Having not seen him for so many years, Charlie Wade estimates that this person is not much better now.

But Charlie Wade didn't bother to be familiar with him, and said lightly: "Whatever you say, I still think it's best to go to the restaurant Lisa said."

Lisa also hurriedly said: "I think what Charlie Wade said makes sense. Mrs. Lewis saved her life and asked her to go to a five-star hotel for dinner. She must be uncomfortable."

The childhood friend Caleb also echoed: "I also support it!"

Others also agreed, so Lisa said, "Well, there are ten people we can come over tonight, and nine of them all support going to the old restaurant."

Then we will be the minority and obey the majority! I will go to that restaurant now. Book a box! Come here too!"

"Good, good!" Everyone agreed and happily agreed.

Chapter 944

Charlie Wade couldn't help feeling a little excited when he thought of meeting Mrs. Lewis immediately.

Since Lady Wilson passed her birthday and was scolded for borrowing money at the birthday banquet, he has never seen Mrs. Lewis again because Mrs. Lewis was directly sent to Eastcliff by Stephen Thompson.

Charlie Wade has a deep relationship with Mrs. Lewis, almost treating him as his own mother.

When Mrs. Lewis first became ill, Charlie Wade desperately tried to get money everywhere, even secretly looking for blood to sell blood, and also took a lot of private money from Claire Wilson Wilson in order to make Mrs. Lewis survive.

If he hadn't done everything to help Mrs. Lewis raise money, Mrs. Lewis would have never waited for Stephen Thompson's appearance at the beginning, and she might have passed away.

But Charlie Wade felt that these were what he should do, and even so, he only paid back one ten thousandth of Mrs. Lewis's kindness to him.

Dad had taught himself countless times before his death that if a man is alive, he must know his gratitude. The ancients said that the grace of dripping water should be reported by the spring, and Charlie Wade has always asked himself so.

So, he didn't care, the noodles for Elaine Ma were still boiling in the pot, so he took off his apron directly, stepped out of the kitchen, and said to Claire Wilson Wilson, who was accompanying Elaine Ma, "My wife, I'm in a bit of a hurry. hospital!"

Elaine Ma immediately asked: "Have you cooked my noodles for me? I haven't eaten a bite of rice so far, so you want to go out?"

Charlie Wade glanced at her in disgust, and said impatiently: "The noodles are boiling in the pot, you can eat them out in a while! Mrs. Lewis has recovered from illness and I am going to pick her up."

When Elaine Ma heard this, he immediately scolded: "Wade, what is your bastard attitude? For an Lady in a welfare institution, you dare to talk to me like this?! Do you still have the consciousness of being a son-in-law? Don't look at who you eat, drink, wear, or live?"

As he said, Elaine Ma sneered again: "What does it have to do with you even if the Lady is dead?"

Charlie Wade has endured Elaine Ma for a long time. I thought that this mother-in-law would go in for two days and suffer a little bit of sin, and she could change a little bit, but he didn't expect her to not change at all.

Even more unexpectedly, she dared to speak out to insult her benefactor Mrs. Lewis!

So he stared at Elaine Ma and said angrily: "I eat my own, drink my own, wear my own, live in my own! Don't forget, this house was given to me by someone else, and the furniture in it I bought it with the money I made from Feng Shui, so I have this attitude. If you are not satisfied, you can move out and live in the old house!"

When Elaine Ma heard this, she was suddenly speechless!

She wanted to scold Charlie Wade, but when she thought about it, she found that what he said was not wrong.

Now it's not before. He used to live in her own small house. He couldn't make money without telling others, so she could scold him whatever he wanted.

Now he has a good life. Someone gave him such an expensive villa and gave it to him after it was renovated, and he could earn millions by showing him a feng shui.

On the other hand, she is already penniless. If Charlie Wade really turns his face with her and prevents her from living here, what can she do? Thinking of this, Elaine Ma felt guilty, looking at Charlie Wade's angry expression, she was also a little nervous and afraid.

However, she still tried to save the situation, so she immediately looked at Claire Wilson Wilson aggrievedly, and choked up: "Claire Wilson Wilson, your husband is too much. Is there any son-in-law in the world who talks to his mother-in-law like this? You don't care. He, he won't shake the sky if this continues?"

Unexpectedly, Claire Wilson Wilson said very seriously: "Mom, I think Charlie Wade is right. Now we live in a villa given to him by others. If it weren't for him, we wouldn't have had the chance to live in such a good place, so You can't treat him like you did before, it's not fair!"

Chapter 945

When Elaine Ma heard these words, she felt sad!

In the past two days, everyone in the family seems to have changed their attitudes towards themselves.

Her husband ignored her, and even took the initiative to start a fight with her. The son-in-law is no longer the son-in-law at the mercy of others. He even became angry with her and asked her to move back to the old house.

Even the only good girl who relied on her was no longer facing herself. She never dreamed that her daughter would speak to Charlie Wade at this time.

She is a great dramatist, seeing that she seems to be losing power in this home, she blushed in the blink of an eye and started acting.

She choked pitifully: "Now it's unnecessary for me to be in this house. Your dad doesn't care about me. Your husband threatens to kick me out, even if you are not at me..."

With that, Elaine Ma twitched her mouth and tears flowed down.

Claire Wilson Wilson sighed helplessly, and said, "Mom, it was indeed you who was wrong just now. I can't look at you all the time."

Although she felt sorry for her mother for having suffered so much, this was not the reason for her mother to shout to Charlie Wade, nor the reason for insulting Mrs. Lewis.

Moreover, Claire Wilson Wilson knew very well in his heart that her husband had been very pitiful since he was a child, and he did not have many real relatives in this world.

Except for himself, it may be Mrs. Lewis. This is why Charlie Wade desperately tried to get money to treat Mrs. Lewis some time ago. She knew that in Charlie Wade's heart, he treated Mrs. Lewis as a mother. I have always admired Charlie Wade's behavioral style of acknowledgment, otherwise he would not give him all his private money and let him take it to Mrs. Lewis.

Therefore, she also felt that her mother was a bit too much, and naturally she could no longer speak to her at this time.

At this time, Elaine Ma was already crying with tears and tears, and sighed: "My life is really pitiful, does this family still have a place for me?"

Charlie Wade no longer wanted to watch her acting at this time, and even no longer wanted to be patient with her any more, so he skipped her and said to Claire Wilson Wilson: "My wife, I'll go to the orphanage first. Eat at home."

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly stood up and said, "I'll go with you. I haven't seen Mrs. Lewis for a long time. The last time I went to see Mrs. Lewis in the hospital was a few months ago. I still miss her."

To say that Claire Wilson Wilson really fulfilled the duties and responsibilities of a good wife. Not only did she support me Charlie Wade treating Mrs. Lewis, she also often went to the hospital with her to visit and take care of Mrs. Lewis, just like Charlie Wade. Very respectful to Mrs. Lewis.

Mrs. Lewis also liked her very much, almost treating her as her daughter-in-law.

Seeing that Claire Wilson Wilson was going to see Mrs. Lewis with him, Charlie Wade nodded with satisfaction and said, "Then let's go together. When Mrs. Lewis called me last time, she asked about you, she should miss you a lot."

Claire Wilson Wilson stood up and said, "Then let's go now."

As soon as Elaine Ma heard that Claire Wilson Wilson was going to go with Charlie Wade, she said pitifully: "Good daughter, are you angry with your mother? Do you even want to ignore your mother?"

Claire Wilson Wilson looked at Elaine Ma and said seriously: "Mom, I really hope you can reflect on this experience and change your personality. Otherwise, you will definitely suffer in the future."

When Elaine Ma heard her say this, she immediately sat on the ground and said, "What's the point of saying I'm alive? My only relative, my dear girl, is no longer facing me. The police shouldn't let me go. Come out and let me die in the detention center..."

If it were to be kept in the past, Claire Wilson Wilson would have softened and compromised when she saw her mother being so aggressive, but this time she understood that if her mother always had this character, then she would suffer a loss sooner. I can't condone her temperament anymore.

Chapter 946

So she said to Elaine Ma: "Mom, think about it alone, I'll leave with Charlie Wade first. By the way, Charlie Wade also cooked the noodles for you. Don't forget to serve them out."

After finishing speaking, he said to Charlie Wade: "Let's go."

Charlie Wade nodded, took Claire Wilson Wilson out of the house, and drove her to the orphanage.

On the way, Charlie Wade bought a bunch of flowers, another fruit basket, and handwritten a greeting card for Mrs. Lewis.

When he came to the gate of Aurouss Hill Welfare Institute, Charlie Wade parked his car in the parking space on the side of the road. Looking at the slightly outdated gate, he was in a daze, and he couldn't help but feel a sense of time going back and space dislocation.

He stood here, as if for an instant, he overlapped with certain scenes in his memory. The scenes that flashed continuously were the softest, happiest and most precious memories deep in his heart.

He still remembers the scene of his first visit to the orphanage.

When he was eight years old, he lost his parents and was displaced on the street. Mrs. Lewis, who was like an angel on earth, brought him here, then held him with one hand and pointed at the gate, saying very lovingly: "Child, don't be afraid, this will be your home from now on." Charlie Wade still remembers this extremely warm scene even after many years.

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade's face also showed a rare happy expression, even the corners of his mouth couldn't help but rise. Seeing him with a smile, Claire Wilson Wilson couldn't help saying: "Today you seem to be very happy."

Charlie Wade nodded slightly and said, "Yeah, you know, since Mrs. Lewis became ill, I have always been particularly worried. I tried to get money everywhere, but I didn't collect enough medical expenses for the kidney transplant. Had it not been for a coincidence of fate, Mrs. Lewis would have left me."

Claire Wilson Wilson recalled the scene when Charlie Wade whispered to her grandma to borrow money from her grandma in order to collect medical expenses for Mrs. Lewis.

At that time, I really felt sorry for this, since I was young, I had been ill-fated and left the man.

It's a pity that I didn't have any ability at that time, and couldn't spend so much money to help him.

Fortunately, later, Mrs. Lewis, people had their own vision. Someone solved her medical expenses and sent her to the best Union Hospital in the country for treatment.

Thinking of this, Claire Wilson Wilson couldn't help asking: "By the way, you said that someone paid Mrs. Lewis all the medical expenses, who is that person? How could he be so generous? Mrs. Lewis went to Fairview Hospital for treatment. It costs at least two or three million for a trip, right?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "I heard that it cost a total of 3 million Dollar. As for who paid the money, I am not too sure, but I heard that it was also the person Mrs. Lewis had saved before."

Of course Charlie Wade couldn't say that the money for Mrs. Lewis's treatment was paid by himself, because at that time he was still a standard poor sling, it was impossible to get a huge sum of 3 million, so he couldn't explain it clearly.

So he could only sigh: "I knew that showing others how to make money by showing Feng Shui, I should try it when your aunt was sick."

The two were talking, a pleasantly surprised voice suddenly sounded in their ears: "Brother Charlie Wade!"

When he turned around and looked around, he saw a tall and thin figure in the orphanage.

It turned out to be Lisa.

After a few years of absence, Lisa has become a big girl!

She is in her early 20s. She is more than 1.7 meters tall, and her figure is no less than that of those models.

Although the dress is very simple and plain, and the face is facing the sky, it can give people a crystal clear, icy and clean feeling.

Charlie Wade couldn't help but marvel at her. It's really the eighteenth change. Is this still the little girl who had been a follower in the orphanage back then? !

Chapter 947

Seeing Charlie Wade, Lisa's face was filled with joy and surprise.

She ran to Charlie Wade quickly, still grabbing Charlie Wade's arm with both hands as before, and asked delicately: "Brother Charlie Wade, why don't you go back to the orphanage for so long?"

Charlie Wade didn't feel uncomfortable when she was grabbed by her arm. On the contrary, like an older brother, he said with affection, "I have never been mixed up since I went out, so I am embarrassed to return to the orphanage to see you."

As soon as Lisa heard this, her big eyes flashed red, and she choked up and said, "Mrs. Lewis told us that you have been working on a construction site since you went out, and all your hard-earned money was sent to Mrs. Lewis. , Asked Mrs. Lewis to buy us books, clothes, and food, but you never come back to see me. It has been so many years, and I have never seen you again..."

With that, Lisa burst into tears and said: "When Mrs. Lewis was sick, I heard Mrs. Lewis say that you often visit her, but every time you go after we left, you deliberately hide. If you don't want to see us, you don't know how uncomfortable our brothers and sisters feel..."

Charlie Wade couldn't help but sigh when he heard this.

Since he came out of the orphanage, he really hasn't had a good life. He has been busy working on the construction site before, 365 days a year, 365 days a year, all year round, except for filling his stomach, all the rest is sent. Give it to Mrs. Lewis.

The reason why he was reluctant to return to the orphanage was because he was too bad at that time. He didn't want these younger brothers and sisters who had not yet entered the society to see him in despair, and then set them a bad example.

Later, he joined the Wilson family and became the famous son-in-law of Aurouss Hilll. He was even more embarrassed to return to the orphanage. Knowing that Mrs. Lewis was sick, he was more worried and worried than anyone else, and more concerned than anyone else.

He was still not as embarrassed, facing the friends in these orphanages.

Later, although he had money, he got the Wade family and gave it 10 billion, and also got the Emgrand Group, but the aunt has not been in the orphanage during this time, so she didn't come back.

After Charlie Wade had money, he had always thought of donating money to the orphanage. After Mrs. Lewis came back, he would find a suitable reason and excuse to donate a large sum of money to the orphanage.

The reason why he agreed to come with everyone to pick up the dust for Mrs. Lewis, in addition to wanting to see Mrs. Lewis, he also wanted to see what kind of method he could use to donate a sum of money to the orphanage without being suspected. .

It was also the first time that Claire Wilson followed Charlie Wade back to the orphanage, so it was also the first time I saw Lisa. While she was surprised by Lisa's youthful beauty, she also felt that Lisa and her husband seemed a little too intimate.

However, she soon comforted herself. This little girl saw that the little sister who grew up with Charlie Wade before, regarded Charlie Wade as her own brother, and there was nothing unusual about being intimate.

Seeing Lisa's tears, Charlie Wade said: "Lisa, my brother has not been messing well these years. I don't want you to see your brother's desolation, but now it's different. My brother is doing pretty well now, too. I finally have a face, and I'm back to see you."

As he said, he took Claire Wilson Wilson's hand and said with a smile: "Come on, let me introduce to you, this is your sister-in-law, how is it, is it beautiful?"

Claire Wilson Wilson was suddenly grabbed by Charlie Wade, and she felt a little nervous. Although she and Charlie Wade have been married for more than three years, to be honest, the two did not act too intimately. But she didn't draw her hand back, just let him hold it. Lisa looked at Claire Wilson Wilson, and a look of envy suddenly appeared in his somewhat sad eyes. Looking at Claire Wilson Wilson, she couldn't help feeling a little embarrassed.

Although she looks good, but compared with Claire Wilson Wilson, she seems to be a little bit worse.

Moreover, I am just an orphan with no father, no mother, and no support. The current work in the orphanage is half-work and half-charitable, and there is not much money to be made.

Even with the limited balance, she, like Charlie Wade, had all donated to the orphanage, so she was a poor girl.

In this way, she felt that she was naturally much worse than Claire Wilson Wilson's career women.

With a heart of envy, she said to Claire Wilson Wilson a little nervously: "Hello sister-in-law, my name is Lisa."

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded and said with a smile: "Hello Lisa, my name is Claire Wilson Wilson."

Lisa looked at Claire Wilson Wilson and exclaimed: "Sister-in-law, I really envy you!"

After speaking, she glanced at Charlie Wade again, and said: "Envy you to find my brother Charlie Wade such a good man!"

Charlie Wade suddenly became embarrassed.

He thought that Lisa would say that he envied Claire Wilson Wilson for being beautiful, or envied her for her good figure and good temperament. Unexpectedly, she envied Claire Wilson Wilson for finding him...

It's worthy of being a younger sister who grew up with her. Even if she knew she was poor and white, she still felt very good.

When Claire Wilson Wilson heard this, some of them couldn't laugh or cry. Lisa said very seriously: "Sister-in-law, Charlie Wade is the best man in the world. You must treat him well! He has been very responsible since he was a child, taking special care of us brothers and sisters. After leaving the orphanage at the age of 18, I have been working hard on the construction site and all the money I earned has been given to our younger brothers and sisters to improve their lives and provide for us to study. Back then, the orphanage raised so many people, and only Charlie Wade knows the rewards. One brother! Sister-in-law, tell me, is my brother Charlie Wade the best man in the world?"

Claire Wilson Wilson was surprised at hearing.

She only knew that Charlie Wade had a hard life before marrying herself. Grandpa found it on the construction site, but she didn't know that Charlie Wade actually worked at the construction site at the age of eighteen, and she didn't know that Charlie Wade gave all the money. They were donated to the orphanage.

No wonder he was penniless when he married him. He even asked his grandfather for money for a haircut before the wedding.

Coupled with his behavior of raising money for Mrs. Lewis's crazy treatment of illness, Claire Wilson suddenly felt that his husband also had a great side!

She couldn't help asking Charlie Wade: "Why have you never told me this?" Charlie Wade said indifferently, "Hey, what can I tell people about the poor days."

After speaking, Charlie Wade didn't want to talk more on this topic, and hurriedly turned the topic off and asked Lisa: "By the way, Lisa, where is Mrs. Lewis?"

Lisa said: "Mrs. Lewis is talking to the dean about work. She said let me go to entertain you first, and she will come in a while."

With that said, Lisa asked expectantly: "Brother Charlie Wade, would you like to go to the orphanage? You haven't come back for a long time!"

Chapter 949

Charlie Wade has lived in this welfare institution for the past ten years from eight to eighteen, and he is very affectionate for it.

It's just that I've been a little destitute and have no face to come back.

Now that I have a lot of money, I might as well go in and see what other needs are in the orphanage, and I can help solve it when the time comes. So he nodded and agreed, and said: "Then let's go in for a while."

Lisa was overjoyed, and hurriedly grabbed Charlie Wade's arm, and dragged him in front.

Charlie Wade could only let her drag him while holding his wife Claire Wilson's hand.

Claire Wilson's heart beat faster, but she still let him lead her into the orphanage.

The Aurouss Hill Welfare Institute was built in the last century and has a history of several decades. The buildings here are also relatively low brick buildings, and each building is almost decades old.

Charlie Wade saw that this place was basically the same as when he lived many years ago, so he couldn't help asking Lisa: "Did the orphanage have not been expanded or renovated in these years?"

Lisa said: "I want to expand, but the funding has been tight. We have more children here than before. Both the dean and Mrs. Lewis feel that it is better to spend the money on the children. As for the hardware conditions, it can save money. Save it."

Charlie Wade looked at the yard, but the slides, seesaws, and swivel chairs that had been rusted on, felt familiar and somewhat unpleasant in his heart.

These toys were all played when I was young, that is to say, they have been at least 20 years old.

Those younger brothers and sisters after me are still playing with these limited and old toys.

Charlie Wade couldn't help but blame himself. Before Stephen Thompson found himself, he was always worried about Mrs. Lewis's body and tried every means to treat Mrs. Lewis. After Stephen Thompson found himself, he had been thinking about it all this time. Do everything possible to get back your dignity.

But during this period of time, I did not expect to donate a sum of money to the orphanage to help the younger brothers and sisters in the orphanage to improve their living environment. It is really inexcusable! Thinking of this, Charlie Wade planned to donate tens of millions to the orphanage to renovate the entire orphanage, and then buy the best toys, the best learning venues, and the best learning equipment for the younger brothers and sisters.

All computers and ipads must be bought for them!

Claire Wilson Wilson didn't know Charlie Wade. The mood at the moment was very complicated and self-blaming. She was very curious to observe the environment of the orphanage. Although it was the first time to come in, she still felt that it was very kind.

Kind, maybe because my husband grew up here since he was a child.

In fact, in Claire Wilson Wilson's heart, she never regarded Charlie Wade as her contracted husband. In her heart, Charlie Wade was her real and legal husband.

Chapter 950

Lisa took Charlie Wade to the dormitory area of the orphanage, and Charlie Wade found the dormitory where he lived at a glance.

Looking in through the window, I saw a dozen or two-year-old children playing under the leadership of an aunt in the orphanage.

He couldn't help but exclaimed, "Lisa, why are there so many such young children in the orphanage now?"

Lisa said: "Many irresponsible parents send their children directly to the orphanage after they give birth. Some of these children are abandoned by them because they are born with disabilities or diseases. Like me, maybe it was because she was a girl, so she was abandoned."

Speaking of this, Lisa couldn't help sighing.

Later, she said angrily: "There are still some children in there. They were abducted by traffickers and then rescued by the police. Because the children are too young to find their parents, they can only be fostered at first. In the orphanage, after finding their parents, they will be sent back to their families."

Charlie Wade saw that some of these children had some physical disabilities, so he couldn't help asking: "Lisa, what is going on with disabled children? Is it congenital disabilities?"

"No." Lisa said indignantly: "These were all rescued from the traffickers. They were originally healthy children, but after being stolen by the traffickers, they didn't sell these children, but got them. After becoming disabled, they took these children along the street to beg. Such children have been destroyed by them all their lives, but they have become their cash cows."

When Claire Wilson Wilson heard this, he suddenly angrily said: "These people are too jerk, how can they turn good children into disabled people!"

Lisa said: "There are some such bad guys who specialize in this kind of conscience. They are normal people with hands and feet, but they pretend to be disabled and beg everywhere. Later, they found that the begging stuff came in too quickly. Therefore, in order to make more money, they deliberately find some disabled people to increase their credibility. Later, if they can't find the disabled, they buy the children. After buying, the children become disabled, so that it is easier to beg." After hearing this, Claire Wilson Wilson trembled with anger, and blurted out: "Assholes like this, one of them should be shot!"

Charlie Wade sighed at this time and said: "Actually, when I was working on the construction site, I had heard of the existence of beggar gangs. They were all fellow villagers or relatives. They organized groups to beg in big cities. Some of them were extremely cruel. Specializing in poisoning minors."

After speaking, Charlie Wade said to her again: "You forgot that we watched an Indian movie two years ago. The name was Millionaire in the Slum. There was not a leader of a gang of beggars who sang good children. Blind his eyes, make him blind and sing and beg along the street. It looks like this kind of thing is far away from us, but it often happens around us."

Claire Wilson said angrily: "Unexpectedly, there are such demons around us. I knew I had gone to the police academy to be a police officer, and I could still bring these bad guys to justice."

Lisa sighed: "Sister-in-law, the key is that there is too much profit margins, so many people have to make this money even if they risk being shot."

With that, she felt that the topic was a bit heavy, and she said: "Oh, it's getting late, let's go to the restaurant first, the other friends should have arrived."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Let's go, go to the restaurant first."

The three came out of the orphanage together, and Charlie Wade asked Lisa on the side: "By the way, Lisa, are there any difficulties in the orphanage recently?"

Lisa smiled and said: "The difficulties have always been there, but they are okay, and they can be carried. The children's living conditions are much better than when we were younger, but the only downside is that our classrooms The dormitory and the cafeteria are all too old. The dean has been applying for funding, hoping to renovate it, but the superiors have been saying that the finances are tight and they cannot allocate funds for the time being."

Charlie Wade nodded lightly and wrote down her words in his heart.

Chapter 951

When the three of them came out of the orphanage, just about to go to the restaurant, a pleasantly surprised voice suddenly sounded in their ears: "Charlie Wade, Lisa!"

When the two turned around to look, they saw several figures walking towards each other.

These people are all the little friends who grew up with him in the orphanage.

However, for Charlie Wade, there are many people in it, and they have basically never seen him since he left the orphanage.

The only one who still had contact after leaving the orphanage was his little friend, Caleb.

In the early years, when Charlie Wade was living in the orphanage, due to the accidental death of his parents, his personality became reticent, even a little withdrawn, and he might not speak a word to others for a day.

Because of his incompatibility, he is often isolated by other children. Charlie Wade remembered that whenever he was isolated, Caleb, who was a little older than him, would always be the first to stand up and play with him.

So over the years, the relationship between the two has been very deep. Caleb and Charlie Wade are the same age, but Caleb is a few months older than him.

The two people came out of the orphanage, and then they both chose to go to the construction site to work together, suffer together and suffer together, standard hard brothers.

However, the difference between Caleb and Charlie Wade is that Charlie Wade made money, and all of it was secretly given to the orphanage, while Caleb saved some money himself, then left the construction site and went to Hong Kong to do a little business. .

For Charlie Wade, Caleb's approach is understandable.

After all, everyone is an orphan, and most of them are helpless when they come out of the orphanage.

Everyone wants to make some money to lay a foundation for themselves, because orphans are not like others. Others have parents, relatives, and a house that can shelter from wind and rain. Orphans have nothing.

If you run out of money today, you won't be able to eat today, and you can only sleep on the street at night.

The reason why Charlie Wade didn't think about himself after leaving the orphanage was mainly because of his father's teachings to him that year, which made him feel that he could live to be 18 years old. It was already the orphanage and Mrs. Lewis's kindness to him, of course. Find a way to repay.

Moreover, this has a lot to do with Charlie Wade's childhood education. In his childhood, Charlie Wade was the young master of the Wade family from childhood. He received the education of Confucianism and classic Chinese studies. Therefore, in his bones, there is a kind of dedication spirit of ancient Confucianism and compassion.

This is what makes him different from everyone in the orphanage.

At this moment, Caleb stepped forward with excitement, and said excitedly: "Charlie Wade, my good brother, we haven't seen you in a long time!"

Back then, he and Charlie Wade slept in the shed on the construction site together, carried cement together and moved bricks together. The two supported each other and walked all the way for several years.

Later, Caleb saved tens of thousands of dollars, and met a girl he liked on the construction site, and followed that girl to Hong Kong.

After a few years of absence, Charlie Wade couldn't help feeling a little excited, saying, "Caleb, we haven't seen each other for three or four years? How have you been in Hong Kong over the past few years?"

When Caleb heard Charlie Wade's question at this time, he laughed and said, "It's okay, it's okay! Let's have enough food and clothing!"

Charlie Wade asked again: "Where is the girl you met on the construction site? Are you two married?"

"Hey." A trace of sadness flashed between Caleb's eyebrows, but he smiled indifferently: "Get married. It's been a relationship for two or three years, but this is not about marriage, I can't afford it. What kind of gift, I can't afford to buy a house. The woman's parents look down on me, and they often blow the wind around her ears, and she won't look down on me when she blows them, and then they broke off with me."

Charlie Wade frowned and asked, "When is this?"

Caleb smiled slightly and said, "Just last month."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "It is her loss for not choosing you."

Chapter 952

After finishing speaking, he said: "By the way, I haven't asked you yet, aren't you in Hong Kong? Why did you come to Aurouss Hill so quickly?"

Caleb smiled and said: "It's very coincidental that the unit arranged for me to come over for a business trip. I just arrived in the afternoon. I just got off the bus and saw that you were chatting in the group, and then I hurried over."

Charlie Wade asked curiously: "Aren't you doing business by yourself? Why did you work again?"

Caleb smiled bitterly, and said, "Business has been dry, how can the business be so good now, especially in the past two years, the economic situation is not good, and it is not easy to do anything."

After speaking, he looked at Claire Wilson Wilson and smiled: "Charlie Wade, is this your younger brother and sister?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "This is my wife, Claire Wilson Wilson."

After speaking, he introduced Claire Wilson Wilson again: "Claire Wilson Wilson, this is Caleb, my best friend in the orphanage."

Caleb smiled and said, "Charlie Wade, you are really blessed, your wife is so beautiful."

Claire Wilson Wilson smiled and said, "Thank you."

Caleb nodded, and then pretended to complain to Charlie Wade: "Charlie Wade, you are not kind! I haven't taken the initiative to contact us for several years. After Mrs. Lewis suffered from uremia, I heard Mrs. Lewis say, You often visit her, but you avoid our brothers and sisters every time, why?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said seriously: "The past few years have not been very good, I don't want everyone to see it."

Charlie Wade also has self-esteem. Since marrying Claire Wilson Wilson, he has often been ridiculed by people, saying that he is a trash, a hanging silk, and a live-in son-in-law. Although he is not surprised how people think of him, he does not want to let him be with him since childhood. These little friends who grew up together know their dilemma. Caleb said seriously: "My dear brother, we lived in a shack on a construction site for a long time. A steamed bun can be broken in half and a person can break in half. Why are you embarrassed in front of me? Brother, I've been unhappy in the past few years. Look at me, don't you still laugh every day."

Charlie Wade nodded slightly.

At this time, Lisa also looked at Caleb with a smile, and said, "Brother Caleb, why don't you say hello to me?"

Caleb saw Lisa and stared at her for a long time before he was surprised and said, "You...you are Lisa?!"

Like Charlie Wade, Caleb has never returned after leaving the orphanage when he was eighteen.

At that time, Lisa was only thirteen or fourteen years old, and she was still a yellow-haired girl, but now Lisa has become a decent beauty, and the gap is still very obvious.

Lisa smiled and said, "It's me, why are you so surprised!"

Caleb laughed and said: "It's really a big eighteen woman. At that time, you were yellow and thin, and short. You looked like a tomboy every day. I didn't expect to become so beautiful now!"

Lisa replied shyly: "Brother Caleb, don't praise me. I have a sister-in-law here, I can't be considered pretty."

As she said, she couldn't help but look at Claire Wilson Wilson, and the envy on her face was even more expressive.

Caleb smiled and said: "Don't be so arrogant, you are also a beautiful woman out of a million."

Lisa was embarrassed not knowing how to speak, and suddenly received a call.

She picked up the phone and listened, her face immediately became anxious, and she said to everyone: "The owner of the restaurant called and said that the hotel's wiring was aging, and the power was skipped. It can't be repaired today, and it has to wait for tomorrow, so it can't be opened."

"Huh?" Caleb blurted out: "Then we have to find another place temporarily!"

Lisa said anxiously: "Now it's time for dinner, I'm afraid it will be difficult to find a box temporarily..."

As soon as Charlie Wade heard this, he was about to call Don Albertt to ask if there were any boxes in Heaven Springs.

At this time, a black Mercedes-Benz car stopped beside everyone..

Chapter 953

The window of the Mercedes-Benz car was lowered, and Charlie Wade glanced at it and recognized the man driving.

This person is Jeff who took the initiative to organize a gathering in the group today.

However, Charlie Wade didn't have much friendship with him.

Jeff was dressed in a suit and leather shoes with a slightly fat figure. When he saw the crowd, he stopped the car, poked his head out of the car, and said, "Oh, I'm so sorry, everyone has been waiting for a long time."

With that said, with an arrogant and complacent look between his eyebrows, he deliberately explained: "Hey, there is a traffic jam on the road. It was delayed for a while, and it was late."

Someone exclaimed and said, "Jeff, you drive Mercedes-Benz? When did you mention it?"

Jeff laughed and said, "I just mentioned it two days ago."

Charlie Wade suddenly realized it, no wonder this guy was so active in organizing parties, it turned out to be showing off his childhood friends who just mentioned a new car and wanted to find him!

At this time, someone asked: "Jeff, what model is this car? A lot of money, right?"

Jeff smiled triumphantly, and pretended to be modest, and said: "Oh, it's just a Mercedes-Benz e300l. It's not a good car, it's just over 500,000." "Oh!!"

Everyone exclaimed.

Someone said: "Oh, Jeff, you are too good. You have only been out of society for a few years, so you can afford such an expensive car!"

"Yeah, we are still taking the bus, and you are already on the big run. It's really more than human to throw away!"

"That's more people to die than people, to shop around!"

"Oh, one meaning."

To be honest, the children who come out of the orphanage are basically helpless people.

Their starting point is much lower than most people, if others start from 0, then they start from negative.

Up to now, most of the children who came out of the orphanage in the same period of the year are still struggling with food and clothing. They will not have any good jobs, let alone good opportunities, so everyone basically All are pretty poor.

Except for Charlie Wade and Jeff, none of the other orphanage friends can afford a car.

So when everyone saw Jeff buying a Mercedes-Benz, they were very envious and admired.

Jeff smiled triumphantly, waved his hand and said, "It's okay, it's all small money to me, it's not worth mentioning!"

As he said, he suddenly saw Charlie Wade standing in the crowd, his face changed slightly.

Unexpectedly, Charlie Wade's rival was actually one step ahead of him. When he was in the orphanage, he looked down on people like Charlie Wade, and wanted to teach Charlie Wade many times, but because he couldn't beat him, he was finally repaired by Charlie Wade.

With the increase in frequency, Charlie Wade has become his psychological shadow, and he still can't let go of it.

He once thought that even if Charlie Wade was able to fight when he was in the orphanage, as long as he entered society, people like Charlie Wade would definitely get mixed up very miserably.

After he glanced at Charlie Wade's clothes, he couldn't help but sneered in his heart. He was dressed in miscellaneous goods, and he didn't know anything about it.

However, when he saw Claire Wilson Wilson, his eyes lit up, and he was suddenly shocked!

He has never seen such a beautiful woman in real life.

Chapter 954

This made him wonder, could this beauty be a small partner in the orphanage?

But no matter how he thought, he couldn't think of any memory fragments related to this beauty.

Thinking of this, Jeff still had a smile on his face, first with a bit of arrogance, and said hello to Charlie Wade: "Yeah, isn't this Charlie Wade? Long time no see!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Big fart pocket?"

Big fart pocket is Jeff's nickname in the orphanage at the time, because this kid is fat and can eat, so he likes to amplify bad farts.

The key is that this kid farts. He never pays attention to the occasion.

It is used when playing games in class, when eating, and when sleeping.

At that time, the little friends were troubled by his fart, and she was miserable, so she left this nickname, called Big Butt Douzi.

Jeff didn't expect Charlie Wade to mention his previous nickname as soon as he came up, and suddenly his face felt a little uncontrollable.

Before he could say anything, a young man behind him said displeasably:

"Hey, Charlie Wade, how do you talk? How dare you be called Mr. Jeff's nickname? Mr. Jeff is now an executive of a listed group. , You have to be respectful when you speak!"

Charlie Wade glanced at the person who spoke, and vaguely remembered that the other person was Harry, who was one of Jeff's dog legs back then. He didn't expect that after so many years, he would still follow Jeff's ass. So, he frowned slightly, and said faintly: "I'm sorry, I have called him a big a since he was a child, and he has become used to it."

Jeff glanced at Claire Wilson Wilson, and found that Claire Wilson Wilson looked a little bit uncontrollable about his nickname. He was immediately a little angry, and counterattacked: "Charlie Wade, look at you like this. It's not bad to be a guy. What car did you drive over? "

Harry immediately took the conversation, laughed, and said, "Oh, Mr. Jeff, what you said is a bit too much. I heard that Charlie Wade went to be a live-in son-in-law, and he was supported by his wife. It would be nice to have a hot meal. , You also asked what car they drove over. Didn't you slap them on purpose..."

"Oh, slip of the tongue!" Jeff slapped his head and deliberately said,

"I'm sorry Charlie Wade, I'm a bit straight, I hope you don't mind."

That's what he said, but he was already laughing in his heart, Charlie Wade, Charlie Wade, let me see how you step down!

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Big fart pocket, I always thought that you love to fart because your intestines are straight. I didn't expect you to speak straight. You use the trachea to speak, just like your intestines. The pipes are all straight!"

When everyone heard his ridicule, they laughed suddenly.

Jeff's face became very ugly by the way.

He really didn't expect that when he said something straight, Charlie Wade caught the handle, it was a sarcasm.

Jeff's face suddenly became difficult to look.

He couldn't care about being angry now, mainly because he was afraid that Claire Wilson Wilson would have a bad impression of himself because of Charlie Wade's words.

So, he hurriedly looked at Claire Wilson Wilson and asked with a smile:

"Oh, this beauty looks a little strange. Maybe it's because I haven't returned to the orphanage for so many years. Why can't I recognize you? Can't tell me, what's your name?"

Lisa on the side said dissatisfied: "Hey, Jeff, do you have any insight? Do you know who this is? This is my sister-in-law, my brother Charlie Wade's wife!"

"what?!"

Jeff looked like he was struck by lightning and killed him. He couldn't believe that this super beautiful woman who made her look at him was actually Charlie Wade's wife!

He couldn't help but look at Charlie Wade, and found that Charlie Wade's clothes all over his body were not as expensive as his own coat. This Armani coat of his own, let alone buy him, and spare half!

Looking at the beautiful and moving Claire Wilson Wilson standing tall and tall next to Charlie Wade, he couldn't help but feel extremely annoyed.

Oh shit!

Claire Wilson Wilson is such a beautiful woman, with an exquisite figure, she is simply the best among the best, and she is a hundred times, a thousand times or even ten thousand times stronger than the women she has ever seen.

As a result, she turned out to be Charlie Wade's stinky wife, God is so f*cking blind!

Chapter 955

When he thought that Charlie Wade could find such a beautiful wife, Jeff felt even more unbalanced. With a smirk on his face, he sarcastically said to Charlie Wade: "Charlie Wade, I don't think we two have seen each other in a few years. You have changed quite a bit. Yes, it looks like oily noodles. It's really a standard little white face, natural for soft rice!"

As he said, he looked at Charlie Wade up and down, and pretended to be ashamed and said: "I knew it was so easy to be a live-in son-in-law. Then why have I worked so hard in the past few years? Look at me. After being broken, I earned the position of director. Compared with you, the soft rice king who can only eat and wait to die, I am really ashamed!"

The reason why Jeff was so cynic on purpose was that he wanted to show off his identity and status in front of Charlie Wade and others, so as to attack Charlie Wade.

After saying this, he couldn't help looking at the young and charming Lisa.

Now that such a super beauty like Claire Wilson Wilson is out of play, Lisa, a tender little sister who can pinch the water, can still develop well!

When I was in the orphanage before, why didn't I realize that this little girl, Lisa, was so beautiful!

If I had known it earlier, I should have dealt with her in the orphanage back then!

At this moment, the few people behind him laughed at Charlie Wade when he heard him ridicule Charlie Wade.

But Charlie Wade still stood calmly in place, without any angry expression on his face.

Claire Wilson Wilson was a little angry, and said coldly: "This gentleman, my husband didn't recruit or provoke you. Why do you speak rudely and ridicule him? Besides, what does it have to do with you whether my husband eats soft food? Did he eat a grain of your rice?"

Jeff didn't expect Charlie Wade's wife to be so towards him!

He suddenly felt that God was unfair!

Why is there no such a wife when I am so good and so hardworking?

Is it true to the old saying that a good man has no good wife? Good wife but no good guy? !

So he got even worse in his heart, sneered and said: "Beauty, I am not ridiculing your husband, I am telling the truth, a beautiful woman like you, marrying him this kind of hanging silk, it is really a flower insert. On the cow dung!"

Claire Wilson Wilson said coldly: "You are an outsider in the matter between me and my husband, and you don't have any qualifications to judge! It's enough to manage your own affairs!"

Jeff was choked and speechless, and Claire Wilson Wilson was so beautiful. The key is that she still loves her husband so much, and is so envious of her husband!

At this time, Lisa couldn't help but scolded angrily: "Hey! Jeff! What do you mean by this person? Did my brother Charlie Wade recruit you? You are here to be sarcastic to him! I see you as a human being. Too much time!

Nothing has changed from before!"

When Jeff heard this, his heart suddenly became annoyed.

Why is this Lisa facing Charlie Wade like this? What is so good about this hanging wire? Why are all the beautiful women facing him?

Claire Wilson Wilson, as his wife, is fine with him. You Lisa didn't have a relationship with her for no reason, so what are you doing to him?

Moreover, the more Jeff looked at Lisa, the more he felt that this girl was really the best!

At the age of early twenties, the figure is already so tall, and this is what should be convex and curled, I feel impeccable no matter how you look at it!

Moreover, the appearance of pouting in anger is even more confusing, and I can't wait to kiss them in my arms immediately!

It would be really cool if I could get started with such a young girl!

Chapter 956

So, he hurriedly said to Lisa with a grin: "Oh, Lisa, don't get me wrong.

Did I make a joke with Charlie Wade? You don't know the two of us. We used to make jokes a lot, but in fact we His relationship is very good!"

Lisa snorted and turned his head to ignore him.

At this moment, a middle-aged woman with grey hair and kind face walked out of the entrance of the orphanage. Seeing everyone, she couldn't help asking: "Oh, didn't you go to the restaurant? Why are you still standing at the door? Huh?"

Everyone hurriedly looked back, and was pleasantly surprised to find that the speaker was Mrs. Lewis who had recovered.

At this time, Mrs. Lewis had a very kind smile on her face. She looked at everyone, and she was also very pleased, especially seeing Charlie Wade, not only comforted, but also a little grateful.

For a while, everyone also looked at Mrs. Lewis with eager and excited eyes.

Charlie Wade has the blessings of the Apocalyptic book, so it can be seen at a glance that Mrs. Lewis's condition at this time has been completely cured and her physical condition is much better!

He felt extremely relieved in his heart, and at the same time he couldn't help sighing that if he had obtained the Apocalyptic book earlier, Mrs. Lewis might not have to undergo surgery for a kidney transplant. A rejuvenation pill would be enough to cure all her illnesses and also Make her a few years younger or even a teenager.

The same is true for Mrs. Lewis. For her, every child in front of her is actually the same as her own, and she feels extremely cherished, and all her generation's time has been dedicated to the orphanage.

Although she had never thought of asking these children to report their gratitude and be filial to herself, at this time, seeing everyone coming to visit her, she nodded her heads and felt very pleased.

All the friends from the orphanage all stepped forward to greet Mrs. Lewis.

Some people here come from the bottom of their hearts, while others just take a form.

But even so, Mrs. Lewis was very grateful, after all, this group of children can still remember her, which made her very satisfied.

At this moment, Charlie Wade also stepped forward and said, "Mrs. Lewis, congratulations on your recovery and discharge!"

Claire Wilson Wilson smiled sweetly on the side and said: "Mrs. Lewis, congratulations on your recovery!"

After seeing Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson, Mrs. Lewis burst into a happy smile on her kind face, saying: "Charlie Wade, Claire Wilson Wilson, dear boy, I haven't seen you two for a few months. My mind is broken! Are you two okay now?"

To be honest, there are many children in the orphanage, and she treats all the children as her own children, but if she wants to say who she loves, Charlie Wade is the first person to do his part.

When Charlie Wade was in the orphanage, he was the most obedient, sensible and considerate child.

Moreover, although the other children who went out from the orphanage would come back to see and occasionally sponsor the orphanage, they have never been like Charlie Wade and have been doing their best to help the orphanage.

Especially when he was ill at the beginning, the huge amount of medical expenses was prohibitive even for his family. Unexpectedly, at that time, Charlie Wade alone would rise to the challenge.

Had it not been for him, I would have died a long time ago.

Moreover, I was lucky enough to be sent to Eastcliff Hospital for treatment. Thanks to Charlie Wade's help in raising money, Mrs. Lewis was also full of gratitude to him from the bottom of her heart. She felt the same for Claire Wilson Wilson in her heart. If Claire Wilson Wilson hadn't helped Charlie Wade to raise money everywhere, she wouldn't be able to sustain it.

So, Mrs. Lewis looked at Claire Wilson Wilson just as she looked at her daughter-in-law, and praised: "Claire Wilson Wilson, you are more beautiful than before. During this time, Charlie Wade didn't cause you trouble, right? Are you two? Auntie's most optimistic couple must be respectful and get along well, and don't let other people gossip."

Chapter 957

Hearing what Mrs. Lewis said, Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly said: "Mrs. Lewis, don't worry, I and Charlie Wade have a good relationship." After speaking, Claire Wilson Wilson then said apologetically: "Mrs. Lewis, after you went to Eastcliff for treatment, I have never had time to visit you in Eastcliff. If Charlie Wade told me, I would not know that you were cured and discharged. Back to Aurouss Hilll, I am really embarrassed..."

Mrs. Lewis said with emotion: "After I fell ill, your couple has been busy in the hospital. If you two hadn't helped raise money, Auntie might have died in critical condition..."

As she said, Mrs. Lewis's eyes reddened and she choked up, "Especially Claire Wilson Wilson you, while you are busy with the affairs of the Wilson family, you also have to come and take care of me. Auntie has always been very grateful and feels very guilty. I am dragged down. You couple, if you are really embarrassed, it should be the aunt who said it!"

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly comforted: "Mrs. Lewis, don't forget, I am Charlie Wade's wife, and you are Charlie Wade's benefactor, that is, my benefactor!"

Mrs. Lewis looked at Claire Wilson Wilson and was deeply moved.

Seeing Claire Wilson Wilson again this time, Mrs. Lewis felt that she was a little different from the past.

Although Claire Wilson Wilson and Charlie Wade often visited themselves in the past, Claire Wilson Wilson still vaguely felt a little alienated from Charlie Wade, obviously because they had no emotional foundation. But this goodbye, the two have been holding hands, and it seems that their relationship has also improved a lot.

In the past, Mrs. Lewis could often hear the rumours spread outside, so she was always worried about the relationship between the two, for fear that someday Charlie Wade would divorce Claire Wilson Wilson and be driven out of the Wilson family.

At this time, seeing the two people's relationship has improved, the heart settled down.

As everyone present listened to this conversation, they couldn't help being surprised.

Only then did they know that Charlie Wade and his wife had done so much for Mrs. Lewis while Mrs. Lewis was sick.

Charlie Wade was very humble. He took good care of Mrs. Lewis. He just wanted to repay the other party with all his heart, and he never thought of relying on this to show off and show off in front of others.

However, Jeff on the side was depressed!

The reason why everyone can come together to visit Mrs. Lewis today is that he is the real initiator and organizer!

Moreover, he was thinking that he is now a successful person anyway, just by taking advantage of this reception banquet, he will put pressure in front of everyone and enjoy the compliments and complacency of this group of people. By the way, he will talk to Lisa as a young gentleman.

Unexpectedly, Charlie Wade was robbing him of the limelight, and he turned into a background board! Thinking of this, Jeff looked at Charlie Wade with a bit of resentment.

At this time, Mrs. Lewis shook Claire Wilson Wilson's hand and said with great relief: "Claire Wilson Wilson, you and Charlie Wade are not too young anymore. It's time to consider having a child. The group of children they left from the orphanage back then Here, Charlie Wade got married alone, and the rest are still bachelors. As an aunt, I can't wait to hug a godson!"

Claire Wilson Wilson blushed all at once.

She and Charlie Wade have been married for more than three years, but no one has ever urged her to have a baby.

After all, the relatives around her looked down on Charlie Wade a little, and wished she divorced Charlie Wade, how could he let Charlie Wade have children.

However, she was suddenly urged to have a child by Mrs. Lewis. In addition to being shy in her heart, she suddenly had some strange feelings.

Claire Wilson Wilson will soon be twenty-six years old, at the optimal age for childbearing, and for a girl of this age, the motherhood and maternal love in his heart have already begun to faintly breed.

Take Claire Wilson Wilson, for example, occasionally when she sees other people with children, she will feel that maternal love is overflowing in her heart, and even start to think about when she can have a baby of her own.

However, because there are so many things in the family, she has never dared to consider this issue in depth.

So she said with some shame: "Mrs. Lewis, we haven't thought about having children yet, because I have just started a business and the company has only just improved a bit, and it has been the busiest time recently."

Chapter 958

At this time, Lisa looked at Claire Wilson Wilson's eyes, a bit more envy, and a bit more lost in his heart.

She has liked Charlie Wade since she was a child. When she was very young, she dreamed of marrying Charlie Wade and being Charlie Wade's bride. She has not forgotten this dream until now, but now it seems that she has no chance.

That's why she envied Claire Wilson Wilson even more, because in her opinion, Claire Wilson Wilson found the best man in the world, so she is the happiest woman in the world.

Mrs. Lewis smiled slightly at this time and said: "Career is important, but family is also important sometimes. We women, we should not have children too late, otherwise it will affect our body." Claire Wilson Wilson blushed and nodded.

Lisa said with embarrassment at this time: "Mrs. Lewis, the owner of the old restaurant called just now to say that there was a problem with the circuit of their restaurant and it cannot be opened today. We can only temporarily change the place for dinner."

Mrs. Lewis smiled and said: "In fact, it doesn't matter whether you eat or not. I am already very happy to see everyone. There are so many people here that I haven't seen for a long time."

Jeff, who has been neglected all the time, immediately shined upon hearing this.

He immediately took a step forward and blurted out: "Mrs. Lewis, I will arrange dinner for everyone tonight."

As he said, he immediately took out his cell phone and made a call, and then said to everyone: "Everyone, I have booked a place at our five-star Hyatt Hotel in Aurouss Hilll. Let's go over now."

Hearing that Jeff had booked a place at the five-star Hyatt Hotel, everyone present was suddenly surprised!

Someone embarrassedly said, "The Hyatt Hotel is a five-star hotel. It's too extravagant if we go there for dinner? It's not more than 20,000 or 30,000 after a meal?"

"Yeah! it will cost one or two thousand per person to spread it equally. Our salary level cannot afford such high consumption!"

Hearing this, other people couldn't help showing approval.

Those who enter and leave five-star hotels are basically high-class people, and only they have the confidence to go to such a place to enjoy. And among the people present, because they are all orphans, generally have low education and no background, they can't talk about career success.

Most of the jobs that everyone is looking for are those at the lower level. Many people's salary for a month is not enough to meet the various expenses of their daily lives. They worry about firewood, rice, oil and salt all day.

Therefore, when I heard that I was going to a five-star hotel for dinner, everyone was a little worried, fearing that they would be stretched because of insufficient financial resources.

Jeff smiled at this time, patted his chest generously and said, "Don't worry, you guys, I will pay half of this meal by myself, and you will pay the other half together. It is estimated that it will cost a few hundred Dollar per person. how about it?"

Hearing what he said, many people were relieved.

Jeff paid half of it by himself, which really relieved everyone's pressure.

Someone couldn't help saying: "Jeff, how embarrassed to let you do half of the job by yourself!"

Jeff waved his hand indifferently, and said with a smile: "Today is mainly for Mrs. Lewis. It doesn't matter if I spend more money!"

In fact, everyone did not know that Jeff happened to have a budget for a company to entertain customers. What he thought was that he would pay 20,000 to 30,000 for this meal, and he would pay half of it on the surface, and let others pay the other half.

At that time, I issued an invoice and went to the company for reimbursement. Not only could I get back half of what I spent, I could also earn back half of what everyone paid back!

For example, for a meal of 30,000 Dollar, I would pay 15,000 Dollar, and everyone would pay 15,000 Dollar. Afterwards, I went to the company to reimburse 30,000 Dollar. Not only did I earn face and favors in front of everyone, I also made a net profit of 15,000 Dollar. Money! why not?

Chapter 959

Mrs. Lewis next to me, when she heard that she was going to the Hyatt Hotel for dinner, she hurriedly said: "Jeff, auntie knows that this is your wish, but I don't need to go to the high-end Hyatt Hotel. The place is too expensive!"

Later, Mrs. Lewis said: "And you eat wherever you go. It's better to cook a table of delicious meals for you. Let's have a bite in the orphanage. This will save you children. Less money. You can use the little money you save to do it yourself. It's not worth it to spend so much to get the wind from me..."

She has been thrifty and thrifty all her life. She has never been to such a luxurious place. It is difficult for her to adapt to the place where she spends tens of thousands of dollars to eat.

However, Jeff smiled slightly and said, "Mrs. Lewis, don't say that. We are all raised by you, and now we are at the age to do something for you. Besides, I said just now. I'm not alone for the meal, I pay half, and the rest pay the other half!"

After that, he saw Mrs. Lewis hesitate, and then persuaded: "Auntie, don't worry, this meal won't cost too much. Moreover, the Hyatt Hotel has a cooperative relationship with our company. I will have some discount, after a meal is eaten, and the spread is calculated on everyone's head, only a few hundred dollars!"

When these words came out, everyone present was also relieved.

If the per capita consumption is several hundred, if it is still within the range of most people, everyone will naturally relax a lot.

And they feel that they can also take advantage of this opportunity to spend very little money to experience the upscale and luxury of five-star hotels, which is very cost-effective.

At this time, Mrs. Lewis was still a little hesitant. Jeff looked at the time and said, "Mrs. Lewis, it's already past 6 o'clock. If we don't hurry, there may be nowhere to go."

Mrs. Lewis felt that it was rare for these children to come together to visit her. If everyone didn't even finish the meal in the end, it would be really disappointing.

In the end, she couldn't stand Jeff's hospitality, so she nodded and said, "Okay, then go to Hyatt to eat."

Jeff was overjoyed and hurriedly said: "Mrs. Lewis, let's go quickly."

Someone asked: "How did a dozen of us go there?"

Jeff smiled and said, "My car can take four. Let Mrs. Lewis take my car, and Lisa can take my car, and two more."

As he said, he deliberately looked at Charlie Wade, raised his eyebrows and smiled: "Charlie Wade, do you want to ride in my car with your wife? I'll take you there. Your wife is so beautiful and you should ride in a Mercedes-Benz. Can't you take her on the bus!"

Charlie Wade smiled lightly and said, "Thank you for your kindness, but I also came by car."

"Oh, really?" Jeff asked exaggeratedly: "You came by car, aren't you the son-in-law? How can you afford a car? What kind of car? Nissan or Toyota?"

Charlie Wade took out the BMW car key blankly and pressed the unlock button. The BMW 760 parked on the side of the road not far away flashed a yellow light.

Everyone looked in the direction that his remote control key was facing, and when they saw Charlie Wade really reached out to unlock a BMW, they all exclaimed.

These little friends really don't have much promise. They were shocked when they saw Jeff's 500,000-plus Mercedes-Benz just now. They felt that this was their ultimate goal in life, but they didn't expect it. , Charlie Wade even drove a BMW.

Jeff's complexion immediately became a little unsightly, because BMW and Mercedes-Benz are basically the same brands, and this made him feel a little uncomfortable, who originally thought he stood apart.

I should be the only one in the orphanage who can afford a BMW and Benz. Unexpectedly, Charlie Wade could even afford a BMW!

He felt uncomfortable, so he took a closer look at Charlie Wade's BMW and found that there were three numbers 520 written on the back of his car, and his mood finally improved.

Chapter 960

In fact, the BMW 5 Series and the Mercedes-Benz E-Class are two levels that are completely equivalent, and everyone is not bad.

However, Jeff knows very well that Charlie Wade's BMW 520 is the second most beggar version of the BMW 5 Series. His own Mercedes-Benz e3001 is closer to the top of the Mercedes-Benz e-class. There are also e260 and e200 below.

In other words, Charlie Wade's BMW 520 and Mercedes-Benz e200 are of the same grade, so his own e3001 also overwhelmed Charlie Wade.

So he deliberately said: "Oh, Charlie Wade, it's not that I said you, you are really dying to face and suffer. Other experts have said that when buying a car, you must never buy the last beggar version. You said you have this. Money, why can't you buy a BMW 3 series with a mid-to-high profile? Why do you have to lick your face, put on a big tail eagle, and buy the lowest and lowest BMW 5 series? Are you too vain?"

Someone asked in surprise: "Jeff, what is the beggar version?"

Jeff smiled and said: "The beggar version is this car, the most garbage model in these series, and the lowest model, which belongs to the ranks of the crane tail."

Everyone suddenly realized.

Charlie Wade suddenly remembered that when Darren's Restaurant opened, he drove a BMW 540.

Thinking that Todd deliberately agitated himself and wanted to use his 540 to crush his 520, Charlie Wade was suddenly inspired by him.

At that time, Todd deliberately urged himself to compare himself with him, but now it is his own way to urge Jeff to compare Jeff with himself! Therefore, he deliberately said to Jeff: "Jeff, there is a saying I don't know if you've heard it, saying that there are no meat cars, only meat people." In other words, as long as your skills are at home, you can drive whatever car you like. Faster than others, but if you are not skilled enough, you will not be able to drive even if you give you an F1.

After speaking, Charlie Wade said with a disdainful face: "Jeff, it's not that I'm talking to you. I'm a very good driving skill. People give me the nickname, Aurouss Hilll Schumacher!"

When Jeff heard this, he immediately curled his mouth and said, "Oh, shit, you still have Aurouss Hilll Schumacher? Do you know what Schumacher looks like?"

Charlie Wade sneered disdainfully: "Do you believe it or not."

Jeff coldly snorted: "The mouth is on your face, just blow it! I don't believe that it's just like you. If you drive a BMW 520, you dare to call Aurouss Hilll Schumacher? I kick the accelerator and let you eat your exhaust!"

After all, Jeff raised his eyebrows arrogantly and asked: "Would you like to compare?"

"Ah, come again?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "I'm telling you that, some time ago, I just put a BMW 540 on the ground. The power of the BMW 540 is much stronger than your Mercedes-Benz e3001.

Jeff spit out and said with contempt: "Charlie Wade, do you brag about it and don't write drafts? Just your broken car, the BMW 540? I'm! Don't talk about the 540, you can do it today. A Mercedes-Benz e3001, I have your last name!"

Charlie Wade deliberately asked, "How much horsepower is your car?"

Jeff said proudly: "My car has 258 horsepower!"

Charlie Wade nodded, gave a thumbs up, and said: "Then you are awesome! I can't do this, only 184, far worse than you! You are still amazing!"

Jeff sneered and said sarcastically: "Why? Don't you dare to compare?"

What did you just say? You smashed the 340-horsepower 540. My 258-horsepower Mercedes-Benz e3001, you are afraid Is it still a man?"

Charlie Wade deliberately said timidly: "Oh, I can't say that it can be better than you. What is it better than you, you won, and you won't fight against others, right?"

Chapter 961

"That won't work!"

Seeing Charlie Wade's confession, Jeff bit him instead.

He deliberately increased the volume a bit and said: "Everyone has heard it. You said it yourself. There is no good car, but only good driver. If this is the case, then we two will compete in front of all the students."

Charlie Wade waved his hand and said a heart-wrenching sentence: "Oh, Jeff, let's not compare. Everyone is not a heavyweight player. It would be unfair to be together like this."

It's really unfair. BMW 760 and Mercedes-Benz e3001 are no different from Husky.

When Jeff saw that Charlie Wade said that he was not a heavyweight, he thought Charlie Wade was scared, and he immediately sneered: "Charlie Wade, didn't you just brag? Why are you talking about it now? In front of you? Wife, can you look like a man?"

Charlie Wade pretended to be annoyed and said, "Oh, I said Jeff. It is meaningless for you to talk like this. Everyone is a small partner who grew up together. Do you need to be so aggressive? Yes, you should drive a car. What's so good about the car? Do you really think your car is better than me, you can beat me?"

Jeff thought that Charlie Wade got the set, but he didn't expect that he actually got the set, and hurriedly said: "The key to whether you can beat you depends on whether you dare to compare with me. If you are counseled and not a man, then I will There is no way for you."

Charlie Wade immediately became ashamed and said: "Okay! Comparing, who is afraid of whom."

Jeff immediately smiled and said: "Great! Then let's try and compare, so let's get to the Grand Hyatt Hotel first than whoever gets there first. What do you think?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "It's okay, but it should be some color, right?"

"Come on!" Jeff said confidently: "You can open the color head, whatever you want!"

Charlie Wade thought for a while and said, "Let's do it, I heard from Lisa today that the orphanage is still short of funds, or else, no matter who we are, we will donate our car to the orphanage and let the welfare. What do you think of it?"

The good brother Caleb hurriedly grabbed him and blurted out: "Charlie Wade, don't be fooled by him! This person is not at all well-intentioned!"

Charlie Wade smiled, saying that it was okay, but in his heart he secretly said: "My dear brother, I actually want him to be fooled by me, because I am the one who really has no peace of mind."

But it is naturally impossible to say this.

Jeff laughed aloud at this time and said: "Charlie Wade, is your BMW 520 your name? Didn't you push the door upside down? This should be your wife's car? Why are you embarrassed to take your wife's car out? What about the generosity of others? What if you lose and your wife is unwilling to donate this car to the orphanage?"

Claire Wilson Wilson on the side was also very dissatisfied with Jeff's arrogant attitude, and said: "Although the car is written with my name, you can rest assured that I will guarantee my personality. If my husband loses to you, then I will take this Donate the car to the orphanage. If you lose to my husband, then you have to donate your car to the orphanage. So many people are watching, do you agree?"

When Jeff heard these words, he immediately relaxed.

I thought, Master's Mercedes-Benz e300l can't even run with your BMW 520?\

Since you want to get humiliated, get ready to say goodbye with your car! So Jeff said: "Since you have said so for beauties, of course I have no opinion. There are so many friends here to witness, including Mrs. Lewis, who is also here to witness. We are so sure, who loses. Donate this car to the orphanage."

Mrs. Lewis hurriedly said: "Oh, you guys. What is this for? I grew up together, what can't you say, you have to be stunned here? Listen to me, don't make this bet anymore, let's Just eat with peace of mind, reminisce about the past, and enhance the relationship."

Chapter 962

Jeff said immediately: "Mrs. Lewis, don't worry about this. This is a bit of personal grievance between Charlie Wade and I. Besides, we are more than a match. It is not whoever wins and who wins is good for the orphanage. As a result, if my car is sold second-hand, it can sell for 400,000 Dollar. Although Charlie Wade's car is cheap, it can sell for two or three hundred thousand Dollar. The money sold can be donated to the orphanage, or it can be used by the brother of the orphanage. My sisters have a good life."

Charlie Wade smiled and said to Mrs. Lewis at this time: "Mrs. Lewis, you don't have to worry about this. Jeff and I will handle it in private."

Mrs. Lewis was actually mainly afraid that Charlie Wade would suffer, but seeing Charlie Wade's confidence, she suddenly felt that this matter should not be as simple as she thought.

Actually, when I went to Eastcliff to see a doctor this time, Mrs. Lewis found something wrong.

The first thing that is not right is that the doctors in the hospital are too polite to themselves and treat themselves as VIPs.

When I was recuperating in the hospital, I happened to meet a domestic celebrity and went to Fairview Hospital to see a doctor. The person who treated that celebrity at that time was his doctor. However, she found that the treating doctor's attitude towards the star was far less respectful than her attitude towards herself. She couldn't help but secretly thought that she was just an employee of an orphanage, and she came to Eastcliff for the first time in her life. It was impossible to have anything to do with her. What background might she have, so why did the doctor treat herself so respectfully? The second problem is that I went to the operating table and was injected with general anesthesia by the anesthesiologist, but before he passed out immediately, I heard my chief surgeon talking to his assistant. Dazed, she heard the other party say that this patient is the benefactor of the young master, so she must be cautious and cautious. She never wanted to understand, what exactly was the young master that the other party was talking about? Or maybe I had hallucinations and misheard. However, every time she thinks of this clip, she always thinks of Charlie Wade.

Although she doesn't know why, she always feels that looking at the grown-up child is far from simple as she thought. What's more, all of the millions of medical expenses that he had spent in the hospital at the beginning were all solved by Charlie Wade. What kind of method does he have to solve so much money in a short time? This made her feel a little weird. Seeing Charlie Wade at this time, she found that Charlie Wade has indeed changed a lot from before. The biggest change is that he is more confident than before, and much more confident! This also made Mrs. Lewis very pleased in her heart, because in the past so many years, she too hoped that Charlie Wade could be more confident, but it has not been successful, but now it seems that he has successfully passed that hurdle. .

Thinking of this, she no longer intervened in the gambling agreement between Charlie Wade and Jeff.

Jeff looked at Charlie Wade smugly at this time, and said with a smile: "Charlie Wade, to be fair, each of us is full of five people in our car. Let our little friends including Mrs. Lewis come as a testimony, lest you Who denies after losing!"

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Well, Mrs. Lewis, Lisa, and Caleb are in my car."

"Ok!" Jeff said with a smile: "Then those of us who played well back then, take my car together!"

Chapter 963

The friends who are good deeds immediately uttered a cheer, but because the car can't fit so many people after all, there are still a few friends who can only take a taxi.

Charlie Wade sat in the BMW 760 he bought for Claire Wilson Wilson, and his wife Claire Wilson Wilson sat in the co-pilot.

Mrs. Lewis, Lisa and Caleb sat in the back row.

Charlie Wade said to the person in the car, "Sit down, and I will be on the straight road in front of you later. I can end the battle with a kick of the accelerator."

After speaking, he looked at Mrs. Lewis and told: "Mrs. Lewis, hold on to the handrails and hold on. I can make a Mercedes Benz for our orphanage with a kick of the accelerator! Easy to sell for more than 300,000 Dollar, Then buy some good toys for the children!"

Mrs. Lewis nodded and said with a smile: "Then I have to thank you for the children in our orphanage!"

On the other side, Jeff's car was also full of five people, all of whom were his attendants.

Jeff drove the car to Charlie Wade's BMW, lowered the window, and said with a smile: "Charlie Wade, let's go when you are ready, I will let you run for three seconds."

Charlie Wade said modestly: "Don't don't don't, you're all friends, let's be boring for more than three seconds, let's get together."

"Haha!" The five people on the Mercedes-Benz laughed loudly, and Jeffle said, "Charlie Wade, you are really interesting. If this is the case, then I count one, two, three?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "Okay, come on."

Jeff laughed and said, "Come on, one, two, three, go!"

After speaking, Jeff immediately stomped on the accelerator.

Charlie Wade let him deliberately for a second, and then stepped on the accelerator deeply, causing the BMW 760 to rush out quickly like an off-string arrow.

In just one second, Charlie Wade had already left Jeff far behind.

The road went straight all the way, and slightly increased the speed, which directly cast away Jeff.

Jeff didn't realize that it was Charlie Wade's car that rushed past, until someone around him reminded him: "Brother Jeff, that kid Charlie Wade has passed!"

"Where?" Jeff panicked, and he looked at him with a dazed look: "f*ck, how could he be so fast..."

A kid in the back seat sighed: "It seems that Charlie Wade does have some skills!"

"Skills my ass!" Jeff came down in cold sweat, blurted out: "This is not good skill at all, this is a better car! This bastard tricked me!"

The man hurriedly asked: "What do you mean?!"

Jeff scolded angrily: "My car has stepped on the floor, and he is so much faster than me. This proves that the horsepower of his car is much stronger than the horsepower of my car. At least it has to run. Go with 400 horsepower!"

Speaking of this, Jeff said in a panic: "This is over, this is really over, Charlie Wade has calculated it..."

The kid in the co-pilot asked, "What's the matter, Brother Jeff, can't you win?"

"Win a chicken feather..." Jeff was already crying anxiously, and blurted out: "The car is obviously not at the same level as others. Even if you run away from the car, you can't catch up with them, you see. Look, now you can't see his shadow. The Hyatt Hotel is only two or three kilometers away. What am I going to chase after! This time I've lost!"

"Ah?!" a person in the back row blurted out: "Brother Jeff, if you really lose, will you donate this car to the orphanage?"

"I'll donate an egg!" Jeff gritted his teeth and cursed: "Do you know how much effort Master took to buy this car? It is impossible to kill me and donate it to the orphanage!"

"But, you've already made a bet with Charlie Wade in public. If you break your promise by then, wouldn't it be unsightly?"

Jeff was also aware of this problem.

Chapter 964

If you really turned back, wouldn't you want to be laughed at by these little friends?

But if I killed myself, I didn't want to give this newly bought car directly to the orphanage!

At this moment, he even thought that he would just drive away and stop eating this meal, and he would never interact with the group of people in the orphanage in the future!

Just as he thought about it, there was a flash of light in his mind.

Immediately afterwards, he did not hesitate to change lanes to the right lane, and rushed to the rear of the car in front of him!

Jeff has already figured it out. The best solution is to have a traffic accident on his own. In this way, it is equivalent to the end of the game due to force majeure, so he will not lose!

Therefore, he wanted to find a car to chase up.

At this moment, the guy in the co-pilot was so scared that he yelled, blurting out, "Brother Jeff! Brother Jeff! You're going to hit, You're going to hit!"

Jeff sneered, and said to his heart: "All I want is to hit!"

However, when he got closer and closer to the car in front of him, he discovered that the car in front was a black Porsche Cayenne.

At this moment, he immediately stepped on the brake!

Cayenne got a million dollars, but he only bought half a million dollars for his car damage insurance. If he crashed into this car, the insurance might not be enough.

It just so happened that there was a Passat on the right side of the lane, so he slapped in the direction and hit the a of the Volkswagen Passat!

With a bang, Passat was slammed for a while before stopping, and Jeff's front face of Mercedes-Benz was also smashed beyond recognition.

Fortunately, the airbag exploded, so no one was injured.

After crashing the car, Jeff stopped the car immediately, pushed the door and walked off, then immediately turned on his mobile phone and took a video on WeChat.

He patted the front of his car and patted the Passat who was hit by himself in front of him. He said, "My friends, please help me tell Charlie Wade that there was an accident on my side and I ran into a Passat. Today's race is definitely not going to go on, so let's wait for my car to be repaired and then compare with him!"

After that, he clicked send and sent the video to the group of the orphanage.

After posting the video, he thought to himself, I was so witty! Actually thought of using this method to solve the problem! Really smart!

Otherwise, if you really drive the car to the Hyatt Hotel, then you really won't be able to get off the stage.

Even if you don't donate the car, you won't be able to get involved in the circle of the orphanage in the future.

Originally, it was okay not to be in this circle. He didn't have any real feelings with these people, nor did he have any feelings for Mrs. Lewis.

However, when he met Lisa today, he felt that he had a new goal in life.

He is preparing to look for an opportunity recently to launch an offensive against Lisa. If he loses the game today and denies it, then he must be foolish to play Lisa.

Just when he was very proud of his intelligence, a middle-aged man walked up to him, pointed at him and yelled: "You're f*cking blind? Who told you that this car is a Passat, I'm a w12 Top with imported Phaeton! More than 2 million landed! Did your mind kick the donkey?"

"What the hell?!" Jeff said dumbfounded: "Phaeton?! Isn't it Passat?"

When the man heard this, he scolded his mother angrily. He reached out and grabbed his collar and dragged him to the front. He pointed to his car butt and cursed: "Your mother will show me clearly what this is? Come and talk to me. Read, phaeton, translated into Chinese called Phaeton!" Jeff's heart was suddenly cold!

This is the lowest-key Volkswagen Phaeton in the legend? How does this f*cking look different from Passat?

Chapter 965

Although Porsche is a luxury brand, an ordinary Cayenne is just over a million.

However, although the German Volkswagen is a common brand, the Volkswagen Phaeton is a very, very expensive model.

The top-equipped Phaeton is more than two million Dollar, which is not cheaper than the top-equipped Audi a8, the top-equipped Mercedes-Benz S, and the top-equipped BMW 7 Series.

Jeff was taken aback by the logo of the Porsche Cayenne just now, so he subconsciously wanted to choose a cheaper car and hit him.

Seeing this Phaeton, in the evening, I only saw a Volkswagen logo hung on the back of his butt, and the car looked like a Passat, so I just ran into it without thinking about it.

However, I didn't expect it to be a low-key and cheating Phaeton...

When he thought that this car was worth more than 2 million, he felt depressed and wanted to die.

Cars pay attention to the ratio of parts to the whole. In other words, if the parts of a car are taken apart, the price will be two or three times or even higher than the price of the car.

In the rear-end collision just now, the other party's two taillights, trunk, and anti-collision beams were all damaged. This Phaeton is an imported car again. All parts and accessories need to be imported, so it might cost hundreds of thousands to repair. .

Moreover, his Mercedes-Benz also crashed very badly.

Mercedes-Benz is one of the brands with the highest retail ratio. As for this 500,000 Mercedes-Benz e-class, it can be dismantled at least more than one million Dollar according to the 4s shop's parts quotation.

With two automatic headlights alone, it costs more than 60,000!

In addition, the front hood, water tank, radiator, and anti-collision beams all had problems, and two airbags burst. If the damage of this car is determined by the insurance, at least about 200,000 Dollar will be repaired.

If you really hit a Passat, then the combined damage of the two cars will definitely not exceed 500,000.

In this case, all the money will be paid by the insurance company, so there is nothing to worry about.

But I was blind and ran into a Phaeton...

With this calculation, the damage of the two cars is estimated to be close to one million!

Insurance can only compensate 500,000, and you have to figure out the remaining money.

He suddenly felt incomparably collapsed, looking at the middle-aged man driving the Phaeton, crying and saying: "Big brother, you drive such a car to go out, aren't you a pitfall?"

"I'm cheating?!" The middle-aged man raised his hand angrily and slapped him in the face, angrily cursed: "You ran into my car. You are all responsible. You said I cheated?! Believe me or not. Now make a call and let someone chop you off?"

Jeff covered his face, stepped back subconsciously, and blurted out:

"You...how can you hit someone?!"

"I can't beat you?" The Phaeton driver asked coldly, "Do you know who Master is?"

"I don't know..." Jeff shook his head with a guilty conscience.

The driver grabbed Jeff by the collar, pulled him closer, and stared at him angrily: "You can see Master clearly. Master's name is Caesar Hilton. Have you heard of Master's name?"

When Jeff heard this, his face paled in fright.

Of course he has heard of Caesar Hilton's name.

There are four heavenly kings under Don Albertt, all of whom are Don Albertt's most powerful men.

Chapter 966

These four heavenly kings in Aurouss Hilll are also big figures in each town, and the most famous one is Caesar Hilton.

Jeff never dreamed that he would run into Caesar's Phaeton in order to avoid a Porsche Cayenne.

He already regretted it and wanted to die at this time. He had known this a long time ago, and he just hit the Porsche directly.

No, if I knew it was like this, I wouldn't be faster than Charlie Wade in any car!

That's right!

It's all because of Charlie Wade's bastard who dared to trick him. His BMW 520 is surprisingly powerful. At first glance, it was a modified car.

If he doesn't shame himself, how can he make such a bad move?

Thinking of this, Jeff hated Charlie Wade very much.

Caesar looked at the boy pale with fright, and snorted coldly, "Go, show me your driving license, driving license, and ID card!"

Jeff didn't dare to disobey, hurried back to the car, took out all these documents, and handed them to Caesar respectfully.

After reading the documents, Caesar put all the documents directly into his pocket.

Afterwards, he looked at Jeff and said coldly: "Is Jeff? I have been walking in the rivers and lakes for so many years. I really don't want to care about you, this car has not been a month since I just bought it. You crashed like this, even if you fix it for me, this car is still the injured car, not my new car."

Speaking of this, Caesar said sternly: "So, the solution I gave you is very simple. From now on, this Phaeton is yours."

When Jeff heard this, he was stunned.

He didn't understand why Caesar said that? Give yourself this Phaeton? impossible?

At this time, Caesar said with a gloomy expression: "This car is for you. You buy me a new car with exactly the same configuration. I will not pursue this matter. You are also lucky. I have a much better temper now. Otherwise, just because you hit my car, I have to break your leg first!"

After hearing Caesar's words, Jeff knelt on the ground with a desperate plop.

Let yourself lose him for a new car, which can cost more than 2 million Dollar. Where can I get so much money?

And what's the use of this car for himself? Repairing it alone would cost hundreds of thousands, and once it was repaired, it would cost hundreds of thousands of dollars to sell it. All in all, it would cost him a hundred and hundreds of thousands to get his car alone!

This hasn't counted the damage to my car!

Insurance companies can only cover half a million, and their combined losses are estimated to exceed one million.

Jeff almost collapsed at this moment, because he bought this Mercedes-Benz with a loan, and has to pay back a monthly payment of more than 10,000 Dollar every month, and it will be enough for three years.

All of my household belongings are used to pay the down payment, and my monthly salary is just over 20,000. What can I do to bear the millions of losses?

Thinking of this, Jeff cried and said to Caesar, "Brother Caesar, I am to blame for this matter today. I am solely responsible. I admit it! But I really don't have much money. I can't afford such an expensive car and pay you.!"

"Then I don't care." Caesar scolded: "You have to pay me satisfactory compensation if you crashed my car. You have no money? You have no money to figure out a solution. I will give you at most one week, if one week, I can't see the new Phaeton in my heart, then I will let someone cut you off."

After speaking, Caesar said again: "I have something to do, my car is now yours. You only have one week, and if you can't solve this problem, I'll cut you off. If you dare to run, I will kill you!"

Chapter 967

Jeff trembled with fright, and at this time he didn't know what to do. Caesar was too lazy to talk nonsense with him, returned to the Phaeton, took out his personal belongings, and threw the car keys directly to Jeff.

"This car also has a spare key. When you hand it over to me, I will give you that key. Don't worry. Although I am a gangster, I am never wronged. It should be me. Yes, I want it, it shouldn't be mine, I don't want anything, we people in the rivers and lakes act only two words, pay attention to it!"

"But if you don't pay attention to me, don't blame me for being cruel!" After speaking, he stretched out his hand to hit a rental car and drove away.

The few friends around Jeff were dumbfounded.

Everyone couldn't help sighing in their hearts. This Caesar is indeed the elder brother on the road. He acted decisively and simply. He threw a car worth more than 2 million Dollar here and turned around. This style is simply too handsome.

However, at this moment, Jeff knelt on the ground and cried bitterly.

How can I get the money to buy a new Phaeton? Even if the two accident cars are sold, it is far from enough!

But the other party has a big backing. If you don't solve this problem, one week later, the other party might really hack him to death.

Jeff didn't know what to do anymore. Now that the two cars were in front of him, he had the desire to die.

A few friends who have always liked him, stepped forward at this time and asked with concern: "Brother Jeff, what should I do now?"

Jeff grabbed his hair with both hands, and collapsed and said, "I don't know what to do. I don't know that I can hit a Phaeton while driving. I don't know why someone would spend more than 2 million to buy it. A car that looks like a Passat!"

After that, he cried in his arms.

At this time, the WeChat group of the orphanage had already exploded.

Ever since Jeff posted the video, a lot of people in the group have been asking him with concern, Is he okay? How about people? Are you injured? After all, everyone is a small partner who grew up together. After watching the excitement and watching the excitement, everyone was very worried after knowing that Jeff had a traffic accident.

But Charlie Wade knew very well that this must be the other party's mediation.

The BMW 760 I drove was just a kick, and it left the opponent's Mercedes-Benz far behind. Under such circumstances, everyone knows that Jeff must not win the game.

Jeff must know it himself.

He was definitely not willing to donate that Mercedes Benz to the orphanage, so he chose a traffic accident at this time as an excuse to terminate the race.

In fact, if he strictly followed the agreement, no matter what happened to him while driving, as long as he arrived later than Charlie Wade, he would lose.

If you lose, you must naturally be willing to bet.

But Charlie Wade knew very well that since Jeff had already used the method of a traffic accident to find himself down, then he could not be aggressive.

The other party has had accidents. If you are still aggressive, then in the eyes of these friends, you are not close to humanity.

On the BMW car, Mrs. Lewis said worriedly: "You should call Jeff and ask him if there is anything wrong with him. Don't get hurt."

Lisa curled his lips and said, "Mrs. Lewis, I think this Jeff deliberately tried to rear-end! He must know that his car is not better than Charlie Wade's brother, and he is unwilling to donate the car to the orphanage if he is willing to lose. This is a bad idea!"

Mrs. Lewis hurriedly said: "Lisa, don't make such presumptions about the intentions of others. If you misunderstand others, then traffic accidents are a major matter. Nothing is the most important thing."

Chapter 968

"Okay." Lisa nodded helplessly.

So Lisa called the little friend sitting in Jeff's co-pilot.

After the other party answered the phone, Lisa asked: "Why did Jeff say that you had a car accident in the group? How is it? Are you all right? Mrs. Lewis is particularly worried!"

The man said awkwardly: "Jeff, he ran into a Hu..."

Before he finished speaking, Jeff stood up, grabbed the phone, and blurted out, "Lisa, I'm fine. I just rear-ended a Passat. I'm negotiating with the owner to resolve it. I'll go there when it's done. Don't worry."

When Lisa heard this, he hummed and said, "Then we will wait for you at the hotel entrance, we've all been here for a long time."

Jeff hurriedly said: "Oh, then you can help me tell Charlie Wade, I'm really sorry this time, I didn't finish the game, so let me ask him again when I have time in a few days!"

Lisa said good, and hung up the phone.

Here, the little friend who first received a call from Lisa couldn't help but ask Jeff: "Brother Jeff, are you going to eat at night after such a big incident?"

"Go, of course I want to go!" Jeff blurted out: "It's OK to invite Mrs. Lewis to dinner tonight, how can I not go?"

In fact, what Jeff was thinking was that now he has a shortfall of more than 1 million, and he must do everything possible to get more money. At least half of the price difference can be paid for this meal. When the time comes, I will order more dishes and try to make this meal to 40,000 to 50,000. In this way, I can earn more than 20,000. More than 20,000 is not a lot. Think of it next!

Thinking of this, Jeff immediately said to a few people around him:

"Don't tell anyone what happened just now, do you understand?"

"I understand!" Several people nodded hurriedly.

Jeff said with a black face, "In this way, my car's airbags have blown up, and it seems that I can't drive it. You help me push the car to the side of the road, stop here, and then we drive this Phaeton over, Phaeton It's just being chased, it should still be possible to drive."

"it is good!"

.....

Jeff drove the Phaeton to the hotel. Several friends around him were stunned by the luxurious interiors of the Phaeton.

A kid behind the seat sighed: "f*ck, it really is a Phaeton, low-key and luxurious, this car is really cool to sit up, it feels like it's worth over 1 million in an instant!"

Jeff felt even more uncomfortable after hearing this. What the hell is this, it really is...

A few minutes later, Jeff, who was extremely depressed, drove Caesar's Phaeton to the Hyatt Hotel.

He dared not drive the car to the door of the hotel, but parked in a quiet place in the parking lot, and then walked over with others.

At this time, the friends including Charlie Wade and others were all waiting at the gate of the Hyatt Hotel.

Seeing Jeff came over, many people approached with concern and asked about the accident.

Although Jeff was very upset, he still waved his hand pretending to be indifferent and said, "It's okay, it's okay, it's just a chase and insurance can solve it."

Everyone is relieved now.

Charlie Wade looked at Jeff with interest, and smiled: "Jeff, it's too late for you to chase after you. There are only two or three kilometers in total. You could decide the outcome soon. How can you? Did you rear-end by such a coincidence?"

Chapter 969

Jeff looked at Charlie Wade annoyed, and deliberately said, "Do you think I am afraid of you? If I hadn't chased the tail, I would designate to win you!"

Lisa pouted and said, "Just blow it! Brother Charlie Wade kicked you back just now with a kick of the accelerator. I think if you didn't rear-end, you must lose."

"Just kidding!" Jeff deliberately made an excuse and said: "The reason why Charlie Wade was able to overtake me at the start was because I forgot to set the car to sport mode."

As he said, he hurriedly turned away from the subject and said, "Oh, I told you this woman who doesn't understand cars that these are meaningless. Let's go in quickly. I have already booked a place."

Charlie Wade didn't care about him anymore, and entered the Hyatt Hotel with everyone.

The Hyatt Hotel is a comprehensive hotel integrating dining, entertainment and leisure. However, the location is a bit remote, which is far from Shangri-La and Glorious Club.

Jeff took the lead and led everyone into the Hyatt Hotel. A waiter greeted him and looked at Jeff and asked politely: "Hello Mr., do you have an appointment?"

Although Jeff was very bitter, he still pretended to be bullish and said: "My name is Jeff, and I booked the table No. 03 in the lobby."

After finishing speaking, Jeff said to everyone: "I'm sorry you guys, we decided to be a bit late. They only have a seat in the hall today."

Everyone expressed their understanding. After all, for most people, it is the first time for them to have a meal in a five-star hotel, even in the lobby.

The waiter smiled and said after checking the error: "Okay, Mr. Jeff, your reserved seat is ready, everyone, please come with me."

The waiter led everyone to the catering department. Jeff spoke at this time and couldn't help but said to Charlie Wade: "Charlie Wade, you must have never been to such a high-end place, this time you are lucky. If you can follow me in to see and see, or else, you might not have the chance to enjoy it in a lifetime."

Upon hearing this, Charlie Wade couldn't help but laugh.

The top Shangri-La Hotel in Aurouss Hilll is all owned by his family.

With a fraction of his bank card, he can buy the entire Hyatt Hotel, so he doesn't even bother to refute a person like Jeff.

Therefore, Charlie Wade smiled slightly, too lazy to take care of Jeff's hanging silk.

Seeing Charlie Wade's indifferent attitude, Jeff was even more angry.

This Charlie Wade has never put himself in his eyes since he was a child! Don't put yourself in the eyes now!

He is just a live-in son-in-law, and he doesn't know where he is, and dare to despise himself so much!

It seems that today we must find a way to make him lose face!

At this time, Jeff already had a good way to kill two birds with one stone.

He has to do everything possible to make Charlie Wade lose face, and at the same time make his group of friends admire him. When the time comes, he will directly play with them with an empty gloved white wolf and try to use their wife. Then, let me solve the trouble of rear-ending Caesar Phaeton car!

The more Jeff thought about it, the more he felt that this was a good idea with two birds with one stone!

After making this decision, Jeff felt a lot of comfort, and then he walked in the forefront with great momentum.

When he arrived at the predetermined table position, Jeff asked Mrs. Lewis to sit down.

When Mrs. Lewis was seated, Jeff sat on her left hand, and Harry and others, who had knelt and licked Jeff before, sat down one by one, sometimes flattering.

Chapter 970

Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson also sat down on her right hand at Mrs. Lewis's request. As for the others, they all sat down on the table one by one.

As soon as I sat down, Mrs. Lewis looked at these children and said with relief: "Children, thank you for remembering me in your heart, and come to see me!"

Everyone hurriedly said, "Mrs. Lewis, what are you talking about? We should be."

Mrs. Lewis asked, "How have you been all these years?"

Everyone laughed one after another: "Let Mrs. Lewis miss you, we are all fine."

After leaving the orphanage for many years, everyone has their own different life trajectory, but in general, most people are ordinary people. No matter how big ideals and ambitions in the past are, they are all influenced by reality after entering society. Defeated, in ordinary life, will eventually return to ordinary.

Everyone has changed a lot. When many people talk about their lives, although they pretend to be relaxed, they are silent after listening. It is obvious that many people's lives are not very satisfactory.

They have no background and no support. In this society, they can only work bit by bit on their own. It is already good to be able to become ordinary people. It is no different from a dream to become a master.

At this time, someone asked Jeff: "Jeff, I heard that you are now the director of a listed group in Aurouss Hilll?"

Jeff smiled triumphantly and said, "Yes, I have been in this directorship for half a year!"

As soon as these words came out, several people on the table exclaimed: "My God, the directorship of a listed group must have an annual salary of several hundred thousand? Jeff, you are too good, no wonder you can afford a Mercedes-Benz!"

Jeff said proudly: "So so, to put it bluntly, I get an annual salary of several hundred thousand a year, which is just to make a living!"

Having said this, he pretended to sigh and said: "However, the salary is not counted any more, it is just enough to provide food and clothing.

What really depends on is the commission and bonus."

With that said, Jeff said: "Don't hide it from everyone, now I am in charge of a big project of the company. When that project is completed, I will be able to share a bonus of more than one million!"

When they heard this, everyone was even more surprised and hurriedly said: "Jeff, what company is yours, the benefits are so good, even the bonus can be divided into more than one million?!"

Jeff said triumphantly: "Speaking of it, it scares you. It is Aurouss Hilll's famous White Group, it is actually White's industry, and the profit of a project must be spent in units of tens of millions. Let's calculate, what I took, is considered to be less!"

Charlie Wade frowned, White Group, isn't that the property of Mr. Zeke White's family?

Is Jeff doing something for the White family?

This is kind of funny.

At this moment, Jeff saw that Charlie Wade had been silent, so he deliberately said, "Charlie Wade, what are you doing now? Wouldn't you just rely on your wife to support you after you become a son-in-law and eat soft food??"

As soon as he said this, several of his dogs couldn't help laughing. No matter how strong Charlie Wade was, he was repeatedly provoked by Jeff, and he did not get tired of it. He said indifferently: "Yes, I wash clothes and cook at home every day, clean up the housework, and live a comfortable life. How can I have free time to find a job?."

Charlie Wade told the truth, but it fell in Jeff's ears, but he seemed to have heard a huge joke.

He laughed and said sarcastically: "I said Charlie Wade, everyone knows the bottom line, do you want face here? I don't believe how comfortable it is to be a son-in-law!"

As he said, he deliberately said: "By the way, we also grew up together anyway. To tell you the truth, I happen to be recruiting an assistant recently. Why would you come and help me with Harry?"

Chapter 971

Harry is is one of the doglegs who have been following him.

Charlie Wade asked curiously: "Why, Harry is in the same company with you?"

"Yes." Jeff said with a smile: "Harry is one of my assistants."

As he said, he said to Charlie Wade again: "Come and help me. I don't need any work experience from you. I just need to do chores and serve tea and water. Anyway, you are the best at serving people. , A monthly salary of three thousand, how about it?"

Bring tea and pour water?

Three thousand monthly salary?

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "The salary is so high, I don't deserve it, I still won't go."

Jeff nodded, and said triumphantly: "It's not about blowing with you or f*cking with me. Sooner or later you can make a lot of money. Take Harry as an example. If it weren't for me, he would have starved to death."

As he said, he said with a sullen look: "Well, is your heart moved? If your heart is moved, tell your buddy, as long as I say a word, you can come to work tomorrow!"

When Harry heard this, his face was embarrassed, but he dared not refute it.

Hearing Jeff's "invitation", Charlie Wade shook his head and said, "Thank you for your kindness, but I'm used to eating soft food, so let's forget it."

There was a sullen anger on Jeff's face, and he pressed his anger and said, "Charlie Wade, you really take the kindness of others as donkey liver and lungs. I kindly give you a job. This is your attitude?"

At this time, Mrs. Lewis saw it and hurriedly said: "Okay, you two don't quarrel anymore. It was originally a friendly party. You two are so noisy. I don't think you should eat this meal, so as not to finish your meal. The two turned against each other!"

Jeff said aggrieved: "Auntie Lewis, to be honest, I really do it for Charlie Wade's good. I usually don't bring others to make money. If he can really put down his body and come over and do it with me, I will definitely take it with me. He makes more money."

With that said, Jeff looked at the big guy and said seriously: "Everyone, since I grew up together, there is no need for me to lie to everyone. To tell you the truth, I am now a director of a fund company, our fund company, It belongs to the White Group."

"Everyone in the fund should have heard of it. It makes money very quickly. Sometimes one hundred thousand Dollar is invested. The next day it becomes hundreds of thousands, and it becomes more than two hundred thousand in a month. We make funds. Yes, I have a lot of internal information, but I never disclose it to the outside world, let alone make money with others. I really see Charlie Wade being a son-in-law too pitiful, so I showed him a clear way."

As soon as the crowd heard this, someone immediately asked, "Brother Jeff, you really do a fund? Then can you tell us any internal information?"

Seeing that everyone had been fooled, Jeff nodded immediately and said: "It is true that I do have a lot of inside information in my hands. I also made some money from inside information. Otherwise, I would not be able to afford a Mercedes Benz. ."

After speaking, Jeff said again: "Oh, yes, in fact, I have more than one car, I also have another car. That car is relatively low-key. You may not have heard of it."

Someone hurriedly asked: "What car? Come and listen."

Jeff smiled and said: "Popular Phaeton."

After finishing speaking, he took out Caesar's Phaeton car key from his pocket, patted it on the table, smiled and said, "Look at this there is a public logo on it, and Phaeton's English, but people who don't understand it, When you see the Volkswagen logo, you will think that this car is very cheap, and you will even think of it as a Passat. I bought this car because of this. After all, it's low-key!"

In fact, Jeff's heart was bleeding when he said this.

Chapter 972

What he said was all his personal experience just now.

Because I didn't see the Phaeton's English clearly, and only saw the Volkswagen logo, I thought it was a Passat and bumped it.

It's miserable now, there are millions of holes, and I don't know how to plug it.

If the strategy he thought of today could not be blocked, he would basically be finished.

"f*ck!!! It's really Phaeton?!"

A boy recognized the Phaeton's car key, saw the word w12 on it, and blurted out: "This is the most expensive model of Volkswagen. The top model costs more than 2 million. It is known as the lowest-profile super luxury car. Oh my god, brother, you actually bought the Phaeton, is it too low-key?"

CoJeff in the same car with Jeff and seeing several people before and after the accident, their expressions were a little unnatural.

They did not expect that Jeff could directly apply this matter to himself, and then use it to brag.

However, they are all Jeff's dog legs, so naturally they dare not expose Jeff's lies.

Jeff smiled indifferently at this time and said: "In fact, the people in our fund are very low-key, because this business is indeed very profitable. Many people want to make money with you. Once he knows that you have inside information, you have a way to make money. They all want to come and take a ride and follow you to make a fortune."

The man asked again: "By the way, Jeff brother, what model of the Phaeton you bought?"

Jeff smiled indifferently, and said arrogantly: "I bought the Phaeton, which is a w12, which is a 12-cylinder engine."

"My God!" The man said dumbfounded: "Brother Jeff, this is the best match for Phaeton. It costs two hundreds of thousands for it all?"

Jeff smiled and waved his hand: "In fact, it's nothing."

After speaking, Jeff said again: "In fact, I was low-key just now, so I didn't tell you my actual income. As a fund, we usually focus on 12 funds a month. If these 12 funds are good, every Each one can bring us hundreds of thousands or even higher income."

At this time, someone hurriedly asked: "Brother Jeff, we have been in a relationship for so many years. You have such a way to make money. Can you help your brother? My brother is about to get married. My mother-in-law asked me for 300,000 gift. How can I get it? I have to save money and spend till now, and I have saved a total of hundreds of thousands. At this rate, my marriage will definitely not be completed..."

Charlie Wade recognized this kid, his name was William, and he was also an orphan.

When Jeff heard that he had a deposit of more than 100,000 Dollar, his heart was immediately moved.

He blurted out: "To do a fund, the main thing is to make a leverage. The more money you make, the more you earn. Your hundreds of thousands of startup funds are really too little."

Zhao Zhuozhuo begged: "Brother Jeff, this is too much for all my wives, and I can't take it out anymore..."

As he said, he choked and said, "Brother Jeff, to be honest, an orphan like me, hanging silk, beating children without father and mother, without money, skills, and no schooling for a few years is equivalent to half illiterate. , I can only do some hard work outside to earn some money. It's not easy, and I want to marry a wife now, but I can't marry. I beg you to help me and help me out for my poor brother's sake. !"

Jeff said with difficulty, "Brother, let me tell you a heart-wrenching remark. To play with funds, you must have the capital to play. Your hundreds of thousands are too small, and I can't bring you in."

As he said, he arched his hands apologetically: "I'm sorry bro, don't blame me."

Chapter 973

The reason why William was rejected was actually Jeff deliberately played a trick.

He himself is the sales director of a fraudulent fund, just like those thunderous p2p, his job is to do everything possible to fool those who don't understand and invest in what they call a fund.

But in fact, none of these funds make money, and as long as they invest, they are doomed to lose money, and don't even want to get back a penny.

At the beginning, Charlie Wade's mother-in-law Elaine Ma was cheated by this kind of fund company. As long as the money entered their company's account, it would be impossible to ask for it again.

However, what he wants to do today is not to let them invest in their own funds, but to trick them into giving the money to himself, and pretend to invest in the funds for them, so that he can save his life with their money first!

As soon as William heard this, he was so anxious that he was almost crying. He was already madly poor and wanted to make money. He thought that Jeff could bring himself to make money, but he did not expect that he had too little capital.

So he could only plead: "Brother Jeff, please, help my brother, otherwise my brother really doesn't know what to do. My life has failed like this. You can't let me say anything. My girlfriend left me."

Seeing that William had already taken the bait, Jeff continued acting and said, "Brother, it's not that I don't want to help you. The point is that your capital is too small and it's not easy to operate!"

As he said, he seemed to remember something, and his eyes lit up: "By the way, I have a way to help you."

William hurriedly asked: "What can be done? Jeff brother, please speak up!"

Jeff hurriedly said: "That's right. I know some friends who engage in online loans. As long as you provide an ID card, you can lend you a sum of money. Although each is not much, if you borrow more platforms, You can still make up enough for a batch. I guess you can borrow four or five hundred thousand, plus your hundreds of thousands, and you have to make up at least 600,000. If this 600,000 is put into the fund, it will take a week. Doubling is not a problem."

As soon as William heard this, he choked with excitement: "Brother Jeff, then do as you said. Could you please introduce me the way to introduce online loans!"

Jeff smiled and said, "I'll push several loan platform apps to you later."

William said excitedly: "Brother Jeff, I really don't know how to thank you anymore. You are my benefactor of reinvention, and my second parent!" He is an orphan and never went to school. He is illiterate. He finally found a second-hand girlfriend. Seeing that he was married and married, his mother-in-law in the future would not let go. Life was almost desperate.

Therefore, he really had no choice but to pin all his hopes on Jeff. Jeff saw his mentality right, and prepared to cheat him on a big wave. First let him borrow a few hundred thousand dollars everywhere, and then put his own hundreds of thousands of old people together. In this case, he One person can solve the 600,000 funding gap for himself. If you can pit two such people, you can basically solve this problem. As for this William, will he be rushed to death by the major online lending platforms in the future? It has nothing to do with him. Who makes this silly bird not mindful? It deserves to be pitted.

At this time, a few friends in the orphanage heard that 600,000 would double in a week, and they were all moved.

Someone said, "Brother Jeff, can you take me with you for this kind of thing?"

Jeff said seriously: "As long as you can get a bargaining chip, this matter can bring you money together. If you can't get a bargaining chip, then learn from William, and then first borrow from some online lending platforms. After a lot of money is paid out, and after a big profit, the money is returned. This is called borrowing chicken to lay eggs!"

When the man heard this, he blurted out: "Brother Jeff, count me, count me!"

Mrs. Lewis has not spoken, but when she hears this, she can't help but say with some worry: "Jeff, now TV stations have exposed a lot of high-interest online lending platforms. Their profitable interest is really scary. Ah, I think it's better not to touch it as a last resort.

Jeff did not expect that Mrs. Lewis would come out to spoil her own good deeds, and immediately said: "Mrs. Lewis, the platforms you mentioned are indeed very high, but the platforms my friends operate are all very formal, and the interest is not so. High, compared with the income of my fund, that point of interest is almost negligible."

After a pause, Jeff said again: "Actually, under normal circumstances, I don't want to do this kind of thing. It is thankless and not very interesting, but it seems that everyone is a small partner who grew up in the orphanage before. I really can't bear to watch them continue to suffer from poverty, so if you can help, you can."

William hurriedly blurted out: "Brother Jeff, you don't need to worry about other things, you just push all those loan apps to me, I will take the loan immediately, and then we will give it to you in a unified way!"

Charlie Wade, who has not spoken, looked at Jeff at this time and asked with interest: "Jeff, you just said that you work for a company under the White family, but as far as I know, it seems that the White family has not done any fund business.?"

Jeff's face changed slightly, and he blurted out: "Charlie Wade, it's not that I despise you. The White family is big and has a wide range of business. There is no money that people don't transfer. Do you know what a shit?"

Charlie Wade didn't get angry either, and asked with a smile: "Then what's your company name?"

Jeff blurted out: "My company is called Harley Insurance Fund Investment and Wealth Management Company."

With that said, Jeff immediately took out his business card. In addition to his company's name, Jeff's position was printed on it: "Investment Director."

Charlie Wade feels that this Harley Insurance Fund invests in a wealth management company, how he sounds familiar.

After thinking about it carefully, he remembered, isn't this the company that lied to his mother-in-law? The boss of this company is Harley Feld, and the backer is Don Albertt.

Harley Feld's deceitful deceit and investment in his company's money are all in vain. It is useless for investors who have suffered huge losses to make troubles, because with the support of Don Albertt, no one can help Harley Feld.

Unexpectedly, this Jeff actually belonged to Harley Feld Company!

The last time I went to help my mother-in-law to collect debts, I didn't meet him. If he had seen him at that time, then he must have been humbly when he saw him today.

Thinking of this, he looked at Jeff with interest, and asked curiously: "The boss of your company is called Harley Feld, right? He doesn't seem to belong to the White family! Are you talking nonsense?"

Jeff didn't expect Charlie Wade to know his company and the name of his boss, so he immediately became nervous.

If Charlie Wade knows his company, then it proves that he knows what his company does? I also know that what I said to William now was a lie to him.

Just when Jeff was nervous and didn't know how to explain, William looked at Charlie Wade angrily and reprimanded: "Charlie Wade, what do you mean by this person? Brother Jeff showed kindness and wanted us to earn some money. What are you questioning here? Do you feel that if Brother Jeff doesn't take you to make money, you are upset?"

Charlie Wade looked at William in surprise, and couldn't help but sneer from the bottom of his heart. This kind of smelly silk is really helpless. He has no educational level and no ability to judge right from wrong. I kindly wanted to pull him in front of the fire pit. He turned away from Master's hand and tried to jump down.

If this is the case, do it yourself.

So he immediately said to Jeff: "Maybe I remembered it wrong, sorry."

Chapter 975

Charlie Wade was never a bad person. Sometimes he would look at other people pitifully and want to pull them off. But the premise is that the other party must know good and bad. If the other party doesn't know good or bad, he will never use a hot face to stick someone's cold ass. Some people are stubborn, it is better to let them taste the price.

Anyway, he did it himself, and he will fall into the fire pit in the future and burn to death without complaining.

So he deliberately changed the topic, and immediately said: "If you want to manage money, just go back and chat in a group privately. We are here to invite Mrs. Lewis for dinner. We haven't ordered any food for a long time."

Jeff immediately came over with interest and smiled and said: "Come here, give Mrs. Lewis the menu, and Mrs. Lewis can order it!"

Mrs. Lewis hurriedly waved her hand and said, "No, no, I've never been to such a good place. I don't know how to order any dishes, so you young people should order it."

Jeff took over the menu without letting it go, and said with a smile, "I'll order it then!"

Then he immediately recruited a waiter and said, "Come on, I'm ordering."

The waiter also came, and Jeff immediately started ordering, but he was very scheJeff this time, ordering only expensive dishes.

As soon as I came up, I ordered a premium abalone for everyone. This dish cost 1888 Dollar per person.

William caught a glimpse of the menu and exclaimed: "Oh, Brother Jeff, this dish is too expensive. Just order this dish and it costs more than 20,000 Dollar! We... we can't afford it. Get up!"

Because Jeff's proposal for this meal is that he pays half of the money, and the rest of the money is paid to the aa system, which means that everyone has to pay, but his proposal is a little less than what he said before.

But once the meal is too expensive, even if Jeff pays half of it himself, the remaining half is a very heavy burden for others.

Jeff looked at William with disgust at this time, and said: "No wonder your mother-in-law in the future will bite the bridegroom and not let go. Just like you, you will be so scared when you come out for a meal. Your mother-in-law must be more important. Bridegroom, lest your daughter be wronged in the future! What if you are so scared that you don't even dare to order food if this meal is for your future mother-in-law? What do people think of you?"

William looked a little embarrassed, and said depressed: "Brother Jeff, I don't have money with you. To be honest, I'm now living on 100 Dollar a week in order to save money. I drink cold water and eat steamed buns in the company dormitory every day. I can't bear to buy an electric kettle..." Jeff said coldly: "No wonder you are poor. With your mentality and your consumption philosophy, you can't make money. Who is poor if you are not poor?"

After a pause, Jeff said again: "What is money? Money has to be spent before it is spent. What is it if it is not spent? It is paper in the wallet and numbers in the bank. Besides, I have already agreed. I have brought you money. If you can't bear to pay for this little meal, then I won't pay you as a friend. I'm sorry."

When William heard this, he immediately closed his mouth with interest. He has regarded Jeff as his life-saving straw, so he can't disobey Jeff anyway.

Otherwise, there is no hope in your life.

Others also felt that Jeff's ordering was too extravagant, but after listening to William's remarks, everyone was embarrassed to speak again. They all feel that after all, people pay half by themselves, and there are so many people who pay the other half. If everyone is still called poor, they will not be able to save face.

At this time, Jeff said to the waiter again: "Bring us a lobster weighing five pounds!"

The waiter nodded and said, "Sir, our premium lobster here is 688 Dollar a pound, is that okay?"

Chapter 976

Jeff waved his hand indifferently, and said, "Yes, of course you can. If you can't, just give it to me!"

After speaking, he said: "Oh yes, that ace of spades champagne, give me two bottles!"

The waiter opened his mouth and said, "Sir, a bottle of Champagne of Spades is 18,888 Dollar. It is non-refundable for opening the bottle, okay?"

Jeff said immediately: "Yes! Hurry up and go first!"

Hearing that he ordered two bottles of wine worth 18,888 Dollar at once, everyone immediately couldn't sit still.

After doing so, the meal has already cost more than 60,000 Dollar. Even if everyone pays the other half, at least 30,000 Dollar this year?

If the round robin system is used, then everyone has to pay at least more than 2,000 Dollar!

William suddenly said with some embarrassment: "Jeff, we don't have to be so extravagant to eat. Today, I invited Mrs. Lewis to eat, and received the dust for Mrs. Lewis. Mrs. Lewis has just recovered from illness and must not be able to drink. You order these two bottles. What does wine mean?"

Jeff said contemptuously: "William, I just look down on you for being so poor, just eating a meal, are you afraid of being a feather?"

After finishing talking, he didn't wait for William to speak, and immediately said to the waiter: "Bring us another big grouper, one shark fin in abalone sauce for each!"

Jeff just hopes to have more, so that he can earn more.

Everyone else was a little worried, thinking that the meal was spread out and everyone had to pay too much.

But everyone is embarrassed to tear their faces, and no one is embarrassed to say that I will not eat this meal at this time, after all, Mrs. Lewis is still here.

Mrs. Lewis couldn't sit still at this time. She said nervously, "Jeff, we really don't have to be so extravagant for our meals, and your things are too expensive. Auntie is serious. Shaking...Can we order cheap dishes? Home cooking?"

Jeff is now unwilling to let go of any opportunity for money, so naturally he can't willingly eat only a few thousand Dollar for this meal, otherwise he can't make any difference.

So he hurriedly said: "Mrs. Lewis, today you will just cook and eat. We have the rest. We were raised by you. Your kindness to us is heavier than Mount Everest. How about spending some money to invite you to eat? Even if you spend 30,000, 40,000, or 50,000 today, I agree that I will spend it willingly!"

After speaking, he deliberately looked around for a week, watching everyone's expressions.

What he said just now was actually moral kidnapping. The subtext is already very clear, why? Mrs. Lewis is so kind to us, raising us, and inviting her to eat dinner, you are not willing to be willing, are you still?

Sure enough, as soon as he said this, everyone did not dare to express any dissatisfaction or opposition.

Everyone has already thought about it in their hearts. Since Mrs. Lewis is invited to dinner, let's have some.

Charlie Wade suddenly felt something was wrong. Judging from Jeff deliberately crashing the car in order not to honor his bet, he knew that this person was definitely not a generous person, and definitely a villain.

So why is a not so generous little person so generous when ordering food? Could it be that more orders for this meal are good for him?

However, since Jeff said that he had to bear half of the meal, he should not be the restaurant's support.

Then there is only another possibility left, Jeff can reimburse the meal! It turns out that this Jeff has counted everyone in. If this is the case, then I might as well give him a general plan!

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade said, "Everyone, let's go. For today's meal, Jeff and I are one and half, and the others don't need to pay a penny. Even if this meal costs 200,000, it will be the two of us!"

Chapter 977

When Jeff heard this, he immediately smiled sarcastically: "Oh, Charlie Wade, you can do it, brag, don't even type the draft!"

Charlie Wade smiled faintly, and said, "What's so bragging about? If you don't believe me, let's pay 100,000 Dollar in advance, and we will eat 200,000 Dollar tonight. What do you think?"

After listening to Jeff, he said excitedly: "Is this true?"

Charlie Wade directly took out his mobile phone, opened Apple Pay, and said to the waiter: "Come, scan the QR code to pay."

Seeing this, Jeff was about to jump up with excitement!

What I want is to eat more meals, and then I can get more price difference when I reimburse myself, but the friends of this group of welfare institutions are really too suspicious. They have been chatting there and I don't know how annoying it is.

Charlie Wade is now willing to split with himself, and pay one hundred thousand Dollar at a time. Isn't this clear to give himself money?

I also pay 100,000, but I can open an invoice for 200,000. After I go back, I tell the boss that this meal is for a super customer. It is possible to negotiate a sale of 10 million. The boss will definitely wave his hand. Reported to myself.

He has figured it out now, life is the most important thing!

First lied these two friends who wanted to make money with them, and then returned to the company, reported the 200,000 Dollar, and solved Caesar's problem.

As for whether the boss will settle accounts after autumn, it is time to consider this.

After all, Caesar is the biggest threat to himself now.

So he hurriedly took out his mobile phone and said to Charlie Wade:

"Well, since you are so refreshing, then I will also pay 100,000!"

Mrs. Lewis wanted to dissuade the two of them, but Charlie Wade waved his hand at her to signal her not to worry.

For Charlie Wade, whether it costs 100,000 or 200,000 for a meal, it is just a drizzle. What he wants to do is not let Jeff succeed.

At this time, the waiter took the POS machine and used the function of scanning the code to pay, and each swiped 100,000 Dollar from the two Apple Pays.

After confirming Jeff that the 200,000 Dollar has arrived, Jeff said with a smile: "In this case, let's order more good ones! Waiter, give us all the good wine, good food, and good seafood you have here, just take photos. With 200,000, what I want is to spend all of the 200,000 today, without a single dollar left!"

The waiter did not expect to meet such a wealthy table today, and immediately said with a smile: "Don't worry, I will make arrangements to bring you the wine first!"

When I heard that I was about to enjoy a meal of 200,000 Dollar, many of the friends at the same table were excited and unbearable.

Especially that William, who just looked like a bitter melon, is so happy that his mouth is almost open to the root of his ears!

He was worried just now because he didn't want to spend more, but now seeing the 200,000 meal, someone has already paid for it, and he hasn't paid a penny. He is so excited that he can't wait to go to the bathroom and eat everything he has eaten before. All the things are picked out. This way I emptied my stomach and waited to eat the next good things.

Many hanging silks have this kind of mentality. If he spends his own money to do something, he may be more uncomfortable than being beaten; but if he does not need to spend money on this matter, or if someone else spends money, he ran away. Faster than anyone, laugh happier than anyone. To put it bluntly, it is the king of prostitutes.

Soon, the waiter brought lobster, abalone and other delicacies from the mountains and seas, and even a whole roasted suckling pig, tender on the outside and tender on the inside, exuding an incomparable aroma.

William frantically ate all kinds of good things, while holding a glass of wine, pouring into his mouth desperately.

Chapter 978

For nearly 20,000 Dollar a bottle of champagne, he hadn't even smelled it in his life, let alone drank it, so with this kind of good opportunity, he decided to drink enough.

At this time, Jeff's dog-legged Harry, while eating roast suckling pig, said flatly: "How do I feel that I have become the richest man in Star City? This scene is almost the same as the scene in the movie where they eat and drink in the hotel!"

As soon as the words came out, they immediately resonated with other people, and everyone nodded and laughed: "Yes, that's right, that's a bit of a meaning!"

Harry smiled again and said: "It's all thanks to Brother Jeff, thank you Brother Jeff!"

Lisa said indignantly: "Why should I only thank Jeff? Brother Charlie Wade also paid half of the money for this meal, OK?"

Harry said disdainfully: "I ate the half of Brother Jeff and you ate the half of Charlie Wade, so thank you, it has nothing to do with me."

At this time, William, who was eating with a mouthful of oily mouth, just took time out and reacted to the topic that everyone just talked about.

He was still chewing on all kinds of meat and asked vaguely: "By the way, what were you talking about just now? The richest man in Star City? Why don't I understand?"

Harry frowned and asked: "The movie! The richest man in Star City, the one played by Tom Cruise, was shown in theaters some time ago and the box office was so hot. Didn't you watch it?"

"Movie theater?" William immediately said contemptuously: "I don't go to the cinema to watch movies, so why make me spend money to watch the movies they make? Are these people crazy about money? It's about the same if you show them all for free! I always go to the Internet and beg others for resources, and when I go back tonight, I beg for a resource to watch this movie."

"Stupid!" Harry said coldly: "William, you are too much to take advantage, right? People invest hundreds of millions in making a movie, and there are so many directors, cameras, dramatists, and actors. If the hard work you put in for a long time is free for people like you, who will make movies? The film and television company will not lose money?" Harry heard William choking himself, and said disdainfully: "Shosh the f*ck and give me this set, I just don't have enough advantage, I just like to have money, even if I have money, I won't give it."

Harry said angrily: "You still curse after taking advantage of it? You are so shameless, you are not afraid of retribution if you say such things!"

William curled his lips: "What's the retribution? Anyway, I am an orphan, who am I afraid of? Am I afraid of death?"

Harry was choked and speechless. When a person is shameless to this point, saying nothing is useless. So he didn't bother to continue to be honest with such people.

Charlie Wade sighed straight as he watched from the side. Some people can climb up and become masters step by step, even if they are from a humble background, but some people will become hanging silks and the bottom of the society.

Just like William, he became a Diaosi for no reason.

Disrespect others, do not respect oneself, only thinking about making money and taking advantage in their minds, this kind of people often suffer a lot.

After guessing this meal, he will desperately kneel and lick Jeff. And Jeff would not hesitate to squeeze all the surplus value from him. By that time, he might not even cry. But it's not that I didn't want to give him a hand. The point is that this person is not at all good or bad, and he has no self-knowledge until now.

This made Charlie Wade couldn't wait to see what would happen to William's end!

Chapter 979

When everyone was enjoying a 200,000 meal, Charlie Wade went to the front desk and said to the front desk clerk: "Hello, I am a guest at Table 03 in the lobby, please give me an invoice."

The waiter hurriedly asked respectfully: "Hello, sir, is it the table with 200,000 consumption?"

"Yes!" Charlie Wade nodded.

The waiter asked again: "Do you issue a company or personal invoice?"

Charlie Wade said: "Personal."

"Okay, sir, would you please leave your name?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "The leaves of leaves, the stars of stars."

The waiter hurriedly manipulated the computer, and then put the invoice into the invoice printer.

With a sizzling sound, a catering invoice with Charlie Wade's name and the amount of 200,000 Dollar was printed out.

Charlie Wade got the invoice and checked it. After confirming that there was no problem with the invoice, he thanked the waiter and turned back.

At the same time, he sneered in his heart, Jeff, you must have never thought that Master would act first, right?

Then he returned to the dinner table and continued to eat with everyone.

Claire Wilson Wilson on the side asked him in a low voice: "Charlie Wade, tell me the truth, are you holding back some bad eyes?"

Charlie Wade said, "No, I'm such a good person, what kind of bad eyes can I hold back?"

Claire Wilson Wilson lowered his voice and said, "I always feel that your meal seems to be calculating Jeff..."

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "Good wife, you are right!"

Claire Wilson Wilson chuckled and nodded, "This kind of person is really annoying, I support you!"

Charlie Wade smiled: "Really my good wife!"

Claire Wilson Wilson's face blushed, and her heart was shy.

.....

After three rounds of wine, Jeff stood up dizzy and said: "I'll go to the bathroom, you continue to drink, everyone drink more, that Maotai, that Maotai must not be left! And that champagne, This guy is 20,000 Dollar per bottle!"

When William saw this, he hurriedly stood up and said flatly, "Brother Jeff, I will help you to the bathroom!"

After speaking, he stood up and held Jeff with his brazen support.

Jeff waved his hand and said with a smile: "I haven't drunk too much, so I drank much."

William said shyly, "Then I will go with you too!"

On the way to the bathroom, William smiled and said, "Brother Jeff, I secretly finished the loan apps that you let me make. Don't say it. Not only does the hotel's wifi have no password, The internet speed is also very fast! It is much faster than the internet break in my company dormitory! It feels like a big bargain!"

Jeff looked at him contemptuously, knowing in his heart that this William was more shameless than himself, and countless times more than himself.

However, it is precisely because he loves to take advantage of him so much that he has the opportunity to engage him.

So he said to William: "In this way, you first register all these apps and fill in your personal information, and then you start to borrow from them. You can directly borrow according to the highest amount and how much you can borrow. After taking it out, transfer the money to my card, and then I will help you operate the fund. A week later, I will call you the income and principal!"

William hurriedly nodded and complimented: "Brother Jeff, you are so interesting. I am really fortunate to know a friend like you. It seems that following you, my marriage will definitely won't come to an end!"

Jeff said: "Hurry up and get the money out first. I will soon operate a new fund. If you don't get the money out quickly, you won't be able to catch this train. Don't blame me in the future."

Chapter 980

William immediately said: "Brother Jeff, I have seen it on the app just now. They requested that the front and back of the ID card should be uploaded first. My ID card was not brought here in the dormitory. Don't worry, it will be the first one after I go back. The thing is to upload ID card information so that the loan can be made!"

"Okay." Jeff nodded, and while relieved, said: "You must do this as soon as possible. Don't miss a good opportunity. I will show you a clear way to make you more money. ."

As soon as William heard this, he shook with excitement, and accidentally peed his pants, but he didn't care about it, so he wiped the trouser leg quickly, turned his face and asked Jeff next to him: "Brother Jeff, what is Jeff Way? Brother, beg for advice!"

Jeff said: "It's very simple, if you can make up 600,000 for me, I can help you earn 600,000 a week, if you can find someone to borrow 1 million more, I can help you earn 1 million more!"

"When you borrow 1 million, you can promise others 200,000 in interest, and others will be very interested. In this way, you can make a net profit of 800,000 in interest difference. Wouldn't it make you happy?"

"Don't talk about the 300,000 Dollar gift at that time, even a down payment for a three-bedroom apartment is enough."

When William heard this, he was suddenly excited.

However, he didn't know for a while, where he should borrow so much money.

After all, he is an orphan with no relatives and no reason. Who would want to lend himself so much money?

Seeing that he was a little worried, Jeff knew that he must be considering this issue, so he deliberately gave him an idea, saying: "In fact, you can go to your girlfriend and tell your girlfriend that you have the inside story to make money. The news, as long as you invest 1 million, you can earn 200,000 interest in a week!"

"Let her ask her mother, your future mother-in-law, if she has this interest. If your future mother-in-law is interested, she will not only give you 1 million, but also when she gets 200,000 interest, she will feel that Your future daughter-in-law is very good and very capable."

"In this way, you not only earned an interest margin of 800,000 Dollar, but also won the favor of your future mother-in-law, killing two birds with one stone!"

William immediately became excited.

He has been looked down upon by his future mother-in-law, and now he finally has a chance to exhale!

So he immediately said, "Brother Jeff, don't worry. After I go back tonight, I will call my girlfriend to make it clear."

Jeff nodded, put on his pants, didn't even wash his hands, and said to William: "I'll go to the front desk, you go back first."

William didn't wash his hands either. He hurried over and asked with concern, "Brother Jeff, what are you going to do at the front desk? Hasn't the account been settled in advance?"

Jeff said impatiently: "I have something wrong, you can go back, don't worry about me."

William nodded immediately, and said respectfully: "That's OK, Brother Jeff, I'll go back first, to be honest, that champagne is really good, I haven't had enough, hehe."

Jeff hummed a laugh, and thought to himself that the hanging silk was the f*cking hanging silk, and it was a super hanging silk that couldn't take advantage of it.

But I like this kind of hanging silk without IQ. This kind of hanging silk is really easy to cheat.

Immediately, he left the bathroom and walked to the front desk humming a little song.

After arriving at the front desk, he took out his business card and handed it to the waiter at the front desk. He said with an expression of force: "The table No. 03 in the lobby is the table that consumes 200,000 Dollar. Give me an invoice. Follow the company name on my business card."

The waiter hurriedly said: "I'm sorry, sir, the invoice for your table has been issued by a gentleman just now."

"What?!" Jeff felt dizzy and blurted out, "Who opened it?"

The waiter said: "It was opened by a gentleman surnamed Wade, called Charlie Wade, should he be with you?"

"f*ck!"

When Jeff heard this, his blood surged!

Charlie Wade drove the invoice away, so he couldn't be reimbursed!

Doesn't that mean that instead of making money from this meal, he also lost 100,000 Dollar? !

Thinking of this, he gritted his teeth and roared: "It's Charlie Wade again!"

Chapter 981

The invoice is the only proof of reimbursement.

Because of this, Jeff was furious after hearing that the invoice was driven away by Charlie Wade.

I just waited for this invoice to go to the company for reimbursement. If Charlie Wade didn't hand in the invoice, not only would he not earn money for his meal, but he would also lose 100,000 Dollar. Isn't that making him worse?

Thinking of this, he rushed back to the dinner table angrily, and when he saw Charlie Wade he asked, "Charlie Wade, did you go to the front desk to secretly issue an invoice? Hurry up and bring me the invoice!"

Charlie Wade said indifferently: "This meal is the money we spent. What happened to my invoice? After all, I have 100,000 here. You won't forget it?"

"You..." Jeff was choked with speechlessness. After a while, he could only say angrily: "You don't work or start a company. What do you do with invoices?"

Charlie Wade said with a smile: "You don't know many restaurants nowadays. He deliberately refuses to issue invoices to guests. If he does not issue invoices, the state tax authorities will not know how much money he has made. In this case, he does not have to contribute to the country. Pay taxes."

After that, Charlie Wade looked around for a week and said to everyone: "However, as law-abiding citizens of the country, paying taxes according to the law is our obligation. It is also our obligation to supervise the hotel to pay taxes in accordance with the law. Everyone is right!" Everyone nodded.

Lisa said: "The restaurants are the most thief. If you don't issue invoices, they won't have to pay taxes at all. They must issue invoices in accordance with the law before they can pay taxes to the treasury."

William agrees and said: "The catering industry is still very profitable. It is impossible to justify tax evasion and tax evasion."

William on the side laughed and said: "You can also talk to the hotel. If he doesn't issue a ticket, he will give you a part of the discount, or send you some drinks. I usually go to the restaurant for dinner. If he doesn't invoice me, I asked him if he wanted a Coke, anyway, I can't suffer."

Charlie Wade snorted: "William, William, you are still smart! I want to learn more from you!"

William thought that Charlie Wade was complimenting him, snorted, and said, "Tell you, this is the wisdom of life."

Jeff looked at Charlie Wade with a dark face, and said coldly: "Don't talk about that useless, it's useless if you want an invoice, give me the invoice!"

"Why?" Charlie Wade asked coldly, "I want an invoice to be useless, can it be useful if you want an invoice? We all come out for dinner, don't you still want to take the invoice to the company for reimbursement?"

Jeff was suddenly caught up in what Charlie Wade said. He was a little flustered on the surface, and hurriedly said: "You're so f*cking nonsense, I think the same as you, I have issued an invoice so that the hotel can pay taxes according to law! "

Charlie Wade nodded, gave a thumbs up, and said, "I didn't expect that Jeff, you are also such a responsible citizen! Not bad, not bad, I give you a thumbs up."

As he said, he took out the invoice from his pocket and said: "This invoice is written on my personal name, which means that this item cannot be reimbursed, but as long as the invoice is issued, the restaurant will pay taxes, so Jeff You don't have to worry about it. The tax they should pay for this meal is 200,000 Dollar.

Jeff was anxious and blurted out: "Who told you to write your name personally?!"

The invoice was issued and the name was raised. Even if I got this invoice, I couldn't use it for reimbursement. I thought that Jeff's lungs would explode.

Charlie Wade said with a smile at this time: "You didn't say that you can't issue invoices. Besides, as I said just now, this meal is half of you and half of me. Everyone has the right to issue invoices. Pay attention to one first come first."

With that, Charlie Wade said with a magnificent expression: "Well, let's not invoice for anyone, who didn't invoice. This is a trivial matter. Anyway, this meal is for everyone to eat instead of asking for it.

Everyone will look for the company or someone for reimbursement after eating. I will tear off this invoice in front of everyone. Don't ask for either of us. Isn't that okay?"

Before Jeff came back to his senses, Charlie Wade immediately tore up the invoice.

Seeing this invoice torn to pieces by Charlie Wade, Jeff felt his heart dripping with blood.

It's over, this is over, this meal is worth 100,000 Dollar!

I originally wanted to earn 100,000, but I didn't expect to lose 100,000. This meal is really a big loss!

Jeff had the desire to die in his heart, and he was quite good at first. He bought a new Mercedes-Benz with five people and six people, but he didn't expect that after meeting Charlie Wade today, he all fell into it. Therefore, he could not wait to stab Charlie Wade to death so as to relieve his hatred.

Charlie Wade intended to stimulate him again at this time, so he poured a glass of champagne, handed it to him, and said with a smile: "Come on, Brother Jeff, I toast you a glass."

Jeff said angrily: "I don't want to drink with you!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Don't be so angry. After all, this wine was bought by yourself. If you don't drink it, you will waste it."

When Jeff heard this, his whole body trembled with anger.

Charlie Wade was right, this wine was indeed bought with his own money, he spent 100,000 Dollar on this meal!

Living so big, when did you spend so much money on a meal?

It's simply the rhythm of eating bankruptcy!

Thinking of this, Jeff burst into tears, took the wine glass, and drank it dull and angry!

I bought them with my own money, so I would drink more if I said, otherwise it would be cheaper for others.

However, there is still a bigger problem before him, that is, how to make money.

If William listened to himself, and if he went back at night and used all the loan apps, it was estimated that he would be able to draw four to five million Dollar, plus his own deposit of hundreds of thousands, so it shouldn't be a big problem to make up 600,000.

As for whether he can fool his future mother-in-law, he has no idea about this.

It seems that I can only pray to the sky, and pray that this William will be able to fool myself!

After Charlie Wade let Jeff slump, he didn't bother to continue to care about this person. It was estimated that this meal cost 100,000 Dollar, which should make him pain for a long time, and he will definitely not dare to pretend to be forced.

Recalling the scenes in the orphanage before, he couldn't help asking Mrs. Lewis, "Mrs. Lewis, how is the situation in the orphanage now?"

Upon mentioning this topic, Mrs. Lewis looked sad and sighed and said:

"The situation is not so good. The main reason is that there are more and more children and our financial pressure is increasing."

As she said, she sighed again and said: "Some time ago, our Aurouss Hilll police have successively uncovered many cases of child trafficking and rescued many children who were abducted. Many of them are being fostered by our welfare because they cannot find their biological parents. In the hospital, a lot of pressure was suddenly increased, but there is no way. It is our duty and obligation to rescue these abducted children. It is just that the milk powder money for these children is very high. The staff of the welfare institute now collects thousands of dollars. I'm supporting it with a dollar and I'm applying for funding..."

Charlie Wade couldn't help but feel distressed when he thought of the children he saw in the orphanage in the afternoon. These children, because they were abducted by human traffickers, were in a more pitiful situation than ordinary orphans, so he planned to donate a sum of money to the orphanage to deal with the problems of these children.

So, he opened his mouth and said to Mrs. Lewis: "Mrs. Lewis, you should think more about the children in the orphanage, so let me personally donate 1 million first!"

When these words came out, everyone was stunned!

one million? This is simply an astronomical figure for these orphanage friends!

This is, Charlie Wade looked at Jeff, who was dumbfounded, and said:

"Jeff, you are doing so well now. You are driving a Mercedes and Phaeton. Don't forget that you were raised by the orphanage. Don't you donate some money to the orphanage now?"

Chapter 983

When Jeff heard that Charlie Wade said that he would donate one million, he naturally didn't believe it. He sneered and said, "Charlie Wade, you brag about not writing drafts. You donated one million to the orphanage, saying that you would die and suffer. Don't admit it yet, can you give out a million?"

Charlie Wade said lightly: "Since I have said it, I will definitely honor it. I can't do the same as you, find a place to get out of a car accident!"

Jeff knew that Charlie Wade was deliberately mocking himself, and when he thought about the crash, he hated it.

I knew that this was the case. I really didn't want to make a fool of myself. I would donate a car in a big deal. Is it better than now?

Look at how heavy the loss is now!

However, he still didn't believe that Charlie Wade could donate 1 million.

So he sneered and said: "Don't think I don't know what virtue you are now, a live-in son-in-law who depends on his wife to raise, how can you get so much money to grab the bank?"

Harry on the side also said to help: "Charlie Wade, don't put on a swollen face to fill a fat man. What is the meaning of pretending to be coercion? Do whatever you can do as much as you can. Don't go bankrupt just to pretend to be coercion. Come on us again!"

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently: "You don't care whether I rob the bank or something. I can still take out one million in total, but you, if I can donate one million, how much do you donate?"

Jeff laughed and said: "If you can donate 1 million, I can donate 10 million. Who can brag about it? You just have a long mouth, right?"

The whole table burst into laughter.

Because everyone felt that Charlie Wade was dying to face and suffer.

To say that Charlie Wade donated one hundred and eighty thousand Dollar, some people believe that, after all, his wife is very good and also used a BMW, and the family should not be short of this money.

But to say donate one million is a bit unrealistic, even selling that BMW is not enough!

Among these people, only Mrs. Lewis, Lisa and his wife Claire Wilson Wilson can truly trust Charlie Wade.

Mrs. Lewis and Lisa both knew Charlie Wade's character. If something was unsure, he would definitely not say it.

As for Claire Wilson Wilson, she was already quite familiar.

Charlie Wade usually shows people a feng shui, can earn more than two million back, and donate one million to the orphanage at once, which is also a breeze.

But she asked Charlie Wade in a low voice: "Charlie Wade, are you carrying me again and secretly showing others Feng Shui?"

Charlie Wade nodded, and said with a hippie smile: "It's Matilda's son, Paul, this guy brought the law firm to our Aurouss Hilll, right? Please come and have a look at Feng Shui, and I will go."

Claire Wilson Wilson said embarrassingly: "You lie to acquaintances too? Is it appropriate?"

"How can this be called a lie?" Charlie Wade said earnestly: "You love me!"

Claire Wilson Wilson was helpless and asked, "How much did you ask for?" Charlie Wade smiled: "One million."

Claire Wilson Wilson rubbed his temples: "You are so dark... there are so many more acquaintances..."

In fact, Claire Wilson Wilson didn't know that Paul gave Charlie Wade 10 million in total.

However, this 10 million was given in two penalties.

First gave a check for 1 million.

Then I made up another check for 9 million.

Charlie Wade originally thought that even if all 10 million were donated to the orphanage, it didn't really matter.

Chapter 984

But the point is, I rashly put out 10 million, so many people watched, it is really hard to explain.

It is not easy to explain to Claire Wilson Wilson, after all, the number is too big, and the number of 1 million is more reasonable.

So Charlie Wade looked at Jeff and smiled faintly: "If I can really put out 1 million, would you really donate 10 million?"

"Yes!" Jeff said almost without thinking, arrogantly: "If you can spend 1 million on a hanging wire like you, then I won't have a problem with 10 million!"

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "Wait a moment, I will take a video to testify."

After all, smiled and said to everyone, "Please take out your phone and take a video as a testimony!"

When I heard such a good show, I took out my mobile phones and turned on the video recording function.

Charlie Wade said calmly: "I, Charlie Wade, voluntarily donate 1 million Dollar to Aurouss Hilll Welfare Institute. As long as I donate this 1 million Dollar, Jeff next to me is willing to donate 10 million Dollar. Today, please be a witness here. If either of us repents, we would be spurned and despised by the entire country!"

Jeff sneered: "Okay, but you have to take out 1 million first. As long as you take out the 1 million, I will donate 10 million immediately!"

Jeff didn't believe that Charlie Wade could really spend 1 million.

It is estimated that the 100,000 Dollar spent on eating just now was the money he had saved for several years.

Charlie Wade directly took out his shabby wallet and found two checks Paul gave him.

He kept a mindful eye this time, first saw the amount of the check clearly, and confirmed that he was holding the 1 million one, and then took out the check.

After taking out the check, he directly handed it to Mrs. Lewis and said: "Mrs. Lewis, this cash check can be exchanged for 1 million cash at the bank at any time, please accept it."

Jeff curled his mouth and sneered unremittingly: "Just take out a piece of torn paper and say it's a cash check of 1 million. What are you kidding me?"

Charlie Wade smiled and asked, "Do you not believe it? Check it if you do not believe it!"

Jeff sneered: "Of course I don't believe it. When I was a kid, I played Monopoly Chess. A toy banknote was worth damn millions. Or should I take a few from it to donate? Besides, I'm not from a bank. People, how do I know how to verify the authenticity of a check?"

Charlie Wade smiled helplessly and nodded: "Since you won't give up until the Yellow River, if you don't see the coffin or cry, then I will fulfill you."

After all, he took out his phone and called Paul.

Paul answered the phone and said respectfully: "Master Wade."

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Paul has something, sorry to trouble you."

Paul hurriedly said, "Master Wade, please speak."

Charlie Wade said, "The one million check you gave me was lost by me and may not be exchanged. So can you please transfer me the 1 million cash directly? When I find the check, I will return the check to you."

Paul smiled: "Yes, you can give me an account, and I can transfer it to you now. If you can find the check, you don't have to return it to me!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Paul, you are really particular about what you do. I admire you very much."

Paul smiled and said, "Master Wade, you are too polite. Give me your account. I will call you now."

Charlie Wade said: "You directly check the donation account of the Aurouss Hillll Welfare Institute, and then transfer the 1 million Dollar to the Aurouss Hillll Welfare Institute's account."

Paul asked in surprise: "Master Wade, are you going to donate to the orphanage?"

"Yes." Charlie Wade said lightly: "I grew up in this orphanage."

Paul immediately said, "That's it! Master Wade, don't worry, I will transfer the money to the orphanage now. I will transfer 2 million in the past and the remaining 1 million is my little care!"

Chapter 985

Charlie Wade didn't expect that when he said he would donate to the orphanage, Paul also donated 1 million.

I wanted to tell him that this is not necessary, but Paul has hung up the phone over there.

Seeing that the phone had been hung up, Charlie Wade had no choice but to put it away. At the same time, he felt more and more that Paul, this kid, was indeed on the road, and he would have the opportunity to take him in the future.

After hanging up the phone, Charlie Wade said to Mrs. Lewis, "Mrs. Lewis, my friend will immediately transfer the money to our orphanage's account. Please tell the financial institution of our orphanage and pay attention to the account information, but the amount Not 1 million."

Jeff didn't wait for Charlie Wade to finish speaking, he laughed and said: "Haha Charlie Wade, you are confessing, shouldn't you just let your friends donate 10,000 Dollar, then you are really embarrassed! Don't forget that everyone is still recording."

Charlie Wade sneered and said, "Could you not be so anxious and wait until I have finished speaking before you speak up?"

Jeff waved his hand and said loudly: "You say it, let you say it, you say it aloud, say it for everyone!"

Charlie Wade ignored him, looking at Mrs. Lewis and said seriously: "Mrs. Lewis, the amount is indeed not 1 million, but 2 million, because my friend heard that I want to donate to the orphanage, he also added 1 million. "

Everyone was surprised!

What kind of friend is this? I heard that my friend is donating, and he is donating 1 million, so he also donated 1 million?

I'm afraid that this person is not sick, or else he is too rich and burnt!

Or Charlie Wade bragging.

Jeff sneered and said: "Charlie Wade, but more and more admire your bragging ability, Taishan collapsed in front of the front, and did not change the color, said that you are a person like you, you are really a person doing big things!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Don't jump to conclusions in a hurry. Otherwise, how can you step down after the money arrives?"

Jeff said coldly: "Save it, this kind of awesomeness won't last too long. If the money doesn't reach the account later, where do you put this face?"

As soon as this was finished, Mrs. Lewis received a call.

She saw that it was a call from the finance department, and hurriedly said: "It is the finance department of our orphanage who called me. Could it be that Charlie Wade's donation has arrived?"

"Cut!" Jeff said with a curled lips: "It may be there by then, but it will only cost ten to twenty thousand at most, not more."

Mrs. Lewis answered the phone, turned on the speaker, and asked: "Hey, Accounting, is there anything wrong with calling so late?"

Accounting Cherry's voice came from the other end of the phone. She was very excited and said: "Sister Lewis, I just received a text message. Someone made 2 million donations to the charity account of our orphanage!"

Mrs. Lewis exclaimed: "Is it here so soon?!"

Accounting Cherry hurriedly asked: "Mrs. Lewis, do you know the situation of the 2 million Dollar? Who is so generous? Donated so much money to us?"

Mrs. Lewis said excitedly: "It's Charlie Wade! Do you remember Charlie Wade from our orphanage?"

"Charlie Wade?!" Accounting Chen exclaimed: "Really it was Charlie Wade donated? My God, Charlie Wade is really promising now!"

Mrs. Lewis was also very pleased and said: "Charlie Wade has heard that our orphanage has recently arrived so many children. Knowing that we are in financial difficulties, so he donated a million!"

"And his friends also donated one million for his face, a total of 2 million!"

The other party said excitedly: "Oh, this time we can really relax. We can buy some delicious food for the children, and we can buy some new clothes for the children when it is cold, and then we can enjoy the play in our orphanage. The facilities have been changed. Those amusement facilities have been used many years ago!"

Everyone present was stunned.

Chapter 986

Especially Jeff, even more dazed. What's the situation? 2 million really arrived?

Isn't Charlie Wade a stinking son-in-law who eats soft rice? Where does he get so much money? !

Others also realized that they had underestimated Charlie Wade before. They really didn't expect that even though Charlie Wade was a son-in-law, he actually had so much energy.

Not only can he donate 1 million scary things at his fingertips, his friend, he heard that he donated 1 million, and he has no relatives with the orphanage, but he is willing to donate 1 million more. What kind of friend is this? So awesome?

At this moment, Charlie Wade stood up, looked at Jeff with a shocked and flustered face, and said: "Jeff, everyone's mobile phones may still be recording images. Now my 1 million has already arrived, your 10 million. Well, when will it arrive?"

Jeff was completely confused at this time, let alone let him donate 10 million Dollar, he may not even be able to get 100,000 Dollar now. And more importantly, he still has a big hole waiting for him to fill in. If he can't fill this big hole, he may be broken into pieces.

Thinking of this, Jeff was also very clear that he would not be able to win anyway, and he had already lost his face today, and he couldn't get it back if he wanted to go back.

So his old face was stubborn, and he said to Charlie Wade: "Charlie Wade, since you are so rich, it's better to take it out and let me help you manage your finances. I can double it in a week!"

Charlie Wade smiled and asked, "Why? Don't you donate 10 million?"

Jeff said embarrassingly: "You are joking, even if I am a good mess, I don't have that much money. Today, I don't know. Please forgive me and don't be like me."

Others sneered and said: "Jeff, you are too much. Charlie Wade has already donated 1 million. Even Charlie Wade's friends have donated 1 million. You should also cash in on you. Isn't it a promise? Even if you don't have 10 million, even if you donate 1 million, it's fair enough!"

Jeff's face was very ugly, but even now, even if his face was flushed from the beat, he didn't dare to pretend to be forced.

After all, these people have made videos. If you are still pretending to be compelling at this time, then this video will be released, and you will really have no face in the future.

So he had no choice but to fight, slapped himself a few times, and said guiltily: "I admit, I am damned, I pretend to be forced, I don't have so much money but I have a swollen face to fill a fat man, I'm sorry!"

When he said this, Jeff was very depressed.

He felt that, just now, William, who was also about to talk to his own financial investment fund, and one or two other small partners, saw that he was exposed now, and he would definitely not play with him again.

In this way, I really don't know where to go to get money to buy the Phaeton for Caesar.

Thinking of this, he had no face to stay here anymore, hurriedly got up, and said in a panic: "Sorry, everyone, I still have something to do, let's go..."

After speaking, he got up and ran out.

Seeing his embarrassed look when he ran away, everyone felt disgusted. He just pretended to be so slippery, and now he ran away like a dog! The money was not donated, which is really disgusting.

Seeing him running away, William couldn't help sighing, "Charlie Wade, you shouldn't let him run! You should hold him here and force him to donate the money!"

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently: "Then I have become a wicked person? It's okay, let him go, the wicked have their own wickedness."

William, who loves to take advantage, saw Jeff run away, and his heart was tense.

As soon as he left, Harry, the dog-legged man before Jeff, said contemptuously: "I can see through this Jeff, He loves to pretend! Damn, he hit someone else's Phaeton and knelt on the ground and cried like a dog. Here, he still have the face to say that Phaeton belongs to him. It's really rubbish. I must draw a line with this stupid guy in the future!"

Everyone was shocked and hurriedly asked: "He hit someone else's Phaeton? What is going on?!"

Chapter 987

Seeing that everyone was very interested in the collision with the Phaeton, Harry eloquently explained the whole series of Jeff's crash. When everyone heard this, they were shocked to speak.

Everyone can't imagine that Jeff's face would be so thick. It was obviously that he had hit someone else's car, and he could still hold someone else's car key and boast that he still had a Phaeton.

This incident subverted everyone's views and impressions of Jeff.

However, William, who got up to chase Jeff, just missed this wonderful story.

He chased Jeff all the way out of the hotel. Seeing Jeff went to the parking lot, he hurriedly chased him.

Jeff didn't know that William was chasing him all the way, he angrily opened the door of Caesar's Phaeton and sat in.

At this time, a figure suddenly appeared outside the car window.

Jeff was taken aback, but when he took a closer look, it was William with a flattering smile on his face.

He put down the car window, looked at William coldly, and asked, "What's the matter with you?"

William smiled and said, "Brother Jeff, when you came just now, you drove a Mercedes-Benz. Why did you suddenly become a Volkswagen? This is the Phaeton, the interior is really luxurious!"

Jeff said, "Didn't I tell you? There was a rear-end collision on the way here, and the Mercedes-Benz could not drive, so I asked the driver to drive the Phaeton over."

William gave a thumbs up in admiration, and knelt down and said: "Brother Jeff, you are really amazing. Compared with you, our little friends in the orphanage are really embarrassed!"

As he said, he praised again: "Brother Jeff, you really are a great person, able to bend and stretch, unlike Charlie Wade, a stupid idiot who threw a million Dollar to the orphanage in vain for a gamble! It's really a brain disease!"

At this moment, Jeff suddenly felt a little magical. He thought that after he lost the bet with Charlie Wade, he must have been exposed in front of all his friends. But he didn't expect that only William would kneel behind his a and lick himself.

It seems that this buddy is determined to make money with himself. Jeff finally breathed a sigh of relief. It seems that he still retains the last ray of life. This ray of life lies in William!

So Jeff said: "Do you still want me to help you fund?"

William hurriedly nodded and said, "That's for sure, Brother Jeff, whether I can marry a daughter-in-law depends on you."

Jeff nodded and said lightly: "Get in the car."

William asked in surprise, "Where are we going?"

Jeff said, "Didn't you bring your ID card? I will drive you to your dormitory now, and get all the loan apps out first. I will help you operate the fund tomorrow morning."

When William heard this, his excitement was overwhelming, and he blurted out, "Brother Jeff, you are so interesting!"

After speaking, he immediately went around to the co-pilot, opened the door and sat in.

Jeff started the car and drove the car to the dormitory of their unit under William's guidance.

William's work unit is a printing factory in the suburbs. He works very hard. He works 6 days a week, and his monthly salary is just over 3,000. With such a small salary, he can save more than 100,000 Dollar, which shows that William's usual life is hard.

After Jeff came to William's dormitory, William invited him to sit down in the only chair, and hurriedly took out his ID card, then opened the loan apps to upload information one by one and apply for loans.

Chapter 988

He found that the interest rates of these loan apps were very high, and some even reached seven out of seven and thirteen, which is just one week. If you want to borrow 70,000 Dollar from them, you will have to repay 130,000 in one week!

This interest alone has nearly doubled.

William couldn't help asking Jeff with some worry: "Brother Jeff, the interest rates of these loan apps are too high, and they are all equal to your financial management income. If I borrow money from here to manage financial affairs, wouldn't it be helpful for all these apps? Worked?"

Jeff waved his hand indifferently, and said with a smile: "Don't worry, the loan apps I recommend to you are all operated by my friends. You seem to have high interest rates, but in fact, I will call them. Hello, the interest can be eliminated!"

After that, Jeff said again: "The reason why such a high interest rate is displayed on the app is because they must ensure that all users look the same on the surface, but the actual operation is much more complicated. Understand, just listen to my arrangements."

William has been hanging around for half his life, and he has never seen any money, nor has he seized any opportunity to make money, so he now regards Jeff as his only life-saving straw.

Therefore, he just wanted to catch him tightly, without any doubt about his words.

As a result, William, under the supervision of Jeff, borrowed nearly 500,000 Dollar from more than a dozen loan apps.

He did not calculate how much interest is needed for this 500,000 Dollar. Because Jeff told him that he didn't need to pay the 500,000 one cent in interest.

After that, William transferred the money from the loan and all his deposits, which totaled 620,000 in total, to Jeff.

This person who would rather take advantage of death did not expect that because of his love to take advantage, a huge pit had already trapped him.

Jeff got 620,000 Dollar and was very excited.

However, the money was not enough for him to solve his troubles.

Because he lost 100,000 for his meal today, and now there is at least a shortfall of five to six hundred thousand.

So he immediately said to William: "Hurry up and give your girlfriend a call and tell her you have a financial channel that can earn 20 a week. Ask her mother if she would like to buy some financial management from you."

William nodded hurriedly, and then called his girlfriend.

As soon as the call was made, William immediately said excitedly: "What are you doing, Juanita?"

His girlfriend on the other end of the phone made a weird hum and said, "I...I...I'm at home, ah...what's wrong... ..what?"

William heard the strange hum and felt a little surprised, so he subconsciously asked: " Juanita, what is your voice over there?"

William's girlfriend said, "Oh, I...I have a backache and are uncomfortable. I am practicing waist twisting on the bed..."

As she said, she let out a soft snort of pain and enjoyment.

William hurriedly asked with concern: "Juanita, are you okay? If you have a waist injury, don't practice twisting your waist anymore. If it gets worse, you will be in trouble."

There was a creaking sound on the other end of the phone, as if the mattress was constantly being hit hard.

Jeff on the side was extremely shocked.

Because he has already heard that the other party's voice is not right, there is a possibility of 99%, this Juanita is having an affair with another men!

But this William's forehead is so green, why doesn't it feel at all? Couldn't he notice it?

Although this person is too greedy for petty and cheap, he is not so lacking in IQ, right?

Chapter 989

At this moment, that Juanita on the other side of the phone suddenly uttered a very strange scream, which made Jeff feel the blood rushing straight down.

He was so familiar with this sound, isn't this the sound a woman makes when she is happiest?

At this time, William felt very distressed and said, "Good dear, since you are so uncomfortable, then stop practicing. If it gets worse, I will feel distressed."

The Juanita's voice groaned unbearably, and hurriedly asked him:

"William, are you...are you okay? If you want nothing wrong...that... .. Then I'll hang up first, I...I'm training at the most critical moment here, and I can't stop, ah... once I stop, I'll give up all the work... .."

William hurriedly said proudly: "Juanita, let me tell you the good news. I have a good buddy who has given me a clear path. He can introduce me to a wealth management fund, which can generate 20% income in one week. Would you like to ask if your mother is interested?"

Juanita blurted out: "William, you have no brains, right? What is the current economic situation? Average annualized income is less than 3%, so if you have friends, you have 20% in a week. Revenue channel? What the hell is it?"

William became anxious when he heard this, and blurted out: "Juanita, my friend is amazing. He drives the Phaeton. Did you know that the Phaeton? Volkswagen's most expensive car is more than 2 million Dollar. Inviting us to dinner today, a meal cost 100,000 Dollar."

Juanita scolded contemptuously: "You can still know such a rich person, and you can still get 100,000 Dollar for a meal. Do you think I am a child and believe you?"

William hurriedly said: "Juanita, what I'm telling you is the truth. I will tell you that I will be able to afford the betrothal soon, and I will be able to make enough money soon, and you will never have to spend every day. I'm selling cigarettes and e-cigarette cartridges in the circle of friends! I will treat you well in the future, support you, and let you live a good life."

When the other party heard this, she immediately said angrily: "Why? I listen to what you mean, you look down on me? What happened to me selling cigarettes and electronic cigarettes? I can easily earn 5000 Dollar a month, occasionally If you meet a generous customer, if your Lady pleases them, you may receive more than 10,000 Dollar a month, and you don't even have 3,000 Dollar in a month's salary. You still brag about raising me and letting me live a good life?"

William said emotionally: "Juanita, I don't look down on you. I think that the things you sell are smuggled goods, which is always not a way. What if you are caught by the police someday?"

Juanita said angrily: "You're so f*cking cursing me here, hurry up and get out of here!"

After speaking, she immediately hung up the phone.

William looked at Jeff with some embarrassment, and blurted out: "I'm sorry, my girlfriend may not believe you a little bit, but she hasn't seen you this time. If she has seen you, she must I'll believe you! Or let's make some time tomorrow and I will show you to meet her, you tell her!"

Jeff waved his hand immediately and blurted out: "Farewell, farewell! Let's forget about it. She doesn't believe it. It can only prove that she has no relationship with the money, and we should not force it."

In fact, Jeff knew very well in his heart that just by listening to Juanita on the phone, he knew that this woman was definitely not a fuel-efficient lamp.

She is able to cheat on other men while answering her boyfriend's phone calls, and also scolds her boyfriend like a idiot. Is such a sturdy and fearless gameplay ordinary people? This shows that this girl must be very powerful!

Among other things, as far as her broken mouth is concerned, it is estimated that one can count as ten!

If she really met him and let her know that William had given him 620,000, then she would definitely try her best to get the money back. So he cleared his throat, looked at William with some embarrassment, and asked tentatively, "That William, how long have you known your girlfriend?"

Chapter 990

William hurriedly said: "I have known each other for three years and have been together for two years."

Jeff asked again: "Then how did you two meet?"

William smiled and said: "At that time, I wanted to enter a company, and I needed to ask people to do things, and they asked me to take two soft China."

"I wondered how expensive this soft China is. One piece is several hundred and two pieces are more than one thousand. Then I wanted to look for it and see if anyone could sell it cheaper, but I searched it online, hey, There is really a cheap one, Juanita! She sells smuggled soft China, only two hundred!"

After listening to Jeff, his face was extremely embarrassed, and he asked, "Excellent, I ask you, where are Chinese cigarettes made?"

William subconsciously said: "China."

Jeff nodded and said, "Why can you buy Chinese-made cigarettes in China, but still smuggled?"

William frowned and said, "Hey, Brother Jeff, what you said is really interesting. I don't think I understand. Maybe Juanita has some other channels?"

Jeff sighed and asked, "I'll ask you again, you bought two pieces of Soft China from your girlfriend, and they were smuggled. Then finally, did you get the job done?"

"No." As soon as William thought of this, he said distressedly: "At that time, the cigarette was passed, and then there was no more information. Later, I called and asked people, but he blocked my phone. This is what happened. Now I still remember that on the fifteenth day of the lunar new year, I have to buy two dollars of paper money and burn it on the side of the road, cursing the fool who lied to me two cigarettes to die sooner." "You're really a god..." Jeff rubbed his temples, and he finally knew why William was so hanging.

So he asked: "Excellent, you have been with your girlfriend for two years, have you had any relationship?"

William blushed and said shyly: "I want to happen, but it hasn't happened yet. Juanita told me that she wants to save her most precious first night until the day of her wedding, and I respect her decision."

Jeff scratched his hair and asked him: "Then you didn't hear what was wrong with the sound she made when she called? Under what circumstances would a woman make such a sound? Ah, the sound of the creaking mattress, think about it carefully, think about the Japanese movies you may have seen, the ones with few people and simple scenes, usually the ones with one man and one woman the film."

Jeff wanted to click on William. He felt that he was just talking about it. It's impossible for William to understand it?

But he didn't expect that after hearing his problem, William said with a serious face: "Of course a woman would make such a sound when her waist was twisted and she needed to practice her waist in bed."

After that, William said distressedly: "It's a pity that my dormitory is too far from her home, otherwise I will buy two packs of plasters and send them to her."

Jeff sneered and said: "Also buy a hairy plaster, just buy two boxes of Viagra, otherwise there may be something wrong."

"What?" William hurriedly asked, "What is Viagra? Is it for waist treatment? Isn't it good? Is it expensive? How much is a box?"

"Come on." Jeff waved his hand and said: "You can stay at home first, I have to go, I will handle the fund business as soon as possible. If no accident, you can get the money after a week. Up!"

Chapter 991

The heartless Jeff, when he left William's dormitory, suddenly felt a little guilty for him.

He thinks that people like William, although hateful, are really pitiful. He is an orphan without a father and no mother. After so many years of hard work, he hasn't come up with anything. In the end, he found a girlfriend.

If he knew that his girlfriend was enjoying herself under other men when his girlfriend called and scolded him, what kind of mood would he be like?

Moreover, he just emptied all of his wealth. He was also given a loan of more than 500,000 Dollar, all of which were usury without exception. It is estimated that in a week, he will have to pay back at least one million. It is estimated that after a month, he will have at least several million. By that time, he might be desperate, right?

However, he is also a mud bodhisattva crossing the river, and he cannot protect himself. No way, if two people must die, he hopes that the other person will die. Moreover, he hasn't gone ashore yet! If you want to go ashore, at least you have to get hundreds of thousands more. Thinking of this, he no longer sympathized with William.

Regardless of him, let's live alive. At this moment, at the dining table of the Hyatt Hotel, Jeff has become the target of the thousands. Even the few followers before him all hated him one by one. While everyone looked down on Jeff, they admired Charlie Wade very much.

After all, you can donate 1 million people to the orphanage at your fingertips, certainly not just 1 million. Everyone realized that they had looked down on Charlie Wade before.

In order to curry favor with Charlie Wade, many people kept saying his kind words, toasting him, complimenting him, and even kneeling before him.

Charlie Wade didn't have any arrogance, but he was not too humble. He always maintained a calm mentality, which made people feel a little unpredictable.

Caleb has been waiting for everyone to finish with Charlie Wade. He picked up a glass of wine and said seriously: "Charlie Wade, thank you for all this for the orphanage, I toast you a glass!"

Charlie Wade looked at him and nodded gently.

Chapter 992

Apart from Lisa and Mrs. Lewis, Caleb was the first person to toast to himself because he had donated money to the orphanage.

Those other people, they toast to themselves, not because they donated money to the orphanage, but because they find that they seem to be rich. These are two completely different starting points. Those who rush to the orphanage to toast are those who really care about the orphanage; those who rush to the orphanage to toast are all hoping to have a relationship with themselves.

After all, for these friends, it is certainly not easy to donate 1 million people to the orphanage at will, and it has far exceeded their cognition.

Charlie Wade and Caleb drank a glass of wine, and Caleb sighed sincerely: "Charlie Wade, I am really pleased to see that you can have today! I felt that you are different from each of us, and Knowing why, I thought you were great at that time, and I thought you would be promising in the future! I didn't expect you to be so generous!"

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently, and said: "When we two slept on the construction site together, we were very happy to have enough food every day. We were paid every month. We two of us could have extravagance and buy two side dishes. I have a few bottles of beer and a drink in the shed on the construction site. In my opinion, it is already a great satisfaction."

After a pause, Charlie Wade said again: "Because of that experience, I don't have too much material requirements now. Eat better, dress better, use better, live better. In fact, it really doesn't make much sense to me."

Caleb nodded earnestly and said, "Brother, I understand what you said. We two worked together in the same job back then, but I saved up all the money I earned. I hope that I will be able to turn over as the capital of the salted fish in the future; All the money you earned was donated to the orphanage. At that time, I felt that I might not be as good as you in my life, because your situation is much bigger than mine!"

After all, Caleb sighed softly and laughed at himself: "Facts have proved that I am really nothing."

Charlie Wade said solemnly: "Brother, don't be arrogant at any time, as long as you can do it, you are worthy of the world, worthy of your conscience, worthy of yourself, even if your material life is not so good, you are a very happy person."

As he said, he said again: "Look at this world, how many wealthy people have made their homes by doing bad things, and how many people who have no money are deliberately thinking about stealing, stealing, cheating, and occupying some from others. One thing, there are too few people who can do no harm!"

Claire Wilson Wilson silently listened to Charlie Wade's words, and suddenly felt that her image of her husband had become radiant at this moment and in her own mind.

From his donation to the orphanage, to the moment he said such a statement, I was impressed.

Caleb drank a little wine and was a little bit on his head, so he was also a little impulsive at this time. He held Charlie Wade's hand and said with red eyes: "Charlie Wade, I have been muddled for more than 20 years. Today you made me understand. I thought, I shouldn't have left at the beginning. I went to Lancaster because I always thought in my heart that I would stand up, make a fortune, and become a master. In the past few years, I have never thought about giving back and raising me. The orphanage I grew up, looking back now, I really feel guilty..."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "Caleb, people must first take care of themselves, and then take care of the world. If you can't take care of yourself, I don't want you to donate your limited money to the orphanage, so you must take care of yourself first. We are all suffering. Days come, and there is no family, no dependence, only one can rely on. At this time, you must be nice to yourself and let yourself live well first."

Caleb burst into tears and choked up: "Why don't you do it yourself when you persuade me so? I know, when Mrs. Lewis was sick, you gave all the money you could find to Mrs. Lewis, that At that time, why don't you want to let yourself live better first?"

Charlie Wade said awkwardly: "We are in different situations after all. I am married, but you are not."

After speaking, Charlie Wade took Claire Wilson's hand and said to Caleb: "All Aurouss Hilll knows that I am a famous soft rice king. I eat from my wife, drink from my wife, and use my wife's car. I live with my wife and have such a good wife. I don't need to spend a penny, and I can eat and wear warmth. In this case, it's useless to ask for money."

Claire Wilson was suddenly held by Charlie Wade. After listening to what Charlie Wade said, she was extremely moved.

She felt that at this moment, she had a little more understanding of her husband.

But at the same time, she also felt that at this moment, she was a little stranger to her husband.

Once upon a time, she thought that her husband was hopeless and ambitious, just a useless person who didn't dare to fight back after being scolded and beaten.

But now, she felt that her husband seemed to be far more profound than the one she imagined!

Chapter 993

When Caleb saw Charlie Wade holding Claire Wilson's hand, he showed his affection, and he felt gratified for his good brother.

So he hurriedly poured another glass of wine and said: "Come on, Charlie Wade, good brother, I will toast you two a glass, I wish you better and better relationship, and give birth to an early son!"

Claire Wilson blushed all of a sudden, and she felt ashamed when she talked about having an early son.

Charlie Wade said with a smile on his face: "Thank you brother, I will work hard!"

Claire Wilson was even more shy. She held one hand, put the other hand under the table, and pinched hard on the inside of his thigh.

Charlie Wade grinned in pain, but didn't dare to scream, so he hurriedly picked up the wine glass and said to Caleb: "Come on, do it!"

After a glass of wine, Charlie Wade suddenly remembered that William was working in Lancaster, and asked: "By the way, Caleb, which company in Lancaster do you work for now? What industry is it? What is your position? ?"

Caleb explained: "I work in a company specializing in the production of lighting equipment in Lancaster. The main position is a salesperson. Our company is under the Lane Group."

"Lane Group?" Charlie Wade frowned and asked, "The boss of the Lane Group should be Travis Lane, the richest man in Lancaster, right?"

Caleb nodded and said with a smile: "You also know Travis Lane."

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "More than knowing, I have seen him."

"Really?" Caleb said in surprise: "We usually miss the end of the dragon. Only the people from the group headquarters have the opportunity to see him. People from small companies like us have no chance to see him. Chairman Lane."

In Lancaster, Travis Lane was basically a native emperor, and he had many companies and industries.

The lighting equipment company where Caleb works is actually just a small industry under Travis Lane, let alone Caleb, even the person in charge of their lighting equipment company did not have the opportunity to see Travis Lane several times.

Therefore, Caleb felt very shocked and curious about Charlie Wade's meeting with Travis Lane.

So he asked: "Charlie Wade, how did you meet our Chairman Lane?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "A friend had a party before, and I went to attend it. I happened to see him when he was there."

The first time Charlie Wade saw Travis Lane, Jasmine invited herself to look at a piece of jade. At that time, Travis Lane also had ideas about the piece of jade, and even brought a master to give him a long eye. As a result, the scam was seen through by herself.

Later, when he attended the metaphysics circle, Travis Lane also went. Although he had no friendship with him, he had always treated himself respectfully.

After all, he is the Supreme Leader in the eyes of those metaphysical circles.

Since Caleb works in a company under Travis Lane, he still has to help him if he can.

So Charlie Wade said to Caleb: "Well, let me call Travis and let him arrange a new job for you."

"What?! Do you know Chairman Lane?" Caleb looked at Charlie Wade in shock.

He thought that Charlie Wade was just a chance to meet Chairman Lane at a party, but 80% of them had no chance to cultivate friendship with Chairman Lane.

It's not that he despises his brothers. The key is that Chairman Lane's status is noble. After all, he is the richest man in Lancaster. In his eyes, he is really unattainable.

Others couldn't help being shocked when they heard Charlie Wade's words. Everyone has heard of Travis Lane, the richest man in Lancaster. Although he is not as powerful as the Moore family, he is at least a super rich man worth several tens of billions.

Unexpectedly, Charlie Wade would know such a big man!

Chapter 994

If it were placed half an hour ago, everyone would think Charlie Wade was bragging.

But now, everyone felt that since Charlie Wade said so, then this matter is likely to be true.

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently at this time and said to Caleb:

"Although I don't have much friendship with him, Chairman Lane, we are acquaintances after all. I believe he will give me a bit of face after all."

Having said that, he immediately took out his cell phone, found Travis Lane's number, and called him directly.

After a while, the call was connected.

Travis Lane on the other end of the phone said in surprise, "Master Wade, why are you free to call me?!"

Charlie Wade smiled lightly and said, "Chairman Lane, you and I haven't seen each other for some time."

Travis Lane hurriedly said, "Oh, I haven't been to Aurouss Hill during this time. Otherwise, I must say hello to Master Wade!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "Chairman Lane don't need to be so polite. Actually, I called today for something. I want to ask you."

A table of people held their breath and looked at Charlie Wade, looking forward to witnessing the miracle moment!

Because almost everyone is an orphan, let alone a richest man with a worth of tens of billions, even an ordinary rich man with a worth of more than ten million will have no chance to meet.

At this time, Travis Lane hurriedly said: "Master Wade, if you have anything you want, I will go all out!"

Charlie Wade said: "I have a buddy who grew up together. I just learned today that he actually works in a company under your industry, Chairman Lane, so I want to trouble you, can I arrange for him a upgrade in work?"

Travis Lane was shocked!

He never dreamed that Master Charlie Wade's good brother would actually work in his own company.

So he hurriedly asked: "Master Wade, what is your brother's name? Which company does you work for? Could you please tell me, I will call now to arrange for personnel transfer, and directly transfer your good brother Come to the headquarter of our group!"

Charlie Wade said, "My buddy is called Caleb Morales. He works in a lighting equipment company under your name."

Travis Lane hurriedly said, "Master Wade, wait a minute, I'll call and ask now!"

After hanging up the phone, Travis Lane immediately called his secretary, asking him to verify Caleb's identity in the shortest possible time.

When the secretary reported to himself that the lighting equipment company did have this person, Travis Lane was delighted.

In fact, he has long wanted to find a chance to get close to Master Charlie Wade, but he has been suffering from no chance.

After all, Master Wade is a real dragon in the world, and Matthew Gibson, who is awesome, can't play a face-to-face in front of him. Moreover, even a large family like the Moore family treats Charlie Wade with respect and respect, so he also knows , I actually have no chance.

However, he never dreamed that this opportunity would suddenly fall from the sky. Master Charlie Wade's good brother actually worked in his own company. Isn't this a godsend opportunity?

So he immediately called Charlie Wade back and asked, "Master Wade, I want to transfer your brother to the headquarters to be my assistant. The annual salary is one million, oh no, two million. I don't know. Are you satisfied?"

Charlie Wade knew that for Travis Lane, the annual salary of two million was a drop in the bucket.

However, for Caleb, it would be less than ten or twenty years of struggle, and it may not even reach such a height in his lifetime.

He hummed with satisfaction, and said: "Then this matter will be easy for you, Chairman Lane, it is best to send a notice to my brother now, so that he can be happy sooner."

Travis Lane didn't dare to refuse, and respectfully said: "Master Wade, please rest assured, I will let the manager send him an employment notice!"

Chapter 995

After Charlie Wade hung up Travis Lane's call, he said to Caleb in front of him: "I have already greeted you, Chairman Lane, and he said he wants to transfer you to the headquarters to be his assistant."

Caleb, including the entire table of friends, were all stunned.

Everyone has heard of Travis Lane's name, but he is a super rich man worth over 10 billion!

It is definitely not an ordinary job to be an assistant to a super rich person worth more than 10 billion Dollar. It is impossible for ordinary people to have a chance!

At the very least, you have to graduate with a Ph.D. from a prestigious university, or even have similar work experience in many large companies, to be considered by a rich man like Travis Lane.

Everyone knew exactly what happened to Caleb.

He and Charlie Wade were all just graduated from high school at the beginning, because the orphanage only took them until they were 18 years old. At that time, after they finished high school and graduated, they went straight to work in society.

Charlie Wade is a little better than him, because in order to let him cultivate a relationship with Claire Wilson Wilson, Mr. Wilson sent him to Aurouss Hillll University to study for a year.

However, Caleb has been working since he was 18 years old, working on construction sites for a few years, and then went to Lancaster to toss for a few years.

To put it bluntly, Caleb's situation is no different from the uncles of migrant workers who work on the construction site. The only difference is that he is a little younger.

So such a person suddenly wants to work as an assistant for the super-rich Travis Lane. No matter how you hear it, it feels very magical. Caleb himself didn't believe it either. Not only did he not believe it, but he also felt that he was not capable of being an assistant to the chairman?

Being able to be a team leader in your own company already burns high incense.

But at this moment, Caleb's phone rang suddenly.

Caleb saw that it was an unfamiliar number, so he put on the phone and asked: "Hello, who may I ask?"

The other party immediately said: "Hello, is it Mr. Caleb Morales? I am the personnel director of our Lane Group. I am calling you to inform you that you have now been transferred to the head office and served as Chairman Lane's assistant. Chairman Lane will give you one week to prepare, then you can report directly to the head office."

Caleb was stunned and blurted out: "You...are you kidding me? Are you really asking me to be Chairman Lane's assistant? I haven't even gone to university..."

The other party smiled and said: "Chairman Lane specifically explained that no matter what your academic qualifications, you will be allowed to do this position, and you will not be required to have any skills, as long as you can drive. It does not matter if you can even drive. The company can pay you to sign up for training."

Caleb hurriedly said: "I have a driver's license. I have been taking the driver's license test for more than three years. I drove a taxi in Lancaster for a while."

The other party smiled and said: "That's good. You can help Chairman Lane drive first. If Chairman Lane needs you to do anything, he will tell you then."

After speaking, the other party said: "By the way, your salary is 2 million Dollar per year, which is the basic salary, not including year-end bonuses and commissions."

"Much...how much?!" Caleb was struck by lightning. He thought that his ears had a problem. How could it be possible for 2 million a year?

At my current level, I can earn 100,000 Dollar a year, which is very impressive. Even in the best dream I have ever had, I have not reached the level of an annual salary of 2 million Dollar.

Seeing that Caleb didn't seem to hear him clearly, the other party repeated it earnestly and said: "Mr. Morales, your basic salary is 2 million a year."

Caleb shivered with fright, and blurted out: "2 million a year is too much..."

Chapter 996

This sentence scared everyone present.

An annual salary of 2 million a year? ! How is this different from robbing a bank?

Moreover, does Charlie Wade really have this ability? Can Caleb's annual salary be 2 million with a single call? !

At this moment, the other party smiled on the phone and said: "Chairman Lane made this decision. Since he made this decision, there must be his reasons. I believe that the price is not high in Chairman Lane's view."

After speaking, the other party said again: "Mr. Morales, then we will see you next week. This is my mobile phone. If you come to report then, just call me and I will receive you!"

Later, he hung up the phone for convenience.

Caleb took the phone, his whole brain has been completely short-circuited.

Harry was full of envy, jealousy and hatred at this time, and blurted out: "Caleb, does your company really give you 2 million annual salary?" Caleb came back to his senses and nodded blankly and said, "It was the personnel director who called, he really said that."

Harry was so jealous and crazy in his heart. He really didn't expect Charlie Wade to have such a sky-reaching energy. If he had known that he had such an ability, what would he go to kneel and lick Jeff? Kneel and lick Charlie Wade directly!

At this time, Caleb was already in tears. He looked at Charlie Wade with red eyes and choked up: "Charlie Wade, you have done too much for me. How can I be chairman Lane's Assistant?"

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently, patted him on the shoulder, and said seriously: "Just because you are Charlie Wade's brother, I can fully afford to arrange an assistant position for you."

Caleb was very moved in his heart, but he was still a little less confident and said: "Charlie Wade, I know you have always regarded me as a brother, but to be honest, I still know my ability. Am I worth 2 million a year?"

Charlie Wade said with a smile: "Whether it's worth it, it's not your decision. Since you are my brother, the annual salary of 2 million is your starting price."

With that said, Charlie Wade must say seriously: "So you will follow Travis Lane steadfastly in the future, and show those who look down on you to see! Let them know that you today are not the same as before!" Caleb was moved in tears when he heard this!

Since the two left the orphanage, he has been looked down upon, because he is young and has no father or mother. Even if he works on the construction site, he will be bullied by other workers.

Having been in Lancaster for so many years, he was also looked down upon by others. Even his girlfriend had left him because he disliked himself. So Charlie Wade's words ignited the self-esteem and blood in his heart.

So he immediately clasped his fists in his hands and said with great gratitude: "My good brother, I don't say thank you for your kindness. From now on, my life will be yours!"

Charlie Wade waved his hand and said with a smile: "What do I want your life to do? You will live well in the future, live well, and live your personality, I am very relieved."

After speaking, Charlie Wade said again: "By the way, I only have one request for you."

Caleb hurriedly said: "You said that no matter what the request is, I will definitely be there!"

Charlie Wade said seriously: "After becoming Travis Lane's assistant, no matter how your ex-girlfriend and her mother come back to beg you, you must not agree, even if you still love her in your heart, you are not allowed to agree! Because from now on, Such a snobbish woman is not worthy of my brother!"

Chapter 997

At this moment, Caleb realized from Charlie Wade's determined expression that his life had undergone earth-shaking changes.

He is no longer the stinky silk that is looked down upon by everyone, has never gone to school, and has no father or mother.

He is now Charlie Wade's brother and assistant to the chairman of Lane Group.

And the annual salary is as high as 2 million Dollar!

If her ex-girlfriend knew she got such a job, her snobbish mother would probably kneel in front of her, begging to get back with her.

However, Charlie Wade was right.

Because from now on, this family is no longer worthy of themselves.

It wasn't that Caleb himself was so floating, but he knew that he could have this good fortune entirely because of his childhood brother Charlie Wade.

Not only should I be grateful to him, but I can't shame him.

At this moment, the people at the dinner table looked at Charlie Wade like a god.

He donated 1 million to the orphanage in a single phone call, and his friends also donated 1 million for his face.

That's all, he actually called Travis Lane, the richest man in Lancaster!

And also gave Caleb a job with an annual salary of 2 million.

This energy has exceeded the imagination of these people!

However, Claire Wilson Wilson didn't feel strange at all. She knew that Charlie Wade's Feng Shui was just for the rich, so it was not surprising to know Travis Lane.

But other people don't know this, many of them have already begun to move their minds, and they have picked up their wine glasses and looked at Charlie Wade.

While preparing to toast Charlie Wade, I also hope to get close to Charlie Wade, and then see if he can also arrange a better job for himself.

But at this moment when many people had already picked up their wine glasses, Claire Wilson Wilson suddenly received a call.

The call was from Elaine Ma, Charlie Wade's mother-in-law. As soon as the call was connected, Elaine Ma cried out on the other end of the phone:

"My dear daughter, come back soon. Your dad is going to divorce me. I'm not alive!" If you don't come back, you can only wait for your mother to collect the body!"

Claire Wilson Wilson panicked immediately. She didn't expect that her mother had just found her back and the house started to make trouble again.

So she hurriedly said to Charlie Wade next to her: "It seems that parents are arguing at home, let's go back soon."

When Charlie Wade heard this, he nodded immediately, so he picked up the wine glass and said to everyone: "Mrs. Lewis, there are so many friends, I am really sorry today, there is something urgent at home, so I just told Claire Wilson Wilson. Go back first, let's get together again when we have time!"

Mrs. Lewis hurriedly said: "You two should go back to do business, don't delay because of us."

But those who still want to profit from him were disappointed for a while, and some even said: "Brother Wade, I haven't had time to toast with you... Drink two glasses before leaving. ?"

Charlie Wade said lightly: "Don't drink it, next time, I have to leave beforehand at home."

After speaking, he raised the wine glass in his hand and said seriously: "I've done this glass of wine."

As soon as the voice fell, he drank all the wine in the glass and took Claire Wilson Wilson's hand to leave.

Because Charlie Wade drank, Claire Wilson Wilson was responsible for driving.

On the way back, she said anxiously: "I think my dad is tempted by that Matilda again, so he wants to divorce my mom. I really worry about it. You can help me think of a way to see how to get my dad. Change your mind..."

Charlie Wade said: "What do you say about this kind of thing? If Dad really doesn't have feelings for Mom, and forcibly keeping them together not to be separated, it will be torture for both of them."

Claire Wilson Wilson sighed and asked, "Then you mean to make them short-term pain better than long-term pain?"

Chapter 998

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "What kind of person my mother-in-law is, don't you know? She will make short-term pains from the labors, and short-term pains will be caused by her to grow up. Even if my dad wants to divorce him, I'm afraid It's not that easy."

Claire Wilson Wilson was stunned suddenly, her heart was full of enlightenment.

With the mother's temper and character, even if the father wants to divorce, it is difficult to get what he wants.

Thinking of this, she also suddenly realized that her mother's death-seeking thing was probably still acting.

So she was also relieved.

As soon as the BMW drove into the villa, I heard Elaine Ma cursing on the street: "Jacob Wilson, you despondent bastard, I have suffered so much for you and suffered so much, so you still have to divorce me."

Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson got out of the car, and as soon as they entered the door, they saw Elaine Ma standing in the living room, cursing shamelessly.

Because Elaine Ma's two front teeth were still missing, she leaked when she spoke. When she got excited, it not only leaked the wind, but also kept spitting out.

Jacob Wilson deliberately kept a distance of more than five meters from her at this time, and said angrily: "Don't tell me those useless things, I'm broke with you now, there is no other choice except divorce!"

Elaine Ma scolded, "Dog stuff, you are simply dreaming! I tell you, until I am dead, I will not divorce you!"

Jacob Wilson said angrily: "You wait, I will go to the court to sue tomorrow."

Elaine Ma scolded angrily: "You f*cking bluff me? Do you think that the court is yours, you can get a divorce if you go to prosecute? I told you, in order to prevent you from doing this, inquired about it many years ago. As long as I disagree with the divorce, the court will not be able to sentence us to divorce for no reason!"

Jacob Wilson said angrily: "I have no relationship with you anymore. A marriage without an emotional basis will be sentenced by law!"

Elaine Ma said triumphantly: "Cut, what if there is no emotional foundation? I tell you, the relevant laws have regulations. Even if there is no emotional foundation, you must have separated for two years before you can be sentenced to divorce!"

Jacob Wilson was taken aback, and immediately stomped his heart, and said, "Then...then...then I will be separated from you now, and counting from now, two years later, if you don't leave, you will also have to leave!"

Elaine Ma curled his lips and said, "You want to separate with me, right? I tell you, two people live in a house and sleep in separate rooms. This is not separation. If you want to separate, you can get out of the Thompson First villa. Go live in a house!"

After speaking, Elaine Ma said again: "You can move back to the old house alone!"

"Go and go!" Jacob Wilson gritted his teeth: "As long as I can get rid of you as a b*tch, even if I go to sleep in the bridge hole for two years, I am willing!"

Elaine Ma waved his hand: "Then you get out quickly, get out now, get out of nowhere!"

After speaking, Elaine Ma threatened: "Your front foot is gone, and my back foot chopped the furniture that your father left behind and burned wood!"

"You..." Jacob Wilson shivered angrily: "What is the difference between your approach and that of a beast?"

Elaine Ma hummed: "You care so much, don't you want to move out? Hurry up, go now!"

Jacob Wilson suddenly became dumbfounded.

He really wanted to separate from Elaine Ma, but he was really reluctant to leave Thompson First.

This big villa with elevator is so cool to live in. After living here, look at the small house before, it is no different from the chicken coop. But now that I have only lived here for a few days, if I let myself move out, then I really feel a little unwilling.

Claire Wilson Wilson watched the two of you talking to me, arguing incessantly, and said helplessly: "Dad, Mom! I haven't had a good day, why is it starting to make trouble again?"

Elaine Ma said, "I want to live a good life, but your dad doesn't want to."

Jacob Wilson blurted out: "I have nothing to do with you, I can't go together anymore!"

Charlie Wade knew very well in his heart that the old man must want to stay and fly with Matilda, but what he thought was too beautiful. Doesn't he have any compelling numbers in his heart because of his wife?

Chapter 999

Seeing Jacob Wilson so decisive, Elaine Ma said angrily: "Okay, you can't live with me, right? Yes, then you can live with me for two years, and then go to the court to sue for divorce."

As he said, Elaine Ma snorted and said, "But Jacob Wilson, I can tell you in advance that I am a very careful person. If you divorce me, let me know that you are better than me and more comfortable than me. Then I may be uncomfortable!"

"You know what I will do when I feel uncomfortable, you know better than anyone else, and I will definitely make you feel more uncomfortable than me, so that my heart can be balanced!"

"In other words, if you dare to find a little vixen outside and live secretly at that time, then I must confuse your good things, and then I haunt you every day. I am your ghost, I am Your shadow, you will never get rid of me!"

When Jacob Wilson heard this, his soul was frightened!

According to Elaine Ma's words, even if she bears her for two years and finally can dissolve her marriage, she is not going to let herself go... If she was with Matilda at that time, once Elaine Ma knew about it, wouldn't she still be crazy?

She still doesn't know anything about Matilda, she has to haunt her every day as her own ghost.

At that time, if you know about Matilda, or even know that you are with Matilda, then you can't cut yourself to death with a knife?

Moreover, not only is it impossible for her to let go of herself, it is also impossible for her to let go of Matilda.

After all, she has always regarded Matilda as her worst enemy for decades.

Given her style of acting as the number one vixen in Aurouss Hilll, how could Matilda be her opponent?

At that time, she might finish hurting herself and hurt Matilda, and it will be a mess by then.

Thinking of this, Jacob Wilson almost cried anxiously.

He desperately asked himself in his heart: "Can't I, Jacob Wilson, be with Matilda in my life? Can't I find my own happiness, Jacob Wilson? Will I, Jacob Wilson, have to live with such a b*tch in this life?"

Thinking of this, he had the heart to die.

Elaine Ma looked like a winner, and said triumphantly: "I tell you Jacob Wilson, you will never get rid of me Elaine Ma in your life unless I die! But even if I die before you, I will take it with you before death. If you walk with me, you will never be left alone in this world."

Jacob Wilson trembled with anger, almost unable to stand up. He roared with great indignation: "Elaine Ma, you...you...you stinky lady, you are simply a beast! How can there be a brazen person like you in the world?!" "What?" Elaine Ma raised her eyebrows: "What's wrong with a person like me? Don't someone like me still marry you and have children? Do you think I, Elaine Ma, is what you dump whenever you want?"

Jacob Wilson was so angry that Elaine Ma cried, and said in a choked voice: "The last thing I regret in my life is marrying you! If I knew you were such a shrew, even if you put a knife on my neck, I would not marry. You come in!"

Elaine Ma suddenly sneered: "Oh, what does your regret of marrying me have to do with whether I am a shrew? Do you think I don't know why you regret this old thing?"

"Don't you just regret not being with Matilda? Don't you regret that you didn't get back Matilda in time?"

"You ate the bowl yourself, looked at the pan, and regretted now that you said it was because I was a shrew? In front of the girl, you touched your own conscience and said, are you shameless?"

"You..." Jacob Wilson was suffocated to death.

People like Elaine Ma have this ability. She can accurately find the most hurtful language under any circumstances and launch the most brutal attack on herself.

Jacob Wilson had realized at this time that he was not the opponent of this shrew at all.

Thinking that his life was so gloomy, and it seemed that there would be no day in the future, he fell to the ground like a child and started to cry.

Unlike the crying method that Elaine Ma used to cry, Jacob Wilson's cry is really sad for the listener and tears for the listener.

Chapter 1000

It can be seen how desperate he is at this moment.

When Elaine Ma saw this, the victor's posture became more obvious, and he said contemptuously: "Jacob Wilson, you're a damn old man, you're a f*cking man, come with me. Why, in front of a girl, I want to win sympathy. Do you want me to tell you about your love affairs in front of my daughter?"

After that, before Jacob Wilson could answer, she sneered and said, "You Jacob Wilson was the school's famous person back then. The matter between you and Matilda is also known to the whole school, but you, someone like you, obviously has a girlfriend. , I'm still messing with flowers and weeds outside, attacking me and ruining my innocence. Now it's delayed my half of my life, and I'm talking about divorcing me. There are so many scumbags in the world, but who can beat you?"

Jacob Wilson only felt that his heart was violently hit by a train. At this moment he realized that he might not be able to beat this woman in his life. With her, it is impossible to find true happiness in this life. As a result, he changed from whispering to howling.

Claire Wilson Wilson was also depressed by the situation before him. She suddenly realized that she had never wanted to divorce her parents before, but the result of the two of them not divorcing must be the endless quarrel like today.

In this way, neither of them will be happy. If life is like this in the future, even I don't feel any light..

At this time, she suddenly received Loreen's WeChat message, which read: "Claire Wilson Wilson, I just went to Thompson First. Before I even entered, I heard uncles and aunts arguing. The quarrel seemed to be quite fierce. Would you like to go back and take a look? Look?"

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly said, "I have already returned."

Loreen said again: "That's good. By the way, I'd better stay in the hotel these days, otherwise it would be too embarrassing."

Claire Wilson Wilson was also very sorry.

Originally, it was to let a good girlfriend live in her own home, so that she would not stay in the hotel alone.

But who would have thought that when she had just moved here, her father would entertain her first love at home.

He had just treated his first love, and his mother had disappeared again. Now my mother has finally found it back, and the two of them will start fighting when they get home. If they change to be her, I am afraid they will hide far away...

Thinking of this, she had to sigh and micro-channel Loreen back: "I'm sorry Loreen, you can come back when the family affairs are almost done."

Loreen said hurriedly: "You don't need to worry about me for now, and take care of family affairs."

In fact, Loreen had always envied Claire Wilson Wilson before, after all, she could find a good man like Charlie Wade.

But now, she suddenly wasn't so envious.

Because her family is really weird, if you let yourself live in such a family atmosphere, I'm afraid it would collapse long ago.

At this time, Jacob Wilson had already cried and went back to the room.

Elaine Ma saw that he had escaped, and lost the interest in continuing to behave. He said triumphantly: "Oh, I'm going to take a good bath in my big bathtub. I slept in Thompson First! Hahaha!"

Seeing his parents went back to their respective rooms, Claire Wilson Wilson said to Charlie Wade frustratedly: "Hey, I'm really tired, and my head hurts to death. I also go back to the room to take a bath, otherwise I really will collapse... .."

Charlie Wade thought that he was going to be promoted to one level tonight, and hurriedly followed with a smiley face...

Chapter 1001

Seeing that Claire Wilson Wilson went to the bathroom of the bedroom to take a shower, Charlie Wade went to the guest bathroom on the same floor to take a shower.

This is good for living in a villa. There are so many bathrooms, so there is no need to line up.

Charlie Wade took a bath faster, and when Claire Wilson Wilson came out of the bathroom, he had already finished the bath and was lying on the bed.

Claire Wilson Wilson saw Charlie Wade, who was wearing a vest and shorts, lying on his back on the bed. She was surprised for a moment before blurting out, "Why did you sleep on the bed?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Wife, didn't you say it was done earlier, should I be promoted? Some time ago, my mom went to engage in MLM, which delayed my promotion. Now that she is back, you can't stop me from being promoted. Right?"

"I..." Claire Wilson Wilson was suddenly embarrassed.

She didn't know how to answer Charlie Wade's question.

Indeed, I had promised him that he would be promoted to a higher level without having to sleep on the floor.

But she and Charlie Wade had never been so close.

I really didn't have the psychological preparation for this.

However, the words came back again.

During this period of time, Claire Wilson Wilson's favor with Charlie Wade has been rapidly heating up.

Especially today, seeing Charlie Wade hit Jeff, seeing Charlie Wade donating 1 million to the orphanage, seeing Charlie Wade solve the job for a good brother, and let him go to the pinnacle of life..

Charlie Wade tonight is like an omnipotent male god in her eyes.

Sometimes, I feel very heart-warming. That may be the feeling of love. Thinking of this, her face immediately turned red, and against the dim light of the bedroom, she looked even more charming.

Charlie Wade looked at her shame, and his heart was full of love.

This is my beloved wife, like a ray of sunshine in my life, warming my heart.

Claire Wilson Wilson looked at Charlie Wade with red eyes, and after a while, he said shyly: "You can upgrade to one level, but you can only upgrade to one level!"

Charlie Wade hurriedly asked: "My wife, what do you mean by this? What does it mean to only be promoted to one level?"

Claire Wilson Wilson said: "From today you will sleep on the bed, but this bed is divided into two, male left and female right. Without my permission, you must not cross the boundary, otherwise you will be downgraded to one level."

Charlie Wade said with a sad face, "Wife, what does it mean to drop one level?"

Claire Wilson Wilson glanced at him for nothing, and said, "You know what it means to be promoted. Don't you know what it means to be lowered?"

Charlie Wade asked depressed, "Should I go back to sleep on the floor if I drop one level?"

"Yes!" Claire Wilson Wilson said triumphantly: "If you do not behave well, you will drop one level to sleep on the floor. If you do not perform well, you will drop one level to sleep in the guest room. Anyway, our villa has a lot of rooms. Yes."

Charlie Wade was about to cry and said, "Wife, can you tell me what the next level is? When can I go up to the next level?"

Claire Wilson Wilson blushed with a pretty face, and said, "What is the next level will be kept secret for now. As for when we can go up to the next level, you have to wait for notification from the superior."

With that said, Claire Wilson Wilson patted his chest again, and said grinning: "I am your superior, and all interpretation rights belong to me."

Charlie Wade was very depressed, and said, "My wife, you must have heard what Mrs. Lewis said today. Mrs. Lewis is really looking forward to having a baby soon. We can't live up to Mrs. Lewis's wish!"

"Don't come here!" Claire Wilson Wilson stomped with embarrassment: "Who is going to give birth to you? Whoever wants to have a baby with you, you will find someone to give birth to, anyway, I don't have a baby."

Chapter 1002

Charlie Wade said helplessly: "There is no child between these two people. We are both normal people, and we are not infertile. It is a joke to always have no children, just in case you think you are not fertile. , Don't you want to look down on you."

Claire Wilson Wilson curled her lips and said, "Then when someone asks me, I will tell them that you have no fertility. Isn't that all right?"

Having said that, Claire Wilson Wilson said again: "Besides, you know that you have just reached the second level now. Do you know how many levels you have a child?"

Charlie Wade said immediately: "It must be the third level!"

Claire Wilson Wilson hummed: "You want to be beautiful!"

After all, Claire Wilson Wilson picked up his quilt from the floor, threw it on top of him, and said, "One person, one quilt, you are not allowed to cross the boundary! Hands, feet, body, hair, nowhere. If you cross the boundary, you will be downgraded!"

Charlie Wade could only say helplessly: "Well, well, I know, I must not cross the boundary, is this not enough?"

Claire Wilson Wilson smiled shyly and said: "This is pretty much the same."

After speaking, she opened her quilt, turned her back to Charlie Wade, and lay on the bed.

As soon as Claire Wilson Wilson got into bed, she got into the bed and wrapped himself tightly, blushing as if she was about to bleed, glanced at Charlie Wade, and quickly turned her head over.

At this moment, Charlie Wade wanted to hug her and give her a kiss. However, since the respect and respect for such a long time have come, why should I be anxious and disobey her?

In any case, I have been promoted to one level, and being able to lie on the same bed with her is a huge improvement. In the days to come, I will perform well, and I will be able to reach another level.

Maybe when you get to the next level, two people can sleep in one bed.

Thinking of this, he felt a lot of joy suddenly.

Claire Wilson Wilson dared not look at him, reached out his hand to turn off the light, and said, "It's getting late, go to bed."

After the light was turned off, the bedroom was dark, and I couldn't see my fingers. I was so quiet that I could hear clearly as if a needle fell on the ground.

Charlie Wade could clearly hear Claire Wilson Wilson's breathing, and her breathing was a bit rapid. It seemed that she should be very nervous at this time.

If Claire Wilson Wilson usually falls asleep, her breathing is very even and gentle.

So Charlie Wade asked her: "Wife, are you still up?"

Claire Wilson Wilson asked, "What's wrong?"

Charlie Wade was also a little nervous, and hurriedly said, "It's nothing, I just want to chat with you."

Claire Wilson Wilson said, "What do you want to talk about? Tell me."

Charlie Wade smiled, turned his head to look at Claire Wilson Wilson's outline, and asked: "My wife, how is your company running recently?"

Claire Wilson Wilson said: "It's not bad. Emgrand Group and several other companies have given some orders. I am designing them one by one and looking for people to construct them one by one. Now the overall situation has improved and the company's account has already The payment of several million is only an advance payment. If I finish the current projects, the payment should exceed 10 million."

Charlie Wade was surprised and said, "Wow, my wife, you are amazing. How long has it been since I have made 10 million into the account!"

Claire Wilson Wilson said: "10 million is just an account, and the actual profit is only about 2 million. This 2 million is not as much as you can earn by showing others a feng shui."

With that, Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly said to Charlie Wade: "By the way, you should never tell your mom about the numbers that you just told you. If mom knows that the company has millions in the account, she will definitely get the Wrong idea!"

Charlie Wade hurriedly asked: "My wife, I listen to you, and I will never say a word to your mother!"

After speaking, Charlie Wade asked again: "Wife, you see that I have performed so well, can you raise me to the next level now?"

Chapter 1003

Charlie Wade felt nervous after asking this question.

He didn't know what kind of reply Claire Wilson Wilson would give him. At this moment, he suddenly felt an object hit his face. The next moment, he felt the object, which was the little bear that Claire Wilson Wilson usually hugged to sleep.

At this time, I heard Claire Wilson Wilson say in my ear: "You are so greedy, you usually play mobile games, the more difficult it is to upgrade, how can it be so simple?"

Charlie Wade said aggrievedly: "My wife, the upgrade of mobile games is fast now, and you can upgrade to level 80 with a single cut!"

Claire Wilson Wilson pretended to be a customer service of a certain treasure, and said, "I'm sorry, dear, this kind of upgrade is not available in our family. I suggest you consider trying other games."

Charlie Wade hurriedly said: "No, no, no, I don't want to try other games, I just want to ask if we can give us a quick way to upgrade this game?"

Claire Wilson Wilson smiled and said, "I'm sorry, dear, we don't have any shortcuts for the time being."

"Okay!" Charlie Wade sighed and said, "I will continue to work hard."

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded in satisfaction and said: "In this case, the customer service side is about to get off work now. If you have any questions, please come back tomorrow morning."

Seeing her playful, Charlie Wade hurriedly said: "Okay, let's talk about it tomorrow morning."

Claire Wilson Wilson said again: "Then please don't hang up. After a beep, I will comment on my service. 1 is very satisfied, 2 is satisfied, and 3 is not satisfied."

Charlie Wade said: "4!"

Claire Wilson Wilson said: "I'm sorry, the input was wrong, please re-enter."

Charlie Wade said: "Yes, 4 is very unsatisfactory!"

Claire Wilson Wilson grunted and said, "Congratulations for activating the hidden random treasure chest in the game. You will get a random gift. To open the treasure chest, press 1, and to give up the treasure chest, press 2."

Charlie Wade blurted out: "1!"

Claire Wilson Wilson imitated the sound of the lottery turntable and squeaked it around for a while before saying, "Congratulations on getting a random gift and drop one level! The gift will take effect immediately!"

Charlie Wade yelled in shock: "Stop, stop, I don't want this gift!"

Claire Wilson Wilson giggled and said, "Dear, hide the random treasure chest. Once opened, it cannot be returned!"

Charlie Wade said: "I want to appeal! I just pressed the wrong one, I want to press 2!"

Claire Wilson Wilson laughed for a while, and then said, "Dear, the system has received your appeal. We will process your appeal within two days. The result of the appeal will be fed back to you at that time, but before the feedback result comes out, You still need to accept a random punishment of downgrading one level in place."

Charlie Wade said: "I am an old customer of our game, can you give me a face? This time I will be free from punishment!"

Claire Wilson Wilson thought for a while, and then said, "Dear, since you are indeed our loyal customer, we decided after discussion and give you a chance to choose again."

After that, she cleared her throat and said, "Please press 1 to open the treasure chest, press 2 to give up the treasure chest."

Charlie Wade can only say: "2! I choose 2!"

Claire Wilson Wilson said: "It's a pity that you missed the random gift in the hidden random treasure chest this time. What else can I help you?"

Charlie Wade sighed, "Nothing, no more, I'm going to continue leveling."

Chapter 1004

Claire Wilson Wilson said: "Then please don't hang up. After a beep, I will comment on my service. 1 is very satisfied, 2 is satisfied, and 3 is not satisfied."

Charlie Wade wailed: "1! Very satisfied!"

Claire Wilson Wilson said with satisfaction: "Thank you for your comments. That's all for today's connection. See you next time."

.....

This night, Charlie Wade slept very unsteadily.

Although I have only been promoted by one level, this is the first time I have been in bed with Claire Wilson Wilson since I have been married to Claire Wilson Wilson.

Of course, although the same bed is the same, there is no chance to sleep together. Two people use their own pillows and sleep on their own quilts. Charlie Wade really didn't dare to cross the middle line, otherwise he would really have to drop one level on the spot, wouldn't it be because he didn't cry without tears?

Claire Wilson Wilson actually didn't fall asleep for a long time, and she felt very nervous in her heart.

Although she and Charlie Wade slept in their own blankets and didn't have any skin-to-skin contact, she still felt that her heartbeat was very fast.

Well, this is after all the first time she shared a bed with a man since she shared a room with her parents when she was young.

It's strange that I don't feel nervous.

In this way, the two people suffered from insomnia for a long time before going to sleep one after another.

Early the next morning, Charlie Wade opened his eyes, Claire Wilson Wilson beside him was gone.

Hearing the sound of the shower coming from the bathroom, Charlie Wade knew that Claire Wilson Wilson was taking a shower.

Claire Wilson Wilson is a girl who loves cleanliness, and basically takes a bath every morning and evening, and Charlie Wade has already been surprised.

He stretched and was about to get up when the phone under his pillow suddenly buzzed.

He took out his cell phone and found that it was actually a call from Lisa.

After answering the call, Lisa's anxious voice came from over there:

"Brother Charlie Wade, there is an accident in the orphanage!"

Charlie Wade hurriedly asked, "What's going on?! What happened to the welfare institution? Don't worry about it slowly."

Lisa choked up and said, "Ten children were lost! Suspected they were stolen!"

"What?!" Charlie Wade was both anxious and angry when he heard that the child in the welfare home would be stolen. He hurriedly asked: "Lisa, tell me specifically, what is going on?"

Lisa hurriedly said: "This morning, the aunt in charge of infants and young children in the day shift went to work with the aunt in the night shift, and found that the aunt in the night shift was sleeping unconsciously. All the ten children in one room were gone. People were given a strong anaesthetic!"

Charlie Wade was furious, and he scolded: "Someone is too bold to do it, even the children of the orphanage dare to steal it?!"

Lisa cried and said: "This kind of thing happened before, but we discovered it in time before. Now human traffickers are particularly rampant. Not only do they dare to steal from the orphanage, they also dare to steal from the hospital, and steal from people's homes. He even robbed other people's children on the street!"

After speaking, Lisa said again: "The main reason is that this business is too profitable for them. Any child can sell for about 100,000 Dollar. If it is the kind of beautiful child, these rich people cannot give birth. Children who are even willing to pay a high price..."

Charlie Wade hurriedly asked, "What's the situation now? Did you call the police?"

Lisa hurriedly said: "Mrs. Lewis and the dean have called the police a long time ago, and the case has been opened for investigation, but the police said that they speculated that the night shift aunt was anesthetized at around 3 in the morning, that is, they stole the child. Four hours have passed now, and they may have left Aurouss Hill or even the province in these four hours!"

Chapter 1005

At this moment, Charlie Wade was very angry.

He did not expect that a human trafficker would be so bold and hit his idea on the children of the orphanage.

Thinking of these children, among them, they might be sold to unscrupulous beggars, or even turned into disabled by them, Charlie Wade wanted to smash the corpses of these traffickers.

So he immediately said to Lisa: "Lisa, where are you now? Are you in the orphanage?"

"Yes!" Lisa said, "I just came back from the police station, Mrs. Lewis and the others are still there."

"Okay." Charlie Wade said immediately: "You are waiting for me in the orphanage, I will pass now!"

After speaking, he hung up the phone, ignored his wife, and hurried out. Coming to the first floor, Elaine Ma, wearing a big red pajamas, urged impatiently: "Charlie Wade, hurry up and cook, I am starving to death." Charlie Wade frowned, and said in disgust: "If you want to eat, you can cook it yourself."

Elaine Ma gritted his teeth and cursed: "Oh! You are amazing now, have you become more capable?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "If I can get such a big villa, then I can count you as capable!"

When Elaine Ma heard this, her face suddenly changed: "Charlie Wade, what do you mean by this? Do you think the villa you got is amazing? You started to shake my face with me?"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "Yes, when I lived in your house before, what was your attitude towards me? I hope you will reflect on it now. Maybe after a while, I will treat you like you did to me. "

"You..." Elaine Ma's arrogance disappeared by 80% at once, and she really realized that Charlie Wade was different from before.

Now I don't have much to judge him. I used to say that he eats my own home and lives in my own home, but now it seems that everything is the other way around.

At this time, Jacob Wilson also came out of the elevator, and when he saw Charlie Wade as if he was going out, he asked: "Charlie Wade, where are you going?"

Charlie Wade said: "I'm going to the orphanage, something is wrong."

Jacob Wilson hurriedly said, "It just so happens that I have to go to the Calligraphy and Painting Association to do something, I'll drive you."

Charlie Wade nodded: "Good dad."

Elaine Ma said angrily: "Jacob Wilson, you are not allowed to go! Make breakfast for me!"

Jacob Wilson glanced at her disgustedly: "If you want to make it yourself, don't eat it if you don't do it!"

After speaking, he didn't talk to her anymore.

Jacob Wilson and son-in-law walked out, Elaine Ma gritted his teeth with anger behind.

Now the two men in the family ignore themselves, and their majesty in this family no longer exists.

Especially that Jacob Wilson, who was so ambitious yesterday that he wanted to divorce himself.

This dog has been married to himself for more than 20 years, and he didn't dare to yell at himself like that. There must be something strange about this matter, so I have to find a way to investigate it.

At this moment, Charlie Wade and the old man Jacob Wilson came to the garage, Jacob Wilson sat in his BMW car and drove Charlie Wade out.

As soon as the car left the house, Jacob Wilson couldn't wait to ask: "Charlie Wade, you usually have a lot of ideas. If you give your dad an idea, how can you divorce your mother's b*tch?"

Charlie Wade said, "Didn't Mom say it yesterday? If you want to get a divorce, you have to live apart for at least two years."

Chapter 1006

Jacob Wilson said impatiently: "Two years are too long. That b*tch still doesn't know that your Matilda is back, but this matter must not be hidden for too long. My thought is that before she knows that your Matilda is back, Divorce her first."

Speaking of this, Jacob Wilson was a little depressed and said, "But, you heard what the shrew said yesterday. She said that if I find another woman, she will not let me get better, I'm afraid he will know you Auntie Matilda. I'm going to trouble your Auntie Matilda. Your Auntie Matilda is quiet and dignified, and has a good temper. How could she be the opponent of that shrew."

Charlie Wade said: "Dad, I really want to help you with this matter, but I am also helpless. You still have to solve this problem yourself for some things."

In fact, Charlie Wade really wanted to let Elaine Ma evaporate directly from the world. He had this idea the last time this woman stole his bank card.

It's a pity that he couldn't bear Claire Wilson Wilson being sad, otherwise, he would never let Elaine Ma back!

If he doesn't let Elaine Ma come back, then the old man's current life will be extremely enjoyable.

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade said again: "Dad, it's not that I said you. Your biggest problem is that you are too weak and too scared of her. She only has to say a few words, and you don't know what to do. People can help you solve this problem. If you want to solve this problem, you can only rely on yourself."

Jacob Wilson sighed and said, "I understand what you said, but some things will form a psychological shadow, and it is difficult for you to overcome in your heart."

Charlie Wade said: "Then I can't help, Dad, Matilda finally came back. If I let her know, she will probably fight Matilda to get rid of Aurouss Hilll. She will never give up unless Matilda is driven out of Aurouss Hilll. At that time, you have to think about what to do."

When Jacob Wilson heard this, he snorted in his heart.

What he fears most is the occurrence of this scene.

If Elaine Ma really knew that Matilda was back, she would definitely go to trouble Matilda, and she would never die!

Jacob Wilson had to sigh: "Think about it. Try to think of a solution."

.....

Jacob Wilson sent Charlie Wade to the orphanage, and he went to the Calligraphy and Painting Association to hold an appreciation meeting with others.

When Charlie Wade got out of the car, he saw Lisa just waiting at the door. The little girl ran to herself when she saw that she was coming. "Brother Charlie Wade!" Lisa cried out with a choked voice, then plunged into Charlie Wade's arms, crying and said: "Brother Charlie Wade, think of a solution quickly, I'm really afraid that those younger brothers and sisters will never again I can't find it..."

Charlie Wade patted her back lightly and said seriously: "Don't worry, I will definitely go all out. Is Mrs. Lewis back now? Are there any new clues?"

Lisa shook his head with red eyes and said, "Mrs. Lewis and the others haven't come back. I don't know if there is any progress."

As he was talking, a taxi stopped at the entrance of the orphanage.

Mrs. Lewis and the director of the orphanage walked out of the taxi.

Charlie Wade hurriedly pulled Lisa to greet him, and asked, "Mrs. Lewis, what did the police say, is there any clue?"

Seeing Charlie Wade's arrival, Mrs. Lewis smiled bitterly, and said: "The police station has opened a case. They are starting from the monitor, but the only clue that can be found now is that they are driving a white Ivek and committing a crime. There should be six or seven of the elements. After they fainted the child, they all got in the car and were out of the city."

Charlie Wade asked hurriedly, "Has the police station started tracking this car?"

"Chased." Mrs. Lewis sighed, and said: "Their car had a license plate, and it disappeared on the high-speed. It is seriously suspected that they have changed other brands on the high-speed. The kind of Iveco itself is our Aurouss Hilll. The models are very common, and there is no license plate number, so it is difficult to find them."

Charlie Wade nodded solemnly.

Under this circumstance, it may be difficult to achieve results in a short period of time by relying on the police department's method of handling cases.

If you want to find criminals in the shortest time, or find information related to criminals, you must find the kind of people who have the underground world and have great abilities.

They have a large number of eyeliners in all walks of life, so their intelligence is more in-depth than the police!

Chapter 1007

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade called Don Albertt.

After all, Don Albertt is the underground emperor of Aurouss Hilll, and his eyeliner is much more than ordinary people.

As soon as the call was connected, Don Albertt asked respectfully:

"Master Wade, what do you want?"

Charlie Wade said: "There are 10 two or three-year-old children in the Aurouss Hilll Welfare Institute. They were stolen by traffickers last night. You have been underground in Aurouss Hilll for a long time. Please help me to investigate if anyone has recently made noise about buying children. Or is anyone inquiring about the child everywhere?"

Many cases can be solved, not necessarily because of the supernatural powers of the investigators, or what kind of high-tech assistance they have, but because the criminals left key clues in his unique group.

For example, if a person is killed, the police will start by confirming the identity of the corpse. But people in the arena know who the person has offended and what kind of things he has been involved in. The probability is that Who killed it.

For another example, if someone loses a car in the local area, if they report to the police, the police usually investigate where the car has been. Where did it disappear? Surveillance video shows who has been in contact with this car during this time?

But if you directly ask the people in the underground world, who are the local people who steal the car, or who are the local people who are responsible for selling stolen goods, whoever has seen the car lost is basically accurate.

But the key is that the underground world has very clear rules and rules. Even if an insider wants to get certain information, his ability and status must match this information.

Otherwise, it is impossible to inquire about anything.

For example, a small gangster wants to know what kind of business Don Albertt is doing recently, who he has eaten with, and who he has met. It is basically impossible to inquire.

But if Don Albertt wants to know what a gangster is up to lately and who he has frequent contact with, his captains will help him find out with just one sentence.

Don Albertt knew that Charlie Wade had always lived in the orphanage from childhood to adolescence, so he also knew that the children of the orphanage were stolen, Charlie Wade must be very angry.

So he immediately proceeded to investigate.

Ten minutes later, a clue was fed back to Don Albertt.

There is a kid named Ron Richie in Aurouss Hilll. Some time ago, while having a meal with friends on the road, he asked where Aurouss Hilll could buy children.

Charlie Wade hurriedly asked him: "What is the origin of this Ron Richie?"

Don Albertt said: "This kid is a native of Aurouss Hilll. He has been stealing chickens and dogs since he was young, and his family is also making a living. When he was not an adult, he participated in many illegal and criminal activities. Money, this kid does everything."

"A few years ago, this kid and his family made some money by pirating movies. They sneaked into the movie theater with a video camera to secretly take pictures of other movies being shown, and then carved them into pirated CDs and sold them out. During that period of time, it was very busy."

"As a result, a big man invested in a big-produced movie, which was stolen by this kid as soon as it was released. Then the big man asked someone to chop off the kid's hand. From then on, the kid didn't dare to pirate the movie. , The family changed their careers and became a snakehead, just reselling the population."

"His family specializes in reselling underage children, usually to gangs in the south. Sometimes they also rent out a group of underage children to gangs. Some time ago, I heard that the police targeted those underage gangs controlled by the beggars. Adult children have carried out a special rescue operation and rescued a large number of children, so now the beggars have been asking for children everywhere, and he is specifically looking for children for the beggars."

Charlie Wade asked coldly: "This kid and his family are doing this business?!"

"Yes!" Don Albertt said: "A family of six, his father, his mother, his two brothers and one sister, all do this kind of business."

Charlie Wade gritted his teeth and said: "This kind of garbage is really damn!"

After that, he asked again: "Don Albertt, do you know where this kid is now? I want to know all his movements in the past two days!"

Don Albertt said: "I'm making inquiries, and there must be clues soon!"
Chapter 1008

Charlie Wade snorted and said: "If you have any clues, you must tell me the first time!"

Don Albertt respectfully said: "Okay, Master Wade, I see!"

Charlie Wade hung up the phone, turned back to Mrs. Lewis and Lisa, and said: "Mrs. Lewis and Lisa, don't worry about the two of you. I have asked friends to help me find out that he is quite energetic. I I see some clues will come back soon."

Mrs. Lewis said with a red eye: "Charlie Wade, thank you very much!"

Charlie Wade hurriedly said: "Mrs. Lewis, what are you talking about? I also came out of the orphanage. Now that the younger siblings in the orphanage are lost, I will definitely try my best to find them back!"

Lisa choked up and said: "Brother Charlie Wade, you donated so much money yesterday. On the way back, Mrs. Lewis also said that we are going to add a set of monitoring equipment to the entire orphanage. I didn't expect it to be today..."

Having said that, Lisa couldn't help it all at once, and started crying again.

Charlie Wade knows Mrs. Lewis and Lisa very well. Most of the people working in the orphanage are very kind, and they take care of these children without parents as their own children, and regard themselves as the parents of these orphans.

Now the welfare home has lost 10 children at once, which is naturally a huge blow to them.

Charlie Wade was about to speak to comfort them, when Don Albertt called. He hurriedly connected.

I heard Don Albertt say on the other end of the phone: "Master Wade, I have already asked someone to find out. Ron Richie temporarily found a friend on the road last night and borrowed a deck of Iveco. Come out, there will be no fall in the early morning."

"Borrowed an Iveco?!" Charlie Wade raised his eyebrows, and said coldly: "The kid who stole the kid also drove an Iveco. I guess this guy and his family did it!"

Don Albertt immediately said: "Master Wade, or provide this kid's phone number to the police now and let the police locate and arrest people based on his phone number!"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "No! This kind of scum who specializes in poisoning children is too cheap for them to go to jail! I want them to die!"

Don Albertt suddenly shuddered and blurted out: "Master, if there is any need, Don Albertt will make him die!"

Charlie Wade asked: "Can you locate that kid based on his phone number?"

Don Albertt said: "No problem, I have someone on Verizon, and can investigate his real-time location information!"

Charlie Wade said: "Okay! Now you help me figure out the position!"

Don Albertt said immediately: "Master Wade, give me five minutes!" "it is good!"

Charlie Wade hung up the phone, immediately called Cameron Isaac again, and asked: "How many helicopters can Aurouss Hilll currently mobilize? How many people can each be carried?"

Cameron Isaac said: "Master, Shangri-La has two heavy helicopters, each of which can take 12 people. There is a general aviation company invested by the Wade's at the airport, and there are three medium-sized helicopters, each of which can take eight people!"

Charlie Wade snorted and said, "Get all the helicopters ready and bring your best manpower. Besides, you can let one of the helicopters pick me up near the Aurouss Hilll Welfare Institute now!"

Cameron Isaac hurriedly asked: "Master, what are you going to do?"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "I want to walk for the sky!"

Chapter 1009

When Cameron Isaac heard Charlie Wade's tone, he knew Charlie Wade must be angry.

So, he almost didn't even think about it, and immediately said: "Master, I will arrange it now!"

After that, he hurriedly asked: "By the way, Master, I will take a helicopter to pick you up right now. Do I go directly to the Aurouss Hilll Welfare Institute?"

Charlie Wade didn't want people to know how much energy he had, so he asked, "Is there any place suitable for helicopter landing near the orphanage?"

Cameron Isaac thought for a while and said, "There seems to be a building nearby called Cloud Building. There is a helipad on the top of the building. Or you can go there now, I will also set off now, and I will be there soon!"

"Okay!" Charlie Wade said immediately: "Then you go faster."

"I know Master!"

After hanging up the phone, Charlie Wade said to Mrs. Lewis and the others: "Mrs. Lewis, Lisa, I have a friend who may help me find some clues. I will go and find him now. Please wait patiently for my news, don't worry."

Lisa hurriedly said, "Brother Charlie Wade, I want to go with you, okay?"

Charlie Wade said: "Lisa, you can stay here with Mrs. Lewis, just leave this to me."

Only then did Lisa nod her head, and said obediently: "Good Brother Charlie Wade, and Mrs. Lewis are here waiting for your good news, you must get your brothers and sisters back!"

Charlie Wade resolutely said: "Don't worry, I will bring them back safely!"

After all, he immediately left the orphanage and went to the nearby Cloud Building.

.....

At the same time, the police issued a detective report to the whole society through various media. Suddenly, the fact that ten babies in the welfare home were stolen by human traffickers was quickly spread to the Internet and the entire Internet.

On many news platforms, this information has been topped the top search list.

Facebook was also pushed on the screen, letting people across the country see this news.

In the past, a news about kidnapping on the street would be paid attention to by people all over the country, and even hit various headlines.

And now there are some traffickers who are bold enough to steal children from the orphanage! And one steal is 10!

This is simply unheard of animal behavior! Let everyone smell it with extreme indignation!

For a time, countless netizens across the country were filled with outrage, scolding, scolding, commenting, and forwarding on the Internet, and the search volume has been high!

You must know that in recent years, human traffickers have become too rampant. I don't know how many families have broken their homes because their children were stolen or abducted by human traffickers.

In any family, children are the treasures in the hearts of parents. If this baby is stolen, abducted and bought, the parents will even lose the hope and motivation to live!

Chapter 1010

Countless happy families have been completely destroyed because of this gang of human abductors!

The most hateful thing is that after these traffickers abduct the children, it would be better to sell them to normal families who want children, at least the children's lives will not be too threatened.

But if these godsend beasts deliberately disabled the child and used it to beg for money, wouldn't the child's life be completely ruined? !

Therefore, at this moment, the hearts of the people across the country are closely concerned about these 10 children who were trafficked.

At this time, Charlie Wade just wanted to save the children as soon as possible! When he reached the top floor of the building, a helicopter had roared from the sky far away.

At this time, Don Albertt also sent an address to his WeChat, telling him: "Master Wade, that Ron Richie is now out of the province, but their cars are afraid to go high speeds, they are all down the road, so now Drive less than 400 kilometers."

Charlie Wade checked the address and found that the other party was heading south with the child from the orphanage, and was now in Marion County, next door.

At this time, the helicopter slowly descended from the top of Cloud Building, but before it touched the ground, Cameron Isaac had already opened the door. Charlie Wade jumped up and said directly to him: "Let the pilot take off immediately and go to the Arcadia Province at full speed. Let the other helicopters head in the same direction!"

"Good young master!" Cameron Isaac immediately informed the pilot of the specific location through the earmuff intercom.

Afterwards, Cameron Isaac asked Charlie Wade: "Master, please forgive me. You are suddenly so anxious. What's the matter?"

Charlie Wade said with a black face, "This morning, a family of six traffickers stole 10 children from the orphanage!"

"f*ck!" Cameron Isaac suddenly exclaimed: "What kind of bastards are this family, and they also do such sorrowful things!"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "Among the three words "knock and abduction", what I hate the most is abduction. When I was a child, I grew up in an orphanage and I saw many children who were rescued after being abducted. There are too many children, and every child has sold several hands. Even if the police rescued many children, it would be difficult for them to find their families, so they became orphans who were not orphans."

Cameron Isaac said immediately: "Master, don't worry, I brought my best men and horses this time. Everyone is a good soldier and strong general. After catching them, they will surely crush their bastards!"

Charlie Wade said: "Not only do I want to smash them into pieces, but I also want to smash them all up and down, their accomplices, and colleagues!"

After all, Charlie Wade asked, "Does the Wade family have power in Arcadia Province?"

Cameron Isaac nodded and said: "The family's influence in Arcadia Province is also very strong, but the family has always been relatively low-key. Just like I was in Aurouss Hilll, I generally do not participate in the management of disputes between local rich, families and gangs. If the locals do not follow the rules, then I can move them anytime, anywhere."

Charlie Wade suddenly remembered something and asked: "The Webb family's base camp is in Southaven. Southaven is the capital of Arcadia Province. They must be the local snakes of Arcadia Province, right?"

"Yes." Cameron Isaac said: "The Webb family is the largest family in the south of the Yangtze River. They have cultivated Southaven and Lancaster for many years, so their strength in Arcadia Province is really extraordinary."

After finishing speaking, Cameron Isaac added: "However, this is extraordinary for ordinary people. To the Wade family, they are just little friends."

Charlie Wade nodded, his face gloomy.

Cameron Isaac thought of the Webb family, and said, "Master, the Webb family was looking for your enemy some time ago. You must pay attention to this matter. Since you don't need your family to help you, then do you need me to send you some bodyguards to protect your safety at all times?" Charlie Wade waved his hand slightly, his heart was full of disdain for the Webb family, Cameron Isaac still didn't know his strength, judging from his current strength, no one could hurt him at all.

Chapter 1011

At this moment, on the Iveco deck, the seven adults in the car did not even know that a net of heaven and earth had already covered them. In addition to these seven adults, there are ten sleeping children in the car. These children have been given sleeping pills in the early morning and have not yet woken up.

In the co-pilot, there was a young man without a right hand. This young man was Ron Richie.

At this time, Ron looked excited and said to his elder brother who was driving: "Brother, if this transaction is completed, it will be a million in cash!"

His brother asked in surprise: "Are children so expensive now? Didn't you say that they only cost tens of thousands of dollars?"

Ron said: "Isn't there a wave of blows some time ago, the Beggars of Arcadia Province are now in shortage of children, so the price has risen."

His brother smiled and said, "Then let's post this time!"

Ron nodded and said cheerfully: "When this transaction is completed, our family will find a place for vacation."

Inside Iveco's spacious carriage, Ron's mother said with a smile: "Oh, this wave of money is over, I really want to go abroad for a while, the daughter-in-law of a sister next door, went to Thailand some time ago. When I went there, I used to swipe my friends circle all day long, and after I came back, I still had a lot of fun with me. This time when we get the money, let's go too!"

Ron laughed and said: "What's so fun about Thailand? Thailand is where the poor go. It costs two or three thousand Dollar to play with a tour group. If we want to go, we will go to a high-end place."

"High-end place?" Ron's mother asked excitedly: "Good son, you can tell me something is more advanced. Mom has never seen anything in the world, so I can't think of it for a while."

Ron blurted out: "Of course I went to the Maldives, that's a good place for the really rich to go on vacation!"

Ron's sister applauded happily: "Maldives? Great, I've long wanted to go to Maldives, I've been thinking about it for a long time!"

Then, she said again: "I'm going to the Maldives to live in that kind of water villa, luxurious to death! It must be so cool to live!"

Ron smiled and said, "Sister, when we get the money, we'll buy a plane ticket immediately!"

A family of six began to look forward to the upcoming trip to the Maldives in their hearts.

Ron turned around and looked at the man sitting in the back rows.

This man was also the seventh adult in the car besides Ron's family of six.

Ron looked at the seventh person and said with a smile: "Hey, Jeff, you can divide 400,000 Dollar this time with the money. Have you thought about what to do after you get the money?"

Jeff ignored him because Jeff was very depressed at this time. Last night, after he returned home from William's company dormitory, a few young and Dangerous boys came to his door with knives. The young and Dangerous boys knocked on his door, put the knife on his neck, and warned him that he must send the compensation to Caesar Phaeton as soon as possible, otherwise, he would be killed directly.

Jeff was so frightened.

He found a friend who was a second-hand car and evaluated his car and the Phaeton, and found that even if he used all the insurance costs, he still had a funding gap of more than 1 million.

And his Mercedes-Benz, because it has had an accident, can only sell for about 300,000.

Even if I sell the Mercedes-Benz myself, there is still a funding gap of more than 900,000 Dollar.

William solved 620,000 for him, but he still missed 300,000.

Chapter 1012

In desperation, he could only find Ron, a fox friend and dog friend he had known before. Originally, he wanted to borrow 300,000 Dollar from him for emergency assistance, but Ron was also short of money during this time.

Ron complained to him that the police have been working too hard in cracking down on human trafficking recently, and a family of six is almost out of food.

Ron also told him that he is now looking for suitable children everywhere to sell to the south. Now the price is high. If you find resources, you can make a lot of money.

When Jeff thought that there were a lot of infants and young children in the orphanage recently, he immediately got ideas.

He told Ron of this information and suggested that the two parties cooperate to steal a group of children from the orphanage and sell them. Ron was worried about where to find a child. When he heard that there were many orphanages, his heart was ecstatic, and his thoughts were suddenly moved.

Jeff knows well about the orphanage. He knows that the orphanage has many loopholes because of its disrepair due to years of disrepair, inadequate funding, insufficient staff, and inability to keep up with security facilities. As long as those familiar with the process can find a breakthrough.

So he immediately took the lead and worked out a more detailed plan.

As soon as Ron saw the feasibility of this sentence, he immediately brought in a family of six.

Jeff was very dissatisfied with the participation of Ron's family of six, because he knew that the reason why the other party called so many people was because he wanted to pay more.

If you only do this with Ron, the ten children will sell for more than 1 million by then, and each of the two will be able to divide between 60,000 and 70,000.

As a result, Ron brought in another five members of the family and immediately diluted his share.

This shameless Ron, who was shamelessly trying to divide his head evenly, would be divided into 7 parts, and he would only have 200,000 at most.

Jeff fought hard with Ron, and finally decided on a distribution method. Jeff got 400,000 Dollar, and the rest went to Ron's family.

Suddenly losing 300,000 Dollar of income, Jeff was naturally very depressed.

But he didn't have any good solutions, because if the other party had to leave him alone, he would be finished.

In desperation, he could only suffer from this dumb loss.

At this time, Ron looked at the map, and then at the time, and said: "We will be in Southaven soon. After we arrive, we will come to pick up the goods at the next house. We can rush back when we take the money. We should go back before dark. I can rush back."

Ron's sister said excitedly: "Oh, I just want to go to the Maldives as soon as possible!"

As she said, she took out her mobile phone and said, "I'm going to find videos and guides of Maldives on Facebook to see which island to go to have fun!"

Immediately, she turned on Facebook. Unexpectedly, the first screen video after opening was the news about the loss of children in the orphanage!

This news video has only been released for two or three hours, and it has more than 5 million likes and more than 300,000 comments.

She tightened her heart, and when she opened the comment, she was shocked.

Because all the comments in the comments demanded the execution of the trafficker, the killing of the trafficker's family, and so on!

She subconsciously said: "Oh, that's bad, this matter has already hit the headlines! It seems that people all over the country are paying attention to it! Are we doing something big?"

"What are you afraid of!" Ron said indifferently: "There is no substantial difference between stealing one and stealing ten. Besides, I'm careful along the way. No clues are left. No one can find us. It is impossible to doubt us!"

As he said, he said triumphantly: "You can rest assured! When you can't find us after a while, the attention of netizens will be immediately attracted by other news, and after a while, we will be forgotten. Up!"

Chapter 1013

Several helicopters merged in the outskirts of Aurouss Hillll, and they chased outside the province quickly, narrowing the distance with the target little by little.

The opponent's Iveco can only stop and go on the national road, and often encounters traffic lights or traffic jams, and the overall speed is simply not up.

The reason why Ron chose national roads instead of highways was mainly because the highways were closed roads. In case the police caught them, it would be difficult to fly by himself.

But national roads are different. National roads are all open roads and are connected to various township and county roads. It is very difficult for the police to block themselves.

And once there is any problem, you can abandon the car and run away at any time. The countryside, residential houses and even factory construction sites are all good places to hide!

Charlie Wade left enough opportunities for pursuit.

The helicopter is in the sky, without stopping, without any detours and congestion, and the flying speed exceeds 200 kilometers per hour.

After flying for more than an hour, Charlie Wade's location was only 100 kilometers away from the target.

Cameron Isaac said to Charlie Wade: "Master, their current average speed is only forty to fifty kilometers an hour, and they are expected to catch up with them in thirty minutes."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Could you please contact the local forces of the Wade family and ask them to help us seal the road ahead of time, and I will give them a urn to catch turtles."

Cameron Isaac immediately looked at the real-time location sent by Don Albertt and said: "There is a bridge across the river on the national highway in front. After they pass, I will seal the bridge to prevent other vehicles from getting on, and then wait for them. When they are about to cross the river, bet the other end too, so that they will not escape!"

Charlie Wade said with satisfaction: "This is a good idea, just do what you said!"

.....

Soon, the two truck convoys, full of muck, set off from the two real estate construction sites on both sides of the river.

The construction sites where they are located are all properties owned by a real estate development company under the Wade family.

Both teams were also arranged by Cameron Isaac.

Each fleet consists of more than 20 engineering trucks loaded with muck.

Any truck, when fully loaded, weighs forty to fifty tons.

A heavy tank is just this weight.

Such a car, just cross the road, no car can hit it.

What's more, there are more than 20 vehicles on each end, and even tanks will not be able to rush past.

Ron's elder brother drove to the bridge, Ron smiled and said: "After crossing this river-crossing bridge, we will almost reach Southaven!"

"Okay!" Ron's sister said happily: "If we get the money today, we can go to the Maldives tomorrow! I just researched it. The Maldives is a visa on arrival, so we don't need to apply for a visa in advance. We will buy a plane ticket and fly there tomorrow. That's it."

While driving, Ron's brother said in surprise: "Why are there so many big cars suddenly?"

Everyone looked out the window and saw heavy trucks full of muck on both sides.

Ron said casually: "Which construction site should be sent the materials, regardless of him, let's overtake it quickly."

Iveco quickly accelerated and surpassed the engineering fleet.

Immediately afterwards, the engineering convoy behind began to run several large vehicles in parallel, directly blocking the road behind, so that other vehicles behind could not pass.

When Iveco got on the bridge, the engineering convoy, which was advancing side by side, also drove onto the bridge.

However, as soon as the engineering convoy got on the bridge, it immediately stalled and blocked the entrance to the entire bridge, making it impossible for other vehicles to pass.

Chapter 1014

The driver behind was so angry and got out of the car to check what happened.

At this time, a person from the engineering team got on and off and shouted to the back with a loudspeaker: "We have just received a notice from the superior that this bridge has become a dangerous bridge, and there is a risk of collapse at any time. Now we need to hurry up and repair it for everyone. Your life is safe, please detour, thank you for your cooperation."

These drivers originally wanted to scold their mothers, but upon hearing this, they immediately dispelled the idea of scolding their mothers, and the unhappiness in their hearts disappeared.

With so many construction vehicles parked here, they don't doubt what the other side said.

Therefore, they are very fortunate now. Fortunately, they have been following behind the construction vehicles. If they are in front of the convoy, wouldn't they also drive on this dangerous bridge?

So everyone turned around and took a detour from other roads.

Ron's elder brother drove to the center of the bridge, glanced back through the rearview mirror for a while, and said puzzledly: "Why are there no cars behind?"

Ron glanced back, maybe it was blocked by those big cars, which were running slowly. "

"It's also possible." Ron's brother said, and stopped taking it seriously and continued to drive.

When I was about to cross the bridge, a few large cars suddenly poured in from both sides in front, completely blocking the road ahead!

Ron's elder brother was taken aback, and hurriedly stepped on the brakes, blurting out: "Damn, are these big car drivers crazy?"

The other people in the car staggered for a while because they had no time to react.

After the car stopped steadily, Ron was surprised to find that the road in front of the car had been completely blocked by several large cars, and there was no car behind.

In other words, the Iveco I was riding in was completely sealed on this bridge.

However, at this time he did not mean that he was imminent.

So he pushed the door down and shouted at the big car parked in front:

"Hey! What the hell are you guys doing? Get out of the way quickly!"

A burly man jumped down from one of the big cars and said coldly: "This bridge has been closed. From now on, no vehicles or people will pass by!"

Ron said angrily: "The cars in front have all passed by, but we have not passed. You have to close it and wait until we pass."

He didn't know, the reason for closing this bridge was to seal him on the bridge!

The burly man yelled: "Don't f*cking talk nonsense with me, I said, no vehicles or people should pass by, if you are not afraid of death, you can give it a try!"

With that said, more than 30 people wearing hard hats came at once, all of them sturdy and looking fierce.

There are only seven people in Ron's group. His mother and his sister are helpless women, his father is an old man, and he is a disabled person.

How could it be 30 in this case? Multiple opponents.

So he gritted his teeth and said: "Okay, then we can always turn around and change another way, right?"

With that, he got in the car again and said to the brother beside him:

"Let's turn around!"

"Okay!" Ron's brother immediately turned around and drove back directly.

But what he didn't expect was that after turning around and driving back, he saw a large group of heavy trucks coming on the opposite side before driving a few steps away.

These trucks are next to each other. There was no room for a bicycle to pass through, and the menacingly approached.

Ron's elder brother hurriedly stopped the car and said in surprise: "What the hell is going on? How do you feel that these big cars are deliberately trying to sandwich us, are we exposed?"

"Impossible!" Ron said categorically, "Even if we are exposed, it should be the police who intercepted us, not the big truck on the construction site!"

His brother was very worried and said, "Ron, I think this is obviously strange!"

Chapter 1015

Even now, Ron also felt that something was really wrong.

Otherwise, how could it be possible that there are so many big cars in the middle of this car for no reason?

Moreover, looking at their posture, they simply didn't want to let themselves escape, so they used a parallel formation.

There were traffic jams both front and rear, and the river was rolling under the bridge. If you really came straight to yourself, you wouldn't even have to escape.

Thinking of this, he couldn't help feeling nervous, and said: "Aren't these people coming for these children? Shouldn't they, aren't they just a bunch of orphans?"

"That's right!" Ron's brother couldn't help but said, "Furthermore, the police didn't find it. Why did these people come?"

Seeing that the convoys at both ends were getting closer, Ron's brother could only temporarily stop the car.

Everyone in the car panicked, including Jeff.

Jeff felt a panic in his heart at this time. No one knows the situation of the orphanage better than him. If these children are lost, at most the police will come forward to find them. It is impossible for the people to have such a powerful force to find them. .

However, with one exception, he felt very nervous.

The exception was Charlie Wade who hurt himself miserably yesterday.

In the dark, he felt that this matter seemed inseparable from Charlie Wade. Thinking back to Charlie Wade, he always looked unpredictable. He couldn't help but wonder: "Are these people sent by Charlie Wade? ?"

Just when this Iveco stopped, countless large cars began to pack him tightly, and the seven adults in the car couldn't help but panic.

Ron took out a knife from his arms and said nervously: "If someone is against us, we will fight him!"

His sister said in horror: "There are only 7 of us, and they have to have dozens of drivers alone. Fighting is not their opponent!"

Ron was already obviously flustered, and said nervously: "You close the curtains of the windows at the back. If they want to come in, I will fight with them!"

In order to be able to transport the children more safely, thick curtains have been hung on the windows of the rear rows. Looking in from the outside, they can't see the situation inside, let alone the unconscious children inside. They.

Several people, including Jeff, hurriedly drew the curtains tightly.

Ron said to his two elder brothers and Jeff: "Hurry up and get all the knives out! Now the car is definitely not going out, you can only rely on yourself."

When he started doing it early this morning, Ron gave each of them a knife. He thought it was just to strengthen the courage, but he didn't expect to use it now.

Jeff was very panicked. He is very different from Ron. Ron has been doing the job of licking blood on the tip of a knife all the year round, otherwise he would not be chopped off his right hand.

But Jeff is just a liar. Every day at Harley's company, he cheats those old men and old ladies who are eager to manage money and make money. If he really wants him to use a knife to fight with others, he simply doesn't have the guts.

At this moment, he took the knife out tremblingly, and asked nervously, "Ron, did you offend someone?"

Ron said desperately, "I also want to ask if you have offended people!"

At this time, Ron's brother said nervously: "Look at these big cars, they only surrounded us, but no one came down to say something, and I didn't understand what they were doing!"

Ron thought for a while, opened the window of the co-pilot, and shouted to the outside: "Who are you? What are you going to do?"

No one responded outside the car.

Ron's heart was extremely nervous. With so many cars surrounding him, this group of people didn't even have a word, which made people feel strange and terrifying.

Chapter 1016

At this moment, the sound of a helicopter roaring from outside suddenly came.

Because the movement of the helicopter was too loud, and the sound was too recognizable, the entire vehicle became more panicked.

Jeff panicked and asked: "What's the matter? How come there are helicopters? Who are these people?"

Ron's father drew a gap in the curtain and looked up to the sky, and immediately saw several helicopters lined up.

He was so scared that he said, "There are several helicopters in the sky. Even if the police arrest people, they don't know how to use helicopters. Are we offending some big people?"

As they were talking, everyone heard the sound of the helicopter, and it was already overhead!

Charlie Wade was sitting on one of the helicopters, looking down at the scene on the bridge.

The entire bridge has been broken by large vehicles. In the middle of the bridge, a dozen large vehicles surrounded the Iveco.

Traffickers and children are in this car.

Cameron Isaac said to Charlie Wade: "Master, many of my people are from special forces. Some of them have a way to kill all these people!"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "Don't be anxious to kill, stay alive."

"Good!" Cameron Isaac said: "Then I will let them control these bastards first!"

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Do it now!"

Cameron Isaac immediately gave an order, and one of the helicopters descended and hovered on top of the Iveco.

Immediately after four ropes were thrown on both sides of the helicopter, four former special forces in black immediately descended from the ropes.

They were very professional. They were hung on the four corners of the Iveco car roof. Then they took out the portable cutting machine and started cutting the iron sheet of the car roof at the fastest speed.

This white Iveco itself is not a special vehicle. The iron sheet on the roof is very easy to cut.

In the blink of an eye, the entire roof was cut off!

The people in the car were already shocked. They looked at the roof of the car and were gradually cut open. There was no good way at all.

At this time, the helicopter hovering over their heads began to slowly rise, and the four former special forces each used a special suction cup to firmly hold the four corners of the roof.

With the ascent of the helicopter, this Iveco was uncovered directly!

At this time, not only Charlie Wade on the helicopter, but also the situation in the car, even Jeff in the car and Ron's family saw the magnificent scene of several helicopters hovering in the sky at the same time.

Except for the helicopter that cut the roof of their car, on both sides of the remaining helicopters are ex-special forces armed with automatic rifles. They are like the Marines in Operation Red Sea. The target was tightly locked on the 7 people in the car, ensuring that as long as anyone dared to hurt the child, they would immediately kill him.

For a top family like the Wade family with a net worth of trillions of dollars, their ability to protect themselves is far beyond the recognition of ordinary people.

Special forces, automatic rifles, and helicopters are just drizzle. With the influence of the Wade family, even if armored vehicles are called, it is not a big problem!

This is the confidence of the real top family!

Today, using such a big battle to solve a few human traffickers can be said to be fighting mosquitoes with anti-aircraft guns.

But Charlie Wade didn't feel wasted at all, this kind of scum would have to use the most powerful means to destroy them all at once!

Chapter 1017

At this time, Charlie Wade directly turned on the PA system on the helicopter, and said loudly: "Listen to the people in the car, you are already surrounded, immediately put down all resistance to surrender, otherwise, die!"

The sound of Charlie Wade frightened the 7 people in the Iveco car.

Ron collapsed, because he felt that even if he killed and set fire, he wouldn't use such a big battle to catch him, right?

At this moment, his family was so scared that they were so scared that they were still thinking that after they got the money, they would go to the Maldives for a holiday, but they didn't expect to be completely covered by such a net.

Jeff was even more panicked.

He is almost regretting death at this moment!

Not only regret, but more panic.

But at this time, he suddenly came back to his senses, and felt that the sound of the call on the helicopter just now was so familiar?

But he didn't hear it for a while, this voice was Charlie Wade's voice.

So he panicked and asked Ron: "What should we do now? This group of people have guns. Now even the roof of the car has been cut off. What if they shoot us?"

Ron's elder sister wailed in fright: "Brother, we won't die here today, right? My elder sister hasn't lived enough yet, my elder sister is still young, my elder sister hasn't been married yet!"

"What are you yelling about?! I'm not married either!" Ron was afraid and confused in her heart. Hearing her sister crying and making noise, her heart was even more irritable.

Charlie Wade looked down at these 7 people from the helicopter and found that they were not doing anything. He was immediately angry and said coldly: "I will give you three seconds to get off the car, otherwise you will have to pay the price!"

As soon as the voice fell, he immediately started timing.

"three!"

Ron's mother cried bitterly: "Ron, let's get out of the car quickly, otherwise I'm really afraid that these people will attack us!"

Ron hesitated.

If you don't get out of the car, you might be able to kidnap a few children and use your children's lives to threaten the other party to let yourself go.

But if you get out of the car, isn't it just being slaughtered?

"two!"

Ron's sister hurriedly said: "Ron, you have to say something!"

"One!"

After Charlie Wade finished counting three times, seeing that none of the seven people moved, he immediately said to Cameron Isaac: "Notify the sniper and kill the driver!"

"Good master!"

Cameron Isaac immediately passed the walkie-talkie and gave an order in a cold voice: "The sniper immediately looks for a suitable opportunity, kills the driver first, and fights for a shot!"

The intercom system immediately received a reply from the snipers:

"The sight of Sniper No. 1 is blocked."

"The sight of Sniper No. 2 is blocked."

"Sniper No. 3 has an unobstructed sight and has locked on the target! The kill probability is 80!"

"Sniper No. 4 is unobstructed and has locked the target! The kill probability is 95!"

Cameron Isaac immediately ordered: "Sniper No. 4 listens to my orders and shoot!"

At this moment, the former special soldier hanging outside the door of a helicopter on the right immediately pulled the trigger.

With a bang.

The sniper rifle burst out with a tongue of flame, and then the bullet shot out from the muzzle at a rapid speed.

The next moment, Ron, who was sitting in the driving seat of Iveco, was so nervous that he did not know what to do, he was suddenly headshot!

No one expected that a person who was intact in the last second would burst out a bloody mist on his head in the next second..

Chapter 1018

Ron's family was so scared that they collapsed and screamed!

They really did not expect that the caller would immediately instruct to shoot after three seconds!

The one who died was the eldest son of the Richie family, and Ron's parents loved the eldest son the most. Seeing that his eldest son was instantly taken his life, the two of them went crazy and cried.

Ron was sprayed with red and white because he was closest to his brother. He was already scared to death.

When he was in this business, he never thought that this business would be terrible!

At this time, Charlie Wade said coldly through the PA system: "I will give you three more seconds. If you don't get out of the car and surrender, then I will let the sniper randomly kill the second person!"

As soon as these words came out, all six of them lost the courage to resist, and ran out of the car in a hurry.

After getting out of the car, the six people raised their hands high above their heads, and their faces were filled with the deepest fear.

This is the first time they have witnessed such a bloody and direct death with their own eyes.

Everyone's heart trembled!

Even Ron's mother, sister, and Jeff were so scared to pee their pants.

Charlie Wade continued to shout: "All six of you kneel down at the back of the car, hold your head in your hands, and if anyone dares to make any other actions, kill it on the spot!"

How dare these six people fail, they hurried to the back of the car and knelt on their heads.

At this time, the big car at the rear slowly retreated tens of meters, leaving a huge open area.

Afterwards, the helicopter that Charlie Wade was riding in began to slowly land on this open ground.

The former special forces on other helicopters moved faster, and they had quickly descended onto the bridge by cable descent.

Dozens of former special forces armed with live ammunition had surrounded the six groups at this time, and their guns were all aimed at them.

Several former special forces have entered the Iveco and quickly checked the health of the 10 children in the car.

Afterwards, he reported in the intercom system: "Master, all 10 children are in a coma, but I checked their physical indicators and vital signs, and there is no danger to their lives, please rest assured."

Charlie Wade immediately relaxed. Since the children are all right, the remaining task is how to deal with these human traffickers!

He not only wants these human traffickers to pay the price of their lives, but also finds out their downstream buyers and kills them all!

At this moment, Charlie Wade's helicopter had slowly stopped on the bridge.

Charlie Wade pushed the hatch, and jumped down.

The six people, including Jeff, were all kneeling on the ground at this time, looking at Charlie Wade coming down from the helicopter in horror.

But the distance at this time was still a bit far, Jeff did not recognize Charlie Wade.

Charlie Wade didn't see Jeff either, he thought this was Ron's family.

But when he got closer, he saw Jeff with a frightened face among the six people!

Charlie Wade's heart was suddenly extremely angry!

He really didn't expect that Jeff would be involved!

No matter how hard this kid pretended, he was one of the orphans who came out of the orphanage. Charlie Wade never expected that it was this Jeff who grew up in the orphanage who would collude with others and steal from the orphanage. 10 children out!

Jeff also saw the man coming by at this time!

When he recognized that the person walking by was Charlie Wade, his whole person's worldview was instantly subverted!

how come.....

How could it be Charlie Wade? !

Chapter 1019

Jeff felt that no one in the world would be too surprised to step down from this helicopter, but Charlie Wade was the only one who stepped down from here, which made him unacceptable anyway.

However, the tall and handsome man with a cold face is indeed the orphan who grew up with him in the orphanage, Charlie Wade!

He couldn't imagine, what exactly is Charlie Wade? You can mobilize such a powerful force to pursue yourself!

Among other things, just these few helicopters, and these dozens of experts with guns and live ammunition like special forces, are definitely not the strength that ordinary people can have.

Even the richest man in Aurouss Hillll cannot be so capable!

Deep in his heart, he couldn't help asking himself: What is the origin of Charlie Wade?

Isn't he an orphan? Still the son-in-law who eats soft rice! Why can such a powerful force be mobilized?

At this time, Charlie Wade had already stepped forward to the six people.

However, instead of looking at the other five people, he stared at Jeff with extremely cold eyes and asked coldly, "Jeff! You are so bold!"

Jeff trembled violently, hurriedly begged: "Charlie Wade! This is a misunderstanding, Charlie Wade!"

"Misunderstanding?!" Charlie Wade said furiously: "You and traffickers abducted 10 orphans from the orphanage, and then told me this was a misunderstanding?"

Jeff suddenly burst into tears, and said with tears in his nose: "Charlie Wade, I have no choice but to not lose my bet with you. I accidentally ran into someone else's Phaeton. If I don't pay for it, If someone else has a new car, they will kill me, and I am also forced to be helpless Charlie Wade!"

Charlie Wade stepped forward, kicked him on his chest, kicked him all the way, and sternly shouted: "You are an orphan. You know what kind of pain orphans have to go through since childhood. They are raised in a welfare institution. It's nothing more than doing something for the orphanage. If you steal the children from the orphanage for money, you deserve to die!" Jeff was in severe pain, but he struggled to get up, crying and said, "Charlie Wade, I was wrong, I'm sorry, I shouldn't have been blinded by lard for a while, please take it for the sake of growing up together. Please spare me this time!"

"Spare you?" Charlie Wade snorted coldly, and said: "You have done such a conscientious thing, how can my conscience let me spare you?"

Jeff hurriedly pointed to the Iveco and said: "You can see that those younger brothers and sisters did not suffer any injuries, and they all took sleeping pills. Now take them back. They don't even know what happened. As long as you spare me this time, I will work for the orphanage in my life, and I am willing to use my life to pay for my sins!"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "Save some energy, Jeff, among the seven people today, you are the most damned!"

When Ron heard this, he hurriedly blurted out and wailed: "This eldest brother, you are right. This incident was planned by the organization named Jeff. We were all used by him! Please forgive us!"

Charlie Wade saw his right arm raised high, and his wrist broke all at once, knowing that this person was the notorious Ron.

So, he snorted and asked: "You are Ron Richie, right?!"

When Ron heard this, his whole body trembled!

How would he know his name?

Charlie Wade saw his face full of horror, and smiled playfully, coldly:

"Ron, you guys are okay. I heard that you were doing some sneaking and petting businesses before, and you were still a family of six. I didn't expect you to be cut off. With one hand, you don't even have a long memory? I heard that you had been reselling children before, but I didn't expect that you dared to steal children directly this time!"

Chapter 1020

As soon as Ron heard this, he knew that the other party had checked all of his details.

So he squatted his head in panic: "Big brother, big brother, this is all a misunderstanding, big brother! I have offended people before, so my reputation is corrupted everywhere. I have never done anything to resell a child. It was just spread by others!"

Charlie Wade smiled and asked him: "Do you think I am like a fool?"

Ron kept kowtow, his entire forehead had become bloody, and he begged:

"Big brother, I really can't blame me this time. This time it was all Jeff's idea. He told me that he had an accident. There is a shortage of hundreds of thousands, because he told me that there are many children in the orphanage. He even made the whole plan for us to steal the children!"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "Don't worry, I will figure out the accounts of each of you."

After speaking, Charlie Wade questioned: "I ask you, who are you going to sell these children to?"

At this time, Ron dared not hide anything, and hurriedly said: "Brother, these children are going to be sold to the southern region Gang!"

Charlie Wade asked again: "Who is your partner?"

Ron blurted out: "It's an elder of the Beggar Gang!"

Charlie Wade frowned and said, "There are elders in the Beggar Gang?"

Ron nodded and hurriedly said: "This gang of beggars was established completely after the gang in martial arts novels, because they all pretended to be beggars and cheated money everywhere, so they directly used the name of the gang, the biggest leader of the gang. , Is their gang leader, under the gang leader there are two deputy gang leaders, nine elders, dozens of hall leaders and tens of thousands of subordinates scattered across the province..."

Charlie Wade didn't expect this gang of beggars like a social cancer to have such a huge organizational structure!

There are tens of thousands of beggars in a province alone!

Ron wanted to perform meritorious service in front of Charlie Wade and strive for lenient treatment, so he poured out all the information he knew.

"Brother, the nine elders of the Beggar Gang are all rich men with a net worth of tens of millions. This group of people has long stopped begging in person. They live in luxury villas, drive luxury cars, and even sit in their offices."

"The nine elders perform their duties. Some people are responsible for recruiting new members, who are responsible for management, finances, and training. Some people are responsible for implementing family laws. The elder who joined me is responsible for buying children for begging... .."

Charlie Wade asked again: "Who is the leader of the beggar gang?"
Ron said: "The name of the beggar gang's leader is John Marcone. Don't think he is just a beggar gang's gang leader, but his net worth is at least one billion Dollar. His business covers various gray industries, and he has already become Southaven. A big man in the underground world." After that, he said again: "By the way, Marcone has very powerful background, and his sister is the wife of Donald, the head of the Webb family!"

Charlie Wade frowned, "So, this John Marcone is Donald's brother-in-law?"
"Yes, yes, yes!" Ron nodded and said, "His brother-in-law!"

Charlie Wade sneered and nodded, and said to himself: "Interesting! Really interesting!"

Chapter 1021

Charlie Wade did not expect that the Webb family was also involved in this matter to some extent.

This hateful beggar gang was actually started by Donald's brother-in-law, and it is estimated that the support of the Webb family is indispensable. Originally, I was still waiting for the Webb family to find him, and was not ready to attack the Webb family.

But this time, I have to take Donald's brother-in-law first!

Therefore, he immediately said to Ron: "I will give you a chance to redeem your sins. You must take it well, otherwise, I will let you end up like your brother!"

As soon as Ron heard this, he said with excitement: "Brother, if you have anything you want, you will die without hesitation!"

Charlie Wade said: "You should call the elder beggars who specially connected with you now, tell him that your car has a problem, and let him come here to pick up people in person."

Ron nodded immediately and said, "Okay, big brother, I'll fight now. It's not far from Southaven city. I think they will come soon."

Charlie Wade gave a hum, turned around and said to Cameron Isaac behind him: "Isaac, I don't care what you do, I will see Donald's brother-in-law here within an hour!"

Cameron Isaac said immediately: "Don't worry, Master, I will make arrangements!"

Ron was eager to make contributions, and hurriedly said, "By the way, that John Marcone and his wife is one of the elders of the Beggar Gang, who is in charge of finances! And she is also his female military advisor!"

"Really?" Charlie Wade frowned and asked: "Both couples are doing this kind of conscience business?"

"Yes!" Ron said: "Their couple is amazing, earning at least 100 million Dollar a year. It is said that they earned more than 200 million Dollar last year!"

Charlie Wade said to Cameron Isaac: "You can verify the matter, Isaac. If it is true, bring him and his wife to me!"

Cameron Isaac nodded and made a call immediately.

Wade family's eyes are all over the country, if they want, there is no clue they can't find.

Southaven is one of the largest cities in the south, and the hidden forces deployed by the Wade family here are beyond imagination.

Soon, Cameron Isaac received the news and said to Charlie Wade: "That kid is right. Marcone's wife is indeed one of the elders of the Beggar Gang."

"Okay." Charlie Wade nodded and said coldly: "Then bring them all to me!"

Cameron Isaac immediately picked up the walkie-talkie and said: "A group of skilled men! Go to Southaven quickly and meet our family's local eyeliner. By any means, you must bring John Marccone and his wife here within an hour!"

A resolute voice came from the intercom: "Yes! One group set off immediately!"

Immediately after one of the hovering helicopters, it immediately climbed up and headed for downtown Southaven.

Charlie Wade asked him again: "Could you let the Wade family's eyeliner in the southern region help me investigate how many core members of the Beggar Gang are still in the southern region, and bring them all over me."

Cameron Isaac said: "Good young master, I'll give orders now and get everything I can find!"

Charlie Wade nodded in satisfaction, and said coldly: "Today I will walk for the sky and get rid of this beggar gang!"

Ron also took out his mobile phone at this time, and under Charlie Wade's supervision, called the elder of the beggar gang who had been connected to him.

Chapter 1022

When the other party heard him say that the car was broken, he immediately said he was not reliable.

Ron could only say in a low tone: "Sir, the car I built is quite old. I'm really embarrassed, but I'm only a few tens of kilometers away from Southaven. It's not far, so please come and pick it up. Come on."

Then the other party cursed and said: "If it wasn't for seeing that you sent more goods this time, I would just ignore you."

After speaking, the other party said again: "Send your location to WeChat, and I will come here."

.....

At this moment, the beggar gang leader John Marccone and his wife Lily Marccone had just walked out of Webb's villa with their daughter.

Today at noon, it is the birthday of Lily's sister, Donald's wife Xenia. In the past, Xenia had to organize a special birthday party, but this year, considering the special situation of her son Kian, she chose to stay at home and simply prepared a lunch.

No guests were invited to this banquet. Apart from my family, I only invited my younger brother and younger siblings, as well as his younger niece.

After such a long time, Kian is still the same, adding a meal every hour. So in this banquet, Kian disappeared for about 20 minutes. Everyone knew that he was going to add a meal, but everyone at the dinner table was embarrassed to say it.

After the birthday party, Marccone's family of three was ready to go home. His sister Xenia sent them to the parking lot of the villa.

Seeing that there was no one else around, Marccone asked his sister:

"Sister, is Kian's situation still not getting better?"

"No." Xenia said with a sad face: "A lot of experts have come to visit during this period, but there is no result. They have no idea."

Xenia couldn't help but sighed and said, "Sister, I think my brother-in-law has some problems with his mood and emotions recently."

Xenia said depressed: "The last time your brother-in-law took Sean to Aurouss Hilll, he suffered a big loss in the hands of the Wade family, and was humiliated by an unknown man by Aurouss Hilll. Haven't you seen Sean's arm still in a cast? He was injured in Aurouss Hilll."

Xenia said angrily: "What kid did this way? Sister, do you want me to take some brothers and kill that kid in the past? Now the power of the beggars is stronger again. There are 10,000 registered gang members alone. There are many people. During this period of time, I am preparing to annex the beggars from the surrounding provinces one by one. By that time, my beggars may have more than 50,000 people!"

Xenia said: "Your brother-in-law is already planning the matter in Aurouss Hilll, so you don't need to bother."

After that, she looked at her younger sibling Lily and said to her younger brother: "You have to take care of Lily during this period. Two months of pregnancy is the most dangerous time. Don't let the fetus have any problems."

Marcone said immediately: "Sister, don't worry, I will take care of her."

Xenia said to her younger sibling Lily: "Lily, you have just gotten pregnant. Don't interfere with the beggars' affairs for the time being. Have your baby at home and get a b-ultrasound in two months to see if it is a male or a female."

Lily nodded hurriedly and said respectfully: "Okay sister, I see, don't worry."

Xenia couldn't help but sighed and said with emotion: "Our Marcone family, the biggest problem is that the population is not thriving enough. My parents left early and only gave birth to two children, Nathan and Josiah. Only the son of Nathan, you and Josiah are left now. There is only a daughter. He said that everything has to be given to a son quickly, and it is not enough to have one. While he is young, he must have at least two sons to continue the incense for the Marcone family."

Lily hurriedly said: "Sister, don't worry, I will definitely inherit the Marcone family!"

Chapter 1023

Xenia, Donald's wife, is a standard demon of helping his brother.

With her identity and her family background, it would have been impossible for her to enter the gate of Webb's house.

But the reason why Donald married her into the Webb family was entirely because Donald really loved her.

After marrying into the Webb family, Xenia began to do everything possible to help her brother John Marcone.

John Marcone didn't have any abilities, she didn't read well, and her ability was not good enough. When she was young, she took a lot of money from Xenia to do business, but she was basically defeated by him.

There was no other way, Xenia went to beg her husband, hoping that her husband could give his brother a little bit from the Webb family's business, which would be regarded as a way to help his brother.

Although Donald didn't look down on Marcone, he still helped him several times because of his wife's face.

However, Marcone is very ignorant of good and bad, and he is not capable of it. When others lead him to make money, he has to make some tricks from it. Finally, Donald is tired of him, and he simply doesn't bother to take him. .

However, Xenia didn't want her brother to be mediocre all his life.

Seeing that her brother didn't have much real ability, but he still had the ability to fight hard, she guided his brother to the gray industry.

After all, Marcone is Donald's brother-in-law, and the entire Webb family has a very strong influence in the south, so there is this relationship. He went out to make a profit, and everyone must give face. After fishing for a few years, Marone built the business of the Beggar Gang.

To say it is a "gang of beggars" is actually borrowing someone's name from martial arts novels. What they do is not a matter of acting for the country and the people. They are just organizing a large group of fake beggars to pretend to be beggars and swindle.

Moreover, there are often conflicts between the gang of beggars and the gang of beggars.

For example, the bus stations, railway stations, and commercial streets with the most crowded traffic are the favorite prime locations of the Beggar Gang. If you can set up a stall here, you will definitely make a lot of money in a day.

However, for the beggars in a city, there are tens of thousands of beggars who are true or false, and it is naturally impossible for them to gather in these golden locations.

Therefore, fighting fiercely with other gangs of beggars, forming cliques, and looting territory in daily life have become the most important thing besides begging.

Because of the big tree of the Webb family, Marcone developed quickly in the cause of the Beggar Gang.

If any beggar dared to fight against him, he would immediately be trampled by him. If he couldn't step on it, he would beg his sister and ask his sister to ask his brother-in-law, Donald, to help.

After all, Donald is also the heir of the top big family. He naturally doesn't look down on this kind of gray business, and of course he doesn't want to interfere.

But he couldn't hold back his wife blowing the pillow breeze in his ears every day, and acted like a baby at every turn, or brushed up his temper or pretended to be wronged. Then he had nothing to do.

Chapter 1024

In the end, it didn't work, so he came out to help Marcone several times. When others discovered that even the heirs of the top clan like Donald would come to help Marcone get out, the other beggars naturally did not dare to offend Marcone again.

As a result, Marcone pretended to be invincible and brought all the Beggar Gang forces in Arcadia Province into his own hands.

Now he is the leader of the famous "gang of beggars" in Southaven area. Marcone is also very proud of this, because this kind of thing comes in too quickly, and it is completely unnecessary. Everyone is scattered, everyone finds a place, lies on the ground, and then writes on a blank paper. Copywriting that sells badly is just lying down and making money. In a short period of time, he has already saved more than 1 billion family assets.

Xenia was naturally relieved to see that her younger brother had made such a great achievement. For her brother-in-law, the younger brother was responsible for it, which was the continuation of the entire family's blood.

The Marcone family's parents left early and there were no relatives. The more desolate and the less prosperous the family, the more she hoped that the Marcone family could open up its branches and leaves as soon as possible, so that the family would also prosper and gradually become a famous family in Southaven. , So that I can be considered to have completed my mission to myself.

After leaving his brother's family, Xenia turned and returned to the villa.

Donald was sitting in the living room with a cigar in his mouth, and said annoyedly: "Xenia, I recently heard that your brother's beggar has made a lot of children to make money. Can you tell him He will constrain a little bit later? Now everyone knows that he is my brother-in-law of Donald. He is doing this kind of mischievous business, and everyone outside thinks it is my order! What my Webb family says is a hundred billion level How can this big family get involved with this kind of indiscriminate business?"

When Xenia heard this, her eyes were flushed with grievance, and she choked with sobs: "Husband, you don't know the situation with Marcone. You said that he has no ability, education and no education, and no brains, except for the sidetrack. , What else can he do? He's just this little brother. If he doesn't live well, then I will die!"

Donald's most helpless thing is to see his wife's grievances. He also knows that this is just his wife's trick, but after all, out of true love, when she sees her grievances, even if she pretends to be wronged, Donald will feel distressed in his heart.

So, he could only sigh, and said: "If you have done it, don't feel wronged. I mean, you will also say hello to Marcone when you look back. There are many ways to make a mistake. Partial behavior is placed on women and children. If he has a kind, and dares to fight and kill, then I can completely praise him as the underground emperor of the whole Southaven. Why do things that hurt women and children every day? Tell these things. It's really faceless."

Xenia came to Donald with tears in his eyes, sat beside him, grabbed his arm with both hands, and choked pitifully: "Husband, you don't know what my brother is like. That ability to fight and kill with others? Besides, in our entire Marcone family, he is the only man left who says that he can't go out to fight and kill. If something happens to him, we Marcone are going to be broken?"

Donald said helplessly: "Didn't I tell you? If he dares to fight and kill, I will cover him behind his back. With me, do you think anyone in Southaven dares to move him?"

Xenia wiped away her tears, and said, "That's not what I said, my husband, there are many children now, who are totally shocked. He doesn't care what your identity or background is. He might just pick up a knife and say Killers, if they hurt Marcone and kill them all afterwards, what problem can they solve?"

As she said, she grabbed Donald's hand and said with red eyes: "Husband, I'm just a younger sister to Marcone. You are for the sake of me having been with you for so many years and giving birth to two sons. You are considerate. Be considerate of him."

Donald sighed and said helplessly: "These things Marcone has done are too damaging to good and morality. If you have time someday, let him go to the temple to burn incense!"

Chapter 1025

Marcone drove his Rolls Royce at this time, with his two-month pregnant wife sitting in the co-pilot and his 6-year-old daughter in the back seat.

A family of three drove back to their villa and the journey went smoothly.

Rolls-Royce drove into the garage and stopped. Marcone pushed the door to get out of the car. Then, Lily beside him also opened the door.

Their daughter was already asleep in the back seat.

Lily said to Marcone: "Husband, you hug your girl, put on a dress for her, don't catch a cold."

Marcone nodded, and after getting out of the car, he reached out and opened the door of the rear seat.

At this moment, a few men in black suddenly rushed out around him. Each of them held a gun in his hand. As soon as they appeared, they pointed their guns directly at the foreheads of the couple. One of them gave a cold voice. Said: "Marcone, our young master wants to see you, you husband and wife, come with us!"

Marcone was taken aback by the battle in front of him.

He really didn't expect that someone in Southaven would dare to provoke himself.

I am not only the leader of the beggar gang, but also a relative of the Webb family, and Donald's brother-in-law. In Southaven, who should not give himself a bit of face?

Don't talk about targeting yourself, even if you see yourself, you all have to nod and bow, kneel and lick yourself like a dog.

So he asked angrily: "What do those few eyesight things do? Do you know who my brother-in-law is?"

One of the people in black disdainfully said, "Isn't your brother-in-law Donald?"

Marcone reprimanded: "Knowing that my brother-in-law is Donald, if you dare to provoke me, you are all f*cking impatient, right? Believe my brother-in-law, a word can make you dead?"

The man in black sneered: "Marcone, you take your brother-in-law too seriously. In the eyes of our young master, Donald is indistinguishable from a dog. The reason for leaving this dog is Donald. Fate, I just want him to jump for two more days and have fun with him!"

"You..." Marcone was a little panicked now.

He really didn't expect that the other party would not pay attention to his brother-in-law at all. In Southaven, no one had such courage.

But these people in black know that they are Donald's brother-in-law, and they have to use a knife to hijack themselves. It seems that they are not good!

So he asked nervously: "Who are you? Who is your young master? Have I provoke your young master?"

The black man said: "Who is our young master? You will know when you go with me."

After that, he pointed his gun at Lily and said coldly: "And you, one of the nine elders of the Beggars, right? Come with us too!"

At this time, several people in black put their guns at them and led them out of the garage.

At the same time, a helicopter has slowly landed in the courtyard of Marcone's villa.

Marcone felt even more flustered when he saw that the other party was driving a helicopter to kidnap himself.

This situation can be seen at a glance that those who come are not good.

At this time, he found a man in black and walked out holding his sleeping daughter.

Chapter 1026

He panicked and said: "What are you going to do? My daughter is innocent! Don't involve her!"

The man in black sneered: "How many babies and children in your beggar gang have been kidnapped by you, aren't they innocent? Isn't your Marcone's child a human, and other people's children are not humans?" Marcone was shocked!

Before he and his wife could recover, they were forcibly taken into the helicopter by the man in black.

They were taken on the helicopter along with their daughter.

One of the men in black directly took out a syringe and gave Marcone's daughter a tranquilizer.

This shot of tranquilizer can give Marcone's daughter at least another 10 hours of sleep.

Afterwards, the plane quickly climbed and flew towards the bridge where Charlie Wade was.

.....

At this moment, above the bridge.

Ron's family of six is almost shocked.

Jeff had already fainted a few times with fright, and regained consciousness.

The elder of the Beggar Gang, who was responsible for buying and selling people, was already on the way here. Cameron Isaac's subordinates were already on the bridge and had no nets. As long as this person appeared, he would be immediately controlled.

Ron knelt in front of Charlie Wade at this time. The blood that had been kowtow before, had formed blood scabs, making him look terrible.

But his expression was full of horror. He looked at Charlie Wade and begged: "Brother, if the elder beggar comes over later, please let us go! We will definitely reform in the future. , Never do this kind of conscientious thing again!"

Charlie Wade sneered and said: "If you really have a long memory, when you make a pirated CD and your right hand is cut off, you will already have a long memory. Others have worked so hard to make a movie and prepare to be shown in the theater to earn the box office. , To recover the cost, and as a result, you stupid stole the fruits of other people's labor directly. If you are a pirated rubbish, brazen stupid, you should have no place to bury the whole family! I didn't expect you to be a pirate. I even hit the child with the idea, you are adding sin to sin!"

Ron burst into tears. He raised his severed right hand and begged:

"Brother, I do piracy is really not something, really damn it, I have already paid the price! You see, I lost my right hand when I was young It's not easy for me to live the past few years!"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "Your right hand is just the price you paid for piracy. Now you have to pay the price for kidnapping and stealing children!"

Ron cried and said, "Brother, why don't you take one of my legs, take one of my legs, I will definitely be a good person in my life!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "You are quite good at discussing with others. It is not impossible to abandon your leg, but you have stolen 10 children in total. For each child, I abandon your leg. You have ten legs for me. ?"

Ron was stunned.

Seeing Charlie Wade's face full of solemnity, as if he was about to kill himself today, he said in a flustered heart: "Brother, although I don't have ten legs, there are seven of us! Seven people, that is fourteen legs. what....."

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "You are quite good at doing arithmetic problems, but this kind of thing cannot be offset by the seven of you, because the results you seven have to face are exactly the same."

Just as he was talking, a heavy forklift drove over from the bridge head with a Mercedes-Benz S-Class directly on the fork!

Cameron Isaac's voice came from the intercom: "The young master, the elder of the beggar gang has been brought over. It is in the Mercedes-Benz sedan. The car is bulletproof. He is unwilling to get out of the car, so I just let him go. Fork it!"

Chapter 1027

As the forklift got closer and closer, Charlie Wade asked the people around to make an open space, and waved at the forklift driver: "Come on, put him here!"

The forklift driver immediately drove the bulletproof Mercedes-Benz S-Class all the way to Charlie Wade.

Cameron Isaac said at this time: "Don't worry, don't put him down now, otherwise he will suddenly hurt the young master if he puts on the gas pedal. First remove his four wheels, and then put him down."

As a result, several workers from construction sites immediately took equipment and went up and unloaded all his four wheels.

At this time, there was a fat man sitting in the car. The fat man was full of horror and shouted in the car: "Who are you guys and what do you want to do?"

Charlie Wade ignored him.

After all four of his wheels were unloaded, the forklift put the car in place.

Charlie Wade took out his phone, turned on the video recording function, looked at the fat man in the car window, and said coldly: "The elder of the Beggar Gang, right? You are responsible for buying children for the Beggar Gang, right? I will give you a self now. If you don't grasp the opportunity to walk down, you are at your own risk."

The fat man looked at him with trepidation, and blurted out, "Who are you? I have never seen you before. We can't have any hatred, what's the resentment!"

Charlie Wade lifted Ron up, pointed at him, and asked the fat man: "Do you know this person? Have you told him that you want to take over ten orphans from him?"

The fat man's face instantly turned pale.

Immediately, he glared at Ron and cursed: "Ron RIchie, you f*cking dare to sell me!"

Ron was also full of anger with nowhere to vent, staring at him, hysterically cursing: "You bastard, if it weren't for you, I wouldn't be able to walk this way! You f*cking killed our family!"

Charlie Wade looked at the fat man again and asked in a cold voice, "I will ask you one last time, will I not come down?"

The fat man didn't dare to get off after being killed, at least he could find a sense of security in the car.

Seeing that he was indifferent, Charlie Wade said to Cameron Isaac: "Are there electric welding equipment in these construction vehicles?"

Cameron Isaac immediately asked through the walkie-talkie: "Whose car has an electric welding machine?"

A voice came from the walkie-talkie: "Mr. Cameron, I have a set of welding equipment and inverters in my car, just for mobile welding!"

Cameron Isaac blurted out: "Bring here quickly!"

After a while, a truck drove over. After the driver jumped out of the car, he immediately lifted a set of electric welding equipment from the back of the truck.

Charlie Wade pointed to the Mercedes-Benz S-Class and said, "Since this fat guy likes to stay inside, then weld all the doors to me, find some steel bars, and weld all the windows to me!"

There were so many construction vehicles, and various construction site materials were pulled inside, the most of which were cement, yellow sand and muck, followed by steel bars and other steel plates.

Upon hearing that Charlie Wade ordered the car to be welded to death, the worker immediately greeted several workers for help. Then, many people carried various steel bars and the steel plates ran over quickly.

When the fat man in the car saw the battle, his soul was frightened. He asked hoarsely, "What are you going to do? I have no grudges against you, why are you doing this to me?"

Charlie Wade sneered: "You kidnap and sell children, everyone will be punishable! To do this kind of conscience business, you must have enough psychological preparation!"

After that, he roared: "Sold on me!"

Several workers immediately got busy. First, all the doors of this Mercedes-Benz were welded to death, and then all the windows of this Mercedes-Benz were welded into cages with various steel plates.

The fat man became more and more frightened inside, and his whole person almost collapsed.

He had already felt something subconsciously, but at this moment, deep down in his heart, he was still deceiving himself and couldn't believe it.

Chapter 1028

Charlie Wade's mobile phone has been recording his images, and naturally recorded all the scene of him being welded to death in the car.

The fat man looked at Charlie Wade and threatened with all his strength: "I warn you, let me go quickly, our boss's brother-in-law, but Donald of the Webb family! You must have heard of Donald's name. How can you not provoke him, if you dare to be against me today, my boss and his brother-in-law Donald will definitely not spare you!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Your boss? Your boss is already on the way here, so let's let him watch you on the road later!"

As he was talking, a helicopter in the sky had already moved quickly!

After a few minutes, the plane landed slowly, and several people in black escorted him. Marcone and his wife Lily walked off the helicopter.

When Marcone saw the battle in front of him, he was shocked, his soul lost his body!

He has been out for so long and has never seen such a scary battle!

Dozens of engineering vehicles directly sealed the entire bridge, several helicopters were parked on the bridge, and dozens of men in black with guns and live ammunition.

I don't know, I thought it was the troops doing some exercises.

He couldn't help wondering in his heart, who are these people? Whom did you offend? Those beggars who usually rob themselves of buying and selling, who has such great ability?

Those people in black brought him to Charlie Wade.

Charlie Wade stared at him and asked in a cold voice: "Are you John Marcone?"

Marcone felt tight, and subconsciously asked: "Who are you? What are you looking for?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Me? I am the one who will kill you!"

When Marcone heard this, his face became cold, and he immediately said angrily: "You want my life? Do you know who my brother-in-law is?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "I know, isn't it Donald? Do you think Donald can save you at this time? If this old dog Donald rushes over today, I will kill the entire Webb family today. Here!"

"You..." Marcone was shocked. He couldn't understand why the young man in front of him had such a strong confidence, and he dared to say such arrogant words.

Who is Donald? Donald is an existence that no one can match in the whole Southaven and no one dares to mess with!

He is the king of Southaven!

But the young man in front of him didn't pay attention to Donald at all. What gave him such a confidence?

At this time, the fat man who had been completely welded to death in the Mercedes-Benz car opened a window in the car and shouted to the outside: "Boss, Boss, you must save me, Boss!"

Marcone was shocked. He turned his head and found that in the Mercedes-Benz that was welded to death, he was sitting in one of the nine elders of his beggar gang.

He hurriedly blurted out and asked: "Old Alan, why are you here?"

The beggar elder in the Mercedes Benz cried and said, "Boss, I came to pick up the goods. I didn't expect that the boy named Ron who talked to me, he actually cheated me, because he united with others to do the crime I, boss, you must save me!"

Marcone was frightened and stupid, this battle is clearly to kill!

If the opponent dares to kill his own elder, he must dare to kill himself...

He was nervous and scared to die, and tremblingly asked Charlie Wade:

"Brother, what on earth do you and I have misunderstood? Or what do you want? Just ask, as long as I can give it to you, I just beg you to let us go!"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "Your beggars help to do some conscienceless things. What I want today is justice!"

Chapter 1029

Marcone said in horror: "Brother, how can my brother-in-law Donald be regarded as a face and face in the south of the Yangtze River. If you kill me, he will definitely not let you go. Instead of repaying injustices like this, why can't he turn fighting into jade?"

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently, and said: "I'm sorry, I want to turn a fight with me into a jade silk, you are not worthy! Even Donald is not worthy! You see Donald as a god, but in my eyes it is just a pile of shit!"

After that, he said again: "Marcone, don't worry, let's come one by one, I will send your brother on the road first, and then have a good chat with you!"

Immediately afterwards, Charlie Wade looked at the fat man in the Mercedes-Benz, and said coldly: "You kidnap and sell children, you lose your conscience, you are a tiger, and everyone is punishable. Today I will act for the sky and let you do what you do. To pay the price! Don't you like your Mercedes-Benz? Don't you like to stay in it and not get down? Okay, let this car be your coffin and let your boss send you on the road!"

After all, he looked at Marcone and said coldly: "Come on, you sing a song loudly for me, sing a famous Italian song! Goodbye friends!!"

Marcone subconsciously shivered and said: "I...I won't..."

Charlie Wade scolded: "You f*cking bluff me? Who can sing such a classic song?"

Marcone does sing this song, and he often sings it in KTV, but how could he be willing to sing it at this time?

The young man in front of him welded one of his generals in a Mercedes-Benz car, and said that he wanted this car to be his coffin, which meant that he would die in the car.

I can't save my brother, nor can I sing goodbye to my friend when he dies, right?

Seeing that he didn't even speak, Charlie Wade immediately yelled:

"Sniper shoot his right leg!"

As soon as the voice fell, he heard a gunshot!

Then Marcone knelt on the ground with a plop.

His right knee has become a mass of fleshy flesh, and the pain makes him cry.

Charlie Wade continued: "I count 123, and within three seconds, if this person doesn't sing to me, I'll break his other leg!"

"One!"

Marcone was so scared to cry when he heard this: "Don't shoot, don't shoot, brother, I sing, I will sing!"

After all, he endured the sharp pain in his right leg and knee, and sang choked with a trembling voice: "Oh goodbye friend, ah, goodbye friend, ah, goodbye friend, goodbye, goodbye... .."

Charlie Wade looked at the fat man in the Mercedes-Benz car and asked him with a smile: "Have you heard? Your big brother is singing to see you off, you can go on the road with peace of mind!"

The fat man collapsed in pain, slapped the car window and shouted: "I don't want to die, please spare my life, I really don't want to die..."

Charlie Wade stopped paying attention to him, but yelled, "Hang up this Mercedes Benz for me with a heavy helicopter!"

Cameron Isaac immediately ordered to go down.

In the car, the big fat man was completely crazy. He slapped the car window frantically, crying and begging: "Brother, uncle, please let me go. I'm still young and I don't want to die. I have 80 mothers. There are three-year-old children. If I die, they will all be over!"

Charlie Wade sneered: "Before you do this business, you should have thought that you will end up like this!"

A heavy helicopter tied the Mercedes-Benz with a cable, and then slowly hoisted it in the air.

Chapter 1030

Charlie Wade said coldly: "Throw him into the river for me!"

The helicopter immediately flew to the river surface by the bridge, and then the aircraft suddenly disconnected the rope, and the Mercedes Benz crashed into the river surface at a very fast speed.

This Mercedes-Benz itself is bulletproof, and the body is very heavy, plus the steel plate welded in a circle makes it heavier.

Therefore, the moment it plunged into the river at high speed, it immediately threw a spectacular splash of water!

The splashing water even formed a small rainbow in the sun!

Immediately afterwards, the Mercedes-Benz car sank directly into the river bottom and disappeared without any delay!

Everyone present knew that this fat man was bound to die.

Because that car has been completely welded to death, even if it is Houdini, it is impossible to escape!

Jeff, Ron's family, and Marcone's couple suddenly collapsed with horror as they watched the Mercedes-Benz sink to the bottom of the river.

No one thought that Charlie Wade would be so decisive when killing someone.

Jeff also clearly realized at this moment that this orphan, who grew up with him since childhood, seemed to be able to kill him today.

He crawled to Charlie Wade's feet, crying and his whole person was out of breath: "Charlie Wade, please let me go. I am different from them. I have never done such a mourning before. For the best things, I was just confused for a while, and blinded for a while, I beg you to give me another chance, you grew up with me, you know that I am not the kind of heinous person..."

Charlie Wade looked at him in disgust, and said coldly: "Jeff, there is a truth you have to understand. Some mistakes can be forgiven, but some mistakes can never be forgiven, even for the first time!"

After finishing talking, he used the camera of his mobile phone to aim at Marcone and his wife, and said coldly: "Come on, I will give you and your wife a chance to confess to the people of the whole country. Looking at my mobile phone camera, you have done it all these years. If you're doing well, I might be able to make you suffer less."

Marcone's wife Lily was almost crazy, but at this moment, she knelt on the ground with a thump, crying and begging for mercy: "Big brother, please forgive me, I'm just Marcone's wife, I don't even know. What did he do on weekdays, I am really innocent!"

As she said, she pointed to her flat lower abdomen, and said: "You tell me, I have been pregnant for two months, please let us go and give us a way out!"

Upon hearing this, Marcone subconsciously cursed: "Lily, you actually want to betray me at this time!"

Lily suddenly exploded: "Marcone, I have your seed in my stomach! Don't I want to leave a queen for you Marcone family? If we both die here today, your Marcone family's line broken!"

In fact, Lily's thinking is very simple, just to survive.

She didn't live enough and didn't want to die!

If she is allowed to die with her husband and live as a widow by herself, choose one of the two, then she must choose the latter.

Marcone also thought at first that she was going to live alone.

But listening to her say this, my heart suddenly shuddered.

My wife is right, if both myself and my wife are dead, even if the young man in front of him let go of his daughter, his own line will be cut off!

Daughter, in the eyes of the Marcone family, the line cannot be continued!

Chapter 1031

Must have a son to succeed the Marcone family.

This is why Marcone and her sister are very eager to hope that Lily can have a son.

Therefore, Marcone realized at this moment that if he had to die here today, he would have to let Lily and the child in her stomach live.

What if it was a boy? The Marcone family has a queen.

Otherwise, if Lily died here today, then the entire Marcone family would be the last!

Thinking of this, he immediately said to Charlie Wade: "Big brother, what hate you have, any grudges will come to me. My wife is innocent, and the child in my wife's belly is also innocent, please let her go!"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "You have poisoned so many children, haven't you thought that those children are the most innocent?"

Marcone cried and said: "Even if I am utterly conscienceless, it has nothing to do with my wife and children. Please let them go! You can't kill a pregnant woman in front of so many people, right?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "I didn't expect it, would you still kidnap me morally?"

After speaking, Charlie Wade nodded and said: "But you are right. It is really not my style to kill a pregnant woman, so I am going to let your wife go."

As soon as the voice fell, Lily on the side was so excited that she kowtows her head again and again, crying and laughing and said: "Big brother, thank you, big brother, thank you for not killing!"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "Don't worry, I don't need to kill you, but the child in your stomach belongs to you and this scumbag, so I can't let you go right now. I will arrange for someone to take you there directly. The obstetrics and gynecology hospital will have the child knocked out, and the child will be knocked out. I will hand you over to the public security organs and let the court go to the court to sentence, go to jail, and shoot according to your actions!"

When Marcone heard this, he suddenly shouted with excitement: "How can you make our Marcone family the queen! The line of our Marcone family is in my wife's belly!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "I'm sorry, a scum like you, and a scum who specializes in destroying families, is not worthy to continue the incense. I can spare his life for your daughter, but the embryo in your wife's belly, Don't be foolish!"

Later, Charlie Wade looked at Lily again, and said coldly: "You choose now, do you want to stay and die with your husband, or kill the child and get your own dog?"

Lily blurted out completely without thinking: "Brother, I want to live, I don't want to die, the child can be knocked out, at any time!"

In fact, at this moment Lily had already thought very clearly.

First of all, I can't die anyway, because I'm still young and haven't lived enough. If I want to die with my husband, I don't want to die.

Secondly, the child in the belly is only two months old. To put it bluntly, it is a fertilized egg. It doesn't matter if he is or not, as long as he can live is more important than anything else.

Therefore, of course she is willing to choose to knock the child out!

When Marcone next to him heard this, his whole person was almost gone. He stared at Lily with cannibalistic eyes and gritted his teeth and cursed: "You stinky lady, you want to abandon me at the critical moment and live by yourself?!"

Lily looked at him nervously and said seriously: "Husband, do you want me to die with you? We still have a daughter! Even if I have been in jail for more than ten years, my daughter still has a mother. If I die here today, our daughter will be an orphan!"

Chapter 1032

Marcone angrily scolded: "You have to kill my Marcone's son to survive! Now you still want to use your daughter as a shield, do you think I will be fooled by you! You b*tch, how come I haven't You can see that you are such a dog that is greedy for life and fear of death, and betrays your husband to live alone at a critical moment!"

Lily did not expect that her husband would scold herself bloody at this time.

It is true that I really want to live, but what I said is not unreasonable. In this case, whether you choose to die or choose to live, it is impossible to keep the child in your stomach. In this case, the couple can live. One, isn't it much better than two deaths?

So, she asked Marcone: "Let's be a husband and wife. When you pleaded for me just now, you asked this eldest brother to let me go, but you heard that after the child can't stay, do you want me to die with you? Is the only reason I live is to give birth to your son, John?"

Marcone blurted out: "I pleaded with you entirely because of the child in your stomach. If there is no child in your stomach, why should I die and not you? Why can't it be you and me?! No matter how bad it is, we have to die together. , Death's Road can be considered as a companion!"

Lily looked at him in shock, and said angrily: "Well, John, how come I haven't noticed that you are such a thing! A couple with you, at the critical moment you actually want to take me to your funeral!"

After speaking, she immediately looked at Charlie Wade: "Big brother, I will listen to your instructions. I can go and remove the child now, as long as you spare my life!"

Charlie Wade nodded in satisfaction and said, "Yes, since you are so enlightened, then I will spare you not to die, and now I will arrange for someone to take you to the hospital!"

Lily was so excited, she knelt on the ground and knocked Charlie Wade a dozen heads.

At this moment, Marcone next to him was already hysterical!

While Lily was not paying attention, he suddenly rushed up, pinched her neck tightly, pressed her to the ground, and looked at her gritted teeth: "You unfaithful dog woman, die for me!"

Seeing Lily had been pinched by her and rolled her eyes, Cameron Isaac hurriedly asked him: "Master, do you want to make a move? If you don't make a move, this woman will die."

Charlie Wade said lightly: "Isaac, remember what I just said, I will not kill a pregnant woman!"

Cameron Isaac suddenly realized!

The young master did say that he would not kill a pregnant woman.

However, if this Marcone killed the pregnant wife himself, then no one else could be blamed.

Sure enough, within a minute, Lily had stopped her heartbeat and breathing.

After Marccone strangled her to death, he couldn't get rid of his hatred, and gritted his teeth and cursed: "This btch, don't you want to live alone? Go ahead and wait for Master! When you are dying, you can pull a back cushion, and Master is worth the fck. Now!"

Charlie Wade sneered. This Lily was a kowloon sergeant of the entire gang of beggars. Don't think she was a woman, but he might have done no less evil than others.

Therefore, if she were to let her live, Charlie Wade would also feel very sick.

But there is no way. People always have to have principles. This group of dogs has no principles, so they have done so many conscientious things, but they can't, at least they can't kill a pregnant woman by themselves. It's alright now, Marccone helped him solve this problem, at least he would not feel sick because Lily was still alive in this world!

Chapter 1033

After Lily's death, Ron's family, Jeff and others were already frightened.

In a short time, two people have died in front of them, and everyone's death is so miserable.

The beggar elder who drove the Mercedes-Benz S-Class was originally the envy of everyone. He had money and status, and he drove a luxury car. However, just a few minutes ago, his luxury Mercedes became his steel coffin.

But in front of them, Lily's desperate tragic situation shocked their hearts.

Charlie Wade asked Cameron Isaac with a cold face at this time: "Where are the other core members of the Beggar Gang?"

Cameron Isaac said: "Master, rest assured that I have notified all our forces in Southaven. They are already working, and these people will soon be brought over one by one!"

"Okay!" Charlie Wade nodded and sneered: "Today, none of the core members of the Beggar Gang will live!"

All the people and horses of Wade Family hiding in Southaven began to move, and the members of the gang kidnapped from various places were sent to the bridge one by one.

Two of the nine elders of the beggar gang have died, and the remaining seven have been taken one after another.

The two deputy leaders of the Beggar Gang were also brought to the scene at this time.

After the members of the beggar gang gathered, one by one was frightened and collapsed.

None of the later gang dared to believe that someone dared to destroy the entire gang of beggars in Southaven.

Behind the gang of beggars, Donald of the Webb family is supporting him. Why don't even Donald care about this group of people?

Charlie Wade stood in front of this group of people at this time, and said to Cameron Isaac beside him: "Let people bring steel bars over, and give me all the hands of these people and tie them up tightly with steel bars!"

One gang leader, two deputy gang leaders, seven elders, and nine people knelt in a row.

The first one was Marccone, the gang leader who just killed his wife!

Charlie Wade's phone has not stopped recording. At this time, he pointed the viewfinder at Marcone and said with a smile: "Come on, introduce yourself, what is it called? What is it for?"

Marcone looked at him coldly, gritted his teeth and said: "You f*cking pretend to be here with me, I know I will not survive today. If you want to kill, kill, but my brother-in-law will definitely take revenge for me. Then he will take you. Thousands of corpses!"

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled, and said disdainfully: "I, the least believer, is how kind a person can be!"

After all, he looked at everyone kneeling in front of him, including Ron's family and Jeff, and said sharply: "I can tell you very responsibly that today is your anniversary. None of you can live today, but die. There are also many different ways. Some methods of death may be painful, and some methods of death may be painful. Whether it is painful or painful depends on your performance."

Later, Charlie Wade looked at Marcone and smiled: "Didn't you Marcone just behave very kindly? Then you have chosen the painful way of death! I will let you do what you want!"

A panic flashed in Marcone's eyes.

He didn't know what exactly Charlie Wade would do to torture himself.

At this time, Charlie Wade said to Cameron Isaac: "Take off all the clothes on this person, and then use a knife to cut me thin cuts on him. The more you cut, the better, and the wound should not be too deep. But it must bleed. In this case, use a helicopter to lift it up and put it in the river, so that the fish in the water can eat the wounds on his body. If there is enough time, he can be eaten into a bone!"

Chapter 1034

Cameron Isaac's expression stunned when he heard the whole individual, but he didn't expect the young master's methods to be so cruel.

However, when I think about what this group of people are doing is completely devoid of conscience, this method of death is already very fair to them.

If such a scumbag is placed in ancient times, it must be executed soon. So he didn't have any hesitation anymore, and immediately said to the two men in black next to him: "You two, remember to cut the wound more densely!"

The two of them were top killers who killed countless, so they were accustomed to this kind of thing for a long time, so the two immediately took out their knives from their pockets and walked towards Marcone without expression.

Marcone, who was still very kind just now, was trembling with fright at this time, crying loudly: "Big brother, I was wrong, big brother, I was really wrong, I will say whatever you ask me to say, I will never follow You are pretending to be forced, please don't torture me!"

Charlie Wade sneered and said: "What? Haven't started cutting yet? Are you scared? What about the courage just now? Are you worthy of living?"

Marcone panicked and said: "Brother, you can hit me twice, even if you kill me now, I beg you, don't torture me, I will say whatever you ask me to say, and I will cooperate to the end."

Charlie Wade said: "Sorry, I just gave you a chance, but it's too late now."

After speaking, Charlie Wade said again: "But it's a bit useful to make up for it. Don't worry, I won't let the fish eat you into bones. I will ask you to face the camera later and leave a few words for your brother-in-law. words."

As soon as the voice fell, Charlie Wade instructed the two men in black: "First give me his two legs to deal with it!"

The two immediately took out their knives and cut off Marcone's trouser legs directly, and then drew countless blood trails on his calves and thighs, causing him to scream miserably in pain.

The people next to him looked even more terrified.

Immediately afterwards, the helicopter took off Marcone, whose legs were covered with bloody wounds, and then hung him into the river.

Even across such a high bridge, you can hear the screams of Marcone on the water!

After 10 minutes, Charlie Wade said: "Okay, bring him up!"

The helicopter lifted him back slowly.

When he approached the bridge deck, his two legs had been gnawed by the fish in the river so that they didn't look like they were, and bones were exposed in several places.

The 10 minutes that have just passed were the most painful and difficult 10 minutes in Marcone's life.

In those 10 minutes, he felt that countless big fishes and small fishes in the river were desperately trying to tear a piece of meat from the wound on his leg.

That kind of feeling is like being bitten countless bites of meat on his leg, every bite hurts so much that he wants to die!

Now he has only one thought in his mind, no matter what, he can no longer be thrown into the water!

So no matter what Charlie Wade asked himself to do next, he would not dare to have any disobedience!

The man in black caused Marcone, who was so painful to collapse, to kneel next to the others. Charlie Wade looked at him and asked, "How do you feel?"

Marcone cried bitterly: "Please kill me, I really don't want to live..."

Charlie Wade shouted coldly: "I'll give you another chance now. You can answer whatever I ask you. If you answer well, I will give you a happy answer. If you answer badly, you will be embarrassed. "

Marcone nodded as if pounding garlic, crying and said, "Big brother, ask, and I will answer all questions you ask!"

Chapter 1035

Charlie Wade pointed the phone at him and asked, "What is your name? What occupation?"

Marcone tremblingly said: "My name is John Marcone and I am the leader of the Beggar Gang."

Charlie Wade asked again: "What kind of livelihood does your Beggar Gang do?"

Marcone answered truthfully: "The main business of the gang is to pretend to be beggars and beg everywhere."

Charlie Wade asked: "You all wear gold and silver, why do you pretend to be beggars and beg?"

Marcone said: "Because the money is the fastest in this way, we only need to send people out and lie down and sell badly in various crowded places, and we can have a high income."

Charlie Wade asked: "Then why do you abduct so many children?"

Marcone said: "Because when begging, if you bring a child with you, you can double the alms, even several times..."

Charlie Wade continued to ask, "Then why do you make good children disabled?"

Marcone shuddered and said: "Children with disabilities are more able to arouse others' compassion. According to our experience, it is the easiest to make money with children with disabilities to beg."

Charlie Wade asked coldly: "Then how many children have you hurt so far?"

Marcone said nervously: "I haven't counted this, but there should be three digits."

Charlie Wade continued to ask: "Who is behind you to support you in doing such a thing, and who is your backer?"

Marcone said: "My patrons are my sister and brother-in-law."

Charlie Wade asked: "What are the names of your sister and brother-in-law, and what do they do?"

Marcone honestly said: "My sister's name is Xenia. She has no job and is a full-time housewife. My brother-in-law is Donald. He is the heir of the Webb family of southern region."

Charlie Wade asked coldly: "In other words, the reason why you dare to do this kind of conscience is completely because you have Donald behind your back, isn't it?"

Marcone hesitated for a while, but he nodded obediently and said, "Yes, the Beggars can develop to this day. They rely on my brother-in-law to help. It was him who came forward to support me, so no one dared to fight against me."

Charlie Wade asked again: "Does he know what you depend on for a living? Does he know that you poisoned so many minors?"

Marcone nodded: "He knows, he knows all, and my sister also knows..."

Charlie Wade nodded in satisfaction.

With this video, as long as it is released, the reputation and reputation of the Webb family will be greatly affected.

They will be angrily condemned by countless people across the country.

At that time, it would be impossible for the Webb family to be able to PR fix it. What Charlie Wade wanted was to make the Webb family suffer! For this matter, the Webb family is the culprit behind it!

If it weren't for the Webb family's help and abuse, helping this Marcone all the way, forming a gang of beggars, and growing stronger, then he wouldn't have the opportunity to poison so many children!

Chapter 1036

Therefore, the Webb family is an absolute accomplice. Charlie Wade believed that Donald would be very, very uncomfortable after this video was released. Didn't he want to confront himself? Isn't he secretly looking for his enemy, ready to unite and attack him?

Sorry, this young master is already impatient with waiting, so take your brother-in-law first!

So Charlie Wade immediately said to Cameron Isaac: "Put all the members of this gang of beggars into that Iveco, and then weld the steel bars on their hands to the car body!"

"Yes!"

Cameron Isaac gave an order, and many people in black rushed up quickly. Every two people grabbed one and brought them all into the car, which had been cut off and topped Iveco.

The children of Ivecury have been taken to the helicopter and continue to sleep.

The people in black didn't have any kindness to them even if these people were crying and howling.

Immediately after the electric welding machine started up again, the steel bars were wrapped around their wrists. This time they directly welded the steel bars on their wrists to the car. The welding caused a violent high temperature, and this group of people howled.

The whole scene is like hell on earth.

At this time, Charlie Wade looked at Ron's family of five, and said coldly: "Your family, do some sneaking and petting businesses. You won't change after repeated teachings, are extremely nasty, and are inferior to animals! It's really everyone's possession and condemnation! Today I will. Walk for the sky and send your family on the road!"

After finishing speaking, he ignored the hoarse pleadings of the Richie family, and directly let the people in black bring them into Ivecury, and weld them firmly with the others.

At the scene, Jeff, who was almost frightened, was left.

Jeff's eyes towards Charlie Wade were so empty that they lost his soul. His whole body was shivering constantly, and his mouth murmured: "Charlie Wade, we have grown up together, I beg you to forgive me, I am not a heinous person, I am not going to die..please You see, for the sake of growing up together for so many years, spare my life.."

Charlie Wade lowered his head to see that his crotch was already covered with filthy things, and it seemed that he had already incontinence. His face looked like frost, and he said coldly: "Jeff, when you are born, you have to know what you can do and what you can't do. The 100,000-volt high-voltage line will die if you touch it. When you are a first-time offender, and you are open to you, not to mention that you grew up in a welfare institution. Child trafficking is a high-voltage line that no one can touch, and the one we should not touch is orphans like us. I don't understand this truth, so what's the point of your life?"

Jeff crumbled and grabbed his hair and tore a large bunch of hair. Then he raised his head and looked at Charlie Wade with blood-red eyes:

"Charlie Wade, before I die, I have one more question I hope you can answer. Can you satisfy my wish?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said: "For the sake of growing up together, I will satisfy your wish. No matter what question, I will answer you.

However, after I answer you, you will bring my answer."

Jeff shuddered suddenly, staring at Charlie Wade, and asked: "Charlie Wade...who are you...what are you, who can have such great power .."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly, even if he was right, Jeff would definitely ask himself this question.

So, he squatted down, looked at Jeff's eyes, and said word by word:

"Jeff, what I want to tell you next, even my wife doesn't know it. This may be the last thing you get before you die. An answer, so I hope you can listen carefully."

Jeff swallowed hard, nodded hard, and said with a trace of unwillingness in his eyes: "Don't worry, I will listen carefully to every word you say, so that I can come to you for revenge in my next life. !"

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently: "Then listen carefully! I am from the Wade family of Eastcliff...Master!"

Chapter 1037

Jeff has lived for more than 20 years, and what Charlie Wade said was the most shocking and incredible sentence he had heard in his life.

With bloodshot eyes, he stared at Charlie Wade's face and muttered: "Impossible, how is this possible? I know you, I have known you since I was a child, your name is Charlie Wade, you are an orphan! You 8 You were taken back to the orphanage by Mrs. Lewis when you were 20 years old. You are like me. In this society, there is no support, no father and no mother. How could it be the young master of the Wade family?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "I know, it's hard for you to believe this, but it's really true. Otherwise, how could you think I could mobilize so many people to chase you casually? Look at these helicopters. , Look at these people in black with live ammunition, if I were not the young master of the Wade family, you should have succeeded this time."

"But...but..." Jeff asked incredulously: "If you are the young master of Wade's family, why did you grow up in the orphanage? Why didn't they treat you Take it away? Why let you, a young master in Eastcliff, live with a stinky silk like us since childhood?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "They didn't know my whereabouts back then. Before my father died, it took a lot of hard work to hide my identity. Although the Wade family has been looking for me, they never thought I will grow up in an orphanage."

Jeff immediately asked: "Then they found you again now? When did it happen? Why is this?"

Charlie Wade said: "They came to me some time ago. Before they found me, I was just like you, and I might not be as good as you, because at that time, I was not only physically Penniless, I still work as a live-in son-in-law at my wife's house. Every day I wash clothes and cook. I don't see any hope in life. Unlike you, you can at least work as a director in a deceptive company."

Jeff blurted out: "You know that you are the young master of the Wade family. Since you are living in such a miserable life, why don't you take the initiative to find them? As long as you take the initiative to find them, you don't have to live a life of being looked down upon. Not going?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "This is the difference between the two of us. I came from an extraordinary background, but I am willing to be humble; you come from a humble background, but you are not willing to be humble and ordinary. If you are like me and willing to be humble, how can you commit crimes? What's the big mistake today?"

"I don't understand!" Jeff desperately shook his head, already a little irrational and said: "I don't understand! I really don't understand! Is it because you saw money when you were young? Can you go on?"

"Perhaps." Charlie Wade smiled faintly, and said: "When I was young, I was really rich in clothes and goods. The life I lived at that time may be something you can't imagine now, but what about it? I didn't live well. Happy, my parents are not happy either."

Jeff asked incredulously: "Then are you willing to suffer poverty? When you were a kid, you obviously experienced a rich life, but when you have nothing, don't you miss that life?"

Charlie Wade sighed lightly and said again: "Jeff, you take money too seriously. You can take money very seriously, but you can take money too seriously. There are certain things that money can never match. For example, your ideals, your love, your principles, and your conscience. Once you put your position in the wrong position, you will do things wrong. Some things can be changed if they are wrong, and some things cannot be changed if they are wrong. "

At this moment, Jeff finally realized how humble he was. Because Charlie Wade in front of him, Charlie Wade who grew up in the orphanage with him since childhood, turned out to be the young master of the Wade Family of Eastcliff!

It was also at this moment that he knew how far he was from Charlie Wade. He finally knew the gap between the two. It's the gap between the Day and the Night! It is the gap between pheasant and phoenix! It is the crucian carp that crosses the river, the gap with the real dragon on earth! It was also at this moment that Jeff finally gave in completely. He knew that not only did he lose in this life, but also in the next life. It is no longer possible for himself to seek revenge like Charlie Wade, and if Charlie Wade kills himself, it is as easy as crushing an ant. He is the same as Ron's family, and the members of the Beggar Gang, except that Charlie Wade is a real dragon on earth, a small fish and shrimp that yawns to death.

Jeff's face was instantly filled with despair. Just now, he was thinking about his next life, or seeking revenge on Charlie Wade in the next life. But at this moment, he really understood that even if he had another life, he probably wouldn't have the qualification to seek revenge against Charlie Wade.

Chapter 1038

The most painful thing in the world is to realize that you will never be able to catch up with your enemy in a few lifetimes. At this moment, Jeff is already completely ashamed!

He looked at Charlie Wade with tears and choked up: "Charlie Wade, I take it, I really take it, you kill me, I am tired of the world, and I am tired of myself. Please let me out..."

Charlie Wade nodded and looked at him seriously: "Jeff, of all the people who are going to die today, your crime is the lightest; but also among everyone who is going to die today, everyone commits a capital crime, of course. Including you, I hope you can have a good baby in your next life!"

Jeff smiled miserably and said, "In my next life... after hearing you just finished your story, I suddenly felt that a person like me might be born with a hard life. If you give me another life, I can't do it. Still an orphan, maybe it's still a stinking silk in the eyes of a few people..."

Charlie Wade nodded with a flat expression and said, "In this case, then I hope you can be a good person in your next life."

Jeff nodded seriously and smiled sadly: "As you said, I myself have begun to hate myself. I hope I can be a good person in my next life."

After that, his whole person was calmer. He was scared of incontinence just now, but at this time, he was able to hold on calmly and stood up by himself.

He stood in front of Charlie Wade and said seriously: "Charlie Wade, let me go on the road, send those children back safely, tell Mrs. Lewis that I am wrong, tell all my friends, I am wrong, I I regret it, I used my life to atone for my sins..."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Since you really know what you were wrong, then I will give you a happy one."

With that said, Charlie Wade said to Cameron Isaac: "Weld all those people in Ivecury, and then let the helicopter hoist the car into the river!"

"Good master!"

The helicopter took off again.

Ive Currie, the core member of the Beggar Gang and Ron's family, kept crying out the last despair.

Everyone was struggling hard, but at this time not only they were welded to death, but the car was also welded to death, it was impossible for them to escape.

Then the helicopter simply threw the Iveco full of sins into the river. This Iveco made a rapid bubble on the surface of the river, and then it sank completely to the bottom of the river!

Charlie Wade turned his head to look at Jeff at this time, and said lightly: "I promise to give you a pleasure, not to make you die as painful as they did."

Jeff smiled miserably and nodded: "Thank you, Charlie Wade."

Charlie Wade nodded slightly, and said to a man in black next to him: "Take him to the bridge and give him something simple."

The man in black nodded: "Good master!"

Before the man in black could get started, Jeff staggered towards the bridge.

He climbed onto the guardrail, turned to Charlie Wade and said, "Charlie Wade, give me a good time!"

Charlie Wade looked at the man in black and nodded slightly.

Afterwards, the man in black took a black pistol from his waist and aimed it at Jeff's forehead.

Bang!

A bloody flower burst out of the back of Jeff's head!

Immediately afterwards, his body leaned back, fell off the bridge, plunged into the river, and was instantly swallowed by the rolling river...

Chapter 1039

When Jeff died, Charlie Wade suddenly felt a little sad. He was sad not because he sympathized with Jeff, but because he felt that a person had become what he hated the most. This was indeed a kind of sadness.

Jeff is in his youth. If it were not for going astray, he would have the opportunity to change his destiny. Perhaps in a few years, he could also marry someone, become the CEO, and reach the pinnacle of life.

But life is like this. Some pits can get up, and some pits can't get out again.

Looking at the billowing river, a person was hurt for a moment and said to Cameron Isaac: "Okay, you help me take the child back, send it to the hospital for the doctor to check if there is any serious problem, and then notify the welfare institution to come over. "

Cameron Isaac nodded and asked, "Master, what should the beggar do for the rest?"

Charlie Wade sighed: "There are tens of thousands of evil beggars, and they can't be killed. I only hope that the death of the heads of the beggars can make the people below wake up a bit, and don't do this kind of beggars in the future. thing."

After speaking, he said again: "By the way, let all the people on the scene today stop talking nonsense after returning."

Cameron Isaac immediately said: "Master, don't worry, I understand!"

Charlie Wade said: "Okay, let's go back!"

Cameron Isaac hurriedly used the walkie-talkie to order: "One group, send all the children to Aurouss Hill People's Hospital, and the second group, escort the young master back to Aurouss Hill!"

After a few minutes.

Charlie Wade had already boarded the helicopter on his way back, but the altitude of the plane was not high, and the cell phone signal was not affected.

So Charlie Wade put the video he had taken in Facebook and processed it, mainly to change his voice so that it was unrecognizable, and then uploaded the processed video to the Internet.

This period of time is a bit long, very shocking, and some bloody videos. Once released, they immediately became popular on the Internet.

Originally, the loss of 10 children in Aurouss Hill Welfare Institute today has become the target of attention of people across the country. The popularity of the Internet has surpassed all other news, ranking first in the major rankings!

Almost the people of the whole country are holding their mobile phones and watching this shocking video!

Now this video has brought this event to a perfect ending. The bad guys are punished and the children are rescued. It immediately aroused the zealous blood in the hearts of the people across the country.

Especially in the section where all the core members of the Beggar Gang were welded to the River in a Ivecuri, countless people were excited and applauded.

People all over the country want to know who did this? Who made this video?

However, Charlie Wade dealt with all other information, and did not even leave a back view to the people.

At the same time, because I learned that Donald of the Webb family is the backer of the beggar gang leader Marcone, the whole network criticized the Webb family.

Hundreds of millions of people scolded Webb's family online and asked the police to conduct a thorough investigation.

The reputation of the Webb family was destroyed.

Just when this video went viral on the entire network, and countless people reposted, commented, liked, and applauded, the whole gang of beggars was completely exploded!

They did not expect that none of their gang leaders, two deputy gang leaders, and the nine elders were spared!

This made the middle-level leaders of the gang of beggars almost all start, desperate to run away overnight.

The Webb family didn't know all of this at this time. Kian just added a meal and caused the whole Webb family to jump around.

The old man of the Webb family was greatly stimulated last time, and he has just recovered from this period.

Chapter 1040

At this time, Donald and his wife Xenia were comforting, and they had just fed Kian.

As the eldest son and grandson, Sean was carrying the dinner prepared by the servant and came to his grandfather's room.

When he just opened the door, he saw the old man lying on the carpet, twitching constantly, foaming at his mouth, his face pale!

Sean was taken aback, and hurriedly stepped forward to check and found that the old man seemed to have had a stroke. When he looked at his hand, he was holding his cell phone tremblingly. There was a video on the cell phone. How could the person on the video look like this? My uncle?

He subconsciously picked up the phone and took a look. He just saw his little uncle go crazy, pinched his aunt's neck, and strangled her directly...

When Sean shivered, his mobile phone was thrown out.

When he was shocked by the content of the video, the old man beside him had already lost his breath.

Sean was shocked and rushed out the door, shouting at the servant and the doctor.

The doctor arrived quickly and began to give first aid to the old man.

Soon, Donald and his wife rushed over after hearing the news.

"What's going on?! Why did the old man suddenly have a stroke?!"

As soon as Donald arrived, he immediately questioned the Webb family's expert doctor.

The doctor immediately said: "Chairman Webb, the master should have been irritated, and he was suddenly irritated, almost like last time!"

"what happened?!"

Donald was extremely puzzled, what happened? Why is it suddenly stimulated to have a stroke?

At this time, Sean in the corner watched all the videos circulating on the Internet, and came to Donald and Xenia with a pale and weak face, and said in a panic: "Dad, mom, my uncle killed my aunt, and then someone killed him. My little uncle and all the core members of his Beggar Gang, even the same group of human traffickers, a dozen or so people are all welded to an Ivecury, the thrown in the river..."

"what?!"

When the couple heard this, what was their first reaction?

How can there be such a thing in this era?

Weld a dozen people in the car and dump them in the river? How arrogant is this?

Besides, Marcone's gang of beggars in southern region and the whole province are all standard local dragons, and ordinary people can't provoke them at all, let alone ordinary people, it is impossible for ordinary people to provoke them.

And the entire gang of beggars has more than 10,000 men. Who has the ability to kill all the core members of the gang of beggars?

Xenia touched her son's forehead, and couldn't help but said, "Son, are you having a fever? Then it's your brother and aunt, how can you arrange them like this?"

Sean hurriedly said: "Oh, what I said is true. It has spread all over the Internet now, and before my uncle died, he admitted to the camera that our Webb family was his backer, and he relied on our Webb family. That's why we have done so many things that hurt the world and reason. Now the whole network is scolding our Webb family!"

"What?!" The couple were shocked.

Donald immediately grabbed the phone from him and blurted out: "Which video will I have a look at."

Sean immediately found the video and clicked to play!

At this time, Donald was sweating nervously, staring at the screen of his mobile phone. He knew what his brother-in-law had done. If he really asked the Webb family to take care of him, then the reputation of the Webb family would be all over!

Xenia also raised her heart to her throat. She still couldn't believe that her brother and younger siblings were all dead!

Chapter 1041

Donald and Xenia were close to each other, staring at their mobile phones, after watching this thrilling video that broke them completely. Seeing her brother strangled her sister-in-law, she was panicked to the extreme. When she saw her brother was welded to death in the car and sinking into the river with the car, she collapsed completely, and her legs became soft and paralyzed. Fell to the ground.

Immediately afterwards, she cried out desperately: "John! My brother! You died so miserably! You are dead, and our Marcone family is dead! How do you let your sister face our parents, How to face the ancestors of our Marcone family!"

After that, she tried her best to hit the ground with her fist, and shouted hysterically: "My good brother, you tell my sister who killed you! My sister must have broken him into pieces, and take revenge for you! People are so cruel!"

When Sean saw that his mother's fist had been smashed into flesh and blood, he hurriedly stepped forward and grabbed her hand and persuaded: "Mom, my uncle is gone, so don't do that..."

Xenia was crazy, grabbing her husband by the collar, desperately shaking her mouth and shouting crazy: "Donald, who killed your brother-in-law?! You must find him! Get him out! Bring it to me, let me kill him personally and avenge my brother!"

Donald was extremely upset at this time. He didn't care if Marcone was dead or alive. It can even be said that he had long been expecting Marcone to die.

He had long been fed up with Marcone's unpromising things, backed by his own brother-in-law, and doing sordid things like abducting women and children would only discredit his face!

But he never thought that Marcone would die in this way. It doesn't matter if he is dead. But he is dead, he can't affect the whole Webb family! It's better now, before this little bastard died, he pushed everything to the Webb family!

He even called his name publicly, saying that he was supporting him behind his back. Isn't this pushing himself on the road to absolutes? How do people outside look at Webb's family and how do they look at themselves? Without even thinking about it, I knew that Webb's current reputation must have been in a mess and plummeted! This is all thanks to Marcone this dog thing!

At this moment, Donald's assistant ran over quickly and blurted out: "Chairman, it's not good. Chairman, now the whole country is scolding Webb family and scolding you. The broker called me just now and said that if you continue like this As the situation continues, several of our listed group stocks will immediately drop by their limit at the opening of the market tomorrow, and will drop by at least 10 times in a row! By that time, the entire Webb family's assets will have lost more than half!"

The biggest fear of listed companies is the collapse of reputation. Once a listed company is exposed to a huge scandal, the first thing that will be reflected is the stock price. The stock will continue to fall, continue to fall, and receive a point that no one can imagine!

Chapter 1042

Some companies have a market value of more than tens of billions, but only a few hundred million will fall, and their assets have shrunk by more than 90!

Some companies just have a little problem with their products, and they may end up in bankruptcy. But compared to the Webb family's charges, what counts?

This time, the Webb family might have to carry all the scapegoats for Marcone's beggar gang, and all the conscientious things he did might end up on the Webb family!

Donald was extremely nervous at this time, because he knew very well in his heart that what the Webb family was facing this time might be a catastrophe!

So he immediately said to his assistant: "I immediately issued a statement in the name of the group. Although Marcone is indeed my brother-in-law of Donald, our Webb family has no knowledge of what Marcone did, and all of Marcone's behavior. It is his personal responsibility. Donald and the entire Webb family don't know or don't know. At the same time, we will prove ourselves to the police because we have nothing to do with Marcone's illegal and criminal activities. Don't be misled by someone with a heart, and bring the rhythm!"

The assistant nodded immediately and blurted out: "Okay Chairman, I will arrange for someone to issue a statement now!"

Xenia was immersed in the immense pain of losing her younger brother and the family's bloodline. He suddenly heard her husband say that he would leave all ties with his younger brother, and suddenly said, "Donald, do you have a conscience? Your brother-in-law, he is my own brother, he has been killed now, he has been killed, can you understand?! Not only did you not give him revenge, but you still have to get rid of him?! Are you still? people!"

Donald is also getting angry, because if this matter is not handled well, it is very likely that the whole Webb family will be affected.

Seeing that his wife is still defending her damn brother, Donald resented and scolded sharply, "If it wasn't for your bastard brother, how could my Webb family be so passive? I told you a long time ago to persuade you. Advise him not to do this kind of conscience, you just won't listen!"

"You protect him everywhere and defend him everywhere. I say a word and you won't let me say it. Now it's alright. Someone walks the way for the sky. It doesn't matter if he is dead, it will tire my Webb family too!"

When Xenia heard this, she was almost so angry that she was about to collapse. She gritted her teeth, raised her hand and grabbed Donald's face.

Donald couldn't dodge, and Xenia immediately scratched his face with blood!

Xenia's nails were already long, making it so strong that he scratched his skin and flesh, so that the crevices of her fingernails were full of bloody flesh!

Donald screamed with pain, and was even more angry. He grabbed Xenia's collar, raised his hand, and slapped her face several times.

He slapped the face and cursed: "Xenia, do you know? Your brother is about to hurt me miserably! I can't bear it for your brother a long time ago. If it weren't for your face, I would want it without others. His life, do you know what I regret most now? What I regret most is that I didn't kill him as a b*tch! Now he turned into a bomb, died by himself, and exploded me too Beyond recognition!"

Xenia and Donald have not been beaten up after so many years of marriage. Now that the younger brother is dead, she was suddenly slapped so much by Donald, and she has completely lost her mind.

"Donald, you are not a human! I was blind and misunderstood you! If you don't help my brother get revenge, I will go by myself. From today on, I have nothing to do with you!"

After Xenia finished speaking, she was about to run outside.

Sean wanted to chase him, Donald sternly shouted: "You will come back for me! What are you doing chasing her at this time? Will chasing her back cause us trouble? Don't you know what matters most to the Webb family now?"

Sean suddenly realized, and blurted out: "Dad! I'm going to find a group of navy soldiers to help us wash the white! No matter how much money you spend!"

Chapter 1043

Just as the Webb family was scolded on the Internet, the Webb Group's statement has been published through various channels.

However, all people can see that this is a statement to clarify the relationship.

Everyone knows that for someone as capable as Donald, it is impossible for him not to know what occupation his brother-in-law is engaged in. There is no credibility at all when you come out to set aside everything. Moreover, many people on the Internet have picked out Marcone's life resume.

The Marcon family was originally a poor family in the south, not only did not have much money, but also the people were not prosperous enough. It wasn't until Xenia, the daughter of the Marcon family, married Donald, that the Marcon family was getting better.

However, Xenia's parents did not have such a good life. Not long after their daughter was married, they died because of cancer.

When they died, John Marcone was still a second-generation ancestor who had no job and was idle.

Back then, Marcone relied on subsidies from his sister Xenia, and lived a life of drunkenness and dreams.

Later, Marcone began to make his fortune slowly, and his starting point was the beggar gang.

And many people have revealed the development trajectory of the beggar gang on the Internet.

In fact, in the early years, the gang of beggars was divided into many groups. Marcone's gang of beggars was not very competitive, and even almost was swallowed by more powerful forces several times.

Until one time, after his brother-in-law Donald came forward to settle the crisis for him, no one in the entire south knew that Marcone was Donald's brother-in-law.

It is precisely because everyone has to look at Donald's face that Marcone can develop step by step to this day.

Therefore, at this time Donald came out and said that he had nothing to do with Marcone, and he didn't know what Marcone did. This was simply not enough to make people believe.

Not only could it not persuade the vast number of people, but even because it jumped out of the pot at this time, it was despised by the majority of people.

So much so that the voice of scolding Webb's family on the Internet is even louder, and this time everyone directly targeted Donald, 80 are all scolding Donald.

Donald never dreamed that he would make a statement, but it was counterproductive.

Rather than saying that he was a slamming essay, it was better to say that he was a quotation of a war. This statement attracted all the flames of war to him.

Seeing that countless people send out all kinds of insulting content and posts every second on the Internet, Donald wants to die.

Sean saw his father being scolded as a dead dog on the Internet and being insulted by hundreds of millions of people. He couldn't bear it. In addition, he had a strong desire to express, so he immediately spent a lot of money and hired one. A navy who specializes in whitewashing people online.

This navy leader is quite capable. He specializes in whitewashing the wicked. As long as you give him money, even if it is black, he can say it is white. Even if he is against the world, he has nothing to fear.

In fact, there are many scum like this on the Internet. This person makes his own profit by smearing others or justifying sinners.

For example, in the entertainment industry, there is often a wife of a celebrity couple cheating, but in order not to be exposed and not to affect her career, she spends money to find this kind of scum to smear her husband, and beat her husband to say that her husband is out.

Stealing fishy, or beating him back and saying that his husband is obsessed with gambling and ignores his family.

In this way, her husband was criticized by the population, and she could continue to go on freely safely.

This navy leader had done many such things in the early years.

Chapter 1044

Later, by chance, he got in touch with the Webb family.

Earlier, Sean's younger brother Kian was exposed online because he gave a little girl psychological hints and induced a girl to jump off the building.

At that time, the Webb family let this navy leader come forward and forced Kian to kill the little girl, twisting it into a little girl who was greedy for vanity and tried to marry into a wealthy family. In the end, she failed to pursue Kian. This threatened her by jumping off the building. Finally died accidentally.

At that time, the head of the navy used his shameless and powerful navy lineup to reverse black and white on the Internet, making people mistakenly believe that it was a little girl who was eating the bad results, and finally caused a large number of people to scold the little girl on the Internet for what she deserved. The girl's parents had no way of upbringing, and finally forced the parents who lost their only daughter to take medicine at home and died.

After the parents died after taking the medicine, the navy leader deliberately suppressed the news that the two had committed suicide. He even made up a lie, claiming that the two had scammed away from the Webb family, tens of millions in compensation, and then left. Immigrate to the United States.

People who don't know the truth thought it was all true, and even when the other's parents were dead, they still abused them online.

This navy leader is not only not ashamed, but proud of it, and often declares to the public that this is a classic of his own public relations.

This shows how scumbag this person is.

What's even more ridiculous is that this navy leader has become such a lowly scum that he actually gave himself a screen name, called Anthony Shields!

This time, the leader of the naval forces called Anthony Shields, after receiving 20 million from the Webb family, started his performance again. He posted on major websites, claiming: "The majority of people are being used by people with unpredictable intentions. Donald is the most famous entrepreneur in Southaven and the largest philanthropist in Southaven. No one pays more attention to children than he does. Health and safety, how could he indulge Marcone and do these unreasonable things? This incident shows that someone deliberately wanted to plant the Webb family and make the Webb family collapse, so that he could profit from it."

He even swears to the sky in the post: "If he makes a false statement, the sky will thunder and thunder and the whole family will die."

In order to make everyone believe him, he specifically listed the Webb Group's competitors in various fields, and claimed that these companies may be behind the scenes, and it is even possible that these companies are uniting and want to deal with the Webb family.

Then, this person also mobilized the whole family to bring rhythm with the water army account.

At this moment, Charlie Wade was still on the helicopter returning to Arouss Hilll.

He brushed some web portals at will, and he was quite relieved to see that everyone was aiming at the Webb family.

Regardless of whether Donald personally participated in these conscientious things, he was the chief culprit who helped John Marcone to be the abuser.

If it were not for him to support Marcone, Marcone would not have the opportunity to get up, let alone poison so many minors.

Therefore, although Marcone is dead, the Webb family must also pay for this matter!

But when he was browsing all kinds of comments, he suddenly found a post from a man called Anthony Shields.

After reading it, he was very upset with this person's remarks.

Therefore, he instructed Cameron Isaac: "Find the best hacker, touch this person's information, and see if he has collected the Webb family's money, and if so, expose all the evidence chains, making Webb family worse. !"

Cameron Isaac nodded immediately and said: "Okay young master, I will make arrangements!"

Charlie Wade said again: "By the way, locate me the actual address of the navy army and bring him to Don Albertt's kennel!"

Cameron Isaac asked: "Master, how do you deal with this navy?"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "The rumormaker, die!"

Chapter 1045

This navy named Anthony Shields and guarding oneself is nothing but a shameless ordinary person.

Although he has some ability to call on the navy, in front of a real top hacker, he is simply a transparent person.

After the hacker hacked into his computer, he immediately investigated his personal information.

First of all, this person is from Citra Province and his family is in Reddick City.

Secondly, this person has indeed just received 20 million in cash from the Webb family.

Again, this man stupidly used his bank card to collect the money. And the hacker also found the chat history between him and Webb's family. In the chat log, Sean asked him if he could help the Webb family whitewash. He immediately said that he had 10,000 ways to help whitewash, and he had done this more than once.

He also took out the case of helping Kian whitewash and preached, in order to make Sean believe in his strength and willing to give him this list.

After the hacker got the information and chat records, he immediately reported it to Cameron Isaac.

Cameron Isaac reported to Charlie Wade again and asked him: "How do you plan to do this, Master?"

Charlie Wade said lightly: "We should have eyeliner in Reddick, right?" Cameron Isaac nodded immediately and said, "Of course, every city in the country has our eyeliner."

"Okay!" Charlie Wade said with satisfaction: "If this is the case, it will be staged immediately, and this person will be caught by me first. Reddick should not be far from Aurouss Hill, right?"

Cameron Isaac said: "The straight-line distance is just over 200 kilometers."

Charlie Wade said, "The helicopter will arrive in less than an hour. In this way, you can have someone catch him now and send him directly to Don Albertt's dog farm by helicopter."

"In addition, after catching someone, let the hacker expose all the information to the Internet, I want to completely ruin the Webb family."

"Okay!" Cameron Isaac nodded and immediately began to order.

Reddick is a small city in Citra Province. Its economic development is not developed, and housing prices and consumption are not high.

And this leader of the naval forces, who is called Anthony Shields and guarding oneself, has not finished his elementary school and basically has no culture. He belongs to the bottom of society. If he starves to death, he starves to death.

However, the Internet age gave this person a chance to achieve himself. He started cursing on the Internet at first. Earlier, if he gave him 50 cents, he could hire him to scold others on the Internet for a day.

Later, he gradually found the trick. As a navy soldier, he is now a rich man in this small city, living in a single-family villa and driving a Mercedes-Benz car, and he has the feeling of being a master.

Today, an accident in the Webb family brought him 20 million in income, which made him ecstatic.

At this time, he didn't care about eating, so he arranged work for his navy soldiers at home and asked them to use various methods to help the Webb family clean up, and even asked them to spread rumors that a popular star cheated, hoping to rely on the news that the rumors star cheated. To attract the enthusiasm of Webb's news.

He is already familiar with work like this, so the arrangement is very smooth.

But he didn't know that at this moment, there was already a team of people starting from the city and rushing to the villa area where he was. Just as he had just finished arranging the work and was enjoying himself with a cigarette in his mouth, the door of the villa was suddenly opened with a door breaker!

Immediately afterwards, a group of people in black with live ammunition rushed into the villa.

He and his family were frightened suddenly.

Chapter 1046

One of the men in black stepped up to him, put a gun against his forehead, and asked in a cold voice, "You are on your own?"

The head of the navy was so scared that he hurriedly said: "I am not, I am not! I don't understand what you are talking about, who are you?"

The man in black said coldly: "Who are we, you will know soon, come with us!"

The navy leader hurriedly shouted: "Follow you! Why did you break into my house? If you don't leave, I will call the police!"

Two men in black walked forward directly, one of them grabbed his arms and twisted them back, then twisted his arms directly.

Anthony Shields screamed with pain, and the other person didn't intend to spare him. He directly slanted down 45 degrees and kicked his two knees fiercely, and even kicked both legs directly from his knees!

The head of the navy army almost fainted in pain, and his family was crying with fright.

The man in black sneered: "Isn't it great on the Internet? You dare to use your fingers and type casually? Why do you just get confused today? People like you are not awesome in reality."

The leader of the navy army hurriedly cried: "Daddys, grandpas, I'm just a cockroach, please let me go a lot! I can give you money, I have a lot of money!"

One of the people in black shouted angrily: "Relying on betraying your conscience to make a few stinky money will make you look bad? A dog like you will live in this world in vain!"

After that, he took out a cigar cutter, grabbed the opponent's right hand, and said coldly: "Aren't you eating with 10 fingers? Okay, today I will let you see how your job was broken. !"

Subsequently, the cigar was cut 10 times in a row, leaving 10 fingers on the ground..

Anthony Shields was so desperate and desperate, but he heard the man in black say: "This is just a prelude, is it already scared like this? Don't worry, come with us to Aurouss Hilll, the fun is still to come!"

The navy leader cried and said, "Grandpa spare my life, I'm only 25 years old, and I can't die!"

The man in black said coldly: "Our young master has already said that, the rumor, die!"

After that, he waved his hand and said coldly: "Take this man away and send it to the outskirts of Aurouss Hilll, where the helicopter will come right away!"

Then a group of people in black drove the disabled navy leader directly out of the door, stuffed it into the car, and drove towards the outskirts.

At this time, Sean, who was in Southaven, was still waiting for the navy to help the Webb family wash their whites and at the same time help the Webb family to divert attention.

But he did not expect that another hot search soon appeared on the Internet!

"Webb family throws 20 million and hires the navy to wash himself off!"

Below this hot search, there are screenshots of all the chat records of Sean and the navy boss, payment vouchers and screenshots of bank accounts!

This time, the entire network exploded even more! The Webb family has detonated a powder keg with Internet public opinion! No one thought that the Webb family would dare to be so shameless at this time. This greatly aroused the indignation and sense of justice in everyone's hearts!

Donald was originally searched for by Article 1 and was so overwhelmed. At this time, his assistant suddenly told him: "Chairman, it's not good, something has happened. All the chat records between the young master and the navy were exposed. Now! The public opinion attacks on the Webb family on the Internet are now more powerful!"

Donald took out his mobile phone and took a look, he almost went away without being angry!

He stepped forward to Sean, raised his hand and slapped him in the face, and yelled: "You are something that has not succeeded in success, but is more than defeated! Who makes you do it yourself?!"

Chapter 1047

Sean felt very wronged.

He also wanted to help his father share his worries, but he didn't expect this navy leader to be so unreliable!

Not only unreliable, but also dare to betray yourself!

He was extremely angry and said to Donald: "Dad! The navy leader took my money and dared to expose me. I must smash him into pieces!"

Donald said coldly: "You are really not ordinary stupid. How can he dare to fight against our Webb family for a mere unscrupulous sailor? It must be the people behind this thing who are doing us!"

Sean hurriedly asked: "Dad, who do you think did this thing? Who is so bold that not only did he dare to kill my uncle and the core members of the entire gang of beggars, but also dare to openly confront the Webb family!"

Donald gritted his teeth and said: "I'm also considering this issue, but I really can't imagine, who has such a great power, and these families who have had some conflicts with us during the festival have long been convinced by us. They I simply don't have the ability to plan such a big thing..."

Sean couldn't help asking: "Dad, what do you mean is that a stronger family is targeting us?"

Donald sighed: "I can't figure it out now, but I suddenly felt that this matter might have something to do with Charlie Wade in Aurouss Hilll!"

"Charlie Wade?!" Sean exclaimed, and said, "He shouldn't have such a great power? It's possible to say that it's possible to be a local snake in Aurouss Hilll, but how could he have such strength? Catch all the core members of the Beggar Gang? Even the Webb family may not have such strength!"

Donald nodded and said, "What you said is indeed reasonable, but the reason why I judge this is because I just saw a message on the Internet!"

Sean hurriedly asked: "What information?"

Donald said with a black face, "You damn uncle, the batch of children he wanted to buy this time was stolen from the Aurouss Hilll Welfare Institute."

Speaking of this, Donald paused slightly, gritted his teeth and said: "I investigated the identity of this Charlie Wade before. He grew up in the Aurouss Hilll Welfare Institute!"

"It turned out to be like this!" Sean exclaimed, and said, "If you say that, the children who were stolen this time can be regarded as Charlie Wade's younger siblings!"

"Right!" Donald said: "That's why I speculated that this matter should be inseparable from Charlie Wade!"

Sean couldn't help asking: "Dad, how can Charlie Wade do this? Even his backers in Aurouss Hilll don't have such a strong ability! Even if the Moore family comes forward, they can't have such a strength!"

Donald said with some worry: "So this is what I worry about the most. If the Moore family is his backer, then I am not afraid at all, but I am afraid of Cameron Isaac!"

Back in Aurouss Hilll, Donald and his son were beaten out of Shangri-La by Cameron Isaac.

At that time, both of them had their legs broken, and finally waited for the helicopter to arrive. Cameron Isaac didn't even allow the helicopter to land in the square in front of Shangri-La. It can be said that the Webb father and son were not given any face.

However, Cameron Isaac is a member of the Wade family, everyone knows this, so the Webb family father and son dare not ask him to settle accounts.

Donald now suspects that the person who has the ability to kill the entire gang of beggars in Southaven in a short time is Cameron Isaac! Hearing this judgment, Sean couldn't help but get nervous. He looked at Donald and blurted out and asked, "Dad, why does Cameron Isaac help that Charlie Wade? He himself is just the spokesperson of the Wade family."

"It stands to reason that if it was his own decision, he would not be able to mobilize such a powerful force. There must be a lot of Wade Family relationships behind this incident. How dare he use Wade Family relationships for Charlie Wade??"

"Could it be..."

When Sean said this, his face had become extremely ugly.

He looked at his father and asked in a low voice, "Dad, that Charlie Wade wouldn't be a member of the Wade family? This would make sense. He is a member of the Wade family. That's why Cameron Isaac gave him face like this. He is Wade Family, so he can have such a great power!"

Chapter 1048

Donald looked shocked, hesitated for a moment, waved his hand and said, "No, it's still impossible. It is impossible for a family of Wade family to go to Aurouss Hilll to be a live-in son-in-law! This is totally insulting. Thing! Not to mention that the Wade family is impossible. Even if the Webb family is less than one-tenth of the Wade family, it is absolutely impossible for me to let you or your brother go to Aurouss Hilll to be the son-in-law of an ordinary family. This is totally unreasonable.!"

Sean frowned and said: "Then how to consider this matter, I can't consider it, is it Charlie Wade?"

Donald said: "I suspect it has something to do with him, but I can't figure out what kind of connection is in it. It just so happens that we have been trying to get revenge from him. This time, we even did revenge and investigation together! "

Sean hurriedly asked, "Dad, what do you mean, go to Aurouss Hilll again?"

"Yes!" Donald gritted his teeth and said coldly: "This time, I must make that Charlie Wade better than dead!"

With that, he looked at Sean and asked, "Did you communicate with Kenneth Wilson?"

"Communication!" Sean said hurriedly: "His meaning is very simple. As long as we move, he must keep up. He has a deep hatred of Charlie Wade. Because of Charlie Wade, he can't do everything. It is said to be painful. very."

"Okay." Donald asked again: "How about Hannah who was sent to the black coal mine to dig coal?"

Sean said: "The situation on her side is okay. Unlike the Golim Mountain, the two have always had masters guarding and not robbing them. The Black Coal Kiln has no masters. If necessary, we can send someone there at any time to bring Hannah. Get it back."

Donald said with a black face: "The father and son of Golim Mountain didn't snatch anyone over last time. This time they sent more people over. In any case, they must be snatched back by me!"

After speaking, Donald said again: "Let the eight heavenly kings of our family pass! I still don't believe I can't get back the two stinky hanging silk digging ginseng in Golim Mountain!"

Sean exclaimed and said, "Dad, let the eight heavenly kings go? Not so? Isn't this a sledgehammer?"

After all, the Webb family is the first family in the south of the Yangtze River. They not only have their own medical team but also their own master team.

The Webb family's master team is divided into three echelons.

Ranked in the third echelon are some veterans, who are much stronger than the average person, but they are not enough to see the real masters, they can only look after the home nursing home;

In the second echelon are some retired special forces with strong strength. These people are the personal bodyguards of the core members of the Webb family.

Ranked in the first echelon are the eight kings.

The Eight Heavenly Kings are martial arts masters who came out of the eight hidden Sejong gates, and they were dug up by the Webb family with a lot of money.

These eight people are very prominent in the Webb family. Under normal circumstances, they dare not ask them to come forward if they encounter any trouble.

Because these eight people are strategic nuclear weapons that will only be used at an emergency.

Donald knew that Charlie Wade's strength was extraordinary, and he brought so many bodyguards last time, but they were completely useless. I sent people to Golim Mountain to snatch people, but the people sent were also killed.

This makes Donald feel very depressed!

From the beginning to the present, he has never sought a bargain under Charlie Wade's hands.

The successive failures have made him almost intolerable, and coupled with the blow of today's extinction, he almost collapsed.

So at this time, Donald desperately needs a victory, so he must go all out, first use a crushing victory to comfort his injured heart!

So he gritted his teeth and said: "This time I must have a big victory! A complete and complete victory!"

Chapter 1049

At this moment, Charlie Wade's helicopter had already flown over Aurouss Hill City.

Cameron Isaac asked Charlie Wade, "Master, what do you plan to do with Marccone's daughter?"

Charlie Wade said indifferently: "Her parents are gone, and now she's an orphan, so she can go directly to the orphanage."

Cameron Isaac hurriedly said: "Master, don't leave things behind..."

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "The older man has done something and what he hasn't done. It is impossible for me to hurt the child and send her to the orphanage. If someone from the Webb family comes to lead her, don't stop me."

Cameron Isaac nodded and said, "I think it is impossible for the Webb family to come and adopt this child, because the Webb family now hates Marccone and the couple. It is estimated that this time the Webb family will lose more than half of their property. , Tomorrow's stock market will be reflected."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly, and said: "That's right, the Webb family's strength is not good enough, I will help the Moore family to become the first family in the south of the Yangtze River."

Cameron Isaac said immediately: "Master, if you have any needs, just give your orders."

"it is good."

At this time, Cameron Isaac said again: "By the way, the navy man named Anthony Shields has been sent to Don Albertt's kennel. Would you like to take a look?"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "It's just a smelly hanging silk that relies on scolding people to eat. Just chop it up and feed it to the dog. I won't see such a person, lest my eyes are dirty."

Having said that, Charlie Wade suddenly thought of Ichiro Kobayashi, this guy has been staying in Don Albertt's kennel.

So he asked Cameron Isaac: "How is Ichiro Kobayashi?"

Cameron Isaac smiled and said: "What else can he do? He raises, feeds, walks, and picks up dog dung every day. He doesn't dare to leave the kennel all day long. Now he only has to dare to go out and let his brother know. My brother will definitely spend a lot of money to kill him."

Charlie Wade nodded and said with a smile: "Let him persist in the kennel. If the time is right, I will send him back to Japan and let him compete with his brother for the property."

Cameron Isaac said: "If Jiro Kobayashi knew that Ichiro Kobayashi was not dead, he would have died of anger."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "I don't know if I'm angry, but by that time, it is estimated that Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall will be mine."

Cameron Isaac sincerely admired: "Master, you are really wonderful to play this set of Kobayashi's family, and I am amazed!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "It's not so good, it's mainly because it just made use of the greed of Kobayashi's family, so this person is the least greedy. If there is more greedy, it will cause disaster. Just like that kid who engages in naval forces. If it is not too greedy for money, it will not end up being chopped up and fed to the dog."

.....

Ten minutes later.

Charlie Wade's helicopter landed on the top of Shangri-La.

When Charlie Wade's plane landed, another plane had already sent the children to the People's Hospital.

Mrs. Lewis from the orphanage had already seen relevant information on the Internet and knew that the children had been rescued. They were all excited. Then they heard that the children were going to be sent to the People's Hospital, so they rushed over.

Originally wanted to go to the People's Hospital to have a look, but thought that this matter is now too hot on the Internet, he didn't want Mrs. Lewis and the others to think that this matter was behind the scenes, so he asked Cameron Isaac to send a car. Send yourself home. After arriving at Thompson First, Charlie Wade did not rush in. Instead, he called Mrs. Lewis and asked her: "Mrs. Lewis, I heard that all the children have been found?"

Mrs. Lewis choked with excitement: "Yeah, Charlie Wade, the children have been found back, and they are now under observation at the People's Hospital."

Charlie Wade hurriedly asked: "Then the children are fine, right?"

"No, no!" Mrs. Lewis said excitedly: "The doctor has already checked them because of taking sleeping pills. Now three children have woken up, and they are all fine. The doctor said to take a look and you can take them at night. Back to the orphanage."

Chapter 1050

While speaking, Mrs. Lewis asked in a low voice: "Charlie Wade, did you make that video on the Internet? Did you find the children?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Mrs. Lewis, you look down on me too much, how can I have such a great ability."

Mrs. Lewis was silent for a moment, sighed, and said: "I watched the video, Jeff seems to be dead...I really didn't expect this child to get this far..."

Charlie Wade also sighed: "I also watched the video, Jeff himself took the wrong path, Mrs. Lewis, don't be too sad."

"I know..." Mrs. Lewis said melancholy: "I thought I would definitely walk in front of each of your children. I was still thinking that in the future, when I am old and pass away, you will be there. At my memorial service, give me a flower..."

Speaking of this, Mrs. Lewis whispered softly: "I really didn't expect that a child would die in front of me nowadays, Jeff, this child...ah...too annoying, but What a pity..."

"Yeah!" Charlie Wade said: "Mrs. Lewis, don't think too much about it. I believe that Jeff's incident will alert many people. His death may cause more people to correct their evils. The society has done a good thing."

Mrs. Lewis said: "You are right, Charlie Wade, Auntie will not tell you for now. I have to take care of the children who wake up. Another day, don't forget to come to the orphanage!"

"Good Mrs. Lewis!"

Charlie Wade hung up the phone, sighed, and walked into the house.

.....

At this moment, William, who loves taking advantage very much. Just got off my post.

Their factory work requirements are very strict, and it is strictly forbidden to carry mobile phones during working hours, so he has no knowledge of what happened today and the numerous news feeds on the Internet.

After he got off work, he changed into his clothes in the changing room, took out his mobile phone, looked down and found that there were countless WeChat reminders.

He opened WeChat curiously and found that the WeChat group of the original welfare institute had been fried.

Up to now, there are more than 3,000 messages that I haven't read!

He flipped to the top curiously and began to look down one by one.

At the beginning, he saw 10 children lost in the orphanage. He didn't think it was so great. What does it have to do with him? You can't get a penny if you lose it, and you can't get a penny if you get it back.

But when he looked down, he suddenly saw a video.

He hurriedly clicked on the video and watched it curiously. Halfway through, he was struck by lightning.

He did not expect that the person who stole 10 children from the orphanage would be Jeff!

Seeing Jeff kneeling on the ground and repenting, William couldn't understand it!

How can someone like Jeff steal the children of the orphanage, who can make double the profits in one week by operating a fund at random?

Jeff has a Mercedes-Benz and a Phaeton at his young age, which is so good in the eyes of Excellence! He is the great god in his own eyes!

Looking further back, Jeff actually stood on the bridge, then shot to a head headshot, turned over and fell into the river...

William was so scared that he dropped the phone!

This...what the hell is going on...

Jeff is dead! ?

He is dead, what about his 620,000? There are 500,000 loan sharks borrowed from the app! Isn't this taking your own life!

Chapter 1051

At this moment, William felt that the whole world had collapsed in front of him.

He couldn't believe that Jeff was dead, but in the video, the picture of Jeff falling into the river was so clear.

He knew that Jeff was really dead. The biggest problem now is, who is going to ask for his 620,000?

If you can't get the money back, you'll be finished, completely finished. Because this 500,000 usury will continue to make money, and finally turn to an astronomical figure, driving oneself to ruin.

So he immediately called 110 and called the police. After the call was connected, he said in a panic: "Comrade police, I was deceived. Someone deceived me 620,000, but he is dead now. What should I do?"

The police said: "If the person concerned is determined to be dead, then this matter cannot be handled by us. It is recommended that you file a lawsuit with the court to apply for the recovery of your claims from his estate, or apply for his guardian or his immediate family members. , Especially the parents will pay for it."

After hearing this, William immediately cried out: "Comrade Police, he is an orphan. He has no immediate family members or guardians. What should I do at this time?"

The police asked him: "Then what fixed assets does your debtor have? For example, a house or a car? If you have any, you can apply to the court for enforcement and sell his personal assets."

Hearing this, William suddenly recovered.

Jiang was clearly dead, but Jeff still left a Mercedes and a Phaeton! That Mercedes-Benz may be worth three to four hundred thousand, but that Phaeton is very valuable!

If you can get his Phaeton back, you will not only be able to cover your debts, but the extra money will also make you a small profit!

Anyway, this Jeff is now dead, and he doesn't have any relatives. It is only natural for him to take his property, and there should be no one to take care of it.

So William hung up the phone and drove a car straight to Jeff's house. Jeff didn't buy a house in Aurouss Hilll, but he rented a one-bedroom apartment in a slightly remote place. Before the accident, his life was quite moist.

What William was thinking at this time was that after he went to Jeff's house, he first thought of a way to tow Jeff's Phaeton away. He would definitely not be able to drive the car, but after towing it away, he could slowly figure out how to sell it. Drop.

He felt that even if a top-fit Phaeton was dismantled and sold parts, the money could be sold back, so he would not lose money.

But he didn't expect that at this moment, Caesar was also watching that popular video on the Internet!

Today was originally Don Albertt's treat. He and the core cadres of his staff were invited to have a meal at Heaven Springs, and Caesar was among them.

But while we were eating, everyone suddenly started to pay attention to this video that turned out.

These are all people from the underground world of Aurouss Hilll, and they naturally know something about the Beggar Gang, and they have a certain knowledge of the southern region Beggar Gang.

Suddenly seeing someone destroy the whole gang of beggars, one by one was stunned, and they immediately started discussing at the banquet.

They are all very concerned about who did this thing. At the same time, they lamented that this person's ability is too strong. They didn't put the Webb family in their eyes at all. They rushed into the Webb family's turf and put Donald, the heir of the Webb family. Marcone's brother-in-law, and all of Marcone's younger brothers were killed, this is simply not something that ordinary people can do.

Everyone speculated that this person must be a big figure in a certain super big family. Only Don Albertt knew very well in his heart that Master Charlie Wade must be behind everything!

At the beginning, Caesar was just like everyone else, only caring about curiosity and gossip.

However, when he saw the scene where Jeff was killed, his heart suddenly shook.

Damn it! It turned out to be the kid who hit his car!

He hadn't lost the car to himself before he was killed? !

Is this too nonsense?

He is dead, who will pay for his car?

Chapter 1052

This car itself cost more than 2 million, and it hasn't been a month since I bought it!

What's more f*cking is that he was so stupid that he didn't pull off and threw the crashed car directly to him!

I wanted to directly make him pay for the new car, but he didn't expect that everyone was dead.

Now not only the new car has not been found, but the Phaeton that crashed into it is still unknown where it is!

Thinking of this, Caesar gritted his teeth and said in his heart: "In any case, I must quickly find my smashed Phaeton, otherwise, I will lose a lot!"

Fortunately, he had asked the little brother to threaten the boy and knew where the boy lived.

So he didn't dare to delay, and immediately said to Don Albertt: "Albert, I have to deal with something first, and then come back when I finish it."

Don Albertt nodded and said: "Then you go, and come back as soon as you are done. I will take you to the Glorious Club in the evening."

The crowd cheered.

Caesar didn't have the mind to think about a Glorious Club. He just wanted to quickly find his Phaeton!

He got up and came out of Heaven Springs. His little brother and driver was watching him get on an old Audi a6 and waiting at the gate of Heaven Springs.

Caesar got into the car directly and said to his little brother: "Hurry up, go to the kid's house yesterday!"

The little brother asked in surprise: "Brother Caesar, why are you going to the small house at this time? Don't you eat with Albert?"

Caesar hurriedly urged: "Don't talk nonsense and drive quickly. I'm afraid that my Phaeton will be taken away by others later!"

Caesar can be regarded as a person who has been in the underground world for a long time, so he is knowledgeable about many things.

He knew that once a person died in an accident, there would be a lot of people spying on his property immediately around him.

I feel that everyone is dead. Who can do anything to himself if he gets his stuff?

So he was worried about his Phaeton being taken away.

After all, the top-fit Phaeton is still very valuable!

Thinking of this, he found another Phaeton key from the glove box of the Audi a6.

No matter what, you have to drive the car back first. Even if you spend money to repair the car, you can't lose a Phaeton for nothing.

William came to the downstairs of Jeff's house before him.

Seeing that Phaeton was parked downstairs, he was immediately relieved.

As long as the Phaeton is still there, his debt will be fine.

But then he had another trouble. He couldn't drive, and he didn't have a car key. This Phaeton couldn't be removed at all!

If the car can't be taken away, it will naturally be impossible to sell it for money.

Thinking of this, he called a friend who was working in a repair shop and asked him: "Can you come to Residential District and help me tow a car?"

The other party knows what kind of virtue William is. This grandson likes to take advantage of him. When he visits a friend's house, he can't wait to make two poops at his friend's house in order to rub other people's toilet paper and water.

So the other party immediately said to him: "The tow truck is okay, but you have to pay for it first. There are more than ten kilometers from me to there. You pay 800 Dollar first!"

William angrily scolded: "It's just that way, you ask me for 800, why the hell don't you grab it?"

The other party said disdainfully: "At this price, you love to procrastinate, not to procrastinate!"

Chapter 1053

As soon as the other party said such unfeeling words directly, William did not dare to pretend to be forced.

He hurriedly said: "Good brother 800 is 800, you come here, I am in a hurry."

Convenience said: "You transfer the money from WeChat to me first, otherwise, what if you shake it a little bit? You have always been unreliable in doing things. I f*cking learned it a long time ago!"

William helplessly said: "Oh, elder brother, you have the final say, I will transfer the money to you from WeChat, you hurry up, don't be too slow!"

"The money arrives before leaving, otherwise there will be no way to speak!"

William didn't dare to delay any more, he quickly took out his mobile phone, immediately found the other party, and then transferred 800 Dollar to the other party.

But when I clicked to confirm the payment, I realized that my bank card balance was insufficient!

Only then did he realize that in order to let Jeff help him make money, he had given him almost all of his family property. His thinking was simple, the more he gave, the more he earned, so he didn't think much about it, and only left 500 Dollar for himself. Money for living expenses, planning to support Jeff to give the money to himself.

As a result, I can't even pay 800 Dollar.

William could only pay him 500, and sent a voice begging: "Brother, I only have 500 in my card now. You should take the remaining 300 first, and I will pay you back immediately when I get the money."

The other party directly responded with a voice: "Don't come to this set with me, don't I know you? Last time I went to Hong Kong with my girlfriend, you asked me to help you buy a set of cosmetics for your girlfriend, that set of cosmetics I bought it for 1,320, and you only gave me 1,100. You said that you didn't have enough money and you would pay me after the salary. What happened? You still owe me 220! How can I trust you again?"

William hurriedly pleaded: "My good brother, it was indeed my fault last time. I really forgot about it! But this time you can rest assured that I will never forget! This 220 Dollar, I will also Give it back to you, okay?"

"You first accept the 500, and then drive over to help me tow the car away. When I sell the car, I will pay you the remaining 520, OK? So, I will give you 600!"

The other party's tone did not relax: "No, you must give me 800 today, otherwise I won't go, sorry."

After speaking, the other party clicked to collect the payment, and then returned 280 Dollar to him, saying: "This 220 is what you owe me, and you take the remaining 280. If you want me to tow, then you can take another 800.!"

"you....."

William was almost mad. This kid didn't come to help. He also deducted 220 Dollar from himself. Now he only has 280 Dollar, and it is impossible to find a trailer!

Thinking of this, he could only gritted his teeth and said: "Okay, I'll find someone to borrow money, and I borrowed enough 800 for you. Have you come and help me tow the head office?"

The other party greeted: "Yes, anyway, I'm fine now, I'll go when your money arrives."

William immediately sent a group message to his colleagues: "I am William. I have something urgent and need a few hundred Dollar for emergency help. Can you lend me 520 Dollar? I will give you the salary!" He only has 280 Dollar left in his hand, and wants the other party to help him tow the truck, which is 520 short.

As a result, the popularity of this grandson was really bad. He sent 60 or 70 colleagues in a group, and no one lent him money.

Even people in the 80s ignored him, and those who took care of him directly rejected him.

The reasons for refusal are naturally varied. Some say that they have no money, some say that the money has been deposited into financial management, and some say that they have lost their gambling.

In short, there is no money to lend him William.

William, really couldn't think of any way, so he could only call his girlfriend and asked, "Juanita, can you lend me 520 Dollar?"

His girlfriend panted violently and said, "William, are you sick? They are all boyfriends. They send 520 to their girlfriend. If you ask me to send it to you, do you want to be shameless?"

William hurriedly explained: "Juanita, I didn't mean that. I really have something wrong now. I need 520 Dollar urgently. You can lend it to me first and return it to you when I have paid."

The other party said a few times, "...William...you...you...you are too unpromising. You borrowed 520 Dollar? How about your savings? Isn't there more than a hundred thousand? Where did you go?"

William said: "Oh, this is a long story, so you can give me 520 Dollar to use it first, can't I pay you back then?"

Chapter 1054

At this time, there was a man's voice on the other end of the phone, panting heavily, while deliberately lowering his voice and said: "Oh, you are talking nonsense with him at the critical moment, can you just give him the money quickly? Don't let him delay!"

William suddenly asked vigilantly: "Juanita, why is there a man's voice over there? Who are you with?"

The other party hurriedly said: "Oh, it's my cousin, isn't he hurt? I've been practicing waist in bed, but I don't practice well, so I asked him to come and help."

William let out a cry, thinking that when he called last time, his girlfriend was doing waist training in bed, so he didn't doubt it anymore.

At this time, his girlfriend said on the other end of the phone: "It's okay, I won't talk nonsense with you, I will transfer the money to you on WeChat later."

Upon hearing this, William immediately became happy, and said hurriedly: "Juanita, you are so kind, thank you."

The other party said hurriedly: "Okay, I won't tell you anymore, I'll hang up!"

After the other party hung up the phone, she sent William a red envelope of 520 Dollar.

William was overjoyed, and immediately called all the 800 Dollar in his account to his friend in the garage.

Then he hurriedly urged: "Brother, the 220 Dollar has been paid back to you, and the 800 has been called to you. Come here, I am in a hurry!"

The other party charged the money immediately and said, "I will pass this time. It will take more than 20 minutes to get to you."

"Great!" William said excitedly: "Call me when you get there."

William squatted in front of the Phaeton car, anxiously waiting for his friend to come over.

Ten minutes later, the other party called and told him that he would be there in a few minutes, so don't worry.

But at this time, an old Audi a6 had already parked in front of him.

Caesar finally breathed a sigh of relief when he saw that his Phaeton was here.

Damn, although no one repairs the car for himself, it is a part of the loss.

Otherwise, if this car is not found, then the kid is dead again, and he is really at a loss.

Thinking of this, he said to his little brother: "I drive that Phaeton back, you follow me."

The little brother nodded immediately: "Okay, Brother Caesar."

Caesar pushed the door and got out of the car. He was upset because the car broke down and no one repaired it. He lost another remote control key.

Repairing a car is estimated to cost hundreds of thousands, with a remote control key, which is estimated to be several thousand larger, and the f*cking loss is really heavy.

Caesar couldn't help sighing in his heart, this is truly a disaster! It seems that I will burn incense in the temple another day. Isn't it a bit too old this year?

Just thinking about it, he got out of the car and was about to take the key to unlock the Phaeton, and suddenly saw a kid squatting in front of the Phaeton.

Caesar, who was upset, frowned and looked at each other, cursing coldly, "What the hell are you doing? Go and squat!"

Although William has no money, no skills and a stinky stalker who loves to take advantage of it, his temper is like a stone in that pit, smelly and hard.

To use a common saying to describe it is exhausting.

Of course, when he kneeled and licked others, he couldn't see the impoverishment in his temper, but he looked at the middle-aged man in front of him and then at the car he walked down, and he immediately felt a little disdainful.

Isn't it just an old second-hand a6? This broken car is far worse than your own Phaeton, so damn it dare to play force with yourself? What does it have to do with him?

Thinking of this, William, who was squatting on the ground, looked up at Caesar, and said disdainfully: "I can squat wherever the f*ck I want, can you manage it?"

Chapter 1055

When Caesar was upset, he didn't expect that a hanging silk squatting in front of his car would dare to act as a force!

Without saying anything, he directly raised his foot and kicked William to the ground. Then, before William turned over, he immediately rushed to punch him and kick him.

William who was beaten, yelled, angrily said: "Why are you hitting me? Why are you hitting me? I provoke you, I provoke you here, are you sick?" Caesar directly hit his nose with a fist, his face was covered with blood, and he cursed coldly: "You are all right, why squat in front of my car? You squat in front of my car and talk to me. Pretending to be forced, I am not allowed to hit you?"

After finishing speaking, he punched again.

William, who was smashed, had a star in his eyes and almost passed out. At this time, Caesar's little brother saw a fight here, so naturally he hurried to the door and got out of the car. After a word, he rushed to help his boss beat William severely.

William had been beaten miserably, and the other party suddenly added another helper, which beat him into despair.

At this time, he no longer had the enthusiasm that he had just now.

Seeing that the other party beats himself, there is no fear at all, and he almost wants to beat himself to death. William can no longer stand it.

He cried and said, "Big brother, I was wrong, big brother, big brother, please don't fight. Brother will die if you fight again, brother....."

Caesar didn't mean to stop in the slightest, and he cursed while beating: "I'm having a f*cking stomach and there is no place to vent, you just came to the door, I won't kill you, I'm so sorry!"

William had been beaten to a faint, his face was full of blood, and he was completely inhuman.

At this moment, a tow truck suddenly drove up to the front. The tow truck driver was in the car and shouted through the window: "Hey, what are you doing? If you don't stop, I will call the police!"

This person is the friend of William.

This kid has a good character and a sense of justice. In fact, he didn't recognize it at all. The one who was beaten was William, but seeing the two men beaten so hard, a poor man with blood on his face, he decided to come forward.

At this time, the anger in Caesar's heart had also disappeared a lot, and all these anger had been transformed into force and hit William.

Seeing someone showed up and threatened to call the police, Caesar felt that more things were better than less things, so he hurriedly left.

After all, the big brother was still waiting for himself.

So he said coldly to William: "Boy, today is your fate, otherwise I will kill you!"

After speaking, he kicked William a few meters away, took out his car key, and opened the door of Phaeton.

William was already going into a coma. His swollen egg eyes narrowed into a small slit. He suddenly saw Caesar open the Phaeton car door and sat in. He was suddenly anxious!

"Why are you driving my car!" William roared, and rushed towards the Caesar, rolling on the ground.

Before Caesar came back to his senses, his legs were already tightly hugged by William.

Chapter 1056

The blood on William's face rubbed his entire trouser legs, very disgusting!

Caesar was so angry that he kicked him out again, and sternly said: "You kid do not want to face, right? Is it dead? Damn, when did this car become yours? "

When William heard this, he thought that Caesar was also Jeff's creditor, thinking that he was also here to grab the car, so he desperately rushed up again, clinging to Caesar's leg, and shouting: "This Phaeton is mine! This Phaeton is mine! You can't drive away!"

Caesar was furious, grabbed his collar, and kept pulling his face fiercely: "Is your brain sick? Didn't you see my car key? When will my car become your car? Up?"

William cried loudly: "No! This is Jeff's car. Jeff owes me 620,000 Dollar. I want to use this car to repay the debt. You can't drive it away. You want me to drive it away. Life!"

Caesar punched him again and scolded: "You really have a fcking brain problem! I tell you, this car itself belongs to my, not the kid Jeff. He hit my car. I threw the car to him and let him recover it. Now that Jeff is dead, I will naturally drive the car back. If you f*cking dare to talk too much, be careful I will now Your life!"

William cried and said, "How is this possible? This is impossible. This car is obviously Jeff. Jeff has two cars, one is a Mercedes-Benz and the other is a Phaeton. His Mercedes-Benz has crashed, so He drove the Phaeton now, and now that someone else is dead and still owes me so much money, I must take this car to repay the debt! If you don't give me this car, then you kill me, and I Not alive!"

Caesar is also about to collapse.

He didn't expect this kid to be an annoyance who couldn't be killed. He had beaten him like this, and he even dared to hold his leg and not let go.

But in broad daylight, I can't really kill him, otherwise, even if I mix well, I can't suppress such a big thing..

Thinking of this, he just wanted to get rid of the neurosis quickly, so he carried William to his Phaeton car like a chicken, pointed at the entire rear of the Phaeton that was hit, and said coldly: "Come on, stay away. Your dog's eyes can see clearly. Is there any injury on the back of this car? Why is there an injury? It was that Jeff drove the Mercedes-Benz yesterday and rear-ended my Phaeton. Now you should believe it?"

William's face was bloody and bloody, but he still shook his head and said, "I don't believe it! I don't believe it! This car belongs to Jeff! I want to use it to pay off debts, you can't drive away!"

Caesar felt helpless for the first time.

What should we do now? Can't you really kill him?

But if he hit him like this, he didn't let go, just so entangled and consumed, this is not a way!

In desperation, he shouted to his little brother: "Doug, you take out the driving license of this Phaeton from the armrest box of the Audi a6!

Hurry up!"

The little brother hurriedly took out a certificate from the car and handed it over quickly.

Caesar opened the certificate, handed it to him, pointed to the license plate number on the driving book of the car, and said, "You show me the license plate number, is it this Phaeton?"

The car license is the ID card of a car, which records all the information of the car, including its license plate number, frame number, engine number registration date, registration place and its owner.

William narrowed his eyes and only glanced at it, and suddenly he felt as desperate as an ice cellar!

The license plate number on this driving permit is exactly the same as that of the Phaeton.

Moreover, the owner's name written on this driving permit is called Caesar, not Jeff!

Chapter 1057

William finally knew what kind of scam he had experienced.

It turned out that Jeff was not as rich and successful as he said. Not only that, but he also caused a disaster.

He crashed Caesar's Phaeton and urgently needed to buy a new one for Caesar, which is the fundamental reason why he boasted about making money and deceived himself to get him more than 600,000 Dollar.

But the worst thing now is that this bastard is dead.

In other words, don't even want to get back your 620,000.

At this time, his heart was painful, more painful than the wound on his body.

Caesar, who beat him violently, saw that he was no longer crazy as he was just now, and he was a little relieved, and said to him: "You can see clearly this time, I am going to drive away myself. There's nothing wrong with the car."

Although Caesar looked down on William in his heart, William's crazy state just now made him somewhat jealous.

He also mixed up all the way, so he knows that this kind of person is actually very scary. If he really anxes him, he is likely to desperately fight with you.

So it is better not to provoke such a person, at least not to provoke him.

When William heard his words, his heart was already gloomy.

He didn't even dare to think about what he should do in a week.

Because, after a week, some platforms are about to start repayment. By that time, they will not have the money, and they don't know how they will treat themselves.

Seeing that he was in a daze, Caesar seemed to be lost in a daze, so he didn't bother to talk nonsense with him any more, so he got into the car and started and drove away.

William sat on the ground alone, smelling the exhaust left by the Phaeton car, tears streaming down his face.

His tears kept streaming, mixed with blood and dust on his face, leaving two obvious tear marks on his face.

His guy who drove a tow truck dared to jump out of the car, walked to him, squatted down, patted him on the shoulder and asked, "Do you want me to call the police for you?"

William cried and said, "I'm done, the person who cheated me is also dead, what's the point of calling the police..."

The other party didn't know what he had gone through. At this time, he sighed softly and said: "Then can't you drag the car?"

William looked at him and yelled: "You're so f*cking blind, didn't you watch the car and let people drive away? I'm dragging a feather!"

The other party couldn't help but frowned and thought, if I had just yelled, you would have been beaten to death. I am kindly coming over to care about you now, did you pretend to be with me?

Okay, then you can pretend it yourself, uncle won't play with you!

Thinking of this, he stood up and said to William: "Then if you don't want to tow the truck, I will leave."

William came back to his senses and hurriedly said: "You return the 800 Dollar to me before leaving!"

The other party said angrily: "You are arguing with us, I don't need money to drive all the way? I drive a car in the repair shop. As long as I go out, the repair shop will assume that I have started to pick up the job, regardless of you. If the car is not towed, I have to report the income to the repair shop when I go back!"

William angrily said: "I don't care about your reasons, it has nothing to do with me, I only know that I didn't let you tow the car, so you have to return my money to me!"

The other party was also anxious, and said in a huff, "I said you don't understand people's speech? The repair shop has regulations. As long as you leave the car, you will charge a fee. You ask me to return the money to you. Go back to the repair shop and ask me for Money, what should I do?"

William said coldly: "I'm the one who cares about you, what does it have to do with me, you quickly return the money to me!"

The other party did not expect that this person would not speak any truth at all, and said angrily: "A person like you deserves to be deceived and deceived you into bankruptcy!"

Chapter 1058

After speaking, he ignored him and turned away.

William limped to catch up, and cursed: "You bastard, quickly return the money to me, otherwise I will never finish with you!"

"Psycho!"

The other party cursed, climbed onto the trailer and drove away.

William couldn't catch up with his car, and his heart was extremely angry, but seeing that the other party had already left, he could do nothing, and his deep despair replaced the anger just now.

Now, my top priority is how to deal with the 500,000 usury.

At this moment, he felt that his life was almost desperate.

At this time he thought of his girlfriend Juanita.

William is also an orphan. He has no father, no mother, and no relatives. He finally talked with Juanita about being boyfriend and girlfriend, so he felt that Juanita was his only relative.

Now that he has encountered such a major setback, when he is desperate and not knowing what to do, he just wants to see his beloved woman, hoping that his beloved woman can give him some comfort.

So he wiped his face with his clothes, limped to the gate of the community, and stopped a taxi.

The taxi driver had seen him look so terrible and didn't dare to pull him.

But he grabbed the other side's rearview mirror and didn't let go, and shouted: "If you don't pull me today, I will complain to you to death!"

The taxi driver did not dare to blatantly refuse the ride, so he could only get him in the car and drove to the neighborhood where his girlfriend's house was located according to his request.

However, William is now penniless and can't afford the taxi fare.

He can only count in his heart, there is a very narrow alley near his girlfriend's house, and that alley cannot be driven in by cars, and it is very winding inside.

If you ask the driver to stop at that alley and then get into the alley while he is unprepared, he should not be able to catch up with him. In this way, you don't have to pay for taxi fare.

William does what he thinks.

When he was approaching his girlfriend's house, he asked the driver to stop at the alley. The driver turned off the meter and said, "A total of 45 Dollar."

William nodded, turned on the phone, opened WeChat and scanned it and said: "I don't have cash, scan the QR code to pay."

The driver said directly: "There is a WeChat QR code in the back row. Please scan the code directly."

William pretended to scan the QR code, then pretended to tinker for a while, and said to the driver: "Master's money has been transferred."

The driver said: "I didn't hear the prompt, I have all voice prompts."

William deliberately said: "Maybe the internet is not good, and I will receive it immediately."

After finishing talking, William immediately pushed the car door, and ran into the alley as if stepping crazy.

He thought that he was familiar with the terrain of this alley, and he could get rid of the driver by going in and around twice. He didn't expect that he was beaten so badly. As soon as he got out of the car and was about to run, he immediately ran out of breath. I felt a sharp pain in my abdomen, and one fell to the ground without standing still.

At this time, the driver also realized that he was going to run, and hurriedly pushed the door to chase him, and found that he had fallen to the ground, and said angrily: "I want to run before the money has been paid? Give me the money quickly!"

Chapter 1059

William lay on the ground, looking at the fierce taxi driver, his expression was no longer the arrogance he had when he stopped the car and threatened others.

He looked at the driver, crying and begging: "Master, I just went bankrupt and have nothing, and I owed a debt. I was beaten into such a situation again. I really have no money to pay the fare, please. Please let me go!"

The driver said angrily: "You owe a debt, and I still owe a debt. If I have money, would I still open a rental car? Do you think this 45 Dollar is good? This 45 Dollar is enough for Master. Have eaten for two days! Get it out for me quickly!"

William cried out: "Master, I really don't have money, and I don't have any valuables on my body. I beg you, you can take pity on me!"

The taxi driver yelled coldly: "Don't come to this set with me, then if you don't give me the money, I'll call the police!"

When William heard this, he hurriedly got up, knelt under his feet, and kowtowed to him: "Master, I really have no money. Even if you kill me, I have no money. I beg you. I beg you, can't I just kowtow to you? You just treat me as your son and kowtow to you in the New Year to say hello. Don't you have to wrap me a red envelope too?"

The taxi driver had never seen such a shameless person, and he was trembling with anger: "You... why are you so shameless? Do you have no parents? If your parents knew that you were outside for 45 Dollar Kowtowing to others, to be others' sons, what are their feelings?"

William's nose was sour: "The master told you that I was an orphan. I had no father and no mother since I was a child. I grew up in the Arouss Hill Welfare Institute. Going away, that bastard not only defrauded my 120,000 savings, but also defrauded me to loan him 500,000 usury from various loan apps. Now he is on a dead end..."

When the taxi driver saw that he didn't seem to be telling lies, he couldn't help but be shocked: "I'm all rushing to a well-off society, why are there such unlucky people?"

Seeing this, he really couldn't bear it, and continued to force him for the fare.

So he sighed and said to William: "For the sake of your pitiful life, since you have no father and no mother, forget it this time. If I am unlucky, I will ask you to ride in the car!"

When William heard this, he immediately knocked three heads again and said gratefully: "You are such a good person, you are my second-born parent!"

After speaking, he raised his head, looked at the taxi driver, and pleaded: "You have already asked me to take the car. Can you give me another 50 Dollar and treat me like a meal?"

The taxi driver was so annoyed that he kicked him away and cursed: "Sure enough, a poor person must have something to hate. You can say it if you are so shameless. I really f*cking convinced you!"

After speaking, the driver turned back to the taxi, started the car and left.

William struggled to get up from the ground, patted the soil on his body, and thought to himself: "Although the process was a bit bumpy, it ultimately saved the 45 Dollar."

It took up 45 Dollar for the taxi driver, which made William feel a little better.

He limped to his girlfriend's house, thinking in his heart, the first thing he saw his girlfriend, he must pounce in her arms and cry.

My girlfriend's house lives in a shanty town in this city, which is the kind of self-built house, which is relatively shabby.

However, in William's eyes, this is a gold mine, because shanty towns are being managed everywhere now, saying that the house will be demolished when it is demolished, and the house will be lost when it is demolished. There are two or three houses in a row.

Therefore, he is also eager to get married with his girlfriend earlier, so that he can join their family and become a son-in-law, and after the demolition in the future, he can share some benefits.

Chapter 1060

When he came to the door of his girlfriend's house, he knocked on the door, but no one came out to open the door.

He didn't know that Juanita, his girlfriend, was in her room at this time, and a customer of hers who bought fake cigarettes was doing the same thing intently.

He sent a call to his girlfriend on WeChat, and the other party did not respond. He thought that the other party was asleep, so he found a key under a pickle jar at the door of his girlfriend's house.

This is the secret that he discovered by chance that the future mother-in-law is under the pickle jar. It may be that older people are easier to forget, so the future mother-in-law hid such a key in case of emergency. But this time it was convenient for William.

After William took out the key, he opened the door and entered the courtyard of this self-built house.

After entering the yard, although the door to the room was closed, it was not locked.

So William opened the door and walked in, passing through the living room. He suddenly heard a very, very strange sound from the bedroom inside, like the soft moan of his girlfriend.

He limped to the door, and the more he listened, the more he felt something was not right, because the voice from inside seemed to be a man besides his girlfriend, and there was also a very crazy sense of rhythm. Thinking of something, he kicked the door angrily and saw the naked people on the bed hugging each other tightly. The one below was his girlfriend Juanita.

William was very angry at this moment, and he shouted hysterically: "Juanita! Why are you bastard betraying me?!"

The two people on the bed let out a cry of fright, and then quickly turned over and hid under the bed. Juanita wrapped her body very tightly and looked at William nervously: "You... why are you here? ? How did you get in?"

William angrily scolded: "How do you care about me getting in? If you don't come in and see, you won't know that you dare to betray me!"

As he said, he looked at the fat man next to Juanita, gritted his teeth and cursed: "You dog dare to sleep with my girlfriend, I'm fighting with you!"

After speaking, William rushed towards the fat man.

But before he got there, the fat man kicked him directly through the quilt, kicked him upside down with one kick, kicked out the door directly, and cursed, "So you're the silly waste." ! What kind of blessings can Juanita enjoy following you? What good life can she live on? I heard that you can't make a lot of money. Do you still expect Juanita to sell fake cigarettes to support you in the future?"

Juanita asked in surprise: "how do you know that I sell fake cigarettes..."

The fat man petted and said: "Fool, I have smoked for so many years, can I still not get the real China and the fake China?"

Juanita was even more surprised, and blurted out: "You know that the cigarettes I sell are fake, why do you buy them? And you buy so many at once?"

The fat man picked her chin and said with a smile: "I feel sorry for you. You want you to make more money. It doesn't matter to me to buy a few fake cigarettes, I will be happy as long as you can be happy!"

Juanita's face was full of the shyness of a girl, she threw herself in his arms and said shyly: "You are really kind to me..."

Chapter 1061

William struggled to get up at this time, already hating these two dog men and women crazy in his heart.

Unexpectedly, they dare to flirt and scold at this time. How damn shameless? Do you take yourself seriously?

Originally, he had accumulated countless negative energy, and seeing that the whole person was about to collapse, he ran to Juanita to talk to her and find some comfort.

Unexpectedly, before arriving at Juanita's house, he was ridiculed by the taxi driver and kicked, and he was forced to knock him several heads. This brought his mood to the edge of almost collapse.

But I did not expect that a bigger bomb would be behind, and I did not expect that my beloved woman would betray me!

When he thought of this, he was completely crazy.

Now he doesn't think about it anymore, what should I do with the 500,000 usury? Don't think about what to do if you are beaten today or humiliated today.

The only thing he thought about now was to make the couple pay the price. So he crawled to the kitchen and took a sharp knife that was boneless, ready to kill the dog and the man.

At this time, the fat man had also put on his pants and walked out of the bedroom. What he thought was to get rid of that damn William.

As soon as he arrived at the door, he found that William had disappeared. He thought that this kid should have escaped in anger. He was about to go back and said to Juanita. He suddenly felt a sharp pain in his back.

At this time, William had already inserted the sharp knife into his back. Then William drew out the knife, pushed the fat man to the ground, and rushed into the bedroom.

In the bedroom at this time, Juanita was not wearing any clothes, but lying on the bed waiting for the fat man to return.

After all, the two hadn't finished their work just now, they were suddenly interrupted by William. She was still waiting for her lover to drive William away before coming back and continuing with herself.

But she never expected that the person who stepped forward at this time turned out to be William, and William also held a knife in his hand.

Juanita was so scared that she hurriedly jumped to the corner wrapped in a quilt, and said in a panic: "William, what are you going to do?!"

"Me?" William gritted his teeth and cursed: "You betrayed me, I want your life!"

Juanita said coldly: "I tell you not to be foolish. If I have any shortcomings, the police will not let you go!"

William smiled miserably: "My life has been ruined. I originally expected you to give me the last light. It is you who really pushed me down the abyss!"

After all, William gritted his teeth and said: "Let you completely destroy me, then I will completely destroy you before I am destroyed!"

Juanita was so frightened that she knew that William's expression was not joking with herself!

So she hurriedly shouted: "Help me!"

William smiled and said: "Your lover has been stabbed to death by me, now it's your turn!"

Juanita saw that the sharp knife in his hand was full of blood!

She was about to collapse, crying and said to William: "William, I beg you to forgive me, I really don't mean to betray you, you love me so much, are you willing to hurt me?"

William sneered and said: "I'm sorry, I don't love you anymore. I don't even love myself or the world anymore! So, I must make you pay, let you know, bully Anyone can do it, don't bully honest people!"

After speaking, William rushed to her front. Juanita shouted in despair, but then her shout stopped abruptly. The sharp knife in William's hand has already been inserted into her heart... Seeing Juanita die, William was stunned for about 5 minutes.

Chapter 1062

Five minutes later, he took out his cell phone and dialed 110: "Hello, I want to surrender."

The other party hurriedly asked: "What's wrong with you? Because why do you want to surrender?"

William said blankly: "I just killed someone..."

When the other party heard this, he blurted out and asked, "Where are you now? Are people dead?"

"Dead!" William glanced at Juanita again, and then slowly reported the address of Juanita's home.

Ten minutes later, two police cars and a 120 drove to the door of Juanita's house almost at the same time.

The police rushed in with the doctor, first controlled William, handcuffed him, and then asked the doctor to check the conditions of the two victims.

The doctor quickly concluded that both victims were dead.

The police immediately took William into the police car and formally arrested him.

William, who was sitting in the police car, had a very indifferent expression. He knew that his life had been ruined anyway, and it didn't matter whether he was alive or dead.

Although his expression is very indifferent, his heart still hurts uncomfortably.

I have suffered all my life, and I have loved countless people with inferiority, but no one really loves me.

He once thought that Juanita was the only person in the world who loved herself. Why is that? He desperately wants to save money, give the future mother-in-law enough money as a gift, and marry Juanita as his wife.

It was for this purpose that he desperately gave all of his belongings, together with the 500,000 loan usury, to Jeff.

But it wasn't until the moment when Juanita opened the bedroom door that he really realized that no one had loved him in his life.

As the saying goes, grief is greater than death.

Now William's heart is completely dead.

.....

Charlie Wade had just arrived home not long ago.

Seeing him coming back, Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly asked him, "You went out early today to help the orphanage find children?"

Charlie Wade asked curiously: "How do you know?"

Claire Wilson Wilson said: "It has been spread all over the Internet. I knew that when I saw the news, you must have gone out for this matter."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "I also organized several friends to find them, but I didn't expect a mysterious person to send the children back. It was a false alarm."

He said this because he was afraid that his wife would think more about it. If his wife thought that the whole thing was behind the scenes, he might have opinions on him.

After all, although he didn't personally kill people today, he also commanded and killed many scum.

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade looked at Claire Wilson Wilson, deliberately trying to test her tone and attitude, so he said: "I also watched the video today. It's scary. So many people died."

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded and said, "It's a bit scary, but seeing those bastards of the beggar gang have been punished, I feel very relieved, because I have seen many posts on the Internet exposing the behavior of the beggars. Helping people is really bad. They have killed so many children. It's really not a pity to die."

Charlie Wade nodded in agreement.

The reason why I asked Cameron Isaac's men to deal with the beggars and human traffickers was also because they deserved to die.

At this moment, Charlie Wade suddenly received a push.

"This city has just cracked an intentional homicide case, and the suspect has been captured on the spot!"

At this time, in the WeChat group of the orphanage, someone @ all members: "Something happened to William! He killed someone and was taken away by the police! The news has been broadcast!"

Chapter 1063

Charlie Wade only knew that the news just now was about William.

Today the WeChat group of the orphanage completely exploded.

Everyone dare not imagine that everyone was eating together yesterday, and today two friends from the orphanage were lost.

Jeff was the first to die. Everyone knew what he had done, so they felt that he was dead.

But no one thought that William, who had always liked to take advantage of others, would become a murderer.

And what he killed turned out to be his girlfriend and his girlfriend's lover!

Lisa sent a tearful expression in the group and said, "Why is this person William unable to think so? Even if his girlfriend betrayed him, he shouldn't have done such extreme behavior!"

Others said: "Hey, although I usually hate William, I think he is quite pitiful now. He is poking his heart out to his girlfriend, but I didn't expect the other party to treat him like that."

Another said: "William killed two people, will he be shot?"

"The news said that he surrendered himself, he should be treated with leniency? He didn't murder for money or other purposes, but because his girlfriend cheated in front of him. It is estimated that the court judged I will sympathize a little bit!"

"Hey, the high probability is the death penalty, and the small probability is the death sentence with a reprieve. But even with a reprieve, his life is over."

Lisa sighed: "Mrs. Lewis also learned about the news just now. She seemed to be very injured and locked herself in the room and didn't want to come out."

Seeing this, Charlie Wade felt a little distressed for Mrs. Lewis.

Regardless of whether these children grow up, they are good or bad, but these children are brought up by Mrs. Lewis.

Everyone is like her child, and she lost two children today.

Charlie Wade, who had not spoken all the time, said in the group at this time: "Lisa, do you want us to see Mrs. Lewis?"

Lisa said: "No need Charlie Wade, let Mrs. Lewis be quiet for a while."

"Alright..." Charlie Wade couldn't help sighing.

He did not expect that William would end in such a way.

Although this person is annoying, he is really pitiful.

But having said that, poor people must be hateful.

Most of the time why people are fooled is because they are greedy.

Therefore, he shut down all WeChat accounts of the orphanage, and today he no longer wants to hear related information.

.....

At this moment, the worst family in the world is the Webb family.

The Webb family was scolded as a dead dog on the Internet, and was frantically condemned by people across China. The scolding became more and more intense, and there was no intention to stop.

More importantly, the fact that they spent money to find the navy was completely exposed. This is just worse, and the people of the whole country hate the Webb family even more.

The old man of the Webb family, his whole being angry, almost lost his breath. He took a big rescue measure to save his life, but he was already in a deep coma.

Xenia, Donald's wife, was emotionally broken because he learned that his younger brother and younger siblings were dead, and that his family was dead. She smashed everything that could be smashed in the room.

Chapter 1064

Donald didn't have the time to manage Xenia at this time. At this time, instead of feeling sorry for Xenia, who was emotionally broken, he hated her very much.

Because if it weren't for her, if it wasn't her damn brother, how could the Webb family encounter such a big credibility crisis? !

It doesn't matter if this damn Marcone is dead, it is very likely that the Webb family will lose more than half of their assets. In that case, the Webb family will no longer be the first family in Eastcliff.

Moreover, the nature of this incident is really too bad. It is estimated that the people of the whole country will never forget this incident for a while, so for a long time to come, the Webb family will become hateful of dogs in this world.

Worse still, the Webb family's business will definitely be affected very far-reachingly. It is possible that for a long time to come, the Webb family's assets will continue to shrink.

It is very likely that the Webb family will be reduced to a second-rate family.

The saddest thing is that Donald has nothing to do with this.

He was already exhausted.

Because the most feared thing is to commit the anger of the people.

If one day the Wade Family also had a scum, and the people across the country hated it, then the Wade Family would not be able to recover.

Therefore, at this moment, the helms of large families across the country sighed deep in their hearts: "We must keep in mind the mistakes and lessons learned by the Webb family this time. Today's Webb family has done a great job to all large families across the country. class."

At this moment, Donald has given up his reputation for saving the Webb family.

He is full of resentment now, and only thinks about one thing, which is to seek revenge on Charlie Wade.

Sean ran over to him and said, "Dad, the Eight Heavenly Kings have replied. They said they only obeyed Grandpa's arrangements, and other people's orders were useless to them."

Donald hurriedly asked, "Did the doctor say when your grandpa can wake up?"

Sean shook his head: "The doctor said that he couldn't judge for a while. Grandpa had a serious stroke this time."

Donald frowned: "If the Eight Great Heavenly Kings do not go out, I am afraid that I will not be able to snatch the father and son back to Golim Mountain..."

Sean said: "But we continue to wait like this, I don't know when Grandpa will wake up."

After that, Sean said again: "In my opinion, let's send some second-rate masters to try it out first. We will send a few more people this time."

Donald thought for a moment, then lightly nodded and said, "It's not a way to wait. If that's the case, send someone there first."

Sean said at this time: "Dad, actually I don't quite understand why you are looking for these enemies of Charlie Wade? In my opinion, these people are all hanging silks. How can you expect them to kill Charlie Wade?"

Donald said indifferently: "Last time we underestimated the enemy, so we suffered such a big loss. This time, we must first stabilize and observe for a while later, first find some cannon fodder, and help us test and test."

After speaking, Donald said again: "The two armies should not expose their main force in advance. Instead, they should find some cannon fodder and go to the opponent's position to test it. Once the opponent fires, we can find the opponent's firepower point. Where, then we will unplug the opponent's firepower point, so that if the army is overwhelmed, the opponent will undoubtedly die."

"Otherwise, if we send the main force directly, what if we are destroyed by the opponent's firepower first? Wouldn't we be taken away by a wave?"

Sean nodded, "Dad, I understand what you mean."

Donald hummed, and said, "Since you are looking for cannon fodder, you must find someone who has hatred with the other party. Because of this cannon fodder, you will be desperate and dash forward not afraid of death. The family, Hannah who was sent to the black coal kiln, Kenneth Wilson who couldn't do anything, and even those who had been beaten in the face by Charlie Wade before, are all excellent candidates for cannon fodder!"

After that, he asked Sean: "Have the people who went to save Hannah set off?"

Sean hurriedly said: "We have set off!"

Chapter 1065

In the past period of time, Hannah has lived like years.

She is the eldest son and daughter-in-law of the Wilson family, so she has never suffered or suffered any crimes. On the contrary, Hannah's life was also very good during the years when the Wilson family was beautiful. So Hannah didn't dare to say that it was a lifetime of fine clothes and food, but it was also a good life. Now she has been reduced to mining coal day and night in the black coal kiln. This kind of life is more painful than hell.

However, Hannah was the one who had the most comfortable life among the same group of people sent to the black coal kiln by Charlie Wade.

Those men, who are now being tortured, are not like human beings. They have to work fifteen or six hours in the black coal kiln every day, and they are hungry and skinny.

The old Ethel had a hard time, because she was ugly and didn't like the supervisor, so her daily routine and work were no different from those men.

Hannah is a little better because she herself is a young and old grandmother. She looks good and maintains well. Although she is a little older, she still has the charm, which is really unique in the eyes of the supervisor.

As a result, Hannah became the concubine of the black coal kiln supervisor, doing all she could to wait for the dirty supervisor every night, which made her life easier.

At least she doesn't have to do so much work, and she can take more time to rest. More importantly, she eats better than others. But even so, this kind of life is still extremely tortured for Hannah. Although the supervisor has the supreme status and right to speak in the black coal kiln, he is plainly speaking, he is a bad old man in the countryside, very sloppy, and does not pay attention to personal hygiene, sometimes he does not take a bath in two weeks. But Hannah had no choice but to resist the nausea to please him and cater to him.

At night, Hannah had just finished serving the supervisor and came out of the brick house in disorder.

Hannah still holds a plastic basin in her hand. Although the supervisor does not like to take a bath, wash her face, or brush her teeth, she likes to soak her feet every day, and as long as she soaks her feet, Hannah will help him. He washes his feet.

Every time Hannah washes his feet with a basin of clean water, the basin is dark after washing.

Thinking of his foul-smelling feet, Hannah shed tears of grievance. My original delicate skin gradually became rough in this dusty and coal dust environment.

Such a day is almost like hell, and I don't know if there is any chance to leave this blind place in my life.

Hannah carried the basin and headed to the boiling water room, just to see Linda's family with dark faces, beside the coal pile, carrying baskets of coal into the coal pile.

Linda looked at her, full of hatred and jealousy.

In her opinion, if it weren't for Hannah, this stinky lady, who was pulling herself to Elaine Ma, she would not have fallen into this kind of place.

Chapter 1066

Moreover, my family has been working at a high load since the day I came in, but what about Hannah? She can be the concubine of the overseer just because she maintains better than herself!

So, she looked at Hannah, not angry, and gritted her teeth and cursed: "Some women are really shameless. It's shameless to go to sleep with the supervisor for such a little benefit!"

When Hannah heard her mocking herself, she was naturally full of anger and cursed: "Linda, you should be careful when you speak to my Lady, otherwise, be careful that my Lady will stop you from eating tomorrow!"

When Linda heard this, she became furious: "Hannah, what are you going to do? Are you sleeping with the supervisor? You think that if you have him as a backer, my mother dare not do anything to you? Wait for him to play. Tired of you, will you still be like my Lady by then?"

Hannah was so angry that she blurted out: "Linda, I don't think your family wants to be better, believe me or not, tomorrow you will increase your daily working hours from 16 hours to 20 hours? Your family is exhausted to death!"

When Linda heard this, she was furious: "Hannah, do you have a damn conscience? It is because of you that my mother and my family ended up like this! Not only did you have no guilt, you even told me Come on! You are not human!"

Hannah said in a cold voice: "Don't talk to me here. You agreed to cooperate with me for money. If you want to make this money, you have to bear the risks behind it! Why do you rely on me?"

Linda gritted her teeth: "It doesn't matter who you rely on, if it weren't for you, my mother and my family are now eating hot and spicy in Aurouss Hilll! How could it be possible to suffer this crime?"

Hannah said contemptuously: "This proves that you have no life of happiness! You are destined to live in this small coal kiln in your life! Either you will be exhausted here, or the small coal kiln will smash you to death in the well. Bottom, in short, you won't be able to stand up in your life!"

When Linda heard this, she became angry!

The croupier, who has worked so hard in Macau for so many years, saved some money and returned to Aurouss Hilll to prepare for the elderly, but Hannah asked herself to set up a set for Elaine Ma. This set did not matter. The coal mine came, and then she lived a life of darkness and hell, so how could she not hate Hannah in her heart?

Listening to Hannah's words now, her whole body is already frustrated! I felt my brain tingling for a while, so I picked up a handful of iron hooks from the ground, specially used to pull coal, and waved towards Hannah!

Hannah did not expect that this stinky lady would dare to beat herself! And she moved the iron hook as soon as she came up. She was so frightened that she pissed off and ran away, but she started a little late after all, so the iron hook caught her calf!

The iron hook can even hook in hard coal, not to mention the flesh. Hannah only felt that the hook was like a fish hook, piercing the flesh of her calf, and then there was a sharp pain. , Making her stagger and fall to the ground.

At this time, her calf was bloody and it looked terrifying.

Hannah was frightened. She knew very well in her heart that everything in this small coal kiln was very dirty, and the iron hook had rust and soot on it. I don't know how many bacteria were penetrated by it. infected! Moreover, Linda in front of her has obviously lost her mind, and the threat to herself is quite big!

So she hurriedly shouted: "Linda, you dare to touch me, do you want to live?"

Linda had red eyes at this time and gritted her teeth and said: "You have harmed my Lady to the point where I am today, so that my Lady will remain in darkness for a lifetime, and that Lady might as well die with you!" After that, she violently pulled the iron hook out of her calf, and then she was about to hook it on her face!

Chapter 1067

Hannah was so scared that she rolled several times on the ground, for fear that the iron hook would really hit her face.

That thing looks so scary, maybe you can hook your eyes off!

But Hannah's leg was injured after all. Even if he could avoid Linda for the first two times, Linda has been chasing her and beating her, according to this posture, sooner or later he will be bloody abused by Linda!

Hannah was about to run away, but suddenly there was a pain in her leg and she fell to the ground.

When she recovered, Linda rushed over, picked up the big hook and slammed it directly on her head.

At this time, Hannah couldn't avoid it anymore. She closed her eyes in despair, thinking that she was dead today.

But at this moment, several Toyota overbearing vehicles suddenly drove in.

The dazzling car lights directly hit Linda's face, and a group of people jumped out of the car. One of them pointed at Linda with a gun: "What the f*ck? Put that hook down for me!".

Linda was taken aback by this battle!

After all, she has worked in Macau's casinos for many years. She is well-informed and knows at a glance what kind of person has what kind of strength.

Although the security guards and supervisors of the black coal mine are terrible, they don't have guns. This group of people seems to be a little bigger!

So she shivered and threw the iron hook on the ground.

At this time, the lead a chubby middle-aged man with a full face walked to Hannah's face, opened a photo from his mobile phone and looked at Hannah, then looked at Hannah, and asked, "You are the lady Hannah?"

Hannah nodded in panic: "I am, who are you?"

The middle-aged man nodded and said lightly: "Hello, Ms. Queen, introduce myself. I am from the Webb family of Southaven. My name is Victor Firth. I am here to take you to Southaven."

Hannah was puzzled and cautiously said: "Hello, Mr. Firth...I...I don't seem to know the Webb family..."

Victor said blankly: "Our young master knew that you were pitted here by Charlie Wade, so I specifically asked me to come and rescue you and go to southern region with us. Our young master has something to tell you, and then let you Meet your family."

Hannah asked in surprise: "Is what you said is true? Are you really going to rescue me and let me meet my family?"

Victor asked in a cold voice: "Otherwise, do you think I ran all the way to this place where the birds don't shit, is it because I am trying to tease you?"

When Hannah heard this, she was so excited that she was almost crying.

As a result, she was so excited that she burst into tears, nodded and said, "Thank you, Master Webb! Thank you!"

Seeing her dirty, Victor said to the person behind him, "Let her take your car."

"Good boss!"

The man said, put the pistol away, and took Hannah into the car.

At this time, a man in the room came out cursingly, cursing very uncomfortably, "What do you guys do? Master's woman, too, did you take her away when you said it? Leave her to me!"

Victor frowned and asked, "What are you?"

This man is the supervisor of this black coal kiln. When the boss is not here, he is the earth emperor here.

So he arrogantly said: "I am the safety supervisor here. Have you come to me to lead people and greet our boss? Tell you, our boss is very powerful here!"

Victor said coldly: "Didn't your boss call you? Tell you that this place has been bought by our young master?"

"Joke!" The supervisor coldly shouted, "Boss really sold this place. He will definitely tell me. I think you guys are ill-intentioned. Want his mother to grab Master's woman?"

Chapter 1068

Victor looked at Hannah and asked, "What's the matter? Are you his woman?"

Hannah cried and said, "No, I am not, I was forced by him!"

Victor looked at the supervisor and said coldly: "Since she doesn't admit that she is your woman, then you shouldn't mess with me here."

During this period of time, the overseer who was served by Hannah was already ecstatic. He was nothing more than a rural old hat, who had experienced this kind of white and tender Lady from the city, so he had long been addicted to Hannah.

Now seeing these people want to take Hannah away, he is naturally 10,000 unhappy.

So he said coldly: "I don't care about what you have or what you don't have, what's upsetting, I will tell you again, she is Master's woman!"

Victor snorted coldly: "This is your own death, so I didn't give you a chance."

After he finished speaking, he immediately took out a dark pistol from his waist, pointed the gun at the overseer, and pulled the trigger without hesitation.

With a bang, a tongue of fire sputtered from the muzzle, and a bullet instantly penetrated into the forehead of the overseer.

The overseer who was still arrogant just now turned into a corpse in an instant.

Hannah was so scared that she screamed, but Linda had a faint excitement in her eyes. She felt that she had a chance to survive!

So she hurriedly said to Victor: "This big brother, we were also taken captive here, please take us away too!"

Upon hearing this, Hannah hurriedly said: "You must not take her away! She just tried to kill me!"

Victor looked at Hannah and asked, "Is this woman your enemy?"

Hannah nodded immediately and blurted out: "Yes, she is my enemy, and she will kill me!"

Linda was anxious and said hurriedly: "Hannah, don't talk nonsense! When will I..."

Before Linda finished speaking, a gunshot suddenly sounded.

Hannah was taken aback, and again, Victor raised his pistol at this time, and the muzzle turned out to be Linda!

And Linda who was still talking just now, her face was already full of blood at this time, she froze for a while, and then fell to the ground with a crash.

Victor actually shot Linda to death!

Hannah didn't expect that Victor would even kill two people in the blink of an eye, trembling with fright.

And Linda's family members suddenly wailed and rushed towards her body.

They didn't expect that Linda, who was still alive just now, was already separated from them.

But they didn't have any choice. They didn't dare to seek revenge from Victor and Hannah, so they could only cry with the corpse.

Victor didn't pay much attention to the family in front of him. He turned around and said to the younger brothers around him: "The plane is still waiting at the airport. Let's leave!"

The shocked Hannah immediately pushed into a domineering car.

Victor also stepped into the car when he came. When the car turned around, he opened the window and pointed at Linda's family. As long as her family rushed forward, he would immediately kill him.

Fortunately, Linda's family was so scared that they did not dare to move. Immediately after that, the convoy drove away from the black coal mine in the mountain and headed for the local airport!

Chapter 1069

The black coal kiln where Hannah is located is located in the Jin Province in northwest China, which is a province rich in vinegar and coal bosses.

It is one or two thousand kilometers away from Southaven in the southeast. If you want to drive back directly, it will take at least one day and one night.

The young master Sean urged him more urgently, so he sent Webb's private jet directly.

It took the convoy nearly three hours before it drove out of the deep mountain and old forest and arrived at the local airport.

On the airport apron at this time, a Gulfstream plane of Webb's family had been parked.

Hannah never dreamed that it would be a private jet to take herself to Southaven!

Victor took her on the plane. When she saw the luxurious interior like a palace inside, her eyes were almost lost.

Seeing that she was all dirty, Victor frowned and said to her: "There is a bathroom behind the plane where you can take a shower. Go in and take a shower. Don't dirty our master's plane."

Hannah nodded hurriedly, and cautiously came to the rear of the private jet. Sure enough, there is a very luxurious bathroom here. Although it is small, it can also take a shower, which is indeed very unusual.

When she was about to take a shower, the plane had already started to roll. Seeing that the plane was about to take off, everyone was sitting on the seat and buckled up the seat belt, but she was afraid that she would be too dirty and would stain the seat. Stand firmly on the handrail.

Hannah took a shower in the bathroom until the plane took off, climbed and started to fly smoothly.

After taking a shower, Hannah carefully sat on the seat according to the new clothes brought by the service staff, waiting for her next destiny. Hannah is not a fool. Although she doesn't know why the Webb family came to rescue herself, she can be sure that there is no free lunch in the world, and the Webb family must be a useful place to save herself.

Later, she thought of her family again.

She didn't know that at this time, her husband, her son and daughter thought she had taken all the money from the family and ran with someone. She didn't even know that her family already hated herself at this time. At this moment, all she thought of was her family. She missed her husband, her son and daughter.

In fact, Hannah is really not a watery woman. She and Christopher have been together for such a long time, and they have always wanted to live a good life at home and have never had a double heart.

But since she was sent to the black coal kiln, she has been betraying her husband almost every day, and she still has such a disgusting rural old hat, which made her feel a little worried.

She didn't know whether her husband would sympathize with herself or blame herself for giving him a cuckold if she knew what happened to her during this period.

Thinking of this, Hannah decided to conceal this matter in her heart and would never mention it to anyone.

When the plane arrived in Southaven, the sky was already dimly bright. The Webb family's motorcade was already waiting here, and the plane had arrived, so they took Hannah directly to the Webb family's villa.

Last night, neither father nor son of the Webb family slept.

They are not waiting for Hannah, but because of this huge internal and external troubles, they really can't sleep.

Not only the two of them, but Donald's several brothers and sisters, and their children, a total of 20 or 30 direct relatives, sat in the living room all night.

The video of Marcone and the core members of the Beggar Gang being caught by Cameron Isaac is still circulating on the Internet.

And everyone who saw this video scolded the Webb family countless times in their hearts.

Therefore, the reputation of the Webb family is still declining.

Chapter 1070

Under such circumstances, everyone in the Webb family surnamed Webb was in a panic and could not fall asleep.

When Hannah was taken to Webb's house, Victor didn't let her go to the living room directly, but temporarily arranged her in the living area of her subordinates, and then came over and invited Donald and Sean over. I heard that Hannah was brought back, and the father and son went to see her together.

As soon as they met, Hannah knelt on the ground and kowtowed them, thanking them for their life-saving grace.

Sean said blankly: "Hannah, we rescued you not because we sympathized with you, but because we wanted you to do things for us."

Hannah hurriedly asked: "What do you want to do?"

Sean gritted his teeth and said: "I know that you have hatred with Charlie Wade Wade, and I also have hatred with Charlie Wade, and they don't share the same hatred. I will ask you one sentence, do you want to get revenge with Charlie Wade?"

Hannah blurted out angrily: "That damn Charlie Wade almost killed me and made me suffer. I would have liked to smash him into pieces!"

Sean nodded with satisfaction and said, "That's good. In that case, I will let you go back to Aurouss Hilll. Your task is to do everything possible to avenge Charlie Wade's family! How much power is there!"

Hannah agreed without hesitation, even if Sean didn't say anything, once she had a chance to go back, she would definitely seek revenge on Charlie Wade.

After agreeing, Hannah couldn't help asking: "By the way, Master Webb, you know my husband, my son, my daughter and my mother-in-law, what's the situation now?"

Sean sneered: "They are miserable now. They were taken into the detention center by Charlie Wade some time ago, and they have not been released yet."

"Ah?!" Hannah asked nervously when she heard that all her family had entered the detention center, "What's the matter? Are they all right? When can they come out?"

Sean said: "The reason why they entered the detention center was because they were sent by Charlie Wade. I guess they should hate Charlie Wade terribly now."

Hannah asked nervously: "Master Webb, can you release my family? I beg you!"

Sean said indifferently: "Of course you can let them out, but I want to ask you, if I let them out, will they listen to me and go against Charlie Wade?"

Hannah nodded again and again: "Yes, I will! To be honest, our whole family has suffered a lot from Charlie Wade!"

"My mother-in-law's Wilson Group was destroyed by Charlie Wade!"

"My life savings with my husband were also lost by Charlie Wade!"

"My son was supposed to be the heir of the Wilson Group, but in the end he had nothing and became a hanging silk, thanks to him!"

"My daughter was supposed to marry the Aurouss Hilll White's family and become a young grandmother, but after the White's family played with her, they retired from her. It was also the damn Charlie Wade's ghost!"

When talking about this, Hannah was so angry that her whole body had almost collapsed and she was shaking violently.

At this time, she was emotionally out of control, and she broke down and cried: "I was sent to that dark coal mine. After such a long hellish life, life was worse than death every day, and she almost committed suicide several times, and it was Charlie Wade. Damn it! Our family doesn't share the same spirit with him!"

Sean and his father Donald looked at each other.

The eyes were filled with joy.

The cannon fodder they want is someone who has a deadly enemy with Charlie Wade!

The five members of the Wilson family are all Charlie Wade's mortal enemies. As long as they are brought out and sent under Charlie Wade's nose, Charlie Wade will definitely be uncomfortable! They are the ideal first members of the cannon fodder group!

In this way, Charlie Wade's energy will inevitably be restrained in many ways, and the Webb family will also have more opportunities to attack him!

Chapter 1071

At this moment Aurouss Hilll Detention Center.

Lady Wilson and her granddaughter Wendy have been living in the detention center for several days. The two of them are lucky. Lady Wilson won the sympathy of prison tyrant Gena, so no one in there was to make things difficult for them.

However, Christopher and Harold and his son were not so easy in the men's detention center.

Because it was a newcomer, the father and son were bullied by all kinds of things as soon as they entered.

Not only do you have to do a lot of work, but the only little ration will be taken away by others, and you can't even fill your stomach every day. The more so, the more Christopher hated Hannah in his heart.

Because he always felt that Hannah, with all her wealth, must be comfortable at this time.

If it weren't for Hannah who had swept away the money, how could he have fallen to where he is today?

At the beginning, the four members of this family were sentenced to 15 days in detention. It seems that there are still a few days to come out, but no one expected that they had just had lunch today and the detention center where they were all released at the same time.

After learning that she had been released, Mrs. Wilson panicked and stayed in the cell unwilling to leave.

Now she really doesn't want to go out and face the cruel reality. After all, I am penniless and the house at home has been sealed up. Not only can I not eat a bite to eat when I go out, I don't even have a place to live, so I might as well stay in it comfortably.

However, the prison guards didn't give her this chance, and because they couldn't get out of the cell, they pulled her up from the bed and dragged her out.

Gena also knew that the Lady must be on the street after she went out, so she hurriedly shouted from behind: "Lady, teach you a way. After going out, go to the bus stop and block the bus. The police will disturb the bus if you die or die. Social security, I'll catch you back again!"

The Lady Wilson breathed a sigh of relief and quickly said, "Gena is so thankful to you, you are waiting for me, I will come back again!"

Wendy followed the Lady without saying a word. She didn't know what to do at this moment. After all, she was a young girl, and she looked a little bit pretty. She really didn't want to stay in the detention center, but after she went out How to earn a living is also a very serious problem.

She once thought about going to KTV to be a princess, if she meets a wealthy guest, she can occasionally open a room in private with her, anyway, she has seen it now. After she and Kenneth Wilson, her reputation is in Aurouss Hilll. Gone bad.

In that case, why bother to care so much?

So, she made up her mind, if grandma wants to come in again after going out, then she will ignore her.

The prison guards in the detention center led the two out of the cell all the way, and then came to the office that specializes in handling the release procedures.

As soon as I entered, I saw a man dressed in luxurious clothes standing in the office.

Several prison guards surrounded him with respectful faces.

The man saw the Lady and granddaughter come in, and asked faintly: "You are the Wilson family, right?"

The Lady Wilson nodded hurriedly. She has been a human being for all her life, and she can tell at a glance that this man seems to be a little backed, so she asked, "Mr., are you looking for us?"

The man nodded and said, "I released you on bail. Your son and your grandson were also released on bail. I will take you to see them both."

Chapter 1072

When Wendy heard this, she asked excitedly: "This gentleman, are my father and my brother really released? Where are they now?"

The man said indifferently: "My people have arranged them, you two can just go with me."

Lady Wilson didn't think too much about it. After all, she was already like this. There shouldn't be anyone who came here to hurt herself.

What's more, she was indeed released on bail. That being the case, you might as well go and take a look, maybe there is a new opportunity.

So the two went through the formalities, got their clothes and belongings, and after changing their clothes, they followed the man out of the detention center.

Outside the detention center, two Rolls-Royce Phantoms have been waiting here for a long time.

The man turned his head and said to his grandson and grandson: "You two, take the car behind you."

Seeing the two Rolls-Royce Phantoms, Mrs. Wilson was very excited.

No ordinary people can afford a Rolls Royce.

When the Wilson family was at its peak, they couldn't afford a Rolls Royce.

Even if he could afford the money, he would not be worthy of his worth and status.

So the Lady Wilson said, "Thank you, sir. Then we two will sit in the back."

After speaking, she took her granddaughter to the front of the car behind.

The three people got in the cars one after another, and the two cars started to drive towards the outskirts.

After the car drove out for 20 minutes, the Lady Wilson said to Wendy in surprise: "I think this road seems to be to the airport."

Wendy also nodded, and said, "You will reach the airport expressway after a few kilometers."

Lady Wilson frowned and said in a low voice, "I don't know who the gentleman in front is. Could it be that your father and your brother were also sent to the airport by them?"

Wendy suddenly became nervous and said, "Grandma, shouldn't they be sent by Charlie Wade? Are they going to get us out of Aurouss Hilll and never let us come back?"

"Impossible." Mrs. Wilson shook her head: "Why is that bastard Charlie Wade so polite? He won't release us on bail. On the contrary, he will find a way to let us stay inside for a while, even let We won't be able to get out all our lives."

Wendy asked in surprise: "It's Kenneth Wilson and Thomas Wilson, right? Does he still miss the old love and want to take us to Eastcliff?"

Lady Wilson waved her hand and said, "Impossible. If Kenneth Wilson can still do what a man does, it might be possible, but he is already an incompetent person. How could he miss the old love? If he really misses the old love If he did, he would never leave you."

Wendy 's expression couldn't help but feel a little sad. Although at first she was disgusted with her parents and grandmother's arrangement to serve Kenneth Wilson, but after thinking about it carefully, Kenneth Wilson treated herself well back then.

After all, it only happened once with himself, and he was able to invest tens of millions and give himself 5 million pocket money.

Thinking of this, Wendy couldn't help but sigh inwardly: "If Kenneth Wilson still has the abilities of a man, then I should follow him now, and I should be a fragrant drinker, so how can I live such a miserable life?"

Just thinking about it, the two Rolls-Royce drove one after the other towards the airport expressway, rushing to the airport quickly.

Lady Wilson and Wendy were even more surprised in their hearts. They were really going to the airport. What are they going to do?

Chapter 1073

Although she was puzzled in her heart, Mrs. Wilson knew very well that it would be useless to think too much at this time, because she was already in someone else's car, so it's better to settle down and wait to see what arrangements the other party has. .

Moreover, her instinct tells her that although the other party looks mysterious, it shouldn't hurt herself.

Because I am poor now and I have nothing to do. If others want to harm myself, I won't have to spend so much trouble.

Thinking of this, the Lady Wilson was also relieved.

So he simply sat in the car calmly, waiting to see what medicine the other party was selling.

Two Rolls-Royce drove directly into Aurouss Hilll Airport. In a small hangar at the airport, Webb's Gulfstream aircraft had already parked here.

It was this plane that took Hannah to Southaven last night.

Early this morning, the plane took off again from Southaven to Aurouss Hilll, ready to pick up the Wilson family.

Seeing a private jet parked in front of her, Mrs. Wilson was so surprised that she couldn't speak.

If Rolls-Royce is the toy of the rich, then private jets can only be afforded by the rich.

Because Gulfstream aircraft like this sells for at least 200 million to 300 million.

And if you buy an aircraft like this, you don't need to spend only two to three hundred million Dollar. You have to hire a crew, including two pilots, several mechanics, and several service personnel.

Aircraft maintenance costs are also very high, parking in the hangar, and taking off and landing at the airport cost a lot of money.

It is equivalent to buying a private jet, which means buying a tool to burn money.

When the Lady saw this private jet, she immediately realized that there must be a very powerful family behind it.

Rolls-Royce stopped beside the plane, and the Lady Wilson walked down with her granddaughter Wendy .

Wendy was also staring at this private plane, when a familiar figure suddenly ran out of the plane door!

"Grandma! Wendy!"

When the two heard this voice, they looked up, and it was Harold who got out of the plane!

Lady Wilson saw her grandson and said excitedly: "Harold, why are you here? Where is your father?"

"mom!"

As soon as Mrs. Wilson finished speaking, her eldest son Christopher also walked out of the plane!

Lady Wilson was very excited, but seeing her son and grandson lose a lot of weight, she couldn't help but feel distressed.

The Lady Wilson didn't care about these things. She only cared about herself and didn't care about anything else.

But after going through jail, and seeing her son and grandson, she also felt a feeling that blood was thicker than water.

And looking at my eldest son, there are a lot of white hair coming out, and the whole person is also several years old. He was originally ruddy and blessed, but now his skin is dull and his body is thin, which really makes the Lady feel distressed.

On the contrary, in these days in jail, Mrs. Wilson didn't suffer any crime, and she abused Elaine Ma for a few days, so she didn't seem to lose weight or age.

At this time, Harold and Christopher both ran up to the Lady, who cried bitterly while hugging her son and grandson.

Chapter 1074

She cried in her mouth and muttered, "My son, my grandson, you two have suffered!"

Harold was aggrieved like a child, wiped his eyes and choked with tears: "Grandma, you don't know what kind of hardships my dad and I have had during this period of time. This is the hardship I have never had in my life. Eat it all."

Christopher also sighed and said, "Hey, it's all the same, so don't talk about those things, it will only increase your troubles."

Lady Wilson nodded, and hurriedly asked: "By the way, Christopher, what the hell is going on? Who is the one who released us on bail?"

"I don't know..." Christopher shook his head and said, "I and Harold were also taken out suddenly, and then their car sent us here and let us wait here. Neither know who they are."

At this time, the man who picked up Mrs. Wilson and Wendy from the detention center quickly walked up to a family of four and said:

"Introduce myself, my name is Thomas Webb I belong to the Webb family of southern region, my brother is called Donald, you should have heard of it."

"Webb family?!" The four members of the Wilson family were stunned. How could they not know the Webb family?

The Webb family is the No. 1 family in the south of the Yangtze River much better than the Moore family!

When the old man of the Webb family was in the limelight, his legend circulated throughout Southaven.

At that time, the old man Wilson always talked about the old man of the Webb family every day, and regarded him as an idol worthy of imitation efforts.

The Wilson family never dreamed that they could have a relationship with the Webb family, and this time it was the Webb family who rescued them. This is really amazing. Does the Wilson family need time to run?

Thinking of this, the Lady Wilson flatly smiled at Thomas Webb and asked: "Mr. Webb, may I ask, you brought us out and then brought us here again, what are you doing?"

Thomas Webb said calmly: "I came to pick you up on my eldest brother's order, but I don't know exactly what I'm going to do to pick you up. But the time is urgent. Don't ask so many questions. Get on the plane first. My brother will naturally explain to you."

When Mrs. Wilson heard this, she nodded immediately and blurted out: "Mr. Webb said, we can't delay your time, let alone your brother's time. We should first get on the plane to southern region and meet your brother. Right!"

Thomas Webb nodded, and then didn't say a word, so he stepped onto the plane.

The four members of the Wilson family hurriedly followed behind him and boarded the plane.

Christopher and Harold had already boarded the plane just now, so when they got on the plane, they were not too surprised by the luxurious interior of the plane.

But the Lady Wilson and Wendy were dumbfounded.

Where did they fly on any private jet? Usually I can't bear to go out by plane even first-class, let alone a private jet.

Therefore, the Lady Wilson is like Grandma who has entered the Grand View Garden. Her eyes are dripping and she doesn't know where to stay. Thomas Webb couldn't look down on this family in his heart. He always felt that sitting in the same plane with such a bunch of old hats was a bit uncomfortable.

So he greeted the charming stewardess, poured him a glass of whiskey, and then asked him to give himself a steam blindfold.

The stewardess in the miniskirt writhed her plump body, waited on Thomas Webb to finish drinking, and waited on him again. He put on his blindfold, put his ears close to his ears, and said, "You have to rest first, the plane will soon It's about to take off, call me if you need to."

Harold looked at it from the seat behind.

This flight attendant is also too beautiful, and she is just trying to catch up with Thomas Webb. If she could serve herself in this way, how great...

Thinking of this, he hurriedly said to the flight attendant: "Hello, can you please bring me a glass of wine?"

After serving Thomas Webb, the stewardess stood up, pulled her skirt down, and said disdainfully, "I'm sorry, I am Mr. Webb's personal flight attendant, and I don't serve other people."

Chapter 1075

When Harold heard this, the other party directly refused to say that he was Thomas Webb's private flight attendant, with embarrassment on his face and jealousy in his heart.

The rich are indeed rich, not only have private jets, but also private flight attendants. This is really damn envy and hatred.

When can I get into this situation?

The stewardess ignored them, twisted her waist and went to the front cabin, while Thomas Webb kept his eyes closed and rested, and he was too lazy to talk to the Wilson family.

The Wilson family also felt bored.

However, they were looking forward to their situation after arriving in Southaven. Although they had not heard of Thomas's name before, they had heard of Donald's name.

Donald is the eldest son of the Webb family and the current heir of the Webb family. It can be said that he is the helm of the Webb family.

I don't know what kind of high incense I burned, and it won the favor of the helm of the Webb family. Doesn't it prove that the Wilson family has come back to life?

Although the four people were speechless all the way, they had their own thoughts.

Southaven is very close to Aurouss Hilll, and the plane can fly there in less than an hour.

So soon, the plane began to descend and then landed at Southaven Airport. After the plane landed, there were still two Rolls-Royce waiting here.

Thomas Webb took one by himself and the four from Wilson family took one. Then the two cars drove non-stop towards the Webb's villa.

At this time, Donald was staring at the stock market with a green face.

As the Webb family's reputation plummeted yesterday, it became the target of siege and scolding on the Internet. Several listed groups under the Webb family dropped their limits as soon as they opened for trading this morning.

The market has already panicked about the Webb family. Everyone is desperately selling stocks. So Donald predicts that after the market opens tomorrow, the limit will continue to fall.

Even the day after tomorrow will be the limit.

The market value of the Webb family must fall by at least 50% first.

If you can find an opportunity to revive the reputation of the Webb family, then this stock will still have a chance to rise. If you can't find an opportunity to restore its reputation, then the Webb family may be ruined ever since.

So the load on his shoulders is so heavy that he almost feels breathless. And the old man is in a coma now, which makes Donald feel that his heart is lost.

Looking at the top families in the country, most of them were founded by the older generation.

Both the Webb family and the Moore family were the rich family business that the old man worked hard to produce when he was young.

And such families often have an awkward situation, that is, the next generation is not as good as the next generation.

When the old man of the Webb family was young, he was a real hero. He didn't dare to say that he could be ranked in the whole country, but in Southaven, he was definitely a remarkable figure.

But when he arrived at Donald, his ability was much worse than the old man.

If Donald is allowed to start from scratch, even if he uses all his strength for feeding, it is impossible to reach one-tenth of the old man's.

Donald is already like this, but his son is worse than him.

Take Kian as an example. This little bastard, except for picking up girls, spending money, and knows nothing. After raising him for more than 20 years, he has changed before he can contribute to the family. Become a shit-swallowing beast that eats a bubble of shit every hour.

And Sean, even if he was a little bit stronger than his brother Kian, but his strength was limited.

Chapter 1076

Why is one generation inferior to a big family?

In fact, this has a lot to do with the environment in which they live.

The older generation was born in a reckless way. Every meal was spent with fate, and every penny was earned with fate. Therefore, in that era, no one was mediocre who was able to make a family business. Generations can be said to be elites.

But when they lay a piece of land and their son was born, he had already lived a life of adequate food and clothing. With adequate food and clothing, they didn't need to work hard and did not need to fight their lives, so the wolf nature was naturally much weaker.

By the time their grandson was born, they were already born with the golden key. Let alone let them go out and fight hard. For this second generation ancestor born with the golden key, let him go to bed early and wake up every day. Unable to realize the extravagant hope, what kind of fighting spirit can be expected in them, what bloody wolf nature is there?

Those born in the wild and risking their lives to prey and grow are real wolves.

Born in a zoo, there are wolves that eat meat every day when you open your eyes. In terms of blood, it may not be as good as a wild dog on the side of the road.

Donald also knew that his abilities were much worse than his father, and he knew that his son was much worse than himself, so in this situation, he felt an unprecedented sense of loneliness.

This kind of loneliness is isolation and helplessness. I feel that no one in the world can help me, and the only dad who can help me has also suffered a stroke and coma.

Just as he sighed with emotion, his brother, Thomas Webb, stepped in and blurted out: "Brother, you asked me to hang silk from the family that I brought to Aurouss Hilll. I have brought it back."

Donald nodded and asked, "Where is the person now?"

Thomas Webb said: "People are in the living room."

Donald said: "Okay. I'll go and meet them first, you go and call Hannah over."

"Okay brother." Thomas Webb nodded hastily, and stepped to find Hannah. Donald lit a cigar, and while smoking it, he walked out of his study and walked to the living room.

In the living room, the four members of the Wilson family were waiting nervously.

Seeing Donald come out, all four of them are bright, and each of them has flattery and flattery written on their faces.

As the head of the family, Mrs. Wilson immediately greeted her and said with a smile on her face: "Oh, Mr. Webb, I used to see you on TV. I finally saw you today. I didn't expect you to be better than TV. The more generous!"

Donald nodded blankly, he naturally wouldn't take the compliments of an Lady seriously.

So he said lightly: "I let Thomas take you over for two purposes."

Lady Wilson quickly said, "Mr. Webb, what do you want or what you want to tell us, just say it!"

Donald nodded and said, "The first purpose is to let you meet someone; the second purpose is to help me deal with someone."

The Lady Wilson knew very well that the Webb family was a life-saving straw given to the Wilson family from heaven.

In the past, the Wilson family wanted to be a dog for the big family, but the big family simply didn't look down on it.

But now it is different. Now the Wilson family has the opportunity to be a dog for the Webb family. This is a rare opportunity in a lifetime!

So she hurriedly flattered: "Mr. Webb, everything in the Wilson family is based on your head. We will see whom you let us see; we will deal with whom you let us deal with!"

As he was talking, Thomas Webb brought Hannah over.

Donald pointed to Hannah and said to the Wilson family four: "I want you to see her!"

The four of the Wilson family followed the direction of his fingers and saw that it was Hannah. Everyone's expression became extremely ugly!

Christopher was furious in an instant, and gritted his teeth and cursed: "Hannah, you shameless frame, I must beat you to death today!"

Chapter 1077

During this time, Christopher hated Hannah deeply!

After all, for a man, there is nothing more painful for him than the betrayal of his beloved woman.

When Hannah disappeared, Christopher was brought into the rhythm by Charlie Wade, so confused that Hannah really eloped. In addition, all the money in the family was with him at the time, so he was even more angry with Hannah. After so many days and nights, every time he thinks of Hannah, he wants to catch her and beat her to death! But he also knew that since Hannah ran away with the money, she would never be able to meet her again in this life, and it was even possible that she took the money and fled abroad. But he never expected that he would meet Hannah, whom he hated so deeply, in the mansion of Webb's family in southern region today! So he rushed towards Hannah almost without thinking, stretched out his hand and slapped her face severely, and slapped Hannah to the ground. After a slap was passed, Christopher pointed at her furiously and said: "Okay, you b*tch, you dare to come back! Where the hell did you take my money? Do you know it's because of you, we How miserable the family is now!" Hannah was beaten up, she didn't expect that her husband Christopher, who she was thinking about day and night, would slap herself severely when they met. Her leg was still a little lame, she could only struggle, trying to crawl open her mouth and blurt out and shouted, "Christopher, what are you hitting me for?!" "What are you doing?" Christopher gritted his teeth and cursed: "I not only want to beat you, I want to kill you! How dare I use my money to raise a little white face, and I don't leave a single cent for me, f*ck you So cruel!" Hannah screamed and blurted out: "Christopher, what are you crazy? When did my Lady take care of the little white face? I was cheated by Charlie Wade!" "What?!" Christopher frowned, "What does this matter have to do with Charlie Wade?" Hannah thought of the torture she had suffered for many days, and suddenly burst into tears: "Have you forgotten what we were going to do for Elaine Ma?" Christopher nodded: "Of course I won't forget!" Hannah cried and said, "I had done almost the same thing as Linda, but the bastard Charlie Wade suddenly rushed over, and then he took someone to beat us up and forced me to take All the money in the bank card was donated, and then all of us were sent to the black coal mine to dig coal..." Speaking of which, Hannah was already in tears. She wiped her tears and continued to choked up: "Do you know how miserable I was during this time? Every day I work hard in the dark black coal kiln, and can only rest for four or five hours a day, and the rest of the time is all Working under a black coal kiln, I can't eat enough, don't wear warm clothes, and I'm often beaten. This is the torture like hell. You unscrupulous, not only don't seek me or save me, but now I'm so It's easy to be rescued by the Webb family. You even beat me and framed me for raising a little white face. Is that what you did to me?" When Christopher heard this, he was dizzy! He never dreamed that instead of taking the money to live with a young man, his wife suffered so much!

For a moment, not only was he full of distress and guilt for his wife, but he also hated Charlie Wade to death.

It turned out that the culprit who took away all of his savings and sent his wife to work in a small coal mine turned out to be Charlie Wade! At this moment, the new hatred and the old hatred made him extremely angry.

Harold and Wendy were also gritted with hatred.

Chapter 1078

In the front-end time, the two of them were the same as their father Christopher. They both hated her. The selfish mother who fled with money and flees. After the hard life of this time passed, they often scolded her in their hearts.

But until today did I know that my mother had a harder life than them, and much harder.

At most, the four of them suffered some crimes in the detention center, while Hannah suffered extensive torture in the black coal kiln.

The Lady Wilson on the side looked very ugly.

She didn't sympathize with Hannah's experience, but sympathized with the money that Charlie Wade had lost!

At this moment, the Lady walked towards Christopher in anger, and slapped him severely in the face when he was unprepared.

With a snap, Christopher was stunned.

He looked at his mother, exclaimed and asked: "Mom, what are you doing with me?"

The Lady Wilson angrily scolded: "I'm hitting you, an unfaithful and unfilial bastard! I told you a long time ago, give me the money, give me the money! If you want to play with me carefully, just grab it. With that little money, you don't let it go. What happens? The Wilson family is over, don't you have all your money?"

When Christopher heard this, he immediately lowered his head in shame.

If I had known that Charlie Wade would get the money out of the money, I might as well give the money to my mother. At the very least, I could solve the difficulties of the Wilson Group.

But at that time, I didn't want to sink with the Wilson Group, so I started thinking carefully.

But I didn't expect to be self-defeating, beating my own wife, and hurting my wife...

When he thought of this, he was full of guilt for his wife, mother, and even the two children.

Thinking of his wife suffering so much, I felt even more uncomfortable, hugging Hannah and crying bitterly.

Donald walked up to a few people at this time and said in a cold voice: "It seems that you and Charlie Wade both share the same vengeance. If I give you a chance for revenge, will you accept it?"

When Christopher heard this, he suddenly blurted out: "Yes! I am willing! I want to tear Charlie Wade's bastard alive!"

The Lady Wilson was a ghost, she had guessed that Donald had found her family here just to let her family deal with Charlie Wade. From this, it can be seen that he and Charlie Wade must also have antagonisms.

As a result, the Lady nodded again and again: "Mr. Webb, as long as you give us a chance, we will definitely go all out to deal with Charlie Wade!"

Harold said angrily: "If anyone gives me a gun, I will go and kill the bastard tonight!"

Donald was very satisfied with the attitude of this family, what he wanted was this desperate heart that would kill Charlie Wade. So he smiled slightly and said: "I'm telling you, Charlie Wade and I also have a deep hatred. I want to kill him personally. The enemy's enemy is a friend. That's why I called your family here. If you want revenge, too, Then you might as well cooperate with me."

Lady Wilson blurted out: "Mr. Webb, just give your orders! What do you need us to do?"

Donald said indifferently: "Charlie Wade's life, I will personally take it. As for you, I will send you back to Aurouss Hilll to help you solve all the other problems you are facing now. From then on, your goal is one. By all means, disgusting Charlie Wade, let his family jump and distract him! Before I kill him, I will make his backyard catch fire!"

Chapter 1079

When the Lady Wilson heard this, her heart was ecstatic.

Whether Donald could kill Charlie Wade, she didn't really care deep in her heart.

What she really cared about was that she needed her own help in Donald. In this way, she would tie the Wilson family to the big boat of the Webb family.

The Wilson family was almost dead, but now that it can become a partner of the Webb family, then there is a chance to come back to life. And not only can it bring the dead back to life, it's probably even more powerful than when it was at its peak and heyday!

So the Lady opened her mouth and said to Donald: "Mr. Webb, my granddaughter is Charlie Wade's wife, Claire Wilson Wilson, and now she also runs a decoration company. There is a business conflict with our Wilson Group. If you If we can bring the Wilson Group back to life, we can hit each other in business."

Donald nodded and said faintly: "Don't worry, I will invest 80 million Dollar in your Wilson Group to help you clear all your debts. If you do well, I will continue to invest."

Lady Wilson was almost ecstatic when she heard this.

This is really nowhere to be found after breaking through the iron shoes. In other words, it's another village.

During this period of time, I have always felt that the Wilson Group could never come back from the dead, but I didn't expect Donald to give him a powerful life.

The only problem with the Wilson Group is that it has no money and owes tens of millions of foreign debts. It still doesn't know how to deal with it.

The bank has been pressured to get the loan back, but as long as the money is paid back, nothing will happen.

The Wilson Group originally owed 80 million Dollar, but Kenneth Wilson had already invested 10 million Dollar, and the bank also took away his own villa, as well as so many antiques of his own. When that time comes, just return the remaining tens of millions to the villa. And antiques, the bank will return it, and there will be tens of millions of surplus on the company's account at that time, and it will suddenly turn over!

Harold and Wendy were already very excited when they heard this. They looked at the Lady and asked excitedly: "Grandma, can we return to our Wilson family villa this time? Should we never use it again? Down the street?"

Wendy also shed tears in excitement: "Do I no longer need to use Dabao sod honey?"

Lady Wilson just wanted to nod, but suddenly she thought of a brilliant idea.

So, the Lady said to Donald: "Mr. Webb, Charlie Wade's family, and our family are like water and fire, and they are incompatible with each other. They are anxious to send us to the small coal mine and to the detention center. , But if we go back this time, we will be under their noses every day, and it will definitely cause them great pain. Don't you want them to catch fire in their backyard? You just need to put us behind them, and they will be behind them all day long. It's all fire!"

When Donald heard this, he immediately became interested and raised his eyebrows and asked: "Lady, what do you mean specifically? To be clear, you don't have to go around with me."

Mrs. Wilson hurriedly said flatteringly, "Mr. Webb, the Charlie Wade family live in the villa of Aurouss Hilll Thompson First A05. Don't you know what they are doing all the time because of this villa? Looks like! Especially my second daughter-in-law, whose nostrils are almost going to the sky, and tell us every day that people like us are not even qualified to show them the door, if we suddenly become successful with them. I've gotten my neighbors, every day I bow my head without looking up, then think about it, what is the mood of their family?"

Donald's eyes suddenly lit up.

f*ck, this is kind of interesting!

Think about it, you just lived in a luxurious villa, enjoying a luxurious and secluded life every day, and then looking at your enemies down and down the streets, you can't even eat, that must be very enjoyable. But if one day suddenly, you wake up and find that your down-and-down street enemy has become your neighbor, then your life will surely fall from heaven to hell in an instant.

Chapter 1080

Donald believes in feng shui, fortune and magnetic field.

He firmly believes that if a person has good feng shui luck and good mood, everything will go smoothly.

But if a person's mood is affected and he is very upset every day from morning to night, he can't concentrate on anything and lose interest in everything. No matter how good the wine is, he loses its taste. The delicious meal does not feel delicious in his mouth.

Over time, his whole person will be affected by the magnetic field of this negative emotion, which will affect his whole person's Feng Shui fortune and even affect his physical health.

In Feng Shui, everything that makes people irritable is called sha.

If the sound is too loud, it is the evil spirit, if the light is too bright, it is the evil spirit.

These kinds of evil auras are colorless, tasteless, invisible, invisible, and without a trace, and are extremely difficult to resolve.

If I sent the Wilson family to Charlie Wade's eyes, it would be equivalent to giving him these kinds of evil spirits, and it would definitely make Charlie Wade suffer every day!

Thinking of this, Donald said with joy on his face: "If that's the case, then I can help you buy a Thompson First villa, and it's next to Charlie Wade's, and then let your family live in."

When the Lady Wilson heard this, she trembled with excitement.

After all, why did he break with his second son's family, and why was he sent to the detention center for so many days?

In the final analysis, the culprit is Thompson First villa.

I am too eager for Thompson First's luxurious villa. I want to live in it in my dreams, experience the incomparable luxury and enjoy the luxurious life of the master.

But in the end, he still failed to fight his second son's family, not to mention living in their Thompson First villa, and even his old villa was finally sealed by the bank.

But now the situation is different, and now he embraces the Webb family's thigh.

After his own remarks just now, Donald really became interested.

It seems that he really hates Charlie Wade, as long as it makes Charlie Wade uncomfortable, he is very interested!

Even the Lady Wilson did not expect that Donald would actually agree to buy a villa for herself!

Isn't this the legend that the snipe and the clam compete for the fisherman's profit?

In this way, Thompson First's is cheaper!

So she was extremely excited and said to Donald: "Mr. Webb, let's not tell you, Charlie Wade's family lives in No. a05 of Thompson First. I have been there and know the layout there. A05 is around a04 and A06, if we can live in a04 or a06, then Charlie Wade will be uncomfortable!"

Mrs. Wilson is a very shrewd person, and she has been good at calculations all her life.

In fact, there is also a series b at the back of the a series villa, but the a series is the largest unit of Thompson First Yipin, so she proposed a04 or a06 to Donald.

In this way, I live in a luxurious villa of the same specifications as Charlie Wade's family, isn't it beautiful!

Chapter 1081

Thompson First A series villas are worth more than one hundred million Dollar and are the most expensive villas in the entire Aurouss Hill city.

For ordinary families, it is impossible to achieve it in a lifetime; For ordinary wealthy families, working hard in this life may still be a little bit possible;

For the rich family, it takes 10 years of hard work to have the opportunity to live in such a villa.

But for the Webb family, this kind of villa is just a drop in the bucket.

Even if the Webb family is facing major difficulties now, for the Webb family, they have a value of hundreds of billions, and they don't care about a villa of more than one hundred million.

Moreover, Donald knew very well that this villa was bought by the Webb family for the Wilson family, that is to say, it was not given to the Wilson family. In this way, it would be equivalent to the Webb family buying a real estate, maybe two years later. , The Webb family can make money even if this villa appreciates, so why not do it?

So Donald nodded and said, "Since we are going to work together on major issues, I can still meet this small requirement. Let's do it, I will arrange my hands to inquire about 04 or 06 households. It does not matter if it is sold or not. I can buy it from the other party at a high price. After buying it, you can live in!"

The five members of the Wilson family were suddenly excited! Especially Christopher, the look in the eyes of the Lady was already worshipped.

I used to think that my mother was too old and might not be useful, but I didn't expect that, as expected, he was still hot when he complied with the old saying!

If you were to be yourself, just now I heard that the Webb family wanted to invest in the Wilson family and help the Wilson family to regain its strengths, and I would have bowed in excitement and thanks.

But my mother was different. The Lady calmly analyzed Donald's psychology, and as soon as she spoke, she won a villa for the Wilson family!

Although I just lived in, I'm not sure how long I can live there, but isn't it just for nothing?

However, Mrs. Wilson knew very well in her heart that since she was on the big ship of the Webb family, she must find a way to do more for herself.

The villa can not be given to oneself temporarily, but at least a certain commitment must be made to oneself on the length of residence.

So she looked at Donald and said with a smile: "Mr. Webb, you are really too generous, but the Lady, I have something to ask of you."

Donald nodded and said lightly: "Just tell me, what's the matter."

Mrs. Wilson said: "Mr. Webb, you see that I am a lot of years old. I guess I won't live for a few years. This old body can't stand the toss. If you let me live in Thompson First first villa today, you With a big wave, I killed Charlie Wade, wouldn't I have to move out tomorrow? After all, it is easy for a big man like you to kill the bastard Charlie Wade." A flattery made Donald feel happy. He looked at the Lady and asked, "Do you want me to give you a promise for how long you will stay in this villa?"

Mrs. Wilson immediately gave a thumbs up, flattering and said: "Sure enough, nothing can escape your glaring eyes, Mr. Webb, my Lady is not a person who covets prosperity and wealth, but her body cannot withstand the toss and wants to live a little. So can you sign an agreement with us that the Thompson First villa will live for us for at least 10 years. After 10 years, whether the Lady is still alive or not, the Wilson family will move out as agreed."

According to Mrs. Wilson, 10 years is already a long time. After all, the property right of a house is only 70 years, and 10 years is equivalent to one-seventh of the consumption.

A villa is worth more than one hundred million at least, and one seventh is almost 20 million.

And I am already 80 this year, and I may not live for another 10 years.

Chapter 1082

Donald didn't care much about a villa, so it is certainly impossible to give it to the Wilson family. After all, he is not such a fool, but letting them live for 10 years is actually not a big problem for him. So Donald said indifferently: "10 years is 10 years, but you must concentrate on doing things for me, get Charlie Wade as soon as possible, and I will reward you again."

The Lady Wilson hurriedly pulled the family and bowed to Donald, her excitement was beyond words.

The other members of the Wilson family were also very excited, and as a result, the Wilson family had completely turned over.

Not only was the Wilson Group saved, but they were also able to live in Thompson First's Villa, which is equivalent to better than the best time before.

Moreover, Donald also promised to support the Wilson Group. Maybe the Wilson Group can make breakthrough progress with his help.

Donald said at this time: "I will arrange for someone to go to Thompson First to check the house situation, and buy Thompson First a04 or a06 as soon as possible. Today, you will stay in the guest room for the time being. When I prepare everything, I will send you back to Aurouss Hilll, and then my investment to the Wilson Group will also be directly credited to your company's account."

The Wilson family was so excited that they quickly thanked and agreed. Then the family was arranged by the subordinates to the guest room area of Webb's house.

The Webb's villa occupies a huge area and is divided into three areas. One area is the area where the Webb family lives by themselves, the other area is dedicated to the subordinates, and the other area is dedicated to the guests. .

The Webb's Villa bought a large piece of land and built it by himself. The scale is several times the size of the Thompson First Villa. There are more than a dozen guest rooms, and it is easy to arrange them for a family of five.

The servants of Webb's family took them to the guest room area and gave them 4 rooms.

Lady Wilson, Harold and Wendy each had a room, and Christopher and Hannah and his wife lived together naturally.

As soon as they returned to their respective rooms, Christopher couldn't wait to hold Hannah in his arms, and said anxiously: "My wife, you have been wronged during this time, and I miss you, wife."

While talking, I have to take off the clothes of the red thread.

Hannah was also very emotional in her heart. Having not seen her husband for such a long time, she suddenly reunited with him.

Moreover, the two are also in the year of the tiger and wolf. At this time, each other is married.

But Hannah's heart is somewhat worried.

She naturally believed that during the period of separation from her husband, her husband would definitely not mess around outside, and he did not have this energy, not to mention that he had been in the detention center for a long time.

But she is not so loyal.

When she was in the black coal kiln, she yielded to the overseer's lustful power and became his concubine for a long time. She betrayed her husband almost every day.

She was very worried, worried that one day her husband would know all this, and then despise herself and even get angry with herself.

So she made up her mind deep in her heart that she must take this matter to the coffin and never let anyone know!

Chapter 1083

Before it got dark, Christopher and Hannah were already in their guest room, and the sound of the waves still rose.

Christopher was really depressed during this period, and separated from his wife for a long time, so he was extremely impatient.

Hannah naturally loves her husband very much. She thought that she would never see him again in this life, but she didn't expect to have a chance to return to his embrace now, so she naturally catered to her husband with joy.

But this was supposed to be a very harmonious scene, but Hannah's heart suddenly felt a sense of loss.

The reason why she felt disappointed was because she felt that her husband's ability seemed to be much worse than that of the dirty supervisor..

This is really depressing.

One is the one you love, and the other is the one you hate. But if you put aside these and simply talk about that, the two people you love can't add up to the person you hate.

After all, the other party was from a rough job. Although he was not too young, his physical fitness wasn't really lacking. He was strong and powerful.

Looking at Christopher again, he was a little blessed, and he never exercised. After a few days in prison, he is still a little thinner. Otherwise, the big belly in the past would be very empty.

So if you really compare it with that supervisor, Christopher can do the most with the other's two successful powers.

This made Hannah feel that it was a little bit interesting.

It was supposed to be a cloud and rain, but now it feels like a spring rain that is as expensive as oil, and the land is wet after the rain.

But she could only sigh in her heart. After all she was freed, she didn't want to go back to that dark place, and she didn't want to wait on the dirty and stinky overseer in that dirty brick house.

In the evening, the servants of Webb's family invited them to the guest room dining room for dinner.

Neither Donald nor Thomas Webb came over.

They now regard the Wilson family as their subordinates, so it is impossible for them to come and accompany them to dinner.

Halfway through the meal, the butler of the Webb family came over and said to Mrs. Wilson: "Our manager Webb asked me to tell you that he has already bought the Thompson First Yipin villa a04, and you are lucky. , This villa was renovated and prepared to live by myself. The luxurious appliances are fully furnished. Mr. Webb spent an extra 30 million to buy it, so you can move it in tomorrow!"

When the Wilson family heard this, the excitement was overwhelming. The Lady couldn't control her trembling hands, and she threw the silverware away.

After thanking the housekeeper a lot of kindness, Mrs. Wilson said to her family: "We have all seen Thompson First's A-type villa. There are many rooms, enough for our family to live in. I am older and like it. It's a bit more spacious, so I want the largest room on the third floor, and you guys pick the rest."

Christopher immediately said, "Then Hannah and I will have the largest room on the second floor."

Harold said: "Then I want the second bedroom on the third floor."

Wendy said: "Then I will be on the second floor."

"Okay!" Mrs. Wilson nodded in satisfaction and sneered: "Don't their family think we are finished? I really can't wait to take a look, they know what we look like after we moved next door!"

Christopher gritted his teeth and said: "That damn Elaine Ma and Charlie Wade, combined to calculate my wife and caused my wife to suffer so much, I must settle accounts with them!"

Hannah hurriedly said: "Are you crazy? Don't tell them about this matter."

"Why? Christopher couldn't help frowning.

Hannah immediately said: "At the beginning, I set up a set with Linda to try to cheat Elaine Ma, but he failed. Charlie Wade calculated it instead. So if you count it like this, Linda and I broke the law first. This incident has shaken out, and the police intervened, and they must have arrested me instead of arresting them!"

With that, Hannah thought about how Linda was shot to death last night, and said nervously: "Linda wanted to hit me last night, but was shot to death by the Webb family. Now her family Still in that black coal pit, if the incident spreads and the police get her family out, they will definitely find me to avenge!"

Chapter 1084

Christopher frowned and said, "Could it be that Elaine Ma and Charlie Wade are so cheap?"

Hannah said: "I can trouble them in other places, besides, the Webb family is going to kill them behind the scenes. Enmity can definitely be reported, but that matter should never be mentioned again."

In fact, Hannah still has a worry in her heart. If she mentions the black coal kiln, and then brings out the past with the supervisor, how can she gain a foothold in the Wilson family?

Christopher heard what she said also made sense, nodded lightly and said: "Okay, then everyone will understand and pretend to be confused about this matter."

.....

The next day, the Wilson family of five returned to Aurouss Hilll in the Webb family's car.

On the way back, the Webb family did not arrange a private jet to send them. They did not even arrange a Rolls-Royce, but directly sent a Buick gl8.

Mrs. Wilson is very dissatisfied with this Buick gl8.

When we came, Rolls-Royce went to the airport, private jet to Southaven, and then Rolls-Royce to Webb's villa.

The specs and pomp is really impressive and enjoyable.

Now it's fine, and I just got a broken car worth two or three hundred thousand Dollar, and dismissed the family of five.

The feeling of sitting in this car is very different from that of Rolls Royce.

But because the driver of Webb's family was driving in the car, she just dared not say anything.

It takes about four or five hours to drive from Southaven to Aurouss Hilll, so when they arrived in Aurouss Hilll, it was past noon.

The driver sent them to the gate of Thompson First, gave them several sets of access control cards and keys, and said to them: "Mr. Webb's intention is to let you live in today and invest in the affairs of your Wilson Group. He will send someone tomorrow. Come and deal with it."

"Great!" Lady Wilson was very excited, nodded and said, "Thank you, Mr. Webb, for helping us. Tell him, we will definitely live up to his expectations!"

The driver nodded and drove away.

The five members of the Wilson family swiped the access card and stepped into the Thompson First villa area.

When I came to Thompson First again, each of them was very embarrassed.

When they came to Thompson First the past few times, they were very jealous and hated in their hearts.

Now thirty years in Hedong and thirty years in Hexi, they also have a Thompson First A Class villa.

The most exciting of these is Mrs. Wilson, she is looking forward to living in the Thompson First, she has been looking forward to it for a long time!

So the Lady Wilson walked in the middle, grandson Harold and granddaughter Wendy supported her on the left and right sides, Christopher and Hannah also held hands with each other, looking affectionate.

Mrs. Wilson felt that her current self was like the empress Dowager Cixi back then, walking in such an ultra-luxury villa area, it was really majestic and full of self-confidence.

Excited, she couldn't help sighing: "It would be great if I could meet the b*tch Elaine Ma! I want to make her feel uncomfortable!"

Wendy smiled and said, "Grandma, don't forget, her leg was kicked off by you. I guess she is crying on the bed at home right now!"

Everyone laughed.

Harold suddenly pointed to the side of the green belt on the roadside ahead, and a woman with a one-handed crutches blurted out: "Damn, isn't that the b*tch Elaine Ma?"

Chapter 1085

At this moment, Elaine Ma had lunch and was directing Charlie Wade, carrying an iron bucket and a shovel, to dig soil in the green belt of the villa area.

In the past two days, Elaine Ma had nothing to do. She couldn't go out to play even if her leg was broken. She was bored at home and used her circle of friends. She found a female friend who hadn't dealt with much before and bought a villa in the suburbs.

She planted a lot of fruits and vegetables in the yard of the villa, and shared photos of those fruits and vegetables to her circle of friends.

Many people gave her a thumbs up, saying that she is smart and understands life.

Elaine Ma was very jealous, so she wanted to grow vegetables and fruits in the villa yard.

But she broke a leg, how can she shovel the ground, so this kind of work can only be arranged for Charlie Wade to do it.

Charlie Wade originally didn't want to kill her. After all, he had already had a showdown with her last time. After living in his own villa, he would be polite to himself, so he wanted to tell himself, but there was no way.

But when his wife Claire Wilson heard that her mother wanted to grow some fruits and vegetables, she also felt that this kind of thing could edify her sentiment and could make her stay at home honestly, so she came forward and asked Charlie Wade for help.

Charlie Wade only agreed.

In his opinion, it would be nice to let Elaine Ma not keep moths all day long and let her grow vegetables.

So after eating, I helped her, shoveling a lot of soil into the villa, and already circled a place to make her a vegetable garden.

Elaine Ma was driving the crutches and said to Charlie Wade: "I dug a piece of loess, don't forget the black soil, the black soil smells bad."

Charlie Wade nodded, and lowered his head to dig the soil without speaking.

Elaine Ma hesitated for a moment, and asked him carefully in a negotiating tone: "Charlie Wade, can I discuss something with you?" Seeing that her attitude was good, Charlie Wade said lightly: "If you have something to say, I will listen first."

Elaine Ma accompanied with a smile and said, "You, when you have time, drive to the countryside and find an old farmer in the countryside to buy some vegetables and fruits, and the whole tree is connected with the roots."

Charlie Wade said, "Isn't this just taking off your pants and farting? Do you want to go to the supermarket to buy vegetables and fruits directly? Direct app will be delivered to you."

Elaine Ma was very dissatisfied with Charlie Wade's attitude and was very uncomfortable, but she didn't dare to say anything, she could only smile and plead: "Mom wants you to buy the whole tree, not for eating, but to buy it and plant it directly. In our villa, won't we have a beautiful vegetable garden right away? Otherwise, we're done sowing seeds and plant them again. When it grows, we have to wait until the year of the monkey." Charlie Wade took it.

It seems that the mother-in-law is worried about this and wants to take a photo and post it to Moments.

Just thinking of rejecting her unreasonable request, Elaine Ma hurriedly said: "My son-in-law, let me tell you the truth. I have liked growing vegetables and fruits since I was a child. When Claire Wilson Wilson was young, she often pulled me and her dad. I went picking with her and went into the vegetable garden in the countryside, but they were not willing to come out."

Charlie Wade looked at her suspiciously: "When did it happen? Why haven't I heard of it?"

Elaine Ma hurriedly said, "Didn't you suddenly grow up later? Going to school and work again, how can there be time to run into the vegetable garden? I swear to God, Claire Wilson Wilson really liked these things since I was a child. , I still want to grow a little in the courtyard of the former Wilson family villa, but the Lady is reluctant to live or die. Charlie Wade thought at this moment, if his wife really likes it, then he might as well arrange it.

So, he took out his cell phone, called Claire Wilson Wilson, and asked her: "My wife, tomorrow is the weekend, do you want to go out picking?" "Okay!" As soon as Claire Wilson Wilson heard this, she barely thought about it and immediately blurted out: "Great! Where to pick! How do you know I like to pick!"

Chapter 1086

After listening to Charlie Wade, he smiled and said, "Okay, you don't need to worry about where you go, your husband will arrange it."

"Great!" Claire Wilson Wilson said happily, "Then I can wait for you to arrange it!"

"okay!"

After hanging up the phone, Elaine Ma hurriedly said flatteringly: "You see I didn't lie to you, right?"

Charlie Wade gave a hum, then took out his phone and called Mr. White.

"Master Wade! Why do you think of calling the little one?"

Charlie Wade said lightly: "Zeke, my wife likes picking very much. I am going to take out half of the Thompson First Villa to make a vegetable garden so that she can pick it in the yard every day, so you can find some for me. The best varieties of vegetables and fruits, and I want those that have grown, bear fruit, are attached to vines, have seedlings, and have roots. Can they be directly transplanted to Thompson First? ?" When Mr. White heard this, he blurted out: "Master Wade, don't worry, even if you want a vegetable shed, I can get it for you!" Charlie Wade said: "Okay, start preparing today. Come to Thompson First's transplantation plant at night, I want my wife to see it when I get up tomorrow!"

Mr. White smiled: "Master Wade, you really love your wife! Don't worry, I will make arrangements!"

Elaine Ma was also very excited at this time!

Charlie Wade is really good at fooling people, just a phone call, others will diligently arrange a vegetable garden for him, the energy is really not small!

I used to think that this guy will explode sooner or later, but no matter how you look at it, I feel that this kid is getting better and better.

At this time, Elaine Ma suddenly heard a familiar voice ringing in her ears: "Oh! Isn't this my good daughter-in-law! Why are you on crutches? Don't say it, your posture of the shelf tube is quite exciting. !"

Elaine Ma's face immediately became extremely ugly.

She didn't need to look back to know that this voice came from her mother-in-law, that damn Lady Wilson!

But when she turned her head to look, she was shocked. What happened? How did these five people get together?

The Lady, Christopher, and the two little boys, aren't they going to be detained for a few more days? Is it released in advance?

The key is how did Hannah come? Didn't this lady be sent to the black coal kiln by Charlie Wade's friend?

When Charlie Wade heard the movement at this moment, he couldn't help but turn his head and frowned.

He did not expect that Hannah would actually appear here.

Don Albertt has always done things reliably. He shouldn't have made such a big mistake and let Hannah run back. What happened here?

Hannah was the secret of Charlie Wade and his mother-in-law Elaine Ma.

Although later his wife and mother-in-law knew about the loss of money by gambling, they didn't know that Hannah was sent to the black coal mine by herself.

Both of them thought that Hannah should have run away because of the money, so at this moment Hannah suddenly came back, which made Charlie Wade feel a little worried.

At this moment, Elaine Ma, who was never to be outdone, already cursed, "Who am I? It turns out that it was your family, what happened, and the idea of hitting our villa? How did you enter the detention center last time? Did you forget? Believe it or not, I will call the police and arrest you now?"

Chapter 1087

Hearing Elaine Ma mocked everyone about the detention center again, Harold immediately said angrily: "Elaine Ma, look at your ugly bird look. Both front teeth are gone, and the words are so f*cking leaking. What are you doing?"

When Elaine Ma heard that Harold dared to ridicule her own teeth, she suddenly became angry.

She didn't dare to look in the mirror these days when she came back, because it was so ugly that her front teeth had fallen out.

But seeing a dentist is a very troublesome thing. Sometimes you have to go back and forth to the dentist several times to fill a tooth, not to mention that you have lost a few teeth and need to do it again.

Claire Wilson originally wanted to spend money to grow porcelain teeth for her, but it was because she had a broken leg and was inconvenient to move, so she didn't toss her for the time being. .

It is precisely because of the loss of the front teeth that Elaine Ma has no interest in going out at all, otherwise all the images of a mouth will be gone.

But right now, Harold dared to use his teeth to tease herself. How could she stand it?

Therefore, Elaine Ma immediately cursed: "Harold, I am also your second aunt anyhow, you are not afraid of thunder and thunder when you talk to me like this?"

Harold said contemptuously: "Are you a fart second aunt? Looking at your stubbornness, I have never seen a woman as ugly as you! The front teeth are gone and you can't make up. You f*cking keep acting sketches?"

The last thing Elaine Ma dared to think about was the shape of the Lady in Zhao Benshan's Moore Dandan sketch, because she now looks exactly like hers, hearing what Harold said, it was even more frustrating.

So she took out her mobile phone from her pocket and gritted her teeth and cursed: "You will wait for me, my Lady will call the police and tell you directly for breaking into the house! You have never changed, and you will go in this time and it will take longer to shut down!"

Lady Wilson sneered at this moment with a disdainful face: "Elaine Ma, do you really think that you are the only one in the world who can afford Thompson First?"

Elaine Ma snorted coldly: "Of course. Is it possible that you can live up to Thompson First's first-grade stinky silk? It's not that I despise you. If you are a dead old woman, you can also live up to Thompson First. Screw it down and kick it for you!"

The Lady Wilson laughed loudly: "Oh, Elaine Ma, you really haven't changed at all. Don't look at my Lady's physique. Today I really want to try whether your head is good or not!"

After all, the Lady took out a very exquisite key and said arrogantly: "I tell you Elaine Ma, this Thompson First a04 is already mine. Starting today, our family will be neighbors!"

"I'm pooh!" Elaine Ma said contemptuously, "You really dare to brag about the dead old woman, you can't even eat food, and you still buy Thompson First a04? What? You sold Wendy to the rich again? But , For the beauty of Wendy, which rich person would be willing to pay such a big price?" When Wendy heard this, she pointed at her and said angrily: "Elaine Ma, who do you mean?"

"What about you!" Elaine Ma said nonchalantly: "I don't know who accompanied an old man who is older than his father. Now he dares to come to me and yell, what is it?"

Wendy was naturally furious when the fig leaf was revealed. She was about to come up to find Elaine Ma for the theory. The Lady Wilson grabbed her and said lightly: "Wendy, don't be true to this kind of disabled person, she is already so miserable. What's more real than her?"

After finishing speaking, greet the other four people: "Go away, we have to go to our villa to clean up, what's the point of arguing with such a bad person."

Others spit at Elaine Ma's feet one after another, and then all walked past her with arrogant faces.

Elaine Ma still doesn't believe that they can really afford Thompson First's A04, and cursed behind him: "You guys are not enough. You always pretend to be so forceful. It won't be good for the security to rush you right away."

Hannah turned around, staring at Elaine Ma with gloomy eyes, and said coldly: "Elaine Ma, don't forget that the account between the two of us has not been settled yet!"

Chapter 1088

Elaine Ma scolded, "I'm kidding, I'm afraid of you? Believe it or not my son-in-law will send you back to the black coal mine after a call?"

Anyway, Jacob Wilson and Claire Wilson Wilson were not here, and Elaine Ma didn't care about mentioning the black coal kiln.

Hannah glared at Elaine Ma with a cannibal gaze, and was about to speak. At this time, the Lady Wilson had already opened the door of Villa A04, looked at Elaine Ma who was dumbfounded, waved the key in her hand, and smiled: "Elaine Ma, what did you just say? Aren't you going to screw off your head and kick it for me? Come on."

When Elaine Ma saw that the Lady had actually opened the door of A04, she was shocked and speechless.

How is this possible? Isn't the Wilson family already poor and has no place to live? How can you afford a Thompson First villa? Could the salted fish stand up?

And this family is going to be neighbors with themselves? This is too bad..

Thinking of this, she immediately looked at Charlie Wade and blurted out, "Charlie Wade, what's the matter? Didn't your friend send them all to the black coal mine? Didn't they say that they will not be allowed out in the future? Why did Hannah run out?"

Charlie Wade was also a little surprised at this time.

He took out his mobile phone, walked to a place where no one was there, and called Don Albertt directly: "The person I asked you to send to the black coal mine last time, why did she come back? What happened over there?"

Don Albertt said in surprise: "Is there anything like this? Master Wade, wait a moment, I'll call to ask!"

After a while, Don Albertt called: "Master Wade, someone bought my friend's small coal kiln, and the price was three times the market price."

Charlie Wade suddenly realized.

Ask him: "Webb's family, right?"

"Yes!" Don Albertt said, "It's the southern region Webb Family! Master Wade, is the Webb family targeting you? Do you want to help you figure out a solution?"

Charlie Wade said indifferently: "No, the Webb family hasn't officially come forward yet. It's just a few little guys now, don't worry about him."

At this time, Don Albertt said guiltily: "Master Wade blames me for failing to supervise this matter. Please punish me! Today I will arrange for someone to arrest Hannah!"

"No need." Charlie Wade said lightly: "Since all have returned, let her stay here."

After speaking, Charlie Wade asked again: "What is the situation with the Weaver family father and son who dug ginseng in Golim Mountain?"

Don Albertt hurriedly said: "The two of the Weaver family have always been in Golim Mountain. Someone came to take them some time ago, but they were beaten away by my people and Liam's people. In order to strengthen our defense, Liam and I sent some more. The manpower passed, and now there are nearly 20 people over there guarding them in secret."

"Okay." Charlie Wade hummed and said, "The family named Webb is probably looking for my enemy everywhere, so we must keep them safe for me. Hannah finds this thing back, so I won't find it. You're investigating it, but the Weaver family father and son must not be released!"

Don Albertt blurted out: "Master Wade, please rest assured, I will tell my little brother and guard against them, and I will never let them be taken away!"

"Okay." Charlie Wade hummed, and said: "Okay, also tell Liam to send more people, so that his father and his brother will not come back and find him to grab Weaver's medicine."

Chapter 1089

No one is more afraid of his father and his brother coming back than Liam.

If the Webb family really snatched his dad and his brother back from Golim Mountain, the first thing they must do is to help them retake Weaver's Pharmaceutical.

Because the Webb family certainly didn't want to find it back, it was just a pair of Diaosi father and son. They even hoped that their allies could have stronger power.

According to Weaver's Pharmaceuticals, it is also a pharmaceutical company with a market value of several billion. If it cooperates with the Webb family, there may be more room for development. Therefore, Donald only needs to get the father and son back and help them regain power. It is equivalent to an ally worth billions of dollars, and a diehard ally. Charlie Wade believed that after Liam knew about this, he would do everything possible to stop Webb's actions.

Ten thousand steps back and said, even if the Weaver family father and son really come back, it doesn't matter to Charlie Wade.

He has 10,000 ways to cool down the Weaver family and his son instantly. If he wants, he can even ask Donald to meet Marx directly.

But that would be meaningless.

People, if there are really no enemies, what fun is there in life?

Since the Webb family wants to play, then I can play with them.

After all, there is a big family with a scale of 200 billion, and there are really not many opportunities to be sandbags and practice.

Maybe in the future, I will return to Eastcliff and face the Wade family that I don't know well.

If you don't learn something about the rich struggle in advance, it will be really hard to deal with if there is any danger.

Now is a good opportunity to practice the skin test.

Charlie Wade hung up the phone and returned to the place where he was shoveling the soil. Elaine Ma couldn't wait to come over and asked, "Did you ask? What's the matter? Why did the stinky lady Hannah come back?"

Charlie Wade said to Elaine Ma: "I asked on the phone just now, and that friend said that the black coal kiln over there went bankrupt, and it happened to have a new boss. All the workers ran away. Hannah probably took the opportunity to run out."

Elaine Ma said dejectedly: "How can you make the shameless woman run out! I'm angry just seeing her!"

Recalling that Hannah had set herself up, Elaine Ma hated not only Hannah but also Charlie Wade.

Because Charlie Wade forced Linda to donate all the money, including the money she lost to Linda.

Originally speaking, he had a net worth of about 2 million Dollar, so Charlie Wade, this kid, made her give it all.

As long as before, Elaine Ma thought of this, and pointed to Charlie Wade's nose to scold him.

But now, Elaine Ma didn't dare to pretend to force Charlie Wade, after all, he lives in his villa now, and his daughter is not facing herself now, so this kid is no longer afraid of herself.

Charlie Wade glanced at her and said lightly: "It is meaningless to ask why she can run out now. Now that people can live in the Thompson First, it proves that others have a backer now, and you are fine, don't provoke others. , If we are bullied by others again, we may not be able to beat them."

When Elaine Ma heard this, she couldn't help but worry.

But if she really lets herself clip her tail in front of their family in the future, she really can't accept it in her heart.

Why? These people are obviously dying, so why can they survive? And it's so good!

Chapter 1090

So, she gritted her teeth and said: "Charlie Wade, if you want me to say that you might as well find an opportunity someday to beat up their family severely, it is best to interrupt all the legs of all 5 of them and let them stay in this villa every day. In a wheelchair."

Charlie Wade asked back: "If they are arrested, I will definitely go to jail. I don't care, but if I go to jail and they block the door to beat you, what do you do?"

As soon as Elaine Ma heard this, she was shocked.

She had to admit that Charlie Wade made a lot of sense.

The Wilson family itself is crowded and powerful. With Charlie Wade, they probably wouldn't dare to come and provoke themselves, but if Charlie Wade is not there, who else can protect themselves?

Jacob Wilson?

That old bastard is going to divorce her now, and he is probably eager to be bullied himself.

Besides, he is a wasteful person, his legs become weak when he sees his mother, and it is a daydream to expect him to help.

So she could only sigh and said, "It seems that I will be neighbors with the Wilson family from now on. My mother is really uncomfortable in her heart..."

.....

The Wilson family at this time was feeling stunned and shocked in the villa!

Thompson First Villa A04 has the same floor plan as a05, and the previous owner took a lot of effort to decorate it, which can be said to be very luxurious.

After Mrs. Wilson opened the door and went in, she was stunned.

The decoration style of this house is rather exaggerated, with a lot of use, it looks very luxurious golden decoration, the whole looks like a palace, the a05 where Charlie Wade lives looks much more gorgeous. This is also because Mr. White knows that Charlie Wade is relatively low-key, so when he renovated the villa, he deliberately used a not-so-assuming decoration style.

On the other hand, A04 is a bit like high-end KTV, with a bit of exaggeration in luxury.

However, the Wilson family themselves are flamboyant people, and they adore vanity, and more importantly, the family has no culture, so they prefer this kind of local gold decoration.

After arriving in the living room, the Wilson family was completely stunned, and Mrs. Wilson was so excited that she burst into tears.

Looking at it, she felt like a dream.

The same goes for other people. Actually, everyone has never seen anything in the world. If you want to see Charlie Wade's villa, you feel jealous, but unexpectedly, you have the life to live in the same villa, and more importantly, My own villa looks more luxurious than Charlie Wade's villa!

This makes them extremely excited.

Lady Wilson took the elevator all the way up to the best big bedroom on the third floor. She was extremely satisfied when she saw the furnishings and furniture in the bedroom.

The luxurious and soft Simmons bed, you can feel it at the touch of it, and it is by no means ordinary.

I heard that a good Simmons mattress costs hundreds of thousands of dollars. When the Lady was beautiful, she was not willing to spend the money.

I didn't expect that I would have a chance to enjoy it this time.

Open the door of the large terrace, and the scenery of the villa area is unobstructed on the terrace.

Because the Thompson First Villa adopts a three-story structure and a two-story structure, everyone's houses are not high. Standing on the third floor, you can see clearly and far away.

What is interesting is that standing on the 3rd floor, you can just see the courtyard of Charlie Wade's house.

Seeing Elaine Ma carrying a crutches and directing Charlie Wade to pour soil into the small garden in the yard, the Lady Wilson looked at her own yard again, there was nothing bare, she smiled at the corner of her mouth and snorted coldly: "It seems Elaine Ma is going to plant some flowers, flowers, and grasses, okay, when you plant them, my Lady will go and steal them for you, just saving me from buying them."

Chapter 1091

Charlie Wade didn't really take the Wilson family seriously.

After all, these people were nothing more than clowns in his eyes.

And he was sure that this group of people would definitely not come to trouble themselves.

In addition, Hannah must hate Elaine Ma for the bones, so he estimated that the future firepower of the Wilson family should be on her mother-in-law.

This is actually a good thing, the wicked have their own grief.

Then his thoughts were all focused on building a vegetable garden for his wife.

Mr. White was already fully active at this time, and he was going everywhere to vegetable planting bases to buy good vegetables and fruits. In one afternoon, he had collected many healthy and green organic species.

Charlie Wade wanted his wife to see the vegetable garden below when he got up tomorrow morning, so he asked Mr. White to lead people to bring plants full of vegetables and fruits to the construction late at night. At this moment, Mrs. Wilson was looking at the luxurious kitchen in the villa, unable to do anything.

This villa is good everywhere, no matter the road, home appliances, or furniture, there is not a drop of oil or a grain of rice in the kitchen. If there is nothing, there is no way to start cooking.

Everyone started from Webb's house in the morning, and came here by car from Southaven.

It's six o'clock in the afternoon, and everyone is hungry when they see the time for dinner.

However, a very embarrassing question posed in front of the five members of the Wilson family.

No money to eat.

The four old ladies Wilson, Wendy, Christopher, and Harold had already clanged poorly before.

After staying in the detention center for so many days, naturally there was no income, so basically there was no income.

Before Hannah went to the black coal kiln, she was also rendered penniless by Charlie Wade. When she was rescued from the black coal kiln, she had no long objects except for a coat of soot.

Although Donald of the Webb family agreed to invest 80 million in the Wilson Group.

But the money has not yet arrived.

In other words, now everyone doesn't even have money to eat dinner.

Harold suggested: "Grandma, why don't we call Donald and ask him to send us a million dollars on WeChat first, so that at least we can have a living allowance for meals!"

Lady Wilson waved her hand and sternly said: "Asshole thing, isn't this clear to make Donald look down on us? We are living in a villa worth more than 100 million Dollar, and we don't even have money to eat. You are embarrassed to open this. Mouth?"

Harold said angrily, "What should I do? You can't be hungry!"

"Yeah, mom..." Christopher said embarrassingly, "You can say that it's okay to be hungry for two meals. Who can suffer from being hungry all the time? That company investment is very troublesome, not to mention us. The account of Donald has also been sealed by the bank. Even if Donald's money is transferred to the company's account, he still has to settle with the bank and release the seal after the bank is completed. These three or five days will not come at all. We can't wait hungry. Is this money?"

Mrs. Wilson asked him: "You don't have a friend or anything, so should you borrow 10,000 Dollar first?"

Chapter 1092

Christopher said embarrassingly: "I borrowed money before entering the detention center. I borrowed everything I could borrow. Many people blacked me out."

The Lady Wilson looked at Harold and Wendy again: "Harold, Wendy, how about you two? Don't you have a friend to borrow some money?"

"Grandma, you don't know anything." Harold said gloomily, "The news of our Wilson family's bankruptcy has long been circulated in my circle of friends. Now no matter who I talk to on WeChat, the other party will ignore me. , Even if you care about me, once I start to borrow money, they will pretend to be dead."

Wendy also said with a depressed face: "Grandma, I can't borrow money anymore. If I could borrow money, I wouldn't use Dabao sod honey."

Lady Wilson said: "Why don't you send Kenneth Wilson a WeChat and ask him to sponsor a little? You two have been a dew couple for a while. He should always give you this money?"

Wendy sighed, and said, "Kenneth Wilson has already blocked me..."

Christopher looked at Mrs. Wilson: "Mom, don't you have a friend or something?"

"Me?" Lady Wilson coldly snorted with an unnatural expression: "If I have a way to borrow money, I won't talk nonsense with you."

Harold suddenly had an inspiration at this time and blurted out:

"Grandma, should we pour something from this villa and hang it on the market to sell it? Not to mention, just the big LCD TV in the living room, the new me It is estimated to be 50,000 to 60,000. His brand-new one is useless. It can always be sold for 20,000 Dollar, right?"

Christopher said: "People Donald lent us the villa. We sold other people's things. Isn't it too appropriate?"

"What's inappropriate." Harold said: "You can live for 10 years, so what kind of TV can be used for 10 years? Then tell him that the TV is broken and we can eliminate it."

"Furthermore, let's wait until his 80 million is credited to the company's account. Will we have the money? Can we just buy another one that is exactly the same?"

Lady Wilson's eyes lit up and she blurted out: "Don't tell me, Harold's method is really good!"

When Harold heard this, he laughed and said, "What kind of grandma, I'm still very good at this critical moment."

"Not bad, not bad!" Mrs. Wilson nodded and said, "Then you can check how much the new TV will cost, and then sell it on market first!"

Harold immediately came to the super large LCD TV in the living room, took a look at the model, and then searched the Internet, and said in surprise: "Oh, I'm going, this TV is worth 100,000!"

The family was shocked by this amount.

One TV is 100,000, which is too damn extravagant, right?

Harold quickly opened the second-hand website and found that 90% of the new TVs on the second-hand website could sell for more than 60,000, so he said: "I think they sell more than 60,000 for 90% of the new ones, and our 10% are new ones. 70,000 is no problem!"

Lady Wilson said hurriedly: "If you sell for 70,000, you may not want someone to sell for 70,000 immediately! You can sell it for 60,000 directly, and it is estimated that you can sell it soon. Our top priority now is to eat quickly."

Harold suddenly realized, "Grandma, you think about it all, I'll take a picture, and then put 60,000 Dollar."

After all, he immediately turned on the camera function of the mobile phone, took a few photos against the TV, and posted them on the second-hand website.

At this moment, at Webb's house in Southaven.

Donald asked his assistant: "What's the situation of the Wilson family now? Did they start playing with Charlie Wade?"

The assistant called, and then said: "Mr. Webb, the person in charge of our surveillance said that they didn't have any conflict with Charlie Wade, so they messed with Charlie Wade and his mother-in-law, and then went back to the villa. They are now on the website. The TV set in the villa is on sale!"

Donald thought he had heard it wrong, and blurted out, "What is it?"
Chapter 1093

Donald knew that the Wilson family had a very poor life, but he didn't know that the Wilson family had a bad life.

I kindly provided them with a place to live in order to put them under Charlie Wade's eyelids as a thorn.

But what they didn't expect was that they moved in and the first thing was to sell the household appliances in the villa.

He snorted angrily and cursed: "This family is really a bunch of stinky shit, and the mud can't support the wall!"

The assistant also felt that these people were too low to do things, so he asked, "Mr. Webb, do you want to chase them out now? If you don't chase them out again, they will be in the villa after a while. Up!"

Donald sighed. He really didn't look down on this family, but everyone had already lived next to Charlie Wade's house. If he chased them away now, wouldn't it be a show of weakness to Charlie Wade?

So he waved his hand and said: "Don't rush for now, take a look."

The assistant nodded: "Then I will let people continue to monitor them."

At this moment, the Wilson family didn't know that all their actions were under Donald's nose.

After Harold posted this TV on a second-hand website, someone immediately contacted him.

Because the price he sold is really cheap, brand new and only sold for 60,000, which is equivalent to a 40% discount.

After the other party asked some information, he immediately took pictures of his goods on the second-hand website and said he would pick up the goods.

Harold was naturally very happy to report the address to the other party immediately, and drove over to the convenience.

At this time, the Wilson family was so hungry that their chests were on their backs, and they waited for the TV to be sold and went out to eat a full meal with the money.

After a while, a middle-aged couple came over. After checking the TV and confirming that there was no problem with the power on, they immediately decided to buy it.

However, because they are visitors, and they are not deceptive figures, the car can only be parked at the door of the villa area.

The couple asked Harold to take down the TV and send them to the gate of Thompson First Community.

Harold naturally didn't have any opinion, but this TV was too big, even if he and the middle-aged man couldn't lift it up, so Christopher joined it.

The father and son and the middle-aged man carried the huge TV set and walked outside the villa area.

Hannah walked behind with the Lady. The Lady was too hungry, so she was a little bit of breathlessness and needed help from others.

Elaine Ma just saw this scene, she leaned on the side of the road, smiled and asked, "Oh, your family just moved in and just sold TV? I told you not to make a swollen face to fill a fat man without money. Which villa of Thompson First can you afford to live in?"

Christopher cursed angrily: "You know what a shit, I think this TV is too small, so change it to a bigger one!"

"Bah!" Elaine Ma snorted contemptuously: "It's really bragging not to draft, I don't know the situation of your family? The Wilson Group is bankrupt, and your wife donated all the money to Project Hope, and your family can still have it. What kind of money? If you were really rich, you wouldn't have been poor and run to the streets to find us to take in."

When Christopher heard Elaine Ma say that his wife had donated money to the Hope Project, he became very angry. He naturally knew what was going on.

So he gritted his teeth and looked at Elaine Ma: "I warn you to speak, be careful, I will settle the bill with you sooner or later!"

"Come on!" Elaine Ma said disdainfully: "If you are a man with a handle, just ask me now. It just happens that my son-in-law is at home. You two have a good chat?"

Upon hearing this, Christopher suddenly softened. He didn't dare to yell at Charlie Wade, so he gritted his teeth and cursed: "Wait, you will feel better in the future!"

After finishing speaking, he greeted Harold and said, "Harold, move quickly, and send the TV quickly."

Hannah glared at Elaine Ma when she was leaving. Although she was full of hatred, she didn't say a word.

Chapter 1094

After finally helping others put the TV in the car, I received it, and sold the TV for 60,000 Dollar.

Harold said excitedly: "Our family must have a good meal! How about seafood hot pot?"

Christopher hurriedly said: "Yes! I want to rinse a few abalones for fun!"

Mrs. Wilson said at this time: "Harold, first transfer the money for selling the TV to me using WeChat."

When Harold heard this, he hurriedly said: "Grandma, this money is fine with me, you don't have to worry about it."

Lady Wilson has experienced so much, but now she has only one idea, that is, all the money must be put in her own place, otherwise she will have no sense of security at all.

So she yelled at Harold: "When is it your turn to call the shots at my house? Who won the Thompson First Villa? Did you forget?"

When Harold heard this, his expression suddenly became a little ugly.

Christopher knew very well that it was time for the Lady to be the master of the house again, and no one should disobey her.

So he shouted to Harold: "You kid, when did you learn to talk to your grandma? You passed the money to your grandma!"

Helpless, Harold used WeChat to transfer all the money to the Lady.

After receiving the money, the Lady eased a little, and said: "Okay, just go and eat seafood hot pot according to your wishes!"

.....

Inside the seafood hot pot restaurant.

The Wilson family asked for a box, and the family went in and guarded a small hot pot.

Because there were too many hard days during this period, there was no oily water in the stomachs of five people, so everyone ordered a table of seafood and not a single vegetable.

The box was already hot, so I ordered 6 hot pots, which were steaming hot and humid.

However, the Wilson family enjoyed eating very much, especially Christopher and Harold, both of whom were eating and sweating profusely. Hannah didn't eat less, because she also suffered a lot in the black coal kiln, not to mention eating seafood, for so long, she hadn't even eaten shrimp.

She was enjoying the meal, and she felt hot all over.

She subconsciously took off her coat, but she felt that her a was sitting on the chair, she was a little sweaty, and she was sticky and uncomfortable.

At this moment, she suddenly felt that the part of the privacy was suddenly scratchy.

But the location was too private and she couldn't scratch or scratch, so she could only rub back and forth on the chair.

But this rub does not matter, it just feels the more itchy, the more uncomfortable it is!

She thought she was eating hot pot, but she suddenly felt a little bit in her heart and remembered something.

The damn supervisor of the Black Coal Kiln, when he forced himself to accompany him night and night some time ago, he not only never took a bath, but also never took any measures...

During that period of time, it is said that it is not long, it is not short, it is always so low on hygiene, there will be more or less hidden dangers...

Thinking of this, she couldn't help asking herself: Could this be...

Are you sick...

Chapter 1095

When she thought that she might be ill, Hannah felt that the itchiness became much stronger.

She panicked, and thought to herself, what if she really got sick? I'm reuniting with my husband now. If I really get sick, it's hard to hide it. What if he finds out?

What's more frightening is that when the two were in Webb's house yesterday, the sound of the waves still remained. At that time, my husband Christopher didn't prepare any measures. What should I do if she infects him?

In this way, doesn't he know that he has been with others in the black coal mine?

Thinking of this, Hannah decided to go to the hospital for a check up tomorrow morning. If she didn't get sick, she would be lucky.

If you really get sick, no matter what, you must quickly find a way to cure it.

But the problem comes again. When you go to the hospital, you have to register, you have to check, you have to prescribe medicine, and you have to be treated.

I am penniless now, and I don't even have the money to go to the hospital for registration.

The Lady has 60,000 Dollar.

But how can she get a little bit of this money from her?

Hannah knew very well that the Lady had a lot of opinions about herself now.

The reason is that when the Lady asked her husband for money, she and her husband were perfunctory, but Charlie Wade lost the money, making the Lady very angry.

So in this case, it is definitely impossible to borrow money from an Lady.

What can I do?

If you are really sick, you can't help but treat it.

Thinking of this, she suddenly became worried.

How can I get some money?

She suddenly thought of selling TV and got a little inspiration instantly.

This villa is so big, there are so many furniture and appliances in it, so you can find one or two that are not very noticeable. Can you just sell it? So the Lady would not know.

Thinking of this, Hannah relieved her heart and decided to go back tonight to see if there was anything that could be sold secretly. After selling the money tomorrow, she would go directly to the hospital for registration.

However, Hannah didn't expect that the itchiness would intensify instead of any relief.

She sat on the chair and rubbed back and forth for a long time, the more she rubbed it, the more she rubbed it, but she always felt very uncomfortable for the itching of her boots.

Christopher saw that she was always rubbing back and forth there, and couldn't help asking: "My wife, what's the matter with you? Are you feeling well?"

Hannah panicked and said hurriedly: "It's okay, there is nothing uncomfortable."

Christopher nodded without further questioning, but after a while, he leaned against her ear and said softly: "Wife, are you guilty of hemorrhoids?"

When Hannah heard this, she waved her hand subconsciously and said, "No, don't talk nonsense."

Christopher smiled and said: "I'm an old husband and wife, I don't know you yet? Didn't you often commit crimes before? I will buy a box of ointment on the way home later, and just go back and apply it."

Hannah said in a panic: "What are you talking about? Nothing."

The more unnatural Hannah's expression is, the more it looks like he wants to cover up in Christopher.

So, Christopher gave a smirk, pointed at the seafood on the table, and said with a smile: "My wife, it doesn't matter if you don't admit it, but don't blame me for not reminding you that the seafood on the table is all fat. If there is inflammation in the body, Or have any ulcers, acne, or hemorrhoids, but you must not touch seafood! You have eaten so much just now, so be careful!"

Hannah was shocked when she heard this, and even the silverware in her hand fell to the ground with a bang.

She also knows that seafood is hairy, inflammatory wounds or hemorrhoids are afraid of hairy, but are you afraid of gynecological or venereal diseases?

Thinking of this, Hannah immediately took out her mobile phone and searched for a line on her mobile phone while others were not paying attention: Can STDs eat seafood?

After searching, the results came out to her shock!

Chapter 1096

Because all doctors have clearly warned that STDs must never touch seafood! That will not only aggravate the symptoms, but may also cause erosion!

Hannah was shaking with fright!

I couldn't help eating so much seafood just now, wouldn't I be out of luck tonight...

At this time, Wendy added a sea cucumber and handed it to Hannah's bowl, and said, "Mom, you suffered a while ago. Take more sea cucumbers to supplement it."

Hannah saw the sea cucumbers, her whole body was hairy!

Immediately afterwards, I felt that that kind of itching seemed a bit more serious.

She hurriedly returned the sea cucumber to Wendy, panicking and unbearable.

At this time, the heat from the six small hot pots has turned the box into a bathhouse. Hannah felt sweating all over her body, and her itching was still increasing.

She hurriedly stood up and blurted out: "I'm full and go out to get some breath. You can continue to eat."

Harold said, "Mom, there are so many abalones and oysters."

Hannah said irritably, "Oh, I'm full but I'm not eating anymore!"

After speaking, busy got up and went out.

Before leaving the stuffy box, Hannah felt a little better.

But she also knows that she has just eaten so much seafood, and she hasn't started to work hard for a while.

But when I got hemorrhoids, I didn't eat seafood before. I probably knew that seafood attacks would occur about three hours after eating.

In this way, I can feel it tonight...

She was very depressed. When the sound with her husband was still the same yesterday, she was still thinking that her husband was indeed much worse than the overseer. Thinking about it at the time, she didn't hate the overseer so much. Give yourself a lot of happiness.

But I didn't expect that just one day later, things would become like this.

If you really get sick, wouldn't it be finished?

Hannah, who was so depressed, did not dare to return to that sultry box. She waited. After the rest of the family had finished eating, they walked back with the family.

At this time, the seafood seemed to have begun to take effect, and the itching sensation continued to intensify, making her very uncomfortable walking.

When returning to the Thompson First Villa, Hannah was already itchy.

The first thing she did when she returned to the villa was to look around to see if there was anything inconspicuous that she could sell.

After looking around, she found that there was an imported Delong coffee machine in the kitchen, which seemed quite high-end.

Mrs. Wilson never drinks coffee, she always drinks tea, so she will definitely not pay attention to this coffee machine, even if she sells it stealthily, she will not know.

So she went online to check the model of the coffee machine. This investigation did not matter, and found that the coffee machine turned out to be a top imported high-end coffee machine, regardless of the size of this thing, it was worth more than 50,000 Dollar! So she learned how her son used it, went to the second-hand website and found that the second-hand machine cost more than 30,000 Dollar at least. In order to be able to find the seller earlier and change to the money to go to the doctor earlier, she directly marked a price of 25,000 Dollar on the local second-hand website. Afterwards, she resisted the itching and waited for more than 10 minutes with her mobile phone. Someone contacted her and said directly: "I want something. Can I pick it up tomorrow morning?" Hannah hurriedly replied: "No problem, see you at the gate of Thompson First Yipin at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning!" At this time, Donald, who is far away in Southaven, is studying how to stop the endless decline in stocks. His assistant stepped forward and said softly: "Mr. Webb, the Wilson family's Hannah, just hung up the coffee machine in the villa. Sold on the website." When Donald heard it, he blurted out: "My mother...this family is a special bandit?!"

Chapter 1097

Since tonight is the first night of the Wilson family staying at Thompson First, everyone has a very strong sense of ritual in their hearts. Lady Wilson summoned everyone to the living room and sat on the luxurious European-style sofa. The Lady seemed to have found the aura of the Wilson family group.

She has a smile on her face, but there is no loss of majesty in this smile.

After looking at everyone, he said unhurriedly: "Today is a staged victory for us. Although the Wilson Group has not yet landed ashore, our family is now ashore. Just this point. It's worth celebrating."

Everyone nodded their heads, except for Hannah's ugly expression, everyone else was excited.

Hannah had already felt the role of seafood at this time, and the itch made her restless.

Lady Wilson glanced at her, and said with a bit of disgust in her expression: "Hannah™, you are so old, what are you always doing with pupa like a maggot?"

Hannah's expression is very ugly.

The Lady is really hurt when she speaks, pupa like a maggot? Is there such a description of a daughter-in-law?

However, she didn't dare to have any disobedience to the Lady, so she had to apologize and said, "I'm sorry mom, my stomach is a little uncomfortable..."

The Lady Wilson white gave her a look and said, "I see you, you have suffered too much in the black coal kiln. When you ate seafood hot pot just now, you ate as much as if you were hungry for three years. How could the stomach stand it?"

Hannah was even more depressed, but she could only honestly nod her head and said, "Mom, you are right."

Mrs. Wilson was too lazy to talk to her any more and continued: "Since our family has already landed, the next step is to let the Wilson Group go ashore. After Mr. Webb puts the money on the company's account, the Wilson Group will resume normal operation."

Then, she looked at Christopher and said, "Christopher, when the group resumes operations, you will become the business manager and will be responsible for negotiating cooperation with the Wilson Group."

Christopher nodded: "Okay, Mom, I know, I will give my all!"

Mrs. Wilson nodded slightly with satisfaction, and then looked at Harold aside: "Harold, you will be the director of the Wilson Group from now on, so you must put your slouchy look away from me. Don't let people watch the jokes. Especially not let Claire Wilson read the jokes, understand?"

Harold hurriedly said: "I know grandma!"

Lady Wilson looked at Wendy again: "Wendy, you are young and beautiful. When you were with Gerald White before, you knew how to play every day, and you have to do things for the group in the future. I think you will be the Wilson family. The group's public relations manager is responsible for market and customer public relations."

Wendy nodded obediently: "Good grandma, Wendy listens to you."

"Yeah." The Lady Wilson said with satisfaction: "You all have to give me the spirit of twelve points. It is not easy for our Wilson family to have this opportunity today. We must not miss this great opportunity for development. Do you understand everything? ?"

"Understood!"

Everyone responded with impassioned attitudes.

Christopher hurriedly said, "Mom, arrange a job for Hannah?"

Lady Wilson snorted and said, "Hannah will stay at home to do housework, and there must always be one person at home to manage her life."

After finishing speaking, before Hannah expressed her position, she stood up and said, "Okay, so be it. I'm going upstairs to sleep, so please rest early."

Harold and Wendy had long been eager to return to their rooms and had a good time. After all, the decoration style and standard of the house were very high, much better than the room they lived in before.

So after the Lady left, the two got up one after another and went back to their respective rooms.

Christopher looked at his wife, and suddenly had the idea of keeping the waves with her again, so he hurriedly said: "Wife, let's go back to the room and rest."

Chapter 1098

Hannah felt more and more itchy and upset, but she had no other way to deal with this night.

Even if I go to the hospital, I don't have money. I have to wait for the coffee machine to be sold tomorrow.

No way, she could only get up and go back to the second floor room with Christopher.

As soon as he entered the huge and luxurious master bedroom on the second floor, Christopher couldn't wait, and muttered: "My wife, I want to talk to you tonight..."

Hannah was shocked when she heard it, and while struggling to get rid of it, she said, "Forget it today, let's rest soon when you are tired."

Christopher pleaded: "Don't be like this wife."

Hannah felt extremely uncomfortable at this time, and she blurted out:

"If you say no, it won't work. Today, we two will sleep on a bed alone!"

Although Christopher was very depressed, seeing his wife's emotions was so excited, he couldn't force it, so he had no choice but to agree.

The two were lying on the bed. Christopher was still trying to persuade Hannah, but Hannah's attitude was very determined. In desperation, Christopher fell asleep in deep sleep. But Hannah, who was lying next to him, could not fall asleep tossing and turning.

The itching of scratching her heart and liver made her feel extremely uncomfortable, and her heart became more flustered, feeling as if she had really gotten the disease.

She was thinking about going to the hospital tomorrow to check it carefully, and at the same time worried that her husband would be infected because of herself.

.....

Charlie Wade kept thinking about preparing a vegetable garden for his wife to pick.

Claire Wilson Wilson was still looking forward to tomorrow's picking trip until she went to bed.

She thought her husband would take her to a vegetable and fruit base in the suburbs.

But she never dreamed that her husband and wife, Charlie Wade, the mad devil, was already preparing to create a unique vegetable garden for her in the yard tonight!

At 12 o'clock in the evening, Mr. White sent him a WeChat message, saying that he had brought someone over.

And Claire Wilson Wilson, who was lying beside Charlie Wade, was already asleep, his breath was very even, and he seemed to sleep very securely. However, in order to ensure that she would not wake up, Charlie Wade quietly gathered a little Reiki on his fingertips and lightly tapped it on her forehead.

In this way, you can ensure that your wife sleeps until tomorrow morning. After all, I want to prepare a surprise for my wife. If she falls asleep, and suddenly hears a movement, wakes up and lie down on the window, then the surprise will be exposed in advance.

After that, Charlie Wade turned over and got out of the bed and went to the courtyard downstairs.

A few minutes later, Mr. White personally brought a few light trucks to the door of the villa.

The truck is full of various vegetables, melons and plants, and each of them is fruitful and growing very gratifying.

When Mr. White saw Charlie Wade, he respectfully said: "Master Wade, I've got all the best fruit and vegetable plants we can find in Aurouss Hilll!"

"Any variety or plant on this one is carefully selected in countless large sheds, and the best is selected! The vegetable garden that I will get you, I can't find the second one in Aurouss Hilll or even the whole country. One!"

Charlie Wade nodded in satisfaction, and said with a smile: "You have worked hard, I will remember this matter."

Chapter 1099

Upon hearing this, Mr. White said with excitement: "It is an honor for White to be able to serve Master Wade!"

After that, Mr. White hurriedly said: "Master Wade, the total number of plants I have is more than 200. If all of them are transplanted and cultivated, it will take a long time. Or I should let the workers do the work quickly. It is estimated that at least it will work until five or six tomorrow morning."

Charlie Wade nodded and said: "Okay, then let the workers get busy."

Mr. White hurriedly waved to one of his men next to him, blurting out:

"Instruct the workers to work quickly and be careful to ensure that all plants are not damaged in any way, especially the fruits and melons.

Well, I have a lot of rewards, and each person will get a 10,000 dollar bonus. If you don't do a good job and make Master Wade dissatisfied, don't blame me for not being polite!"

The assistant nodded hurriedly, and then came to the workers and blurted out: "Everyone must work hard. As Mr. White said, as long as everyone completes the task on time and according to the amount, each person will give 10,000 Dollars!"

When this word came out, all the workers were extremely excited.

They usually can't make 10,000 Dollar a month, and they can only make 5,000 Dollar if they are exhausted.

But now as long as they do their job well tonight, everyone can earn two months' salary, which for them is simply a pie in the sky.

So a bunch of workers started working in full swing.

Charlie Wade didn't sleep anymore. He watched the workers with his own eyes and carefully planted various plants in the courtyard of the villa.

The courtyard of Thompson First villa is huge, divided into a front yard and a back yard, covering an area of at least four or five acres.

Charlie Wade simply let people stick to the wall, planned a space of about one acre, and then planted all the vegetables and fruits in order.

If his wife Claire Wilson really likes it, he can let someone prepare another one. The sun room covers all the vegetable gardens, and then sets up constant temperature and humidity equipment inside.

In this way, even when it snows in winter, there will always be fresh vegetables and fruits inside.

At that time, Claire Wilson could pick it by himself every day. I don't know how happy it is.

Although it took a little effort, it was better than anything to make my wife happy.

Although Jacob Wilson and Elaine Ma were separated, after hearing the movement, they both rushed to the terrace. At the same time, they looked down on the terraces of their respective rooms and saw such a magnificent scene underneath.

Jacob Wilson didn't know what Charlie Wade was doing, so he hurried down and asked him, "Charlie Wade, what are you doing? Why do you get so many fruits and vegetables? Are you going to grow the land at home? "

Charlie Wade nodded and said with a smile: "Yes, I heard that Claire Wilson likes picking very much, so I am going to take out part of the yard to make a vegetable garden, and I can pick it here every day from now on."

Jacob Wilson gave him a thumbs up: "I liked picking at first, but my dad forgot about it. I didn't expect you to know it."

After that, he couldn't help but sighed: "It seems that it is a good blessing to marry you in the first place, and ordinary men are not willing to put such a great effort on their wives."

At this time, Elaine Ma on the terrace on the third floor snorted coldly:

"Jacob Wilson, a man is better than you! A man loves his wife better than you! Only a scumbag like you can suffer so many crimes for you with his wife. After that, I have to separate from her and divorce her!"

Jacob Wilson raised his head in a dark face and shouted: "Elaine Ma, you don't fart there. Don't you know what your own virtues are? If this family wasn't for Charlie Wade, you would have been defeated long ago! If you don't divorce, mine Let your life go in!"

Elaine Ma cursed, "f*ck your mother! I tell you Jacob Wilson, as long as Elaine Ma is still alive, I don't want to divorce!"

After speaking, Elaine Ma let out a cold snort and turned back to the room.

Jacob Wilson was uncomfortable, but he couldn't get it. He could only say to Charlie Wade with a sad look: "Have you seen? This is a shrew."

Charlie Wade smiled lightly, I know better than you whether she is a shrew.

But this is of course unspeakable.

So he asked Jacob Wilson, "Have you met Matilda these days?"

Jacob Wilson waved his hand in fright: "You can keep your voice down.

What if you let the shrew hear you and know that your Matilda is back to China?"

Chapter 1100

Charlie Wade smiled faintly. It seems that the old father-in-law Jacob Wilson is now very worried about Elaine Ma knowing about Matilda's return to China.

However, this kind of thing may be kept secret for a while, not for a lifetime.

How long you can hide it depends on the good luck of the old man.

.....

The Lady next door felt light, and when she heard the movement outside, she got up from the bed and walked to the terrace.

I took a glance and found that Charlie Wade's house was brightly lit, and after a closer look, it turned out that there were a lot of workers growing vegetables for them!

What the hell is this?

Shouldn't planting vegetables start with sowing?

Charlie Wade is equivalent to moving the entire vegetable plot to his yard.

This is a good villa, it is a violent thing to get a bunch of fruits and vegetables!

If you change to be yourself, you must plant some high-end flowers, then you can show the force of this big villa!

But looking at it this way, the quality of the vegetables and fruits they got is pretty good, and they should all be organic food, the expensive ones.

Thinking of this, Mrs. Wilson planned to find a time tomorrow to let Hannah go over and steal an order.

At this time, Hannah was tossing about in bed and couldn't sleep.

The itchiness became more and more unbearable, and she couldn't hold on to it.

It was too itchy to bear, so she went to the bathroom and took a shower.

But this time, Hannah was horrified to find that her body had begun to grow red spots, and she looked very frightened.

Deep down in her heart, she couldn't choose her way, just looking forward to dawn, so she could go to the hospital as soon as possible.

This night was extremely torturing for Hannah.

In the first half of the night, she just lay on the bed tossing and turning, but in the second half of the night, she was basically unable to lie down.

She didn't understand why this disease came as soon as it came from, and it came so quickly.

I checked with my mobile phone for a long time, and found that everyone said that if you have a venereal disease, you should avoid it, especially seafood and spicy food.

Seeing this, she regretted that her bowels were blue.

For dinner with seafood hot pot in the evening, she wanted spicy pot bottom.

This time I really don't want to eat these two things in my life.

Hannah was worried about leaving too late and unable to take the coffee machine away in front of her family, so she got up quietly around 5 o'clock in the morning, sneaked into the kitchen, and went out with the coffee machine in her arms.

When passing by Charlie Wade's house, Charlie Wade's vegetable garden prepared for his wife was almost done.

Across the fence of the yard, Hannah was surprised to find that there was a large vegetable garden in Charlie Wade's house overnight. She was a little surprised, but she didn't care about it, because her attention was not at all else. People.

She waited at the door of Thompson First for more than an hour, and the talents who bought the coffee machine rushed over. The first thing Hannah did after he took the coffee machine and got the money was to take a taxi immediately and went to the People's Hospital in a hurry!

Chapter 1101

At 7 o'clock in the morning, Claire Wilson Wilson slowly woke up. This time she slept more comfortably than before. She hadn't dreamed or woke up even once throughout the night. She seemed to be in deep sleep throughout the whole process, so she felt full of energy.

Claire Wilson Wilson was not surprised that she didn't see Charlie Wade after getting up, because Charlie Wade got up earlier than her every day. Knowing that Charlie Wade would take her to pick today, Claire Wilson Wilson was in a particularly good mood and looked forward to it from the bottom of her heart.

After washing, Claire Wilson Wilson changed into a sports suit before walking downstairs.

She thought Charlie Wade was cooking breakfast, and she could leave for the suburbs after breakfast, but she didn't expect Charlie Wade to be waiting for herself in the living room.

When Charlie Wade saw Claire Wilson Wilson coming downstairs, he immediately greeted him and said with a smile: "My wife, go, let's go picking!"

Claire Wilson Wilson asked in surprise, "Ah? Is this going to go? Haven't had breakfast yet..."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "What else do you have for breakfast? Come back and eat."

After that, he reached out and grabbed Claire Wilson Wilson's hand, took her and walked out the door.

Claire Wilson Wilson was held by Charlie Wade's little hand, and felt his heart thumping and thumping. On the one hand, he was a little bit ashamed and a little surprised at the same time. For half a day, if we don't have something to eat, what should we do if we get hungry there?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "You'll know when you go with me. I've arranged everything."

Claire Wilson Wilson asked curiously: "Did you arrange a farmhouse there?"

Charlie Wade pulled Claire Wilson Wilson to the door and said with a smile: "Come on, close your eyes first."

Claire Wilson Wilson was even more surprised: "Charlie Wade, let me close my eyes now, isn't it too early?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "What's it early? It's not early, you'll know in a while."

Claire Wilson Wilson could only smile helplessly, closed his eyes, and said softly, "Well, for the sake of you taking me to pick, let's listen to you."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Then you are not allowed to take a peek!"

Claire Wilson Wilson said earnestly: "Don't worry, I won't take a peek! I am also a person who likes surprises!"

"That's good!"

Charlie Wade took Claire Wilson Wilson's white tender and warm little hand, and carefully led him out of the house, all the way to the yard. At this time, at the east of the yard, more than an acre of fruits and vegetables had been planted.

Moreover, the plants of these fruits and vegetables were carefully selected by Mr. White. Not only did the fruits grow well, they did not even have a single insect. The fruits were brightly colored and the leaves were extremely green. In addition, some dew condensed in the early morning. It is even more amazing.

Charlie Wade led Claire Wilson Wilson out and came to the vegetable garden. Then he smiled and said to her: "My wife, you can open your eyes."

Claire Wilson Wilson asked in surprise, "Don't you want to get in the car? Let me open my eyes before getting in the car?"

"Right." Charlie Wade said with a smile: "If you open your eyes, you will open your eyes."

Claire Wilson Wilson smiled and said, "Then I just opened it!"

After that, she opened her eyes gently.

At the moment when she opened her eyes, the rising sun from the east cast brilliant morning light into her bright eyes, making her a little dazzling for a moment, unable to see clearly.

Immediately afterwards, her vision gradually recovered.

At this time, she was surprised to find that there was an impeccably perfect vegetable and fruit garden before her eyes!

She was surprised!

Immediately afterwards, he immediately covered his mouth with both hands!

Chapter 1102

After that, she looked at Charlie Wade next to her again, her face full of shock and incredible.

"This...I...I'm not dreaming Charlie Wade! How come we have such a vegetable and fruit garden in our house?!"

Charlie Wade looked at her dozingly, and smiled: "Silly wife, of course you are not dreaming. Don't you like picking? You can come here every day to pick it. I have someone find it. We can find the best in Aurouss Hilll. I will take care of this vegetable field in the future to ensure that it has abundant fruits for you to pick and taste for 4 seasons a year!"

Claire Wilson Wilson's eyes flushed suddenly moved!

She never dreamed that her husband had prepared such a big surprise for herself!

When she was young, she hoped to grow some fruits and vegetables in the yard, even if it was just a tomato or a pepper, she would be extremely satisfied.

However, Mrs. Wilson never gave her this opportunity.

Unexpectedly, my husband would give himself such a large and good vegetable garden overnight!

Especially Charlie Wade's affectionate promise made Claire Wilson Wilson very moved!

Although Charlie Wade had done a lot for her before, nothing made her feel so moved.

This feeling is like I only expect my husband to give me a flower, but I didn't expect my husband to give me the whole flower sea.

As if I had the whole world at once.

Don't look at these, they are just fruits and vegetables, there are no romantic roses. In Claire Wilson Wilson's eyes, these fruits and vegetables are more exciting than the most beautiful roses in the world. Even at this moment, she felt that she was more excited than she was when she saw Charlie Wade make up the grand wedding in Shangri-La Hanging Garden.

At this time, Charlie Wade by his side had already handed a small exquisite bamboo basket to Claire Wilson Wilson's hand, and said with a smile: "Wife, don't you want to pick it? What are you still doing? All the vegetables and fruits in it It's organically cultivated. You can pick it without any pesticides!"

Claire Wilson Wilson was very moved in her heart. She looked at Charlie Wade, subconsciously threw herself in his arms, hugged his waist, and said movedly: "My husband, thank you, thank you for all this for me, I feel I am now the happiest person in the world."

Charlie Wade touched her cheek and said lovingly, "Are you my wife? Thank you for telling me anything. As long as you are happy, I will be happy." With that, Charlie Wade looked at Claire Wilson Wilson who was close in front of him, and suddenly felt an impulse.

As a result, his brain heated up, and he immediately lowered his head and gently kissed Claire Wilson Wilson's lips.

At this moment, Claire Wilson Wilson suddenly felt a blank in his mind. This was Claire Wilson Wilson's first kiss, but she was suddenly taken away by Charlie Wade!

However, she was not angry at all in her heart.

She looked up at the handsome and gentle Charlie Wade, and suddenly felt an unprecedented sense of happiness in her heart.

It turned out to be a happy little woman in her husband's arms, it feels so good!

Although she felt very happy in her heart, she was still a little bit shy.

So after Charlie Wade's light kiss, Claire Wilson Wilson pushed Charlie Wade away in a panic. She tidied the hair around her ears nervously, and said falteringly: "That, I'm going to pick it."

Charlie Wade hugged her lightly and said, "My wife, I'll be with you!"

Claire Wilson Wilson blushed, and put the bamboo basket in his hand again, and said shyly: "Then you follow me, I pick it, you help me carry it!"

"Okay!" Charlie Wade immediately agreed eagerly and took his wife's hand into the vegetable garden.

On the terrace on the third floor at this time, Elaine Ma looked at the two people in the yard and mumbled: "I was so tired and crookedly spreading dog food early in the morning. Didn't you know that my Lady has lost my front teeth?"

Thinking of this, she shouted angrily: "Hey, you two pick it quickly, my Lady is still waiting to take pictures of the vegetable garden and post to Moments!"

Chapter 1103

This morning, Claire Wilson Wilson felt that she was the happiest woman in the world.

However, at the same time, there was another woman who felt that she was the most unlucky woman in the world.

This woman is Hannah who is in the People's Hospital.

At the beginning, she was in the gynecology department. After a long queue, it was finally her turn.

After entering, the doctor will give her a routine check-up, but when seeing the actual situation, even the knowledgeable doctor can't help but be surprised, and blurt out: "What's the matter with you? How can it be done? Like this, don't you pay attention to personal hygiene?"

Although the doctor who checked herself was also a female doctor, the doctor's words still made Hannah feel embarrassed, and she wanted to dig through a seam.

She could only cover her face and stubbornly said: "The doctor tells you, the main reason is that she doesn't like cleanliness..."

The doctor complained: "She doesn't like cleaning, so you have to ask her to pay attention to personal hygiene! You see it hurts you, this problem is very serious, let me tell you!"

Hannah asked in a panic: "Doctor, what is going on with me?"

The doctor said with a dark face: "From the routine examination, there are erythema, infection, and erosion. I guess you have more than one problem."

As he said, the doctor said again: "In this way, I will give you a test form. You can check your blood and secretions and see what the test results say."

Hannah was frightened, and hurriedly asked nervously: "Doctor, I won't get that kind of AIDS?"

The doctor said: "AIDS is not visible to the naked eye, it can only be confirmed by a blood test."

After all, the doctor urged: "You hurry up and get it early, and we can come up with a solution as soon as it turns out."

Hannah had no choice but to get up in a hurry and take the lab test order prescribed by the doctor to pay for the test.

After drawing blood and extracting secretions, Hannah sat on the bench nervously and waited.

Because she was very scared in her heart, she couldn't care about the itching of her body at this time, and just wanted to find out as soon as possible what disease she had.

The first thing that came out was the secretion test result, which showed that she had severe erosion and inflammation.

Hannah was flustered immediately, and immediately went to the doctor with the test sheet.

The doctor was not surprised after reading it, and said lightly: "Inflammation and erosion can be seen with the naked eye, but I didn't expect it to be severe. You must be treated as soon as possible, otherwise, it is likely to cause major problems."

The doctor asked, "Is there no blood test result? The most important thing is that!"

Hannah hurriedly said: "The results of the blood test haven't come out yet. I'm not scared, so I can quickly show you this."

The doctor nodded and said, "Let's wait for the blood results. After the results come out, many problems can be seen more thoroughly."

Hannah could only get out of the doctor's office and waited for her results at the place of blood test.

After 20 minutes, her results came out.

There were four results this time.

After Hannah got her hands, she started watching the first one.

This first report scared her to death!

Neisseria gonorrhoeae test, positive!

Neisseria gonorrhoeae? Isn't this gonorrhea...

Damn, that damn dog overseer, even passed gonorrhea to my Lady? !

Hannah was terrified at the moment, and opened the second report tremblingly.

The second report says: Treponema pallidum agglutination test, positive!

Chapter 1104

Seeing here, Hannah was dizzy!

Not only got gonorrhea, but also got syphilis?

That dog day's supervisor is a poison king!

Isn't this going to kill yourself?

Hannah felt her legs soft and could hardly stand, so she hurriedly sat on the ground against the corner of the wall, wiping tears, and tremblingly opened the third report.

The third report reads: HIV antibody, measured value of 0.11, followed by a reference value 1 is negative.

Hannah finally breathed a sigh of relief.

Fortunately, I didn't get AIDS, otherwise it would really kill me!

She finally found a trace of comfort and opened the last report.

This report reads: Human chorionic gonadotropin: 5324.2!

Looking at the indicators at the back, she flipped the bead that scared her up on the spot and almost fainted.

This...isn't this an indicator of pregnancy?

Look at the remarks at the back, my own indicator corresponds to 4 to 8 weeks of pregnancy.

The time just coincided with the day when I went to the black coal mine... It's over, this time is really over...

At this time, Hannah wanted to hit her head on the wall to death.

She never dreamed that she managed to escape from the black coal furnace that made her desperate by relying on the light of the Webb family.

But I didn't expect that just after escaping, I discovered so many diseases one after another!

Inflammation, erosion, gonorrhea, syphilis...

It's fine if you have so many diseases, but why did you get pregnant?

I am 51 years old this year, a lot of age, and my son Harold is 28 years old. At this time, I am pregnant. If this is passed on, where do I put my old face?

Wouldn't I be scolded to death by someone poking my backbone in the future?

Thinking of this, Hannah hurriedly took the result and went to the doctor.

As soon as she entered the doctor's office, she locked the door, knelt in front of the doctor with a plop, and cried, "Doctor, you really want to save me, you must help!"

The doctor was also shocked, and blurted out and asked: "What's the matter? Is HIV positive?"

What the doctor fears most is that she is diagnosed with AIDS. After all, this disease is really unsolvable.

At this time, Hannah hurriedly shook her head and said, "HIV is negative, but I not only have gonorrhoea, but also syphilis, and more importantly, I am pregnant..."

The doctor breathed a sigh of relief at this time and said lightly: "Gonorrhoea and syphilis are troublesome to treat, but there is still a chance to cure them. As long as you actively cooperate with the treatment."

After that, the doctor said again: "As for the pregnancy, you don't have to be too surprised or worried. It's not uncommon for a woman your age to become pregnant, and some even give birth to a child. "

As soon as he finished speaking, the doctor said again: "I don't recommend you to have this child. After all, you still have gonorrhoea and syphilis. This syphilis is very powerful. It can be transmitted from mother to child. So I suggest you abort your child. And then actively cooperate with treatment to eradicate all these gynecological diseases and venereal diseases."

Hannah thought, even if you put a knife on my neck, I can't give birth to this child!

If your husband, your mother-in-law, your son, and your daughter know that they have been in the black coal kiln for so long and are pregnant after being rescued, what face is there to live with them?

Chapter 1105

Hannah's first thought was to get rid of the child as soon as possible. So she asked the doctor: "Doctor, what time is the fastest appointment for abortion surgery?"

The doctor opened his mouth and said, "If you want to have an operation, you have to make an appointment until next week, and the fastest is next Monday."

Hannah immediately panicked when she heard that she had to wait until Monday, and asked anxiously, "Why wait until Monday? If it's money, I can pay double or ten times the price."

The situation is so serious now that one more day will be more dangerous to be discovered, so she can't help but worry.

The doctor shook his head and said, "It's not a question of money, but we only go to the clinic these two days on weekends and don't do surgery. So if you want to get this kid out, you have to wait until Monday."

"Well... Monday is Monday."

Hannah's face changed again. Although she was panicked, she could only accept it. .

After all, she can't do it on her belly by herself!

It is not a trivial matter to have a childbirth. At my age, it might be fatal..

The doctor said again: "In this way, I will prescribe some oral medicines and applied medicines first. You take them back and control them first. After the abortion operation is completed, we will conduct systemic treatment for your STDs."

Hannah nodded repeatedly and blurted out: "That's really thank you doctor!"

The doctor waved his hand and said: "After you go back, it is best to ask your husband to check it up. Gonorrhoea and syphilis are generally transmitted through sexual intercourse between men and women. If you have had sex with your husband recently, maybe He infected you, or you have infected him, and these two diseases are particularly contagious, so I suggest that he check it out. If you both have both, it is better to treat together and encourage each other. "

Hannah felt a little stunned when she heard this.

Hannah knew very well in her heart that this disease could not have been transmitted to her by her husband, it must have been transmitted to her by the supervisor.

However, when I and my husband were at Webb's house the day before yesterday, the sound of the waves continued. They did not take any measures at the time. The doctor now says that this disease is very contagious. Doesn't it mean that my husband also has Very likely to be infected by yourself?

Thinking of this, her heart was flustered.

It seems that the best solution is to cure the illness before the husband becomes ill.

In this way, if the time comes, if the husband finds out the illness, there will be no way to push him off.

At this point, Hannah hurriedly asked the doctor: "Doctor, if my disease is actively treated, how long will it take to heal?"

"This..." The doctor thought for a while, and said with some embarrassment: "I will tell you that these two diseases are actually very difficult to cure, and the treatment cycle is relatively long. I estimate that it will take at least two months. ."

"It's been so long..." Hannah's heart sank even further.

The doctor comforted her at this time: "But it's not necessarily.

Everyone's physique is different, and some people get better faster."

Then the doctor said: "You still don't think so much now. Let's make an appointment for the operation first, and come over next Monday to perform the operation. After the operation, we will undergo active treatment."

Hannah nodded. She knew there was nothing good now, so she made an appointment with the doctor for surgery on Monday afternoon. Just after the appointment, she received a call from her husband and asked, "You I disappeared early in the morning, where did I go?"

Hannah hurriedly said: "I'll go out to do something, and I will go back now."

Chapter 1106

Christopher said: "Mom said that when you come back, go to the vegetable market to buy some meat and cook at noon."

Hannah was a little upset, but she said honestly: "Okay, I will buy some vegetables later and go back."

.....

Charlie Wade took his wife and picked them in the orchard at home for half a morning.

Claire Wilson Wilson was happily like an 18-year-old girl, not only picking, but also very seriously loosening and watering the plants.

Elaine Ma also waited to take pictures and post to Moments, seeing them both went in and wouldn't come out, so anxiously.

After finally waiting for the two of them to pick up a large basket of things and enter the house, she hurried downstairs, took out her mobile phone, and took various selfies in the orchard.

After taking a lot of photos in the sun, she immediately ran back to her room, while applying the aloe vera ointment that was repaired after the sun, while holding a mobile phone, carefully selected 9 pictures from it, and posted A circle of friends.

The accompanying text is: "Look at our vegetable garden, under my careful cultivation, it has grown so well!"

As soon as this circle of friends came out, it immediately triggered countless people's likes and comments. No one thought that Elaine Ma could build such a large and spectacular vegetable garden in her own yard. It took a lot of effort. It's done.

Including the previous friend who bought a villa, opened a small plot of land and planted a small portion of vegetables, also said sourly: "Oh, Sister Elaine Ma, you are really amazing, you planted it at home. A lot, but how can ordinary people grow so many things at home, did you go to other people's vegetable fields to pick them? Then you took photos and deliberately lied to us?"

"Oh!" Elaine Ma immediately became angry when he saw this comment.

The old mother photographed the old mother's own villa. Do you dare to question the old mother? Wait, I will take you a bird's-eye view from the balcony on the 3rd floor to the courtyard of the villa!

Thinking of this, Elaine Ma immediately walked to the terrace of his master bedroom on the third floor, turned on the phone shooting function, and prepared to take pictures in the courtyard.

But at this time, she suddenly saw a strange figure appeared on the phone screen!

A dark figure was leaving the fence of the yard at this time, reaching out and stealing vegetables from her own vegetable plot.

Looking at that hand, he already picked a big eggplant, and then went to pick a big cucumber and a big tomato.

Elaine Ma immediately roared: "Hey! What are you doing? Isn't it stealing my old mother's food?"

When the figure heard her yelling, he pulled his hand back, turned his head and ran.

Elaine Ma glanced intently, okay, isn't it the damn Lady Wilson who stole the food?

As a result, she was furious and cursed loudly: "Why are you such a dead Lady so shameless? You even ran to my house to steal food! Believe it or not, I will call the police and arrest you now!"

Lady Wilson couldn't run fast even with a basket of vegetables. When she heard her scolding herself, she turned her head and glanced at her. Not only was she not afraid, she spat at her instead.

This time, Elaine Ma was so angry that he immediately ran downstairs. Seeing Charlie Wade and her daughter washing vegetables in the kitchen, they blurted out impatiently: "You two are still in the mood to wash vegetables here, our vegetable plot was stolen!"

"Who?" Claire Wilson Wilson asked subconsciously.

Elaine Ma said angrily: "Your old and undead grandma! Apart from her, who else is so promiscuous?"

Chapter 1107

When Claire Wilson Wilson heard that grandma stole the vegetables from the vegetable garden at home, he sighed helplessly and said, "Mom, since grandma picked it, then if she wants to pick you, let her pick it, it's nothing more than some vegetables. "

Elaine Ma blurted out: "That's not what you said. What did your grandma give us? You forgot how she treated our family before? I can't bear to come to our house with a shy face at this time! "

Claire Wilson Wilson shook his head helplessly: "Don't think about it so much. Grandma also looks at our food too, so I want to pick some for a meal. Let's not be so stingy."

Elaine Ma said angrily: "You know that your elbow is turning out all day long."

After speaking, she turned upstairs.

However, the more Elaine Ma thinks about it, the more he feels that this is a terrible loss, such a good vegetable, even a vegetable leaf can not be let away by Mrs. Wilson! My daughter still feels indifferent! If this is to condone the Lady to steal once, she will steal twice, steal three times, and steal a hundred times.

So Elaine Ma hurried out of the room again, went to the kitchen door, greeted Charlie Wade, and said, "Charlie Wade, tell me something, I have something to tell you."

Charlie Wade nodded and came to the door.

Elaine Ma hurriedly said in a low voice: "Charlie Wade, my mother kindly reminds you that you have to prepare such a good vegetable garden for Claire Wilson Wilson, and you must be careful to guard against theft. I have lived with the Lady for so many years. What kind of person is she? I don't understand, if you don't care about her, she can steal it for you tomorrow."

In fact, Charlie Wade has been in the Wilson family for more than three years and knows everyone in the Wilson family very well.

He knows exactly what kind of personality each person in the Wilson family has.

In his view of the entire Wilson family, apart from his wife, Claire Wilson Wilson, who is a natural good person, there is only one Jacob Wilson who still has room for salvation. The others are counted as one, and all are rubbish.

This includes Elaine Ma and Mrs. Wilson.

Therefore, he also knew very well that if he did not respond, Mrs. Wilson would indeed steal the first time and the second time as Elaine Ma said. Thus, he had a plan in his heart.

Later, Charlie Wade asked Elaine Ma: "Do you know what kind of dish the Lady likes most?"

Elaine Ma thought for a while and said, "If you want to say your favorite, it should be leeks! The Lady will not cook for a lifetime, but if you want to talk about dumplings with leeks and eggs, she will definitely cook and mix the stuffing herself. It's leeks!"

"Okay." Charlie Wade nodded, like eating leeks, that's right.

Afterwards, he went to a place where no one was there and called Mr. White.

Upon the call, Mr. White asked him: "Master Wade, is your wife satisfied with the vegetable garden you got last night?"

"Very satisfied." Charlie Wade said, "I called you to ask you to do something for me."

Mr. White hurriedly said, "Master Wade, please give orders."

Charlie Wade said: "You go find me dozens of pots of the best daffodils, and you have to have the kind with no blossoms and green leaves."

Mr. White thought for a while and said, "Master Wade, this daffodil is poisonous. If you have a few points, you might be better off. If you want so many, I'm afraid it's not safe."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "I know it's poisonous, but you don't have to worry about it, just prepare it for me, and send it to me before the afternoon."

As soon as Mr. White heard this, he immediately agreed: "Okay Master Wade, I will do it now."

.....

Lady Wilson stole a basket of vegetables from Charlie Wade's house. After returning, Hannah happened to be here.

then. She asked Hannah: "Have you bought the meat you bought?"

Hannah nodded: "Not only did I buy meat, but also a lot of vegetables."

Chapter 1108

Hannah is very guilty, so she is ready to please the Lady and husband. She just sold the coffee machine and has some money in her hand, so she bought some spare ribs and pork belly, ready to come back and make a hearty meal for her family. Meat dishes.

When the Lady Wilson heard that Hannah had also bought vegetables, she suddenly said with dissatisfaction: "Why is it waste that money to buy vegetables?"

Hannah asked in surprise: "Mom, we can't just eat meat and not vegetables. We need vitamin supplements."

Lady Wilson took her to the kitchen and pointed to the basket of vegetables she had just stolen and said, "Have you seen? These good vegetables are all stolen from Charlie Wade's house. Charlie Wade's house has a large vegetable garden. The fence can be picked up by just reaching out, and our family will no longer have to spend money to buy vegetables."

Hannah just remembered that when she left in the morning, she saw Charlie Wade's house was under construction.

I saw it by myself at the time, although I was a little surprised, but I didn't take it to my heart.

She carefully looked at the basket of vegetables from Mrs. Wilson, and couldn't help but sigh, "Mom, don't tell me, these dishes look very good, even better than the organic vegetables I bought."

Mrs. Wilson nodded and picked up a green cucumber: "You see, this cucumber is long, big and long. Look at the little yellow flower in front. It's fresh, and it's very clean. Like it!"

With that said, Mrs. Wilson took the cucumber, washed it under the faucet, rubbed it, and then broke it with a slight force. The cucumber made a crisp click and it disconnected neatly.

A strong, refreshing scent came in an instant, and the Lady Wilson couldn't help but sigh: "How come this cucumber smells so sweet!"

she couldn't help but put it in her mouth, and took a bite.

The Lady Wilson who took this bite was full of relief.

Lady Wilson chewed the cucumber in her mouth and said vaguely: "This is really the best cucumber I have ever eaten in my life!"

At this time, Christopher just walked to the door of the kitchen, he smelled the scent of cucumber, and blurted out: "Oh, it's such a strong cucumber scent. Give me half of it."

The Lady handed him half, Christopher took a bite and immediately gave Hannah a thumbs up: "Where did you buy the cucumber, my wife? It's so delicious!"

Hannah hurriedly said: "I didn't buy this. Mom stole it. Oh no, Mom picked it back."

"Picked back?" Christopher looked at the Lady in surprise and asked, "Mom, where did you pick the cucumbers?"

Lady Wilson smiled and said: "Charlie Wade has made a vegetable plot at home. There are all kinds of things, and all of them look great. I just went home and took a basket and picked it up. A basket."

Christopher frowned and said, "Charlie Wade doesn't have a good brain? Why did he plant vegetables in the yard?"

"What about him?" Lady Wilson said cheerfully, "Anyway, we don't want to spend money to buy vegetables in the future. Go to Charlie Wade's house to steal every day, and you can pick the best and freshest vegetables when you go out!"

Christopher laughed and said, "Then this is really good! Not only is it healthy, but it also saves money!"

For this lunch, Hannah used the vegetables that the Lady had stolen from Charlie Wade's home to make several delicious meals.

It's also because the vegetables are so good that the whole Wilson family is full of praise.

Harold usually dislikes vegetables the most, but today he took the initiative to eat a lot.

Because today's vegetables are really delicious!

Seeing that the vegetables on the table were all eaten, Mrs. Wilson couldn't help sighing: "I really didn't expect the vegetables made by Charlie Wade's house to be so good. Then, in the afternoon, I will go to their house and pick some back. ."

Harold hurriedly asked, "Grandma, if Charlie Wade found out that we were stealing his food, wouldn't he come to us?"

Lady Wilson coldly snorted: "Let him trouble me, as long as I dare to move me, I will mistake him!"

Christopher smiled and said, "Mom, you have a way!"

Chapter 1109

After lunch, Mr. White arranged another truck and sent a truckload of daffodils.

The daffodils he sent were all high-quality varieties that grew very lush and green, and according to Charlie Wade's request, every one of them was not flowering.

Daffodils look very similar to leeks, even more like leeks when they are not blooming.

People in the city themselves are not so clear about plants. In addition, most people have eaten leeks and have seen cut leeks, but have never seen leeks growing in the ground, so it is easy to distinguish leeks from foreign ones. Daffodils get confused.

Leek is a vegetable that the people like to hear and see. Whether it is stir-frying or boiling soup, or making pies and dumplings, it is an indispensable good ingredient.

But things like daffodils cannot be eaten.

Why can't you eat it? Because daffodils contain narcissus.

Narcissus itself is a toxic alkaloid.

Charlie Wade heard Elaine Ma say that Mrs. Wilson liked to eat leeks, so he immediately thought of the plant Colchicum.

He knew that after Mrs. Wilson succeeded in stealing vegetables once, she would definitely steal it again, and she would definitely steal it often. So he asked Mr. White to arrange workers to plant all these colchicum against the corner of the wall.

In this way, Mrs. Wilson could grab a lot from outside the iron fence with one hand. It couldn't be easier to steal it.

If she steals these daffodils and eats these daffodils as leeks, then her fate will be miserable.

Although it will not be fatal, it is inevitable to go to the hospital for a few days.

Charlie Wade's idea was to let her family eat daffodils and be admitted to the hospital. During the time they were in the hospital, let them turn all the fences into walls, and then build a glass house for their vegetable garden. No longer be afraid of someone stealing it.

When the truck came to unload the cargo, Mrs. Wilson, who was next door, happened to see it on the terrace on the third floor.

When she saw clusters of green slender leaf plants brought down by the workers from the car, she immediately felt her eyes bright!

It turned out to be leeks!

And so fresh leeks!

She couldn't help thinking of the delicious meal at noon. Because of the vegetables stolen from Charlie Wade's house, this homely meal was very delicious and even felt particularly green and healthy.

Seeing that there are so many fresh leeks at Charlie Wade's house now, Mrs. Wilson is naturally ecstatic, because she likes eating leeks the most!

Moreover, she was displaced during this period of time and suffered so many changes, and she went to the detention center for several days. It has been a long time since she had eaten dumplings filled with chives and eggs!

Seeing that so many fresh and good leeks came to Charlie Wade's house at this time, the first thought in her mind was to quickly take a knife and cut two to make a dumpling filled with leeks and eggs, and enjoy a delicious evening!

.....

After 4 o'clock in the afternoon, Mrs. Wilson woke up after a nap. The first thing was to come to the terrace to see how Charlie Wade's leeks were doing.

Seeing that Charlie Wade had planted all the leeks on the side of the iron fence, Mrs. Wilson was extremely happy.

Isn't this just convenient for yourself?

So she immediately went downstairs.

At this time, Christopher's family of four was sitting in the living room watching TV.

Harold brought up the TV in an empty room downstairs. Although it was not as big as the one sold, it was already very good.

The Lady Wilson said to Hannah: ", you go out, buy a box of eggs, and then buy a bag of noodles."

Chapter 1110

Hannah hurriedly asked flatly, "Mom, why do you want eggs and noodles?" Mrs. Wilson said: "Encourage dumplings with leek and egg stuffing at night!"

Harold said in surprise, "Grandma, make dumplings tonight?"

"Yes!" Mrs. Wilson said with a smile, "Do you like leeks and eggs?"

Harold smiled and said, "Oh, I like it so much! I haven't eaten the dumplings with chives and eggs for a long time. When you say that, I am a little drooling!"

Christopher also smiled and said, "Mom, why do you think of eating leek and egg dumplings today? You haven't cooked dumplings for a long time."

Mrs. Wilson said: "I'm happy today. I have enough dumplings with chives and eggs tonight!"

"Great!" Christopher said with emotion: "I haven't eaten dumplings in some days, so today I'm so greedy!"

Hannah asked, "Mom, apart from noodles and eggs, don't I want to buy some leeks?"

Lady Wilson smiled proudly: "Charlie Wade's house bought a lot of fresh leeks in the afternoon, and I will go out and cut two of them back later!"

Christopher said hurriedly: "Mom, then cut a little bit more. By the way, dumplings with leek and pork will do!"

Wendy said: "You can also bake pies with leek fillings!"

"Good, good!" Lady Wilson nodded and smiled: "Then I will cut a little bit more!"

After 5 o'clock in the afternoon, Mrs. Wilson went out with a kitchen knife.

She put the kitchen knife in the bamboo basket and ran all the way to the fence of Charlie Wade's house.

Old Lady Wilson looked around and saw that there was no one in the yard, she quickly took out the knife, reached into the fence and cut a large handful of leeks.

After cutting this one, she cut two more.

I thought it was almost enough, but when I think about it carefully, such a good leek is really rare. If you don't cut a little more, you will lose money.

So she cut six in a row, and the cut "leeks" couldn't fit in the bamboo basket.

Seeing success, Mrs. Wilson hurriedly ran back.

At this time, Elaine Ma saw that the sun was about to set, so he turned to the terrace to get some sun.

After all, the doctor explained to himself that if you want your legs to feel better, you should get more sun exposure to synthesize vitamin D.

When she came to the terrace, she happened to see Mrs. Wilson stole the vegetables again, and yelled angrily: "You old immortal thing, you just stole so many vegetables from my house in the morning, and you dare to come in the afternoon. You have to be shameless.?"

Lady Wilson turned her head and watched her jumping and cursing in the street: "What's wrong? You are my mother's daughter-in-law, and if my mother eats your order, you still haunt my mother?"

Elaine Ma scolded, "Who the hell is your daughter-in-law, you shameless old thing, next time you dare to come to my house to steal food, I will break your leg!"

Lady Wilson snorted, "I don't know when my broken leg will get better, so dare you yell at me? Believe it or not, I will break your leg next time?"

As soon as Elaine Ma heard this, she became furious!

Her leg was broken by Mrs. Wilson in the detention center. She always remembered this grudge.

Seeing that Mrs. Wilson came to steal food again and scolded herself for breaking her leg, Elaine Ma gritted her teeth and cursed: "You can steal it! Old thing! With such a cheap mouth, you will be killed sooner or later!"

Mrs. Wilson coldly snorted: "Tell you Elaine Ma, the life of my old mother will last. If you die eight hundred times, my old mother will not die! If you don't believe me, let's just walk around and see who will die first!"

Chapter 1111

Elaine Ma's entire popularity is about to explode.

She really didn't expect that she told Charlie Wade in the morning that she must beware of the Lady, but instead of taking it seriously, he bought so many leeks.

It's all right now, it's cheaper, this Lady.

Like before, Elaine Ma had already scolded Charlie Wade, but now she didn't have the courage.

At this time, Claire Wilson Wilson asked Charlie Wade in the room: "What does my husband eat tonight?"

Charlie Wade smiled and asked, "Don't you usually care about these? Why do you care about what to eat today?"

Claire Wilson Wilson smiled and said, "I want to pick it in the vegetable garden. You said I will pick it up in the vegetable garden for whatever vegetables I want in the evening, how about it? Is that okay?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said with a smile: "Then let's go together, just like this morning."

Claire Wilson Wilson thought that Charlie Wade had taken the first kiss in the morning, and her pretty face instantly turned red.

She gave Charlie Wade a white look, and said shyly: "You can pick, but you must not take advantage of me anymore!"

Charlie Wade pretended to be puzzled and asked, "Wife, what are you talking about? Why don't I understand, what is taking advantage of and not taking advantage."

Claire Wilson Wilson snorted, "Anyway, you keep a distance of more than half a meter from me!"

After speaking, he turned and went downstairs first.

Charlie Wade hurriedly followed. .

When the two came to the vegetable garden, Claire Wilson Wilson saw the leeks on the ground at a glance, and asked in surprise, "Where did the leeks come from? I haven't seen them in the morning."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "I asked a friend to send it."

Claire Wilson Wilson smiled and said, "Then we can eat fried shrimps with leeks at night, can we?"

Charlie Wade hurriedly said: "The leek hasn't grown well yet, so I can't eat it yet."

"Huh?" Claire Wilson Wilson asked in surprise, "I think they look good, why can't they eat it?"

Charlie Wade said: "You don't understand, this leek looks good now, but you can wait a while before you can eat it."

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded and said, "Okay, then, would you like to have a roasted eggplant that night? I want to eat Mushu meat."

"Okay." Charlie Wade said with a smile: "The whole vegetable garden can eat except leeks, and everything else is fine."

The young couple picked some vegetables and went back to the kitchen to cook together. Claire Wilson Wilson also liked this feeling. It was a good feeling to be busy in the kitchen with Charlie Wade.

The Wilson family was even more busy at this time.

Because there are so many people, and Mrs. Wilson also cuts more leeks, all five people are busy at this time.

Lady Wilson was busy making noodles, Christopher was busy chopping meat, Hannah was busy scrambled eggs, Harold and Wendy were busy washing leeks.

It's just that Christopher was a little depressed. He was making minced meat while complaining, "Why don't you just buy minced minced meat? I have to buy the whole piece of meat and chop the stuffing? My arms are sore now. ."

Hannah blurted out: "Mom said that the stuffing made by the machine is not smelling like the stuffing chopped by hand."

"Net nonsense." Christopher said with his lips contemptuously: "Aren't they all the same meat? What's the difference between a person's hand-chop?"

At this time, I heard the Lady cursing behind her: "You know what a fart! Ask the older people, who doesn't know, only hand-chopped meat is delicious?"

Chapter 1112

Christopher had no choice but to say, "Well, well, what you said is right. Isn't it okay to listen to you?"

Mrs. Wilson gave him a glaring look and said, "Use a little harder and chop the meat a little bit!"

"I know..." Christopher answered dryly.

In the evening, the meat stuffing was done, the eggs were fried, and a lot of daffodils were washed clean and placed on the chopping board.

The Lady came out to make the filling herself. First, she made a leek and egg with eggs and leeks, and then made a leek and pork with meat and leeks.

Everyone in the Wilson family has already begun to drool. After all, the family has been relatively turbulent recently. They have not eaten such a life-like home-made dumplings for a long time.

The Lady personally led everyone to make dumplings. To tell the truth, everyone made dumplings, all kinds of stuff, and there is really some New Year atmosphere.

Mrs. Wilson, who has always had a bad temper, feels the warmth of family life at this moment.

She finally had a kind side, patiently teaching her grandchildren how to make dumplings better and firmer.

Christopher also sighed deep in his heart, and he also liked the happy feeling now.

Especially when the missing wife came back, the two returned to their original harmonious and loving life.

Coupled with the fact that the children are right beside them, and they still live in such a great villa, the Wilson Group will be revitalized soon.

Life is perfect at this moment.

If he were to use four words to describe the feeling at this moment, it would be: What can the husband ask for?

I feel that life has reached a high dynasty.

Lady Wilson took everyone to make a lot of dumplings. Hannah moved the induction cooker in the kitchen to the living room. Everyone just watched TV in the living room while making dumplings and preparing to cook dumplings.

Although the TV was a bit smaller, it still looked pretty good. Harold found a comedy movie "Nine Pins Sesame Official" by Stephen Chow, and the family watched it with relish.

Hannah watched TV and looked at the dumplings in the pot. Soon, the dumplings in the pot floated up, and the fragrance was overflowing for a while, making people appetite when they smell it.

Lady Wilson hurriedly urged: "Hannah, hurry up and give me a bowl."

Christopher said with a smile: "Hurry up and put all the dumplings out, and then cook the next batch. I'll get some vinegar and eat dumplings!"

Harold and Wendy also hurriedly surrounded them.

After Hannah fished out the dumplings, Christopher also came with the old vinegar.

Thus, the five members of the Wilson family happily ate the dumplings they made.

Christopher was the quickest to start, regardless of the fact that the dumplings were still very hot, so he put one into his mouth and muttered vaguely: "Oh my god, this is the delicious stuffing from the dumplings he chopped up!"

Lady Wilson also ate one quickly, and exclaimed, "Oh, these leeks are so tender!"

Hannah asked while eating, "Where did Charlie Wade get such good leeks? You can't buy such good leeks at the vegetable market!"

Lady Wilson ate another one, and said with emotion: "Charlie Wade, a little bastard, is still a little capable. I misunderstood him before. I knew he had this ability to deceive and deceive him. I should have kept him in the Wilson Group. Great use."

Harold hurriedly said: "Grandma, why does the Wilson Group want this kind of waste? Rubbish like Charlie Wade makes money by cheating people will explode sooner or later. I don't know how many people will line up to kill him!"

Lady Wilson hummed, and waved her hand: "Okay, don't talk about that, hurry up. There are so many dumplings today. Everyone eats at least two bowls!"

Chapter 1113

The Wilson family made two kinds of stuffed dumplings, and they made a lot of them. As far as the number of dumplings they made, ten adults could eat enough.

However, the five members of the Wilson family ate all these dumplings. After eating, each of the Wilson family members were already unable to stand up.

Seeing that 20 or 30 dumplings were left on the plate on the table, Mrs. Wilson said to a few people: "Who of you has tried to eat all these dumplings, don't waste it!"

Christopher touched his round belly and said embarrassedly: "Mom, I really can't eat anymore. I can't eat any of them."

Hannah also shook her head again and again and said, "Mom, I can't eat it anymore, I'm eating too much."

Wendy didn't even have the strength to speak, so she slumped on the sofa and waved her hand.

Harold said, "Grandma, why not put it in the refrigerator first, and fry it tomorrow morning before eating."

There was a smirk on Old Lady Wilson's face. She said to Hannah: ", you put these dumplings in a plastic bag and send them to Charlie Wade's house."

Hannah asked in surprise: "Mom, why should good dumplings be sent to their home?"

Lady Wilson smiled and said, "How can I tell them to taste their leeks! I'm mad at them!"

Harold said, "Grandma, do you want to add some laxatives in it?"

Christopher asked: "The dumplings are all wrapped and cooked. Where should the laxatives be added?"

Harold said: "You can grind the laxative into a powder, then drink water and use a syringe to hit the dumplings!"

"Oh, this method is good!" Wendy said happily, "Brother, your method is really wonderful!"

Lady Wilson said: "It happened to me that there was a first aid kit in the storage room of this villa, which contained all medicines and syringes!"

Harold immediately slapped his arms and said, "Okay, I'll leave the matter to my grandma. Tonight, Charlie Wade and his family broke their bowels!"

Having said that, he immediately got up and went to the storage room, and soon raised a plastic box with a red cross logo from inside.

The former owner of this villa has fully prepared the daily necessities. The medicine box is fully prepared for everything from colds and fever, to gastrointestinal conditioning, to chronic diseases such as diabetes and heart disease.

Harold immediately found a bottle of fruit guide film inside and said with a sinister smile: "I have been constipated for a while and I will take this. The effect is very good. Taking two packets will break the intestine."

Wendy hurriedly said, "Then put one pill in each dumpling!"

"Okay!" Harold said with a smile, "Let them have a good time tonight."

After that, Harold began to grind the fruit guide pieces into powder, and then use a syringe to mix water into the dumplings.

But just halfway through the processing of more than 20 dumplings, Harold felt the cramps in his abdomen, and the pain made him clutch his stomach with a cry.

Hannah hurriedly asked him: "What's wrong with you son?"

Harold said in pain: "My stomach hurts so much, mom, it hurts so much, it's like screwing my intestines together...Oh, it hurts me so much..."

After that, Harold felt a strange energy in his abdomen, like a trapped and mad mouse, fleeing to his lower part frantically.

Before he got back to his senses, he instantly released a terrifying fart!

The huge luxurious living room was filled with an extremely disgusting stench.

Lady Wilson was coughed a few times and cursed, "Harold! Do you still have a conscience for putting such a stinky fart in front of your family?"

Wendy also covered her mouth and nose with disgust, and said angrily, "Brother, your fart is too stinky!"

Chapter 1114

Harold said in pain at this moment: "I don't know what's going on, I just feel a pain in my stomach..."

At this point, Harold instantly felt a stronger energy, several times stronger than before, and sprinted crazily downwards at an extremely fast speed.

Immediately afterwards, he heard a puff, and a stronger stench instantly spread throughout the living room.

Christopher glanced under Harold's buttocks and found that brown-black sticky material had leaked out. He exclaimed, "f*cking Harold, why are you pulling your pants!"

"Ah?!" Everyone looked around.

It doesn't matter at this look!

Sure enough, something disgusting oozes under Harold's ass.

Lady Wilson scolded angrily: "Asshole stuff, this sofa is imported from Italy!"

Harold was also frightened, and blurted out, "I...I...I don't know what's going on, but my stomach hurts so much, it hurts so badly, and then I want to fart, no I know how..."

Wendy asked in surprise: "Brother, did you suck the crushed powder into your nose when you squeezed the laxative?"

"No!" Harold's expression was extremely ugly.

Lady Wilson was about to scold him, she suddenly covered her belly, oops, and blurted out: "What's the matter? My stomach hurts to death, oops, oops, no way..."

While the Lady was talking, she stretched out her hand to cover her belly, but she fell to the ground because of a sudden convulsion.

"Mom!" Seeing the Lady fall, Christopher hurriedly got up to help her. As a result, she got up fiercely. He felt as if he had been stabbed several times in a row, painful and uncomfortable!

Immediately afterwards, he also felt the surging feeling in his stomach, and then he felt a hot and humid inside his pants!

Broken! I pulled my pants too! This..... What exactly is going on? !

Lady Wilson was lying on the ground at this time, rolling in pain, and muttered: "Oh, oh, it hurts my Lady to death, it's horrible!"

After speaking, the Lady wowed and vomited all the things she had eaten in her stomach.

Immediately afterwards, I also felt that my abdomen was out of control, and suddenly pulled my pants...

Lady Wilson gushed out uncontrollably, crying to her father and mother: "Call the ambulance, call the ambulance..."

Wendy was about to take out her mobile phone, but her stomach pain was unbearable, and she collapsed on the sofa with a cry, unable to move.

Although Hannah had the latest attack, she soon began to vomit and diarrhea.

The whole living room is almost impossible to buy, it smells worse than the dry toilet on the side of the road.

Harold's bottom was filled with excrement. He wanted to struggle to change to a clean place to sit, but he couldn't use his strength anyway. He had no choice but to grieve his face and twist his uncomfortable eyebrows together. He asked, "Grandma, what are you dumplings? It's not that it's not clean!"

Lady Wilson said weakly, "Impossible. The leeks are fresh, the meat is fresh, and the eggs are fresh. How could there be a problem?"

Wendy 's lips turned purple, and she trembled and said, "Grandma, I feel like a knife cut in my stomach now, so I shouldn't die here..." Christopher gritted his teeth and said, "I'll call 120. You must hold on!"

Chapter 1115

At this time, the Wilson family had no idea what they were doing to vomit and diarrhea so painful.

Narcissus in daffodils is a very powerful and poisonous.

If it is purified narcissus, then only a very small amount is needed, and it may be fatal.

However, the content of this alkaloid in the daffodil itself is still relatively small, so eating too much will cause a very strong sign of food poisoning, but generally speaking, as long as you don't eat too much, it will not be desirable.

Although it is unlikely to be fatal, the pain is definitely not something ordinary people can bear.

It not only causes vomiting and diarrhea, but also fever, convulsions, and nervous system disorders.

If it is eaten hard, it may also cause shock, and then life-threatening.

Everyone in the Wilson family ate a lot today, and it was indeed a bit dangerous.

Even Charlie Wade didn't expect that the Wilson family could eat so much.

It is often reported in the news that some people mistake daffodils for leeks and were poisoned and hospitalized after eating them.

This kind of thing is really easy to confuse.

When 120 arrived, three of the five members of the Wilson family had passed out.

Only Jacob Wilson and Wendy were barely conscious.

But at this time, although they still have a weak consciousness, they can no longer control their bodies, so everyone's crotch is full of excrement.

The living room was so stinky that no one could get in at all. A few 120 emergency doctors immediately turned around and vomited.

Five people vomited and diarrhea, this kind of smell is really very disheartening.

But there was no way. It was important to save people. They still resisted the disgusting taste and rescued the five incontinent Wilson family from the villa.

The medical staff hurriedly rushed the Wilson family to an ambulance and took them to Aurouss Hill People's Hospital.

After a gastric lavage and infusion, the Wilson family finally got some relief and temporarily recovered and was arranged to continue the infusion in the emergency ward.

The Lady Wilson and Hannah's beds were next to each other, and Christopher and others were in the innermost.

At this time, everyone had an earthy face, a sickly look, and they couldn't beat any energy at all.

A doctor wearing a mask came in and asked, "What did your family eat at night? We initially suspected that you should be food poisoned, so you have to think carefully about what you have eaten? We can also determine the scope. Reduce it a bit. If you can't find you, it's because of some poison, then we can't prescribe the right medicine."

Lady Wilson couldn't help muttering: "Our family didn't eat anything else at night, just a meal of dumplings."

"Mom, there is definitely something wrong with this dumpling, otherwise we won't all be food poisoned."

Hannah couldn't help but complained to Mrs. Wilson. She knew that this was the case. What kind of dumplings she would eat with her. Isn't this asking for trouble?

Mrs. Wilson also felt that there was a problem with the dumplings at this time, but there seemed to be no problem in every aspect, so logically speaking, there should be no food poisoning...

Thinking of this, the Lady Wilson said: "We made the dumplings by ourselves. There is no problem of deterioration. What's wrong?"

Harold on the side said bitterly, "Grandma, I heard that many unscrupulous merchants use poor quality pork as a good buy. Is there a problem with pork?"

Chapter 1116

"Pork? Then you have to ask where your mother bought it."

Lady Wilson frowned and looked at Hannah, and asked: "Did you go to the black mall to buy water-infused pork?"

Hannah hurriedly shook her head: "It's impossible. I watched the vendor cut the pork from the half fan. There is absolutely no problem."

When Wendy heard this, she said weakly, "What about that noodle? Isn't the dumpling noodles right?"

Hannah shook her head again: "The noodles are fine, I have eaten it a long time ago."

The noodles are okay, and the pork is okay. Could it be that the problem lies with the leeks?

Thinking of this, Hannah couldn't help but open her mouth: "There must be something wrong with the leeks, maybe there are pesticide residues."

Lady Wilson frowned and said: "The freshly cut fresh leeks can't be a problem, and the sea dragon has also been washed. Even if there are pesticide residues, they are all washed."

Harold said: "I'm taking the washing seriously. I'm stroking the washing one by one."

The Wilson family repeated each sentence several times, and no one could tell why, so they could only stare.

The doctor said helplessly: "If you can't figure out what it is, you can only temporarily wrong you for a while. We will send your blood and secretions to the testing department for testing. If the test results come out, then I can know what poisoning you are."

Lady Wilson nodded weakly, and said, "Then you should have a test quickly!"

After waiting for about an hour, the doctor came over, still holding a few test sheets.

As soon as he entered the door, the doctor said to everyone: "Your test report came out. All five of you are daffodil poisoned, and the poisoning dose is quite large. What's the matter? Are you growing a lot of daffodils in your family?"

Hearing this, the Lady Wilson was stunned, frowning and asked: "Daffodine poisoning? What is that?"

The medical staff said lightly: "Daffodils are a kind of plant, which is often used as a flower to admire. When it is not in bloom, it looks like a leek. Many people eat it by mistake every year."

With that said, the medical staff took out their mobile phones, searched for pictures of daffodils, and handed them to Mrs. Wilson.

"Here, this is it."

Lady Wilson saw the picture of the daffodils, her face turned green, and she trembled and said, "This...isn't this...isn't this the new leeks grown by the Charlie Wade family today? This thing turned out to be a daffodil!!!" Speaking of this, the Lady Wilson could not wait to look up to the sky and curse: "Charlie Wade, you are so poisonous! How can there be a devil like you in the world!"

The doctor asked in surprise: "What's the situation? Has anyone poisoned you? If someone poisons you, you should call the police!"

Harold immediately cursed angrily: "Grandma calls the police! Call the police now! Call the police to catch Charlie Wade's bad day!"

Lady Wilson was also mad, and immediately took out her cell phone, pressed 110 tremblingly, and then dialed.

After the call was connected, the operator immediately asked: "Hello, Alarm Center, what problem do you encounter and need to call the police?"

Lady Wilson said immediately: "Comrade police, our family of 5 has been poisoned, and it is poisoned by others, you must help us uphold justice and catch the poisoned bastard!"

When the operator heard this, he immediately became nervous, and blurted out: "What's the situation? Can you tell us in detail?"

Mrs. Wilson said: "There is a bastard named Charlie Wade who lives in Thompson First Villa A05. This bastard grows daffodils at home to pretend to be leeks!"

"I cut off his family's daffodils in the afternoon and went home to make dumplings. After eating, our family was poisoned. We are now lying in the hospital. You must be fair for us!"

Chapter 1117

The operator asked in surprise: "You ran into someone else's yard and cut off the daffodils grown by someone else?"

"Yes!" Mrs. Wilson blurted out: "He planted that daffodil in front of the wall. I thought it was leeks, so I cut a few handfuls and went home to eat, and then got poisoned. Do you think he committed a crime?"

The operator said helplessly: "I'm sorry this lady, our law does not prohibit any citizen from planting daffodils in his own yard, so there is no problem with others planting daffodils at home. The key is, why do you want to go? In the yard of someone else's home, how about cutting other people's daffodils as leeks for eating? You are already suspected of breaking into the house and stealing other people's property."

"What's the thing?!" Lady Wilson asked annoyedly: "I am poisoned and lying in the hospital now, have I become suspected of committing a crime?"

The operator asked seriously: "If someone comes to your house and stole your car, and then died in a car accident, can he also sue you?"

"This" Old Lady Wilson was speechless at once.

Only then did she realize that Charlie Wade had no problem planting daffodils at home. The problem was that she could not go to someone's house to steal each other's daffodils.

It seems that Charlie Wade had planned for this a long time ago, deliberately planting daffodils that look like leeks in the yard, and then deliberately lured himself to mow, and he didn't have to bear any responsibility!

Thinking of this, Old Lady Wilson hated this in her heart!

Didn't this show that Charlie Wade had been ruthlessly calculated?

Moreover, my family of 5 has gone to the hospital, and I can only suffer from this dumb loss, and there is no way to trouble him!

This kid is such a bastard!

The doctor also understood what was going on, and he was full of disdain for this family of five.

Unexpectedly, they went to someone else's house and stole their daffodils. They were poisoned and sent to the hospital after eating them as leeks. It was really shameful.

So she said lightly: "Let me tell you about your current situation, because I have washed your stomach, so your major problem is gone, but daffodil works in the blood, so we Next, you need to give you fluids to neutralize the toxins in your blood."

Upon hearing this, Mrs. Wilson hurriedly said: "Okay, you should dispense us the medicine quickly, use the best medicine, and don't take the second time to perfuse us."

The medical staff glanced at Mrs. Wilson and the others, and said faintly: "Don't worry, our hospital is a regular hospital. The medication is rigorous and there will be no shoddy things."

Mrs. Wilson breathed a sigh of relief: "That's good, that's good"

However, at this moment, a medical staff came in and sent a list to the doctor.

Holding the test report, the doctor immediately frowned and asked, "Which one of you is Hannah?"

Hearing this, the Wilson family was taken aback for a while, and then Hannah asked suspiciously: "I am, what's the matter?"

The doctor looked at Hannah and said seriously: "That's it, because you need to use drugs to synthesize the narcissus in your body, so I want to explain to you in detail about the use of drugs and the side effects, because you are an elderly pregnant woman. , Pregnant women have strict control on the dosage of the medicine, otherwise it will have teratogenic effects on the child in your stomach, so we can only give you a very small dose of medicine, so your recovery speed will be slower than other people. "

What the hell?

Older pregnant women? !

Chapter 1118

One stone stirred up a thousand waves.

For an instant, everyone in the Wilson family was dumbfounded.

Hannah is pregnant?

What the f*ck is this?

Among the four members of the Wilson family, the most shocking is her husband Christopher!

He knew very well that he had the same sound with Hannah two days ago. Before that, the two had been separated for a long time. During that time, Hannah had been in the black coal kiln and he had never seen it. she was.

Moreover, Christopher still remembers a detail in his heart.

When Hannah set up Elaine Ma, Hannah happened to be in her menstrual period, and she complained to herself that her aunt would not come early or late, so she had to come when she was ready to do it.

This proves that she was not pregnant when she disappeared.

As a result, she is pregnant now? !

What does this prove? This proves that her pregnancy happened during the period of disappearance.

That is to say, this shameless woman slept with other men in the black coal furnace!

As the person who came by, Mrs. Wilson also immediately found out what was wrong.

Hannah herself was struck by lightning, and she slumped in an instant, as if she had been taken out of her bones, turning into a mess.

She opened her mouth wide, her face was full of panic, and she blurted out subconsciously: "What is pregnancy, I am old, how can I be pregnant, you are a medical staff, what nonsense, you are slander, rumors!"

When the doctor heard this, he suddenly said, "Ms. Queen, what do you mean? How could I spread the rumors? The blood test report in my hand clearly stated that the progesterone in your body is very high. High, according to the numerical inference, you have been pregnant for about two months, and the fetus is almost forming."

Hannah knew this kind of thing very well in her heart, and she couldn't admit it to death. Otherwise, how would her husband think of herself, how her mother-in-law would think of herself, and how would her children think of herself?

So Hannah decided not to let go of her mouth.

So she looked at the doctor and stared angrily: "You fart, it is impossible for a person my age to get pregnant. You are definitely misdiagnosed."

The doctor said with a dark face: "Under normal circumstances, it is indeed not easy to get pregnant at your age, but if you have a relationship for a long time and frequently, the chance of pregnancy is not small. For an elderly woman like you, our hospital woman Obstetrics is also a very common thing. We are still in our 50s when we are pregnant and give birth naturally."

How dare Hannah let the medical staff continue talking, and yelled: "Shut up, you are a quack doctor, if you continue, I will call the police to arrest you, and I will say it again. I am not pregnant, let alone pregnant."

The doctor got angry, took out the report, and said word by word: "Do you think your mouth can tell us about our test report? The test report clearly states, you! Hannah! I am pregnant! But for your own good, I kindly remind you that you can't use large doses of medicine. How can you treat it like a donkey liver and lungs?"

Christopher struggled to get up, grabbed the list from the doctor, and when he looked intently, he was trembling with anger!

The Lady Wilson saw that Christopher's expression was extremely ugly, and she blurted out and asked: "Son! Is it true?! This b*tch is really pregnant?!"

Chapter 1119

Hearing Mrs. Wilson's inquiry, Christopher looked at the contents of the list, gritted his teeth and nodded in a dark face.

Seeing him nodded, Old Lady Wilson immediately felt her heart hurt. She stretched out her hand to cover her heart, and yelled.

Both Harold and Wendy were very embarrassed. At this moment, they didn't know what to say.

After all, it was his own mother, and she couldn't speak at this time as children.

Christopher gritted his teeth at this time, his eyes were bloodshot, and he glared at Hannah as if he was choosing someone, and cursed angrily:

"btch! Did you fcking sleep with other men in the black coal mine?! With Who slept?!"

Hannah had collapsed at this time.

She had already made an appointment with the obstetrics and gynecology doctor, and she would come over for the abortion operation on Monday. As long as the operation was completed, no one would know about her pregnancy.

However, Hannah never dreamed that she would be sent to the hospital for a meal of dumplings, and then the blood was checked by a doctor in the emergency department of the hospital.

The blood indicators of her pregnancy are already very obvious, as long as the blood test will be able to detect it.

If I knew this was the case, if I killed myself, I would not eat dumplings!

However, now that things have been revealed, I can only find ways to make up for myself.

So she cried and said: "Christopher, listen to my explanation and keep doing it! I also have difficulties!"

"Explain your mother! Your mother is struggling!"

Christopher suddenly roared hysterically, and cursed: "You shameless bitch, dare to cuckold Master, sleep with other men, and you're pregnant with another man's wild species. I fcking kill you.!"

While speaking, Christopher rushed directly to Hannah, grabbed her hair, and flicked her face against Hannah.

The applause is clearly audible. The painful Hannah wailed in pain.

"Christopher, listen to my explanation! I'm all forced to be helpless!"

"Explanation, what else is there to explain! You are f*cking dead! I want your life!"

Lady Wilson almost didn't turn her back in anger, her eyes were full of anger, and her hands trembled crazily.

The family is unfortunate, the family is unfortunate!

"Hannah, you b*tch, as a woman, how can you do such a shameless thing, tarnish the reputation of our Wilson family, and put our Wilson family to shame! You slut should be immersed in pigs? Cage, go to hell!"

The Lady scolded and cursed, and cursed Hannah with the most vicious words in the world.

Accompanied by Christopher's brutal beating!

Although Christopher's body was still very weak at this time, being put on a green hat, something that all men couldn't bear, still stimulated the potential angry energy in his body, causing him to burst out all at once.

Hannah was beaten up and screamed, but before she could beg for mercy, the Lady Wilson picked up a broom in the ward, rushed up and beat Hannah. The Lady is proud of her life and hates others for insulting the Wilson family. Now the eldest daughter-in-law came back with a wild species from outside, how could she accept it?

Moreover, the Lady is getting older, and her thinking is not only feudal but also outdated. In her opinion, Hannah, a shameless and unruly b*tch woman, should kill her in order to emulate her!

Seeing Christopher and Mrs. Wilson beating Hannah together.

The female doctor was shocked when she saw this scene, she kept shouting next to her: "You guys stop! If you don't stop, I will call the police!"

Seeing that the two of them remained unmoved and continued to beat Hannah, the female doctor could only turn her head to look at Wendy and Harold on the side, and blurt out: "You two are in charge, you can't watch your mother get beaten.?"

The two of them have been watching with cold eyes, and even a little bit of anger in their eyes.

Under normal circumstances, it is certainly impossible to watch mother get beaten. Even if there is a conflict in the family, the two must come forward to reconcile as children.

But this time the situation is too special.

Their mother stayed outside for so long, and when she came back she was pregnant with someone else's child. They also felt very embarrassed about this kind of thing.

Today's children are mostly selfish, and in most cases only care about themselves.

It is often reported on TV that some older parents are pregnant and want to give birth to their children, but they have become children of their age, but they do not agree with them alive and dead.

Wendy and Harold are such selfish children. When Hannah made them feel embarrassed, they didn't care about Hannah's difficulties or what kind of torture she had endured.

They only know that their mother is not obedient to women, and it feels embarrassing for them.

Hannah was beaten up at this time, and her whole body complained endlessly. She endured the murderous hands of Mrs. Wilson and Christopher. She looked at the eyes of her sons and daughters without mentioning how painful she was.

Seeing the cold eyes of her children facing her, Hannah's heart almost collapsed at this moment.

She didn't know where the power came from, she suddenly pushed away the two people who had beaten her, and shouted: "You are enough! What if I sleep with someone? Do you think I want it? I am a woman, in a place like a black coal kiln, I don't have enough food, don't wear warm clothes, sleep enough, and have to do heavy physical work and be beaten. What can I do?"

Speaking of this, Hannah was extremely emotional, and said hysterically: "If I didn't agree to the supervisor or sleep with him, I might not survive now. I might have died in that black coal pit. ! But think about it, why did I end up like this? Isn't it for this family?"

After that, she looked at Christopher and angrily rebuked, "Christopher, you have no conscience. You set up a bureau for Elaine Ma. Didn't I want to make more money for my family? Didn't I want to give my family a chance to live? Going to the big villa of the Thompson First? The result? I sacrificed so much for this family, but you are still doing this to me. Are you still human? What qualifications do you have to point to me, and have the ability to go to Charlie Wade? !"

Anger, humiliation, panic, all kinds of thoughts rushed to her heart, Hannah couldn't help but broke out, shaking the matter out of her head. She felt that she was the victim, so why should she receive such unfair treatment.

Why?

However, Lady Wilson and Christopher did not listen to Hannah's explanation at all.

For them, no matter what purpose Hannah was for or what persecution he encountered, the humiliation brought to the Wilson family was unforgivable!

When Christopher thought of wearing a green hat on his head, and maybe even more than one, his whole person almost collapsed and he fell into a frantic vent of anger.

Lady Wilson felt that Hannah was thrown into the face of Wilson's family. It was a crime to live. How could it be possible to listen to her explanation?

So, the Lady Wilson roared: "You b*tch are still here yelling at us? Did you know that the most important thing for a woman is chastity!"

Christopher also took the conversation, glaring and yelling angrily:

"Hannah, you should have died in that black coal pit! At least you can keep your purity! You are pregnant with a wild species, how can you have a face to live? In this world? I think you just jumped down here to die!"

Chapter 1121

Her husband would even let herself jump off the building, Hannah was immediately furious!

She pointed at Christopher angrily, and cursed: "Christopher, you are a dog, don't forget, who has been behind you for so many years to support you, help you, and take care of you. You are now because I betrayed in order to survive. How many times do you want me to die? Are you still a human?"

Christopher gritted his teeth and cursed: "Stop the damn nonsense! You should be thankful that this is not ancient times, otherwise I must kill you myself! Give me a cuckold Christopher, you are so brave!"

Lady Wilson looked at the painful look of her elder son Christopher. She was angry. She slammed Hannah on the crutches and cursed: "Christopher has never been so angry when he grows up. Blame you b*tch, look at your good deeds!"

Hannah was stabbed in pain by a crutches, and grinned and said, "Dead Lady, don't blame me for your mistakes. If it weren't for me and the Webb family, you are still squatting in the detention center. How could it be possible for you to live in Thompson First? Thank you for having it today!"

Mrs. Wilson suddenly said sternly, "You don't fart here. Mr. Webb values our family's ability. What does it have to do with you shameless woman? Even if you died in a black coal pit, Mr. Webb will still find us. Will let us live in Thompson First!"

Hannah cursed: "You are a dead old woman, pick up a bowl to eat, put down your chopsticks and scold your mother, you are talking about someone like you! You don't even have a sense of gratitude, no wonder the Wilson family will fall into this place today. To the point! With you, an old woman in charge, the Wilson family can only get worse and worse in the future!"

After that, she looked at Christopher again, gritted her teeth and cursed: "And you Christopher! Don't look like you are unlovable. Didn't the Lady just put you a green hat? Do you think the Lady is willing to survive?"

Christopher cursed angrily: "Go to your uncle in order to survive! You should defend your chastity with death!"

Hannah gritted her teeth and cursed: "fck your mother, my Lady dared to pack a ticket. If you were put in the environment of the black coal kiln at that time, you could fcking sell your a to survive!"

Hearing Hannah's sophistry, Christopher exploded all at once, and scolded angrily: "What are you talking about? I sell my ass? I f*cking kill you today! I can't save you!"

The doctor could not stop the family of three, so he immediately took out the phone and dialed 110...

When there was a mess in the ward, Donald was at home, having a meeting with family members.

He opened his mouth to several of his younger brothers: "Now my father is not awake, the Eight Heavenly Kings will not listen to my orders for the time being, but I have sent a large team to Golim Mountain to grab the Weaver family father and son. After the Weaver family father and son are taken back, we will One more helper."

Thomas Webb asked a little puzzled: "Brother, why are you working so hard to save the Weaver family father and son?"

"You don't understand." Donald said with a cold face: "Weaver's Pharmaceuticals is a company with a market value of several billion, and it is also somewhat famous in China. If we rescue the Weaver family and his son, we must help the Weaver family and his son to retake Weaver. However, I will sign an agreement with the Weaver family and his sons in advance. I will help them regain the Weaver's Pharmaceuticals. They will give me 70% of the Weaver's Pharmaceuticals. I believe they will agree!" "After all, they will never be reconciled. It is better to dig ginseng in the place where birds do not shit and come back to be my dog than to live there!"

Donald's third brother, Levi, said calmly: "Big brother, even if Weaver's Pharmaceuticals gives us it, it's only a few billion. Although our family's market value has fallen a lot now, it's not enough to see the billions in our eyes. ."

Donald snorted and said lightly: "You don't even understand, why should I get shares in Weaver's Pharmaceuticals? It's because I want to use Weaver's Pharmaceuticals to negotiate with Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals in Japan."

Chapter 1122

Everyone looked surprised: "Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall? Why negotiate with them? Isn't this a Japanese company?"

Donald said: "I got the news some time ago that the Japanese Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall was also pitted by Charlie Wade, and Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall has always wanted to develop their business to China, but there has been a lack of a good opportunity."

"If the control of Weaver's Pharmaceuticals is in my hands, then I can cooperate with Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals, so that Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals can enter the Chinese market faster."

"At the same time, Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals will definitely unite with me to deal with Charlie Wade. Then Charlie Wade will be killed, and Weaver's Pharmaceuticals and Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals will cooperate deeply. By then, this line can make more money. You can do more with one stone, what Happy but not doing it?"

When Thomas and Levi heard this, they immediately admired them and said: "Brother, you are foresight! If this is the case, we not only have a strong ally, but also a very promising revenue channel!"

Donald smiled and nodded, and said, "You guys, learn more. Only by making progress faster can you better help me."

Thomas Webb said at this time: "Big Brother, I still don't understand, why did you want the LOW group from the Wilson family to get in? This group of people is really a bunch of rubbish in my eyes. Even if Charlie Wade is disgusting, they are not enough. "

Donald said with an unpredictable look: "You don't understand, the Wilson family are small people in the market. There are many things that only the people in the market can do the best. The lower the population, the more you can sometimes toss. I don't know what incredible things they will toss about tomorrow, maybe they will surprise them?"

As he was talking, his assistant rushed in and said, "Mr. Webb, something happened to the Wilson family!"

Donald frowned: "What's the situation?"

The assistant said: "Aurouss Hillll Police Station received an alarm, and the Wilson family fought themselves in the hospital."

Donald asked, "What's the matter? They didn't give me a good disgusting Charlie Wade for Thompson First, so why did they go to the hospital to fight?"

The assistant said embarrassingly: "That's Mr. Webb. The Lady from the Wilson family went to Charlie Wade's house and stole some leeks. At night, the family of 5 used these leeks to make dumplings, but unexpectedly, those were not leeks at all. It was daffodils, so all five members of the family were food poisoned and were taken to the hospital." Having said that, the assistant took a breath and continued: "After the family was sent to the hospital, the doctor checked their blood. It was unexpectedly discovered that Hannah was pregnant. Moreover, according to her pregnancy, the baby in her belly It should have been conceived in a black coal mine. Christopher and Mrs. Wilson felt that Hannah was insulting to the family, so they started fighting with her."

Donald was stunned.

His two younger brothers and some of the juniors who attended the meeting couldn't help laughing when they heard this.

Donald also said just now, I don't know what incredible things these low-end people can do. Unexpectedly, it is ironic enough to let them toss out such an incredible thing right now.

And Donald's expression at this time was even uglier than eating shit!

I let this group of people fight Charlie Wade, but these bastards are specifically fighting themselves, right?

Chapter 1123

At this moment, Donald thought to himself that he would let this family get out of the Thompson First, and let it go by itself.

But thinking about it carefully, he was very unwilling.

He opened his mouth and said to everyone: "I know what you think in your heart. You all feel that this family is too low and can't do anything. But if you think about it carefully, I can be sickened today, and maybe I will get sick tomorrow. The problem now is that this family is not doing it in one place. If this family is twisted into a rope, I believe they are still very effective!"

Thomas Webb couldn't help asking: "Brother, how should we make this family become a rope? Now that Hannah is pregnant with other men's children, how could Christopher still be willing to twist a rope with her? And that old man? Madam, she is not a fuel-efficient lamp."

Donald said coldly: "If they can't twist them together, then I will weld them together! I want to see if it is more important for them to save face or survive!"

Aurouss Hillll People's Hospital.

After receiving the call, several police officers came to the hospital ward.

Hannah was already beaten by the Lady and Christopher.

Fortunately, everyone was poisoned by food, and they weren't quite well, so they couldn't use all their strength when fighting, otherwise Hannah would be beaten to death.

After the police arrived, they separated the people first, and then asked sternly: "What's the matter with you? Don't you know that the hospital is a public place? How dare you fight here?"

Lady Wilson hurriedly said: "Comrade police, this is our own family affair."

The police scolded: "Housework should be solved at home, why do you want to do it here?"

Christopher pointed at Hannah angrily and blurted out: "Comrade police, this woman is stealing a man outside, and she is pregnant with other men's seeds. What's even more hateful is that she didn't tell me, and kept hiding it. Me! If it weren't for the accidental investigation in the hospital today, I might still be in the dark!"

The police couldn't help frowning, feeling a little more sympathetic to Christopher.

However, he still said in business matters: "It is difficult for an upright official to cut off housework. You should settle these matters within the house. If you can say it well, just let it go and live it well. If you say it is not good, go to the Civil Affairs Bureau to get a divorce. , No one will delay anyone, why bother to fight in public? Take a step back and talk about the ugliness of the family, right?"

Christopher nodded repeatedly and said, "Comrade police is right."

After speaking, he looked at Hannah and said unceremoniously: "Hannah, you unfaithful woman, I want to divorce you! I must leave! I will leave early tomorrow morning!"

The Lady Wilson also said decisively: "Yes! Divorce! Only a divorce can save the face of our Wilson family, let her take that wild species and get out!"

And Harold and Wendy , who had never spoken much, had very complicated eyes.

For them, the facts today are too shocking, and they can't react at all. Their mother cheated and became pregnant, and their father wanted to divorce her again.

Could it be that this family just broke up like this?

Hannah was also very broken. She paid so much for this family, and she exchanged for such a result! She is unwilling!

Why did I have suffered so much and suffered so much sin?

Isn't it just for this home?

And now my husband is going to divorce me!

If not for her, everyone in the Wilson family would still be squatting in the detention center.

How could the Wilson family live in Thompson First Villa without her?

Chapter 1124

Hannah became more angry as she thought about it. She pointed to Christopher and cursed, "Christopher, do you want to cross the river to break the bridge? I tell you, I will never agree to a divorce! Do you want to divorce me, right? Okay, I will do it now. Call Thomas Webb and let him comment!"

With that said, Hannah took out her mobile phone and dialed Donald's number.

To her surprise, the call was immediately connected.

As soon as the phone was connected, Hannah cried and said, "Mr. Webb, you have to call the shots for me, Mr. Webb!"

Donald asked coldly: "What's the matter?"

Hannah said: "Christopher did the unscrupulous person who wanted to divorce me. He and his mother beat me together, even the police came!"

Donald sternly said: "It's really unreasonable. Give the phone to the Lady!"

Hannah handed the phone to Lady Wilson immediately, and said with a successful face: "Webb always wants to talk to you!"

Lady Wilson hurriedly answered the phone and said respectfully: "Hello, Mr. Webb!"

On the other end of the phone, Donald asked in a low voice, "What? I heard that you and your son beat Hannah?"

Lady Wilson complained immediately: "Mr. Webb, you don't know that this woman who doesn't obey the law of women has ruined our family's reputation! And she is pregnant with someone else's wild species!"

Donald blurted out: "I warn you old stuff. I will bring your family of five together and send you back to live in Thompson First. It is for you to unite and help me trouble Charlie Wade. All the demon moths! If your son dares to divorce Hannah, then your family can get out of the Thompson First villa! If in the future I hear of any unfriendly behavior towards Hannah, then you can also get out Yes, do you understand?"

When Lady Wilson heard this, she became anxious and blurted out: "Mr. Webb, this woman is really hateful. There are other wild species in her stomach! How can we bear it?"

Donald asked, "I can't bear it, right? Since I can't bear it, then from now on, Thompson First has nothing to do with you! Go away!"

Mrs. Wilson was too frightened and blurted, "Mr. Webb, Mr. Webb! Don't do this! Can we all listen to you?"

Donald said coldly: "Where is your son? Does he agree?"

Lady Wilson had no intention to ask Christopher at all.

Because she knew that no matter what she sacrificed, she could not sacrifice Thompson First's villa.

I finally had the opportunity to live in, and would not want to move out even if I was killed.

As long as we can keep Thompson First, even if Hannah wants to give birth to this child, she can bear it!

As for my son, I can't bear it anymore, I can't manage so much anymore.

So the Lady Wilson immediately made a decision for Christopher, and blurted out: "Don't worry, Mr. Webb, he will never have any opinions! This family is my old woman's final say!"

Donald was satisfied and said coldly: "If this is the case, then I will give you another chance, but you must remember what I said and dare to have any disobedience. I will not only let your family get out, but also All your family will be sent to the black coal mine!"

After all, Donald hung up the phone.

At this time, Christopher hurried forward and asked, "Mom, what did Mr. Webb say?"

Lady Wilson glanced at Hannah with a vicious look, and said to Christopher: "As Mr. Webb said, you are never allowed to divorce Hannah, and we are not allowed to do anything unkind to her, otherwise. , Let us get out of Thompson First, and send us to the black coal kiln!"

Christopher's eyes were dark, and he fainted with a puff

Chapter 1125

Christopher had the desire to die at this moment.

He never expected that Donald would stand up for Hannah.

This made myself very uncomfortable.

Christopher also lived proudly for half his life, and had never tried to feel like being cuckolded. As a result, I didn't expect that not only was the green hat worn, but the wife even came back pregnant with wild plants.

More importantly, I couldn't even divorce her.

Isn't this trying to stick the green hat on your head?

At this moment, he hated Hannah crazy, but when he thought of Donald's words, he immediately persuaded him again.

He also knew that he couldn't disobey Donald's meaning, otherwise, not only would he be unlucky, but the entire Wilson family would be unlucky.

The only life-saving straw for the current Wilson family is that if you offend Donald, everyone will instantly fall from living in the Thompson First villa to the street, without food and clothing.

In order to survive, for the Thompson First, for the Wilson Group, he can only bear the pain of wearing this green hat.

Moreover, he will continue to live with Hannah, this feeling makes him collapse.

But in order to survive, he can only compromise.

So he gritted his teeth and said to Hannah: "I don't need to divorce you, but the child in your stomach must be killed!"

The Lady Wilson nodded, and said coldly: "Yes, our Wilson family doesn't keep any evil seeds, we have to abort."

Hannah was already satisfied with the concessions made by the Wilson family, and she was the one who didn't want to give birth to a child last.

After all, it was a dirty, ugly, middle-aged old hanging silk that made myself pregnant with this child!

Not only did he let himself be pregnant with this child, he also infected himself with a lot of venereal diseases.

Whenever thinking of this, Hannah would like to kill that supervisor.

Therefore, Hannah agreed: "Don't worry, I have made an appointment to have a baby on Monday, and I will definitely not give birth to this child."

Lady Wilson said coldly: "This is the best!"

Hannah sighed at this time, and said with emotion: "In fact, you should really understand me. I have tasted all the sufferings of the world in the black coal kiln. It is you who supported me to survive, because you are mine. family....."

What Hannah said was a true love confession, but Christopher felt very sick when he listened. He said in a cold voice, "Okay, don't sell it if you get a bargain. If it wasn't for Mr. Webb to protect you, I would have Kicked you out!"

Seeing Christopher's extremely angry look, Hannah also put away the sigh just now, and said coldly: "Christopher, I will give you a chance to live a good life. If you have to ask yourself to be boring, then I will be accompanied by Hannah. in the end!"

Christopher was furious, and was about to scold his mother, the Lady Wilson shouted sharply: "Okay! Stop talking!"

Only then did Christopher shut his mouth.

Lady Wilson said coldly: "You all stop me one by one. Why are you making a noise here? Mr. Webb has already spoken, and you are still quarreling. Are you happy if you want to destroy the Wilson family?!"

For Mrs. Wilson, if anything affects her staying at the Thompson First, and her revival of the Wilson Group, no matter how important things are, she must stand aside.

Christopher and Hannah both had embarrassed expressions, but Hannah had a slightly more successful expression.

She knew that the Lady had compromised.

Lady Wilson said with a black face: "Okay, my family has experienced everything, and many things are naturally open to them."

Chapter 1126

As she said, she looked at Christopher and said coldly: "Christopher, you think Hannah puts a green hat on you, you are upset, but have you ever thought that you two personally took Wendy for five million? In the arms of Kenneth Wilson?"

When these words came out, everyone bowed their heads.

Wendy's face was ashamed and unbearable, but she didn't dare to refute anything.

Christopher's face flushed even more.

Yes, the Lady is right.

When I was cuckold, I became furious and felt that Hannah was insulting, but as a father, he once sent his daughter to an old man who was one year older than him.

Lady Wilson saw that everyone was afraid to talk, so she said coldly: "Now, everyone's buttocks are not clean. Don't think anyone is dirty. They will unite me, work together, and revitalize the Wilson Group. Listen. Do you understand?"

Everyone hurriedly said: "I understand!"

After that, the Lady Wilson said to other people: "Also, no one is allowed to mention this matter again in the future, otherwise, drive out of Wilson's family in order to follow your example."

Christopher and others looked solemnly. Everyone knew that Mrs. Wilson was not joking, and it was impossible to publicize such scandals.

Hannah's matter has come to an end.

Christopher's inner anger has alleviated a lot, and the Lady's mobilization has indeed worked.

So, a family of five lay back on the hospital bed. Seeing that the farce had ended, the doctor immediately came over and gave them an infusion to neutralize the daffodine in their bodies.

However, Christopher suddenly felt that itching in his crotch was unbearable. He put his hand under the bed and scratched it quietly, unexpectedly, the more itching became.

But he thought it was a sign of poisoning, and didn't care too much.

.....

At this moment, Thompson First.

Charlie Wade's family just finished eating.

Two middle-aged men in suits knocked on the door and said respectfully to Charlie Wade: "Hello sir, we are from Thompson First Property Management Company. Just now, a group food poisoning incident occurred in our community a04. A family of 5. Everyone has been taken away by ambulances, so our property here specially reminds owners to pay attention to food hygiene and safety. Please pay more attention."

Before Charlie Wade spoke, his mother-in-law Elaine Ma approached her curiously: "The five members of the a04 family were all pulled away by the ambulance? What happened to them?"

One of the men in a suit said respectfully, "Ms. Hello, the owner of a04 has a family of five. All of them have been poisoned by food and have been taken to the hospital. Do you eat any wild animals or wild mushrooms in your home? ?"

Elaine Ma smiled and said: "Oh, our family doesn't eat that kind of food. Unlike the poor a04, the poor went to other people's homes to steal food!"

The person from the property company smiled awkwardly and said: "We also inform you to pay more attention. Since you have this awareness of prevention, it would be best!"

After the people from the two properties left, Elaine Ma said with a smile: "Oh, it's really evil and retribution. I said that the Wilson family didn't live in Thompson First's life! Sure enough, something went wrong, haha, really good !"

Claire Wilson Wilson asked curiously: "Mom, what's the matter?"

Elaine Ma smiled and said, "Your grandma and his family were poisoned by food and were taken away by an ambulance. Haha, it deserves it!"

"Food poisoning?" Claire Wilson Wilson asked in surprise: "How could food poisoning happen? Didn't they steal our food? We are fine."

Jacob Wilson also said in surprise, "Isn't they eating stale meat?"

Charlie Wade said lightly: "I guess they should have eaten the daffodils I planted."

Chapter 1127

"Daffodils?" Claire Wilson Wilson asked in surprise: "Where are the daffodils? How can they eat them?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "The pile of plants I planted at the foot of the wall, which looks like leeks, is actually daffodils."

"Mom!" Claire Wilson Wilson blurted out, "Isn't that leeks? I really want to eat it!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "It looks like leek, but not leek."

Claire Wilson Wilson said, "I remember it was said in the biology book that daffodils are poisonous?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said with a smile: "My wife knows a lot.

Daffodils are indeed poisonous. There is a kind of daffodil in the body. Excessive consumption can cause poisoning."

Elaine Ma widened her eyes and exclaimed: "Oh, Charlie Wade! You did it on purpose? No wonder you asked me what vegetables my Lady likes to eat. I told you that she likes to eat leeks. You made so many daffodils. This is deliberately cheating them!"

Charlie Wade said with a serious face: "Mom, you can't say that. I don't mean to cheat anyone. I just planted daffodils in our yard. As for who stole it, After eating it again, it has nothing to do with me."

Elaine Ma hurriedly smiled and said, "Oh, my dear son-in-law, where did you think of it? Do you think your mother will blame you? Mom is grateful that you are too late! You did such a beautiful job today and helped her out. A breath of bad breath!"

Jacob Wilson couldn't help asking: "This Charlie Wade, if you eat too much daffodil, will it be life-threatening?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "No, it's a food poisoning at best."

"That's good." Jacob Wilson breathed a sigh of relief and said, "Although their family is too much, but after all, blood is thicker than water. You can teach them, but you can't kill them."

Elaine Ma pointed at Jacob Wilson and cursed: "You are the benevolence of women! You don't want their lives, they want yours! Do you know how your mother did me in prison? My leg is It was broken by your mother!"

Speaking of this, Elaine Ma was very indignant and reprimanded: "This damn Lady is poisoned! She should also be taught a lesson, see if she dare to be so terrible in the future!"

Jacob Wilson said helplessly: "It's okay to give a lesson, as long as you don't kill anyone."

Elaine Ma snorted coldly: "Your mother has treated you so badly for so many years, and you still have such affection for him. I have worked hard with you for so many years, and you have to live with me and divorce me. , You have no conscience!"

Jacob Wilson said angrily: "You don't want to talk about us in everything!"

Elaine Ma contemptuously said: "I don't want to say, I just want to tell you, it's impossible for me to divorce you anyway!"

Seeing that the two were about to quarrel again, Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly said: "Oh, don't quarrel, don't talk about it every time, no matter what topic you talk about."

Elaine Ma curled his lips: "I don't want to talk to him."

As she was talking, she suddenly received a WeChat message on her mobile phone, and a woman sent her a voice message: "Oh, Sister Elaine Ma, have you watched the video website? There is another major incident in your family!"

Elaine Ma exclaimed and hurriedly asked: "What happened to our family?"

The other party said: "Your mother-in-law, and your husband and his brother's family were fighting in the hospital. The video was taken by a nurse and uploaded to the Internet."

"Really?!" As soon as Elaine Ma heard that it was an Lady and they were fighting in the hospital, he immediately became interested and hurriedly said: "Send it to me, hurry up, hurry up!"

So the other party immediately sent a video.

Elaine Ma hurriedly clicked on the video. After the video was buffered, he saw Christopher and Mrs. Wilson beating Hannah violently.

Charlie Wade and the others were stunned. No one thought that this family would have food poisoning, and they would still have time to fight when they entered the hospital. And looking at this posture, how did it look like food poisoning?

However, more shocking is still to come.

Chapter 1128

Through Christopher's swearing words, everyone heard the root cause of their big fight in the hospital!

It turned out that Hannah was pregnant!

And the child she was pregnant with was not done by Christopher!

When Elaine Ma saw this, she burst into laughter: "Hahahahaha, I really wanted to laugh at my Lady. It turns out that Hannah was pregnant with someone else's child outside, hahahaha!"

Jacob Wilson couldn't help but exclaimed: "This woman is too shameless. She went out with other men. She still has the face to come back when she is pregnant with other people's children?"

Elaine Ma laughed and said, "Lady Wilson is mad now. Didn't she always think that the eldest daughter-in-law is particularly good? This time is so good, I really have to give her a face!"

Claire Wilson Wilson said embarrassingly: "This matter is so violent, then it is estimated that the uncle is going to divorce Hannah, right?" "Is hr still waiting for her to have a baby?" Jacob Wilson is also a man. Although he is very uncomfortable with his brother, he can also experience his despair.

So in his opinion, a woman like Hannah who is not obedient to women's way must divorce her and drive her out of the house.

Charlie Wade couldn't help but slander. Presumably, Hannah was pregnant in the black coal kiln. He didn't expect that this Lady was playing very well, and there would be an affair in the black coal kiln.

But it does not rule out the possibility of being forced.

At this time, Elaine Ma's friend sent another voice: "Sister Elaine Ma, is this video irritating?"

Elaine Ma laughed and said: "The excitement is really too exciting, it makes me feel refreshed!"

Her friend laughed and said, "I just came back to another video, which is more exciting!"

Elaine Ma hurriedly said: "Send me, send me!"

Immediately afterwards, a video was posted on her WeChat.

When I clicked on this video, I found that Mrs. Wilson was trying to persuade Christopher to make peace with Hannah!

When he saw this, Elaine Ma was stunned.

She couldn't understand in any case, how could a face-saving person like Lady Wilson allow Hannah to stay in Wilson's house with other people's children? !

And the following content is even more shocking!

That's how the Lady persuaded them.

She said that although Hannah put a green hat on Christopher, Christopher gave her daughter to an older man who was older than him for five million!

The whole family is very dirty and the bottoms are not clean. Don't blame anyone.

This is simply subverting the perception of normal people!

Not only did they subvert the understanding of the relationship between Christopher and Hannah, but also broke out a bigger melon by the way.

It turns out that not only was the mother stealing people outside, but the father also sold his daughter to other bad old men...

People were shocked and criticized on the Internet. They said: "This family is simply the most subversive family they have ever seen. There is no good person in the whole family. They are all shameless people, and they are extremely shameless! People getting together really complied with the old saying, it's not that a family doesn't enter a family!"

The Wilson family, who had just experienced a poisoning and a big uproar, did not know that they are now famous throughout Aurouss Hilll!

Chapter 1129

That night, the video of the Wilson family spread rapidly throughout Aurouss Hilll.

This video was quickly posted on Facebook, but Charlie Wade instructed Facebook to block the video.

He still doesn't want this video, it exudes too strong influence, especially does not want this video to spread outside Aurouss Hilll.

As for the reason, he knew that Donald would definitely invest a sum of money in the Wilson family to support the Wilson Group. If the Wilson family is now notorious all over the country, it is likely to affect Donald's decision.

Charlie Wade didn't want the Wilson family to cool off too early. It would be better if Donald invested in the Wilson family and then broke the Wilson family scandal, so that not only the Wilson family's face could be hit, but Donald's face could be hit.

The Wilson family tossed all night, coupled with their infusion of drugs specifically for daffodine, all five people became lethargic, not knowing that their scandal had spread in Aurouss Hilll.

The next morning.

After the doctor checked Wilson's family, he confirmed that they were not in any serious condition, and then let them go home.

The first thing the Lady Wilson did after she was discharged from the hospital was to call Donald and ask Donald when she promised to invest in the Wilson Group's 80 million Dollar and when it will be honored.

Although Donald was disgusted enough by this family, he believed that after unanimously outside, the family could explode more powerful energy in the direction of disgusting people, and then disgusted Charlie Wade well, so he immediately benefited from his assistant. Directly inject 80 million Dollar into the Wilson Group.

Thinking of this, Donald said again: "Well, I promised to support your Wilson family before. It just so happens that the real estate project I invested in Aurouss Hilll is about to start. I will soon participate in the bidding of urban land. After the bidding is over, a large-scale project is needed. The decoration company, let this project be done by your Wilson family."

When the Lady Wilson heard this, her excited face flushed, and she hurriedly said, "Mr. Webb, please rest assured that the Wilson family was originally in the construction industry, and it is absolutely no problem to leave the decoration to us."

Donald said coldly, "The reason for investing in you and giving you projects is to let you unite and deal with Charlie Wade unanimously, so you must not give me any more moths, otherwise, I will not only If you want to withdraw your investment, you will also be suspended, and you will be kicked out of Thompson First. I, Donald, can hold you up and step on you. Do you understand?"

Mrs. Wilson was so excited that she nodded her head like garlic and said: "Don't worry, Mr. Webb, the Wilson family will definitely unite in the future! Moreover, the Wilson family will be your dog, Mr. Webb, as long as you say a word, Wilson Don't dare not follow your family up and down!" Donald said with satisfaction: "Remember what you told me just now, and be a dog. I will not treat you badly."

"sure!"

After hanging up the phone, Mrs. Wilson immediately informed Christopher and others about these two things.

When Hannah heard that Donald made them unite, she felt even more proud. She knew that this was her own death-free gold medal, as long as Donald's words were there, Christopher would never dare to divorce herself.

Looking at Hannah's triumphant expression, Christopher felt even more uncomfortable.

It is absolutely impossible for him to swallow this breath, but to let him really give up Hannah will offend the Webb family.

Give him ten thousand courage, he wouldn't dare to do that!

Lady Wilson also saw that her eldest son was upset, so she again urged: "Christopher, you have heard what Mr. Webb said. If you ruin the Wilson family and the Wilson group, don't blame me, this mother You're welcome." Thinking of this, Christopher said humiliateingly: "I know Mom."

However, although Christopher was a little depressed about Hannah's affairs, the Webb family's willingness to invest in the Wilson family to allow the Wilson-style group to be established again, and even willing to hand over the decoration of the new project to the Wilson family, still made him feel inexplicably excited.

Chapter 1130

Not only him, but the entire Wilson family was very excited.

Because everyone knows that the Wilson family will finally look up this time!

Harold smiled and said to Mrs. Wilson: "Grandma, now our Wilson family is going to develop, and Webb family will give money and projects again, making it clear that we are going to start praising us!"

While speaking, Harold secretly made plans in his heart.

Once upon a time, Harold was also a well-known rich second generation. He lived every day with rich clothes and food, surrounded by countless people and complimented him.

But during this time, his life was like hell, and everyone who knew him in Aurouss Hillll knew that he had now become a bereaved dog.

Now it was finally time for his Harold to turn over.

Wendy also looked forward to saying, "When our family develops, won't it be possible to make more money and live more extravagantly than before?!"

For such a long time, Wendy's life has been extremely miserable. Not only has her reputation been ruined, but her money has also been lost, and her life has been particularly poor.

But now she can resume the extravagant and wasteful life of the past, which makes her extremely excited.

Lady Wilson was even more excited.

She knew that after the money arrived, it would not only solve all the debt crisis of the Wilson Group, but also allow the bank to return all the houses and antiques that were sealed up.

.....

The news of the resurgence of the Wilson Group's investment from the Webb family once again caused quite a stir in Aurouss Hillll.

Originally, based on the size of the Wilson-style group, it simply couldn't attract so much attention.

But this time, it was the Webb family supporting the Wilson Group, so the Wilson Group received high attention all of a sudden.

Although the Webb family is now deeply condemned by public opinion and suffered heavy losses, it is after all a large family of 100 billion Dollar. They support the Wilson Group. In the eyes of others, the Wilson Group has already become a phoenix. .

So for a time, the Wilson Group became a hot company in Aurouss Hillll.

Many people specially came to send gifts to the Lady Wilson Wilson, making the Thompson First Villa of the Wilson family so lively.

In one day, Mrs. Wilson received countless guests in the Thompson First Villa, and received a large number of congratulatory gifts from the guests. She was so happy from ear to ear.

She knew that this was the benefit of leaning on the tree.

Leaning against the big tree, not only can the big tree let yourself be cool, but there will also be a lot of fruit from the big tree falling down and smashing into your arms.

At this time, the Wilson family card was immersed in the joy of receiving a large number of gifts. Harold, Wendy, and Hannah unwrapped the gifts, and they were almost soft.

Charlie Wade guessed that the Wilson family was in the mood, so he asked Facebook to release the video of the Wilson family in the hospital and put it on the front of the screen.

And the title of this video is: "The reason behind southern region Webb Family's investment in Wilson Group is the noble morals of Webb family moved by Wilson family!"

Chapter 1131

When Donald saw this video, his whole popular nose was almost crooked. He did not expect that the Wilson family would be photographed when they were fighting in the hospital.

What I didn't expect was that this video was exposed after he announced his investment in the Wilson Group.

This shows that I am deliberately disgusting myself, and I want to wait for myself to publicly invest in the Wilson Group, and then I will slap myself in the face!

The most hateful thing is the steep tone!

This platform has a grudge against itself!

Last time, the cross talk between Mrr.. Lloyd and his son was spread by this platform.

I want to go to public relations and it is of no use, because this software has been bought by the Eastcliff Wade family.

Last time, the process by which his damn brother-in-law, Marcone and his beggar gang were annihilated, was also known to everyone who was pushed by this software.

This time, this great farce of the Wilson family's relationship turned out to be the software being pushed.

Isn't it clear that you are going to face yourself?

The key has never provoke them, so why do they hold onto themselves?

The Webb family is very pitiful now. The reputation of the Webb family has been ruined and cannot be ruined anymore. As a result, they still did not let go of the Webb family, let alone themselves...

Sure enough, after this video began to be promoted, people across the country scolded the Webb family.

Because the Webb family had already ruined its reputation for doing things, now it is shameless to invest in the shameless family of the Wilson family.

Thomas Webb found his brother Donald, and said: "Brother, the family you are looking for is really nasty. He has lost the face of our Webb family. If I say, we will kick them away. Announce as early as possible, we have nothing to do with them."

Donald shook his head gently, and said, "It doesn't make sense. Now that the boat is done, even if the Webb family announces the withdrawal right now, there can be no improvement. After all, everyone is just looking at the jokes of the Wilson family, but Big families like our Webb family are the real targets of ridicule by the people of the whole country."

As he said, Donald sighed and said: "You also know that the Beggar Gang has had too much influence on our Webb family. In contrast, the scandal of the Wilson family is not even a mosquito bite. If people want to scold, let them scold it."

Thomas Webb said angrily: "I think this kind of hanging silk is really meaningless, it's better to let them get out as soon as possible."

Donald asked him: "Even if the Wilson family is thrown away, will the reputation of the Webb family be restored? Don't forget, we still have a lot of people to unite. If at this time, because of such a small matter, we will give up After the Wilson family, how can other people dare to cooperate with us? What we have to do now is to stand firmly with the Wilson family, even if it is just a look, let people know that our Webb family will not give up My comrades-in-arms, only in this way can everyone unite with us and deal with Charlie Wade together."

Thomas Webb finally understood his brother's good intentions and asked: "Big brother, how was the person we sent to Golim Mountain last time?"

Donald said coldly: "They will do it tonight, they will definitely snatch the Weaver family father and son back, and at the same time they will kill all Charlie Wade left behind!"

.....

Chapter 1132

Late at night, at the foot of Golim Mountain.

Jeffrey Weaver was wrapped in a thick deerskin jacket, dragging his elderly father, Jordan walked out of the mountains.

Recently, the temperature in Golim Mountain has dropped very sharply, reaching minus 30 degrees at the lowest night.

Under normal circumstances, the two were unwilling to go out after being killed, but because of clear requirements, they had to go into the mountains to gather ginseng.

Only enough ginseng can be exchanged for food, medicine, kerosene and firewood for heating.

After all, in such a cold day, the energy consumption for heating every day is very high. It is difficult to pick up enough firewood alone. It must be matched with a certain amount of kerosene.

The father and son ran into the mountains for a day today, and only picked six or seven small ginseng roots, which is only enough for them to exchange for tomorrow's rations.

Jordan was tired and hungry, and his lips were purple with cold.

Although Jeffrey is physically better than him, he also felt a huge physical load.

Now Golim Mountain has begun to cover snow, and it is very difficult to walk in the deep mountains, which consumes a lot of physical strength, but the ginseng is collected less and less, which means that they have to go deeper into the mountains every time than the last time.

It's midnight to come back, and in a few days, maybe you have to live in the mountains at night.

Jordan stretched out his hand and grabbed a handful of snow, tucked it into his mouth, opened his chapped lips and said, "My son will continue this way, I'm afraid I won't be able to survive this winter. After I die, you must live strong alone. , Saying that we have to live on everything, and if we find a way to save our Weaver family, if we have a chance to kill Arouss Hilll and take back our Weaver's pharmaceutical, that would be great."

Jeffrey Weaver panted heavily and comforted: "Dad, don't say that.

Although the conditions in Golim Mountain are quite difficult, I feel that after you come to Golim Mountain, your body is better than before."

As he said, he couldn't help sighing: "You used to toss your body so badly, your vitality was exhausted early, and you never exercise, walk very little, and your body is worse than every day. Now you are in Golim Mountain every day. Shancai ginseng, you exercise so much every day, I think you have a lot of toughness. If you stick to it, I think you can live a long time!"

Jordan sat down in the thick snow and couldn't help feeling: "What you said makes sense. I really feel that my body is much stronger than before. I used to breathe hard after walking a few steps. Now I can go into the mountains. Picked ginseng for a day."

Having said that, he sighed, and sighed: "It's all because I didn't know how to cherish when I was young. If I overdrawn my body early, you must take a warning in the future and don't follow my old path."

Jeffrey Weaver also simply sat down next to him, and took pictures with the bright flashlight in his hand. The snow and trees around him were depressed and said: "I want to go your old way, but I don't have a chance, you see. In this broken mountain and old forest, even the female bear is hibernating. Where can I find a woman to overdraw?"

Jordan couldn't help but smile.

When it comes to women, my own son is really inferior to myself.

When he was young, he was really merciful, and probably more women had played with him than he had ever seen.

Thinking about it this way, my life has not been in vain.

When Jeffrey Weaver thought of a woman, he couldn't help sighing:

"Speaking of women, Wendy from the Wilson family in Aurouss Hill really makes me miss it. I don't know if I have a chance to go back in this life. I can go back. I must find her and fight. Three hundred rounds."

Jordan patted him on the shoulder, encouraged him, and said, "I believe that we, father and son, must turn over one day!"

Chapter 1133

The Weaver family, father and son, were dreaming of turning over.

Suddenly, a violent cold wind came from the bottom of Golim Mountain, making them tremble.

Jordan sighed: "Damn, the wind in this ghost place is so fierce. A gust of wind made my whole body cold. Let's go quickly."

"Okay!" Jeffrey Weaver also felt cold and bitter, and quickly shrank his neck, got up and patted the snow on his butt, and stretched out his hand to his father.

It has to be said that the relationship between the father and son during the period when they were dependent on each other in Golim Mountain has improved a lot than before.

In the past, although Jordan preferred this eldest son, in fact, for a selfish person like him, it was difficult to really treat him well.

Therefore, he is actually fair to Jeffrey Weaver, better than Liam.

Jeffrey Weaver, who has always been a dude, thinks about playing with women every day, and is not very close to his father.

This is mainly because when Jeffrey Weaver was young, he often listened to his mother's indoctrination, that his father, regardless of his family, raised women everywhere.

This made Jeffrey Weaver dissatisfied with the old man ever since he was a child.

However, when they arrived at Golim Mountain, the father and son had to work together for survival, which also allowed the two to let go of their prejudices and become increasingly dependent on each other.

Everyone knows that you can't lose the other party in this environment. If you lose the other person, the remaining person must have no courage or ability to continue to live.

The father and son walked from the foot of the mountain towards the stray light in the distance.

The place with light is the village where they live, walking past the foot of the mountain, there are three or four miles away.

When the father and son were walking, Jeffrey Weaver said, "Dad, Lee from the village hunted a roe deer from the mountain yesterday. I heard that the roe deer meat is delicious. Would you like to visit his house later? Two cattles of roe deer meat!"

"Follow his meat?" Jordan sighed, "The guy Lee is very picky. Last time he hunted a big wild boar weighing more than 500 kilograms. I asked him if he wanted a piece of pig intestine and he didn't give it to me. Let me give him money."

As he said, Jordan cursed: "Do you know what Lee's name is?"

Barena Weaver shook his head: "Where do I know his name, I just know his surname is Lee."

Jordan spit on the ground, and said contemptuously: "f*ck, an Orion who doesn't know how to write his name is Lee Wendell. I still ask him if he is a writer? Will he write his own name? Guess what he is. Say?"

Jeffrey Weaver asked curiously, "What did you say?"

Jordan snorted and said, "He said he would write Lee Wen, but he couldn't write any bold words."

Jeffrey Weaver smiled and said, "I have taught him how to write tyrannical characters, and taught him that he will take two cattles of meat as tuition."

Jordan said: "I also asked him for meat, because he wanted pigskin and he wouldn't give it to you."

Jeffrey Weaver said: "I think it's cold now, and it's dozens of degrees below zero outside. The roe deer he beat has long been killed by him. The meat is hanging in the yard and frozen. After a while, he walked in along the wall and stole him. Going back to taste the freshness can be regarded as supplementing nutrition."

When Jordan heard this, he hurriedly said: "Then you hurry up and hide a piece of ginseng dug today in your arms. Don't give them all. Tomorrow we will use this ginseng to stew the roe deer meat. It must be a great supplement! "

"Okay, look at me!"

After speaking, Jeffrey Weaver took out a ginseng and stuffed it into his underwear.

The frozen ginseng went into his underwear, and he yelled out of the ice.

Jordan said with a look of disgust, "How can I stuff it somewhere? How the hell can I eat it?"

Jeffrey Weaver said: "It's okay, just wash it a few more times. If you don't tuck it in your crotch, you won't be able to hide it at all. They will search your body. You don't know."

"Okay!" Jordan said helplessly: "Then you must wash your head a few more times, it's best to boil it with boiling water."

Jeffrey Weaver waved his hand: "Oh, dad, you don't understand. If you blanch ginseng with hot water, the nutrients will be in the water."

Chapter 1134

Jordan could only nod his head, and couldn't help sighing, "It would be great if I could make two cattles of wine. Take ginseng soaked in wine and take a cold drink when entering the mountain. That guy must be very beautiful!"

Jeffrey Weaver said: "Widow Lee seems to know how to make wine. I have a chance to chat with her another day. Maybe she has hidden wine in her house."

The father and son walked while chatting in the cold wind. After more than half an hour, they arrived at the entrance of the village. The two did not immediately return to their dilapidated house, but went to Lee's house in the village in the dark.

Although the foothills of Golim Mountain are poor, there is nothing lacking for everyone to rely on the mountains and eat the mountains. In the past, people in the whole village often went to the mountains to hunt.

But now that most of the young people are going outside and there are not many hunting.

Lee is the only professional hunter in the entire village.

If anyone in the village wants to eat game, they will take money or other things, but they will rarely exchange their prey for some meat.

Jeffrey Weaver has been greedy for his game for a long time, because he is clinking poorly every day, and it is not easy to eat. There is no extra thing to exchange for meat.

Today is too greedy, and Lee just hunted a roe deer yesterday, so he moved his mind and said that he had to get some meat and go back to taste it.

Coming to the outside wall of Lee's house, Jeffrey Weaver grabbed the wall and took a look inside. Sure enough, there were pieces of roe deer meat hanging in the yard.

So he whispered to his father Jordan: "You get down and let me step on your shoulder."

Jordan was really greedy, and quickly squatted down the corner, let Jeffrey Weaver step on it, and stepped into the yard by himself.

Jeffrey Weaver quickly succeeded, stole a roe deer leg, hung it around his waist and crawled out.

As soon as he climbed out, he said to his father excitedly: "This leg is less than ten kilograms, which is enough for us to eat for a week."

"Good, good!" Jordan clapped his hands in excitement.

I haven't eaten meat for a few days, this time there are so many, it is really to have a good time.

The father and son were excited and were about to go back.

Suddenly a dozen masked men in black rushed out from the dark.

What's more frightening is that these dozen people are all holding weapons, seven or eight are knives, and five or six are pistols.

The father and son were shocked, and Jeffrey Weaver said with a weeping face: "Brothers, we are nothing more than stealing some meat. We won't be in such a big battle, right?"

Jordan was too frightened, so he quickly said to him: "What are you still doing in a daze? Give the meat back to others quickly."

Jeffrey Weaver hurriedly threw the roe deer legs on the ground, begging for mercy: "Everyone, please raise your hands high."

These dozen people surrounded the father and son, and one of them blurted out: "Are you Jordan and Jeffrey Weaver?"

Jordan nodded blankly and asked, "What do you guys do?"

The man said coldly: "We were sent by the southern region Webb family to rescue your father and son and leave. The car is already waiting at the entrance of the village. Let us go now, and we will take you back to Aurouss Hilll!"

When the father and son heard this, they were stunned, and then they burst into tears.

The two looked at each other and cried together.

I never thought that I would have the day to make it out!

So the father and son knelt on the ground, crying while crying: "Thank you brothers, thank you for your great kindness, we father and son, we will never forget it!"

Chapter 1135

The last time someone came to rescue the Weaver family and his son, they had been dealt with before they could get close to the Weaver family's father and son's house.

So the Weaver family father and son didn't know either.

At this moment, southern region Webb's family actually wanted to rescue them back.

The two were so excited that they immediately followed each other by car back to Aurouss Hilll.

When going to the entrance of the village, Jordan couldn't help asking the man in black next to him: "This big brother, we don't have any friendship with the Webb family of southern region, why should the Webb family save us?"

The person said coldly: "Our manager Webb has a common enemy with you."

"Common enemy?" Jordan exclaimed and asked, "Who is it?"

The man gritted his teeth and uttered two words: "Charlie Wade Wade!"

Jordan and Jeffrey Weaver were shocked.

It turns out that the bastard Charlie Wade provokes the southern region Webb family!

That is the first family in Southaven!

Provoked them, it seems that Charlie Wade is not far from death!

But I must also be thankful that Charlie Wade provokes the Webb family, so the Webb family rescued themselves and their son from Golim Mountain, a place where birds don't shit.

The thought of the father and son was extremely excited.

A group of people came to the entrance of the village. Several off-road vehicles had been parked here, and the vehicles had not stalled, and they were waiting to evacuate quickly.

When the crowd was about to get into the car, they suddenly heard a bang from the snow.

Immediately afterwards, a man in black beside the Weaver family father and son fell to the ground with a shot.

Afterwards, the gunshots broke out!

The people sent by the Webb family immediately began to draw out their pistols to fight fiercely with the opponent.

Gunshots and howls were everywhere for a while!

Because this place is located at the foot of Golim Mountain and is far away from the city, the night here is almost dark.

When the gunshots are loud, there are flames after another, which looks particularly frightening!

When has this peaceful village experienced such a big battle?

The villagers under the gunfire did not dare to go out at home, and the dogs in the village were also barking.

As for the Shura field at the head of the village, people were shot and fell to the ground constantly!

The people shouted: "Quickly evacuate, everyone, quickly get in the car, we are in an ambush!"

As soon as the voice fell, the bullets in the dark vented towards the number of off-road vehicles!

As the gun battle continued, both sides suffered injuries.

But the Webb family members are at a disadvantage, because they are in the light and the other side is in the dark.

The Weaver family and his son were lying in the snow. Seeing more and more Webb family members falling around, the two of them were flustered. Judging from this posture, this group will not last long.

A few minutes later, almost all the people sent by the Webb family were killed. Only one driver ran away in a panic while driving a car. The others stayed at the foot of Golim Mountain.

Chapter 1136

The Webb family lost fifteen people, Don Albertt and Liam's people, combined, lost four people!

Fortunately, Charlie Wade reminded Don Albertt and Liam a few days ago and asked them to strengthen their defenses, so both sides sent more troops to Golim Mountain. Otherwise, today is really not the opponent of these dozen people.

The Weaver family father and son, who had been frightened, were caught from the snow.

It was the younger brother of Don Albertt who arrested them, and the person in charge of Golim Mountain, Myles Crane.

Myles Crane had a dark face, looking at the frightened father and son, coldly said: "Do you really think you can escape?"

Jordan cried and said, "Mr. Crane, we didn't want to escape. It was these people who couldn't help but say that we are going to leave."

Myles Crane yelled coldly: "You f*cking pretend to be stupid with me, I know what you think, I tell you, as long as Myles Crane is alive, you and your son don't want to leave Golim Mountain!"

Jordan hurriedly nodded and said respectfully: "Mr. Crane, we really did not want to leave Golim Mountain. During this time, our father and son have a strong relationship with Golim Mountain, and I am ready to stay here for retirement."

Barena Weaver on the side also nodded hurriedly: "Yes, Mr. Crane, my dad is right, we both have fallen in love with this land."

Myles Crane rushed up, punched and kicked at the father and son, and yelled: "Damn, just because of you two dogs, I lost four brothers and even f*cked with me here. Believe me or not. Just break your legs and let you climb into the mountain to collect ginseng?!"

The father and son were beaten violently, and they were almost dying before being carried back and thrown into the cold dilapidated house.

.....

Here, Donald is still waiting for news of Golim Mountain's victory.

He has already smoked most of the cigar in his hand, and he keeps thinking about the time. Before the cigar is finished, the matter should be solved perfectly.

The Eight Heavenly Kings do not listen to their orders?

It doesn't matter, I can let others go.

I can't find the Eight Heavenly Kings, I can let another sixteen people be on board. Isn't it possible for Master to do nothing without you?

I was thinking that the phone rang suddenly.

Donald hurriedly connected the phone, and blurted out, "How's it going? Have you rescued their father and son?"

A crying voice came from the other side: "Mr. Webb, we were in an ambush. Everyone died. Only I ran out alive!"

"What?!" Donald snorted inwardly, and asked sternly: "What's the matter? You went to sixteen people, but you couldn't get back two wastes?"

The man cried and said, "The other party has no fewer people than us, and they seem to have known that we are coming and have been in ambush here. We picked them up and the father and son were about to drive back, and then they were hit by them. ambush....."

As he said, the person said again: "Mr. Webb, Golim Mountain is a ghost place with sparsely populated land, and there may not be a visitor from outside the mountain in 10 days and 8 days in this place, so people like us have too many goals. We may Before they approached their village, they had already begun to guard us. This kind of thing really has to be done by super masters like the Eight Heavenly Kings. Otherwise, I'm afraid not enough people will be able to see it. Because I don't even know how many people they have here!"

"Oh shit!"

Donald instantly threw the cigar in his hand to the ground, sparks splashing everywhere.

16 people were gone, 15 died, all of them were pensions for these people, which cost at least tens of millions, which was all lost money.

Knowing this, it's better to bear him first.

At this moment, his brother Thomas Webb suddenly rushed in and said excitedly: "Brother, Dad is awake!"

Donald was happy and uncomfortable when he heard this.

The good news is that my dad finally woke up. What's uncomfortable is that I knew my dad could wake up now. Why did I send 15 people to die? He woke up, and he told him now that the Eight Heavenly Kings might be able to set off on Golim Mountain tomorrow.

Thinking of this, he sighed, then got up and said: "Go, go see Dad!"

Chapter 1137

Mr. Webb was also an unborn hero.

Mentioned him in Southaven, no one knew, no one knew.

This person had a brain when he was young, and he was able to build the Webb family into the first family in the south of the Yangtze River from scratch, which shows that this person has extraordinary abilities.

But after all, people are no match for age and years. Since Mr. Webb retired to the second line because of his illness, the Webb family has actually begun to go downhill.

But no one thought that during this period of time, the entire Webb family would lose so quickly.

This made Mr. Webb suffer the whole person.

Starting with his second grandson, a young man, a proud son of heaven, suddenly got that kind of strange disease that is hard to tell.

Then his eldest son and his eldest grandson were humiliated and embarrassed in Aurouss Hilll.

Even a pair of clown-like father and son in Aurouss Hillll dare to record videos of ridicule, slander, and insult to the Webb family on the Internet.

Since that time, the successive blows made his body go from bad to worse. But he didn't expect that it was just the beginning of a nightmare.

What made him most unacceptable was that the reputation of the Webb family was destroyed some time ago.

As the top family, the Webb family has an ambiguous relationship with the notorious gang of beggars, and was even reported that they secretly supported the fact that the gang of beggars are related to the gang. The reputation of Webb's family fell to the bottom in one fell swoop. That time, the damage to the old man Webb was extremely great, and it was also the time when he passed out after a stroke and did not wake up for several days.

Today, I finally woke up leisurely, but the physical and mental state is no longer as good as before, and the whole person is showing a state of dying fatigue.

The Donald brothers and their children and grandchildren hurried to the family ward.

When they saw Mr. Webb at this time, all of them were shocked.

No one had thought that Elder Webb's complexion and spirit was so bad now, and his whole person seemed to be an old man who was already in his dying years, and he might be dead at any time.

Looking at his father at this time, Donald couldn't help but feel ashamed. Can't help but whisper: "Dad, how are you feeling."

Elder Webb looked at Donald with anger in his eyes.

He took a few breaths violently, and then slurred his words: "You...you prodigal thing! Look at the woman you married, look at your damn brother-in-law! He took us Webb The family has been hurt!"

Donald said with shame, "Dad, I'm sorry, I didn't expect things to be like this..."

"Yes...Yes...I'm sorry?!" Elder Webb stammered these words, gritted his teeth and said: "I have spent half of my life in your hands... ..You...you are right with me...sorry to have...what's the use!"

With that, Mr. Webb coughed violently because he was too emotional.

"Ahem...ahhhhhhhh..."

Donald hurried forward to help the old man comfort his chest.

Elder Webb struggled to push him, and said coldly: "I have been in business for dozens of years and have encountered countless enemies in the mall. I didn't expect to lose to my son..."

With tears in his eyes, Donald was extremely ashamed and regretful.

He loved his wife Xenia all his life, but he did not expect that Xenia would give him such a "great gift."

Chapter 1138

If it wasn't for her brother had been killed, I would have liked to smash her brother into pieces!

But regret is meaningless, otherwise, the Webb family would not be where it is today.

Elder Webb looked at him and asked coldly: "Where is the woman named Xenia now?"

Donald hurriedly said: "Dad, Xenia has kept herself in her room for this period of time, washing her face with tears every day."

"Wash your face with tears?!" Elder Webb gritted his teeth: "This woman, why don't you keep her out of the house? Do you have to wait until the entire Webb family is defeated by her before you wake up?"

Donald sighed in his heart and quickly explained: "Dad, Xenia can't be blamed for this incident. It is her brother who is not doing personnel affairs. She is a victim just like me."

"Slap!"

No one thought that the weak old man Webb directly slapped Donald. Elder Webb trembled with anger, and said coldly: "Man man, break when he is broken! If he is broken, he will suffer the chaos! Why can I make the Webb family bigger and bigger, not only because I am going I am more decisive than anyone when I move forward, because I am more determined than anyone else when I step back! But you are better. Not only do you don't have the courage and courage of the gecko's tail and the strong man's broken arm, but you drag the stumps to work hard. You know, If you restrain yourself, not only you, but the entire Webb family will be harmed!"

Donald said embarrassedly: "Dad, Xenia has been with me for so many years, how can I get her out of the house at this time? If it spreads out, how will others think of me and Webb's family? How will I be a person in the future? "

Elder Webb looked at him contemptuously, and snorted coldly: "Do you think that if you don't drive her out, your reputation will not be damaged? The reputation of the Webb family will not be damaged? The world knows that Marcone is Your wife's younger brother, the whole world knows that he is your brother-in-law, the whole world knows that his beggar gang is your backing him, and now he is dead, you still have that woman, the world will only scold you Donald!"

Donald was cheered by the scolding.

Before that, he really didn't expect this layer.

To say that he is strategizing and winning thousands of miles, he is a thousand miles worse than Mr. Webb.

Therefore, if Mr. Webb didn't name many things, he might not be able to realize it in his life.

When he thought of this, he was already sweating coldly.

It was only then that he realized what kind of bad influence it would bring to the whole family by keeping his wife at home.

So he gritted his teeth and said to Mr. Webb: "Don't worry, Dad, I will take care of this."

Elder Webb slowly closed his eyes and let out a long sigh. It took a long time before he opened his eyes and said: "Let's talk about it, what happened recently?"

Donald hurriedly told Elder Webb about all the things that happened during this period.

After listening to this, Mr. Webb's face suddenly became extremely green. He looked at Donald and asked in a cold voice: "A mere Golim Mountain, a mere couple of father and son who collected ginseng in Golim Mountain, killed more than 20 people twice?!"

Donald hurriedly explained: "Dad, actually the second time, I wanted to ask the Eight Heavenly Kings to take action, but they told me that they only listened to your orders, but you did not wake up at that time. I had no choice but to first Send someone over."

Elder Webb slapped him again, Donald covered his face, but he dared not say a word.

After slapped in the face, Mr. Webb said coldly: "The father and son at the foot of Golim Mountain are a pair of living people. What is the difference between snatching them back today and snatching them back next week and snatching them back next month? ?"

"Don't you snatch them back today, and they will die next week? If they die so easily, the opponent would not send so many people to guard them in the place where birds don't shit in Golim Mountain."

"In that case, what are you desperately anxious for?"

Chapter 1139

Donald clutched his blushed face, ashamed.

At this time, he finally understood where he was wrong.

Your own strategy is correct, you must unite everything and treat your enemy's enemies as your allies.

Whether it is the Weaver family father and son in Golim Mountain, the Wilson family, or other people, they are all objects that they can unite. But the fault lies in your own fault, you should not rush it, and you should not mess up your military spirit.

The enemy is there, and he won't be gone because you are a step late; Allies are there too, and he will not die because he is a step late; Why should I be so anxious? Sending people to Golim Mountain twice failed twice, and more than 20 lives were lost there, all in vain.

If you stay calm, wait till now and wait till Dad wakes up.

Then my father sent the Eight Heavenly Kings, and he would surely win with one blow.

Thinking of this, he was ashamed and said to Mr. Webb: "Dad, I was wrong...Your criticism is right! I will definitely correct it in the future!"

Elder Webb snorted coldly: "You have missed the best opportunity. Now you have personally done a very simple thing that has become very difficult."

Speaking of Mr. Webb, he said again: "The first time is the easiest to attack the unprepared. If you are well prepared at that time, don't underestimate the enemy. You can also win at once and achieve your goal."

"However, because of your underestimation of the enemy, not only did you lose a few manpower, you also made the other party more vigilant against you, thus increasing the difficulty of this matter."

"Now, because of your second time underestimating the enemy and adventurously. Your opponent will definitely be more fully prepared. In this way, the Eight Heavenly Kings may not be able to win absolutely!"

Donald hurriedly said, "Daddy, don't worry. With the strength of the Eight Heavenly Kings, as long as they take action, the other party will definitely be unable to resist."

Elder Webb said coldly: "Who gave you this confidence? You made the mistake I mentioned just now. Don't underestimate the enemy so much."

As soon as the voice fell, Mr. Webb said again: "The strength of the Eight Heavenly Kings, although they seem to be very strong. But in the real world of warriors, they are not the strongest, and they are not even ranked in the middle."

Donald's expression froze: "Dad, how is this possible? The Eight Heavenly Kings are so powerful. In my impression, they have never met an opponent. How could it be possible that they are not in the middle?"

Elder Webb said coldly: "You are not much better than the frog at the bottom of the well. The real top warriors are all under the hands of the few super big families in China. Their strength is so powerful that you can't believe them. In front of the real top masters, the eight kings When you get up, you may not be able to resist the other party's eight moves."

Donald hurriedly said: "Dad, the kid in Aurouss Hilll is just a feng shui sling. He fooled the local area. A few capable people and a dog on the road followed him, so he dared to get rid of him everywhere. , So I think he will definitely not be able to find the kind of super master you mentioned, so if the Eight Heavenly Kings come forward, the problem will definitely be solved."

Elder Webb asked him, "Is everything clear? If there are any details that you haven't noticed, it is very likely that the Eight Heavenly Kings will be in danger. The Eight Heavenly Kings are our family's trump card. We must not let them unless it is a last resort."

Donald said firmly: "Don't worry, there will be no problem if the Eight Heavenly Kings take action."

Chapter 1140

"Okay." Mr. Webb nodded and said: "Then I will let the Eight Heavenly Kings go to Golim Mountain overnight to get the private jet ready."

Donald asked in surprise, "Dad, don't you need to be so worried?"

Elder Webb said earnestly: "You just killed 15 lives this evening, and they will definitely think that they will not come back for a while, so we will send the Eight Heavenly Kings over tonight, and strive for the Eighth Congress tomorrow morning. The King of Heaven can appear in front of them, and in this way, they can be caught off guard!"

Donald nodded with a face of being taught.

He felt ashamed at this moment in his heart, because his ability at this point was really too far behind the old man.

The old man is the one who can really make plans and win the battle thousands of miles away.

After that, Donald immediately called and arranged for a private plane to take off. It took off directly from southern region and flew all the way to Golim Mountain in an hour.

Elder Webb also called one of the eight heavenly kings to his sickbed. This person is more than 60 years old this year, but because he has been practicing ancient martial arts all the year round, it seems that he is just about 40 years old.

Elder Webb met with him when he was young, and the other side assisted him for many years. Elder Webb also regarded him as a guest, respectful. It can be said that the two are both masters and servants, friends, and brothers. They both value and respect each other very much.

After Grandpa Webb gave his instructions, the other party slammed his fist slightly and said coldly: "Master, please rest assured, I will bring people there this time, I will definitely bring the two people back to Southaven, and also leave the other person at the foot of Golim Mountain. Kill one without leaving!"

"Okay!" Elder Webb felt that he had finally recovered a bit of vitality, and said with a light smile: "Then I will wait for you in southern region to pick up the dust!"

Having said that, Mr. Webb sternly commanded Donald: "Donald, you immediately go to Newport and buy their local wine red with the longest age and best quality, and how much you have to buy!"

Duran, the head of the Eight Heavenly Kings, clasped his fists and said, "I am very grateful for the old man who remembers my favorite things for so many years."

Elder Webb hurriedly said: "Mr. Don't be polite with me, you are the guardian of my Webb family, and a heavy weapon in the hands of the Webb family. Webb will definitely not violate the promise of the year and respect you as gentlemen throughout your life!"

Soon, the plane arranged by Donald was ready to take off at Southaven Airport.

Duran took the others of the Eight Heavenly Kings to Southaven Airport in a Toyota Coaster.

The others are Duran's younger brothers. The eight of them went down the mountain and met Donald's father. Donald's father gave them an excellent life and generous rewards, and they also willingly followed Donald's father's Around.

At this time, the eight heavenly kings are all wearing blue shirts and stepping on hand-sewn mullet-sole cloth shoes, looking like they are going to a warm place for vacation.

But in fact, they are going to Golim Mountain, which is dozens of degrees below zero.

But these eight people have deep internal skills and extraordinary strength. The cold has long lost all threats to them, so even if they wear so little, there is no problem in going to Golim Mountain.

On the way, Duran kept closed his eyes and rested his mind. When he was about to arrive at the airport, he opened his eyes and said to the juniors around him: "Go to Golim Mountain first. I can only wait for success and not fail. Not only must I live and rescue the Weaver family," Even more, all opponents will be killed, and we will get on the plane later. Everyone is lucky to prepare for the battle. This time, I am waiting to kill in Golim Mountain!"

Chapter 1141

At this moment. Thompson First!

It was late at night, Charlie Wade and his wife were sleeping soundly in their bed.

At this time, Charlie Wade's cell phone suddenly buzzed twice.

Worried that the phone would noisy my wife's sleep, I quickly picked up the phone, and then found that I had received two WeChat messages.

At this time, it was 12 o'clock in the night. He didn't know who would send WeChat to himself at this time, but he guessed that there must be something important to send WeChat at this time.

So he immediately unlocked the phone and found that the WeChat was sent by Don Albertt.

"Master Wade, something happened to Golim Mountain. Liam and I are at your doorstep. I wonder if you have time to come out to see you?"

Charlie Wade frowned.

There was an accident in Golim Mountain, which proved that the Webb family had another idea of Weaver family father and son.

So he got up lightly and went downstairs to the door of the villa.

Don Albertt and Liam were standing at the door and waiting respectfully. Seeing how nervous their expressions were, Charlie Wade asked, "What happened?"

Don Albertt said, "More than half an hour ago, the Webb family sent people to Golim Mountain. This time there were a lot of people, including 16 people."

Charlie Wade nodded and asked, "Then, just talk about the result."

Don Albertt respectfully said: "They intended to take the Weaver family father and son. The two sides had a gunfight. Liam's and I killed 15 of them, and one of them escaped."

Charlie Wade nodded and asked, "Have your people lost?"

Liam said, "Master Wade, I lost three of my people, and the fifth person lost one. That's four people in total."

Charlie Wade said with a hum, "It's okay, it's a victory overall."

Don Albertt nodded and said: "I think the Webb family will not let go of the two failures. They may soon have a full hands on Golim Mountain. Liam and I have already begun to raise people. Recently, we will rush to Golim Mountain. But I am worried. Once the Webb family will send their gambit card."

Charlie Wade frowned, "Gambit card?"

"Yes!" Don Albertt said: "It is rumored that there are eight heavenly kings under the Webb family. These eight heavenly kings are all warriors, and they are extremely powerful!"

Having said that, Don Albertt said again: "Master Wade, our people can deal with ordinary people. But if we deal with masters of martial arts, it may be a man's arm blocking the car. A dozen subordinates do not matter, but I am afraid that Master Wade will be delayed. What happened, in case they rescued the Weaver family and his son, Don Albertt could not shirk the blame!"

Charlie Wade knows that big families have super masters in captivity. In my own impression, the Wade family had many masters when they were young.

The strength of these masters is far beyond the cognition of ordinary people.

For the super family with trillions of assets, only the real top master can protect its safety.

So Charlie Wade asked him, "Don Albertt, what do you think?"

Don Albertt hurriedly said: "Master Wade, please forgive me. I have always felt that there is no need for Jordan and his son to continue to live in the world. Your enemies are now using them as bargaining chips and are trying their best to fight for it. Instead of doing this, it is better to use this Killing the father and son will never cause trouble!"

Chapter 1142

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said: "If everything is solved by murder, then the Webb family will be dead long ago. Some people deserve to die and must be killed as soon as possible, such as the gang of beggars; but some people kill it. It's boring."

After Charlie Wade finished speaking, he smiled, and then said, "Think about Ichiro Kobayashi in your kennel. Actually, he could have been killed long ago, but why should I keep him? It's because I think this person It's interesting to live, and there are more possibilities when it's alive. If he dies, many things will lose a lot of fun. The same goes for the Webb family and the same for the Weaver family."

In Charlie Wade's heart, everything in the world complements each other, reinforces each other and restrains each other.

I kept Kobayashi's life so that he can live with his brother Jiro Kobayashi.

The purpose of keeping the lives of the Weaver family father and son is to let them and Weaver appear to live together.

If Ichiro Kobayashi is really dead, if he wants to check and balance Jiro Kobayashi, or even Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, he will lose a best bargaining chip.

If Liam's heart becomes rebellious in the future, then he can use the Weaver family father and son to counter him.

This is the ancient art of the emperor.

The real minister would never truly believe in a treacherous official, but he would never completely favor a loyal official.

However, North Korea must not have treacherous ministers because they are the key to counterbalance loyal ministers.

If he is a loyal minister without the checks and balances of a traitorous minister, then he will become increasingly arrogant and ignorant, and will gradually become a traitorous minister.

That's why Charlie Wade needed to check and balance between different people and different people.

After all, the Wade Family is a top-notch big family. The children of the Wade Family have learned the Four Books and Five Classics from a young age, familiarize themselves with ancient history, and study the techniques of emperors. These methods are almost brought out of their bones.

Therefore, Charlie Wade shook his voice and said: "Killing Jordan and his son means that I am afraid of the Webb family. This is a sign of weakness, and I never show weakness."

Having said that, he said lightly: "If I'm right, the Webb family has probably dispatched the Eight Heavenly Kings, and maybe they are already on their way to Golim Mountain."

"Ah?!" Don Albertt and Liam were both dumbfounded.

Liam said in surprise: "They shouldn't be so fast. After all, they just lost 15 people. They should have to go back and rest for a while before making a comeback."

"No!" Charlie Wade said confidently: "If Donald could mobilize martial artists, then he should have dispatched martial artists long ago.

Therefore, I guess that the man who can really send martial artists should be the old man of the Webb family!"

"The old generation of entrepreneurs are still very powerful. Mr. Webb started from scratch, and his ability, courage, and courage must be much better than ordinary people. If he is in charge of everything behind his back, the means must be much higher than that of Donald! He will definitely be among others. When you think it's least possible to launch an attack, launch a fatal blow."

After that, he smiled indifferently: "And when the most unlikely attack was just after the failure, everyone thought he would definitely retreat to rest, but he wanted to hit the opponent by surprise."

Don Albertt exclaimed and said, "Master Wade, what shall we do now? Shall we send someone over overnight?"

Charlie Wade waved his hand and said calmly: "If the opponent dispatches a martial artist, it's not enough to see how much they can go, it's just to die."

Don Albertt was shocked: "Master Wade, what should we do?"

Charlie Wade said lightly: "You don't have to worry about this matter, I have my own arrangements, after all, flying from Southaven all the way to Golim Mountain, the distance is still quite far, there is still enough time to prepare!"

Hearing Charlie Wade's words, Liam's eyes flashed with joy, and a heavy rock in his heart fell to the ground.

Therefore, he said gratefully: "It seems that Master Wade is already confident! Liam is here, thank you Master Wade!"

Liam is the one who fears the Weaver family father and son the most.

He didn't want the Weaver's pharmaceuticals that he had finally gotten, and in a blink of an eye he gave up his hands!

Chapter 1143

Seeing that Liam was a little nervous, Charlie Wade smiled indifferently, turned off the topic and asked, "By the way, how are you doing at Weaver's Pharmacy?"

Liam looked straight and reported: "Master Wade, the overall development of the pharmaceutical factory has been fairly stable recently, but it has encountered some obstacles in developing new markets."

"What's in the way?"

Charlie Wade wondered, according to the strength of Weaver's Pharmaceutical, it should be said that there are few rivals in the domestic pharmaceutical industry.

However, for the development of new drugs, as long as a good prescription is found, there should be no problem.

But if the prescription is not good, the strength of the pharmaceutical company is meaningless.

Liam hurriedly replied: "Recently, Weaver's Pharmaceuticals has invested heavily in developing a new Chinese patent medicine. The main effect is to drive away evil spirits and reduce dampness, cool the blood and relieve the heart of the stomach, and treat stomach symptoms such as stomach pain, stomach acid, and retching. , Both have good curative effects."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Stomach disease is also a disease that modern people easily get. As far as I know, there should not be too many stomach medicines in China. Except that Sanjiuweitai is somewhat famous, I have never heard of it. Are there any other well-known Chinese patent medicines for the treatment of the stomach? In this case, you shouldn't be too hindered, right?"

Liam frowned and explained: "I developed this medicine because I saw that there are too many people in the city nowadays. Many young people who go to work have stomach problems at a young age, and there is a large group of potential customers, so I brought the team to tackle problems. I found a suitable recipe from countless ancient recipes, but I didn't expect to be a step ahead by foreign companies, and they also optimized our original recipes."

Charlie Wade frowned: "Foreign companies? To plagiarize our ancient Chinese medicine prescriptions? Don't those companies mainly focus on western medicine?"

Liam shook his head and said, "It's not a western medicine, but Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals obtained an ancient prescription from our country, and then developed a kind of stomach powder based on the ancient prescription. The efficacy of this stomach powder is indeed stronger than our stomach medicine, so now the stomach powder market It has been taken over by Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, which is very unfavorable for us."

He paused for a moment, and then said with a little frustration: "Leave aside, Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals has developed our ancient traditional Chinese medicine prescriptions. The level of development of our ancient Chinese medicine prescriptions is indeed very high. Since the era of Kobayashi Masao, they have been profiting from Kampo medicines all over the world. , Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's background is too deep."

"Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall?" Charlie Wade couldn't help frowning when he heard this, and asked: "Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall was so weak before, is it still so competitive now?"

Liam nodded, sighed, and said, "Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals is the top pharmaceutical company in Asia after all. As long as it doesn't hurt the bones, it has strong competitiveness, and they have the best hardware laboratory and R&D team in Asia. Therefore, we can optimize a stomach powder based on the ancient prescription."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly. He didn't expect that Jiro Kobayashi really had two brushes. The entire Kobayashi Pharmaceutical was pitted by himself for more than 10 billion, and he was about to turn over so soon. At this time, Liam also sighed: "We didn't make good use of the essence left by our ancestors. We finally let foreigners plagiarize it. It's really a shame."

Charlie Wade asked: "How big is the impact of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical on you now?"

Liam said: "The gastric medicine alone will have a very big impact. In the long run, Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals is now actively developing new drugs. I estimate that in the future it will gradually eat away our development space. The income has already been greatly affected. Almost all the money invested in stomach medicine has been squandered, and we will continue to research and develop new medicines. If it succeeds, it will be fine. If it fails, it will be further into the quagmire."

After talking, Liam said again: "During this time, the World College Sanda Fighting Competition is about to begin. It will be held in Aurouss Hill. This game is sponsored by Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, and the promotion is very big."

Charlie Wade asked curiously: "Will Jiro Kobayashi come?"

Liam said: "I don't know this yet, but it is said that the award-giving guest for this finals is a high-level Kobayashi Pharmaceutical. It is still unclear who it is. It may be Jiro Kobayashi."

Charlie Wade nodded lightly.

Chapter 1144

In fact, there are countless kinds of magical ancient medical prescriptions recorded in the "Apocalyptic Book". There are dozens of stomach medicines alone. Just picking one out can help Liam completely crush Kobayashi Pharmaceutical.

However, the pharmaceutical industry is a very profitable industry, so I certainly cannot help Liam in vain.

So he said to Liam: "Liam, I have a few good recipes in my hand. They are produced and they are definitely best-selling magical medicines. If I use the recipes to buy shares, how many shares would you give me?"

Liam almost said without hesitation: "Master Wade, Liam can have today. It depends on your achievements. The entire Weaver Pharmaceutical is yours. You will give me a word from Liam immediately!"

Liam was also very clear in his mind.

Without Charlie Wade, he could not inherit Weaver's Pharmaceuticals.

Without Charlie Wade, if the Weaver family father and son came back, they would not be able to hold Weaver's Pharmaceutical.

Therefore, he was willing to completely adhere to Charlie Wade, even if he gave up Weaver's Pharmaceutical, he would never give the Weaver family father and son a chance to stand up.

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Well, if the prescription I gave you is more effective than Kobayashi's stomach powder, then you give me 80% of the shares of Weaver's Pharmaceutical, and I will continue to be better in the future. The prescription is for you to ensure that Weaver's Pharmaceuticals can grow into a company of hundreds of billions in the future. By that time, your personal assets will exceed 20 billion."

The current assets of Weaver's Pharmaceuticals are about two to three billion Dollar, but they still have certain debts, coupled with the recent poor management, the overall decline.

If Charlie Wade can really enable Weaver's Pharmaceuticals to grow into a large group of hundreds of billions in the future, even if Liam is only 10%, he can double his assets.

So for him, he has no reason to refuse.

And he had heard about it a long time ago that Master Wade's one-handed magic pill, if the prescription he took out, it would surely be able to sell!

Therefore, Liam agreed without hesitation, and said excitedly: "Thank you Master Wade! Liam has nothing to say!"

Charlie Wade is not trying to take advantage of Liam, but the top prescription is really worthless!

For example, the male magic drug of its parent company, made hundreds of billions of dollars in profits because of this drug.

Therefore, if you give it to him in vain, it is simply a mentally disabled person.

Win-win cooperation is the best solution.

So Charlie Wade said to Liam: "In this case, you should go back first. Tomorrow I will ask the lawyer to sign a contract with you, and I will give you the prescription at that time."

Don Albertt hurriedly asked, "Master Wade, what should I do about the Webb family?"

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently: "I have my own decision, so don't worry!"

Chapter 1145

At this moment, there are two solutions in front of Charlie Wade.

First, he immediately went to Stephen Thompson and asked Stephen Thompson to send masters from the Wade family to Golim Mountain to intercept them. There are many masters from the Wade family, so dealing with the eight heavenly kings shouldn't be a problem;

Second, he immediately set off to Golim Mountain, personally snipe the eight heavenly kings at the foot of Golim Mountain.

After thinking for a few seconds, Charlie Wade decided that he should solve his own problems and go to Golim Mountain personally to get the Eight Heavenly Kings settled.

Charlie Wade has been studying the "Apocalyptic Book" for some days, and his constant enlightenment has enabled him to continuously improve.

At the same time, his body has been tempered with spiritual energy, which is even more different from ordinary people at this time.

Not to mention that he has refined so many Rejuvenation Pills himself, relying on the Rejuvenation Pills to raise his body to a higher level.

As far as Charlie Wade's current strength is concerned, let alone the Eight Heavenly Kings, even if it doubles, it will not be Charlie Wade's opponent.

However, you must go to Golim Mountain as soon as possible.

Because the eight heavenly kings of the Webb family may have already set off.

southern region is several hundred kilometers further south from Aurouss Hilll, so this gave Charlie Wade some time window.

If he is efficient, it is possible that the Eight Heavenly Kings will arrive at Golim Mountain first.

So he immediately called Cameron Isaac and blurted out and asked, "Can you arrange a plane for me? I want to set off to Golim Mountain immediately."

Cameron Isaac hurriedly said: "No problem, master, Aurouss Hilll Airport has our business jet, and it is the world's fastest civil business jet specially customized by the Wade family, which is much faster than ordinary jets."

After speaking, Cameron Isaac said: "The Wade family has always believed in that timing is greater than anything else, so the Wade family's plane is faster than all the family's private jets!"

"Very good!" Charlie Wade said with satisfaction: "You can let the plane wait at the airport to get ready for take-off. At the same time, let your Shangri-La helicopter pick me up at Thompson First. I will rush to the airport immediately."

"no problem!"

As Cameron Isaac said, he hurriedly asked: "Master, do you need help when going to Golim Mountain? If you need it, I will call the family."

Charlie Wade said indifferently: "You don't need a helper anymore. You can do me a favor and prepare a helicopter to wait for me at Golim Mountain Airport. After getting off the plane, I will use the fastest time to reach a village at the foot of Golim Mountain."

"No problem!" Cameron Isaac said immediately: "I will make arrangements. If there is no helicopter in Golim Mountain, I will immediately transfer from another place. You will definitely solve this problem before you arrive at Golim Mountain, Master."

"it is good!"

Charlie Wade hung up the phone with satisfaction, and Don Albertt immediately said, "Master Wade, Don Albertt is willing to go with you!" Liam on the side also folded his hands and said, "Master Wade, Liam is also willing to walk with you."

Charlie Wade thought for a while, and said to the two of them: "Since you want to go, then follow me."

Both of them were stubborn and loyal to Charlie Wade. At this time, they were unwilling to let Charlie Wade go to Golim Mountain alone.

Charlie Wade also knew very well that if the two of them wanted to be more devoted to themselves, they had to let them see their true strength. Especially for Liam, Charlie Wade must make sure that this person has no two minds about himself, so he can safely give him the peerless prescriptions in the "Apocalyptic Book".

So this time to go to Golim Mountain, you might as well let him follow the experience to see the true strength of his master!

Soon, Cameron Isaac's helicopter flew to Thompson First.

Charlie Wade and the three got on the helicopter and immediately went to Aurouss Hilll Airport.

Chapter 1146

At this time, at Aurouss Hilll Airport, Wade's private plane deployed in Aurouss Hilll was ready to take off at the end of the runway.

As long as Charlie Wade got on the plane, the plane could take off immediately.

And this plane can send Charlie Wade to Golim Mountain in two hours. In contrast, the private jet of the Webb family takes at least three hours.

Moreover, the Webb family does not have the Wade family's ability to simultaneously mobilize resources across the country or even the world.

I believe that after the Eight Great Heavenly Kings arrive at Golim Mountain, there will be no helicopter waiting for them. At best, Webb's family will prepare off-road vehicles to take them to the foot of the mountain.

According to Don Albertt, from Golim Mountain Airport to the small village where the Weaver family and his son live, off-road vehicles need to drive at least two hours without snow.

If it snows and the road conditions are not good, it will take more than three hours to arrive.

But the helicopter is much faster, flying straight, forty minutes.

So Charlie Wade still has time, and he can definitely arrive before the Eight Heavenly Kings.

The helicopter stopped directly at the end of the airport runway, next to Wade's business jet.

As soon as Charlie Wade got off the helicopter, the door of the business jet opened.

What he didn't expect was that it was Cameron Isaac who opened the door!

Charlie Wade looked at him in surprise and asked, "Why are you here?"

Cameron Isaac hurriedly said: "Master, I really don't worry about you going alone. I'm afraid you don't want me to follow, so I can only do this. Please don't blame it."

Charlie Wade nodded gently: "You are already here, and I can't drive you down. Let's go and let the plane take off as soon as possible."

Don Albertt knew that Charlie Wade was Cameron Isaac's young master for a long time, so he was not surprised about it. However, he knew very little about the Wade Family, so every time he met Charlie Wade, he respected Charlie Wade as Master Wade instead of Mr. Wade.

Of course, this is also related to Charlie Wade's unwillingness to reveal his identity. If you call him Mr. Wade, some people may be able to connect him with the Wade family.

However, Liam on the side was stunned by this young master.

Cameron Isaac is a smart man. He knew that the young master brought Liam with him, and he knew that Liam was already his confidant.

Moreover, since the young master is going to take him to Golim Mountain, he must be ready to show his skills in front of him, so there is no need to deliberately conceal his identity.

Liam was shocked at this time, he knew who Cameron Isaac was, so with Cameron Isaac's young master, he immediately guessed the identity of Charlie Wade.

At this moment, he was shocked.

I never dreamed of my own Master Wade, not only a master with the ability to reach the sky, but also the eldest master of the Wade family, the top family of Eastcliff!

The superior strength is already admirable, and I didn't expect the family background to be even more prominent!

No wonder everyone says Master Wade is a real dragon on earth!

With such ability and background, of course it can be called the four characters of the real dragon on earth!

Thinking of this, he immediately knelt on one knee and said respectfully to Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, you are the very noble young master of the Wade family, but you are willing to fight the injustice for me, for my dead mother, and win the family property for me. Liam is unforgettable!"

Charlie Wade said calmly: "Liam, if you are grateful and want to follow me with all your heart, I will definitely give you splendid wealth!"

After all, he looked at Don Albertt and smiled and said, "Don Albertt, you are the same."

Don Albertt immediately knelt to the ground and said respectfully: "Master, as early as the moment you rescued me from Webb's bodyguard, Don Albertt's life was yours!"

Chapter 1147

The Wade Family's business jet drew up in the dark, galloping in the direction of Golim Mountain at a very fast speed!

The speed of this airplane is indeed much faster than that of ordinary airplanes. Even Charlie Wade couldn't sigh. No wonder Wade Family can stand on top of China's top family. You can tell from the details of the airplane alone.

In important cities across the country, arrange such airplanes to ensure that the family can arrive one step ahead of others in case of emergency. As long as they seize the opportunity first, they have the possibility of winning.

Cameron Isaac told Charlie Wade: "The young master actually still has a faster plane in the Wade family, but there is one and only one of this plane, which was stored by the master at Eastcliff Airport."

"Oh?" Charlie Wade asked curiously, "Is there a faster plane?"

"Yes!" Cameron Isaac nodded and said, "I don't know if you have heard of the Concorde? Years ago, the French developed a supersonic passenger plane that can fly at twice the speed of sound and cruise at an hourly speed. 2150 kilometers."

Charlie Wade said in surprise: "I have heard of Concord Technology, but isn't this aircraft already retired?"

Cameron Isaac said: "Retirement is just withdrawing from the public's vision. That's because this aircraft is flying too fast, the flying cost is too high, and the noise of breaking through the sound barrier during flight is too loud, and ordinary people can't afford it. However, after retiring, four of the best in condition were bought by the world's top big families. After they were bought, these aircraft have always received the best maintenance and maintenance."

Charlie Wade couldn't help but marvel.

Unexpectedly, his grandfather still has such a big hand, and bought a Concorde airliner.

But this also shows the extraordinary courage of the older generation of entrepreneurs.

Regardless of the fact that a Concorde airliner may be extremely expensive, but with it, the father can be two or three times faster than others at the most critical moment.

An ordinary business jet can fly at a maximum speed of eight or nine hundred kilometers per hour, but the Concorde can reach 2.5 times that! If there is a $1 billion order, waiting to be signed in the United States, and whoever can get the order soonest, then the Wade family must be the only person to get the order.

Someone else's plane takes eleven or twelve hours to fly, while this plane only takes about five hours. In other words, he has already signed the contract before others arrive.

Two hours later, Charlie Wade's plane had landed at Golimshan Airport. At this time, on the side of the runway, a helicopter was already waiting here.

After Charlie Wade got off the plane, he asked Cameron Isaac, "Help me ask the airport if Webb's private plane has landed here."

Cameron Isaac hurriedly made a call with his mobile phone. After a while, he admired Charlie Wade and said, "Master, you are so knowledgeable. The airport tower has just received an application for an exclusive private jet. They will land in an hour. Here."

Charlie Wade nodded in satisfaction: "One hour's time advantage is enough. Let's go to the foot of Golim Mountain to see the scenery!" Then he stepped into the helicopter that had been waiting for a long time.

Cameron Isaac, Don Albertt and Liam also boarded the plane.

The helicopter immediately climbed and flew towards the foot of Golim Mountain.

The time at this time was more than four o'clock in the morning, and because it was winter, there was no trace of the sky to light up at this time.

However, a round of beautiful moon in the sky still clearly outlines the outline of the earth.

The helicopter flew out of the airport and passed over the city. Right in front of it was the majestic Golim Mountain.

The outline of Golim Mountain under the moonlight is particularly clear. Because the whole mountain range is white, it looks very beautiful under the moonlight.

Forty minutes later, the helicopter landed one kilometer outside the village.

Chapter 1148

Don Albertt had been to Golim Mountain once before, so he was somewhat familiar with the terrain here. He pointed to a snow-covered mountain road next to the plane and said to Charlie Wade: "Master, this is the only road into the mountain. If the Eight Heavenly Kings at home don't take a helicopter, they have only one way to come."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "If that's the case, then we'll stay here and wait."

Don Albertt hurriedly said, "Master, do you want to call all of us here to help?"

Charlie Wade faintly spit out two words: "No need."

Cameron Isaac was somewhat worried about the safety of the young master, and couldn't help but said: "I also understand the eight heavenly kings of the Webb family. They are indeed strong. You may not be their opponent. To be cautious, let's call some people over to help!"

Charlie Wade waved his hand and said coldly: "Today's matter, only the four of us are present, and only the four of us know about it. If anyone other than us knows, they will be punishable!"

The other three people looked horrified.

They could hear the powerful pressure and the strong domineering from Charlie Wade's words.

It seems that Charlie Wade wants to keep all the eight heavenly kings here today!

The Eight Heavenly Kings at this time just landed at Golim Mountain Airport.

After the plane landed, the eight people walked out of the plane and then left the airport directly through the normal passenger passage.

They were not like Charlie Wade. Charlie Wade didn't go through the passenger passage at all, but took a helicopter off the runway.

The main reason why they did not receive such treatment was that the Webb family had no influence here at all.

The Webb family is a Southaven family. Although it is the so-called first family in the region, it is far behind the real top family. Their strength is mainly covered in the Southaven area, and they have begun to decline after crossing the north of the Yangtze River. And the strength gets weaker as it goes to the north, not to mention the Golim Mountain which is so close to the north. However, although top families like the Wade family are Eastcliff's family, their national development strategy, just like the United States' global development strategy, must be four words and comprehensive dominance.

The United States is the global hegemony, and the Wade family is the national hegemony.

For Wade Family, it is his home field anywhere in the country.

If Wade's family thought, they could kill the Webb family anytime in Southaven, in the Webb family base camp.

This is the embodiment of the strength of a top family!

At this time, the Eight Heavenly Kings headed by Duran, after leaving the airport, saw two off-road vehicles parked at the airport gate.

These two off-road vehicles were the drivers temporarily arranged by the Webb family.

The Webb family has no influence here. The 16 people sent yesterday rented 5 off-road vehicles here before they went to rescue the Weaver family and his son.

This time, the Webb family rented two off-road vehicles at a high price online and let the Eight Heavenly Kings drive there in person.

After the Eight Heavenly Kings took the car, they took two off-road vehicles and headed towards the mountains.

On the road, Duran, the head of the Eight Heavenly Kings, was sitting in the co-driver. He picked up the walkie-talkie and said coldly: "Brothers, we have to drive more than two hours. I am killing! Anyone who dares to stand in front of us will kill without mercy!"

Chapter 1149

On a mountain road that stretches for tens of kilometers, two off-road vehicles drove one after the other.

These two vehicles are also the only two vehicles on these dozens of kilometers of mountain roads.

Driving in the snow is not easy, because when you look around, the lights can hit all the places in white.

Duran was dazzled by the white snowfield outside, and said with some annoyance: "That kid surnamed Wade is really a beast. Since the father and son offended him, they just killed him and sent them to this bird.

What are you doing in a ghost place that doesn't shit? It's really unlucky for us to come here now."

The man driving the car said helplessly: "I asked before I came, this kid with the surname Wade is a devil. He not only likes sending people here to dig ginseng, but also likes sending people to black coal pits to dig for coal, I listened. Said that he had previously brought the boss of a listed company to a construction site to carry cement."

"What's this?" Duran said lightly: "Have you forgotten how the Beggars died? A dozen people were welded to death in the car and sank. The bodies have not been salvaged until now, knowing that they are waiting for them. What is his fate?"

The driver smiled and said, "Everyone is dead, what fate is there?"

Duran said: "There are fish, shrimps and crabs in the river. A car-welded iron cage is sunken at the bottom of the river. There are more than a dozen dead bodies inside. Sooner or later, these people will be eaten into bones by those fish, shrimps and crabs. Small fish eat skin, have you all done small fish massage at fish spas? That kind of fish, even the dander will be eaten completely, and it won't take long for them to leave even a trace of meat on their bones. "

"I'm going!" a man in the back row blurted out, "No wonder the family wanted to kill him, this kid is so evil!"

Duran said indifferently: "We can't take it lightly. Today's battle must be retired."

The driver asked, "Brother, do you think there will be masters on Golim Mountain?"

"Probably not." Duran said: "The people from Donald sent here just a few hours ago. According to the only one who survived, the other party did not have close contact with them, it was all gunfights. So I guess the other party should No master is just a bodyguard with a gun."

"That's good." The driver said with a smile: "We are brothers. We have practiced golden bells and iron jerseys when we were young. I dare not say that we are top masters, but it is definitely not something that ordinary bullets can hurt. It seems tonight It's just a battle of butchering dogs. You can win easily and return to Southaven triumphantly."

Another man said: "It would be fine if Charlie Wade was here too, we can definitely kill him and go back to receive the reward from Master Webb!"

Duran smiled and said, "That Charlie Wade shouldn't be here. The Webb family investigated before. Before we set off, the others were still in Aurouss Hilll."

Having said that, Duran said with emotion: "It would be great if he was there, holding his head back and returning to Master Webb, Master Webb said he would give us several hundred million."

The driver said at this time: "By the way, brother, since this Charlie Wade is so evil, does the strange disease that the second son of the Webb family developed some time ago has something to do with him?"

Duran shook his head: "This is really bad, but it's not impossible."

As he said, he said with emotion: "The strange disease of the second son is really unheard of. It has not been cured for so long, and there has been no relief. It is really weird."

At this moment, Charlie Wade on the hillside stood in the snow with his hands full and negative.

Behind them, Cameron Isaac, Don Albertt and Liam were already shaking in the snow, their faces pale and purple.

While rubbing his hands, Cameron Isaac cursed his mother: "The eight heavenly kings of this dog day are too slow to come! I think it will be bright in an hour!"

Don Albertt looked at Charlie Wade and asked with concern: "Master, are you wearing so little clothes?"

Charlie Wade shook his head slightly, now he has no fear of severe cold. Don't say standing here for an hour or two, even if you let yourself stand here for a day or two for a month, you will never get frostbite.

Chapter 1150

Liam also sucked his nose from the cold. When the four of them first arrived here, Charlie Wade was worried about exposing the target, so he let the helicopter go first. Otherwise, he could sit in the helicopter for a while, at least to block the cold of Golim Mountain. wind.

After waiting for another ten minutes, Charlie Wade suddenly saw four beams of light from two cars on the winding mountain road.

Cameron Isaac also saw the light and said nervously, "Master, they should be here!"

Charlie Wade nodded and said with a smile: "After waiting for them for so long, I almost fell asleep."

Don Albertt hurriedly took out a pistol from his waist, gritted his teeth and said, "Damn, I want to see how awesome these eight heavenly kings are today!"

Charlie Wade said lightly: "Don Albertt, put the gun away, the gun is useless to them."

Don Albertt was taken aback, but after a while he figured it out again. He had seen some skills in the metaphysical world before, including Charlie Wade, who was able to directly order Lightning. If a warrior with a deep cultivation base can block bullets, it is not surprising.

Cameron Isaac asked at this time: "Master, what will we do later? If there is anything we can help, please let me know."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "You don't need to help anything, just follow behind me and watch."

Don Albertt said hurriedly: "Master, you can just draw a few sky thunders and cut these eight heavenly kings directly into ashes, just like that father and son dog before."

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "I'm tired of always using thunder to strike people. Since today is a martial artist, let's just use force to discuss it."

Cameron Isaac had never seen the scene where Charlie Wade struck the father and son duo with thunder, but he had heard of it and heard a little.

But he has always felt that it should be a coincidence, because he has never seen anyone who can order Lightning in his memory.

Although the Wade family knew a lot of people in metaphysics, they had never heard of anyone who had the ability to reach the sky.

At this moment, seeing the two cars continuously hovering up the winding mountain road and getting closer and closer, Charlie Wade took the initiative to walk to the center of the mountain road and walked down the mountain.

The remaining three looked at each other and hurriedly followed.

Duran was already drowsy while sitting in the car, but the brother who was driving took a look at the navigation and said to him, "Brother, we are almost there."

Duran hurriedly asked, "How far is it?"

The other party said: "The navigation display is less than 5 kilometers away."

Duran stretched out and said cursingly: "It's finally here. Let everyone cheer up. No matter how weak the enemy is, we can't take it lightly."

One of his juniors immediately took out the walkie-talkie and said:

"Everyone is cheering up, we are almost there!"

The person in the car behind replied via the walkie-talkie: "Yes, we have already started warming up."

The vehicle continued to drive, and at the moment when it turned a curve, the driver suddenly saw the light hitting directly ahead, and there was a person standing in the middle of the road!

The driver beside Duran exclaimed: "f*ck, is that a human or a ghost?!"
Chapter 1151

No wonder this driver is scared.

You know, they haven't even seen a ghost on these dozens of kilometers of mountain road.

It was really frightening to see a person standing in the middle of the road in the middle of the night.

Duran was also dumbfounded, staring blankly at the young people getting closer and closer in the middle of the road, blurting out: "This is really a person!"

The man outside the car and in the middle of the road looked very young with a smile on his face. He was wearing thin clothes with his hands behind his back. His face was relaxed and indifferent, incompatible with the cold and snowy Golim Mountains around him.

This person is Charlie Wade!

At this time, Cameron Isaac and others hid in the dark 10 meters behind Charlie Wade.

Charlie Wade confessed to them that they could just watch the show, but could not show up.

The driver looked at Charlie Wade nervously and said, "Brother, there is someone standing here so late. It looks weird. Maybe it's specifically for us. Would you like to drive it over?"

Duran thought for a while, and immediately said, "This person dares to wait here alone for the eight of us. He wants to come here by no means waiting. Maybe there are any traps waiting for us. Let's stop and walk over to see what happens!"

At this moment, Charlie Wade, holding the Thunder Order in his hand, felt calm in his heart.

He dared to stand in the middle of the road, so he was not afraid of the Eight Heavenly Kings driving him over.

This thunder-thundering order can attract sky thunders at any time. If the eight heavenly kings don't get out of the car, they face the gongs and the drums, and then they can directly use two sky thunders to split their car down the cliff and end the battle.

Fortunately, Duran did not underestimate the enemy, and the two cars slowly stopped at a distance of more than 10 meters from Charlie Wade. Afterwards, the eight heavenly kings all got off.

Duran strode to the front, looking at Charlie Wade through the car lights, and said coldly: "Boy, who are you? Just blocked my Eight Heavenly Kings!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said: "My name is Wade, Charlie Wade Wade, and the most famous live-in son-in-law in Arouss Hilll is me."
Duran was shocked!

When I was in the car just now, I was still talking about Charlie Wade, everyone was still thinking, if Charlie Wade was here, it would be nice to kill him all at once.

But I never dreamed that he would actually appear here!

And this seems a bit unreasonable.

When he set off, he was still in Arouss Hilll. Why did he arrive earlier than he did when he arrived here.

I don't think it is scientific.

However, he quickly put this question behind his head, looked at Charlie Wade, and asked in a cold voice: "Charlie Wade Wade, did you know that we would be here?"

"That's right." Charlie Wade smiled lightly and said: "I thought the Eight Heavenly Kings are some great people. I didn't expect them to be eight old gentlemen. You eight should be 400 years old together?" The eight brothers of Duran are indeed quite old, and the youngest one is already over 50 years old, so the total of the eight people is over 400 years old.

At this time, seeing himself and his juniors being so despised by Charlie Wade, Duran said in a cold voice of dissatisfaction: "Today, I didn't want to take your life, but I still want to keep your dog and wait for my senior brother. People go to Aurouss Hilll and take the head of your item personally! I didn't expect that there is a way to heaven, you won't go, and there is no way to hell, you will break in! That's fine, lest we go to Aurouss Hilll ourselves again."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Take my head? It depends on whether you have this ability!"

"Stop talking nonsense!" Duran snorted coldly, and said, "Charlie Wade, my eight heavenly kings are definitely not a vain name. I have not lost for dozens of years. Today I let my youngest brother, Fight for the eight of me! He is known as Dan of Iron Fist, and many died under his hands. He will not lose in this life!"

After listening to Charlie Wade, with a scornful smile, he sneered: "Dan of Iron Fist? Very good, today he can die in the hands of the Real Dragon, Charlie Wade, it is also the good fortune he cultivated in several lifetimes!"

At this time, a strong middle-aged man among the Eight Great Heavenly Kings screamed, walked to the front, pointed at Charlie Wade and shouted angrily: "Mao Tau boy, you are also worthy of killing me? Watch me blow your dog's head with a punch!"

Chapter 1152

After all, his feet rushed toward Charlie Wade like a wind!

The fist that was bigger than the mouth of the bowl was already in front of you at this time!

He has been practicing boxing for dozens of years, and his whole life of martial arts and hard work has been condensed on a pair of fists. Only this punch is a stone monument more than ten centimeters thick. It can also be broken with one punch, which cant be resisted!

But Charlie Wade had already seen through his cultivation at a glance. Just a brash man with a harder fist!

Compared with yourself and the worm that shakes the tree, it is no different!

So he did not dodge or dodge, just standing in front of King Iron Fist Dan, with a chilling smile on his face.

Dan couldn't believe that this kid should be so despised, he had rushed in front of him, ready to blow his dog's head with a punch, but he was not afraid at all!

This is looking down on yourself!

In that case, let you taste the price of despising an Iron Fist!

Afterwards, he rushed to Charlie Wade, and his iron fist rushed straight to Charlie Wade's head and smashed it!

With a smile on his face, Duran said indifferently: "The Eighth Junior Brother is really lucky this time, and he did so for nothing! I believe Master Webb will definitely reward him!"

The other juniors all showed envy.

In their opinion, the Eighth Junior Brother can have such a chance, entirely because the senior brother has perfected, this kid with the surname Wade is so stupid, he can be killed with one blow instead of being himself!

Cameron Isaac, Don Albertt and Liam, who were hiding in the dark, all squeezed a cold sweat for Charlie Wade.

They didn't understand, why didn't Charlie Wade hide?

But only Charlie Wade knew that there was absolutely no need to hide.

At this point, Dan's fist wind has blown his face!

Immediately afterwards, the fist was already in sight!

At the moment when King Iron Fist Dan thought Charlie Wade was going to die, Charlie Wade suddenly pulled out a hand from his back, a fist that seemed weak, but lightly faced him with an iron fist.

In the next moment, Iron Fist Dan felt his fist was hit by a hard armor-piercing shell!

Only a sharp pain was felt, followed by the sound of broken bones!

Charlie Wade's fluttering punch, not only directly unloaded all the strength of Iron Fist Dan's fist, it was extremely powerful, and it also shattered the opponent's right fist, right hand, and right arm!

Iron Fist Dan instantly let out a tragic cry, and the whole person flew upside down, and fell into the snow with a thump!

His seven seniors were looking at him dumbfounded at this time, and saw that his entire right arm was already bloody and bloody, like a mass of rotten meat that had been blown up by 10,000 tons of boulders.

He is the Iron Fist Dan!

His fist can smash anything even if it is a hard rock! Anyone's body is as vulnerable as tofu under his fist.

But, why in front of Charlie Wade's fist, his iron fist turned into tofu? It was smashed by Charlie Wade's punch! Who is the iron fist of these two people? !

Chapter 1153

Seeing that Junior Brother was defeated in an instant, Duran was struck by lightning!

Although his strength is better than that of the Eighth Junior Brother, his fist is much worse than the Eighth Junior Brother's iron fist.

After all, the Eighth Junior Brother himself, for decades, all his thoughts have been concentrated on his pair of iron fists, and he has never encountered an opponent in the world.

But who would have thought that a young man in his 20s would smash his fist and his arm with one punch

How powerful is this, even a great force!

Duran was terrified! It seems that Charlie Wade is really not an ordinary person!

But today, eight of his senior brothers are indispensable for a fierce battle!

Cameron Isaac and others were also surprised!

The three of them never dreamed that Charlie Wade's strength would be so great!

The other party is also a man with a face, and even if Charlie Wade fights him for more than a dozen rounds and then defeats him, it can be regarded as the past.

But Charlie Wade was so unreasonable, and he smashed the iron fist with a single move!

This meaning is very obvious, you are an iron fist, then I will hit the iron fist!

When Iron Fist Dan was smashed to the ground, the whole person was even more shocked.

He didn't expect that the place where he was most confident and powerful would be fragile in front of others.

Seeing that his right arm had been rotten to flesh, he knew in his heart that his skill had been lost in half.

After decades of hard work, he was beaten by a 50% discount. Iron Fist Dan felt extremely painful. He crawled to Duran with one arm, crying and said, "Big brother, you must avenge me!"

Duran darkened his face and nodded gloomily.

"Senior Brother Eighth don't worry, the senior brothers will definitely avenge you!"

After all, he said to the other six people: "Junior brothers, this kid is really good! In that case, I don't have to talk to him about morals and justice, everyone!"

When Charlie Wade heard this, he laughed: "What you said just now is that the Eight Heavenly Kings are definitely not a mere name. There are dozens of them in the world, not more than less, but I didn't expect it to be just a nonsense! I knew this, you 8 It's better to go with an old dog, and it will make Grandpa and I have a good time!"

Duran felt that his face was very hot, and said angrily: "The surname Wade, don't you play with me any kind of stimulating method here? You can hurt my eighth junior brother, and absolutely can't hurt my seven brothers. Today, Duran asked you to This dog lives in Golim Mountain!"

After that, he said coldly: "But you can rest assured, I will only leave your body in Golim Mountain, and your head, I will take your head to southern region and return to the old man of the Webb family! If the old man of the Webb family pity you, maybe Give your head to your wife!"

Charlie Wade heard this and said coldly: "Duran, right? Don't worry, today your eight senior brothers will sleep here! But I won't take your head away, because you are an old hanging silk. It's not worth it for me to take your head!"

"What a big tone!" Duran yelled angrily: "My eight brothers have never failed since the day they played as a teacher. There are countless injustices in their hands. I don't care if you have one more!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said lightly: "Today, I want to avenge your many unjust souls!"

Duran gritted his teeth and shouted coldly: "Junior brothers, kill this kid with me. We will use his head to sacrifice the right arm of the eighth brother!"

As soon as the voice fell, the other six people swarmed with him!

Charlie Wade stood on the spot, with his left hand behind him and his right hand in front of him. At this moment, all the Reiki in his body was condensed in his right hand without any trace.

At this time, he was faintly excited deep in his heart, and the blood in his body had begun to boil.

Since getting the "Apocalyptic Book", Charlie Wade has never encountered a truly powerful top master.

Chapter 1154

He is still in metaphysics, although he has some accomplishments, but in fact, he can't bear the shock of thunder.

As for the hanging silk like he has encountered in the past, at best, it is a gangster who commits crimes, and there is no such thing as a master. But these eight heavenly kings are really interesting.

Just the punch of the iron fist Dan just now, if it hit anyone else, it would really blow his dog's head with one punch.

Duran is in front of him, I am afraid that he can't carry it back and forth.

But even so, Iron Fist Dan was still too weak in front of Charlie Wade. Now that the seven people go together, they have a little fighting power! At this time, Duran took the lead!

His seven junior and senior brothers followed him step by step. The seven people have already set their formations, ready to take Charlie Wade's life.

Duran came to Charlie Wade, his body strength came out of his dantian, gathered his hands, and then made a leap, his palms rushed towards Charlie Wade!

This Duran is the best at hand!

The best time in his life, a crazy adult male elephant was killed with one palm!

This palm technique looks soft, but it can contain incomparable strength, which is many times more advanced than a boxing.

Whether in the world of martial arts or in martial arts novels, the mastery is truly top-notch!

In martial arts novels, there are so many fascinations about palm, and it can be seen that palm is the most unpredictable pulse among martial artists!

Duran's palm skills are superb and very powerful, and even looking at the entire southern region, he can't find a master who can compete with Duran.

In addition, there are six juniors behind him who are blessed, and this time he is ready to kill Charlie Wade with a single blow!

But, unexplainably, Charlie Wade is still calm and unspeakable.

He stood here quietly, without moving a moment, and said leisurely: "I admire your undaunted spirit, but fierceness is one thing, strength is another matter!"

Duran had already played ten percent of his skill at this time! It's like a cannonball that has been out of the chamber, with unstoppable momentum! He can already conclude at this time that even if Charlie Wade is a master of martial arts, this palm is enough to kill him!

So, he shouted coldly: "Boy! You're looking for death! Watch Master abolish your meridians!"

Just when Duran's palm was less than half a meter away from him, Charlie Wade narrowed his eyes, and took a step forward casually, saying indifferently, "Duran, you are good at palm skills? Then I will let you try. My palm!"

After all, he turned his right hand into his palm, and with full reiki, he greeted Duran unhurriedly!

Duran's palm contained a mighty force, which was unstoppable.

However, when Charlie Wade greeted him with a soft palm, he suddenly felt that he was hitting Mount Tai with a palm!

What he didn't know was that Charlie Wade's palm contained an aura that he had never heard of!

Reiki is between the heaven and the earth, the most refined, pure, strong and yang, even the strongest!

Chapter 1155

How did Duran know Charlie Wade's catty!

Seeing that Charlie Wade didn't move like a mountain in the first half, but in the second half, he just slapped softly, thinking that this kid was negligent and would be hit hard by himself.

However, at the moment when he really met Charlie Wade's palm, Duran realized that his palm, instead of allowing Charlie Wade to retreat in the slightest, bounced back with a tremendous amount of strength, instantly squeezing his right arm. Also beaten to powder!

He didn't expect that his fate would be the same as the Eighth Junior Brother!

Seeing that the right arm was already in flesh and blood, and he didn't care about the injury at all, because his whole body had been flew out by this huge force projectile, back several meters!

Duran retreated quickly while trying to stop his figure in the snow with his legs.

But the power of Charlie Wade's palm was so great that he couldn't support his legs at all, so he could only allow himself to keep retreating!

The six juniors were shocked when they saw this!

They are very clear about the strength of the big brother. If he is allowed to hit a palm with ten successful powers, even a top expert must be prepared to be able to handle it.

Even, it is likely to be embarrassed because of the big brother's palm. But who would have thought that Charlie Wade didn't rush, and attacked with one hand, hitting the big brother like a cannonball back after another.

One of them hurriedly shouted: "Quick! Let go of your strength for the big brother!"

Only then did the other five people come to their senses. The six hurriedly stood in two rows behind Duran and tried their best to lend him strength from behind!

However, he did not expect that the speed of his retreat could be called a powerful force!

At this moment, what his body carries is the aura that Charlie Wade slapped!

Everyone was suffering from severe pain in their arms one after another. Seven people came to relieve their strength, but they all flew upside down several meters away and crashed to the ground!

What is even more tragic is that three of them directly smashed their Eighth Junior Brother, that is, Iron Fist Dan!

The huge force directly smashed the iron fist Dan, and vomited blood! Charlie Wade's aura is full of power, Duran is the first to bear the brunt, and the whole person is heavily smashed into the snow, like mud, unable to move!

"How is this possible?!"

Duran stared at Charlie Wade in disbelief, his face was amazed!

You know, he is an expert in martial arts who came from the hidden Sejong Sect, and he is invincible across the entire southern region!

If it wasn't for the old man of the Webb family, and the other party's heavy invitation, with his powerful strength, how could he be willing to stick to this small pond in the south of the Yangtze River?

He asked himself, in his life, he has seen too many opponents, but he has never felt as powerless as now!

At this moment, he didn't even see how this kid made the move, and he was hit hard!

For a warrior, nothing is more important than the arm, especially the right arm.

When the right arm is broken, the person is broken.

What master to talk about? nonexistent.

After all, Yang Guo is just a character in martial arts novels. In reality, he has never seen a one-armed master.

Because, in the case of one-armed, the body is always in a state of imbalance, let alone fighting with others, even running will have obvious weight imbalance, if a person's body center of gravity cannot be in the center of the body, then he How to become a master

Chapter 1156

Charlie Wade retreated seven people with a palm, making the Eight Heavenly Kings feel astonished!

What kind of strength can achieve this incredible level?

Even the top masters in this world can't have such a powerful strength!

After all, the Eight Heavenly Kings are not vegetarians. If they and the brothers work together, they will have an effect of 1+1 greater than 2.

But even so, the total of the eight heavenly kings is nothing more than a punch and a palm by Charlie Wade.

Duran got up with difficulty and blurted out: "Who are you? Where did you go from? Who did you learn from?"

Charlie Wade sneered and said, "I don't have a teacher, and I learn from myself. Why, are you not convinced?"

Duran swallowed his saliva and said nervously, "Serve! I'll take it! I really take it! Master Wade, you are the top master in this world. You must know that martial arts are not easy to practice, so please look at us. Brother brothers know their mistakes and make corrections, spare us a dog."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Let me spare my life so soon? Why don't you play cards according to your routine?"

Duran said with difficulty: "I know that my skills are not as good as others, and I don't want to do unnecessary struggles. I just ask Master Wade to raise my hand!"

Charlie Wade asked back: "You wanted to kill me when you came, but you can't kill me now. Just beg me to raise your hand. Is this world so beautiful? That's because I am incapable of you. I begged you not to kill me. Will you agree?"

Duran's expression was ugly, he knew Charlie Wade couldn't let him go so easily.

So he knelt down immediately and said to Charlie Wade: "Master Wade! If you are willing to raise your noble hand, my eight brothers and sisters will respect you in this life and listen to your orders!"

Charlie Wade smiled playfully, looked at him and asked, "What? Now reverting? Then how do you go back to Master Webb's life?"

Duran said earnestly: "As the saying goes, good birds choose trees to live, Duran knows that Master Wade has great magical powers, and is willing to abandon the dark and cast the light, and follow Master Wade all his life!"

Charlie Wade nodded indifferently. He slowly walked towards Duran and others. No one knew what he was thinking at this time.

Seeing him getting closer, Duran nervously said to the juniors: "Quick! Kneel down and worship Master Wade!"

As a result, the Eight Great Heavenly Kings got up one after another and bowed to Charlie Wade.

Even Dan, the iron fist whose right arm was abolished, knelt on the ground and kowtowed.

And Duran, at this moment, retracted his left hand into his sleeve and held a dagger in his hand calmly.

This dagger is only a bunch long, and it stands to reason that it is not very lethal, especially for masters.

However, Duran's dagger came from an extraordinary origin. He not only tempered the blade with highly toxic substances, but also smeared a small amount of radioactive powder on the blade.

This kind of small amount of radioactive powder does not cause much radiation to humans if it is not contacted, but once it is exposed to this radioactive powder and the wound enters the body, the body will not heal for a long time.

It is also the ultimate ultimate move that Duran has been hiding for many years.

Except for his juniors, everyone who has seen this dagger is dead!

Charlie Wade abolished his right arm, this hatred is not shared.

Therefore, it is impossible for him to bow to Charlie Wade at all!

The reason for saying this is just because he is young, and guesses that he has no experience in the world, and is ready to convince him to stabilize him first, and then take the opportunity to sneak attack with stigma.

Fight for one hit!

Chapter 1157

Although Charlie Wade was young, he didn't feel like he was shocked.

Duran thought he had deceived him, but in fact he had been guarding these eight people from beginning to end.

Because, for Charlie Wade, he was not even ready to subdue these eight people for his own use.

As for the reason, it's just that they simply don't look down on these people.

With their strength, even if you really respect yourself, what can you do for yourself?

It's nothing more than eight dogs with sharp teeth!

Charlie Wade is not rare for such a dog.

However, with a playful smile on his face, he walked in front of the Eight Heavenly Kings.

"Do you really want to respect me when you wait?"

Duran took the lead, and the eight people shouted in unison: "I would like to bow down to Master Wade for the rest of my life!"

Charlie Wade nodded and asked with a light smile: "If I don't let you worship, what shall you do?"

"This"

Duran and others were dumbfounded, never dreaming that Charlie Wade would give such an answer.

"Don't let me worship? Are you acting like that?"

Duran thought to himself that he was ready to attack Charlie Wade.

So he knelt and walked forward, crawling all the way to Charlie Wade's feet, bowing his head under his feet, and choked with his mouth: "Master Wade, Duran has never served anyone in his life. You are the only one that Duran can admire from the bottom of his heart. Yes! Please show your compassion and give Duran and his juniors an opportunity to saddle you!"

Although our brothers are tens of thousands of miles worse than you, they are still in this world. Can be regarded as a master, please don't dislike Master Wade."

Charlie Wade sneered: "After saddling for me, the test is not the strength of strength, but the level of character, poor character, there will never be any chance with me."

After that, he looked at Duran and said coldly: "Look at you, with protruding teeth, protruding teeth, long tongues, and cheekbones that are not fleshy and sharp. At first glance, it is the most typical face of a villain. A person like you is a little brother, I don't want to face my mother?"

Duran didn't expect that he would kneel down and kowtow to Charlie Wade. This guy even mocked and ridiculed himself, which is absolutely horrible! At this point, when he saw Charlie Wade's arrogant expression and his hands behind him, he knew that he had a chance to kill with one blow! So he suddenly attacked Charlie Wade, revealing a sharp black dagger in his left hand, and rushed directly to Charlie Wade's legs.

Charlie Wade looked at him with a sneer on his face, without any dodge, and stood motionless and said: "Come on, I'll stand still and let you poke!"

Duran didn't expect that Charlie Wade had already seen through himself, and he didn't expect this kid to be so underestimated that he didn't even dodge!

If the highly toxic and radioactive powder smeared on this blade, if it sticks to the skin, it will definitely die!

It seems that after all, this kid is inexperienced in the arena, and it is really a pity!

So he smiled grimly, and said coldly: "Bad son, scrap my right arm, and said that my face is like a villain, and today I will let you take your life to apologize!"

After all, the blade has already pierced Charlie Wade!

But something strange happened soon!

He never dreamed that when his blade was less than one millimeter away from Charlie Wade's leg, it seemed to have touched an invisible wall. Even if he exhausted all his energy, he couldn't make the blade move forward!

"What is going on here?!"

Chapter 1158

Duran couldn't understand, Charlie Wade obviously didn't reach out his hand to stop him, so why couldn't he stab him?

What is the power that is invisibly blocking oneself? !

Martial artist, he has practiced martial arts to the extreme, but they don't understand what a real magical power is! How did he know that there is still a kind of power in this world that can be transmitted without the body, this kind of power is Reiki!

It's like even though Jack Yuleman is a master of metaphysics, who knows Jack's corpse magic and can control black mosquitos, he doesn't know that there is another magical power in this world that can summon sky thunder. Therefore, it is never strength to defeat a person, but arrogance!

Duran thought that he had found Charlie Wade's fate, and that he would surely kill him with one blow. This was his arrogance!

And now, he has to pay for his arrogance!

Charlie Wade sneered, gently lifted his foot, and stepped his left arm under his foot.

Then, Charlie Wade's toes were slightly harder, and Duran's left arm was crushed directly from the elbow, and the upper arm was connected to the forearm with only the clothes left.

He wailed in pain, and hurriedly wanted to withdraw and retreat. With a little effort, he tore his clothes!

Then I looked again, and I was horrified to find that my forearm and left hand were on the other side of Charlie Wade's foot!

Charlie Wade looked at him and sneered: "Duran, I really didn't make a mistake. You are a natural villain. Leaving you like this will only harm the world!"

Duran trembled in fright, and his legs couldn't help retreating, but he knew very well in his heart that with his current situation, he was already unable to retreat.

Where to go back? Can't run, the car can't drive, and he can't fly.

Maybe, let your juniors resist for a while, maybe you can win yourself a chance to escape!

So he yelled: "All the juniors and disciples listen to the orders! I am waiting for today is the critical moment of life and death. If we can't work together to punish this dog thief, I will die here! I also hope that all the juniors will go all out. Make a way out!"

When the other seven heard this, their expressions suddenly shrank!

They are also very clear that today's battle will be a battle of life and death.

So everyone got up and rushed towards Charlie Wade desperately.

At this time, Duran continued to back up, then turned around to escape!

Charlie Wade just kicked a person away, and immediately saw Duran want to escape, he grabbed the person in front of him with one hand, and threw it out in the direction of Duran!

It was Duran's third junior brother who was thrown out by Charlie Wade!

These three juniors have been practicing iron head skills for many years, and their bald heads are as hard as iron!

At this moment, his entire head was facing Duran's waist, like a cannonball out of the chamber, rushing out instantly.

Immediately afterwards, his iron head slammed on Duran's back waist!

With only a click, Duran's spine was hit by the head of the third junior brother and broke into two!

The moment Duran fell to the ground, his lower body was completely unaware. Using the remaining upper arm of his left arm, he turned over with difficulty and looked at the poor third junior brother, exclaiming in anger: "Third Junior brother, you attacked me behind your back!"

The Third Junior Brother hurriedly wailed: "Big Brother, I didn't want to sneak attack you, I was thrown by that kid!"

Having said that, he suddenly came back to his senses and blurted out angrily: "Big brother, didn't you let us go all out to make a way out?"

Then why are you turning your back to us? Are you trying to escape?!"

Chapter 1159

Duran was speechless when asked by the Third Junior Brother.

He really wanted to escape, but he didn't expect to escape such a situation.

Not only did people not escape, but they were also hit so badly!

He looked at the Third Junior Brother in pain, and blurted out: "Where am I going to escape, I just want to kill the carbine for that surname Wade!"

The Third Junior Brother is not a fool. He looked at Duran angrily, and roared: "Do you think I am a fool? You both have no hands, what the hell do you take to kill the carbine for Wade?!"

Duran scolded furiously: "How do you talk to the big brother? Do you want to rebel?"

The third junior rushed to bite his ear, and cursed: "This senior brother, actually wants us to flee for you to death, and I will cut your grace from now on!"

Duran yelled as he was bitten.

But at this time, he is still a master?

With his hands abolished and his lower limbs paralyzed, he is now a standard invalid.

So at this time, his ear was bitten by the third junior brother, and he was heartbroken but there was no way.

He could only roar hysterically: "The third child, you bastard, let me go quickly, do you think I want to run? Don't I want to leave a seed for the eight of our brothers?"

The Third Junior Brother asked angrily: "You shouldn't leave the waste of your arms as waste if you leave the seeds! Isn't it OK to leave me?"

Duran was bitten and shouted, "You bastard, now you still say who to keep, do you think you can run away if you keep?"

Third Junior Brother said angrily: "How do you know that I can't run away?"

At this moment, Charlie Wade's cold voice came over: "You should listen to your senior brother. Your senior brother is right. You can't run away at all, none of you can run away."

The Third Junior Brother released his mouth subconsciously and raised his head to look at Charlie Wade.

At this time Charlie Wade had already come to the two of them.

And the other six people of the Eight Heavenly Kings all fell to the ground and howled!

It turned out that at the time when their senior brothers were pinching each other, Charlie Wade had already abolished their other senior brothers.

Duran paled with fright, and cried, "Master Wade, I am already a cripple, please have mercy on me and spare me the life of a dog."

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "You attacked me just now with the intention of taking my life. You really want me to spare you now. Am I such a bully?"

Duran wailed loudly and said, "Master Wade, you are a real master, and a real master will certainly not be as knowledgeable as me. You see that I have reached the point where I am now, so please raise your hand and let me go! "

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "Duran, since the moment your brothers boarded the plane to Golim Mountain, your life-long destination has been determined."

After all, he pointed to the surrounding Golim Mountains and said with a smile: "Don't you think that Golim Mountain is a treasure of geomantic omen? Don't you think it is a blessing to be able to die here and sleep here?"

"No! I don't think!" Duran's tears and snot flowed: "Master Wade, I haven't lived enough yet, I really don't want to die! People who kill me like ants will dirty your noble hands, so please forgive me. Me!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Of course I will not kill you myself, because you are not worthy."

After speaking, Charlie Wade looked around for a week and sneered: "The eight of you are not worthy of me to kill you personally!"

The eight heavenly kings were all horrified.

Everyone asks themselves a question in their hearts: Charlie Wade is only one person, but Charlie Wade is not going to kill them by himself, so what exactly is Charlie Wade going to do to them?

In other words, how did Charlie Wade want them to die?

Charlie Wade stood in the middle of the eight people, raised his hands, and shouted: "Golim Mountain is a sacred mountain, a holy mountain, snow all year round, holy and flawless, you eight filthy people, can die here, it is you who cultivated for eight lifetimes. Blessing!"

After that, Charlie Wade said again: "And I, I am going to send you a holy funeral today! Let your dirty corpses sleep in the white snow!"

Everyone in the Eight Great Heavenly Kings trembled with fright, they still didn't understand, still couldn't figure out how Charlie Wade would kill them.

Charlie Wade looked at everyone with pity at this time, and said with a smile: "You all belong to the brothers, even if you do evil, you will do it together. When you die, you can die together, and you can count as a companion on the afterlife Road!"

Chapter 1160

After speaking, he beckoned to the eight people and smiled: "Your senior brother is already unable to move, so please work hard for the other people to move closer to him. If you want to die together, then just hug before you die. If you don't want to die together, you can spread out a little bit further. I will give you the last minute to prepare."

When the Eight Great Heavenly Kings heard this, they were desperate, but at the same time they were really unwilling. They walked alone on afterlife Road.

So Dan, the first iron fist to be dethroned, struggled to stand up, dragging his badly injured body, slowly came to Duran and sat down. The moment he sat down, he wept bitterly and said: "Big brother has known you and my eight brothers today, it is better not to enter the world"

The others also crawled over with difficulty at this time.

The eight people hugged each other tightly, and the others had already forgiven the move that Duran had planned to escape by himself.

Because except for the moment just now, their big brother has really taken care of them for so many years.

More importantly, today, eight senior brothers are all going to die here.

At the last moment, what prejudices can't let go?

Seeing the eight people hugging each other, Charlie Wade nodded and smiled coldly, "I will let you eight brothers today. Before that, see a real miracle!"

After all, he held the Thundering Ling with one hand to the sky!

The thunder made his whole body glow with a faint blue light, which was stunned!

At this moment, I only heard Charlie Wade yelling between the world: "Thunder! Come on!!!"

With a thunder, the originally clear night sky was suddenly covered with clouds!

The thunder that only happened in summer rang loudly in this night of minus tens of degrees!

Duran and others trembled in shock!

What magical power is this? ! Can the sky be attracted with one hand? ! Immediately afterwards, I saw a huge flash of thunder and lightning in the sky, which struck it down with a click!

Duran shouted with all his strength: "This person can summon the sky thunder! This person is a god! This person is a god!"

As soon as the voice fell, the huge lightning thundered, covering the thick snow all year round above the mountain road!

Immediately afterwards, 10,000 tons of snow began to rumble down the hillside!

It was an avalanche!

Moreover, this avalanche came straight to Charlie Wade and the Eight Heavenly Kings!

The Eight Heavenly Kings almost fainted with fright. Cameron Isaac, Don Albertt, Liam and others also shouted in fright: "Master Wade! Danger!" Charlie Wade smiled indifferently, and said loudly: "Wait, listen carefully, I am the real dragon Charlie Wade! Today, I take the purest things from heaven and earth, you and other filthy bodies! In the next life, reborn as a good person!"

As soon as the voice fell, 10,000 tons of snow fell, instantly engulfing him, the Eight Heavenly Kings, and the two off-road vehicles!

Ten thousand tons of snow rushed to the valley in one breath, Cameron Isaac and the others were shocked, and after the avalanche was over, they looked in the direction where Charlie Wade was originally.

Where is there any mountain road? The rest is nothing but snow!

And those two off-road vehicles, and everyone, have completely disappeared!

At this time, the dark clouds that were originally densely covered by Charlie Wade have dispersed, and the sun has appeared on the horizon!

It was dawn!

The three of them yelled in panic: "Master Wade! Master Wade!"

As dawn broke in the sky, the golden morning light of the east spilled over the earth, and the three of them suddenly saw that a man who refracted golden light came out of the collapsed snowdrift!

The man is steady, light-footed, and has a firm expression on his face!

It is Charlie Wade, Master Wade!

Chapter 1161

Cameron Isaac and the three of them looked at Charlie Wade who was bathed in golden sunlight, and they were completely shocked and speechless!

Today's Charlie Wade, overturned all their previous impressions of Charlie Wade!

Today's Charlie Wade looks like a god in their eyes.

They didn't dare to imagine that Charlie Wade easily killed the Eight Heavenly Kings by himself. Instead of getting hurt, he also summoned the Thunder, causing an avalanche and directly burying the Eight Heavenly Kings!

Moreover, Charlie Wade was in the avalanche with such destructive power, and he was unscathed.

Seeing Charlie Wade getting closer and closer, Liam couldn't hold back and knelt in the snow with a plop. He bowed to Charlie's head: "Master Wade, please accept the next worship. In this life, I would bow down and worship Master Wade alone!"

Then Don Albertt knelt down with a plop, "Master Wade, Don Albertt respects you in this life!"

Cameron Isaac knelt on the ground tremblingly, with his hands up and down on the ground: "Master! From today, you are the only god in Isaac's heart!"

Charlie Wade walked to the three of them, smiled faintly, and said: "From now on, I am still the same Charlie Wade, or the live-in son-in-law Charlie Wade, no matter what you think of me and how you treat me, keep it in your heart. Anyone tells what happened today."

After the three listened, they repeatedly kowtowed. ?

Charlie Wade looked at Cameron Isaac and said seriously: "Cameron Isaac, especially you, you must not tell anyone in the Wade family what happened just now!"

Cameron Isaac gave a startled expression and blurted out, "Master, don't worry, if the Wade family asks about it, I will say that these people died of an avalanche!"

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "That's good."

Having said that, he said again: "This seems to be the only way into the village. Now that the avalanche has closed the road, you can use the Wade family's power to quickly repair these roads. Before the repairs are done, send them first. The helicopter came over to deliver some necessary supplies to the villagers. Don't let me affect their normal lives."

Cameron Isaac said immediately: "You can rest assured, Master, I will call to make arrangements now, and the arrangements must be made properly!"

Charlie Wade gave a hum, looked at the time, and said, "Oh, it's almost seven o'clock. My wife can't find me and I should be anxious, so quickly send me back! I can't make breakfast for my wife this morning."

Everyone was stunned.

Is this still the master Wade who defeated the Eight Heavenly Kings just now?

Is this still Master Wade who summoned the sky thunder to cause the avalanche?

I just killed the Eight Heavenly Kings with such a domineering method, but now I am very upset because I can't cook for my wife.

Cameron Isaac was the first to react and hurriedly said, "Master, I will take us to the airport by helicopter, and then we will fly back to Arouss Hilll. If we can take you home in more than three hours!"

"Okay." Charlie Wade nodded: "Hurry up."

.....

In the morning sun, a helicopter quickly left Golim Mountain and headed towards Golim Mountain Airport.

At the same time, the local media have received reports on the avalanche. While the media and the locals were following up, the Wade's disaster relief helicopter also started flying to the villages in Golim Mountain with a large amount of supplies.

At this moment, the Webb family of southern region.

Elder Webb, lying on the sick bed, is still waiting for news from the Eight Heavenly Kings.

He didn't sleep much all night last night. On the one hand, it was because of physical discomfort, but more because he was always feeling uneasy.

Before dawn, Donald had called the Eight Heavenly Kings, and Duran told him that they were almost at their destination.

Chapter 1162

So the Webb family thought that the next time should be the time for the Eight Heavenly Kings to snatch people, so they didn't dare to bother too much.

Seeing that almost an hour has passed, Mr. Webb calculated that the strength of the Eight Heavenly Kings is so strong that one hour should be enough for them to kill all of them, and then rescue the Weaver family father and son.

So he said to Donald: "Donald, call Mr. Duran and ask how things are going on."

"Okay!" Donald nodded immediately, took out his mobile phone and called Duran.

The phone rang for a long time, but no one answered.

He opened his mouth and said to Old Man Webb: "Dad, no one answers, will you still be doing business?"

Mr. Webb nodded: "It is possible, then we will wait patiently."

10 minutes later, Mr. Webb said again: "Donald, call Mr. Duran again!"

Donald immediately followed suit.

But this time the call still couldn't get through.

Mr. Webb frowned, "It's not right. With their strength, how could it take so long? Some second-rate bodyguards are just a few second-rate bodyguards. To Mr. Duran and the others, it is not a problem. I still remember that back then. When I fought in the Quartet, Mr. Duran followed me into the opponent's nest, and the opponent's two dozen people were killed by Mr. Duran in one stick of incense. This level of strength is simply beyond the imagination of ordinary people."

Donald counseled: "Dad, don't worry. Golim Mountain is in a remote location, the weather is cold, and the place is isolated from the rest of the world. What kind of minor situation will be caused by unevenness."

Elder Webb nodded gently: "Then wait a little longer!"

After another ten minutes, Mr. Webb continued to urge: "Donald, keep trying!"

Donald immediately followed suit, but there was still no change.

Mr. Webb is a little anxious now, he feels more and more that the situation seems a bit wrong.

Therefore, he urged Donald to call Duran over and over again.

Duran couldn't get through, so he asked Donald to call other people in the Eight Heavenly Kings.

But the phone calls of several other people still couldn't get through.

To be precise, the phone can be connected, but no one answers.

It took nearly an hour to reach the Eight Heavenly Kings, which made everyone in the Webb family feel a chill in their backs.

How can the eight heavenly kings disappear all at once? This is not realistic!

Even if the Eight Great Heavenly Kings encounter strong opponents, with their strength, it is impossible that none of them can escape.

After all, just a few hours before them, one of the sixteen people who went to Golim Mountain escaped.

Those people are ordinary second-rate masters who use guns better than their fists, and they are not martial arts masters at all.

There is no reason, a super warrior like the Eight Heavenly Kings can't escape after going there, right?

Mr. Webb was nervous, and even his breathing became abnormally quick.

He firmly grasped Donald's hand, his face was pale, and he whispered to himself: "Nothing is right, this time it is really not right."

Donald could only persuade him: "Dad, don't be so anxious, and wait for a while!"

Elder Webb said earnestly: "Mr. Duran has been following me for so many years and has never been in such a situation, so something is really wrong this time. I even suspect that they may have encountered an accident!"

Chapter 1163

When Charlie Wade had boarded the plane and returned to Aurouss Hill from Golim Mountain, Webb's family was already going crazy in a hurry. The Eight Heavenly Kings rushed to Golim Mountain overnight, just to rescue a father and son, but he did not expect to go there and immediately lost the news.

Donald made the phone calls over and over again, and the cell phone he used was almost out of power, but he still couldn't get through any cell phone.

At this moment, his mobile phone suddenly received a call.

The one who called him was the one who escaped from Golim Mountain last night.

He was still hiding in Golim Mountain City at this time. He was planning to wait until the Eight Great Heavenly Kings triumphed, and he was coming back with the Eight Great Heavenly Kings plane.

He didn't expect that he hadn't waited for the Eight Heavenly Kings, but he had waited for an astonishing bad news!

Just now, the local TV station of Golim Mountain was broadcasting emergency news. The news said that an avalanche occurred at the foot of Golim Mountain. The avalanche caused tens of thousands of tons of snow to vent down, breaking down the road into the mountain, and also two cars and Eight people were buried under the snow.

Local rescuers used large-scale rescue equipment to dig out eight unsightly bodies that had been hit by the snow.

Upon hearing the news, he immediately thought of the Eight Heavenly Kings.

Because he knew that the Eight Heavenly Kings drove two off-road vehicles into the mountain early this morning.

That ghost place doesn't have many residents, and it's not a tourist attraction. The local residents are very poor and can't afford off-road vehicles at all. Tourists outside don't like to go to such remote places, so the roads there are basically There is no car to go in.

When the locals want to come out, they all come out in horse-drawn carriages. There is no off-road vehicle.

So he can almost conclude that the eight people who died in the avalanche were the eight heavenly kings!

So, he immediately told Donald the news.

After Donald got the news, his whole body was struck by lightning!

It took him a long time to recover from the shock. Then he looked at his anxious father on the sickbed and said with a trembling, "Dad, my people just told me that there was an avalanche at the foot of Golim Mountain. Two cars and eight people are involved in it. All eight people have died. It is very likely that they are the eight kings..."

Grandpa Webb suddenly seemed to hit his heart with a heavy hammer, coughing several times, and blurted out: "This is impossible, how could the Eight Heavenly Kings die in an avalanche?! They are all masters!"

Donald sighed and asked, "Why don't I let my people go over and recognize a corpse, and check if it is right?"

Elder Webb was stunned for a moment, then nodded and said, "If that's the case, let's go take a look."

.....

Claire Wilson Wilson got up in the morning and felt a little surprised when she didn't see Charlie Wade's shadow. She called Charlie Wade and found that Charlie Wade's phone could not get through, which made her feel a little strange. After more than three years of marriage, Charlie Wade has never disappeared unexpectedly.

I used to wake up in the morning and couldn't see him. He was either shopping for groceries or making breakfast.

But now, she suddenly couldn't get in touch.

Chapter 1164

Anxiously waiting until about 10 o'clock, Charlie Wade still couldn't get through, and Claire Wilson Wilson began to feel a little worried.

What she thought was that Charlie Wade had been in close contact with many big people during the recent period, and helped many big people watch Feng Shui, and also took a lot of money from the big people, even this Thompson First villa. Rest assured.

Before that, Claire Wilson Wilson had always been afraid that Charlie Wade would have a thunderstorm, just like those thunderous financial products, and suddenly his reputation would go bankrupt.

If his credibility really goes bankrupt, those big men will certainly not spare him lightly.

Just when Claire Wilson Wilson was thinking about it, Charlie Wade called.

As soon as Claire Wilson Wilson answered the phone, he blurted out and asked: "Hey, Charlie Wade, where have you been?"

Charlie Wade had just got off the plane at this time and was about to take a helicopter, so he said to Claire Wilson Wilson, "My wife, I showed a friend of Feng Shui this morning. Their Feng Shui is quite strange, so I can't use my mobile phone to radiate. , Which affected the judgment of Feng Shui fortune, so I turned off the phone."

"Did you look at Feng Shui again?" Claire Wilson Wilson only felt that his head was so big, he blurted out, "Charlie Wade, didn't we say it? Try not to show Feng Shui to others in the future."

Charlie Wade hurriedly said: "My wife, this time I am not helping those big people to watch Feng Shui, but to help a friend of my former welfare institution to watch Feng Shui. He has had bad luck recently, so he asked me to come and have a look. I can confiscate them."

Claire Wilson Wilson breathed a sigh of relief when he heard him say this, and asked, "Then when will you go home?"

Charlie Wade said: "I will be there in about 20 minutes and half an hour."

Claire Wilson Wilson said in a convenient way: "That's good, I'll wait for you at home."

Cameron Isaac's helicopter immediately carried Charlie Wade, Don Albertt and Liam to the city.

When I was approaching Thompson First's first product, Charlie Wade said to Liam: "Liam, I will take the lawyer to Weaver's Pharmaceutical when I have time tomorrow. After we sign the contract, I will give you a good stomach medicine."

Liam blurted out: "Master Wade, Liam has vowed to bow down to you in this life. You helped me take Weaver's Pharmaceuticals back. Liam is willing to hand all the shares of Weaver's Pharmaceuticals to Master Wade!" Charlie Wade waved his hand and said lightly: "I already said that I want 80% of Weaver's Pharmaceuticals. No matter how much it is, I won't want it, but no matter how little, I can't promise to give you the prescription and keep it for you. 20%, I will never let you suffer, so you don't want to tell me anything, just give me things like that." Liam's heart shuddered, and he hurriedly clasped his fists and said, "Liam would like to follow Master Wade's teachings!" Charlie Wade nodded, then looked at Don Albertt and Cameron Isaac: "You two go back, remember not to tell anyone about this." "Master Wade, I will understand!" "it is good!"

Charlie Wade nodded in satisfaction. Seeing that he was almost at the Thompson First villa area, he said to Cameron Isaac: "Let's land on the golf course. I will walk over the golf course."

"Good master!"

After Charlie Wade hurried home, Claire Wilson Wilson couldn't imagine that her husband hurriedly set off from Aurouss Hill early this morning, went to Golim Mountain more than 2,000 kilometers away, at the foot of Golim Mountain, and killed eight villains with blood on their hands. Since Charlie Wade's current strength is very strong, and his physical stamina is even better, so even after tossing such a big circle, he can't see any fatigue at all.

It just so happened that it was almost time for lunch, so Claire Wilson Wilson took him to the vegetable garden in the yard and happily picked a lot of the ingredients she wanted to eat at noon.

At this time, the door was pushed open, and Elaine Ma, Charlie Wade's mother-in-law, walked in sneakily from outside with a crutches!

Chapter 1165

Seeing Elaine Ma walked into the yard with crutches, she was carrying a huge shoulder bag, which was bulging inside.

Charlie Wade felt that her mother-in-law must have done nothing good. Claire Wilson Wilson looked at her in surprise and asked, "Mom, where did you go early in the morning? I haven't seen you."

Elaine Ma laughed and said, "I went to the wholesale market and bought something!"

Claire Wilson Wilson blamed: "Mom, you haven't crutched your leg, why are you running around?"

"It's okay." Elaine Ma waved his hand and said indifferently: "Don't think it is not convenient for me to use crutches, but I am very used to it now, and my legs don't hurt, and crutches are a bit tired. , It's okay."

Claire Wilson Wilson asked again: "Mom, what did you buy a big bag of things? Are you tired? I'll hold it for you!"

Elaine Ma smiled and said, "I'm not tired, I'm not tired, all of them are hats, it doesn't matter."

"Hat?" Claire Wilson Wilson was even more puzzled: "Mom, why do you buy so many hats? There are no more than a dozen hats in a big bag?"

Elaine Ma smirked and opened the zipper of the backpack.

Claire Wilson Wilson and Charlie Wade both looked at them, only to find that the backpack was full of emerald green colors.

Elaine Ma reached out at this time and took out a few various hats from the inside, all of which were authentic green without exception.

Claire Wilson Wilson was dumbfounded and asked, "Mom...why do you buy so many green hats...Who would wear this kind of hat..."

Elaine Ma laughed and said, "I bought 20 various green hats, not for wearing, but for hanging on the balcony!"

"You didn't watch the video of your grandma and the family in the hospital. That damn Christopher was actually put on a green hat by Hannah. How can I let him go for such a funny thing?"

"It happens that their home can see my bedroom terrace, and I will hang all these hats on the side of the terrace facing their home. I told him Christopher to look at these twenty green hats every day, and he was so happy. !"

Claire Wilson Wilson said dumbfounded: "Mom, why are you having trouble with the uncle like this? He was already bad enough."

"Enough ass!" Elaine Ma said angrily, "You don't know how arrogant he used to be, how bad he was to our family, and now finally grabbing his handle, then I won't laugh at him to death!"

Charlie Wade shook his head helplessly.

Among other things, Elaine Ma's torturing ability is indeed rare in the world.

Christopher was already disgusting enough. If he could see 20 green hats on the terrace next door every day, his mood must be very painful.

It is estimated that Elaine Ma could think of this kind of torture.

Claire Wilson Wilson felt that this was not appropriate, and wanted to persuade Elaine Ma, but Elaine Ma didn't listen to her at all, and went straight into the villa.

After returning to his room, the first thing Elaine Ma did was to go to the terrace and hung 20 various green hats next to each other, all on the side facing the Wilson family villa.

With 20 green hats waving in the wind, this picture is really different and sour.

.....

Since coming out of the hospital, Christopher has separated from Hannah. The reason for the separation is of course that he no longer has any feelings for Hannah in his heart.

And I felt that Hannah was too dirty.

Had it not been for Donald's request, he would have divorced Hannah a long time ago, and even if she didn't go through the divorce procedures, he would kick her out of the house.

But now that Donald had already made his mark for Hannah, Christopher naturally didn't dare to disobey him.

But you can't get a divorce. Separation is always possible, right?

So he drove Hannah to a bedroom on the first floor.

Chapter 1166

Hannah didn't care about it. Although she was a little angry at Christopher's unfeeling in her heart, she was still a little guilty deep down.

After all, he wore such a big green hat for her, and now the child in her stomach hasn't gone to the hospital for an operation, he must see himself very upset.

At this moment, Christopher just opened his eyes.

Since coming out of the hospital, he has been suffering from sequelae, the main manifestation of which is weakness and lethargy.

I haven't really slept enough until now, but in his sleep he always felt a sharp itching in his crotch, so he woke up while scratching it. The itching sensation is very peculiar. At first, it was rather itchy, and then I couldn't control it, and it became very itchy when I scratched it. If I scratch it twice, it would become extremely itchy.

So he scratched himself to the extreme.

He couldn't help wondering, what happened to him?

I have always paid attention to personal hygiene, so there shouldn't be any lesions!

He was thinking about it, and he had jumped out of the bed.

Feeling dizzy, he walked onto the terrace while scratching it, wanting to breathe fresh air.

This is good for living in a villa. The privacy can be well protected.

The neighbors are far away and there are no high-rise buildings. Even if you only wear a pair of underwear and walk on the terrace, you don't worry about being seen by others.

He came to the terrace, stretched his waist, and then felt the unbearable itchiness even worse.

He grabbed a few hard and didn't see any improvement. He couldn't help but feel upset. He was about to go to the bathroom to take a closer look at what was going on. When he turned around, Christopher felt that he was on the opposite side of the terrace of Charlie Wade's house. There was a bunch of green things floating in the wind.

So he hurriedly looked intently, almost half dead in his sight.

Although it is a little far away, it is still clear that the 20 windward things hanging on the terrace of Charlie Wade's house are green hats of different styles and shapes!

20 green hats, what the hell does this mean? !

And it's facing the direction of your own, isn't it the damn thing to make it clear for yourself?

Isn't this just a mockery of being Hannah wearing a green hat?

Damn, it's outrageous!

Christopher was out of breath, his fists were already clenched, and his nails were almost embedded in the flesh.

He doesn't need to think about it, the person who can do this kind of devil's thing must be Elaine Ma, there is no second person.

At this moment, he really wanted to grab Elaine Ma's hair and slap Elaine Ma's ugly face dozens of times back and forth!

Thinking of this, he immediately turned back to the house, put on his pants and jacket, and rushed out of the building.

Mrs. Wilson was sitting in the grand master's chair in the courtyard basking in the sun.

While basking in the sun, she sighed with emotion about the life of a local tyrant living in Thompson First's villa.

Except that the family living next to me is more disheartening, everything else is perfect to the extreme.

This makes the Lady feel very comfortable inside.

Seeing that it was almost time to cook, the Lady even wanted to go to Charlie Wade's vegetable garden to steal an order.

But when you think about it carefully, Charlie Wade's family is so bad, it's better not to eat their dishes, otherwise they don't know what methods they used in it, and they may even use pesticides.

The last time I used daffodils as leeks, a family was admitted to the hospital. The feeling of a family of five jumping in the house and being pulled away by an ambulance is truly unforgettable.

Just as comfortable, she saw her elder son Christopher going out in a hurry, and hurriedly asked him: "Why are you going to do?"

Christopher said with a black face, "I'm going to find Elaine Ma, the b*tch shrew!"

Chapter 1167

Lady Wilson was a little unclear, so she didn't understand why after her son woke up, the first thing she did was to go to Elaine Ma to settle the account.

So she hurriedly followed up and asked, "Christopher, what are you going to do with Elaine Ma?"

Christopher said angrily: "Elaine Ma, a shameless shrew, hung dozens of various green hats on the terrace of her villa. Isn't this just showing me disgusting?"

Lady Wilson looked surprised, and blurted out and asked, "Is there anything like this?"

Christopher gritted his teeth and said, "Don't you know if you follow me to have a look."

So the mother and son went out together.

As soon as he left here, Mrs. Wilson saw the 20 green hats fluttering in the wind on Elaine Ma's terrace.

At this glance, her nose was almost crooked.

The Lady said furiously: "This damn Elaine Ma! She must have watched the video of our hospital. This is deliberately disgusting us!"

Christopher nodded, gritted his teeth and said: "Yeah, mom, I can't want her for anything! Damn, deceive people too much!"

The mother and son came to the door of Charlie Wade's villa aggressively, and then the Lady slammed the door and cursed: "Elaine Ma, you bastard, quickly open the door for me!"

After shouting, Elaine Ma stood directly on the terrace on the third floor and cursed: "Oh, dead old woman, you are not at home to serve your pregnant eldest daughter-in-law and ran to my door yelling what?"

The mother and son did not expect that Elaine Ma would tell Hannah about being pregnant as soon as he spoke.

This made the expressions of both of them suddenly become very ugly.

After all, it is said that family ugliness cannot be publicized, and no one wants others to mention their own pain points as soon as they speak.

The most depressing of these is Christopher.

As soon as he heard Elaine Ma mentioned Hannah's pregnancy, he blurted out angrily: "you btch, if you fcking talk nonsense to me, believe it or not, I cut your tongue!"

Elaine Ma curled his lips and said: "Oh, brother, I really didn't expect that you have such a great ability, you will cut my tongue?"

As she said, she deliberately laughed and said: "Since you have this ability, why not cut the man who gave you a cuckold and made your wife pregnant? What's the point of screaming and fighting with my Lady here?"

"You..." Christopher's face suddenly became extremely ugly.

Although he is not a good thing, but in terms of cursing the street, he is a thousand miles worse than Elaine Ma.

With Elaine Ma's combat effectiveness, it is not a problem for one person to scold him ten.

So seeing Christopher being so angry that he couldn't speak, Elaine Ma pursued the victory and said with a smile: "Oh, brother, I really sympathize with you. The worst thing about a man is to be green hated by others, and you will be led by others. After so much, I didn't expect my sister-in-law to give you a green hat and you were pregnant. Didn't this make you like being a father? If I were you, I would have divorced her a long time ago!"

This time I even touched on Christopher's inner pain!

I want to drive Hannah out of the house in my dreams, and never see this damn b*tch again in my life.

Chapter 1168

But Hannah was backed by Donald. She didn't dare to provoke Donald, let alone disobey Donald's meaning, so even if she was put on a green hat by Hannah, she could not divorce her.

A man wearing this kind of green hat can't divorce his wife yet. What a painful thing, it's a tragedy on earth. Unexpectedly, he would run into him.

Now that Elaine Ma was slapped off, Christopher's face was so painful that he was slapped 10,000 times.

Lady Wilson was naturally also very angry. She was arrogant for a lifetime. What she didn't want to see was the reputation of the Wilson family, and she was hit.

At the time Wendy accompanied Kenneth Wilson, although it also caused a lot of criticism, but at that time, the Lady was helpless. Besides, young girls and rich men are not uncommon in society. Although everyone laughs, they are actually two jokes. It passed.

But this time, the trouble Hannah caused was different. Hannah really completely lost the face of the Wilson family.

What's even more hateful is that someone took a video and posted it on the Internet. This time it's finished. The entire Wilson family has become the laughing stock of Aurouss Hilll.

But in any case, the Lady could not accept Elaine Ma, a shameless b*tch, and dared to laugh at herself!

So the Lady pointed at Elaine Ma angrily, and cursed: "Elaine Ma, you quickly rip off all those green hats to me, otherwise don't blame the Lady for being rude to you!"

"You!" Elaine Ma curled his lips: "I bought these green hats with money. In my house, I can hang them wherever I want. Why do you think you are the old Wilson? Lady? Let me tell you, in my house, you can't even point fingers at me!"

After that, Elaine Ma hurriedly changed her words: "You are impossible and unqualified to enter my house! If you continue to swear at my door, then I will call the police and let the police arrest you again!"

When the Lady Wilson heard that Elaine Ma wanted to call the police to arrest herself, she trembled with anger!

Although the two were angry, they were completely helpless.

If they don't open the door to themselves, they can't rush in and beat her, right?

If you rushed in, you would break the law. If you call the police, you will definitely get caught.

Just when the mother and son didn't know what to do, Elaine Ma took a huge green hat from the side of the terrace and put it on her head, smiling and saying, "Oh, brother, look at this green hat, how festive. Look, this green one is greener than the leeks you ate two days ago?"

While talking, Elaine Ma wore a hat on the terrace exaggeratedly. Although her legs are still not good, doing a few square dance poses is not a problem.

Her twist made Christopher even more angry!

At this moment, Christopher was almost on the verge of collapse. He couldn't wait to take a rocket launcher and directly blow up Elaine Ma on the third floor terrace.

"Elaine Ma, you fcking btch, do you play this hand with me? Do you know what's going to happen to me?"

Elaine Ma smiled and said: "Your wife was pregnant by someone sleeping, isn't the person sleeping with your wife doing well? What will happen to him? I just say a few words, and there will be no end! Hahahaha!"

Christopher was furious: "Elaine Ma! I'll kill you sooner or later!"

Just when Christopher's dry blue veins violently, Elaine Ma directly flicked the green hat, and the green hat fluttered directly on top of Christopher's head. Christopher took a step back and the green hat fell on the ground.

Elaine Ma clapped happily and laughed loudly: "Oh, brother, look at this green hat and he knows you, so he will fly directly over your head. If you don't hide, it will be able to wear it on your head! "

Chapter 1169

Christopher was really angry.

He jumped and scolded angrily: "Elaine Ma, you b*tch, are you looking for death?"

When Elaine Ma heard this, he smiled and said, "Big brother, don't you be angry. I spent hundreds of dollars on this pile of green hats, but they are all for you."

After that, Elaine Ma didn't know where he took out a green Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles doll, and said loudly, "Brother, look at this Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtle, he doesn't look like you, not only has his head green, but he is also very bearable. It's the best portrayal of you, big brother, hahaha..."

Christopher was almost mad, trembling all over, and even his voice became trembling: "You b*tch, why don't you die? You are so wicked that you are going to hell."

Elaine Ma chuckled: "Big brother, I kindly gave you so many hats. You even cursed me to go to hell. You are too kind to avenge me? But I have always been adults not remembering villains. These are more than twenty. All the green hats are given to you so that you can wear them for 20 consecutive days without repetition."

Christopher was really helpless, so he gritted his teeth and said, "Okay you Elaine Ma, wait for me, I will call the property right now to report you!"

After finishing talking, I immediately called the property of Thompson First and blurted out: "I am the owner of a04. I now complain that the owner of a05 hangs uncivilized things on the terrace of the house. You can take care of it!"

After a short while, an electric car from the property drove over quickly.

Afterwards, four property managers got out of the electric car and asked: "Did you call the complaint?"

Christopher blurted out: "Yes, it's me, complaining to the woman upstairs, look at what she has hung up on the terrace!"

Elaine Ma said coldly: "How come my own hat is hung on the terrace, can you still manage it?"

The four property managers also said helplessly after reading it: "This gentleman, the owner's terrace is the owner's private domain. In theory, no matter what it hangs on, we can't interfere with it unless it's illegal. But others. It's not illegal to put on a hat, it's people's freedom."

"Because of your mother!" Christopher whirled around dryly!

If these 20 green hats were hung here all day long, wouldn't he be mad at Elaine Ma?

Several property managers were scolded by him, naturally they were very dissatisfied, but they still said politely: "Excuse me, gentleman, this matter is not in the management of our property."

After that, they got into the battery car and drove away.

Elaine Ma laughed more wildly on the terrace: "Hahaha, Christopher, now you can't help it, let me tell you, my green hats will always be hanging here, and I will buy another twenty of them tomorrow. Here, I let you open your eyes every day and you can see a lot of green hats fluttering in the wind, fluttering with the wind!"

"You...you...you..." Christopher was so angry that he almost vomited blood.

At this time, Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson also went to the terrace on the second floor and took a look. After they figured out what was going on, they both looked at each other helplessly and sighed.

Claire Wilson Wilson couldn't help sighing: "Charlie Wade, you said it's not good for mom to do this."

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently, and said, "In fact, there is nothing good or bad. Didn't they treat us too much before?"

"When they knew what problem we encountered, they also desperately mocked us."

"You forgot that at the Thompson First sales office, how did the family laugh at us?"

"And when your studio opened, didn't they come to mock us too?"

Chapter 1170

"Now that Mom wants to ridicule and go back, I think it's just to use her own way to treat her body, in the final analysis, it is their own responsibility."

Christopher and Mrs. Wilson almost collapsed because of Elaine Ma's anger, but they couldn't do anything about her behavior. They turned their heads away in anger.

Christopher cursed as he walked: "Damn Elaine Ma, let me find a chance in the future, I must kill her!"

Lady Wilson angrily said, "Don't talk about her for now. Tomorrow we will quickly take the b*tch Hannah to get rid of the bastard in her stomach. This is really a great shame that we have never seen in the Wilson family in a century!"

Christopher also had a look of hatred, gritted his teeth and said, "Mom, don't worry, I will go with her tomorrow!"

Back home, both Harold and Wendy had just gotten up. They were in the living room, waiting for Hannah to cook, hungry.

Hannah had some money left from selling coffee machines last time. Today, she intends to ease the family relationship, so she bought a lot of fresh abalone and prepared an abalone feast for her family.

This pile of abalone cost thousands of Dollar just for the ingredients, and to Hannah, it was indeed bleeding.

When Lady Wilson saw Hannah buying back abalone, her first thought was that she was very happy. After all, she had good food to eat at noon. But then the Lady thought of a detail and asked Hannah: "Where did you get the money to buy these abalones?"

Hannah lied and said, "A friend borrowed a little money while playing cards and never paid it back. Isn't this tight on hand? I asked her to come over."

Lady Wilson nodded gently, and said coldly: "Transfer all the remaining money to WeChat to my account. From now on, all the money in this family will be managed by me, including the money that Mr. Webb invested in our Wilson Group. , I also have the sole discretion to decide. If anyone dares to hide private money behind my back, sorry, please leave this house!"

Hannah immediately laughed and said, "Mom, don't worry, I will transfer all the remaining money to you, and I won't keep a single cent!"

Lady Wilson looked at Christopher and said coldly: "Christopher, you hid more than 10 million private money before, but you didn't want to give me life or death. In the end, all the money was lost, so from now on, if you dare to hide it again Private money, don't blame me for being a mother, have you heard?"

Christopher nodded his head and said respectfully: "I know Mom, don't worry, I won't dare to hide private money anymore!"

Lady Wilson nodded in satisfaction. It seems that the crisis of the Wilson family has helped to consolidate her position as the ruler of the family.

Soon, Hannah brought up a lot of various abalones.

Abalone feast, naturally every dish is abalone.

Steamed abalone vermicelli, as well as braised abalone, abalone sashimi, abalone soup, etc.

Because the ingredients are good, every dish tastes very good.

However, at the dinner table, Hannah herself had an ordinary bowl of Yangchun egg noodles, and she did not eat any abalone.

Wendy was a little surprised, and asked her, "Mom, why don't you eat abalone? Why don't you eat a bite after doing so hard?"

Hannah is ashamed to tell the truth, how can she tell her daughter that she cannot eat seafood because of various venereal diseases.

So she can only say: "My stomach is not very good these past two days, and I can't eat seafood."

Christopher had just received a huge stimulus at Elaine Ma's place. He was so angry that he glared at her and said coldly, "As long as you want to eat seafood, you f*cking serve it too! What the hell do you do with this seafood? Is that wild species?"

Chapter 1171

Hannah was extremely embarrassed when she heard Christopher's insults, but she was angry but she didn't dare to speak out.

She still hopes to have a family and everything will be happy, so she wants to take a step back and hope that Christopher can accept herself as soon as possible.

Christopher hated Hannah.

But he hates Hannah, but not abalone.

So while eating abalone, he said coldly: "A woman like you who is not obedient to women will stay in this house in the future, and she must be a good servant!"

Hannah had no choice but to eat her own noodles without talking.

In fact, Hannah at this time didn't know that her husband had already been infected with a venereal disease. If she knew, she would definitely not make such an abalone dinner for her husband.

She knew that Christopher likes abalone the most, so she made such an abalone banquet to please him, but she was scolded bloody by him.

Christopher turned his grief and anger into appetite and ate a dozen large abalones by himself.

Because he was upset, he even finished a small bottle of wine and drank it.

The previous owner of this house left a lot of good wine in the cellar in the basement downstairs.

There are red wine, white wine, and champagne.

When the Webb family bought a house, they wanted a package price, so they left all these wines.

Christopher took out a bottle of Moutai from the wine cellar and pulled Harold. The two of them drank more than a catty in total.

After eating and drinking, Christopher returned to his bedroom, planning to take a nap.

However, when he lay down, he suddenly felt that something was wrong.

What's wrong? My place is really itchy.

Seafood is a hair item, and liquor is also a very powerful hair item.

Together, these two things are a perfect match. Christopher was itchy at first, but he couldn't stop it.

He grabbed desperately, and even the grabbing was a bit broken and bleeding, but still nothing got better.

The bone-erupting itching had already made him unbearable. He hurriedly turned over from the bed and went to see Mrs. Wilson in a hurry.

When he saw Mrs. Wilson, he was a little impatient and said, "Mom, you can give me some money. I have to go to the hospital now."

Lady Wilson frowned and asked, "What's wrong with you? Why are you going to the hospital? Don't you know it costs money to go to the hospital?"

After experiencing all kinds of disasters before, the current Lady Wilson regards money more than anything else.

Christopher said with an expression of pain, "I...I feel very uncomfortable, so I have to go to the hospital to have a look."

Lady Wilson asked him: "How do you go back to tell me in advance?"

Christopher said in embarrassment, "Well, it's not easy to speak up, mom, just give me some money and let me go to the hospital for a look!"

Lady Wilson exclaimed, "Could you be sick from that aspect?"

Christopher didn't expect that his mother would be able to guess it all at once, and said embarrassedly: "I can't be sure now, so I want to go to the hospital to check it."

The Lady Wilson looked terrified, and blurted out: "Did you and Hannah that slut a few days ago have something happened?"

"This..." Christopher hesitated for a moment, and then gently nodded: "When I was in Webb's house, what happened to me and her that day..."

Chapter 1172

Christopher's voice became smaller and smaller, but the Lady still understood.

Upon hearing this, the Lady said nervously: "Oh! That Hannah was in the black coal kiln. Who knows what wild man he is with. I think she is not only pregnant with someone else's wild species, but also with Come back from all kinds of diseases! Go! I'll accompany you to the hospital for a thorough investigation!"

When Christopher heard this, he also guessed that he was probably infected by Hannah from the disease, and he became even more annoyed. But the irritation turned to irritation. Now for myself, the top priority is to go to the hospital to check if I am sick.

So he hurriedly said: "Oh, Mom, how embarrassed to let you accompany me with this kind of thing, and I can do it myself if you give me the money."

Lady Wilson said earnestly: "No, if I don't go, I will always feel uneasy, don't say anything, I will go with you, and go now!"

After that, the Lady got up immediately, ready to go out.

Christopher had no choice but to nod his head and left home with his mother helplessly. "

.....

Just when Christopher and Mrs. Wilson went to the hospital.

The Webb family's only remaining subordinate in Golim Mountain finally found an opportunity and got into the morgue of the local hospital.

He spent a lot of money to bribe the gatekeeper of the morgue, and the other party made an exception to let him in.

He called on the eight people who died in the avalanche of Golim Mountain, and said to him: "You can see it, but you must be psychologically prepared. The death of these eight people is very miserable!"

The Webb family's men nodded, and opened the eight freezers for corpses one by one.

When the body bag was opened, the Webb family's subordinate was shocked and stunned!

Although the death of the Eight Great Heavenly Kings was indeed miserable, he could still recognize that these eight corpses were the Eight Great Heavenly Kings.

So he took out his mobile phone, took a photo of the eighth heavenly king's body, and sent it to Donald.

At this time, Donald was waiting for news in Southaven.

Although the Webb family has determined and affirmed the fact that the Eight Heavenly Kings have been killed in their hearts, everyone still has the last gleam of hope.

But when these photos were posted, all the hopes of the Webb family collapsed completely.

The eight heavenly kings are really dead.

And he died of an avalanche. This is too unacceptable.

Sending out eight top masters over there, before seeing the enemy die in an avalanche first, isn't this f*cking bullshit? Elder Webb also suffered a blow.

The Eight Heavenly Kings have followed him for so many years and started this business with him. Deep down in his heart, he has a deep feeling for the Eight Heavenly Kings.

Now that the Eight Great Heavenly Kings were all killed overnight, he would really not accept this kind of result for a while.

After seeing the photos, Sean was shocked and felt that something was wrong.

He opened his mouth and said: "Dad, grandpa, how do I feel that the eight great heavenly kings have so many injuries that look wrong? If they were in a car and had an avalanche, then they would most likely be caught in the car with snow. , The injuries on their bodies should also be mostly crush injuries, but how I look at them now, they all seem to have been injured!"

As he said, he zoomed in on the photo of Duran's right arm and said: "Look at Master Fan's right arm as a whole bloody, it doesn't look like it's being crushed!"

"There is also iron fist Dan. His right arm was almost the same as Master Duran's right arm at the time. But other people's right arm did not suffer such injuries. If everyone had suffered an avalanche in the car, everyone would suffer. Injuries, the types should be similar, there shouldn't be such a big gap."

Elder Webb, as well as all the Webb family members, showed extreme horror at this moment!

Elder Webb tremblingly asked, "Sean, you mean, the Eight Great Heavenly Kings were killed?"

Chapter 1173

The Webb family did not want to believe that the Eight Heavenly Kings were beaten to death.

Because if this is true, it proves that they have a very powerful enemy in the dark.

But they have no idea who this enemy is.

The Webb family didn't believe Charlie Wade, and the people around him had this kind of strength.

Donald even speculated that whether the Eight Great Heavenly Kings went to Golim Mountain this time and accidentally provoke the local master of seclusion in Golim Mountain.

Elder Webb also thinks this thing is very possible.

He is now deeply distressed. The Eight Heavenly Kings are not only his old friends, but also a major reliance on the prosperity of the Webb family. Now that this reliance is gone, it is likely to cause an earthquake in the Webb family.

As expected, Mr. Webb did not expect it.

The Webb family dispatched the Eight Heavenly Kings to Golim Mountain, and all the halberd breaking events spread throughout Southaven within a short period of time.

But all powerful and powerful family owners watched the fire from the other side, watching the jokes of the Webb family.

The rise of the Webb family in Southaven depends on two things.

The first is that when Mr. Webb was young, he was courageous and strategic, stirring up the Southaven sea of commerce, and pushing the Webb family step by step to where it is today.

The second is the eight heavenly kings!

The Eight Heavenly Kings are the right arm of Mr. Webb, as well as the Webb family's strategic weapon to deter foreign enemies. Anyone who pulls out is the mighty power of the Megatron.

Relying on the eight heavenly kings, the Webb family established a reputation in Southaven, and no one dared to make bad ideas.

Otherwise, with the financial resources of the Webb family, the interested people have long been jealous, and they want to rush to tear the Webb family to pieces.

Today, all the eight heavenly kings have died in Golim Mountain, and all the families in the south of the Yangtze River are all thinking together. In the current Webb family, Mr. Webb is bedridden, and the eight heavenly kings died in battle. Who doesn't want to get a share?

For a time, the situation in the south of the Yangtze River changed, and the forces in Southaven were turbulent, which pushed the Webb family into the forefront.

.....

On the other side, Christopher and Mrs. Wilson also came to Aurouss Hill People's Hospital.

After arriving at the hospital, he hung up an andrology department. What embarrassed him was that he was already in his forties and fifties, and it was embarrassing to see andrology with his mother.

However, Mrs. Wilson is so overbearing. If others don't let them ask about the things she wants to do, then she will definitely fight with them to the end.

The mother and the son waited at the entrance of the clinic. Christopher desperately endured the extreme itching. After waiting for more than 20 minutes, he finally yelled Christopher's name.

So, Christopher stood up and said to Mrs. Wilson: "Mom, wait for me at the door, and I will go in by myself."

Lady Wilson said immediately: "No, I want to go in too!"

Christopher looked very embarrassed: "How can this kind of thing take mom to the doctor..."

Lady Wilson gritted her teeth and said: "What? Do you want to hide this from me?"

Chapter 1174

Christopher said hurriedly: "I definitely can't hide from you, mom. It's just that after a while, the doctor will check on me. It would be too embarrassing to be in front of you. Don't worry, I will definitely know the results of the check. I'll give you a look, is this the head office?"

Lady Wilson nodded, and said: "All inspections must be results must be shown to me, dare to hide that I will never forgive you!"

Christopher stepped into the consulting room while getting up and struggling to endure the itching.

In the consulting room, a doctor older than him was sitting in front of the computer when he saw him coming in, and he asked, "Why is it uncomfortable?"

Christopher hurriedly said, "Doctor, I always feel itchy in my place, and I don't know what's going on, so I want you to show it."

The doctor had seen more similar cases, so he nodded and said, "Take off your pants."

Although Christopher was a little embarrassed, he still took off his pants obediently.

The doctor just glanced at it and exclaimed: "You seem to be in a serious situation. Didn't you go to that kind of place?"

Don't mention how embarrassing Christopher is. Wherever he has been to a romantic place, he is nothing more than the sound of the waves with his wife.

But he changed his mind to think about what the doctor meant, doesn't it mean that his wife Hannah is similar to the woman in a brothel?

But he can only say to the doctor: "Doctor, I haven't been to any brothel."

The doctor didn't believe what he said at all, because every man who came to see a doctor with an STD would not admit that he went to the brothel.

So he said lightly: "They are all men, and I can understand many things.

It is not uncommon for your age to go to brothel places occasionally, but I still have to give you some suggestions."

Christopher hurriedly said, "Doctor, please tell me!"

The doctor said lightly: "First of all, you must protect yourself when you go to that kind of place. Don't be refreshed for a while. Don't do any protection. Sometimes condoms are not only to protect women, but to protect men."

Christopher nodded and said, "I see, thank you doctor, do you have any more?"

The doctor said again: "In addition, it is recommended to try to go to larger, more formal, and high-end places. Although many roadside warblers are very cheap, their bodies carry many venereal diseases and germs. Maybe there are AIDS. Say you are so old, in order to save so much money, why bother to toss yourself like this?"

Christopher's face is green...

Doesn't this mean that in the eyes of the doctor, Hannah is as dirty as that roadside warbler?

At this time, the doctor gave him a meaningful look and said, "You see, in order to save a little money, you are now suffering from a whole body disease. I think you need at least tens of thousands of dollars for treatment. Isn't this not worth the loss?"

Christopher asked in horror: "Doctor, what's wrong with me? What did you see just now?"

The doctor said: "In my experience, first of all gonorrhoea and syphilis are indispensable, because your body's erythema is very special. I have been in the doctor for so many years and I can't read it wrong."

Hearing these two diseases, Christopher only felt that the sky was spinning, and he almost fainted.

Damn, I never dreamed that Hannah would have so many diseases!

At this time, the doctor said: "I think there should be serious inflammation in your area. If you don't treat it in time, it is very likely that your prostate and your reproductive system will be endangered. So I will prescribe some tests for you as soon as possible. Do it and wait for the results. We are conducting targeted treatment based on your actual situation!"

As he said, the doctor sighed and said, "The most worrying thing is actually AIDS. Because AIDS has been latent for a long time now, it cannot be distinguished from the naked eye. If there is AIDS, it can't be cured. It's a lifetime thing."

Christopher was about to collapse at this time!

Ever since Hannah came back, she has only heard the waves with her once, but she did not expect to infect herself with so many diseases once. Had it not been for Donald to support her, she would have to be killed by himself when he went back!

Chapter 1175

When Christopher came out of the ward with a bunch of test application forms, the Lady hurried forward and asked: "What did the doctor say? How is the situation? Is there anything serious?"

Christopher didn't want to talk to the Lady at first, but when he thought that the Lady would have to look at various inspection reports when she looked back, he couldn't hide it, so he cried and said, "The doctor told me that it is very likely to have gonorrhoea and syphilis. , There are some inflammations, and the possibility of AIDS is not even ruled out..." When Mrs. Wilson heard this, she looked terrified, and subconsciously stepped back.

Christopher thought that the Lady was frightened, and hurriedly stepped forward to help her without standing still.

As a result, Lady Wilson hurriedly waved her hands and said in horror: "You stay away from me and don't touch me. AIDS is terrible. I haven't lived enough yet..."

Christopher's expression was extremely ugly, and he realized that his mother was afraid of infecting her.

My own mother is really realistic!

So he had to sigh and said, "Mom, in this case, then you can wait for me here, and I will check it myself."

Mrs. Wilson hurriedly said: "Oh, I'm old and a little tired. I'm going home first. After checking the results, I remember to take pictures and send them to my WeChat as soon as possible."

In fact, Lady Wilson is not tired, she is really scared.

The Lady lives to the present, the most feared thing is death.

Anything related to death, or that might make her die or make her life short, she will stay far away and stay away.

Now that she heard that her eldest son might get AIDS, the first thing she thought of was not the safety of her son, but herself.

Christopher also knew what kind of person his mother was. He sighed helplessly and said: "It doesn't matter if you go back, but you have to give me some money, otherwise, how can I pay the examination fee later, in case the doctor wants to give it to me? What about prescribing medicine? Medical expenses are still needed!"

While walking outside, Mrs. Wilson said without looking back: "I will send you 10,000 Dollar on WeChat right away. If it is not enough, you can tell me."

After speaking, people have already passed out andrology.

Christopher's heart was depressed, and his own mother was so selfish at all times, and she really did not "disappoint" herself at all.

However, the most important question for him right now is to quickly confirm what diseases he has suffered.

Gonorrhoea and syphilis are not big things. The big deal is to spend more trouble and suffer more. As long as you don't get AIDS, then everything is easy to say.

He felt that if he really got AIDS, his life would be over, so he could just go home and kill Hannah...

Christopher stayed in the hospital for an afternoon. After doing a lot of various examinations, the final conclusion was almost the same as the doctor's initial judgment.

First of all, gonorrhoea and syphilis are confirmed.

Secondly, urethritis is also very serious.

In addition, there is some ulceration and suppuration.

Fortunately, there is no AIDS.

Then the doctor immediately prepared a treatment plan for him, starting with a 14-day first-stage treatment cycle.

Chapter 1176

Starting today, for the next 14 days, he will come to the hospital for infusions every day, and he will have to infuse five or six bottles every day.

Christopher hurriedly asked: "Doctor, can the medicine be used today to stop itching for me? To tell you the truth, I'm so f*cking itching right now. It's so irritating. I don't know what's going on. Itchy, the more you scratch, the more itchy..."

The doctor said: "This kind of disease is very itchy. It is originally ulcerated, purulent and inflamed, and the lesion is in the sensitive area. It must be very itchy, but you can rest assured that if you are given medicine today, This itching will get some relief."

Then the doctor said: "From now on, you must avoid seafood, spicy, alcohol, and smoking. Otherwise, it will greatly aggravate the condition."

When Christopher heard this, he immediately said to the doctor: "Doctor, I ate more than ten or twenty abalones at noon, and I drank more than half a catty of Maotai. There will be nothing wrong, right?"

After listening to the doctor, he immediately said with a straight face: "You want to die? Don't you know that these are hair things? You still eat seafood, you can't eat kelp, you know?"

Christopher said with a sad face, "Hey, I don't know. I want to know that I have these diseases. If you beat me to death, I dare not eat or drink..."

The doctor sighed and said, "Okay, there is no treatment today. You can go back."

Christopher became anxious and blurted out: "Why can't the doctor treat it today? I'm almost itching to death. You can treat me quickly, or I will definitely scratch it!"

The doctor shook his head and said, "You have to inject a lot of antibiotics for the treatment of this disease, but how do you inject antibiotics when you drink alcohol? Have you ever heard of a disulfiram-like reaction? Go in with cephalosporin antibiotics here, and immediately When you react, it will kill you. Do you want to itch an extra day, or do you want to explain it here today?"

Christopher almost cried.

You can't use medicine if you itch like this bird, isn't it killing your own?

So he begged: "Doctor, how much do you give me some anti-itch medicine, otherwise I can't handle it..."

The doctor sighed and said, "Well, let me prescribe some cleansing liquid for you. You can go back and use it first, and it will have some anti-itching effect."

After speaking, the doctor said again: "Yes, I have to tell you not to scratch, because it is already damaged, and it will be more serious if it is scratched. The pus and blood that flow out contain a lot of bacteria. It may cause your affected area to spread and spread, and the situation becomes more and more serious. If the area of the rupture becomes larger and larger, a serious infection may lead to sepsis, which can also be life-threatening."

Christopher wiped a tear from his eyes: "It's a crime...Well, how can you encounter such a thing..."

The doctor sighed with emotion and said, "After all, we should start with personal hygiene, and in that aspect of life, we must pay more attention to protecting ourselves. Don't go out to such street places to find flowers."

Christopher couldn't say why he got the disease, so he could only nod his head: "Thank you doctor, I know..."

The doctor hummed, and then asked him: "By the way, I think you should be married at your age?"

Christopher nodded.

The doctor saw him nod and confessed, and said, "You should take your lover to the hospital for a check. This disease is extremely contagious. If you are recruited outside, it will be easy to infect your lover when you return home. ."

Christopher was more uncomfortable than death at this time, and his anger hit the sky.

I infect her?

Damn, these are all her infections!

This damn b*tch.

You must kill her when you go back!

Chapter 1177

Christopher tried to endure the itching, and when he rushed home, Hannah was cooking dinner.

Seeing that Christopher liked to eat abalone made by herself at noon, she was ready to continue to please him, so in the afternoon when Christopher went out with the Lady, she went to the vegetable market again.

This time, she bought a large king crab for Christopher. The king crab was big and delicious, and it was Christopher's favorite.

And this king crab is not cheap. She bought the big one, which cost more than two thousand.

Originally, Hannah had no money, so she gave all the money to the Lady, but she had an idea and stole a high-end imported cooking machine from the kitchen. By the way, she ordered two bottles of Moutai from the underground wine cellar and took them out. Sold it for 20,000 Dollar. Hannah planned that the remaining money would not be reported to the Lady, and she would save it to go to the hospital for an abortion tomorrow, and treat her venereal disease by the way.

When the Lady went home, she didn't care to settle the account with Hannah. She bought a lot of disinfectant on the road. When she got home, she went back to her room and began to give her room, corridor, bathroom and terrace all-round. Disinfection and sterilization.

After receiving Christopher's inspection report and confirming that he did not have AIDS, the Lady was still not at ease, so she wiped all the places she could touch with alcohol.

Christopher entered the door with a black face at this time.

As soon as he entered the door, he smelled fishy and fresh crabs.

He was wondering, Hannah came out of the kitchen wearing an apron and said with a smile: "Oh, my husband, are you back? I steamed you your favorite king crab, you want to eat more tonight. If you like to drink, drink half a bottle of Moutai to moisturize it."

Christopher was already half to death, but when he heard this, his whole body almost burst.

At noon, you stinky lady cheated me. At night, you still want to eat seafood and drink liquor for me!

By the way, I haven't counted you on the fact that you infected me with a disease!

Thinking of this, Christopher rushed forward immediately, slapped Hannah's face with a slap, and directly knocked her to the ground. Before Hannah could react, Christopher rode on her, angrily and bowed left and right. The slap was almost as if he didn't need money, and he slapped to death.

Hannah was beaten up and yelled, and the entire villa was like a pig.

Harold and Wendy rushed out of their respective rooms, and when they saw their parents were fighting again, they hurried forward to fight.

Harold couldn't help saying, "Dad, what's the matter with you? Haven't you separated from your mother? Why are you fighting again?"

"Yes, Dad!" Wendy also said hurriedly: "Mr. Webb specifically explained that the two of you must not fight each other, what if he blames it!" Christopher slammed Hannah's face with a fist, and said angrily: "I'm going to beat, even if I am the king of heaven today, you can't stop me from beating her!"

As he said, he scolded angrily: "You stinky shameless b*tch, you infected me with a disease, and you deliberately made seafood for me. What do you mean? You want to kill me? You give it to me. With so many green hat things, I haven't even calculated it yet, so you dare to slap me against me!"

When Hannah heard this, she was immediately stunned!

She cried and said: "My husband, I really don't know, you are sick! If I know, if you kill me, I can't make seafood for you!"

While pumping her, Christopher cursed with gritted teeth: "You still pretend to me that you don't get sick yourself, don't you know it yourself?"

Hannah cried: "I did get sick, but I didn't expect to be able to infect you. After all, we have only been there once since I came back. Since then, every time you have sex with me, , Did I refuse you every time, you lied to me, insisted on doing things with me, I also found all kinds of excuses to refuse, why? Isn't it just because I'm afraid of infecting you?"

Christopher slapped again and yelled, "You f*cking infected me, don't you know?"

Harold and Wendy were about to collapse almost embarrassingly.

Listening to this, my mother has infected my father with a venereal disease..

Where did this venereal disease come from? Of course they both knew it well.

STDs must come from the same source as the child in the mother's stomach.

Chapter 1178

Harold, a shameless person, felt hot on his face at this time.

What the hell do you think this is?

Wendy was also extremely helpless, at this time she didn't know if it was time for her to fight.

Let's take a fight, I think my father is very pitiful;

Don't fight, and feel that my mother is very pitiful.

It's really a human tragedy.

Christopher grabbed Hannah by the head and beat her for more than ten minutes, until he knocked Hannah until she fainted, and then stopped out of breath.

Hannah was already in a coma at this time. Lady Wilson just sterilized the entire room. She walked down and saw the following scene. She immediately said to Christopher: "How can you beat her to death?"

Christopher said aggrievedly: "Mom, this stinky lady has cheated me so badly. I can't beat her up yet?"

Lady Wilson complained: "You can teach her to get it, how can you fight so hard? What if Mr. Webb finds out and blames him? What if Mr. Webb feels that our family is not worthwhile? You are not. Are you joking about the future and future of your whole family?"

Harold suddenly understood at this time and blurted out: "Yeah, Dad, if Mr. Webb knows, what can we do? If he gets angry, he might withdraw all the money from the villa and the investment in our Wilson Group. By then we will have to live on the streets again!"

Christopher's expression went black and white, and he said depressedly: "Okay, call an ambulance first and take her to the hospital. Isn't this stinky lady going to have a baby? It just happened to be together this time!"

Hannah was rushed to the hospital overnight, where she was rescued before she recovered.

After Donald heard his assistant report this incident, his entire popularity trembled.

This family, I have seen it, the dirtiest, most disgusting, stupid, and disgusting family in the world.

Five people are refreshing their lower limit all the time!

He even found sadly that he had used all tactics to deal with Charlie Wade now.

No matter it was the inferior Wilson family, or the eight heavenly kings of dragon and phoenix among the people, it seemed that there was no threat to Charlie Wade.

Even the Eight Heavenly Kings are not as good as the Wilson family.

At least the Wilson family members are still alive, but when the Eight Heavenly Kings go out, they all die.

Now the Webb family has lost the eight heavenly kings, which can be described as internal and external troubles.

Coupled with the previous reputational influence, Webb's stock has been falling continuously.

Now their market value has saved more than 200 billion, all the way down to less than 100 billion.

The Webb family now can't even compare to the Moore family in terms of strength.

Moreover, it is certain that the Webb family is no longer the first family in Southaven.

If this continues, it is likely to fall out of the first-line family sequence.

By that time, the Webb family had really fallen into a hurry and could never get up again.

Sean was also very depressed.

He liked Jasmine very much, and thought Jasmine would be a high climber if she married him.

But now it seems that if Jasmine marries him, it is his own high climb...

He couldn't help asking Donald: "Dad, do you think there is hope for my affairs with Jasmine?"

Chapter 1179

Hearing his son's question, Donald felt mixed.

Not long ago, he thought that his son could see Jasmine, that was the glory of the Moore family.

But now, he felt to his heart that Jasmine couldn't have a good view of her son.

The current Webb family has not only shrunk seriously, but more importantly, its reputation has been completely ruined.

In addition, the eight heavenly kings died of Golim Mountain for unknown reasons. How can the Webb family compare with the Moore family now?

So I don't have any hope at all now that I can marry Jasmine home as a daughter-in-law.

It's a pity that he is a son, and he still seems a little unaware.

When the Webb family was in its heyday, people didn't agree, let alone now.

Think about it carefully. Not only is this son not self-aware, he also lacks control and understanding of the situation.

It seems that the old man is right, the Webb family is really inferior to one generation.

Now the Webb family is in his own hands and it has shrunk by half. If it is passed to his son in the future, it might become a third-rate family. So he told Sean: "It's not the time to deal with the love of children. Let's first find a way to let the Webb family tide over this difficulty. Once the Webb family is relieved, we can continue to discuss the marriage with the Moore family."

Sean nodded and sighed: "If we can be bound to the Moore family, then our life will be better."

Donald sighed, thinking that his son would really think about something. No one else wants to play with you when you are beautiful, let alone when you are in trouble.

But he didn't tell his son this, because the family already looked like this, he didn't want to continue to dampen his confidence and enthusiasm.

In fact, this is where Donald is inferior to the old man.

In other words, this is the key to the weaker generation of the Webb family.

When Elder Webb came out to enter the world by himself, he had to face everything himself and carry everything himself.

But after he worked hard for a career, he began to feel sorry for his son, and felt a lot of unnecessary suffering, so naturally there was no need for his son to taste it. He had a strong foundation that he had laid out for him.

But the key is that the older generation of entrepreneurs, the reason why they are so awesome, is because they are too good at enduring hardship.

For people like Mr. Webb, it was really rolling in the swamp, and tigers snatching food.

Only in this way can you develop a person's true great ability.

It's a pity that when Donald arrived, they had no chance to withstand such a test.

By the generation of Sean, he even didn't even know what he suffered.

.....

After Charlie Wade came back, he led a peaceful life again.

However, he was always thinking about doing a good job in the pharmaceutical business, so he called Matilda's son Paul, and Paul revisited Weaver's Pharmaceuticals with himself.

Weaver's Pharmaceutical is one of the top Chinese patent medicine companies in the area, and has developed many Chinese patent medicines that sell well across the country.

However, in the past few years, Chinese patent medicines have been declining across the country, and Kampo medicines represented by Japan and South Korea have gradually become the mainstream.

Whether it is Chinese patent medicine or Kampo medicine, the real core is the classic Chinese medicine left by the ancestors of China.

Charlie Wade has many very powerful prescriptions. First of all, it might even cause a major earthquake, so he was not prepared to shock the world.

He just prepared to come up with some classic prescriptions to deal with daily diseases, and let Weaver's Pharmaceutical make a few best-selling drugs.

Chapter 1180

But before giving the prescription to Liam, the shares must be changed. These prescriptions are truly invaluable, and a single prescription may be able to exchange several or even a dozen Weaver's pharmaceutical wealth.

As soon as Paul received his call, he heard that he was asking for his help, and he did not ask what it was, so he immediately agreed. The two met early the next morning at Thompson First.

Jacob Wilson knew that he was going to meet Paul, and his heart immediately itched.

Since Elaine Ma came back these days, he has always wanted to see Matilda, but he has never dared to see her.

Because he was afraid that Elaine Ma knew that after Matilda returned to China, the vixen's skills exploded, and then went to trouble Matilda. So after he knew that Charlie Wade was going to see Paul, he asked him privately: "Good son-in-law, you are going out with Paul this time on errands, are you going to Matilda?"

Charlie Wade smiled helplessly and said, "Of course Matilda will not go, Dad, if you want to see Matilda, please ask her yourself!"

Jacob Wilson said awkwardly: "I dare not!"

Charlie Wade sighed and said, "Then I can't help but..."

Jacob Wilson pleaded: "Good son-in-law, can't you find a chance to form a game and let me meet your Matilda?"

Charlie Wade said: "It can be, but I'm afraid I will get angry when I first know it."

Jacob Wilson hurriedly said: "Don't tell her not to do it!"

Charlie Wade said earnestly: "Even if you don't tell her about this kind of thing for a while, she will know it sooner or later, and she will definitely be very angry if he knows that we did these things behind her back."

As he was talking, Charlie Wade's cell phone rang, it was Paul's call. He just wanted to get rid of his chattering old man, so he hurriedly said to him: "Dad, I won't tell you yet, Paul has already come to pick me up, I have to go now."

After speaking, Charlie Wade hurried out without waiting for him to speak.

When he arrived outside the main entrance of Thompson First, Paul had already driven his Rolls Royce and was waiting here.

Seeing Charlie Wade came out, he hurriedly waved to him, and said with respect: "Master Wade, I am here!"

Charlie Wade nodded, walked to the front, opened the car door and sat in. Paul wore a very formal suit and tie today.

I can see that his suit is still very good, it should be tailored by some big brands or high-end tailors.

Paul asked Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, what cooperation do we have with you at Weaver's Pharmacy today?"

Charlie Wade said: "Weaver's Pharmaceuticals is going to transfer 80% of the shares to me. I want you to be my legal counsel to help me complete all contracts and legal procedures."

Paul was shocked when he heard this.

He has heard of Weaver's Pharmaceuticals. Although this company is not among the top 500 in the country, it is at least a large company with a market value of several billion. Is Charlie Wade going to acquire 80% of the company's shares?

So he asked Charlie Wade, "Master Wade, what is the purchase price of your 80% shares?"

Charlie Wade said indifferently: "You don't need to spend money to acquire 80% of the shares, but I want to provide them with prescriptions."

"Ah? Doesn't it cost a penny, just make prescriptions?" Paul felt unbelievable. After all, it is a billion-dollar pharmaceutical company. Charlie Wade doesn't give people a penny, and takes away 80% of others' shares based on prescriptions. This is too awesome. What kind of prescription is needed to be so valuable.

"Yes." Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Trust me, my prescription is more valuable than their pharmaceutical factory."

Chapter 1181

Paul looked at Charlie Wade in shock. Although it felt unbelievable, he didn't feel that Charlie Wade was bragging. So he hurriedly started the car and drove to Weaver's Pharmaceutical.

Weaver's Pharmaceuticals has a production base in the southeast of Aurouss Hilll. In addition to all the medicines produced here, their management also works here.

In Weaver's own production base, there are not only workshops, warehouses, office buildings and dormitories.

As soon as Paul parked the car in front of the Weaver's pharmaceutical office building, Liam was already waiting here.

I have to say that Charlie Wade was in Golim Mountain that day and gave Liam a huge shock.

So that Liam already regarded Charlie Wade as the god he believed in in this life, and had a strong urge to go through water and fire in his heart.

Respectfully welcomed Charlie Wade and Paul to his office.

Liam immediately took out the contract template he had drawn up and said to Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, I probably have drawn up the contract. You can ask your lawyer to go over it and see if there are any problems."

Speaking of this, he opened a contract and introduced: "The main clause in this contract is that on behalf of the Weaver Group, I will unconditionally transfer 80% of the shares to you."

Charlie Wade didn't expect Liam to be so simple.

So he nodded and said, "Let Paul go with your lawyer about the contract."

Liam hurriedly said, "Then I will let the lawyer in now."

Then he made a call and several lawyers from the pharmaceutical factory walked in.

Paul worked very professionally and immediately confronted them with the details of the contract.

The contract was drawn up quickly and Charlie Wade and Liam signed the contract together.

After signing, Charlie Wade has become the largest shareholder of Weaver's Pharmaceuticals, owning 80% of Weaver's Pharmaceuticals.

Because Charlie Wade has hired Paul as his lawyer, Paul's name is also written in the lawyer column in this corporate equity transfer contract.

Chapter 1182

Here, Liam respectfully asked him after signing, "Master Wade, is Weaver's Pharma going to change its name now?"

He felt that Charlie Wade is already a major shareholder of Weaver's Pharmaceuticals, and it seems inappropriate to continue to call Weaver's Pharmaceuticals.

Charlie Wade also thinks that the company he controls is called Weaver's Pharmaceutical, which is really strange.

So he thought for a while, and said: "Then let's change the name to Oracle Pharmaceutical."

Charlie Wade felt that his ability to master so many classic medical techniques left behind by his ancestors was entirely the result of the "Apocalyptic Book", so he simply named Oracle Pharmaceutical, which can be regarded as his own contribution to the "Apocalyptic Book" and how he gained his knowledge.

Although Liam didn't know what the name "Oracle" meant, but since Master Wade had already said so, he naturally wouldn't have any opinions, so he immediately said, "Master Wade, then I will submit a statement today and register at the same time. The trademark of Oracle Pharmaceutical."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "You told me that Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's stomach powder was very suppressing you, didn't it?"

"Yes!" Liam sighed and said, "It is now sold throughout Asia. The pressure on us is very high."

Charlie Wade said to Liam, "Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall is nothing. I'll give you a prescription for treating stomach problems. After you produce it, you will call it "Nova Dias". Did you bring paper and pen? I will write it for you. After you go back, you will produce a prescription according to this prescription and put it on the market as soon as possible."

Liam was overjoyed, but he didn't expect Charlie Wade to draw up a prescription himself, quickly took out a pen and paper, and handed it respectfully.

Charlie Wade thought for a moment, and selected a pill formula called "Reliever" from the "Apocalyptic Book".

I chose this because the medicinal materials used in this formula are relatively easy to find.

Although this is only the primary prescription for stomach problems in the "Apocalyptic Book", this medicine has miraculous effects on ordinary people.

As long as Liam can produce this stomach medicine, it is definitely not a problem to press down the stomach powder of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall

So he wrote down the prescription and the ratio and handed it to Liam.

After Liam took the notebook and looked at the formula written on it, he couldn't help being surprised.

Liam has also studied some Chinese medicine and tried to discover ancient Chinese prescriptions, so he has some understanding of the prescriptions. However, looking at Charlie Wade's formula, it seems that many medicinal materials have nothing to do with the treatment of stomach diseases, so it still feels a little suspenseful.

The prescription Charlie Wade took out was the prescription in the "Apocalyptic Book". The "Apocalyptic Book" was originally a sacred book. The prescriptions that can be recorded here are absolutely awesome, and most people cant see them. Understand, it's really weird.

However, although Liam couldn't understand this prescription, where exactly was the god, he didn't dare to doubt Charlie Wade in his heart.

Liam put a lot of emphasis on the prescription, ready to go back to arrange the production first, and try the effect of the medicine.

He settled the contract with Paul and left from Weaver's Pharmaceutical, which is now Oracle Pharmaceutical.

Paul is full of respect for Wade beside him, he thinks Charlie Wade is too unpredictable.

Take any prescription, and others are willing to give him the entire group.

May I ask, who else in the world can have such an ability?

No wonder, all the people in Aurouss Hilll who have a face and respect him, Master Wade.

Moreover, when they mentioned Master Wade, they would give a four-character evaluation: A true dragon in the world!

Chapter 1183

On the way back, Charlie Wade asked Paul: "By the way, what has Matilda been up to these days?"

Paul said: "My mother recently. She likes to run to senior colleges. An old friend of hers invited her to go there and be a visiting professor at senior colleges, specializing in general education for senior citizens."

"Oh?" Charlie Wade said in surprise, "Then Matilda is Professor now?"

Paul smiled and said: "It's not a professor. The senior university itself is not a university in the true sense. It is just an interest training class for the elderly. Although my mother teaches there, she is also a student there. Learning calligraphy and traditional Chinese painting from others, I am very busy every day."

After that, Paul asked curiously: "What has Uncle Wilson been up to lately? My mother often talks about him, but she always seems to stop talking."

Charlie Wade felt that Paul was not an outsider, so he sighed and said to him: "When you and Matilda just came back, my mother-in-law disappeared during that time, but she is back now."

After speaking, Charlie Wade said again: "My mother-in-law, who has a more aggressive personality, my father-in-law is afraid. She knows that Matilda will come back and will trouble Matilda, so he dare not ask Matilda."

Paul nodded lightly, and said with emotion: "It is really hard for us to intervene in matters of our parents' generation."

At this time, Charlie Wade's phone rang suddenly, and it turned out to be Jasmine who hadn't seen her for many days.

He answered the phone and smiled and asked, "Miss Moore, what are you up to lately?"

Jasmine smiled and said, "I'm just busy, I'm sure you are not busy Master Wade."

After speaking, she asked curiously: "Master Wade, do you have time for the night after tomorrow?"

Charlie Wade thought for a while and said, "It seems there is nothing planned, what's wrong?"

Jasmine smiled and said: "It's nothing, I just want to invite you to have a meal at home, just because Grandpa kept talking about you."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Okay. Then I'll go to the house the night after tomorrow and talk."

Jasmine said happily, "Great, Master Wade, is it okay at 7 pm the next day?"

"Perfect."

"See you then!"

"Okay, see you then."

Hanging up Jasmine's phone, Paul on the side smiled and asked, "Master Wade, is Miss Moore calling you?"

Charlie Wade knew that he knew Jasmine, so he didn't hide it. He nodded and said, "That's right."

Paul smiled: "Miss Moore called you for her birthday party, right?"

"Birthday party?" Charlie Wade said surprised: "Miss Moore didn't tell me on the phone just now, she said she would go to her house for dinner the next night."

Paul smiled profoundly and said: "It is estimated that Miss Moore didn't want you to spend money on preparing gifts for her, so that's why she told you that. When she told me, she said directly about the birthday party."

Charlie Wade couldn't help being a little surprised. Why should I hide it on my birthday? It won't look pretty even when it comes to the past empty-handed.

Is it really like Paul said, do you want to spend money?

Charlie Wade thought for a while, and thought it was really possible. Jasmine always felt that she owed her favor because she had helped her break through the trapped dragon formation before and confiscated the money.

When he made medicine for her grandfather and Dr. Simmons, he quietly gave her a pill.

After practicing the Rejuvenation Pill, she gave it to her grandfather so that her grandfather was at least a dozen or twenty years younger, and it was entirely in her face.

It was also the one who gave him the Rejuvenation Pill to Lord Moore, which made him treat Jasmine very seriously, so Jasmine's position in the Moore family is getting higher and higher.

Chapter 1184

It is for these reasons that Jasmine has always respected herself.

So Jasmine may deliberately conceal her birthday because she was afraid of owing her favor.

Charlie Wade thought of this, suddenly felt very interesting.

Jasmine, aren't you afraid of owing me favors? Then I will give you another great favor this time.

For this birthday gift, I won't go out and buy it for you. I will prepare a rejuvenating pill for you.

No one in the upper class of Aurouss Hilll knows how magical the Rejuvenation Pill is.

At the banquet that day, Lord Mooore took the Rejuvenating Pill in public. Everyone witnessed the magical effect of the medicine.

Charlie Wade even heard that someone wanted to spend one hundred million or even several hundred million to buy a rejuvenating pill.

However, Charlie Wade never thought about selling medicine.

He is not short of money at all. A few hundred million, a dozen billion, or even a few billions are meaningless to him.

If you sell Rejuvenation Pills everywhere for money, it will suppress the value of Rejuvenation Pills.

It is to make everyone feel that Rejuvenation Pill is a super treasure that they can't ask for, and may not have a chance to get it in a lifetime.

They will be full of endless worship and longing for the rejuvenation pills.

As for why he should give Jasmine a Rejuvenating Pill, Charlie Wade thought very simply.

First of all, he does regard Jasmine as a good friend.

Since it's a good friend's birthday, it makes sense to send a valuable gift.

Secondly, Jasmine is the eldest lady of the Moore family. She has seen countless good things since she was a child. If she gives her a gift, it must be a gift that she can't buy with money.

Once again, this thing, Rejuvenating Pill, I gave to Jasmine, but it was not for Jasmine.

Jasmine is still very young now, she is only about 25 years old, and she doesn't need to take Rejuvenating Pill at all.

I gave her a rejuvenation pill, the fundamental purpose is to use this rejuvenation pill in exchange for the love, attention and resource preference of Lord Moore.

Last time I gave Lord Moore a rejuvenating pill. Lord Moore took the entire Moore family and knelt down in front of all the upper-class people in Aurouss Hilll.

This shows that Lord Moore's desire for Rejuvenation Pill is beyond everything.

But Lord Moore must also know in his heart that giving him a rejuvenating pill by himself is already a great favor, and it was given in the face of Jasmine.

He certainly didn't dare to hope, there was still a chance to get a second one from himself.

Now I give this rejuvenation pill to Jasmine. A clever person like Lord Moore will know his intentions, and he will pay more attention to Jasmine, and may even let Jasmine inherit the entire Moore family. Charlie Wade could tell that Jasmine herself was also a very smart and ambitious woman.

Otherwise, she would not have worked so hard for the family all the time. And because her parents died early, she was in the Moore family, somewhat helpless.

Under such circumstances, it may be very difficult to fight a turnaround and successfully inherit the Moore family.

That being the case, you might as well give her a hand!

Chapter 1185

After Paul sent Charlie Wade to Thompson First, he drove home.

Charlie Wade went back to the villa by himself, and Jacob Wilson, the old father-in-law, hurriedly greeted him and asked him: "Good son-in-law, have you gone out with Paul today to see your Matilda?"

Charlie Wade said helplessly, "Dad, how can I see Matilda when I go out with Paul on errands?"

Jacob Wilson couldn't help sighing, feeling very depressed.

He missed Matilda very much these days, but Elaine Ma was at home, so he really didn't dare to risk seeing her.

So at this time I was scratching my heart.

He asked Charlie Wade again: "Then have you asked Paul about the current situation of your Matilda? How is she doing these days?"

Charlie Wade laughed and said, "Auntie Matilda should be doing well recently. I heard Paul say that Auntie Matilda now teaches in senior colleges every day. Not only does she teach classes, she also learns calligraphy and painting from others. She has a very good life. Enrichment."

When Jacob Wilson heard this, he was anxious: "Oh, how can she go to senior college?"

Charlie Wade asked in surprise: "What's wrong with the university for the elderly? Isn't the university for the elderly the place for the elderly?" Christopher said with a gloomy expression: "Don't you know that there are so many old men without a wife in this elderly university. They are a bunch of bad old men who went in not to learn things, but to find a wife."

After speaking, he said nervously again: "Your Auntie Matilda is so beautiful, so after entering, you can't let these old men worry about it?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Then can you stop others from worrying?" Jacob Wilson sighed: "That's right, now this situation is really depressing!"

After he finished speaking, his eyes suddenly brightened and said: "Yes, I can also go to senior college. Then, won't I be able to meet your Matilda?"

Charlie Wade asked him: "Aren't you afraid that mom would know?"

"It's okay." Jacob Wilson said earnestly: "What kind of woman your mother is, don't you know? She is desperate for face, you see, she is now limping, crutches, and has lost two front teeth. She can't make up for the time being. How dare she go to crowded places now? Every time she goes out to buy things, she has to wear sunglasses and a mask, for fear that others will recognize her, so she dare not go to senior college." "Okay." Charlie Wade nodded and didn't say much.

In fact, he doesn't care much about Jacob Wilson and Matilda's affairs. If Jacob Wilson and Matilda walked too close and his wife Claire Wilson knew, he would definitely be very sad and very depressed. If his mother-in-law Elaine Ma knew about it, it would be terrible. So I can only wronged the old man.

.....

Two days later.

Charlie Wade told his family in advance that he had a friend's birthday tonight.

In the afternoon, he went to the street and bought a redwood gift box, and then put a rejuvenating pill in it.

After putting it away, I asked the owner of the gift shop to help meticulously pack the gift box.

Since it is a birthday present for others, it naturally requires a sense of ritual.

Because Paul was also invited, he simply drove to pick Charlie Wade to the Moore's villa.

On Jasmine's birthday, the Moore family didn't put up lights and festoons, but made some modern and warm decorations.

When Paul drove the car into the courtyard, Charlie Wade couldn't even see that these arrangements were for a birthday party.

Tonight Jasmine is wearing a tailor-made white dress.

This skirt is a tube top, so it looks very sexy and beautiful, especially Jasmine's collarbone, which is not only very obvious, but also beautiful in shape, even women will be jealous.

A lot of luxury cars have been parked in the yard, and it seems that there are still a lot of guests here today.

Jasmine originally greeted the guests inside, but when she heard that Charlie Wade was here, she hurried out to meet him.

Chapter 1186

Charlie Wade couldn't help feeling very surprised when he saw her.

He had long felt that Jasmine's appearance and figure were no less inferior to his wife Claire Wilson Wilson.

Even the aristocratic temperament that Jasmine has cultivated since childhood is unmatched by his own wife.

After all, she is the eldest lady of the local top big family. Since she was young, she has received noble etiquette teachings, which is still very different from ordinary girls.

Seeing Charlie Wade, Jasmine came in the morning very excited, and said with a bit of shyness: "Master Wade, you are here."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "Miss Jasmine, why didn't you tell me in advance for your birthday today?"

Jasmine said apologetically: "Master Wade I ask you not to be offended. The reason why I didn't tell you was because I was afraid that you would prepare gifts and spend money for me."

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "In fact, there is nothing to spend, are we two friends? I will definitely give you a gift for your birthday. Even if you don't say it, I will prepare a gift for you."

After all, Charlie Wade took out the small box containing Rejuvenation Pill from his pocket.

It's just that this gift box is packed very carefully, so no one knows what it is.

Jasmine felt joy in her heart when she saw the gift Charlie Wade had prepared for herself.

She had always liked Charlie Wade very much in her heart, and this was also the first birthday gift that her sweetheart gave her. Naturally, she was extremely excited.

So she accepted the gift and gratefully said to Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, thank you so much, and specially prepared gifts for me."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "Yes, you and you don't have to be polite."

Charlie Wade's words made Jasmine's heart as sweet as eating honey.

Paul by his side also stepped forward at this moment, handed her a gift box and smiled and said, "Miss Moore, happy birthday."

Jasmine looked at Paul with a smile and asked, "You must have told Master Wade that I had my birthday today, right?"

"Yes." Paul smiled: "When Master Wade called, I was finishing official business with Master Wade."

"Really?" Jasmine asked in surprise: "Do you still have business dealings with Master Wade?"

Paul smiled and said, "I am now Master Wade's lawyer and legal counsel."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "And it's the kind that doesn't have any money."

Jasmine asked curiously: "Master Wade, what do you want the legal counsel to do now? Are you having any trouble?"

"No." Charlie Wade smiled and said: "I just took a company, so let Paul help me deal with some legal details."

"Understood!" Jasmine nodded and said with a smile: "Master Wade, let's go in now, there are still many acquaintances in it."

"it is good!"

Charlie Wade followed Jasmine into the Moore family villa, and the huge hall had been arranged into a banquet hall.

In the banquet hall at this time, there was not only a reception, but also a band playing jazz music.

Charlie Wade glanced and saw many acquaintances.

The first thing I saw was Jasmine's cousin Rueben.

But Charlie Wade didn't like Rueben, so he didn't go to say hello to him. Among the guests outside were Cameron Isaac, Mr. White, Don Albertt, Dr. Simmons, his granddaughters Xyla, Mr. Quinton and his daughter Aurora. There is even Travis Lane, the richest man in Lancaster. Even Doris Young from the Emgrand Group came. It seems that Jasmine invited these, they are all old friends who have a better relationship.

Chapter 1187

At this moment, the guests who came to Jasmine's birthday dinner, in fact, the one who was really waiting in the heart was Charlie Wade. Everyone knows that the Webb family and his son came to Aurouss Hill some time ago and had conflicts with Charlie Wade.

At Lord Moore's birthday banquet, Charlie Wade even broke Sean's hand in public.

Then, Cameron Isaac came forward and even broke their legs, finally letting the father and son escape back to Southaven in embarrassment. Since then, everyone felt that Master Charlie Wade was absolutely fearless, even the First Family of Southaven he did not care about. At that time, many people were still worried that Master Wade would eventually be no match for the Webb family, which has strong assets. Unexpectedly, in a short time, the Webb family fell from the position of the first family in Southaven.

Moreover, there are too many things that happened in the Webb family during this period.

First of all, the reputation was greatly hit by the Beggar Gang; Secondly, they successively sent masters to Golim Mountain but failed one after another.

For the last time, even their true trump card and the last reliance—the eight heavenly kings, have been killed.

The Webb family now can't even reach the level of a first-class family, and it's far from the Moore family.

Although there is no evidence that all of this was done by Charlie Wade, everyone was in their hearts and counted all of this on Charlie Wade's head.

In their eyes, only Master Wade had such an ability.

Especially Cameron Isaac, he was at the foot of Golim Mountain and saw how Charlie Wade killed the Eight Heavenly Kings with his own power.

So at this moment, Charlie Wade is a god in his eyes, a god who transcends everything!

Cameron Isaac was the first to walk towards Charlie Wade.

He walked towards Charlie Wade quickly, even wishing to kneel for Charlie Wade first.

Because that day in Golim Mountain, Charlie Wade shocked him too much, and he had completely subverted all his worldviews.

However, he still knew that he had restrained. He was only polite when he saw Charlie Wade, and respectfully called Master Wade.

They didn't know that he was from the Wade Family Young Master. They thought Cameron Isaac had also asked him to see Feng Shui or something. Immediately walking up was Doris Young wearing a bright silver sexy dress.

In Charlie Wade's impression, Doris Young has always been the kind of ascetic professional beauty.

But today's Doris Young is dressed very sexy and enchanting, and her state is very good. People who don't know, if they see the current Doris Young, they will think that she is a sexy goddess.

Doris Young naturally knew the identity of Charlie Wade Wade Family Master, but she knew very little about the identity of Charlie Wade Wade Master.

After all, she is not a member of the Aurouss Hilll family, nor is she involved in contact with those in the metaphysical circles, so the things Charlie Wade did as Master Wade, and Doris Young are almost completely two worlds.

Ms. Young wanted to call him Young Master very much, but because so many people were here, she could only call out politely: "Mr. Wade."

Charlie Wade nodded at him slightly, and said: "Ms. Young dressed up very beautifully today. I really didn't expect the vice chairman of the Emgrand Group to be such a beautiful and enchanting beauty."

Ms. Young blushed beautifully, and said shamefully, "Mr. Wade, you have praised."

After speaking, Ms. Young smiled and said, "Mr. Wade, when will you have time to come to the Emgrand Group to sit down?"

Ms. Young's words made Charlie Wade blush.

He knew that he, the chairman of the Emgrand Group, was really incompetent.

Chapter 1188

Usually, I would not go to the Emgrand Group, and I only asked about the Emgrand Group. Everything was directly passed to Ms. Young.

As Ms. Young said just now, it is estimated that she also hopes that he can go to the Emgrand Group more.

Thinking of this, he smiled and said to Ms. Young: "Just for such a beautiful Ms. Young, I will often go to the Emgrand Group to harass and tease!"

When Ms. Young heard this, her unparalleled pretty face turned bright red.

At this time, Dr. Simmons also brought Xyla over.

Xyla looked at Charlie Wade with tenderness in her beautiful eyes.

At the same time, there are some small complaints in her young girl's heart, always feel that Master Wade seems to have paid less attention to her and her grandfather recently.

Because during this time I haven't seen Master Wade go to Serene Medical again, so even though I thought about him, I didn't have much chance to see him.

Dr. Simmons didn't have so much thoughtfulness from his granddaughter. He just felt that one day he didn't see Master Wade. After taking the Rejuvenating Pill, he could feel every day how important it is to return to his youth, so every moment he Deep down, I am grateful to Charlie Wade.

Therefore, he walked up quickly, bowed to Charlie Wade with his fists, and said respectfully: "Master Wade, I haven't seen you for some time, I wonder if Master Wade, how are you coming in these days?"

Charlie Wade smiled faintly: "The genius Dr. Simmons is polite, I'm pretty good recently, I don't know how old Anthony is?"

Dr. Simmons said earnestly: "The blessing of Master Wade, I feel perfect every day now! Thanks to Master Wade for giving me a great opportunity!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said: "You also said, this is your chance, so don't be polite with me."

Aurora, who was tasting dessert, suddenly saw Charlie Wade coming, her excited little heart thumped and thumped, her face was already red before she could talk to Charlie Wade.

Aurora's character is the kind of little pepper that dared to love and hate. When she was facing Charlie Wade, she dared to do it against Charlie Wade, even if Charlie Wade kicked her ass.

But now Aurora has completely regarded Charlie Wade as her dream lover, and she has to think about him for a long time before going to bed almost every night before she can fall asleep.

Moreover, Aurora would frequently dream of Charlie Wade in her dreams, and sometimes in her dreams, she would also dream of doing some shameful things with Charlie Wade.

No way, because Aurora really liked Charlie Wade.

After Charlie Wade saved the Quinton family, Aurora worshiped him.

Later, Charlie Wade was about to start refining magical medicine. Aurora was entrusted by his father Mr. Quinton to ask Charlie Wade for the medicine.

I thought that even if Charlie Wade could give one, it was already a great gift, but he did not expect that Charlie Wade told Aurora at the time: "For the face of your beauty, I will give you two."

From that moment, Aurora had fallen in love with Charlie Wade deeply.

What made her love Charlie Wade even more was that Charlie Wade helped herself be a hero.

My good friend, who was tricked by Kian, almost wanted to commit suicide, and I didn't know Kian's true background.

Unexpectedly, Charlie Wade would not hesitate to offend the second young master of the Webb family of Southaven First Family for himself.

Moreover, he also treated the second young master of the Webb family so miserably, so happy!

From that moment on, Charlie Wade became the god in Aurora's heart.

And it was the god that Aurora loved deeply.

At this moment, seeing her dream lover finally came, all Aurora's emotions were beyond words.

She took her father and ran all the way to Charlie Wade, her face flushed with shame.

She took a deep look at Charlie Wade, then quickly moved her eyes to the side, but said tenderly: "Master Wade, I have been waiting for you for a long time, you are finally here..."

Chapter 1189

When Charlie Wade looked at Aurora, she was already flushed with shame.

Aurora herself was the kind of brave girl, and she was also a martial artist, and she herself had nothing to do with shyness and weakness.

But because her heart was full of the little girl's shyness and excitement when she met her sweetheart, it seemed that she suddenly became arousing love.

Charlie Wade smiled at her slightly and said, "Aurora is also here, how are you doing?"

Aurora blushed and said, "Recently... it's been pretty good recently, thank you Master Wade for caring..."

Charlie Wade nodded lightly and said to everyone: "Everyone hasn't seen each other for some days. Today happens to be Miss Moore's birthday. You can drink a few more glasses later."

Everyone hurriedly said: "It must be! I must have a few more drinks tonight!"

Jasmine said a little apologetically at this time: "Master Wade, please wait a moment, I have to greet some guests."

Charlie Wade nodded: "Go ahead."

Jasmine bid farewell to everyone, and everyone invited Charlie Wade to the banquet hall for a cocktail.

Charlie Wade readily agreed, and was surrounded by the crowd to the side of the banquet hall.

Because Charlie Wade was the focus of everyone's attention, Aurora felt a little bit unable to intervene, which made the little girl feel anxious. When Charlie Wade saw Aurora hesitated to speak several times, he was even preempted by others before he even spoke. He smiled and asked her, "Aurora, do you have anything to tell me?"

When Aurora heard this, she nodded with joy, and said, "Master Wade, I have something to tell you in private. I wonder if you have time?"

After speaking, her big eyes looked at Charlie Wade with expectation and pleading.

Charlie Wade still had a good impression of Aurora.

One is because Aurora is self-reliant and does not have the ills of a big family.

Second, as a little girl from a big family, Aurora could still work hard to practice martial arts, which is really rare among the children of the rich family.

So Charlie Wade said to her: "Why don't you accompany me out to go around."

Aurora nodded excitedly when she heard this.

Seeing this scene, Mr. Quinton grinned happily.

He especially looked forward to Charlie Wade's development with his daughter. In his opinion, even Aurora's love for Charlie Wade was a blessing for the Quinton family and even Aurora.

Seeing Aurora follow Charlie Wade out, Xyla was also jealous and envious. In her heart, why didn't she want to have more contact with Charlie Wade? It's just that there has been no very suitable opportunity.

Moreover, she was not as bold as Aurora, she dared to speak directly to Master Wade in front of so many people.

At this moment, Charlie Wade took Aurora out of the house and came to the courtyard of Moore's villa.

Then he stopped and looked at Aurora with a faint smile: "Let's talk about the little girl, what's the matter this time? It's not the schoolmates who were bullied again, right?"

Aurora smiled shyly, and said falteringly: "Master Wade, I was looking for you this time, in fact..."

Chapter 1190

Aurora was shy and embarrassed inside, so she didn't know how to start.

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Is this the little pepper Aurora I remember? The Aurora I knew dared to follow me when I was in Antique Street. Why is this Aurora even talking in front of me? Can't say it?"

Aurora was even more shy when she heard this, and said nervously and shyly: "Master Wade, people didn't know how good you were at the beginning, so there are people who don't know. Don't laugh at them."

With that, she thought that Charlie Wade had kicked her a that day, and she replied in shame, but she felt a little happy like a girl.

Afterwards, she plucked up the courage and said to Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, I actually want to invite you to watch the International College Sanda Competition held in Aurouss Hilll this year."

Charlie Wade frowned and said, "International College Sanda Competition?" Charlie Wade suddenly thought of a detail.

Liam once told himself that Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals seemed to sponsor this competition in order to promote their new drug.

Charlie Wade remembered that Aurora had been practicing martial arts, and asked curiously: "Aurora, will you also participate in this competition?" Aurora blushed and nodded and said, "Master Wade, I will represent Chinese college students this time..."

"Oh?" Charlie Wade said in surprise, "So powerful? Are you confident to win the championship?"

Aurora replied with shame: "I don't dare to win the championship, because the seeded player from Japan this time is still very powerful. She is also the current favorite to win the championship, and her strength is indeed much stronger than me."

After speaking, Aurora said again: "But I won't be discouraged either, my goal is to break into the top three!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Dreams are only possible if you dare to think about it. I am very optimistic about you. I think it's no problem for you to get the first place. Most of the Japanese fighting and Sanda are the essence of our Chinese martial arts. At that time, you must win glory for the country, give a good lesson to the Japanese players, win the championship in our Chinese territory, and win glory for the country!"

Aurora asked with joy, "Master Wade, do you really believe that I can get the first place?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "Of course, I am very optimistic about you."

Aurora said happily, "Master Wade, can I invite you to watch my game then?"

Charlie Wade agreed without hesitation and said, "Don't worry, I will definitely go to the game when you are in the game, and I will cheer you on the scene."

"Great!" Aurora jumped up happily.

She subconsciously wanted to hug Charlie Wade and behave like a coquettish to her father at home.

But suddenly thinking that Charlie Wade was a married person, she couldn't make such an intimate move, so she withdrew again.

Charlie Wade asked Aurora at this time: "By the way, Aurora, when I was practicing magic medicine, I gave your family two pills. Did your father keep one for you?"

"Yes!" Aurora took out a small box from the inner pocket of her coat.

After opening it, it contained the medicine that Charlie Wade gave her.

She blushed and said, "The medicine given by Master Wade was given to me by my father that night. I kept it next to my skin."

Charlie Wade nodded, and said, "This medicine is still very helpful for physical fitness. If you feel strenuous or unsure about the competition, then take this pill."

Aurora blurted out: "Why then? Master Wade you gave this to me. I must take good care of and treasure it."

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently: "This medicine is made for people to eat, so why bother about it?"

Aurora said with a hum, "Good point Master Wade, I know."

Chapter 1191

After agreeing with Aurora that he would definitely go to watch her game, Charlie Wade took her back to the banquet scene.

At this time, some guests came to the banquet site, and the atmosphere gradually became lively.

Lord Mooore heard that Charlie Wade was here, and he hurried out to say hello, but when he came out, Charlie Wade had already gone out with Aurora.

As soon as Charlie Wade went back, Lord Mooore greeted him and said happily, "Oh, Master Wade, it has been many days!"

Charlie Wade looked at the Moore family, and smiled slightly: "Master Moore, you are still very strong in spirit, have you been in good health recently?"

Lord Mooore said with a grateful expression: "Master Wade, thanks to you, my dying old man can regain his second spring."

Then he asked Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, how are you doing these days?"

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "I'm not bad, everything is the same."

Lord Mooore said vaguely: "Master Wade, you seemed a bit unhappy with the Webb family before. Since the birthday banquet, the Webb family hasn't made things difficult for you, right?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "What can they do if they make things difficult, just a bunch of clowns."

Lord Mooore's expression was full of admiration.

He knew that Charlie Wade had the ability to reach the sky. Although the Webb family was the No. 1 family in the south of the Yangtze River, they still couldn't handle Master Charlie Wade.

At this moment, Rueben walked over and whispered in the old man's ear:

"Grandpa, Master Kilgore from the Eastcliff Kilgore family is here."

Old man Moore was surprised and said, "Master Kilgore is really here?"

"Yes." Rueben said: "Master Kilgore's car has just entered the villa area and it is estimated to be here soon."

Lord Mooore nodded and said, "Call Jasmine, let's go out together to meet her."

After finishing speaking, he turned around and said to Charlie Wade with an apologetic look: "Master Wade, please forgive the old and bad greetings. There is also a distinguished guest coming from afar from Eastcliff. I will go out to meet him."

Charlie Wade didn't take it seriously, and nodded gently.

Cameron Isaac on the side was a little surprised. He whispered to Charlie Wade: "Master, the Kilgore family is in Eastcliff. It is a second-class family. The overall strength of Eastcliff can be ranked sixth or seventh. It's a far cry, but their family's assets add up to five or six hundred billion. The Moore family is just in the early 100s. It stands to reason that the Kilgore family should not look down on the Moore family, knowing why their young master came here. ."

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently, and said: "Although I don't know the specific situation of the Kilgore family, with the strength of the Kilgore family, in a place like Eastcliff where the dragon and the tiger are hidden, it is really difficult to go further. What do you think they will do if it is advancing?"

Cameron Isaac thought about it carefully, and said: "If there is no way to go locally, then it can only spread to the surrounding areas."

After speaking, he asked in surprise: "Master, do you mean that the Kilgore family might want to develop in Aurouss Hilll?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Arouss Hilll is just a springboard, and the Kilgore family must have realized that this time is a good opportunity for southward development."

"Because the Webb family has given up the position of the first family in Southaven, the key now is who will be the first family in Southaven. Although the strength of the Moore family is slightly weaker, it is not without a chance."

"If I were the custodian of the Kilgore family, then I would definitely find a relatively good family in Southaven, and then unite with him to help him become the first family in Southaven, and at the same time let him be loyal to himself and become his external power."

"In this case, I have already extended my tentacles into Southaven, and at the same time have laid the foundation for Southaven."

Cameron Isaac said: "Master, I understand what you mean. It seems that this is the Kilgore family. It should be because of the Moore family and want to cooperate with the Moore family."

Charlie Wade nodded: "The Kilgore family is here for Miss Moore's birthday party at this time. I guess they have deeper thoughts, and maybe even want to marry the Moore family."

Chapter 1192

Cameron Isaac frowned and said, "Master, if the Kilgore family is married, they may not be able to look at the Moore family."

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "The key depends on the status of Master Kilgore sent by the other party in the Kilgore family. If he is the eldest son of the Kilgore family, then the possibility is really small, but if he is just one of many descendants. , And it may be the one who doesn't show up very much. If he is sent to marry Jasmine, the Kilgore family is not at a loss, right?"

Cameron Isaac thoughtfully said: "According to what you said, it is indeed not a loss. The Kilgore family seems to be quite prosperous. Among the young children of this generation, there should be six or seven males."

Charlie Wade said: "This intermarriage is like horse racing. The opponent's overall strength is stronger than yours. It doesn't mean that each of his horses is stronger than your best horse. Maybe his inferior horse is not as good as yours. Wait for the horse."

Cameron Isaac nodded again and again: "Master, what you said is very reasonable, I have been taught!"

Charlie Wade waved his hand and said with a smile: "You have been cultivating in Aurouss Hilll for many years. I believe you can understand this point. Even if you don't want to understand it for a while, you can figure it out clearly with a single sentence."

At this moment, Paul, who was doing nothing with a wine glass not far away, really looked at Charlie Wade with admiration.

He felt that Charlie Wade had refreshed his impression of him again.

Because he didn't expect that the entire upper class people in Aurouss Hilll would even respect Charlie Wade.

The one who followed Charlie Wade and whispered to him at this time was the spokesperson of the Wade family in Aurouss Hilll.

Even he is so respectful to Charlie Wade, which shows how much influence Charlie Wade has in Aurouss Hilll.

At this time, someone in the banquet hall suddenly shouted: "The third young master of the Eastcliff Kilgore family is here!"

This sentence caused an uproar in the entire banquet hall.

The Eastcliff Kilgore family can rank in the top 10 in Eastcliff's strength, with total assets of more than 500 billion Dollar, a deep family background and superior strength.

In terms of asset size alone, the Kilgore family is at least 5 times that of the Moore family.

The third young master of the Kevin family unexpectedly came to Aurouss Hilll to attend the birthday party for Miss Moore family. This made everyone feel an unusual taste.

Some people even exclaimed: "Does the Kilgore family want to marry the Moore family?"

Some people also said: "It is very possible that Miss Moore is so beautiful, so temperamental, and capable, but in the eyes of Eastcliff's big family, she is definitely a good daughter-in-law!"

Cameron Isaac said to Charlie Wade: "Master, the third young master of the Kilgore family is actually quite good in the Kilgore family."

Charlie Wade asked with great interest: "How to say?"

Cameron Isaac explained: "The Kilgore family had four males in the previous generation. Each of them has at least two children, and each of them has a son. This third young master is the only son of the second child of the Kilgore family. Third, but strength and influence can be ranked second."

Charlie Wade nodded and said with a smile: "It seems that the Kilgore family wants to use their middle-class horse to fight the Moore family's superior horse."

Cameron Isaac smiled slightly and said, "I think Miss Moore may not be able to see him."

Charlie Wade asked curiously, "Why did you say this?"

Cameron Isaac said earnestly: "Master, you shouldn't fail to see it. In Miss Moore's eyes, it has always been shining to you, a man. I believe Miss Moore must like you very much. Get up, let alone the third young master of the Kilgore family, even if all the young masters of the Kilgore family add up, it's not as good as you in case."

Charlie Wade waved his hand and said: "In the future, please don't say anything like this. Miss Jasmine is not yet married, and I am a married man. If you say this kind of words, it will affect her reputation. ."

"Understand." Cameron Isaac nodded and said, "Master, don't worry, I will only tell you that."

Chapter 1193

Soon, a well-dressed young man walked in, surrounded by the Moore family. Rueben and his father Theodore, have been following the young man's side, appearing very diligent.

Lord Mooore and Jasmine also followed, but Lord Mooore's expression was a little cold.

Charlie Wade looked at the young man, he was about 27 or 28 years old, his expression was very arrogant.

Cameron Isaac on the side said calmly: "I see the third young master of the Kilgore family, it seems like a dragon came to the fish pond. He certainly would not have imagined that you, the real dragon, live in this small fish pond in Aurouss Hilll."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly, not commenting on what he said.

In fact, Charlie Wade didn't care. Others put on airs in front of him. No matter how big other people's airs are, it is their own business. As long as they don't provoke them to pretend to be forceful, they don't bother to control him.

The crowd exclaimed in exclamations, and no one expected that the third young master of the Kilgore family would actually come.

Among them, there are many small families who want to have a relationship with the Kilgore family. They look at the third young master of the Kilgore family, like a greedy cat seeing the fish.

The Moore family accompanied the third young master of the Kilgore family into the banquet hall. Lord Mooore took the lead to lead him to Charlie Wade, and respectfully introduced Charlie Wade, saying: "Three young masters, this is the famous master Charlie Wade Wade from Aurouss Hilll. , Is someone Moore's lifesaver, just like you, they are young talents and dragons among the people."

The third young master of the Kilgore family looked at Charlie Wade, and felt that this kid didn't seem to have any great things, and he was nothing more than an ordinary person in his clothes.

The third young master of the Kilgore family was about to sneer Charlie Wade with contempt, but he didn't expect that with a glance, he saw Cameron Isaac.

The third young master of the Kilgore family naturally knew Cameron Isaac, after all, Cameron Isaac belonged to the Wade family.

Moreover, the Wade Family's power is much stronger than that of the Kilgore Family. Even the Kilgore Family wants to curry favor with the Wade Family, so he was surprised to see Cameron Isaac here.

Then he looked at Charlie Wade again, and suddenly felt that Cameron Isaac was here. This kid was surnamed Wade, so would he be the young master of the Wade family?

Thinking of this, the third young master of the Kevin family said to Charlie Wade politely: "Oh, it turned out to be Young Master Wade, who looked up for a long time. Some time ago, I wanted to visit Wade's house, but I didn't get my wish. I didn't expect to see him here. Master." Charlie Wade smiled indifferently and said, "This gentleman should have admitted the wrong person. I am not the young master of the Wade family, but my surname is Wade."

The third young master of the Kevin family hurriedly looked at Cameron Isaac, and asked with some respect: "Mr. Cameron, you are from the Wade family. Isn't this the young master of the Wade family?"

Cameron Isaac smiled and said: "You have also heard Master Wade say that he just happened to have the last name Wade."

The Third Young Master of the Kilgore Family nodded, and when he looked at Charlie Wade, his eyes were full of disdain.

Chapter 1194

A so-called Master Wade dare to compare himself with him, is he a shit? Thinking of this, he was too lazy to talk to Charlie Wade again, hugged Cameron Isaac, and smiled: "I didn't expect Mr. Cameron to be here today. I was planning to visit Shangri-La tomorrow."

Cameron Isaac said lightly: "The Third Young Master is polite. I wonder why the Third Young Master has time to come to Aurouss Hilll?"

The third young master of the Kilgore family glanced at Jasmine and said with a smile: "My sister and Miss Jasmine were classmates abroad back then. This time I came to Aurouss Hilll to talk about cooperation with the Moore family. I originally planned to come back in two days. But I heard that today is Miss Jasmine's birthday, so I came here early."

With that, he took out a very exquisite gift box from his pocket. After opening it, a shiny ruby necklace appeared inside. He said to Jasmine, "Miss Jasmine, I personally selected this necklace for you. A natural ruby from Africa."

Everyone looked into the box one after another, and saw that there was a beautiful necklace in the box, which was also inlaid with a crystal clear ruby almost the size of an egg.

Many people present involuntarily exclaimed.

Everyone also knows the goods, knowing that this ruby is extremely valuable.

Seeing that everyone was startled by his ruby necklace, the third young master of the Kilgore family smiled triumphantly and said: "Miss Jasmine should also know that ruby is the most expensive of all gemstones. The price is one carat in the world. It's going to sell for tens of thousands of dollars, especially for such a particularly pure ruby, and it has 26 carats. I also found Tiffany's best master jeweler, polished this gem, and finished the setting. The price of this one is more than 20 million U.S. dollars, and I hope Miss Jasmine will like it."

Many people are envious, their eyes are almost falling off.

It was incredible to receive a gift of $20 million on my birthday.

But Jasmine didn't seem to be interested in the necklace at all. She said calmly, "Master San, this necklace is too expensive, I can't accept it."

"Is there anything I can't take?" The third young master of the Kilgore family said with a smile: "It's nothing more than a string of necklaces. For the Kilgore family, it's just a drop in the bucket. I also think this necklace really matches Miss Jasmine's temperament, so I bought it as a gift for you, so Miss Jasmine doesn't have to be polite to me, just accept it."

Jasmine said with a serious face: "Master, you are too polite. As the saying goes, you can't afford to be rewarded for nothing. How can I just accept such an expensive gift from you? I take it for you, but please take this necklace back. Go ahead."

The third young master of the Kilgore family suddenly looked a little gloomy, and asked her: "Miss Moore, why are you and me so polite? This time, not only for your birthday, but also for the in-depth cooperation with your Moore family. You If it is so polite at the beginning, how can this cooperation continue?"

Rueben on the side hurriedly said: "Jasmine, what do you want? The Third Young Master gave you such a good gift, how can you neglect the hard work of the Third Young Master? Don't hurry up!"

Rueben's father Theodore also nodded again and again: "Jasmine, don't look at it. Whoever would give such a large gift on his birthday would be so generous."

Jasmine said stubbornly: "I know that the gifts from the Third Young Master are very generous, and I am very grateful, but I really can't accept such a valuable gift. Please forgive me. This is a matter of my personal principle, not for the third young master or If you have any comments on this necklace, please don't get me wrong."

Grandpa Moore also came out at this time and said, "Master Samuel Kilgore, your gift is indeed too expensive. Jasmine is embarrassed to accept it. It is normal. Please forgive me."

The third young master of the Kilgore family frowned and asked, "Master Moore, do you and Miss Jasmine look down on me or our Kilgore family?"

Chapter 1195

The third young master of the Kilgore family suddenly began to attack, making Grandpa Moore feel quite difficult.

He knew that the Moore family was not as strong as the Eastcliff Kilgore family, so he was cautious and polite, but his politeness was only out of politeness, and he didn't really want to take this opportunity to build a relationship with the Kilgore family.

After all, the old man has seen everything in the wind and rain in his life, so he can see at a glance what the purpose of the third young master of the Kilgore family came here today.

Regardless of how the Kilgore family wants to cooperate with the Moore family, the third young master of the Kilgore family must have ideas about his granddaughter Jasmine.

If it were put in the past, if the Kilgore family really wanted to marry the Moore family, it would be too late for him to be excited.

But now I really have no interest in them.

Because in the eyes of Lord Mooore, the best grandson-in-law candidate is Master Charlie Wade, who is close to him.

If Master Wade could become his grandson-in-law, he wouldn't want to change even if he was the richest man in the world.

What's even more rare is that my granddaughter is also enamored with Master Wade.

??? If it weren't for Master Wade's Rejuvenation Pill, I am afraid that I would be dead now, so how can I have such a healthy posture?

So in the eyes of Lord Mooore, no one in this world can compare to Charlie Wade.

Because what Charlie Wade can bring to himself is precious life.

When Theodore next to him saw this, he was afraid that his father would offend Young Master Kilgore, so he hurried forward and said, "Oh, thank you so much, Master Kilgore. This gift is so expensive, I must have liked Jasmine too, but the character of this child is It's relatively dull and doesn't speak well, so I, as an uncle, took her to accept this gift, and thanked Master Kilgore for her!"

Jasmine still wanted to talk, but the Lord Mooore winked at her.

Lord Mooore whispered in her ear, "Listen, don't hit the smiley man with your hand, let's accept it first, and then return it to him privately after the banquet."

Jasmine nodded her head when she saw that grandpa said so.

Then, the third young master of the Kilgore family, accompanied by Theodore and Rueben and his son, entered the banquet hall and took a seat.

The third young master of the Kilgore family has eyes above the top, and he has a heart for everyone and dismisses him. He only greeted Cameron Isaac: "Mr. Cameron, sit together?"

Cameron Isaac wanted to see Charlie Wade subconsciously, but he remembered that Charlie Wade didn't want to reveal his identity, and he really wasn't suitable for having too much open communication with him. Just when he was about to reject the Third Young Master of the Kilgore Family, Lord Mooore on the side said to Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, let's get together!"

There are six tables in the banquet hall, but one of them is the main guest table.

As the name suggests, the main guest table is for the host to entertain the most distinguished guests.

Lord Mooore family, with Theodore, Rueben, and Jasmine, sits in the ten-seat guest seat.

The remaining six seats will be ranked by seniority based on the strength of everyone present.

Theodore and Rueben father and son naturally invited the third young master of the Kilgore family to take a seat, and Master Moore invited Charlie Wade to also sit at this table.

The remaining four seats were given to Cameron Isaac, Doris Young, Travis Lane and Mr. Quinton.

Although Mr. White's strength was not bad, he was worse than Mr. Quinton, so he could not sit in the main guest seat.

Little Chili, although Aurora wanted to be with her father, sitting at the same table with Master Charlie Wade.

Chapter 1196

But because the seats were full, she could only sit with Xyla.

Before the feast started, the old man stood up and said a word of thanks.

When speaking of thanking the guests in the thank-you speech, Lord Moore said as soon as he came up, "Thank you very much, Master Wade, for attending the birthday party of Lord Moore's granddaughter today!"

As soon as Lord Moore said this, the third young master of the Kilgore family who was sitting in the main guest table, his expression turned black.

what the hell?

Is this Moore family's old man so ignorant of praise? He drove over to enjoy her granddaughter's birthday party, but he didn't put himself in the first place of thanks?

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but glance at Charlie Wade at the same table.

This kid looked plain and unremarkable, and he had no idea why the Moore family old man was so polite to him.

After he thanked Charlie Wade, they thanked the third master of the Kilgore family.

Seeing that he was actually robbed of the 1st position by Charlie Wade's unknown origin, the third young master of the Kilgore family felt angry. At this moment, the old man Moore finished his speech, so Jasmine went up to thank him.

The dignified and majestic Jasmine, like Lord Moore, is the first to thank Charlie Wade when thanking guests.

When they talked, their big talking eyes looked at Charlie Wade with affection, and said seriously: "Thank you very much, Master Wade, for taking the time to attend my birthday party in his busy schedule. I am flattered."

After thanking Charlie Wade, Jasmine said again: "In addition to thanking Master Wade, Jasmine also thanks all the friends who are here today, thank you for your support."

After speaking, Jasmine bowed to everyone.

Samuel Kilgore's nose is almost crooked.

Although the old man Moore ranked himself second, he thanked him for his appreciation by naming him.

But when he arrived at Jasmine, she didn't even mention his name, completely conflating himself with others, which really made him angry.

At this time, he whispered to Rueben next to him: "What is the origin of Charlie Wade?"

Rueben has always been very upset with Charlie Wade, but he did not dare to neglect him. At this time, seeing that the third young master of the Kilgore family seemed to be dissatisfied with Charlie Wade, so he said in a smooth way: "This Charlie Wade is our more famous live-in son-in-law in Aurouss Hilll. At the same time, he is also a well-known Feng Shui master, who seems to know Chinese medicine, so people call him Master Wade."

After hearing this, the third young master of the Kevin family couldn't help but curl his lips: "What kind of shit master, who knows some feng shui and can teach Chinese medicine, dare to call himself a master? This kind of parallel imports in Eastcliff has long been known to be killed."

Rueben hurriedly said: "What the Third Young Master said is that our Aurouss Hilll is a small place, but you don't think the place is small, but this temple is small and windy, and there are many kings in shallow water. Anyone who dares to call a true dragon in this pond ."

"Calling a true dragon in vain?" Samuel Kilgore snorted coldly, raised his eyebrows and asked, "Does this Charlie Wade claim to be a true dragon?"

Rueben said in a low voice: "I don't know if he claims to be himself, but in the rivers and lakes of Aurouss Hilll, he is called the Real Dragon Master among others."

The third young master of the Kilgore family sneered: "He is a real dragon on earth? My Samual Kilgore is also a dragon, and the dragon of the Kilgore family in Eastcliff, I want to see today, who is the real dragon on earth!"

Rueben hurriedly slapped a flattering: "If Charlie Wade really compares with you, it will be so much inferior, I am afraid that you will not even be able to compare with you."

"That's natural." The third young master of the Kilgore family glanced at Charlie Wade with his nostrils in the sky, and sneered in his heart: "The smelly hanging silk from a small place dared to steal my limelight. Today, the young master crossed the river. Let's get the operation done with you first, and let the old bastards in Aurouss Hilll have eyes long, knowing who is the real dragon on earth!"

Chapter 1197

Sam wanted to compare Charlie Wade in public, so he asked directly from the main guest seat: "Master Wade, right? I heard that you have a nickname called True Dragon on Earth, is it true?"

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently, and said indifferently: "The so-called real dragon in the world is also a nickname given by some friends from the rivers and lakes."

Sam sneered, and said with a bit of sarcasm: "Master Wade, Mr. Kilgore is very curious about what birthday gift you have prepared for Miss Jasmine today? A real dragon like you is definitely unusual for a shot, right?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "To be honest, I didn't know Miss Jasmine before. I'm going to have a birthday banquet today. After I knew it for a while, I hurriedly prepared a little gift. It's nothing more than to show my heart. ."

The more modest Charlie Wade was, the more Sam wanted to slap him in the face in public.

So he clung to Charlie Wade and didn't let go, and asked, "Why is Master Wade so humble? I just want to know what gift you have prepared. You can tell everyone or show it, OK? "

After speaking, Sam said again: "By the way, since Master Wade is a Feng Shui master, let me first guess, is it a piece of talisman paper that Master Wade gave to Miss Jasmine, or a talisman? "

Charlie Wade smiled faintly: "Mr. Kilgore is really smart, he's very close."

When Sam heard this, he immediately smirked and said: "Our family has a subordinate who makes small commodities. I heard him say that the amulet sold at Small Commodity Market is only a few cents apiece. How much is the master wholesaler? If the master Wade wholesaler is more expensive, then I can introduce this servant to meet you and provide you with a cheaper source of goods."

Rueben heard this with a smile, his father Theodore also felt a little uncontrollable, but the other people on the table looked a little ugly. After all, Charlie Wade has always been admired by everyone. In everyone's eyes, whether he is Young Master Wade or Master Wade, he is an incomparable existence for ordinary people.

Now this Sam Kilgore dared to attack Charlie Wade as soon as he came, making everyone feel a little unhappy.

Cameron Isaac almost subconsciously wanted to slap Sam directly. I don't know any good or bad dog things, opening a pair of dog eyes and pretending to be coercive to my master is really f*cking blind. But thinking about it carefully, he resisted the urge again.

It is very simple to draw this Sam, but once you are here and draw Sam on the spot, then it is very likely that Charlie Wade's identity will be guessed.

Charlie Wade was smiling at this moment.

He didn't pay attention to Sam at all.

If Sam is more acquainted with his own well, he might as well let him pretend to be a force here.

But this guy actually provokes himself blindly, so he has to show him some color.

So Charlie Wade quietly instructed Cameron Isaac to take out his mobile phone and record the video secretly. Then he looked at Sam and said with a smile: "Master Kilgore is really a dragon and a phoenix. The first time I saw him this day, I felt that Master Kilgore was very different, and Master Kilgore. The magnanimity of the shot really surprised me."

Hearing Charlie Wade's compliment, Sam's smile became even thicker. He thought Charlie Wade had confessed to himself.

Unexpectedly, Charlie Wade immediately asked: "Master Kilgore said just now that the necklace you gave is worth 20 million U.S. dollars. I wonder if it is true or not?"

Sam said in a arrogant and cold voice: "My Kilgore family is in Eastcliff, and it is also the top ten family. A necklace of 20 million US dollars is not worth my fraud."

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "Then Master Kilgore, guess what, how much is the gift I gave Miss Moore worth?"

Sam sneered: "Although I didn't see what you gave, I guess it will definitely not exceed 10,000 Dollar."

Chapter 1198

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Master Kilgore, tell you the truth, the gift I gave not only exceeded 10,000 Dollar, but also much more expensive than your necklace."

When Sam heard this, his whole body suddenly became furious: "Where the hell are you from, how dare you pretend to be in front of me?"

Charlie Wade smiled and asked, "If the gift I give is really more expensive than your necklace, what do you say?"

Sam snorted coldly: "So many people witnessed that if your gift is really more expensive than the necklace I gave, I will eat this necklace on the spot."

Charlie Wade clapped his hands and applauded, and said with a smile: "Very good, then it's a deal."

Sam frowned and said, "Master Wade, if the gift you give is not as expensive as mine, what do you say?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "If it's not as expensive as you, I will eat the set of tableware in front of you."

When Kevin Delong heard this, he laughed and said, "This set of tableware is made of bone china. What if you can't eat it anymore?"

Charlie Wade said calmly: "If I really lose, then even if this set of tableware is broken, I will eat a lot of it in my stomach."

Upon hearing this, Jasmine hurried to persuade Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, why do you have to be familiar with him? Even if you really give Jasmine a piece of paper, it is worth a million dollars in my eyes."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "Miss Moore, don't worry, I have always been sure of what I do."

Sam saw that Jasmine was so upholding Charlie Wade, and his heart was annoyed.

Afterwards, he patted the table, stood up and applauded: "Okay! Master Wade really has the style of a master. There are so many people present today, then we will let them be a testimony. If the gift you give to Miss Moore is really better than mine. If the gift is expensive, I will swallow the ruby necklace I gave, but if the gift you give is not as expensive as I gave it, you won't be able to swallow one less piece of porcelain for this set of tableware!"

Charlie Wade nodded and said with a smile: "In this case, please ask Miss Moore to take out the present from me."

Jasmine was a little worried, and took out the small gift box that Charlie Wade gave to herself.

She hasn't opened the gift box yet, so she doesn't know what it contains.

Charlie Wade said to Jasmine a little apologetically: "Miss Jasmine, I'm sorry to give you the gift, I want you to open it in person and show it to everyone."

Jasmine quickly and respectfully said: "Master Wade, you are too polite."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Then please Miss Jasmine to open this gift box in public."

When Sam saw the gift box in Jasmine's hand, which was not as small as a ring box, he sneered and said, "With such a small size, even if you have no diamonds in it, my ruby is expensive."

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Diamonds are just carbon elements. In my eyes, there is no essential difference between a diamond and a piece of coal, so why would I give Miss Jasmine such a vulgar gift?"

When Sam heard what Charlie Wade said, his heart was immediately annoyed. Charlie Wade, this kid, it is clear that he is vulgar.

So he snorted coldly: "Don't be silly here, let everyone see what the hell is your gift! I really don't believe it. The things in such a small box can be worth more than a 20 million dollar ruby. Expensive! This set of bone china tableware, you f*cking have it!"

Chapter 1199

At this moment, most of the people present gave Charlie Wade a cold sweat.

Although everyone knows that Charlie Wade is very good, and even has a lot of accomplishments in metaphysics, they really don't believe that Charlie Wade can compare to Sam for this kind of purely more than money.

The strength of the Kilgore family is indeed much stronger than those of the Eastcliff family. From the perspective of the scale of assets, Sam Kilgore came to Aurouss Hilll, that is, the Raptors crossed the river. Because in Aurouss Hilll, no one has beaten Sam Kilgore. No one can beat him even in the whole Eastcliff.

Moreover, the $20 million ruby necklace is almost at the top in the ruby necklace.

Even an egg-sized diamond may not be worth so much.

So everyone is speculating about what exactly is in the little box that Charlie Wade gave to Jasmine that would make Charlie Wade so confident that it would be more expensive than 20 million US dollars.

Jasmine carefully unpacked the gift box at this time. When the small square gift box inside was exposed, everyone present became even more worried.

This kind of gift box does not look like a high-end thing, because the real good things, the gift boxes for packaging, are also very elegant. But Charlie Wade looked like he was in a gift shop, and he bought one at random, which was worth a few hundred Dollar at most.

At this time everyone thought Charlie Wade was defeated.

After seeing the gift box, Sam laughed disdainfully and said, "Master Wade, what is worth more than 20 million US dollars in such a broken box, is it a bit too cheap?"

Charlie Wade said indifferently: "The value of a thing is not judged by its packaging, so although Master Kilgore is dressed well, your value may not be higher than those of ordinary people."

Sam asked with a cold snort, "What do you mean by the surname Wade? You mean, the value of this young master is not as high as yours?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "It's just an analogy. If you really want to think like this, then I can't help it."

As he said, Charlie Wade spread his hands helplessly, his face full of confidence.

Sam was uncomfortable, but he was too lazy to talk to him, so he said in a cold voice: "Hurry up and let everyone know, I'm still waiting to see how you eat these utensils."

Jasmine looked at Charlie Wade with a worried expression. At this moment, she didn't know if she should open the gift box.

Charlie Wade gave her a relieved expression and smiled indifferently:

"Miss Jasmine, since Master Kilgore thinks so, see what is inside, then open it and let him take a look."

Jasmine nodded and gently opened the lid of the gift box.

It doesn't matter if you open it, a strange fragrance immediately rushes out of the gift box.

Lord Mooore, who was sitting next to Jasmine, felt like a lightning strike when he smelled this smell!

He is too familiar with this taste, because this is the magical rejuvenation pill that made him at least 20 years younger!

At this time, someone on other tables also exclaimed: "Oh my God, it is really a rejuvenation pill!"

"Master Wade's handwriting is really too big, right? Miss Jasmine's birthday, he actually gave a rejuvenation pill?!"

"I really envy Miss Jasmine, who can receive such grace from Master Wade!"

Many people who came to Jasmine's birthday party today have also attended the birthday banquet of the Moore family.

Everyone saw with their own eyes the magical scene that happened when Lord Mooore took the Rejuvenation Pill.

At that moment, everyone was full of ultimate desire for Rejuvenation Pill.

There is no doubt that everyone is rich, even if there is no such wealth as the Kevin family, but at least they have a lifetime of glory and wealth.

Chapter 1200

Travis Lane, who was with the table, was shocked and speechless!

He is the richest man in Lancaster, and in terms of wealth, he is not much worse than the Moore family.

And he has also reached old age this year, and he can obviously feel that his body is much worse than before.

This is irreversible no matter how much money is spent.

So he dreamed that he would have the opportunity to have a rejuvenating pill, even if he was asked to take out one-tenth of his assets, he would not regret it.

Because he knows that apart from the rejuvenation pills, even if he spends several billion Dollar, he cannot buy back 20 years of youth. Macau gambling king Stanley Holt, he is really a very rich super rich, but he is over 90 years old, and there is no way he can buy back his youth.

The only thing he can do is to spend several hundred million to the hospital every year to let the hospital save his life.

However, the time bought from the hospital can only delay death, so what if you live for two years, three years, or even five years?

The five years that he spent several billions on buying back just lasted his life and couldn't change his dying physical state.

If it can make his body go backwards and return to a younger state in five years or even longer, then for him, not to mention spending billions, even spending 10 billion is worth it.

At this time, what everyone sees is not money anymore, but things that are more important than money.

Such as time, such as youth, such as health, and life span.

So for them, there is nothing more fascinating for them than Rejuvenation Pill.

It is very rare that even a dying person will be able to restore health and prolong life and prolong life.

Even Jasmine herself stared at this rejuvenating pill, so shocked that she couldn't say a word!

She never dreamed that Charlie Wade would give herself such a valuable gift!

In my own eyes, the value of this rejuvenation pill is 10 times, 20 times, or even hundreds of times that of Sam's ruby necklace!

Jasmine's eyes were instantly blurred by tears.

She looked at Charlie Wade with affectionate eyes, choked and said,

"Master Wade, how dare Jasmine to accept such a valuable gift from you..."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said indifferently: "I will give it to you, and you will accept it. What's the dare to accept?"

Lord Mooore, who was on the side, was so excited that he was going to pass out.

After taking a rejuvenating pill, he has a more intense desire for rejuvenating pill.

After you have something, you will know how amazing it is.

After taking a rejuvenating pill, Lord Mooore felt that the whole person was regaining his youth. Since then, he has been enjoying the magical taste brought by his 20-year younger body, while also looking forward to the opportunity to further improve his body. young.

At the same time, he was also worried that if 20 years later, he became the dying old man again, whether he could still ask for another rejuvenation pill from Master Wade.

After all, it has a life span of 20 years, and everyone will be crazy about it.

And now, Master Wade actually gave another rejuvenation pill to his granddaughter.

If you treat your granddaughter better, maybe your granddaughter will be willing to give this rejuvenating pill to yourself!

Sam found that everyone was shocked at that gray pill, which made him very upset.

So he snorted heavily and sneered: "Where did you get such a powerful pill with the surname Wade? Just this tattered thing, dare you say that it is more expensive than my ruby necklace?!"

Chapter 1201

In Sam's eyes, the Rejuvenation Pill that Charlie Wade took out was indeed an inconspicuous Dali Pill.

Even the Angari Pills that have been fired to sky-high prices in Chinese medicine circles, the most expensive top product is only a few hundred thousand.

Take 10,000 steps back and say that even if Charlie Wade's so-called rejuvenating pill is Angari Pill, what can it do?

Compared with this ruby worth nearly 20 million Dollar, it is a huge difference.

Therefore, Sam felt that he had already won Charlie Wade.

After Sam arrogantly said that, he originally wanted to accept everyone's praise, but he did not expect that everyone looked at him as if they were caring for a mentally retarded person.

This can't be blamed on him, because he is the only person in today's birthday party who does not know the value of Rejuvenation Pill.

Although everyone present felt that Sam was mentally retarded, after all he was the third young master of the Eastcliff Kilgore family, so no one dared to express it directly.

However, Sam can still see a clue from everyone's eyes.

He couldn't help but wonder, what's the situation? Is this so-called rejuvenation pill really valuable? Impossible, just how much money can it be worth?

At this moment, Charlie Wade looked at him and smiled slightly, and said, "Master Kilgore, how much do you think my pill is worth?"

Sam snorted coldly, and said contemptuously: "In my opinion, it is worth 100,000 at most!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "In this case, then we might as well be here and improvise a small auction!"

Sam frowned and asked, "Auction? What do you mean?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "It's here. Take our two things out for auction to see which is the final transaction price. What do you think?"

Sam snorted coldly: "What the hell are you kidding me? Master's ruby necklace is a birthday gift for Miss Jasmine. How can I sell it?"

Charlie Wade said, "Well, and I believe that your necklace is really worth 20 million U.S. dollars. According to our gambling agreement, does it mean that my pill is more expensive than your necklace? Won?"

Sam laughed: "The surname Wade, don't you want to auction some of your rejuvenation pills here? Do you really think your shit rejuvenation pills can be sold for more than 20 million US dollars?"

As he said, Sam sneered again: "And you are really nasty, even if your rejuvenation pills are worthless, they are also your birthday gifts to Miss Jasmine, how can they be auctioned? Shameless, right?"

When Jasmine heard this, she was anxious, and almost subconsciously blurted out: "Sam, I don't allow you to say that to Master Wade!"

The people present were shocked, and no one thought that Jasmine would directly confront Sam in order to protect Charlie Wade.

Sam's expression is also very wrong, Jasmine took the wrong medicine, right? When someone gave her such a forcing gadget, she then just defended each other!

She gave her such an expensive ruby necklace, but she didn't give herself a good face.

However, Sam didn't know how much Jasmine was grateful to Charlie Wade at this moment.

Chapter 1202

Seeing her sweetheart being ridiculed by Sam, Jasmine naturally wanted to defend her.

At this moment, Charlie Wade smiled indifferently, and took out another rejuvenation pill from his arms, and said with a smile: "Look, I have this thing. The one given to Miss Jasmine is naturally impossible to take again. Come out for auction, what I want to auction is my current one!" After that, Charlie Wade stood up and said to everyone around him: "You all know what Rejuvenation Pill is, I won't introduce it here, so let's just start the auction simply and rudely. "

When everyone in the room heard that the Rejuvenation Pill was really going to be auctioned off, their expressions were almost crazy.

This is a magical medicine that can never be seen in dreams, Charlie Wade has never sold even one, so this thing is simply invaluable.

Those who come today are also rich people, who don't want to seize this opportunity to buy a rejuvenating pill and regain their youth?

So everyone is eager to try one by one, and everyone is thinking in their hearts that even if they pay a high price, they must buy this rejuvenation pill.

At this moment, Charlie Wade looked at Sam with a smile and asked, "Master Kilgore, your ruby necklace is worth 20 million Dollar, right?"

Sam said arrogantly: "It seems you are good at math! Yes, it is 20 million Dollar. You may never have seen so much money in your life? Are you scared?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "It's impossible to be afraid. Charlie Wade will never be afraid in my life."

After speaking, Charlie Wade didn't pay attention to Sam again, but looked around and said to the people around him: "Everyone, let me briefly talk about the auction rules. Master Kilgore doesn't think I don't have a rejuvenation pill without his ruby necklace. Is it expensive? In that case, my starting price is set at 150 million Dollar." "what?!"

Sam heard that Charlie Wade was going to set the starting price of Rejuvenation Pill at 150 million Dollar. He suddenly widened his eyes and blurted out: "You have a brain disease with the surname Wade, right? Your shit, you dare to sell it. 150 million Dollar, do you treat everyone else as a fool?"

As soon as the voice fell, Lord Mooore immediately raised his hand and said, "Master Wade, I would like to give 150 million!"

After hearing these words, Sam was immediately confused.

He looked at Lord Mooore and asked in a cold voice, "Grandpa Moore, you deliberately want to protect the surname Wade, and you can't get along with me? I came here with full sincerity when I came to the Moore family. If you are not sincere, don't blame me Sam for turning his face!"

Lord Mooore looked embarrassed, he didn't make an offer to protect Charlie Wade, he really wanted this Rejuvenation Pill.

He is a person who has personally experienced the magical power of rejuvenation. To him, no amount of rejuvenation pills is too much. Not to mention 150 million is 1.5 billion, he is willing to buy, and even if ten pills he is willing to buy in one go. clean.

1.5 billion pieces, buying 10 pieces is no more than 15 billion Dollar. For the Moore family, it will not hurt the bones, but the 15 billion spent to give the old man may live for decades. In this case, the Moore family I don't know how much money I can make, so this sale is definitely worth it.

But when he heard Sam's words, he was a little hesitant, because he didn't want to directly offend Sam publicly, after all, that would be equivalent to giving Moore Family a strong enemy.

At this time, Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Master Moore, in order to avoid suspicion, you should not participate in the auction of this pill. Let people outside the Moore family participate, lest Master Kilgore think you are cheating for me."

Master Moore, seeing that Charlie Wade had said so, he had to say with regret and respect: "Since Master Wade has ordered, then the old man will not participate in this auction."

Sam's expression eased a little. It seems that the Moore family is still acquainted, and besides the Moore family, I believe that no one else would be interested in this pill with a starting price of 150 million. Just when he breathed a sigh of relief, Travis Lane, the richest man in Lancaster at the same table, raised his hand in excitement and said, "Master Wade, since Lord Mooore has abstained, then I am willing to give 150 million!"

Chapter 1203

Sam just thought he was determined to win. It is impossible for anyone to be willing to spend 150 million to buy this rejuvenation pill.

Unexpectedly, Travis Lane slapped himself in the face with practical actions.

He looked at Travis Lane in surprise, gritted his teeth and asked, "Mr. Lane, what do you mean?"

Although Travis Lane also knew that Sam had an extraordinary background, the rejuvenation pill was too temptation for him. Even if he offended the Kilgore family, he would take down this magical medicine.

Who would have trouble with such a magical opportunity as 20 years younger? !

Not to mention Sam blocking the front, even the king of heaven, Master, could not stop Travis Lane from bidding.

So Travis Lane looked at Sam and said lightly: "Sorry, Master Kilgore, I has longed for Master Wade's rejuvenation pills for a long time. Today is such a good opportunity, I will never miss it easily. If you offend, please forgive me. !"

Sam's expression suddenly became extremely ugly, because he knew that with Travis Lane's bid, he had lost to Charlie Wade.

Losing to Charlie Wade not only meant that he was going to lose face in front of so many people, but also that he was going to swallow this ruby necklace in front of so many people.

Just when he had an extremely ugly expression and thought that Travis had deliberately acted against him, someone on the table next to him said, "I'm paying 151 million!"

Someone made a bid, and Travis Lane was still 1 million higher. Does this make it clear that he wants to bid?

At this moment, Charlie Wade said with a smile on his face: "This gentleman, I forgot to explain that the starting price is 150 million, and the minimum price increase is 10 million. We don't want 1 million and 1 million. It's too petty and boring."

The man nodded hurriedly and blurted out: "Since Master Wade said so, then I will give 160 million!"

"f*ck!" Sam's eyes almost fell to the ground.

Such a ghost has a starting price of 150 million Dollar. Not only have some people shot it, but some people have increased the price. Are these two people thinking about it?

Before Sam could come back to his senses, someone at another table stood up and said excitedly: "I would like to give 170 million!"

Sam's expression was even worse than eating shit, and he couldn't help cursing in his heart: "f*ck, are all these people crazy?!"

Before Sam accepted the 170 million quotation, Travis Lane waved his hand directly: "I will give 200 million!"

The scene was in an uproar!

Travis Lane was really determined to win this rejuvenation pill.

So just two hundred million, it was just drizzle to him, it was just a warm-up.

Mr. Quinton hasn't spoken, but his heart has long been unbearable.

Rejuvenation pill!

Master Wade's rejuvenation pills!

Although he and his daughter had received two magical medicines from Master Wade, the magical medicine was still much worse than the rejuvenation pill.

So he naturally didn't want to miss this good opportunity.

So he raised his hand and said, "I would like to give out 210 million!"

"f*ck!" Sam's face turned green!

It's two hundred million f*cking, and there are people adding it up?

Just thinking of this, Mr. White said: "I am willing to give out 220 million Dollar!"

After that, Mr. White gave Mr. Quinton an apologetic look, arched his hands and said, "Brother Quinton, I'm sorry!"

Mr. Quinton also understood Mr. White's thoughts very well. Everyone had seen the magical methods of Master Charlie Wade, and they all knew how precious this Rejuvenation Pill was.

Master Wade has never put out a rejuvenating pill for auction. This is the first time, and it may be the last.

If you don't seize this opportunity, you might pass by Rejuvenation Pill for the rest of your life.

Therefore, no one is willing to give up easily.

Travis Lane also came to the spirit, waved his hand and said: "250 million, I'm sorry brothers, if I offend, please forgive me!"
Someone at the next table called: "Then I will give out 260 million!"

Chapter 1204

"270 million!"

"280 million!"

"290 million!"

Mr. Quinton raised his hand again: "I will give out three hundred million!"

In these few bids, basically, someone raised the price as soon as someone finished bidding.

In order to grab this rejuvenating pill, everybody added 10 million and 10 million, basically without stopping.

The whole scene is already boiling, even if it is a person with a net worth of only about 1 billion, at this time, he did not hesitate to follow up the bid. Everyone knows that money is precious and life is more expensive.

Sam felt that every time someone bid a price, he was beating his face frantically.

He has never been so embarrassed in his life.

However, this is only the beginning.

What makes him most uncomfortable is how he will step down later.

Did you really let yourself eat this ruby necklace?

At this moment, the bidding is still going on, and it is still extremely enthusiastic.

Travis Lane, Mr. White, and Mr. Quinton were unwilling to give up this great opportunity, and the others were gritting their teeth to keep up. Soon, the price has exceeded 500 million Dollar.

At this time, in the next few tables, only two or three people were still making bids. The others had to abstain because the prices were too high and they were beyond the range they could actually bear.

However, even if the sky-high price of 500 million Dollar has been reached, the auction price continues.

The price climbed all the way and soon exceeded 600 million.

The only people who are still bidding are Travis Lane, Mr. White, and Mr. Quinton.

The three people have a good relationship, and they are all familiar with Charlie Wade. In fact, everyone did not intend to make it too ugly, but this pill is too precious, and no one is willing to give up, so every time the three of them bid, they bid. Like the other two people, people would bow their hands and say sorry.

The situation at the scene suddenly became very magical.

After Mr. White said 600 million, he clasped his fists and said, "I'm sorry, two brothers, if I offend, please forgive me."

When he arrived at Mr. Quinton, he reported 610 million Dollar, and said with a fist, "I'm sorry, two brothers, if I offend, please forgive me."

Then there was Travis Lane. He directly reported 650 million, but still clasped his fists and said, "I'm sorry, two brothers, if I offend, please forgive me."

The others are already stupid, what is the relationship between these three people? Everyone calls the other two elder brothers, then who is the elder brother and who is the younger brother?

It doesn't matter who is the elder brother and who is the younger brother. What is important is that these three people are not willing to give up at all, chasing after each other, pushing the price higher and higher.

In the blink of an eye, the price has been pushed to 980 million.

Sam has been blinded.

980 million.

His necklace is only worth 20 million, which has been opened several times!

What the hell is this rejuvenation pill? How can it be so valuable?

Just thinking of this, Travis Lane said directly: "I will give out 1 billion!"

Mr. White felt that if he continued to play like this, he would basically have no head. In terms of assets, he might be able to compete with Mr. Quinton, but he was definitely incomparable with Travis Lane.

Therefore, if you still add a little bit of it, it will be difficult to survive Travis Lane in the end.

So he simply gritted his teeth and blurted out: "I will give out 1.1 billion!"

A one hundred million-dollar increase in one breath, everyone present was already shocked by his courage!

Chapter 1205

After Mr. White bid 1.1 billion, Mr. Quinton also felt that he had to come up with some means, otherwise he would probably miss this rejuvenation pill.

So he gritted his teeth and said: "Since Brother White has already bid 1.1 billion, then I will pay 1.2 billion."

Travis Lane didn't care too much, he himself was richer than Mr. Quinton and Mr. White combined, so whether it was 1.2 billion or 1.5 billion, it didn't make much difference to him.

But this rejuvenation pill, he is determined to get it.

So he said indifferently: "If this is the case, then I will go straight to 2 billion."

As soon as the voice fell, the scene was boiling.

From 1.2 billion to 2 billion, this is simply the most incredible and lavish auction that everyone has ever seen.

What is the concept of 2 billion cash? If one month's pocket money is 10 million, then 2 billion is enough to spend nearly 17 years.

If these 2 billion are deposited in the bank, calculated at an annual interest rate of 5%, the annual interest alone will be 100 million.

Calculated in this way, the monthly interest is more than 8 million.

This is simply an astronomical figure that is unimaginable for ordinary people, even the rich.

But for a billionaire like Travis Lane, this is nothing more than one-twentieth and thirty-thirty of his own assets.

Travis Lane has struggled for half his life, earning money for enjoyment, and to make himself live better and more chic, so 2 billion to buy a rejuvenation pill is simply too cost-effective for him.

So when he quoted this price, he didn't feel distressed at all.

But Mr. White and Mr. Quinton, at this moment, felt a deep weakness in their hearts.

Behind these two people is a large-scale family. Each family's direct relatives and collateral relatives add up to dozens of people, that is, dozens of mouths waiting to eat.

Take Mr. Quinton as an example. The Quinton family's assets are less than tens of billions. It's not impossible to use 2 billion to bite the bullet. But Quinton's assets are not only owned by Mr. Quinton. If he spends 2 billion to buy a rejuvenating pill, Your own money is not enough, you must use family money.

In this way, the family must have great opinions.

After all, there is only one such thing as Rejuvenating Pill, and it cannot be distributed to everyone.

So he could only hold his fists helplessly towards Travis Lane, and said, "Mr. Lane is really extraordinary, I admire him."

Mr. White's situation is no better than Mr. Quinton, and even in terms of strength, the White family's strength is a bit weaker than that of the Quinton family.

What's more, the two descendants of the White family, Gerald White, and Fred White offended Charlie Wade and lost the qualification to cooperate with the Emgrand Group, which also caused the White family to lose a lot. Therefore, the current White family can only stay away from the price of 2 billion.

Seeing that no one had robbed him, Travis Lane was relieved.

However, he was not half proud, nor did he express his joy. He held fists at Mr. White and Mr. Quinton, and said modestly: "Brother White and Brother Quinton, thank you for your love, and someone from Lane will come to thank you next day! "

Both Mr. White and Mr. Quinton spoke very humbly: "Mr. Lane is polite. It is the extraordinary strength of Mr. Lane. The two of us are beyond expectation."

Everyone couldn't fully marvel at the harmony between the three.

A Rejuvenation Pill with a starting price of 150 million Dollar was fired all the way to 2 billion by the three of them, but the three of them were still not eager and blushing, and even everyone was quite decent, which was indeed praised. .

At this time, Travis looked at Charlie Wade and said respectfully: "Master Wade, since no one else is bidding with me, then I took the courage to photograph your rejuvenating pill."

Charlie Wade nodded lightly, handed the Rejuvenation Pill directly to him, and said: "In that case, this Rejuvenation Pill is yours!"

Chapter 1206

Travis Lane didn't dare to take this rejuvenation pill, and hurriedly said: "Master Wade, I haven't paid the money yet, and I am ashamed of it. I will call the company's financial department and transfer the money to your account immediately."

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled, took out his black card, handed it to Travis Lane, and said, "This is my card. Just put the money into this card."

Sam was stunned by this card. Isn't this the top black card of Citibank? It seems that there are no more than five people in the country with this card.

Moreover, Citibank has very strong privacy protection for top black card customers. What is the origin of Charlie Wade? How could he have this card?

At this moment, Charlie Wade looked at Sam suddenly and said with a smile: "Master Kilgore, your necklace is worth 20 million dollars, and my rejuvenation pill is worth 2 billion Dollar. Who is high and who is low, I don't think I need to say?"

Sam's expression was extremely ugly.

What the f*ck are these bird people? 2 billion to buy a powerful pill, is it brain disease?

But cursing is not very useful, after all, I have just let out the words, and now I don't know how to end it.

Do you really let yourself swallow this shit ruby necklace?

It is easy to swallow, what if it gets stuck in the intestines and cannot be pulled out?

But if you don't swallow it, how will you end up today?

After all, those ruthless words were all made by myself, so I can't break my word in public.

But thinking about it carefully, it's okay to cheat in public. Anyway, I don't know anyone in Aurouss Hilll, so I'm not afraid of gossiping behind these people.

But thinking about it again, I still plan to develop and develop with Jasmine. If I lose such a big face in public today, and I break my promise, it will not be so easy to impress Jasmine in the future.

Just when he was hesitating, Cameron Isaac shook the phone in his hand and said: "Master Kilgore, I have videotaped the whole process of what happened just now. If you confided in the third master of the Kilgore family, then I sent this video to Eastcliff's circle, hoping that Master Kilgore could weigh it himself."

Sam looked at Cameron Isaac dumbfounded, and said angrily: "Mr. Cameron, I have no grievances with you, why are you doing this to me?"

Cameron Isaac said indifferently: "Master Kilgore, you are a bit unreasonable to say that. Cameron Isaac has always been fair in doing things. I will always help or not help my relatives. Today's matter is your own provocation first. Master Wade reached a consensus, why do you want to break your promise now? Is it just because you are the third young master of the Kilgore family, can you speak for nothing? I remember the grandfather Kilgore and the ancestor Kilgore have been in the world for decades. He is famous for his words, and his words are faithful. If you really get your moral character, you will start to decline?"

When Sam heard this, his face suddenly became extremely ugly.

Unexpectedly, Cameron Isaac knew his father and grandfather so well.

After the surname Kilgore was a saint, even the whole world was unified throughout his life".

Sam is the German character generation.

And Heath Kilgore is his father.

The Kilgore family of Eastcliff's line can go step by step to today, and is inseparable from the unremitting efforts of the previous generations of Sam's ancestors.

Moreover, their ancestors, even in the generation of his father and grandfather, paid special attention to credibility, and spoke the same thing outside.

Sam knew very well in his heart that if Cameron Isaac spread this video to Eastcliff's circle, the Kilgore family would surely sweep the ground and become the laughing stock of everyone.

Once the Kilgore family knows what he said today that he did not believe, then he will be over. Grandpa will punish his family law and even imprison him in the family for two to three years.

Thinking of this, he felt resentful in his heart. At the same time, he regretted it! As the saying goes, if you know today, why bother?

Chapter 1207

Deep down in Sam's heart, at this moment, he has already regretted it.

I shouldn't have more expensive gifts than Charlie Wade. In this comparison, he actually had to perform a swallowing ruby, which really lost his wife and broke down. But with Cameron Isaac here, he really didn't dare to cheat, so he gritted his teeth and said: "I, Sam, have always been willing to bet!" He looked at Jasmine and said with an extremely depressed expression: "Miss Jasmine, please lend me the ruby necklace I gave you." When Jasmine heard this, her face was extremely ugly. What do you mean by lending it to you? Will you pay me back when you run out?

She felt sick for a while, and hurriedly handed him the gift box, and said very seriously: "Master Kilgore. Please take the gift back." Sam also realized at this time that he had said something wrong, but he wanted to swallow the necklace in public. There was no doubt that he could only pull it out after swallowing it. He couldn't pull it out by himself and then wash it and return it to Jasmine, right? Thinking of this, his expression was extremely ugly, but he could only bite the bullet and said: "I'm sorry, Miss Jasmine, I will look for a more expensive gift for you another day. Please forgive me." Jasmine hurriedly waved her hand and said, "No need, Master Kilgore, I will accept your wishes, but there is no need to give gifts." Sam knew that he had been disgusted, and his expression was very depressed.

At this moment, Charlie Wade smiled calmly and urged: "Master Kilgore, everyone is waiting for you to finish eating, so don't chirp here." Sam's face was dark, he gritted his teeth, looked at the huge ruby necklace, and felt nervous.

It is probably difficult to swallow this stuff raw. If you can eat more oil, it will be better.

So he opened his mouth and said to Grandpa Moore: "Grandpa Moore, please ask the chef to get me some olive oil."

Grandpa Moore nodded lightly, and instructed the butler Oscar: "Go to the back kitchen and bring Master Kilgore a bottle of olive oil."

Oscar quickly walked over with an unopened bottle of olive oil, and respectfully handed it to the third young master of the Kilgore family. Charlie Wade said with a faint smile: "It seems that Master Kilgore is still very knowledgeable! He knows that drinking more oil in it can lubricate your esophagus and intestines, so that your 20 million dollar ruby necklace will be in and out. More comfortable."

When everyone heard Charlie Wade's words coming in and out freely, they couldn't help but laugh.

When Sam heard this, his face suddenly became extremely ugly.

This Charlie Wade really didn't know good or bad, so he was so dying. After the incident, he must kill him.

At this time, Cameron Isaac reminded impatiently: "Master Kilgore, I can't wait. If you don't eat this connection, then I can send the video to Eastcliff's circle."

When he heard this, Sam said quickly: "Isaac, don't worry, I'll eat it!" After speaking, he gritted his teeth and opened the bottle of olive oil, took a deep breath, and drank half a bottle of wine into his stomach. Afterwards, he poured some oil on the palm of his hand, rubbed the necklace shiny, and then closed his eyes and stuffed the necklace into his mouth.

Everyone stared at him intently, and even some good people had already taken out their phones and filmed the whole process of swallowing his necklace.

He looked very painful, but he still swallowed desperately. When he felt a little difficult to swallow, he poured the remaining half bottle of olive oil into his mouth.

Then, as the olive oil lubricated and washed, the necklace was finally swallowed by him.

Charlie Wade was the first to applaud, and said with a smile: "Master Kilgore really has a special talent, so I admire him very much."

Sam's expression retched, so he hurriedly stood up and asked Lord Mooore: "Grandpa Moore, where is the bathroom?"

Chapter 1208

At this time, Sam's first thought was to induce vomiting and spit out the necklace.

If you can spit out the necklace, it's better than pulling it out, right? Oscar hurriedly said: "Master Kilgore, please come with me, I will take you to the bathroom."

Sam stood up immediately, followed with a step.

When he arrived in the bathroom, Sam plucked his throat, forced a burst of nausea, and continued to induce vomiting.

Several times, he could feel the necklace in his throat, but he couldn't vomit it alive or dead.

Sam tried hard several times, and every time he held his face flushed, even black and purple.

In the end, his throat and his esophagus were painful to death, and his whole person lost the strength to induce vomiting.

In desperation, I was forced to give up.

When he thought that he couldn't spit it out, he might have to pull it out, and Sam felt a flurry of hair all over his body.

He even wondered if this thing would get stuck in his intestines?

So he immediately took out his mobile phone and called his family doctor.

As soon as he spoke, he asked the other person: "Doctor Lloyd, I swallowed a string of ruby necklaces, and now I can't induce vomiting. If it enters the intestines, it won't kill me, right?"

The other party asked immediately: "Three young masters, how big is the ruby necklace?"

Sam said: "The egg is a bit smaller. It is bigger than a quail egg."

The other party asked again: "Is there anything sharp?"

Sam thought for a while and said, "That's not true."

Convenience said: "In this case, you might as well observe it for a day to see if it can be excreted naturally."

After speaking, the other party added: "It is best to buy some laxatives and take it, so that it can promote bowel movements and excrete faster."

Sam asked him: "What if I can't excrete it?"

The other party said: "If you still can't excrete within 24 hours, then you need to pay attention to it, because if you can't excrete it all the time, it is likely to cause intestinal obstruction. Intestinal obstruction is an acute disease, and it may be fatal."

After speaking, the other party said: "Or three young masters, come here now, and observe it here. Once you find any discomfort, you have to operate in time. Otherwise, in case of intestinal obstruction, it will be really dangerous."

When Sam heard that this thing could not be swallowed and pulled out, he might be fatal, and he was trembling with anger.

What the hell is this? Make a bet, don't tell me if I lose my face, and it's damn life-threatening.

Thinking of this, Sam hated Charlie Wade so much that he wanted to kill him immediately.

But the biggest problem right now is the safety of my own life. In case something happens and I confess my life to this trivial matter because of a bet, then he will lose out!

So Sam immediately took out his mobile phone and called the captain of his private jet: "Captain Charles, where are you now?"

Sam only took his father's private plane this afternoon and rushed over from Eastcliff. Because he had planned to stay in Aurouss Hilll for a few days, the captain planned to drive the plane back tonight.

After all, this plane was used by Sam's father most of the time.

What Sam thought was that if the plane had not returned to Eastcliff, he would quickly follow the plane back.

Say nothing to let this string of ruby necklace in my stomach kill myself.

Chapter 1209

At this moment, the captain of Sam's private jet was preparing to line up for takeoff at Aurouss Hilll Airport.

After receiving a call from Sam, he immediately said: "Master, I am in line now, ready to take off to Eastcliff."

Sam blurted out: "You immediately apply to the tower for a delayed take-off, and then drive the plane back to the business jet apron. Waiting for me, I will return to Eastcliff tonight."

The captain asked in surprise: "You just came here this afternoon? Didn't you say that you want to stay here for a few days, so why do you want to go back now?"

Sam said impatiently: "Don't worry, take the plane back to the business jet apron and wait for me. I will go to the airport now."

The captain said hurriedly: "Okay, Master, I will apply to the tower now."

When Sam came out of the bathroom with a dark face, Oscar was waiting at the door, seeing him come out and hurriedly and respectfully asked:

"Master Kilgore, how do you feel?"

"Not very good!" Sam snorted coldly, and said: "Tell your master, I will return to Eastcliff first."

Oscar exclaimed: "What? Master Kilgore, are you going back now? The banquet has not officially started yet."

"What the f*ck?" Sam was very annoyed and blurted out: "Tell your old man, I wanted to give the Moore family a great opportunity this time.

It's a pity that your Moore family is really not good at it.!"

After all, Sam directly bypassed the banquet hall and prepared to leave.

Oscar knew that Sam must be very angry, so he hurried back to the banquet hall and reported to Lord Mooore.

When Lord Mooore heard that he was leaving, a trace of regret flashed in his expression, but he quickly returned to normal, and said calmly:

"Since Master Kilgore is leaving, let him go."

Rueben suddenly became anxious, and blurted out: "Grandpa, Master Kilgore is here this time, but he wants to cooperate deeply with us. How could he let him go like this."

Lord Mooore asked him: "He is leaving, can we still keep him?"

"Oh..." Rueben said anxiously: "Grandpa, you are confused, you are such a far-sighted person, can't you guess the purpose of Master Kilgore coming to our house this time?"

When Jasmine heard this, she blurted out: "Brother, how can you say that to Grandpa!"

Jasmine had no father and no mother since she was a child. In her eyes, Grandpa Moore played not only the identity of grandfather, but also the identity of parents.

Therefore, Jasmine could not tolerate the slightest disrespect for Lord Moore, even her cousin.

Rueben looked at Jasmine's eyes, and a trace of hatred flashed by. He said with regret: "Sister, grandpa, and the Kilgore family, the reason why they came to our Moore family must be because the Webb family's strength is declining. The seat of the first family in Southaven has been vacated. The Kilgore family must hope to get a foot in it, so I think his purpose for coming to us must be to unite with us, and the Kilgore family will support us to become the first family in the southern region. In the future, we will also adhere to the Kilgore family, which is equivalent to having a strong backer in Eastcliff. This is the best of both worlds!"

In fact, Lord Moore had already guessed the true intention of Young Master Kilgore's coming here.

An old hero like him who started from scratch, even though he is very old, he still has a very sophisticated and sophisticated grasp and understanding of the situation.

He had long realized that with the decline of the Webb family, the pattern of the Southaven family would definitely be reshuffled.

The old kings retreat and the new kings stand up. This is the truth of the more ancient history.

However, he never thought that the Moore family could have the opportunity to become the new king of the Southaven family.

After all, although the Moore family is very strong in Aurouss Hilll, this one-third of acres of land, it is indeed weaker in the whole Southaven.

Chapter 1210

This time Sam came over, and he also saw the general intention of Sam. Sam must be coveting the beauty of his granddaughter. He wanted to win over the Moore family and make the Moore family a running dog of the Kilgore family, and at the same time wanted to make his granddaughter his own.

If it had been before, even if he had seen through all of his goals, he would not refuse his olive branch.

After all, such good opportunities are not often available. So many families in the south of the Yangtze River want to be cattle and horses for Eastcliff's big family, or even slaves and dogs, but Eastcliff's big family doesn't look down on them at all.

There are many hidden families in Eastcliff, and the wealth behind them is not understandable by these families in Southaven.

Take Eastcliff Wade family as an example. Because Wade family has very strong strength and background, no one of Wade family has made it to any rich list in the world. As long as Wade family is unwilling to appear on the list, then There is no such thing as a ranking of the richest people who dare to write their names on it.

Therefore, no one knows how much money the entire Wade family has.

There are dozens or hundreds of direct relatives of the Wade family's entire big family. Among these dozens or hundreds, the poorest are worth tens of billions, and the richest are even worth hundreds of billions. If you add up the real strength of this family it's staggering. This is only the top family in the country. If it is a large family in Europe and the United States with a history of more than two to three hundred years, the money in their hands is even more wealthy than a country.

And like the Wade family, they are extremely low-key and never let their name appear on any rich list.

The Rothschild family has been in business for hundreds of years and has countless descendants, but you can't find a single one on the rich list. After all, rich people only have money, and compared with rich and powerful people, that's a lot worse.

After all, the Kilgore family is not considered a top family in Eastcliff, so they will focus on the Eastcliff area.

If it were changed to the Wade family, no family in the south of the Yangtze River would be in their eyes.

Therefore, if it were to be put in the past, Lord Moore would never give up such a good opportunity to make friends with the Eastcliff family.

But now he understood it a long time ago.

Nothing in this family or that family makes any sense to me.

What is really meaningful is the dinner table, this master Charlie Wade, who no one knows how deep his strength is.

Whether it was out of selfishness for himself, or out of the future of the family, or out of consideration for his granddaughter, he hoped that Jasmine could be with Charlie Wade.

Because he knew that if he wanted to live a long time, he had to have a good relationship with Charlie Wade.

It is meaningless to take a mouthful of Master Wade, because everyone respectfully calls him Master Wade.

Only by turning him into his grandson-in-law can he truly become his own family.

And he also knew that if he really hoped that the Moore family could go further and longer, and be a dog for everyone in Eastcliff, it would be far better to recruit Master Charlie Wade into the house as his son-in-law!

What's more, he also knows the thoughts of his precious granddaughter. He is a precious granddaughter. He is very proud of his life. He has never really liked any man, only Charlie Wade.

As a grandfather, how can he not hope that she will have a perfect home after petting her and watching her grow up?

So no matter how you look at it, Sam's weight is a thousand miles worse than Charlie Wade.

Chapter 1211

Rueben was extremely depressed at this time.

He really didn't expect that his grandfather would even risk to offend Sam to court Charlie Wade.

Rueben is not a fool either, he can see that the reason why the old man takes Charlie Wade so seriously is because he is a little addicted to Rejuvenation Pill.

In other words, the old man gave up the olive branch thrown by Sam and the Kilgore family and wanted to please Charlie Wade. This proves that in his eyes, he no longer cares about how much money the family has. What he cares about is how many years he can live. .

Otherwise, he would never give up the Kilgore family and choose Charlie Wade.

This made Rueben feel very upset in his heart.

First of all, if the old man gave up the Kilgore family, the Moore family lost a good opportunity to rise above and beyond;

Secondly, the old man pleases Charlie Wade, if Charlie Wade gives him another rejuvenation pill, then he wants to live as an old fairy?

If he never died, when will his father inherit the Moore family?

If my father can't inherit the Moore family, when can I inherit the Moore family?

He didn't want the old man to live another thirty or forty years, in which case he would completely collapse.

I'm almost 30 this year, and my father is in his early 50s. If he waits 30 years before the old man dies, then his father will be in his 80s when he inherits the Moore family.

If my father lived another 10 years and 8 years, and then handed over the Moore family to him, he would be in his 60s or 70s.

This is something he cannot accept anyway.

He can't wait for the old man to die here today, so that his father will inherit the Moore family, his rights will be much greater.

I will stay under the hands of my father for another 10 years, and then I will fool him to retire early and give myself the position of head of the house.

However, this thing is really hateful.

With this thing, the ghost knows when the old man can die?

Rueben's father, Theodore, was also very upset.

He was ready to inherit the family business. The old man was dying before seeing the doctor. He was still faintly happy, and felt that he was finally going to make it out.

But never dreamed that Jasmine actually found Charlie Wade over.

Then things become uncontrollable.

At this moment, Lord Mooore suddenly stood up and said with a smile:

"Everyone, today is the day of the old granddaughter. There is something I want to announce in public."

Everyone looked at Lord Mooore, wondering what he was going to announce in public.

Grandpa Moore sighed and said, "Jasmine's life is very bitter. When I was very young, my parents had passed away one after another. It was me and my deceased wife who pulled her up."

Rueben and Theodore looked at each other, neither of them knew what kind of medicine the old man was selling in the gourd.

Chapter 1212

At this time, Lord Mooore again said: "Jasmine has always been very filial, and has always been very caring about family matters. This is very gratifying to me. And some time ago I was seriously ill and was in bed, and all the doctors announced that I have few days. At that time, Jasmine invited Master Charlie Wade Wade for me. It was Master Wade who healed me and pulled me back from the ghost gate. Then Master Wade gave me a revival pill, so that I could re-experience the younger 20 years. a feeling of."

Having said this, the old man paused, bowed slightly to Charlie Wade, and said: "The old man is grateful to Master Wade, and of course he is also grateful for this good granddaughter. Therefore, the old man wants to announce one thing on her birthday today. It is: Decided that from tomorrow, Jasmine will formally take over the position of Matriarch of the Moore family, and also from tomorrow, I will officially retire!" As soon as this remark came out, it suddenly sounded like a bomb in the entire scene.

No one had thought that Lord Moore would let a female generation inherit the Moore family.

After all, there has never been a family, especially a large family, that gives a young woman the position of head of the family.

In addition, Lord Moore has several sons and a bunch of grandsons. His eldest son Theodore is already ready to inherit the position of Patriarch of the Moore family. The outside world originally speculated that Lord Moore would pass on the position of Patriarch to him in the next few years. eldest son.

Unexpectedly, not only did he not give it to the eldest son or grandson, but to his granddaughter!

Theodore and Rueben, father and son, had hatred in their hearts at this time!

They never dreamed that Jasmine could become the head of the Moore family.

At this time, their hearts were full of extreme hatred for the old man and Jasmine!

The old man is too partial, right? !

Has the 200 billion property left to Jasmine to take the helm?

Why is a 26-year-old woman in charge of the 200 billion Moore family? ! Jasmine was also dumbfounded at this time.

She used to only think about serving the Moore family well, and doing her best for the Moore family before she married.

But she never expected that she could inherit the position of Moore Family Matriarch.

At this moment, Jasmine's heart is very excited. She is also a very ambitious and enterprising woman. The joy in her heart is beyond words when she hears that she is about to succeed the Moore family as the head of the Moore family.

Rueben was a little uncontrollable at this time. He stood up and blurted out: "Grandpa! How can you hand over the position of Patriarch to Jasmine? She is just a woman. In the future, she will marry someone. Once she marries People are outsiders. Can you watch the Moore family's fortune fall into the hands of others?"

Lord Moore looked at him and said coldly: "Jasmine is also named Moore, and she belongs to the Moore family whenever she is, and I believe that in the entire Moore family, no one can compare to Jasmine in terms of ability. Jasmine came to take over as the head of the Moore family. It couldn't be more appropriate."

Theodore said blankly at this time: "Father, I think this matter is really wrong, please think twice!"

Lord Moore, the other sons also stood up and said, "Father, please think twice!"

None of them could accept that the Moore family was handed over to Jasmine to take charge of the Moore family.

Lord Moore said lightly: "What's wrong, I founded this family business with my bare hands. I didn't inherit it from anyone, so I have absolute control over the Moore family. I will take it. It was given to Jasmine after careful consideration, because Jasmine will definitely make the Moore family better and stronger!"

Speaking of Lord Mooore, he looked around for a week and said to the entire Moore family: "All the descendants of my Moore family have the right to receive a generous dividend from the Moore family. So even if the head of the family is held by Jasmine, the Moore family All children and grandchildren can also live without worry, and don't forget that it doesn't matter who inherits the head of the Moore family, what matters is who can lead the Moore family to become stronger and stronger.

After a pause, the old man said with a majestic face: "Take the third child and his family as an example. They can get 10% of the Moore family's dividend rate every year, and if they pay 5 billion a year in dividends, their family, Can get 500 million, but if one person can lead the Moore family to pay 10 billion in dividends a year, then their family can get 1 billion in a year. Don't you want a more capable person to lead you? Make more money?"

Chapter 1213

As soon as Lord Mooore said this, those who were still opposed to Jasmine's inheritance of the Moore Family Patriarch closed their mouths with interest.

They want to understand a truth. Anyway, they and their children have no chance to inherit the position of Patriarch. If this is the case, they must hope that the Patriarch will be inherited by a more capable person. Because the stronger the Patriarch's ability, the more money everyone can get.

Although Rueben is pretty good in all aspects, it is still a lot worse than Jasmine in terms of ability.

Regardless of Jasmine's young age, in fact, Jasmine can take care of and take care of the Moore family's business very well.

The antique business is prosperous in her hands; foreign trade is also very impressive by her; even the Malik family in Hong Kong feels her luck is very good, and voluntarily ran over to cooperate with her.

In terms of strength, Jasmine surpassed all the descendants of the Moore family, even her uncles and uncles.

She inherited the words of the Moore family, and everyone was convinced to be honest.

Thinking of this, these people immediately returned to their seats.

Some of Jasmine's uncles even said: "Since it is the father's decision, then we have no opinion."

Theodore and Rueben never expected that the other families would compromise in an instant!

All of a sudden, he and his son became isolated and helpless.

And what the old man said is too hurtful, right?

What do you mean?

Could it be said that both of us, father and son, are not as capable as Jasmine? ?

Theodore gritted his teeth and said: "Father, according to our Chinese custom, the position of the head of the family has always been passed on from male to male. If you hand over the position of head of the family to Jasmine, then you will surely become the laughingstock of the upper class. ."

"Oh?" Lord Mooore asked indifferently: "The guests here today are mostly high-class people. Why didn't I see them mocking my decision?"

Theodore made a strong argument and said: "That's because they are all guests, so how can you be embarrassed to laugh at the host's decision in public?"

Lord Mooore smiled and said seriously: "Theodore, I know your thoughts. I give Jasmine the position of Patriarch. You must be unconvinced in your heart, but I still said that. It doesn't matter who is the Patriarch. , The important thing is who can help the Moore family make more money!"

"Jasmine has been involved in family operations for a long time, but her achievements and goals are obvious to all!"

"Don't say anything else, if it weren't for Jasmine, how could we cooperate with Hong Kong Malik Family?"

"You have to know that Malik and his two sons have at least 800 billion Dollar in assets, both overt and secretly. We are cooperating with them now, and there will be great improvement and progress in the future!"

"These are all brought by Jasmine to the Moore family!"

Grandpa Moore said sentence after sentence, pointed at Charlie Wade, and said seriously: "Including Master Wade, our Moore family is able to know Master Wade, and it is all due to Jasmine! Tell me why Jasmine can't be the head of the Moore family. ?"

Theodore was dumbfounded by Lord Mooore's questions. He also knew in his heart that Jasmine was indeed strong in all aspects, stronger than her son, and even stronger than himself.

But even so, he couldn't bear it, and Jasmine became the Moore family's Matriarch.

He couldn't help cursing in his heart: "You Jasmine is just a girl movie. Do you really think you are a business woman?"

"If you want to be a strong woman, you can get out of the Moore family and be your own strong woman outside. Don't stand in my way in the Moore family!"

Chapter 1214

When he thought of this, Theodore had already gritted his teeth, with murderous intent in his heart.

The old man Moore seemed to have noticed the dissatisfaction in his elder son's heart, so he looked at Charlie Wade and said respectfully: "Master Wade, the old man has an unsympathetic request. I hope you can agree to it."

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently, and said, "Master, please tell me."

Lord Mooore said: "I hope you can become the second heir to the Patriarch of the Moore family. If there are any accidents to Jasmine in the future? If Jasmine does not leave any children, you will be the helm of the Moore family. If you agree, I can now make a promise that in the future 30% of the Moore family's net profit will be owned by you, and it will be effective forever."

The reason for saying this is because Lord Mooore is indeed worried that his eldest son's family will be disadvantageous to Jasmine.

But he was unwilling to give up his plan because of this.

Lord Mooore knew very well in his heart that the first thing the Moore family wanted to achieve in the future was to let Jasmine become the head of the family.

If Charlie Wade could become Jasmine's husband and join the Moore family, it would be perfect.

It doesn't matter even if Charlie Wade doesn't want to be married, as long as he and Jasmine have a child, that child will have the blood of the Moore family. Whether the surname is Moore, it doesn't matter to him.

What's more, if Charlie Wade becomes his grandson-in-law, he himself can benefit infinitely in the future.

Until now, he has not put money interests first, but put his health and lifespan first.

So passing on the position of Matriarch to Jasmine was just one of his plans.

He wanted Charlie Wade to be Jasmine's husband.

Charlie Wade didn't know that Lord Mooore still had the idea of being a grandson-in-law in his heart.

He just felt that when Lord Mooore said so, he must be worried that Jasmine would be disadvantaged in the future, so he wanted to bind himself to Jasmine and let him protect Jasmine's safety.

After all, if you are the second heir of the Moore family Patriarch, then it doesn't make sense for others to disadvantage Jasmine, because even if you kill Jasmine, you still have yourself.

What's more, even if someone in the Moore family wants to covet the position of the Patriarch, he has to weigh whether he can provoke himself.

Lord Mooore is indeed very sincere, and he gave 30% of the income of the entire Moore family at once, which is really a very big hand.

But Charlie Wade is not short of money, nor does he care about money.

What he cares about is Jasmine's safety and future.

In Charlie Wade's heart, Jasmine's status is second only to his wife Claire Wilson Wilson.

He didn't know exactly why, but thought that Jasmine was really an impeccable woman.

Not only do I have a congenial relationship with her, but also have a better temper and acting style.

It is not an exaggeration to say that you are a confidant.

When I was drinking with Jasmine, I also heard that Jasmine confided to herself that she knew her life experience was rather pitiful. As a girl from a wealthy family, she didn't even have the power to decide her future marriage.

So he also hoped that Jasmine could become the head of the Moore family.

In this way, no one can force her to do things she doesn't want to do in the future.

Charlie Wade said earnestly: "Lord Mooore, don't worry, I will ensure Jasmine's personal safety from now on."

Chapter 1215

At this time, Charlie Wade regarded Jasmine as a good friend and was naturally willing to protect her personal safety.

And Theodore, Rueben and his son on the side, at this time, they had murderous intentions deep in their hearts.

The two of them, father and son, peeped at the position of Patriarch for many years. They couldn't accept anything. Jasmine got this position.

However, both father and son knew very well. If you want to regain the position of the heir, it is bound to start a fierce battle.

Therefore, if this matter does not move, it will be done. If it does move, then victory must be won.

Jasmine was undoubtedly the happiest, most pleasantly surprised and happiest person in this birthday party.

At this moment, deep in Jasmine's heart, the gratitude and love for Charlie Wade reached a peak.

How could a smart woman like her not know Charlie Wade's intention to send her own rejuvenation pills?

Who can use Rejuvenation Pill? Of course it is an old man, and it is an old man.

I'm only 26 years old this year, and it's useless to ask for this kind of rejuvenation pills. The only use is to give it to my grandfather as a gift.

And grandpa was obsessed with Rejuvenation Pill, he should have seen Charlie Wade so easily gave him this Rejuvenation Pill, and then decided on the spot to pass on the position of Patriarch to her.

So in this matter, it can be said that Charlie Wade helped her a lot. Jasmine has now become the Matriarch of the Moore family, so this birthday party feels even more grand.

At the end of the banquet, the servants of the Moore family put out a huge birthday cake.

The birthday cake was filled with 26 candles. At the moment when the lights went out, Jasmine stood alone in front of the candles, and the swaying candlelight reflected her beautiful face and glamorous things. Jasmine put her hands together on her chest, closed her eyes, and silently made her wish.

Afterwards, she opened her eyes and looked at Charlie Wade with an affectionate look.

At this moment, she felt that Charlie Wade was the sun and moon in her heart.

Charlie Wade didn't notice the look in Jasmine's eyes.

When the lights went out, she was in the dark, so he quietly observed Theodore and Rueben father and son with his superhuman vision.

At the moment when the lights went out, the father and son who had been pretending to be calm and forced to smile, their expressions became cold for a moment, and then became extremely sullen.

It was too difficult for them to hold back their hatred of Jasmine in front of everyone.

So when the light was gone, they couldn't help removing the disguise on their faces.

Then the lights came on and there was thunderous applause.

Jasmine personally cut the birthday cake, and personally installed two copies, one to her grandfather, and the other to Charlie Wade.

After eating the cake, the birthday party is over.

This birthday party can be said to be a fun for the host and the guests.

The other Moore family who wanted to understand had no opinion on Jasmine's succession as the head of the family.

Only Theodore and Rueben father and son were very gloomy in their hearts.

Paul, who was sitting at the other table, saw that the banquet was over, he stepped forward to Charlie Wade and respectfully said: "Master Wade, I'll take you back."

Chapter 1216

Charlie Wade was about to agree, but seeing the beautiful and moving Jasmine suddenly appeared in front of the two, she said with a reddish face: "Paul, don't bother you to send Master Wade, I will send it myself."

Paul is very smart, so when he saw this, he knew that Jasmine must have loved Charlie Wade very much.

After all, today is her birthday and the first day she became the heir of the Moore family, but after the banquet ended, she took the initiative to send Charlie Wade home.

The last person who should not come out to see the guests tonight is her birthday star.

What's more, there are so many people with good looks and face today. She didn't send it to anyone, but only sent Charlie Wade alone, which is more than enough to see how much she values Charlie Wade in her heart.

So Paul said wittily: "And just when I remembered, I still have something to do. I didn't go along with Master Wade, so please ask Miss Jasmine to help send Master Wade!"

Jasmine nodded and smiled: "Go ahead and take care of you, Master Wade is here to take care of me."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "Your grandpa asked me to take care of you, but now you have to take care of me."

Jasmine rarely spit out her tongue playfully, and in a very gentle voice, she said shyly: "It's a rare opportunity to take care of Master Wade once. Master Wade, you must not refuse."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "In this way, Miss Jasmine will have to take a trip."

At this time, Travis Lane stepped forward to Charlie Wade, bowed respectfully, and said respectfully: "Master Wade, I have been eager to rejuvenate the pill for a long time, thank you for giving me this golden opportunity today!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Mr. Lane doesn't have to be so polite with me. You won the bidding for this Rejuvenation Pill. Of course, you don't have to thank me."

Travis Lane still arched his body and said respectfully: "Welcome to Master Wade, come to Lancaster another day to gather, and we must give Master Wade a chance to entertain him wholeheartedly next time."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "If there is a chance in the future, I will go."

After that, he asked Travis Lane: "By the way, Mr. Lane, my good brother Caleb Morales, is he working as an assistant for you now? Is he here today?"

Travis Lane nodded and said, "Old Caleb is now my full-time driver. This person is very practical and reliable. Thank you Master Wade for introducing me to such a reliable person!"

Travis Lane is worthy of being the richest man in Lancaster, and his speech is very technical.

In fact, he promoted Caleb, who had a monthly salary of only a few thousand Dollar, to become his assistant, and had an annual salary of 2 million Dollar, which in itself sold Charlie Wade's face.

However, he did not dare to take credit for it in front of Charlie Wade. So he, in turn, said that Charlie Wade introduced himself to a reliable person, and he would like to thank Charlie Wade again, which shows that this person has a high EQ.

As soon as Charlie Wade heard that the good brother came here today, he hurriedly asked, "Where is Caleb?"

Travis said, "The Moore family arranged a banquet for the driver. It was in the side hall. He should have been waiting for me in the car by now." Charlie Wade gave a hum, and said, "Just go out with me, and by the way, I also say hello to Caleb."

At this time, Caleb has completely lost the appearance of the failed hanging silk.

He was wearing a very decent high-end suit and white gloves, sitting in Travis Lane's customized limited edition Rolls Royce.

Seeing Travis Lane walked out of the villa, he hurriedly got out of the car, opened the rear door, and prepared to welcome Travis Lane into the car.

At this moment, he suddenly saw his good brother Charlie Wade walking beside Travis Lane.

His eyes were instantly overjoyed.

These days, Caleb has always been very grateful to Charlie Wade, always looking for an opportunity to thank Charlie Wade, but because he has to accompany Travis Lane every day, he has no chance to come to Aurouss Hill again.

Now I didn't expect to see a good brother here.

Chapter 1217

Caleb was full of excitement and came to Charlie Wade excitedly. He was about to say hello, but suddenly realized that he is now Travis Lane's driver, so he can't be so rude.

So he hurriedly put away the excitement on his face, and said respectfully to Travis: "Mr. Lane!"

Travis Lane patted him on the shoulder and said with a smile: "Caleb, you don't need to be so polite in front of me. You are Master Wade's brother, and that is my brother. Although I am a few dozen years older than you, We can also pay after year-end!"

Caleb nodded quickly, flattered.

At this time, Charlie Wade smiled and asked him: "How about a rat, do you still adapt to the new job during this period of time?"

Caleb said with gratitude, "Charlie Wade, my good brother, I really don't know how to thank you! Without you, how can I be Caleb today! You are the noble person in my life!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said: "Everyone will meet a noble person in their life. You think I am your noble person, but I still think that Mrs. Lewis is the noble person of both of us."

"Everything is actually karma. You and I have done good deeds in the last life, so in this life, a good person like Mrs. Lewis rescued us and gave us a home."

"Maybe you did more good things in your previous life than me, so you met me again in this life and gave you a chance to change your life. In the future, all of this may have been destined, so you have to thank you even more. It's yourself."

Charlie Wade suddenly talked about the topic so grandly, the others couldn't keep up with the rhythm.

Jasmine looked at Charlie Wade, her eyes sparkling with radiance, she carefully savored what Charlie Wade had just said, and suddenly thought, did she save the galaxy in her previous life, so this life will have a chance to meet Master Wade?

Thinking of this, she couldn't help feeling a little lost in her heart. Because she felt that if she had saved the galaxy in her previous life, then Master Wade's wife, Claire Wilson Wilson, wouldn't it have saved the entire universe in her previous life?

Caleb was moved by Charlie Wade's words.

This is a good brother who grew up with him since childhood. Even though he helped him so much, he didn't feel that he really owed him anything. Instead, he traced everything back to his previous life. Although my life in the past two decades was poor, there is such a man among the brothers of the dragon and the phoenix, and the hardship of the past two decades is not in vain.

At this time, Charlie Wade checked the time and said to Caleb: "Caleb, Mr. Lane, there is still something tonight, so you should drive Mr. Lane back first. When there is a chance in the future, I will go to Lancaster or you will come to Aurouss Hilll. , Let us brothers get together again." When Travis Lane heard this, he waved his hand and said, "Master Wade, there is nothing wrong tonight, you and Caleb will continue to talk about the past, don't worry about me!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said seriously: "Have you forgotten the rejuvenating pill you just bought? Hurry back, take a good bath and take the medicine, sleep well, wake up tomorrow morning, you will find that something happened to yourself. A reborn change."

Travis Lane immediately became excited!

The rejuvenating pill was always talking, and it was placed close to the body in the inner pocket of the suit.

He always wanted to find an opportunity to quickly eat this Rejuvenating Pill, but he felt that today was on the Moore family's site, and it was also the birthday party of Jasmine, the eldest of the Moore family. If he would serve the Rejuvenating Pill on the spot. , That's overwhelming. That's why he has been enduring preparations to return to his villa in Aurouss Hilll, and then quickly take this rejuvenating pill.

Hearing what Charlie Wade said, he clasped his fists in gratitude and said, "Master Wade is able to consider me so much, and I am grateful! That being the case, then I will leave today!"

Charlie Wade nodded, hugged gently with his good brother, and watched the two get into the car and leave.

Chapter 1218

Jasmine said softly at this moment: "Master Wade, let's go too."

"it is good."

.....

Jasmine drove Charlie Wade out of the Moore family villa in her red Bentley.

Jasmine's heartbeat accelerated at this time, and she had never been so nervous in front of Charlie Wade like now.

The atmosphere in the car was a little silent for a while, so Jasmine hurriedly looked for a topic and said, "Master Wade, thank you so much today. I really didn't expect that you would give me such an expensive gift as the Rejuvenation Pill."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said: "I'm telling you that the reason why I am sending you the Rejuvenation Pill is to give you an opportunity to borrow flowers to offer Buddha. With this Rejuvenation Pill, Lord Mooore can live to be at least a hundred years old. He must be special. I want the pill that I gave you, but Lord Mooore himself is a person who rewards and penalizes clearly, is sentimental and righteous, so once he really wants your rejuvenation pill, he will definitely give you a great return. ."

Jasmine nodded and moved: "Master Wade, you are all for me sake. I am really grateful. In this life, if Master Wade has any requirements for me, as long as you have a word, I would not dare. No way!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "I don't have any requirements for you, you just need to take care of yourself from now on."

After speaking, Charlie Wade said again: "I didn't expect that Lord Mooore would be so simple. At this birthday party, he passed the position of Matriarch to you directly. I originally thought he might be soft in the future. It's solved slowly."

"Now he suddenly announced that this will definitely be a very big blow to your uncle and your cousin, and it will even bring you a lot of hatred, so you must be very careful in your future actions, be careful and then be careful. "

Jasmine said earnestly: "Master Wade, don't worry, I understand all the truths you said."

Charlie Wade sighed softly and said, "It may be the Rejuvenation Pill, which is too attractive to the old man. Therefore, the old man may not think about this matter. What I am worried about is your personal safety in the future. If someone in the Moore family If you are dissatisfied with your inheritance as Matriarch, then they are likely to be against you."

Jasmine smiled sweetly and said, "Thank you, Master Wade, for your reminder. Don't forget, I also has a magical medicine that you gave me at the beginning. Isn't that magical medicine that it has a life-saving effect at critical times?"

Charlie Wade asked curiously: "Where did you put that medicine?"

Jasmine blushed and said, "The medicine you gave... it has always been...always...close to my body..."

When it came to storing 4 words next to her, Jasmine was already ashamed to not look at Charlie Wade.

Before, Jasmine hid the pill in the car, but she thought it was too unsafe to put such a valuable thing in the car, so she has kept it close to her body ever since.

And because this is a gift from Charlie Wade to herself, keeping it close to her will give her a feeling of being cared for by Charlie Wade.

Charlie Wade didn't notice the girlish shyness on Jasmine's face.

He just faintly worried about Jasmine's safety from the bottom of his heart.

So he opened his mouth and said: "By the way, you can help me find a good piece of white jade another day."

"White jade?" Jasmine hurriedly asked, "Master Wade, what kind of white jade do you want?"

Charlie Wade said calmly: "The whitest, purest, and impurity-free white jade, I will make you a talisman by then, and you can keep you safe by wearing it next to your body."

Chapter 1219

Jasmine was very excited when he heard that Charlie Wade was going to make a talisman for herself.

She didn't know what Charlie Wade's amulet was or what kind of effect it had.

But she knew that Charlie Wade wanted to make this thing for herself, and he wanted to make it by himself. The reason that Master Wade made it by himself was enough to be grateful.

So her eyes were red, and she said gratefully: "Master Wade, you are so kind to me, you don't know how to repay you!"

When she said this, Jasmine's inner monologue was: "If it is possible, I really want to acquiesce by myself, to accompany Master Wade in this life, and to serve in front of Master Wade throughout his life, to repay Master Wade for his kindness."

However, in this case, how can she be embarrassed to say such a proud lady of the big family.

Charlie Wade was very indifferent to this.

Because he himself is a person who values love and righteousness and knows the gratitude.

Although Jasmine is not her benefactor, she is her own friend, and she is a trustworthy and heart-to-heart friend.

To such friends, he is naturally full of sincerity.

What's more, Charlie Wade always faintly felt that Jasmine seemed to have a slightly different meaning to him from ordinary friends.

In Charlie Wade's heart, he admired Jasmine's personality and Jasmine's behavior style.

Moreover, he felt that Jasmine's fate was similar to his own, both of whom were born well, but her parents died young.

But her life was a little better than her own, at least she didn't leave the family and fall into another country.

It was just because he admired Jasmine's personality and cherished her love, so Charlie Wade wanted to take care of her a little more, and it was a natural feeling in his heart.

Jasmine deliberately didn't drive the car fast, so that she would have more time to be alone in the car with Charlie Wade.

The Moore's Villa and the Thompson First where Charlie Wade lives are separated by a magnificent Yangtze River. So when Jasmine drove the car near the Yangtze River Bridge, she suddenly turned to look at Charlie Wade, her eyes full of expectation and said: "Master Wade, if you are not in a hurry to go home, can you accompany me to the riverside for a walk?" Charlie Wade nodded and said: "Okay."

Jasmine said with joy: "It's great. I know that there is a place that is very quiet and there are no people to go. We can take a walk on the river beach and blow the wind."

With that, Jasmine drove the car onto a small road along the river.

After the car drove out for a kilometer or two, she parked the car on the side of the road and said to Charlie Wade: "There is a road to go down here, let's get off here."

Charlie Wade nodded, opened the door and walked down.

The weather is getting colder now, but for him, it has no effect.

Jasmine put on a furry coat, inside was the noble and elegant evening dress that she wore at the birthday party, and she also held a red Hermes handbag in her hand.

A cold wind hit her, and her long flowing hair danced with the wind, and a few strands of blue silk were blowing her face, looking quite charming. There is no front or rear here, no people and no cars. Jasmine took a deep breath against the wind, and said with a smile: "When I was young, I always liked to be by the river. When I grew up, I got busier and busier and I didn't have time."

With that, she said to Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, let's go down."

Chapter 1220

Charlie Wade responded and said, "Okay, but this staircase is a bit steep. Be careful when you descend."

Jasmine shyly stretched out her soft hand and handed it to Charlie Wade, and said softly: "Master Wade, can you help me? Otherwise, I'm afraid I might fall..."

In fact, she was not afraid of falling, but wanted to take this opportunity to get closer and closer to Charlie Wade.

Charlie Wade saw that this stone step was indeed very long and quite steep, extending from the bank to the river beach. Jasmine, a girl, would really slip and fall, the consequences would be disastrous.

So he took Jasmine's soft hand, led her to walk carefully, and walked down the stone steps.

At this time, the river beach was also empty, and occasionally a few ships with lights on the river passed by. The rumbling diesel engine made a loud noise, but it didn't feel very noisy on this empty river surface. After arriving on the river beach, Charlie Wade let go of Jasmine's hand, facing the cold wind on the surface of the river, smiling and saying, "This place is really nice."

Jasmine smiled slightly, stroked the blue silk between her ears, and said, "When I was young, I liked coming here the most. Back then, my father was busy with work, so my mother brought me here every day." As she said, she sighed a little sadly, and said: "At that time, my mother would drive me with me, park the car in the same place, and then walk down the same stone steps, just like you just now, so cautiously Take my hand."

Charlie Wade nodded lightly.

When I grew up in an orphanage, I often thought of my parents.

When they were young, they were not as strong as they are now. Whenever they think that they would hide under the covers or cry in the corner.

But after a long time, I gradually got used to it.

The hard life at the beginning made him understand a lot of precious truths.

For example, the deceased is dead, such as the sad things that happened in the past, let it pass quietly.

At this time, Jasmine sighed: "I went to my parents to sweep the grave this morning. I couldn't believe it. They have been away for more than ten years. Everything from my childhood is still vivid in my eyes. There is an illusion that I feel like I am still alive when I am eight or nine years old."

Charlie Wade laughed at himself and sighed softly: "You can still go to sweep the graves of your parents, I don't know where my parents are buried now."

"Huh?" Jasmine asked in surprise: "Can't you find it? Or what happened back then?"

Charlie Wade smiled bitterly: "When my parents passed away, I was just eight years old. At that time, I couldn't take care of myself. I didn't even know where to solve my full meal. I simply didn't have the ability to handle their funeral affairs. Time has not been found."

After speaking, Charlie Wade said again: "However, their ashes may have been taken back by the grandfather's family, but I am not sure about the details."

Jasmine couldn't help asking him: "Master Wade, do you still have relatives in this world?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "Yes, but I am not ready to see them yet."

Jasmine nodded lightly, blinked her beautiful eyelashes, and said, "Master Wade, let's take a walk along the river."

"Okay." Charlie Wade readily agreed, and walked side by side along the river with Jasmine.

Jasmine smiled and said: "By the way, Master Wade, do you remember the first time we met?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Of course, in The Antique Store, my father-in-law accidentally broke one of your antique vases."

Jasmine nodded and said: "At that time, I was shocked by the way you repaired the vase. I thought how could a young man master the lost repair skills. This person is too good. However, I never dreamed of it at that time. , That's actually just the tip of the iceberg, Master Wade, and I didn't expect that you would help me so much..."

Chapter 1221

Charlie Wade recalled the process of getting acquainted with Jasmine, and felt it was really amazing.

If I didn't go to The Antique Store with Jacob Wilson at that time, I would naturally have no chance to get the "Apocalyptic Book".

If there is no "Apocalyptic Book", then he is at best Mr. Wade rather than Master Wade.

In contrast, he still prefers the title of Master Wade, because Master Wade is a three-character word, and he used his own strength to exchange it. As for Mr. Wade, that is just his own life experience. The three characters behind Mr. Wade represent It is not his own ability, but the ability of the family.

Therefore, he felt that these were fate.

I have a relationship with Jasmine, and also with the "Apocalyptic Book". So he said to Jasmine with a serious face: "People say acquaintance is fate, in fact, many things are already destined in the dark."

Jasmine blushed, and asked in a low voice: "Master Wade, you mean that we two are destined to have a relationship, right?"

"Yeah." Charlie Wade said with a smile: "It takes a hundred years to cultivate in the same boat, but the same boat is only the fate of acquaintance. From acquaintance to becoming a friend, how can you say it has two or three hundred years of fate?"

Jasmine nodded lightly and said softly, "Master Wade, you always speak very mysteriously. Does an expert like you believe in fate and destiny?" Charlie Wade smiled and said: "I didn't believe it before, but after something happened, I slowly began to believe it."

As he said, Charlie Wade waved his hand: "Don't talk about it anymore. I don't mean much. Tell me about you. You are now the Matriarch of the Moore Family. What are your plans next?"

Jasmine said seriously: "I became the head of the family, and there are still many people who are not convinced. Therefore, I need a period of time to constantly consolidate my position as the head of the family, and then lead the family forward. If the family is under my leadership I can have rapid development under the government, so that other family members can make more money, then I believe they will definitely support me."

Charlie Wade nodded slightly and said seriously: "This idea of yours is right. For most people, they just want to make more money."

After all, Charlie Wade said again: "Now it is a good opportunity for the Moore family. The Webb family is obviously not good enough. The status of the first family in Southaven has been vacated. I think now is a good opportunity for the Moore family to rise."

Jasmine said: "I also want to go out and run more during this period to see if I can expand the business of the Moore family. It is best to find some new partners."

Charlie Wade asked: "Is there anything I can help? If you need my help, you can just say it."

Jasmine hurriedly said: "Master Wade, you have helped me too much, saying that you can no longer help me. On the contrary, if you have anything useful to me in the future, please do not hesitate to speak. I really hope to have the opportunity to repay your kindness!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "You don't have to always pay back to me. If I need your help in the future, I will definitely not be polite to you."

Jasmine nodded lightly and said, "Good Master Wade, I understand."

Charlie Wade hummed: "Jasmine, after you go back, just give that rejuvenating pill to your grandfather, so he will be very happy."

Jasmine hurriedly said, "I understand!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly, looked at the time and said, "Okay, it's getting late, let's go, I believe Lord Moore must be waiting for you to go back now."

Jasmine felt very sad, she had never had this kind of opportunity to get along with Charlie Wade privately.

Especially in one of my favorite places since I was young.

At this moment, how much she wanted to take the initiative to hold Charlie Wade's hand and tell him what she wanted.

But when she thought that Charlie Wade was a married man with a wife, the impulse in her heart was immediately suppressed.

So she could only say softly: "Good Master Wade, in that case, let's go back."

The two returned to the stone steps that had come down at that time, Jasmine's heart was bumped like a deer again, she didn't know whether Charlie Wade would still hold her hand.

I really enjoy the feeling of being led by him.

Chapter 1222

You can make yourself feel happy sincerely.

Because this stone step is really steep, Charlie Wade didn't think much about it, so he stretched out his hand and said to her: "I'll take you up."

Jasmine's heart was filled with the shyness and excitement of the little woman, and she stretched out her hand happily, letting Charlie Wade lead herself.

As for herself, following Charlie Wade cleverly, she walked up step by step.

Back in the car, Jasmine's pretty face was still red.

Because of nervousness and shyness, her heartbeat was much faster than usual.

She started the car in a panic and said to Charlie Wade, "Master Wade, then I will take you home now."

Charlie Wade nodded, and Jasmine drove the car back to the road.

The car crossed the Yangtze River and came to the door of Thompson First Villa District.

After the car stopped, Charlie Wade said to Jasmine, "Thank you for sending me back."

Jasmine said hurriedly, "Master Wade, you don't have to be so polite."

Charlie Wade said: "Drive slowly on the way back."

"it is good."

Jasmine nodded reluctantly. Seeing that Charlie Wade was about to push the door to get out of the car, her heart moved, and she hurriedly said, "Master Wade, wait a moment."

Charlie Wade retracted his hand to open the door and asked her: "What's wrong? Is there anything else?"

Jasmine said shyly: "I still have a gift to give you."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Today is your birthday, why did you prepare a present for me?"

Jasmine twisted and said, "It's a rather special gift. In fact, I always wanted to give it to Master Wade, but I never had a chance."

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "Well, then I will thank you first."

Jasmine replied shyly: "In order to maintain mystery, please close your eyes, Master Wade."

"Okay." Charlie Wade didn't think too much, always feeling that this should be the kind of ritual feeling peculiar to girls, so he closed his eyes.

After a while, Charlie Wade suddenly felt that a pair of soft lips had actually touched his lips.

The lips were not only soft, but also a bit sweet. After kissing him, they didn't hide away immediately, but kept pressed against his lips like this.

Charlie Wade was startled, and subconsciously opened his eyes, and saw Jasmine's beautiful eyes close at hand.

He really didn't expect Jasmine to kiss him...

At this moment, he instinctively wanted to avoid, or gently pushed Jasmine away.

However, deep in his heart, he felt extremely struggling and tangled. This kind of struggle and entanglement prevented him from making any movements for a while.

Jasmine kissed actively for a full minute...

Chapter 1223

Charlie Wade didn't expect Jasmine to take the initiative to kiss herself.

To be honest, although he is the young master of the Wade family and the master Wade whom everyone admires in Aurouss Hilll, he really has no experience with women.

Before that, his closest contact with a woman was the light kiss with his wife Claire Wilson Wilson.

However, that time was just a quick tasting.

In contrast, Jasmine's kisses are more real, and they make the body feel softer.

Charlie Wade was a little flustered at once, so flustered that he didn't know what to do.

Jasmine might be too tired to turn around and cross the center console to kiss Charlie Wade. After a minute, she couldn't hold it anymore, so she blushed and sat back on her seat.

At this time, Jasmine's pretty face was already red and could be bleeding.

Even the roots of the ears hidden in the blue silk are red.

Jasmine dared not look at Charlie Wade, but stared at the steering wheel, nervously not knowing what to do.

And Charlie Wade also felt nervous.

In the carriage, there was an awkward silence for a while.

It was Jasmine who broke the silence first, she whispered to Charlie Wade: "Master Wade was just a momentary excitement. If I offend, please forgive me."

Charlie Wade coughed dryly, and said awkwardly: "This Jasmine me" Speaking of this, Charlie Wade obviously hesitated. He didn't want to hurt Jasmine. Well, and can't bear to hurt her.

So, he could only sigh, and said: "Jasmine, I'm already married, you know."

Jasmine nodded repeatedly, and whispered: "I have heard about you and your wife."

After that, she plucked up the courage to look at Charlie Wade, and said seriously: "Charlie Wade, I love you sincerely, and I also sincerely want to be with you. I know that you have been married. You married, and I know it is indeed not ethical enough to do this, but I feel that everyone has the right to pursue love, and for me it is the same."

Charlie Wade said with emotion: "You are indeed a good girl, but I am indeed a married person."

Jasmine said stubbornly: "Charlie Wade, I heard that your wife has been married to you for more than three years and there is no real husband and wife. You and your wife were married only under the arrangement of your wife's grandfather. I really want to understand, but I don't understand, why are you keeping a marriage that has not been real for more than three years and not let go?"

As she said, she gradually became agitated and said with red eyes, "I felt wronged for you from the moment I met you. Aurouss Hilll respects you as a true dragon on earth. This is because everyone knows you. The strength is extraordinary, far surpassing ordinary people like Aurouss Hilll, but I don't understand, since you have such abilities, why do you have to join Wilson's family and become a son-in-law who has no de facto marriage?"

Charlie Wade smiled bitterly and said, "Claire Wilson Wilson is kind to me, how can I leave her because I have some great abilities?"

When Jasmine heard this, tears burst into her red eyes. She said: "What your wife can give you, I believe I can give you; what your wife can't give you, I can still give you."

Chapter 1224

Speaking of this, she turned her face and looked at Charlie Wade earnestly. While crying, she said emotionally: "Charlie Wade, if you can accept me, I am willing to give up herself and the entire Moore family. If I am the Moore family, I will become the Wade family. You are the head of the Wade family. I want nothing else in this life, I just wants to be your lover and serve you. If you like to wander around, I will give up the entire Moore family. Wandering around with you, if you like children, I will give you beautiful children. As long as you are happy, I can do anything."

Charlie Wade couldn't help being touched.

From any point of view, Jasmine is a superb beauty of one in a million or even one in a trillion.

She not only looks outstanding, but also has a very pleasing personality. She has received a very high-end aristocratic education since she was a child, and her ability is also extraordinary.

It can be said to be a model of virtuous and virtuous among the rich ladies.

Even the big families of Eastcliff may not be able to produce such an excellent girl.

Therefore, it is my blessing that such a good girl can like herself. But it's a pity that he is indeed a married person, and the feelings for Claire Wilson Wilson in his heart are still very deep. It is impossible for him to leave her like this.

However, seeing Jasmine cry into tears, he couldn't bear it.

He didn't want to see Claire Wilson Wilson hurt, but he didn't want to see Jasmine hurt either.

For a while, he was completely caught in a dilemma.

Jasmine has been looking at him affectionately, looking forward to his reply.

Charlie Wade was silent for about two or three minutes, sighed, and said: "Jasmine, I know your thoughts, and I am very grateful, but I really can't leave Claire Wilson Wilson, so please forgive me."

The tears that Jasmine had just stopped came to her eyes again.

Those bright red eyes stared at Charlie Wade, and said affectionately:

"It doesn't matter Charlie Wade, I know that you may find it difficult to accept me, but I am willing to wait forever, even if the sea is dry and the world is old, I am willing to wait forever. ."

Charlie Wade sighed: "Why waste great youth on me. There are so many men in this world that are better than me. Don't joke about your lifelong happiness, let alone be arrogant."

"No." Jasmine said categorically, "This is definitely not a matter of motivation, and I don't think there can be a better man in this world than you! I grew up with a very stubborn personality, no matter if I like someone or something, or if you like someone, as long as I like it, it will never change."

As she said, she raised her wrist to reveal the old bracelet that her mother left for her, and said seriously: "Just like this bracelet, there are more beautiful, luxurious, and priceless bracelets in the house than it is. But I don't like any of them, I only like this one, and I like it for a lifetime, and I will never give up halfway or change my original intention!"

Charlie Wade said sincerely: "Jasmine, you are 26 years old today. In a big family, you have reached the best age for marriage. In the next two to three years, you should find a husband to marry. It's not worth putting your heart on a man like me, let alone I'm still a married man."

Jasmine blurted out: "I am willing to wait!"

Charlie Wade sighed: "What are you waiting for me? Are you waiting for my divorce? But if I don't get a divorce in the future?"

Jasmine said stubbornly: "I am willing to wait!"

Charlie Wade helplessly: "Take ten thousand steps and say, even if I am divorced, you dignified Miss Moore family, marry me this second married man, are you afraid that others will laugh at you?"

Jasmine shook her head and said, "Don't be afraid! As long as you don't dislike me, I am not afraid to be your lover! As long as you can be with me, even if the whole world comes to poke my backbone, I am not afraid!"

Chapter 1225

Charlie Wade felt quite helpless to Jasmine.

I really didn't expect that she could be so attentive to herself, and at the same time, he did not expect her character to be so stubborn.

He didn't want to provoke her right and wrong, but he didn't intend to confuse her. Now, she has such a deep love for him, he is not without responsibility. But he also knew in his heart that feelings could not be solved overnight.

So Charlie Wade could only persuade her and said, "Let's talk about this matter later. Let's give each other some time."

Jasmine looked at him nervously and asked softly: "You won't be unwilling to talk to me from now on? Will you deliberately alienate me in the future?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Why? I'm not that kind of person, it's impossible just because you said you like me that I will alienate you."

Jasmine breathed a sigh of relief and said, "In fact, I have already done it. It takes a long time to realize this dream. Let alone 10 years and 8 years, even 20 years is not long in my eyes. I have only one request, that is, in any case, but don't deliberately alienate me. Even if you don't like me, please treat me as your friend as before."

Charlie Wade said seriously: "Don't worry, I will never alienate you. What we were like before, what we are still like now."

Jasmine nodded gently.

Charlie Wade sighed and said, "Okay, it's getting late, I have to go home, you should go back soon."

Jasmine hummed, and said, "Good night, Charlie Wade, thank you for your appreciation today and the rejuvenation pill you gave to me!"

Charlie Wade smiled and waved his hand: "You don't need to be so polite, I'll go back first, you drive a little slower."

After speaking, Charlie Wade opened the door to get out of the car.

Jasmine hurriedly stopped him: "Charlie Wade!"

Charlie Wade turned his head and looked at her: "Is there anything else?"

Jasmine blushed pretty and said shyly: "It's okay, I just wanted to tell you that it was my first kiss just now."

Even Charlie Wade blushed a little by her words.

He didn't expect Jasmine to still retain the first kiss, and also gave the first kiss to him.

As the saying goes, it is the most difficult to accept the grace of beauty, especially for a man like him who is affectionate and righteous. He didn't know what to say in response to Jasmine, was silent for a moment, and said sincerely: "Thank you"

Jasmine smiled sweetly and shyly, and said, "Charlie Wade, then I will leave first."

"Yes."

Chapter 1226

After getting out of the car, watching Jasmine drive away from Thompson First, he stood there for ten seconds before turning around and entering the gate of Thompson First.

When he returned to his home, his wife Claire Wilson Wilson had washed up and was lying in the bedroom reading a book.

Seeing Charlie Wade's return, Claire Wilson Wilson smiled and asked, "How was your friend's birthday party?"

Charlie Wade felt a little unnatural, and replied: "The banquet is not bad."

Claire Wilson Wilson didn't know that Jasmine was celebrating her birthday tonight. This was mainly because Charlie Wade didn't want her to think too much, so he didn't say it.

Claire Wilson Wilson didn't find anything wrong with Charlie Wade. She put down the book in her hand, looked at Charlie Wade, and said with some embarrassment: "Husband, can I ask you something?"

Charlie Wade hurriedly said, "What are you doing so politely with your husband? Just talk about it."

Claire Wilson Wilson said: "I have a high school classmate who is going to get married some time later. She came to my studio today to send me invitations. Can you accompany me then?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Of course, men and women?"

"Female." Claire Wilson Wilson said: "When we were in the third year of high school, we had been at the same table for a while."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Since it is a wedding at the same table, it must be going!"

Claire Wilson Wilson hesitated and said, "Um, husband, I have one more thing I want to ask you for help."

Charlie Wade said: "You just say it."

Claire Wilson Wilson said seriously: "This high school classmate's life is not very good. The family has always favored boys over girls and didn't care much about her, and she was married because she is pregnant, so her husband's family is not very esteemed at her. She thinks today. She begged me to drive my BMW to make her the first car for her wedding. She may think that the BMW is already very luxurious, but you also know that nowadays in the city, the first car for the wedding team is at least For a luxury car over a million dollars, it's not possible to start with the BMW 5 Series, so I want to beg you, can you lend one of the two luxury cars from Mr. White and Mr. Quinton and make her the leader."

Charlie Wade asked in surprise: "It's okay to borrow a car. I haven't driven since that auto show. But, my wife, I've only heard of a fleet of family members and never heard of a fleet of married couples. What is the rule?"

Claire Wilson Wilson said: "My high school classmate used to live in school. Her family was in a county around Aurouss Hilll. It stands to reason that when she got married, it was the groom who brought her to pick her up, but the groom's family looked down on my classmate. Yes, I deliberately made a harsh request, saying that I would not go to pick up the family when we get married, and let my mother's family drive to the hotel."

Charlie Wade couldn't help frowning: "This groom's family has done too much, right? She is pregnant with his child. When they got married, they didn't go to the house to pick up their relatives?"

Claire Wilson Wilson sighed: "No way, my classmate is also very uncomfortable. The man's family despises her and is unwilling to give a penny gift. Her mother's family originally expected her to have some gift for her brother when she got married. When they bought a house, they didn't give her a penny, so my classmate's family didn't want her to marry, but my classmate insisted on marrying, so whether it's her future husband's family, family, or her own family, they all have opinions on her. , Kind of pitiful."

Speaking of this, Claire Wilson Wilson hugged Charlie Wade's arm and swayed vigorously, begging: "My husband, I know you have the best skills, and I know that you are usually low-key, but can you help? On the day of my classmate's wedding, she drove a sports car to marry her? I also wanted to save her face so that her husband's family would not bully her too much in the future, please, husband."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said dozingly: "Since you are your high school classmate, how can you drive one? Just leave both of them. Then I will drive one by myself. You drive one with your classmate, are you satisfied with this arrangement?"

Claire Wilson Wilson was overjoyed, immediately hugged him, kissed him on the lips, and said happily: "Satisfied! So satisfied! You are really the best husband in the world!"

Charlie Wade was stunned on the spot. What happened to me today? Is the peach blossom blooming?

Chapter 1227

At this moment, Jasmine has drove back to the Moore family mansion.

On the way back, she recalled her bold kiss to Charlie Wade just now, but she was still ashamed. Actually Jasmine is not a woman who is very active in feelings.

There have been countless people who have pursued her since childhood, but she has never been moved by any man who pursued her.

Not only that, she hadn't even liked anyone before meeting Charlie Wade. But she herself did not expect that after she fell in love with Charlie Wade, she would be so uncontrollable.

If the matter just spread out, the title of the first lady of the Aurouss Hilll First Family would soon become the laughing stock of the whole Aurouss Hilll.

After all, in the eyes of ordinary people, how can a girl be so unreserved.

What's more, she took the initiative to give to Charlie Wade, she still kept the first kiss of 26 years.

However, Jasmine didn't regret it at all.

At the same time, she also decided in her heart that she would use time and practical actions to prove to Charlie Wade that everything she said was from the bottom of her heart, and that she was willing to wait for him, and she would wait forever.

When Jasmine drove the car into the yard when she got home, Oscar hurried forward and said respectfully: "Miss, please park your car here. I will help you in the garage."

Jasmine said: "No need for Oscar, I can stop by myself. You can go and do your job."

Oscar hurriedly said: "So how come, Miss, you are now the Matriarch of the Moore family, and you can leave many things to our subordinates to do in the future."

While speaking, Oscar whispered again: "Miss, the master is still waiting for you."

When she heard that grandpa was still waiting for her, Jasmine nodded hurriedly, left the car to Oscar, picked up her bag, and walked into the house.

At this time, all the Moore family members were sitting in the living room of the Moore family meeting.

Although Jasmine's birthday party was over, no one dared to leave because Lord Mooore didn't say to leave.

Moreover, all those who are interested have discovered that Lord Mooore didn't even sit on the main seat this time.

The design of the Moore's living room is similar to that of a large company's meeting room. There is a main seat directly in front, and there are 18 seats on the left and right sides of the main seat.

Usually Moore Master must sit on the only main seat, but this time, he actually chose to sit on the right hand side of the main seat.

Everyone knew very well that he left the main seat to Jasmine.

Rueben and his father Theodore sat blankly opposite the old man. What happened tonight was like a nightmare for the father and son. And this nightmare hasn't woken up yet, it is impossible to wake up. The old man Moore wanted to help Jasmine to rise, and even if the father and son wanted to stop, they couldn't stop them. After all, the current old man Moore has a strong body and a very good spirit, not only has a strong judgment, but also a strong control ability.

In this case, even if the father and son had great opinions, they could not disobey the decision made by the father.

As long as he is there, Jasmine will have a strong support.

Chapter 1228

And what makes them even more desperate is that Lord Mooore was already dying ill before, but now he is as healthy as a middle-aged man.

This also means that the life span of the father is at least ten to twenty years.

Although Jasmine is still fledgling, the old man helped her get on the horse and tried his best to escort her. In a few years, Jasmine will be able to establish a real position in the Moore family.

At that time, it would be very difficult to want to remove in Jasmine.

As we all know, like the emperors in ancient times, the best time to rebel is when the new emperor takes the throne and the foundation is unstable.

Just like the king of Yan Zhu Di of the Ming Dynasty, he took advantage of the unstable foundation of Emperor Jianwen and rebelled and seized power in one fell swoop.

However, the problem right now is that Jasmine is not Emperor Jianwen.

When Emperor Jianwen ascended the throne, the old father was already dead. If father was still alive and gave Zhu Di ten courage, he would not be able to rebel successfully.

Now, Lord Mooore is living well.

This made Theodore and Rueben very depressed.

At this time, they had no way to change the old man's decision, so they could only bear it down temporarily and then look for opportunities in secret.

When Jasmine came in, Lord Mooore said with a smile: "Our new generation of Matriarch of the Moore family is back! Jasmine, come on, sit on the main seat!"

Jasmine thought that only her grandfather was waiting for herself, but she didn't expect the entire Moore family to be waiting for herself, and she didn't expect her grandfather to let out the main seat to herself, which made her a little flattered.

So Jasmine hurriedly waved her hand and said, "Grandpa, it's better for you to sit on the main seat, and I can sit next to you."

Lord Mooore smiled and said, "I am no longer the Patriarch, so how can I sit in the Patriarch's seat? Wouldn't it become a corpse seat vegetarian meal?"

As he said, he stood up, took Jasmine to the main seat, and let her sit down. Then he laughed loudly: "God bless my Moore family, not only is there a god like Master Wade to help my Moore family behind. There are also outstanding juniors like Jasmine to guide the family to greater glory. I believe that within a few years, the strength of the Moore family will be greatly improved."

Apart from Theodore and Rueben and Son, the other Moore family members applauded warmly.

They have also wanted to understand the truth.

They knew that Jasmine must have been Charlie Wade's favorite, otherwise Charlie Wade would never have helped her so many times, and she only gave two rejuvenation pills for her face.

If you know this one rejuvenating pill, you will sell it to Travis Lane for 2 billion Dollar. The actual value of two rejuvenating pills is at least 4 billion, right?

Now that Jasmine is the head of the family, Charlie Wade will definitely help her more in the future. With Charlie Wade's help and support, the Moore family will naturally get better and better.

Lord Mooore felt very pleased when everyone applauded eagerly.

What he fears most is that Jasmine will not be able to convince the crowd after becoming the head of the family.

Once the people below have a mentality of rebellion and resistance to Jasmine, it will be a big trouble for Jasmine.

But fortunately, she has the blessing of Master Charlie Wade's aura, plus she is here to calm the scene for her, her position as Matriarch will definitely be able to be very stable.

Thinking of this, the old man couldn't help but smiled and sighed: "In my opinion, it won't take long for our Moore family to become the No. 1 family in Southaven. If Jasmine is lucky enough to become Master Wade's wife, then my Moore family It is bound to be able to rise with the wind in the same day, soaring for 90,000 miles!"

Theodore, who hadn't spoken all the time, said worriedly at this time: "Dad, don't forget, today we provoked Sam of the Kilgore family, and I don't know how the Kilgore family will deal with us next!"

Lord Mooore said coldly: "With Master Wade here, I won't panic even if I offend the old man of the Kilgore family, let alone the third young master of their family!"

Chapter 1229

At this moment, late at night Eastcliff International Airport.

Sam's private plane landed at Eastcliff Airport.

On the way, he was in awe because he swallowed the ruby necklace.

He was afraid that the necklace would cause intestinal obstruction in his intestines. In that case, nobody would be able to save himself.

Fortunately, he finally landed in Eastcliff safely.

As soon as the plane landed, it slid to the hangar, and in the hangar, an ambulance was already waiting here.

The Kilgore family has extraordinary strength in Eastcliff with assets of at least 500 billion Dollar, so they have more than just their own health doctors and expert teams, they even have their own private hospitals.

The ambulance that came to pick him up at the airport at this time was sent by the Kilgore Family Hospital.

And the ambulance arrived together with the vice-president of the hospital and several intestinal experts.

Hearing that the three young masters swallowed a ruby not much smaller than an egg and brought a string of necklaces, the experts at the Kilgore Family Hospital were quite nervous.

Because swallowing foreign objects is a very dangerous thing.

Especially if you swallow something larger and more complicated, the risk factor will be greater.

Necklaces are not like a simple stone. If you only swallow a ruby and the gem is polished and rounded, then basically the problem will not be big, but there is still a string of platinum inlaid under the gemstone. The platinum necklace is very troublesome this time, it is easy to block in the intestines, and if the bowel movement cannot be discharged normally, I am afraid that it can only be operated on.

Sam was lying in the ambulance, and when he heard that there was a possibility of surgery, his face immediately became very ugly. He couldn't help but ask the expert: "Is there no other way besides surgery? I have never had surgery when I grow up."

The expert hurriedly said: "Master, don't worry. Let's go back to the hospital to do a CT and see where the necklace is now. If it hasn't reached the intestines, then we can wait. See if it will be excreted by itself; but if it is already in the intestines and does not seem to be excreted by itself, then we can only resort to surgery."

Sam felt extremely depressed and asked, "If surgery is really required, how long will it take to recover before it can be as good as before?"

The expert thought for a while and said, "If you want to take things out of the intestines, you must rest in bed for at least half a month after the operation. After the wound is healed, you can get out of bed and move around. It will take at least three months to recover."

Sam heard that he was going to stay in bed for half a month and recover for three months, and he was extremely angry!

He gritted his teeth and asked: "Then how long will it take for me to have intercourse?"

The expert said embarrassingly: "Intercourse is a strenuous exercise, and the main exercise part is the waist and abdomen. After your abdominal surgery, the most important thing to avoid is intercourse. It will take at least three months."

"grass!"

Sam was extremely depressed.

This kid is an authentic color embryo. He usually travels among the flowers every day in Eastcliff, and often mixes with various model stars and peripheral girls in various clubs. He spends time every day, even at the most exaggerated time.

But once he heard that he might not be able to have sex in the next three months, how could he accept it in his heart?

This is like saying to a smoker who is addicted to cigarettes that he must not smoke for the next three months. It feels more uncomfortable than killing him.

At this time, the expert in front of him couldn't help asking him: "Three young masters, how did you swallow such a big necklace in your stomach? Is it swallowed by mistake? Or what's the matter?"

Chapter 1230

Sam felt even more annoyed when he heard the expert ask about this!

He thought of Charlie Wade's proud face at the time, and he wanted to kill him immediately and then hurry!

And that Cameron Isaac.

Damn, he didn't give myself face so much, he even made a video to threaten myself, forcing myself to swallow the ruby necklace.

If it weren't for his threat, it would be impossible for him to make a decision to swallow.

Isn't this bastard relying on Wade's family to support him? Really think the world is invincible?

Damn, it's outrageous.

So Sam yelled at the expert angrily: "If you shouldn't ask the damn thing, don't ask the damn thing. If you talk any more damn nonsense, be careful that I kill you!"

The expert can only shut his mouth with interest. Although the third young master of the Kilgore family is not the strongest in the Kilgore family, he can't provoke him after all.

The ambulance drove quickly to the hospital, and after arriving at the hospital, it immediately pushed into the ct room.

The advanced CT instrument was turned on, and Sam's abdomen was taken in all directions.

Experts can clearly see the eye-catching ruby necklace in his stomach through the film taken by ct.

The key is that the necklace has been stuck in the curve of his intestines. The ruby and the necklace have formed a bend. Looking at it this way, if he wants to rely on his own, there is little chance of defecation.

And the ruby is really big, and a large area of blockage has already occurred in the intestines. If it is consumed and other food residues enter the intestine, it may cause blockage and cause intestinal obstruction.

After discussing and discussing, the experts made a decision: The ruby necklace must be removed immediately by surgery.

Sam heard the bad news as soon as he was lifted off the CT machine, and his heart was extremely painful.

But he is not a fool. He knows that he can never make fun of his life at this time, so he can only gritted his teeth and said, "If this is the case, please arrange surgery as soon as possible."

An expert opened his mouth and said: "The three young masters, father and mother are already on their way. We will be there soon. We will send people to the ward first, and wait while preparing surgical instruments and formulating surgical plans. You can just wait for your father. After coming with mother, meet them before entering the operating room."

Sam asked: "Are they here?"

"Yes." The expert said: "I have already set off and arrived."

Sam could only nod his head.

He was then taken to the intensive care unit by a nurse.

In the intensive care unit, the beautiful little nurse was busy in front of him, changing his gown for a while, and wiping him again.

Seeing that this nurse is so beautiful, Sam immediately moved with evil thoughts.

It is estimated that it will take half an hour for my parents to come over, and I will not be able to do personnel affairs in the next three months, so it is better to take this opportunity to have a post with this little beautiful nurse!

While the little nurse was changing her clothes, he grabbed the little nurse's hand and said with an obscene smile: "Little beauty, what is your name? Would you like to accompany me once before I enter the operating room? Don't worry, I will definitely not treat you badly!"

Chapter 1231

The doctors and nurses of the Kilgore Family Hospital know the Kilgore family well and their strength is extraordinary, so whenever they have the opportunity, they will do everything possible to please the Kilgore family.

This little nurse, never dreamed that she would be favored by the three young masters today. This is like flying on a branch and becoming a phoenix.

Among other things, even if it was just to accompany the three young masters for a spring night, the three young masters would definitely not treat themselves badly.

If you can be pregnant with the child of the three young masters during the one-night spring supper, wouldn't it be more expensive for a mother to depend on her child and become a master.

There are many female celebrities who have sharpened their heads and have to be lovers for the rich, or get pregnant before they are unmarried, or give birth to the rich in order to soar into the sky?

When the little nurse heard this, he almost nodded without thinking, and at the same time said in an extremely numbing voice, "Master Sam, no matter what you want, I will do it!"

As soon as Sam heard this, he suddenly became aggressive, and immediately pulled the female nurse and pressed her under him.

Fortunately, the ruby necklace hadn't had a substantial impact on him yet, so before the operation, Sam's ability had no problem at all.

The little nurse was naturally also very active, and the two of them ignited the fire immediately.

But just as the two were fighting forgotten, the door of the ward was suddenly pushed open.

Sam was taken aback, turned his head and looked at the door, his soul frightened even more.

He never dreamed that his parents and grandparents were all standing at the door at this moment, staring at himself dumbfounded.

Sam's grandma screamed, she couldn't stand firmly, and fell on the ground.

Immediately afterwards, the Lady yelled, obviously feeling sheer pain.

Sam hurriedly pulled the sheets, wrapped himself up, and asked nervously, "Grandpa...grandma...dad...mum, you...what do you guys... Come so fast?!"

"You bastard!"

Sam's father Heath cursed, and immediately went to help grandma.

As a result, just as he was about to support grandma, she yelled in pain:

"Oh no, it hurts too much I think I broke my tailbone, let the doctor come quickly..."

The old man of the Kilgore family was also furious, pointing to Sam's nose and cursing: "You are a shameless offspring, as a descendant of the Kilgore family, how can you get along with this kind of woman? What if we let this kind of woman be pregnant with our Kilgore heirs? , Our Kilgore family's face was lost by you!"

Sam's face paled with fright. How could he have thought that his parents would have been to the hospital within 10 minutes.

I didn't expect that I followed the female nurse on a temporary basis, and the male and female loved them, but I didn't expect to be watched by the elders.

Seeing that Grandpa was so furious, he hurriedly confessed: "Grandpa, don't be angry. I was just confused for a while. It was because the doctor said that I couldn't do that for three months after the operation, so I couldn't hold it back. Please punish me!"

Heath said angrily: "You bastard, your grandpa and grandma care about you so much, and come to see you specially. I didn't expect that you bastard is so innocent, and I am really angry."

After speaking, he scolded again: "Have you seen your grandma injured? Don't come over and have a look!"

Sam knew that there was a disaster, his first thought was to quickly shake the pot, so he pointed to the female nurse and blurted out: "Dad, this fox seduce me..."

Chapter 1232

The female nurse hugged a pillow to block her body and said aggrievedly: "Young Master, you can't spit your mouth. If it weren't for you, how could I betray my boyfriend like this? Very affectionate..."

Sam scolded angrily: "You f*cking have a boyfriend?"

The female nurse said with tears in her eyes: "My boyfriend and I have been together for several years. I was planning to get married this year. If he wants to let him know about this, I won't be able to be a human being... ."

Sam gritted his teeth with anger, while his father Heath had a dark face and said to the female nurse: "I will let someone give you five million, and get out of this room and this hospital. "

When the female nurse heard that she had given herself five million, she nodded in excitement, immediately wrapped her nurse uniform, and ran out happily.

At this time, the doctor had also rushed over and sent the Lady who fell to the ground for examination.

Sam's grandfather and Sam's father followed, leaving Sam's mother Lydia in the ward.

Lydia looked at him angrily at this moment, and accused: "Why is this kid so ignorant? Where can you not do that kind of thing? You have to do it in the hospital. You know your grandfather sees this situation so much. pissed off?"

"Mom, I was wrong..."

Sam lowered his head at this time, aggrieved like a child.

Lydia couldn't help sighing and said, "You don't know that your grandfather values the blood of the Kilgore family the most. You are the male heirs of the Kilgore family, whoever prevents you from getting on the stage? Pregnant with the child of the Kilgore family, then he will never be reused by the father, the youngest son of the third uncle, and the second son of your fourth uncle, you don't know what will end."

Sam knew very well in his heart that the youngest son of the third uncle's family and the second son of the fourth uncle's family were all messing around outside, causing the woman who could not get on the table outside to become pregnant before being driven out of Eastcliff by his grandpa.

Now these two people have been assigned to the South, and each run a small industry that cannot be used on the table. They are not eligible to return to the Eastcliff Kilgore family and use the resources of the Kilgore family by themselves. It can be said that they belong to the Kilgore family. Nothing more though.

The old man has been extremely proud of his blood throughout his life. This is because the Kilgore family of their line was a master who was born in reading sages and served as high officials in the palace.

In the great dynasties, I don't know how many princes and princes were cultivated by their ancestors.

Therefore, in the eyes of the old man, the blood of the Kilgore family can only be reproduced and inherited by well-knowing ladies.

It would be a great insult to the blood of the Kilgore family if the women outside who could not get on the stage broke the children of the Kilgore family, and the old man could not bear it.

Therefore, Sam's heart is also terrified.

Fortunately, my parents and grandparents showed up early, otherwise, if I didn't have any protective measures, I ended up with the female nurse and unfortunately made her pregnant with his own seed, then he would be finished.

So he reverently said to Lydia: "Mom, don't worry, I won't do this again..."

Lydia sighed and said seriously: "It's useless if you tell me what you said. When you turn around, tell your grandpa well, you must let your grandpa forgive you, understand?"

"Understood mom..." Sam nodded as if pounding garlic, and at the same time asked very depressed: "Mom, why are you here so fast? I thought you would have to wait at least another 20 minutes."

Lydia glared at him, and said angrily: "We were planning to drive here, but after your grandma heard about it, she was worried about your safety, so she proposed to take a helicopter over. Who would have thought of encountering such a thing after coming here? Hurry up and change your clothes. Go and see how your grandma is doing."

Chapter 1233

Sam was very upset at this time. Hearing his mother told him to see his grandmother, he nodded hurriedly.

Lydia turned around at this moment and said: "Now put on clothes, hurry up!"

Sam hurriedly put on his clothes.

Lydia asked him, "What the hell is going on to Aurouss Hilll this time? Why did you rush back right after the past, and I heard that you swallowed a string of ruby necklaces? I picked them for you and asked you to send them. Is the necklace for Miss Moore Family? What is going on?" Facing a series of questions from his mother, Sam sighed and said: "Mom, don't mention it. I went to Aurouss Hilll Moore's house this time. I didn't expect to meet a smelly Diaosi with the surname Wade. I made a bet with him and I lost the bet. , I swallowed the ruby necklace into my stomach."

Lydia frowned and said, "Why would you provoke someone surnamed Wade? Are you from the Wade family? We can't afford to offend the Wade family!"

Sam said hurriedly: "It's not from the Wade family of Eastcliff, he is a son-in-law named Wade in Aurouss Hilll, who is a son-in-law and smelly Diaosi. Damn, what kind of ghost pill will be practiced, so he stunned the Moore family. Frozen."

Lydia asked again: "Then you told the person in charge of the Moore family about the marriage alliance? Your father also hopes that you can borrow this matter to make your grandfather admire."

Sam said angrily: "The family named Moore doesn't know what is good or what is wrong, and Jasmine has been looking at this guy named Charlie Wade Wade. I seriously doubt if they have a leg!"

"Impossible!" Lydia shook his head and said, "I have investigated the situation of the eldest Moore family. She is a very good girl. It can be said that there are so many ladies in Eastcliff, they can not be able to compare her! And, I asked a private detective to tell me that Jasmine had never been in love since she was a child."

As he said, Lydia lowered her voice again and said in a low voice: "To tell you the truth, I also found someone to investigate the physical examination record of Jasmine at a high-end private hospital some time ago. The record shows that she is still a pure girl!"

"Ah?!" When Sam heard this, his eyes immediately appeared like a wolf! He blurted out subconsciously: "Jasmine is still a virgin?!"

Lydia whispered: "How many times have I told you, don't speak so vulgarly, in case your grandparents hear it, your impression will be bad again!"

Sam hurriedly explained: "Sorry mom, I just couldn't believe it for a while."

Lydia said: "From my analysis, Jasmine is really a good girl who is one in a million, like your grandfather who pays so much attention to blood, so important to the woman, status and cultivation, I believe that if you can marry Jasmine, your grandfather will definitely be very pleased, otherwise why did your mother let you travel all the way to Aurouss Hilll?"

With that, Lydia whispered: "I'm telling you, Jasmine is now your chance."

"Your grandfather has always wanted your uncle's eldest brother to pursue the Wade family's fourth young lady, but the Wade family's fourth young lady doesn't look down on him at all. Your grandfather doesn't know how many times he scolded him for being incompetent."

"The second brother of your uncle's family, the Miss Phillip's family that you were looking for, although she has a high status and status, the girl is a little bit too much to be on the stage, and she doesn't look good after plastic surgery."

"Moreover, that girl has a wild temperament. She doesn't look like pretty girls. Your grandparents are not very satisfied. If you can find a good girl like Jasmine at this time, your grandparents would be so happy! To that At that time, in the eyes of your grandparents, you might be ranked first!"

Sam realized at this time what Jasmine meant to him.

Chapter 1234

He was very annoyed and said: "I knew this a long time ago, I would pursue her when I was studying abroad..."

Lydia asked back: "Then why didn't you pursue her then?"

Sam sighed: "At that time, I thought that foreign girls were better. In the past few years, I looked for foreign girls."

As he said, he remembered something and hurriedly said, "Mom, I lost such a big face in front of Jasmine this time. I guess Jasmine has a bad impression of me. What can I do?"

Lydia sighed and said: "You have to think of a way to see how to restore the bad impression you gave her this time. Anyway, chasing a girl can't succeed in a short while. You have to do it. Good preparation for a protracted battle."

Sam said: "The doctor told me that after the operation, I might have to stay in bed for 15 days. I can't go to Aurouss Hilll for a while..."

Lydia said: "What should I worry about in 15 days? Jasmine has been single for 26 years!"

When Sam heard this, he immediately smiled and said with a grin: "Mom, listening to you say that, I have more confidence."

Lydia nodded and asked him: "By the way, have you gone to Aurouss Hilll to see Loreen this time?"

Sam said hurriedly: "How can I take care of her? When I got off the plane, I hurried to the Moore's house, then hurried to the airport from the Moore's house, and then flew back."

Lydia said: "Next time you go to Aurouss Hilll, remember to visit her. She has been to Aurouss Hilll for a long time and has never been back."

Sam nodded, but asked in surprise: "Mom, why did Loreen go to the place where birds don't shit in Aurouss Hilll?"

Lydia said: "I heard your grandfather say that the Wade family bought a company called Emgrand Group in Aurouss Hilll some time ago. It is said that it seems to have given the Wade family a young master to run it. Your grandfather wants Loreen to try and see if she develops a little something with the Young Master Wade?"

Sam frowned again: "Does Aurouss Hilll really have a young master from the Wade family? It's not possible..."

When he said this, he thought of Charlie Wade again.

Is this Charlie Wade the young master of the Wade family?

It's different, Cameron Isaac denied it, and that guy is a live-in son-in-law of Diaosi. It is said that he is still a member of the uninfluenced family of Diaosi in Aurouss Hilll. It doesn't make sense to be the Young Master Wade Family!

At this time, Lydia also said with some suspicion: "I also thought that the chairman of the Emgrand Group might be the young master of the Wade family, but according to Loreen, she has never seen the chairman's face, so I suspect that even if the chairman is the young master of the Wade family, the young master of the Wade family is not in Aurouss Hilll. He may still be in charge of remote control in Eastcliff, or even just hang up the position of chairman. In fact, he is too lazy to take care of things. After all, the Wade family is such a big business. , A mere Emgrand group can't get into their eyes at all."

Sam asked in astonishment: "What is Loreen doing there? Why not let her come back quickly."

Lydia said: "Your grandfather does want her to come back, but she doesn't want to, so your grandfather will let her stay with her."

Chapter 1235

The relationship between the Eastcliff family is very complicated.

They are like the Eight Banners nobles in the Quintong Dynasty, they are very close by marriage.

After all, every family has males and females. When they reach the age of marriage, they are bound to marry. However, big families have a very high vision. They cannot choose a son-in-law or a daughter-in-law from ordinary people, so Only find suitable objects among the major families. It can be said that there is no big family that does not marry other big families, and some prosperous big families will marry multiple big families at once.

This is very similar to European royal families. In those old-school monarchy countries in Europe, their kings and queens are related to each other. This is because the entire European royal family is a huge family formed by long-term intermarriage.

Sam's mother, Lydia Thomas, is the daughter of the Thomas family and Loreen's aunt.

She had married Sam's father Heath Kilgore 35 years ago.

When the Kilgore family and the Thomas family were married, the strength of the Thomas family was even stronger than that of the Kilgore family.

However, over the years, the Thomas family has been going downhill and the Kilgore family has been going uphill, so the gap between the two families has gradually widened.

But the Kilgore father and the Lady have always been very fond of Lydia. This is mainly because the Lydia did help the Kilgore family a lot after Lydia married their family.

After Lydia Thomas married Heath Kilgore, she gave birth to three daughters and Sam was born to her fourth child, so she was very fond of Sam.

Sam is also 27 years old this year, and it seems that he is almost 28, so Lydia began to worry about his son's marriage.

She first searched for a large circle in Eastcliff's big family, but never found a satisfactory one.

The Banks Family and the Wade Family's daughters were both high in value and status, and each family was eager to marry them. In contrast, the Kilgore family and their strength were far behind.

As for those families with similar status and strength to the Kilgore family, the girls in their families who are of marriageable age are either already well-known, or they are really not in Lydia's eyes.

Lydia naturally hopes that his son can find a wealthy daughter with good net worth, ability, and appearance.

However, most of the daughters of large families are girls with obvious advantages and obvious disadvantages. The advantage is that the family is rich and powerful, but the disadvantage is that except for the money, everything else is very mediocre. No wonder.

For example, some eldest daughters are not learning and skillful at all. They only spend money since they were young. Although they graduated from top universities in the world, they were all donated by money.

Just like Daniel Pace, he donated 15 million dollars to get his son to Harvard.

Most of the rich second generations like this are mostly gold and jade outsiders and losers among them.

Not to mention those rich second-generation girls, even Sam is the embroidered pillow.

Sam went abroad to study, and his family also spent a lot of money to donate it.

So even though he is the third young master of the Kilgore family, in fact, in terms of personal ability, he is much worse than those high-achieving students who study hard.

Lydia didn't want her son to find such a straw bag in the future, so she picked it up and picked it over Jasmine's head.

But she didn't expect that her own son would be so useless. To celebrate Jasmine's birthday, she could also have a dispute with others, and even swallowed a string of ruby necklaces in public because of a bet.

At the moment, she felt extremely helpless in her heart.

But seeing that her son was about to undergo surgery, Lydia did not show her disappointment too much, but when she got dressed, he took her to see the injured Lady first.

Chapter 1236

The Lady did hurt her bones just now. The doctor gave it an urgent look and thought she would have to stay in bed for at least a week.

Because the Lady was in pain, the doctor gave her a closed injection and an analgesic injection.

Sam was ashamed to follow his mother to the Lady's ward.

As soon as he entered the ward, his father Heath walked up, raised his hand and slapped him fiercely, and yelled, "You bastard, it's really mud that can't support the wall! Fortunately, your grandma has nothing to do, otherwise if you do, I have to stab you!"

Sam had never been beaten since he was a child. Suddenly he was slapped in the face by his father. The whole person was stunned, and he felt wronged.

When the Lady saw him hit his grandson, she felt a little distressed, so she said: "After the order is taken, Sam is still young. Although this kind of thing is not glorious, she can understand it."

The old man Kilgore is not as generous as the Lady. He glared at Sam and said coldly: "Even if he is young, he is already an adult. An adult who can't even control himself, how can he expect him to be successful?"

When Sam heard this, his legs swayed.

He is not afraid of his father hitting himself, but he is afraid of his grandfather's denial of himself.

Because if Grandpa really has great opinions on himself, it will have a great impact on his future status in the family.

When Heath heard this, his father was even more angry at this unfilial son when he heard this. So he waved his hand and slapped him again, screaming: "No, you bastard, if I find you again Next time, I will have to break your leg!"

Sam covered both faces. Aggrieved choked: "Grandpa, Dad, I really know I was wrong, and I will never make such a mistake again!"

The old man snorted coldly: "I'm not like your grandma. She spoils you grandchildren the most, but my principle of doing things has always been strong. If you have another time, then leave Eastcliff and never come back!"

Sam nodded quickly, and said respectfully: "Grandpa, don't worry, there will be no next time."

The old man's expression only eased slightly.

The Lady complained a little bit: "You and your father are also true, one beats the child, the other scolds the child, the child will have surgery soon!"

Sam saw his grandma defending herself in this way, and she was aggrieved, a few tears walked to the Lady's bed, squatted down, holding the Lady's hand, and said: "Grandma's sorry, it is Sam's fault..."

The Lady hurriedly reached out to help him wipe away the tears, and said: "Knowing your mistakes can make a lot of improvements. Grandma doesn't blame you."

At this time, the gastroenterologist stepped in and said, "Master, sir, the young master is about to prepare for surgery."

Heath nodded and said to Sam: "This is just a minor operation. Follow the doctor yourself. I want to accompany your grandma here."

Sam nodded hurriedly and obediently agreed.

Seeing this, the Lady hurriedly said to Lydia: "Lydia, don't guard me here, go and follow along."

Lydia was not too relieved to let her son undergo the operation alone, so she hurriedly said, "Okay mom, I will go with Sam."

After the mother and daughter left with the doctor, Heath said to the old man with a look of shame: "Dad, I'm so sorry, I taught him no way..."

The old man waved his hand blankly and said: "Sam is almost 28 years old, it's time for him to stabilize. If a man doesn't get married, he will never grow up. Hurry up and find a suitable girl for him. Get married!"

Heath hurriedly said: "Dad, Lydia and I have already found a suitable person for him. It is the daughter of the Aurouss Hillll Moore family. The girl is not only beautiful and generous, knowledgeable, but also very capable. What I think is that after marrying the Moore family, the Moore family will become the first family in the south of the Yangtze River. In this case, it is equivalent to our power and has developed in the south of the Yangtze River."

The old man nodded: "It's a good idea to bypass the bottomless 49th city of Eastcliff and go to the south of the Yangtze River for development. Hurry up!"

Chapter 1237

After an operation, the sad Sam finally took the ruby necklace out of his intestines.

Waiting for him is 15 days of absolute bed rest, so he can only honestly lie down in the intensive care unit of his hospital.

Since the pain pump cannot be used all the time, it will cause harm to the body, so on the second day of the operation, his pain pump has been removed.

As a result, he ushered in constant pain in bed.

The stronger the pain came, the more he hated Charlie Wade in his heart. I can't wait to recover health quickly, and then go to Aurouss Hilll, find Charlie Wade to settle the account, it is best to smash him into thousands of pieces, otherwise I am really sorry for the name of the third young master of the Kilgore family.

But Charlie Wade didn't take him seriously.

His wife, Claire Wilson Wilson's high school classmate, will get married on weekends. Charlie Wade promised his wife to "borrow" the two luxury cars and use them as wedding cars for her classmates, so he called directly on Friday To Mr. Quinton, to let Mr. Quinton arrange for someone to send these two luxury cars to the Thompson First Villa.

As soon as Mr. Quinton heard that Master Wade was finally going to use the two cars, he immediately arranged for someone to drive the trailer and send the two luxury cars to his house.

The limited-edition Hermès Bugatti Veyron and Aston Martin one77, whichever drive to the street, can bring a very high rate of return, and these two cars are very few in the country, and the entire Aurouss Hilll No one can use these two cars as a wedding car.

After the car arrived, even if it stopped at a top-notch villa area like Thompson First, it stood out from the crowd, making countless rich people drooling.

When Elaine Ma saw these two cars parked in her yard, she was completely confused.

She watched the two cars several times, and asked Claire Wilson Wilson excitedly: "My dear girl, where did she get these two cars? This is too expensive!"

Claire Wilson Wilson said: "Mom, Charlie Wade asked Mr. Quinton to borrow these two cars. I happen to have a classmate get married tomorrow, so I borrowed these two cars for her as a wedding car."

"Damn!" Elaine Ma exclaimed, "When will our family have such a luxury sports car..."

After speaking, she looked at Charlie Wade again, and asked with a flattering expression: "My son-in-law, can't you let your local tyrant friends send us a car like this? Your mother, I live so big, and I haven't been in such a luxurious car. What about your sports car!"

Charlie Wade actually doesn't have any superfluous feelings about cars. In his eyes, it's just a means of transportation. It's not good if it's too public, so he doesn't really have a good impression of these two cars, and he doesn't think driving two cars out is A great honor, this is the fundamental reason why I have not driven these two cars.

So Charlie Wade said to Elaine Ma: "Mom, these two cars look good, but they are too expensive to keep. Take this Bugatti as an example. One tire costs more than 100,000, plus four tires. It costs five to six hundred thousand Dollar to get up, and it can be maintained at a random time of tens of thousands. If it is scratched, it may cost more than one hundred thousand Dollar for one coat. How can our house be able to start."

When Elaine Ma heard this, she sighed in disappointment, and said, "If you have the money to support this thing, it's better to set my teeth." As she said, she reached out and touched her tooth socket and complained: "My front teeth have been missing for so long, and I don't know when I can plant them."

Claire Wilson Wilson said, "Mom, don't worry, I have already made an appointment with the dentist in advance. As long as your legs are better, I will take you to implant the teeth and make the best porcelain teeth."

Elaine Ma nodded in satisfaction.

Claire Wilson Wilson said to Charlie Wade: "Husband, which one are you going to drive tomorrow?"

Charlie Wade said: "I'm free, you choose one, and I will drive the rest."

Chapter 1238

Claire Wilson Wilson said nervously, "I'm afraid I can't drive well. Both cars are very powerful. I'm afraid that something will happen accidentally. If you scratch someone's car again, it will be troublesome."

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "It's okay, don't have such a big psychological burden, just treat these two cars as our own."

Claire Wilson Wilson said, "You should give me an introduction and how to do it in detail."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Okay, then I will introduce this Bugatti to you."

At this moment, a brand new Bentley Continental drove into the Thompson First Villa area.

The driver was Harold, who was dressed in a straight suit and looked like a dog.

Sitting in the co-pilot was his father Christopher.

Sitting in the back row was the Lady of the Wilson family and Wendy . Recently, the Webb family's investment in the Wilson family has arrived, and the Wilson Group has repaid the loan owed to the bank, so the bank has also unblocked, and the Wilson Group has also unblocked the sealed Wilson family villa and antique cultural relics.

The resurgence of the Wilson family group made the Wilson family extremely excited.

Harold hadn't really experienced the life of the rich second generation for a long time, so he slapped the Lady, hoping that she could buy a luxury car from the company to fill the storefront.

In the previous Wilson family, the best car was the Mercedes-Benz S450, which was priced at about 1.5 million Dollar. Christopher's car was an Audi a8, while Harold's car was an old BMW.

Originally, the family intended to replace him with a better car, but unexpectedly, something happened at home later. Not only was it not replaced with a car, but even the old BMW was found by the bank. Harold knew very well that if he wanted to become a rich second generation and let others look at himself again, he must first have a good car.

After all, I can't carry the Thompson First villa on my back, and when I go out, what others really think about me is what kind of car I drive. After such a long and hard life, Mrs. Wilson couldn't wait to make a high profile, so she immediately decided and bought a Bentley Continental that cost more than three million Dollar.

Harold had never driven such an expensive car, so he was more excited than anyone else when he bought the car.

At this time, Mrs. Wilson was sitting in the extravagant rear row of the Bentley, touching the hand-made pure leather interior, and exclaimed: "This good car is really good. This Bentley is much better than my previous Mercedes. !"

Harold said: "Grandma, Bentley is actually a bit worse than Rolls-Royce, or let's buy another Rolls-Royce if we don't look back!"

The Lady said: "A Rolls-Royce is worth seven or eight million. It is still too early to buy a Rolls-Royce. Our top priority now is to quickly restart the business of the Wilson Group."

Harold hurriedly said: "Grandma, what I mean is that I also want to frustrate the spirit of Charlie Wade's family. Don't think they can live in a Thompson First villa, but the car they drive is still two shit BMW 5 series. Add up to less than one million, less than one-third of our Bentley. If we drive a 7-8 million Rolls-Royce, we just drive to their door and poke them. Go to the backbone of home!"

Wendy said, "Brother, do you still need a Rolls-Royce if you poke the spine of their family? This Bentley is enough!"

"Yes!" Lady Wilson coldly snorted, and said, "Harold, drive directly to their house. I have to make fun of this family! I asked them to return to the Wilson Group before they were reluctant to go back to the Wilson Group. Now the Wilson Group is alive. I don't regret it after seeing them!"

Chapter 1239

Mrs. Wilson has always been very dissatisfied with Charlie Wade's family. At the beginning, I begged them to come back, but no one of them took themselves seriously. Now that I have received a huge investment from the Webb family, I don't need to put their family in their eyes.

Moreover, the Lady felt that Charlie Wade's family was just outsiders. It looks like there is a Thompson First villa, but in fact it is nothing more than that.

Both Charlie Wade and Jacob Wilson did not have a job, and had no income at home.

Although Claire Wilson Wilson opened a studio, the scale is small after all, and the income situation is not too optimistic.

So the Lady firmly believes that their family is in the Thompson First, that is, they can barely afford to live, but they must not be able to compare with their current self.

At the beginning, I needed them to come back and ran to their families to make all kinds of pleadings. They lost their face, but they looked down on themselves and were reluctant to go back to the Wilson family again.

Now the Wilson family has weathered the storm, and they just want to save the face they lost before. get back!

Bentley Continental stopped in front of Charlie Wade's villa. Harold looked at the Lady beside him and asked, "Grandma, do you want me to knock on the door?"

"No." Lady Wilson said with a sneer: "Hon the horn and let Elaine Ma come out."

Christopher looked up and found that there were more than 20 green hats hanging on Elaine Ma's balcony. He said angrily: "Elaine Ma, the bastard, is addicted to hanging green hats. It's been so many days. she still doesn't take it off!"

The Lady Wilson said lightly: "She is willing to hang up, just let her hang up, but it's just a green hat. I advise you not to care too much. Now that the lady Hannah has knocked out that wild species, you should stop. Take this matter seriously."

"Mom, what you said is easy!" Christopher said angrily: "This lady is not only pregnant with other people's wild species, but also infected me with a venereal disease. I still have to go to the hospital to infuse six bottles of fluid every day. Enough for a month, it was all her harm!"

The Lady Wilson said disdainfully: "You always take her to your heart, and others have always targeted you, such as the green hats that Elaine Ma hangs. If you don't take Hannah's matter seriously, Elaine Ma will do it. What can you do if you hang two hundred green hats? After all, you still leave others with flaws. Then when others embarrass you, don't blame others."

Christopher sighed angrily when he heard this.

He has now separated from Hannah. The reason why he has not divorced her is because Donald of the Webb family does not allow him. If he continues to regard this as a huge shame, he will definitely be like his mother in the future. The same, has always left the opponent flaws.

Thinking of this, he gritted his teeth and said: "Mom, I understand what you mean, just let Elaine Ma hang up, I just didn't see it."

The Lady Wilson nodded in satisfaction and said to Harold: "Harold, honk the horn and get Elaine Ma out!"

"Good grandma!"

With a smug smile on his face, Harold pressed the car horn.

The huge whistle sounded outside Charlie Wade's villa.

Claire Wilson Wilson and Charlie Wade were sitting in a sports car with excellent soundproofing, and they didn't hear the sound very clearly, but Elaine Ma in the bedroom upstairs suddenly became annoyed when they heard the sound.

Chapter 1240

She was holding her mobile phone in bed and chasing drama at this time. During this time, she was bored at home every day, and she depended on chasing drama to pass the time.

When she saw the excitement, there was a continuous piercing horn outside, loud and sharp, which made her upset for a while, so she immediately went to the terrace and looked down. A brand-new Bentley parked at his door and kept honking his horn.

Elaine Ma suddenly cursed: "Damn, where's the smelly silk, something wrong? What are you doing at someone's door?"

Christopher was in the car through the window, and saw Elaine Ma standing on the patio fence calling out, smiling and saying, "Mom, look, Elaine Ma's b*tch has come out to curse the street!"

"Haha!" Mrs. Wilson was overjoyed and said: "Elaine Ma, this stinky lady loves money the most. If we let her know that we are relieved now, she will definitely be jealous and uncomfortable. Then I will give her a willingness to let them The illusion of returning to Wilson's house, she will definitely lick her face and beg me, and then I will humiliate and humiliate her!"

So, the Lady Wilson smiled and pushed the car door, and was about to get out of the car to show off with Elaine Ma, but she didn't expect a pot of cold water to be poured on her head.

With a crash, the Lady only felt cold from head to toe. She lifted her wet head and looked up. She just saw Elaine Ma holding a washbasin with a smug look on her face.

The Lady raised her head angrily and cursed: "Elaine Ma, you damn dog thing! Why do you pour water on me!"

Only then did Elaine Ma recognize that it was the old Mrs. Wilson, and said, "Oh, whoever bought a broken car and honked the horn in front of my house. It turns out that you are the one who is not dead! What's the matter? Your daughter-in-law is here. In the black coal mine, you have made a lot of money by selling yourself part-time? I have money to replace you with a new car? What kind of broken car, it seems quite bluffing."

Lady Wilson angrily cursed: "I don't know good and bad things! This is Bentley! Bentley Continental! Imported from the UK, more than three million!"

Elaine Ma leaned on the railing and said with a look of disdain: "Oh, driving a car worth more than three million Dollar is not you? Do you know what kind of car my daughter and son-in-law drive?"

Mrs. Wilson sneered: "Isn't your daughter just a BMW 520? Tell you, my Lady can buy her ten of this car!"

Elaine Ma sighed and said, "Look at this old thing for you, a Bentley worth more than three million. It's just a woolen thread? My son-in-law has two top luxury cars, any of them cost 40-50 million. , I bought these ten of you and turned around. Look at your unseen appearance."

Harold also put down the car window at this time, poked his head out of the driving position, looked at Elaine Ma, and mocked in a cold voice: "Elaine Ma, you have no f*cking front teeth, and you still like to brag so much? Just Charlie Wade's smelly Diaosi, why drive a 40-50 million car? He doesn't even deserve to touch it!"

Elaine Ma spit out a few pieces of melon seed shells at Harold and said contemptuously: "Harold, don't be here with the second aunt and chick. If you have this time, you can go to a hospital and check if you are It's not from the Wilson family. After all, your mom is so prodigious, maybe she put a green hat on your dad more than 20 years ago?"

"Don't fart!" When Harold heard her make a fuss about her mother's cheating, he scolded angrily: "You talk nonsense again, I will cut off your tongue."

Elaine Ma put his tongue out and said, "Come on, you come to cut, bastard, it's not you that's amazing."

Harold was so uncomfortable, pushing the car door and scolding the street.

The Lady stopped him at this time and said, "Harold, don't talk, I'll talk to her!"

Harold closed his mouth angrily.

The Lady said arrogantly: "Elaine Ma. Let me tell you that the Wilson family is not what it used to be! The 80 million investment has been paid, and the Wilson family has passed the debt crisis and will reopen now! You are Isn't it envious? If you beg me, maybe I will show compassion to let Claire Wilson Wilson and Jacob Wilson return to work in the Wilson Group, and your pension will be restored."

Chapter 1241

Hearing what the Lady said, Elaine Ma was stunned, feeling very upset. Someone really invested in the Wilson family? Are you crazy?

Just the few broken fish and shrimps of the Wilson family, how many can be on the table?

Relying on them, it is strange that the Wilson Group can do it!

Wouldn't they have money to burn?

Thinking of this, Elaine Ma immediately sneered and said: "You Lady, don't be too troublesome in front of me. As far as your family is, even if the Wilson Group reopens, it will definitely go bankrupt in a few days. What kind of stuff are in your family, just like Harold, what can you do? He won't burn the whole family out!"

Elaine Ma's words also touched the pain of the Lady Wilson.

Although the Wilson family now has Donald's investment, it does not mean that the Wilson family can sit back and relax in the future.

After all, Donald's money only helped the Wilson family solve the survival problem, but the Wilson Group really needs to be led by capable people if it really wants to develop.

However, the Wilson family really didn't have any talents.

Christopher himself was mediocre, and Harold was a low-handed waste. He was very good at eating inside and out. It really made him find a way to help the company make some money. It was really difficult.

He has been in the Wilson Group for several years. Basically, a business has not been completed. It is just a waste of insufficient success and more failure.

As for Wendy, not to mention, after graduating from Pheasant University, she just wandered around every day.

When She first fell in love with Gerald White, in addition to spending money every day, after breaking up with Gerald White, she followed Kenneth Wilson and Jeffrey Weaver. Not only did she have no ability to run a business, but her own reputation was completely stinking. I can't count on it.

However, the Lady Wilson herself is also getting older, and she can't do many things by herself, and she is also incapable of doing things. In this case, she feels more and more that her granddaughter, Claire Wilson Wilson, whom she has never waited for, is actually the best in the entire Wilson family. The capable one.

Therefore, although she is here to mock Elaine Ma, she actually wants to use her crushing advantage to make Elaine Ma yield to herself again. Once Elaine Ma yields to herself again, she will help herself persuade Claire Wilson Wilson to return to the Wilson family group.

If Claire Wilson Wilson is willing to come back, she will definitely give her a position of director, so that she will lead the Wilson Group to come back to life and create greater glories.

Lady Wilson also learned about Claire Wilson Wilson's current situation before. Although her studio is not large, she has a lot of orders.

The Emgrand Group gave her many design orders, and the Moore family, the White family, and the Quinton family also gave her many orders.

Claire Wilson Wilson is slowly working on these orders now. If she can be allowed to return to the Wilson Group, won't she be able to bring them back too?

Thinking of this, the Lady Wilson resisted her anger and said to Elaine Ma: "Elaine Ma, we mother-in-law and daughter-in-law, we don't have any deep hatred, why should you bite on it? In my opinion, we might as well let go of our prejudices. Cooperation, what do you say?"

Elaine Ma said annoyedly: "Dead old woman, you don't give me ecstasy here, we don't have deep hatred? You forgot how your Lady's leg was broken by you? You old thing wait for me, sooner or later I want to break both of your legs!"

Lady Wilson pointed to the newly bought Bentley Continental and said seriously: "Elaine Ma, as long as your family is willing to come back, I will buy your family a Bentley exactly the same. What do you think?"

Chapter 1242

In the eyes of Mrs. Wilson, Elaine Ma loves vanity the most, and also loves taking advantage. If she really matches their home with a Bentley, she will definitely try to persuade Claire Wilson Wilson.

However, the Lady counts everything, but ignores another characteristic of Elaine Ma's humanity, that is: holding grudges!

Although Elaine Ma loves to take advantage of her, she herself is extremely vengeful.

Before that, Claire Wilson Wilson had been persuading Claire Wilson Wilson to return to the Wilson Family Group because she had no grudges with the Lady, it was nothing more than a bit of awkwardness between her mother-in-law and daughter-in-law.

In front of money, a little awkwardness will naturally not have any effect on Elaine Ma.

However, things are different now!

Elaine Ma has a deep hatred for Mrs. Wilson in his heart!

Back in the detention center, she took Gena to tortured Elaine Ma to death. Not only did she torture Elaine Ma in an unethical manner, she even broke Elaine Ma's leg when she finally left. Elaine Ma hated the Lady early in her heart. Up.

Therefore, even if the Lady really paired her with a Bentley, she couldn't dilute her hatred for the Lady.

What's more, Elaine Ma is now savvy. She knows that the person she can't offend is her son-in-law Charlie Wade. Otherwise, she might be driven out of this luxurious villa by Charlie Wade.

Now my husband wants to divorce myself, and my daughter can't help me. Of course I can't offend Charlie Wade. Otherwise, if he really angers Charlie Wade and gets kicked out of the house, wouldn't he have to wander on the street?

What's more, Elaine Ma knows how cruel this dead old woman's heart is, and Elaine Ma knows better than anyone, if she is fooled by her, she might be deceived in the future.

Therefore, she has decided not to be fooled by the Lady again.

So, she raised her eyebrows and said mockingly: "The old thing, you have said that you are a broken Bentley, even one-tenth of my son-in-law's car can't be compared, how can my Lady look at this kind of garbage? Just your family It's shameless to think of this shit as a treasure if you haven't seen anything in the world, and lick your face to my door!"

Harold blurted out: "Elaine Ma, you don't know how to raise your head here. Grandma gives you a chance to lower your head and admit your mistakes. If you don't take it well, you're still bragging? If you miss this opportunity, you won't even cry! "

Elaine Ma smiled and said: "You don't know who produced the small wild species, and said that I am bragging? Wait, my Lady will show you what a real luxury car is now!"

After speaking, Elaine Ma immediately took out the remote control key of the hospital door and pressed the open button.

In order to facilitate the owner's self-driving in and out of the villas of Thompson First, the owners are equipped with remote electric gates, so that the owners can directly use the key to remotely switch the gates and operate the gates without getting off the car.

As soon as Elaine Ma pressed the key, the opposite door began to open slowly, and the two top supercars directly facing the door were Charlie Wade.

At this moment, he was sitting in that Aston Martin, and he had just explained to Claire Wilson Wilson the operation process of this supercar in detail, and was about to take her out for a lap.

So, he pressed the red button to start the engine, and immediately after that, the 7.3-liter v12 engine exploded like 12 wildly roaring beasts.

Lady Wilson and the other Wilson family members were all startled by the loud noise that suddenly came out of the yard.

When everyone looked intently, they saw that a supercar with a fierce face like a beast had been launched, slowly approaching the open door!

Chapter 1243

Charlie Wade wanted to take his wife out for a stroll, but he didn't expect that he really wanted to use the key to open the door remotely, and the door opened by himself.

He didn't know that this was Elaine Ma's contribution, and he was wondering when he saw a black car parked at the door, and there was an Lady standing beside the car.

A closer look revealed that the Lady turned out to be Claire Wilson Wilson's grandmother!

Claire Wilson Wilson was also very surprised, not understanding why grandma was at his door.

Charlie Wade could see that there was a car next to the Lady, a Bentley Continental.

He couldn't help being surprised, how could the Wilson family have money to buy a Bentley? Is it from Donald? This grandson is really willing to work hard to disgust him.

At this time, Harold, who was sitting in the cab, saw an Aston Martin driving out of the courtyard of Charlie Wade's villa, and he was shocked to speak!

A few seconds later, Harold said with an unhappy expression: "Damn, Charlie Wade, the bastard, can actually drive an Aston Martin. How can this car cost three or four million? It's not worse than our Bentley."

When Wendy was with Gerald White, the young master of the White family, she often heard Gerald White talk about various super sports cars, so she recognized this car as the famous Aston Martin one77 at a glance!

So she hurriedly said: "Brother, this Aston Martin is not an ordinary Aston Martin, this is Aston Martin's most expensive one77, and it costs tens of millions!"

"What is it?!" Harold blurted out subconsciously as if he was struck by lightning, "You said this car is an Aston Martin one77?"

Wendy nodded.

Most people can only recognize the distinctive shark face when looking at Aston Martin, but there are specific differences between each Aston Martin, and most people cannot see it from the front face of the car. Unlike Mercedes-Benz, the cheapest Mercedes-Benz is only more than 200,000 Dollar, but the most expensive Mercedes-Benz needs to be several million or even higher. But looking at the front face of Mercedes-Benz, it is difficult for anyone to see this car at a glance. What model is it. Wendy doesn't know much about cars, but she has passively accepted some knowledge about super sports cars.

After all, she has also been Gerald White for several years. The second young master of the rich family likes to study sports cars as his favorite hobby, so Wendy can be said to be more proficient in sports cars.

When Harold heard that this Aston Martin one77 was worth tens of millions, he felt sore and hated.

Damn, I thought that by buying a Bentley Continental, I would be able to take a good look at Charlie Wade's family, but he didn't expect Charlie Wade to come out with a sports car worth tens of millions..

At this time, Harold saw a sports car parked in the yard. He recognized the sports car brand that all boys dream of, exclaimed, and blurted out: "f*ck! Isn't the one next to it a Bugatti?! Bugatti at least more than 20 million, right?"

Wendy took a look and said with a complicated expression: "Brother, that car is a limited edition co-produced by Bugatti and Hermes, and the price is more than 50 million Dollar."

"f*ck!"

Chapter 1244

Harold only felt as if he had suffered heavy blows one after another.

He was stunned and said, "How did Charlie Wade get such an expensive car for that smelly silk? And even if it is one, he actually has two!"

Christopher's face was also ugly: "It's probably that Charlie Wade fcked out to cheat people again! I don't understand. Did Aurouss Hilll's rich guys fck their brains and let the donkey kick it? How come they all believe so. Charlie Wade, this smelly hanging silk?!"

Harold was also very uncomfortable, and said angrily: "I want to know too! Damn, I've been waiting for Charlie Wade this bastard to thunder, but he is still alive now."

Wendy's eyes were red, and she said aggrieved: "If it weren't for Charlie Wade, Brother Gerald and I would have been married, our family would not have been so miserable, and my mother would not have been sent to the black coal kiln to suffer so many crimes."

? Christopher said angrily: "Don't mention that b*tch woman!"

At this moment, the Lady Wilson saw Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson driving a weird-looking car to the front, and she stepped to the side of the cab, looked at Charlie Wade in the car, and said arrogantly: What kind of awesome car did your family buy? It's just such a ragged thing. How does it look different from a Ford Mondeo? The captain of the Wilson Group's security team used to drive this car, isn't it only 200,000?" Because Aston Martin was acquired by the Ford Group, the Mondeo launched by the Ford Group in recent years has applied the most classic shark face of Aston Martin models.

So Ford Mondeo is also called Aston Mondeo.

And the sales of Ford Mondeo are pretty good, you can see it everywhere on the street.

But Aston Martin is a top sports car brand, in fact, the exposure to the people is very low, so over time, most people are more familiar with the Ford Mondeo car, and even appear like Mrs. Wilson, who mistakenly put Aspen Martin, recognizes Mondeo's situation.

Charlie Wade heard her say this, and didn't bother to be familiar with her, so he said to her: "Don't care whether my car is 200,000 or 1,000,000. You are blocking the door of my house now. Move the car quickly and I want to get out. "

Elaine Ma on the terrace upstairs looked at Mrs. Wilson, sneered and said: "Your old thing is really not long-eyed, what kind of Ford Mondeo is this, it's called Aston Martin, and I don't even know this. A face comes out to show off."

Lady Wilson looked up at Elaine Ma and yelled, "Ah your mother, my Lady has been here in heavy winds and waves for so many years. What good car I have never seen? I don't believe that such a small car can be more expensive than my Bentley! "

Although Harold usually likes to pretend to be coerced the most, but at this time he also knows that not only does it make no sense to pretend to be coerced in this way, it is self-defeating.

So he hurriedly pushed the door and got out of the car, helped the Lady, and whispered in his mouth: "Grandma, let's go home quickly."

"Go home? What home?" The Lady Wilson coldly snorted, "Today is a good day for the rebirth of our Wilson family, and a big day for the re-emergence of our Wilson family. I want this family to see clearly, don't feel that we live now. After a Thompson First villa, I am an adult. Compared to us, they are still far behind! Our family now runs a Bentley, how about them? Even a BMW can't afford to open such a small one. There's a car, and there are only two seats, what is enough for?"

Harold was embarrassed and said: "Grandma, his car is much more expensive than ours! This is a super sports car, worth tens of millions!"

"What?" Lady Wilson shivered all over, and blurted out: "It's just such a small thing, tens of millions? Is it made of gold?"

Harold's face was hot, and while pulling her into the car, he said in a low voice, "Not only is this one he drove for tens of millions, but the one parked in the yard is also tens of millions. The cars add up to almost 100 million."

Chapter 1245

When Mrs. Wilson heard that the two cars together estimated to exceed 100 million, her body shuddered.

Two cars add up to more than 100 million. What the hell is this concept? These two cars are almost the same cost of a Thompson First villa.

It took only 3 million for a car of her own, and she already felt it was incredible. According to this, Charlie Wade's car had more than 30 cars. The Lady feels uncomfortable.

I thought I was here to humiliate others, but I didn't expect it to be self-humiliating.

The point is that someone really spends so much money on such an expensive car, isn't it?

A car made of pure gold is only at this price, right?

Lady Wilson was indignant, and Harold, who was on the side, was afraid that she would be boring again, and quickly helped her to walk back to the Bentley.

Elaine Ma stood on the terrace with a sneer and said: "Oh, Lady, why are you not arrogant? Why are you so frustrated? It's not you who sits on a Bentley and sneer?"

Lady Wilson turned her back to Elaine Ma, feeling like a man on her back. She didn't need to look back to know how much ridicule and contempt Elaine Ma would have when looking at her eyes now.

This is really my own initiative to stretch my face to others and let others beat me.

If I knew this was the case, I must have avoided their home far away. Why are you here to touch this mold?

Moreover, for no apparent reason, the slut Elaine Ma broke into a basin of cold water.

I was thinking about going home and changing my clothes, but suddenly a basin of cold water was poured down.

This basin of water not only poured the Lady Wilson very heartily, but also poured Harold into embarrassment.

To talk to the usual, Harold would definitely scold the other person, but this time, he really had no face to yell at Elaine Ma.

Afterwards, he got into the cab in a panic, and drove away in a panic.

The Lady Wilson sat in the car and scolded her with anger.

Christopher in the co-pilot was also depressed, and said, "This Elaine Ma is really disgusting. She always runs me on Hannah's thing. After today, I don't know how she will change her law in the future. Run on us!"

Lady Wilson was also very upset. Originally, Donald gave them the task to make Charlie Wade sick and make Charlie Wade uncomfortable, but she didn't expect that she would be run and calculated by Charlie Wade's family ever since they moved into Thompson First. , Especially the last time I made dumplings with daffodils and almost lost half of my life in it.

Wendy on the side couldn't help sighing: "Grandma, if we always can't get a bargain in front of the Charlie Wade family, will Mr. Webb lose confidence in us and drive us out?"

"Yes, grandma!" Harold also said hurriedly: "This villa was not ours. Moreover, Donald invested in the money of our Wilson Group. It is also conditional. He Donald can ask us to return the money at any time. He, if we can't afford him, he will file a lawsuit and seal us up at that time, we will still go bankrupt, or we will have nothing."

Mrs. Wilson nodded very seriously.

She knew that her grandchildren were right. If she was unable to help Donald's worries for a longtime, then Donald might give up on herself. Thinking of this, she gritted her teeth and said: "We still have to find a way to quickly frustrate Charlie Wade's spirit."

Christopher asked, "Mom, do you have any good ideas?"

Chapter 1246

Lady Wilson shook her head.

In this situation, she really couldn't think of a good way.

Wendy said: "Grandma, or let's use the Wilson Group to suppress Claire Wilson Wilson's studio!"

"It doesn't make sense." The Lady Wilson said solemnly: "All the orders Claire Wilson Wilson got were from the Emgrand Group, the White Family, and the Quinton Family. How can you suppress her?"

"This is also..."

Wendy was very annoyed.

She has been compared by Claire Wilson Wilson in various ways all the time. This made her feel full of hatred towards Claire Wilson Wilson in her heart.

Unexpectedly, the days of Claire Wilson Wilson and Charlie Wade, not only were there no thunderstorms, but they went over and over, which made her feel very uncomfortable.

When she thought that Charlie Wade's house had two top luxury cars that even Gerald White could only hope for, she hated Claire Wilson Wilson. Why can she live such a good life?

And he is now a junior in Aurouss Hilll's famous street?

At first, I was forced to follow Kenneth Wilson, and later he was thrown to Jeffrey Weaver by Kenneth Wilson.

It was nothing more than with Jeffrey Weaver, but when following Jeffrey Weaver, instead of getting any benefit from Jeffrey Weaver, she licked a whole row of urinals in the Glorious Club with him. That incident completely discredited himself in Aurouss Hilll.

The current self is a laughingstock in Aurouss Hilll, and I don't know how many people have been poked on the backbone.

Wendy felt that all of this was given by her cousin Claire Wilson Wilson!

Therefore, she hoped to see Claire Wilson Wilson defeated more than anyone else.

So she suddenly had a vicious strategy in her heart, and she said, "Grandma, I have a good idea. If we can do it, Mr. Webb will be very pleased and may even give us a big reward."

"Oh?" Mrs. Wilson hurriedly asked, "What is the strategy? Hurry up and tell me!"

Wendy coldly said, "Isn't Charlie Wade the one who loves Claire Wilson Wilson the most? It seems that he and Claire Wilson Wilson have never been married, in other words, Claire Wilson Wilson should still be For this reason, if we set up a bureau to find someone to put Claire Wilson Wilson to sleep, and then make a video and upload it to the Internet, wouldn't Charlie Wade collapse? By then, Mr. Webb will definitely be very happy!"

Lady Wilson frowned and said, "The solution is a good solution, but you have to think clearly that Charlie Wade is still very well-connected in Aurouss Hilll. If we really do such a thing, he will definitely fight with us. Yes, he has a very good relationship with Don Albertt on the road. In case of a murder order against our family, what life do we have to find Mr. Webb to praise?"

Christopher also said with a look of horror: "This thing is absolutely impossible to do. Donald must also know that Claire Wilson Wilson is Charlie Wade's fate. Why didn't he start with Claire Wilson Wilson? It must be because he is afraid that Charlie Wade is crazy. Find him in revenge!"

"You forgot, just because his brother-in-law abducted and sold children, Charlie Wade took his brother-in-law a dozen or so people to hell. If someone provokes Claire Wilson Wilson, wouldn't he be copied by him?"

"Yeah!" Harold also panicked, and blurted out: "Wendy, your brain is pretty funny? If we really do this kind of thing, then we must be caught by Charlie Wade too!"

When Wendy heard this from her family, she was also full of fear.

She hated Claire Wilson Wilson too much just now, so she wanted to ruin her.

Just thinking of Charlie Wade's ferocious means made her back cold. At this time, Christopher suddenly said excitedly: "By the way, although we can't do anything to Claire Wilson Wilson, we can start with Elaine Ma!"

Chapter 1247

What Christopher hates most is not Hannah who cuckolded herself, but Elaine Ma who insulted and hated herself over and over again. Thinking of the more than 20 green hats fluttering in the wind on Elaine Ma's balcony, Christopher wanted to smash Elaine Ma's body into pieces. Those 20 green hats, every time they float in the wind, they are merciless lashes to him.

So he felt that if he wanted revenge, he would naturally start from Elaine Ma, which couldn't be more appropriate. And most importantly, revenge on Elaine Ma will not arouse Charlie Wade's hatred.

Otherwise, if everyone started to attack Claire Wilson Wilson, it would be tantamount to touching Charlie Wade's inverse scales, and it would very likely cause a murderous disaster.

Even Donald didn't dare to attack Claire Wilson Wilson, so naturally his family couldn't cause that trouble.

Christopher's proposal was immediately approved by the whole family. During this period of time, Elaine Ma has always spared no effort to mock their family, and has deeply angered everyone. She finds a breakthrough from her, finds a way to fix her, and can also relieve the whole family. Therefore, Harold hurriedly asked: "Dad, what is a good way, tell us quickly!"

Christopher gritted her teeth and said: "Find an opportunity to ruin her, make her the laughingstock of the people of the whole country, and let her feel the feeling of being pierced by countless people!"

Speaking of this, Christopher said again: "Also! It's better to get her a STD too!"

Harold said in surprise: "Dad! Are you going to do it yourself?"

When Christopher heard this, he was furious and slapped him in the face. He cursed, "You f*ck me! The dog can't spit out ivory! Give me my hand? Just Elaine Ma? She deserves it too!"

In fact, both Elaine Ma and Hannah are mature women with lingering charm. However, these two charming women are in a bit miserable situation. Needless to say, Hannah had just miscarried and had a venereal disease that had not yet been cured. Now she was beaten by her husband and was lying in the hospital with her injuries and treated with venereal diseases.

Elaine Ma is also miserable now, with her broken leg still in plaster, and her two front teeth were broken again. How can she still have the original charm? No man was interested in it.

Harold slapped him, and said aggrievedly: "Dad, you said you wanted her to contract a venereal disease, and I thought you were going to do it yourself..."

Christopher cursed: "Can't you find someone else to start?"

Harold said, "Who are you looking for?"

"I don't know! Look for it, look for the young and strong one, preferably the one who is sick!"

Harold said awkwardly: "This is really not found..."

Christopher smacked his lips and said, "I'll find it, even if I can't find the sick, I have to find someone to take care of her!"

.....

Chapter 1248

The next day, Claire Wilson Wilson's high school classmates got married. The couple drove a supercar at dawn and set off from Thompson First to Levy County, a suburb of Arouss Hilll.

Levy County is about 60 kilometers away from the city center. Although it is a little far away, it is fortunate that there is a direct highway. Claire Wilson Wilson's high school classmate lives in the suburbs of Levy County. When the two followed the navigation and came to the community where each other lived, they discovered that it turned out to be an old community with a house age of at least 20 or 30 years.

All the houses in this community are no more than 6 stories, and the houses are built very densely. The green paint on the outside of the house is already mottled, revealing the color of cement.

The entrance of the community is very narrow, and there are relatively high speed bumps. In addition, you can see that the road occupation inside is very serious. It is not the garbage cans that occupy the road, or the tricycle bicycles, motorcycles or others. The dilapidated car was parked against the road, so it was very narrow inside.

Charlie Wade drove the Bugatti in front, glanced at the entrance of the community, and called Claire Wilson Wilson, the wife of the car behind, and said, "My wife, the road conditions in this community are too complicated. I guess the chassis of our sports car is so Low, I can't drive in at all, or let's park the car and walk in."

Claire Wilson Wilson said, "Okay, stop first, and I will stop after you."

Charlie Wade leaned the car on the side of the road very well, and his wife Claire Wilson Wilson also parked the car behind him.

The two got off the car, and passers-by in the early morning saw these two top luxury cars suddenly come to this economically depressed small county. They stopped and took pictures with their phones.

Charlie Wade didn't want to be too ostentatious, so he pulled Claire Wilson Wilson into the community.

Fortunately, the two came early, so there are not many passers-by now, otherwise, I am afraid that they will be surrounded by water.

It was only 7:40 in the morning. After Claire Wilson Wilson and Charlie Wade entered the community together, they couldn't help but sigh: "I visited her house once when I was in high school, and her family lived here at that time. I think their family still lives here for so many years."

Charlie Wade looked at the dilapidated building and couldn't help sighing: "The house shouldn't be much bigger, right?"

Claire Wilson Wilson gave a hum, and said, "Their house is a two-bedroom house, which adds up to more than 60 square meters."

Charlie Wade asked curiously: "How do you live in a two-bedroom house with 4 people? Didn't you say that she has a younger brother?"

"Yes." Claire Wilson Wilson said: "The family can't afford a big house, so she and her brother lived in the same room since they were young.

Later, she went to school in another place. When she graduated from college, her brother was also a big boy. It's impossible for two people to live in another room, so my classmate went to Arouss Hilll to work hard, and rented a house in Arouss Hilll."

As she said, she sighed and said, "Isn't she going to get married today, she has to get married from her natal according to the rules, so she came here last night and waited for her to get married this morning."

Charlie Wade nodded lightly and said, "If someone in any community marries a girl, at least they will get a rainbow gate at the gate of the community, and write on it the joy and celebration of the daughter's going out of the pavilion, why are you? Didn't the classmates make it at home? I can't tell at all when I walked in. Today someone is going to get married."

Claire Wilson Wilson helplessly said: "Her mother's family didn't want her to marry because the other party didn't give the bride price, but she was pregnant? So there is no other way. I heard her say that her mother's family is very angry and will not wait. Seeing her, she also said that if she is married today, the whole family will not go there. If you want to leave, let her go alone."

Charlie Wade couldn't help but said, "This is a bit too much. Why is it her own daughter. If she is going to marry, parents and younger brother can't even go there? It's too impersonal."

Claire Wilson Wilson said with some sympathy: "My classmate is very pitiful. Her parents have told her long ago that no matter who she marries, as long as she can give the family 300,000 gift money, it will be good for his brother to buy an apartment. ."

"But she insisted on marrying this person, and her husband's family didn't give her the gift money, so her parents and brother wanted her to knock off the child and find a man who could give the gift money."

"But she didn't agree with her life and death, so her parents hated her very much, even her brother hated her very much. If we don't come to help her today, I guess she can only get married by herself."

Chapter 1249

Hearing this, Charlie Wade asked Claire Wilson Wilson curiously: "What? She got married today, did she inform you of an old classmate?"

"Yeah..." Claire Wilson Wilson said: "She wants me to help her, otherwise she can't handle it alone, I originally wanted her to find a few old classmates to help her. , Even if it is to cheer up, but she is not willing."

Charlie Wade said helplessly, "I guess I don't want to lose face in front of so many students, it's understandable."

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded and said, "I have never seen her so poor. On such an important day of marriage, her maiden-in-law's family will add obstacles to her..."

As he said, Claire Wilson Wilson couldn't help sighing: "Charlie Wade, actually I really think it's good to marry you. If I'm really asked by my family to marry young masters from rich people, I don't know what I will be bullied by my husband."

Charlie Wade's expression was a bit awkward.

My own wife doesn't know yet, the rubbish husband she married is the young master of the top family in the country.

Seeing that his expression was a bit wrong, Claire Wilson Wilson thought he was angry, and explained hurriedly: "Charlie Wade, don't think too much, I have no other meaning, just want to say that marrying you is fine! "

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled and asked her, "If someday I become the young master of a rich family, what will you do?"

Claire Wilson Wilson smiled and said, "What you said is not true, because you are an orphan and you cannot be the young master of a rich family."

Charlie Wade said: "I'm just making an analogy, what if I am?"

Claire Wilson Wilson smiled and said, "If you really are the young master of some rich man, then I will divorce you."

Charlie Wade asked in surprise, "Are you serious?"

Claire Wilson Wilson chuckled: "What about you, hurry up, this is the building, let's go upstairs!"

Charlie Wade shook his head helplessly, and followed her into the old staircase unit.

What surprised him was that today was the day when his wife and classmates got married, and they all walked to the door of the unit. The family still didn't even post a happy word. It seemed that they hadn't made any preparations for a girl to marry.

The couple walked up the stairs together. When they reached the third floor, they heard someone arguing and yelling.

"You money loser, you are really prepared to marry their house if you don't want a penny? If you just marry like this, I won't be allowed to be stabbed to death by someone in the future?"

The speaker was a middle-aged woman, and her voice sounded very pungent, which matched Elaine Ma.

Chapter 1250

At this time, I heard a middle-aged man shout in a cold voice: "This grandson's family is really deceiving people too much. The children are pregnant with them, and they don't even give a penny as a gift. Are they not afraid to beat the child?"

A young man replied: "The talents of the family are not afraid. They wish my sister beat the child, because they don't look down on my sister at all. They always think that my sister is behind their home."

After finishing speaking, he said again: "Sister, why do you have to marry the grandson? The bastard's family is so bad. You can ask about it in our community. Whose daughter did not give the betrothal gift? My good buddy said his sister, married to an ordinary family in the next county town, and the family gave 280,000 dollars. Now Steve has paid down payment to buy a house in the county. The down payment was made with his sister's gift, and his sister returned 50,000 Dollar for the decoration. If you marry the grandson, what can I do in the future!"

"That's right! I don't think I'm too embarrassed by yourself. I have to think about it for your brother? Your brother is 22 this year. It's when he was looking for a partner to get married. How many little girls do you choose now? There is no house at home. Get him ready, which girl is willing to have sex with others?"

At this time, I heard a woman grievingly said: "I love Steve sincerely, and I will not spend his money when I am with him."

"Really love each other?" The middle-aged woman sneered and sternly said: "I yuck! If the bastard Steve really loves you, how could he treat you this way? I won't give you a gift without a penny, or even get married. If you don't come to pick it up, you can't let you go on your own for dozens of kilometers? Is this a f*cking human business?"

The young man yelled: "The dog Steve just doesn't look down on us at all. He thinks our family is poor and can't match their family, so he doesn't put our family in his eyes, and he won't come to pick up the bride on the wedding day. Steve, this kind of thing, I haven't heard of it when I grow up."

After finishing speaking, he said again: "Sister! If you marry so silly today, my parents and I will lose face in Levy County!"

The woman said: "You don't need to talk any more, I have made up my mind. I must marry today. Even if I rent out by myself, I will marry him." After finishing speaking, she said again: "Magnificence is really not as bad as you think. He just can't be his mother's home. Everything in his family is his mother's decision. He was really willing to give the bride price at first, but his mother Disagree, Carden also said that after he gets married, his finances will be separated from his mother. Then he will save more money and 300,000 to supply you, then you can buy a house for your brother!"

"Huh? Wait two years?" The middle-aged woman scolded: "Your brother is 22 this year, and we will wait two more days to reach 24. We are still thinking about holding our grandson next year. Is it because of him we have to go back Wait two years?"

"Furthermore, I don't believe what Steve said at all. He said that in two years, what if he doesn't make up the money? By then, you will be married and have a child. You will be worthless. It's second-hand. What will your dad and I take to buy a house for your brother?"

The young woman said, "Mom, I have been with Steve for a few years. I know what kind of person he is, and he will do it when he says it."

"What the f*ck is magnificent." The middle-aged woman said angrily: "I tell you Isabella, our family of three will never allow you to marry Steve. If you still recognize our family, you will have your child I beat and broke up with that Steve completely, but if you dare to leave this house today, the three of us will cut off all relations with you, and you will be cut off from our family from now on!"

The middle-aged man said coldly: "You have heard what your mother said. What your mother said is what your brother said. If you want to go out of this door today, you should make your own decisions. Go out and never come back again!"

The young woman cried and said, "Dad, mom, are you trying to force me to death? Even if you don't love me, you have to love the child in my stomach?"

The young man said, "Sister, do you want such a maternal love? You are only two months pregnant. What kind of child is in your belly? Isn't it just a fertilized egg?"

When Claire Wilson Wilson heard this, he sighed, and said, "It is my high school classmates who are talking. It seems that their family does not want her to marry today..."

Charlie Wade nodded: "I heard it. Her younger brother is waiting for her gift money to buy a house. In his eyes, his sister is his cash cow. How could she just let her go in vain."

Chapter 1251

At this time, the insults upstairs had escalated.

The middle-aged woman scolded angrily: "Why did I give birth to a money-losing woman like you? I worked so hard to support you to study and go to college. You haven't made money for your family for two years, so you rushed to give birth to others. My child, I knew you were such an unconscionable thing. When you were born, you shouldve been thrown away!" The young woman cried and said, "Mom, I go to college and rely on student loans. I still repay the loan. At that time, you didn't want me to go to college. You wanted me to marry as soon as I was 18. Said that the earlier a girl marries, the more valuable it is."

"I tried my best to get admitted to the university. You still didn't let me go to school. You almost tore up my admission letter and threatened me that if I went to university, you wouldn't pay me a cent for living expenses. These things Have you forgotten?"

"Now you say you worked so hard to provide me for college. Have you provided me a penny?"

The middle-aged woman scolded angrily: "The Lady gave birth to you to be the greatest favor to you. You don't know how to be grateful, and you're still clamoring with me here, turning you back!"

The young woman cried and said, "I don't want to yell at you, I just want to reason with you!"

"The four years I was in college were not easy. All my living expenses had to rely on me to work and make money."

"But I am a girl who is not in good health and often gets sick. The little money earned by working is not enough."

"In school, if it weren't for Steve, who had been helping me take care of me, I might not have been able to graduate from college at all! I might have starved to death!"

"Steve knew about my family situation at that time, but he never disliked me, so as long as he is willing to marry, I am willing to marry, even if there is no gift of a penny, I am still willing to marry!"

The middle-aged man scolded, "You bastard, do you think the bride price is for you to decide? Do you think the bride price is for you? The bride price is for your brother to buy a house. Your brother will marry a wife and give birth. My child, this money will depend on the inheritance of our family! If you don't have a penny and you just marry like this, wouldn't you want to drive your mother and me to death?"

The young girl stubbornly said: "No matter what, I will marry Steve today, even if I take a taxi to Aurouss Hilll to marry him, or even walk to marry him, I will marry!"

There was a crisp sound.

The middle-aged man scolded angrily: "You're a shameless loser! You patted your butt and left, leaving our family of three here. We are just a 30-year old house. Your brother married a wife and had children?"

When Claire Wilson Wilson heard that he had started upstairs, he immediately pulled Charlie Wade and said, "Let's go over quickly!"

Originally, Claire Wilson Wilson felt that it was indeed inappropriate for this family of four to argue about themselves as an outsider at home, and now it is somewhat embarrassing to go upstairs.

But when she heard the hand slap upstairs, she didn't care about it.

The couple rushed to the 5th floor, and Claire Wilson Wilson immediately slapped the door of 501.

After a while.

A wicked young man opened the door and looked at Claire Wilson Wilson and Charlie Wade vigilantly: "Who are you looking for?"

Claire Wilson Wilson said, "Are you Jon? I'm Claire Wilson Wilson, your sister's high school classmate, do you remember me?"

Upon hearing this, the ailing young man immediately said in surprise:

"Oh, it's Claire Wilson Wilson! Of course I remember you! Claire Wilson Wilson, I haven't seen you in a few years, you are more beautiful than before!"

Charlie Wade saw that this kid saw his wife's eyes full of scorching heat, and he was a little dissatisfied. He asked Claire Wilson Wilson, "Wife, who is this little brother?"

Claire Wilson Wilson introduced: "This is Jon Stark, the brother of my high school classmate Isabella Stark."

Chapter 1252

After speaking, he introduced Jon: "Jon, this is my husband Charlie Wade."

"Husband?" Jon asked in surprise: "Sister Claire Wilson Wilson, are you married?"

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded and smiled: "I have been married for more than three years. Where is your sister? Is she at home?"

At this moment, a girl with red five-fingerprints on her face came over, pretending to smile and said: "You are here at first!"

This girl is also pretty and has a good figure. She can definitely be regarded as the upper-middle class.

It's just that the girl is wearing a very cheap wedding dress, and it can even be seen that the lace part of the wedding dress is a little off.

A man and a woman walked out of the room again. The couple looked like they were in their early fifties with a cold expression. Looking at

Claire Wilson Wilson, they asked Isabella, "Who are these two people? They come. What are you doing?"

Isabella said: "Claire Wilson Wilson is my high school classmate. She has been to our house before, but you two may have forgotten."

Claire Wilson Wilson said politely: "Hello, aunt and uncle. By the way, I haven't introduced you yet. This is my husband Charlie Wade."

Charlie Wade nodded slightly at the family, without speaking.

The middle-aged woman questioned suspiciously: "Isabella, what does it mean for the two of them to come to our house?"

Isabella said, "I ask Claire Wilson Wilson to drive and take me to Aurouss Hilll."

"What?!" The middle-aged woman gritted her teeth and cursed: "You loser are really determined to marry that bastard?!"

Isabella nodded, and said stubbornly: "If I make up my mind, it won't change!"

After finishing speaking, she said to Claire Wilson Wilson: "Claire Wilson Wilson, I'm sorry to trouble you, so I made a special trip so far."

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly said, "Isabella, what are you doing so politely with me?"

Isabella smiled with satisfaction and said: "Claire Wilson Wilson, it's not too early, it will take a long time to drive, or let's start now."

"Good." Claire Wilson Wilson nodded and said, "Then let's go now."

"Wait a minute!"

At this time, the middle-aged man with a fierce face stood in front of Isabella and said coldly: "You are a loser, the more you talk about you, the more capable you are, right?"

"I'm telling you, even if the king of heaven is here today, you can't take her out of this door!"

"Also, I have already greeted your sister-in-law. She has an acquaintance in the obstetrics and gynecology department of the county hospital. She can also work overtime to help with an operation on weekends. You will honestly follow me to the county hospital to get the baby Get rid of it, and don't deal with that bastard Steve from now on!"

"Impossible!" Isabella said categorically: "I cannot kill my child, and no one can stop me from marrying Steve. Unless it is Steve who does not want to marry me, otherwise, even if you want Cut off relations with me, and I want to marry today!"

The middle-aged man immediately picked up a rolling pin that was as thin as his wrist, and pointed it directly at Isabella's face with the tip of the rolling pin, and cursed with his canthus: "If you dare to go out of this door, I will hit your leg. Broke! Even if I break your leg, I can sell you to the disabled in the countryside for 200,000 Dollar. Saying nothing will make you cheap for that Steve!"

Chapter 1253

Charlie Wade hadn't spoken all the time, but when he saw Isabella's father, he even picked up the rolling pin and suddenly became angry. It's nothing more than talking cold words and personality attacks and insults. After all, he was his wife who came to help send off his relatives, not to take care of other people's housework, so all he thought was to drive the car and leave quickly to complete the task of sending off the relatives.

However, seeing that the other three people, parents and younger brother, are such assholes, he is really intolerable.

So he blocked his wife Claire Wilson Wilson and Isabella behind him, looked at Isabella's father, and said coldly: "Do you know that all your actions are illegal? You interfere with your children's marriage? Freedom is against morality; personal assault is against the law; the intention to sell his daughter is against the criminal law!"

Isabella's father said in a cold expression, "How old are you? What does our family's affairs have to do with you? Before I kick you out, you dare to pretend to be in my house? "

Charlie Wade said with a shame: "Today is forced, I still pretend to be!" After that, he said to Claire Wilson Wilson and Isabella: "It's getting late, let's leave now, if anyone dares to stop, I will not forgive him!" In fact, Isabella is now in a hurry, because if he goes to the hotel prepared by her mother-in-law and misses the auspicious time booked by her mother-in-law, she will definitely be even more dissatisfied with herself.

It doesn't matter if her mother-in-law gives her face, the point is, she doesn't want her mother-in-law to put pressure on her fiancé.

In fact, her mother-in-law has always looked down upon herself, and she has been desperately preventing her fiancé from marrying her, because their family really feels that the situation in their family is too far from them and is not worthy of their family.

However, the fiancé has been under pressure and repeatedly said that he did not want to marry. This time, the two of them used the method of unmarried first pregnancy in order to get married. Finally, it was considered as a compromise with the in-laws.

Therefore, it doesn't matter if your in-laws embarrass yourself a little.

As long as today, you will be able to be with your fiancé in good faith.

So she seriously said to her parents and brothers: "I know you are very dissatisfied with me, but for the past two decades, I have always obeyed your instructions, obeyed your wishes, and taken into account your feelings. , The only thing that didn't follow you was to enter the university. Now, it's the second time that you didn't follow you. I hope you can consider it for me. After all, I am also a human being, not the assets and tools of the Stark family. I also pursue happiness. right!"

"You pursue a fart!" Isabella's father shouted angrily: "I will never allow you to step out of this door today!"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "You are not qualified to stop this matter today. You dare to stop and try."

Isabella's brother yelled angrily: "Damn! She won't let me get married, then she won't even want to get married! You outsider don't get out of the way, be careful that I f*cking kill you!"

Charlie Wade raised his hand and slapped him sharply, slapped him to the ground with a slap, and turned around several times.

When Isabella's father saw that his precious son had been beaten, he gritted his teeth and picked up the rolling pin, and swung at Charlie Wade's head.

"Our Stark family has a single pass for several generations. If you dare to beat my son, I will kill you!"

Seeing the strength of the opponent's smashing at Charlie Wade, Claire Wilson Wilson was big enough to smash a person's head into a scoop, and said nervously, "Charlie Wade, be careful!"

Charlie Wade didn't move, just looking at the oncoming rolling pin, the next second, he waved his hand violently, and directly cut the thick wooden rolling pin with his bare hands!

Chapter 1254

Isabella's father used all his strength and felt that the stick was hitting hard steel. Then, a violent vibration came from the tiger's mouth. He immediately let go of his hand and hugged himself because of the pain. Screamed at his wrist.

Look at the rolling pin, it has been broken in two!

This shocked Isabella's father!

Such a hard rolling pin can also be cut by hand, and the other party seems to have nothing at all. This guy looks like a practitioner!

How can I afford such a character? In case he beats himself into a concussion with a punch, he will find someone to make sense. After all, he is just an old sling with no money and no power. After being beaten, there is no way to find someone to help avenge...

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but become jealous of Charlie Wade. Seeing that he was afraid to step forward, Charlie Wade said to Claire Wilson Wilson and Isabella: "Let's go."

Although Isabella's brother and younger brother were full of anger, they did not dare to step forward to stop them at this moment.

Isabella's mother sat on the ground and cried and cried, "You have no conscience. I raised a daughter like you and really blinded my dog! If you just leave like this, go and marry That Steve, I will just jump directly from our stairs, and let me die!"

"Mom..." Isabella cried and knelt down and begged: "I beg you to fulfill me this time. Give me two years. I must find a way to make more money for my brother. For the first payment of a house, if you agree, I will do what I say. If you don't agree, then I have nothing to do. No matter how you force me, I must marry Steve for the sake of the child in my stomach today! "

Isabella's mother cried hoarsely: "I don't care, your brother can't wait for two years. You must buy the house within half a year at most. If you agree, give your brother a note, oh no, it's better to give Your brother writes an IOU of 300,000 Dollar, and the IOU states that it will be repaid within half a year. If you write it, I will let you go. If you don't write it, I will show it to you!"

"Yes!" Isabella's younger brother Jon also hurriedly said: "Sister, you write me an IOU. I will go back to the blind date. People ask me about the house, so I can use the IOU to talk about things and let the girl relax. Heart!"

Isabella collapsed, and blurted out, "Where do you think I will get 300,000 Dollar in half a year! Are you trying to force me to death?" Isabella's mother yelled: "If you don't force yourself, how can you know how good you are? Anyway, you have to write this 300,000 IOU today, or if you don't write it!"

"Impossible!" Isabella completely gave up, stood up, and said blankly: "I can't live for you for everything. Since you don't agree to my solution, then forget it and you will not support me. This daughter."

After she finished speaking, she was cruel and said to Claire Wilson Wilson: "Claire Wilson Wilson, let's go."

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded and took her down the stairs. Charlie Wade followed behind, staring at the family of three.

The two men did not dare to come forward. The woman saw Isabella really gone, so she cried and said: "Things with no conscience, go, and I will jump down here when you go. You wait. Collect the corpse for me!"

This time, Isabella did not look back, nor did he wipe the tears that kept falling.

After the three of them went downstairs, Jon said anxiously: "Dad, Mom, she just married like this, what can I do! If I can't ask a wife, then I will die!"

As soon as Isabella's mother heard this, she immediately got up from the ground, ignoring the dirt on her ass, gritted her teeth and said: "Go! Even if you are lying under the wheel today, I will stop her!"

Chapter 1255

When Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson took Isabella all the way out of the community, Isabella was still wiping tears.

Claire Wilson Wilson was always comforting, but Charlie Wade didn't come forward wisely.

When they came out of the community, the two people parked two supercars on the side of the road, and the passers-by who had been competing for a photo surrounded them.

Charlie Wade stepped forward to separate the crowd in front of the Aston Martin, and then opened the passenger's door to let Isabella sit in first.

Looking at the Aston Martin one77 in front of her, Isabella was stunned. She asked in surprise: "Claire Wilson Wilson, this car..."

Claire Wilson Wilson smiled and said, "My husband asked his friend to borrow this. Don't worry, these two supercars drove to your in-laws' house, and they will definitely save you face!"

Isabella said guiltily: "Claire Wilson Wilson, I meant that your BMW was already very good when you saw it. I didn't expect you to find a friend to borrow a car for me, and to take favors in front and back. How embarrassed."

Claire Wilson Wilson said earnestly: "Isabella, we have been classmates for many years, and we are still good sisters. I must do my best when you get married for such a big thing. Do you still have to be polite to me for this kind of thing? "

With that, she patted Isabella on the shoulder and smiled: "Okay, don't be so polite. Get in the car quickly, we have to go back, otherwise it will be too late."

Isabella nodded lightly with red eyes, and said seriously: "Claire Wilson Wilson, thank you!"

Claire Wilson Wilson gave her a comforting smile, then helped her and sat in this Aston Martin.

At this time, Isabella's family who rushed over suddenly saw them and rushed over.

Seeing that the other party drove two weird-looking cars, Isabella's mother hurriedly said to her husband: "You lie in the front and I lie in the back!"

Isabella's father nodded, and then the couple lay under the wheel one after another.

Isabella's mother sullen her heart and shouted coldly: "If you want to leave today, we will run over the two of us!"

At this moment, Jon was a little dumbfounded.

His parents don't know super sports cars, but as a young man, he is a stinky silk who dreams of having a lot of money all day long. He is naturally very familiar with sports cars.

So he recognized the origins of these two cars at a glance, and he was astonished as if struck by lightning!

There are tens of millions of luxury cars, and there are no two of these in Aurouss Hilll.

The only one of these cars are here.

So Jon was very frightened. He couldn't figure out why Claire Wilson Wilson and her husband could afford to drive two such expensive top luxury cars?

Could it be that her husband has a big background?

Thinking of this, Jon couldn't help but trembled.

Can afford to drive such an expensive luxury car, that proves that the other party's worth is more than billions.

If you irritate each other, your family still wants to survive?

At this moment, Charlie Wade looked at Jon and said lightly: "I am not a very good person, and my endurance is not very strong. I will give you 10 seconds to solve this, otherwise you will take the consequences."

Charlie Wade is also very clear that it is impossible for a young man like Jon not to know Aston Martin and Bugatti Veyron. As long as he can recognize this car, he knows that he is someone he can't afford. In this case, he will definitely take his disgusting parents away.

When Jon heard Charlie Wade say this, his whole body trembled with fright, and hurriedly reached out to pull his mother, and said anxiously: "Mom, get up quickly, how can you lie here!"

His mother curled her eyebrows and said, "How can I change your house if I don't lie here? Did your brain kick the donkey?"

Jon almost cried. He lowered his voice and gritted his teeth in his mother's ear and said, "Mom, are you crazy? We can't afford these two people! The two cars alone are worth 100 million!"

Chapter 1256

"What the hell?!"

When Jon's mother heard this, her eyes suddenly became dark!

One hundred million, what is this concept?

Even if there are 1 million, he is already a very rich man in his own eyes. If there are 10 million, he is a big man who can't afford to provoke, and a hundred million is just like a god.

What's more, people are not worth 100 million Dollar, but they drive two cars, and only two cars are worth 100 million Dollar!

Thinking of this, she hurriedly asked: "What you said is true. Are these two weird cars really worth so much money?"

Jon nodded like smashing garlic, and while pulling her, he said: "Can I still lie to you? You think I don't want a house. But in this case, how can we force it... just in case you offend a big man? , Our family has suffered!"

Jon's mother shivered in shock, and quickly got up from the ground, and then went to the other end to pull her husband.

Jon's father still didn't understand what was going on, so Jon whispered in her ear again.

It didn't matter to say that, his face turned pale with fright.

Jon said to Charlie Wade with fear and respect: "Brother, I'm sorry to trouble you, I hope you will not remember the villain..."

Seeing that the family hid wisely, Charlie Wade said in a cold voice: "Okay, if you know each other, I don't want to see you anymore. Get out quickly and keep rolling, otherwise you will be at your own risk!"

Jon quickly complimented and said: "Don't worry, big brother, let's get out of here, get out of here."

Charlie Wade ignored them, got into the cab of the Bugatti Veyron, started the engine, and started the car first.

At this time, his mobile phone received a text WeChat from Claire Wilson Wilson, the content read: "Husband, do you know a friend who makes a wedding dress? I want to pay for Isabella to rent a better wedding dress, her set The wedding dress is too old."

Charlie Wade's five fingers flew, and he returned a message to his wife: "Count on me."

Claire Wilson Wilson sent another message: "Height is about the same as me, just a little thinner than me. Look at me and help me determine the size. Thank you husband!"

Charlie Wade replied: "Wife, don't be so polite with your husband."

Later, while driving, he called Jasmine.

After all, it is something that girls like wedding dresses are very concerned about. He thinks that if you look for big bosses like Don Albertt or Cameron Isaac, they definitely don't know much about it. However, Jasmine must be very knowledgeable about these, and it must be right to find her.

Jasmine didn't expect to receive Charlie Wade's call early in the morning, and she was immediately overjoyed.

Since I took the initiative to give a kiss to Charlie Wade on his birthday, I haven't seen Charlie Wade again, mainly because there is no good opportunity and excuse.

She was a little scared at first, afraid that Charlie Wade would alienate herself in the future, but now she received his call and she immediately relieved her heart.

So she couldn't hide her joy and asked, "Master Wade, what can you do with me?"

Charlie Wade asked her: "Jasmine, do you know who has the best wedding dress in Aurouss Hilll?"

"Wedding dress?!" Jasmine asked in surprise: "Master Wade, what do you want to do with the wedding dress?"

Charlie Wade said: "My wife's high school classmate got married today, but lacks a decent wedding dress, so I want to ask if you can help me solve one."

Jasmine smiled and said, "Of course you can! It is an honor for me to work for Master Wade!"

After speaking, she explained: "Yes, I forgot to tell you. The only Vera Wang bridal shop in the province is invested by me. There are many top wedding dresses designed and made by Vera Wang. You know your wife's classmates Body size? I will prepare a set that fits you."

Chapter 1257

Vera Wang is the world's most famous Chinese wedding dress designer. Even when the daughter of former US President Bill Clinton got married, she wore wedding dresses designed by her.

David Beckham's wife Victoria wore the wedding dress she designed when she married Beckham, and the famous Britney Spears and the granddaughter of the Macau gambling king all wore her wedding dress to the wedding hall. .

With Vera Wang's international influence, she generally only opens stores in top big cities around the world. The reason why she will open her store in the second-tier city of Aurouss Hill is mainly because she has a good personal relationship with Jasmine, and Jasmine likes her designs very much. So Jasmine invested in a shop.

Generally speaking, the price of a wedding dress designed by Vera Wang is more than several hundred thousand Dollar.

The vast majority of people are just hopeless.

Charlie Wade knew very well that his wife Claire Wilson was in Isabella's house. After seeing that she had been treated unfairly, he must hope to help this poor classmate raise his eyebrows.

Therefore, when Jasmine said that he wanted to prepare Vera Wang's wedding dress for him, he agreed without hesitation.

However, he knew in his heart that everything needed a degree, so he said to Jasmine, "Jasmine, this is just my wife's high school classmate, so you don't put too much energy into it, and don't put a brand new value expensive. Bring the wedding dress. It's best if you use the wedding dress you rent out. Just bring it and lend me a day."

Jasmine said hurriedly: "Master Wade, what are you polite to me, it's a wedding gift I gave to your wife's classmate."

Charlie Wade said earnestly: "No need Jasmine, if it is given, this matter will change its flavor."

As he said, he said again: "The ancients said, "Give me enlightenment and fight my grudges. Giving enough is a kindness. If you give too much, it might turn into hatred. My wife just wants her classmates to wear a beautiful wedding dress. So borrowing for one day is enough."

Although Charlie Wade is the young master of the Wade family, he has been struggling all the way at the bottom for many years, seeing a lot of ugliness of human nature. He knows very well in his heart that sometimes helping people cannot be too thorough.

Sometimes, some things are not done as perfect as possible, but to be just right. Otherwise, the effect must be too far.

It's like a friend's child is sick and hospitalized and needs to borrow 20,000 Dollar, and you are really able to help, then you can lend him 20,000 Dollar.

If 20,000 Dollar is not enough by the time, let's talk about the problem of not being enough, but you can't take the initiative to give others 200,000 Dollar when others open to borrow 20,000 Dollar.

Jasmine also knew Charlie Wade's intentions, so she hurriedly said, "Master Wade, please rest assured, Jasmine understands in her heart, I will let people prepare a wedding dress specially for rent."

"Okay." Charlie Wade said satisfied: "Well, I am going to go directly to the hotel now. If you are ready there, then I can take her to your bridal shop first, put on her wedding dress and then go to the hotel. "

"No problem!" Jasmine hurriedly said, "Then I will send you the address of the bridal shop!"

Soon, Charlie Wade received a location on WeChat.

He directly changed this positioning into the navigation destination, and drove directly to lead the wife and Isabella behind, towards Jasmine's bridal shop.

The two top supercars got off the highway and drove all the way into the city. However, they did not go directly to the Hilton Hotel where Isabella had her wedding today.

Isabella found that the route didn't seem right, and asked Claire Wilson Wilson beside him in surprise: "Claire Wilson Wilson, did you take the wrong way? The Hilton Hotel is not this way."

Claire Wilson Wilson smiled slightly and said, "It's okay, let's just follow Charlie Wade. Our car drives faster on this road, so time is still early."

Isabella wanted to ask what happened, but after thinking about it, she gave up.

Chapter 1258

She felt that Claire Wilson Wilson was so good to herself, he would definitely not harm herself.

Charlie Wade drove the car directly to Jasmine's bridal shop.

When he stopped the car, even Claire Wilson Wilson was a little surprised.

I just asked him to find a friend and borrow a better wedding dress, but I didn't expect him to borrow it here!

This is the brand store of the world's top wedding dress designer Vera Wang!

Even Claire Wilson Wilson herself did not dare to expect to have the opportunity to wear such a top wedding dress.

Unexpectedly, my husband still has resources in this area. Isn't it a bridal shop, should he also look at Feng Shui? When he was thinking, Charlie Wade had already pushed the door and got out of the car.

At this time, a tall, charming, and noble woman walked out of the bridal shop. Claire Wilson Wilson discovered that this woman he knew, and she was the eldest of the Moore family, Jasmine.

Jasmine came to congratulate her when her studio first opened.

At that time, Claire Wilson Wilson felt that in front of a wealthy lady like Jasmine, she was indeed a little inferior and somewhat at a loss as to what to do.

At this time, seeing Jasmine again, Claire Wilson Wilson's heart suddenly retreated, and he didn't want to get out of the car to face her.

However, when she thought that she had to help Isabella try on the wedding dress, it was impossible to hide in the car forever, so she had to bite the bullet and walk down.

Jasmine had already arrived in front of Charlie Wade at this time, and respectfully said with an affectionate smile on her face, "Master Wade, you are here."

Charlie Wade asked curiously: "Why are you here too?"

Jasmine smiled and said, "Master Wade, you have a wedding dress requirement. Naturally Jasmine will come to serve you in person."

As she was talking, she suddenly saw Claire Wilson Wilson walking down from the Aston Martin one77 behind him, her expression flashed with envy and jealousy, and said to Charlie Wade: "Madam Wade is here too."

Charlie Wade nodded. At this moment, Isabella got out of the car anxiously, so Charlie Wade said to Jasmine, "The one next to me is my wife's high school classmate. Today is her getting married, so please prepare for her as soon as possible. A wedding dress that fits, we have to go after we put on the wedding dress."

Upon hearing this, Jasmine said to Claire Wilson Wilson and Isabella quickly: "Mrs. Wade, and this lady, please move to the store to try the wedding dress."

Isabella saw the huge brand logo on the door and found that this was Vera Wang's bridal shop. He exclaimed: "Claire Wilson Wilson, this...what does this mean?"

Claire Wilson Wilson was shocked himself, but still pretended to be calm and said: "I asked Charlie Wade to help you borrow a more suitable wedding dress, so he brought us here."

With that said, she said to Jasmine somewhat unnaturally: "Miss Moore, I didn't expect you to be here. I don't want to trouble you with this matter today."

Jasmine smiled indifferently and said seriously: "Mrs. Wade, you don't have to be so polite with me. You and Master Wade are both my distinguished guests. As long as you speak up, I will definitely serve you both."

Afterwards, she stood dignified and made a gesture of asking, saying, "Please come inside!"

Chapter 1259

Claire Wilson Wilson and Isabella were a little nervous, wondering if they should go in at this time.

Both of them knew that this brand of wedding dresses were expensive, and they were definitely not affordable for ordinary people.

In general bridal shops, a slightly higher-end custom wedding dress can cost tens of thousands of dollars a day.

The wedding dress designed by Vera Wang can be rented for one day at least six figures.

If you buy it, it will be more expensive, at least several million!

Isabella felt that he didn't deserve to wear such an expensive wedding dress. Even if she just touched it, she was afraid that it would be broken by others, and she was afraid that she could not afford it.

So let alone go to the wedding in such an expensive wedding dress.

And Claire Wilson Wilson didn't want Charlie Wade to owe too much favor to him.

Charlie Wade saw that the two of them were still in a daze at this time, and said with a smile: "What are you two still trying to do? Go in, we are running out of time."

Claire Wilson Wilson came back to his senses now, the time was indeed late, and if it was delayed, he would be late, so there was no other choice at the moment.

If Isabella doesn't choose a wedding dress from Jasmine, then she can only wear this old wedding dress on her to attend the wedding.

On the way here, she asked Isabella about the origin of this wedding dress. She rented it from a very small wedding dress shop in the suburbs of the county for 300 Dollar a day in order to save money. .

She herself has been looked down upon by her in-laws. If she was still wearing such a cheap wedding dress, even a wedding dress where the lace had been shed, then her in-laws would look down on her even more.

So she took Isabella's hand and said, "Isabella, let's go in quickly and let Miss Moore help you choose a wedding dress that fits you."

Isabella nervously said: "Claire Wilson Wilson, the wedding dresses here are too expensive, I dare not wear..."

Claire Wilson Wilson said hurriedly: "If you don't wear it, you can only wear this set on you. By then, your mother-in-law will not know what to say. You see that Charlie Wade has borrowed such an expensive car. Since we want if you are pomp, then stand up all the pomp and let your in-laws take a look!"

After speaking, she looked at Jasmine and said gratefully: "Miss Moore, I really troubled you today. This is my high school classmate Isabella Stark. Today is her getting married. Could you please help me choose a fitting wedding dress for her? Right!"

Jasmine nodded and smiled, and said, "Mrs. Wade, you are too polite. Please leave it to me about Miss Stark."

"But..." Isabella still hesitated.

Claire Wilson Wilson went out and took Isabella's hand directly, and walked to the bridal shop, saying: "It's nothing but today, you can't let your in-laws look down on you again!"

Isabella was pulled closer to this bridal shop by Claire Wilson Wilson, and as soon as she entered the door, she was shocked by the luxurious wedding dresses inside.

No woman dislikes wedding dresses, so the two of them just took a look and were deeply attracted by the wedding dresses in the store.

Jasmine, the eldest lady of the Moore family and the current head of the Moore family, acted as a waiter. She brought them both to a row of wedding dresses and said with a smile: "Mrs. Wade, Miss Stark. This wedding dress is both it is usually used for leasing. Miss Stark can choose any one from here today."

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly asked, "Ms. Moore, are the sizes suitable? My classmate's body is relatively thin."

Jasmine laughed and said: "These wedding dresses are very cleverly designed, and there are many adjustments inside, so as long as most people wear them, they will look exactly the same as tailor-made, so you can rest assured."

After all, Jasmine looked at Isabella again and smiled and said: "If Miss Stark is fancy, please tell me, I will let the wedding assistant to try on the wedding dress for you."

Isabella couldn't make up his mind for a while, after all, for her, the things here were completely beyond her imagination.

So she pinned her hopes on Claire Wilson Wilson who was beside her.

Chapter 1260

Claire Wilson Wilson helped her choose a very beautiful tube top wedding dress, and said: "I think this one is very suitable for you, it is dignified and elegant, and it also shows the collarbone, which is very temperamental."

Isabella hesitated for a moment, and said: "Then let you, I really don't know how to choose..."

Jasmine smiled and said: "Mrs. Wade has a very good vision. This wedding dress has the highest appearance rate here, and I think this one is also very suitable for Miss Stark's figure and temperament."

Immediately afterwards, Jasmine greeted two very professional wedding assistants. The two immediately took off the wedding dresses and respectfully took Isabella to the fitting room.

After a few minutes.

Isabella wore a white and elegant tube top wedding dress, somewhat unnatural, walked out of the fitting room.

Claire Wilson Wilson's eyes suddenly lit up and exclaimed: "Isabella, you are really beautiful in this wedding dress!"

Isabella said shyly: "This wedding dress is too delicate and too expensive. I have been playing drums in my heart for fear that I might break it..."

Jasmine said with a smile at this time: "Ms. Stark, you don't need to have such a heavy psychological burden. Since you are Mrs. Wade's friend, you don't have to worry about this wedding dress being worn by you. Let me take any responsibility."

Isabella said nervously, "How embarrassing..."

Jasmine smiled and said, "Ms. Stark, there is nothing to be embarrassed about. The wedding dresses in our shop are fully insured. If there is a problem, we will discuss with the insurance company. You can wear it with confidence. ."

Isabella was relieved when he heard that there was insurance.

Seeing that there is not much time left, Charlie Wade said to Claire Wilson Wilson and Isabella: "Since this wedding dress is suitable, let's just wear it and leave, otherwise it will be too late."

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded and said, "Okay, let's go to Hilton!"

After that, she looked at Jasmine and said with gratitude: "Miss Moore, thank you so much today!"

Jasmine smiled slightly: "Mrs. Wade, you are polite, this is what I should do."

When Isabella heard Jasmine say her own name, she was stunned, as if struck by lightning!

Jasmine? Isn't this the famous Miss Moore family? !

My God, the Moore family is the largest family in Aurouss Hill! The Moore family's eldest lady is so polite to Claire Wilson Wilson and his wife? ! How did my high school classmate suddenly become so powerful?

At this time, Charlie Wade also said: "Miss Moore, thanks for your hard work, we will leave first."

Jasmine's beautiful eyes shone with luster, and said with a smile:

"Master Wade, you are so polite."

As she said, she thought of the situation when she kissed Charlie Wade at the time, and her cheeks turned a little blush.

When Claire Wilson Wilson saw this scene, his heart was tense! Why would Jasmine be shy of her husband? ! This kind of shyness is obviously not the state that normal friends should have!

Chapter 1261

At this moment, Claire Wilson Wilson felt jealous. She speculated that Jasmine should have a favorable impression of her husband Charlie Wade. Otherwise, she could not look at her husband with such a look.

This made Claire Wilson Wilson suddenly realize that she and her husband seem to be far from close enough, and because of this, there is a certain distance between the two.

This distance is especially easy for a third party to intervene.

If two people's feelings are very close, very close, and their hearts are close to each other, it is naturally impossible to leave any gap for the third party to use.

Thinking of this, she suddenly had an unprecedented impulse in her heart.

At this moment, Charlie Wade saw that she was still in a daze, and said to her quickly: "My wife has to go quickly, or we will be late." Only then did Claire Wilson recover, nodded unnaturally, and said hurriedly, "Then let's go quickly!"

Jasmine sent the three people out of the store all the way. Seeing that they all got on the car, they returned to the store reluctantly.

Charlie Wade launched the limited edition Bugatti Veyron and drove towards the Hilton Hotel.

At this moment in the Hilton Hotel banquet hall, a man dressed in a decent suit with a groom's corsage on his chest was looking anxiously at the time.

Next to him stood a woman in her fifties with a cold face. This woman said with an angry face: "Magnificent, that Isabella is too uncultivated, right? What time is it, she is not yet, but it's clear that we didn't put our family in the eyes!"

Steve hurriedly explained: "Mom, you don't know that Isabella and his family live in Levy County, which is several tens of kilometers away! I said I would drive to pick you up, so I must not let me go, but I also took mine. The phone is confiscated, and Isabella doesn't have a car in her house. I don't know how to get here. Or you can return the phone to me and I will contact her!"

"Contact a fart!" Steve's mother said coldly: "I haven't done what our family has done, so I don't know it, and don't put others in the eye. If this allows her to pass, our family's Do you still have to live?"

As she said, she spurned contemptuously: "I told you a long time ago, don't marry a girl from a poor family, you must not listen. If you don't have money, you don't have education. You marry such an uncultivated person and come home. Are you trying to piss me off?"

Steve's expression was a bit ugly, but he didn't dare to disobey his mother directly. After all, his mother's dominance at home was very powerful, and even his father could not provoke her.

At this time, I heard Steve's mother say again: "Tell you Majesty, today our relatives are all here, everyone is waiting to see the poor wife you find, before 9:30, if this Isabella Stark is not enough Come, then my mother-in-law must be laughed at by all my relatives!"

"At that time, I don't think your marriage will end, let Isabella go and abort the child, or I will give her 200,000 Dollar, and she will give birth to the child in our grandson's family!"

"Mom!" Steve said with a gloomy expression: "At this time Isabella is about to pass the door, why do you have to have trouble with her?"

Steve's mother said disdainfully: "I tell you, if she dared to pass the door, I won't be able to get through with her in my life, her hard days are too early."

Chapter 1262

On the side, Steve's father also said: "Steve, you really should listen to your parents about this matter. Now we are married, we must pay attention to the right person. Our Carson family dare not say that it is a wealthy family, but it is worth tens of millions. Among the wealthy families, relatives and friends, our family is the best. If you listen to me, find another rich lady who is equal to or richer than our family, then the strength of our family lies in the grandson Among the big family, it's even better."

Having said this, his father sighed with regret: "You said that you are a disobedient child, it is not good to find a woman, but I have found a woman whose family is so poor. By then, our family will not let these relatives and friends. It's a joke!"

Steve's heart was incomparably painful. He naturally treated Isabella out of sincerity. The two were together when they were in college, and they have never quarreled for so many years. They have always been in love with each other. , I don't know how many people envy their extremely stable feelings.

In his heart, if he and Isabella can get the blessing of his family and live a good life together, he will definitely become the happiest man in the world.

But he couldn't understand why his parents had to block his marriage in many ways.

Although Isabella is not the child of a wealthy family, she is indeed a rare good girl.

It's a pity that the snobbish parents can't see the advantages of Isabella.

They just thought that Isabella's family had no money and no power, so they looked down on her in their hearts and didn't want her to pass.

No matter how they persuaded or begged them, they were still unwilling to change their original intentions.

Even now, Isabella was pregnant with his own flesh and blood, and they were still full of contempt for her, which made Steve very painful deep in his heart.

He even thought that if his parents are really not optimistic and do not support his marriage, then he might as well wait until the wedding is over and take Isabella away from home.

At this moment, there are less than five minutes left before the ninety-two deadline.

Isabella still did not appear.

Steve couldn't help worrying in his heart. He worried whether Isabella's parents stopped her and prevented her from marrying.

At this time, Steve's mother whispered to her husband with a smug face: "In my opinion, it's impossible for the Stark family to let Isabella get married. After all, we didn't even give them any money, and we even got married. If you don't go, you can say that they don't give their family face at all. Her parents won't get a penny from us, and they're slapped like this, they will definitely not let her marry. So I guess, today is the same It's a drama that makes the grandeur give up."

Steve's father said painfully, "Then the cost of this big show is too high. Hilton has dozens of banquets, plus weddings, and we spent four to five million Dollar."

Steve's mother raised her eyebrows and said, "What is four to five million dollars? As long as my son can leave that poor woman, I would be willing to spend even one million!"

As she said, she lowered her voice again, and said excitedly: "Let me tell you, Sister Lisa told me that Mr. Ward's daughter had returned to China some time ago, and she broke up with her foreign boyfriend. Mr. Ward's wife is right now. He said that he wanted to find someone for her in Aurouss Hillll. If our son can be with Mr. Ward's daughter, it would be of great help to our family!"

Steve's father frowned and said, "I heard people say that the foreign boyfriend of Mr. Ward's daughter was a black man, is it a bit..."

"What's the matter?" Steve's mother blurted out: "The most important thing is that if we can conclude with Ward and become in-laws, we will definitely do better business in the future! Making money is the most important thing!"

Chapter 1263

Poor Steve didn't know what his parents were making at this time. He was still waiting for his beloved woman to appear. But as time passed, he also began to feel a little worried.

She was afraid not because Isabella changed her mind, but because Isabella's parents would not agree with her to marry in the end.

At this moment, there was a whistling sound of supercar engines on the road.

The grandchildren at the door and their relatives and friends were all attracted by the beast-like engine sound.

Then someone shouted: "f*ck! It turned out to be Bugatti Veyron!"

"Really!" Steve's cousin, Gary, looked at the Bugatti Veyron that was approaching in the distance, and said dumbfounded: "This is a limited edition of Hermes, there is only one in the country! I was at the Aurouss Hill International Auto Show some time ago. I have seen this car. It is said that this car and another Aston Martin one77 were bought by a mysterious rich man at the same time, but since then, I have never seen this car come out, I did not expect to see you today Arrived!"

Having said that, he immediately took out his mobile phone and constantly adjusted the focus to the distance, wanting to take a clear aerial photograph of this Bugatti.

At this moment, someone exclaimed: "I'll go! The next one turned out to be an Aston Martin one77. What a fairy day is today, and two top sports cars suddenly came! These two cars add up. One hundred million!"

Gary, his eyes are almost falling off.

He hurriedly said to Steve: "Hey, look at the magnificence! Don't you like Aston Martin one77 the most? f*ck! Today I am really eye-opening!"

Steve was also a little surprised.

But he really didn't feel the mood to watch the supercar at this time.

All he was thinking about was Isabella, wondering if Isabella would come today.

Charlie Wade was driving the Hermès limited edition Bugatti Veyron at this time, and he had already driven into the entrance of the Hilton Hotel and headed straight for the banquet hall.

Everyone was even more surprised to see these two sports cars coming to the banquet hall.

Today, only Steve himself is married here, because today is not a good day for marriage.

The reason why Steve's parents chose to get married today was because they deliberately disgusted Isabella's parents.

They have already thought of several countermeasures.

First of all, the best way is to directly let the Stark family give up this marriage;

Secondly, if the Stark family does not give up this marriage, then their couple will not let this marriage come true.

They even had plans. If Isabella appeared today, they would be in front of everyone, sarcastically and satirically at Isabella, forcing her to give up marrying her son anyway.

If this still can't be achieved, they have the final killer.

The killer's trick is very simple. One cry, two troubles and three hangs.

If the son wants to marry Ms. Stark today, the two of them will directly threaten to commit suicide here, making the whole wedding a mess.

At that time, this marriage will definitely be impossible.

Seeing the two sports cars approaching gradually, Steve's father said with a look of surprise: "Gary, did you just say that these two cars are worth 100 million in total?"

Gary waved his hand: "Uncle, I didn't say it, it was Josh who said it, but the sum of these two cars is indeed worth 100 million, and it is more than 100 million. What's more, the two cars are owned by one person. " "Damn!" Steve's father couldn't help cursing: "It's so popular. I want to buy an entry-level 7-series BMW, but I hesitated for a long time. Two cars are worth more than one hundred million. Who is so rich? Is it the Moore family?"

"I don't know." Gary said: "The identity of this car owner is quite mysterious, and they are very low-key. After buying this car, it seems to be the first time it was driven today."

"It's awesome!" Steve's father sighed: "I bought a car for more than 100 million Dollar, but I didn't drive it very well. Isn't it just money to burn?"

While talking, the two sports cars arrived and stopped at the entrance of the banquet hall.

Chapter 1264

Everyone was even more surprised. Are these two cars really coming to the banquet hall?

In the banquet hall, there is only one family to hold the wedding. Could it be that they came to attend?

However, the grandson family understood very well in their hearts. They are the whole family. The richest family is Steve's father, but only tens of millions of assets. As for the others, the best are thousands. , Nearly a few million in net worth, at best can be regarded as the middle class of Aurouss Hilll, but not the upper class society.

So because of the social status of their family, how can they know such a great friend?

When everyone was puzzled, Charlie Wade took the lead to open the door of Bugatti Veyron and stepped out of the car.

When the crowd saw him, they were shocked to speak.

Charlie Wade is really too young, and he looks only twenty-five or sixty-six. He can afford to drive such an expensive luxury car at such a young age, which makes everyone think he is very unusual.

After Charlie Wade got out of the car, the Aston Martin one77 driven by his wife Claire Wilson Wilson had also slowly stopped behind his car. Because the light outside the car is brighter during the day, and there is a reflective film inside the car, it is impossible to tell from the outside who is sitting inside.

Everyone also focused their attention on the Aston Martin at the back, waiting to see what the big man was in the car.

Charlie Wade stepped up to Aston Martin's co-pilot and stretched out his hand to open the door.

Afterwards, Isabella, who wore Vera Wang's custom wedding dress with a nervous face, stepped out of the car!

When they first saw her, the Carson family still didn't react.

Their first thought was, whose bride is this? Why is it so big that two top sports cars are used as wedding cars to pick up her.

Steve was also a little surprised at first sight, but then, he recognized this beautiful bride in a wedding dress!

Isn't this your fiancée Isabella?

He was shocked, but he didn't care too much. He ran to Isabella with joy and said excitedly: "Isabella, you are finally here!"

As soon as these words came out, the whole Carson family was struck by lightning.

It was at this time that everyone finally realized that the bride who came out of the Aston Martin one77 co-pilot was the poor daughter-in-law who was about to marry her grandson, Isabella!

Everyone was completely stunned.

The situation of Isabella's family is very clear to the entire Carson family.

Her parents wandered around at home, occasionally doing part-time jobs, and also fishing for three days and drying the net for two days.

And there is a brother who is lazy and delicious. It can be said that the life of a family of three is a mess.

In addition, their home is not in Aurouss Hilll City, but in the surrounding counties, which means that their home does not even have a valuable house.

It is said that the house they lived in has a history of more than 20 or 30 years, and it has not even sold for 300,000.

The members of the Carson family are also very clear that the Stark family is determined to ask for more gifts from the Carson family so that they can pay the down payment for the house for their lazy son.

This kind of family conditions, in the eyes of the Carson family, is simply the bottom of the bottom.

Therefore, apart from Steve, no one in the entire Carson family can look down upon Isabella.

But they didn't understand that Isabella, who everyone looked down on, came in a limited edition Aston Martin one77!

Chapter 1265

Just when the whole Carson family was stunned, Claire Wilson Wilson also got off the Aston Martin's main driver.

Looking at Steve, she smiled politely: "Steve, we have not seen each other for some time. Congratulations to you and Isabella, happy wedding!"

Steve was also shocked when he saw Claire Wilson Wilson.

Claire Wilson Wilson was Isabella's high school classmate and a good friend with a good relationship, so he met Claire Wilson Wilson several times under the recommendation of Isabella, and they were considered acquaintances.

As for Claire Wilson Wilson's family situation, he also heard about it.

He had heard before that Claire Wilson Wilson's family had a company specializing in decoration. It was not large, but not small. She also married a live-in son-in-law, and this The live-in son-in-law doesn't seem to have much ability yet.

However, in his impression, the Wilson Group seems to be a company with a market value of tens of millions or about 100 million Dollar. Some time ago, there was a rumor that it seemed to be on the verge of bankruptcy.

In this case, how could Claire Wilson Wilson afford to drive an Aston Martin one77 worth tens of millions?

But even though he was very puzzled in his heart, he still didn't show it. He smiled politely at Claire Wilson Wilson: "Claire Wilson Wilson, it's been a long time since I saw you. I didn't expect you to even drive Aston Martin now!"

Claire Wilson Wilson's expression was a bit embarrassing, and was about to tell him that the car was borrowed by her husband, but at this time,

Charlie Wade interrupted and said: "Actually, these two cars have been bought for a long time. The last time Aurouss Hilll International Auto Show I bought it at that time, but at first this person has been relatively low-key, so the two cars have not been driven."

When everyone heard this, they all exclaimed.

It turns out that this is the long-known mysterious rich man at the auto show.

The news that both luxury cars were bought by one person at that time really shocked the entire Aurouss Hilll.

Along with this shocking news, there is another very interesting anecdote. Jason Grant, the eldest son of the Aurouss Hilll International Convention and Exhibition Center, was beaten and lost by the security company's security because he tried to touch the two cars without success. face.

At that time, everyone said that this mysterious rich man must have a very unusual background, otherwise, it would be impossible to even lose the face of the Grant family.

Today everyone finally saw the real body of this mysterious and rich man, but he did not expect him to attend Steve's wedding!

Steve himself was stunned. He couldn't help but exclaimed: "I heard that these two cars have been made a long time ago, but since the auto show, I have never seen these two cars come out again. I didn't expect you to drive the car. Participating in my wedding is really flattering! I am so grateful!"

Charlie Wade smiled faintly, and said arrogantly: "You don't have to thank me, I don't give you the face, I give Isabella the face."

When Steve's parents, as well as other relatives of the Carson family, and friends from all walks of life, heard this, they were all too shocked to speak.

Isn't this Isabella a girl from a poor family? Parents are incapable of not talking, and are still idle. The important thing is to think about getting something for nothing every day.

Isabella was born in such a family, how could he know such a rich person? If you drive two cars at random, it is worth one hundred million, so wouldn't this person be worth tens of billions?

At this time, Steve's father immediately became fawning.

So he walked towards Charlie Wade and said with a flattering smile: "Oh, this gentleman, I am Steve's father. I really didn't expect that you would be able to enjoy your face to attend my son's wedding today. It really made the whole Carson Family is honored."

"Just, I don't know what do you call Mr.?"

Chapter 1266

Charlie Wade glanced at him contemptuously, and said disdainfully: "You can call me Young Master Wade."

David Carson was a little surprised, how old are these years, and there are people claiming to be sons?

Could it be those young masters with strong backgrounds?

In this way, it is really meeting the true god!

So, he was very excited and indulged: "Oh, hello, Master Wade! I am in the flour business here. There is a flour mill in Aurouss Hilll. Maybe you have eaten our flour. Our flour brand is called Aristocratic Family.!"

Charlie Wade frowned and asked, "Aristocratic family, isn't that the name of other TV series?"

David Carson said embarrassedly: "Don't we also want to get some heat. People are gold powder, I am flour, but it's not bad."

Charlie Wade snorted coldly and asked him: "Boss Carson, you married your daughter-in-law today. Why didn't you send a convoy to pick up the bride at the bride's house?"

David Carson and his wife looked at each other with embarrassment, not knowing how to answer.

After a moment of silence, David Carson hurriedly said with a smile: "Oh, Young Master Wade, you don't know, we have already found a very impressive team, but something happened to that team temporarily, so..."

"A temporary accident?" Charlie Wade frowned and asked, "Even if the wedding team has an accident, do you not even have a car in your own home?"

David Carson looked sorry and said: "I'm really sorry Young Master Wade, I'm also in a mess for a while, I didn't care, I ignored Isabella, I'm sorry!"

After finishing speaking, he was very busy and promised: "Don't worry, Master Wade, when Isabella passes the door in the future, our family will definitely compensate her!"

When Steve on the side heard this, his heart was immediately overjoyed. Originally, parents did not agree with their marriage to Isabella anyway, and even this morning they were still complaining to themselves, even threatening themselves, even if Isabella passed the door, they wouldn't let her get better. Live.

Unexpectedly, now that Claire Wilson Wilson and her husband drove two luxury cars, father's attitude immediately changed so much!

Thinking of this, he was overjoyed, and he was a little more grateful to Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson.

At this moment, Steve's mother Leann pulled David aside and reprimanded in a low voice: "What are you talking nonsense? Have you forgotten what we said before? Never let that woman in The door of our home!"

David hurriedly said, "Have you not seen that Isabella has such a great friend? If we neglect others, what if they blame him?"

"Blame it!" Leann said angrily, "I don't care how old this kid surnamed Wade is, but I know one thing, this kid surnamed Wade can't give our family a penny. Our son will really marry. Isabella passed the door, and the surname Wade couldn't help us, so why should we give him face like this? Is it because Isabella knew him, and we were willing to let Isabella be our daughter-in-law? "

David couldn't help asking: "Then what do you mean? Now that everyone is here, can our wedding continue?"

"Of course we can't continue!" Leann scolded annoyedly: "The family surnamed Stark didn't know if their brains were broken. We humiliated them so much. They even let Isabella marry. It's really a mischief!"

She said, busy again: "You will talk less later and look at me. I will definitely not let this Isabella enter the door of Carson's house today!"

Chapter 1267

Leann is a typical egoist.

Anything, she only considers one thing, and that is whether it can bring benefits to herself.

If it can bring benefits to herself, even if it is a garbage picker on the side of the road, she will greet her with a smile and make a full gesture;

But if she can't bring her own benefits, even if he is the Mr. President of the United States, she won't bother to pay attention.

So even if Charlie Wade and his wife drove a luxury car worth more than 100 million Dollar to send off to Isabella, Leann still did not change his opinion of Isabella.

She knows that these things of face are imaginary, and only the benefits that can be obtained are real.

What if Isabella knows rich friends? Can this money give me a point? Can she take care of our business? Can she take our house to the next level? If I can, then I will naturally treat you with a nice face, and even offer you as an aunt, there is no problem.

But if you can't, you still won't be able to enter the gate of my Carson's house today.

The reason for putting up this banquet and this battle was that she didn't want to directly oppose the marriage and make her son hate herself. Therefore, she agreed to hold the wedding first, and then looked for various ways to find faults, satire, and sarcasm, forcing Isabella to give up actively. , The son can't blame himself.

Now, I have plenty of reasons to trouble Isabella. The biggest reason is, since today is the wedding, why didn't her parents come?

So she walked up to Isabella and said coldly, "Isabella, where are your parents? Why didn't they come?"

Isabella hurriedly said: "Auntie, my parents, they..."

As Isabella said, she couldn't help but hesitate.

In fact, she knew very well in her heart that she was married today, but her parents did not show up. This is indeed unreasonable. And now the future mother-in-law asked herself this question, she didn't know how to answer it.

Seeing Isabella not speaking, Leann yelled coldly: "Oh, Isabella, you are still big enough. I know a few wealthy friends, but my future mother-in-law is not in my eyes? I will talk to you. You just ignore it, don't you?"

Isabella hurriedly waved his hand and explained respectfully: "Auntie, it is true that my parents are a little unhappy, so they may not be here today. Please forgive me!"

"Oh, hello!" Leann said angrily: "You can't look down on our house if you are together, do you? Your parents are really interesting. They don't even show up when they get married and get married. Look at Aurouss Hilll. Do your parents do things like this? If this is going to be spread, where can we put the face of our Carson family?"

Isabella's eyes were red, and she hurriedly apologized and said, "I'm sorry, my parents' situation is really special. They have been unhappy because of the bride price. They were not very happy when I went out this morning, so Please forgive me..."

"Unwilling?" Leann twisted her eyebrows when she heard this, and suddenly shouted: "It's really unreasonable, what are the conditions in your family? What are the conditions in our family? She is married to our family, your parents. Not happy yet? Why? Can't you look at our house? If you don't look at our house, then simply stop you and don't let you marry over!"

Chapter 1268

Hearing Leann's words, Isabella's tears suddenly flowed out.

When Steve saw his fiancée and was so humiliated by his mother, he was a little bit overwhelmed. He hurriedly said: "Mom! Marrying Isabella is the life of the two of us. As long as the two of us can live well, we don't want to care. There are so many. So don't worry about it too much. It's not too early. Can you just prepare for the wedding?"

"That won't work!" Leann looked at Isabella with disgust, and said contemptuously: "I am just mad in my heart. Since I was beaten to marry your dad, I have never suffered such a grievance. Why did it seem like we had climbed them up high? My dad and I were waiting here early in the morning. Our relatives and friends also came early in the morning, but what about their home? Except for the bride, None of the others came! This is to look down on people and despise us after making it clear!" Isabella quickly waved his hand and explained: "Auntie, you really misunderstood. My parents really didn't mean to look down on you. They were just a little angry, so they didn't come."

Leann shouted coldly: "It's useless to talk so much to me. Getting married is an important matter in life. You are not an orphan without a father or mother. How can you attend the wedding by yourself? I grew up so much and I have never heard of my parents. Those who are still alive but do not come to the wedding will not only lose face when it spreads out, but it is also not lucky in itself."

Speaking of this, Leann gritted her teeth and said: "Isabella, I'll leave it here today. If your parents don't come, I don't think this marriage needs to be married!"

As soon as these words came out, Isabella almost collapsed.

She finally relied on the help of Claire Wilson Wilson and Charlie Wade to escape her parents' obstruction and came to the wedding.

I thought that it would be worthwhile to marry Steve even if I turned my face with my family. I didn't expect that after I came, I realized that my husband's family still had so many difficulties waiting for me.

Claire Wilson Wilson couldn't see it at this time, and she said angrily: "Auntie, do you know how much Isabella has suffered and how much price he has paid for this engagement?"

Leann raised her eyebrows and looked at Claire Wilson Wilson, and said, "This girl, I don't know you, so I don't want to offend you, but there are some things, we have to make sense. I married my daughter-in-law today and invited so many relatives. Friends came to join in, but the wife's house didn't even go out alone. Have you ever seen anyone doing things like this?"

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly said, "Isn't this a special situation? Isabella's parents really have a lot of opinions on this matter. Isabella also made a lot of determination to turn his face with his family and marry Steve."

Leann curled her lips: "Oh, our family can't afford it. Let me tell you, when you get married, you must follow the old rules. If the bride's parents don't come, the marriage will not end. The king of heaven and I will come and talk to me. It's useless to say."

Claire Wilson Wilson said angrily: "How can you do this?"

Charlie Wade stopped Claire Wilson Wilson at this time, looked at Leann and asked with a smile: "Okay, I don't think you should spend so much effort here to find various reasons. Everyone is an adult, so just say it straight. How can you agree to hold the wedding as usual when Isabella's parents are not here?"

Leann smiled and said: "It's very simple. Our family is looking for a daughter-in-law. It is the right thing to do. But Isabella and her family are so poor. I can bear it for the happiness of my son. Her parents can't look down on people so much. I forbore them, but at this time, they shook my face with me? In that case, let's just do business. How can we say that our family is a wealthy family with a net worth of tens of millions. If Isabella wants to marry us Come, you must bring a dowry of at least 10 million, otherwise it will be skipped."

As soon as Isabella heard this, the good temper that he had tolerated for a long time was almost wiped out by the other party.

She didn't expect that Leann, who had always been a troublemaker between herself and Steve, would even bite back at this time, pushing all the responsibility to her own family.

So she couldn't hide her anger and said, "Aunt Leann, if you had said that you didn't want to let me pass, then I would be begging you for nothing, but you said that you promised me to have a wedding with Steve. What does it mean to obstruct in every way?"

Chapter 1269

Leann herself disagrees with her son marrying Isabella.

But the reason why he agreed to hold this wedding was to take his responsibilities as cleanly as possible.

Therefore, Isabella made his family faceless today and made himself unable to lift his head in front of relatives and friends. With this alone, he can stand on the moral high ground and refuse her to marry into the grandson family.

This is also the representative of the smart parents in daily life.

When wise parents and their children have some kind of dispute, they often try not to confess to themselves.

If the decision is to resolutely and undoubtedly reject the child, if the child fails to pass this hurdle in the future, he will definitely blame himself, and even hate himself.

But in another way, the effect is naturally much better.

Now that he is on the moral high ground, even if his son Steve is dissatisfied, he can't express it.

Because he has been put off by himself now.

If he is still desperate to defend Isabella at this time, then he is against the entire Carson family.

Isabella's parents did not come, and all the people on the scene surnamed Carson felt offended. Steve, absolutely couldn't bear it.

Leann was right. At this time, Steve felt extremely uncomfortable. He didn't even know what to do. If you follow the mother's words, then this marriage will definitely not be completed.

If he doesn't speak, how can Isabella bear the pressure that she refers to by herself?

If you are facing Isabella, doesn't it mean you have slapped all your grandchildren in the face?

Seeing Isabella's uncomfortable tears at this time, Claire Wilson Wilson felt very upset, but in this case, she didn't know what to say.

No matter how many difficulties are behind this matter, Isabella's parents did not come to her wedding. This is indeed a great deal of others' grasp.

If the game cannot be reversed, then the marriage, it is estimated that it really will not be completed.

The atmosphere at the scene suddenly became extremely embarrassing.

Charlie Wade, who had seen everything through, didn't say a word at this time, just watched Leann's performance coldly, and had already figured out the countermeasures to punish this woman.

At this moment, a black BMW x6 drove over.

The car stopped, and a woman in her 50s walked out of the cab.

When Leann saw this woman, she greeted her with surprise, and said, "Jemma, why are you here?"

The one named Jemma Simmons is a close friend of Leann, who has a very good family situation and has a good relationship with the Ward family. Ward's family runs several large supermarkets in the local area. Although they are not as good as Wal-Mart, they are still very marketable in the surrounding districts, counties and suburbs.

David's Aristocratic Family Flour Mill has been selling locally in Arouss Hilll.

Chapter 1270

His flour has two relatively large sales channels, one is a large supermarket like Wal-Mart, and the other is a medium-sized chain supermarket like Kroger.

The flour mill industry has relatively low technical content and fierce competition.

There are a lot of big grain and oil brands like Arowana and Fulinmen in China. Their brands are relatively strong, so their products are selling very well.

In every city, there are at least a few local flour brands.

Therefore, a small brand like him can only have a certain amount of sales locally, and is very dependent on sales channels.

If the sales channels give him more display positions and buy more goods, he can make more money.

If the sales channel does not show him a place or purchase his goods, then all his flour will not be sold.

Several local grain and oil brands want to establish a good relationship with the Ward family, so that they can get more resources and shares from the Ward family, and can greatly increase their sales and profits.

Therefore, whether it is David or Leann, they have been sharpening their heads, wanting to fawn on this line.

This is why Leann especially hopes that his son, Steve, can come together with the daughter of the Ward family.

If you marry the daughter of the Ward family and become your own daughter-in-law, will your family's flour still be sold? Maybe it doubles in one year and triples in two years.

At this time, this sister Gemma looked at Leann with a bit of displeased expression, and said angrily: "Leann, you don't regard me as a friend too much. Your son is going to get married. You don't tell me. I helped your son get on the line with Mr. Ward's daughter, aren't you cheating me?"

As soon as Leann heard this, she hurriedly pulled Sister Gemma aside and said in a low voice, "Oh my sister, this is a long story. Let me tell you this. It is impossible for my son to get married today."

Sister Gemma said angrily, "Who are you lie to? Your banquet is about to start, and you are sloppy with me?"

Leann hurriedly explained: "My sister, let me tell you the truth. My son was blind before. He was looking for a girl from a poor family. This girl has to be poor and poor. I wanted to marry into my house. In order to achieve my goal, she was pregnant with my son's child. I did this today because I wanted to embarrass her and make her give up."

Sister Gemma asked: "What if this girl doesn't give up?"

Leann sneered: "Anyway, it's impossible for me to let him into our house. If she doesn't give up, just let her go. It has nothing to do with our house."

Sister Gemma's expression eased, and she nodded and said, "I'm looking for you to talk about the Ward family."

"What's the matter?" Leann got excited, and hurriedly asked: "What did Mr. Ward say over there?"

Sister Gemma whispered: "Didn't I tell you that Mr. Ward's daughter has returned from abroad? I also talked about a black boyfriend before."

"Yes." Leann nodded: "Didn't you say that you have broken up with that black man?"

Gemma sighed: "The breakup is a breakup, but it was just found out two days ago that this girl is pregnant..."

Leann said dumbfounded: "Huh? Pregnant? Is that black man?"

Gemma said helplessly: "Yes! The point is that this girl is very awkward. She has to give birth to this child. You said Mr. Ward is just this daughter. If this daughter is unmarried and gave birth to a child, then his face Where do you put it?"

"Indeed..." Leann smacked his lips and said, "This thing is really a bit difficult."

Sister Gemma looked at Leann with deep meaning, and whispered: "Leann, there is a good thing now, don't blame my sister for not taking care of you."

Leann hurriedly said, "Gemma, you say!"

Gemma said cautiously: "Ms. Ward's wife told me in private that if your family is willing to marry her girl, and at the same time wait for her girl to come out and be the father of this child, Mr. Ward is willing to give 30 million dowry. In the future, half of the shelves in the flour area of his supermarket chain will be exclusively for you!"

Chapter 1271

Leann's mood was a bit tangled at this time.

The 30 million dowry is certainly very attractive, but the key to this matter is to let his son marry a pregnant woman.

Isn't this what people often say about being a father?

Although I am not a young man, I still have some understanding of these buzzwords.

However, when he thought that Mr. Ward had opened his 30 million dowry and returned various resources to support him, Leann began to look forward to it in the depths of his heart.

In her opinion, as long as more money is given, it is not a big problem for her son to be a father.

But the key point of this matter is that if the other party is pregnant with a Chinese child, it's okay to say, then you can explain to your relatives and friends and say that the two have gotten pregnant in private and got pregnant, so they got married. .

In the face of money, after the child is born, he raises the child as his own.

After waiting for two years, let her give birth to her own son.

But the point is that Mr. Ward's daughter is still pregnant with a black child.

If this really allows her son to marry her, when the child is born, his son will not be pierced in the backbone?

Thinking of this, Leann hesitated somewhat.

Seeing her hesitation, Gemma whispered in her ear: "Leann, let me tell you the truth, Mr. and Mrs. Ward are very anxious now. They didn't know about their daughter's pregnancy before, but now the problem is. Don't hurry up. Dealing with it, when their daughter is pregnant, Mr. Ward and his wife can't hold it on their faces."

Leann's heart moved.

If you look at it this way, then Mr. Ward should be very anxious now. That being the case, let yourself be better off.

Thinking of this, Leann said immediately: "Gemma, to be honest, this matter is indeed a bit too shameful. We also have the heart to help Mr. Ward, but we can't let people blame my son's nose in the future and call him a catch?"

Gemma hurriedly said, "So Mr. Ward also understands your family's situation. If you are willing to suffer this grievance, Mr. Ward will definitely give your family a little more money!"

"Leann, let me be honest, earning some money these years is a lot more. What's more, it's still 30 million. Ordinary people can't make so much money in a lifetime. Ward always thinks about your family, mainly because of your child. All aspects of it are quite suitable, and they don't lose face when they are married to your family."

Speaking of this, Gemma hurriedly added: "To be honest, Mr. Ward offered such good terms. If he went to find someone else's house, they would have rushed to agree. I advise you, don't miss this. good chance."

Leann smiled and said: "Gemma, I know you are also kind, but to be honest, if this kind of thing is spread to people with no money, I must rush to agree, but our family It's a bit of a foundation, Mr. Ward's price is really low."

Gemma looked at her and asked, "Leann, I have a good relationship with you, so let's not go around in circles. You can just tell me the number. For me, I will quickly reply to Mr. Ward if Mr. Ward no objection, so the two parties decided on that, and then they decided on the date, held the wedding, and received the certificate."

Leann said in a low voice, "Let's do it like this, Gemma, please tell Mr. Ward and his wife, just talk about this, and the dowry can't be less than 50 million!"

Chapter 1272

"As for the flour resources in the supermarket, most of it must be allocated to my family. If they agree, then we don't choose any dates. You see, my banquet is set up, and the wedding rainbow door has not written a name. , Just have a family to send her daughter over, we will have the wedding today."

After speaking, Leann smiled and said: "Gemma, their daughter is pregnant. This must not be delayed. The sooner the better. In addition, if you help me with this, sister, I will go back privately. I'll give you two million in benefits!"

The main reason why Gemma was so enthusiastic about this errand was that Mr. Ward had promised her that if he could find a good wife for her daughter who would be willing to accept the baby, then Mr. Ward Will give her 5 million.

After all, Mr. Ward is such an only child, and said that he didn't want her daughter's reputation to be bad.

Therefore, in the eyes of Mr. Ward, it is very worthwhile to spend more money on this matter.

Now when I heard that, Leann said that she was willing to give herself another 2 million. Sister Lu was also very excited. This thing is done, that's 7 million.

The money is too easy!

Thinking of this, she immediately took out her mobile phone and called Mr. Ward.

As soon as the phone call, she smiled and said, "Oh, Mr. Ward, there is good news to tell you that Leann Carson is interested in your proposal!" "Oh?" The other party asked excitedly: "What do you say? They agreed? When can the wedding be held?"

In fact, Mr. Ward and his wife had already fallen in love with David's son, Steve.

The young man looks very energetic and has a good character. What is more rare is to graduate from a prestigious university.

The best thing is that he hasn't been married yet!

Although his daughter is pregnant with a foreigner, he doesn't want his daughter to be looking for a second-marriage divorce. Naturally, it is best to find this kind of unmarried person.

Moreover, the family conditions of Steve's family are also good. They will not be wronged by his daughter. The best thing is that David's business depends on him. This means that he can always hold him if his family dares to be married. If it's not good for their daughter, then they will cut off his income directly. Then they will definitely have to obediently provide for their daughter as an aunt.

So, Mr. Ward smiled happily and asked, "Is that son of the old Carson family willing? If he is willing, it would be great! I have seen this kid, good, good, really good, if this thing can be done, then I really have to thank you very much."

Gemma said with a smile: "Mr. Ward, don't worry, I will definitely do my best to help you with this matter. However, I talked to Leann. What she meant was that you will need to prepare more dowry?"

Mr. Ward asked subconsciously: "Isn't 30 million enough?"

Gemma smiled and said, "Mr. Ward, you also know that this kind of thing is really not easy to make a decision. With less money, I'm afraid that the grandson and the couple will finally consider whether or not to agree!"

Then, Gemma was very busy and added: "Mr. Ward is really dissatisfied. The son of the Carson family was going to have a banquet at the Hilton Hotel today, but the daughter-in-law and the grandson who are going to marry him Wives are not looked down upon by 10,000."

"So now Leann is making trouble here, just to prevent the daughter-in-law from entering the door, aren't you in a hurry? If you agree, the Carson family's conditions can now be brought back quietly and follow The son had a wedding."

"To be honest, Mr. Ward, your daughter really can't hide the situation. Wait a while, the belly is full, so where you go, you can't find this kind of good thing that can be done immediately. My son!"

Chapter 1273

After Mr. Ward heard this, he immediately compromised in his heart.

All his worries are that his daughter's reputation will be ruined and affect his life's happiness.

Now there is a good candidate for a son-in-law, and the magic is that the wedding can be held immediately. This action is so fast that it is hard to find with a lantern!

So he just thought for a while, and immediately agreed and said: "Okay! You tell Leann, 50 million, a point will not be less, I will take my daughter over, first of their husband's wedding It's done, and then tomorrow I will entertain my friends and relatives to host a dinner with our wife, so that the marriage of the two children is done!"

Gemma also said with excitement: "You are still good at Mr. Ward! No wonder you can make a lot of money, so you can make a decision so quickly and arrange everything so appropriately. I think Quan Aurouss Hilll also has this ability for you, so Once you come. Then all the problems will be solved today and you can sit back and relax."

Mr. Ward laughed loudly on the other end of the phone: "This matter has bothered me. I couldn't sleep for several days. Today I can finally solve it all at once! Gemma, thank you! I'll let my wife and daughter prepare. , Take her to Hilton and the son of the Carson family, hurry up to have the wedding, if the wedding goes well today, I will add another 1 million to you!"

Gemma was trembling with excitement. Although she is quite rich, she has never made such easy money.

If this is done, wouldn't I be able to earn 8 million today?

Excitedly hung up Mr. Ward's phone, she hurriedly came to Leann and said with a smile: "Leann, this matter, my old sister, my old face, will be saved."

Leann hurriedly asked: "Gemma, what did Mr. Ward say over there?"

Gemma said with a smile: "I have already discussed with Mr. Ward, 50 million gifts, he has nothing to say! I will bring my wife and children over immediately!"

"Oh my god!" Leann was about to have a heart attack when she heard this. She and her husband worked hard for half a lifetime, and all the assets in the family totaled 30 to 40 million.

But unexpectedly, now that Mr. Ward marries his daughter, he is willing to give 50 million Dollar for the gift money alone.

And it's still cash!

What could be more secure than cash these days?

It is equivalent to saying that as long as the son marries Mr. Ward's daughter, his family's strength can be doubled or even tripled immediately.

Because there are a large number of medium-sized chain supermarkets on Mr. Ward's side, as long as he allocates all the flour resources to his home, his family's income is not enough, and he will go up like a rocket? Thinking of this, she said excitedly to Gemma: "Oh my good sister, but I must thank you so much! Don't worry, I promise you will have no less money!"

Gemma looked at Isabella in the wedding dress from a distance, and whispered: "This poor girl, you have to deal with it quickly, Mr. Ward said that it is fast, maybe in half an hour. That's it, if the girl is still here by the time, what do you tell Mr. Ward to do?"

When Leann heard this, she immediately patted her chest and said: "Gemma, don't worry, I will drive this Isabella away! I'll let someone beat her away!"

Gemma asked again: "Your Majesty has nothing to do with this matter, don't look back and solve everything, he is not willing again."

Chapter 1274

Leann waved her hand and said disdainfully: "He dare to disagree, and his dad and I will cut off all relations with him! At this time, it is his turn to say no!"

After all, Leann stepped to the front of Steve and Isabella, and said coldly: "Steve, your mother, I still said that. If Isabella's family can't get 30 million dowry, then this marriage will be ignored! " "thirty million?!"

Steve and Isabella were shocked!

Then Steve couldn't help but questioned angrily: "Mom, are you crazy? You just said 10 million, and it became 30 million in a blink of an eye.

Where do you let Isabella's house go to get so much money? Even ours. I can't come up with so much money!"

Leann grabbed Steve's sleeves and blurted out, "You come with me, I have something to tell you."

After finishing speaking, he greeted his husband David again: "David, come here too."

David hurriedly followed. The family of three came to a corner with no one. Steve asked angrily: "Mom, what are you going to do? Don't you want to see my happiness so much?"

Leann sternly said: "Why do you talk to your mother? I raised you so big, do you want you to be happy? I just don't want to see you jump into the fire pit!"

"What's the situation in Isabella's house, don't you know? If you marry her, in the future, her parents and her younger brother will have to lie on you and suck your blood! Not only suck your blood, but also suck me and me Your father's blood, do you want to piss us off? Or do you want to kill us?"

Steve immediately promised: "Mom, don't worry. After I married Isabella, the two of us are responsible for our lives. We will not ask you for a penny."

"Don't talk to me about these useless things!"

Leann gritted her teeth and said: "Your father and I have never been short of your money since we were young, so you don't know how it feels like a penny to stump a hero. If you two really rely on yourself, you will starve to death sooner or later!"

As he said, Leann waved her hand and commanded in a high-pitched tone: "You two will listen to me. This time there is a great opportunity in front of our family. I seized it. It can be doubled several times, neither of you guys should drop me the chain!"

The father and son both asked in surprise, "What great opportunity?"

Leann immediately told the father and son about Mr. Ward's family.

When David heard this, he suddenly said with a little embarrassment:

"Leann, don't you let your son be the pick-up man? If that black child is born in the future, where will my old grandson's face be put?"

Leann asked back: "David, you have worked hard for most of your life, didn't you make 30 or 40 million? As long as your family has no objection, our family can get 50 million cash in one day! You two listen to me. It's cash!"

David's expression suddenly became tangled and struggling.

It is true that it is really embarrassing to let his son be the receiver, but compared to 50 million, face is really not that important.

Leann said while the iron was hot again: "David, don't forget, Mr. Ward agreed. After our two families are married, they will allocate most of the flour resources to our house!"

"At that time, our flour mill won't have to double the income? Now it earns several million a year. Maybe it will earn tens of millions a year. If you count the gift, one year later, Our family's assets exceeded 100 million!"

Chapter 1275

Hearing the one hundred million figure, David immediately compromised. He turned around and said to his son, "Steve, pick a wife for nothing. Not only do they don't want you to pay a penny, they also post tens of millions to you. What a good thing!"

Steve said coldly: "Yes, it's really good, so you can hug your grandson directly, and it's still a black grandson."

David didn't feel ashamed at all, and said: "Give me 50 million, let alone a black grandson, just a black son, I am happy too!"

Steve blurted out: "You don't have to waste your tongue. I will never agree to this matter."

David sighed, and pointed at Steve with a look of hatred for iron and steel, and said, "You kid, you have little knowledge and ignorance. You have never made money since you were a child, and you have never made money embarrassing since you were young. You should have a hard time for a few days so that you know how hard it is to make money!"

"Yes!" Leann echoed: "This old saying is good, money is hard to make shit, and it is hard to eat! You missed this opportunity today, you may not be able to earn 50 million in your life in the future, you will regret it at that time Yes, don't blame being a mother, I didn't remind you today."

Steve said immediately: "No matter what you say, I can't agree."

"No?" Leann was anxious, and blurted out: "No, yes, if you don't agree, not only will I not let Isabella pass the house today, but also you will not live at home, move out!"

Steve said: "Move out as soon as I move out, I have long wanted to move out!"

"You..." Leann said annoyedly: "If you move out, I will stop all your bank cards for you, and you don't want to get a cent from home in the future!"

Steve said: "It doesn't matter. I don't ask for money from my family. I and Isabella work together to make money. The rent and living expenses we can afford are definitely enough!"

After all, Steve threw the bridegroom's corsage on the ground, and said: "I won't end this marriage. From now on, I will make money with Isabella and serve wine by ourselves!"

Then he ignored his parents, strode towards Isabella, took her hand, and said: "Isabella, we will not have this banquet today. From today on, I will move out from home. Let's rent a house in Aurouss Hilll and live together. We can make money from marriage slowly. Do you think it's okay?"

Isabella nodded moved and said, "Yes! I will listen to you!"

Steve smiled and said, "That's OK, then let's go!"

After finishing speaking, he looked at Claire Wilson Wilson and Charlie Wade again, blurted out: "You two are really great today. When I and Isabella have a banquet by ourselves, I will definitely invite you both!" Claire Wilson Wilson smiled and said, "Then I and Charlie Wade can just wait!"

She also felt that Steve should sever contact with such an awful family. His family was not friendly and would not let him marry Isabella, so he could simply take Isabella out to work hard.

Charlie Wade also admired Steve's approach, and said with a faint smile: "When you two have a wine next time, I will give you the wedding car." Steve immediately bowed to him and blurted out: "Thank you so much!" At this time, Leann stepped over and said angrily: "Steve, if you dare to go with this woman today, then your father and I will cut off your relationship with you. Don't regret it!" What Leann thinks is that in any case, we must promote the marriage with Mr. Ward's daughter. This once-in-a-lifetime opportunity must not be missed.

Chapter 1276

Even if the mother-child relationship has been severed, the father-son relationship is threatened, and the son must be forced to submit. Steve sternly said at this time: "Since you disrespect me so much, then I have nothing else to say. If you say you want to cut it off, then cut it off!"

When Leann heard this, she was immediately furious and furious: "This unconscionable thing, I just raise a dog and know how to wag my tail at me. You have to sever ties with me for such a mischievous woman, we've raised you for nothing for so many years!"

Steve said: "I'm sorry mom, I don't want to be controlled by you in the future."

David Carson also said angrily: "This bastard, if you leave today, there will be no money for this family property from now on! You have to think carefully!"

Steve said: "It's okay, I don't want it."

After speaking, he pulled up Isabella and left.

As soon as Leann saw this scene, she shouted angrily and greeted other relatives and friends: "Hurry up and stop this unscrupulous man. Today, I can't let him go if I say anything! You can go, let this abused woman get out.!"

As soon as the voice fell, the Carson family surrounded the two and Charlie Wade and his wife.

Leann strode to Isabella's face, raised her hand and slapped her in the face, scolding her eyes crackingly: "What kind of ecstasy did you little vixen give my son? Don't leave my son again, believe If you don't believe me, I will kill you!"

Isabella didn't expect that Steve's mother would suddenly do something to herself. She covered her face in aggrieved face and choked up: "Auntie, I have been with Steve for several years. We two truly love each other, please. Do it for us!"

"I will chose who he marries!" Leann was furious when she heard that she said that she was really in love with her son, and she raised her hand and wanted to slap her again.

At this moment, Charlie Wade suddenly reached out and grabbed her wrist, and said coldly: "It's almost enough, if you don't stop, don't blame me for being rude to you."

Leann suddenly cursed: "What are you? Why do you care about me?"

Charlie Wade sneered and said, "This is my wife's classmate. Not only can you not beat her, but you must treat her respectfully. I will give you three seconds to apologize, otherwise you will be at your own risk."

"I'm pooh!" Leann was thinking about the 50 million dowry that Mr. Ward gave for his daughter. At this time, even if the king of heaven and hell came forward, she would not give up, so she pointed at Charlie Wade and cursed: "You just have two good cars? What are you doing here? Who do you think you are, dare to take care of me? Dare to take care of our family's affairs? I tell you, this matter today has nothing to do with you, if you dare to intervene, don't blame me. You are welcome!"

Charlie Wade smiled: "You're welcome to me? You ugly Lady, not only is your mouth cruel, but your tone is big!"

"What the hell are you talking about me?!" Leann became angry when she heard Charlie Wade call her a ugly Lady.

She pays most attention to maintenance on weekdays, and spends more than 10 times more on her face than people like Elaine Ma.

On weekdays, everyone complimented her and said that she was well maintained and that she was not old at all. But when she arrived at Charlie Wade, she was called an ugly Lady. How could she not be angry. He even wanted to rush up and tear Charlie Wade's mouth apart.

David Carson was also very angry at this time and said coldly: "Young Master Wade, you have done too much. I really thought you had money, and our family was afraid that you would not make it? Tell you what happened today, you If you dare to be nosy, I will let you lie down and leave Hilton!"

Chapter 1277

Charlie Wade suddenly laughed when he heard David Carson's words.

Let yourself lie down and leave Hilton?

This David Carson really didn't know that the sky was great.

However, he was really a little embarrassed to let him arrogantly ask Young Master Wade to do things with this group of dishes.

So, I thought, just call Don Albertt and ask him to bring some people over, like Fred White before, slapped the couple 10,000 in the face.

But at this moment, a Rolls Royce drove over.

Jemma, who hadn't spoken all the time, was shocked and hurriedly said: "Oh! Mr. Ward is here!"

When these words came out, David Carson and Leann couldn't help becoming nervous.

I thought it would take a while for Mr. Ward to come over, so she could solve this Isabella's problem first, but it really didn't work, and gave her a 50 million dollar so she could leave her son.

Unexpectedly, the noise here was even more stiff, and Mr. Ward came over! Because there were too many people around here, The Rolls Royce stopped not far away.

As the car stopped, the driver came down and opened the door.

Then, a family of three came down from the back seat.

The middle-aged man wore a suit with a haughty face.

Middle-aged women wear gold and silver, with a rich face.

The girl in the middle of the two is just average, but she wears very eye-catching clothes.

The Chanel dress on her is worth at least one hundred thousand, and she also carries a Hermès crocodile leather limited edition handbag, at least two to three million.

The expressions of the family of three at this time are all happier, and they all seem to feel relieved.

Mr. Ward's full name is Grant Ward, and he has opened dozens of Ward's supermarkets in the surrounding area, with a starting value of several hundred million Dollar.

His daughter's name is Skye Ward, who is 28 years old this year.

Skye studied in the United States a few years earlier.

It has become more popular these years to send children to study abroad. But among these children studying abroad, there are always two extremes. One extreme is that the grades are very good, the scholarships of the world's top universities, and even the opportunity to study abroad at public funds;

The other is that the grades are extremely bad. It is impossible to get into any university in China, but the family is richer, so I simply went abroad to study a pheasant university, and it would be better to speak out.

Most of the students studying abroad are in the latter case.

Skye's family spends millions of dollars a year to allow her to lead a rich second-generation life in the United States. Although she is studying at Pheasant University, she never goes to classes. Every day, she spends all kinds of fun and money. Even various messes.

And she especially likes Western boyfriends, especially people of color. In her own words, a black boyfriend is more capable in that aspect, which can bring her a different feeling.

During these years abroad, Skye talked about a lot of black boyfriends. During this period, she also got pregnant several times and secretly aborted several times.

This time when she came back from the United States, she just broke up with her black boyfriend and found out that she was pregnant after returning.

Chapter 1278

In fact, Skye didn't have any feelings about pregnancy. She felt that since she was pregnant, she would have the baby knocked out. She had done this many times before.

When she arrived at the hospital, the doctor told her that because she had frequent abortions, her reproductive system had reached its limit. If the child was also destroyed, then she would not be able to get pregnant. Upon hearing this, Skye realized that she was in a bit of trouble.

After all, every woman has a dream of becoming a mother. Although she is not yet ready to have children, if she can't have children in the future, and she can't have children in this life, it will be a big blow to her. . So she told her parents about it.

After Mr. Ward learned of this, although he was very angry, he had to think about his daughter's future.

He was just such a daughter. Although he said he was not a boy, he still hoped that his daughter would be able to save him and pass on his blood. If the daughter knocks out this black child, then she will never have a child again, and her blood will be cut off.

That's why he was eager to find a catcher, and he was looking for a catcher who could let his daughter give birth to this child.

As soon as he heard that the Carson family was here, he could have his son Steve and his daughter have the wedding ceremony today, and he was very happy.

So he hurried over with his wife and children.

Even a wedding dress was not available for her daughter.

But he also knew that the situation was urgent, so he had to deal with it specially.

Therefore, he decided to let his daughter make do with Steve to have a wedding today, and then he would spend more money to hold a grand back-door wedding for his daughter.

The main reason why Mr. Ward was so anxious was that he didn't tell the truth with Jemma.

Jemma didn't know that his daughter had no fertility.

She thought that Skye was reluctant to bear the feelings of her black boyfriend, so she wanted to give birth to this child, and she would naturally have another child for Steve in the future.

But in fact, Mr. Ward came to the pit.

He was afraid that after Skye showed her belly, no one dared to ask for it, so he made up such a lie and wanted to find a pick-up man, quickly pick up the girl and give birth to the child.

But he is also a face-saving person, and he doesn't want to marry his daughter to a man who is too ordinary, so when Jemma said that there was a play on Steve's side, he immediately recognized this future son-in-law! Mr. Ward came with his wife and daughter, and David Carson and Leann hurriedly greeted them.

At this time, Mr. Ward was really excited, so when he saw David Carson, he smiled and said: "Oh, old grandson, we have known each other for so long. I didn't expect that I would change my tongue now and call you in-laws!"

David Carson was overjoyed and said: "It is an honor for David Carson to be able to marry you with Mr. Ward!"

Leann also echoed: "Yes, yeah, Mr. Ward, this is your daughter, she looks really beautiful!"

Mr. Ward pointed to Skye and said with a smile: "I will introduce you to me. This is my daughter Skye, who has been in the United States for many years, not long after coming back."

"Oh!" Leann said happily: "Quietly, you are pretty girls, and you have been in the United States for so many years, you must be a top student!"

Mr. Ward smiled and said, "I can't talk about top students, but English is better than the average person."

Leann was happy in her heart.

At this time, Mr. Ward looked around and asked in surprise: "Why didn't you see my future son-in-law?"

At this time, Steve was surrounded by the Carson family, and he was not allowed to go.

Upon hearing this, Leann said hurriedly: "Mr. Ward wait a minute, I will let Steve come over to see you!"

Chapter 1279

As Leann said, she hurried to the crowd and said to Steve: "Hurry up, come with me and see your future wife, I will tell you, if you mess up this matter for me, I can't forgive you!"

Steve said angrily, "I'm going to sever ties with you, so there is no future boss!"

Isabella was surprised and looked at Steve and asked, "Steve, what's going on?"

Steve was getting angry, so he simply said to the public: "My parents are so obsessed, they have to let me be a boss' daughter. It is said that she is also pregnant with a black American child, and she must give birth and my parents want me to marry her!"

When these words came out, not only Isabella, Claire Wilson Wilson, and Charlie Wade were stunned, but even the other grandchildren were also stunned!

Charlie Wade realized that the couple had actually made such a wishful thinking. Is Steve their biological son? It is also because they can really make such a decision.

Leann said impatiently at this time: "Steve, let me tell you, you must not be stupid at this time. There is a dowry of 50 million!"

The Carson family was shocked!

50 million dowry? !

Damn, what else is there?

Steve's cousin, Gary hurriedly asked: "Second aunt, since Steve is not willing, then you introduce this good thing to me? Not to mention being pregnant with an African-American child, even if you are pregnant with an alien child, I have no problem with 50 million!"

Leann raised her eyebrows: "If you want to be beautiful, how can such a good thing take your turn? People are fond of it, but our family is magnificent!"

After that, she looked at Steve again, hating iron and steel, and cursed: "Have you seen it? Who heard this and didn't rush up like a dog sees shit? It's you, and you f*cking hide away. , Your dad and I have been shrewd for a lifetime, how can you marry a stupid thing!"

Steve said coldly: "I see this. Since my cousin is interested, let my cousin go. I am definitely not going!"

Leann was furious, and blurted out to Isabella: "Isabella Stark, as long as you break up with my son, I will give you five million!"

Isabella shook his head unmovedly: "Auntie, I have a true relationship with Steve. Even if you give me 50 million and 100 million, I will not break up with him!"

Gary hurried over and said: "Second aunt, she is not willing to be grand, we can't miss this kind of good thing for nothing, right? You introduced her to me, but the water doesn't flow to outsiders. It's a big deal, I'll turn around and give you 5 million rebates. , Is this the head office?" "Get out!" Leann didn't look down on Gary himself. Their family was far behind her own.

So at this time, seeing Gary still licking her face and trying to cut her face, she was very angry.

In his opinion, even if his son could not get such a good opportunity, he would never introduce it to Gary.

How could he give him a chance to ride on his head and shit?

Gary didn't expect Leann to speak so unceremoniously, and said with a somewhat unhappy expression: "Second aunt, what do you mean? We are all a family."

"f*ck! Who the hell is a family with you!"

Leann was annoyed at first, but seeing that he was still here forcing her to talk to herself, she became even more angry.

Gary was also very angry, why did he scold himself in front of so many people? Did you hire her or mess with her?

Thinking of this, he said loudly: "Second aunt, you are too much!"

At this time, Mr. Ward heard that there was noisy here, so he walked over and asked, "What's the matter?"

Leann hurriedly said: "Mr. Ward, I'm really sorry, the child is only awkward with me, but don't worry, I will definitely persuade him!"

Chapter 1280

As soon as the voice fell, Steve took the initiative to say: "Uncle Ward, I'm really sorry, I already have a beloved woman, and I don't want her to marry, so I can't marry your daughter."

"What's the matter?" Mr. Ward frowned and looked at Leann: "Bring all my girls here, and you sing it for me? Do you kid me? Or do you want to sit down and raise the price?"

"No, no!" Leann hurriedly waved her hand and said humbly: "Mr. Ward, how dare I play you, this boy, he has a problem with his brain, I am teaching him!"

Steve grabbed the conversation and said: "No need to educate, I will go now!"

Leann sternly shouted: "Dare you! If you dare to leave today, I will break your leg!"

Charlie Wade, who hadn't spoken for a long time, couldn't bear this Leann at this time, and said coldly: "You bad Lady, if you don't know what is good or bad, don't blame me for being rude to you!"

Leann immediately pointed to Charlie Wade and said to Mr. Ward: "Mr. Ward, this kid has been here to confuse my son. Otherwise, my son would have agreed, so don't worry, give me some more time!"

Mr. Ward was already mad at this time. He couldn't wait for the next second to let his daughter go on the red carpet with Steve to have the wedding.

So at this time, he didn't know that Leann was throwing the pot to Charlie Wade deliberately, so he glared at Charlie Wade and said, "Boy, if you delay my daughter's marriage today, believe it or not, I will find someone to kill you!"

Charlie Wade looked at him and sneered: "How pregnant is your daughter? Are you so anxious to throw this pregnant girl out?"

Mr. Ward gritted his teeth and said: "Boy, be careful when you speak! If you provoke me, be careful that you can't eat and walk around!"

David Carson also ran over at this time. Seeing that Charlie Wade choked with Mr. Ward, he immediately said nervously: "My family, don't be as knowledgeable as this kid, lest you get angry."

After that, he said to Charlie Wade: "Boy, we have never known each other and have no grudges. I don't want to provoke you, but you should not provoke our family. Today, my son will marry Mr. Ward's daughter, please don't stay. Excuse me here."

"Yes!" Leann also said hurriedly: "What do you do as an outsider in our family's affairs? If you know, hurry away and don't delay my marrying a daughter-in-law today!"

After finishing talking, Leann looked at Isabella with disgust, and said coldly: "And you shameless dog, who was pregnant with my son before he got married, you are not welcome! Our family does not welcome you. Such a woman, get out!"

When Mr. Ward heard this, his face was very ugly.

After all, his daughter was also pregnant with a black ex-boyfriend before getting married, so Leann was very depressed when he heard this.

David Carson also saw that Mr. Ward's face was very ugly, so he hurriedly shouted at Leann: "You stinky lady, what are you talking about?"

As he said, he winked at Leann.

Leann suddenly realized that when she was scolding Isabella just now, she even scolded Mr. Ward's daughter.

So she hurriedly said respectfully: "Mr. Ward, don't be angry, I mean this little btch, your daughter is so noble, and she went to the United States to study. How can this btch woman compare to it!"

When Isabella heard this, tears of grievance kept streaming.

Seeing that she was still crying, Leann said in disgust: "Why are you crying? I wronged you? Shameless dogs, the whole family is stubborn, and want to marry our family? Urine, take your own picture, just like you, are you worthy of our family?"

Charlie Wade was angry at this time, staring at Leann, and said coldly: "Bad Lady, don't you just want this Mr. Ward's daughter to enter your son's door and get the fifty million dowry by the way?"

Leann also gave up, and sternly said: "Yes, that's what I think, what's wrong? Have a relationship with you? Don't hurry up and get away with this little b*tch!"

Charlie Wade sneered and said: "If this is the case, then I will fulfill you today."

Leann snorted and said, "Count you f*cking acquaintance!"

Charlie Wade sneered and said: "Don't be too happy, I mean, today your husband David Carson must marry Mr. Ward's daughter, otherwise, your family will be finished!"

Chapter 1281

Let David Carson, who is in his fifties and has a family, marry Mr. Ward's daughter?

When Charlie Wade said this, all the people at the scene were blown up. Mr. Ward scolded angrily: "Are you f*cking looking for death? I asked my girl to marry Steve, not Steve's father!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "You really don't have the vision to see. Steve doesn't want to marry your daughter? Steve doesn't want to marry. His parents want your daughter to pass, so the best solution is to let his father. Marry your girl, wouldn't everyone be happy?"

"Little bastard, what are you talking about!" Leann said angrily: "Let my husband marry Mr. Ward's daughter? What should I do?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "You? You want to let Mr. Ward's daughter pass the door. Isn't this just as you wanted? You should thank me for providing you with such a good solution."

After speaking, Charlie Wade looked at David Carson again and said with a smile: "Old grandson, you have been watching this bad Lady all day for so many years. I guess you have seen enough. It happens that this time I am in charge and give you a new young wife, not only I gave you 50 million dowry and brought you a son. What a great thing?"

"You fart!" Leann became angry, pointing to Charlie Wade and yelling: "I think you bastard is here to find something. Believe it or not, I'll let someone break your leg!"

After finishing speaking, Leann looked at Mr. Ward and said emotionally: "Mr. Ward, this bastard is messing with mandarin ducks. My husband is old and it doesn't matter if he has a face, but your daughter hasn't married yet. Girl, he said so, it seems to despise you!"

Mr. Ward was also very angry. He gritted his teeth and cursed: "Boy, you are so courageous. You dare to provoke me. Do you know who I am?"

Charlie Wade sneered: "I don't care who you are, I only know that you will be David Carson's father-in-law from now on!"

"You..." Mr. Ward was trembling all over.

He cares very much about his daughter's reputation, so he will ask her to find a man to marry at all costs.

Unexpectedly, this Charlie Wade was here to speak out, and let his daughter marry David Carson, an old thing about his age. Isn't this a slap in the face?

So he said angrily: "Boy, immediately kneel down and apologize to me, otherwise, I will make you regret coming to this world!"

"Oh, Mr. Ward has such a big tone?" Charlie Wade said with a smile:

"Okay, I want to see how good you are. If you don't have the ability to make me regret it, then I'm sorry, I will let you Regret it."

Leann suddenly became angry. She pointed at Charlie Wade and said angrily: "You are so daring to speak to Mr. Ward like this. Believe it or not, I will let people beat you to death now!"

Charlie Wade looked around for a week, and he was surrounded by some younger relatives and friends of the Carson family, all of whom were ordinary people, and they wanted to hurt themselves. It was a foolish dream.

On the contrary, if you fight with such a person, you still have to control your strength at all times. Otherwise, if you accidentally kill a few, it won't be easy.

After all, it's just a small matter, there is no need to kill people.

So he smiled and said: "Bad Lady, you really have a bad brain, and now you still stand up for Mr. Ward? You know, your husband will be his son-in-law soon, and you will be swept out by the Carson family. , So in a strict sense, Ward is always your rival's father, you should hate him."

Chapter 1282

"You...you...you you..." Leann couldn't catch her breath, and shouted to Gary: "Gary, you help the second aunt beat this bastard to death. !"

Gary immediately took a step back and waved his hand with disdain:

"Second aunt, you said just now that I was not a family with me and let me go, now let me help you hit someone? You turn your face faster than a book!"

Leann hurriedly smiled and said, "Gary, don't you be angry with your second aunt. What your second aunt said just now was all angry. Don't you want our Carson family to get better and better?"

"I'm sorry." Gary said immediately: "Your home is yours, my home is mine, we are not a family, so if you want to hit someone, you should hit yourself. What do you tell me to do?"

Having said that, Gary also said to the other grandchildren: "Let's all don't be nosy. This is not our business. People and us are not a family, so we should never be fooled by others. Used as a gun by others."

The others nodded one after another, stepped back a few steps, and had no intention of coming up to help her beat Charlie Wade.

Leann was angry. She didn't expect this Gary to respect the old and love the young at all. There were no rules. How could she say it was his second aunt. How could he talk to herself like this?

However, Leann also understands now that this is not the time to get to know Gary as a scumbag.

So she hurriedly said to Mr. Ward: "Mr. Ward, this little bastard insults you, insults your daughter, and says nothing to let him go. Call someone to kill him! Otherwise, this kind of thing will spread, you and Your daughter's face is all shame!"

Mr. Ward himself was very angry, and after being so incited by Leann, he was even more angry.

So, he pointed to Charlie Wade and said angrily: "Asshole, wait for me, I will call and find someone to kill you!"

After speaking, he took out his mobile phone, found a phone number, and called.

He also turned on the speaker on purpose. While the phone was beeping while waiting to be connected, he sneered and said to Charlie Wade: "Do you know who I call? One of Don Albertt's four heavenly kings, Caesar Hilton, you f*cking wait to die!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Okay, I'll wait, but you'd better call more, because today is the day when your daughter and David Carson are married, so having more relatives and friends will make it look festive!" "You're really on the road to death!" Mr. Ward was trembling all over, just as the phone was connected, so he immediately shouted: "Caesar, come to the Hilton Hotel, my f*cking wants Cut a bastard!"

Mr. Ward's supermarkets are located in the fringe of the city and the surrounding districts and counties. In that kind of place, there are often gangsters who visit, either by extortion or looting. If you want to do business in a down-to-earth manner, you must have a relationship with the underground world. A certain connection, so he has been on the line of Caesar.

After all, Caesar is one of the four heavenly kings under Don Albertt, and can be ranked fourth in the entire Aurouss Hilll underground world, so his strength is still very strong.

Moreover, his fame is also very great. Since Mr. Ward approached him, the supermarket business has never been harassed by gangsters.

Because of the long cooperation time, he and Caesar also had a very good personal relationship. Some time ago, he kept saying that he would pay a favor to Caesar, and also gave a big red envelope of 1.88 million, Caesar. For the sake of money, he agreed.

Mr. Ward thought, if he bowed to Caesar and let the wind go, and then developed in the suburban area, it would be even more like easy, so he was preparing to find a good day to have a ceremony of burning yellow paper and drinking chicken blood. .

Today, I just met Charlie Wade pretending to be coercive with him, and he was still taking care of his daughter's life-long events. He planned to ask Caesar to come and help cut him off. Then at noon the two of them would find a big hotel and have a meal together. The ceremony is done!

Chapter 1283

Caesar has always regarded Mr. Ward as a cash cow. The annual protection fee paid by him alone is as much as seven or eight million. In addition to the part handed over to Don Albertt, Caesar can also save two or three million.

Therefore, as soon as he heard that he was going to kill someone, he blurted out without hesitation: "Okay, wait a minute, I'll take someone there!"

After Mr. Ward thanked him so much, he hung up the phone and looked at Charlie Wade with a sneer: "Boy, don't blame me for not giving you a chance to survive. I asked you to kneel, but you didn't cherish it, but you don't kneel now. It's too late."

Charlie Wade smiled and asked, "Who did you call just now? Caesar Hilton? Is this John Rambo from "First Blood"?"

"Be less f*cking crazy!" Mr. Ward said coldly: "Caesar, one of Don Albertt's four heavenly kings!"

When Steve heard this, he said eagerly: "Charlie Wade, I'm really sorry today! You can leave with Claire Wilson Wilson. Caesar and Mr. Ward have a very good relationship. He is on a mixed road, and he is vicious. I don't want you and Claire Wilson Wilson to get hurt because of me..."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Steve, you don't need to apologize to me for this matter today, but I feel a little embarrassed. Don't blame me for finding you a stepmother."

"Uh..." Steve was speechless.

Steve always thought that Charlie Wade was joking with them, and he didn't take it seriously, but now that Charlie Wade meant it, he seemed to be serious!

This...what does this mean?

At this time, Charlie Wade looked at Mr. Ward and said with a smile: "You have said that the four heavenly kings are only one of them. It is not lively enough! Or else, call the remaining three too! After all, they are married. For my daughter's great day, the more people who will join us, the better."

"You f*cking don't see the coffin, don't cry!" Mr. Ward gritted his teeth and cursed: "Okay, I will make you crazy for a while, and you will know the cost of rampantism in a while!"

Charlie Wade shook his head and smiled helplessly: "You bad old men, bad old ladies, you are in your 50s or 60s. Why are you still so tempered? You see, I am so young, but I am not angry at all, and I speak calmly." Having said that, Charlie Wade sighed and said: "Well, I will call more people to come and cheer for you."

Mr. Ward sneered and said: "Boy, you f*cking threaten me, if there is a kind of thing, you can ask someone to come, let's show up with real swords and guns on both sides to compete!"

Charlie Wade nodded, took out his phone, and sent a WeChat message to Don Albertt.

"Bring all three of the four heavenly kings under your seat, except Caesar, to Hilton, and invite you to have a wedding wine."

Don Albertt was shocked and returned to the micro-channel: "Master Wade, you... are you getting second married?"

"f*ck off." Charlie Wade scolded: "It's not me who asks, someone asks, you can bring someone here."

"Okay, I am here!"

Charlie Wade said: "Bring more brothers and join in."

"Good Master Wade!"

Charlie Wade then sent Cameron Isaac another WeChat, asking him to come to the Hilton Hotel to watch a play with him.

Since Cameron Isaac came back from Golim Mountain, he has treated Charlie Wade as a god. Hearing the call of the young master, without saying anything, he immediately said: "Master, I am here!"

A few minutes later, a Volkswagen Phaeton with seven or eight vehicles of various colors drove to Hilton's door.

The Volkswagen Phaeton stepped forward and walked down a middle-aged man with a look of flesh.

Seeing this man, Mr. Ward sneered and said to Charlie Wade: "Boy, Caesar is here, you are dead today."

Charlie Wade had never seen Caesar, but when he saw this Phaeton sedan, his heart suddenly moved.

At that time, Jeff, a young man who grew up with his orphanage, drove his Mercedes-Benz and crashed into a Volkswagen Phaeton in order to get rid of his car. It is said that the Phaeton was the car of a big brother on the road. This Caesar.

Charlie Wade wiped an upward arc at the corner of Charlie Wade's mouth, thinking, this is a bit interesting.

Chapter 1284

At this time, in the other cars, thirty or forty menacing little brothers suddenly ran out.

Afterwards, under the command of Caesar, these people ran over and surrounded the crowd.

Mr. Ward hurriedly waved at him: "Caesar!"

Caesar nodded, glanced at him, and asked, "Mr. Ward, who is not long-eyed and dares to bump into you?"

Mr. Ward pointed at Charlie Wade and said angrily: "Caesar, this little bastard, not only insults me, but also f*cking insults my girl!"

Caesar raised his eyebrows, looked at Charlie Wade, and immediately trembled with fright.

Damn it!

It's Master Wade!

After all, Caesar is one of Don Albertt's four great heavenly kings, and one of Don Albertt's more powerful celebrities. When Charlie Wade was in Heaven Springs, he had seen Charlie Wade's face.

However, at that time, Don Albertt was extremely humble to Charlie Wade, and he was shy of speaking, so naturally he didn't introduce his men.

He didn't expect that Mr. Ward would provoke Master Wade. He panicked and he blurted out to explain to Charlie Wade: "Wade...Wade..."

Charlie Wade interrupted him immediately: "You have admitted the wrong person."

"Ah?" Caesar said hurriedly and respectfully: "How could it be, the young one used to be in Heaven Springs..."

Charlie Wade raised his eyebrows: "I said you admitted the wrong person. Are you deaf?"

Caesar's internal organs were all trembling at Charlie Wade's roar, knowing that Charlie Wade definitely didn't want to tell him who he was, so he was busy to follow his words.

But at this time, Mr. Ward scolded in a rage: "Damn, why are you talking to Caesar? Are you going to die? Believe it or not, let someone chop you down immediately?"

Mr. Ward's words immediately scared Caesar to the ground almost as soon as his legs were weak.

He turned his face and stared at Mr. Ward with anger, slapped his face with a slap, "Damn! Mr. Ward, do you want to die? Believe it or not, I hacked you? "

Mr. Ward was stunned by this slap.

What's the situation?

I asked you to slash this little bastard, why did you slap me?

Mr. Ward was aggrieved and covered his face, looked at Caesar, and blurted out: "Caesar, you...what are you hitting me for?"

Caesar trembled all over.

What are you doing? I f*cking want to kill you!

Who is it not good for you to provoke, Master Wade? Isn't this going to pit me to death?

How many people who have offended Master Wade have been dragged by my elder brother Don Albertt to the kennel to feed the dogs. Are you f*cking trying to kill me?

However, he didn't dare to say this clearly. After all, Master Wade was already angry just now, and he definitely didn't want to expose his identity...

Thinking of this, he could only suppress the anger and fear in his heart, and said: "I hit you because you are too unqualified to speak. Don't always talk about cutting people. Pay attention to your quality, understand?"

Mr. Ward was wronged to death, and blurted out: "But you just called me an old dog, and you said you want to hack me to death. What should I say..."

Chapter 1285

When Caesar heard Mr. Ward say this, he slapped him again angrily, and yelled: "Grass, you f*cking dare to talk back to me? I said you listen to me!"

Mr. Ward was slapped twice and was extremely depressed. How could he have been beaten since he became an adult?

Today, in front of so many people, Caesar slapped him twice.

However, although he was very angry, he did not dare to express any dissatisfaction at this moment.

I can only nodded angrily and said, "Caesar, you are right. I must pay more attention to what I say outside."

Caesar snorted coldly and glanced at Charlie Wade. He couldn't help but feel a little guilty, so he asked Mr. Ward: "What the hell is going on today? Tell me clearly!"

Mr. Ward immediately said with aggrieved and angry face: "Caesar, I have lost all my old face today. A little b*tch who didn't know where he came from would dare to pretend to be forceful with me, and dare to insult and humiliate me I, you have to help me decide!"

Having said that, Mr. Ward immediately said the matter exactly.

Caesar couldn't help being dumbfounded when he finished speaking.

On the one hand, he was surprised at the promiscuity of Mr. Ward's daughter, on the one hand, he was also surprised at the shamelessness of the David Carson family, and on the other hand, he was shocked by Master Wade's manipulation!

If you were Charlie Wade, you would bring someone here to teach the two families a lesson, and then let Steve and Isabella get married.

But a ghost like Master Wade could even think of letting David Carson marry Mr. Ward's daughter!

This is too dark humor! David Carson and Leann wanted to make their son the catcher.

But the two of them might not have thought of it anyway, and it was David Carson who was going to be the next Panxia.

Moreover, Caesar had heard of a lot of Master Wade's deeds a long time ago, not to mention, he had already heard of Master Wade's resolute and uncompromising character.

Therefore, he looked at Mr. Ward and David Carson with sympathy at this moment, and he was very clear in his heart that although this solution seemed very absurd and ironic, since this was the decision of Master Wade, there must be no buffer room for this matter. .

At this moment, Mr. Ward saw Caesar's expression weird, and hurriedly cried: "Caesar, if you say that Mr. Ward is in Aurouss Hilll, I can be considered a person with a face. This guy humiliates me and humiliates my daughter. ?"

Caesar scratched his head awkwardly, looked at Charlie Wade, and said, "Mr. Ward, if you want me to say, you guys don't know how to promote! This matter itself is very complicated, and for your family. There is also a very urgent need to be resolved. You can't find a solution. This

Mr. Wade gave you a good idea. Isn't it a good idea? Now this David Carson is right in front of you, and your daughter is also here. Hilton Banquet Once everything is set up, you can simply marry your daughter to David Carson just because of the right time and place, isn't it over?" "what?!"

Whether it was Mr. Ward, David Carson, or Leann, they never expected Caesar to say such a thing!

David Carson and Leann couldn't help cursing in their hearts, the dog-day Caesar, was Mr. Ward invited or Charlie Wade invited?

Why didn't he speak to Mr. Ward at all?

Chapter 1286

And also slapped Mr. Ward in the face and asked Mr. Ward to marry his daughter to David Carson...

The latter incident is much more cruel than a slap in the face!

Mr. Ward was even more depressed and wanted to die. He shivered and said, "Caesar...you can't turn your elbows out, but we both want to worship good brothers! My daughter is you. Big niece, do you have the heart to let her marry a bad old man like David Carson?"

Caesar immediately said: "Mr. Ward, we are familiar with each other, but you can't talk nonsense. I'm an ordinary acquaintance with you. Who said I would worship you?"

Mr. Ward was shocked and hurriedly said: "Caesar, we have known each other for many years. I have not lost any of the benefits that should be given every year. I gave you such a big red envelope some time ago. How do you turn your face and turn your face?"

Caesar said solemnly: "Mr. Ward, I'm not turning my face with you, I'm all for your own good, understand? You said that although your daughter is young, she is very dirty, right? She is only in her 20s. I was pregnant with a foreigner's child, and It was still a black man. The point is that you still have to let her give birth to this child. How can ordinary people handle this kind of thing?"

After finishing talking, he pointed at David Carson and said seriously: "Look at David Carson, he is a little older, but older men know that they hurt people, and look at him, his biological son is so old, and he has already succeeded in inheriting the family. It doesn't matter to him that Skye's father doesn't matter, how appropriate!"

David Carson's old face is red and hot!

What the hell does this mean? Can you be a father to black people by co-authoring?

Leann was even more depressed, and said annoyedly: "I said what's the matter with you? In my face, you seduce my husband to marry a child, is it sick?"

Caesar glanced at her in disgust, and said coldly: "What is the big one? Do you think it is a feudal society? Our country can only be monogamous, don't you know? Since David Carson wants to marry Mr. Ward's daughter, then You must divorce him first!"

"You fart!" Leann was anxious all of a sudden, ignoring that the other party was the eldest brother, angrily scolded: "I think you are making trouble, you bastard, get out! You are not welcome here!"

"f*ck you!" Caesar lifted his foot, kicked Leann's belly, kicked her far away, and cursed: "You dare to yell at me for anything, believe it. If you don't believe me, I cut your tongue?"

Leann couldn't get up for a long time because of this kick. She lay on the ground and rolled her belly, crying in her mouth.

David Carson hurriedly said to Mr. Ward: "Oh, Mr. Ward, what the hell is going on? Didn't you invite him here? Didn't you let him cut Charlie Wade? After he comes, he will beat my wife?"

Caesar raised his hand and slapped David Carson, and cursed: "Why are you so inept? What I said just now is nothing, right? Didn't you hear Mr. Wade's arrangement? Starting today, Your wife is Mr. Ward's daughter, and Mr. Ward is your father-in-law, do you understand?"

"I....."

David Carson looked uncomfortable.

Mr. Ward was also very depressed. He angrily said to Caesar, "Caesar, if you don't want to help, just forget it, but don't kick me off, I don't need you here, please leave!"

"Huh?" Caesar said coldly: "Let me go? Mr. Ward, you have a lot of courage to dare to talk to me in this tone?"

Mr. Ward clasped his hands together and kept wailing, begging in his mouth: "I beg you, Caesar, we will solve this problem by ourselves. We don't need your help. You must be very busy with everything, so we won't waste your time. Please go."

Caesar said disdainfully: "What? You let me go and I'll leave? Do you think you are my elder brother?"

At this moment, someone suddenly yelled: "Don Albertt is here!"

Chapter 1287

"f*ck!"

As soon as Caesar heard that Don Albertt was here, he immediately knew that his eldest brother was coming to Master Wade.

So he looked at Mr. Ward with sympathy and shook his head: "Mr. Ward, don't blame me for not reminding you, you are ready to marry your daughter!"

After speaking, he hurriedly walked over to meet Don Albertt.

At this time, someone in the crowd said: "I'm going! Don Albertt came with the other three of the Four Great Heavenly Kings. This is the Four Tiger Generals under Don Albertt! Since Don Albertt became the underground king of Aurouss Hilll, The four heavenly kings were each allocated a site, and it has been a long time since they got together to show their faces!"

When everyone heard this, they couldn't help being shocked.

Claire Wilson Wilson asked Charlie Wade in a low voice: "Charlie Wade, this Don Albertt, shouldn't you call him here?"

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "Yes, it's what I called. Today I say that they will do what I say, and I must never let people on the rivers and lakes laugh at me."

Claire Wilson Wilson asked him in a low voice with a look of surprise, "Could it be that you really want Steve's father to marry Mr. Ward's daughter?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Of course it's true. Didn't I apologize to Steve in advance before I heard it?"

Charlie Wade had already said sorry to Steve just now. I'm sorry, but I will find him a stepmother today, so he will do what he says.

Claire Wilson Wilson was shocked and couldn't help but said, "Is this joke a bit big?"

"Joke" Charlie Wade said with a smile: "Wife, when did I say this was a joke? I always mean what I say."

Claire Wilson Wilson couldn't help asking, "Is this appropriate? I always think it's a bit inappropriate..."

Charlie Wade grabbed her hand and said softly: "Don't worry, if your husband says it's appropriate, no one dares to say it's inappropriate!" At this time, Don Albertt had already stepped towards Charlie Wade. As he walked, he asked Caesar in a low voice: "Did you guy cause me any trouble? Did you bump into Master Wade or offend Master Wade?"

"Big brother, I don't have either!" Caesar hurriedly explained: "There is a guy who paid us premiums and asked me to help him cut people. After I came, I found that he was targeting Master Wade, so I said something. I didn't dare to speak to Master Wade if I was offending, but beat that person, absolutely not offending Master Wade!"

Don Albertt nodded, feeling a little relieved.

Caesar has been with him for many years. Knowing that Caesar would never lie to himself, he nodded and said in a low voice, "When you get to Mr. Wade later, you talk less, lest you make more mistakes, you know? "

Caesar said immediately: "Don't worry, brother, I will be silent!"

At this time, Don Albertt brought the four heavenly kings and a group of younger brothers to Charlie Wade.

When he came, David Carson, Leann and his wife, and Mr. Ward were all frightened.

I never dreamed that today I would provoke the underground emperor of Arouss Hilll!

The ghost knows why he came?

In case something makes him unhappy and makes him blame it, the trouble will be great!

Next, an even more stunned scene happened!

Don Albertt strode in front of everyone, without saying anything, immediately bowed to Charlie Wade, and said respectfully: "Master Wade! Don Albertt is late, and Master Wade will punish him!"

As soon as he said this, the four heavenly kings, as well as hundreds of younger brothers from various heavenly kings, bowed together ninety degrees and said in unison: "Master Wade, please punish!"

Chapter 1288

One or two hundred people shouted these six words at the same time, making the whole scene seem like thunder!

The others were all frightened.

Leann's face was pale, David Carson's legs were soft, and Mr. Ward knelt on the ground with a thud.

He knew he was finished. Never thought that he would have such a great ability to cut this kid. Even Don Albertt treats him respectfully!

At this time, Don Albertt didn't have the aura of the underground emperor of Arouss Hilll, he was exactly a dog of this young man! What's the sacredness of yourself?

At this time, Charlie Wade looked at Don Albertt, smiled faintly, and said: "It's okay, it's not too late to come."

Don Albertt asked immediately, "Master Wade, I don't know, what do you want to tell Don Albertt to come over?"

Charlie Wade pointed to Mr. Ward and said, "This person is going to marry his daughter today, but his daughter's fiance has not yet divorced, so I'll give you half an hour to take his daughter's fiance and his daughter's fiance's current wife. Let me go to the Civil Affairs Bureau to complete the divorce procedures."

Don Albertt was confused and couldn't figure out what was going on, but he nodded very seriously and said, "Master Wade, don't worry, Don Albertt will finish this matter within half an hour."

After speaking, Don Albertt asked carefully: "Master Wade, where are the fiancé of this person's daughter and the current wife of this person's daughter's fiancé?"

Charlie Wade pointed to David Carson and Leann, and said lightly: "This bad old man is her daughter's fiance, and the bad old woman next to him is the current wife of this bad old man."

Don Albertt took a look, and he was immediately stunned.

What exactly is going on?

This Mr. Ward seems to be in his early 50s, and David Carson looks at the same age as him. Why is the relationship between the father-in-law and the son-in-law?

However, he didn't dare to ask indiscriminately, and immediately nodded and said, "Master Wade, don't worry, I will take them to get a marriage certificate!"

Upon hearing this, Leann immediately jumped and scolded emotionally: "Why do you let me divorce my husband?"

Charlie Wade sneered: "Just rely on my words!"

Leann scolded angrily: "The beauty you want! Want me to divorce my husband unless you kill me!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Kill you? Just a bad Lady like you is worthy of letting me kill you? Obediently divorced your husband, get out of Aurouss Hilll, you can still have a way to survive, otherwise, I will let you survive Don't ask for death, no!"

Leann was frightened by Charlie Wade's aura, she didn't even dare to speak.

Don Albertt said coldly at this time: "You two have heard what Master Wade said. Don't grind with me here, and quickly follow me to the Civil Affairs Bureau and get the divorce certificate!"

Charlie Wade said, "Don't rush to take them away. Bring Mr. Ward's daughter along by the way. After David divorces the old woman, let Mr. Ward's daughter get the marriage certificate from David Carson on the spot. After receiving the certificate, it was just in time to come over for the banquet at noon!"

Mr. Ward sat on the ground at this time and said desperately: "I don't agree! No one wants my daughter to marry this bad old man!"

Don Albertt said sharply: "Dare to disobey Master Wade? Believe it or not, I will kill you now?"

"I don't believe it!" Mr. Ward collapsed and cried loudly: "In broad daylight and in the sky, I don't believe you can kill me! Moreover, even if I die, I won't let my daughter marry David Carson!"

Chapter 1289

Seeing that Mr. Ward still dared to object, Don Albertt sternly reprimanded: "It is against you. Even Master Wade's decision dare to disobey, right?"

Mr. Ward spoiled his ineffective daughter the most, so he didn't care about the status of Don Albertt at this time, and said angrily: "My daughter is still young! How could she marry such a bad old man as big as me!"

Caesar fell into trouble at this time, and sneered: "What? You don't look down on the old man, but you send your daughter abroad and let her mess with the old man abroad, why are you okay?"

Mr. Ward said angrily, "I don't know that! I want to know that after she goes out, she will get together with the big black guys, and I won't send her abroad if she is killed!"

Don Albertt said indifferently: "Okay, let's talk less nonsense. No one can rebel against Master Wade's decision. If you are not on the way, don't blame me for being rude to you!"

Mr. Ward sternly said: "If there is a species, you will kill me! I still don't believe it! What I say has been rated as an outstanding local entrepreneur in Aurouss Hilll for several years. Today so many people watched, you can kill me in broad daylight. ?"

Don Albertt's face suddenly became very ugly.

This guy actually recognized that he didn't dare to act directly on him here.

Although he is the underground emperor of Aurouss Hilll, it is really difficult to deal with a well-known entrepreneur worth hundreds of millions under the circumstances.

Just when he didn't know what to do, suddenly a voice came and said coldly: "Someone even dared to disobey Master Wade's words, let me see who it is, the head is so iron!"

Mr. Ward looked up, and was shocked to death by the speaker!

This... isn't this person Cameron Isaac, the owner of Shangri-La?

This is the president of the Aurouss Hilll Pinnacle Entrepreneurs Association, the spokesperson of Eastcliff's top big family, and the super-big boss who all the entrepreneurs of Aurouss Hilll are respectful!

Mr. Ward spent several years and spent a lot of money to get people to clear up the relationship and let himself join the Aurouss Hilll Pinnacle Entrepreneur Association, because this Pinnacle Entrepreneur Association was organized by Cameron Isaac, and all the people who collected it were first-class in Aurouss Hilll. Bosses and entrepreneurs, people like themselves worth several hundred million, are simply not qualified to enter.

After joining the Pinnacle Entrepreneur Association, he discovered that the top entrepreneurs in Aurouss Hilll depend more or less on Cameron Isaac's relationship and channels.

This is mainly because Cameron Isaac is in Aurouss Hilll and he really has hands and eyes!

Some real estate developers can't get the land they want, so they ask Cameron Isaac. As long as Cameron Isaac is willing to help, the problem will be solved.

Some manufacturers can't get the approval document or the authorization of the top big company, as long as they can find his help, it is a matter of sentence.

This is Cameron Isaac's strength, which is completely beyond the reach of ordinary people.

However, he did not expect that Cameron Isaac would also come today!

Moreover, did he call that young man Master Wade? ! What is the origin of this young man? !

He looked at Cameron Isaac who was striding over in a panic, and said tremblingly: "Cameron...Mr. Cameron...oh no...Chairman Cameron, why are you here? ?"

Cameron Isaac said coldly: "Let me see, who is so bold, who dares to disobey Master Wade's orders!"

After finishing speaking, Cameron Isaac also bowed to Charlie Wade and said respectfully: "Master Wade, Isaac is late, please punish me!"

Chapter 1290

Mr. Ward looked at Cameron Isaac and Charlie Wade again, only then did he realize that Charlie Wade really has great abilities!

Even Cameron Isaac is so respectful to him, didn't he kick the steel plate?

At this time, Cameron Isaac turned his face and looked at Mr. Ward again, and said coldly: "You want to disobey Master Wade's arrangement, right?"

In this case, then I will ask all the supermarkets, all the properties, cars and Bank accounts and stock accounts are all sealed up indefinitely! Let your family have nothing and go to the streets to beg for dinner!"

Upon hearing this, Mr. Ward said to Charlie Wade in a panic: "Master Wade, Master Wade! I was really wrong, you adults don't remember the villain, don't be familiar with people like me, please!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "I didn't want to be familiar with you, so you just have to obey my arrangements honestly."

"I...I..." Mr. Ward couldn't make this determination.

Marry your daughter to David Carson? Don't say whether my daughter agrees or disagree, I can't hold it on this face!

If people in Aurouss Hilll knew that they had married their daughter to such a bad old man, wouldn't they still be able to count themselves to death?

However, it is Cameron Isaac who is offending him right now!

If Cameron Isaac really wants to kill herself and leave her family with nothing, it will not only be bad luck for her daughter, but also for herself and his wife...

Seeing him hesitating for a long time, Cameron Isaac snorted coldly: "It seems that you are going to fight to the end. Okay, then I will call and arrange it!"

After speaking, Cameron Isaac wanted to touch the phone.

Mr. Ward was frightened, and blurted out: "Don't! Don't! Mr. Cameron, don't! Can't I promise? I promise! I promise all!"

Cameron Isaac said coldly: "What did you do early? You have to agree early. I think of your respect for Master Wade, and I will give you some care, but you don't know what is good or bad, and you are rude to Master Wade. , From today, you will be officially expelled from the Aurouss Hilll Pinnacle Entrepreneurs Association! You can never join again!"

"Ah?!" Mr. Ward took the boss's effort to join the Pinnacle Entrepreneur Association.

The purpose is to get some resources and contacts of the association in this association.

During this time, he has indeed received a lot of help and promotion from the Pinnacle Entrepreneur Association.

Even the city knew that he had joined the Pinnacle Entrepreneur Association, so it gave his supermarket a green light and gave a favorable policy of 50% corporate income tax reduction for five years, which can save tens of millions.

Moreover, several real estate business members in the Pinnacle Entrepreneur Association are also considering giving themselves preferential prices so that they can buy shops from their real estate at extremely low prices, so that their supermarkets can quickly expand. . However, if the news that you have been expelled from the Pinnacle Entrepreneur Association is spread, not only will your future business development and cooperation be greatly affected, even the favorable policies you have already received will probably be abolished, and you will suffer heavy losses!

But at this time, he really didn't dare to complain anymore. After all, Cameron Isaac's strength was much stronger than Don Albertt. If Cameron

Isaac really wanted to block him, then his whole family would have to finish playing!

And it is possible that all the family properties will be sealed up, without a penny, and finally starve to death on the roadside!

After all, this person can cover the sky with just one hand in Aurouss Hilll!

Therefore, he could only cry and say: "Chairman Cameron, I am willing to accept Master Wade's arrangement to marry my daughter to David Carson!"
Chapter 1291

Mr. Ward knew that he could not provoke Cameron Isaac, so he could only compromise with him at this moment.

Marrying his daughter to David Carson really makes it difficult for him to accept, but instead of angering Cameron Isaac and then the whole family suffering, he can only choose to sacrifice his daughter's interests in exchange for the safety of the whole family.

Seeing that he finally agreed, Cameron Isaac snorted and said, "If you agreed early, don't you need to talk so much nonsense?"

Mr. Ward could only nod his head like garlic and said: "Chairman Cameron, you are right. I will never talk nonsense in the future. Please keep my membership..."

Cameron Isaac ignored him, but turned to look at Charlie Wade, and asked respectfully: "Master Wade, what do you think?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and looked at David Carson and Leann, and said lightly: "Since Mr. Ward is already willing to marry his daughter, you should prepare quickly. It seems that it's over 10 o'clock and the wedding is 12 o'clock. Must start on time."

David Carson trembled with fright. He didn't expect Charlie Wade to really want to marry Mr. Ward's daughter.

Marrying a girl who is more than 20 years younger than you is naturally a good thing.

But the key is how to explain to his wife Leann.

Also, Mr. Ward's daughter, who is pregnant now, has a black child in her belly, and married her in the door by herself. Wouldn't she like to be a father after a few months? When she gave birth to a black child, wouldn't she be the laughing stock of the entire Aurouss Hilll?

So on the whole, he really didn't want to agree to Charlie Wade's arrangement, but now that he is more than ten times stronger than himself, Mr. Ward has already compromised, what else can he do?

Don Albertt and even Cameron Isaac are here. If he is really not exalted, he will probably end badly.

Thinking of this, he can only respectfully say to Charlie Wade: "I would like to listen to Master Wade's arrangement!"

At this moment, Leann on the side exploded, and she cursed hysterically: "David Carson, you bastard with no conscience, are you really ready to give me a mess? Don't forget, my Lady has been with you for so many years. The wind comes and rains, how much hardship did you endure, and how much contribution did you make to your grandson family? Are you actually going to kick my Lady away now?"

David Carson said with a very painful expression: "You can also see that this matter is not what I can do. If you offend Master Wade, Master Wade will blame it, and our whole family will be ruined!"

Leann's whole life's hard work has been spent on the Carson family.

Her family has no abilities either. When she married David Carson, David Carson had no abilities either. It was the husband and wife step by step that they made the industry the scale of today.

Unexpectedly, when she was about to start enjoying the blessing, she would actually be kicked out. How could this make her stand it?

So, she scolded angrily: "I don't care about any bullshit Master Wade, if you dare to divorce me, I will fight with you! I will die with you!"

Cameron Isaac did not expect that this bad Lady would dare to disobey Charlie Wade so much, and immediately shouted to her coldly: "I will give you the last chance to honestly divorce David Carson, then get out of Aurouss Hilll and never come back again, if If you don't do it, then I will find out all of your parents' family and drive them out of Aurouss Hilll. Then, your family's family will be destroyed in your hands. Don't regret it!"

When Leann heard this, she almost fainted with fright.

Chapter 1292

She knows that Cameron Isaac's background is very big, and he also knows that he is true to one thing, and that his ability is well-rounded. If he really wants to drive himself and his family out of Aurouss Hilll, he will do what he says.

In that way, instead of being able to defend his marriage, he killed all his maidens.

The mother's family didn't have much abilities in the first place, and now they are considered well-off. If they leave their hometown, they will definitely have a mess.

If you say nothing, you can't harm yourself and your mother's family, otherwise, wouldn't you become a mouse on the street, everyone shouting and beating?

Just when she made a painful decision to take over Charlie Wade's arrangement, she suddenly saw Isabella standing next to her.

So Leann seemed to have caught the savior, and quickly ran to Isabella, and knelt on the ground with a different sound, crying and begging:

"Isabella, it was all aunts before, but the aunt was wrong. From now on, Auntie Never object to your marriage with Steve anymore. Please tell Master Wade and beg Master Wade. Let's take advantage of the time before we arrive, and quickly prepare to have the wedding. You will be my best friend in the future. Daughter-in-law, I will treat you like a daughter, okay? I beg you!"

Leann had already figured it out at this time. Everything today was due to Isabella. If she didn't do everything possible to prevent Isabella from marrying her son, then Master Wade would definitely not target herself.

The reason why Master Wade aimed at himself must be because his attitude towards Isabella just now was really bad, which angered him.

Moreover, he desperately wanted to force his son to marry Mr. Ward's daughter. This behavior must have angered Master Wade.

That's why Master Wade punishes himself and wants his husband to marry Mr. Ward's daughter.

To solve this problem, we must start from the source, and Isabella is the source.

If I can persuade Isabella and ask Isabella to intercede with Master Wade, everything may be back to the original point.

Isabella didn't know what to do at this time.

She is a kind woman, and she doesn't want her fiancé's mother to have nothing and leave her hometown.

But when she thought about her attitude towards herself, Isabella felt a little worried.

If I really pleaded with Charlie Wade for her, and if Charlie Wade really forgave her, will she retaliate against herself in the future?

Seeing her entangled, Leann knew that she was worried that she must find her in the future to settle accounts.

So she cried and kowtowed to Isabella, and pleaded miserably: "Don't worry, I will be good to you in the future. You will be my daughter and you in the future. Our mothers and daughters will abandon the misfortunes and live their lives. If I turn my face on you, I won't die!"

Isabella's heart softened, and he couldn't help but look at Charlie Wade. After hesitating for a while, she stammered and said to Charlie Wade:

"That...Charlie Wade...oh no...Master Wade..."

Charlie Wade looked at her, interrupted her, and said in a cold voice: "I know what you are going to say, but I want to tell you that it is no longer between you and her, but between me and her. It's useless for you to beg for things, between me and her. I won't give you this face, nor can I give you!"

Chapter 1293

Isabella was frightened by Charlie Wade's decisive attitude.

At the same time, she also realized that Charlie Wade could not give herself this face.

So she could only look at Leann with an apologetic expression, and said, "I'm sorry, Auntie, I can't do anything about this..."

Leann didn't expect that the life-saving straw in her heart didn't work at all, so she turned to look at Steve and cried and said, "Steve, you have to save mother! Steve pulling you so hard is not easy!"

Steve was also very uncomfortable at this time. Leann was his mother after all. He said that he didn't want his mother to divorce his father and was then driven out of Aurouss Hilll.

Moreover, he didn't want his father to marry a stepmother who was as old as his own after divorcing his mother.

So, he bit his head and knelt down to Charlie Wade, begging: "Charlie Wade, Master Wade, please give our mother another chance, she will definitely change in the future!"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "I have already said that this matter is between me and your father, your mother, and this Mr. Ward. These three people have no one to look at. They repeatedly ridiculed me, ridiculed me, and even threatened me to Kill me, do you think you can solve these problems by kneeling me? We only met today for the first time. Do you think you have such a great face?"

At this time, Gary gave Steve a hand and blurted out: "Are you stupid, Steve? You still dare to disobey Master Wade at this time! Shut up!"

At this time, Gary was gloating at misfortune on the one hand, and feeling a little scared on the other.

He was gloating because he was very upset with Leann a long time ago. His second aunt relied on his own family to have a little money, looked down upon himself in various ways, and ridiculed himself repeatedly. Now he ended up like this. It really deserves it.

He was afraid because he was afraid that Steve's family of three would continue to run into Master Wade if he was angry and guilty of the entire Carson family, and he would also be implicated.

So Gary just wanted to watch the fire from the other side, not wanting the fire to burn to his feet.

At this time, in his eyes, his cousin Steve was playing with fire and setting himself on fire, and he might even burn the fire on himself. Only then did Steve fully realize that in front of Charlie Wade, his words had no weight.

The reason why Charlie Wade came to join him today was entirely because of the face of his wife Claire Wilson Wilson.

And the reason why Claire Wilson Wilson brought him here was entirely because she and her fiancée Isabella were high school classmates.

In this matter, Charlie Wade didn't even give Isabella's face, so how could he give himself face?

Seeing that no one could help her at this moment, Leann suddenly collapsed.

In her heart at this time, she was so regretful that she couldn't wait to give herself hundreds of big mouths!

Unexpectedly, in order to prevent Isabella from entering the gate of Carson's house, I would ridicule her, sarcasm, insult, ridicule, and even insult her.

But in the end, he became the one who was about to be kicked out of the Carson family.

This is really ironic.

If she had known today and killed her, she would not have done such a thing.

She couldn't help asking herself, Leann, Leann, why do you have to get along with this Isabella? I'm all right now, I've gotten into big trouble. If I divorced David Carson today and got kicked out of Aurouss Hilll, how can I live my life in the future?

Charlie Wade looked at the time at this time, and said impatiently: "If you delay any longer, it will be almost 11 o'clock. Is this marriage still going to end?"

Hearing this, Don Albertt suddenly scolded Leann in a cold voice: "Hurry up and go to the Civil Affairs Bureau to go through the divorce procedures, and if you don't get the f*cking ink, you will be driven out of Aurouss Hilll!"

After hearing this, Leann trembled with fear, crying and said: "I will go, I will go, I will go..."

Only then was Don Albertt satisfied. He turned to Mr. Ward and said, "Go, call your daughter up and follow me!"

Chapter 1294

Mr. Ward hurriedly bowed his knees and said: "Don Albertt, wait a minute, I'll go and talk to my girl. Let's talk here, she doesn't know yet..."

Don Albertt looked at his watch and said coldly: "I'll give you three minutes, and then grind, I can't forgive you!"

Cameron Isaac also sternly said: "Mr. Ward, I warn you, from now on, don't play any tricks with me. If I can't see the marriage certificate of your daughter and David Carson, then you are done."

Mr. Ward nodded like smashing garlic, and said in a panic: "Chairman Cameron and Don Albertt, you two, don't worry, I will not dare to play any tricks."

Don Albertt kicked him directly and scolded: "What is the use of our guarantee? Go to Master Wade to guarantee it!"

Mr. Ward hurriedly climbed in front of Charlie Wade and said: "Master Wade, don't worry, I will follow your instructions and I will not play any tricks!"

Charlie Wade waved his hand in disgust and said, "Hurry up and get business. I'm still waiting to drink your daughter's wedding wine!" "Eh eh eh!" Mr. Ward nodded again and again, and immediately turned and walked out of the crowd to find his wife and daughter.

Just now, his wife and daughter hadn't moved forward, just waiting for him to have a good talk with his grandchildren, and then the wedding would be held directly.

His daughter Skye was also anxious at this time.

She knows her situation very well, knowing that if she doesn't hurry to find a picker to marry, it will be troublesome when her belly gets bigger and bigger.

If you are unmarried, give birth to a child, and give birth to a black child out of wedlock, then your reputation in Aurouss Hillll will be bad. At that time, how will I live the rest of my life?

And now I am pregnant for two months, but I will be pregnant in two months, so I only have two months to get married.

In recent days, she has also been looking for a suitable marriage partner.

She has been thinking that if she is not pregnant with a black child, then she will simply pretend not to be pregnant, find someone to flash marriage, and then wait until the child is born before telling him that the child is born prematurely.

In that way, oneself can hide from the sky and keep secret.

But embarrassingly, this is a black child in his stomach, and as long as the child is born, everything will be worn.

So she can't make people confused and accept the concealed plate, she must accept the concealed plate willingly.

However, after searching a large circle, she found that people with better conditions were not willing to take her plate at all.

Those with poor conditions and willing to take over, she really doesn't look down on them.

Today, my father told her that Steve had taken over, and she was still very happy.

Because even though he didn't know Steve very well, he had met Steve and looked handsome, so Skye had a good eye for him.

Moreover, Steve went to a prestigious university again, and his family conditions are also pretty good. What's more rare is that the two have business contacts. This is simply the best choice for her!

So she came over with joy and was waiting anxiously for the exact news. Seeing Dad walked over quickly, he hurriedly asked excitedly: "Dad, is everything done? Is Steve really willing to marry me?"

Mr. Ward looked at her with a complicated expression and said awkwardly, "Quietly, it is not Steve who married you today."

"Huh?" Skye asked in surprise: "It's not Steve who married me, who would marry me?"

Mr. Ward said in shame: "It's Steve's father, David Carson!"

Chapter 1295

"what?!"

Skye and her mother almost fell apart on the spot when they heard these words!

Her mother scolded angrily: "Mr. Ward, are you f*cking confused? Didn't you say that you want to marry Skye to Steve's father? Why do you want to marry Steve's dad again? David Carson's age is like you It's almost old, how can you marry him?!"

"Yes, Dad!" Skye said angrily: "Even if I am pregnant, I won't marry a bad old man, right?"

Mr. Ward looked at his wife and daughter, embarrassed, and while slapped himself, he cried and said: "Blame me, blame me, blame me for making lard cover my heart, and provoke annoying people. Now people treat Don Albertt and Cameron Isaac called over, and both sides only gave me a solution, which is to make Skye have to marry Steve's father, or else we will be driven to a dead end..."

"Huh?!" Mr. Ward's wife's eyes were black: "You offended Don Albertt and Chairman Cameron? Are you crazy?"

Mr. Ward said eagerly: "I didn't know it would become like this..."

His wife was anxious to die, and blurted out: "What the hell is going on?!"

Mr. Ward cried and told the whole story exactly. After speaking, Skye sat down on the ground and cried.

"I don't want it! I don't want to marry that bad old man! I won't marry if I die!"

Seeing her daughter's a sitting hard, Mr. Ward hurriedly stepped forward and said, "Oh girl, be careful, don't break my grandson! Although it is a black species, it is also my grandson, anyway. This child has no father. After he comes out, he will bear the name of our Ward Family, just like his own."

Mr. Ward's wife scolded angrily: "When is the time? You are still a grandson! You hurry up and think of a way to say that you can't let your girl marry that bad old man!"

Mr. Ward sighed and said, "I can't do anything about this. If the girl doesn't marry, our family will be ruined. Do you think we can have any solution?"

Mr. Ward's wife couldn't help crying in despair, "My God, what evil is our family doing!"

Mr. Ward said: "Don't think about it now, and get the certificate quickly. Master Wade said, he is still waiting for a wedding drink. If it is delayed, turn back, Don Albertt and Mr. Cameron will blame it. Then our family is really over!"

Skye wailed: "Dad! You can't just push me into the fire pit! Say nothing to let me marry a bad old man, I'm only 26 years old this year!"

Mr. Ward said: "If you don't marry him, the big guys above will blame it, our family will have nothing. By then, our family may not have enough money to give birth to the children in your stomach, let alone you are usually spoiled and eaten. It must be the best. By that time, our family may not even have enough food."

"Ah?!" When Skye heard this, she was desperate!

She has been spoiled for so many years, and she has to spend hundreds of thousands of dollars every month.

If there is nothing left at once, then life is really better than death.

Mr. Ward's wife also looked desperate when she heard this.

She also didn't want to abandon her millions of wealth and live a life of poverty and vain.

In that case, she would be killed.

So she hugged her daughter and choked, "Quietly, Don Albertt and Mr. Cameron are both people that our family cannot afford. For the life of our family, or you will marry that old David Carson. Right!" As she said, she whispered again: "And your belly can't be hidden for long, at most one or two months. If you can't find anyone to get married in these two months, it's really over!" "Yeah!" Mr. Ward said hurriedly: "Marrying David Carson is just a way of slowing down. After a while, after the limelight passes, we can divorce him."

When Skye heard this, she gritted her teeth and agreed, choked up: "There is no other better way, so let's get the certificate from him first..."

Chapter 1296

Here, in order to let Charlie Wade spare herself, Leann knelt on the ground and knocked Charlie Wade's head, but Charlie Wade still didn't buy her account.

Charlie Wade knows how such a person is.

This Leann is simply an old beast, even more devil than his mother-in-law Elaine Ma.

Although Elaine Ma always wanted his wife Claire Wilson Wilson to marry a rich man, she never thought of letting his wife marry a man with children.

This Leann, for the 50 million dowry, even let her son go to a black man whom she had never met before, it was simply shameless.

So Charlie Wade is also very clear that her current confession is not from the heart at all, but is forced by the current situation.

Such a woman, once she was given a chance to comeback, she would only become worse towards Isabella.

So Charlie Wade wanted to give her a one-step solution: divorce David Carson and never return to Aurouss Hilll again!

On the side, David Carson is full of mixed flavors. He looked at his wife Leann and cried to death on the ground several times. But the young man named Wade was still completely unmoved. It seems that it is impossible for him to take his life back. In this way, I can only obediently marry the daughter of Mr. Ward. But when you think about it, this really isn't a bad thing.

Although Leann has been with him for many years, after all, he has no feeling for her anymore. Although Mr. Ward's daughter is not beautiful, she is at least young. For people his age, young is more than anything else.

Subsequently, Don Albertt took Caesar and several other younger brothers, directly preparing to press David Carson, Leann, and Mr. Ward's daughter Skye to go to the Civil Affairs Bureau to handle divorce and marriage procedures.

Although Steve wanted to stop all of this, he knew he didn't have this ability, so he could only be forced to accept it.

Just as he watched his crying mother and a few strong men pulling into the car, he couldn't help shed two lines of tears.

Charlie Wade looked at him at this time, and said lightly: "You and Isabella shouldn't get a marriage certificate yet, right?"

Steve hurriedly nodded respectfully: "Not yet, the family has always disagreed before, insisting that we have to wait until the wedding is over before we talk about getting the certificate."

Charlie Wade waved his hand and said, "That's right, you and Isabella should also go get the marriage certificate by the way, and when you finish getting the certificate, come back for the wedding together." Steve's expression is somewhat embarrassing. We are going to have a wedding together. Isn't it necessary to have a wedding with my father, my stepmother, and two "new couples"?

Seeing him hesitate, Charlie Wade asked back: "Isabella has completely broken off with his family for you, shouldn't you get the marriage certificate quickly so that she can rest assured?"

When Steve heard this, he didn't dare to entangle any more. He immediately agreed and blurted out: "Okay Master Wade, then we two will follow along and get the marriage certificate!"

"That's the truth." Charlie Wade nodded in satisfaction and said: "Okay, hurry up with her, come back as soon as you are done, I'm still waiting for a wedding drink."

Chapter 1297

Seeing that Don Albertt was about to take these people to the Civil Affairs Bureau, Cameron Isaac asked Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, should I follow along and have a look?"

Charlie Wade waved his hand and said lightly: "You don't need to go, just wait for a drink with me here."

Claire Wilson Wilson, who was next to him, didn't speak for a while. Seeing that everyone was taken away, he couldn't help but ask Charlie Wade, "Charlie Wade, we are here to attend the wedding between Isabella and Steve. What about his dad. Isn't it a bit inappropriate..."

Charlie Wade smiled and asked her: "Wife, what do you think is appropriate? If you don't let Leann get out of the Carson's family today, if you don't give the Carson's some color today, you think your high school classmate married into the Carson's family. Will you have a good life afterwards?"

Claire Wilson Wilson was silent for a moment and nodded gently. She knew that Charlie Wade was right. If this problem cannot be solved fundamentally, then with Leann's behavior style, Isabella will definitely suffer in the future.

At that time, I couldn't help Isabella anymore, so it's better to let Charlie Wade solve the problem once and for all.

At this point, she couldn't help sighing and said, "I just don't know if Steve will hate us."

Charlie Wade said lightly: "I helped him so much. If he hates me, then this person is really hopeless."

Having said that, Charlie Wade waved his hand again and said with a smile: "Okay, let's go in first and wait. When they finish these trivial matters, the wedding should almost begin."

Aurouss Hilll Civil Affairs Bureau.

The seven people looked very embarrassed, and under the leadership of Don Albertt, they stepped into the door of the Civil Affairs Bureau.

These 7 people are Steve and Isabella, the young couple who are about to get married today, David Carson, another groom's official, and his current wife Leann.

In addition to these four people, there are David Carson's newlywed wife Skye, who is about to register for marriage, and Skye's parents.

After Don Albertt took them to the Civil Affairs Bureau, the staff of the Civil Affairs Bureau hurriedly stepped forward and asked, "How many, what business do you want to do?"

Don Albertt glanced at everyone and asked, "Which of you will come first?"

Steve said embarrassingly: "Then I should come first with Isabella, and we will register for marriage."

"Okay." Don Albertt nodded and said to the staff: "Come on, get the marriage certificate for them both."

The staff nodded, then looked at the relevant documents of the two and helped them to register their marriage in the system.

Since the two had not prepared their marriage certificate photos, the staff at the scene directly took a wedding photo with a red background for them.

Immediately afterwards, a bright red marriage certificate was also produced.

After getting the marriage certificate, the couple finally breathed a sigh of relief. No matter what kind of farce they are going to stage next, at least the two of them are already married as lovers.

After the staff handed the marriage certificate to the two of them, they asked: "What kind of business do other people handle?"

Don Albertt pointed at David Carson and Leann, and said coldly: "Come on, get the divorce certificate for these two people."

Both David and Leann were crying, and they could see that their hearts were very tangled and struggling, but at this moment they did not dare to make any trouble.

Leann had already cried so much that her eyes were swollen and looked swollen, but she could only tell her personal information according to the requirements of the staff.

After checking the identity information of the two, the staff said:

"According to our regulations, when the two are divorced, you must first show your original marriage certificate."

Chapter 1298

Leann choked and said, "This comrade, our marriage certificate is at home. Can you give us the divorce certificate first, and then we can make up the marriage certificate later."

The staff member said: "This is not in line with the process, you two should go back and get it."

David Carson hurriedly said: "No, it's too late for comrades. It must be done before noon."

The staff persuaded: "Even if the two of you have no feelings, the divorce won't be at this moment, right? If it doesn't work, you can come back in the afternoon!"

Don Albertt said at this time: "Little girl, I know Director Carr of your Civil Affairs Bureau, or I will say hello to him, you can handle it specially and give them a green light."

After finishing speaking, he pointed to David Carson and said to the staff member: "This old man has to divorce and get a marriage certificate from someone else. The banquets at the hotel are set up, waiting for him to go to the wedding. Delay again."

The staff looked at David Carson in astonishment, and the contempt in his expression was beyond words.

Needless to say, I also know that David Carson must be a bad old man who always gave up.

He was so anxious to divorce his wife, it turned out that he was going to hold a banquet and marry someone else right after noon.

Sure enough, it was the scum man among the scum.

Later, she looked at Don Albertt and said, "If you know our Director Carr, please call him. As long as he nods, I can do it."

Don Albertt nodded, took out his mobile phone, and made a call.

After explaining the situation to the other party, the other party immediately greeted him from the office upstairs.

When this Director Carr saw Don Albertt, he respectfully said: "Oh, Albert, what brought you here!"

Don Albertt smiled indifferently, pointed at David Carson and Leann, and said: "I brought these two people over to get the divorce certificate, but they didn't bring the marriage certificate, and the time is relatively short. Can you please help me?"

Director Carr nodded immediately and said, "It's okay, Albert, I'll let someone handle it."

Then, he said to the staff member: "Girl, hurry up and get the divorce documents for these two people as requested by Don Albertt."

The staff member nodded immediately, and quickly helped the two people dissolve their marriage from the system, and then typed out the divorce certificate.

After getting the divorce certificate, Leann collapsed to the ground, crying bitterly.

From this moment on, she completely severed her husband and wife relationship with David Carson, and worked hard all her life for this family.

Unexpectedly, it was such a fate in the end.

And the divorce with David Carson is just the beginning, and then he will leave Arouss Hilll completely and never come back.

The days that were originally blissful and full of happiness have been brought to such a degree by myself.

She was already regretful in her heart, wishing to smash her face.

At this time, Don Albertt was really upset seeing her sitting on the ground and crying.

So he said to Caesar next to him: "Hurry up and send someone to drive a car and throw this stinky lady out of Arouss Hilll's realm. If she dares to return to Arouss Hilll again in the future, we will break her leg and give it to me. Throw it out from Arouss Hilll!"

Caesar nodded immediately and respectfully said: "Don Albertt, don't worry, I will personally throw this lady out of Arouss Hilll!"

Chapter 1299

Caesar stretched out his hand and drove out the Lady Leann.

Leann cried bitterly and said: "You...you also let me go home and pack two clothes!"

Caesar said coldly: "You are looking for an Lady and want to go home and pack your clothes. I will save you a lot of face if I don't take two of them off you! If you're f*cking nonsense, I'll strip you and throw it away!"

When Leann heard this, she didn't dare to speak any more, she could only be framed by Caesar like a dead dog.

Seeing that Leann was taken away, Don Albertt pointed at Skye, hooked his hands and said, "Come, come here."

Skye didn't want 1 million people in her heart, but at this time she didn't dare to disobey Don Albertt Master at all.

Only the only person who came to the front, the voice trembled: "Don...Don Albertt..."

Don Albertt nodded, pointed to her and David Carson, and said to the staff of the Civil Affairs Bureau: "Come, get a marriage certificate for them both."

The staff member asked dumbfounded: "Huh? Give them a marriage certificate?"

"Yes." Don Albertt said: "It's them, do it now!"

While the staff were surprised, they couldn't help but strengthen their views. This 50-year-old David Carson is indeed a fighter among the scumbags. He brought his wife and his new love to the Civil Affairs Bureau together and handled the divorce. And marriage procedures, is this an old thing or a person?

This staff member is a little girl, so she is very uncomfortable with scumbags. I can understand the kind of tall and handsome scumbags. After all, they have good looks and capital, but David Carson is already 50. At 60 years old, people don't talk about it, and they look ugly, but I didn't expect to be so scumbag. Why?

Although she was very dissatisfied with the old man in her heart, the little girl still didn't dare to show it directly, so she could only go through the formalities for the marriage of him and Skye in angrily. Before applying for a marriage certificate, you must first take a wedding photo before applying for a marriage certificate.

Therefore, the two people looked like a father and a daughter, and they had to stand side by side in front of the red curtain and took a wedding photo.

Skye's face was very ugly, even though there were tens of millions of dissatisfaction in her heart, she did not dare to show it at this time. David Carson was in a complicated mood, and the most melancholy right now was what should the child in Skye's belly do?

Or, after going home, persuade her to beat the child?

At this moment, Mr. Ward said to David Carson with a depressed expression: "Old grandson, I will not say anything about this matter today, but in the future, you must treat my daughter in every possible way, otherwise, Don't blame me for being rude to you!"

David Carson hurriedly said: "Mr. Ward, don't worry, I will definitely go all out..."

Mr. Ward said again: "Besides, the child in my daughter's belly can't be killed if she says anything, otherwise, I won't forgive you! Have you heard?"

David Carson felt depressed.

Isn't it a black child? Why are you not allowed to fight?

What else can this black child do except to shame himself?

However, he did not dare to disobey Mr. Ward. After all, Mr. Ward took care of his business. If he really provokes him, it is estimated that the income of the entire Carson family will be greatly affected.

So he can only nod his head and agree. He said: "Mr. Ward, don't worry, I will definitely not let her kill the child in Skye's stomach."

Mr. Ward was relieved and said: "After the baby is born, if you don't want to, you can give it to me. We are the old couple."

Chapter 1300

"That's great!" David Carson finally breathed a sigh of relief when he heard this.

At this time, the staff greeted the two of them and went to the counter to apply for marriage certificates.

Skye is 26 years old this year, and David Carson is 52 years old this year. The difference between the two is exactly twice as long. The little girl who was in charge of giving them the testimony made her teeth tickled with anger while handing them the certificate. After the certificate was issued, Don Albertt smiled slightly and said: "Okay, since the two couples are busy with getting the marriage certificate, let's hurry back to the hotel. Master Wade is still waiting to drink your wedding wine. "

So the four of them could only follow Don Albertt and returned to Hilton. At this time, the banquet hall of Hilton was full of friends from the Carson family.

Charlie Wade took his wife Claire Wilson Wilson and sat on the table closest to the stage.

Sitting on the same table with him is Cameron Isaac.

After Don Albertt brought the two couples back, he ran over to return to Charlie Wade.

Charlie Wade heard that they had already received their marriage certificates, nodded in satisfaction, and said: "I think the time is almost the same. Let's start the wedding as soon as possible!"

Don Albertt said hurriedly: "Mr. Ward has already gone to find a wedding dress for her daughter. At 11:58, the wedding started on time."

Charlie Wade nodded in satisfaction, and smiled and said, "Today is really cheap for David Carson's old thing. I got rid of a yellow-faced woman, married a young lady, and still buy the big one and get the small one. In a few months, You can be a dad."

"Yeah!" Don Albertt said with a smile, "Master Wade still has the means. This arrangement is really perfect!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said: "This lesson, no matter how capable and capable you are, don't look down on other people casually. If David Carson and Leann weren't looking down on their future daughter-in-law, they would not cause so many things today. , I hope these two people can learn more in the future."

Don Albertt nodded and said, "Master Wade, what you said."

Claire Wilson Wilson on the side watched Charlie Wade's beautiful eyes flow.

Although she also feels that her husband's play today is indeed a bit weird, or even overkill.

But after hearing what my husband said just now, I felt that what he did was really pleasing.

Ordinary people may not think of such a solution. This shows that my husband still has a bit of skill and spirit that ordinary people don't have.

Thinking of Jasmine, the eldest of the Moore family, when she saw her husband Charlie Wade in the bridal shop, she suddenly felt that her husband now seemed to be very different from before, and he began to exude a fatal attraction to women.

Claire Wilson Wilson thought wildly for a while, and suddenly the cheerful music of the wedding march sounded on the scene.

This is a male emcee who stepped onto the stage with a bit of a bitter expression and said: "Thank you very much for coming today. Today is a special day because there are two new couples. Today will be witnessed by all of us. On board our sacred marriage hall, let us have the first couple to get married today, the groom David Carson! The bride Skye Ward!"

The entire Carson family's relatives and friends are embarrassed below. Although they knew what would happen at this wedding today? But when I heard the emcee call out their names, I was still a little strange. Seeing that all the family named Carson was dumb and the scene was quiet, Don Albertt couldn't help but stand up and shouted: "What the hell do you want, why don't you applaud the bride and groom?!"

Chapter 1301

When Don Albertt shouted out this voice, the Carson family suddenly realized that they clapped unwillingly. In fact, they are also very unhappy with this wedding, because this kind of thing will make their faces faceless. But at the moment, it's already done, so no one can change anything. Skye, who was wearing a wedding dress with a cold expression, and David Carson, who was in a suit, walked onto the stage together. Afterwards, the emcee smiled and said: "Next, let us invite a second couple, the bridegroom Steve, and the bride Isabella!" In fact, the Carson family is not willing to applaud this pair. Not only Leann and David Carson look down on Isabella, but the rest of the Carson family also look down on this poor girl. However, with the lessons learned earlier, everyone did not dare to not applaud, so they could only applaud. Steve took Isabella's hand and walked onto the stage together. I can see that the two of them are really affectionate, and there is no intention to loosen their fingers. After the two of them came on stage, the atmosphere was somewhat embarrassing. The people in the audience have also come out to have a wedding wine more than once, but they have never encountered the absurd thing of a father and son getting married on the same stage. Even the host of ceremonies is not sure what to do. He can also be regarded as an old senior in the Aurouss Hilll emcee circle. But he had never encountered this kind of marvellous wedding before in his entire life. When he usually hosts, he would make fun of the parents of both men and women to enliven the atmosphere, but today it is really impossible to do such things. This made him not know where to start. So he could only give up this part of the lively atmosphere, and after directly speaking a paragraph of opening remarks, he said to the two couples around him: "Today, our two Mr. Carson, Miss Ward and Miss Stark are finally together with four The hearts that love each other have embarked on this solemn and sacred wedding church!" "My friends, let us sincerely bless these two couples, pray for these two couples, cheer for these two couples, cheer for these two couples, and celebrate the perfect combination of these two couples! Let us once again Warm applause and wish them a bright future!"

Although everyone in the audience looked at each other, they all clapped very cooperatively.

After the applause fell silent, the master of ceremonies said affectionately: "The Bible says that love is patient and kind; love is not jealous, love is not boastful, arrogant, does not do shy things, does not seek your own benefit, and is not easy. Be angry, don't count human evil, don't like unrighteousness, just like the truth; tolerate everything, believe everything, hope everything, endure everything; love never ceases."

"So, in front of the many guests today, I would like to ask Mr. David Carson, one of our grooms today, Mr. David Carson, would you like to marry the Miss Skye next to you as your wife? Are you willing whether it is poor or rich, Do you love her forever and never give up?"

David Carson nodded: "I am willing!"

The emcee asked Skye in the same words: "Then Miss Ward, are you willing?"

The emotions in Skye's heart could no longer be controlled and collapsed and cried: "I...I...I..."

At this moment, she wanted to shout that I didn't want to, and then immediately fled from here.

But when I thought that my father had offended so many powerful people, if he did not marry David Carson today, the whole family would be in great trouble, and the family might even be ruined, so he suppressed the impulse in my heart and cried. He said: "I...I would..."

After saying this, her heart was even more sad, and she immediately hid her face and wept bitterly.

Chapter 1302

The emcee smiled and said: "Oh, I didn't expect Miss Ward to be so touched. The marriage must have been long-awaited. This is really a match made by God, consensual, and made in heaven. Let us all wish the couple a happy new marriage and love each other with applause. A bright future and a safe life!"

Skye almost collapsed when she heard this, squatting on the ground, burying her face deep in her arms, crying.

The emcee picked it up and said with emotion: "It seems that our bride is very excited. Let us interview our groom. May I ask Mr. David Carson, how do you feel about being able to marry such a young and beautiful wife?"

David Carson chuckled and said: "I am very excited..."

The emcee smiled and asked, "Then Mr. David Carson, do you have the urge to chant a poem?"

David Carson said with embarrassment: "I haven't gone to much school, I don't have much culture, so let's just not chant poems."

The emcee said again: "Today the parents of our bride, Skye, have also arrived at our wedding. I would like to ask the groom, Mr. David Carson, do you have anything to say to your future mother-in-law and father-in-law?"

David Carson looked at the audience, Grant Ward and his wife, whose expressions were crying without tears, waved at them with a little restraint, and said: "Please rest assured, I will definitely face the quiet."

There is one more sentence, David Carson wanted to ask, but he was not ashamed to ask.

He wanted to ask Grant Ward, his future father-in-law, whether the 50 million dowry that he said before counts?

But he was afraid that after he asked this sentence, Grant Ward would come up to hammer himself, so he could only give up. At this time, the emcee said to Grant Ward and his wife: "Come on, let's invite our bride's parents to come on stage!"

The Carson family has become a blank applause machine at this time. Grant Ward could only go on stage with his wife.

The master of ceremonies smiled and said, "Please ask the man's father-in-law to stand in front of our groom."

Grant Ward and his wife stood in front of David Carson with unnatural expressions.

The emcee smiled and said: "Groom officer, I ask you, who is yours standing in front of you?"

David Carson hurriedly said: "It's my father-in-law!"

The emcee smiled and said, "Is it still called father-in-law? Should I change my tongue?"

David Carson smirked awkwardly, and said hurriedly: "Yes, it should be changed."

With that said, he hurriedly called out to Grant Ward and his wife: "Dad, mom!"

Grant Ward's face was extremely ugly. This bastard, who is about the same age as himself, calls himself Dad!

Although I don't have a son, I don't want such a cheap son.

Seeing that he did not respond, the emcee hurriedly said: "Is it a bit too excited to be a parent? I forgot to respond to the bridegroom officer when I was excited. This is the first time the bridegroom officer changed his words. Isn't the father-in-law showing anything?"

Grant Ward said with a gloomy expression: "I was in a hurry to go out today and forgot to prepare the red envelope."

David Carson said hurriedly: "It's okay, it's okay, red envelopes are forgotten!"

The emcee said with a smile: "Since he has changed his mouth, the groom should knock his head and bring a cup of tea to his father-in-law and mother-in-law, and let our staff bring the tea!"

David Carson asked awkwardly: "Kow your head?"

Chapter 1303

Naturally, David Carson was not happy to let himself kowtow in front of so many people.

After all, he is more than 50 years old, this face is really a bit embarrassing.

But the master of ceremonies said seriously at this time: "Groom officer, today is your big wedding day. Two families are combined into one family. Not only do you have a young and beautiful wife, but you also have a couple who love you and love you. Parents, we Chinese have been the most filial piety since ancient times, so we kneel and kowtow to our parents. That is a matter of course. Why can you hesitate?"

"Besides, the tradition of our Chinese marriage is to give tea to both parents."

When Grant Ward's wife heard this, she burst into tears.

It is true that two families form a family, but I really don't want my daughter to start a family with this old thing.

But now there is no retreat, I can only watch it.

David Carson was told by the emcee at this time that he was somewhat unable to get off the stage, so he had to kneel on the ground, first kowtow to Grant Ward and called Dad, then kowtow to Grant Ward's wife and called Mom.

The couple looked at each other, feeling extremely depressed.

At this time, the staff hurriedly moved two chairs and asked Grant Ward and his wife to sit side by side. Then the master of ceremonies said to David Carson: "It was supposed to be the bride and groom who bowed their heads to offer tea to both parents, but the parents of the bridegroom officer I didn't come today, so let's let the bride and groom serve only tea to the woman's parents."

The crying red-eyed bride could only come to her parents reluctantly and knelt beside David Carson.

The staff immediately brought them two cups of tea and handed them to David Carson. David Carson took a cup and said to Grant Ward with a red face, "Dad, you drink tea..."

Grant Ward couldn't wait to splash this cup of tea directly on his face, so naturally he didn't want to pick it up.

But he raised his eyes and took a look, and found that Cameron Isaac was in the audience, looking at himself with a gloomy expression, and suddenly shrank his neck, and hurriedly reached out and took the tea from David Carson.

David Carson took another cup of tea, handed it to Grant Ward's wife, and said: "Mom, you have tea!"

Grant Ward's wife was even more annoyed, and 10,000 people were unwilling to drink the cup of tea he respected. So before he reached out to pick it up, David Carson held the cup of tea in the air. After a while, he felt a little sore in his arms and felt embarrassed in his heart.

Grant Ward hurriedly winked at his wife. What he fears most now is that Cameron Isaac has opinions on him.

I dare not make him angry anyway.

Grant Ward's wife found her husband glared at herself fiercely, she could only gritted her teeth, reached out her hand to take the cup of tea, and drank it.

The emcee then smiled and said: "Drinking tea from the son-in-law is equivalent to approving the son-in-law. Let me interview the bride's parents. Excuse me, are you satisfied with the groom?"

Grant Ward sighed and said with red eyes: "Satisfied, satisfied..."

He was actually 10,000 dissatisfied in his heart, but he really didn't dare to say it at this time.

Grant Ward's wife can only follow her husband and say things against her will.

Charlie Wade looked amused in the audience, this is the price of being unkind, thinking that he has a bit of money and a little ability, he will look down on this and that, such a person will only eat the bitter fruit in the end.

After the farce of David Carson and Grant Ward's family of three was over, the emcee said: "Next, we will invite our second couple to take the stage, the groom Steve and the bride Isabella!"

Chapter 1304

Steve took Isabella's hand and walked onto the stage.

The master of ceremonies followed the usual process and said some compliments, and then he went to the part of the marriage vow.

Steve and Isabella really love each other, so they are finally able to hold a wedding, naturally they are deeply moved.

Therefore, the two clasped their fingers on the stage, and both left tears of excitement.

Steve's mood is more complicated, because he has just experienced the divorce of his parents and witnessed his father's second marriage with his own eyes, and his heart is mixed.

After the bride and groom completed the exchange of rings, the emcee smiled and said: "Next, let us invite the parents of the bridegroom Steve, who is the couple who just had the wedding just now, and invite them to come on stage!"

David Carson and Skye, who had just stepped down, could only bite the bullet and step on stage as the groom's father and mother.

The grandchildren at the scene had extremely ugly expressions, but Don Albertt brought a large number of younger brothers to applaud, and even a younger brother shouted, "Hey, this bride is about the same size as the future mother-in-law! Hey! The emcee is affected and ask, it is the bride who is older A little bit, or is the future mother-in-law of the bride a little older?"

As soon as these words came out, Don Albertt's brothers burst into laughter.

Skye has just returned from abroad this year and hasn't started work yet. Isabella and Claire Wilson Wilson are almost the same. They have both been working for two years. So in age, Isabella is actually a bit older than Skye.

Therefore, the scene suddenly became more embarrassing.

The secretary's appearance was also dumbfounding, so naturally he couldn't really ask such a question, otherwise he wouldn't have to do his job of emcee if he went out.

So, he hurried to the next session on the spot, greeted the staff to put on the chairs again, put the tea cups, and asked Steve and Isabella to offer tea to their parents.

When Isabella offered Skye tea and called Skye's mother, Skye cried again.

What the hell is this? Suddenly marrying a bad old man, he suddenly added a son and daughter-in-law.

The point is that this son and daughter-in-law are older than themselves. After Steve and Isabella changed their mouths to the newlyweds David Carson and Skye, the emcee finally breathed a sigh of relief and announced that this wonderful wedding was officially over.

Immediately after the wedding, the bride and groom toast the guests. .

Skye wanted to give up the toast, but because she was afraid that Charlie Wade would be dissatisfied, she could only come to the table where Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson were with David Carson, carrying a glass.

David Carson looked at Charlie Wade tremblingly, and said nervously, "Master Wade, thank you for coming to my wedding with Skye. We both toast you!"

Charlie Wade said lightly: "David Carson, after marrying such a good wife, you must treat her well in the future, and treat the child in her stomach well, have you heard?"

David Carson's face blushed, and he nodded and said, "Don't worry, I will treat Skye and the child in her stomach well."

Charlie Wade said with satisfaction: "This is just the truth. Don't have any opinions about the future young son's skin color. You must treat him as your own."

David Carson could only nod his head and said, "Master Wade can rest assured, I will definitely..."

Chapter 1305

Seeing David Carson's stance, Charlie Wade said with satisfaction: "In the future, I will let Mr. Cameron supervise your post-marriage behavior. If you don't correct your disagreement about the poor and love the rich after marriage, it's not good for you. New wife, daughter-in-law, and future youngest son, then I will let Mr. Cameron break your dog legs. Do you understand?"

David Carson nodded repeatedly, and said firmly, "Master Wade, I understand..."

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "Okay, I drove today, so I won't drink the wine you toasted. Let's go and meet others. There are so many guests here today. Don't leave any of them. Have you heard?"

"I heard it! I will toast one by one!"

David Carson was sent away, and Steve and Isabella came over with wine glasses. Isabella respectfully said to him and Claire Wilson Wilson: "Mr. Wade, Claire Wilson Wilson, thank you both very much today, and Steve and I will offer you a drink!"

Charlie Wade smiled faintly: "Then we two will use tea instead of wine. I wish you a happy and happy newlywed couple!"

The two nodded repeatedly and thanked them vigorously.

Although Claire Wilson Wilson was a little bit dumbfounded at today's farce, but at this time, seeing a good classmate finally got his wish to marry her own sweetheart, Claire Wilson Wilson was also happy for her. Charlie Wade looked at Isabella and exhorted: "Isabella, after you marry Steve, you must remember not to give up your little family and go to your parents and your brother's house. What they did today, you should I know it in my heart, so live with your husband, keep a distance from your mother's family, and don't have any financial contacts."

After finishing speaking, he looked at Steve again and said seriously: "Steve must also be carefully supervised on this matter. Your young couple should be on the same front. Don't be separated from each other because of this matter."

Charlie Wade's implication was that Isabella must never give his parents and his brother a penny.

Charlie Wade looked down upon 10,000 families who wanted to sell their daughter at a high price and then drink their daughter's blood.

He also worried that once Isabella and Steve got married smoothly, David Carson would not dare to do anything to her in the future. In that case, Isabella would have the right to speak in this family, and it would be possible to recruit her wonderful parents. With her little brother who is so lazy.

So remind her in advance, let her know a little bit, don't be used by that family again.

Isabella and Steve also nodded again and again.

In fact, even Isabella herself was very disappointed with her parents and younger brother, and wished to completely draw a line with them, so he was unwilling to make money in the future or be taken away by her parents and younger brother.

Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson picked up their tea cups and had a drink with the newlyweds. Then Charlie Wade said, "Okay, you two quickly go to the bar to other people, don't worry about us."

Steve respectfully said: "Mr. Wade, then we will go to other tables first."

When the banquet was about to end, Charlie Wade got up and went to the bathroom.

Seeing this, Cameron Isaac hurriedly followed. When there was no one around, he respectfully said to Charlie Wade: "Master, the last time Sam has undergone surgery in Eastcliff."

"Oh?" Charlie Wade asked with a funny face: "This buddy still didn't pull out the necklace?"

Chapter 1306

"No." Cameron Isaac smiled: "It is said that the necklace made a bend in his intestines and got stuck, so the operation was urgently performed. It is said that Sam was still in the ward before the operation and was preparing to have intercourse with the nurse. It turned out that he was bumped into by his grandparents and mom and dad, and the Lady was terribly scared."

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "I really don't understand, how can the Thomas family say that it is also a first-class family in Eastcliff, how can they cultivate such a watery offspring."

Cameron Isaac nodded and sighed: "To be honest, the descendants of the current big family are really weaker than one generation. If you are as outstanding as you, there is no second one in the country."

Charlie Wade smiled faintly: "You don't slap my a here."

Cameron Isaac hurriedly said, "Master, everything I'm talking about is from the bottom of my heart!"

Having said that, he said again: "By the way, Master, I am worried that after Sam's surgery recovers, 80% will find you to get revenge. The strength of the Thomas family is not on the same level as the Webb family, and their family also has many first-class masters. At that time they will be against you. I am afraid it will be a tricky thing. Would you like to tell the master and let the master say hello to the Thomas family?"

"As long as the old man has said hello to the Thomas family, the Thomas family will definitely not dare to do it again."

Charlie Wade smiled and waved his hand: "I haven't figured out whether I will return to Wade's house in the future. Therefore, if I can use the Wade Family's help and the identity of Wade Family Young Master, I should use as little as possible.

Cameron Isaac persuaded, "Master, you don't need to divide it so clearly from your family. Before the steward Thompson found you, the master was always talking about you. If you have time, you should definitely go back. Don't say anything else. , At least look at the old man."

Charlie Wade shook his head lightly, and said, "It's not impossible to go back, but not now."

In Charlie Wade's heart, he not only had a certain hatred against the Wade family, but also a certain amount of caution.

Wade family has a big business. When his father was still there, Wade was very fiercely fighting secretly. Now that the family has added a generation, the internal situation must be more complicated.

Although he now has a certain amount of personal strength, in front of the Wade Family, the disparity is still too great.

Therefore, he even hoped that he would return to the Wade family to see things after he had achieved certain results and had a strength that could not be underestimated.

Otherwise, his current net worth is more than 20 billion in cash plus an Emgrand Group, of which the Emgrand Group and 10 billion in cash are all given by the Wade family, and he has not made much money. The two biggest pennies are Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall. The 11 billion that came. 11 billion, placed in front of the Wade family, is a drop in the bucket. Now Charlie Wade already owns 80% of the shares of Weaver's Pharmaceuticals, and Weaver's Pharmaceuticals has also officially changed its name to Oracle Pharmaceuticals. Now Liam is presiding over the production of his own prescriptions by Oracle Pharmaceuticals. Once the drug is produced and successfully listed, Presumably it will become the world's best-selling gastric medicine with the best efficacy. This medicine alone may bring tens of billions or more of profits to Oracle Pharmaceutical.

I will then take out some other medicines from the Apocalyptic Book, and Oracle Pharmaceutical's income will surely skyrocket. Then through Ichiro Kobayashi, he will get Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, and merged Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall into Oracle Pharmaceutical.

By then, Oracle Pharmaceutical will soon become the largest pharmaceutical company in Asia, and even the largest pharmaceutical company in the world!

After I have achieved the results of Oracle Pharmaceutical, I can have full confidence before facing the Wade family!

Chapter 1307

Early in the morning after Isabella's wedding, Charlie Wade received a call from Liam while he was watering the crops in his vegetable garden. On the phone, Liam told him that the stomach powder he produced according to the prescription given by Charlie Wade had passed the relevant license of the drug regulatory department and was ready to go on sale.

This prescription derived from the Apocalyptic Book has a strong relieving effect on common people's stomach upset symptoms.

If you have chronic stomach problems, you can get a good improvement and conditioning by taking this stomach powder.

Stomach acid, bloating and stomach pain, or stomach discomfort caused by drinking, cold, fatigue, etc., taking this can get immediate results. This medicine was first invented by a famous doctor in ancient China, but the development of Chinese medicine in China has been relatively slow in recent decades. Medicines like it are instead mainly products produced by Japanese and Korean pharmaceutical companies.

For example, Japan has the famous two Kobayashi Stomach Powders.

Both types of stomach powder are in powder form and are packed in sachets. If you encounter stomach upset, you can take a packet with warm water immediately for good results.

Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's powder has been rated daily as a daily medicine by ordinary people in Japan and many countries.

This shows how big the sales and profit margins are behind him.

The stomach powder produced according to the prescriptions in the "Apocalyptic Book" is about eight to ten times as effective as Kobayashi's stomach powder. The effect is very significant, and it has a good advantage that there are basically no side effects. , And the stomach powder produced by the prescription has a strong and fresh medicinal fragrance, which gives people very good senses.

This Nova Dias, named by Charlie Wade, will be the first brand new medicine produced since Oracle Pharmaceutical changed its name.

Liam said on the phone: "Master Wade, the effect of this stomach powder is really amazing. We have found many volunteers with stomach problems and tried this medicine. They all gave very, very high evaluations. It is stronger than the stomach powder in Japan and South Korea, many times more. Now these volunteers very much hope that this medicine can be launched as soon as possible!"

Charlie Wade gave a satisfied hum, and asked him, "Then when will you be officially listed and sold in bulk?"

Liam said: "We have now produced more than 50 tons, and now that the approval has been down, we can directly package and sell."

Charlie Wade asked curiously: "If more than 50 tons of the original medicine, how many copies can be packaged?"

Liam said: "We plan to use the same specifications as those in Japan. We use 1.3 grams per pack and 48 packets per box. In this case, the net content of the original drug in each box is 62.4 grams, which can be packaged in total. 800,000 boxes."

Charlie Wade asked again: "What about the selling price, what is the selling price for the Japanese?"

Liam said: "Kobayashi's is about 150 Dollar a box, our Oracle Nova Dias, the efficiency is several times theirs, I think we have to sell at least four to five hundred Dollar a box. reasonable."

Charlie Wade asked him: "How much is our cost for a box?"

Liam said: "Most of them are some proprietary Chinese medicinal materials. The cost is actually very low. We are very conscientious. The cost is about 20 Dollar per box, so I guess. The cost of Kobayashi's is also It's about ten dollars."

Chapter 1308

Charlie Wade heard this and said: "Then we also sell 150 Dollar a box, with the same price, several times the efficacy of the medicine, directly squeezing the same type of competing products in Japan and South Korea!"

Liam hurriedly said, "No problem, Master Wade, then I will supply the dealer for 150 Dollar a box."

"Okay!" Charlie Wade said: "You try to produce at full capacity, and don't worry about the sales of this drug. We are now not only covering domestic users, but also covering countries such as Japan, South Korea and Southeast Asia. To compete with them in their homeland, and to compete with them in their homeland, since we want to grab their market, we must prepare enough ammunition."

"I understand Master Wade!"

Liam was so excited, he blurted out: "Japanese and Korean Chinese herbal medicines have suppressed us for so many years, and now we can finally fight back!"

After speaking, Liam asked again: "By the way, Master Wade, for our Oracle Stomach Powder, should we make some TV commercials? It's best to ask a celebrity to endorse or something. Now everyone in this society is engaged in publicity, and the fragrance of wine is also afraid of alleys."

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Yes, then you find the most popular celebrity, and you must be the kind of decent star who is out of silt but not stained, because the entertainment industry is too messy, those with dark history, Gossip, don't!"

Liam said: "Good Master Wade, I have a very suitable candidate in my heart. I wonder what you think of Master Wade?"

Charlie Wade asked: "Oh? Come and listen."

Liam hurriedly said: "Now there is a female star named Stefanie Sun who is very popular in film and television songs. She just picked up a Hollywood movie some time ago. Now she is very popular, and this person seems to be from a famous family, so there is nothing at all. Gossip is the object of worship by countless boys and girls."

Charlie Wade nodded and said: "I don't know about the entertainment industry, and I don't follow stars, so it's up to you to decide. If you think this person is suitable, then you can contact this person's agency to discuss the price. If it's appropriate, just sign a contract with her and let her start advertising."

"Good Master Wade!"

After hanging up Liam's phone, Charlie Wade picked some fresh vegetables and prepared to go home to make breakfast for his wife Claire Wilson Wilson.

It just so happened that Claire Wilson Wilson had also gotten up and walked downstairs.

Charlie Wade thought of the phone call just now and asked her curiously: "My wife, have you heard of Stefanie Sun?"

Claire Wilson Wilson immediately said excitedly: "Stefanie Sun? Don't you even know Stefanie Sun? She is now the most popular female star."

Charlie Wade shook his head: "I don't chase stars, so I don't understand this."

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly said: "I'm telling you, Stefanie Sun is my idol, not only my idol, but also a national idol. She plays very well in movies and TV series, and she sings very well! I heard that she will come to us some time later. When Aurouss Hilll is holding a concert, I have been paying attention to the ticketing website, just waiting to get the tickets when they are issued."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "I'm your husband, I don't even know that this person is your idol!"

Claire Wilson Wilson said: "You never asked me. Besides, I don't like to talk about many things. To like someone is to like it in my heart. I don't want to talk about it every day like other people. I kept talking."

Charlie Wade nodded lightly, thinking, if Oracle Pharmaceutical really reached a cooperation with this Stefanie Sun, it might be able to satisfy his wife's desire to chase stars.

Chapter 1309

Charlie Wade wrapped an apron and went to the kitchen to prepare.

But at this moment, his cell phone rang again.

Unexpectedly, the caller ID, the caller turned out to be the little pepper Aurora of the Quinton family.

Seeing this, Charlie Wade couldn't help but feel a little surprised:

"This little pepper doesn't usually call me often. Will she be in trouble again today?"

Thinking of this, he hurriedly connected to the phone and asked, "Aurora, are you looking for me?"

Aurora said shyly: "Master Wade, do you remember what I told you about my participation in the International College Sanda Competition?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Of course I remember, didn't I promise you that I want to go to the scene to cheer you on? By the way, you haven't told me the specific day."

Aurora smiled happily and said, "So you still remember Master Wade, I am so happy!"

After that, Aurora's voice was very shy and said: "Master Wade, I will play the last preliminaries this morning. I don't know if you have time to take a look..."

Charlie Wade asked curiously: "Playing preliminaries? How is your competition system arranged?"

Aurora said: "Because this is an international college competition, there are more participants. There are dozens of contestants in my heavyweight class, so I have to play a few rounds of preliminaries first, but then the quarter-finals will be selected. Play the quarterfinals again."

Charlie Wade asked in surprise: "Has this all reached the final round of the knockout? How many games have been played in total? Why didn't I hear you before?"

Aurora hurriedly said: "There were 4 knockout matches. This morning is the last one. If I win, I will be able to enter the top 8! The reason why I have not told you is because I am afraid that you will not have time to come over. I also know that your time is more precious, so let me not always disturb you."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "What are you talking so politely with me?"

After speaking, Charlie Wade smiled heartily and said: "Okay, give me a time and address, I will go over and cheer you in the morning!"

"Really?!" Aurora said with joy when he heard this, "That's really great Master Wade! My game is at ten o'clock this morning, at the Aurouss Hill Gymnasium! There are several groups of people competing in the stadium at the same time. , I'm afraid you won't find it. If you arrive, tell me, I will let my dad pick you up!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "No problem, it's settled, I will be there on time in the morning."

Having said this, Charlie Wade suddenly remembered a question, and asked Aurora curiously: "By the way, Aurora, how many kilograms did you participate in the competition?"

Aurora said hurriedly, "Master Wade, I am in the 52 kg class!"

Charlie Wade heard this and said jokingly: "52 kg, then 104 kg?"

"Okay!"

Charlie Wade teased her deliberately and said with a smile: "I've never heard of a good woman but a hundred? You have to work hard to lose weight."

Aurora hurriedly said: "No, Master Wade! The kilogram class of Sanda competitions is not divided according to the actual weight. For example, as long as the weight is less than 48 kilograms, it belongs to the 48 kilogram class. The kilograms belong to the 52 kilogram class. I am 49.5 kilograms, which is equivalent to 99 kilograms. It happens to be no more than a hundred, but it is classified into the 52 kilogram class! If you don't believe me, when you meet, I will call it myself. I'll show you the weight!"

Charlie Wade said with a smile: "I'm just joking with you, don't be so worried."

Aurora said diligently, "I am not worried, I am afraid that you will misunderstand that I am a little fat girl! My height of 1.7 meters, controlled within 100 catties, is already very powerful! My classmates say I am a devil figure!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Well, if little pepper Aurora has a devil figure, I will find out later."

Chapter 1310

Aurora said embarrassedly: "I am not a little pepper..."

Charlie Wade smiled and asked: "Then what are you?"

Aurora: "I...I...I am a beautiful woman, and a little cute!"

After finishing speaking, before Charlie Wade responded, she hung up the phone shyly.

Charlie Wade listened to the phone and suddenly turned into a beep, couldn't help but shook his head and laughed secretly. This little pepper is really cute.

.....

After Claire Wilson Wilson had eaten, she went to her studio.

Recently, the scale of her studio has been expanded a lot compared with before, and some employees have been recruited. At the same time, several renovation projects are underway, which can be said to be booming.

Jacob Wilson is also very busy every day in the Association of Painting and Calligraphy.

After breakfast today, he was anxious to go to the Calligraphy and Painting Association, which made Charlie Wade a little curious.

So Charlie Wade couldn't help asking him: "Dad, why are you going so early today?"

Jacob Wilson smiled and said: "The Calligraphy and Painting Association happened to have some activities today. The calligraphy and calligraphy hobby class of the University for the Elderly is coming over to visit us today."

Charlie Wade understood it instantly when he mentioned college for the elderly. The University for the Elderly is where Matilda works and studies every day.

A good friend of Matilda invited her to be a visiting professor of French education at a university for the elderly. At the same time, she herself was studying calligraphy and Chinese painting at the university for the elderly.

It seems that Matilda is going to meet with Jacob Wilson today.

No wonder my old husband is so happy early this morning.

However, because the mother-in-law Elaine Ma was right in front of him, Charlie Wade didn't click through either.

He himself will go to Aurouss Hilll Gymnasium later, so he asked his father-in-law Jacob Wilson: "Dad, would you please drive me for a while, I just want to go to the gym to watch the game."

"Okay!" Jacob Wilson said with a smile: "It just happened to be on the way, you can go with me!"

Elaine Ma said dissatisfied: "I said you three, this is out of my mind, am I?"

Jacob Wilson asked with a cold face, "What are you talking about, who is mad at you?"

Elaine Ma said angrily: "After you have eaten, you all ran out one by one, going out to play, go out, how boring I am at home alone?"

Jacob Wilson curled his lips and deliberately said in a sarcastic tone: "Who stopped you from going out? If you want to go out, go out, go find your old friends to play mahjong, or ask your old sisters to make faces.!"

Elaine Ma scolded annoyedly: "Jacob Wilson, did you f*cking deliberately damage your Lady? I broke a leg. How can I get out? Besides, my two front teeth have not had time to be fixed, go find the old man. Friend, how embarrassed is the old sister?"

Jacob Wilson opened his palms and said innocently, "Then I can't help you. Anyway, your legs are on your body. You can go out anytime you want to go out. If you don't want to go out, stay at home, but you don't stop us from going out. Ah, we are not obligated to stay with you at home!" After speaking, he waved to Charlie Wade, shook the BMW car key in his hand, and said casually: "Good son-in-law, let's go!"

Chapter 1311

After Charlie Wade and his father-in-law Jacob Wilson left the house, he drove and said with a smile: "Oh, I have waited for so long. I finally waited until the senior college to have an exchange with our Calligraphy and Painting Association. It was not easy!"

Charlie Wade smiled and asked, "Did you communicate with Matilda?"

"Not yet." Jacob Wilson smiled and said, "I plan to surprise her, after all, there are days when I haven't seen her."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "But you should be a little more careful. Don't let mom know that Matilda has returned to China, let alone let her know that you have contact with Matilda, otherwise our family will really be messed up. It's shaking the sky."

Charlie Wade couldn't understand Elaine Ma's character better. Elaine Ma has several untouchable scales in this life, one is money and the other is Matilda.

The old man is going to divorce her. Although she is angry, she has not lost her mind. But if she knows that the old man and Matilda met, and the two of them were still fighting while she was in the detention center. Elaine Ma will definitely be angry.

When Jacob Wilson heard Charlie Wade's reminder, he nodded with a serious face and said: "You are right, I have the same idea as you, so I have never dared to have too much contact with your Matilda."

At this point, Jacob Wilson sighed and said: "This stinky lady is still alive and unwilling to divorce me. It is really a headache."

Charlie Wade smiled and thought to himself, it would be weird if the mother-in-law Elaine Ma was willing to divorce her old father-in-law. After all, she now has nothing, so it is even more unlikely that she would be willing to divorce and leave the family.

The old man wanted to get rid of her, I am afraid it is a foolish dream. When the car drove to the Aurouss Hilll Gymnasium, Charlie Wade said goodbye to his old father in law and got out of the car alone.

At this time, the Aurouss Hilll Gymnasium and the entrance were all hung up with promotional materials about this international college student Sanda competition.

It is said that this is the most authoritative one of the global college student Sanda competitions. So far, more than a dozen of them have been held consecutively. This is the first time it has been held in China. Aurouss Hilll is also very lucky to be elected as the host city of this competition.

Although the competition has been held for many times, and China has sent players to participate many times, but the best result is fourth place, and they have not won a medal.

Therefore, this time, the Chinese team is very hopeful that it can achieve the international college Sanda competition, a zero breakthrough in medals in this sports event.

And Aurora is one of the most promising players of the Chinese team to win a medal in this competition.

When Charlie Wade came to the entrance of the gymnasium, he found that there were already a lot of spectators coming in and out. So he called Mr. Quinton and told him that he had reached the door.

Mr. Quinton greeted him in a hurry. As soon as he saw him, he respectfully said: "Master Wade, I'm really sorry, I will let you come to see the children's play house during his busy schedule, which will waste your precious time."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said indifferently: "Where is this? I think this competition is of a very high level. Aurora's ability to participate in the war for the country is also a commendable thing. I should cheer for her."

Mr. Quinton was overjoyed. What he hopes most is that Charlie Wade can have that kind of thought for his daughter. In his eyes, Charlie Wade has long been regarded as the best son-in-law to take a dragon.

Seeing that Charlie Wade is busy and willing to take time for his daughter to come here to watch her game, he naturally feels that this is a manifestation of Master Wade's importance to his daughter.

So he hurriedly made a gesture of invitation and said to Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, Aurora is preparing for the battle in the lounge, let's go to the audience first!"

Chapter 1312

Charlie Wade nodded, and then walked into the gym with Mr. Quinton.

The Aurouss Hill Gymnasium has a huge area. It not only has a standard indoor swimming pool, but also standard indoor track and field, badminton, table tennis and basketball competition venues.

At this time, the entire stadium, except for the swimming pool, has been vacated for this Sanda competition.

The whole scene is divided into many square shapes, and each square shape has an arena.

Mr. Quinton pointed to these arenas and introduced to Charlie Wade:

"Master Wade, there are a total of 8 arenas at this scene, and these 8 arenas correspond to 8 groups. The 8 groups finished the group preliminaries on a fixed arena. The person who finally won the ring was the only person in this group who successfully broke through and was one of the top eight in the entire game."

As he said, he pointed to the 5th ring again and said, "Master Wade, Aurora has been in the 5th ring all the time. Her game has 10 minutes to start. Let's go over."

Charlie Wade said hello, and then went to the No. 5 ring with him.

There are a total of more than 100 audience seats around the No. 5 ring, and Mr. Quinton has already arranged several seats in the first row.

As soon as Charlie Wade arrived, he saw a familiar figure, who turned out to be Steven Quinton from the Quinton family.

Steven Quinton had been banned by the Quinton family for a long time because of pretending to be forceful with Charlie Wade and causing a major disaster.

During this period of time, his performance was fairly good. In addition, today was the little pepper Aurora's game. As Aurora's cousin, he had to come over and cheer for his sister. Mr. Quinton made an exception to let him out.

Seeing Charlie Wade, Steven Quinton had long lost the pretending attitude of the young master of the Quinton Family. Before Charlie Wade was there, he hurriedly stood up, but Steven nodded and said, "Master Wade, you are here, please. Sit, please sit down"

Charlie Wade looked at him curiously, and smiled and asked, "Steven Quinton, it's been a long time since I saw you. I don't know where you made your fortune recently?"

Steven Quinton said with a face of shame: "Master Wade, I have been reflecting on repentance at home during the next period of time. I feel upset and self-blame for offending Master Wade, every day. I was really blind at the beginning and I dared to oppose you. , And you are an adult, regardless of the villain's experience, and you have helped our Quinton family solve the great troubles. I really don't know how to thank you!" Charlie Wade smiled and asked, "Steven Quinton, it's been a long time since I saw you. You seem to be a bit more sensible."

"Really?" Steven Quinton scratched his head and said with a smile: "Master Wade, if you can feel my enthusiasm, I am already very satisfied!"

Mr. Quinton slapped him on the head and reprimanded: "When you meet Master Wade in Aurouss Hilll, you must be obedient and respectful, and let me know that you dare to fight Master Wade and I will slap you in the leg. Break!"

Steven Quinton nodded repeatedly, and said hurriedly: "Second Uncle, don't worry, Master Wade will be my idol in the future. I will definitely treat Master Wade as a bright moon in my heart like my sister!"

Charlie Wade smiled faintly: "Okay, don't flatter yourself, and you can make trouble for your second uncle in the future."

Steven Quinton nodded hurriedly.

At this time, the referee said: "The last regular preliminaries of the five groups, start now!"

Steven Quinton got excited at once, pointed to the entrance and said excitedly, "Master Wade, my sister is on the stage!"

Chapter 1313

As Steven Quinton's voice fell, Charlie Wade immediately saw Aurora who walked in at the entrance!

Today, Aurora wore a sports bra and a pair of sports shorts. Her excellent figure was exposed. What Charlie Wade didn't expect was that Aurora's muscle lines were amazing, and there was even an obvious v line around her waist.

With this figure, it is really invincible among girls!

In addition, Aurora's skin is as white as snow, and there are no blemishes. With such a beautiful figure, it is perfect to be impeccable. In addition, Aurora's long hair was tied into a neat ponytail behind her head, and she wore a pair of big red boxing gloves on her hand, her face was brazen.

Walking out side by side with Aurora was a young woman with brown skin, even a little dark.

Steven Quinton introduced to Charlie Wade diligently: "Master Wade, my sister played against a Thai player today. It is said that he has strong Muay Thai skills and is a seed player of the Philippines team!"

Charlie Wade laughed and said: "It's nothing to be afraid of Muay Thai. The whole of Thailand is only Muay Thai, which can be regarded as a handy fighting technique. Compared with our Chinese martial arts, it is really insignificant, and you My sister can definitely beat this Thai player." Steven Quinton said with a smile, "Master Wade is so insightful! In fact, I also think that my sister will definitely win her!"

Mr. Quinton on the side glared at Steven Quinton and murmured, "You show me a good time to watch the game, and stop talking nonsense there and affect Master Wade's mood when watching the game."

Steven Quinton shrank his neck when he was scolded, not knowing what he had done wrong, which made his second uncle unhappy.

In fact, Mr. Quinton was mainly annoyed because this kid was robbing him here, and he was going to get close to Master Wade. As a result, this kid kept chatting here, so it made people annoying.

At this time, Aurora, who was on the stage, also saw Charlie Wade in the stands, and the little chili with a bit of firmness in his original expression instantly became shy.

She gently waved her hand with boxing gloves, and exclaimed excitedly: "Master Wade, you are here!"

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled at her, and said: "Be sure to cheer later, I am optimistic that you will qualify for the team and advance to the quarterfinals!"

Aurora smiled shyly, her heart as sweet as honey.

Nothing makes you happy and excited more than your beloved man comes to watch your game.

She felt that at this time, she was the happiest woman in the world.

At this point, the referee stepped forward.

Since it was a preliminary match and there were 7 other groups of players in the game at the same time, the referee did not delay the time. He walked up and said directly: "Both sides prepare, the game will start in 30 seconds!"

Aurora and the Thai female athlete immediately warmed up briefly in the ring.

After 30 seconds, the referee took the two to the center of the ring.

After briefly talking about the rules of the game, they immediately announced the start of the game!

As soon as the game started, the Thai female player took the initiative to launch a quick attack on Aurora.

Chapter 1314

Charlie Wade can see that this Thai female boxer is quick to punch and her body is very flexible, and her height is almost ten centimeters shorter than Aurora, and her body is short overall, so her bottom plate is more stable.

Moreover, the Thai female player has a very clever style of play. She knows that her advantage is in the bottom game and Aurora's advantage is in the top game, so she frequently attacks from the bottom game.

As the opponent came up and quickly launched an attack, Aurora could only focus on blocking, so the whole fight was a little embarrassing.

In the first round, the opponent had significantly more effective hits than Aurora, so after one round, the opponent was ahead of Aurora in points.

During a short break, Aurora's coach hurriedly gave Aurora tactical guidance in Aurora's ear.

After a short break of a few minutes, the game immediately entered the second round.

At the beginning of the second round, Aurora changed her strategy and took the initiative to attack the opponent, but her main tactic was to break the opponent's bottom set, and the opponent continued to break her bottom set.

But Aurora was obviously not as solid as the opponent in the next game, and because her figure was relatively thin and tall, the next game itself was not stable, so it was obviously not dominant in this kind of confrontation.

Soon after the second round, Aurora still lags behind the opponent in points, and the gap is getting bigger and bigger.

Steven Quinton couldn't sit still at this moment. He whispered: "The Thai player always beats my sister's side. If my sister can't break through the opponent's advantage, then it is very likely that the game will be lost."

Charlie Wade smiled: "Steven Quinton, it seems that you are quite discerning."

Steven Quinton said embarrassedly, "It was Aurora's classmate who got the axe. Please forgive me, Master Wade."

Charlie Wade nodded slightly and glanced at the Thai female player.

He found that this female player, although the bottom plate is more stable and the speed of her legs is faster, but the faster her tactics, the less defensive her tactical moves. Every time she takes her legs, while attacking the opponent, she also exposed her weaknesses. Every time she tried to attack from the bottom plate, she deliberately pressed her leg very low, trying to directly attack Aurora's calf and ankle. This method of getting out of the leg was fierce, as long as she hit with all her strength. For a moment, I am afraid that Aurora will find it difficult to stand normally in this game, and it will be equivalent to losing the game at night.

However, it was precisely because she pressed her legs very low that a fatal flaw was revealed. It was the front of her own leg bones and knees. Although Aurora was not stable in her footing, she was better than her height and long legs. When the opponent lowers her leg, the opponent hits the front of the opponent's leg bones and the front of the knee in one step. It is very likely that the opponent's entire bottom plate attack will be destroyed in one move.

So Charlie Wade stood up and walked to the side of the ring, Aurora's resting place.

At this time Aurora was sitting in a small chair for rest, and her coach said to her: "Now you are hitting your back game. This is your disadvantage, but if you want to get it back, you can beat her back. It's her last game. Once you have the upper hand in the upper game, the opponent's advantage in the next game won't be played out. If you play hard, we can still get the score back in the next three games!"

Charlie Wade couldn't help frowning.

If you feel that the opponent's disadvantage is on the upper plate, you have to launch an offensive against the opponent's upper plate first.

This idea is too simple for your opponent to think of.

It's like a police officer catching a gunman, knowing that his biggest target is the abdomen, so he will wear his body armor in advance.

On the surface, the disadvantage of this Thai player is the hanging game, but she hides the murderous intention in the second game. Even if Aurora can take advantage of the hanging game, but it is difficult to hit the other side in the hanging game, but once the opponent is in her After successfully hitting the calf and ankle once, Aurora's whole person may fall into absolute badness, and thus will have no strength to fight back in the subsequent matches!

So Charlie Wade walked up to Aurora and said to Aurora, "Aurora, don't hit the opponent's top game. Instead, focus on the opponent's bottom game. While avoiding the opponent's attack, look for opportunities and use your height and legs. Long advantage, attack directly above her right calf and knee, her bottom plate is fast and strong, so you must break her bottom plate to win the final victory!"

Chapter 1315

Hearing Charlie Wade's words, Aurora looked at him with joy, and shouted excitedly: "Master Wade!"

After speaking, she said with a little shame: "Sorry, Master Wade, let you watch the joke!"

Charlie Wade smiled comfortingly: "It's okay. At first, it's normal that you can't find the rhythm. If you carefully analyze the opponent's strengths and weaknesses and choose the right strategy, you can turn against the wind and win in the end."

Aurora nodded excitedly, and said piously: "I see, Master Wade, thank you for your teaching!"

At this moment, the coach next to Aurora looked at Charlie Wade with a dissatisfied expression, and said, "What are you commanding here? Do you know how to Sanda? Aurora is now at the most critical time, if the third game cannot save the situation. , It is likely to lose! You are still giving her a bad idea at this time, isn't this intentional to harm her?"

Charlie Wade said lightly: "I just told her the truth, and it's a fact you can't see!"

"If she continues to play as you said, she will definitely lose miserably this time. The Thai player is not much better than Aurora in terms of strength, skill and speed. It's just that the opponent's tactics are very smart, so Only in the first two rounds did Aurora fight!"

"And if Aurora is not tactical, and overtakes the opponent by one head, then this game will be lost!"

The coach said angrily: "Where do amateurs dare to fight in front of me, I won the national Sanda championship, so you dare to point fingers in front of me?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "You said it yourself, you only won the national championship, but now Aurora is going to win the world championship, why do you think you can guide a world championship at the level of a national championship?"

"You..." The coach was insulted by Charlie Wade, his heart was very angry, but he couldn't find any suitable words to refute him, so he gritted his teeth and said sharply to Aurora instead: " Aurora, if you listen to him today and play according to his method, then you will not train with me, and I will no longer be your coach! You will be on the court later, you can figure it out!"

Aurora was also very embarrassed at this time, she didn't expect her coach to choke with Master Wade.

I have been training with this coach for more than a year, and the overall feeling is pretty good, but in my mind, his weight is really worse than Master Charlie Wade.

If Master Wade didn't advise him, he would naturally follow the tactics ordered by the coach.

But since Master Wade gave him advice, he would undoubtedly choose the tactics Master Wade formulated for himself.

So, after she made the decision, she looked sorry, looked at her coach and said: "Coach Blanks I am really sorry, I am going to use the tactics Master Wade just told me."

"You..." Coach Blanks said angrily: "I thought you were a very smart girl, but I didn't expect you to be so ignorant of good and bad. Since you choose to believe in this amateur player, then the relationship between the two of us is a teacher and apprentice. That's it."

As he said, he stepped off the ring, walked a few meters and then turned around and said: "Aurora, originally I believed that you can advance to the top 8 this time, and may even hit the medal, but now it seems that your fate in this competition It will stop the group stage."

Afterwards, he looked at Charlie Wade coldly, and said disdainfully:

"Boy, you ruined a good seedling."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Really? Why don't I feel at all? On the contrary, I think that Aurora has a chance to hit the championship this time."

"Are you kidding?" Coach Blanks said disdainfully: "Do you know how strong the real seed player is in this competition? The top seed Japanese player Ito Nanako is far superior to Aurora. The Brazilian player Joanna, the number one seed, is also stronger than Aurora. If there is my guidance, Aurora still has a chance to beat Joanna, but without me, she can't even win this game!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Don't worry, whether it is Brazilian player Joanna or Japanese player Ito Nanako, they will all become Aurora's defeaters!"

Coach Blanks said contemptuously: "Boy, you have a big tone. With your three-legged cat's amateur skills, can Aurora defeat Ito Nanako?"

Chapter 1316

Charlie Wade nodded: "If you don't believe it, we can just walk around and see."

"Okay!" Coach Blanks sneered: "Walk and see, I'll just wait here to see how Aurora lost this game!"

After that, he walked directly to the audience seat next to him, found an empty seat and sat down, with his arms folded on his chest, with a look of good play. He had already recognized Aurora in his heart. No doubt lose.

Charlie Wade ignored him, but watched Aurora whispered: "Don't be nervous later, just fight as I said. I believe you will be able to defeat this opponent."

Aurora nodded heavily, and then said with a pitiful face: "Master Wade, coach Blanks is gone, I will not have a coach in the future. If I win this game, there may be a few more games to play in the future. Can you Come to be my coach?"

Charlie Wade said without hesitation: "No problem, I will be your coach from now on."

Aurora cheered with excitement: "Great! I will call you Coach Wade in future matches!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "You can call it whatever you want."

At this time, the referee rang the bell for the third game.

Aurora stood up, flexed her muscles and bones, and said to Charlie Wade with a resolute expression: "Coach Wade, I'm going to play!"

Charlie Wade nodded: "Come on!"

At this time, the Thai players also walked from the other side of the ring to the center of the ring.

At this time, the Thai player's expression was very relaxed, even a bit contemptuous.

She had already won a lot of points from Aurora in the first two games, as long as she played steadily in the next three games. They will definitely be able to defeat the opponent and advance to the quarterfinals.

What Aurora was thinking about at this time was the tactics that Charlie Wade told her, and she was already knowing how to fight next.

With the start of the referee, the third game of the two sides officially kicked off.

Seeing that her tactics in the first two rounds worked very well, the Thai player was ready to adopt a fresh-eaten routine against Aurora. Therefore, as soon as she came up, she went straight to Aurora's bottom plate and launched a fierce attack.

Aurora gave up the idea of attacking on the upper plate, concentrated on resisting the opponent's attack on the lower plate, and at the same time was looking for the weaknesses exposed by the opponent's attack.

Generally speaking, in Sanda combat, the more fierce the offensive is, the weaker the strength of the defense, which is like the faster a person runs, the more unstable the center of gravity, the easier it is to fall. Therefore, Aurora quickly saw the weakness exposed by the opponent in the process of quickly getting out of the leg!

The opportunity is here!

Chapter 1317

Coach Blanks had been watching from the side, seeing Aurora always passively defending and being beaten back by the opponent, she couldn't help but sneer.

In his opinion, Aurora's tactics were simply the weakest among the weak. Since the opponent's next set attack is fast and the upper set is relatively inferior, it should be the same as the opponent's own next, and the other side's hanging.

In this way, we can find a breakthrough point and reverse this passive situation in one fell swoop.

This is also the traditional thinking of most coaches.

But this is also the root reason why most coaches cannot become top coaches, and even when they themselves are players, they cannot become top players.

In Charlie Wade's view, whether it is a battle between the two armies or a fight between the two, the best and most stable way is to defeat the enemy's trump card.

Just like in a war, if the opponent's ace division is defeated, not only will the opponent's strength be greatly weakened, but also the military will be in a state of confusion.

In contrast, if you just destroy the opponent's miscellaneous army, or even the cannon fodder army, not only is it impossible to achieve a key victory, but it may be targeted by the opponent's main force because of the main goal of the measure.

In Sanda, if the opponent uses the fist best, then the opponent's fist must be abolished; if the opponent uses the leg best, then the opponent's leg must be abolished, otherwise the opponent's most powerful means of attack is left. My biggest hidden danger.

The Thai player Aurora faced was the best at right leg, so even if Aurora launched an attack on her upper plate and succeeded in the attack, it would not have much impact on her attack power.

In this process, if Aurora was hit by the opponent's leg, it was very likely to fall into a slump immediately.

That's why Charlie Wade asked Aurora to do everything possible to find the weakness of the opponent's next game.

And at the moment when the opportunity came, Aurora did not disappoint his trust.

Seeing Aurora's fierce kick facing the opponent, she suddenly flashed, and then stepped hard, slamming on the calf bone of the leg that the opponent kicked.

This step immediately caused the Thai player to cry out in pain.

Immediately afterwards, she felt a sudden pain in her right leg, as if she was about to fracture.

This pain made her feel unsteady even standing, let alone continue to attack Aurora.

So she immediately limped back a few steps, her face full of shock and incredible.

What she didn't expect was that her next game was obviously stronger than the opponent, but the opponent dared to make a fuss with herself in the end.

She kept beating her back every day, thinking that she had the upper hand, and waiting to give her a fatal blow, but she didn't expect that the other party was the one who looked at me and waited to give her a fatal blow!

With this foot, she was affected even when she walked. Every step she took was painful, and the combat effectiveness of the whole person plummeted instantly.

Most of the audience in the audience was Chinese. Seeing Aurora finally regained a city, a burst of cheers broke out.

Charlie Wade looked at Aurora with approval, and it seemed that Aurora was really talented. She was able to seize this opportunity accurately the first time the other party exposed her weakness.

Now the balance on the ring has been severely tilted, and the Thai player injured her right leg. It is absolutely impossible to be Aurora's opponent anymore, but this kick just now laid the foundation for Aurora's victory.

Coach Blanks in the audience looked very ugly.

He really didn't expect that Aurora could really take advantage of the opponent in the next game!

The kick just now is very strong, and you can tell that the other party's injury is serious.

From the coach's perspective, it can be seen that Aurora's game has already been won, and the rest is just a matter of time.

Chapter 1318

At this moment, he couldn't help feeling regretful.

Seeing Aurora was about to advance to the quarterfinals, she turned her face against her.

In this way, if she achieves better results in this game, then it has nothing to do with herself.

At this moment, Aurora changed, just constantly defending the retreat routine, and proactively launched a series of attacks on the opponent.

The opponent's right leg was injured, and she was already greatly affected. Now being chased by Aurora, every step back in his right leg would bring piercing pain.

And her right leg can't keep up with her figure at all now, and it has become an oil bottle.

This makes her not only difficult to defend, difficult to dodge, but also difficult to counterattack.

Most of Aurora's series of offenses hit the opponent.

The Thai players, who was on the offensive just now, can only hold her head and flee in the ring.

Aurora kept Charlie Wade's teachings in mind, and was still staring at the opponent's bottom plate, preparing to give the opponent another fatal blow.

Soon, she found a chance in the other party's backlash.

So she kicked out a whip leg accurately, and kicked directly on the opponent's injured right leg.

At this time, she kicked the opponent with a scream, her face was pale, her forehead and cheeks were covered with cold sweat.

Aurora didn't use her full strength with this kick. If she used her full strength, the opponent's calf would have been broken.

The reason why there is still a certain amount of leeway is to give the other side a chance.

The game is only started, she doesn't want to completely abolish the opponent.

After all, for a Sanda athlete, the limbs are the most important body part in their eyes. If the leg is really broken, then the career can be declared over. After all, even if the broken leg can recover, it will definitely not reach the previous level. Competitive state, strength will inevitably be greatly weakened.

The Thai player also realized that Aurora had been merciful with this kick just now. So she also felt a little grateful for Aurora.

She has been practicing Muay Thai for many years, and she is most proud of her right leg.

If her right leg was kicked off by Aurora today, then she wouldn't have to participate in any competitions in the future. She was only in her early twenties this year, so she didn't want to let her career stop there.

Thinking of this, she took two steps back and gave Aurora a fist gratefully. Then she said to her coach in Thai, and then her coach raised the towel.

As soon as the referee saw this, he immediately jumped into the arena, blocked the two players, and said: "The Thai player admits defeat, and the Chinese player Aurora won this game!"

With his announcement, Aurora jumped up excitedly.

I subconsciously looked for Charlie Wade's figure, and then looked at Charlie Wade with an extremely affectionate look, and the worship of him in his heart reached a new peak again.

Mr. Quinton and Steven Quinton were also excited, and stood up and applauded.

Only the coach Blanks, seeing Aurora win, had a gloomy expression to death.

He even began to think about how he could restore the relationship between his teacher and Aurora.

Because, once Aurora achieved good results in the competition, it was a good opportunity for her to become famous.

But just now, I gave this good opportunity to others. Damn it!

Chapter 1319

With Aurora's victory, this little pepper also officially entered the quarter-finals of this international college student Sanda competition. This is Aurora's best result in an international college student Sanda competition.

When the competition was held in Canada last year, she made a special trip to compete, but that time she failed to qualify for the group, and the final overall ranking was 30th.

So this time, Aurora has achieved an unprecedented breakthrough. After the referee announced the victory, she shook hands with the Thai player and the two girls hugged each other. Immediately, Aurora turned around and ran to Charlie Wade quickly. When she came to Charlie Wade, she happily jumped up and jumped directly onto him.

"Master Wade, thank you so much!"

Aurora hugged his neck and hugged him like a baby koala, happier than ever.

Aurora's hug caught Charlie Wade by surprise, but he could also feel the excitement and joy in Aurora's heart.

So Charlie Wade was unwilling to sweep her heart, so he hugged her and turned around twice, and said with a smile: "You just entered the quarter-finals, and I am so happy. If you win the championship, will you not be excited?"

Aurora hugged Charlie Wade's neck and blushed and said: "I have never expected to win the championship. I am already very happy to be able to advance to the top 8."

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "I remember you didn't say that before, but you said before that you were sure to get a good ranking."

Aurora said embarrassedly: "People are afraid that you will dislike me, Master Wade, so I deliberately boasted. Actually, I never thought about getting a medal..."

"Okay..." Charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "Okay, don't hold on me, everyone is watching, your father and your brother are watching too."

Aurora realized that she was still hanging on Charlie Wade's body.

At this time, Charlie Wade was also a little contemplative, after all, Aurora's figure was really too good.

Moreover, her skin is as smooth as jade!

More importantly, she now only wears a sports bra and flat-angle sports shorts, so holding herself in this way, the touch is very clear.

Aurora's shy smile blushed, and hurriedly jumped off him.

At this time, Mr. Quinton, who was not far away, was looking at his precious daughter with a smile on his face.

He had long expected his daughter to make some substantial progress with Master Charlie Wade.

Today, it seems that his daughter and Master Wade have finally made some substantial progress, which is really gratifying, and he feels more gratified than his daughter won the game.

Charlie Wade said to Aurora at this time: "Don't forget to say hello to your father and your younger brother, let's go over."

Aurora just remembered that she patronized Charlie Wade to celebrate, but she forgot that her father and her younger brother were in the stands.

This made her feel even more embarrassed in her heart. She thought to herself: "It was really shameful just now. There was only Master Wade in her eyes. It is a sin to forget her father and younger brother!"

So, she hurriedly came to Mr. Quinton and Steven Quinton with Charlie Wade, blushing and said, "Dad, Steven, did you see what I did just now?"

Chapter 1320

Steven Quinton gave a thumbs up and praised: "Sister, you just made the jedi blow, it was great! Seeing that you didn't get the upper hand in the first two games, I thought you were going to lose!"

Mr. Quinton also smiled and said, "Yes, Dad just squeezed a cold sweat for you!"

Aurora said embarrassedly: "Thanks to Master Wade's reminder, otherwise I might really lose..."

With that, Aurora embraced Charlie Wade's arm affectionately, and said softly, "Also, Master Wade will be my coach in the future!"

"Ah?" Mr. Quinton heard that Master Charlie Wade had been the coach of his daughter Aurora. Although he was very excited, he still said with a nervous expression: "How are you kidding me? Master Wade manages so many important things every day. How can I accompany you to play this kind of kid's game, what if I delay a master's business? Can you bear this responsibility?"

Aurora was said by her father, and she immediately curled her lips a little wronged.

At the same time, she was also worried in her heart, would he let Charlie Wade be her coach, would it really delay Charlie Wade's serious affairs?

At this time, Charlie Wade said with a smile: "I actually have nothing to do recently. Besides, Aurora is not a kid's game. After all, I am trying to win glory for the country. I hope she can win a championship, so I can give it to us. Chinese college students fight for more face!"

Mr. Quinton heard this and finally heaved a sigh of relief and said with a smile: "Aurora, since Master Wade trusts you so much, then you must train hard and actively prepare for the subsequent competitions. You must reward Master Wade with a good ranking. Trust in you!"

"I will definitely work hard!"

Aurora clenched her fists and said with excitement: "I will definitely go all out in the following competitions and strive to get the best result back!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "You have to zoom in. From my point of view, you have to bring a champion back for everything you say in this competition to be justified!"

Aurora hurriedly said: "Master Wade, the No. 1 seed, No. 2 seed, and No. 3 seed players in this competition are all very strong, especially the No. 1 seed selection, Japan's Ito Nanako. She is the top Japanese national treasure master Yamamoto. One of Kazuki's personal disciples, was judged by Yamamoto Kazuki as an unborn genius, and she has won two international college Sanda competitions. This time she is going to attack her for three consecutive championships."

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Whoever it is don't worry, with me, she will not be your equal opponent!"

"Really?!" Aurora knew Charlie Wade's magical powers and knew that he would never say anything unsure, so she asked excitedly: "Master Wade, can I really win Ito Nanako?"

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "Don't worry, since I said it, I can definitely do it!"

"Great!" Aurora cheered, excited.

At this moment, the coach Blanks just stepped forward and said with a smile: "Oh, Aurora, I really congratulate you. She has advanced to the top 8 without any precedent and has tied the best result of a Chinese college student in this game.!"

"If you can win the next game and advance to the top 4 smoothly, then you can create a new record for our Chinese college students in this game!"

Aurora thought to herself, even though Coach Blanks had broken with herself just now, he came to congratulate herself at the moment. Of course she could not neglect it out of courtesy.

So she humbly said: "Coach Blanks, you passed the award, I will work hard for the game."

Coach Blanks smiled and said seriously: "In the game just now, you won very thrilling, with a lot of luck. If you want to win the next game, you must not rely on luck, but you must rely on systematic training.

Professional guidance, why not let me continue to guide you through the subsequent competition!"

Charlie Wade listened, the corners of his mouth raised slightly, smiled and did not speak.

When Aurora heard this, she immediately resolutely said: "I'm sorry Coach Blanks, I now have a new coach."

"That's him?" Coach Blanks looked at Charlie Wade contemptuously, and said with contempt: "This kind of person is not professional at all. Just now he was just a blind cat and a dead mouse. If you still hope in him, then you will be very next. It may stop in the top 8 and it is impossible to go further!"

Aurora said indignantly: "Huh! Don't talk nonsense here! In my mind, Coach Wade is the best coach in the world! No one can compare to it! Including you!"

Chapter 1321

In Aurora's eyes, Charlie Wade's status is almost second only to her father Mr. Quinton.

But this coach Blanks didn't know.

He also felt that Charlie Wade was just a moment of luck, so Aurora, who had just fooled around, believed in him.

So he snorted and said disdainfully: "Aurora, don't be fooled by this kind of hairy boy. This kind of person can only talk on paper and has no real ability at all. If you really let him be your coach, Then you will definitely not have a chance to win the subsequent games!"

Aurora said with a bit of annoyance: "I forbid you to say that about Master Wade! Master Wade's strength is what you can imagine! If it weren't for Master Wade remind me today, if I listen to your tactical arrangements, then I must have lost this game now, it is impossible to advance to the quarterfinals, and there is no chance to play the subsequent games!"

Coach Blanks did not expect that Aurora would not even buy his own account.

This made him very angry.

Moreover, Aurora mentioned that her tactical arrangements just now were not as good as the young man surnamed Wade, which made him even more unhappy.

Because for someone like him, even if Aurora used Charlie Wade's tactical arrangement to defeat the Thai player just now, he didn't think that Charlie Wade was better than himself.

He even felt that if Aurora used the tactics she had just arranged, she would probably win the same, and even win more beautifully and simply.

So he said in a weird manner: "Aurora, I kindly give you a chance, don't you know how to promote!"

"Professional players in Aurouss Hilll who want to practice Sanda with me line up and beg me to accept them as apprentices. I choose you. This is your luck. If you miss me, then your career will have come to an end! There will never be any real progress!"

"If you want to become a true national professional athlete in the future, without my guidance, you can only be wishful thinking."

Mr. Quinton did not expect this coach Blanks to speak so unceremoniously. He said in an angry cold voice: "Coach Blanks, your tone is really loud. Why do you think my daughter chooses you as the coach is my daughter's Luck? Let me tell you that if my daughter can get Master Wade's guidance, that is the luck of the gods. As for you, it's just rubbish!"

Because Aurora is usually very low-key in school, many people don't know her family background at all, and they don't know that she is Mr. Quinton's daughter.

Mr. Quinton has always been a person who does not show up or leaks. He is not as popular as other rich people in Aurouss Hilll, so although there are quite a few people who know him, not many people know him.

Coach Blanks has trained Aurora for more than a year. He has never seen Mr. Quinton. He doesn't know how good Aurora's family is. He thinks that Aurora is just the daughter of an ordinary family, and he might even count on practicing Sanda to get ahead. I thought I was holding each other.

But I didn't expect that the other party would not put himself in the eyes at all, and even said that he was rubbish.

This is really intolerable.

So, he said coldly: "It's true that Rodney Blanks has some connections in Aurouss Hilll and even the whole country's Sanda circle. If I want to block someone, it's just a matter of one sentence. Therefore, before talking to me, I must weigh my mind. clear!"

Chapter 1322

Mr. Quinton said coldly: "It's just a Sanda coach. Why is your tone so big? I am Graham Quinton of Aurouss Hilll. Although I am not among the top ones, I still have some skills. I really don't believe it. In a word, I can have anyone killed that threatens my daughter!"

"Graham Quinton?!"

Blanks exclaimed and asked nervously, "Are you Mr. Quinton, the Patriarch of the Quinton Family?"

Mr. Quinton said coldly: "It's me, why? What's your opinion?"

"Don't dare!" Blanks hurriedly said with a smile: "Mr. Quinton I am really embarrassed. I didn't expect you to be Aurora's father. You have been admiring your name for a long time. Our Sanda Hall of Aurouss Hilll University of Finance and Economics is still yours Donated..."

Mr. Quinton disgusted him and said coldly: "Well, you are no longer Aurora's coach. I have nothing to say to you, please go back."

Coach Blanks was very upset in his heart. He did not expect that he had just forcibly pretended to be a force in front of the famous Mr. Quinton just now. What made him even more unacceptable was that he had actually lost the qualification to choose Aurora as a coach.

This loss is really too great. If he can lead Aurora to achieve a good result, Mr. Quinton will naturally not treat himself badly.

There are rumors that Mr. Quinton is very generous. Take the Sanda training hall of Aurouss Hilll College of Finance and Economics that he donated to build. It is obvious that 10 million can be built into a first-class Sanda training hall in China, but Mr. Quinton directly donated 27 million and built one. The international top-level Sanda training hall.

I used to think that Mr. Quinton must be very rich, but today I figured out that Mr. Quinton's daughter is Aurora.

It can be seen that in order for his daughter to practice Sanda well, Mr. Quinton can donate 27 million Dollar to the Aurouss Hilll University of Finance and Economics to build a training hall. If he can bring her daughter to get a good result, he will give it to Aurouss Hilll. A few million in bonuses?

Thinking of this, he hurriedly tried to make it back, and said sincerely: "Mr. Quinton, to tell you, Aurora is indeed a very talented Sanda player, but the most important thing for her now is to have a truly professional coach. Train her systematically and guide her tactics."

After he finished speaking, he looked at Charlie Wade disdainfully, and said: "Mr. Quinton, like this young man who can only talk about soldiers on paper, it is impossible to have any real experience and strength. If you give Aurora to him, only Delaying Aurora's future! A talented player like Aurora should be given to a professional coach like me to maximize her talent!"

When Mr. Quinton heard that he was disrespectful to Charlie Wade over and over again, he yelled angrily: "Coach Blanks, I think you have taught Aurora for more than a year. I don't want to be familiar with you. But if you say anything rude to Master Wade, then Don't blame someone for me being rude to you!"

Coach Blanks' heart was very angry, what kind of fascination was Mr. Quinton poured into? He would believe in such a young commoner. If he persists in understanding it, wouldn't he have no chance at all?

Thinking of this, he was anxious to prove his strength in front of Mr. Quinton, so he sternly said: "Mr. Quinton, Sanda is a boxing skill. You can't put it on your mouth, but put it on your fists and feet. Some people talk about it. But when you start, you are just a paper tiger! Don't be blinded by anyone!"

After speaking, he glanced at Charlie Wade coldly, and then suddenly attacked, and quickly punched at Charlie Wade in the face!

Coach Blanks' thinking was very simple. He had to prove his strength in front of Mr. Quinton, and prove that he was much stronger than the smelly surname Wade. Only in this way could he let Aurora train with him again. Only in this way can I get on the big boat of the Quinton family!

Chapter 1323

When Blanks punched at Charlie Wade, he was full of disdain for Charlie Wade.

He used full strength with this punch, and he also believed that his punch would be able to directly defeat Charlie Wade in front of everyone. I have to say that Blanks does have some strength.

After all, he has won the national Sanda championship, and the average person is really not his opponent.

His punch was quick and hard, and even Aurora, who had also practiced Sanda for many years, did not respond, let alone Mr. Quinton and Steven Quinton.

However, the speed at which Blanks is proud of, in Charlie Wade's eyes, is like slow motion, without threat.

Moreover, he really didn't have much strength in this punch in his opinion.

Even if he stood still and sturdy enough to give him a punch, he couldn't hurt himself with that punch.

However, even if there is no threat to him, Charlie Wade is absolutely impossible for this kind of d*ck to hit him.

Therefore, when Blanks was about to hit his face with a punch, he suddenly raised his fist to meet the opponent's fist and smashed it.

Charlie Wade's punch was as fast as a cannonball out of the chamber, and Blanks couldn't react to it at all.

Just when Blanks thought he could KO Charlie Wade with a single blow, he suddenly felt that his right fist was hit by an iron punch, and with a thud, there was severe pain and the sound of broken bones.

In front of Charlie Wade's fist, his fist was not even squeezed, and after a crit, the entire fist was completely destroyed.

Blanks held the shattered right fist, cried out in pain, and looked at Charlie Wade with an incredulous expression on his face.

He couldn't understand how this young man could have such a terrifying, even somewhat abnormal strength.

One punch can burst out such a strong strength, which is far beyond the scope of his own recognition.

Charlie Wade looked at him at this time, and said in a disdainful voice: "You are at a level like you, and you are far from coaching a world champion. With this kind of hard work everywhere, it's better to practice your business skills. To avoid being embarrassing.

Although Blanks was full of resentment towards Charlie Wade in his heart, he did not dare to disobey Charlie Wade any more and could only flee the scene in a desperate manner.

At this time, Aurora smiled and said to Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, you are now my coach. When are you going to guide me to practice?"

Charlie Wade smiled and asked her: "When is your next game?"

Aurora hurriedly said, "The next game is the afternoon of the day after tomorrow."

Charlie Wade asked again: "Who will you play in the next game?"

Aurora thought for a while, and said nervously: "I am a qualifying player in Group 5. I have to play against the qualifying players in Group 6 in accordance with the regulations. The No. 3 seeded player in this game is in Group 6, so I must be it's going to be the next game with her!"

Charlie Wade asked: "Who is the No. 3 seed player?"

Aurora said hurriedly: "The No. 3 seeded player is Joanna from Brazil...Oh my god, I definitely can't beat her..."

Chapter 1324

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "You haven't started fighting yet, how do you know that you can't beat her, I think you can definitely defeat this Joanna."

Aurora said with some shame: "Master Wade, My strength, I know very well, this Joanna is very strong, she is a leader among young Brazilian female Sanda players, and her strength is indeed much stronger than me, there is no chance..."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly in her ear: "Don't forget the magic medicine I gave you last time. Although your current physical fitness is very good, there is still a big gap between it and the real master. However, if you take that magic drug, your physical strength, reaction speed, will be greatly improved, then, I believe your strength will also improve a lot, defeat that Brazilian Joanna, absolutely not Come on!"

Aurora remembered the magic medicine that Charlie Wade had given herself before.

At that time, I was looking for Master Wade for his father to ask for medicine. Originally I only wanted one medicine and I was satisfied, but I didn't expect Master Wade to give me two medicines, so my father gave him another magic medicine.

But that magical medicine has been properly kept by myself, and I have never thought of eating it.

This was mainly because I didn't know that this magical medicine could also strengthen the body. At that time, I only thought that this magical medicine was the healing medicine after injury, so I kept it in a safe place for emergency.

So Aurora looked at Charlie Wade and asked in surprise: "Master Wade, can that magic medicine still improve personal strength?"

"Of course." Charlie Wade nodded and said: "It can improve your physical fitness in many ways. Although your physical fitness is already very strong, to be honest, compared with the colored people in Latin America, it is indeed still There are gaps, genetic gaps, and sometimes it is difficult to break through. It seems that black people are always good at sprinting. That's because black people are more explosive than other people."

After speaking, Charlie Wade said again: "However, if you take the magic medicine I gave you, you can fundamentally improve your physical function, and even make your body function surpass those people."

Aurora hurriedly asked: "Master Wade, if I take it, can the magic drug you give pass the doping test? The doping test for sports games is very strict. If you are found to have taken a doping drug, you will be Disqualified or even banned permanently..."

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Don't worry, my magic medicine relies on wonderful prescriptions and pure medicinal power, and has nothing to do with chemically purified stimulants. There will never be any problems."

Aurora said excitedly: "Then I will take that magic medicine when I go back today!"

Charlie Wade nodded: "I will come back when you play the next afternoon." "Great!"

Aurora was extremely excited and cheered happily.

Mr. Quinton on the side hurriedly said respectfully: "Master Wade, it's almost noon now, or else I would like to invite you to enjoy the noodles at noon and have a home-cooked meal at the next home?"

Charlie Wade wanted to decline, but she thought that if Aurora was going to take the medicine in the afternoon, she could pay close attention to her and at the same time help her guide the absorption of medicine.

Besides, Claire Wilson Wilson recently worked overtime at the company at noon, and generally did not go home to eat. The old man was also busy with the elderly college where Matilda was studying, so he would definitely not go back at noon.

Elaine Ma, mother-in-law, is alone at home, and there is no need to go back and cook for her.

So he nodded and said, "If that's the case, then I will go over and make some noise. By the way, I will be at your house this afternoon to help Aurora absorb the medicine."

Mr. Quinton and Aurora's father and daughter raised their eyebrows with joy when they saw Charlie Wade promised to eat at home.

Charlie Wade has never been a guest at their home, so the two of them are looking forward to it, and hope that they can get closer with Charlie Wade this time.

Especially Little Pepper Aurora, she has been obsessed with Charlie Wade for a day or two. She has always wanted to find a chance to develop with Charlie Wade. Today's opportunity is really good.

Chapter 1325

Seeing that Charlie Wade was going to be a guest at home at noon, Aurora happily went to the lounge to change clothes. Before leaving, she said to Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, wait for me, I have to take a shower, but don't worry, it will be soon."

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "Don't worry, you will be busy with you first."

Mr. Quinton on the side said: "Master Wade, it's quite messy here, or let's take a rest in the stroller, I'll let someone drive over in an RV today."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "Okay, then go to the car and wait."

Steven Quinton said in a hurry, "Master Wade, please!"

When Charlie Wade left the stadium with Mr. Quinton and Steven Quinton, Rodney Blanks, who had just been smashed with his right fist by Charlie Wade, came to an athletes' lounge with a black face.

At the entrance of this lounge, there is a Japanese flag with the words "Japanese player: Nanako Ito" written on it.

Blanks hesitated for a moment at the door, but still knocked on the door of the lounge.

Soon, the door was opened, and a young man spoke fluent Chinese, looked at him suspiciously, and asked, "Who are you?"

Blanks hurriedly smiled and said, "Hello, hello, I want to find Miss Ito Nanako, and her coach, Mr. Yamamoto Kazuki."

The young man turned his head and said to the middle-aged man and young girl in the lounge: "Mr. Yamamoto, Miss Ito, this gentleman is here to see you two."

Yamamoto Kazuki's eyebrows stood cold, and he asked, "Who are you? Do we know each other?"

Blanks smiled and said humbly: "Mr. Yamamoto, my next name is Rodney Blanks. In the Sanda competition ten years ago, I participated in the battle on behalf of China, but I was defeated by you at that time. Don't you remember?"

Yamamoto Kazuki said arrogantly: "I can't count the people who lost to me. How can I remember them all?"

Blanks nodded awkwardly, and said, "Well, Mr. Yamamoto, I have another identity. It is the coach of Chinese contestant Aurora for this competition. Oh no, the former coach, I have resigned now."

Yamamoto Kazuki frowned and said, "Aurora? Why haven't I heard of this player? In this competition, among the top five seeded players, there shouldn't be this one, right?"

Blanks nodded quickly: "No, she has not been selected as a seed player before, so you may not pay attention to her."

Yamamoto Kazuki asked coldly: "Then what do you mean by coming to me?"

Blanks hurriedly said: "I want to reveal a message to you. This Aurora has found a very sinister and venomous kid as a coach. If Ms. Ito Nanako will meet Aurora in the subsequent games, she must be careful of her coach!"

Yamamoto Kazuki disdainfully said: "I don't believe that this kind of person would be great. I am Yamamoto Kazuki, a national treasure-level fighter in Japan. The apprentice I taught is also a Japanese national treasure-level Sanda fighter. Nanako's strength, not to mention college students from all over the world, even if the current athletes from all over the world participate in the Olympic Games, Nanako has the strength to win the championship! I will not hide it from you. Nanako's participation in this competition is actually just training. The real goal is to participate in the next Olympic Games and win the gold medal!" Blanks nodded and complimented: "I know Mr. Yamamoto, your strength is extraordinary, and the personal disciples you trained yourself are naturally very powerful, but the young man I am talking about does have a few brushes. Look at my right hand! "

With that said, Blanks immediately handed over his right hand. Yamamoto Kazuki couldn't help looking at the wound on his right hand.

Chapter 1326

He asked, "Your injury is very new, and the blood hasn't scabbed yet. It should happen within half an hour?"

"Yes." Rodney Blanks said: "Look, the kid I was talking about just used his fist to abolish my right hand. You can't do this, Mr. Yamamoto, right?"

As soon as this word came out, Yamamoto Kazuki immediately became serious.

He is also a practitioner, but he knows that there are upper limits for human bodies and physical bodies, and this upper limit is very low. Human fists are composed of the four major elements of flesh, bones, muscles and skin. They are all flesh and blood. They can hit the opponent's abdomen, face and other soft parts, so that they are not injured. However, use the fist to hit the opponent's fist. , Then this is the standard head-on.

However, whose fist is so strong that it can smash someone else's fist with one punch?

Thinking of this, he hurriedly asked: "That young man smashed your fist like this, is he seriously injured?"

Rodney Blanks said angrily: "He has nothing! No injury! This is the strangest part. This guy's body seems to be very hard, like steel. I am worried that he has any inner family skills, in case it is passed on to Aurora. Ms. Nanako Ito, I am afraid it will be difficult to win this competition!"

Yamamoto Kazuki finally paid attention to this issue in his heart.

He nodded, and said gloomily, "Aurora, right? I've taken it down."

After all, he looked at Rodney Blanks and asked, "Why are you helping us?"

Rodney Blanks said hurriedly: "Mr. Yamamoto, let's tell you, that kid robbed me of my job and abolished my right hand. I hate him deeply in my heart! And he also said that he is confident enough to let Aurora win. The champion of this competition also said that Miss Nanako Ito is not Aurora's opponent at all. Therefore, I sincerely hope that Miss Nanako Ito can defeat this Aurora and don't let that guy succeed!"

Yamamoto Kazuki nodded and said, "Okay, I know, I will definitely pay attention to it. If you don't let the other party succeed, you can go back."

Rodney Blanks nodded and bowed and said, "Mr. Yamamoto, I will leave first."

At this moment, the girl in the room who put on a long-sleeved trousers and sportswear said in a very gentle voice: "Master, please give this gentleman a check for 100,000 Dollar, thank him for telling us so important. Intelligence information."

This girl is extremely beautiful, with a Japanese hairstyle with bangs.

If you only see her, you will only think that she is the most quiet, elegant, and most standard Japanese beauty, but she is absolutely unexpected. A master of Sanda fighting and karate. The young man who opened the door to Rodney Blanks immediately nodded respectfully and said: "Yes, Miss Ito!"

After speaking, he took out the checkbook from his pocket, wrote a check for 100,000 Dollar and handed it to Rodney Blanks.

"This is a little bit of our eldest lady, please accept it!"

Rodney Blanks came to look for Yamamoto Kazuki and Nanako Ito, just trying to create some trouble for Aurora and Charlie Wade, and try not to let her have a chance to win the championship. To put it bluntly, he just wanted to spoil the other side's good deeds, harm others, and disadvantage herself.

However, he didn't expect that Nanako Ito was so generous, and gave himself one hundred thousand Dollar in benefits!

This made him instantly flattered, accepting the check, bowing and thanking him again and again, and then left Nanako Ito's lounge with satisfaction...

Chapter 1327

After Rodney Blanks left, Nanako Ito walked up to Yamamoto Kazuki and asked, "Master, although Rodney Blanks's strength is far worse than you, it can be regarded as a middle-level player in the field of Sanda. He The young man I was talking about was able to hurt him to such a degree, and he didn't hurt him at all. It seems to be very powerful indeed!"

Yamamoto Kazuki asked curiously, "Nanako, how do you know that Rodney Blanks is good at strength?"

Nanako Ito smiled and said: "Master, I have watched all your game videos and studied each of your games in depth, so I have also seen the whole process of the game between you and this Rodney Blanks. His strength, It should be about 70% of yours."

"That's it!"

Yamamoto Kazuki sighed, and said with approval: "Nanako, this is why I accepted you as a direct disciple!"

"You are too easy to learn, and you worked too hard. Given your family background, you don't need to work so hard for a little ranking!"

"The strength of the Ito family is enough to make you the top rich second generation envied by countless people in Japan, but you can sink your heart and concentrate on studying martial arts. It's the only thing I have seen in my life!"

"I believe that in time, you will be able to surpass being a teacher and become a top master that Japan is proud of!"

Nanako Ito said with a humble expression: "Master, you have praised me. Nanako just wants to do her best to practice martial arts to the extreme, not to let you down, and the Ito family's high hopes for me!"

Yamamoto Kazuki nodded and said, "Don't forget, there are more than 100 million Japanese citizens behind you, and they are all eagerly expecting that you can win glory for the country!"

Having said that, Yamamoto Kazuki sighed and said with emotion: "I have long been optimistic that you can become the pride of all Japan, and I believe you can too!"

Nanako Ito nodded earnestly: "Master, rest assured, Nanako will go all out to be the pride of the people of the whole country!"

Yamamoto Kazuki hummed and said, "Next, I'm going to see that Aurora and her coach."

.....

At this time, Aurora had changed into her daily clothes and walked out of the gym with her training bag on her back.

And Charlie Wade was sitting in the spacious and luxurious RV of the Quinton family, tasting the Kung Fu tea that Steven Quinton had brewed for himself.

Mr. Quinton's luxury car is indeed extraordinary.

From the outside, it looked like an ordinary long-distance bus, and there was no clue to it.

But after I walked in, I realized that there was a whole different world inside.

Except for driving, the entire carriage has been completely remodeled. There are not only a spacious and luxurious living room, a luxurious and rich lounge and bar, but also two extremely comfortable bedrooms and a bathroom with shower.

According to Mr. Quinton, he bought this car specifically for his daughter's competition.

Aurora often travels to various parts of the country to participate in competitions, whether by car, train or plane, there will be a lot of stress after getting there.

Playing sports itself has very high demands on physical strength and physical condition, so he didn't want the schedule to affect his daughter's performance, so he bought this car to take her across the country.

In Mr. Quinton's words, riding in this car is comfortable, stable, and safer, just like a mobile home. Even if you ride in the car for more than ten or twenty hours, Aurora will not feel the slightest fatigue. Ensure that she always has an excellent competitive state.

Chapter 1328

Steven Quinton watched Charlie Wade drink up the tea, and hurriedly refilled him respectfully, and asked diligently: "Master Wade, don't know, are you satisfied with this tea?"

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled, and said, "Yes, Steven, you should have learned this posture specifically? I didn't expect that a person of your personality would be able to bear the temper to study tea ceremony."

The former Steven Quinton was a rich second generation who didn't understand.

Not only don't understand the shit, but also like to be arty, buy some shit stuff in the antique street all day long, and take it as a baby no matter what garbage.

Even when he came to Aurouss Hillll to participate in the auction, he slid and slapped Jack Yalaman against himself.

Unexpectedly, this kid hasn't seen him for a while, his personality has really changed a lot, and he has become more sensible.

Steven Quinton heard Charlie Wade praise himself, and hurriedly explained with a blushing face: "Master Wade, I used to be young and ignorant. I offended you. Please don't take it to your heart. My second uncle kept letting me be here. I honestly reflect on the family and let me learn the tea ceremony and cultivate my sentiment. Now I am not as impetuous as before..."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Yes, people, one is afraid of irritability and second is afraid of drifting. If you can calm down and reflect on yourself, it proves that it is not as hopeless as before."

Mr. Quinton smiled and said: "I told this kid a long time ago that if he doesn't change his character to me and twists it around, then his dad and I will lock him in Quinton's house for ten years. I won't let him out for eight years, so that he won't let him out to cause trouble for the Quinton family. Fortunately, this kid is still a little conscious and can know how to return when he gets lost."

While she was talking, Aurora ran and jumped into the car, saw her father and younger brother drinking tea with Master Wade, and said with a smile: "Master Wade, father, younger brother, you have been waiting for a long time, let's hurry up!"

Mr. Quinton pointed to Aurora and smiled and said to Charlie Wade: "Look, Master Wade, when you are in front of this little girl, even my own father has to go back."

Aurora said embarrassedly: "Oh, Dad, how can it be! People respect Master Wade, and Master Wade is our distinguished guest, I should first greet Master Wade!"

Mr. Quinton smiled and said, "Look at you, I just state it, and there is no other opinion. What are you nervous about."

Aurora muttered, "How can I be nervous! Dad, you will talk nonsense!"

Mr. Quinton smiled with satisfaction: "Oh, well, dad is talking nonsense, come, come, sit down next to Master Wade, let the driver drive, let's go home for dinner!"

Aurora hurriedly blushed, and sat down next to Charlie Wade.

At this time, the driver started the RV and drove slowly away from the stadium parking lot.

The Quinton's villa is not in the city center, but in the outskirts of Serenity Villa, next to the Aurouss Hilll Reservoir.

Arouss Hilll Reservoir is a large lake on the outskirts of Aurouss Hilll, and it is also the main source of water for the entire Aurouss Hilll.

Serenity Villa is built on the edge of Aurouss Hilll Reservoir. It can be said that Aurouss Hilll Reservoir is regarded as a super large artificial lake in its own community, so the environment is quite good, which is by no means comparable to the villa area in the city.

The Quinton family's villa here has been owned for many years, and Mr. Quinton had a vision at the beginning. When the city hadn't issued a document management to restrict the renovation and reconstruction of the villa area, he bought two villas directly, and then transferred the two villas and Merged them together.

Moreover, his two villas are close to the lake, and when you open the door every day, there are clear artificial reservoirs and the green environment of birds and flowers. It is really a great pleasure.

The courtyard of the Quinton's villa is huge, even this kind of RV can park seven or eight cars without any problems.

After the car stopped in the yard, Aurora hurriedly said to Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, I will take you to the small pier by the lake. I have a speedboat, just to take you for a ride in the lake!"

Chapter 1329

Charlie Wade didn't expect Aurora to have a speedboat here.

Seeing her eagerly, he smiled and said, "Okay, let's take a look with you, but how about your driving skills? You won't throw me into the lake, right?"

Aurora blushed and said shyly: "How come Master Wade, my technique is very stable, don't worry! Even if you really fall into the lake, I can save you."

Steven hurriedly said, "Sister, take me, I want to go..."

Steven is not Aurora's own brother, the two are just cousins of a grandmother, so Steven doesn't usually live in this villa, but occasionally comes as a guest.

So when he heard Aurora say that he was going to go on a boat ride, he couldn't help but feel a little itchy.

Aurora glared at him, and said, "Where are you going? Why are you everywhere?"

Steven curled his lips aggrievedly and wanted to say something. Mr. Quinton on the side said to him: "Steven, you come with me, I have something to tell you."

When Steven Quinton saw that his second uncle said this, he did not dare to say anything more, at least honestly nodded and said, "Good second uncle."

Here, Aurora took Charlie Wade's arm affectionately, and said: "Master Wade, let's go and play for a while, otherwise it's time to eat after a while."

Charlie Wade nodded and went to the lake with her.

At this time, Mr. Quinton whispered to Steven, "You kid, you've been honest during this period of time. Why don't you have any vision?"

Steven asked aggrieved: "Second Uncle, what happened to me? Am I not quite honest?"

Mr. Quinton whispered: "Are you stupid? Can't see that I am deliberately matching your sister and Master Wade? You are still rushing to make a third wheel. Isn't this a good thing for your sister?"

"I..." Steven Quinton hesitated for a moment, then whispered: "Second Uncle, Master Wade is married..."

Mr. Quinton snorted and asked, "If you get married, you can't divorce? Who made it? As long as Master Wade divorces and then marries your sister, isn't Master Wade the son-in-law of our Quinton family?"

Steven Quinton was dumbfounded, before nodding helplessly after a while: "Okay...Second Uncle, you are right..."

After speaking, he thought about it, and said with a wistful smile:

"Second Uncle, you said, if Master Wade becomes my future brother-in-law, then I will be awesome. Who else is there in Aurouss Hillll? Dare to mess with me?"

Mr. Quinton smiled faintly, and said, "Master Wade wants to be your brother-in-law, I think if you look at the whole country, no one would dare to provoke you!"

Steven Quinton was so excited, he clapped his hands and smiled: "Haha, that's great!"

At this time, Aurora brought Charlie Wade to a small dock by the lake. Here, there is a light steel structure small dock with an imported small speedboat parked inside.

This kind of speedboat has only 6 seats in total, which is not big, but the stern is equipped with 4 400-horsepower Yamaha marine engines.

Charlie Wade was almost confused, and blurted out: "A ship of this size is equipped with a 200-horsepower boat, and it runs very fast with engines. This boat is equipped with 4 400-horsepower engines. Is this going to fly?"

Aurora stuck out her tongue and said with a smile: "This reservoir is usually closed for management, and there are no other boats on it, so naturally it's fun to drive fast!"

Then, she jumped into the boat and said cheerfully: "When I was on vacation abroad, I found that people abroad like to play super-powered speedboats. Ferrari also produced a Riva-Ferrari speedboat, which I drove abroad. Once, it was quite exciting, but the power was still a little bit interesting, so I specially customized this speedboat, the power configuration is twice that of the Ferrari speedboat!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Hearing you say this, I am a little nervous."

Chapter 1330

Aurora smiled and said, "Master Wade, please trust my technology and skill!"

Charlie Wade nodded, stepped onto the speedboat and sat beside Aurora. At this time, Aurora pressed the start button, and the four side-by-side v8 marine engines rang out loudly. The low idling sound was much more powerful than the feeling of a supercar.

Aurora slowly drove the speedboat out of the dock, and then smiled mischievously at Charlie Wade, and said, "Master Wade, sit down!"

After that, I suddenly increased the accelerator to the end!

The entire speedboat quickly burst out with great power and rushed forward.

Although Charlie Wade had prepared, he was still shocked by the huge power of this speedboat.

The lake is very wide, so you don't have to pay attention to the road conditions like driving a speedboat on land.

On the surface of the lake, it was okay to close your eyes and open it.

The entire surface of the lake suddenly became Aurora's reckless venue.

Her character is a combination of rigidity and softness. The character of the little pepper is destined to prefer this kind of intense extreme sports.

But what Aurora didn't expect was that Charlie Wade had an extremely calm expression from start to finish, which made her feel a little disappointed.

The reason why she invited Charlie Wade to take the boat was to see Charlie Wade's nervousness. After all, everyone who had been on their own boat was not nervous and afraid.

She felt that even if Charlie Wade was not afraid, at least he would show tension on his face, so that he could have a little prank success mentality.

However, Charlie Wade really did not change at all.

Even if he had already exerted the power of this ship to its extreme, making this ship seem to be flying close to the surface of the water, Charlie Wade by his side still looked indifferent.

In fact, Charlie Wade felt a little nervous in his heart.

It's just that he felt that he definitely couldn't express this tension in front of Aurora, otherwise, wouldn't he be pinched by this little girl?

Aurora continued to accelerate, and finally accelerated to the point when she felt a little guilty in her own heart. She finally gave up trying and gradually slowed down the speed of the boat, stopping the boat in the middle of the lake, and said to Charlie Wade with her mouth pouting.

Master, don't you usually be nervous and afraid?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Sometimes I get nervous, but I never fear."

Aurora hurriedly asked: "Then Master Wade, under what circumstances are you nervous? Can you give me a few specific examples? Come on! I really want to know, what can I do? Master Wade, you are nervous..."

Charlie Wade thought for a while and smiled: "Miss Moore, she gave me a check for 100 million Dollar. Do you know this?"

"I know!" Aurora said with a smile, "Did it mean that Sister Jasmine honored you that check when you gave medicine to all of us at Don Albertt's Heaven Springs?"

Charlie Wade nodded.

Aurora hurriedly asked, "Master Wade, you shouldn't put a hundred million Dollar in your eyes. Why are you still nervous about this check?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "I put this one hundred million check into my pocket and treated it as any other one hundred million check and gave it to my mother-in-law."

Aurora asked incomprehensibly: "Then why are you nervous? Anyway, one hundred million is nothing to you."

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently, and said: "I don't feel sorry for losing that one hundred million check, but if it falls into the hands of my mother-in-law, I will feel distressed and unable to sleep for a month."

Chapter 1331

At this moment, Aurouss Hilll International Hotel.

After Nanako Ito left the gymnasium, she returned to the hotel room with her assistant and several servants who had been assigned to herself at home.

For her visit to Aurouss Hilll this time, Ito's family has contracted the only two presidential suites in Aurouss Hilll International Hotel a long time in advance.

Among them, Nanako Ito lives in a suite by herself, and her coach, assistants and subordinates live in another presidential suite.

And half a month ago, the Ito family sent someone to Aurouss Hilll to transform one of the bedrooms in the presidential suite where Nanako Ito lived, into her exclusive practice room.

It is said that the renovation alone cost millions. If the price of two presidential suites for the long-term contract is included, Nanako Ito will play in Aurouss Hilll this time. The money spent on housing alone will be at least three or four million.

The main reason for such a lot of trouble and extravagance is that the Ito family is too rich.

The Ito family is one of the top five big families in Japan. The industry covers almost all imaginable fields. Even the Yamaguchi Yakuza Group, a well-known underground organization in Japan, has shares in the Ito family.

In addition, although Nanako Ito is young and beautiful, and intellectual and quiet, but in her bones is a Japanese girl who is extremely obsessed with martial arts. She has extremely strict requirements for her training. She never interrupts her training regardless of cold or heat throughout the year.

She had just finished the game in the morning. After she returned to the hotel, she skipped lunch and immediately went into her practice room again.

Just as she was sweating like rain in the practice room, the phone suddenly vibrated.

The call was made by her assistant Hiroshi Tanaka.

She stopped practicing, connected to the phone, and asked, "Tanaka, what's the matter?"

The other party respectfully said: "Miss, the chairman of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall Co., Ltd., Mr. Jiro Kobayashi is here. He wants to see you. I wonder if you have time?"

"Jiro Kobayashi?" Nanako Ito said puzzledly: "I have never met him, nor any friendship, why did he come to see me?"

Hiroshi Tanaka hurriedly said: "Miss, you don't know that Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals sponsored the finals of this competition, and also won the title at a high price. This seems to be a bold attempt by their Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals to enter the Chinese market, so he himself also arrived in Aurouss Hilll, knowing that you live here, so he wants to come and see you."

Nanako Ito said: "Tell him if you can tell him that I'm training and I don't have time to see him. Please forgive me."

Nanako Ito has a relatively introverted personality, and she doesn't like to socialize with people usually. Coupled with the key to formally preparing for the semi-finals, she does not want to be distracted by a stranger.

Hiroshi Tanaka hurriedly said: "Miss, Mr. Kobayashi has just inherited Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall Co., Ltd. some time ago, and their flagship product, Kobayashi Niranex, is now actively expanding its sales worldwide..."

Nanako Ito, who has always been good-tempered, asked angrily at this time: "Tanaka, what are you going to say? I don't have any friendship with Jiro Kobayashi, and I don't care about Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's situation? These have nothing to do with me."

Hiroshi Tanaka said embarrassingly: "Miss, the president has been in close communication with Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals, because the president is very optimistic about the future of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals, so he is ready to communicate with Jiro Kobayashi about the investment and shareholding. Kobayashi also hopes to meet Ito very much. The family was able to invest in him, so he invested a lot of money to sponsor this competition, in fact, to show his favor to you and the Ito family!"

"Oh..." Nanako Ito knew that the president of Tanaka Hiroshi's mouth was her father, Yuhiko Ito, the current patriarch of the Ito family.

However, Nanako Ito is still a little cold and said: "I don't want to get involved too much in the matter of my father. If my father and this Jiro Kobayashi cooperate, then let them meet and talk."

Chapter 1332

Koichi Tanaka said embarrassedly: "Miss, the president still attaches great importance to this cooperation with Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall. Don't be so willful..."

Nanako Ito said lightly: "I'm sorry Tanaka, I want to continue training."

After that, she hung up the phone directly.

Nanako Ito, 22 years old this year, is a senior at the best Tokyo University in Japan. She is simple and simple, and her quiet temperament also brings a bit of inherent indifference.

She is the University of Tokyo's four-year-old school flower, and is also the best daughter-in-law candidate for the top big families in Japan, but she herself is just a simple, unworldly, and dedicated martial artist. Therefore, she doesn't understand the relationship between men and women, nor the world.

Neither Jiro Kobayashi nor Obayashi Taro has anything to do with her.

Even if it is his father's best friend and closest partner, as long as he has no blood relationship with him or his elder relatives, he will not buy it.

Her current life goal is very simple. First, she must win this year's World College Sanda Competition, and then successfully graduate from the University of Tokyo, and then start preparing for the next Olympic Games. At the last Olympics, she was too young and she was tight in school, so she was not able to participate, but the next Olympics has become the stage she desires most in her heart.

She is eager to win the Olympic champion, and she is eager to win more than one Olympic champion.

To get this Olympic champion, and then defend the next Olympic champion, this has become the biggest pursuit in her life.

Koichi Tanaka was holding the phone at this time, facing the expectant Jiro Kobayashi, unavoidably embarrassed.

Unexpectedly, my lady was so unkind, and she said it all for this reason, she still didn't want to see Jiro Kobayashi.

Koichi Tanaka could only lie to Jiro Kobayashi: "Mr. Kobayashi, please wait a moment, our lady is still training, and she should see you later!" Wearing a top-level suit and glasses, Jiro Kobayashi, the gentleman smiled incomparably, and said seriously: "It doesn't matter, if Miss Ito is busy, then please ask her to meet me first and then I will leave her alone. I can wait here."

Hiroshi Tanaka nodded and said, "Mr. Kobayashi, please sit down for a while, and I will pour a cup of tea for you."

After speaking, he went to the kitchen, took out his mobile phone and called the head of the Ito family, Takehiko Ito.

As soon as the phone was connected, Yuhiko Ito's low and majestic voice came: "Tanaka, what can I do if you call me?"

Hiroshi Tanaka said in a hurry: "Mr. Chairman, Mr. Jiro Kobayashi, Chairman of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd. is here. He wants to see Nanako."

Ito Yuhiko hummed, and said, "I know that Jiro Kobayashi has a great affection for Nanako. He came to beg me the other day and hoped that I would marry him to Nanako."

Hiroshi Tanaka asked: "So what do you mean, Lord Ito?"

Yuhiko Ito did not answer Koichi Tanaka's question, but said in a majestic tone: "Tanaka, you are my confidant, so I will tell you the following things, but you must remember that you must not disclose it to anyone. Otherwise, I will definitely send you to see Amaterasu!"

Chapter 1333

As soon as Tanaka heard this, he immediately blurted out: "Mr. Ito, please rest assured, Tanaka will never reveal your words!"

Yuhiko Ito said with satisfaction: "Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals now has a stomach powder with excellent efficacy and very good sales. It is actively expanding the global market. Modern people will encounter some stomach upsets. The market space is also very broad. Once this drug is launched globally, the annual profit can reach at least tens of billions of dollars."

Hiroshi Tanaka exclaimed: "It's just a stomach medicine, so there is such a large market space?"

Yuhiko Ito said: "This is just my preliminary estimate. I have asked the pharmaceutical laboratory of the University of Tokyo to analyze and compare the stomach powder of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals and the stomach medicines of several other companies on the market, and the conclusion is theirs is the best!"

"Therefore, it is only a matter of time for Kobayashi Niranex to stand on top of the world. If you want to catch this golden egg hen, you must get as soon as possible. The best way is to marry the Kobayashi family and invest in Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals."

"If Nanako and Jiro Kobayashi get married, then I will require at least 20%, or even 30% of the shares of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, which will bring our family billions of dollars in profits a year!"

Hiroshi Tanaka suddenly realized: "Mr. Ito, I understand your intentions!"

Ito Yuihiko gave a hum, and said, "So, if you are in China and by Nanako's side, you must find a way to persuade her more, and to be by her side, say more good things about Jiro Kobayashi. If she can agree, this summer After graduating from university, She immediately married Jiro Kobayashi, then even if you have done a great job, I will reward you with 5 million dollars at that time!"

Hiroshi Tanaka was overjoyed and said quickly: "Chairman, Tanaka will definitely go all out and will never disappoint your hopes of me!"

Ito said with satisfaction: "Very well, I will call Nanako first, so that she must meet Jiro Kobayashi today. After they meet, you must be in front of Nanako."

Hiroshi Tanaka said in a hurry: "Good chairman!"

At this time, Nanako had just put down her phone and resumed her rigorous training.

But the phone buzzed and vibrated again. She picked up the phone and found that it turned out to be the call from the father, so she hurriedly connected and said respectfully: "My father, I wonder if you are calling Nanako at this time. What's the order?"

In large Japanese families, the hierarchy is very strict. Children in ordinary families call their parents Odosan and Okasan, just like Chinese children call parents.

However, in Japan's large hierarchical families, all children must call their parents father and mother.

Moreover, you should not be too verbal in communicating with your parents on weekdays. You must always use honorific titles, especially for girls. One of the most important homework since childhood is to learn tedious aristocratic etiquette.

Although Nanako Ito grew up holding the golden key, she has been strictly following the various cumbersome rules of the big family from her birth to the present, and she dare not go beyond half a point.

On the other side of the phone, Yuhiko Ito asked her: "Nanako, I heard that you won the game today, congratulations."

Nanako Ito hurriedly said: "Father, today's game is only 16-in-8.

Nanako's goal is to win the championship! Please father, wait for Nanako to win the championship to give congratulations to Nanako!"

Chapter 1334

"Very good!" Ito Yuihiko said approvingly: "As expected to be the daughter of the Ito family, she is not arrogant or rash, and she still remembers her original intentions!"

Even though Nanako Ito was holding the phone, she subconsciously bowed slightly to the east, and said respectfully: "Thank you Father for your praise, Nanako will continue to work hard!"

Yuihiko Ito gave a hum, and then said, "By the way, Nanako, the chairman of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, did Jiro Kobayashi beseech you in the past?"

"Yes, father."

Ito Yuihiko said: "You, you are not too young anymore. Don't always keep away from the opposite sex. I have been in contact with this young man Jiro Kobayashi. He is only two years older than you, and he is young and promising. I might as well get in touch with him more."

Nanako Ito hurriedly said: "My father, I don't have any ideas about men's and women's affairs now, and I will not focus on this in the next few years. Then I will represent Japan in the next Olympic Games and the next. In the next Olympics, talking about love will only affect my training and competition, and I hope my father can understand."

Ito Takehiko said: "You are still too young. Many things are not the relationship between fish and bear's paw, but the relationship between fish and water. Love and marriage will not affect your future life plan."

Nanako Ito said seriously: "My father, Nanako cannot agree with what you said. Practicing martial arts is like sailing against the current. If you don't advance, you will retreat. If you want to become the world's top master, you must spend all the time you can spend on training. In terms of training, if I don't train hard at this time, but instead waste precious time on love and marriage, then I am afraid that I will not be able to become a martial arts master in my life."

Ito Yuihiko said with a bit of reprimand in his voice: "Martial Arts was originally meant to be a hobby for you to practice. I didn't want you to devote all your time and energy to it."

"Knowing that you are the eldest lady of the Ito family after all, the eldest lady must look like a eldest lady, and fight with others in the ring every day. What's the point?"

Nanako Ito firmly said: "My father, martial arts is the home of Nanako's lifelong pursuit! If necessary, Nanako is willing to give up love and marriage for martial arts!"

"No!"

Yuhiko Ito suddenly furious: "You are my Yuhiko Ito's daughter, with the blood of the Ito family flowing through him. How can you give up the inheritance of blood for the sake of the martial arts? Are you worthy of the ancestors of the Ito family?"

"I..." Nanako Ito was speechless.

When she heard her father's words, she did feel a little guilty in her heart, so she hurriedly said: "My father, Nanako knows that I was wrong. I am not really not thinking about marriage, but at this stage I don't want to think about it too early. Please my father have understanding!"

Ito Yuihiko said coldly: "I can't understand, it's impossible to understand, but I don't want to tell you more about life on the phone. When you come back from the game, we father and daughter can help our knees grow and talk."

"But now, Jiro Kobayashi has come to visit you. As the eldest lady of the Ito family, you represent the face and image of the Ito family. How can you avoid it? If it spreads out, outsiders will definitely say that the Ito family doesn't understand etiquette!"

When Nanako Ito heard this, she had no choice but to say, "It was Nanako's misconsideration, and I asked my father to forgive me. Nanako changed clothes and went to see Jiro Kobayashi..."

Chapter 1335

Seeing Nanako Ito's promise, Ito Takehiko's voice eased a little. He asked, "Nanako, have you had lunch?"

Nanako Ito replied truthfully: "Return to my father, I was training when I came back from the gym, and I haven't had lunch yet."

Ito Yuihiko hummed, and said, "It's so good. I think it's noon now. You simply invite Jiro Kobayashi to have lunch with you, which can be regarded as a way of hospitality for your father."

"invite him for lunch?"

Nanako Ito was somewhat reluctant.

She herself is a girl with a relatively cold personality, and when her family was teaching her feminine etiquette, she kept a sufficient distance from outside men. In addition, she had been obsessed with martial arts for many years, so she had nothing to do with men. contact. Except for her family, she grew up so old that she had never eaten privately with a young man. Even her assistant Koichi Tanaka never had a chance to eat with herself.

However, she could also hear the toughness of her father's tone, knowing that it might be useless to oppose her, so she said, "Good father, Nanako understands..."

Yuhiko Ito said with satisfaction: "Nanako, the family has a very important cooperation with Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall now in progress, so you must not neglect the other party, understand?"

Nanako Ito hurriedly said, "I see, my father."

After hanging up the phone, Nanako Ito sighed helplessly. She called Hiroshi Tanaka and said to him: "Tanaka, please help me entertain Mr. Kobayashi first. I was sweating during my practice and I need to take a shower. ."

Hiroshi Tanaka hurriedly agreed, then turned to Jiro Kobayashi and said, "Mr. Kobayashi, please wait a moment. Our eldest lady needs a shower. She will arrive later."

When Jiro Kobayashi heard that Nanako Ito would like to see him, he was deeply excited, but on the surface he said calmly, "Okay Mr. Tanaka, I am waiting for Miss Ito here."

Ten minutes later, Nanako Ito, who took the shower, changed into a simple and plain Japanese home clothes.

At this time, she can no longer see the traces of years of martial arts practice. She is completely a gentle traditional Japanese woman.

Tanaka took Jiro Kobayashi to Nanako Ito's presidential suite. When Jiro Kobayashi saw Nanako Ito, he was shocked!

He couldn't help but marvel in his heart, my God! Why is this woman so beautiful? So pure? !

Her eyes are clear and lustrous, like a work of art carefully carved from the sky, the face like a goose egg is white and flawless, the exquisite nose is like a treasure of the world, and the thin lips like cherry blossoms are delicate and fascinating. .

In the eyes of Jiro Kobayashi, she is like the crystal clear water of Tianchi on the top of a snow-capped mountain, dignified, quiet, gentle, and a little cold.

Only on this side, Jiro Kobayashi fell in love with this woman deeply, and secretly vowed in his heart: "I must marry her as my wife! Even if it is to let me join the Ito family, I will not hesitate. Because besides her, There is no such perfect woman in this world!"

Jiro Kobayashi desperately suppressed his deep desire for Nanako Ito, but Nanako Ito still found a touch of desire that could not be suppressed in his eyes.

This made her feel a little disgusted in her heart, feeling that Jiro Kobayashi's eyes were like a drop of meaty lard dripping into a cup of fine tea.

However, she was not good at expressing her disgust, so she could only say very politely: "Mr. Kobayashi, sorry, I just made you wait a long time."

Jiro Kobayashi hurriedly waved his hand and said, "No, no, no, Miss Ito don't need to be so polite. She took the liberty to come to the door. Actually she was abrupt in Shimo. Please don't mind Miss Ito.

Chapter 1336

As he said, Jiro Kobayashi sighed again with a deep annoyance, and said regretfully: "I just arrived in Aurouss Hilll this morning. After completing the immigration procedures, I came here directly. I didn't have time to go to the gym to watch Miss Ito's game today. I heard Miss Ito defeated her opponent in just one round today, and it's a shame that she couldn't see her below!"

Nanako Ito said, "Mr. Kobayashi is too kind."

"From now on, in every game of Miss Ito, I will definitely be there to cheer for Miss Ito!"

"Actually, the next Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall sponsored the finals of this competition. By then, I will personally present the trophy to the champion of the competition. I can't wait to wait. Looking forward to the day of the final, I will give the trophy to Miss Ito!"

Nanako Ito said humbly: "Mr. Kobayashi, before the game is over, no one knows who will win the championship. Although I have the confidence to win, I dare not say that I will win the championship."

Jiro Kobayashi quickly said, "I believe Miss Ito must be fine!"

Nanako Ito smiled, remembering his father's order, and said: "Mr. Kobayashi, it's noon now. Why don't you stay and have lunch together."

As soon as Jiro Kobayashi heard this, his whole heart was trembling with excitement, and he said excitedly: "It is a great honor to have lunch with Miss Ito!"

Nanako Ito said to Koichi Tanaka: "Tanaka, please follow us to the restaurant in this presidential suite, and serve lunch for me and Mr. Kobayashi by the way."

In fact, although Nanako Ito is the eldest lady of a top big family in Japan, she has always been independent, and rarely needs a lot of people to wait for her like other rich second generations.

Therefore, she would never allow Tanaka to serve by her side at ordinary times, but today she really does not want to be alone with Jiro Kobayashi, so she is prepared to keep Tanaka by her side, which is also a buffer.

When Hiroshi Tanaka heard the order from the eldest lady, he naturally nodded without hesitation. Jiro Kobayashi thought that Nanako Ito was used to being served during meals, so he didn't take it to heart. After all, even if he went out to eat in a restaurant, it was There are waiters around to serve.

When I came to the restaurant, Nanako Ito sat across from Jiro Kobayashi. Because of the large area of the presidential suite, the restaurant is also very spacious and luxurious. One of the rectangular western dining tables can accommodate at least 12 people for dining together.

So the two sat opposite at the western table, and the distance was guaranteed to a certain extent, which made Nanako Ito feel a little more at ease.

After sitting down, Jiro Kobayashi took the initiative to find a topic to chat with Nanako Ito, and said: "Miss Ito has been here for a long time, right?"

Nanako Ito nodded and said, "It's been twenty days since I came."

Jiro Kobayashi asked again: "Then I wonder if Miss Ito has had a good time in Aurouss Hilll? This city is still very beautiful."

Nanako Ito asked faintly, "Mr. Kobayashi has been to Aurouss Hilll before?"

"Oh, the first time." Jiro Kobayashi sighed and said, "Actually, Aurouss Hilll is sad to me. If it weren't for Miss Ito, you are here to participate in the competition. No matter how beautiful the city is, I will definitely don't want to come."

Nanako Ito asked in surprise, "Mr. Kobayashi, what do you say?"

Jiro Kobayashi pretended to be sad and said: "There is a big rebellious elder brother, who is so obsessed with his heart and poisoned our father with poison..."

"Our family issued a killing order in order to clear the door. My brother was killed by a bounty hunter in Aurouss Hilll some time ago. I don't even know where his body is buried now... "

Chapter 1337

Nanako Ito didn't expect that Jiro Kobayashi's elder brother died in Aurouss Hilll. She said with some embarrassment: "I'm sorry, Mr. Kobayashi, that i accidentally mentioned your sadness."

Jiro Kobayashi quickly waved his hand and said seriously: "It doesn't matter, although this matter is sad, but Ms. Ito is not an outsider after all, I can also relieve my sadness by listening to you..."

Thinking of his elder brother Ichiro Kobayashi, Jiro Kobayashi didn't feel sad at all. On the contrary, he was very happy.

The idea of Japanese eldest son inheriting family business is deeply ingrained.

Regardless of the big family, the eldest son will eventually inherit the family business. Even if the eldest son's ability is not as good as the second or other sons, he will still be the head of the family, and then let other capable younger brothers assist him.

Originally, after the death of his father, Jiro Kobayashi's fate was to assist his brother, Ichiro Kobayashi, to carry forward Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall and the Kobayashi family.

Even if his ability is stronger than his brother, even if his credit is greater than his brother, he must follow the Japanese rules of growing up.

If he dares to snatch the inheritance of the family from his elder brother, then it will become a rebellious existence in the eyes of the entire Japanese society.

Unexpectedly, one of his elder brother Ichiro Kobayashi's sorrow operations actually gave himself the position of heir to the family.

More perfect, the magical medicine he sent back killed the two common fathers. Not only did it directly solve the father of the two people at the time, but also caused him to bear the crime of father killing, and finally returned it. Gave himself a reason to kill him.

Speaking of it, this is simply a gift of thousands of miles, and it also gave the whole family to himself.

The cost of killing this big brother is too high.

The bastard surnamed Wade asked himself for 1 billion as soon as he spoke.

And these 1 billion are not Japanese Waden!

This money really hurt myself for a while.

But fortunately, I do have extraordinary abilities. Some time ago, I led the development of Kobayashi Niranax from ancient Chinese prescriptions, and now it has become the best stomach medicine in Japan.

The global marketing of this stomach medicine is just around the corner. At that time, let alone 1 billion, even 10 billion or 100 billion is nothing in my eyes.

Moreover, if he can marry Nanako Ito and become the son-in-law of the Ito family, then Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals will be able to get greater assistance and achieve faster development.

It won't take long for Kobayashi Pharmaceutical to surpass Johnson & Johnson in the United States and become the largest pharmaceutical group in the world!

On that day, he will be able to stand on top of the world.

Thinking of this, he looked at Nanako Ito eagerly, and asked with a smile: "Miss Ito will soon graduate this year, right?"

"Yes." Nanako Ito nodded and said, "Graduate in the summer."

Jiro Kobayashi smiled and said, "Oh, the senior year is really like a flower. Many girls choose to get married after graduating from college. I wonder if Miss Ito has any ideas in this regard?"

Nanako Ito shook her head: "My mind is on martial arts, and I haven't thought of falling in love in a short time."

Jiro Kobayashi was not discouraged, and asked, "Then what kind of men does Miss Ito like more?"

Nanako Ito said: "I haven't considered this issue because I haven't liked any man."

Chapter 1338

Jiro Kobayashi did not give up, and continued to ask: "Then think about it now, what kind of man can meet your criteria for mate selection?"

Nanako Ito thought about it, and then said: "First of all, he must be stronger than me!"

"Better than you? In what way? In career? In education? Or achievement?"

Nanako Ito said very seriously: "It is the strength of martial arts! I don't want to find a man who can't beat me in the future."

Jiro Kobayashi coughed awkwardly, and thought to himself: "This Nanako Ito she doesn't seem to be quiet, but I didn't expect to be so competitive in her bones."

She likes martial arts and pursues martial arts. Why do you want to find a man who is stronger than herself when you fall in love?

That is to say, a person who has no power to bind a chicken, doesn't it mean that he has already lost some opportunities when he comes up?

Thinking of this, Jiro Kobayashi said hurriedly: "Miss Ito, is your condition a bit harsh? There are so many good men in the world, but they may not all practice martial arts, and many martial arts masters are very old. Just like your coach Mr. Yamamoto Kazuki, Ms. Ito would not want to find such a boyfriend, right?"

Nanako Ito shook his head and said: "Of course not. The strength is stronger than me. It is only the first requirement. I also have the second requirement. He must conform to my aesthetics and values. In addition, his age must not be over three years older than me, and he must be upright and kind."

Jiro Kobayashi asked again: "What about the assets? What are the requirements?"

Nanako Ito said: "There are no requirements for assets."

Jiro Kobayashi felt a little depressed.

My biggest advantage is my assets. I am the chairman of a family business at a young age. This is rare in Japan. After all, the older generation of entrepreneurs who are normally as old as my father have not retired, and their children are also Haven't even begun to inherit the family business.

However, he did not expect that Nanako Ito would not care about the other party's assets at all.

Could it be that even a pauper, as long as she meets other conditions, she is willing to follow?

Depressed, Jiro Kobayashi couldn't help saying: "Miss Ito, Mr. Ito should have certain requirements for your future spouse selection? After all, you are the eldest lady of the Ito family. At this point, you should also consider Consider the opinion of Chairman Ito."

Nanako Ito shook his head: "Everything else can be considered father's opinion, but I will not consider the matter of choosing a spouse. This is not only about a person's freedom, but also about the happiness of a person's life. Don't point fingers."

Jiro Kobayashi frowned involuntarily. It seems that this super-rich second-generation beauty and super rich in front of her is very difficult to chew!

Just when Jiro Kobayashi didn't know how to cut in, how to pursue Nanako Ito, Charlie Wade had already galloped back and forth on the lake with Aurora.

Aurora had enough fun, and the chef of the Quinton family had prepared a sumptuous meal and banquet, so she drove the boat back to the dock.

Later, she returned to the villa with Charlie Wade, and Mr. Quinton warmly invited Charlie Wade to sit in the luxurious Chinese restaurant in her villa.

When Mr. Quinton arranged the seats, he specifically asked Aurora to sit next to Charlie Wade. At the same time, he opened a bottle of top-quality Moutai that had been kept for many years and handed it to Aurora. Don't let Master Wade's cup empty."

Aurora took the wine bottle and said softly: "You know Dad, don't worry."

Mr. Quinton smiled again and said, "By the way, Aurora, the first time Master Wade comes back to our house for dinner, you also accompany Master Wade for a drink."

Chapter 1339

Aurora smiled shyly, and said obediently: "I know Dad, then I will drink a little with Master Wade."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "Aurora, after eating, I will help you absorb the power of the magic drug, so you are not suitable for drinking. If you really want to drink with me, just wait for you to win the championship."

Aurora bit her lower lip lightly, and said unconfidently, "Master Wade, to be honest, if I were to fight Nanako Ito, I wouldn't even be 20% sure...This Nanako Ito really It's very powerful, there is no rival among people of the same age."

Charlie Wade smiled and asked, "Is Nanako really so amazing?"

Aurora said: "Nanako Ito started martial arts when she was 5 years old, and she has been learning from Japan's top masters. What's more, she practiced a variety of martial arts since childhood, including Sanda, fighting, karate, and even Jeet Kune. A talented player."

"And I only started practicing Sanda fighting when I was ten years old. I have five years less skill than Nanako Ito. The gap is too big. Even if your magical medicine can improve my physical function, I may not be able to beat her, because Sanda Fighting games are not only about physical strength, agility and speed, but also experience and tactics. Experience and tactics are accumulated over time and little by little. It is also the biggest gap between me and Nanako Ito."

Speaking of this, Aurora continued with a little sullenly: "It's like your men's favorite football, whether it is Messi or Ronaldo, what they are really good at is their skills and consciousness, and experience, not their bodies. How strong they are, or how strong their stamina is. Messi is so short and there are too many football players who are stronger than him, but there are basically no active football players with experience and skills comparable to him. This is the key point."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "You are right. Experience and tactics do require years of actual combat. However, don't worry too much about this. I will definitely help you analyze the strengths and weaknesses of your opponents carefully. Help you develop tactics."

Aurora nodded excitedly: "Great Master Wade! Then I will rely on you!"

After eating, Aurora took Charlie Wade to her special practice room. Aurora's exercise room is much larger than the living room of an average person's home. It has all kinds of training equipment and a standard arena.

Aurora invited Charlie Wade to do it in the rest area of the practice room, and then said to him shyly: "Master, you sit first, and I will change into training clothes."

Charlie Wade: "Okay."

Seeing Charlie Wade nodded, Aurora turned and went to the next room first.

A few minutes later, Aurora walked out wearing brave sportswear. Though it is sportswear, it is actually a sports underwear. Sports underwear can cover very little skin, nothing more than a key part.

So Aurora's pink neck, slender arms and long legs, and flat belly with v lines were all fully exposed to the air.

Unlike when he saw Aurora on the field today, Charlie Wade saw her now in a closed and private environment. In this environment, there was no other person besides the two of them, so this made him feel a little bit unnatural.

Aurora also kept answering in shame, always feeling that in private, she dressed like this for Charlie Wade to look at, feeling a little shy and unbearable in her heart.

However, she didn't panic at all, because she was very confident in her figure, and deep in her heart, I hope Charlie Wade can see more of her shining light.

Charlie Wade tried his best to look at Aurora's eyes without any impurities, and said seriously: "Aurora, where is the medicine I gave you before?"

Aurora immediately opened her palms and exposed a pill in a transparent plastic shell, and said, "Master Wade, the magic medicine is here..."

Chapter 1340

Charlie Wade nodded and said: "Okay, you take the medicine now, and I will guide you to absorb the medicine quickly."

This medicine itself is a good medicine for the treatment of physical injuries. Because of its aura, the effect of the medicine has been qualitatively sublimated.

Middle-aged and elderly people have many embarrassments in their bodies, and their organs and bodies also have a certain degree of regression. Therefore, when taking the medicine, the effect of the medicine will directly act on these patients for repair, and there is no need to guide them by themselves.

However, young people's bodies are strong, and their organs and bodies are generally at their peak. At this time, blindly taking medicines will cause powerful medicine effects and nowhere to absorb them.

If the human body is compared to a sponge, the body of the middle-aged and elderly people is a sponge that has lost a lot of water and is even about to dry up.

At this time, giving them enough water will quickly replenish the water they lost and regain their youthful state.

But if the young man's body is not injured, it is a sponge filled with water. In this case, if he is blindly hydrated, it is basically impossible for him to absorb it.

Even, maybe there is a strong but unabsorbable medicinal effect, which in turn damages the body.

When Charlie Wade gave Aurora a medicine, his intention was to leave her as an insurance, so that she could use this medicine to save her life when she was injured or seriously ill.

But now I want to use this medicine to help her improve, so I must help her guide the absorption of the medicine.

Aurora immediately took the medicine out of the box after hearing what he said, then looked at Charlie Wade, and asked with a cunning face, "Master Wade, can I just take the medicine?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "Sit down cross-legged, and then take the medicine directly."

Aurora obediently followed suit, sat cross-legged on the soft training mat, and then put the pill into her mouth.

The power of this medicine is very pure, so as soon as Aurora put it in her mouth, the pill immediately turned into a strong warm current and entered her internal organs.

Immediately afterwards, Aurora felt extremely hot all over her body, and every pore seemed to be sweating desperately.

The key is that this kind of sweating is completely different from what she usually does after exercising.

She felt her sweat, like being squeezed out of her body by a powerful force.

Moreover, the sweat that flows out is much denser than usual, and it feels sticky as if it was just soaked in a bucket full of glue.

Charlie Wade immediately used the Reiki in his body to help Aurora guide and absorb these medicinal powers.

The powerful medicinal power was melted into Aurora's body by Charlie Wade, causing her body to undergo earth-shaking changes.

Aurora felt a bit painful and unbearable at first, but in the later stage, she felt indescribable and comfortable all over her body, and she felt like she was completely reborn!

The most bizarre thing is that she can still feel an unprecedented sense of comfort, like being held tightly in her arms by Charlie Wade, warm and comfortable, and she can't help but ripples in her heart..

Chapter 1341

When Charlie Wade was guiding Aurora's medicinal power, he deliberately used some reiki to make these reiki quietly moisturize Aurora's whole body like a silent spring rain.

The effect of Reiki is more powerful than the medicines previously refined by herself. It can not only greatly improve Aurora's physical fitness, but also her muscles, tendons, bones, and internal organs. . Although Aurora has practiced martial arts for many years, she is still an ordinary person after all. For ordinary people, reiki is far more powerful than a panacea.

Aurora's physical strength is far from comparable.

When Charlie Wade said to Aurora that he was done, Aurora let out a long sigh, then hurriedly stood up and walked to the sandbag to make several sets of beating movements.

However, because she didn't know how much Charlie Wade had improved her physical fitness, she still used all her strength when hitting the sandbag.

However, after this punch went out, the sandbag banged and exploded directly!

What Aurora uses is a top-notch boxing sandbag. This kind of sandbag is made of whole buffalo leather. It is smooth and tough. It will not be deformed even if it is used for a long time, and it will not be damaged due to the strong hitting force.

However, Aurora at this time is no longer the same. Compared with ordinary people, her physical fitness has already made a qualitative leap. The strength of a punch is at least several times better than before!

Seeing that the sandbag was punched with a big hole by herself, and the fine sand inside spurted out and spilled all over the ground, Aurora was surprised and speechless!

After a while, she recovered, turned her head to look at Charlie Wade, and exclaimed: "Master Wade...I...how can I have so much power with this punch?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Of course it is because of taking the magic medicine. It can not only save the dead and heal the wound, but also strengthen the body and fundamentally increase the strength of your body."

Aurora said in surprise: "Gosh! I feel that this medicine is even more effective than my five years of hard training! This medicine is too amazing!"

Charlie Wade nodded: "Your physical strength now far exceeds that of your opponents at the same level, so I believe that in the next games, you will surely be able to win the championship all the way."

Aurora ran to Charlie Wade excitedly, holding his arm, and said with red eyes: "Master Wade, thank you so much... Aurora never expected to have such strength... .."

As she said, she suddenly raised her toes and kissed Charlie Wade's cheek.

With Charlie Wade's reaction speed, he could have easily avoided this kiss, but for some reason, his legs just seemed to be filled with lead, and he couldn't move at all.

Or maybe it's deep in my heart that I don't want to move at all. Aurora's face was blushing at this time. She did not dare to look at Charlie Wade, but said in a low voice, "Master Wade, don't get me wrong, I... I just want... Thank you....."

Aurora's voice became smaller and smaller, and it was already inaudible to the back.

Charlie Wade touched the spot where Aurora had kissed her face, and said: "If you continue to train hard, I think you might even play for the country or even win glory for the country in the next Olympics."

"Really?" Aurora was overjoyed and asked him, "Master Wade, do you think my strength is really possible to participate in the Olympics?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Your current physical fitness is already at the top of your peers. As long as your skills, awareness, and tactics can be improved, there is absolutely no problem in competing in the Olympics."

Aurora nodded and said earnestly: "If I can beat Nanako Ito this time, then I will be sure to hit the Olympics!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "I believe you can!"

Chapter 1342

Aurora hurriedly said, "Master Wade, you must come for my game the day after tomorrow!"

"Don't worry, I will be there!"

.....

Meanwhile...

The country's largest entertainment company, Maverick Entertainment Group.

Stefanie Sun, the top female artist under Natalia Tang, is in Natalia Tang Entertainment's studio, shooting a cover for a fashion magazine. This time, it was her fourth time to be on the cover of a fashion magazine. For her, it was already commonplace.

Stefanie Sun in the studio, wearing a black and white contrast dress tailored specifically for her by Chanel, looks a little lonely and arrogant in her glamour, and she looks like a strong woman who can be seen from afar but not playful.

After the photographer took a number of blockbusters, Stefanie Sun finally completed the task, and the assistant next to him immediately stepped forward and handed over a cup of warm water and a packet of Kobayashi's Niranax.

Stefanie Sun frowned slightly and seemed to be a little bit painful. After taking the stomach powder with warm water immediately, it relieved a little bit.

At this time, Maverick's boss Joss Hale came over with a smile on his face, and said in admiration: "Miss Sun, your look is really amazing today! It's really an alluring look! If this issue of the magazine goes on sale, it will definitely be snatched by fans again, and will even follow the previous issue, and the price will be more than ten times higher!"

Stefanie Sun said lightly: "Mr. Hale, don't let me be on the cover of a magazine in a short time. I don't like this feeling very much."

When Joss Hale heard this, he hurriedly said flatly: "Oh, my Miss Sun, the magazine has been eagerly inviting you to be the cover character. This is not my decision!"

Stefanie Sun said, "Can you decline it? Every time I get on the cover, you have to join the magazine publisher to increase the price of the magazine. A magazine for 20 Dollar will have to be fired up to 200 Dollar or more by you. For fans: A big injury, I don't want my fans to spend so much wronged money."

"What's this?" Joss Hale said with a smile, "Fans are willing to spend high prices because they like you. There was a period drama some time ago, and two male protagonists were on fire. Their magazine was sold for 20 Dollar each. For 300 Dollar, more than 300,000 copies have been sold across the country, and the company behind it has made tens of millions." Stefanie Sun said in a disgusting tone: "Mr. Hale, I just said that I don't want to hurt my fans so much. Therefore, after this time, I will not be on the cover of any magazines in the next year."

Joss Hale's expression was a little depressed, but he did not dare to say one more word.

Don't think he is the owner of Maverick Entertainment, but in front of Stefanie Sun, he can only nod and bow.

The total assets of Maverick Entertainment are only 20 billion Dollar. There are many shareholders behind this. Joss Hale owns only 30% of the shares.

However, Stefanie Sun's family is the Eastcliff Sun family, second only to the Banks Family and the Wade family.

With the strength of the Sun family, you can also buy Maverick Entertainment with leftovers.

Stefanie Sun's reason for entering the entertainment industry is not to make money, but entirely out of personal preference.

She likes filming and singing, and she is also Sun's eldest lady, so naturally she has the full support of her family.

However, since joining the entertainment circle, she must operate according to the mode of the entertainment circle. Stefanie Sun also needs an economic company to help her coordinate various tasks and various publicity.

Therefore, Stefanie Sun joined Natalia Tang's Maverick Entertainment.

As for why I chose to join Maverick Entertainment, it is actually because Natalia Tang was the classmate and attendant of Stefanie Sun's father when Stefanie Sun was studying overseas. Natalia can have today's achievements. The greatest noble person in life is Stefanie Sun's father. Therefore, Stefanie Sun has a transcendent position in Maverick Entertainment, and she is the only one among the countless artists of Maverick Entertainment who can make the boss Joss Hale bend his knees.

Chapter 1343

After finishing the filming work, Stefanie Sun said to Joss Hale: "Mr. Hale, I'll go back if I'm okay. I'm not feeling well today."

Joss Hale hurriedly asked with concern: "Miss Sun, haven't the stomach discomfort been corrected?"

Stefanie shook her head and said, "I was filming in the United States some time ago, and I was a bit uncomfortable with food and water and soil. In addition, I have been shooting for a long time, so I hurt my spleen and stomach. Don't arrange a job for me next month."

Joss Hale, how dare to disobey, and hurriedly said: "Miss Sun, don't worry, this month you will take a rest at home. I will definitely go to your house and apologize to your dad another day. During the time you go to the United States to film, I should give you two star chefs, take good care of your diet and daily life, it's all because of my inconsideration."

Stefanie waved her hand slightly: "This has nothing to do with you, and you don't have to take it too seriously, I will go back first."

Joss Hale asked earnestly: "Miss Sun, do you want me to send you a car?"

Stefanie Sun shook her head: "No, my assistant's car is downstairs in the company."

At this time, Stefanie Sun's agent, a beauty with a temperament similar to her age, stepped in. Seeing that Stefanie Sun was about to leave, she asked, "Stefanie, is the filming finished?"

Stefanie Sun nodded: "It's all over. I won't work in the next month. If I have a job, I will hang up for me first, and then I will talk about it when I recover."

As soon as the agent heard this, he immediately said: "That's OK, then I will put all the work on me in the next month."

As she said, she shook a document in her hand and said: "There is a company in the pharmaceutical industry in Aurouss Hilll. I want to ask you to endorse their stomach medicine. I wanted you to take a look at their information. If that's the case, wait a month before talking."

Stefanie gave a hum, and was about to go outside, and suddenly asked a little curiously: "You said you are endorsing stomach medicine?"

"Yes." The economic man said with a smile: "Their medicine is called Nova Dias. The name is mysterious. It doesn't feel very reliable. I just rejected it."

Stefanie nodded, but then subconsciously said, "By the way, let me see the information on their stomach medicine."

During this time, Stefanie herself has been suffering from stomach problems.

Her gastric disease is not actually a pathological lesion or injury, but a disorder of the spleen and stomach caused by long-term inadequacy of water and soil and poor diet.

She went to the hospital several times and took some western medicine, but basically it didn't work. The only effective one is Niranex. However, although Niranex is effective, it also has its embarrassment. That is, this medicine treats the symptoms but not the root cause.

When the stomach discomfort is strong, take a packet of Niranex, the stomach discomfort can be relieved immediately, but this link is time-effective.

When can it last for five or six hours, but in bad times it may only last for one or two hours.

Stefanie Sun has been taking Niranex for a whole week. She has been using more and more dosages for a week. However, once the effect of the medicine has passed, she still has a strong sense of discomfort. In other words, in essence, her The spleen and stomach disorders have not received any treatment.

Therefore, she is planning to find a top Chinese medicine doctor in Eastcliff to help her take a look. In the next month, she will take a few pieces of Chinese medicine home and treat it well.

But seeing such a coincidence, there is a pharmaceutical company that wants to endorse their stomach medicine, which makes her suddenly interested.

So she asked for the information of Nova Dias from her agent, and probably looked at the introduction about this Niranex.

According to the introduction, Nova Dias is an ancient prescription for nourishing the stomach extracted from the ancient Chinese medical classics, and then supplemented by modern pharmaceutical technology, the second development of innovative Chinese medicines, which can treat stomach discomfort and various stomach diseases. Disorders of the spleen and stomach have good relieving and healing effects.

Chapter 1344

This made Stefanie Sun very curious.

She knew that Niranax, which had good results, good sales, and good reputation, was actually developed based on ancient Chinese prescriptions. To put it bluntly, it was plagiarizing the medical results of Chinese ancestors.

However, she has to admit that Niranax is indeed much more effective than the same type of proprietary Chinese medicines produced by many domestic pharmaceutical companies.

Therefore, she also didn't know that this Oracle Nova Dias had the strength of Niranax.

However, she likes the name of Nova Dias very much.

The meaning of Nova Dias is nine heavens above. This is a term evolved from ancient myths and stories.

In ancient China, the number nine is the largest number, so it has the meaning of reaching its peak.

These nine days represent the highest existence.

So Stefanie asked her agent: "Did they give samples?"

"Yes." The agent hurriedly took out a small packet of Nova Dias from the envelope of a delivery document and handed it over.

Stefanie Sun was stunned, and blurted out: "What the hell? Just gave such a small bag?"

"Yes..." the agent said awkwardly: "There is also a small note in the envelope."

"What's in the note?"

The agent said: "It says on the note: Spleen and stomach discomfort, one pack is enough; good or bad, just try it..."

Stefanie Sun was dumbfounded at hearing, and blurted out: "This group of people...should just tell me, is one packet is enough, I don't believe it, this Niranax, I have eaten more than a dozen packets a day these days. Is this package all right?"

The agent said embarrassingly: "Who knows what they are doing, it might be a placebo..."

Stefanie said angrily: "I still don't believe in this evil, I have to try it, how amazing this medicine is!"

With that, she was about to tear open this little package.

"Don't Stefanie!" The agent hurriedly stopped her and said: "We don't know anything about this now. In case he is a product with no products, if you eat it, you will suffer some damage or heavy metal. What to do if you are poisoned by overdose?"

Stefanie Sun asked her: "Is there any approval for this medicine?"

"Let me take a look." The agent looked through the mailed information, nodded and said: "It says that there is an approval document, but the approval document is just coming down."

Stefanie said: "Don't care how long it has been in use. As long as there is an approval, it will definitely be a regular product. Even if it has no effect, it will definitely not be a poison. I will try it."

The agent said: "Don't try Stefanie. The Japanese Kobayashi Niranax can't regulate your spleen and stomach. The effects produced by a small pharmaceutical company in Aurouss Hillll will definitely be worse."

Stefanie said with a serious face: "A lot, I have to criticize you. How can you be so fond of foreigners? Why do you think that the domestic pharmaceutical companies produce Niranax than Japan's Kobayashi Niranax?" Her agent Cherie murmured: "I am not a fan of foreigners, I am afraid that something will come out of your stomach after eating."

Stefanie smiled and said, "Then I will try now. If there is any problem, you can call 120 for me."

Chapter 1345

Stefanie opened the package of Oracle Weaver San, which contained only 1.3 grams of powder. The moment the package was torn open, she smelled a very strong scent of medicine.

Although similar medicines such as Niranax also have a relatively strong medicinal fragrance, Stefanie felt that the other two flavors were far less pleasant than those of Nova Dias.

Cherie on the side also smelled the smell, and said nervously, "Stefanie, this medicine smells so good, won't you add any flavor?"

Stefanie gave her a white look: "Don't talk nonsense, this is obviously an authentic herbal scent, which proves that everyone's home is all the best medicinal materials."

With that, she raised her head and poured the powder in the bag into her mouth.

In an instant, a refreshing scent quickly dissipated in her mouth.

Stefanie hurriedly took a sip of warm water and took the powder into her abdomen.

In the next moment, she felt her stomach become warm, just as it was three or nine days in winter. After walking outside for a long time, she came home and soaked her cold feet in warm water. It felt very comfortable.

She couldn't help but exclaimed: "The effect of this medicine is amazing! My stomach feels a lot more comfortable!"

"Really?" Cherie asked in surprise, "Is it so magical? Which one is better than Niranax?"

Stefanie said decisively: "Of course it is! This one is much more comfortable than Kobayashi's stomach powder! God! The warm current in my stomach is still there, and it seems to be flowing in my stomach. This feels great... In the past month, my stomach has never been so relaxed! It's almost like returning to normal!"

"I have taken so many Niranax, every time I take it, it can only relieve the pain to a certain extent, but it has never been so complete. The effect of this medicine is really amazing!"

As Stefanie's agent, Cherie stays with her every day. Naturally, she knows that Stefanie Sun has suffered from spleen and stomach disorders in the coming month.

I also know how much Stefanie Sun has tried and worked hard to cure the stomach discomfort.

Unexpectedly, what really gave Stefanie a lot of relief was a new domestic drug that was unknown.

Stefanie couldn't help saying: "I have to observe carefully to see how long this medicine lasts!"

Cherie said: "Then what do you plan to do now? Go home or?"

"Go home." Stefanie said, "I have been taking pictures for several hours. I am really tired. I want to go home and rest first."

Cherie nodded, "That's all right, I will let the driver drive to the elevator right now!"

Stefanie asked her to pack her things. Go downstairs and take the car back to your villa.

Along the way, she had been worried that her stomach discomfort would reappear, but she did not expect that her stomach seemed to be back to normal, and she never repeated it.

I got home and rested for an afternoon. The disorder of the spleen and stomach has never made trouble for myself. This made Stefanie very happy, and the whole person was finally relieved. Until the night before going to bed, Stefanie's spleen and stomach irregularities did not recur.

Chapter 1346

During this period of time, she has been very painful every night, because at night, the feeling of stomach discomfort will come, more intense and more frequent.

So it's impossible to get a good night's sleep at night. Generally speaking, you will wake up with pain in one or two hours, and then take a pack of Niranax and then sleep. After sleeping for one or two hours, you will wake up again, and so on.

After such a night, it is almost no different from just after a battle, which consumes a lot of physical strength and energy.

However, this night, she finally realized the happiness of waking up naturally after sleeping!

From going to bed at 10 o'clock in the evening to 8:30 in the morning the next morning, Stefanie didn't feel any discomfort.

At half past eight, after she woke up, she got up from the bed, only then did she feel a little discomfort in her stomach again.

She couldn't help but marvel, but she didn't expect that a small packet of Nova Dias could have such a good effect. The effect lasted for almost twenty hours!

You know, the same small packet of Niranax can only last about two hours. Moreover, the two-hour medicinal effect of Wilsonlin's Niranax can only be relieved to a certain extent, not completely, but the 20-hour medicinal effect of Nova Dias is completely relieved!

In this comparison, Niranax is too far behind Oracle's "Nova Dias"! Stefanie was shocked, but also looking forward to it. She could seize the time to get a bit of Nova Dias, and take advantage of her stomach not feeling uncomfortable, so she rushed to take it first!

However, she only remembered at this time that Oracle Pharmaceutical only sent a packet of samples to Cherie!

Stefanie couldn't help but mutter to herself: "What kind of stingy company is this Oracle Pharmaceutical?"

"I wanted to find my own endorsement of their medicines, but only gave a small package of samples? Excessive!"

"Give me a box anyway!"

"It's really annoying!"

After speaking, she immediately took out her mobile phone and called Cherie: "Cherie, that Nova Dias, is it on the market now? Where can I buy it???"

Cherie said: "The information they gave me said that they have now obtained the approval to start mass production, but they did not go on sale immediately, saying that they will not promote the listing until the endorsement is finalized."

"Oh, it's so annoying!" Stefanie said: "You call them and say that I am willing to endorse this medicine, but the premise is that I must immediately find a way to send me some more!"

Cherie exclaimed: "Stefanie, are you really going to endorse this medicine? To be honest, this medicine does not fit your image positioning!"

Stefanie asked: "Why doesn't it meet? Can't I endorse stomach medicine?"

Cherie hurriedly said: "You can endorse, but not endorsement... Listen to the name, Oracle Nova Dias, it needs more glam, and it's like you, a big star who goes internationally. Being together, it's completely soiled and scum, it doesn't match your style!"

Stefanie said angrily: "Don't understand nonsense! This name is so good! Didn't I tell you? Nova Dias means nine days, do you know that it is written in the poem of a great man, but it can go to nine days? To capture the moon, you can go to the five oceans to catch turtles. The name Nova Dias can be said to have the essence of our Chinese culture!"

"Also! The effect of this medicine is so good. It is the best stomach medicine I have personally experienced. It is such a good thing. Of course, I am willing to endorse and recommend such good things to the people of the whole country and the world. Little contribution!"

Cherie said: "Okay, okay...I will contact this pharmaceutical company and ask them to prepare more samples, and then I will talk to them about the endorsement contract."

Chapter 1347

When Cherie called Liam, Liam was supervising the production of Oracle Weaver San at Oracle Pharmaceutical.

Now, the entire production experience of Oracle Pharmaceutical is concentrated on one medicine of Oracle: Nova Dias.

Because the efficacy of the drug is so good, Liam is convinced that after the drug is marketed, it will quickly spread all over the country, and even the world.

Therefore, in accordance with Charlie Wade's requirements, he started production at full capacity to prepare for the official listing.

After receiving Cherie's call, Liam smiled and asked, "Ms. Cherie, I don't know how Ms. Sun is thinking about endorsement?"

Cherie said: "That's the case, Mr. Weaver, Stefanie has never endorsed any medicine before. The reason why we agreed to endorse your stomach powder is really because she took this medicine personally. I feel that the effect of this medicine is very good. Okay, so, our Miss Sun decided to endorse your products. The call is to tell you the details of the specific cooperation."

Liam was overjoyed and hurriedly said, "Miss Cherie, please say."

Cherie said: "Ms. Sun's endorsement fee is 80 million Dollar, and the endorsement is valid for three years. During these three years, she can shoot two commercials for your company, a print commercial and one TV commercial every year, and at the same time, she can help The company attend an event."

Liam exclaimed, "80 million? Is this a bit too expensive..."

Cherie said: "Expensive? This price is already on the market last year. Some time ago, a Japanese automobile company gave Stefanie 130 million in endorsement fees, but she did not accept it."

Liam was secretly speechless, but he also knew that Stefanie Sun was an international star and had a great reputation. She was definitely a leader in China, so the price was more expensive and it should be normal. Although 80 million is a lot, it is really nothing to the current Oracle Pharmaceutical.

So he opened his mouth and said: "80 million is not a problem, but we hope that Miss Sun can come to Aurouss Hilll to sign a contract with us as soon as possible. In addition, our advertising shooting is best done in Aurouss Hilll."

"It's no problem." Cherie said, "But I have an unrelenting request. I wonder if I can trouble Mr. Weaver and send us the Nova Dias by the fastest express delivery?"

Liam hurriedly said: "I'm sorry Miss Cherie, our stomach powder has not been officially listed yet, so according to the regulations, we cannot leak the goods in advance. The small package that was mailed to you before is an exception."

Cherie said in dissatisfaction: "Mr. Weaver, everyone is going to cooperate in depth soon. Why are you still so rigid? Miss Sun was filming in the United States some time ago. There was a spleen and stomach disorder. Recently, there has been no improvement. After trying your medicine, it really changed a lot, so I entrusted me to negotiate with you some more medicines to help her recover as soon as possible..."

Liam said helplessly: "I'm so sorry, Miss Cherie, this matter was stipulated by our boss. At the beginning, we encountered Japanese pharmaceutical companies trying to snatch our prescriptions. So we were also very cautious about this, and I also It's impossible to disobey our boss, otherwise I would be fired as the general manager."

"Since Ms. Sun has promised to endorse Oracle, and she really needs this medicine, we can ask her to come to Aurouss Hilll as soon as possible, so that we can provide her with enough while we cooperate."

"By the way, please tell Miss Sun, our stomach powder is very effective. If Miss Sun only has an imbalance in the stomach, I believe it will be completely cured after three days of taking the medicine."

.....

When Liam sent the intention of cooperation to Stefanie Sun's agent, he didn't know the true details of Stefanie Sun.

Like all ordinary people on the market, he thought that Stefanie Sun was a popular star, but he didn't know that Stefanie Sun was from a famous family.

Chapter 1348

There is a very interesting phenomenon in the entertainment industry. The more the people with strong background, the more they like to pack themselves into a very ordinary grassroots background, and those with no background, on the contrary, like to pack themselves in various ways and render themselves as big players. He came from a family, as if it could make people look up high.

In fact, Stefanie Sun is the one with the strongest background in the entire domestic entertainment industry.

Therefore, Stefanie Sun is also very self-disciplined in the entertainment industry, never spreading any scandals, let alone doing anything that would damage her reputation.

Other celebrities usually take over jobs and endorsements everywhere, and no matter what they are asked to endorse, they can sign immediately as long as they give money.

However, Stefanie Sun is a stranger, she rarely accepts advertising endorsements.

The reason why she rarely picks up is that she is not short of money on the one hand, and on the other hand, because celebrity endorsement products often have rollover accidents, she is very cautious about this.

The products she endorsed are very few, and most of them are virtual products of large companies. For example, some time ago, she signed a spokesperson for TikTok and a promotion ambassador for WeChat. However, some companies that produce and sell physical products pay a lot of money. She is an endorsement, she generally will not accept it. The reason for not accepting it is because I don't want fans to blindly buy the products they endorse because they like themselves. Otherwise, if there is something wrong with the product, it is their own responsibility.

Once, a famous cross talk actor endorsed a weight-loss product, which was later defined as counterfeit;

There is also a famous martial arts actor who endorsed a shampoo for preventing hair loss. As a result, the media broke the news that this shampoo contains carcinogens.

Such things are emerging in the entertainment industry endlessly, so Stefanie Sun is also very cautious, and she does not lack money, so she is not very interested in endorsements.

But this time, Oracle's Nova Dias gave her a very different feeling. First of all, Nova Dias is really effective! The effect is much stronger than any stomach medicine I have ever taken. Compared with it, the online celebrity product Kobayashi Niranax is nothing short of it. The difference is more than 10 times.

Secondly, Oracle's Nova Dias is an ancient Chinese prescription excavated from China, which is very respected by Stefanie Sun.

In recent years, most people are deliberately discrediting Chinese medicine, and there are also many people who bluff and deceive under the banner of Chinese medicine, who are truly willing to respect Chinese medicine and promote Chinese medicine.

In addition, Stefanie Sun herself is also a very patriotic female star. She knows that many Japanese and Korean pharmaceutical companies are madly digging out ancient Chinese prescriptions. She is also quite indignant about this, and she has a hatred of domestic pharmaceutical companies. The feeling of steel.

But now, she appreciates Oracle Pharmaceutical, the parent company of Nova Dias, and even regards this company as a hope for the development of Chinese medicine.

For these reasons, she had the decision to endorse Nova Dias in her heart.

In addition, there is a very key reason, because she urgently needs more Nova Dias now.

In her eyes, the only medicine that can cure her spleen and stomach irregularities now is Nova Dias!

Therefore, after hearing Cherie's feedback, she immediately made a decision and went to Aurouss Hilll early tomorrow morning!

Chapter 1349

When Stefanie Sun set off to Aurouss Hilll, Charlie Wade happened to ride a battery car to the gym.

Today is Aurora's quarter-final battle.

She will face Brazil's Joanna, the third seed of this competition.

The two will determine a player who can stand up to the top 4 in today's game.

If Aurora is able to break through all the way, then after she wins today's game, she will have to play another 4-in-2.

If 4 wins and 2 wins, then you can go to the finals.

With full play, there are only three games left from the championship. Therefore, Charlie Wade decided not to miss Aurora's every game in the future, and must see her win the championship with his own eyes. On the way Charlie Wade took a taxi to the gymnasium, Liam called him and said, "Master Wade, I just received a call. The popular actress Stefanie Sun and her agent are ready to take off to Aurouss Hilll. It will land in Aurouss Hilll in an hour and 40 minutes. I have arranged a convoy to pick up the plane from the airport. First, I invite them to visit Oracle Pharmaceutical. Do you want to come together?"

Charlie Wade said: "I won't go there anymore. Now I'm going to watch Aurora's game. Entertain them yourself."

Liam asked again: "I plan to arrange for them to eat in Shangri-La at night, and then arrange them to stay in Shangri-La Hotel. Do you think there is a problem? If there is no problem, I will call Mr. Cameron."

Charlie Wade said: "I have no problem, let Cameron Isaac arrange this matter."

"Then Master Wade, are you coming back tonight?"

Charlie Wade suddenly thought of his wife Claire Wilson Wilson, so he said: "By the way, my wife is a big fan of Stefanie Sun, I will take her with her tonight, but you should not reveal my identity to this Stefanie Sun. I met at the dinner table. Just say that I am one of your medical consultants, so that my wife will not be suspicious."

"Okay Master Wade, I see!"

After Charlie Wade hung up the phone, he called his wife Claire Wilson Wilson again.

Claire Wilson Wilson was busy working in the company at this time. When he received a call from Charlie Wade, he smiled and asked, "Husband, what can I do if you call me during working hours?"

Charlie Wade rarely hears Claire Wilson Wilson calling her husband, but since the day they kissed the two, her relationship has indeed improved a lot, and she has become more intimate with herself. Therefore, Charlie Wade's mood is particularly special when she hears this husband.

Comfortable.

He smiled and said to Claire Wilson Wilson: "Wife, don't you have any plans tonight?"

"no, what happened?"

"Oh, it's nothing. A friend who runs a pharmaceutical factory just happened to treat me to dinner in the evening and said that I wanted to take you with me."

"A friend who runs a pharmaceutical factory? Why do you invite you to dinner?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Please ask me to be a consultant, you forgot, I can order Chinese medicine somehow, my dad has been injured before, and the head has blood stasis, I should be treated with medicine."

Claire Wilson Wilson remembered this, and said with a smile: "If you don't tell me, I'm really forgetting it. Is it appropriate for you two to eat together?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "It's appropriate, of course it's appropriate! I'll tell you that he has also invited other distinguished guests, and he can introduce you to you at that time."

Claire Wilson Wilson said: "Okay, I have nothing to do tonight anyway, I will let you arrange."

"Okay, I'll call you again that afternoon."

Claire Wilson Wilson said: "Okay, then I'll hang up first, there is still work to be done."

Charlie Wade hurriedly said: "Good wife, just kiss and hang up!"

"Don't..." Claire Wilson Wilson said embarrassedly: "You are becoming more and more adept now."

Charlie Wade smiled happily and said: "Hey, my wife, we both kissed each other. What are you afraid of when you kiss on the phone? Come on.

Husband first kiss you!"

Chapter 1350

As he said, a kissing sound came from his mouth.

Claire Wilson Wilson was ashamed and unbearable on the phone, and said in a shameful voice, "I really convinced you. You can be a hooligan on the phone!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "You are my wife, how can this be called a hooligan?"

As he said, he lied: "Good wife, just give it a kiss, okay? I beg you!"

In the upper-class society of Aurouss Hilll, almost everyone knows that Master Charlie Wade is a real dragon on earth. When ordinary people see him, they are all servile. How can they ever see him begging for others? That is, his wife Claire Wilson Wilson could make him beg for nothing. Although Claire Wilson Wilson was ashamed, he felt a little sweet in his heart, so he said softly: "Okay, I'm afraid of you, just a moment, don't get any more inches!"

"Okay, just kiss, and I will hang up."

Only then did Claire Wilson Wilson let out a kissing sound shyly.

With this kiss, Charlie Wade's bones were almost crisp.

So he said with a sullen face: "Good wife, the voice was too small just now, I didn't hear clearly, let's have another one!"

Claire Wilson Wilson said in a three-pointed angrily: "You bad guy, you know you are not good-natured, you are dead!"

After speaking, shyly hung up the phone.

Charlie Wade listened to the beep from the phone, he smiled, and then he put the phone in his pocket contentedly, and continued to ride his small e bike, driving towards the gymnasium.

In the gymnasium at this time, the previous eight arenas have become four.

The venue was suddenly empty, but a lot of auditoriums were added accordingly.

After all, we have reached the quarterfinals. As the game progresses, the players will become stronger and more enjoyable.

In this game, Charlie Wade is no longer a pure spectator, but Aurora's current coach.

So after he got to the gym, he went directly to the backstage player lounge.

At this time, Aurora had just changed into the competition uniform, and then in order to keep warm, another blanket was approved outside.

Seeing Charlie Wade's arrival, she was extremely happy, and asked him softly, "Master Wade, what tactical arrangements did you make for me today?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "There is no tactical arrangement today. Your physical fitness has improved so much now. I believe this game is more than enough for you. You can just go all out to play."

Aurora asked embarrassedly: "Master Wade, are you so confident in me? Are you afraid that I will lose this game?"

Charlie Wade said with a serious face: "I believe that the little pepper Aurora in everyone's eyes will never let me down."

Aurora's pretty face immediately blushed, and she replied with shame:

"Master Wade can rest assured, I will definitely go all out!"

Only one wall separated from her lounge is Nanako Ito's room.

At this time, Yamamoto Kazuki also said to her the same thing as Charlie Wade: "Nanako, in today's game, the opponent is far less powerful than you, so I won't make any tactical arrangements with you. I believe you can easily win."

Nanako Ito nodded and said seriously: "Master, rest assured, Nanako will win this victory!"

As he was talking, a knock on the door suddenly sounded.

Hiroshi Tanaka, who had been standing at the door hurriedly opened the door, and saw Jiro Kobayashi, dressed in a blue suit and a little handsome, standing at the door, holding a bouquet of roses in his hand. As soon as the door opened, he stepped in and said to Nanako Ito with a smile: "Miss Ito, come here specially, I wish you a victory!"

Chapter 1351

Seeing Jiro Kobayashi come in, Nanako Ito frowned slightly.

Since the last lunch with Jiro Kobayashi, Jiro Kobayashi has come to harass five times, and Nanako Ito is troubled.

In fact, when Nanako Ito ate dinner that day, she deliberately stated her view of choosing a spouse, saying that when she is the other half, the most important thing is to be stronger than herself, in order to let Jiro Kobayashi retreat.

However, Jiro Kobayashi seemed to filter out her words instinctively.

What's more, this guy returned the Shangri-La room, moved to the Aurouss Hill International Hotel, and simply lived opposite Nanako Ito, which made Nanako Ito very dissatisfied.

However, her father Ito Yuhiko kept asking her to make her more friendly to Jiro Kobayashi, which made Nanako Ito even more depressed.

I feel disgusted, but I can't get angry or drive away, just like a big fly buzzing around my ears, which is annoying.

Although Koichi Tanaka knew very well that his eldest lady hated this Jiro Kobayashi, but because the president had given orders, he reached out and took the flowers that Jiro Kobayashi had handed over, and said respectfully: "Mr. Kobayashi, you are interested. , I thank you for our eldest lady!"

Jiro Kobayashi nodded and walked to Nanako Ito. The gentleman smiled and said, "Miss Nanako, I will cheer for you in the audience later."

Nanako Ito said blankly: "Mr. Kobayashi, I prefer to be quiet before the game, so please go out first."

Jiro Kobayashi smiled and said, "I don't have to say anything, just watch Miss Nanako silently!"

Nanako Ito didn't expect Jiro Kobayashi to have such a thick face, so he said lightly: "Mr. Kobayashi, let me go, I will close my eyes and rest for a while."

Jiro Kobayashi nodded, and simply sat down diagonally across from Nanako Ito.

Seeing Nanako Ito whose beautiful eyes were slightly closed and her face full of calmness, he couldn't help but get up again.

Secretly: This woman is really quiet like a virgin, moving like a rabbit, so heroic on stage, but quiet, but soft as water, and her face is so beautiful and moving, she is simply a Japanese man Favorite Yamato Nadeshiko!

The so-called Yamato Nadeshiko is not a person's name, but a vocabulary unique to Japanese culture. It refers to those excellent women who have a quiet and reserved personality, gentle and considerate, mature and stable, and also possess noble virtues and excellent temperament.

It can be said that the Yamato Nadeshiko type woman, in Japan, is the goddess that all Japanese men dream of.

It is also usually regarded by Japanese men as the representatives of the most ideal women, and it is worth pursuing with all their energy.

Therefore, Jiro Kobayashi has also regarded Nanako Ito as his best life partner. In any case, he must go all out to pursue her!

A man who can get such a perfect woman is truly worthy of life!

.....

Ten minutes later, the staff of the competition organizing committee knocked on the door and said, "Ms. Nanako Ito, please prepare to enter the arena. Your competition venue is in the second ring."

Nanako Ito stood up, bowed slightly, and said, "Thank you!"

Yamamoto Kazuki on the side had a cold expression on his face, and asked, "Which ring is Chinese player Aurora?"

The staff member said: "Number four."

Chapter 1352

Yamamoto Kazuki said to Nanako Ito: "Nanako, I believe you will be able to directly ko opponent in the first round of this game, so I won't go to the scene to guide you in the game."

Nanako Ito asked curiously: "Master, are you going to watch that Aurora match?"

"Yes." Yamamoto Kazuki said: "I'm going to see how powerful her coach is, and he was able to destroy that Rodney Blanks in one blow. If he has real talent, it will definitely be a huge for us in the future. Threatening, besides, I also see if Aurora has made any progress under his guidance."

Jiro Kobayashi hurried over and said with a serious face: "Mr. Yamamoto, please go ahead, Ms. Nanako, I will accompany her throughout the game!"

Yamamoto Kazuki shook his head helplessly.

He was also a little disgusted with Jiro Kobayashi, thinking that such a man who had no power to bind a chicken was not worthy of his outstanding disciple, and buzzing like a fly here would only make people disgusting.

However, although he is considered a national treasure-level master in Japan, he must also give enough respect to the Ito family and Ito Yuhiko.

Therefore, it is not good to express his disgust and disdain to Jiro Kobayashi directly. Simply treat him as air and ignore it.

Jiro Kobayashi didn't expect Yamamoto Kazuki to ignore him, and was a little annoyed, but he knew that Yamamoto Kazuki was Nanako Ito's teacher and a person whom Nanako Ito very respected, so he could only suppress his irritation.

Not only did he choose to swallow his breath, he also took the opportunity to take pictures of Yamamoto's horses, and said with a smile:

"Mr. Yamamoto, you are a famous top Japanese master. You don't have to put a second-rate Chinese player's coach in your eyes, no matter if you are a coach, Still a contestant, certainly not as good as you and Miss Nanako! In my eyes, under your leadership, Nanako will surely be able to win two consecutive Olympic championships! At that time, both of you will become the world-famous light of Japan!"

As the saying goes, he wears thousands of things, and he doesn't wear flattery. Yamamoto Kazuki was very proud to hear this compliment. When he was young, his fortune was not good. Although Gui is the strongest in Japan, he has been held down by several senior Chinese players and has never won a world championship.

Later, when he got older and couldn't beat the Olympics, the Olympics became his great regret.

Now, his biggest goal is to bring out an apprentice who can win the Olympic champion. When his apprentice represents him on the Olympic champion podium, his lifelong regrets can be made up for.

Immediately, Nanako Ito and Kazuki Yamamoto left the lounge together, and Jiro Kobayashi and Koichi Tanaka followed them.

As soon as he left the house, Charlie Wade walked out side by side with Aurora in the next room.

When Aurora saw Kazuki Yamamoto and Nanako Ito, she exclaimed and said in a low voice: "Master Wade, that girl is Nanako Ito! Next to her is the Japanese national treasure master, Kazuki Yamamoto!"

Charlie Wade looked up, and was shocked by Nanako Ito's appearance.

He had seen many beautiful women, but it was the first time he saw a woman who could give people such a clear feeling.

Yamamoto Kazuki also recognized Aurora, and immediately focused his attention on Charlie Wade.

He thought to himself, could this young man be Aurora's new coach? It seems that there is nothing remarkable.

At this time, Jiro Kobayashi saw Charlie Wade as if he saw a ghost immediately!

He knew Charlie Wade!

Because Charlie Wade indirectly poisoned his father at the beginning, and was entrusted by him to kill his brother, and by the way, he blackmailed his family 11.1 billion Dollar!

At that time, he found someone to investigate Charlie Wade's information and got Charlie Wade's photo!

Unexpectedly, I would encounter this evil star here!

Chapter 1353

When Charlie Wade looked at Nanako Ito, he found a strange look behind her, looking at him.

He frowned subconsciously and looked at it, but he saw a wretched man who was somewhat familiar, looking at himself with horror.

Don't look at this kid who looks like five people and six people, but under Charlie Wade's golden eyes, you can tell at a glance that this kid is not a good bird, he must be the kind of scum with benevolence and morality and full of male thieves and women.

Charlie Wade glanced over, then watched Jiro Kobayashi shaking all over! He couldn't help but tremble, because this Charlie Wade really left him an extremely deep impression.

He has seen ruthless people. It is said that in Hong Kong a few years ago, a big brother kidnapped the son of the richest man, walked into the villa of the richest man with bombs all over his body, and then blackmailed one billion Hong Kong dollars.

He has also heard of a money-carrying robbery in Europe that shocked the world. The robbers robbed the money-carrying car of over 100 million euros.

But he has never heard of that bastard who poisoned others to death with poison and cheated the other party's family with 10 billion Dollar.

Charlie Wade is such an incredible and unheard animal. According to his investigation, Charlie Wade's methods are extremely harsh. At the beginning, his brother, Ichiro Kobayashi, brought several outstanding bodyguards from Aurouss Hilll. It is said that they were all chopped up by his men and fed to the dogs. When he thought of this, he was terrified. .

This time he came to Aurouss Hilll, he was also very afraid of meeting Charlie Wade, so he was very low-key. After arriving in Aurouss Hilll, he only stayed in the hotel and rarely went out.

But I didn't expect that I would actually see this evil star at the college Sanda competition!

Therefore, he was extremely nervous.

Charlie Wade also saw that he was nervous, and he couldn't help but feel a little curious. He hadn't seen this man before, and he should have never known him before. Then why did he look at him with such horrified eyes?

After a while, Charlie Wade suddenly wanted to understand why he looked a little familiar with this guy!

This guy's appearance was so similar to that of Ichiro Kobayashi who was feeding the dog at the Don Albertt Kennel Farm.

While Charlie Wade was looking at Jiro Kobayashi, Nanako Ito's coach Yamamoto Kazuki was also looking at him.

Also looking at Charlie Wade, and Nanako Ito beside Kazuki Yamamoto. Because I heard Rodney Blanks talk about Charlie Wade before, both of them tried to see Charlie Wade's approximate cultivation level through their eyes.

Charlie Wade looked at Jiro Kobayashi at this time, and smiled enthusiastically: "Oh! If I admit it, this is Mr. Jiro Kobayashi from the Kobayashi family, right?"

Jiro Kobayashi looked at Charlie Wade with a warm smile on his face and couldn't help fighting a cold war.

But he knew that he was on Charlie Wade's territory now, and he couldn't provoke or neglect what he said to such evil stars.

As a result, Jiro Kobayashi could only force a smile, and said tremblingly: "Ge...Your Excellency must be Wade...Mr. Charlie Wade Wade, right?"

When Charlie Wade heard Jiro Kobayashi say his name, he laughed and said, "Mr. Kobayashi is really smart. We two had never met before today, and you recognized me."

Jiro Kobayashi looked at Charlie Wade, his heart was bleeding, and at the same time he cursed in his heart: "You bastard, how can I not recognize you? You cheated our family with 11 billion Dollar and killed my father. The culprits of the two immediate family members of the Kobayashi family!"

"Although I hired you to kill my brother, he died in your hands."

Although Jiro Kobayashi was very angry, he didn't dare to be disobedient. He hurriedly said with a smile: "Mr. Wade, I didn't expect you to be so handsome, tall, and chic!"

Chapter 1354

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Mr. Kobayashi is not bad, you can see that what you have cleaned up is a spirited guy, but just a little bit shorter."

Jiro Kobayashi was depressed for a while.

He is less than 1.7 meters tall. Although he is a normal height among Asian men, he is still far from the standard of being rich and handsome. Jiro Kobayashi dreamed of growing to 1.8 meters, but after trying many ways, he still failed.

Therefore, the problem of height has always been a pain in his heart. Right now, in front of Nanako Ito, being teased by Charlie Wade, she is 1.5 meters tall, made his face somewhat uncontrollable.

Charlie Wade said at this time: "Hey, Mr. Kobayashi, I didn't expect your Mandarin to speak very standard, but it is much better than your brother!"

Jiro Kobayashi hurriedly said: "My brother was lazy during his lifetime, so he has not studied Chinese very seriously."

"Oh..." Charlie Wade nodded lightly and smiled: "I heard that Mr. Kobayashi's company sponsored this Sanda competition. Is this the reason you came to Aurouss Hill?"

"Yes, yes..." Jiro Kobayashi wiped the cold sweat from his forehead and said hurriedly: "We are the sponsor of this competition, and I will personally be presenting the champion of this competition after the finals."

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled, and said to Aurora next to him: "Aurora, have you seen this short one? Waiting for you to win the championship, he will give you the prize.

"Little...shorter?!"

Hearing this, Jiro Kobayashi felt very depressed!

He is not short in Japan, why does Charlie Wade call himself short? Moreover, he looked down upon himself too much when he spoke. At any rate, he was also a big living person of a meter and six meters standing here, and he even asked that Aurora, did he see himself as a little one? Is it that he is too short to make Aurora invisible?

Jiro Kobayashi was extremely depressed, but he knew that he was on someone else's territory, so he didn't dare to show his depression and anger.

At this time, Yamamoto Kazuki looked a little ugly.

He looked at Charlie Wade and said coldly: "This gentleman's tone is a bit too arrogant, right?"

Charlie Wade frowned, pointed to Jiro Kobayashi, and asked Yamamoto Kazuki: "Master, look for yourself, is it wrong that I said he is short?" Jiro Kobayashi suffered a crit once again, and almost a mouthful of blood stuck in his throat, almost about to vomit out.

Nanako Ito on the side suddenly chuckled.

She heard that Charlie Wade was deliberately taking the opportunity to ridicule Jiro Kobayashi, but she didn't expect this man to be so humorous.

At this time, Yamamoto Kazuki said with a black face: "I was talking arrogantly, not this short man, but what you just said to Aurora. The champion of this competition must be the Nanako Ito next to me. She is the youngest and most promising Sanda master in Japan! Among her peers, no one can match!"

Hearing this, Nanako Ito hurriedly lowered her head and said humbly:

"Master, you are serious. There is an old Chinese saying that there is a sky outside the sky and there are people outside the world. Nanako dare not pretend that no one can match..."

Yamamoto Kazuki said coldly: "Nanako! A warrior must have the faith and confidence to win at all times!"

Chapter 1355

Charlie Wade looked at Kazuki Yamamoto with interest at this time.

In fact, he himself didn't know much about the Sanda fight circle. If it weren't for Aurora to participate in this competition, he would not pay attention to the people in this circle at all.

Because in his opinion, even if the Sanda fight is practiced to the extreme, it is nothing more than a foreigner in traditional martial arts. Everyone knows that only practicing muscles and bones and fighting skills are the most basic external disciplines. Those who are good at using chi, are good at using internal energy, and use internal energy to drive the whole body are the real internal disciples.

However, there are countless people practicing martial arts all over the world. Even a three-year-old kid who is learning Taekwondo is a martial artist. But among so many people, there are really few hard-working people.

Yamamoto Kazuki is a master at a foreigner at first glance. Even though he is about the same age as his old father, his physical fitness is very strong, and his musculoskeletal and overall body explosive power are far above ordinary people.

But in front of the real master of the inner family, Yamamoto Kazuki was almost vulnerable.

The key reason why such foreign masters can win medals in international competitions is that domestic masters simply disdain to participate in such competitions.

If you compare this kind of competition to a talent show like a good voice, then the inner master is the world's top super-powered singer, just like the late tenor Pavarotti.

At the height of Pavarotti, let alone let him participate in the competition with a good voice, let him be a mentor with a good voice, it would insult his identity and status in the music industry.

It's a pity that many foreign masters don't understand this truth. They think that apart from participating in the competition, they are all top players from all over the world, but they don't know. The real masters disdain to participate in this kind of pediatric competition.

So let alone a top master like Charlie Wade.

Because of this, the master-like Yamamoto Kazuki in front of him looked like an ant in Charlie Wade's eyes.

Charlie Wade looked at him and asked with a smile: "This gentleman, why do you think so confidently that Nanako Ito is the champion?"

Yamamoto Kazuki said with a full face: "I have been in the Sanda fighting world for many years, and my experience in Sanda fighting far exceeds ordinary people. From my professional point of view, Nanako is a super genius who has been rare in decades. If someone has taught her, she will win the championship!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Mr. Yamamoto is a bit too confident. Why do you think you have a better experience of Sanshou fighting than ordinary people? And why do you feel that you have a little bit of ability to teach you everything? Can you create a world champion? If you have all the experience and skills, you can only be regarded as second-rate and third-rate on the way of martial arts, then how can Nanako learn from you, how can you win the world championship?"

Yamamoto Kazuki sternly said: "Boy, I know you have a bit of strength, but you are too defiant to speak like this!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Is it arrogant? I believe you will know it before long."

Chapter 1356

After he finished speaking, he looked at Nanako Ito, who was surprised, and said with a smile: "Miss Nanako, your roots and meridians are indeed very good. From the perspective of our traditional Chinese martial arts, your Ren Du two veins have been opened. Nearly half of the time, if the two channels of Ren and Du are fully opened, then you have the opportunity to become a disciple of the inner family."

"Ren Du Ermai?!" Nanako Ito asked in surprise: "Is this the Ren Du Ermai mentioned in Chinese martial arts novels? In addition, what is the inner disciple?!"

Charlie Wade said solemnly: "The martial arts novels are also based on traditional martial arts, just like the two lines of Ren Du mentioned in it. This concept was not proposed by the author of martial arts novels, but was an old Chinese medicine practitioner thousands of years ago. The ancestor proposed it."

"As for the inner disciple you asked, let me tell you this, you practice the way you are now, even if you practice for another forty to fifty years, when you are as old as this uncle Yamamoto, you still haven't really entered into martial arts. Only by opening up the two channels of Ren and Du, and assisting them with the teaching of internal strength techniques by masters of the internal family, can they become a disciple of the internal family."

Nanako Ito asked again: "Then...Is the inner disciple very strong?"

Yamamoto Kazuki sneered: "Nanako, don't listen to this kid talking about it. The so-called "internal family and external family" is just a method of deceiving people in ancient Chinese martial arts. Do you remember that I have shown you some of them who are called too high-handed? Old Chinese lady?"

Nanako Ito: "Remember..."

Yamamoto Kazuki sneered and said: "Some old ladies wore a white Tai Chi suit and could hit more than a dozen strong men with a single wave. What's even more outrageous was that they lined up a dozen or two dozen people in a row. An Lady slapped a hand in front of her, and she could knock the entire row of dozens of people down to the ground. It seemed so mysterious, but it was just a scene arranged by the extras!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "It is undeniable that there are indeed many people who bluff and deceive under the banner of the inner disciples, but this is just the personal behavior of some liars. You can't deny the existence of this thing just because someone relies on this deception."

"By the way, some time ago I met a few guys in Aurouss Hilll who are known as Japanese karate masters. They are the bodyguards of big men. They brag about themselves as if the world is invincible. But in the end, these people were all caught by my friends and fed to dogs, is it because these people are weak, I will deny you Japanese karate?"

Yamamoto Kazuki was speechless for a while, he didn't know whether the story Charlie Wade told was true.

The expression on the side of Jiro Kobayashi became very frightened. He knows what Charlie Wade said, who are those Japanese karate masters. His brother Ichiro Kobayashi has always had a team of bodyguards, all of whom are Japanese karate masters.

But their subsequent fate, I already knew.

Yamamoto Kazuki didn't know this. He sneered and said, "Boy, what do you call Tai Chi and internal strength, dare you compare it with my Japanese karate? Tell you, karate is the most powerful fighting technique in the world. One! It is a thousand miles stronger than your kind of Tai Chi magical skill that is performed by an actor!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Mr. Yamamoto, I'm not talented. I have learned a little bit of Tai Chi and internal strength. If you don't believe me, dare you stand here and stretch out your hands to take me with one palm?"

Yamamoto Kazuki said arrogantly: "Why don't I dare? But if I hold you in the palm, I want you to kneel and say that Chinese Kung Fu is all rubbish, and you are the sick man of East Asia!"

Chapter 1357

"Sick man of East Asia?"

Hearing these four words, Charlie Wade had a playful smile on his face. It seems that this Yamamoto Kazuki is really arrogant.

However, he seems to have some misunderstanding about his own strength. With his kind of rubbish outsider, even if he has practiced his flesh skills to the extreme, he cannot be his opponent.

Originally, it would be fine to despise the two, but I didn't expect this bastard to have no sportsmanship.

It would be a bit hateful to even move out the four words for the sick man of East Asia!

So Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said: "Since Mr. Yamamoto wants to play a little bit bigger, then we might as well put the bet even higher. Yamamoto Kazuki sneered and said, "No matter how much you play, I will stay with you to the end."

For Yamamoto Kazuki, no matter how strong Charlie Wade was, it was absolutely impossible to defeat himself with a single palm.

So I made this bet with him, no matter how I bet, I will win? So I don't care about increasing the bet.

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "In this way, I am the most fair and principled person in doing things. Since you mentioned the words sick man in East Asia, as a Chinese, I am the most disgusted with these four words. Then we might as well make a bet. Whoever loses the bet, whoever wins, use a knife to engrave these four characters on the forehead of the loser."

Yamamoto Kazuki laughed loudly after hearing this: "Boy, I didn't want to have fun like this, but I didn't expect you to find death by yourself.

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "It doesn't matter whether you can find someone to die or not. Everyone comes out and mixes. Since I dare to say it, I can naturally afford it. Just tell me, dare you dare to play!"

Yamamoto Kazuki didn't expect Charlie Wade to be so stubborn. He immediately sneered and said: "What can I not dare? So many people have witnessed that whoever is afraid is the real sick man of East Asia, come on!"

Nanako Ito hurriedly persuaded: "Second, a little thing, why bother so unpleasantly."

After speaking, she looked at Charlie Wade and said seriously: "This gentleman, my master has a bad temper. I apologize for him. He shouldn't mention those four words in front of you and hurt you. I hope you don't mind!"

Yamamoto Kazuki shouted sternly: "Nanako! Although you are the eldest lady of the Ito family, you do not need to intervene or allow you to intervene in the affairs of a teacher!"

Nanako Ito was so scolded by him, and immediately bowed apologetically and said, "Master, I'm sorry!"

Yamamoto Kazuki ignored her. Instead, he looked at Charlie Wade and said lightly: "Before we start, we have to make it clear how to win or lose."

Charlie Wade nodded: "It's very simple. I'll slap you. After that, as long as you can stand up, I lose."

Yamamoto Kazuki thought to himself: "There are too many loopholes to take advantage of here!"

"First of all, even if he hurts one leg with one palm, he can still stand on the other leg."

"Secondly, even if he hurt his two legs with one palm, he can stand up with his hands and climb other things."

"So, no matter how you play, you are a winner!"

So he said arrogantly: "If that's the case, then do what you said, let's do it!"

The corners of Charlie Wade's mouth rose slightly.

He didn't even need to make any preparations, he just slapped a soft palm at Kazuki Yamamoto.

If you just look at the strength of his palm, people who don't know think he is going to give a friendly high-five with Yamamoto Kazuki.

Chapter 1358

However, no one knew that Charlie Wade's palm contained powerful inner strength and reiki.

Yamamoto Kazuki laughed almost immediately when he looked at Charlie Wade's useless palm.

He said with disdain: "Just a palm like you is not as good as a three-year-old child. The old man can take it with just one hand..."

Yamamoto Kazuki wanted to say that it can be resolved with just one hand, but the word "resolve" has not been said yet. Charlie Wade's palm just touched his skin, and he was like being hit head-on by a high-speed train. On, followed by a sharp pain.

Yamamoto Kazuki made a sound, and the whole person flew out at high speed.

This flight threw him more than 20 meters long in the air!

Before he landed, his nerves were already in the air by Charlie Wade's reiki, and they were all broken!

In other words, during the time he was flying in the air, he had gone from a martial arts master recognized all over Japan to a useless man without the power of a chicken.

Immediately after Yamamoto Kazuki banged, he hit the ground heavily!

At the moment when Yamamoto Kazuki fell to the ground, a stream of atomized blood spouted from his mouth!

I saw a cloud of blood rising into the air. Yamamoto Kazuki tried to stand up with pain and horror on his face, but he found that his hands and feet couldn't exert any strength at all.

He does not understand traditional Chinese martial arts.

Otherwise, he must be able to judge his current state immediately.

If you use four words to describe it, it means that the meridians are all broken.

In traditional Chinese martial arts, once a person's meridians are cut, it is no longer possible to get rid of the word waste.

The difference from high paraplegia is that if you compare a person's nerves to an intricate road network, then the main road from the brain to the entire body is now a person's cervical spine.

High paraplegia is equivalent to completely destroying the main road at the cervical spine, so that the brain and the body cannot communicate effectively.

And if the meridians are completely broken, it is equivalent to destroying all the nerves and the road network, whether it is the main line or the branch line!

At this time, Yamamoto Kazuki was the latter!

Seeing his master, Nanako Ito was lying on the ground unable to move, her face full of extreme pain, hurriedly ran to him, and asked nervously:

"Master, how are you? Are you okay? "

Yamamoto Kazuki's lips trembled slightly, and his eyes were full of horror: "I...I...I can't feel my limbs, my torso, and everything about me... .. I... I'm scrapped..."

After saying this, Yamamoto Kazuki's eyes flowed out two lines of muddy old tears.

He really did not expect that he had been in the martial arts world for many years, and in the end, he would end up so tragically!

When Nanako Ito heard this, she was frightened for a while, then hurriedly looked at Charlie Wade, blurted out and pleaded: "Mr. Wade, please save my master! I'm kneeling for you!"

Charlie Wade said blankly: "His whole body meridians have been completely broken, and he can only ask for more blessings for the rest of his life!"

After finishing speaking, he stepped up to Yamamoto Kazuki, lowered his head, looked down at him, and said lightly: "Yamamoto Kazuki, there is a buzzword on the Chinese Internet, "I don't want to waste you, but you If you want to send it to the door and beg me to abolish you, then I can't help it."

"In addition, don't think that this is over. Our bet has just begun. I will give you one minute to stand up. If you can't stand up, then I won our bet."

"Since I have won, then I will engrave the words Sick Man of East Asia on your forehead!"

Chapter 1359

At this moment, Yamamoto Kazuki trembled with fright.

This was the first time in his life that he felt terrified from the depths of his soul.

He has never seen such a master, and even this has far exceeded his knowledge of masters.

What kind of master would have such terrifying strength, a soft palm turned himself into a completely useless person.

The key is that even if he completely beats himself into a waste with one palm, he is still not satisfied, and he has to engrave the extremely humiliating four words on his forehead.

Thinking of this, he begged in a panic: "Sir, you are not as good as a human being in playing skills, and it is your own responsibility to be abolished by you, but please leave the last face for you, don't engrave those four words on the forehead of the bottom, please Up!"

Nanako Ito also bowed to Charlie Wade in tears, and said in an urgent and pleading voice: "Sir, please see my master's seniority, give him a chance!"

Charlie Wade looked at Nanako Ito and asked, "If it is me who loses, based on your understanding of him, do you think he will give me a chance?"

Nanako Ito was speechless.

She knows what kind of person her master is.

It can't be said to be a heinous bad guy, but he is definitely a ruthless person who says nothing.

With the character of the master, if he had won Charlie Wade, then he would definitely not give Charlie Wade any chance to beg for mercy.

Thinking of this, Nanako Ito didn't know what to do.

She wanted to continue to intercede, but she felt that the intercourse would not have any real meaning.

Although I don't know the Chinese man in front of me, I know the history of China and Japan.

Therefore, I also understand that the words sick man in East Asia are the existence that every Chinese and every Chinese child hates.

Over the years, the Chinese have been constantly striving for self-improvement. From the feudal society where others were bullied, they have become the world's second largest and powerful country with more than one billion Chinese people. The efforts of several dozens of hundreds of years are to get rid of the four sick men of East Asia. A word, and let the Chinese nation rise again on top of the world.

Under such circumstances, the master even had to make a bet with him with the words "Sick Man of East Asia". Doesn't this mean that he has touched his negative scale?

Thinking of this, Nanako Ito cried and said, "Sir, my master is old and he should have enjoyed his old age. It was for me to come out again. He has lost his ability to move. The next half of his life is bound to be very hard. He has been severely punished, so please raise your hands high and don't humiliate him anymore."

Charlie Wade glared at Nanako Ito, and then asked, "When he mentioned the sick man of East Asia to me, why didn't you think about it. He insulted not only me, but the entire Chinese nation? He thought I was a Chinese son and daughter. Is it still bullying like that a hundred years ago?"

Nanako Ito shook her heart.

It seems that the master really offended this young Chinese to the extreme this time.

The other party will definitely not give up.

At this time, Yamamoto Kazuki was also very worried.

If he was allowed to lie on the bed for the rest of his life, he could barely accept it, but if he had a sick East Asian man with a knife on his forehead, it would really be better to die!

Chapter 1360

So he cried bitterly: "Sir, I am willing to give you money! A lot of money! You give you all my life savings, just beg you to let me go this time!"

Charlie Wade smiled: "No matter how much money you have, how much money can I have?"

Yamamoto Kazuki said hurriedly: "There are nearly 100 million U.S. dollars in savings. If you are willing to let me go, sir, I can give you all the money, which is equivalent to at least five or six billion Dollar!"

Nanako Ito also said hurriedly: "Sir, if it's about money, then I can give you a relatively generous figure. Why don't I give you 100 million dollars as well, what do you think..."

Charlie Wade looked at Kazuki Yamamoto, then at Nanako Ito, and then pointed to the frightened Jiro Kobayashi on the side, and said, "You two ask this little man, how much money do I have."

Jiro Kobayashi's legs kept trembling, and he stammered: "Wade...Mr. Wade, I really don't know how much money you have..."

"I don't know?" Charlie Wade said with a smile: "Then you can tell them directly, just your Kobayashi family, how much do you honor me?"

Jiro Kobayashi hurriedly said: "Um...Mr. Yamamoto, Miss Ito, honored our Kobayashi family to Mr. Wade by 10 billion..."

"How much?" Charlie Wade frowned: "How come it has become 10 billion?"

Jiro Kobayashi was terrified.

In fact, the entire Wilson family honored Charlie Wade with 11 billion Dollar, of which 10 billion was given to him by his father Masao Kobayashi when he was alive and used to purchase drug patents.

The remaining 1 billion was given to him in private to murder his own brother.

Therefore, he dared not collect the 1 billion, so he said a 10 billion.

Seeing that Charlie Wade was very dissatisfied, he could only bite the bullet and said: "I'm sorry, sorry...I was a little nervous for a while, and my mind was a little confused. In fact, our Kobayashi family honored Master Wade with a total of 11 billion Dollar... .. Nearly 2 billion U.S. dollars..."

Yamamoto Kazuki was stunned by the number.

The Kobayashi family alone contributed 11 billion to this young man?

What is this because of? Isn't he just a coach? There are more than 10 billion Dollar, why do you want to coach Aurora? !

Nanako Ito was also shocked.

Although the Ito family is very rich, Nanako Ito is still studying after all. The money she has saved through various channels since she was a child is only 50 million US dollars. She promised to give Charlie Wade 100 million, and the rest 50 million, you have to find a way to ask the family for it.

But she didn't expect Charlie Wade to be so rich!

In this way, spending money will not make him hold his hands high...

At this time, Yamamoto Kazuki was desperate.

He looked at Charlie Wade, his eyes were red and swollen, and he choked up: "Mr. Wade, I really know what I was wrong. I just ask you to raise your hand, don't take away the last bit of dignity as a warrior... you and me As a warrior, I believe you will be able to empathize with me..."

Charlie Wade laughed and said, "Don't be arrogant and cry for mercy when you can't hold it. It's useless. I hate others for insulting our country and nation. It's your ancestor who has accumulated virtue, otherwise, I can send you to see Amaterasu with that palm."

After all, Charlie Wade took out his mobile phone, called Don Albertt, and ordered: "Don Albertt, come to Aurouss Hilll Stadium, it's time to show off your human calligraphy!"

Chapter 1361

When Yamamoto Kazuki heard the content of Charlie Wade's call, he asked nervously: "Could it be...isn't it that you are here to engrave?!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "What do you want? Let me engrave you? You deserve it too?"

After speaking, Charlie Wade laughed playfully and continued: "I am looking for a friend of mine this time. Although he has not gone to much school and has no elementary school education level, he can still write the words sick man in East Asia. At that time, I will let him try to engrave on your forehead as big as possible, so that you are satisfied!" Yamamoto Kazuki was in a panic, what else he wanted to say. At this time, the staff of the organizing committee ran over and said to Nanako Ito and Aurora: "Two contestants, the competition has already started, and your two opponents are already there. Waiting on the ring, please hurry up and go to the ring to participate in the competition. If you don't arrive at the match within 10 minutes, we will consider it as an automatic abstention."

Aurora recovered from the shock, looked at Charlie Wade, and asked him, "Master Wade, do I go by myself, or are you with me?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "I came here today to watch your game. Of course I will go with you."

Aurora looked at Kazuki Yamamoto lying on the ground, and asked him in a low voice, "Master Wade, what should I do about the things here?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Don't worry about him, let him lie down here, forgive him for not being able to escape from my palm."

After speaking, Charlie Wade stretched out his hand and patted Aurora's back gently, and exhorted: "You must play well in the game later, don't let me down."

Aurora hurriedly nodded: "Teacher Wade, don't worry, I will definitely work hard!"

Charlie Wade was not there either, Yamamoto Kazuki lying on the ground, and the crying red-eyed Nanako Ito beside him, turned around and walked out of the rest area with Aurora to the competition arena.

Nanako Ito was guarding Kazuki Yamamoto at this time, and asked with concern: "Master. I will contact an ambulance to take you to the hospital now!"

Yamamoto Kazuki waved his hand hurriedly: "The game is about to start, you hurry up to participate in the game, don't worry about me, don't delay your game because of me."

Jiro Kobayashi hurriedly said: "Yes, Nanako-san, if you don't go to the competition, you may be considered abstaining. In that case, you will lose the chance to win the championship."

Nanako Ito said eagerly: "But I can't leave the master here alone, he can't move all over now!"

Yamamoto Kazuki blurted out: "Nanako, don't worry about me, this game is very important to you, you must win the championship!"

"But what do you do, Master..."

Just when Nanako Ito didn't know what to do, Jiro Kobayashi hurriedly said: "Miss Nanako, you go to the game tonight. Mr. Yamamoto will leave it to me. I will take him to the hospital to make sure he accepts the best treatment!"

Nanako Ito asked imploringly: "Mr. Kobayashi, can you please take the master back to Japan now! Don't let the master be engraved on the forehead by Mr. Wade just now!"

"What?!" When he heard this, Jiro Kobayashi turned pale with fright:

"Miss Nanako, do you want me to sneak Mr. Yamamoto back to Japan?"

"Yes!" Nanako Ito gritted her teeth and said, "In any case, I can't let Master suffer such insults. Even if it is a name that cannot be defeated on the back, I can't let them write on Master's forehead!"

After speaking, she looked at Jiro Kobayashi and asked earnestly: "Mr. Kobayashi, please!"

When Yamamoto Kazuki heard this, he immediately had a strong impulse in his heart!

Taking advantage of Charlie Wade's absence, run quickly to avoid being humiliated!

Even if I will never come to Aurouss Hilll again, not come to China, or be a man in Japan, it is much better than returning to Japan with the words sick man of East Asia engraved on his forehead for the rest of my life!

Chapter 1362

Thinking of this, he immediately looked at Jiro Kobayashi with eyes full of expectation and pleading, and said: "Mr. Kobayashi... this time I ask you to help the old man..."

Jiro Kobayashi looked very embarrassed.

If Nanako is asking herself to do other things, she will certainly go all out to win her favor with her.

However, she even let herself secretly send Yamamoto Kazuki back to Japan from under Charlie Wade's nose!

This... isn't this killing your own!

They don't know how terrifying Charlie Wade is, or how cruel Charlie Wade's style is, but they know it clearly!

Back then, his eldest brother fell into Charlie Wade's hands in Aurouss Hilll!

At that time, the private jet of the Kobayashi family was at Aurouss Hilll Airport. As long as the older brother got on the plane, he could escape Aurouss Hilll and return to Tokyo.

But the result?

The plane did return to Tokyo, but his elder brother never returned.

Not only that, the Kobayashi family also lost nearly 2 billion US dollars on Charlie Wade.

The Kobayashi family has been in Japan for decades. When have they encountered such a evil star?

Therefore, even if I killed myself now, I would never dare to offend Charlie Wade!

Seeing Jiro Kobayashi's face full of embarrassment, Nanako Ito kept silent and couldn't help but ask him: "Mr. Kobayashi, do you have anything unspeakable?"

Jiro Kobayashi sighed, and said frankly: "Miss Nanako, let's tell you, Mr. Wade's real name is Charlie Wade, I...I...I... "

Nanako Ito asked, "Mr. Kobayashi, don't always be mine, tell me what's going on!"

Jiro Kobayashi's face blushed, and he lowered his head and muttered: "I can't afford to offend him..."

"what?!"

Nanako Ito and Kazuki Yamamoto were surprised!

The two of them never dreamed that Jiro Kobayashi, who loves face so much, would frankly admit that he couldn't offend that Charlie Wade in front of them...

Looking at his expression, it seemed that Charlie Wade was very frightening!

Jiro Kobayashi can't take care of face at this time. He continued: "You two, the whole of China and even the whole world, the thing I dare not mess with is this Charlie Wade Wade. I have investigated some of the glorious deeds of this guy and said To be honest, this person is simply a devil!"

As he said, he took out his mobile phone and hurriedly turned over TikTok to find the original cross talk between Mrr.. Lloyd and Marcus and his son, and blurted out: "Look, this is not the first time he has engraved on someone's forehead! Video This father and son were also instructed by him to engrave these words on the foreheads of the father and son."

Nanako Ito and Kazuki Yamamoto were both staring dumbfounded at the father and son who talked about cross talk in the video. They looked at the two people's foreheads, one with the Pathetic Jerk and the other with the Pathetic Jerk father, that look, it was absolutely tragic!

Jiro Kobayashi introduced with lingering fear on the side: "According to my investigation, this father and son angered Charlie Wade one after another. That's why Charlie Wade engraved these words. In addition, Charlie Wade has done a lot of evil. His crimes are simply overwhelming. If I really helped Mr. Yamamoto escape from China today, let's not say whether the two of us can escape. Even if we escape, he will definitely get it back.."

Chapter 1363

Seeing the cross talk between Mrr.. Lloyd and Marcus, Nanako Ito and Yamamoto Kazumu face were ashes.

Nanako Ito finally understood, what exactly did Jiro Kobayashi mean when he said he could not provoke Charlie Wade.

This kind of evil star, most people are afraid that they can't afford it, and more importantly, it is still on their territory.

At this time, Nanako Ito burst into tears, and blurted out: "Or I call my father, let him find a way!"

Jiro Kobayashi kindly persuaded: "Ms. Nanako, even if you call Mr. Ito, Mr. Ito can't do anything about it. Even if Mr. Ito set off immediately, flying from Tokyo to Aurouss Hilll, the journey will take at least two or three hours, but at most. In half an hour, Charlie Wade's people may be there, and he has no choice at all..."

Although the Ito family is very powerful in Japan, their influence in Aurouss Hilll is minimal.

Not to mention Nanako Ito, even if her father Ito Yuhiko came, he would be hacked to death by Don Albertt's younger brother.

This is the reason why the strong dragon does not crush the ground snake. Even if he has tens of thousands of younger brothers in Japan, how many can be sent to Aurouss Hilll?

Once the plane was dead, two or three hundred people would be seated. Once these two or three hundred people landed, Charlie Wade didn't even need to take action at all. Don Albertt's younger brother could chop them into meat sauce.

While talking, the staff came to reminder: "Miss Ito, there are still three minutes left. If you don't appear yet, the referee will announce that you have abstained."

Yamamoto Kazuki sighed and said, "It's nothing, this may be my fate, Nanako, you don't have to worry about me anymore, go to the competition."

Nanako Ito cried and said, "Master, you are like this, how can I participate in the competition!"

Yamamoto Kazuki said, "It's useless for you to guard me here. You can't make me stand up again, and you can't stop Charlie Wade from letting people engrave on my forehead. On the contrary, if you stay here, it will cause You are my favorite to get out of the game early, and I don't want you to retire without a fight!"

Jiro Kobayashi also persuaded him: "Miss Ito, you should go to the competition as soon as possible. If you win the competition, Mr. Yamamoto can still get some comfort."

"Yes!" Yamamoto Kazuki sternly said: "If you abstain from voting like this, then I will assume that I have never accepted you as an apprentice in my life!"

After hearing this, Nanako Ito clenched her fists and gritted her teeth and said, "Master, rest assured, I will definitely win!"

Having said that, she immediately stood up, walked quickly out of the rest area, and went straight to her ring.

At this moment, Aurora's game had already started.

She played against Joanna from Brazil, the No. 3 seed of the entire game. This Joanna is tall with strong muscles. Although she is the third seed in this competition, the outside world is generally optimistic that she can beat the second seed in this competition and get the runner-up. Therefore, no one believes that Aurora can beat this runner-up hot candidate.

However, the shocking scene appeared soon!

On the ring, as soon as Joanna came up, she launched a fierce attack on Aurora!

She felt that Aurora's strength was not to be feared at all. If she wanted to ensure enough physical strength and energy to cope with the subsequent matches, the best way was to defeat Aurora in the shortest time!

Only in this way can you retain your physical strength to the greatest extent.

However, she never dreamed that Aurora's physical agility was unexpectedly high.

He quickly punched her and counted his legs in a short period of time, but all these fierce and fast attacks were easily avoided by her.

When she didn't know why, Aurora suddenly shot a vicious whip!

Because her body had just absorbed the magical medicine given by Charlie Wade, and Charlie Wade used the reiki to strengthen and reform it a bit.

Chapter 1364

Therefore, her whip is extremely fast and powerful!

Joanna didn't put Aurora's whip leg in her eyes at all, because she knew Aurora's strength and knew that Aurora could not pose too much threat to herself, so she subconsciously stretched out her hands to block it!

At the same time, she had already made a tactical plan deep in her heart.

After blocking Aurora's leg with both hands, she immediately went straight out of her right foot, pedaling and attacking her right knee, as long as one hit succeeded, followed by a dragon swinging her left leg, should be able to knock Aurora down!

However, what made her dream of was that Aurora's whip leg was wrapped in a terrifying power that Joanna had never seen before!

Joanna's palms and arms instantly felt a huge force hit, and immediately after a bang, the whole person flew out directly, directly out of the ring!

The audience was stunned!

No one thought that the little-known Aurora would knock the No. 3 seed out of the ring with a single blow!

Moreover, Joanna was seriously injured at this time, lying on the ground outside the ring, tried several times but failed to get up. Her coach hurriedly stepped forward, exchanged a few words with her, and then immediately said to the referee: "We give up!" "Give up?!"

The scene was even more shocking!

This...Is this to admit defeat? !

Everyone had never seen such a fast fighting match before, Aurora only made one move and the match was over.

Mr. Quinton was a little dazed.

His daughter has a few kilograms and a few taels. He, who is a father, knows nothing better. He thought that even if his daughter had Master Charlie Wade's guidance today, it would be very difficult for her daughter to win this Joanna.

But I didn't expect it to win so easily.

Charlie Wade looked at with a smile on his face, his expression didn't have any surprise or shock.

Because he had known for a long time that Aurora was no longer the same. Her current strength can completely crush Joanna, even the No. 1 seed, the favorite to win the championship, Nanako Ito!

When I saw Nanako Ito just now, Charlie Wade had probably seen her strength, there was nothing really powerful, just that the outside body had practiced to the extreme.

The former Aurora is naturally far from her opponent, but now she is far from Aurora's opponent!

At this moment, in another arena, Nanako Ito has just begun her fierce battle!

Her luck is very good. The opponent who was assigned this time, not even the top five seeded players, is much weaker than her.

However, because she was thinking about the injury of her master, Yamamoto Kazuki, she was a little absent-minded, and her combat effectiveness was greatly weakened.

Moreover, Charlie Wade's figure appeared in her heart from time to time. Although Charlie Wade injured her master and had to engrave on the master's forehead, which made her feel very angry, she still couldn't help thinking of Charlie Wade's crushing master's palm!

What exactly is it? !

Why is there such a powerful perverted strength? !

Chapter 1365

Just because she was thinking about things in her mind, Nanako Ito was forced to retreat by her opponent.

At this moment, she has no previous pursuit of this game.

Because she has realized that she has been practicing martial arts for so many years, and in front of a real master, she can't even beat the opponent with a single palm.

This caused a devastating blow to her self-confidence.

In fact, whoever encounters this kind of thing will suffer a huge blow.

It was not only his own self-confidence but also his long-standing beliefs that were defeated.

For a long time, Nanako Ito felt that she was at most 20 years away from the pinnacle of martial arts.

Twenty years later, she will definitely grow into the world's top martial arts master, and even become a martial arts master like her master Yamamoto Kazuki.

However, Charlie Wade just made her realize that the martial arts master in her mind is nothing more than an ant in front of a real master. It turns out that for so many years, I have been sitting in a well and watching the sky.

Now, she realized that the real world of martial arts is far beyond her own.

Before, I thought that the world is nothing more than this world, and the farthest distance is just from this end of the earth to the other end of the earth.

But today she knew that there was actually a solar system, a galaxy, and even the entire vast universe outside of this earth.

At this moment, she couldn't help thinking about another question: how many years would it take for herself to grow into a true top master like Charlie Wade.

Recalling the palm that Charlie Wade slapped, although his mentor was beaten into a waste, the impact of that palm on him at the level of martial arts was like the brilliance of a bright moon!

Thinking about it this way, her concentration became even less concentrated.

But her opponent took advantage of the situation and scored offensively. In the first game, Nanako Ito was upset and lost, and the audience was in an uproar.

No one thought that the number one seed player Nanako Ito of this competition would actually lose to a little-known player in the first round of eight-to-four.

When the referee announced the end of the first game, the opponents cheered excitedly.

She never dreamed that she unexpectedly won the first game of the game she thought she would lose.

It seems that Nanako Ito's state has some problems today, but this is my great opportunity!

When Nanako Ito came to the rest area by the ring, her brain was still in a trance.

Winning or losing the game is no longer important because her beliefs have collapsed.

At this time, her assistant Koichi Tanaka said anxiously: "Miss, you can't be so negative! Now you have entered the knockout stage. If you lose this game, then this game will end here. That's it!"

Nanako Ito smiled bitterly and murmured: "Tanaka, you have also seen the terrifying power of Mr. Wade. The gap between me and him is simply Firefly and Haoyue. Do you know that there is an old Chinese saying, Firefly How can light compete with Haoyue for glory."

As she said, she sighed slightly: "His strength is like a bright moon in the night sky, and I am just a firefly in the grass in the wild..."

Koichi Tanaka's expression was also very emotional.

Chapter 1366

He didn't know how he should persuade himself this eldest lady.

Because he can understand Missy's mood at this time.

The strength of the young man surnamed Wade is really terrifying. Kazuno Yamamoto is a Japanese national treasure master, but under his hands, he can't even hold a hand. If he is an eldest lady, I am afraid at this moment. Has lost all fighting spirit.

Not to mention the small game in front of me, even the Olympics, it seems to have become bleak.

Even the so-called martial arts has become a joke.

He served Nanako Ito for many years. At this time, he couldn't help but feel heartache for her. He couldn't help but said: "Miss, if you really lose faith in this game, then let's go back to Japan!"

Nanako Ito hurriedly asked, "Tanaka, where is my master? How is he now?" Hiroshi Tanaka stammered and said: "A few wicked men came just now. The man headed by Mr. Yamamoto used a knife to carve the words Sick Man of East Asia on Mr. Yamamoto's forehead. Then Mr. Yamamoto wanted to bite his tongue and kill himself, but he failed and was taken to the hospital by Mr. Kobayashi."

"What?!" Nanako Ito was shocked, tears burst into her eyes, and she blurted out: "I'm going to the hospital to see Master! Take me now!" Hiroshi Tanaka nodded and said: "Then I will tell the referee team now, we will give up the game."

"Okay! Go!" Nanako Ito was already impatient.

In her eyes, Yamamoto Kazuki was her own mentor, and if he had any shortcomings, he would not be able to forgive himself in this life. After all, he came to China with himself for his own game. If it were not for himself, he would not meet Charlie Wade, let alone encounter these hardships.

Just as she was about to give up the game and rush to the hospital to take a look at her teacher, a calm voice suddenly sounded:

"Since you have participated in the competition, you must take it seriously. How can you give up halfway?"

Nanako Ito followed the prestige and saw that Charlie Wade, who possessed terrifying power, was standing under the stage and looking at herself expressionlessly.

Her heart suddenly panicked, she didn't expect Charlie Wade to watch her game, and she didn't understand why he would watch her game.

In fact, Aurora had already won the game with one move, so she had already gone to the locker room to take a shower and change clothes. Charlie Wade had nothing to do, so he planned to come to watch Nanako Ito's game, but he didn't expect that Nanako Ito would lose the first game.

However, he could also see that Nanako Ito lost the first game because she was worried and could not concentrate on the game.

Originally, he also thought that Nanako Ito could quickly adjust the state, and then start to get back from the second game.

But he didn't expect that Nanako Ito was about to abandon the game.

Nanako Ito looked at him, thinking of her mentor who was trying to bite her tongue and committing suicide, there was a burst of indignation, a burst of strong indignation in her heart!

She glared at Charlie Wade, glaring at Charlie Wade, and shouted: "You bad guy! Why do you want to force my mentor step by step? Do you really want him to die?"

Charlie Wade said blankly: "Miss, I see your face and temperament. You should be a lady who has been well-educated since childhood, not like an unreasonable person. Just now, between your master Yamamoto Kazuki and me. You see the conflict in your eyes all the way, I hope you ask yourself, am I forcing him in this whole thing?"

"If he shouldn't be so proud and confident, don't be so arrogant, don't be so arrogant, don't take the initiative to use the words sick man of East Asia to insult me, how can I be as knowledgeable as him?"

"We in China have an old saying that the right way in the world is the vicissitudes of life! Is it true that in the eyes of you, a lady, the feeling of master and apprentice is more important than the right way in the world?"

Chapter 1367

Facing Charlie Wade's question, Nanako Ito was speechless.

First, seeing Charlie Wade speechless, then she blushed and was ashamed. In terms of emotion and reason, what Charlie Wade said was right, the whole thing, in the final analysis, was his master begging to be hammered, and Charlie Wade was not wrong.

The ashamed Nanako Ito can only bow to Charlie Wade respectfully: "Mr. Wade, I am impulsive. Please forgive me. At the same time, please don't be insightful with me."

Charlie Wade nodded lightly.

To a certain extent, he also understands Nanako Ito.

After all, everyone can be objective and fair when it's not about themselves, but once they want to have real interests, it is difficult to be absolutely objective.

It's like when someone else's child makes a mistake, I always hope that he can learn enough lessons, but when my child makes a mistake, I always hope that everyone can forgive him and give him another chance.

Yamamoto Kazuki is the mentor of Nanako Ito. The traditional culture of Japan and China is separated by a strip of water. The people of both countries pay attention to respect for teachers. Therefore, Nanako Ito's respect and maintenance of Yamamoto Kazuki are also acceptable.

Understandable.

But this is only understandable.

Charlie Wade can understand her feelings, but she will never change any opinions or decisions because of her.

Therefore, he said in a flat tone: "Miss Ito, since he is also a participant in this competition, we must respect this competition. Don't pass the competition or withdraw halfway. Otherwise, it will be disrespect for martial arts."

Nanako Ito said desperately: "Mr. Wade, your strength has made me truly aware of what real martial arts is. Compared with yours, the martial arts in me is only at the level of beginners, even beginners. They are far from as good as they are even more shameless to continue participating in the competition in front of your Excellency..."

Charlie Wade shook his head: "Martial arts does not necessarily have to compete with others. It is not only a sport, but also a culture and spirit. Isn't it true that people with poor strength are not qualified to learn martial arts? Because your admission level is much lower than mine, can you give up this game with peace of mind?"

Charlie Wade paused slightly, then said in a more serious tone, word by word: "If this is the case, then I can only say that you don't love martial arts at all. What you love is nothing more than a ranking. When you think you are ranked high, you love martial arts; when you think you rank very low, you betrayed martial arts! After all, you are not a loyal martial artist at all!"

Nanako Ito blurted out with a hasty expression: "No, it's not like that! I love martial arts! I am also a loyal warrior! I'm just...I'm just..."

Charlie Wade asked sharply: "What are you just?!"

Nanako Ito was so nervous by his question, and immediately lowered her head in ashamed manner, gave up and continued to defend herself, and whispered: "Mr. Wade, you are right...I was wrong... ..I shouldn't give up the game at this time! I shouldn't betray martial arts at this time!"

Charlie Wade said: "Have a good match, I also hope that Aurora can meet you in the final."

Nanako Ito's eyes suddenly became extremely determined, and he nodded earnestly and said: "I know Mr. Wade! Don't worry, you will definitely fight to the final next! Discuss with your master!"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "Aurora is not my apprentice, she is my friend, or in a strict sense, she is my friend's daughter. I am just temporarily serving as her instructor these few days to give her some advice. ."

Nanako Ito asked in surprise: "Mr. Wade, aren't you a professional coach?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Of course not, I'm just an unemployed vagrant without any occupation."

"unemployed?"

Nanako Ito's face was filled with shock and incredible.

Chapter 1368

Charlie Wade, who is incredibly powerful, turned out to be an unemployed vagrant with no career?

Just when she wanted to continue to ask for more information, the referee stepped up to the ring and said: "The countdown for the second game is 30 seconds!"

Charlie Wade said to Nanako Ito: "You can concentrate on the game, I'm leaving now."

"Mr. Wade you want to go?"

Nanako Ito suddenly felt a sense of loss in her heart.

Charlie Wade said at this time: "Oh, yes, Yamamoto Kazuki's bet has ended. After he is discharged from the hospital, he can leave Aurouss Hilll freely."

After all, Charlie Wade didn't stay on the scene anymore, turned around and left without looking back.

Nanako Ito stared at him a little lost, Tanaka Hiroshi hurriedly urged her: "Miss, we are going to play! Are you still playing?"

"Compare! Of course it is better!"

Nanako Ito suddenly wanted to regain all her fighting spirit. She said with firm eyes and a firm tone: "I will definitely advance to the finals and compete with Aurora face to face! I will never let Mr. Wade look down on me!"

.....

When Charlie Wade arrived outside the gymnasium, Mr. Quinton and Aurora were already waiting here.

Seeing Charlie Wade coming out, Mr. Quinton hurried forward and said respectfully: "Master Wade, I didn't expect Aurora to make such a huge improvement under your guidance. Quinton is really grateful!"

Charlie Wade said lightly: "Mr. Quinton, you and I don't have to be so polite. Aurora is not only your daughter, but also my friend. This little thing is something that friends should do."

Mr. Quinton couldn't help but look at Aurora, and said with a sigh,

"Aurora! See how Master Wade loves you! You must hear Master Wade's words in the future and serve Master Wade wholeheartedly, understand?"

Aurora said loudly without hesitation: "Don't worry, dad! I am willing to follow Master Wade in this life, obey Master Wade's instructions, and repay Master Wade's kindness wholeheartedly!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "You and I don't have to be so polite, practice hard, winning this competition and winning the championship is the best reward for me."

Aurora said very seriously: "Master Wade, I was not sure how to win the championship, but now I am fully confident! My current strength is more than several times stronger than before. All of this Relying on the magical medicine you gave to Aurora by Master Wade, and your help to guide my power!"

Charlie Wade smiled: "If you talk to me so politely in the future, then I will consider staying away from you."

"Ah, don't master Wade!"

Aurora suddenly became anxious and said with red eyes, "Isn't it OK if I won't be so polite to you in the future? You must not alienate me..."

Charlie Wade nodded: "Remember what you said, don't be so polite to me in the future."

"I must remember!"

Aurora hurriedly agreed, and Mr. Quinton on the side said, "Master Wade, why don't you move to the house for a light meal?"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "It won't be over today. There is still something going on at the pharmaceutical factory. I asked Liam to invite a spokesperson over to see him."

Chapter 1369

In order to endorse Oracle Nova Dias, Stefanie Sun took her assistant and bodyguard to Aurouss Hilll by plane.

Since Sun's family is the third largest family in Eastcliff, the overall strength is very strong, so Stefanie Sun has always taken her own private jet when she goes out.

On the one hand, it is easy and convenient, and the more important aspect is privacy.

A big star like her will cause a huge sensation no matter whether it appears in any city in the country.

If you want to keep a low profile, you must avoid the eyes and ears of the media paparazzi and fans.

So taking a private jet became her first choice when going out.

After the plane arrived in Aurouss Hilll, Liam personally went to greet him and took Stefanie Sun and his party to Oracle Pharmaceutical.

Originally, Liam planned to arrange for them to stay at the Shangri-La Hotel, take a break, and talk about work tomorrow.

However, Stefanie Sun insisted on going directly to the pharmaceutical factory of Oracle Pharmaceutical.

This is the first time that Stefanie Sun has endorsed drugs. She herself takes this seriously and is also very cautious.

Therefore, her first thought was to visit the production workshop of this pharmaceutical company to see if it was a sufficiently formal company.

When Charlie Wade went to Oracle Pharmaceutical, Stefanie Sun had already started to inspect the production line of Oracle Pharmaceutical under the leadership of Liam.

The predecessor of Oracle Pharmaceutical is Weaver's Pharmaceuticals, which is a large-scale pharmaceutical company with a market value of several billions. Both the production line and the production process have reached the domestic first-class standards.

Coupled with the medicinal effects of Nova Dias, Stefanie Sun had experienced it personally, so there was nothing to worry about.

Therefore, she should have made up her mind and was willing to be the image spokesperson for Nova Dias.

At this time, the discomfort caused by her spleen and stomach disorders has become more and more intense, and seeing the production line next to her, packs of Oracle Nova Dias were quickly packaged, so she asked Liam: "Mr. Weaver, Can you give me some Oracle Nova Dias first? My spleen and stomach have not been very good for a while. After taking a pack of Oracle Nova Dias, it has changed significantly, but the effect of the medicine has passed, so... .."

Liam said earnestly: "Miss Sun, let's not tell you that our boss has strict requirements. Before Niranax is officially listed, we must strictly supervise and control it. So I can't do this. Or wait for him to come and see what he means."

Cherie said dissatisfied: "I said your boss is too picky, right? Just a few packets of medicine. Is it necessary to be so petty?"

Liam hurriedly explained: "Ms. Cherie, you are misunderstood. Our boss is not picking, but cautious. Before our drugs are officially launched, we must strictly guard against any leakage of confidential drugs. Now, Japan, South Korea and Asia Other pharmaceutical companies have been imitating and plagiarizing ancient Chinese prescriptions, which invisibly brought great losses to Chinese medicine."

Chapter 1370

Cherie frowned and asked: "Does your boss have persecution delusions? It is now in the 21st century. The law on patents is very strict. As long as your medicines have been patented, there is no need to worry that others will steal your formula. ."

Liam shook his head and said: "Ms. Cherie still doesn't know something. In the current pharmaceutical industry, only chemically synthesized drugs are truly protected by patents and can be implemented."

Cherie asked: "Chemical synthesis drugs? What do you mean?"

Liam said: "Chemically synthesized drugs have strict and clear chemical molecular equations, and their chemical structure is also very stable. For example, the special drug for leukemia, Glenin, is chemically imatinated. Ni, this is one of the world's best-selling tumor specific drugs produced by Swiss Novartis. As long as Novartis has applied for a patent for this chemical equation, any other company will be regarded as long as it produces chemical products with the same composition. Is infringement."

After a pause, Liam said again: "However, Chinese medicine itself is not a chemical product. It is a lot of different proprietary Chinese medicinal materials that are matched in specific proportions to achieve a cure effect. This formula is very effective. It is difficult to apply for a patent, and it is also difficult to be effectively protected by the patent law, and it is even difficult to sue others for infringement."

"For example, everyone knows Banlangen granules? Its main ingredients are Banlangen and sucrose. How do you apply for a patent for this formula? As long as the formula leaks, ordinary people can make it at home as long as they get the formula. , Pharmaceutical companies can't take these ordinary people to court, right?"

Cherie said: "Even if ordinary people cannot sue for infringement, at least pharmaceutical companies can always sue for infringement, right?"

Liam shook his head and said, "Ms. Cherie, what you think is too simple. First of all, it is difficult to apply for a patent for this kind of thing that exists in nature. For example, almost all of Asia uses rice as the staple food. Rice can be used to treat certain diseases, and then a pharmaceutical company will use the rice to apply for a patent. It is impossible for the International Patent Organization to pass it."

"Furthermore, even if it is a complex formula, although it can be patented, the chances of being cracked by competitors are also very high. Take the anti dampness prescription, as long as you make some adjustments on the original basis, such as the dosage ratio With a slight change, replacing individual medicines with other similar medicinal materials can perfectly avoid patents without affecting the efficacy of the medicine."

"So, in the final analysis, the patent protection of Chinese patent medicines is very weak. If you want to avoid being infringed by others, the best way is to win people first and let consumers recognize our brand and medicines. In this way, even if competitors imitate and follow us With similar drugs, we can also seize the opportunity at the consumer level."

"This is like Yunnan Baiyao. There are actually many kinds of medicines on the market that have similar effects to Yunnan Baiyao. Their ingredients and formulas are basically the same. But because Yunnan Baiyao was well-known earlier, and among the common people, there are It has a very good mass base, so the foundation of Yunnan Baiyao will not be hurt by those imitation drugs."

Cherie curled her lips: "You said so much, I just want to ask you one question, is your prescription also obtained from ancient Chinese prescriptions? Does this mean that you are also plagiarizing the fruits of your ancestors??"

Liam shook his head: "I really don't know this."

"You don't know?" Cherie was even more puzzled, and asked him: "The medicine you produced yourself, where did the prescription come from, don't you know it yourself?"

Liam said seriously, "Our boss made the prescription."

"Your boss?" Cherie asked in surprise, "Is the boss a doctor?"

With infinite reverence on Liam's face, he said with emotion: "Our boss is a true dragon in the world!"

"Cut!" Cherie said disdainfully: "Don't brag about it, what kind of real dragon in the world, do anyone dare to call these titles now?"

Chapter 1371

Seeing Cherie's disdain for his boss, Liam said righteously: "Miss Cherie, you can look down on me, but you must never look down on my boss. If you have been in contact with my boss for a long time, you will know what I said. Everything is not a lie."

When Cherie curled his lips and wanted to say something, Stefanie Sun beside her grabbed her and said, "Cherie, don't be so rude when you go out. I believe what Mr. Weaver said, if you can study it alone. It's okay to say that he is the dragon the current generation based on this magical stomach medicine like Nova Dias."

Cherie stuck his tongue out: "Well, since you have said so, then I won't be arrogant to him. I wanted to tease him."

Liam was speechless for a while, but he didn't expect that this girl would deliberately hold back with herself.

He was also a big man anyway, and found that he was being played with by a woman, and he was somewhat depressed, but when he thought that this woman was Stefanie Sun's agent, he could only hide his depression deeply in his heart.

At this time, the workshop director ran over quickly and said to him, "Manager Weaver, Mr. Wade is here!"

As soon as the voice fell, Charlie Wade had already put on a clean suit and stepped into the workshop.

The moment he came in, Stefanie Sun was a little dumbfounded when he saw his face.

She whispered to Liam next to her: "This man is your boss?!"

Liam nodded: "Yes."

"What is his name?!"

Liam said, "Master Charlie Wade Wade, what's wrong?"

Stefanie Sun was struck by lightning, but Cherie on the side rolled her lips and said, "Who has a name like that? Master Charlie Wade Wade? I am still called Cherie, a beautiful woman! It is better!"

Stefanie Sun suddenly scolded: "Quiet! Don't be rude!"

Cherie was surprised.

She had never seen Stefanie angry with herself.

But now Stefanie is obviously angry.

In fact, Cherie is not only Stefanie's agent, but also Stefanie's cousin. She is the child of Stefanie's aunt. The two are very close. After Stefanie entered the entertainment industry, Cherie volunteered to be her agent.

This is why Cherie has always dared to play any jokes with her, and has never regarded her as the boss.

At this moment, Stefanie looked at Charlie Wade getting closer, and was so nervous that the rhythm of breathing was completely messed up.

Charlie Wade stepped forward to the three of them. Looking at Stefanie and Cherie, he couldn't help feeling a little shocked in his heart.

What happened in these two days? You have seen such an eye-catching beauty.

Nanako Ito is one, and Stefanie Sun is another.

Unlike Nanako Ito's Yamato Nadeshiko's gentleness, Stefanie Sun seemed to be born with a cold air.

In the cold, with full noble temperament, she looked like a woman of extraordinary origin.

In fact, there are two kinds of noble temperament in a person, one is cultivated since childhood, and the other is cultivated half way.

The vast majority of wealthy people carry a bit of extravagance on their bodies, but it can be seen from that extravagance that they have not been there since childhood.

Because many wealthy people are born out of hard work, and don't have the temperament that has been cultivated by large families in the past.

Even the rich second generation may not have enough precipitation.

Chapter 1372

The real precipitation must be at least three generations or even more than four generations.

Only after several generations of precipitation can the family cultivate true aristocratic qualities.

In Aurouss Hilll, there is only one woman with such a temperament, Jasmine.

And the temperament of Stefanie Sun was even better than Jasmine.

Charlie Wade put away his surprise, looked at the two women with a slight smile, and said a little apologetically: "I'm sorry you two, something has been delayed today. You two have been waiting for a long time."

Stefanie Sun plucked up the courage to ask him: "You...your name is Charlie Wade Wade?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "Yes, what's the matter? What's wrong with Miss Sun?"

Stefanie Sun pointed at herself, staring at him with beautiful eyes and asked, "Do you remember me?"

When these words came out, the other three people including Charlie Wade were all stunned.

Liam and Cherie were a little surprised. Could it be that Stefanie Sun knew Charlie Wade?

Charlie Wade was also very surprised. It is said that this Stefanie Sun is a big star, does she know him?

However, it seems something is not right.

I had already left Eastcliff when I was eight years old. Looking at Stefanie Sun, I feel that I should be one or two years younger than myself, which means that when I left Eastcliff, Stefanie Sun was at most six or seven years old.

How could she know herself?

I have no impression of myself, I know her by myself.

However, from the look in Stefanie Sun's eyes, Charlie Wade could guess that she must have recognized him.

Moreover, she is from Eastcliff and has never been back to Eastcliff for so many years. From this, it can be guessed that she knew him in Eastcliff.

In other words, Stefanie Sun knew that he was the Wade Family Master.

At this moment, Charlie Wade couldn't help but frowned, took a deep look at Stefanie Sun, and smiled: "Miss Sun I should be the wrong person."

"how could you be!"

Stefanie Sun blurted out: "It's impossible, you still have the same temperament in your facial features, and you can still see how you looked when you were a child!"

Charlie Wade was even more surprised, but he resolutely said: "It's impossible. I've been an orphan since I was a child. I grew up in an orphanage. How could you know me?"

Stefanie Sun wanted to say something, but seeing Charlie Wade's eyes seemed to warn herself, she sighed and said: "Maybe I really confessed to my mistake. He looks so much like a childhood friend of mine. He has been missing a lot of years."

Charlie Wade nodded, and said with a smile: "The world is so big, the two look a bit like each other, so normal."

Stefanie Sun followed his words and nodded and said, "Mr. Wade is right."

Liam and Cherie on the side didn't think much about it.

Liam made an introduction to Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, let me introduce you. The person in front of you is the big star from Eastcliff, Miss Sun, and next to her is Miss Sun's agent. Cherie."

Charlie Wade nodded, and said politely: "Miss Sun, Miss Cherie, the two of them have come to Aurouss Hillll for a long time. The arrival of the two makes Oracle Pharmaceutical's brilliance."

Cherie snorted: "Wade, right? You are a bit too fake to say this. Since we are here and make you feel bright, why are you unwilling to give us a bit of Oracle Nova Dias? Stefanie's spleen and stomach have always been discomforted. If you want a few packs of medicine to take, you are not willing to give it. You are still telling me about patents. Is it interesting?"

Chapter 1373

When Charlie Wade heard Cherie's words, he couldn't help but smile indifferently: "Because Oracle Nova Dias has not yet been listed, we will have some security measures more or less. This is basically the case in the pharmaceutical industry, industry practices."

Stefanie said apologetically: "I'm really sorry, Mr. Wade, I shouldn't make such an unreasonable request, it's just because I went abroad to film a movie some time ago, hurt my spleen and stomach, took a lot of medicine, but it failed to cure until I took your Nova Dias. It has made a significant improvement, but the effect of the medicine has passed, so I am a little bit eager for medicine."

Charlie Wade nodded, took a pack of Oracle Nova Dias from the production line that had just been packaged, handed it to Stefanie, and said with a smile: "Since Miss Sun has this need, then we naturally have to meet it. Take this package."

"Thank you." Stefanie said, reaching out to take the stomach powder that was waiting, and she couldn't wait to take it down on the spot.

Almost immediately after taking the medicine, she felt her stomach feel better.

At this time, Charlie Wade asked her: "Miss Sun, I wonder what your impression of our Oracle Pharmaceutical is?"

Stefanie nodded and said, "I think it's pretty good. It is indeed the look and style that a large company should have."

Charlie Wade asked: "There is basically no problem with the endorsement matter?"

Stefanie gave a hum, nodded lightly, and said, "There is no problem with endorsements. You can sign a contract at any time. After the contract is signed, you can start advertising."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "That's great. In that case, let's finish the contract process today."

"Okay Mr. Wade."

Stefanie said, and said to the agent Cherie on the side: "Cherie, you can leave the contract with Mr. Weaver. You can sign the contract on my behalf."

Cherie nodded: "Okay, Stefanie, leave the contract to me. You should take a rest first. Your spleen and stomach are not feeling well, so today you have been running around all day."

"Okay." Stefanie looked at Charlie Wade, smiled, and said: "Mr. Wade, let Cherie and Mr. Weaver sort out the contract process. How about finding a place to sit and have a cup of tea?"

Charlie Wade knew that Stefanie definitely wanted to chat with herself in private.

I also look forward to her being able to solve the puzzle about whether the two have known each other before.

Liam on the side said, "Master Wade, why don't you take Miss Sun to your chairman's office for a cup of tea and a chat. I will have someone decorate your office especially for you, and there will be good tea inside. And tea set."

Charlie Wade nodded and made a please gesture to Stefanie: "Miss Sun, then please move to the office to talk."

Stefanie's cold expression suddenly burst into a girlish smile, nodded slightly, and walked to his office with Charlie Wade.

In fact, Charlie Wade rarely came to Oracle Pharmaceutical, especially in the newly renovated chairman's office. He never came.

Although he is now the major shareholder of this company, he doesn't really want to care about Oracle Pharmaceutical. This is mainly because he feels that professional things should be done by professional people. He has never operated a pharmaceutical company, nor has he operated a business related to drug production and sales. And Liam is just one of these good players. Then his best choice is naturally to leave all of this to him. What he has to do is to provide him with good enough prescriptions for him to make good production and sales. Only in this way can we best cooperate and win-win. After Charlie Wade brought Stefanie to the office, Stefanie took the initiative to close the door.

Chapter 1374

At the moment when the door was closed, this goddess who made countless men crazily infatuated, but with red eyes, choked and asked Charlie Wade: "Brother Charlie Wade, don't you remember me?"

Charlie Wade shook his head slightly and said seriously: "Sorry, I left Eastcliff when I was 8 years old, and I haven't been back for so many years, so I don't remember many people and things in Eastcliff too deeply."

Stefanie Sun's eyes were filled with tears for a moment, and she whispered softly: "Brother Charlie Wade, I am Daisy, don't you remember me? Daisy Sun!"

"Daisy Sun?" Charlie Wade frowned slightly and asked

The nickname was vaguely familiar and he tried to recall the memories of his past in Eastcliff. In his mind, he thought of the appearance of a little girl. However, Charlie Wade immediately got the impression that it was this girl.

Stefanie Sun, the daughter of the Sun family of Eastcliff, whose mother is a lady of Highland Falls, gave her the nickname Daisy since she was a small child because she would always end up coming home with a daisy or two from somewhere.

Stefanie's father, named Orrin Sun, is the third oldest among the descendants of the Sun family.

Back then, Orrin and Charlie Wade's father were the best brothers, and they could be said to be a deadly friendship.

At that time, the Sun family was not ranked in the top three in Eastcliff. Specifically, it should be out of ten.

Charlie Wade's father helped Orrin a lot back then, helping him counterattack as the first heir of the Sun family, helping him become the head of the Sun family, and even supporting the Sun family, making the Sun family stronger and stronger.

At that time, Orrin was extremely grateful to Charlie Wade's father.

Moreover, the two were as close as brothers of the same milk compatriots, plus the children of the two families happened to be a boy and a girl, and Stefanie Sun, also known as Daisy, was only just over a year younger than Charlie Wade. So Orrin proposed to arrange a baby kiss for the two children.

In large families, dating dolls is also very common today, but most of them are not as romantic and innocent as described in movies and TV dramas.

In fact, most of the baby relatives of large families are naked exchanges of interests. Like the Wade family and the Sun family, those who are completely emotional are rare.

At that time, Charlie Wade's father didn't take it too seriously. He just thought that he really liked the cute little girl, Daisy, who was the daughter of a good brother, so he verbally agreed.

However, because the two were still young at the time, this matter only remained at the level of verbal promises from both parents.

Charlie Wade still remembered that when this matter was settled, he was only four or five years old, and he was somewhat resistant to this matter.

Because, whenever the two parties have a family gathering and they see Daisy, she would follow him all the time like a follower, and he couldn't shake it off, which was very annoying.

And in his impression, this girl loves to cry very much, every time he wanted to get rid of her, she would cry violently, making the young and playful Charlie Wade very annoyed.

And also whenever Daisy cried, Charlie Wade's mother would tell him seriously: "Charlie Wade, Daisy will be your future wife from now on. You are not allowed to bully her, you know?"

Charlie Wade felt uncomfortable as soon as he heard these words. At that time, he was playing with all kinds of toy guns every day. How could he ever think about marrying a wife? And the thought of marrying a crying follower makes him even more resistant.

But that was after all a small episode of childhood. After leaving Eastcliff and falling into Arouss Hilll, he was thinking about how to survive every day, and he never thought about Daisy, who himself made him a little annoying.

However, I never dreamed that the little girl who used to cry in the past has now turned into a glamorous and beautiful star. If she hadn't said her nickname, she would not be able to connect these two people together!

Chapter 1375

Since Charlie Wade came to Arouss Hilll, he has only seen one person from his past for so many years, and this person is the steward of the Wade family, Stephen Thompson.

It was Stephen Thompson who suddenly appeared in front of him and gave himself the Emgrand Group and 10 billion in cash on behalf of the Wade Family.

However, after that, he never returned to Eastcliff.

It is very interesting. Although the Wade family gave money and the company, when they heard that they were not willing to go back, no Wade family had come to Arouss Hilll to find him.

In this regard, Charlie Wade was also very happy.

After all, he himself is very repulsive of the grievances between the rich and powerful, and he does not want himself and his wife Claire Wilson Wilson to be involved, so that he can live in Arouss Hilll as stable as he is now, without being disturbed, than let him return to Eastcliff, It is much stronger to fight secretly with Wade family for trillions of wealth.

And now, he has met a second person from his past, the daughter of a deceased father's good brother, and his so-called baby girlfriend, Daisy Sun.

Therefore, at this moment, Charlie Wade couldn't help feeling sighed. The memories of childhood came up deep in his mind, and it reminded him of his parents who had passed away.

Perhaps it was because of too much suffering in these years. When Charlie Wade thought of his late father and mother, he was no longer so sad. He just sighed from the bottom of his heart that if he were not born in a rich family, his parents would not have died young, and he would not have experienced the ups and downs of life when he was eight years old.

If a family of three can live a life of ordinary people, then my childhood will definitely be much happier, right?

Seeing Charlie Wade fell into silence, Stefanie hurriedly asked: "Charlie Wade, why are you not talking? Do you really have no memory of me?"

Charlie Wade came back to his senses at this time, smiled slightly bitterly, and said, "I remember you."

"Really? Do you really remember me? Did you admit that you are Charlie Wade?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said: "I am Charlie Wade, Charlie Wade from the Wade Family in Eastcliff, I didn't admit it earlier as I don't want to expose this identity in front of others."

Stefanie grabbed Charlie Wade's arm, clenched her hands tightly, and said with red eyes: "Charlie Wade, my dad has been looking for you for so many years. Since Uncle Wade and Aunt Wade were buried in Eastcliff, my father has visited every year. He takes me to sweep their graves, and confess to your uncle and aunt every time. The confession that he failed to get you back..."

Charlie Wade sighed, "What else is Uncle Sun looking for?"

Stefanie said with tears: "Dad said, 'I'm afraid that you will be wandering out and suffer and suffer. I'm afraid you have some shortcomings. He can't explain to Uncle Wade and Auntie...'"

After speaking, Stefanie said again: "My dad has searched the whole country for so many years, but has not found your whereabouts. Back then, the Wade family has been keeping the whereabouts and circumstances of you, Uncle Wade and Aunt Wade highly confidential, even uncle and auntie. When they returned to Beijing for their burial, my father didn't know where they died or why they died..."

Charlie Wade couldn't help frowning: "You mean, the Wade family has been concealing this information?"

"That's right." Stefanie Sun nodded and said: "After you left Eastcliff with Uncle Wade and Aunt Wade, all your whereabouts and whereabouts were erased by the Wade family. My father had been investigating and taking Without finding any clues, he was so angry that he yelled at home several times, saying that the Wade family simply followed your family to eliminate all footprints, messages, and even the smell in the air..."

As she said, Stefanie cried, and said: "My dad always wanted to find you after he learned that Uncle and Aunt Wade had passed away, but all the household registration files of Charlie Wade in the country were in disorder. Your identity information cannot be found in the household registration system at all, and you have no idea where you have been for so many years..."

Charlie Wade said indifferently: "I have been in Aurouss Hilll for so many years."

"Ah?!" Stefanie blurted out in exclamation: "Charlie Wade, you... have you been in Aurouss Hilll?"

"Yes." Charlie Wade nodded, seeing her expression so surprised, frowned and asked: "I have been in Aurouss Hilll, is it strange to you?"

Chapter 1376

Stefanie said indignantly: "Arouss Hilll has always been the key suspect of my father. My dad has been here several times. He used his relationship to check all the boys in Aurouss Hilll who are about your age. And he checked it several times. My father has checked every rescue station, welfare home, and non-governmental welfare organization in China, and there is no information about you at all."

"It's impossible!" Charlie Wade blurted out: "I have lived in the Aurouss Hilll Orphanage from the age of 8 to 18, and I have not changed my name since the day I entered the orphanage. My parents gave me the name Charlie Wade, and the personal information I filled out in the orphanage was also Charlie Wade. If Uncle Sun has been here, he will definitely find me."

Stefanie confidently said: "Impossible! In the past ten years, my dad has come to Aurouss Hilll personally, and he has been here no less than five times! The number of people sent is even more! All kinds of relationships have been used, but have not found any clues."

"I still remember the last time my dad came to Aurouss Hilll. It was during the summer vacation that year when I was 18 years old when I was going to study in the UK. Because at my strong request, my dad brought me here. We were in Aurouss Hilll. After staying for two weeks, I used hundreds of subordinates, informants and private investigators to sort out various clues, but still did not find any information about you." Charlie Wade listened to Stefanie's words and looked at Stefanie's very serious and excited expression, and a panic surged in his heart. Since the death of his parents, Charlie Wade has rarely been in a mess, but at this moment, he suddenly felt a sense of tension on his back. He began to suspect that his sad childhood seemed to hide a terrifying scam.

He has been in the welfare home for ten years, and Orrin Sun has done this several times and tried to find himself. It is impossible to ignore the Aurouss Hilll welfare home.

So what is it that made him not find or unable to find himself who has been living in Aurouss Hilll Welfare Institute?

Is there something wrong with the orphanage? Could it be that the orphanage deliberately concealed its personal information? So who instructed the orphanage to do it? So what is the motivation of the person who instructed the orphanage?

It suddenly occurred to him that the Wade Family had so many hands and eyes that he shouldn't have let himself fall in Aurouss Hilll for so many years.

Moreover, they were able to take the remains of their parents and return to Beijing for burial, which proves that they know the trajectories of their parents and their family of three.

In other words, the Wade family must have known that they were in the Aurouss Hilll Welfare Institute.

It is even very possible that for so many years, he has never escaped Wade Family's surveillance.

This also explained why Stephen Thompson could easily find himself in the hospital.

The real reason behind this seems to be getting more and more complicated..

Seeing Charlie Wade fell silent again, Stefanie asked with great concern: "Charlie Wade, are you wondering, what is the conspiracy behind this?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "I think some problems seem to be wrong, but I haven't sorted them out yet."

Stefanie hurriedly said, "Why don't I call my dad and ask my dad to come over!"

With that, she would reach out for her phone.

"Don't, don't!" Charlie Wade hurriedly stopped her: "Don't tell anyone about what you saw about me, including your dad!"

Chapter 1377

Stefanie was puzzled. She felt that her father had been looking for Charlie Wade for so long these years. He had always felt trouble sleeping and eating because he could not find Charlie Wade, and felt guilty in her heart.

Now that I have met Charlie Wade by accident, I should naturally tell my father the good news, which is a wish for him for many years.

So she was too busy to ask: "Charlie Wade, why can't I tell others about seeing you?"

Charlie Wade sighed softly and said, "Hey, no matter what happened more than ten years ago, what's the secret? At least I am very happy living in Aurouss Hillll right now, so I don't want to have too much relationship with Eastcliff."

Stefanie said emotionally, "Charlie Wade, you are the young master of the Wade family. Why do you choose to stay in a place like Aurouss Hilll? If you choose to return to Eastcliff, the Wade family's trillions of assets will at least 20-30% yours?"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "I am not short of money now, and I am not very interested in the assets of the Wade Family. I just want to live a stable and stable life in Aurouss Hillll with my wife."

"Wife?" Stefanie Sun exclaimed: "Charlie Wade, you...are you married??"

"Yes." Charlie Wade said casually: "I have been married for more than three years..."

Stefanie was stunned, she blurted out: "Charlie Wade! Did you forget that you have a marriage contract?"

"Marriage contract?" Charlie Wade was a little embarrassed, chuckled, and said: "The marriage contract is just a joke between our parents when we were young, and at that time you and I were just ignorant and ignorant children. How can such a thing be counted? Are you counting?"

Stefanie asked indignantly: "Why can't this kind of thing count? You know, for so many years since you disappeared, my dad will remind me every day and tell me that I am already a married woman. Girl, tell me that I must never fall in love with other boys outside, even I have always told myself this way!"

Charlie Wade was dumbfounded.

When he left Eastcliff, he was just eight years old, and Stefanie was only six years old and less than seven years old. She had forgotten about this incident a long time ago, but she and her family would still remember it.

This made him feel a little bit embarrassed. After all, he had long been thrown out of the sky for things that others valued so much, which really made him feel a little guilty.

Therefore, he could only apologize and say: "Nanny, to be honest, I have had a miserable life for so many years. I lived in a welfare institution for the first 10 years, and then worked in various construction sites for the next few years. I met my wife."

Stefanie was angry and distressed, and asked with red eyes: "Did you not think about the marriage contract between the two of us when you married her?"

"Sorry." Charlie Wade said frankly: "I haven't really thought about this, mainly because I was trapped at the time, and many things were involuntary."

Stefanie asked again: "Then what does your current wife do? Which big family daughter is she?"

"It's not a big family." Charlie Wade smiled and said, "It's an ordinary girl."

"Ordinary people?!" Stefanie was dumbfounded, and soon her pretty face was full of anger, and she blurted out: "You are the dignified young master of the Wade family, you are my fiancé. My father and I have been looking for you for so many years, how can you talk to other women? Much less getting married?!"

Chapter 1378

Having said that, Stefanie shed tears again.

Charlie Wade hurriedly handed her a tissue, and softly persuaded, "Daisy, don't cry. Many things are not as simple as having a house when we were young. Of course I also admit that I really ignored this matter myself. I thought you were like me, and you would have laughed at things like this when you were a kid, but I didn't expect you and Uncle Sun to have been looking for me for so many years."

Stefanie said angrily: "Playing a house? A laugh? My dad made an oath to Uncle Wade and Aunt Wade back then!"

"Also, you have lived in Eastcliff for eight years. You should also know that what the Eastcliff family dislikes most is to let their children enter the entertainment industry. Even the children of the large family are not allowed to marry female stars in the entertainment industry. , Because in their eyes, no matter how famous the celebrities in the entertainment industry are, they are just actors and inferior!"

"But you know, why should I enter the entertainment industry?"

Charlie Wade shook his head and asked subconsciously: "Why?"

"To find you! I want to make myself a star and be followed by the people of the whole country and even Chinese people all over the world. In this way, you may see me, then recognize me, find me..."

Charlie Wade said awkwardly: "You have changed quite a bit from when you were young. If you don't say your nickname, I might not recognize you at all..."

Stefanie asked in return: "Have you not seen any of my interviews? Every time I receive an interview, I will tell the media reporters that my nickname is Daisy Sun. I also deliberately said that the reason why I don't have a boyfriend is because I have I'm looking for the true love of my youth. This incident has been posted several times on hot searches. Haven't you seen it once?"

Charlie Wade smiled helplessly: "I am a person who rarely pays attention to the news of the entertainment industry or chasing stars, so I have never followed it."

Stefanie pursed her mouth in anger and asked, "Then why are you looking for me to speak for Nova Dias?!"

Charlie Wade shrugged: "I didn't decide this matter, it was Liam's decision. He told me that you are now one of the most famous celebrities, so he recommended that you come to speak for Oracle Nova Dias."

Stefanie's self-esteem was hit, and tears of anger fell: "Then my hard work for so many years is in vain? I have said so many times in front of the people of the whole country, but you have not seen it once!" As she said, she wiped her tears and choked up: "Just on the plane I came this year, I was still thinking, I can wait for you to be 35, or even for you to be 40. Anyway, enter the entertainment industry. People get married very late, and I don't have to be urged to marry by someone who doesn't know the inside story. I didn't expect you bad guy to be so unconscionable! Not only did you not recognize me, but you broke the engagement and got married with another woman!" For so many years, in Stefanie's heart, she has always remembered her marriage contract with Charlie Wade. This is not only because she had a natural affection for Charlie Wade when she was a child, and always liked to follow him. It was even more because, for so many years, my father had been looking for Charlie Wade, so she had never forgotten Charlie Wade. Moreover, she has been looking forward to finding Charlie Wade for so many years. In addition, Stefanie's father has been reminding her in her ears for so many years, so that she should not forget that she has a marriage contract. Moreover, after she was 20 years old, her father often said that as long as she found Charlie Wade, she must marry Charlie Wade, because this was her father's promise to friends, benefactors, and brothers many years ago. Stefanie accepted this arrangement imperceptibly. She herself has felt for so many years that she will find him, but she did not expect that he was already married!

Chapter 1379

Charlie Wade was criticized by Stefanie, and he felt a little uncomfortable on his face, and felt a little uncomfortable in his heart. So, he gave a dry cough and said apologetically: "Daisy, I am indeed responsible for this matter. I want to say sorry to you and Uncle..." "Sorry?" Stefanie said angrily, "Since you want to apologize, even if you don't think that my dad is your elder, it is because my dad has been looking for you for so many years, you should also apologize to my dad! No! Let me tell my dad that he has found you. What does it mean?" Charlie Wade looked at her angry expression and said seriously: "Daisy, think about it for yourself, I have lived in Aurouss Hill Welfare Institute for 10 years, but Uncle came to Aurouss Hill to look for me several times, but failed to find my whereabouts. Why? Someone must not want Uncle to find me. The other party can make Uncle not find me. This proves that he is very strong and I don't know whether it is a friend or an enemy. If you tell Uncle now, it will only cause Uncle trouble. ." Seeing that Stefanie's expression eased, Charlie Wade continued: "Also, why my parents were forced to leave Eastcliff back then, why they died unexpectedly when they arrived in Aurouss Hill, these are still unknown, plus someone hiding my information back then. There might be a huge hidden secret behind this, so I must first find out what happened in the past, find out who is watching me behind me, who intends to bring danger to me and the people around me, and Not going to meet with Uncle."

Stefanie cried and said, "But my dad has really missed you for so many years. He has only two biggest wishes now, one is to find you and the other is to watch me get married.."

Charlie Wade solemnly promised: "Daisy, don't worry, when I find out everything one day, I will personally go to Eastcliff and visit Uncle Sun!"

When Charlie Wade said this, Stefanie's expression became even more painful.

She burst into tears and said: "My dad was diagnosed with pancreatic cancer two years ago. He has been treated for several courses in China, the United States and Japan, but there has been no cure. Top doctors all over the world say that this disease is impossible to cure. Yes, no matter how much money is spent, it is impossible, just like Apple's Jobs, maybe one day his condition suddenly deteriorates and he will die.."

Charlie Wade exclaimed: "Pancreatic cancer? How is Uncle Sun now?"

Stefanie said: "I just came back from the United States and was recuperating at home. The reason why I was willing to take the American film is because my dad is going to the U.S. for treatment. After the filming of the film, his treatment is over, so I returned to China for a while. "

Afterwards, she sighed and said quietly: "The results of the treatment in the United States this time are not good. I feel that his body is getting worse and worse. I don't know which day.."

Charlie Wade couldn't help but feel sad when he heard this.

After so many years of drifting away, he has no feelings for Stefanie's father or even Stefanie's family.

If I hadn't met Stefanie, I might not think of this family again for the rest of my life.

After all, they were too young back then, and they didn't leave a deep feeling and impression on themselves.

But when he heard that Stefanie said that after she and her father had put so much effort and effort to find themselves, he couldn't help being moved.

Since becoming an orphan at the age of eight, Charlie Wade has encountered too few good people in the past ten years.

I met people who really cared about him, even fewer.

There is one Mrs. Lewis from the orphanage, one from Lord Wilson, and one from his wife, Claire Wilson Wilson.

Elder Wilson also passed away. In this world, Mrs. Lewis and Claire Wilson Wilson are the only ones who really care about and love him.

But now, there are two more people who care about themselves, one is Stefanie Sun and the other is her father Orrin Sun.

Orrin was able to find himself day by day for so many years, which he had never thought of before.

Chapter 1380

Therefore, after hearing that Orrin was suffering from pancreatic cancer and his physical condition was deteriorating, he immediately made a decision to save his life!

So he immediately said to Stefanie: "Well, after we finish talking about cooperation, you will return to Eastcliff first, and in a few days I will quietly go to Eastcliff to meet Uncle Orrin. Then, I will have my own medicine that can cure it. His illness!"

Stefanie was dumbfounded and asked, "What medicine do you have that can cure this terminal illness? Doctors all over the world have told me that this terminal illness cannot be cured.."

Charlie Wade said seriously: "It is not convenient for me to disclose this to you for the time being, but you can rest assured that since I have said it, I will definitely honor my promise!"

Charlie Wade has a medicine in his hand.

The elixir he refined for the first time was able to cure high paraplegia, which is almost impossible to cure medically.

If you take one to Orrin Sun, there is a high probability that his pancreatic cancer can be cured.

Taking a step back, if his elixir can't cure him, he still has rejuvenation pills to use.

At the beginning, I refined a batch of Rejuvenating Pills. I ate a few of them and gave them a few more. Now there are still a lot of them. This medicine can almost make the dead trees come in spring and resurrect people who are dying. It will definitely heal Orrin Sun.

Take a step back and say, that rejuvenating pill will not cure, and it doesn't matter to him, he still has reiki!

Reiki is the purest and most supreme energy of all things in the world.

Reiki does not yet exist in this world, which cannot cure diseases.

There was always a word, no matter what, Charlie Wade couldn't let Orrin Sun die like this.

Because he is not only the brother of his dead father, his elders, but also the benefactor he should be grateful to!

However, Charlie Wade didn't plan to give the medicine to Stefanie directly, because the medicine he refined at the time caused a trouble, and was missed by Ichiro Kobayashi of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall.

Dr. Simmons is still a master of Chinese studies and martial arts, so there is no need to worry about comfort, but Stefanie is an ordinary girl. She must not let her take this medicine by herself. It is safer to take it to Orrin Sun in a few days!

At this time, Stefanie still had some doubts about Charlie Wade's words. After all, since her father fell ill, she has studied too many relevant documents and materials, knowing that this disease is indeed very pessimistic and does not exist in the world. There is a special medicine that can cure this disease.

However, Charlie Wade was so eloquent that she still had some expectation in her heart.

Moreover, she believed that even if Charlie Wade couldn't cure his father, but he was willing to go to Eastcliff to meet his father, his father would be very happy to see him.

If you are seriously ill, and there is no way to treat it, it is the best comfort to make the patient happy!

So she asked tentatively: "Charlie Wade, will you really come to Eastcliff to see my father in a few days?"

Charlie Wade nodded firmly: "Definitely!"

Chapter 1381

Hearing Charlie Wade's affirmative reply, Stefanie's mood only improved slightly.

She stopped the tears, carefully wiped away the remaining tears in the corners of her eyes with her fingers, and laughed at herself: "Hey,

Charlie Wade laughed. Actually, I haven't cried for many years, but it turned out that my dad fell ill. Now, it's as if I'm back when I was a child, and my tears flowed as soon as they talked.

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said comfortingly: "Don't think so, people have seven emotions and six desires, can laugh and cry, can be happy and sad, there is nothing to be done."

Stefanie nodded softly and asked: "Charlie Wade, do you still cry now?"

Charlie Wade smiled bitterly: "When I was 8 years old, there were too many tears, and it seemed to have shed tears for a lifetime."

Stefanie clutched his arm with both hands, and said with red eyes:

"Charlie Wade, you have suffered for so many years..."

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently: "People say that hardship is blessing. I didn't believe it before, but I believed it later."

Charlie Wade felt that the biggest blessing in his life was not to be found by Stephen Thompson again, but to accidentally obtain the Apocalyptic Book.

If there is no Apocalyptic Book, even if you are Young Master Wade Family, you may not be able to possess the top strength of today.

And all the respect that I have won now is not based on the four words of Wade Family Master, but based on my own strength. This is very important! Throughout the country, there are even more powerful families and the wealthy second-generation generations who have aloof status. However, among these rich second-generations, there are a few people who can rely on their own strength to win

Respect of everyone?

The son of a real estate developer packaged himself into an internet celebrity and a national husband. In those years when the economic situation was good, he made some investments and achieved good results, so he was regarded as an investment genius by the whole people.

However, when the economic situation took a turn for the worse, his company immediately went bankrupt and owed hundreds of millions or even billions of foreign debts, which once became the laughing stock of the whole people.

The reason is so. It is because of his original lack of strength, leaving the halo, he will immediately expose a lot of shortcomings.

However, now Charlie Wade, even if he paid back all the 10 billion Dollar given to him by the Emgrand Group and the Wade Family, he is still the real Dragon Master who is respected by everyone.

Among other things, he can win tens of billions or even hundreds of billions of wealth with just a few rejuvenating pills, and make countless top families bow to himself.

And all of these are opportunities given to him by the Apocalyptic Book.

If you didn't have the sufferings that you had in your childhood, how could you let yourself be a coincidence, in Jasmine's Antique Shop, accidentally got the Apocalyptic Book?

Therefore, Charlie Wade believes that God is fair.

Just like Mencius said, when the heavens will descend to the people of Sri Lanka, they must first suffer their minds, muscles, and skin.

At this time, Liam sent a WeChat message to Charlie Wade, which read:

"Master Wade, Miss Cherie and I have finished the contract. When do you think we will go to Shangri-La for dinner?"

Charlie Wade replied: "You and Miss Cherie will wait a moment."

Afterwards, he put away his cell phone and said to Stefanie, "Daisy, Liam and Ms. Cherie are basically finished. Let's go to Shangri-La for dinner, but I have one more thing. I want to ask you for help."

Stefanie hurriedly said, "Charlie Wade, why are you so polite with me?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said seriously: "My wife is a fan of you and has always liked you very much. For dinner at night, I am going to call her together. Are you okay?"

Chapter 1382

Stefanie was in a mixed mood. She looked into his eyes and asked angrily: "You are not afraid of me telling her that I am your fiancée, and is she a third party to intervene?"

Charlie Wade was embarrassed: "So I have an additional request."

Stefanie snorted and said angrily: "You want me to hide this relationship between me and you from your wife, right?"

Charlie Wade said: "She thought I was an orphan and doesn't know my identity and family background, and I don't want her to know."

Stefanie asked incomprehensibly: "She is your wife, are you not even going to tell her your true identity, do you intend to keep hiding from her?"

Charlie Wade said: "If I don't tell her, it's not that I want to keep concealing it, but the time is not mature enough. Let's talk about it when the time comes."

Stefanie wrinkled her nose and said, "I want to know, when you see my dad, how can I tell him that you are already married!"

Charlie Wade said earnestly: "At that time, I will come to the door personally, and I will beg your forgiveness!"

Stefanie had a bit of resentment in her heart, and deliberately stopped talking to him.

Charlie Wade said again: "By the way, Stefanie, when you meet my wife, don't reveal that I am the boss of this company. I usually tell her that I'm looking at Feng Shui for others, and you will be there. Tell her at the dinner table that your Feng Shui is not very good, and want me to go over and take a look, so that I will agree on the spot in front of my wife at the dinner table, and then I can prepare to go to Eastcliff."

Stefanie asked back: "Do you have feelings with your wife?"

"Yes, why do you ask?"

"If you have feelings, then why are you hiding everything from her? There is no truth, isn't it just that you have no feelings?"

Charlie Wade shook his head: "You don't understand. It is because of feelings that many things have to be done step by step. This is the greatest protection for her. Otherwise, think about it. When she married me, she thought I was an orphan with no father and no mother, three years later, I suddenly told her that I was the young master of the Wade family. Can she accept it?"

"Why can't you accept it? Which woman doesn't want her husband to have status and ability? Does she even want you to be a poor pauper?"

Charlie Wade said, "You don't understand my wife, she is different from other women."

Stefanie said dissatisfiedly: "Is your wife or wife at all times, when you say these things, did you consider my feelings? Do you know that since I was a child, I always felt that I must marry you in my life, even if it is You have been missing for more than ten years. I also have this hunch, but now I have finally found you. You are your wife when you open your mouth. Do you know how I feel?"

Charlie Wade said ashamed: "I'm sorry, it's all my fault."

Stefanie saw that he was really apologetic, and when he thought of the pain he had suffered for so many years, her heart suddenly softened again.

So, she sighed and said softly: "I'm sorry, Charlie Wade, I didn't mean to be unreasonable, but I didn't control my emotions for a while, don't mind."

Charlie Wade said hurriedly, "Why? I won't mind."

"That's good."

Stefanie paused slightly, and then asked him: "Charlie Wade, do you have any children now?"

"Uh..." Charlie Wade said awkwardly: "Not yet..."

Stefanie breathed a sigh of relief: "Very good, after all, I am Miss Sun's family, and still a somewhat famous celebrity. Marrying a divorced man in the future would be a bit embarrassing. If I were to be a stepmother to someone else, I wouldn't be the gang in Beijing. Bastard laughs to death!"

Chapter 1383

Charlie Wade was taken aback by Stefanie's words.

Marrying a divorced man, does this mean you?

Is this Sun girl too stupid? It's just a verbal agreement between the parents in childhood. When is it, who cares about it?

Seeing that she is young, beautiful, cold and arrogant, she is definitely the kind of girl with a special idea, why is her thinking so conservative?

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but said: "I said that little thing about us when we were young, really can't be taken seriously, you shouldn't miss it and delay your own happiness!"

Stefanie said earnestly: "Charlie Wade! You unscrupulous bad man, I have been waiting for more than ten years. You tell me now that it's not true? Believe it or not, I'll hold a press conference tomorrow, and we'll just take our marriage contract Announce it?"

As he said, Stefanie wrinkled her nose at him threateningly: "Tell you, this lady has a lot of fans, and don't blame me for inciting fans to target you at that time! Make you the world's No. 1 loser and let you be blamed by thousands of people! "

Charlie Wade was defeated.

He knew that Stefanie must be serious, otherwise she would not have been looking for herself with her father for so many years.

If you continue to say that you don't have to take it seriously, it is to obliterate and deny the other party's persistence and efforts for more than ten years.

Therefore, out of respect for Stefanie, he said seriously: "Daisy, you and I have just reunited after so many years of separation. Many things should be considered for a long time. You should give your brother a face. Today, let's take the matter of cooperation with my wife, Deal with the matter of your sister-in-law eating together!"

"As for the rest, the two of us can talk slowly and slowly. Besides, I promised you that I will go to Eastcliff and visit Uncle Orrin in a few days?"

Stefanie's expression eased a bit, and she muttered: "Okay! I'll give you this face! You are getting married, waiting for you to go to Eastcliff, and explain to my dad yourself! At that time, my dad will not beat you. of!"

After that, she gave Charlie Wade a vicious look, and then said: "I'm gone, I have to arrange for a meal, and I feel hungry."

In fact, Stefanie didn't feel hungry. The reason why she wanted to eat quickly was actually because she wanted to see Charlie Wade's current wife earlier.

Unexpectedly, Charlie Wade's wife is still his own fan, this incident is really good luck.

Charlie Wade was busy reminding her: "What time is it? It's not five o'clock, do you have to eat?"

Stefanie hummed, "Can I be hungry?"

Charlie Wade said: "I have something to deal with later, and then I will pick up your sister-in-law. If you are hungry, I will let Liam take you to Shangri-La first. Your sister-in-law went to find you together, but you must remember what I told you, and when you saw your sister-in-law, don't miss it."

"Oh, I know!" Stefanie's expression was somewhat impatient, she didn't want to admit that Charlie Wade's wife was her sister-in-law, she should be a rival in love!

At this time, there was a knock on the door, and Charlie Wade said to come in. Liam opened the door and said respectfully: "Master Wade, I have finished the contract with Miss Cherie."

Charlie Wade nodded: "Liam, you arrange a car to accompany the two of you to Shangri-La, and Mr. Cameron will arrange it. You sit there for a while, wait for me, I have something to deal with."

Liam respectfully said: "Good Master Wade!"

.....

After letting Liam take Stefanie and Cherie to Shangri-La first, Charlie Wade rode an electric bike by himself and went to Aurouss Hill Welfare Institute alone.

At this moment, deep in his heart, there are too many questions to clarify.

He felt that the first person he was looking for was Mrs. Lewis from the orphanage.

Since someone in the orphanage deliberately concealed their identity, Mrs. Lewis should know some of the details.

When he came to the orphanage, Charlie Wade went directly to Mrs. Lewis's office.

Chapter 1384

As soon as I arrived at the office door, I just ran into my childhood friend Lisa coming out of the office. When she saw Charlie Wade, she said happily, "Charlie Wade, why are you here?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "I have something to find Mrs. Lewis, is she there?"

"It's here." Lisa smiled, and hugged Charlie Wade's arm when he came up, and said affectionately: "Charlie Wade, you haven't come here these days, I miss you!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Why don't you just call me?"

"I'm afraid you are busy!" Lisa said delicately, "I don't want to delay your business."

Charlie Wade said: "Okay, I will invite you to dinner the next day, and you can go ahead if you have anything to do. I will go in and find Mrs. Lewis."

Lisa said: "Okay, Charlie Wade, you go to Mrs. Lewis first, I will go to the back kitchen to see if the children's dinner has started, don't rush away later, I will come to you when I'm done."

"it is good."

After Lisa left, Charlie Wade just knocked on the door, and Mrs. Lewis's kind voice came from inside: "It's Charlie Wade, right? Come in!"

Charlie Wade opened the door and saw Mrs. Lewis sitting at a simple desk, looking through a pile of documents.

Mrs. Lewis raised her head to look at him, pushed her glasses, and asked with a smile, "Why are you here? You didn't say a word before you came."

Charlie Wade smiled unnaturally: "Mrs. Lewis, I am looking for you, I want to ask you something."

Mrs. Lewis nodded and said with a smile: "What are you polite to Auntie, just say it."

Charlie Wade walked to Mrs. Lewis, sat down on the chair opposite her desk, looked at Mrs. Lewis, hesitated for a moment, then asked: "Mrs. Lewis, I came to you to ask you back then Some details that took me into the orphanage."

Mrs. Lewis's expression flashed with a slight astonishment, but she quickly returned to business as usual. She smiled and said, "It's been more than ten years, and auntie may not remember many details, but you can just ask her if she knows. I will tell you."

Charlie Wade is not a fool, and the subtle changes in Mrs. Lewis's expression have not been ignored by him.

On the contrary, he saw some problems from the slight changes.

If Mrs. Lewis had nothing to hide from herself, she shouldn't have that expression at all.

She must have something in her heart, so that it would appear unnatural on the surface.

So he looked at Mrs. Lewis and asked seriously: "In fact, I want to know, after I came to the orphanage, has anyone come to the orphanage to look for me in the ten years before I left?"

Mrs. Lewis said without hesitation: "No, never."

Charlie Wade frowned and asked: "Is there really no one?"

Mrs. Lewis said confidently: "Really not."

"That's not right." Charlie Wade looked at Mrs. Lewis, couldn't help but sighed, and said with emotion: "Mrs. Lewis, I am the one you saw when you were a child. I will always remember this kindness, so in front of you, I too I'm not going to lie, I'll tell you what I have."

When Charlie Wade said this, Mrs. Lewis's expression became a little flustered.

She realized that Charlie Wade should have known something this time.

However, she didn't dare to say anything, so she was extremely nervous.

Charlie Wade continued to say at this time: "Mrs. Lewis, I heard that the best friend of my father had come to Aurouss Hillll many times to find me, and he also came to our Aurouss Hillll Welfare Institute more than once?!"

Chapter 1385

Charlie Wade's question caused Mrs. Lewis's expression to change suddenly! All of a sudden she panicked! Never dreamt that Charlie Wade would ask himself this question.

So she panicked and said: "This...this...I have never heard of this. If someone is really looking for you, we will definitely not hide it. Is there something in it? misunderstanding?"

Charlie Wade shook his head: "This can't be a misunderstanding. From my heart, I can't accept the explanation of misunderstanding."

As he said, he said with a pious face: "Mrs. Lewis, I'm not here to pursue you. Anyway, you saved my life and raised me for ten years, even if there is something in it, your Charlie Wade will never hate you without telling me."

When Mrs. Lewis heard this, her expression became extremely ashamed.

Charlie Wade continued: "I just want to know, when he came here, why did the orphanage tell him that there is no one like me here? If I remember correctly, what our orphanage has always been looking forward to most is the child's Relatives can come to the door to pick up the child. My dad's best friend comes to me. Why can't I even get my information? Who is hiding my information from him?"

Mrs. Lewis pursed her mouth, looking flustered around. She dared not look into Charlie Wade's eyes, let alone answer Charlie Wade's questions. Charlie Wade had a panoramic view of her performance. He knew that Mrs. Lewis must know the secret.

So he looked at Mrs. Lewis and asked seriously: "Mrs. Lewis, if I guessed correctly, then you should know that I am the young master of the Wade family, right?"

As soon as he said this, the pen in Mrs. Lewis's hand fell to the ground. Charlie Wade thought she got up and was going to pick up the pen, but unexpectedly, she bowed her waist and walked around behind the table, and then knelt in front of him with a plop.

Charlie Wade exclaimed: "Mrs. Lewis, what are you..."

Mrs. Lewis knocked her head on the ground and said bitterly, "Master, I am... I am sorry you..."

One word, Master, made Charlie Wade's whole person struck by lightning! At this moment, he felt as if he was slammed into the heart by a huge force, and the whole person subconsciously took two steps back, and asked in shock: "Mrs. Lewis...you..."

Mrs. Lewis cried and said, "Master, I have always known your identity. I know who you are. I am actually a member of the Wade family. It's just that I have a humble status. I didn't have the chance to serve the Wade family in Eastcliff. The branch of Wade's family is miscellaneous, so you have never seen it before you were eight years old..."

Charlie Wade forced himself to hold his breath and asked, "Mrs. Lewis, did the Wade family ask you to bring me here?"

Mrs. Lewis raised her head, choked with tears on her face: "Master, it was Thompson steward who let me down..."

Charlie Wade was shocked and blurted out: "Is it Stephen Thompson?!"

Chapter 1386

"Yes!" Mrs. Lewis nodded, crying and said: "Back then, I was not permanently stationed in Arouss Hillll, but was arranged to work in Highland Falls. One night, steward Thompson sent someone to urgently take me from Highland Falls to Arouss Hillll, and then let Together with another member of the Wade family, I took over this orphanage. After a few days, we replaced all the staff in the entire orphanage with members of the Wade family. After all arrangements were made, I found you only under Thompson steward's instruction and brought you to the orphanage..." Charlie Wade was extremely shocked!

This is simply the thing he has heard since he was a child, and it makes him feel unbelievable!

I entered this orphanage at the age of eight and lived here for ten years. Only now I know that all the staff in this orphanage were from the Wade family? !

Could it be that he spent the entire childhood and adolescence ignorantly under the supervision of the Wade family? !

He cannot accept this reality. But he knew very well that Mrs. Lewis had never lied to herself! what is this.....

He suppressed his anger and asked her: "Auntie Lewis, I want to know, why do you bother to do this? And also do everything possible to hide my information? What is your purpose?"

Mrs. Lewis cried and said, "Master! The death of your parents was not an accident, but a gangster intended to murder your family of three!"

"What?!" Charlie Wade blurted out, "My parents, were they killed?"

Mrs. Lewis said with a red eye: "Do you remember the details of the year? Your parents rented an old house in Aurouss Hilll incognito, and then they changed your name so that you could study in Aurouss Hilll No. 1 Primary School... ."

Charlie Wade nodded: "I remember that my parents died in a car accident when I was in school, so you mean, my parents were killed by others, right?"

"Yes!" Mrs. Lewis nodded her head: "The group of people who killed your parents in the past faked the scene of the car accident. They immediately prepared to find your whereabouts at Aurouss Hilll No. 1 Elementary School and killed you too. It was the steward Thompson who brought you. He arrived in time and arrested all the people at a small gate in Aurouss Hilll. Originally, he planned to keep them alive, but the other party all took poison and committed suicide. Later, he went through the vine and checked it and found that the other party was all from overseas. Taxi, but the clue is interrupted there."

Charlie Wade asked, "Does he know who killed my parents?"

Mrs. Lewis said, "It's just because they have not been able to find out who the gang was instigated. So, Steward Thompson was afraid that the master behind the scenes would still want to disadvantage you, so he decided to hide your name in Aurouss Hilll, so he sent We came to take charge of the Aurouss Hilll Welfare Institute. While protecting and taking care of you, we also conceal all information about you from the outside world. The only thing we fear is that the other party is not willing to let you go!"

"Was Stephen Thompson instructed by the Wade family to do this?"

"No..." Mrs. Lewis shook her head and said, "Steward Thompson has always suspected that the Wade family may be the ones who secretly harmed your family, so he has kept these things from everyone in the Wade family."

Charlie Wade asked: "Then why did he come to me suddenly some time ago?"

Mrs. Lewis replied: "The master has sent someone to look for you for a long time, but if they haven't found it, they think you are missing. Last year, the master planned to make a formal will to make arrangements for the inheritance of the Wade family's property. The butler did not want you to be excluded, so he told the master about your whereabouts. The master hopes that you can return to Eastcliff and compete with the other descendants of the Wade family to inherit the family business, but he also knows that you may not agree to it. So he sent 10 billion Dollar as a gift..."

Charlie Wade couldn't help asking, "Mrs. Lewis, then you needed a kidney transplant for uremia. Is it true or not?"

When Mrs. Lewis heard this, she shook her head again and again, confessing in her mouth, "Going back to the young master, it's a fake to be sick next...because you grew up with me, and I understand your temperament. If you don't force you, you will not be able to accept the Wade family's funds. That's why I decided to use my dying ill to force you to accept Wade family's money. I would deceive the young master and sin. Death, please master the punishment!"

Chapter 1387

What Mrs. Lewis said is actually correct.

Charlie Wade has undergone tremendous changes since he was a child. He has experienced the best days in the world, and he has also experienced the hardest days. He has already looked down on everything.

Even if he didn't marry Claire Wilson back then, even if he is still working on the construction site now, there is nothing dissatisfied with himself.

Because in his opinion, after the death of his parents, working hard to live is the greatest comfort to them.

As for money and status, he had already forgotten it.

During the years he married Claire Wilson, he suffered humiliation, but he never thought of going back to Wade's house for help. Even if his dignity was rubbed repeatedly by the Wilson family on the ground, he could accept it calmly.

Three years of incomparable humiliation passed, but even though he himself was in the center of this vortex, he was the most peaceful one. But his calmness was completely changed because of Mrs. Lewis's "serious illness".

At that time, he was too afraid of Mrs. Lewis's death.

Because, in his eyes, Mrs. Lewis is his savior, his reborn parents, and his biological parents are already dead, so she must never watch her die. He once went to the hospital and wanted to do a match with Mrs. Lewis, to see his kidneys, and he could successfully match with Mrs. Lewis.

If the matching is successful, he would simply donate a kidney to Mrs. Lewis.

However, the hospital told itself at the time that the matching failed. So, he could only do everything possible to get money to find the source of the kidney for Mrs. Lewis and perform a kidney transplant.

Because of this, he mustered up the courage to borrow money from Mrs. Wilson during her birthday party.

But unexpectedly, the Lady Wilson not only rejected him mercilessly, but also took the entire Wilson family to ridicule herself!

At that time, Charlie Wade was frustrated. It was also at that time that Stephen Thompson suddenly appeared in front of him. The moment he saw him, his heart was very angry.

Although he did not know that his parents were harmed by others, he always felt that the Wade family could not shirk the blame for their parents' death.

And Stephen Thompson, as the housekeeper of the Wade family, can be said to be the one who made him hate the family.

Therefore, when Stephen Thompson asked him to go home and inherit the family property, he refused.

When Stephen Thompson gave him the Emgrand Group and gave him 10 billion, he also refused.

However, when Stephen Thompson told him that Mrs. Lewis's illness still needed two million to save her life, he compromised.

He knew that he had no other way to save Mrs. Lewis apart from accepting the Wade family's money.

Therefore, he accepted the Emgrand Group and the 10 billion cash given by the Wade family.

Since then, Charlie Wade's life trajectory has undergone a major reversal.

However, he never thought that all of this was actually a bitter trick by Stephen Thompson and Mrs. Lewis.

A battle forced himself to accept Wade Family's "gift" or "compensation" tricks.

At this moment, he had been deceived and even betrayed in his heart.

Chapter 1388

But the indignation in his heart was fleeting.

Because he knew that Stephen Thompson and Mrs. Lewis did it for his own good.

If it weren't for them to protect him as deliberately here, he might have died ten years ago.

In order to protect himself, Stephen Thompson did not hesitate to replace the entire Aurouss Hill Welfare Institute with his subordinates. This is enough to show that he has taken his own painstaking care.

Thinking of this, he hurriedly stretched out his hand to support Mrs. Lewis, and said gratefully: "Mrs. Lewis, you don't have to apologize to me, let alone ask me to punish you for your crimes. You and Steward Thompson are my lifesavers. I should thank you. You risked your life to protect me."

Mrs. Lewis waved her hands in a hurry: "Master, you are too polite. These are all things we should do."

Charlie Wade sighed and said, "Mrs. Lewis, I am a little confused now, so I have to call butler Thompson and sort out these clues. After I figure it out, I will come to you again."

Mrs. Lewis said quickly: "Good young master!"

Charlie Wade was uncertain, and said in a panic: "I'll leave Mrs. Lewis first."

Mrs. Lewis hurriedly said, "Master, I will see you off!"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "No, I'll go by myself."

After that, Charlie Wade gave a fist to Mrs. Lewis, bowed slightly, and turned and left the office.

Pushing the electric car, Charlie Wade walked out of the orphanage in despair.

At this time, in the office of the dean on the fourth floor of the orphanage, behind a curtain gap, a middle-aged man in his fifties turned back and looked at the gray-haired old man sitting at the desk, and said respectfully: "Steward Thompson, Master is gone."

It was the dean of Aurouss Hill Welfare Institute.

And the gray-haired old man in the desk was Stephen Thompson, the housekeeper of the Wade family.

Hearing that Charlie Wade was gone, Stephen Thompson nodded lightly and sighed: "I have a thousand fortunes, and I didn't even know that the young master would invite Sun's girl to speak with him. Upon hearing the news, I immediately rushed over from Eastcliff. , But it's still late..." The dean asked him: "Steward Thompson, there is something unclear below." "You said."

The dean said in confusion: "Mrs. Lewis doesn't know this at all. Why do you want her to recite this line of lines to lie to the young master?"

After speaking, he said again: "At the beginning I did propose to choose a suitable woman from reliable servants to take care of the young master, but you must disagree, I must hire someone from the society who knows nothing. Volunteer, I just recruited Mrs. Lewis. She is the only staff member in the entire orphanage, but why do you have to tell her to lie now? Would you like to tell her this, what is she? I don't know. No matter how much the young master questioned her, it would be impossible to get any information. She didn't know anything, and naturally, the young master would not see any clues!"

Stephen Thompson said with emotion: "The reason why he didn't agree to use Wade's servants to take care of the young master was because he was afraid that the young master would see the flaws when she gets along with the young master day and night."

"Think about it. This person has to take care of the young master for ten years. What if he accidentally misses his mouth at any time and calls out the young master? What if he takes a nap one day and says something that shouldn't be said in a dream? What should I do? The young master was only eight years old. I definitely can't let him know that everything around him was arranged by others!"

"Because of this, I want someone who doesn't know him to take care of him personally. Only in this way can he live in it and live the life of an ordinary orphan; because of this, he has not eaten well and dressed well these years. It's not good, it's not used well, even though I'm terribly upset, I don't dare to give him any more care; because of this, he was excluded, isolated, and humiliated by other children in the orphanage, and I dare not let you intervene."

Speaking of this, Stephen Thompson sighed: "If it weren't for seeing him wanting to treat that Mrs. Lewis, I really don't know how to persuade the young master to accept the gift from the old man."

"What about now?" The dean said nervously, "Young Master knows this from Mrs. Lewis. He will contact you immediately and find a way to find out who killed his parents. He might even return to Eastcliff, if someone in the Wade family is unfavorable to him, can the young master resist it?"

Stephen Thompson said indifferently: "The young master has a title in Aurouss Hilll, called the real dragon on earth. This was not created by the young master himself. It was spontaneously sent to him by figures like Aurouss Hilll who have a head and face. This proves that the young master is by no means weak. He's not an ordinary person. If you want to deal with it, you can deal with it!"

After that, he said in a deep voice, "Although the old man's body is not very good, he can still carry it for a few more years. I originally didn't want the young master to return to Eastcliff so early, but I never dreamed that he would meet Sun's girl..."

"Sun's father and daughter have been looking for him for so many years. Once they come across, they will inevitably tell him what happened. By then, the young master will naturally know that there is some manipulation behind all this, and the facts have proved that I guessed right. So, instead of this, why bother keep hiding from the young master? Moreover, in this orphanage, he has been the closest to Mrs. Lewis since he was a child. These words are spoken from her mouth, and the effect is much better than that from mine. Only this way in order to encourage the young master to return to Eastcliff and go to Wade's house to stir him upside down!"

Speaking of this, Stephen Thompson was already in tears. He trembled and said: "Old and incompetent, he can't repay the second son's blood. Now, let the young master personally repay the second son and the second wife for this hatred! In that case, The old man is dead, and he can look down!"

Chapter 1389

As soon as Stephen Thompson's voice fell, his mobile phone suddenly vibrated on the desktop.

The call was from Charlie Wade.

He hurriedly wiped away his tears, pretending to be a normal call, and respectfully said: "Master!"

Charlie Wade pushed out of the orphanage at this time. On the side of the road at the entrance of the orphanage, holding the phone in his hand, he said, "Steward Thompson, thank you for all these years."

Stephen Thompson hurriedly said, "Master, what are you talking about? Why don't you understand me?"

Charlie Wade said: "I just came out of Aurouss Hilll Welfare Institute."

Stephen Thompson smiled and said, "It turns out that you have returned to the orphanage, Master. After all, it is the place where you lived, Master, must be very affectionate."

Charlie Wade said calmly: "Okay, don't pretend, Mrs. Lewis has already told me that you asked Mrs. Lewis to rescue me, and you arranged the entire Aurouss Hilll Welfare Institute to protect my safety. I will always remember it."

Stephen Thompson sighed softly, "Master, do you know everything?"

"Well, I know, so I called to thank you."

Charlie Wade didn't know that there was a little secret in it.

But at this moment, he did thank Stephen Thompson very much.

Stephen Thompson said hurriedly, "Master, you are serious. Your father is kind to me. I failed to save your father and mother. In this life, he cannot forgive himself, let alone thank you..."

Charlie Wade said: "I called, besides thank you, there is one more thing, that is, I want to know who my parents were killed in those years. Do you have any clues?"

Stephen Thompson sighed, "I have been looking for clues for so many years, but I haven't been able to find any clues..."

"Moreover, when the group of dead men killed your parents, they all had soft capsules made of potassium cyanide in their mouths..."

"This kind of cyanide has been a highly toxic substance specially used by agents since the First World War. 0.1 gram can kill people, and there is no cure..."

"Back then, I saw them die in front of me, but there was nothing I could do. I wanted to check their fingerprints, but I found that their ten fingers had been artificially erased, and there was no clue from them. Let alone find out the identity, even the nationality cannot be judged."

Charlie Wade asked: "Then do you have any suspects?"

Stephen Thompson said, "This...I think there is a 50% possibility that someone from the Wade family did it."

"Oh?" Charlie Wade asked coldly, "Why do you say that?"

Stephen Thompson said: "Your father, who was extraordinary and heroic in Eastcliff back then, was the rising star of the entire Wade family. He led the Wade family to open up the frontiers and expand the land, slash to the top, and lead the Wade family to the peak. But because of this, he was hated by others. Later, I had some frictions with top Western families, and then he was framed by others. Later, he had a disagreement with the master and left the Wade family in a rage.."

"At the beginning, the master thought your father was just impulsive, so he wanted him to take the opportunity to calm down, but he did not think that your father and your mother would die unexpectedly in Aurouss Hilll.."

"Since then, the master has been deeply saddened, and he wanted to find your whereabouts and bring you back to cultivate with him. He even hoped to train you into the next generation because of the guilt of your father."

Chapter 1390

"However, in the next life, I am afraid that someone in the Wade family will be disadvantaged to you. After all, the old man is too old. If he takes you back to the Wade family and exposes you to the Wade family members, he may not be able to protect you comprehensively, so I made a private opinion. Settled you in Aurouss Hilll, and then completely concealed your information. When Orrin Sun from the Sun family came to see you, I did not let him know that you were here."

Charlie Wade asked again: "Then why did you find me back some time ago?"

Stephen Thompson said earnestly: "Master, let me tell you that the master's health has been getting worse and worse in the past two years. However, he is quite dissatisfied with the status quo of the Wade family's sons not seeking to make progress, and is not willing to hand over the Wade family to them. I told him that you are still alive. The master is naturally very excited. So I want to train you as an heir. The Emgrand Group and 10 billion are just practicing. In the future, when you are willing to go back, the Wade family's trillions of wealth may be handed over. I'll be responsible for you!"

Charlie Wade said lightly: "I know about Steward Thompson, for so many years, I have hated you."

Stephen Thompson said hurriedly, "Master, I am ashamed to be too shameful! Your father is so kind to me, not to say that this little thing is to make him feel bad, and he will never hesitate!"

Charlie Wade said with emotion: "I am not interested in the assets of the Wade family, but when the time is right, I will definitely investigate the hidden circumstances of my parents who were killed in the past. At that time, the liquidation should be liquidated, and the life should be paid."

Stephen Thompson was very excited, and said with a trembling: "Master! With your words, you will die in the next! You are now the supreme of Aurouss Hilll, the true dragon on earth. I believe that with your strength, you can definitely be the Revenge of second son and the second wife!"

At this point, Stephen Thompson was already crying.

At that time, Stephen Thompson had not yet become a housekeeper in Wade's house. He was an assistant to Charlie Wade's father. He was worried by friends because of his rich income. He deceived him to Macau and lost his fortune at the gambling table.

Stephen Thompson then degenerates into a bad gambler, borrowing loan sharks everywhere to go to Macau casinos in vain to make a comeback, and the result gets deeper and deeper.

In the end, Stephen Thompson not only lost everything, but was also chased by loan sharks. When he was desperate, he pressed his hands in the casino, but he didn't expect that his hands were also lost.

According to the rules of the arena of Macau, in the casino, no matter what you lose, you must be willing to bet. And because of this, in the corner of the casino near the casino, I don't know how many gambling ghosts live by begging.

But even so, these gamblers are still frugal, and want to save a little money and then enter the casino to play, their lives have been completely abolished.

Stephen Thompson at that time almost fell to this point.

Later, it was Charlie Wade's father who threw tens of millions to redeem him from the casino intact, and then forced him to take an oath to never bet.

In order to ensure that he completely quit gambling and landed ashore, Charlie Wade's father specially promoted him and made him his personal butler, bringing him by his side at all times, and would never allow him to touch any more gambling games.

Since then, Stephen Thompson has come to his senses and wholeheartedly assisted Charlie Wade's father. Not only did he do his best to help Charlie Wade's father, he also learned a lot of valuable management and development experience from Charlie Wade's father. He grew up in a few years. For the most capable servant of the Wade Family.

Then, he was appreciated by Charlie Wade's grandfather. The old man had the intention to make him the steward of the entire Wade family, but he didn't agree with it, and in the end Charlie Wade's father forced him to agree to the job.

In the words of Charlie Wade's father, Stephen Thompson has reached his abilities, he should no longer be limited to being his own little personal butler, and should have a broader development space.

In his opinion, the housekeeper of the entire Wade family can be said to be the highest position that the upper class can give to outsiders.

Stephen Thompson can sit in this position, and he can protect his glory and wealth in this life. He does not want Stephen Thompson to do it for himself. , Give up this godsend opportunity.

Although Stephen Thompson was no longer Charlie Wade's father's personal butler, he became more and more loyal to Charlie Wade's father, and even regarded him as the object of his life looking up and assisting him.

It's a pity that Charlie Wade's father left too early, which is also Stephen Thompson's greatest guilt in this life.

He always felt that if he was still Charlie Wade's father's personal butler, then maybe Charlie Wade's parents would not die.

Even if they can block a few shots for them in a critical moment, they can still have one more chance of survival...

Chapter 1391

Thinking of the old things, Stephen Thompson couldn't help but cry.

Charlie Wade's heart throbbed as he heard his crying.

Although many years have passed, Charlie Wade's heart is also extremely painful and resentful when he thinks that his parents died not by accident but by fate.

As a son of man, the hatred of parents is not shared!

Don't need Stephen Thompson to say this hatred, he will definitely do his best to repay it!

Otherwise, it is really a waste of man!

So, his voice said indifferently: "Steward Thompson, don't worry about this. Charlie Wade swears to God that I will avenge my parents by myself!

All those who participated in the murder of my parents back then counted as one. I won't let it go!"

"That's good!" Stephen Thompson was very excited, but he said seriously: "Master, you must not be impulsive about this matter. There are many clues behind this that I haven't sorted out yet, so I still think about it for a long time. Don't expose yourself early..."

Charlie Wade said, "I know, don't worry."

After speaking, Charlie Wade said again: "I have another question, I hope you answer it truthfully."

Stephen Thompson said immediately, "Master, just ask!"

Charlie Wade pondered for a moment and asked, "My wife, Claire Wilson Wilson, did you arrange it?"

Stephen Thompson hurriedly said: "This is really not...I also know your wife's grandfather. I really didn't expect that he could meet you at the construction site where you work, knowing that he wants you to marry his granddaughter. At that time, although I knew that his granddaughter was not worthy of you, I did not stop him at that time, because I just wanted to protect your safety and did not want to interfere with your life."

Charlie Wade breathed a sigh of relief.

He knew that his childhood in the orphanage was Stephen Thompson's arrangement, so he was afraid that he would meet Claire Wilson Wilson and it was his arrangement.

So he said to Stephen Thompson: "Steward Thompson, come here first. I have an appointment tonight. You can help me sort out the clues you have these days. If I have the opportunity, I will talk to you in person."

"Good master!"

Charlie Wade hung up the phone, only then realized that two lines of tears flowed unconsciously on his cheeks. He only learned today that it turned out that more than ten years ago, his parents were murdered by bad men.

He only learned today that it turned out that more than ten years ago, the orphanage he lived in was completely arranged by Stephen Thompson, in order to completely hide all his information.

The world today has undergone earth-shaking changes in his eyes, as if the whole world has become unfamiliar. The last time I felt this way, it was the moment when I accidentally got the Apocalyptic Book; And the last time I felt this way was when I was eight years old, when I learned of my parents' death.

Just when he was lost, Liam called and said, "Master Wade, when will you come? Do you want me to pick you up by car?"

"No need." Charlie Wade said: "I will pick up my wife now, and then I will pass. You will wait for me for a while." After speaking, he hung up the phone and rode a small electric bike to Claire Wilson Wilson's studio.

.....

At the same time, the office of the dean of the Aurouss Hilll Welfare Institute.

Chapter 1392

Seeing Stephen Thompson finished the call, the dean respectfully asked, "Steward Thompson, what should I do now?"

Stephen Thompson sighed, and said, "Since the young master already knows, you don't need to stay in the orphanage anymore. In the future, you should return to the post of the Wade family. I will settle down for you. Over the years, Thanks for your hard work!"

The dean immediately bowed and said: "Steward Thompson, the second son has been waiting for me as a mountain before his death. I will wait to serve Young Master Charlie Wade, and I will die!"

Stephen Thompson nodded and said, "You are all elites who have worked so hard to cultivate for many years. For more than ten years, condescending to be in a small orphanage has not only worked hard for you, but also felt wronged. Take a good rest during this time. "

"When the young master inherits the Wade family one day, you will all be the servants of the young master, and then you will be loyal to the young master!"

"You guys grew up watching the young master. He is kind, upright, and good. If one day he can control the Wade family, I believe he will never treat you badly."

The dean immediately nodded and said: "This is also because the young master has suffered a lot since childhood, so he has this precious quality. This quality in him is something I can't see in all the rich second generations."

Stephen Thompson smiled slightly: "Therefore, it may not be a bad thing to let the young master suffer in the orphanage back then. The young master is the only son of the second son after all. Not worse than the second son!"

After all, Stephen Thompson waved his hand and said happily: "Okay, I'm back to Eastcliff, you have a meeting with everyone these few days, and then hand over the orphanage to the relevant departments in Aurouss Hilll. I will meet tomorrow. I'll give you a sum of money. You will go back to meet your family first, and then find a comfortable resort to rest and rest."

The dean bowed again: "Thank you Steward Thompson!"

After speaking, he asked again: "By the way, Steward Thompson, what should Mrs. Lewis do? She didn't know anything before, but now she already knows a lot of inside information."

Stephen Thompson said: "She has taken care of her young master for so many years, and she is not too young. It is time to retire and take care of her life. I have a manor in Canada, so I will give it to her for retirement. Don't let her in the future. Goodbye, Master, and wait until Master successfully inherits the Wade family."

The dean said: "Mrs. Lewis also has an adopted daughter who also works in an orphanage. She is an orphan who grew up with the young master. She still doesn't know anything about this. I'm afraid Mrs. Lewis will not let her go."

Stephen Thompson sighed and said, "Talk to the girl, tell her something selectively, and then let her accompany her adoptive mother to Canada. There are many Chinese people there, and the language requirements are not high. The mother and daughter can start a new life quickly over there. I have investigated the girl's background, she is very clean, and she likes the young master and will never do anything against the young master."

"it is good!"

This night, the Aurouss Hilll Welfare Institute suddenly completed a major exchange of blood. Everyone was muffled, packing their luggage and things, and the city staff also rushed over to take over with the original team.

No one knows why the management team of a welfare institution suddenly had to replace all the staff from the dean to the chef. Could it be that these people made any big mistakes?

But they couldn't imagine that these people were like a disciplined army. They had already fought this protracted war, and now it was time to exit the battlefield in an orderly manner.

Although Mrs. Lewis was very reluctant to give up, she also knew very well that before, she was the same as Charlie Wade and didn't know these things, but now she already knows some inside stories and knows that Charlie Wade's true identity belongs to the Wade family. Master.

Therefore, she also knew that she couldn't stay here anymore.

Now that you know this information, you can't say you've been dragged into the water, but at least you can't be alone.

Now that he has been brought into this group, he must obey the instructions of the Wade family.

As a result, she also made a decision to listen to the dean's order and go to Canada to recuperate temporarily.

As for Lisa, Mrs. Lewis did not tell her the truth, but only told her that the great benevolent who had funded her medical treatment before, and she had also funded herself to go abroad for a period of recuperation, she had no relatives, so she hoped that Lisa could be with her.

Lisa treated Mrs. Lewis as her biological mother, and naturally agreed without hesitation, so she also started packing up and preparing to go abroad with her.

Mrs. Lewis thought, after she arrived in Canada, she would tell Lisa these things.

Chapter 1393

Charlie Wade rode his electric bike to his wife's studio. As soon as he walked in, Claire Wilson Wilson asked in surprise: "My husband, why are your eyes red?"

"is it?"

Charlie Wade said, stretched out his hands and rubbed his eyes, and said with a smile: "The wind and sand on the road just now lost my eyes."

Claire Wilson Wilson said distressedly: "Don't always go out on an electric bike. You bought two cars for your family, but you also let you ride an electric bike every day. I feel so sorry."

"It's okay." Charlie Wade smiled and said casually: "I like riding an electric bike, which is convenient, fast, simple, and environmentally friendly."

Claire Wilson Wilson smiled helplessly: "You, what you say from your mouth seems to be indifferent."

With that, she turned off her computer, stood up and said, "I just finished a case of the Emgrand Group today. Mr. Doris Young, Mr. White, is very happy to let the finances pay, or I'll buy you a car. This way you will also have mobility tools in the future."

"No need, if I really want to drive, I would have taken the two supercars from Mr. White and Quinton long ago."

Seeing that he was not joking, Claire Wilson Wilson had no choice but to say: "Okay, let me know when you have enough electric bikes."

Charlie Wade said, "My wife, we have to go quickly. I have an appointment for a dinner tonight."

Claire Wilson Wilson asked in astonishment: "Who did you date tonight? You don't say anything, it's mysterious."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "I have an appointment with a distinguished guest. I'll know when you arrive."

"Guest?" Claire Wilson Wilson asked puzzlingly, "Is it one of your feng shui customers again?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Well, it needs to be kept secret for the time being. You will know when you follow me."

"Okay." Claire Wilson Wilson nodded and said, "Then I will follow you to eat dinner at night."

Afterwards, the couple left the studio and came to the parking lot.

Charlie Wade put his foldable ebike into the trunk of Claire Wilson Wilson's BMW car, and then the two drove to Shangri-La together.

At this moment, Liam is accompanying Stefanie Sun and Cherie to sit down and chat in the top luxury box.

Cameron Isaac heard that Liam said that Master Wade would be hosting a banquet here today, and he had already made perfect preparations. He heard that the guests had arrived, so he came to the box himself.

After buckling the door and entering the box, Cameron Isaac was stunned. He never dreamed that the person sitting in the box turned out to be Miss Sun from Eastcliff, the most popular female star in China, Stefanie Sun. After all, Cameron Isaac is the spokesperson of the Wade family in Aurouss Hilll, and can be regarded as the middle and high level of the Wade family's subordinates, so he knows the Eastcliff family very well and naturally knows the background of Stefanie Sun.

Seeing that she was actually here, Cameron Isaac gave a thud in his heart.

Is she the one that the young master will entertain tonight?

Everyone in Eastcliff knows that Stefanie Sun is the baby relative of her young master, and she also knows that Stefanie Sun's family has been looking for her young master's whereabouts.

Looking at this posture, she should have found the young master. However, the young master is obviously already married. Isn't this a bit embarrassing?

Chapter 1394

Being embarrassed, Stefanie looked at him with a dark face, and blurted out: "Cameron Isaac! Did you know that my Charlie Wade is in Aurouss Hilll?"

"Ah? Uh...this..." Cameron Isaac suddenly didn't know how to answer, he couldn't tell why.

Stefanie bit her little white teeth and said angrily: "You guy is too unreliable. I have asked you about the whereabouts of Charlie Wade so many times, and you haven't had a word of truth!"

Cameron Isaac said embarrassingly: "Miss Sun, you really misunderstood me. I just learned not long ago that the young master was in Aurouss Hilll. I have been in Aurouss Hilll for so long on behalf of the Wade family. I have never heard of it before."

Cherie asked in surprise: "What the hell?! Stefanie, you said that Charlie Wade, Mr. Wade, is the Charlie Wade you've been looking for?"

Stefanie nodded, and said seriously: "That's right! This bad guy made me find it hard to find him!"

Cherie said in surprise: "Oh! That's great! You finally found him, wouldn't you be able to get married soon? I remember you always said that as long as you find your Charlie Wade brother, you will immediately Quit the entertainment industry, then marry him and have children."

Stefanie's face turned red immediately, and she said shyly: "I...I think...but...but that bad guy is married.."

"Damn!" Cherie immediately exploded and blurted out: "What the hell is going on with this deflated calf surnamed Wade? Didn't he know he had a marriage contract? Didn't he know that he had a beautiful fiancée, Have you been looking for him? How dare you marry another woman, when he comes, you see, I won't scold him! What a contemporary!"

Liam and Cameron Isaac looked at each other, their expressions were very embarrassing.

It was at this time that Liam learned about the relationship between Stefanie and Master Wade, and he was naturally shocked.

Chapter 1395

At this time, he just listened to Stefanie saying: "A lot, Charlie Wade's wife will also come later, I promised that Charlie Wade will not reveal the relationship between the two of us at the dinner table, so you must not mess around then and speak."

"How can it be done!" Cherie said indignantly: "When that bastard wife is also here, you should seize the opportunity and directly expose the matter in front of his wife, so that his wife can realize it. I don't believe it anymore. Which woman would dare to steal her husband from you, Stefanie Sun!"

"Oh no!"

Stefanie Sun said very solemnly: "I have promised Charlie Wade about this matter. If you dare to make me break your promise, I will not forgive you back!"

Cherie blurted out: "Hey, Stefanie, are you stupid? This meal is the best opportunity for you to drive away his original partner. You must take it well, or you will regret it in the future!"

"You don't come here!" Stefanie said seriously: "I am a person who always promises and speaks for words. You are not allowed to make trouble for me."

"Okay, okay." Cherie said helplessly: "You have decided. Don't regret it in the future."

At this time, Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson had also arrived outside the box.

Before entering the door, Claire Wilson Wilson still asked him: "Who is the guest I want to meet? It's so mysterious."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Don't worry, you are definitely one of the people you want to see most."

"The person I want to meet the most?" Claire Wilson Wilson frowned slightly, "I can't think of who I want to see the most now."

Charlie Wade smiled: "I'll know if you go in."

With that, he knocked gently on the door, and then pushed the box door inward.

Claire Wilson Wilson saw at a glance, Stefanie Sun, who was sitting facing the door of the luxurious box, was stunned at this moment!

"Charlie Wade, is it Stefanie Sun? Is it really Stefanie Sun?"

Chapter 1396

At this time, Claire Wilson Wilson had no intention of guarding against Stefanie Sun, who was like a fairy.

In her eyes, Stefanie Sun is the perfect display of contemporary women. A woman like her who is extremely good in all aspects has no mundane smoke and fire smell on her body.

Therefore, she had never thought that such a woman would be her potential rival in love.

Charlie Wade was also relieved at this time. He planned to quietly go to Eastcliff after Aurora finished the finals, and quietly see Stefanie's father Orrin.

Seeing that Orrin was not the goal, it was his real goal to cure his advanced pancreatic cancer.

He is a good brother of his father. For so many years, he has not only paid homage to his parents every New Year's Day, but also has not relaxed for a moment, and has not given up on finding his whereabouts. This kindness must be repaid by himself.

It just so happened that I could also take this opportunity to meet Stephen Thompson in Eastcliff and find him for more clues and information.

Therefore, it will take at least three to five days to go to Eastcliff. To be away from home for three or five days, you can't make your wife suspicious. The best excuse is to be invited by Stefanie Sun to go to Eastcliff to show her feng shui at home.

Stefanie spoke out the invitation in front of his wife, so that the wife would no longer doubt.

Chapter 1397

Seeing Claire Wilson Wilson's willingness to agree, Stefanie nodded happily, and said with a smile: "I didn't expect Mrs. Wade to be so refreshing. I am worried that you will disagree."

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly said: "Ms. Sun, you can recognize my husband's ability. I am too happy to have time. How could I disagree? Just in case my husband is not doing well enough, please bear with me." "How come!" Stefanie said with a smile: "I recognize Mr. Wade's abilities very much, and I believe that my father and my family are the same, so I would like to thank Mrs. Wade for fulfilling this matter!"

Claire Wilson Wilson was a little flattered, and hurriedly said, "Miss Sun, you are so polite."

Seeing that Stefanie kept using such ulterior motives to release some kind of signal in secret, Charlie Wade couldn't help feeling helpless and depressed.

He knew that this was what Stefanie said to himself, and at the same time it was told to Claire Wilson Wilson cryptically, and it could even be understood that this was a demonstration of her to Claire Wilson Wilson in front of her.

However, I just couldn't do anything about it.

After all, all this is because I owe Stefanie, and I also betrayed the marriage contract made by both parents in the past. I have no face to accuse her anyway.

Moreover, what made Charlie Wade even more depressed was that he could not simply refuse Stefanie like he refused Loreen.

Although Loreen liked him, he did not owe Loreen any love, but saved her life many times, so even if he rejected her straightforwardly every time, Charlie Wade would not have any psychological burden.

But Stefanie is different after all.

She is my own baby relatives. She has been looking for me, waiting for me, and looking forward to me for so many years, but I have failed others. This kind of thing is my fault.

At this time, Claire Wilson Wilson, who was in the dark, mustered up the courage to say to Stefanie: "Miss Sun, I... can I take a photo with you?"

Stefanie readily agreed, and smiled and said, "Okay! Shoot now?"
Claire Wilson Wilson nodded busy: "If it is convenient for you, then shoot now!"

Stefanie nodded, took the initiative to move her chair, leaned closer to Claire Wilson Wilson, and said with a smile: "Mrs. Wade is so beautiful, it is still very stressful to take a photo with you."

"How come..." Claire Wilson Wilson said awkwardly: "I am under pressure. Miss Sun is not only beautiful, but also a top domestic star. In front of you, I will inevitably feel embarrassed... ."

Chapter 1398

Stefanie smiled slightly: "Come on, I'll be a little bit ahead, so that you can make your face smaller and better."

The two women took a selfie together like sisters.

After the filming, Claire Wilson Wilson held the phone and asked excitedly: "Miss Sun, I... can I post this photo to Moments?"

Claire Wilson Wilson herself is a woman without any vanity.

When Charlie Wade bought her a BMW car, she never posted it to Moments; Charlie Wade organized her wedding in the Hanging Garden of Shangri-La, and she never posted it to Moments;

Charlie Wade took her to experience tens of millions of super sports cars, but she still hasn't posted to Moments;

Even if she lives in a top-notch mansion like Thompson First, she still hasn't posted to Moments.

The only "show off" in the circle of friends was the vegetable garden built by her husband Charlie Wade overnight.

But this time, she really couldn't hold back.

After all, Stefanie Sun is her favorite female celebrity and her idol.

She can eat with her idols, and even take photos with her idols. How many times can I encounter this kind of thing in a lifetime?

Stefanie also nodded and smiled generously: "Of course, Mrs. Wade, please."

Claire Wilson Wilson got Stefanie's consent and immediately thanked her happily. Then she opened her WeChat account and posted the photo to her circle of friends.

The essay she wrote to Moments is: "I never dreamed that I would have the opportunity to meet my idol and take a photo with her!"

This photo has been sent out, and it has received numerous likes and comments.

Claire Wilson Wilson's social circle has never left Arouss Hilll. For Arouss Hilll, a second-tier city, there are not many opportunities to meet first-tier stars.

Especially the super first-line top stars like Stefanie Sun are extremely difficult to see.

Therefore, Claire Wilson Wilson's circle of friends has aroused the amazement and envy of countless people.

Many people even chatted with her privately, asking about the details of her meeting with Stefanie Sun, such as where she is now, whether Stefanie Sun is in Arouss Hilll, and can she help ask for a signed photo of Stefanie Sun, etc.

Stefanie on the side smiled and said, "Mrs. Wade, this time I came to Arouss Hilll and didn't let the outside world know, so if someone asks, you must not say that I am in Arouss Hilll."

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded hurriedly: "I know Miss Sun, don't worry, I will never reveal it!"

Stefanie nodded and said with a smile: "By the way, Mrs. Wade, let's add on WeChat friends as well. You can contact me directly on WeChat if you have anything in the future."

"Add friends?!" Claire Wilson Wilson exclaimed: "You want to add my WeChat friends?"

Claire Wilson Wilson dared to believe her idol and took the initiative to add her WeChat friend. She hadn't had this idea before. If she could add Stefanie Sun as a friend, even if she had no time to take care of herself, she could often see her in her circle of friends and see her latest developments.

However, she later thought that after all, she and Stefanie are in a disparity in status. It is already a great fortune to have a meal together. How embarrassed to add someone else to WeChat friends?

But she never expected that Stefanie would take the initiative to add her as a friend, and be able to become a WeChat friend with an idol. This is something she would never dream of!

Chapter 1399

After Stefanie and Claire Wilson Wilson added their WeChat friends, they looked at Charlie Wade and said with a smile: "By the way, Master Wade, let's add a friend too."

After that, she handed her WeChat QR code to Charlie Wade.

Charlie Wade had to take out his mobile phone, scanned it, and added her as a friend.

Stefanie winked at him with a successful face, and then asked him sternly, "Master Wade, when will you be able to leave for Eastcliff? Can you tell me about the time so I can prepare."

Charlie Wade said: "Next week, but I still can't decide the exact time." Stefanie nodded and smiled and said, "Master Wade, then my father and I will be waiting for you in Eastcliff!"

Charlie Wade suddenly thought of what Stefanie had said before, saying that after arriving in Eastcliff and seeing his father, he watched his father not beat him up.

Hey, the more I think about it, the more shameless I am to see her father Orrin Sun.

Just when Charlie Wade was having headaches for Sun's father and daughter, in the intensive care unit of Aurouss Hilll First People's Hospital, Nanako Ito and her assistant Koichi Tanaka, as well as Jiro Kobayashi of the Kobayashi family, stood motionless and stood by Nanako Ito. Both sides of the hospital bed of the coach and Kazuki Yamamoto. Yamamoto Kazuki on the hospital bed looked extremely haggard.

The doctor had just performed a third full-body examination on him, and once again confirmed that his nervous system was severely injured and there was almost no possibility of recovery.

As for the bloody East Asian sick man on his forehead, 4 big characters. Still eye-catching.

Nanako Ito hopes that the doctor can use gauze to cover Kazuki Yamamoto's forehead, so as not to further stimulate her teacher.

However, Yamamoto Kazuki firmly rejected the proposal.

The four ugly characters that Don Albertt left on his forehead can be said to be the greatest shame in his life, but they are also the most profound lesson in his life.

Before Charlie Wade defeated him with a palm, Yamamoto Kazuki still felt that he was a world-class martial arts master.

It wasn't until Charlie Wade's palm that he realized that he was just a tiny ant on the way to martial arts.

But everyone who is dedicated to martial arts has a sense of integrity. Even if they lose, most people are willing to gamble and surrender.

What's more, even if they are missed to death in a competition, they can be calm before dying. face.

Although Yamamoto Kazuki's mind was not so broad, he was convinced at the bottom of his heart when he thought of Charlie Wade's terrifying strength.

At this time, Nanako Ito looked at him sadly, and said: "Master, I have communicated with my father. He will contact the best hospitals and doctors in Tokyo to help you treat and recover, and there will be a special plane to pick you up tomorrow. You go back to Japan!"

Chapter 1400

"No, I won't go!" Yamamoto Kazuki couldn't move, but he could gently shake his head.

At this time, he said hoarsely: "My injury cannot be cured by a doctor, and I cannot be better than here when I return to Japan. As your master, I cannot leave you here alone. I want to After participating in the competition with you, I will return to Japan with you."

Nanako Ito hurriedly said: "Master, I may not be able to win the championship in this competition. I watched the video of Aurora's competition after today's competition. Her strength is much stronger than the last time. To a talented player like Joanna, it may take a long battle to win the battle, but Aurora faced Joanna and defeated her with just one move. This kind of strength is far beyond me..."

Yamamoto Kazuki sighed: "I watched the live broadcast of Aurora's match at the hospital and also on the Chinese mobile phone video network. Her current strength is indeed very strong. It is more than several times stronger than when she was in the last match! I really can't imagine that a person can make such huge progress in such a short period of time! This has simply subverted my perception!"

Nanako Ito said seriously: "I think this should be related to her coach Charlie Wade. Charlie Wade only started to be her coach during the last match."

Yamamoto Kazuki thought of Charlie Wade, and couldn't help feeling: "This Charlie Wade is really the martial arts master of the world! It seems that he is the legendary inner disciple who can practice internal strength in Chinese martial arts! I used to think that those were all lie. Yes, I really understand today!"

On the side, Jiro Kobayashi said: "I have studied ancient Chinese medical books and ancient books. The earliest "Huang Di Nei" in China contains a description of internal chi. There is also a special article about how to carry out internal chi in the body. It can be seen from this that the Chinese have been practicing internal strength thousands of years ago."

Yamamoto Kazuki said with a fascinating look: "I really didn't expect that there is such a thing as internal power in the world. If I could know this 10 or 20 years earlier, then I must come to China and visit all of China. The famous Sichuan Dashan, worship a real master as a teacher, concentrate on learning internal power..."

Having said this, Yamamoto Kazuki sighed again: "It's a pity that I learned too late..."

After a pause, two lines of tears rolled down the deeply wrinkled face.

Nanako Ito couldn't help crying when she saw the miserable end of her mentor.

At this time, Yamamoto Kazuki looked at her with a bit of enthusiasm in his eyes and said: "Nanako! To this day, I am no longer qualified to be your teacher, if you wish to have a greater career in martial arts. For the breakthrough and progress of the world, then you must find a way to worship Charlie Wade as your teacher!"

"What?!" Nanako Ito blurted out exclaimed: "Worship him as a teacher?! I...I shouldn't! Nanako has only one mentor in this life, and that's you! Besides you, Nanako will never again Worship other people as teachers!"

"Stupid!" Yamamoto Kazuki shouted angrily, "What can I teach you like this? Don't say that I am a cripple now. Even if I am not a cripple, what I can teach you has already been taught to you. The rest is nothing more than some so-called actual combat experience."

"But if you look at my current fate, you will know the actual combat experience. In front of real masters, in front of absolute power, it has no meaning at all. An ant, even if it has experience in biting and fighting, is just It is effective against other ants, but in front of a human, it still can't resist a finger of the opponent!"

"And Charlie Wade made me realize that when I was in the martial arts, I was a complete ant. As the apprentice I taught, you haven't been able to come out of the blue. This proves that you are just like me, but just martial arts. The ants on the way!"

Speaking of this, Yamamoto Kazuki excitedly asked Nanako Ito with a hot eye: "Nanako, you have been obsessed with martial arts for nearly 20 years. Are you willing to be an ant on the way to martial arts?"

When Nanako Ito heard this, she bit her lower lip and said word by word: "Master, Nanako is not willing to be an ant!"

Yamamoto Kazuki immediately said loudly: "Then go to worship Charlie Wade as a teacher! Let him teach you the real martial arts, only in this way can you have the opportunity to grow into a real strong, otherwise, I advise you to give up the so-called now Forget about the martial arts, because the so-called martial arts we pursue, compared with Charlie Wade, is simply rubbish among rubbish!"

Chapter 1401

On the way home, Charlie Wade drove, and Claire Wilson Wilson sat in the co-pilot, still excited.

Her circle of friends has completely exploded today, and countless people like and commented, envious of her having such good luck to be able to eat with the most popular female star Stefanie Sun.

Claire Wilson Wilson kept bowing his head, fiddling with his mobile phone, his expression of excitement was beyond words.

After replying to the comments of a few friends, she looked at Charlie Wade with a look of admiration, and blurted out: "Husband, I only found out today that you are really amazing. I didn't expect that even big stars like Stefanie Sun would appreciate you watching Feng Shui. Do you really have a few brushes besides fools?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "I never said that I think Feng Shui is a fool, but you, dad and mom always think I am fooling. People, Feng Shui is the essence left by the ancestors, and there are traces to follow."

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded and said seriously: "I know that Feng Shui was left by the ancestors, and I believe it. I just don't believe in Feng Shui, you can watch Feng Shui."

Charlie Wade was not convinced, and asked her, "Why don't you believe that I would watch Feng Shui?"

Claire Wilson Wilson said, "Because I know you! Like yourself That said, you grew up in the orphanage, and the orphanage does not teach people how to look at Feng Shui. After you came out of the orphanage, you went to work on the construction site, and then my grandfather asked me to marry you. You have been Doing housework at home, I never saw you ever learn Feng Shui."

Charlie Wade said with a smile, "Feng Shui is something like research. When you were at work, I liked to study gossip when I was fine at home. If you have more, you will understand."

In fact, Charlie Wade really didn't know much about Feng Shui before getting the Apocalyptic Book.

He only learned some Wing Chun when he was young. After all, the Wade Family Ancestor has the inheritance of martial arts.

Charlie Wade's current medical skills, alchemy techniques, geomantic occult techniques, and even those somewhat mysterious metaphysical techniques, were all obtained from the Apocalyptic Book.

But this was the biggest secret in his life. He couldn't tell his wife Claire Wilson Wilson, and he might not even tell a second person about it in his entire life.

In addition to the Apocalyptic Book, the second biggest secret in life is his identity as the Wade Family Master.

However, it is difficult for him to hide this matter from the whole world, after all, the Wade family and the Wade family's subordinates all know themselves.

It's just that my wife, and the others in Aurouss Hillll still don't know. When the two returned home, Claire Wilson Wilson was still busy replying to Moments, and went into the villa with his head dull.

Charlie Wade parked the car, and just about to get off, he received a WeChat voice from Stefanie and said to him: "Charlie Wade, my stomach is upset, can I give them some Nova Dias to disperse?"

Charlie Wade replied her: "Daisy, if you need stomach loosening, I will ask Liam to send you a bit of it. Don't worry, I will ask him to give you more. Is ten boxes enough for you to eat?"

Charlie Wade didn't want it before. Before Nova Dias was released, too much medicine was leaked out.

However, for Stefanie, he would naturally make an exception.

Stefanie said at this time: "Charlie Wade, I have an upset stomach, shouldn't you come and give me medicine in person? It's in vain that I have been looking for you for so many years and sending medicine is such a small thing. To deal with me, you really disappointed me!"

Charlie Wade helplessly said, "Daisy, are you not a moral kidnapping? Anyway, what you need is Nova Dias, who will give it differently?"

Stefanie said angrily: "Who told you that I only need Nova Dias? I still need my fiance who has reunited after so many years! Anyway, my stomach hurts, you can figure it out! If you don't feel bad about me, then I will find me Dad filed a complaint, it really doesn't work, I will tell your wife the truth!"

Chapter 1402

Charlie Wade said embarrassingly: "Daisy, I have a very stable relationship with your sister-in-law, you can't get involved with a third party!"

"My third party got involved?" Stefanie said angrily: "Wade When I was four or five years old, I was betrothed to you by my parents! You and your wife have only been married for three or four years!"

"Also, you have disappeared for so many years, not only did I not forget you, but I did not disappoint. The marriage contract that year, the beginning of chaos and the end of abandon! For so many years I have been brainwashing myself, no matter how good a man I meet, I always tell myself that I have a fiance, I will find him, and now I finally find you, you Say that I am a third party to intervene?!"

Stefanie became more and more angry at this time.

She didn't want to care too much about Charlie Wade, saying that he let herself down, but subconsciously wanted to act like a baby with him.

However, she didn't expect Charlie Wade to say that a third party stepped in.

This really immediately ignited the resentment in her heart!

Originally sitting with Claire Wilson Wilson for dinner and talking with Mrs. Wade one by one, she was already very depressed. To talk about the third party, it was also Claire Wilson Wilson who got involved in his marriage contract with Charlie Wade.

Now, this Charlie Wade turned the cart before the horse and said that she was a third party, which made her feel wronged.

Then, she cried and said, "Charlie Wade! When you arrive in Eastcliff, I will let you Look at my dozens of diaries over the past ten years! You start from the day you disappeared and read one by one. If you are not in the diary one day, I will count as myself losing! You big pig, hurt me. After so many years, you still treat me this way now, do you still have a conscience?"

Charlie Wade felt bad for a while.

Everyone respects him as a true dragon in the world, but this girl is good, she doesn't give him any face, and directly calls him a pig!

However, he didn't dare to be angry, and he didn't have the face to be angry. On the contrary, he still felt very guilty in his heart.

Although he is cruel and merciless when facing enemies, he has always been very grateful and grateful to those who have been kind to him, and Stefanie is no exception.

Hearing her crying, Charlie Wade said hurriedly: "Daisy I'm sorry, I said something wrong, I apologize to you."

Stefanie asked him: "Then what should I do with my stomach ache?!"

Charlie Wade said immediately: " Wait a minute , I will deliver you the medicine personally!" Stefanie asked, "Do you have Oracle Nova Dias ready-made there?"

Charlie Wade said, "No, but I can go to the pharmaceutical factory to get it, and I will deliver it to the hotel myself. , Are you satisfied now?"

Stefanie said, "Forget it, the pharmaceutical factory is quite far away. It's so late, so I won't bother you. You should arrange for someone to send it over, although I have my opinion on you. It's very big, but I still love you with all my my heart."

Charlie Wade suddenly thought, this spleen and stomach are not tuned.

Although taking Niranax has a good effect, Niranax is a medicine that is more inclined to relieve symptoms and discomfort than immediately Cure.

This medicine is a bit like lozenges for a sore throat. Some lozenges are very comfortable to eat, and the sore throat can be relieved immediately.

However, the root cause of throat inflammation and irritation may not be cured well.

Nova Dias is a medicine of this nature. If Stefanie Sun really has some hidden problems in her spleen and stomach, he still needs to cure the root cause to solve the problem once and for all.

Thinking of this, he immediately said: "You are waiting for me in the hotel, and I will give you systematic treatment in the past."

Chapter 1403

Charlie Wade was not good at telling his wife Claire Wilson Wilson about going to see Stefanie, so he could only tell her that Liam had something to do temporarily and let himself go and help.

Claire Wilson Wilson didn't think too much, and asked him not to go home too late, so he went back upstairs to take a bath alone.

Charlie Wade drove out again and returned to Shangri-La Hotel. At this time, Stefanie was in her top luxury suite, waiting nervously for Charlie Wade's arrival. The room she lives in is Shangri-La's presidential suite. Donald and his son Sean once lived in this room.

This is Shangri-La, with the highest specifications, the largest area, the most expensive, and also the most luxurious room. The huge room has a building area of hundreds of square meters. However, at this moment, there is only Stefanie in this presidential suite.

Her assistant Cherie lives next door to her.

When Charlie Wade rang the doorbell of the room, Stefanie, wearing a satin nightdress, hurriedly opened the door for him.

Seeing Charlie Wade standing outside the door, Stefanie was very happy, but her mouth deliberately hummed a few times and said, "Oh, you are willing to leave your wife aside and care about your childhood sweetheart fiancée?"

Charlie Wade chuckled, "Didn't you say that the stomach is upset? I'll help you see it."

"Huh!" Stefanie muttered, "If you still have a conscience, come in!"

As he said, his body flashed aside and let out the entrance.

Charliemai stepped through the door and saw that her presidential suite was astonishingly large. He couldn't help asking, "Aren't you afraid to live in such a big room alone?"

"Afraid." Stefanie said casually: "Or don't leave at night, and stay with me here."

Charlie Wade coughed twice: "Men and women are not giving or receiving marriage. Besides, you are a celebrity and a public figure. You must pay attention to the influence in everything. If your fans know that there is a man in your room who does not come home at night, they will be disappointed."

"Disappointment? It doesn't exist."

Stefanie waved her hand: "People all over the country know that I have a childhood sweetheart fiancé, and they also know that I have been looking for him. If fans find you staying in my room overnight, then I will simply tell them that you are what I have been looking for for many years. That fiancé."

Charlie Wade hurriedly said: "Oh, how did this make it? The current stars are only popular when they are single. As soon as they announce that they have a girlfriend or a boyfriend, or even announce that they are married, the fans immediately crash. People's star journey will also be greatly affected."

Stefanie didn't care: "Do you think I really care about the star?"

Although the Sun family is not as strong as the Wade family, but if I want to, I can buy half of the entertainment circle at any time. Who cares about the star? I? I am the entire Star Way."

Charlie Wade took it. Miss Sun's family really has the strength, to say this.

Although China's entertainment industry is huge as a whole, it has to be compared with others.

The total box office of movies in the country is only 64.2 billion a year, which is only worth a small district in Eastcliff.

This 64.2 billion will support countless movie theaters, countless film companies, well-known directors, well-known screenwriters and well-known actors.

As the saying goes, there are more monks and less meat, so the net profit that the entire industry can create each year is not much.

Chapter 1404

So for a large family like the Sun family with hundreds of billions of dollars, as long as they want to, they really have the ability to buy half of the entertainment industry.

So Charlie Wade sighed and said, "Okay, hurry up and sit on the sofa. I'll give you a pulse."

Stefanie looked at him and asked in amazement: "Are you really good at treating people?"

Charlie Wade asked back: "Of course it will! Do you think I lied to you?"

Stefanie curled her lips: "I thought you were pretending to see a doctor as a reason, and wanted to run into my room at night to take advantage of me..."

"I..." Charlie Wade almost sprayed out a mouthful of old blood: "I'm not that bad!"

Stefanie gave him a white look and said, "Tell you, don't think that I am the kind of casual woman. I grow up so that I have never held the hands of other boys except you! And, even if you are not married now, even if you want to fulfill the marriage contract with me, I may not agree, at least you have to have an inspection period for you first, you can only after my inspection, otherwise you will become a scumbag for so many years Man, I wouldn't consider marrying you!"

Charlie Wade asked back: "If that's the case, why do you keep talking so bluntly? One will be your fiancée, another will be married, and another will be a stepmother or something."

Stefanie said angrily, "Do you know what it means to book in advance? For example, if you are a driver and I have booked you, you have to wait for me obediently and never pick up other orders. But then again, although I booked you, but I don't necessarily have to take your car. Then you make me dissatisfied, and I can change to another car at any time!"

Charlie Wade helplessly said: "It's all right, I won't tell you this, I can't tell you, don't you have an upset stomach? Come and I will show you, I will go home quickly after watching, your sister-in-law is still waiting Let me go home to sleep."

Stefanie wrinkled her nose and asked: "Charlie Wade Wade, you deliberately angered me, right?"

"No." Charlie Wade said, "I'm not here to check your body!"

Stefanie touched her stomach, and hummed: "Look how nice I am to you! Even the opportunity to find you after so many years has come at the expense of your health. You say me If there is nothing wrong with the stomach, how could it be possible to pick up this stomach-breaking advertisement from you? It is even more impossible to come to Aurouss Hill to see you! I really pay for you all the time!"

"Yes, yes." Charlie Wade nodded and coaxed her, saying: "You have been so hard for so many years. If there is a chance in the future, my brother will definitely compensate you."

Stefanie asked: "Then how are you going to compensate?"

Charlie Wade said, "I will cure your stomach disease at one time. After I cure you, if there is a problem with your stomach, I will lose."

"Blow it, you can't."

Although Stefanie didn't believe it, she still followed him and sat down on the sofa.

Afterwards, she handed her right hand to Charlie Wade.

Charlie Wade gently put his fingers on the veins of her wrist, seeming to be trumpeting, but in fact just took this opportunity to penetrate a trace of reiki into her body for investigation.

What medicine is used to cure diseases and save people is far inferior to Reiki. Because this is the essence of heaven and earth.

With this hint of reiki entering the body, Stefanie immediately felt a different kind of warmth and comfort reaching the spleen and stomach.

After a while, she felt that her faintly aching stomach had completely improved unconsciously.

The spleen and stomach before, always had a kind of pain, and bloating, acid reflux, and burning panic, so that her whole body can not lift any appetite. But now all those discomforts seem to have disappeared in an instant!

Chapter 1405

Feeling that all the discomfort in the body has disappeared, Stefanie looked at Charlie Wade dumbfounded, and couldn't help but ask: "In Chinese medicine, pulse is only a diagnosis, not a treatment. Why do you give me a pulse and I feel nothing is wrong anymore?"

Charlie Wade said indifferently: "There is an acupuncture point on a person's wrist, which is used to treat the spleen and stomach. You think I am telling you the pulse, but I am actually doing acupressure for you." Stefanie asked in surprise: "Really? Is it so amazing?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "This is the same as rubbing your temples when you have a headache. It's just that my technique is more magical, so the effect will be even better."

Stefanie couldn't help sighing: "Charlie Wade dear, you are really amazing! I have seen so many doctors and taken so many kinds of medicines, and I haven't been well for more than a month. I didn't expect you to press my wrist. ."

Charlie Wade said with an awkward expression: "Just now you called me a big pig head, now you call me Charlie Wade dear, you are too fickle."

Stefanie snorted in embarrassment, and said, "If you are not married, I will definitely call Charlie Wade's brothers one by one, so I'm not willing to scold you."

Charlie Wade nodded: "I know, it's all my fault."

"It's fine if you know it." Stefanie curled her lips and said, "My dad sent me a WeChat video just now and asked me how I'm doing here. I wanted to tell him about finding you, but I want to come to surprise him. You said that going to Eastcliff next week and you will not lie to me?"

Charlie Wade said seriously: "When I finished the meal, I already told my wife, how could I lie to you? You can go back first when I finish my work. The things on hand will be over when I finish my work. ."

Stefanie Sun asked expectantly: "Charlie Wade, do you really have a way to cure my father's disease?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "I have a lot of confidence."

Stefanie said excitedly: "Then I will be waiting for you in Eastcliff! Please heal my father!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said word by word: "Don't worry, I will do my best."

After speaking, when it was late, Charlie Wade stood up and said: "It's too late, if there is nothing wrong, I will go back first."

Stefanie hurriedly asked, "Charlie Wade, don't you sit there anymore?"

"If you don't sit down, it's already late, so it won't delay your rest."

Stefanie wanted to say something, but after thinking about it, she held back.

After a while, she looked expectantly and asked, "Charlie Wade, will you come to see me these two days?"

Charlie Wade said: "I still have a lot of things to deal with in the past two days, maybe I don't have time, but don't worry, I will definitely visit Eastcliff next week."

Stefanie nodded and said, "I will shoot an advertisement for your Nova Dias in Aurouss Hillll in the next two days. If you have time, come visit the class."

"it is good." After bidding farewell to Stefanie, Charlie Wade left Shangri-La and drove back to Thompson First.

Chapter 1406

While Charlie Wade was treating Stefanie, Nanako Ito watched her mentor Kazuki Yamamoto fall asleep with her own eyes, and then said to Tanaka Koichi wearily: "Tanaka, you stay here to take care of Master for me. I have to make sure to take a break. , Otherwise, it is very likely that I will not be able to enter the next semifinals, let alone defeat Aurora."

For Nanako Ito, although Master Yamamoto Kazuki tried to persuade herself to worship Charlie Wade as a teacher, she was not prepared to do so.

She felt that no matter what, the teacher was injured by Charlie Wade's palm. No matter who was right or wrong in this matter, she couldn't give up her teacher at this time and worship Charlie Wade as a teacher.

Moreover, deep down in her heart, she also felt that Charlie Wade would not accept herself as a disciple.

Charlie Wade doesn't lack money, and doesn't like Japanese people very much. What can he do to impress him?

So, she had made up her mind, tried her best to finish the game, and then returned to Japan with her teacher.

Because of this, she couldn't continue to take care of Yamamoto Kazuki here.

She has to return to the hotel to ensure that she has a relatively adequate rest, and she has to seize the last time and practice hard.

When Jiro Kobayashi heard that Nanako Ito was going back to the hotel, he hurriedly said flatteringly: "Oh, Nanako, I just want to go back to the hotel, let's go together."

Nanako Ito shook her head: "No need Mr. Kobayashi, I just take a taxi and go home."

Jiro Kobayashi knew that Nanako Ito was trying to alienate herself.

But he wasn't angry either. He had known for a long time that a Yamato Nadeko like Nanako Ito who was difficult to choose from a thousand miles was not a target that could be conquered in a short time.

Therefore, in order to please Nanako Ito, Jiro Kobayashi decided to take the initiative to tell her a very valuable news.

He said to Nanako Ito, "Miss Nanako, let's go together. I happened to drive the car our branch bought in Aurouss Hilll."

After that, before Nanako Ito refused, he said again: "In fact, Mr. Lingshi Yamamoto is not without medicine. I know that someone in this world can cure him."

"Really?!" Nanako Ito was excited for an instant, and blurted out: "Mr. Kobayashi, are you kidding me? My master has no sense of it now, is there really anyone in this world who can cure him?"

Jiro Kobayashi said flatly: "Miss Nanako, you must have heard of Chinese medicine, right?"

"I've heard of it." Nanako Ito nodded and said, "But the Chinese medicine I remember seems to be not very good at treating major diseases. It is more about treating minor diseases such as headaches and brain fever, as well as treating some physical symptoms. "

"For example, acupuncture and cupping of Chinese medicine are loved by athletes all over the world, especially cupping, which can relax muscles and relieve pain. Even the famous swimmer Phelps of the United States used to pull out during the Rio Olympics. Over the pot."

Jiro Kobayashi said: "What Ms. Nanako said are just some very common applications of Chinese medicine. In fact, as far as I know, Chinese medicine is very magical. Before, there was a famous doctor in Aurouss Hilll who cured a high-level paraplegia in a car accident. Patient, let him recover in a short time! However, as far as I know, the patient injured his spinal nerves in a car accident. There are still some differences from Mr. Yamamoto."

Nanako Ito blurted out and asked, "There are such amazing people in the world? Then ask Mr. Kobayashi to tell me, which genius doctor actually has such a magical skill!"

Jiro Kobayashi graciously smiled: "Oh, Miss Nanako, this is a long story. Why don't I drive and let's talk on the road?"

Nanako Ito knew that Jiro Kobayashi wanted to let herself go back in his car, so she was willing to tell herself this precious message.

So she stopped insisting, nodded and said: "Okay, then it will be hard for Mr. Kobayashi!"

Chapter 1407

Jiro Kobayashi drove out of the hospital in a luxurious Mercedes-Benz sedan and Nanako Ito, who was quiet.

Driving the car out of the hospital gate, Nanako Ito couldn't wait to ask: "Mr. Kobayashi, who is the genius doctor you are talking about? Can you tell me now?"

Jiro Kobayashi nodded: "Ms. Nanako, let's not tell you the truth. This genius doctor is named Dr. Simmons. He is a well-known medicine master in China. Some time ago, he cured high paraplegia and was judged in medical history. Major injuries that cannot be cured."

Nanako Ito has always been very healthy, so she has never paid attention to matters in the medical field, and has no idea about Dr. Simmons. However, now hearing Jiro Kobayashi say this, she was filled with great expectations.

So she hurriedly asked: "Mr. Kobayashi, where can I find this genius doctor?"

Jiro Kobayashi sighed with emotion: "This genius doctor has a local medicine hall called Serene Medical Clinic. However, this old genius doctor has a weird temper and seems to be prejudiced against the Japanese, so I want him to treat Mr. Yamamoto. It is not difficult. Generally big."

Nanako Ito asked, "Can't money solve this problem?"

Jiro Kobayashi shook his head: "If the money can be resolved, my eldest brother would not die in Arouss Hilll."

Nanako Ito asked in amazement: "Mr. Kobayashi, what do you mean by this? Is your brother killed by this genius doctor?"

"No, it's not." Jiro Kobayashi said hurriedly: "My brother's death is related to him, but not because of him..."

When he said this, Jiro Kobayashi thought to himself: "Damn, in the final analysis, my brother was murdered by his own murderer, and the person who killed him, even if it wasn't Charlie Wade himself, would definitely have nothing to do with him. "

"However, having said that, the reason why there were so many things behind at the beginning was that his brother coveted Dr. Simmons's magical medicine, but he didn't expect it. He thought he could come back to offer treasures by stealing the magical medicine, but he didn't expect to be tricked by Dr. Simmons. Charlie Wade made a swap, and even poisoned their common father. Thinking of this incident, it was mixed, angry, thankful, and even a little bit happy..."

Nanako Ito didn't know that his mind suddenly diverged and thought so much.

She asked Jiro Kobayashi: "Do you know where the genius doctor's medicine hall is?"

"I know." Jiro Kobayashi nodded and said, "Do you want me to take you there now?"

"Okay!" Nanako Ito said excitedly: "I will ask him to take action and heal my mentor at any price I spend!"

Dr. Simmons's daily life is very fixed.

Every Monday to Friday, he sits in Serene Medical Clinic for consultations. He closes the store on weekends and takes a rest. He will take Xyla to travel around Arouss Hilll. Sometimes he will go to the countryside to give free clinics and medicines to the widowed elderly in the countryside.

Today, when I was in the clinic at Shalom Place, the last patient had just been sent away, and when he was about to let his buddies clean up and close the door, Jiro Kobayashi brought Nanako Ito to the door.

At the door, Jiro Kobayashi said to Nanako Ito, "Miss Nanako, let's go in later, you must not tell him my real name!"

Jiro Kobayashi knew that his elder brother Ichiro Kobayashi came to Arouss Hilll to steal the medicine, and was afraid that Dr. Simmons would be angry with him, so he planned to hide his real name.

Chapter 1408

Nanako Ito asked with a puzzled face: "Mr. Kobayashi, have you had a holiday with this genius doctor?"

"No, no." Jiro Kobayashi hurriedly waved his hand and said seriously: "I have never met this genius doctor, but I don't want to hide it from you. My brother once offended this genius doctor when he was alive, and I was afraid of him. I have a lot of complaints against our Kobayashi family, so in order not to affect him, you ask him to take care of Mr. Yamamoto, so you still don't reveal my name later, you can call me Mr. Tanaka."

"Okay." Nanako Ito nodded, walked into the door first, knocked on the door and asked, "Excuse me, is the genius Dr. Simmons there?"

Seeing that she was a beautiful and feminine woman, he was shocked and said quickly and politely: "Hello, our genius doctor has closed the consultation today. If you have any needs, please come back tomorrow." Nanako Ito hurriedly said: "I'm sorry to ask you to tell the genius Dr. Simmons that there is a patient who wants to ask him to take action. If he is willing to be treated and can be cured, I am willing to pay 10 million US dollars as a consultation fee!"

Xyla happened to be sorting the counter. Hearing this, he immediately said, "Sorry, my grandfather is not trying to make money to save people. If you think that you can spend more money to move his elderly, then please come back!"

Nanako Ito immediately apologized and said: "I'm sorry! I didn't mean that! I just want to express my sincerity as much as possible. My master has all meridians cut off. Now he is a living dead. I heard that the genius Dr. Simmons once cured high paraplegia. The patient, that's why I went to the house specially and asked the genius doctor to help him!" "All meridians are cut off?"

Xyla looked at Nanako Ito dumbfounded, and blurted out: "Are you sure that the meridian is broken, not some other condition?"

Xyla was surprised because most ordinary people didn't know the concept of meridian.

They came into contact with the concept of meridians, which basically came from martial arts novels and film and television works. Let them say one, two or three. Most of them don't even understand the introduction of meridians.

Moreover, there are very few martial artists and Xinglin people who master meridians. This woman said with confidence that her master had all meridians broken when she opened her mouth. Could it be that she is a martial artist?

"Yes!" Nanako Ito hurriedly said, "The person who hurt my master personally said that he had broken his meridians."

Xyla asked: "How did he cut off your master's meridians? Could it be that he applied a strong blow to every meridian of your master?"

Nanako Ito said, "That person only slapped my master, and my master's meridians were all broken."

Xyla said incredulously: "How strong is this man? You can cut off your master's meridians with a single palm. I have never heard of this incredible strength. Even a master of martial arts, I want to cut it. The meridians of a person's whole body have to be broken and destroyed one by one, it is impossible to use only one palm..."

Nanako Ito said earnestly: "It really only took a palm, I have seen everything with my own eyes!"

At this time, Dr. Simmons stepped out of the back room, and said in a powerful voice: "The old man has never heard of anyone with such a method, little girl, who did your master provoke?"

Nanako Ito said: "I don't know who exactly it is, only his surname is Wade."

Dr. Simmons's expression froze: "The last name is Wade? Is this person very young, handsome and extraordinary? In his gestures, he looks like a real dragon?"

"This..." Nanako Ito thought for a while, and said awkwardly: "I don't feel anything else, but he is handsome, relatively young, and looks like a twenty-five or twenty six."

Dr. Simmons's face suddenly became extremely cold, and he snorted and said, "What a joke! Your master provokes Master Wade, and Master Wade has abolished his meridians. How dare you come to the old man to treat your Master?!"

Chapter 1409

Nanako Ito did not expect that Charlie Wade turned out to be Master Wade in the eyes of this genius doctor, or even the "true dragon on earth" in his eyes.

Japan also has many legends about dragons. After all, the civilization of Japan was passed down from China, so the two civilizations are separated by a thin strip.

In Japanese culture, the dragon is also the highest creature, and its status is almost the same as that of a god.

However, she couldn't think of why this old man would call a young man a true dragon on earth.

Naturally, she could not know that Charlie Wade's influence on Dr. Simmons had subverted Dr. Simmons's cognition for decades.

With Charlie Wade's medical skills and incredible medicine refining skills, in Dr. Simmons's eyes, they were the only ones seen in his life and only in the world.

Therefore, he has always respected and respected Charlie Wade very much. Not to mention, he himself has benefited a lot from Charlie Wade. A healing medicine and a rejuvenating pill opened a new chapter in his life.

This kind of great kindness, he will never forget, and it will never be repaid.

At this time, Nanako Ito saw Dr. Simmons's attitude becoming very angry. She hurriedly pleaded humbly: "It's only a momentary impulse for the mentor to offend Mr. Wade. She is guilty of course, but the crime does not end here. Please show your compassion and help!"

Dr. Simmons waved his hand and said with a very firm expression: "Little girl, the life of the old man can be said to be saved by Master Wade. The old man stayed in Aurouss Hilll to open a medical clinic to treat his illness and save others. It is also entirely to repay Master Wade's kindness. Therefore, any offense Those who have passed Master Wade are enemies in the eyes of the old man. The old man knows how to speak and do things well. He doesn't want to add bad words to you, let alone drive you out, so I hope you leave consciously!"

Nanako Ito choked with sobs: "It is a genius doctor who is kind, you can't die without saving..."

Dr. Simmons arched his hand at her: "The doctor is kind, but the kindness is as heavy as a mountain, and the old man has a clear conscience. You don't have to spend any more words, please come back!"

After that, he turned his face to Xyla and said: "Xyla, see off the guests!"

Nanako Ito still wanted to continue begging and fighting for it, but Dr. Simmons had already put his hand behind him and strode towards the room in the hospital.

Before Nanako Ito could speak, Xyla, who was on the side, made a gesture of inviting and said, "This lady, please go back!"

Nanako Ito sighed sullenly, and said respectfully: "Then please forgive me for interrupting..."

After finishing speaking, she turned around and left in despair.

Jiro Kobayashi followed from beginning to end, but he dared not say a word from beginning to end.

In his eyes, picking up girls is important, but personal safety is even more important. His brother was planted in this Serene Medical Clinic, and he said he didn't dare to make trouble here.

Accompanied by Nanako Ito coming out of Jesedang, Jiro Kobayashi persuaded softly from the side: "Miss Nanako, don't care too much. This kind of hidden master temperament is somewhat weird. We can go back to the hotel to rest first, and come back to visit the house another day. During the visit, isn't there a well-known historical allusion in China called Sangu Maolu? It was about a man who went to Zhuge Liang's home three times and invited him out of the mountain. After three full times, Zhuge Liang agreed to come down. Then we might as well come to a Sangu Serene Medical Clinic. ."

Nanako Ito shook her head and said, "I just saw the look in the eyes of the genius doctor. When he rejected me, he shouldn't leave any room in his heart. Even if I came three times or even thirty times, the result might be the same. If you want to solve this matter, you still have to start with that Mr. Wade."

"Charlie Wade?!"

Chapter 1410

Jiro Kobayashi felt a sudden cold on the back of his neck, and hurriedly blurted out: "Miss Nanako, you must stay away from that Charlie Wade, this person is extremely dangerous, and you must not contact him too much..."

He said, "In addition, you must not follow Mr. Yamamoto's suggestion to worship Charlie Wade as a teacher. As far as I know, this Charlie Wade is very unfriendly to the Japanese, otherwise it will not be just because When Mr. Yamamoto said the words sick man of East Asia, he cruelly abolished him!"

Nanako Ito nodded: "I didn't think he could accept me as a disciple. I just hope that he can help heal the teacher, or help to say a good thing, and let the genius doctor come to heal the teacher."

Jiro Kobayashi asked hurriedly: "Then are you going to find this Charlie Wade another day?"

"No other day, just today."

"Today?! It's already night, are you going to find Charlie Wade now?"

"Yes, that's right! Go now!"

Nanako Ito had a firm face and said to Jiro Kobayashi: "I asked someone to ask him. He seems to live in the best villa area in Aurouss Hilll. Thompson First, please trouble Mr. Kobayashi. Send me there now."

"Ah? Are you going to Charlie Wade's house to find him? This is definitely not possible!"

Jiro Kobayashi waved his hand quickly.

He knows Charlie Wade's situation very well, knowing that Charlie Wade is extremely difficult to deal with, and oil and salt dont mix. If Nanako Ito goes to him, not only will it be impossible to get any benefits, it may even anger Charlie Wade and even be hurt by Charlie Wade.

So, he immediately said: "Miss Nanako, you don't know Charlie Wade's true face, just go to him like this, you will definitely suffer!"

Nanako Ito said: "I am not going to compete with him. I also know that my strength is not as good as the ants in front of him. I just want to sincerely ask him to help. Even if the price is high, I want a cure for my teacher."

What else did Jiro Kobayashi want to say, Nanako Ito didn't give him a chance, and asked seriously: "Mr. Kobayashi, can you drive me to Thompson First? If it can, then we will set off now; if not, then I will take a taxi now. past."

Jiro Kobayashi sighed helplessly and said, "All right, since Nanako insists, then I will send you there..."

Charlie Wade received a call from Dr. Simmons on the way home.

Dr. Simmons told him that a woman had come to him and begged him for help to treat a wounded man whose meridians had been severed, and asked if Charlie Wade did it.

Charlie Wade admitted generously and said, "If I guessed correctly, the person who went to ask for your help should be Nanako Ito, a Japanese girl, the one I deposed, called Yamamoto Kazuki, her master, that Yamamoto Mu, dare to be in front of me and mention the words sick man of East Asia. I will naturally not forgive him."

"It turned out to be a Japanese!" Dr. Simmons said angrily: "Last time I wanted to take your magic medicine from me, it was also a Japanese! It's really an uncivilized barbarian who has repeatedly found fault and caused trouble!"

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently: "They knelt behind our buttocks for thousands of years. They have developed a little faster in these two or three hundred years. They are self-righteous, arrogant, and Dr. Simmons is a barbarian. They really used it just right."

Dr. Simmons hurriedly said: "Master Wade, don't worry, I will never let that woman enter me for half a step!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "Although her master is arrogant and rude, this girl is still very polite. If she asks you for help again, if you refuse, there is no need to embarrass her. We are always reasonable. , One yard is one yard, and it won't kill everything with one shot."

Chapter 1411

Charlie Wade was indeed very disgusted with Yamamoto Kazuki, but one of them said one, and the other said two. His impression of Nanako Ito is still very good.

Although Nanako Ito has practiced martial arts for many years, she can still see the tenderness in her bones, and she is a rare sensible girl.

Dr. Simmons heard him and said immediately: "I know Master Wade, don't worry, if she comes back next time, I will do my best to treat guests."

"Well, that's enough." Charlie Wade said, "I will be home soon, so I won't tell you anymore."

"Good Master Wade."

After hanging up Dr. Simmons's phone, Charlie Wade drove into the Thompson First Villa area.

Seeing that he was about to reach his door, Charlie Wade gradually slowed down.

At this moment, a figure suddenly flashed out from one side, blocking his car.

Charlie Wade stopped the car with a brake, and when he looked up, he found that the person in front of his car turned out to be Nanako Ito! He couldn't help wondering.

Why is this Japanese woman here?

Nanako Ito's strength is indeed very good among ordinary people, so it is not surprising that she can get the first grade of Thompson First.

However, Charlie Wade was curious, what did this Japanese woman do for herself?

At this time, Nanako Ito stood in front of Charlie Wade's BMW car, did not speak, but bowed deeply to him with a humble face.

Charlie Wade helplessly pushed the door and got out of the car. He came to her and asked, "Miss Ito, what are you doing here?"

Nanako Ito raised her head, looking at Charlie Wade with a nervous expression. After hesitating for a while, her legs suddenly bent and kneeled in front of him, begging: "Mr. Wade, I beg you to save my master!"

"Save him?" Charlie Wade asked amused: "He has all his meridians severed. Why do you think I can save him?"

Nanako Ito said confidently: "I believe in my own judgment. I believe you will be able to save my master. Of course he is at fault, but there is no such fault!"

Charlie Wade sneered: "This is not the fault? You have to know that he insulted today, not me alone, but all the children of China. Why do you think he was not wrong? I will not mention how much Japan left to the Chinese people. Injuries and scars, just the words of the sick man of East Asia are completely inexcusable!"

Nanako Ito said with shame: "You are right. I know those four words are very inappropriate, but my master himself is an old man in his twilight years. Now because of these four words, you will make him useless for the rest of his life. , This is really too cruel, right? Moreover, your subordinates engraved those four characters on his forehead. He has already endured inhuman torture and insult, so please raise your hand and let him go.. ..."

Charlie Wade said lightly: "Miss Ito, let me give you a piece of advice."

Nanako Ito didn't understand why Charlie Wade wanted to give herself a piece of advice, so she hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, please tell me, I'll listen!"

Charlie Wade said: "You should return to Japan and find a good man to marry you. From now on, you will be married to each other. Don't try to practice martial arts anymore, let alone hope to be able to make a difference in martial arts."

Nanako Ito looked at him and asked unconvincingly: "Mr. Wade, do you look down on my strength? Although I am not worth mentioning in front of you, I have at least won the championship of two world college competitions, better than most people. Is it much better?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Your strength is indeed very good among people of your age, but your mentality is not suitable for martial arts."

Chapter 1412

Nanako Ito frowned and said, "I would like to ask Mr. Wade to make it clear!"

Charlie Wade said: "First of all, the martial arts must first cultivate the mind, then the body, and then the skill."

"In other words, the importance of mood is greater than physical fitness and martial arts."

"Whether you practice fighting, Sanda, Jeet Kune Do, Karate, Wing Chun, Tai Chi, it doesn't really matter, what matters is your heart!"

Nanako Ito asked puzzledly: "My heart? What happened to my heart?"

Charlie Wade snorted coldly, and condescendingly yelled, "Your heart is full of women's benevolence, full of gambling, no open-mindedness, no calmness, and no wolfishness!"

"Wolfness?!" Nanako Ito's expression tightened and exclaimed: "What do you mean? What is wolfness?"

Charlie Wade said: "The so-called wolf nature is the tenacity and cruelty. If the wolf's companion is caught by the hunter, the wolf will only try to save it, and will not try to beg the hunter to spare it!"

"If a wolf's companion is injured, it will not lie next to it and whimper, it will show its fangs to help the companion avenge. It will fight once it has been beaten, but if it fails, it will try its best, and it will find a suitable opportunity to fight again!"

"However, a qualified wolf, no matter what, will never beg for mercy in front of the enemy! If it is just a husky, no matter how big and powerful it is, it will not be a wolf's opponent,"

"So, you are not a qualified warrior at all!"

Nanako Ito asked angrily: "Why do you say that I am unqualified?"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "I said you were unqualified because you made three mistakes!"

"One of the mistakes! You lack the tolerance to bet!"

"Your master bet fair with me. The outcome is your own responsibility. Even your master is willing to gamble and accept the consequences of failure. As his apprentice, you can't accept it. You even come to me and ask if If you lose your bet, do you shame and refuse to admit defeat?"

Nanako Ito was flushed with reprimand, and she didn't know what to do for a while.

Charlie Wade continued: "The second mistake! As a martial artist, although your body is strong, your heart is extremely weak. This proves that you are not worthy of being a martial artist from the bottom of your heart! In my eyes, a martial artist is a brave man who dares to fight and break. You are not afraid of a dead wolf, and although you have the physique and fangs of a wolf, in your bones, you are a poor Teddy dog!"

When Nanako Ito heard this, tears burst into her eyes.

And Charlie Wade continued.

"The third mistake! A warrior should be like a warrior who regards death as home. On the battlefield, his head can be broken, blood can flow, and integrity should not be lost! And you? You came to me and begged for mercy. On the real battlefield, you will also be down on the enemy. Kneel to beg for mercy? Would you also beg the other side to show mercy and let you go?"

"A warrior who kneels down to the enemy begging for mercy is by no means a qualified warrior. Therefore, I said that you are not a qualified warrior. Do you have half wronged you?!"

"What you are doing now has tainted the word martial artist! Therefore, I advise you not to practice martial arts anymore, you are not worthy!"

"Since you have such a benevolent woman, you should go back to be a good wife, a good mother, and a good woman. I believe you will perform better than a warrior!"

After Charlie Wade's unrelenting reprimand, Nanako Ito's mood collapsed instantly, and she cried bitterly.

Chapter 1413

Charlie Wade's words let Nanako Ito understand that she had never been a qualified martial artist.

Even though I have ever won a world championship, even if I have been a top young master in the world, I still don't understand the soul of martial arts.

Seeing her crying with pear blossoms and rain, the whole person almost collapsed, Charlie Wade couldn't help but sighed and said: "Excuse me, what I said just now is a bit heavier, but I hope you can understand what the real martial arts soul is! "

Nanako Ito raised her head, and stared at Charlie Wade with big red eyes. She knelt on the ground with her legs bent and said with tears: "Nanako also asks Mr. Wade to make it clear, and ask Mr. Wade to order it!"

Charlie Wade didn't stretch out his hand to help her, but said seriously: "The soul of martial arts is not in the level of strength, but the strength of the heart!"

"He has a strong heart, even if he is a waste person, he does not live up to the martial arts spirit. For example, your master, although he is defiant and conceited, he can at least bear the consequences of failure. From this point of view, he is indeed much better than you. !"

Nanako Ito said sadly, "Master even tried to commit suicide today. I believe that if his hands can still be used, he will definitely choose to commit suicide..."

Charlie Wade nodded: "Then this proves that although he is very weak, he still has a strong heart. From the bottom of his heart, he has not lived up to the identity of a martial artist, and you..."

Having said that, Charlie Wade glanced up and down Nanako Ito, and said seriously: "For now, you are really not suitable for martial arts practice. Let me give you a piece of advice. After this competition, go back to Japan and go to your university. After graduating from university, you can take a postgraduate entrance examination for further studies, or get married and have children as soon as possible to live the lives of ordinary people."

Nanako Ito said with red eyes and earnestly said, "But...but I really don't want to give up martial arts!"

Charlie Wade said lightly: "Since you don't want to give up, then you have to find a way to make your heart stronger."

Nanako Ito asked, "Mr. Wade, I...how do I become stronger inside?"

Charlie Wade said: "It's very simple. First of all, you have to start with your master. First confess his fate for him. This is the first step to a strong heart; to avenge him is the second step to a strong heart."

Nanako Ito hurriedly waved his hand: "Mr. Wade, I never thought of avenging Master... Nanako knows that she is far from your opponent, and also knows that Master's ending today, no wonder you..."

"Yeah." Charlie Wade nodded approvingly, and said seriously: "Since you know that you can't blame me for this matter, it proves that you have made a little progress. This matter is entirely your master's fault. So I advise you not to You need to put too much psychological pressure on yourself. If you think he is pitiful, just take care of him after returning to Japan."

Nanako Ito nodded again and again: "Master Wade, Nanako understands!"

Charlie Wade said, "Well, it's okay if you understand, it's okay, it's not too early, you should go back early."

Nanako Ito hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade, Nanako has one more question to ask you..."

Charlie Wade: "You said."

Nanako Ito asked, "Mr. Wade, is it possible for you to accept Nanako as a disciple?"

Charlie Wade said decisively: "It's impossible."

"Why?" Nanako Ito hurriedly asked him: "Is it because I am not qualified enough, or because I am a Japanese?"

Charlie Wade didn't conceal his words, and said straightforwardly: "The main reason is that you are a Japanese. For thousands of years, the Chinese have taught the Japanese so much, but the Japanese don't know how to be grateful. In the past two to three centuries of modern times, I have repeatedly made enemies with China and even harmed the Chinese people. As the saying goes, I will gain one wisdom from one bite. Therefore, I will never pass the Chinese martial arts to a Japanese woman."

Nanako Ito lost her heart instantly.

For the first time, she felt ashamed because she was a Japanese.

Chapter 1414

So, she hurriedly put her hands on the floor, bowed her head and said:

"Mr. Wade, Nanako apologizes to you and the Chinese people for all Japanese who have hurt the Chinese people. I'm sorry! Nanako will do her best to repay Japan's debt for the rest of her life!"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "Okay, this account may never be clear. I am very pleased if you have this heart."

After finishing speaking, he reached out to support Nanako Ito and said:

"You have two more matches to play next. Go back and prepare well. As Aurora's coach, I am still looking forward to seeing the two of you meet in the finals. So in the next semi-finals, you must play well. Only after successfully qualifying for the final can you meet Aurora in the final."

Nanako Ito said firmly: "Mr. Wade, please rest assured, Nanako will definitely go all out to meet Aurora in the final!"

"Okay." Charlie Wade nodded in satisfaction: "Then see you in the final."

After all, Charlie Wade turned back to the BMW car and drove the BMW into his Thompson First Villa.

Nanako Ito looked in the direction behind the car for a long time, until Charlie Wade disappeared, and she was still standing there, touching for about ten minutes.

At this moment, deep in her heart, a strong admiration for Charlie Wade suddenly emerged.

It turns out that a man like Charlie Wade is the real martial arts master.

Deep down, she made a comparison between the two.

In contrast, although her master was firm enough in his heart, his strength and personality were far worse than Charlie Wade.

Especially the rebellious and blind self-confidence of Master before him, thinking that he is already a top expert, and proactively provoking Charlie Wade. From this point, it can be seen that Master's mentality has lost more than 100,000 compared to Charlie Wade. Eight thousand miles. Charlie Wade's strength was incredible, but before he really took the shot, he couldn't see any arrogance or arrogance at all.

From an objective point of view, the teacher who put the words of the sick man in East Asia on his lips at that time was like a clown.

And Charlie Wade's words were not wrong at all. The reason why the master would end up like this was to get a hammer.

At this moment, her adoration and admiration for Charlie Wade was like a nuclear bomb that broke out in an instant, and it had an extremely powerful influence deep in her heart.

So that she was full of Charlie Wade's figure, lingering.

The ears were filled with Charlie Wade's sonorous and powerful reprimands. To her, it was simply an initiation. Jiro Kobayashi waited for a long time outside the door of Thompson First, only to see the desperate Nanako Ito walking slowly.

He hurriedly got out of the car and asked, "Miss Nanako, have you seen Charlie Wade?"

Nanako Ito nodded, and whispered absent-mindedly, "See... I saw him." Jiro Kobayashi was busy and asked again: "Then he promised to help Mr. Yamamoto?"

Nanako Ito shook her head and muttered softly as if she was talking to herself: "This matter is because I think wrong and think too much. I shouldn't give up the soul of the warrior and come to ask Mr. Wade to save people...Master His old man is a qualified warrior, a qualified warrior, who must have the courage to face his own destiny..."

"And I...Since I want to be a qualified warrior, I also have the courage to face the fate of others..."

Chapter 1415

This night, Nanako Ito stayed up all night.

She kept thinking about what Charlie Wade said to herself, somehow, after thinking more, she suddenly felt that she must not give up martial arts! Even, I must redouble my efforts and work hard, and I must make Charlie Wade admire myself!

Perhaps Charlie Wade would never accept her as a disciple, but she must use practical actions to tell him that she would become a qualified warrior!

Jiro Kobayashi, who has always wanted to pursue Nanako Ito, has not been able to sleep for a long time.

While he couldn't wait to take Nanako Ito, he also looked forward to the next advertising campaign by Kobayashi Niranex in China.

Because Kobayashi's Niranex is the title sponsor of the finals, now is a good opportunity for Kobayashi's Niranex to promote it.

Moreover, what Jiro Kobayashi did not expect was that Chinese player Aurora turned out to be a dark horse in this game!

For him, because he wants to open up the Chinese market, he very much hopes that Chinese players can achieve excellent results in this game. Because, the more so, the Chinese audience will pay more attention to this game.

It is best if the Chinese players can win the championship, and the influence of this game will become very big in China. Then, Niranex can take this opportunity to carry forward in China.

However, he did not dare to expect Chinese players to win the championship before, after all, among the top five seeded players in this game, there are no Chinese players.

However, it now appears that Aurora has the posture of counterattack to win the championship, which is definitely an unexpected good result for herself.

As for Nanako Ito, Jiro Kobayashi didn't want her to win.

First, if the winner of this game is a Japanese player and sponsored by a Japanese company, it is likely to cause a certain degree of resistance from the Chinese audience.

Secondly, Jiro Kobayashi wanted to wait for Nanako Ito to marry her after graduating from university. If she wins this competition, she must prepare for the Olympics next. If she wins the next Olympics championship, It will definitely take advantage of the peak state to prepare for the next Olympics.

In this way, the matter of marriage must become insignificant in the eyes of Nanako Ito.

Therefore, if Nanako Ito loses this game, then abandons martial arts, abandons the Olympics, and marries herself willingly, and then teaches her son, that is the best result for herself.

If Aurora can win this game and arouse the attention and pride of the whole of China, then Niranex will surely be able to use this game to successfully spread across the country.

In that way, at least tens of billions of profits will be brought to Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall every year, which will enable Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall to quickly restore its vitality and set foot on a new peak!

This is the result that Jiro Kobayashi wants most!

.....

The next day.

Stefanie started filming an advertisement for Nova Dias in the studio of a film and television base in Aurouss Hilll.

When shooting the commercial, Charlie Wade came to the film and television base to explore the class.

In fact, he didn't want to come at all.

However, because his wife, Claire Wilson Wilson, really wanted to see the whole process of Stefanie shooting the commercial with her own eyes, she pestered herself to bring her over.

Although Stefanie was quite dissatisfied with Charlie Wade's act of bringing his wife to visit the class, in general, Charlie Wade's presence here still made her feel very happy.

Advertising shooting is relatively simple. After shooting the material for a day, the shooting is basically done.

Chapter 1416

Claire Wilson Wilson couldn't stay at the film and television base all the time because she still had to work, so she went to her studio when she was halfway through the shooting, leaving Charlie Wade and Liam on the scene.

After the advertisement was shot, the staff of the advertising agency immediately took the material back to do the post work, while Charlie Wade and Liam once again hosted a banquet in Shangri-La to entertain Stefanie and Cherie.

After all, Stefanie is a top star in China, so her work arrangements are still very busy. Because this Spring Festival, she was invited to participate in the Spring Festival Gala and has a solo show, so she has to rush back to Eastcliff, the first time to participate in the Spring Festival Gala. Official dress rehearsal.

The stars who can be on the Spring Festival Gala are all top domestic stars. Because the attention of the Spring Festival Gala is too high, many big stars have sharpened their heads and wanted to drill in.

In order to be on the Spring Festival Gala, many big stars are even willing to play an inconspicuous little role in the skit program, and some singers, in order to be on the Spring Festival Gala, do not hesitate to sing a song together with several people.

The reason why the price is lowered is that the Spring Festival Gala is so popular.

In fact, in the Spring Festival Gala, there are too few people who can sing a song by themselves. Those who can get this kind of treatment are generally the Queen of Heaven.

When White Tianhou paid, she sang a solo "Legend". After she sang this song, it became popular all over the country in one night, and it also allowed the Queen to make a perfect high-profile comeback and make a fortune.

This is enough to see the influence of the Spring Festival Gala.

Stefanie, as a film star mainly focused on filming, can have a solo show on the Spring Festival Evening, which can be said to be a super high standard treatment, and fans all over the country are also very concerned about her performance this Spring Festival Gala.

But Stefanie herself couldn't bear to leave Auroress Hilll so soon.

She finally met, and she was struggling to find Charlie Wade for more than ten years. Naturally, she hoped to stay with him for a few more days.

However, as the Spring Festival Gala is a party that the people of the whole country are very concerned about, Stefanie dare not take it lightly, so she can only decide to fly back tomorrow morning and focus on preparing for the Spring Festival Gala in the next time.

At the dinner table, Stefanie asked Charlie Wade again: "Charlie Wade, I will leave tomorrow and cannot stay with you. Are you sure you will come to Eastcliff next week to see my father and me?"

"Yes." Charlie Wade nodded and promised earnestly: "When I finish dealing with the matter at hand, I will definitely go next week."

Stefanie smiled happily and said, "Then I will go back tomorrow and wait for you in Eastcliff!"

Charlie Wade smiled: "Then I will see you at Eastcliff."

"Charlie Wade, can you come to the airport tomorrow to see me off?"

"Yes I can."

"Then it's settled!"

It just so happens that the international college student Sanda competition will start tomorrow in the semi-finals.

Aurora will face an Australian player in the game, while Nanako Ito will face an American player.

If Aurora wins, then she will meet the winner of another game in the final to fight for the championship.

Charlie Wade was very confident in Aurora, and with her current strength, she believed she would be able to win a championship.

However, Charlie Wade also hopes that Nanako Ito can beat the American player in tomorrow's game, and then compete with Aurora for the championship in the final.

In fact, this competition is not fair to Nanako Ito.

Originally, she could definitely win the championship of this competition, but he helped Aurora greatly improve her physical fitness with reiki and magical medicine, and instantly reborn her, which is equivalent to having to take it from Nanako Ito's hands. The champion's medal was grabbed.

Because of the good impression of Nanako Ito, he hoped that Nanako Ito would win a silver medal.

After all, this Japanese girl is very obsessed with martial arts, and she trains very hard. She has been practicing hard since she was very young. Even if she can't win the championship, she will at least get a runner-up.

Chapter 1417

The next day.

Stefanie's plane took off at 8:30 in the morning.

The semi-finals of the Sanda competition starts at ten o'clock in the morning.

Therefore, Charlie Wade planned to send Stefanie off first, and then go to the gym to watch Aurora's game.

Early in the morning, Charlie Wade went to Jacob Wilson, his father-in-law, and said to him, "Dad, do you use the car in the morning? If you don't need it, let me drive. I have something to do in the morning."

Jacob Wilson smiled and said, "I will represent our Calligraphy and Painting Association in the morning to give a lecture on the appraisal of antique literature and play at the University for the Elderly."

After that, Jacob Wilson gave Charlie Wade a look, which means "you understand."

Charlie Wade realized instantly.

It must have been the last time the Senior Citizens University and the Calligraphy and Painting Association had an activity. The old man met with Matilda. It happened that his mother-in-law did not suspect him, so the old man wanted to take this opportunity to increase contact with Matilda.

This time I went to the senior college for a lecture. Needless to say, I could guess that he must have gone to Matilda.

At this moment, Elaine Ma just walked downstairs, and when he heard this, he contemptuously curled his lips: "What kind of calligraphy and painting are you doing all day long?"

Jacob Wilson said angrily: "You know what a shit! I am now the standing director of the Painting and Calligraphy Association, but Mr. Price said that the next time the association changes, I will recommend me to be the vice president. At that time, I will be in Aurouss Hillll Antiques. In the literary play circle, he is also the number one character!"

Elaine Ma snorted coldly: "Don't rectify those useless. It's a good idea to get some money back. Before you join the Calligraphy and Painting Association, you can still make a difference in the price of antiques and other things. How come after you join the Calligraphy and Painting Association, I never heard that you made money from antiques? Did you hide private money behind my back?"

Jacob Wilson said angrily: "Elaine Ma, don't forget, we are separated now, and after you lost all the money last time, we have agreed that I will manage the money in this family, so you have no say whether I am qualified!"

Elaine Ma gritted her teeth and said, "Okay, Wilson, you have some skills? You really think that you are separated from me, so I can't do anything with you? Believe it or not, I will not do anything today, so I will go to your painting and calligraphy. The association, have a fight with you in front of all of you? I want to see what face you have then, continue to stay in the Calligraphy and Painting Association!"

With that said, Elaine Ma was puzzled and continued: "Going once is not enough. My Lady will give you a monthly package. I will go to your Calligraphy and Painting Association twenty or thirty times a month, and you will be satisfied!"

Jacob Wilson was scared to pee at once.

He knew Elaine Ma's temper. If she said that, she would definitely be able to do it.

Now that I finally have a certain position in the Calligraphy and Painting Association, and through the name of the Calligraphy and Calligraphy Association, I have had a little more contact with Matilda. How can Elaine Ma go to do such a sabotage?

She was a shrew with a pungent temperament, and now she has lost two front teeth, it seems that it is really stubborn and stubborn, she can't let her go to the Calligraphy and Painting Association to lose her face! More importantly, if she is eyeing the Calligraphy and Painting Association, and then follow through to find out that Matilda has returned to China and she has more contact with Matilda, then she will definitely make trouble with the Calligraphy Association and the University for the Elderly. !

Chapter 1418

So he rushed to admit counsel and said to Elaine Ma: "You, don't solve everything through trouble, okay?"

Elaine Ma said coldly: "You have said that this family is yours, I am not qualified to control, then I will not make trouble, what will I use to establish my position in this family?"

Jacob Wilson voluntarily surrendered and said, "I said the wrong thing. You are qualified to take charge. Is this the head office?"

Elaine Ma said triumphantly: "Since you said that I am qualified, then I will exercise my qualifications and powers now, Jacob Wilson, tell me the truth, how much money do you have now? Me, did you tell me that Dump Antique made money?"

Jacob Wilson said with a sad look: "I'm making money for a fart! Let me tell you the truth, I don't have any money for a fart now, and the Calligraphy and Painting Association can't make any money at all. I used to sell antiques and still make some money. , But now I don't have such a good opportunity. I recently bought a few cheap calligraphy and paintings, all of which were sold. One painting was bought for thousands of dollars, but I found that all of them were not worth even a hundred dollars."

As he said, Jacob Wilson sighed and said regretfully, "That Zachary didn't know where he was recently. He used to find him and he always helped me sell things at a good price. Now I want to find him, but he can't find it. It's as if the world has evaporated."

Charlie Wade felt a bit funny after listening.

In order to please himself, that Zachary paid a lot of money to collect a few pieces of rubbish from the old man. The money was pure compensation. If we keep going like this, we won't have billions of fortunes.

So he naturally tried to avoid the old man.

Jacob Wilson wants to find him now, it must be as difficult as heaven.

Elaine Ma didn't believe him, and said coldly: "Come on, open all your mobile banking, Alipay, and WeChat wallets, and let me see the balance!"

Jacob Wilson said angrily: "Why are you still checking my account? When you lost all of the family's money, I asked you to show me the balance, but you didn't show me the balance. Why do you let me now? Show you the balance?"

Elaine Ma said angrily: "Okay, don't show it, right? Don't show it, I'll take a crutches later, and go to your painting and calligraphy association to scold the street! I, Elaine Ma, did what I said!"

Jacob Wilson was scared, and hurriedly said, "Okay, I'll show it to you!" After finishing speaking, open the bank account, Alipay account, and WeChat wallet account one by one, and show Elaine Ma.

After Elaine Ma finished reading, he was immediately disappointed: "Jacob Wilson, how did you mess with? Bank card and WeChat add up to only 10,000 Dollar. You are a 50-year-old man who is so poor. So, are you ashamed?" Jacob Wilson's face turned red and white, and he said angrily: "You have a fcking face to say? I'm all the fcking money I've saved all my life and let you lose. Otherwise, how could I be so poor!"

Elaine Ma's expression flashed with embarrassment, but she quickly became tough again: "It's your man's duty to go out to make money. Since the family's money is gone, you should go out and find a way to make money! Just this is a shit calligraphy and painting association all day long. Would you like an egg? Why don't you find a restaurant and serve someone else's plate, and you can earn two to three thousand for less than a month!"

Jacob Wilson said angrily: "Elaine Ma, I am the standing director of the Aurouss Hilll Painting and Calligraphy Association anyway! You asked me to serve the plate by a standing director?"

"What kind of shit standing director? Not making money is not as good as shit!" Elaine Ma yelled angrily: "I tell you, when my legs are better and my teeth are set, I go out to party with friends, play cards, Make faces, eat, and sing. You have to spend money on these things. Recently, you quickly figured out a way to make money for me. Otherwise, I won't have the money to go out and play, so I will pester you every day!"

Chapter 1419

"you....."

Jacob Wilson's eyes were red with anger.

He has absolutely no countermeasures against Elaine Ma's tactics.

Therefore, there is a great feeling in his heart that a talented person meets soldiers and is unreasonable.

Charlie Wade said at this time: "Okay, you two should stop quarreling early in the morning."

When Elaine Ma saw Charlie Wade speak, she wilted.

If Charlie Wade dared to interrupt when he scolded Jacob Wilson before, he would definitely point to Charlie Wade's nose and scold him bloody. But now it's not what it used to be. Feng Shui has taken turns. Now he has no money. Charlie Wade bought this villa again, so Charlie Wade has the biggest weight in this house.

In order not to be driven out by Charlie Wade, she could only do her best to please Charlie Wade and not let Charlie Wade get angry.

As a result, she gave Jacob Wilson a vicious look, and said angrily: "If it weren't for a good son-in-law to speak for you, I would definitely not finish with you today! For the sake of a good son-in-law, I will spare you once!"

With that, she looked at Charlie Wade grinningly and asked, "Good son-in-law, do you want mom to cook you a meal this morning?"

Charlie Wade asked in surprise, "You can cook?"

Elaine Ma hurriedly said: "Look at what you said, before you entered our house, I used to cook in our house, so let me bring you a tomato that I know best for making noodles. I'll go to our house later. Pick fresh tomatoes from your vegetable garden!"

Since the last time Charlie Wade made a vegetable garden at home. They also made the entire vegetable garden into a sun room with double-glazed glass.

And heating equipment is installed inside, so that even if it is winter, the vegetable garden is still warm as spring.

This effect is much better than real vegetable greenhouses. Many fruits and vegetables are growing very well.

Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson have been married for almost 4 years, and he has never eaten a meal cooked by his mother-in-law.

Seeing his mother-in-law volunteered to make tomatoes and noodles, he was also happy and nodded and said: "Since mom is cooking, then I won't intervene, but I have something to go out in the morning. If it is slow, it may be too late. "

Elaine Ma smiled: "You don't need to worry about anything, mom will do it, and it will be done in 20 minutes at most!"

After speaking, immediately went out and picked tomatoes in the vegetable garden.

After picking the tomatoes, Elaine Ma hurried into the kitchen and started cooking.

When Claire Wilson Wilson finished washing, he came down to find that it was his mother who was cooking in the kitchen.

For several years, she has never seen her mother go to the kitchen again, and this is really the first time since she married Charlie Wade.

Chapter 1420

So she asked Charlie Wade in a low voice: "What's wrong with mom? How did she go to the kitchen to cook?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Mom said she wanted me to taste her craftsmanship, saying that she wanted to make tomato noodles."

Claire Wilson Wilson sighed: "My mother, my mother took the initiative to cook. This is really coming out of the sun hitting the west. It seems that she has lost her way and has come back."

What Charlie Wade was thinking at this time was not the four words to know when he was lost, but the old saying of "nothing to do, no evil or steal".

So he guessed that Elaine Ma, the mother-in-law, must be asking herself, otherwise, with her character, she would never be able to take the initiative to cook.

Sure enough, when he arrived at the dinner table, Elaine Ma personally served Charlie Wade noodles, and smiled and said to him: "Good son-in-law, there is something else I want to ask you, I wonder if you can agree?"

Charlie Wade said: "Mom, just tell me if you have anything. There is something reasonable and reasonable within my ability, and I will not refuse."

Elaine Ma immediately smiled attentively: "My good son-in-law is like this. Mom recently discovered. The whole person seems to be a lot older than before. Not to mention the wrinkles on this face, the crow's feet in the corners of the eyes are becoming more and more obvious. Time is really not forgiving!"

After speaking, she looked at Charlie Wade with a smile: "Mom recently heard that there is an anti-aging cosmetic made from high-end caviar abroad. It is said that its anti-aging effect is particularly good, and many well-known stars use it. To prevent aging, mom wants you to buy a set for mom."

When Claire Wilson Wilson heard this, he blurted out exclaimed: "Mom! The set of cosmetics you mentioned costs hundreds of thousands! What are the conditions of our family, you let Charlie Wade buy you such expensive cosmetics? I gave you before. Isn't it enough to buy a set of Estee Lauder for thousands of dollars?"

Elaine Ma blurted out: "Don't talk about your Estee Lauder, I suspect that my wrinkles are used for it."

Claire Wilson Wilson became angry: "Mom! Estee Lauder is already pretty good. I can't bear to use it myself! Go to our bathroom to see what I use. They are all domestic brands and ordinary imported brands, like Estee Lauder. I am not willing to use such a big name at all."

Elaine Ma hummed: "You are young! Young people are fine even if they don't need anything, but I'm old! If you don't take care of it, I will become a yellow-faced woman! Look at your dad, now I'm already disgusting. I am separated, and he kept saying that he wanted to divorce me. If I don't pay attention anymore, if your dad abandons me in the future, how can any man want me!?"

Claire Wilson Wilson was speechless.

She was angry and felt that there was nothing to say to her mother, and she couldn't reason with her, so she said to Charlie Wade: "Don't listen to my mother, don't buy it for her!"

Elaine Ma burst into tears aggrieved: "Your dad treated me badly, your grandmother treated me even more badly, but I never dreamed that you are my relatives, even you are not good to me.!"

Claire Wilson Wilson blurted out: "Mom, how can you say that? It would be bad for you if you don't buy you more than 100,000 sets of cosmetics? How can there be such a reason!"

Elaine Ma cried: "I don't care. I just want to be younger and don't grow old so fast. I'm already so miserable. I really can't look at myself more and more like a yellow-faced woman!"

Charlie Wade patted Claire Wilson Wilson's hand at this time, and said lightly: "Well, my wife, don't be angry. Mom's words are also reasonable. Everyone has a love for beauty, and Mom definitely has this need."

Elaine Ma nodded and patted a flattering: "My son-in-law is the best! He knows me best!"

Charlie Wade went on to say at this time: "I happen to have a friend who is in the cosmetics import business. I will ask him when I look back. It just so happens that he still wants to find me to show him the new storefront for Feng Shui. Then I will let him get two sets. Give me cosmetics to cover the cost of Feng Shui."

When Elaine Ma heard this, she said excitedly: "Really? Oh my good son-in-law, you are really mom's good son-in-law! Mom really didn't expect that after experiencing the warmth and cold in the world, I finally realized that the son-in-law is the best son-in-law. It's worth relying on. Other mothers-in-laws, elder brothers-in-laws, husbands and even daughters will lose their chains at critical times!"

Chapter 1421

In fact, Elaine Ma didn't want to be Charlie Wade's dog licking.

But her current situation is too embarrassing.

Without the financial power of the family, he was almost impoverished and penniless, and this luxurious Thompson First villa was still under the name of Charlie Wade and had nothing to do with her.

More importantly, since losing more than 2 million Dollar in the game by Hannah last time, Elaine Ma also knows that her current family status is relatively low, and even Jacob Wilson, who has always been drunk by herself, also told herself I turned my face and beat myself. In this case, I really didn't have any arrogant capital.

So Elaine Ma knew that now she could only be a dog with her tail clipped, and she had to please Charlie Wade a lot, otherwise, if Charlie Wade turned his face with her that day and drove her out, it would be over. Besides, Charlie Wade was still willing to ask her about expensive cosmetics, so she immediately complimented him.

Claire Wilson Wilson didn't expect that Charlie Wade would take the initiative to ask his mother about cosmetics. He felt helpless, so he asked Charlie Wade, "My husband, why haven't I heard that you have friends in the cosmetics business?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Since I started to show Feng Shui to others, my social circle has become wider and wider. How else could I know Liam, the boss of Oracle Pharmaceutical? If it wasn't because I knew Liam, you too I have no chance to eat with a big star like Stefanie, right?"

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded lightly, and sighed: "Hey, if you don't owe someone to your family, it's better not to owe it. There are hundreds of thousands of caviar anti-aging cosmetics, which is really too much for a family like us It's extravagant, no need..."

Elaine Ma was anxious and said hurriedly: "Oh girl! Who said it is unnecessary? My son-in-law Charlie Wade didn't say that it was unnecessary. Don't talk nonsense here!"

After finishing speaking, he looked at Charlie Wade too busy, and said with a smile: "Charlie Wade! Mom's old face depends on you. Otherwise, if your dad always abandons in the future and really wants to divorce me, I When the time comes, the old man will be yellow, and the happiness of this life will be gone!"

Charlie Wade said to Claire Wilson Wilson at this time: "Claire Wilson Wilson, don't care about the price too much. After all, I can convert the price into a service by looking at the Feng Shui matter, without us actually spending money."

"That's it!" Elaine Ma immediately said with a smile: "My son-in-law has the ability. If your mother can live in the Thompson First, it is all thanks to your blessing! I think mother will have to It's all up to you." After finishing speaking, I still don't forget to sigh with emotion: "People said that a son-in-law is half a son. I didn't believe it before, but now I really believe it!"

Claire Wilson Wilson was stunned as she watched from the side.

I never dreamed that the mother, who had always been so harsh on Charlie Wade, would actually hold him into a flower.

So she had to say to Charlie Wade: "Then you can grasp it yourself, I don't know what to say."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Then I will go find him today."

Charlie Wade actually has no friends who make cosmetics. He had already made up his mind when he said that. When he finished his business today, he would buy two sets of cosmetics like Elaine Ma said, one set for his mother-in-law and the other set. Naturally to his wife.

The reason for giving Elaine Ma to Elaine Ma was also because Elaine Ma's current attitude made him feel refreshed.

What do men want?

Except for the beloved woman, isn't it about status and face?

He Charlie Wade is also the master Wade respected by everyone in Aurouss Hilll's upper class, but he has always been instructed by Elaine Ma at home.

Seeing the face of his wife Claire Wilson Wilson, Charlie Wade could only endure her forever, but it's better now, Elaine Ma finally bowed down to her.

Anyway, what she has now is money. If Elaine Ma treats herself respectfully and stubbornly every day, she will not care about giving her a small profit.

Chapter 1422

When Elaine Ma heard this, he said with great gratitude: "Good son-in-law! You are really the best son-in-law in the world. It is a blessing for mom to get a son-in-law like you..."

The old man on the side sighed again and again. He knew that his son-in-law Charlie Wade had some skills. Since he said he would get cosmetics for Elaine Ma, he would definitely get it.

However, when he thought that Elaine Ma was about to use more than 100,000 sets of cosmetics, he felt a little uncomfortable.

At this time, Charlie Wade just said to him: "By the way, dad, do you use the car today? I have something to do today. If you don't use the car, can you lend me the car?"

Charlie Wade had to go to the airport to see Stefanie right away, and then hurried to Aurouss Hilll Stadium. It was indeed a bit inconvenient if there was no car.

Jacob Wilson hurriedly said: "In this way, you can drive me to the university for the elderly later. There will be a working meal there at noon, so I won't come back to eat at noon. I will take a taxi and come back by myself after I finish busy in the afternoon."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Then let's eat quickly, and let's set off when we finish eating."

Jacob Wilson: "Good!"

Elaine Ma's cooking skills are average. However, tomato noodles do not require much technical content. So she can barely mess up this meal. Charlie Wade and Jacob Wilson finished their meal and drove away in a hurry.

Charlie Wade just drove Jacob Wilson's BMW car out of the house, and Jacob Wilson said with emotion: "Oh, Charlie Wade, you are so stupid! Why do you promise Elaine Ma that stinky lady to give her such expensive skin care? You don't even look at it, just her compelling one is also worthy?" Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Dad, it's only a few hundred thousand. It's not a big deal. Besides, don't I have friends? It's easy to get cosmetics."

Jacob Wilson couldn't help but sighed: "Oh, what a pity, what a pity!"

Charlie Wade smiled without saying a word.

In the eyes of the old husband, it would be a pity for Elaine Ma to use a pack of baby noodles for one dollar.

However, to myself, what's the problem with this little money?

Don't say you spend money, just call Cameron Isaac, Mr. White, and Mr. Quinton and ask them to help buy 10 or 20 sets. What's the point?

The point is that with a little bit of petty profit, you can make your mother-in-law submissive. This business is simply not too cost-effective. Jacob Wilson on the side vaguely asked: "Hey, by the way, Charlie Wade, that...Dad, can you... please?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "Dad, tell me, what are you doing so politely with me?"

Jacob Wilson smiled, rubbed his hands, and said, "If you have a way to get this kind of cosmetics, can you get me one more set?"

Charlie Wade asked subconsciously, "Dad, are you still going to take care of it? But it doesn't seem to be necessary. It's more flavorful when a man is older!"

Jacob Wilson smiled embarrassedly: "Dad doesn't hide from you, I want to ask you for a set, not for my own use. I want to find a chance to give it to Matilda, you know, Dad has no money now, you Han Matilda has been back for so long, and Dad hasn't given someone a gift yet. How embarrassed..." Then he said, "I wondered, since you have a way to get this kind of cosmetics, then help dad get one more set. Dad will take it to give you Matilda, is it a little bit of face?"

Chapter 1423

As a man, Charlie Wade understands Jacob Wilson's thoughts very well. In fact, which man does not want to make his beloved woman happy? It's just that some people really can't reach it, and they can't do anything.

Just like Charlie Wade before, not only is he penniless, but also has no longs. Sometimes when Claire Wilson Wilson celebrates his birthday, or when the two of them celebrate their wedding anniversary, Charlie Wade also hopes to give his wife a gift. gift. But because there is no money, I can only think about it.

The first valuable gift he gave to his wife was the jade necklace he bought for her at the jewelry store after Stephen Thompson found him. Before that, even if Charlie Wade wanted to give his wife the whole world, with his ability at the time, he couldn't even give away a set of cosmetics from the past.

Regardless of how old Jacob Wilson is, but at this moment, he is still in love with Matilda, who has been away for more than 20 years, so he naturally hopes to give her some decent gifts.

Charlie Wade understood this very well.

So he said very generously: "Okay, Dad, then I'll make an extra set and bring it to you then."

"Great!" Jacob Wilson was so excited that he couldn't add anything, and said excitedly: "Good son-in-law, you really did a great favor to Dad." As he said, he was too busy to ask him: "By the way, you must not let your mother-in-law and the shrew know about this matter, otherwise, Dad will be over, do you know?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "Don't worry, Dad, I know in my heart that I will leave a set in the trunk of your car when you come, and you can take it with you when you meet Matilda next time."

"Okay, great, my good son-in-law thought it all!"

Charlie Wade drove the happy old man to the gate of the university for the elderly.

After Jacob Wilson got out of the car, Charlie Wade drove straight to the airport to see Stefanie off.

Stefanie's private jet is parked in the business hangar of the airport. There are no other passengers, no reporters or paparazzi here, so she can give her the greatest freedom and privacy.

Charlie Wade was here too, and saw Stefanie who was dressed in a capable little suit.

At this time, Stefanie seemed to be a standard strong woman.

Seeing Charlie Wade coming, Stefanie couldn't help showing the shame and happiness of the little woman.

Since meeting Charlie Wade, her mind has not been able to get rid of Charlie Wade's figure.

Although the memories that she can think of in her mind and that she shared with Charlie Wade stayed at a young age, because she has repeatedly deepened the impression in her mind for so many years, the memory of more than ten years ago, on the contrary, lingered in her mind. The power of psychological suggestion is very powerful, and the scumbag who likes PUA girls like Kian uses the powerful influence of psychological suggestion.

Long-term psychological hints can make a person lose himself.

Ordinary girls, in front of the masters of psychological suggestion, are afraid that they will fall within a few months.

As for Stefanie, she has been making psychological hints to herself for more than ten years, and this influence has become even more profound. It can be said that it has reached a point where it is deeply rooted and deeply rooted.

Therefore, after she met Charlie Wade again, she immediately began to take on the role of his fiancée.

When she slept last night, she even began to imagine that the two would return to Eastcliff for a wedding in the future.

Chapter 1424

Seeing Charlie Wade at this time, the girl's heart in her bones suddenly burst, and she ran all the way to Charlie Wade, grabbed his arm, and said quietly, "Charlie Wade, I am going back to Eastcliff today. Are you willing to leave?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "You have to go home, and you have to go back to participate in the rehearsal of the Spring Festival Gala. People across the country are waiting to see your performance on the Spring Festival Gala."

Stefanie mumbled dissatisfiedly: "Answer the question! What people want to ask is, you are not willing to go back!"

Charlie Wade wanted to say that he was willing, but felt that after speaking out, Stefanie would definitely be anxious with herself.

However, he couldn't say that he was reluctant, because he actually wanted Stefanie to go back quickly, otherwise she would only bring trouble and trouble to him if she continued to stay in Aurouss Hilll.

If Claire Wilson Wilson knew what happened to her and himself, he wouldn't know how angry she would be.

So, he said vaguely: "Oh, anyway, you go back to work on your work, and I will visit your house in a few days, soon."

"Okay, then." Stefanie pouted, nodded lightly, and said: "I will not tell my father when I go back. I will give him a surprise when you go."

Charlie Wade said, "Okay, then don't tell Uncle Orrin first."

The crew was already checking before takeoff. Cherie also took Stefanie's personal luggage and boarded the private jet first.

Stefanie stood outside the cabin door, faintly looking at the tall and handsome Charlie Wade in front of her, and said, "Charlie Wade, after I leave, you have to remember to miss me, do you know?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "I know, I know, don't worry, I will definitely miss you."

Stefanie said again: "You must have a string in your mind at all times, and keep reminding yourself that I am your true fiancée, and the other women outside are all hurried travellers in your life, my dad. In this life, I have a daughter, and you have an uncle in my eyes. You can't let him down."

Charlie Wade's head was big for a while, but he could only say: "Oh, that...I know, oh, it's getting late, you can get on the plane."

Stefanie gave a hum, and reluctantly said, "Then I'm leaving..."

"Let's go, good luck."

Stefanie pursed her lips and looked at him, and immediately gathered courage, kissed him on the cheek, blushing and said, "This is a reward for you in advance."

Charlie Wade asked in surprise: "What are you rewarding me in advance?"

Stefanie said: "Reward you in advance, remember to miss me!"

After speaking, she blushed and turned back to her private jet.

At the moment the cabin door closed, she was still standing at the door and waving to Charlie Wade.

The aircraft engine started and slowly pushed out from the hangar.

Charlie Wade breathed a sigh of relief. He hurried back to the parking lot and drove straight to the city center.

When he drove out, he immediately called Cameron Isaac, and he came up and said: "Isaac, can you help me see if there is a high-end skin care brand, and what kind of caviar is anti-aging?"

Cameron Isaac said: "There is indeed such a brand, and we sell it in Shangri-La. The world's top high-end skin care brand is much stronger than the sea blue mystery."

Charlie Wade asked wonderingly: "Does Shangri-La still sell skin care products?"

Cameron Isaac smiled and said, "Master, you have never lived in Shangri-La. You may not have any understanding of Shangri-La's hotel rooms. There is a large high-end shopping mall in Shangri-La's hotel room department. What are the top brands such as Hermes, Chanel and Dior? The specialty stores have everything, which is also a popular way of playing in top hotels in the world. Accommodation, dining, leisure and entertainment, plus shopping, strive to provide high-end customers with a one-stop holiday, and even save the energy of going out shopping."

Charlie Wade suddenly realized, "That's right, you can help me buy three sets of caviar anti-aging cosmetics, and someone will send me to Aurouss Hilll Stadium."

Chapter 1425

When Cameron Isaac hurried to buy cosmetics for Charlie Wade, Charlie Wade had already arrived at the Aurouss Hilll Gymnasium.

Today, the game has reached the semi-finals.

In the last game, Aurora's performance in beating Joanna with a single move caused great attention on the Internet, and immediately pushed the attention of this game to a peak.

Therefore, today's semi-finals attracted the attention of audiences from all over the country, so much so that outside the Aurouss Hilll Stadium, a large number of spectators bought tickets at high prices just to witness Aurora's advancement to the final.

Inside and outside the venue, Kobayashi's Niranax advertisements have been launched with great fanfare. Because they are the title dealer, their advertising elements are everywhere. Just use the camera to take a picture. There must be Kobayashi's Niranax advertisements in this screen. Moreover, the TV station that broadcasts the game also always displays the logo of Kobayashi Niranax on the lower right corner of the TV screen. What's even more powerful is that many network anchors are on the scene, using their mobile phones to broadcast live to people on the live broadcast platform. This process is also expanding the influence of Niranex.

It can be said that Kobayashi's Niranex won enough eyeballs at once. Jiro Kobayashi was overjoyed for this.

At first, I only thought that this game would not attract too many people's attention, but fortunately, the naming rights were sold cheaply, but I did not expect that Aurora would make the game completely popular, and I really made a lot of money. .

After Charlie Wade arrived at the gymnasium, he went to the players' lounge at the back. As soon as he entered the room, Aurora was jumping on the spot to warm up, and Mr. Quinton and Steven Quinton were also there. Seeing Charlie Wade coming in, Aurora hurried forward and said affectionately: "Master Wade, you are here!"

Charlie Wade nodded, smiled and asked, "Aurora, how do you feel today?" Aurora hurriedly said: "Master Wade, I feel in a particularly good state! Don't worry, I will definitely win this game!"

Charlie Wade sighed and laughed: "I think with your current strength, no one in this competition can compare to you, so you have to worry about how to make the game more beautiful."

Aurora couldn't hide the shame and asked: "Master Wade, oh no, coach Wade, how do you say I should play this game to make it more beautiful?"

Charlie Wade said calmly: "It's very simple, just like last time, we still have to win with one move!"

In Charlie Wade's view, the perfect way to win a contest between warriors is to win with one move!

The 300 rounds of the war, of course, were hearty.

However, the fact that it usually takes so long to win the battle shows that the actual gap between the two sides is not large, and it can even be said to be equal.

Aurora's current strength is far beyond those of these contestants. It's just that she herself is somewhat lacking in tactics. If she accumulates more experience, her actual combat ability can be improved.

Aurora felt a little unsure, but seeing Charlie Wade believe in herself so much, she nodded and resolutely said: "Coach, rest assured, I will go all out!"

At this moment, in another lounge.

Nanako Ito was wrapped in a blanket with her eyes closed.

Both Tanaka Koichi and Jiro Kobayashi were standing by. Tanaka also had a mobile phone in his hand. The mobile phone was streaming video with Yamamoto Kazuki who was lying on the hospital bed.

But Kazuki Yamamoto on the other end of the phone didn't make a sound. He just looked at his student quietly through Tanaka's lens.

Yamamoto Kazuki was worried that Nanako Ito's mentality would collapse.

Chapter 1426

After all, the appearance of Charlie Wade subverted the cognition of their master and apprentice, and brought a heavy blow to their enthusiasm.

However, Yamamoto Kazuki still hopes Nanako Ito can play well.

Even if she couldn't win the championship this time, with her strength, it would be fine to win a runner-up.

However, if she does not perform well, the runner-up may not be able to get it.

Fortunately, he found through the video that Nanako Ito is nothing different from usual.

Nanako Ito herself is not the kind of player who is particularly excited, so she is usually very quiet before the competition and likes to close her eyes and rest like she is now.

Seeing that the time was almost up, Tanaka Hiroichi spoke: "Miss, I will exit the venue in five minutes."

Nanako Ito opened her eyes and nodded gently: "I see."

Koichi Tanaka said again: "Miss, I'm talking about the video with Coach Yamamoto. Do you have anything else to ask him?"

With that, he immediately switched the camera and pointed the phone screen at Nanako Ito.

At this time, Nanako Ito saw the weak Yamamoto Kazuki on the hospital bed and said respectfully: "Master, how are you feeling now?"

Yamamoto Kazuki laughed at himself: "My biggest problem is that I don't feel it everywhere."

Nanako Ito hurriedly apologized and said, "I'm sorry, Master, I didn't mean it."

Yamamoto Kazuki smiled slightly and said, "It's okay, I have already accepted my fate."

As he said, he raised his voice a little bit, and said bluntly: "Nanako! Today's game is very important to you. Whether you can get the silver medal or not depends on whether you can win this game. "

"Being a teacher is not a blow to you, but you are probably not Aurora's opponent, but as long as you agree to this game, the silver medal will already be in your pocket."

The rule of the top four matches is to fight in pairs, the two who win compete for the championship and the two who lose compete for the third place.

In other words, as long as Nanako wins today, she will at least have the silver medal for the runner-up.

When Nanako Ito heard this, she nodded seriously, and said, "Master, Nanako knows that she is not Aurora's opponent, but Nanako will definitely work hard to finish every remaining game, and will never shame you!"

Yamamoto Kazuki said with satisfaction: "Very well, this game is won, and the next game will face Aurora. At that time, you will not only go all out, but also let Charlie Wade look at you with admiration, and then take advantage of Aurora's match. If you have a chance, you will ask Charlie Wade to accept you as a disciple!"

Nanako Ito smiled bitterly: "Master, Charlie Wade cannot accept me as a disciple."

Yamamoto Kazuki said puzzledly: "In my opinion, a talented apprentice like you will never refuse. Charlie Wade must be the same. Why does he refuse you?"

Nanako Ito shook her head and said, "Just because I am a Japanese."

"What?" Yamamoto Kazuki frowned and asked, "Charlie Wade looks down on us Japanese?"

Nanako Ito said: "It's not that he look's down on it, but he said that the Chinese have taught too many Japanese, but the Japanese have been avenging revenge for two or three hundred years, so..."

When Yamamoto Kazuki heard this, he couldn't help but sighed and said:

"Charlie Wade masters the real high-end martial arts. Before we have seen his strength, we just sit and watch the sky, but after seeing his strength, if we don't have a chance to practice. His kind of high-end martial arts really feels that he has been practicing in vain for so many years..."

Chapter 1427

Nanako Ito is also very sorry in her heart.

Knowing that she was sitting in the well and watching the sky, what she wanted most was to jump out of this well, but Charlie Wade didn't give herself this opportunity.

Yamamoto Kazuki saw her look down and hurriedly calmed down: "Nanako, it's not the time to consider this issue. You will win this game first, and we will discuss the rest!"

Nanako Ito nodded heavily, and immediately said to Yamamoto Kazuki: "Master, then I will be on the stage."

"Go!" Yamamoto Kazuki encouraged: "This game must go all out, whether Charlie Wade is willing to accept you as a disciple. You must let him see your strength, so this game, you play as beautiful as possible!"

"Pretty?"

"Yes!" Yamamoto Kazuki said firmly: "Nanako, the last time that Aurora defeated Joanna with a single move, she was very popular on the Internet. I hope you will do your best when you play and give your opponents. Control the enemy with one move!"

Nanako Ito sighed: "Master, Michelle is the second seed. We have played against each other before. Although I have beaten her every time, I cannot avoid a fierce battle every time. It is difficult to defeat her with one move... .."

Yamamoto Kazuki said: "If you can't control the enemy with one move, you have to do your best to defeat her in the first game. You want Charlie Wade to see your strength and let him look at you with admiration!"

"Even if it is impossible for him to accept you as a disciple in his life, you must let him know that your talent is far above Aurora! Not accepting you as a disciple is his loss!"

Nanako Ito immediately resolutely said: "I know Master!"

One minute later.

The four players participating in the semi-finals are already waiting to play in their respective channels.

Aurora and Nanako Ito coincided with the same mentality: they must do their best to win with one move, let Charlie Wade look at each other with admiration!

After the host finished his opening remarks, he first announced: "First of all, let's invite our Chinese player, Aurora!"

Aurora took a deep breath and stepped out of the passage first.

Subsequently, the host announced: "Next, I will invite Aurora's opponent this time, the Australian player Victoria!"

As soon as the voice fell, a blonde Australian female player also walked out of the passage.

The Australian player's expression was a bit nervous, and the overall momentum was much weaker than Aurora. It can be seen that she should have no confidence in today's game.

Then, the host called Nanako Ito's name and her opponent, Michelle from the United States.

Nanako Ito and Michelle are both very calm, and their eyes are full of desire to win this game.

Michelle was originally the second seed in this game, and her strength was not much weaker than Nanako. After watching Aurora's last game, she also realized that she had no hope of competing for the championship this time, so she and Nanako Ito's The strategy is the same, all hope to win this game as much as possible and secure the silver medal for the runner-up.

Even Michelle thought more realistically.

She felt that as long as she had won the game, when she faced Aurora in the final, she could directly abstain and admit defeat on the spot.

Not only will this not affect you from getting the silver medal, but it will also not bring you any risk of injury.

After all, Aurora's strength in the last game was too strong, and Michelle was afraid that when she finally met in the final, she would be injured under her hands.

An athlete has to participate in many games a year, and losing one is actually not a pain, but if you are unable to participate in a year of competition due to injury, it is really not worth the gain.

Chapter 1428

At this time, the four contestants respectively boarded two arenas.

The two arenas are on the left and the other is on the right. Each arena is surrounded by the audience.

Today, there were no empty seats, and the applause, whistles and applause before the game started, it was endless.

Charlie Wade stood under the ring behind Aurora, which was also the position of the coach in the Sanda competition.

The opponent's coach looked at him nervously at this time, and looked at Aurora on the ring from time to time. The towel in his hand was always ready. Once his apprentice couldn't support herself on the stage, he would be the fastest Throw the towel in time and admit defeat.

On the ring, Aurora looked at her opponent Victoria with a grim expression.

Before Charlie Wade didn't help her improve her physique, she was not an opponent of Victoria. After all, this Australian girl was tall and tall, and her physical function was better than Aurora before.

But now, she has full confidence in defeating Victoria.

She was just thinking about what method she should use to achieve a victory against Victoria.

At the same time, in another ring, Nanako Ito is also considering the same issue.

Her eyes were not on the opponent Michelle, but on Charlie Wade by the side of the other ring.

Although Charlie Wade was not watching her at this time, she firmly believed that if she performed well enough, Charlie Wade would definitely see herself!

What is good enough?

It seems that you have to defeat Michelle with one move, just like the master said!

At this moment, the referees on both sides of the ring announced the start of the game at the same time!

Here, Aurora stared at Australia's Victoria, ready to find the opponent's flaws.

Victoria was quite jealous of Aurora, so she would not dare to take the initiative to step forward for a while, she had been doing a defensive posture, watching Aurora vigilantly.

On the other hand, as soon as the game started, American player Michelle yelled and immediately attacked Nanako Ito!

For Michelle, she had long been eager to defeat Nanako Ito, and she also knew that her strength was too far behind Aurora, so she concentrated all her energy on Nanako Ito.

The American fighting mentality itself is very fierce, open and close, and attack with all strength as soon as it comes up. Nanako Ito can only retreat quickly and dodge the raindrops of the opponent's offensive.

At this time, Nanako Ito did not dare to fight back, because she had an obsession in her heart, and wanted to defeat Michelle by one move for Charlie Wade to see, so she must not blindly shoot, she must find the best time to solve the battle at once. !

Aurora was already approaching Victoria at this time. While swinging her body to prepare for dodge, she kept shortening the distance with Victoria, and was also looking for the best time.

But Victoria was quite wary of her and kept backing away, hoping to keep a safe distance from her.

Just when Victoria was forced to the corner of the ring by Aurora, Aurora suddenly seized the opportunity and rushed towards Victoria like a rabbit.

Victoria was nervous, with both hands in front of her, ready to resist Aurora's first offensive in time.

Aurora strode quickly, and after her left leg stepped out, she suddenly took a step forward for more than half a meter, her body rotated in the air, and her right leg quickly drew towards Victoria!

Chapter 1429

In the air, there was even Aurora's voice of breaking through the sky. Victoria's face was shocked!

She had watched Aurora's game against Joanna, and knew that Aurora was extremely explosive, and with this kick, she was afraid that she would fly directly out of the ring like Joanna.

As a result, she quickly withdrew her right leg one step, the left and right legs were in a triangle shape with the ground to strengthen the stability of her bottom plate, and then she blocked her arms in front of her, preparing to block Aurora's blow with a deblocking action.

But she was not Joanna, and she had no idea how strong Aurora's kick was! She only felt that her arms were hit by a huge force, and then she heard two crisp cracks, and her two arms were kicked and broken!

Accompanied by a strong pain, she could no longer withstand the powerful force, and her whole body was like Joanna in the previous game, and she threw back into the air directly!

A huge exclamation broke out at the scene!

No one thought that Aurora could be so strong!

And Victoria's coach also looked terrified at this time, he quickly threw the towel into the air, and rushed to Victoria very nervous!

After a while, Victoria was taken away from the scene by the doctor with a painful face, and Aurora once again won and advanced to the final!

A burst of cheers broke out at the scene, and it was an unprecedented breakthrough for Chinese players to enter the finals of the college Sanda competition.

While celebrating the victory here, Nanako Ito was beaten repeatedly by Michelle from the United States. She didn't make a move, so that she was hit by Michelle several times in the face, and the corners of her mouth and eyes were bruised and bloody. , Looks very miserable.

While Michelle wondered why Nanako Ito only resisted and didn't fight back, she also seized the opportunity to beat Nanako Ito frantically.

In her opinion, Nanako Ito should be out of state, so she just took this opportunity to defeat her in one fell swoop.

Nanako Ito felt the severe pain coming from the injured part and tried to fight back several times, but she resisted the urge.

She warned herself in her heart: "I can't act rashly! I want to win with one move! I must win with one move! I must make Charlie Wade look at me with admiration! Michelle, you can attack with all your strength! I will not fight back! At least Before I find your fatal flaw, I will never fight back! Because you are not my enemy at all in my eyes, you are just the transcript that I proved myself to Charlie Wade!"

Michelle doesn't know what Nanako Ito is thinking, she just feels that she has finally found a chance to be shameful!

I have been defeated by her many times before, and today, I am going to defeat her in the face of the whole world in a devastating way!

Thinking of this, she immediately punched Nanako Ito one after another, every punch was extremely harsh!

At this time, the referee on the other side of the ring had already announced Aurora's victory. Aurora rushed off the stage excitedly and hugged Charlie Wade, happily with nothing to add.

Charlie Wade patted her on the back and smiled: "Don't be so happy now. You have a game to play in two days. Go take a shower and change your clothes."

Aurora nodded hurriedly, and said with admiration and admiration: "Coach Wade, you must wait for me, don't slip away while I am going to change clothes!"

Charlie Wade nodded: "Okay, I'm waiting for you."

Aurora was relieved, and after bowing to the audience, she returned to the backstage rest area.

Charlie Wade only paid attention to the war in the next ring.

Chapter 1430

Looking from a distance, he was a little surprised. He didn't expect that Nanako Ito would be hit by the American girl. She seemed very passive and could not fight back.

Moreover, her beautiful face was bruised and bleeding because of repeated hits, especially the corner of her right eye seemed to be a little cracked, which was very disturbing.

He couldn't help but stepped to the edge of the ring and carefully observed Nanako Ito. He found that although Nanako Ito was injured, she was very passive in the situation, but her eyes were constantly watching each other's movements. Don't let up.

He couldn't understand, since Nanako Ito had been observing the opponent, why didn't she fight back? What is she waiting for?

At this moment, Nanako Ito also saw Charlie Wade.

She was a little surprised when she was surprised.

Because she actually saw a bit of distress in Charlie Wade's eyes.

She asked herself from the bottom of her heart, "Is the distress in Charlie Wade's eyes because of me? Is he distressing me?"

At the next moment, she thought a little bit self-deprecating: "Why would he feel sorry for me? In his eyes, she is just a Japanese girl sitting on a well and watching the sky, and my strength, in his eyes, is almost worthless like an ant. Mention, not to mention, my compatriots have hurt his compatriots. My master has humiliated him. Even if he hasn't offended him, he will certainly hate him."

"So, even if he loves Michelle across from him, it is absolutely impossible for him to love herself."

"But... but the look in his eyes really hurts me! Could it be that he really loves me?"

"It seems that there is only one way to know if he is feeling sorry for me!"

Thinking of this, Nanako Ito deliberately left a gap for the opponent when resisting Michelle's attack.

boom!

Michelle seized the opportunity and hit Nanako Ito's right cheek with a punch, and immediately hit her cheek black and purple, even bleeding! When Nanako Ito was resisting this punch, her eyes kept looking at Charlie Wade.

She found that at the moment when she was hit by Michelle, the distress on Charlie Wade's face became more obvious!

Although her face was painful, she couldn't help but jump for joy for some reason!

"He really cares about me!"

Thinking of this, a happy little woman smiled on her face.

Michelle was very excited for her success just now. When she saw this scene, she could not help but frown, and wondered in her heart: "What is going on with this Nanako Ito? If she is not in the state just now, then Can't be explained by being absent? Isn't this a lunacy?"

Just between the sparks and flints she was wondering, Nanako Ito, who was so happy in her heart, suddenly discovered that Michelle's figure was stuttered!

At this moment, she suddenly realized that the opportunity she had been waiting for had come!

Moreover, Charlie Wade is looking at her here, and he is looking at her with distressed eyes here, she must seize this opportunity to defeat Michelle!

Not only should Charlie Wade be shocked but Let Charlie Wade applaud for her!

Chapter 1431

When Nanako Ito thought about this, her powerful thoughts supported her, holding back her pain, and bursting out a powerful explosive force in an instant!

Immediately afterwards, I saw Nanako Ito suddenly jumped on the spot and turned around. Her body turned 270 degrees, her slender right leg was already raised high, and her foot was drawn across Michelle's face!

Michelle was still surprised by Nanako Ito's abnormal performance today. She did not expect that she could suddenly attack herself in an instant!

Moreover, Michelle couldn't imagine that, because of Charlie Wade's sake at this time, the whole person was stimulated with great potential!

Nanako's strength in this blow has far surpassed her usual peak state!

Michelle came back to her senses, and when she was rushing to resist, the window of time Nanako Ito left for her has passed!

She only felt that a black shadow was carrying a strong force and struck straight towards her profile. She was shocked and was about to dodge, feeling that the strong force had hit herself suddenly!

Boom!

She felt that her brain was cut off by this kick, and her mind was stunned, and her whole person instantly lost consciousness and fell straight down!

This.....

The scene was shocked!

No one thought that Nanako Ito was in extreme passiveness just now, and she was almost beaten by Michelle. How could she suddenly explode with such a powerful lethality and knocked Michelle out with one kick!

After a moment of silence, thunderous applause broke out on the scene! Today's game is really amazing for them! Two arenas, two games, the winners turned out to be one move to control the enemy! Needless to say, Aurora kicked off her opponent's arms with a single kick, as sharp as a typhoon!

As for Nanako Ito, even though she has been pressed and beaten by the opponent, she has never made a move. As expected, it is deadly if she does not make a move! Just seize an opportunity for the opponent to lose his mind, and immediately defeat the opponent, simply and neatly!

Charlie Wade could not help but secretly start to see this scene in the audience!

I thought that Nanako Ito was controlled by others everywhere, but I didn't expect that after receiving so many fists, this girl would be able to seize the opportunity, reverse all disadvantages in one fell swoop, and win with one move. This forbearance and courage is indeed admirable! At this time, the referee stepped forward to check Michelle's situation. After finding that Michelle was unconscious, he immediately called the doctor of the event team. After the doctor came to check, he was indeed unconscious and needed to be sent to the hospital for treatment, so he came. Several staff members directly put the unconscious Michelle on a stretcher and rushed to the hospital.

Nanako Ito on the ring, looking through the excited and cheering crowd, fell straight on Charlie Wade's face. Seeing Charlie Wade's face was shocked, she was also very excited.

"Charlie Wade! After all, I achieved the goal of winning with one move! Did I make you admire?"

Charlie Wade met her eyes at this moment, and was a little surprised at the perseverance in the Japanese girl's eyes and the trace of persistence in her expression.

After a while, he gave her a thumbs up from a long distance away.

After a few seconds, he spread out his thumb-gesturing hand, waved at Nanako Ito, and then turned and left.

Seeing Charlie Wade's back, Nanako Ito was shocked.

But recalling the thumb that Charlie Wade had just gestured to herself, she felt a sweet feeling in her heart.

Chapter 1432

The referee took the microphone and said: "Now I announce that the winner of this game is the Japanese player, Nanako Ito!"

"Today's game was really exciting. No one wanted to get it. The two winners from both sides of the ring turned out to be directly qualified for the finals by winning with one move!"

"Among them, Ms. Aurora of China, after defeating Joanna of Brazil in the last match, once again performed the shocking show of winning by one blow. The reality is breathtaking!"

"In addition, Ms. Aurora, a Chinese player, will also compete with Ms. Nanako Ito of Japan in the finals the day after tomorrow!"

"The losers of the two games, Ms. Victoria of Australia and Ms. Michelle of the United States, will compete for the third place, so stay tuned!"

The audience was extremely excited!

Unexpectedly, the Chinese players were able to reach the finals all the way, and they performed impeccably in both games. They were simply the biggest dark horses in this game!

What's interesting is that the two female players who advanced to the final are both Asian players, and they are both very beautiful and exquisite beauties!

Needless to say, Aurora's hot toned figure is simply superb in the eyes of men.

And Nanako Ito is as gentle as water and extremely soft, which forms a great contrast with her strength, and is the object of all men's fascination!

These two top beauties compete for the championship, and the championship game will be very beautiful!

In the audience, Jiro Kobayashi was so excited!

I never dreamed that the two games were so beautiful.

There is no doubt that this top 4 competition has pushed the heat of this game to a new peak.

Then Kobayashi's Niranax will soar into the sky with it!

When Charlie Wade walked out of the gymnasium, Aurora also changed into plain clothes and walked out with her father and younger brother.

When she saw Charlie Wade, she was excited to come forward and talk to him, when she suddenly discovered that a large number of reporters had emerged around her, surrounding her to a point.

Aurora is now the most concerned object in Aurouss Hilll. Of course, the reporters can't wait to interview her in depth.

Aurora was besieged by the reporters, and suddenly became a little anxious, so she was a little absent-minded to ask the reporters' questions.

At this moment, Charlie Wade saw this scene and sent her a WeChat message and said to her: "Aurora, please accept the interview with the TV station. This is good for you in the future. I have something to do first."

Aurora saw this WeChat and looked out of the crowd with her feet in her arms. She saw that Charlie Wade had already gone far, and she couldn't help feeling a little disappointed.

But when she thought of what Charlie Wade had just told himself on WeChat, she obediently put away her mind and patiently answered the reporter's question.

At this moment, Charlie Wade had just arrived in the parking lot and saw Cameron Isaac's Rolls Royce, parked in front of his old dad's BMW.

Seeing Charlie Wade coming, Cameron Isaac hurriedly got out of the car and said respectfully to Charlie Wade: "Master, I have brought the cosmetics you want. It is in the trunk. You open your trunk and I will put it directly for you. go in."

"Well, you can help me put it in the car."

Charlie Wade said, took out the BMW car key and opened the trunk directly.

Cameron Isaac also hurriedly opened the trunk of the Rolls-Royce and took out three huge and luxurious gift boxes from it. This gift box is very valuable at first glance. Even the luxury brand Hermès, which starts at hundreds of thousands, may not be comparable in packaging.

Chapter 1433

The size of each gift box is comparable to a business suitcase, and the whole is in black and gold tones, which is luxurious and low-key and calm.

Charlie Wade couldn't help being curious: "Why is a suit so big?"

Cameron Isaac hurriedly explained: "Master, the gift set I chose is the most complete and most expensive one in their family. The price is 388,888. It contains all their products, and their most classic face creams and eye creams are all Very large quantity."

Charlie Wade nodded: "Thanks for your hard work."

Cameron Isaac hurriedly said, "Master, this should be all!"

Charlie Wade gave a hum and said, "By the way, Isaac, I am going to Eastcliff next week. Aurouss Hilll will be left to you and Don Albertt, especially my wife. You must send someone. Secretly protecting her, the Webb family is still lingering, I guess they are still unwilling to give up."

Cameron Isaac exclaimed: "Master, are you going to Eastcliff? Are you going back to Wade's house?"

Charlie Wade shook his head: "I have no plans to go back now."

Cameron Isaac asked in amazement: "Master, please forgive me to speak up. Why are you going to Eastcliff this time? If you don't return to Wade's house, then you must be careful of Sam from the Kilgore family! I heard that he After the operation, I was resting in bed at home for half a month. I hate you for getting into the bone!"

"Hate me to my bones?" Charlie Wade sneered: "A young master from the Kilgore family dared to bark in front of me. I have my own serious business to do when I go to Eastcliff. If he doesn't have eyesight, he dares to come. If you mess with me, then I won't make him feel better."

Cameron Isaac asked again: "Master, should I inform the family so that they can receive you there, which can also provide you with some convenience."

"No need." Charlie Wade said, "I don't want the Wade family to know this time, so you have to keep it secret for me."

"Good young master."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Isaac, I want to ask you one thing."

Cameron Isaac hurriedly said, "Master, please do not hesitate to ask."

Charlie Wade asked, "Do you know what happened to my parents' death back then?"

Cameron Isaac said embarrassingly: "Master, when your parents passed away, I hadn't worked in the Wade family. I was studying at the time. After graduation, I applied for a company under the Wade family, and then I was gradually promoted to the spokesperson of Aurouss Hilll. The matter of my parents was absolutely forbidden to discuss in the Wade family at that time. People who were older than me were silent about it at the time, so I did not follow up on the details."

Charlie Wade frowned and nodded lightly.

From this point of view, there must be hidden secrets about what happened to the parents back then, but this may be highly confidential in the Wade family, and as Cameron Isaac's identity, it is still difficult to touch. So he didn't ask any more questions, just told him: "Issac, just remember our conversation just now, remember not to talk to anyone, if the Wade family asks about it, absolutely can't disclose it."

Cameron Isaac looked terrified and blurted out, "Master, don't worry! I will never reveal a half word to the outside world!"

If this matter was placed before Charlie Wade slayed the Eight Heavenly Kings at the foot of Golim Mountain, then Cameron Isaac would naturally prefer the Wade family in his heart. Charlie Wade was just a young master living in the Wade family, and the Wade family was his master.

But when he saw Charlie Wade's powerful supernatural powers at the foot of Golim Mountain, he made up his mind in his heart and bowed his head to worship Charlie Wade in this life!

In other words, in the eyes of Cameron Isaac now, he has only one master, Charlie Wade Wade.

If Charlie Wade asked him to draw swords against the Wade Family, he would follow suit without hesitation.

.....

Farewell to Cameron Isaac, Charlie Wade drove away from Aurouss Hilll Stadium alone.

Instead of going home immediately, he called his old father-in-law Jacob Wilson and asked him, "Dad, where are you?"

Jacob Wilson grinned and said, "Good son-in-law, I am at a senior university. Our lecture was very successful. Now everyone is eagerly discussing it. Don't you know, the atmosphere is really great!"

Chapter 1434

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled, and asked him, "Is Matilda here?"

"Of course!" Jacob Wilson smiled and whispered: "Your Matilda is sitting next to me, and I'm teaching her how to taste Yan Zhenqing's writing!"

"Yes, dad!" Charlie Wade said with a smile, "have you studied Hemingway?"

"Yes." Jacob Wilson said cheerfully: "I don't only study Hemingway but also Ghandi, Aristole, Socrates, and Confucius, Matilda and I have researched each!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Okay, I have to learn more from you another day."

Then he said: "By the way, Dad, I have already got the skin care products you want, or I will send them to you now and take them home. If mom finds out that there is an extra set, it will be difficult to handle. ."

The reason why Charlie Wade asked Cameron Isaac to prepare three skin care products was because he felt that in addition to rewarding Elaine Ma, he naturally had to prepare a set for his wife Claire Wilson Wilson, and Jacob Wilson also wanted to give a set to Matilda.

However, if she took all these three sets home, in case Elaine Ma saw that in addition to Claire Wilson Wilson's set, she would definitely find a way to take possession of the remaining two sets.

Therefore, first take out the set that the old father-in-law is going to give to Matilda, so as not to have many dreams at night.

Just now the old man is with Matilda, this opportunity couldn't be better.

When Jacob Wilson heard this, he immediately said excitedly: "Oh my dear son-in-law, you are really capable! I just said this in the morning, and you can get it done so quickly. The efficiency is really amazing. !"

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently: "It's just a small matter, it's nothing, you wait for a while, and I will pass."

Jacob Wilson hurriedly said, "Then you will call me at the gate of the University for the Elderly, and I will go down."

"Ok!"

Ten minutes later, Charlie Wade came to the gate of Aurouss Hilll University for the Aged.

Pulling the car over and parked it steadily, he called the old man Jacob Wilson.

Soon, Jacob Wilson ran out, leaned to the window and asked with a smile, "Good son-in-law, where are the skin care products?"

Charlie Wade got out of the car, opened the trunk, took out a gift box from it and handed it to him: "Dad, this is it, you can take it."

Jacob Wilson took the gift box and exclaimed, "Oh, so big and heavy? How many things are there?"

Charlie Wade said: "There are probably more than a dozen products, all of which are in the same series and have everything."

Jacob Wilson nodded: "If the portion is so large, selling for hundreds of thousands is not too expensive."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "This is not more than a hundred thousand, this is the most expensive suit in their family, the price is 388,000!"

"What!" Jacob Wilson's eyes were about to fall on the ground: "Just such a gift box, nearly 400,000? This damn is enough to buy a BMW, and it is a 5 series BMW! Buying an Audi a6 is enough!"

Charlie Wade nodded: "It's really enough."

Jacob Wilson smacked his lips and said, "Oh, such expensive cosmetics, Elaine Ma's stinky lady is not worthy of use! Hey, I said my son-in-law, why don't you take this set and give her a set of more than 100,000 Dollar? , It can save you two hundred thousand!"

After a pause, Jacob Wilson persuaded: "These two hundred thousand, just use it for anything, not better than spending it on Elaine Ma? Let's buy a few antique calligraphy and paintings to hang at home, which can set off our home The compelling style of the scholarly family can continue to appreciate, isn't it good?"

Charlie Wade said jokingly: "Well, it's better to return this set and spend thousands of dollars to buy a set of high imitations, which can save 38,000 Dollar."

As soon as Jacob Wilson heard this, he slapped his thigh suddenly, and blurted out: "Good son-in-law, this is a good way! Take this set back, give her a fake, I'm sorry for her!"

Chapter 1435

Charlie Wade knew that Jacob Wilson was dissatisfied with Elaine Ma. These dissatisfactions have been accumulated over the years in the married life.

Especially after Matilda returned to China, the old man saw that Matilda was stronger than Elaine Ma, and his dissatisfaction became even stronger.

He even wanted to divorce his mother-in-law Elaine Ma, but Elaine Ma didn't give him this chance, so he naturally didn't like Elaine Ma now. However, he was so careful that, in Charlie Wade's view, he really couldn't make it to the stage.

It's just a set of cosmetics, and it would be too embarrassing to get a fake set of fools on Elaine Ma.

It doesn't matter if Elaine Ma found out. If Claire Wilson Wilson, his wife, knew that she would get fake skin care products for her mother, then she would definitely feel a little bit dissatisfied.

So he said to Jacob Wilson, "Dad, don't worry about this, and quickly send this set of skin care products to Matilda."

Jacob Wilson nodded and said, "By the way, Charlie Wade, I won't go back for dinner at night, and I happened to have a dinner with the senior college."

Charlie Wade replied: "Okay, then I will go back first."
Afterwards, Charlie Wade drove back to Thompson First's home alone.
As soon as he drove the car into the yard, he saw his wife Claire Wilson
Wilson's car had been parked at home.
It seems that my wife has already finished work.
Charlie Wade parked the car and walked into the house with two sets of skin care products. Elaine Ma was sitting cross-legged on the sofa in the living room watching TV. Claire Wilson Wilson had just washed some strawberries picked from his vegetable garden and brought them out of the kitchen. .
Seeing Charlie Wade, Claire Wilson Wilson asked him, "My husband, where did you go? You went out early in the morning and came back so late."
Charlie Wade raised the two gift boxes in his hand, and said with a smile: "Didn't I go to get skin care products for you and mom? I also showed them Feng Shui by the way."
In fact, Charlie Wade didn't want to lie and deceive Claire Wilson
Wilson.
It's just that there are too many secrets hidden in him, and I can't tell her for the time being.
Therefore, you must have a reasonable reason to explain the origin of these two sets of cosmetics.
Now that I am in front of my family, I have set up a person who can show others Feng Shui, so I simply set this person to the end.
Seeing that he had come back with two sets of caviar skin care products, Claire Wilson Wilson blurted out and exclaimed: "Did you really go to show others Feng Shui for cosmetics?"
Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "I don't want to exchange two sets, prepare one for you and mom, and let you use this top skin care product."
Claire Wilson Wilson was about to speak, Elaine Ma jumped up from the sofa with excitement, ignoring wearing slippers, ran over barefoot and limping, and said with excitement: "Oh, my good son-in-law. , Did you really get that caviar skin care product for mom?"
Charlie Wade nodded, and handed her a gift box.
Elaine Ma took the gift box over, without saying anything, just sat on the ground, and opened the gift box excitedly.
After opening it, seeing the huge gift box filled with all kinds of cosmetics, she became ecstatic and said, "Damn! So many things?!
This...this will be the most expensive in their house. That luxurious suit, right?"
Charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "Mom is quite eye-sighted, this is indeed their most expensive suit."
Elaine Ma's eyes flashed with excitement, and even a little trembling said: "Oh, I drop a boy, this is really the top platinum suit?! God! This set costs nearly four hundred thousand, right?"
Claire Wilson Wilson on the side was dumbfounded and asked, "Four hundred thousand?! Why is this thing so expensive?!"
Elaine Ma immediately said: "You don't understand! The most basic suit of this brand costs more than 100,000 Dollar, and the most expensive is this platinum suit! No, I have to take a picture of the circle of friends to show off!"
After speaking, she immediately jumped back to the sofa with one foot and took out her mobile phone.

Chapter 1436

Claire Wilson Wilson pulled Charlie Wade aside and said with some complaints: "Mom just said casually in the morning, why did you really buy her such expensive skin care products...a set of 400,000 Dollar, which is too scary. Now, why are we such a family..."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Isn't there a special channel, you don't need to care too much."

Claire Wilson Wilson whispered: "I'm afraid that my mother will look for this in the future. If she keeps asking you to buy her such expensive skin care products, what can you do?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "No, haven't you noticed that your mother has converged too much now? Just consider it as a reward for her converging during this period of time, so that she can converge more in the future."

Just as he was talking, Elaine Ma had already used his mobile phone to take a small video of Moments, and said excitedly: "Look at the two sets of caviar skin care products my good son-in-law bought me. They are all platinum. Suits, the two sets add up to at least more than 700,000!"

When Charlie Wade heard this, he immediately said, "Mom, these two sets are not for you, one for you and one for Claire Wilson Wilson!"

"Ah?" Elaine Ma said distressedly: "How young is she at first, she is naturally beautiful, and she can't find a wrinkle on her face. Why does she need to use this anti-aging skin care product now! Moisturizing is actually enough! "

Charlie Wade immediately resolutely said: "No, it was originally the two of you in one set, you can't take the Claire Wilson Wilson set as well."

Elaine Ma still feels reluctant, but now she dare not yell at Charlie Wade.

Stop clamoring, even if she talks back, she dare not.

So I can only nodded angrily: "Well, mom listens to you, and Claire Wilson Wilson and I have one set of these two sets of skin care products!"

Claire Wilson Wilson said: "I can't bear to use such expensive things..."

Elaine Ma's eyes lit up, and he was about to say you are reluctant to use it. Charlie Wade took the words and said, "My wife, if you are reluctant to use it, then I will withdraw both sets."

"Hey, don't!" Elaine Ma panicked, and said hurriedly: "Claire Wilson Wilson, this is Charlie Wade's intention. You are not allowed to be a donkey liver and lungs!"

Claire Wilson Wilson wanted to say something, Charlie Wade picked up a set, handed it to her, and said seriously: "If your husband gave you something, you can use it with confidence! When it's used up, your husband will buy it for you again!"

Claire Wilson Wilson felt Charlie Wade's deep love for him, and she felt sweet in his heart, and finally nodded and agreed.

Seeing this, Elaine Ma said excitedly: "I have to go back to the room to wash my face, and then use it first, I can't wait to feel it!"

After speaking, she took the cosmetics and took the elevator to the third floor.

Claire Wilson Wilson looked at her back and sighed helplessly.

It seems that my mother's vanity-loving character cannot be changed in this life.

However, the current mother is not without improvement, at least she treats Charlie Wade better than before, and at home is not as aggressive as before, and the home environment is therefore much more stable.

At this moment, her mobile phone suddenly received a call, and it turned out to be her mother Elaine Ma.

"Hey mom, what's the matter?"

Elaine Ma said anxiously, "Claire Wilson Wilson, come to my room! Come by yourself, don't let Charlie Wade follow!"

"What's the matter, mom?"

"Say it when you come!"

Claire Wilson Wilson had no choice but to say to Charlie Wade, "Mom let me go."

Charlie Wade didn't think too much, and nodded gently.

Claire Wilson Wilson took the elevator to the third floor and came to Elaine Ma's room. As soon as he reached the door, he was pulled in by Elaine Ma. Then Elaine Ma immediately locked the door and said nervously, "Good girl! I doubt it. Charlie Wade cheated!"

"Ah? Cheated?" Claire Wilson Wilson frowned, "Why?"

"Why?" Elaine Ma immediately took out a shopping receipt and blurted out: "Look at this! This receipt shows that Charlie Wade bought three copies of the same platinum suit, so why did he only get two back?! more What about the one that came out? It must be given to the vixen outside!"

Chapter 1437

Claire Wilson Wilson instinctively didn't believe what his mother said. She felt that Charlie Wade was sincere to herself, how could it be derailed?

So she seriously said to Elaine Ma: "Mom, you think too much! Charlie Wade can't be cheating!"

"Impossible?" Elaine Ma raised her eyebrows, and asked, "Then tell me why Charlie Wade bought three sets of skin care products? And only one set was brought back. Where did you go?"

Claire Wilson Wilson said: "Maybe it was bought for a friend, or maybe it was bought for a friend."

"Friends?" Elaine Ma said with a look of hatred for iron and steel, "It's just that a brainless person like you will believe it! This kind of thing is obviously bought for a woman. You said he is an orphan and doesn't have a mother. No relatives, except for the vixen, who else would you buy it for?"

Claire Wilson Wilson's expression was also a little unnatural.

She knew that what her mother said was not without reason.

Charlie Wade really has no relatives and no female friends in the local area, so who did he buy the extra set of skin care products for?

Could it be Jasmine, the daughter of the Moore family?

In the impression, that woman seemed to be a little different to her husband.

However, Claire Wilson Wilson couldn't believe that Jasmine was the eldest of the Moore family after all, and she had just become the head of the Moore family not long ago. Her status is extremely honorable. In Arouss Hillll, or even in Eastcliff, I'm afraid I can't find any stronger than he.

And her husband is a married man, so from a common sense, a woman like Jasmine will most likely not have a special relationship with her husband.

However, the receipt in my mother's hand clearly shows that this order does include three sets of skin care products, and who is the other set for?

Just when Claire Wilson Wilson was lost in thought, Elaine Ma hurriedly asked her in a low voice: "Girl, tell your mom, where are you now with Charlie Wade?"

Claire Wilson Wilson subconsciously asked, "What step?"

Elaine Ma hurriedly said: "It's those things between men and women! Mom won't go around with you, did you give Charlie Wade your body?"

Claire Wilson Wilson's face turned red in an instant, and he said falteringly: "Not yet."

Elaine Ma suddenly exploded: "Ah?! Not yet?! Are you stupid! Until now, you are still holding on to him. What are you waiting for?"

Claire Wilson Wilson lowered his head and said embarrassedly: "I don't know, I just think the situation between us is very delicate. At the beginning, we got married at the request of grandpa, so I never went there. It's developing."

Elaine Ma immediately said seriously: "Girl! You are stupid! A man has needs, you can't always satisfy him, then what if he turns his head to find someone else? Charlie Wade is also worth over 100 million. I don't know how many coquettish b*tches are lining up to come next to him!"

Speaking of this, Elaine Ma said hurriedly: "Listen to your mother's advice, hurry up and find a chance to take Charlie Wade down. It is best to conceive the child as soon as possible, otherwise one day Charlie Wade lets the fox go away. Our family is over!"

"Also, don't forget, this villa belongs to Charlie Wade! If he changes his mind and wants to divorce you, wouldn't he want to drive us out? I tell you, I don't want to come back to death. The old house in the past, this Thompson First villa, I will never leave!"

Claire Wilson Wilson is even more embarrassed

Chapter 1438

It is not that she has not considered this issue, but because of her personality, she has always been a little scared and shy, so she has never taken the initiative.

However, now listening to what Mom said, she couldn't help but feel a little nervous.

Elaine Ma sighed and sighed: "Hey, I used to look down on Charlie Wade in various ways. I always thought he was a trash. But now, if you look at it, this guy is still a little capable. Look at how many big people make him fool around. Ability! Look at this large villa of more than 100 million Dollar. It is refreshing and refreshing to live in it. If he increases his ability in the future, he may be able to fool a Maldivian island!"

"This" Claire Wilson Wilson said awkwardly: "Mom, don't you daydream all day long."

Elaine Ma said solemnly: "Dreams still have to be there! Because it might happen suddenly one day!"

As she said, she hurriedly said in a low voice: "You, hurry up and tell Charlie Wade the truth about the husband and wife, and also have to find a chance to ask, who is the skin care product he bought more? You must not take it lightly. If Charlie Wade really has the idea of cheating, he must be killed in advance! If he has cheated, he must be brought back first!"

Although Claire Wilson Wilson was a little nervous in his heart, he still said very seriously: "Mom, don't make any guesses here. I believe Charlie Wade's personality will not be what you think."

"Hey, kid, it's always good to be cautious!"

Claire Wilson Wilson faltered and said, "Oh, I won't tell you anymore, I will go down first."

Elaine Ma hurriedly grabbed her, stuffed the shopping receipt into her hand, and said, "Hold the evidence, and you must ask Charlie Wade for an opportunity!"

Holding the small ticket, Claire Wilson Wilson turned and ran out.

Charlie Wade was sitting on the sofa on the first floor, watching TV.

On TV, there are overwhelming reports of Sanda matches.

The dark horse Aurora naturally attracted countless attention and made Chinese audiences feel extremely proud.

But the performance of Japanese player Nanako Ito also won the audience's admiration and admiration.

At this time, the TV announcer said: "It is reported that Nanako Ito is not only an outstanding young fighter in Japan, but also a top student of the University of Tokyo. Her family, the Ito family, is one of the top four families in Japan. One, it can be said to be a super rich and beautiful born with a golden key, but who can think of such a super rich and beautiful, without living a luxurious life, but becoming a strong and hard-working fighter!"

Charlie Wade couldn't help but sigh secretly when he heard this.

He really did not expect that Nanako Ito would still be the eldest lady of Japan's top family!

At this time, through the high-definition close-up shot taken by the camera, Charlie Wade saw the scene of Nanako Ito being repeatedly attacked by American player Michelle, and saw her delicate and cold face being injured by Michelle, but his eyes were extremely firm. I couldn't help but feel a touch in my heart.

I have to say that Nanako Ito's character is really appreciated by him.

Strong, but not awkward, with a tough personality, and knows how to forbear and wait.

At a certain moment, he even felt that Nanako Ito was somewhat similar to himself!

This made him sigh from the bottom of his heart that if such a good girl is not of Japanese nationality, he is really willing to accept her as a disciple and let her go further in the martial arts.

It's a pity that the nationality and blood of Nanako Ito are here.

Charlie Wade firmly believes in the words of the ancestors: If you are not of my race, your heart must be different!

Chapter 1439

When Charlie Wade was watching TV, Claire Wilson Wilson stepped up to him. Seeing him watching TV, she sat down beside him.

Afterwards, Claire Wilson Wilson hesitated for a moment, and asked him in a low voice: "Charlie Wade, I ask you one thing, you must answer me truthfully and don't lie to me."

Charlie Wade nodded: "My wife, please ask."

Claire Wilson Wilson passed the shopping receipt in his hand to Charlie Wade and asked, "Why are there three sets of skin care products written on it? It's not that I don't trust you, but I just hope you can explain the situation to me."

Charlie Wade was stunned when he saw the shopping receipt, but quickly realized that it must have been placed directly in a gift box after Cameron Isaac bought the skin care products.

So he looked around and saw that Elaine Ma hadn't come, he whispered, "I'll tell you the truth, my wife, that set of cosmetics is actually what Dad wants."

"My dad?" Claire Wilson Wilson asked dumbfounded: "My dad is an old man, why does he want this top-notch skin care product?"

Charlie Wade smiled awkwardly, and said, "I shouldn't have told you, but after all, you are my wife, and I certainly can't lie to you, but you have to promise me that if I tell you, you must never go to dad again. Confrontation."

Claire Wilson Wilson gave him a white look: "If you don't let me go to confront my dad, what if you want to lie to me? What if you let dad be your backer?"

Charlie Wade said hurriedly: "Do you think that your husband and I am that kind of person? I have always done things with the courage to do things, how can I let Dad take care of me?"

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded: "Okay, then I promise you, you can tell, what is going on?"

Charlie Wade explained: "In the morning, Mom said she wanted this brand of skin care products, and I agreed at the time. Then when I drove away with my dad, my dad asked me if I could do more. , Saying that I want to give it to Matilda."

"Matilda?!" Claire Wilson Wilson exclaimed: "Is that his first love, Matilda?"

"Right." Charlie Wade smiled: "Apart from this Matilda, what other Matilda?"

Claire Wilson Wilson said angrily, "Is my dad still in touch with that Matilda?! Mom was missing at the time. I didn't say anything when he met Matilda for dinner. Mom is back. How can they both? Where is the lotus root broken?"

Charlie Wade said: "For this kind of thing, the best thing for us to be children is to leave it alone, after all, parents are separated now."

"Hey" Claire Wilson Wilson sighed: "Even if you are separated, you still haven't got a divorce. If you don't have a divorce, you must be loyal to your relationship!"

Charlie Wade shrugged: "You don't know the situation of Mom and Dad. The relationship between them is different from that of ordinary couples, so" Claire Wilson Wilson believed that Charlie Wade was not deceiving her, and she felt helpless, and said, "If Dad asks you for something and gives it to Matilda, you must not agree to it, and we will treat him or not. Asked, he definitely cannot help the abuser."

Charlie Wade immediately agreed: "Good wife, I know! Don't worry!"

At this moment, Aurouss Hilll People's Hospital.

Chapter 1440

When Nanako Ito was visiting Master Kazuki Yamamoto, he heard the news that in today's match, Australian athlete Victoria, who was defeated by Aurora, was also receiving treatment at Aurouss Hilll People's Hospital. Koichi Tanaka specifically went to inquire about it and told her a result that shocked her.

It turned out that in the game, Victoria was kicked by Aurora and broke both her arms. Now she is put in a plaster and officially announced that she will withdraw from the third place competition the day after tomorrow. He handed over the third place title of this game to Nanako Ito's men. Michelle defeated.

Moreover, Victoria not only withdrew from this competition. And there is a great probability of complete retirement. Because for a Sanda athlete, the arms are very important. After the arms are broken, it is difficult to recover even if they recover. For a professional athlete, the impact may be lifelong. It is very likely that she will ruin her career. Nanako Ito was stunned by the news. She knew about Victoria, injured both arms in the game, but she didn't know that Victoria was injured so badly. Victoria is also a top-level Sanda player, but Aurora kicked her arms off, which proves that Aurora's physical strength and strength are far beyond what normal people can match. Although Nanako Ito is stronger than Victoria, she is strong in skills and experience, but her physical fitness is even slightly worse than that of the tall white Victoria. Even Victoria couldn't resist Aurora's blow, so when she faced Aurora the day after tomorrow, she was afraid it would be very dangerous. After listening to this, Yamamoto Kazuki couldn't help but sighed and said, "Nanako, according to my opinion, you should abstain from the game the day after tomorrow."

Nanako Ito asked in surprise: "Master, what do you mean? Why do you want me to abstain at this time? Didn't you say that the real strong will never surrender without a fight?"

Yamamoto Kazuki sighed: "That's just a normal situation! But now you have also seen that Aurora is extremely strong. If you fight against her, you are most likely to be seriously injured. Then, you won't lose a game. In the game, you lose your entire career!"

Nanako Ito pursed her mouth and murmured, "But if I retreat without a fight this time, what face will I have to continue practicing martial arts in the future? Isn't there an old saying in China that I know that there are tigers in the mountains, and I go to the mountains?"

Yamamoto Kazuki eagerly said: "There is an old saying in China! It is called staying in the green mountains, I am not afraid that there is no firewood! If you are really seriously injured, your future career may be abandoned!"

Nanako Ito resolutely said: "Master, I finally made Charlie Wade look at me with great difficulty today. If I give up the game, he will despise me, so I will not escape, on the contrary, I must try my best in the finals. If I go forward, even if I must lose, I will lose with dignity!"

Yamamoto Kazuki sighed heavily: "Hey! If Charlie Wade is willing to accept you as a disciple, everything is easy to say, but Charlie Wade's current attitude is that he is unwilling to accept you. Even if you show up in front of him, Okay, so what, in his eyes, you are a foreigner, an alien!"

"It doesn't matter." Nanako Ito smiled slightly and said softly: "It doesn't matter whether he accepts me as a disciple, I just don't want to be looked down upon by him or looked down upon him!"

Yamamoto Kazuki understands Nanako Ito and knows that her current attitude is very determined, and he can't change his decision. So she looked at Koichi Tanaka next to her and said, "Tanaka, on the court at that time, if Miss Ito is injured, you must throw a towel to the referee in time, understand?"

Hiroshi Tanaka was about to nod, and Nanako Ito scolded with a cold face: "Tanaka! You must not lose your towel at that time! In this game, I can accept any defeat, but I just don't accept the initiative to give up!"

Chapter 1441

Jacob Wilson did not eat at home tonight.

According to him, it was dinner with a few leaders of the Calligraphy and Painting Association and a few key members of the senior university.

It was just after nine o'clock that Jacob Wilson called Charlie Wade.

When Jacob Wilson called, Charlie Wade was watching TV with his wife in the living room.

Elaine Ma, the mother-in-law, posted a caviar anti-aging mask, lying on the loveseat on all fours, leisurely swiping the short video platform, and muttering in her mouth: "The Japanese girl who came to our Aurouss Hill to participate in the fighting game, she looks really good!"

Charlie Wade knew that she was definitely talking about Nanako Ito, and the phone shook without even ringing.

Seeing that it was Jacob Wilson calling, he put on the phone and said, "Hey, Dad."

Jacob Wilson's voice sounded a little drunk, and he smiled: "Oh my son-in-law, you come to Heaven Springs to pick me up? I drank some wine."

Charlie Wade didn't think too much, and said, "Good dad, I'll come here."

As he said, he stood up and said, "Mom, Claire Wilson Wilson, I will pick up Dad. He had a drink with someone from the Calligraphy and Painting Association."

Claire Wilson Wilson stood up at this time and said, "Charlie Wade, let me pick up Dad with you."

Charlie Wade didn't think much, nodded lightly, and said, "Okay, then drive your car."

When Elaine Ma heard Jacob Wilson drinking outside, she said annoyedly:

"This old bastard is getting more and more presumptuous now. Good son-in-law, don't pick him up. Let him roll back by himself. When he rolls back, I will lock the door. Come on, don't let him in, let him sleep in the yard!"

Charlie Wade shrugged and said, "Mom, you and Dad shouldn't be so unhappy. We all live under the same roof. Even if we are separated, we should get along well."

Elaine Ma looked like a human, and immediately realized that Charlie Wade was just talking about himself.

I murmured in my heart: "Although I and Jacob Wilson are separated, we still live in Charlie Wade's villa. If I have trouble with Jacob Wilson, Charlie Wade will definitely be unwilling. If that happens, I will tear my face with him. It's not worth the loss."

So, she could only put away her anger at Jacob Wilson, pretending to be disdainful, and said: "Actually, I don't bother to be familiar with people like him. When my legs are healed, I will fill in my teeth, and I will go out to play every day. Two people don't interfere with each other!"

When Charlie Wade heard this, he immediately said with a smile: "Okay, respecting each other and not interfering with each other, it couldn't be better."

Elaine Ma looked at Charlie Wade and smiled flatteringly, and said, "Good son-in-law, you will have to give mom some pocket money at that time. Mom is basically penniless now. If you go out to have dinner with friends, take it People who don't pay, don't want to play with me!"

Charlie Wade still doesn't know Elaine Ma's careful thinking? All she thinks about all day is money, making faces, playing cards, and being chic.

She has no money, and she doesn't go out to play, because her legs are really inconvenient, and her image has been seriously damaged because of the loss of two front teeth.

When her legs are healed, her teeth will be filled, and she must be thinking about going out every day. If she has no money, she will not know what moths will be treated by then.

However, for Charlie Wade, it would be a good thing to send her out if you just give her some money.

So Charlie Wade said lightly: "Mom, when your legs are healed, your teeth will be patched up, and I will give you 50,000 Dollar in pocket money a month."

"Really?" Elaine Ma was immediately happy.

50,000 pocket money a month is indeed a lot. When she used to have 2 million in her hands, she was not willing to spend so much a month.

In fact, Elaine Ma's daily expenses are nothing more than playing cards occasionally, shopping with her old plastic sisters, making faces, having dinner parties, singing Karaoke, and occasionally buying clothes, skin care products, etc. It costs 50,000 Dollar a month. That's enough.

Chapter 1442

She was excited and said to Charlie Wade: "Good son-in-law, why didn't mom find that you were so good before?"

Charlie Wade smiled without saying a word. He knew that a shrew like Elaine Ma would be able to be bought with 50,000 Dollar a month, and he would have spent money to buy it a long time ago.

Elaine Ma was only thinking about slapping Charlie Wade, and deliberately said to Claire Wilson Wilson earnestly: "Oh, Claire Wilson Wilson, you see that you are not too young, and you have been married to Charlie Wade for almost four years. I want to say, you It's time for the two of us to have children. Our family of four lives in such a big villa. It's a bit deserted. If there is a child running around, it would be so lively!" Charlie Wade was shocked when he heard this! OK! My mother-in-law really opened her eyes when she saw money! It seems that she has completely bowed to money now!

You know, she had repeatedly told Claire Wilson Wilson before that Claire Wilson Wilson could never have a relationship with herself.

Charlie Wade still remembered that once, this Lady rushed into his and Claire Wilson Wilson's bedroom early in the morning. It turned out that she had a dream and dreamed that the two of them were married, so she had to confirm it if she was scared. .

On another occasion, Loreen asked her wife to go to a hot spring with her. After hearing this, the Lady, in order to prevent her from taking advantage of her, also asked her to wear Gini and told her to sleep in separate rooms with her.

However, never dreamed that her attitude would have undergone a 180-degree change!

So, he immediately nodded approvingly: "Mom, you are so right! Our family is short of a child! Oh no! Two!"

Elaine Ma laughed and said, "If you want me to tell you, you need three children! When that happens, I will give you children with all my heart!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Mom, I will work hard for you then!"

Elaine Ma hurriedly said: "Oh my son-in-law, why are you and your mom being polite? Isn't it just right for you to see your baby?"

Charlie Wade nodded, glanced at Claire Wilson Wilson who was blushing, and he was happy.

It seems that as long as the money is in place, this Elaine Ma will easily turn to his side!

So, he deliberately said to Elaine Ma with a serious face: "Mom, you can't let you work in vain at that time, so let me give you more than 100,000 hard work a month for every child!"

"Oh my god!" Elaine Ma happily sat up from the sofa and exclaimed:

"Really?! Give one hundred thousand a month with one child?! Two hundred thousand with two children?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "Mom, when Charlie Wade speaks, I always say what I mean!"

Elaine Ma was so excited, she blurted out: "Good, good!"

After finishing speaking, he looked at Claire Wilson Wilson and said excitedly: "Claire Wilson Wilson, my mother knows an old Chinese doctor who has a secret recipe for twins. When the time comes, my mother will buy you a few servings. You can eat them first. Let's try to have both!"

Elaine Ma knew very well that his pocket money of 50,000 a month was enough for her daily expenses, but if she wanted to upgrade her consumption level, this amount of money would be stretched.

But now it's not the same as before. I lost more than 2 million things because of gambling and couldn't control the financial power of the family. Jacob Wilson could not give himself money, and her daughter would not be willing to give the money to her, and her own hands again Without savings, it is difficult to get extra money.

But if his daughter really gave birth to Charlie Wade twins, then his one month's pocket money could rise from 50,000 to 250,000!

Two hundred and fifty thousand!

That can really lead a life like a lady!

Claire Wilson Wilson didn't expect Charlie Wade to launch a money offensive against his mother.

Moreover, I didn't expect that the effect of this money offensive looks really good!

All of a sudden, she was so embarrassed that she wanted to sew in.

At this moment, Elaine Ma saw that she was not talking, and she kept urging her aside: "Good girl, or tomorrow I will take you to the old Chinese doctor and prescribe some medicine?"

Claire Wilson Wilson was really helpless, and said embarrassingly: "Mom, stop talking nonsense here!"

Elaine Ma said solemnly: "How can this be nonsense? I also want to hug my grandson earlier."

Claire Wilson Wilson knew that if I didn't leave by myself, she would definitely talk endlessly, so she hurriedly pushed Charlie Wade: "Let's go, and pick Dad home."

Charlie Wade smiled and nodded, and said: "Then pick up Dad first, let's talk about the twins later."

Elaine Ma echoed from the side: "Yes, yes! I'll talk about it later, I think it's tomorrow!"

Helpless, Claire Wilson Wilson pushed Charlie Wade all the way out of the house.

After going out, Claire Wilson Wilson pretended to be angry and said to Charlie Wade: "Charlie Wade, why do you want to tell my mother that..."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Isn't this the point of rushing here?"

Claire Wilson Wilson gave him a blank look: "Don't think I don't know what bad idea you have made! I tell you, if you want to upgrade, you can honestly rise a little bit, but don't expect to persuade my mother to help skip the level. !"

Charlie Wade said cheerfully, "I don't have this idea! I just feel that our parents are getting older, and they must also want to hug their grandson earlier."

Claire Wilson Wilson said embarrassedly: "Hold that hug, hurry up and drive!"

Charlie Wade nodded, drove Claire Wilson Wilson's BMW out of the garage, and the two set off for Heaven Springs together.

After the two arrived at Heaven Springs, they saw a few elderly people talking and laughing standing at the door. Jacob Wilson and Matilda were standing side by side. Jacob Wilson was also considered handsome among middle-aged and elderly people, and Matilda's temperament and appearance was even the top of his peers. The existence, so standing together, it really fits well.

At this time, the two talked and laughed with others, and they looked harmonious and natural.

Matilda also carried a gift box, which was the same caviar skin care set that Charlie Wade gave to Claire Wilson Wilson and Elaine Ma.

Seeing this, Claire Wilson Wilson felt very uncomfortable. She asked Charlie Wade, "You said my dad won't cheat, right?"

Charlie Wade laughed dumbly: "Oh, my wife, where did you want to go? Dad and Matilda are old classmates and old friends. They are just having a party and dinner together. How can they get involved with cheating.

Claire Wilson Wilson said nervously, "But don't forget, they are also old lovers! The two of them are each other's first love, and this situation is the easiest to cheat."

Charlie Wade said: "Good wife, this kind of thing is not something we can manage as children. Parents have their plans and plans, so let's not interfere."

At this moment, a Buick GL8 commercial vehicle parked in front of several elderly people. A young man walked down from the car. Charlie Wade recognized him at a glance. It was Matilda's son, Paul.

When Paul got out of the car, he greeted several old people very politely.

At the same time, he handed a gift bag to Matilda.

After Matilda took the gift bag, she turned around and handed the gift bag directly to Jacob Wilson.

Jacob Wilson was obviously taken aback, and it seemed that he had shirk several times, but Matilda's expression was very insistent, so he accepted with a little embarrassment.

Chapter 1444

Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson were in the car, some distance from them, so they couldn't hear what they were talking about.

However, it can be seen from this meaning that Matilda should have asked her son Paul to help, and prepared a gift for Jacob Wilson.

Seeing that the two exchanged gifts, Claire Wilson Wilson was even more depressed: "Look at Dad and Matilda, they are like ordinary friends, they are like a middle-aged and elderly couple in love!"

Charlie Wade nodded lightly.

He had long noticed that the two people still had a deep affection for each other, and Matilda even named Paul's Chinese name after Jacob Wilson, which shows that she has never forgotten Jacob Wilson in her heart.

As for Jacob Wilson, let alone, after being oppressed by Elaine Ma for so many years, he didn't know how much he missed and yearned for Matilda. If Elaine Ma had evaporated her directly when she stole her bank card, then Jacob Wilson might have reunited with Matilda now.

At this time, Claire Wilson Wilson couldn't stand it, and said to Charlie Wade: "You press the horn twice to remind Dad, otherwise he can talk for another half an hour."

Charlie Wade nodded and honked the horn. Jacob Wilson looked over and recognized Claire Wilson Wilson's car. He thought that Charlie Wade had come to pick him up. He waved at the car with a smile on his face, and then Some reluctantly said to Matilda: "Oh, Matilda, my son-in-law came to pick me up, so I will go back first."

Matilda smiled and said softly: "Tell me when you get home, so I don't worry about it."

"Good." Jacob Wilson smiled contentedly.

Claire Wilson Wilson took advantage of Jacob Wilson's turn to talk to Matilda, and said to Charlie Wade: "My dad probably didn't know that I was also here. I'll go and sit in the back row."

With that, she pushed the door and got out of the car, then got into the back row.

She knows Jacob Wilson's car habit, he likes to sit in the co-pilot the most, so as long as there is no one in the co-pilot, he will definitely get in without hesitation.

And the reason she wanted to hide in the back row was because she felt that Jacob Wilson had a drink, and she wouldn't be able to look back later. Seeing Charlie Wade driving over, he must have opened the passenger car door and sat in.

as predicted.

Jacob Wilson greeted Matilda and the others, and ran over and came to the front of the car. Without hesitation, he opened the passenger door directly, sitting in and singing in his mouth: "I smile smugly, smile smugly..."

After singing, he smiled and said to Charlie Wade: "Good son-in-law, you have to come here to pick me up."

Charlie Wade said, "Dad, why are you polite to me?"

"That's right!" Jacob Wilson patted Charlie Wade's arm, and said gratefully: "Thank you for the set of skin care products you prepared for Dad today. You Auntie Matilda likes it very much! Oh! This may be my gift for her in my life. The most expensive gift."

After that, Jacob Wilson couldn't help but sighed: "Hey...I really owe you too much to Matilda..."

Charlie Wade heard him talk about Matilda directly, and was still sighing with emotion, but he didn't know that his daughter Claire Wilson Wilson was sitting in the back row!

Thinking of this, he hurriedly winked at Jacob Wilson to remind him that there was someone behind him.

Jacob Wilson was dizzy when he was drinking. How could he have this sensitivity. While urging Charlie Wade to drive, he put the gift bag in his lap on his lap, and said with joy: "Your Auntie Matilda secretly asked Paul to buy me a gift. Here you see, this is it, you can open it firmly, I will open it and see what it is."

Charlie Wade had no choice but to say, "Good dad, I will try my best to be more stable, but you must be careful too!"

When he said this, Charlie Wade didn't forget to remind him to be careful behind him with his eyes.

Jacob Wilson didn't know what Charlie Wade meant, and while unpacking it, he said seriously: "This is a gift from your Matilda. Of course I will be careful. If I break myself, I can't touch this thing. broken!"

Chapter 1445

Jacob Wilson thought that he and Charlie Wade were the only two in the car, and Charlie Wade was not only his son-in-law, but also his most trustworthy person.

Therefore, he was almost unguarded against Charlie Wade, and he was not afraid that Charlie Wade would know about those things with Matilda.

At this time, while unpacking the package, he sighed: "Oh, my dear son-in-law, don't you know how popular your Matilda is now in senior colleges? Those who like her are from 30 to 40 years old. From young to 60 or 70 years old, the number of fans can't be counted! If you dad, I don't pay close attention to it, I'm afraid the situation will be bad."

Charlie Wade hushed awkwardly, and switched the subject away and said, "Dad, don't you drink less at night, or stop talking, close your eyes and rest for a while."

"How do you do that." Jacob Wilson said immediately: "I haven't seen what you and Auntie gave me."

With that said, the outer packaging has been opened by him.

Seeing the box inside, he couldn't help exclaiming: "I'm going! It turned out to be a Rolex!"

Charlie Wade listened and glanced subconsciously, and found that there was a Rolex watch lying in the box.

Jacob Wilson picked up the watch carefully, looked at it, and exclaimed, "This is the very popular green Submariner, isn't it? It shouldn't be a one hundred and eighty thousand?"

Charlie Wade glanced at it and said with a smile: "Dad, you are too ignorant... this is not a Submariner, this is Yacht Master Special Edition 24K Gold."

"Yacht Master Special Edition?" Jacob Wilson frowned and said, "I don't know anything about watches. I heard people say that Rolex Submariner is very valuable. You said it is Yacht Master Special Edition? How much is it worth?"

Charlie Wade said: "The price of Rolex has risen sharply recently. This piece is probably between 350,000 and 380,000!"

"Mom, it's so expensive?!" Jacob Wilson's tone changed a little, and he blurted out: "A watch worth nearly 400,000 Dollar, this is too scary."

Charlie Wade said indifferently: "Dad, the set of skin care products you gave Matilda is about 390,000 Dollar. It will be gone after a period of time. If this watch is well maintained, it will not be a problem to use it for decades, and it may not be a problem. It will increase in value in the future, for example, the Green Submariner, who used to be able to buy 50,000 Dollar, now has 100,000 Dollar."

Jacob Wilson nodded repeatedly, touching the watch and couldn't put it down!

This was given to him by Matilda, and it was of great significance to him.

He put the watch on his wrist, carefully examined it, and said happily:

"Oh, this watch is so beautiful that the more you look, just say you Auntie Matilda loves me more. For someone else, who is willing to give me such an expensive watch? My mother is reluctant, Charlie Wade, don't you think?"

Charlie Wade said embarrassingly, "Haha...Dad, if you drink too much, let's take a rest first."

"What are you resting?" Jacob Wilson said, "I have to take a few pictures with my phone and send it to Matilda to show her how good her vision is." As he said, he immediately took out his cell phone.

As soon as I took out my phone, the phone rang. Jacob Wilson couldn't help but muttered: "Oh, it was from Claire Wilson Wilson, Charlie Wade, don't talk nonsense. If you ask later, you can't let her know that I am talking to you. Matilda ate together."

Charlie Wade stretched out his right hand to cover half of his face, he really didn't know how to respond to his stupid old man.

At this time, Jacob Wilson pressed the answer button, and said in a casual way: "Hey, Claire Wilson Wilson, I have come back with Charlie Wade."

Just listen to Claire Wilson Wilson's angry voice from the back seat: "Dad! You really disappointed me!"

Jacob Wilson let out a terrified cry. The phone fell off his hand and fell into a gap.

He didn't care about picking up the phone, and looked back at Claire Wilson Wilson in horror: "Chu...Claire Wilson Wilson????? You...Why are you in the car?"

Claire Wilson Wilson asked angrily: "Why can't I be in the car? If I'm not in the car, I don't know that you have cheated!"

Jacob Wilson suddenly seemed to be stepped on his tail, and blurted out, "Oh, don't talk nonsense at first, when did I cheat?"

Claire Wilson Wilson said: "You and that Matilda are already at the point where you can send such an expensive gift to each other, and you are carrying your mother on your back, dating and having dinner in private. What is this not cheating?"

Jacob Wilson hurriedly said, "This is not cheating! Matilda and I are very respectful, and have never crossed boundaries for half a step. Besides, your mother and I are separated and have no feelings. Divorce is a matter of time, even if it's really cheating, that can't be called cheating, that's the beginning of a new relationship!"

"You...you..." Claire Wilson Wilson's angry little face flushed, and her eyes were tearful and said, "How can you do this! I always think you are a good father and husband. But I did not expect that you have become so excessive now. You have been with mom for more than 20 years. For more than 20 years of ups and downs, even if there is no love, family affection is always there, right? You must at least give mom at least Your respect is right!"

Jacob Wilson explained: "I didn't disrespect her. If I disrespect her, I would have reconciled with you Matilda. It is because I respect her that I have to divorce her formally, and then just follow you. Matilda is together!"

Claire Wilson Wilson cried and asked, "Why do you have to divorce your mother and be with that Matilda? Do you know that this practice is immoral? Does that Matilda know that being a third party, Is it immoral to get involved in someone else's marriage?!"

Jacob Wilson was also anxious, and blurted out: "Your Matilda is not the third party! Your mother is the third party!"

Claire Wilson Wilson was stunned: "Dad, what are you talking about?!" Jacob Wilson said coldly: "I'm not talking nonsense! I should have been with your Matilda! Back then, if your mother was not involved in the third party and took me to the guest house to open a room after I was drunk, how could your Matilda leave me? go with?"

After that, Jacob Wilson was very excited and continued: "Claire Wilson Wilson, do you know how shame your mother was doing things back then? She and your Matilda are roommates and best friends! And me? I am her best friend's boyfriend! But she actually had sex with me while I was drunk, and even ran to show off with your Matilda, forcing your Matilda to leave the country back then, and then forced me to marry her by getting pregnant with you, she is the third party who has no morals!"

When Claire Wilson Wilson heard this, she was completely stunned! She heard from her mother that Dad had a first love back then, but when Mom talked about that first love, she always said that she was a vixen, but she never explained what happened between them.

Therefore, I have always thought that my parents are in love together normally, but there was a short wave in the middle.

However, after hearing what my dad said today, I realized that it turned out that it was her mother who got involved in the relationship between dad and another women...

This completely overturned her understanding of the feelings and love between her parents over the past two decades...

Chapter 1447

Just when Claire Wilson Wilson was dumbfounded and didn't know how to respond for a while.

Jacob Wilson, who was in the co-pilot, was so aggrieved that he burst into tears and choked up: "Back then, your mother and I could say that they had no emotional foundation. To speak a conscience, I haven't even talked to her before getting drunk that night. I haven't said a few words. You should be able to see that your Matilda is much better than your mother in all aspects. It is impossible for a normal man to give up your Matilda and choose her. I'm totally forced to be helpless!"

With that said, Jacob Wilson looked out the window with a sad look, and said with a bit of pain: "At the beginning, I had planned the life after graduation with your Matilda. We are going to study in the United States together after graduation. You should I know that it was very popular to go abroad that year, everyone sharpened their heads and drilled out. What we both thought at the time was that if the development in the United States is more appropriate, then we will get married and settle in the United States, and then we will have a high-end talent immigrant. The plan is very clear, it can be said to be bright..."

"But, what's the result? As a result, because I drank too much wine at the party, your mother took advantage of it and forced your Matilda away, ruined my life's happiness, and ruined all my life plans! "

"Why haven't I been motivated and confused for so many years? I stay at home all day long, and I can't see the appearance of a famous university graduate? Isn't it because your mother ruined my life trajectory at the beginning, let me see I lost the direction and motivation to work hard!" Having said this, Jacob Wilson's emotions could no longer be stretched, and he cried loudly: "This is only in my life. If it is ruined, it can no longer be remedied. What about you? All you see is that your mother seems to be wronged. But have you ever thought about how I have lived over the past twenty years? What's my mood?"

Claire Wilson Wilson also cried silently. She really did not expect that her father had been so wronged over the years. Even the life trajectory that was originally set has undergone earth-shaking changes because of the intervention of the mother's third party.

Originally, my father and Matilda might go to the United States for further studies, get married, and become social leaders.

But later, after my father and mother got married, they became a waste in the eyes of grandma, and an waste who couldn't help.

Later, Dad also gave up resistance altogether and led a leisurely life every day. Of course, this was due to his own failure to make progress, but on the whole it was caused by the intervention of a third party from his mother.

To be fair, Mom ruined Dad for a lifetime.

He turned him from a vigorous college student into a greasy decadent middle-aged man.

In the past two decades, my father must have been very wronged, but he had never mentioned these words to her before.

Moreover, my mother's character is so aggressive, and she is the initiator of the whole thing. My dad must not be able to talk to her, so in this family, dad has no one to complain. Then these grievances, he should be alive in his stomach. Twenty years!

Thinking of this, she couldn't help but feel wronged for her father.

So, she sobbed and comforted: "Dad, don't cry, it's my fault. I didn't figure out what was going on, so I blamed you indiscriminately, sorry..."

Jacob Wilson rubbed his eyes and sighed deeply, "Hey.. Dad didn't want you to apologize to me, Dad just wanted your understanding."

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded lightly, and sighed: "I won't go too much about your business in the future. I just hope you can handle these relationships well."

For Claire Wilson Wilson now, she knows the story and can no longer prevent her father from contacting Matilda. However, she is Elaine Ma's biological daughter after all. Out of respect for her mother and the family of three, she Nor can she clearly support her father to pursue Matilda.

Therefore, she feels that the only thing she can do now is to stop worrying about things between her parents.

Whether it was their grievances back then or the entanglement they are now, they never bothered.

Jacob Wilson did not expect his daughter to be able to support him with a clear-cut stand and not to interfere. It was already the best result he could think of. So he was excited and said, "Oh, Claire Wilson Wilson, you can do this. Dad is really too Thank you!"

Claire Wilson Wilson sighed softly and said, "Dad, the watch that Matilda gave you, you shouldn't wear it when you are at home, lest Mom sees it and asks what's going on."

Chapter 1448

"Understand!" Jacob Wilson nodded excitedly, and continued: "I will never wear this watch at home in the future!"

Although Charlie Wade on the side had not spoken, but when he heard this, he was a little relieved for Jacob Wilson.

It's really not easy for him to be an old man. In fact, the reason why he has tolerated Elaine Ma for so many years was mainly because of Claire Wilson Wilson.

If it weren't for his daughter, he couldn't always bear it, so it can be seen from here that his old husband is not useless, at least his paternal love for Claire Wilson Wilson is still very great.

Moreover, even when he was questioned by Claire Wilson Wilson, he never said that the grievances over the past two decades were due to Elaine Ma's suffering, and he was worthy of the four words of father's love.

.....

Back to Thompson First, Charlie Wade was about to drive into the community, and suddenly saw Nanako Ito standing at the gate of the community wearing a hood.

Although the hood covered her face, Charlie Wade could still determine that this woman was Nanako Ito based on her body shape, hairstyle and feeling.

Seeing that she was driving closer, Nanako Ito first took a few steps to her side subconsciously, but she probably saw Jacob Wilson and Claire Wilson Wilson in the car, so she stopped again.

Charlie Wade knew that his wife and old husband were in the car, and couldn't stop to greet her or ask her what to do with her, so he could only drive in the car first, thinking about making an excuse later, and come out to have a look.

The car returned to Thompson First's villa. Before Charlie Wade's car stopped, Jacob Wilson had already put away the watch given by Matilda. After the car stopped, he hurriedly pushed the door and got out of the car to hide the watch in his BMW.

Seeing this, Claire Wilson Wilson couldn't help but sighed softly, and said to Charlie Wade in a low voice: "Suddenly I feel that my father is so pitiful...He must have been wronged for so many years, right?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Dad, he has been suppressed for twenty-six or seven years, and he might have collapsed long ago when he changed to someone else."

Claire Wilson Wilson asked him: "Did you know these things a long time ago? You don't seem surprised at all to me?"

Charlie Wade said: "The last time I accompanied my dad to his alma mater to attend a class reunion, I heard others talk about it."

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded suddenly, and asked him: "Then why don't you tell me..."

Charlie Wade said helplessly: "Just after this incident, she disappeared in an accident. At that time, you seemed to have lost your soul, and you just wanted to find your mother. How could I add trouble to you?"

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded slightly, and sighed again.

Charlie Wade thought of Nanako Ito at the door, and said, "You and Dad will go in first, and I will go out."

Claire Wilson Wilson asked curiously, "Why are you going out so late?"

Charlie Wade said, "I'm going to buy some liver-protecting tablets for Dad. Didn't he drink alcohol!"

Claire Wilson Wilson said, "Let me go."

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "You go in with your dad. If Mom nags him again, you can help reconcile a little bit!"

Chapter 1449

When Charlie Wade came out of the villa, there was no shadow of Nanako Ito at the door.

He looked around for a few times, but Nanako Ito was not found.

This made Charlie Wade couldn't help wondering, his own feeling just now was not wrong. Although the girl was wearing a mask, he was sure that she was Nanako Ito.

Since she came to Thompson First, she must have come to find herself, why did she suddenly disappear?

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade couldn't help sighing, but he really couldn't figure out the brain circuit of this Japanese girl.

At this time, Nanako Ito was hiding in a milk tea shop, looking at Charlie Wade from a distance.

Seeing that Charlie Wade seemed a little stunned, she also felt a strange feeling somewhere in her heart.

She did come to Charlie Wade tonight, and the final was about to come.

She also knew that it would be difficult for her to win Aurora, and she might even be injured in the game.

Her master and her family didn't want her to continue participating in the finals.

However, she felt that a qualified martial artist could not be as strong as others, but her willpower would never be able to defeat the opponent, so she decided to continue participating in the competition and at the same time be prepared to be injured in the competition.

For this reason, her father sent a special plane and a top Japanese medical team. This team will be on the spot in the finals. If Nanako Ito is injured in the game, they will immediately rescue them and ride at the same time. The special plane sent her to Tokyo for treatment within three hours.

So, in that case, after he was on the field, he probably wouldn't have the chance to meet Charlie Wade, so Nanako Ito thought, and come over to see him again tonight.

However, she did not expect that she was waiting at the door of Thompson First just now. Seeing Charlie Wade driving back, she discovered that there was still a very beautiful woman sitting in the back seat of the car. This made her suddenly realize that that woman It must be Charlie Wade's wife.

At that moment, she felt a little lost in her heart, and felt that she shouldn't bother a married man, so she prepared to go back to the hotel.

But even though she was about to leave, she still wanted to know if Charlie Wade had seen herself or would come out to see herself, so she ordered a cup of milk tea at this milk tea shop and sat down.

In Nanako Ito's heart, the feeling about Charlie Wade was very complicated.

Because he abolished her mentor, I blamed him a bit and felt that he was too cruel;

Because he is extremely powerful, and I admire him a little bit, I think he is the real martial arts master;

Because he scolded himself badly last time, he felt a bit ashamed in front of him, and even his aura and inner strength would be affected by him, so that when she thought of him, her heart would always be soft.

It's just that she doesn't know that this soft feeling is more like a crush and admiration.

She received a rigorous aristocratic education since she was a child, and she has excellent psychological quality.

But recently, whenever she thinks of Charlie Wade, her heartbeat speeds up hard for her to sustain herself. Even if Charlie Wade is not in front of her, she still feels nervous, and her heart is like a small deer.

At this moment, even looking at Charlie Wade from a distance, he still felt his heartbeat speed up.

Moreover, when she saw Charlie Wade's expression somewhat regrettable, she felt a burst of joy in her heart.

Just as when I was in the ring, seeing Charlie Wade's eyes with a bit of distress, made her very satisfied.

Chapter 1450

So she hurriedly said to the boss: "Boss, add another cup of milk tea."

The boss said: "Miss, we are about to close, and the clerk is off work. I can't make milk tea now, sorry."

"Okay." Nanako Ito nodded helplessly.

At this moment, he suddenly saw Charlie Wade walking towards the right side of the gate of Thompson First's first product, so she hurriedly held his milk tea and ran out.

Charlie Wade thought that Nanako Ito was gone, so he planned to go to the drugstore to buy a box of liver-protecting tablets for the old man to go back for business.

When he came to the door of the pharmacy, he discovered that a huge poster was hung at the door of the pharmacy. Stefanie, who was beautiful, was holding Oracle Nova Dias. There was also a slogan written by her hand: "New Chinese Medicine, New Domestic Products," I trust Oracle Nova Dias!"

Below, there is her personal signature.

Charlie Wade stepped into the drugstore and found that several people were consulting the salesperson: "Hey, girl, I want the Oracle Nova Dias endorsed by Stefanie, bring me a box!"

"Give me a box too!"

"I also want!"

The salesperson smiled and asked, "You all bought them back for collection, right?"

"How do you know?" one of the men asked in surprise: "Are you also a fan of Stefanie?"

"That's right!" The salesperson smiled: "I am a fan of Stefanie. I bought Oracle Nova Dias today. Almost all of them are her fans. After all, this is the first time she endorses an actual product, which is quite collectible. "

After speaking, the salesperson said again: "I heard that this medicine is quite effective, and it has a good effect on various discomforts of the spleen and stomach. You can buy it as a stock medicine."

A young man who got a whole box of Oracle Nova Dias said: "I am going to store this box as a whole, but I am not willing to open it and eat it. I will buy it later when I need it. Collect a copy first!"

When Charlie Wade saw this, he couldn't help being surprised. I really didn't expect that Stefanie's influence could be so strong that fans would flock to buy the products she endorsed and go back to collect them. Just when he was surprised, a few more people came to buy Oracle Nova Dias, at least one box, and even ten boxes in excess.

After finally waiting for the people who bought Nova Dias to leave, Charlie Wade stepped to the counter and said, "Thank you, please bring me a box of liver protection tablets."

The salesperson nodded, took a box of liver-protecting tablets and handed it to him, and said, "Hello, 39.8 Dollar."

Charlie Wade gave a hum, scanned the code to pay, and then came out of the drugstore with the liver-protecting tablets.

When he went out, he was looking down at the ingredients in this liver-protecting tablet, and he thought to himself that many men nowadays have a drink at the bar, and alcohol hurts the liver. No matter how much you drink, it will damage your liver. Therefore, liver-protecting drugs should have a large market space in the world.

There are many classic prescriptions that have been lost in the "Apocalyptic Book", including not only the prescriptions for the stomach powder, but also the prescriptions for protecting the liver. After the Nova Dias powder becomes popular, you can launch the Oracle liver protection tablets.

As he was thinking about it, he suddenly realized that there was a figure rushing in front of him. He subconsciously mobilized his whole body and prepared himself for a defensive counterattack. But he fixed his eyes and saw that he was standing in front of him wearing a hood. Nanako Ito with eyes like a bright moon.

He was a little surprised at once, thinking that the girl was gone, but he didn't expect her to be here.

At this time, Nanako Ito was ashamed and nervous. She looked at Charlie Wade's face up close, and suddenly she didn't know what to say, so her brain became hot, and she passed the milk tea in her hand to him, and said with a smile: "Charlie Wade, please drink milk tea!"

Chapter 1451

In fact, Nanako Ito didn't know what to say at once, so when she had the idea, she passed the milk tea out.

As for Charlie Wade, although he felt a little surprised, he did not drink a sip of water since he went out to pick up his father-in-law, and he was really dry.

So, he took it subconsciously, smiled and said, "Thank you, I am thirsty."

As he said, he lowered his head and bit the straw, and took a big mouthful.

Only then did Nanako Ito react and exclaimed in her heart: "Oops! I've had a few sips of this cup of milk tea just now..."

"Although I only took a few sips, I have already drunk it!"

"That's awful, then, didn't I kiss Charlie Wade indirectly?!"

Charlie Wade didn't know that Nanako Ito had drunk this milk tea. While drinking the milk tea, Charlie Wade said: "Miss Ito, come to see me so late, what's the matter?"

Nanako Ito was in extreme shame.

She has received twenty years of rigorous education from the ladies, and she knows the importance of the six words "Men and women give or receive". This can be said to be the closest contact between herself and the opposite sex!

Therefore, her heart at this time was both nervous and anxious. However, other than that, she was still faintly excited.

When she was flustered, Charlie Wade asked her: "Why are you here?"

"Ah...I..." Nanako Ito said nervously, "I am...I am...I am on the way...oh No...I..."

Nanako Ito doesn't know how to lie, so suddenly she didn't know how to answer his question, and she immediately messed up her position.

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently and said, "Well, don't be too nervous in front of me, just say something straightforward."

Nanako Ito nodded lightly and said: "I am...I just want to meet you...because I am worried that after the game I won't have a chance to see you again..."

Charlie Wade asked curiously: "What? Going back to Japan after the game?"
"That's right." Nanako Ito didn't dare to look into his eyes, and whispered: "My father has already arranged the plane. I will go back immediately after the game."

Charlie Wade wondered: "You are in the finals anyway, even if you lose, you are the runner-up in the competition. Don't you even plan to participate in the award ceremony?"

Nanako Ito smiled bitterly: "As the No. 1 seed in the competition, I didn't get the gold medal. I don't have the face to stay for the runner-up award ceremony..."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said: "Practicing martial arts is not to win, because the birth of martial arts itself is not to fight against people, but to fight against yourself."

"Fighting with oneself?" Nanako Ito asked blankly: "Charlie Wade, what do you mean to fight with oneself?"

Charlie Wade smiled calmly: "Cainazi, the ancestors of our Chinese people, may be different from the ancestors of any country or nation in this world. Our ancestors never liked bullying or aggression. ."

"Since ancient times, our ancestors in China have stayed firmly in the country and tried our best not to be invaded by foreign enemies, but even in the most prosperous period when the nations came to Korea, we have never invaded any country, including your Japan."

Chapter 1452

"The ancestors of China always think about how to be good at ourselves. Even if we are fighting, we will only fight against ourselves, against ourselves yesterday, and against ourselves now!"

"Fighting with ourselves is to be able to surpass the present and past self. We fight with ourselves in medical skills to live longer, and we fight with ourselves in farming techniques to feed more people. We fighting with yourself in the martial arts, in order to make yourself stronger."

Having said that, Charlie Wade looked at Nanako Ito and asked her: "If you are no longer allowed to participate in any competitions from now on, will you give up promotion or even martial arts?"

Nanako Ito blurted out, "Of course not! Even if I no longer participate in any competitions, I will not give up martial arts!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "That's it. You love martial arts, not martial arts to defeat others. So, what matters is whether you win or not? Even if you lose the game, you can't get any medals. What's so important? As long as you are worthy of the love of martial arts in your heart, it is enough."

Nanako Ito bowed to him slightly and said sincerely: "Thank you Charlie Wade, Nanako understands!"

Charlie Wade said: "Tomorrow's game, work hard, don't care too much about success or failure, just show your best side."

Nanako Ito nodded earnestly: "You can rest assured, I will definitely go all out!"

After speaking, she remembered Charlie Wade's distressed eyes when she was in the Final Four, and she was filled with happiness and asked:

"Charlie Wade, did I perform well in the last game?"

Charlie Wade heard her talk about the last match, and when she thought of the scene of her being repeatedly hit by the opponent in the arena and constantly injured, he still felt a little distressed in his heart.

So he said seriously: "I think you performed very well in the last game. I don't quite understand why you let the opponent attack repeatedly? In fact, your strength is higher than that of the opponent. If you fight back resolutely, then it is very likely that you will not be injured, but you have to keep giving the opponent opportunities. Why is this?"

Nanako Ito said shyly: "Actually... I was mainly thinking about the best way to win, so I always let the opponent attack me in the early stage, just to find the opponent's flaws."

Charlie Wade couldn't help being surprised: "Well, if you win the game, why do you have to use one move to control the enemy?"

In Charlie Wade's view, Nanako Ito's one move to control the enemy was very different from Aurora's one move to control the enemy.

Because Aurora's overall strength has now greatly increased and she has one move to control the enemy, it is not a big problem for her to control the enemy, and it can even be said to be easy.

However, although Nanako Ito's strength is stronger than her opponent Michelle, she is not strong enough to defeat the opponent with one move, so she is tantamount to asking herself a very difficult problem.

If it were not for insisting on taking the hardest path, she would not have been hit by the opponent several times in the game.

Nanako Ito was even more embarrassed at this time, she said very seriously: "I...I mainly...mainly hope that Charlie Wade can treat me...with me admiration... .."

Charlie Wade couldn't help being stunned when he heard this. Was it for him? Is this girl too stupid?

In order to impress him first, stand on the ring and let your opponents continue to punch? What if the opponent injured or severely injured her? Thinking of this, he couldn't help asking: "Just to impress me you put yourself in such a dangerous situation, do you think it's worth it?"

"It's worth it!" Nanako Ito resolutely and sincerely said: "At a certain moment, I saw your eyes on the ring. I don't know if I would be wrong, but when I saw your eyes, I felt that everything was worth it in an instant..."

Chapter 1453

Charlie Wade didn't know what kind of look he had left to Nanako Ito at that time. After all, he didn't have a mirror at the time to see what his eyes looked like. But he remembered his mood at the time.

At that time, seeing her constantly being beaten by opponents, I really felt distressed in my heart. So, thinking about it, what Nanako Ito saw at the time should be his distressed look, right?

Thinking of this, he also felt a little embarrassed, sighed and said seriously: "Don't be so stupid in the future. You can go all out in the game, but don't put yourself in a dangerous situation for the sake of an extra bit of obsession."

When Nanako Ito heard Charlie Wade caring about herself, her heart was excited like a little woman, and she nodded and said, "I know!"

Charlie Wade looked at her and could still see the bruises and scars on the corners of her eyes. He could not help but exhorted: "The next match between you and Aurora, you must remember to ensure your safety. If you feel that you are not Aurora's opponent, Then resolutely admit defeat and don't be ashamed, but don't hold it hard, because Aurora's current strength is indeed higher than you, and it surpasses you a lot, too aggressive, for fear that you will be hurt."

When Nanako Ito heard this, she nodded gently, and couldn't help asking: "Charlie Wade, Nanako has a question. I have been pressing it in my heart for a long time. I want to ask you to clarify.

Charlie Wade said indifferently: "Just tell me, if I can tell you, I won't hide my personal information."

Nanako Ito hurriedly said: "Aurora's match and my teacher have also paid attention to research. I have watched a lot of videos of her previous games. I feel that her current strength seems to have improved by leaps and bounds in an instant, and it is obviously beyond the rhythm of normal training progress. So I would like to ask you, why did Aurora make such a rapid and substantial improvement? Is this progress related to you?"

Charlie Wade smiled and asked, "What if I say it has nothing to do with me?"

Nanako Ito shook her head: "Please forgive me for being rude. If you says it has nothing to do with this matter, I will not believe it!"

Charlie Wade nodded and said frankly: "You are right, it is indeed related to me."

Nanako Ito said, "Thank you for your frankness!"

As the two talked, they had already paced to the door of Thompson First. Charlie Wade looked at her and said: "Okay, you go back to rest early and prepare for the next game."

Nanako Ito was a little bit reluctant, but she nodded her head obediently, put her hands in front of her, and bowed deeply: "Thank you for your words tonight!"

Charlie Wade smiled and nodded, waved to her, and said, "Thank you for your milk tea, I'm leaving."

After speaking, stepped into the door of Thompson First.

Nanako Ito followed behind and looked for a long time, until his figure completely disappeared in front of her, then she sighed and turned to leave.

.....

At this moment.

Aurouss Hilll International Hotel.

Just after taking a shower in his room, Jiro Kobayashi poured a glass of whiskey leisurely and sat on the sofa in front of the floor-to-ceiling windows, looking at the night view of Aurouss Hilll with contentment. The reason why he is in such a good mood is because the attention level of the Aurouss Hilll International Sanda competition broke the record in China, and even with this, the popularity of Niranex has skyrocketed.

Chapter 1454

According to feedback, the sales volume increased seven or eight times at once, far exceeding his expectations.

Look at it this way, Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall will soon take a step forward!

At this point, he felt refreshed and couldn't help drinking a few more shots of strong wine.

After these few sips of wine, my stomach is hot.

Immediately afterwards, there was some pain.

Jiro Kobayashi's expression changed slightly, and immediately reached out for his own Kobayashi's stomach powder.

In fact, Jiro Kobayashi has always had a hidden stomach problem.

He has a good wine nature, and loves to drink the most, and he likes to drink strong alcohol, so some roots of the disease have long been left in his stomach.

Last year, his stomach problem got worse, and the doctor told him to stop drinking. In order to solve his stomach problem, he relied on his professional knowledge of pharmacy, and specifically read a lot of Chinese classical medical books and studied a lot. The prescription, Niranax was formulated.

As a daily medicine that can relieve stomach discomfort, Kobayashi's stomach powder is very successful. But this kind of stomach powder is like a plaster, which can greatly relieve joint rheumatism, but it is almost impossible to say a radical cure.

Stomach powder is actually the same.

It is impossible to cure serious stomach diseases with Niranax. Just like a person, the cartilage at the knee joint has worn out, and the pain is all day long. In this case, plastering can only temporarily relieve the pain, at most It has the effect of reducing swelling and inflammation, but it must not restore a person's damaged knee cartilage.

In other words, even if this kind of patient puts on a lifetime plaster, it is impossible to cure his knee joint injury.

The same goes for Kobayashi's Niranax.

Jiro Kobayashi formulated Kobayashi's Niranax according to ancient Chinese prescriptions. Although it has a great relieving effect on his stomach problems, it has not been able to cure him for a long time, so that Jiro Kobayashi now takes several packets of Kobayashi's Niranax every day to relieve his stomach.

Just as he had just picked up two packets of Kobayashi's Niranax and was about to drink it with whiskey, a knock on the door suddenly sounded. He put down the wine glass and his stomach, and walked to the door. Through the screen of the electronic eye, he saw his assistant standing outside the door, so he stretched out his hand to open the door.

As soon as the door opened, he looked at the assistant outside and asked, "It's so late, what's the matter?"

The assistant immediately handed a packet of medicine to him, and said nervously: "Chairman, today a local pharmaceutical factory in Aurouss Hill suddenly launched a stomach powder called Nova Dias, and also specially invited the hottest one in China. Female star Stefanie Sun came to endorse that this drug has already set off a panic buying frenzy across the country!"

"What the hell?!"

Jiro Kobayashi frowned and said coldly: "Damn, Chinese pharmaceutical companies dare to imitate our Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's products, it's too much!"

When Jiro Kobayashi said this, he didn't even think that Kobayashi's Niranax itself copied ancient Chinese prescriptions.

He took the Oracle Nova Dias, looked at it a few times, and said disdainfully: "There are at least a dozen products that imitate our Kobayashi Nova Dias. There are at least a dozen products in China, South Korea and Southeast Asia, but none of them can match ours. This Oracle Nova Dias It must be the same, just rubbish, not enough."

The assistant said, "But, this medicine is unusual! It is endorsed by Stefanie Sun, and Stefanie Sun has never endorsed any substantive products before. This is the first time, so the fan effect is very strong. Fans of hers have already generated extremely scary purchasing power!"

Chapter 1455

When Jiro Kobayashi heard the assistant say this, he couldn't help but pay attention.

He couldn't help frowning and said, "I know that Stefanie is indeed a very beautiful woman, and she is also very good at acting. I didn't expect that this time she would act as a spokesperson for our competitors."

After a pause, he said again: "Why don't you do this? Please contact her agency and ask how much money will be needed if she endorses our Niranex!"

The assistant nodded and said, "Then I will contact her agency early tomorrow morning."

Jiro Kobayashi said coldly: "I have to wait for tomorrow morning and call now! The agent's mobile phone is turned on 24 hours a day and kept open."

"Okay, I'll get in touch now!"

Jiro Kobayashi returned to the room, feeling annoyed.

He knew that in this era, no matter what he sells, he is most afraid of forming an idol effect.

Many enthusiastic fans don't care whether the idol endorsement is good or bad. As long as it is an idol endorsement, they must buy it, and they buy in large quantities.

Moreover, the fanatic buying behavior of fans is very exclusive. In the same type of product, if he chooses to buy his idol endorsement, he will definitely not even look at other products of the same type.

If this is the case, it is very likely that this Oracle Nova Dias, with Stefanie's influence, will snatch away a large group of consumers from Niranex!

Thinking of this, Jiro Kobayashi's expression grew gloomy.

Oh shit.

Originally, Niranex had to take advantage of this Sanshou competition to spread all over China, but he didn't expect to make halfway through this time!

When he was depressed, Jiro Kobayashi felt another pain in his stomach. Had it not been for the assistant to interrupt, he had already taken the two packets of Niranex loosely.

Therefore, he subconsciously wanted to continue taking his Niranex at this time.

However, seeing the Nova Dias in his hand, he couldn't help but think:

"Well, I'll take this opportunity to personally try this Nova Dias!"

"After all, I have long been a deep user of Niranex, and my stomach can easily determine the quality of a Niranex!"

"If the efficacy of this medicine is inferior to Kobayashi's Niranex in my own feelings, then I don't have to worry about its threat. Although Stefanie Sun has pull, the hype will pass sooner or later. When the hype passes, everything depends on it. The strength is true!"

"At that time, this Nova Dias Powder will be automatically eliminated by consumers because of its ineffectiveness!"

Thinking of this, Jiro Kobayashi stepped back to the soft sofa, sat down, unpacked the Nova Dias package, and took out two small bags from it.

Usually, when his stomach is upset, he needs two packs of Niranex to relieve him.

Therefore, he also subconsciously took out two packs of Oracle Nova Dias, prepared to try the same dose first.

But soon he gave up the idea again, thinking that he should start with one pack first. If one pack has no effect, add another pack, and if it doesn't work, continue to increase the amount. Anyway, the medicine itself is more of a health-care nature, and the raw materials used are all non-toxic and side-effect ingredients. You can eat a few more packets without fear of problems. What Jiro Kobayashi thought was that it would be best if this Oracle Nova Dias had no effect even after taking ten packs. In that case, this medicine would be completely overturned. So, he tore open one of the packets directly, poured the powder in the packaging directly into the mouth, and then took the whiskey and poured it down.

Chapter 1456

When taking Nova Dias, Jiro Kobayashi was completely unconcerned. He felt that this medicine must be much worse than his own Niranax, but how much worse it depends on how he feels after taking a pack. However, in the next second, he immediately frowned tightly. After taking Nova Dias, Jiro Kobayashi could clearly feel a warm current in his abdomen.

This warm current is like a spring rain that moisturizes things, quickly enveloping his stomach, and it brings very powerful and effective care and analgesic effects, giving him a warm feeling.

And the discomfort in his stomach, because of this warm current, immediately disappeared, and his whole body became extremely comfortable! When I took Kobayashi's Niranax by myself, I felt this way, but in terms of the effect, it was a thousand miles away!

"Why is this Oracle Nova Dias, the medicinal effect so good? It's incredible! Even if I usually take two packets of Niranax, I don't feel so comfortable! Why is this medicine so amazing? What kind of formula is used?!"

Thinking of this, Jiro Kobayashi gave a thud, and a cold sweat broke out on his forehead.

Kobayashi's Niranax is the next trump card for Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall to enter the world!

He didn't want the trump card to be immediately crushed by a powerful competitor soon after it went public!

If no measures and methods are adopted, then Niranax, in the face of the powerful medicinal effects of this Oracle Nova Dias, can basically be declared a failure!

Jiro Kobayashi was flustered and anxious, and at the same time he kept comforting himself, and wondered: "Could it be that the effect of this medicine comes and goes quickly? If the effect of Nova Dias will dissipate soon, then he There is still a chance for Kobayashi's Niranax!" So Jiro Kobayashi decided to wait!

Wait and see if the stomach discomfort will recur in a short time.

However, Jiro Kobayashi waited for an hour, only to discover a fact that shocked him even more.

The medicinal effect of this Oracle Nova Dias hasn't diminished at all, and his stomach still feels very refreshing, like soaking the whole person in a hot spring in the winter.

He couldn't help exclaiming: "What the hell is this?! How could there be such a strong stomach powder?! I have read the ancient Chinese prescriptions several times. Niranax can be said to be the best prescription in ancient Chinese prescriptions. With the addition of some modern upgrades and improvements of my own, it is possible to have the current effect. I originally thought that Niranax had reached the top." "However, this Oracle Nova Dias, the effect of the medicine is even dozens of blocks away from Niranax!"

At this moment, Jiro Kobayashi's stomach is extremely comfortable, and his heart is extremely painful!

I was planning to leap up from Niranax and directly become the world's top pharmaceutical company, but I didn't expect that before it had time to rise, I was shot to death by the Oracle Niranax of this dog!

It's impossible to be reconciled to someone else!

He immediately called his assistant and asked, "What is the market price of this Nova Dias Stomach Powder?"

The assistant said: "The retail price is the same as our Niranax..."

"What?!"

Jiro Kobayashi felt a sharp pain in his heart!

He couldn't help but reprimanded in irritation: "This... it's damn clear to aim at our Kobayashi's stomach powder! Oracle Pharmaceutical, damn it!"

Chapter 1457

At this time, Jiro Kobayashi was unable to not be angry.

Nova Dias, the treatment field is exactly the same as Kobayashi, and it is an absolute benchmark product in itself.

However, the medicinal effect of Oracle Nova Dias is much stronger than Niranax!

What's more annoying is that the packaging specifications, net content and selling price of Oracle Nova Dias are the same as Niranax!

This is very uncomfortable!

It is much easier to use than Kobayashi's Niranax, but the weight and price are exactly the same.

Isn't this going to kill the rhythm of Kobayashi's Niranax? !

Coupled with the endorsement of Stefanie in Oracle Nova Dias, it suddenly became popular in the Chinese local market, which is equivalent to completely choking Niranax's grand desire to expand into the Chinese market!

Moreover, being defeated by Oracle Nova Dias in the Chinese local market is only the first step!

Needless to think about it, Oracle Nova Dias is such a good medicine, this Oracle pharmaceutical company will definitely not only be satisfied with the Chinese market, they will definitely export to China's surrounding countries as soon as possible, and even to Europe and the United States!

If Oracle Nova Dias landed on the Japanese market, wouldn't it have robbed Kobayashi's base camp? !

If Kobayashi's Niranax loses the overseas market and the Japanese domestic market, then the future of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall will be worrying!

In other words, this Oracle Nova Dias, it is possible that Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall will never recover!

More importantly, all the hopes of Jiro Kobayashi now rest on Kobayashi's Niranax!

The whole Japan is optimistic about his Kobayashi's Niranax, and praises Kobayashi's Niranax for its efficacy and the future of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall.

This includes the head of the Ito family, Nanako Ito's father, Ito Yuhiko.

The reason why Ito Yuhiko wants to marry Nanako Ito to himself is to marry the Kobayashi family and get a chance to buy a stake in Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall.

If Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's prospects change from bright to bleak in an instant, then Yuuhiko Ito will definitely lose interest in himself and Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall. In that case, what else would he take to marry Nanako Ito? !

You know, Nanako Ito is a goddess who is crazily sought after in Japan, and is known as the Yamato Nadeko in Japan. It can be said that she is the most perfect goddess in Japan. Whatever you say, you can't let her slip away from her hands!

At this point, Jiro Kobayashi immediately said to the assistant next to him: "Check me the background of this Oracle Pharmaceutical. Hurry up!"

The assistant nodded hurriedly: "I know the chairman, I will arrange for someone to investigate!"

Jiro Kobayashi asked again: "Has Stefanie Sun's agent contacted? What did the other party say?"

"Contacted." The assistant said angrily: "The person who contacted is called Cherie. Damn, the woman's voice is too loud. I said that I hope to invite Miss Sun to endorse our products. She directly said that Miss Sun will never again The endorsement of any physical product, only the endorsement of Nova Dias..."

"f*ck!"

Jiro Kobayashi was dumbfounded, and blurted out: "How much endorsement fee did Oracle Pharmaceutical give to Stefanie Sun?! Could it be that all her physical product endorsements have been bought out?!"

Chapter 1458

The assistant said in embarrassment: "Mr., I don't know about this. The other party hung up the phone without letting me ask carefully..."

"What a bastard!" Jiro Kobayashi said with a black face, "If this is the case, then I can only think of a solution on this Oracle Pharmaceutical. In any case, I have to buy their formula patent!"

The assistant asked carefully: "Mr. Kobayashi, is this medicine effective?"

"Very good..." Jiro Kobayashi said gloomily, "At least ten times the effect of Kobayashi's Niranax!"

The assistant seemed to be struck by lightning: "Ten times?! The difference is so big?!"

Jiro Kobayashi nodded, and said with a gloomy expression: "You must not tell this story. If we can get the prescription for Nova Dias, we can reverse everything and even take it to the next level. But if we can't get the prescription, Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's trouble is big!"

Upon hearing this, the assistant couldn't help asking: "Mr. Kobayashi, such a good prescription is a cash cow for everyone. Will this Oracle Pharmaceutical agree to sell it to us?"

Jiro Kobayashi gritted his teeth and said: "It's about the life and death of our Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall Co., Ltd.! Regardless of whether they agree or not, I will force the other party to agree!"

Jiro Kobayashi didn't realize that he had completely fallen into the same madness as his brother Ichiro Kobayashi.

At the beginning, Ichiro Kobayashi coveted the magical medicine that Charlie Wade gave to Dr. Simmons, and wanted to use the magical medicine to cure the paralysis of his father, Masao Kobayashi, and even let Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall stand up to the top of the global pharmaceutical company. Feed the dogs in the dog farm. And Jiro Kobayashi, unknowingly, opened the door to the same fate as his brother.

Soon, the assistant got the results of the investigation. He reported to Jiro Kobayashihui: "Chairman, I have found some information about Oracle Pharmaceutical. It turned out that this company was called Weaver Pharmaceutical. When we evaluated Chinese pharmaceutical companies before, we also evaluated this company. The overall market value at that time At around two to three billion Dollar, it is not too big a company, and we have never considered it." Jiro Kobayashi frowned and asked, "Then it's so good, why should it be renamed Oracle Pharmaceutical?"

The assistant said: "I haven't heard about this. However, after the name was changed to Oracle Pharmaceutical, their shareholding structure has also changed. Before the Weaver family held 100% of the shares, but after the change, the Weaver family only held 20% of the shares. , The remaining 80% are held by a mysterious person."

"Mysterious person?" Jiro Kobayashi asked in surprise: "Can't you find out who this mysterious person is?"

"Unable to find out." Assistant Hui reported: "This equity structure has top lawyers behind it, hiding the key information of major shareholders. It is impossible to find out who owns the 80% of the shares, the president, I think This matter is not simple. The major shareholder behind this might have a strong background! We must act cautiously!" Jiro Kobayashi nodded, gritted his teeth and said: "I don't need you to say that I know that this person's background is definitely not ordinary, but now we can't take care of that much. Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall takes off soon, and I absolutely cannot allow it to be cut off by this Oracle Nova Dias at this time!"

The assistant hurriedly asked him: "Mr. Kobayashi, what do you mean?"

Jiro Kobayashi said: "Tomorrow morning, go to Oracle Pharmaceutical!"

The assistant said: "Chairman, Miss Nanako will be participating in the finals tomorrow morning! Don't you go to the scene to cheer her on?"

Jiro Kobayashi waved his hand boredly: "The top priority now is to gnaw off Oracle Pharmaceutical! If Oracle Pharmaceutical can't gnaw it down, then I can't gnaw off Nanako! If Oracle Pharmaceutical can gnaw it down, then Nanako will do it sooner or later. Can't escape from the palm of my hand!"

The assistant immediately nodded and said, "Mr. Kobayashi, I understand!"

Jiro Kobayashi said: "By the way, we should contact now and mobilize a group of masters from China to try to get them to Aurouss Hilll at noon tomorrow. If the head of Oracle Pharmaceutical is very iron and can't chew it down, let this Let the masters solve it!"

Chapter 1459

The next day.

Jiro Kobayashi left early in the morning for Oracle Pharmaceutical. Charlie Wade, after eating breakfast made by his mother-in-law Elaine Ma, borrowed the car of his old husband and drove to Aurouss Hilll Stadium. I have to say that since Elaine Ma became soft, Charlie Wade's life at home has been much more comfortable.

And since Elaine Ma heard Charlie Wade say that Claire Wilson Wilson gave her a high cost and asked her to help bring the child, she changed the way to lick Charlie Wade, and at the same time kept persuading Claire Wilson Wilson to have a baby early.

Elaine Ma has been married to Jacob Wilson for so many years, and her cooking skills have never improved. Anyway, she has been fooling her husband and daughter.

But now, she actually started to study the recipe with her mobile phone, and she was determined to maintain Charlie Wade's son-in-law, so that she could have a good life in the future.

She already understood it.

Although Charlie Wade is an orphan with no background, He has also mastered a craft of feng shui. In the future, this family will definitely not be short of money. In addition, she lives in this big villa of Thompson First, which is more than 100 million Dollar. Don't mention too much satisfaction.

So, for Charlie Wade now, she just wanted to please, not anything else.

This point surprised both Claire Wilson Wilson and Jacob Wilson.

The two of them did not expect that Elaine Ma, who had never bowed his head at home, would start to bow to Charlie Wade.

Of course, the two of them knew very well that Elaine Ma was running for money. After all, no one knew Elaine Ma's behavior better than them.

But there is nothing wrong with this, at least there won't be any troubles in the house.

Charlie Wade drove to the stadium, which was already crowded. Today's final can be said to have attracted national attention.

The people all over the country want to see if the dark horse Aurora can be blacked to the end and directly get a champion back!

When Charlie Wade came backstage, Aurora had already arrived early.

Seeing him coming, I was ashamed and happy, holding his arm, and asked him softly, "Master Wade, do you think I can win today?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said seriously: "I think you will definitely win!"

As he said, he couldn't help thinking of Nanako Ito again. Admittedly.

Nanako Ito's strength was much higher than Aurora's before, but Aurora's strength now surpassed Nanako Ito by a large margin.

Therefore, Charlie Wade didn't worry about Aurora's victory. However, he was faintly worried whether Aurora would accidentally and seriously injured Nanako Ito during the game.

To be honest, he has a good impression of the girl Nanako Ito.

Although she is a Japanese woman, she has to admit that she is a model of perfection in terms of appearance, figure, personality, temperament, family education and accomplishments.

These eight words, such as quiet as a virgin and moving as a rabbit, are the best interpretation of her.

Any normal man will inevitably feel pity for self when facing such a tender woman.

Chapter 1460

She is like the most splendid and fragrant flower, and everyone will feel a little caring. Although Charlie Wade didn't like her, his appreciation still accounted for the majority. Appreciating a person naturally does not want that person to be harmed.

However, the opponent she faced right now was Little Pepper Aurora. From the competition, Charlie Wade certainly hopes that Aurora will win, and at the same time he can also win honor to the Chinese. However, personally, he didn't want Nanako Ito to be hurt too badly.

At a certain moment, Charlie Wade wanted to urge Aurora to leave her a little bit of strength after she took the stage, and don't hurt Nanako Ito too badly.

However, after hesitating for a while, he gave up the idea. Because he knew he could not interfere with Aurora's game. If she said this, Aurora would definitely be shocked and lost.

After all, he is the master Wade who admires infinitely in her eyes, and is also her current coach. If she were to show mercy to her enemies before her game, she would definitely feel betrayed.

Therefore, I can only keep this worry in my heart, and at the same time secretly, if Nanako Ito is not seriously injured, I will stop interfering and let her return to Japan directly.

But if Nanako Ito is seriously injured, then she can't ignore it and save her more or less once, and she can't turn her into a waste like her master Yamamoto Kazuki. Meanwhile, in the lounge on the other side, Nanako Ito looked a little nervous.

Her assistant, Koichi Tanaka, placed two mobile phones in front of her, both of which were on video calls.

One is a video with Kazuki Yamamoto lying in the hospital; the other is a video with her father, Ito Yuhiko, who is far away in Japan.

Yamamoto Kazuki said with a serious face: "Nanako, it's too late to quit. You'd better not play against that Aurora. In case of serious injury, your life will be ruined!"

Nanako Ito said seriously: "Master, please don't say anything like this. Nanako will be on stage in ten minutes. Please say some words of encouragement, or give Nanako some tactics!"

Yamamoto Kazuki sighed, "Hey! You... why don't you listen to me!"

Yuhiko Ito in another mobile phone was also nervous and said: "Nanako!

Mr. Yamamoto is your mentor, why don't you listen to his advice and insist on playing this game? You are the father's favorite child. , Dad would rather you do nothing in your life than you want to be hurt!"

Nanako Ito's eyes reddened, and he said: "My father, you see Nanako grow up, and you know Nanako's character best. If Nanako retreats in this game today, I am afraid that I will not be able to let it go for the rest of my life. I am only 22 years old this year. Would you like me to regret it for the rest of my life?"

Yuhiko Ito couldn't help but choked up and said, "Nanako, you always call my father adult. Today, I want to hear you call me Odosan like a child of ordinary people..."

Nanako Ito stood up immediately, bowed deeply to the mobile video, and said respectfully: "Odosan!"

Oudosan, that means father in Japanese.

After listening to Nanako Ito's Odosan, Ito Yuhiko sighed softly and said: "Nanako, go, dad respect you, chase your own clear conscience, dad is waiting for you in Tokyo!"

Nanako Ito smiled sweetly, and said, "Odosan, if I get seriously injured this time, I don't want to go back to Tokyo. I want to go to Kyoto for training. I prefer the environment of Kyoto..."

Tokyo is the capital of Japan and an cosmopolitan city, with tall buildings, busy traffic and full of modernity.

Kyoto, on the other hand, is the ancient capital of Japan. There are a large number of historical sites dating back hundreds or even thousands of years, and they are fairly well-preserved, with a less modern atmosphere, a quiet environment and a pleasant climate.

When she was young, Nanako Ito grew up in the old house of the Ito family in Kyoto. When she was fourteen, she moved to Tokyo with her family. But in her heart, Kyoto is the only hometown in her memory.

Chapter 1461

Young people like to chase fashion.

When it comes to the degree of fashion, compared with China, Japan is definitely not much better.

It can even be said that the degree of fashion in Japan is higher than that in China.

That's why there will be Hari Tide, and girls will have Japanese hairstyles, Japanese manicures, and Japanese makeup.

It can be said that Japanese girls are very fashionable overall, and they prefer a fashionable metropolis like Tokyo.

But Nanako Ito is an exception. She has always disliked fashionable things. On the contrary, she has always liked more classical culture. For example, she likes to study tea art, ancient Chinese, ancient poetry, and even ancient architecture and clothing.

Therefore, the city of Kyoto has always perfectly matched her temperament. She also knows that today's game of hers can be said to be very bad luck. Although she is unlikely to lose her life, she is afraid that she will not be able to escape the fate of being seriously injured. Therefore, she hopes to return to Kyoto to live and recuperate after being injured.

When Yuhiko Ito heard her words, he blurted out his face with affection and without hesitation: "No problem! I'll let someone clean up the mansion in Kyoto!"

"Great!" Nanako Ito was overjoyed and said excitedly: "I have always wanted to go back to Kyoto to live for a while, but I have never had a chance. This time I can do it."

After that, she said again: "By the way, Odosan, I have to trouble you to say hello to my school."

"Okay!" Ito Nodded again and again: "Leave these to me, don't worry about anything, go and participate in the competition with no distractions!" Nanako Ito bowed again.

.....

Nine twenty.

The organizer informs the players to debut.

The finals really received too much attention. National TV stations are broadcasting live, and countless video websites are also broadcasting live on the Internet. Therefore, Charlie Wade did not accompany Aurora on the stage again, but left the backstage early and sat down alone. On the seat with the back of the camera at the game scene.

He believed that Aurora no longer needed her own guidance, so she just had to watch her game silently. quickly.

Aurora and Nanako Ito entered the arena from the entrances on both sides of the ring.

Both girls are stunning, so when they appeared on the stage, they aroused huge cheers.

As soon as the two of them appeared on the stage, they attracted everyone's attention, but their own gazes began to look for the same person in the audience.

That figure is Charlie Wade.

Charlie Wade is now Aurora's spiritual pillar. She knew very well that without Charlie Wade's help, she would never have been able to go to the present.

As for Nanako Ito, Charlie Wade is now full of her heart. The reason why she played this game that she knew she would lose and even suffered serious injuries was largely because she didn't want Charlie Wade to look down upon herself.

When both of them saw Charlie Wade, their eyes converged towards Charlie Wade at the same time.

Aurora did not conceal the admiration and love on her face, but Nanako Ito's eyes were full of tenderness.

In the ring, the referee took the two girls to the center of the ring and explained the rules of the game to the two.

Chapter 1462

As for the two of them, neither of them looked at the referee or each other, they were all looking at Charlie Wade in the audience.

Charlie Wade was suddenly stressed.

Unexpectedly, these two girls would not be ready for the game, so they would stare at themselves constantly on stage.

Is he so good-looking? Isn't it okay for Sun to get things right?

Just thinking about it, the referee on the stage was also embarrassed. He coughed twice and said: "Two, are you listening to me?"

Aurora was the first to recover, and hurriedly blushed and said, "I'm sorry the referee, I just lost my mind."

The referee reluctantly looked at Nanako Ito again: "Miss Ito, how about you?"

Nanako Ito's face flushed instantly, and she hurriedly said in a low voice, "Sorry for the referee, I'm also a little distracted."

After speaking, she couldn't help but glanced at Aurora, only to realize that Aurora's face was already full of the shyness of a girl.

She couldn't help but wonder, does Aurora like Charlie Wade?

Aurora also looked at Nanako Ito in surprise.

Although Nanako Ito was calmer than herself, she blushed, so she couldn't help but wonder.

"Isn't it? Isn't this Nanako Ito, like me, like Master Wade?"

However, she soon relieved herself and thought: "A good man like Master Wade, I am afraid that most women will not be able to resist his attraction? Therefore, it is normal for Nanako Ito to like Master Wade and want to come. If you change to a girl from Europe and America, you might also like Master Wade."

"Hey, it's a pity that Master Wade is a married person after all. No matter how many women like him, it would be difficult to have a chance to really get together with him, right? Dad always keeps me and Master Wade close, trying to get Master Wade can also like me, but after so long, I can't tell how Master Wade feels towards me..."

The two women thought each other in this way, and fell into contemplation again.

The referee thought that they had brought their attention back, and he murmured a lot, and then found that neither of them looked at him, as if they were both in a state of absent-mindedness. He couldn't help but get a little big head and asked: "Did you understand?"

Nanako Ito hurriedly said, "Referee, sorry, what did you just say?"

Aurora also looked embarrassed.

The referee took it and said in a low voice: "You two, you are both top female Sanda fighters. You have passed all the way to the finals. Don't run into the finals. So many audiences and multimedia reporters are watching you both. What..."

Aurora said apologetically: "Please rest assured, referee, we will have a good game, we must!"

Nanako Ito also stuck out her tongue and said seriously: "Referee, we are ready."

The referee nodded and said, "Neither of you have a coach to accompany you today?"

"Yes." The two nodded at the same time.

Aurora's coach was Charlie Wade, but Charlie Wade went to the auditorium today and did not coach her in front of the ring.

And Nanako Ito's coach was still lying on the hospital bed watching the live broadcast, so neither of them had a coach to follow today.

So the referee said seriously: "Both of them are masters, and they know that they have no eyes. So when the game starts, if you get injured, try to accurately judge your situation. Don't insist blindly. If you can't hold it, please tell me immediately. , I'll stop the game in time, understand?"

Usually, when the game reaches a critical moment, or the player reaches a very critical moment, the coach is the one who throws the towel and declares defeat.

However, if the coach is not on the court, it depends on the players themselves.

But sometimes the players are blinded by their own play, or are seriously injured and can't react at all. This makes it easy to be seriously injured by the opponent, so the coach reminds them that they must not hold on at critical moments.

Both of them nodded seriously.

So, the referee announced loudly: "Okay, the game begins!"

Chapter 1463

Since the two girls were a little absent-minded just now, when the referee announced the start of the game, neither of them was able to enter the state immediately as before.

So the style of painting on the ring was a bit strange at once.

The referee announced the start of the game and quickly withdrew a certain distance. It stands to reason that the players on both sides would immediately enter the rhythm and begin tentative attacks. However, the two on the stage were unmoved for several seconds.

At this time, a male audience shouted: "Aurora, what are you doing in a daze? Quickly defeat that Japanese lady!"

"Yes, Aurora, the time has come to win glory for the country!"

"Oh, Aurora, this Japanese girl looks pretty, promise me not to slap her in the face, OK?"

Aurora suddenly felt a little big head.

This game is the highest level game she has ever played when she grows up.

However, it was also the most lacking game atmosphere.

So, she could only do her best to get rid of these interferences, hugged Nanako Ito, and said: "Miss Ito, offended!"

After speaking, she immediately rushed, and a sharp fist rushed towards Nanako Ito.

Nanako Ito didn't dare to take it lightly and responded with twelve points.

She knew that she would never be able to beat Aurora with her own hard work. The power gap was too great, even if she was outspoken, she would be tough enough, so what she wanted to do now was to try her best to defend first, and then look for opportunities to counterattack the opponent instead of fighting. Injury to the opponent, only to be able to score technically from the referee, even if you lose, you can not lose too thoroughly.

So, she backed her legs extremely quickly, turned her hands into palms, and met Aurora's fist with her soft palms, and immediately after the moment she touched her, she quickly followed the opponent's strength and accelerated her retreat. In an instant, it was already Dissolved Aurora's attack.

Aurora didn't expect that Nanako Ito would use such a soft and strong way to ease her own struggling blow, and she couldn't help but be secretly surprised!

Nanako Ito's coping style shows that her experience is extraordinary. The fist itself is very hard. If given enough strength and speed, the fist is very aggressive and lethal.

At this time, no matter you use any part of your body to force the opponent's fist, you must first carry all the opponent's strength! It's like a fast-moving car about to hit a hard wall. The people in the car simply cannot withstand the huge force of the flesh and blood hitting the steering wheel of the car at the moment of the collision.

However, although it is not advisable to carry hard, it is a very good way to deal with it with softness.

It is as if an air bag burst between the person and the steering wheel at the moment of the crash.

The soft and elastic airbag can well protect the body, and at the same time can well remove the impact force.

This is particularly critical!

Nanako Ito was able to judge the whole situation in the light of sparks, and immediately responded, using a soft palm to relieve her strength.

This trick really made Aurora admire her!

This is the importance of experience and reaction speed. She also knows that Nanako Ito is undoubtedly far better than herself in these two points.

Chapter 1464

Charlie Wade was also sighing in his heart for Nanako Ito's perfect response. Sure enough, experience cannot be compensated by hard power. Aurora is now like a driver with a supercar. Her car is extremely dynamic and fast. However, she does not know enough about the road conditions of the track, and she does not know where there are turns, where there are potholes, or where. There is a shortcut.

Although Nanako Ito's car is not as powerful as Aurora's supercar, but she is very familiar with the road conditions and knows every little detail.

Therefore, these two drivers race together, and even if the supercar will eventually win, it may not be very happy.

Although Nanako Ito was successfully evading Aurora's attack, she did not dare to underestimate the enemy.

Because in the round just now, she could clearly feel that Aurora's power was terribly powerful!

Fortunately, I just used my palm to resolve it, otherwise, I am afraid that I will not escape the bad luck of injury if I use any part of my body to resist.

Aurora also knew that her strength lies in speed and strength, and her weakness lies in experience and skill, so she dared not give Nanako Ito a chance to breathe, and immediately launched a second round of attack on her.

Aurora's thinking is simple. If the other party is very good at analyzing her own attacks, and then conducts targeted resolutions, then she will launch a wave of intensive attacks, making her brain unable to analyze it!

Nanako Ito saw Aurora hit her two punches in succession, and just wanted to replay the old tricks, unloading her strength with the palm of her hand, but she didn't expect that after the two punches, Aurora took turns to attack her with left and right legs!

At this time, Nanako Ito was a little bit overwhelmed. Every time she unloaded her strength with the palm of her hand, her strength began with the palm, her arms, and then to the body. She needed to work together to unload her strength. Otherwise, the thickness of her palm alone would not work. It was possible that Aurora's strength was completely relieved. However, when Aurora's offense became quicker and fierce, she couldn't help it.

When Aurora kicked her, she had no time to adjust her body to deal with it. After kicking her palm by 20%, her body had no time to retreat, so the remaining 80% strength was almost all concentrated on her arm.

With a click, Nanako Ito's right arm heard a crisp sound, followed by a sharp pain, making her forehead beaded with sweat.

With this blow, although the arm was not broken, it could be felt that the bones were already cracked, and the arm immediately swelled.

With Aurora's hand, the audience immediately burst into a happy call.

Most of those who came to the scene today were domestic audiences, so they naturally supported Aurora, a local Chinese player.

At this time, seeing her gain an advantage, the audience was naturally extremely excited.

Nanako Ito knew very well that if she continued to be passive, her resistance would soon be consumed by Aurora.

Among other things, if one's right arm is subjected to that kind of force again, it will probably break. In that case, one can only use his left hand to resist the opponent, I am afraid that he will lose faster!

Thinking of this, she decided to go all out and take the initiative!

So, while Aurora was about to attack herself, she suddenly turned sideways and flashed over the right leg kicked by Aurora. Immediately afterwards, she immediately waved her left fist and directly hit Aurora's right leg which was falling.

Aurora didn't expect that Nanako Ito's dodge speed could be so fast, she almost avoided it by rubbing this side, and she did not expect that Nanako Ito could directly attack herself at the moment of dodging!

However, at this time, her right leg hadn't completely landed, and it was too late to defend.

Chapter 1465

At this moment, Aurora couldn't help being annoyed by her carelessness! She only cared about constantly launching attacks on Nanako Ito, but ignored that she was a master of masters, and was completely different from the opponents she had encountered before.

Therefore, although this kind of oppressive attack is indeed very threatening to Nanako Ito, it actually left her with many flaws. At this moment, Nanako Ito slammed Aurora's knee from the side with a very fast speed.

With a bang, Nanako Ito only felt like she had hit a steel plate with a punch, and her entire wrist was numb!

As for Aurora, after taking her blow, she thought she would suffer a lot of damage, but she didn't expect it was just a small pain in her knee. This level of pain was completely within an acceptable range for myself, except for a little pain, it hardly brought any substantial impact on myself.

She couldn't help being surprised secretly in her heart: "After Master Wade helped me absorb the magical medicine, not only my strength has been greatly improved, but also my body's ability to resist attacks has also been greatly improved!"

"I know the strength of Nanako Ito. If I were the previous one, I would definitely suffer a serious injury to my knee, possibly a comminuted fracture.

But now it seems that Nanako Ito's punch is more like a fist from a four or five year old child.

There is no substantial lethality at all!

Nanako Ito was also shocked at this time!

She only knows that Aurora is very strong now, especially the striking power!

But she did not expect that Aurora's current anti-strike ability was also incredible.

With this punch, she had already used her full strength, but looking at Aurora, she seemed to be like an okay person.

Even Aurora's expression was not at all painful, only annoyed!

At this moment, Nanako Ito realized that he had completely lost the chance to win this game.

The attacking power is not as good as Aurora's, she still has skills and experience, but only now has she discovered that Aurora's physical resistance to attack has far surpassed her own strength.

According to this situation, even if she was motionless and allowed herself to play for five or ten minutes, it would be difficult for herself to really hurt her!

At this moment, Aurora knew her shame and then courageously, decided to deal with Nanako Ito with twelve points.

She felt very ashamed of being hit by Nanako Ito just now, and she even felt sorry for Charlie Wade's expectations of her.

She thought in her heart: "After all, Master Wade gave me such a big advantage, I should have pressed Nanako Ito and didn't give her any chance to fight back, but if I continue to be seized by her to fight back, Master Wade will definitely Disappointed to me!"

Thinking of this, she immediately rushed towards Nanako Ito!

On the expression of Nanako Ito, a look of amazement appeared involuntarily.

She backed quickly while staring at Aurora's figure, trying to find her flaws in Aurora's movements.

At this moment, she suddenly discovered that all of Aurora's offense was concentrated on the upper plate, and the defense of the lower plate seemed to have been slack again.

Therefore, she decided to continue to fight defensively, this time, aiming at Aurora's next game!

Chapter 1466

Aurora hit two punches in succession, but they were both avoided by Nanako Ito. Nanako Ito saw an excellent opportunity. She immediately squatted down and rubbed Aurora's body to the front. At the same time, her left hand was in front and her injured right hand was in front. After that, both hands joined forces to slap Aurora's waist.

The Chinese audience present exclaimed one after another, because in their opinion, Aurora was about to seize the opportunity to counterattack successfully.

But at the very moment of the moment, Aurora's left hand formed a palm and right hand formed a fist, her left palm violently pushed her right fist, and then gave her right elbow a huge force, and quickly attacked Nanako Ito's chest!

Aurora's attack can be said to be the ultimate strength and speed! She has great power with just her right arm, but with this blow, she not only used all the power of her right arm, but also added the power of her left arm!

Nanako Ito never dreamed that the flaw Aurora deliberately exposed was actually just a bait to lure the enemy into depth!

Before her palm hit Aurora's ribs, Aurora's right elbow had already hit her chest in an instant!

The strength of the elbows was originally extraordinary, not to mention the superimposition of all the strength of the arms, Nanako Ito felt that she was hit by a cannonball in her chest instantly, and that huge force broke her many ribs, but less than 30% of the huge power was relieved, and the remaining power knocked her out, and the whole person flew several meters away.

Immediately afterwards, Nanako Ito flew in the air and crashed to the ground.

With a bang, at the moment Nanako Ito fell to the ground, she immediately vomited a mouthful of blood, and her face was instantly pale!

Charlie Wade didn't expect Aurora's attack to use so much force!

With her current strength, let alone Nanako Ito, even if she was replaced by a 200-lbs male contestant, she would not be able to handle it at all! Such a powerful force hit Nanako Ito's body, which was less than 100 lbs, not only directly wounded and broke her ribs, but also severely damaged her internal organs!

At this time, she was like a wounded person who had suffered serious internal injuries in a car accident, and even her life was in danger. But this stubborn Japanese girl is still trying desperately to stand up again with her hands on the smooth ring.

Aurora also didn't expect that she would hurt the opponent to such a degree with a furious blow, so she was panicked on the stage. She stood there and looked at Nanako Ito, not knowing what to do.

The referee quickly ran to Nanako Ito and asked with concern: "Miss Ito, how are you? Do you want to stop the game now?"

Nanako Ito's white teeth clenched his bloodless lower lip.

She shook her head hard, and tried to support herself with both hands, but after several attempts, she failed!

At this time, the referee said with some regret: "I'm sorry, Miss Ito, I'm about to start counting down!"

"ten!"

"nine!"

Nanako Ito listened to the referee's countdown, still trying to stand again.

However, the pain in her entire chest at this time was already in the bone!

She didn't know how many injuries she had suffered. She just looked at Charlie Wade from a distance. However, she couldn't see Charlie Wade's expression clearly. She didn't know whether Charlie Wade's eyes were distressed or not. or Disappointed.

So, she wanted to stand up, stand up and see more clearly..

Chapter 1467

However, Nanako Ito's physical condition at this time was completely insufficient to support her to stand up again.

She worked hard with pain and unwillingness on her face, and the referee on the side continued to count down the countdown.

Nanako Ito persisted for several times, but was still unable to do so.

Until the moment the referee finished reading the last second and officially blew the whistle to announce the official end of the game, her strength seemed to be completely drained at this moment, and the whole person screamed. , Lay down on the ring.

Deafening cheers erupted from the crowd.

Because they knew that Aurora won the final and won the championship of this international competition.

The referee also raised Aurora's arm high at this time and said loudly:

"Now I declare that the champion of this international college student Sanda competition is the local Chinese player Aurora!"

The cheers reached a peak in an instant, and everyone stood up and applauded at the same time.

Charlie Wade also stood up and applauded, but he was worried about Nanako Ito in his heart.

At this moment, the team of doctors from the Ito family immediately carried a stretcher and rushed to the ring. The middle-aged female doctor headed by Nanako Ito performed a simple examination, and immediately said to the people around him: "My lady's injury is very serious. Must go to the airport immediately!"

Nanako Ito said weakly and hardly, "Can you wait a little longer?"

The doctor shook his head, his tone was extremely serious, and extremely nervous: "Miss, your injury is very serious now. Not only are your ribs broken, but the internal organs have also suffered a lot of damage. We must take you to the ambulance now and start. first aid!"

"Before we came, we had put a lot of large-scale first aid equipment on the plane. We will do further treatment for you on our way back to Japan. After we arrive in Japan, we will immediately send you to the best hospital for acceptance. The best treatment!"

As soon as the voice fell, she immediately ordered: "Quick, let's set off now!"

There are countless unwillingnesses in Nanako Ito's heart, but the situation at this time is no longer under her control. These are all family doctors, and all are under her father.

So Nanako Ito was immediately put on a stretcher by the doctor, and then quickly taken away from the game.

Seeing that Nanako Ito was taken away, Charlie Wade felt a little worried. He didn't know how much damage Aurora's full blow just now caused Nanako Ito.

I don't know if her life is in danger.

In fact, the safest way is for Charlie Wade to make a diagnosis for her personally to determine whether her life is in danger, and if so, use reiki to heal her.

But now that the doctor of the Ito family hurriedly took her away, Charlie Wade had no chance at all.

When Charlie Wade chased him out of the gymnasium, the doctors of the Ito family were transporting Nanako Ito to the ambulance.

At this time, Nanako Ito suddenly saw the exit of the gymnasium, and a figure that was familiar and dreaming of her appeared.

She recognized that figure was Charlie Wade almost instantly!

As a result, Nanako Ito was suddenly very excited, but at this time, the door of the ambulance was closed, and she could only desperately looked at Charlie Wade through the crack of the door before closing the door.

The moment the car door was completely closed, tears burst into her eyes.

At the same time, she choked in her heart: "Goodbye, Charlie Wade...Although, I don't know if there is still a chance to meet you again..."

Charlie Wade saw the ambulance whizzing away from the gym, and then stopped, and sighed helplessly.

Undeniably, his heart is very worried about Nanako Ito. However, there is no other way. I can only hope that Nanako Ito can survive by herself. As for whether she and herself have a chance to meet again, it can only be resigned.

.....

At this moment.

Jiro Kobayashi was sitting in the reception room of Oracle Pharmaceutical.

Because Nova Dias was madly sought after and snapped up as soon as it went on the market, Liam's production pressure was very heavy!

Since last night, the magical effect of Nova Dias has been madly advertised by people on platforms such as Moments of Friends and TikTok, coupled with the influence of Stefanie Sun's aura, so it can be described as hot.

The popularity of this medicine is too high, and the most direct pressure is insufficient productivity.

Therefore, Liam decided to pay the employees double their wages so that they could work overtime and produce Nova Dias at the fastest speed.

Because of this, he personally went to the workshop to instruct production early this morning, and held a mobilization meeting for the employees in the workshop to mobilize the fighting spirit of the employees.

Therefore, there is no time to receive Jiro Kobayashi who came to see him early.

Only let the secretary receive Jiro Kobayashi and let him wait in the reception room.

Jiro Kobayashi was already waiting and getting upset.

I should go to the game today to cheer for Nanako Ito.

However, for the sake of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's future, he could only reluctantly give up this idea and rushed to Oracle Pharmaceutical.

I thought that if the talk went well, I might have time to get back to the stadium.

Unexpectedly, Liam directly left himself in the reception room for nearly two hours!

At this time, his mobile phone suddenly received a message: "The Aurouss Hill International College Sanda Competition has officially come to an end. Chinese player Aurora won the championship!"

He hurriedly clicked on this post, skipped the report of Aurora's victory, and went directly to the report about Nanako Ito.

When he saw the news in the report that Nanako Ito was seriously injured and returned to Japan for treatment on the spot, he couldn't help but cursed: "Damn! If I can follow Nanako Ito at this time, I must be able to take the opportunity to win. Does she have a good feeling?"

After all, under the double blow of failure and injury, a woman should be very fragile in her heart and need the care and care of others.

"Hey, such a good opportunity, what a pity!"

Liam did not end the mobilization meeting of the workshop until more than ten o'clock and came to the reception room.

As soon as he entered the reception room, Jiro Kobayashi immediately got up and said enthusiastically: "Oh, you must be Manager Weaver!"

Liam nodded: "Yes, it's me, your Excellency is Mr. Jiro Kobayashi?"

"Yes, it's right here!" Jiro Kobayashi smiled respectfully and said:

"Manager Weaver, when we meet for the first time, please take care of me."

Liam had known about the things that Kobayashi's brother and Ichiro Kobayashi had done.

Therefore, he has always been wary of Jiro Kobayashi.

So he frowned and asked, "Mr. Kobayashi, I don't know what it is for me to come here this time?"

Jiro Kobayashi laughed and complimented: "I heard that your company has launched a Nova Dias. It happens that our Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall also has a Kobayashi Niranex that is sold throughout Asia, so I want to come over and talk to Manager Weaver about the cooperation. ."

"Cooperation?" Liam said without hesitation: "I'm sorry, Mr. Kobayashi, we Oracle Pharmaceutical, there is nothing to cooperate with Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall!"

Chapter 1469

Jiro Kobayashi didn't expect Liam to refuse so simply.

Think about it anyway, or pretend to think about it? Isn't this respect due to business negotiations?

Although he was angry, Jiro Kobayashi was still holding back his anger. He kept the gentleman smiling, and said to Liam: "Manager Weaver, please forgive me for speaking more bluntly. None of your Oracle Pharmaceuticals can be regarded as a top pharmaceutical company in China, but it is even more inconspicuous when placed in the world. If you want to go abroad and enter the Asian market or even the global market, with your company's strength, it is impossible to make a breakthrough."

Speaking of this, he patted his chest and said with a bit of pride: "But our Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals is different. We have a history of several decades, and we have already had a certain degree in the international market. Popularity. What's more, our overall strength is much stronger than yours, our production line is much more advanced than yours, and our production capacity is much ahead of yours. In this case, Oracle Pharmaceutical has no way to compete with Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall. In comparison, with such a good opportunity, why not cooperate in-depth with Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall?"

Liam sneered and said: "Mr. Kobayashi, Oracle Pharmaceutical is indeed not as large as your Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, but I believe that with the excellent efficacy of our products, we can grow rapidly even if it is spread by word of mouth. It's not a problem at all to break out of Asia and go to the world. Even if we don't need to go abroad, foreign consumers will take the initiative to come to us to buy. This is the attraction of good things."

Jiro Kobayashi's expression was a little ugly.

He knew how good Nova Dias was.

With the mentality of trying it out last night, I ate a pack of Nova Dias. As a result, the stomach discomfort was completely relieved, and there is no sign of recurrence.

Both the effect and the duration of the medicine are much stronger than the Kobayashi's stomach powder.

Therefore, according to this trend, once this Oracle Nova Dias is launched, Kobayashi's Nova Dias may completely lose the market.

And the whole world has a common law, once a product is extremely good, it will trigger spontaneous transmission of users, and then immediately cause extremely rapid viral transmission.

After all, the spread of word-of-mouth effect is more effective than any kind of advertising.

Therefore, he could only hold back the anger in his heart, and smiled and said to Liam: "Manager Weaver, I know your products are really good, but to be honest, your productivity, production process, etc., Kobayashi still has a good reputation. It's a big gap!"

"Furthermore, you want to raise the output in a short period of time. I am afraid it will be very irritating. After all, you have to choose a site for expansion, build a factory building, and introduce a new production line. In this process, every one or two years will not start at all. In one or two years, you will not be able to quickly occupy the market due to insufficient production capacity."

"If you are willing to cooperate with Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals, then Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals can make up for your shortcomings to a large extent. We will work together and make a fortune together!"

"At that time, I can transfer all production lines of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall to Oracle Nova Dias. We can set a cooperation ratio. For example, if you get 60%, I will take 40%, and then rename Oracle Nova Dias to Kobayashi Nova Dias, which means Oracle Nova Dias. A cooperative product of Oracle Pharmaceutical and Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall!"

"You have to know that the productivity of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals is at least eight to ten times that of your Oracle Pharmaceuticals. We have multiple production lines in Japan, and three production lines in China and Southeast Asia. The technical content of each production line is top in the world. Grade! If you want to build so many production lines, it will take at least five to eight years. In that case, why are you not willing to cooperate with us?"

Jiro Kobayashi talked a lot. The only thing that Liam felt was the lack of productivity of Oracle Pharmaceutical.

Chapter 1470

Oracle Pharmaceutical is the former Weaver's Pharmaceutical, and the scale of Weaver's Pharmaceutical is a huge difference compared to Kobayashi's.

Among other things, all the assets of Weaver's Pharmaceuticals before totaled two to three billion, but the cash that was taken away by Charlie

Wade alone for Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals had a full 11 billion Dollar, and the market value of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals , Is more than 100 billion Dollar, at least for Weaver's Pharmaceutical, tens or even hundreds of times.

Therefore, now that Oracle Pharmaceutical wants to expand the production capacity of Oracle Nova Dias, the only thing it can do is to quickly expand the production line besides making these employees work overtime as much as possible.

But as Jiro Kobayashi said, if you want to expand the production line, you must invest a lot of manpower, material resources, financial resources and time, but the most important thing is time.

There is an old saying in Europe that Rome was not built in a day.

Oracle Pharmaceutical wants to expand its production line, and it will not be realized in a short time.

Next, if Oracle Nova Dias becomes popular globally, Oracle Pharmaceutical will not have enough production capacity to meet the rapidly rising demand in the global market.

Thinking of this, Liam couldn't help but hesitate.

Therefore, he said to Jiro Kobayashi: "Mr. Kobayashi, this is not something I can do. I am just a person in charge of Pharmaceutical.

Whether we can cooperate with you depends on what our boss means."

Seeing that Liam's tone was a little loose, Jiro Kobayashi knew that there was still a ray of life in this matter, so he smiled and said, "In that case, please ask Manager Weaver to call your boss and see you. Does the boss have any intention to cooperate. If he has the intention to cooperate, we can meet and chat and settle this matter as soon as possible. Once we reach a cooperation, I will immediately transfer all the production lines of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical to Oracle Nova Dias. It is the future Kobayashi Niranax!"

"Okay." Liam nodded, took out his mobile phone, walked out of the reception room, and came to a quiet room with no one to call Charlie Wade.

At this time, Charlie Wade, while watching Aurora on the podium and receiving the gold medal for the championship, was embarrassed in his heart for Nanako Ito's departure.

At this moment, he received a call from Liam.

Pressing the answer button, Charlie Wade asked him: "Liam, are you looking for something to do with me?"

Liam hurriedly said: "Master Wade, this is the case. A Japanese came to Oracle Pharmaceutical to find a cooperation. In fact, he is still half an acquaintance of you."

Charlie Wade was taken aback for a moment, and Xuan even asked him with a smile: "This half acquaintance you are talking about should be Jiro Kobayashi?"

"Yes, it's him!" Liam hurriedly introduced Jiro Kobayashi's cooperation intention to Charlie Wade.

After speaking, he hurriedly added: "Master Wade, I think our current production capacity is indeed a very big shackle. If Oracle Pharmaceutical wants to take off, it must increase the production capacity several times or even dozens of times. Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's cooperation is not a solution. As for the ratio, if you think it's not appropriate, I can talk to him again."

Chapter 1471

When Charlie Wade heard this, he couldn't help but laughed and said, "The character of the Kobayashi family is extremely unreliable. Not only is there a precedent for stealing my magic drug, but there is also a case where Jiro Kobayashi paid for the life of his brother. Their family cooperation will definitely be calculated by them."

Charlie Wade said, "Also, the Kobayashi family is a Japanese family after all. If we cooperate with them, we must share our formula with them. Once they plagiarize our formula, it is very It is possible that we will do things like crossing rivers, demolishing bridges, or even unloading grinding and killing donkeys, so we must not cooperate with them."

When Liam heard this, he immediately said, "Master Wade, this matter is under consideration. Please don't worry, I will reject this Jiro Kobayashi now!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Based on what I know about the Kobayashi family, they can't give up this thing so easily. Maybe there will be other sorrows. You have to be careful these two days. I will tell Cameron Isaac and Don Albertt. Over there, I will help you pay more attention."

Liam said hurriedly, "Good Master Wade, I will find out!"

After that, Liam asked: "By the way, Master Wade, our Nova Dias market has responded very well. Do you think we can expand the production line as soon as possible? If you have the intention, I will quickly apply for industrial land with the relevant departments."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Building your own production line is too slow, right? There are several ready-made large production lines in front of you."

Liam asked in surprise: "Master Wade, are you talking about Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall?"

"Yes." Charlie Wade said with a smile: "Jiro Kobayashi's brother, Ichiro Kobayashi is still in my hands. This time I will leave Jiro Kobayashi behind and let Ichiro Kobayashi go back to inherit the Kobayashi Group, but if I want to If I go back, I must transfer 80% of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's shares to my name, otherwise, he will continue to hide his name and shovel dog shit at Don Albertt's kennel!"

Liam suddenly realized, and exclaimed: "Master Wade, it turns out that you planned to do that! This...this is really a genius! No wonder you want to keep that Ichiro Kobayashi, it turned out to be of such great use!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "If I let Ichiro Kobayashi go back, I will keep Jiro Kobayashi as a hostage. If this Ichiro Kobayashi doesn't cooperate well and I am not obedient, then I will put Jiro Kobayashi back in and get him back to raise a dog. In short, whoever listens to me the most, the two brothers can go back to Japan to enjoy the blessings. The one who is not obedient, or the one who is not obedient, stays in Aurouss Hilll and raises a dog honestly!"

"Master Wade, I understand! I'll go and reject Jiro Kobayashi!"?

Respectfully hung up Charlie Wade's phone, and Liam returned to the reception room.

Seeing him coming back, Jiro Kobayashi stood up expectantly, smiled and asked, "Manager Weaver, what did your boss say? He must be very interested in my proposal, right?"

Liam shook his head: "I'm sorry Mr. Kobayashi, our boss is not interested in your cooperation, so I'm sorry, our Oracle Pharmaceutical can't cooperate with your company."

Jiro Kobayashi frowned and asked, "Manager Weaver, is your boss not satisfied with the ratio? How about this? If we cooperate, you will get 70% of the net profit, and we will get 30%, and give you the bulk. This kind of shows my sincerity."

Liam smiled indifferently: "Sorry, our boss said that non-cooperation means non-cooperation. It has nothing to do with the share ratio, Mr. Kobayashi, please go back."

"you....."

Jiro Kobayashi stood up in irritation and said coldly, "Manager Weaver, don't think that you can run unimpeded with a good medicine. I tell you, if Kobayashi is really urgent, Kobayashi can still play with you. Price war, believe it or not, starting tomorrow, Kobayashi Niranex will be sold at 50% off? Even if your medicine is effective, what about? Once the price war starts, your profit margin will drop indefinitely!"

Liam said: "Mr. Kobayashi, if you want to fight a price war, we will naturally not be afraid. But then again, since our boss is unwilling to cooperate with you, then we don't need to waste our tongue here. If you have anything If you are dissatisfied or if you have any strategies or ideas, you can go back and use them to your heart's content, and I will not accompany you."

After speaking, he said to the secretary: "Send off the guests!"

Jiro Kobayashi was very annoyed.

He actually didn't want to fight a price war with Oracle Nova Dias.

Chapter 1472

After all, to fight a price war is the last resort.

If the effects of the two products are similar, a price war at this time is tantamount to killing one thousand enemies and losing eight hundred. But if the efficacy of the two products is much worse, and there is a price war at this time, it would be equivalent to killing one hundred enemies and self-defeating one thousand.

After all, although the efficacy of Niranex is much worse, the cost is not lower than Oracle Nova Dias!

Moreover, because Japan's labor costs are relatively high, and the cost of export shipping and tariffs is not low, the cost of Kobayashi's Niranex is much higher than that of Oracle Nova Dias, which is much more potent.

If everyone drops the price to 100 Dollar a box, then Niranex may lose money and sell it, but Nova Dias may have a profit of ten to twenty Dollar per box.

Therefore, Jiro Kobayashi is just trying to do without a price war. If he is really allowed to fight, he has no such confidence.

After thinking about it, he felt that his real solution was to steal the prescription.

As soon as he returned to his car, Jiro Kobayashi couldn't wait to ask his assistant: "Is the Japanese master who is in Aurouss Hillll now?"

The assistant hurriedly reported to him: "Mr., I have mobilized a total of 16 masters this time, of which 9 have already been exhausted, and the remaining 7 will arrive before tonight."

"Okay, very good!" Jiro Kobayashi nodded and said, "Let them set up an ambush on this road tonight, tie that Liam to me, and then torture him severely. We must let him hand in the prescriptions and formulas!"

Whenever Chinese patent medicines, the prescription is important, and the formula is also very important.

The prescription contains all the types of medicinal materials needed for this medicine and the corresponding amount of each medicinal material.

If there are the same 10 kinds of medicinal materials, and the proportion of each medicinal material is different, the medicinal effects produced are also worlds different.

It is possible that if a certain medicinal material is too much or less, it will turn this kind of medicine that can save people into a poison that can harm people.

So Jiro Kobayashi also knew that even if he could figure out what ingredients were in it, it would be difficult to formulate the correct ratio.

If you rely on guesswork and experimentation, it may not be possible to figure it out within a few years.

In case this medicine contains more ingredients, it may not be available in 10 or 20 years.

As for the formula, it is related to the pharmaceutical process.

The current proprietary Chinese medicines are basically processed and extracted by modern methods. Some medicinal materials need to be fermented, some medicinal materials and medicinal materials need to be reacted, and some medicinal materials need to be added before or after other medicinal materials to be effective. , Such as the concept of drug primer in Chinese medicine.

This is like a complicated chemical reaction formula. In addition to the core raw materials, there is also a catalyst. When will the catalyst be added? How much to add? These are very important. In case there is a slight mistake, it is a small mistake and a thousand miles away.

So the safest and fastest method is to get the entire prescription and formula directly!

Chapter 1473

The international college student Sanda competition is over.

The moment Aurora wore a gold medal and threw herself into Charlie Wade's arms in the backstage lounge, the little girl cried so much that it rained.

The reason for crying is because of excitement on the one hand, and thanks on the other hand.

Before that, Aurora had never thought that one day she could win the world championship.

So at this time, she was extremely excited.

Aurora also knew very well that the reason why she was able to have such a fortune was entirely because her beloved Master Wade was helping behind, and the help he brought to herself was so great that she could not describe it in words.

When she threw herself into Charlie Wade's arms, Mr. Quinton and Steven Quinton consciously left the lounge.

Aurora, who only wore a sports tube top and shorts, hugged Charlie Wade tightly, ignoring that she was still a girl who had never fallen in love. While holding Charlie Wade tightly, she choked down on his chest and said, "Master Wade, thank you so much! If it weren't for you, I would never have won this gold medal..."

Charlie Wade lightly patted Aurora's back, and said very seriously: "You have to remember that the greater your ability, the greater your responsibility. Winning this game is actually just the beginning. Next, you must continue to work hard. Training and facing the next Olympics, if you can get a gold medal in the next Olympics, then you will really win glory for the country!"

Aurora hurriedly said: "Master Wade, I have never participated in the Olympics before. I don't know if our country's Olympic Committee can look down upon me! Every Olympics has a corresponding Olympic Committee, and every one of them participates in the Olympics. All of the athletes are selected by the Olympic Committee. Only after the Olympic Committee selects, joins the national team and is placed in the Olympic squad, can they have the opportunity to participate in the Olympics..."

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Don't worry, I believe that the people of the Olympic Committee must be paying attention to today's game, and they will not miss your rising star! So I believe it will not take too long. People from the Olympic Committee will come to you in time!"

"Really?" Aurora asked in surprise: "Master Wade, do you think I really have the opportunity to represent the motherland in the Olympic Games?"

Charlie Wade said firmly: "I think not only do you have this opportunity, you have this qualification, you also have this strength!"

As he was talking, there was a knock on the door.

Outside the door, Mr. Quinton's voice came: "Aurora, Mr. Liles, the person in charge of sports in our province, has come to see you!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "Look, someone has arrived."

After speaking, he hurriedly separated from Aurora and opened the door of the room.

Outside the door, a middle-aged man who was nearly 50 years old, when he came in, he was very excited and said to Aurora: "Miss Quinton, your game just now was very exciting. Not only did you play a very high level, but you also competed for the country. Light up! Congratulations!"

At this time, he is the person in charge of sports in the province, Mr. Liles.

The sports of the whole province are under his rule and managed by him.

Aurora said very politely: "Mr. Liles, thank you!"

Mr. Liles said seriously: "Miss Quinton, I just received a call from the Olympic Organizing Committee. They entrusted me to formally invite you to join the Sanda national team for the next Olympic Games. If you agree, you can go to Eastcliff soon. Participated in the training camp of the national team. Next summer, you will be able to represent the country and participate in the next Olympic Games. I wonder what you think?"

As soon as Aurora heard this, tears of excitement suddenly joined.

Even Mr. Quinton was shaking with excitement!

Although his net worth is over tens of billions, he is an out-and-out super rich man who can give Aurora a life of worry-free life.

But as a father, Mr. Quinton still hopes that her daughter can create her own brilliance and achievements.

Participating in the Olympic Games for the country and winning the Olympic gold medal, this is the glory of her own daughter!

Chapter 1474

At this time, Aurora nodded desperately, her tears even fell into the air, and she said excitedly and firmly: "I do!"

Mr. Liles said with satisfaction: "That's really great. I will communicate with the committee about the specific related work. If the national team training is ordered, I will personally deliver it to your home. I believe that with you With his strength, he will be able to successfully win a gold medal in the Olympics!"

After Mr. Liles left, the Quinton father and daughter cried together in the backstage lounge.

Mr. Quinton was very pleased, because today Aurora won the championship of this game, which is already a great achievement for the ancestors, but unexpectedly, her daughter would have the opportunity to be selected for the national team and participate in the next Olympic Games.

Mr. Quinton cried for a long time before wiping away the tears. He looked at Charlie Wade, knelt down on one knee and clasped his fists and said, "Master Wade! It may be today's achievement. Everything depends on your gift from Master Wade. Master Wade is my Quinton family. Great benefactor, Master Wade, please accept the next prayer!"

Aurora hurriedly followed behind her father, kneeling down on one knee and said, "Master Wade, please be respected by Aurora!"

When Steven Quinton saw this, he dared to delay the slightest, and immediately knelt down, "Master Wade, please be respected by Steven!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said to Aurora: "Aurora, from now on, you must work harder and win glory for the country in the Olympics."

Aurora cried and nodded, and said firmly: "Master Wade, don't worry, I will definitely go all out to prepare for the Olympics!"

.....

Mr. Quinton originally wanted to take advantage of the trend to set a table for his daughter to celebrate in Heaven Springs, and at the same time invited Charlie Wade to attend.

But Charlie Wade was really not in the mood, so he left the gym alone on the pretext of having something at home.

Of course he was also happy for Aurora's victory, but when he thought that Nanako Ito was still unclear at this time, he was somewhat worried. And unfortunately, he doesn't even have the contact information for Nanako Ito.

Even making a phone call to greet him has become a luxury.

Charlie Wade didn't understand why he always calmed down so much about this Japanese girl. But think about it carefully, Nanako Ito has such a different kind of temperament that attracts him.

I dare not say that I like her, but at the very least, I really appreciate her. Thinking about it, Nanako Ito should be on the plane back to Japan now. Therefore, Charlie Wade can only hope that the doctors of the Ito family can do a little bit more, not to put this young girl's life in danger, and not to leave her with any sequelae.

At this time, his cell phone suddenly received a call from Stefanie. On the phone, Stefanie asked as soon as he came up: "Charlie Wade, your Nova Dias Powder sold very well as soon as it went on the market.

Congratulations."

Charlie Wade gave a hum, and said with a smile: "With your endorsement by a top star like you, of course it is selling well!"

Stefanie said: "It is said that many pharmacies in Eastcliff are out of stock. The scalpers have fried the price of a box from more than 100 to more than 500, which is still in short supply!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "It seems that your big star's influence is indeed extraordinary!"

"It's not." Stefanie said seriously: "It's mainly your medicine. The effect is really great. Such a good thing will be highly sought after even if there is no endorsement."

As she said, she asked in a sad tone: "By the way, Charlie Wade, when will you come to Eastcliff? My dad's body is a bit not good recently..."

Chapter 1475

Listening to Stefanie saying that Orrin Sun's physical condition is not optimistic, Charlie Wade hurriedly asked her: "Daisy, what is wrong with Uncle Orrin's body?"

Stefanie said sadly: "It's still about pancreatic cancer. When I came back from abroad, it stabilized a little bit, but in the past few days there are signs of continued spreading. The hospital at Eastcliff is already working hard to treat him. Radiotherapy and chemotherapy were used, as well as targeted drugs, but the effect was very mediocre..."

Having said this, Stefanie couldn't help but choked up and said, "Charlie Wade, the doctor has told me that he has made me mentally prepared. If there is nothing good, my father may only have three or four months of life left."

Charlie Wade hurriedly comforted: "Daisy, you don't have to be so sad now. I can still be sure of Uncle Orrin's condition. I will do my best to treat Uncle Orrin when you wait for me."

Stefanie cried and asked, "Charlie Wade, when on earth are you coming?" Charlie Wade thought about it.

Now, Aurora's game was over, and the only thing she had left was Jiro Kobayashi and Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall.

If you keep Jiro Kobayashi at the kennel according to your plan, and release Ichiro Kobayashi to inherit Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, you must go to Japan again, supervise Ichiro Kobayashi, and change the shares of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall to your own name.

However, since Orrin Sun's health is deteriorating at the moment, he naturally can't delay anymore. He can go to Japan slowly and wait until he comes back from Eastcliff.

Thinking of this, he immediately said to Stefanie: "Daisy, I still have a little thing to deal with, but it's only for these two days. After I finish my work for these two days, I will immediately go to Eastcliff. !" When Stefanie heard this, she breathed a sigh of relief and choked up: "Charlie Wade, then I am waiting for you in Eastcliff. You must do it as soon as possible. I'm really afraid that my father will get worse one day..."

Charlie Wade comforted: "Don't worry, I will as soon as possible, just two days!"

"Hmm! Then I'll wait for you!"

As soon as Charlie Wade hung up Stefanie's call, he immediately received a WeChat voice call from Cameron Isaac.

After being connected, Cameron Isaac respectfully said: "Master, according to my informant, since this morning, many Japanese masters have come this year. I suspect that they are all employed by Jiro Kobayashi, and it is probably for you. Oracle Pharmaceutical has an unruly attempt." Charlie Wade gave a hum, and said lightly: "Sure enough, all the members of the Kobayashi family are like raccoon dogs. There is no difference between this younger brother and older brother. When they see good things, they just want to grab them. In that case, let's teach him a lesson. ."

After speaking, Charlie Wade said again: "Let your people closely monitor these so-called Japanese masters to see what they are plotting. Then you will work with me to teach these Japanese people. By the way, Jiro Kobayashi stayed in the hospitable Aurouss Hilll."

Cameron Isaac smiled and said, "Master, do you want to keep Jiro Kobayashi? By then, the two sons of the Kobayashi family will be in our hands. Isn't the Kobayashi family headless?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Leave Jiro Kobayashi and put Ichiro Kobayashi back. The Kobayashi family has such a high production capacity. I can't let it go, so I need an obedient puppet to help me solve all this."

After all, Cameron Isaac is an extremely smart person. Upon hearing this, he immediately knew Charlie Wade's plan and couldn't help but exclaimed, "Master, you are such a good mastermind!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "You can keep an eye on it for me, and remember to call me if there is any movement."

"Good master!"

.....

When Charlie Wade got home, Elaine Ma, mother-in-law, was preparing lunch.

As for the father-in-law Jacob Wilson and his wife Claire Wilson Wilson, they have not yet returned.

Seeing Charlie Wade arrived home, Elaine Ma hurried up and said with a grin: "My son-in-law, the caviar skin care product you gave me is really effective! I have never used such a good thing in my life! "

Chapter 1476

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "Just effective."

Elaine Ma smiled flatteringly and said, "Good son-in-law, can Mom discuss something with you?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "You said."

Elaine Ma hurriedly said: "That's right, my son-in-law. Although this big set of caviar skin care products are many, but when they are used up, Mom is afraid that after they are used up, if they can't continue, the anti-aging on this face The effect has gone back to the previous state, so can you wait for mom to run out and get another set for mom?"

Charlie Wade understood.

Elaine Ma was actually afraid that this set would be useless after it was used up, so she wanted to book the next set with herself in advance.

To be honest, nearly 400,000 sets of skin care products are really nothing to me, but this is not a decimal after all, and Elaine Ma cannot be promised casually.

If she performs well, this is of course not a problem, but if she does not perform well, let alone such expensive skin care products, even if it is a bottle of Dabao for a few dollars, she will not buy it for her.

So, he said lightly: "Mom, it depends on the situation at the time. How about your set can be used for more than half a year? When you are about to run out, let's talk about it again. "

Elaine Ma is also a human spirit, and immediately understood the meaning of Charlie Wade's words.

I definitely want to examine my performance before making a decision.

So she hurriedly laughed and said: "Good son-in-law, don't worry, in the future at home, Mom will definitely look at everything from your head. You let Mom go east and Mom never go west!"

After finishing speaking, he hurriedly asked: "Good son-in-law, my mother will stew the ribs for you at noon, and I will cook you a braised octopus later!"

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Mom, in the future, the food at home should be improved as a whole. Don't always make home-cooked dishes, but occasionally cook some delicacies from the sea and mountains. At first, she has to work so hard every day, so she has to make up for it. body."

After finishing speaking, before Elaine Ma could speak, he took out his mobile phone and said lightly: "I will transfer 30,000 Dollar to your WeChat. From now on, our family will pay 30,000 Dollar a month for food." As soon as Elaine Ma heard Charlie Wade say that she would give herself 30,000 Dollar a month for food, she immediately danced happily! How can it be possible for a family of four to eat for 30,000 Dollar? When the time comes, you can deduct a little, and you can get ten or twenty thousand Dollar in a month.

Unexpectedly, Charlie Wade said seriously at this time: "Mom, the 30,000 Dollar is for food. You can't deduct it secretly. You must spend 30,000 Dollar on improving the food at home every month. Of course, I will not treat you badly and give you 10,000 more each month as your hard work." When Elaine Ma heard this, she didn't feel angry at all, but was more comfortable.

If she arbitrarily deducts, I am afraid that Charlie Wade will find out that she will anger him, but if she does not deduct, she will not have any pocket money in his hand in the future, and the life will be boring. Now, Charlie Wade gave her 10,000 hard work for more than a month, which is not bad.

However, 10,000 Dollar is really not much, and I don't go out to make friends now. I wear masks and sunglasses every day, and go to the nearby supermarket to buy food. There is really nothing to spend. But in the future, if you wait until your legs are healed and your teeth are filled, you will definitely have to have normal social interactions and expenses.

Therefore, you can save 10,000 Dollar a month.

Thinking of this, Elaine Ma couldn't help but sighed, and thought to herself: "Ten thousand a month is really not too much, and the money is hard money. It seems that if I want to live a good life in the future, I still have to let Claire Wilson Wilson hurry up. Give Charlie Wade a few more children! Charlie Wade will give him hundreds of thousands of hard work a month and let him bring children to him. Wouldn't he send it out?"

Chapter 1477

Charlie Wade did what he said, and 40,000 Dollar was quickly transferred to Elaine Ma's WeChat.

The money given so readily also made Elaine Ma more firmly believe that what he, son-in-law, said to him was definitely not a joke!

If Claire Wilson Wilson really gave birth to a child, then Charlie Wade would definitely give the money readily.

Thinking of this, she decided: "No, I have to find a good opportunity to have a good chat with Claire Wilson Wilson in the evening. The eldest is not young, and I don't have to hurry to have children. What do I want? Second child, third child! If you really have to wait for the first child after the age of thirty, the second child will probably be suspended, let alone the third child or fourth child?"

"For myself, of course it is to have more daughters, the better, because then, the more I can earn."

In the afternoon, Elaine Ma consciously went to the supermarket to buy a bunch of high-end ingredients.

There are wild turtles, imported high-quality beef, and fresh hairy crabs.

A day's food costs 1,000 Dollar, Elaine Ma really dare not embezzle a penny.

She knew that she must perform well at this time to make Charlie Wade satisfied with her, and she must not lose her weight because of her smallness!

When Claire Wilson Wilson came back from get off work in the evening, he was stunned to see the table full of rich dishes.

She never dreamed that her mother would buy such expensive ingredients, and she did it with such care.

Even Jacob Wilson was shocked.

I thought: "What happened to Elaine Ma today? Did she take the wrong medicine?"

Elaine Ma greeted the family for dinner, and smiled and said, "I'm telling you that starting from today, the standard for our family of four is 1,000 Dollar per day. As for me, I will definitely do everything possible to let everyone Can eat better!"

Claire Wilson Wilson exclaimed: "Mom, one thousand a day? Thirty thousand a month! Who has such a high food standard? Besides, where did you get so much money?"

Elaine Ma immediately pointed to Charlie Wade and said with a smile: "Oh, of course it was given by my good son-in-law Charlie Wade! Charlie Wade said, you have to actively prepare for pregnancy now, this body must be repaired!"

When Claire Wilson Wilson heard this, he suddenly blushed, looked at Charlie Wade shyly, and scolded: "Charlie Wade, what are you talking nonsense to mom? When will I get pregnant..."

Charlie Wade quickly clarified the relationship: "My wife, I don't mean that. I mean, you're not busy with company affairs every day. Is it hard work? So I raised my food standard to replenish your body. You mean to get pregnant."

Elaine Ma waved his hand: "Hurt! It's time for you two to prepare for pregnancy. Of course, this kind of thing is as early as possible and not too late!"

Helpless, Claire Wilson Wilson said, "You don't have to worry about this."

Jacob Wilson on the side can't help but sigh: "Claire Wilson Wilson, although I don't agree with most of what your mother said, I still support what she said today. You are no longer young, and Charlie Wade is no longer young. A child."

Claire Wilson Wilson blushed as if he was about to bleed, and said, "Oh, you two should stop worrying about it. Now the company's affairs are very busy, and many projects are waiting in line for promotion. If this is the time for me I'm pregnant and have a baby, and I can't explain it to my partners, and the company has expanded a lot now. There are more than a dozen employees. I can't just say that I just throw it away, right?"

Charlie Wade also said: "Dad and Mom, Claire Wilson Wilson and I will plan this matter slowly, so you two don't have to worry about it."

Jacob Wilson nodded and said with emotion: "You two are focusing on your career for the time being. Of course this is good, but you can't be too absolute in everything. Pay attention to the combination of work and rest."

Chapter 1478

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly said: "I know Dad, you don't have to worry about it, eat quickly!"
