railings and carefully climbed onto the deck of another ship.

Xion was still standing here at this moment, unable to move. But fortunately, there was Charlie Wade's reiki, so she didn't have any life threatening for the time being.

At this moment, Charlie Wade pulled the captain to Xion and said, "Come on, tell me, why did that guy shoot the beautiful woman next to me with a crossbow arrow?" The captain's expression was tangled, and then he spoke. Said: "I don't know about this, maybe it was accidentally shot crooked, right?"

Charlie Wade sneered, "accidentally shot crooked? The first arrow went straight to my temple, almost without any deviation, extremely accurate. Why would the second arrow accidentally shoot crooked?"

Although Xion said nothing, she wanted to know the answer in her heart.

The captain hurriedly said: "Big brother, I don't know what's going on with him. I'm the one who was ordered to set sail. I don't know anything else."

Charlie Wade nodded, "I don't know, right? Very good, then go to the sea. Feed the sharks!"

After speaking, Charlie Wade immediately grabbed his collar with one hand and directly lifted him up with his legs hanging in the air.

Chapter 2150

The captain peed his pants on the spot in fright, and cried out, "Brother forgive me! I say! I say it all!"

Then, the captain choked and said, "I have been driving a cruise ship for the master. This time, the master sent me to Japan. The mission of the trip, originally, the master did not intend to really save Miss Banks back tonight, because once Miss Banks is rescued, it will not only cost a lot of money, but also leave great troubles, causing the Japanese government to have a long-term grievance with Banks' parents. That's why he set up a bureau deliberately..."

Charlie Wade frowned and asked, "What bureau was set up?" The captain said truthfully: "According to the plan, after sailing tonight, I will go directly to the high seas. The Japanese Maritime Self-Defense Force has already laid ambush there. Once the ship arrives at the designated location, they will immediately encircle and arrest Miss Banks..."

Charlie Wade was even more surprised. Go back? It took such a great effort to rescue her, why did it take such a great effort to catch her back?" The captain shook his head and said, "This...I don't know about this. I only know that the master is like this. He ordered it to us."

Charlie Wade asked again: "What happened to the crossbowman just now?" The captain said hurriedly: "The crossbowman was named Johnson, Kelly Johnson, a famous cold weapon king in the killer world. The master meant to treat him as an emergency plan..."

Charlie Wade asked again: "What does the emergency plan mean? You'd better explain it to me at once, otherwise, I will kill you!"

The Captain was shocked and cried: "I'll speak! I made it clear all the time! The emergency plan is, if the Japanese Self-Defense Forces fail to catch Miss Banks, let Mr. Johnson kill Miss Banks with a crossbow, and then dump the body. Hand over to the Self-Defense Forces!" As soon as these words came out, Xion's face was pale...

She said in a loud voice with an incredibly full face: "What are you talking about?! Master's emergency plan is to kill me?! "

"That's right..." The captain nodded and said seriously: "The original plan was to go directly to the predetermined location after boarding the ship, but you suddenly wanted to hunt down this big brother. The master agreed, so our The route has changed temporarily. The master also called me specifically to explain to me, let me take you to kill this eldest brother first, and then sail you to the pre-determined place and meet with the Japanese Self-Defense Forces. He also said that there will be any In uncontrollable situations, we must let Mr. Johnson execute the emergency plan and kill you, saying that this is the only way to prevent future troubles..."

Xion's eyes were filled with tears, and she desperately shook her head and said, "Impossible! You must be talking nonsense! How could the lord let you kill me? I am his..." At this point, she realized that she had said something wrong and immediately closed her mouth.

In fact, what she was thinking in her heart was that she was Lord Banks's granddaughter, how could he kill her? Besides, even if he really had this heart, her father Zayne couldn't agree!

Seeing Xion's unbelief, the captain said quickly: "Miss Banks, I really didn't talk nonsense... Master did explain that we must not let you leave Japan alive. Even if you die, you will have to hand over the body to The Japanese Self-Defense Force."

Xion murmured: "It's impossible...It's impossible...It's not logical, and there's no reason!"

Charlie Wade He sneered on the side and said: "Why is this impossible? You have died, so the Banks Familyy will not be in huge trouble. You must know that you are a serious prisoner in the eyes of all Japan. If anyone rescues you, it is with The whole of Japan is against them. Even if the Banks Familyy is wealthy, it cannot bear such pressure!"

Xion roared angrily: "You are nonsense!"

"I'm nonsense?" Charlie Wade sneered, "Although I don't know that Banks Familyy. How the old things plan specifically, but I believe they must be all the truth!"

Xion shook his head and said, "I don't believe it! I don't believe a word they say!"

Charlie Wade said calmly: "It doesn't matter if you don't believe it, I naturally have a way to make you believe it!" After all, he looked at the captain and asked, "How did you contact the Banks Family?" The captain hurriedly said: " It's a satellite phone!"

Charlie Wade asked again: "Where is the satellite phone?"

"In the pocket inside my clothes..."

Charlie Wade ordered: "You call now and tell him Xion has been killed by me! Listen to what he said!"

Chapter 2151

The captain just wanted to survive at this moment, so he asked Charlie Wade tremblingly: "Brother, if I listen to you, can you spare my life?" Charlie Wade nodded and promised: "As long as you cooperate obediently, I can spare you not to die. Even then, I can arrange a new identity for you so that you can start a new life."

As soon as the other party heard this, he immediately said with gratitude, "Brother, with your words, I will listen to you!"

Charlie Wade said with satisfaction: "Okay, then you just say everything as I told you!"

Having said that, Charlie Wade thought for a while, and said, "Since the old dog Lord Banks has set up an emergency plan, then you can simply tell him that Xion was killed by his emergency plan."

After that, he immediately whispered a few words in the ear of the other party.

After listening, the captain nodded, and immediately picked up his satellite phone, pulled out the long antenna, and called Lord Banks.

At this moment, Lord Banks is at Eastcliff's home, waiting for his feedback.

As soon as the phone was connected, Lord Banks immediately asked, "How is the situation now?"

Just now, after Xion was subdued by Charlie Wade, the captain called to report the situation, so Lord Banks is now very worried that things will change unexpectedly.

According to Charlie Wade's explanation, the captain opened his mouth and said, "Master, Miss Xion was pierced in the heart by Mr. Johnson's crossbow bolt, and she is now dead..."

Lord Banks asked, "Are you sure Xion is dead?"

The captain hurriedly said: "Yes! We have all seen it with our own eyes. Miss Banks was hit by a crossbow, she died in a few seconds."

Lord Banks hurriedly asked, "What about her body? Is it still in that man's hands?"

The captain replied: "The body has been thrown into the sea by that man. We were worried that he would come and chase us, so we evacuated first..."

"Evacuated?!" Lord Banks roared angrily: "You are so bold! Why did you evacuate before you got the body of Xion? Who asked you to evacuate? The Japanese are still waiting, you let me How to explain to the Japanese?!"

The captain said embarrassingly, "Master, that man is too strong. We are not his opponent at all. If we don't leave as soon as possible, he will definitely kill us all..."

Lord Banks gritted his teeth and cursed: "I don't care about those, you can go back to me now! Even if you dive to the bottom of the sea, you must find Xion's body. If the Japanese can't get Xion's body, I will only be you. It's asking!"

The captain hurriedly said, "Master, if Miss Banks is dead anyway, what use does the Japanese want her body?"

Lord Banks roared angrily: "I have made a deal with the people of the Japanese Metropolitan Police Department. What I did tonight is not to help Xion to escape, but to behave for some people! Whether Xion is dead or not It's a living, the Japanese must take her back and give their citizens an explanation!"

After that, Lord Banks said again: "You must find Xion's body, and then go to the predetermined location and hand it to the Japanese! If you don't do my good deeds, I will kill you!"

When Xion heard this, her whole body was already struck by lightning! Not only was her face extremely pale, but the tears were also completely connected. She never dreamed that her own grandfather would want her own life!

If it wasn't for the man in front of me, I'm afraid I would have been killed by the poisoned crossbow bolt!

Chapter 2152

At this time, the captain hurriedly said, "Master, I will set out now. I must find the body and send it to the Japanese Self-Defense Forces!"

Lord Banks said, "If you can't figure this out, you don't have to come back!"

"Good lord!"

The captain accepted, and then ended the phone call. He looked at Charlie Wade and said pleadingly, "Sir, if Lord Banks knew that I lied to him, he would definitely break my body..."

Charlie Wade said indifferently: "Don't worry, since you have done things according to my instructions, then I will naturally honor my promise!"

Having said that, Charlie Wade said again: "You guys will come to Aurouss Hilll with me tonight. After you arrive in Aurouss Hilll, I will settle you in an absolutely safe place. Then you will live incognito for a period of time. After your home is settled, you can restore your free identity and live a free life with integrity!"

When the captain heard this, he knelt down in ecstasy, and while kowtow to Charlie Wade, he said excitedly: "Sir, then we brothers, everything will depend on you in the future!"

Several other people also knelt down.

Charlie Wade's willingness to spare their lives made them extremely grateful and very grateful. In this case, naturally everything followed Charlie Wade's instructions and arrangements.

Charlie Wade looked at Xion at this time and said faintly, "How about this little beauty? I'm right? Lord Banks, an old thing, is not going to save you back to China at all. Everything is just acting for you."

Xion's eyes are red and swollen, and she has lost the stubbornness she had just now. Her face is as gray as death, but she asks with some doubts: "But I still didn't want to understand one thing, why did he act for me? He was not ready to save me anyway... Whether I died at sea or was captured alive by the Japanese Self-Defense Forces, I couldn't leave Japan alive. Why did he show me such deliberate acting?"

Charlie Wade shrugged his shoulders and said with a smile: "Since it is acting in a play, there must be no one in the audience. In addition to you, there may be other audiences who also need to see this drama, such as your maiden family. "

Speaking of this, Charlie Wade said calmly: "Although I don't know what your maiden's identity is, but think about it, since you are Zayne's illegitimate daughter, then your maiden's family should be a little capable!"

"If the Banks Familyy does not save you, your maiden family will definitely feel chilly; but if the Banks Familyy goes to great lengths to save you, but in the end they did not save you alive, your maiden family will be very sad. , But at least I would be grateful to the Banks Familyy for their hard work!"

"You have also played for the Banks Familyy for a period of time. What is meant by acting on the spot and false feelings, you should be very clear in your heart?"

Xion understood it almost instantly!

Charlie Wade's words woke her up all at once.

She thought to herself at this moment: "Although the Banks Familyy is the most economically powerful family in the country, they have always relied on the Elms family for combat effectiveness!"

"After all, the Elms family is one of the four major martial arts families in China. Because of the relationship between the mother and father and the illegitimate daughter of me, the relationship between the Elms family and the Banks Familyy is very close!"

"Almost all the masters of the Elms family are serving the Banks Familyy!"

"So, when Lord Banks is doing this scene, he must want to show the Elms family to let the Elms family know that the Banks Familyy did their best to save me!"

"In this way, it will definitely be able to greatly win the favor of the Elms family, and make the Elms family more devoted to the Banks Familyy!" Just when she wanted to understand the reason for this, Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Little beauty, I wonder if you have heard of a very interesting story."

Xion blurted out and asked, "What story?"

Chapter 2153

Seeing Xion's face full of curiosity, Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "This story tells that there is a rich second generation who wants to pursue a big beauty, but this rich second generation is rather picky and doesn't want to do it for this beauty. Spending too much money, so he pretended to tell this beauty that he wanted to buy her a Ferrari..."

"Then this rich second generation bought the Ferrari sales and let the Ferrari sales accompany him in a scene."

"When he took the beauties to see the car, the salesman told them that there is no car now, so he can only book first. Then this rich second-generation generation will pretend to be in front of the beauties. Ten thousand deposit, got the contract to book the car."

"The beauty thought that the Ferrari bought for herself by the rich second generation was already firmly established, so she climbed into the bed of the rich second generation that night and was conquered by the rich second generation."

"After the rich second generation succeeded, he immediately went to the Ferrari salesperson, returned the one million deposit, and then gave the sales a 20,000 bonus."

"And that beauty didn't know it. She didn't know that the contract signed by him was not a formal contract signed with a 4S shop at all, but a fake contract signed with that salesperson. He did not give her a contract at all. Ferrari, he tried his best to do this scene, just to trick her into sleeping with him."

"The price of a Ferrari is always more than four or five million, but this rich second generation actually only spent twenty thousand from start to finish, and successfully slept with this beauty. Twenty thousand compared to five million. Not one part of it!"

Xion blurted out and asked, "You...what do you mean by telling me this story?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and sighed helplessly: "You, you really look pretty, but this brain is really stupid!"

Xion was a little angry in her heart, but facing Charlie Wade, she dared not show it.

So she could only ask Charlie Wade like a bag of air, "Can you make it clear then?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said seriously: "In fact, this story of the rich second generation pretending to buy a car is the same as the Banks Familyy pretending to save you!"

Charlie Wade said again: "Look, if the Banks Familyy really wants to buy the entire Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department and the Japanese Self-Defense Forces and save you alive, it is not impossible, but the price may be very high!"

"After all, the impact of this incident is extremely significant. Everyone has to weigh the weight of it. Unless the money is particularly large, no one dares to take this risk."

"I guess, I really want to save you alive. Without a billion dollars, it is impossible to get through the multi-layered relationship between the Japanese judicial department, the customs department, and the Self-Defense Force!"

Having said that, Charlie Wade turned around and smiled: "But! What if you just pretend to save you, but actually don't let you leave Japan alive? It's definitely not going to cost you so much, so I guess I will buy a car. Like that story, the actual cost is less than one percent of the expected cost!"

When Xion heard this, deep down in her heart, she immediately felt extremely shocked, and all three views of her whole person collapsed completely at this instant.

Although she didn't want to believe that everything Charlie Wade said was true, she was not a fool either.

Lord Banks's intention to kill her has been indirectly admitted on the phone, and this matter is completely fixed. Therefore, the story Charlie Wade told, and his speculation about the Banks Familyy, can be said to hit the nail on the head. In her opinion, this story and speculation also perfectly fit the overall context of this matter.

At this moment, her whole heart was ashamed. There were too many tears just now, so at this moment, she even had no tears.

Seeing that she had basically given up her mind, Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "Don't stay here for a long time. We must leave Japan as soon as possible before the Japanese Self-Defense Force has recovered."

After speaking, he called out all the crew on his ship, pointed to the captain and crew of the Banks Familyy boat, and ordered: "You guys, take them to the lower cabin and clean the deck. a bit."

Chapter 2154

Ito's crew hurriedly followed suit.

At this time, Jasmine also walked onto the deck and asked Charlie Wade in surprise, "Master Wade, are these people coming for me?"

Charlie Wade shook his head: "No, they are here for me."

Jasmine was even more surprised when she saw Xion with a crossbow arrow stuck in her leg and she was motionless. She hurriedly asked him, "Master Wade, this woman is..."

Charlie Wade looked at Xion and smiled slightly: "This little beauty, who was an enemy before, should not be counted anymore now."

After speaking, he raised his eyebrows at Xion again, and asked with a smile, "Little beauty, am I right?"

Xion felt embarrassed. Although she had already seen the true face of the Banks Familyy, and although Charlie Wade did save her life, she still couldn't give Charlie Wade a good impression. After all, it was Charlie Wade who reported her and her companions to the Japanese Self-Defense Forces.

Among her companions, many of them are from the Elms family, and many are even her brothers and cousins. However, although she had no good feelings for Charlie Wade, her hatred for Charlie Wade also disappeared a lot as the whole matter became clear.

Therefore, she didn't know how to answer Charlie Wade's question for a while, so she could only turn her face stubbornly to one side.

Seeing her resentful appearance, Charlie Wade couldn't help but chuckle a few times, and said, "Little beauty, the Banks Familyy doesn't know that you are still alive, let alone that you are in my hands, so you will listen next. My order, like everyone else, come back to Aurouss Hilll with me first."

Xion subconsciously said, "I won't go back to Aurouss Hilll with you!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "You are on my boat and you don't want to follow me. Are you going to get off the boat now?"

Xion was immediately embarrassed.

She thought sadly in her heart: "I have nowhere to go now. If I don't follow this guy, I can only wait for the Japanese to catch me here...In the eyes of the Japanese, I am heinous. Criminals, once I fall into their hands, there will be no escape..."

"Moreover, I can't go back to China by myself..."

"Let's not talk about the vast ocean, I can't go back at all by myself. Even if I go back, I'm afraid I won't escape the claws of the Banks Familyy..."

"Just now, when the captain called Lord Banks, he clearly told him that I was dead. If I went back alive and the Banks Familyy knew about it, the Banks Familyy would immediately realize that the captain lied to them..."

"They will also realize that their vicious scheme has been completely exposed!"

"At that time, they will definitely do everything possible to kill me..."

"Now, my only chance is to follow this man back to Aurouss Hilll..."

"He is so strong, he must have a way to bring me back quietly, and he must be able to hide from the Banks Familyy..."

Chapter 2155

At this moment, Xion wanted to survive first, and then find out the truth of the whole thing.

At this moment, although she was full of hatred for the Banks Familyy, she still had the last hint of fantasy.

She felt that if this matter was planned by grandfather Lord Banks alone, and her father Zayne did not participate, and was even kept in the dark, then she would be more relieved in her heart.

But if grandfather Lord Banks and father Zayne participated in this matter, then she and the Banks Family would be completely cut off! At this point, Xion looked at Charlie Wade and pleaded in a low voice: "I can go to Aurouss Hill with you, but can you let me call my mother? I have to let her know that I'm alive... ..Otherwise she will be very worried..."

Charlie Wade blurted out without hesitation: "No!"

Xion didn't expect that she begged Charlie Wade so hard that she only hoped to report peace to her mother, but Charlie Wade refused him very simply.

She couldn't help but asked a little annoyed: "Why not? Even if the entire Banks Family wants me to die, my mother will definitely not participate in it..."

Charlie Wade said coldly: "You know, a mother, her daughter is really dead, and her daughter is not dead, her response to outsiders is completely different!"

"If your mother doesn't know that you are still alive, then she will definitely show a very natural sadness, and the Banks Family will never find any clues;"

"But if you tell your mother the situation now, and your mother knows that you are not dead, she must have a hard time pretending that she has truly lost her daughter. In that case, it will be easy for the Banks Family to find a flaw!"

As he said, Charlie Wade sneered and said, "After all, your surname Banks is very good at doing things. You led people to destroy the Matsumoto family. Lord Banks asked you to kill in Japan. Who knows if he will do if you looking for trouble with your mother and want to cut the roots?"

As soon as Xion heard this, she was immediately ashamed.

She was indeed brainwashed before, thinking that the interests of the Banks Family were above all else and that the interests of the Banks Family should not be desecrated.

Therefore, she has always been very ruthless in dealing with the enemies of the Banks Family.

However, the last time the Matsumoto family was destroyed, it was not Xion's meaning, but Zayne's meaning.

The Matsumoto family nearly killed the children of Zayne, which made Zayne extremely angry at the time, so he ordered Xion to lead the people to kill the Matsumoto family.

Now, when I think that the Banks Family is also unrelenting to himself, Xion is also very ashamed and regretful in addition to anger.

I had known that the Banks Family was such a group of people, and would not give up their lives for them without saying anything.

At this moment, she really realized that not only was she too one-sided in thinking about the problem, but also too one-sided and simple about the Banks Family.

She couldn't help but blame herself in her heart: "Xion, Xion, you are so stupid! For so many years, except for murder, you know almost nothing and know nothing, even you almost dragged your mother into the water. ..."

"This man is right. If she lets her mother know all this, she will most likely go to the Banks Family immediately. Even if she can hold back it, once the Banks Family finds her, it will be hard not to be noticed by the other party. It Will put mother in danger..."

Thinking of this, she immediately looked at Charlie Wade, nodded obediently, and said angrily: "Then...then okay...I...I listen. your....."

Charlie Wade gave a hum, and said: "I will ask you to take you to the cabin to rest first. The blood from your wound has stopped. Later I will help you pull out the crossbow and then help you remove the toxins in your body. ."

Xion nodded lightly, hesitated again and again, then bit her lower lip lightly and whispered, "Thank you..."

Charlie Wade gave a hum, and said to the captain of his own ship: "You follow me to the next ship, set it in the opposite direction and let it go at full speed, so that it can divert the attention of others."

Chapter 2156

The captain nodded quickly.

At this time, the six people thrown into the sea by Charlie Wade had all drowned.

The bodies of several of them have begun to sink to the bottom of the sea.

Charlie Wade took the captain to the opposite cruise ship. After the captain set the course, Charlie Wade asked him to return to the ship first.

After that, he drove the power of the ship's engine to its maximum, and the ship rushed out immediately.

When Jasmine saw the ship driving away on the next deck, she shouted with some worry, "Master Wade..."

As soon as the voice fell, I saw a figure on the ship jumped up and jumped into the water with a perfect dive.

After that, she saw Charlie Wade poking his head out of the water lightly and swimming back to the boat without hesitation.

Jasmine was worried about Charlie Wade and quickly took a bath towel. The moment Charlie Wade got on the boat, she immediately handed the bath towel to him, and said with concern: "Master Wade, quickly wipe the water on your body, and then go to the cabin to soak in heat. Take a shower to avoid catching a cold..."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "It doesn't matter, just change to clean clothes later."

As he said, he told the captain on the side: "Let's set sail now and enter the high seas as soon as possible."

"Okay Mr. Wade!" The captain nodded immediately and said, "You go and change your clothes first, we will set sail!"

.....

Charlie Wade returned to the cabin and changed into a clean single. The crew helped him put the clothes soaked in sea water into the washing machine integrated with washing and drying. In this way, he could be washed and dried in a few hours.

At this time, Xion was arranged in a big bed room on the first floor. Because Charlie Wade had sealed her meridians before, she could only sit on the sofa and couldn't move at this time.

Charlie Wade knocked on the door politely, then pushed the door in, looked at Xion and asked, "How do you feel?"

Xion said awkwardly, "I...I'm okay..."

After finishing talking, she asked very puzzled: "Could you tell me how you did it?"

Charlie Wade frowned and asked, "How did you do it?"

Xion asked, "How did you make it possible to remove the toxins in my body instantly? It also helped me stop the bleeding. What I cannot understand is that my body's ability to move seems to have been greatly affected. limit....."

Charlie Wade said calmly, "Since you are a martial artist, you should have an understanding of internal power?"

Xion nodded and said earnestly: "I know internal strength, but it seems that this is completely beyond the scope of internal strength, right?"

"The martial arts people practice their internal strength to enhance their physical fitness and strength. This strength can only run in their own body, but your internal strength seems to be able to run in my body... This...this is amazing.."

Charlie Wade snorted and said with an arrogant expression: "My internal strength is completely different from your internal strength. The ancients said, how can the light of fireflies compete with the sun and the moon? If my internal strength is the sun and the moon, Then your inner strength is nothing but fireflies!"

Chapter 2157

Chinese martial arts have emphasized the accumulation, operation and use of internal forces in the body since ancient times. The so-called meridians are based on this theory.

The overall logic of Reiki is similar to the internal force. The most obvious difference is that in addition to its own accumulation, operation and use, Reiki also has an ability that can be released externally.

No matter how strong the internal strength is, it can only rely on one's own body. A good internal master can kill a heavy cow with one punch, or even an elephant with one punch.

But even so, he couldn't achieve the ability to kill a mouse in the air. The reason is that the internal force cannot be released outside.

After all, internal force is actually an entry-level low-end version of Reiki.

And the reiki is a thousand miles higher than the internal force.

The difference between the two is like the difference between primates and humans.

Although the DNA of primates and humans is almost 99% similar, the gap between the two is still a world-wide difference.

No matter how smart a chimpanzee is, it cannot become a human being.

Between the two, there is an insurmountable gap.

Among Chinese martial arts practitioners, there are at least tens of thousands of people who can master internal chi.

However, among these tens of thousands of people, almost none of them can train their internal chi into reiki.

If Charlie Wade hadn't had the help of the "Apocalyptic Book" and the earlier piece of spiritual stone, even if he took a lot of Rejuvenating Pill, it would not be possible to form reiki in his body.

This is a real great opportunity, an opportunity that ordinary people cannot get in a few lifetimes.

Charlie Wade naturally couldn't tell Xion the actual situation, but the light of fireflies and the brilliance of the sun and moon had already shocked Xion deep in his heart.

She murmured in her heart: "It turns out that his internal strength has reached a higher level... No wonder his strength is so perverted, and he can easily save my life. The martial arts I know are so powerful..."

Charlie Wade said calmly at this time: "Although the toxins in your body have been removed, your wound is still open. I will help you pull out the crossbow arrow, and then help you clean up the wound."

Xion looked at the wound on her leg. The crossbow arrow almost penetrated the entire thigh from the base of the thigh. She couldn't help but secretly said in shame, "I am still wearing black tights, but if he wants him to help me deal with the wound, He must take off my pants or tear them apart..."

"But... but this part is indeed a bit too private..."

Seeing that Xion was more or less embarrassed, Charlie Wade's first thought was: "Otherwise, just let her handle it. She is a professionally trained killer who must be very good at dealing with such small wounds."

However, another thought popped into his mind: "This woman's character is as strong as an untamed wild horse, and her methods are vicious and cruel. To such a woman, I want her to be honest from tonight. , To be submissive, you must first completely wipe out her self-esteem!"

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade said with a cold expression: "Come on, I will help you sit on a single recliner, you lie on it, and I will help you deal with the wound!"

Xion vaguely said, "Um...I'll do it myself...please give me a pair of pliers, and some debridement potion and gauze for bandaging. it is good...."

Charlie Wade said blankly, "It's not impossible for you to deal with it yourself, but the legs are rich in blood vessels. When the crossbow arrow is taken out, the wound will bleed heavily. If the wound has hurt the artery, once you rush the crossbow arrow If you come out and the wound opens, your life will be in danger, and if you hurt your nerves, you may be disabled in the future."

Chapter 2158

Xion also knew very well that it would be no problem to deal with ordinary wounds by himself, but if it really hurts the arteries, it would be really difficult to get started.

Moreover, if you hurt your nerves, it will indeed leave certain sequelae. Once there are sequelae, your strength will definitely be affected.

Thinking of this, Xion's heart suddenly hesitated, not knowing whether to let Charlie Wade help.

After all, Charlie Wade is a master whose strength is far surpassing her. If he handles his injuries, it must be much more reliable than handling her own injuries.

Seeing her struggling expression, Charlie Wade said decisively: "Okay, don't be too slow, life is more important than anything else, and I believe you don't want your legs to be disabled. Otherwise, a little beauty would walk with a limp. That's too ugly."

After that, he had already stretched out his hand to Xion, and said without any doubt: "Come on, I will help you to the recliner!"

Seeing Charlie Wade's uncompromising posture, Xion suddenly felt a little embarrassed deep in her heart, and said in a low voice, "I can do it myself."

After that, she wanted to support herself with both hands, but after a few tries, she found that her arms simply couldn't help her.

Seeing that she had nothing to do, Charlie Wade said calmly: "Don't bother, your meridians have been temporarily sealed by me, and your body can't use strength."

Xion was a little shocked, so she handed her hand to Charlie Wade obediently, and whispered, "Then I will trouble you..."

Charlie Wade stretched out his hand to hold her soft and cold little hand, and then directly supported her up.

It was the first time that Xion was held in this way by a man, and her heart beat like a drum.

She grew up with her mother. She has always practiced martial arts hard, not to mention falling in love, and she has no chance to get along with boys.

Suddenly she was holding his hand so intimately by the man, and she panicked unconsciously.

Charlie Wade helped her onto the recliner, let her lie on it gently, and then locked the swing function of the recliner, and said to her, "I will cut off your trouser legs first."

As soon as Xion heard this, her face flushed with shame, and she asked herself in despair, "Do you really want to cut your pants? In that case, wouldn't the entire thigh be exposed to him?"

Just when Xion was still unable to accept Charlie Wade's decision for a while, Charlie Wade had already picked up a pair of scissors, followed the position where the crossbow arrow was shot, upwards a few centimeters, and cut Xion's entire trouser leg. Down.

Xion only felt a sudden cold in her right leg, and when she looked down, her slender legs were completely exposed to the air, and she immediately shyly covered his face.

Charlie Wade didn't expect that Xion's legs would be so beautiful, even far surpassing all the women he knew.

This may have a lot to do with Xion's martial arts training since childhood.

Her legs are not only slender, but also very straight, and even have faint muscle lines. Compared with those supermodels, it is not less than that, and even better. It is definitely the best leg in a million.

Seeing Charlie Wade staring at her leg motionless, Xion felt embarrassed in her heart. She felt that although this man was very strong, he seemed to have nothing to do with those squint men. the difference.

So she asked a little angrily: "What are you looking at?"

Charlie Wade raised his head, smiled indifferently, and said calmly: "I'm looking at your legs, your legs are beautiful."

Chapter 2159

Xion didn't expect Charlie Wade to admit the matter of looking at his legs so generously. He was so open and natural, and Xion's angry mood suddenly seemed a bit at a loss. Xion, who had some accusations against Charlie Wade, suddenly didn't know what to do. Moreover, the bit of anger in his heart disappeared with his generous confession.

So, she could only give Charlie Wade a shy look, then turned her face away, and whispered with a bit of shame: "If you see enough, please help me treat... "

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "Okay, let's start treatment now."

Xion asked subconsciously, "Is it enough to watch so soon?"

After finishing talking, I realized that I didn't seem to be right, so I asked for help in embarrassment: "Uh, no...I didn't mean that...I mean, if you really have seen enough, Let's start..."

When she said this, she was somewhat disappointed.

Charlie Wade smiled slightly, and said without shame: "The doctor is kind, although your legs are really beautiful, but I still have to help you deal with the wound quickly."

After speaking, he held Xion's thigh with one hand, and took a pair of pliers in the other hand, and said, "The crossbow arrow has barbs. I can only cut it from the tail and pull it away from both sides. It may hurt a bit, you have to bear with it."

Xion nodded gently: "Come on, I can bear it."

Charlie Wade gave a hum, and carefully cut the crossbow arrow with pliers, then grabbed the arrow of the crossbow arrow, and said, "This way, I count 123, and then take it out. You are mentally prepared."

Xion hurriedly said, "Okay!"

Charlie Wade nodded and said seriously: "Come on, let's start, one or two..."

Just after the word was finished, Xion felt a sharp pain in her leg, and the pain caused her to yell immediately, "Oh, it hurts...Don't you mean to count to three? How to count to two. Just pull it out?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "I am a person who likes to be surprised. If you really lose three times, what if you can't control it and suddenly retract your leg?"

Xion had tears in her painful eye sockets, and said grotesquely: "Then you can't be so unexpected, I'm almost so painful, and I'm not prepared at all..."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "How can you say that you are also a tried-and-tested killer, why can't you stand this pain?"

Xion said aggrieved: "It was really painful just now. I was injured by this cold weapon. The pain is much more serious than being shot by a bullet..."

Charlie Wade smiled faintly: "The pain is the same thing. It's all right now. I will debride and sterilize your wound, put some anti-infection medicine, and bandage the wound. It's basically done."

Xion could only nod her head and asked, "Would you not sterilize me with alcohol? That will hurt even more..."

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "Alcohol is not suitable for wound sterilization. I will use some iodine for you. Don't worry, it doesn't hurt as much as alcohol."

Xion breathed a sigh of relief, and then saw that Charlie Wade brought a bottle full of iodophor, then used metal tweezers to add a clean cotton ball, and then dipped the cotton ball with iodophor and applied it evenly. Above his wounds.

Iodophor is a drug that is very suitable for debridement and sterilization of wounds, and the pain is indeed much less than that of alcohol.

Chapter 2160

Seeing Charlie Wade holding the tweezers and carefully helping her with the wound, Xion's heart felt a little more fond of this strange man who had made her extremely angry.

She looked at Charlie Wade, and asked in a curious voice: "Hey...I don't know your name yet!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "Does my name matter to you?"

Xion pretended to be annoyed and said, "The last time you cheated me, I haven't settled with you yet! So you are of course very important to me!"

Charlie Wade nodded, and said, "Hey...I cheated you because your behavior of destroying the Matsumoto family was a bit too much. You are also Chinese, so naturally you know the ancestors of China. Don't you still understand the reason that your behavior is not harmful to your family?"

Xion looked a little ashamed and said, "Although I did the things, I also acted on orders. The family owner clearly requested that the Matsumoto family pay the most painful price, so I followed his intentions and led people to The Matsumoto family has been wiped out."

Charlie Wade asked her, "The Patriarch you are talking about is Zayne or Lord Banks?"

Xion whispered, "It's Zayne..."

Charlie Wade sneered, with a bit of disdain, and a bit of self-deprecating said: "Zayne, this old bastard, luck is so good, I accidentally saved his son and his daughter by chance. Fitz and Zara, two heirs of the Banks Family. Unexpectedly, he saved his illegitimate daughter today, and I was fucking drunk too!"

Xion exclaimed, "What did you say? You saved Fitz and Zara?!"

Charlie Wade nodded, and said very uncomfortably, "Yes, I did save the two of them. I didn't know that they were the children of Zayne. If I knew it, I would not save them both!"

Xion couldn't help asking, "Do you have any deep hatred with him?"

Charlie Wade looked at Xion, and said seriously, "I have an antagonism to him!"

After that, Charlie Wade said again: "I said, one day, I will let him kneel in front of me, crying and apologizing to me, begging me for forgiveness, and at that time, I might cut him down. His head may also be grinning with a smile. Whether it is alive or dead depends on his own good fortune!"

Charlie Wade still doesn't know how much the death of his parents has to do with Zayne.

Judging from the information he has so far, Zayne was indeed an enemy of his father everywhere, and even personally formed the well-known anti-leaf alliance at the time.

However, it is still unknown whether the death of the parents is related to the Anti-Leaf Alliance or how much.

In Charlie Wade's speculation, three parties are responsible for the death of their parents, one is the Wade family, one is the Banks Family, and the other is the Rothschild family in Europe.

It's just that he hasn't figured out who is most responsible for these three parties.

Xion was shocked when he heard this, and asked tentatively, "Could you tell me, what exactly do you have against him?"

Charlie Wade said lightly: "You don't need to ask such details about this."

Xion nodded in disappointment, and then asked, "Then...then can you tell me what your name is?"

Charlie Wade said lightly: "My last name is Wade, and my name is Charlie Wade."

Xion muttered to herself: "The last name is Wade... Charlie Wade? Could it be... Could it be..."

When Xion said this, he looked straight at Charlie Wade and exclaimed, "Could it be that you are the Wade family?!"

Chapter 2161

Seeing Xion recognize his origin, Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said calmly: "Yes, I can indeed be regarded as the Wade family, or the Wade family before."

Xion thought for a moment and muttered: "Before it was the Wade family, that means you are not in the Wade family now..."

With that said, Xion said with a very shocked expression: "The Wade family is not prosperous at first. I am familiar with every direct descendant. If you are not in the Wade family, then your probability is...

.."

When the words came to her lips, Xion was shocked and couldn't add anything!

She stared at Charlie Wade, and said in amazement, "Among the direct descendants that the Wade family left, there was only one Bruce, but Bruce died more than 20 years ago. Could it be...are you his Son?"

Charlie Wade's expression shrank, and he said seriously, "Yes, I am Bruce's son, Charlie Wade!"

"Gosh!"

Xion's whole person seemed to be struck by lightning at this moment. Although Bruce had passed away before she was born, , But she still knew Bruce's name.

Not only that, she also knew some of the past between her father Zayne and Bruce. She knew that her father's biggest rival in this life was Bruce. She also knew that the biggest blow to her father in this life also came from Bruce.

In those days, any person in Eastcliff mentioned Bruce, it was bound to be full of praise and admiration with both hands and thumbs up. And when they mentioned Zayne, everyone showed a bit of regret. Many people lament that Zayne was born at the wrong time, because Bruce was so dazzling that he completely crushed all the style of Zayne.

The so-called yin and yang, used to describe these two people, it is really appropriate.

Xion also knew that her father had not only been suppressed by Bruce, but more importantly, even his wife was one of Bruce's most loyal suitors.

At that time, her father was struggling to pursue his current wife, but his current wife loved Bruce to death. Using an ancient poem to describe Zayne's situation at that time could not be more appropriate.

That ancient poem is: "I turned my heart to the moon, but the moon shines on the ditch."

It can be said that Zayne's wife was desperate to chase Bruce and hopeless, and she married Zayne in desperation. Therefore, Zayne has always lived in the shadow of Bruce. Speaking of which, Charlie Wade's father, Bruce, was definitely the person Zayne hated the most in his life. Xion knew these past events very clearly, but she never dreamed that she would meet Bruce's son one day.

Chapter 2162

Moreover, what is even more unexpected is that I would have so many stories with him..

Even her right leg is now held in his hand..

Thinking of this, Xion suddenly felt that the world was indeed good fortune.

She couldn't help thinking in her heart: "I have been serving the Banks Family wholeheartedly all the time, and even willing to dedicate my life to the Banks Familyy.."

"However, I never dreamed that the Banks Familyy would make me look like I am now, and almost kill me.."

"And this Charlie Wade, as a descendant of the Wade family, was originally the mortal enemy of the entire Banks Familyy, plus he was the son of Bruce, and to her father Zayne, he was a thorn in the eye and a thorn in the flesh, but it happened to be the mortal enemy of the Banks Familyy. He saved my life at the most critical moment. All this is really ironic.."

Seeing that Xion's expression was very rich, Charlie Wade couldn't help teasing her: "What? Knowing that I am the Wade family, did you immediately treat you as a Banks Familyy and the right in your heart? Was Wade family's hatred aroused?"

Xion hurriedly waved her hand and said in a flustered manner, "It's not what you think...If I knew you were the Wade family before today, then I would definitely hate you even more.. "

With that said, Xion sighed and said with emotion: "Hey...now I have thoroughly understood. I am just a tool person to the Banks Familyy, and a tool person that can be sacrificed at any time. They don't take my bastard girl seriously..."

Speaking of this, Xion said with a somewhat self-deprecating expression: "My father has always been very worried that his wife knows my life experience. It may be a good thing for him that I die, at least it can make my life experience. Then the smoke disappears and there is no evidence, so he does not have to worry that his beloved wife will discover the fact that he has betrayed his marriage..."

Charlie Wade looked at Xion and said with some sympathy, "You don't need to be too sad about this. In fact, if you think about it from another angle, it's not a good thing. At least you can see it clearly now. Their true colors, and you haven't suffered a very serious injury in nature, it's better than when you suddenly realized it just before you died, right?"

Xion nodded lightly, looked at Charlie Wade's red eyes, and choked softly: "Master Wade, thank you very much for this incident. Thank you for saving my life regardless of the predecessors. What happened today. If it was me, and you were killed in front of my eyes, I might not have your mind to save you..."

Charlie Wade said seriously: "That's for sure, not only will you not save me, but you yourself want to kill me."

Xion immediately felt ashamed and embarrassed, lowered her head and whispered, "This matter is indeed too stupid for me. I have always thought about serving the Banks Familyy and serving my biological father. But Never thought about what other people think of me..."

Charlie Wade asked her, "Then what are your plans now?"

Xion asked in surprise, "Master Wade, didn't you say that you want to take me to Aurouss Hilll? Are you going to change your mind?"

"Yes." Charlie Wade nodded and said: "I really intend to take you back to Aurouss Hilll, and I am not afraid to put the ugly words on the front. Even now, I am not absolutely assured of you."

Having said that, Charlie Wade continued: "So, after you return to Aurouss Hilll with me, I will not give you freedom right away, but will restrict you until I have settled my affairs, or I Only when you feel that you are 100% credible can you be free again."

Xion nodded without thinking, and said seriously: "I understand what you are saying. If I were you, I wouldn't immediately trust myself."

Immediately, Xion smiled bitterly, and said: "Young Master Wade, from now on, I will not cause you trouble..."

"But don't worry, I, Xion, have always kept my word since I was young!"

"From now on, I will never have any rebellious heart towards you, and I will never intend to hurt you or anyone around you!"

"And after arriving at Aurouss Hilll, I will definitely follow your instructions..."

"After all, you saved my life..."

Chapter 2163

The reason why Charlie Wade rescued Xion was because he saw the Banks Family's intention to kill her, and he decided to save her because he adhered to the basic principle of "the enemy of the enemy is a friend". As long as Xion had a barrier to the Banks Family in his centrifugation, then this person could become a big help for Charlie Wade to find the Banks Family in the future.

If you control it properly and turn Xion into his own subordinate, it is not impossible for Charlie Wade to see it.

If you want to take a person into your own use, the most important thing is to make her owe a favor. In this world, no favor is more important than life-saving grace. Charlie Wade's current plan is to bring Xion back to Aurouss Hill first, then hide her well, and then just wait and see what changes will happen to the Banks Family.

As for teaming up with Xion to take revenge on the Banks Family, this is not anxious. Charlie Wade likes to plan and move, and it's nothing more than to move. It's not just a matter of peeling the Banks Family. At least, he has to kill him half his life. It makes sense.

Subsequently, Charlie Wade further processed the wound for Xion.

After bandaging the piercing wound, Charlie Wade said to Xion: "Okay, the wound has been treated almost. Our ship will be traveling at sea for more than 30 hours, so you can rest in your room. Just call the crew if you need it."

Xion nodded lightly, and said gratefully, "Thank you, Master Wade..."

Charlie Wade waved his hand slightly: "It's just a matter of raising your hand, don't be so polite."

After that, Charlie Wade carefully put down her slender right leg, and said: "You can rest, I'll go now."

Xion hurriedly said, "Young Master Wade, I will see you off..."

"No need." Charlie Wade said calmly: "You hurry up and rest."

Having said that, he remembered that he had sealed Xion's meridians before, so he said: "I just temporarily sealed your meridians with internal force. Now I will help you unlock them, but you still have to pay attention. Don't move your right leg to a large extent, and try not to get wet. If you want to take a bath, wrap the bandage in a plastic bag."

Xion nodded obediently and said, "I know Young Master Wade, please help me with your help, otherwise it is really difficult to exert strength."

Charlie Wade stretched out his hand and tapped her ankle lightly, and directly took away the reiki left in her body.

Xion also instantly felt that the meridians that had been sealed in his body were completely opened at this moment, and he couldn't help but sighed at Charlie Wade's supernatural powers: "Charlie Wade can control the opening of my meridians with his fingers. Hey, this kind of ability is incredible. Fortunately, he didn't have the heart to kill me.

Otherwise, if he really wants my life, I am afraid it would be easy..."

At this moment, Charlie Wade stood up and said, "It's okay. You can rest. I'm leaving."

Xion hurriedly escorted him to the door and said respectfully, "Young Master Wade, go slowly..."

For Charlie Wade, Xion really admired him from the bottom of her heart. Not only because of his strength, but also because of his extraordinary identity.

From Xion's point of view, Charlie Wade's strength is outstanding, and he is also the son of Wade Family Master and Bruce, and she really deserves to call him Master Wade.

.....

At this moment.

Charlie Wade's ship had left Japan's territorial waters and entered the high seas.

On the other side, the Japanese Maritime Self-Defense Force finally arrived at the scheduled location and waited for the ship of Banks' house.

Chapter 2164

When the yacht appeared on the radar screen, the captain of the Maritime Self-Defense Force smiled and said, "Damn, after waiting so long, these bastards are finally here!"

His deputy smiled and said, "Captain, if we arrest Xion this time, it must be another great achievement, right?"

The captain nodded: "Of course, this Xion is the number one culprit in Japan. As long as we take her back, it will be a great achievement whether it is alive or dead!"

With that said, he was a little excited and eagerly said: "I will try not to shoot in the future, I have to catch it!"

Soon, the cruise ship on the radar was less than one nautical mile away from where they were ambushing.

The patrol boats of the Japanese Self-Defense Forces had been completely silent for a long time. They turned off the engines, turned off the transponder and all the lights on the ship, and waited for the target to approach them before they were caught off guard.

Seeing that the target was getting closer, the captain of the Self-Defense Force immediately ordered: "Start the capture!"

At this moment, the 6 Self-Defense Force patrol boats turned on the spotlights at the same time, and the 6 lights illuminated the unmanned yacht together.

The captain of the fleet said loudly in a loudspeaker: "Listen to the ship in front, we are the Japan Maritime Self-Defense Force, please turn off the engine immediately for inspection!"

After the voice shouted out, according to the original plan, the target ship should start to slow down, but what he didn't expect was that the target ship didn't even slow down and continued to move towards his direction.

So he hurriedly shouted again: "Listen to the ship ahead, you are now surrounded by us. Giving up resistance and raising your hands to surrender is your best choice. If you refuse to surrender, then we will take forceful Measures!"

The yacht continued on without slowing down.

The captain yelled angrily, "I warn you, if we don't turn off the engine immediately, we will shoot you according to law!"

The yacht still regarded him as air and continued to drive forward.

The captain saw that he was about to rush out of the encirclement, but he didn't mean to catch it with his hands. He couldn't help but wonder:

"What are these guys up to? Didn't they stop the boat after saying something?"

The deputy on the side couldn't help asking: "Captain, do they want to take the opportunity to drive away?"

The captain said angrily: "The ghost knows! This group of people is unreliable, so quickly catch up and force him to stop!"

The six Self-Defense Forces patrol boats quickly chased up. They sandwiched the target cruise ship and approached it little by little. When they approached, someone exclaimed: "Captain, there seems to be no one on that boat!"

"What?! Nobody?!"

The man nodded and said, "Yes, you can see clearly in the binoculars, there is no one in the cockpit, and there is no one on the deck!"

The Captain of the Self-Defense Captain trembled in shock, and blurted out, "Damn! Could it be the Banks Family who gave us a chance to escape the golden cicada?!"

Thinking of this, he immediately ordered: "Quickly stop it, get on the boat and check it out for me!"

The speedboats of the Self-Defense Forces are naturally much faster than yachts, and they soon surrounded the yachts tightly, and even completely sandwiched them left and right.

At this time, several ships and the cruise ship in between remained relatively still, and several self-defense members with guns and live ammunition immediately jumped onto the ship to inspect the situation under the command of the captain.

It doesn't matter at all, there is no one on board!

The captain slapped his thigh, and scolded angrily, "The Banks Family bastards! It seems that it is fake that they want us to act together. It is true that they want to adjust the tiger away from the mountain and save the people from the cicada! Even we dare to play, they are tired of life. Right?!"

Chapter 2165

To say that the old fox Lord Banks does have a few brushes.

He pretended to save Xion this time, but he didn't actually spend much money, because the entire Japanese Self-Defense Force was an actor who played with him for free.

As for why the Japanese Self-Defense Force is willing to cooperate with Lord Banks for free, this has to be traced back to when Xion and other Banks masters were arrested.

At that time, Xion and others destroyed the Matsumoto family and put the entire Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department to shame. Afterwards, they collectively planned to escape from Osaka. At the critical moment when the plane was about to take off, the Japanese Self-Defense Forces came forward and captured them all.

Therefore, this incident immediately made the Self-Defense Force famous. While people praised the Self-Defense Forces for their work, they would even scold the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department as a bloody head, thinking that they were a bit too wasteful.

Prior to this, the reputation and social status of the Japanese Self-Defense Force in Japan were not high.

Since the defeat in World War II, the attitude of the Japanese people towards soldiers has been far less respectful than before.

After the Japanese Self-Defense Forces realized that the arrest of Xion had greatly improved their social status, they were immersed in this highly anticipated feeling, and they were bent on creating new miracles. The shrewd Lord Banks, through the praise of the Japanese nationals on the Self-Defense Forces, realized that the Self-Defense Forces must enjoy this feeling very much. Therefore, he directly commissioned people to connect and communicate with the high level of the Self-Defense Forces, and wanted to cooperate with the Self-Defense Forces in a big show. This drama is also very simple, that is, let the Japanese Self-Defense Forces help Xion escape, and then the Banks Family will guide Xion directly into the French Open prepared by the Self-Defense Forces during the escape.

In this way, the Japanese Self-Defense Force once again successfully captured Xion who fled, and he will surely gain greater recognition from the people.

Moreover, the original design was to allow her to escape from the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department after the prisoners were handed over to the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department.

In this case, the Japanese Self-Defense Forces can completely dispel Banks' ties and at the same time drag the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department into the water.

After the prisoner escaped, the Japanese Self-Defense Force intercepted the prisoner from the sea and carried out a series of propaganda in the media.

That is equivalent to the Japanese Self-Defense Force who has captured the prisoner at Osaka Airport, and then the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department, after handing over the prisoner, drove the prisoner, and then the Japanese Self-Defense Force wiped the butt, caught or shot the prisoner for the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department.

In that way, the Japanese Self-Defense Forces occupy the two sides, and the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department is not human in the middle.

Because of this, the Japanese Self-Defense Force unconditionally cooperated with Lord Banks's plan, in order to recapture Xion and once again play the role of turning the tide.

Lord Banks is really good at calculating.

He not only counted the Japanese Self-Defense Forces, and made the Japanese Self-Defense Forces a big help for him, but also calculated Xion and the whole Elms family.

The Elms family has always been concerned about Xion's safety. Since Lord Banks promised to the Elms family that he would rescue Xion, the Elms family has been very grateful to him.

Now, the Banks Family did indeed rescue Xion from Tokyo. This alone is enough for the Elms family to be grateful.

But how could the Elms family know that Father Banks was just acting for them.

His original plan was to rescue Xion from the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department and hand her over to the Japanese Self-Defense Force.

Chapter 2166

Simply turning the left and right hands on the right hand can achieve both sides and greatly reduce the cost of the whole thing. For the Banks Family, it has the best of both worlds.

However, no one thought that everything carefully planned would suddenly change.

Even the Lord Banks himself is looking forward to the news of Xion in Eastcliff.

While he was waiting anxiously, a senior member of the Japanese Self-Defense Force directly called.

As soon as the phone was connected, Mr. Banks happily asked, "Matsushima-san, have you caught Xion?"

"Catch a fart!" The other party yelled on the phone, "Why is there no one in the boat you arranged?! Where is Xion now?!"

Old man Banks asked in amazement: "What did you say?! No one in the boat?!"

The other party said angrily, "Yes, there is no one in the boat!"

"This..." Lord Banks suddenly became a little nervous, and said, "My subordinates told me not long ago that everything is under control. How could they suddenly disappear?"

"Ask me?!" The other party said furiously: "We have been waiting at the predetermined location, and we have waited until now to finally wait for the target ship, but there is not even a ghost shadow on the ship!"

As he said, the other party threatened viciously: "I tell you Lord Banks, if you don't hand over Xion as soon as possible, then don't blame us for being rude to you!"

Lord Banks said nervously, "There must be something hidden in this matter, Mr. Matsushima, I implore you to send the Maritime Self-Defense Force to search immediately!"

The other party said coldly: "We simply don't have enough human and material resources to carry out such a large-scale search. If you can get Xion back, then everything is fine, but if you can't get it back, then Japan The government will blame Xion's escape from prison on your Banks Family!"

Lord Banks became anxious and blurted out: "Mr. Matsushima, please don't worry about this. We will definitely go all out to search for Xion's whereabouts and do everything possible to send her back!"

The other party gritted his teeth and said, "Lord Banks, remember that you only have a few hours. If you can't catch Xion after dawn, you will be at your own risk!"

Lord Banks hurriedly agreed and blurted out: "Mr. Matsushima, don't worry, we will definitely search for it! We will give you a satisfactory answer as soon as possible!"

The other party said coldly: "There is not much time left for you!"

After hanging up the phone, Lord Banks's expression suddenly became extremely angry!

He immediately found his confidant and blurted out, "What is going on with Xion?!"

The other party said with a blank face: "Master, I don't know this matter. At present, we can't contact anyone involved in this matter. I feel very strange...The situation does not seem to be optimistic... .."

Lord Banks gritted his teeth and said: "Immediately contact me all those involved in the operation tonight. In any case, you must find Xion's whereabouts as soon as possible! Otherwise, if Xion really disappears, the Japanese government will definitely think all this is. Our Banks Family is planning behind the scenes, then the Banks Family will completely lose the entire Japanese market!"

The Banks Family not only needs to cooperate with Japanese companies in the ocean shipping industry, but other industries have also entered the Japanese market more or less. If this matter is handled improperly and offends the Japanese government, all Banks Family's industries in Japan will be severely affected.

By that time, the Banks Family's losses will be very heavy!

Chapter 2167

The Banks Family, as well as the entire Japan Maritime Self-Defense Force, began to search for Xion's whereabouts in the waters near Tokyo.

However, with such a vast ocean and no clue, they simply couldn't proceed.

When the entire Self-Defense Force went crazy looking for Xion, the ship Charlie Wade was on had already left Japan.

The yacht is constantly adjusting its course in the direction of China. After a night of sailing, it has traveled about one-third of the distance.

In the early morning, a red sunrise appeared on the eastern sea level. Although the temperature on the sea surface is extremely cold in winter, Charlie Wade walked onto the deck, dressed in single clothes.

The direction of the boat is from east to west. So Charlie Wade stood at the stern, watching the sunrise in the east.

At this time, the red sun slowly rose, and another round of turbulent red sun was reflected on the sea level. The scenery was beautiful and refreshing.

Although Charlie Wade was admiring the beauty, he was thinking about his future deep in his heart.

Although Charlie Wade had never thought about leaving Aurouss Hill before, he now feels more and more that sooner or later he will leave Aurouss Hill, a place where he has lived for more than ten years, to go to Eastcliff to achieve his life goals.

Finding out the truth about the death of his parents is only the first step. After meeting Cynthia and having a conflict with Cynthia, Charlie Wade still wants to get his father back what belongs to him.

The father was originally the heir of the Wade family. He had four brothers of the same generation. Even if the family property was divided equally, he should get 25% of the entire Wade family's assets!

What's more, back then, it was his father who used his own power to build the Wade Family to the current scale, so he should have more of the Wade Family's property to make sense.

The total assets of the Wade family are calculated in trillions. An Emgrand Group plus 10 billion in cash may not even account for 5% of the entire Wade family. The rest of the Wade family must be indifferent Take out less.

This is not to say how greedy Charlie Wade is, but the part that Charlie Wade didn't want his father to deserve, and finally fell into the hands of a bitch like Cynthia.

In addition, it is more important to avenge your parents.

Naturally, the Wade family could not shirk the blame for the parents.

However, back then, the Banks Family set up the so-called anti-leaf alliance with a clear-cut stand, and antagonized their father everywhere. These are all well-known facts in Eastcliff.

So in Charlie Wade's eyes, his number one enemy is the Banks Family. Among other things, the Banks Family's anti-Wade alliance was absolutely inexcusable in Charlie Wade's eyes, so he had to make the Banks Family pay a painful price.

Originally, he wanted to accumulate more strength before going to the Banks Family and Wade Family to settle accounts.

But now, both the Wade Family and the Banks Family have taken the initiative to appear in his life, which also made him realize that he must start to be ready to face these two proactively now.

It just so happened that Xion fell into her own hands, and it happened that she was almost killed by the Banks Family, so this woman has a great chance of using it for herself, and at that time, she might be able to become a great help to defeat the Banks Familyy.

Just thinking about it, footsteps suddenly came from behind.

Charlie Wade looked back, and Jasmine walked over, wrapped in a thick down jacket.

Seeing Charlie Wade turning back, Jasmine smiled at him and asked, "Why did Master Wade get up so early?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "I'm used to getting up early. I have basically never slept in for so many years."

After speaking, he asked, "What about you? You should have a good rest after going through so many things in the past two days. Why did you get up so early?"

Chapter 2168

Jasmine smiled, stroked the blue silk between her ears, and said, "I was really tired, and I really wanted to sleep well, but I couldn't stand the bumps of the waves, so I came up to breathe."

Charlie Wade asked with concern, "Sickness?"

Jasmine nodded and smiled: "Fortunately, it's not too serious."

With that said, she walked to Charlie Wade's side, leaned on the railing, looked at the rising sun, and said with emotion: "The sunrise on the sea is really beautiful. This is the first time I have grown up on the sea. Watch the sunrise."

Seeing that she was still worried and nervous between her eyebrows,

Charlie Wade couldn't help calling her: "Jasmine..."

Jasmine hurriedly looked at Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, what do you want to say?"

Charlie Wade asked her, "Do you have something in your heart?"

Jasmine hesitated for a moment, nodded lightly, and said seriously: "I am worried about Grandpa's current state, and I don't know how to solve this series of things after I return..."

Charlie Wade said seriously: "How to solve this after you go back, don't worry about this, I will help you arrange it, as for the current state of Lord Mooore..."

Charlie Wade paused for a moment, and then said: "Well, let's go back to the cabin, and I will use the satellite phone to call Don Albertt to ask."

Jasmine nodded hurriedly: "Good Master Wade!"

After the two returned to the cabin and got the satellite phone from the captain, Charlie Wade called Don Albertt directly.

After Don Albertt answered the phone, he asked, "Hello, who is it?"

Charlie Wade said, "Don Albertt, it's me."

Don Albertt immediately said respectfully, "Master Wade, how did you change your phone number?"

Charlie Wade said, "I use a satellite phone now."

After that, he asked, "By the way, Don Albertt, how is the situation of Grandpa Moore?"

Don Albertt hurriedly said, "The doctor said that Lord Mooore may have been irritated in his brain, and he has some symptoms of Alzheimer's. The situation is not too optimistic, but it is not life-threatening. I have been watching Lord Mooore in the hospital according to your instructions, So you don't have to worry about his safety."

Charlie Wade gave a hum, and then asked, "What about Theodore and Rueben, the father and son? Are there any actions recently?"

Don Albertt said: "They seem to be preparing to convene a board of directors. Ms. Moore has disappeared, and Lord Mooore has also suffered from Alzheimer's. Now the entire Moore group has no leader, so they are preparing to initiate an emergency plan for the board of directors. Theodore, the father of Moore, officially Serve as the interim chairman of the Moore Group."

Charlie Wade asked, "Oh? Do you know when and where to open the board of directors?"

Don Albertt said: "It seems to be held at the Moore Group at 10 o'clock in the morning the day after tomorrow, and they have to hold a press conference room at 11 o'clock to announce the major resolutions of the board of directors. For this reason, many media have been invited to Field witness."

Charlie Wade knew in his heart that Theodore was now ready to use reasonable and legal means to take the position of Moore Family Patriarch and Chairman of the Moore Group in a fair manner.

In Theodore's view, life and death do not make up for it, and the probability of survival is very low, and the threat is minimal; As for Lord Mooore, now that he has become an senile dementia, there is no threat to him either.

Under this circumstance, holding the Moore Group as early as possible and realizing the assets for cash as soon as possible is what the Moore family and his sons are most concerned about right now.

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade smiled indifferently, and said, "Don Albertt, you can ask Theodore for a few invitation letters for the press conference, and say that Charlie Wade will personally join them at that time!"

Chapter 2169

After a day and night sailing, Charlie Wade's cruise ship finally docked smoothly at the pier of Highland Falls.

The cruise ship docked at nine o'clock in the morning in Eastcliff time, and it was one and a half hours before Theodore, Rueben and his son convened the board of directors.

An hour and a half, which happened to be the time for the helicopter to fly, so Charlie Wade could no longer catch up with the board of directors of the Moore Group.

However, although I can't keep up with the board of directors, at least I can keep up with the press conference that follows.

Jasmine, Xion, and a few crew members of the Banks Familyy followed Charlie Wade off the ship. In addition, there was also the vice president of Nippon Steel, Hashimoto Kinxian, who was tied up.

When the helicopter whizzed to Aurouss Hilll, Theodore stepped into the largest conference room of the Moore Group.

At this moment, more than a dozen shareholders and directors of the Moore Group, including his son Rueben, have arrived ahead of schedule, and they are all sitting in.

As soon as Theodore entered, everyone stood up to greet him.

Rueben took the lead and said, "Hello, Chairman!"

The others froze for a moment, and then they followed suit, saying in unison, "Hello, Chairman!"

Theodore pushed the glasses on the bridge of his nose, smiled slightly humbly, and waved his hand and said, "Everyone has worked together for so many years, and we all know that I am very strict. Ms. Jasmine, chairman of the Moore Group, is still missing. So it stands to reason that I am just an acting chairman. Once Ms. Jasmine comes back safely, the Moore Group will still be in charge of the overall situation!"

Everyone laughed and nodded.

After all, from a legal point of view, as long as Jasmine is not dead or internally impeached, she will still be the chairman of the Moore Group. As for Theodore, he is indeed just an acting chairman. Once the master comes, he must immediately step aside.

Theodore sighed at this time: "I have put pressure on the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department many times in a row, strongly protesting their domestic security, and demanding that they must solve the case as soon as possible to find Chairman Moore's whereabouts, but this group of waste has not made any progress. ..."

Speaking of this, Theodore sighed and continued: "Although we can wait forever, from the perspective of the enterprise, the Moore Group can have no chairman for a few days, but not a few months or even years without a real Chairman of the Board!"

"So, I gathered everyone here today to activate the Moore Group's emergency plan, to temporarily abolish Jasmine's chairmanship, and the board of directors will re-elect a new chairman to preside over the overall situation for a long time!"

"Only in this way can we reassure our investors, right?"

Rueben was the first to nod, and said in agreement: "Now Chairman Moore's whereabouts are unknown, and there is a lot of suspicion from the outside world. Many people are rumouring that Chairman Moore has passed away, and we can't provide strong evidence to prove Chairman Moore is still alive, so the market suddenly loses confidence in the Moore Group, and our stock price continues to fall. If this continues, the Moore Group will suffer heavy losses."

With that, Rueben raised his voice a little bit and said loudly, "So I support the decision of acting chairman, and the board of directors will re-elect a new chairman to preside over the overall situation!"

Others exploded the pot at once, and many people whispered underneath.

These people are all shareholders of the Moore Group, and they are most concerned about the future of the Moore Group.

They have always praised Jasmine's abilities and believe that Jasmine is capable of leading the Moore Group to a higher level.

In that case, all of them can get a lot of money from it.

Therefore, if it is not a last resort, they don't want to replace Jasmine.

But the current situation is very special. It is not that Jasmine's abilities are inadequate, but that this person is currently undecided.

Chapter 2170

If they continue to wait so endlessly, not only their patience will be exhausted, but the patience of investors and stockholders will soon be exhausted.

In that case, the Moore Group will surely suffer heavy losses.

After thinking about it, they all pre-set Theodore's proposal, thinking that the best solution now is to elect a formal chairman as soon as possible to stabilize the military.

So someone opened his mouth and said, "I support the decision of the acting chairman."

"me too!"

Seeing this, Rueben was overjoyed, and hurriedly said, "Then let's express our views on the spot. There were 17 people present today. As long as there are more than eight people who agree to elect the new chairman, we will formally pass the acting chairman. Proposal, then the voting process will be activated."

Having said that, he stood up and said, "I am the first to agree to elect a new chairman!"

Theodore also looked serious and said, "As the initiator of this matter, I also agree!"

One person stood up below: "I agree too!"

"Count me, I agree!"

Rueben nodded and said, "Very well, there are already four people now!"

"I agree!"

"me too!"

As more and more people agreed, Rueben became more and more excited.

Soon, the number of people who agreed on the scene reached nine.

Seventeen people, the voting watershed is eight and nine votes.

If there are only eight votes, it is not more than half. According to the regulations, it will not be passed.

But as long as there are nine people, it is already more than half.

According to the regulations, the proposal has been approved by the board of directors.

In the end, the number of people who expressed their consent reached fourteen.

Theodore cleared his throat and said seriously: "Since there are 14 people who have agreed to elect a new chairman, I will formally announce on behalf of the board that Ms. Jasmine's position as chairman will be temporarily terminated. Next, we will enter the new director election process. !"

While applauding eagerly, Rueben remembered the three people who did not raise their hands. At the same time, he secretly said: "These three bastards have no vision at all. When my dad becomes the chairman, it depends on what I do. Kill you three old dogs!"

At this time, one of the people who did not raise their hands agreed and said, "Everyone, since Chairman Jasmine's life and death situation is unknown, when we temporarily abandon her chairmanship, we must also have a preparation plan!"

Rueben stared at the opponent and asked coldly, "What do you mean by preparing the plan?"

The man known as Marcus Holt said: "If Ms. Jasmine really died unexpectedly, then naturally, according to everyone's current decision, the new chairman will preside over the work."

Speaking of this, Marcus Holt changed his mind and said, "However, if Ms. Jasmine is still alive and we have nominated a new chairman, then once Ms. Jasmine returns, can she directly take back the position of chairman? In other words, after Ms. Jasmine's return, the new chairman who will be elected next will take the initiative to abdicate and let the virtuous?!"

Chapter 2171

Theodore and Rueben father and son were very upset by Marcus Holt's words!

The real purpose of their father and son is to always bring Jasmine to the board of directors of the Moore Group.

Whether Jasmine is dead or alive, the Moore Group's board of directors no longer has a slight relationship with her.

However, how can they think that Jasmine has been missing for so many days, and there are still people on the board of directors who are thinking about her and thinking about her.

Moreover, Marcus Holt's words quickly resonated with others.

Everyone spoke one after another, expressing their agreement with Marcus Holt's point of view. Theodore and Rueben dared not say anything in their hearts.

After all, the other board members didn't even know about their murder of Jasmine.

The attitude they are showing now is also regrettable, and they have to re-elect a new chairman for the sake of the Moore Group.

Therefore, Marcus Holt said that even if they disagree with 10,000 in their hearts, they would never say a word of no.

As long as they say a no word, it will immediately make people doubt their motives.

And once someone doubts their motives, the other party will definitely suspect that Jasmine's accident in Japan is inseparable from them.

So Theodore could only gritted his teeth and said, "I think Mr. Holt is very right. Since we have now decided to nominate a new chairman to preside over the overall situation, then we have to do a good job for Jasmine, the former chairman. Prepare with one hand."

Having said that, he opened his mouth and said: "Now, I propose that no matter who is elected as the new chairman, he must follow a principle, that is: once Ms. Jasmine returns safely, the new chairman must unconditionally abdicate and replace the chairman. Return to Ms. Jasmine, do you have any comments?"

When everyone heard him say so, of course they nodded in agreement.

This time a show of hands voted, all 17 people raised their hands.

Theodore was even more annoyed, and he thought to himself, "This fucking just bought me a time bomb for myself. Now Jasmine's life or death is unknown, the ghost knows whether she is dead or not? If she is not dead, someday she will come back alive. , Then I did all this for nothing?"

Thinking of this, Theodore sighed in his heart: "It seems that the best solution now is to sell assets immediately after taking office, just in case!"

So, he continued to speak: "Now, let's proceed to the next vote, that is, we will nominate one person from the 17 of us to be the new chairman.

Among the 17 of us, anyone has to vote and be voted. The right to vote is limited to one vote per person, and the one with more votes will be our new chairman!"

After all, he added: "Because it is related to the position of the chairman of the board, it is very important to the Moore Group, so we will adopt the real-name voting system this time to prevent people from operating in the dark."

Everyone looked at each other suddenly.

In the board of directors, the real-name voting is fair, but the real-name voting will also bring a very big hidden danger, that is, settling accounts after autumn.

If you vote for A, but in the end B gets the position, then B will definitely hate you in the future, and even put on small shoes for you everywhere and make trouble for you.

If this person is really careful, then he may still be doing everything possible to retaliate against you for this matter many years later.

In the face of this kind of person, no one can resist.

Chapter 2172

Rueben at this time very seriously echoed: "I also support real-name voting. Only real-name voting can be more in line with the principles of openness and fairness."

Having said that, he immediately raised his hand and said: "Since you are going to vote, then I will set an example for everyone. I hereby recommend Lord Theodore Moore as the new chairman of the Moore Group. I Vote for him."

Theodore smiled slightly at this time: "Since everyone in our board of directors has the right to vote and be elected, then I will vote for myself! I believe I can lead the Moore Group to overcome difficulties and create greater glories."

Afterwards, someone immediately stated, "I also vote for Lord Theodore!" "Count me in!"

Rueben said indifferently: "In this case, Lord Theodore has already received four votes. Let the others on the scene hurry up and vote!"

The others murmured to each other for a while, seeing that Theodore had mastered the situation, and this was a real-name voting system, and there was a risk of settling accounts after the fall, so they all expressed their opinions and voted for Theodore.

Soon, Theodore's votes reached nine votes, and the election of the new chairman was already a certainty.

At this time, the remaining few who did not vote have realized that the overall situation has been determined, and whether they vote for him or not, they cannot change the result of his election as the new chairman. However, if you don't vote for him at this time, or abstain, you will have to beware of him wearing small shoes in the future.

As a result, everyone turned their backs and voted for Theodore.

In this way, Theodore won 17 votes from 17 people.

At this time, Rueben opened his mouth and said, "In that case, Lord Theodore is the new chairman of the Moore Group. Everyone applauds and congratulations!"

After all, Rueben took the lead and applauded.

Others also echoed and applauded.

Theodore waved his hand with a humble expression, and said solemnly: "I am a self-knowledge. Although my ability is not bad, I am still a bit worse than the former chairman Ms. Jasmine. But everyone can rest assured. Since I was elected to this position by everyone, I firmly implement the basic principles of "being in my place and seeking government", and serve the future development of the Moore Group wholeheartedly. I will never do anything irresponsible."

The others hurriedly applauded to agree.

Theodore smiled slightly and said calmly: "Since we have now selected the new chairman, we will move to the release hall next!"

"I have invited a group of media in advance and notified them that we will elect a new chairman today."

"In a while, just go to hold a press conference to make the latest decision of the board of directors public. In this way, it can also reassure our investors and stockholders. Do you have any comments?"

Everyone has voted to elect Theodore as the new chairman, and naturally there will be no objections to such things as attending the press conference.

So everyone readily agreed.

Theodore said with emotion: "Oh! We were able to reach a consensus so quickly. This is a huge good news for the Moore Group. I believe that after the press conference, our stock price will rise quickly!" After he finished speaking, he deliberately said with a face: "However, everyone must be careful. Never take advantage of the few tens of minutes before the press conference to engage in any small actions in the stock market. If any one of you is suspected Insider trading has attracted the Securities Regulatory Commission to come, then I will never forgive him!"

Chapter 2173
Theodore's unselfish attitude has made all shareholders more or less awed.

The stock market is changing rapidly. Whoever can grasp inside information can make a lot of money.

Therefore, the most difficult thing to eliminate is insider trading. For example, if a listed company wants to cooperate deeply with another larger multinational company, once this information is released, the stock price of this listed company will undoubtedly rise sharply. For ordinary people, they do not know the insider of the company, so they cannot seize the opportunity of insider trading.

However, for the executives of this listed company, they must have known this inside story during the in-depth cooperation negotiations.

If at this time, they deliberately bought their own company stock while the stock price did not rise, and then waited for the news to be announced and the stock price rose before selling it at a high level, they would be able to earn a lot of cash.

Although this method seems to be very easy to make money, it has clearly violated the regulations of the China Securities Regulatory Commission and belongs to standard insider trading. Once detected, not only the illegal gains will be confiscated, but also huge fines will be imposed. In more serious cases, even To bear legal responsibility, there may be sentencing.

However, many people still choose to take risks in the face of huge interests.

Whether a listed group can stifle this unhealthy trend inside is also the key to whether the group can go further.

As soon as Theodore came up, he made it clear that everyone should not engage in any insider trading, that is, he put forward a very clear attitude to everyone, never allowing anyone to operate illegally in the Moore Group and let everyone make money in a regular manner.

Being able to say these words also increased his majesty in front of everyone to a certain extent.

At the same time, the news report hall of the Moore Group was full of invited media.

Everyone is very concerned about the recent situation of the Moore Group, especially after learning that Jasmine, the chairman of the Moore Group, has disappeared in Japan, everyone is very concerned about the progress of the search and rescue of her and the next response plan of the Moore Group.

The media's sense of smell is very sensitive, so they have long guessed that the Moore Group invited them to the press conference today. There is a high probability that the new chairman will be announced at the press conference.

After all, no company can stay without a leader for a long time, especially a listed company like the Moore Group.

Although the press conference has not yet started, people in the media have begun to speculate.

At this time, a reporter from a local TV station was whispering to a reporter from a provincial TV station. She told her colleagues next to her: "The Moore family's old man is said to have suffered from Alzheimer's because of the stimulation. I am afraid that the eldest son Theodore is the only pillar that the family can really take out. So I speculate that this time the Moore Group appoints the new chairman of the board, he is likely to be him."

The person next to him said, "Is it possible that Rueben is the eldest grandson of Lord Moore? After all, Lord Moore is young. Lord Moore has already passed on his seat to the younger generation of Jasmine. The group will still select a young man to succeed..."

The local reporter opened his mouth and said, "If this is the case, then the new chairman announced today may also be Rueben, the son of Theodore."

At this time, a member of the Moore Group stepped to the press conference stage and said into the microphone: "Dear friends from the media, please wait a moment. Our board of directors has reached a consensus and made a major decision. Later, our board of directors Members will attend the press conference together to announce the specific content of this decision."

When the media reporters on the scene heard this sentence, they all cheered up and looked forward to the appearance of the board members.

Chapter 2174

At this moment, the helicopter carried by Charlie Wade, Jasmine and others had already arrived in Aurouss Hilll City.

Because there were Xion and several other Banks Familyy crew members on the helicopter, Charlie Wade asked the helicopter to send them to Shangri-La.

Cameron Isaac has prepared several very private top-floor rooms for Xion and other Banks Familyy crew members.

However, Charlie Wade was still somewhat unreasonable about them, so his request to Cameron Isaac was to put these people under house arrest and surveillance.

Including Xion, anyone in Shangri-La can enjoy comprehensive and meticulous check-in services, including meals and accommodation.

However, all telephone calls and external communication methods in their room were cut off, because Charlie Wade temporarily did not allow them to communicate with the outside world.

Xion also knew that Charlie Wade still had to be wary of her now, so naturally she didn't have any opinions on this.

After setting up Xion and leaving them, Charlie Wade took Jasmine and Hashimoto closer to the Moore Group by helicopter.

At the time of the Moore Group, Theodore had just convened the board of directors. When the meeting ended, he said to everyone: "Everyone will go back to the office and rest for ten minutes. After ten minutes, we will go down to hold the press conference."

Everyone got up and left, Theodore also stepped back to his vice chairman's office.

Rueben naturally followed him.

The father and son stopped involuntarily when they passed Jasmine's chairman's office.

Theodore looked at the words "chairman's office" on the door, and there was an eager expectation in his eyes.

He secretly thought in his heart: "I will move into this chairman's office immediately after I finish the photo for a while! This office of Jasmine is not only large in size, but also facing the Yangtze River. The view of the river with large French windows is so beautiful. How many times better than my office!"

Thinking about this, Theodore said to Rueben: "Rueben, come to my office."

Rueben nodded: "Good dad."

When the father and son entered Theodore's vice chairman's office, Theodore said, "Cameron Isaac said before that Charlie Wade will come to our press conference."

"Charlie Wade?!" Rueben asked in surprise, "Dad, Charlie Wade is back?"

Theodore said, "I think what he meant is that he has come back."

Rueben smiled: "It seems that he went to Japan, but he couldn't find Jasmine's whereabouts."

Theodore sneered: "Why is it so easy to find? The old forest in the deep mountains of Nishitama County is not far from the virgin forest.

Jasmine's body may have been eaten by the damn beasts."

Rueben nodded, but said with some worry, "Dad, that Charlie Wade is very close to Jasmine. I am now worried that he will not let go. What if he continues to investigate?"

Theodore curled his lips and said disdainfully, "Let him check it! Check it out as much as you like! Just a little Charlie Wade in Aurouss Hilll, he's a little bit capable in Aurouss Hilll, but he won't be a fart in Japan. If he can find out who is ugly, I fucking chopped off my head for him!"

Chapter 2175

The longer Jasmine was missing, the more relaxed Theodore's heart became. He felt that with the passage of time, Jasmine's chances of survival have become smaller and smaller.

Rueben is not as open-minded as his dad. He stood aside and asked in a low voice nervously, "Dad, Charlie Wade still has some tricks. We must be careful not to let him see the clues."

Theodore nodded: "This is natural. All we two have to do is to act well."

Rueben again said: "By the way, Dad, I still feel a little unsure in my heart these past two days. Where did Jasmine go? How could she not be found or dead?"

Theodore sneered: "I think Jasmine is probably dead, but the body has not been found yet."

Rueben hurriedly asked, "Why are you so sure?"

Theodore said calmly: "Everything pays attention to a survival rate. It's like a person suddenly disappears. The most likely time to find him is 12 hours before the disappearance."

"If you didn't find him 12 hours before you disappeared, the chance of finding him will be slimmer as you go later."

"If it exceeds 24 hours, the probability of finding him is reduced by at least half;"

"If it takes more than 48 hours, the probability of finding him is probably less than 25%..."

"And with the passage of time, not only will the chance of finding him become increasingly slim, but its survival rate will also become smaller and smaller."

Speaking of this, Theodore said again: "By the way, you should often see some hot searches about missing persons on TikTok. Some people went out for a run and suddenly disappeared; others got in a car and went to a certain place, and then Also disappeared."

Rueben nodded: "There are indeed many hot searches like this, and there will be one every once in a while."

Theodore continued: "Generally speaking, like this, if you can't find people quickly, the end result will be bad luck."

"There have been many enthusiastic people all over the Internet who are helping to find people, but after a period of time, the bad news about finding the corpse came."

"So I think that if Jasmine has been missing for so long, there is a high probability that she should have died."

"Moreover, people can do it as long as they die. There is absolutely no proof of death."

"What's more, people weren't killed by our hands. It was Hashimoto Jin who looked for someone to kill first, so it's even more difficult to find our heads. The sky is falling. Isn't there Hashimoto Kinxian who will stand for us first? If nothing happens, we can sit back and relax. If something happens to him, we can just run away."

Rueben was relieved and said with a smile: "If this is the case, we will have to contact Hashimoto in the future to ensure that we can grasp his daily dynamics."

Theodore nodded: "You're right. For us, Hashimoto Jinxian is a beacon tower. When you see Hashimoto Jinxian on fire and smoking, it proves that we are also in danger. If there is no fire, then we can continue to sit back and relax."

After all, Theodore took out his cell phone and called Hashimoto Kinxian. The call was made quickly.

Hashimoto Kinshin often talks about business all over the world, so his mobile phone has opened up a service similar to GSM. No matter which country he goes to, he can access communication through the local mobile network.

Chapter 2176

Therefore, even if he is in Aurouss Hillll now, he can still receive calls from Theodore.

It just so happened that at this time the plane had landed near the Moore Group.

Charlie Wade heard the phone ringing in Hashimoto's pocket, stretched out his hand and took a look, and saw the name Theodore Moore written on it. Seeing that it was Theodore's call, Charlie Wade immediately said to Hashimoto Kinxian, "If you want to survive, be obedient, otherwise I will send you directly to the kennel today and chop you up to feed the dog. Do you understand? "

Hashimoto Jinxian nodded and said with a begging face: "As long as you can spare my life, no matter what you ask me to do, I will do it honestly..."

Charlie Wade said coldly: "Connect Theodore's phone, he wants to ask about your recent development, you tell him everything is fine, and let him know that you are still in Japan."

Hashimoto nodded immediately.

Seeing his appearance, Charlie Wade knew that he had no guts to deceive himself, so he handed the phone to him and said coldly, "Take it now!"

Hashimoto didn't dare to delay first, and immediately pressed the answer button after receiving the phone.

When the phone was connected, Theodore, who could clearly hear the other end of the phone, finally breathed a sigh of relief. He said with emotion, "Oh...Mr. Hashimoto, what are you doing? Why haven't you answered the phone for so long?"

Hashimoto Jinxian hurriedly followed Charlie Wade's instructions, and said, "I'm in a meeting, now I'm out of the conference room to answer your call, what can you do?"

Theodore smiled and said, "I, there is nothing wrong with me. I just want to ask you how the situation in Japan is now. Does Jasmine have any information? Is the Japanese Metropolitan Police still searching for her whereabouts?"

Hashimoto Jinxian said: "Jasmine still has no information, but I think we spent so much effort to murder Jasmine. She is now dead, and the Japanese Metropolitan Police Department is gradually recovering police force. I think There is a high probability that this matter will be over, so you don't have to worry about it."

When Theodore heard these words, he really felt more at ease, and said with a smile: "Oh! Mr. Hashimoto is really reliable! As long as Jasmine is dead, we really don't have any worries!"

After speaking, he said hurriedly: "By the way, Mr. Hashimoto, I will hold a press conference soon to officially announce that I will take over as the chairman of the Moore Group. Once I officially become the chairman, The cooperation between us can speed up the progress!"

Hashimoto said quickly: "That's really great. I have already greeted our board of directors. When you formally take over as chairman, we will meet and have a good talk about the future cooperation."

Theodore said excitedly: "Good Mr. Hashimoto!"

After all, Theodore said again: "I'm sorry, Mr. Hashimoto, it's time for the press conference soon, I won't tell you anymore, let's wait for the day of signing the contract, and then thank you in person!"

Hashimoto said quickly, "Lord Mooore doesn't have to be so polite. You can go ahead if you have anything to do, and wait for the rest to talk about the rest!"

"it is good!"

Here, Theodore ended the call, and immediately looked at Rueben? with excitement, and said excitedly: "Hashimoto said that the Japanese Police Department has already withdrawn its police force. It seems that no clue has been found."

Rueben said excitedly, "That's great! As long as they give up searching, then this matter will be fixed!"

Theodore laughed, stood up, waved his big hand, and said in high spirits: "Go, go downstairs to develop the conference! As soon as the press conference opens, I will be the chairman of the Moore Group!"

Chapter 2177

10:55 in the morning. Trading in the shares of the Moore Group was suddenly suspended. The suspension of stock trading is the suspension of trading. From this moment on, the shares of the Moore Group are sealed and will neither rise nor fall until trading is resumed.

To apply for a trading suspension to the Securities Regulatory Commission, there must be sufficient and sufficient reasons. The Moore Group's reason for applying for a trading suspension is that the group has major issues that will be announced soon.

Generally speaking, listed groups will suspend trading of their stocks before they announce important events. This is to prevent insider trading and well-informed speculation.

For example, before, a very famous company on the Internet, Life 360. When they seek to go public in the country, they will complete the domestic A-share listing through backdoor.

This is the so-called backdoor listing.

In layman's terms, some of their conditions do not meet the requirements of the Securities Regulatory Commission for listing, or the normal listing channel is too long, they can't wait, so they can achieve the goal of backdoor listing by purchasing another listed company.

360 is also regarded as a relatively well-known Internet company in China. The reason why they choose to go public on the backdoor is mainly to save time. If they go public on their own, they will need to pay at least one or two years of time cost, and they are likely to miss the market. Good opportunity.

At the beginning, when 360 decided to go public with a backdoor, all stockholders were speculating about one thing, that is, which listed company would 360 use to go public.

If you can know the target company of her backdoor in advance, then you can buy the company's stock in advance, and you can make a fortune after the 360 backdoor is successful.

However, such things are generally top-secret information within the company, and only the absolute top can know it, and they will never disclose it to the outside world.

Therefore, when Eastcliff market suddenly announced that the company had a major business and needed to suspend trading, people knew that 360 was going to be listed on his shell.

But by this time I knew that it was too late. Trading in 360's stock had been suspended and could not be traded, and there was no chance to buy bottoms.

The current situation of the Moore Group is the same.

The company is about to transition from the leaderless state of the group to the successor of the new chairman. This is definitely a good news for the company, so it must first be suspended and then announced.

At 10:55, the Moore Group announced the hall.

The media reporters invited to the scene are already here.

Shareholders across the country are also watching this conference.

Because since Jasmine's accident until now, the Moore Group's stock price has been underperforming.

The market is worried that the Moore Group has no leader, and the square inch is in chaos, which led to the continuous decline of the Moore Group's stock.

Now, the Moore Group suddenly wants to hold a press conference with great fanfare. Everyone feels that they must be ready to announce the new chairman.

It was at this time that Charlie Wade came to the door of the release hall alone.

After Rueben knew that he was coming, he came to the gate and waited in advance. Although he had ten thousand dissatisfaction with Charlie Wade, he did not dare to provoke Charlie Wade at all in Aurouss Hilll.

Chapter 2178

After all, Master Wade Wade, who is known as the true dragon in the world, Rueben did not dare to neglect.

Seeing Charlie Wade coming by himself, Rueben hurried forward and said respectfully to him, "Master Wade, you are here!"

Charlie Wade nodded lightly, and said a little apologetically, "Rueben, I tried my best with Jasmine..."

Charlie Wade deliberately only said the words "I tried my best", but did not say any results. Rueben heard these words, but directly brought these words into what the doctor said to the patient's family when the doctor failed to save the patient. .

Therefore, he immediately made up what Charlie Wade had not said, and thought to himself: "It seems that Charlie Wade did not find any whereabouts of Jasmine, and now that he has returned to China, he must have given up on searching. As a result, my dad and I can finally rest assured..."

Rueben's heart was secretly refreshed, but on the face he deliberately pretended to be very painful, and said gratefully: "Master Wade, you went to Japan specially for Jasmine's affairs, and you have made so many efforts. At one point, our Moore family is very grateful..."

"If Jasmine is really gone, then I believe her spirit in the sky will be moved by your sincerity to her..."

Charlie Wade looked at Rueben and said very seriously: "Rueben, many times there is still a fascination in my heart, praying that a miracle will happen at a certain moment in the future. What if a miracle really happens at a certain moment in the future? What if Jasmine suddenly appears in front of us at some point in the future? Isn't this a happy situation for everyone?"

When Rueben heard Charlie Wade's words, he felt as uncomfortable as if he had eaten a fly.

He couldn't help cursing in his heart: "Pray for a miracle? I pray for your mother's miracle, me! This miracle had better not happen to his mother! Jasmine had better never show up in front of me, I don't even bother to see her body. Otherwise, she will have to organize a funeral for her. Not only will it cost the people and money, but the fuck will have to pretend to be sad in front of everyone!"

However, on his face he said very religiously: "Master Wade, you are right. I also hope that one day, the miracle you said will happen..."

After speaking, he hurriedly stated: "Master Wade, after today's press conference is over, I will immediately go to the Temple to offer incense and pray for Jasmine! The Temple makes a wish especially effective. I often go there to pray and know the abbot there. Let him do a prayer for Jasmine!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said calmly, "Don't be so troublesome, you can't go to the Temple anymore in your life."

Rueben was stunned, and asked a little surprised: "Master Wade...you...what do you mean by this?"

Charlie Wade patted him on the shoulder and said, "It's nothing, the Temple is violating you."

Rueben asked in amazement, "Why did I commit a crime with the Temple, Master Wade? the Temple is indeed very effective..."

Charlie Wade said calmly, "Trust me, you will soon find that the Temple is not working at all."

Rueben was a little unclear, thinking that Charlie Wade was talking about Feng Shui metaphysics, and asked a little surprised: "Master Wade, are the monks in the Temple all deceiving?"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "It's not necessarily a lie, maybe it's just that the way is not enough."

After that, Charlie Wade said again: "Okay, let's not talk about this, go in quickly, isn't your press conference about to begin?"

Rueben hurriedly said, "Yes, the press conference will begin right away, Master Wade, you can come in quickly!"

Under the leadership of Rueben, Charlie Wade stepped into the conference venue. Rueben arranged him in the VIP seat in the first row. Then he said with a full face apologetic: "Excuse me, Master Wade, I have to participate in the release. Yes, I won't be here with you. If you have any needs, just ask the staff."

Charlie Wade nodded: "Okay, go ahead."

Rueben said graciously, "Good Master Wade, then I'll go ahead and please."

After speaking, he turned around and went to the backstage lounge.

A few minutes later, a female secretary stepped onto the rostrum and said, "Thank you for the arrival of distinguished guests and friends from the media. Today, our Moore Group has very important things to release to the public. Please applaud and invite us. Members of the board!"

Chapter 2179

After the female secretary finished speaking, there was thunderous applause from the audience.

More than a dozen members of the Moore Group's board of directors entered through the side door one after another.

Charlie Wade didn't know the people who walked in the front. Until the last two, it was Rueben and his father Theodore.

Although Theodore was the last to enter the venue, the middle position on the rostrum was always vacant for him.

After he took the stage, he sat directly in the middle position.

As soon as he sat down, he saw Charlie Wade in the first row of VIP seats.

Seeing Charlie Wade, Theodore's heart was the same as Rueben, somewhat nervous.

As the so-called guilty conscience, he also worried that what he did would happen one day.

He was especially afraid of Charlie Wade, because Charlie Wade had become the biggest hidden danger in his mind.

If one day, his affairs are revealed, he is not even afraid of the police coming to the door, but he is afraid that Charlie Wade will come to him to settle the account.

When Charlie Wade's eyes were facing each other, Theodore was a little pleased and nodded at him. Charlie Wade also smiled. Charlie Wade's smile dissipated a lot of tension in Theodore's heart.

He turned on the desktop microphone in front of him and said, "Dear distinguished guests, shareholders, investors, and friends from the media present, hello everyone!"

"I'm Theodore, formerly the vice chairman of the Moore Group. When Ms. Jasmine suffered an accident in Japan, I was temporarily elected by the board of directors as acting chairman, temporarily replacing Ms. Jasmine to exercise the power of chairman on the board."

Speaking of this, Theodore sighed softly: "Hey...Miss Jasmine's accident has caused me and the entire board of directors to be extremely heartbroken. We have also been making solemn representations to the Japanese side, asking them to be as soon as possible. To find out the truth of the accident and find out the whereabouts of Miss Jasmine, we also hope that the Japanese side can give us feedback as soon as possible a result that everyone is happy with..."

Theodore paused, his painting style changed, and he said in a serious tone: "However, for a listed group with a market value of more than 100 billion, we must not be in a state of no leader for a long time. Before Miss Jasmine returns safely, we must To ensure the normal operation of the Moore Group, our board of directors held a board meeting this morning..."

When everyone in the audience heard this, they raised their ears and waited expectantly for his next content.

Because this is the highlight of everyone's attention.

Theodore cleared his throat at this time and announced very seriously:

"After the board of directors discussed and voted, Ms. Jasmine will be temporarily removed from the position of chairman of the Moore Group. At the same time, the board of directors has passed a real-name vote. I personally achieved 17 Among them, 17 votes have been voted, so from now on, I will officially take over as the chairman of the Moore Group!"

Everyone is waiting for this sentence. Although they speculate that the Moore Group should announce the new chairman today, this matter must be told from the Moore Group's board of directors to be fully evidenced

Chapter 2180

Now that Theodore himself has admitted personally, this matter has been confirmed and can be directly released as news.

However, at this moment, Charlie Wade suddenly spoke and asked indifferently: "Lord Moore, Ms. Jasmine is just missing now, and the news of her murder has not been confirmed. I would like to ask you, if Miss Jasmine returns safely one day, then Will you return the chairman's seat?"

Theodore originally thought that today is a very, very simple transition of power.

Moreover, he also felt that he had already conquered the entire board of directors, so the rest was just an announcement. In this case, no one could cause trouble.

But he never dreamed that Charlie Wade would suddenly attack himself at this moment.

Although he was very angry in his heart, he still said very politely and politely: "You can rest assured that when our board of directors held a meeting today, we have established a basic principle, although I have now voted by the board of directors to formally take over as a director of the Moore Group. Long term, but I also have to admit that Ms. Moore is actually a far more suitable chairman candidate than me..."

Speaking of this, Theodore continued to say: "So, I also solemnly announce to everyone here: Once Miss Jasmine returns safely, I will return the position of chairman to her as soon as possible! After all, she is the most suitable candidate to be the chairman of the Moore Group!"

Everyone applauded at this moment, feeling that Theodore's ability to have these words is enough to prove that this person's vision, character and heart are very outstanding.

When Theodore triumphantly accepted the applause of the crowd, Charlie Wade said, "Since Lord Moore has said so, then just return the position of chairman to Ms. Jasmine."

Seeing Charlie Wade's aggressive appearance, Theodore was very annoyed and cursed secretly: "Damn, did Charlie Wade take any gunpowder today? Why the fuck can't get through with me? Let me return the position to Jasmine now. I can change, but what about Jasmine and others? Isn't Charlie Wade very capable? Are you not known as the real dragon on earth? If you really have this ability, why didn't you bring Jasmine back alive?"

When Theodore thought of this, his heart was full of irritation, but he still said very seriously: "I have said just now, my personal conscious ability is no match for Miss Jasmine, so I very much hope to be able to work under Miss Jasmine. Ms. Jasmine was able to return to China safely. Theodore voluntarily abdicated to be a virtuous person and returned to the position of vice chairman of the Moore Group.

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently: "Well, since you have said so yourself, in front of so many people, don't break your promise."

Theodore said coldly with a bit of uncontrollable displeasure, "Don't worry, I, Theodore, never break my promise!"

As soon as the voice fell, the door of the conference venue was pushed open vigorously by several men in black.

Seeing more than a dozen uniformly dressed men in black split into two teams on the left and right and lined up to enter the venue, everyone was a little dumbfounded.

Theodore sternly scolded: "Who are you? What are you doing here? I tell you, this is the internal venue of our Moore Group. You are legally responsible for breaking in like this! What about the security? Come here quickly. , Get them all out!"

At this moment, a beautiful woman wearing a small black suit and black high-heeled shoes stepped in. As soon as this woman entered the door, everyone at the scene was struck by lightning and stood there! I saw this woman walked into the meeting place smartly, her eyes fixed on Theodore, and she asked loudly, "They are all my people, who is qualified to drive them away??"

Theodore felt that the sky had fallen for a moment. Because this woman who is talking is his niece, Jasmine!

Chapter 2181

When Jasmine appeared, everyone except Charlie Wade was shocked.

No one can imagine that Jasmine, who has been missing and whose life or death has been unknown, suddenly appeared at the press conference.

You know, in the last second, the Moore Group was unable to confirm whether Jasmine was still alive, so it held a special board meeting and announced the appointment of Theodore as the new chairman.

However, in the next second, Jasmine came back suddenly!

Almost everyone can't accept such a big plot turn, and I am afraid that the movie would not dare to make it like this.

Of these, the most unacceptable of this reality is naturally Theodore, who has just succeeded the chairman of the Moore Group.

At this time, Theodore, looking at Jasmine, was already distraught!

His eyes were big and red, and he was still covered with bloodshot eyes. The pair of eyeballs almost stared out of the eye sockets. He couldn't believe that Jasmine could return to China from Japan alive!

He couldn't help but secretly said in his heart: "Since she is still alive, why doesn't even the Japanese police know?"

"The current Japanese police, although they have begun to reduce the manpower searching for Jasmine, they still haven't completely given up on finding her whereabouts, but she bypassed the Japanese police and returned home quietly. What is she doing?"

"More importantly, since she is still alive, why has she never contacted me and the old man?"

"She has a deep relationship with her grandparents and grandchildren. Even if she doesn't believe in herself, she can't even doubt her, right?"

"Could it be..."

"Did she realize something?!"

Thinking of this, Theodore panicked to death. Rueben on the side was even more startled and scared at this time. He also didn't understand how Jasmine survived, let alone how she returned to China. Now, there has been a lot of rumors about her in China and Japan, and everyone knows it. With her current popularity, it would never be possible to return home quietly, unless someone with great magical powers secretly helped him.. At this point, Rueben immediately looked at Charlie Wade who was smiling in the first row of VIP seats.

At this moment, he felt a little bit in his heart, and a thought suddenly appeared: "Could it be...Is it Charlie Wade?!"

"Yes! It must be him!"

"No wonder he came back from Japan so simply. If it is not confirmed that Jasmine is safe, how could he give up searching?"

"Moreover, only he has the ability to bring Jasmine back from Japan without knowing it..."

"No wonder he has to come to the Moore Group's press conference! It turns out that he is secretly manipulating all this!"

Thinking of this, Rueben was also scared to death. He was afraid that Charlie Wade already knew what he had planned with his father. In that case, Charlie Wade would definitely not let them go. At this time, all the media's attention was focused on Jasmine.

From beginning to end, no reporter noticed Charlie Wade, who was sitting in the first row with his head facing them. At this moment, the shutter sound of the camera on the scene crackled like firecrackers.

Chapter 2182

Jasmine walked towards the rostrum under the gaze of everyone.

Countless reporters stretched out their microphones at this time. Some reporters spoke in a hurry and asked some crazy questions: "Miss Moore, Miss Moore, I am a reporter from Eastcliff Finance and Economics. I would like to ask, how did you escape in the crash in Japan?"

Jasmine stopped, smiled slightly, and said, "When the accident happened, I happened to not be in the car."

Another person asked: "Then Miss Moore, since you are not in the car, the Japanese police have been searching for your whereabouts for so many days. Why have you not shown up?"

Jasmine replied: "I didn't show up because I suspected that the accident I encountered was caused deliberately. For my personal safety, I didn't disclose it to the public."

As soon as this was said, everyone at the scene took a breath!

The accident that Jasmine encountered was caused by man? ! If this is true, wouldn't someone want to murder her? ! In that way, the nature of this matter has risen from a traffic accident to a murder with extremely cruel methods and extremely serious consequences!

Theodore and Rueben were even more shocked. If Jasmine really has the evidence of their crimes, then they will be over in this life!

Although this case was committed in Japan, the person who died in this case was a Chinese national, and the person behind the scenes was also a Chinese national, so this must be sanctioned by Chinese law.

In China, buying kill orders is one of the most serious crimes.

Even if they pretended to be a traffic accident, did not use any weapons, and did not directly kill other people in the car, it was still very bad in nature.

Therefore, even if the death penalty can be avoided, the father and son must at least be sentenced to life imprisonment.

The richer the person, the more afraid of going to jail. When the poor are too poor, they even commit crimes, seeking a place to stay in prison and a bite to eat.

Especially in Japan, a country with a very serious aging, many elderly people have no choice but to embark on the path of crime because they have no way to provide for the elderly. But this is definitely not the case for the rich.

They own the world's top luxury cars, airplanes, yachts, and the world's top luxury mansions. They alone enjoy the meticulous service of a few or even dozens of people, and their lives are like paradise on earth.

To send such people to jail is more uncomfortable than killing them.

After all, the prison is treated equally, whether you are a homeless person who is so poor that there is no place to sleep and eat, or a super rich person who is rich and rich in an enemy country, once in prison, everyone is likely to live in the same cell and eat. With the same pot of rice.

Therefore, Theodore and Rueben were almost panicked in their hearts. Jasmine did not answer any questions from the media reporters at this time. She stepped onto the rostrum and came to the front of Uncle Theodore.

Theodore was so scared that his scalp was numb, and even severe tinnitus appeared in his ears.

He thought Jasmine would send it to herself suddenly, but he didn't expect that Jasmine just smiled at him and said very politely: "Uncle, I worry about you and your brother these days."

Theodore breathed a sigh of relief as soon as he said this!

He secretly said in his heart like a new life: "My mother, I'm really scared to death... It seems that Jasmine still doesn't know that all this is my master behind... God bless, Amitabha, Amen, Amen..."

Rueben next to him also immediately relaxed, and his tight nerves almost broke at the moment Jasmine approached just now. Fortunately, Jasmine didn't seem to be targeting their father and son.

After Theodore breathed a sigh of relief, he rejoiced and said, "Oh, Jasmine, you can count as coming back. These days when you are away, uncle, I am anxiously scratching my heart and liver. Your grandpa is also worried about your sudden brain disease. ..."

Speaking of this, Theodore sighed, "Hey...it's okay, it's okay if you come back, just come back..."

As soon as he finished speaking, his eyes were red, and two lines of tears shed unexpectedly.

Charlie Wade in the audience watched Theodore's actor-level performance with cold eyes, and said in his heart: "Theodore, do you think you have survived the disaster? In fact, your nightmare has just begun!"

Chapter 2183

At this time Theodore was still imagining that what he had done was not revealed.

At the same time, he was also secretly thinking: "It doesn't matter if this damn Jasmine comes back. Anyway, now that the old thing has become demented, she has no backing in the Moore Group. In the future, if you want to fix her, there are many opportunities!"

At this time, Jasmine looked at Theodore and asked loudly, "Uncle, I heard that the board of directors recommended you to become the new chairman because I am not here?"

Theodore rubbed his hands in embarrassment, and chuckled, "Ho ho... this thing... hey... everyone also thinks that the group can't be a group of dragons without a leader, so they recommended me to come out for it. you."

Jasmine nodded and said earnestly: "Thank you, uncle, thank you for sharing my worries for me."

As she said that, she changed the conversation and asked, "Uncle, you just said that if I come back, I will automatically return the chairman's position to me. Should this be counted?"

Theodore looked around awkwardly for a week.

"Damn, there is such a multimedia reporter here, and Charlie Wade is a bastard here, what I said just now, I can't repent in front of them, otherwise once the media reports it, I will immediately become notorious."

"Moreover, what's more terrible is that Charlie Wade, a bastard, is not easy to deal with!"

"In Aurouss Hilll, he is Master Wade who is admired by thousands of people, and there are countless fans behind him. Jasmine was rescued by him. If I am not letting go of the chairman's position at this time, Charlie Wade will not let me go... .."

"It seems that we can only retreat and give way first..."

Thinking of this, Theodore's heart was bleeding, and he couldn't help cursing deep down in his heart: "This is really fucking nonsense. I tried to confuse the chairman of the board, but he was going to be cold just a few minutes after he officially took office. I haven't even sat in the chairman's office for even a second!"

However, even if there are countless unwillingness in his heart, he dare not make any troubles at this time.

He could only bite the bullet and said: "Jasmine, don't worry, the position of the chairman of the Moore Group is yours. I only help you with some important affairs when you are not back. Now that you are back, then this The position is naturally to be returned to you."

After all, he picked up the microphone and said solemnly: "Now, I announce that the chairman of the Moore Group will continue to be held by Ms. Jasmine! I believe this is also the best solution in the minds of shareholders and investors. Come, everyone applaud!"

The audience thundered with applause.

Jasmine nodded at this time, picked up the microphone, and said to everyone in the audience: "Thank you for coming to the Moore Group today. This is the end of today's press conference. Next, I will preside over the meeting of the board of directors. The members of the board of directors touched on the various affairs that occurred within the group during my absence, because there are many commercial secrets involved, so please leave the media friends first."

The media reporters had already caught the big news about Jasmine's return to China. At this time, they were all anxiously thinking about going back to write and publish the news, so they immediately packed their devices and left the scene in an orderly manner.

Theodore and Rueben looked at each other, and the father and son were more or less worried in their hearts.

The two of them didn't know what Jasmine wanted to do for the board meeting.

If it's just a routine board of directors, it's better to say that everyone should report to her what happened in the past few days, and it's almost the same.

But if Jasmine already knew something, it would be tricky to deal with them both on this board.

So Theodore deliberately tentatively asked: "Jasmine, do you have any plans for holding a board of directors?"

Jasmine smiled slightly: "Uncle, don't worry, I will confirm a lot of things with everyone when we meet later."

Theodore nodded nervously. Soon, all the media reporters left the scene. In the audience of the entire press conference, only Charlie Wade sat here alone.

Chapter 2184

Theodore was a little nervous, pretending to be embarrassed: "Well, Master Wade...Jasmine is going to hold a board of directors. This may involve some of the Moore Group's trade secrets, so please temporarily avoid it... .."

Charlie Wade smiled calmly: "Don't worry, Lord Mooore, today's board of directors has no commercial secrets."

"This..." Theodore felt even more nervous as if playing a drum.

He thought to himself, "What does Charlie Wade mean by this? How can it be made as if he knows everything?"

At this time, the door of the report hall was pushed open, and nearly forty men in black filed in.

The directors of the Moore Group were all taken aback by the battle before them.

Theodore yelled nervously, "Who are you? Who let you in? What about the security guard? Get all these people out quickly!"

Rueben also hurriedly scolded: "You better leave by yourself, otherwise we will call the police!"

Charlie Wade, who had never said much, said calmly at this moment:

"Theodore, they are all arranged by me, do you have any comments?"

Theodore was shocked and blurted out, "Wade...Master Wade, these people are all arranged by you?! You...what do you intend?"

Charlie Wade said calmly: "I arranged these people to support Jasmine. She has just returned to the Moore Group. If there is no one to support her, I am afraid she will be bullied."

Theodore hurriedly turned his head, looked at Jasmine, and said seriously, "Jasmine, the group is where you work. What do you trouble Master Wade for bringing so many people in black to come over? If you don't know, you think they are all marginalized people! If it spreads out, the influence on the group will be too bad! Let them leave as soon as possible!"

Jasmine ignored him, her expression was already somewhat cold, and she sternly said, "I am still the chairman of the Moore Group. I have the final say on all matters here!"

Theodore did not expect that Jasmine's attitude would suddenly become bad, and she immediately said with annoyance: "Even if you are the chairman, you are only elected by the board of directors. If you act out of compliance, the board has the power to dismiss you at any time!" Jasmine sneered, "Remove me? When Grandpa appointed me as chairman, he already gave me all the voting rights of the board of directors. As long as I was on the board of directors, you would not have any voting rights. Dismiss me? I have all voting rights on the board of directors. I can dismiss any of you at any time!"

"You...you..." Theodore's angry chest continued to rise and fall, and gritted his teeth: "Jasmine! Don't go too far! You think I don't know how you gave the old man soup. ?"

"When your grandfather gave you the chairmanship, there were signs of Alzheimer's. Otherwise, how could it be possible to hand over the Moore Group to you a female generation?!"

"Alzheimer's disease is definitely not a cold in a day. Your grandfather is sick now, there must be early signs!"

"Since he has Alzheimer's a long time ago, when he authorizes you, he is already a person who does not have the ability to execute independently. All the decisions he makes are open to question!"

"Don't worry, I will appeal to the court to dismiss all the decisions he made at the time! Return all voting rights to the board of directors!"

Jasmine sneered: "You want to appeal to the court? That's right, I also have something I want to report to the judicial department. Before that, I will introduce an old friend to you."

After that, she immediately turned around and respectfully said to Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, I have to trouble you to give an order."

Charlie Wade nodded and said to several people in black, "Bring people up!"

"Yes!"

Several people in black responded in unison, and immediately went out and walked in with a man in handcuffs and handcuffs.

When Theodore and Rueben saw this person, their souls frightened and disappeared!

This person... is actually the vice president of Japan's Nippon Steel Group, Hashimoto Kinxian!

Chapter 2185

At the moment they saw Hashimoto's approach, Theodore and Rueben and his son almost immediately made their legs weak.

At this moment, both father and son realized that they had already happened.

Otherwise, Charlie Wade would never be silent. While bringing Jasmine back, he also brought back Hashimoto Jinxian.

The murder of Jasmine in Japan is completely a dirty business between the father and son and Hashimoto Kinzian in private.

Theodore and Rueben, the father and son, wanted to kill Jasmine to inherit the entire Moore family.

And Hashimoto Jinxian wanted to obtain greater private benefits through cooperation with the father and son.

A reward of hundreds of millions of dollars, and at least ten points of shares, is enough to drive Hashimoto to take risks.

Before Hashimoto appeared, the father and son used him as their own firewall.

In their opinion, as long as Hashimoto Jinxian has not angered the upper body, the two of them are absolutely safe.

But they never dreamed that Charlie Wade actually moved this firewall from Japan to himself!

At this time, the Moore family did not dare to say anything, and the other directors of the board recognized Hashimoto Kinmae and couldn't help but ask: "This... isn't this Nippon Steel's vice president, Mr. Hashimoto?! Jasmine, You... how could you kidnap Mr. Hashimoto to Aurouss Hilll?!"

Charlie Wade stood up at this time and said loudly: "I tied Hashimoto here first. Do you have any comments?"

Seeing that Charlie Wade was in his early days, and his tone was a little serious, he immediately persuaded him.

He was just a small shareholder in the Moore Group, and he didn't dare to provoke Charlie Wade at all.

Theodore's face was already full of cold sweat at this time, he kept wiping, but the speed of wiping was simply not as fast as the top speed. Rueben also frightened his legs straight. After the last incident, he didn't know what punishment he would face next.

Charlie Wade stepped up to Hashimoto Kinxian at this time, and said coldly, "Mr. Hashimoto, tell everyone what happened."

Hashimoto Jinxian tremblingly said: "Mr. Wade... the whole thing is completely the idea of Theodore and Rueben, the two dogs behind the scenes. They used high rewards to lure me and let me help them kill Ms. Jasmine in Japan, I arranged the traffic accident according to their will and killed two of Ms. Moore's assistants and a driver. Their father and son were the culprits!"

As soon as these words came out, the audience was shocked! None of these shareholders expected that Jasmine's disappearance some time ago turned out to be a murder case behind it!

Theodore's face pale in fright, and he tremblingly said,

"Bridge...Hashimoto...you...you...you don't want to talk here! Me. When did I... When did I ask you to kill Jasmine?! Jasmine is my niece...I...how could I kill her! I Look... it's obviously that you have evil intentions in your heart, this... at this time, you have to pour dirty water on me... you... ..What is your intention!"

Rueben also reprimanded with a trembling, "Just...that's right!

Bridge...Hashimoto Jinxian...you fucking day...jap, run Come to Aurouss Hilll to speak out, believe...believe it or not...I tore your broken mouth!"

Chapter 2186

Hashimoto Jinxian yelled angrily: "I have been hurt so badly by your two dogs, you two still want to get into trouble at this time?!"

Having said that, he immediately took out his phone, found a recording, and said coldly: "Everyone listens, listen to this pair of dogs, how did they murder Miss Moore!"

After that, he immediately clicked to play.

On the phone, Rueben's voice came: "Oh, Mr. Hashimoto, my sister has already planned to leave for Japan tomorrow. My father asked me to ask you, have you arranged everything there? This time, you must make sure that she is alive. I can't go back!"

Hashimoto Jinxian smiled and said, "Don't worry, Lord Mooore, I have prepared in advance according to your instructions, and I will do it unconsciously by then, and no one will doubt you."

Rueben said with satisfaction: "That's really great! After Jasmine's death, we will definitely make greater concessions in our cooperation with your company, and all the personal benefits promised to you will be honored. I look forward to it. Our in-depth cooperation in the future!" Hashimoto Jinxian laughed and said, "Don't worry, Lord Mooore, please also convey to your father, Lord Theodore, I'm Hashimoto Jinxian first. Don't worry, I promise Jasmine will come back and forth after coming to Japan!"

Rueben said excitedly: "Okay! Great! Then I'm waiting for Mr. Hashimoto's good news!"

Hearing this, Theodore was completely panicked. He pointed at Hashimoto and yelled angrily: "Hashimoto, you damn little Japan, you really don't trust your work. If you don't get things done, you're still paying. Dare to record secretly, you are a fucking damn boy!"

Hashimoto Kinxian also responded with an angry roar: "Fuck Theodore of your mother! I used to live very well in Japan by virtue of the position of Nippon Steel's vice president. He is a standard upper-class elite, but he was killed by you. Two bastards with your son dragged down the water! If it weren't for you, how could I be today!"

Rueben hurriedly looked at Charlie Wade at this time, knelt on the ground with a puff, and choked up: "Master Wade...this is my dad's idea. I completely obeyed his instructions. Please read it for the sake of my youth and ignorance. Forgive me this time!"

Rueben's sudden kneeling shocked his father Theodore and Hashimoto Jinxian.

Theodore never dreamed that his son would betray him at the most critical moment without hesitation, and immediately set aside the ties with him. At this moment, he was furious in his heart and wanted to scold Rueben, but the next second, he swallowed it to the point of his mouth. Although he was bleeding in his heart, he still comforted himself in the bottom of his heart: "It is understandable to do so with Rueben. Since this incident has already happened, and Charlie Wade and dozens of people in black are sitting here, I am absolutely not It may come back again. In this case, rather than fold me and honor in, it is better to fold me and save him. If this is the case, at least the entire army will not be wiped out..."

Thinking of this, he sighed desperately, and said, "Master Wade, the whole thing was planned by me alone. Rueben is only at my request to help me spread the word with Hashimoto in the middle, so you If you want to punish, please punish me alone, don't involve Rueben, count me Theodore, please!"

After finishing speaking, he immediately knelt on the ground, kept kowtow towards Charlie Wade, and shouted: "Master Wade, I beg you! Please!"

After speaking, he choked up and cried bitterly.

Charlie Wade saw all this in his eyes, and said coldly, "Save it, you father and son, and Hashimoto's approach, one of them counts as one, no one can escape!"

After that, Charlie Wade cleared his throat and said, "I shouldn't be adept at your Moore family matters, so I asked Lord Mooore to come out as a testimony!"

At this point, Charlie Wade snapped his fingers and said loudly: "Come on, please, Lord Mooore!"

Chapter 2187

Originally, Theodore and Rueben father and son were already in a nervous breakdown. Hearing that Charlie Wade was about to invite Lord Mooore, the two of them trembled violently as if they were struck by lightning.

At this time, the common subtext in the hearts of the father and son is: "Isn't the old man already dementia? He can't even control his bowel and urine. Why did Charlie Wade get him here at this time?"

Theodore twitched in his heart, and thought to himself desperately:

"Could it be...could it be...has the old thing been restored?! This...isn't it all over?!"

Just thinking about it, Oscar, the chief steward of the Moore family, walked in with Lord Mooore.

At this time, Lord Mooore, with a vigorous body and a cold complexion, did not seem to have Alzheimer's?

Theodore and Rueben were even more frightened and flustered. They couldn't understand in any case. Why did Lord Mooore, who was still in the hospital this morning and peeing his pants in front of them, is now back? !

As soon as Lord Mooore entered the report hall, he stared at the father and son Theodore and Rueben with fierce eyes, and angrily reprimanded: "Asshole! Do you two think you can cover the sky with your hands?! You dared to murder and even dared to give me poison. Do you still have any humanity?!"

Theodore's scared soul was not possessed, he knelt all the way to Lord Mooore, crying and said, "Dad...I was wrong, Dad...I am the damn, my ghost has lost my mind, I really know it is wrong. Go! Please forgive me once, Dad!"

Lord Mooore angrily scolded: "Spare you? You still have the face to let me spare you?! Did you know that in the family law established by my ancestors of the Moore family, what you committed was a capital crime!" Theodore cried and said, "Dad, I did make a big mistake, but I was also forced to be helpless!"

"You fart!"

Lord Mooore roared, He even raised his hand and slapped Theodore! Theodore covered his face and cried: "Dad! Think about it, I am your eldest son! The eldest son! According to our ancestors' rules since ancient times, the eldest son should inherit the family, but why don't you let me be Moore Patriarch? Why let Jasmine a yellow-haired girl be the Patriarch of the Moore Family? If you let me be Patriarch of the Moore Family, how could I make such a big mistake?"

The old man Moore angrily attacked his heart, raised his hand and slapped Theodore again: "You bastard! Up to now, I still find all kinds of excuses. If it weren't for Master Wade's generous help and strategizing, Jasmine would have been killed by both of you. Yes! I was poisoned by you to become Alzheimer's too! Do you think you can justify this matter?"

In order to protect himself, Rueben cried and said to Lord Mooore:

"Grandpa, I always follow my father's instructions. He arranged everything for me to do this. Please see that I am your eldest son and grandson. Forgive me. one time....."

Grandpa Moore pointed to Rueben, and said angrily: "Cheeky, unaccountable, falling into trouble, betraying his father for glory! How come my Moore family is out of a scum like you!"

As he said, he looked at the father and son, and said coldly, "You two are the scum of the Moore family. You must be dealt with according to family law if you commit such a serious crime! It's useless for anyone to intercede!"

Afterwards, he looked at Oscar beside him and blurted out, "Oscar, you have been in the Moore family for many years. Tell me, according to the family law of the Moore family, how should these two people deal with?!" Oscar sternly said: "According to the first article of the Moore family's family law, kill those who crippled brothers and feet! Those who try to kill their father, kill!"

Rueben almost fainted in shock, and cried, "Grandpa! It is a society ruled by law now, not a feudal society back then! You have no right to kill us! If you kill us, you will be shot yourself!"

Theodore also choked up and said, "Dad, if you don't want to spare us, then send us to the judicial department! Let the judicial department try it impartially. No matter how many years they have been sentenced, we will recognize it..."

Theodore knew very well in his heart that even if he and his son's crimes were prosecuted, they would never touch the boundary of the death penalty.

He secretly thought: "After all, my son and I didn't kill people with our own hands. The real killers were the murderers that Hashimoto Jinxian found in Japan. "

Chapter 2188

"At that time, if I can actively compensate the families of the three victims and get their understanding, the court will definitely lower the sentence on us, father and son, as appropriate!"

"Just pay him twenty to thirty million for one family. It's impossible for one family to pay fifty million! The family members who paid the compensation can wake up with a dream, and they will actively issue a letter of understanding and help us father and son intercede with the court!"

Lord Mooore also knew very well in his heart that now it is not a feudal society anymore, and the family law of the feudal period is definitely not applicable now.

Therefore, he could not really let people kill Theodore, Rueben and his son in front of so many people. Moreover, step back ten thousand steps. Regardless of the calculation of the law, Lord Mooore did not do anything about it.

He really hates the father and son. However, the blood of the Moore family is flowing through the father and son. The Moore family was originally not prosperous enough. If he really killed them, let's not say that he couldn't bear it, and he would have no face to face his ancestors after death.

In fact, this is the case with parents all over the world. Even if you know your child is a ferocious wolf, you can't wait to cut off your own flesh to feed it. How can you be willing to kill him yourself?

The old man Moore was very entangled in his heart. At a certain moment, he even thought that he could simply hand over the two people to the judicial organs, and let the judicial organs sentence them to ten or twenty years, or even indefinitely, which would be regarded as killing the people.

However, he immediately thought of Charlie Wade again.

He thought to himself: "This time, Master Wade did it because of Jasmine's face."

"If I can't satisfy Master Wade with the result of my handling of this matter, doesn't it mean that I have offended Master Wade?!"

Thinking of this, he immediately turned to look at Charlie Wade, and said respectfully, "Master Wade! The Moore family suffered from these two evil obstacles. It is all thanks to you to turn the tide, otherwise I, Lord Mooore and my granddaughter Jasmine, would be dead. There is no place for burial, and now these two evil obstacles are here. If you want to kill or cut, I will listen to you, Master Wade!"

When Theodore heard this, he kowtows to Charlie Wade, crying and said, "Master Wade, please hold your hands high and hand over our father and son to the judicial authorities!"

Rueben also cried bitterly and pleaded: "Master Wade, our father and son are not worth your time wasting, so you can hand us over to the judiciary and let the law sanction us..."

Rueben also wanted to understand in his heart that although the sentence was painful, as long as he could live is the best.

At that time, I and my dad can spend more money, clear up the relationship, and get some special care in prison. In this way, life will not be too sad...

Charlie Wade smiled lightly at this time, looked at Jasmine, and asked, "Jasmine, what do you think?"

Chapter 2189

Jasmine's heart was also full of entanglements at this time. She naturally hated Theodore and Rueben.

However, I really want to let myself decide their life and death, I really don't want to kill them. On the one hand, it is because they are all relatives after all and are related by blood; On the other hand, I was also worried that doing things too terribly would make Grandpa Moore sad.

Jasmine knows her grandfather very well. She knows that grandfather is strict, and at this time she also hates her uncle and cousin very much. However, she also knew that in Grandpa's heart, blood was always thicker than water, and he would not really hope to punish the uncle and cousin with death.

Thinking of this, she looked at Charlie Wade and said sincerely: "Master Wade, although they have done a lot of wrong things, they are from the Moore family after all and are my blood relatives. I still hope that you can keep them alive... .."

As soon as this was said, all three of the people on the scene let out a sigh of relief.

In addition to Theodore and Rueben, there is also Lord Mooore, the father of Moore. Although Theodore and Rueben need not say much, for them, Jasmine's words are tantamount to spare their lives. For Lord Mooore, he was really afraid that Jasmine would kill the father and son because of hatred.

But in front of Charlie Wade, he didn't dare to make it clear that he wanted to protect the lives of the father and son, so the life and death of the father and son were completely in the hands of Jasmine.

Now, hearing Jasmine say this, he was naturally relaxed.

Theodore excitedly bowed his head towards Jasmine, choked up and said, "Jasmine...Your grace of not killing, uncle will always remember..."

Rueben also cried and said, "Jasmine, thank you for your kindness..."

Charlie Wade had also anticipated this result long ago, and looked at Theodore and Rueben, who were full of survivors, and said calmly: "Since Jasmine said that I want to leave you a dog, I naturally meant to respect her."

Speaking of this, Charlie Wade said sternly: "But as the saying goes, living sins are inevitable, and death sins are hard to forgive. Although you two can save your dog's life, you still have to accept sufficient punishment!"

Theodore hurriedly said, "Master Wade! Rueben and I are willing to go to the police station to surrender now and let the law decide everything!" Rueben also nodded again and again: "Yeah, Master Wade, my dad and I will surrender now! Now go!"

Charlie Wade sneered and said: "What you two think is very beautiful. Let the two of you surrender and win you a plot to surrender. This way, the sentence will naturally be more lenient."

Theodore hurriedly said: "Master Wade, you have a large number of adults. Even if we have a plot to surrender, we will be sentenced to at least ten years."

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "Forget it, don't surrender, there is no need to solve it through legal channels."

When Grandpa Moore heard this, he asked, "Master Wade, what do you mean?"

Charlie Wade said: "I can't believe the father and son, even if they are sent to prison, they might still threaten Jasmine's life in the future, so I thought of a different solution, which can keep them. Life, and can put an end to their threat to Jasmine."

Chapter 2190

Theodore asked nervously, "Master Wade, you...what is the solution you said..."

Charlie Wade said loudly: "Theodore, I plan to send you two far away and send you to a strange place so that you can never come back again."

When Theodore and Rueben heard this, they thought of the Weaver family's father and son together in their minds for the first time...

Because of offending Charlie Wade, the father and son are still at the foot of Golim Mountain.

This winter is extremely cold. The temperature at the foot of Golim Mountain is -20 to 30 degrees below zero or even lower. I really don't know how the father and son survived until now.

Thinking of the harsh and harsh environment at the foot of Golim Mountain, Rueben cried and said, "Master Wade, I beg you to raise your hands and let us go to jail. We really don't want to go to the cold place of Golim Mountain... .."

Charlie Wade sneered, "Don't worry, I won't let you go to Golim Mountain. I have other arrangements for you."

After that, he said loudly, "Isaac, come in."

Outside the door, Cameron Isaac immediately stepped forward and asked respectfully, "Master Wade, what do you want?"

Charlie Wade said, "Isaac, I heard that you invested in a diamond mine in Africa before?"

"Yes." Cameron Isaac nodded and said, "I did invest in a diamond mine, and that diamond mine is in the Lion Rock of Africa."

Charlie Wade asked him, "How is the environment over there?"

Cameron Isaac laughed and said, "That ghost place is in West Africa, one of the least developed countries in the world. It has been ranked first in the world for many consecutive years. It is so poor that you can't even imagine..."

"Moreover, the climatic conditions of that ghost place are also very bad. It belongs to a tropical monsoon climate. The temperature is very high all year round. The highest temperature is above 40 degrees, and the lowest temperature is 15 degrees. It is wet and hot. It is said that there are eight out of ten in men's trouser legs. Eczema occurs, and that ghost place is rife with mosquitoes and all kinds of infectious diseases. If it weren't for the diamond mines in that place, I'm afraid it would be over!"

When Theodore and Rueben heard this, they were already shaking with fear. Charlie Wade said with a smile: "According to you, this Lion Mountain is really a good place for distribution and exile!"

Having said that, he pointed to Theodore and Rueben and his son, and said with a smile: "Well, old Cameron Isaac, you send the father and son to Lion Mountain overnight, arrange to your diamond mine, and let him go to the river with the local workers. Pick up diamonds in the house, take care of food and shelter, but never give them a penny of wages. In addition, their food and housing conditions are exactly the same as those of local workers. At the same time, they will be sent to watch them and let them in the next twenty years, They must never come back again. As for whether they can come back in 20 years, it depends on their performance in these 20 years."

As soon as these words came out, Theodore and Rueben almost fainted. Theodore cried and said, "Master Wade, Master Wade, please spare your life! The ghost place of Lion Mountain, our father and I will die of dysentery or other infectious diseases within a few months at most. It would be better to shoot us directly. Forget it."

Cameron Isaac smiled and said, "Lord Mooore, don't worry. Although the natural and humanistic conditions in Africa are indeed very backward, we Chinese entrepreneurs who invest in Africa are still very humane. We have professional doctors on every construction site. , The stock of medicine is also very sufficient, which can definitely guarantee your health."

Rueben wailed loudly: "I don't want to go to Africa, I don't want to go to Lion Rock, I don't want to go to that kind of ghost place to dig diamonds! Please, send me to prison! I am a criminal, let the law punish me Okay, please..."

Theodore also kept begging at this time: "Master Wade, please do well, let us surrender!"

Charlie Wade sneered, "Do you think you still have the right to choose? It's just a dream!"

Immediately, he looked at Cameron Isaac and ordered: "Isaac, let your subordinates take them down immediately, and arrange a plane to take them to Lion Mountain as soon as possible. It is best to leave in the afternoon!"

Chapter 2191

When Cameron Isaac heard the order, he immediately blurted out without hesitation: "Okay Master Wade, I will arrange a plane to take the two of them to Lion Rock. When that time, they will be assigned to guard them 24 hours a day, and they will never have a chance to escape! "

Charlie Wade nodded in satisfaction, pointed to Hashimoto Kinxian next to him, and said, "By the way, send this Japanese friend over."

When Hashimoto heard this first, he was so frightened that he wept bitterly, and pleaded with sobs: "Mr. Wade, this matter was completely done by the father and son named Moore. The two of them are the masterminds. I'm just a job. You can't say anything to send me to Lion Rock, please let me go!"

Charlie Wade sneered, "Hashimoto Jinxian, do you think you are not the mastermind, so you don't have to be responsible? I tell you, your nature is as bad as the two of them!"

After that, Charlie Wade told Cameron Isaac again: "Isaac, after this Hashimoto arrived at the Lion Rock first, all treatments are treated the same as Theodore and Rueben. There must be no partiality, understand?"

Cameron Isaac nodded without hesitation and said, "Master Wade, don't worry, I must make the arrangements properly!"

Charlie Wade turned his head to look at Lord Mooore, the old man, and asked, "Master, are you satisfied with what I do with me?"

Lord Mooore spent his entire life in the mall with a knife and decisive action. When he learned that Theodore and Rueben were going to attack him, he secretly warned himself that once this matter was turned around by himself, he would never relent.

But when he really reached the point of view, he realized that he still couldn't be completely unfeeling.

After all, they are his own sons and grandsons. If they really kill them, it would be a family tragedy from a white-haired person to a black-haired person.

As the saying goes, tiger poison does not eat children. Although there have been sons killing their fathers over the years, few fathers killed their sons.

The same is true for Lord Mooore. Although life is boundless, but after all, it is hard to escape the word of layman. What is a layman? The layman is the one who has endless passions and desires. At the critical moment, the unceasing affection of the flesh and blood is the trouble of Lord Mooore. It was precisely because of this that he could only hand over these two people to Charlie Wade.

Now, Charlie Wade decided to send them to Lion Mountain. Although the conditions were extremely difficult, in the final analysis, they still had their lives left. This also let Lord Mooore breathe a sigh of relief.

So, he hurriedly said to Charlie Wade respectfully: "Master Wade, no matter what decision you make, I don't have any comments!"

Charlie Wade nodded and asked Jasmine again, "Jasmine, do you have any comments? If you have any comments, just ask them."

Jasmine also hurriedly said, "Master Wade, Jasmine has no objection, everything is up to you!"

Charlie Wade said: "Since everyone has no objections, then follow this, Isaac, let people take the three of them down, don't be an eyesore here."

Cameron Isaac immediately ordered several people in black: "Take the three of them under strict supervision! No mistakes are allowed, do you understand?"

Chapter 2192

Everyone hurriedly said, "I understand!"

After that, he escorted these three people out.

Theodore and Rueben have been crying and begging for mercy. Theodore turned to look at Mrs. Moore and cried: "Dad.. please, for the sake of our father and son, help me and Master Wade beg for mercy. Master, please spare me! Otherwise I might die in Lion Rock, Dad!"

Old man Moore felt a pain in his heart.

Charlie Wade said, let them stay in Lion Mountain for 20 years. Theodore has more than 50 years this year. When he went to the extremely underdeveloped and impoverished area of Lion Mountain, he might not be able to survive for 20 years.

It is possible that he would have died in Lion Rock before the 20-year deadline.

So now this look may be the last time the father and son looked at each other in their lives.

Rueben's legs were limp at this time and he was dragged out by others. He pleaded bitterly: "Grandpa...I'm only in my twenties this year. I don't want the best time of my life to be confined to Lion Rock. Please help me...Grandpa!"

Lord Mooore's expression was struggling and tangled, Charlie Wade shouted sharply at this time: "Give me all their mouths!"

Several people in black immediately gagged their mouths with something to make them speechless, and the scene immediately became much quieter.

Then, all three were dragged out.

Seeing this, Lord Mooore sighed deeply, knowing that there was no possibility of maneuvering, as if he was more than ten years old at once. Charlie Wade had a panoramic view of his performance, shook his head lightly, and said loudly, "Master Moore, you understand the truth of raising tigers better than I do. You should not only consider yourself, but also Jasmine. , If the troubles of these two people are not eliminated, someday in the future after you leave, the two of them must be Jasmine's greatest threat!"

Having said that, Charlie Wade smiled slightly and continued: "As long as I, Charlie Wade, will not let the two of them really threaten Jasmine. That is to say, if the two of them remain unresolved, they will treat Jasmine again in the future. When I start, I will not let them go. So, speaking of it, imprisoning them in Lion Rock is not to protect Jasmine, but to keep them alive. Otherwise, once the moths catch the fire, they will become ash!"

Lord Mooore was stunned. He immediately looked at Jasmine and hurriedly said to Charlie Wade, "Master Wade, you are right! Let them live and die in Lion Rock!"

After all, Lord Mooore looked at Jasmine again and said, "Jasmine, since you have come back now, the position of chairman of the Moore Group is naturally yours. From now on, you will continue to preside over the affairs of the Moore Group. !"

Jasmine nodded respectfully: "Good grandpa, I got it."

Grandpa Moore instructed: "Jasmine, grandpa doesn't ask you to take the Moore family group into a fierce fight. As long as you can stabilize the status quo and prevent the Moore family group from going downhill, grandpa will be very satisfied, so you don't want to do it again. Let's talk about transnational cooperation. I would rather Moore Group not open up any overseas markets or cooperate with any overseas companies, and I don't want you to fall into a dangerous situation again, understand?"

Jasmine nodded lightly, and said, "Grandpa, don't worry, I will definitely pay attention to personal safety in the future. In addition, I think we can continue to cooperate with overseas companies. There is no need to throw rats away because of this incident. ."

After speaking, she paused slightly, and then said: "This time, Master Wade helped me talk about Nippon Steel's cooperation. Nippon Steel's Chairman Shinwa Watanabe has signed a cooperation agreement with me in Japan. The content of the agreement Yes, the two parties will establish a joint venture to build a factory and invest at a 50-50 ratio, but Nippon Steel is willing to give 60% of the shares to our Moore Group."

"What?!" As soon as this was said, everyone at the scene was dumbfounded and speechless.

Nippon Steel has always been very strong in foreign cooperation. They are even reluctant to give up 51% of the controlling stake. Even if the Moore Group gives 60% of the income to Nippon Steel, Nippon Steel is still unwilling. Give up controlling rights.

Therefore, in the eyes of everyone on the scene, Nippon Steel is the most difficult bone to chew.

However, Jasmine said that Nippon Steel is now not only willing to give up the controlling rights, but also willing to give up 10% of the shares to the Moore Group. This is simply a dream!

Chapter 2193

Lord Mooore originally thought that Jasmine went to Japan to discuss cooperation this time, and encountered the cooperation of the Moore family and outsiders. In order to prevent her from encountering such danger, he would rather Jasmine give up the plan to expand overseas and cooperate with overseas.

However, he didn't expect Jasmine to get such a generous contract from Nippon Steel.

Nippon Steel is a leader in the global steel industry. In this industry, their right to speak is extremely high. For companies like the Moore Group, if they want to cooperate with others, they have to rush to ask. Not only have to ask for it, but also prepare the land and all local relations, and then invite Nippon Steel to come and cooperate.

This feeling is tantamount to tidying up a bedroom in one's own house, and then rushing to other people's homes and asking them to stay for a few days.

Attitude cannot be said to be unhumble.

Generally speaking, the more unequal cooperation like this, the more unequal treaties must be signed.

One of the most common unequal treaties is to give a lot of money and get a small head, and let others make a small money and get a big head.

However, who could have imagined that Jasmine would have subverted the balance between the Moore Group and Nippon Steel, allowing Nippon Steel to pay a lot of money and take a small head. This was something that no one had ever imagined before.

In the board of directors, many people think this is a fantasy.

However, they didn't dare directly question Jasmine, the chairman, so they could only whisper to each other.

Soon, an old director stood up and said, "Chairman, as far as I know, Nippon Steel has never been willing to sacrifice the controlling stake. Will the other party fulfill the contract you mentioned? Or, Are there any hidden terms in this contract, or a more demanding gambling agreement?"

In fact, contract traps are indeed very common.

Many established capitalists like to set their opponents or partners in the contract.

Many entrepreneurs get generous investment from capitalists when they start their own businesses, and they are determined to do a big job.

Well done, naturally everyone is happy.

But if you don't do it well, it will be a big trouble.

Some investors require the investee to add an unlimited joint and several liability in the contract, not to mention that unlimited joint liability has only six characters, but the lack of power behind it can make the investee ruin.

Because once the unlimited joint and several liability is signed, if the transaction does not do well and loses money, the investor has the right to demand that the investee pays his own pocket and compensate all the investment money.

For example, John Ledger, who used to be a mobile phone, signed unlimited joint and several liability, so after the failure of his business, he still owed up to 400 million in debt.

There are also many founders of companies who, because they cannot compensate investors, were eventually driven out of the companies they had worked so hard to create, and even went bankrupt and went to jail. Therefore, the directors are also worried about whether there are any similar gambling clauses in the agreement signed by Jasmine.

Jasmine didn't explain much. She took out a contract from her backpack and said, "This is the original contract signed by Nippon Steel's Chairman Shinwa Watanabe with me. What is the problem."

The old director stretched out his hand to accept the contract, and a crowd of other people waited hurriedly around.

Even the old man Moore couldn't hold back a bit, and stepped forward to see what happened.

Chapter 2194

When everyone saw the contract, everyone's eyes became bigger and bigger. This is indeed a formal contract, and the terms are clear and clear, there are no ambiguous marginal terms, and there is no hidden business risk content.

At the end, there is indeed the official seal of Nippon Steel and the autograph of Watanabe Shinka. It is indeed a true and valid contract.

At this moment, everyone couldn't help but be pleased.

The old director excitedly said, "Oh, I have never seen Nippon Steel sign a contract with such a big concession! This can be said to be unprecedented! The face of our Chairman Moore is really great! A face, at least worth two or three billion! Even higher!"

Others also agreed: "Yes, Chairman Moore won such a favorable contract from Nippon Steel, which is almost unheard of in the history of Nippon Steel. If we announce this information to the outside world, the stock price will definitely be fast. Pull up!"

Someone looked at the time and blurted out: "The news of Chairman Moore's safe return has probably been released by the media. This was originally a good news. Now there is this Nippon Steel contract. Announced to the public, those are two big benefits! When our stock resumes trading, it will definitely raise its daily limit for three or four consecutive times! The market value of the group can increase by 30 to 40%!"

"Chairman Moore, you have really taken the Moore Group forward this time!"

Jasmine said very seriously at this time: "The reason why Nippon Steel's cooperation can be negotiated and the large preferential terms can be obtained is entirely because Master Wade helped match the bridge. Nippon Steel's chairman Watanabe Shinka also completely agreed. The agreement was signed because of Master Wade's face, so everything is dependent on Master Wade."

After that, she looked at Charlie Wade and said sincerely: "Master Wade, everything is thanks to you this time. If it weren't for you, I would have died in Japan; if it weren't for you, grandpa would have been poisoned. It ruined the brain; not to mention that you can still get such favorable conditions as Nippon Steel... Jasmine is really grateful..."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "You don't need to be so polite, these are things that friends should do, just a little effort."

After saying this, Charlie Wade stood up and said, "Jasmine, you just came back. There are a lot of things in the group waiting for you to decide. I won't bother you anymore. It just happened to be out a few days ago. I have to go back soon. Home."

When Jasmine heard this, she immediately said with dismay: "Master Wade...I wonder if it is not convenient for you to have lunch together? You have done so much for us. We have not had the opportunity to thank you very much."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Didn't you say that you don't need to be so polite? You can do your work first. You can eat anytime you want to eat. We can make an appointment when you are done with your work."

Lord Mooore also said to the side: "Yes Jasmine, Master Wade has left home for a few days for you, so he should go back soon and let his family rest assured."

Jasmine nodded, "Master Wade, then I will send you out..."

"No need." Charlie Wade said, "Hurry up and continue to touch everyone about work while everyone is here. Now that you are back, Nippon Steel's cooperation has also been discussed. It is reasonable to say that one day should be held. The press conference is now, and we should hurry up to prepare and strive to increase our influence. It will benefit you and the Moore Group."

Jasmine nodded gratefully and said, "Okay Master Wade, I know, then you go slowly, I will arrange a banquet another day, and you will definitely come over by then..."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Well, I will definitely come then."

After that, he waved his hand to Lord Mooore again: "Lord Mooore, I'm leaving now."

Lord Mooore hurriedly bowed deeply and said respectfully, "Master Wade, you go slowly..."

Charlie Wade stepped out of the report hall, and both Cameron Isaac and Don Albertt waited respectfully outside the door.

Seeing him come out, Cameron Isaac hurried forward and said in a low voice: "Master, the car is ready, should I take you home or?"

Charlie Wade said lightly: "Well, go home."

Don Albertt, who was on the side, also ran over and asked for instructions: "Master Wade, your aunt has been in the village in the city for the ninth day. For these two days, she has been crying and crying all the time to go back, causing the neighbors in the village to call 110 to complain. It's been several rounds, do you want to let her go?"

Chapter 2195

When Charlie Wade heard this, his whole person was slightly astonished, and asked, "Why haven't you let her go after nine days? Didn't you say it for seven days?"

Don Albertt said with some embarrassment, "Master Wade, I think you have to nod my side to let people go. I'm not good at advocating..."

Cameron Isaac exclaimed, "Don Albertt, why haven't you let go? Miss this person is very temperamental. If you don't let her go when the time comes, be careful that she turns around and retaliates against you!" Don Albertt smiled, scratched his head and said, "Um...I didn't think, Master Wade had been saving Miss Moore in Japan a few days ago, and then he took a boat back all the way back. It must be very busy, so I didn't I called Master Wade to ask about this. I want to tell you when you come back."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Okay, then let her go."

Don Albertt hurriedly said, "Okay, Master Wade, I will make arrangements."

Cameron Isaac said to Charlie Wade at this time: "Master, I think you'd better go and tell the eldest lady that it is your intention to delay her release for two days, otherwise, once she returns to Eastcliff, she will definitely find Don Albertt for revenge."

Don Albertt said without hesitation: "Get revenge on me? Let her let her go! I am the one who died once, Don Albertt, I won't be afraid of her!"

Cameron Isaac waved her hand and said solemnly: "You don't understand the eldest lady's style of acting. She is a person who bears special grudges and has various methods. If the young master offends her, she certainly can't do anything to the young master, but if you offend her With her, then she is not only looking for trouble for you, it is very likely that even your family and friends will not let it go."

Hearing this, Don Albertt suddenly became a little nervous.

But he didn't want Charlie Wade to look down on him, so he bit his head and said, "It's okay, I am not scared, Don Albertt!"

Cameron Isaac couldn't help sighing.

He knew Cynthia's character too well.

Charlie Wade had originally let Cynthia stay here for seven days, but Don Albertt let her stay for nine days, then she would definitely be very strong.

Charlie Wade has the strength and the old man is partial. She certainly dare not do anything to Charlie Wade, but she will never let Don Albertt go.

Otherwise, the anger she received in Aurouss Hilll would have no place to spread.

Therefore, out of concern for Don Albertt, he suggested that Charlie Wade help him carry the pot.

After all, Charlie Wade had offended Cynthia a long time ago, and Charlie Wade's mother-in-law, Elaine Ma, gave Cynthia a beating. With such a big hatred here, it would seem trivial to detain Corran for two more days.

Charlie Wade laughed at this time and said, "Anyway, if there are too many lice, don't bite, I should go and meet my aunt myself!"

When Don Albertt heard this, he knew that Charlie Wade was going to block this for himself, and he was immediately grateful.

So, he hurriedly bowed and said respectfully: "I'm sorry Master Wade, Don Albertt is causing you trouble."

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "Eh, don't say that! After all, you are all doing things for me, how can you say that it is causing me trouble."

After all, Charlie Wade said to Cameron Isaac, "Isaac, prepare the car, let's go together!"

"Good master!"

Cynthia was cursing his mother in the rental house at this time.

"Charlie Wade! You bastard who speaks no words! Seven days have passed, why didn't you let me out!"

Chapter 2196

"You have Charlie Wade's dog legs! Don't let me go out, right? When I go out, I will settle accounts with you one by one!"

"Do you really think I'm muddled? Quickly let me out!!!"

Cynthia became more excited as he scolded, and coughed non-stop: "Cough cough cough...cough cough cough...If you don't let me out, I will turn around and throw you all into the Yangtze River to feed the fish. Go! I want to kill all of you one by one, so that you can never live beyond life!"

No wonder Cynthia was hysterical. For nine days, living in such a place where the lowest-end population lived, she had completely collapsed.

In addition, Aurouss Hill is located to the south of the Yangtze River, and the winter is humid. The rental house she lives in has no air conditioning or heating. Every day, she can only wipe tears on the bed wrapped in a damp quilt.

From the first second of moving in, she hurriedly escaped after expecting the expiration of the seven days.

Unexpectedly, after seven days, Don Albertt was unwilling to let her go. For Cynthia, this was not only anger, but also sheer fear.

She was afraid that Charlie Wade would regret it all at once, the seven-day period would be invalidated, and then would not give herself a clear date, so she kept putting herself under house arrest.

Therefore, she screamed like crazy every day, just to attract the attention of neighbors around her, to attract attention, to put pressure on Charlie Wade and Charlie Wade's dog legs, and let them release themselves as soon as possible.

However, she didn't know that Don Albertt had moved all the neighbors around yesterday.

This self-built building, including the landlord, has a total of 30 residents. Now, except for Cynthia, everyone is enjoying it in the free five-star hotel.

Therefore, Cynthia's yelling, no one paid any attention to it.

Until her voice was almost hoarse, no one paid any attention to her, not even the neighbors or police officers who came to ask questions.

Cynthia, who was extremely depressed, immediately took out her mobile phone and sent a video message to his father, Lord Wade, who was far away in Eastcliff.

As soon as the video came through, Cynthia cried and said, "Dad! You let that bastard Charlie Wade let me go... I really can't stand it anymore... Don't let me go. I just die here...uuuuuu..."

Lord Wade sighed helplessly in the video screen.

He knows Cynthia's character very well, knowing that Cynthia is absolutely impossible to commit suicide or self-harm, so he said seriously: "Cynthia! Don't be so excited! Isn't it just two days after that? Be patient, Charlie Wade I'm sure I won't keep you locked up, maybe I will let you back in these two days."

Cynthia cried and said, "Dad! You don't know how I came over these nine days! When I grew up, when did I suffer such a crime, Dad! If you don't go to that bastard Charlie Wade, he won't let me go now, tomorrow It may not be released. What if he keeps keeping me here?"

As she said, she pleaded again, "Dad, I beg you, just give him a call and let him let me go back!"

Lord Wade said seriously: "Cynthia, I finally asked Orrin to persuade Charlie Wade and promised to come back to participate in the ancestor worship ceremony on Spring Festival. This matter is extremely important to the Wade family. There can be no difference in what you say. If it is because of you, As a result of Charlie Wade changing his mind again, that is definitely a big loss for the Wade Family!"

Cynthia understood now.

It turned out that the old man was unwilling to put pressure on Charlie Wade, mainly because he was unwilling to offend Charlie Wade for himself! When he thought that his father was unreliable, Cynthia was very sad, and cried, "Dad! What if Charlie Wade doesn't let me go, then what should I do?"

The old man hurriedly said, "Oh, Cynthia, if Charlie Wade doesn't let you go on Spring Festival, Dad will definitely ask him for an explanation." Corran collapsed immediately: "Dad! Spring Festival is going to April, and it will be nearly two months away!"

Chapter 2197

Cynthia didn't want to continue this kind of hard days.

If you really have to wait until the Spring Festival to go back, it is no different from killing her.

Lord Wade couldn't help but comforted: "Okay, Cynthia, just take your temper and wait a few more days. If Charlie Wade is not willing to let you go, I will call him."

Cynthia naturally had 10,000 grievances in his heart, so she didn't dare to say more.

She secretly thought in her heart: "I can see it now. In the eyes of my father, Charlie Wade is the most important person in the Wade family." "After all, once he really marries Stefanie, Orrin's daughter, then he will be one of the heirs of the Sun family's trillion-dollar fortune. This will greatly help the Wade family."

"Under this situation, how can my married daughter be compared to Charlie Wade in terms of importance in the eyes of my father?"

"Hey, it seems I can only break my teeth and swallow in my stomach."

So she could only say angrily: "Good dad, I know... Then I will wait patiently for a few more days. If Charlie Wade doesn't say let me go in three or five days, then you But be sure to call him and talk..."

As she said, her nose sore, and she sobbed.

Lord Wade comforted: "Okay, don't worry, three days, if Charlie Wade doesn't let you go after three days, Dad will call him himself!"

Cynthia nodded, choked up and said, "Dad, then I'll hang up first..."

"Okay, hang up."

With the termination of the video call, the tears in Cynthia's eyes could no longer stop, pattering down.

At this moment, I suddenly heard a knock on the door.

Cynthia jumped up from the bed, and ran to the door in few steps and pulled the door open.

Before she could see the people outside, she cursed unbearably, "You bastards, when are you going to let me out?"

Charlie Wade looked at Cynthia, who had a dull panel and swollen eye bags, frowned, and said, "Auntie, the weather in Aurouss Hilll is so humid and cold. You have been here for nine days. Haven't this anger been suppressed?"

When Cynthia saw that it was Charlie Wade, he immediately asked annoyed:

"Charlie Wade! You said you would let me leave for seven days, but my eyes have been locked here for nine days by your people, why didn't you let me go? !"

After all, she saw Don Albertt standing next to Charlie Wade and angrily reprimanded: "It's this bastard, who has detained me for two days in private, it's damned!"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "I meant to keep you for two more days."
"You mean?!"

Cynthia asked indignantly: "You obviously said 7 days, why turned into 9 days? Why?"

Charlie Wade snorted and said faintly, "Are you my aunt? It's not easy to come here, how can you leave in only 7 days? Whatever you say, you can stay for two extra days. Are you right?"

Cynthia was about to explode with Charlie Wade's scornful attitude, and angrily reprimanded: "Charlie Wade! You don't want to be fake with me! I don't know you yet? I tell you, you better not Do something with me, let me go back quickly!"

Charlie Wade shook his head lightly, sighed and said, "It seems that in nine days, you can't suppress your anger at all. Eastcliff's sky is dry and dry. If you are so angry, you will definitely be more serious when you go back. According to me, You should continue to stay in Aurouss Hilll for a few more days to completely extinguish the anger before leaving!"

After that, he immediately said to Don Albertt next to him: "Don Albertt!"

Chapter 2198

Don Albertt hurriedly folded his hands: "Master Wade, what are your orders?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "My aunt still needs to stay in Aurouss Hilll for a few more days. During this time, I have to trouble you to continue to watch her strictly. Everything is the same as before."

Don Albertt hurriedly asked, "Master Wade, how many days did you say...how many days did you tell?"

Charlie Wade thought for a while and laughed: "So, let's go for 7 days. It will be a week to make up the whole account. If these 7 days are not enough, it proves that my aunt is too angry, then we have to give her. Here is a big treatment."

Don Albertt smiled and said, "Good Master Wade, I know!"

What Charlie Wade thought at this time was: "You, Cynthia, who thinks you are Wade's parents and daughter, dare to come to Aurouss Hilll to be a blessing like a queen mother, and you still don't repent. If you are stubborn, don't blame my subordinates. Ruthless, I don't believe that today I can't cure you!"

Hearing Charlie Wade's words, Cynthia's face instantly turned pale! Her tone instantly softened, and she begged with sobs, "Charlie Wade! You can't do this! I have been tortured for the past nine days so that I don't look like a human being. Do you know what life I've had these nine days? Have you eaten? It doesn't matter if you use oil or water, there is no facial cleanser, no mask, not even an eye cream..."

"My current panel is in poor condition. It will take at least one month to bring it back. If you shut me down for another seven days, then my panel will be over..."

Charlie Wade put away the smile on his face and said solemnly, "My good aunt, you still don't understand why I want you to stay in Aurouss Hilll and stay here!"

"I let you stay here, so that you can put away your temper and learn to be a human being with your tail sandwiched. If you can do it, I will let you go; if you can't, I will let you stay until you can do it. End!"

"As for whether your panel is good or bad, what does it have to do with me?"

Cynthia was extremely resentful, but on the surface she still begged with aggrieved expression: "Charlie Wade, I am your aunt, we are family, how can you treat me like this..."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Oh, you are starting to treat me as family now?? Why didn't you treat me as family when you came from Eastcliff to tell me? When you ran to my mother-in-law to speak out, why? Didn't you consider me family?"

Cynthia was extremely embarrassed, and quibbled: "I...I'm also doing it for you..."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "So you did everything for my own good!"

Cynthia said flatly, "Oh, of course! I'm your aunt, I'm not good for you, for whom?"

Charlie Wade clapped his hands and smiled: "That's a coincidence, aunt, I am doing this now for your own good! You must not let down my filial piety to you!"

After all, he looked at Cynthia with a serious expression.

Continue to say: "I now give you two choices!"

"The first one, you honestly stay here for another seven days!"

"In these seven days, you are not allowed to scold people, you must not go crazy, you are not allowed to chirp and yell here!"

"If you behave well, after seven days, I will let people let you go!"

After listening to Cynthia, he hurriedly asked, "What about the second choice?"

Charlie Wade said coldly, "The second option is to stay here for another month! In this month, if you want to swear, you will swear. If you want to go crazy, you will go mad. Scream, I'll look at my mood after a month!"

"If I am in a good mood, then you can go straight back."

"But if I am in a bad mood, I am embarrassed, I may have to keep you for a while and do my best as a landlord!"

Chapter 2199

Cynthia really took it.

Although she still hated Charlie Wade in her heart, after Charlie Wade's words, she did not dare to continue to bargain with Charlie Wade.

She has realized that Charlie Wade's character and acting style cannot be suppressed by herself.

In addition, Aurouss Hilll is Charlie Wade's territory, and the old man is also facing Charlie Wade now, he has no other way except forbearance. If you can't afford it, you can't afford it.

So, she could only suppress all the anger and dissatisfaction in her heart, and honestly said: "Okay...I choose the first one..."

Charlie Wade nodded, and then said to Don Albertt, "Don Albertt, you have heard it all. In the next seven days, you must have your people strictly supervise me. If there are more yelling and screaming, Let me know as soon as possible!"

Don Albertt hurriedly stood up straight and said loudly, "Master Wade, don't worry, I must be watched carefully!"

Charlie Wade gave a hum, and then said, "If she performs well, as soon as the seven days are up, she will be taken to the airport directly, and there is no need to specifically ask me for instructions."

"Good Master Wade!"

Charlie Wade looked at Cynthia again and said seriously: "Auntie, it is not my purpose to keep you in Aurouss Hilll. It is the key to let you learn to respect others. I have already said what you need to say, so you can do it for yourself."

After speaking, I didn't bother to listen to what Cynthia said, turned around and went out.

Cynthia was extremely angry, but she dared not show any dissatisfaction. She didn't even dare to vent her emotions by shouting, for fear that Charlie Wade's men would not be able to get along with her.

Leaving the village in the city, Don Albertt said to Charlie Wade very gratefully and ashamedly: "Master Wade, I didn't get things done by myself, and I didnt want you to wipe my butt. I'm really sorry, I'm causing you trouble... .."

In Don Albertt's heart, he really felt ashamed.

Charlie Wade said that he would release Cynthia after 7 days, but after the 7-day deadline, he did not dare to release her directly, but wanted to wait for Charlie Wade to return and report to Charlie Wade before releasing.

However, I didn't think about it at the time, so I offended Cynthia and what would happen.

For Don Albertt, people like Cynthia are definitely big people with great supernatural powers. If she wants to rectify Don Albertt and Don Albertt's family, Don Albertt has no ability to resist at all.

So he was very grateful that Charlie Wade came over at this time and carried this pot for himself.

Moreover, he is equally grateful to Cameron Isaac.

Had it not been for Cameron Isaac's reminder, he might have never thought of this.

It is very likely that when Cynthia retaliated, he still hadn't figured out why.

Seeing him thanking himself, Charlie Wade waved his hand and said, "You are doing things for me, so you don't have to be so polite with me."

After finishing talking, he looked at Cameron Isaac on the side and said, "Isaac, Xion is over there, you must keep an eye on me, and also help me pay attention to the current movement of the Banks Familyy."

Cameron Isaac nodded immediately and said, "Master, don't worry, I will arrange Eastcliff's eyeliner to help me keep an eye on the Banks Familyy."

Charlie Wade said, "Okay, Don Albertt, let's go, Isaac drove me home."

.....

Charlie Wade sat in Cameron Isaac's Rolls-Royce, and the first thing was to call Nanako Ito, who was in Japan.

On the one hand, I want to report her safety, on the other hand, I want to inquire about the situation in Japan.

Chapter 2200

After all, Xion's escape from such an important prisoner is probably unacceptable to the Japanese Metropolitan Police Department, the Japanese Self-Defense Forces, and the entire Japanese nation.

As soon as the phone was connected, Nanako Ito's voice came over:

"Charlie Wade, have you already arrived in Aurouss Hilll?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Yeah, how do you know?"

Nanako Ito smiled and said, "I was following the news in Aurouss Hilll and found that some media was promoting the news that Ms. Moore has returned. Since Ms. Moore has returned to Aurouss Hilll, Charlie Wade must have arrived."

"Yes." Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said: "We only arrived in the morning, and we rushed to the Moore Group as soon as we got back, so I am calling to report peace to you."

Nanako Ito smiled and said, "Charlie Wade is too polite. You don't have to contact me as soon as you have business affairs. As long as you are like this, you can tell me when you are done."

Charlie Wade sighed in his heart, this Nanako Ito is really gentle and considerate. If anyone marries such a woman in the future, that would be a blessing for a lifetime.

Thinking in his heart, he couldn't help but shook his head, drove the thought out of his mind, and asked, "Nanako, is there any action in Tokyo?"

"Have."

Nanako Ito said: "A major incident happened in Tokyo the night before. Xion, the first criminal who killed the Matsumoto family, escaped from prison! This incident only broke out yesterday afternoon, saying that Xion was dropped. The whole person has evaporated, and the Metropolitan Police Department and the Self-Defense Forces are going crazy, and they are conducting carpet searches across the country."

While talking, Nanako Ito said again: "The impact of this incident in Japan is very bad. The director of the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department has already taken the blame and resigned this morning. A friend of my father's, a high-ranking member of the Tokyo Homeland Security Department, was in danger. , Took over the post of Director of the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department."

Charlie Wade couldn't help but laugh secretly when he heard this.

This Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department is really unlucky.

This incident, at first glance, was that the Banks Familyy was secretly engaged with the top officials of the Japanese Self-Defense Forces.

According to the confession of the captain of the ship Xion last time, this incident was that the Japanese Self-Defense Force first handed over the people to the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department, and then placed them together with the Banks' Family from the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department. The person was replaced, and then the pot was thrown to the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department.

They originally wanted the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department to take the blame, and then the Self-Defense Forces would catch Xion again, so as to enhance the influence of the Japanese Self-Defense Force in the country.

But I didn't expect that in the middle of this matter, Charlie Wade suddenly popped out and brought Xion back to the country.

In this way, the loss of the Japanese Self-Defense Forces is not too big. After all, the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department is carrying the pot, and they are just emptying out.

But the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department is really bad.

People are theirs, and the responsibility rests with them.

If they fail to catch Xion, they would be a shameful criminal in the Japanese judicial field and a fair criminal in Japan.

So Charlie Wade said to Nanako Ito: "Your captain and crew are still on the way back. After they return, they should tell you that Xion has been caught by me."

Nanako Ito asked in surprise, "Ah?! Charlie Wade, why did you catch Xion? You two know each other?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "I have some personal grievances with her. After sailing that day, she wanted to kill me at sea, but unfortunately she was not as skilled as me and was caught by me."

Nanako Ito hurriedly asked, "Then Charlie Wade, are you okay?"

"I'm fine." Charlie Wade smiled: "Now Xion is in my hands, but I still hope you keep it secret for me."

Nanako Ito said without hesitation: "Charlie Wade, please rest assured, I will keep it secret for you!"

Charlie Wade said again: "Oh, yes, Nanako, you just said that the newly appointed head of the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department is your father's friend?"

"Yes." Nanako Ito explained, "He is my dad's college classmate and one of his best friends."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Then I think it's your face, give him a big gift!"

Chapter 2201

When Nanako Ito heard this, she asked in surprise, "Charlie Wade, you...what kind of gift are you going to give him?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Presumably he is still in a hurry for not knowing why Xion disappeared and why he was dropped by someone?"

Nanako Ito said: "This is indeed the case. My dad said that the uncle is under great pressure now because it is difficult to do this kind of desperate task. The main reason is that the expectations of the people are too high. If you do it well, everyone will be happy, but if you do it It's not good. It is very likely to be angered by the people."

Charlie Wade agreed and said, "Yes, this kind of thing is a double-edged sword. If you don't use it well, you will hurt yourself."

While speaking, Charlie Wade said with a smile: "But ah, the gift I gave him can make him turn this double-edged sword into a single-edged sword!"

Nanako Ito asked in amazement, "Charlie Wade, what do you mean by this? A double-edged sword has become a single-edged sword?"

"Yes." Charlie Wade said with a smile: "In other words, with my gift, he doesn't have to worry about harming himself if this sword is not used well."

Nanako Ito hurriedly said, "Charlie Wade, what exactly is this great gift you are talking about?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "You told him that the reason why Xion was dropped is that the Banks Familyy and the Japanese Self-Defense Forces colluded completely. It was their two sides that they had a civet cat for the prince, and then they gave it to him. Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department."

"Ah?!" Nanako Ito's voice was extremely surprised: "Charlie Wade, what you said is true?! The Banks Familyy, really colluded with the Self-Defense Forces?"

Charlie Wade asked her: "When did I lie to you?"

Nanako Ito hurriedly explained, "Charlie Wade, Nanako didn't mean that... Nanako just thought... this thing is too subversive! How can the Self-Defense Force, as the Japanese army, be so absurd? What's coming?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Hey, say a thousand things and ten thousand. The reason why the Banks Family and the Self-Defense Force flies and stalks each other, is not for profit! The main reason is that the Banks Family's energy is too large, so you can cover the sky with one hand. Dad's friend, let him focus on breakthroughs from the Self-Defense Forces, and he will definitely make significant progress." After speaking, Charlie Wade said again: "As long as you, uncle, can find real evidence of collusion between the Self-Defense Forces and the Banks Family, even if there is no way to capture Xion back, you can still fight a beautiful turnaround on behalf of the Metropolitan Police Department!"

Nanako Ito also knew very well that before Charlie Wade didn't tell her about it, the key point of this matter was whether her uncle could smoothly arrest Xion.

But now, the key point of this matter has immediately changed.

As long as the uncle finds absolute evidence that it is indeed the Banks Family and the Self-Defense Force that replaced Xion, the Metropolitan Police Department can instantly get rid of all responsibilities, and all the gangsters will be dumped to the Banks Family and the Japanese Self-Defense Force!

Thinking of this, Nanako Ito hurriedly said with joy: "Charlie Wade, then I will give my uncle first, thank you for this great gift! As long as the trouble is solved, I will let that uncle thank Charlie Wade very much! He personally came to thank Charlie Wade!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "You don't have to be so polite, as long as I go to Japan in the future, or if there is any place in Japan that can be used for him, it is enough for him to be polite."

Nanako Ito blurted out: "Charlie Wade, don't worry! My uncle has always been very affectionate and righteous. If he can really come back with your help this time, he will definitely remember your kindness!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Then I will reveal a little more information. You must ask him to check the Maritime Self-Defense Force that went to sea last night. The inner ghost must be out of this group of people. Let him take these people. Grab all of them for a sudden trial, and you will definitely find a breakthrough!"

Nanako Ito thought for a moment, and said: "The level of the Self-Defense Force is higher than that of the Metropolitan Police Department. If you arrest people directly, it may be difficult to push, and the Self-Defense Force will definitely interfere."

Chapter 2202

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Isn't he from the homeland security department? As far as I know, homeland security is the most important thing for any country. Therefore, people in the homeland security department must be at a higher level than the military. You let him ask his former colleague or leader to help, and the Homeland Security Department will come forward to arrest people in the Self-Defense Force. I believe the Self-Defense Force has absolutely no guts to interfere."

After a pause, Charlie Wade said again: "After the homeland security department catches the person, they can be handed over to the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department for interrogation. No matter how many people are arrested, they will all be isolated and interrogated separately. The key clue!"

Nanako Ito couldn't help exclaiming, "Charlie Wade, your method is really great! Let me tell him! Thank you for my uncle first!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Okay, you can tell him quickly, I'm just waiting to see this great drama of the reversal!"

Charlie Wade only revealed to Nanako Ito that the Banks Family colluded with the Self-Defense Forces and exchanged for Xion, but did not tell her that the whole thing was that the Banks Family and the Self-Defense Forces played the game together. On the surface, it was to let people go, but in fact it was left-handed. Right hand these inside stories.

This is mainly because these words do not have much meaning when they come out of his mouth.

Moreover, the more clues you give, the easier it is to interfere with the opponent's concentration.

Therefore, he only talked about the secret trade between the Banks Family and the Self-Defense Forces, and the rest, let the uncle of Nanako Ito follow the clues he gave, go in-depth, and let him dig out the background by himself. It is more lethal.

.....

At this moment.

Eastcliff, Banks Family Mansion.

Xion and the accompanying crew members hadn't heard any news for so long, making Lord Banks anxious.

Zayne was also worried about this matter.

It's just that Zayne didn't know the inside story of the whole thing.

He thought that the Banks Family had an accident while rescuing Xion.

So he asked Lord Banks a little anxiously: "Dad, what the hell is going on? Didn't our people take Xion back home by the waterway? Suddenly all the news disappeared, and only the ship was caught by the Japanese Self-Defense Forces. Intercepted, where did Xion go?"

Lord Banks said depressed, "How do I know? I know as much about the whole thing as you do. You ask me, how can I answer you?"

Zayne saw that his father's tone was a little annoyed, and he hurriedly apologized: "Dad, you calm down, and I am not targeting you... It's just that this fact is too strange. Xion, this heart can't come down!"

Lord Banks said coldly: "I have sent someone to Japan to investigate this matter. Once I have any information, I will sync it to you as soon as possible."

Zayne sighed worriedly, and said, "Dad, who did you communicate with the Japanese Self-Defense Force? How about you give me contact information, I will call him and ask him to see if there is anything we ignore. Clues to the end."

As soon as Lord Banks heard this, he became annoyed, and said to himself: "I will give you the contact information? The grandson of the Japanese Self-Defense Force now thinks I have played with him, and is chasing after me asking me to give him an explanation. He called, wouldn't my overall plan become clear to the world?"

Thinking of this, he said with a black face: "I said, I have sent someone to investigate, and information will be sent to you simultaneously. Do you have any comments on my arrangements?"

Chapter 2203

Seeing his father a little angry, Zayne hurriedly stood up, bowed and said, "Dad, calm down your anger. I didn't mean that. I just worried about Xion... Anyway, Xion is my flesh and blood. , Her life and death are unknown, her whereabouts are unknown, I am really too anxious..."

Elder Banks looked at him coldly, and said word by word: "Zayne, you must have the strong heart of Taishan collapse before you do big things, and the disappearance of an illegitimate girl will make you panic like this? So what? If my old man dies, can you still manage the Banks Family?!" As soon as Zayne heard this, his whole person was instantly alert! He murmured in his heart: "The old man has begun to doubt my heart and my ability. This is not a good sign!"

"If I have been on Xion this matter and behave too nervously, the old man will definitely think that I am weak, not strong enough, and cannot be promoted to the position of Banks Family Patriarch..."

"If it is because of Xion's matter that affects the old man's judgment of his successor, then it is really not worth the gain..."

Thinking of this, Zayne said with an awe-inspiring expression: "Dad! Don't worry! No matter how this matter turns out, I will never let this matter affect me!"

Elder Su looked at him suspiciously, and said coldly, "Will it affect you? It's not your mouth that has the final say, but my old man's eyes have the final say!"

Zayne hurriedly said, "Dad, you are right! I will show you with practical actions!"

Elder Su gave a hum and waved his hand: "Okay, you can go out."

Zayne respectfully said: "Good dad, I will go out first..."

Elder Banks coldly reminded: "If Xion is still alive, then I believe she will contact you. If she contacts you, you must tell me as soon as possible!"

Zayne said without hesitation: "Dad, don't worry, if you just contact me, I will report to you as soon as possible!"

Elder Su gave a hum and waved his hand: "Go."

Zayne quickly turned around and hurriedly left Lord Banks's study.

At this time, Zayne's back was already wet with cold sweat.

After living in the rich family for a long time, he increasingly felt that the rich family is no different from the ancient palace.

The lord of the wealthy family is the ancient lord, and his heir is the prince below.

Although he has been appointed by the old man as the "prince" who will inherit the Banks Family in the future, the old man still holds the power, and he must always be cautious and walking on thin ice!

Otherwise, it is very likely that he did not say a good word and angered him, and then he was mercilessly dismissed!

There are so many princes who were deposed because of their words and behaviors against the Lord in ancient times!

During the Western Han Dynasty, Emperor Han Jing deposed Prince Li Lloyd Rong;

During the Eastern Han Dynasty, the Han Zhang emperor Lloyd Jiang deposed the prince Quintong;

During the Three Kingdoms period, Sun Quan deposed the prince Sun He.

Chapter 2204

Zayne was also worried that if he caused the old man's dissatisfaction because of Xion's affairs, and if the old man abolished himself, his loss would be extremely heavy, and most of his life's efforts would be in vain.

Thinking of this, Zayne decided that regarding Xion, he must control his emotions as much as possible in front of the old man, and must not let the old man have any feelings of dissatisfaction with him!

The daughter is important, but the position of the Banks Family Patriarch is even more important.

What's more, this daughter is still his own illegitimate daughter!

.....

Here, the Lord Banks rushed into Zayne and made a fire, and he was more or less worried.

In fact, the main reason why he got angry with Zayne was mainly to hide his guilty conscience.

After all, he made the decision to betray Xion.

The old man had already settled an account. The crimes committed by Xion in Japan are extremely heinous. I really want to buy the relevant personnel to release her. Not to mention the huge cost, it is easy to offend the Japanese government.

Therefore, he planned to cooperate with the Japanese Self-Defense Forces, get Xion out by himself, and then let the Self-Defense Forces capture him back and sell the Self-Defense Forces a favor.

After all, the Japanese Self-Defense Force still has a lot of energy in the Japanese government. As long as it has a good relationship with the Self-Defense Force, it will be very convenient to develop in Japan and cooperate with the Japanese government in the future.

However, the old man never dreamed that such a big change would happen to the original seamless plan.

Xion's disappearance put him in a dilemma now.

On the one hand, he did not know how to explain to the Japanese Self-Defense Forces and how to eliminate the indignation of the Japanese people towards the Banks Family;

On the other hand, he didn't know whether Xion was alive or dead. If she was still alive, would she already know what he was doing secretly? What should she do if she knows it and seeks revenge in the future? ?

While being upset, his most trusted subordinate hurried over and said in a low voice: "Master, Honda Masaji of the Japanese Self-Defense Forces called again. He said that he would give us 24 hours. If we can't within 24 hours If Xion is handed over to them, the $1 billion deposit we gave them will not come back..."

"Also, Honda Shoji is very angry now. He thinks we are playing with them on purpose, so he let it out, if we don't hand over Xion, then he will have enemies with us and let us be careful in everything."

Elder Banks sighed and cursed very annoyedly: "Damn! Where did Xion go? A great living person, she can't disappear out of thin air!"

The subordinate hurriedly said, "Now all the police in Japan are looking for the whereabouts of Xion. The Self-Defense Forces are also investigating all passing ships at sea. If Xion is still in Japan, it is only a matter of time before she is found. Leaving Japan, then she must have left Japan by water. Based on the time since her disappearance, she should have returned to China."

Elder Banks frowned tightly and said coldly: "If it is the former, it would be nice to say, but if it is the latter, then it will be troublesome! She has no reason not to contact the Banks Family when she returns to China, unless she already knows the truth. ! In that case, we will be a bit tricky in the future!"

After that, he immediately ordered: "Jason White, you immediately send someone to monitor the Elms family. If Xion returns to China, if you don't contact us, she will definitely contact her family and closely monitor all the He's movements. Report any disturbances to me immediately!"

Chapter 2205

At this moment, Tokyo, Japan.

Forty-eight-year-old Suzuki Tomohisa was standing in front of the floor-to-ceiling windows of the office where he had just taken office, unable to do anything.

He is the new director of the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department. Prior to this, he was a middle-level senior in the Homeland Security Department. He was very well-known in the Homeland Security Department because he was very good at investigating and had a very hard wrist. This time, Xion was found to have dropped the package, and the whole Japan was shocked. The Japanese government was overwhelmed by this, and the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department became a target of public criticism.

There is really no way, the Japanese government can only let Suzuki Tomohisa take orders. However, Suzuki Tomohisa didn't want to take this mess either. As a wise man, he generally stays away from such cases that shock the whole country.

Because cracking such a case is certainly very successful, but if you fail, you will definitely disappoint the people of the whole country. For so many years, Suzuki Tomohisa has relied on a steady and steady fight, a little bit of experience, success stories, and his own reputation. Therefore, he likes to take on tasks that are not so challenging and difficult. He didn't want to interfere with such a challenging and difficult task.

Because, it was hard for me to rely on a steady and steady fight until today, and I can continue to maintain a steady and steady style until retirement. In that case, you will be able to retreat and reap the admiration of the people across the country. Now this extremely difficult task, being able to complete it will certainly make myself a big step forward. But if it is not done, it will also waste the situation and status that I have gained over the years.

It is like a gambler who has won a lot of money and plans to leave the game with the money after playing a few cards. However, at this moment, the dealer asked him to bet on Stud and put in all the money he had won before. Only fools are willing to do such things. But Suzuki Tomohisa couldn't help it.

After all, he works in the national security department. After all, he is a national civil servant. What the Japanese government wants him to do, he has no room for bargaining. Now, it is a foreign woman he has never met that determines the future trajectory of his life.

And he only knew that this woman was Xion, who was the main murderer of the Matsumoto family. As long as he could catch her, he would be famous throughout Japan; but if he could not catch her, he would disappoint the whole Japanese people. Become a sinner in the eyes of the Japanese people.

As for where is Xion? Is she still alive? He has no clues at all.

Ten thousand steps back and said, even if I can't find Xion, I must at least find out how she was brought away under everyone's eyes.

Now that the double has been poisoned and died, and several people responsible for her transportation have disappeared for no reason. The Metropolitan Police Department could not find any valuable clues.

Just when he scratched his scalp and didn't know where to start, his deputy pushed in and said embarrassingly, "Mr. Bankszuki, there are many media reporters outside, not just our domestic NHK and Asahi Shimbun.

There are also many top overseas media including BBC, they all want to interview you..."

"Interview me?" Suzuki Tomohisa said with a black face, "I just took office, what can I interview?"

The deputy said, "They want to know the progress of Xion's disappearance..."

Chapter 2206

Suzuki Chihisa angrily said: "You help me tell them that there is no progress in this matter. If there is any substantial progress, then I will definitely announce it to the national and even the world media through the press conference."

The deputy nodded: "Okay Mr. Bankszuki, then I will reply to them first!"

Tomohisa Suzuki stopped him and said, "Oh yes, from now on, no media reporter is allowed to enter the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department without invitation or permission!"

"Okay, I know!"

After the deputy went out, Tomohisa Suzuki rubbed his temples distractedly, and said to himself: "Hey...As long as you are in danger, you have never had any good things! This case has such a great influence. Not only the people of the whole country are paying attention, but even overseas media are paying attention. If you don't handle it well, your reputation may be ruined. It's fucking tricky!"

Just thinking about it, the phone rang suddenly.

Hearing the ringing of the cell phone, his scalp suddenly numbed, and his veins jumped suddenly.

What he is most afraid of now is answering the phone, not just that various media outlets try their best to find out his mobile phone and want to interview him over the phone.

There are many leaders of government departments who are constantly asking about the progress of the investigation of the entire case.

He is troubled by it.

When I helped her look at the screen of her mobile phone, she realized that it was her brother's daughter, Nanako Ito.

The Suzuki family and the Ito family were originally family friends.

He and Ito Yuhiko have been close friends since they were young, and they also attended the same university. Although they are not brothers, they are not much worse than their brothers.

Therefore, Nanako Ito seemed to him as his half daughter.

Seeing that it was Nanako Ito's phone call, his irritable mood was greatly relieved. He connected the phone and squeezed a little smile, and asked, "Nanako, why did you think of calling me?"

Nanako Ito hurriedly said, "Uncle Suzuki, I heard that you recently transferred to the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department to investigate the case of Xion's disappearance?"

"Yes." Tomohisa Suzuki asked, "Have you heard of Nanako?"

"Yes..." Nanako Ito said, "Uncle Suzuki, have you found any useful clues?"

Tomohisa Suzuki sighed, "So far, there is no clue. This Xion is like the world has evaporated."

Nanako Ito hesitated for a moment, and said, "Uncle Suzuki, I have a very good friend. When I called me just now, he revealed a little clue to me, so I called you quickly."

When Tomohisa Suzuki heard this, he immediately asked excitedly: "Nanako, what you said is true? Who is your friend? What clue did he give you?"

Nanako Ito solemnly said, "Uncle Suzuki, I'm sorry about the identity of my friend, I can't tell you."

While speaking, Nanako Ito said again: "As for the clue he gave me...he told me that the reason why Xion was quietly transferred was not the problem with the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department. It came from the Banks Family and the Japanese Self-Defense Forces."

"Japan Self-Defense Force?" Tomohisa Suzuki asked in amazement, "Is the Self-Defense Force also involved in this matter?"

"That's right." Nanako Ito said: "My friend said that the Banks Family and the Self-Defense Forces united, and Xion left the package, and then deliberately dumped the pot to the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department." Suzuki Tomohisa hurriedly asked, "Then what is their purpose? Do they want to rescue Xion and return to Banks' house?"

"No." Nanako Ito said: "Their purpose is to first throw Xion's scapegoat to the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department, and then the Japanese Self-Defense Force will capture Xion from the sea and give all the credit to the Self-Defense Force. "

"What?!" Suzuki Tomohisa was dumbfounded, and blurted out, "Nanako...you...what you said...is true?!"

Nanako Ito said seriously: "This is what my friend told me. I believe him. He said that if you want to seize this clue, you can use your relationship with the national security department to take the Japanese sea that was patrolled at Tokyo Port yesterday. The members of the Self-Defense Forces are all taken away for quarantine review, and there should be a breakthrough!"

Chapter 2207

Nanako Ito's words overturned all the speculations and inferences of Suzuki Tomohisa about the whole matter.

He never dreamed that the Japanese Self-Defense Forces were also involved in this kind of thing, and a strong anger suddenly came to his mind!

Immediately, Tomohisa Suzuki gritted his teeth and said, "Nanako, thank you and your friends for reminding me. I will definitely bring all the relevant persons responsible for the trial as soon as possible!"

Nanako Ito smiled and said, "Uncle Suzuki, I hope this clue can help you."

Suzuki Tomohisa said confidently, "Nanako, if this clue is true, it really helped me a lot!"

After all, Suzuki Tomohisa hurriedly said, "Nanako, I won't tell you anymore, I have to arrange for arrest!"

"Good Uncle Suzuki!"

Tomohisa Suzuki hung up the phone and immediately contacted his old leader of the Homeland Security Department.

The clues provided by Nanako Ito are of great importance. If the Self-Defense Forces really participate in the removal of Bao Xion, this is not only a national scandal, but also a major homeland security incident, so it must be thoroughly investigated.

The leaders of Japan's homeland security department also paid great attention to this matter after hearing about it, and almost immediately sent a very high-level homeland security expert to fully cooperate with Suzuki Tomohisa to conduct a thorough investigation of this matter.

The relevant person in charge of the Self-Defense Force at this time does not know that he has been exposed.

They are constantly putting pressure on the Banks Familyy, forcing them to hand over Xion.

The people of the whole country are paying attention to this case now. As long as the Self-Defense Forces can arrest Xion and bring him to justice, they can make a great contribution.

However, even if the Banks Familyy is unwilling to hand over Xion, it does not matter. After all, the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department is responsible for this matter, and the senior level of the Self-Defense Force does not have to bear any consequences, and there is a billion-dollar deposit as compensation.

In short, the Self-Defense Force feels that although what he did this time is not a successful big deal, it is definitely a deal that will not lose money.

However, they did not expect that the United Nations Land Security Department of the Metropolitan Police Department had already targeted them!

An invisible big net has been slowly spreading towards part of the high-level Japanese Self-Defense Forces!

.....

At this time, Charlie Wade had just returned home.

Pushing the door and entering, I heard the restaurant is very lively. Claire Wilson Wilson was chatting with people. Hearing the door opening, she hurriedly came out to check. When Charlie Wade came back, he said with joy, "Husband! Why did you come back without saying hello or making a sound?!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "I didn't happen to be busy with my business. A customer was in Japan and said that he was going back by private jet, so I just took a ride back."

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded, stepped forward and took his hand, smiled and said, "Husband, it takes two or three hours for you to fly from Japan. Surely you didn't eat at noon?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "No, I came home as soon as I'm done."

Claire Wilson Wilson smiled and said, "Then you came back just right. Loreen also just came back from Eastcliff today. I asked her to come to eat at home. We just turned on the red wine, so hurry up and eat!"

With that, she took Charlie Wade and walked into the restaurant.

In the restaurant, Loreen was chatting with Jacob Wilson and Elaine Ma.

When Claire Wilson Wilson came in with Charlie Wade's hand, her expression immediately became surprised!

She went back to Eastcliff for a few days during the Chinese New Year holiday and missed Charlie Wade for a few days, so she couldn't wait as soon as she got off the plane this morning and came here to visit Claire Wilson Wilson with gifts. Said to come to see Claire Wilson Wilson , but what he wanted was to see Charlie Wade.

Chapter 2208

However, it was discovered after coming that Charlie Wade was not at home.

It turned out that Charlie Wade went to Japan a few days ago because of an emergency, and has not returned.

This made Loreen feel a little stunned, and her originally high mood instantly dimmed a lot.

Just half an hour ago, Claire Wilson Wilson 's family left her at home for lunch. She still hesitated, thinking that Charlie Wade was not at home. At this time, staying at Claire Wilson Wilson 's home for lunch would waste a good opportunity to be close to Charlie Wade. . She wanted to say that she would just wait for the next visit, but she couldn't hold back Claire Wilson Wilson 's enthusiasm, but she had to agree to the kindness.

But she really didn't expect that Charlie Wade would come back before eating this meal!

Therefore, at this moment, Loreen looked at Charlie Wade with a look of excitement.

Jacob Wilson and Elaine Ma were naturally very happy to see Charlie Wade returned.

Jacob Wilson's Calligraphy and Painting Association is resting these days. He faces Elaine Ma at home every day, and he is almost annoying to death. Seeing Charlie Wade come back, he is naturally very happy.

As for Elaine Ma, she was even more happy. When she saw Charlie Wade, she said happily, "Oh my dear son-in-law, you can be counted as coming back after so many days, don't you know how much mom missed you these days! " With that said, her eyes couldn't help but looked at Charlie Wade's hand. When Charlie Wade went to other places recently, she always brought her all kinds of high-end gifts back, so she also looked forward to what gifts Charlie Wade would bring to herself this time.

However, Charlie Wade was empty-handed at this time, and it didn't look like he had prepared a present.

Elaine Ma was somewhat disappointed in her heart, but she was too embarrassed to show it. After all, her current attitude towards Charlie Wade had changed drastically from before.

She felt that Charlie Wade was an out-and-out good son-in-law.

Even if Charlie Wade didn't bring her a gift this time, she was not upset except for a little disappointment.

At this time, Charlie Wade also realized that when he came back in a hurry and didn't prepare a small gift for Elaine Ma, Elaine Ma would definitely feel a little lost in his heart.

So he walked up to Elaine Ma, sat down beside her, smiled and said, "Mom, I'm so sorry. This time I wanted to buy some gifts for you in Japan to bring back, but suddenly a friend wanted to take a private jet. When I returned to China, I came straight here and I didn't have time to buy gifts."

Elaine Ma hurriedly waved his hand: "Oh, my son-in-law, you are already very happy if you have mom and mom in your heart. As for gifts, there is no need to buy them every time!"

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled casually: "Mom, I will send you 200,000 on WeChat in a moment. If you take it and buy anything, it's just a little bit of care for you!"

As soon as Elaine Ma heard this, the whole person asked with excitement, "Oh my god, my son-in-law! What you said...what you said is true?!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Can this be fake? Mom, wait a moment, I will transfer the money.

After all, he took out his mobile phone and directly transferred 200,000 cash to Elaine Ma via WeChat.

Elaine Ma received the WeChat push, opened it, and it was Charlie Wade who gave her 200,000, so he hurriedly clicked to receive it excitedly, clapped his hands happily, and smiled: "Oh! What is my life, Elaine Ma? I found a good son-in-law!"

Jacob Wilson on the side shook his head repeatedly and said to Charlie Wade, "My son-in-law, in the future, give your mother a little less money. If she has a little money, she will suffer. You know that since she broke her leg again, until now, How many things have you bought online? A room is almost filled with her!"

Elaine Ma glared at him and scolded, "Jacob Wilson, take care of your mouth and don't spit out stinky farts here, what's the matter with you! I think you are jealous of my son-in-law being so kind to me!"

Jacob Wilson said angrily, "You just fart!"

Elaine Ma curled his lips and said, "What's the matter? I fart? I fart, where did your mouth move or something?"

Jacob Wilson's angry old face flushed, and he snorted coldly, "I really don't bother to take care of a vulgar woman like you!"

Chapter 2209

Seeing that Jacob Wilson and Elaine Ma were about to choke again, Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly came out and finished the game: "Oh, Mom, dad, can you not always pinch up as soon as you talk? Charlie Wade just came back, and Loreen is here, so don't let people watch the joke ..."

Jacob Wilson looked at Elaine Ma and snorted coldly, "I don't know you as much as you look at the face of a girl!"

Elaine Ma said disdainfully, "Look at what you said, it's like I want to be familiar with you."

After all, Elaine Ma turned his head to the side and stopped looking at Jacob Wilson.

At this time, Loreen said to Claire Wilson Wilson in embarrassment: "By the way, Claire Wilson Wilson, Stefanie will come to Aurouss Hilll for a concert next month. Let's go and watch it together?"

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly smiled: "Charlie Wade said he wants to accompany me. He knew Stefanie and said that he could get tickets for the front row."

Loreen looked at Charlie Wade in shock and asked, "Charlie Wade, do you know Stefanie Sun?!"

Charlie Wade nodded: "You know, Miss Sun is one of my clients. I have helped her see Feng Shui before."

Loreen blurted out: "Mom, it's so good?! Then you must be familiar with Miss Sun, can you find me a ticket for the front row? I will pay you twice!"

Having said that, Loreen was afraid that Charlie Wade would not agree, so she folded her hands and pleaded: "Charlie Wade, like Claire Wilson Wilson, I have liked Stefanie for a long time. I especially want to sit in the first row and watch her concert..."

Speaking of this, Loreen sighed and said, "But the front row tickets for her concert are too difficult to buy. As long as she opens the concert, the rich second generation from all over the country will swarm like flies. I've grabbed all the good seats. I've won it several times without success, so I can only ask for your help..."

Charlie Wade couldn't help feeling big when he heard this.

I first agreed to Stefanie that she would go to her concert, and then promised his wife Claire Wilson Wilson that she would take her to Stefanie's concert.

Claire Wilson Wilson was his wife, and Stefanie was her fiancée who had been married since she was a child. Taking his wife to see his fiancée's concert was very uncomfortable in itself. I didn't expect Loreen to join in the fun at this time!

Loreen liked Charlie Wade's things, Charlie Wade herself had known for a long time.

And he also knows that Loreen has a fiery personality and courage. When she was in the hot spring with her and her wife, she dared to run to him while his wife was asleep and confessed. If she was there at Stefanie's concert, it would not be true. Know how messy it will be..

So Charlie Wade said embarrassedly: "Loreen, I'm really sorry, I may not be able to help you with this matter, because I have already greeted Miss Sun, and Miss Sun said that at most two tickets can be solved for me. ." "As you know, the relationship between me and Miss Sun is just the client relationship of Party A and Party B. It is very interesting that people can solve two tickets for me. I am really not able to ask someone more.. ..."

When Loreen heard this, she didn't have too much doubt in her heart. She thought to herself: "Stefanie's concert tickets are hard to find, and the seats in the front row are hard to change."

"Charlie Wade just helped Stefanie watch feng shui. It is indeed very rare that people can promise him two tickets for the front row. No matter how much he asks for it, it seems that Charlie Wade is a bit careless. I can't let Charlie Wade Help me ask for tickets and be looked down upon!" Thinking of this, she hurriedly said: "Then I will think of a way myself. If I can't get a ticket for the front row, then I will get a ticket for the first five rows and I will be satisfied."

Charlie Wade was also slightly relieved when he heard this.

He felt that if he couldn't prevent Loreen from going to the concert, it would be a good thing for Loreen to sit a little further away from her and his wife.

At least, I can be less stressed when the time comes.

Charlie Wade knew very well that if she asked Stefanie for three tickets, she would definitely not refuse, and she would definitely give three consecutive seats.

Chapter 2210

What if Loreen insists on sitting next to him?

Therefore, if she is determined not to agree to her request, let her find a way to get the ticket. The best situation is that she can't get the first row seat, but stepping back, if she gets the first row As long as she doesn't sit next to him, he has nothing to worry about.

At this time, Loreen said to Claire Wilson Wilson again: "Claire Wilson Wilson , do you want to go shopping together in the afternoon?"

Claire Wilson Wilson glanced at Charlie Wade, and whispered in her ear: "Loreen, I still don't want to go shopping. I'm going to work in two days. Charlie Wade has just returned from a few days after going out. I want to spend more time at home."

Loreen was shocked.

She could see that when Claire Wilson Wilson said this, it was entirely from the heart.

This made Loreen realize that Claire Wilson Wilson , who has always been less sensitive to feelings, might have truly fallen in love with Charlie Wade. This made her very sad. She used to feel that Claire Wilson Wilson married Charlie Wade only under the pressure of his grandfather. From an emotional point of view, she definitely did not love Charlie Wade. In that case, digging a corner by yourself will feel at ease.

However, if your girlfriend really fell in love with Charlie Wade, wouldn't they both be happy? If that were the case, it would indeed seem a bit immoral to grab love with a sword. At this moment, Loreen wondered if she would give up pursuing Charlie Wade. If she gave up pursuing Charlie Wade, there would be no need for her to stay in Aurouss Hilll. After all, the chairman of the Emgrand Group has not shown up until now, and Loreen's family has also given up the idea of letting her catch this line.

This time Loreen went back to the New Year, and the Thomas family hoped that she would quit her job at Emgrand Group and return to Eastcliff for development.

But Loreen said she didn't want to resign because she didn't want to give up Charlie Wade.

But at this moment, Loreen felt a little shaken in her heart.

At a certain moment, she even felt that she might as well leave Aurouss Hilll and return to Eastcliff to develop well.

In this case, not only can I keep my girlfriend's relationship with Claire Wilson Wilson, but also my career and relationship will not be delayed.

After all, no matter how much energy she puts into Charlie Wade, it is difficult to get the return she wants. In the end, it is very likely that the bamboo basket will be exhausted.

However, thinking of Charlie Wade's many pasts of saving her own, Loreen's strong feeling of admiration could not be restrained.

She felt that if she gave up Charlie Wade, she might not find a man who could make her heart move in her life.

After thinking about it, Loreen decided: "I want to stay in Aurouss Hilll and continue to fight!"

"If Charlie Wade was willing to accept me, then even if I was cast aside by the people of the world, I would never hesitate!"

"However, if one day it is confirmed that I am pregnant, then I will quit completely, return to Eastcliff without hesitation, and never see Charlie Wade again!"

Chapter 2211

At the same time, Eastcliff Banks' Family.

Although Xion's disappearance made Lord Banks and Zayne and his son worried, it did not affect Zara and Fitz's mood at all.

The two of them didn't know Xion's true identity, but regarded her as a servant in the family. In addition, Xion had always been Zayne's bodyguard, and had little contact with their siblings, so the siblings Naturally, she didn't care much about her affairs.

Right now, the two brothers and sisters are in Zara's study, each facing the computer, looking at the monitoring screenshots compiled by the person under his hand.

These screenshots are full of young male yellow faces.

They are all Banks' staff, according to Zara's request, taken from surveillance videos of major airports in Japan some time ago.

What the brothers and sisters have to do is to constantly look through these screenshots, trying to find Charlie Wade's figure.

It is a pity that there were too many surveillance videos at the time, and the number of passengers at several major airports in a few days exceeded several million.

It is indeed not an easy task to find Charlie Wade from these millions of people.

The two had been checking the screenshots of these surveillance videos for several days, but they still couldn't find Charlie Wade. The glamorous Zara stayed in front of the computer day and night for several days, her eyes were bloodshot, and her eyes were dry and unbearable, but she continued to fight while dripping eye drops. Because Fitz had promised his sister in advance that he would try his best to help her find her benefactor, so he didn't dare to slack off, and kept looking around day and night.

Seeing that the surveillance video screenshots of nearly a million people have been filtered, and Charlie Wade's figure is still not found, Fitz more or less retreats, and said to Zara with a tired face: "Zara, it is really not easy to find this way. , I don't know when I am tall..."

Zara looked through the screenshots, and said solemnly: "There are more than three million people who want to identify. It is almost one million now. It is a quarter completed. I believe that After reading all of them, you will be able to find clues to your benefactor!"

Fitz sighed and said, "Zara, don't try too hard. Look at your eyes, they are red like a rabbit. Take a rest and then look for it!"

Zara said, "I'm not tired at all. If you are tired, you can rest for ten minutes."

"Ten minutes?!" Fitz said embarrassedly, "Sister, don't call Zara anymore, change your name to Taskmaster! If you continue to look for it like this, I will be blind!"

Zara said angrily in her voice, "Then you don't need to find it, I will find it myself!"

Fitz hurriedly explained: "I didn't mean that, I just want to rest for a while..."

As he said, he hurriedly got up, poured two cups of tea, handed Zara a cup, and smiled: "Come to Zara, take a cup of tea and rest for a few minutes. There is also a break between classes. You can't work hard. is not it?"

Zara took a sip from his teacup and said, "These videos are dead and people are alive. If we don't find clues to him as soon as possible, what if the trajectory of him changes again? What if we finally find a clue, and then follow the trail to find it, but the benefactor is no longer there?"

Chapter 2212

Speaking of this, Zara continued with a bit of fatigue: "The point is, the only one who has really met the kindness is the two of us, so only the two of us can do this kind of identification work and want to find a helper. It's impossible..."

Fitz nodded helplessly: "You're right, let's hurry up and try to find the clue of your benefactor as soon as possible!"

With that said, Fitz remembered something, and said, "By the way, Zara, I'm going to Aurouss Hilll in two days. Do you want to be together?"

Zara asked curiously: "What are you going to do in Aurouss Hilll?"

Fitz said embarrassedly: "I've already discussed naming cooperation with Stefanie's concert. Her first concert of the year will be held in Aurouss Hilll on the second day of the lunar calendar. I didn't promise her before. Aurouss Hilll Charity donated 10 million donations, so I also want to go there in advance. Not only will this 10 million be arranged in place, but also the major welfare homes, orphanages and other charities in Aurouss Hilll City. According to the actual needs of these institutions, another 20 million donations will be given to them."

Having said this, Fitz continued with a just and awe-inspiring look: "Since it is doing charity, of course we have to go deeper!"

Zara smiled unkindly and said, "Ho ho, it turned out to be to pursue Stefanie! No wonder you are so active!"

Fitz hurriedly denied: "Don't talk nonsense. I'm doing charity. Besides, Stefanie won't go there. I will go by myself. How can I say that I am pursuing Stefanie!"

Zara curled his lips and said, "Oh, you're still being serious with me, I don't know you yet? You just want to make this thing more beautiful in advance, and then let Stefanie look at it with admiration? Promise to donate 10 million. As a result of donating 30 million, Stefanie will definitely think that you are a person with a strong sense of social responsibility, and then have a good impression of you, I guess right?"

Fitz said embarrassingly: "You are the smartest, you can't hide anything from your insight, okay?"

Zara nodded and smiled: "Just admit it."

Fitz sighed, and said, "Zara, the ancestors have something to say, have you heard of it?"

Zara blurted out, "Sell less, speak straight!"

Fitz said earnestly: "The ancestors said that if you see it through, you can't tell it. This is the highest state of a smart person."

Zara said disdainfully: "You don't need to reach the highest state to talk to you, the general state is enough."

"You girl!" Fitz sneered angrily, and immediately changed the subject and asked: "Hey, I'll ask you if you want to go? If you want to go, let's go together. It just happens that I am not born in Aurouss Hilll."

Zara shook his head: "No, I will not go anywhere until I find my benefactor!"

Fitz hurriedly persuaded: "Oh, Zara, you can go with me. The thing to find him is just to identify one by one with the computer. Then we will bring the laptop on the road and the hotel. You can continue to look for your benefactor here, without delay!"

Zara said uninterestedly: "Then I don't want to go either. You are going to lay the foundation for the pursuit of Stefanie. What am I going to do?"

Fitz asked her back: "You don't want to go out to get some air? How dignified the atmosphere is at home these past two days. Dad and grandpa have been black all day long, and you still can't feel it? Take this opportunity to go out quietly for a few days. Is it okay?"

Zara hesitated for a moment, and nodded gently: "That's what I said, then you can arrange it, just to go out and relax."

Chapter 2213

In fact, even if Fitz didn't say anything, Zara, who was extremely intelligent, had already discovered the recent abnormality in the family atmosphere.

In addition to the news from Japan, Zara has been airing about Xion, and Zara knew that the Banks Family had stabbed a big man in Japan for saving Xion.

However, what she didn't quite understand was why Dad had to put so much effort on Xion.

It stands to reason that Xion is nothing but a subordinate of the Banks Family.

If something goes wrong, the Banks Family only needs to give her family a generous pension according to the agreement, and then pay monthly settlement allowances.

There is no need at all. For the sake of a servant, she was taken out of the hands of the Japanese Metropolitan Police Department.

How high the cost behind this is, you can figure it out with a little brainstorming, at least hundreds of times more than the pension and settlement allowance, which is not worthwhile at all.

But Fitz took the initiative to speak: "Zara, Dad and Grandpa made such a big disturbance in order to save Xion, what do you think they are doing?"

Zara shook his head: "I don't know this, but Dad and Grandpa must have their considerations."

Fitz said: "But I think about it, I always feel that this matter is very cost-effective. Xion can't help the Banks Family make money. It is totally meaningless to invest such a large price to save her!"

Zara shrugged and said with a smile: "I can't figure it out, so I just don't think about it anymore."

Fitz thought for a while and said, "Do they want to use this to increase people's loyalty to the Banks Family?"

Zara shook his head and said, "More than fifty people were arrested together. Only one Xion was saved. The people must feel unbalanced in their hearts, and they don't know what to think!"

"Yes." Fitz sighed and said: "I can't figure it out, I can't figure it out..."

Zara said: "Okay, this is not something we should worry about. Let's hurry up and find your benefactor! The family is now in short supply of top masters. If we can find the benefactor and let the benefactor help the Banks Family, it will certainly alleviate the family's immediate urgency to a great extent."

Fitz nodded: "You are right! Benefactor's strength, I am afraid that ten or eight Xion will not be able to catch up. If he can stay in the Banks Family to work, it will definitely be a great achievement!"

.....

Tokyo, Japan.

Within one noon, the Metropolitan Police Department and the Homeland Security Department jointly captured all the Japanese Maritime Self-Defense members who were patrolling near Tokyo Bay on the night of Xion's disappearance, and separated them for separate surprise interrogations. Within a country, the department with the highest authority and priority is the homeland security department.

Because for a country, nothing is more important than homeland security. So when Homeland Security comes out to do something, everyone must stand aside.

Just like America.

The well-known functions of the United States are the FBI and CIA.

The FBI is the Federal Bureau of Investigation, under the jurisdiction of the judiciary. Generally speaking, it is responsible for major domestic cases and cases that span multiple places, especially multiple states and counties;

CIA is the Central Intelligence Agency, which is responsible for collecting various intelligence on foreign governments, companies and terrorists;

FBI and CIA are very common in film and television dramas, so they can basically be familiar to the world, but not many people know about NSA.

NSA is the national security domain of the United States. It is the largest intelligence agency of the U.S. government. It is also the organization that employs the most computer doctors, mathematics doctors, and linguists in the world. Although they do not often appear in the public eye, their priority order of doing things, No one can match in the United States.

Chapter 2214

The same goes for the Japanese Homeland Security Department.

If the Homeland Security Department arrests members of the Self-Defense Force for interrogation on the grounds of threatening national security, even the top commander of the Self-Defense Force has no right to stop or interrogate.

And all the members of the Self-Defense Forces are also very clear that once they get involved with the Homeland Security Department, there is no good thing to do, and they will have to be skinned if they die.

Therefore, people in the Self-Defense Force have a natural fear of the Homeland Security Department.

It is precisely because of the reputation of the Department of Homeland Security that among these self-defense team members who were arrested for surprise trials, a few people with insufficient psychological quality soon began to show their feet.

Moreover, the people in the homeland security department are almost all the most elite people in a country.

This group of people is not only extremely capable, but also has been performing various secret tasks. Even in peaceful times, the people in the homeland security department are all battle-tested and battle-tested fighters.

These Self-Defense Force soldiers with little actual combat experience were as innocent and weak as elementary school students in front of them. Therefore, the Homeland Security Department seized the few self-defense team members who were not good enough to make a fierce attack and quickly opened a breakthrough.

A few hours later, the context of the entire incident has been sorted out by the Department of Homeland Security.

What made Suzuki Tomohisa very excited was that Nanako Ito was right. The Self-Defense Forces did collude with the Banks Familyy from China. During the transfer of Xion, Xion was offended.

Not only that, their cheapest operation was to deliberately calculate the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department. They dropped Xion on the way to the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department to escort her. They dumped all the responsibilities to the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department, and the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department suffered. A huge grievance.

And their motives for uniting with foreign forces and substituting domestic key criminals turned out to be to arrest them again, to seek credit for themselves and social attention!

This irritated Suzuki Tomohisa!

In his opinion, this act of the Self-Defense Force is simply a joint thief who burned his house, and then put out the bear children who sought praise from their parents!

After clarifying this matter, the Department of Homeland Security immediately convened the cabinet and held an emergency meeting with the cabinet to discuss countermeasures.

The Cabinet was also shocked by this incident!

I never dreamed that there should be such a stupid high-level in the Self-Defense Force, who did nothing for a little merit and recklessness, causing great losses to the country!

Therefore, the Cabinet immediately worked with the Department of Homeland Security to formulate a set of solutions urgently.

First, secretly arrest all SDF executives involved in this matter, and immediately make the case public immediately after the arrest, expounding all the causes and consequences of the Banks Familyy's conspiracy with the SDF, and the fact that the Banks Familyy saved people is fake, and the act is a real show operation!

Second, the Banks Familyy must be required to deliver Xion to the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department within 24 hours, otherwise, all businesses of the Banks Familyy in Japan will be permanently blocked, and the Banks Familyy's immediate family members will always be restricted from entering!

That night.

The three SDF executives involved in the case were arrested in their respective homes.

These three people were awarded by the Japanese Self-Defense Forces and the Japanese government for successfully arresting Xion and others at Osaka Airport.

But now, these three people have all been reduced to prisoners endangering homeland security.

At the same time, the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department and the national security department officially issued an announcement to the world.

A tsunami directed at the Banks Familyy screamed at this moment!

Chapter 2215

Late at night. Eastcliff.

Zayne returned to his home unconcealedly. At this moment, his mood is very complicated. Just this evening, Xion's biological mother, Kairi, came to the Banks Group to meet him. As soon as the two met, Kairi anxiously asked him the whereabouts of Xion. However, Zayne didn't know how to answer. Because he didn't know where Xion went. She was as if the world had evaporated, leaving no clues.

Kairi, who was missing an arm, knelt down to Zayne crying, hoping that he could recite that Xion was his biological daughter, and did everything possible to find her whereabouts. Zayne agreed.

Xion is his biological daughter. This is supported by the results of DNA. Moreover, Kairi had a life-saving grace to him back then. The reason why Kairi lost an arm is entirely to save him. Therefore, whether it is for the face of his own daughter or the face of the savior, Zayne has to agree. However, his heart was blocked. Because he encountered such a thing for the first time.

For the first time, there is no clue to a person's whereabouts. After all, the Banks Familyy's hands and eyes were open to the sky. In the past, as long as it was the person they wanted to check, there was no clue that they could not find. But this time, the Banks Familyy couldn't find any clues. Therefore, Zayne was also very worried about Xion's current situation.

What he was afraid of was not that he could not find Xion, he was afraid that Xion was probably no longer alive. Therefore, when he returned home, he always felt very heavy.

The moment Zayne opened the bedroom door, a beautiful middle-aged woman walked out of the bathroom.

This woman had just removed her makeup and took a shower. Her long hair was wrapped in a hair-drying cap. Although she had removed her makeup, her skin was still very smooth and clean. At first glance, she was a lady who was naturally beautiful and well-maintained.

This woman is Zayne's lifelong love, his wife, Deana.

The Thorne family is very strong in Eastcliff. Although it may be a bit worse than the Banks Family in terms of assets, it is not much worse than the Banks Family in terms of background, status, connections and overall strength. On a special level, it was even stronger than the Banks Family.

After all, money is not the only measure of strength in any place in the world. Deana was one of Eastcliff's most respected ladies. Her family background made her almost the dream lover of all the rich second generations of Eastcliff. Zayne is one of them.

Deana is now over half a hundred years old and has had two more children, but she still maintains like a young woman in her thirties, charming and beautiful.

Seeing Zayne coming back, Deana said distressedly: "Why come back so late today? Are you tired?"

Zayne smiled reluctantly and said, "It's okay, I'm not tired. There have been so many things in the past two days. "

Chapter 2216

Deana counted and nodded. Since she married Zayne, she has not cared about Zayne's work. Because she felt that she didn't need to interfere with men's affairs. Therefore, she never asked Zayne about the details of his work.

Seeing that Zayne was very tired, she said: "You go change your clothes first, I'll put some water for you, take a good bath, turn your hands off when you sleep at night, and you won't be allowed to wake up naturally if you don't sleep tomorrow."

Zayne was moved in his heart, and hurriedly said: "My wife, you don't need to worry about me, I can just put the water on my own."

Deana said: "The water in the bathtub is what I just used. It will take a long time to change the water. , You go change your clothes and rest for a while."

Zayne smiled and said, "It's okay, I'll just use your washed water to soak for a while." Deana said with some shame: "How can it work! The soaked water is not clean," You wait, I'll put in a new jar of water."

"No need." Zayne smiled, and went into the bathroom busy, taking off his clothes while saying, "How can my wife's bath water be dirty!" Don't worry, I'll just go in and soak for a while!"

Deana saw that he took off his clothes. He shook his head helplessly, and said, "That's OK, you can soak for a while. If the water gets cold, let's heat it up. Go to the bed and read a book."

Zayne hurriedly laughed: "Okay! Go!"

Deana left the bathroom, shut the door, and then lay on the comfortable and luxurious bed. I took a book called Anna Karenina. This is a literary masterpiece by the Russian writer Leo Tolstoy. It is about a tragedy of Anna Karenina's pursuit of love. Deana has read this book countless times, and she can memorize many passages verbatim, but she still picks it up and reads it every few times.

Sometimes, she felt that she was a bit like the heroine of this book to some extent. Although she was born a noble, although she was an elegant and charming eldest lady in the eyes of others, she never got the love she really wanted.

Her husband, like Anna's husband, is fascinated by his career. Although he loves himself deeply, he feels a kind of boring frustration because of his excessive rigidity. I can only find comfort in life from my children. The subtle thing is that Anna met her true love in a lifeless married life. But he is quite the opposite.

It was after encountering true love, but not being able to get true love, that I joined Zayne's marriage together. Anna finally died by suicide. Although Deana did not have any thoughts of suicide, since the day she married Zayne, she knew that the love in her life was dead. After flipping through a few pages casually, Deana couldn't help but emerge the figure of the man in his mind.

For more than twenty years, the figure of that man has never left her thoughts. Almost every night, she fell asleep thinking of the man's figure. And that man is the love of her life, Bruce. Thinking of Bruce, she involuntarily reached out and picked up her mobile phone. After the phone was unlocked, she opened the browser on the phone and entered a very complicated web address in the address field.

This URL is actually a web album. After logging in to the account and password, she clicked to confirm and entered her private photo album.

This private album was registered by Deana herself more than ten years ago. She converted all the photos of herself and Bruce, as well as all the photos of Bruce that she could find, into an electronic version and transferred them to this album.

Only she knows the account number and password. As long as she has the opportunity, she will open this album every day for a while, and then silently exit and delete all access records.

At this moment, she opened the photo album, and when the handsome face of Bruce appeared on the screen of the phone, tears of Deana's two lines burst out involuntarily.

She looked at Bruce's photo, rubbed his face with her fingertips, and whispered in a low voice: "Bruce, you have been away for so many years, why can't I forget you?"

Chapter 2217

Deana really loves Bruce. Unlike Charlie Wade's mother, Bruce and Charlie Wade's mother met when they were studying abroad, and Deana really grew up with Bruce as childhood sweethearts. Both are children of a large family in Eastcliff, and have been studying in the same school since childhood. They go to the best kindergarten, the best elementary school, the best junior high school and the best high school in Eastcliff.

Therefore, the faces of Deana and Bruce in different periods can be found in several graduation photos. Bruce has excelled since he was a child, and Deana felt that he especially liked playing with him when he was in elementary school. When he arrived in junior high school, Deana realized that he fell in love with Bruce.

Since then, her thoughts on Bruce have not changed, and she has never concealed her love for Bruce. When Bruce is running on the stadium, she will definitely cheer by the side; when Bruce is playing guitar and singing on the stage, she will also applaud from below; so, soon, the big family of the four or nine cities My son, everyone knows that Deana likes Bruce.

Coincidentally, the Thorne family and the Wade family have been very close. The old man of the Thorne family and the old man of the Wade family are friends of eight worshippers! Back then, the two elderly people discovered that Deana liked Bruce, almost overjoyed!

The parents of the two families are all trying their best to bring the two together. Deana couldn't wait to marry Bruce and become his wife. But Bruce alone did not agree. He said that he has always regarded Deana as his own sister, so how can he have children with her.

Elder Wade couldn't persuade him life and death, and slapped him on the face, calling him a bastard, which delayed Deana for so many years. Bruce's face hadn't been swollen before he had gone abroad. Deana did not say a word, packed up her bags and ran after the United States.

Unexpectedly, Bruce met Charlie Wade's mother in the United States and gained his true love.

However, Deana still did not give up. She persisted until the night before Bruce's wedding. That night, she was still expecting a miracle to happen. Looking forward to Bruce being able to bring his good brothers to his home early the next morning. However, Bruce did not appear in the end. Later, Bruce got married.

He and his wife led the Wade family all the way forward, and Eastcliff praised them as the gods and goddesses made in heaven, but Deana washed away with tears every night. She always felt that she was the woman who loved Bruce the most in this world. Unfortunately, Bruce did not choose to be with her in the end.

Back then, Bruce chose his later wife without hesitation, Deana almost cried out all the tears. However, she wiped away her tears and continued to love Bruce, like a statue, looking through the autumn water, waiting for him to change his mind.

Unfortunately, Bruce did not look back in the end. When Bruce got married, she calmly accepted all this, and then equally calmly accepted Zayne's crazy pursuit for several years. When Bruce passed away, she cried again. That time, she was sent to the hospital overnight because of excessive sadness.

It's just that the Banks Family didn't tell anyone about it, not even Deana's family members. Zayne didn't say it because he was afraid of shame. He couldn't let people know that his wife, his beloved wife, was crying so badly that he almost went with him because of the death of another man.

For a long time after that, Zayne had been taking care of her with all his heart, and he did not complain about Deana, because he knew it was unnecessary. Since Bruce was dead, Bruce would no longer threaten the relationship between the two after his wife cried, so why bother to blame Deana for this?

However, what Bruce didn't expect was that a few years ago, a satellite TV station in a southern province put up a program called I'm a Singer. Deana, who has always liked music, watched in front of the TV every week. So he watched several issues with Deana.

Chapter 2218

The two watched them with gusto and enjoyed it well. Until one day, a female singer sang a cover of a song that could not do without you. When Deana heard the song, her emotions collapsed again, and she covered her face alone, crying to death in front of the TV. The lyrics of that song are still fresh in Zayne's memory.

The lyrics are sung like this: "You opened your arms and melted me, you smashed me with your fingertips, you instigated the situation to take me away, you made waves and abandon us both of us, it's too unfair, love and hate are all You manipulate. But today, I can't do without you. Whether you love me or not."

Selena's voice is in excellent condition, and when the song reaches the most emotional part, it is simply heartbreaking.

At that time, Zayne saw Deana cry out of control and stretched out his hand to embrace her, but he never dreamed that Deana would not let him hold her. She cried and listened to the entire song, and then locked herself in the bedroom. Cried for more than an hour.

Zayne was in an extremely bad mood at the time. Because he knew very well that the reason why Deana cried like that because of this song was entirely because of Bruce who had been dead for more than ten years! The lyrics of this song fit Deana's feelings for Bruce too much.

Deana's heart was melted by Bruce, crushed by Bruce, swept away by Bruce, and abandoned by Bruce! Deana's love is completely controlled by Bruce alone! No matter whether Bruce loves her or not, Deana can't do without him. Even if he physically and spatially leaves him, he never leaves him in his heart! At that moment, Zayne couldn't help but burst into tears.

He didn't understand, what magic power does Bruce have, he let his wife love to die while he was alive, and after more than ten years of death, can he still make his wife die alive? ! It was also at that moment that Zayne hated Bruce more, even more hated Bruce than when he was alive! He even wanted to scrape Bruce's grave and thwart him!

For Deana, she had only loved one person in her life, and that person was Bruce. As for Zayne, it was just a step she found for herself after Bruce got married. At that time, Eastcliff was amazed by Bruce's wedding of the century, and at the same time expressed pity for Deana.

The strong Deana did not want to be looked down upon, so she agreed to Zayne's pursuit. However, she didn't love Zayne from beginning to end. Although after she got married, she has always been a husband and a son, abiding by women's morals, and has never done anything to go beyond the thunder pond with any man.

But she still doesn't love Zayne. She didn't love it on the wedding day. Today, more than 20 years have been married, and she still doesn't love. It's not that Deana is cold and ruthless, but that if you don't love, you don't love. At this time, looking at Bruce's photos and thinking about that year, Deana unconsciously shed two more tears.

She put on the bluetooth headset and played the song that can't do without you again.

Thinking of the song, she murmured in her heart: "Bruce, the two of us are really unfair. I have loved you for nearly forty years. Why are you reluctant to give me a chance from beginning to end? "

If you gave me a chance back then, I wouldn't do any worse than anyone else."

"If you gave me a chance back then, you wouldn't die so early." The song just happened to be sung at this moment.

At this point, Deana thought of this, tears had already burst, and at this moment, her mobile phone suddenly received multiple tweets, one of the most striking is: Japan's National Security Agency issued an announcement that broke the Banks Familyy's shocking scandal. !

Chapter 2219

As the eldest daughter-in-law of the Banks Familyy, Deana's first reaction after seeing this post was to quickly click to see what happened. Although she rarely talks about her husband and the Banks Familyy, she is a member of the Banks Familyy after all, and has heard of many things about the Banks Familyy.

Her son and daughter were kidnapped and almost killed in Japan. This incident left her with lingering fears, but also made her a little bit more concerned about the situation in Japan.

She also knew that Xion killed the Matsumoto family. Although she felt that this matter was a bit overdone, Zayne was very angry at the time. When he gave this order, she was extremely determined and there was no room for negotiation.

Later, Xion and a large group of Banks Familyy masters were all captured by the Japanese Self-Defense Forces. Deana also knew that this incident had a great impact on the Banks Familyy, and even greatly weakened the overall strength of the Banks Familyy. From that day on, Zayne was unable to do anything every day, and Deana was in sight.

However, she did not know Zayne's plan to rescue Xion. So, when she saw this post, she was also very curious.

After clicking on it, she discovered that the announcement issued by the Japanese National Security Agency stated that after the Banks Familyy instructed and murdered dozens of people in the Matsumoto family, all of the Banks Familyy's men were captured by the Japanese Self-Defense Forces stationed in Osaka. Xion also fell into the French Open, but what I did not expect was that the Banks Familyy would unite with the top level of the Self-Defense Forces and drop Xion from the police department, which eventually led to Xion's whereabouts unknown.

In this regard, the Japanese Homeland Security Bureau made a solemn protest against the Banks Familyy, demanding that the Banks Familyy must return Xion to the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department as soon as possible, otherwise the Banks Familyy will be blocked throughout Japan and will never be unblocked. The time at home is only a short 24 hours.

Seeing this, Deana was shocked, and she couldn't help being surprised. She said to herself: "Why do you invest so much cost and energy for Xion? And also risk offending the entire Japanese government and all Japanese citizens? This is not in line with her husband's style of doing things. Not only her husband, but father-in-law Lord Banks is not the one who can make this kind of decision!"

She continued to look down when she was surprised.

The announcement also stated: "Actually, the Banks Familyy didn't really want to rescue Xion. They just regarded Xion as a bargaining chip for acting and the exchange of rights. On the one hand, they hoped that after they rescued Xion, they would It was sold to the Japanese Self-Defense Forces to claim credit, and at the same time, it was hoped that through this scene, Xion's mother's family could be appeased. After all, Xion's mother, Kairi Elms family, was one of China's four major martial arts families. People who want to actively win over"

Deana saw this, his whole person was already dumbfounded!

"Xion, is Kairi's child?! Why have I never heard of this?!"

Deana naturally knew Kairi. After all, Kairi had always been her husband Zayne's bodyguard before. Later, Kairi was injured and amputated while rescuing Lord Banks, and then he left the Banks Familyy.

"But, when did Kairi give birth to a daughter? And why did she send her daughter to Banks' house to be Zayne's bodyguard?"

"Also, why is Kairi's daughter named Banks?!"

Deana looked back again and down. A passage is the shocking scandal that really made her stunned! In this passage, Xion is the illegitimate daughter of Zayne's derailment with Kairi, and Kairi concealed her life experience and sent her to the Banks Familyy! When she saw this passage, Deana was almost thunderous!

Although there is no actual evidence to support this passage, the woman's intuition continues to tell her that everything said above is true!

She never dreamed that her husband, who thought she loved and was loyal to her very much, would betray her! Moreover, he betrayed her twenty years ago! Not only that, he actually has an illegitimate daughter outside!

Chapter 2220

What is even more hateful is that in recent years, his illegitimate daughter has been living in Banks' house and around her as a bodyguard! This made her feel a kind of total betrayal, and a kind of cold from head to toe!

She desperately controlled the trembling hand and continued to look down. In the follow-up content, even the National Security Agency of Japan felt that the Banks Family was simply inferior! For profit, even the lives of his daughters and granddaughters can be sold! It is extremely vicious, snake-hearted!

When Deana saw this, her scalp was numb. Seeing the wedding photo of herself and Zayne on the wall, she felt nauseous when thinking about her marriage life for so many years. But in an instant, she felt relieved again.

So she got out of bed silently, took out a suitcase from the cloakroom, and put some clothes in it. Silently packed his suitcases, and changed her to the clothes she was wearing. Deana did not hesitate to pull up the suitcases and was ready to go out.

At this time, the bathroom door just opened.

Zayne, who came out wrapped in a bath towel, suddenly saw Deana pulling his suitcase to go out, and asked in amazement: "My wife, where are you going so late?"

Deana looked at him with no expression on his face and said calmly: "Zayne, let's get a divorce."

Zayne was struck by lightning, and he blurted out nervously: "What's wrong with my wife? Which one are you singing? Where am I not doing well? Just tell me, I change it. Can't it?"

Deana looked directly into his eyes and asked faintly: "Zayne, for the sake of the husband and wife for so many years, the next question I will ask you, please answer the truth, don't lie, you can do it. Are you there?"

Although Zayne was a little guilty, he still said very firmly: "My wife, just ask, I must answer truthfully, okay?"

Deana went straight to the topic: "Okay, then I ask you, is Xion the illegitimate daughter of you and Kairi?"

Zayne's heart suddenly shattered and collapsed! He never dreamed that what Deana asked when he asked, it turned out to be the only place with a guilty conscience deep in his heart! He suddenly panicked. He didn't know how to answer at this time.

Deny? With Deana's character, since she asked, she must be very convinced of this matter. It is difficult for her to believe it by simply denying it, but it may disappoint her even more; if you can't deny it, you can only admit it.

However, once admitted, sit real derailed his behavior, but it has in the past twenty years, for to do who knows what their other half derailed so long, there is the illegitimate daughter, I am afraid will be angry to the extreme of that time Deana would definitely turn away without hesitation.

When Zayne was completely cut off, Deana sighed and smiled slightly, "Okay, it's not difficult for you, divorced." Let's get together and get together."

Zayne's whole person suddenly collapsed. He knelt on the ground with a puff, holding Deana's thighs in both hands, and choked nervously: "Wife, I'm wrong! Wife! I was also confused that time. Unexpectedly, Kairi will have Xion after that time, please, forgive me this time, my wife! I can't lose you, my wife!"

Chapter 2221

Seeing Zayne kneeling on the ground crying, Deana immediately stepped back subconsciously, freed his hands, and said seriously: "Zayne, you understand my character. When I promised to marry you, I made a decision with you. a covenant, do you remember?"

Zayne red eyes and nodded gently: "Remember...I remember it all! I remember every word! Wife, I was really confused for a while, please, forgive me this time, just this time."

Deana said with a serious expression: "Zayne, I hope you first talk about the covenant."

Zayne's heart suddenly hurt, and he trembled: "The first clause of the agreement, no matter what time or situation, as long as...as long as..."

Deana asked, "Just what?"

Zayne long sighed: "Hey! As long as... as long as Bruce is willing to come back and accept you, I must divorce you unconditionally and never entangle you!"

Deana nodded and asked him: "What about the second one?"

Zayne said: "The second article, I must not prevent you from meeting Bruce as a normal friend after marriage."

Deana asked again: "What about the third one?"

"The third..." Zayne murmured: "The third is that you marry me not for love, but to have a stable family, so either of us needs to abide by morals. The bottom line is that you should not be ambiguous with other people of the opposite sex during the marriage relationship, or even have actual relationships. If you change your mind, you must inform the other party in advance and break up peacefully..."

Deana gave a hum, and said calmly: "Since you remember it, I don't need to repeat it. I will go back to my parents' house today. Tomorrow morning, we will go through the divorce procedures. You will print a divorce agreement tonight. Both of our children have grown up, and there will be no custody issue involved. As for the family's property, I don't want a penny, so let's do it."

After that, Deana turned around and left.

Zayne hurriedly knelt in front of her, grabbed her suitcase, cried and said, "My wife, you don't know the specifics of what happened back then..."

"Kairi...Kairi, she almost lost her arm back then to save me. I want to make up for her, but she...but she said she had a crush on me for many years and just wanted to leave without regret....."

"I...I was also moved and impulsive at the time, so...so it happened with her once..."

"I swear to heaven, I, Zayne, only betrayed you once, the only time..."

"Please look at the face of our husband and wife for more than 20 years, please look at the face of our sons and daughters, forgive me this time! I beg you..."

Deana said seriously: "Zayne, there are many ways to thank someone for repaying, why do you have to choose the one that betrays your marriage?"

Zayne cried and said, "Wife...I...I'm confused for a while..."

Deana waved his hand: "It doesn't matter whether you are confused or not, the important thing is that you have made your own choice. Now that you have made a choice, then dare to act!"

After all, Deana said very solemnly: "If the two of us can simply divorce tomorrow, we can still be friends even if we can't be married in the future; but if you don't want to break up peacefully, then I can only ask The court sued for divorce, and you know that the case for divorce is going to be heard in court. You are also a person of good faith. There is no need to make things so ugly, right?"

Zayne looked at Deana, crying, and choked up and asked: "My wife, what do you want me to do so that you can forgive me? As long as you tell me, Zayne will do my best!"

Deana smiled slightly: "Zayne, I'm sorry, I really can't forgive you."

Zayne's whole person was trembling, and he asked her: "My wife, you and I have been married for more than 20 years, do you really want to be so unfeeling?"

Chapter 2222

Deana asked him: "Zayne, do you know why I loved Bruce so much?"

Zayne's whole person was suddenly startled.

He looked at Deana and asked in a hoarse voice: "Why?"

Deana laughed bitterly, and said in a painful voice: "When Bruce was about to get married, I also ran to confess to him like Kairi confessed to you..."

"I even thought about giving him my body, even, I even had the same reason as Kairi..."

"I said to him at the time: Bruce, I have loved you for so many years without any results. If you really don't love me and don't want to give me a result, then don't let me leave the last regret... .."

"I also said: Bruce, a woman, the most precious thing is her own chastity. The reason why this chastity is precious is because every woman hopes to leave it to the man she loves the most, and I hope to Leave my chastity to you..."

Having said this, Deana's voice also choked up. She looked at Zayne and said in a crying voice: "However, the biggest difference between Bruce and you is that Bruce did not hesitate to reject me at the time! Because he said he absolutely can't ruin my future! For this alone, you will never be able to compare to him!"

Zayne heard this and said nothing. He felt his face hot for a while, so hot that he couldn't even open his eyes.

Deana sighed when he saw that he was not talking, and said, "Zayne, husband and wife, so get together and get together, okay?"

Zayne couldn't help but tears. He wanted to say a few more words of admitting his mistake and asking for forgiveness, and then think of a way to beg and retain Deana. However, when Deana said that she had begged Bruce just like Kairi was begging for himself, but Bruce refused her, he really had no face to excuse himself. And he also knows very well that it is useless to excuse, since Deana has decided, she will definitely not look back...

When he didn't know what to do, there was a rush of knocking on the door. The butler said angrily outside the door: "Master, the master asked me to ask you to go right away, saying that there is a major event that is urgent and urgent. ASAP!"

Zayne was a little horrified. He had been taking a shower, and his wife would divorce him after taking a shower, so he didn't know that the Banks Family had been pushed to the forefront because of the announcement of the Japanese National Security Agency.

He actually doesn't want to go anywhere now, he just wants to do his best to keep his wife behind. However, his father's majesty is not something he can disobey, and his father has asked the housekeeper to say that there are a hundred thousand urgent and important events. It's the father who will definitely be angry.

Thinking of this, he could only shout to the housekeeper through the door: "Okay, you go first, I'll get dressed and go over!"

"Ok!"

After the steward left, Zayne looked at Deana and pleaded: "Wife, can we have a good chat when I come back?"

Deana shook his head and said: "There is no need to talk between us anymore, you should go to the old man's place as soon as possible!"

After all, she took advantage of Zayne's carelessness, pulled up the suitcase and pushed the door and walked out...

Chapter 2223

Seeing Deana's resoluteness and without looking back, Zayne was so painful that he almost suffocated. He had known for a long time that Deana did not actually love him. He had already known that the person Deana had always loved in his heart was actually Bruce. Moreover, Deana sometimes underestimated Zayne's skill. Although he never interfered with Deana's privacy on the surface, in fact, behind the scenes, he had already grasped all Deana's behaviors clearly. Many years ago, after the mobile phone started to have the wifi networking function, Zayne allowed top Internet hackers to closely monitor his wifi network.

Deana's mobile phone, when connected to wifi, which software and which websites he visited after connecting to wifi, he can use the tools provided by hackers to conduct comprehensive monitoring. Therefore, he also knows that Deana has quietly visited the web album website almost every day when he is not around for so many years.

In order to know what secret she was hiding in the web album, he even asked his subordinates to use a company shell outside to directly acquire the operating company of the web album. Acquiring this company will naturally control all user data of this company. Including what the user uploaded and browsed here, he can see clearly in the database.

Therefore, he had known for a long time that Deana went to that web album every day to see some photos of her with Bruce, or Bruce's own photos. This has always been a huge torture for Zayne. He couldn't accept the beloved wife around him, he was always thinking about other men. Even if that man is already dead!

Could it be that if I worked so hard and worked so hard, it was not as important to her as a dead person? Because of this, he has always hated Bruce. Even if Bruce had passed away for many years, he still hated him to the extreme, and he hasn't weakened in the slightest for so many years. However, Zayne has always used the words "Vested Interests" to hypnotize me.

He thought, what if Deana loves Bruce deeply? Hasn't he married her yet? Didn't you give birth to two children? So, in the final analysis, he is Deana's man, and her only man, this is already an absolute victory. However, now Deana left him resolutely and resolutely, instantly destroying his "vested interests" mentality, and there is no residue left.

Although the hatred in his heart was overwhelming at this time, but when he thought that the old man still had important things waiting for him to pass, he could only temporarily calm his mind, wiped his tears, pounced his face with cold water, and wrapped his pajamas. Hurried to the old man's study.

Lord Banks's study room is larger than the living room of an ordinary villa. To put it bluntly, this is Lord Banks's chamber. Like the imperial library of the ancient emperor, Lord Banks not only reads books here, cultivates his body, but also regards it as the core brain of the entire Banks Family.

He often discusses important matters of the Banks Family with his sons and core members in the study. Many decisions that affect the Banks Family and even the business community all over the country originate from this.

Right now, Lord Banks had summoned all the second-generation descendants of the entire Banks Family.

In addition to Zayne, there are James, Matthew, Jon, Candice, Jess, and Jordan.

Lord Banks has five sons and two daughters. They are seven people: Taoism, Virtue, Ren, Righteousness, Courtesy, Wisdom, and Belief.

Because he struggled with Deana, Zayne came last.
Chapter 2224

As soon as he came in, he found that in the entire study, his father and six younger siblings were all flustered.

This made his heart chuckle.

In his impression, his father had been calm and composed for many years, and he had always been the same as Taishan collapsed. How can he panic like this today?

Moreover, he also found that the eyes of the younger brothers and sisters around him looked very strange at this time.

Their eyes are nervous, fearful, sympathetic, and even compassionate.

So he asked nervously, "Dad, what happened?"

Lord Banks raised his head to look at him, and asked with some guilty conscience: "Did you see the news feed?"

Zayne looked down at his pajamas, and said awkwardly, "What push? I was taking a bath just now. After washing, the butler said that you were looking for me, so I hurried over and didn't even get my phone... ."

Lord Banks sighed with a complicated expression, and said: "Zayne, there are some things, you have to understand me more, I sit in this position, I really want to take the overall situation into consideration, and I can't care too much about the love of my children!"

Zayne was a little surprised. He didn't quite understand why the old man suddenly said such a thing. Moreover, the old man's tone seemed a bit of admitting his mistakes and asking for forgiveness. You know, the old man has always treated his children and grandchildren extremely harshly!

In the previous family meeting, Austin, Jordan's son, was satisfied with his father's dozens of slaps and almost fainted because he talked nonsense in front of the old man and made him unhappy.

This shows that it is impossible for the old man to admit his mistakes to his children and grandchildren. But today, why did he say this? ! Lord Banks, the elder of the Banks Familyy, did not admit his mistakes to his children and grandchildren in his life.

He has always been extremely strong and has the style of an ancient emperor. In the eyes of ancient emperors, the emperor and his own power were the most important, and his children would never be the first. It was the same in his eyes.

The Banks Familyy's foundation and his unshakable position as the head of the Patriarch were the most important things in his eyes. In front of these, what do children and grandchildren count? However, this time, he never dreamed that the National Security Agency of Japan would actually find out his affairs with the top Japanese Self-Defense Forces!

They even found out the true identity of Xion, who was Zayne's illegitimate daughter and his own granddaughter! Now, people all over the country know that Lord Banks is a tortoise bastard who can sacrifice the lives of his grandchildren at any time for his own benefit! These children in front of me don't know how to think of him.

After all, if any father or grandfather does such a thing, his children and grandchildren will be very disappointed, and even stay away from him.

Therefore, Mr. Banks is very clear in his heart: "This incident must have caused me to be cast aside by the world, and the Banks Familyy has suffered heavy losses in all aspects. If I do not deal with the internal influence of the family properly, my Patriarch will most likely lose all prestige! Even the Banks Familyy may be overwhelmed!"

"Right now is the most critical moment for the Banks Familyy! Therefore, I must try my best to calm Zayne's mentality first, otherwise in case he knows that I betrayed his biological daughter, and he can't be on any level. If he understands and tolerates me a little bit more, then he is likely to take the lead against me in anger. If that happens, the family trouble will be too great!"

"As long as I can hold him steady, everyone else can hold it!"

Chapter 2225

Zayne at this time has not yet figured out what major incident has happened. So, he looked at Lord Banks and asked, "Dad, what's the matter?"

Lord Banks sighed and said grimly: "It's Xion"

Zayne hurriedly asked: "You found Xion's whereabouts?! "

Lord Banks shook his head: "I haven't kept the way yet. With regard to Xion, Dad has to apologize to you and hope you can forgive Dad."

Zayne didn't expect the old man to apologize to himself, and said hurriedly, "Dad, you What are you doing? Just say, if you don't succeed in saving this thing, I won't blame you."

Zayne also felt that the old man did not work hard to save Xion. However, this matter itself is indeed very difficult, and the incident occurred in Japan, and the Banks Family is beyond reach. If there is an accident in the rescue process that causes the rescue to fail, or even Xion's unfortunate death, it is indeed possible. Understandable.

Lord Banks sighed at this time: "Hey, I am always confused about this matter! Xion committed this felony in Japan, it would have been extremely difficult to rescue. This is not a problem that money can solve at all. "As he said, his eyes were a little red, and he choked with shame: "Zayne, I know it is difficult to rescue Xion, so I reached a secret agreement with the top of the Japanese Self-Defense Force."

Zayne was startled. He blurted out: "Agreement?! What agreement?! How did you reach an agreement with the Self-Defense Forces? Xion and the other fifty-odd masters were all caught by the Japanese Self-Defense Force!"

Lord Banks lamented, "I am also based on the principle of maximizing interests, so I want to play a play with the Self-Defense Forces. On the one hand, the Self-Defense Forces can make outstanding achievements in front of Japanese society and let us establish a good cooperative relationship with the Self-Defense Forces. On the other hand, it can also stabilize the Elms family. After all, everything is for the benefit of the Banks Family."

Zayne was stunned: "Dad, what do you mean by this? Did you say you want to save Xion, but you just did a scene?!"

Lord Banks said with great pain, "I also have difficulties!"

Zayne tried his best to control his emotions and said: "You have been talking about news push before, what kind of news push is it?!"

Lord Banks motioned at his second child James, and James immediately handed his phone to Zayne and said Said: "Brother, you read this article first."

Zayne took the phone and read carefully every word. After he finished reading this article, Zayne almost fell over!

"This old guy actually used my biological daughter as a bargaining chip to please the Japanese Self-Defense Forces! Is this man still half-human?"

"No wonder, Deana knew about Xion! No wonder she suddenly wanted to divorce me! Turns out! All this has been dug up by the Japanese National Security Agency!"

Thinking of the fact that his wife Deana had just ran away from home and divorced herself because of Xion's affairs, combined with the current news that is like a bolt from the blue. Zayne was already a little untenable.

He glared at Lord Banks and angrily rebuked: "Xion is your granddaughter! How can you do this?! Do you know it, because of what you did, if life or death is unknown before now, death will follow... I'm divorced! Why did you do this? Why?"

Lord Banks said seriously: "Zayne! Even if I don't do this, we can't save Xion!"

Zayne gritted his teeth and asked, "It's impossible to save. Do you have to play with Xion? Do you have to play with Xion to please the Japanese Self-Defense Forces?!"

Seeing that Zayne's attitude was very bad, Mr. Banks couldn't help frowning slightly, and said in a cold tone: "I said, I did this for the benefit of the Banks Family!"

Zayne couldn't control his anger, and sternly shouted: "The interests of the Banks Family?! Is it possible to sacrifice my daughter's life for the interests of the Banks Family?!"

Chapter 2226

Banks said coldly: "Don't forget, she is just an illegitimate daughter with a shameless identity!"

Zayne angrily shouted: "What about the illegitimate daughter? The illegitimate daughter is also my daughter! "

Lord Banks, with the same anger, asked him: "how are you questioning my decision? are you with me to settle scores?"

Zayne said: "Just because of you, my daughter is missing and My wife is going to divorce me too!"

Lord Banks said coldly: "Don't think that I hurt Xion, you are the one who really hurt her!"

"If you didn't let her kill the Matsumoto family at that time, How can the Japanese government hate her for being so boned?"

"Your biological daughter became the number one felon in Japan because of your order!"

"With all the crimes you made her commit, according to Japanese law, she must have difficulty. Flee to death!"

"So you have to remember that it was you who did it! You did it! It wasn't me!"

Zayne heard this, his expression was like lightning strikes, and in a flash, he became extremely ashamed. Mr. Banks was right. If he hadn't had to destroy the Matsumoto family at that time, Xion would never end up like that! Therefore, when he heard this, the anger in his heart instantly subsided a lot because of shame and self-blame.

Seeing the prospect of a comeback, Mr. Banks immediately pursued the victory, and said sharply: "So, even if I don't do this, Xion will never survive! How can you say that I killed her? Even if she didn't survive in the end, mainly The person responsible is also you, not me!"

"On the contrary, it was precisely because I made such an accident that gave Xion a chance to survive!"

"You know, her whereabouts are unknown now! This proves that she is neither in the hands of the Japanese Metropolitan Police Department, nor the Japanese Self-Defense Forces. Maybe she can really find a chance to survive!"

Zayne, the whole person is extremely depressed. He also knew that for Xion's crime, in the Japanese judicial system, there must be only the possibility of the death penalty. The father was right. If Xion really died, most of the responsibility was on himself.

At this time, the Lord Banks continued coldly: "As for Deana, if she wants to divorce you, please divorce!" "Unlike us, the Thorne Family is in a high position and pays great attention to face. You have an illegitimate daughter. This kind of thing is exposed, even if Deana does not divorce you, the Thorne Family will force her to leave you for the sake of face."

"Anyway, the Thorne Family's historical mission to the Banks Family has been completed, and we will not in the future. No matter how much you need them, divorce is not a bad thing."

Zayne said with great depression: "But my feelings for Deana come from the bottom of my heart."

"I know." Lord Banks snorted coldly. "Do you know what I am most dissatisfied with about you?"

Zayne shook his head blankly.

Lord Banks sternly reprimanded: "What I am most dissatisfied with is that you are so humble when facing Deana! How can you be so humble to a woman when you are from the dignified Banks Family!"

Chapter 2227

Faced with his father's reprimand, Zayne said with a painful expression: "Dad, isn't that the way things are like feelings? There is always one party who is more engaged than the other, and Deana has been with me all these years. Lives with me in a down-to-earth manner. In comparison, I have let her down."

Lord Banks waved his hand with a somewhat impatient expression, and said, "I don't want to talk about Deana. I'm not discussing you now. When those children were in love, the most important thing now is how to deal with our next troubles!"

"Yes, big brother!" The second child, James, said with a sad face: "We are really stabbing the hornet's nest now. The Banks Family's sentiment is exciting, and the domestic people also think that we are ruthless and unrighteous. The Internet is full of words against us. As soon as the stock market opens tomorrow, the stock prices of our listed companies will definitely plummet, and our losses will be immeasurable. !"

The third child Matthew blurted out: "Also, now even our own people will probably be chilled by Xion's affairs. The children don't know if they have heard of this, if they do. I'm afraid I will think more in my heart."

Lord Banks said with a black face: "Go back and make it clear with your children! The reason why I want to cooperate with the Japanese Self-Defense Force with Xion is because Xion is not upright. It's the illegitimate daughter who is not seen. On the other hand, because Xion is bound to die, please don't think too much about it! Don't discuss this matter within the family or you will be distributed directly to South America for three years!"

When everyone heard this, their expressions were stunned. The old man must feel that this incident is very embarrassing. As the trader behind him, once the incident is exposed, he must feel unable to look up. As a result, everyone tacitly remained silent, no one spoke or even nodded. This is where the Banks Family's sons are smart.

They all know that the old man pays great attention to his own face and majesty, so once he feels that this incident is a scandal and does not want others to mention it again, then they simply don't even answer the right answer and treat it as nothing.

Seeing that everyone was silent, Lord Banks' face was a little relieved, and he said: "I'm planning a few things now, and you will listen to me!"

Everyone stepped forward and respectfully said: "Dad, you say !"

Mr. Banks said coldly: "First, from now on, contact all the media that we can contact, and pay a big price for them to delete the report!"

"Second, contact all social media, platforms, apps, and ask them Delete the incident of the Banks Familyy from all the hot search lists, and delete the negative content!"

"Third, let the navy dispatched to refute the rumors, claiming that this incident is all a competitor, and Xion is not at all a descendant of the Banks Familyy! Anyone who dares to spread rumors on the Internet and other media platforms must bear corresponding legal responsibilities!"

Everyone nodded.

Mr. Banks sighed: "With the current situation, our Banks Familyy can only conduct crisis public relations."

"As long as crisis public relations are done well, it is not impossible to turn against the wind."

"Of course, it can only be a turnaround against the wind. In the domestic public opinion, the Japanese people and the government now hate the Banks Familyy. No matter how the Banks Familyy is washed, it is impossible to wash it in Japan. In the future, you will definitely not want to make Japanese money, and in the future, Japan will definitely do it.

Chapter 2228

Zayne forced himself to temporarily forget about Deana and Xion, and asked: "Dad, do you have any estimate of how much loss this incident will bring us?"

Lord Banks sighed: "It's not good to say for the time being. Japan is the largest market in all of Asia besides our own China. This alone will cause immeasurable losses to our Banks Familyy now and in the future! and Japanese companies in overseas layout for many years, a great influence, neither the US nor the European market, they are deeply involved, if they really want to attack us overseas, then we all future overseas expansion will be greatly affected! "

James asked: "Dad, can't we remedy the relationship with the Japanese government?"

"Remedy?" Lord Banks smiled bitterly: "How to remedy? If we can find Xion and return it to the Japanese judicial department, That can be restored more or less, but now that Xion's whereabouts are unknown, what can we do?"

James hurriedly said: "Then find a way to find Xion! Then hand Xion to the Japanese judicial department, and then Attach a sincere and open letter of apology, and if you can, pay a sum of money, this should be alleviated!"

Lord Banks waved his hand: "It doesn't matter if we lose money, we can't compensate if we want to, Matsumoto family They have all been wiped out. Even if we want to compensate their relatives with a sum of money, we still have to be able to find relatives! By then, it will hurt the nerves of the Japanese people even more!"

Everyone agreed upon hearing this. This matter is indeed different from ordinary criminal cases. In general criminal cases, as long as the family of the deceased is actively compensated and the family of the deceased is allowed to voluntarily issue a letter of understanding, a certain degree of lenient treatment can be obtained from the law and public opinion. However, Xion left the entire family of the Matsumoto family, and even the son of Ryoto Matsumoto who had changed his surname with his ex-wife did not let go. The Matsumoto family was dead, so how could any relatives come? Therefore, even if the Banks Family wanted to compensate, no one could compensate.

James said with a sad expression: "In this case, let's prepare with both hands. On the one hand, we should quickly do crisis public relations, on the other hand, we should quickly find Xion's whereabouts!"

After that, he looked at Zayne with regret and said: "Big brother! Don't blame the younger brother for talking about you. You said that this whole thing was done by you. If you didn't mess with Kairi back then, you wouldn't have Xion to be so troublesome."

Zayne seeing that his brother actually suddenly launched an attack, could not help frowning: "James, the thing twenty years ago, you still out in front of my father and other brothers and sisters What's the intention?"

James didn't expect that the eldest brother was so sharp. He immediately understood his mind, and in the presence of his father and younger siblings, he gave himself a moral kidnapping first.

He himself wanted to make use of the topic in front of the old man, and transfer the responsibility for this matter to Zayne. In this way, it is equivalent to helping Dad transfer the responsibility, and he also splashed the big brother in front of Dad. A pot of dirty water. However, Zayne's mind turned quickly, and he immediately poured the dirty water back.

So he immediately said again: "Big brother is right. Xion is in her early twenties. It doesn't make much sense to talk about it, but let's just talk about the present! Just say that Fitz and Zara were kidnapped a few days ago. As long as you were a little calmer at the time, don't get angry and let Xion leave the Matsumoto family full of people, this matter will not be where it is today! In the final analysis, it is still your trouble!"

Chapter 2229

James had prepared a set of combined punches. His plan was that the first punch attacked Zayne who couldn't control his lower body and messed around in the past, causing subsequent troubles; followed by the second punch, he attacked Zayne for being too cruel and must destroy the people. The result led to such a catastrophe.

This first punch slammed into the air, but this second punch hit Zayne's face firmly. Several other children of the Banks Familyy, upon hearing this, immediately showed their approval. After all, these things in Japan have nothing to do with them, and now they are also implicated, and they are all caused by Zayne alone.

Zayne's expression suddenly became very ugly. The order to destroy the Matsumoto family was indeed given to Xion. However, there is one thing he dare not say. At that time, the old man had once instructed himself, and what he meant at the time was to punish the murderer severely.

If it hadn't been for the old man to set the tone, he might not have dared to give Xion the order to kill. But Zayne couldn't say this, nor did he dare to say it. He also knew that as far as the matter of destroying the Matsumoto family was concerned, on the one hand it was indeed an order from him, on the other hand, he was indeed impulsive at the time.

At the time of the incident, Zayne learned that the kidnapping of his children turned out to be Mr. Matsumoto, and Mr. Matsumoto almost killed Zara and Fitz. Zayne felt angry and unbearable. Matsumoto wanted to kill his sons and daughters, which in his view was an act of rebellion. If you just killed Mr. Matsumoto, you wouldn't be able to express the bad breath in your heart!

Moreover, Matsumoto's methods at the time were indeed very sinister and vicious! If he only killed him, the other members of the Matsumoto clan would definitely avenge him, and would definitely use more sinister tricks against him.

Therefore, he decided to let Xion lead the Banks Familyy master and destroy the Matsumoto family in order to vent his anger on the one hand and to end the troubles forever on the other! However, who knew that after Xion killed the Matsumoto family, she could not escape!

If she had escaped then, there would be no evidence of this matter. It doesn't matter if the whole Japan thinks that the Matsumoto family was the one who destroyed the family. There is no evidence. What the hell do they say?

However, the bad dishes are there. Xion and other Banks Familyy masters were directly made dumplings by the Japanese Self-Defense Force when they fled Japan. This immediately pushed the whole thing into an abyss that Zayne could not control. .

Now, James attacked him with this incident, and he didn't know how to respond. James saw that his eldest brother didn't speak any more, he immediately realized that he had hit the seven inches of his eldest brother, so he hurriedly pursued the victory and said, "Big brother! We also expect you to lead us and lead the entire Banks Familyy to create new glory in the future. But, if you can't control your own temperament and character, the Banks Familyy is afraid that you will suffer a big loss in your hands in the future!"

"Don't blame me for speaking straight, I also want our Banks Familyy to be able to Better! As the future leader of the Banks Familyy, you must be able to hear different voices, so that our younger brothers and sisters can better assist you, right?"

James' words came out, Zayne's face is green!

Chapter 2230

He is a wise man, so he knows exactly how much murderous intent is contained in his brother's seemingly heart-warming remarks.

He gritted his teeth in his heart: "James, James! You fucking got the chance and fell into trouble!"

"The whole thing, although I am also responsible, but it is not what made the Banks Familyy in this passive situation. It is the old man! However, James, this bastard, throws all the pots to me in front of everyone. This is forcing me to carry this pot!"

"If I do, then I will become this. All sinners;"

"But if I don't want to recite, the old man still doesn't know what to think, he will definitely hate me very much!"

"Moreover, the bastard James repeatedly mentioned that I am the Banks Familyy in front of the old man. The future helm, would he say anything better to assist me? Isn't this damn murder and condemnation ?!" "The old man is still alive! And the old man is still firmly in control of the entire Banks Familyy! James repeatedly said in front of him I am the helm of the future, he is trying to make the old man hate me!"

"Since ancient times, the emperor with longevity has been the prince the most wary of! Because in his opinion, the prince is always coveting his throne and coveting him. Therefore, the prince must always be looking forward to his death!"

"Deep in my heart, the old man must have the same precaution for me!"

"Now that James mentions this, the old man will definitely become wary of me!"

"Not only that! What James did in this way was tantamount to helping the old man in secret! "Originally, the old man was the bastard who used his granddaughter's life to exchange benefits regardless of his bloodline! "

But, after being bitten so wildly by James, the responsibility came to me!" The old man must be very satisfied with James' operation!"

Sure enough, as Zayne expected. After James said this, Lord Banks's face immediately looked much better.

He thought to himself: "So the pot freshman, always someone back, saying the death of his fellow die, since James put all the training and preparation into this conversation, I'm too happy!"

So He said coldly: "Zayne! What do you think of what James said earlier?"

Zayne's desire to die is all over.

"What do you think I am? I am his brother. What do you think? My actual opinion is entirely shit! But I can say these words? I fucking say it?"

"I really want to say his bother James is farting. Doesn't that mean you still want to throw the pot on your old man again? With your old man's temperament, can I have a good life in the future?"

Thinking of this, Zayne sighed in his heart. "Hey! Say a thousand things and ten thousand, and finally you have to break your teeth and swallow it in your stomach!"

So, he said with a look of shame: "Dad, I accept everything James said. It is my fault and I did not do it right. Don't worry, I will take it as a warning in the future and actively correct it!"

Lord Banks suddenly felt that the breath that was blocked in his chest disappeared in an instant. Sure enough, people don't want to go back to their backs. People who are close to each other will shake the pot. It's like a child is sick. The husband complains that his wife didn't take good care of him. The wife complained about the time wasted by putting on make-up and changing clothes, and the wife complained that the old public car was too slow. Anyway, as long as you can give it to others, even if it is to your son, it is a great thing to celebrate.

So, he nodded gently, and said in a serious tone: "As the son of Banks' family, you are too impulsive to do things. You should really polish the edges and corners of your body."

As he said, he cleared his throat and continued: "Ahem, let's go! From now on, until this matter is completely resolved, you should stop appearing in front of the public and go quietly to Australia for a while. Let's wait until the limelight has passed!"

Chapter 2231

Hearing the old man's arrangement, Zayne almost spit out a mouthful of old blood!

"Obviously the old man is blind and fucking doing a lot of things, but in the end I want to go to Australia to avoid the limelight? What the hell is this?"

Thinking of this, he hurriedly said: "Dad, you let me temporarily If I don't appear in public view, I totally accept it, but there's no need to let me go to Australia, right? There are still a lot of things in the group, and I have to find a way to restore with Deana!"

Lord Banks said coldly, "You Stay here, and the paparazzi will keep watching your every move, and don't forget, now I don't know how many families are waiting to take the opportunity to drink our blood and eat our meat. You are their breakthrough point!

"So, in my opinion, you still go to Australia to avoid it. Don't we have a seaside villa in Queensland? You go there and relax. I will help you sort out the things here."

Zayne said almost quickly collapsed.

He whispered angrily in his heart: "Let me go to Australia at this time. Isn't it clear that I will be used as a moving target and attract firepower? Betrayed my granddaughter, if I ran away, I don't know how this group of people arranged on me!"

"Moreover, I am now the executive vice chairman of the group and the second in command of the group standard. If I leave my job who then is taking my spot? If James takes my job, then I come back when vice chairman is his, then am I not just mere figurehead?! " in the Soviet Union Conservative When he tried his best to decline the arrangement of the old man, Lord Banks directly said: "James, you help your brother arrange the plane, let him hurry to leave tonight. His work in the group will be temporarily taken care of by you in the future. "

When James heard this, he was so excited that he almost cheered.

However, he still suppressed his excitement and respectfully said: "Don't worry, Dad, I will arrange the plane!"

Zayne begged: "Dad, even if you let me go, please take me two days. At least let me have a good chat with Deana!"

Lord Banks waved his hand: "There is nothing to talk about. With my understanding of Deana, she can't remarry with you, so you might as well cut the mess with her. Married and divorced!"

If this really has to go, there will be too much delay. Not only was it about his wife, but also about the status of the group heir. He also wanted to find out Xion's whereabouts. After all, it was his own flesh and blood. Now that he is unsure of life or death, he always has to find a way to find out. What if she is still alive?

If you find her by yourself, you can still find a way to secretly arrange a destination for her, let her go to a corner of the world and live incognito. But if someone else in the Banks Family finds her, or the Japanese find her, then she will definitely die!

Seeing that he was unwilling to agree, Lord Banks immediately reprimanded: "What are you doing? Didn't you even follow my arrangement?"

Upon hearing this, Zayne immediately realized that he had no room for mediation. Completely offended the old man, he could only lightly nod his head, and said, "Okay Dad, I will listen to you, and I will leave tonight."

Lord Banks nodded in satisfaction and waved his hand: "Okay, you go back." Clean up, say hello to Fitz and Zara, and leave in an hour."

Just when Zayne was called away by the housekeeper, Fitz and Zara were still in their study, facing the computer The screen kept watching. After their mother, Deana, left, she drove back to her family's house and called the brother and sister. On the phone, Deana told them about Xion very calmly, and Fitz and Zara were shocked by the news.

Chapter 2232

I am afraid that if you are a young man in his twenties, it is difficult to accept this reality immediately when he suddenly hears that his father actually has an illegitimate daughter. Especially Zara. Like her mother Deana, she has a serious emotional cleanliness. Although she has never been in a relationship so far, if something like this happens to her, she will definitely divorce her husband resolutely and resolutely like her mother, without hesitation. Therefore, although she will find it difficult to accept this reality for a while, she unconditionally supports all her mother's decisions.

At this point, Fitz is more or less machismo. He felt that a man like his father was almost unlikely to be loyal to marriage for a lifetime. Men who are wealthy to the extreme seldom are satisfied with only one heterosexual partner, so it is normal to occasionally get in trouble outside. After all, he grew up in the circle of the upper class, and in this circle he has seen many men's occasions.

There are illegitimate children and illegitimate daughters, and it's a lot of people in this circle. It has long been commonplace. The most powerful person he has ever seen is a billionaire who engages in the Internet. He found a lot of women and gave birth to him a lot of children, and he still showed off on social networking sites.

So, in contrast, if his father had just had a one-night stand with his bodyguard and gave birth to a daughter, Fitz felt that his father was already in this circle, relatively low-key and family-oriented. In fact, women in this circle have long been used to such things.

Of course, he did not say this to his mother and sister, because he understands the character of his mother and sister. If he washes the floor at this time, he is afraid that they will be scolded by them.

Zara was very angry inside.

She felt the same feeling for her mother at this time. If she met such a husband, she would definitely leave him without hesitation. So she was on the phone and said to Deana, "Mom, I support You divorcing dad! He made this kind of mistake and kept it hidden for so long. This incident is absolutely unforgivable! I saw him back, and I must ask him in person!"

Deana is not as passionate as her, just indifferent. "Zara, I told you this because you and your brother are both grown-ups. You have the right to know these things, but this is between us. You don't need to go confront your dad because of this."

"In addition, after I divorced your dad, you two can choose to continue to live in Banks' house, you can also choose to live in your grandmother's house, or you can go out and live by yourself. Mom has no problem."

In the future, if there is any family gathering at Grandpa's house, you should all participate as usual. It's just that your father and I will no longer attend each other's family meetings. Everything else will remain the same."

Zara had some Reluctantly said: "Mom! Why don't you have to confront the woman surnamed Elms for this matter? To seduce someone else's husband and have the face to give birth to a child, this woman is too much!"

"No need." Deana Calmly said: "She is also a poor person, I have nothing to blame for her, and you shouldn't go to her to confront her. Feelings are all personal choices, and there is no right or wrong."

Zara choked up a bit. Asked: "Mom, what are your plans next?"

Deana smiled: "I have no plans. When your dad can figure it out, he will divorce quickly. If he can figure it out quickly, I will divorce. Go out and relax; if he doesn't understand for a while, then I won't spend a while with him, go out first."

Zara hurriedly said : "Mom, where do you want to go for a relax?" Deana smiled slightly and said Two words: "Arouss Hilll!"

Chapter 2233

Deana's idea of going to Arouss Hilll has been buried in my heart for nearly two decades. Since the death of Bruce and his wife, she wanted to go to Arouss Hilll to take a look. After all, that was where Bruce's life last fell. As a woman who has loved him for most of her life, she especially hopes to go to Arouss Hilll for a walk, see, and live for a while, trying to find traces of Bruce's existence in Arouss Hilll.

However, as a woman who has been married as a married woman, her moral values have always reminded her that she should not go to Arouss Hilll, because that is indeed unfair to her husband. Going quietly to Bruce's grave to mourn Bruce is already what Deana feels most guilty of for Zayne in his heart. If she goes to Arouss Hilll again, it is really inappropriate. But now, she has no moral constraints.

Zayne's body derailed first, and had broken the agreement between her and Zayne. In that case, she no longer has to be bound by any reason. It's time to realize her wish to visit Arouss Hilll.

Zara heard her mother say that she was going to Arouss Hilll, and immediately said happily: "Mom! My brother and I are planning to go to Arouss Hilll! let's go together!"

Deana asked curiously, "What are you going to Aurouss Hilll for? I'm listening to you."

Fitz said hurriedly : "Mom, I am going to Aurouss Hilll for the company's business needs. It happens to say that I will take Zara to go around. If you also go, I will arrange the plane and hotel!"

Deana laughed "You don't need to arrange a hotel. Your grandfather has an old house in Aurouss Hilll. It has been taken care of for these years. Let's live there."

Zara asked in surprise, "Mom, grandpa still has a house in Aurouss Hilll. Why have I never heard of it?"

Deana smiled and said, "Your dad is a little taboo about Aurouss Hilll, so I haven't taken you to Aurouss Hilll for so many years, so naturally you don't know about the house."

Having said that, Deana introduced: "Your grandfather's ancient house in Aurouss Hilll is very impressive. It is right next to the Presidential Palace. The house has existed since the Ming Dynasty, until the Quintong Dynasty and the Republic of China. Throughout the years, all the people who lived there were big figures. In the 1970s, your grandfather spent a lot of money to buy it, and he and your grandmother occasionally lived there for a few days."

When Fitz heard that his father was a little taboo about Aurouss Hilll, he instantly remembered the past. He had heard about some things back then, knowing that Bruce, his mother's favorite back then, died in Aurouss Hilll. Therefore, his heart suddenly became a little tangled.

At this time, Zara on the side said without hesitation: "Mom, why don't you go to grandpa's house to have a good rest tonight, let's go to Aurouss Hilll tomorrow morning!"

Deana said, " Okay, you two don't want to talk to you. Dad talked about the matter between me and him. This is a matter between the two of us. No matter what, it only affects the relationship between me and him. I and you, or he and you, will not be affected in any way, understand? ?"

Fitz and Zara returned in unison: "I understand mom"

Deana said with satisfaction: "Okay, I'm at your grandma's house, so I won't tell you anymore."

Chapter 2234

Zara hurriedly said : "Mom, then you have a good rest tonight, I will call you tomorrow morning!"

"Okay." Zara hung up the phone, Fitz on the side said with some worry: "Zara, Dad has always been a little taboo about Aurouss Hilll. If we go to Aurouss Hilll with my mom at this time, will he be very angry?"

Zara snorted coldly, "What about being angry? He gave birth to a daughter and took her home ceremoniously and put her under the eyes of our family. How could he not think that our family of three would be angry too?"

After a pause, Zara said angrily: "Really, I want to confront him face-to-face! We went to Aurouss Hillll with three of us to give him a signal to let him know that it was all his fault!"

Fitz said embarrassingly, "Hurt, this kind of thing, How can we be children?"

Fitz said, "There are so many top rich people in this world. Some of these people don't play extramarital affairs. Dad was just confused that time. Among these people, it can be regarded as a very good one."

Zara asked with a very serious expression: "How can you say that? Can rich people be disloyal to marriage?"

Fitz said in a hurry. "Oh, I didn't mean that. I just said, I don't think our dad's plot is very bad. If he admits his mistakes and regrets sincerely, he can still be forgiven. Mom will resolutely divorce him, right? A little ill-considered? After all, the relationship between husband and wife for more than 20 years, coupled with our two children, can't we give our dad a chance?"

Zara said seriously: "You are a typical scumbag thinking! Go bigger, That is, the views are not right! I ask you, if you get married in the future and your wife cheats on your back, can you forgive her?"

"I..." Fitz said awkwardly: "It's not such a thing. After all, a man cheating on a woman is not the same thing."

"Why isn't it the same thing?" Zara said with a bit of irritation: "Is it true that there is something like male inferiority in marriage? A man can be forgiven if he cheats, but a woman can't cheat? Fitz! I Know you For the first time in so many years, I discovered that you were so politically incorrect!"

"I tell you! If you make this kind of mistake in the future, even if your wife forgives you, I will not forgive you! I will deny you at that time!"

Fitz was scolded by Zara, and said with an embarrassing expression: "Oh my sister, your mouth is too bad, I didn't do anything, so why did you become a scumbag? "

"!?! this kind of thinking is typical of the slag men feel that they have better thinking quite a lot, you can mess up outside"

"If you really want to do it, that Don't go after Stefanie. After all, Stefanie is also a lady of everyone. Your kind of scumbag thinking is not worthy of others!"

"I suggest you, in the future, you still want to find someone who is devoted to money and thinking. Marry a female celebrity who has become a wealthy star!"

"When the time comes, you will make an appointment with others for some extra curricular fun: You give her enough money and provide her with a good enough life, and she must not interfere with you outside with any woman. Isn't this happy for everyone?"

Fitz heard here, his face depressed, said: "You're right, I was wrong." then he hastened to change the subject, opening: "Yes, I hasten to arrange the plane, I will go tomorrow morning Take off Aurouss Hill!"

Zara saw that he wanted to change the subject, and immediately said aggressively: "Fitz! Respect for women and respect for your partner is a compulsory course and basic skill for every man. If you become a man in the future, Scumbag, I don't have your brother!"

Chapter 2235

This night, the entire Eastcliff was shaken. The Banks Family caused a disaster in Japan and was named by the National Security Agency of Japan, which dealt a huge blow to the reputation and influence of the Banks Family. At the same time, other Eastcliff families headed by the Wade family also started gearing up.

The Banks Family now has lost a large number of masters and offended the overseas channels. In the future, the Banks Family will have to tighten up and behave like a man. In this way, other families will have the opportunity to cannibalize the power of the Banks Family.

Lord Wade was particularly excited about this. He felt that this was God's blessing. Wade's second spring is finally coming! So he summoned all his children except Cynthia and immediately formulated a three-year plan.

From now on, in the next three years, the Wade family will launch an attack on the Banks Family in an all-round way like the Banks Family organized the Anti-Leaf Alliance back then!

Not only must we pull the Banks Family down from the throne, but we must also take our own strength to the next level, leave the Banks Family far behind, and regain the title of the nation's first family!

However, Mr. Wade did not immediately start to do it, but chose the day of the declaration of war at this year's Spring ancestor worship ceremony.

He couldn't hide his excitement and said to the children: "This time the ancestor worship ceremony will bring the branches of the Wade family across the country to Wade Mountain!"

"At that time, I will use the most solemn ancestor worship ceremony to let all surnames Wade Realize that the Wade family is a large family with an orderly heritage, a super family that was once extremely brilliant!"

Let all the Wade family members take the surname Wade as the highest honor!"

"By then, the Wade family will be united in an unprecedented way. A moment!"

"By then, at the ancestor worship ceremony, on the grounds of avenging Bruce, I will order all the Wade family to work together to defeat the Banks Familyy, and ask the Banks Familyy to severely punish Zayne, the leader of the Anti-Leaf Alliance!"

"The moment when the Wade family is up against the enemy, is the best time for us to fully fight the Banks Familyy!"

Hearing this, the eldest son, Corran, was already excited and said with excitement: "Dad! At that time, we will too. We must form an anti-Banks alliance! We must knock down the assets of the Banks Familyy by half! Let them fall directly out of the Eastcliff three-family sequence!"

Elder Wade sneered, "In Eastcliff, there are not a few families that have enemies with the Banks Familyy. Among them, we have the deepest hatred, followed by the Sun family. If we raise the banner of dealing with the Banks Familyy, the Sun family will definitely follow!"

"The most important thing now is to let Charlie Wade and Stefanie from the Sun family get married soon!"

"Once the two of them get married, the Sun family will definitely help the Wade family without hesitation! At that time, the Banks Familyy will be unable to parry and let us slaughter them at will!"

Corran asked, "Dad, didn't you still say that you wanted to let it go? Can Charlie Wade try to get that Zara from the Banks Familyy?"

Lord Wade waved his hand and sneered, "I thought before, after all, the Banks Familyy is overwhelming us in all aspects. But for them, it's better to change your mind and not let Charlie Wade pursue that Zara."

"But who would have thought that the Banks Familyy would encounter a Waterloo incident one after another in Japan? They are badly injured now, we can directly go to war with them. Marry their girl with Charlie Wade?"

At this point, Lord Wade laughed a few times and said loudly: "Hahaha, God has opened your eyes! God has opened your eyes!" Myles on the side asked, "Dad, What if Charlie Wade doesn't want to marry the girl of the Sun family?"

Lord Wade smiled unpredictably: "By then, Charlie Wade will also come to the ancestor worship ceremony. At that time, I will announce it in front of all the children of the Wade family. The plan to avenge the Banks Familyy, and then let Charlie Wade marry the Sun family to strengthen our overall strength, and to trample the Banks Familyy underfoot. The parents' hatred is not shared, I believe he will not refuse!"

Chapter 2236
Thorne Family Home.

Before Deana arrived home, her parents and brothers and sisters knew about the scandal in the Banks Family and also knew that Zayne had an illegitimate daughter outside.

Therefore, when she hadn't come back, the other brothers and sisters of the Thorne Family rushed back one after another at the call of Mr. Thorne.

Mr. Thorne and Mrs. Thorne are very aware of Deana's temperament. They knew that as long as Deana knew about this, he would definitely go back to her parents' home immediately. So they didn't call Deana, nor did they ask others to call Deana. They gathered together and waited for Deana to return.

When Deana's car drove into the Thorne's mansion, her parents and several siblings greeted them one after another. Deana saw the whole family appear in front of her, and she was immediately moved beyond words.

Unlike other business families, Thorne's elders have been in high positions for generations, so money has never been a thing worth mentioning for Thorne's family. Because they don't care about money, there is no intrigue between the Thorne's brothers and sisters.

Among the descendants of the Thorne Family, some have inherited the mantle of Mr. Thorne in the system and have excellent career prospects; some are devoted to studying their own majors in the top universities or scientific research institutes; some people rarely hear of them becoming the world. Although the Thomas merchants have a wealth of hundreds of billions, they never show up.

As for Deana and several of her sisters, they all have their own emotional destinations. Under the education of Mrs. Thorne from a young age, the women of Thorne's family have not been too ambitious. On the contrary, they are masters of the family. Everyone has the fine virtues of traditional Chinese women.

As soon as Deana got out of the car, Mrs. Thorne stepped forward, holding her hand distressed, and whispered: "Deana, you are wronged."

Deana smiled slightly and said, "Mom, don't you say that. I don't feel wronged at all."

Her Father spoke and said: "! Deana, we can have a get day they gathered not, I let people burn charcoal, copper pots and eat a little later with our family,"

One of the favorite delicacies of Beijing people is copper pot-shabu-shabu. Different from hot pots in other places with induction cookers or gas stoves, the older Eastcliff people eat copper pots for shabu-shabu, and they must use copper pots with a hollow interior and burning charcoal. This is also the way to eat from the palace.

In the severe cold of Eastcliff in winter, eating shabu-shabu while guarding the copper pot is really a wonderful treat.

The five generations of the Thorne Family were all natives of Eastcliff, and they naturally loved this copper pot-shabu-shabu. It's just that in these years, the children have started their own families, and each family is in a different situation. Although everyone often comes back to visit the elderly, it is really not easy to get together.

Therefore, the old man immediately became addicted, thinking that the family would have a good meal first, otherwise if everyone came to comfort Deana, it might be counterproductive. Sure enough, when the children heard that they were going to eat copper pot-shabu-shabu, they didn't care that it was almost late at night, and they were all excited.

The sixth oldest, Allie, is Deana's little sister. She immediately stepped forward with excitement and took Deana's arm. She smiled and said, "Second sister, I just have been idle these days. I want to stay at my parents' house for a few days. How many days will our sisters sleep together?"

Deana smiled and said: "Tonight is fine , tomorrow is not possible, tomorrow I want to go to Aurouss Hilll."

"What?!" Everyone looked at Deana in amazement.

The Father, Lord Bradley Thorne asked, "Deana, did you go to Aurouss Hilll to grow tassels?"

Deana nodded her head and said calmly: "Yes, Dad, I always wanted to go before, but I can't help myself. Now I don't have so many taboos. So I wanted to go there quickly, but I had a wish after all."

Lord Thorne looked a little lonely, and said sincerely: "His failure to recruit Bruce to be his son-in-law is really my biggest regret in my life"

Chapter 2237

Lord Thorne sighed, making the expressions of everyone at the scene more or less regretful.

Mrs. Thorne hurriedly pinched his waist and whispered: "You guys, you really don't open the pot or lift which pot, so I rushed the kids in and got ready to eat!"

Lord Thorne sighed: " Oh, Deana is so big. She sees a lot of things better than us. What I say is from my heart. There is no need to be too taboo."

Deana nodded and said seriously: "Mom, this time. I'm really not angry or uncomfortable at all, so you don't need to be too sensitive."

Mrs. Thorne looked surprised: "Deana, Zayne has been hiding from you for so many years, you are not angry at all?"

Deana said seriously: "Not angry, but feel relieved."

Lord Thorne smiled: "Good thing! Freed is a good thing! To be honest, for so many years, Dad has always felt that you are unhappy. Now that you can come out, Dad will be happy for you. ! "

Deana seriously nodded, smiled slightly: " Thank you, dad! "

Lord Thorne laughed, busy waving said: " walk walk, eat Shabu-Shabu, your siblings will have a couple of drinks with me!! "

As the son of Thorne's family, Dalton nodded without hesitation: "Good dad! Our three brothers will accompany you for a few drinks tonight!"

Deana's sister Alice also said with a busy smile: "Dad, there is still home at home. Red wine? Our three sisters will also accompany you to drink some!"

The sixth oldest Allie smiled and said, "That's great, Dad, my eldest sister and second sister will accompany you to drink some!"

Lord Thorne was immediately happy and smiled heartily. He Said: "Okay ! Your sister three did not come back on New Year's Eve. Let's treat it as the Chinese New Year today!" Allie hurriedly said: "Dad, we want to come with you during the New Year, but you don't allow anything."

Lord Thorne said seriously: "You are married to the Hartley family and you are the daughter-in-law of the Hartley family. You should spend the New Year with your in-laws. The same is true for your two sisters. This is the rule. Your three brothers will come to accompany your mother and me for the New Year. If your three sisters also come, they will say that Mr. Thorne is ignorant and I only think about my own home."

Allie hurriedly said: "I know Dad, I can talk to Brent Hartley, and I will come back next year's Eve to accompany me. You have passed."

Lord Thorne said with a smile: "Let's talk about it when the time comes, and see what Brent Hartley means. If he doesn't want to, don't force it."

Then, Thorne's three children and three daughters walked to the restaurant with a pair of elderly people. .

In the restaurant at this time, the chef at home has put an exquisite brass pot on the table. In the middle of the pot there is a green flame of charcoal, and a pot of clear soup is boiled outside. The table is already full of fresh cuts. , All kinds of lamb.

In Eastcliff people are very particular about eating mutton. Basically, they don't eat mutton rolls prepared by machines in hot pot restaurants. They eat pure and fresh hand-cut mutton.

There are a lot of hand-cut lambs. Lamb has various names according to different parts, such as upper brain meat, tenderloin, big three-pointed, small three-pointed, and cucumber strips.

Different meats have different cutting methods, different sizes and thicknesses, and there are many sayings.

The Thorne Family seldom show off their wealth, and they rarely live a life of extravagant and wasteful local tyrants, but the family are very particular people, but they are not about pomp and price, but about taste and essence.

Take food as an example, the Thorne Family's mouths are more than one.

The fried oil cakes will not be greasy for a family after ten years, but once they change to a slightly poorer craftsmanship, they will find it difficult to swallow even if the difference is negligible.

Mr. Thorne has no bad habits all his life, he just loves to smoke.

Chapter 2238

He especially likes smoking a cigarette produced by a cigarette factory in the southern region.

After the old man smoked for 20 years, the cigarette factory's technology and production line improved, the formula was upgraded, and the cigarette paper and filter material were replaced.

Everyone felt that the improved product was more exquisite and higher-grade than before, and the taste was not much worse, but Mr. Thorne just felt that the taste was not right and couldn't adapt.

Later, because of this, he even fell ill. When the old man's subordinates heard that the old man was sick and hospitalized, he made a special trip to visit him.

Asked about the cause of the disease, and learned that the old man turned out to be suffering from the taste of the cigarettes that had been smoking for 20 years. He simply made a phone call and asked the cigarette factory to reopen the old production line that had been dismantled and ready to be scrapped. It was just for the old man. People who produce the original cigarettes can be regarded as curing the old man's heart disease.

However, the old man also felt guilty for using the privilege. He specifically asked Logan, his second son in business, to go to the cigarette factory, verified all the costs of reopening the cigarette factory's production line, and then paid for it all out of his own pocket. This is regarded as accepting the privilege with peace of mind.

In fact, the children of the Thorne Family have inherited the father's exquisiteness. The more exquisite, the more refined you live. Therefore, the family not only has high academic qualifications and strong abilities, but also inherits the traditional virtues of the Chinese nation of gentleness, courtesy, frugality and concession.

At this time, the Thorne Family was sitting around the table, eating the shabu-shabu and drinking wine. The eight people were chatting enthusiastically, and they all seemed to be in a very good mood. At first, everyone was worried that Deana's mood would be lower.

But unexpectedly, Deana's whole state is extremely relaxed and comfortable. Everyone and her are close relatives, and they can see that her ease and comfort is not the result of the performance, so they are completely relieved. The old couple are in a particularly good mood. Over the years, the six children have started a family, and no matter which one they look at individually, they all have a very good, even impeccable, but they have always loved Deana.

This was mainly because they had always known that Deana had loved Bruce for so many years to no avail. Later, after Bruce's wedding, she decided to marry Zayne, which was really impulsive and outrageous. The night before Deana's marriage, she held the Lady and cried all night, while her sister Alice and her sister Allie were with them, and they all felt distressed.

At that time, because she felt sorry for her, tried to persuade her to repent of her marriage, but she did not agree with her life and death. After so many years of marriage, although Zayne is very fond of Deana, only Deana's family can tell that she has always been unhappy. Especially after Bruce's accidental death, she became even more taciturn, and even started to eat fast and reciting the Buddha occasionally, and became a layman at home.

But now, everyone can see that Deana is really relieved. The old man Lord Thorne remembered that Deana was going to Aurouss Hilll, so he asked, "Deana, how long do you plan to stay in Aurouss Hilll this time?" Deana thought for a while and said, "Dad, how long will I stay? I don't know now. Look."

Lord Thorne asked again: "Who will accompany you?" Deana said: "Fitz and Zara will accompany me." Lord Thorne nodded: "The old house in Aurouss Hilll has been very well maintained, and you have not for many years. I've been there. You can live there for a few days. If there is nothing wrong with your mom and I, we will go to Aurouss Hilll for a few days in two days. The winter in Eastcliff is too dry. Your mom said that she wanted to spend a few days away from Eastcliff."

Chapter 2239

When the entire Thorne Family was enjoying themselves, Zayne had simply packed his luggage and was ready to leave for Australia. What happened this time made him very passive, and the old man made it clear that he temporarily avoided the limelight, and he could only do it honestly.

Before setting off, he called Fitz and asked: "Fitz, you and your sister, come to my study."

Fitz was busy and said, "Good dad. , Let's go over."

After finishing speaking, he hung up the phone and said to Zara: "Zara, dad let us go to the study."

Zara said a little angrily: "Go by yourself, I don't want to see him! "

Zara will find it hard to accept that her father betrayed her mother and has an illegitimate daughter who is only one year younger than herself, so she is very reluctant to see Zayne at this time.

Fitz helplessly persuades: "Zara, in matters between parents, we are children, so we should not participate too much. You can't cut off your dad because of the small mistakes made more than 20 years ago. Father-daughter relationship?"

Zara said seriously: "I don't want to sever relationship with him, but I don't want to see him now. Go and see him yourself."

Fitz asked embarrassedly: "Then I will see Dad later. , If Dad asks about you, what would I say?"

Zara blurted out without hesitation: "Then tell him directly, I don't want to see him yet."

Fitz saw that Zara was not joking. I could only sigh helplessly, and said: "Let's go, I'll go first."

Then Fitz stood up and stepped out of Zara's study. The Banks Family villa covers a huge area, and the whole is more like a castle. Although the family lives together, they live in different areas of the villa. Fitz went downstairs to his father Zayne's study. After knocking on the door and entering, he saw Zayne smoking a cigarette with a sad face, as if he was ten years older suddenly.

Seeing Fitz coming in, Zayne asked in surprise: "Where is your sister?"

Fitz said embarrassedly: "Zara is not coming"

Zayne smiled bitterly and asked: "Zara must be very angry with me, right? "

Fitz ridicule and said:" she is a comparison of this axis, in fact, that sort of thing, long ago got used to the "

Zayne sighed:" hey, after all, I still live up to your mother, your brother and sister live up to . "

Fitz Said: "dad, you do not say no right or wrong thing to say feelings Well, you do not have too much blame, "

Zayne waved his hand:" like anyone, who does not like, it is not Right or wrong, but after getting married, I really have to be responsible for the marriage and the other half. This is because I did not do it right. It is only right to know that the fish is angry with me."

Then he said: "I know I am wrong. Here, I mainly want to tell you something. Your grandfather asked me to go to Australia for shelter. I will leave tonight. I may not be able to return in a short time."

"To Australia?!" Fitz was surprised. Question: "Dad, what did Grandpa tell you to go to Australia at this time? You are still leaving so hastily? Even if this matter is a big trouble, there is no need to go to Australia, right?"

Zayne smiled bitterly, "This matter, yes. The scandal between me and your grandfather. Your grandfather asked me to go to Australia. Naturally, he regarded me as the person who was behind the scenes. At the same time, he also asked me to divert the media attention. After I left, they would definitely run me overnight. The news of Xion is leaked to the media, and the media will definitely concentrate on me at that time."

Chapter 2240

Fitz said angrily: "Dad! Grandpa did too much in this matter, right? He betrayed Xion. If it is really broken, he can even betray his granddaughter. Old fox, at this moment, if you don't quickly find a way to solve the immediate crisis, you have to throw you out as a target. It's not justified!"

Zayne waved his hand and said seriously: "This kind of thing, it's worth talking about it here. Now, when you leave this room, don't mention it to anyone. Your grandpa's temperament is like this."

"In his eyes, he must first take care of his personal interests in everything. In the face of personal interests, nothing can't be sacrificed.

"He can sell Xion to the Japanese Self-Defense Force today. Who knows if he will sell one of us to a certain interest group tomorrow? So when you are by his side, you must remember five words: Companion with you, like a tiger!"

Fitz nodded gently.

Zayne said: "By the way, after I'm gone, you and Zara will stay with your mother during this period of time, and also help me apologize to her, say a few more good things, and have to trouble you by the way. Help me pay more attention to your mother, see what she did, where she went, who she met, and tell me what she is going to do."

After that, he quickly explained: "Don't think too much, I It doesn't mean that you will help me monitor your mother. The main reason is that I want to try to save my marriage with your mother, so I have to ask you to help as an internal response."

Fitz nodded: "Dad, I understand. , Don't worry."

After speaking, he quickly said again: "By the way, Mom said that I will go to Aurouss Hilll tomorrow, and Zara and I will go to Aurouss Hilll."

"To Aurouss Hilll?!" Zayne asked, "Your mother is going to Aurouss Hilll. What are you doing?"

Fitz hesitated and said, "That mom may want to relax, I don't know the details."

Zayne's expression was very ugly. He knew very well why Deana went to Aurouss Hilll.

His mind teeth to myself: "!Arouss Hilll, the place Bruce Wade died"

"She leaves long tassel for all these years has been more than love unfulfilled, go Aurouss Hilll idea, there is certainly not a day for two days,"

"here just If you want to divorce me, you will immediately go to Aurouss Hilll, Deana, you are too much! In your eyes, do you have a little respect for me?!"

"It just broke out today that I have an illegitimate daughter outside of marriage. The scandal, Deana will go to Aurouss Hilll to miss Bruce tomorrow. If this is known to people, where can I put my old face!"

Thinking of this, Zayne hated him.

Fitz saw that Zayne's expression was very ugly. Knowing that he had said something wrong, he hurriedly changed the topic: "When will you leave, Dad? I will see you off."

Zayne forcibly calmed his mind, retracted his thoughts, and treated Fitz. said: "I have set out ten minutes later, this time I was your grandfather arranged to Australia, your uncle no less behind the waves, I was not this time, and you know that the fish must be careful him."

"James?" Fitz frowned and asked, "He has always followed your advice, so why do you fall into trouble at this time?"

Zayne sneered: "Since ancient times, no matter how many princes the emperor has, he will only choose one to succeed him. The prince, in order for the prince to succeed, he will greatly weaken the strength of the other sons to ensure that they are unable to rebel. Your second uncle wants to be the prince, and naturally he will do his best to deal with me."

Fitz gritted his teeth: "James is always polite to you and us and welcomes us with a smile. I didn't expect to suddenly turn his face at this time!" Zayne said with a wry smile: "Your second uncle is a typical smiling tiger with a knife in his smile and a sword in his mouth. This time it was my negligence. He seized the opportunity to cheat him. After I come back, I will let him pay the price!"

Chapter 2241

As the father and son were talking, Zayne's cell phone rang. The screen showed that it was his second brother, James, who called. Thinking of James's downfall at a critical moment, Zayne was full of hatred, and his mood was naturally not good. He directly pressed the speaker and asked in a cold voice: "What's the matter?"

James smiled and said, "Big brother, the car is ready and the plane is ready. It's time to take you to the airport."

James gritted his teeth. , Said coldly: "Okay, I will say a few words to Fitz , and I will go down soon." James hurriedly said: "Big brother, don't delay anymore, the old man is still waiting for me to report back. What his old man meant , You must go as soon as possible, the sooner the better."

Zayne could only hold back his anger and said: "Okay, I will come in five minutes!"

"Good brother." James smiled and said: "I'll be waiting at the door. I will take you to the airport in person!"

Zayne didn't speak any more and hung up the phone directly.

Then he looked at Fitz and said with deep meaning: "You must accompany your mother more these days. If she has anything to do, report to me in time."

Fitz, the starting address, naturally still hopes his parents can reunite with the mirror. Nodded very seriously and said: "Don't worry, Dad, I know."

Zayne nodded, stood up, dragged the suitcase and said: "Okay, I'm leaving."

Fitz asked hurriedly, "Dad, you About when will you come back?"

Zayne shook his head and said, "It depends on what your grandfather meant. I don't know exactly when." Zayne waved his hand: "Don't say it."

Then, he He took the box and walked out the door.

Fitz hurriedly took the first step, took the box from him, and said, "Dad, I'll take you to the airport!"

Zayne said, "No need, just send me down and you will come back."

At this time, the huge villa In the courtyard, a Lexus L commercial vehicle is already waiting in the courtyard. Toyota Alfa itself is already the top commercial vehicle in China. This new Lexus L is one level higher than Alfa. James stood outside the car door, looking at Zayne who stepped out with a smile on his face.

A few meters away, James hurriedly greeted him with a cordial smile: "Oh, brother, please get in the car, we have to go quickly!"

Zayne said coldly, "I am leaving. It's not you, why are you in a hurry?" James was not angry, and said with a smile: "Oh, brother, am I still for you? The old man urges me tightly. If you move a little slower, he must be unhappy again. !"

Zayne was very angry. He wanted to give James a bad face, but he didn't expect that James would use his old man as a shield for everything. As soon as he came out, if he shook his face, Then he turned around and went to the old man to speak badly again.

In desperation, Zayne could only hold back his anger, and said, "Since Dad ordered it, let's go!"

After speaking, he asked the driver to take the suitcase from Fitz and put it in the commercial vehicle. At the back of the city, he said to Fitz: "Fitz, take care of your mother and your sister."

Fitz said hurriedly: "I know Dad, don't worry."

Zayne didn't say a word, and stepped into the back of the car waved to Fitz and motioned him to go back.

James smiled and sat next to Zayne, and said to Fitz: "If you are done, you can go back and rest. I will send your dad to the plane."

After that, he told the driver: "Okay, Drive quickly!"

Chapter 2242

The genius remembers the address of the site in one second: the driver immediately started the car and left. Fitz was very disappointed seeing the commercial car leaving the villa yard. This evening was almost more difficult than the night when he and Zara were kidnapped. At that time, he and Zara were facing dangers to their lives. But tonight, he has experienced a series of changes such as his father being exposed to an illegitimate daughter, his parents' relationship changes, his father's momentary loss of power, and being sent to Australia.

He was not only worried about his parents' feelings, worried about his father's future, but also worried about his future. Before tonight, my father is the next heir to the entire Banks Family. And he is naturally the heir to the next generation. However, the changes tonight have changed everything. The father has lost his father's favor and trust. If he loses his power and fails to recover, his future will be gloomy. Remember that

If you let the second uncle James be the heir, he would not even have a chance! The worried Fitz returned to his sister's room in despair. At this time, Zara was still checking photos of male passengers at Japanese airports in front of his computer.

Seeing Fitz coming back, Zara glanced at him and asked a little angrily: "What did Dad want to do with you? Did you make an excuse to clean up yourself?"

"No" Fitz sighed: " Hey! Dad was driven to Australia by Grandpa!"

"What?!" Zara blurted out in shock: "Dad was driven to Australia? When was this?"

"Just now." Fitz said with a sad face: "Dad has packed his luggage and left, the airport where James took him to."

Zara asked in a puzzled way: "Why did Grandpa drive Dad to Australia?! From the beginning to the end, the relationship with Dad was nothing more than Xion's relationship with him. He was taken as Dad. It's not a big deal to expose an illegitimate daughter, grandpa, why is it?"

Fitz said: "Dad said, grandpa wants him to carry the pot."

Zara's heart suddenly trembled, and he blurted out: "It's okay, it's okay. Dad is going. Grandpa must buckle all the shit bowls on him." After that, Zara said nervously, "I think, grandpa might make an announcement. The decision to betray Xion was made by his dad! That way, he would be able to get rid of the infamy of betraying his granddaughter, and his dad would be burdened with betraying his own daughter!"

Fitz said helplessly: "This is also a matter of no choice. Grandpa asked Dad to leave tonight, and Dad can't help but leave."

Zara looked at Fitz and said seriously, "Brother, the Banks' house may be changing now."

Fitz asked "You feel it too?"

Zara nodded solemnly, and said solemnly: "Brother, I don't care about money or power. Anyway, I am a girl, and it is impossible for me to inherit much property, but you It's not the same. If our dad can't stand up again this time, then you will be over in the future."

Fitz covered his face and said sadly, "But what can I do? I can see that Grandpa is eager to shake the pot now. The best person to dump the pot is our dad." After that, he said again: "Moreover, the pot of betraying his own daughter is too cruel. Once this charge is confirmed to our dad, then our dad will be in the minds of outsiders, It's just a ruthless image, and the influence must be extremely bad. If you just hit this point, grandpa will never let him inherit the position of Banks Familyy Patriarch." At this point, Fitz sighed quietly: "Hey, our family, maybe From then on, I can't get up again"

Zara's beautiful eyebrows wrinkled tightly. She clenched her neat little white teeth, and resolutely said: "No! We must help our father take back the position of heir!"

Fitz blurted out. "How to take it?!"

Zara said coldly: "Don't ask first, tomorrow we will go to Aurouss Hill with mom, and stay away from this place of right and wrong temporarily. How to help Dad regain all this, I have my own way!"

Chapter 2243

Half an hour later A Boeing 747 transformed into a private jet launched from Eastcliff Airport.

This aircraft of the same model as the U.S. Presidential Air Force One, with a typical three-level cockpit layout, can be fully loaded with up to 467 passengers. But now, on the entire plane, apart from the crew, there is only one passenger, and this passenger is Zayne. The flight distance from Eastcliff to Queensland, Australia is about 9,000 kilometers. It is impossible for ordinary small and medium private planes to fly directly on such long routes. Only a large passenger plane such as the 747 with a range of more than 10,000 kilometers can complete a direct flight.

At this time, Zayne was very depressed on the plane. Seeing outside the window, the brightly lit night view of Eastcliff is getting farther and farther, and his mood is getting heavier. Just less than twenty minutes after the plane took off, someone sent a set of photos to the mailboxes of reporters from major media in Eastcliff. This group of photos was taken from a long-distance sneak shot of Zayne, rushing to the airport, going through security, and boarding the plane. Because it was night, the photo was a bit blurry and there was some noise, but the photographer was just right, so that people can recognize the person in the photo at a glance, that is Zayne.

In addition to sending these photos to reporters, the sneak shots also revealed to reporters a gossip. The news stated: "The truth about Xion's incident is that Lord Banks did not participate in the whole thing and conspired with the Japanese Self-Defense Forces. The betrayer of Xion is actually Xion's biological father, Zayne!" The other party also said: "The reason why Xion wants Xion to die is because he does not want Xion to be exposed as his illegitimate daughter. I want this secret to fall into the sea forever!"

The other party even broke a story, saying: "After the incident was revealed, Deana, Zayne's original wife, immediately returned to her natal family and unswervingly wanted to divorce Zayne. The reason why Zayne left Eastcliff overnight and went to Australia, in fact, was afraid that he was the master behind the scenes will be revealed! That's why he escaped to avoid the limelight overnight and let his father Lord Banks stay in Eastcliff to carry him out."

The media got this clue and immediately regarded it as explosive news. So they broadcast for the first time! As soon as the news appeared, it immediately caused a shock of public opinion! Previously, the Japanese National Security Agency said that Lord Banks, the old man of the Banks Family, betrayed Xion. But in contrast, to the domestic people, it was Zayne who betrayed Xion's version, which is more credible.

The reasons are as follows.

The first point is that Xion is the illegitimate daughter of Zayne. Zayne wants to defend his reputation, his personal settings, and his marriage, so he would not want to see Xion's identity exposed. Therefore, he killed Xion.

Secondly, Xion's order to destroy the Matsumoto family in Japan was given by Zayne. It can be seen that Zayne's methods are extremely cruel and vicious, and can be described as inhumane. Therefore, his statement that he wanted to kill Xion is more tenable;

Thirdly, Zayne must have a ghost in his heart, otherwise it is impossible to set off without hesitation the night after the incident. Going to Australia for a run, this run proves that he definitely has a big problem! With the continuous spread of news articles, Zayne immediately became the most inferior person in the hearts of the people across the country.

It was he who ordered the killing of dozens of ups and downs of the Matsumoto family, it was he who pushed his own daughter into the fire pit by himself, and it was he who fled in embarrassment with his tail sandwiched in the first time the incident happened!

As a result, there was a wave of crusade against Zayne! However, Zayne was still on the plane at this time, and he didn't know what was happening behind him.

Chapter 2244

At the same time, the house of Lord Banks, the old man. James graciously took a tablet computer, presented media reports and friend comments to Lord Banks one by one, and said with a smile: "Dad, in this way, everyone will never talk about Xion's affairs. , It's not on your old man's head."

Lord Banks nodded in satisfaction, and he was completely relieved. The older you are, the more you cherish feathers, especially for people like Mr. Banks. He was wise for a lifetime, even the goal and life idol in the minds of countless people. Seeing the age when he is about to retire, if Xion is really overturned in the gutter, then his first-time fame will be lost.

Therefore, deep in his heart, he is extremely eager to be able to shake this black pot out, and the cleaner the better. It's just that before that, he hadn't figured out what method he should use to completely shake the pot. After all, what I did was exposed by the National Security Agency of Japan, and all they exposed were facts. I couldn't argue with anything at all, and I couldn't refute it at all.

However, he really did not expect that the head of his second son, James, was so brilliant! He originally planned to send his eldest son Zayne to Australia first, and then give the eldest son Zayne all the matter of destroying the Matsumoto family. As for uniting with the Japanese Self-Defense Forces to betray Xion, the old man himself did not expect that he would really get out.

However, what James did is really beautiful! He had someone secretly took photos of Zayne boarding the plane, and then sent an anonymous manuscript to the media. Immediately after that, he successfully dumped all the black pots to Zayne! His act of misfortune is simply a textural level! Among them, the clue chain is clear and the story logic is complete. Although most of them are fabricated, they appear to be justified and convincing.

Lord Banks was very happy, after all, his fame was finally completely preserved, which was more important than anything else. He didn't want to end up infamy at his age, and be spurned by others when he died. So now he is really happy and relaxed.

However, he was not good to praise James directly, so he said with some emotion: "Hey! This matter, I must be wronged and defended!" When James heard this, he sighed and said: "Yes, Dad, this matter. Brother is really going to be a little wronged."

As he spoke, he turned his words and said seriously: "Dad! But then again, we Banks Familyy, anyone can lose face, but you can't lose the face of the old man!"

"Your old man is the mainstay of the Banks Familyy, the backbone of the seven of our brothers and sisters, and the grandfather emperor who has inherited the genealogy in the hearts of all the descendants of the Banks Familyy. You must never leave a stain like Xion in your life!"

So, for the sake of your fame and for your glorious image, elder brother will share the worries for you, that should be!" James's words directly spoke of Lord Banks's heart!

He could no longer hold back the joy in his heart. While stroking his beard, he smiled and said, "James, you are right! You have done a great job in this matter today, and I will do it for you in my heart. Write it down!"

Chapter 2245

The news about Zayne suddenly dominated all the media headlines. Zara and Fitz were very angry about this. Fitz even went to his grandpa to question the cause several times, but Zara stopped him. Zara knew very well that it was grandpa deliberately trying to protect himself and sacrifice his dad, so going to confront him now would only make him angry.

Instead of this, it is better to be honest and not say a word, and even accompany my mother to Aurouss Hilll as planned early tomorrow morning. As for how to help her father come back, Zara had her own plan in mind. However, now she has to wait patiently for the opportunity.

At the same time, the Elms family evacuated all the masters in the Banks Familyy overnight. The Patriarch Wilfred Elms, Xion's grandfather, directly ordered internally that the children of the Elms family must not do anything for the Banks Familyy until the Banks Familyy gave a clear explanation. At the same time, he also called Lord Banks and asked the Banks Familyy to give him a clear explanation.

Lord Banks promised, but in reality, he didn't pay attention to him at all. At the moment he just wants to keep his reputation. As for whether the Elms Family will turn his face with him, he doesn't care at all. After all, after his cooperation with the Japanese Self-Defense Forces was exposed, he knew that no matter whether this matter was carried out by himself or Zayne, the Elms family could no longer serve the Banks Familyy. That being the case, why continue to waste energy on the Elms family.

This night. Xion, who was under residential surveillance at the Shangri-La, did not know what was happening outside. She was lying on the soft and luxurious big bed in the hotel, tossing and turning, and everything she thought of in her mind was Charlie Wade's figure. She couldn't figure out why this man had such a strong strength. Even more can't figure out why this man saved her life.

"I was, after all, trying to kill him, he not only did not get back at me, but also saved my life, is that really what people say good for evil?"

"So think about it, the man really be unusually"

the next day early in the morning. A private jet landed in the peaceful ancient city of Aurouss Hilll. This plane is the private plane of Dalton, the son of Thorne's family. Deana did not want to take the Banks Familyy's plane anymore, so his eldest brother Dalton sent her his own plane.

After the plane stopped, Deana, who was nervous, walked down the spiral staircase, accompanied by a pair of children. In her heart, she has been thinking about Aurouss Hilll for nearly twenty years. For twenty years, she would sleep with Bruce's name silently every day. When she thought of Bruce, she couldn't help thinking of Aurouss Hilll.

Bruce is the love of her life. Back then, Bruce died in Aurouss Hilll, but now she finally has the opportunity to come to cherish his memory, and it is naturally difficult to calm down in her heart. As soon as a family of three arrived at the arrival hall of the airport, a middle-aged man greeted her respectfully and said, "Miss, you have worked hard all the way."

Chapter 2246

He was an old housekeeper from the Thorne Family in Aurouss Hilll.

Deana met this old housekeeper when she was still young. In the past two decades, the old housekeeper has been taking care of the old house in Aurouss Hilll. Deana also married to the Banks Familyy, so the two have never met again.

However, Deana recognized him at a glance, and respectfully said: "Uncle White, I come here unharmed!"

After that, she hurriedly ordered the pair of children next to her:
"Fitz, Zara, this is Grandpa White. Greet him! "

Fitz and Zara hurriedly said respectfully: "Hello Grandpa White!" The old butler hurriedly bowed to thank Deana, and then said to Deana somewhat flattered: "I didn't expect the second lady to remember me."

Deana smiled and said, "Why? Don't remember, you used to be in charge of the mansion next to Prince Charles' Mansion in Eastcliff. Later, after your father donated the mansion to the state as a museum, you came to Aurouss Hilll."

The old housekeeper nodded and said with emotion: "I'm coming to Aurouss Hilll. After that, I went back to Eastcliff twice a year to report to my master, but every time I went there in a hurry, I came back as soon as I finished the report, so I never saw you again."

After that, he couldn't help sighing, "Oh, Deana you haven't been to Aurouss Hilll for more than 20 years, right? I remember that before you got married, you would come to visit the Lady every year, and then you didn't come back much."

Deana nodded and said, "Since Bruce died in Aurouss Hilll After that, I haven't been here again."

The old housekeeper was startled when he heard the words, and couldn't help but sighed: "You said Young Master Bruce is really a jealous talent."

Deana asked him: "By the way, Uncle White, you were there before Bruce's accident. Aurouss Hilll, do you know what happened back then?"

The old housekeeper said with a grimace: "When Mr. Bruce came to Aurouss Hilll, the master told me that he said that Mr. Bruce was coming. He might have some conflicts with his family, plus the Eastcliff side. I was under a lot of pressure, so I came to Aurouss Hilll to relax. He asked me to find Mr. Bruce and invited his family of three to stay in the old house for a few days. He also asked me to tell Mr. Bruce that if he wanted, their family of three could stay in the old house. house, the old house as their home "

Deana hurriedly asked: "Is that then what they did when they came? "

The old housekeeper shook his head and said: "Bruce's own son came to the trip, but they were just to visit, asked me to thank him, but he did not agree to stay." Deana asked again: "Then what did he say?" The old butler thought for a moment, and said: "At the time, Lord Bruce said that he also encountered some problems and did not want to cause trouble to the Thorne Family. So I thanked him and left."

Deana nodded in a sense of loss, looking melancholy for a while. At this time, the old housekeeper was busy and said again: "By the way, Miss Deana, let's stop talking here. The car is waiting outside. Let's go home first!"

Deana nodded and said, "Good Uncle White, go home first. ."

Outside the airport, three cars were parked side by side.

Deana said to Fitz and Zara: "Fitz, Zara, let's take the car behind you two, I'll sit in the middle car, and chat with your grandfather White by the way." The siblings naturally agreed.

The old housekeeper opened the back row of the red-flag car in the middle for Deana. After Deana got in, he got into the co-pilot.

As the convoy left the airport, Deana asked the old butler: "Uncle White, I want to ask you something." The old butler hurriedly said, "Miss Deana, just ask!"

Deana said: "Uncle White, I heard people say that Bruce came to Aurouss Hilll with his wife and children. Since he didn't want to live in our old house, where did he live in the end?"

The old housekeeper explained: "Young Master Bruce also likes the old mansion very much. At that time, he asked me to help him find it, so I asked a friend to find him a slightly remote old mansion. The mansion used to be a mansion of a military ruler, but after he escaped, he left it to others to take care of. After a long time, the house will be deserted. But Mr. Bruce liked it very much, so he bought it and renovated it himself."

Deana suddenly said with some excitement: "Uncle White, can you take me to see Is it?"

Chapter 2247

Charlie Wade at this time, just pushing his electric bike, out of the door of Thompson First's villa.

Claire Wilson Wilson's company has ended the Spring Festival holiday and officially went to work, and his father-in-law Jacob Wilson has also begun to reinvest in the affairs of the Calligraphy and Painting Association.

In the morning, Elaine Ma, who was on crutches, made breakfast. After Jacob Wilson and Claire Wilson Wilson had finished their meal, they drove a BMW to their business. Charlie Wade cleaned the house and prepared to go out to buy some meat and eggs. The small vegetable garden at home can provide the vegetables and fruits that most families need, but meat and eggs are still available at the vegetable market.

Charlie Wade rode out and did not rush to set off. Instead, he parked the bike on the side of the road in the Thompson First Villa area, resting his feet on the ground, and took out his mobile phone to call Cameron Isaac.

Charlie Wade has read all the scandals that broke out in the Banks Family last night. The direction of public opinion condemned Lord Banks from the beginning, and then turned the spearhead to directayne.

Charlie Wade could see at a glance that this was Lord Banks's self-protection trick. It seemed that the Banks Familyy had internal conflicts now, which was very exciting good news for Charlie Wade.

Although he is still not sure whether the murderer of his parents is the Banks Familyy, he must make the Banks Familyy pay a huge price because of the fact that the Banks Familyy had formed an anti-leaf alliance. Now, the Banks Familyy is beginning to disintegrate internally, which is naturally an excellent situation for him.

Next, how to make the Banks Familyy disintegrate more thoroughly and make the Banks Familyy go farther and farther on the road of immortality is what Charlie Wade is most concerned about right now. In his view, Xion is definitely a nuclear weapon that further disintegrates the Banks Familyy.

As soon as the phone call to Cameron Isaac was answered, he asked: "Isaac, how is Xion and the others now?"

Cameron Isaac hurriedly said: "Back to the young master, I just sent someone breakfast over. According to the food delivery person, they are all in good condition."

Charlie Wade asked again: "After cutting off their contact with the outside world, they didn't feel awkward. Right ?"

"No." Cameron Isaac smiled: "The crew members are still afraid that others will know that they are back. Even if they give them a mobile phone, they will not dare to call outside."

Charlie Wade asked: "Then Xion? How is her state?"

Cameron Isaac Zekai said: "According to her subordinates, she has nothing to be dissatisfied with, but she asked about you."

Charlie Wade asked curiously: "Oh? What did she ask about me?"

Cameron Isaac He smiled and said, "She asks when you will be there, and she wants to discuss something with you."

"Yeah." Charlie Wade checked the time. It's only 9:30 in the morning. As long as he can buy meat and come back at 11 o'clock, Elaine Ma did not delay lunch, so they open and said: "then so be it, I'll come across"

"good Master" Cameron Isaac said: "Shall I pick you up"?

"no , I rode an eBike in the past, which is quite easy."

Charlie Wade didn't actually have a good impression of Xion. Although this woman is very beautiful and has a very hot body, her heart is also very vicious. If he hadn't guessed it by himself, she was the illegitimate daughter of Zayne, and he would never save her life.

She stayed alive just to make the Banks Familyy sick. After all, it is very easy to kill a general of the Banks Familyy, but it is not so easy to create a mortal enemy for the Banks Family. If you can let Xion, like yourself, treat the Banks Family as enemies, the Banks Family will definitely add a lot of trouble in the future.

Chapter 2248

This is Charlie Wade's purpose for keeping Xion. He planned to send Xion back to Eastcliff when the time was right. Immediately, he put away the phone and turned on the accelerator of the battery car. The little eBike made a buzzing sound and rushed out quickly.

Out of the Thompson First Community, Charlie Wade turned right by bicycle and was about to go to Cameron Isaac's hotel. He heard a familiar voice behind him shouting with a little nervousness: "Brother-in-law!"

Charlie Wade subconsciously turned his head and saw the sidewalk behind him. Above, a familiar woman is beckoning to herself.

"Wendy?" Charlie Wade was very puzzled when he saw the woman clearly. It's not a day or two since my family and Mrs. Wilson's family turned their faces. For so long, the family has been in the same situation. Not to mention that they will not say hello when they meet. If the mother-in-law Elaine Ma sees her family on the terrace of the villa, she can't wait to scold her for an hour.

So, he didn't quite understand, what did Wendy tell herself to do? Moreover, why is she willing to call herself brother-in-law? Don't you just call yourself trash before?

Thinking of this, he frowned and asked: "Are you doing something?"

Wendy hurried two steps to Charlie Wade, and said with a bit of shame: "Brother-in-law, where are you going?"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "I'm going to buy groceries, what's the matter with you?"

Wendy bit her lip lightly, and asked anxiously: "Brother-in-law, can you take me to the Pearl River Regency? It's not that far. An electric bike can be there in 20 minutes."

Charlie Wade looked at her up and down, and saw that she was dressed in a formal dress and light makeup. He sneered and said, "You dignified Miss Wilson family, sit on mine. The price of electric bikes is too low, right? Why? I want to be the same as before, so I'll start it?"

When Wendy heard this, she immediately bowed her head in shame. At this moment, what she thought of was the situation when she was sitting in Gerald White's Bentley car when she saw Charlie Wade downstairs in the Emgrand Group.

"At that time, Charlie Wade rode this electric bike."

"At that time, I didn't put Charlie Wade in my eyes at all. I always felt that he was a complete soft rice king and stinky silk, so I was I really don't even look at him with half my eyeballs."

"But, who would have thought that today, more than half a year later, Charlie Wade became the master of Aurouss Hilll, but I was reduced to two hundred dollars to support my family. Miss etiquette for a day of money?"

"Moreover, in order to save some money for grandma, dad and brother to eat, I even reluctant to ride in the bus or taxi."

Thinking of this, she plucked up the courage and spoke with a very humble attitude. Said: "Brother-in-law, please don't make fun of me. Our family is in such a downturn now. I am still a young lady of the Wilson family."

After finishing speaking, she raised her head and looked at Charlie Wade with red eyes, feeling extremely guilty. Said: "Brother-in-law's previous things were all my bad and I was wrong. I shouldn't look down on you, shouldn't fight you everywhere, and oppose Claire Wilson Wilson. Life has taught me too many lessons, and I am also deeply involved. Aware of my mistakes, I hope you can be an adult regardless of a villain's life, and stop being unfamiliar with me." When Wendy said this, Charlie Wade was a little surprised.

He really didn't expect Wendy to say such a thing. What he didn't expect was that when Wendy said this, her tone and attitude were very sincere. He could see that Wendy's words were from the bottom of the heart, not just talking.

Seeing Wendy sincerely apologizing and knowing her mistakes, Charlie Wade's attitude eased a little, and said indifferently: "Knowing your mistakes can be corrected, and there is no good way. If you really realize that you did something wrong, it is not too late to wake up. "

Chapter 2249

Hearing Charlie Wade's words, Wendy hurriedly nodded her head, even her voice was a little choked, and said seriously: "Brother-in-law, you are right to me. Now I am really awake now that I am no longer the same eye above the top.

"I don't know how to learn and look at the low-level Straw Lady." She opened the zipper of the down jacket a bit, revealing the blue Miss etiquette uniform inside, and said: "Brother-in-law, look, I'm starting to find myself now. I have a job, I will be a greeter in the newly opened Shopping District."

Charlie Wade asked curiously, "How did you start a greeter job? If I remember correctly, you are also a college student anyway, just find any job. Isn't it better than being a welcoming guest?"

Wendy said in a very ashamed low voice: "This brother-in-law tells you that because my father and my brother tried to mislead my second aunt a year ago, they were beaten to be useless. Now they can only lie down. in bed, do anything, my grandmother a big old, some time ago they lost

Ershen stimulus, has not got it together, so it can not go out looking for work, I can only out to make money to support a family, "

At this point, Wendy sobbed a few times and choked up: "But I can't find those serious jobs, because such jobs are only paid next month, but my dad, my brother and me Grandma, the three of them are still waiting at home. I make money and go back to fill their stomachs."

"So I can only find a job like this that can be done daily."

Charlie Wade nodded gently. When he and his old husband went to the supermarket to make purchases a few years ago, he saw Mrs. Wilson who helped customers pull plastic bags in the supermarket. At that time he knew that the Wilson family was exhausted. They used to rely on Donald Webb, and they were able to eat expensive food. But later Christopher and Harold got into a catastrophe and tied Cynthia Wade and Elaine Ma together, and Donald Webb also completely offended Cynthia Wade.

In the end, Donald Webb learned of his identity as the young master of the Wade family, so he could only kneel to himself and seek a way to survive. Now that Donald Webb has become Don Albertt's licking dog, it is naturally impossible to give the Wilson family any chance. Had it not been for the Wilson family's last escape, the Wilson family would have been swept out by Donald Webb.

However, Charlie Wade didn't feel sorry for them if he left this back path for them. He felt that since ancient times, the sages have concluded that the wicked have their own truths. Therefore, instead of letting them get out of Thompson First, it is better to let them feel the deep water in Thompson First. Therefore, Donald Webb only looked for a relationship and released Gena and the others in advance.

Charlie Wade had already figured out Mrs. Wilson clearly. He knew that if Mrs. Wilson saw Gena and the three of them living in the same villa with her, she would definitely do everything possible to drive Gena away. This will offend Gena to death.

Originally, Gena and the three were still grateful to Mrs. Wilson, and if Mrs. Wilson treated them well, they would definitely go all out to give back to Mrs. Wilson. In that case, with the help of three big-and-feeling village women, Mrs. Wilson's family can at least have enough to eat.

However, Charlie Wade had determined that Mrs. Wilson would not choose this path. Therefore, I deliberately let Old Lady Wilson experience the feeling of shooting herself in the foot. The original help turned into an enemy, which would definitely make Old Lady Wilson miserable.

And Mrs. Wilson did not disappoint him. Now, Mrs. Wilson is obviously already struggling to feed a family of four alone, so Wendy can only carry the burden of supporting the family.

Chapter 2250

Charlie Wade looked at Wendy in front of him. Although his impression of her was slightly changed, he did not sympathize with her. Immediately, he faintly said: "Pearl River is not far from here. You can get a car, and the starting price is almost the same."

Wendy said hurriedly: "Brother-in-law, I can't split a penny into two. I can't bear to take the bus, let alone take a taxi." As she said, she pointed to the high heels under her feet and said, "I was going to walk straight over, so I can save some money. I just saw you passing by here. , So I muster the courage to apologize to you, and by the way ask if you can take me for a ride."

In fact, Wendy now has a good impression of Charlie Wade in her heart. Since the day before the New Year, when many big figures in Aurouss Hilll came to pay Charlie Wade New Year's greetings, she realized that she had made a huge mistake when she looked down on Charlie Wade.

She also realized that the current Charlie Wade is no longer comparable to the old Charlie Wade. Moreover, Charlie Wade has always been very good to Claire Wilson Wilson, and Wendy also sees it. Therefore, her current view of Charlie Wade has changed drastically from before. When I went out today, I just saw Charlie Wade riding a bike passing by, so she mustered up the courage to call him.

But Charlie Wade really didn't have a good impression on Wendy, so he said: "I still have something to do so I can't take you there."

Although Wendy felt lost, she did not continue to struggle. She nodded very readily and said, "Brother-in-law, it's okay, if you have anything to do, do it first. I'll just go over."

Seeing that she was still wearing high heels, Charlie Wade couldn't get it in less than 40 minutes. He felt a little sympathetic, so he said: "Well, let's add a WeChat account, and I will transfer some money to you."

Wendy said subconsciously: "No need for brother-in-law, I can't ask for your money."

Charlie Wade said calmly: "Just call me brother-in-law at you, and I should help you. Don't say that you met me. If you run into your sister, she will definitely help you too."

Claire Wilson Wilson is always kind and doesn't like to hold grudges. If she is shown this appearance of Wendy, she will definitely help. When Wendy heard this, she was moved and ashamed, and choked up: "Brother-in-law, I used to treat you so much, and you are willing to help me. It's really me."

Wendy couldn't help but cry. Today, she really understood what it means to repay grievances with virtue. As someone else, I have offended others before, so I definitely want to step on myself to read jokes at this time. However, instead of ridiculing and taunting herself, Charlie Wade was willing to help, which really surprised her.

Charlie Wade said at this time: "Okay , don't cry, don't shirk, hurry up and add a WeChat, I will have something to do in a while, I have to go first." Wendy nodded her head again and again, but reached into her pocket. When I was digging it out, I realized that I didn't have a mobile phone at all.

Her mobile phone had long been taken away by Donald Webb. So, she said uneasily: "Brother-in-law, I, I, I don't have a mobile phone"

Chapter 2251

"You don't have a cell phone?!" Charlie Wade felt very unbelievable about Wendy's words.

These days, even the aunts who set up street stalls have smartphones. Wendy, a young and fashionable girl, doesn't even have a mobile phone. This is really incredible.

Seeing Charlie Wade's face full of shock, Wendy was even more embarrassed, and said falteringly: "Brother-in-law, my mobile phone was taken away by Donald Webb's people before"

Wendy said, bowing her head in shame. After these words, she really felt that she couldn't hold herself at all. The entire Wilson family is indeed at an end. She couldn't even use a mobile phone, what it was like to be poor.

Charlie Wade suddenly understood when he heard this. After Donald Webb returned to him, he hated the Wilson family to the bone. He knew that he was not dealing with the Wilson family, so naturally he was going to kill the family.

In fact, this kind of thing, I only need to say hello to Donald Webb, Donald Webb will definitely restore their previous living standards, and even continue to invest in the Wilson family to bring the Wilson family back to life.

After all, it only takes tens of millions to revitalize the Wilson family. Although Donald Webb has lost most of his fortune, after all, the lean camel is bigger than a horse, and a little leaking out of his fingers is enough for the Wilson family to eat and drink.

However, Charlie Wade did not intend to do this. Today, the Wilson family is definitely on their own account, especially the Lady and Christopher, who have been deliberately fighting against Charlie Wade and his family. Therefore, they must be punished. Thinking of this, Charlie Wade made up his mind to give Wendy a little favor at most. It was a reward for her to know how to return, sincerely apologize to herself, and call him brother-in-law.

Charlie Wade has always been a clear-cut person. As long as the crime is not a capital crime, a certain amount of forgiveness can be given on the basis of serious repentance. For example, Donald Webb's family, although Kian is a scumbag, but in the final analysis the crime is not dead. Although Donald Webb and his eldest son Sean are domineering, they also did not commit a capital crime.

Therefore, although the three of them, father and son, had many hardships, they all lived to the present. However, Donald Webb's brother-in-law John Marcone has done all bad things and lost his conscience. This kind of person can't leave him with anything, even if he decides to do good and accumulate virtue for a lifetime, he can't keep him, because he is already unforgivable.

At this moment, Charlie Wade rummaged through his pockets, found a fifty-dollar banknote, handed it to Wendy, and said, "Well, let's take a taxi with the fifty dollars."

Wendy hesitated, wondering if she should take the fifty dollars. Although it was only fifty, it was a lot of money for her and it could play a big role. Her current work day is only two hundred. In addition to food, she has to buy some basic medicine for Christopher and Harold.

In fact, after these two people are abolished, each person needs at least tens of thousands of treatment fees to recover quickly, but because they can't pay, they can only rely on a little bit of physical cultivation, and the speed is slow. a lot of.

Coupled with the lack of nutrition at all, the current situation of the two people may not really be able to get out of bed and walk after a year. Therefore, Wendy also hopes to make as much money as possible, even if it is only a few dozen dollars more, at least he can buy two catties of spare ribs for father and brother, or buy two big bones to make soup and drink.

So, she bowed to Charlie Wade and said sincerely: "Thank you brother-in-law, I am really short of money now, so I won't be polite to you." After that, she took the fifty with both hands.

Charlie Wade nodded, and said, "Take a taxi and get there for ten dollars."

Although Wendy was a little bit reluctant, since Charlie Wade had said so, she didn't dare to disobey, and quickly said: "Good brother-in-law, thank you brother-in-law!"

Charlie Wade hummed and asked her: "When will you finish work? "

Wendy whispered softly: "Customers who visit the house usually start from ten o'clock in the morning to seven o'clock in the morning, so we don't get off work until 7:30."

Charlie Wade nodded and said: "OK, Then hurry up and go, I'm leaving too."

Chapter 2252

Wendy hurriedly bowed again and said, "Brother-in-law, slow down and be safe on the road."

"Well, let's go." Charlie Wade waved his hand, twisted the accelerator of the battery car, and quickly left.

Wendy looked at Charlie Wade's back, with emotion in her heart. At this moment, what she hopes most is not how much money she will make, nor the favor of the rich. What she hopes most is to be able to sit in the back seat of Charlie Wade's battery bike. Because she felt that the back seat must look very happy, and she was also very relieved that Charlie Wade gave her the taxi fare.

Charlie Wade rode the battery car to Cameron Isaac's hotel. Cameron Isaac had already waited at the door in person.

Seeing Charlie Wade riding over, he hurriedly stepped forward and said, "Oh, master, your identity is really not suitable for riding this kind of electric bike anymore. Why didn't you drive the car Mr. Quinton and Mr. White gave you before? You don't like supercars?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "The kind of car is not practical, and indeed arrogant, as long as it was open for all to see chasing, chasing pictures, I do not feel like such a high profile. "

Cameron Isaac said: "Then, should I arrange a low-key luxury car for you? What do you think of Phaeton?"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "No, I'm used to riding an electric bike. Aurouss Hilll is not that big, the urban area is so small. In places, I can run over sidewalks on an electric bike, but I haven't recharged it these days. It seems that the battery is almost out of power. You will arrange for someone to charge me later." As he said, he parked the electric bike at the door and urged: "Go, take me to see Xion ." Cameron Isaac hurriedly said to a valet parking brother next to him: "Quickly park Mr. Wade's electric bike, wipe the bike inside and out, and then charge the battery. Come on."

"Okay Mr. Cameron!"

The little brother responded and hurriedly came over and pushed the electric bike away. Charlie Wade and Cameron Isaac stepped into the hotel, and Cameron Isaac took him directly to the top floor of the hotel. The top floor of the hotel is the administrative layer, which is specially prepared for big bosses and big people.

The characteristic of the administrative layer is that the area is relatively independent, and when the hotel was designed, several administrative areas were built on the administrative layer. Each administrative layer has only one entrance, one elevator room, and one stairwell, between other administrative floors. Thickened reinforced concrete walls are also used to partition.

This is not only safer and more private, but also more convenient for security personnel to carry out their work. Otherwise, if it is an ordinary floor, there are several elevators, several sets of stairs, and the air corridors are connected, the route is complicated, and it is difficult for big people to live in for security.

Xion and others were placed in one of the administrative areas, and Cameron Isaac also arranged a lot of confidants to guard here to ensure that nothing went wrong.

At this time, Xion was wearing a corset and sports underwear sent by the waitress. In the living room of the room, she was running the internal formula for internal strength training. For martial arts masters like her, talent is far from enough. Daily practice is also essential. Only with more than ten or twenty years of hard work without slack can it be possible to become a martial artist.

However, Xion now feels that she has never been able to settle down and concentrate on training. Because, as long as she tried to sink her heart, she couldn't help but think of Charlie Wade in her mind. Just when she couldn't find the feeling, the doorbell rang.

At this moment, she intuitively felt that Charlie Wade might be here, and she was suddenly happy. Then, she rushed to the door in two steps and opened the door directly.

When she saw Charlie Wade standing outside the door, she couldn't help but smiled and blurted out: "Mr. Wade, you are finally here!"

After speaking, she suddenly realized that she was wearing only sports underwear, and her neck and chest were covered with fragrant sweat. She screamed in fright and blurted out: "Oh! Mr. Wade, wait a minute!" The voice fell off, she hurriedly closed the door of the room.

Chapter 2253

Charlie Wade actually didn't have much time to see Xion's perfect figure and curve clearly, she had already closed the door. At this time, Xion was ashamed and impatient. She quickly found a bathrobe and put it on, then blushed and ran back to open the door.

Facing Charlie Wade, her face was already red as if there were two sunrise clouds, and she said shyly: "I'm sorry Mr. Wade, I just opened the door just now. It was too abrupt."

Although Xion is a cruel martial artist, but Emotionally, she is still a virgin who has never been tempted by the opposite sex. Therefore, when facing Charlie Wade, her embarrassment made her look like a child and not a martial arts master.

Charlie Wade was somewhat embarrassed at this time.

Like Quinton's little pepper Aurora, Xion has received professional training all the year round, so both of them have an excellent body. So although the incident happened suddenly and hastily, it really feasted his eyes.

It's just that Aurora didn't have the natural glamorous temperament of Xion. To put it bluntly, after getting acquainted with Aurora, she is like the little girl next door that all men like. But Xion had absolutely no such temperament.

It wasn't because she was somewhat cramped in front of Charlie Wade. In fact, in her image in front of people, she always had the taste of being far-sighted but not playful, and even brought a cold and dangerous feeling to most men.

After slightly adjusting his mentality, Charlie Wade asked Xion: "Is Miss Banks still satisfied with staying here?"

Xion said hurriedly, "I am very satisfied to hear that this is the best hotel in Aurouss Hilll, but Wade is so polite to trouble me."

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "It doesn't make any trouble. After all, this hotel is the sole responsibility of Isaac. Let him arrange a few rooms, which is a simple matter."

Xion realized that Charlie Wade was still standing at the door, so he hurriedly moved away, made a gesture of inviting, and said, "Master Wade, please come in and sit down!"

Charlie Wade nodded and stepped forward .Because it was a luxurious executive suite, Xion directly invited Charlie Wade to sit on the sofa in the living room.

As soon as Charlie Wade sat down, she hurriedly used the tea from the hotel room to make a cup of tea for Charlie Wade and handed it to him, respectfully saying: "Master Wade, please have tea."

Charlie Wade smiled and thanked her. , Then he said: "Miss Banks do you watch TV?"

"No." Xion's expression was a little unnatural and stroked the hair between the temples, stammering: "My last night I actually didn't sleep well last night. I only fell asleep in the early morning. After waking up, I did a training session. Then you came."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "I will probably introduce you to Japan yesterday. The National Security Agency issued a notice in which it disclosed your grandfather Lord Banks's activities with the Japanese Self-Defense Forces."

Xion said with a bit of resentment, "He is not my grandfather, I don't have such a grandfather."

Charlie Wade said: "I can understand your mood very well."

Chapter 2254

Xion said embarrassedly: "I'm sorry Young Master Wade, I you shouldn't interrupt you just now, you continue."

Charlie Wade said: "But not long after, the media found out Your father Zayne flew to Australia overnight. Then the media changed the direction of the wind. In fact, it was not your grandfather Lord Banks who betrayed you, but your father Zayne, saying that he betrayed you because he wanted to kill you and hide you. It is the illegitimate daughter's secret that will be buried forever."

Xion said palely: "This is not impossible."

Charlie Wade asked her, "Which one do you believe more?"

Xion thought carefully. After a few minutes, he said, "Master Wade, I believe it was Lord Banks who betrayed me."

Charlie Wade looked at her with great interest and asked: "Oh? Why?"

Xion said seriously: "I have been with my father for several years. Although he has a very fierce workmanship, he has a deep affection for his close relatives. He cares very much about Fitz and Zara. After knowing my true identity, he treats me too. Very caring, I think he shouldn't kill me. If he really wants to kill me, he shouldn't leave me at Banks' Family after knowing that I am his daughter."

After that, she analyzed: "Lord Banks From the outside world, he is a very legendary successful businessman of the older generation. He is kind and purposeful, but in fact, he is a very cruel man."

"And, his He is cruel, no matter who he is, as long as he touches his interests, he will not let it go! Even his grandson is the same!"

"So, I think Lord Banks is more likely to betray me!"

Charlie Wade nodded in agreement, and said: "My opinion is the same as you. Although I don't know how the father and son are, but based on the sequence of events and the logic behind it, it is possible that the mastermind is Lord Banks. Even bigger, Zayne went to Australia overnight. In fact, it was a moving target that helped Lord Banks attract firepower. It was also a moving target that could only be beaten, couldn't fight back, and couldn't return his mouth."

Xion sighed involuntarily: "Lord Banks has been in control The Banks Family has great power. Although my father is the eldest son and a quasi-heir, he has no real rights in the Banks Family, because the key figures in every link of the Banks Family are directly responsible to and reporting to Lord Banks."

"My father is also fundamental. He didn't dare to cultivate his own power because Lord Banks was extremely sensitive to this matter. If my father cultivated his own power under his nose, he would be furious, and he might even directly deprive my father's quasi-heir."

"So, no matter how you look at this matter from any aspect, Lord Banks is definitely behind the scenes."

At this point, Xion said with a dim expression: "However, did my father participate in it? How much, I don't know about this. He may not know it from beginning to end, or he may know but he has no objection."

Charlie Wade asked her: "Next, what are your plans?"

Xion hurriedly said: "If I can't leave Do I dare to have any plans? When you rescued me, I had already said that everything followed your instructions."

Charlie Wade nodded and asked her: "If one day, I want you to help me deal with the Banks Family. Are you willing?"

Xion said without hesitation: "To deal with the Banks Family, I am willing! Starting from my mother, and then to me, I have been working hard to serve the Banks Family, and even make sacrifices for the Banks Family all the time. Prepared, but I never dreamed that the Banks Family was so unsympathetic towards us. I must repay this grudge!"

After that, she looked at Charlie Wade and said with a little pleading: "Young Master Wade, can I ask you something?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "You can."

Xion hurriedly said: "Young Master Wade, you let me deal with the Banks Family, Lord Banks and other Banks Family members. I have no opinion, and I can't ask for it, but I don't want to be with my father and my two half-brothers and sisters. Except for the three of them, anyone with the surname Banks is an enemy in my eyes!"

Chapter 2255

Xion is unwilling to attack her biological father and half-brothers and sisters, not only is Charlie Wade not unhappy, but he feels a little relieved.

In fact, if a person can really attack his brothers and sisters, or even his biological father, Charlie Wade must have a strong guard against such people.

Because in his opinion, no matter how bad a person is, he cannot be without humanity. If a person is truly without humanity, then even if he obeys his own words today, he will still be able to stab him directly into his heart tomorrow.

Therefore, in his opinion, although Xion has destroyed the Matsumoto family, she is still not inhuman. The reason for this move is to execute orders. Just like a soldier, no matter what orders his superior commander gives him, he, as a qualified soldier, must obey. Otherwise, he is not a qualified soldier.

So Charlie Wade didn't have any opinion on this, and he said, "We both have a deep hatred with the Banks Familyy. You hate Lord Banks. I hate Zayne. You need Lord Banks to give you an explanation. I also need Zayne. Give me an explanation, so the two of us have to work together as hard as we can to face the Banks Familyy."

Xion hesitated for a moment, and asked: "Master Wade, you hate my father because of the rebellion back then. What about the alliance?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said coldly: "Back then, Zayne held high the banner of the anti-Wade alliance and organized a group of people to target my father with all their strength, although I still don't know about his father's death. How much does the Anti-Leaf Alliance have to do, but just the words Anti-Leaf Alliance, he is my enemy!"

Xion asked again, "Master Wade, then you will kill my father because of the Anti-Leaf Alliance back then. ?"

Charlie Wade thought for a few seconds, and said with a serious face: "If Zayne's anti-leaf alliance was not the direct murderer of my parents, or did not directly participate in the murder of my parents, then I would not kill the Matsumoto family like Zayne.

If he kills the innocent indiscriminately, I will punish him reasonably according to his actual crimes." At this point, Charlie Wade's expression flashed coldly, and he sternly said: "However, if he has something to do with my parents' death, To shirk the responsibility, then I must take his life and use his neck to pay homage to my tragic parents!"

Xion nodded gently. Although, 10,000 in her heart did not want Charlie Wade to meet her own father in battle one day. But she also knew in her heart that she didn't have the ability to control this matter, let alone the qualifications to control it.

Not only was Charlie Wade much stronger than her, but Charlie Wade even saved her life, and she was not qualified to intervene in any decision he made to avenge his parents. Therefore, she can only pray silently in her heart, praying to her father Zayne, and don't be the culprit who killed Charlie Wade's parents. Otherwise, with Charlie Wade's strength, it would be easy to kill him.

Thinking of this, Xion looked at Charlie Wade and pondered over and over again. She still asked: "Young Master Wade, when can I contact my mother?"

Charlie Wade said, "Not for the time being, wait a minute, mainly Your current identity is too sensitive. The news about you is raging throughout Asia. The Japanese government is also eager to arrest you and convict you. If the news that you are still alive leaks out, I will not be able to keep you." After that, Charlie Wade said again: "I suggest you wait patiently. When the time is right, I will let you contact your mother."

Xion nodded gently, and said respectfully: "Good Master Wade, I'll follow your instructions from everything."

Charlie Wade hummed, and said: "These days, you will have a good rest here."

Xion said hurriedly: "Good Master Wade."

Charlie Wade thought of something and asked curiously: "Oh yes, when I came in just now, I saw that you were training?"

Xion remembered that she was only wearing sports underwear. The look of the tube top and the sports shorts, she nodded in embarrassment, and said, "Master Wade, I usually practice every day."

Charlie Wade asked curiously, "You martial arts masters, you usually practice Kung Fu. What do you mainly practice during the time?"

Xion answered truthfully: "I practice the Aikido handed down by the Elms family every morning." Charlie Wade asked curiously: "Aikido? Is it unique to the Elms family? "

It doesn't count." Xion replied truthfully: "Actually, Aikido is the inner boxing, and the inner boxing is not unique to the Elms family."

Because Bruce has the inheritance of martial arts, Charlie Wade was a child. He studied Wing Chun with his father in the Wade family.

Chapter 2256

But Wing Chun is just a set of relatively ordinary boxing techniques and martial arts, not internal boxing.

In comparison, Wing Chun is generally higher than that of ordinary boxing.

Because ordinary boxing is actually a kind of fighting technique. Whether it is Chinese Wing Chun, Japanese karate or Korean Taekwondo, they are all fighting skills, but those who create these skills have their own ways of looking at problems. Different, so the fighting skills created are also different.

But Aikido is different.

The main practice of Aikido is not the physical skills, but the cultivation of internal strength.

The so-called chi sinking dantian refers to the inner strength of inner strength practice.

In contrast, Aikido is much more advanced than ordinary boxing, and its overall strength is also stronger.

It is precisely because of practicing internal boxing all the year round that Xion can surpass most of her peers and become a leader.

However, the whole set of Aikido she practiced was a thousand miles away from Charlie Wade's Apocalyptic Book.

Charlie Wade determined to remind her about it a little, so he spoke and said: "Miss Banks, I want to give you a pulse number, do not know if convenient?"

She said without hesitation she said: "Of course, Master Wade, go ahead," After that, she handed her right hand to Charlie Wade.

Charlie Wade's finger was gently placed on Xion's veins, a trace of reiki passed through the veins and into Xion's body.

The reiki wandered through Xion's body, and Charlie Wade immediately discovered that Xion's eight channels of the odd meridian in her body had only opened up the Ren Du two channels.

The two channels of Ren Du are actually the collective name of Ren and Du.

The Ren and Du channels are part of the eight channels of the odd meridian.

There are eight Meridians in total, namely Ren, Du, Chong, Band, Yin Heel, Yang Heel, Yin Link, and Yang Link.

The reason they are said to be the eight meridians of odd meridians is mainly because, for most people, these eight meridians are naturally unconnected.

China's traditional martial arts and Taoist practice are all about practicing Chi.

This chi is stored in the body and sinks in the dantian. When it moves, it passes through the eight channels of the odd meridian.

Therefore, whether or not the eight channels of the odd meridian are opened up and how much is connected directly relates to the person's strength.

To put it bluntly, if a person is an internal combustion engine, then the gas in the dantian is the fuel when the internal combustion engine is running.

The Qijing Bamai is the eight pipelines that supply fuel to the internal combustion engine. If none of the eight pipelines are opened, then this person is a complete ordinary person.

If these eight points are connected to one or two, this person's strength can rise a lot.

If you get through the eight points, you will almost reach the pinnacle of internal cultivation.

Xion has only opened up the two channels of Ren and Du, and there are still six channels left. If she can get another one, her strength can be doubled.

It's a pity that with the traditional inner family exercises, it's impossible to get through the eight meridians.

Taking the Aikido of the Elms family, for hundreds of years, only one ancestor of the Elms family has opened up four of the eight channels of the odd meridian.

For the rest, the best will only get through three.

In the current Elms family, only Xion's grandfather Wilfred can open up the three meridians. In the 40 years since he opened up the three meridians, the Elms family hasn't produced a second or more meridian. In fact, only one can be opened up in a lifetime.

Chapter 2257

Xion is only in her early twenties this year, and she has opened up the two lines of Ren Du.

This is already a top-notch existence among the young people of the Elms family and other major martial arts families. Moreover, Xion did not dare to hope that she could get through the third meridian. Her biggest wish now is to strive to make her two lines of Ren and Du more smooth. Because there are multiple dimensions in the measurement of the internal masters. How many odd meridians and eight meridians are connected is just one of them.

The second of these is to see whose meridians are more smooth. Just like Xion, she got through the Ren channel at the age of 15 and the governor channel, Du, at the age of 20. It didn't take long for her to get through the second channel of Ren Du.

According to the judging standards of people in martial arts, the unobstructed degree of the eight channels of the odd meridian, from one to ten, is divided into ten percent.

Xion first opened up the Ren Vessel, so her Ren Vessel's smoothness has reached 40%; however, not long after her Governor's Vessel was opened, the current smoothness of the Governor Vessel has not exceeded 20%.

After investigating Xion's cultivation level, Charlie Wade couldn't help feeling a little bit emotional.

If you didn't get the Apocalyptic Books, relying on the Wing Chun boxing you learned when you were young, let alone getting through the Ren Du channel, even the Ren channel would not be able to get through.

In that case, in front of Xion, he was as weak as a vegetable chicken.

But precisely because I have obtained the Apocalyptic Book, mastered the use of Reiki, and supplemented with a lot of rejuvenation pills to improve my strength, my current strength not only crushes the warriors who have broken through the two channels of Ren Du, it is even a strange script A martial arts master who has all the eight meridians is not qualified to fight himself.

After all, compared to internal energy, Reiki is simply a crushing dimensionality reduction blow. It is like the absolute advantage of hot weapons over cold weapons. Charlie Wade intentionally raised Xion a little bit, so he used that ray of reiki to directly increase Xion's Ren Vessel from 40% to 100%.

Xion at this time had already clearly felt the difference. This feeling is very obvious to her. Before, it was as if I had been in a bad cold, my nose was mostly blocked, and it was very difficult to breathe. But now, my breathing became very smooth in an instant, and I felt that compared to before, it was simply one place every day!

She looked at Charlie Wade in shock, and blurted out: "Young Master Wade Wade, what have you done to me? Why did my Ren Vessel become all through in an instant?"

Charlie Wade smiled lightly and said, "I see your Ren Vessel is smooth. If the degree is not enough, I will help you through it."

"Ah?!" Xion was shocked as if struck by lightning!

As a person who has been practicing martial arts for more than ten years, she is very aware of the importance of meridian patency.

People in martial arts pay the most attention to opening up the number of meridians, and they have been smooth. The two are horizontal and vertical, and one is indispensable.

Because the Ren channel is the first channel of the eight meridians and the foundation of martial art, whether and to what extent the next seven meridians can be opened depends almost entirely on how strong the foundation laid by the Ren channel.

Therefore, she has always hoped to increase the smoothness of the Ren Vessel to another level.

Even if it only increased from 40% to 50%, it is a remarkable improvement!

But she couldn't think of it. Charlie Wade just gave her own pulse for such a short time, and then quietly increased the smoothness of her own pulse from 40% to 100%!

For people in martial arts, one meridian can reach ten percent smoothness, which means that this meridian has become fully functional.

Meridian Mastery, in the realm of martial arts, is a realm that only exists in legends!

According to the genealogy records, even the ancestor of the Elms family who opened up the four meridians did not achieve success in his Ren Channel, but only reached the realm of 80%.

Now, Charlie Wade helped Xion raise the Ren Vessel to 100%, which is simply helping her strengthen the foundation of martial arts more than twice!

Chapter 2258

This not only makes her current strength take a big step forward, but also makes her future martial arts way more smooth! With the great Ren Mai as the foundation, her martial arts journey will be more effective in the future Xion was extremely excited, but also shocked in her heart!

"Young Master Wade just understatement and gave me a pulse, which can bring such a huge improvement to my cultivation. How strong is his strength?!"

"Ren pulse is the foundation of martial arts. To the extreme, this is something I would never even dare to think about in my life, and it is also an achievement that all martial arts practitioners will never achieve in a lifetime."

"However, in the hands of Master Wade, it's just as easy as moving a finger.

" It's called turning stones into gold."

"However, this kind of supernatural power is nothing more than easy in Master Wade's mouth."

"How powerful is Master Wade to achieve such an incredible level?!"

"It seems that I am. The knowledge of Master Wade before is far from enough."

"Before, I thought he should be stronger, but today I know that his strength is far more than that! Even, it is far beyond what I can imagine."

Thinking of this, she felt more grateful for her acquaintance with Charlie Wade. Although the first half of this acquaintance was not pleasant, since Charlie Wade rescued her until now, this man has been using practical actions to subvert her worldview. If it hadn't been for Charlie Wade, it would have been impossible for her to have such good luck!

Immediately, she knelt on the ground with a thud, and choked with emotion: "Master Wade, your great kindness, if it is unforgettable forever, please accept it. " After finishing speaking , she leaned down directly and knocked heavily. A rattle.

Charlie Wade said calmly: "It's just a matter of raising your hand , and you don't have to give this big gift."

Xion said solemnly: "Young Master Wade, you have given Xion the good fortune, and many martial artists have hardly cultivated for a lifetime. , This kind of kindness, I can't forget it!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "Spend the time to improve the smoothness of the governor channel, and then try to get through the channel, this is the most important thing for you right now, it happens that you can't go out during this time. , You can practice well in the hotel."

Xion said hurriedly, "Good Young Master Wade, if you have to go all out and try not to let you down!"

Charlie Wade nodded, stood up and said : "Okay , you Keep practicing, I'll go back first."

Xion asked subconsciously: "Young Master Wade, you are leaving now?"

Charlie Wade hummed, and said casually: "I have to buy some food and go home to cook. Yes, I will delay my wife's lunch."

Xion was shocked in his ecstasy, and at the same time filled with disappointment, she blurted out and asked, "Master Wade, are you married?!"

Charlie Wade nodded: "I have been married for four years. "

Xion said in shock: "The Wade family is also the second largest family in the country. How come I have never heard of the Wade family's big wedding?"

Charlie Wade laughed at himself: "I, the Wade family, alone I have been living outside for 19 years. The Wade family only came to me a year ago. Before that, I had been married, joined a local family in Aurouss Hilll, and became the son-in-law."

"Ah?!"

Xion felt her world views were completely subverted by Charlie Wade again.

"I heard about the disappearance of Bruce's son in Eastcliff."

"However, I can't imagine how the dragon and phoenix among people like Master Wade would actually become the son-in-law in Aurouss Hilll!"

"Let's not say that he is the descendant of the Wade family, the only son of the famous Bruce, and his outstanding attainments in martial arts are enough to attract all martial arts masters !" It is highly respected. If Master Wade, a top master with great magical powers, is willing to start a sect, countless martial arts masters will definitely squeeze their heads to worship under his sect, and serve him wholeheartedly."

"So, as long as he wants, he can be anytime The object of admiration"

"Why would such a man who can endure the sky be willing to be a live-in son-in-law in Aurouss Hilll?!"

Chapter 2259

Just when Xion was so excited about the good fortune that Charlie Wade sent her to, and at the same time came to the door for Charlie Wade as a son-in-law, Charlie Wade said indifferently: "If you have any needs, directly talk to Cameron Isaac. He will help you implement it, I will leave first." Xion said quickly: "Young Master Wade, I will send you off!"

Xion sent Charlie Wade to the door of the room, and Charlie Wade said: "Stay."

Xion nodded respectfully, bowed deeply, and said gratefully: "Young Master Wade, thank you!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly, "Don't worry about it." After that, he walked away.

Seeing Charlie Wade's back figure out of his administrative district, Xion felt a panic in her heart.

She closed the door and murmured involuntarily: "Master Wade really has great magical powers. My mother and grandpa have taken me to practice hard for so many years, and they have never given me such good luck. Even grandpa himself has not been able to get The Ren Vessel to reach Mastery, but, in front of Master Wade, all of this seems to be completely effortless. If it were not for Master Wade's help, I would not have reached such a realm in this life..."

Thinking of this, Xion There are tears from the eyes. The Elms family are all martial idiots. Her greatest pursuit is martial arts in her life. Xion's grandfather's greatest wish is to one day open up the four meridians and restore the glory of the Elms family.

It's a pity that he is now in his old age, and he still can't find a way to break through. Over the years, as he grows older, his strength has been somewhat uncontrollable decline, and there is no hope for a breakthrough.

Originally, Xion's mother, Kairi, was the most promising descendant of the Elms family. At a young age, she was infinitely close to breaking through the third meridian.

At that time, her grandfather concluded that Kairi would surely achieve a breakthrough within five years, becoming the first person in the Elms family to break through the three meridians before the age of thirty in nearly a hundred years.

But it is a pity that at the most critical stage, she was seriously injured to save Zayne. The most serious thing is that she lost an arm for Zayne.

In martial arts novels, there are often one-armed heroes, such as the one-armed god Ni, Princess Corr, and the magical sculpture hero Yen Go. But those are all martial arts works after all, and they cannot be true. The real masters of the inner family do not have the ability to fly over the wall and fight cattle in the air. What they rely on is external and internal hard work. No matter how the inner strength of the inner masters is trained, the real transformation into the lethality against the enemy depends on the limbs.

One of the limbs is missing, and the strength is directly lost by a quarter. This still does not consider coordination. In fact, if a person loses one arm, the ability of the other arm will be greatly compromised due to lack of coordination. Therefore, even though Kairi is a martial arts genius, her talent can never make up for her body's shortcomings. Therefore, her strength has no room for improvement over the years.

It can be said that the revitalization hope of the entire Elms family rests on Xion. Although her surname was Banks, the Elms family never regarded her as an outsider. She is of the Elms family's flesh and blood, grew up in the Elms family since she was a child, and practiced the Elms family's Aikido, so she is the heir of the Elms family.

When Kairi gave birth to Xion in October, Patriarch Wilfred's first thought was that the child was born with the surname Elms.

Anyway, she is the illegitimate daughter of Zayne, and the Elms family is not going to let Zayne know about this. Naturally, it is reasonable and natural for her to have her surname. However, Kairi insisted that her surname be Banks. The reason is that Kairi's feelings for Zayne in his heart. She felt that even if she quietly gave birth to Zayne's child, she was not going to tell Zayne, but out of respect for Zayne, she still wanted the child to follow his surname Banks.

Kairi's father, Wilfred, couldn't help her, so he could only compromise. However, Wilfred also made a request that Xion could not have the surname Elms, but if she gave birth to a boy in the future, she must have a surname Elms.

Kairi agreed. She felt that in the future, Xion must be asked to recruit a family member. After all, the Elms family is not a leisurely person, and it is not difficult to recruit a son-in-law.

From these things, it can be seen that the Elms Family attaches great importance to Xion. It is not difficult to explain why Xion is also eager to allow the Elms family to rise again in the martial arts.

Especially this time the Banks Family fell into trouble, and it made Xion lose all confidence and affection for the Banks Family.

She had already made a plan in her heart. When the turmoil of this incident passed and when she could return to the Elms family, she would immediately change her surname to Elms and try her best to help the line of the Elms family!

At the same time, she also intends to persuade Grandpa to let the whole Elms family be loyal to Charlie Wade, not only to repay this great favor, but also to have a better good luck for the Elms family in the future.

Charlie Wade left the hotel administrative area, and Cameron Isaac was waiting at the door.

Seeing Charlie Wade coming, he hurried forward and said respectfully: "Master, how are you talking to Miss Banks?"

Charlie Wade said lightly: "The talk is not bad. She will stay in the hotel during this period of time. You help take good care of her and other people, but still the point I said before, don't let them contact the outside world, only allow them to watch TV and answer calls from the service staff."

Cameron Isaac nodded hurriedly and said, "You can rest assured, master, I will arrange Okay."

He hurriedly handed a rectangular packing box to Charlie Wade, and said, "Master, this is the new phone you asked me to buy."

Charlie Wade told Cameron Isaac before entering Xion's room. Asked him to arrange someone to buy a new mobile phone, so Cameron Isaac asked someone to buy a new top-matched Apple mobile phone.

The reason why Charlie Wade asked Cameron Isaac to arrange for someone to buy a mobile phone was mainly because he wanted to go to Pearl River where Wendy worked and give her this mobile phone when he was going back.

Then, transfer some money to her WeChat or Apple Pay to make her life less embarrassing for some time in the future. This is his consistent principle of being a man. People respect me and I respect others. Wendy looked down on him for so many years, so Charlie Wade didn't have any softness or tenderness to her before.

But now that she has sincerely admitted his mistakes and called him her brother-in-law sincerely, then he naturally has to express himself. If you respect me and obey me, I will let you benefit from it. This is the key quality of becoming a master. And those who you respect me, obey me, and I am not willing to benefit you, are basically difficult to achieve true success.

Some bosses, even if they have thousands of possessions, can hardly escape a word. Even if his relatives, friends and subordinate staff treat him respectfully and work hard for him, he is still reluctant to give each other the benefits he deserves. There are also some bosses who like to do things like hiding all the birds in their bows and crossing rivers and bridges.

People like that will sooner or later lose everyone's support and help, and become a lonely family. Once deficient in morals and helpless, naturally there is no chance to become a master. Those well-known entrepreneurs who are really big, without exception, all follow the law of "those who follow me prosper". Only in this way can we gain the support of others and make our own career bigger and bigger. This is the essence of the words "those who follow me prosper".

At this moment, Charlie Wade got the phone and said to Cameron Isaac: "Okay, Isaac, I'm leaving."

Cameron Isaac blurted out: "Master, I'll take you down!"

Charlie Wade said lightly: "No, you go and do your work. Don't worry about me."

Cameron Isaac smiled: "No problem, if you want to go down, I will continue work."

Charlie Wade nodded, did not say more

Charlie Wade left the hotel, rode on his little eBike, and ran for the Pearl River first.

This community has just opened, and recently it has been advertising and promoting sales everywhere in Aurouss Hilll, so Charlie Wade has also heard about it. If you change it to a few years ago, any newly opened community will be sold out by crazy citizens and speculators in a very short time. However, recent real estate brokers are not doing well, and many new communities are experiencing slow sales, so these developers have begun to do everything possible to promote sales.

Wendy originally wanted to apply for a real estate sales job, but because the salary for this job would not be settled until the following month, she had to go back and work as a temporary etiquette lady in an etiquette company. To put it plainly, the etiquette company is a human intermediary company.

Like the housekeeping agency, they signed a large number of girls who wanted to be courtesy ladies, and then set different prices according to the different external conditions of each girl, and then took the information of these girls to match with Party A.

For example, when a clubhouse opens for a celebration, if twenty slender, beautiful and temperamental etiquette ladies are needed, they will directly talk to the etiquette company. The etiquette company took the profile photo of the etiquette and asked Party A to select it. After the selection, the price was negotiated, and then the schedule and time were arranged with the etiquette.

Generally speaking, the cost of Party A to the etiquette company is an average of 400 to 800 per day for a lady of etiquette.

However, these etiquette companies will take half or more from the middle and give the etiquette ladies 200 to 400 compensation. Although Wendy is not as pretty as Claire Wilson Wilson, she is definitely a beauty, with a good figure and good temperament. In Party A, she can get 800 dollars. Correspondingly, the etiquette company should also give her 400 dollars remuneration.

However, the person in charge of the etiquette company realized that Wendy was short of money, so he deliberately lowered her price, only willing to give her two hundred a day. Wendy felt that the three relatives in the family were waiting to eat and take medicine, and they couldn't cut off their cash income every day, so even if they were exploited a little bit harder, they could only accept it.

At this time, she was wearing a blue cheongsam-style lady etiquette uniform, standing at the door of the Pearl River sales office to welcome guests.

The current season is still the first month, the temperature is very low, and the uniform she wears is very thin, and her calf wearing only silk stockings is exposed underneath. After standing at the door for less than half an hour, her body has become stiff from the cold.

However, in order to make money, she did not dare to have any complaints, she could only clenched her teeth.

At this time, she had been standing at the door for more than an hour. She was trembling with cold, her face was pale, and her lips were blue, but she still forced herself to keep the signature smile of the lady of manners, nodding and bowing to every customer entering the sales office. ,say hello.

At this time, a woman wearing a mink fur coat came out from the sales office and said to Wendy: "Wendy, today Mrr.. Lloyd ordered that all of our hostesses must sign an exclusive guarantee agreement with the company, while there are no customers. Come to see the room, you sign the agreement with me."

The woman's name is Teresa Fay, who is the on-site supervisor of Wendy's etiquette company and the second in command of the company.

Wendy asked respectfully: "Ms. Teresa, what does the exclusive guarantee agreement mean?"

Teresa Fay said proudly: "The exclusive guarantee agreement means that you can only cooperate with our etiquette service company from now on. , Cannot have any form of business dealings with other etiquette companies, otherwise, the company has the right to demand compensation from you."

Chapter 2262

Wendy asked again: "Isn't it an exclusive guarantee agreement? In addition to exclusively cooperating with our company, what does the guarantee mean?"

Teresa Fay explained: "The guarantee means that you have to guarantee a minimum of 20% for the company a month. For the eight events, if due to your personal reasons, the number of events in the current month does not meet the requirements, the company will also ask you to compensate or deduct part of your labor costs."

Wendy asked, "Then you signed this agreement. Will the company give you any benefits?"

"Benefits?" Teresa Fay curled her lips : "The advantage is that as long as you follow the company's requirements and have at least 28 activities per month, the company will give you a basic salary of 5,000." Wendy listened. At this point, she said with joy: "Ms. Teresa, what do you mean is that in addition to the 200 for each event, the company also gives a basic salary of 5,000?"

"Yes." Teresa Fay said: "This is a contract specially prepared by the company for employees, and most people don't have this opportunity." After all, she handed the agreement to Wendy and urged: "Come on, quickly sign and stamp it, and I will take it when I finish it."

Go back to the company and report it to Mrr.. Lloyd." Wendy was overjoyed. If there are 28 activities in a month, the activity fee alone will be 5,000, plus the basic salary of 5,000, which is more than 10,000!

She had looked down upon a monthly salary of over 10,000 before, but now, a monthly salary of over 10,000 is of great significance to her.

With this income, their family no longer has to go hungry. Moreover, as long as the money is used for living expenses, as long as they don't buy things randomly, the family can definitely eat well, and the recovery speed of their father and brother's bodies must be It can also be a lot faster.

She was overjoyed and didn't think much about it. She probably looked at the contract and saw that the basic salary of 5,000 per month was indeed written, so she relieved herself and immediately signed her name, and then covered it with the ink pad that Teresa Fay handed over.

After receiving the contract, Teresa Fay smiled triumphantly and said: "Oh, Wendy, welcome you to become the exclusive contract artist of our etiquette company. You must work hard in the future!"

Wendy said excitedly, "Ms. Teresa, don't worry, I will definitely work harder!"

Teresa Fay hummed, and said: "Okay, I will go back to the company first. After you are off work, you can sign a letter with your team leader to go back."

Wendy asked hurriedly: " Ms. Teresa, are you still coming this afternoon?"

Teresa Fay waved her hand: "I won't come here. The company is taking over etiquette work in several other buildings today. I will go to inspect the site in the afternoon."

Wendy cooperated with this company For a few days, I learned that Teresa Fay was the person responsible for on-site payment. At the end of each day, she took cash to settle the settlement for everyone. So when she heard that she was not coming in the afternoon, she hurriedly asked: "Ms. Teresa, then Is today's expenses settled by the team leader after work?"

Teresa Fay looked surprised: "Expenses? What are the expenses?"

Wendy hurriedly said, "It is the etiquette expenses for today's two hundred dollar."

Teresa Fay looked at Wendy, "I said Wendy, did you not wake up? What dreams are you doing here?"

Wendy said nervously, "Ms. Teresa, what happened to me?"

Teresa Fay shook the contract in her hand. Said coldly: "Wendy, the contract is plain and clear. The company will give you a basic salary of 5,000 yuan and pack your 28 activities a month. All your remuneration is included in the 5,000 monthly salary. What do you want for the etiquette expenses of today? Do one job and two money, why do you think so crazy?"
Chapter 2263

Wendy heard Teresa Fay's words and asked in surprise: "Ms. Teresa, didn't you just say it? The money for the activities is the money for the activities, and the basic salary is not included!"

Teresa Fay said, "What you think is really beautiful. I tell you, Mrr.. Lloyd said that in the future, all courtesy ladies must settle monthly, so starting from today, you will work for the company steadily. As long as you have completed 28 activities, next month 15 I will send you a basic salary of five thousand!"

Wendy's expression suddenly became embarrassed, and she said: "Ms. Teresa, one event is two hundred, twenty-eight events should be five thousand and six hundred. The company uses five thousand to pack it, which is equal to me.

"I have to do three games for the company for nothing every month." She said, she said very embarrassedly: "I have a tight hand recently, and I can't accept this kind of cooperation on a monthly basis. Or I will not sign it."

"What? Don't sign?" Teresa Fay sneered: "Wendy, do you think that the lady of etiquette has hardened her wings after working for a few days?"

Wendy shook her head and said religiously: "Ms. Teresa, I didn't mean that, I think this cooperation is really not suitable for me."

Teresa Fay snorted and said seriously: "Wendy, let me tell you, you have signed the contract. At this time, if you want to break the contract, you must bear the responsibility for breach of contract!" Wendy realized that she had been deceived, so she hurriedly asked Said: "What is the responsibility for breach of contract?"

Teresa Fay raised the contract in her hand and sneered: "This is clearly written in black and white. You are voluntarily signing a contract with the company. If you voluntarily breach the contract, you will have to pay the company 500,000 dollars in liquidated damages, otherwise, the company has the right to sue you in the court!"

Wendy's heart squashed when she heard this, and hurriedly pleaded: "Ms. Teresa, I rely on two hundred dollars to support my family every day. I beg you to see that there are still two patients who are paralyzed in bed in my house. Raise your hand and void that contract."

"Void?" Teresa Fay sarcastically said, "What dream do you want? You can also make this contract void. First bring me 500,000 in liquidated damages!"

Wendy said: "Ms. Teresa, if I can get half a million, I won't come to do this job."

"You!" Teresa Fay sneered and said: "Listening to you your tone, it seems that I feel this It's a shame to work?"

Wendy hurriedly shook her head, "I didn't mean it, I just wanted to say, I really can't pay that much money."

Teresa Fay screamed, "You fucking can't get the liquidated damages and you're still here to haunt the Lady. Wrong? If you can't pay the penalty, you can work honestly with the Lady! The contract period of this contract is three years, three years, thirty-six months, and you must do 28 games every month. Otherwise, one less game and one thousand deductions until all deductions are made!"

"What?!" Wendy cried anxiously and blurted out: "Aren't you cheating? It's less than two hundred per game. For money, I will deduct 1,000 for one game missing. If I do 23 games a month and miss five games, don't you want to deduct all my 5,000?" Teresa Fay glared at Wendy and laughed. "You should be grateful that the contract is only deducted, and you are not compensated. If you are compensated, if you do not count, you will have to lose the company money!"

Wendy blurted out: "You are too dark. I'm not doing it! I won't fulfill the contract!"

"Non fulfilled?" Teresa Fay sneered, "If you don't fulfill it, you will return to the company with me and give the company an IOU of 500,000!"

Wendy was anxious and asked. "Why?!"

"Why?" Teresa Fay curled her lips in disdain, turned around and beckoned to a car at the door. In the car, four strong men of five big and three thick came out and directly surrounded Wendy.

Teresa Fay scolded the brawny men: "Take her into the car and get her back to the company! I don't believe it anymore. I can't stop her from being Wendy!"

"Good Ms. Teresa!" He immediately responded, he even led someone to rush forward, grabbed Wendy's arm tightly, and yelled: "Honestly follow us in the car, otherwise you will feel better!"

Chapter 2264

"I'm not going!" Wendy blurted out: "You are a crime in broad daylight! I want to call the police to catch you!"

"Call the police?" Teresa Fay came up and slapped Wendy, yelling: "You fucking Thinking that the police can bluff me? Tell you, I see too many hooves like you! I have ten thousand ways to kill you!"

Wendy blurted out: "You are too bullying. Now it's a society under the rule of law! How can you allow you to be so foolish!"

Teresa Fay sneered, "What about bullying you? What my mother likes to do is bullying! I tell you, Mrr.. Lloyd has a name and a surname on Aurouss Hilll Road. Number one, if you dare to be dishonest, not only will you not end well, your family will also not have good fruit!"

Then she said again: "Wendy, don't blame me for not reminding you, nothing else Say, just the contract you signed and drew in my hand, I can sell it to the debt collection agency at any time for one hundred and two hundred thousand. When the time comes, people from the debt collection agency will come to you every day. The house blocks you and forces you to pay back the money. If you don't pay, they will eat and live in your house every day, splash paint on the walls of your house, no matter where you go to work, they will go to the place where you work and go to death, you If you don't die, you have to pick up layers!"

Teresa Fay's etiquette company was originally a gray group in Aurouss Hilll. Their mode of operation is to first use normal cooperation to lure the little girls in, then trick them into signing a sales agreement, and then use the sales agreement to firmly control them. Plain looks usually become their coolies. With the lowest compensation, they help them to be hostesses everywhere, desperately squeezing, and some even run three or four activities a day.

And those who look better are basically forced to go to ktv to be a princess or lady, and some are even forced to go on the road of dust.

Teresa Fay feels that Wendy's appearance is indeed excellent. If you control her and send her to a high-end club, you can create at least 50,000 or 60,000 benefits in a month, which is definitely a cash cow.

She was also worried that Wendy had a lot of dreams , so she hurriedly said to those people: "Quickly, get her in the car!" Several strong men immediately grabbed Wendy and dragged them into the car.

Wendy was so scared that she couldn't possess her body, and blurted out, "Help! Kidnapping!"

Some passers-by heard it and immediately looked over. Teresa Fay hurriedly said loudly: "Don't get me wrong, we are from Aurouss Hilll Etiquette Company, a formal enterprise!"

"This girl is one of our employees. Her family had an accident some time ago and her parents had a car accident. Our boss kindly loaned her to her. 500,000 to see a doctor, but she did well, and quietly took the money to gamble!"

"If you lose all the money, she left her parents in the hospital regardless. We are going to take her to the hospital to see her dying. Parents, see if you can reawaken her conscience!"

When everyone heard this, they didn't know who to believe.

At this time, Teresa Fay whispered to the people: "Get in the car!" The people immediately dragged Wendy to the door, and she was about to push her into the car.

Wendy was frightened at this time, and her heart was desperate. She knew very well that once she got on the car, she was on the thief ship. It was very likely that she would not be able to get off in this life because she was desperate and did not know what to do. When it's good, I suddenly heard a familiar voice whispering coldly: "Let her go!"

Chapter 2265

Following this roar, Wendy and others including Teresa Fay immediately followed the reputation subconsciously. At this moment, I saw Charlie Wade riding his electric bike and quickly approaching everyone.

Immediately, Charlie Wade stopped the electric bike and did not get off the bike. He put his legs on the sides of the electric bike and said in a cold voice: "Let her go."

When Teresa Fay saw that Charlie Wade was riding an eBike, her expression immediately became extremely disdainful, and she sarcastically said: "Who am I supposed to be a hero to save the damsel? It turned out to be a fucking stubborn wire!"

After speaking, she snorted coldly. He scolded: "Smelly commoner , I tell you, don't be nosy here, otherwise, my Lady will make you unable to eat!" Wendy saw Charlie Wade suddenly appear, and immediately felt a strong sense of security in her heart, and she cried quickly. He shouted: "Brother-in-law, brother-in-law, please save me, brother-in-law..."

Teresa Fay couldn't help sneering when he heard this, "Oh, you are her brother-in-law, what's the matter? Want to redeem her for life?"

Charlie Wade smiled and asked her, "What is your name? I don't know where my sister-in-law has offended you?"

Teresa Fay curled her lips: "You are not worthy of knowing my name, as for your sister-in-law. You don't need to know how she offends me. You only need to know one thing. Your sister-in-law now owes me half a million. If you pay the money, I will let her go now; if you don't pay, Then I will take her away!"

Wendy hurriedly said aggrieved: "Brother-in-law, I don't owe them any money at all. They lied to me and signed a contract with a penalty of 500,000 in the contract. They are completely contract fraud..."

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "Okay, Wendy, don't talk, I'll talk to this lady." After that, he looked at Teresa Fay with a smile on his face . , Opened his mouth and said: "Beauty, isn't it half a million? This matter is really easy to solve. Otherwise, you will give me a card number or your Alipay account now, and I will give you 500,000 immediately ."

Teresa Fay frowned and looked at Charlie Wade, and said coldly: "what the hell are you? You are willing to ride an electric bike, how can you get half a million?"

Charlie Wade didn't get angry, just took out his mobile phone and smiled: "In this way, you can open your Alipay now, and I will transfer the money to you now. If the money arrives, you will release it directly; if the money does not arrive, you must follow through."

Teresa Fay began to hesitate at this time.

She thought to herself: "Looking at this stupid look, it doesn't seem to be bragging. If he can really put out 500,000, this is a great deal. Even if I bring Wendy back and force her to work for me. , You can squeeze her tens of thousands of dollars a month at most. If you want to squeeze out half a million, it will take at least half a year or even longer..."

"Now this fool is willing to spend half a million to settle this. In this matter, don't I mean earning half a million in vain in one morning?"

Thinking of this, she immediately said to Charlie Wade: "Since you really want to settle this matter for her, then I will give it to you A chance, but don't blame me for not reminding you in advance. If you dare to play with me, I will not only take your sister-in-law away today, even you will not end well!"

Charlie Wade laughed and said, "Just do it. Don't worry, you have so many people here, how dare I play you?"

Teresa Fay snorted, and immediately took out her mobile phone and opened her Alipay.

Charlie Wade casually scanned her QR code for receiving payments, and then immediately filled in an amount of 500,000 in the transfer column.

Because the amount is relatively large, Alipay requires full name verification, so Charlie Wade smiled and said to Teresa Fay: "Beauty, it won't work if you don't tell me your name this time. The transfer needs to be verified."

Teresa Fay hugged her shoulders, arrogantly said: "My name is Teresa Fay"

Chapter 2266

Charlie Wade nodded, entered her name on it, and then clicked to confirm. After Alipay's face recognition passed, a prompt popped up immediately, indicating that the transfer was successful.

Teresa Fay's phone shook, and a prompt popped up immediately: "Charlie Wade transfers 500,000 dollars to you!" When she saw this message, she was surprised and excitement secretly: "This money is so smoothly earned! I have never made such a good money in my life! If Mrr.. Lloyd knows, at least I will be rewarded with one hundred thousand personally!"

Amidst her excitement, Teresa Fay couldn't help but look up to Charlie Wade. She glanced at it and said with a smile: "Unexpectedly, Mr. Wade is quite generous. In order to help your sister-in-law, he can use his fingers to get 500,000. If you want to come to Mr. Wade's economic strength, shouldn't it be extraordinary?"

Charlie Wade laughed. "It's not the same, I'm just a little silk? It's not easy to work hard to get a lot of money . If it wasn't because she was my sister-in-law, I wouldn't be able to take it so refreshingly." Wendy saw Charlie Wade I really gave half a million, and immediately cried, "Brother-in-law...you can't just give them the money...They are just a bunch of bandits..."

Teresa Fay immediately He scolded: "Wendy, please pay attention to your words. Our contract is written in black and white, and you have also signed it. I am also acting according to the contract with the money. Why is it a robber?" Wendy was angrily straight. Shaking and angrily said: "Are you a robber, you know! The contract itself is fraudulent!"

Charlie Wade said at this time: "Okay , Wendy, stop talking nonsense ." Wendy didn't expect Charlie Wade to be so relaxed. He acknowledged the compensation, choked up and said, "Brother-in-law...I know that it is easy for you to make money, but you can't make them so freely..."

Charlie Wade laughed and said, "How can this be called cheap to them? ?"

When Teresa Fay heard this, she immediately echoed: "That's right, how can it be cheaper for us? Follow the rules, the money itself is what you should pay to the company! Or Mr. Wade knows the law, you girl knows what a fart? ! "

Charlie Wade turned this time and said:" Teresa, you misunderstood my point. "

Teresa Fay frowned:"? What do you mean, "

Charlie Wade laughed:" I'll give you the money, indeed It was not given to you in vain. I borrowed the money from you. The interest rate is 500,000 per minute. Two minutes have passed. You should return me 1.5 million with interest."

Charlie Wade said again. "Oh, yes, I suggest you hurry up. It will be three minutes away, and then it will be two million."

Teresa Fay gritted her teeth immediately and cursed: "Are you fucking crazy? Playing with my Lady? What do you think? Does my mother know how to bird you? Really damn mentally retarded!" After that, she waved her hand to the strong men around her, and said coldly: "Let's go!"

What Teresa Fay thought in her heart was: "Half million has arrived in my Alipay, I naturally did not continue with this guy crap necessary, direct leave is that he is a riding electric car, how can I forward? If he dare to force the spot you have to fix him! "

Several brawny a Hearing this, he immediately pushed Wendy aside, preparing to get in the car and leave.

Charlie Wade pointed at Teresa Fay at this time and said coldly: "Others can leave, Miss Teresa, you have to stay, when will you pay back the money is when will you leave." When Teresa Fay heard this, she immediately cursed: " Damn, don't give me a face! Come here, give me a shot!"

Chapter 2267

The brawny men around Teresa Fay had already been gearing up. Their company, which specializes in gray areas, wants to make money entirely on performance. Teresa Fay's performance depends entirely on how many little girls she deceived, and then how much value she squeezed from these little girls. The performance of their thugs depends on how many times they move their hands.

In layman's terms, if there is no chance to do it for a month, they can only get a basic salary. But if there are fights every day this month, they can get at least tens of thousands of wages. They can all see this business today. Teresa Fay already has 500,000 in Alipay. If they try to teach the mentally retarded guy in front of them, they will have at least 20,000 or 30,000 of the 500,000.

Therefore, as soon as they heard Teresa Fay's order, they immediately stepped toward Charlie Wade and pressed them, and each of them was going to take action.

Charlie Wade smiled lightly on his face. Not to mention a few thugs, even a few martial arts masters like Xion are not enough in front of him. So, he directly greeted him with a smile.

Kicked one with a bang, knocked another with a punch, and then lifted a strong man with both hands, and threw his arms lightly, leaving the two of them to the side of the road. In the green belt, they fell unconscious.

When the two remaining people saw that Charlie Wade was cutting melons and vegetables, they easily eliminated their 4 companions, and they were so scared that they turned around and flee. But before they turned around, Charlie Wade grabbed the back of their necks, and then, they all turned into two parabolas and flew into the green belt on the side of the road.

Teresa Fay looked silly. She never dreamed that this hanging wire riding an electric bike could be so powerful. This kind of strength is even more powerful than those famous red sticks on the road! At this time, Teresa Fay realized that she was making trouble today.

So, she hurriedly said with a grin: "Mr. Wade, I'm really sorry. I didn't know that I offended you. Don't mind. I will transfer the 500,000 back to you!"

Charlie Wade smiled. "Don't, six minutes have passed. The principal is 500,000 and the interest is 3 million. You have to give me 3.5 million in total."

Teresa Fay said with a sad face, "Mr. Wade, you laughed... the total is only 500,000. , You have to charge half a million in interest for one minute. There is no such ruthlessness at home and abroad..."

Charlie Wade smiled and asked her: "Why, haven't you seen it?"

Teresa Fay shook her head and said: " Mr. Wade, I have never heard of such a high interest rate..."

Charlie Wade nodded, "Okay, then you have not only heard of it, but also seen it with your own eyes. I advise Don't talk nonsense, otherwise, it will increase by 500,000 soon."

Teresa Fay wiped her cold sweat and said embarrassedly: "Mr. Wade, don't tease me. You also work for the company. Although you paid the money, I, I'm still going to give our boss when I look back. I'm a part-time worker, how can I get so much money to pay you..."

Charlie Wade said calmly: "Then you just call your boss. Come here, but don't blame me for not reminding you in advance, if your boss takes 20 minutes to come over, the interest will have to increase by another 10 million."

Teresa Fay was overjoyed when Charlie Wade said to call the boss. The reason why she pleaded for mercy to Charlie Wade was because she couldn't deal with him alone.

Chapter 2268

But since he asked himself to call the boss, he can call the boss over and let the boss solve the matter.

Thinking of this, she immediately said diligently: "Then wait a minute, I'll call our boss!"

After finishing speaking, she quickly took out her mobile phone and dialed a number.

As soon as the phone call, Teresa Fay said anxiously: "Mrr.. Lloyd, help me Mrr.. Lloyd, I have some trouble here at Pearl River..." Mrr.. Lloyd on the phone, used to be A local gangster once became a little famous, but then he became a red eye because he went to gamble outside the country and lost money. He bet on one of his own hands, and then his right hand was abandoned.

His right hand was abandoned, and he couldn't continue to mix in the underworld where the weak and the strong were eating, so he gathered a group of people and set up a etiquette company.

The reason why I chose to work in the etiquette company is that the etiquette ladies contacted by the etiquette company are all girls, and they are all girls with a little bit of beauty but no background.

After all, all the ceremonial ladies who have come to do a few hundred dollars a day, what power background can the family have? After being bullied, naturally no one can stand for them.

Because of this, Lloyd has been engaged in prostitution business in recent years. He was on the phone, and after hearing Teresa Fay's story, he suddenly jumped into a rage.

"Damn, some people dare to worry about my money! Wait, I'll bring someone here!"

Teresa Fay reminded vaguely: "Mrr.. Lloyd, then you must be more prepared... .."

Lloyd Zonghui immediately smiled and said: "Don't worry, Caesar Hilton happened to be drinking tea here, I will bring Brother Caesar over there!"

Teresa Fay asked excitedly, "Brother Caesar is in our company?"

"Yes." Lloyd sneered: "The little Di who signed last week was spotted by Brother CCaesaronnor when he was working at KTV yesterday. Brother Connor wanted to take her, so he came to say hello to me. I confiscated Brother Caesar. So he owes me a favor. Just let him help me with this matter."

Teresa Fay was so excited that she hurriedly said, "Good Manager Lloyd, then come here soon!"

Lloyd smiled. "Okay, you tell him that I will be there soon, at most ten minutes!"

Teresa Fay hung up the phone and looked at Charlie Wade with full pride.

She knew in her heart that once Connor came to help, Charlie Wade would be finished.

"Caesar's name, in the underground world of Aurouss Hilll, who doesn't know?"

"He is the four heavenly kings of Don Albertt! There are at least a few thousand brothers under him. Although this guy with the surname Wade can fight, it is difficult to fist in the end. The enemy's four hands! I'm just waiting to see you being chopped off by Caesar's people!"

However, although she was very proud in her heart, she did not dare to pretend to be forceful in front of Charlie Wade. Instead, she said very politely: "Wade Sir, our boss said, come here in a while, wait a moment, don't worry..."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "I'm not in a hurry. It is your boss who should be anxious. One hundred thousand, if he lingers for a while, maybe he will go bankrupt."

Teresa Fay chuckled and cursed in his heart: "Fuck! You stupid really take yourself seriously, don't you? Five hundred thousand a minute, you His mother really dared to think, when you are cut to your dying breath , I see how you can pretend!" Wendy on the side was a little worried, and whispered to Charlie Wade: "Brother-in-law, their company boss is a gangster. , Maybe it will bring a lot of people over in a while, let's go first!"

Charlie Wade waved his hand, his face was serious and said: "How can I leave now? If I leave, his boss will look back. What if I can't find me?"

"You know if this money is delayed for a day, do you know how much his boss will pay me? One minute is 500,000, one hour is 30 million, twenty or forty hours is 720 million. There are principles, you can't be so cheating, you know?" When Teresa Fay heard this, she couldn't help but lower her head, stretched out her hand to cover her face, and said in her heart: "from which haystack did this guy jump out? That mouth is really bragging..."

Chapter 2269

She was patient and waited for fifteen minutes on the spot Fifteen minutes later, a Mercedes-Benz S-Class finally drove to the parking lot at the entrance of Pearl River. Following the s-class sedan, there were two 11-seater vans. At this time, the two vans were filled with people holding machetes. The direction of the vehicle was coming from behind Charlie Wade. Lloyd in the car saw Teresa Fay, and then immediately realized that the man sitting in the electric car in front of Teresa Fay with his back to him should be with Teresa Fay. The yelling guy.

He was very disdainful to secretly: "A sling who rides an electric bike, dare he fucking pretend to be with me? It just happens to be itchy hands today, so I will practice it with you!"

However, when I think of Teresa Fay, this sling is one. He put down his six little brothers, and he was a little drumming in his heart.

He thought to himself: "What if this guy is really good at fighting, what should I do if I meet him?" Thinking of this, he looked at Caesar beside him and said flatly, "Brother Caesar, I will pay you back later. You have to work hard to help me out. Since the beater was abolished, the people on the road have not recognized me or given me face in the past few years. Unlike you, you can become the four heavenly kings by Don Albertt. , In the whole Aurouss Hilll, who can't give you face..."

Caesar was very proud of his praise, and said with a smile: "Lloyd, it's just a small hanging silk, dare to look down on you, just look down on you I, wait a while, brother, I will give you a good breath!"

After speaking, the driver stopped the car beside Charlie Wade.

Caesar pushed the door directly and got out of the car, staring at the back of Charlie Wade's head, and cursed coldly: "Let me see which one is not long-eyed who dare to offend my brother Lloyd!"

At this time, Caesar was already standing behind him. More than twenty little brothers.

Several of them belonged to Lloyd, but most of them belonged to him.

When Teresa Fay saw that Lloyd had really brought Caesar over, she became excited and jumped and smiled at Charlie Wade: "The surname is Wade, you're fucking dead today! You're waiting to be chopped into meat by Caesar Hilton!"

Wendy said nervously, "Brother-in-law...they are so many people..."

Charlie Wade curled his lips and said lightly: "What's the use of more people?"

Caesar didn't hear Charlie Wade's voice, so he said furiously: "Boy, you are very arrogant! Even Lloyd doesn't look at me, I think you are tired and crooked!"

Charlie Wade turned slowly at this time After turning around, looking at Caesar, he smiled and said, "Oh, it turned out to be Brother Caesar, why? With so many brothers, is this going to cut me down?"

Caesar saw Charlie Wade's smiling face , His soul frightened suddenly!

He never dreamed that the commoner that Lloyd asked himself to help teach, turned out to be Master Wade, whom his boss Don Albertt highly respected!

"This...Isn't this a fucking dog? Isn't this..."

Caesar cried out in his heart, and his legs became weak involuntarily. Immediately afterwards, he knelt on the ground with a plop in the eyes of everyone's surprise, and choked: "Wade...Master Wade...I really didn't expect it to be you here... . Please also your adults have a lot, don't be like my stupid dog..."

Lloyd was so stupid, he blurted out: "Brother Caesar...you...how do you give this idiot respect to kneel down? What kind of thing is he!"

Caesar immediately became angry with Lloyd when he heard this! He struggled to stand up, stepped forward to Lloyd, rounded his arms, and slapped his face with a slap in the face! With a snap, Lloyd was beaten back for several steps, his whole person was already dizzy, his eyes were staring.

Chapter 2270

He clutched his face and asked in amazement: "Brother Caesar, you...what are you hitting me for? Beat that stinky silk!"

Caesar's whole body shivered and stammered. "You...you're so fucking looking for death! You dare to say that Master Wade is stinky silk! I think you're really tired and crooked!"

After speaking, he immediately shouted to all his subordinates: "Damn, hold him down for me and beat him to death!"

Although most of Caesar's younger brothers have never seen Charlie Wade, they have heard of Master Wade's name.

After all, this is the benefactor that Don Albertt talks about all day long, and Don Albertt is the godfather of the entire Aurouss Hilll underground world. It can be said that his benefactor is the benefactor of all members of the underground world in Aurouss Hilll.

This Lloyd provokes who is not good. He has to provoke Master Wade. Isn't this just playing a lantern in the toilet and seeking death?

As a result, these little brothers could not help but immediately rushed forward and pressed Lloyd to the ground, which was a violent beating.

Lloyd was beaten up and screamed, crying and wailing: "Brother Caesar, forgive me, Brother Caesar, I don't know this Mr. Wade is your friend. If I knew it, I wouldn't have a conflict with Mr. Wade if I was killed! Please forgive me!"

"Forgive you?" Caesar, who was anxious, blurted out without thinking: "Fuck you, I fucking forgave you, who the fuck forgave me? Master Wade If the blame comes down, I'll just go around if I can't eat it. Even if Master Wade doesn't blame me, if this matter reaches the Don Albertt's ears, the Don Albertt will destroy me! You bastard hurt me. Do you know?!"

Lloyd cried and said, "Brother Caesar, forgive me, I really know I was wrong..."

After speaking, he looked at Charlie Wade again, crying and begging: "Master Wade, please forgive me, Master Wade!"

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently and said to Caesar, "Okay, let your people stop first." When Caesar heard this, he blurted out and shouted: "It's all fucking Stop for a while, Master Wade is about to speak!"

A large group of people were surrounding Lloyd, who was on the ground and kicked fiercely. Hearing this, he quickly closed his hands and backed two steps, standing still on the spot.

Lloyd had been beaten to bloody blood and his face was swollen into a big pig's head. Teresa Fay on the side was already frightened, looking at Lloyd blankly, not knowing what to do.

At this time, Caesar hurriedly bowed, and said to Charlie Wade respectfully: "Master Wade, please give orders..."

Charlie Wade nodded and said to Caesar: "My little horse, it's not that I said you In a civilized society, don't fight and kill at every turn. Under this big public, how bad is the impact for ordinary citizens?"

Caesar was taken aback for a moment, and hurriedly slapped himself, saying with shame, "Master Wade, Your criticism is right! My quality is too low and I am embarrassed by the people of Arouss Hilll..."

Charlie Wade said indifferently, "I know."

After finishing speaking, he looked at Lloyd and said with a smile: "Is Lloyd from Pearl River etiquette company always?" Lloyd said with blood still on the corner of his mouth, and said weakly: "It's me...it's me...Master Wade, it's me who was wrong, it's me I don't know you and offend you, but I ask you to forgive me..."

Charlie Wade waved his hand and said seriously: "Oh! There is no right or wrong in the adult world, and some are just benefits. "After that, he pointed to Teresa Fay, who was pale, and said with a smile: "Look, I have already told your Teresa before you come. I lent your company 500,000 before about thirty minutes ago. , I have an agreement with Teresa. The interest rate is 500,000 per minute. After these 30 minutes, the interest rate is 15 million. Together with the capital, the total is 15.5 million. See when you will pay Settle it?"

Lloyd frightened his whole person and blurted out: "Master Wade...Grandpa Wade...you...your interest is too high... .. Five hundred thousand a minute, don't you want my life..."

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Look, your company made its fortune on the overlord's terms; and I, this person, makes money by lending abroad. You have your ability to make a fortune, and I also have my way of making money. Of course those who come out have to respect each other."

Chapter 2271

It was the first time Lloyd met someone like Charlie Wade.

No fights, no scolding, and a smile on his face, he looks more civilized than anyone, but a mouth is to eat human bones. Fifteen and five million? How can he get so much money?

Regardless of whether he has opened a ceremonial company, he has been buying and selling all the time to make good prostitution. He does not make less money, but for people like him, the more money he makes, the more he spends.

Originally, these people who once wandered into the gray world all have a natural instinct to be drunk now and rich, not to spend more time.

Therefore, although Lloyd usually makes a lot of money, he does spend a lot of money outside.

He can make at least a few million in a year, but he can't hold back his spending money and extravagance, so he will have at most 1.8 million in his hands at the end of the year.

All of Lloyd's savings were only three or four million. At this time, Charlie Wade asked him to return 15.5 million as soon as he opened his mouth. He couldn't make that much money even if he sold his kidneys.

So he cried and pleaded: "Master Wade, let me tell you the truth, I really don't have so much money..."

Caesar kicked him when he heard this. Scolded: "Fuck! Don't you want to face? Master Wade gave you a solution to the problem, you are still crying poorly here? Do you have to be satisfied if I punish you?" Lloyd trembled: "No. Brother Caesar, I'm really not crying poor, I really can't pay that much money..."

Caesar scolded: "If I can't pay, I just put it. ! you break your two legs!"

Lloyd scared the whole body flick, immediately glared Teresa, angry curse:" your fault this bitch, I stir up trouble all day long to net out
"!

Then he has to Charlie Wade said, "Master Wade, this Teresa Fay handles all matters concerning the Overlord Clause. You have to find her to settle the accounts!"

When Teresa Fay heard this, her whole body was frightened, and she hurriedly said: "Lloyd! You are too shameless? These things are all your ideas. I'm just a subordinate who runs errands for you and helps you out. You Give it to me at this time, do you have any conscience?"

After that, she hurriedly said to Charlie Wade: "Mr. Wade, this etiquette company was made by Lloyd. I used to accompany wine in KTV. Miss, it was he who accepted me as a lover, and then said that he took me to make money, so he lied me into this business. Strictly speaking, I am a victim just like Wendy!"

"Fuck your mother" ! "Lloyd blurted shouted:"? Teresa, you're missing here loading white lotus, his mother what stuff, Aurouss Hillll trail who does not know you fucking not that come out to sell it?! You sold out too, even if Now, when you see your mother Sang making money, you want to stand on your own. You jumped out and wanted to dig the corner of the previous mother Sang. You committed a big taboo!"

"People threaten to destroy your face with sulfuric acid and drive you to desperation." You just ran over to beg me to protect you and beg me to take you out of the circle!"

"If it weren't for me, you would have been disfigured a long time ago! At this time, you even ran out to bite me back. No conscience?"

Teresa Fay said in a flustered manner: "You...Don't talk nonsense, these are all made up by you!"

Charlie Wade shouted coldly at this time: "Shut up all of you!"

Teresa Fay frightened she had to shrink her neck and immediately closed her mouth.

Charlie Wade glared at her, and said coldly: "Miss Teresa, it doesn't make any sense to throw it away in a hurry. When I and Lloyd finally settle the account, I will naturally give you a lot of calculations."

Teresa Fay hurriedly knelt down in shock. , Begged: "Mr. Wade, I...I was really forced...please see that I am a woman, don't be like me... "

Chapter 2272

Caesar, who was on the side, heard this and walked forward, slapped her face severely.

Before Teresa Fay recovered from the beating, he pulled Teresa Fay by the hair, dragged her to Lloyd, kicked her down beside Lloyd, and said coldly: "You fucking pretty good. If you have the ability, you dare to play moral kidnapping with Master Wade? Master Wade is a real dragon on earth. Under normal circumstances, I don't beat women, but I am not so particular about you! No matter how damn it is, I will ruin your face now. !"

Teresa Fay was immediately scared and dared not speak any more. She really wanted to play a moral kidnapping for Charlie Wade, first to highlight the point that she was a female class, so that Charlie Wade could not do anything to herself.

But she did not expect that Charlie Wade did not do anything to herself, but Caesar didn't take this set at all...A this time, Caesar looked at Charlie Wade and spoke respectfully: "Master Wade, this How to clean up the two bastards, please give your instructions!"

Charlie Wade said lightly: "First come one by one, first tell me what they owe me money."

Lloyd has realized at this time that this is basically the matter today. It is impossible to be good.

If I don't hurriedly ask Charlie Wade to forgive me, I still don't know how much I will suffer.

So he hurriedly said respectfully: "Master Wade, I have a total of more than 3.7 million deposits. I will give you all of them. I only ask you to raise your hands and spare me this time..."

Teresa Fay on the side also hurriedly Said: "Mr. Wade, I... I also have more than 700,000 deposits, and I am willing to pay you all, please let me go..."

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "You The two add up to less than 5 million. This difference is a bit far away? You see, this time has delayed you for several minutes, and the benefits will soon exceed 20 million, so I advise you to pay the money quickly, otherwise the interest has been running here, and for you, the pressure to pay back the money will definitely be increasing."

As soon as Lloyd heard this, he immediately cried and said, "Master Wade...I really don't have that much money... You just stripped me alive, and I can't get 20 million. Come out, please raise your hands high..."

Teresa Fay also cried and said, "Yeah, Mr. Wade, I really don't have that much money...More than 700,000 is all my belongings. Now..."

Charlie Wade said with a smile: "When you smashed those girls, they must have begged you to raise your hands high? Have you raised it?" The two of them were afraid to speak at once.

In the past, when they pit little girls, they didn't care about each other's life or death. If you don't have money, you will be honest. The two of them will even force the company's contracted courtesy lady to accompany the wine and sleep for money. At that time, they never ignored anyone's plea.

Seeing that they both stopped talking, Charlie Wade sneered, and said, "Given the money you owe me, it has exceeded 20 million, which is far beyond your actual repayment ability. You have to give me other ways if you don't have enough.

Find it!" Lloyd asked tremblingly: "Wade...Master Wade, how do you want us to find it..."

Charlie Wade sneered and said, "People say you spend money to eliminate disasters. If you don't pay, you will have to suffer a little bit!"

Caesar on the side suddenly felt that he instantly got Charlie Wade's point!

In the past, when Charlie Wade dealt with Marcus Lloyd,, father and son, and several masters in the Webb family, what Charlie Wade liked most was to engrave on each other's forehead!

So he immediately said to Charlie Wade: "Master Wade! Just tell me, what words do you want to engrave on their foreheads, I have a knife!"

Chapter 2273

As soon as Lloyd and Teresa Fay heard that Charlie Wade likes to engrave on people's foreheads, they immediately thought of Marcus Lloyd, the father and son who everyone in Aurouss Hilll knew about!

The father and son were a sensation in the city and even the whole country.

First, Marcus was engraved with the words "Pathetic Jerk" on his forehead because he offended a mysterious big man.

Then Mrr.. Lloyd, the father, wanted to avenge Marcus, but he also offended the mysterious big man, so the four characters of the 'father of pathetic jerk' were carved on his forehead.

This is not over yet. What really made the father and son famous all over the country was actually the cross talk about the Webb family they said together.

The cross talk they said by the father and son completely offended the Webb family. There are rumors about it. In fact, they dare not offend the Webb family at all. The reason why they recorded such a cross talk was completely coerced.

It was not clear to everyone before that he was threatened by someone who dared to offend the Webb family to death. Now, Lloyd figured it out. It turned out that it was Master Wade that both Mrr.. Lloyd and Marcus had offended.

Now, Mrr.. Lloyd and Marcus's end, I am afraid it will be his turn.

When he thought of this, Lloyd felt an inexplicable pain in his forehead. It was as if someone had carved words on his forehead with a knife.

Just when he was at a loss, Charlie Wade on the side said to Caesar: "Forget the lettering. The mistakes these two people made were not to look down on people, but to deceive the market and force the good to be prostitution. A solution."

Caesar asked hurriedly and respectfully: "Master Wade, how do you want to solve these two people? As long as you say a word, I will arrange it all!"

Charlie Wade nodded and asked him: "You Are there any KTV nightclubs under your hand?"

Caesar blurted out without hesitation: "Master Wade, this is what we have done! KTV nightclub, Don Albertt assigned to my hand, there are six!"

Charlie Wade said: "Okay, then Let this Teresa Fay go to accompany the bar. Doesn't she like to force the little girl to accompany the wine at night? Just now I have to force my sister-in-law to accompany the wine, so let her taste this taste for herself. She earns a cent. Don't give her money, when will you save five million, she will be free!"

Teresa Fay was so frightened when she heard this, she collapsed instantly. She knelt on the ground and cried and said, "Mr. Wade, please see For the sake of being confused for a while, please forgive me this time... With my beauty, I can make at most three or four hundred, five million for a party with ktv.....How long do I have to earn to be tall..."

Charlie Wade said coldly, "Why? You know that you feel uncomfortable when you are on your own. Then when you force others to accompany you, what do you do? Haven't considered the feelings of others? I will let you know what it means to do to others what you don't want to do!"

Teresa Fay cried and said, "Mr. Wade...I did a lot of wrong things before. , But... But I am somewhat restrained. Generally speaking, I can only cheat hundreds of thousands by myself. How can you cheat me five million so much... "

Charlie Wade said calmly: "If you think 5 million is too much, then we can adjust to 10 million. If you still think 10 million is too much, then we can adjust to 20 million." When Teresa Fay heard this, the whole person almost collapsed...

She cried with blood in her heart: "This Charlie Wade Wade, the method is too ruthless!"

Chapter 2274

"One opening is five million. If it is true that he said, I will at least accompany the wine for ten years in KTV!"

"Isn't this killing me?!"

Charlie Wade said coldly when Teresa Fay didn't speak. "Since you do not agree, then I will directly increase the price for you. I will increase the price to 10 million at the beginning. Then there will be Caesar and Don Albertt staring at you. If you don't make enough 10 million, even if you are the king of heaven, don't even think about it. Save you! I'll give you three seconds to think about it!" After that, Charlie Wade started the countdown directly.

"Three...two..."

Just when Charlie Wade was about to count to "one", Teresa Fay no longer dared to bargain, she cried and said, "Mr. Wade, I promise, I Promise..."

After speaking, thinking of her own destiny, she was about to cry like those girls who were forced to KTV by herself.

At this time, Charlie Wade looked at Lloyd, smiled indifferently, and said, "Lloyd, Teresa has already arranged it, and it is time to arrange a way out for you."

Lloyd secretly thought desperately: "This is Teresa Fay. It's so miserable, my mother must have nothing good to eat. If I don't think of a solution, wouldn't it be all in my life?"

Thinking of this, he kept kowtow and begged: "Master Wade, I am willing to do You are saddled with a horse, be a cow and a horse, just beg you to spare me this time...please..."

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "Don't tell me it's useless, you guys When the two embarrassed and entrapped innocent women, why didn't you think of forgiving them once?"

Charlie Wade sneered: "Since Teresa Fay is going to ktv to accompany wine in the future, then you can go to ktv to be the tortoise. The same, when will you earn five million, and when will you be free again? In this case, the two of you can be regarded as double-stays and double-flying, and no one has abandoned each other."

"Be the tortoise?!" Lloyd heard the word. His face turned pale immediately.

A tortoise was a man who did groceries in a brothel in ancient times. To put it bluntly, he couldn't even count as the security guard of the nursing home.

Generally speaking, the dirty, tiring, and most indiscriminate work done by Mr. Turtle is the role of handing toilet paper to the guests who have washed their hands at the door of the toilet in modern KTV. It can be said that it is in the entire KTV. , Not even the dog guarding the door ... When thinking of this, Lloyd burst into tears with his nose and choked: "Master Wade, you can leave me as a dog by your side. No matter what order, I won't have any delay, just beg you don't send me to ktv to go to Guido...I also spend some time on the road, how many people are on Aurouss Hillll Road I know some of them, and KTV is the most frequent place for Taoists. If I see me there, my old face will not be able to hold me..."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "What are you afraid of? You will become a turtle in the future. just put a small tray on the side of the ktv sink, put a few banknotes in it, and then ask the guests to spend when handing them paper towels. Have you not been on the road? There are many acquaintances and friends, everyone Seeing you become the tortoise, I will definitely take care of your business and give more tips. Maybe you earn 5 million faster than Teresa Fay." "I...I..." Lloyd At this time, I just wanted to kill him on the concrete floor.

He cried desperately in his heart: "Looking at me, Lloyd, on Aurouss Hilll Road, everyone is considered the number one person in size and size. Although not comparable to Caesar, it is at least the upper-middle hexagram!"

"Now, let me be the number one. People go ktv when turtles public, would not be complete mockery of the entire Aurouss Hilll trail?! " "and I've arrogant and despotic, he may no less feud home! " "if this was later in ktv met, they were I found that I was nodding and bowing at the door of the toilet, handing paper towels to the guests, so why not beat me to a dead dog?!"

Chapter 2275

Seeing Lloyd's silence for a long time, Caesar stepped forward and kicked him angrily. He cursed, "Grass! You are a dog who doesn't know how to lift up. Master Wade will give you a way to survive. You fucking don't hurry up and thank you." Really wait until you are sent to the Webbye kennel to feed the dogs, you fucking cried without tears!"

When Lloyd heard this, he shivered in shock! Who doesn't know about Don Albertt's dog farm? It is said that there are dozens or even hundreds of fierce purebred fighting dogs. Others say that Don Albertt has thrown his enemies into the kennel to feed the dogs. If this is really sent to a kennel, let alone alive, even a whole body will not be mixed

Thinking of this, Lloyd was desperate deep in his heart. To be honest, let him be the tortoise, to some extent, it would be better to kill him. But, if you really want to say let him die, he doesn't have the courage.

He choked in his heart and sighed: "Although the tortoise is ashamed, his life is bleak, but it is better to die than to live."

"I really want to hit me to death here, and I feel terrified in my heart."

"Moreover, Master Wade in front of me is not something I can contend with."

"Even Don Albertt treats him respectfully. I am a kind of stuff, but in front of him, he can only be regarded as a broken fish and shrimp. Now he is willing to spare my life and let me go to KTV to be a turtle. Now, if I don't respond quickly, if he changes his mind, then I really have to regret it."

Therefore, Lloyd quickly choked with gratitude and said: "Master Wade, thank you for not killing me. Lloyd must follow your instructions to be honestly a tortoise in KTV and work hard to make money and return your interest."

After finishing speaking, he hurriedly said: "By the way, Master Wade, give me an account. I will first transfer all the three million dollars I have on hand to you and the remaining five million dollars. Give it back to you"

Seeing that this guy accepted his punishment, Charlie Wade nodded in satisfaction and said coldly: "The money you make is all the hard-earned money pitted from those little girls. It is earned without conscience. If I take your money, it means that I have also become a member of that group of girls."

Lloyd was overjoyed when he heard that Charlie Wade didn't want to take his own money.

It doesn't matter if you are a tortoise, as long as you can save more than three million deposits, you can at least live a well-off life!

But before he was happy, Charlie Wade said to Wendy: "Wendy, I have a task for you."

Wendy has been by the side, watching Charlie Wade move her mouth to determine the future fate of Lloyd and Teresa Fay, the worship of him in her heart has reached a point where there is nothing to add, and the look in her eyes seems to see a god.

Now that Charlie Wade said that she was going to give herself a task, she was flattered and said excitedly: "Brother-in-law, if you have anything you want, I will definitely go all out!"

Charlie Wade nodded and exhorted: "From today, I want you to take over the Pearl River etiquette company. You will be responsible for this company. As for the company's shares, let Lloyd transfer all of it to your name today."

"Ah?!" Wendy said in surprise: "Brother-in-law, you let me accept the company? But I don't know how to run a company."

Chapter 2276

Charlie Wade said earnestly: "As long as you are serious, responsible, and at the same time worthy of your own conscience, it doesn't matter if you don't do well."

After speaking, he said again: "I will let them both transfer all their deposits to the companies' account. As for how to use the money, after you take over the company, you must sign all the company's money. The overlord clauses are found, and the unequal clauses on each girl are unconditionally removed, and then the money is distributed to them as compensation according to the number of years they are forced to sign the contract. The distribution rules must be fair and reasonable!"

When Wendy heard this, she almost nodded and said, "Good brother-in-law, I will send this money to them in a fair and reasonable manner!"

"Very good." Charlie Wade nodded and said with satisfaction: "After you compensate them for the money, you should make it clear to them that the company is next to you, and that the company's subsequent operations, sharing, payment and other processes are clear. All will be open and transparent. If they are still willing to continue to be courtesy ladies, then continue to cooperate with the company and sign equal employment contracts! As long as you implement these points well, I believe they will not refuse."

"In this way, after you take over this company, you will have a stable team, and then take some etiquette work, I believe the company will definitely be profitable."

Wendy heard this and said very seriously: "Brother-in-law, you are right. As long as you sign an equality agreement with everyone, everyone will be very willing to sign with the company!"

Speaking of this, she continued with some empathy: "After all, it's really hard to be a ceremonial lady alone. Every morning you have to spend a long time washing, making up, and dressing, and then an event is often from morning to night. Therefore, it is impossible to talk about cooperation and expand relations everywhere during other hours of the day."

"For those of us who are courtesy ladies, the best way to cooperate is to have a reliable company to help us undertake activities everywhere, and then make reasonable arrangements, scheduling and overall planning for us."

"In this way, everyone is willing to let the company take a draw from their own labor remuneration. Employees and the company cooperate with each other and get what they need, so that they can do better and better."

During this time, Wendy had a hard life.

The hard work is because she has changed from a lady who never touched the sun with her fingers and never came out to make money, to a laborer who runs around every day to ask for a living.

It is precisely because of her actual participation in labor that she can learn about an industry and discover problems in an industry down-to-earth.

After she had been a lady of etiquette for a while, she also figured out the ups and downs of the lady of etiquette.

At this moment, she thought to herself: "The little girls who are like me as a lady of etiquette are all unreliable and helpless bottoms. They earn rewards by hard work every day. Since everyone has chosen this line, They are all ready to endure hardships and suffer fatigue, so they are not afraid of hardship or tiredness."

"But what we are afraid of is to meet an unreliable company"

"Just like Lloyd's etiquette company, the work arranged for everyone is very heavy, but the compensation is very small."

"It doesn't matter if you give very little. Lloyd and Teresa Fay are still not satisfied. They want to further squeeze the surplus value of our little girls. So they use various overlord clauses and contract traps to entrap us, and even force them to make money. We push into the fire pit"

"If we can find a reliable company, the company and employees will support each other, even if it is a little bit harder, everyone will have no complaints."

"It's a pity that the group of Miss Etiquette is indeed too weak and too easy to be bullied! So most of the bosses in this industry, like Lloyd, are not greedy enough, and do everything possible to exploit us little girls who have no background."

"So, as long as we are still in this industry, we can only jump from this pit and into that pit."

"But now my brother-in-law gave me a chance to run an etiquette company. If I do it hard and work hard, let alone how much money I can make, at least I can ensure that the girls who work with me will not be The company is bullied and will no longer be desperately squeezed surplus value by the company"

Thinking of this, Wendy's heart began to feel a little passionate.

She looked at Charlie Wade with admiration and firm eyes, and said confidently: "Brother-in-law, thank you for giving me this opportunity. I will definitely try my best to not let you down!"

Chapter 2277

Charlie Wade has known Wendy for so long, and for the first time today, he saw this expression on Wendy's face that she was determined to do a good job. Before, she really didn't have this energy. She used to be young, impetuous, and ostentatious, and she disliked the poor and loved the rich.

But now she, after experiencing some hardships in life, has a lot of calmness. This point made Charlie Wade a little relieved. The Wilson family is certainly hateful, but these people are all blood relatives of his wife Claire Wilson Wilson. Therefore, this is also the real reason why Charlie Wade has not engaged them to death.

Otherwise, with the patience of the Wilson family, I don't know how many deaths have been made. Now that Wendy is determined to correct evil and return to righteousness, he might as well give her a chance. However, given the opportunity, she can't completely let her decide the company alone.

So Charlie Wade said to Wendy: "After you take over the Pearl etiquette company, remember to not forget your original intentions, and don't let people drift off because the company makes a little money."

Wendy nodded and said firmly: "Brother, don't worry. I will definitely remember your enlightenment and teachings..." Charlie Wade hummed, and continued: "After Lloyd and Teresa Fay's money is paid to the company's account, you will leave 500,000 in the account as operating funds. You receive 10,000 a month for the basic company, and find an accountant. I will ask someone to check the accounts every month to see if you have public funds for private use."

Wendy said without hesitation: "Brother-in-law, I will never do any small actions. You can supervise me all the time. Once you find that my mind is wrong, you can chase me away at any time!"

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "In addition, if you buy three domestically-made commercial vehicles for the company, you can buy the 10-seater and 13-seater domestically-produced cars, which are cost-effective, and the new price should be around 100,000. Then hire three drivers to take the girls out to run activities, so that no matter whether it is windy, rainy or severely cold and hot, the girls will be less guilty. Since you came from this step, you should be more sympathetic to them. It's hard work."

Wendy's moved tears became a thread. Although she has been a talented lady of etiquette for a short time, she has tasted enough of her hard work.

Real estates in some suburbs are far away and inconvenient for public transportation. It may take more than an hour to go back and forth, but the taxi is too expensive. The income from participating in the activity may not be enough for the taxi fare.

In addition, the weather is very cold now, and it's very late at dawn, so she sometimes has to go out after five o'clock. Only she knows how hard it is. If the company can equip everyone with a car and drive the car to take everyone to the event, it will be a very practical and good benefit for every lady of etiquette. Therefore, Charlie Wade's ability to take this into consideration really moved her heart.

Lloyd on the side listened to Charlie Wade's simple words, and he handed over his company to others, and he collapsed deep in his heart. Although he was full of resentment, he didn't even dare to let go of a fart at this time. He now wants to understand. What he has to do next is to transfer all the money to the company, then hand over the company to others, and then go to KTV to be the tortoise.

Chapter 2278

If you become a master turtle, you still have a chance to regain your freedom soon. Otherwise, you might really have to work in KTV for a lifetime. You can't be in your 60s or 70s, with gray hair, still handing out toilet paper to male customers at the toilet door? That's too damn bad. At this time, Caesar on the side saw Lloyd's face with a dead father's depression, and felt a little sympathetic.

Thinking of this, he sighed in his heart: "Although Lloyd almost caused me a catastrophe today, he is still a friend of mine. He has always respected me without saying anything, and even arranged for my favorite girl, I still owe him a favor..."

"Just now, to protect myself, I immediately beat him up and threatened to abolish him. Now think about it, I will pay him back. It is indeed a little bit sad. If this is spread outside, people outside will also say that Caesar is not kind, and if something happens, he will betray his friends..."

"Moreover, Master Wade is really too good. loss, let Lloyd go ktv when turtles public, this is tantamount to make an annual salary of millions of company leadership to sweep the toilet, trail mix are too proud, that sort of thing, who can bear ah "

He an idea At this point, Caesar took advantage of Charlie Wade's talking to Wendy at this time, so he leaned in front of Lloyd and said in a low voice: "Hey, Lloyd, don't feel too depressed in your heart. You can have this ending today. It smells..."

Lloyd heard this, tears flowed down, and he stood up with the urge to cry, choked up and asked, "Brother Caesar... Is the son on, or does it burn incense?"

Caesar nodded earnestly and said: "Don't say you are a small boss who is doing evil all day long, forcing good for prostitution. There was a boss whose company was valued at more than one billion and was about to be listed on the GEM. No one has ever done your job. This kind of conscientious business is because I was blinded and pretended to be forced by Master Wade, and now he is still carrying cement on the construction site! Master Wade can say, when will it be enough for 20 years, and when will it be finished! Tell me, who is more miserable than him?"

Lloyd was startled.

Caesar continued: "So, just think about it, is it because I've been the tortoise in ktv for ten years, or go to the construction site to carry cement for twenty years?"

Lloyd heard this. , Hurriedly wiped away his tears, choked up and said: "If you say so, you should be more comfortable as the tortoise..." "Still!" Caesar sighed, "So let me say, you are good. It doesn't matter if the money is gone, life is still there, arms and legs are still there, there are so many people who have offended Master Wade in the past, there are really not many people who can end up like you, are they not satisfied? What kind of bicycle do you still want?"

Lloyd nodded, "Brother Caesar, you are right...I...I...Hey...I

Acknowledged ..." Caesar nodded lightly and continued: "This matter, blame your concubine, damn it, it's not good for her to offend Master Wade, this is not a catch-up. Is the writing dead?"

Lloyd gritted his teeth and nodded. When it comes to Teresa Fay, he really hates it!

So she gritted her teeth and cursed in her heart: "Teresa Fay of the dog day, you are more than defeated if you do not succeed! I knew you would cause such a disaster. I would rather not sleep you and send you to KTV to accompany you! In that case! , I will not suffer this catastrophe today..."

"Hey, it's a pity that I didn't know everything. After all, there is no turning back in life. No matter how angry or dissatisfied, I still have to do it at night. Go to work in ktv?"

Thinking of this, he looked at Caesar, and pleaded with tears: "Brother Caesar, in the future, your brother will do the job of the turtle in your place, you must cover me a little bit..."

Caesar turned his back. Looking at Charlie Wade, he quietly patted his chest, and said seriously: "Lloyd, don't worry, brother will take care of you quietly!"

Chapter 2279

Caesar knew very well that Charlie Wade sent Lloyd to KTV to be the tortoise, which was a punishment for him. If he helped him and followed him upright, it would be equivalent to yes. Face Charlie Wade. He must have no such guts.

Therefore, the solution he can think of is to take care of Lloyd a little bit quietly and appropriately in the future, and it can only be a little bit. For example, if you go to the bathroom in KTV and meet him handing a tissue at the door, don't give five dollars if you can give ten dollars, don't give ten dollars if you give twenty dollars. Even if it is above fifty, if Charlie Wade feels that he is obviously generating income for Lloyd, he might find himself in trouble again.

Charlie Wade has set up the operation direction of the etiquette company with Wendy, and said to Caesar: "Caesar, you take Wendy and Lloyd to handle the company transfer in the afternoon, and make Lloyd and Teresa Fay transfer the money to the company account.

Come on." Caesar hurriedly nodded and said, "Master Wade, don't worry, it will be handed over to me!"

Charlie Wade nodded, looked at Caesar, and said coldly, "I won't settle accounts with you for today's matter. , In the future, you should be more vigilant. Don't think that you are the number one person in Aurouss Hill, and help others to fight and kill regardless of cause and effect. Then let me know that you dare to do this kind of help, and I will let you be with Lloyd. Dear Turtle, do you understand?"

Caesar trembled in fright, and blurted out: "Master Wade, don't worry, if I do this kind of thing again, I will meet you!"

Charlie Wade snorted coldly. He said: "Being in the underground world, you have to do a little more. Bars, KTV, and nightclubs are too many serious ways to make money. Don't bully the market, bully men and women, otherwise, I will teach Don Albertt together!"

Caesar hurriedly bowed Said: "Master Wade, what you taught is that you must keep in mind next..."

Charlie Wade ignored him, turned around and said to Wendy, "Wendy, just do what I ask, take over the company, do things, and behave well, don't let me down!"

Wendy choked with tears. : "Good brother-in-law...I will definitely go all out..."

Charlie Wade nodded, "Okay , do it well, I will find you in a few days to find out the situation, and I will leave "

Wendy said gratefully: "Brother-in-law, go slowly..."

Caesar also hurried to the front and bowed, "Master Wade, go slowly!" Charlie Wade was ready to go, remembering something from the electric In the basket of the car, I took out the cloth bag I used for grocery shopping, and took out a brand new unopened Apple phone from the cloth bag.

He handed the mobile phone to Wendy and said, "The mobile phone is bought for you. In modern society, people in modern society cannot do many things without a mobile phone, and you are about to be the boss of the company, and you need a mobile phone to contact you. Business and communication with the team."

Wendy never dreamed that Charlie Wade even bought herself a mobile phone, which really moved her to the extreme.

"Charlie Wade morning I gave money to the car, just to see me being bullied shot to help, are accidental encounter, shoving me"

"But this phone is not handy thing up!" "He Knowing that I don't have a mobile phone, I wanted to give me a mobile phone, so I bought it! This was bought for me!"

At this moment, Wendy was touched with nothing to add.

Chapter 2280

She looked at Charlie Wade. She wanted to talk, but couldn't say anything.

Seeing her completely stunned, Charlie Wade didn't tell her any more. He put the phone into her hand and said to Caesar, "Caesar, your friends and partners in the future, if you need to use etiquette. Miss, remember to take care of Wendy's business, do you understand?"

Caesar said without saying a word, immediately: "Master Wade, don't worry, after Miss Wendy opens, I will help her publicize it! There are more or less thin noodles on Aurouss Hill Road, and my friends will definitely give this face down, and ensure that Miss Wendy's etiquette company will be too busy for business at that time!"

He said, he hurriedly said again: "Yeah. Master, tomorrow is the anniversary celebration of the opening of several ktv under my umbrella. I just want to invite a group of etiquette ladies, then I will ask Miss Wendy to help!"

Charlie Wade asked him with interest: "Oh? What a coincidence? Opening anniversary celebration?"

"Yes!" Caesar smiled: "Why don't you say that Master Wade is a real dragon on earth? No matter who is okay, you will sneak around you in secret!"

Charlie Wade knew him. It must have been deliberately flattering myself to please myself, but I didn't say much, and instead said to Wendy: "Wendy, tomorrow you must arrange all the activities of Caesar here. This is your new company. For the first business, try to be a good start!"

Wendy nodded hurriedly and said: "Brother-in-law, don't worry, I will definitely arrange it!"

Charlie Wade said to Caesar, "You people on the road, do things rather rough. , The overall quality is not very good. Tomorrow the lady of etiquette will go over, you must take care of their mouths, hands and feet, and don't provoke any lady of etiquette, do you understand?"

Caesar immediately said, "Don't worry, Master Wade, who His mother dared to make a bad idea to Miss Wendy's people, and I kill him immediately!" Charlie Wade nodded in satisfaction, and said to Wendy: "Oh yes, I have one more thing to ask. you."

Wendy hurriedly said: "Brother-in-law, you say!"

Charlie Wade said seriously: "Today, don't tell anyone, including your grandma, your parents, and your brother, including your sister Claire Wilson Wilson, do you understand?"

"Huh?" Wendy asked in surprise: "Brother-in-law, why can't you tell me? You have helped me so much. Grandma, father and brother will definitely appreciate you when they know about it..."

Charlie Wade faintly Said: "I don't need them to be grateful, nor do they need to be flattered, and I am not helping you to make you feel me, but because you are indeed better than before, and you can call me brother-in-law sincerely. You respect me. I respect you, that's all."

Charlie Wade said again: "As for your grandma, your father, and Harold, I don't want to have any unnecessary involvement with them. Doing more is not as good as doing less. So only you know and I know about this. If you leak it to them, then I can only stop all this, do you understand?"

Wendy felt a little disappointed when she heard this. But he had no choice but to honestly nod his head and said: "Good brother-in-law, I know, don't worry, I won't talk about this to anyone..."

Charlie Wade looked at Caesar again, and said coldly. Said: "The same is true for you. They are all tight-lipped. If anyone dares to say that Wendy is my sister-in-law, or that I brought this company from Lloyd to her, I will send him to raise a dog. Experience in the field!"

Caesar and the others all looked tense and hurriedly agreed.

Charlie Wade was satisfied, and said: "Okay , let's just go, I'll go first." After speaking, Charlie Wade turned the accelerator, and the little eBike quickly jumped out.

Seeing that he was gone, Wendy was so busy shouting from behind: "Goodbye brother-in-law! Thank you brother-in-law!"

Chapter 2281

As he leaves the Pearl River, Charlie Wade hurried to the vegetable market. Time has been delayed a lot, and if you don't hurry to buy the vegetables back, the wife won't be able to eat breakfast when she comes home from get off work.

Although Arouss Hilll is an ancient city, its modern atmosphere is getting stronger and stronger. The destruction, demolition, and modification of the old city's buildings have basically become the style of modern city high-rise buildings.

Many traditional crafts and markets in the past have gradually been replaced by various tall shops and general supermarkets. In the early years, there were many hair shavers on the side of the road, and they had great skills in shaving their heads. Two or three dollars could be used to shave their heads by sitting on the side of the road. But now, it has long since disappeared.

Instead, there are various exquisite and high-end beauty salons. Those Tony teachers who are not very skilled and whose hair is not even full can cut a hair at random, starting with one or two hundred dollars. When encountering unscrupulous merchants, customers will be fooled into applying for a card, cutting their heads and being cheated for thousands of dollars.

In the past, there were many horse-drawn carriages and donkey carts on the roadside. Uncle farmers in the countryside picked vegetables from the fields in the morning and drove them to the city to sell them. Vegetables and fruits were fresh and cheap.

However, animal-drawn carts have not been allowed to enter the city in recent years, and even traditional vegetable markets have become fewer and fewer, so that most people can only go to the supermarket to buy food.

The quality of the vegetables in the supermarket is not very good, but the price is surprisingly expensive. It costs more than ten dollars to buy a cabbage. This also caused this ancient city to gradually lose the scent of traditional life. In fact, Charlie Wade usually doesn't like going to the supermarket to buy groceries, so he always feels less interesting.

Therefore, he often goes to a protected old residential area in the old city where there is a very lively vegetable market. The reason why I like to go to that old residential area is not only because it is more grounded, but also because there is another reason hidden in Charlie Wade's heart, and no one has told him. In the past, when he and his parents first arrived in Aurouss Hilll, their parents particularly liked the characteristics of the old town of Aurouss Hilll.

There are many old-fashioned buildings left over from the Ming and Quintong Dynasties and the Republic of China. This architectural style is very different from the north, and parents like it very much.

Because of their passion for traditional culture, his parents rented an old house in the old town. After his father's renovation, the family lived in a very comfortable place. Later, when his parents had an accident, Charlie Wade entered the orphanage. He would often sneak out with his friends Caleb and Lisa to take a look at the old town. At that time, Caleb and Lisa thought Charlie Wade was playful and wanted to sneak out to play.

But what they didn't know was that Charlie Wade actually just missed his parents. After his parents had an accident that year, the house was rented out for some years, changing batches of tenants. Later, the house was bought by people who invested in real estate and waited for the demolition to appreciate.

Later, the house and the nearby old buildings were classified as a historical building protection area, and demolition and rebuilding were prohibited, so the house was left vacant for a long time.

Charlie Wade also quietly inquired about it. It is said that the person who invested in this house was the initiator of a real estate speculation group in Eastcliff. Although this old house cannot be realized after being smashed in his hands, it is nothing to him. , So this house keeps throwing it like this.

Later, the speculator was caught in a lawsuit because he was involved in illegal fund-raising abroad, and the house was sealed by the court.

There were rumors about the auction two or three years ago, but because the person involved in the case was relatively large, the case has not been finalized in the past two years, so he has never entered the foreclosure process.

The vegetable market where Charlie Wade went to buy vegetables was not far from this old house, so he planned to stop by and take a look.

On the way Charlie Wade was riding his bike, a Rolls Royce had stopped in front of this mottled old house.

In Rolls-Royce's co-pilot, an old man walked down. This person was the old butler of Eastcliff's Thorne family in Aurouss Hilll.

Chapter 2282

After getting off the car, the old housekeeper opened the door of the rear seat with agility and respectfully said to the woman sitting in the car: "Miss, we are here."

The woman sitting in the car is Deana Thorne.

After she got off the plane, she took a pair of children and accompanied the old housekeeper to the old house of Thorne's house. After setting up the room and luggage, she hurriedly asked the old housekeeper to take her to see where Bruce had lived before he died. .

As for the brothers and sisters Fitz and Zara, they have their own plans. Fitz went to the orphanage to discuss donation matters, while Zara held the laptop and continued to look for Charlie Wade from the thousands of portraits.

Deana was also happy and relaxed. After all, he came to the house where Bruce, who she loved all his life, lived before his death. It was more or less inappropriate to bring a pair of children together.

Deana was extremely nervous at this time. Although she knew Bruce had been dead for many years, she still felt a strong sense of tension when she came here. It's like the years when I loved Bruce when I was young. Whenever I saw him, or was about to see him, I couldn't control the rapid heartbeat and shortness of breath.

With a beating heart in his arms, Deana got out of the car and looked at this small southern style courtyard across the courtyard wall. The stone wall of the yard is very low, and there are many hollow shapes made of blue bricks in the middle, so that people can easily see the situation in the yard.

At this time, the yard was full of withered weeds and fallen leaves from the trees. The osmanthus trees in the yard had already withered into dry wood because they were left unattended. On the wall of the main building, there are large dead creepers.

At this time, the entire small courtyard looks incomparably broken, but Deana can imagine that if it is well maintained, the courtyard must be lush and lush with the grass and green trees in the courtyard when it is rainy in spring and summer. The scenery must be desirable.

Moreover, although the courtyard is not large, it can be seen that although the courtyard is not large, the architecture is very elegant. Blue bricks are used for walls, blue tiles are used for roofing, and bluestones are used to pave roads. The summer in the south is humid. If it rains, the green bricks and blue stones must be covered with moss. The moss itself has a very natural old feeling. For those who don't like it, the moss is dense, slippery and tactile. Somewhat disgusting.

But for those who like Eastern ancient culture, this is a very poetic and Zen creature. Whether it grows in the yard, or grows on the fence, pond, or bonsai, there is a different kind of exquisiteness and quietness. Therefore, the moss has always been quite popular among literati and writers. At this moment, in the eyes of Deana, this dilapidated courtyard has restored the scene and charm of Bruce's residence.

In her mind, even the young and handsome Bruce was playing with his children in this yard. After seeing it, Deana felt that Bruce was really in this yard, and the little boy who couldn't see his face was his son, who was spinning around him non-stop.

Immediately afterwards, the dilapidated and closed door inside opened, and a woman with a dignified and beautiful appearance, a tall figure, and an apron still worn around her waist came out from the inside.

The woman smiled and greeted the father and son to enter the house for dinner. The scene of a family of three harmonicas playing and singing is really enviable. Deana, who had fallen into conjecture, looked at it carefully and saw the woman's face clearly. The woman in her imagination is not Bruce's original wife, but Deana herself!

Chapter 2283

Deana just involuntarily substituted himself into Bruce's wife in his mind, and instantly felt that his eyes were filled with tears. She wanted to bear the tears back, but she didn't think that it was because she couldn't control it that big tears gushed from her eyes and slid over the face that had almost no wrinkles and did not show any signs of age.

The old butler on the side looked at it and sighed silently.

"Hey... in the entire capital, who doesn't know that the second lady of the Thorne Family has loved Bruce for many years..."

"Just, who knows that Bruce has been dead for nearly 20 years, and the second lady has treated him His feelings are still so deep..." As the so-called sentimental hatred from ancient times, this hatred will never end.

In ancient Chinese, the word hate is more regrettable. People who are infatuated often leave only regrets, and this regret will never stop.

This is the case for Deana. People who have never experienced deep-rooted love cannot understand one person's obsession with another person.

Once you have obsessions, even if they are ten years or twenty years apart, even if they are thousands of miles apart, even if they are far from each other, even if there is a gap between Yin and Yang. This is the case for Deana.

She had long wanted to forget Bruce, and had long wanted to live her life steadily. However, that obsession in my heart is not allowed. That obsession is like a weed growing in my heart. With this weed, no other plants can be planted anymore. Sometimes, she felt that this wild grass had been deserted, and even felt that it had been burned to ashes.

But I don't know when, suddenly a spring breeze blew my heart, and the weeds grew again. That obsession is also like a thorn in the heart. Sometimes I don't feel the pain anymore, I think the thorn is gone. But I will always inadvertently be hurt by this thorn. Therefore, Deana also wanted to understand later. This obsession has already deepened into the bone marrow.

"Bruce, since I have been there, why should I deliberately forget you?"

"Since I have always loved you, let you grow in the place in your heart that belongs to you..."

"Every time before Thinking of you, I will feel guilt and guilt towards Zayne. Now I am relieved. From now on, I can think of you openly, miss you openly, and no longer have to feel guilty for anyone... "

At this point, Deana also felt a lot easier. She wiped away her tears and asked the old housekeeper, "Uncle White, who owns this house now?" The old housekeeper pointed to the seal on the iron fence door next to him and said, "Miss Deana, this house has been taken by the court. It's sealed up."

"It's sealed up?" Deana frowned, and hurriedly asked: "What's the matter? Can you find out?"

The old housekeeper nodded and said, "I have been in Aurouss Hilll for so many years, and all departments have some connections. I call a phone call asking about it, "

Deana urged: "Please hurry. I would like to clarify as soon as possible so they can remove the seal and I can go in and look!" The old housekeeper quickly dug Out of the cell phone to make a call.

After some inquiries, he hurriedly reported to Deana: "Second Miss, the owner of this house, because of the illegal fund-raising lawsuit, all the properties under his name have been sealed up, but his case has been tried in a foreign country for more than two years. The sentence is about to be pronounced. After the sentence is pronounced, this house will naturally enter the judicial auction process."

Chapter 2284

When Deana heard this, he became excited and blurted out: "Help me pay attention, I want to take this house down!" The old housekeeper nodded and said, "This house occupies a small area and cannot be demolished in the future. It is a low-quality asset that cannot be circulated, and it should be easy to take it."

"Good." Deana said firmly: "No matter how much it costs, we must take this house!"

After she finished speaking, she hurried again. Asked: "Uncle White, did you say hello to someone from the judiciary, can I go in and have a look?"

"Yes, you can." The old butler hurriedly said, "I just said on the phone that they happened to be two days old. We have to come over to do an asset registration and evaluation. We have to collect materials and prepare for the next judicial auction, so we can break the seals and door locks and go in."

Deana said impatiently, "Then think of a solution. Open the lock!" The old butler nodded, and said to the driver and bodyguard beside him: "See if you can break the door."

The bodyguard hurried forward, pulled off the seal, and then looked at the door. Lock, smiled: "Housekeeper White, this lock is about to rust, and you can kick it open with one kick."

Deana said hurriedly : "Don't kick it! I'm afraid you kick it down, the door will be broken, see if you can Pry the lock open..."

The bodyguard took a closer look and said, "Second Miss, the lock core inside has been rusted to death. I am afraid that even if I take the key, I can't open it. I can only break the lock. . "

Deana nodded and said: ". get the lock open, but try not to hurt the iron gate, after buying, I would like to keep "

The bodyguard busy promised down, then dig from the waist A dark dagger was drawn out, and the sharp tip of the dagger was pressed into the lock slot, and then it was pried hard to pry the tongue open.

The door opened, and the lock broke because of the rust, but fortunately the door was not damaged. Deana couldn't restrain the excitement in his heart, stepped forward and walked in. In the overgrown yard, there is still a swing made of iron frame and chain, but this swing has been too old and it has been rusted out of it.

However, this yard, which is everywhere in the eyes of others, is filled with incomparable warmth in Deana's eyes. At this time, an electric bike came to the front. When Charlie Wade was still some distance away from the door, he was a little surprised to see a Rolls Royce parked at the door.

He often visits this old house. The old house has always been sealed and no one cares about it. How come there are visitors today? Surprised, he came to the gate and looked inside.

In the yard, three people were facing their backs, including a woman, an old man, and a mature man.

Charlie Wade was even more puzzled and thought to himself: "Is this old house sold? It shouldn't. I heard that it has been in a state of being sealed up, and it hasn't started the judicial auction process. How can it sell silently?"

"But, what exactly do these people do? Why did they ignore the court seal and broke the door directly?"

Charlie Wade was a little angry. Because, after all, this is the old house where I lived with my parents. If the homeowner came, he would naturally not say anything. But these people are not homeowners at first glance. They not only tore the seal, but also broke the door lock. This kind of behavior, in his opinion, is indeed excessive!

So he planned to ask clearly, if they have nothing to do with this house, let them go out. As he was thinking, Deana suddenly turned his head and glanced at the door. From this look, it happened to face Charlie Wade's eyes. At this moment, Deana felt a sudden gust of rain in the depths of her soul, and she was stunned...

Chapter 2285

Charlie Wade and his father Bruce are at least an eighth similar in appearance.

After all, the father and son are an era away, and there is a big gap between their hairstyles and clothes. If Charlie Wade changes into his father's style, the similarity may reach the point of being exact.

Therefore, the moment Deana saw him, it was as if she had been struck by lightning, as if she had passed away. She was almost stunned, and apart from shock, she was completely at a loss. She didn't even know if she had hallucinations because she missed Bruce too much.

Otherwise, how could there be a man so similar to Bruce? Moreover, when Bruce died, he was only in his early thirties.

The time period when Deana and Bruce had the most contact was before Bruce's marriage, from after Bruce's marriage to Bruce's death, the intersection between the two was not that much.

Therefore, what Deana remembers most about Bruce are the years when he was 20 to 25 years old. It happened to be about the same age as Charlie Wade now, relatively more consistent. It was precisely because of this that she had the feeling that she was a world away, as if Bruce, who was in her twenties, appeared in front of her again.

Almost at this moment, Deana's tears burst again. The tears made Charlie Wade in her eyes blurred immediately, so she subconsciously wiped off the tears, and looked again, Charlie Wade was still there. At this moment, Deana felt terrified.

She began to feel that the Bruce, or the man who looked like Bruce, seemed to exist. Charlie Wade was also a little surprised. Because he didn't quite understand why the woman in the yard looked at him with such strange eyes. He didn't even understand why this woman couldn't help but burst into tears when she looked at him.

At this moment, he immediately felt that things didn't seem right. In other words, 80% of this woman has something to do with her father. Deana had some illusory conjectures in his heart, but Charlie Wade did not. He calmly and realistically analyzed everything in front of him, quickly calculating all the clues in his mind.

"First of all, this woman will come to the place where her parents lived before she was alive. The high probability is that she has some kind of relationship with my parents. Among them, it is most likely to be related to my father!"

"Secondly, this woman looks at my eyes so shocked, so excited, and even burst into tears, it is most likely to think of me as my father"

"So, who is this woman?"

Just when Charlie Wade was puzzled, Deana looked at him, in order to make sure it was a dream. It was still reality, and subconsciously shouted in a low voice: "Bruce?" As soon as the word Bruce came out, the old housekeeper hurriedly turned around and looked over.

Chapter 2286

Charlie Wade felt his eyelids jump wildly, immediately turned his head without thinking, twisted the accelerator of the electric bike, and left quickly. Seeing Charlie Wade disappear, Deana hurried to chase outside, but when she chased it out, Charlie Wade was gone.

She stood at the door in a daze, looked around anxiously, and murmured: "Did I have hallucinations?"

After that, she hurriedly turned her head and asked the old butler who was following her: "Uncle White, you just have you seen a young man who looks particularly like Bruce?"

Although the old housekeeper only glanced at Charlie Wade, he still said with great confidence: "Second Miss, I did see a young man riding an electric bike just now. He really looks like Mr. Wade!"

Deana was so excited that he was a little trembling when he spoke, and said, "Yes, that's right, since you saw Uncle White, it proves that I didn't look at it. No, there are hallucinations in her mind." She said, she couldn't help but muttered: "Why? How can there be two people who look like this in this world? And that young man seems to be in his 20s. How can he look so similar to Bruce?"

The old housekeeper sighed softly: "The world is very big, and occasionally there are two people who look very similar, but have no actual relationship, but it is normal."

Deana counted. Nodded: "Uncle White, you are right. The world is so big and there are so many people. It is indeed normal to have two very similar people occasionally."

At this point, Deana couldn't hide his excitement and blurted out: "But! But even if there is one. Man looks very similar to Bruce, he shouldn't be here! Where is this? This is the former residence of Bruce! If he has nothing to do with Bruce, would that be a coincidence?" The old housekeeper heard At this, he could not help but frown.

He also admitted that Deana made a lot of sense. It is not too strange that someone looks like Bruce, but if he appears at the door of Bruce's former residence, it would be a coincidence! Even, the coincidence is almost weird!

At this moment, a clue suddenly popped into his mind, and he blurted out: "Second Miss, I remember! Mr. Wade, he seems to have a son!"

Deana nodded and said, "Yes! Bruce does have a son, but his when his son was born, I was pregnant with Fitz, plus keep track of Bruce been of great advice, so I was basically leaves home and cut off contact, so I have not seen his son, "

She murmured again: "However, after Bruce and Sister died unexpectedly, their son disappeared. It seems that they have never heard of finding him." The old housekeeper said excitedly, "That's right. Go on! Back then, Mr. Wade and Ms. Wade happened in Aurouss Hilll. Their son also disappeared in Aurouss Hilll. The young man just now looked like Mr. Wade. It seems that the young man is likely to belong to Mr. Wade.

"My son!" Deana's tears broke again, and he said distressedly: "If he is really the son of Bruce, then he should be only eight years old when Bruce passed away. If he hasn't returned to Wade's house for so many years, it would be more than ten or twenty. I really don't know how he came here in 2016. " The old housekeeper said with emotion: "I think he is riding a dilapidated electric bike. He should not live well if he wants to come here."

Deana nodded, looked at the old housekeeper and pleaded. "Uncle White, help me figure out a way, and be sure to find him out! I can be regarded as his father's deceased after all. If he is not doing well, then I must help him anyway!" The old butler thought for a moment. , Said seriously: "Second Miss, forgive me , if this child has been discussing life at the bottom, then his ability, vision, and education level should not be too strong." "Moreover, I guess he will have a high probability now. Relatively difficult."

"If you let him know who you are, if he wants to get rich overnight and want to rely on your relief for a long time, maybe he will rely on you."

"There is a good saying. It is easy to ask God to give it away. Before you help him, you must think carefully."

Deana sighed and said: "You don't have to worry about these. If you can find him, I won't talk to him. "

Talking too much," she said again: "I was planning to give him a sum of money, that is, I owed his father a debt back then, just to pay him all the debts at once, and then give him five. Ten million! As for what happens after he has these fifty million, it all depends on his own good fortune."

"Okay!" Seeing that she has a relatively safe plan, the old butler relieved his heart and said. : "Then I will ask someone to inquire about it!"

Chapter 2287

At the same time, Charlie Wade had already escaped hundreds of meters by bike. In order not to be found by Deana, he didn't even buy any vegetables, so he rushed directly to Thompson First.

On the way, he called Cameron Isaac, and as soon as he came up he ordered: "Isaac, someone went to the old house where my parents lived today. Please help me find out who it is!"

Cameron Isaac asked in surprise: " Master, did you go to the old house today?"

"Yes!" Charlie Wade said: "I saw a woman there. She looked at me and called my father's name. I want you to help me find out her identity. In addition, check whether this person is an enemy or a friend, and what kind of intersection she has with my father."

"Okay!" Cameron Isaac said without hesitation: "I will investigate now!"

Charlie Wade said again: "Yes, also There is one thing you need to do for me."

Cameron Isaac hurriedly said: "Master, you say!"

Charlie Wade said: " Check what is the situation of the owner of the old house, when will his case be pronounced, and when will the house be auctioned off? At that time, I will buy this old house!"

"Good young master, I'll check it out!"

Then, Charlie Wade randomly found a supermarket near Thompson First, and prepared to go home after buying a la carte. As soon as he left the supermarket, Cameron Isaac called.

"Master, the two things have ended!"

Charlie Wade hummed and said, "Say separately!"

Cameron Isaac hurriedly said, "The second lady from the Thorne Family of Eastcliff, Deana, went to your parents' former residence today."

Charlie Wade frowned and asked: "The Thorne Family ? Deana? What is it?" Cameron Isaac said: "This Deana is Zayne's wife."

"What?" Charlie Wade asked in amazement, "Zayne's wife? Fitz and Zara's biological mother?"

"Yes." Cameron Isaac said: "It is Fitz and Zara's mother. She came to Aurouss Hilll this morning."

Charlie Wade asked, "Then why did she come to my parents' former residence? She knew my father?"

Cameron Isaac He explained: "You may not know about this matter. In fact, this Deana has always liked your father, but your father didn't choose her back then."

Charlie Wade was surprised and somewhat embarrassed. Zayne's wife likes his father, which is indeed a bit unexpected. Charlie Wade thought that Xion was the illegitimate daughter of Zayne. It was just exposed by the Japanese media last night. Deana came to Aurouss Hilll today and went to the former residence of his parents. Is this really a bit too impatient? If Zayne knew, he would be so angry that he would vomit blood.

Cameron Isaac also said: "Young Master, there is still news about the house,"

Charlie Wade said hurriedly : "Say it!" Cameron Isaac explained: "The case of the house owner, the final judgment was pronounced just two days, and he illegally raised funds. The amount involved in the case is very large, and the capital chain is broken, and there is no way to repay it. Therefore, in addition to the sentence, the probability is that all his assets will be confiscated and used to compensate the victimized investor. Therefore, once the sentence is pronounced, the house will immediately Entering the judicial auction process, if you hurry up, it will be possible to start the auction within a week!"

Charlie Wade heard this, and he was immediately happy, and said hurriedly: "You can sign up for me, then I will go to the auction. In any case, you have to buy this house too!"

Cameron Isaac said: "Good master, this matter is on my body!"

Charlie Wade hummed, and said, "Let's do this first. You helped me keep an eye on that recently. Deana, since she knows my father, she will most likely infer my identity. My identity cannot be revealed yet, so try not to let her find me."

Chapter 2288

"Good young master!"

Charlie Wade couldn't help but feel a headache after hanging up the phone.

He found that there seemed to be a strong and strange magnetic field between himself and the Banks Familyy.

Although he has been waiting for the opportunity to ask the Banks Familyy to question the anti-leaf alliance and make the Banks Familyy pay the price for the anti-leaf alliance, but since this period of time, he has not gone to the Banks Familyy to settle accounts, and has had various encounters with the Banks Familyy one after another. .

First, accidentally rescued two children of Banks' Family in Japan, namely Fitz and Zara, but when Charlie Wade rescued them, they didn't know that they were Zayne's children; then in the hospital in Tokyo, He passed Zayne again, but Charlie Wade at that time didn't know that the man close at hand was Zayne.

Otherwise, with Charlie Wade's temper, even if he didn't kill Zayne on the spot, he would at least be impotence first, and then remember his appearance and settle accounts with him slowly; then, what Charlie Wade didn't expect, It was after returning from Japan this time that Xion, the assassin of the Banks Familyy, happened to be killed. What's more damning is that after saving her, Charlie Wade discovered that this girl was the illegitimate daughter of Zayne!

At this point in the whole matter, Charlie Wade has saved Zayne, one son, two daughters and three children once! The key is that these three people are all his mother's children! One after another, because of chance and coincidence, saved the enemy's child. For Charlie Wade, this kind of fate made him feel powerless to complain.

In the end, who would have thought that I wanted to take a look at the old house today, but I met Zayne's wife, Fitz, and Zara's mother Deana! What's more crazy is that Deana seems to have loved his dad for many years...

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade was already a big head, and couldn't help but exhale a sullen breath: "This is all the crazy. What a bad thing!"

Therefore, he secretly vowed in his heart that when he confronts Zayne in the future, he will not only make him pay for the Anti-Leaf Alliance, but also make him pay for saving his three children!

...

At the same time, Deana was also looking for Charlie Wade by any means. However, she knew very little about Charlie Wade's situation, so she didn't know how to proceed.

Although the old housekeeper has been in Aurouss Hillll for many years, because the Thorne Family is considered to be in a high position after all, and his daily style is low-key and cautious, he, as the representative of the Thorne Family in Aurouss Hilll, is relatively restrained.

Although he also knows many local high-level officials, he rarely pays attention to things in the market, so he can only ask people for a while, starting from Bruce's car accident that year, first look at Bruce's car accident. The list of orphans accepted by the orphanage and the orphanage, as well as the local adoption records registered at the time, tried to find relevant clues about Charlie Wade.

As far as the contacts in Aurouss Hilll are concerned, although he has a solid foundation, he is still far behind Cameron Isaac.

As the spokesperson of the Wade family in Aurouss Hilll, Cameron Isaac's most important task is to establish a solid foundation in Aurouss Hilll. Therefore, Cameron Isaac's connections in Aurouss Hilll have always been very high-profile and direct, and are all-round development, far ahead of the old housekeeper of the Thorne Family.

Therefore, when the old housekeeper started investigating Charlie Wade's related clues, he had already received the news and then reported to Charlie Wade. When Charlie Wade heard that they had to start with the orphanage and adoption records, he immediately felt relieved. Normally, there is nothing wrong in this direction.

But the point is that this line was cut off by Stephen Thompson as early as when his parents had just passed away.

Stephen Thompson cut off all his clues, and even the orphanage he lived in was operated secretly by his people, so no matter how the outside world checked it, they couldn't find any results. Now, Deana wanted to start from here to find himself, only idiotic dreams.

Chapter 2289

After leaving Charlie Wade's parents' former residence, Deana was a little bit lost.

On the one hand, it was because I missed Bruce, and on the other hand, it was because I saw someone just now and felt that he and Bruce looked so much like each other, which brought back many memories of her youth.

When returning to Thorne's mansion in Aurouss Hilll, the servant had already prepared a sumptuous lunch.

Fitz had just returned from the orphanage after donating money. When Deana was back, he hurriedly asked her: "Mom, where did you go this morning?"

Deana recovered from his chaotic thoughts, but still said absent-mindedly: "Oh, I didn't go anywhere, let Uncle White take me around."

At this time, a maid walked in and said respectfully: "Second Miss, the meal is ready."

Deana nodded, and said to Fitz: "Go and ask your sister to come out for dinner, what is this girl doing? Recently, she kept herself in the room all day long. The first thing she did when she came to Aurouss Hill was to lock herself up. It's weird."

"Ahh..." Fitz smiled and said, "Zara has always wanted to find our benefactor, the young man who saved our lives in Japan."

Deana suddenly realized, and hurriedly asked, "Are there any clues?"

Fitz shook his head, sighed helplessly and said: "Finding a needle in a haystack is not so easy to find. I haven't figured out whether he is a Chinese or an overseas Chinese. I don't know whether he is in Japan. Still in the country."

Deana said earnestly: "This person saved the lives of both of you. If it weren't for him, you would have suffered an accident long ago. With such great kindness, I really want to find a chance to repay him..."

After that, she asked, "What clues do you have about this benefactor? You might as well tell them, and I will help you figure out a solution."

Fitz stretched out his palms and sighed softly, "Hey, we actually don't have any clues. Even when we met him, we probably know what he looks like. Other than that, there are no valuable clues."

Deana asked: "Would you like to send a reward to the outside world? Just say that you want to find the original savior and thank you personally. If he sees it, let them contact us."

Fitz said: "This method has been considered by Zara, but she said that the probability is not high. She said that the benefactor should be a very good person and should not be short of money. Even if he sees the reward, he will not follow us."

Deana nodded in agreement, and said, "That's what I said, if you really want money, you should speak up when you save you, or leave a contact information. Now, just based on the memory of seeing him, I want to get out of the crowd. It was really too difficult for him to find out."

Fitz said helplessly: "I also advised Zara, but she still doesn't want to give up."

As he said, he shook his head and said, "Mom, I'll ask Zara to come out for dinner."

"Well, go ahead."

Soon, Zara, who was wearing pajamas at home, walked out of the room unwillingly at Fitz's urging.

When she came out, she was still holding an ipad in her hand, and the fingers of the other hand slid quickly on it, constantly flipping through the faces on it.

When he came to the restaurant, Zara's attention was still focused on the iPad screen, and Deana asked: "Zara, I heard your brother said that you are looking for the benefactor. Is there any progress?"

Chapter 2290

Zara said without looking up, "There is no progress. I haven't found him in the video yet."

Deana said earnestly: "Some things depend on fate. If fate is not there, no matter how you find it, it's useless; if fate is there, if you don't go to him, he will also appear in front of you."

Zara said without hesitation: "I don't want to give the initiative to things to fate. It's too unreliable. There are so many people in the world, except for the neighbors at my doorstep. Two people who have met by chance in a foreign country. People, the chance of meeting again by chance is almost zero. If I don't take the initiative to find him, I'm afraid I won't find him in this lifetime."

After that, Zara said in a sad tone: "Human memory itself is not so good. No one can remember it. Many things can only be remembered more clearly by deepening the memory repeatedly, just like memorizing texts when I was young. same....."

"In the few days I just came back from Japan, the appearance of your benefactor was quite clear in my mind, but after so many days, his appearance has become more and more blurred, although I have always wanted Memories to deepen the impression, but in fact it still doesn't work. I'm afraid I'll forget what he looks like after a while..."

Speaking of this, Zara raised her head, looked at Deana and Fitz, and asked: "Mom...Brother...Have you two ever felt this way? The more you want to remember what a person looks like, the easier it is to forget?"

Fitz thought for a while and said, "Also, if you see it often, you can't forget it. It's this kind of person who has only seen it once. It won't take long, and I really can't think of a specific look in my mind. There is only a vague outline left."

Deana also nodded and said, "Zara was right just now. People's memory needs to deepen to keep it in mind."

When she said this, what she thought of was Bruce. She loved Bruce so much in her life, but in the nearly twenty years since Bruce's death, if it weren't for looking at Bruce's young photos every day, Bruce would gradually blur her mind.

Thinking of this, she sighed inwardly, and immediately asked Zara: "Zara, can you describe to your mother, what does your benefactor look like?"

Zara thought for a while, and said, "One word is handsome; two words are very handsome, three words are very, very handsome, and four words are very cool and handsome..."

Deana couldn't help laughing: "Is there such an exaggeration as you said?"

Zara said seriously: "Mom, I'm really not exaggerating at all. He looks very handsome, not only handsome, but also cool!"

As he said, Zara put his chin on and said with an idiotic look: "At that time, Iga Kaminori took a bunch of ninjas to kill him, but he killed them in three or two strokes, Iga Kamin. Shinobu was scared to death at the time, and asked tremblingly who he was. Guess what he said?"

Deana shook his head and asked: "What did he say?"

Zara stood up, Charlie Wade, the imitator at the time, said coldly: "He said, I am your father and want your life!"

Deana smiled and said, "This person is quite arrogant."

"More than arrogance!" Zara said seriously: "It's not just arrogant! I, Zara, grew up so big, and I have never seen such a confident person! I didn't put those Japanese ninjas who kill people without blinking in my eyes. Killing them is like cutting melons and vegetables, it's really amazing!"

As she said, she continued with a little annoyance: "The point is, this guy doesn't have a good face with me and my brother. I asked him to borrow a cell phone to call Dad. This guy said nothing about personal belongings. Borrow it, it's so bad!"

Deana smiled and said: "People must be guarding you, and don't want you to know his mobile phone number, and then trace his identity."

"Yes!" Zara said in a loud voice, "I think so too! He is very sophisticated, and he doesn't leave any clues! Before I left, I said goodbye to the rivers and lakes, and he even said to me that he would never see me again. Now that I think about it, I'm still very angry! It's really hurting my self-esteem! So I must find him and ask him face to face, are you not coaxingly saying that you will not see you again? Seeing this lady again, how do you feel in your heart?"

Chapter 2291

Zara said: "I want to go back and find a master to do some calculations and see if he can give me some hints."

Fitz couldn't help laughing: "Didn't you just finish saying that you didn't believe this?"

Zara said seriously: "There is no other good way, it is better to give it a try."

After that, she asked Deana: "Mom, is there any famous master in Eastcliff? Don't you always go to the temple to worship Buddha and donate incense money? Do you know any good monks?"

Deana said seriously: "Don't talk nonsense, the eminent monks practice Buddhism, and fortune-telling is a matter of Taoism!"

Zara asked hurriedly: "Then do you know a capable Taoist master? I'll go and beg him to have a look!"

Deana thought for a while, and said, "I really don't know this. I haven't asked someone to start a divination for many years. The last time I asked someone to start a divination, I was about the same age as you."

With that, she couldn't help but think of Bruce, and she couldn't help but sigh.

Afterwards, she said to Zara: "Right, I heard that the Wade family built the ancestral tomb some time ago and specially invited Orion Exeor, a descendant of the Exeor family from the United States. Your grandfather and Orion Exeor also have some personal relationships, you If you really think of it, you can ask your grandfather to ask if Mr. Exeor is still in Eastcliff."

"Mr. Exeor?" Zara frowned and asked: "Why haven't I heard of him? Is he amazing?"

Deana said: "Mr. Exeor is the heir of the Exeor Dynasty Fengshui master Balig Exeor. He should be the most powerful master in the world today.

Zara exclaimed: "Are you serious?! Then I'll call Grandpa and ask!"

After speaking, he quickly took out his mobile phone and called Grandpa Lord Thorne.

As soon as the phone call, she will ask Lord Thorne on the other end of the phone: "Grandpa, my mother said you know a Master Exeor who is proficient in five elements and fortune telling?"

Lord Thorne asked in surprise: "Zara, what do you want to do with this?"

Zara blurted out: "Grandpa, I want to find my savior, but there has been no progress, so I want to find a breakthrough with the master."

Lord Thorne said: "Master Exeor has already returned to the United States some time ago."

"Ah? Going back?" Zara said disappointedly: "When did he go back?"

Lord Thorne said: "It didn't take long. He went back just a year ago. After he came to China, he stayed in Wade Mountain for more than three years. He should have wanted to go back a long time ago."

Zara said with great regret: "It's so unfortunate...what should I do...Grandpa, do you know other masters?"

Lord Thorne said: "Master knows a lot, but the only person who can truly be called the word "Master" is Master Exeor."

After speaking, he said again: "In this way, let me ask Master Exeor for you. If he wants to, he can directly help you out."

Zara asked in surprise: "Grandpa, is what you said is true?"

Lord Thorne smiled and said, "Can Grandpa lie to you? The main reason is that Master Exeor is old and has a weird temper. If he is willing to help this, I dare not promise you."

Chapter 2292

Zara hurriedly said: "It's okay, it's okay, you can just ask me."

Then, she asked: "By the way, Grandpa, if he is willing to help, do I have to go to the United States again?"

"No need." Lord Thorne said: "Master Exeor has great magical powers. If he agrees, I will give her your birth date and tell him about the things you want to ask. It should be fine."

Zara was surprised and said: "So amazing?"

Lord Thorne laughed and said: "Divination and fortune telling are the supreme wisdom of our ancestors. It is said that its magic is only a little bit of understanding by modern people."

Then, he said: "It's midnight in the U.S., and I'm not very good at contacting Master Exeor. Or wait patiently. When the evening comes in the U.S., it's morning. I'll call Master Exeor's phone."

Zara hurriedly said, "Grandpa, then please!"

...

At this moment, Charlie Wade has hurried home and prepared lunch. Although Elaine Ma broke her leg, she still insisted on crutches and beat him in the kitchen.

After busying to prepare the food, Elaine Ma said with a look of ashamedness: "Good son-in-law, mom should have cooked for you, but mom's legs are not convenient!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "Mom, don't be so polite, anyway, I don't have anything to do. It's okay to do housework."

With that, he said to Elaine Ma: "Mom, Claire Wilson Wilson and Dad should be coming soon too. I will cook another tomato and egg soup. When they come back, we can have dinner."

Elaine Ma hurriedly said: "That's really hard for you, my son-in-law, mom will wash the tomatoes for you!"

Charlie Wade served the best food, and his wife Claire Wilson Wilson and his wife Jacob Wilson also drove home one after another.

As soon as Claire Wilson Wilson came back, he said to Charlie Wade with some excitement: "Husband, today, Doris Young, Vice Chairman of the Emgrand Group, called me and said that the six-star hotel under construction in the Emgrand Group is about to start the whole The design of the interior decoration is in tender!"

"Really?" Charlie Wade asked, pretending surprise: "This project should be a lot, right?"

Claire Wilson Wilson excitedly said: "It's not just too big, it's simply too big...the Emgrand Group's six-star hotel project has been launched since last year, with an investment of 2 billion. Now the main body construction has come to an end, so now we need to finalize the interior decoration plan, and then when the main body construction is over, the internal hard and soft installation will begin!"

Having said that, Claire Wilson Wilson went on to introduce: "The entire hotel budget of 2 billion, half is used to buy land and infrastructure, and the other half is almost all used for post-renovation, including at least 300 million for hard decoration, soft decoration and various top furniture. The purchases of, bedding, sanitary ware, and electrical appliances are about six or seven billion. Now those senior executives of domestic big-name home furnishings, sanitary ware and decorative building materials have come to Aurouss Hilll and are preparing to participate in the subsequent bidding!"

Charlie Wade smiled and asked, "How much budget does Emgrand Group have prepared for the decoration design?"

Claire Wilson Wilson said: "The quotation for this kind of commercial decoration design is generally around 300 dollars per square meter. The six-star hotel of the Emgrand Group has a total business area of 130,000 square meters. Some repetitive designs in the same room type are removed. , The design engineering volume is at least seventy to eighty thousand square meters, and the decoration design fee alone costs twenty to thirty million!"

When Elaine Ma on the side heard this, she was surprised and said: "Mom! Claire Wilson Wilson! Are you kidding me?! Just engage in decoration and give 20 to 30 million design fees?!"

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded and said seriously: "It's not a joke. The price is still relatively low. If it is a large design company or a well-known designer, the price will be even higher. The design cost per square meter is at least 800 to 1000!"

Chapter 2293

Hearing this, Elaine Ma couldn't help exclaiming: "A design cost of 800 to 1,000 per square meter, wouldn't it cost 50 or 60 million? This is too scary!"

Claire Wilson Wilson smiled and said: "What's so scary about this? Some internationally renowned designers have to charge hundreds of millions of dollars for the exterior design of a building!"

Elaine Ma touched her chest and hurriedly asked her: "Good girl, are you planning to take this project?"

Claire Wilson Wilson said earnestly: "Of course I want to take it, but my studio is not that big at the moment. I am afraid that I cannot compete with opponents when bidding for such a project, and there is too much preparatory work. If I want to bid If you do, you have to put your heart and soul into it now and prepare for bidding..."

With that, Claire Wilson Wilson couldn't help sighing again, and said, "Hey, the scale of the company is still quite large after all. I am afraid I can't digest such a large project."

Elaine Ma asked in surprise: "Isn't design just about moving the computer? What can't be digested?"

Claire Wilson Wilson said: "It's not as simple as you think. With a business area of more than 100,000 square meters, there are more than a dozen room types that require a whole house design, several restaurants of various types, and entertainment. The overall design volume is very large for the part, the administrative office part, and the security, security, and fire protection planning."

"It's like making an animated movie. Don't ordinary people think it's just to find a group of people to draw? But in fact, 20 pictures are drawn in one second, and an animated movie for one and a half hours is at least Tens of thousands, or even hundreds of thousands of pictures, require hundreds of people to do a good job for several years."

With that, Claire Wilson Wilson said again: "Our studio has not many people. Even if we can follow such a big project, we can't finish it by ourselves. We have to subcontract to other design studios to do it together. Ten designers, it took more than half a year to finish..."

"And this is only the first stage. When the construction starts, we have to follow up the whole process. The construction period is at least one year, so the overall follow-up will take one and a half years."

"Dozens of designers, within a year and a half, the annual salary of a good designer is hundreds of thousands, and the average salary is at least 200,000, so the salary cost alone has to be tens of millions!"

Elaine Ma blurted out in surprise: "I'm good! The salary alone is tens of millions? Is this too cruel?"

Claire Wilson Wilson said earnestly: "This is the way it is originally. I am still a conservative estimate. If the construction period is longer and the plan is revised more, the overall time cost and labor cost will increase."

Charlie Wade on the side asked curiously: "My wife, what do you plan to do? Do you want to fight for it?"

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded and said, "Although the strength of my studio is not strong, I still want to try it. If I can take this project down, I can merge with it while working on it. A few small design teams, in that case, when this project is completed, my studio will be able to improve at least two orders of magnitude and reach a medium-sized scale!"

After that, she said with some worry: "However, my studio is indeed a bit smaller. There are so many companies bidding this time, so I really don't know how confident it is."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "My wife, if you are interested, just let it go. If it is done, it will be an excellent opportunity. If it is not done, we will have no actual loss. It is nothing more than a waste of energy. What do you think?"

"Yes..." Claire Wilson Wilson nodded slightly, and said: "I just want to try hard, so starting from today, I will lead the team to work overtime to make plans, make bids, and make preparations. This bidding!"

As she said, she herself said with some emotion: "But I heard that many design companies are looking for relationships with people everywhere in order to get this big order, and there are even people who want to give money and kickbacks to the senior management of the Emgrand Group. I don't know. Will the Emgrand Group engage in black-box operations at that time..."

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "How can a large group like the Emgrand Group with a market value of more than 100 billion engage in black-box operations on tens of millions of design projects?"

Chapter 2294

But even though he said that, Charlie Wade had already made up his mind at this time, to say hello to Doris Young, and to give this project to Claire Wilson Wilson quietly.

The Emgrand Group was his own industry. Since my wife is so interested in this project, he naturally wants to give her a chance to practice.

Therefore, he said to Claire Wilson Wilson: "Claire Wilson Wilson, you don't have to think about so much now, just concentrate on making preparations. I believe you can do it!"

"Yeah!" Claire Wilson Wilson also nodded very firmly, and said, "I will definitely work hard! Try to get this big project down!"

After lunch, Claire Wilson Wilson went to the company, and Charlie Wade went back to the room and called Ms. Young.

As soon as the phone was connected, Ms. Young said: "Master, you are calling for your wife's bidding, right?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "You guessed it."

Ms. Young hurriedly said: "Master, originally, I wanted to entrust the design project of our hotel decoration directly to your wife's company, but I was also worried that if the project was passed directly, your wife would doubt in her heart, so I told her this. In fact, I intend to start a bidding meeting so that your wife's company can obtain this project through internal bidding, which seems more natural."

Charlie Wade praised: "Ms. Young, you have done a good job of this matter, and you have considered it comprehensively. I also called to tell you about this matter. My thoughts are the same as you. Let Claire Wilson Wilson participate in the bidding normally. , And then the group directly decides on her studio, so that she can feel that she is the target of her ability in the test."

Ms. Young promised: "Master, don't worry, I will arrange these."

Charlie Wade asked her: "When does the group plan to officially start bidding?"

Ms. Young said: "I plan to give a rough draft within one week and start bidding in one week."

"Okay, I'll leave this to you."

After hanging up Ms. Young's phone, Charlie Wade thought that there was nothing important in the afternoon, so he didn't plan to go out again. Thinking of the New Year, he promised everyone who came to the house to give gifts to prepare some pills in return for everyone, so he planned to take advantage of this free time to refine the pills.

He called Mr. Quinton, Mr. Quinton answered the phone, and asked respectfully, "Master Wade, what do you want?"

Charlie Wade said: "Mr Quinton, you help me prepare some medicinal materials and bring them to my home in the afternoon."

When Mr. Quinton heard Charlie Wade's words, let himself prepare medicinal materials, he immediately realized that Charlie Wade should be planning to refine medicinal materials, so he said excitedly: "Master Wade, what medicinal materials do you need, even if you tell me, let me prepare them immediately. I'd better send it to you!"

Charlie Wade said: "In this way, I will post your recipe on WeChat in a while, and you will be ready to follow my request."

Mr. Quinton said without hesitation: "No problem, Master Wade, you send me the list, and I will let Aurora send it to you when I'm ready!"

Chapter 2295

When she heard that Charlie Wade was going to need medicine again, Aurora was happy. She was happy, not because of her desire for Charlie Wade's magical medicine, but because her father asked herself to give Charlie

Wade the medicine, so she had the opportunity to meet Charlie Wade. Aurora has been spending winter vacation at home during this period. Except for daily training, she has basically nothing to do at other times. The days can be said to be very boring.

She wanted to find a chance to meet Charlie Wade, and even asked Charlie Wade to guide herself again, but she heard that Charlie Wade had been busy recently, so she was too embarrassed to come over and harass. It just so happened that taking advantage of the opportunity to deliver the medicine, I could meet with Charlie Wade, and by the way, find an opportunity to invite Charlie Wade to sit at home.

Mr. Quinton prepared all the medicinal materials neatly according to Charlie Wade's needs, and put them all in a medicine box and handed them to Aurora, and said, "Aurora, you send these medicinal materials to Thompson First to Master Wade."

Aurora Immediately happily said: "Okay Dad, I will drive to Master Wade's house!"

Mr. Quinton nodded and said, "Wait a moment."

After speaking, he stood up and took out a beautiful red sandalwood from the safe. The box was placed in Aurora's hands, and she confessed, "This is a 400-year-old superb purple ginseng. It's better than the 300-year superb purple ginseng that Master Wade bought at the auction before. You can help me get it. Give it to Master Wade and say that I honor him."

Aurora took the wooden box carefully, and said seriously: "I know Dad, these medicinal materials and this superb purple ginseng will be delivered to Master Wade's mansion by myself."

"Ah!" Mr. Quinton nodded: "the last fair in Chinese medicine, master Moore throwing daughter, bought three hundred of the best growing on purple ginseng, not long after, he came up with the master leaves rejuvenation Pill, so I speculate that this superb purple ginseng is the medicinal material needed to refine the rejuvenating pill. With this superb purple ginseng, Master Wade may be able to refine a batch of rejuvenating pill."

Aurora hurriedly said: "Dad! I won't go to help you ask Master Wade for medicine this time! Last time Master Wade refined the magic medicine, you asked me cheeky to ask Master Wade for the medicine. I was always embarrassed."

Mr. Quinton was busy Said: "Don't worry, this time you just give this top-quality purple ginseng to Master Wade, and you don't have to worry about the rest. I believe if Master Wade really uses it to refine the Rejuvenation Pill, he will not forget it. It's our Quinton family."

Aurora was relieved and said, "Dad, then I'll pass first!"

"Okay, you go."

Aurora drove out the door in her car and hurried to Thompson First. Half an hour later, Aurora came to the door of Charlie Wade's villa. When she pressed the doorbell, Elaine Ma was taking a nap in the room on the third floor.

Charlie Wade came down from the second floor, opened the courtyard door, saw Aurora, and said with a smile: "Aurora, you have worked so hard to make a special trip."

Aurora was always uncontrollable in front of Charlie Wade, ashamed and unbearable. I was a little nervous, and said stammeringly: "Master Wade, how are you doing recently?"

Charlie Wade smiled: "It's good, why do you ask?"

Aurora explained hurriedly, "I heard about you. During this time particularly busy, but also to things with Jasmine went she to Japan, you are too tired to be afraid, "

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "No, this little thing for me, what is not too"

Chapter 2296

"That's good!" Aurora smiled sweetly, and hurriedly passed the medicine box in her hand and the red sandalwood box to Charlie Wade, and introduced: "Master Wade, the medicine box contains the medicinal materials you need this time. My dad has already prepared it for you, and this red sandalwood box, inside is a 400-year-old top-quality purple ginseng. My dad said he got it by accident, and said this purple ginseng is here for you. He said it must be of great use, so let me give it to you."

Charlie Wade was a little surprised and said, "The best purple ginseng for more than 400 years? Where did your dad get such a good thing?"

"I don't know about this. My dad usually has many channels for receiving medicines. Many pharmacies and farmers in the south and the north of the country specially supply him. If anyone has some top-quality medicinal materials, they will give him the first time. It is estimated that the drug dealer received it and sent it over."

Charlie Wade nodded, and thought to himself: "I ate more than half of the 30 rejuvenation pills that I refined last time, and the rest was divided. Basically, it consumes almost the same amount of distribution, selling, and giving away. I originally thought that there would be a chance to refine a little bit, but I also knew that the best purple ginseng that was more than 300 years old was hard to find, so I never found a chance. Refining, I didn't expect Mr. Quinton to send Aurora over."

In fact, although Charlie Wade didn't have the best purple ginseng for three hundred years, he did have a plant that Liam sent back in his hand and passed down from his mother's family. Thousand-year snow ginseng.

The value of Thousand-Year Snow Ginseng is much higher than that of 300-year-old purple ginseng. If that kind of medicinal material is used to refine rejuvenating pills, it is indeed overkill and violent.

According to the records in the Apocalyptic Book, the use of Thousand-Year Snow Ginseng is much more than that of the 300-year-old Purple Ginseng!

Thinking of this, he took a closer look at the top-quality purple ginseng sent by Aurora, and couldn't help but sigh: "The quality of this top-quality purple ginseng seems to be better than the one I bought at the auction before. ! Your dad should have spent a lot of money too? Such an expensive gift is indeed a little shameful."

Aurora hurriedly said: "Master Wade, you must not say that. With your kindness to our Quinton family, let alone a purple ginseng, even if you give you all the assets of the Quinton family, you should!"

Charlie Wade laughed and said jokingly: "You are really too much! don't feel distressed. Your Quinton family has worked so hard for generations to build such a family business. You gave me all your hands when you opened your mouth?"

He said, he put away the joke. In his tone, he said seriously: "Okay, I will accept this purple ginseng, thank your father for your help, and also tell him, when I use this best purple ginseng to make a pill, I will definitely give him one. When Aurora heard this, she was very excited, and quickly bowed: "Thank you, Master Wade!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said calmly, " Yes, you don't need to be so polite." After that, she was right. She said, "Aurora, come in and sit for a while. I'll make you a cup of tea."

Aurora subconsciously wanted to agree, but after another thought, she asked with some worry: "Master Wade, is your wife at home? If she wants to watch Will you be unhappy when I come to my door?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Why? She was very good at first, and hospitality was very warm. If she is at home now, she will definitely invite you in. Not me."

Aurora asked in surprise: "Is your wife not at home?"

"No." Charlie Wade casually said: "Her company is relatively busy, she has already resumed work, and only my mother-in-law is at home."

Aurora said hurriedly: " Then I won't be able to go in. If your mother-in-law misunderstands it, it will cause you trouble."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "No, no, my mother-in-law suffered a bit of injury on her leg. I took a nap in the room, and when she wakes up, she I basically wouldn't go downstairs."

Aurora was relieved and smiled, and said, "Then I'll be cheeky and ask for a cup of tea made by Master Wade!" Charlie Wade flashed over and made one. With a please gesture, he said: "Come in!"

Chapter 2297

Seeing Charlie Wade's sincere invitation, Aurora nodded and happily followed Charlie Wade into the villa. After entering the house, Charlie Wade invited Aurora to sit on the sofa in the living room, then took out the tea set and made a pot of tea for her.

Aurora cautiously held Charlie Wade's tea, and said, "By the way, Master Wade, I went to see Sister Jasmine two days ago!"

"Oh?" Charlie Wade asked curiously: "Go to her company or to her Home?"

"Go to her house." Aurora said: "I am worried that sister Jasmine will be in a bad mood after so many things, so I went to see her at her house."

Charlie Wade nodded, remembering to solve the Moore family crisis and let Jasmine regain the position of the heir of the Moore family, she never had time to see her again, so she asked Aurora, "How is Jasmine's current state?"

Aurora tilted her head and said, "Sister Jasmine. She was in a good state." She said, remembering one thing, and hurriedly said: "By the way, Master Wade, sister Jasmine has an Akita dog at home. It is very pure and cute. I don't think the whole Aurouss Hilll can find any blood So good Akita, she said that your friend gave her to her?"

"Yes." Charlie Wade smiled: "When I was in Japan the other day, I took her to live with a Japanese friend who raised her. There were many Akitas, and when I saw Jasmine liked it, I gave her one." Aurora's eyes were full of envy, and said, "Sister Jasmine's Akita is called Bella, a girl. I've already told her. When Bella grows up, let Bella give birth to a litter of puppies and give me one!" Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Then you have to wait at least one year." Aurora said, "It's okay, a year soon. Just passed." She said, she asked Charlie Wade again: "By the way, Master Wade, do you have time in the past few days?" Charlie Wade asked curiously: "What's the matter?"

Aurora said with some embarrassment: "That's it... Since the last time I won Nanako Ito and won the championship, I have been practicing hard at home, but I always feel that my progress is slow. A senior coach teaches hand-by-hand, so if you have time, I would like to ask you to come to my house again and give me some guidance by the way. I don't know... I don't know if Master Wade is inconvenient... .."

Charlie Wade thought for a while and said with a smile: "This is a trivial matter, so let's do it, when I finish refining the medicine, I naturally invite everyone to sit and have a meal together, and give the medicine to everyone by the way. At that time, I will trouble your father to prepare a table of banquets at home and invite everyone to your house for a small gathering. Then I will go by a few hours in advance and give you guidance."

Aurora said excitedly when he heard this. That's great Master Wade! In that case, I'll tell my dad when I go back, let him prepare the best banquet at home!"

Charlie Wade nodded and said with a smile: "By the way, did Jasmine tell you who gave her the Akita?"

Aurora shook her head: "Sister Jasmine said it was your friend, but didn't say who it was."

Charlie Wade laughed and said, "It's Nanako Ito that you won in the competition."

"Ah?!" Aurora exclaimed, and blurted out: "It's her?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Yes, it was her."

Aurora hurriedly asked, "Master Wade, how is Nanako Ito's injury? , I didn't control the effectiveness of the medicine you gave me very well, so I hurt her by losing my hand, and I don't know how she recovered..."

Aurora sighed with some guilt: "Actually... ..In fact, Nanako's strength has always been much stronger than me, and the champion of that competition should have been hers. I completely relied on the magic medicine you gave to Master Wade to improve my strength in a short time, although I won the competition. , But winning hate is not honorable..."

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "Aurora, in fact, there is nothing glamorous and disgraceful. The competition compares to your own strength and how well everyone controls the rules. Although part of your strength is improved by the elixir, it is also It belongs to your personal strength, and you have completely passed the doping test of the competition, which proves that you have not taken any prohibited substances that are banned by the competition, so all this is in line with the rules of the competition." After all, Charlie Wade said again: "This It's like the black technology that swimmers used to participate in competitions-shark skin bionic swimsuit."

"This kind of bionic high-tech swimsuit can greatly reduce the resistance of swimmers in the water, including Phelps. The famous American swimmer in just one month broke 14 world records in a shark swimsuit, and Phelps won more than 20 Olympic gold medals alone."

"Of this, naturally. The help of this kind of swimsuit is indispensable, but none of the rules of the game at the time explicitly prohibited this kind of swimsuit, so people's gold medals were taken with peace of mind, there is nothing disgraceful."

Aurora nodded gently and said, "What do you mean? I don't understand..."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "The game is played by the rules, so you don't need to have any psychological burden in this regard. Not only can you not have a psychological burden, but you will continue to participate in this kind of game in the future. In international competitions, strive for more glory for the country!"

Aurora hurriedly said: "Good Master Wade, Aurora will definitely go all out and win more championships in the future!" With that, Aurora looked at the time and said shyly: " Master Wade, you must have something else this afternoon, I won't bother you much, don't forget the good things you just said..."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Don't worry, after I have finished the medicine, I Will contact your father."

Aurora nodded, stood up and said respectfully: "Master Wade, then you stay, I will leave first!"

Charlie Wade also stood up and said, "I will see you later."

Chapter 2298

After sending Aurora out of the house and watching her leave, Charlie Wade took the medicinal materials she sent back to the bedroom on the second floor of himself and Claire Wilson Wilson. The medicinal materials Aurora sent were enough for him to refine a batch of healing pills and a batch of rejuvenating pills.

The healing pill is no longer useful to him, but this kind of medicine is indeed very effective for ordinary people. Jasmine suffered an accident in Japan at the time, and it was the pill that saved her life.

Therefore, refining a batch of such medicines and giving them to people like Mr. Quinton, Mr. White, Travis Lane, and Dr. Simmons can be regarded as a reward for the gifts they gave him years ago. As for the Rejuvenation Pill, Charlie Wade also plans to make another batch, one of which will be given to Mr. Quinton, and the rest can be reserved for emergencies.

In one afternoon, Charlie Wade refined ordinary healing pills and 30 rejuvenating pills each.

Seeing these newly refined pills, Charlie Wade suddenly thought of Elaine Ma, his mother-in-law.

In fact, with a small trauma such as a broken leg, at most a quarter of a healing pill can make her well. And in his hand, there are as many as thirty. Count it down, enough to break her leg 120 times. At this moment, Charlie Wade also hesitated whether to reward her with some medicine so that she could recover earlier.

But after another thought, he immediately dismissed the idea, and muttered: "Forget it, she is not worthy!"

...

Just when Charlie Wade refined the pill, Lord Thorne, who was far in Eastcliff, called Orion Exeor who was on the other side of the ocean.

Orion Exeor is nearly a hundred years old, but because of taking a Rejuvenation Pill, his body is still very healthy.

He usually wakes up at five o'clock in the morning and does a set of Taijiquan to achieve the goal of strengthening his body. After punching, he will go to his study and use three old coins to give himself a simple idea. Divination with three ancient coins is the most commonly used method of six lines and eight trigrams. Unlike most Fengshui masters, Orion Exeor's three ancient coins are almost all treasures of ancient coins.

The largest one is the priceless Warring States Three. The remaining two are the extremely rare in the world. Many people who have played with ancient coins for a lifetime may not have the opportunity to see one of them. Just as he finished a hexagram and was comprehending the hexagrams represented by the few copper coins in front of him, Lord Thorne called.

Orion Exeor answered the phone and smiled slightly: "I'm wondering why today's hexagram looks like an old person, and the inner image seems to be separated by thousands of mountains and rivers. Unexpectedly, your phone came here."

Lord Thorne sighed. "Master Exeor really has a brilliant plan. I admire and admire it!" Orion Exeor said with a smile: "Lord Thorne, you don't have to go so far between you and me. What can I do so early?"

Lord Thorne hurriedly said, "Master Exeor, that's it. , I have a granddaughter who has always wanted to find her savior, but after searching for a long time, she still found nothing, so I would like to ask you to help me and give her a hint. I don't know if it is convenient for you."

Orion Exeor laughed: "Your granddaughter knows how to return to Entu. In that case, give me her birth date and tell me the general clues about her rescue. I'll take a look." Lord Thorne hurried to Zara's The birth date, as well as the time and passage of the kidnapping of her and Fitz in Japan, roughly informed Orion Exeor.

Orion Exeor muttered to himself: "The incident happened in Japan, Japan is east of China, and the East is the blue dragon in terms of Feng Shui..." After that, Orion Exeor pinched and said, and then grabbed it. The old money on the table, closed eyes, shook in the palm of the hand for a moment, and then threw it out.

It didn't matter, his brows immediately frowned, and he said: "Strange! There is a sign of looking for a dragon in your granddaughter's hexagram!"

"Looking for a dragon?!" Lord Thorne asked in surprise: "Master Exeor, what do you mean by looking for a dragon?"

Orion Exeor said sternly: "Seeking is looking for, and the dragon is the Drago, the real dragon of the world. This hexagram shows that the person your granddaughter is looking for is extremely fateful. Strong and not easy!"

Chapter 2299

Lord Thorne heard this, although surprised, but inevitably happy.

He couldn't help laughing: "Master Exeor, this person is said to be able to kill many top ninjas in Japan on his own. His strength is indeed extraordinary, and his life is harder. It should be normal too?"

Orion Exeor is very serious. Said: "Bradley, there are many people with hard fate, and nothing else, but all the widows of Coff have fate as hard as iron, but the fate of real dragons is extremely rare. If you put it in ancient times, I dare not say He must be a ninth-five person, at least he must be a prince and general, an extraordinary person !" Lord Thorne was silent for a moment, and said seriously: "Master Exeor, my granddaughter really wants to find this person, I wonder if you can give it to me?"

Orion Exeor exclaimed: "This life is superior to me. I can't see through it."

Lord Thorne exclaimed: "Master Exeor, there is a fate you can't see through?!"

Orion Exeor laughed bitterly. Seriously said: "This kind of fate is like ancient official titles. Since ancient times, officials at a higher level have crushed people to death, and at higher levels, I am outside of my ability. No matter what, I can't see through."

Lord Thorne asked in surprise. : "If you can't see through, how do you know that he is the fate of a real dragon?"

Orion Exeor laughed: "My fate is python. In the law of feng shui fate, the python is second only to the dragon. Therefore, above me, there is only Dragon. Just like a prime minister who can override him, there is only the Ninety-Five Supreme. As long as it is a life style that I can't see through, it must be the life of a true dragon. "As he said, he recalled Charlie Wade's appearance in his mind, and said with full respect in his tone: "I was fortunate enough to meet a man who was destined by a true dragon, and his abilities have long surpassed the imagination of mortals. Although I don't know how talented this person your granddaughter met, but it won't be bad if you want to." To Charlie Wade, Orion Exeor has always been full of respect.

At the beginning, he calculated that his time limit was approaching, and at the same time, he calculated that the East had the opportunity to continue his life, so he agreed to Lord Wade's request to go to Eastcliff to find a fengshui treasure for the Wade family.

It was also at Wade's house that he realized that Charlie Wade was in the Wade Shoal. At that time, Charlie Wade was at the lowest point of life and destiny, and his fate was not comparable to him. Therefore, he can count Charlie Wade's fortune.

After he broke the predicament of Wade Shoal, Charlie Wade's fate soared, and from that moment on, he could no longer see Charlie Wade's fate.

Right now, he couldn't figure out who Zara was looking for, so he could also conclude that the person Zara was looking for was the fate of the real dragon.

Lord Thorne sighed helplessly when he heard this, and said: "It seems that if my granddaughter wants to find this person, I am afraid it will take more time!"

Orion Exeor said solemnly: "Bradley, I don't recommend you The granddaughter continues to look for it."

Lord Thorne asked in surprise: "Why? Master Exeor, what do you say?"

Orion Exeor said seriously: "The hexagram shows that your granddaughter is in conflict with the life she is looking for, and the other It is also the most powerful, which is like a bicycle, and a heavy-duty train traveling at high speed. If the two do not collide, they can naturally be in peace, but if they collide, the bicycle will definitely have no chance of winning. "When Lord Thorne heard this, he couldn't help taking a breath. He has great trust in Orion Exeor.

So he hurriedly said, "Master Exeor, thank you for your reminder. I will call my granddaughter and ask her not to look for it anymore."

Chapter 2300

Orion Exeor hummed and said seriously: "It is time to let her stop, otherwise it will be like a moth to the fire, and she will be hurt in the end."

Lord Thorne repeatedly thanked him, and then hung up the phone in a hurry. , Immediately afterwards, another video call was sent to Zara.

The reason why he wants to make a video call is because he knows the video call, and after the other party picks up, he will directly use the speaker by default. In this case, not only Zara can hear what he wants to say, but his daughter Deana and grandson Fitz can also hear it.

What Lord Thorne was afraid of was that Zara did not believe in divination and fortune telling. If she clearly told her that there were tigers in the mountains, she would probably not retreat, but would instead go.

Therefore, he wanted to solemnly inform them of this in front of Deana's family of three, even if he could not persuade Zara, there would be Deana and Fitz.

It was dinner time. Zara was indeed having dinner with her mother and brother. When she received a video call from her grandfather, she was suddenly delighted. He thought it was the result of the divination, so he immediately pressed the call button.

Video ON, asked Lord Thorne smiling: "What are you doing right now?"

Zara said: "We are preparing to eat it, have you yet?"

Lord Thorne said with a smile: "I've finished," he said After that, she asked: "Where are your mother and your brother?"

Zara immediately switched cameras, took pictures of her mother and brother, and said: "Mom and brother are here, by the way, grandpa, you can ask the master to help?" Lord Thorne nodded, and said, "I did!"

Zara couldn't hide her excitement and asked, "Really? Does the master give any clear clues?"

Lord Thorne hesitated for a moment, then sighed lightly, and said, "Master Exeor helped you with a trigram, but the trigram shows that the person you are looking for has a very high life and a very hard life, so even Master Exeor can't see through any clues related to him."

"Huh?" Zara said in disappointment, "Grandpa, didn't you say that Master Exeor is very good? Why can't I find any clues? ? "

Lord Thorne explained: "I am not unable to find clues, see through, even the master Exeor, also lower than the fate that person you're looking for who is on the top"

Zara was very upset and said: "What is low First class, first class, I think that Master Exeor just can't find any clues, so I found a reason to excuse him."

Deana hurriedly said: "Zara, don't be rude!"

Zara blurted out, "Mom, I say it not the truth? that depends master say get this get this, finding out said finding out, what to say non-high-low first-class first-class, and that is not an excuse to cover up their own incompetence it? "

aside Fitz said, "Zara, don't be so extreme. If he is really a liar, he will definitely not tell you something he can't see through. He will only tell you something ambiguous or baseless. "For example, if you are looking for someone, he may tell you in a straightforward manner that the person you are looking for is in the northwest, and then you can find the rest by yourself. As for whether you can find it, it has nothing to do with him."

"And since the Master Exeor can directly say that he can't see through, then I believe this is definitely not an excuse."

Although Zara did not believe in this, but at this time, he did not want to argue with his family too much, so he had to say angrily: "Since even Master Exeor can't see it through, I'll just rely on myself to find it slowly!"

Lord Thorne said hurriedly at this time: "Zara, if you listen to Grandpa's advice, don't look for this person anymore."

Chapter 2301

"What?!" Zara heard that her grandpa told herself not to look any more, and asked inexplicably : "Grandpa, why?"

Lord Thorne said vaguely: "It will not do you any good to continue to search, it is better to just So forget it."

Zara frowned and said very persistently: "Grandpa, what I'm looking for is my savior and brother. He saved our lives! So I will find it no matter what. Even if I can't find him, I won't give up!"

Lord Thorne was a little anxious, and said solemnly: "It's not a question of whether you can find him, or whether you can find him! This is a question of your own future safety!"

Zara asked suspiciously: "My future is safe? What does this have to do with my future?"

Lord Thorne said seriously: "Master Exeor said, you are in conflict with his fate, and his fate is far better than You have to be hard and tall, so it's okay if you don't find him. Once you find him, it's like moths fighting the fire. In the end, it's yourself that is injured!"

Zara immediately retorted, "Grandpa, I don't have any. Aiming at the meaning of your old man, but I think that what Master Exeor said is pure nonsense!" After that, she continued without hesitation: "This man saved my life, if it is really as Master Exeor said. Say, I am a moth and he is a raging fire, so why did I not be burned to death by him, but saved by him? I think Master Exeor is just talking about it !" Lord Thorne sighed and said, "Hey! This kind of thing, which can be changed by your arrogant words? It is true that he saved you, but that is before! Master Exeor counts for you, it is the future!"

Zara retorted without hesitation: "I don't care about anything. In the future, I only know that he saved my life. I want to find him and thank him face to face. It's that simple. It doesn't matter if I really conflict with him. The big deal is that I will pay him back. That's right."

Lord Thorne rarely reprimanded: "Zara! Don't talk nonsense here! What Master Exeor said is not a joke, you must listen? Ah!"

Zara shook his head and said firmly: "These are all pseudo-scientific feudal superstitions, I don't listen!"

Deana said with a serious face: "Zara, Master Exeor is the supreme wisdom of the ancestors, absolutely not What feudal superstition, and Master Exeor is the most famous feng shui master in the world today, you must have a sense of awe!" After all, Deana also said very solemnly: "In my opinion, you should not continue to look for it. So, let's stop here!" Zara, Anxious, red eyes said: "Mom. Why do you believe in these things? You are also a famous university graduate, you should believe in science!"

Deana said very seriously : "Zara, how do you know that fengshui is not science?"

Zara blurted out: "It's all a bunch of feudal superstitions. What science is there? If there is a basis for it, then why don't you just tell me where to go? Can you find your benefactor? It just happened to tell me that there are fate and moths fighting against the fire, so I don't want to believe in this kind of thing!"

Deana said solemnly, "The Book of Changes and Divination, the ancients used heaven and earth, everything, the stars and the sea as references. After years of observation, study, induction, and summary, a set of philosophies, which can even be said to be science!"

"Have you ever wondered why the Mayans could accurately calculate the 21st century A solar eclipse?"

Chapter 2302

"What's even more powerful is that the calendar they calculated is almost the same as the legislation calculated by modern science. The error is even as small as every five thousand years, only one day away. Do you think this is also a feudal superstition?"

Zara didn't know how to refute it, so she could only make strong words: "There is no actual basis for this kind of thing, anyway, I will definitely not believe it!" Deana sighed at this time, and said in a serious tone: "Our generation is young. At that time, there was still a relatively objective understanding of Eastern and Western cultures. They never blindly believed that the West was better or that the East was better. Instead, they used an objective and dialectical perspective to look at problems. For children born after zero or even after zero, Western culture has begun to take full advantage."

"You believe in science and the Internet, but you don't believe in the essence of your ancestors for thousands of years. This set of things has entered the category of old feudal superstition, which is a manifestation of ignorance!"

Zara asked unconvincedly: "According to the ancestors, does everything have a so-called fate? Do I eat today? What and where to go are all destined for a long time?"

Deana said seriously: "You think that everything in the world has no fate, and everything is my fate, but I can't help it, but have you thought about it? The gravel, as large as the entire universe, is continuously operating with its own set of laws. The more you look at the macro, the more it can't change its fate!"

Zara immediately asked: "Mom, you tell me, What is the lifespan of a gravel? It may stay in the desert, become a member of thousands of gravel, sink into a river, or be carried into the sea by a river, and is more likely to be made into a piece of glass by humans, Mixed into a piece of concrete, does the fate count for each piece of gravel?"

Deana shook his head and said, "I just said that fate should be viewed from a macro perspective, never from a micro perspective.

Think about it." "From a microscopic perspective, you will feel that the gravel is very small and not worth mentioning, and there are so many gravel in the world, and it is impossible to plan a different destiny for each gravel."

"But do you know how many stars like the sun are in the universe?"

Zara looked blank.

Deana said seriously: "Zara, if you look at it from a microscopic view, you always feel that the gravel is too small and worth mentioning, but if you look at the macroscopically, you will find that even if the entire earth, in the entire universe, it is just like gravel. , It's not even as good as a gravel." After that, Deana continued: "Don't you young people like to talk about science? Then I can tell you that there are about two in the observable range of the universe and the range of educated speculations. There are trillions of galaxies, you can hear them clearly, it is two trillion!"

"And every galaxy has at least hundreds of billions, or even trillions of stars. The sun is just one of the hundreds of billions of stars in the Milky Way. In the Milky Way, the sun is so ordinary that it cannot be ordinary. In the entire universe, the sun is not as good as a gravel on the earth."

"There are more stars like the sun in the universe than there are gravel on the earth, but you think There is too much gravel, so a small gravel is not worthy of fate. Then I ask you, a star that is a hundred times larger than the earth is just a cosmic gravel in the universe. Is it worthy of fate?"

Deana With a word, Zara was struck by lightning, and she couldn't say a word.

She had never used such a perspective to understand the whole world, but just tried to think about the entire macro universe in her mind, and she immediately felt her insignificance and ignorance.

If the sun is just the gravel in the universe, then the earth can only be counted as a cosmic dust.

If human beings are so small that they need to live in a cosmic dust, then what are human beings?

How much of the so-called science that humans can detect in this cosmic dust can represent everything in the world?

Chapter 2303

Seeing that Zara no longer spoke to refute, Deana sighed and said in a very serious voice: "Zara, you have to know that all stars in more than two trillion galaxies have their own set of laws of operation. What about the lives of billions of people?" After that, she put her hands together and said piously: "I used to go to temples to burn incense and worship Buddha. Both of you and your father thought I was a feudal superstition, but Buddhism is early As I said, one piece of sand, one world!"

"Even if it's just a piece of gravel, its interior is infinite!"

"In comparison, a galaxy is just a grain of sand in the universe, but it also includes Another incomparably vast world."

"The Book of Changes is to tell people a truth, everything in the universe, from the dust to the stars, everything has its own laws, you can not understand, but you can not desecrate, understand?"

Zara nodded hurriedly, and said softly and obediently: "Mom, I understand, I'm sorry, I was really too shallow before, I don't understand that stuff, nor fate number..."

Deana smiled slightly , Said: "Everything in the world has laws. As long as you find its laws, you can see its past, present and future."

"It's as if the ancients learned the laws behind the celestial phenomena, so they began to gradually master the ability to predict the weather."

"it's like now astronomers mastered the movement of the sun and the moon, so you can accurately predict the future of every solar eclipse and lunar eclipse, and even forward estimate tens of thousands of years ago, every eclipse And the lunar eclipse;"

"The essence of the Book of Changes is to summarize the laws between the heavens and the earth and the human beings. "

Once you master this law, you can see one thing, one's past, present, and future. "

Since Master Exeor advises you not to search again, then you should be honest and obedient. Don't continue to search. Both you and your brother are my life. Last time you had an accident in Japan, I almost had a heart attack. , So in the future, I cannot accept that any accidents happen to you again. "

Zara asked subconsciously: "Mom...do you think Master Exeor is wrong?" After that, she hurriedly explained: "I don't suspect feng shui, I just think this kind of thing It's like doing a math problem. If you make a little mistake, the result will be a big deviation. As the so-called miss, the difference is a thousand miles..."

Deana shook her head and said seriously: "The earth is revolving around the sun. It takes a year to make a revolution, but there is never any deviation, while the solar system revolves around the center of the entire Milky Way, and it takes 250 million years to make a revolution, and there is still no deviation. This is the rigor of the law!"

"The laws of the Book of Changes are as precise as astronomy, and Master Exeor is the most profound master in the study of the Book of Changes in the world today. There is no one, there can be no mistakes!"

"Since he said you are moths fighting fires! , Then you have to stay away from the fire honestly, the farther the better! If you are not obedient and insist on looking for him, then I will let your dad send you abroad now!" After that, Deana said again: " Anyway, Harvard Business School will start in August, and there is still half a year left. If you are not obedient, go there soon!"

"Don't be my mother!" Zara hurriedly blurted out, "You now let me go to the United States alone. When I got there, the school did not start, the dormitory was not allowed, and I was not familiar with the place of life. It was not convenient to do anything..."

Deana said seriously, "No inconvenience. Your dad was already near Harvard University last year. I bought a villa. After you go there, you can live there. There are housekeepers, servants, and life assistants. It will be very convenient for you to get there. If it doesn't work, I can also accompany you."

Zara listened At this point, I quickly pleaded: "Mom, I don't want to go to the United States now... Then I will listen to you, can't you not find it?" When she said this, Zara's heart was full. Is unwilling...

"In my heart, naturally there are 10,000 people who are unwilling to give up looking for a savior..."

Chapter 2304

"But, my mother is so absolute now. From what I know about her, although she is usually very soft, once she makes a decision, there is basically no room for mediation..."

" Therefore, if I still blindly look for my benefactor, my mother will definitely send me to the United States as she said..."

"At that time, I will be in the United States, thousands of miles away from China. It's even more impossible..."

"So, I can only lie to my mother... and then secretly continue to search for my benefactor..."

Deana didn't know her daughter at this time. As I thought, I heard that she was indeed willing to give up searching, and she breathed a sigh of relief.

So she looked at Fitz and said seriously: "Fitz, you are called by this name because you want you to know right from wrong and distinguish right from wrong. Your sister has the stakes in this matter. Mom has just told you. It's very clear, so for the safety of her life, you must keep in mind that you must never help her find someone secretly. Did you understand?"

Fitz immediately said: "Mom, don't worry. , I have always been in awe of our traditional Chinese culture. Since the master has said so, then I must not help Zara!"

Fitz said the truth. Now some young people, because they have accepted the impact of Western culture, they blindly criticize Chinese traditional culture. Among them, the worst attacked is traditional Chinese medicine. Fitz was in an angry youth, and he was somewhat biased towards Chinese medicine. He always felt that Chinese medicine lacked scientific basis and clinical experiments.

But when he was nineteen years old, he had a low-grade fever that lasted for more than a month. He did all the tests he could do in the hospital and tried all the antibiotics, but there was nothing. effect.

Finally, in desperation, he accompanied his family to visit a famous doctor. After the famous doctor diagnosed him, he said that he was invaded by damp evil. He gave him acupuncture on the spot and decocted him with a pair of medicine. Enough. Since then, Fitz has understood that everything can always exist, there must be its truth.

Chinese medicine has been developed along the way for five thousand years with Chinese civilization. The wisdom contained in it can actually be denied by a little boy. Therefore, since then, he has become more awed by traditional culture. The same goes for the gossip of the Book of Changes. Zara felt even more desperate when she heard this.

She knew that if her elder brother couldn't help herself, then she would really lose all the help. In this case, would she still have a chance to find her father? Since she was rescued in Japan, she would think of Charlie Wade countless times every day, and remember all the details of her rescue. It can be said that Charlie Wade has deepened into her bones.

So, even if it was really moths fighting the fire, deep down she didn't want to stop.

At this time, Deana looked at Zara, and said in a tone that could not be refuted: "Zara, Mom wants to stay in Aurouss Hilll for a while. During this time, you will stay with me in Aurouss Hilll, so you don't have to go anywhere!"

Chapter 2305

Deana really wanted to live in Aurouss Hilll for a while. Not only because she missed Bruce, but also because she really liked this warm and humid riverside ancient city. In addition, she was still thinking about the old house that Bruce once rented. She wants to stay in Aurouss Hilll, buy the house, and renovate it again. If there is nothing special in the future, she is even willing to settle in Aurouss Hilll.

Deana was married to Zayne because she saw her beloved man marry another woman, and completely lost confidence and expectation in the relationship. But after getting married, she and Zayne only have family affection and no love. As Zayne's betrayal of her came to light, her affection for Zayne almost disappeared.

So, but she hasn't divorced Zayne yet, but she has made a decision in her heart and will not force herself for other people. From this moment on, she even wanted to live according to her own ideas. Settling in Aurouss Hilll is the first step. Zara heard that her mother had let herself stay in Aurouss Hilll, so she was naturally unwilling in her heart.

She thought to herself: "Whether it is the Banks Familyy or the Thorne Family, the main sphere of influence is in Eastcliff. Only in Eastcliff can I have the opportunity to mobilize more resources to help me find my benefactor."

"But if I am If I stay with my mother in Aurouss Hilll, I don't have any resources to mobilize!"

"Moreover, my mother is so strongly opposed to me looking for my benefactor, and I will be under her nose in the future, let alone the opportunity to look for my benefactor" thought Here, Zara was extremely depressed, so he did not immediately respond to her mother's words.

Seeing that her expression was full of hesitation and unwillingness, Deana couldn't help but frown, and asked: "What? Seeing what you mean, isn't she going to agree?"

Zara hurriedly said: "No, mother, I actually want to stay with you in Aurouss Hilll, but to be honest, I am afraid that my life in Aurouss Hilll will be unaccustomed after a long time."

Deana nodded and asked, "You Come on, why are you not used to it?"

Zara shook his fingers and said: "Look, the winter in Eastcliff is always dry, and Aurouss Hilll is very humid."

Deana said immediately, "It doesn't matter, then let someone install it in your room immediately. The best central dehumidification system, and then let's compare the weather conditions in Eastcliff in real time. What is the humidity of the air in Eastcliff? Make sure that the air humidity in your room is. If the air humidity in Eastcliff is 10, let your The room is also kept at 10, which is definitely not worse than a percentage point!"

Zara was big for a while, and hurriedly said: "It is not only the air humidity problem, but also the living habits. I am not too accustomed to eating here."

Deana waved his hand and said: "It doesn't matter, Mom will send you a chef from Eastcliff. When you are at home, don't you like the food made by the chef at home? It just so happens that your dad is also going to Australia now, and the chef is at home. I'm still idle, I will let him come over tomorrow, oh no, let him come over today, so that you can eat familiar meals tomorrow morning."

Zara said embarrassingly, "That mom, I can stay here. Be with you, but my brother still has to go back. You called the chef to Aurouss Hilll. What should I do after my brother goes back?"

Before Deana could speak, Fitz immediately stated firmly: "It's okay! It's okay! It's a big deal. I'll eat outside every day. Anyway, I'll be a bachelor to solve the problem. I'm not hungry for one person and the whole family!" After that, Fitz said again: "Oh, yes, I won't leave Aurouss Hilll for now, Stefanie Sun's concert is about to begin. I want to stay in Aurouss Hilll to make some preparations for the concert and leave after the concert is over."

Chapter 2306

Zara didn't expect that her elder brother would really just fall into trouble at this time!

She glared at Fitz angrily, and then said to Deana: "Mom, I didn't bring enough clothes this time, and the daily necessities that I usually use. If I stay in Aurouss Hilll for three to five days. It's fair enough. If you stay for a long time, it will be very troublesome."

Deana said indifferently: "It's simple. A few aunts in the house happen to be idle too. I let them pack all your personal items. Bring it with me at that time." After that, Deana said again: "If you have any dissatisfaction, you can tell mom that Mom will help you solve it all. It doesn't matter if you feel that the layout and decoration of the room are not satisfied. , Mom can take down all the decorations and furniture in your room at home and send it by air, and then restore it to you. Do you have any other questions? If you have other questions, as long as you mention it, Mom I'll solve it for you."

Zara is really helpless. Unexpectedly, my mother was so decisive that she would not give herself any chance at all.

So, she nodded her head very aggrievedly, and said helplessly: "Okay mom, I see, I have no other questions, everything will be done as you said."

Deana relaxed, smiled slightly, and said: "You, don't always think about finding that benefactor every day. Stay with your mother in Aurouss Hilll. After you start school, if there is nothing wrong with your mother, you will go to the United States to study with you. When will you finish studying your mba? , When will our mothers come back." Zara knew that Mom was guarding herself at all times, not letting herself have the opportunity to secretly continue to look for her benefactor.

So, she nodded helplessly and said, "

Okay , I will listen to you." Deana finally breathed a sigh of relief.

She thought to herself: "As long as I keep Zara in Aurouss Hilll and keep an eye on her at the same time, she shouldn't run into the man who is in conflict with her life and can make her moths fly into the fire!

" In this case, after these few months, after she went to study in the United States, the hope of finding that person would be even slimmer!"

"Perhaps after a while, she will slowly forget about it."

But Deana underestimated Zara's determination.

Moreover, although Zara has a very different personality from Deana, she has the same persistence and stubbornness as Deana in her bones.

Deana loved Bruce for many years. Although Bruce rejected her many times, she never gave up, and no one persuaded her to be useful. Zara wanted to find Charlie Wade, even if everyone blocked her, she still insisted. Deana never dreamed that what Zara always wanted to find was the young man riding an electric bicycle that she met at the gate of Bruce's former residence today.

The Thompson First, where the young man lives now, is only 35 kilometers away from them in a straight line. She didn't even know. She thought that by leaving Zara in Aurouss Hilll, it was the fate of Zara avoiding moths to fight the fire. But the fact is just the opposite! Her decision has left Zara around the fire

When Zara temporarily hid her inner impulse and decided to stay in Aurouss Hilll, Wendy was still busy in Pearl etiquette company. At this time, it was evening, and Wendy officially took over the Pearl etiquette company this afternoon. In order not to disappoint Charlie Wade, she immediately took an afternoon to carefully check all the accounts of Pearl etiquette company since its establishment.

She first listed all the etiquette ladies who were cheated by Pearl etiquette company, and then assessed their losses based on the records of their participation in activities, and then calculated the total amount of compensation to be paid.

Afterwards, she contacted all the etiquette ladies who had worked together and had worked together, and asked them to return to the company for a meeting. At the same time, she also asked people to help, and found all the etiquette ladies who had resigned and were forced to go to ktv by the former boss Lloyd and asked them to Come back.

At dinner time, the entire Pearl etiquette company has been surrounded by the ladies of etiquette. At present, there are more than one hundred ladies of etiquette working in Pearl etiquette company. In addition to those who ran away, redeemed them, and were forced to go to KTV, now there are nearly 300 people squeezed into the company. Most of these ceremonial ladies are between 18 and 25 years old. Few are over 25. I dare not say that everyone is beautiful, but most of them are relatively good-looking.

Moreover, the height of these ceremonial ladies is at least 1.65 meters, and each body is well-proportioned. Compared with most professions, the overall external conditions are relatively high. Nearly three hundred young and beautiful girls, put together like three hundred super-large sparrows, chattering non-stop.

They were all informed that the Pearl etiquette company had changed hands and asked them to come over to settle all accounts, but they didn't understand why Lloyd was so profitable as this company, why he suddenly changed hands. In addition, they also want to know how the company asks themselves to come back to checkout.

Especially those who have been away from the company for a period of time are even more surprised. They don't dare to hope that the company can make up all the money owed to them before.

Seeing so many people, Wendy was also a little nervous.

Although she had never run a company before, she had seen some of the world in the Wilson Group at first, and she was better than the girls present.

So, she calmed her mind and said into the microphone: "Please be quiet, everyone, we are going to have a meeting now." Everyone gradually calmed down, and one by one looked at Wendy with widened eyes, waiting for her next message. .

Wendy cleared her throat and said seriously: "First of all, I must announce to you that all the shares of Pearl etiquette company have been transferred to my name. What I have in my hand is the confirmation of the changes made by the industrial and commercial department. You can circulate the copy, and you can also check the current industrial and commercial registration information of the etiquette company on the industrial and commercial website to see if the shareholder above has changed from Lloyd to Wendy."

Several girls sitting in the front row of the meeting room , Immediately took the copied documents and circulated them, and many people directly took out their mobile phones and inquired about the business registration information first.

From this look, everyone immediately understood that Wendy had become the boss of Pearl etiquette company!

People who didn't know Wendy began to wonder what this girl came from, and she could become the new owner of Pearl etiquette company. Those girls who have worked with Wendy are even more puzzled. They don't understand why Lloyd, who cannibalized people without spitting out bones, would transfer the company to Wendy.

Chapter 2308

Seeing that everyone had received this message, Wendy continued: "I call everyone here today. There are a few things to announce to you."

"The first thing is Lloyd and Teresa Fay. They have been treated for so long. Part of the money that scam everyone has returned!" As soon as this was said, the scene was in an uproar!

A girl blurted out and asked: "What?! Lloyd and Teresa Fay returned the money?! Really? The money was returned after two weeks of peeling?! How is this possible?!" Wendy said seriously "This is indeed true. The two of them have been sent by my brother-in-law to KTV to make money for atonement because of their wickedness. Teresa Fay is going to be a companion, and Lloyd is going to be a tortoise. They are both at Caesar's place. I'm going to work, I'm probably starting to work tonight. If you have an acquaintance working there, you can call to ask."

There were a few courtesy ladies hurriedly took out their mobile phones, some chose to send text messages, others Choose to call directly.

Soon, a girl exclaimed: "Two bastards, Lloyd and Teresa Fay, actually went to work in KTV! This is too much hate relief!"

"Yes, yes, one of my sisters also told me Now, it's the two of them!"

A girl who knew Wendy hurriedly asked: "Wendy, what is your brother-in-law? How come you have such a great skill that even Lloyd can move?"

"My brother-in-law... .." Wendy said a little admiringly: "My brother-in-law is a hero!"

All the girls present have been bullied and squeezed by Lloyd. It can be said that I hate him long ago. Therefore, after hearing the news, they cheered and applauded for a while.

Wendy waited for everyone's applause to finally cease, and then said: "The second thing is the distribution of this money."

"Lloyd and Teresa Fay returned a total of about 4 million, except for the 500,000 reserved for the company's subsequent operating funds. In addition, the remaining 3.5 million will be returned to everyone present." When everyone heard this, they were suddenly shocked!

They really did not expect that the first thing that Wendy took over the company was to return a huge sum of 3.5 million to them... Wendy continued at this time: "I have already calculated the specific refund ratio. When it comes out, this money is certainly not enough to make up for everyone's losses, but it can still bring you a certain amount of compensation. I will show the list of compensation and the corresponding amount in a while. If you have no problems, After signing and confirming, our finance will pay everyone immediately."

After that, Wendy said again: "To be honest, we have already withdrawn 3.5 million cash from the bank account in the afternoon."

Then, Wendy gave it to someone not far away in Finance gave a nod, and then, Finance went to the office next door to call in a few powerful men.

Each of these brawny men held a huge suitcase in their hands, and then they spread the suitcase on the conference table on the podium, revealing bundles of banknotes inside.

Nearly 300 girls immediately yelled in excitement, and some even yelled, "Long live Wendy!"

Then, thunderous applause broke out again. At this moment, Wendy has won the favor and support of the girls on the scene, and has successfully taken the first step to take over the Pearl etiquette company...

Chapter 2309

Surrounded by thunderous applause and applause, Wendy was also a little embarrassed. She settled her mind and continued: "The third thing is that our Pearl etiquette company will continue to operate in a brand-new model. The idea of operation is like this..."

Nearly 300 girls in the audience are looking forward to her next content at this moment.

Wendy said seriously: "First of all, Pearl etiquette company will continue to provide etiquette services for major enterprises and self-employed individuals in Aurouss Hilll as before. We are all girls, and we all have almost the same experience, so everyone counts. The above are sisters. If the sisters want to continue to engage in this industry, I hope that I can choose to continue to cooperate."

"Secondly, I solemnly promise to the sisters that if the sisters choose to continue to cooperate with me, I will never give As before, squeeze the sisters' labor and the corresponding labor results!"

"Next, we will adopt an open and transparent pure sharing model to cooperate with the sisters!"

"The specific terms of cooperation are: the company is responsible for the overall arrangement of work for the sisters At the same time, the commission is shared with the sisters in an open and transparent manner. The company only draws 20% of the commission for attending an event as operating funds, and the remaining 80% is distributed to individuals!"

I heard that individuals can get 80% of commissions After being divided, the girls in the audience cheered excitedly! In the industry, there is no company that can give such a large percentage of commission share!

The normal mode of cooperation is usually five to five. People like Lloyd generally only give 20% to 30% to the lady of etiquette. Not only does the score are small, but it also threatens and lures the lady of etiquette to sign the deed. Once the deed is signed , Miss Etiquette can only get about 10% at most.

In contrast, the ratio given by Wendy is simply the conscience of the industry! In fact, Wendy herself feels that this share ratio is simply too high, so high that after the company deducts operating costs, financial costs, and support line labor costs, the remaining profit margin is very thin, and even 5% may not be guaranteed.

However, she felt that she could not live up to Charlie Wade's expectations of her. If he was also reduced to someone like Lloyd, thinking about squeezing employees, then Charlie Wade would definitely be disappointed in her. Therefore, she made such a bold decision. At the same time, she also has a belief in her heart that supports her.

"As long as I do it well, do it hard, and make a reputation, there will be more and more courtesy ladies under Pearl's company, and more and more activities will be undertaken. Although the profit rate is reduced a lot, once I put the whole cake If you grow bigger, then the company's profits are still very, very impressive."

"For the most direct analogy, if you make 10 million a year, the profit rate is 20%. Then the profit is 2 million, but if you can do it a year One hundred million, even if the profit margin is only 5%, the net profit is as much as five million!"

"So, I must not be blindfolded, I must take a longer view! I must use more salary sharing to attract these girls Wholeheartedly cooperate with me, and at the same time attract more other girls to join Pearl Company!"

"My first goal is to make Pearl Company the largest etiquette company in Aurouss Hill!"

"I must go all out and work hard. To achieve this goal, let my brother-in-law look at me with admiration!"

At this time, the girls in the audience were completely attracted by Wendy's words!

The company is transparent, the division is high, and Wendy is willing to use the money Lloyd eats out to compensate everyone. This also makes everyone trust her very much. Therefore, almost every girl made a decision deep in her heart.

At this time, Wendy continued: "The company currently has 500,000 operating funds in the company's account. I have ordered three 13-seater commercial vehicles to be used as free shuttle buses for company employees."

After that, she said with some shame: "However, because the funds are currently limited, most of the funds have been used to compensate the sisters, so we can only buy three cars first..."

"If we pick up If the number of employees is relatively large, even if the three cars are running back and forth, they may not be able to meet the needs of many people..."

Chapter 2310

"In that case, when we start to work, some employees may not be able to enjoy the shuttle service for the time being..."

"Our shuttles will initially be given priority to those that are far away, earlier or later. We just need employees to provide services."

"But I will promise to my sisters that we will continue to add more shuttle buses when the company makes money in the future!"

"In the end, we have to set up a fleet of our own. Regardless of the severe cold and heat, whether it is windy or rainy, we can ensure that every activity and every sister of us will be picked up and sent by car!" At this point, there was thunderous applause from the audience again!

Many girls have red eyes with excitement! They choose to be ceremonial ladies because they don't have a good survival method. Moreover, their family conditions are not very good. Every day I wake up in the dark and make so much hard money in the wind and rain, and I will be bullied wherever I go. Being bullied by the boss in the company; going out to pick up activities, but also being bullied by Party A.

In short, almost no one respected them, and no one thought about them. However, Wendy's words deeply touched their hearts and made them feel warm, loved and cared for for the first time!

So, someone immediately stood up and said excitedly: "Sister Wendy, I will do it with you in the future !" "Yes, Sister Wendy, I will follow you in the future!"

"I graduated from high school and started doing it. Miss Etiquette helped the family pay off the debt. After six years, I have eaten all the ups and downs, but I haven't tasted any sweetness. What sister Wendy said just now made me feel sweet in my heart, so I counted me as one ! "

"Yes! never a company to us as human beings, now sister Vicki us as sisters, what we hesitate? I joined! "

Following the heartfelt statements of these people, everyone on the scene was ignited! All of them are scrambling to express their opinions and firmly choose to join!

Wendy also concealed her excitement, said: "Okay, now let's look first seek the intent sisters, interested, sisters continue to work in the Pearl etiquette company, please raise your hands!!"

Moment, the audience whistled, Raise three or four hundred hands! The reason why there are so many hands is that many girls raised their hands high in excitement because they were too excited! Wendy took a look and found that there was almost no one who didn't raise their hands, and everyone raised their hands high, with full of excitement and anticipation on their faces.

On their faces, there is no hesitation, no entanglement, no half-push, and some are all excited and religious. It can be seen that each of them has a heartfelt desire to join this new Pearl etiquette company!

Chapter 2311

With the support of all the etiquette ladies, Wendy successfully took the first step to take over the Pearl etiquette company. She was busy at the company until very late, and then she managed to catch the last bus, dragged her tired body, and returned to the Thompson First Villa.

Since Wendy went out to work, the Wilson family barely need to go hungry. They have some rice at home. They can't say that they can let the Lady Wilson, Christopher and Harold eat vegetables and meat, at least they are hungry. Being able to steam a pot of white rice barely satisfies hunger.

When Wendy came home, Mrs. Wilson had just served Christopher and Harold after eating white rice. She made half a bowl of rice with boiling water, sprinkled some salt into it, and ate it alone.

Seeing Wendy's return, she couldn't help complaining a little: "Wendy, why did you come back so late today? I was at home to serve your father and your brother. I was so tired to death, you didn't say to get off work early to help me. "

Wendy said a little apologetically: "I'm sorry, grandma, there are a lot of things in the company, so I delayed a little longer..."

Lady Wilson said dissatisfiedly: "Isn't it just being a courtesy lady? I came back with the money, how could it be so late?"

Harold lying on the bed couldn't help but say : "Yes, Wendy, I especially want to eat a bowl of preserved egg and lean meat porridge today, and said that I will wait for you to earn early After I got the money back, I went to buy half a catty of pork and two more preserved eggs, but I have been waiting until now..."

Christopher, who was lying next to Harold, sighed and said, "Wendy, I always have cramps for two days, and it hurts as soon as I pump it up, and it will not heal for a while. It seems that during this period of time, there is severe malnutrition and calcium deficiency. Can you think of a way to buy a box of calcium tablets for Dad?"

Seeing the pitiful appearance of her father and brother, Wendy felt very distressed. She wanted to tell them all of her experience today and let them know that Charlie Wade gave herself a good opportunity to manage A company gives itself a monthly salary of 10,000.

However, when she thought of Charlie Wade's confession, she didn't want to be out of touch and keep herself silent, she resisted the impulse, suppressed the matter, and said: "Dad, brother, you two will stick to it, the company will adjust for me. Let me be a manager. I can get ten thousand a month in salary. Tomorrow, I will ask the finance company to advance half a month's salary. Then I will definitely improve our family's living conditions."

Christopher was pleasantly surprised. "Wendy, what you said is true?! Are you really a manager in the company?!"

Harold asked too busy: "Wendy, do you really give 10,000 a month? ! "

Wendy nodded seriously and said: ". really is ten thousand dollars a month, " she says, Charlie Wade took out to buy her newest Apple phone, grateful, said: " I did not have a phone so the boss bought one for me..."

"I'll go!" Harold was excited all of a sudden, and blurted out: "Sister! You're going to be so prosperous! Ten thousand! Too many mobile phones, your boss said to give it away. It's so generous!"

The Lady Wilson beside her also burst into tears with excitement. She choked up and said: "If Wendy can really get ten thousand a month, then One day is more than three hundred. With so much money, our family's life will be much better!"

Then, Mrs. Wilson calculated: "The current pork is only 20 a catty, ordinary rice is a catty. It's about three. We have a family of four. One catty of pork, two catties of rice a day, plus some vegetables or something, at most 70 or 80 for food, and a few more bottles of milk every day to supplement calcium, 100 Only one is enough. Christopher and Harold can also take a little medicine to speed up recovery. Even if you spend another one hundred a day, there will be a hundred surplus!"

Chapter 2312

Harold burst into tears: "Grandma, I can finally eat some meat every day..."

"Yes..." Lady Wilson sighed, and then said: "Wait for you to follow Your dad has recovered and is looking for a job. He dare not expect to make a lot of money. But for you two, it is always more than enough to make five or six thousand in a month. By then, our family will have 15 or 16 in a month. Income, by that day, our day, even if we are out of our heads!"

Wendy felt melancholy when she heard this.

She thought: "In the past Wilson, can not say that rich, but at least it is tens of millions or even billions of assets"

"At that time, a person a month, just to eat, you have to eat It's tens of thousands of money and even more."

"But everyone was not satisfied at that time, and felt that life was not good enough. They tried every means to climb the dragon and attach the phoenix..."

"Now, after experiencing this After a lot of things, the family's requirements for life have also experienced a cliff-like decline."

"In the past, no matter how good the food is, it is still not satisfied, but now, as long as you can eat one meal a day and save a little savings every day, you can stay at home. In the eyes of human beings, it is already a good day to dream..."

"Although it is sad to think of it, it is really ironic..."

When Wendy thought of this, Charlie Wade appeared in Wendy's mind. Like Charlie Wade, I thought again in my heart: "It's still Charlie Wade who is the most practical. Even in the poorest days, he can live down to earth. When he becomes Master Wade respected by everyone in Aurouss Hill's upper class, he will not forget his original intentions. , Live with Claire Wilson Wilson steadily..."

At this point, she took out her mobile phone and quietly added Charlie Wade's WeChat.

Charlie Wade had just eaten at this time, and Mr. Quinton called him a voice call. After the call was connected, he respectfully said: "Master Wade, Aurora told me, you asked me to host a banquet at home, I don't know when you are More convenient?"

Charlie Wade said: "It's already Thursday today, so let's tentatively schedule Friday night. What do you think?"

Mr. Quinton said respectfully, "There is no problem with the next time. Everything is subject to Master Wade's time."

Charlie Wade said, "Then it will be Friday night. You help me invite everyone."

Mr. Quinton said hurriedly, "Master Wade, I will tell you the number of people, and you can see if you are right."

"Okay."

Mr. Quinton said: "First, Miss Moore of the Moore family and Lord Mooore, then Dr. Simmons, the genius doctor, then Cameron Isaac, Lancaster's richest man Travis Lane, Don Albertt, Mr. White of the White family, and Liam of Oracle Pharmaceutical."

Chapter 2313

Charlie Wade said: "Remember to invite Doris Young, the vice chairman of the Emgrand Group."

Mr. Quinton said immediately: "Good Master Wade, I will call Ms. Young and say it later."

Charlie Wade said : "Then trouble you. Help me arrange it."

Mr. Quinton immediately said respectfully: "Master Wade, you need to be so polite with me! If you have anything, please tell me!"

Charlie Wade said with a grin and said with a smile: "When the time comes I will go over a few hours in advance, give Aurora some guidance, and give you a small gift by the way."

Mr. Quinton's excited voice trembled as soon as he heard this, he realized that Charlie Wade might be sending himself back to life. Overcome with excitement, blurting out: "! Master Wade that is so kind of you!"

Charlie Wade smiled:. "kind, it would first say, I'll see you tomorrow,"
"good Master, see you tomorrow!"

Charlie Wade hung up Mr. Quinton's voice call, and suddenly saw in the WeChat address book that there was a new friend.

He clicked on it and found that it was Wendy who had sent a friend application, so he clicked to pass the verification.

Immediately afterwards, Wendy immediately sent a sentence: "Brother-in-law, I have already settled down on the company side. There are almost three hundred courtesy ladies who are willing to cooperate with the company and report to you!"

Charlie Wade was also a little surprised by the number of people, Thinking that Wendy should have done a good job, she replied: "Very good, keep up the work."

Wendy said hurriedly: "Good brother-in-law, I must go all out!"

Then he sent another sentence: "Brother-in-law, I have I want to apply for something..."

Charlie Wade asked, "Just tell me."

Wendy said, "Brother-in-law, there are more places where money is used at home. I want to advance half a month's salary with you in advance. ,May I?"

Charlie Wade knew that she must have some difficulties, so he readily agreed, and replied: "No problem, just say hello to the finance."

Wendy immediately sent a grateful expression and said, "Thank you brother-in-law!"

Chapter 2314

Charlie Wade didn't have much thoughts about Wendy. Originally, she was just looking at her sincerely regretful attitude, wanting to help her a little, give her some money, and let her solve the current dilemma. But after discovering that she was being bullied, and also discovering that Lloyd and Teresa Fay were bullying too much, Charlie Wade had more or less thoughts of eliminating harm for the people Therefore, he smoothly handed Lloyd's Pearl etiquette company to Wendy to operate.

However, Charlie Wade was still a little wary and caring about Wendy in his heart, so he gave Wendy a rule that although she had to manage the entire company, she could only get a monthly salary of 10,000. The reason for this is to limit her income and rights, and let her do things peacefully, instead of disappearing all of a sudden.

Wendy didn't think so much. Charlie Wade was able to help her to the point where she is now. She was already very satisfied deep in her heart. What she thinks now is just to work hard and do a good job in Pearl etiquette company.

Adhering to the idea that more is worse than less, Charlie Wade did not tell his wife Claire Wilson Wilson this matter. Moreover, Claire Wilson Wilson was indeed too busy lately. After eating, he ran to the study to continue working without daring to delay at all. Claire Wilson Wilson has now begun to prepare for the renovation of the six-star hotel of the Emgrand Group. She is in a period of rising career. She is also surprisingly ambitious. In her words, she now especially hopes to share some support for Charlie Wade.

Seeing that his wife was off work, Charlie Wade had to work overtime, and he felt a little distressed. So he washed some fruits and brought them upstairs to the study. In the study, Claire Wilson Wilson was burying his head in front of the computer at the desk drawing a design. Seeing her attentiveness, Charlie Wade was afraid that his sudden appearance would scare her, so he coughed lightly, attracting Claire Wilson Wilson's attention.

"Ahem, Claire Wilson Wilson."

Claire Wilson Wilson heard the voice, looked back at Charlie Wade, and smiled: "Husband, why are you here?"

Charlie Wade walked to the front, put the fruit on the desk, and said: "I will wash you some fruit, you Eat more, work in front of the computer for so long every day, more or less there will be some radiation, eat more fruits to supplement vitamins, can reduce the harm of radiation."

Claire Wilson Wilson smiled sweetly, said: "Thank you husband!"

After that, she squeezed the largest and reddest strawberry from the fruit bowl. She didn't eat it, but she stuffed it directly to Charlie Wade's mouth. She smiled and said, "My husband, you eat this!"

Charlie Wade smiled: "I've eaten it a long time ago. You can eat it yourself, don't worry about me."

Claire Wilson Wilson pouted pretendingly, "If you don't eat, then I won't eat either."

After speaking, she muttered angrily. She said, "You don't even eat it when they bring it to your mouth. This is too sad." Charlie Wade hurriedly opened his mouth when he heard this and took the strawberry and Claire Wilson Wilson's two fingers into his mouth. In this way, he deliberately used a little force and bit her finger.

Chapter 2315

"Oh!" Claire Wilson Wilson exclaimed. Only then did she realize that Charlie Wade had made a surprise attack on herself. She hurriedly pretended to be horrified and said: "Ah! I was kindly fed to the puppy, but the puppy Bite!"

Charlie Wade opened his mouth, eating strawberries, and said vaguely: "Okay, say that my husband is a puppy, then what are you?"

Claire Wilson Wilson snorted proudly and said "I am feeding a puppy, and of course I am the owner of the puppy!"

Charlie Wade smiled, "If I were a puppy, then you would be the bone in my mouth."

Claire Wilson Wilson smiled, "Where is it?" You use a metaphor like this, you compare people to bones."

Charlie Wade said seriously, "Don't you know that a puppy is the most protective of food? A bone is in your mouth, and the sky will not loosen when the sky falls. Who dares to follow it? Rob, it must fight hard!"

Seeing Charlie Wade's seriousness, Claire Wilson Wilson was very touched and couldn't help but said shyly: "If this is the case, then I will forcefully be a bone and let you take it well. Go ahead!"

Charlie Wade laughed and said, "Don't just talk and eat some fruit first."

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded, picked up two more strawberries, put one in Charlie Wade's mouth, and then himself. Then he put the second one in his mouth and took a bite.

Charlie Wade looked at her computer screen and found that a very large prototype of the design drawing had been constructed in the design software. He couldn't help but ask her: "My wife, you have to do the design drawing for such a big project? "

Claire Wilson Wilson said: "It's not true. What I am doing now is a sketch, because there is no need to make a very detailed design plan when bidding, mainly to reflect a general idea."

"When we wait for the bidding, we need to give this design plan and a more detailed decoration budget quotation to the past, but my studio now has relatively few staff. For such a large project, everyone has to move on, so I will come Mainly responsible for drawing, others focus on integrating suppliers of various materials and actuarial project costs. This amount of engineering is really huge. At least hundreds of suppliers have to be connected to thousands of single products."

Charlie Wade Nodded, and said distressedly: "Don't be too tired, pay attention to the combination of work and rest."

Claire Wilson Wilson smiled and said, "Don't worry, just these few days, after finishing these few days, package and hand in the entire tender document. , And then waited for the internal review of the Emgrand Group. If it passes, I will quickly expand the recruiting team. If it fails, it will be considered a practice."

Claire Wilson Wilson said seriously: "If my project is completed, then You won't have to work so hard in the future and make money alone to support the family."

"Our family's overall expenses are now very large, and the villa property costs are more than 100,000 a year, let alone other things."

"My studio earned money before. Most of the profits of the company have been invested in expansion, and have not been able to subsidize the family and cannot share it for you, so this time I have to strive to win this project and make some contributions to the family!"

Charlie Wade understands Claire Wilson Wilson's character very well. She has never cared about money, and she has no requirements for food, clothing, housing and transportation. The reason why she wants to work hard to start a business and make money is ultimately because of her family.

So, he said softly from the bottom of his heart: "Wife, thank you!"

Claire Wilson Wilson said seriously: "I want to thank you. For so long, you have been supporting me at home. Mom and dad are holding you back."

Charlie Wade said hurriedly, " What are you talking about? It's natural for the husband to make money and support the family. In the first three years of marriage, I didn't make a penny, so I washed and cooked at home. You never disliked me, and now I have to bear a little more and it is nothing."

Claire Wilson Wilson smiled and said sincerely, "The most important thing is that we can always understand and tolerate each other like this. It is more meaningful than making money. Just like before, although you don't make a penny, you always do housework. I'm well organized and take care of me in all aspects. This is more important than making money."

Chapter 2316

What Charlie Wade is most grateful to Claire Wilson Wilson for is that she has never disliked his apparent origin during these years of marriage. After all, a person whose parents died at the age of eight, grew up in an orphanage, only has a high school diploma recognized by the state, and has nothing, almost penniless, can not be regarded as a high-quality marriage anywhere.

However, she, the number one beauty in Aurouss Hilll, still married herself without complaint, and she married for four years. In the past four years, countless people have urged her to divorce him, and she has not wavered even once. From this alone, Charlie Wade was grateful to her in his heart.

During the recent period, Charlie Wade also wanted to find an opportunity to confess his life experience to Claire Wilson Wilson, but he was a little hesitant when he thought of the fact that his parents had not reported their feud or even the cause of their parents' death could not be ascertained. Now, all he can find out is an anti-leaf alliance.

When his parents were still in Eastcliff, the Anti-Wade Alliance did a lot of things against them, but in his childhood memory, his parents decided to leave the Wade family not because of the Anti-Wade Alliance, but because of his father Bruce. He had a big quarrel with his grandfather Lord Wade about something.

After that quarrel, the parents decided to leave the Wade family and a family of three to come to Aurouss Hilll to live an ordinary life. But soon after coming to Aurouss Hilll, his parents died unexpectedly.

However, Charlie Wade has always firmly believed that the death of his parents was by no means an accident, and there must be a murderer behind this. It's just that he now has no clue as to who killed his parents. First, he did not know whether the Wade family was an enemy or a friend; second, he did not know what role the Banks Familyy played in this matter;

Once again, he remembered that Stephen Thompson said that his father had offended the Rothschild family that dominated Europe and the United States at the time, so he is not sure whether the Rothschild family killed his parents.

There is a wolf in front, a tiger in the back, and a fierce behemoth on the other side of the ocean. Although Charlie Wade has a little strength now, he still feels like walking on thin ice.

The Wade Family, the obvious, hidden and tucked, all kinds of assets add up to at least trillions; the Banks Family not only has more assets than the Wade Family, but the overall strength is stronger than the Wade Family, although it has been frustrated recently Serious, but still not to be underestimated.

Trillions of dollars sounds like a fantasy, but in fact, looking at the world, trillions of dollars family assets are nothing at all.

On the global ranking of rich people, the number one is Amazon founder Jeff Bezos, whose personal assets are equivalent to more than one trillion.

Moreover, this is only the face, no rich man will publish all his assets, and the announcements are often just the tip of the iceberg.

As for the giant-like Rothschild family, it can already be called a wealthy country.

Chapter 2317

There have been countless rumors about the Rothschild family in Europe and North America over the past century. Some people say that they dominate half of Europe, and some say that more than half of Europe, and even half of America is under their control.

They are almost everywhere in Europe and the United States. The most profitable bank is theirs, the most profitable oil refining company is also theirs, the largest shipping group is theirs, and even the largest military industrial company is theirs.

The railway transportation that promoted the industrial revolution in Europe and the United States was also under the control of this family. As for precious minerals such as gold and diamonds, they are their traditional strengths.

A rough estimate is that the entire family's assets are at least several trillion dollars. Some say the family holds one third of the world's wealth. In other words, a Rothschild has more than ten times the assets of the Wade family.

Even more frightening is that Rothschild, as an old Jewish family, has a great influence in the political arena in Europe and America. The big men on Wall Street are almost all Jews. Almost all the lifeblood of the United States is in their hands. , Such a family can even promote a war between countries behind the scenes!

In front of these families, Charlie Wade's current assets and strength are not worth mentioning. If at this time, his identity is leaked from the outside, I don't know what kind of storm it will cause. In this case, Charlie Wade really did not dare to confide in Claire Wilson Wilson.

He felt that at least he had to wait for him to figure out the cause of his parents' death, figure out whether the Wade family was an enemy or a friend, figure out whether he had a deep hatred with the Rothschild family.

Claire Wilson Wilson didn't know what the husband next to her was thinking about at this time. While eating fruit, she said with a look of longing, "Husband, if I can win this project, you won't have to be so stressed in the future."

Charlie Wade said seriously: "I don't have any pressure myself. I am still very easy to make money now, so you don't need to have any pressure. If this project is too tired, then don't participate in the bidding. It is so tired to prepare for bidding. If you really win this project,

I'm afraid it will be even more tired." Claire Wilson Wilson smiled and said: "If you are tired, you can get tired. You can't refuse to develop because you are afraid of tiredness. If the company can become bigger and stronger, I will You can divide a lot of work out and concentrate on management. In that case, it won't be too tiring. The most tiring is the studio model. You are the boss and the employee, so you have to do everything yourself."

Charlie Wade agrees. Nodded: "It's true. The most feared thing is that the two identities get mixed together."

Claire Wilson Wilson smiled slightly and said, "Okay, you don't have to feel sorry for me. I will continue to make pictures here. Go back to the bedroom and rest."

Charlie Wade said: "Well, wife, you are busy first, I won't bother you, remember to call me if you need it."

At the same time, the excited Mr. Quinton was thinking to Charlie Wade one by one. The person invited makes a call. Most of these people are his old acquaintances and old friends, so they are very easy to contact. They call one by one and tell everyone about the matter. Everyone is very excited.

Charlie Wade had only given medicine on a large scale once. That time, everyone received his favor and got a magic medicine in their eyes.

Chapter 2318

This time, Charlie Wade wanted to give medicine again, and they were naturally full of joy. Travis Lane in Lancaster, when he heard that Charlie Wade was going to treat him, he even asked Caleb, his friend from the Welfare Institute, to drive and drive him to Arouss Hilll overnight. Travis Lane also owns a lot of real estate in Arouss Hilll, so he plans to stay in Arouss Hilll overnight, so as not to delay his journey in case of an emergency tomorrow. The main reason for paying so much attention is that this opportunity is too rare in his eyes.

The only person who has not received Mr. Quinton's notification is Doris Young of the Emgrand Group. It wasn't that Mr. Quinton had forgotten her, mainly because Mr. Quinton did not have Doris Young's contact information.

Before Charlie Wade took over the Emgrand Group, Doris Young had been the vice chairman of the Emgrand Group. She is not the eldest lady of a big family, nor is she a wealthy and powerful second-generation rich, she is completely a very capable career woman who can climb up on her own. Therefore, she basically doesn't mix with the so-called high society like Arouss Hilll.

Like Cameron Isaac, Mr. White, Mr. Quinton and Jasmine, although she knew each other, she had never been familiar with them. People like Cameron Isaac and Mr. White had already formed a small circle around Charlie Wade by their side. People in this small circle all have a very good relationship with Charlie Wade, and they know Charlie Wade's abilities very well, so they regard Charlie Wade as a standard and treat him respectfully.

So, Mr. Quinton called Charlie Wade and respectfully said: "Master Wade, everyone is almost ready for everyone. Time is ok, but only Doris Young, this person has been very low-key, and I have never had her contact information. , Do you think it is not convenient for you to give me her phone number?"

Charlie Wade said: "Forget it, let me call her directly." After Mr. Quinton's phone was hung up, Charlie Wade called Doris Young.

As soon as the phone call, Doris Young asked respectfully on the other side: "Chairman, what do you want?"

Charlie Wade couldn't help but frowned. Normally, Doris Young would call him Young Master in private. Now it's off work, why would she still call her? Have you started your own chairman? Is it not convenient for her to speak now?

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade said very politely: "Ms. Young, I want to ask if you have time tomorrow night? I have a meal and want to invite you to come over."

Doris Young hesitated for a moment, and said a little apologetically: "Chairman Wade, I'm really sorry, I'm not sure about the time yet, can I reply to you tomorrow?"

Charlie Wade was puzzled, and asked, "Ms. Young, have you encountered anything?"

Doris Young said unnaturally: "Nothing chairman, I am home with guests to entertain, so"

Charlie Wade smiled: "OK, then touch it again tomorrow, it does not matter if you is not convenient, we can take a rain check for another time"

Chapter 2319

At this moment, the inpatient department of Aurouss Hilll People's Hospital. As the best general hospital in Aurouss Hilll and even in the province, it is overcrowded at any time. No matter which department, the bed is not empty. Not only is there a lot of people living here, but many patients also line up at home waiting for hospital beds for treatment.

In the intensive care unit of the Department of Nephrology, lying on the bed is a man who is unconscious and full of tubes. He is about 50 years old. On the side of the hospital bed, there was also a middle-aged woman of the same age sitting. The appearance of this woman was five points similar to Doris Young.

The outside of the intensive care room is a small living room and family rest area. After all, it is the intensive care room with the best conditions. The internal layout is very similar to that of a hotel suite.

At this moment, two young men, one man and one woman, were standing in the meeting room. The woman is Doris Young, the vice chairman of the Emgrand Group, and across from her is a blond white man with a hooked nose.

As soon as Doris Young hung up Charlie Wade's phone, the man with a hooked nose spoke to Doris Young with a not-so-standard Mandarin, and said to Doris Young with a smile: "Ms. Young, I think my uncle's condition will not be delayed for too long, The law also explicitly prohibits the sale of organs. Now, no one except me can find a suitable match for my uncle."

Doris Young looked at him and pleaded, "Walter, I beg you for the sake of classmates. Let me take a line. How much does the kidney source you contact in the United States need. I will double the amount, and the extra will be used as your introduction fee, okay?"

The man called Walter sneered: "Ms. Young, you I don't think I've worked so hard just to make you a difference?" He said, he said very seriously: "Ms. Young, I actually liked you when I was a classmate, but at that time, I hadn't been financially independent and have not taken over family affairs. My family does not allow me to find a foreign woman, and I dare not pursue you under their noses..."

Speaking of this, he laughed and said triumphantly: "Hahaha, but now I am married and I have just been sent to China to take charge of China's business, they can no longer control me!"

"And, the family this time The determination to enter the China market is great. I may stay in China for at least ten years..."

Doris Young frowned and asked him, "Walter, what do you want to say?"

Walter covered his chest, pretending to be With a heartbroken expression, he said, "Ms. Young, if I can't get you in the next ten years, how lonely I should be..."

Doris Young said coldly, "Walter! It's just for everyone. For good reason, I beg you to show respect!"

Walter smiled lightly and said, "Excuse me, I just like to go straight!"

Chapter 2320

"Ms. Young, as long as you are willing to leave the Emgrand Group, join my company, and be my vice chairman and lover, then I will immediately let someone use my private jet to send you the kidney source. You promised me today, uncle You can get a new kidney tomorrow. What do you think?"

"You are shameless!" Doris Young gritted his teeth and said angrily: "Walter, what is the difference between you and taking advantage of the fire?! And you are already married and have children. Are you worthy of your wife and children by doing this?"

Walter pouted his lips and said indifferently: "For people like me, marriage is only to fulfill the family mission. I will marry whoever the family asks me to marry, as long as I marry them. The women who let me marry, they won't interfere in my private life anymore." After that, he smiled indifferently: "As for children, it doesn't matter. They are still young. When they grow up, I will also make them realize that money is more important than anything. Then, they will understand who I am now." As soon as the voice fell, Walter remembered something, and said hurriedly: "Oh yes, if you did mine My lover also wants to give birth for me. After all, I don't usually like any contraceptive measures. In addition, I have always wanted a mixed-race child. Unfortunately, the family tradition has always required pure blood, which is really troublesome... .." At this point, Walter laughed and said triumphantly: "But, if they are illegitimate children and don't involve inheritance, they will just open one eye and close one eye and won't pursue too much. "

Doris Young roared angrily: "Walter, I really didn't expect you to be such a shamelessly dressed beast!"

Walter laughed and said, "Ms. Young, everyone is an adult, so shame is a shit?" Look at those people who are full of benevolence and morality every day, who is not a full-bellied male thieves and female prostitutes?"

"If you follow me and come to work in my company, use the real estate experience you have accumulated in the Emgrand Group and the confidential information in the Emgrand Group. , To help me expand the China market, then I will give you double the salary of Emgrand Group, and give you an extra 5 million bonus each year!"

"In this way, your annual income is 10 to 20 million!"

"If you can help me secretly hollow out the Emgrand Group's industry and let me annex the Emgrand Group at a price of less than 50 billion, then I will give you 100 million at a time!"

"There is even better, when the time comes, our two offices will only be separated by a wall, and then we can quietly open the two rooms, make a secret door, and then outside the secret door. Make a set of cabinets and you can go to the other party's office without knowing it!"

"In this way, I can sneak into your office at any time during working hours and spend time with you. What a perfect thing? You? Don't you be excited?"

Doris Young stepped back, bypassing Walter, walked to the door of the room and opened the door, and scolded: "Walter, I don't want to see you, please get out of here!!!"

Walter sneered: "Ms. Young, You let me roll, I can roll at any time, but your father, it seems that you can't hold on for too long, so I advise you to consider my conditions."

Doris Young gritted his teeth and said, "I won't think about it! You don't want to. I'm daydreaming here! Get out, or I'll call the police now!"

Walter spread his hands and said, "OK, ok, don't be so excited, although your father's condition is very serious, but you There should be another month to think about it. I have been in Aurouss Hilll recently. If you figure it out, you can contact me at any time!"

After speaking, he tidyed up the collar of his suit and blinked provocatively at Doris Young. Smiled and said, "My dear, then I will leave first."

Chapter 2321

Watching his leaving back, Doris Young shivered in anger, and tears burst into her eyes instantly. Two years ago, Doris Young's father had severe nephritis. Because he had rh-negative blood, it has been difficult to find a suitable kidney source. At that time, Doris Young did the matching by herself, but failed to match it.

Later, it was also lucky. The relatives in her family found a successful match in Southeast Asia, and the other party was also willing to donate a donor for compensation. Subsequently, Doris Young spent one million to solve the kidney problem for her father. I thought that after finding the source of the kidneys, as long as he took good care of him, he could extend his father's life cycle for at least 20 to 30 years.

But she never dreamed that after only two years, a severe rejection reaction occurred in the kidney of her father's transplantation, and her kidney function declined sharply. People were fine before the New Year, and after the New Year, they were admitted to the hospital because of acute kidney failure.

Doctors can't find out the cause of kidney failure, and this kind of kidney failure is completely irreversible. The only way is to find a new source of kidney and perform another transplant as soon as possible.

In a hurry, Doris Young raised the price to five million, but even if the money was high, she still couldn't find a suitable kidney source in a short time.

Walter, a classmate of Doris Young studying abroad at the time, knew about this from nowhere, and then he was very enthusiastic to help her contact the kidney source from the black market in the United States.

Walter came over today to tell Doris Young that the source of the kidney had been found, and that he was still a donor, and he was a very young and strong guy. But before Doris Young was happy about this incident, Walter immediately revealed himself and made a series of extremely excessive demands.

Thinking of this, Doris Young was extremely depressed. She also knew that it was almost impossible to find a suitable kidney source in such a short time.. At this moment, she couldn't help thinking of the scene when she had attended Jasmine's birthday party.

Charlie Wade took out a rejuvenating pill at the time and was bought by Travis Lane at a sky-high price of 2 billion. It is said that that pill not only cures all diseases, but also turns decay into a miracle. It is a pity that the price of 2 billion is definitely not something that Doris Young can get...

Although her income is not low, she has always been a senior worker after all, and all her net worth is less than 100 million. How dare you expect to be able to afford a two billion pill?

Chapter 2322

At this time, the inner door was gently pushed open.

The middle-aged woman came out and asked her, "Ms. Young, that Walter is gone?"

This woman is Doris Young's mother, Sydney Young.

Doris Young hurriedly wiped away her tears, turned to look at the woman, nodded and said, "Yes, mom, he's gone."

After that, she hurriedly asked, "Mom, how is Dad?"

Sydney sighed. Tone: "It's still like that still. He didn't wake up."

She said, seeing Doris Young just cried, she hurried forward and asked concerned: "Doris, why are you crying? What did Walter tell you? He didn't say anything. Have you found the source of the kidney for your dad? What do you say later?"

Doris Young sighed and whispered: "The source of the kidney was found, but what he meant was to let me work for him and also Be his lover"

"What?!" Sydney suddenly widened his eyes and blurted out: "Isn't this man your old classmate? How could he be so shameless?!"

Doris Young said helplessly, "I didn't expect. A few years after graduation, he became like this."

Sydney hurriedly said: "Can we give him more money? If the kidney source is 2 million, we will give him 4 million, or 6 million, as long as he can Help find the source of the kidney and ensure that your father can transplant it in time. Even if we sell iron, we are willing!"

Doris Young shook his head and said seriously: "This Walter's father is a well-known real estate tycoon in the United States. The family strength is very strong. What about the assets? It's worth tens of billions of dollars. How can he be worthy of our money."

Sydney burst into tears and said helplessly, "What should I do? Your dad's rh-negative blood is what it is. There is only one in 100,000 people. It is very difficult to find someone with the same blood type as him. It is even more difficult to find someone with the same blood type as him, with a successful organ match, and the other party willing to donate it."

As she said, she sighed and cried, "The doctor said that the doctor said that your father's current condition can last up to three months. If he can't find the kidney source, then nothing can save him!"

Doris Young expression Nodded painfully, and said, "Mom, don't cry first, and give me some time to find the source of the kidney."

Sydney couldn't hide his anxiety and sobbed: "The doctor said, your father's physical condition, at best, you can wait. Twenty days or thirty days if the source of the kidney cannot be resolved, even if the source of the kidney is found by then, his physical condition will not be able to undergo surgery."

Doris Young nodded and said seriously: "You can rest assured, I will do my best. Going to find a way."

Sydney nodded slightly, her whole body crying.

Doris Young whispered at this time: "Mom, you will be here for a while, and I will go out to breathe."

"Okay, you go"

Doris Young came out of the ward and went directly to the courtyard below the inpatient department of the hospital. It was already night, the weather was relatively cold, and there were few people in the yard.

Chapter 2323

She took out a pack of ladies' cigarettes from her pocket, took one out and put it in her mouth, and then took out a lighter, and pressed it a few times anxiously, then the flame came out and the smoke was lit. Against the flames, her face was very drawn.

The cigarette was ignited, and Doris Young's lips lightly bit the butt of the cigarette and took a hard sip. It was quiet around her, and she could even hear the peculiar sound of tobacco being lit.

Doris Young rarely smokes and doesn't like to smoke, but because she has been very hard at work, she is often over-tired and over-upset. At this time, smoking a cigarette can bring her some relief. Smoke sprayed from her exquisite breath, feeling the stimulation of nicotine in the brain, Doris Young involuntarily shed two lines of tears.

In her mind, her mother's words repeated. The window period for my father to do an organ transplant is only 20 days. If no suitable kidney source is found in these twenty days, the father's physical function will enter the end of decline.

In that case, his body will be so weak that he can't even support the anaesthetic drugs for the operation, let alone undergoing a major operation of an organ transplant, which is very similar to some elderly patients with terminal cancer.

In summary: the body is very weak and the condition is very serious. surgery? The body can't hold it; chemotherapy? The body can't hold it either. In the end, there is no alternative but palliative care. To put it bluntly, it means to give up treatment and use painkillers to help patients relieve pain in the last stage of life.

Doris Young's father was only in his fifties. For Doris Young, she couldn't accept that her father had passed away at such a young age. However, the chance of trying to save her father right now is so slim that it makes people desperate.

The cigarette burned out, she unconsciously lit another one, and in her mind, she remembered Walter's words. At the same time, a multiple choice question popped out subconsciously in her heart. There are two options for this multiple choice question.

Option a: promise Walter and change her father's chance to survive;

Option b: reject Walter and watch her father pass away.

Chapter 2324

Doris Young felt extremely painful, because this was the cruelest multiple choice question she had faced in her more than 20 years of life. At the same time, Walter was sitting in a Rolls Royce and just drove out of the People's Hospital.

Walter's full name is Walter Horowitz, an American, and his family is also a well-known real estate developer in the United States. He had been classmates with Doris Young in the early years and had always had a good impression of Doris Young.

But because Walt was still under the nose of his family at the time, he didn't dare to pursue an Asian woman grandiosely. However, the current Walter and the student Walter have changed drastically.

He now has sufficient resources and initiative in his family, and now he has made his business in China, and has begun to enter China's real estate field, so he immediately began to release himself.

The first thing to release myself is to conquer Doris Young, his old classmate again. This is not only because he has always thought about Doris Young. More importantly, Doris Young has made great contributions to the Emgrand Group in recent years, and her personal ability is highly recognized by the entire real estate field.

She is not only capable but also very familiar with China Real Estate industry. For a new American entrepreneur like Walter, if she can be used for her own use, it will not only be an excellent help, but will also save many detours. In addition, Doris Young also has a great value, that is, she knows all the confidential information of the Emgrand Group.

The real estate industry seems to be building and selling buildings. It does not develop any high-tech technologies or produce sophisticated equipment. It does not seem to have much technical content or too much confidential information.

But in fact, the real estate industry has more confidential information than most industries! Because they are very close to the relevant departments, large real estate companies often master the direction of urban planning and development to a certain extent. For example, a certain piece of land may be planned for development in the future, and a certain area may cover rail transit in the future. These are all confidential information worth 10,000 gold.

In addition, every piece of land and every project must be tendered. The base of the bidding is the absolute core secret. If it is leaked, it will bring huge losses to the company. Therefore, Walter's wishful thinking is to be able to put Doris Young in his bag, and then digest the confidential information of the Emgrand Group she holds. Immediately afterwards, the Emgrand Group was hollowed out in a targeted and step-by-step manner, and finally seized the entire Aurouss Hillll market.

At this moment, Walter looked at Doris Young's photo on the phone with a playful look, and said something in his mouth: "Doris Young, this time, I must completely and thoroughly conquer you!"

Chapter 2325

The next day, Charlie Wade went out and bought a few red sandalwood jewelry boxes to hold the pill that he was going to give to everyone at night. After all, it is a life-saving medicine in the eyes of everyone, and it has to be more or less matched with a decent packaging.

On the way home after buying the jewelry box, Charlie Wade received a call from Cameron Isaac. As soon as the call was connected, Cameron Isaac was very excited and said: "Master! The case of illegal fund-raising by the old house owner was sentenced this morning!"

"Oh?" Charlie Wade asked hurriedly, "What?"

Cameron Isaac hurriedly said : "That's right, the man was sentenced to life imprisonment and all his assets were confiscated to repay the defendant's arrears. Therefore, all assets under his name will now enter the judicial auction process, including the old house you have been following. "

Very good!" Charlie Wade immediately said: "Isaac, help me put the name on it, I want to participate!" Cameron Isaac said: "Master, don't worry, I have already signed up as a driver of mine. After all, the house was where you and your parents once lived. If your name appears in the bidder list again, I am afraid that someone will figure out your identity, so I will make a good claim. Please don't blame it!"

Charlie Wade I sighed with emotion: "I don't think about this. Then take your driver's name to participate in the auction. In any case, you must take the photo of the house."

Cameron Isaac laughed and said, "You can rest assured, the old house, master. It has been included in the scope of protected buildings that are prohibited from demolition and has almost no circulation value, so the starting price is only 880,000. I don't think anyone will grab it from you. Even if it does, the price will be two or three million. At that time, it is estimated that it can be won steadily."

"Okay." Charlie Wade relaxed and asked him: "When will the auction start?" Cameron Isaac replied, "It is temporarily set at 10 o'clock in the morning next Monday."

Charlie Wade asked again: "Should I go to the court to participate in the auction or online?"

Cameron Isaac explained: "Now judicial auctions are basically conducted online, open and transparent. I have already signed up and paid the bid deposit. I will start bidding on the judicial auction website at 10 o'clock next Monday morning. . "

"good! "Charlie Wade smiled and praised:" Isaac, you do it well, it is tough. "

Cameron Isaac busy:." Master very nice of you, these little things are the little things, "

Charlie Wade Sighed: "For you, it's a simple effort, but for me, it means too much."

After that, Charlie Wade couldn't help but feel melancholy. Although his parents have passed away for nearly twenty years, Charlie Wade still feels heartache every time he thinks of it.

At the same time, the Thorne Family residence.

Deana, who had been thinking about Bruce's old house, also learned from the old housekeeper that the house was about to be auctioned.

She excitedly said to the old housekeeper on the spot: "Uncle White, please help me sign up, I want to participate in this auction!" The old housekeeper nodded and said, "Okay, second lady, I will arrange for someone to help you.

Sign up." Deana said: "Then I will work hard for Uncle White to help me solve these problems. I'll go back to my room and make a call." The old butler said: "Good second lady."

Deana walked back to his room and took out her mobile phone. Hit Zayne. She knew that Zayne had gone to Australia, but she had not contacted Zayne for these two days. Zayne was extremely depressed because of his mood, and because he felt dull, he did not take the initiative to contact Deana and his pair of children. At this time, Zayne was sitting at the door of the villa, on the edge of the cliff next to the sea, staring at the sea below in a daze.

Chapter 2326

In the past few days when Zayne came to Australia, he has been in a low mood, not only because his wife Deana wanted to divorce him, but also because after the scandal was exposed, his image in everyone's mind was subverted. The evaluation of him by the outside world is simply the worst man in China in recent years, not one of them.

Because, not only did he mess around outside with his wife behind his back, he made an illegitimate daughter. He also disguised the illegitimate daughter as a bodyguard to take home and received his wife and children under the nose; even more exaggerated, he also directed his illegitimate daughter to commit a felony overseas! This is not over yet.

The thing that outsiders spurned the most was that in order to avoid the exposure of the scandal, he even joined forces with the Japanese Self-Defense Force to kill his own daughter. what is this?

This is a beast who derails in marriage, hides everything from everyone, uses the illegitimate daughter as a tool of killing, and kills his daughter for his own benefit. It can even be said that once a person gathers so many evils in one, he may not even be able to compare with a beast. That is not as good as a beast!

Although Zayne knew that all of this was the charge that the old man Lord Banks forcibly threw himself at him for dumping the pot. But he also knew very well that once these charges were deducted on his own head, he could not get rid of it. Every time he thought of this, Zayne gritted his teeth with hatred. Because he even had a hunch that he might not be able to get rid of these infamy for the rest of his life.

Zayne is indeed not a man of fame, but what he is most worried about is whether he will have the chance to inherit the Banks Family once he has these infamy. After all, he can break the jar and don't care about infamy, but the Banks Family can't. In the future, when the old man transfers power, he will feel that his reputation is too bad, and refuse to give himself the supreme power of the Banks Family. In that case, half of my life's hard work would have been completely beaten. Thinking of this, Zayne gritted his teeth!

"Why?! Why do the old things make things happen on their own to make me back?! Why do the old things make my daughter unaccounted for, life and death, but ruined me!"

He couldn't help but insult me. Picked up a bottle of vodka next to him and drank more than half, and suddenly threw it into the rolling sea below.

At this moment, the phone rang suddenly.

The name on the phone screen made him startled.

"Wife?" Zayne was puzzled, then quickly grabbed the phone, pressed the answer, and blurted out: "Wife! You are finally willing to call me!"

Deana said flatly on the other side of the phone, "Zayne" , I called to talk about divorce. You are now in Australia, and you won't be able to come back for a while. How about you entrust a lawyer to help you with the relevant procedures."

Zayne did not expect, Deana called The purpose of coming was to communicate with myself about divorce, and the whole person immediately felt a burst of anger from the heart.

He couldn't help but said coldly: "Deana, as long as we have not divorced, we are still married. You ran to Aurouss Hilll without my consent during the life of the relationship. I didn't stop you or blame you for this. It's enough to give you face."

"But when you were in Aurouss Hilll, it was a bit too much to call me about divorce? Don't you really care about our love for more than 20 years of marriage? ?!"

Chapter 2327

Deana listened to Zayne's accusation, not angry, but said indifferently: "Zayne, if you have self-knowledge, you should know that you are standing in a moral depression right now, if you still have to forcefully seize the moral high ground at this time , Then it's really disappointing."

After speaking, Deana said again: "The thing of love is not to fight for by mouth, but to be maintained by practical actions. I just filed a divorce with you, you I feel that I don't care about love, but your children outside are in their twenties. You have kept this from me for so many years. In the past so many years, have you ever thought about our relationship between husband and wife?"

Zayne Hearing this, the whole person suddenly fell into a despair.

"Yes, now accusing Deana of not being affectionate is almost equivalent to slapping myself in the face. After all, I am the one who really did the wrong thing, and I was wrong for more than 20 years."

He didn't know how to answer Deana. At that time, Deana sighed slightly: "Hey, let's not talk about this, I will call you, just to get the divorce as soon as possible, because I want to settle in Aurouss Hilll in the future, even if I don't do so, at least I will live in Aurouss Hilll. Last time, so divorce as soon as possible, it is also for you to consider, so as not to let others gossiping about you."

Deana did not say too clearly, but Zayne has already gotten the cryptic meaning of her words.

What Deana meant was that she wanted to stay and settle in Aurouss Hilll, and if the people of Eastcliff's big family knew about this, everyone could guess why she stayed in Aurouss Hilll. To put it bluntly, it was for Bruce.

If Deana and Zayne still have a husband-and-wife relationship, then the fact that Deana settled in Aurouss Hilll for Bruce would indeed affect Zayne's face to a certain extent. But if the marriage is divorced, for Zayne, he can retain a bit of face. Zayne was very angry, but couldn't say anything to blame or object. He has clearly realized in his heart that he no longer has any possibility to redeem Deana, this woman is already determined to divorce himself

Thinking of this, he hated Bruce even more.

"Bruce, that son of a bitch, really still haunts me!"

"He's dead for so many years, still has a profound impact on Deana."

"In the In Deana's eyes, this guy who has been dead for more than 20 years is much more important than me!"

Deana on the other end of the phone didn't hear Zayne's response for a long time, so he continued to speak: "After all, it's still a couple It's good to get together and stay away."

Zayne was silent for a moment, and took a deep breath: "Hey, you said, after all, it's a couple, and they have been a couple for so many years. Let me consider this matter."

Deana He said, "Call me whenever you think about it. All departments in Eastcliff are related. It is not necessary for both of us to go to the divorce. As long as we coordinate, we will send a lawyer to deal with this matter. The matter is done."

"Okay." Zayne said: "Think about it, and I will contact you as soon as possible."

"Okay, let's do this first."

In the afternoon, Charlie Wade had lunch at home and prepared to take it with him. The pill that I refined went out. Because he agreed to Aurora, he would come to her home to give her some guidance, so Charlie Wade vacated the afternoon time in advance.

In order to carry the medicine, he said to his father-in-law Jacob Wilson: "Dad, do you have any plans for the afternoon?"

Jacob Wilson smiled and said, "I still go to the Calligraphy and Painting Association in the afternoon. In the evening, we have a conversation with the executives of Sotheby's Auction House. A meal."

Chapter 2328

Charlie Wade nodded and said: "Then you must drink a bar tonight?"

"Yes." Jacob Wilson smiled: "You have to drink a little bit, what's the matter?"

Charlie Wade said: "Oh yes, I There is something in the afternoon. If it's convenient for you, Dad, let me drive the car in the afternoon."

Jacob Wilson handed the car key to Charlie Wade without hesitation, and said, "What's inconvenient, you can take it and drive." , It happens that I have to drink at night, and if I drive, I have to find a driver. It is much more convenient to take a taxi."

Charlie Wade nodded and took the car key.

Claire Wilson Wilson on the side said in a convenient way: "Dad, at that moment I will go to the company, so I just drop by to send you to the Calligraphy and Painting Association." Jacob Wilson smiled and said, "Okay, this saves a taxi fare ." Waiting for Jacob Wilson and Claire Wilson Wilson After the father and daughter left, Charlie Wade took the medicine out of the room, put it in an inconspicuous backpack, and left the house.

He got into Jacob Wilson's car and went straight to Mr. Quinton's villa in the suburbs.

At the same time, at Arouss Hillll People's Hospital, Doris Young went to the office of the director of nephrology immediately after serving her mother to the Arouss Hillll People's Hospital and asked about her father's current condition.

Director Bob Kelso of the Department of Nephrology, who is over 60 years old, pushed his glasses and said seriously: "Ms. Young, let's tell you, your father's condition is very serious now, and the kidney in his body is now completely useless.

"We now have him undergoing peritoneal dialysis every day and hemodialysis every other day, and his complications are getting more and more serious."

"I went to check up this morning and found that his condition today is compared to yesterday. , and down a lot, "

" yesterday I even told your mother to communicate, said there are about twenty days transplant window, but then evaluate again today, the situation is not optimistic, I personally feel that this period may be shortened to ten About five days."

Having said this, Director Kelso sighed and said helplessly: "There are still fifteen days left for the transplant window. Excluding the preoperative preparation time, you have up to twelve days to find the kidney source. If you can't find it, then There's really no way."

Doris Young's tears, suddenly uncontrollable, burst into her eyes.

She quickly wiped away the tears, and asked anxiously, "Dr. Kelso, how could my father's situation have fallen so badly? His current kidney has just been transplanted for two years. You did the transplant for him at the beginning. He said that his life will not be in danger for at least ten years, but it has only been two years later."

Director Kelso said helplessly: "This situation is indeed far beyond my estimation, and I don't understand why he did this. A kidney failure process will develop so quickly. I also tried to find out if he swallowed any toxic substances, but I haven't found any clues."

Doris Young asked: "Director Kelso, what toxic substances will make people Does my kidney fail quickly?"

Director Kelso nodded, and said, "Some Chinese herbal medicines have relatively strong nephrotoxicity. For example, Aristolochia is one of them. The country has long removed this medicine from the Chinese Medicine Code, but there are still some Unscrupulous Chinese medicine practitioners secretly add aristolochia to their prescriptions in order to give patients quick results, which will eventually lead to severe kidney damage."

Director Kelso sighed and said: "Buy health care products indiscriminately and take care of planting herbs. Drugs and rumors about health preservation are also a major cause of kidney failure in middle-aged and elderly people in recent years."

"Moreover, these middle-aged and elderly people are easily fooled by unscrupulous TV advertisements, mobile phone advertisements, and so-called health masters.

Distinguishing ability." "There is a director of thoracic surgery in our hospital. His father has never looked down upon him as a Western medicine student, and he does not know how to distinguish between good Chinese medicine and bad Chinese medicine. He blindly believes in the health programs on TV every day." He felt like he had frequent urination. According to the content of the health program, he prepared a pair of Chinese medicine for himself, boiled three bowls every day, secretly drank it, and after drinking it for three days, he was sent to the hospital with acute kidney failure."

"If you haven't survived forty-eight hours in the hospital, the people will be gone."

Chapter 2329

Doris Young listened to the case described by Dr. Kelso, carefully recalled for a long time, and said: "Dr. Kelso, before and after my father's illness, I did not see him taking any unknown drugs, nor did I see him taking them. It's even less likely to come into contact with aristolochia if you cook Chinese medicine yourself."

Doris Young added, "After the last kidney transplantation, he was in good health overall and had mild diabetes, so he has been taking it. Metformin sustained-release tablets, but this drug is very safe for the kidneys and is unlikely to cause acute renal failure."

Dr. Kelso nodded and said: "The aristolochia I just mentioned is just an example for you, but it can The ingredients that cause acute renal failure are far more than aristolochia, and there are many chemicals and organic compounds that have great nephrotoxicity."

Doris Young asked, "Dr. Kelso, is there any way? Find out, what exactly is the cause of my father's acute renal failure?"

Dr. Kelso said: "I have sent your father's blood and urine to the laboratory for examination, but this series of tests is very troublesome. For a while, I am afraid that it will be difficult to find a clear result."

After speaking, he said: "Ms. Young, the top priority now is not to find out the cause of your father's kidney failure, but to solve the problem of the kidney source as soon as possible. That's the most important thing!"

Doris Young sighed very helplessly, and said dejectedly: "I have raised the price to 10 million dollars this morning, but my father is bad so in your opinion, the only solution now is The way is to find the source of the kidney.

Besides that, there is no other way to get out of Dr. Kelso's office, and Doris Young walks to the ward in a desperate manner . She really did not expect that her father's condition had already deteriorated to such an extent. It will accelerate again. The twenty-day window period suddenly became fifteen days.

I don't know yet. Tomorrow and the day after tomorrow, this window period will continue to shorten. Just a few meters away, she suddenly received a call from Charlie Wade.

At this moment, Charlie Wade was on the way to Mr. Quinton's house, remembering that Doris Young had not given him a definite answer, so he called her to ask if she had time at night.

Chapter 2330

As soon as Charlie Wade calls, Doris Young respectfully said: "Master, what do you have to order?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "There is nothing to order, just what I said yesterday. Are you free tonight? If you have time, come to Quinton. The main family gathered together. During the New Year, you all came to see me at home, but from the New Year to the present, I have never had a meal together. It is unfortunate."

Doris Young smiled reluctantly and said, "Master, What are you doing so politely with me"

Charlie Wade said with a smile: "Hum, this is not a question of politeness, but a polite exchange! I have prepared a small gift for everyone, not worth much, just a small Be careful, if you have time, come and sit down. If you don't have time, it's okay. I will send you the gift later."

Upon hearing this, Doris Young hurriedly said, "Master! How can you condescend to give it to me? something so be it, you give me a time and place, I certainly last night "

Charlie Wade said:" well, I put the time and place for a micro letter to you. "

Doris, Somewhat embarrassingly said: "Master, I may not be able to stay too long at night, and I may have to leave early at that time. Please forgive me!"

Charlie Wade said indifferently, "It's okay. Time arrangement, don't delay your own affairs."

Doris Young breathed a sigh of relief. In fact, with her current whole person state, she is not interested in any meal. After all, her father was dying in the hospital bed. At this time, let alone rushing to the dinner, even eating, in Doris Young's opinion, has lost the necessity.

From last night to now, apart from drinking a few sips of water, she didn't drop the rice, but she still didn't feel any hunger. However, Charlie Wade was her boss after all, and he was so kindly inviting, which made Doris Young feel that it was a bit unsuitable not to go, so she decided to sit there at night. After making a decision, she put the phone back in her pocket, and walked back.

Returning to the door of the ward, she heard the whispering sound of sobbing from the ward. Doris Young's heart was tight and hurriedly pushed the door in. She saw her mother sitting on the sofa crying bitterly in the small living room outside the suite ward. Walter, her college classmate, stood in front of her mother with a smile on his face.

At this moment, Doris Young broke out in an instant, and she angrily rebuked: "Walter! Who asked you to come?! What did you tell my mother?!"

Walter turned around to see Doris Young coming back, smiled slightly, and said, "Ms. Young, I am here. I want to tell my aunt that there has been a slight change in the kidney source in the United States."

He said, before Doris Young asked, he sighed: "Hey! Ms. Young, rh negative blood is too rare, rh negative The kidney source of this kidney is even rarer. This kidney source is now being competed by a French patient. The price paid by the French is also very high. In addition, I have not confirmed with the donor for a long time. The side is already a bit swaying."

Doris Young frowned and asked coldly: "What do you mean?"

Walter laughed: "I mean very simple Ms. Young! This kidney source can be said to be one in a million, and this The owner of the kidney source is willing to sell a kidney in exchange for cash, so as long as you agree to my terms, I can let him undergo a kidney removal operation in the United States today, and then order someone to freeze the kidney and transport it to China, and he can give it tomorrow. "You dad can have the transplant but.."

Walter smacked his lips: "Tsk, tusk, but if you don't agree, then the donor will probably be sold to the French. You know, people have only two kidneys and want to live. If he sells one of his kidneys to the French, he will never sell another kidney to me!"

"So, you must carefully consider my conditions, because if he wants to sell one of the kidneys to the French, Time for you is running out!"

Chapter 2331

Walter's words made Doris Young's heart suddenly tense, and the intense pressure made her feel as though she was about to suffocate.

Although she dislikes or even hates Walter's proposal to herself, she also knows very well in her heart that the kidney source that Walter found in the United States is the only kidney source she knows so far that can match her father. There is nothing else.

If this kidney source is really bought by others, then I will completely lose all hope. Doris Young studied in the United States that year, so she is very clear about the situation in the United States. Compared with China, the overall rule of law in the United States is relatively loose. Not only is there a flood of guns and drugs, but even the trade of human organs is unregulated.

If a person wants to sell his kidney, even in a pet hospital in the United States, he can complete the operation of kidney removal, everything is very easy. This also means that if the donor finds a suitable seller, he can almost sell the kidney in one meal. Once the kidney is removed, it will be shipped to the buyer in the fastest way. In that case, she would have no chance again...

However, Doris Young still couldn't make a decision in her heart. After all, the price of wanting to keep this kidney source for his father is too great. Even so big that you need to sacrifice everything yourself. Your own chastity, your own career, your own morals, and even your life.

Seeing her struggling expression, Walter smiled deliberately and said seriously: "Ms. Young, since you are so difficult to make a decision, then forget it. Don't embarrass yourself anymore. I will tell the other party that I don't want this kidney. Now, let him sell it to the French, so that it saves you from being so entangled and sad, what do you say?"

As soon as the voice fell, Walter had already taken out his mobile phone.

Doris Young almost subconsciously blurted out: "No! Walter! No!"

Walter asked with a smile: "What? You changed your mind?"

After that, Walter continued with a serious face: "Ms. Young, I actually gave it to you. The conditions are really good. You don't have to resist so much. Give me your ten years of youth, and the reward I give you is something you won't be able to earn in 20 or even 30 years, and you will not be able to earn it back in ten years

I'm only in my 30s, and there is a chance to start your life again with a lot of cash." "As for the children you gave me in these ten years, if you think they will become your burden in the future, then I can bring them all back to the United States to raise them."

"In this case, you will be a single woman worth hundreds of millions or even billions in ten years!"

"In the words of your Chinese, you are a typical diamond elder."

"At that time, countless young and handsome little men in their early 20s will kneel and lick around you like a dog. Is there anything more wonderful in life than this?"

Doris Young said blankly. The mother who didn't send it, and hiding her face and crying bitterly on the sofa, was already unbearable, covering her ears with her hands.

She wanted to drive Walter out, or even fight, but she had the same concerns as Doris Young.

It was very easy to drive Walter out, but that was tantamount to closing the door for Doris Young's father to survive.

Using the life of the other's relatives as a threat, Walter can be said to have achieved the ultimate.

Chapter 2332

Doris Young was silent for a long time and said: "Walter, if I promise to be your lover and go to work in your company, can you promise me not to force me to disclose any Emgrand Group's trade secrets?"

Walter heard this. Then, I could not help but frown, and asked, "You are only a professional manager in the Emgrand Group. Why should you be so loyal to this company?"

Doris Young said seriously, "It is the bottom line of my professional ethics!"

Walter Sneered: "Ms. Young, your value to me has three aspects. The first aspect is your body; the second aspect is your ability; the third aspect is your value to the Emgrand Group. To master the core secrets, in my opinion, these three aspects are indispensable!"

Doris Young gritted his teeth and asked: "Does it have to be like this, Walter? I can promise you so many nasty terms, don't you have a little room for bargaining. Don't leave it to me?!"

Walter smiled: "There is no bargaining room, but the basic principles cannot be lost. For example, I insist that none of these three aspects are indispensable. We have some opinions on the details, but we can discuss it."

At this point, Walter smiled frivolously and said: "For example, I am a person who likes children very much, and I firmly believe that the Chinese people respect the four words Flourishing population, growing family. According to me You have been with me for ten years, and you will have at least five children for me, but if you think five children are too many, you can bargain with me. If you finally decide to have three for me, I think it is acceptable. This is the way I recognize the bargaining, do you understand?"

Doris Young immediately angrily rebuked: "Walter! You are simply a beast!"

Walter said with a smile: "Thanks for the praise, my father has been teaching me, man, you must have Animality!"

"He likes the famous saying of a science fiction author in China: For human beings, you lose a lot of humanity, but if you lose animality, you will lose everything!"

"The reason why humans can survive in such a cruel society and climb to the top of the food chain depends on animality!"

"Are cows and sheep cute? Cute, but humans have to kill them to fill their stomachs. Meat!"

"Are foxes and minks not cute? They are also cute, but in order to withstand the cold, humans have to peel off their skins and make clothes!"

"Humans like sashimi, so they take meat from living seafood!"

"Humans like foie gras, so they fill the stomachs of geese with food!"

"Humans hate mice, so they will kill them all!"

"Humans hate mosquitoes, so they invest huge amounts of money to develop a variety of effective mosquito poisons!"

"This is animal nature !" "To put it bluntly, all creatures with animal nature are beasts! All beasts!"

"So, to me, beasts do not mean anything to degrade, on the contrary, It is a kind of compliment to me!" As he said, he fixed his eyes on Doris Young, sneered, and said: "Ms. Young, for the sake of classmates, I will help you again!"

"I will do it later. Let me work in the United States and pay the kidney donor US$20,000 as a deposit, and let him keep the kidney for me for 24 hours!"

"This is the last 24 hours for you to make a decision!"

"After 24 hours, if you still don't accept my terms, then prepare a funeral for your father!"

"At that time, I will buy the best wreath in Aurous Hill and deliver it to the funeral home myself!"

Chapter 2333

After Walter said this, he turned and left the ward. Doris Young looked at the back of him leaving, her whole body trembling with anger.

Her mother Sydney walked forward with tears in her face, took her hand, choked up and said: "Doris, forget it, give up, mom really can't just watch you jump into Walter's fire pit."

Doris Young's eyes were sour, tears could not help but fall: "Mom, Dad doesn't have much time left now. If you can't get the kidney source, maybe within half a month,"

Sydney slapped her hand a few times. Although it was painful, she said resolutely. : "Your father and I have lived for more than 50 years. In the past 50 years, we have lived full, happy, and prosperous, and we are also very satisfied. If your father left like this, I would not have what a pity, after all, our mothers did their best."

Doris Young choked up: "Mom, you did your best, but I still don't have my father's life if I promise Walter. If I give up this time, it will be decades from now. Here, I may always live in guilt and cannot extricate myself. It is very likely that I will not forgive myself until I die."

Sydney asked her, "Doris, if you save your dad in this way, your dad will continue for decades, he may not be able to forgive himself! You save him and let him watch you live in dire straits and heat every day. For him, it may be more cruel than death."

Doris Young hesitated for a moment and sighed heavily. He sighed and said, "Hey mom, let me think about it again. There are still 24 hours, and I will consider it carefully."

Sydney wanted to say something, but she swallowed it to his lips.

At this time, she didn't want to lead Doris too much to make a decision. After all, no matter how to choose this kind of thing, it was full of pain.

When Charlie Wade came to Mr. Quinton's house, the other guests had not yet arrived.

The dinner time is seven o'clock in the afternoon. At this time, it is not less than two o'clock in the afternoon.

Charlie Wade drove to the villa, Mr. Quinton already took Aurora and Steven, waiting anxiously at the door.

Mr. Quinton was in a very good mood today, because Charlie Wade was not only planning to host a banquet at his house today, but also promised to give him a rejuvenating pill. Charlie Wade refined two kinds of pills this time.

One is the first that treated Jacob Wilson's disease and refined the healing pill. This kind of pill is relatively low-level, can cure all diseases and prolong the life of the patient to a certain extent, but it does not have the rejuvenating pill to make the body ten young The magical effect of a few twenty years old. The first he intends is to give back to everyone who comes to the banquet today a relief pill as a gift to them.

In addition, because Mr. Quinton asked Aurora to give him a top-quality purple ginseng that was more than four hundred years ago, so that he was able to make 30 rejuvenating pills, so he prepared and gave Mr. Quinton one extra. A rejuvenating pill.

Charlie Wade stopped the car, Mr. Quinton eagerly brought his daughter and nephew to greet him, and said respectfully: "Master Wade, you are here!"

Aurora also said very embarrassedly: "Aurora welcomes Master Wade!"

Steven also learned a lot, and said respectfully: "Steven welcomes Master Wade!"

Charlie Wade nodded lightly and said with a smile: "Ms. Quinton, today I chose to host a banquet in your house. It's really a lot to ask of you."

Mr. Quinton hurriedly said, "Master Wade, you are too polite! You can choose to come to Quinton's house to have a banquet. This is Quinton's blessing. If you can come, Quinton's house will be splendid!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly, waved his hand and said: "Okay, if you're polite, don't talk to business, let's talk first, and I plan to give Aurora some guidance in the afternoon."

Mr. Quinton immediately heard this. He turned away with a smile, respectfully made a gesture of invitation, and said sincerely: "Master Wade, please first!"

Charlie Wade once visited this villa of the Quinton family by the lake.

Chapter 2334

Aurora also drove a speedboat specially, and took him for a long swim on the lake.

But the weather right now is still cold, and the lakeside scenery is more or less depressed, not as lush and vibrant as when I came last time.

So Charlie Wade said to Mr. Quinton in passing: "Mr. Quinton, when this villa comes into the winter, the vitality is a little lacking. Don't look at the trees and grassland that are only temporarily withered, but in terms of Feng Shui, these must be regarded as dead objects. , So it's better not to live here before the beginning of the spring, it will have a little impact on your body and fortune."

Mr. Quinton heard this and immediately said: "Oh! Thank you Master Wade for reminding us. I'll move back to the city tomorrow!"

Aurora subconsciously said, "Dad! Or let's go to Thompson First to buy a villa! Not only is the place big, but we can also be neighbors with Master Wade!"

Mr. Quinton smacked and muttered "It's really a good idea, but when Thompson First's first-class villas were on sale, they were all sold out. I don't know if anyone will resell them. I'll let people know when I turn around!"

Aurora said with joy, " That's really great!" With that, Aurora looked at Charlie Wade, and asked with shame: "Master Wade, if we move to Thompson First, will we not bother you?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "How could it be? If you really moved in, it would be a good thing for everyone to be neighbors."

Mr. Quinton immediately relieved himself when he heard Charlie Wade's statement, and said with a smile: "Since Master Wade said so, then Quinton will have Pay attention to it!"

Aurora was naturally extremely happy in her heart.

In fact, she didn't want to live in such a remote mansion. The main reason for living here was that there was a very complete exercise room. No matter the size or facilities, it was no better than the professional exercise rooms in the city.

However, if there is a chance to be a neighbor with Charlie Wade in the future, it doesn't matter if there is no such a good practice room! While talking, Charlie Wade walked into the living room accompanied by three members of the Quinton family.

Mr. Quinton invited Charlie Wade to sit down on the sofa, and then personally brewed Master Wade a cup of fine Jinjunmei black tea.

"Master Wade, this Jin Junmei was specially found by someone from Juyi Mountain. The quality is excellent. Please have a taste."

Charlie Wade nodded, took a sip of tea, and said with a smile: "The fragrance is sweet, the entrance is sweet and smooth, and the lingering fragrance is lingering. It really is a good tea!"

Mr. Quinton said hurriedly: "Since Master Wade likes it, I will bring you two catties to taste later!"

Charlie Wade thought of Jacob Wilson's love to drink tea. So he was not very polite to reject, and said with a smile: "That sounds good to me."

In fact, the master of tea maker Jin Junmei found by Mr. Quinton had made ten jins of black tea last year.

Among them, Mr. Quinton bought two and a half catties at a high price, accounting for a quarter of the share.

Originally, this was Mr. Quinton's plan to keep as a ration for a whole year. Now he has drunk four taels, and there are still about two catties and one tael left, but when Charlie Wade liked it, he didn't hesitate to prepare to give them all.

Of course, Charlie Wade never took other people's things for nothing, put down the tea cup, and then reached out from the pocket of his coat and took out two small boxes of red sandalwood.

Mr. Quinton saw the two wooden boxes in Charlie Wade's hand. He was so nervous that he even stopped breathing.

He held his breath and looked forward to the contents of the two wooden boxes. He knew that with Charlie Wade's unique personality, the two wooden boxes, There must be one, pretending to be the rejuvenating pill that will let one's soul linger and dream of!

Chapter 2335

Under Mr. Quinton's gaze, Charlie Wade handed these two wooden boxes to him, and said: "Mr. Quinton, the two pills in there are my little care, the one on the right The one that is slightly larger and darker in color is the blood-dissipating heart-saving pill I gave you before; as for the smaller and brighter pill on the left, it is the newly refined rejuvenation pill."

Mr. Quinton's excited whole person couldn't add anything, and said tremblingly: "Master Wade how can I be worthy of letting you send me such a precious rejuvenation pill? It's too expensive to go to the market for auction, let alone sell for two or three billion, which is really too expensive."

Although Mr. Quinton is extremely looking forward to the Rejuvenation Pill, he also knows deep in his heart that the value of the Rejuvenation Pill is too high. The four-hundred-year-old purple ginseng that I did give to Charlie Wade is comparable.

Therefore, when Charlie Wade took out the Rejuvenation Pill, Mr. Quinton retreated from deep in his heart. This also reflects Mr. Quinton's character in some ways. If it is someone who only knows to take advantage, someone who gives such a valuable thing will naturally accept it without hesitation, so as not to regret it.

But if it is this kind of person who knows the courtesy, then he is receiving a gift from others. The precious thing is the first thought deep in his heart, how he should repay the favor.

The Quinton family is very rich, and their assets add up, but they are tens of billions.

Most of these are real estate, and the market value of the company, the real cash that can be freely disposed of is actually only a few hundred million. If Mr. Quinton is really going to spend two billion in cash to buy a rejuvenation pill, he will feel that he has more than enough energy and is not enough. Now, Charlie Wade gave him such an expensive pill, it was inevitable that he felt a little panic deep in his heart.

Seeing his tangled expression, Charlie Wade smiled slightly, and said: "Mr Quinton, how much money the rejuvenation pills can sell, is not something you need to care about, because I refine things like the rejuvenation pills, and they themselves It's not for making money."

"Since this time, I have also taken out a batch of rejuvenating pills, but you also know that the only one that was really sold was Travis Lane, and the rest were basically given to friends. , Or when a friend's accident happened."

Charlie Wade continued: "The most important medicinal material for refining the rejuvenating pill is the best purple ginseng that is more than 100 years old. You asked Aurora to send it last time. The quality of that top-quality purple ginseng is better than the one I took at the auction last time, so I will assume that you used that top-quality purple ginseng to buy a share."

Charlie Wade could not help but smile again. Said: "In that case, you can be regarded as one of the shareholders of this batch of Rejuvenation Pills. Now this Rejuvenation Pill is the return of your shareholding. Why are you embarrassed to take it?"

Mr. Quinton heard this. The depths of people's hearts have been touched and cannot be added.

He knew very well in his heart that the reason why Charlie Wade said this was to take into account his own feelings, so that he could accept this rejuvenation pill more comfortably.

Moreover, he also realized that after Charlie Wade finished saying this, he was not as entangled as before.

Of course, he is also very clear that the reason why Charlie Wade said that he was buying shares was to save his own face. He offered a purple ginseng by himself, but in fact, it was not about buying shares. You know, the price of such a premium purple ginseng is about four to five million.

Chapter 2336

The reason why the sky-high price of 100 million was sold at the auction last time was completely because Charlie Wade deliberately confronted Jack Yalman and forced the price up.

Even if it is really a shareholding, the cost of four or five million cannot be exchanged for a return of two or three billion. Therefore, in any case, Charlie Wade can give himself a rejuvenation pill, which is indeed a great favor.

Thinking of this, he immediately got up, stepped forward, fell to his knees, clasped his fists in his hands, respectfully said: "Master Wade's great kindness is unforgettable, please accept it next time!"

Charlie Wade single-handedly helped him up and said with a smile: "Take the pill and put it away quickly. Of all the people I invited today, you are the only one who has the Rejuvenation Pill, so please keep it secret for me. Don't let others know. , Otherwise I'm afraid that everyone will think too much."

Mr. Quinton nodded immediately, and said firmly: "Master Wade, you can rest assured that you will die, you will not disclose this to anyone."

After speaking, they hurriedly asked Aurora and Steven: "You two listen to me, don't divulge half of the word about Rejuvenation Pill, do you understand?!"

Aurora and Steven said at the same time: "Understood! "

Quinton with a proud look seriously said: "You must listen to this. you have to learn a lesson, but keep in mind I just said, Do you understand?"

Steven didn't dare to say half a word, and immediately said: "Second Uncle, I know, don't worry, if I dare to disclose half a word to the outside world, let Master Wade hack me to death with a sky thunder. ! "

Mr. Quinton this satisfied said: "Master Wade, Aurora you always tremendously respect, you can be assured that I am proud of this child, albeit a darn before, but this time did a lot of honest, you Don't worry."

Charlie Wade nodded and said with a smile: "After you have gone, Mr. Quinton, you quickly put this rejuvenating pill in the safest place in your villa. As for me, the reason why I came so early is to give Aurora some more guidance. , So I won't waste time here."

Mr. Quinton said immediately, "No problem, Master Wade!" After that, he turned to look at Aurora, and said, "Aurora, take Master Wade to the practice room."

Aurora felt ashamed. Hey again, nodded quickly and said, "Master Wade, please go to the practice room with Aurora."

Charlie Wade nodded, got up and went to her practice room with Aurora.

When he came to the practice room, Aurora said to Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, I have been practicing diligently recently, but I always feel that the overall progress is very slow, and it is almost hard to make any obvious progress. Did you give me before? The effect of the pill is so strong that I can't improve my strength by practicing now?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said: "The Sanda fighting skills you usually practice are like a 5-year-old. The kid needs to hold the basketball with both hands to practice shooting, and that pill is equivalent to let you have the ability of an NBA player at once. In this case, if you still practice basketball in the same way as a five-year-old kid , Will not greatly improve your overall strength. On the contrary, it will be a great waste of your current ability."

Aurora could not help but nodded, and exclaimed: "I do feel this way recently. I always feel that it is a bit wasteful to continue practicing Sanda fighting skills with my current physical fitness, but I don't know what else I can practice besides these Sanda fighting skills."

Charlie Wade Nodded and smiled: "That's why I came here early today. I want to change your martial arts direction to a new route!"

Chapter 2337

"Change to a new route?!"

Aurora couldn't help exclaiming: "Master Wade, what do you mean by changing the route? Wouldn't it be possible for me to practice judo, taekwondo or something?"

"Of course not." Charlie Wade smiled deeply and said seriously: "Whether it is the ordinary traditional martial arts of our country, or taekwondo, jeet kwon do, Sanda fighting, and boxing, they are all things on the same road. If you change back and forth between them If you do, you can only change the direction at most. It is impossible to talk about completely changing a new route."

Aurora asked puzzledly: "Master Wade, what you said, I do not understand a bit. These events are common competitions nowadays. If you don't practice these, what should I practice?"

Charlie Wade said calmly, "Have you ever heard of Nei Jia Quan?"

"Innerquan?!" Aurora asked dumbfounded: "Could it be that Is it the core and most secret boxing techniques of the top martial arts families?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Yes."

Aurora blurted out: "Master Wade, I have heard of China's four major martial arts families. The family has its own set of internal boxing techniques. This has always been the secret of their family. They only pass on the direct blood relatives of the family. It is impossible for outsiders to learn it even if they spend more money. I can have this the chance? "

Aurora view, within the family boxing is simply not she be able to have the opportunity to practice.

This kind of internal boxing technique is the secret of the top martial arts family, and it is also the core of the family's survival. It is like a secret formula of medicine, and it is impossible to disclose it to outsiders.

Therefore, even if Mr. Quinton already has a net worth of tens of billions, his daughter Aurora can only practice fighting and Sanda. A martial arts family who mastered internal martial arts, in the martial arts field, even the very top hand. And such a family is far beyond the control of a family of the size of the Quinton family.

The four major martial arts families in China depended on almost all trillion-level top families. Even if they survived by these top families, the martial arts family would never give up their internal boxing skills, because this is what they can do. The key to standing tall.

However, in Charlie Wade's eyes, the internal martial arts that martial arts people highly respected was worth nothing. In the Apocalyptic Book, there are at least a few hundred types of internal martial arts of different heights and lows alone, and these are just some very low-end martial arts.

In fact, the truly powerful exercises are not internal martial arts at all, but real energy and reiki.

If voltage and current are used to measure the gap between Nei Jia Quan and True Chi and Reiki, then Nei Jia Quan is like an ordinary AA battery. The voltage is only 1.5 volts and the current is very small.

Compared with the aura of the inner family boxing method, Reiki is equivalent to UHV electricity, starting at 500,000 volts, even millions of volts.

The gap in this is simply a world apart.

Therefore, Charlie Wade didn't even see the internal boxing technique in the Apocalyptic Book.

It was just that he found that Aurora couldn't find a suitable boxing method to practice right now, so he suddenly thought of these inner boxing methods and planned to choose one of them to let Aurora practice.

So, he smiled and said to Aurora: "I happen to know a kind of inner family exercise that is very suitable for girls to practice, called the Four Elephant Palm. If you are interested, I can teach you to practice."

Aurora heard this. Words, the whole person was shocked and speechless!

Although she didn't know what inner family practice the four elephant palms were, as long as they belonged to the category of inner family boxing, it was a priceless treasure!

Chapter 2338

And Charlie Wade is now willing to teach her this priceless treasure, what a gift this must be.

Seeing Aurora not speaking, Charlie Wade smiled and asked her: "Why, don't you like it? Would you like to change it?"

"No, no, no!" Aurora's eyes were tearful, and she waved her hand quickly: "Master Wade, It's not that I don't like it. I just think it's incredible. For many martial arts families, internal martial arts is the treasure of the family and the foundation of the family. It will never be passed on to outsiders, and even many are only passed on to men and not to women. "Teach me the precious inner boxing method"

Charlie Wade laughed: "In the eyes of others, this kind of inner boxing method may be very precious, but in my eyes, it is really nothing. Practicing, if one day you feel that it is no longer worthy of your strength, I will give you another one."

What does the so-called four elephant palm mean? Charlie Wade didn't know who left the inner boxing method. He only knew that this inner boxing method was more suitable for girls to practice in the records of the Book.

Moreover, in the record, the Four Elephant Palm was divided into nine layers, and the cultivation technique was divided into nine parts from the first to the ninth, so Charlie Wade wrote the first layer and handed it to Aurora.

This is not Charlie Wade stinging, but this kind of inner strength mental method, like a student's textbook, different grades correspond to different levels of textbooks. If a person is about to enter elementary school from pre-kindergarten, the best way is to study the textbooks for the first semester of the first grade. If at this time, all the teaching materials for the entire 9-year compulsory education were thrown to her, it would make her lose her priority.

Therefore, Charlie Wade's idea is to give her the first layer of the Four Elephant Palm first, and let her enter the door of the inner family boxing first. If she practices well and makes rapid progress, then give her the second layer. For Aurora, the mental method of the four elephant palms almost opened the door to a new world in her cognition.

She carefully looked at the whole set of mental methods, and said falteringly: "Master Wade, I don't seem to understand the names of so many acupuncture points and meridians. What do they mean?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and explained: "The biggest difference between the inner boxing and the outer boxing is that there is more inner air."

After that, he said seriously: "As the so-called internal exercise, the most important thing about the inner boxing is that The chi in the body."

Aurora hurriedly asked him: "Then how can I take a breath? I can't perceive the existence of those acupuncture points and meridians at all."

Charlie Wade laughed and said: "Ordinary people can't perceive it, not because he doesn't have it. This ability is because he can't master how to perceive meridians and acupoints."

After that, Charlie Wade asked her: "Have you heard of a stunt or acrobatic performance called ventriloquism?"

Aurora hurriedly asked: "Is it the way to speak with your mouth without moving?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "Yes! That's it!"

Aurora hurriedly said, "When I was young, my father took me to the circus. In ventriloquist performance, the performer holds a doll in his hand, and then he can talk to his doll by himself. When he speaks, he opens his mouth like an ordinary person, but when he needs a doll to speak, he will Shut your mouth, in abdominal language, it feels quite magical"

Charlie Wade said with a smile: "In fact, abdominal language does not mean that he really speaks with his stomach, but after he learns to master the breath, he presses the breath down into the abdominal cavity. , And then use the breath in the abdominal cavity to drive the vocal cords to vocalize, so that there is no need for mouth and tongue."

Aurora exclaimed: "Ah?! This is too difficult, right?"

Charlie Wade laughed: "We ordinary people will certainly do. I feel that this kind of thing seems difficult, because we don't even feel where the so-called breath is when we talk, but after you study and practice the breath for a period of time, you will be able to master the breath."

"At that time, you can naturally control your breath to sink into the abdominal cavity or sink into the pubic cavity!"

Listening to Charlie Wade's metaphor, Aurora seemed to understand a little bit.

She asked curiously: "Master Wade, as long as I practice hard, I can feel the presence of the breath and guide the breath to move in my body?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said with a smile: "Yeah! Don't you think about this. How profound is it, like ordinary people singing, just open your mouth and sing, while professional singers can control their breath and use a part of their body to participate in the resonance of the sound when singing."

"Some singers can. Resonate with the head cavity, and some with the chest and abdominal cavity. In fact, it is not a mysterious thing at all. As long as you find the right and appropriate method and practice hard, you can move freely."

Aurora said excitedly, "Thank you Master Wade! I must practice hard and never let you be disappointed!"

Charlie Wade smiled with satisfaction and nodded and said, "You must practice well. If you can practice the internal martial arts to a certain level, then it is possible that in the future you will also be a pioneer. The master of the school is now."

Aurora said seriously: "I dare not expect anything to start a school, as long as you can not let Master Wade disappoint you, it is my greatest satisfaction!"

Charlie Wade nodded: "Okay, if you have this determination, this thing won't be effective in one or two days. Not to mention the internal martial arts, even a ventriloquism performer may have to practice for one or two years to get started, so you have to sink Hold your breath, don't rush, don't be impatient."

Aurora immediately assured: "Master Wade, don't worry, I must control my emotions, fight steadily, and never be impatient!"

Charlie Wade laughed: "That's the best thing. up! "

then, Charlie Wade began to help her become familiar with the Heart of palm trick four images, however, that this kind of thing as he said, not be too hasty, want to let the afternoon trick Aurora grasp within the family boxing, almost It's a dream.

After five o'clock in the afternoon, Mr. Quinton ran over to Charlie Wade and said, "Master Wade, Mr. Cameron and Don Albertt are here and are drinking tea in the living room. Would you like to come out and sit?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Okay, I'll do this. In the past."

After finishing speaking, he said to Aurora: "Aurora, you have practiced for a whole afternoon, or come here today."

Aurora was sweaty and tired at this time, so she nodded and said: " Good Master Wade, then you go have tea first, I'll go back to the room and take a shower before coming down."

Charlie Wade nodded, and then went to the living room with Mr. Quinton.

In the living room, Cameron Isaac and Don Albertt just sat down.

When Charlie Wade came in, the two immediately stood up and said respectfully, "Master Wade!"

Cameron Isaac and Don Albertt both knew Charlie Wade's identity, and knew that he was the young master of the Wade family. Call him Young Master, but as long as there are other people around, they will uniformly change the title of Young Master to Master Wade.

Charlie Wade nodded gently with the two of them, and smiled: "You two talked early enough, did you come here together?"

Don Albertt smiled at this time: "Master Wade, I happened to be near Mr. Cameron's hotel. For errands, I made an appointment with Mr. Cameron and came over together." Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "By the way, Don Albertt, I will give Lloyd's Pearl etiquette company to my wife's cousin. Do you know about it?"

Chapter 2340

Don Albertt hurriedly nodded and said: "Master Wade, I know about this, Caesar, that bastard has already told me, I slapped him twenty times as punishment for helping him to abuse, and I have warned him. In the future, if I dare to participate in anything that will force the good to be a prostitute, I will abolish him!"

Charlie Wade nodded and said seriously: "From now on, say hello to your brothers in the underground world. There must be some morals, prostitution, gambling, drugs are the red line, you must not touch it, you can't touch it if you make money!"

Don Albertt hurriedly said: "Master Wade, don't worry about this, I have already told my subordinates. This time, after I heard about what Lloyd did in the etiquette company, I also told my subordinates specially. Whoever dares to engage in such things under my nose, I must not spare him!"

Charlie Wade was satisfied. He said again: "By the way, my wife's cousin, what etiquette needs do you usually have, you can take care of her business, but don't be too exaggerated. Wendy used to have a very flamboyant personality. I'm afraid she will come back Hungry."

Don Albertt nodded: "Okay Master Wade, I know!"

After speaking, he also asked with some doubts: "Master Wade, you and your sister-in-law, haven't you been very troubled? I remember her like before attitude toward your poor, just like the previous time that you follow Kenneth Wilson, and later with that Jeffrey Weaver guy, the one at Glorious Club who licked urinal, how do you also take care of since she came? "

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Knowing your mistakes can make corrections, it's great, Jeffrey Weaver and his sorrowful old man, I will also save them for their lives and let them make good reforms in Golim Mountain."

After listening, Don Albertt nodded gently and exclaimed. "Master Wade, for anyone who has offended you before, you can open and give the other party a chance to reform. Don Albertt is extremely impressed by your heart!"

Cameron Isaac couldn't help but exclaimed, "Yes. Master Wade, as someone else, with your strength, when facing these dregs, I'm afraid I will kill him."

Charlie Wade shook his head: "If a person is not guilty of death, but to punish him with death, it is too hard."

"The beggar helped Marcone's group of people lose their conscience. It is indeed worthy of death, but Donald Webb is also indeed guilty. Not to die;"

"Jordan, Jeffrey Weaver, father and son, although arrogant and defiant, they did not commit any capital crimes. If I kill them, how will I convince people in the future?" After that, Charlie Wade sighed slightly, sincerely said: "I hope that my strength will continue to improve, and I also hope that my lineup will get stronger and stronger. Since I want to expand my lineup, I must distinguish between rewards and punishments and persuade people with morals. Otherwise, how can I make everyone willing to do it? What do I use?"

Don Albertt clasped his fists and said with emotion: "Master Wade is right, Don Albertt has been taught!" As he said, Mr. Quinton took came in with Liam Weaver.

Before Liam arrived, he respectfully clasped his fists and said, "Hello, Master Wade!"

Charlie Wade nodded and said with a smile: "We are talking about the Weaver family, and you are here."

Liam asked curiously: "Master Wade , Are you talking about the Weaver family? What happened to the Weaver family?"

Charlie Wade said lightly: "It's just a small chat, talking about your father and your half-brother, I said that the reason why they were sent to Golim Mountain is mainly because Because the two of them are not guilty of death."

Liam couldn't help but nodded: "Master Wade, you are a loving and righteous person. My father has always looked down on my mother's birth and the Golim Mountain where I grew up. You let him spend time in Golim Mountain. For the rest of my life, it is the best punishment for him!"

Charlie Wade nodded slightly, and said: "By the way, Liam, I haven't spared any time recently to ask you, what is the sales volume of Nova Dias during this period?"

Chapter 2341

Hearing that Charlie Wade asked about Oracle Nova Dias, Liam immediately became excited and blurted out: "Master Wade, Oracle Nova Dias has now occupied the entire Japanese, Korean and Southeast Asian markets. After we have incorporated Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall The original multiple production lines are now fully productive, and we are fully producing Nova Dias. Except for Asia, we are now hoarding goods and are preparing to enter the European and American markets next month!"

Charlie Wade nodded with satisfaction and asked with a smile: "The European and American markets should always be resistant to Oriental Chinese herbal medicine? Are you confident?"

"Yes!" Liam said without hesitation: "Although Europe and the United States are the birthplaces of Western medicine, they are also the main force in alcohol consumption. The top 20 countries in per capita alcohol consumption are all European countries. In addition to Europe, there are several countries in Australia and South America. The annual per capita alcohol consumption is more than ten liters! This is the highest per capita alcohol consumption. The first echelon."

"Then the second echelon represented by the United States, Canada, Japan and South Korea, the annual per capita alcohol consumption is about seven or eight liters."

"These countries suffer from stomach and liver diseases due to high alcohol consumption. The proportion is also very large. Nova Dias has no toxic side effects, is extremely convenient to take, and has a quick effect. It has a very good protective and repairing effect on the stomach. Once such a drug is on the market, the first wave of users benefiting is that group of drinking People."

"Once we gain a reputation among these user groups, we will soon sweep across Europe and the United States!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said: "In this case, we can start with restaurants, bars and hotels. At that time, send a local promotion team to do free trials at the entrances of bars and restaurants in major cities in Europe and America. The dosage of the trial set is controlled to be smaller, to ensure that they can feel the effect, but the effect cannot be maintained for a long time. Repeat several rounds of promotion. , We can immediately absorb these long-term drinkers and become our diehard users."

When Liam heard this, he hurriedly said, "Master Wade, your method is really good! Start with the group that needs Oracle Nova Dias most, and hit their pain points all at once, making them inseparable from Nova Dias, and even regarded Oracle Nova Dias as a magical medicine. In that case, our word of mouth will rise immediately!"

After all, Liam said quickly: "I will convene a meeting with management staff tomorrow, and I will quickly set a ground promotion in the European and American markets. Detailed plan!"

Charlie Wade nodded with satisfaction, and smiled: "European and American economies are relatively developed, and the pricing of Nova Dias must keep up. In my opinion, it's priced at 800 per box. They are all their sky-high drugs to make our money. Those special drugs come to the country for a price of tens of thousands of hundreds of thousands a month. In the future, we should go back and empty their wallets."

Liam smiled He said: "Master Wade, I don't think it is a problem if the price is higher, but the key is that we have to find a way to prevent them from buying at the Chinese Market, and then going to the European and American markets! In this case, the money will be made by these dealers. "

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "This is simple, the future Oracle Nova Dias, in any country, must be purchased in limited quantities, one person, one month, at most one box with valid certificates, strictly control the source of goods, and at the same time Do a good job in the strict prevention of cross-linking of goods, this must be learned from the tobacco industry, all drugs must have a corresponding regional code when they leave the factory, and regular inspections should be conducted to ensure that there will be no cross-regional cross-country, or between countries. The situation of intermittent goods."

Liam said hurriedly: "Good Master Wade, I have written it down!"

Charlie Wade said again: "In addition, we must strictly supervise dealers and sign clear contracts. Anyone who dares Hoarding sources of goods and super high prices, he immediately disqualified him as a distributor, and at the same time asked him to pay a large amount of liquidated damages. If he does not pay, he will be filed for bankruptcy!"

Chapter 2342

"In short, there must be no such thing as a price-raising situation like Moutai! The official retail price of a bottle of Moutai is 1499, but ordinary people have no chance to buy it at this price, and when dealers go for takeout, a bottle of at least It's two thousand and seventy-eight, and it's even higher during the holidays. Isn't this just showing the pit of consumers?"

Liam immediately stated: "Master Wade, don't worry, I will strictly prevent similar things from happening to Oracle Nova Dias! If any dealer dared to stock up and raise the price, I immediately disqualified him and held him accountable! No toleration!"

Charlie Wade nodded with satisfaction, and said, "After the Nova Dias is fully spread in the European and American markets, Presumably the alcohol industry in Europe and the United States will usher in rapid development."

Liam agreed and said: "Yes! Many drinkers in Europe and the United States are highly dependent on alcohol. If Oracle Nova Dias is listed, it is equivalent to reducing the effect of alcohol on their bodies. The damage caused by drinking too much alcohol, especially the stomach is the most uncomfortable. Oracle Nova Dias just solved their problem."

After that, Liam couldn't help but sigh: "Master Wade, if we can launch a liver-protecting product. Even better! Nourishing the stomach and protecting the liver, this is a must-have medicine for European and American drinkers!" Charlie Wade laughed and said: "You first push Nova Dias to the European and American markets, and I will get a liver-protecting tablet later When the prescription comes out, we will focus on nourishing the stomach and protecting the liver!" Cameron Isaac on the side said with a smile: "Master Wade, if you sell the pill you refined, the market will be even bigger! There is no need for rejuvenation Pill as it is such a powerful pill, as long as the first old blood-relief pill is diluted to 10, it is estimated to be sold out!" Charlie Wade nodded slightly and said: "If this medicine is really taken out Selling, the sales volume is certainly not worrying, but this medicine cannot be mass-produced through normal pharmaceutical equipment, so the production capacity cannot be increased, and the conditions for mass sales are not available."

"It turns out that" Cameron Isaac said with some regret: "Nowadays, many drugs on the market have a little effect on prolonging life, but they have been fired to a very high price by those wealthy people. For example, you can say the Angong bezoar produced in the 1960s and 1970s Pills have been fired up to hundreds of thousands, but in fact, this kind of medicine mainly treats only heat-clearing and detoxification, high fever convulsions, and stroke coma. It is impossible to prolong life, but everyone thinks this thing is magical, so the price is too high. Very high."

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "The medicine is mainly stored in a small amount. In addition, some of the raw materials are from the protection of wild animals and are no longer allowed to be used. In terms of effect, it's nothing extraordinary ." As he said, the Quinton's servant ran over quickly and said: "Master, Lord Mooore and Miss Jasmine are here!"

Mr. Quinton hurriedly stood up and said to Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, Mr. Cameron, and Don Albertt, you sit first, I will go outside to meet Lord Mooore and Miss Moore."

Chapter 2343

Since Theodore and Rueben's murder attempt of Jasmine were revealed, and they were thrown into the diamond mine in Sierra Stephene, Africa by Charlie Wade, Jasmine's position in the Moore family has been unprecedentedly consolidated. In the past, it was only Lord Mooore who sincerely supported her. Now, no one in the entire Moore family dares to disobey her.

The main reason was that Jasmine had Charlie Wade's strong support. Even Theodore and Rueben and his sons could not bring Jasmine down. The others in the Moore family knew that they did not dare to move similar thoughts.

After all, if you want to bring down Jasmine, you must first bring down Charlie Wade. Otherwise, the fate of Theodore and Rueben is a lesson for others.

In the past few days, although Lord Moore often feels sorry for the fratricidal incidents within the family, when he thinks that Jasmine is safe, Theodore and Rueben have also recovered a dog's life and feel relieved. For Jasmine, the happiest thing today is to see Charlie Wade again.

Since she returned to the Moore family and took home the lord position again, she has never had a chance to see Charlie Wade again. Not only is Charlie Wade involved in many affairs every day, she herself is also very busy.

With the help of Charlie Wade, the Moore family negotiated a cooperation with Nippon Steel, and they obtained very favorable terms. So Jasmine was ready to strike while the iron was hot, quickly settle all matters related to the cooperation, and then fully promote the project. So this period of time has been devoted to this.

At this moment, the thought of seeing Charlie Wade soon made Jasmine's mood a bit of uncontrollable excitement.

For this reason, she was specially dressed up today, not only wearing her favorite clothes, but also specially bringing the diamond bracelet that her mother left for herself before her death. This string of diamond bracelets was lost and recovered by Charlie Wade after helping himself to break the feng shui dilemma.

In Jasmine's eyes, this bracelet was originally a memorial left by her mother. But now, this bracelet has another meaning in Jasmine's mind: it is the beginning of the intersection of her life with Charlie Wade.

At this time, Mr. Quinton greeted them quickly, and said very politely: "Oh, Lord Moore and Miss Jasmine, I'm so glad to welcome you in the next place!"

Mr. Moore hurriedly said, "Why Mr. Quinton should be so polite? Come to your house today to harass, and please don't be offended by Mr. Quinton." Mr. Quinton said hurriedly, "How come! Come in!"

Jasmine asked at this moment: "Mr. Quinton, is Master Wade here?"

Mr. Quinton smiled. Said: "Master Wade has arrived and is chatting with Mr. Cameron, Mr. Weaver and Don Albertt."

Jasmine nodded gently, feeling even more excited.

As Mr. Quinton came to the living room, Charlie Wade saw the Moore family ancestors and grandsons coming in, so he stood up, smiled and greeted the two of them: "Master Moore, Miss Moore." While talking, Jasmine walked closer and Charlie Wade looked at her. , Could not help but sigh in his heart: "Jasmine is indeed a superb beauty. After being so meticulously dressed, her temperament is not lost to anyone."

Grandpa Moore walked up to the front and said respectfully: "Master Wade! Thank you for hosting a banquet. The old man is really grateful!"

Charlie Wade said with a smile: "You don't have to be so polite, come here, please sit down."

After that, he hurriedly ordered to Don Albertt: "Don Albertt, show him and Miss Moore some Tea."

Don Albertt said hurriedly : "Good Master Wade!" After speaking, he quickly took out two more teacups and filled them with tea.

Chapter 2344

Jasmine subconsciously sat beside Charlie Wade. When Don Albertt handed her the tea cup, and when she reached out to pick it up, Charlie Wade also saw the diamond necklace on her wrist, and he couldn't help but feel a little bit embarrassed. Speaking of the acquaintance with Jasmine, it was Don Albertt's matchmaking. It was he who begged himself to show Jasmine feng shui, and he met Jasmine.

After sitting down, Jasmine said to Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, when Nanako was videoing with me today, she asked me to say hello to you."

Charlie Wade asked curiously, "Oh? Did you video chat today?"

Jasmine smiled and said: "I basically follow Nanako's video every day. Didn't she give me a puppy? I can see that she is also very worried about her and wants to see what the dog is doing every day."

Charlie Wade gently Nodded, and smiled: "Aurora also said that she wants to wait for your dog to grow up and give birth to puppies."

Jasmine smiled and said, "Yes, she told me about it, and I happened to chat with Nanako today. since this matter, Nanako she said a few days time to China, you can then take an over, gave Aurora, I personally would like to tell the good news Aurora it, how did she here? " aside Mr. Quinton hurriedly said: "Miss Moore, Aurora has just finished training, and went upstairs to take a shower and change clothes."

Charlie Wade asked somewhat surprised: "Nanako is coming to China in some time?"

"Yes." Jasmine nodded and said. "Nanako said that Stefanie Sun, the star of China, who has always liked us, happened to be going to have a concert in Aurouss Hillll. She also wanted to come and have a look. I have already told her that when the time comes, she will live in my house."

Charlie Wade was stunned and asked in surprise, "Nanako likes Stefanie?! Really?"

"Really." Jasmine said seriously: "Stefanie is not only well-known in China, but also has many fans throughout Asia, the Chinese community around the world, and even in the European and American markets. She is also very admired by Japanese girls because of her beauty. Many Japanese girls imitate her dressing, collocation and makeup styles, and there are so many fans!"

After all, she explained: "Actually, I am also very interested in Stefanie, so we plan to go there together. Watching the concert."

Charlie Wade felt his head as big as a fight at this time.

"My wife is going to see Stefanie's concert, Loreen is also going to see Stefanie's concert, Jasmine is going, even Nanako Ito is going to this place, what the hell is this ?" At this time, Aurora changed her clothes into an elegant dress and came over and heard Charlie Wade and Jasmine talking about Stefanie, they hurriedly asked with great concern: "Master Wade and sister Jasmine, are you talking about Stefanie's concert?"

Jasmine nodded and smiled. "Aurora, do you like Stefanie too?"

Aurora said without hesitation: "Who doesn't like it! I bought all the tickets, and I plan to go with my classmates by then."

After that, she asked: "Jasmine, are you going too?"

Jasmine smiled: "I'll go too. Nanako Ito, who just happened to give me the dog, wants to see too. I've made an appointment with her to go together."

"Ah!" Aurora exclaimed: "Nanako Ito is coming to Aurouss Hilll to watch a concert too?"

"Yes." Jasmine nodded and said, "There is good news to tell you. I told Nanako that you like dogs. She said that when she came this time, I will bring you a brother or sister of Bella as a gift."

"Ah? Really?!" Aurora's expression was pleasantly surprised when she heard this, but she soon became very embarrassed and she stammered. Said: "Jasmine, I fought with Nanako Ito and injured her, so why don't I be embarrassed to accept the dog from her"

Jasmine laughed and said earnestly: "Nanako knows that you will definitely care about this, so she specifically asked me to tell you, she said, the game is back to the game, and what happened during the game is just fine to stay on the field. Don't bring the events of the game into your life, she said she still hopes to make friends with you!"

Chapter 2345

Aurora couldn't be more happy when she heard that Nanako Ito wanted to make friends with herself.

She couldn't hide the excitement and blurted out and asked: "Jasmine, is what you said is true?"

Jasmine smiled and said: "Of course it is true, can I lie to you?"

Aurora couldn't help sighing. Actually, I really want to be friends with her. I admired her very much before, and although I don't have much contact with her, I can feel that she must be a very nice and nice person."

Jasmine lightly tapped Nodded, and said in agreement: "Nanako is indeed a very nice girl, very friendly, and very humble."

Aurora said more or less guilty: "In fact, her strength was originally far above me. I would lose to her but because I took the pill that Master Wade gave me. I feel really ashamed when I think about it." Jasmine smiled and said, "It's okay, Master Wade will give you the pill. This is entirely your chance. There is nothing to be ashamed of."

Charlie Wade also said at this time: "Aurora, Jasmine is right, everyone has their own opportunities, and these opportunities will never tell you, like Nanako Ito, you don't know if she has learned some fighting skills from top Japanese ninjas, so what is so ashamed of this kind of thing?"

Aurora nodded gently, so she said seriously: "Master Wade, I understand."

At this time, the subordinate stepped forward to inform that Travis Lane, the richest man in Lancaster, had arrived. This time, Travis Lane didn't let Charlie Wade's friend Caleb drive, mainly because he felt that Charlie Wade is a man with great supernatural powers after all. Driver, more or less inappropriate.

Immediately afterwards, Mr. White came, Dr. Simmons and Xyla, son and grandsons, followed closely behind.

Since it was not time for dinner, everyone took their seats one after another and chatted while drinking tea. The atmosphere was particularly harmonious.

Each of these people respects and respects Charlie Wade very much, and they have a good relationship with each other, so everyone can chat together.

Seeing that the invited guests were seated one by one, Charlie Wade couldn't help but think of Doris Young. I don't know why Doris Young hasn't appeared yet. On the phone before, she had clearly confirmed that she would come.

Charlie Wade was wondering whether to call Doris Young, but after another thought, Doris Young seemed to be busy with some things at first. If she finishes dealing with the things at hand, she will naturally come over; if she hasn't finished dealing with them, there is no need for herself. To urge her, let her do her own thing at ease.

At this time, Doris Young is with her mother in the intensive care unit of the People's Hospital.

Seeing that my mother had eaten the meal, the nurse also put a nutrient solution on her father. Doris Young was a little relieved and said to her mother: "Mom, I have a meal in the evening, which is organized by my boss, so I have to go there first, but I will come back as soon as possible."

Mom Sydney said hurriedly, "Doris, you have been tossing enough these days. Now that you have a meal, you can have a good meal, chat with your boss and colleagues, relax and relax, don't hurry back, mom. I'm afraid your heart has been tight."

Doris Young smiled slightly and said, "Don't worry about me, I can adjust it myself."

Chapter 2346

After she picked up the hanging coat and said to Sydney: "Mom, if there is nothing wrong, I will leave first."

Sydney nodded and said, "Be careful when driving on the road."

"Good mom, I see."

Doris Young said goodbye to her mother and came out of the ward. Seeing that there was enough time, he went to the office of Dr. Kelso of the Department of Nephrology.

Now, there are only ten hours left before the deadline Walter gave her. The only gleam of hope that Doris Young has is in Dr. Kelso. I don't know whether Dr. Kelso can initiate the relationship and help find the right one in the last time. Source of kidney.

Doris Young came to the office door and knocked on the door. He heard Dr. Kelso inside say: "Please come in." Then he pushed the door in.

As soon as she walked in, she said with some regret: "Dr. Kelso, I'm so sorry to disturb you again."

Dr. Kelso said hurriedly, "Don't be so polite, Ms. Young, please sit down."

Doris Young said, "Dr. Kelso, I won't sit down. I just had something to go out. I came over to ask you, is there any chance for the kidney source?"

Dr. Kelso sighed and said, "I've already greeted many of my classmates. The old classmates are basically the directors of the nephrology department of the top tertiary hospitals across the country. There are a lot of relevant resources. They have agreed to help, but they can't guarantee whether they can find it. It only depends on luck."

Doris Young Nodded lightly, then lowered her voice a few minutes, and said seriously: "Dr. Kelso, if you or your classmates can help solve the problem of kidney source, I personally would like to give three million as a thank you, if you can solve it yourself , I will give you all the three million; if your classmates help solve it, then I will give you three million, and an extra two million for your hard work. Please take care of it.

Upon hearing this, Dr. Kelso hurriedly said: "Ms. Young, I admit that some doctors do accept red envelopes from patients' family members, but I have never done anything like this in my medical practice for so many years. Don't worry, your father's affairs. , I will do my best to help. As for the hard work, you don't need to mention it again."

Doris Young realized that what she said just now really offended Dr. Kelso's medical ethics, and hurriedly said apologetically: "Dr. Kelso, I'm so sorry that I was too anxious, so I made the decision. Please don't mind."

Dr. Kelso nodded and said, "Ms. Young, your feelings are understandable. We usually perform operations on patients. Family members will come to stuff the red envelopes. If they don't accept them, they will feel as if I don't use my heart to perform operations on their relatives." "So, in this situation, we usually accept the red envelopes before the operation, and then quietly let them go. The nurse handed over to the hospital's finances. After the operation was over, the money was directly charged to the patient's account. When the patient went through the discharge procedures, the money would be returned to the family members, so that during the operation, the family members also Don't worry."

Doris Young said ashamed: "Dr. Kelso, I'm really sorry, I was abrupt."

Dr. Kelso smiled and waved his hand: "It's okay, and I won't take it to heart. As for the kidney source, you can rest assured, I will definitely go all out."

"Okay." Doris Young nodded and said: "Then Dr. Kelso, I will not disturb your work. If you have any progress, please contact me at any time."

Dr. Kelso nodded and said, " Okay, yes. I'll call you the news."

At this moment, someone suddenly opened the door with a panic expression and said, "Dr. Kelso, important news! The patient's examination in Ward No. 1 finally has a clear result!"

Chapter 2347

When Doris Young heard that it was bed No. 1, he immediately realized that he was talking about his father, so he blurted out and asked:

"Hello, what is the result of the patient in Ward No. 1?"

That person He looked at Doris Young hesitantly, and then at Dr. Kelso, not knowing whether he should continue talking.

Dr. Kelso hurriedly urged: "What is the result? Just tell me, don't dawdle!"

The person hurriedly said: "That's it. The laboratory first found out from the blood of the patient in ward 1. Excessive mercury, and then sent the blood sample to the laboratory of the judicial department for further testing of toxic substances, and the result was a large amount of mercury dichloride detected!"

"What?!" Dr. Kelso exclaimed: "Mercury dichloride Is it mercury dichloride?!"

"Yes!" the person said hurriedly: "The police suspect that someone has poisoned them, so they are ready to file a case. It is estimated that they will come over soon."

Doris Young was shocked and blurted out: "Dr. Kelso, what is mercury dichloride?!"

Dr. Kelso explained: "Mercury dichloride is a highly toxic inorganic substance. This substance is extremely toxic. On average, one kilogram of body weight can reach one milligram. Semi-lethal dose! An adult male of 80 kg only needs 80 mg!"

Doris Young asked: "What is the semi-lethal dose?!"

Dr. Kelso said: "The semi-lethal dose is the medical and chemical toxicity monitoring standard. For example, if one hundred mice are used for the toxicity test of mercury dichloride, when the oral administration exceeds one milligram per kilogram for a specified period of time, fifty mice will die. This amount is called semi-lethal dose. "

Doris Young exclaimed: "This kind of substance only needs tens of milligrams to kill people?!"

Dr. Kelso nodded, and said with a choke: "This kind of thing is extremely toxic, especially to the kidneys. It's as if paraquat is so harmful to the lungs that there is almost no cure."

Doris Young suddenly became nervous and blurted out: "Why would my father take this toxic substance? No one in our family has ever come into contact with this kind of highly toxic chemicals."

Dr. Kelso said seriously: "Since the police have to open a case for investigation, it is very It may be someone deliberately poisoning!"

"Poisoning?!" Doris Young said in confusion: "My father has been teaching and educating people for most of his life. He is full of peaches and plums, and he has won countless honors, whether it is character or morality. They are all impeccable, so they have never made enmity with others. Who would commit such a murderous hand to him?!"

Dr. Kelso hurriedly said: "Ms. Young, this kind of thing is useless by speculation. We have to rely on the police to investigate deeply. , It is possible to find the murderer behind the scenes!"

As he said, the door of the office was pushed open, and several police officers in police uniforms walked in with solemn expressions.

One of the middle-aged men with the Chinese character face walked in front, came directly in front of Dr. Kelso, and said: "Hello, I am Donald Lance, the deputy captain of the Aurouss Hilll Criminal Police Brigade. We received a report from the Inspection Division of your unit and now suspect it is expensive. A patient named Myles Young in the hospital is very likely to be poisoned. Is it convenient for us to see Mr. Young's family?"

Dr. Kelso immediately pointed to Doris Young and said: "Captain Lance, this is Doris Young, Myles Young's daughter. Madam."

Donald Lance was a little surprised, and immediately put away his surprised expression, and said seriously: "Hello, Ms. Young, I am Donald Lance. What is your father's situation now?" Doris Young hurriedly said: "Captain Lance, I My father is in very bad condition now. His kidneys are failing rapidly in a short time, and his life is in danger at any time. Please be sure to find out the murderer who poisoned my father!"

Chapter 2348

Donald Lance nodded very seriously, and said: "Ms. Young, can you please help us recall whether your father usually has any enemies? Or has there been any economic disputes with anyone?"

Doris Young shook his head. Said: "My father has been conscientious in teaching and educating people for so many years. He is also very helpful in his work and he is very helpful. No one has ever had any conflicts."

Donald Lance asked again: "Have your father eaten recently? What kind of weird food or something strange?"

Doris Young continued to shake his head: "It doesn't seem to be true. Everything was normal before he became ill."

Donald Lance then asked: "You and your father usually Do you live together?"

Doris Young nodded: "We Live together."

Donald Lance continued to ask: "Then who else lives with you besides you and your father?"

Doris Young said, "And my mother. We have a family of three."

"Okay." Donald Lance nodded and asked after a pause: "Is there any nanny or part-time job in the family?" "No." Doris Young said, "I want to find a nanny for them, but my parents They have been intellectuals all their lives, and they are not used to being served by them. In addition, they are now in their 50s and can take care of themselves, so they have never looked for a babysitter or part-time job."

Donald Lance asked: "Neither you nor your mother have any problems?"

Doris Young shook his head: "No."

Donald Lance nodded and said, "You and your mother live together, and you and your mother have no problems. Basically, it can be inferred that it's not the food or water in your home."

After speaking, he asked again: "Ms. Young, I need you to recall carefully. In the period before your father showed signs of his body, did he go out for dinner by himself or with his friends?"

Doris Young thought about it carefully, and said seriously: "Neither. Before my father had physical problems, he had been reading at home because of the winter vacation, so he had hardly gone out, so he never went out with others. We have gathered together."

Donald Lance couldn't help frowning: "That's really strange. According to the test data, your father has a large amount of mercury dichloride in his body. This highly toxic substance can enter the body through the mouth and nose. , It may also enter the body through the skin."

"But our experts speculate that such a large toxic dose may take a long time if it depends on the skin alone. Therefore, the most likely entry is through the mouth and nose, and oral administration is the most likely. .
" "but, as you mentioned situation, your father is unlikely to be at home by poisoning food and water, but he did not go out to gather over meals or I would, "

" so, in the end he was trying to figure out Where is the poison, it may be a little tricky!"

Chapter 2349

At this time, Doris Young, hearing Donald Lance's words, was very nervous, and hurriedly asked: "Captain Lance, based on your experience, is my father more likely to accidentally come into contact with this kind of poison, or he was secretly exposed. The possibility of poisoning is greater?"

"Not good." Donald Lance carefully explained: "The situation and clues we have now are indeed too limited. Basically, there are no very useful clues to help us determine the direction."

After that, he asked again: "By the way, Ms. Young, can your father be questioned in his current state? If you ask him directly about some things, you may be able to get more useful clues."

Doris Young shook his head and sighed. "My father has been in a deep coma for the past two days..."

Donald Lance hesitated for a moment, then smacked his lips, and said, "Tsk...Why not?"

"You just said that your father had barely been out for a while before he became ill, so I guess he is still more likely to be poisoned at home!"

"It's just that it's too likely to be poisoned through food and drink."

"If you If it's convenient, can you let us collect clues from your home? If we can find highly toxic substances in your home, then there is a way to continue to trace the source?!"

"After our professional criminal investigators come to investigate, there may be more The discovery of value."

When Doris Young heard this, she almost said without hesitation: "No problem! It can be done at any time. When would it be more convenient for you?"

Donald Lance said immediately: "The matter is urgent. If possible, let us Let's go now!"

Doris Young said hurriedly, "No problem! I'll take a few people over now."

After that, she turned her head to look at Dr. Kelso, and said with a pleading expression: "Dr. Kelso, my mother these days She's always been very nervous, don't tell her about this."

Dr. Kelso nodded immediately: "No problem, Ms. Young, don't worry, I will keep your mother strictly confidential."

"Okay, thank you Dr. Kelso!"

Doris Young thanked Dr. Kelso, and then looked at Donald Lance. He opened his mouth and said: "Captain Lance, then I will take you to my house now?"

"Okay. " Donald Lance nodded and said: "It's not too late , let's go now!"

Fifteen minutes later. Doris Young brought a few police officers and a few technicians from the Criminal Investigation Division to her cottage.

Doris Young's family is relatively well-off, her parents' income is very high, and her own income is not low, so the family has a small villa with more than 300 square meters and three floors with yard in Aurouss Hilll.

The decoration style of the villa is very elegant Chinese decoration. The furniture and appliances in the house are also top-quality goods. At first glance, it is a family who pursues the quality of life.

The police officers put on shoe covers, gloves, and used various professional instruments to conduct careful technical inspections throughout the house.

At this time, Doris Young was completely wrapped up by her father's case, because this matter was so serious that her brain had already unconsciously left Charlie Wade's meal behind.

Now she just wants to find out, what is the cause of her father's poisoning, is it an accident, or someone maliciously poisoned it!

...

And at Mr. Quinton's house at this moment.

It was dinner time, and before Doris Young came, Mr. Quinton came to Charlie Wade and asked in a low voice, "Master Wade, Ms. Young has not come, do you think we should start or wait for her?"

Charlie Wade When I thought about it, Doris Young hadn't come, so there must be something to do. If I called her at this time, even if I didn't intend to urge her, in her opinion, there must be some urgency.

Chapter 2350

As her boss, once you call her, it will definitely bring some pressure to her. It would be inappropriate if it affects her to do important things.

So he said to Mr. Quinton, "It's okay, let's start first."

Anyway, for Charlie Wade, organizing the dinner today is secondary, and giving everyone a reward is the most important thing.

If Doris Young can't come tonight because of something, there is no need to rush her, just give her the pill in private when he has the opportunity.

As soon as Mr. Quinton heard this, he hurriedly said to everyone: "Come here, you all have a restaurant, and our banquet tonight is about to begin."

Then everyone followed Mr. Quinton to the restaurant. The chef of Quinton's family was already in the restaurant. Sixteen cold dishes were placed on his table.

Lord Mooore said with a smile, "Mr. Quinton, there are only 16 cold cuts. This is a bit too expensive, right?"

Mr. Quinton hurriedly said: "How come Lord Mooore, all of you are guests of Quinton, and Today is not me, but Master Wade, the banquet must be done in accordance with the highest standards!"

Old Moore nodded and smiled: "Thank you Mr. Quinton and Master Wade for the hospitality!"

Charlie Wade smiled. Said: "Lord Mooore doesn't have to be so polite, please sit down soon !" Everyone sat down, and Mr. Quinton immediately sent someone to get a few bottles of collector-grade Moutai.

After everyone had poured a glass of wine, Charlie Wade picked up his wine glass and said very seriously: "Thank you all for your appreciation today, and thank you Mr. Quinton for helping arrange all this, I will toast everyone!"

Everyone heard this. Then, they picked up their wine glasses and stood up. Dr. Simmons hurriedly said: "Master Wade! All of you here have been favored by you. Why are you and us so polite?"

Charlie Wade laughed: "Okay. Let's not say much if you're polite, everyone made this cup together!"

Everyone at the dinner table said together, "Done!"

After that, Charlie Wade poured himself a lot of wine, and said: "During the Chinese New Year, everyone is really spending a bit of money. To be honest, I feel a little bit unconscious in my heart."

Charlie Wade said again: "But , I won't say more if you're polite, so I hope you don't be polite to me."

Everyone nodded, and some people were already excited.

The difference between them and Doris Young is that they both received the medicine from Charlie Wade, and they went to Charlie Wade's house together to pay New Year's greetings during the New Year. At that time, Charlie Wade said that Mr. Quinton would prepare something, so everyone knew that Charlie Wade is preparing to make some pills in return.

As for Doris Young, she had never received the elixir given by Charlie Wade, and she did not go with Charlie Wade at the time, so she didn't know what Charlie Wade's purpose was for a treat today.

If she knew that Charlie Wade would take out the blood-saving heart-saving pill that can cure all diseases today and give it to everyone, then she would definitely not miss this opportunity.

Because as long as she got a pill of blood to save the heart, her father's condition could be completely healed.

Charlie Wade left the table temporarily at this time and took the medicine he had prepared from the car, and the one he had prepared for Doris Young was put into his pocket.

Afterwards, he brought these medicines back to the dinner table, took out the boxes containing the medicines one by one, and said seriously: "Everyone, these are some blood-saving heart-saving medicines that I have recently made from Chief Quinton to prepare materials. This kind of pill can't say immortality, but at least it can cure all diseases and treat serious injuries. I hope everyone will take good care of it and take it out at critical moments."

Everyone was happy when they saw Charlie Wade take out the pill. Moving.

Without saying anything, Don Albertt stood up and walked around the chair, knelt on his knees piously, and said excitedly: "Don Albertt, Master Wade gives medicine!"

Everyone saw this, without exception, they all got up Charlie Wade knelt down in front of him, and said in unison: "Master Wade gives medicine!"

Chapter 2351

For Charlie Wade, the blood-saving heart-saving pill was nothing but ordinary, not a big deal.

However, for others, this thing can't say that it can prolong life, but at least it has a life-saving effect at the most critical moment. With it, it is equivalent to one more life at the critical moment.

Jasmine is the best example. If it hadn't been for a pill that she carried close to her body, the moment she fell from a cliff in Japan, she would have disappeared like everyone else in a foreign country. Therefore, deep in the hearts of everyone present, they were so excited that there was nothing to add.

Charlie Wade divided the pill one by one, and then said to everyone: "Everyone collect the medicine, let's continue to eat." Then everyone cautiously put the wooden box containing the pill into their pockets, got up and returned to their seats. .

After a meal, the guests enjoyed themselves. Until nine o'clock in the evening, when the meal was over, Doris Young still did not contact Charlie Wade. Charlie Wade drove away from Mr. Quinton's villa, and then took out his mobile phone, ready to call Doris Young, and asked her if she had any trouble.

At this moment, Doris Young was at home, anxiously awaiting the results of police criminal investigators.

A dozen professional criminal investigators came to the house one after another to conduct a carpet inspection of the entire house, but the source of the poisoning is still not found.

At this moment, the mobile phone in Doris Young's pocket suddenly rang.

She was taken aback by the ringing of the phone, and immediately took out her mobile phone and found that Charlie Wade had actually called. Then she remembered that she also promised Charlie Wade to go to the dinner he organized in the evening!

However, looking at the time on the phone again, it is already nine o'clock in the evening!

She was stunned by the time, and she thought to herself: "Why is it nine o'clock all of a sudden?! Oh, I completely forgot about the time... Let the young master's pigeons, the young master will not blame me Right?"

Thinking of this, she hurriedly connected to the phone and said very sorry: "Master...I'm really sorry, I...I have something in my house, I forgot the time... ..I'm sorry..."

Charlie Wade heard the tension in her voice, and said: "It's okay, I didn't call to blame you, I mainly wanted to ask what happened to you, do you need it? Help?"

Doris Young said hurriedly: "Master, I don't have much need to help, but I encountered some unexpected incidents at home, I have been dealing with it at night, but I was so busy that I forgot the time..."

Charlie Wade Seriously said: "If you need help with anything, you must not be polite to me, just talk."

At this moment, Doris Young was moved in her heart, and suddenly remembered the rejuvenation pill.

"One rejuvenation pill is enough to solve all the problems facing my father..."

"However, the value of the rejuvenation pill is too expensive..."

"It sold before for One billion, how can I afford it?"

"Since I can't afford it, should I ask the young master for one?"

"How can I open this mouth?"

Thinking of this, she felt depressed. , Stubbornly said: "Thank you for your kindness, Master, I can handle it by myself, but I didn't make the appointment for your meal. I'm really sorry..."

Charlie Wade said in a convenient way : "It doesn't matter what the meal is. For family matters, we will have another dinner for another day."

Chapter 2352

Doris Young said gratefully, "Thank you so much, Master!"

Charlie Wade smiled calmly: "It's okay, don't be so polite with me."

When it came to this, Charlie Wade wanted her to be busy first, so she wouldn't delay herself. her busy family thing, but just then through the phone, he suddenly heard a man's voice: "Ms. Young, we found the source of your father poisoning!"

At that time, Doris Young was still holding a mobile phone, but when she heard this, she had completely forgotten that she was still on the phone with Charlie Wade, and she blurted out and asked nervously: "Captain Lance, where is the source of the poisoning you mentioned? ! " before piling on hand wearing latex gloves, holding a thick book, opening: "our investigators found the book of every piece of paper, contain mercury dichloride " "and , We found that the traces of this book are very new and there are many. It is estimated that your father has read this book more frequently recently."

"When he reads this book, his hands will be contaminated. A small part of the mercury dichloride smeared on it will be directly absorbed through the skin, and a part of it may be eaten into the stomach with the food when he takes the food."

"Also, when the previous generation read books There is often a bad habit. When turning pages, he likes to wet his fingers with his tongue. I don't know if your father has such a habit?"

Doris Young nodded lightly and said, "My father does have this habit of reading... ..I also said before that it is unsanitary to turn books like that, but their generation has long been used to it, so this problem has never been corrected..."

Donald Lance nodded and said, "Then By the way, I think the excessive mercury dichloride in your father's body came from this book!"

Doris Young was struck by lightning immediately and blurted out: "Captain Lance, is it possible that someone deliberately poisoned my dad?!"

Donald Lance nodded and said: "From the painting process in the book, mercury dichloride is in a very fine powder form, completely spread on the paper, so it is almost colorless and tasteless. , It's also difficult to identify, so it can be speculated that this is definitely man-made, and the other party is very cautious and has a strong sense of reconnaissance!"

Doris Young said angrily: "My father has taught and educated people throughout his life, and has never offended anyone. , Who would do such a bad hand to him!"

Donald Lance hurriedly asked her: "Do you know how this book came about?"

Doris Young nodded hurriedly and said, "This book was received by my father before the Chinese New Year. It was sent by the courier that arrived."

Donald Lance was overjoyed and asked, "Who is the sender?!"

Doris Young shook her head and said, "The courier at the time did not fill in the sender's information, but it was in it. I brought a note. The person who wrote the note claimed to be a student my dad had taught before. He said that he stumbled across this book abroad and knew that my dad would like it, so he bought it and gave it to him. . " before piling frown asked:"? there is no sender information, you have no doubt it was " the Police Captain sighed, very self-blame, said:" my dad teaching the rest of my life, taught the students do not count it Many students often mail some books to him, including books published by themselves, or some orphans they found in foreign countries. My father also mails some books he has read to his students... "You also know that books are the most common gifts that academics give each other, so we really didn't take it too seriously..."

Captain Lance frowned and asked: "Express package is it still there?"

Doris Young shook his head: "My mother cleans those things once a day."

Donald Lance asked again: "What courier company was at that time, do you remember?"

Doris Young thought for a while and said, "It seems to be a copy. The postal international express, sent from Greece."

When Donald Lance heard this, he sighed, and said, "It seems that we can't find a clue..."

Doris Young hurriedly asked: "Why?"

Donald Lance explained: "If it is really sent from Greece When entering the customs, it will be detected by the customs. The customs inspection methods are much stricter than ours. Many people who are clever and want to cross-border drug trafficking through similar methods will be detected by the customs. Therefore, this kind of poison is smeared. It's impossible to deliver books to your home..." After that, Donald Lance said seriously: "I guess that the international express delivery is fake, and the delivery person must be fake too. The murderer is not abroad, but at home. ! It is very likely to be in Arouss Hilll!"

Chapter 2353

"They're in Arouss Hilll?!" When Doris Young heard this, she couldn't help gritting her teeth!

Immediately, she said angrily and coldly: "This person is doing everything possible to harm my father. I don't know what the intention is! Captain Lance, please think of a way to get this person to justice!"

He nodded and said seriously: "This kind of criminal case involving murder is an absolute major and important case. We will do our best to solve it quickly!"

He sighed as he said, "Hey, but because there are too few clues at present, I have no time. I can assure you."

Doris Young nodded gently, and said: "I understand this."

Donald Lance said again: "By the way, Ms. Young, please help me remember the time first. When did we receive this express? Adjust the surveillance videos around that time period, and find out the person delivering the express first!"

Doris Young thought for a while, and said, "I was very busy at work during the time before the Chinese New Year. I really can't remember it. You wait. Me, I will call my mother and ask if she remembers."

"Okay!"

Doris Young immediately raised her cell phone to her eyes and was about to call her mother. Only then did she find out that Charlie Wade's phone number has not been available yet. Hang up, and the number in the call time column is still increasing, which proves that the call is still in the state.

She felt tight, picked it up hurriedly, and said to Charlie Wade: "Sorry young master, I was a little urgent just now, so"

Charlie Wade had already heard the whole process of her conversation with Captain Lance, so he couldn't doubt it. In a voice, she said: "Ms. Young, tell me the address of your home!"

Doris Young said hurriedly and nervously: "Master, I still don't trouble you with my family affairs."

Charlie Wade said coldly: "Tell me the address. ,I am going now!"

Doris Young heard Charlie Wade's tone very harshly, and was immediately suppressed by his momentum, so she had to whisper: "My family is in the second phase of Shady Hills Villa 11,"

Charlie Wade nodded, and said: "I know this community. I'm not too far away, I'll be there in ten minutes!"

Doris Young felt a little nervous after hearing that Charlie Wade was coming. She knew Charlie Wade's status was honorable, and she really didn't want to trouble Charlie Wade with her own affairs. but, she can't help but think again, Charlie Wade is a figure with hands and eyes open to the sky after all. He is not only the young master of the Wade family, but also the master Wade who is highly regarded by the upper class of Arouss Hilll. If he is willing to help, the probability of finding the murderer is Efficiency should be improved.

Thinking of this, she no longer struggled too much, and decisively agreed: "Good master, I'll be waiting for you at the door!" After hanging up the phone, Doris Young called her mother who was in the hospital again.

After confirming the time when his father received the book with his mother, the police began to check from the surveillance video to see if he could lock the person who delivered the courier. When he found the person, he could find the person behind the scenes.

At the same time, Donald Lance also advised Doris Young not to live at home in the near future. After all, this has risen to the height of a criminal case, and the other party's methods are concealed.

Doris Young accepted Donald Lance's suggestion and planned to move directly to the hospital tonight and guard her father in the hospital with her mother.

At the same time, Donald Lance also promised to send a few plainclothes police officers to secretly deploy control in the hospital to prevent the murderer from acting on their family.

After the technical staff of the Criminal Investigation Division collected the evidence, Donald Lance prepared to lead the team to evacuate.

Chapter 2354

They have obtained the evidence, the next thing to do is to search for clues, so they are not going to continue to spend time in Doris Young's villa.

Before leaving, Donald Lance said to Doris Young: "Ms. Young, I suggest you leave home now and go to the People's Hospital."

Doris Young nodded and said seriously: "Thank you, Captain Lance, I just packed up and drove over. "

Donald Lance said: "Well, I will go back to the team to organize a meeting of the task force. At the same time, if there is any progress in the investigation, I will notify you as soon as possible, but you and your mother also help us recall some useful details. If you have any new clues, please inform me in time." "No problem! Excuse me, Captain Lance!" After repeated thanks, Doris Young sent a group of policemen out of the door.

Several police cars roared away.

Before Doris Young could move, Charlie Wade drove the BMW five series of Jacob Wilson, his father-in-law, to the door of Doris Young's house.

Charlie Wade saw Doris Young at the door, so he parked the car in front of her.

Just stop the car, then pushed out the door and Charlie Wade anxiously asked: "Ms. Young, in the end how it was your father was poisoned how did you say to me???"

Seeing so Charlie Wade With anxious appearance, Doris Young was deeply moved. Looking at Charlie Wade's handsome face, Doris Young felt a little more at ease, but also a little bit more of the kind of grievances peculiar to little women. She has always been an image of a strong woman in front of others, and her performance is also very strong, but deep down, she still can't escape the essence of a young woman. In the face of such a major tribulation and change, she is holding on alone, already reaching her limit.

She also longed to have a strong and powerful shoulder, so that she could rely on, even if it was just a moment of relaxation, it could bring great comfort to herself.

Therefore, at the moment when he saw Charlie Wade appear in front of him, Doris Young just wanted to hold him and cry.

However, the trace of reason left in Doris Young's heart is constantly admonishing herself: "No, absolutely no, he is my boss and the young master Wade family, how can I go up and hug him"

Amidst confusion, Doris Young throws away I opened up this absurd idea in my mind, red eyes and whispered: "Back to the young master, my father was admitted to the People's Hospital for acute kidney failure after the Chinese New Year. He always thought that his transplanted kidney had a problem. I only found out today. It turns out that he was poisoned by mercury dichloride, and someone deliberately poisoned him."

Charlie Wade asked her, "How is your father's condition now?"

Doris Young choked up: "He is in a very poor condition. The doctor said that he was transplanted. The window for the kidneys is at most fifteen days, but he happens to be rh-negative blood again. It is very difficult to match the type. In such a short time, the possibility of finding the source of the kidney is very slim."

Charlie Wade nodded, without hesitation Said: "Get in the car, I'll go to the People's Hospital with you!"

Doris Young hurriedly said, "Master, how am I to trouble you?"

Charlie Wade said with a serious expression, "Ms. Young, your father is poisoned, and not a normal kidney transplant either!"

"The doctor told you today that he has a 15-day window period, and tomorrow it is likely to become ten days or even five days!"

"In such a short period of time, if you hope to find a suitable kidney source, The possibility is not very slim, but almost impossible!"

Chapter 2355

Doris Young lowered her head unconsciously when she heard this.

At this time, she couldn't help feeling in her heart: "The young master is right. That's how my father's situation is getting worse every day. There is no hope at all."

The only gleam of hope is the one that Walter found in the United States. The source of successful kidney However, Walter's conditions are a great insult to my personality and character. However, if I am unwilling to accept his conditions, I must be prepared for my father to die at any time."

Thinking of this, Doris Young's eyes were sore, tears burst into her eyes instantly, dripping uncontrollably on the cold concrete floor. Afterwards, Doris Young's negative emotions accumulated for many days exploded in an instant, slowly falling to the ground, crying with a headache.

Charlie Wade saw that Doris Young, who had always been strong, was sobbing silently at this moment, and his heart could not help but feel a little distressed, thinking to himself: "She must have reached the point where she has nowhere to go, and her emotions will collapse like this."

Thinking of this, He squatted in front of Doris Young, patted her shoulder gently, and said seriously: "Doris, it doesn't matter if you can't find the kidney source. I have a better way to save your father. It can save the old man from the pain of getting a knife on the operating table." When Doris Young heard this, she couldn't help but raised her head, looking at Charlie Wade in amazement, choked up: "Young Master, is it true?"

"Of course it is. Really." Charlie Wade nodded, stretched out his hand to open the co-pilot's car door, and said to Doris Young: "Get in the car! Go to the hospital to get your dad's body cured, and then thoroughly check who gave your dad The poison!" When Doris Young recovered, Charlie Wade had already opened the passenger's car door, and gently pushed her back, pushing her to the door.

Doris Young recalled what he had said the moment before, and asked with a face full of disbelief: "Young Master, do you really have a way to cure my father?"

Charlie Wade nodded, looked at her red eyes, and said seriously: "Since I have said it, it must be possible!"

Doris Young subconsciously said: "But but the doctors say that kidney failure is irreversible."

Charlie Wade said, Saying in one sentence: "The doctor can't reverse it, it doesn't mean that Charlie Wade can't."

Charlie Wade took out the pill that was originally prepared for Doris Young from his pocket, and said: "This medicine was originally for you. Prepared, you take it, and when you get to the hospital, you will take it to your father to ensure that the medicine will be cured!"

Doris Young was stunned: "Young Master, you said this medicine was originally prepared for me? Did you already know My father's business?"

Charlie Wade shook his head and said, "The main reason why I organized a dinner today is to thank everyone for visiting my house during the Chinese New Year and paying a lot of money. That's why I prepared a treat for everyone. The pill for dispelling blood and saving the heart, although this medicine is not as effective as the rejuvenating pill, it is enough to treat your father's illness." When Doris Young heard this, her whole person was still a little dreamt.

She subconsciously asked: "Master, this medicine can really cure my father?"

Charlie Wade said, "If it can be cured, you'll know when you get to the hospital. Get in the car soon!"

Although Doris Young was not 100% sure, Can Charlie Wade's pill cure her father, but she was very excited at this time, nodded hurriedly, and got into the car under Charlie Wade's urging.

Subsequently, Charlie Wade started the car and drove to Aurouss Hilll People's Hospital quickly

Chapter 2356

At the same time, Walter, who was in the Aurouss Hilll International Hotel, received a call from his subordinates.

As soon as the other party came up, he hurriedly said: "Boss, I heard a person from Aurouss Hilll Police say that the police have found a book containing mercury dichloride from Doris Young's house! Now a special case team has been set up and the investigation of that book has begun. There's a clue!"

"What?!" Walter exclaimed and blurted out: "How can the Aurouss Hilll police be so fast?" The other party said: "We didn't expect that their efficiency would be so high."

Walter hesitated for a moment and said. "You didn't leave any clues when you pretended to be a courier to deliver the courier, did you?"

The man thought for a while and said, "It shouldn't be. The car that delivered the courier was a licensed car. It was impossible to find the clues , The disguised courier also wears a mask and should not be found."

Walter's brow furrowed and his expression gloomy, with his huge hooked nose, it seemed a bit more cruel.

He thought for a moment, and then said: "Immediately kill the guy who pretends to be a courier!" The other party was obviously taken aback, and after a while, he said in a bit of horror: "The old boss usually performs well and is very clever. There is no need to do him just because of this, he is still very safe."

"No need?" Walter said coldly, "Do you fucking understand criminal investigation? He is the only one exposed to the police. Man, even if he wears a mask? Do you think it's safe to wear a mask?"

"A person has ears, nose, mouth and eyebrows on his face. The mask can only cover his mouth and nose! The police can still use surveillance video. The shape of his face, eyes, eyebrows, ears! I can clearly see his body shape, his height, his hairstyle, and his walking posture!"

"If Doris Young's surveillance video tape microphone is in front of his house, the police can still control him. His voice characteristics! With so many clues exposed, do you still think he is very safe?"

When the other party heard this, the nervous voice immediately trembled: "I'm sorry, boss, I, I didn't expect this to be so serious."

Walter gritted his teeth and said: "You tell him, just say I Prepare him a million in cash, and then ask you to send him to run quickly. Then you will drive him away from Arouss Hilll, and find a remote place to kill him!" As he said, Walter hurriedly ordered: "Remember to use the method of poisoning and never see the blood. If you get blood everywhere, it will be difficult to deal with the crime scene!"

The other party hurriedly asked: "Boss, how should the corpse be handled? Just throw it into the river. How about? The river is more than a hundred meters deep, and there is a high probability that it will not be discovered!"

Walter said contemptuously, "Fool! No matter how deep the river is, it is useless! There are undercurrents at the bottom of the river. Things rushed downstream, and once the corpse reached the shallow water area downstream, it was likely to be washed up on the shore! Otherwise, how do you think those Marcone Syndicate corpses were found?"

The other party hurriedly asked when he heard this. "Boss, do you have any good ideas?"

Walter thought for a while, and said coldly: "In this way, you can find an anchor used on a speedboat, tie the corpse with an iron chain, hang the anchor, and bring the people together. The anchors were thrown into the river together. The anchors would fix the body in the sand on the bottom of the river like a fixed boat. The undercurrents would be difficult to take him away." The other party hurriedly agreed and said, "Good boss! I will Go and do it!"

Walter hung up the phone, a man with a dark face pacing in front of the window, cursing in a low voice: "Damn! I didn't expect the Arouss Hilll police to be so fast. Doris Young, it seems I have to push you again. That's it!"

After that, he immediately picked up his cell phone and dialed his phone.

As soon as the phone was connected, Walter immediately said in a cold voice: "Prepare the car immediately! Go to Arouss Hilll People's Hospital in five minutes!"

Chapter 2357

Aurouss Hilll International Hotel is located in the city center, closer to Aurouss Hilll People's Hospital than Doris Young's villa area. Therefore, when Walter got into Rolls Royce and set off for the hospital, Charlie Wade and Doris Young had just walked halfway.

When Charlie Wade parked the car and walked into the inpatient building of the People's Hospital with Doris Young, Walter's car also followed into the parking lot.

Doris Young was excited and nervous. She would become a runner without taking two steps. Charlie Wade also speeded up and trot with her to the door of the ward.

Pushing the door and entering, Doris Young's mother Sydney was lying in front of the bed to rest. Although Sydney is only in her fifties, she is very tired at this time. Her mental state seemed to be no different from a Lady in her sixties or seventies.

Hearing the sound of the two entering the door, Sydney raised her head. Seeing that it was her daughter Doris Young and a man she didn't know, she was a little surprised and asked: "Doris, who is this?"

Doris Young subconsciously wanted to say that Charlie Wade is her boss. But Charlie Wade took the lead at this time and said with a smile: "Hello, my name is Charlie Wade Wade, Ms. Young's friend!"

Sydney nodded hastily, and said politely: "Oh, hello, Mr. Wade"

Doris Young Seeing that Charlie Wade didn't want to reveal his identity as the chairman of the Emgrand Group, he hurriedly said to his mother: "Mom! Charlie Wade has a miraculous medicine that can cure all diseases. Dad is saved this time!"

As soon as the voice fell, the door to the ward was pushed open.

Walter sneered as he walked in, "Which magic stick said he has a magic drug that can cure all diseases? I swindled money into a regular hospital, so brave!"

Seeing Walter coming in, Doris Young His face immediately became very ugly.

She glared at Walter and said coldly: "You are not welcome here! Please go out!"

Walter smiled with interest, and said, "Ms. Young, how come your temper will rise at night?"

After speaking, he paced to Doris Young, smiled disdainfully, and said: "Haha , Ms. Young, you are turning your face so fast now because you got the magical medicine that your Chinese Magic Stick often said to cure all diseases?! In our United States, there are often some Chinese Magic Sticks cheating money in Chinatown. But as long as they are caught by the federal police, all will be sent to jail without exception! I don't know that your Chinese Law does not care?"

When he said this, he couldn't help looking at Charlie Wade, looked up and down Charlie Wade for a moment, and asked with a smile. Doris Young: "Is this guy the magic stick? It seems to be a little younger than most of the magic sticks!"

Charlie Wade couldn't help but frowned when he saw Walter's arrogant appearance.

He saw Walter for the first time, and he didn't know the relationship and entanglement between Doris Young and Walter.

Even Doris Young's father was seriously ill and was hospitalized. He had just heard about it, so he was a little puzzled about the sudden emergence of Walter in front of him. He didn't know the origin of this blond foreigner.

Doris heard Walter described Charlie Wade as a god stick, and immediately yelled angrily: "Walter, don't talk about it here! This is the master Charlie Wade Wade who everyone knows in Aurouss Hilll! Not what you call it. Magic stick!"

Walter curled his lips and said disdainfully: "Don't you all of China's magic sticks like to be masters? What masters, metaphysics masters, Fengshui masters, there are masters everywhere, in my opinion, it is all him. Damn liar!"

Charlie Wade was already a little upset at this time, so he said: "I advise you to respect it before you speak. This is China, not the United States."

Walter looked at Charlie Wade and said contemptuously: "Boy , I don't want to talk too much nonsense with you, I'm here to talk to Ms. Young about her father, and those who have nothing to do with it can get away as soon as possible!"

Chapter 2358

Charlie Wade sneered and said: "You have a big tone, what on earth is it that makes you have the confidence to speak out here?" Walter sneered with a haughty expression: "My name is Walter Hogwitz, you god Stick, have you heard of the famous Hogwitz family in the United States?"

Charlie Wade smiled calmly: "I'm sorry, I haven't heard of the Witz family you are talking about."

Walter said coldly: "I Let me tell you! The Hogwitz family is a well-known large real estate developer in the United States. Its business is not only spread across the United States, but also has a large industry in Canada, the United Kingdom, Germany, and France. We even own one in Manhattan, New York. The mansion named after the Hogwitz family!"

Charlie Wade curled his lips and smiled: "You have a mansion in Manhattan, New York, so you dare to come to China to force you, did you carry that mansion on your back? "

Walter frowned when he heard this. He could hear that the meaning of Charlie Wade's words was to ridicule his own mansion in Manhattan, New York, which would not work well in China.

So, he shouted coldly: "Boy, although the building can't be moved, the US dollars in my account can be circulated around the world anytime and anywhere. This is called hard currency and hard power, understand?"

Charlie Wade Nodded and smiled: "I understand when you say this."

Charlie Wade couldn't help but ask curiously: "I don't know how much you Hogwitz family are worth in total?"

Walter snorted coldly: "That's over tens of billions!" As he said, Walter waved his hand in disgust, and muttered: "I don't understand what I do with you, a god stick!"

Then, he Immediately looking at Doris Young who was aside, he went straight to the subject and said: "Ms. Young, I don't want to talk too much nonsense with you. I have said many things countless times, and my mouth has become cocoon."

"I'll say it again for the last time. It's uncle's kidney source problem. Do you want to agree to my terms?"

"If you don't agree, the kidney source can't be kept!"

Doris Young subconsciously asked, "You didn't mean it. Will you give me 24 hours? It's just a long time!"

Walter smiled and said, "Sorry, the French suddenly added fifty thousand dollars to the donor in order to grab this kidney source!"

"Now there are some donors. Shaken, he wants me to settle down with him as soon as possible."

"Otherwise, he will sell it directly to the French, so you have to give me a clear answer now, yes or no!"

Charlie Wade at this time Doris Young asked, "Ms. Young, what is going on?"

Doris Young replied, "Master Wade, this Walter was a classmate who was studying in the United States. He helped my dad find a successful kidney source in the United States, but The request is "

When it came to this, Doris Young suddenly became stuttered. Those words of Walter were so shameless that she couldn't even describe them in words.

At this time, Walter sneered: "My request is very simple. Let Ms. Young be my lover for ten years! Give me a few more children! Why, do you have an opinion?"

Chapter 2359

In fact, Walter still has a lot of business requirements for Doris Young, and even wants her to help herself empty the Emgrand Group. It's just that Walter didn't say this in front of Charlie Wade. However, Walter had reservations, but it still made Charlie Wade angry and unbearable.

He grabbed Walter by the collar and slapped it with the other hand! This big hand is extremely powerful, and the punch that he suddenly slams was instantly relieved of all his strength! Not only that, he can't even let his fist move forward!

Walter was shocked and hurriedly wanted to pull his fists back, but in the next second, he realized that the opponent's strength was so great that he could not shake these big hands with all his strength!

It felt like an ant was pressed at the fingertips of a giant, without any ability to resist. In Walter's view, this almost violates common sense of physics!

In his opinion, even if the opponent is very strong, he can't break away from the opponent's restraint at all, but if he uses all the strength to pull, the opponent's arm should at least move along?

Even if the opponent is a world champion, it is impossible to get rid of violently and ensure that his arm is almost motionless. Only at this moment did Walter realize that he was in trouble! With such a weird skill, even if the bodyguard follows him up, it is no use!

So, he immediately put on an extremely flattering expression, and confessed: "Master Wade I am really sorry! I have just arrived here, but I don't know anyone, and I hope you don't have general knowledge with me."

Chapter 2360

Charlie Wade grabbed his fist tightly, and asked with a sneer: "What? If you can't beat it, you will admit it? This is what you call the Hogwitz family style?"

Walter did not expect Charlie Wade to dare to humiliate My family is naturally extremely angry. However, he knew very well that the disparity between himself and Charlie Wade's strength was too great. At this time, only by recognizing counsel can he minimize losses.

As for the lost face, it doesn't matter much, the big deal is when you find the opportunity to get it back a thousand times!

Think of it, he immediately said: "Master Wade, as you said, Hogwarts is indeed a powerful family in the United States, but here is China, Aurouss Hilll, also fail to get me to run wild here,"

He pretended to be pious and pleaded: "Master Wade, please see that because I am the first offender and have been slapped twice by you, please spare me this time."

Charlie Wade saw his face swollen into a pig's head. Appearance, coldly snorted: "You didn't even realize what your biggest mistake was! So, in my opinion, your superficial apology is just a trick to get out of trouble, without any sincerity!"

Walter's scared face turned pale, and he blurted out: "Master Wade, you really misunderstood me. I really know that I was wrong. Ten thousand pious apologies to you,"

Charlie Wade sneered. , And then suddenly twisted his right hand, only hearing a click, Walter's wrist broke.

Walter screamed in pain immediately, and almost collapsed and shouted: "My hand! Why are you doing this to me! I have already admitted to you!"

Charlie Wade looked at him and said coldly: "You are the most The person who should apologize is not me, but Ms. Young! You blackmailed her with your kidney source to achieve your shameless sordid goal. Haven't you ever thought of apologizing to her?!"

When Walter heard this, he hurriedly looked at Doris Young on the side and blurted out: "Ms. Young, I was wrong! I really knew it was wrong! Please don't be familiar with me, and also help me beseech with Master Wade."

Doris Young At this moment, there was more or less compassion. Although she knew that Walter was a nasty person, in her opinion, Walter's nasty was only his own wishful thinking, and she did not agree to him, nor was he intimidated by him. And looking at the current Walter, Charlie Wade had been beaten badly enough, and even one wrist was broken, which is almost the same.

So she said to Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, let him go, after all, I didn't lose anything."

Charlie Wade nodded. He also didn't want to be familiar with Walter. The descendant of an American real estate developer, worth tens of billions of dollars, will not be seen by China itself, not to mention this is still in Arouss Hilll.

Therefore, as long as this Walter rolls farther from now on, he doesn't bother to be familiar with him.

So, he stared at Walter, warning word by word: "From now on, don't let me see you again, and don't let Ms. Young see you again, understand?"

Walter heard this. The whole person is immediately amnesty!

He looked at Charlie Wade and nodded like garlic and said: "Master Wade, don't worry, I will never appear in front of you and Ms. Young in the future. " When he said this, Walter thought: "Good for you. Your surname is Wade, you fucking dare to beat me, and you dare to break my wrist. If I don't kill you, I won't have the fucking surname Hogwitz!"

Charlie Wade didn't bother to listen to him Nonsense, he loosened his hand and said disdainfully: "Get off now! Keep rolling!"

Walter nodded again and again: "It's me, get off now ! Get off now. " He turned around and walked outside.

At this moment, Charlie Wade frowned slightly, and suddenly called him sternly: "Wait a moment! I'll ask you a question!"

Chapter 2361

Walter thought he could get away by chance, but he didn't expect Charlie Wade to ask himself questions at this time.

So, he was taken aback, turned his head hurriedly, and asked with a smile, "Master Wade, what do you want?"

Charlie Wade looked at him and smiled: "It's not a matter of concern, just ask you about it. Something."

Walter breathed a sigh of relief and hurriedly said, "Master Wade, just ask!"

Charlie Wade nodded slightly and asked with a smile: "mercury dichloride, do you know what it is?"

Walter snorted in his heart, his face pretended to be surprised and replied: "I don't know what mercury dichloride is?" At the moment of speaking, Walter suddenly had a sudden heart!

With his excellent psychological quality, he made his expression not change much. However, Charlie Wade still noticed the imperceptible stiffness and panic on his face. Almost at this moment, Charlie Wade concluded that Walter must be inseparable from the poisoning of Doris Young's father!

Therefore, Charlie Wade's expression became gloomy at this moment. He grabbed Walter by the collar and sternly shouted: "If you tell the truth, I will make you die a little bit faster!"

Walter shook his head again and again, blurting out his innocence. Said: "Master Wade, are you wrong? I don't understand what mercury dichloride is, why did you catch me again because of this incident"

Doris Young was also shocked. Just now, when Charlie Wade asked Walt suddenly, if he knew what mercury dichloride was, she felt a little bit in her heart. She was shocked because she had never thought that her father would be killed by Walter.

Because she had always preconceived that Walter appeared after her father was seriously ill, trying to take advantage of the fire, but she didn't think that Walter was actually the initiator of his father's serious illness.

So at that moment, she looked at Walter without blinking, hoping to see if he was lying. However, Walter's expression management ability is still very strong, so that Doris Young really did not see anything abnormal from his face. Therefore, at this moment, she even doubted whether Charlie Wade had made a mistake.

However, Charlie Wade was not bewitched by Walter's innocent expression at all.

He stared at Walter's eyes and said coldly: "I'll give you one last chance. If you still don't tell the truth, what awaits you next may be the eighteen layers of hell you never thought of before! "

Walter swallowed hard, crying and said: "Master Wade, I really don't understand what you are talking about! I don't learn chemistry, and I don't understand what mercury dichloride is. I know carbon dioxide. "

Charlie Wade nodded lightly, and sneered: "Okay, you choose everything yourself. You don't have to regret it in the future."

After that, he immediately took out his Apple phone from Walter's pocket. , Sneered: "Come, stretch your face over and let me unlock it, let me see if there is any shameful activity in your phone!"

Walter frightened, and blurted out: "You are invading others' privacy at will! You have the right to let the lawyer sue you!"

Charlie Wade pretended to be surprised and said, "Oh, when I hit you just now, you didn't say that you want a lawyer to sue me. Why should I look at your mobile phone instead? Asked the lawyer to sue me? Is there really something shameful in your phone?"

"No, absolutely nothing!" Walter said in a panic, "My phone contains all the trade secrets of our Hogwitz family, which is of great importance. Master Wade, if you read it, if it leaks out, it will definitely bring great economic losses to our Hogwitz family."

Chapter 2362

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "It's okay, if it really causes economic losses, the big deal is that I will accompany you. I am always happy, isn't it just money? You ask in Aurouss Hilll, when did Master Wade lack money? "

Walter also wanted to find an excuse to refuse, but Charlie Wade had already pointed the front camera of the phone at him.

I have to say that facial recognition on mobile phones is really easy to use. Even though Walter's cheeks were swollen, the phone immediately unlocked through his face. Walter's phone is all in English, but for Charlie Wade, it is not a problem at all.

Although he did not go to university, he received top-notch international education when he was young. Like current international schools, he has grown up in a multilingual environment since he was young.

In particular, Charlie Wade's mother is of Chinese American descent, and English is one of her mother tongues. She has received top aristocratic education since she was a child. She is not only proficient in English and Chinese, but also has a deep experience in Japanese, French and Spanish.

In China, it seems very rare for a person to speak multiple languages. This is mainly because China itself is not an immigrant country. Most of the population of more than one billion speaks Chinese.

The United States is different.

The United States itself is a country of immigrants. There are many English-speaking Europeans and many Chinese-speaking Chinese. Because it is very close to Mexico, there are many Spanish speakers.

In addition, Japan, South Korea, Vietnam in Asia, Germany, France, and Italy in Europe have had a large number of immigrants to the United States for settlement in the past two hundred years.

The biggest advantage of living in such an environment is being able to come into contact with cultures and languages from all over the world.

Therefore, Charlie Wade also benefited a lot from her mother, and laid a good language foundation since she was a child.

Turning on Walter's cell phone, Charlie Wade's first thing is to read SMS and WeChat.

Although it's all in English, it seems to be effortless.

Walter's entire face was as gray as hell. He almost desperately said: "You can't read my information record! This is illegal!"

Charlie Wade said coldly while looking through it, "Close your mouth, otherwise, I will cut off your other hand too!"

Walter looked terrified. He has no idea what to do now. If you just shut up, Charlie Wade will definitely find evidence of poisoning Doris Young's father from the chat records; but, if he doesn't shut up, what will be the result?

At most, Charlie Wade would break a hand again, and then wait for Charlie Wade to turn out the evidence. thinking of this, he regretted it very much, and wailed in his heart: "I'm such a fucking fighter! Why am I? Why should this time come to the hospital! If I, however, might not come tonight bastard! do not run into this asshole, it will not be tortured so badly! "

"being tortured no problem! If he found I instruct others to poison Doris Young's father's evidence, and then I'm completely finished! The Chinese police will surely sue me for intentional homicide."

"In that case, wouldn't I face at least seven or eight years, or even more than ten years in prison in China ?!"

Chapter 2363

Just when Walter was panicking, he just received a WeChat message on his mobile phone. The person who sent the WeChat had a name: Alex Briggs. From the list, I could only see that what Alex had sent was a picture, so Charlie Wade opened the message of Alex directly. It doesn't matter if you look at it, the photo that Alex sent is actually a corpse with foam at the mouth!

At this moment, the corpse was lying crookedly on a seat in a car. Aurouss Hilll stared very wide and his expression was very hideous. At first sight, he had died of poison.

Just when Charlie Wade was surprised, Alex sent another message with a sentence written in English, to the effect: Boss, the man has been killed, I will sink him in the river later, don't worry, this clue is definitely hidden!"

Charlie Wade immediately flipped through the chat records of Alex and Walter. The chat records of the two did not have a long conversation. Most of them were "finished", "coming soon", "come here soon." ", "Well done. "Such short sentences.

It seems that the two people don't usually use WeChat to communicate very often.

However, Charlie Wade soon discovered that in the chat records of the two, Walter actually sent it to Alex in Chinese. The words: Mercury dichloride!

And, shortly afterwards, Walter posted another one in English: "Remember this term, don't make a mistake! "As soon as he saw this word, Charlie Wade's pupils shrank suddenly!

Immediately, he stared at Walter and asked sternly: "Who is this Alex Briggs? Why did you let him get mercury dichloride? ! "

When Doris Young heard this word, her eyes widened, and she hurriedly walked to Charlie Wade to check. Seeing that the words "mercury dichloride" appeared in the chat history between Walter and Moore, Doris Young immediately understood what was Going on.

She asked Walter angrily: "Walter! I have no grievances with you, and have been classmates for many years, why did you harm my father?!"

Walter trembled in fright, and said: "I, I don't have my true no "

Charlie Wade leaves open the photo Alex has just sent me a piece of dead bodies, handed in front of Walter, asked: "I give you one last chance to explain clearly what've you in the end, otherwise, you are in this life. Don't even think about going back to the United States alive!"

Walter looked at the photo and his whole body was struck by lightning!

Alex's WeChat message was sent after Charlie Wade took his phone away, so it was the first time he saw this photo at this time.

He recognized the corpse in the photo at a glance, the subordinate who pretended to be a courier and delivered the poisoned book to Doris Young's house!

It seems that Alex quickly executed his order and directly tricked his subordinate to poison him to death in the car. At this moment, his pores all over his body instantly burst into cold sweat, and his heart was panicked to the extreme.

He was worried that his poisoning of Doris Young's father would be revealed, but then, even if it was revealed, at least Doris Young's father was still alive. The Chinese judicial branches would convict himself, and the sentence would be heavy.

Now, this subordinate is dead!

Chapter 2364

He instructed Alex to kill him, so he can't escape the crime of intentional murder! After all, in Chinese law, anyone who abets others to commit a crime must be punished as the principal offender! He instigated his subordinates to kill someone, even if he didn't do it himself, once he went to court, it would be at least a life sentence! If you add the crime of poisoning Doris Young's father, you might be sentenced to a suspended death sentence.

Thinking of this, he suddenly collapsed, knelt on the ground with a puff, and cried, "Sorry, I was confused for a while, I didn't mean it. I didn't mean it on purpose."

Charlie Wade slapped his face and asked: "You instructed your men to kill, and you said you didn't mean it? Are you fucking kidding me?!"

Walter covered his face and cried. Said: "I'm just a ghost. I want to take possession of Doris Young. I want Doris Young to resign from the Emgrand Group to help me expand our family's business in China. I want her to steal the Emgrand Group's business secrets and help me grow in China and she has a firm foothold, that's why I made the best move and wanted to force her to submit."

When Doris Young heard this, she was out of anger! Doris Young, who has always been very educated, couldn't control herself at this moment. She slapped Walter angrily and rebuked her hysterically: "Why?! Why did you do this?! My father's life, could it be? Your bargaining chip to develop your career and satisfy your animality? Why are you so vicious?! Tell me, why!!!"

Doris Young's mother heard this, and her blood pressure soared, she shivered and rebuked: " You bastard!!! You cost my husband's life!!!" After she finished speaking, she only felt dizzy in her brain, and she lost consciousness and fell straight to the ground.

Doris Young looked shocked, and subconsciously blurted out, "Mom!"

Charlie Wade hurriedly supported Doris Young's mother, and then checked her breath, and found that she was just an insufficiency of blood supply to the brain caused by her anger and heart attack, and there was no danger to her life, so he gently helped her to lie down on the sofa. .

At this time, Walter covered his face and cried bitterly: "Ms. Young, I beg you to forgive me this time. I can immediately call the staff in the United States and ask them to perform kidney removal surgery on the donor. I will send it to my uncle early tomorrow morning." "I can still give you 10 million US dollars as compensation. If 10 million is not enough, then 20 million." As he said, Walter cried and pleaded: "Ms. Young, Please, give me a chance! Please, don't hand me over to the police! "

Walter at this time is not afraid of what Charlie Wade will do to him. He felt that Charlie Wade would beat himself up, but his real trouble was China's judicial department.

After all, I'm not from China, and I don't have much personal connections in China. If I was arrested by the police and prosecuted, I would be sentenced to a suspended death sentence.

Walter still has some understanding of China's laws. Once he was sentenced to death with a suspended sentence, even if he was actively reformed in prison, he would never think of it for twenty years.

He is the eldest son of a tens of billions of dollars family, living a life of the most top, most extravagant, most wanton, most presumptuous dude, if he were to go to prison for more than 20 years, it would be more painful than killing him!

When Doris Young heard his pleading, she suddenly trembled with anger!

She stared at Walter hard and cursed coldly: "I tell you Walter! In any case, I won't let you escape legal sanctions! Wait, I will call the police and arrest you!"

Walter was so frightened that he cried and wailed, "No, Ms. Young, I beg you, Ms. Young, don't hand me over to the police! Even if you are unwilling to forgive me, you have to consider your father's life! If I am really caught Now, who will find your kidney source?! Who will save your father's life?! As a daughter, you can't just watch your father die?!"

Chapter 2365

Facing Walter's dying struggle, Charlie Wade said calmly: "Walter, don't worry, Ms. Young's father would not die without your kidney source!"

Walter shook his head, and said confidently, "No. Probably, absolutely impossible! The rh-negative kidney source is very difficult to find. Without my kidney source, he can only wait to die!"

After that, he knelt in front of Doris Young and cried and said, "Ms. Young, I beg You, as long as you are willing to let me go, don't hand me over to the police, I can give you 100 million dollars! Please, don't hand me over to the police, otherwise my life will be over."

Doris Young When he was about to refuse, Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said: "Walter, don't worry, I will never hand you over to the police!"

Walter thought that his $100 million promise had worked, and said hurriedly: "Wade Master, as long as you let me leave Aurouss Hilll, when I arrive in the United States, I will pay you 100 million dollars immediately!"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "My friend, don't get me wrong. I said I won't hand you over to The police, but it doesn't mean that I will let you go. These are two different things."

Walter looked at Charlie Wade in panic, blurted out and asked, "Then what do you want?"

Charlie Wade smiled: "Don't worry, what do I want That way, you will know soon." After that, Charlie Wade grabbed his collar and asked sharply: "I ask you, how many people did you bring to the People's Hospital this time? Let me say one less or one more. I'll let someone unload your arm!"

Walter shivered with fright, and quickly said, "There are five people including the driver and the bodyguard."

Charlie Wade continued to ask, "Where are the people?"

Walter said honestly. : "Everyone is in the car at the entrance of the lobby downstairs. There are two cars in total, one is Rolls Royce and the other is Buick Commercial."

Charlie Wade nodded, and immediately pulled a group on WeChat to send Cameron Isaac. He and Don Albertt came in and started a group voice chat.

After the two received them, they immediately connected in and asked in their voices: "Master, what do you want?"

Charlie Wade said seriously: "Isaac, Don Albertt, immediately send your most elite subordinates to help grab all of Walter Hogwitz's men, and don't keep any of them!"

After that, Charlie Wade said again: "Oh, yes, he still has a car in Aurouss Hillll People's Hospital, just outside the lobby of the inpatient department. Here, there are a Rolls Royce, a Buick Commercial, there are five people in total. You quietly send someone over and take them all to me!"

Cameron Isaac asked in surprise: "Master, why did you conflict with Walter? ? "

Charlie Wade asked him: "Do you know this Walter did? "

"I do not know, but I know this person. "Cameron Isaac explains:" Hogwartz family, although not in the United States the top family, but still some Well-known, so people like Walter come to Aurouss Hilll, and I will have a wired newspaper here."

"Wire newspaper?" Charlie Wade asked curiously: "Did you send someone to stare at this piece?"

"Yes!" Cameron Isaac said: " The task given to me by the Wade family is to control the entire Aurouss Hillll situation. Not only some internal situations in Aurouss Hillll, but also the external situations must be well known. Once some people with background come to Aurouss Hillll, I will make a record. "

Charlie Wade asked him: "Is this Hogwitz family very big?"

Cameron Isaac thought for a while and said seriously: "If you want to talk about this Hogwitz family, it's not very big, right?"

With that said, he continued to explain: "All the assets of the Hogwitz family add up to about 10 billion U.S. dollars. They are not even in the top two hundred in the United States, but their family has some special background."

Charlie Wade asked, "What is the special background?"

Cameron Isaac explained: "The Hogwitz family and the Rothschild family are more or less related."

"Oh?"

Hearing the Rothschild family, Charlie Wade couldn't help but move.

He knew that the highest moment of his father's life was to lead the Wade family and several other Chinese families to jointly fight against the economic aggression of the Rothschild family. That time, he caused the Rothschild family to suffer a lot of property damage and face loss.

Chapter 2366

Therefore, Charlie Wade also suspects that the death of his parents may be related to the Rothschild family.

Because of this, when he heard that even when Walter and the Rothschild family had some relationship, he can not help but sigh in my heart:. "I did not expect the first time I met with the Rothschilds, even coming so fast."

So Charlie Wade curiously asked Cameron Isaac: "The Hogwitz family, and the Rothschild family, what kind of relatives are they?"

Cameron Isaac introduced: "At best, it is a distant relative. After so many years of development, there are tens of thousands of people in their Rothschild family alone. In addition, there are countless other relatives." "In other words, Walter's grandmother is Rothschild. People from the German family, but her grandma's line is not the core of the Rothschild family, at most it is equivalent to a gege in the Quintong Dynasty, and it is also the kind of gege that is very marginal among the royal relatives "

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "I understand"

Rothschild's name is almost unknown in the world. Such a super family with a history of hundreds of years, its personnel scale is no less than that of Quintong Dynasty's relatives and Bachizi brothers.

Within such a family, there must be many branches, and there is a clear primary and secondary relationship between these branches.

Just like the Wade family.

The line of Master Wade's Lord Wade is the only main line of the entire Wade Family and the core line of the Wade Family. As for the branches that cannot be counted across the country, all branches are without exception. Some branches are Lord Wade's own brothers, so the relationship is a little closer.

However, some branches and Lord Wade's blood relationship even came out of nephews, and naturally they would not have a deep relationship with Lord Wade.

This kind of branch that can't be beaten by eight poles, although the name is Wade, is too low for the Wade family.

The Rothschild family must be the same. There may even be more branches than Wade Family. Walter's grandmother, although a member of the Rothschild family, is in a very biased line when she wants to come. She speaks lightly and has no sense of existence.

Otherwise, it is impossible for her to marry the Hogwitz family for decades, and the assets of the Hogwitz family are only about 10 billion US dollars.

Cameron Isaac said immediately: "No problem, Master, I will make arrangements!"

Don Albertt asked: "Master, what will happen to this group of people after catching?"

Charlie Wade ordered: "All his subordinates are locked up to raise dogs Go to the field, vacate the largest dog cage, strip them naked and lock them together."

"Good young master." Don Albertt said hurriedly, "I'll tell the dog farm to hurry up and prepare."

Charlie Wade said again: "Oh right, Don Albertt, prepare a smaller dog cage, I have another use."

Don Albertt immediately agreed and blurted out: "Master, don't worry, Don Albertt must arrange it properly!"

Charlie Wade continued: "By the way, Isaac, I still have one more thing for you to do." Cameron Isaac hurriedly said: "Master, please tell me ." Charlie Wade said, "You will prepare a complete set of kidney dialysis equipment for me. , Send the whole set of equipment to Don Albertt's kennel. In addition, do you have a more trustworthy nephrologist? If you have, please transfer one to me."

"Dialysis equipment?" Cameron Isaac hurriedly asked, "Master, Is there any kidney failure among Walter's men?"

Charlie Wade glanced at Walter and sneered: "Not yet, but there will be soon!"

Chapter 2367

"There will be soon?!"

Walter on the side murmured in a stunned voice.

Then, he was very confused and wondered: "What the fuck is there soon? This Charlie Wade Wade," Speaking is simply inexplicable. It's this that my mother hates Chinese people the most. I like to say everything vaguely and unclearly," he didn't understand what Charlie Wade meant.

Charlie Wade said to Cameron Isaac again: "Also, Isaac, think of a way to get me a little mercury dichloride, I'm useful." As soon as Charlie Wade said this, Walter was struck by lightning!

"Ah?! What does Wade want mercury dichloride for?!"

"Also, what does he ask for dialysis equipment to do?!"

"Also! He just asked someone to prepare dialysis equipment, what did he say quickly? There will be, what will be there soon? What is there?"

"Now, he has asked someone to prepare mercury dichloride again. Isn't this intended for me to eat?!"

Thinking of this, Walter felt the whole person Almost collapsed.

He knelt on the ground and crawled in front of Charlie Wade, crying and said, "Master Wade, please don't play with me. If you are not satisfied with the US$100 million, I can add another 100 million to you, please. Raise your hand high and let me be a fart."

Charlie Wade waved his hand and said with a serious face: "Walter, we have an old saying in China that says, according to the way of human beings, you can also treat the human body!"

"You as an American don't know much about Chinese culture. Isn't this just an opportunity for you to practice it yourself?"

Walter went crazy and cried, "I don't want to practice! I don't want to practice! Master Wade, please. You give me a way of life, no matter how much money you ask, I will give it no matter how much money you want. I just ask you not to fix me. I'm still young."

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Then I really want to congratulate you. I am happy to mention kidney failure at such a young age, but you can rest assured that I will save you a dog's life. I will connect you to the dialysis equipment 24 hours a day. Make sure You won't die.", Charlie Wade said coldly: "Compared with what you did, I am so kind."

Walter cried in fright: "Master Wade, I beg Please forgive me, or let me call my dad, and I will ask him how much he can give you if he does more, and how much he can give you!"

Charlie Wade smiled and shook his head, calmly Said: "You don't have to daydream. From now on, you have completely disappeared in his world. He can't find any clues about you anymore. You will be steadfast in the kennel in the future. Lie in a cage, eat when you eat, drink when you drink, and dialysis when you need dialysis!"

After that, Charlie Wade added: "And you can rest assured, compared with your dirty tricks, I am much softer than you , You only know that poisoning people, no matter the treatment, and no matter how long the person who was poisoned by you can live, you are regarded as a bandit that kills and burys!"

"But my mother, after all, is a civilized person, we are civilized The way people do things is that if you control the killing, you have to control the burying. Not only will I give you free treatment, but I will also provide you with food and housing. Most importantly, I guarantee that you will not die for at least ten years!"

Walter finished listening. His spirit and emotions are completely broken down!

He has been a free man for more than 20 years. Although he has harmed many people, he has never experienced any suffering himself. Right now, Charlie Wade has already pronounced his future, and his future is to lie in a dark dog cage and survive on dialysis. For him, this kind of punishment is far more terrifying than hell. He never dreamed that Charlie Wade would be such a cruel character.

Chapter 2368

He realized at this time how much trouble he caused!

So he looked at Doris Young, crying and begging: "Ms. Young! Please hand me over to the police! Let me accept legal sanctions and a just trial, please Ms. Young! You have pity on me! Ms. Young!"

Walter knew very well in his mind. Although it is terrible to go to prison, at least he can go to prison in good health. If it really falls into Charlie Wade's hands and leaves Charlie Wade so tortured, not only will he suffer from various diseases, but he may even die in the kennel in the end.

So in comparison, going to jail is really too humane.

Charlie Wade sneered and ridiculed: "Walter, you have become so fast. You were begging Ms. Young to ask her not to hand you over to the police. How come a few minutes later, you Start begging her to hand you over to the police?"

Walter cried and said, "Master Wade, Master Wade, please do well, call 110 and let the police take me away. I am a criminal, and criminals should Accept the sanctions of the law, you won't bother to bother."

He said, he looked at Doris Young again, crying and begging: "Ms. Young, please say something, please help me to Master Wade, Ms. Young, I will give you "Knocking my head" before the words fell, Walter went desperately to the ground, and the floor croaked.

Doris Young didn't say a word at this time.

Charlie Wade just said that he should use his own way to treat his body. Although the method is a bit terrible, but speaking, for people like Walter, it is the best end.

After all, Charlie Wade still planned to keep him alive, but when he killed his father, he didn't plan to do so! If he doesn't agree to his dirty demands, he will definitely not lend a hand to his father! In the end, Dad's end, I am afraid there is only a dead end!

Therefore, Doris Young knew very well in her heart that she absolutely cannot have any kindness of women at this time!

Therefore, she said coldly to Walter: "I'm sorry Walter, you are not worthy of my sympathy for this rubbish! You have today's fate, and you are all looking for it!"

Walter was extremely desperate and cried: "Ms. Young, I know I was wrong. I beg you to give me a chance to make up for my mistakes and reform."

"Otherwise, even if you tortured me to death, your father wouldn't be able to go back in time!"

"Everyone is an adult Now that the incident has happened, we should carefully negotiate the follow-up solutions and remedies. This is much more realistic than investigating the fault alone!"

Before Doris Young could speak, Charlie Wade said coldly, "Walter, from now on, If you say one more word without my permission, then I will extend the ten-year time limit for you by another year!" When Walter heard this, he was frightened and dared not say another word.

Charlie Wade ignored him, but continued to say to Cameron Isaac: "Isaac, I want you to use all your available relationships. In the past three days, all the surveillance videos of Walter that have been photographed in Aurouss Hillll will be taken from the surveillance system. I completely delete it. I don't want other people to find his whereabouts no matter what methods they use! Even if the Rothschild family comes in person, they can't find any clues to him!"

Cameron Isaac said without hesitation: " Young master, don't worry, I will completely erase him from the monitoring records! Even if the king, comes to check, it will be impossible to find out any whereabouts and clues to him!"

Charlie Wade smiled satisfied and said: "Okay, these things are left to you and Don Albertt. Take the time to get me to the ground. After you get it done, let me know. I will send Walter to you downstairs. You will bring him and his men to the caregiver. Go to the dog farm!"

Chapter 2369

Cameron Isaac and Don Albertt moved extremely fast.

Within dozens of minutes, all Walt's men in Aurouss Hillll, including the Alex who was about to throw the body, were controlled by the two of them.

From Aurouss Hillll People's Hospital, Cameron Isaac came in person.

His men took their guns directly and surrounded the two cars under Walter's. As soon as the guns were aimed at the five men, the five men immediately surrendered and surrendered obediently.

Immediately afterwards, the five people were all taken into a modified minibus. And their Rolls Royce and Buick Commercial were driven away by Don Albertt's men. These two cars will be sent directly to a car recycling plant in Don Albertt tonight, where they will be disassembled, squeezed into a pile of scrap iron, and thrown into a steelmaking furnace.

In other words, after tonight, it is impossible for anyone to find the whereabouts of these two cars.

Afterwards, Cameron Isaac called Charlie Wade and respectfully said: "Master, the five people downstairs in the hospital are under control, where are you? I will take people over and take that Walter away with me!"

Charlie Wade said in a detour. "You come directly to the No. 1 intensive care unit of the Department of Nephrology ."

"Good young master!"

Walter, who had been afraid to speak any more, heard Charlie Wade's conversation with Cameron Isaac, and his whole body burst into tears.

He really did not expect that he would end in such a tragic end.

I thought I was the Raptors crossing the river and came to Aurouss Hilll to swim freely, so naturally I didn't put Doris Young in my eyes. I just wanted to take the opportunity to collect her as a plaything, and then drain her use value.

However, who could have predicted that there are people like Charlie Wade with hands, eyes and fierce methods in a small place like Aurouss Hilll.

Walter felt extremely regretful in his heart, but regret could not solve any problems. From the day he decided to poison Doris Young's father, his destiny was already doomed.

Soon, Cameron Isaac took people to the ward. The moment Walter saw Cameron Isaac, he seemed to have seen a ghost! Just now, Charlie Wade and Cameron Isaac only made a voice call on WeChat. Walt only knew that Charlie Wade was communicating with his subordinates, but Walter didn't know who his subordinates were.

However, when he saw Cameron Isaac, his whole body was instantly struck by lightning!

"Cameron Isaac?!" Walter blurted out subconsciously: "Why are you here?"

When Walter first came to Aurouss Hilll, out of basic etiquette, he had taken the initiative to visit Cameron Isaac.

The reason why he came to visit Cameron Isaac was because he knew that Cameron Isaac was the spokesperson of the Wade family in Aurouss Hilll. It can be said that he is the person with the strongest background in Aurouss Hilll. When he first arrived, he naturally wanted to be familiar.

However, the two met only that time. In Walter's cognition, Cameron Isaac represents the pinnacle of Aurouss Hilll's influence, but he never dreamed that Cameron Isaac would appear here.

Cameron Isaac looked at Walter, smiled playfully, and said: "Walter, when you saw me last time, didn't you say that you have admired the Wade family for a long time? The Charlie Wade Wade in front of you is the young master of the Wade family!"

"What?!" Walter felt his heart being run over by a heavily loaded train in turn!

"I unexpectedly annoyed the Wade Family's Young Master?!"

"What kind of stupid I am to annoy the Wade Family's Young Master?!"

Chapter 2370

"The Wade Family's strength is at least dozens of times stronger than the Hogwitz family!"

Thinking of this, Walter really realized how sad and ridiculous he was.

I thought I came to Aurouss Hill and I could do whatever I wanted as long as I avoided Cameron Isaac, but I didn't expect it to provoke the young master of the Wade family!

So, while he kept beating his face vigorously, he cried and said, "Master Wade, I have no eyes and I did not expect to offend you. I don't know that Doris Young is your friend. If I know, kill me. I won't have any plans for her."

Charlie Wade smiled and asked him: "Do you know that the Emgrand Group is also my property?"

"Ah?!" Walter opened his eyes and blurted: I really don't know, Master Wade. If I knew, you give me the courage, I would not dare to have any evil thoughts on the Emgrand Group."

Before Walter came, he had specifically checked the background of the Emgrand Group.

However, because this company was bought by the Wade family as a gift to Charlie Wade, it was not included in the Wade family's own assets.

He checked, but did not understand the background, he thought it was just a real estate company in the province.

In addition, he wanted to quickly gain a foothold in China, and even quickly achieve profitability, and Doris Young happened to be the vice chairman of the Emgrand Group, so he started Doris Young's idea.

He always felt that as long as Doris Young could be controlled by himself, he would not only be able to possess Doris Young, but also draw a part of the blood from the Emgrand Group in order to quickly improve his strength.

But he did not expect that the company he wanted to suck blood turned out to be the property of Young Master Wade! It's like a mouse, thinking about the tiger's food carelessly, it's just looking for a dead end!

Cameron Isaac glanced at Walter at this time, with a bit of pity in his eyes, and thought to himself: "This Walter can be regarded as a handsome, handsome and talented person, plus the family is also a wealthy businessman. The future is limitless."

"But, he is. It's not good to provoke anyone, but I want to provoke the young master. Isn't this a rush to fly over 10,000 kilometers from the United States to find death?"

Then Cameron Isaac looked at Charlie Wade and asked respectfully:
"Master, I will take this Walter away now ? "

Charlie Wade nodded: ". take it away, "

Walter scared whole body limp, blurted shouted: "! Master, let me ask you a horse it was my grandmother leaves young master Rothschild family man, You have always heard of the Rothschild family, right? The world's top families, wealthy nations, and the entire economic and energy lifeline of Europe and America are in the hands of the Rothschild family!"

"If you let me go, I It can help you get online with the Rothschild family, and let you cooperate with the Rothschild family. This is good for you!"

Charlie Wade heard it and sneered: "I'm sorry, I have no interest in cooperating with The Rothschild family."

Walter saw that the profit could not be tempted, and he was dying to struggle: "If you really insist on locking me up and performing inhumane torture, once the Rothschild family knows, you Have you considered the consequences?"

"Although I am not named Rothschild, a quarter of my body comes from the blood of the Rothschild family. Rothschild will not allow anyone to treat offspring with their blood in this way! "

By then, they will definitely not let you go! They will only make you die worse!"

Cameron Isaac slapped Walter angrily when he heard this, and said coldly: "Are you looking for death? Death?" When I arrived, you dared to speak wildly to the young master, believe it or not, I cut your tongue?!"
Charlie Wade waved his hand to interrupt Cameron Isaac at this time, and said calmly: "Isaac, let him say what he wants to say. "

Walter yelled in panic: "I'm done! You'd better consider carefully whether you really want to offend the entire Rothschild family because of me!"

Charlie Wade nodded, smiled, and said playfully: "The truth is. To tell you, I am not afraid to offend the Rothschild family, because even if they don't come to me, I will find them sooner or later!"

At this point, Charlie Wade paused slightly, and said firmly and domineeringly: "There is also a blood debt, which must be calculated slowly with the Rothschild family!"

Chapter 2371

The desperate Walter was dragged out of the hospital by Cameron Isaac's men. After he left, all the video surveillance records about him were completely erased by Cameron Isaac's men. In this way, no one can find the video data of him in Aurouss Hilll City, and it is even more impossible to find the trajectory of his activities.

After Walter's family finds out that he is missing, they come to Aurouss Hilll to search again, and they will find that this person is as if the person has evaporated.

Before leaving, Charlie Wade confessed to Cameron Isaac and asked him to arrange professionals to take Walter's mercury dichloride. After he became ill like Doris Young's father, he immediately put him on dialysis equipment.

This is the so-called rule of the human body. For some demons with extremely corrupt character, this method can bring him real punishment.

Doris was aside, watching Charlie Wade determine Walter's fate in such a delightful way, and she was very moved. During this time, she witnessed the whole process of her father's illness, further deterioration, and unconsciousness. She can vividly remember the pain her father suffered.

So, after learning that all this turned out to be the poisoning of Walter behind her back, she naturally hated Walter. If Walter was just arrested, sentenced, and jailed, she would feel that Walter was too cheap. As for Charlie Wade's handling method, if she herself, she would not dare to think about it, and she would not be able to realize it. So the gratitude she felt to Charlie Wade had already sublimated to an unparalleled level.

So, after Cameron Isaac took the people out of the ward, Doris Young closed the door, and the moment she turned around, she immediately knelt in front of Charlie Wade and choked up: "Master, thank you so much for this matter. If it weren't for you, I may never know that Walter turned out to be a trick behind the scenes; if it weren't for you, I might never be able to help my father get justice."

Charlie Wade quickly reached out to support her, and said seriously: "It's just a matter of hand. Don't be so polite, this Walter is vicious and sinister, so I'm not only helping you, but also killing the people."

Doris Young sighed and choked: "I really didn't expect that for so many years of classmates, Walter would still be able to do such a nasty thing" she wiped away her tears, looked at her unconscious mother on the sofa, and asked: "Master, is my mother okay with her?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "Auntie is only temporarily in a coma, wipe her face with a cool wet towel, and she should wake up."

After that, he said to Doris Young: "You wake up your mother first, and then give your father the medicine. After he takes the medicine, he should be cured soon, so that you and your mother will be completely relieved."

Doris Young was extremely excited, and said quickly: "Good master, I will go now." After all, Doris Young ran into the bathroom quickly. Soon, she took a wet towel and ran out of the bathroom. She strode to the sofa and carefully wiped her mother's cheek with a wet towel. After a while, she saw her mother's eyelashes move slightly, and then she opened her eyes.

"Doris" Sydney opened his eyes the first thing he asked angrily: "Where is that Walter? He killed your father, you must not let him go!"

Doris Young glanced at Charlie Wade and hurriedly asked. Sydney said: "Mom, Walter has been arrested, and it is estimated that he will stay in prison for a lifetime!"

Sydney said angrily: "He killed your dad like this. It's just too cheap to put him in jail. If your dad can't save him, he should pay for your dad!"

Then, she remembered what her husband had eaten. I couldn't control my tears anymore for the suffering and sin I had suffered, and I hid my face and wept bitterly.

Doris Young hurriedly persuaded: "Mom, don't worry too much. Charlie Wade found a kind of elixir for Dad, and he can heal his kidneys after taking it!"

"What?" Sydney exclaimed, "Just take the medicine. Can your father's kidney be cured? How is this possible? Doesn't medicine mean that kidney failure is almost irreversible?"

Chapter 2372

Charlie Wade said at this time: "Auntie, for most doctors, kidney failure is indeed irreversible, but our ancestors still have good prescriptions, and it is not very difficult to treat."

"Really? !" Sydney couldn't help but choked up and said: "Then Mr. Wade will take action and save my husband. He has taught and educates people, has done good deeds in his life, and has never done anything bad, so he shouldn't have such an end."

After that, she looked at Doris Young next to her, grabbed Doris Young's hand, and cried, "He has spent more than 20 years raising Doris. He hasn't seen her put on a wedding dress to marry. Enjoying the joy of family life with three generations under one roof, if he just leaves like this , it's really eyeless." Charlie Wade nodded at this time, and solemnly said: "Auntie, don't worry, as long as the uncle takes the medicine I prepared, he will definitely be able to The medicine will be cured."

He said, he hurriedly told Doris Young: "Ms. Young, it should not be too late, you find a cup to pour half a cup of warm water, put the pill I gave you in the warm water to melt, and then have him take it!"

When Doris Young heard this, she nodded her head quickly and subconsciously said: "Good Young-", when the word 'Master' was almost blurted out, Doris Young realized that her mother did not know Charlie Wade's true identity, so She hurriedly changed her words and said, "Okay, Charlie Wade, thank you, I'll do it now!"

After Doris Young finished speaking , she hurried to the coffee table and boiled a little warm water with an electric kettle. After half a cup, she took out the pill from her pocket. The red sandalwood box given by Charlie Wade Wade.

As soon as the wooden box was opened, an inconspicuous pill was placed in it. However, although the pills were not very eye-catching, after the box was opened, the refreshing fragrance of medicine overflowed all at once, and quickly filled the entire ward. This is the blood-saving heart-saving pill refined by Charlie Wade.

Sydney also smelled the scent of the medicine, and for a while, she felt that the whole person was more energetic, so she couldn't help but exclaimed: "The scent of this medicine is too good! The taste is much better than the traditional Chinese medicine I have been exposed to! It seems to smell the whole Everyone feels much more comfortable!"

Doris Young felt the same way. When I smelled the scent of the medicine, it felt like a stuffy nose, and suddenly I smelled a strong menthol, and the feeling could even rise instantly. At this moment, Doris Young firmly believed in her heart that this medicine could definitely save her father.

Afterwards, she put the pill into the water according to Charlie Wade's instructions. Just when she was about to find a disposable chopsticks to stir, a magical scene happened!

This blood-dissipating heart-saving pill immediately dissolved into the water at an extremely fast speed as soon as it entered the water, and it melted completely in just two or three seconds!

Moreover, the melted warm water did not become completely turbid, but was in a translucent state like brown sugar water.

Although the color of the water has darkened, it can still be clearly seen that there is no trace of impurities in the water.

This made Doris Young dumbfounded, because she had also taken Chinese medicine many times, especially Chinese medicine granules.

In her impression, almost all Chinese herbal medicines cannot be completely dissolved in water. No matter how hot the water is used, no matter how vigorously it is stirred, there will be a little bit of fine medicine residue in the cup at the end of the drink.

However, this medicine is completely dissolved in water instantly without stirring. It can be seen that this medicine is so pure that it contains almost no impurities!

Surprised, she looked at Charlie Wade and asked, "Is it enough to feed this glass of water to my father and drink it?"

Charlie Wade nodded, "Yes, if uncle is in a coma, but if you help him up, Water can still be fed in."

"Okay!" Doris Young immediately took the cup into the ward inside, and her mother Sydney hurriedly followed.

Together, the two of them helped Myles Young, who was unconscious, up, and then Doris Young poured the warm water of the elixir in the cup, and poured it into his mouth little by little.

Then, the magical scene that subverted all the cognition of the mother and daughter happened.

Chapter 2373

Halfway through feeding the liquid medicine to Doris Young's father, the mother and daughter were shocked to find that Myles Young's pale, paper-like face instantly became a little rosy.

This is what Chinese medicine calls the color of blood! People's blood is strong enough, and the complexion will be ruddy and shiny. Once the blood is insufficient, it will become white or sallow.

Why are terminally ill patients almost pale, even their lips are not even half bloody, it is because the blood in the body has long been exhausted. This is the case with Doris Young's father.

Extremely severe kidney failure has long put his life on the line. The whole person, like a plant on the verge of dying, wilted to the extreme. However, just after the medicine was taken in, his body began to undergo earth-shaking changes.

In the eyes of the mother and daughter, this scene is like watching a documentary on a TV station.

In some documentaries, in order to witness nature from the depression of all things in winter to the recovery of the earth in spring, a video camera was used deliberately to take time-lapse photography, filming a forest from the beginning of winter to the blooming of spring flowers, and then speed up Play.

In this way, the audience can see the whole process of the recovery of all things in nature in a few seconds!

At that moment, everyone will be shocked by the extraordinary craftsmanship of nature. The mother and daughter at this time witnessed such a miracle! Doris Young's father, Myles Young, has undergone a radical change in a very short time.

After his skin became rosy and shiny, his breathing became much stronger. It can be seen from the monitor next to him that his blood pressure, which was originally very low, began to rise rapidly in a short time!

After a while, Myles Young slowly opened his eyes. At this moment, the mother and daughter burst into tears with excitement!

Doris Young laughed and cried and asked with concern: "Dad! How are you feeling, Dad!"

Sydney also cried with joy and asked, "Husband, are you feeling better?"

Myles Young's brain still didn't respond. , Hurriedly asked them: "How long did I sleep?"

Sydney hurriedly said, "How long have you slept...You have been in a deep coma for several days!"

"Ah?" Myles Young exclaimed: " I've been in a coma for so long?! Why don't I feel at all? It just feels like I have slept for a long time..."

Doris Young hurriedly asked him: "Dad, are you feeling okay now?"

Myles Young thought. I thought, I sat upright and moved my limbs, and said in surprise: "It feels pretty good! It doesn't seem uncomfortable at all. Has the hospital found the source of my kidneys?"

"No." Sydney blurted out: " You have never been able to find the source of your kidney. Thanks to Doris' friend who brought you a magical medicine, you woke up!"

Myles Young exclaimed, "The magical medicine?! What kind of magical medicine?" Knowing how to explain it, he hurriedly said: "Oh, don't ask so much. You are not a Chinese medicine doctor. How can you understand this magic medicine? Or hurry up to thank Mr. Wade!"

Myles Young raised his head. Seeing Charlie Wade standing next to him, he hurriedly said gratefully: "Mr. Wade, thank you so much this time!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "Uncle Young is not so polite. I and Ms. Young are good friends. . It's a little effort, "

Sydney help exclaimed:" Myles, I see you now state color are very good, want to come to some physical condition has been greatly improved, I can have the doctor come to you to check it! "

On side, Doris Young hurriedly asked Charlie Wade in a low voice: "It doesn't matter if the doctor comes to see it?"

Chapter 2374

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "It doesn't matter, let the doctor come over for a systematic examination."

Doris Young asked in a low voice, "What should the doctor say if you ask about medicine? After all, in the eyes of the doctor, my father's kidney Failure is almost irreversible..."

Charlie Wade said with a smile: "It doesn't matter, the doctors at the People's Hospital have seen a greater medical miracle."

Last time, Charlie Wade's old father-in-law Jacob Wilson was hit by a car. The high paraplegia entered the hospital, and all the doctors announced that he could only lie in bed for the rest of his life.

However, he cured him with a blood-saving heart-saving pill, allowing him to be alive and well on the spot. At the time, this was also considered a medical miracle. But when I moved out the genius doctor, Dr. Simmons, who was in the eyes of the public, basically no one doubted it any more.

Not only was no one questioned, but Dr. Simmons was also troubled by Ichiro Kobayashi. At that time, Ichiro Kobayashi wanted a prescription for their Stomach Powder.

Soon, Sydney ran over with Dr. Kelso on the night shift.

As soon as Dr. Kelso entered the door, he found Myles Young sitting on the hospital bed with a ruddy complexion, and he was shocked and dumbfounded.

"Professor Young, why... why are you sitting up?!"

Myles Young said with a smile: "Dr. Kelso, my daughter's friend gave me a magical medicine. I feel very good. Don't Speaking of sitting up, if it weren't for so many tubes, wires and monitor clips, I think I could get out of bed and play a broadcast gymnastics!"

"Oh my God!" Dr. Kelso blurted out, "How is this possible? What? Your kidney failure has reached the end stage, and it can only be continued for the time being with dialysis equipment. How can it be done all at once?"

He said, he ran over immediately and carefully checked Myles Young's physical indicators.

It doesn't matter if you look at it, the more you look, the more frightening it becomes!

He muttered in amazement: "Heart rate is up, blood pressure is up, blood oxygen index is up..."

"The electrocardiogram is also normal..."

He pushed incredulously. Looking at Myles Young with glasses, he said, "Professor Young, let's shake hands. You can squeeze it hard so that I can feel your current muscle state."

"Okay." Myles Young immediately stretched out his hand and shook it with Dr. Kelso. A bit of strength.

"Oh!" Dr. Kelso felt the strength in Myles Young's hand and exclaimed: "You can do muscular strength! This is really amazing. You have been in bed for so many days and you lost weight quickly, and it was accompanied by more serious problems. My muscles atrophy, but it's incredible that I still have so much strength now!"

Myles Young was surprised: "Dr. Kelso, is this strength still big?"

Dr. Kelso blurted out: "That's all right! You want it! I know that many patients with end-stage renal failure cannot hold hands as powerful as a five or six-year-old child!"

Myles Young was surprised for a moment, and said with a excited smile: "Dr. Kelso! I didn't use my full strength just now... .."

"What?!" Dr. Kelso blurted out: "I haven't used all my strength so much? Then I feel it with all your strength."

Myles Young nodded, his hands gradually increased, and Dr. Kelso still looked shocked at first. , But immediately afterwards, the expression gradually became a little ugly.

Then, he suddenly yelled, "It's okay! It hurts! It hurts!"

Myles Young quickly let go, with an apologetic expression: "I'm sorry, Dr. Kelso..."

"It's okay ." It's okay..." Dr. Kelso shook his hand, and quickly rubbed it with his other hand, blurting out: "You are really incredible! I'm a few years younger than you, your hand is more powerful than I'm still big! So far, all your indicators are normal. What a miracle!"

As he said, he hurriedly said: "Professor Young, wait a minute, I'll let the nurse come over to draw your blood, and take the time to check your blood creatinine. If your blood creatinine is also normal, then you will be completely cured!"

Chapter 2375

Serum creatinine is an important indicator for judging the degree of kidney damage. The higher the blood creatinine value, the higher the degree of kidney damage. For a normal adult, the value of blood creatinine is generally within 133. Exceeding this value indicates that the kidney has been damaged. Once the value exceeds 450, it can be assessed as renal failure, if it exceeds 700, it basically falls into the category of uremia.

And Mr. Young's blood monitoring at noon today showed that his blood creatinine index has reached more than 1,500! Therefore, I want to know if he is really getting better now, or even healed, the blood creatinine index is the most important reference standard.

Soon, the nurse rushed over.

Seeing Mr. Young's sudden energetic appearance, the nurse was shocked to speak. It took a long while to recover after Dr. Kelso's reminder, and quickly collected Mr. Young's blood. The blood was rushed to the laboratory for testing, and the results took as long as 20 minutes.

Just as everyone was waiting for the blood results, Mr. Young clutched his stomach and asked his wife Sydney awkwardly: "Wife, do you have anything to eat? I suddenly feel so hungry, and my stomach is growling."

Sydney Wiping tears, choked up and said, "You have been in a coma these days, and your stomach is also showing signs of exhaustion. The doctor said that even the nasal feeding method of intubating the esophagus from the nose is not suitable, so I always rely on infusion of nutrients. If you don't have anything to eat,"

Doris Young hurriedly said: "Dad, what do you want to eat, I'll buy it for you now!"

After finishing speaking, he hurriedly asked Dr. Kelso: "Dr. Kelso, does my dad have anything right now? Need to avoid food?" Dr. Kelso said: "Your dad hasn't eaten anything in the past few days, and his body consumes a lot. It is still necessary to quickly supplement nutrients and calories, but do not eat spicy food."

Mr. Young hurriedly said: "Dr. Kelso, can I have some roast duck buns? It would be better if I could have a bowl of duck!"

If Aurouss Hillll people select ten favorite foods, roast duck buns are Sure to be on the list.

Roast duck bun is similar to Eastcliff roast duck, but the roast duck is used as bun stuffing and packed into buns.

Mr. Young is a native of Aurouss Hillll, so he thought of these when he didn't eat for a few days.

Dr. Kelso nodded and smiled after listening: "All of these are okay, but duck must not put chili peppers."

Doris Young hurriedly said, "Then I will buy it!"

Charlie Wade on the side said : "Ms. Young, I go along with you. "

When Charlie Wade was about to leave with Doris Young, Doris Young's mother Sydney hurriedly said: "Oh, Doris, Mr. Wade is a distinguished guest and a great benefactor to our family. Don't let Mr. Wade go back and forth with you when you buy things. There is a restaurant on the opposite side. You can buy it directly, let Mr. Wade rest here for a while, just to have a few words with your dad."

Doris suddenly became nervous when she saw this posture. She knows her mother too well. In the past two years, I have become older and older, and my mother has been urging myself to find a partner to marry and have children.

After all, in the eyes of older generations of them, women who are over twenty-five years old have to hurry up to get married. At this time, career and schooling are not more important than marriage.

But Doris Young has been busy working in recent years. The rapid rise of the Emgrand Group before has a lot to do with her going all out. It is precisely because of her career that Doris Young is already twenty-eight years old, but she still has no relationship with her, which makes her parents very anxious.

Chapter 2376

Parents had not missed some suitable men for her before. Mr. Young even wanted to introduce one of her proud disciples to her, but she didn't even give each other the opportunity to meet or have a meal.

Right now, Doris Young found that his mother seemed to have a very good impression of Charlie Wade. Now that she wants to leave Charlie Wade, she must want to ask Charlie Wade some personal information, or maybe even want to test her relationship with him, by the way. a bit.

So, she hurriedly said: "Mom Charlie Wade is a young man. There is a generation gap with you. If you can't talk together, don't embarrass others!"

Sydney hurriedly said: "Look at what you said, I told your dad. The age is a little bit older, but we are also very familiar with young people."

Charlie Wade said with a smile at this time: "It doesn't matter Ms. Young, you go shopping first, don't delay uncle eating, I will accompany your parents and chat for a while."

Doris Young was very embarrassed. She was afraid that her mother would talk nonsense or inquire in front of Charlie Wade, but Charlie Wade said that he would stay with her parents, so she could not continue to force it.

In desperation, she had no choice but to say to Charlie Wade: "Then trouble you to accompany my parents here, and I will return as soon as I go." After that, she remembered something, and hurriedly asked: "It's so late, you are anxious to go home. Isn't it going to delay you too much?"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "It's okay, you go quickly."

Doris Young nodded: "Then I'll go first."

After speaking, he asked his mother Sydney: "Mom, you Don't talk to Charlie Wade about anything, I'll be back soon!"

Sydney waved his hand and said: "Oh, don't worry, mom can talk to others about anything? Just chat a few words, you just Don't worry, go hurry up!"

Doris Young had no choice but to leave the ward nervously. As soon as Doris Young walked away, Sydney looked at Charlie Wade with a smile, and asked, "Mr. Wade, how old are you this year?"

Sydney had a very good impression of Charlie Wade. Not only because Charlie Wade helped his family a big favor and saved his husband, but also because of his handsome appearance and talent. Seeing that he is a talented girl with his daughter, Doris is an exceptional match, he is indeed a suitable candidate to be a son-in-law.

Charlie Wade didn't know what Sydney was thinking about. When she saw her asking a question, he hurriedly replied with a smile: "Auntie, you don't need to be so polite. Just call me Charlie Wade. I will be 27 years old soon."

Sydney nodded. With a smile, he said, "The auntie won't be polite to you!" After that, Sydney asked again: "Charlie Wade, what do you do for work?"

Charlie Wade was really asked by Sydney. "What is my job? I used to be doing housework full-time, but now the housework has been taken over by Elaine Ma"

"But now her leg is broken, I am more or less I have to help a little bit."

"In the final analysis, I am now considered to have got rid of the identity of a live in Son in Law, so what kind of occupation am I now? Private entrepreneur?"

"Well , I am almost a private entrepreneur. After all, there is an Emgrand Group and Oracle Pharmaceutical."

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade said with a smile: "Auntie, I now own two small companies, so I can be considered a self-employed entrepreneur."

Sydney heard this. He smiled and said: "The self-employed are also very good! Although the self-employed may not earn so much, they are relatively free! For you young people, earning more and less is not the most important thing, happy and free That's the most important thing!"

She said, she couldn't help sighing, and said: "I've always said to Doris, don't have such a strong entrepreneurial spirit, you can live a wonderful life with more money, there's no need to live your life every day. You're so tired, but this kid just doesn't listen."

Speaking of this, Sydney looked at Charlie Wade and said seriously: "Charlie Wade, in the future, you have to help Auntie to persuade her, let her take advantage of her young, good relationship, and the world to wander around. Isn't this better than making money by holding your head down? Isn't it?"

Charlie Wade didn't get to Sydney's point for a while, but he was a little embarrassed to hear her say this. After all, Doris Young is his own employee. Although the Emgrand Group is its own, the operation, management, and development of the entire Emgrand Group are almost entirely handled by Doris Young alone.

In contrast, he is a hand-off shopkeeper. If it is true that Doris Young quit his job to fall in love and travel around the world according to what Sydney said, it would be tantamount to leaving the Emgrand Group behind.

From his heart, naturally, he didn't want this situation, after all, who would let his capable person not do business and run around the world. However, he was also very clear in his heart that he was chatting with Doris Young's parents anyway, so just follow their words and talk about it.

So he smiled and said, "Auntie, what you said is very reasonable. In fact, you should go out to feel the world and enjoy life more when you are young."

When Sydney heard Charlie Wade say this, she immediately smiled and nodded and said, "That's right. It seems that you and I have the same ideas. When you look back, you should help me to persuade Doris. Anyway, you are also a self-employed person. Self-employed people have relatively free time. When she resigns or takes a long vacation, You two can go on a trip together."

"Me?" Charlie Wade was stunned and couldn't help laughing: "Auntie, my time is not as free as you think. I still have a lot of things in peace."

Sydney waved his hand. Seriously: "Listen to my advice, if you are your age, if you don't enjoy life well, and you will get married and have children in the future, you will really be chained to death!"

After that, Sydney couldn't help feeling: "I and Doris' father had been tired from all sorts of worries when I was pregnant with Doris. At that time, I thought that it would be easier when she was born, but I didn't expect that it would be more tiring when she was born."

"Later, we thought about it and waited. It's just fine for the child to go to kindergarten, but I really waited for her to go to kindergarten and found that things were even more troublesome!"

"Not only to pick a day, but also concerned about her physically labor-round development, and after class to learn musical instruments, learn dance, learn calligraphy, riding a bike with her every day to find the teacher in the class full of wisdom; and other In elementary school, you should not only pay attention to hobbies, but also pay attention to your children's learning. Then there is no time period for junior high school, junior high school, and high school entrance examination. There is no time period that is really easy."

Mr. Young sitting in the hospital bed couldn't help feeling Said: "Yes! From the time she was pregnant with the child, until the child was admitted to university, this is really a real life. Over the past ten or twenty years, it has been a lot of hard work."

Sydney could not help sighing: "So Say ah, you young people must enjoy life while you are young!"

"The best golden age in a person's life is the ten years from 20 to 30!"

"In these ten years, you have a relative A complete worldview, outlook on life and values, and the ability to distinguish right from wrong, and even achieved financial independence to a certain extent, finally began to break away from parental control and experience the freedom of adults."

"If you don't go well in these ten years Grasp it, don't enjoy it, you will definitely regret it in the future!"

Charlie Wade nodded in agreement. When he was young, he also had a lot of fanciful fantasies. The education of his parents never helped him grow up or hope his son will become a dragon.

When he was young, his mother would always tell him: life is short and the world is big, and I hope he can be a happy person, a person who can travel all over the world and eventually gain happiness and live up to this life.

If those accidents don't happen, the Wade Family's financial resources are enough to support Charlie Wade's economic freedom from childhood to age, and enough to support him to pursue his dreams when he is in his twenties.

Charlie Wade has never put money in his eyes, so after he reaches adulthood, there is a high probability that he will not be involved in family battles. In that case, he is likely to indulge in traveling the world every day.

Chapter 2378

He might go to conquer Mount Everest, or go skiing in the Alps, vacationing in France, exploring Antarctica, or diving in Tahiti. But it was the accident that changed his life trajectory drastically.

Originally, he was the world's top rich child, with a population of six to seven billion people in the world, and no more than one hundred people who can reincarnate so well. However, after eight years of age, he became the poorest and most miserable orphan. Compared with other orphans, he has a harder life.

This is because he not only has no father and no mother like other orphans, but also lives in an orphanage like other orphans. In his young heart, he still has to endure the pain of his parents being murdered, endure unshakable hatred, and endure the huge gap from heaven to hell.

In a blink of an eye, nineteen years have passed. The little boy who stood crying to death at the entrance of the orphanage has now grown into a 27-year-old adult man.

As Sydney said, the best age in life is in the ten years from 20 to 30, but for Charlie Wade, seven years have passed since the golden ten years.

Charlie Wade couldn't help asking himself: "In the past seven years, I haven't had any chance to enjoy life. What will happen to the next three years? If the feuds of my parents are not reported in these three years, then my golden ten years will pass."

At this point, Charlie Wade felt a little bit lost in his heart. However, he never resented the past nineteen years of life. Although in these nineteen years, the first fifteen years were lonely and helpless, and the following three years suffered all kinds of cynicism, it can be said that he has tasted all the hardships in the world.

Sydney didn't expect that after a few words of his own, Charlie Wade seemed to be a little confused, and couldn't help asking him: "Did I accidentally say something wrong just now? Why does this Charlie Wade feel like he is worried? "

At this time, Doris Young has already ran back out of breath.

She was holding two plastic bags in her hand, and she was still gasping for breath, and said with some difficulty: "Parents, I'm back from buying food , hurry up and eat." Sydney hurriedly saw her daughter babbling. Asked: "Doris, what's the matter with you?"

Doris Young hurriedly said: "It's okay, I just ran a little faster. I feel a little bit of breath now, so I can rest for a while."

Mr. Young couldn't help but feel distressed. "Oh, what are you doing so fast? Walk slowly, just buy it slowly, not very anxious."

Doris Young said unnaturally, "Dad, aren't you hungry? I haven't eaten for so long.

I'm also afraid that you will be starving." In fact, Doris Young was embarrassed to tell the truth.

The reason she ran so fast was because she was afraid that her parents would say something to Charlie Wade that they shouldn't say. That's why she deliberately ran faster, trying to compress the time that her parents and Charlie Wade spend alone.

At this moment, the little nurse also ran in quickly and blurted out in surprise, "Dr. Kelso! The patient's blood came out, and the blood creatinine was only 45!"

Chapter 2379

"45?!" Hearing this value, Dr. Kelso was completely confused.

From 1500 to 45? Isn't this amazing? Doris Young's family of three is more sensitive to this data. After all, as early as a few years ago, Doris Young's father had already suffered from uremia. This family of three has been treated for a long time. They are very clear about the numerical range of blood creatinine, and each different range represents what kind of state the kidney is in. They are even more clear.

The relatively broad normal value of blood creatinine is between 40 and 130.

Therefore, when I heard the number 45, the family of three burst into tears with excitement!

Doris Young remembered something, and then asked Dr. Kelso: "Hello Dr. Kelso, I seem to remember the value of 45. For normal people, it is more or less low?"

Doris Young was right. The value of 45. It's almost reaching the minimum, so it's actually a bit low for most normal people.

Generally speaking, the blood creatinine index of adult men is mostly in the range of 70 to 80 to 100.

Dr. Kelso couldn't hide his excitement and said, "This is actually normal. Your father fell ill during this period, he lost weight very quickly, his body became very weak, and there was also a certain degree of malnutrition. In this case, blood creatinine It will definitely be low. I think your father will be able to maintain the best value of around 70 or 80 after a few days of recuperation!"

Doris Young's whole body suddenly became much more relaxed, she hurriedly asked: "Dr. Kelso, then my dad Is the current situation a cure?"

Dr. Kelso nodded and said confidently: "Healed! It must be healed! This is simply amazing!"

Doris Young was so excited that he turned to look at Charlie Wade, his eyes Flushed. She has many words of gratitude to say, but it feels like a stalk on her lips. This is because, in her opinion, this kind of life-saving kindness is greater than the sky. If she always thanked her, she would appear to be very insincere and not religious enough.

Although Sydney knew that her husband should have recovered, she hadn't received complete proof before. Now the blood creatinine value has come out, completely dispelling all the doubts in her heart, and she couldn't help but burst into tears.

Immediately, she looked at Charlie Wade, and suddenly knelt in front of Charlie Wade, and said with great gratitude: "Charlie Wade, thank you, thank you so much."

Seeing this, Charlie Wade hurriedly stepped forward to support her and said: "Oh auntie, what are you doing? Get up quickly"

Sydney choked up at this time: "Auntie thinks that your kindness is too heavy for our family, and auntie really doesn't know how to thank you"

Sydney sighed: "Charlie Wade, Auntie is not a fool. The medicine you gave us has such a magical effect. If it is sold to those top rich people, it will be priceless, let alone tens of millions. Even hundreds of millions, for those rich people whose lives are hanging by a thread, it is very worthwhile."

Although Sydney is not a university professor, she is also an older generation of intellectuals.

Chapter 2380

The advantage of an intellectual is that although she may not really understand medical matters, she has a more accurate knowledge and judgment on many things than ordinary people.

Doris Young stepped forward to help her mother, crying and saying: "Mom, don't worry, Charlie Wade saved my father, and I will repay him as a cow and a horse in the future."

Sydney nodded lightly, choked up and said: "Charlie Wade , From now on, you will be our family's great benefactor."

Mr. Young on the hospital bed couldn't help but red eyes, and said seriously: "Mr. Wade, you saved this old life of uncle. If you have any use of uncle in the future, please follow me. Uncle speaks, uncle's heart and soul are stunned, and he won't hesitate!"

Charlie Wade smiled helplessly, shook his head lightly, and said seriously: "Uncle and aunt are all serious, Ms. Young is my friend, this is just friends helping each other, she doesn't help me less often, and I can be regarded as repaying her favor."

Doris Young was deeply moved when she heard this. She knew the meaning of Charlie Wade's words, and she must have felt that she didn't bother to help him take care of the Emgrand Group.

However, she was very clear in her heart: "It is my job to take care of the Emgrand Group, and it is my job. I have taken the salary of the young master and I will serve the Emgrand Group. This is justified, so I suppose I did not help the young master. and, just took over the young master Emgrand Group did not take long, give me my salary doubled, I worked hard for him, is not it should do " on her When he was ashamed, Dr. Kelso, who had been silent on the side, plucked up the courage to ask: "This little brother, can you ask you a question?"

Charlie Wade nodded, "Dr. Kelso, please."

Dr. Kelso is busy. Question: "I want to dare to ask, what kind of medicine did you give Professor Young? Of course, if there are any secrets involved and cannot be said, I understand it 100%!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "It's not a secret. It's just that I asked for this medicine from the genius doctor Dr. Simmons. It is said that the genius doctor is not the creator of this magic medicine. His old man also accidentally obtained a small amount of ancient famous doctors. The pill that has been handed down is very small in the world, but now I have one less one."

Dr. Kelso suddenly realized when he heard this, he patted his thigh and said with emotion: "I remember! Last time I was in our hospital. , There is a patient with high paraplegia. It was because of taking the magic medicine brought by Dr. Simmons, he recovered instantly. It is said that the medicine used for God at that time was the ancient Chinese medicine pill whose prescription was lost. I did not expect this kind of medicine to be so. Miraculous, not only can cure high paraplegia, it can also cure the irreversible acute renal failure in the eyes of modern medicine."

At this point, he couldn't help but feel sorry for a while, and said in a sad tone: "Our ancestors left so many amazing things. Things, it's a pity that we haven't been able to keep them well handed down. If this miraculous medicine can be rediscovered and reproduced, it will really be the gospel to the people of the world."

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled, and said nothing.

Dr. Kelso checked the time and said, "Oh, it's almost eleven o'clock. I have to go to other wards for rounds first, so I won't bother too much."

Doris Young hurriedly sent Dr. Kelso out. When she came back in, Charlie Wade also said: "Uncle, aunt, Ms. Young, it's really late, I have to go back first."

Sydney hurriedly said: "Oh, Charlie Wade, what's the hurry, let's sit a little longer!"

Doris Young on the side, I was afraid that her mother would show too much enthusiasm for Charlie Wade, so she hurriedly said, "Mom, this is a hospital ward, not my own home. How can anyone stay in the ward for a while?"

After she finished speaking, she quickly said again. Said: "Besides, Dad is completely healed now. Let's go home quickly. The hospital feels too depressive for me during this period. I don't want to stay here for a minute."

Sydney heard this. Then, I had to say to Charlie Wade with some regrets: "Charlie Wade, the aunt will not keep you today. Tomorrow, Auntie will cook a big meal at home, thank you very much, you must show your face!"

Chapter 2381

Charlie Wade didn't expect that Sydney would invite him to her house for dinner.

What was thinking to find an excuse declined, the result she did not wait for him to speak, and hastened said: "Happens tomorrow Saturday, Doris does not go to work, I was able to help out in the house, do the dishes"

Mr. Young also spoke in agreement: "Yes, Mr. Wade, come home to have a meal, just take it as a thank you."

However, Mr. Young didn't know that Charlie Wade had actually been to his house earlier. Seeing that both Sydney and Mr. Young said so, Charlie Wade was somewhat embarrassed. He didn't really want to agree to the meal, but he felt it was difficult to refute others' face.

Just when he was a little hard to get off the tiger, Doris Young hurriedly said: "Mom, I have something to do tomorrow. The company has to work overtime, or another day?"

"Ah? I will work overtime tomorrow?" Sydney was very dissatisfied and said, "Weekend. What kind of overtime?" Doris Young didn't actually work overtime, but she saw that her parents might have a good impression of Charlie Wade, and guessed that her parents might want to take advantage of the opportunity to invite Charlie Wade to dinner to learn more.

Therefore, she also guessed that her parents must not know that Charlie Wade is now married, otherwise, they would certainly not be so direct.

So, she planned to postpone the matter of inviting Charlie Wade to eat at home, and then clarify the words with her parents. Even if Charlie Wade's true identity cannot be told to them, at least she must let them know that Charlie Wade is already a wife. My husband, let them stop thinking about it.

Thinking of this, she said very seriously: "Mom, I really have something to do tomorrow, not only tomorrow, but also a lot of things the day after tomorrow. It is really busy lately, or let's not make an appointment this week, next week Look at the time, touch it again?"

Sydney heard what she said, and she knew she couldn't continue. What she wanted was Charlie Wade to come to the house to have dinner with their family of three, but if her daughter had something to do, she and her husband invited Charlie Wade to eat at home, more or less It's also strange.

So she had no choice but to say: "Well, then I will not ask Charlie Wade to come to eat at home this week. Next week, depending on your work situation, let's make an early decision and try to invite him to come home for dinner next weekend. "

After that, she looked at Charlie Wade again, with an apologetic expression: "Charlie Wade, I'm really sorry, then let's make an appointment next week. What do you think?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said with a smile: "Auntie, I can do it."

Sydney hurriedly said to Doris Young again: "Doris, you won't be allowed to work overtime on weekends next week!"

Doris Young said embarrassedly, "I don't have the final say whether to work overtime or not. There are really important things I need to do next week, and I can't just leave it behind!"

Sydney said with some dissatisfaction, "You are working so hard every day, why does your boss arrange so many for you? Work? Isn't this squeezing employees?"

Charlie Wade on the side heard this, feeling somewhat embarrassed.

After all, he is the boss who squeezed employees in Sydney's words.

Charlie Wade said at this time: "Uncle and Aunt, it's getting late, so I won't bother you much."

Sydney knew that he had delayed Charlie Wade a lot of time, and hurriedly said: "Okay Charlie Wade, Auntie will send you out and Doris will send you to the parking lot."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "No need for auntie, I can just go by myself."

Doris Young said hurriedly: "Charlie Wade I will send you off!"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "Okay. After Ms. Young, don't send me off, stay here to accompany your parents. In addition, if your dad is going to be discharged from the hospital tonight, you have to hurry up and finish the discharge procedures."

Hearing this, Doris didn't insist anymore.

She was very grateful and said to Charlie Wade, "I'm so grateful for what happened today."

Charlie Wade waved her hand: "Don't be so polite, you stay, I'm leaving."

Chapter 2382

Doris Young sent Charlie Wade to the door, seeing Charlie Wade leave, only then returned to the ward.

As soon as he entered the ward, Sydney hurried over, took Doris Young's hand, and asked concerned: "Ms. Young, what is the relationship between that Charlie Wade and you?"

Doris Young hurriedly said: "It's just the relationship of ordinary friends."

"Ordinary friends?" When Sydney heard this, she hurriedly asked her: "Then do you have a good impression of Charlie Wade in your heart?"

Doris Young said in a panic: "Ah? I don't have one!"

Sydney shook his head and said with a face of disbelief: " Your mother is sweongf? You can tell at a glance, you must have a good impression of him!"

Doris suddenly didn't know how to answer. She naturally had a good impression of Charlie Wade in her heart, and she also had a deep affection.

Especially this time, Charlie Wade not only helped himself punish Walter who poisoned his father, he even saved her father's life with a precious magic medicine.

This made her feel good about Charlie Wade to an unprecedented height.

However, she was very clear: "Charlie Wade Wade is a dignified young master, just a group Imperial on the value of over one hundred billion, this identity, how could I tell him?"

"Not to mention, he would already have Husband, even my wife, Claire Wilson Wilson, did not deal with work less."

Thinking of this, Doris Young still didn't understand, "Why did Charlie Wade marry Claire Wilson Wilson? Claire Wilson Wilson I've been in contact a few times, and I look really pretty, but the real ability to do things is not really outstanding."

"If Charlie Wade had been helping her secretly, she would have been unable to get the cooperation of the Emgrand Group for the Wilson Group."

"Even the design studio she started her own business, the overall strength is not top-notch. If she follows the normal process, her studio will not be able to get any project from the Emgrand Group, and it does not even have the ability to bid for the Emgrand Group. Qualifications for the project."

"However, it is precisely because Charlie Wade spoils her that I did various bridges and pavements for her."

"Furthermore, Claire Wilson Wilson's family conditions are not very good either. When the Wilson Group was at its peak, it was just a trivial family"

"So"

"I am not worse than Claire Wilson Wilson in terms of ability;"

"I am no worse than Claire Wilson Wilson in terms of family"

"Even if it is about looks, I dare not say that it is difficult with her. It's a good match, but at least it's not much worse."

"Unfortunately, Charlie Wade chose Claire Wilson Wilson, a girl who is not so brilliant. This is Claire Wilson Wilson's luck. I may not have this opportunity in my life. "

Thinking of this, Doris Young can't help but feel a little melancholy.

At this time, Sydney said earnestly: "Doris, mom really thinks that you and Charlie Wade are really a good match, and Wilson, the young man, is really good. People are so concerned about our family's affairs. It's also a little bit interesting to you, plus you are also interesting to him, so you can't follow the flow of the boat and focus on his development?"

When Doris heard her mother's words, she was a little embarrassed, and she blurted out, "Oh mom, what do you think? Charlie Wade is married!"

"Ah?!" Sydney exclaimed when he heard this answer, and asked incredulously: "You said he was married?! Really?!"

Doris Young Helplessly said: "Of course it is true, can I lie to you?"

Sydney suddenly became extremely sorry, and said with a sigh, "Hey, why do you think these good boys are all married?"

Chapter 2383

Doris Young was also very melancholy when she heard her mother's emotion. In her heart, she was full of affection for Charlie Wade. But unfortunately, she knew that she had few opportunities. The only thing that can be done is to work well in the Emgrand Group and take the Emgrand Group to a higher level, in order to return Charlie Wade's kindness to him, and at the same time to relax her deep feelings for Charlie Wade.

When Sydney saw her daughter being silent, of course she felt very distressed. She gently took Doris' hand and said seriously: "Good girl, mom always urged you to get married earlier, but now, mom understands that some things are wrong. It's difficult to get it done, so you will work and live according to your own ideas in the future. Mom will no longer point fingers at your life and work."

Mr. Young on the side could not help but exclaimed: "Doris, Your mother is right! In the past, we always looked at your own problems from the perspective of our thinking about problems. This kind of thinking does lack respect for you. In the future, your own affairs will be your own decision, and parents will never again. Intervene"

Doris was grateful when she heard this. There is always a lack of generation gap between children and their parents, and there are various misunderstandings. But in fact, this generation gap and misunderstanding arise not because of material things or money, but because of lack of understanding. Parents lack understanding of their children, and children do the same with their parents. Just like the current parents, most of them hope that their children can enter a good university, find a decent and profitable job, and then settle down in a city as big as possible, and have a smooth life. But they never knew what their children wanted.

Maybe their children don't want to be admitted to a good university, they just want to be able to pursue their hobbies; Maybe they don't want to make a lot of money in big cities, they just want to travel around the world with his ideals. Maybe they don't want this life to be too smooth, so that the smooth is a little flat. Maybe they just want to feel the magnificence of some life in their only one life.

It's like, many times, parents will look for an object with very good overall conditions for their children. In their eyes, the child can marry such an object, absolutely safe and carefree for a lifetime. However, the children do not pursue stability and carefreeness at all as they thought. What they pursue is a vigorous and unforgettable love.

This is why, all the great books on love in ancient and modern China and abroad, almost all have a tragic core of rebelling against their parents for love and ultimately choosing to die in love.

Romeo and Juliet in the West are such stories. Therefore, this misunderstanding between parents and children is not a phenomenon unique to modern society, but almost runs through the entire history of human development.

Doris has always felt that her parents do not understand her enough, that they do not understand her own ambitions, nor do they understand her own feelings. They feel that they don't need to do their best for work or even delay their private life.

They also feel that they should find a boyfriend who can understand all aspects as soon as possible, get married and have children as soon as possible, and stabilize their lives. Once upon a time, Doris felt distressed because of the urging of marriage at home.

Chapter 2384

At that time, her biggest wish was that her parents would one day understand themselves. Unexpectedly, at this moment, this wish was realized! Thinking of this, Doris' eyes were flushed and her nose was sore that she almost burst into tears.

In order to prevent his parents from crying, Doris hurriedly said to the two of them: "Dad and Mom, you two will wait for me for a while, I will go through the discharge procedures now, let's go home!" At the time, Cameron Isaac and Don Albertt had already captured the American classmate of Doris Young, Walter Hogwitz, the eldest son of the American Hogwitz family, and all of Walter's men in Don Albertt's kennel.

Don Albertt, the kennel, not only raises the fighting dogs for him, but also handles a lot of gray things for him, so from the time of construction, a lot of thought was spent.

First of all, Don Albertt's kennel farm was built in a relatively remote suburban area, which was originally large and sparsely populated. In order to further prevent future problems, Don Albertt also registered an agricultural technology company. All the cultivated land around the factory was rented. .

Don Albertt rented these cultivated land to cover people's eyes and ears, so in order not to doubt people, he also specially selected a group of cultivated land from his horses to cultivate this large piece of land around the kennel.

In this way, the kennel is safer and it will not attract the attention of others.

Not only the periphery, but also pay attention to safety. Inside the kennel, the security equipment is more complete.

The fence of the kennel does not seem to be high. From the outside, there is no mention of high-voltage power grids and iron briars. It does not look like a very important place.

However, on the inside of the fence, there is a high-voltage power grid one meter wide across ninety degrees.

For those who are trapped inside, the high-voltage power grid is just above their heads, it is impossible to climb up, so there is no way to escape.

Inside the kennel, there is a huge row of kennels. These kennels are all steel-welded iron cages with only a very very strong iron fence.

The locks of each iron fence door are not ordinary mechanical locks, but three solid lines of defense composed of mechanical locks, fingerprint locks, and remote electromagnetic locks.

Therefore, whether it is a terribly lethal fighting dog or a martial arts master with very strong personal strength, if it is really locked in here, there is basically no chance of escape!

All of Walter's men were placed in one of the iron cages, while Walter enjoyed a very different treatment and could enjoy an iron cage exclusively.

And the outside of this iron cage is connected with a set of special equipment for dialysis. Because it is the iron cage, all kinds of pipelines can be passed through easily without preventing Walter from receiving dialysis in the cage.

At this time, Walter, dragged into the iron cage by Don Albertt's men like a dog, still yelled in despair, "You can't do this to me. I am the eldest son of the Hogwitz family, Rothschild. Relatives of the German family!"

A black-clothed man beside him snorted coldly, and cursed: "What kind of shit, the Rothschild family, in China, any foreign family must be honest! You really think China is Your back garden, come as you want and leave as you want? What do you think you are?" After that, he grabbed Walter by the collar, broke Walter's mouth forcefully, and poured a bottle directly into his mouth. Liquid, then, regardless of Walter's struggle, he directly covered his mouth, and then let go of his hand when he swallowed all the liquid medicine.

Walter coughed a few times and asked in horror: "What the hell did you give me a drink?!"

Cameron Isaac stood outside the cage and sneered: "Don't you like secretly poisoning others with mercury dichloride? Your favorite Things, why can't you taste it?"

Chapter 2385

"Mercury Dichloride?!"

Walter's face instantly turned pale when he heard this!

He knelt on the ground with a thump, and kept kowtow to Cameron Isaac, crying and said, "I know I was wrong, I really know it was wrong, please, please let the doctor come and wash my stomach, later It's too late."

"I will lavage your stomach?" Cameron Isaac sneered: "Walter, do you know that you are afraid now? When you hurt others, why didn't you consider the mood of others? Now it's your turn. Are you scared and want to admit counsel? Do you really think that admitting counsel will solve the problem? I tell you, it's impossible!"

Walter collapsed in despair and cried loudly: "Please call Master Wade and just say me I really know that I was wrong. I am willing to be a cow and a horse for him in my life, as long as he can spare my life."

Cameron Isaac said disdainfully, "Being a cow and a horse for our young master, do you think you are qualified?"

" Exactly!" Don Albertt curled his lips in disdain, and said coldly: "Just this kind of dog stuff, let alone being a cow or a horse for the young master, even if I am a dog for Don Albertt, I can't fucking look down on him! Something!"

Walter did not want to give up, crying bitterly: "Please help me tell Master Wade! As long as he can agree to let the doctor give me gastric lavage, even if he keeps me here for a lifetime, I will Yes! I really can't. I'm willing to stay here for the rest of my life, using labor to reform myself and repay my sins."

As soon as Walter said this, the man who was cleaning another iron cage not far away murmured coldly: " Hey! You young Yankee are bullshit here! You offended Master Wade, and hope that Master Wade can let you go? You are a foolish dream! And, in the fifth kennel, I already have me, Jiro Kobayashi, no I need you as a dog!"

It was Ichiro Kobayashi's younger brother, Jiro Kobayashi.

Since he was sent by Charlie Wade to raise a dog here, he dreamed that he would be able to escape from this place one day.

However, Don Albertt's kennel farm is extremely tightly guarded. He will definitely not be able to escape if he wants to escape. Therefore, if he wants to leave here, there are only two possibilities left.

"The first possibility of leaving here is that my brother Ichiro Kobayashi made a mistake and was given up by Master Wade, so that Master Wade took the initiative to use him in exchange for me out."

"But, I still clearly remember that my brother was extremely flattering to Master Wade. It looks like, plus I am doing his negative teaching materials in this kennel, so I think my brother should walk on thin ice now and never make any mistakes"

"So, there is only the second possibility left!

" That is, Master Wade is willing to take the initiative to let me go!"

"But this possibility is almost negligible, about zero"

"After all, I work hard every day in the kennel, and my status is very low, even inferior to the dog here, I rarely have the opportunity to see Don Albertt, let alone see Master Wade?"

"Because of this, I do my work every day and work hard, and I hope the people under Don Albertt can see my efforts. then my performance will truthfully report to the Don Albertt "

" now, Don Albertt finally come and kennel, and such a good chance a table faithful, Jiro Kobayashi how can I let go in vain! "

Don Albertt Wade did not I thought that Jiro Kobayashi, who was working in the kennel, reprimanded Walter with outrage.

However, after a while, he understood Jiro Kobayashi's motives.

Chapter 2386

So he smiled and said, "Jiro Kobayashi, your consciousness has improved very quickly recently."

Jiro Kobayashi hurried to Don Albertt's front, bowed suddenly at 90 degrees, and said loudly: "Don Albertt! Thanks! Your recognition of Jiro, Jiro will definitely continue to work hard!"

Don Albertt nodded in satisfaction, and smiled: "Jiro, seeing that you have performed well recently, I will talk to the chef back and add a chicken wing to you every day. !"

When Jiro Kobayashi heard this, he hurriedly smiled and pleaded: "Don Albertt, you just ask the chef to add a chicken leg to me? I work a lot every day, eat less food, and always have a little nutrition. "Bad"

Don Albertt looked at Jiro Kobayashi's skinny appearance, and smiled: "Jiro, you're pretty good at bargaining."

Jiro Kobayashi explained hurriedly, "God, I just feel that I can't get enough food every day. , I don't mean to bargain with you. Don't get me wrong."

Don Albertt nodded and smiled: "Okay, I know, so let's see, for your work harder recently, I will let the chef give you every day On the basis of adding a chicken wing, I will add an extra chicken leg every Monday and every Thursday!"

When Jiro Kobayashi heard this, he hurriedly bowed and said, "Thank you, Lord! Thank you, Lord! Please help me. Thank you Master Wade, I said that Jiro will definitely work well at the kennel!"

Don Albertt smiled and said, "Okay, since you are so sensible, I have the opportunity to meet Master Wade, and I will definitely speak for you in front of him. "

Jiro Kobayashi was immediately excited, he kept bowing, nodded and said: "Jiro thanks Don Albertt!" Don Albertt turned his face at this time, looked at Walter, who was pale, and sneered: "Walter, You have also heard that I don't need your garbage to help me work in my kennel, so you live here steadily and get ready for daily dialysis!"

Walter collapsed and cried: "Don Albertt! Please call Master Wade. I am also the eldest master of the Hogwitz family, with family assets of more than ten billion U.S. dollars, plus I am more than one meter tall. Eight, all year round fitness, you leave me here to do miscellaneous work, why not be better than that thin and short Japanese?"

Don Albertt smirked: "Walter, what do you think your Hogwitz family has assets over 10 billion? Is that impressive? Did you know this thin and short Japanese, is the president of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall Co., Ltd. of Japan before coming here? You know what Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall assets are like? "

Speaking At this, Don Albertt paused, and said coldly: "I'm telling you! The Kobayashi family's assets, more than 30 billion US dollars, are three times as much as your Hogwarts family!"

Walter was immediately stunned when he heard this. , Murmured: "That Japanese, is it the former chairman of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall Co., Ltd., Jiro Kobayashi?!"

"Yes! That's Jiro Kobayashi!" Don Albertt said, and continued mocking: "Look. Look, Jiro Kobayashi has three times the family assets of yours, and it's just a servant who feeds and shovels dog shit every day in my place. Rubbish like you still wants to stay here and do coolies? Take a picture of yourself, do you fucking deserve it?"

Walter was speechless, and his heart was desperately secretive: "I really didn't expect that in Don Albertt's kennel, there is actually a Kobayashi. The second young master of the pharmaceutical industry"

"The situation of the Kobayashi family is completely different from the Hogwitz family. The Kobayashi family itself has only two descendants, the eldest son Ichiro Kobayashi, and the second son Jiro Kobayashi, with an average of 30 billion in assets."

"And our Hogwitz family members are too fucking capable of giving birth. My brothers, sisters, cousins, and cousins add up to nearly 20 people and 10 billion dollars in assets. Individuals don't get much at all."

"So, compared to Jiro Kobayashi, I'm a thousand miles away."

"Even he raises a dog here, so don't I really have any chance?!"

Chapter 2387

The mercury dichloride poured into Walter's mouth quickly took effect, and Walter felt more discomfort and pain. He knew that this must be the cause of the rapid deterioration of the kidneys! Until this moment, Walt really realized how much trouble he had caused himself.

He always felt that with his identity, status, and family background, he could walk sideways in any corner of the world. After all, relative to the ten billion dollars of family property, most things in this world seem too cheap to him.

When he was in the United States, he didn't get into trouble less, but even if he really killed someone, he could do it with a few million dollars at most, which would not cause him any trouble at all.

If the poisoning of Mr. Young was in the United States, once the East Window incident happened, he would only need to spend a few hundred thousand dollars, and he would immediately be able to arrange a scapegoat.

Even if the whole world knows, how is he instructing behind? He can find a strong enough relationship in the judicial department of the United States to put all the crimes on a scapegoat, and never let himself get into any trouble.

However, the bad is bad, and he actually offended Master Wade this time. Since Master Wade is offended, it can't be solved with money!

In just a few hours, Walter went from a strong young man to a terminally ill patient who almost lost all mobility and could only lie on the floor and wailing.

The doctor arranged by Cameron Isaac in advance has been following up Walter's physical condition. He will measure his blood creatinine every half an hour.

In half an hour, Walter's blood creatinine value went from 75 at the beginning to two hundred, five hundred, eight hundred, one thousand, and even soon exceeded one thousand five.

This number represents that Walter's kidney has been completely damaged. Afterwards, the doctor immediately put him on the dialysis equipment. Dialysis equipment, to put it bluntly, is a mechanical kidney manufactured artificially.

When one's own kidneys lose their function, they use such equipment to replace the kidneys to complete detoxification and filtration tasks. Therefore, when the dialysis equipment was activated, Walter's life was saved. However, although his life was saved, he couldn't get rid of the dialysis equipment anyway.

...

At the same time, New York, USA.

Inside a skyscraper in Manhattan, a white man in his fifties is walking anxiously back and forth in his office. He is Walter's father, Steve Hogwitz.

It was already three o'clock in the afternoon in New York, and Steve started contacting Walter at nine o'clock in the morning, and has not been able to contact Walter until now.

Fearing that Walter would encounter any unexpected events in China, he contacted Walter's entourage, but these people were all missing without exception. Several other family executives who followed Walter to Aurouss Hilll can still be contacted, but they have no idea where Walter went after the evening.

In order to determine Walter's whereabouts, these executives immediately called the Aurouss Hilll police, but the Aurouss Hilll police did not find any trace of Walter. This person is as if the world has evaporated. After Steve got the feedback, he immediately realized that the situation was very bad.

He pressed the phone on his desk and sternly ordered: "Arrange the plane immediately, I'm going to China!"

Chapter 2388

Arouss Hilll in the early morning looks no different from usual. More than a dozen people, including Walter, are missing. For Aurouss Hilll, which has a population of nearly 10 million, it is impossible to make any waves.

Charlie Wade slept very steadily this night, and Elaine Ma was worried about breakfast, so he was still asleep at this time.

At the same time, Deana, alone, drove from Thorne's mansion to the door of Bruce's former residence. Since coming to Aurouss Hilll, Deana would dream about Bruce every night.

Especially last night, she dreamed that she became Bruce's wife, that Bruce took herself away from Eastcliff and came to Aurouss Hilll, and she also dreamed that she would stay with Bruce in the yard that was about to be auctioned. A happy life with the husband and the wife.

It was because of this dream that she couldn't help but want to come back to this old courtyard to take a look. Deana parked the car outside, pushed open the dilapidated iron gate of the yard, and walked in. At this time, she was thinking about Bruce's shadow, and she didn't even notice that someone was in a secret place, taking pictures of herself with a camera.

Ten minutes later, Eastcliff, Wade family.

Lord Wade was excited to call a meeting with his three sons. Corran, Myles, and William immediately got out of the bed and hurried to Lord Wade's study after receiving the notice.

Lord Wade looked at his three sleepy-faced sons, and said with excitement: "I let you over here so early because I have found a good way to attack the Banks Familyy!"

Corran asked in surprise, "Dad! Yes! What's a good way?"

Lord Wade smiled mysteriously, picked up a tablet, opened a photo, handed it to the three of them, and smiled: "Look for yourself!"

Corran and his two younger brothers immediately leaned over to watch carefully. .

This is a picture of a woman, and it can be seen that the photographer used a telephoto lens and took it secretly from a relatively far away position.

Later, Corran was the first to recognize this woman and exclaimed: "This... isn't this Zayne's wife,

Deana?" Myles hurriedly agreed: "It's really her! Dad, you What did you do to sneak a photo of Deana?"

Lord Wade sneered: "This time the Banks Familyy's reputation has been greatly affected by Xion's affairs. The old fox Lord Banks even sold his son Zayne for his own reputation. Keeping the way? For this reason, they fled to Australia to avoid the limelight. If we can add fuel to the fire, they will be more uncomfortable!"

Corran asked puzzledly, "Dad, what does this have to do with Deana? I heard the gossip that Deana is planning to divorce Zayne."

Lord Wade smiled and said, "Do you know where Deana is now?" The three sons shook their heads involuntarily. They have always regarded the Banks

Familyy as a major enemy, but they did not pay much attention to Deana, the Banks Familyy's wife.

Seeing all three sons, Lord Wade smiled indifferently, and said, "Deana is in Aurouss Hillll now!"

"Arouss Hillll?" Corran asked in surprise, "Is there anything weird about her in Aurouss Hillll?"

Lord Wade pointed to the tablet. "Did you not see where this photo was taken?"

Corran looked at the dilapidated little yard in the photo and said blankly, "Dad, isn't this just a broken yard? Is there any special place?"

Lord Wade sighed slightly, and said in a little melancholy: "This dilapidated little courtyard is the place where Bruce lived in Aurouss Hillll."

Corran and the three brothers suddenly realized.

Corran was the first to react and exclaimed: "Deana went to Bruce's former residence. Is it because he still has feelings for Bruce?"

"Yeah!" Lord Wade nodded and said, "In my opinion, it must be so! "

Corran slapped his lips: "Tsk tsk... this Deana is really infatuated with Bruce! She ran so far to Aurouss Hillll just to take a look at Bruce's old residence."

Lord Wade sighed: "Not only In this way, the yard where Bruce has lived is about to be auctioned off for justice. Deana also signed up and will participate in the auction on Monday!" After that, Lord Wade sneered and said, "This is a good opportunity for us to attack the Banks Familyy. Ah! As long as we let people send this photo, and at the same time spread the news that Deana's lingering affection for Bruce, and even the purchase of Bruce's old residence, also spread, the last bit of face of the Banks Familyy will also be lost!"

Chapter 2389

This weekend, the entire upper class of Eastcliff once again burst a blockbuster. Deana, the wife of Banks' son Zayne, went to Aurouss Hillll without divorcing Zayne! Moreover, she went to Aurouss Hillll to cherish the memory of Bruce, who had been dead for nearly 20 years! What is even more amazing is that Deana is going to participate in the judicial auction next Monday to bid for the old house where Bruce lived!

Is it because she wants to see things and think about people? ! Could it be that she loved Bruce so deeply? ! Otherwise, how could Deana still love Bruce so faithfully after so many years? Moreover, from the photos taken by Deana, she was very sad. When the telephoto camera captured her beautiful and moving face, she even caught two lines of tears.

You know, in Deana's years, it was Eastcliff who understood one thing from Deana's practices. That is: It turns out that Deana has been obsessed with Bruce for so many years, even though she has been married to Zayne for more than 20 years and gave birth to a son and a daughter for Zayne!

Suddenly, the entire upper class of Eastcliff had a lot of discussions. On the one hand, people marveled that Deana was so affectionate with Bruce; on the other hand, they laughed at Zayne, failing to win Deana's true love for so many years. In Deana's mind, it is even less than a death twenty years ago!

The Banks Family, who was ridiculed and mocked by the whole world because of the incident of betraying Xion, suddenly added a new huge joke!

In Eastcliff's mansion, Lord Banks threw several precious porcelains in anger!

After a ding-ding and crackling of the ceramics, he roared angrily: "This Deana actually ran to Aurouss Hilll at this time to go to the place where the dead man Bruce lived, and he shed tears fakely. This is to slap our Banks Family in the face!"

Zayne is not in the country, so the next generation representative of the Banks Family has become his younger brother James. At this time, James said with a furious expression: This woman Deana is really too much. I didn't expect that my brother had married her for so many years and he hadn't brought up this white-eyed wolf!"

"Now when our Banks Family is on the cusp of the storm, she will do so. I think she just deliberately wanted to sweep the face of our Banks Family!"

Jordan immediately echoed: "Yes, Dad! I really didn't expect that my sister-in-law could do such an unscrupulous way. After all, my elder brother hasn't divorced her yet!"

Zayneli said hurriedly, "Dad! Sister-in-law's visit to Bruce's former residence is actually not the most serious. The most serious thing is, if the sister-in-law really mentions Bruce When the former residence is bought, we will be really embarrassed!"

"Yes! James only then reacted and cursed impatiently: "Damn! That bitch! Before divorcing my eldest brother, I ran to buy the place where the dead man Bruce lived. What the hell did that mean? Could it be that a person who has been dead for 20 years is stronger than my elder brother? Even if my eldest brother doesn't help, he can't be worse than a damn ghost, right? "

James's words not only scolded his sister-in-law Deana, but also scolded his elder brother Zayne. The implication of his remarks was to let the old man know that his elder brother is a trash, a trash that cannot surrender his own woman, or even a comparison. Not the waste of the dead!

Lord Banks can naturally hear the off-strings in James's words. What's more, he actually agreed with James's words from the bottom of his heart. In the past 50 years, he has never been like now. In this way, full of anger at his eldest son!

Chapter 2390

In his opinion, the Banks Familyy is in the situation it is today, and Zayne should bear most of the responsibility! Therefore, in his eyes, Zayne was not only not a qualified family heir, but also not even a qualified blood heir. The so-called family successor is the one who will inherit the entire Banks Familyy in the future and become the helm of the Banks Familyy; and the so-called bloodline successor naturally requires a lot more conditions. As long as it is a person from the Banks Familyy, it is the Banks Familyy blood successor. .

The current Lord Banks thinks that not only is Zayne not qualified to be the helm of the Banks Familyy, he is not even qualified to inherit the blood of the Banks Familyy!

Therefore, he said in an angry cold voice: "James! Call your eldest brother! Ask him to prevent Deana from participating in the judicial auction next Monday! I will never allow this woman to make the Banks Familyy the laughing stock of China again!"

James heard this, his heart was already happy, and his mouth said very solemnly: "Dad, don't worry! I will call the big brother!" After that, James took out the phone and prepared to dial.

Lord Banks on the side said coldly: "Turn on the hands-free! I want to hear what this rebellious son will say!" James was overjoyed that he beat his eldest brother Zayne when he was too busy.

Zayne at this time did not know what happened to Eastcliff. He received a call from James, and his heart was immediately full of disgust. Although he is not in Eastcliff these days, he can accurately imagine how his younger brother will corrupt himself when he is not by his father's side.

At this critical moment, it is equivalent to the ancient emperor's dissatisfaction with the prince and the desire to dethrone the prince. When the other princes are excited, they must deliberately plan to perform well, and at the same time desperately put the prince down.

In the face of huge interests, brotherhood is nothing, not even a fart. Therefore, he was irritated and did not even bother to answer James's call.

James called again, and when no one answered, he immediately said to the old man: "Big Brother doesn't answer the phone, he doesn't know what he is doing."

"Trash! What a trash!" Lord Banks yelled: "I let him go to Australia to avoid the limelight. Except for this incident, he didn't have any shit, and he couldn't even answer the phone! Continue calling!"

"Good!"

James immediately called Zayne again.

Zayne in Australia was so annoyed by the ringing of his phone that he wanted to simply shut it down, but after another thought, he suddenly realized: "Now the old man is not satisfied with me. If I don't answer James's call again, he runs to the old man. If you tarnish me in front of him, it's really a loss!"

Thinking of this, he immediately pressed the answer button, and asked in a cold tone, "What's the matter?"

James said immediately, "Brother! Why don't you answer the phone all the time!"

Zayne didn't expect that his younger brother would accuse himself as soon as he came up, so he asked dissatisfiedly: "I have been sent to Australia to avoid the limelight. Does the matter still have anything to do with me? Shouldn't the domestic issues be resolved by you?" As soon as the Lord Banks who was on the phone heard this, his face suddenly fell, but he didn't make any sound, and instead did something to James A silent gesture meant not to let Zayne on the other end of the phone know that he was also listening on the other end of the phone.

James immediately understood, and hurriedly said: "Big brother! Sister-in-law ran to Aurouss Hilll, ran to Bruce's former residence, and was still in tears at Bruce's former residence. These were all photographed by the paparazzi and exposed! And the sister-in-law also signed up. At Monday's judicial auction and is going to buy Bruce's former residence! Our Banks Family's faces are all lost by this lady!"

Chapter 2391

"What?!" Zayne immediately became so angry that he almost went violently, and cursed with extreme anger: "This Deana is really stubborn! She doesn't take me seriously!"

"Yeah! Big brother!" James immediately added his jealousy: "Sister-in-law and you have not divorced after all. At this time, it is too much to openly remember a man who has been dead for 20 years and is a man from the Wade family!"

Zayne gritted his teeth and said: "James, this is a matter between me and her. You don't need to point me here!" In Zayne's heart, although he has a lot of dissatisfaction with Deana, he can still see right and wrong in his heart. James fights at this time. When talking on the phone, I just didn't feel at ease! On the one hand, I want to irritate myself, on the other hand, I want to provoke the relationship between myself and Deana!

Therefore, he naturally didn't have a good tone for James.

James sighed deliberately at this time and said, "Hey! Big brother! Sister-in-law is your wife, you have to think of a way! At least you have to persuade her not to bid for Bruce's old house, so we Banks Familyy At least I can keep a face."

Zayne said coldly, " James, I don't need you to teach me how to do things!"

James said hurriedly, "Big brother, don't be emotional now, after all, it's not between you and your sister-in-law. It's a matter between our entire Banks Familyy and my sister-in-law!"

"She is your wife after all now, and she is not just your wife, she is also the Banks Familyy's daughter-in-law, she is now acting recklessly and losing It's not just your face, but the face of our entire Banks Familyy!"

Zayne exploded as soon as he heard this, and yelled: "James! You are trying to trap me here! Why are you calling me today?! What of the rest of the Banks Familyy?"

Zayne said these words, and the implication is that he is not to blame his wife Deana, but his father Lord Banks!

The reason why the whole thing can reach this point is that Lord Banks alone caused it! If he hadn't been wise and self-assertive to betray Xion, the matter that Xion was his illegitimate daughter would not have been exposed.

What really pushed the Banks Familyy into the abyss was the betrayal of Xion, and he was also forced to come out and take the blame. The culprit behind this was Lord Banks! Moreover, in Zayne's heart, although he was very dissatisfied with Deana, he still had some understanding of what she had done deep in his heart.

After all, he knew very well in his heart that he made his mistake first. I have been hiding the illegitimate daughter outside for more than 20 years. It is impossible for any woman to forgive myself, not to mention Deana, a woman who does not tolerate any sand in her eyes and has a naturally strong personality.

Moreover, Deana likes Bruce's things. She knew more than 20 years ago that she wanted to go to Aurouss Hilll to mourn Bruce. She was afraid that it had been in her mind for more than 20 years, and she hadn't had it for more than 20 years. To go, it proves that Deana respects him from the bottom of her heart.

The reason why she no longer cared about her feelings now was because he had made a mistake first. Therefore, under this premise, he hated his father far more than hated Deana. However, James didn't care about this. He just wanted to go to the bottom of the well and kill others.

So, he opened his mouth and said: "Big brother! What do you mean by this? Do you think that the Banks Familyy will fix everything? It is not your responsibility?"

Zayne heard him ask, and suddenly exploded, blurting out: "It's my fucking responsibility?! Was it me that wanted to give up Xion? Was it my collusion with the Japanese Self-Defense Force to kill Xion?" On the phone, the Lord Banks's expression was already very ugly.

Chapter 2392

James was very happy, but he questioned unhingedly: "Big brother, what do you mean? Do you think all this is Dad's responsibility? I tell you! Dad does everything for us! It's all to wipe your ass for your eldest son who has an illegitimate daughter outside! If you hadn't messed around and got Xion out, how could we have the situation we are today?!"

Zayne shouted angrily: "Fuck your mother!"

James was also angry, and cursed: "My mother is your mother!" Zayne was speechless when he heard this.

And Lord Banks' face was already black and green.

James continued to provoke at this time: "Big Brother! I didn't call to fight with you, and I don't want to fight with you, I want to persuade you to recognize the reality!"

Zayne asked in an angry way: "Recognize what reality? "

James said coldly: "The first reality I want to persuade you to recognize clearly is that my sister-in-law does not have our Banks Family in her eyes!" After all, James continued to aggressively say: "I want to persuade you to recognize the second reality. The reality is that the sister-in-law married you for more than 20 years, and she has never regarded you as her husband! In the terms of the young people nowadays, you are just a spare tire in her eyes! She can't get Bruce so you are a Second choice spare tire!"

James's words deeply hurt Zayne's heart! This is actually the most fragile place in his heart over the past two decades. He knew that he was Deana's spare tire and that he was Bruce's substitute, and he had not been able to truly replace Bruce for more than 20 years! However, his uncontrollable love for Deana kept him deceiving himself and others. Now, the truth was unrelentingly told by James, and he was ashamed to the extreme!

He cursed with extreme resentment on the phone: "James! If you fucking talk nonsense, I will kill you!"

James didn't say a word, he actually enjoyed Zayne's current anger and corruption. He knew that the more Zayne lost his reason at this moment, the lighter his weight in front of the old man. If he can keep him in this state, it won't be long before the old man will never want to see him again. James did not speak, but the old man beside him couldn't bear it anymore!

His entire popularity trembled, and he gritted his teeth and shouted: "Zayne! For a woman who doesn't love you at all and doesn't care about your face, even if you say such things to your hand-foot brothers, you are still not a human!"

Zayne was on the phone for an instant. Like being struck by lightning! He really didn't expect the old man to be next to the phone! He only understood now that he had been led by James since he was on the phone. James provoked his anger step by step, tempted himself step by step, and fell into the pit he dug!

So, he could only hurriedly explain: "Dad! I didn't mean that, I was just getting angry just now." "Don't say it!" Lord Banks screamed and said: "I don't care what you use, you must stop it. Deana will participate in the judicial auction next Monday! I will not allow her to tarnish the face of the Banks Familyy any more!!"

Chapter 2393

In the eyes of Lord Banks, the face of the Banks Familyy, he can throw himself to death, but other people cannot!

The decision to betray Xion was made by him. Although he finally forced Zayne to come out, but the face of the Banks Familyy was lost because of him, but instead of doing any self-examination, he only allowed the state officials to set fire to the people.

Even if Deana had not divorced Zayne, the marriage between her and Zayne was also the first that Zayne derailed. Not to mention that she just wanted to buy the old house where Bruce lived, even if she also wanted Zayne, the Banks' family has absolutely no right to accuse her.

However, in the eyes of Mr. Banks, he did not think so. He felt that although his son had derailed first, Deana, as the daughter-in-law of the Banks Familyy, would definitely not do anything that would damage the face of the Banks Familyy.

Now, Deana went to Aurouss Hilll to cherish Bruce's memory, and even bid for Bruce's former residence. In Lord Banks's view, this was definitely reaching out to hit the face of Banks' family! So, in any case, they must force her to completely dispel this idea! Zayne was also helpless at this time.

He knew Deana too well, and knew that he could not persuade her to turn around, but he didn't dare to disobey the old man directly, so he had no choice but to agree and said: "Dad, I will talk to Deana on the phone and persuade her. She dismissed this idea."

Zayne added: "If you still don't listen to my persuasion, then I have nothing to do." Lord Banks shouted coldly, "You must tell her clearly when you call her. , This is not just what you mean, but also what I mean. If she doesn't listen to her husband, she must at least give me a bit of face for being a good father-in-law!"

Zayne had to agree and said: "I know I'll tell her when I'm done."

Lord Banks snorted, " Get this done as soon as possible!"

After speaking, he immediately hung up the phone. Zayne heard the end call tone on the phone, feeling very upset. He was silent for about five minutes by himself before unlocking the phone and calling Deana who was far away in Aurouss Hilll.

Deana saw Zayne's call, and although she didn't want to answer it, she still pressed the answer button and asked, "Is there something?"

Zayne hesitated for a moment, then said: "Deana, Dad just called me, He was very unhappy about you going to Aurouss Hilll."

Deana asked, "Why is he unhappy when I came to Aurouss Hilll?"

Zayne said in a cold voice, "Aren't you asking knowingly? Do you know that the entire Eastcliff City knows why you go to Aurouss Hilll? They all know that you are going to Aurouss Hilll to cherish the memory of Bruce, and they also know you are going to buy the old house where Bruce lived!"

Deana said calmly, "Where I want to go is my freedom, and what I want to buy is mine. Whom I want to cherish in my heart is my freedom, not to mention that the entire Eastcliff City knows it, even if the entire country knows it, I have a clear conscience."

"Did you even think about dad?" Zayne asked angrily: "What's his mood when someone mentions his daughter-in-law goes to cherish another man in front of him?"

Deana asked him without humility, "Zayne, did you think about my dad when he mentioned his son-in-law had an illegitimate daughter in her 20s outside, what was his mood?"

Zayne was speechless immediately. He knew that it was impossible for him to convince Deana on this issue, because what he did was a hundred times, one thousand times, or even ten thousand times worse than that of Deana!

So, he was silent for a long time and sighed: "Hey! Deana, I didn't want to call you about this, mainly because my dad was very angry and called me, so that I have to persuade you to give up anyway and not to participate in the judicial auction next Monday, you know Dad very well. In order to avoid unnecessary trouble, I advise you not to participate."

Deana heard it and said seriously: "Zayne, I ask you to watch For the sake of a husband and wife, authorize your lawyer to divorce the marriage. After the divorce, your Banks Family no longer has to worry about what I want to do, and what I do has nothing to do with your Banks Family."

Zayne said decisively: "I will not agree to the divorce for the time being. I will talk about it when I return to China."

Deana said flatly, "Well, since this is the case, please don't call me anymore. When will you be willing to divorce, don't talk to me. Just contact your lawyer."

After finishing this, Deana directly hung up.

Chapter 2394

Zayne was once again hanging on the other side of the phone. At this time, Zayne was extremely angry in his heart.

He directly slammed the phone to the ground, smashed to pieces, and yelled: "Deana! I just don't understand, what is so good about Bruce?! Why do you remember him for so many years?! Don't you Forget, he never chose you from the beginning to the end! He kept giving up on you, and gave up on you until he died!"

Just as he was furious, the servant walked over with a mobile phone. Cautiously said: "Master Banks is calling."

Zayne realized that he had already smashed his phone.

He had to take the call from the servant, suppressed his anger, and said, "Dad, what do you want?"

Lord Banks asked coldly, "Why can't I get through to your phone?"

Zayne had to lied: " There was a problem with my phone and it turned off automatically." Lord Banks didn't go into it any more, but asked him eagerly: "Have you communicated with Deana?"

Zayne hurriedly said, "Yes I did."

Lord Banks asked, "What did she say? ? "

Zayne, frustrated said:"Dad, I'm sorry, I tried to convince her and even told her your wishes, but she will not listen."

Lord Banks at once furious, teeth shouted:" Waste What a waste! A waste that even can't control a woman!"

After speaking, he once again rudely hung up the phone! This was Zayne's third call that was hung up in just ten minutes. He has been in a fit of anger! At the moment he was almost about to smash the phone in his hand, his whole figure was suddenly taken aback, and then suddenly relaxed. He threw the phone to the servant, got up, walked up the stairs, and returned to his room.

On the way upstairs, he murmured: "Deana, the old man is far less talkative than Zayne. Since you don't want to give him face, I don't care about anything from now on!"

At this moment, Eastcliff Banks' family.

Lord Banks was equally angry.

Deana insisted on participating in the judicial auction next Monday, which made him very annoyed. However, he was also very clear in his heart that in this situation, he hoped to persuade Deana, fearing that it would be of no use at all.

At this moment, James said: "Dad, maybe let's find a relationship and ask Aurouss Hilll to cancel this auction!"

"Cancel?" Lord Banks asked him, "Can it be cancelled for a while, can it be cancelled for a lifetime? Now there is a lot of discussion on it, and many people are paying attention to this auction. If people know that we use this relationship to prevent Deana from buying this old house, I am afraid that people will be even more ridiculing!"

James looked anxious and Question: "Dad, what should I do? The auction will start the day after tomorrow!"

Lord Banks nodded and said coldly: "Let's clarify the relationship secretly, and move this auction from the Internet to in person. I want to see if Deana can really go out and go to the auction in person!"

James blurted out, "Dad, this can't be done! What if she does go? I personally think she will go!"

Lord Banks's eyes flashed a fierce sneer, and he sneered: "If she really doesn't know how to back off, then don't blame me for being cruel. How did Princess Diana die? You should be very cruel. Is it clear?"

Chapter 2395

"Princess Diana?!"

James thought of the legendary princess's bizarre fate, his expression was immediately shocked, he instantly understood what Dad meant, and exclaimed: "Dad, are you kidding me?"

Lord Banks expression Stern said: "This is a matter of face, without the slightest joke, anyway, I do not let Banks' face get ruin at the hands of a woman without my family name."

Lord Banks coldly said: "Although the Banks Familyy is not a European royal family, the importance of our face is not inferior to those of the European royal nobles! If anyone dares to insult the Banks Familyy's face, don't blame me for being ruthless! In order to defend the Banks Familyy's face, what do you expect?!"

James nodded gently. He knew that whether it was a royal family, aristocrat, or a top family, the importance of public face was almost above everything.

My father is now taking advancement as retreat and letting the auction go offline, which is equivalent to letting Deana consider it carefully. If she dares to participate directly in the auction unscrupulously, then don't blame the Banks Familyy for being merciless! Sometimes, just to force the other party to make a bigger decision.

It's like a confrontation between two people. One of them can't bear the pain of a killer for the time being, and is unwilling to let the other side go. They often go the other way and hand the other a knife directly.

If the other party really doesn't know how to lift up and picks up the knife, it is tantamount to helping oneself make the final decision.

Lord Banks wanted to transfer the auction from online to offline for this purpose; to test Deana and see if she would choose life or death!

Deana's old butler in Aurouss Hilll soon received the news that the auction was changed to offline auction, and he hurriedly reported the situation to Deana. .

Deana was surprised and asked: "Didn't you say that similar auctions have been put online for the past two years? Why did this move back from online again?"

The old butler shook her head and said, "Second Miss, I am not very clear about this. I inquired about it. It seems that offline public auctions are more transparent."

Deana didn't think much about it. She hesitated for a moment and said: "Offline, let's go offline. Has the time and place been set?"

"It's set!" The old butler hurriedly said: "Monday at 10 o'clock in the Jumbo Pavilion auction hall!"

"Jumbo Pavilion?" Deana asked curiously, "What is the background of Jumbo Pavilion?"

The old steward introduced: "This Jumbo Pavilion is a cooperative club under our Aurouss Hilll Cultural and Play Association. It mainly sells various antiques and organizes and undertakes various auctions."

Deana nodded and said: "If so, then Monday morning I will go directly to Jumbo Court to participate in the auction."

The old housekeeper said: "Miss Deana, I don't think it would be a good idea for you to go personally."

Deana asked in surprise: "Why?"

The old housekeeper coughed awkwardly and explained: "Miss Deana, the matter of your coming to Aurouss Hilll has already casued trouble in Eastcliff, if you want to participate in this event yourself it will surely cause more controversy."

Deana smiled lightly and said seriously: "The so-called controversy is because I and Zayne have not yet divorced. Although I am not divorced with him, I married him for more than 20 years and has never been close to any other man, even if it is verbal ambiguity, but on the other hand, Zayne, he keeps saying that he loves me, but he still has a private life outside. To give birth to a daughter, why is his approach allowed, and my approach will cause even greater controversy?"

The old butler reluctantly said, "Second lady, although the society has already emphasized equality between men and women, there are some things between men and women. Naturally, there is a difference between them. In the moral philosophy of upper-class society, there is always a higher degree of tolerance for the male partner. Many original partners even turn a blind eye to this, and the public is not surprised by it."

Chapter 2396

He said again: "Do you remember that there was a more famous director who was not clear with others. His wife was not angry, but publicly said that her husband was taken advantage of? But the other way round, if it is a woman she is going to be scolded to death in front of public opinion!"

Deana smiled slightly, and said, "Uncle White, you're worried about it. I just want to buy the house where Bruce Wade lived. It's my memory for him, apart from that, I won't have any scandals with other men, let alone any actual relationship with other men. If the outside world can't even tolerate this, then neither will I need their tolerance."

The old housekeeper said anxiously, "Second Miss, I don't mean that. I mean, it's okay for you to buy this house, but the current situation is a bit special after all."

"You and Zayne haven't divorced yet, so I feel that you don't have to go to this auction in person. It's better to let me find a third party who has nothing to do with the vacation and let him take the house back on your behalf. After coming back after the auction, they will hold temporary ownership until you and Zayne divorced, then this house will be transferred to your name. This will avoid any backlash."

Deana waved her hand and said earnestly: "Uncle White, I miss Bruce. That is not wrong in itself. So I am not afraid of shadows when I am upright. If others helped me to participate in the auction, but once it was passed I took ownership, others would think that I had a guilty conscience."

The old butler sighed with regret: "Second Miss! There is something I know not to say, but I have to say it! The Banks' have always been extremely hostile. You have seen what happened some time ago. They can even sell the flesh and blood of their own family. This proves that this family has almost no morals at all. If you insist on participating in this auction, you will offend them."

Deana frowned slightly, and said puzzledly: "I just don't understand. Zayne carried the illegitimate daughter for 20 years in secret, and still dignifiedly brought the illegitimate daughter under my nose for several years. Why does anyone think that the Banks Family will be offended by me?"

The old housekeeper hurriedly said, "Miss, many things are not as we imagined. In the upper-class society, men and women are indeed very different. You can't consciously ignore it."

Deana smiled slightly: "Uncle White, don't persuade me. I've made up my mind. If you don't arrange for me, I will arrange it myself. In short, I must go to this auction, and Go freely!"

The old butler hesitated for a long time before finally sighing helplessly: "Well, second lady, I will make arrangements."

At the same time, Thompson First's villa. Charlie Wade also received a call from Cameron Isaac.

Cameron Isaac said on the phone: "Master, the auction on Monday has been changed to offline."

"Oh?" Charlie Wade asked in surprise: "Why did it change to offline?"

Cameron Isaac said, "After inquiring about it, I even dragged Eastcliff's informant to help in the investigation. The information returned seemed to be the Banks Family mediating in it."

"Banks Familyy?!" Charlie Wade frowned, "Why did the Banks Familyy want to interference in this auction?"

"This I do not know, "Cameron Isaac truthfully said: "I have not pried into this matter, but you still try to be low-key."

Then, Cameron Isaac hastily added: "Mainly because This house is too sensitive. It is the old house where your parents lived. Once anyone competes for this house, it will prove to have a certain relationship with your parents. I'm afraid that the Banks' Family will find you there. Once the Banks Family finds you, they dare not say what they can do to you, but your identity will definitely not be able to stay hidden."

Charlie Wade said in agreement: "You are right, where will the buying and auction meeting on Monday be carried out?"

Cameron Isaac said: "The treasure pavilion is the place where you and the so-called metaphysic master Jack Yaleman bid for clams."

Charlie Wade suddenly realized and said, "I know, so let me remember that there is a VIP box. You ask Charles who is in charge to prepare one for me, and then ask your driver to go to the scene to help me participate in the auction, and I will observe it secretly in the box."

Chapter 2397

Charles after Hearing Cameron Isaac say that Charlie Wade Wade was going to come to his Treasure Pavilion to participate in the auction, was immediately excited. He immediately prepared the largest and best box, and at the same time, he called Charlie Wade specifically.

As soon as the call was connected, he respectfully said: "Master Wade, I heard that you are going to participate in the auction on Monday morning, so I specially reserved the best box for you!"

Charlie Wade said indifferently. "Pavilion Master Charles thank you for your interest, but this time you must not disclose my identity, let alone the news that I am going to participate in the auction."

Charles said without hesitation: "Master Wade, don't worry, I will tomorrow will be personally responsible for security work, the auction site, to prevent any unauthorized persons from entering, media reporter is not allowed near the Jumbo Court within the range of one hundred meters, to the time you can go directly to the internal channel. This way your identity is not exposed. "

Charlie Wade Satisfied and said: "Very good, then I will work hard for the treasure pavilion master tomorrow."

Charles said flatly: "It is an honor to serve Master Wade!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said : "Pavilion Master, then we'll see you tomorrow."

"Okay, Master Wade, we'll see you tomorrow!"

After hanging up the phone, Charles was more or less puzzled in his heart, and he could not help but secretly thought: "It's really not something I understand as to why Master Wade came to the Treasure Pavilion to participate in this kind of judicial auction. My Treasure Pavilion holds many large auctions throughout the year, many of which are rare and exotic treasures, but Master Wade seems to have basically not come to any of those. And this time the auction is just a very ordinary judicial auction. The auction items are only some assets that have been seized by the court. Among them, most of them are second-hand cars and second-hand houses. It is impossible for such an auction to attract any high-end people to participate, but why does Master Wade, such a powerful figure, have to come here in person? The lot in this auction seems to be nothing valuable. The most valuable is an old second-hand villa with a starting price of 6 million and an estimated market price of more than 8 million. Master Wade lives in Thompson First, such a real estate is simply impossible to admire."

Although Charles was puzzled, he was still very excited when he thought of being able to get in touch with Charlie Wade on Monday. During this period of time, he did hear that the famous figures in Aurouss Hilll had all been gifted by Charlie Wade. It is said that the pill that Charlie Wade gave to them had the miraculous effect of resurrection.

Therefore, he felt that if he could also have a chance to develop more relationships with Charlie Wade, he might also have a chance to get a magic medicine that could bring the dead back to life.

Monday morning After Charlie Wade finished washing up and dressed neatly, he took a taxi to the Treasure Pavilion by himself. This auction itself had nothing of value, so there was no waves in Aurouss Hilll, and not many people paid attention. But, in Eastcliff, thousands of kilometers away, countless pairs of eyes are staring at this auction.

These people have only one focus, and that is the eldest daughter-in-law of the Banks Familyy and the wife of Zayne, Deana. One thing everyone cares about is whether Deana will visit this auction in person today.

Chapter 2398

Some people think that Deana will not appear because they think that the Banks Familyy will pressure Deana on this matter. In any case, they cannot let Deana lose the face of the Banks Familyy.

But some people think that since Deana has gone to Aurouss Hilll, Bruce's former residence, and even signed up to participate in this auction, she will definitely go because of her personality, even if there is a knife in the sky, she will definitely go.

Therefore, the good people even opened a betting handicap in Eastcliff, and started the betting game on whether Deana would appear or not.

Thorne's old house at this moment. Deana is also ready. She had already decided that she had to be present at this auction, so even though the Banks Familyy had great opinions on this, she was determined to set off.

Fitz and Zara stood by the door of Deana's room early in the morning. When the door of her room opened, the brothers and sisters immediately saw the very formal mother.

Fitz was immediately anxious, and blurted out: "Mom! Are you really going to participate in that auction?"

Deana nodded slightly and said, "I have already signed up, so how can I not go?"

Zara said anxiously, "Mom! You can't go! My friend told me that all people in Eastcliff are paying attention to you now. They said that if you do go, the Banks Familyy will have no face."

Deana said seriously: "The Banks Familyy's face is not determined by me, but by the Banks Familyy. What your grandfather and your father do is the key to the Banks Familyy's face."

Zara Anxiously said: "Mom, I understand what you mean, but the current situation is that the previous things of the Banks Familyy are irreversible, but if you can give up participating in this auction now, the Banks Familyy can still Finally saved a bit of face"

Deana looked at Zara and said very seriously: "Zara, Mom never cares about anyone's opinion of me, including this matter, so anyone can think what they want. You know why?"

Zara shook her head subconsciously. Then, she spoke asked: "Why?"

Deana very serious, said: "The reason they think I should save face for the Banks Familyy is nothing more than that I am a married woman. They feel that as a married woman, at all times, the interests of her husband's family must be the top priority. My husband has a lover outside, so she must not make a quarrel, on the contrary, she has to make a world. The peaceful appearance is shown to everyone, so that everyone knows that they always put the face of their husbands as their priority. In their eyes, this is how a woman should act. But, in my opinion, such a woman is too sad! Why should I wrong myself and cater to others? Why should I wrong myself and protect others? Is it because I am a woman?"

Speaking of this, Deana looked at Zara and said solemnly: "Zara , Mom never wants you to marry a husband who is so rich and powerful. Mom only hopes that you can maintain your dignity under any circumstances. Don't be a so-called woman who thinks about the overall situation, otherwise, you will not be happy in this life!"

Zara was struck by lightning at this moment. She looked at her mother's resolute eyes, and suddenly a stormy sea turned up in her heart. She couldn't help but wondered: "Why would I say that to my mother? Will I ask myself the same when something like this happens to me in the future? Zara, Zara, why are you so stupid? "

As she thought this, she could not help but clench her fists, she said: "Mom, since you must go, then I will accompany you."

Chapter 2399

Zara thought about the face of the Banks Familyy. However, Zara, who in this second, suddenly realized: "Although I am from the Banks Familyy, I am also a woman. If today I encounter this kind of problem with my mother, I cannot be firm. Standing by her side, if I marry someone and encounter the same thing in the future, no one will stand by my side! This matter, from the root cause, is not a problem of the face of the Banks Familyy. It's a matter of principle! This question of principle is really about who is right and wrong. Right is right and wrong is wrong. You can't ask the woman to accept it just because she is a women! I should not feel wronged for the man's face! So, today, I must accompany my mother to participate in this auction!"

Fitz felt helpless when he saw this. As the eldest son of the Banks Familyy, he can actually distinguish the pros and cons. From the perspective of the Banks Familyy, he felt that his mother should not participate in such an auction at this time, because the overall situation of the Banks Familyy was the most important.

But after hearing so much from his mother and sister, he suddenly realized that he could not just stand from the perspective of the Banks Familyy and ignore his mother.

So, he sighed and said: "Mom, I'll accompany you too."

Deana smiled comfortably and said seriously: "You don't have to come with me, just let Zara accompany me. "

Fitz quickly asked: "Mom, why can I not accompany you?"

Deana very serious, he said: "You are the eldest grandson of Lord Banks at this time. Do not show yourself as unassuming."

Fitz retorted: "But Zara, she..." Deana waved her hand: "You are different from Zara."

To Fitz it was very clear. He is the eldest son and grandson, and in the future, he will try his best to inherit the Banks Familyy. If he really made a big mistake in the eyes of Grandpa, then he would have completely lost the opportunity to inherit the Banks Familyy. And he himself was far less open-minded than Zara.

Zara can be indifferent to the Banks Familyy's assets, power, and inheritance rights, but Fitz can't do this yet.

At this time, the old butler also offered comforting words: "Little young master, just listen to the second lady's advice, don't follow along."

Fitz hesitated and nodded helplessly, and said: "Mom, then I won't accompany you over."

After speaking, Fitz lowered his head in shame. He knew that although his mother took the initiative not to let him go, he was still persuaded after all.

Deana seemed to have seen what he was thinking, and said: "Fitz, let the driver take you to the airport, I can arrange the plane to take off at ten o'clock on time to take you back to Eastcliff."

"Ah?!" Fitz exclaimed: "Mom, I don't want to return to Eastcliff."

Deana said seriously: "You don't want to return, but you have to return. At ten o'clock, I will participate in the auction. You set off to return to Eastcliff. This is the one you gave to the Banks Familyy. Express your position."

Fitz immediately became anxious and blurted out: "What is your position?! Do I want to express my position to make them think that I deliberately parted ways with you?"

"Yes." Deana nodded and said unabashedly "That's what mom means. What mom wants to do is mom's own business. It has nothing to do with you. You don't need to stand by my side, and you don't need to be implicated because of me. You are going back now, just to show the outside world. Give your grandfather a statement to minimize the influence of your mother on you, and this will not cause any substantial damage to the relationship between our mother and son. Why not do it?"

Fitz blurted out: "But I don't want to express this attitude!"

Deana sighed helplessly and smiled: "You should be a little more mature too."

With that, she looked at the old housekeeper and said, "Uncle White, you can send him to the airport."

The Old housekeeper Nodded without hesitation: "Good second lady."

Fitz said hurriedly: "Mom, I still have business to do in Aurouss Hilll."

Chapter 2400

Deana smiled slightly: "It doesn't matter, even if you go back on the plane at ten o'clock, you can fly back in the afternoon. The most important thing is to let others see your attitude."

After that, Deana asked again . "Do you know what is at stake? You have already said it very clearly. You are a smart boy."

Fitz pursed his mouth, nodded helplessly: "Good mom, Let's just clean up and go to the airport with Grandpa White."

Twenty minutes later, two black cars drove out of the Thorne's old house. One of them went to Treasure Pavilion in the city, and the other went out of the city to Aurouss Hilll International Airport.

In the first car, Deana and Zara, mother and daughter sat. The appearance of the mother and daughter are very similar, and they can be regarded as beautiful women. At that time, Deana was known as the first beauty of Eastcliff, and it can be said that she was the object of countless high-ranking officials and nobles. It's a pity that even though Deana has the appearance of being overwhelming, she still lost to Charlie Wade's mother.

Zara is very young, so although it doesn't look as mature as Deana, the eyebrows are a bit more heroic than Deana. On the way to the auction, the mother and daughter sat side by side, Deana looked out the window, her thoughts flying. She unconsciously thought of Bruce, and she unconsciously thought of Bruce's old house, and then unconsciously thought of the young man she saw in the old house that day.

"He must be Bruce's son otherwise it is impossible to look like Bruce, but I haven't found any news about him in the past two days. I wonder if he will come to the auction today?"

At the same time, Inside the Treasure Pavilion. Charlie Wade, wearing a disposable mask, walked into the auction venue with Charles' enthusiastic company. Although the auction was about to begin in half an hour, Charles insisted that everyone who participated in the auction was blocked outside the Treasure Pavilion. In his words, the reason why he did this was mainly because he was worried that Charlie Wade's identity would be seen.

So, wait until Charlie Wade enters the box before letting others in.

Since there are many boxes in Treasure Pavilion, Charlie Wade asked him: "Charles, is there anyone else who has reserved the box today?"

" Yes ." Charles hurriedly said, "There is a king who wants to book a box, but I was afraid that other people in the boxes on both sides would affect your interest, so I did not agree. What I said to the outside was that the importance of this auction is not high enough, so the boxes are not open for appointment. Except you, others Everyone is sitting in the outside lobby."

Charlie Wade nodded gently, and said, "Thanks for your hard work. I think the time is almost up. You should let other people participating in the auction come in."

"Good Master Wade. !" Charles bowed to Charlie Wade and hurriedly turned out of the box.

After a while, the bidders who participated in this judicial auction began to enter the venue one after another. Charlie Wade was sitting in the one-way glass box, so he didn't worry that other people would see him.

He carefully observed everyone who came in and found that most of them were dressed very ordinary. It seems that the objects of this judicial auction are mostly ordinary working-class people.

At this moment, he suddenly saw two familiar women walking in side by side. The two women seemed to be about the same age, the older one was full of charm, and the younger one was equally beautiful. If you don't know, you must think that these two women are sisters.

But Charlie Wade recognized the two at a glance. He recognized the younger woman as Zara who he had accidentally rescued in Japan. As for the older woman, it was the woman I saw in my parents' old home, Deana!

Charlie Wade looked at the two beautiful figures and couldn't help sighing in a low voice: "Unexpectedly, this Deana really came to participate in the auction."

Chapter 2401

At the same time, Eastcliff Banks Family.

James reported to Lord Banks: "Dad! Sister-in-law took Zara and went to the auction site!"

"What?!" The expression of the Lord Banks suddenly became chilly! He gritted his teeth and said: " Deana is really too much!"

James asked quickly: "Dad, what shall we do now?"

Lord Banks gritted his teeth and said sharply, "Since Deana completely ignores Banks' face, don't Blame me for not giving her room!" After that, he scolded angrily: "The European princess did not change after repeated teachings! Not only did he find a pagan boyfriend, she was even said to be pregnant with the pagan child. Where do you put the face of the royal family?! If she doesn't push the royal family to the extreme, the royal family wouldn't attack her! After all, it was all done by herself!" James lowered his voice and asked cautiously: "Dad, Don't you really want to attack my sister-in-law?! Although the Thorne Family is going downhill now, the overall situation is still in a high position. If we act rashly, we will definitely offend the Thorne Family."

As he said this, James whispered: " Moreover, the whole Eastcliff City is watching. If we do it at this time, everyone will know that it must be us."

Lord Banks snorted and said, "I'm not afraid that they know it. On the contrary, I'm afraid they don't know! Deana, this woman must be an object lesson ! If we don't do anything, the outside world will think that our Banks Family can let others wantonly insult us and we won't react!" Then, Lord Banks waved his hand fiercely, and his eyes were full of vicious words: "As long as we do cleanly One point, don't leave any substantive clues, even if the whole world knows that we did it, but what can it do to us?"

James hurriedly asked: "Dad, who do we let?"

Lord Banks said: "I have arranged this in advance. I originally thought that as long as Deana doesn't participate in this auction, I won't be familiar with her. But since she doesn't know how to promote, don't blame me.

Be merciful !" James asked again: "Dad, what about Zara ?"

Lord Banks said indifferently: "I have explained that they will not do anything to Zara."

After that, Lord Banks asked again: "Was Fitz mentioned there?" James shook his head: "Fitz is already at Aurouss Hilll Airport. He will fly back here at ten o'clock."

Lord Banks Hearing this, felt somewhat relieved and said: "It seems that he is the smart one and has not let down the name I gave him. It is the most important thing for people to know right and wrong!"

James hurriedly said: "Dad, if you If you really want to teach your sister-in-law, you must find a way to soothe the emotions of Fitz , otherwise, I am afraid that this child will act rashly. " James always means something. His greatest wish now is to do everything possible to make the old man full of anger towards his eldest brother's family.

He thought to himself: "Because, Father's body is now still in good health, so that in the future he is likely to to an inter-generational transfer position. Is also In other words, the old man is very likely to pass on the generation of my eldest brother and me after another 10 years and 8 years, and pass on the position of the patriarch of the family to our next generation!"

"In case he passed on to Fitz, What's the point even if I bring down my eldest brother now? After the old man gives way, Fitz will crush me!"
"So, the old man must also lose confidence in Fitz!"

It is because of this that James deliberately used this method of murder and condemnation to deliberately remind him that he should pay attention to calming Fitz's emotions.

What he said was awe-inspiring, as if he really cared about his big nephew. In fact, he deliberately wanted to wake up the old man and wanted him to know that if he really killed Fitz's biological mother, Fitz would definitely hate him! This kind of mother-killing hatred, no matter what method is used, it is impossible to appease. James felt that as long as the old man recognized this, he would never give Fitz any chance again, because that would be troubling for a tiger!

Chapter 2402

Lord Banks's expression becomes very ugly. James's words really made him realize more clearly that if he decides to attack Deana, then the eldest son Zayne and his family will definitely turn against him! However, he also knew very well in his heart that if he didn't attack Deana, the Banks Family's face would be lost!

In any case, he couldn't just watch Deana so presumptuous. Once the Banks Family's face can be trampled on by such a woman, how can the Banks Family maintain its status and dignity?

Thinking of this, he said coldly: "When this matter is over, let Fitz go to Australia to meet your eldest brother, and don't come back again!"
When James heard this, he was extremely excited!

"Dad asked Fitz to go to Australia to meet his eldest brother, and that would be equivalent to being sent into exile. The father and son will no longer have the opportunity to compete for the heir of the Banks Family. They can only spend their lives in Australia and die! In this way, I am the best candidate for the position in my father's eyes!"

At the same time. It was close to ten o'clock in the morning. At the auction venue, dozens of people sat sparsely. These are all bidders participating in today's judicial auction. Most of their fancy is some second-hand real estate and cars. Because almost all of the products sold by the company are involved in certain lawsuits and the relationship is intricate, most ordinary people are not very interested in such transactions.

There have been many cases in the past. For example, a judicial auction house was photographed, but the original owner refused to move out. In the end, the buyer was overwhelmed.

Because of this, the price of a foreclosed house is generally lower than the market price. If you are not afraid of trouble, you can save some money. Since everyone is here to pick up and miss, it is difficult for judicial auctions to have the passion of outside auctions.

At outside auctions, sometimes two or more parties compete for a commodity, hundreds of thousands of items, and finally because of mutual bidding and vindictiveness, the last few million transactions are also everywhere.

Participating in the judicial auction, everyone wants to save money and pick up the leaks. Everyone hopes to get a 20% discount for a house with a market price of one million. If it doesn't help, it will get a 10% discount. Once the 10% discount is exceeded, the attractiveness will drop sharply. Therefore, such auctions are generally not interesting.

At ten o'clock, the auctioneer entered the hall.

Since everything is simple and fast, there is no extra cuts. As soon as the auctioneer came on stage, he went straight to the topic and said: "Thank you all for participating in this judicial auction. The first item we are going to auction today is Aurouss Hilll Bo An Audi a6 under the company's name. The car has been licensed for three years and has a mileage of 113,000 kilometers. It has a starting price of 150,000 and a minimum bid of 1,000. Let's start now. "

A used car like this, in the same condition. For second-hand cars, the transaction price in the normal market is generally around 210,000. Because the ceiling is 210,000, everyone bids very sensibly.

After several bids, the price was mentioned as 180,000 all the way, many bidders gave up, only two people still insisted.

However, as the price was approaching the ceiling, the remaining two were also very cautious in bidding. A few minutes later, one of them raised the price to 195,000, but the other did not follow suit.

The auctioneer immediately announced that the first lot had been sold for 195,000.

In the box, Cameron Isaac looked through the auction materials at random and said to Charlie Wade: "Master, there are eleven cars participating in the auction today. After the cars are sold, the auction will begin. Your parents' former residence is listed in the real estate. The first one has a starting price of 880,000."

"I have already greeted the driver, no matter what the price is called, he will follow to the end, and he will definitely help you take this house!"

Chapter 2403

Charlie Wade nodded gently. He is also determined to win the former residence of his parents. After all, this former residence carries the last time of being together with his parents, which is of great significance. As several foreclosure cars were gradually taken away, the auction entered the real estate auction.

This time, there are 13 sets of properties participating in the judicial auction, but among the 13 properties, the cheapest starting price is the one that Charlie Wade's parents once lived in. The main reason is that the old house has been classified as a protective building by Aurouss Hilll. Not only is it forbidden to demolish, but also to turn over.

More importantly, whoever buys this old house has a certain obligation to protect this old house. The house is very old and cannot be demolished to obtain greater economic value. Even if you want to rebuild it, you are not allowed to rebuild it. So basically no one is interested in such a house. No matter who buys this house, there is no chance of realizing it again.

However, Charlie Wade and Deana are both waiting for the shooting of this house.

Because this house has the lowest starting price, as soon as it enters the real estate auction, the auctioneer directly puts the photos of the house on the big screen and says: "The first house we are going to auction today is A protected old mansion located at the mouth of the old street. The specific information about this old mansion can be found in the auction manual, so we won't introduce more here, and we will start the auction directly. It's 880,000, and we will start bidding now!"

As soon as the auctioneer's voice fell, Deana directly raised the sign and said, "One million."

"Good!" The auctioneer said immediately, "Bidder No. 34 A bid of one million, is there anything higher than one million?"

A plain middle-aged man sitting in the corner immediately raised the sign and said, "One and a half million!"

This middle-aged man is Cameron Isaac's driver.

"One and a half million?!" The auctioneer was stunned.

The starting price was 880,000. After only two rounds, it was 1.5 million, almost doubled! You know, there is almost no room for appreciation in this property! If you spend 1.5 million to buy such a house, the only possibility is to smash it in your own hands.

Because of his surprise, before he came back to his senses, Deana raised the sign again and said seriously: "I'll pay two million." The auctioneer was even more surprised.

He immediately looked at Deana and reminded: "Bidder No. 34, I have to remind you that the property is forbidden to be demolished and developed, and re-opening is prohibited. It must be kept in its original shape according to the requirements of the city, and at the same time, it must be Are you sure you know about these particularities?"

Deanai nodded, "I know."

Although confused, the auctioneer nodded and said, "Bidder No. 34 bid 2 million. Is there anything higher than 2 million?" The middle-aged man in the corner immediately said, "I'll pay 3 million!" The "three million" auctioneer wiped his sweat and continued to ask: "Now the 22nd bidder bids 3 million, is there any higher than him?"

"Four million!" Deana raised her hand almost without thinking.

As soon as the auctioneer heard this, he hurriedly said: " Bid No. 34, No. 34" , Cameron Isaac's driver said loudly: "I'll pay 5 million!"

Deana didn't even give the auctioneer any time to think. She said: "I pay eight million."

Eight million? ! The scene suddenly exclaimed! This old house is worthless in the eyes of other people participating in the auction. An old and dilapidated old house not only has no commercial value, but it is also very uncomfortable to live in.

An old house like this is either leaking or leaking. It must be very cold in winter and very hot in summer. If you live in such a house, you might as well just rent a low-rent house provided by the city. So everyone feels that, judging from the starting price of 880,000, this house is likely to be unsold.

However, who would have thought that such a house of almost no value would have been scrambled to raise the price to 8 million in a short period of time.

Chapter 2404

Although Cameron Isaac's driver has no money, Cameron Isaac has already told him that he will take down this house at all costs, let alone just 8 million, even 80 million. Therefore, he was not to be outdone at all, and immediately raised his hand and said: "8 million eight hundred thousand!"

Eight hundred and eight hundred thousand yuan, compared with the starting price of eight hundred and eighty thousand, a full 10 times. However, the competition between the two is just beginning.

Deana didn't seem to want to continue to raise the price a little bit like this. She directly raised her hand and said: "Ten million." The whole auction scene was in an uproar again.

Inside the box, Cameron Isaac said in Charlie Wade's ear: "Master, the second lady of the Thorne Family seems to be determined to win."

Charlie Wade nodded, and sighed helplessly: "I don't understand this aunt's thoughts too much, she After all, doesn't have any substantial relationship basis with my father. Why should she seize this old house?"

Cameron Isaac said with emotion: "To be honest, although I am not a few years older than you, but this Deana's feelings for your father, I also I have heard about it, and it is indeed a sentimental one."

Charlie Wade hummed. At the auction outside, Cameron Isaac's driver had already raised the price to 12 million. At this time, Deana followed closely and raised the price to 15 million.

Charlie Wade couldn't help but frowned, and said to Cameron Isaac next to him: "Send a WeChat with your driver and ask him to bid 30 million directly!"

"Good!" Cameron Isaac nodded, immediately took out his phone and sent a WeChat.

Immediately afterwards, the middle-aged man outside the auction scene raised his hand again, and directly doubled Deana's 15 million to 30 million. The scene was full of hissing inhales.

A house worth less than one million was actually carried to a high price of thirty million, which is simply unheard of in the history of judicial auctions.

Deana was also shocked at this time. She turned her head and looked at the man in the corner who had been raising the price with her, feeling very surprised.

"I really don't understand why this strange man has such a strong desire to buy the house I am following. In fact, before coming today, I had imagined that I would meet competitors at the auction. However, the competitor I expected should be the young man I met in Bruce's former residence that day. Because that young man and Bruce look almost exactly the same, if I guess right, he should be Bruce's son. In the past few days, I have been thinking of ways to find his whereabouts, but I have never found any clues. And now, the young man has not appeared at the auction, but besides him, who else will be? So obsessed with this old house? Who is this middle-aged man who bid 30 million? Or, who sent him?"

Just as Deana's thoughts were flying, the auctioneer said: "30 million Once, 30 million twice, is there anything more expensive than 30 million? If not, then 30 million is the third."

After he finished speaking, Deana came back to her senses and hurriedly said: "Fifty million! I'll bid fifty million!"

The auctioneer himself couldn't believe it, and tremblingly shouted: "50 million for the first time"

Cameron Isaac's driver was even a little nervous. Although it was not his money that was spent, he also felt that the money was spent too much.

So he hurriedly sent Cameron Isaac a WeChat: "Boss, are you still bidding?"

Cameron Isaac immediately replied: "Add another five million!"

So the driver raised his hand again and said: "fifty-five million!"

Charlie Wade looked at Deana beside Zara through the one-way glass, sighed, and said to Cameron Isaac: "Isaac, if the second lady of the Thorne Family raises the fare, let your driver abandon the shooting."

Cameron Isaac asked dumbfounded: "Master, are you going to give up?!"

After speaking, he hurriedly again. Add another sentence: "Master! Don't say fifty-five million, even if it is five hundred and fifty million, it is still a drop in the bucket for us!"

Charlie Wade shook his head lightly, and sighed: "Hey, forget it, it's not money. Please fulfill this aunt's desire!"

Chapter 2405

Cameron Isaac didn't expect that Charlie Wade waited for a long time, and the old mansion that was determined to win unexpectedly gave up and gave up.

He himself couldn't help being anxious for Charlie Wade, and blurted out: "Master, you have been thinking about buying this house for so long. Now it's just a reach away. Don't give up! Otherwise, you might regret it in the future."

Charlie Wade sighs loudly: "Now it seems, this Deana wants it more than I need it." said Charlie Wade said softly: "This is the old house where my parents and I lived together, but I didn't have the courage to stand up personally and sit in the auction hall to participate in the auction. On the other hand, this Deana can sit openly. She bids outside. From this point alone, she is much better than me, and more qualified to get this house than me."

Charlie Wade admired Deana in his heart.

Now, the vast majority of people don't know that they are the young master of the Wade family, and they don't know that they are the blood of Bruce left in this world. Therefore, out of caution, they did not participate in this auction publicly. They even signed up Cameron Isaac's driver.

From this point alone, he admired Deana's courage. As the so-called gentleman is the beauty of an adult, Charlie Wade decided to give up the competition and give up this house to Deana. Although he did not know Deana, he also knew that Deana had loved his father for many years, but he could not get any substantive results. Perhaps this house can give her a visible and tangible ideological comfort in the past thirty years of loving his father.

This can be regarded as the father who has died in his own generation, thanking her for the friendship over the years. At this time, the outside bidding continues.

Cameron Isaac's driver has not received any instructions to give up. After Deana bid 60 million, he raised his hand again and bid 61 million.

Charlie Wade recalled the old house in his mind, sighed deeply, stood up and said to Cameron Isaac: "Tell your driver, stop bidding."

After speaking, he put on a mask, turned and left the box. At the same time,

Deana raised the placard again without hesitation, and said: "Sixty-two million!" Cameron Isaac hurried after seeing this, and hurriedly followed up, sending a voice message to the driver: "Abandon the bidding. , Don't bid anymore!"

His driver just raised his hand, and suddenly received the message and hurriedly clicked to play. The speaker heard what Cameron Isaac had just said, so he immediately put his raised hand back.

The auctioneer was already a little bit incoherent with excitement. Seeing that he raised his hand and put it down, he hurriedly asked: "Bidder No. 22, are you bidding or not?"

The driver said, "I give up."

Hearing these three words Suddenly, Deana felt a burst of joy, and a big rock finally fell to the ground.

Following, the auctioneer said loudly: "62 million once! 62 million twice! 62 million three times! Deal!" Then, the auction mallet Knocked on the countertop. With this bang, Deana burst into tears of joy.

In the past few days, she has been awake at night and has no thoughts about food and tea for this house. Now, finally the dust settled. Although the price far exceeds its original value as a house, for Deana, the house is priceless. She fell in love with Bruce from the ignorant years of her youth, until Bruce got married and when Bruce died, her love for Bruce never faded.

Chapter 2406

Thirty years have passed, Bruce left her with nothing but indelible memories and some old photos. Not to mention leaving me a token of sorrow to myself, even if I want to go to Bruce's grave to mourn, it is hard to climb to the sky. Now, I finally bought the old house where he used to live, and the emotions in my heart for more than 30 years finally have a place to be put.

Zara saw her mother burst into tears, and her heart was mixed. While she felt sorry for her mother's infatuation for so many years, she sympathized with the inhumane way her father had lied these many years. However, when I changed my mind, I thought that my father had already had a physical derailment, and there was an illegitimate daughter who was only one year younger than her, and I felt that my father was not worthy of sympathy.

Then, she thought of her benefactor. Seeing her mother's life of infatuation, she couldn't help asking herself in her heart: "Zara, Zara, if you can't find your benefactor, will you fall into the same life as your mother and never get out of it? You are not as lucky as your mother. At least, she still knows Bruce, and she grew up with Bruce, and has many common experiences and pasts. You don't even know what your benefactor is called."

At this moment, At the back door of Treasure Pavilion, Charlie Wade wearing a mask quickly walked out of the passage. After going out, he looked up at the cloudy sky, his eyes were already filled with tears. Ever since his parents passed away when they were eight years old, Charlie Wade has been the same as Deana over the years, and he has nowhere to put his feelings towards his parents. He is even worse than Deana, because Deana still has some old photos at least, but Charlie Wade couldn't even save a photo of his parents.

After the parents' accident, they were airlifted to Eastcliff within a very short time, together with their parents' bodies and all the belongings in the old house. Charlie Wade was equivalent to entering the orphanage with just the clothes on his back.

From that moment on, he almost lost All the items that can be pinned to grief. Until some time ago, in the years before Orrin took himself to Wade Mountain to worship his parents, he didn't even know where his parents were buried. Therefore, this house bears all his thoughts for his parents. Just a minute ago, Charlie Wade was also determined to win this house. He even felt that even if it cost tens of millions or even hundreds of millions, he must buy this house. However, at that moment, he suddenly decided to complete Deana. Now, he did not regret his decision, he just felt a little bit desolate and sad for losing this house.

Cameron Isaac chased him out, seeing Charlie Wade's eyes filled with tears, he was shocked. To know Charlie Wade for so long, this was the first time he saw Charlie Wade with tears in his eyes. He couldn't help wondering in his heart: "Is this still the Master Wade whom countless people admire? Is this still the Master Wade who walked out of the avalanche against the rising sun under the Golim Mountain where a sky thunder buried the eight heavenly kings of Webb family? He is like a child who can't find a way home, painful and helpless."

At this moment, Cameron Isaac felt a little bit more admiration for his young master at the same time. Charlie Wade is no longer as simple as reluctantly giving up love, he left all his regrets to himself, and left the psychological redemption and rebirth to Deana. Thinking of this, he couldn't help sighing, stepped forward, and asked in a low voice: "Master, are you okay?"

"I'm okay." Charlie Wade waved his hand, abruptly suffocating his tears, and said: "Isaac, you can drive me to the old house to have a look. While Deana has to stay and go through some formalities, I want to go over and take a look. After her handover, it won't be so easy. "

Cameron Isaac said hurriedly: "Good master, wait a moment, I'll go drive."

Chapter 2407

Cameron Isaac drove the car over quickly, Charlie Wade was about to get in the car, Charles, the owner of Treasure Pavilion, hurried out and asked nervously, "Master Wade, why did you leave so early?"

Charlie Wade calmly said: "Suddenly something needs to be dealt with, so I won't stay longer."

Charles hurriedly asked: "Master Wade, are you not satisfied with the service of Treasure Pavilion?"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "No, and It's okay for you Treasure Pavilion."

Charles was relieved and asked quickly: "For Master Wade, are you interested in the items that are auctioned today? If so, please tell me, I I'll definitely help you win it!" Charlie Wade shook his head and smiled: "There is nothing I am interested in at the auction. I am here today to join in the fun. You don't need to care too much."

Then, he pointed to the Rolls Royce in front of him. Charlie Wade said, "I have something to do, so I will leave first. Let's get together again when I have time."

Charles hurriedly nodded and bowed and said, "Master Wade, please go slowly. Next time if the auction is held in the Treasure Pavilion, I will definitely Contact you in advance!"

Charlie Wade nodded, said goodbye to Charles, and got in the car. Afterwards, Cameron Isaac carried Charlie Wade to the old house where Charlie Wade lived with his parents.

Charles saw Charlie Wade's Rolls Royce leave the Treasure Pavilion before turning around and returning to the auction venue.

At this time, Deana, who finally won the former residence of Charlie Wade's parents at a sky-high price of 62 million, has come to the back office of the auction and began to go through the house purchase procedures with the staff.

The staff of the judicial department looked at Deana in shock at this time, and said: "Madam, are you sure you want to buy this property at a high price of 62 million? If you want to breach the contract now, we will only hold Your bid deposit of 10,000 will be deducted and you will be added to the blacklist for only one year. Would you like to consider it again?"

This is a judicial auction after all, and all the funds from the auction will be used for the defendant to repay the amount involved in the case. Therefore, no matter how much is sold or less is sold, there is no actual interest involved in the judicial department, so they hope that the goods sold by judicial auction can really sell cost-effective.

They felt that the price Deana had set out was too ridiculous, and that this house was not worth so much money without reason. Once Deana paid the money, there would be no room for remorse. All the money from the house auction will be used for judicial compensation immediately, and there will never be room for regret.

But in case Deana regrets paying the money, if she wants to make trouble, she will definitely come to the judicial department to make trouble. At that time, it will more or less affect their own reputation, and it will be a trouble for them.

Therefore, in order to put an end to trouble, they hope that Deana will not be taken advantage of. It would be best to repent on the spot. When the next judicial auction comes, the house will be taken out again and auctioned at a normal market price. This is also a great joy for everyone.

Moreover, they also felt that Deana must have bid the price with that person on the spot, so you kept increasing the price one by one. Otherwise, it is impossible for a normal person to get such an incredible price.

However, Deana was very confident at this time and said: "I don't need to think about it. Please handle the payment for me as soon as possible and the rest of the transfer process. The sooner the better, thank you."

Chapter 2408

The staff wiped their sweat and explained earnestly: "Madam, the house you want to buy now has a starting price of only 880,000, and the highest market price is about 1.3 million. Your current auction The price is 62 million, which is nearly fifty times more. You really don't need to think about it anymore."

Deana shook her head and said firmly: "I have already considered it clearly, and there is no need to think about it. Please help me as soon as possible. Let's go through it."

Several staff exchanged glances, and one of them said: "In this case, we will handle the subsequent payment process for you. Is your bank account balance enough?"

Deana nodded: "It is enough."

The staff took out the POS machine and said: "Madam, please confirm that your card issuing bank's single-day transaction limit is okay. Many users have a single-day transaction limit of 1 million by default. If your transaction limit is not enough, please contact the bank."

Zara on the side said impatiently: "Where do you have so many questions, just swipe your card? If our card is connected to the transaction If the limit is not enough, how could you be eagerly waiting for payment?"

The staff member said embarrassedly, "I'm sorry, miss, mainly because we have never done a single transaction of such a large amount, so I want to talk to you. I'm sorry to confirm it clearly."

After speaking, the staff entered the number on the POS machine, and after confirming that it was correct, handed it to Deana and said, "Madam, please swipe your card." Deana nodded and took out her bank card and gave it to the other party, then enter the password, and then, the POS machine displayed that the bank has confirmed that the transaction successful.

The staff really sighed. It seems that they are rich people who don't take money seriously, and spending dozens of times more is nothing to them. Subsequently, the staff took out five copies of the house purchase agreement and said to Deana: "Madam, please check the details of the contract. If there are no problems, each of the five house purchase agreements must be signed, and every page must be signed. It needs to be signed for confirmation."

Deana counted and nodded, flipped through and looked at the terms, and after confirming that the ownership of the property rights was clear and there were no problems, she immediately began to sign her name on the contract.

At the same time, Eastcliff Banks' family...
Chapter 2409

James is one who is cold hearted, calculated, and without morality. And Lord Banks, although he is also an unscrupulous person, he is scheming. Such people are generally full of benevolence and morality on the surface, but underneath is full of greed.

But the key is that what is underneath cannot be seen.

In the belly of Lord Banks, the bad water fermented for a lifetime. I don't know how many wicked things have been done, but the only one who really broke it was Xion. In most cases, Lord Banks is still very good at superficial skills.

At this time, Lord Banks had already regarded James as his future successor in-training, so he said with earnest words: "James, you have to know that the survival rules and know-how of upper class society, in general, you must be like a famous teacher.

Be famous!" "Be a famous teacher?" James hurriedly asked: "Dad, can you tell me more about it?"

Lord Banks explained, "The so-called famous teacher means that everything must have a decent reputation. If we don't have any status, we will go straight up and give the other party a mess, then this belongs to the young people who do not play cards according to the routine and do not speak martial arts, and can only do it for themselves."

"Look, the past and the present In a war between countries, even if the aggressor wants to invade a country, under normal circumstances, they will find a reason that can barely be justified."

"Like the July 7th Incident, the Japanese also lied that a soldier was missing, and then I took the opportunity to start the incident."

"There is still a reason between countries, let alone our families."

Speaking of this, Mr. Banks said with a cold expression: "Actually, I wanted Deana's life a long time ago! From the moment I knew Deana was going to Aurouss Hilll, I wished that Deana's plane crashed and died on the way to Aurouss Hilll. , Then you can do it once and for all, once and for all! But, I can only think about it in my heart, and can't do it directly!"

"Because Deana just went to Aurouss Hilll and didn't do anything to insult the Banks Familyy's reputation. If I take out her private jet because she is going to Aurouss Hilll, then once the incident occurs, the entire Banks Familyy will be destroyed!"

"So, if you want her life, you must make a substantial contribution to her. It was only after the things that damaged the reputation of the Banks Familyy that they became famous!"

"Now, during the marriage between Deana and your eldest brother, she went to Aurouss Hilll to bid for the old house where Bruce lived, and the price was still dozens of times higher than the market price. This has indeed affected the reputation of the Banks Familyy. At least there is a certain reason to kill her at this time."

James heard this and said with a face of education: "Dad, I understand what you mean. Yes! Hearing this from you today really made me start! I will definitely study and polish myself with you in the future!"

James has grown up so much, and today is the first time he heard his father talk about this strategy. In fact, the Lord Banks is very scheming, and there are countless strategies in his stomach. This is only a very simple point, not a sophisticated strategy. However, because James is the second child, he has no chance to learn such a strategy.

This kind of strategy, like the emperor's art of the ancient emperor, is often only passed on to the prince who wants to inherit the grand prince in the future. The reason why the emperor was unwilling to teach his country's methods and strategies to other princes was because he was afraid that other princes would threaten the prince's safety in the future.

Chapter 2410

This is like those martial arts sects. The head will always pass on the core martial arts to the successor of the next head, but not to other apprentices. The purpose isto ensure that the strength of the successor is higher. In this way, he will not be overthrown by his own people.

In the past, the Lord Banks devoted himself to teaching his eldest son Zayne every day. As for the other sons, he never taught real strategies. But now, the eldest son Zayne has been completely abandoned by him. After the eldest son was abolished, the most ideal heir in his heart became the second son James.

Therefore, he planned to train James from now on.

At this time, he felt: "I have at most ten or twenty years to live in the future, and James will grow up from now, ten or twenty years, and it has almost just been able to settle."

"In this way, he also It won't threaten my grasp of the power of the Banks Family for the next ten or twenty years."

"But if I change to abiding by the law and he become the heir, I may not be able to hold him down in five or eight years."

" Looking at it this way, it might not have been a bad thing when things happened to this situation."

At this moment, James hurriedly asked: "Dad, how are we going to kill Deana that bitch woman now?! Have you already sent one of our masters to Aurouss Hill?"

"No." Lord Banks shook his head and said, "How can you use your own people for this kind of thing? Isn't that trouble for yourself?"

James asked puzzledly, "Dad, you Didn't we want to be famous as a teacher ? Now that Deana has insulted his family style, don't we already have a reason to do it?"

Lord Banks was disappointed and rebuked: "James! Being famous is a necessary condition. But it is by no means the only condition! If you say that as long as you cover your face and run naked, you will not be recognized. Would you just wear a mask and no pants when you go out in the future?!"

James said with trepidation: "Dad, I didn't mean that."

Lord Banks snorted coldly and said sharply: "You can hear clearly, even if the teacher is famous, this kind of life-killing thing, we must try our best to get rid of everything Involved!"

He said, he added: "The teacher just mentioned is famous, but it is just to leave us a back. The most important thing for us is not to be found by the other party to find any evidence!"

"The best solution to this matter , Is to find a way to kill Deana, and although the whole world thinks it must be our Banks Family, no one can find any substantive evidence!"

"Like the famous European princess, anyone with a discerning eye knows that she is What's the use of how to die? No one can show direct evidence of her murder. In the end, it can only be said that she died in a car accident or an accident!"

"Ten thousand steps back, even if the outside world has mastered the royal murder According to her evidence, the royal family has at least one reason to excuse herself or to mitigate the crime."

"For example, she is pregnant with a heathen child and intends to marry a heathen, which is detrimental to the royal authority;"

"For example, she She had already given birth to a prince for the royal family, but once she married a pagan in her second marriage, she would give birth to a pagan baby, and this pagan baby was the half-brother of the royal prince, which made the prince Where do you put your face, where do you put the face of the entire royal family, and where do you put the face of the entire nation?"

"These are the famous reasons for the royal family, and they will also wash themselves clean after the incident.

James hurriedly asked: "Dad, then do you have a way to make Deana die?" Lord Banks sneered, and said: "What I pursue is not to let her die, but to make it impeccable!"

Chapter 2411

Hearing the words of Mr. Banks, James immediately asked with excitement: "Dad, what good way do you have to make Deana's death impeccable?"

Lord Banks sneered: "I asked someone to find someone in advance to find wanted A-level criminals who would commit a capital crime in exchange for 10 million to give his family and settle down and let him escape Aurouss Hilll."

James hurriedly asked: "Dad, do you want a wanted criminal to do it?"

Lord Banks said calmly "That would be why crime is done well, but the whole plan is not as simple as you think." After speaking, the old man continued "I have also let people leak this news to the local police in Aurouss Hilll. I believe that soon the police in Aurouss Hilll will search for this wanted criminal in the city. He has many homicides, and he will die if he is caught, so he will naturally run desperately under the police's pursuit. By then, he will run around Aurouss Hilll like a headless fly, and then it's a coincidence when he escapes to the auction site When he arrives at the auction site, the Aurouss Hilll police will definitely send a large number of people to surround the entire treasure pavilion. Then he is like a turtle in the urn. In panic, it is normal to hold several hostages. At that time, in order to survive, the wanted criminal will naturally take the hostages as a threat and drive away with the hostages. At that time, he will make sure to take Deana in the car!"

James hurriedly asked: "Then when will he kill Deana? In the car, or after escaping?"

There was a sharp flash in the eyes of Lord Banks, and he said coldly: "The plan I made for him is to kill Deana after he escapes, and then I will send him to the Philippines by boat, but If this person is alive, it will increase the risk of our exposure, so I have arranged for others to directly cause a car accident after he takes Deana into the car and remove him and Deana together!"

Having said this, the old man smiled sinisterly and said: "At that time, these two people will go to see their maker together. Our plan will never be revealed, even if the whole world suspects that we killed her. It doesn't matter, if they can't find the evidence, they can just say what they say!"

James said excitedly, "Dad! Your move is really wonderful! First secretly instruct an A-level wanted criminal to escape to Aurouss Hill and accidentally escape to the auction. The venue, the kidnapping of Deana, and then the wanted criminal who was rushed to escape with Deana, accidentally died in a car accident, and even Deana was killed. The causes and consequences are perfect. It looks like Deana had a little bad luck! I believe it should not be uncovered. People will suspect that our Banks Family is coming up! It's really perfect!"

Lord Banks nodded with a sneer, and said seriously: "I have been on the ups and downs in the sea of commerce for half my life, but everything I do will move forward. Consider a few steps, and consider a few more steps backwards, and strive to be foolproof before doing anything." At this point, he sighed and sighed, "Hey! The only mistake in my life was that of Xion! I originally had all plans with the Japanese Self-Defense Forces worked out. It can be said to be foolproof, but I still haven't figured out which link went wrong! Not only is Xion missing, but even my overall plan is discovered. It's really a heavy loss! What I'm most worried about right now is that not only did Xion not die, there is even a hidden behind-the-scenes man behind her. If that's the case, then this person is likely to become the future deadly enemy of the Banks Family!"

James heard this, nodded in agreement, but sneered in his heart: "Although I don't know what in Xion's link went wrong that time, and I don't know Xion. If in the end there is no driving force behind from behind, but if anything, I really want to thank him for something good! If he had destroyed the Father's plan, how would big brother be launched as the scapegoat? If the old man doesn't push the eldest brother out as a substitute for the dead, then how can I have the opportunity to replace the eldest brother as the heir?"

However, James didn't dare to show his inner joy. He asked with concern: "Dad, that wanted criminal, when will you start?"
Chapter 2412

Lord Banks looked at the time and said, "If the plan is not deviated, the A-level wanted criminal should arrive at the auction site in ten minutes."

James hurriedly asked: "Dad, ten minutes, Deana will not leave. Yes?!"

"No!" Lord Banks sneered: "Deana should still be making property changes now. This procedure is very cumbersome, and it will be impossible for a while. She wants that old house so much. And now she finally took the house smoothly, she will definitely cooperate with the change process very seriously."

James nodded slightly, and at the same time heaved a sigh of relief. However, he quickly remembered something, and asked: "Dad! Zara is with her too. Will there be any accidents then?"

James knew that the old man liked Zara very much, and he was really worried. It's not Zara's safety, but an emergency juncture, will he stop the whole plan because of Zara.

Lord Banks's expression was a little loose at this time, he sighed and said: "I have already let people know the wanted man. I have given him Deana and the photos of Fitz and Zara. I have told him clearly that he only needs to take one these three, it is enough to take the life of Deana. Now knowing Fitz is still acquainted, and he flew back to Eastcliff early in the morning, and there is just Zara left. That person has also seen Zara's photos in advance, and will not take her."

James hurriedly pretended to be relieved, and sighed: "That would be great. To be honest, I still like the child Zara. This child is really a young child from the Banks Familyy. The smartest and most thoughtful one!"

"Yes!" Lord Banks couldn't help sighing "But what a pity that she is with her mother."

James caught the look of regret in the old man's eyes and flashed in his heart malicious thoughts. From the bottom of his heart, he hoped that Deana and Zara would all die. In this way, even if the eldest brother Zayne didn't love Deana, he would definitely love Zara. If the old man killed Deana and killed Zara at the same time, then Zayne would definitely hate the old man. At that time, the eldest brother is more than just being exiled to Australia, he will definitely fight to the death with the old man. In order to protect himself, the old man will completely expel his eldest brother from the Banks Familyy, leaving him with nothing and no chance of turning over for a lifetime. In that case, one's future Patriarch will be able to sit more firmly.

So, he checked the time and said to Lord Banks: "Dad, I'll go to the bathroom first and come back soon."

Lord Banks nodded slightly and waved his hand: "Go!"

After he came out of the study, he hurriedly took out his cell phone and sent a text message to his henchman "The old man spent 10 million a few days ago and made people find a Grade A wanted criminal. You must immediately find out who is the wanted criminal is and then contact him as quickly as possible, telling him that I can give his family another 20 million, but the premise is to add a condition so that he will kill Zara at the same time as he kills Deana!"

Chapter 2413

At this moment, Aurouss Hilll. A man wearing a mask appeared at the subway station near Treasure Pavillon. There are a large number of surveillance probes at the entrance of the subway, some of which are security videos of the subway, some are surveillance of the city's Skynet, and several new high-end cameras equipped with face recognition functions. In recent years, with the rapid development of science and technology, face recognition has successfully emerged from science fiction films and entered the lives of ordinary people. Not only does the mobile phone support face recognition, more importantly, the police also has a complete set of face recognition systems connected to big data. The biggest use of this system is to quickly screen a large number of people.

For example, if there are hundreds of people coming to the front, if there is a wanted criminal mixed in, then relying on police officers to check one by one will not only be inefficient, but also be particularly prone to omissions. However, now with the face recognition system, when hundreds of people pass by quickly, the system can directly identify the identities of hundreds of people through face recognition. At the same time, the system will immediately verify the identities of hundreds of people. If there are fugitives or suspects, the police will get system reminders as soon as possible. The most typical example is that a well-known singer came to the mainland to hold a concert. At each concert, the police can always catch a few fugitives from the tens of thousands of audience at the concert.

Why is there such a high efficiency? Almost all rely on the powerful features of face recognition! Therefore, with the increasing development of social science and technology, the possibility of criminals trying to escape legal sanctions has become less and less.

At this moment, the man wearing a mask looked around, then reached into his pocket and took out a pack of cigarettes that were very dry and crumpled. He tore open the cigarette case and found that there was no cigarette inside, so he stepped to the mobile convenience store at the entrance of the subway station, and said to the boss in a low voice: "Boss, give me a package of cigarettes."

The boss hurried. Asked: "Soft and hard?"

The man opened his mouth: "Soft."

The boss took out a pack of soft Zhonghua from the glass case and handed it to him, while saying, "Sixty-five."

The man threw it to him directly. A one-hundred dollar bill said indifferently: "No need for change."

The boss was overjoyed and hurriedly smiled: "Oh, thank you!"

The man took the cigarette and turned around at the same time, he had already taken apart the plastic film outside the cigarette, then tore open the right side of the cigarette pack. Afterwards, he skillfully tapped his fingers on the left side of the cigarette case, and a cigarette came out of the torn opening on the right. He took out the cigarette and took off the mask he was wearing, revealing a somewhat fierce face with Chinese characters. He held the cigarette in his mouth, took a hard sip after lighting it, and then turned his head to look around.

Tate Landry glanced at the rows of surveillance cameras at the subway entrance, and he wiped a resolute smile on the corner of his mouth. He has been on the run for three years. In the past three years, he has lived a ghostly life, hiding in Tibet, and has long been exhausted. He wanted to find opportunities to sneak overseas, so that he could give a sigh of relief, but he simply didn't have such ability, nor did he have such an opportunity. So he can only hide everywhere with a hungry meal. The only thing that can bring him comfort is that he and his family have a very secret contact method, which even the police do not know.

It is precisely because of this contact information that his family members contacted him two days ago and told him that someone gave him ten million and asked him to kill one person. After the incident, he could use the relationship to send him abroad. Because his family had received this ten million, he was moved almost instantly.

Chapter 2414

Anyway, he is tired of the days of hiding everywhere. He can earn 10 million for his family and give himself a chance of complete liberation. He has no reason to refuse. So, he came to Aurouss Hilll yesterday, ready to play! According to the owner's request, he had to find a surveillance camera to expose himself, and then flee to a place called Treasure Pavilion. Now, what he is doing is to expose himself and let the Aurouss Hilll police know that he is here!

At this moment, the Aurouss Hilll Police Command Office. The police's face recognition system suddenly issued a harsh warning sound, and the police officer on duty was shocked when he saw it! On the computer screen, a system prompt has popped up, with a line written on it: "Identified by the face recognition system, a-level wanted criminal Tate Landry appeared in our city, please verify immediately!"

The police officer on duty quickly called the system to automatically intercept it. He took a closer look at the live video and was shocked. He quickly picked up the emergency phone on the desktop and blurted out: "A-level wanted criminal Tate Landry appeared at the A7 subway station in our city! Please arrest him immediately!"

The whole Aurouss Hilll police blew up at once! A-level wanted criminal appears in Aurouss Hilll. This is definitely the last thing the local police want to see, because once this wanted criminal makes a big case in the local area, not only the local people will suffer, but the local police will also have to bear huge social pressure! So, the police immediately mobilized the police force of the city and decided to arrest Tate Landry.

At this time, Tate Landry received a text message on his mobile phone: "Aurouss Hilll police have found you! A patrol car is rushing to catch you, pay attention to your right hand side, there is still 800 meters away from you!"

Tate Landry finished reading Text message, gritted his teeth, staring at the right side unblinking. Soon, a police car in the distance appeared in the field of vision and kept approaching. However, the policeman didn't turn on the lights or the siren, so it didn't look like he was performing an emergency mission. But Tate Landry knew in his heart that the people who spent money to hire him had a good eye. Since the other party said that the car was here to catch him, he would definitely not make a mistake.

He watched the car getting closer, and a heart raised his throat. He didn't run away in a hurry, because he knew that the person who hired him had a requirement, and he had to be chased into the treasure pavilion next to him by the police, instead of running over by himself. Therefore, he kept smoking while dangling a cigarette while calculating the distance and timing.

He is now standing on the sidewalk, the road is higher, and there are a lot of shared bicycles on the side of the road. Therefore, after the police car drove to the front from the motorway, it was impossible to drive the car directly in front of him, and could only pull over on the motorway and then walk over. The dozen meters of walking distance is his chance to escape. He knows that this is a downtown area, and the police will definitely not shoot directly, so with the advantage of more than ten meters and a faster starting speed, the police officer can't catch up with him, and he will definitely be able to run into the treasure pavilion. In that way, the opponent chased all the way, escaped all the way, and rushed directly into the treasure pavilion.

At this moment, the police car was almost in front of him. He glanced at the police car in surprise, and when the police car pulled over, he began to back up cautiously. At this time, the door of the police car opened, and several police officers pretended to be on a routine patrol, got out of the car slowly, preparing to paralyze Tate Landry, and then waited for the opportunity to approach. However, Tate Landry was very nervous. He took a puff of cigarette, threw his cigarette butt to the ground, turned around and ran back.

Several police officers originally wanted to approach quietly. Unexpectedly, Tate Landry was so nervous. One person immediately shouted: "Tate Landry, stop!"

Tate Landry didn't look back at all, and ran forward like crazy. Several police officers hurriedly pursued. Relying on his leading advantage, Tate Landry took the police around twice and rushed directly to the treasure pavilion not far away! While chasing desperately, the police officers at the head used the intercom to report: "Tate Landry knows we are here. He started to flee when he saw us. Now he has escaped into the Treasure Pavilion! Request the city bureau to immediately send police to block the Treasure Pavilion and fully implement arrests!"

Chapter 2415

In the eyes of the police officer, Tate Landry ran into the Treasure Pavilion randomly because he was chased and panicked. But in fact, Treasure Pavilion is Tate Landry's ultimate goal.

At this moment, Treasure Pavilion. In the hall, the auction continued, and Deana was still signing various documents. Tate Landry came to the door, and when he was about to walk in, the security guard at the door stopped him and said, "Sir, please show me the entry code for this auction. We will not enter until after verification."

Tate Landry looked back and glanced. and found his police hunt has been rushed to follow, and immediately pulled out a pistol, pointed to the security of the forehead, and coldly said: "! Cut the fucking nonsense, or I will shoot you."

At that time, the police officers coming from behind discovered that he had taken out a pistol. Tate Landry was not afraid, he pulled open the jacket of the padded jacket, revealing a vest filled with powerful explosives.

Afterwards, Tate Landry held a gun in one hand and a explosive trigger in the other, and said in a cold voice: "Listen to me. The explosives on my vest are used to blow mountains! If I press this button this whole building will explode. If you guys dare to come in, I will let everyone in it be buried with me!"

The police officers who were chasing him saw this and their expressions were extremely shocked! This Tate Landry was a gangster who was not afraid to kill. In his previous cases, he often used guns, but not explosives. Therefore, the police officers did not suspect him of carrying explosives on his body. Therefore, everyone suddenly became very fearful of him.

Everyone was not far apart, and they could all see the vest Tate Landry was wearing. The vest was bulging, covered with strips of things like long ham sausages, and they could see that it was a powerful explosive at a glance. This kind of explosive is so powerful that it can easily explode the stone and make a hole in a boulder. If it is really detonated here, the consequences will be disastrous!

So, one of the police officers immediately said loudly: "Tate Landry, don't be impulsive! If you have something to talk about we can talk!"

Tate Landry sneered, "Me? Impulsive? I am already on the most wanted list. With so many homicides, I have nothing to lose here. Either I die from this or from execution! So you'd better do everything I say, otherwise, I'll take everyone here to the grave with me!"

After finishing speaking, he immediately pointed the gun at the security guard's head and shouted coldly: "Let me in and lock the door!"

The security guard hurriedly followed Tate Landry's request, led Tate Landry into the door, and then locked the door tightly at Tate Landry's request.

Tate Landry grabbed the key from the security guard, and said coldly: "You, follow me in!"

The security guard didn't dare to disobey Tate Landry, and stepped into the auction with him

Tate Landry directly rushed into the auction hall with a gun. He shouted at the crowd participating in the auction: "Everyone, just fucking listen to me, every stay still and put your heads down, anyone who dares to run will die!"

The whole hall was suddenly In a panic, everyone screamed and prepared to escape.

At this time, Tate Landry pointed the gun up and fired three shots at the ceiling, and exclaimed: "You run, you die!"

As soon as the gunshot rang, everyone was frightened and most of them immediately dropped on the ground without hesitation, holding their head in both hands. But there were also one or two people, thinking that they could have a chance to escape, so they tried to escape from the side door. Tate Landry raised his gun and shot twice, and directly killed the man closest to the side door. Now, the scene was even more tense. After Tate Landry shot the man, he ran directly to the corridor next to the hall. According to the information given to him by the other party, the target he wanted to kill today was in the office next to the corridor.
Chapter 2416

At this time, Deana and Zara heard the gunshots and immediately realized that something had happened. Deana pulled Zara and blurted out: "Zara, let's go!"

Zara also knew that it was important. Without hesitation, she ran out with her mother. However, as soon as she ran out, she saw that many people outside the corridor were already trying to run out in a panic. At this moment, Tate Landry, armed with a gun, suddenly appeared at the entrance of the corridor. He raised the gun and pointed it directly at a man who was fleeing in a hurry. With a bang, he shot directly into the back of the man's head! With this shot, the man shot in the back of his head fell to the ground with a plop, and the panicked crowd around him suddenly let out a harsh scream.

Tate Landry shouted coldly: "Listen to me, everyone go to the hall to gather, no one better run! Otherwise, the end will be the same as this guy!"

They all were in panic. But now suddenly someone was shot and killed in front of them, which deeply stimulated their nerves. At this time, everyone will calculate an outcome in their mind. If you still insist on running away at this time, you will most likely be shot dead. But if you cooperate obediently at this time, there will be at least a hundred people in the entire scene, including auctioneers and staff, it is impossible for the other party to kill so many people at once. Therefore, if you cooperate obediently, your chances of survival should be much greater.

As a result, no one of this group dared to try to escape anymore, each of them held their heads in their hands, turned around honestly, and walked into the hall one by one. Because the entrance door of the hall had been locked and the key had been snatched by Tate Landry, it was impossible for this group of people to have a chance to escape.

At this time, Tate Landry saw that everyone had gone to the hall, and he shouted into the hallway sharply: "All the people in the office and bathroom, listen to me. Come to the hall obediently within one minute. I will check all the rooms in one minute. If I find someone hiding, they will die!"

After that, he added: "I'm not targeting you today. Anyone who came, I was just forced to desperate action by the police and fled here to hide. As long as you honestly cooperate with me, when I negotiate with the police, I will naturally let you go! But, If any of you dare to play with me, I will kill you. I am on the most wanted list with multiple bodies behind me. I'm not afraid to add more!"

Hearing him say that, many people in the offices on both sides of the corridor opened the doors and walked out honestly.

Charles, the owner of Treasure Pavilion, also gave up the idea of hiding in the office and walked out of the office with his head in his hands. At this time, the two staff members who filed for Deana exchanged glances and went out together.

Zara asked Deana in a low voice: "Mom, what are we going to do?"

Deana said without hesitation: "Let's go out too. At this time, it is natural to cooperate well to ensure personal safety to the greatest extent!"

Zara Nodded gently. Afterwards, the mother and daughter also held up their hands, and the two staff members walked out behind them.

Tate Landry kept holding the gun, paying attention to everyone walking out of the rooms on both sides. When he saw Deana and Zara, he was immediately relieved. He knew that the beautiful woman named Deana in front of him was his only hope for getting paid!

Chapter 2417

Most criminals who commit felony crimes will be listed by the police as the focus of arrest. Therefore, people like Tate Landry who can escape without being caught have learned how to hide and stay out of sight of the law and remain inconspicuous. Therefore, at the moment he saw Deana, although he was excited, he showed nothing on the surface.

He shook the gun in his hand, and said coldly, "Hurry up, don't fucking take your time!"

Deana and Zara didn't notice any abnormalities, and hurried to follow the others. Seeing that Deana was already under his control, Tate Landry didn't search for other rooms anymore, but after everyone had entered the hall, he walked directly behind everyone, and then closed the door tightly. At this time, there were a total of more than 100 men, women and children in the hall, all of whom looked at Tate Landry nervously, not knowing what he was going to do next.

Tate Landry stepped onto the auction stage at this time, picked up the microphone, and said arrogantly: "Everyone, it is a kind of fate that we can meet in this way in this place today, so I will introduce myself to you first."

Speaking of this, Tate Landry cleared his throat and said: "My name is Tate Landry, a northerner, and I am a Grade A wanted criminal listed by the police. I fled all the way to Aurouss Hilll. I was just trying to buy a pack of cigarettes at the subway entrance. I was found by the police. I had no choice but to hide here and take everyone hostage."

Then, Tate Landry turned around and said, "But, don't be afraid, I insist that I am not looking for money. I am not trying to hurt anyone, I just hope that everyone stays here honestly, as a bargaining chip for me to negotiate with the police. When the police agree to my terms, I will naturally continue my escape, and everyone can leave safely."

Tate Landry's words made most people a little relieved. These people felt that if they cooperate as hostages honestly, when Tate Landry got what he wanted, they could naturally go home safely. Deana and Zara also didn't notice anything abnormal. They were just like everyone else, but they felt somewhat unlucky. It's like coming out to withdraw money and encountering a bank robber. Although the probability is small, it is not impossible. Now that things have happened, the most important thing now is to ensure your own personal safety as much as possible.

Tate Landry continued to speak at this time: "I just said, just need everyone to cooperate with me, so you just need to hold your head with your hands and don't make any small moves. If anyone dares to make small moves, then you will meet the same end the other two did!"

Everyone knew that Tate Landry was cruel so naturally they didn't dare to do anything. Tate Landry was still worried that he would not be able to completely deter these people, so he once again exposed his vests full of explosives, and said coldly: "I think there are many young people in your 20s and 30s. I was once your age. Knowing that people at this age often have hot brains and are easily impulsive, so I remind everyone, don't try to be a hero, and don't think that a few people can join together to find opportunities to subdue me!"

"I admit that it is difficult to fight everyone at once, there's not enough bullets in the gun to kill everyone present, but the explosives tied to my body are enough to blow this place into a pile of rubble, and enough for all of you to be blown to bits. Even if you grabbed my gun and shot my head with another shot, as long as I shake my hand and press the switch, I can take you all out. Do you understand?"

When everyone heard this they were even more frightened and shocked! No one thought that Tate Landry not only had a gun, but also had enough explosives to level the building! All the people present are flesh and blood. If this killer really blows up, it is almost impossible for anyone to survive! Therefore, at this moment, everyone's deep thoughts of resistance were completely extinguished! Even in the security team, several retired young men who had enlisted in the army suddenly gave up the idea of looking for opportunities to turn the tide. For many young people who have enlisted in the army, it is not difficult to subdue a person. However, while subduing a person, it is almost impossible to ensure that his fingers do not touch a small switch.

After all, even if it's a headshot and the brain loses consciousness, the nervous system will twitch the whole body for a few minutes, which may trigger the switch if a person dies. Therefore, no one dared to risk themselves and the lives of so many people. Seeing everyone was defeated, Tate Landry was also relieved. He is a vicious person, but he is actually worried about accidents. After all, although he is a desperado, he is not really afraid of death. But he also wants to smuggle abroad and regain a new life, so he will take on such a task.

Seeing that he had completely controlled the scene of more than a hundred people with his own words, he knew that the matter had already succeeded more than half. The rest is to negotiate terms with the police, ask for a car, take Deana and escape. Just when he was about to go to the gate to discuss the conditions with the police outside, the cell phone in his pocket suddenly rang. He bought this mobile phone from the black market. The identity of the owner was stolen by people in the black market. It has nothing to do with him, so he is not afraid of being found by the police.

As for this mobile phone number, only a few of his immediate family members know it, and their contact information is also very secret. He never allows his relatives to use cellphones, landlines and public phones to contact him, and only allows them to use Internet phones that can make anonymous calls. In this way, no one can find clues. When the phone rang, he looked down and found that the caller ID was an overseas call, so he directly pressed the answer button. Although the call appeared to be from abroad, it was actually made by his relatives using an internet phone.

Tate Landry answered the phone and just said hello, he heard a woman on the phone asking in a low voice: "Husband?"

Tate Landry said, and asked in a low voice dissatisfied: "Why are you calling this time? Is there something important?!"

It was Tate Landry's wife who called. Tate Landry is 35 years old this year, has been married for eleven years, has three children, and his parents are alive. In this task, besides wanting to fight for himself, there is another very important reason, that is, he wants to leave for his family. After all, his parents were old and his wife had no academic qualifications. After he fled, his family had nothing, and the economic situation was getting worse and worse.

However, after taking this job, the other party agreed to give his family 10 million. This 10 million has already been paid. It is almost enough for the family to live a carefree life in a small place, so Tate Landry can now be considered as worry-free. Even if the mission fails this time and you are caught or killed, at least the family can live a stable life.

On the phone, Tate Landry's wife said a little excitedly: "Husband! The person who is looking for us to do business has put another 20 million in my account!"

"What?!" Tate Landry exclaimed and blurted out: " Really?!?"

"It's true! "Tate Landry's wife said excitedly: "They said that they would give the family 20 million, but they want to add a condition to you, as long as you agree, the money will be given to our family!"

Tate Landry also asked excitedly: "What conditions?" "

Tate Landry's wife said truthfully: "They said, you must kill the target's daughter as well!"

Chapter 2419

Tate Landry almost laughed out of excitement when he heard this.

He subconsciously asked: "It's that simple?!"

The wife on the other end of the phone said confidently: "Yes, it's that simple!"

"Great!" Tate Landry said excitedly: "This is very good! This is simple!"

After all, he had seen the photos of Deana, Fitz, and Zara a long time ago. Fitz is not here, but the pair of Deana and Zara are extremely eye-catching. Mother and daughter, he had already confirmed at a glance. Now, the mother and daughter are among more than one hundred hostages. As long as you ask the police to get to the car later, you can take them together as hostages!

I originally planned to kill one and earn 10 million, but now I kill two and earn 30 million! Tate Landry has never made such easy money in his life!

Therefore, he immediately opened his mouth and said: "You tell them I will do it!"

Tate Landry's wife was equally excited. After all, thirty million! Living in the fifth-tier cities in the north, a house is only a few hundred thousand, and a villa is only two million! Therefore, Thirty Million can almost let her lead her three children for a lifetime without any worries, and in the local area, she can live a life of a master! She has even begun to figure out that after Tate Landry finishes this matter and goes abroad smoothly, she will spend 1.5 million to buy a Porsche that she has loved for many years!

It was a luxury car that she could not even dream of. She once saw a beautiful woman driving in a shopping mall. At that time, that woman drove that Porsche, her temperament was indescribable and her pride was indescribable. It Made her envious for a long, long time. But now, she has 30 million in her account, and buying the same Porsche is almost a piece of cake!

So, her voice was a little trembling and exhorted: "My husband! People have given us so much money, you must help them get things done!"

Tate Landry immediately said, "Don't worry, I will do it. Take care of the Parents and children at home, please."

Tate Landry's wife said excitedly: "Don't worry, husband! I will take care of our parents and three children!"

"Good! "Tate Landry laughed and said, "I'll hang up first, and I'll contact you after I go abroad!"

"Okay! Husband, take care!"

After hanging up the phone, Tate Landry was excited.

Chapter 2420

He secretly thought: "Today is really a good day! Just take these two women with you later, go to the place designated by others, and get rid of these two women, you will be able to go abroad by boat! Then it's a small matter of disappearing!"

Thinking of this, he quietly took a look at Deana and Zara, and he couldn't help muttering in his heart: "These girls looks so beautiful! I've never seen such a beautiful woman in all my life! That Deana, mature and sexy, no worse than the beauty star in the 90s! That Zara is even younger and more beautiful, she's just the stunner among the stunners! It would be a shame to kill them like this!"

At this moment, the voice of the police officer speaking through a loudspeaker sounded outside: "Tate Landry, listen carefully, you are now surrounded. Yes! I advise you to give up resistance immediately, come out and surrender, and you can still fight for a leniency!"

Tate Landry sneered, walked directly to the window, opened a window, and cursed coldly: "What, do you want me to surrender? I tell you, even if I must die, I will not surrender! And I will not die alone! I will pull over a hundred people here to die with me!"

The police officer suddenly became nervous and said: " I advise you not to be impulsive! Don't let yourself fall into the abyss of unrest!"

Tate Landry coldly snorted: " Stop talking nonsense! Listen to me! Get me a Rolls Royce filled with gas immediately! As long as you prepare the car for me, I will naturally leave Aurouss Hill and will not hurt anyone in it! If you don't follow suit, I will let these people be buried with me!"

After that, Tate Landry took a look at the Time and added: "I am a person with limited patience. You only have 20 minutes to prepare. If you exceed this time, wait to clean up the ruins and corpses!"

Tate Landry is a smart man. The reason why he called for a Rolls-Royce is because there are very few Rolls-Royce cars. The police can never own a luxury car like Rolls-Royce, so they can only find one for themselves temporarily. It is inherently difficult to find a Rolls-Royce temporarily, so it is already very difficult for the police to find the car in a hurry. Naturally, it is impossible to have time to do anything with the car. Therefore, this is more secure for him.

Moreover, a Rolls-Royce car has high performance and strong stability. It is not easy to break down on the road when driving such a luxury car, and once it gets to speed, it is impossible for ordinary police cars to catch up. As soon as the police officer heard this, he immediately began urgent discussions.

One of them whispered: "Now that Tate Landry has a gun in his hand, and he also has a big bomb on his body, it is definitely impossible for us to attack him. Once he is pressed into a hurry, he is likely to detonate the bomb."

"Yes!" The other person also echoed in a low voice: "There is no strong attack, and there is no mediation strategy. In my opinion, we might as well just prepare a car for him as he said. Let him leave first, and then find a chance to arrest him along the way!"

A person in charge said solemnly: "Even if he is asked to leave first, he must not be tracked and arrested immediately, even if he is in the car. Detonating a big killer, as long as it is in a downtown area, the lethality and destructive power are immeasurable. Once a major incident occurs, none of us can bear this responsibility!"

"Yes! Let's prepare the car for him first and let him Leave the crowded place like the city center first! We won't want to be able to catch him now, but as long as we can send him away safely and prevent him from causing more serious consequences in Aurouss Hilll, it can be regarded as doing it for the people of Aurouss Hilll. It's a good thing!"

The person in charge nodded and said: "The most urgent task now is to get him to leave the treasure pavilion quickly, otherwise there are more than a hundred hostages in it, which is really too dangerous!"

After that, he immediately dropped. Ordered: "Coordinate quickly and prepare the vehicle! Send it to Treasure Pavilion as soon as possible!"

A police officer said embarrassingly: "Captain White, where are we going to get Rolls Royce? This kind of car costs several million. There are not many vehicles in the city, and there is no police system."

The person in charge called Captain White thought for a while, and said: "I have a good relationship with Cameron Isaac. I will borrow one from him! Anyway, first meet Tate Landry's needs so that he will not cause greater loss!"

A Rolls Royce is indeed not affordable for ordinary people. Counting all the Rolls Royce in Aurouss Hilll, it is estimated that there are only a few dozen or less. And most of them are old cars with many years of age. This kind of old-fashioned Rolls-Royce is actually not expensive, and most of them have already turned a lot of hands, and finally flowed into wedding companies to make wedding cars, specially used to fool some young people who love face. Therefore, there are very few Rolls-Royce that can really come up with seriousness.

The captain White had also thought about whether he would simply find a wedding company and temporarily requisition an old Rolls Royce. After all, if there is any damage to the car, this kind of old car is generally cheaper, and the pressure of compensation will not be too great.

However, he changed his mind and thought again: "Tate Landry is not only very aware and ruthless, but also impossible to confuse. The top priority now is to quickly get this man away from the treasure pavilion, preferably directly out of Aurouss Hilll City. The faster he walks, the better, so at this time, you must not make any extravagances. In case getting an old Rolls Royce irritates him, it will easily cause trouble!"

"Moreover, Cameron Isaac's own car is a Rolls-Royce, and the hotel is equipped with four Rolls-Royces of different models. Unlike others, most of them have only one Rolls-Royce, and they are very precious, so I asked him to borrow it. It is the greatest opportunity."

Thinking of this, he immediately took out his cell phone and called Cameron Isaac. At the same time, Cameron Isaac just parked the car at the door of the old house where Charlie Wade lived with his parents, and accompanied Charlie Wade into the house.

Charlie Wade looked at the depressed yard and sighed with dismay: "When my dad rented this small yard back then, the small yard was as dilapidated as it is now. Later, my parents worked together to clean up the yard little by little and turn it into a warm home"

Speaking of this, Charlie Wade couldn't help but sighed, and said: "That Deana, should be like my parents and tidy up here, right?"

Cameron Isaac said hurriedly, "Master, don't worry, the second lady of the Thorne Family is the well-known virtuous Lady, after she buys this old house, she will definitely restore it with great care. I believe that after a month or two, when you come back, it will be a big change."

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "Forget it, I was seen by Dean the last time I came here. I will not come to this place in the future unless she returns to Eastcliff."

Cameron Isaac said seriously: "Master, you don't actually need to hide from the second lady of the Thorne Family, she is a good person, and she has liked your father for so many years. If you recognize her, she will treat you as her own."

"That's more." Charlie Wade said. He waved his hand and said seriously: "I don't want to be treated as a son by an aunt who loves my father so much. That feeling is too awkward."

Then, Charlie Wade said again: "And, when I was in Japan, I saved her children, I don't want to have anything to do with them."

"Hey" Cameron Isaac sighed helplessly: "Master, you saved Fitz and Zara. The old man from the Banks Familyy kneeling in front of you for that!"

Charlie Wade sneered: "I don't need him to kneel to me. When the time is right, I will let him and all the men of the Banks Familyy go to my parents' grave. Kneel down and confess for the Anti-Wade Alliance back then!"

Cameron Isaac said firmly: "Master, I believe that with your strength, this goal will definitely be achieved in the near future!"

Charlie Wade nodded slightly, and looked again. Refocused on this dilapidated courtyard. At this moment, Cameron Isaac's cell phone rang suddenly. He took a few steps back in a hurry so as not to disturb Charlie Wade, and then respectfully said to Charlie Wade: "Master, I will answer the call first."

Charlie Wade gave a nod and didn't say more.

Cameron Isaac walked to the door, only then connected the phone and asked, "Captain, what can I do for you?"

Captain White hurriedly said, "Mr. Cameron, there is something to ask you for help. This time you may have to do it. I hope you don't refuse!"

Chapter 2422

Cameron Isaac laughed and said: "We have known each other for so long, what else is there to be polite with you? Let's be honest, what's the matter?"

Captain White explained: "Mr. Cameron, at Treasure Pavilion there was a major situation. A Grade A wanted criminal rushed in and took more than one hundred people as hostages, and this guy is strapped with enough explosives to level the building. Now the other party asked us to provide him with a Rolls Royce for his escape. We can only do it!" As he said, Captain White said: "There are not many people who have Rolls-Royce in Aurouss Hilll. You are the only one who owns multiple Rolls-Royces, so please help. Please help!"

Cameron Isaac exclaimed: "Treasure Pavilion? Are you sure it is Treasure Pavilion?"

"Yes!" Captain White hurriedly said: "I'm outside of Treasure Pavilion. Basically all the police that can be deployed in the city are here."

Cameron Isaac couldn't help saying: "I just came out of the treasure pavilion ten or twenty minutes ago."

Captain White said with emotion: "Then you are really lucky. If you come out a little later, you will probably be a hostage of Tate Landry."

After saying that, Captain White hurriedly asked: "Mr. Cameron, is it convenient for you to lend a Rolls-Royce to us? You can rest assured that if there is any problem with this car, our city bureau will bear the cost!"

Cameron Isaac said without hesitation: "Captain, you don't have to be so polite with me. As a law-abiding citizen, it is my responsibility and obligation to provide assistance to the police!" After that, he immediately said, "Give me just a little bit. I'll call you arrange for someone to send a Rolls-Royce right away."

"Good!" Captain White said excitedly: "Mr. Cameron, I thank you very much!"

As soon as he hung up the phone, Cameron Isaac was going to call his men so that they could prepare vehicles quickly. Charlie Wade walked up to him at this time and asked him: "Isaac, something happened to Treasure Pavilion?"

"Yes!" Cameron Isaac hurriedly introduced the matter to Charlie Wade.

When Charlie Wade heard this, he said immediately: "The situation is urgent and life is at stake , so don't call, just drive your car over!"

Cameron Isaac said immediately, "Master, I do not want to put you in a bad situation!"

Charlie Wade said, "It's okay, let's go!" After all, Charlie Wade has already taken the lead out of the yard.

Cameron Isaac didn't think much about it, and he was ready to help Charlie Wade open the car door. Charlie Wade opened the door first, pushed him a little, and said, "Time is urgent, go drive!"

"Good!" Cameron Isaac rushed into the cab. After starting the car, he hurried to the Treasure Pavilion. Charlie Wade looked out the window at this time, frowned slightly, and said, "Isaac, the police said that Tate Landry was discovered by accident and was chased into the Treasure Pavilion?"

"Yes, young master!" Cameron Isaac said: "I guess this guy should have fled to Aurouss Hilll. He wanted to make some money in Aurouss Hilll to continue his escape. He didn't expect to be discovered by people from the Aurouss Hilll City Bureau, so he fled into the Treasure Pavilion in a panic. "

Charlie Wade shook his head and said: "I always feel that things seem a little not quite right."

Cameron Isaac was surprised and asked: "Master, is something wrong?"

Charlie Wade did not answer his question, but asked him: "A Grade A wanted criminal who has been hiding in Tibet for a long time must be a person with a strong ability to hide and stay undercover and a strong ability to judge the environment. This kind of person has very strong escape experience, how can he choose to escape into the closed treasure pavilion? A single building without a plan? Running into the building, isn't it clear that he would be trapped?"

Chapter 2423

Hearing Charlie Wade's analysis, Cameron Isaac couldn't help but nodded and said: "This is really strange. Normally, only a fool will run into the building when he is chased. Normal people They should all want to escape as soon as possible. The farther you can escape, the better."

Charlie Wade said with a hum, "Since Tate Landry is a wanted A-level criminal who has escaped for a long time, it is absolutely impossible for him to commit such a low-level mistake, otherwise he would definitely be arrested a long time ago, so I speculate that the greatest possibility is that Tate Landry deliberately enters the treasure pavilion!"

"Enter the treasure pavilion deliberately" Cameron Isaac couldn't help but muttered, and said in confusion, "What is he going to do in the treasure pavilion today? But there's no big auction. Today's undertaking is a judicial auction. They are selling big things like houses and cars. It's pointless to snatch these things!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Don't forget, he was caught by the police. He was chased into the treasure pavilion, or that he was deliberately pretending to be chased into the treasure pavilion by the police, so it is unlikely that he was rushing to the treasure pavilion."

Cameron Isaac asked puzzledly: "Master, if he is not rushing to things What did he run for?"

Charlie Wade coldly snorted: "Since he is not running for things, he must be running for people!" "Running for people? He is a Grade A wanted criminal, once he is found there is a high probability of being caught or even killed. Who would be running at such a big risk?" Charlie Wade said seriously: "Today, there should be five people with a high value. One is me. One is you, one is Charles, and the remaining two are Deana and Zara. Who do you think he is running for?"

Cameron Isaac thought for a while and said seriously: "The possibility of running for both of us is a little bit smaller, after all we have already come out, he just went in, then the probability is that these three people are left." After speaking, he muttered: "The possibility of riches is slightly higher with Charles, after all, he is in Aurouss Hilll. He is quite famous, although it is not as worthy as Miss Jasmine from the Moore family, and not as good as Mr. Quinton and her like, but at least it has millions of assets."

"As for Deana and Zara, I think the possibility is a little bit smaller. Like the Wade family, the Banks Familyy is one of the top families in the country. The protection of family members is very serious. The family does not expose their member information. Therefore, even the richest man in Aurouss Hilll, it is very difficult to figure out the members of the Banks Familyy, let alone for Tate Landry, a wanted criminal."

Charlie Wade frowned and said, "You don't understand the core of this incident. The core of this incident was that Tate Landry risked his life to act in a play. It is impossible for him to act in a play just to find treasure, wealth, or the Banks Familyy's mother-daughter. I think there is a high probability that there is a conspiracy."

"Conspiracy?" Cameron Isaac was a little confused, and said, "Master, you said there was a conspiracy. Is it because the enemy of the Banks Familyy wants to deal with the mother and daughter of the Banks Familyy? A rich and wealthy enemy has hired him to take them out?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "I think it's possible. Let's watch what's going on, and see how it will develop in the future."

Cameron Isaac said "This Tate Landry wants a Rolls-Royce to escape, I don't know if he can escape this time."

Charlie Wade smiled: " Whether he can escape depends on whether there is anyone behind him to help, otherwise, with all the noise he has made, if he thinks he can just escape from this then he is an idiot!"

When it came to this, Charlie Wade sneered: "However, since he dares to play so big, I believe someone must be behind him. Someone helped!"

Soon, Cameron Isaac arrived at the Treasure Pavilion. When approaching the Treasure Pavilion, Charlie Wade had already pulled out his mask to put on cover, so as not to cause too much attention and expose himself. At this time, the Treasure Pavilion was surrounded by a large number of police officers and police cars, and even wheeled armored vehicles dedicated to anti-terrorism were dispatched.

The roads close to Treasure Pavilion have all been blocked by the police, and a large number of police forces have even been deployed to evacuate the crowds. As soon as Cameron Isaac's Rolls-Royce arrived at the blocked intersection, a middle-aged man hurried over and greeted Cameron Isaac through the window.

Cameron Isaac put down the car window and said, "Captain." The one called Captain White was the head of the Aurouss Hilll police, Stanley White.

Chapter 2424

Stanley White was already waiting for this Rolls-Royce in a hurry. Although Cameron Isaac's speed is also very fast, the situation inside is really critical and important.

Therefore, he hurriedly said: "Mr. Cameron, thank God you are finally here, do you think it is convenient for you to drive in? If you want it to be convenient, you can directly help drive the car to the main entrance of the treasure pavilion. If it is not convenient for you, Leave this car to me and I will drive in."

Cameron Isaac turned around and asked Charlie Wade in a low voice: "Mr. Wade, what do you want?"

Charlie Wade also wanted to go in to see what was going on, so he said: "Just drive in ."

Cameron Isaac said to Stanley White: "Captain, I will drive the car in directly."

"Okay!" Stanley White nodded, and hurriedly asked again: "Mr. Cameron, is your car full of gas? That Tate Landry asked for it to be filled. Full of fuel, if you are dissatisfied, I will arrange for someone to pump in a little bit from other cars."

Cameron Isaac glanced at the fuel gauge and said, "I am basically full."

"That's good!" Stanley White breathed a sigh of relief. He Hurriedly said: "You drive directly to the gate of Treasure Pavilion, but don't get too close. When the time comes, park the car and leave the key in the car and withdraw quickly. This is safer."

"Good." Cameron Isaac nodded.

At this time, Stanley White immediately let people open the roadblock and let Cameron Isaac's Rolls-Royce pass.

When Cameron Isaac's car drove into the Treasure Pavilion, he parked the car at a distance of five or six meters from the door.

Afterwards, Cameron Isaac said to Charlie Wade: "Master, let's get out!"

"Okay." Charlie Wade said: "But you will say hello to Captain White and see if we can stay on the scene. I want to stay on scene and see the development."

Isaac hurriedly said: "This problem is not big, let me tell him!"

Charlie Wade nodded: "Okay, get out of the car !" Then, the two immediately opened the door and got out of the car.

At this moment, Tate Landry inside saw the Rolls-Royce coming, and immediately rushed to the door, holding the gun in one hand and the detonating switch in the other, shouting: "You open all the doors! Open the trunk and let me Take a look to see if there is anything hidden inside!" Cameron Isaac immediately opened all the doors of the car so that Tate Landry could see the car and shouted: "It was just the two of us in the car.. There is nothing, you see?"

Tate Landry continued to shout: "What about the trunk? Open the trunk too!"

Cameron Isaac responded, "Okay, I'll open it now." After finishing speaking, he quickly opened the trunk again. Cameron Isaac owns a number of Rolls Royces, although they are all equipped by the Wade family, but he has the right to use and decide. The car he drove today was specially reserved to receive Charlie Wade, and every time he used this car, he drove it personally. Only when Charlie Wade needed it would he drive this car out, so this car is reserved. There are no personal belongings in the box. After opening, there was nothing in the trunk. Tate Landry naturally looked at it at a glance. Then he nodded in satisfaction, looked up and down Charlie Wade and Cameron Isaac, and said coldly: "Don't turn off the car and leave the keys, you two can go!"

Chapter 2425

Tate Landry said to let Cameron Isaac and Charlie Wade leave. Cameron Isaac's first thought was: "I don't know my young master, would you like to leave?"

"Moreover, I don't know if the young master will directly attack Tate Landry? With the master's ability, once the thundering order came out, Tate Landry was guaranteed that there would be nothing but ashes left! Even if the master is unwilling to do it in front of so many people, wouldn't it be easy to solve this Tate Landry with the master's magical powers?"

So he immediately looked towards Charlie Wade to see what kind of decision Charlie Wade would make. But what he didn't expect was that Charlie Wade beckoned him directly, and said: "Let's go quickly." After speaking, he turned and walked outside first.

Cameron Isaac was stunned for a moment, then recovered and hurried to catch up. When the two of them came out of the courtyard of the treasure pavilion, the captain Stanley White hurriedly greeted him and said gratefully: "Oh, Mr. Cameron, thank you so much for this matter today! Or I will arrange for someone to send you and this Mr. to go back?"

Cameron Isaac waved his hand and asked in a low voice: "Captain, can we two watch the excitement here?"

"Watch the excitement?" Stanley White said hesitantly, "Mr. Cameron, the current situation is very dangerous. You also know that Tate Landry has a lot of explosives on his body! If he really wants to detonate the explosives, everyone will suffer."

Cameron Isaac waved his hand: "It's okay, I see the desire to fight for survival is quite strong, otherwise, he would not take so much effort to get a Rolls Royce. Since he has a strong desire for survival, then he is not likely to go to drastic actions."

The captain thought about it and said. "Okay, Mr. Cameron, then I will put you two behind us. I can take care of anything if anything."

"Okay!" Cameron Isaac said hurriedly, "Thank you, Captain White, don't worry, we absolutely won't cause you any trouble!"

Stanley White said quickly: "Mr. Cameron, you be careful, I will talk to the leadership and see what the plan is!"

Cameron Isaac also politely said: "! Captain you are busy, do not bother us,"

Captain White Turned around and left quickly.

As soon as he left, Cameron Isaac hurriedly asked Charlie Wade next to him in a low voice: "Master, are you staying to watch the excitement?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly, and said: "I want to see who is Tate Landry's goal."

What then?" Cameron Isaac hurriedly asked again: "If you know who his goal is, what are your plans next?"

Charlie Wade shook his head: "I don't know now, just watch the changes."

At the same time. Inside the Treasure Pavilion.

Tate Landry looked at the time and felt that it was almost time for the next step, so he took out his cell phone and sent a text message. The content of the text message was simple, with only two words: "Goodbye." The other party responded quickly with the content. The same two words: "Good to go." This is the secret signal of the confidant of the Lord Banks, who has made an appointment with Tate Landry. Once the other party is ready to go, it means that they are ready and Tate Landry can set off.

Chapter 2426

If the other party does not reply, then Tate Landry can only continue to waste time in the treasure pavilion. When will the other party reply these two words then he can go out. Now, the other party has given a clear reply, and Tate Landry does not intend to continue to waste time. He looked at the people in the hall holding their heads and squatting down, and said coldly: "They have already prepared the car I want, so it is time for me to leave. Here, thank you all for your cooperation. You will be free when I am gone."

The more than one hundred people present were relieved when they heard this. Everyone's face appeared with a smile after the disaster. The law and order in China is so good that most people will never encounter such a thing in their lives, and if they encounter such a thing, they can be unscathed. That is really great luck. Therefore, everyone relaxes completely at this time, just waiting for the man to leave quickly, and then be able to survive this crisis completely and safely.

At this time, Tate Landry suddenly spoke again: "Everyone, I have one more thing that needs to be done. I also hope that you all regard me for being so trustworthy and don't refuse me."

Everyone heard this and Suddenly became a little nervous. No one knows what Tate Landry needs. If he wants money, it doesn't really matter. As long as they don't hurt everyone, everyone is willing to give him all their belongings. However, they're afraid he has other ideas.

At this moment, Tate Landry said: "I have asked them to prepare a Rolls Royce for me. However, if I get in the car by myself, they will definitely not let me leave. They will just kill me in the middle of the road. So, I have to find two people to accompany me for another journey. When I leave Aurouss Hilll completely and safely, I will naturally let these two people leave!"

Speaking of this, Tate Landry smiled slightly and asked, "Is there any friend willing to volunteer at the scene?"

When everyone heard this, all of them immediately bowed their heads deeply. It's like a scumbag who usually doesn't review his homework. When I heard that the teacher would call up and recite the text, they shrink back hoping not to be called. However, deep in the hearts of everyone present, there was more or less luck. Everyone feels that if there are more than 100 people on the scene, if only two are selected, then there is a high probability that they will not be selected.

In fact, Tate Landry has a candidate deep in his heart, but he still has to do what he should do. Otherwise, if someone sees the clue, he will upset the benefactor behind him. It's not easy.

So, he looked around pretending, and said with some discomfort: "You guys are really not helping. I have done what I said to you, but now when I need your help a little, you all are like a tortoise with its head shrunk. You don't even dare to look at me. Isn't it a bit too much?"

At this time, naturally no one dared to pick him up. After all, everyone knows the principle of shooting the first bird. If he is paying attention now, it is very likely to be selected by him. As a result, everyone still buried their heads deeply, and no one dared to look up at him.

Tate Landry yelled annoyed: "Damn! You know you fucking playing with death, right?? I put so much in you and you don't even dare to look at me, right? Okay! I count for three seconds. If anyone doesn't look up at me, I kill him with one shot!"

As soon as this was said, more than a hundred people immediately raised their heads without hesitation, and looked at Tate Landry without blinking. No one does not cherish his life, so no one dares to disobey this desperate murderer at this time.

Tate Landry's eyes patrolled around, and then his gaze fell on Deana and Zara, and said with a lewd smile: "I didn't expect that there would be such a beautiful pair of sisters here. If there were anyone I would face death with, it is you two beauties!"

Chapter 2427

When Tate Landry announced the fate of Deana and Zara, everyone else finally breathed a sigh of relief. Now, it is finally completely safe!

But Zara was desperate in her heart. She didn't understand why Tate Landry chose her mother and herself from more than a hundred people.

However, after thinking about it carefully, she can't help feeling: "I'm not boasting that if we talk about appearance, my mother and I are indeed the more outstanding among the more than one hundred people. This Tate Landry looks more than sturdy, And also a little bit smirk, he would choose me and my mother from so many people, which is also in line with this kind of person's style. I just don't know, besides wanting me and my mother to be hostages, there will be no other attempts."

So she looked at her mother beside her nervously. Deana saw her daughter's gaze, patted her hand gently, and whispered comfortingly: "Zara, don't worry, I am here with you."

Zara whispered: "Mom, let's think of a way to send a message to Dad or Grandpa."

Deana shook his head: "The distant water can't save the near fire. Everyone else holds their heads in their hands. What if he finds you while holding your phone?"

Zara said anxiously, "But we can't just follow him like this."

As he said, Tate Landry had already stepped towards the mother and daughter, so Zara quickly closed her mouth. Tate Landry walked to the front of the mother and daughter, shrugged and smiled: "Oh, the two beauties have worked so hard to accompany me again!"

Deana said without hesitation at this time: "You take me hostage Okay, leave my daughter behind. She is too young and she is scared in her heart. She will keep talking on the road, I am afraid it will annoy you."

Zara heard this and said hurriedly: "Mom! I want to go With you!"

Tate Landry pretended to be surprised and said: "Oh, I didn't expect that you two beauties are a mother-daughter duo!"

Deana looked at Tate Landry and took a few Pleadingly, he said: "Sir, my daughter is still young, and she has been very frightened, so please let her go."

At this time, a woman who was dressed up a bit coquettishly spoke in annoyance. He said, "Hey! What do you mean by this? Now that he has chosen you, you two will accept your fate. Why do you want to do this kind of thing? Wouldn't it increase the risk for us? I urge you two to follow him obediently. Stop bargaining!"

When the woman spoke, someone next to her immediately echoed: "Yes! After choosing you two, are you now trying to make him choose one from us?"

The glamorous woman immediately said, "Yes! Whoever he chooses, they will follow this man obediently. Please don't put others in danger!"

Tate Landry looked. Glancing at the woman, he smiled and asked: "What's the matter, beauty? Are you afraid I would choose you?"

The woman was taken aback, and hurriedly waved her hand and said, "No, Brother, I'm just plain. The little beauty just now is much better in comparison."

Tate Landry looked at her coldly, smiled playfully, and said: "Since you also know that you are too plain, There is no need to stay in this world and pollute other people's eyes!"

After that, Tate Landry immediately pointed his gun at the woman.

The woman was so frightened that she yelled, "No, please! I didn't mean it like that!"

Tate Landry smiled cruelly, and then immediately pulled the trigger.

Chapter 2428

"Bang" The gun sounded loud in the room. Everyone went silent. There was a finger-thin hole in the woman's forehead. Her whole eyes widened and she fell straight back. A large pool of blood began trailing one the ground, and the smell of blood permeated the entire hall. Everyone present was so scared that some even fainted. No one thought that Tate Landry would be so vicious. That woman just said a few words, and he actually shot her to death. Actually, Tate Landry killed this woman not because she was really disgusting, but to give Deana and Zara a demonstration. He used this to make the mother and daughter completely compliant. Only in this way can he take them away as planned.

So, he looked at Deana, who was pale, and asked with interest: "How about you, beautiful lady, are you still bargaining with me?"

Deana immediately shook her head. She knew that the extremely vicious man in front of him was a murderous demon, and she could only follow his instructions and could not refuse.

She thought to herself: "If I continue to bargain with him, then it is very likely that I will be killed on the spot. It doesn't matter if I die, but the thing is that if I die, this guy will still not let go of Zara, I have to survive!" Thinking of this, she took Zara's hand, looked at Tate Landry, and said firmly, "We will follow you!"

Tate Landry immediately smiled and said cheerfully: "As long as you obey and cooperate with me to escape, I will = not hurt you; but If you dare to play with me, I will let you and your daughter meet death together!"

Deana nodded firmly, and said seriously: "Don't worry, we will cooperate."

Tate Landry smiled satisfied: "Since you are ready, it's time to get on the road!" After speaking, he waved his gun and said: "You two go first!"

Deana nodded and pulled Zara standing beside her. Standing up, the mother and daughter looked at each other, she firmly squeezed Zara's hand and walked towards the gate of the treasure pavilion. At this moment, Cameron Isaac's Rolls-Royce stopped in the middle of the courtyard at the entrance of the Treasure Pavilion, while all the police retreated to the outside of the courtyard as per Tate Landry's request, staring at the entire Treasure Pavilion outside the courtyard. At this moment, the locked door of the Treasure Pavilion suddenly opened, and everyone immediately roused themselves.

The deputy commander-in-chief of the police, Stanley White, ordered through the internal walkie-talkie: "All snipers are ready! Once the target appears, immediately lock the target from their respective directions!"

The commander-in-chief said at this time: "Team White, the target has been holding the detonation switch. We must be cautious! We are absolutely not allowed to shoot without being 100% sure!"

Stanley White's expression was startled, and then he sighed, and was about to speak, suddenly saw two women walking out of the gate of Treasure Pavilion!

At this moment, less than five meters away from Captain White, Cameron Isaac suddenly exclaimed: "Master! It is Deana and Zara!"

Chapter 2429

Charlie Wade didn't feel surprised at all when seeing Deana and Zara walking out. He had long felt that this matter was definitely not as simple as it seemed. Now, Deana and Zara has come out under Tate Landry's coercion, and this has strengthened his views on this matter. It's just that Charlie Wade didn't really want to understand, who would have spent so much effort and circled such a big circle to capture Deana and Zara.

At this moment, Deana and Zara, mother and daughter, had completely walked out of the gate of Treasure Pavilion. Tate Landry held a gun in one hand and held the detonator tightly in the other. He followed behind the mother and daughter at a steady pace.

He raised his head and looked around, and sneered at the police officers around him and said: "I know you must have a lot of snipers around, ready to shoot me at any time, but I still suggest that you consider carefully. Because of this detonator in my hand, even a one-year-old baby can detonate it with a light touch. If you are not afraid to die, just let a sniper shoot at me!"

Captain White said coldly, "Tate Landry, Do not worry! As long as you do not act rashly, we will not shoot you! now you have the car ready, you can always get out of here! but before you go, make sure to release hostages!"

Tate Landry laughed unscrupulously, and said contemptuously: "Do you think I am a three-year-old child? I tell you, these two hostages will stay with me until I get rid of your tracking completely. If you are acquainted, then Don't send anyone to follow me. After I'm safe, I will naturally release these two people."

At this point, he changed his words and said with a cruel expression: "But if you let me find out that some of you are trying to follow me, Then I drive the car to the city center and press the detonator!"

Captain White's expression was ugly, he could only hold back the anger in his heart, and said: "Don't worry. We will not send someone to follow you!"

Tate Landry sneered and said: "It's a pleasure doing business with you!"

After finishing speaking, he immediately said to Deana and Zara mother and daughter: "You two quickly get in the car! Sit in the back row!"

Deana did not dare to hesitate. Pulling Zara into the back seat of Rolls Royce. Holding the gun and the detonator, Tate Landry swaggered into the cab. This Rolls-Royce was not stalled, as long as it was in gear, it could drive away. Therefore, Tate Landry directly put on the forward gear and rushed towards the gate of the courtyard.

Captain White hurriedly ordered the policemen at the entrance of the courtyard to move aside. The originally encircled circle like iron barrels immediately gave way. Tate Landry stepped on the accelerator without hesitation, and the Rolls-Royce engine let out a low roar, and they rushed out quickly and fled the scene at a very fast speed.

As soon as he drove away from the building, a police officer hurriedly came to Captain White and asked: "Captain White, do you want to take our plainclothes and drive with us?"

Captain White hesitated slightly and said: "Tate Landry's awareness is very strong. If we really send a car to keep up, once he spots it, it may cause irreversible consequences."

After that, he opened the mouth and said: "Well, let's call the whole city urgently. The traffic monitoring network uses the monitoring probes of the roads in the city to track the whereabouts of Tate Landry's Rolls-Royce in real time! If he leaves the city, then we will arrange police forces to take control in advance!"

At this time, as he saw the Rolls-Royce disappear, Cameron Isaac couldn't help sighing with regret, and said: "Master, if someone really wants to be against the second lady of the Thorne Family and Zara as you said, then they are afraid this time. "

"A piece is missing" Charlie Wade nodded in agreement, and said: "The other party can carefully arrange such a big game and put in such a big play. It must not be to just scare them. The probability is to kill them."

Cameron Isaac couldn't help asking: "Master, life is at stake, do you want to take action?"

Chapter 2430

Charlie Wade's expression was a little hesitant. A few seconds later, he shook his head gently: "Forget it, I have a grudge against the Banks Family, but now the grudge has not been reported, and I have repeatedly saved the Banks Family. Fitz, Zara, and Xion. I saved each of the three Banks Family members once. If I still act today, the Banks Family will owe me five lives!"

Cameron Isaac couldn't help but agree to say: "Yeah, and it has not been paid back either. Yet you kept saving their family members. God is really good at joking."

Charlie Wade couldn't help but sighed: "Hey, what if this Deana really did die. I'm afraid that my father's house is going to be auctioned again, right?"

Cameron Isaac said, "I don't know yet, if Ms. Deana has the payment and the formalities been completed. If it's finished, that The house has become her legacy; if the formalities have not been completed, it is estimated that the judicial auction will be re-opened in a while."

Charlie Wade frowned: "If it becomes the legacy of Deana, who is the first heir?"

Cameron Isaac said: "I really can't say who is the first, but it must be her husband or one of her sons, or half of them."

Charlie Wade gritted his teeth and cursed: "Damn , The house where my parents lived, how can the bastard of Zayne account for half!"

Cameron Isaac hurriedly said, "I will ask someone to inquire later to see if the second lady of the Thorne Family has completed the procedures. "

Charlie Wade nodded and said sullenly : "It seems that this can only be done."

At this time, a white Rolls Royce Phantom stopped in front of the two, and a middle-aged man hurriedly stepped out, he went to the two of them and said respectfully: "Master, Mr. Cameron, I brought the car here. Do you think the two of you should drive by yourself, or should I drive?"

Cameron Isaac said first: "Okay , I'll drive, you can take a taxi and go back."

The other party hurriedly nodded respectfully: "Okay, Mr. Cameron, then I'll go back first."

Cameron Isaac took the initiative to open the rear door and said to Charlie Wade, "Master, please."

Charlie Wade stepped into the car. Cameron Isaac got into the driver seat and asked Charlie Wade while starting the car: "Master, where are you going? Go home or?"

Charlie Wade thought for a while and said, "Send me home."

"Okay." Cameron Isaac replied, and immediately drove towards Thompson First.

On the way, Charlie Wade kept frowning. Cameron Isaac quietly followed Charlie Wade's expression through the rearview mirror of the car, and couldn't help asking: "Master, do you have something on your mind?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said with his chin: "I just don't understand, who would attack them."

Cameron Isaac said: "The Banks Familyy usually makes a lot of enemies. I don't know how many people hate the Banks Familyy."

Charlie Wade waved his hand and said, "The reason Although it is correct, it is not the case after all. Everyone knows that in order to avoid the limelight, Zayne even brought it to the old man of the Banks Familyy. Now he ran to Australia. In my opinion, there is a high probability that the Banks Familyy will never again allow him back, so Zayne is tantamount to the deposed crown prince. Now, even Zayne has lost power, and the status of his wife and daughter in the Banks Familyy is even less than worth mentioning. In this case, If someone really wants to hurt the family, why bother to kill these two?"

Chapter 2431

Hearing Charlie Wade's question, Cameron Isaac exclaimed: "Master, who do you think is behind this incident?"

Charlie Wade thought for a while, and said, "I think the Banks Familyy "

"The Banks Familyy?!" Cameron Isaac said dumbfounded: "Master, why did the Banks Familyy do something to the two women? There is no reason."

Charlie Wade said with a serious expression, "I really want to say the reason. , I think there are many. This Deana resolutely wants to divorce Zayne. This in itself hurts the face of the Banks Familyy. Zayne must be dissatisfied, and the Banks Familyy must be the same."

Cameron Isaac nodded and said: "To any family with a face, if a wife or daughter-in-law wants to divorce publicly, it will definitely damage the family's face, but there is no need for such a cruel hand?"

Charlie Wade said: "After all, it is a big family. Sometimes I feel that face is above all else. What's more, Deana and Zayne are not just about getting a divorce. Why did she travel all the way to Aurouss Hilll? You know, I know, so many people from Eastcliff families must know."

Cameron Isaac nodded and sighed: "It is indeed the case that the second lady of the Thorne Family liked your father back then. It is well known in Eastcliff. Now she comes to Aurouss Hilll and is still participating in this event. At the auction, the old house where your father lived was photographed at a high price of tens of millions. As everyone knows, she must have not forgotten your father."

Charlie Wade said with a sad expression on his face, and said: "I am very surprised at her feelings for my father, but the more surprised I was, the more I couldn't help but look at the problem from another direction."

Cameron Isaac hurriedly asked: "Master, the other direction you said is What direction? My mind is a little dull right now, I really don't understand."

Charlie Wade said lightly, "The other direction is naturally Zayne. If Deana hasn't forgotten my father for so many years, then she After marrying Zayne for so many years, do you have true feelings for Zayne?"

"This..." Cameron Isaac fell silent for a moment.

After a while, he suddenly realized: "I understand! The second Miss Thorne's family came to Aurouss Hilll to commemorate your father. She also publicly participated in this auction and photographed the old house where your father lived. This is almost equivalent to telling others. , She has been in love with your father for so many years, so she must have never loved Zayne for so many years! This is a shame for Zayne!"

"That's right." Charlie Wade sighed: "So I suspect that Zayne is probably the man behind all this."

Cameron Isaac frowned and said, "Master, Zara is the flesh and blood of Zayne, even if he hates the second lady of the Thorne Family again. , It's absolutely impossible to harm Zara together, right?"

"Yes." Charlie Wade said: "This is the one piece out of place. Zayne shouldn't attack Zara. Perhaps Zara is just a blindfold. Maybe."

Cameron Isaac said helplessly: "The Banks Familyy has always had no ethics in doing things. What you say may be the truth of the matter."

Charlie Wade said at this time: "If it is really the Banks Familyy who wants Deana to die, then I won't let them do what they want!" After that, Charlie Wade immediately said to Cameron Isaac: "Isaac, immediately investigate the specific location of that Rolls-Royce, and let the helicopter be prepared!"

Cameron Isaac Hearing this, he immediately asked: "Master, do you want to save them?"

Charlie Wade sneered and said, "The enemy's enemy is my friend. I can even save Xion. What's more, Deana and Zara!"

Cameron Isaac immediately said, "Good master! I will let people track the location of the car and prepare the helicopter at the same time!"

Nowadays, technology is developing rapidly, and most models , Will be equipped with certain remote functions. If it's set up, you can remotely check the position of the car, the fuel level, and the closing of the doors and windows; The better ones can remotely open and close the door, even start the car and start the air conditioner remotely. Like some new energy vehicles, they can even be summoned remotely and operated by mobile phones, so that the car can drive over to find the driver instead of the driver looking for the car.

Chapter 2432

Although Rolls-Royce does not have the function of remote summoning, other remote functions are available. Among them, the position of the car can be obtained in real time from the software of the Rolls-Royce Center. Soon, Cameron Isaac's men sent him the trajectory of the car.

After he saw it, he opened his mouth and said: "Master, Tate Landry drove into the mountains."

"In the mountains?" Charlie Wade frowned: "What's the exact location?"

Cameron Isaac hurriedly said, "It's the direction of the Champs Ely Spa Hotel. "

Okay!" Charlie Wade immediately ordered: "Now turn to your hotel and take a helicopter to intercept his car!"

Cameron Isaac blurted out: "Master, Tate Landry has explosives tied to his body. You are sure you can do this?"

Charlie Wade sneer, said with disdain:"If I want, I take away Tate Landry's ability to blink much less press a button on a detonator. "

"That's good!" Cameron Isaac said relieved. He quickly drove to the hotel. At the same time, he immediately took out his mobile phone and instructed the helicopter pilot of the hotel to be ready. At this moment, Tate Landry was already driving the Rolls Royce swiftly towards the mountainous area south of Aurouss Hillll. This is the route that Lord Banks's men arranged for him.

After entering the mountain all the way from here, there is a winding mountain road of more than 30 kilometers. This road of more than 30 kilometers has no exit or entrance. As long as the car runs fast enough, no one can catch up. This is why Tate Landry must prepare a Rolls Royce by the police. Ordinary cars run on mountain roads, and the power will drop very obviously, but for a 12-cylinder behemoth like Rolls-Royce, even on mountain roads, the power is completely sufficient, enough to keep away from the pursuit. Moreover, the other party had already arranged for Tate Landry a way to escape.

When Tate Landry drives the car into a two-kilometer-long tunnel on the Panshan Highway, two cars will have an accident at the entrance of the tunnel and completely blocking the tunnel. When Tate Landry drives the car to the center of the tunnel, There is a safety island specially used for emergency parking. According to the requirements, he will kill Deana and Zara there. After the mother and daughter were killed, he would discard the body on the island as planned, and then drive on. There will be a container truck waiting near the tunnel. When the time comes, he will drive the Rolls-Royce directly into the container truck, and the other party will use the prepared goods to hide the Rolls-Royce in it and transport it away. Moreover, the container trucks that are ready to meet Tate Landry are equipped with powerful signal shielding equipment. Even if a Rolls-Royce car is equipped with 100 GPS devices, it will never be discovered.

At that time, the Rolls-Royce Center will find that this car has not been out since entering the tunnel. The idea is that the police will first concentrate on searching for him in the tunnel. When the police realized that he might have escaped from here, he will have already escaped!

Chapter 2433

As the distance from the scheduled tunnel gets closer, Tate Landry's heart becomes more and more nervous. For him, victory or defeat is only one move. Therefore, he kept secretly praying in his heart: "God, I have never begged someone in my life, but now I beg you to show your spirits, and bless me that everything goes smoothly today! If it goes well, wait for me to finish. After the mother and daughter are done, God, you only need to save me an hour to escape! One hour is enough for the Banks Family to arrange my escape! At this time tomorrow, I will have changed my identity. I have started a new life abroad! At the thought of this, Tate Landry was excited and intolerable in his heart.

At this moment, Deana and Zara are sitting in the back row of Rolls-Royce, and the mother and daughter are a little nervous deep in their hearts. Zara has been highly tense. Seeing the vehicle driving into the mountains, she felt a kind of inexplicable panic. It seemed that something was wrong, but she couldn't think of what was wrong.

Deana realized that Zara next to her was uneasy. In order to prevent her daughter from being overly frightened, Deana held her hand tightly and gave her a look of encouragement from time to time to let her relax as much as possible.

Zara had difficulty relaxing. She couldn't help but ask: "Where are you taking us?"

Tate Landry said coldly, "Don't worry about where you go. Just sit down!"

Zara continued to ask: "When will you let us go?"

Tate Landry held the steering wheel in one hand, and messed around with the gun in the other. He said impatiently, "Letting you go, or not, depends on my mood. If you sit quietly and don't talk so much, I might still keep you alive, but you have to keep asking questions, I'll kill you now!"

Deana knew that Tate Landry didn't blink at killing people, so she immediately scolded Zara and said, "Zara! Shut your mouth and stop talking!"

Zara had to obediently and shut her mouth. However, she became more worried, and the premonition of something wrong became stronger and stronger. She carefully searched all the details in her brain, hoping to find clues that she had overlooked. A few minutes later, a detail suddenly appeared in her mind.

She thought of Tate Landry's cell phone answering a call when she was in Treasure Pavilion! Moreover, it seemed that he took out his phone and sent a message to someone. This detail made her nervous!

A wanted criminal who has fled all over the country for a long time. When he was rounded up alone, why did he still have the wherewithal to call and send messages to others, and his phone call lasted for a long time? Even if you call and send information, it is all probably his family members. This part is strange, because normal people will use the fastest way to tell the family members that they are busy, and then hang up the phone. He has a cell phone, and is free to contact the family. He can communicate anytime, anywhere, if not critical things, so there is no need at a critical time to talk for a while. It would be a distraction to him in a critical moment. Like a doctor, when focusing on surgery on patients, it is absolutely impossible to call or send text messages with family members with a mobile phone. This will cause great interference to his work, and a little carelessness will bring serious consequences. It would be understandable if Tate Landry had just embarked on a criminal path and had insufficient experience, but after all, he is a wanted criminal who has fled for a long time. He was an expert at what he did. Such people should not make such low-level mistakes. So, whether the person calling or texting with him is his family member or not, the other party communicating with him must be very important!

Chapter 2434

Even, it is very likely that it is closely related to his rushing into the Treasure Pavilion today!

Thinking of this, Zara came to the conclusion: "Behind Tate Landry, there must be someone else! If so If he rushed into the Treasure Pavilion today, it is not an accident! If it is not accidental, then the kidnapping of me and my mother is also not accidental! Could it be that he just rushed to my mother and me!" Zara suddenly became more flustered!

"If Tate Landry really rushed into the Treasure Pavilion by chance while being hunted down, as long as my mother and I cooperate with Tate Landry to escape, after Tate Landry is safe, the chances of my mother and I surviving will be somewhat greater. After all, he has been exposed. In front of the police, there is absolutely no need to kill me and my mother to anger the police and create public opinion. That will only be even more detrimental to his follow-up. However, if Tate Landry was instigated by someone, it would be a fake to evade arrest and kidnap me and Mother."

At this point, Zara suddenly said: "Tate Landry, if you let me and my mother go, I can give you 50 million as a reward. Do what you say!"

"50 million?!" Tate Landry was stunned.

The number of fifty million is indeed not small, for him, it is enough to make him tempted. Moreover, he did not doubt Zara's ability. After all, she was from the Banks Familyy, and it would be easy to get five hundred million, let alone fifty million. However, Zara dared to give it, but he dared not ask for it. Because, in his heart, he knew that it was the Banks Familyy who paid him to kill the mother and daughter.

He silently thought about this. "This matter is more complicated than I thought before! At first, someone came to me and asked me to kill Deana. Today, someone called my family and gave 20 million and asked me to kill Zara as well. Why is this Banks Family so vicious? Killing Deana? Forget it, after all, she's an outsider, but why do they need to kill Zara? A family that doesn't even care about its own people can no longer be described as simply cruel. If I honestly follow their arrangements, I can get a chance to go abroad, but if I play tricks behind them, or even secretly take Zara's money, then they will most likely not let me go. What's more, my family is still in China. If I really annoyed the Banks Family. They didn't even let their own family members let go, how could they let my family go?!"

Through the rearview mirror of the car, Zara saw that Tate Landry's expression was full of entanglements. Realizing that the situation is even worse, she hurriedly said again: "Tate, you must know my situation. I can give you 50 million, even 60 million or even 80 million, as long as you nod, I can give it to you. As long as you nod your head, I can call someone to send money to your account immediately!"

Speaking, Zara hurriedly said: "Not 50 million, not 80 million, I will give you a whole one hundred million, as long as you nod, I will send you one hundred million in cash in ten minutes!"

Tate Landry heard that as long as he nodded himself, one hundred million would be credited to the account. A superb person, seeing the taste of Table Mountain's delicacies but dare not open his mouth. This made his mood suddenly become very irritable, and he blurted out subconsciously: "Don't fucking talk nonsense with me! It's not about money at all!"

When Tate Landry said these words, Zara felt worried. She immediately looked at Deana beside her. Deana had already realized that her daughter was deliberately arranging Tate Landry's words. When she heard Tate Landry's answer, she immediately realized the source of the problem. Therefore, she also looked up at Zara at this moment. The mother and daughter looked at each other at once, and both could see each other's eyes in deep shock!

Zara used money to try to buy Tate Landry for two purposes. First, if spending money has an effect, it's best to spend money on life; second, if spending money has no effect, at least the situation of Tate Landry can be determined through dialogue. Now, Zara has drawn several key clues from Tate Landry's mouth through a set of speech skills designed by her.

"First, ordinary people hear that a girl in her early twenties say she has tens of millions or a hundred million, he will definitely not believe her, but will only think that she is trying to bluff, but Tate Landry does not doubt that he can get eighty million, even one hundred million! This means that he knows who I am! Knowing that for me, one hundred million is easy, so he doesn't doubt what I say! From this point, again Combining with Tate Landry's previous behavior of talking on the phone and sending text messages, it can be seen that Tate Landry must have been instructed to kidnap my mother and me! Second, people like Tate Landry cannot be abiding by anything. If I say that I am willing to give him 100 million, he can choose to take my money, betray the original employer, or even choose to take my money and then turn his face with me. With him, he has two ways of getting money. However, Tate Landry didn't even consider these two ways. This proves that the original employer behind him is someone he would never dare to offend! So, who on earth bought him and let him perform such a big show just to kidnap me and my mother?"

Thinking of this, Zara had no answer at all. She also wondered if it was the grandfather's dissatisfaction with her mother, so he had decided to clean the house. However, based on her understanding of Lord Banks, she felt that Lord Banks would not have murderous intent toward her. She also wondered if it was her father who was unhappy with her mother, but this was the same as the speculation just now. Whether it was her father or her grandfather, both her father and her grandfather had reasons to attack her mother, but neither of them had the possibility of attacking her.

Therefore, Zara also led her thoughts into a dead end. Immediately afterwards, she thought: "Could it be my father or grandfather who was behind him and asked Tate Landry to kidnap me and my mother, but in fact he was only going to be unfavorable to my mother?"

Thinking of this, Zara suddenly became extremely nervous: "If this is the case, then when Tate Landry reveals his true colors, I must fight to protect my mother!"

While Zara made a desperate effort to protect Deana, her heart was filled with anger and despair for her family. She couldn't understand why the Banks Family would be so unkind to her mother. What is even more difficult to understand is that this matter is clearly that the father had the fault first, so why did you want to kill the mother? Is it because my mother came to Aurouss Hilll this time? At this time, Deana also guessed the whole thing.

Deep down in her heart, she also had the same question: "Zayne can cheat on me and give birth to an illegitimate daughter outside, even unscrupulously bringing the illegitimate daughter to his side, and I have been married for so many years and have never betrayed. Now she just wants to divorce him, is he right, was I wrong?"

Tate Landry at this time didn't realize that he had accidentally leaked the secret just now. He only hoped that it was on the map. That tunnel could arrive earlier, allowing him to resolve all this before him.
Chapter 2436

At the same time, a helicopter has left the urban area and is speeding towards the mountainous area outside Aurouss Hilll.

On the plane, Cameron Isaac was reporting to Charlie Wade: "Master, the target is still ten kilometers away from us in a straight line. Since their car can only go slowly in the curves in the mountains, we should be able to catch up soon."

Charlie Wade said. He nodded, and said: "I still have a question I don't understand."

Cameron Isaac hurriedly asked: "Master, what is the problem?"

Charlie Wade said: "I don't understand what Tate Landry 's future is for him. What? He made such a big movement. I believe that although there is no police chase now, there should have been police ambushes at every intersection in front of him. The Rolls Royce he drove was no more expensive than It's just a car. In this case, he can't escape even with wings."

"Yes." Cameron Isaac nodded and said in agreement: "Perhaps Tate Landry didn't want to escape at all. He was originally a Grade A wanted. If you're caught, you're bound to die, so it's better to live out your old life and earn a settlement from the Banks Familyy for Dean and Zara."

Charlie Wade smacked his lips: "What you mean is, this Tate Landry has already reported his determination to die, and he is ready to not escape alive, right?"

"Yes!" Cameron Isaac said, "I think this possibility is the greatest."

Charlie Wade shook his head and said: " If he is really going to die, then he shouldn't have to spend such a big setback to perform such a play, he only needs to find an excuse and reason at the Treasure Pavilion, and kill Deana. Why bother to get a Rolls-Royce, come here immediately?"

Cameron Isaac thought for a while: "Is it going to be a complete set?"

"Isn't it necessary?" Charlie Wade said lightly: "There are so many things happening before killing Deana. What's the point? If he just wants to confuse the audience and let everyone not doubt the Banks Familyy, then why did he kill so many hostages in Treasure Pavilion? With no suspicion, he could kill Deana. Everyone would not doubt it."

Cameron Isaac asked, "Master, what do you mean is that Tate Landry has a way to escape?"

Charlie Wade sneered: "Is there a way for Tate Landry to escape? I'm not sure yet, but what I can be sure of is that if it is the Banks Familyy who promised him and helped him escape, then The Banks Familyy will definitely not keep him alive."

Cameron Isaac hurriedly asked, "Master, if you say so, then the Banks Familyy must be ready to kill Tate Landry!"

"Yes." Charlie Wade nodded gently. Said: "I think from the perspective of the Banks Familyy's acting style, they will definitely avoid suspicion, so they will definitely kill Tate Landry as soon as possible within a reasonable range."

Cameron Isaac thought for a while and said: "The Banks Familyy will choose this section of the mountain road. The tunnel with no exit."

Charlie Wade said, "Speed up and lock them as soon as possible!"

"Good master!" The helicopter went through another few minutes of flight. Cameron Isaac pointed to a black car on the road diagonally forward and said: "Master, that car! It's the Rolls Royce!"

Charlie Wade glanced down and found Cameron Isaac's Rolls Royce. However, due to the high altitude of the plane, the Rolls-Royce looked not even as big as a fingernail.

At this time, Cameron Isaac asked him: "Master, do we want to lower the height to catch up?"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "No, lest you startled the snake, follow him from a distance to observe!"

Chapter 2437

Tate Landry continued driving without knowing that Charlie Wade had locked on to him from the sky. While driving intently, he stared at the navigation from time to time. The navigation shows the distance to the scheduled tunnel, and there is less than 5 kilometers. The current speed is about 180 kilometers per hour, and it only takes two minutes to arrive! Thinking of this, Tate Landry was so excited that he couldn't bear it. As the tunnel got closer, he became more excited, and he couldn't help stepping on the accelerator deeper and pushing the speed of the car a little faster.

At this time, Tate Landry had been driving a Rolls-Royce in the overtaking lane. As he approached the tunnel, he saw that on the right side of the road ahead, there were a number of relatively slow trucks running one after the other. He glanced at the license plate and felt more relieved. The two trucks at the front are the ones arranged by the Banks Familyy. These two cars have been driving on the road at low speed, just to determine the time to reach the tunnel based on Tate Landry's location. Because according to the plan of the Banks Familyy, after Tate Landry's vehicle entered the tunnel, the two vehicles would collide behind him at the entrance of the tunnel. In this way, two trucks collided with each other, which can directly block the road of the two-lane road, and the vehicles behind it will be impossible for any to get through and also it will win enough time for Tate Landry.

The vehicle driven by Tate Landry soon surpassed the two trucks. At this time, there was only one kilometer left at the entrance of the tunnel. Tate Landry didn't care about the trucks behind him anymore, because he knew that no matter how many trucks there were behind him, if the two leading cars collided, they would stop them behind. At that time, this highway will be completely cut off.

However, when Tate Landry had already drove the car into the tunnel, the two trucks at the front did not intend to cause an accident. On the contrary, they all started to speed up in an instant, accelerating and rushing into the tunnel. As the two trucks entered the tunnel, several vehicles behind the two trucks suddenly collided at the entrance of the tunnel, and the entire road was immediately blocked by the crashed cars. The Banks Familyy is ready to kill people!

These two trucks are constantly accelerating, each of which is loaded with dozens of tons of goods, and its inertia is large enough to completely destroy any family car. At the exit of this tunnel, two trucks blocked the way. In this way, Tate Landry's Rolls-Royce became a can of human flesh surrounded by four trucks. With no entry and no retreat, this Rolls-Royce has only one end, that is, being hit by two heavy-duty trucks into a pile of scrap iron! The people in the car will not be able to survive. Tate Landry will die, and Deana and Zara will die too!

Chapter 2438

At the same time, Charlie Wade was on the helicopter and saw the car enter the tunnel. He also saw the two trucks behind follow him. Then, he saw several cars in the tunnel entrance crash. Charlie Wade could tell at a glance that these cars had crashed together intentionally.

So he immediately said to Cameron Isaac: "These trucks should be closing the road. I think they are going to do it in this tunnel! Go to the other side of the tunnel immediately!"

Cameron Isaac didn't dare to hesitate and blurted out: "Okay. Master! Let's go down and dive straight over!"

At this moment, Tate Landry in the tunnel suddenly realized that the road ahead was blocked by two container trucks parked side by side. He immediately realized that the time had come to do something. Because according to the plan, he was going to kill Deana and Zara in the car here, and then the Banks Familyy would cover the two of them by pushing them out the door from a high-speed car so they would fall to death.

As for Tate Landry himself, all the people and vehicles were loaded into the container truck and he would flee. In this way, the outside world would think that the mother and daughter died when they jumped into a car and escaped, while Tate Landry himself continued to escape.

So, Tate Landry slowed the vehicle to a stop, raised his pistol and turned around, and said to the mother and daughter Deana and Zara sitting in the back of the car: "I'm sorry, two beauties, I want to send you off. Let's go on the road together!"

"What?!" Deana said in a panic: "The Banks Familyy has nothing to do with my daughter. Please let my daughter go!"

Zara also panicked, blurting out: "You want Kill me and let my mother go away!"

Tate Landry couldn't help frowning in astonishment. He looked at Deana and asked, "How did you know that it was the Banks Familyy? Did you get any news in advance?"

Zara hurriedly said: "There must be some misunderstanding in this. My surname is Banks and I belong to the Banks Familyy. The current Banks Familyy's patron is my grandfather. The Banks Familyy cannot kill me. There must be something here. What is the misunderstanding, I beg you to call and confirm with them!"

Tate Landry sneered: "I have confirmed it a long time ago. What they want is the lives of both of you. You are indispensable, so you don't have to intercede for each other. The matter has developed to this point, neither of you two can run away!" As he said, Tate Landry pointed to the two container trucks blocking the way in front, and said with a smile: "And you don't have to try to open the door and escape. These people have been foolproof and prepared to take the lives of both of you! You two fell into my hands, I can at least give you a quick death, but if you fall into their hands, I guess they will not be so nice."

When Zara heard this, she burst into tears: "Mom! Why did Dad and Grandpa do this?"

Deana swept Zara away in her arms, holding back the tears, choked up and said: "Zara, I'm sorry, I'm sorry for you."

Tate Landry pointed his gun at Deana, and said lightly: "Walk forward and turn around!"

Deana knew that she was definitely in a disaster this time. She just felt very sorry for her daughter and felt guilty for her. At this time, she has accepted her fate, rubbing Zara's head, crying and saying: "Zara, I'm sorry, I'm sorry. Please don't blame mom"

Zara also cried sadly and said, "Mom, I don't Blame you"

Tate Landry couldn't help but sighed: "Oh, it's a pity to kill two such beautiful beauties, but I can't help but let you two die for my own survival!"

He was ready to pull the trigger to kill Deana first. But at this moment, he turned around to look at the back seat, and suddenly through the rear glass, he saw two groups of dark shadows coming fast!

He glanced intently and couldn't help exclaiming: "Fuck! What the hell is going on? They are supposed to be blocking the road behind? Why did they both rush in?"

Chapter 2439

Tate Landry clearly saw that the two black shadows rushing towards the Rolls-Royce were the trucks that were scheduled to cause a car accident at the tunnel entrance and seal the intersection! The two trucks are fast, and they are driving side by side, occupying the entire road. Now that they are getting closer and closer to the Rolls-Royce, and it looks like there is no intention to stop. This caused Tate Landry to panic!

After all, he knows the game, so he immediately realized that a major change had happened!

He thought nervously in his heart: "Before this, the whole thing was proceeding in accordance with the plan made by me and the Banks Familyy. Including me being discovered by the police, including me being pursued into the treasure pavilion, including my abduction of Deana, Zara took hostages, even including me taking the two of them to flee, everything did not go beyond the original plan! However, the two trucks coming at me are a major deviation from the original plan! These two trucks are rushing towards them at such a fast speed. There is no sign of them stopping!"

Tate Landry is not a fool. On TV, he watched news and videos of major car accidents. Knowing that trucks traveling at high speeds are the most lethal vehicles on the ground. A truck of dozens of tons rushes at a speed of more than 100 kilometers per hour, and even a tank may not be able to handle the impact. In a car, no one will survive! What's more terrifying is that there is no way to escape!

If the way ahead was unobstructed, with the power and acceleration of Rolls-Royce, these two big trucks wouldn't stand a chance! However, the road ahead was blocked by two other trucks, and there was nowhere to escape!

Seeing that the two large trucks were getting closer, Tate Landry's eyes were filled with anger, and he couldn't help but scream: "Damn! I didn't expect the Banks Familyy to be so untrustworthy! They tell me to kill you two. But it turned out they want to kill me too!"

Zara originally thought that Tate Landry would directly shoot her and her mother. But she didn't expect that Tate Landry would look at the rear windshield and scream about the Banks Familyy. So she turned her head subconsciously and immediately saw the two large trucks getting closer and closer. She was a quick thinker, she understood the situation almost immediately. She smiled bitterly and said to Tate Landry: "You knew that the Banks Familyy would even kill you, you should have thought that they would never let you leave alive!"

Tate Landry looked desperate and murmured to himself: "You were so damned stupid. You were simply used by the Banks Familyy to be thrown away."

After that, Tate Landry suddenly became very angry, crying and cursing at them, "You fool. Your family, what the hell are you?! You're a mess, you all have no morals!"

Zara sneered: "You kill for money yet you talk about us not having morals? Who do you think you are?"

Tate Landry immediately yelled: "Damn, don't fuck with me, I will shoot you right here!"

Zara smiled miserably and did not back down. she said: "Just shoot me and give me a good death! It is much better to be killed by a single shot than to be hit by a truck and die slowly in a lot of pain!"

Tate Landry was immediately scared when he heard this. His face turned pale! Although he is a gangster with many lives, he is also afraid of death and pain. If he is really to die in a major car accident, he will die slowly after being hit. He would rather die simply and quickly.

Seeing that he was completely panicked, Zara's expression was full of contempt, and she said coldly: "What, you can kill people like nothing, but now you are also afraid of death?"

Tate Landry also ignored Zara's mockery at this time. He Blurtd out and asked: "Aren't you afraid of death?"

Chapter 2440

Zara said coldly: "I am mortal, what's the use of being afraid? Will you be able to escape if you are not afraid?"

Tate Landry was silent for a while. Zara was right. In this situation, there is no chance to escape. If you can't drive out, it will be worse if you get out of the car. If the human body is directly run over by a heavy-duty truck, it will basically become jello after every bone is broken!

Zara said at this time: "Don't you have a bomb on your body? Just detonate it! That kind of death can alleviate a bit of pain!"

Tate Landry smiled bitterly, "I don't have any fucking bombs, it's all the fucking fake!"

Speaking, he picked up the detonator, pressed it several times, and said bitterly: "Look, there is no response at all."

Zara did not expect that this Tate Landry was always fake from the beginning to the end. When she thought that she and her mother would be buried in this tunnel because of this person, she felt unwilling to give up. However, at this moment, she also realized that she and her mother had no chance of escaping from this. There was only a window of life for herself, which would have at most dozens of seconds.

At this moment, she could already feel the strong vibrations caused by the two heavy-duty trucks driving at high speed. At this moment, her arms tightly hugged Deana beside her. At the same time, the helicopter that Charlie Wade was riding had already dived and appeared on the other side of the mountain. The helicopter is lowering its altitude over the tunnel entrance at this end, but as it gets closer to the ground, the pilot's descent speed has become more and more cautious.

Just now, seeing that Rolls-Royce enter and two big trucks rushing in, Charlie Wade realized the other party's strategy. The Banks Family must have wanted to create a serious traffic accident and take out Deana, Zara, and Tate Landry all at once. In the tunnel, these three people would never have a chance to escape.

Therefore, Charlie Wade kept urging the pilot: "Go down faster! If it is slow, I am afraid it will be too late to save people!"

The pilot blurted out: "Master! There is a radar at the bottom of the aircraft, which can detect the distance between the fuselage and the ground in real time. Within 20 meters, the descent speed will be forcibly maintained within a safe range. I don't think it will be fast."

Charlie Wade looked at the ground, and the height now looks like a dozen meters, at least five stories high. If you follow this descent speed, you will have to wait at least 20 or 30 seconds to land, so he immediately unfastened his seat belt, opened the hatch, and said to Cameron Isaac: "Take a gun to guard the tunnel entrance, anyone dare comes, fire directly!"

Cameron Isaac hurriedly asked, "Master, are you going to jump?" But Charlie Wade never heard it because he had already jumped out of the the helicopter! For Charlie Wade, although she had never jumped from such a high place, he continued to take a lot of rejuvenation pills to improve his physique, and he also had aura as support. Therefore, he can be sure that with his current physical strength, there will be no problem jumping at such a high level.

Charlie Wade leaped and fell heavily on the ground in the blink of an eye. His legs had withstood a huge impact in an instant. At the moment he landed, he did not dare to have any delay, and quickly rushed toward the tunnel entrance. At this time, just listen to a huge impact suddenly coming from inside! "boom!"

Chapter 2441

At the moment when the impact sound was heard in the tunnel, Charlie Wade could not help but slow for a moment. With such a loud sound, you don't need to look at how big the impact is. Even a Rolls-Royce, I am afraid that it can't hold up such a large force, and the people inside are probably gone! At this moment, Charlie Wade felt very sorry.

Although he has no friendship with Zara, he still has no grudges against her in the end. A young girl in her early twenties was brutally abused by her family in such a cruel way. In addition, Charlie Wade showed more sympathy to Deana. Speaking of it, he had no contact with Deana, unlike Zara, at least he had saved her and her brother's lives in Japan.

However, because Deana has been obsessed with his father for so many years, even this time he caused a murderous disaster because she would not forget his father. Therefore, the image of Deana is a bit more tragic in Charlie Wade's mind. The man she loved did not choose her, and the man she chose had betrayed her for so many years. And she didn't forget that sweetheart who had been dead for many years, and even spent a lot of money to buy back the old house where he once lived.

However, it was precisely because of her behavior that all of this was incurred for her. Therefore, how can he be sympathetic? Charlie Wade couldn't help but feel annoyed in his heart: "I knew this, when I was in the treasure pavilion, I should have started with Tate Landry! In that case, Deana and Zara would not suffer this disaster!"

"But , Having said that, since the Banks Family wants their lives, what if I kill Tate Landry and save them in the Treasure Pavilion? The Banks Family hides behind Tate Landry, but will still find other ways to kill them."

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade couldn't help sighing. It seems that the mother and daughter we bound to have this catastrophe... However, in an instant, Charlie Wade suddenly thought that he still had a few rejuvenation pills on his body! At the beginning, Don Albertt was almost strangled to death by Mr. Jones, a master sent by Donald Webb, and he just saved him with a rejuvenating pill. If Deana and Zara are still alive, they will be saved by this! Thinking of this, Charlie Wade sped up and rushed toward the inside of the tunnel!

...

At this time, Cameron Isaac's Rolls Royce was already sandwiched by four large trucks in front and two behind. Because the inertia of the two large trucks behind was too great, the entire Rolls-Royce engine compartment had completely collided with the cockpit. The trunk was also knocked into the rear seat! The original five-meter-long car body has now been hit by the front and back and is now only half of its length! The visual effects of the scene can be said to be extremely tragic!

In the cockpit, Tate Landry's entire abdomen was squeezed into a pool of rotten meat by the invading engine compartment, and his head was protected by an air bag, so he didn't suffer any serious injuries.

This made him even though he was fatally wounded, but at this time he hadn't immediately died. He just opened his mouth weakly and constantly vomited a lot of blood, looking terrible. The mother and daughter in the rear seat have soft seat double-wraps in the front and rear. The situation is better or less, but the internal injuries are also very serious. In a car accident, the most feared is internal injury.

Chapter 2442

If any internal organs suffer a heavy blow and rupture, it will cause severe internal bleeding. If it's fast, people can die within a few minutes. There is almost no possibility of rescue. At this time, Deana had passed out directly, but Zara was still awake. She felt her chest squeezed tightly by the front and rear seats, and it was almost impossible to see through. At the same time, there was pain everywhere in her body, and she was extremely weak and incomparably in pain. Behind her, there was a sound of opening the door...

The two large trucks that were the main force behind had also been completely destroyed beyond recognition. However, due to the high cockpit of the truck, the driver was not injured. At this time, the two drivers pushed the door, jumped out of the cockpit, and went directly to Rolls-Royce to investigate the situation. In the two trucks used to block the road in front, two drivers also jumped down.

The four of them came to the side of the car and took a look. One of them exclaimed: "Captain, Miss Zara is also in the car!"

"What?! Why is Miss Zara in the car?" The one who was called the captain was John Garrett's most trusted capable man.

John Garrett's father was the personal guard of Lord Banks's. Later, his father got older and was not fit to continue the role of personal guard, so he inherited his father's mantle and became the personal guard of Lord Banks. At the same time, he is also the black glove of Lord Banks. Many dirty and bloody things were done by him personally on behalf of Lord Banks.

This time, he was instigated by Mr. Banks to follow the tragic death of Princess Diana and do the same thing to Deana. So he found Tate Landry who was running around through the channels of the underground world, gave him such a chance, and then tailored a whole set of plans for him.

However, he only ordered that Tate Landry take Deana into the car as a hostage and bring her into this tunnel, but never dreamed that this Tate Landry would actually take the eldest lady Zara into the car!

In shock, he rushed over to check, and he saw Zara also sitting in the back seat! At this time, Zara's face was pale, with almost no blood, which made John Garrett panic. At this time, Zara also recognized John Garrett and knew that this was the personal guard next to his grandfather, so she stared at him with an extremely resentful look. John Garrett could be considered to have rushed over in the strong wind and waves, but at the moment when his eyes met Zara, he suddenly panicked!

He subconsciously dodged Zara's eyes, then rushed to the side of the cab, and yelled hysterically at Tate Landry who was vomiting blood, "Landry! Are you the fucking crazy?! What made you bring Zara in the car too?! What the hell did I tell you?! What did I tell you!!! I told you to take Deana alone! It's one person, not two people! Do you have any brains?!!!"

After speaking, John Garrett suddenly realized something was wrong, so he asked with an angry expression: "Tate Landry, you fucking tell me the truth, who is it that instigated you to Bring Zara in the car too?!"

Tate Landry was already at the end of his life, his eyes widened, his mouth was full of bitterness, and he seemed to be saying something.

John Garrett immediately leaned his head over and shouted sternly: "What the hell are you saying? Louder!"

Tate Landry weakly said in a weak voice: "I..."

"Me? Me what?!" John Garrett lost his patience and scolded, "You fucking said it! What the hell are you with me?!"

Tate Landry was about to continue speaking, but he couldn't draw up one breath, he suddenly coughed violently, and John Garrett's face was sprayed with blood.

John Garrett didn't care to wipe it, grabbed Tate Landry's collar, gritted his teeth and cursed: "You fucking say it!!! Hurry up!!! TELL ME!"

Tate Landry tried his best to get out the words: "Fuck your mother--"

Chapter 2443

Tate Landry at this moment realized that he has been completely fooled by the Banks Familyy. Moreover, he is seriously injured with only the last few minutes left in his life. Therefore, he was naturally full of anger towards John Garrett, the Banks Familyy dog. John Garrett was also shocked and scared right now, he just followed the Lord's instructions, and imitated the the death of Diana, and killed Deana in the same way. Princess Diana also had a car accident in a tunnel, and then died in Paris with her fiance and the child she was carrying. A car accident in the tunnel is indeed a good way to cover up a death, so John Garrett followed the Lord's instructions and lured Landry in a trap.

Unexpectedly, Miss Zara Banks was in the same car with Deana. John Garrett was not a fool. He knew that the grandfather loved Zara the most. The whole Banks Familyy regarded her as the jewel in the family. He saw that Zara was about to die. No matter how he explained to the old man, how he proved his innocence, he would not be able to remove the blame from himself. He knew Lord Banks would be furious, and he didn't want to imagine how he would be punished!

Now, the damn Tate Landry was so disrespectful to him, and he didn't even want to tell the whole story. This made John Garrett angry. He immediately took out his gun and held it to Landry's forehead, and shouted hysterically: "You think you're funny? If you don't tell the truth, I'll send you to your death right now!"

Tate Landry faced the muzzle, his expression was not afraid, he smiled tragically, showing his blood-stained teeth in a cold voice. He said, "Okay, shoot! I am hurting all over my body now, please shoot quickly and put me out of my misery!"

"You--" John Garrett was furious, he put the gun directly into Landry's mouth. He cursed harshly: "Go to hell!" After that, he immediately pulled the trigger. "Boom!" Tate Landry slumped, a cloud of blood mist shooting from the back of his head. He was dead.

At this time, John Garrett saw that Zara in the back row was so weak that she was about to lose consciousness, and hurriedly shouted: "Quick! Save the young lady!" One of them looked at the Rolls Royce which was knocked into a ball of scrap, embarrassingly. "Captain, we don't have the equipment, so we can't open these deformed doors! At the very least, we must have a large hydraulic shear or some Jaws of Life to disassemble the metal frame."

John Garrett blurted out: "I don't care what you do, hurry up and get her out! Otherwise, if you are to blame, one of us will count as all, and all of us will be dead!"

When the others heard this, they were shocked. They rushed forward and tried their best to open the deformed door in order to rescue Zara from the car. However, although these people are all top bodyguards, their true strength is far worse than that of martial arts masters. Compared with Xion who has practiced internal martial arts since childhood, there is a large gap. They tried their very hardest to pull apart the door from the frame but it was no use.

John Garrett had exerted all his strength to get her free, but was he helpless. Zara looked at him and insisted: "Don't save me, save my mother!"

John Garrett's expression suddenly became very embarrassed, and he said, "Miss. I don't have that authority. The only decision I can make now is to rescue you and send you to the hospital as soon as possible."

Zara cried and cried, "You call Lord Banks! You tell him if you can't save my mom, then I will die with her!"

John Garrett said embarrassingly: "Miss, I can't tell the old man, so don't embarrass me. All I can do is save you."

Zara cried loudly and said, "I don't want you to save me! If you want to save me, save my mother first, or let me die with my mother!"

John Garrett's men did not know what to do, one of them asked: "Captain, what shall we do?"

John Garrett gritted his teeth and blurted out: "Don't worry about it, save Miss Zara!"

Zara yelled: "You save my mother first!" With that, she felt a lightness and pain exploded in her head. The next moment, she was unconscious.

At this moment, someone suddenly shouted : "Stop! All of you!"

John Garrett was startled by the shout and jumped back. This tunnel is one-way traffic, and the entrance has been blocked by the car accident. It stands to reason that no one should have come in. An unfamiliar voice suddenly appearing made him nervous. The same goes for the other three people. The four of them walked away from the car at the same time, and they saw a man with a cold expression, walking from the exit of the tunnel. This extraordinary man is Charlie Wade Wade!

John Garrett stared at Charlie Wade, and asked in anger: "Who are you?!"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "Who am I, you are not qualified to ask! I now give you four a chance to survive. Put the guns down, squat on the ground with your head in your hands, and then tell me one by one honestly who made you do this!"

John Garrett gritted his teeth, pointed his gun at Charlie Wade, and said sharply: "Boy, you are looking for death!" After speaking, he immediately pulled the trigger without hesitation!

However, Charlie Wade disappeared from his sight the moment the gun fired. Just as he couldn't figure out his mind what had happened, he suddenly felt a black shadow appear in front of him, and immediately afterwards, his gun hand was firmly grasped by a pair of big hands. His eyes widened subconsciously, before he could see the clear outline of the black shadow, he felt a sudden pain in his wrist. Immediately after, a click, he found that his wrist had been broken! When the wrist broke, the gun also fell directly to the ground. At this time, he saw clearly that he was the young man he had just shot at!

He was shocked immediately, and blurted out: "Who on earth are you?!"

Charlie Wade looked at him contemptuously, and said coldly: "I said, you are not qualified to ask!"

After speaking, he pinched John Garrett on the neck and said coldly: "I'll give you another chance to tell me clearly who hired you!"

John Garrett hurriedly blurted out, "What are you three doing in a daze! Hurry up! Kill him for me!" The other three were originally frightened by Charlie Wade's skill, and didn't dare to act rashly. At this time, listening to John Garrett's roar, they hurriedly took out their guns. However, before they could point their guns at Charlie Wade, Charlie Wade had already picked up John Garrett and threw him at the three. The three of them had no time to react, John Garrett flew into them and they all fell to the ground like bowling pins.

Because Charlie Wade's strength was so great, these four people had suffered huge heavy blows. At this time, they had no ability to resist, they could only lie on the ground and howl in pain. Charlie Wade stepped forward to the four of them, took out his mobile phone, turned on the video recording, took pictures of the surrounding situation first, then pointed the camera at the four of them, and asked in a cold voice: "One more time, what are you doing? Who is behind it!"

Chapter 2445

Charlie Wade is very sure that the four people in front of him must be from the Banks Family. And they were sent by the Banks Family to perform such an important task, enough to show that the four of them must be the confidants of the Banks Family. Therefore, Charlie Wade needs them to tell the whole story in front of the camera, and then make the video public. As a result, the reputation of the Banks Family would be completely ruined.

The Banks Familyy betrayed Xion before. This incident has greatly damaged the reputation of the Banks Familyy. As a result it caused great shame to Zayne, and even further caused him to be pushed out of the family. In addition, it also came as a large blow to the entire Banks Familyy. If something breaks out again that the Banks Familyy still wants to murder their own daughter-in-law, or even murder the Banks Familyy's own flesh and blood, Zara, then the Banks Familyy will definitely become like a rat crossing the street in the eyes of the people.

Aside from other things, fame alone will not be able to stand up in this life. Lord Banks's confidant, John Garrett and others, also knew that this matter was important. The death of a British princess in a car accident has not yet been given any substantive evidence to the people. If there is evidence to confirm what the royal family did, the reputation of the entire royal family will be completely ruined.

Therefore, John Garrett warned himself deep in his heart: "In any case, I can't tell the truth about the whole thing, otherwise, not only will the fame of Mr. Banks be ruined, but I will also become the sinner in the eyes of Mr. Banks."

Thinking of this, John Garrett Hurriedly said: "No, you misunderstand us. We were planning to save them."

Charlie Wade rushed forward, grabbed John Garrett by the collar, and said coldly, "If you continue to tell nonsense, then I will take you to the dog kennel and chop you up bit by bit to feed the dogs. Or simply tie up your hands and feet and throw you directly into the dog cage. The dogs can eat for three days and three nights on you."

John Garrett was frightened and numb all over his body, even directly from his scalp to his toes. Although he didn't even know who the young man in front of him was, he didn't doubt what the young man said. From this young man's eyes alone, he can see his determination!

At this time, Charlie Wade continued: "Don't worry, even if you want to die faster, I won't give you a chance! I'll put an iron cage on your head first to protect your head. Then use a bulletproof vest to protect your entire abdomen, so that you will not die so easily."

"You," John Garrett shuddered, blurting out: "Who are you? We have no grudges against you. Why do you want to treat us this way?"

"You have no grievances with me?" Charlie Wade sneered: "What did you plan to do in Aourouss Hilll? Murdering others is cruel and despicable, and everyone is punishable, I should kill you.

"We are acting on behalf of the sky !" John Garrett said with a strong momentum, and said coldly: "Boy, you must first weigh your own abilities. Do you know who we are doing this for? If you annoy the boss behind us, it's going to take a whole lot more than you to fight them!"

Charlie Wade sneered, grabbed John Garrett's neck, and slapped with all his strength! This slap was so powerful that it beat his entire jaw into a comminuted fracture. Almost all the teeth in his mouth were directly broken by the sheer force!

John Garrett has been fighting in society for so many years, and he has not been beaten much, but he has never suffered such a terrible slap in the face. At this moment, he only felt that his mouth was completely painful to the point of numbness. At the end of the pain, he didn't feel the pain at all. He could only feel that body was already in shock, and his whole mouth was full of big and small hard particles. And his mouth was full of warm sweet smell, and there seemed to be dozens of bleeding wounds in his mouth so that the blood instantly filled his mouth.

Chapter 2446

Immediately afterwards, John Garrett spit out his mouth full of blood mixed with dozens of broken teeth. The other three men were stunned. They didn't quite understand why the young man in front of them was suddenly angry. Is it because the captain John Garrett's words are too pretending? John Garrett was also directly confused. Seeing that his mouth was full of broken teeth, he was already on the verge of collapse, and he cried vaguely: "You, you, you are looking for me, I am the Eastcliff-"

Charlie Wade sneered. Interrupted him: "I know what you want to say, aren't you from the Eastcliff Banks Familyy? Are you talking about this with me here, do you really think I will be afraid of the Banks Familyy behind you?"

John Garrett looked shocked. He said: "The strength of the Banks Familyy is the first in the country. Why are you not afraid?!"

Charlie Wade laughed and said contemptuously: "Fear? To tell you the truth, I and the entire Banks Familyy have a feud, even if Lord Banks was in front of me, I would slap all his teeth out of his mouth like I did to you!"

Charlie Wade said again: "Since you are a dog of the Banks Familyy, killing a few dog things like you can temporarily relieve the hatred in my heart!"

John Garrett was extremely desperate when he heard this, and thought to himself: "This guy, this guy, has some major antagonism with the Banks Familyy."

At this time, Charlie Wade raised his volume a little, and said coldly, "I will ask you again, do you want to say or not?"

John Garrett gritted his teeth and blurted out: "If I say, I'm dead, if I don't, still dead. If I say it, the boss will not let my family go, so you should kill me!"

Charlie Wade laughed Smiled: "I said, I won't let you die so easily. I will send you to the dog kennel and let you die slowly."

At this moment, Cameron Isaac ran in with two of his men. He was a little relieved to see that Charlie Wade had taken control of the situation. However, as soon as he saw the Rolls Royce that had been hit by the trucks, he couldn't help but pull back. He raised his hand and asked, "Master Wade, how is everyone?"

Charlie Wade said calmly, "Tate Landry is dead. Deana and Zara were seriously injured and unconscious, but they will not die for a while."

When Charlie Wade came in, he had already used aura to investigate the injuries of Deana and Zara.

Both of them are seriously injured. For the doctor, they should have lost the value and opportunity of treatment. They can survive for an hour at most, but they will die. However, to Charlie Wade, their injuries were not incurable. After dealing with the four people in front of them, giving half a rejuvenation pill for each of them, mother and daughter, would surely save them. Cameron Isaac heard Charlie Wade say that the two of them won't die in a while, knowing that Charlie Wade must have a way to save them, so he was relieved.

He checked the time and said, "Master Wade, we have to hurry up. I heard that the people from the high-speed wrecking team have started to clear the obstacles at the tunnel entrance at the back."

Charlie Wade nodded and said: "I know, I can solve it all in ten minutes."

Then he asked Cameron Isaac: "By the way, Cameron Isaac, can you tell me this? How many African hyenas can you get?"

"Huh?" Cameron Isaac was stunned, and blurted out: "African hyenas? What kind of African hyenas?"

Charlie Wade looked at the four of them, John Garrett, and said coldly: "That's the kind of The African hyenas that live in groups on the prairie and like to use their anus secretion on their prey when hunting!"

Cameron Isaac took a deep breath and blurted out, "Master Wade, why are you looking for that kind of dog?"

Charlie Wade stared at John Garrett and sneered: "I want to add a new breed to Don Albertt's kennel. He is full of ordinary dogs fighting, not very good. If you raise a group of African hyenas who like to use their anus when hunting, they must very interesting!"

Chapter 2447

As soon as Charlie Wade said these words, John Garrett and others started visibly trembling! They didn't understand why the man in front of him was so vicious and wanted to torture them with African hyenas. Is he even still a human? How can he be so cruel?

As a result, one of them couldn't hold it anymore, and cried and said, "I'll talk! I'll tell you everything!"

It didn't matter what he said, and the other two people around him also hurriedly said: "I will tell too!"

Charlie Wade was satisfied and nodded: "Okay, the three of you are smart. I will give you time to talk in just a moment."

After finishing speaking, he looked at John Garrett and sneered: "It seems that your bones are very hard. I don't know if African hyenas can chew them or not."

Charlie Wade laughed at himself as soon as the voice fell. "Look at my memory. I forgot that African hyenas don't like to chew bones. They like to find a weakness from their prey and exploit it. Then they attack that weak point with their teeth, and then it will be up to you whether you can survive or not."

John Garrett's face was already pale as paper, and he hurriedly cried and said, "I'll talk! I'll talk! Please just show mercy!"

Charlie Wade just sneered, clicked on the phone's video recording, re-recorded a new video, and said, "Come on, let's introduce yourself first, and then elaborate on who instructed you to do this."

John Garrett clenching and enduring the pain started talking: "I am John Garret. I serve the Eastcliff Banks Familyy. I am Lord Banks personal bodyguard captain, and have been at Lord Banks side for nearly two decades. Lord Banks personally dictated that I come to Aurouss Hilll to assassinate Lord Banks's eldest daughter-in-law, that is, Zayne's wife, Deana."

Charlie Wade asked again, "That old dog Lord Banks. Why did he want to assassinate Deana?"

Questions race through John Garrett's mind: "What is the background of this guy, this guy doesn't count Lord Banks as anyone in his eyes at all, and also openly said that he is an old dog, is this guy really not afraid of death?" However, doubts have all been crushed, John Garrett now dare not have any disobedience to Charlie Wade. Therefore, he could only vainly said: "This is because Lord Banks is very dissatisfied with Deana. He feels that Deana is going to divorce Zayne at this time. It was originally because of the infidelity."

"What makes it unacceptable to him is that at this time, Deana came to Aurouss Hillll to cherish the memory of Bruce of the Wade family, and even publicly participated in the auction to bid for the old house where Bruce Wade lived. Lord Banks felt that Deana had seriously damaged the reputation of the Banks Familyy, leaving the Banks Familyy faceless. This made him feel ashamed, so the idea of cleaning up the mess came up."

Charlie Wade asked again, "How did Lord Banks plan the whole thing?"

John Garrett said hurriedly: "Lord Banks wanted to follow the example of the British royal family in assassinating the famous princess Diana. That is, by causing a car accident to kill Deana. So I found Tate Landry, let Tate Landry play a scene that was hunted down, and then took the opportunity to hold Deana, and then Lord Banks asked me to plan a car accident in the tunnel, and directly kill Tate Landry and Deana. "

Charlie Wade sneered: "Oh? So, in order to kill Deana, this old dog, Lord Banks, deliberately ordered Tate Landry to strap up explosives and hold hundreds of people hostage?!"

Chapter 2448

Speaking of this, Charlie Wade's voice suddenly increased a bit, and he scolded: "Such an old dog is not a human. For his own benefit, for the little trouble in his own family, he wants to create such a horrific incident?! He doesn't take social security and the safety of people's lives and property seriously?!"

When Charlie Wade said this, John Garrett was immediately frightened.

"What is this guy doing?! Is he going to offend the Banks Family?! He is now putting such a hat on Lord Banks, once this video is posted, then Lord Banks will definitely become hated by the people across the country! At that time, above. The people of the Banks Family will also be held accountable, and may even be severely punished. It is very likely that the Banks Family will suffer a heavy blow and vitality because of this incident!"

John Garrett shivered at the thought of this and said: "This... this... I can't say that I'm just a person who executes orders, and I shouldn't guess what the Lord Banks means"

John Garrett can only say that. He didn't dare to blame Lord Banks for Charlie Wade. But he didn't dare to excuse Lord Banks in front of Charlie Wade. Therefore, I can only answer in this seemingly neutral way, but actually throwing the pot away from myself.

Charlie Wade sneered: "Thanks to this, I believe that after the people across the country know the truth, they will have a clear judgment in their hearts! It is a clear fact that Tate Landry rushed into the treasure pavilion with explosives today. No one May excuse the old dog Lord Banks!" After that, he said coldly: "This old dog Lord Banks is simply a wicked animal! He had murdered his own granddaughter, Zayne's illegitimate daughter Xion, and then let Zayne take the blame for him in a shameless manner, and now he wants to murder Zayne's wife, it is simply a repeat of the old trick! I believe that the broad masses of the people should be able to see the ugly face of this man through Lord Banks's deliberate plan to kill Deana! At the same time, he must clear his grievances for Zayne. This son is really miserable. His father killed his own illegitimate daughter, now he is going to kill his own wife!"

At this point, Charlie Wade turned around and said coldly: "Actually, this beastly behavior done by Lord Banks is far worse than this!"

As soon as the voice fell, Charlie Wade immediately turned and approached Rolls Royce with the camera. He took video of Deana and Zara who were seriously injured and unconscious, and said coldly: "This old dog, Lord Banks, for his face, even knowing that his granddaughter Zara was in the same car with Deana, still did not hold back, and even asked his subordinates to kill Zara and Deana together! Such an old beast is really a scum that should be punished!"

John Garrett blurted out in shock when he heard this, "No! It's not like that! Master, master, he didn't know that Zara was also in the car!"

Charlie Wade paused the camera directly and walked towards him, he slapped him: "Shut up! You still want to defend that old dog and justify his actions?!"

John Garrett said desperately, "I'm not justifying, I'm telling the truth. Master, he really didn't want to hurt the eldest lady, it was Tate Landry! It was Tate Landry who took the eldest lady into the car without authorization!"

Charlie Wade sneered, "I don't care about this. Lord Banks, an old dog, doesn't like to detain other people. Today I want to let him feel the feeling of being held down by someone else."

Chapter 2449

John Garrett almost collapsed. He didn't expect Charlie Wade to be so ruthless. He wanted to use this matter to directly ruin the reputation of Lord Banks and the entire Banks Family. He can already foresee how passive the Banks Family will be once this incident is exposed! This may be a huge catastrophe that the Banks Family has not encountered in decades!

He subconsciously said: "You can't reverse right and wrong like this."

Charlie Wade sneered: "Are you still worrying about your master now? Don't worry, I will delete the content of your excuse for Lord Banks. Then publish the video, and then, the reputation of the Banks Family will fall into the cesspool of scum. Among them, you also have a credit."

John Garrett suddenly became ashamed. Charlie Wade ignored him, and instead said to Cameron Isaac, "Send these four guys secretly to Don Albertt's kennel for strict supervision."

Cameron Isaac nodded immediately: "Okay, Master Wade, I will make an urgent call again. Two helicopters will come over, and they will be here soon."

Charlie Wade hummed and said: "Also tell Don Albertt. Later, I will pay him 30 million in cash. This money will be kept. For him to renovate the entire kennel, not only must the scale of the kennel be expanded, the internal facilities must be strengthened and upgraded, and more importantly, a complete underground kennel must be built in the ground of the kennel. It's time to expand the scale and upgrade the industry!"

Cameron Isaac couldn't help laughing. He understood what Charlie Wade meant. He said it was to upgrade the kennel. In fact, the main reason was that Charlie Wade sent too many people inside. If you don't upgrade, there will be more people in the kennel than dogs.

So he immediately said: "Good young master, I know, I will explain to Don Albertt later."

At this time, another eight men in black with guns and live ammunition rushed in, came to Cameron Isaac, and said respectfully: "Mr. Cameron!"

Cameron Isaac nodded, and hurriedly told them: "You, connect these four guys together. Take them out, and send them to Don Albertt's kennel!"

"Yes!" Several people responded, and immediately tied John Garrett and other four people and took them out.

Except Cameron Isaac, everyone else left the tunnel. Charlie Wade had already approached the Rolls-Royce car at this time. Seeing Zara and Deana who were in a coma due to serious injuries in the car, he sighed helplessly. When Cameron Isaac heard him sigh, he hurriedly stepped forward and asked, "Master, are you sighing because the two of them are not able to be saved?"

Charlie Wade shook his head: "I sighed because they will still be saved."

Cameron Isaac asked inexplicably: "Master, since they will be saved, why do you still sigh?"

Charlie Wade sighed, "Hey, I sighed because I didn't want to save Zara again. This is the second time I saved her life."

After speaking, Charlie Wade said again: "I saved her twice, saved her brother once, saved her half-sister once, Zayne that bastard, there are three children in total, three children. I fucking saved four times, what the hell is this?"

Cameron Isaac said helplessly: "Master, I believe you must also think that this crime of the Banks' is on the children, although the older generation of the Banks Family is scum. Zara is indeed different from them."

Charlie Wade shook his head: "I actually have no contact with her, and I don't know much about her. Is she the same as Lord Banks and Zayne? I have no idea at all."

Cameron Isaac is serious. Said: "Master, Zara has a good reputation in Eastcliff, talented and extremely studious, and she is humble, never puts on the airs of a rich second generation, and never uses the status of her parents and grandparents. If you save her, you should not be wrong."

Charlie Wade nodded: "I hope so." With that, he took out a rejuvenating pill from his pocket, divided it into two, and stuffed it into the mouth of the mother and daughter. The mother and daughter were already about to die, but as half of the rejuvenating pills were taken in, their bodies immediately began to recover quickly. Charlie Wade felt that the aura of the two became stronger and stronger, and he was also relieved.

Chapter 2450

At this time, Cameron Isaac on the side asked: "Master, what should we do? Should we leave after they recover, or..." Charlie Wade waved his hand: "If you let them go from here safe and sound Leaving and directly entering the public's field of vision, the video I just made is meaningless. As long as people are seen as alive, they are not dead, and there is nothing serious about the situation. In the eyes of most people the Banks Familyy will not be that evil. The people must think that Lord Banks actually killed his own daughter-in-law and granddaughter!"

After that, Charlie Wade said again: "Let's take them to your hotel and put them under house arrest. Just like Xion, take good care of them, but never allow them to contact the outside world or leave the room for half a step!"

"Good!" Cameron Isaac nodded and asked, "Now how do you get them out?"

Charlie Wade didn't say a word. He leaned down and squeezed the backrests of the front and rear seats that were pressing the mother and daughter with both hands. They immediately broke apart. As soon as Cameron Isaac came up, he was shocked, and then he came back to his senses. He laughed at himself: "It's really rare and weird. When the young master was in Golim Mountain, he led the sky to thunder and annihilated the eight kings of the Webb family. I shouldn't be surprised at his!"

Just when Cameron Isaac laughed at herself, Charlie Wade had already pushed away the seats that the mother and daughter were squeezing between. Afterwards, he first took Deana out and carefully placed her on the ground by the tunnel, and then returned to take Zara out.

At this time, Zara was in a very chaotic state. In this chaos, her brain is still functioning normally, but it is almost disconnected from the outside world. Her world is already in darkness, only thinking is left. And her whole person's thinking has also been completely immersed in her own consciousness. She vaguely remembered that just before she fell into a coma, she heard someone talking, and it seemed that someone else appeared here. Moreover, she felt that the voice seemed familiar.

"That voice seems to be exactly the same as the voice I heard when my brother and I were kidnapped in Japan and were about to be killed! The owner of that voice is the benefactor I have been searching for! However, before I closed my eyes, my consciousness was blurred, and I couldn't determine if I had auditory hallucinations. After all, my benefactor's voice circulates in my mind every day, and hearing hallucinations in an emergency is normal. Now think about what the master grandfather Thorne had said. It's really accurate. He said that my benefactor's fate is deadly and I shouldn't continue to look for my benefactor. It wasn't just talk. I'm about to die in Aurouss Hilll, but I still haven't had a chance to find my benefactor. Thinking about it now, I'm really unwilling to die here so fruitlessly."

Just in Zara's mind, when she felt unwilling to die soon, she suddenly felt that her body seemed to have some feeling. Immediately afterwards, she felt that someone put her hands under her armpits, pulling her body up. At this moment, she felt panicked and uneasy, because she didn't know what was going on, and she couldn't tell whether the feeling was real or illusory. She even felt that this might be her soul, trying to leave her body. At this moment, she tried her best to open her eyes, and after several attempts, she finally noticed a ray of light in the endless darkness! Vaguely, she saw a man's face! She was surprised and happy in her heart, and concentrated all her strength on her eyelids, and worked hard to open her eyes. In the next second, a face of longing and thinking suddenly appeared in her eyes! At this moment, Zara couldn't help exclaiming in her heart: "It's him! It's really him!"

Chapter 2451

At this moment, Zara didn't know whether she was in reality, in a dream, or a wishful thinking because she was about to die. However, she saw Charlie Wade's face clearly.

"This is the benefactor who once rescued her and her brother from the hands of a group of Japanese ninjas like a god! This is the benefactor who scolded me for being superficial and obstructive on the streets of Tokyo! "

Thinking of this, Zara subconsciously raised her hand regardless of whether everything in front of him was a dream or not.

When Zara's somewhat cold fingertips touched Charlie Wade for a moment, she couldn't help exclaiming: "Okay... so real..."

Charlie Wade was about to put her away. At Deana's side, Zara unexpectedly woke up unexpectedly, which caught him by surprise.

At this time, Zara exclaimed excitedly: "My benefactor, it's really you!?!"

Charlie Wade frowned slightly: "No! You are dreaming! Go to sleep!"

After speaking, he reached out to her. A light touch on her forehead. A little reiki penetrated into Zara's brain, making her fall asleep instantly. Charlie Wade looked at Zara who was sleeping, and could not help feel annoyed: "Why does this woman wake up so soon."

In order to avoid unnecessary trouble, he tapped Deana's forehead lightly to make sure she would not wake up in a short time. As soon as Charlie Wade finished this, loud noises came from the other end of the tunnel.

Cameron Isaac hurriedly said: "Master, the tunnel entrance should have already started to clear the obstacles, let's evacuate."

Charlie Wade nodded, after putting Zara down first, he again picked her up and carried her on his left shoulder with one hand. In the other hand he picked up the unconscious Deana and carried her on his right shoulder, and then said to Cameron Isaac, "Go!"

At this time, at the other end of the tunnel, a helicopter had carried Lord Banks's four men down to Don Albertt's kennel, and two other helicopters remained at the scene, one parked on the high-speed road, the other hovered in mid-air on alert.

Charlie Wade quickly put the mother and daughter into the helicopter, and then stepped up with Cameron Isaac. Cameron Isaac got directly into the co-pilot seat of the cockpit and said to the pilot: "Go! Back to the hotel!"

The pilot immediately pulled the plane up in place and flew to Aurouss Hilll City at the fastest speed. During the flight, Cameron Isaac had called the hotel staff to inform the hotel staff. Originally, Xion and a few crew members who betrayed the Banks Family lived on an isolated executive floor. There were still a lot of rooms on this floor. People immediately prepared the largest executive suite for Deana and Zara's mother and daughter.

Twenty minutes later, the helicopter landed on the helipad on the top floor of the Shangri-La. At this time, the entire top level has been completely cleared. From the top level to the closed and isolated administrative level, apart from Cameron Isaac's most trusted subordinates, there is not even a single service staff. Charlie Wade carried the mother and daughter on his shoulders and sent them directly to the room that Cameron Isaac had arranged.

After setting up the mother and daughter, Charlie Wade checked the time and said to Cameron Isaac: "I guess, after 8 o'clock in the evening, the two of them should wake up. First, arrange a few trustworthy female employees to greet at them. "

Cameron Isaac immediately nodded and said: "Good master, don't worry, I will make arrangements."

At this moment, Charlie Wade's mobile phone suddenly received a message with a few lines of big words: "A major occurrence in the Forbidden Mountain Tunnel Car accident! The scene was terrible! A-level wanted criminal Tate Landry was killed! The two hostages were missing!"
Chapter 2452

He quickly opened this post and found that it was the first-hand live information released by the local media of Aurouss Hilll. On the other side of the tunnel, one of the lanes had been cleared by the obstacle removal work. The police immediately entered the scene and found the scene of the Rolls-Royce car accident. Immediately afterwards, they also found Tate Landry who was shot through the back of the head. This made them numb for a while! They thought that Tate Landry was only in a car accident, but they did not expect that Tate Landry would be shot to death!

This immediately made things more complicated. Why was Tate Landry shot? Who would shoot him? What made them even more incomprehensible was that the two hostages disappeared out of thin air! The report also detailed the disappearance of the hostages. According to the report, the police found the blood and hair of two hostages in the back of the deformed Rolls Royce, and even Zara's shoes were missing. Only in the car, from the vehicle, we found valid evidence that the hostage was in the car at the time of the collision.

It can be proved that when the car accident happened, the two hostages were in this Rolls Royce like Tate Landry. However, the two hostages disappeared out of thin air! Judging from the strength of the vehicle impact, even if the two were not dead, they must have been seriously injured. How could they disappear out of thin air?

Originally, the news that Tate Landry appeared in Aurouss Hilll and took hostages with explosives and escaped has already aroused great attention across the country. Therefore, when this news was issued locally in Aurouss Hilll, it immediately spread across the country! The local news that was just released was quickly reprinted and released by major domestic news media. The number of commenters rapidly increased, and the popularity of TikTok searches quickly became the first! Suddenly, people across the country began to pay close attention to where the two hostages had gone.

Seeing that this incident has caused such great concern across the country, Charlie Wade immediately said to Cameron Isaac: "Isaac, you first go to the news, and spread the true identities of Deana and Zara throughout the network. You must let the people know that it is the Banks Familyy's daughter-in-law and granddaughter who were kidnapped!"

Cameron Isaac asked hurriedly, "Master, do you want to publish the video you shot at the same time? In that case, the Banks Familyy will be finished!"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "Let's not post it. The video in my hand is a real killer. It's a bit too early to use now!"

After that, Charlie Wade sneered and continued: "I want to let the influence of this matter ferment first. Ultimately, the disappearance of Deana and Zara has become a suspenseful event of national concern, sparking wild speculation and discussion among people, and making everyone desperately eager to uncover the mystery. Then I will publish the video and directly send the Banks Familyy Into the grave!"

Then, Charlie Wade immediately ordered: "Isaac, you can find me a batch of journalist with big brains, let them stir the pot! Let them guess Deana and Zara's whereabouts, and stir the conspiracy behind the whole thing! Have them say that the Banks Familyy's competitors must be dealing with this thing! Others can boldly guess that this mother and daughter were saved by an expert! Someone can even predict that the mother and daughter must have died, and the body may be discovered soon! Then, in these speculations, the truth is mixed in! Let some of them speculate that the two mother and daughter were in fact killed by the Banks Familyy! Once this matter becomes a mystery that plagues everyone, then I publish the answer, the Banks Familyy won't even think about turning over again!"

At the same time, Eastcliff Banks Familyy.

Lord Banks took the phone, resisted the urge to throw the phone, read the news content, and then scolded furiously: "Damn! What the hell is going to do with this damn John Garrett! Why was Zara in the car?! Where are Deana and Zara now?! Where are John Garrett and the others ?!"

James was already scared out of his mind, but he still pretended to be calm and said: "Dad, now John Garrett is completely out of contact. Sister-in-law and Zara are missing, alive or dead, we don't know. Do you think someone is deliberately opposing our Family?!"

Lord Banks only wanted Deana's life. It was James who made people find Tate Landry in order to prevent future troubles. His family added 20 million to have Tate Landry kill Zara. Now that the incident happened, but Zara's whereabouts were still missing. If this really leaks out the wind, his achievements will be over. Therefore, he could only deliberately divert the topic and draw the attention of Lord Banks to the opposite of the entire Banks Familyy.

Lord Banks said with a dark old face at this time: "I can't say that this is a problem. Now that people are missing, there is no valuable clue at all. I don't know what's going on, it is a bit weird! Very weird! I, Lord Banks, have been in the rivers and lakes for dozens of years, and I have never encountered such a weird thing!"

He said, he said coldly: "I have a lot of problems now that I don't understand. For example, why was Zara in the car? That Tate Landry was shot by John Garrett. The task I gave to John Garrett was very clear. I told him a long time ago that the target was Deana. Not Zara, not Fitz. If they went to the auction site, don't hurt them. It's good for Fitz to say that he flew back to Eastcliff ahead of time, and didn't go to the scene at all, but why did Zara get in the car? This obviously violates my command!"

James hurriedly said: "Dad, could it be Tate Landry who did it?"

"Impossible!" Lord Banks said firmly: "I understand this person's situation. Cruelty is one aspect, and he does things cleanly. And every case he has done before has excellent pre-planning, and he is unswervingly acting in accordance with the plan, and never doing anything accidental! This is why he has been wanted, but also has not caught. The hunt causes such a person to do things, to calculate everything. He would not make a decision without authorization. He knew not to bring Zara in the car."

The old man Banks' expression froze, and he sternly shouted: "Someone else instructed him to do this!"

James couldn't help but shiver as he said this, and quickly said: "Dad, since Tate Landry has been connecting with John Garrett. He was in charge of this matter, and he has disappeared now. I suspect that he was probably bought by our competitors and secret enemies!"

After that, James immediately observed the changes in Lord Banks's expression. His trick was to focus on John Garrett's disappearance. "Anyway, this John Garrett didn't do things well, he was already unfavorable, and coupled with his disappearance for no reason and unknown whereabouts, the old man must be very dissatisfied with him. At this time, throwing the pot to him is definitely the best solution! Besides, who knows if this John Garrett is still alive? It would be better if he died, throwing all the pots to him, and he has no chance to explain!"

Chapter 2454

Mr. Banks shook his head slightly and said indifferently: "John Garrett has not been perfect, but I still have no doubt about his loyalty."

James hurriedly added fuel and jealousy: "Dad! As the saying goes, knowing people does not know their heart! You have always valued John Garrett, but who knows whether John Garrett will betray you under the lure of others' interests? "

Old man Banks snorted, "James, You can't even see through such a basic question? It really disappoints me!"

"Ah?" James didn't know why the old man said this suddenly, and said nervously, "Dad, forgive me for being stupid, please? You make it clear."

Lord Banks asked coldly: "If someone can buy John Garrett to deal with the Banks Family, then why should he let John Garrett deal with Zara? Is John Garrett my personal guard or the captain of the guard! If they can totally buy John Garrett, why not come and kill me? Even if you can't kill me, it can at least create a big threat to me. Why spend so much effort on a girl who is inconsequential?"

James understood instantly, and the cold sweat immediately wetted his back. He thought to himself: "I didn't expect that the old man is so difficult to fool. It seems that he can no longer forcefully shake the pot to John Garrett, otherwise the old man will definitely notice the abnormality!" Thinking of this, James immediately changed his face and said in agreement: "Dad, that does make a lot of sense. It seems that John Garrett would not have betrayed you, but since he has not betrayed you, and his whereabouts are unknown now, this proves that the person who secretly manages things has much strength. We must be cautious!"

Lord Banks rubbed his temples: "I have not yet considered the master behind this. I still have many other questions that I can't figure out. I can't figure out why Tate Landry was shot. Judging from the pictures on the scene, the car crash was severe, Tate Landry would definitely die no matter what happened, why would someone have him shot? Why did they need to shoot him?"

James also looked puzzled and said: "You're right. It is obvious that Tate Landry's abdomen and lower body are smashed and mangled. There is no need to shoot him. He would die shortly anyway."

Lord Banks frowned and muttered: "Let me think about it since the accident happened as scheduled, it proves that everything is still going according to plan until the crash. In other words, when the crash happened, John Garrett was sure to be at the scene."

The old man repeated it in his mind a little bit: "Since John Garrett is at the scene, how would he react when he saw Zara sitting in Tate Landry's car?"

James could only follow along. The old man said: "If John Garrett didn't betray you, then he would be very shocked when he saw Zara."

"Yes!" Lord Banks nodded, "John Garrett found that Tate Landry got Zara in the car. Shocked, angry, and even scared." At this point," Lord Banks continued: "In this case, John Garrett and Tate Landry will definitely have a conflict. He will definitely question Tate Landry, who instructed him to hurt Zara."

James heard These words and was immediately shocked! "According to the old man's analysis, then John Garrett may have extracted the key information from Tate Landry. Although I didn't contact Tate Landry directly, I still let people contact Tate Landry's family, and tell him the Banks Familyy wanted to kill one more. Let him take care of the girl Zara. If the old man knows this information, he must know that the person who wants to harm her is the Banks Familyy. At that time, I will be the biggest suspect "

Thinking of this, James hurriedly said: "Dad! I think some people have begun to suspect that our Banks Familyy is behind this. Now our top priority is to quickly do crisis public relations!"

Lord Banks nodded slightly and blurted out: "Immediately conduct crisis public relations, and at the same time, through the media, strongly condemn criminals like Tate Landry, and at the same time, offer a reward of 50 million for valuable clues! Whoever finds this mother and daughter, I will reward one hundred million!"

Chapter 2455

To Lord Banks, an old fox who is so scheming, calling a thief to catch a thief is just a very common trick. The reason for issuing condemnation and offering rewards is actually to divert the public's attention to the greatest extent. In Lord Banks's view, most of the people are clueless. In fact, they do not have too strong ability to distinguish right from wrong. They just rely on the amount of information they receive to vaguely judge whether something is right or wrong, true or false. If they listen to more positive opinions, they will also feel that the result is positive; but if they listen to more negative opinions, then they will naturally feel that the negative is right.

There are so many people on the Internet now making various guesses. Everyone has a mouth, and everyone has a pair of hands. They can say anything and make all kinds of guesses on the Internet. No matter how strong the Banks Familyy is, it is impossible to affect everyone. So what the Banks Familyy has to do now is to do everything possible to post more comments that are beneficial to the Banks Familyy. As long as there are enough speeches favorable to the Banks Familyy, it will naturally be able to overwhelm those unfavorable speeches and speculations against the Banks Familyy.

It's like scolding someone on the street. If 10 people scold you, you can't scold you more than ten with one mouth. But if you can find 10,000 people to help you curse, the curses of the 10 people on the opposite side will soon be completely drowned out.

James heard the old man's order, and immediately said without hesitation: "Good dad! I will find some media reporters who have a better relationship, as well as Internet veterans, and let them help us to speak up!"

Lord Banks lightly nodded. Now, he can't think of any other better way. Afterwards, he hurriedly said to James: "There is one more thing I want you to do right away!"

James hurriedly said, "Dad, don't hesitate to tell me anything!"

Lord Banks said coldly, "If Zara and Deana have encountered an accident, then the person who took them away will definitely not be able to run very far with the corpses. I chose to find a way to discard them in Aurouss Hilll and surrounding areas; If Zara and Deana are still alive, then judging from the photos on the scene, the two of them must be seriously injured now! Such a serious injury is definitely not a small clinic or a street doctor. If the hospital can solve it, the other party will definitely send them to a regular tertiary hospital, and if they are seriously injured, it is impossible to go far for treatment, so you immediately send someone to Aurouss Hilll, in and around Aurouss Hilll. Do a deep search, especially in the regular hospitals in Aurouss Hilll. I want to see people alive and dead!"

James nodded quickly and said, "Then I will make arrangements!"

Lord Banks waved his hand: "Don't just arrange, you have to go personally! If any of this gets leaked the wind, for us it will be a critical blow, so it must not be taken lightly."

James nodded: "I'll arrange the jet and fly directly to Aurouss Hilll."

At that time, there was a loud noise outside the door of Old Man Banks' study.

Fitz yelled eagerly at the door: "Don't stop me, I want to see Grandpa!"

The butler of the Banks Familyy said bitterly, "Master, the master is talking about important matters with the second master. He has already ordered me, no one can go in."

"No!" Fitz said with a trembling voice: "My mother and sister are missing, I need to ask my grandfather for more information!"

Chapter 2456

The butler had to plead: "Young master, please calm down first, wait a moment, and after the master has finished talking with the second master, I will go in and report!"

Fitz shouted: " No! I can't wait! I'm going in now. If you stop me again, then I will dismiss you from service!"

The housekeeper was not sure what to do, so Lord Banks said to James with a dark face: "James, you go and bring Fitz in."

"Okay!" James hurriedly turned and left the study, and said to the butler: "Master said, let Fitz in."

The butler was relieved and quickly gave up. Fitz took a step and rushed into the study. As soon as he came in, he questioned Lord Banks a little eagerly: "Grandpa! Where are my mother and my sister?!"

Lord Banks said seriously: "This is knowledge I do not yet have. We don't know where your mother and your sister are now, I don't know anything now. Just before you came in, I just told your second uncle that he should give a reward to the outside world immediately. 50 million to collect useful clues. If anyone can save your mother or your sister, I will directly give 100 million."

Fitz clenched his fist and asked angrily: "Many people on the Internet now say that it is you who wants to kill my mother, is it true?!"

Lord Banks's face changed suddenly, and he sternly said: "Damn! What are you talking about? I am the head of the Banks Family. Would I do such shameful things?"

James, seeing that he was filled with indignation, sounded dignified appearance, his heart aghast! He thought, "The old man is indeed an expert, and he can speak so righteously when he speaks nonsense with his eyes open! If I didn't know everything, I thought he really couldn't do such a thing.

Fitz said aggressively at this time: "If it were put before, I would definitely not believe it! But the betrayal of Xion happened some time ago. Although the outside world now thinks it was my father who did it, I thought about it. I can't understand it. No matter how bad he is, he is not so bad that he wants to murder his own daughter! So, he is really doing it for you!"

When it comes to this, Fitz gritted his teeth and said: "Xion is your granddaughter. If you could do it to her you could do it to anyone, let alone my mother!"

When Lord Banks heard this, his whole expression was furious! He angrily grabbed an embossed dragon-print inkstone on the desk worth over ten million, and slammed it to the ground with a snap, and the falling powder shattered.

At the same time, he pointed at Fitz and roared in anger: "Unreasonable! Unreasonable! Am I still your grandfather in your eyes? Am I still the head of the family in your eyes?"

Fitz did not flinch. Angrily said: "If my mother and sister are really harmed by you, I will not only deny you grandpa, but I will fight you hard!"

Lord Banks was very angry, pointed at James, and shouted: "James! You heard him! Silence him!"

James immediately stepped forward, grabbed Fitz by the collar, and gritted his teeth and cursed: "You are an inexperienced son! Your father is not here, I am an uncle, so I will teach you a lesson!"

Fitz gritted his teeth and pushed James away. Then he immediately stepped back and retreated to the door of the study, pointing at Mr. Banks, shouting word by word: "You remember what I said! If you killed my mother and my sister, I will kill you!" After speaking, he immediately turned around and ran away!

Lord Banks was holding his chest in resentment, trying to speak, but because he couldn't get up with a single breath, he coughed several times: "Just like his mother he is born to be rebellious!"

Then, after another violent cough, he immediately said to James: "Go! Go! Get this bastard back to me!"

Chapter 2457

When James rushed out, Fitz was no longer visible. He chased out for a hundred or two hundred meters, seeing that he had no chance to chase this big nephew back, so he could only turn around and walk back. On the way back to the old man's study, James was in a particularly good mood, and he couldn't help but secretly thought: "Oh, I'm really lucky, I'm worried about how to divert the old man's attention, Fitz is a coincidence. It's a coincidence that I came to touch the old man's mold at this time and made the old man angry like this. It is estimated that the old man is only thinking about how to teach him well."

James was proud of his heart. After returning to the old man's study, he said with a look of shame: "Dad, I know that boy, he runs faster than a dog, I can't even get out..."

Lord Banks yelled, "You are also a trash!"

After speaking, he immediately called the housekeeper. Entering, he sternly commanded: "Notify all the subordinates, if they see Fitz, this rebellious son, immediately bring it back to accept the family law treatment!"

The butler immediately bowed and said: "Master, rest assured, I will pass on. "

The Lord Banks waved his hand, and the housekeeper hurriedly left. Immediately, he said to James: "Hurry up and prepare for crisis public relations as I said, the more vigorous the better! In addition, immediately rush to Aurouss Hillll! Deana and Zara, I want to see them if they are alive, and to see corpses if they are dead! "

James hurriedly nodded and said: "I'll go now!!"

At this moment, Fitz had already drove away from Banks' house and drove all the way towards the airport. While driving, he took out his cell phone and prepared to call the person in charge of the crew at home. There are several private jets in the Banks Familyy, and Zayne owns one. He is now in Australia, so the private jet stays in Eastcliff. However, just when he was about to make a call, Zayne's phone call came in suddenly.

Fitz hurriedly connected, and as soon as he came up, he cried and said, "Dad! Mom and sister are missing..."

Zayne's heavy voice came out from the phone: "I know what's wrong. I see, where are you now?"

Fitz said hurriedly: "I am on my way to the airport, and I plan to go to Aurouss Hillll now. I will find my mother and sister!"

Zayne immediately asked: "You listen to me, don't go to the airport. I just received the news that your grandfather is asking the entire Banks Familyy to look for you everywhere, ready to take you back to be dealt with by the family law. How did you offend him?"

Fitz Hearing this, he said with angrily: "I heard that my mother and Zara had an accident, and I always felt that this matter was caused by grandpa, so I went to question him. I didn't expect him to become angry. Uncle James tried to slap me. I ignored him and ran out."

"Damn!" Zayne immediately rebuked and cursed: "You are in your 20s. You have wasted your past 20 years already? What is your grandfather's character, don't you know a little bit in your heart?"

Fitz said angrily: "But..."

Zayne immediately interrupted him: "But what? Your grandpa's life? All he really cares about is himself, and he only cares about his own absolute power in the Banks Familyy! Once anything or anyone affects him or affects his power in the Banks Familyy, he will not hesitate to take care of it. Aren't I the best example? You know that I'm not even your grandfather's opponent, so why do you stand up to him? Don't you want to stay in the Banks house anymore?"

Fitz gritted his teeth and said: "If Mom and Zara were really killed by grandpa, not only will I not stay in Banks' house, I will even kill him and avenge my mother and sister!"

"You..." Zayne was anxious, but then he deliberately lowered his voice and warned in a low voice: "Even if you have such an idea, you must not say it. The real man depends on doing it. Not by words!"

Chapter 2458

Zayne said coldly: "Don't worry, if things are really like what you said, don't talk about it. I will not let him go, but even if we as father and son want to fight him, You have to plan for a long time and make plans later! Otherwise, if you were foolish in your plans, you would fail to avenge your mother and your sister."

Fitz was silent for a moment, and then said angrily: "Dad, I Got it..." After speaking, he couldn't help choking up, crying and asked: "Dad! When are you coming back?! I now... I really don't know what to do now"

Zayne sighed and said: "I can't go back now. It takes more than ten hours to fly back to Eastcliff from here, but as long as I leave here, your grandfather will know immediately. It is very likely that when I got off the plane, I would be caught by the Banks Familyy and sent back to Australia, or was directly arrested back to the Banks Familyy under house arrest..."

Fitz asked helplessly: "Dad... .. I should know how to do ah" I want to go to Aurouss Hilll and find them" I know that they are now unaccounted for, at least, there might be a chance to survive" "

Zayne thought for a while, and said, "In this way, you don't want to go to the airport, just drive on the expressway and drive all the way to Aurouss Hilll."

Then, Zayne thought about it again and said, "From Eastcliff to Aurouss Hilll, take the expressway. If it is about 1000 kilometers, you can drive faster, and you may be there in 10 hours."

Fitz immediately said: "Good dad! I will drive directly to Aurouss Hilll!"

Zayne hurriedly said: "You When you go to Aurouss Hilll, you must be low-key. Don't try to use any Banks Familyy's power, because once they know you are in Aurouss Hilll, they will definitely catch you."

Fitz was dumbfounded: "Dad, Without using the power of the Banks Familyy, how should I find my mother and Zara..."

Zayne helplessly said: "You can only trust yourself now, and other people are unreliable." After that, he added: "Yes, I heard that Grandpa has sent your second uncle. To go to Aurouss Hilll, he will definitely take a plane, and he will arrive in Aurouss Hilll in two or three hours. After you arrive in Aurouss Hilll, you must be careful!"

Fitz suddenly felt very helpless, he choked and asked: "Dad. Do you think Mom and Zara are still alive..."

Zayne was silent on the other side of the phone for about ten seconds, and immediately, he said: "Fitz, as long as the matter has not been finalized, we must have hope."

He said, he said: "But you must remember, you must be prepared for the worst outcome!"

Fitz said solemnly: "Dad, I know That's it!"

...

Just as Fitz drove the car to Aurouss Hilll quickly, Banks' crisis public relations had already started. The overwhelming media has brought the rhythm on the Internet. Although their opinions are different, the core point they want to express is that the Banks Familyy is the victim, who kidnapped Deana and Zara mother and daughter. There must be someone else.

More than two hours later, James's private plane landed on the first runway of Aurouss Hilll International Airport. Coincidentally, at the same time, a private plane landed on the second runway of Aurouss Hilll International Airport at almost the same time.

This private jet flew over from New York, USA for more than ten hours. After the plane landed, under the command of the tower, it parked on the apron dedicated to private jets. What's interesting is that this plane, the private plane that James was on, parked on two adjacent seats next to each other. This plane from the United States took the lead in opening the cabin door, and a Jewish man in his fifties stepped out of the cabin.

He stood on the spiral ladder and paused for a while, looked around, and whispered: "Walter, my son, Dad will find you and take you home!"

Chapter 2459

The Jewish man who spoke is Walter Hogwitz's father, Steve Hogwitz. Ever since Walt and all of his men have evaporated, the entire Hogwarts family has been doing everything possible to find out their whereabouts and clues. But no matter how they inquire, the result of the feedback is the same. No one has seen how Walter and his men disappeared from the world. Even the Skynet surveillance all over the city did not have any Walter-related video data. This made the Hogwarts family immediately realized that Walter was very likely to provoke a very powerful person in Aurouss Hilll. Therefore, Walter's father Steve came to Aurouss Hilll himself, just to do everything possible to find Walter and bring him back to the United States.

At this moment, the plane next to his also opened the staircase. James stepped out of the hatch and walked straight down. At this time, a welcoming convoy composed of six bullet-proof Cadillac drove up. One had already drove to the plane of James, and nearly twenty men in black, all of the same height and body shape, came out of the car, one by one next to the convoy and stood at attention. These are all the security teams temporarily prepared by James's men. During James's time in Aurouss Hilll, these people are responsible for the security work.

However, these are just superficial security forces. Most of them are used as a frontline. Twenty minutes ago, the Banks Familyy sent twenty top experts to Aurouss Hilll. These people will secretly protect James's safety and obey James' Instructions in Aurouss Hilll. They will be dispatched to find the whereabouts of Deana and Zara.

Walter's father Steve noticed James. He didn't expect that the unremarkable Chinese man would have such a big entourage. So, he hurriedly stopped and said to the assistant behind him: "Check the registration number of the plane next to us, fast!"

Every plane, whether it is a civil airliner or a private jet, must have a registration number. Moreover, the registration number is generally sprayed on the fuselage of the aircraft. Generally speaking, the registration number is a combination of one letter and four numbers. For example, the combination of b2233. Among them, the letter b represents the country. No matter where you are in the world, and see an aircraft with a registration number starting with b, you can confidently and boldly confirm that this is an aircraft registered in China.

Therefore, Steve Hogwitz wanted to check the registration number to determine which company the aircraft belongs to, and then presumably infer the identity of James. Fortunately, this kind of inquiry is not difficult. Just as James walked down the spiral ladder, Steve's assistant finally found out the results and immediately reported: "Boss, this aircraft is a company registered in the Banks Family of Eastcliff!"

"Banks Family!?" Steve was shocked, and immediately said: "No wonder there is such a big entourage!"

After that, he quickened his pace and ran off the ladder in three or two steps and went straight to James. Before he could get close to James, several people in black immediately rushed forward and surrounded him, sternly, "Who are you?! Please stand back immediately, otherwise we will restrain you by force!"

Steve hurriedly explained in Chinese: "Don't get me wrong, I'm not malicious, I just want to say hello to Mr. Banks!"

James was about to step into the car, hearing Steve's words, watching curiously He asked, "Do you know me?"

Chapter 2460

Steve hurriedly said: "Mr. Banks, I am the head of the Hogwitz family in the United States. I wonder if you have heard of our family."

James couldn't help frowning. "The Hogwitz family in the United States? It seems that I have never heard of this powerful family?"

As James thought this, Steve hurriedly added: "My mother belongs to the Rothschild family!"

All over the world, the popularity and power of the Rothschild family can be said to be known to everyone. Sure enough, when James heard the Americans introduce themselves as blood related to the Rothschild family, and he immediately took it seriously.

Afterwards, James walked quickly to Steve, took the initiative to stretch out his hand, and introduced himself: "Hello, I am James Banks."

Steve quickly shook hands with James flattered, and said, "Hello Mr. Banks, My name is Steve Hogwitz! It's a great honor to meet you!"

James nodded and asked curiously, "Where did you come from?"

Steve hurriedly responded, "I flew all the way from New York. I just landed at Aurouss Hilll Airport."

"Yes." James smiled slightly: "Seems we both are arriving together." After that, he asked: "What family business do you have in Aurouss Hilll?"

"I have no business here." Steve explained: "My eldest son has been expanding his family business in Aurouss Hilll some time ago, but he suddenly disappeared a few days ago. I came to Aurouss Hilll this time to find his whereabouts."

"Oh?" James suddenly became curious. , Thought to himself: "What a coincidence?! This Steve also came to Aurouss Hilll to find someone? Strange that a person with blood relation to the Rothschild family would disappear in Aurouss Hilll?"

"But when you think about it carefully, Aurouss Hilll is indeed a bit weird. Not only people with blood relation to Rothschild disappeared here, but even the daughter-in-law of the Banks Familyy and the eldest granddaughter of the Banks Familyy also disappeared here. It seems that this small place is really a hidden dragon and a crouching tiger !" Thinking of this, James suddenly flashed: "The disappearance of Steve's son, and the disappearance of Deana and Zara, I wonder if there is any connection!"

At this point, James immediately felt that the two things might really be related! So, he immediately said to Steve: "It's true that I came to Aurouss Hilll this time to find someone as well. It seems that the two of us have the same purpose. Maybe there is some kind of connection to our missing people."

"Really?!" Steve exclaimed: "Mr. Banks, this matter even bothers you to come in person. Could it be that someone from the Banks Familyy is missing in Aurouss Hilll?!"

James nodded: "That's true!"

After speaking, James said immediately: "Steve, I think we can find someone on this matter and exchange information, maybe we can find some valuable clues!"

"Yes!" Steve said without hesitation, he said, "If I can investigate this matter with you, I will feel more at ease!"

James asked him, "Which hotel are you staying in Aurouss Hilll this time?"

Steve said : "I am staying in the Aurouss Hilll International Hotel. My son stayed there before he disappeared!"

James nodded, "Coincidentally, I also booked Aurouss Hilll International Hotel. If so, let's go together! It will give us a chance to be able to have a good chat on the way!"

Chapter 2461

Steve knows that the Banks Familyy is currently the strongest family in China, so he wants to befriend them. Now, knowing that he came to Aurouss Hilll for almost the same purpose, and he was invited to go to the hotel with Mr. Banks. This is definitely a good opportunity to establish a relationship with the Banks Familyy and increases the chance of finding his son. It definitely kills two birds with one stone!

So he said gratefully: "Mr. Banks, it is true that since my son and his men disappeared, I have not even a single person available in Aurouss Hilll, so no one arranges a pick-up. So I thank you for allowing me to join you on the way to the hotel!"

James smiled slightly: "You are too polite. Our Banks Familyy had some connections with the Rothschild family in years past. Although we had some unpleasantness, in the end cooperation has been reached, and it can be regarded as some sort of friendship!"

Steve nodded gently and said: "If there is a chance in the future, I hope we can also have substantial cooperation with the Banks Familyy, even including the Rothschild's. On that family's side, I can also let my mother walk around a bit more to see if she can promote a new cooperation."

James was feeling very happy. Although he doesn't take Steve seriously, he still has a lot of connection with the Rothschild family. He couldn't help thinking in his heart: "After all, the Rothschild family is the most powerful family in the world, and it's real influence is more than ten times stronger than the Banks Familyy. If I can really connect with the Rothschild family in the future, I dare not say that it will be good for the entire Banks Familyy, but for myself, it will be of great help, at least it will make me stand more stable in the Banks Familyy!"

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but smile and say to Steve: "Come, Steve, let's go to the hotel in my car, and I'm going to be a host tonight. Let's have dinner and we will exchange clues by the way. We can also cooperate with each other on anything new that we find."

Steve immediately said excitedly: "Great Mr. Banks, there is absolutely no problem on my side!"

James invited Steve to sit in his own car. As for the others brought by Steve, they are not so well treated. They can only go to the hotel by taxi. Steve and James were sitting in the back row of one of the lead cars. As the convoy exited the airport, Steve introduced some of his son Walter to James. However, Steve didn't know his son Walter's attempt to take Doris Young, nor did he know his nasty actions against Doris Young's father. Therefore, in his opinion, his son was steadfastly developing business in Aurouss Hilll. He did not expect that, suddenly one day he would evaporate from the world.

After listening to his introduction, James was even more puzzled, and whispered: "It would be one thing to say if it was Walter who disappeared alone, but it is a bit weird to have so many missing at once."

"Yes!" Steve He sighed, "I suspected that he was kidnapped at first, but, I know, I haven't received any information from the kidnapers asking for ransom."

Then Steve added: "I've also asked someone to check all the bank records of my son. Since his disappearance, all his bank accounts have not been off by even a penny. If the other party is really looking for money, it is impossible to not want to ask for money even now."

"Yes." James frowned and said: "A dozen people can disappear at the same time, and all monitoring records can be erased. The forces behind it must be very powerful."

Speaking of this, he couldn't help thinking: "Deana and Zara disappeared in the tunnel, and even John Garrett, the personal guard with the old man, is also missing. It must be very difficult for someone to do this. Aurouss Hilll itself is a small second-tier city. Even if there are big figures hiding in it, it is impossible for more than two powerful forces to stay here and make Steve's son disappear, and take Deana and Zara away. It must be that it is all connected to the same group."

Chapter 2462

So, James hurriedly asked Steve: "Did your son offend anyone during his time in Aurouss Hilll?"

Steve shook his head and said, "My son has never been to Aurouss Hilll before, He has never been to China, this time he was sent by his family to Aurouss Hilll to develop the family business, and he has been here for a short time, so I don't think he would have any enemies in this place."

James asked him: "Is your son married yet?"

Steve hurriedly said truthfully: "He is married, and has two children."

James continued to ask, "Has his private life been checked?"

Steve seriously said: "I never heard that he had an improper relationship with another woman."

James asked again: "Is he a drug addict?"

"No! Absolutely not!" Steve said hurriedly: "Our family absolutely does not allow any room when a drug addict appears, all adult men must undergo regular urine tests. Once he is found to be a drug addict, he will be removed from all duties in the family and all funds will be recovered. Walter would never touch this red line of the family!"

James stretched out his four fingers and said: "There are four possibilities for most criminal cases in the world. The first one is for money, the second is for addiction, the third is for love, and the fourth is for revenge. If the other party kidnapped your son and doesn't want money, this will rule out the possibility of making money. If your son has a regular urine test and is not a drug addict, then this can also be ruled out. As for the emotional aspects, although you say your son's private life is pure, but clothes do not make the man, not to mention you are the father, and it is hard to listen and know in the end how many women your son may have slept with. His close friends may have clearer knowledge than you, so I think it's possible for emotional reasons. And revenge, even if your son has just arrived in Aurouss Hilll not long ago, it doesn't mean that he won't offend people. Maybe he really offended some very powerful people in Aurouss Hilll." Speaking of this, James smacked. He licked his lips and said: "I think the possibility of love and revenge is half and half, you can start to check these two aspects first."

Steve nodded gently: "Thank you Mr. Banks for your insight. I will actively search for relevant clues to see if I can find any breakthrough points!"

The reason why James did so much analysis for Steve is to hope that Steve can find clues to his son's disappearance through these aspects. He now suspects that the disappearance of his son was done by the same people as the disappearance of Deana and Zara. I have no way to find clues but if Steve can, it would be a tremendous help.

At this moment, Steve suddenly said: "That's right ! My son seems to have a close college classmate in Aurouss Hilll, and I remember it being a woman!"

James said excitedly: "This is a valuable clue! If this woman has something to do with your son's disappearance, first find a way to find a breakthrough from her!"

Chapter 2463

At this moment at Shangri-La.

Charlie Wade was not in a hurry to go home, but stayed in Cameron Isaac's office, staring at the current trend of public opinion on the Internet in real time with his mobile phone. He found that now the Banks Familyy's media forces are clearly overwhelming. No matter what app, even a small website or forum, there are a large number of Banks Familyy media forces washing the ground for the Banks Familyy.

They have even been helping the Banks Familyy sell miserably, trying their best to exaggerate that other people are murdering Deana and Zara, and they also claim that the real purpose of the behind-the-scenes slander is to completely destroy the entire Banks Familyy.

When Cameron Isaac saw these remarks, he couldn't help but say angrily: "Master, the Banks Familyy are really unscrupulous. You can't play with such shameless whitewashing!"

Charlie Wade smiled calmly: "What is this? They have not fully exerted their power yet. If they fully exert their power, they are likely to further wash themselves out."

Cameron Isaac asked puzzledly: "Master, their public opinion offensive has been overwhelming, how can they further use their power? "

Charlie Wade said seriously: "Their most urgent task now is to find Deana and Zara, to find them alive or find their bodies. And if they really find them alive, they will definitely find a way to kill both of them."

Cameron Isaac nodded: "If they know the truth, the Banks Family must kill them!"

"Yes!" Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said: "Just make sure that they are dead so the Banks Family can breathe a sigh of relief. Then they only need to spend money to find a few scapegoats, claiming that everything is done by these people and has nothing to do with the Banks Family."

Cameron Isaac couldn't help laughing: "Now let Them try their best to wash themselves, and when the video on your phone is released, Master, it will be a large-scale face-slapping scene that has caused a sensation among more than one billion people. By that time, the Banks Family will really become a sinner through the ages!"

Charlie Wade nodded and said: "To destroy the Banks Family's reputation completely is the prelude to the Banks Family's complete destruction. Once the Banks Family becomes a mouse crossing the street, the Banks Family's century-old foundation will collapse little by little!"

Cameron Isaac suddenly thought of something and asked. "Master, if your video is exposed, wouldn't it be a big help to Zayne? Now Zayne is the scapegoat for Mr. Banks as he was sent to Australia. If your video is exposed, The public will definitely recalculate Zayne, and Zayne will be completely clear of the grievances."

"It doesn't matter." Charlie Wade said calmly: "Even if I helped Zayne, Zayne would be uncomfortable."

Cameron Isaac hurriedly asked: "Master, what do you say?"

Charlie Wade sneered, "Lord Banks, an old dog, pushed his son's illegitimate daughter to death at a critical moment, and then pushed his son to exile. He did this, and Zayne's father-son relationship with him has long since disappeared. Now Lord Banks wants to kill Zayne's wife and other daughter. What do you think Zayne would think?"

Cameron Isaac hesitated for a moment and then said : "If Zayne learns the truth, I am afraid that he will turn against him."

"Yes." Charlie Wade said with a smile: "Lord Banks will definitely not let Zayne turn over, but Zayne will tear him up. After breaking his face, he will definitely use the advantage of public opinion to fight back, and even try to seize control of the Banks Familyy, but Lord Banks certainly cannot let Zayne seize power, because he is also afraid that Zayne will seek to kill him, so by then, the Banks Familyy will definitely It's staged a fierce battle between father and son!"

Charlie Wade said again: "This does not include the other descendants of the Banks Familyy, that is, the younger brothers of Zayne! Since ancient times, the one the crown prince most wanted to get rid of is the emperor. The other princes most want to get rid of is the crown prince! If Zayne and Lord Banks turn against each other at that time, the other sons will not be idle, maybe the Banks Familyy will fall into a civil disturbance!"

Cameron Isaac couldn't help but laughed. "Then we can just watch the good show at that time!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said: "Watch the fire across the bank, sit back and reap your profits!"

Chapter 2464

At this moment, Cameron Isaac received a text message on his cell phone. After he clicked on it and read it, he hurriedly said to Charlie Wade: "Master, the second child of the Banks Familyy, James has come to Aurouss Hilll!"

"Really?" Charlie Wade was curious: "When did he come?"

Cameron Isaac said hurriedly, "Arouss Hilll Airport reported that he just landed about ten minutes ago."

Charlie Wade sneered, "It seems that he came to find Deana and Zara by the order of Mr. Banks."

Cameron Isaac said again: "Master, there is one more thing I want to report to you."

Charlie Wade nodded, "Go on."

Cameron Isaac said : "There is another one who landed with James. A private jet registered in the United States. My people inquired about the registration number of the aircraft. The aircraft belongs to the American Hogwitz family business."

"Hogwitz?" Charlie Wade frowned and said coldly: " It seems that Walter's family should have come."

Cameron Isaac continued: "Yes, the immigration information shows that it is a guy named Steve Hogwitz, who should be Walter's father. He is now to Aurouss Hilll International Hotel with James."

Charlie Wade asked curiously: "Why did they get together?"

Cameron Isaac shook his head and said, "I don't know. Maybe they have prior connections."

Charlie Wade could not help frowning: "The strength of the Hogwitz family more generally is a hundred million dollars of assets. Even less than the Moores. It is impossible for a family such as the Banks to have any connection with them. In addition, the planes of the two of them landed next to each other, I guess they should have just met!"

Cameron Isaac laughed: "These two people are also really interesting. After landing in Aurouss Hilll, it was quite destined."

Charlie Wade said with a solemn expression: "They meet together, this is not a good thing."

"Why?" Cameron Isaac asked puzzledly: "Master, are you worried about the two of them joining hands?"

Charlie Wade shook his head. Seriously said: "I'm worried about the two of them exchanging clues."

"Exchanging clues? What clues?"

Charlie Wade said solemnly: "About Deana and Zara, we left almost no clues. Everyone is alive. It was brought out, and only Tate Landry's body was left behind; however, we left a clue about Walter."

Cameron Isaac understood in an instant, and exclaimed, "You mean, Miss Doris Young?!"

"Yes." Charlie Wade said coldly: "There is no clue about the disappearance of Deana and Zara. Walter's disappearance and Ms. Young's line. I'm afraid they will concentrate together, trying to find a breakthrough in Ms. Young."

Cameron Isaac hastily asked: "Master, can we not just protect Ms Young?!"

Charlie Wade waved: "It does not make sense to protect her, protect her, people will think that there is a relationship with someone else if that happens."

"What should I do?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "Since the two friends have come from afar and have such a relationship with each other, then I will take the initiative to attack and keep them all together. By the way, let their relatives realize that Aurouss Hilll is a bottomless black hole!"

Chapter 2465

Cameron Isaac heard Charlie Wade say that he wanted to attack James and Steve Hogwitz, and immediately exclaimed, "Master, Steve, fortunately, didn't bring many people from the United States this time. But James has hired dozens of security personnel, and the hidden masters I don't know how many are here. It's a bit difficult to catch him."

Charlie Wade said calmly, "It's okay. It is not airtight. I will be enough to catch James and Walter."

A person suddenly flashed in his mind, so he immediately changed his words: "No, let's add another person. "

Cameron Isaac stood up immediately and said without hesitation: "Master, I am willing to be with you!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said seriously: "Isaac, you are courageous, but you are still a bit weak in strength, you couldn't get close to James, you would be discovered by his hidden men in the dark."

Cameron Isaac said embarrassingly, "If you don't dislike this young master, I will work hard from now on to practice my skills!"

Charlie Wade laughed and said, "Don't practice now, it is too late."

Cameron Isaac asked hurriedly: "When do you plan to do it? If I need to do something here, I should prepare in advance!"

Charlie Wade said: "Hurry up, I want to do it tonight , Otherwise if they focus their attention on Ms. Young, this matter will be a bit tricky."

After that, Charlie Wade said again: "Let me call Ms. Young first and let her add one to the company today. In that case, I'll do it tonight."

Then Charlie Wade took out his mobile phone and called Doris Young. As soon as the call was made, Doris Young's voice came over: "Master!"

Charlie Wade hummed and asked her, "Ms. Young, where are you now?"

Doris Young respectfully said, "Master, I'm in Hong Kong."

"Hong Kong?" Charlie Wade asked curiously: "Why did you go to Hong Kong?"

Doris Young explained: "The real estate in Hong Kong has been declining in recent years. The market competition in our mainland is very fierce, so Emgrand Group plans to join the Phillips family in Hong Kong to develop a commercial real estate project, I just came over this morning to prepare to discuss further with them."

After that, Doris Young hurriedly asked, "Master, what are you looking for with me?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "It doesn't really matter. It's nothing since you are not in Aurouss Hill now. It can wait until you come back."

Doris Young had no choice but to say, "Well, young master, if you have anything urgent, please tell me, I can fly back anytime."

Charlie Wade said : "No need, just stay steadfast in Hong Kong."

Doris Young didn't know what Charlie Wade meant, so she said, "Good master, then I will concentrate on discussing cooperation in Hong Kong these days. If you have anything you need me to go back, please notify me at any time."

"Okay." After hanging up the phone, Charlie Wade breathed a sigh of relief. Doris Young happened to be not in Aurouss Hilll, so this matter was not so anxious. If this is the case, it is better to closely monitor James and Steve first, and see what kind of medicine the two people, especially James. But Charlie Wade didn't plan to give them two too long. Within two or three days, let them evaporate directly from Aurouss Hilll!

At this time, Cameron Isaac saw Charlie Wade hung up the phone and hurriedly asked: "Master, Miss Young has gone to Hong Kong?"

"Yes." Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "It's a coincidence that she just left this morning."

Chapter 2466

Cameron Isaac asked again: "Then when are you going to do something with James and Steve?"

Charlie Wade thought for a while, and said: "For these two days, first observe them and see if they take any action."

Charlie Wade further ordered: "Isaac, you have the most contacts in Aurouss Hilll. You must give it to me and keep an eye on them, no matter where they have been or what they have seen. You must report to me as soon as possible !"

Cameron Isaac said without hesitation: "Master, don't worry, I'll make arrangements!"

Charlie Wade nodded, and said regretfully, "It's too bad neither of them decided to stay in your hotel."

Cameron Isaac laughed and said, "Master, that Walter stayed in Aurouss Hilll International Hotel before he disappeared. It is normal for his father to stay there. As for James, the Banks Familyy knows that this is the property of the Wade family. It's unlikely they would stay here."

Charlie Wade curiously asked: "The Banks Familyy has much property, so why didn't they buy any property in Aurouss Hilll?"

Cameron Isaac shook his head and said, "The Banks Familyy had a negotiation with the Wade family a few years ago. the two sides agreed on the development of the business landscape, Banks selects a city, and the other will not over step boundaries, and vice versa. Aurouss Hilll is within the scope of the Wade territory, so there is no Banks industry out here. "

Charlie Wade asked him: "Then what is the basis for dividing the business territory of the two parties?"

Cameron Isaac said, "It was your grandfather and Lord Banks who had a face-to-face meeting. After all, the strength of the two families is similar, and the business is blooming everywhere. There is competition everywhere, especially in the first-tier cities, so everyone did not expect that the second-tier cities would continue to fight. They privately stipulated a range. For example, the capital cities of the southeast, Aurouss Hilll is the Wade's, and Southaven is the Banks Familyy."

"After all, the Banks Familyy has a stronger voice. When the business map was divided, all the data of Southaven was significantly better than that of Aurouss Hilll, so the Banks Familyy picked the southern region away first. The remaining Aurouss Hilll was given to the Wade family."

"Understood." Charlie Wade nodded slightly, and then asked: "Then since Donald Webb is the richest man in Southaven, why didn't he have anything to do with the Banks Familyy?"

Cameron Isaac smiled: "Look, the Moore family is the richest in Aurouss Hilll and has nothing to do with the Wade family."

After speaking, Cameron Isaac continued to explain: "Actually, the Banks and Wade family delineated the scope, the main purpose is to avoid competition between the two sides, which is equivalent to a gentleman's agreement. "

However, the local families are generally deeply entrenched. It is difficult for us to confront the local snakes, or even crush them."

"After all, most of the strength of the two families is still concentrated in Eastcliff. China is so big, the forces scattered across the country are not that strong."

"Whether it is the Wade family or the Banks Familyy, the total assets that can be invested in other cities in the country are only hundreds of billions of dollars, but in addition to Eastcliff, There are a lot of first-tier cities and second-tier cities like Aurouss Hilll, so on average, the manpower, material and financial resources that can be invested in each city are not too large. After all, I am in Aurouss Hilll, which means keeping the Wade family in a stronghold of Aurouss Hilll."

Then, Cameron Isaac said: "Besides your Emgrand Group, there is not much industry, the mainstay in Aurouss Hilll is the hotel. In addition, there are several security companies that do not seem to have any relationship on the surface, and then they have participated in some projects. The total assets in Aurouss Hilll are scattered and scattered. Around one or two billion, which is far behind the Moore family's 100 billion assets. My most important task over the years is not to help the Wade family make money in Aurouss Hilll, but to help the Wade family develop contacts, network, and create a complete intelligence system that turns Aurouss Hilll into an integral part of Wade's neural network, just like a tentacle of an octopus. Any disturbance can be reported to Wade in time."

Speaking of this, Cameron Isaac couldn't help but laugh at himself and said: "In fact, if it weren't for the fact you were in Aurouss Hilll, the Wade family would not pay much attention to the situation in Aurouss Hilll. The Wade family is all over the country, and how many spokespersons like me do they have? Those who really have a strong right to speak, apart from Steven Thompson, there are ten the spokespersons of three first-tier cities."

Charlie Wade nodded: "I understand, since the Banks Familyy has no foundation in Aurouss Hilll, that is good for us. It give us a more proactive approach "

Cameron Isaac agreed, said: "Yes, Banks came here, even if there are any unexpected events, they can only temporarily be summoned from Eastcliff, at the earliest in a few hours. "

Then, he asked again: "By the way, Master, if the time is right and you are ready to do something with them, do you have any suitable helper candidates?"

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "Of course! I already have one in my heart in this regard. The most suitable candidate!"

Cameron Isaac asked: "Who is it?"

Charlie Wade said with a smile: "Xion Banks!"

Chapter 2467

When Cameron Isaac heard that Charlie Wade wanted to use Xion, he immediately asked with some worry: "Master, Xion may be completely uncontrollable. She has been under house arrest. If she is let out, will she take the opportunity to escape?!"

Charlie Wade shook his head: "As far as I know her, she definitely won't."

Cameron Isaac asked inexplicably, "Master, why are you doing this? This woman is always cruel, it's not wise to send her out!"

Charlie Wade laughed and said, "She was done wrong by old man Banks. Now she has a chance to catch James, it is also a chance for her to take revenge. Based on this, it is impossible for her to turn back." After speaking, Charlie Wade said again: "Moreover, she is now missing from the Banks Familyy's view. Once she is rid of my asylum, It is very likely that the Banks Familyy will find out. When that time comes, the Banks Familyy will definitely kill her. But even if the Banks Familyy doesn't act on her, if the Japanese government knows where she is, they will definitely not Let her go. After all, she is the fugitive that the Japanese government wants to catch the most right now."

Cameron Isaac nodded and said seriously: "I understand Master, if you say so, then Xion is indeed a good candidate. Her personal strength is incredible. Acting with you will not only help you, but also won't hinder you."

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "In the recent period, Xion's strength has improved again. It's not the same as when she was in the Banks house before."

After that, he stood up and said, "You stay in the office, I'll have a chat with Xion."

Cameron Isaac asked hurriedly, "Master What about Deana and Zara?"

Charlie Wade said: "They should be able to wake up tomorrow morning. Tonight, you just need to arrange someone to guard the door. By the way, let someone buy some changes of clothes and daily necessities in advance. Get a few ladies and have them sent there tomorrow morning."

Cameron Isaac said immediately, "Good young master."

Charlie Wade said again: "In addition, do you know Deana and Zara?"

Cameron Isaac thought for a while and said, "I know them, but they should not know me."

"That's good." Charlie Wade said. "When they wake up tomorrow, no matter what questions they ask about me, you don't answer them. They ask you where this is, and you don't answer. They want to leave or contact the outside world, and you absolutely cannot agree. Tell them that I will let them stay here for the time being."

Cameron Isaac said immediately: "Good young master, I understand!"

At the same time. Xion was practicing her Aikido in the room.

Since last time, Charlie Wade completely opened up her Ren Vessel. Now she has felt the tremendous progress from this. Therefore, taking advantage of this good opportunity, she spent all her time and energy on practicing, and her strength continued to improve. However, in addition to practicing hard these days, she would always think of Charlie Wade uncontrollably. These days, he would always be involuntarily in her mind. Whether it was Charlie Wade saving her, or Charlie Wade helping her open up her line of power and let her strength advance by leaps and bounds, to her, she was deeply grateful. She knew if she thinks too much, she will naturally look forward to seeing Charlie Wade more. But Charlie Wade didn't seem to always come to this hotel, so she was somewhat regretful.

Chapter 2468

While she was practicing and sweating, the door bell suddenly rang. Xion suddenly became a little excited. She stayed here for a while and learned about the service rules of the service staff here. Three meals a day are scheduled here, and the service staff will prepare food, drink and daily necessities for delivery. At other times, the service staff will not take the initiative to interrupt. And now is not time to eat, so it is most likely that Charlie Wade is here! Thinking of this, Xion hurried to the door happily. Through the display screen, she saw Charlie Wade standing at the door of her room at a glance, and her heart suddenly jumped for joy.

She just remembered that she didn't tidy up her clothes, she was still wearing the most basic exercise underwear, and she suddenly hesitated. She didn't know whether to change clothes or open the door to Charlie Wade first. However, after thinking about it, she was still worried that it would be inappropriate for Charlie Wade to wait too long, so she didn't care about that much, and opened the door directly.

The moment the door opened, Charlie Wade saw Xion, who was only wearing sports underwear, and was somewhat embarrassed for an instant.

Xion also blushed a little shamefully and said, "I'm sorry Young Master Wade, I was in a hurry just now, and I didn't care about cleaning myself up. If you come in and sit down, I'll change my clothes."

Charlie Wade walked into the room, smiled slightly, and said, "I just came here to tell you something, and see if you are interested in doing it with me."

Xion was even more embarrassed and hesitated when she heard this. She looked down at herself then stammered, "Young Master Wade Wade, I don't know what you are talking about."

Charlie Wade didn't know that she had misunderstood, and said sternly: "James Banks has come to Aurouss Hilll, I plan to find a suitable time to directly control him!"

Xion instantly woke up from the embarrassment just now, and blurted out: "James?! Why did he come to Aurouss Hilll?! Is it to target you?!"

Charlie Wade shook his head and said: "No, James He came to see Deana and Zara."

"Huh?" Xion was even more puzzled: "Why did he come to see the lady and young lady?"

Xion was under house arrest here. Although it was not at all suffering, there is really no contact with the outside world, and there is no such channel as mobile phones and computers to obtain information from the outside world. Therefore, Xion didn't know what big event that happened in Aurouss Hilll today. So Charlie Wade relayed the incidents that recently transpired.

When Xion heard that Lord Banks had instructed people to assassinate Deana, and even some people wanted to kill Zara with them, she was filled with righteous indignation and said: "The Banks Familyy is too sinister and nasty! The same trick has been used on me once, and now they do the same thing to Dean, and even Lady Zara."

Then she added forlornly "Actually, Dean has been kind to me. It's just that she didn't know my true identity before, Zara was kind to me too, but she didn't know before, I was her half-sister, I don't know now how I could face her."

Then she hurriedly asked Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, are Deana and Zara okay now?"

Charlie Wade nodded gently, and said, "Don't worry, their lives are no longer in danger, and they are safe."

"Okay good." Xion breathed a sigh of relief, and immediately said firmly again: "Master Wade, if you can trust me, I am willing to follow you and do my best! "

Chapter 2469

At this moment, Aurouss Hill International Hotel. James Banks' motorcade stopped a row directly in front of the hotel. Before he got out of the car, the security personnel had already rushed down and wiped out everyone around him.

At this time, the hotel's manager also brought dozens of security guards and greeted him graciously. He respectfully said to James's assistant, "What can I do for Mr. Banks? If there is anything, please ask Mr. Banks to bring it up. We will definitely Go all out!"

James's assistant said coldly: "It's not needed here for the time being. You can take all your people back. Don't let any of your staff bump into Mr. Banks without permission! As for others! The guest of the hotel must not be within 10 meters of Mr. Banks!"

The hotel manager nodded without hesitation, and said with great enthusiasm : "Of course. And again, if there is anything extra that you need, do not hesitate to let me know!!"

James and Steve Hogwitz got out of the car together. After getting out of the car, James straightened his collar and said in a somewhat majestic tone: "Steve, let's have a meal tonight, and by the way, we can also discuss the details of your son's disappearance."

Steve was naturally flattered and said hurriedly: "Okay Mr. Banks, that sounds good to me. I will just need to bring my thing to my room."

James asked him again: "Oh right, which room are you staying in? Do you know the room number?"

"Since the Executive Suites were already booked, I only booked a luxury suite. The details on that will be at the front desk check-in: Steve said.

James said lightly: "The Executive Suites are gone because I have completely booked the entire executive floor."

Steve was taken aback and hurriedly complimented: "No wonder, I should have saw your handwriting on this!"

James waved his hand slightly and said indifferently, "It's no big deal. If it weren't for the agreement with the Wade family, it would be easy for me to buy this hotel."

Then, he opened his mouth and said to his assistant: "Tell the hotel director to change the room of Mr. Hogwitz and let him stay next door to me."

The assistant nodded immediately and said, "No problem. I'll let the front desk arrange it."

Steve was a little embarrassed because he did not come alone, he also brought some entourages and bodyguards. It's just that those people had no chance to get on James's motorcade, so they had to take a taxi to the hotel. They haven't arrived yet. If he lives on the executive floor alone and is separated from his other entourage bodyguards, it will be more or less troublesome.

James saw his concerns and said: "Well, let me arrange another room for you. You can let your assistant stay in it, but your bodyguard should not stay on the executive floor. My people are here. It will definitely make you safer."

Steve knew he didn't have many bodyguards. Coupled with the previous ones his son brought to China, the entourage has basically all disappeared, so there are not many people who he can use in Aurouss Hilll, so his security force is not strong. But James is different. He is the second child of the Banks Familyy, the Banks Familyy is so strong. I don't know how many masters are protecting his safety at all times. For Steve, if he can live on the same floor with James, or even next door, his own safety can also be greatly guaranteed.

Chapter 2470

So he said gratefully: "Thank you Mr. Banks! You are really taking care of me!"

James smiled slightly, and said to Steve in an elevated posture: "In China, as long as you have a good relationship with the Banks Familyy, no matter where you are, you can move unobstructed." After that, he asked Steve: "Do you know the name of your son's college classmate in Aurouss Hilll? I'll ask someone to check her information right now."

Steve said hurriedly: "I once heard my son talk about it. It's Doris Young. It's said that this woman is quite capable. She is in charge of a large listed company as the vice-chairman."

James looked at his assistant and said in a serious tone: "I will give you 5 minutes to check the origin of this Doris Young!"

"Yes boss!" Five minutes later .

As soon as James stepped into his presidential suite, his assistant hurried over and said: "Boss, I have investigated it. Doris Young is the vice chairman of Aurouss Hilll Emgrand Group. She is very famous in Aurouss Hilll and a well-known entrepreneur. "

James nodded, and ordered: "Bring this Doris Young to me before 12 o'clock this evening. I have something to ask her in person." The assistant hurriedly said, "Boss, Doris Young went to Hong Kong by plane this morning. They have real estate-related cooperation in Hong Kong."

"Went to Hong Kong?" James frowned slightly. At first, he was a little confused, but quickly realized that he came here today quite suddenly so it wasn't like she was trying to escape. Her leaving was completely coincidence.

So he nodded and said, "Then you can keep an eye on the movement at the airport. Once this Doris Young returns to Aurouss Hilll, tell me as soon as possible."

After that, he asked again: "The company you mentioned. What is the origin of the group?"

The assistant hurriedly explained: "Emgrand Group is Aurouss Hilll's largest group company with a market value of more than 100 billion. It was originally a real estate company born and raised in Aurouss Hilll, but it seemed to have been completely bought by the Wade family last year."

"Acquired by the Wade family?" James Surprisedly asked: "The Wade family went to Aurouss Hilll to buy a real estate company, what is the intention?"

"This is not clear." The assistant said truthfully: "I only know that there are rumors that the current boss of Emgrand Group is the Wade family. But who it is in the Wade family, I still can't find out."

James coldly snorted, "Isn't there just a few people in the Wade family? Bruce is dead, so either Corran, Myles or William, both are A bunch of mediocrities."

The assistant nodded and asked, "Boss, since this Doris Young belongs to the Wade family, do we still move her?" James immediately replied, "Of course! This woman is the only possible relevant clue I can find at the moment. I can't just give up just because she is a member of the Wade family."

After that, James said coldly, "As long as you do it without knowing it, don't leave anything behind. The Wade family can't know anything."

"Yes boss, I know!"

James lowered his voice, and continued to order: "Now we will select ten masters and go to the major hospitals in the city with regard to the whereabouts of Deana and Zara, I think if the two of them are still alive, they should probably be treated secretly in a hospital now. You will lead someone to find them out for me. I have a reward!"

The assistant hurriedly asked He: "Boss, what should I do after I find them?"

James smiled coldly: "Inject a little bit of ricin into them and use ten times the lethal dose to ensure that they can't escape death!"

Chapter 2471

In the evening, when Charlie Wade returned home, the ten masters of the Banks Familyy, divided into five groups, began to touch every hospital in Aurouss Hilll. At the same time, James asked Steve to prepare for a sumptuous dinner in the restaurant of his presidential suite.

Although the economic strength of the Hogwitz family is tens of thousands of miles worse than that of the Banks Familyy, in James's view, Steve's mother is a member of the Rothschild family after all, so if there is no relationship with him it would bet a disadvantage.

Steve was naturally too excited. Although his mother was indeed a woman from the Rothschild family, he knew that there were at least a hundred women in the Rothschild family like his mother. And his mother and grandfather's line is not named in the Rothschild family. He is a relative of the Rothschild family, to put it bluntly he uses it just to gain a reputation. Now that he has the opportunity to make friends with the Banks Familyy, the top Chinese family, it is naturally a very valuable thing for him. Maybe in the future, he can rely on the Banks Familyy to quickly lay a foundation in China. Steve was excited at the opportunity to find his son Walter, who had been missing for a long time. He sat up at the wine table with James to discuss this matter.

Just when the two of them were enjoying their meal, Charlie Wade received a WeChat from Cameron Isaac. The content of the WeChat was: "Master, the people of the Banks Familyy are investigating the background of the Emgrand Group. At the same time, they have sent experts to sneak into the major hospitals in Aurouss Hilll, secretly looking for the whereabouts of Deana and Zara."

Charlie Wade sneered in his heart and replied: "James is good, he has found the Emgrand Group. I can't wait for him to find me and meet and meet him."

Cameron Isaac said, "Don't worry, Master. The outside world only knows about the acquisition by Wade of Emgrand Group, but they don't know who the chairman of Emgrand Group is. I believe he will not be able to find you in a short time."

Charlie Wade immediately replied: "Don't give him a chance, I will take him to visit the dog farm of Don Albertt tonight."

Cameron Isaac hurriedly asked, "Master, are you ready to do this tonight?"

Charlie Wade replied: "That's right, it's tonight. You go talk to Xion and let her prepare."

Cameron Isaac hurriedly said: "Good master, is there anything I need to prepare?"

Charlie Wade said: "Tell Don Albertt Just let the kennel be prepared. After all, James is the second master of the Banks Familyy. He has an unusual background. Let Don Albertt vacate a dog cage for him."

Cameron Isaac asked, "What about Steve? Would you like to prepare for him?"

Charlie Wade said, "When Steve arrives at the kennel, it must be a moving scene with Walter and his son. Then let him live in a dog cage with his son, oh yes, You ask Don Albertt to prepare some flowers to give to the father and son to set a warm atmosphere."

"Good master, I will do it!"

Aurouss Hilll International Hotel.

James, full of food and drink, stood alone in front of the luxurious French windows of the presidential suite, looking at the night view of Aurouss Hilll. However, he was not in a good mood at this time, because the whereabouts of Deana and Zara were unknown, he was afraid that his murder of Zara would be revealed.

In fact, he knew very well in his heart: "Even if the old man is no longer a thing, the love for Zara in the old man's heart is indeed from the heart. If Zara dies, of course everyone will be happy. That way, Both Fitz and Zayne are exiled in Australia, and no one in the Banks Familyy could threaten my status. Moreover, if Zara is dead, it will definitely deal a big blow to the old man. Letting the old man die earlier will also help me inherit the position of Banks Familyy Patriarch earlier. However, if Zara is not dead, then it will always be a huge threat to me!"

While he was thinking like this, the assistant knocked on the door. After James let him in, he asked, "How's things going?"

Chapter 2472

The assistant hurriedly and respectfully said: "Boss, the masters sent out has touched all of the Aurouss Hilll hospitals, but didn't find the two of them."

"No?!" James frowned and asked: "Has every hospital been investigated clearly?"

"Yes." The assistant nodded and said seriously: "Not only the tertiary hospitals, but even the ordinary small clinics have been searched, and they have not been found." James smacked immediately . "Tsk tsk this is a bit weird! They are not in the hospital, is it that they are dead?" After that, he immediately said, "Go and check the current progress of the police investigation. Is there any breakthrough?"

The assistant said truthfully: "Boss, I have already inquired about the situation on the police side. They don't have any clues. They are now monitoring the bullet shells collected at the tunnel site and want to push the gunner's clues from the bullets."

James frowned. Ask him: "Where are Deana and Zara? The police have no clues?"

"No." The assistant nodded; "The police are just like us, they are all confused now."

"Damn" James cursed in a low voice. He continued to ask: "Is there any investigation results about that group of mysterious people? The group rushed in from the tunnel entrance, took away Deana and Zara, but also took away John Garrett and the four. 6 people are not easy to handle, even 6 corpses are not so easy to handle! After all, there have to be some clues, right?"

The assistant said, "The police have no clue about this at all."

James stomped his feet irritably, and cursed: "It's fucking weird!" After that, he asked, "How is the media team doing now?"

The assistant replied: "The media has basically controlled the situation now. At present, 70 of the discussions on this matter on the Internet are inclined to the Banks Family favor, thinking that the Banks Family is the biggest victim. I believe that as long as we continue to maintain this overwhelming coverage of public opinion, the people of the whole country will believe that we are innocent in a few days."

James breathed a sigh of relief and said, "This matter is yours. Well done, if the old man is also satisfied, I will definitely give you a bonus for this."

The assistant immediately bowed and said, "Thank you, boss!"

James gave a hmm and ordered: "There is one more thing, you can arrange it for me."

The assistant hurriedly said, "Boss, please tell me." James said with a grim expression: "Although Tate Landry's family didn't know that I gave them 20 million to let them tell Tate Landry to kill Zara, but once this matter is out and spread to the old man's ears. Then I will be the biggest suspect, so you send someone to his hometown tonight, set a fire, and destroy all the evidence, understand?"

The assistant Nodded: "Good boss, I understand!" With that said, the assistant received a message, took a quick glance, and reported to James: "Boss, Miss Megan's plane will land at Arouss Hilll Airport, in forty minutes"

After hearing this, James's eyes flashed with desire, and his heart couldn't help but ripple.

The Miss Megan the assistant mentioned is Megan Endris, one of the four young talents in today's entertainment industry.

This Megan Endris is only 26 years old this year. She graduated from film school after four years. She is very beautiful. However, because of her poor acting skills and no background, she has been unknown in the film and television industry for the past two years.

However, since the year before last, Megan Endris has successively obtained the film resources of many top directors, which has put her on a steady pace to soon rank among the A-list actors. Many people speculate that there must be a sugar daddy behind her, but as quickly as the relevant speculation posts are posted, they will be deleted immediately and the sources shut down. The reason is that Megan was taken in by James, who has made her his mistress. Under normal circumstances, as long as James has a chance to leave Eastcliff, Megan will come over to have a night with him, and today is no exception. When James decided to come to Aurouss Hilll, he asked Megan, who was filming in the South China Sea, to prepare to rush over. So Megan stepped up to finish filming today's scene, and immediately took a sick leave with the crew, secretly took a private jet, and rushed to Aurouss Hilll.

When he heard that Megan was about to land, James was a little excited, and said to his assistant: "Okay, you go out, I want to take a bath, and when Miss Megan comes, I will send her directly into the room to see me!"

Chapter 2473

James has a good plan for himself. Before Megan arrived, he took a bath to relieve fatigue. When Megan arrived, he could go straight to bed with her. It is rare to have such a chance to get rid of the nagging woman at home, and naturally take the opportunity to stay with Megan for a few days. Putting off the hot water, James took off his clothes and crawled into the bathtub, soaking his slightly fat body in the hot water. Feeling happy in his heart, he didn't know that he was only 20 minutes away from hell on earth.

At this moment, Charlie Wade and Xion had quietly touched into the Aurouss Hilll International Hotel.

Charlie Wade's skills are needless to speak of, as for Xion, she was originally a master of internal boxing carefully trained by the Elms family, and she has received a lot of professional training for bodyguards and killers, and her strength in this area is also very impressive. More importantly, during this period of time, Xion's veins were completely opened up with the help of Charlie Wade, and her overall strength has improved a lot, so it is not a problem to sneak into the Aurouss Hilll International Hotel with Charlie Wade.

Before coming, Cameron Isaac had investigated the location of James and Steve's rooms in Aurouss Hilll International Hotel. James directly undertook the entire executive floor, so his bodyguards, as well as the masters of the Banks Family, were mostly arranged in rooms near the elevator entrance and staircase entrance.

In their view, the entrance of the stairs and the elevator is the throat of the entire executive floor, and the executive floor is on the 20th floor, the highest floor of the hotel, so as long as you guard the stairs and elevator, you can ensure that James is safe. However, they did not expect that Charlie Wade and Xion would choose to take a helicopter and break through their defense directly from the top.

However, the roar of the helicopter was very loud. Even if the helicopter was at a height of several hundred meters, it could be heard clearly, and it was even deafening. Therefore, Charlie Wade specially asked Cameron Isaac to arrange a firework show to cover himself.

It was half past eleven at night. On the river opposite the Golden Collar International Hotel, huge fireworks suddenly set off. The fireworks were set off on a boat on the river surface. The huge firework pellets soared into the sky, bursting at a height of more than 100 meters above the river surface, and for a while, the entire river surface became extremely lively.

The fireworks exploded one after another, and the sound continued to resound on both sides of the River. For a time, many people were awakened from their sleep, and many people who were not asleep ran to the riverside to watch them in excitement. No one knows why people setting off fireworks on the river. However, Aurouss Hilll itself is a city full of pyrotechnic and romantic atmosphere, and people often set off fireworks to confess their love. Everyone is not surprised. The fireworks continue to set off, bringing the entire river surface and both sides of the bank to a colorful backdrop.

The side of Aurouss Hilll International Hotel along the river was also illuminated like daylight. However, because this side is too bright, the other side naturally appears darker. At this moment, a helicopter in the sky quickly flew towards the roof of Aurouss Hilll International Hotel. The helicopter stays at an altitude of 150 meters, although it is impossible to eliminate the roar of the flight, but because the sound of the fireworks explosion is stronger, people cannot detect the presence of the helicopter at all.

At this moment, inside the helicopter. Charlie Wade and Xion sat side by side, and Cameron Isaac and two of his men sat opposite.

When approaching the hotel, Cameron Isaac said with some worry: "Master, as far as I know, there are at least 20 or 30 masters around James, not including some bodyguards he hired from a local security company. You and Miss Banks are only two people, will it be too dangerous? How about I transfer some hands over!"

Charlie Wade waved his hand and said lightly: "No, only a few people can touch in and withdraw quietly, If there are too many, it would not be so easy to get in and out."

Cameron Isaac was a little nervous, and said: "But Master, I don't know what the strength is. If there is danger, it will be difficult for us to support you effectively."

Chapter 2474

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "You don't have to worry about this. When you get to the top of the hotel for a while, the helicopter does not need to go down. Xion and I will go down by cable, and then you will hover in the sky and wait for about ten minutes. James and Steve will be taken to the balcony. Then you will adjust the ropes and pull us up, and we will go directly to Don Albertt's kennel ."

Cameron Isaac saw that Charlie Wade had arranged everything, and he didn't say more in protest. He firmly said: "Good young master, we will be waiting for you above the hotel."

Charlie Wade said to Xion at this time: "Xion, you will be responsible for Steve Hogwitz, As for James Let me deal with him."

Xion nodded gently, and said respectfully: "As you wish, Young Master Wade!"

Charlie Wade said, "Remember, try not to disturb other people. Let's go in and out quickly. From the eyes of others, James and Steve must disappear, they can't find any clues."

"Good!"

A minute later. The chopper hovered over the roof of the hotel. Cameron Isaac's men immediately put down two extremely strong nylon ropes from both sides of the helicopter. After Charlie Wade and Xion exchanged glances, each grabbed a rope and quickly slid directly from the sides of the helicopter. In the blink of an eye, the two fell silently on the roof of the hotel. Afterwards, the two quietly touched the balcony of James and Steve's room from the outside of the hotel. At this time, Steve didn't have any interest in the fireworks outside. He was lying in bed, trying to fall asleep a little anxiously, but because of the jet lag, he was not sleepy. In desperation, he had to decide to drink some wine to help sleep. So he stood up and prepared to take a bottle of whiskey from the wine cabinet in the hotel room.

At this moment, the sound of fireworks exploding again sounded outside, and he cursed a little irritably: "I don't know which damn bastard is setting off fireworks at this time!" He was muttering, he suddenly felt someone tap his shoulder. Steve was so frightened that his hair stood up. He is the only person in the room, how could someone tap his shoulder? He subconsciously turned his head to look, and a beautiful Chinese woman looked at him with a smile.

This woman is Xion.

Steve immediately realized that the other party was not friendly, panicked, and was about to call for help. He felt that his neck was suddenly hit hard, and he fainted.

At this time. Charlie Wade also touched into James's presidential suite.

At this time, James had just finished soaking in the bath, wrapped in a bathrobe and dangling a cigar, while walking out of the bathroom, while holding his mobile phone, he sent a voice WeChat message to Megan: "Baby, how long will it take to arrive?"

The other party quickly replied , The voice said incomparably sweetly: "Dear, wait for me for another ten minutes. I have already entered the city, and I will be there soon!"

James smiled irritably, "Let the driver drive faster, if ten minutes hits and you haven't arrived yet, I'm going to hit your ass!"

After he said, he loosened his finger and the voice was sent. At this moment, he suddenly heard a man open his mouth and laughed: "Mr. Banks, that beautiful woman's ass, I don't think you can beat it!

Chapter 2475

When James heard the voice, he jumped like he just received an electric shock. He immediately turned towards the voice, and on a small stool in the bathroom door, sat a young man with a smile on his face.

He was shocked, and he blurted out and asked: "Who are you?!"

Charlie Wade sneered: "Me? I'm the great benefactor of your Banks Familyy."

James said nervously, "What kind of benefactor? What do you want to do?"

Charlie Wade smiled: "I am really the great benefactor of your Banks Familyy. Your eldest brother's children are Fitz and Zara. They were kidnapped in Japan, so I saved them. Do you think I am the great benefactor of your Banks Familyy?"

"What?!" James said dumbfounded: "Are you the mysterious master of Japan?!"

Charlie Wade asked with interest: "Why? You have heard of me?"

James said falteringly: "I heard my niece talk about it to my father, and if I had a chance to find you, I must thank you very much."

He said, his eyes looked carefully. Looking at Charlie Wade, he wanted to figure out whether this person was an enemy or a friend.

He secretly analyzed in his heart: "This kid suddenly appeared in my room. No matter how you look at it, he is up to no good. But if he really is the mysterious person who rescued Fitz and Zara in Japan, then there should be no ill will to the Banks Familyy, right?"

Charlie Wade smiled at this time and said: "Oh, if your Banks Familyy really wants to thank me, then it should be a really good, heartfelt gratitude. Because I not only saved their siblings, but also rescued your elder brother's illegitimate daughter."

James's expression suddenly changed!

"My eldest brother's illegitimate daughter?! You mean Xion?!"

Seeing him in horror, Charlie Wade nodded and said with a smile: "Yes, I rescued Xion."

James didn't know whether Charlie Wade was an enemy or a friend, but now he already had something in his heart. The answer. The man in front of him must be an enemy. Because, it was Xion's sudden disappearance that the old man's business with the Japanese Self-Defense Force was not fulfilled, and it was completely exposed.

The nervous James immediately said: "Xion's matter was the idea of my father alone, and I did not participate in it."

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "I haven't finished speaking yet. Don't rush to explain to yourself."

James hurriedly said respectfully: "Please tell me."

Charlie Wade hummed, leaned back, and said leisurely: "Your sister-in-law and your eldest niece were kidnapped by a wanted criminal and had a car accident. They almost died and I saved them both."

"What?! It's you?!" James was even more frightened when he heard this! The last thing he wanted to hear was that Deana and Zara were still alive! Unexpectedly, they were also rescued by this young man! The nervous James was afraid that Charlie Wade would see his guilty conscience. He hurriedly pretended to be excited and said, "I didn't expect my sister-in-law and niece to be alive! That's great! Great!"

After finishing, he hurriedly said again: "I came to Aurouss Hilll to find their whereabouts. Don't you know, our family is very nervous about the safety of this mother and daughter. Before I came, my father also told me to find them at all costs and ensure nothing happened! I didn't expect them to be saved by you, thank you so much!"

Charlie Wade said with a smile: "James, I thought all the men from the Banks Family were old foxes who were scheming, I didn't expect your acting to be so exaggerated. It's like you didn't even try at all. It really disappoints me."

Chapter 2476

James nervously said: "What do you mean by this, I don't understand?"

While speaking, James's brain was already running at high speed. He can now be sure that the young man in front of him has bad intentions, so what he thinks in his mind is how to get out of trouble. At this moment, the first thought that appeared in his mind was calling for help.

"On this floor of the hotel, there are at least 40 or 50 of my subordinates, and there are many masters among them. The combined combat power is amazing. This kid is not an opponent to them. However, this guy can appear to me silently In the room, it proves that his strength is still very strong! Combined with the previous descriptions of him by Fitz and Zara, this person can kill many top Japanese ninjas by himself, which shows that This person is extremely powerful. Even if my subordinates can beat him together, I'm afraid he will be killed directly when I call for help."

Thinking of this, he immediately gave up the idea of calling for help.

"But, if I don't call for help, what should I do next? What if he wants to kill me?"

Just as he was struggling, Xion stepped in. When James saw Xion, he immediately tremblingly opened his mouth like seeing a ghost: "Xion, why are you here?!"

Xion looked at him coldly and asked, "What? I'm still alive, you must be disappointed?"

James said hurriedly, "Xion, don't get me wrong. You are the flesh and blood of my elder brother, and you are my niece. How could I hope that something happened to you?"

Xion gritted his teeth. Said: "James, don't you pretend to be a good person here! Your Banks Family regarded me as cannon fodder and sold my life directly to the Japanese Self-Defense Force. Isn't that true?"

James explained suddenly: "Xion, that matter is not my decision, it's your grandfather."

Xion immediately angered: "He is not my grandfather! He is a cruel and shameless scum, sooner or later, I will kill him personally!"

Seeing Xion's emotions, Charlie Wade said indifferently: "Xion, you must learn to control your emotions at all times, otherwise, no matter how talented you are, it will be difficult to become a master in the future!"

Ordinary practitioners only practice skin and muscles. As long as they practice hard, their temper and emotions will not have much impact on their own strength. However, for people like Xion, who practiced internal martial arts since childhood and mastered internal power, what they fear most is mentality problems. Otherwise, it is very likely that you will fall into a bottleneck period, and it will be difficult to make a breakthrough.

When Xion heard Charlie Wade's words, she hurried back to her senses, controlled her emotions, and said ashamed: "Thank you Master Wade for reminding me. I was too impulsive."

James pointed at Charlie Wade and exclaimed. "You.. your surname is Wade?!"

Charlie Wade nodded, "Yes, my surname is Wade."

James blurted out: "You are the Wade family?!"

He muttered to himself as soon as he finished speaking. "It's impossible. I have never heard of any masters in the Wade family."

As soon as the voice fell, he raised his head and looked at Charlie Wade. The more he looked at it, the more he felt that this young man seemed very familiar! Seen somewhere! So, he racked his brains and thought carefully for a moment, and suddenly a face popped out of his mind, and this face immediately surprised him!

He looked at Charlie Wade and blurted out: "Why do you look like Bruce? Who are you to Bruce?!"

Charlie Wade put away his cynical expression, and said coldly: "Bruce is my father, I am His son, Charlie Wade!"

Chapter 2477

The moment Charlie Wade revealed his identity, James reacted as if he was struck by lightning!

He looked at Charlie Wade dumbfounded, and blurted out in a panic: "You... are you really Bruce's son?"

After saying this, he muttered to himself before Charlie Wade could answer. "If you look like this, you can't be wrong..."

Then, he hurriedly said: "Charlie Wade, I have some friendship with your dad. It stands to reason that you should call me uncle.."

Charlie Wade said disdainfully: "Let me call you uncle? Are you worthy?"

James said hurriedly: "I know, you certainly don't have a good impression of the Banks Familyy, but we Banks and Wade family have long had an agreement on non-interference and non-confrontation. For more than ten or twenty decades, we have been following the tenet of not violating the river and developing our own economy. You...you cannot break this agreement."

Charlie Wade snorted coldly: " The agreement between you and the Wade family is a matter between you and has nothing to do with me."

James said in a panic: "You...your surname is Wade... .. You have to abide by the agreement between the Wade Family and us!"

Charlie Wade sneered: "I don't recognize any agreement between you and the Wade Family. I only recognize one thing."

"What?!!"

Charlie Wade said word by word: "My parents death must be avenged!"

James became more panicked, blurting out: "But the death of your parents has nothing to do with our Banks Familyy!"

Charlie Wade said coldly. : "Your Banks Familyy took the lead in forming an anti-leaf alliance. Just this alone will cost you!"

James quickly explained: "Charlie Wade...When your father's accident happened, I hadn't started taking over the Banks Familyy affairs specifically, and the Anti-Leaf Alliance had nothing to do with me..."

Charlie Wade stood up, grabbing James's bathrobe collar, and sternly said: "If it matters, it's not that you have the final say, but I have the final say!" he smiled lightly and said: "Mr. Banks, I will prepare for you in Aurouss Hilll. I've got a good room, now that I'm here, just come with me and enjoy it!"

James didn't know where Charlie Wade would take him, let alone what he planned to do with him. Just by looking at Charlie Wade's expression, he knew that it was definitely not a good thing, so he sobbed in fright and begged: "Charlie Wade, I really haven't done anything to hurt your father. The Anti-Leaf Alliance was made by my father and my elder brother. Yes, you have the wrongdoer and the debtor. If you want revenge, you are looking for them..."

Charlie Wade said with a smile: "Your Banks Familyy is really a fucking raccoon. If something goes wrong, let your family take care of it. "

After speaking, his tone suddenly improved a bit, and he said sharply: "But don't worry, your dad and your brother can't escape, but it's a matter of time! Please come with me today!"

When the voice fell, Charlie Wade stretched out his hand and slapped his forehead hard. James only felt dizzy in his brain, and he instantly lost consciousness.

Immediately, Charlie Wade asked Xion: "Where is Steve?"

Xion hurriedly said respectfully: "Master Wade, Steve is tied up after being knocked unconscious by me, and he is on the balcony."

"Good! " Charlie Wade nodded, and said to Xion: "Xion, you help me deal with the traces and don't leave any clues."

Xion said without hesitation: "Good Master Wade, the handling of the scene is One of the things I do best."

In the past, Xion worked for the Banks Familyy, and there were often assassinations or kidnappings. Every time Xion was able to clean up all clues without leaving a trace, she was very capable in this regard. Charlie Wade handed the scene to her, and dragged James, who was like a dead pig, to the huge balcony of the presidential suite.

At this time, Steve, who was unconscious, had his hands and feet firmly bound by the sheets, and his body curled up into a spherical shape.
Chapter 2478

Charlie Wade took out his mobile phone and asked Cameron Isaac to tell the helicopter pilot to put down the rope. When it dropped, he firmly tied Steve and James together with a sturdy nylon rope. Then the two were quietly lifted up by the winch.

At this moment, Xion retreated while dealing with the footprints she had left, step by step back to the balcony, and respectfully said to Charlie Wade: "Mr. Wade, everything is done!"

Charlie Wade nodded. At this moment, Cameron Isaac sent a message: "Master, a business car came from the airport and entered the hotel basement. James's people just sealed the basement. It is estimated that the people in this car should have come to him. You and Miss Banks need to get out fast."

Charlie Wade smiled: "It should be a good friend to James."

Then he grabbed another rope, and said "Time is running out, you grab my waist, Let's go up together."

The helicopter only has two ropes on the left and right, the one hanging from Steve and James. If you wait for the winch to lift them up, untie the ropes, and then lower the ropes, it will take at least seven or eight minutes. Since James's lover has arrived in the hotel basement, it is estimated that she will come up soon, so in order not to leave any clues, it is better to leave as soon as possible. Therefore, if two people use the same rope, a lot of time can be saved.

Xion nodded immediately, but when she thought of holding Charlie Wade, her cheeks were already warm. At this moment, Charlie Wade had already grabbed the rope and said to Xion: "Hold my waist, don't be afraid, I will hold you tight."

Xion whispered: "Yes Master Wade... .." After speaking, she mustered up her courage, stepped forward and hugged Charlie Wade's waist.

Feeling Charlie Wade's hard chest muscles, Xion's face became more and more hot. This is the first time that she has been so close and loving with a man. Charlie Wade didn't think much about it. He hugged her tightly, wrapped the rope around the waists of the two of them a few times, and then squeezed one end of the rope in the hand that was holding Xion.

After confirming that the rope was tied firmly, he picked up the phone in the other hand and sent a voice message to Cameron Isaac: "Just let the helicopter rise, hurry up and get out of here!"

"Yes master!" Cameron Isaac did not dare to delay, immediately asking the pilot to raise the altitude. Charlie Wade held Xion and was quickly picked up by the helicopter.

In order to ensure safety, Charlie Wade has been holding Xion tightly, and Xion also hugged Charlie Wade's waist strongly. Immediately afterwards, the two people's ground clearance increased, and the helicopter pulled up to a height of several hundred meters, and then flew towards Don Albertt's kennel. After the plane flew away, the firework show on the river finally died down. Both sides of the Yangtze River quickly returned from noisy to calm.

At the same time. A woman wearing a mask, sunglasses and a peaked cap took a car and arrived at the second basement parking lot of Aurouss Hill International Hotel. James's people have been waiting here long ago. The car stopped directly at the elevator entrance, and the surrounding area of the elevator had been completely cleared by James's men. It was impossible for any paparazzi to lurch in, and even the surveillance video in the hotel parking lot was required to be shut down.

The car door opened, and the woman who completely covered her face stepped down. James's assistant stepped forward and whispered: "Miss Megan, please come with me. The boss has been waiting for a long time!"

The woman hurriedly said, "Oh, then hurry up. Take me up! Don't make him wait anxiously!"

Chapter 2479

This woman is the young actress, Megan Endris. Everyone in the entertainment industry knows that there is a super powerful benefactor behind Megan, but most people don't know who the benefactor is. Since playing with James, Megan's resources in the entertainment industry are so good that all actors are envious. Other actresses, with good resources, usually have the opportunity to appear in some larger movies and TV series every three to five years. Those actresses with good resources can shoot an annual drama by a well-known director every year.

Actresses like Megan with extremely good resources generally don't have to do anything. The benefactor behind her will spend money to invite the best director, the hottest actor, and the hottest supporting role to play around her. A role completely tailored for her alone. It was James who directly took several hundred million, and invited a bunch of big names in the entertainment industry to come and serve her. Mixing in the entertainment industry in this way can be said to be earth-shattering. It is precisely because of James's energy in the entertainment circle that Megan is obedient to him. No matter where she is or what she is doing, as long as James makes a call, she will fly to James to accompany him no matter how far away, and take care of him.

James's assistant directly invited Megan into the elevator, and then used the elevator administrator's key to adjust the elevator to the manual control state, and directly let the elevator go to the top floor. As long as the manual state is adjusted inside the elevator, it will be useless for anyone outside to press the elevator on any floor, and the elevator will not stop. Within dozens of seconds, the elevator came to the top floor of the hotel.

As soon as the elevator door opened, the assistant stepped forward and respectfully said: "Miss Megan, please come with me!"

Megan also hurriedly followed, walking quickly, raising her wrist, looking at the time on her watch. At this time, there are still about forty seconds before the ten-minute deadline James said. Megan breathed a sigh of relief, and forty seconds was enough to go to James's room. Although James was late for a few minutes, he might not be angry, but Megan still did not dare to let him have any dissatisfaction with her. She knew that serving James well was the most important thing for her right now.

When he came to the entrance of the presidential suite, the assistant pressed the doorbell and whispered: "Boss, Miss Megan is here."

There was no response in the room. The assistant rang the doorbell again, but there was still no movement in the room.

He turned around and said to Megan: "The boss may be taking a bath, wait a moment, and I will press it again."

Megan hurriedly said, "I'll call him!" As he said, she took out her mobile phone and gave James a call. Soon, the phone ringing was faintly heard in the room, but not only did James not answer the phone, there was no other sound in the room.

The assistant's expression froze suddenly, and he blurted out nervously: "Something's happened! It's probably an accident!"

"An accident?! What's wrong?!" Megan was shocked when she heard this.

The assistant hurriedly said: "I don't know what happened, please wait a moment!" After saying that, he immediately took out his cell phone, made a call, and whispered: "Come on, the boss may have an accident. Hurry!"

Five seconds later, the doors of several rooms near the elevator entrance opened almost at the same time.

Chapter 2480

A gray-haired old man in a Thompson suit took the lead and ran over fast. Behind, more than a dozen men with extraordinary auras followed closely, everyone's expression was solemn, and there was a little panic that was hard to conceal.

Everyone hurried to the door of the presidential suite, and the white-haired old man headed by hurriedly asked: "What's the matter?!"

The assistant hurriedly said, "The boss didn't respond to the doorbell, and no one answered the call, but the phone was inside ringing."

One of them asked, "The last time you saw the boss, what was the boss doing?"

The assistant hurriedly said: "The boss said that he was going to take a bath."

The person asked again: "Could it be when the boss took a bath he fell asleep?"

The assistant shook his head: "I don't know too well, but based on what I know about the boss, I doubt it!"

There are some things that the assistant cannot say too clearly. For example, he knew very well that James liked Megan very much. Every time Megan came to see him quietly, she would wait very excitedly for Megan to appear. Sometimes, in order to find a better state, he even arranges for himself to prepare some drugs to help. So, for that reason, he should not fall asleep at this time.

At this time, the gray-haired old man said with a solemn expression: "Even if the boss falls asleep in the bath, it is easy to have an accident. Let's break in!"

The assistant also nodded quickly. He wanted to know what happened to James, breaking in is the only way. So, he immediately said to the old man: "Everything is up to you!"

The old man nodded, and focused the inner strength of his body to his right leg, he kicked out suddenly, and the door flew off the door frame into the room! Immediately, he took the lead and rushed in. James's presidential suite is very large, with an area of more than 400 square meters, and even has its own indoor swimming pool, which can be said to be extremely luxurious.

Therefore, a bunch of people rushed in, struggling to search every corner, and then everyone met and came to a conclusion that shocked them: James is missing! He was gone! Like he had evaporated off the earth!

He, who was originally very strong, is now panicking, his face is covered with wrinkles caused by tension. As he paced back and forth in the living room, he said eagerly: "What the hell is going on? We have been paying attention to the elevator entrance and stairway. We can be sure that the boss has never left at all, and we have not heard anything. How has the boss simply disappeared?"

The assistant blurted out, "Do you want to send someone to look downstairs? Did he accidentally fall down or something?"

When he said this, he immediately rushed to the balcony, leaned on the luxurious railing and looked down. While watching, he said: "There is nothing unusual below, it must not be a fall."

Someone couldn't help muttering, "He didn't go down. The only direction he could have gone is up."

"Up?" Hearing this, The old master frowned and said, "Upstairs is the rooftop, and you can't get up from the room, so it's impossible for him to just fly away, right?"

"This is too weird," someone said flusteredly: "Even if you fart, it will leave a little smell. How could a living person suddenly disappear?!"

After reading around, the assistant opened his mouth and said: "The boss's clothes are still there, and the bathrobe is missing. If he left quietly, he would at least change into his clothes. Could it be he was kidnapped?!"

Chapter 2481

"Kidnapped?!" The old master's face twitched. What he fears most is that James is kidnapped. So, he couldn't help but secretly think in his heart: "How do I say I am one of the top masters of the Banks Family. I have personally come to Aurouss Hilll to protect the second son. If he is really kidnapped silently under my nose, then where do I put my old face? How can I explain to the master when I go back?"

Immediately, he thought of Steve who lives next to James, as if grasping at straws, and blurted out: "Is the boss chatting with that American next door?!"

The assistants with him are waiting for a miracle, and after seeing that James can not be found they are panicking, hearing this, they at once brighten up and blurt out: "it is possible! We must go see!"

After speaking, they immediately turned around and ran out. Others hurriedly followed. But when they rang the doorbell in the next room, there was still no response. The people who were still holding a glimmer of hope soon lost all their hope. Everyone looked at the Old Master, Master Hett, waiting for him to give an idea. He always has a calm and unpredictable look on his face. With a dark face, he kicked the door of Steve's room with a kick, and rushed in again with everyone. It turned out that Steve, like James, had evaporated from the world

Like a dog, he smelled here, looked there, and touched everywhere. After a long time, he didn't find any valuable clues, and he was so flustered that at the end of the search, his hands trembled uncontrollably. Finally, he sat down on the ground and said with a gray face: "Hurry up and call the master to report!"

A few minutes ago, Lord Banks just lay down. What happened in Aurouss Hilll made him sleepless. In particular, the whereabouts of Deana and Zara being unaccounted for, made him always worried about the incident. Moreover, he was indeed a little worried about his eldest granddaughter, Zara, after all, she was his favorite since childhood, and he really loved her very much. However, as the Banks Family gradually took control of public opinion, his inner worries eased a lot.

Although he was still a little worried about Zara, he later thought about it carefully. Zara and Deana got into the car together, had a car accident together, and disappeared together. If he hoped that Deana would die, Zara would certainly not escape death. If you hope that Zara will survive, then Deana will survive.

Therefore, he later turned his mind and thought to himself: "The most worry-free result is that the two of you should die together. Otherwise, if only Zara is alive, then based on her character, she will definitely do everything possible to investigate the whole incident, and she might turn her back on him, so it was best to just follow the thought that they were both dead."

He was somewhat relieved to understand this. Now to just wait for James to report back as soon as possible the news of the death of them. At this moment, the butler knocked on the door to announce: "Master, the Thorne Family is here."

"The Thorne Family?" Lord Banks sat up and asked: "Who is all here?"

The butler hurriedly said: "Master, Lord Thorne came with Dalton, the elder of the Thorne Family."

Master Banks couldn't help rubbing his temples, and sighed, "It's so annoying. Did they come and ask me about Deana? Aurouss Hilll is not my site, and there is no evidence to prove that Deana was killed by me, so why would they ask me? However, the Thorne Family is still my in-laws after all. And there is a deep relationship at the top level. I can't clearly offend, so I can only deal with it!"

Thinking of this, Lord Banks said to the butler: "You arrange them to sit in the living room for a while, and I'll come there."

"Yes master!" A few minutes later, Lord Banks stepped into the living room. As soon as he arrived in the living room, he saw the Thorne Family's father and son standing in the middle of the living room with an angry face. He immediately pretended to have a painful expression, greeted them, and said: "What's going on with your family, Deana and Zara, do you have any news??"

Lord Thorne said coldly, "Lord Banks! I want to ask you! Does the matter between Deana and Zara have anything to do with you?! You'd better tell me the truth, otherwise, you will make an enemy of me!"

"Me?!" Lord Banks said. Holding his chest, he said with a heartache: "Deana is my daughter-in-law, and Zara is my granddaughter. How could I hurt them?!" After he finished speaking, he immediately added: "I have sent James to Aurouss Hilll to investigate and rescue quickly, I am trying my best to ensure the safety of them!"

Although Lord Thorne had some doubts about Mr. Banks, there was no evidence after all. And one thing that puzzles him a little is that he knows that Lord Banks loves Zara very much. If Deana had an accident, they would think 80% of the work was done by Lord Banks or Zayne, who is far away in Australia. However, because Zara was also in the accident, they both felt that the two men would not murder their granddaughter or their daughter.

Therefore, Lord Thorne, who is not sure about the situation for the time being, asked in a cold voice: "Did James go to Aurouss Hilll to investigate any results?"

"This..." Lord Banks said with a sad expression: "I haven't received any clear feedback yet. He said, he made people search the hospital in Aurouss Hilll, but they didn't find them."

With that, Lord Banks hurriedly said, "Don't worry, Lord Thorne, I'll call now and ask James if there's any news."

Lord Thorne nodded and said: "Okay, then call and ask him!"

As he spoke, the housekeeper's cell phone suddenly rang, he hurried to the corner to connect, and then ran over to report Said: "Master, it's a call from Master Hett, saying that there is something important to report to you!"

"Oh?" Lord Banks said hurriedly, "Give me the phone!" The butler quickly handed him the phone, Lord Banks immediately after the call, he asked: "Old Hett, have you found any important clues in Aurouss Hilll?"

He said with a trembling voice: "I'm sorry, master..."

"I'm sorry for what?" Lord Banks noticed something wrong. He frowned and asked: "What's the matter, hurry up!"

Old Hett choked and said : "Master James... Master James...."

Lord Banks was mad, and he blurted out: "Don't hesitate when you speak! What's wrong with James? Hurry up!"

Master Hett sighed heavily: "Master James, he, he is missing!"

The Lord Banks was angry in an instant, and he blurted out: "Missing?! You were supposed to be guarding him! How did a living person, under your nose, disappear right after arriving in Aurouss Hilll?!"

Chapter 2483

Lord Banks couldn't accept it. His second son had just arrived in Aurouss Hilll and had not even been able to spend the night in Aurouss Hilll and he had disappeared. Besides, He knows his strength. Having played for the Banks Familyy for many years, he is a rare opponent. James was secretly protected, how could he still disappear?

Mr. Hett on the other side of the phone also sighed at this time, and said with shame: "Master, I have been on the same floor with Master James, and I have been guarding against any disturbances, but unexpectedly, he suddenly seemed to have evaporated. Disappeared in his room. This whole thing is so weird that it's hard to believe it."

He said, he hurriedly said again: "Yes, not only Master James is missing, but even the new friend of his is also missing."

Lord Banks hurriedly asked: "A new friend? What kind of new friend?"

Elder Hett hurriedly explained: "It is an American that Master James met at the airport. Their family has something to do with the Rothschild family, and he happened to have something to do with him. He booked the same hotel with Master James, so Master James invited him to stay next door to him ."

Lord Banks blurted out and asked, "Could it be that American has taken him?"

"It's not like that." Hett said. "I have observed that American. He is an ordinary middle-aged person. He doesn't seem to be someone with kung fu or special strength, so it must not be him."

Lord Banks frowned and said coldly: "This matter is even more weird. It is already very difficult to let one person disappear silently under your nose, let alone get two people away at the same time?!"

Old Hett hurriedly said, "Yes, sir. I suspect that the other party must be a master of masters!"

Lord Banks said nervously: "How can such a powerful person exist in such a small place as Aurouss Hilll? You have been among martial artists for so many years. Have you heard that Aurouss Hilll has had any masters appear?"

"Never." Elder Hett said truthfully: "Master, frankly speaking, Aurouss Hilll doesn't even have a martial arts family that can be said to have a little bit of fame."

"That's even more weird ." The Lord Banks felt a panic in his heart, and he endured it. He couldn't help rubbing his temples, and said, "Aurouss Hilll is a place that is really strange. Deana and Zara are still missing, and James suddenly disappeared after being guarded. It feels like there is a curse in this place."

Elder Hett hurriedly said: "Master, strange things are not only that, the American that Master James met today came to Aurouss Hilll also to find his son. It is said that his son disappeared with a dozen of his subordinates some time ago and could not find any information or clues."

When he heard this Lord Banks felt a chill down his back. He really didn't understand what kind of strong man was hiding from him. With this ability to cover the sky with one hand, that person must be extraordinary!

So he hurriedly asked: "Old Hett, I do not care what kind of way, be sure to find the whereabouts of James, if not find him, you do not come back." Then he glanced at the corner at Lord Thorne, who came to the side, hurriedly said again: "There are also Deana and Zara! The three of them are from the Banks Familyy, and we must bring them back safely!"

Chapter 2484

Old Hett hurriedly said : "Master, don't worry, I will go all out!"

Lord Banks said: "Okay! First investigate clues in Aurouss Hilll, and I will immediately send someone to support you!"

Hang up the phone, Lord Banks said to Lord Thorne with a guilty expression: "You heard it just now. Now not only Deana and Zara are missing, but James is also missing, you can no longer doubt that I am the cause of this. Deana is my daughter-in-law, Zara is my own granddaughter, and James is my own son. Obviously someone is deliberately targeting our Banks Familyy!"

Lord Thorne was embarrassed by his original outburst. The motive came, but what happened just now made him involuntarily dispel the suspicion of Lord Banks. When things have reached this point, in his opinion, it is absolutely impossible for Lord Banks to play behind his back. Someone even took his son James. This shows that they are going to fight against the Banks Familyy.

Thinking of this, he hurriedly asked: "Lord Banks, are you telling me the truth, have you offended anyone recently? Think about it, who is this capable?"

Lord Banks spread his hand and said: " You know my character. I don't usually constrain, so I offend many people. So now you make me think, I can't figure out who it could be."

Lord Thorne couldn't help sighing, he knew very well in his heart. Lord Banks was telling the truth. Since the Banks Familyy surpassed the Wade family and became the first family of China, Lord Banks has always regarded himself as the leader of the business community. He is usually arrogant. He is unconcerned about who he offends.

Thinking of this, he said sternly: "Lord Banks, what happened just now was that I was rash. The top priority now is to quickly find out all three of them. I sent two of my people to Aurouss Hilll two hours ago. I think it's better for our two families to investigate together, what do you think?"

Seeing that he had temporarily resolved Lord Thorne's suspicion, Mr. Banks was slightly relieved and said: "Oh, Lord Thorne, it would be great if you would be willing to investigate with me! I'm afraid you misunderstand me. I was grieved. I didn't expect that you would still be willing to join hands with me. I am touched by this kindness!"

Lord Thorne said a little apologetically, "I just said something inappropriate because I was impatient. Don't mind too much."

Lord Banks said immediately ashamed: "How could it be! You handed Deana to our Banks Familyy, and we failed to protect her. This is the Banks Familyy's responsibility, even if you beat me, that's what I deserve."

He sighed and waved his hand: "Hey, let's not talk about this! The top priority now is that we have to send more people to Aurouss Hilll quickly, even if Aurouss Hilll is turned over. We must rescue them all!"

Lord Thorne nodded and said, "In this case, Dalton and I will go back and sort out all the resources and contacts, and transfer all the personnel who can be deployed as soon as possible to Aurouss Hilll!"

"Okay!" Lord Banks also deliberately pretended to be excited, and said: "In this case, then I will immediately mobilize all the people who can mobilize, all of them!"

Lord Thorne hummed, said: "Then we will leave first !"

Lord Banks said hurriedly : "I will send you out!"

Lord Thorne said quickly : "You should stay here, we can go out by ourselves."

Lord Banks pretended to be angry and said: "Lord Thorne, you can't turn down my hospitality! Come on, I'll see you off!"

Chapter 2485

At this moment, in Aurouss Hilll. The helicopter flew all the way to the dog farm Don Albertt owned. At this time, the kennel is already busy. Don Albertt was waiting for Charlie Wade's arrival. As the roar of helicopters in the sky grew louder and louder, everyone's expectations were also beyond words. Immediately afterwards, the helicopter descended slowly and stopped in the middle of the kennel. Don Albertt immediately led people to greet him.

At this time, Cameron Isaac opened the helicopter's hatch, and then made an inviting gesture to Charlie Wade, respectfully saying: "Master Wade please!"

Charlie Wade nodded and got off the plane with Xion .

Don Albertt hurriedly said: "Master Wade, I have prepared the single room and the warm father-son reunion ceremony. I am all ready. When do you think we will start?"

"Don't worry." Charlie Wade waved his hand. Pointing to James and Steve, who were still unconscious and tied together in the cabin, they said, "First take them to your office, take off their clothes, leaving only a pair of pants, and then pour a basin of cold water on each of them, by the way, remember to open the windows."

It's still in the first month, and the weather in Aurouss Hilll is still cold, showing no signs of warming up. In this kind of weather, if you are stripped of your clothes and a basin of cold water is poured on you, and you are in a room with wide open windows, most people may not be able to bear it.

Don Albertt didn't hesitate at all, and immediately said to the men next to him: "Hurry up and bring these two guys to the office. Someone go and get some cold water over to us!"

Several of the men immediately stepped forward and grabbed the unconscious men. James and Steve were dragged directly to Don Albertt's office.

Charlie Wade asked at this moment: "Don Albertt, how is Walter's situation now?"

Don Albertt hurriedly said, "Master Wade, Walter is now in the late stage of uremia. Don't worry, I have given full play to humanity. He actively treats him, and now he is given hemodialysis once a day, which can basically save his life."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Take me to see him!"

"Yes Master Wade! "

Charlie Wade and Cameron Isaac with five men went to go visit the kennel area, Cameron Isaac walked around the side to observe, sighed and said: "Your place is indeed in need of expansion, when will it start? "

Don Albertt said respectfully: "Master Wade, since Mr. Cameron told me about this last time, I have already asked people to come up with the expansion plan!"

With that, he told Charlie Wade very seriously: " My current preliminary plan is to free up an area of 500 square meters in the yard, excavate this area directly, and build a three-dimensional kennel with three floors underground. By then, the total usable area will be at least 1,000. There are seventy or eighty kennels on the square meter. There is no problem at all! This three-dimensional kennel is made of reinforced concrete. There are no exits on the three underground floors. All entrances and exits are concentrated on a large ground-level kennel. The personnel entering and exiting must go through this large room for security inspection. At the same time, the security guards are guarded 24 hours a day to ensure that a dog is not allowed to run out of the kennel!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and joked: "In that case, in your kennel , I can raise at least a thousand dogs."

"Yes, Master Wade!" Don Albertt said with a smile: "Expanding at this scale should be enough, but as long as you say something, I can continue to expand at any time. We can develop the entire kennel underground!"

Charlie Wade nodded with satisfaction, and said: "If the money is not enough, please tell me at any time. I personally still have a good view of your business, whatever you need, I am willing to invest into it!"

Cameron Isaac listened to the chat between the two of them. For some reason, what he imagined in his mind was all kinds of people locked up in dog cages. At this time, a few people have come to the gate of the kennel.

Chapter 2486

Don Albertt immediately asked people to open the heavy iron door. As soon as he entered the door, he heard the fighting dogs in the surrounding kennels barking.

Seeing this, Don Albertt immediately shouted with a cold face: "Shut up those dogs, whoever dares to bark, I will kill it!" Amazingly, as Don Albertt shouted, the dogs in the entire kennel stopped barking without exception.

Don Albertt was satisfied, and said to Charlie Wade, "Master Wade, please go!"

Charlie Wade followed Don Albertt into the kennel. In the middle, he saw Walter's men and Lord Banks's men. John Garrett and the four of them.

John Garrett saw Charlie Wade, his eyes went wide like he saw a ghost. Since being locked up in the kennel and seeing Walter's end in person, John Garrett's fear of Charlie Wade has deepened several layers. He is locked here now, and what he is most worried about is how Charlie Wade will send him off next. In the unlikely event that someone arranges a "package" similar to Walter for myself, wouldn't I be better off in death?! What frightened him even more was what if Charlie Wade really let someone raise a group of African hyenas?!

Therefore, he saw Charlie Wade coming, from behind the iron cage, he knelt on the ground and begged Charlie Wade: "Master Wade Wade, please forgive me. We really know that we are wrong. Please be merciful and go around us. "

Don Albertt shouted sharply at this time: "You guys keep your mouth shut or I will tie you up directly and throw them into the dogfighting pile that has been starved for more than three days!" John Garrett immediately trembled with fright. Just like the barking dogs before, he didn't even dare to say a word in an instant.

Don Albertt hurriedly said to Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, don't mind, these new guys don't understand the rules. Let me train them for a few days. In a few days, they will become honest and convincing. They'll be docile."

Charlie Wade nodded and said indifferently: "These people are extremely sinful and they are of no use. If they perform well, they will be left with a dog. If they do not perform well, just kill them."

Don Albertt immediately Said: "Yes Master Wade!"

John Garrett was even more frightened when he heard Charlie Wade's words.

He knew that he had no value to Charlie Wade now, because he had already recorded a video exposing the crimes of the Banks Familyy under Charlie Wade's persecution. Under this circumstance, it is really possible for Charlie Wade to spare his life.

At this time, Don Albertt took Charlie Wade past the cage of John Garrett and the four of them, pointed to an iron cage not far away, and said, "Master Wade, Walter is in that cage. Charlie Wade looked in the direction of his finger. He saw a single hospital bed in the iron cage, and several sets of various medical equipment beside it.

Walter was lying on the hospital bed extremely weak, his whole body swollen. Seeing Charlie Wade coming, he was shocked and scared, and at the same time he hated Charlie Wade. Having suffered so much these days, he feels like he is falling into the 18th floor of hell, so naturally he is full of hatred for Charlie Wade.

Charlie Wade came to the iron cage, looked at Walter, who was pale and swollen, and asked with concern: "Mr. Walter, how are you feeling in the last few days? There is nothing wrong with my subordinates, treatment, right?"

Walter was angry. "Wade, you're a complete devil!"

Charlie Wade asked curiously, "Oh? I'm a devil? I just want you to taste the method you used to deal with others. And I'm a devil?"

Walter gritted his teeth and roared: "You better let me go! Otherwise, our Hogwitz family will not let you go! The Rothschild family will not let you go either! They will definitely come to Aurouss Hilll and kill you with their own hands!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said: "Your Hogwitz family is really amazing. I heard that in order to find you, a guy named Steve Hogwitz came here specifically. Are you familiar with this person?"

Chapter 2487

When Walter heard Charlie Wade mentioned the name Steve Hogwitz, his expression immediately became shocked! He did not expect that his father would rush to Aurouss Hilll himself to find him. This did not make him feel good, but deep inside him, he felt a deep panic. Although he is still using the names of the Hogwtz family and the Rothschild family to try to frighten Charlie Wade and make a dying struggle. However, he knew very well in his heart that he was nothing more than a fake tiger.

"Our family is just an ordinary relative of the Rothschild family, and the weight and energy are not that strong." The so-called foreign relatives, in ancient and modern times, refer to relatives of the emperor, the king's mother, and his wife. The meaning of facing directly is also very simple. They are unimportant relatives. So, the Rothschild family basically won't help me. And our Hogwitz family is strong. But it's not enough in front of Charlie Wade. Father, he ran all the way to Aurouss Hilll. He is definitely not an opponent of a snake like Charlie Wade. What's more, Charlie Wade is still from Eastcliff. The Wade family's young master and chairman of the Emgrand Group. He is stronger than the Hogwitz family by thousands of miles. So, he came to Aurouss Hilll and there is almost no other possibility besides giving away his head. In case he also falls in Charlie Wade In my hand, isn't it all over?"

Thinking of this, Walter hurriedly said: "Wade. This is a matter between the two of us. It has nothing to do with my father!!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Oh? Then what do you mean?"

Walter blurted out: "What I mean is very simple. In the words of your people, it would be misfortune to your family. So, if you have anything to do with me, please don't involve my dad!"

Charlie Wade agreed. He nodded and said seriously: "Walter, what you said sounds like a very reasonable point."

Walter said hurriedly: "Then you have to promise me, don't do anything to my father!"

Charlie Wade sighed helplessly. , Smiled: "I'm so sorry, Walter, you said it was a bit late."

Walter widened his eyes: "It's a bit late?! What do you mean?!"

Charlie Wade smiled: "Your dad has been caught by me. I will bring him over to see you in a while, so that you, father and son, will be reunited."

Walter blurted out as if struck by lightning, "Why do you take my father!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Why can't I? Your dad? Is your dad made of gold?"

Walter said with anger: "My dad has never provoked you! What qualifications do you have to take him?"

Charlie Wade asked curiously: "Since you said that, I really want to ask you, has Doris Young's father provoked you before?"

"I..." Walter was speechless. He knew very well that the whole thing was all because of his own shamelessness. If it were not for letting people poison Doris Young's father and forcing Doris Young to submit, he would not have such a miserable end today. So, Charlie Wade asked him back now, and he was speechless.

At this time, Charlie Wade sneered and said: "You just wait here obediently, and I'll send your dad over to reunite with you in a while."

After that, he turned around and said to Don Albertt: "Don Albertt, let's go to your office."

Don Albertt hurriedly said: "Yes Master Wade, please come with me!"

Chapter 2488

At this moment, James and Steve have been taken by Don Albertt's men to Don Albertt's office.

Because both of them were unconscious and were tied up, Don Albertt's men could only use scissors to cut the clothes on the two of them into countless strips of cloth. Until all the clothes on and off the two of them were cut, and only a pair of pants remained, an underling stepped in. He held an empty basin in one hand and a huge bucket in the other. He said with some difficulty, "Oh, this bucket of water is really heavy."

One of the bosses walked up to him and reached out to the bucket. He scooped up the water and smacked his lips: "Your water is not cold, what's the matter?"

The underling hurriedly said, "Boss, this water is taken from the bathroom tap. The water in the pipe itself may not be too cold."

The boss said: "Hurry up and get some crushed ice in the cold storage, and go!"

Don Albertt's kennel has hundreds of fighting dogs of different breeds. They are very appetizing dog breeds, and in order to maintain the wildness of fighting dogs, he usually feeds raw meat to the dogs here. With such a large amount of raw meat being consumed here, Don Albertt spent money to build a small cold storage specifically for storing various frozen meats.

The underling brought back a large pile of ice balls, the boss instructed him to pour all the piles of ice balls into the bucket. The water in the bucket immediately became bitterly cold.

Immediately, the boss looked at James and Steve who were tied together, and sneered, "Master Wade told them to pour a basin of water for each of them, but these two old dogs are tied together, you guys, Hurry up and separate them first!"

As soon as the voice fell, a voice was heard and said: "There is no need to separate them again. Just give them a bucket of water." It was Charlie Wade who spoke.

When the boss saw Charlie Wade coming, he hurriedly said respectfully: "Yes Master Wade!"

After finishing speaking, he directly picked up the bucket and poured the entire bucket of ice water on James and Steve. The two woke up instantly! The bone chilling cold made the two of them scream, their whole bodies trembling violently. James's head even has a pile of ice that has not completely melted away. The two realized that they had been tied into a ball by Charlie Wade, and they were suddenly terrified.

James blurted out, "Charlie Wade Wade, where did you take me?!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "Didn't I tell you already? Seeing you come from afar, I am the host. Naturally, I have to do my best as a host. I have prepared a good room for you to come over and enjoy."

Steve on the side also asked with a panic: "Who are you? What do you want with me!?"

Charlie Wade looked at him and said with a smile: "Mr. Steve Hogwitz, right? This is our first time meeting, let me introduce myself. My name is Charlie Wade Wade of the Wade Family, and this is Cameron Isaac of the Wade Family."

Steve was nervous. "Charlie Wade Wade?! I don't seem to know you, why are you kidnapping me?"

Charlie Wade laughed, "Mr. Hogwitz you came to Aurouss Hilll this time to find your son Walter, right?"

Steve stared with big eyes and exclaimed: "Do you know Walter?!"

Charlie Wade nodded and said lightly: "More than just know him. He was invited here by me."

Steve couldn't hide his excitement and said immediately: "Where is he? I want to see him!"

Charlie Wade laughed: "Do not worry, I will give you a father and son reunion. I arranged a grand ceremony, but you'll have to wait, I have to talk to Mr. Banks!"

Having said that he looked at James and sneered: "Mr. Banks, we are acquainted. Just say what you have done and don't wait for me to force you to say it!"

Chapter 2489

When he heard Charlie Wade's words, James's fat body shuddered suddenly, and he blurted out: "I don't know anything, what do you want me to say"

Charlie Wade took out his mobile phone from his pocket. Pointed the camera at James and sneered: "I only give you one chance. You can tell me honestly, how did the Banks Familyy murder Deana and Zara! If you behave well and I am satisfied. I can leave you as a dog in my kennel for the time being, but if your performance is unsatisfactory, then I will let you be listed as a missing person permanently!"

James was shocked. He is not a fool. Charlie Wade kidnapped him easily. On the one hand, he proved that he has extraordinary strength. So, he secretly thought: "I disappeared silently in the eyes of the outside world this time. The outside world is afraid that they can't find me at all. Even if Charlie Wade kills me, it will be difficult for the outside world to find me. Moreover The important thing is that everyone knows that the Banks Familyy can not be touched, but even so, Charlie Wade dared to do something with me, which proves that he didn't put the Banks Familyy in his eyes at all. This is what worries James most. He felt that Charlie Wade wasn't trying to make money, nor did he give any face to the Banks Familyy. In this case, if he really wanted to kill him, he could probably do so with a single word. Therefore, if he did not perform well enough, he might really die in his hands.

So he sighed inwardly: "If he betrayed his father today, and he survives, father will definitely not spare him in the future, but in the final analysis, the most important thing at the moment is to save his life first. Otherwise, My father's reputation is preserved, but my head is gone, what good does that do for him?"

Thinking of this, he hurriedly said: "I, I'll tell you, I'll say everything !"

Charlie Wade pointed at the camera and said coldly: "Come, face the camera, and explain to me word by word!"

James immediately said: "It is indeed our Banks Familyy who killed Deana and Zara. Yes, but this was planned by my father Lord Banks alone, and it has nothing to do with me!"

Soon after, James explained the whole process of plotting his father Lord Banks to kill Deana.

Charlie Wade thought slightly, and asked him: "Okay, then I ask you, why did Lord Banks kill Zara? Zara is his granddaughter. This seems a bit unreasonable? Was her death ordered by someone else?!"

James heard this, and he was so nervous that even his breathing was a little disordered, and his brain immediately began to move quickly. He knew very well that he wanted to kill Zara, not Lord Banks. However, under this situation, James absolutely dare not admit it.

"Although I can't figure out Charlie Wade's preference for Zara, Charlie Wade saved Zara twice. Once in Japan and in Arouss Hilll! This is a real fact! So, if I confess to Charlie Wade that I want to kill Zara, Charlie Wade might be even more upset with me."

Thinking of this, James made a living and blurted out: "Actually, my father is also very dissatisfied with Zara. He always felt that she was defending her mother Deana everywhere, and turning her elbow away. My father even suspected that Zara was not loyal to the Banks Familyy at all, so he planned to kill her and Deana together just to be thorough.

While filming him, Charlie Wade asked, "Is this really the case?"

James nodded firmly and said: "Really, really! Everything I said is true!"

Charlie Wade sneered and said: "It's kind of interesting!"

James looked at Charlie Wade, feeling nervous. He didn't know what Charlie Wade meant.

Chapter 2490

He didn't know if Charlie Wade believed his words, or if Charlie Wade knew the whole time that he secretly murdered Zara. Therefore, he decided to do everything possible to make Charlie Wade believe in himself, and blurted out: "Actually, my father has long been dissatisfied with my elder brother and his family. He drove my elder brother to Australia a long time ago, and then deprived him of his inheritance rights This time, my father is not only going to kill Deana and Zara, but before I came to Arouss Hilll, he also told me to put Fitz under house arrest. But Fitz reacted quickly. He escaped early, but even though he escaped, many of the Banks Familyy members are looking for his whereabouts everywhere. Once they find him, they will drive him to Australia like my elder brother, and they will be taken care of like his sister Zara."

Charlie Wade stopped the video shooting after listening to him, frowned and said: "James, you keep saying that your father wanted to kill Zara, but according to what I learned from other places, It doesn't seem to be the case. Why do you want to unbuckle a shit basin on your father's head?"

James was taken aback and blurted out: "No! I didn't give my father any shit basin, it's all the truth!"

"The truth?" Charlie Wade sneered: "Well, I'll find someone to come over and confront you!"

After that, he immediately said to Don Albertt: "Bring John Garrett!"

James heard the name John Garrett, and he was immediately scared! He did not expect that John Garrett was still alive now! Even more unexpectedly, John Garrett was in Charlie Wade's hands!

"This is over. This is over. John Garrett is the old man's personal guard. He came to kill Deana. He did by the old man's order. He must know that the old man did not order Zara to be killed. When he comes, he will undo me!"

Originally, James was freezing because of the basin of cold water, but now, he started sweating nervously.

He looked at Charlie Wade in a panic, and said falteringly: "Charlie Wade, you must not believe that John Garrett! That guy always runs his mouth. He doesn't speak a word of truth!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "Wait for him to come, you two can confront each other."

James was nervous. He didn't know if John Garrett was here that Charlie Wade would see through his tricks. Soon, John Garrett, handcuffed, was brought over by Don Albertt's underboss. When John Garrett saw Charlie Wade just now, he knelt down and begged for mercy for the first time. Seeing Charlie Wade again at this time, he was about to kneel down and beg more, but saw that there were actually two other men in the room. He quickly realized that one of them was the second son of the Banks Family, James!

John Garrett looked as if he was struck by lightning. He never dreamed that he would see the second son of the Banks Family here! At the same time, he was more frightened of Charlie Wade. Because he really didn't expect Charlie Wade to be so powerful that even the second son of the Banks Family would be taken!

Seeing John Garrett's frightened legs trembled, Charlie Wade looked at him, pointed at James and asked in a cold voice: "John Garrett, do you know this person?"

John Garrett nodded hurriedly, and said respectfully: "Master Wade, I know him. It's the second son of the Banks Family, James."

James stared at John Garrett nervously at this time, and reminded: "Garrett, in front of Mr. Wade, you have to pay attention to what you say! No matter what you say, Be responsible!"

Charlie Wade frowned, and asked James: "Did I let you speak?"

After finishing speaking, he pointed to James and ordered Don Albertt: "Don Albertt, silence him!"

Chapter 2491

"Yes Master Wade!" Don Albertt replied, and immediately walked forward, grabbing James's hair, slapped him hard in the face. This was the first time James has ever been slapped in the face by an outsider, and he was furious.

Charlie Wade glared at James at this time and said coldly: "You will not speak unless I give you permission."

James could only cover his face and nod his head again and again, not daring to say a word .

Charlie Wade looked at John Garrett and asked him, "I ask you, when Lord Banks gave you the order, was it to kill Deana and Zara or just Deana?"

John Garrett blurted out: " Master \Wade, Lord Banks asked me to kill just Deana at the time."

Charlie Wade asked again: "Then he was dissatisfied with Zara and felt that her elbow was turned away?"

"No!" John Garrett did not hesitate and said: "Lord Banks loves Zara very much, and he often tells us that among the Banks Familyy's generation, the smartest and most capable is actually Zara!"

James' face was already pale at this time.

Charlie Wade glanced at him, and then asked John Garrett, "According to you, in other words, Lord Banks would never kill Zara, right?"

John Garrett said solemnly, "Yes! Master Wade!" Although Lord Banks is sinister and vicious, he really loves Zara from his heart. He wouldn't kill Zara."

After that, John Garrett sighed, and said: "I'm telling you. In the tunnel, when I found that Zara was also in the car, I was almost scared to death, because I knew that if Lord Banks knew that Zara was dead, he would definitely blame me."

Charlie Wade nodded and asked him: "So you killed Tate Landry?"

John Garrett said truthfully: "I was the one who killed him. At the time I wanted to ask Tate Landry who instigated him to harm Zara, but he didn't say it, but insulted me. I shot him on impulse"

At this time, James on the side was already so scared that he couldn't compose himself.

Charlie Wade looked at him and asked in a cold voice: "James, you keep saying that old man Banks wants to kill Zara, but now it sounds like that's not the case!"

James hurriedly explained: "This.. In fact, it's not very clear.. I might have made a mistake."

"Mistake?" Charlie Wade sneered: "James, you are lying. You can't deliberately dump the pot on your father. Let's talk truthfully, did you plan this thing behind the scenes?"

James blurted out: "No, it has nothing to do with me!"

Charlie Wade nodded: "If you tell the truth, it's easier to handle.. Isaac!"

Cameron Isaac immediately stepped forward: "Master Wade, what do you want?"

Charlie Wade said lightly: "I asked you to find an African hyena. Is there any?"

"Yes!" Cameron Isaac hurriedly said: "Aurouss Hilll Wildlife Park introduced a group of African hyenas some time ago. The owner of the safari park has a good relationship with me and is also a senior member of my hotel. I can contact him and borrow this group of African hyenas!"

"Good!" Charlie Wade nodded, looked at James, and said faintly: "Since you want to resist, let's discuss life with the African hyena!"

When James heard this, he was terrified. He didn't doubt Charlie Wade's determination at all, this guy was not only amazing in strength and amazing means, but his resilience was amazing! If I really annoys him, I am afraid that it will definitely not end well

The terrified James hurriedly blurted out: "I did, I did it all!"

Charlie Wade nodded and turned on the mobile video recording function. When James saw that he was going to record a video, he hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, what do you want to know, I'm all for being honest, but can you please stop recording the video?"

Charlie Wade asked him back: "Why? Are you not telling the truth?"

James stammered: "No, no, I'm just a little uncomfortable."

Charlie Wade glanced at him in disgust, and said coldly, "Nonsense, Don Albertt, teach him a lesson!"

Don Albertt said nothing, rushed up and kicked James's fat belly, kicked him to the ground, and then stepped directly on his chest, bent over, and slapped him twice.

James stifled a scream as he took the beating. Tears streamed from his eyes. He had never suffered such a beating in his life. But he knew that there was no point in being aggrieved right now. If he doesn't cooperate honestly, he is afraid that Charlie Wade will let this Don Albertt take off his arms and legs.

At this moment, Xion, who had not spoken, said, "Master Wade, it is too cheap to slap this kind of bastard. As long as you say, I will cut off his arms and see if he talks back. I don't dare be sloppy with you!"

James frightened blurted out: "No! Don't! I'll just say it!"

Charlie Wade said coldly, "If you don't get to the point, I'll hand you over to Xion."

James couldn't help shivering, and said tremblingly: "Mr. Wade, it is indeed I who told Tate Landry to kill Zara. I asked his subordinates to pay his family 20 million and then let the family inform him that when he kills Deana, take Zara with her."

Charlie Wade questioned: "Why did you kill Zara? She is your niece, she didn't provoke you."

James hurriedly said, "I want to stop the trouble because the old man treats my elder brother very badly. I am also very dissatisfied with Fitz. If Zara is killed, the future Banks Family Patriarch will definitely be me."

Charlie Wade nodded and asked: "And the one who decided to betray Xion. Who the hell was it?"

James said without hesitation: "It was my father's idea."

Charlie Wade asked back: "So, your eldest brother Zayne was actually used as a scapegoat by Lord Banks?"

"Yes" James Honestly said: "If the betrayal of Xion broke out, the people all over the country would be scolding the old man. The old man feels that he can't be blamed for Xion in his old age, so he dumped it all on my elder brother. And then drove my eldest brother to Australia."

Charlie Wade nodded, ended the video recording, and said lightly: "If you cooperate, you won't have to take any more beating, so next time you stay alert and don't make the same thing happen again."

James was bitter, his expression was ugly. He asked Charlie Wade, "Mr. Wade, where are you planning to send all the videos just now?"

James couldn't be more clear about the current situation of the Banks Family. It was because of the disappearance of Deana and Zara that they have been questioned by people across the country. It was hard to find a lot of media experts to come out to portray them as the victims, and forcibly subverting everyone's cognition. If all the things I just said were exposed, then the Banks Familyy would be finished.

Not only will the Banks Familyy be over, but he would also become the sinner of the Banks Familyy.

Chapter 2493

At this time, Charlie Wade looked at James who was flustered, smiled slightly, and said: "The video just now has three parts in total. The first part is your confession. It was Lord Banks who wanted to kill Deana. But you shake the pot to Lord Banks saying that he also wants to kill Zara. In the second part, you confessed it personally that you hired Tate Landry to kill Zara. The third part is your confession that it was Lord Banks who betrayed Xion secretly, and then threw the pot to your elder brother Zayne..."

At this point, Charlie Wade smacked his lips and continued: " Tsk tsk ...but well, no. The first part and the second part themselves are somewhat contradictory, so if I want to send them out, I can only choose one of the two..."

After that, Charlie Wade looked at him with interest and asked: "James, which do you think I will send out?"

James shook his head, he couldn't figure out Charlie Wade's preferences, he didn't know what Charlie Wade wanted to do. In fact, the first and second part, no matter which one is sent out, I will have bad luck.

Seeing that he was not talking, Charlie Wade smiled and said, "To tell you the truth, I plan to send out the first and third paragraphs, because these two paragraphs put the three, Deana, Zara, and Xion on Lord Banks alone. This should be enough for that old dog to drink a pot! I still prefer to concentrate firepower to fight tough battles, so we must first concentrate all firepower together. This old dog Lord Banks will get a beat down!" After speaking, Charlie Wade smiled, changed the conversation, and continued: "As for the second video...I plan to keep it first and send it to your elder brother Zayne in the future."

James asked dumbfounded: "Why... why would you send it to my elder brother..."

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "If I send the first and third videos to your elder brother, your elder brother knows that Lord Banks wants to kill his two daughters and also wants to kill his wife. Do you think he will fight Lord Banks desperately?"

James said embarrassingly: "This...My elder brother is afraid, he doesn't have this ability..."

"It doesn't matter." Charlie Wade said with a smile: "Does Zayne have this ability? As long as I can completely turn them against each other, it is enough for me."

James couldn't understand why this young man in his twenties is so cruel. "If he really sends out the video, the eldest brother and the old man will become deadly enemies... The key is that I shake the old man's affairs out, and also throw Zara's pot to the old man, the old man will hate me to the bone!"

At this time, Charlie Wade said again: "Wait for the first and the Third. After the two videos are sent out, Zayne definitely wanted to kill Lord Banks, and Lord Banks, I guess he will want to kill you! At that time, you will beg me to take you in and save you, otherwise, you just have to go out. I'm afraid that Lord Banks will kill you. Even if he doesn't kill you, he will make you wish you were dead."

James was even more panicked. "Charlie Wade is not wrong at all. If these two videos are posted, father will definitely strip me alive... This is not an exaggeration! At that time, I am afraid I will really have to beg Charlie Wade to take me in. Otherwise, as long as he let me go out, even if the old man knew that I was being threatened by Charlie Wade, he would definitely not forgive me."

Chapter 2494

Charlie Wade continued to say at this time: "As for the second video just now, that is, the video where you confessed that you wanted to kill Zara, I will wait for your eldest brother to kill Lord Banks and become the head of the Banks Family. Then I will give it to him. In case Zayne has a chance to come back, even if Lord Banks is killed, you can't breathe a sigh of relief, because once your elder brother knows that you want to kill his daughter, he will also find a way to find you, then kill you at all costs. How do you like my closed-loop design? Whether your dad wins or your brother wins, you will end up with death."

Hearing this, James burst into tears. He got it. He really understood this time! "What Charlie Wade has to do is to keep my father and brother and elder brother in a state of war with each other all the time so they will fight each other and one will die... These videos in his hands, I am dead anyway! The game between the old man and the big brother, if the old man wins, I will die; if the big brother wins, I still die!"

"Charlie Wade... You...you have a poisonous heart!"

Seeing James's tears, Charlie Wade sneered and said: "So if you want to, you just stay here honestly, I will let Don Albertt prepare for you a single room. It is definitely the best treatment here. As long as you are still here, I can save your life, but it doesn't matter if you want to escape. It's either your father who wants to kill you, or your older brother. You die, you weigh the options yourself."

James suddenly cried: "Mr. Wade... please give me a way to survive... or let us work together, you help me kill my father and My eldest brother, after I inherit the Banks Family's fortune, all the Banks Family's assets will be divided and 30% will go to you!"

After that, James quickly said again: "Mr. Wade, if you are willing to cooperate with me, I can cooperate with you immediately. First go to Eastcliff to kill my father, and then go to Australia to kill my eldest brother!"

Don Albertt Hearing this, he immediately cursed: "Fuck! James, you fucking want to be slapped? Do you try to fool Master Wade to help you? You fucking deserve to die!"

Xion heard James wanted to provoke Charlie Wade to kill his father and hurriedly blurted out: "Young Master Wade, you can't listen to him slanderously! This kind of person has no credibility!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said: "James, even if I kill your Dad and your eldest brother, I won't let you inherit the Banks Familyy."

At this point, Charlie Wade's expression suddenly became very cold, and he sternly said: "I will continue to work harder and flatten the entire Banks Familyy!"

James was beaten by Charlie Wade. His eyes were scared. Because Charlie Wade's eyes were full of killing intent!

At this moment, Charlie Wade turned around, looked at Xion, and said lightly: "Xion, I know you care about Zayne, after all, he is your father, I can understand, but I can tell you clearly now if Zayne has something to do with the death of my parents. I will kill him personally. If you dare to stop me, I will kill you too."

Xion's body trembled immediately and quickly lowered her head, and said respectfully: "Young Master Wade, if you save my life, I dare not stop you from doing anything, if my father is really your father's enemy, you must avenge your father, I will not stop... "

After saying this, Xion knelt on the ground with a puff, sobbing and begging: "Master Wade, I have only one request! If my father has nothing to do with the death of your parents, please raise your hand and forgive him. Let him live..."

Charlie Wade said blankly, "Don't worry, I only kill the scum, if your father is not linked to my parents death, I'll naturally spare his life." Immediately afterwards, Charlie Wade turned around and said coldly: "However! In any case, Zayne will have to pay the price for the formation of the Anti-Leaf Alliance back then! Even if the death penalty is unavoidable, punishment is still inevitable!"

Chapter 2495

Xion, as Zayne's daughter, naturally family is important to her. But she couldn't help but secretly think: "I owe Master Wade my life. Master Wade gave me a great opportunity to increase my martial arts strength rapidly. I am obedient to him, in order to repay his kindness. If my father really bears the unshirkable responsibility for the death of Mr. Wade's parents, then I will naturally have nothing to say if Mr. Wade wants to seek revenge on him. So, I can only hope that the death of his father is not directly related. Fortunately, Mr. Wade is very upright and fair. Since he has already said that, as long as her father is not the murderer, he can spare my father's life, and the rest depends on whether my father is innocent in this matter."

Thinking about this, she respectfully said to Charlie Wade: "Young Master Wade, you have my loyalty!"

Charlie Wade nodded slightly and said to Don Albertt: "Okay, take this James to the private room you prepared, and take this Steve with him to see his son."

When Steve heard that Charlie Wade wanted him to meet his son, he immediately asked: "Where is Walter now?!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Your precious son, I am preparing for him now. Lying in the special room."

Steve blurted out: "Lying down? Is he sick?!"

Charlie Wade said lightly, "Since your son is really scumbag, I invited him here. I remodeled a nice room for him as well. As for why he is lying in bed, if you see him later, let him tell you in person." After speaking, Charlie Wade stood up and said to everyone around him: "Take them both. Get up and go!"

Don Albertt and Cameron Isaac went up personally, each of them picked up one, and dragged the two of them out. Charlie Wade walked behind them. When they came to the kennel area of the kennel again, James and Steve trembled in shock when they saw the sight of an iron cage. When they were dragged to continue walking, they found that there were many ferocious fighting dogs in the iron cages on both sides. What made them even more stunned was that there were several iron cages and inside there were not dogs, but people!

Steve saw his son soon! His son Walter, who was lying on a hospital bed at this time, looked very weak. There was a young man with yellow skin standing beside Walter. This man was holding a bowl of porridge and stuffed Walter's mouth with a spoon roughly. This young man is Jiro Kobayashi who works as a contractor at the kennel.

Steve immediately struggled and shouted in English: "My son! What happened to you?!"

Don Albertt went up and gave him a slap on the mouth, and shouted cursingly : "Scum! What the fuck did you say? Don't you both speak Mandarin? Speak Mandarin to him! If you fucking speak that language in front of us, I will cut out your tongue!"

Steve was slapped and was extremely aggrieved, but he didn't dare to talk to Don Albertt. Whimpering, he covered his face, choked up and asked in Mandarin: "Walter, my son, what's wrong with you?!"

Chapter 2496

Walter is also struggling to get up, but because of his weakness, he tried several times without success. So he could only lie on the bed helplessly, crying, and said in Mandarin: "Dad, I was poisoned, and now I have uremia."

After he finished speaking, he couldn't control his emotions anymore. Cried loudly: "Dad! You must save me, Dad! This ghost place is like hell. If you don't save me, I might die here."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Walter, It is impossible for your dad to save you, but the good news is that I plan to leave your dad here to take care of you. From now on, your father will live in this single room."

After that, Charlie Wade said to Jiro Kobayashi: "Jiro, you don't have to feed this Walter anymore, just focus on feeding your dog."

When Jiro Kobayashi heard this, he was overjoyed and blurted out: "Yes Lord Wade! You know I accept If you want me to feed Walter, but he is more disgusting than serving a dog."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "In the future, let his father do this thing. Don Albertt will give you a day off. As long as you don't leave the kennel, you can do whatever you want."

Jiro Kobayashi bowed in excitement, "Thank you, Master Wade! Thank you, Master Wade! If I can take a day off, I think I'll do well. Sleep late, and then drink two more bottles of beer."

After finishing speaking, he looked at Charlie Wade and asked nervously, "Young Master Wade, can I drink two bottles of beer?"

Charlie Wade smiled. Waving his hand, he said to Don Albertt: "Don Albertt, let someone prepare a case of beer for Jiro tomorrow, let him relax!"

Don Albertt immediately said, "Master Wade, leave it to me!"

Jiro Kobayashi once heard there would be a box of beer, tears of excitement rolled in his eyes, and choked up: "Master Wade, thank you, I have not had a beer in a long time."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "As long as you behave well, let alone beer, even white wine, red wine, or even your Japanese sake, it can be done for you."

Jiro Kobayashi exclaimed in excitement, "Mr. Wade, I will continue to work hard and go all out!"

Charlie Wade nodded, waved his hand and said, "Jiro, you go to rest first, we don't need you here."

Jiro Kobayashi hurriedly said, "Okay Lord Wade, then Jiro will leave first. That's it!"

Don Albertt nodded at his subordinates when he arrived, and immediately one of his subordinates came forward and left with Jiro Kobayashi.

Charlie Wade this time asked Don Albertt: "I asked you to prepare a welcoming ceremony for these people. We have been here for quite a while, why do not you start??"

Don Albertt quickly nodded and said: "I will begin immediately!" He hurriedly yelled at the people around him: "Hurry up, get on the props!" As soon as the voice fell, several of his men immediately took out a large red carpet from the empty dog cage beside them, and several people put the red carpet in an orderly manner. From the corridor of the kennel, all the way into Walter's single dog cage, spread directly to Walter's bed. Another person directly brought Don Albertt a red suit jacket. Don Albertt immediately became the emcee of the scene and said with a serious and emotional expression: "Today, it is Mr. Steve Hogwitz, who has traveled far and wide across the ocean. The great day of reunion with his dog son Walter, father and son, on this good day of celebration, let us witness the historical moment of their father and son reunion!"

After finishing, one of the people hurriedly held a bunch of flowers and stuffed it in Steve's arms, he threatened in a low voice: "Hold tight, I will break your legs if you dare to drop a flower petal!"

Chapter 2497

Steve naturally didn't dare to be negligent, so he could only hug this flower tightly in his arms.

At this time, Don Albertt pointed to the entrance of the dog cage and said to Steve: "Next, Mr. Steve will be invited to send flowers to his dog son Walter! Everyone applaud!"

All of his people immediately clapped enthusiastically and cheered. Steve's expression was extremely ugly, but he dared not say a word of dissatisfaction.

Seeing that he was still not moving, Don Albertt couldn't help cursing: "What are you standing still like that for? Do you want me to put you in another bed next to your son's bed?"

Steve frightened, he hurriedly hugged the flowers and walked into the entrance of the iron cage with difficulty. Steve, who only wore a pair of pants, was already frozen like a popsicle at this moment, so he walked up like a zombie with limited mobility. He moved onto the red carpet, hobbled to Walter bedside when Don Albertt stepped forward, spoke and said: "! Next, Mr. Steve gives to his son Walter the flowers"

After he said that He explained to Steve: "Don't let go when you are offering flowers. You two should hold the flowers at the same time and face the brother with the camera on our side. Let them take a photo of both of you. It's such a ceremony. How can you not record this feeling of emotion?"

Steve's desire to die is strong, and his son is lying on the bed like this. He doesn't know what's wrong with him, but now he can only play this extremely insulting game with him. At this time Walter is even more pained in his heart. If he had known that things would develop into this today, he would not dare to think anything about Doris Young. But now it's too late to say anything. Steve had no choice but to hand the flowers to his son, while his hand was still holding the other side of the flowers. The father and son looked at the camera together. Several younger men held hand-drawn fireworks, lighting and crackling, the colorful sequins fell one after another, and the father and son were covered with colorful light. At this time, the flash clicked, and a photo full of black humor was taken.

Don Albertt said loudly at this time: "The welcome ceremony of Mr. Steve and his son's reunion is about to come to an end here. Everyone applaud!"

All the people applauded, and Don Albertt asked Charlie Wade with a smile: "Master Wade, are you satisfied?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said with a smile: "It's a good job. It's interesting."

Don Albertt hurriedly clasped his fists and said respectfully: "Thank you, Master, for your praise. Now, I must be more solemn!"

Charlie Wade looked at James who was frightened to the side again, and asked: "Mr. Banks, do you think our hospitality is quite generous?"

James was frightened. His face was pale, and he wailed in his heart: "Who the hell calls this generous? You are a devil!"

But, he didn't dare to say that, he could only follow Charlie Wade's meaning, and nod repeatedly. "I pay attention to what Mr. Wade does. It's really too generous!"

Charlie Wade said, "If your son is in my hands another day, I will definitely give you both of you a ceremony. It must be more grand than this one."

James said in horror: " Young Master Wade Wade, my son is an honest child."

Charlie Wade said coldly: "Your son is shit." James suddenly looked ashamed and did not dare to speak any more.

Chapter 2498

Charlie Wade ignored him, and looked at Steve, and said: "Steve, do you know why I have your son here?"

Steve's eyes were red. He Shook his head.

Charlie Wade looked at Walter and said coldly: "Come on, Walter, tell your father about your glorious history."

"I..." Walter suddenly didn't know what to do.

Charlie Wade said coldly: "Hurry up!"

Seeing Charlie Wade's anger, Walter shuddered at once, and hurriedly said: "I said, I'll say it."

Soon, he looked at Steve and choked with sobs: "Dad, it's all my fault, I take the blame."

He told how he coveted Doris Young's beauty, and at the same time, he peeped into the Aurouss Hilll industry and the Emgrand Group. In order to achieve the goal of killing two birds with one stone, taking down Emgrand and taking Doris, he explained the whole process of poisoning Doris Young's father. After Steve heard this, he almost collapsed. He only knew at this moment that his son, who was seemingly well-behaved and sensible, with unlimited potential, turned out to be a scum in his bones. It is precisely because of his own son's inferior behavior that ruined his own future and ruined himself.

His heart was full of resentment, and a slap was slapped on Walter's face, and he roared: "You bastard! You not only ruined yourself, but you also ruined me!"

Walter cried and said, "Dad I'm sorry and I didn't want things to develop as it is today" He looked at Charlie Wade and choked with sobs: "Mr. Wade, I am wrong. I will bear my own responsibility. Please let my dad leave here and return to the United States."

Charlie Wade couldn't help laughing: "Walter, do you really treat me as a three-year-old child? If I will let your dad go back now, he goes back to find a rescuer and come to rescue you, wouldn't it cause me trouble?"

After that, Charlie Wade said again: "Furthermore, I told you before, since you can drag Doris Young's father into the water, then I can drag your father into the water, starting now, Your dad will stay here for ten years, and he will take care of you and at the same time make atonement for you!"

Walter looked at Steve in tears and cried, "Dad, I'm sorry." Steve also washed his face with tears. He really didn't expect to come to China and completely ruin his future and even the freedom of life.

Charlie Wade pointed to the empty cage next door and said to James: "Mr. Banks, this is the single room you will live in in the future. If you feel lonely, the father and son next door can be your company. After a while, I'll find an opportunity to bring your dad over, so that the two father and son pairs can make up a table of Mahjong."

James's heart was chilled when he heard this.

"Charlie Wade forced me to record so many videos. If this is really exposed, the old man must hate me to death. If he really gets the old man over, it would be so embarrassing to see the father and son in the cage."

"Moreover, if Charlie Wade really got the old man in here, wouldn't it be my eldest brother who will inherit the position of Banks Familyy Patriarch?"

Thinking of this, James felt so uncomfortable. Originally, I felt that if my eldest brother Zayne was forced away, he would become the heir of the Patriarch. Seeing that Zayne was done, he didn't expect to come to a small place like Aurouss Hilll and end up like this

Charlie Wade suddenly remembered something and asked, "Hey, Mr. Banks, when the two of you first met in the hotel room, who did you speak with?"

Chapter 2499

James did not expect that Charlie Wade would be interested in matters of his private life. He comes from a large family and pays great attention to privacy in his private life, so when Charlie Wade asked about this, he was a little nervous subconsciously, and he didn't dare to respond.

Charlie Wade couldn't help frowning and asked him: "Why? Don't you want to say it?"

Seeing Charlie Wade's dissatisfaction, James hurriedly shook his head and said: "No, no, I am willing to say, I am willing to say..."

Then, he said: "That woman is...Megan Endris..."

"Megan Endris?" Charlie Wade asked in surprise: "Is that Megan Endris, who is known as the jade girl in film and television circles? ? " "

Yes "James nervous nodded: "she is "

Charlie Wade can not help but exclaimed:" Oh, I really did not think that Megan Endris turns out to be your lover... My wife still loves her very much. She has always said that she is one of the benchmarks in the entertainment industry, saying that she is very clean and self-conscious, never gossips, and even never takes kiss scenes with other male stars? It seems that most of the people in this circle also have another side that is unknown."

James nodded awkwardly, and said: "She... .. She doesn't do kiss scenes because I don't let her... I told her before that she must never have close contact with other men, even acting..."

Charlie Wade smirked and said: "Tsk tsk...If the people of the country knew that this goddess in their eyes was being taken by your ugly, old and fat middle-aged fat pig at night, who knows how sad it would be. "

James's expression was very depressed, and his face was red and black. It was obvious that Charlie Wade's words hurt his self-esteem. However, even if his self-esteem was hurt, he dared not say anything in front of Charlie Wade, so he could only nod in embarrassment and echoed: "Yes, yes, what Mr. Wade said is..."

Charlie Wade sneered. With a cry, I asked him: "Is this Megan Endris always in Aurouss Hilll, or is she coming from other places to meet you?"

James hurriedly said: "She came from somewhere else...Actually, she was filming recently. My father suddenly asked me to come to Aurouss Hilll, so I asked her to come and accompany me... .."

Charlie Wade said with a smile: "Seeing that you are quite old, I didn't expect you have a lot of energy."

James said embarrassedly: "No no...nothing will do if you are older.. .."

Charlie Wade smiled and said lightly: "Okay, it's too early, you can rest here, you will not have the kind of female celebrity like Megan Endris in the future, so you must adapt as soon as possible to life on the kennel. When the time is right, I will send your father over, so that father and son will be reunited." J ames lowered his head deeply and did not dare to answer.

Charlie Wade looked at Steve next door and said lightly: "Take good care of your son here."

Steve had no choice but to nod again and again: "I know Mr. Wade..."

Charlie Wade didn't say more, but looked at Cameron Isaac and said: "Send me back."

"Yes young master!"

Don Albertt sent Charlie Wade and Cameron Isaac out of the kennel, taking advantage of being alone, he said to Charlie Wade: "Master, your aunt's time is up tonight, do you think you should let her go?"

Charlie Wade frowned: "It's time?"

"It is." Don Albertt hurriedly said: "Your aunt performed well this time, no noise or noisy trouble. "

"Ah." Charlie Wade nodded and said:" let her go quickly, have your man let her know if she wants to leave at any time. "

Don Albertt quickly said: "Yes Young master, I'll call to make arrangements!"

Charlie Wade patted him on the shoulder, and exhorted: "The dog farm is very important, so you must show it to me. Don't let anyone come and approach the kennel, and you must prevent your people from leaking secrets to the outside world!

Don Albertt said firmly: "Master, don't worry, I have arranged the kennels here. Everyone who works in this is my confidant, and during this time, I have told them they are not allowed to leave the kennel for 24 hours, and they are not allowed to have any contact with the outside world. All of them are closely managed, and there will be no leaks."

Chapter 2500

Charlie Wade sighed and said, "The Banks Familyy's influence is extremely strong. Aurouss Hilll will be turned upside down. Maybe tomorrow there will be at least dozens of helicopters flying back and forth over Aurouss Hilll to search for clues. You have to pay attention."

Don Albertt nodded and said seriously: "You can rest assured, I will do my best. Go!"

"Okay." Charlie Wade said with a smile: "I can rest assured that you do things like this, so let me go first."

...

Leaving Don Albertt's kennel, Charlie Wade got in Cameron Isaac's Rolls Royce and returned to the city. Because James and Steve had just been brought to the kennel, the Banks Familyy must be looking for clues all over Aurouss Hilll, so Charlie Wade didn't take the helicopter back. It is too late at the moment. If the helicopter at night is not covered by fireworks, the movement will be very loud and it must be very noticeable. Therefore, it is safer to take a car, at least not to give the Banks Familyy any clues.

On the way back, Cameron Isaac asked Charlie Wade as he drove, "Master, when do you plan to send the video?"

Charlie Wade said, "I'll post it in the middle of the night! I'll go back and edit the video, and change my voice. Once done, then you can send it out."

Cameron Isaac hurriedly asked: "Then are you going to post it on your social media platform?"

"Yes!" Charlie Wade nodded and said, "The overall strength of the Banks Familyy is still very strong. If I posted on other platforms, they would probably be dismissed by their public relations in the first place, but if I posted on the Wade family's own platform, there is such a great opportunity to step on the Banks Familyy, the Wade family will definitely not delete the video."

Cameron Isaac said with a smile: "If you really post the video on the Wade's platform, not only will Wade's family not delete it, but I'm thinking they will do everything possible to promote it like crazy..."

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "That would be better."

...

When Charlie Wade returned home, Claire Wilson Wilson was still busy in the study. Before Charlie Wade left for Aurouss Hilll International Hotel, she had been busy with the company's business, and now she came back, she has not finished her work. He gently pushed open the door of the study room, Claire Wilson Wilson was adjusting the design manuscript in front of the computer. Looking at his wife's back, Charlie Wade felt a little distressed.

"I knew that my wife would be so desperate for the cooperation of the Emgrand Group. In fact, it is better not to give her this project... It's just that there is no turning back when I open the door. My wife attaches so much importance to this cooperation. If Doris Young stops the cooperation, she will definitely be hit hard."

Thinking of this, he sighed lightly and closed the door again without disturbing Claire Wilson Wilson. Back in the room, Charlie Wade put water for himself and soaked in the bathtub, while holding the mobile phone in his hand, using simple video editing software, he began to process some of the material shot today.

The main material is two parts. One part is in the tunnel, shooting the part of John Garrett; the other part is in the kennel, shooting the part of James. These two parts not only clearly stated the fact that it was the father Banks who instructed to kill Deana, but also James threw Zara's pot on his head. Charlie Wade knew very well that as long as he sent the edited video, the Banks Family reputation will be devastated! Lord Banks will also become the most despised old dog by the people of the whole country!
