Charlie Wade nodded slightly before he said in a supremely majestic tone, "Luna, can you make sure that you remember and keep whatever I am going to say next in your mind for a lifetime until you die? You can never forget what I am going to say, okay?"

Luna had already been completely hypnotized by Charlie Wade, and Charlie Wade's hypnotism was assisted by spiritual energy. Hence, the intensity of his hypnosis far exceeded the psychological hint that the scumbag had been manipulating her with all this while. Luna hurriedly replied, "Yes, you can give me your orders. I will make sure that I go all out to fulfill it."

Charlie Wade then said word by word, "Remember that what you did is what most couples in the world would naturally do. That is your own choice, and it is your own decision to make. It is not filthy at all, and your life is very precious in this world. Your life does not only belong to you alone, but it also belongs to your parents and everyone who truly loves and cares for you. A person who truly loves and cares for you would never persuade you to give up your life or ask you to die for them. So, you must remember to cherish your life in the future and stay away from scumbags. Continue being filial to your parents and make sure that you contribute to society in the future. Do you understand me?"

Chapter 451

If the scumbag's psychological manipulation was a stream, then Charlie Wade's hypnosis was the entire ocean!

In an instant, Charlie Wade's hypnosis completely defeated the psychological manipulation that the scumbag had been giving Luna all this while.

Charlie Wade's words were like the beacon of her life, and it would never disappear from her heart in this lifetime.

Luna suddenly realized how stupid she had been all this time.

When she thought about how she had almost been bewitched by that scumbag to commit suicide, she was so frightened and thankful that she immediately knelt and kowtowed in front of Charlie Wade before saying, "Thank you for saving my life! I promise I will live well and never disappoint my parents. I will definitely contribute to society in the future!"

Charlie Wade nodded in satisfaction as he said, "Since you have already regained your senses, then I wish for you to have a happy and fulfilling life in the future."

As he continued chatting with her, Charlie Wade suddenly thought of the scumbag and he asked immediately, "Can you tell me about your boyfriend?"

Luna replied bitterly, "He is no longer my boyfriend from now on. That kind of person actually makes me feel sick!"

After that, she continued speaking respectfully to Charlie Wade, "That scumbag's name is Kian Webb. He is the most handsome guy in the whole of Aurous University of Finance and Economics. He is not local, but I heard that he comes from a very well-off family. I was deceived and manipulated by him in the past and I have always thought that he was perfect. I really did not expect him to be such a despicable villain!"

Charlie Wade nodded again before he said, "I heard that he caused a lot of girls to commit suicide because of him?"

Luna nodded repeatedly before she said, "I am just one of the many girls that he is toying around with. I do not know how many other girls he has..."

Charlie Wade sighed before he said, "Why don't we do this instead? Why don't you give him a call and tell him that there is a gift that you would like to give to him before dying. Ask him to come and meet you immediately."

Luna asked doubtfully, "What if he refuses to come and see me?"

Charlie Wade replied, "If he refuses to come, just tell him that you want to break up with him. Tell him that you do not want anything to do with him from now on. This kind of scumbag was intent on forcing you to commit suicide because of him. He regards a person committing suicide because of him as his greatest achievement. If he hears that you are going to break up with him, it will definitely be a huge blow to his self-esteem."

These kinds of scumbags took pleasure in controlling and manipulating women. However, it would be a huge pain and shock to them if the women eventually escaped their control.

They regarded this kind of thing as a battle, and there was only one victor in a battle. If the victor was not themselves, they would be deemed a loser.

Failure was beyond their tolerance!

At this exact moment, in a bar near the Aurous University of Finance and Economics, Kian was sitting across a beautiful girl. He smiled before saying, "Beauty, God is really unfair to me. I come to this bar alone every single day, but today is the first time that I am seeing you here. I feel as though I have lived the past twenty years for no reason at all!"

The girl smiled and blushed as she said, "You are very good at coaxing girls. I guess you must do this a lot?"

Kian shook his head repeatedly as he said solemnly, "I am actually a very shy person and I do not usually dare to talk to girls. However, you give me a very special feeling and I hesitated and struggled by myself for a long time before I finally decided to come over and talk to you."

As he spoke, Kian deliberately revealed the Vacheron Constantin watch on his wrist.

This watch was easily worth more than seven million dollars as it was an extremely rare limited edition watch.

However, this watch meant nothing to Kian at all. After all, he had many other expensive watches at home, and each of them was worth tens of millions of dollars.

The girl recognized the limited edition Vacheron Constantin at a single glance, and she was utterly surprised. However, she hurriedly pretended not to see it as she grinned and said, "Since we are fated to meet today, why don't we have a drink or two together?"

Kian smiled slightly before he said, "It would be my pleasure."

After that, he immediately called for the waiter. "Bring me two bottles of your best Aces of Spades champagne."

The Aces of Spades champagne sold for more than twenty thousand dollars a bottle in the bar, and it could be easily called the most expensive champagne in the bar.

Chapter 452

The girl dropped all her lines of defense completely when she saw how generous he was. Therefore, she was especially curious to find out more about Kian.

Just then, Kian's cell phone suddenly rang. He looked at the caller ID and found out that it was Luna who was calling him. He could not help but frown immediately.

Why wasn't this woman dead yet? How annoying!

The beautiful girl saw the strange expression on his face, and she asked curiously, "Is it a phone call from your girlfriend?"

"No, it's not!" Kian hurriedly explained. "My ex-girlfriend. She cheated on me, but I do not know why she wants to keep pestering me."

After that, Kian sighed as he said, "Beauty, please wait for me. I will be back as soon as I answer this phone call."

"Alright!"

Kian took his cell phone in his hand before he walked out of the bar. After answering the call, he started cursing as soon as he opened his mouth. "Why are you calling me? You are such a filthy woman! Haven't you brought me enough insult and humiliation?"

Luna had already turned on the speaker on her cell phone, and Charlie Wade felt very annoyed when he heard Kian's words.

This b*stard was really giving her all sorts of psychological manipulation all the time! He wanted Luna to feel that she was indeed dirty and filthy so that she would take her own life!

However, Kian would never expect that Luna had now actually already been completely freed from his psychological manipulations.

Luna obediently followed Charlie Wade's instructions and said, "Kian, I am already prepared to die for you. I know that you can only be free from humiliation if I am dead.."

Kian replied impatiently, "Then what are you waiting for? Why don't you go and die already instead of f*cking hurting and humiliating me even further?"

Charlie Wade typed out a string of words on his cell phone before handing it over to Luna.

Luna carefully read out the words typed on Charlie Wade's cell phone to Kian. "Then, can you come and meet me by the artificial lake at the campus? I have a gift for you before I leave.."

Kian replied angrily, "No! I do not want to see you ever again! You make me feel sick and nauseous! You make me question myself and wonder how I could possibly fall in love with such a dirty and filthy woman!"

Charlie Wade then typed another string of words for Luna on his cell phone.

Luna read the words immediately, "Since you refuse to come and see me, I want to break up with you. From now on, both of us will go our separate ways, and if we ever meet again on campus, I hope that you will pretend that you do not know me at all. Thank you!"

Kian was stunned.

What was happening?

Hadn't he been brainwashing Luna all this while?

How could she be so sober and awake?

How could she possibly be so calm as she asked him for a breakup?

D*mn it. This was a slap right in his own face! This meant that all of his previous efforts were all for nothing!

Hence, Kian hurriedly replied, "Luna, how could you be so cruel to try to hurt me like this? Are you really intending to leave me? Are you really planning to break my heart by breaking up with me?"

Luna looked at Charlie Wade's cell phone as she continued reading the lines typed out by Charlie Wade. "Don't you think that you are hurting me too? I am already prepared to die because of you. My only wish is to see you one last time before I die. I have also prepared a gift for you, so why can't you just come and see me now? Since you refuse to come and see me, I have no choice but to break up with you!"

As soon as Kian heard Luna's words, he blurted out immediately, "Don't! Don't! Don't break up with me! All that you want is to see me one last time, right? I will come and see you right now. You are by the artificial lake, right?"

Luna hummed before she said, "Yes!"

Chapter 453

Sensing that he might lose his control on Luna, Kian hurried back to school in a panic, ignoring the fact that there was a beautiful prey waiting for him in the bar.

Kian dashed toward the artificial lake as soon as he reached the campus and saw Luna. He strode to her and asked, "Luna, what gift do you want to give me?"

Charlie Wade appeared out of nowhere and said with a smile, "She has no gifts for you, but I do!"

"Who are you?" Kian looked at Charlie Wade in alertness and then back to Luna. "Who is he? Are you related to him?"

Charlie Wade said, "No, we're not related."

"Who are you, then?"

"I am the one who enforces justice on behalf of God!"

Then, Charlie Wade patted Luna on the back and said, "Luna, go to Aurora and your friends. Go back to your dorm and get changed, your job here is done."

Luna nodded and bowed gratefully. She had a hundred percent trust in Charlie Wade because of what had happened earlier. Then, she walked to Aurora and her friends who were standing close by.

Aurora and her friends embraced her and wept with joy, grateful that she had given up the attempt to commit suicide. Luna was equally grateful for her friends' genuine concern.

They embraced each other tightly and rushed back to the dorm.

Kian glanced from afar in confusion, feeling that Luna seemed very off and strange. Had she overcome his psychological manipulation?!

Outraged, he glared at Charlie Wade with an indignant frown and asked coldly, "Did you ask Luna to trick me into coming here? What do you want?"

Charlie Wade sneered. "What do I want? I want to ask you, did your parents give birth to you so that you could harm those girls? Do your parents know what kind of scumbag you are?"

Kian's face grew dark as he realized that he might be busted, so he cursed, "I can get women to easily fall in love with me, that's my talent. I can get a lot of women to fall in love with me, that's my power! Who are you to point your fingers at me? Who the f*ck do you think you are to mind my business? Do you know who I am? Believe it or not, I'll kill you in the blink of an eye!"

"Oh? Why? You have a powerful family background?"

Kian smirked arrogantly. "Huh! Have you heard of the Webb family of Sudbury? If you haven't, go and ask around, you imbecile. The Webb family is the top family in the South Region!"

"Oh." Charlie Wade smiled. "The top family in the South Region... awesome. Are all the men from that top family in the South Region of yours scumbags like you? Do you all go around and break innocent women's hearts like you do?"

"I love it, what are you gonna do about it? I love seeing those women being manipulated by me. I love the way they mutilate themselves for me. I even enjoy watching them commit suicide for me! Who are you to mind my business? Also, do you really think you can mind my business?"

"Oh, just because your family is very powerful, you think you can do whatever you want without worrying about the consequences, huh? By the way, how do I hear that the real powerful families are all in the north, especially Eastcliff? I think that's where all the powerful families are, aren't they? The rest of the families outside that area are nothing but lame people."

"Yes, although our Webb family is not comparable to the top big families in Eastcliff, we are among the top in the South Region. Even the Moore family in Aurouss Hill is not as powerful as us. So, I give you a minute to think, do you still want to make a scene with me? Can you handle the outcome?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said in an exaggerated tone, "Ah, the Webb family of Sudbury, huh? Wow, you're so powerful... I'm scared!"

"Get the hell out of here, then! Don't be such a busybody. It's just a phone call away for me to kill your whole family!"

Charlie Wade smiled. "Indeed, I'm scared, but I have a personal problem. The more afraid I am, the more I have to go for it!"

Then, Charlie Wade glared at him with a murderous vibe and uttered one word at a time, "Do you know who I am?"

"I don't care who the f*ck you are!" Kian gritted his teeth and growled, "Even if you are the king of heaven, if you mess with me, you have to pay the price!"

Chapter 454

Charlie Wade rounded his arm and slapped him, causing Kian to stagger and fall to the ground.

Kian had had an overly affectionate upbringing, and he had never even been poked before, moreover a slap. He got up and roared, "Motherf*cker! I'll kill you!"

"Kill me?" Charlie Wade asked in a cold voice. "Listen carefully, jerk. My name is Charlie Wade Wade! I'm the young master of Eastcliff's Wade family, the chairman of the Emgrand Group! Now, I'll give you a minute to think, do you think you can be so bossy and cocky in front of me?"

Kian was dumbstruck!

The Wade family in Eastcliff?!

That was the top family in the country!

Although the Webb family was slightly better than the Moore family, it was not even one-tenth of the Wade family!

He had doubted whether Charlie Wade was bluffing, but on second thought, Charlie Wade hadn't seemed nervous or scared when he had said his name, even daring to slap him. This meant that he must be full of confidence!

This also meant that he was probably telling the truth!

Kian suddenly became anxious.

He thought that he could go rampant in Aurouss Hillll and even the whole South Region, but he didn't expect that the young master of Eastcliff's Wade family would appear in Aurouss Hillll, moreover, he was standing here, facing him!

After all, he was a high-achieving student and a young master from a noble family who attended aristocratic and upper-class cultural rites classes. His IQ, EQ, and the way he handled conflicts were by no means comparable to Harold and his clans.

He instantly realized that he might be in big trouble that could drag his whole family down the drain with him, thus, he knelt on the ground swiftly and pleaded, "Mr. Wade, I'm sorry for not recognizing you. I'm sorry for offending you, please forgive me!"

Charlie Wade was utterly surprised by his sudden change of attitude.

Indeed, this guy was very smart and quick!

No wonder he could manipulate and hurt those girls with his psychological tactics. This kind of person was so clever and slick, it was impossible to beat him with intelligence, which in the end, they could only be at his mercy.

However, Charlie Wade was not merciful to him. He sneered. "Wow, I'm impressed. You really know when to yield and when not to. But do you honestly think that I'll let you go so easily simply because you kneel and apologize?!"

Kian stammered, his voice shaking, "Mr. Wade, I'm sorry, I truly am! I promise you, I will never do it again! I'll even pay one hundred million dollars to Luna as compensation! Please, please forgive me!"

"Oh no, you don't. You don't understand how I do things. Now that you're in my hands, money is no longer the solution!"

"Mr. Wade, how would you like to settle this?!"

"Hmm, I'd like to give you a dose of your own medicine!"

Kian frowned in confusion, dumbfounded.

What did Charlie Wade mean? Did he want to psychologically manipulate him?

How was that possible?

Kian's major was psychology. He was very good at psychological manipulation, so, how could Charlie Wade brainwash him?

Charlie Wade smirked at Kian's look of surprise and said, "You love to manipulate those girls with your psychological shenanigans, don't you? I'm going to do the same thing to you. I want you to eat shit every hour, and you can't stop until you're full!"

Chapter 455

Kian stared at Charlie Wade dumbfounded as if Charlie Wade was telling him the most bizarre thing ever.

Charlie Wade smiled wickedly and continued, "Also, after the hypnosis, whoever stops you from eating shit, you'll do anything, even kill yourself, until you eat shit. If you see shit on the road, you must eat it, otherwise, you'll feel as though you'll die if you don't. You'll try to kill yourself when anyone tries to stop you. This will go on and on for the rest of your life!"

"Hence, that is what your future holds. You will not pursue anything other than eating shit. You will have no interest in money, pleasure, or women. All you would want to do for the rest of your life is to eat shit!"

Kian was a little agitated by Charlie Wade's remark and said, "Hey, Mr. Wade, do you think I'm stupid? Do you really think I'll fall for that stupid trick? This is not how you do psychological manipulation! You are no professional!"

Charlie Wade laughed out loud. "I'm not a professional, you say? Haha! I'm an expert! Try and see if you don't believe me!"

Then, Charlie Wade stretched out his hand and tapped Kian's forehead..

Kian felt as though his body had been fixated by something invisible. After a few seconds of respite, he opened his eyes wide and murmured anxiously, "Where is shit? Where is shit? I want to eat it now! I'm going to die! Argh! Where is shit?!"

He even forgot about Charlie Wade's existence. He turned around and ran toward the dormitory in a hurry, because there was a voice in his brain telling him that there were toilets in the dormitory building, and he would have all the shit he could eat..

The most bizarre and shocking incident then broke out in the dormitory building of Aurous University of Finance and Economics!

Kian Webb, the popular guy in the university who came from a super-rich family, barged into the toilet and kicked a male student who was sitting on the toilet, taking a dump.

Listening to the first half of the story, it sounded like a story of a rich guy bullying other students, but the second half of the story was absolutely disgusting.

After kicking the student away, Kian reached into the toilet bowl and scooped the stool that the student had just defecated and stuffed it into his mouth..

The scene of him devouring the shit caused the other students who had witnessed it to vomit. They didn't know what was wrong with him, so they quickly called the warden.

When the warden came, Kian had just filled his belly with the shit, and he didn't even wipe his mouth. The warden vomited upon seeing the scene as well.

Despite the disgust, the warden didn't dare to take it lightly as he knew that Kian came from a powerful family. He stared at him and asked, suppressing the disgust building inside him, "Mr. Webb, what's going on? Why are you doing this?"

At this moment, Kian had just regained his composure. He felt an extremely disgusting taste in his mouth, so he wiped it and put it under his nose and almost fainted from the irritating smell.

He had completely forgotten that he had seen Charlie Wade and what he had done just now. He didn't understand why he had a mouth full of shit!

He rushed to the sink to rinse his mouth and retched. The warden followed him and asked, "Mr. Webb, are you not feeling well?"

Kian shook his head, his face as pale as a sheet of paper. "What's going on? Did someone trick me?!"

A male student came forward and said, "Boss, just now, you came back from outside, kicked Sami off the toilet, and ate his..."

He couldn't go on at this point. He felt as though he was going to vomit again and tried to control it. He slowly said, "Maybe we should go to the hospital to check you out..."

"What the f*ck did you just say?" Kian shouted angrily, "You said that I ate Sami's..."

All the male students nodded profusely.

Kian vomited again and growled, "Hurry! Take me to the hospital!"

The warden started his car and drove Kian to the Silverwing Hospital. Several male students who were close to Kian followed as well.

As soon as they arrived at the hospital and saw the emergency doctor, Kian shouted, "Doctor, quick! Clean my guts! I ate shit!"

The doctor was stunned. It was the first time he had seen such a "patient" after more than a decade of experience in medicine.

He reflexively asked, "Why did you eat shit?"

Chapter 456

Kian grabbed the doctor's collar furiously. "If I f*cking knew why, would I still come to you?! Clean my stomach now!"

The doctor was annoyed by Kian's attitude, but as a professional doctor, he spruced up and ordered his nurse, "Prepare gastric lavage tools now!"

The nurses nodded hurriedly and began to prepare for the procedure.

Just then, Kian felt an intense headache like a surge of electricity flowing through his brain. Then, he lost all senses and all he could think of was—he wanted to eat shit right now!

He blurted reflexively, "Where is the toilet? Where is the toilet?!"

The doctor pointed to the right and said, "Turn right and go to the end."

Kian rushed out of the ward and ran toward the toilet.

The warden and his friends quickly followed him.

When Kian rushed into the toilet, he pushed open the first stall. Instead of using it, he looked into the toilet bowl and found that it was empty. Then, he immediately went to the next stall.

The crowd was horrified by his actions. Did he... did he want to eat it again?!

When Kian opened the second stall, an old man was sitting inside. Just as he was about to jump at him, everyone pulled him desperately and yelled, "No, Kian, no!"

Kian shrieked frantically, "Let go of me! Let me go! I want to eat it! I want to eat it!"

His friends were utterly shocked! What was wrong with him?! Why did he suddenly become such a lunatic? Why did he suddenly want to eat shit so badly?

The warden yelled, "Quick, get him out of here!"

Thus, his friends muscled up and dragged him out of the toilet.

Kian wailed like a child as soon as they exited the toilet. "Let me go! I want to eat shit! Let me go! I'll die if I don't eat it now! Please, let go of me!"

Suddenly, the entire emergency department of the hospital became lively and chaotic.

They had seen patients with various diseases, but they had never seen a person who wanted to eat shit so desperately!

He was such a young and charming man at that. What on earth had happened to him?

The doctor felt rather awkward upon the unfolding of the event and said, "He wanted to clean his stomach, but why does he suddenly want to eat that thing now... I wonder if there's something wrong with his senses. Sorry, our hands are tied here. I think it's best if you could bring him to the Castle Peak Psychiatric Hospital."

The warden pondered the suggestion. Indeed, it didn't seem like Kian suffered from some kind of physical disease, so it must be his psychological condition then. The warden made up his mind and urged, "Guys, let's go to the Castle Peak Hospital!"

Kian was on the verge of insanity at this very moment!

All he could think of right now was to eat shit, and he was ready to harm himself if he couldn't. He slapped himself on the face repeatedly, knelt on the floor, and banged the floor with his head. His friends tried to grab him, but he struggled violently and shouted, "Let go of me, f*ck!!! If you don't let me eat shit, I'll kill myself right here!"

Then, he started struggling even more violently.

Due to his explosive power, his friends couldn't hold him down and released him. He barged into the toilet desperately.

His friends tried to catch up with him, but he was too fast. When they rushed to the toilet, he had already pulled the old man out from the stall, buried his head into the toilet bowl, and started stuffing his mouth..

They tried to drag him away from the stall, but they couldn't stop him..

The old man was so frightened by the bizarre scene that he trembled on the floor with his pants still on his knees.

The onlookers were equally stunned by the sight, and some nosy people took out their phones and started recording the scene, posting it on Twitter.

"Holy cow! Look! There's a crazy dude here at the Silverwing Hospital who eats shit..."

Chapter 457

Kian's warden and his friends almost went crazy because of him. They dragged him back to the doctor's room, suppressing their urge to vomit.

The old man who was thrown to the floor by Kian whimpered innocently, "Don't let him out if there's something wrong with his head! What the hell! Why is he even grabbing shit to eat!"

The school warden took out his wallet, looking embarrassed as ever, and handed the old man a hundred dollar bill. "Here, sir. This is the compensation for the incident, please forgive us..."

The old man beamed in delight when he saw the money, and all the frustration and irritation flew out of the window. He accepted the money gracefully and asked, "So, do you need my service next time?"

The warden retched in disgust and said, "No, sir, there's no next time. Please proceed if you haven't finished your business..."

Then, he urged the students, "Hurry, get Kian to the doctor now!"

When the doctor saw Kian, he vomited all his dinner and blurted, "Oh, please, take him to the mental hospital now! We can't do anything about it!"

The warden said, "Well, can you at least wash his stomach contents, please? It's so dirty and disgusting..."

The doctor twisted his face into a painful grimace. "I would love to, but what if he wants to eat it again? I have to put in the tube slowly and carefully into his stomach to clean it, but it's pointless if he wants to eat it again soon!"

The warden turned to his friends and asked, "Is this his second time?"

"Yes." They nodded quickly. "It's almost an hour's gap!"

The warden nodded. "Hmm... then, he might want to eat it again in another hour..."

He hesitated for a moment and said, "Wipe him clean, get him into the car, and let's go to the Castle Peak Hospital. We're finished if we delay it again!"

The boys wiped Kian's mouth in irritation and dragged the confused Kian toward the car.

As soon as they got into the car, Kian regained his composure and felt the peculiar taste in his mouth again. He asked, "What did I do again this time?"

His friend sitting beside him asked in shock, "Don't you remember anything?"

Kian shook his head, puzzled. "No, I don't remember much. I just remember that I had a headache and my brain was buzzing."

Then, he put his hand to his mouth, huffed a breath, and almost fainted from the awful smell. He cried desperately, "What the hell?! Did I eat it again?!"

Sami, who was sitting in the front passenger seat, turned around and said, "Boss, we tried to stop you just now, but you were too strong. You barged into the toilet and dragged an old man..."

A guy sitting next to Kian shouted, "Hey, stop it!"

"Oh..." Sami realized how disgusting the incident sounded, so he shut his mouth.

Kian hurriedly asked, "What's going on?! Tell me!"

"Um..." Everyone exchanged nervous glances. No one wanted to describe the horrible scene, and they felt disgusted even by thinking about it.

Kian shouted with a gloomy face, "D*mn it! Tell me!"

The awful smell exhumed the car in an instant when he roared!

Chapter 458

The warden who was behind the wheel and his three friends were a little dizzy from the dreadful smell. The warden quickly wound down all the windows to let the wind blow the awful smell away.

Kian blew a gasket. He turned to the man on his right and snarled, "You, Jack, tell me what happened or I'll break you! Pay me back the two grand that I lent you the other day!"

Jack shrieked in shock and stuttered, "Okay, boss, I'll tell you everything! Just now, you went crazy again and wanted to eat that thing. We tried to stop you, but you were too strong. After breaking away from us, you ran to the hospital's toilet, broke into a stall, dragged an old man out of the stall, and..."

The more Kian listened, the more gloomy his face became. He stuttered, "Did... did I eat it?"

Jack nodded cautiously. "Ye... yes..."

"Bleargh..."

Kian vomited. The thing that he had eaten twice in a row was now all over the car's cushions...

In an instant, the car was so smelly, it was as though it had fallen into the septic tank. Opening the car windows to let the air in didn't work anymore...

The other four people in the car were completely devastated, especially the warden! He had just bought the car for two hundred thousand two weeks ago. His car was now considered spoiled after the vomit.

However, he didn't dare to scold Kian because of the latter's family background. The college president had ordered him to look after Kian and not to irritate him in any way...

While this was happening, the video of Kian eating shit had spread on the internet like wildfire! It went viral the moment it was uploaded and became the most shared video!

The Webb family in Sudbury were extremely shocked when they saw the video, and they started to get antsy and nervous because of it.

The Webb family was one of the largest families in the South Region, and they emphasized on their younger generation's honorable reputation very much. Now that Kian had done something so horrible, they immediately suspected that there must be something wrong, so they quickly arranged a trip to see him and find out.

Meanwhile, they also tried to contact the social media platforms and urged them to delete the video. It was such an embarrassment to the family, how could they bear for such a thing to affect them?

However, it was getting out of their hands. The video was shared so fast, and it spread to different platforms such as Facebook, Instagram, and YouTube. Very soon, it became the most searched and watched video on the internet, and almost everyone knew about it by now.

The head of the Webb family was extremely furious. Donald Webb, Kian's father, immediately called Kian and chided, "Kian, what's wrong with you?! Did you lose your senses?! Do you know your video is very popular on the Internet right now?! You are an embarrassment to our family!"

Kian wanted to just jump out of the car and kill himself as soon as he heard about the video. He wailed desperately, "Dad! It's not my fault! I don't why, but my brain will go haywire every hour, making me want to eat that thing. I was completely unconscious when it happened! It's beyond my control! My friends said that I will inflict self-harm and attempt suicide if I don't eat it... Dad, help me! Please!"

Donald paused for a while and said firmly, "Son, wait for me! I'll fly over with your brother and doctors now!"

Then, without even pausing to pack any luggage, he urged Sean, Kian's brother, along with the entire Webb family's physician team, and hopped on their private jet, flying from Sudbury to Aurouss Hilll.

The Webb family was even more powerful and wealthy than the Moore family by a large margin. The family was equipped with all aspects of supporting facilities such as private jets and yachts. They also had a private medical team and security team.

The Webb family's physician team was composed of six top medical experts in various fields, including one of the best psychiatric experts in the country.

However, they didn't know that even the best psychiatric specialists in the world could not cure Kian!

Chapter 459

Meanwhile, Charlie Wade was at the main gate of Aurous University of Finance and Economics with Aurora clinging his arm affectionately.

"Master Wade, you're amazing! We have been persuading Luna for months and it didn't work, but just a few words from you, she changed her mind!"

Charlie Wade said flatly, "Maybe when she jumped into the lake, she realized how precious life is and she was suddenly grateful to be alive. People will only see some of their own problems when they are in desperation."

Aurora nodded and said gratefully, "Master Wade, thank you so, so much! If it weren't for you, Luna might be dead already..."

"Don't worry. Your friend will be very positive and optimistic from now on."

Then, Charlie Wade reminded her, "You'd better be careful too. When looking for a boyfriend in the future, don't be fooled by such a scumbag!"

Aurora giggled timidly. "I won't! I'm very smart, okay..."

Then, she glanced at Charlie Wade with her large, sparkly eyes full of admiration, and said in a low voice, "Actually, I've thought about it. When I look for a boyfriend in the future, I want to find someone like Master Wade..."

Charlie Wade chuckled. "Why? Does your family want you to find a live-in son-in-law too?"

Aurora blushed. "It doesn't matter if he wants to live-in or not if he is someone like Master Wade..."

Charlie Wade nodded and said with a smile, "Forget it, you're still young. Study hard, you can always find the love of your life after graduation."

Aurora pouted. "I don't mind if I can find true love now, I'll be with him right away. After all, true love is the greatest!"

"True that," Charlie Wade replied sincerely. "If you really meet your Mr. Right, better grab him fast."

Without further ado, Charlie Wade said, "Alright then, go ahead. I'm leaving now."

"Master Wade, are you leaving already? Would you like to have a cup of coffee together?"

Charlie Wade waved his hand. "No, I can't sleep at night after drinking."

Just then, Aurora received a message. She reflexively opened it and was stunned by the sight. "Oh my god, that's so disgusting!"

Charlie Wade asked curiously, "What is it?"

Aurora retched for a while. She then passed the phone to Charlie Wade and said while coughing violently, "It's a video on Twitter... Kian was eating shit out of the hospital toilet... Wow, that is so disgusting! Who would eat that kind of thing! He's sick!"

Charlie Wade glanced briefly at the video. Indeed, it was awful, but it felt d*mn good looking at it.

Didn't this f*cking kids love to psychologically manipulate girls? Let him taste a dose of his own medicine and feel the thrill the psychological manipulation brought him.

Charlie Wade could already foresee Kian's future.

He had to eat shit once an hour, otherwise, he would fall into the extremes of self-harm and suicide.

It would be pointless to bind him. If they didn't feed him shit, he would try to bite his tongue, go on a hunger strike, and even keep yelling and shouting like a lunatic.

Thus, the best way to keep him alive was to satisfy his need to eat shit every hour. Otherwise, he would not survive within a month from mental suffering and torture.

Fortunately, the Webb family was rich and powerful. With their diversified business and the large family tree, they probably wouldn't mind taking care of Kian..

It's just that Kian would be quite miserable for the rest of his life as he would have to eat shit every hour. Charlie Wade wondered just how long he would be able to stand it!

After Charlie Wade had returned home, Kian was sent to the Castle Peak Psychiatric Hospital.

It was the only psychiatric hospital in Aurouss Hilll, but it was located in a remote location.

Chapter 460

The journey to the hospital was about 15 miles. The smell in the car was comparable to a septic tank, a living hell to the people in the car.

When they arrived at the hospital, they helped Kian out of the car and slowly walked toward the hospital. Suddenly, the weird feeling slowly crippled Kian's mind again..

First, he felt dizzy and had a headache, then, he looked at the people around him in despair and cried, "D*mn it... guys, the feeling is here again... If I lose my mind again, remember, you guys must hold me down!"

Shocked, they nodded reflexively, but inside, they were thinking, 'We definitely will try to hold you back as much as we can, but whether we can hold you back or not, that's a completely different story..'

Then, as if Kian had suddenly morphed into his hysterical disguise, he shouted anxiously, "Where is the toilet?! Where is the toilet?!"

Everyone exchanged nervous glances, and they saw the desperation in each other's eyes..

D*mn it, he had started again!

What were they to do?!

The warden shouted, "Hold him down! Don't ever let him go!"

Hence, the three boys tugged his waist, pressed him down on the floor, and held his limbs tightly, trying to restrain his struggle. The warden shouted, "Wait here, I'll call the doctors to help! Hold on, guys!"

The three boys pressed on Kian with great effort, but Kian was struggling violently like a feral dog being apprehended. One of the boys shouted, "Oh d*mn, guys, I don't think I can hold him any longer, what should I do!"

"Just press him down, don't let go!" the other boy said, "I'll remove my belt, let's tie up his legs!"

"Okay, good idea!"

At this moment, Kian was pressed to the floor by his friends. His eyes as red as beetroot, he blurted out loudly, "Let me go! D*mn it, you guys, let me go!"

The people passing by the psychiatric hospital were very used to such a scene, and they didn't even bother to take a second look. After all, it was common to find a couple of patients who went berserk as he did.

Just then, a retired old man who lived in the family quarters behind the hospital approached the hospital entrance with an enormous husky on his leash. The husky sniffed its surroundings, circled at a spot, and squatted down.

Sami saw the scene and shouted at the old man, "Get your dog away from here, d*mn it! Don't let it poop here!"

The old man glared at him in dismay. "Mind your own business, young man!"

Sami yelled in frustration, "Gah! Old coot, just get your f*cking dog away from here! Otherwise, something horrible will happen!"

The old man snorted, "I have had this dog for six years. Even if it wants to poop on my bed, I'll let it do so comfortably and then just clean up after it. I don't want to make its life miserable. Who do you think you are to mess with me?"

"You..." Sami was speechless.

At this moment, the husky tensed its belly, shuddered a little, and defecated. A huge pile of dog poop dropped to the floor.

Kian went crazy when he saw this scene! It was as if he had been given a stimulant, and in an instant, his strength skyrocketed. He jumped up fiercely, knocking the three guys on his body away!

The three guys fell on their backs. Before they had time to cry out, Jack shouted in despair, "F*ck, stop him!"

They pursued Kian as though he was a treasure. However, Kian was faster!

He skidded to the pile of shit on the floor behind the husky, opened his mouth, and instantly devoured it like a vicious dog rushing for food!

The old man was extremely shocked by this unbelievable scene. He jumped away in bewilderment and stuttered, "You... you... just how long have you been starving?!"

Chapter 461

Kian had completely lost his mind.

The psychological hint that Charlie Wade had imprinted in his mind was enormously strong, and the same phrase kept replaying in his mind, "Fill your belly! Fill your belly!"

The three guys were in great despair. They jumped on him and desperately wanted to pull him away, but he lay on the floor like a mad dog, cursing and eating.

The warden finally arrived with a few doctors. Even the doctors who were used to seeing mental patients were frightened by this bizarre scene.

They had seen all kinds of mental illnesses, but this, this was entirely new...

This was so ferocious!

The doctors hurried forward, dragged Kian from the pile of shit, tied him to a special bed with fixed belts, and pushed him into the hospital.

Meanwhile, all the students at the Aurous University of Finance and Economics were spreading and sharing Kian's horrific video.

Many people would vomit on the spot after watching the video, but they suppressed their nausea just to watch the video over and over again.

They cheered ecstatically as they watched Kian's miserable encounter. For them, this was his retribution for all the terrible things he had done to the girls. Everyone knew that Kian was insane and that he loved to psychologically manipulate girls, forcing them to self-mutilate or even commit suicide to satisfy his distorted needs.

Many people with a sense of justice hated him to the core, but he had been untouchable due to his powerful family background, and so, he had never paid any price for his atrocious actions.

In the end, Kian Webb, who liked to use his psychological manipulation in a bad way, had turned into a shocking mental patient himself! Not only was it ironic, but it also relieved the resentment and tension people had on him! It was such a delightful karma!

In the meantime, the Webb family's private jet had just landed at Aurous Airport.

Aurouss Hilll was not very far away from Sudbury, and it only took about one and a half hours by the high-speed rail, hence, there were no direct flights between the two cities. However, it only took the Webb family half an hour to fly over with their private jet.

A few Rolls Royces were waiting for them at the hangar. Donald, Sean, and the team of doctors quickly disembarked the plane and got into the cars, heading straight to the Castle Peak Hospital.

The hospital was not far from the airport, so they arrived at the hospital quickly.

When they rushed into the hospital, Kian was tied to the bed with a towel stuffed into his mouth, struggling violently. The doctor had had to stuff his mouth with something because he would try to bite his tongue if he couldn't get away.

Right then, Kian was like a dog with rabies, he had gone completely mad.

Donald was heartbroken when he lay eyes on his son. He charged forward and said, "Kian, I'm here!"

Kian couldn't recognize his own father, and all he could think of right now was to fill his stomach...

He was trying to pull away from the restraints, hence, there were bloody bruises on his ankles and wrists that were bound with belts.

Donald was extremely frustrated. He looked at the psychiatric expert that had come with him and demanded, "Hurry, see what is wrong with him!"

The doctor nodded and said, "Let me give him a sedative first!"

Then, he immediately took out the syringe and sedative from his bag and gave Kian a shot without hesitation.

Surprisingly, the sedative didn't seem to have any effect on Kian. He was still struggling desperately, whimpering as if he was trying to say something but couldn't due to the towel in his mouth.

Donald hurriedly asked when he saw the lack of effect, "What's going on?!"

The doctor was equally clueless. "Mr. Webb, the dosage I gave him was supposed to be able to sedate a cow, but I don't know why it is completely useless on your son..."

Chapter 462

Donald blurted out in dismay, "Of course I know the sedative doesn't work, I can see it with my own eyes! I'm asking you, what should we do now?"

The doctor paused for a while and suggested, "I'll increase the dosage a little bit more. We have to get him to calm down first no matter what."

Donald nodded and urged him, "What are you waiting for?! Go ahead!"

"Mr. Webb, excessive use of sedatives can cause damage to the body, so..."

"He is already damaging his own body! The most important thing right now is to calm him down as soon as possible!"

"Okay!" The doctor nodded. He quickly prepared a larger dosage and injected it into Kian's body, but it didn't seem to work either.

"That's so weird..." The doctor stuttered, "The effect of this sedative is very strong! It is used on savage elephants, but he is still so irritable. This is so strange..."

Suddenly, the cardiologist said, "Oh no, his body is shaking! I think his heart rate must be very high!"

He retrieved a portable ECG monitor, connected the probes to Kian's body, and made a quick test. He was shocked to find that Kian's heart rate was as high as 180 beats per minute!

"This... this is the heart rate index after vigorous anaerobic exercise... If he keeps on like this, I'm afraid his heart can't take it much longer!"

Donald asked frantically, "What will happen then?"

The cardiologist explained, "He will have heart failure, palpitations, or myocardial infarction, which means a heart attack, and it can be life-threatening!"

"Then, what should we do?!"

"The best way is to calm him down as soon as possible! Otherwise, his heart won't be able to take it for much longer..."

The psychiatrist said, "But don't you see? He can't calm down, not even after two extreme doses of sedative..."

Kian was still struggling desperately, his heartbeat getting faster and faster!

The cardiologist shrieked in panic, "Oh, no! If he keeps on like this, it will be fatal!"

Donald turned to Kian's friends who were in shock and asked, "What the hell happened to him? Is there any way to calm him down?"

The three guys exchanged nervous glances. One of them started, "Hello, uncle. After Kian went back to the dorm, he began to eat shit. No one can stop him when he wants to eat shit, and he'll regain consciousness only after he finishes eating... The same happened for the second and third time..."

Donald's face became gloomy and cold. "So, you're saying that he can only calm down after eating that thing, am I right?"

"Yes..." The guys nodded.

Sean asked, "Dad, do you think there's someone who wants revenge on Kian? In the past two years in college, he did hurt some girls from poor families, and I heard that two of them had died."

Donald said with an emotionless expression, "You said it yourself, those are girls from poor families. Whether they are alive or dead, they are not able to do anything against us. I smell a rat in this matter."

The cardiologist shouted, "Mr. Webb, your son's heart rate has now exceeded 220! If it goes on like this, he's not going to make it!"

Donald ground his teeth in dismay and finally blurted, "Let him eat it!"

Sean gasped in shock. "But, Dad! You can't let him go to the toilet to eat that thing! That... that's so disgusting!"

"What else can we do?! There's no other way! Keeping him alive is the most important thing right now! Let him eat it first! We'll think of a way after he is stabilized."

Chapter 463

Tonight was destined to be extraordinary and lively.

On one side, Kian had everyone's jaws dropping with his abnormal behavior. On the other side of the city, Kenneth was with Jeffrey, and they hurriedly returned to the Weaver family house with three stalks of century-old purple ginseng.

Kenneth was disappointed that he had failed to win the three-hundred-year-old purple ginseng at the auction. He huffed that the century-old purple ginseng was not as good as the three-hundred-year-old ginseng, but thanks to Charlie Wade, he didn't have to spend 90 million on that...

Kenneth bought the three ginsengs from Jeffrey's friend for 3 million dollars, whereas Charlie Wade had spent 100 million on the three-hundred-year-old purple ginseng.

He felt a lot more at ease when he thought about all the money he saved. At this moment, all he hoped for was that the Weaver family's improved prescription would cure his penile dysfunction.

Because of the importance of this medicine to the Weaver family, the entire family members were present including Jordan Weaver, the head of the Weaver family. He came to the huge living room to supervise the process, limping weakly.

Jordan was sixty-something years old. He wore a suit, his hair was all grey, his face was wrinkled, he was swaying and limping as he walked, and he couldn't even stand up straight. This was the result of hypersexuality when he was young, and it had taken its toll on his body.

Professor Cruz, the chief pharmacist of the Weaver family, was instructing his assistants to set up the equipment in the living room. A micro-reactor, an extractor, and a centrifuge were placed for the preparation of the new prescription.

Although they couldn't get their hands on the three-hundred-year-old purple ginseng, Professor Cruz decided to try his refining with the century-old ginseng.

If this medicine had to use the three-hundred-year-old purple ginseng as its ingredient, it would be difficult to mass-produce the medicine as the ingredient was too expensive and too rare to come by.

However, if he could prove that century-old ginseng or perhaps the lower grade ginseng could be used in refining this medicine, the production capacity could be greatly enhanced, and the cost could be greatly reduced.

Everyone in the Weaver family was very excited.

If the medicine could be produced smoothly and had the expected curative effect, it would surpass the performance of Viagra. In fact, the Weaver family might even become a world-class pharmaceutical company with this medicine!

Viagra, a chemical compound called sildenafil, had a very good effect on the treatment of erectile dysfunction. Pfizer, the well-known pharmaceutical company, received the patent of sildenafil and had increased its market value by tens of billions of dollars because of the drug!

Most importantly, the Weaver family's prescription would not only improve sexual functionality, but it could also regulate and improve their physical function. The effect would be better than that of Viagra!

They would make a hell of a profit once they launched the drug globally!

On the other hand, Kenneth couldn't care less about the profit margin and whatnot. All he could think of now was that if the drug could cure him, he had to get a few beautiful ladies and have fun with them for three days and three nights!

He had almost died of frustration and agitation over the past few weeks.

He eyed Professor Cruz nervously as the man worked in full concentration. Professor Cruz first weighed and distinguished the precious medicinal materials one by one, putting them into the centrifuge accordingly.

Professor Cruz was a renowned expert in integrated traditional Chinese and Western medicine in the country. In his opinion, the traditional method of boiling and brewing in Chinese medicine would waste the ingredients in a significant amount and decrease the ingredients' purity. Hence, with the preparation of reactors, centrifuges, and other equipment in Western medicine, the effective ingredients in the material could be well-preserved and purified.

Jordan could see that Kenneth was nervous, thus, he smiled and said, "Mr. Wilson, this is a newly improved formula based on the top-secret prescriptions of our Weaver family. Under Professor Cruz's scrutinized calculations and speculations, he has eliminated all the toxic side effects of the ingredients, it will be a genuine magical elixir. I can assure you, after taking the medicine, it will cure your disorder in no time!"

Kenneth grinned in excitement. "Yes, that's awesome! I hope the drug will not disappoint me."

Jordan patted his chest and said, "Don't worry, Mr. Wilson. I'm sure the medicine can cure you. I was alive and kicking with this magical drug even before the improved formula, so, I bet you can even enjoy your time with ten girls a night!"

Chapter 464

Kenneth was a little moved by the scene Jordan portrayed. "Is it that magical?"

Jordan replied earnestly, "Of course. Mr. Wilson, the magical medicine of our Weaver family is three to four times as effective as Viagra, and the improved formula is even up to ten times more effective!"

Kenneth was extremely thrilled by the possible miraculous effect of the medicine. It seemed that his disorder would be completely cured in no time!

Jeffrey asked curiously, "Dad, if we mass-produce the medicine, we can sell it globally and even suppress the sales of Viagra, can't we?"

Jordan waved his hand confidently and said, "Of course! Once the mass-production is up and running, men all over the world will be using my magic drug instead of the so-called Viagra. There will only be one male magic drug on the market, and that is my magic drug!"

Then, Jordan turned to Kenneth and said, "Mr. Wilson, I wonder if you are interested in investing in our pharmaceutical company. You only need to invest two or three billion, and you can get tens of billions of return within a year!"

Kenneth's heart leaped as he listened to the remark. He was a businessman after all, and the most important thing was profit.

If their magical elixir was truly as powerful as they described, it would certainly make a lot of money.

Kenneth smiled and said, "If the drug is indeed as effective as you claim, I can easily invest one billion dollars into your company, but I have to see the effect of the drug first."

That was all Jordan was for from Kenneth's mouth. He laughed and said, "Mr. Wilson, we'll let you try the first pill that is produced. If you are satisfied with the result, we can talk about the investment later!"

However, Jordan didn't know that Kenneth's disorder could not be cured by any drugs at all.

Moreover, although the formula of the so-called 'magical elixir' had been improved, the effectiveness and the harmful side effects that the drug might bring were still unknown..

However, Kenneth couldn't care less about any of that. He didn't care about the consequences the drug might bring if it failed, all he could think of was reviving his manhood.

He felt a little dry and thirsty from anxiety and wished he could take the magical drug right away.

Finally, Professor Cruz had completed refining the magical medicine.

Under the centrifuge process, all the medicinal ingredients were separated, and finally, it was purified into a bowl of deep purple medicinal soup.

"Mr. Weaver, the new medicine has been produced!"

Professor Cruz took the medicinal soup and carefully placed it in front of everyone.

In an instant, a faint medicinal aroma dispersed into the air, making the surrounding people feel feverish and thirsty.

It seemed that the medicine was certainly as powerful as they claimed it would be!

Jordan smiled at Kenneth and said, "Mr. Wilson, please."

Kenneth couldn't wait any longer. He stared at the bowl of medicine with fiery eyes, his throat dry and itchy.

He had had enough of the sexless life over the past few days. The physical and mental torture had driven Kenneth mad!

Thankfully, God had mercy on him and let him get a taste of the Weaver family's magical elixir!

It seemed that today would be his lucky day! He could finally regain his manhood today!

Chapter 465

Kenneth held the bowl of dark purple medicinal soup as if he was holding a fragile treasure, bringing the bowl to his mouth and finally drinking it!

Everyone, especially Wendy, was watching him intensely.

Frankly, Wendy hoped to be with Kenneth more than Jeffrey. Modestway Group, Kenneth's company, was larger in scale, and Kenneth was more generous toward her. She had received five million dollars of pocket money from him before.

On the other hand, she didn't get any benefits from the stingy Jeffrey.

If Kenneth regained his manhood, maybe he would ask her back from Jeffrey!

The Weaver family members were watching Kenneth closely as well.

Kenneth could be regarded as the first real clinical trial of this new drug.

They were eager to see the effectiveness of the drug. If it worked wonderfully, they would be rich!

After drinking the medicine, Kenneth felt a strong heat flow between his kidneys, and it was getting hotter and hotter!

He felt as though there was a dragon slowly awakening in his body, and he was ecstatic and thrilled by it! He shouted gleefully, "Amazing! This is indeed a magical elixir! I'm feeling feverish and hot now, it is a great sign of recovery."

Jeffrey quickly said, "Mr. Wilson, congratulations on regaining your manhood!"

Jordan stood up and laughed loudly. "Thank God for looking after the Weaver family! From now on, we will become the world's top pharmaceutical company and stand on top of the world!"

Then, he turned to Professor Cruz and said, "Cruz, thank you for your hard work! Once the drug is launched, I will give you a villa and a 50 million cash reward!"

Professor Cruz bowed and said, "Thank you, Mr. Weaver!"

Seeing that Kenneth was recovering, Wendy blinked coquettishly and whispered, "Mr. Wilson, congratulations..." She gave him a seductive look while she was at it.

Her voice and stare made Kenneth excited and delighted. Thinking that he was about to recover, he said to Jeffrey, "Hey, Jeff. I know that Wendy has been keeping you company for the past two days, but now that I'm getting better, I need to test the drug's effect with her, so I'll take her home tonight, huh? What do you say?"

Jeffrey was a little agitated by the request. Men had territorial behavior on the things they liked. He had developed feelings for Wendy after their days of being together and was reluctant to let her go.

However, it was true that Kenneth had given Wendy to him, and now that Kenneth needed a woman to try the effect of the drug with, it was only right to give Wendy back to him. So, he nodded and said, "Okay, Mr. Wilson, as you please."

Kenneth nodded delightfully and said to Wendy, "Wendy, let's go home now!"

Wendy hurriedly said, "Okay, why don't we go back now? I don't want you to wait too long..."

As if something had struck his mind, Kenneth quickly turned to Jordan and asked, "By the way, I only feel feverish now. How long will it take to fully recover?"

Chapter 466

Jordan hurriedly answered, "I guess it needs some time for it to take effect. First, it needs to repair the damaged part before it can help restore your manhood. Don't worry, I bet it will stand high and tall after half an hour to an hour!"

Kenneth grinned in delight. "Is that so? If so, time is running out. I need to go now, excuse me."

Then, he dragged Wendy and quickly left the Weaver family's house.

On the way home, Kenneth was getting a little agitated and excited. As he drove, he said restlessly, "I feel that the heat is getting stronger and stronger, but why do I feel that it hasn't quite reached that area yet..."

Wendy quickly said, "Didn't Mr. Weaver say that the medicine needs to take some time to do the repair before it can work its way to that area!"

"Hahaha!" Kenneth said excitedly, "It's just like those games that you young people play! The enemy has five seconds to reach the battlefield!"

Wendy smiled coyly. "Kenneth, how long will it take you to reach the battlefield?"

Kenneth grinned slyly. "I guess in about half an hour, it should all come back to me, shouldn't it? Hahaha!"

Then, he circled his arm around Wendy's waist and said seriously, "Wendy, after I am completely healed, be with me. If you make me happy, I'll make sure you're well taken care of and you can enjoy a lavish lifestyle for the rest of your life."

Wendy blushed and said timidly, "Don't worry, I'll make you the happiest man on earth!"

Kenneth nodded and then said viciously, "That d*mned Charlie Wade! The b*stard made me impotent, I will definitely make him pay for it!"

During this trip to Aurouss Hilll, he had fallen into Charlie Wade's traps so many times! Not only was his manhood jeopardized, but he had also had to call the b*stard 'Grandpa' several times!

All the embarrassment that he felt for his entire life was because of Charlie Wade!

When he got better, he wouldn't need to be afraid of Charlie Wade or Anthony. Instead, he would find a chance to kill them both!

He hated Anthony too! D*mn! How dare he refuse to give him his magical elixir, even going as far as to threaten him! D*mn it!

Soon, Kenneth arrived at the Wilson family villa.

As soon as they got off the car, they passed through the living room and went straight to the guest room on the second floor without a word.

Lady Wilson was drinking tea in the living room. When she saw them coming home and hurrying up the stairs, she asked Christopher, "Do you think Kenneth has had his disorder cured?"

"I have no idea," Christopher answered, "But I think there must be an improvement since they went back to their room so anxiously."

Lady Wilson nodded and chuckled. "Good, very good! If Kenneth can restore his manhood, Wendy will be with him again. Then, we can get the remaining 70 million dollars of investment for our company!"

Then, she turned to Christopher and urged, "Go, go to their door and listen to see if Kenneth has really recovered. If he has, I will talk to Kenneth about the second investment first thing in the morning!"

Christopher cleared his throat and said, "Mom, Wendy is my daughter. It wouldn't be nice for me to eavesdrop at her door..."

Lady Wilson glared at him in dismay and said, "Useless thing! Can you still not tell what is most important right now?! At this moment, it is whether Kenneth has recovered or not!"

Hannah interjected, "Yes, mom is right. Kenneth's condition is the priority right now. If you're too embarrassed to go, I'll go!"

Lady Wilson nodded at Hannah, her eyes brimming with adoration. "See? Hannah is much more courageous and ambitious than you are! Women are always on the stronger side of our family. I'm better than your dad, you are better than Chris, Claire Wilson Wilson, the abominable girl, is better than Harold! Sigh, the men are hopeless!"

Chapter 467

Inside the bedroom.

Kenneth was lying on the bed, anxiously waiting for the effect of the medicine to arrive on the battlefield.

Meanwhile, Wendy put on a bathrobe and went into the bathroom.

For some reason, Kenneth felt something peculiar going on inside his body. His lower abdomen had been feeling feverish ever since he had been at the Weaver family's house, but there had been no change in his manhood.

In fact, he started to feel a vague itch and ache.

"It must mean that the drug is working now!" Kenneth comforted himself.

Wendy came out from the bathroom and lay in Kenneth's arms like a wild cat. She asked softly while playing with his chest hair, "Kenneth, how are you feeling now? Do you feel something?"

Kenneth shook his head and said, frowning, "Not yet, but it should be soon."

Wendy was eager to get on Kenneth's good side and reap more benefits from him, so she winked coquettishly and started to unbutton Kenneth's pants.

There was a dash of eagerness and excitement in Kenneth's eyes, and his heart was burning with desire and longing.

He had waited for far too long and had suffered so much just for this moment to come.

However...

As soon as Wendy took off Kenneth's pants, she suddenly yelled in horror, her shrill and loud voice echoing in the room.

"Oh my God! Kenneth, what happened to you? Why is it turning black and purple! The tip is a little ulcerated too!"

"What?!" Kenneth felt as though a bomb had exploded in his brain. He pushed Wendy aside and looked down.

After seeing it clearly, his face instantly turned green.

Initially, he had thought that the medicine hadn't taken effect yet, but he never expected to see his penis turn black and purple, and even a little rotten!

What the f*ck was going on!

Kenneth grabbed his head in despair, almost going crazy!

He had been over the moon when he drank the medicine, but now, he had fallen straight down from the f*cking moon!

He had received countless hopeful news ever since he had become impotent, but yet, he still struggled in desperation and failure.

And now, after finally getting the magical elixir from the Weaver family, it resulted in a purple penis and ulceration!

It was like falling from heaven to hell!

"D*mn it, there must be something wrong with the medicine! I wondered why the old coot Jordan Weaver was so kind to let me take the medicine first, it's now obvious that he treated me as the f*cking lab rat!"

Wendy was in a daze. She blurted involuntarily, "Kenneth, what should we do now..."

Kenneth slapped her on the face in irritation and growled, "Take me to the f*cking hospital, you f*cking idiot! What else can we do now?! It's rotting, for God's sake! Ask your dad to start the car!"

Christopher almost collapsed when he heard that they were going to the hospital again!

He thought that Kenneth had found a way to cure his disorder and his daughter would be able to regain Kenneth's favor, but it was all a wild-goose chase!

In fact, from what Kenneth described, it sounded much worse than before!

Chapter 468

In the middle of the night, Christopher was behind the wheels with Kenneth and his two bodyguards and rushed to the Silverwing Hospital.

Kenneth didn't even wait in the queue, instead, he barged into one of the emergency rooms with his bodyguards.

When he saw a male doctor sitting in front of the computer, he unbuckled his belt and took off his pants.

The male doctor was extremely shocked.

"Hey, what are you doing? Are you crazy?!"

The doctor shrieked in horror, "Put your pants back on or I'll call the security!"

No one could stand such a bizarre scene in the middle of the night.

Kenneth hurriedly explained with a miserable grimace, "Doctor, you have misunderstood. I'm not crazy. Something terrible has happened to my body! Hurry up and take a look! Help me, otherwise, it will rot!"

The fester had become more serious at this moment.

The doctor glanced at his penis and took in a breath of cold air. He slowly muttered, "Um... your penis is completely necrotic now..."

"Completely necrotic? What does that mean?"

"It means that there is nothing I can do. For example, when someone is involved in an accident and the person's leg is crushed into minced flesh and faces serious infections, the injury is irreversible and there's nothing much we can do except to amputate the wounded limbs."

"Amputate?!" Kenneth's eyes pooled with tears. He wailed hysterically, "Are you saying that you're going to amputate my penis?"

The doctor nodded. "And we have to do it quickly before the ulcers spread to your other body parts."

Tears flowed down Kenneth's cheeks as he cried, "Please, doctor! I'm a man! How could you amputate my penis?! All I want to do is to keep it there! Even if it doesn't work anymore, never mind that, I just want it to be there!"

Right now, he didn't even care if his penis malfunctioned, he just wanted it to be intact at its designated place, that was all!

He pleaded desperately, "Doctor, please, I can give you all the money in the world as long as you can cure me! Please, I beg you, please think of something!"

The doctor shook his head and sighed. "It's not about money. Your condition is very serious! It is completely necrotic now, amputation is the only way to save your life."

Then, the doctor further explained, "If you don't amputate it now, the ulceration will become worse and it will cause serious bacterial infection, leading to the collapse of your body's immune system. It can be fatal! Do you know how many patients have died every year because of fatal bacterial infection? It is because they refused to do the amputation and literally caused their own death!"

Kenneth's eyes opened wide in shock and bewilderment.

The doctor offered a few words of comfort. "Don't worry. Although your case is very rare, I've done several similar operations before. I promise you, I'll perform the surgery perfectly and there won't be any complications afterward."

Tears flowed down Kenneth's cheeks as he listened to the doctor's words. "Doctor, please, I beg you, please think of another way other than cutting it off. I'm already impotent, if you really cut it off, it will be worse than that! I... I would rather die!"

The doctor sighed. "I'm sorry, there's truly no other way. Our hands are tied if you don't want to do the amputation..."

Kenneth's despair turned into anger as he growled, "You are nothing but a bunch of losers! Can't you stop the ulceration?"

His rude remark provoked the doctor. He switched into a solemn look and said, "Why can't you listen to my advice? We are professionals. There is no way we can stop the ulceration. Amputation is the only option now, that's all I can tell you!"

"Besides, don't think of it as just necrosis in the penis. Very soon, the infected bacteria will spread to the other parts of your body through the blood circulation. By then, you'll have a systemic infection which is very fatal!"

Kenneth was completely devastated at the moment. His hatred toward the Weaver family almost overwhelmed his resentment toward Charlie Wade!

'D*mn it! The Weavers! If my penis is gone, I'll make sure the Weaver family is swept off the grid once and for all! I'll turn all the males in the Weaver family into eunuchs!'

He urged his bodyguards beside him, "Follow me to the Weaver family house right now!"

Chapter 469

Kenneth left the Silverwing Hospital furiously and rushed toward the Weaver family house with his two bodyguards.

When he arrived at their door, a servant hurriedly greeted him and asked, "Mr. Wilson, why are you here at this hour..."

Kenneth glared at him with dark eyes. He slapped the servant and roared, "Get the hell out of my way!"

At this moment, he was like a walking volcano with all the fury and humiliation boiling inside him that might erupt at any time!

With his two brawny bodyguards, Kenneth barged into the Weaver family house and shouted viciously, "Jordan Weaver, come out right now! I'll f*cking kill you if you keep me waiting!"

Kenneth's thunderous roar shook the entire Weaver family as if an earthquake had swept through the house.

Jordan didn't even manage to tidy up his robe as he rushed out of his room with the help of Jeffrey. His eyes flew wide open in shock when he saw the enraged Kenneth standing in the middle of the living room, and he asked, "Mr. Wilson, what are you doing here? Aren't you supposed to be at home, enjoying sex after taking the medicine?"

"Enjoying sex? I'm more interested in killing you!"

Kenneth glared at Jordan in great dismay and shouted, "You old coot, how dare you use me as your lab rat to test the f*cking drug! My penis is rotten because of your d*mned medicine! If you don't solve the problem now, I'll f*cking kill you and your whole family!"

Jordan heard a buzz in his head out of shock. He instantly understood Kenneth's purpose of coming to his house at this odd hour—something must have gone wrong with the medicine.

He cleared his throat and said, "Mr. Wilson, there must be some misunderstanding, please hear me out. I swear, I've never thought of you as a lab rat. Since you had the need, we were sincerely offering you to be the first to take the medicine because we were concerned about you. You must believe me!"

Kenneth was so furious that he was shaking violently. He took off his pants right in front of everyone and pointed to his necrotic penis and said, his eyes as cold as a murderous dagger, "F*ck with your misunderstanding! The ulcer on my penis is so bad I will have to amputate it!"

Jordan had bad eyesight, so he had to rub his eyes and take several glances. When he saw it, he involuntarily clammed his legs together tightly!

Jeffrey and Liam were equally frightened, their faces pale and astonished.

D*mn it!

His penis was rotten for real!

How could that happen?

No wonder Kenneth was so pissed! No men would still be sane after this had happened to them.

Jeffrey quickly said, "Kenneth, please calm down... Maybe... maybe the drug hasn't taken full effect yet, why don't you wait and see for another two days..."

Had the fool just asked him to wait for two more days? His penis would fall off on its own by then!

Kenneth pulled his pants up and growled at Jeffrey indignantly, "F*ck you! It was all because of you, you idiot! You lied to me, saying that your family medicine could cure me! Look what you've done to me!"

He turned to his bodyguards and ordered them, "Break one of his arms!"

These two bodyguards were of the best that he had.

He had brought six bodyguards to Aurouss Hilll, but four of them had been crippled by Charlie Wade, so he was left with two.

However, even if there were only two bodyguards left, the Weaver family did not dare to confront him because of his powerful background as the chairman of Modestway Group!

Chapter 470

Initially, the Weaver family hoped that the new medicine would bring their company to the next level, but from the looks of it, the old medicine was much better!

The worst side effect of the old medicine was inducing liver and kidney toxicity, but it wouldn't induce penis necrosis.

Therefore, the Weaver family was no match for Kenneth's attack.

At this moment, Kenneth's bodyguards marched forward and grabbed Jeffrey by his shoulder despite his struggle and loud protest. They twisted his right arm into a horrific angle, snapping it effectively, making all the people who watched the scene shudder.

"Godd*mn it! Argh!!! Oh my God!"

Jordan was angry and frightened at the same time. Jeffrey was his eldest son and also the most beloved, but he could only watch in terror as his son's arm was broken and couldn't do anything about it.

Eventually, Professor Cruz came running into the hall and said, "Mr. Weaver, Mr. Wilson, what's going on?!"

Kenneth turned his gaze upon the familiar voice and smirked, "Oh, hi, b*stard, good timing. Boys, beat him up!!"

Professor Cruz stared at him in a daze and muttered, "Mr. Wilson, there must be some misunderstanding. I've cured you! Didn't you say that you wanted to give me a villa?"

The cold sneer was still pasted on Kenneth's face. "Oh, the villa, you say? I'll have one for you... in hell!"

The bodyguards pressed Professor Cruz to the floor and punched him as though he was a sandbag. After one of them punched his temple, his eyes rolled to the back of his head, and he passed out.

The entire Weaver family watched in horror. Kenneth was truly cruel!

Anyway, it was understandable for Kenneth to behave this way. He had suffered a huge blow that no one could imagine, starting from the impotence and necrosis. If he needed to be amputated, he would have gone crazy in a snap.

Kenneth was still burning in rage. He stepped forward, grabbed Jordan by the collar, and growled, "Now, I'll give you two choices. One, I'll kill you and your whole family right this instant. Two, cure me now. Which one do you choose?"

Jordan's face was as pale as snow. He pleaded, "Mr. Wilson, please spare us. I'll choose the second option! We'll do our best to cure you!"

"How long do you need? If my penis is beyond repair, I'll kill you first, followed by your family!"

Jordan nodded profusely and blurted, "We have a lot of experienced doctors in our company. I'll let them come over right now and give you anti-bacterial and anti-inflammatory treatment first. It should be able to persist for a while!"

Kenneth crashed onto the sofa and said coldly, "What are you waiting for? Hurry and call the doctors!"

Jordan quickly asked Jeffrey to contact the team of doctors from Weaver Pharmaceutical to come over.

After the doctors came, they immediately infused Kenneth with antibiotics and treated the ulceration. However, the doctors shared the same opinion with the doctor of the Silverwing Hospital. The antibiotic medication was not the ultimate solution, it could only delay the ulceration process, but amputation remained as the last resort.

Luckily, the treatment gave them a few days to think of a solution.

If they couldn't find a cure for Kenneth, amputation would be the final solution.

When Kenneth was on the IV treatment, he spoke to the Weaver family in a cold voice, "I'll give you one day. If you can't solve my problem by tomorrow night, the Weaver family will be diminished from this world!"

Jordan nodded and said respectfully, "Don't worry, Mr. Wilson. We'll try our best!"

Jeffrey pulled him aside and whispered, "Dad, the doctor said that there is no cure, what else can we do?!"

Jordan ground his teeth anxiously. "We still have to think of something! Do you want our family to vanish?!"

Chapter 471

A concerned frown appeared on Jeffrey's forehead. He turned to his father, Jordan, and huffed, "Dad, why don't we just sell off our property and run away with the money? If Kenneth really wants to attack us, we'll be dead!"

Jordan roared, "B*stard! Sell off our property?! If we sell it in a hurry, my billion-dollar empire may cost only 200 million! Do you know that, you idiot! This is my hard work!"

Liam nodded. "Dad is right. Jeff, Weaver Pharmaceutical is dad's precious creation, how could we sell it just like that?"

Jeffrey raised his hand and slapped Liam. "Shut up, b*stard! Do you think you have any say here?"

Liam stumbled a few steps back because of the force of the slap, covering his face. He pouted in dismay, but he spruced up and said firmly, "Jeff, I'll still say it even if you slap me. The company is dad's hard work, we cannot sell it!"

"I'm gonna f*cking kill you!" Jeffrey's face turned into an ugly shade of red. He was about to jump on Liam when Jordan, who had always looked down upon Liam, stepped up and stopped him. "Your brother is right! We must find a way to solve this! You can't just sell everything and take off! It's my legacy that I worked for my whole life!"

Then, Jordan breathed a deep breath and said, "Listen carefully to what I'm about to say. Between you two, whoever can solve this crisis will be elected as the chairman of the Weaver Pharmaceutical. The person who fails in this mission proves that he is unable to lead and manage my company!"

Jeffrey burst out frantically, "Dad! How can this illegitimate b*stard inherit your company!"

Jordan growled, "B*stard or not, he is still my son! If you, as the eldest son, are not capable, you'll be abdicated!"

Liam, who was quietly listening to their commotion, heaved a sigh of relief.

He had been under duress in the Weaver family for so many years. After all the humiliation and insults, it was finally his time to rise!

Frankly speaking though, Jordan would not hand over his family business to an illegitimate child. Unfortunately, his eldest son, Jeffrey, was incompetent. He had to find a way to stimulate his enthusiasm and force him to find a solution to the current crisis.

While the entire Weaver family was anxiously searching for a cure for Kenneth all over the world, Charlie Wade entered his room after taking a shower.

Claire Wilson Wilson was lying on the bed in her nightgown, kicking her fair and smooth legs casually while browsing her Twitter.

On the usual days, she was very busy with her work and was mounted by enormous pressure. Thus, watching nonsensical things on her phone and reading novels in bed had become her greatest leisure.

Charlie Wade was just lying down on his makeshift bed on the floor when Claire Wilson Wilson suddenly screamed and threw her phone away which landed on Charlie Wade's face.

Ignoring the pain, Charlie Wade asked nervously, "Dear, what's wrong?"

Claire Wilson Wilson's face twisted into a grimace. "Yikes, I just saw a video on Twitter, it's very disgusting..."

Charlie Wade asked curiously, "What is it? Let me see how disgusting it is." He went to grab her phone that had fallen on the floor.

Claire Wilson Wilson shrieked again, "Argh, don't look! It's disgusting..."

"How disgusting could it be? You've made me very curious."

Then, he turned on the screen and glanced at it, and he was stunned by what he saw.

It was Kian Webb, the creep who loved to psychologically manipulate girls...

Looking at his hysterical reaction in the video, it was confirmed that Charlie Wade's hypnosis had worked!

Chapter 472

It was truly a pleasure to see him go crazy.

He was basically finished for the rest of his life since he had to eat shit every hour. Now, he wouldn't have the time to ruin another girl's life ever again.

Charlie Wade locked the screen and said to Claire Wilson Wilson with a smile, "I've heard of this guy."

"Really?" Claire Wilson Wilson asked in surprise. "How? From where did you hear of him?"

"He is a very bad and nasty guy who loves to psychologically manipulate girls and force them to inflict self-harm and commit suicide for his own pleasure."

Charlie Wade began recounting Kian's criminal history to Claire Wilson Wilson.

Claire Wilson Wilson huffed furiously after listening to Charlie Wade. "Oh my goodness, what a b*stard! Why would he do that to other people's daughters?"

Charlie Wade said sincerely, "Well, frankly, there are always scumbags like him who like to hurt others for pleasure. They are the useless dregs of society. Sooner or later, karma will bite them back."

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded with a satisfied smile. "It looks like his karma has bitten him already!"

Claire Wilson Wilson was a little traumatized by the horrifying video and decided not to check her phone anymore, saying as she stretched her body, "Ah, I'm so sleepy. Charlie Wade, please charge my phone. Thanks. I'll go to sleep first."

"Okay." Charlie Wade nodded and charged her phone.

In the middle of the night, just as Charlie Wade was about to fall asleep, he felt the vibration of his phone from under his pillow. He turned on the phone and saw that it was a notification of an incoming message from Albert.

"Master Wade, there are a few Japanese waiting in ambush at the Serene World Clinic, I think they want to attack Dr. Simmons!"

Charlie Wade replied, "I think they are aiming for his medicine."

"D*mn it!" Albert burst out in rage. "Those scumbags are trying to get their hands on the magical elixir! Master Wade, one command from you and I'll take my boys to catch them, drag them back to my kennel, chop them up, and feed them to the Tibetan Mastiff!"

"Don't," Charlie Wade said as he grinned. "They have powerful backing. They are Ichiro Kobayashi's men, the eldest son of Kobayashi Pharma. I'm going to dig a big trap for him, you just let your boys secretly protect Dr. Simmons. Let them take all the medicine they want, I specially prepared it for them anyway."

To set a trap for Ichiro Kobayashi, Charlie Wade had refined a few Terminal Lucidity Pills and given them to Anthony.

The amazing thing about this pill was it could make a person alive and well for an hour or two no matter how terminally ill the person was, even if he or she was on the verge of death.

However, it came with a terrible consequence too. After those hours of being alive, they would die immediately beyond rescue.

In truth, the pill was not poisonous. It was more like a euthanasia remedy for a person to express his or her dying will before taking the last breath.

The effect of the pill was to overdraw all the person's vitality for those two hours of lucidity. By doing so, the person could make the final arrangements for the property, funeral affairs, and whatnot.

In ancient times, the pill was specially formulated for emperors and generals which would be ready by their bed as they were dying. When they took the pill, it would give them precious time to make crucial orders for the sake of their nation and family.

Eventually, the pill had become useless in modern times. Also, the pill was quite hazardous as the same effect would take place even if a healthy person were to consume it. He or she would still die two hours after taking the pill.

Thus, in modern times, it was more or less like a poison.

Charlie Wade had seen the pill in the and had not taken it seriously since he had deemed it useless.

However, this time, the pill had finally come in handy. It could be a powerful trap for Ichiro Kobayashi!

Chapter 473

After giving instructions to Albert, Charlie Wade called Isaac once again.

As soon as the call was connected, Charlie Wade told him immediately, "After Ichiro succeeds tonight, he'll definitely try to escape from the country in the shortest time possible tonight. Therefore, you should set up a trap for him in Aurouss Hilll. Anyone in his group should be allowed to escape except for him!"

Isaac replied immediately, "Don't worry, Mr. Wade. I've already made all the necessary arrangements. I'll definitely intercept Ichiro before he manages to escape!"

After that, Isaac also promised, "I'll make sure that the medicine that Ichiro stole from Anthony will never be taken out of the country!"

"No!" Charlie Wade said hurriedly. "I want them to take the medicine back to Japan. Remember that the medicine should leave the country but Ichiro must not be allowed to leave the country!"

Isaac hurriedly replied, "Mr. Wade, I understand! Don't worry, I won't let Ichiro escape so easily!"

"Okay!" Charlie Wade smiled slightly before he said, "After capturing Ichiro, please find me a concealed and secluded location for me to meet up with him and take care of him in person!"

"Okay, Mr. Wade!"

Ichiro did not know that there was already a trap carefully laid out for him at this time.

He was simply sitting in his Maybach parked opposite Serene World Clinic and several of his men were already hiding around the building, ready to pounce at any time.

His father, Masao Kobayashi, had already been bedridden and paralyzed for the past three years. Moreover, his father had even given some instructions to him and his brother, Jiro Kobayashi, ever since he became paraplegic. According to his father, whoever made the greatest contributions to Kobayashi Pharma would be able to inherit his position as chairman of the company.

His younger brother, Jiro, was an expert in pharmaceuticals who had already been majoring and studying medicine for many years. In the past few years, Jiro had created and concocted many new types of medicine for his family and the sales for his medicine were all going very well. Therefore, his father really looked very highly upon him.

In contrast, Ichiro was a little upset because he was not a pharmaceutical student but instead, he had majored in finance. This kind of person was technically more suited for dealing in business and real estates but he was really not cut out for the pharmaceutical industry.

Only people who really understood medicine could come up with good medication and truly understand the medical market.

If he came up with a magical pill, then he could definitely make a lot of money just by relying on word of mouth from consumers.

However, if the medicine had little to no effect at all, it would be useless no matter how many advertisements the company came up with. After trying it out the first time, the consumers would never try it a second time.

Therefore, Ichiro's younger brother, Jiro, stood a much greater chance of succession in the family business even though he was the eldest son.

As a last resort, Ichiro decided to make a trip to Aurouss Hill to participate in the Chinese Medicine Expo. He wanted to see if he could discover any excellent prescriptions that he could bring back to Japan for his family to use. If he could make a remarkable achievement, then he would at least stand a chance to succeed his father.

When he heard that the genius doctor, Dr. Simmons, who had cured a patient with severe paraplegia not too long ago, also happened to be at the Chinese Medicine Expo, he was really extremely excited.

If he could get his hands on the prescription, not only would he be able to cure his father completely then but he would definitely be able to create a huge business opportunity for his family! It would even be possible for him to grow and develop Kobayashi Pharma by several folds!

Chapter 474

Therefore, Ichiro was pinning his future on that night's events.

As he thought about this, Ichiro, who was extremely excited, quickly made a phone call to his father.

His father, who was still paralyzed in bed, connected the call as soon as he received it. "Ichiro, where have you been the past few days? Why haven't you come to see me at all?"

Ichiro hurriedly replied, "Dad! I am seeking medicine for you in Arouss Hilll. I heard that there's a genius doctor here who cured a patient with severe paraplegia not too long ago!"

"Is that true?" Masao asked in surprise. "Is there really such a magical doctor in Arouss Hilll who would be able to cure severe paraplegia?"

"Yes!" Ichiro replied. "I've already checked the hospital records and confirmed that the patient has been cured of his severe paraplegia! I also asked around and everyone confirmed that the genius doctor was in fact the one who cured the patient with just half a magical pill!"

"Half a magical pill?" Masao was very excited at this time.

For the past three years, he had been in extreme pain and he had been suffering a lot because he had been paralyzed in bed.

He had been a famous entrepreneur and he had endless wealth but he was suddenly paralyzed in bed. Just like that, he lost the opportunity to enjoy himself and live his life and that made him feel really miserable.

In the past few days, he had been searching for various different ways to cure himself but in this world, there was absolutely no medicine to cure severe paraplegia and it was completely impossible to restore a paralyzed patient to his original condition. Even through intense physical therapy, it would be very difficult for the patient to stand up, let alone walk and live his life like an ordinary person.

However, when Masao heard his son saying that the genius doctor in Arouss Hilll had a form of superb medical treatment to cure severe paraplegia, he became very expectant and he was yearning for the cure!

Masao exclaimed excitedly, "Ichiro, you have to buy this magical medicine back for me even if it's going to cost you one hundred million dollars!"

Ichiro hurriedly explained, "Dad, I don't know what's wrong with the genius doctor but he's simply unwilling to sell me the medicine. However, there's nothing you need to worry about because I'm already prepared to steal the medicine from him and send it to Japan tonight just so you can take the medicine as soon as possible!"

After that, Ichiro continued speaking, "By the way, Dad, I heard that the genius doctor has more than just one of these magical pills. After eating one of the pills, we can get our team of researchers and analysts to study the ingredients in the magical pill and figure out its composition. After that, Kobayashi Pharma will be able to develop this medicine and we'll definitely become the world's top pharmaceutical company then! We'll bring back and gain plenty of glory for Japan!"

"Good! Excellent work!" Masao replied excitedly. "You really deserve to be called my filial son! Make sure that you get this beautifully done for me as soon as possible!"

Ichiro replied, "Don't worry, Dad. My private plane is already waiting for me at Aurous Airport. After taking the medicine, I'll leave a few people behind before I fly back to Japan immediately. As long as I get into my private plane successfully, I will be able to fly back to Tokyo without any interference from anyone in Arouss Hilll."

Masao said excitedly, "In that case, you will be able to arrive in Tokyo just three hours after the plane takes off! I can take this magical pill in less than four hours! I'll finally have an opportunity to stand up again!"

Ichiro burst into tears as he said, "Dad! This is the blessing of Amaterasu. You'll definitely enjoy endless glory, wealth, and a life free from illnesses!"

"Okay!" Masao replied excitedly before he reminded Ichiro, "Ichiro, you should be very careful and make sure you don't miss your flight. I will be waiting for your good news in Tokyo!"

Ichiro quickly said, "Dad, you can rest assured. I'll definitely make it home with the magical pill so you'll be able to stand on your own two feet again!"

Chapter 475

Ichiro felt that he was going crazy after hanging up the phone because he was simply too excited!

If he could get his hands on the magical pill, then he would definitely end up becoming the successor of Kobayashi Pharma.

Coming to Arouss Hilll was indeed a good bargain this time!

At this time, Ichiro's assistant, who was seated next to him in the Maybach, said, "Mr. Kobayashi, it is already eleven o'clock. Should we do it now?"

Ichiro nodded before he sneered and said, "Do it!"

The assistant quickly took out his walkie-talkie and ordered, "Do it now!"

As soon as the voice fell, six men quickly sneaked into Anthony's Serene World Clinic.

Tonight, Anthony was sleeping over in the small bedroom in Serene World Clinic.

In fact, Anthony had been patiently waiting for the Japanese to come for him at this time.

However, to be safe, he arranged for his granddaughter, Xyla, to stay at the hotel tonight.

After entering Serene World Clinic, the six men immediately came into Anthony's bedroom and they saw Anthony lying on bed at this time. One of the men immediately covered his mouth before he pointed a pistol at his temple and said, "Do not scream! If you cooperate with us obediently, we will spare your life."

Anthony pretended to panic and he quickly asked, "You...what are you trying to do?"

"Hand over the magical pills to us!" the man in black replied coldly. "Otherwise, I will shoot you!"

Anthony trembled in fright before he blurted out, "Don't shoot! Don't shoot! I'll give it to you!"

After that, Anthony reached his hands into the small pocket inside his pajamas before he took out a very small wooden box.

The wooden box carried Anthony's body temperature with him and since it was kept on his body at all times, this proved how precious the pills were to him.

The other party quickly opened the wooden box as soon as he took it in his hand and he saw four pills sitting quietly inside the box. He was so excited and he immediately reported his findings to Ichiro through his walkie-talkie, "Mr. Kobayashi, we've found four of the magical pills!"

"Four? That's fantastic!" Ichiro replied excitedly. "Hurry up and pass the magical pills over to me!"

The man asked once again, "What about this old man?"

Ichiro replied, "Just knock him out. We only need a one-hour head start and we'll definitely succeed in our plan!"

"Okay!" After that, the other party immediately knocked Anthony unconscious with his pistol and Anthony passed out immediately.

At this time, many of Albert's most professional men were actually watching the entire scene in secret. If the other party really intended to harm Anthony's life, then they would have followed Charlie Wade's instructions and acted on it immediately.

However, since the other party did not mean to hurt the old man at all, then Anthony would have to suffer a little.

Anthony fell unconscious after getting hit with the butt of the pistol but fortunately, there was no danger to his life.

After the men succeeded, they quickly withdrew from Serene World Clinic. One of the men hurried over to the Maybach that was parked on the opposite side of the road. As soon as the car window was rolled down, he hurriedly handed the small wooden box over to Ichiro and said, "Mr. Kobayashi, here's the medicine!"

Ichiro could not wait to open the wooden box and as soon as he glanced at it, he was shaking with excitement when he smelled the strong fragrance of the medicinal herbs!

"Great!" Ichiro replied before he said, "Head straight to Aurous Airport. We're leaving for Tokyo immediately."

After that, he told the driver, "Drive now! Head to the airport as fast as you can!"

Then, Ichiro turned around and told his assistant, "Notify the crew to prepare for takeoff immediately. I want the plane to take off without any delays as soon as I arrive at the airport. If anyone finds out about this matter and tries to stop our plane from taking off, then everything will be over!"

Chapter 476

His assistant smiled before he said, "Don't worry too much, Mr. Kobayashi. I don't think anyone in Aurouss Hilll will be able to respond so quickly. We'll take half an hour at most to reach the airport. After that, getting through the security check will be very quick for you since you'll be using the VIP passage. We should be able to take off within an hour. At that time, not even God will be able to stop us!"

Ichiro's Maybach immediately drove away from Serene World Clinic and they headed on the expressway all the way to the airport immediately. They were planning to arrive at the airport as quickly as possible before they boarded the plane to return to Tokyo.

Ichiro's excitement increased rapidly along the way. He repeatedly looked at the four magical pills before he muttered to himself, "The Kobayashi family will be able to rely on this magical pill to stand up strong and powerful all over the world! At that time, I'll definitely become the chairman of Kobayashi Pharma."

The Maybach whizzed all the way and arrived at Aurous Airport very quickly.

As soon as the car stopped at the entrance of the airport, Ichiro was about to get out of the car to rush into the airport at the fastest speed.

However, as soon as he got out of the car, eight off-road Mercedes-Benzenes drove over before they surrounded his Maybach.

Very soon, thirty bodyguards dressed in black stepped out of the eight cars. These people were all masters who had been carefully trained by Isaac and each of them had extraordinary strength and physique.

Isaac stepped out from one of the off-road Mercedes-Benzenes before he looked coldly at Ichiro and said, "Mr. Kobayashi, our young lord would like to invite you to come over for a chat!"

"Your young lord?" Ichiro asked nervously as he hid the magical pills in his pocket. "Who's your young lord? Do you know who I am? I am the vice chairman of Kobayashi Pharma!"

Isaac stretched out his hand and patted Ichiro on his face before he replied indifferently, "Kobayashi Pharma is a Japanese company and we're not in Aurouss Hilll. Why are you pretending to be that great or powerful? Japan and Aurouss Hilll are so far apart and separated by the seas. So, why are you trying to tell me who you are now?"

Ichiro suddenly became very nervous.

He did not know the reason why these people were trying to stop him. Was it because of the magical pills or was it because of something else?

If it was really because of the magical pills, then he would really be in a very dangerous situation right now. After all, the other group of people looked very strong and capable. If they refused to let him go, he would definitely not be able to escape.

However, if they were looking for him for some other reasons, then did that mean that he could still send the medicine back to Japan first?

As he thought about this, Ichiro pretended to be calm as he asked, "Who's your young lord?"

Isaac replied lightly, "Mr. Kobayashi, Kobayashi Pharma has already plagiarized so many ancient Chinese prescriptions so I guess your family probably has a good understanding of the situation in our country. Have you ever heard of the Wade family from Eastcliff?"

"The Wade family?" Ichiro was utterly shocked at this time!

How could he possibly not hear of the Wade family from Eastcliff?

After all, it was the most powerful family in this country and their family strength also ranked top in the world! Even the major conglomerates in Japan could not even be compared to the Wade family, not to mention a family who was just running a small pharmaceutical company like himself.

Ichiro panicked all of a sudden and he blurted out, "May I know why your young lord is looking for me?"

Isaac replied lightly, "If there's anything you need to find out, you'll know after you come with me."

Ichiro asked nervously, "And if I refuse to come with you?"

Isaac smiled faintly before he took out a pistol from his pocket and said, "Since our young lord has instructed me to bring you to him, if I can't bring you there alive, then the least I could do is to bring your dead body to him!"

Ichiro was very worried but he was even more concerned whether he could send the magical pills to Tokyo first.

This was the key to laying his foundation in his family!

As he thought about this, he asked tentatively, "May I go with you on my own so that my assistant can head back to Japan now? There are a lot of important things that he has to deal with."

Isaac laughed before he said generously, "Of course, everyone is allowed to leave except for you."

Ichiro heaved a huge sigh of relief and he quietly handed the small wooden box over to his assistant. After that, he patted his shoulder gently before he said, "You should take the plane back to Tokyo first. Tell my father that I'm fine and that I'll go back and see him soon!"

Chapter 477

Ichiro handed the stolen magical pills over to his assistant and he was finally relieved after watching his assistant enter the airport without any problem. After that, Ichiro asked Isaac, "Where is your young lord?"

Isaac replied lightly, "You'll know once you come with me."

After he was done speaking, he signaled at the people around him before they dragged Ichiro over to the nearest off-road Mercedes-Benz immediately.

The convoy quickly left the airport as they headed towards the dog farm opened by Albert in the suburbs.

On the way to the dog farm, Isaac called Charlie Wade before he said, "Mr. Wade, Ichiro is in my hands now. I'm bringing him over to Don Albertt's dog farm now. If you want to come over, I will send someone over to pick you up immediately!"

Charlie Wade glanced at Claire Wilson Wilson, who was fast asleep at this time, before he replied, "Alright then. Arrange for a car to pick me up from outside my house in five minutes."

After making the pearl and clam bracelet for Claire Wilson Wilson that was worth hundreds of millions of dollars, Claire Wilson Wilson was finally able to sleep very well after wearing it. Therefore, she would never wake up in the middle of the night no matter what happened. Charlie Wade was not worried that Claire Wilson Wilson would find out that he had snuck out in the middle of the night.

About five minutes later, Charlie Wade walked out of the house. There was already a Rolls-Royce parked outside at this time. Even though Charlie Wade had never met the driver before, the driver recognized him immediately and he quickly opened the door for Charlie Wade as he said respectfully, "Mr. Wade, please."

Charlie Wade nodded and got into the car before they headed out of the city.

When Charlie Wade finally arrived at Albert's dog farm, Isaac was already there.

This was Charlie Wade's first visit to Albert's dog farm even though he had already heard of this place for a long time.

The location of the dog farm was very secluded and large in scale. As soon as he stepped out of the call, Charlie Wade could hear countless dogs barking and growling. Moreover, the voices of these dogs were very low and heavy and it seemed as though they were all large dogs.

It was rumored that the reason why Albert owned this dog farm was mainly to raise, breed, and train some fighting dogs for the underground dog fighting event. Some people in the underworld were obsessed with dog fighting and they would often organize competitions and bet tens of millions of dollars on the dogs that they liked.

In addition to raising dogs, Albert also regarded this as a torture ground. If there were anyone that he needed gone from this world, he would simply send them here to become rations for the vicious fighting dogs.

There was a three-story building in the yard of the dog farm and this building was usually used by the staff as their office and resting ground. There was also a warehouse for storing dog food in the building and a secret room that Albert usually used for lynching.

At this time, Ichiro was hung on a frame in the dark with his hands completely tied up.

The underworld of Aurouss Hilll was not much different compared to the underworld in Hong Kong or Taiwan. It had extremely strict rules and regulations and these rules were still the same as those used by mobsters and gang members from over a hundred years ago. Once the interests of the gang was violated, the first thing that the culprit would face was lynching.

At this time, the six men dressed in black who Ichiro had sent to rob Anthony of the magical pills were also detained here.

When Ichiro saw the six men, he was really frightened.

He realized that this matter might actually have something to do with the magical pills. He could not help but wonder what these people were going to do to him now that he had already sent the magical pills back to Japan.

At this time, Charlie Wade stepped into the building.

Isaac greeted him respectfully with a bow, saying, "Mr. Wade, Ichiro and his six men are all here."

Charlie Wade nodded slightly before he looked at Ichiro. After that, he smiled as he said, "Mr. Kobayashi, it seems as though we finally meet again."

"Ah...you...you are..." Ichiro suddenly remembered Charlie Wade!

When Ichiro was asking Anthony for the prescription for the magical pill at the Chinese Medicine Expo, Charlie Wade was right there. In fact, Ichiro initially thought that he was simply Anthony's subordinate or assistant at that time. Unexpectedly, he actually turned out to be the young lord of the Wade family!

Charlie Wade looked at Ichiro, who was hoisted up in the air, before he said in a cold manner, "Mr. Kobayashi, you're really very courageous! Who gave you the audacity to send men to rob an old man of his magical pills? Are you sick and tired of living?"

Ichiro panicked when he heard this and he blurted out immediately, "Mr. Wade, this is all just a big misunderstanding!"

"Misunderstanding?" Charlie Wade asked as he pointed at the six men dressed in black who were tied up on the ground next to him. "Don't these six men belong to you?"

Ichiro hurriedly shook his head. "No! I don't know them at all!"

Chapter 478

Charlie Wade nodded before he looked at the six men and asked them, "Do you know this man, then?"

The six men had a blank expression on their faces. They looked as if they could not speak their language at all.

Isaac stepped forward at this time before he spoke to them in Japanese. At this time, the six men also shook their heads as they said a lot of words.

Very soon, Isaac told Charlie Wade, "Mr. Wade, they said that they do not know this man at all."

"Oh." Charlie Wade nodded before he said lightly, "Since they don't know each other, then just pick one of them before chopping them up alive. After that, you can feed him to the dogs before asking the remaining five people again."

"Okay!" Isaac immediately explained Charlie Wade's words to the six men in Japanese and the six men were all shocked and dumbfounded at this time.

They could not believe it. Charlie Wade had simply asked them one single sentence and he was actually going to chop them up and feed them to the dogs?

Did he really have that much guts?

At this time, Charlie Wade told Albert, "Albert, since you're more familiar with this place, take these six men out and weigh them one by one. After that, I want you to choose the heaviest one to chop up and feed to the dogs! Let the five of them observe everything before you bring them back here for further questioning!"

Albert asked respectfully, "Mr. Wade, what if they confess to their crime in advance?"

Charlie Wade replied lightly, "It's already too late now. No matter what it is, we're going to feed all of them to the dogs tonight!"

Ichiro was in utter shock at this time. His only difference from his six men was that he could understand their language and he immediately understood the meaning behind Charlie Wade's words.

He was going to chop up a living person and feed him to the dogs? Was the young lord of the Wade family really so cruel?

What if he wanted to chop him up too?

At this time, Albert and his men brought the six unknown men out of the building.

About ten minutes later, Ichiro could hear the dogs in the dog farm howling and growling.

After that, the remaining five men were dragged back into the building.

The five men were so frightened that they were all convulsing in a violent manner.

As soon as they entered the building, the five people went crazy and they started yelling at Ichiro in Japanese.

Isaac quickly translated what they were saying to Charlie Wade, "Mr. Wade, these people are telling Ichiro that they saw their companion being chopped alive and fed to the dogs."

Charlie Wade nodded before he looked at Ichiro, who was so scared that he was about to pass out anytime.

After that, Charlie Wade said coldly, "Ichiro Kobayashi, I'm going to give you one last chance. You'd better be honest with me now. Otherwise, you'll suffer the same fate as that man earlier!"

Even though Ichiro really wanted to contribute to his family, he did not base it on the premise that he would be losing his life because of it. He was in deep shock when he realized that Charlie Wade might actually kill and dispose of his body tonight.

Therefore, he hurriedly pleaded, "Mr. Wade, I'll admit it! I'll tell you everything! I was the one who paid and hired them to rob Dr. Simmons of his magical pills. Please forgive me. Just name me a price and I'll be more than willing to pay for it."

Charlie Wade asked with a black face, "Where's the medicine now?"

Ichiro replied, "My assistant brought the medicine with him to the airport..."

Charlie Wade asked again, "Has the plane taken off?"

Ichiro nodded repeatedly, "Yes, it should have already taken off by now and it should have gone out of Aurouss Hilll's airspace by now..."

Charlie Wade gritted his teeth before he said, "How dare you rob us of the medicine left behind by our ancestors? Good! Very good! Since your man has already brought our medicine back to Japan with him, then you will leave your life behind in this country!"

Chapter 479

Ichiro was so scared that he started crying out loud as soon as he heard Charlie Wade's words.

He was not a bad person but he was just a rich young lord who wanted to honor his own family based on what he could do for them.

Now, he had actually been caught by Charlie Wade and was trapped in a dog farm, possibly being turned into delicious food in the mouth of countless evil dogs at any time. Ichiro was naturally afraid and feeling very regretful at this time.

He cried as he begged Charlie Wade, "Mr. Wade, I'm begging you now. Please just give me a number. No matter how much you ask for, I'm willing to pay you! Otherwise, why don't I call my father and ask him to inform the crew to ask the plane to turn around and return to Aurouss Hill immediately? I will return the magical pill to you directly. Would that be fine with you?"

Charlie Wade replied, "Are you still trying to lie to me at a time like this? Do you really take me for a fool? I know that many companies have very advanced component analysis equipment. After putting a medicine into the equipment, you'll be able to analyze all the components and ingredients in a medicinal product in a few minutes' time. Kobayashi Pharma is a big pharmaceutical company and you'd definitely own such an instrument, right?"

Ichiro nodded as he cried, "Yes, we do own that kind of equipment. However, I did not bring it along with me to Aurouss Hill! So, Mr. Wade, you can rest assured that as long as the magical pills are not sent to the Kobayashi Pharma laboratory, we won't be able to obtain a list of its ingredients."

Charlie Wade sneered before he replied, "Do you really think that I'll believe what you say? Who knows if you've already equipped the equipment in your plane? Perhaps you already have a list of all the ingredients to make up the magical pills now. You could even have instructed your man to scrape off a little of the magical pill because just a little of the powder itself would be sufficient for you to study and analyze the ingredients!"

Ichiro continued crying as he said, "Mr. Wade, I'll use my personality and character to vouch that I'm not lying..."

Charlie Wade gave him a slap across his face as he cursed at him, "You're a thief and a robber and you actually dare to talk about your personality and character in front of me?"

Ichiro was at a loss for words.

Charlie Wade was right. He was indeed a thief and a robber and it was really ironic for him to be talking about his personality and character at this time...

Ichiro hurriedly asked, "Mr. Wade, please tell me what I can do, then. You can come up with a solution for this matter and as long as it is within my ability, I will definitely fulfill your request."

Charlie Wade replied, "In fact, it's actually very simple. Since you've stolen our magical pill, then I can only assume that you have already gotten the ingredients and formula for the pill. It would be better for you to pay us directly for the prescription of the magical pills, then."

Ichiro nodded and agreed immediately, "No problem! Absolutely no problem! Mr. Wade, please name me a price so I can report this to my family immediately."

At this time, Charlie Wade replied indifferently, "Ten billion dollars. Otherwise, not only will I kill you and feed you to the dogs, but I will also expose the fact that someone from Kobayashi Pharma stole someone else's prescription on international grounds. At that time, Kobayashi Pharma's reputation will definitely be damaged all over the world!"

Ichiro was completely taken aback and he blurted out, "Mr. Wade, ten billion dollars is too much...we...we...we really do not have so much money..."

"You're still trying to bargain with me at a time like this?" Charlie Wade asked coldly. "I've already looked into Kobayashi Pharma's background. I saw that your company is doing very well and you enjoyed a net profit of two billion dollars just one year ago. Furthermore, I even found out that you have successfully borrowed a large sum of money from the bank to build Asia's largest production base in Osaka, Japan. I believe all that money must be sitting in Kobayashi Pharma's bank account right now, am I right?"

Ichiro trembled as he explained, "Mr. Wade, to tell you the truth, that money is really important to Kobayashi Pharma. Moreover, that money is under my father's control and I have no access to it at all!"

Charlie Wade nodded before he said, "Alright then! You can call your father and tell him all about this now!"

After that, Charlie Wade said to Isaac, "Loosen his right hand and pass him the cell phone."

Isaac personally released Ichiro's right hand before he handed his cell phone over to him.

Chapter 480

Ichiro had to muster up his courage to call his father.

At this time, Masao was anxiously waiting for the magical pills to arrive in Tokyo.

He was a very impatient person and he had already asked his family to hire an ambulance to take him directly to the airport so he could wait there instead.

The Kobayashi family was very reputable in Tokyo. They even had a private independent hangar in Tokyo Airport for their private jet.

Besides that, there was also a very high-end lounge in this hangar which was owned by the Kobayashi family. Therefore, Masao took his second son,

Jiro, to the airport as he waited for the magical pills to arrive in Tokyo.

At this time, he suddenly received a phone call from Ichiro. Masao hurriedly asked, "Ichiro, I heard that you did not board that plane when it took off earlier. Where are you now?"

Ichiro hurriedly replied, "Dad! I was captured by the young lord of the Wade family in Eastcliff. He accused me of stealing the magical pills and their prescription. Now, he wants us to buy the patent for the prescription of the magical pill for ten billion dollars! Otherwise, not only will he take my life but he will also expose Kobayashi Pharma's theft of prescriptions..."

"What?" Masao blurted out immediately as he yelled, "A*shole! How could you be so careless in handling your own affairs?"

Ichiro cried out, "Dad! I was very careful and meticulous but I don't know how I was discovered by them. You have to save me or I'm really going to die tonight!"

Masao replied coldly, "Ten billion dollars is simply a fantasy! I will never agree to that! I can still accept it if they agree to accept one billion dollars."

Isaac had been translating the entire conversation for Charlie Wade all this while. As soon as he heard Masao's words, he sneered as he said, "Mr. Masao Kobayashi, with all due respect, the magical pills that you've stolen from us is a magical medicine with strong repairing and restoration ability. You'll be able to cure your severe paraplegia and also other similar diseases in the market. If you put the drug out on the market, you'd definitely be able to make at least ten billion dollars in a year. This is in fact a very good bargain for you. Do you understand me?"

Masao snorted before he said, "How would I know if this medicine is as godly as you make it out to be?"

Charlie Wade replied, "Isn't it very simple? The magical pills will land in Tokyo in less than an hour. I heard that you're paralyzed and bedridden now. After taking our medicine, you'll definitely be able to recover within ten minutes at most. After personally experiencing the effects of the medicine, you should pay us the ten billion dollars immediately. Otherwise, I will expose the fact that your son stole a medicine and prescription from others to the world and Kobayashi Pharma's reputation will definitely be ruined then."

After that, Charlie Wade continued, "Oh, and your son will also have to die then!"

Masao felt a little nervous at this time.

His son was caught red-handed and the other party had evidence of him stealing the medicine. If he refused to cooperate with him, then

Kobayashi Pharma would definitely be cast aside by everyone in the world once the truth is exposed.

When that time comes, the Japanese government will also ban the production of these magical pills, in compliance with international law.

That way, he would only be on the losing end.

Moreover, it was also possible that he would be costing his son his life!

On the other hand, if the medicine was really so effective, then ten billion dollars was in fact not a lot of money. Even if he paid ten billion dollars to Charlie Wade, he would easily be able to earn that money back within a year. He would start making profits the year after that!

As he thought about this, Masao replied immediately, "Okay! If your magical pill really cures me of my severe paraplegia and restores me to my previous health condition, then I will give you ten billion dollars to buy this prescription from you exclusively!"

Chapter 481

An hour later, a global express private jet landed at Tokyo Airport.

After the plane landed, it taxied all the way to its own private hangar.

Masao had been waiting in the hangar for a long time.

As soon as the plane entered the hangar, it stopped and the door opened immediately. After that, Ichiro's assistant jumped out of the plane eagerly with the small wooden box in his hand. He quickly ran towards Masao at this time.

At this time, Masao was really looking forward to the medicine as he sat in the wheelchair. His second son Jiro was pushing the wheelchair with a blank expression on his face at this time.

In fact, Jiro was really very annoyed. He was already winning the competition to become the heir of the family. Moreover, he depended on his own strength and ability to beat and dominate his own elder brother. Unexpectedly, his elder brother had actually gone to Aurouss Hill just to steal the magical pills.

If this medicine was really so magical, then it would not only cure his father's disease, but it would also bring huge profits to Kobayashi Pharma.

By then, all the little advantages that he had accumulated over the past years would have been all for nothing!

Ichiro's assistant handed the magic medicine over to Masao with both hands as he blurted out, "Chairman! This is the magic medicine that the vice chairman desperately obtained for you. He specifically asked me to hand this medicine over to you as soon as I land in Tokyo!"

Masao nodded and he could not wait any longer. "Give me one of the pills!"

The assistant hurriedly opened the small wooden box before he handed a pill over to Masao. At this time, one of their servants also hurriedly delivered a glass of warm water to him.

Masao trembled as he took the pill in his hand before placing it under his nose to smell the fragrance of the medicine. After that, he exclaimed immediately, "It is so rich and pure with the fragrance of medicinal herbs! The fragrance of this medicine itself instantly makes people feel refreshed!"

After that, he opened his mouth without any hesitation at all before swallowing the pill with the glass of warm water.

Everyone was staring intensely at him at this time because they were all wondering if this medicine was as magical as it was said to be.

Wouldn't it be really shocking if this medicine could really cure severe paraplegia?

At this time, Masao suddenly felt a burst of warmth in his abdomen and this warm feeling quickly spread throughout his body. The warm feeling made him feel very comfortable and relieved and he could not help but sigh. "It's really amazing. I have not had any sensation in my legs for a very long time but this medicine is actually making my legs feel warm!"

A few minutes later, Masao could feel his whole body being filled with a very powerful and sudden surge of strength. He felt as though he had suddenly returned to ten or even twenty years ago!

He was so excited and he could not help but try to stand up so that he could be in control of his own legs. Unexpectedly, Masao really stood up all by himself with little to no effort at all.

"Oh my god!"

Everyone around him was amazed!

Even Jiro was stunned.

He studied and majored in Medicine and he knew that as long as there was a problem with the nervous system, it would be very difficult and almost impossible for it to be treated.

No matter how rich or wealthy a person was, they could never be completely cured once paralyzed. It could even be impossible for them to stand up on their own.

However, this magical medicine took less than ten minutes to make his father, who had been paralyzed for more than three years, stand up on his own two legs!

This...was just too amazing, right?

This way, this medicine would not only be able to cure paraplegia, hemiplegia, and strokes, but they would also be able to cure and treat diseases such as Parkinson's disease! After all, all of these illnesses were related to the nervous system.

This medicine was really an invincible magic medicine!

At this time, Masao tried to move forward and he initially thought that he would be stumbling in his steps. Unexpectedly, he could walk in a very relaxed and free manner.

Masao was very excited!

He started walking faster and faster and he even turned around and trotted a few steps. He was in an extremely good condition. He did not only cure his paralysis, but he felt twenty years younger at this time!

The Kobayashi family doctor immediately stepped forward to check on his condition and he marveled in shock. "Chairman! Your damaged nervous system has been fully restored! This is really a medical miracle!"

Chapter 482

Yes! A miracle! This is a miracle that even Amaterasu might not be able to achieve!"

Masao was so excited that he almost went insane!

Just as he was ecstatic and excited, Charlie Wade's phone call came in immediately.

"Mr. Kobayashi, how does the effect of the medicine feel?"

At this time, Masao was completely convinced of the magic medicine's ability at this point. Therefore, he blurted out excitedly, "Mr. Wade, I accept your terms and conditions! I will purchase the patent for these magical pills for ten billion dollars!"

Charlie Wade replied, "I will give you my bank account number now. You had better transfer the money over to me within twenty minutes. Otherwise, I will expose all of your crimes and deceit to the world!"

Masao hurriedly replied, "Mr. Wade, you can rest assured that I will arrange for my financial staff to transfer the money over to you now!"

In fact, all of the funds in the entire Kobayashi Pharma's financial books added up to just a little more than ten billion dollars and more than seventy percent of this amount were loans from the bank. However, for Masao, this sum was definitely worth it!

With this magical pill, Kobayashi Pharma would surely end up to become the world's top pharmaceutical company in future!

A few minutes later, Charlie Wade received a text message reminder: "Japan's Kobayashi Pharma has transferred ten billion dollars into your bank account."

When Charlie Wade saw that he had already received the money, he smiled before he said to Masao, "Mr. Kobayashi, I wish you and Ichiro the best of luck in this world."

As soon as he was done speaking, Charlie Wade hung up the phone immediately.

At this time, Ichiro asked excitedly, "Mr. Wade, since you've already received the money from my family, can you let me go now?"

Charlie Wade smiled mysteriously before he said, "You are feeling so anxious to leave this place?"

Ichiro replied excitedly, "I want to return to Tokyo as soon as possible so I can prepare to take over Kobayashi Pharma!"

Charlie Wade laughed and said, "Mr. Kobayashi, don't worry too much about that. In about half an hour's time, you'll definitely be begging me to take you in."

"What do you mean by that?" Ichiro asked in surprise. "Are you going back on your word?"

Charlie Wade sneered before he said arrogantly, "I, Charlie Wade Wade, have never gone back on my word before. If you really want to leave now, you may choose to do so. However, if you leave and run back asking me to protect you later, then I'll have to think twice if I want to help you."

Ichiro could only frown because he did not understand what Charlie Wade was trying to say. However, all that he could think of right now was to get back to Japan as soon as possible. Therefore, he hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade, thank you for your kindness. Thank you but could you send me and my men to the airport as soon as possible? I want to buy the earliest flight back to Japan!"

Charlie Wade shook his head immediately, "You can leave now but the five of them can't!"

Ichiro hurriedly asked, "What do you mean?"

Charlie Wade replied, "These five people were not included in the deal that we have just concluded. Moreover, these five men actually had the audacity to commit armed robbery in Aurouss Hilll. This is a very heinous crime and they should pay the consequences for their actions!"

Ichiro blurted out, "Mr. Wade, there's no need for you to kill them, is there?"

Charlie Wade replied indifferently, "If I don't kill them today, then there might be Dalin Pharmaceuticals, Pana Pharmaceuticals, Soni Pharmaceuticals, and many other companies who could come and act recklessly in Aurouss Hilll in the future. If you continue bargaining with me, I might have no choice but to cut off your tongue."

Ichiro had a horrified expression on his face and he stopped talking immediately. He glanced at his five subordinates who had a bewildered expression on their faces because they could not understand the local language. After that, Ichiro gritted his teeth before he said, "Okay then! Please send me to the airport first!"

At this time, Charlie Wade said to Albert, "Albert, I want you to send him to the airport personally. If he cries and begs you to bring him back here later, I want you to bring him back to me. However, before you do that, I want you to find a place to stop and beat him up nicely before you bring him back to me."

"Okay!" Albert nodded respectfully before he said, "Mr. Kobayashi, please follow me."

Ichiro looked at Charlie Wade with a serious expression on his face as he said, "Mr. Wade, you're really a very confident man. However, I'm certain that I'd never want to come back here! Goodbye!"

Charlie Wade smiled but he did not say anything.

He estimated that the old man, Masao, would be dead in another twenty minutes to half an hour. When that time comes, Ichiro's younger brother would definitely think that he had deliberately harmed the old man and caused his father's death.

Even if he did not doubt Ichiro at all, he would definitely hold the old man's death over Ichiro just so as to eradicate his own troubles of taking over the pharmaceutical company.

When that time came, Ichiro would definitely be hunted down by Kobayashi Pharma and he would not dare to return to Japan!

Chapter 483

Albert started driving an excited Ichiro as they rushed to the airport.

Ichiro was very excited. Even though his family had to pay Charlie Wade ten billion dollars for the medicine prescription, his father's paralysis had been completely cured! Moreover, Kobayashi Pharma also obtained the prescription for the magic medicine.

With this prescription, Kobayashi Pharma would be able to usher in rapid development.

When he became the chairman of Kobayashi Pharma, he would finally be able to reach the pinnacle of his life!

Thus, he could not wait to grow a pair of wings and return to Tokyo immediately to accept his father's admiration and worship.

At this time in Tokyo, Japan, Masao, who had fully restored his health, was currently experiencing the beauty of youth with excitement!

His physical condition was so good that he could not wait to find two young girls to quickly experience the rejuvenation that he had already lost for a long time.

On the way out of the airport, Masao wanted to drive on his own.

Two of his favorite things in his life were none other than women and cars.

For him, both of these things gave him a strong sense of control.

It would be difficult for him to find women at this time. Moreover, it would not be too good for his own reputation if he looked for women as soon as he recovered. What's more, his second son was right here with him at this time.

However, it would always be possible for him to drive, right?

Of course, Jiro did not dare to disobey his father's wishes. After all, he was already in a very weak position now. Once his elder brother returned to Tokyo, then he would definitely be regarded as the hero of the Kobayashi family. Therefore, Jiro knew that he had to coax his father well at this time.

Therefore, he hurriedly said, "Dad, why don't you drive my Bentley sports car home instead? Didn't you use to love speed the most when you were younger? This car is very dynamic and sporty and it happens to be late at night now! There won't be many cars on the road so late at night so you'll be able to speed as fast as you want to!"

"Okay!" Masao laughed before getting into the driver's seat in Jiro's Bentley sports car.

Jiro hurriedly got into the co-pilot seat before he said respectfully, "Dad, I really did not expect to be able to sit in a car driven by you again in this lifetime. I've always enjoyed riding in your car because you drive so well and you give people a strong sense of security."

Masao nodded as he exclaimed, "Jiro, this is really a person's good fortune. Amaterasu might not have thought that I would still have such an opportunity to enjoy these things in life! This is simply the second spring of my life!"

Jiro sat up next to his father filled with excitement on his face as he said, "Dad, why don't you start the car now? I can't wait to see you driving again!"

Masao smiled before he stretched out his hand to press the button to start the engine.

However, after stretching out his hand, Masao suddenly felt his whole body turning stiff in an instant and he felt as though he was losing control of his body.

Jiro watched his father's hand hanging in the air for a short while without pressing the activation button. At this time, he quickly asked, "Dad, are you feeling too excited?"

Masao could not speak and he could only whimper twice as hard as he possibly could. At this time, he felt that it was very difficult to breathe and he was about to suffocate to death!

When Jiro turned around to look at his father, he was utterly shocked!

His father's face had already turned black and purple and all the blood vessels on his neck and forehead were popping out. It was a very terrifying sight!

Jiro panicked and he blurted out, "Dad! What's wrong with you?"

Masao felt as though there was a pair of strong hands strangling his neck at this time. He looked at Jiro with a pained expression on his face before he said with all of his strength, "This...this medicine...is poisonous..."

After that, Masao suddenly lost all the strength in his body, then tilted his head and died while foaming at his mouth...

Chapter 484

The Terminal Lucidity Pill finally exerted its ultimate medicinal effect and killed Masao!

Masao did not even know that he was dying and that the medicine that he had taken was actually poison!

Jiro hurriedly pushed the car door open at this time as he yelled at the other family members who were about to board the other vehicles and said, "Dad has been poisoned! The magic medicine that my brother brought back is poisonous!"

When everyone heard his words, they felt as though they had just been struck by lightning!

A large group of people swarmed towards his Bentley and the family doctor also hurried over to check at this time.

It did not matter how you look at it because the old man was obviously dead!

At this time, Masao's expression was extremely distorted and terrifying! His complexion was black and his eyes were bloodshot with blood oozing out of them. His mouth was wide open and he died an extremely miserable death!

The family doctor stepped forward to check on Masao and he said in a trembling tone, "The chairman...he's really dead. He really died of poisoning! Was the magic medicine really poison?"

The members of the Kobayashi family felt as though they were all frozen in place at this time.

If the magic medicine was poison, then...they would have suffered a heavy loss!

Right now, the chairman of Kobayashi Pharma was dead and almost all the cash belonging to Kobayashi Pharma had already been remitted to the other party. What was even worse was the fact that more than seventy percent of this money was from bank loans! This way, Kobayashi Pharma would take more than eight to ten years just to repay their loan to the bank in the future! How could there possibly be any chance for a rapid development now?

It was conceived that the future of the Kobayashi Pharma was already bleak at this time!

Jiro had a very gloomy expression on his face.

However, even though he was very sad over his father's death, he was also feeling a little excitement in his heart.

This was because he knew that his brother, Ichiro, would never be able to threaten his position again in future.

Not only would he be unable to threaten him, but Jiro could also issue an order to kill him!

Killing his own father was a capital crime!

As long as Ichiro dared to set foot in Japan, he would be cut up into pieces!

No!

Even if he chose not to return to Japan, Jiro would send someone out to hunt him down and kill him!

As he thought about this, Jiro had a cold expression on his face as he said, "My brother, Ichiro, must be the one who planned to harm and kill my father! We can never forgive him for doing such a rebellious thing!"

The folk customs of Japan were very similar to those of China. In the traditions of these two countries, killing a person's own father was the biggest crime that anyone could ever commit!

Therefore, Jiro gritted his teeth and said, "No, I, Jiro Kobayashi, officially announce that I will give a cash reward of five billion yen to anyone who can kill Ichiro Kobayashi for his rebellious crime of murdering his own father! I will also temporarily take over the position of chairman of Kobayashi Pharma for the time being. Please spread the word to all the gang members in Japan and anywhere else that Ichiro could possibly be hiding!"

Five billion yen was approximately fifty million dollars and it was a huge amount.

Even though Kobayashi Pharma had just lost ten billion dollars and suffered a huge financial loss, it was still a world-renowned pharmaceutical company after all. Therefore, even if the journey ahead would be very difficult, Jiro felt that it was worth spending five billion yen in exchange for his brother's life.

This five billion yen would definitely be enough incentive for all the Japanese gangs to hunt Ichiro down!

As long as Ichiro was dead, Jiro would naturally end up as the official chairman of the company without any competition at all.

At this time, Ichiro's assistant was frightened to death and he quickly ran away from the airport in a hurry while no one was paying any attention to him. At the same time, he quickly made a phone call to Ichiro. As soon as the phone call was connected, he cried out immediately, "Mr. Kobayashi! Don't come back to Japan! You cannot come back to Japan! Your father is dead and your younger brother thinks that you killed him with the magic medicine that you brought back! Now, he's offering everyone a reward of five billion yen for your life!"

Chapter 485

Ichiro was utterly shocked when he heard his assistant's words!

His father was dead? He died after taking the magic medicine that he sent to him?

This...how could this be possible?

Could it be that the magic medicine was poison itself?

As he thought about it, Ichiro was really very angry and frightened. He wished that he could confront Charlie Wade in person!

Charlie Wade actually dared to cheat his family out of ten billion dollars and poison his old man to death? Wasn't he a little too cruel?

However, Ichiro knew that he would never be able to defeat Charlie Wade. So, what was the use of confronting him? His father was already dead and it would be completely impossible for him to resurrect him and bring him back to life. Ichiro also knew that it would be impossible for Charlie Wade to return the ten billion dollars to him..

At this time, Ichiro's assistant hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade, you should find a place to hide in Aurouss Hillll! Do not show your face for the time being. I am guessing that there will be many Japanese gang members and killers who would be going to Aurouss Hilll to hunt you down and kill you tomorrow!"

Ichiro could not help but panic and feel even more anxious after listening to his assistant's words.

This was terrible. His brother was offering a cash reward of five billion yen for his own head.

At this time, Ichiro suddenly remembered what Charlie Wade said before he left. At this time, Ichiro quickly begged Albert to bring him back to Charlie Wade. It seemed as though Charlie Wade had already expected something like this to happen..

That b*stard! He was the one who specifically set up this trap and poisoned his father to death!

At this time, Ichiro could not wait to smash Charlie Wade into pieces.

However, as he thought about it, Ichiro knew that he would never be able to return to Japan for the time being. Moreover, he would have nowhere to hide in Aurouss Hillll when the Japanese gang members came looking for him tomorrow...

It seemed as though Charlie Wade was his only chance of survival. After all, Charlie Wade had a strong background in the country and no matter which Japanese gang members came at him, they could not possibly be Charlie Wade's opponent at all.

Therefore, Ichiro hurriedly begged Albert, "Don Albertt! Please! Could you please send me back to Mr. Wade? Please!"

Albert nodded faintly before he pulled the car over and walked over to the front passenger seat. After that, he opened the car door before he dragged Ichiro out and started punching and beating him without saying a single word at all.

After getting beaten up, Ichiro yelled, "Don Albertt, what are you doing?"

Albert simply replied, "This is what Mr. Wade had instructed me to do. He said that if you asked me to bring you back to him, I should beat you up first before bringing you back to see him!"

After that, Albert continued kicking and beating up Ichiro who was lying on the ground at this time.

Even though Albert was much older than Ichiro, he was a mobster boss and his physical fitness was different from an ordinary person's. After getting hit a few times, Ichiro was already feeling dizzy but he did not dare to say anything at all out of fear that Albert would just abandon him and leave him to die.

After beating him up, Albert dragged Ichiro up to his feet before throwing him into the car and heading back to the dog farm.

When they returned to the dog farm, Ichiro realized that his remaining five men had already been fed to the dogs. As soon as Ichiro was brought in front of Charlie Wade, Ichiro cried as he questioned Charlie Wade, "Mr. Wade, why did you use fake medicine to lie to us? My father is now dead and my brother is out to take my life to avenge my father's death! How could you be so vicious?"

Charlie Wade curled his lips before he said contemptuously, "You Japanese fool. Is there something wrong with your brains? When did I ever give you any fake medicine or lie to you?"

At this time, Ichiro said angrily, "My father suddenly died after taking your medicine. Do you really dare to say that it's not because of the medicine?"

Charlie Wade shrugged before he said, "Weren't you the one who robbed and took the medicine on your own? Do you even remember the whole process of this matter? You were the one who robbed and stole the medicine for yourself. Listen carefully, you were the one who stole the medicine in the first place! Do you understand me? I did not actually give you the medicine."

After that, Charlie Wade said once again, "You were the one who stole the poison all by yourself and you were the one who sent someone to deliver the poison to your father. After that, your father died after taking the poison that you delivered to him. This is all your own doing. So, what has it got to do with me? Was I the one who asked you to steal the poison from Dr. Simmons?"

Ichiro was left completely speechless at this time.

Charlie Wade was right. From the very beginning, he was the one who sent his men to rob and steal the medicine from Anthony. However, he really did not expect that the magical pills that he had stolen were not magic medicine but a form of poison instead!

Even if Anthony and Charlie Wade did indeed join forces to put him down, there was no way for him to sue them or get back at them at all. After all, he was indeed a robber and thief, with everything that happened being a result of his own responsibility and doing.

Therefore, Ichiro was certain that no one in his family, especially his own younger brother, would ever be able to forgive him. They would definitely charge him with the crime of killing his own father!

As he thought about this, Ichiro knelt down before Charlie Wade as he cried and begged, saying, "Mr. Wade, this incident is indeed my own doing! I have an evil heart and all of this happened because of my bad intentions. I was the one who sent my men to rob Dr. Simmons of his magic medicine. However, please save my life on the account that I've indirectly helped you earn ten billion dollars. Otherwise, I'd really be dead..."

Charlie Wade nodded before he said, "I can temporarily take you in and keep you safe at the dog farm for the time being. As long as you stay hidden in this dog farm, your brother and the Japanese gang members will never be able to find you."

Ichiro was utterly relieved and he quickly kowtowed in front of Charlie Wade as he said, "Thank you, Mr. Wade. Thank you, Mr. Wade!"

Charlie Wade said, "I accept your gratitude but you shouldn't be sitting around and waiting for your own death. You have to help out and earn your keep here."

After that, Charlie Wade continued speaking, "Why don't we do this then? You'll help out at the dog farm by raising the dogs, walking the dogs, and disposing of the dogs' excrement."

Even though Ichiro was very unhappy with this arrangement, he did not dare to say anything at this moment. Therefore, he simply nodded repeatedly before he said, "No problem, Mr. Wade. I'll definitely get all that done."

Charlie Wade nodded in satisfaction before he said to Albert, "Albert, go ahead and make all the necessary arrangements for me. Let him stay and help you out at the dog farm for the time being, as well as keep an eye on him on my behalf."

Albert replied respectfully, "Mr. Wade, don't worry. I will get everything sorted out immediately."

Charlie Wade nodded before he said, "Ichiro, you can go with Albert now."

Ichiro quickly stood up before he followed Albert out into the darkness with a grateful expression on his face.

After they left, Isaac stepped forward before he asked carefully, "Mr. Wade, are you really going to keep this little Japanese here at the dog farm?"

Charlie Wade smiled before he replied, "I will just keep him here for the time being as I wait for his brother to raise the price for his head. For his brother, as long as Ichiro is still alive, his position as the chairman of Kobayashi Pharma will never be stable. Therefore, the more he is unable to find Ichiro, the more anxious and desperate he would be to find out. I will sell his brother to him when he raises the price for his brother's head to one or two billion dollars."

Isaac was surprised and he said, "If that's the case, then Ichiro will certainly be dead!"

"He deserves to die!" Charlie Wade sneered. "Kobayashi Pharma has been plagiarizing ancient Chinese medicine repeatedly and this time, Ichiro even came to Aurouss Hilll to steal the medicine from Dr. Simmons. It has already been ages since they invaded our country and they actually dare to steal from us now? I have to ensure that they pay the consequences for their own actions. Otherwise, we'll definitely be made fun of for not standing up for ourselves!"

Isaac replied, "Mr. Wade, don't you think this is a form of kidnapping? Moreover, you've already misrepresented ten billion dollars out of them! They've also lost their father's life because of this. Hasn't the Kobayashi family paid enough for their crimes?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly before he said, "Of course this isn't enough. I have to make Ichiro pay for what he has done! Otherwise, he'll think that he can just come to Aurouss Hilll and cheat, deceive, and steal whenever he wants to! He must be dreaming if he thinks that he'll be able to keep his life after everything he has done!"

Chapter 487

Ichiro did not know what Charlie Wade was planning when he took him in. He did not even know that Charlie Wade was planning to sell him to his brother.

Charlie Wade did not have any sympathy for Ichiro at all. On the contrary, Charlie Wade hated Ichiro from the depths of his heart.

Fortunately, he had been on guard. Otherwise, things would be terrible if Anthony's magical pills had been stolen and taken away by Ichiro.

Even though Charlie Wade was not sure whether the Japanese would be able to analyze his own prescription, he thought that it would definitely breed chaos if they succeeded in figuring out his prescription.

Therefore, in Charlie Wade's opinion, the Japanese should be blamed for their own actions!

Whether it was the six men dressed in black, Masao in Tokyo, or Ichiro who was about to die, all of them could only blame themselves for their deaths!

Isaac drove Charlie Wade home before dawn.

This time, Isaac had a brand new understanding of Charlie Wade's strength.

He had originally thought that Charlie Wade was just a down-to-earth young lord who had been living outside the Wade family. Now that he had been found, his greatest support was none other than the Wade family.

However, Isaac would have never expected the down-to-earth young lord to actually have such incredible strength and power!

Not only did many wealthy and powerful people from the upper class society in Aurouss Hillll look up to him and treat him with respect but Charlie Wade was even able to use his own tactics to destroy Kobayashi Pharma just to teach them a lesson.

The Kobayashi family had even given Charlie Wade ten billion dollars while Charlie Wade also took Masao's life as payment for his crimes. Moreover, it would not be long before Ichiro lost his life too.

This made Isaac feel a new form of admiration for Charlie Wade and he also felt intense fear in the depths of his heart.

At this time, Charlie Wade was very quiet as he sat in the back of the car.

As he was about to arrive at home, Charlie Wade suddenly said, "Isaac, remember not to report anything about today's affairs to the Wade family."

Isaac hurriedly nodded before he said respectfully, "Mr. Wade, you can rest assured that I will definitely keep my mouth shut!"

Isaac was just a spokesperson for the Wade family in the Aurous province but there were dozens or probably hundreds of other spokespersons just like him all over the country and the world who were working for the Wade family.

Therefore, it was actually very difficult for Isaac to climb up the ladder.

However, since Charlie Wade was now in Aurouss Hillll, this was his best opportunity to prove himself and climb up the ladder! If Charlie Wade appreciated him, then when Charlie Wade finally decided to return to Eastcliff and reunite with the Wade family, Isaac would definitely be able to ride on his success when Charlie Wade inherited the Wade family fortune.

Therefore, Isaac had already made a decision to serve and treat Charlie Wade like his one and only master.

Charlie Wade was very satisfied with his attitude and he asked, "By the way, have you heard of Kenneth from the Wilson family in Eastcliff and Kian from the Webb family in the south region? What's the current situation with them?"

Isaac was a very powerful figure in Aurouss Hilll. Before Charlie Wade appeared, Albert was already prepared to become his dog and serve him. Moreover, Isaac had a very powerful connection and intelligence network in Aurouss Hilll. Therefore, Charlie Wade was certain that Isaac would certainly know about these things.

Isaac casually replied, "Kenneth has gone to the Silverwing Hospital tonight and it seems as though his penis is ulcerating. The doctor said that more than eighty percent of it can no longer be saved and the doctor suggested that he amputate it. I heard that Kenneth brought a bunch of men over to settle the score with the Weaver family."

Charlie Wade smiled before he said, "I guess Kenneth had really taken some random medicine, didn't he?"

"Yes," Isaac replied. "It is said that the Weaver family developed a new drug and he was the first person to try it but something went wrong."

Chapter 488

Charlie Wade nodded.

Kenneth's situation was very clear to him. He had directly destroyed his nerves with infuriating energy. In other words, he would never be able to regain and restore his manhood in this lifetime. Anthony did not give him the magical pills, but even if Anthony had given him the pills, it would be completely useless.

If Kenneth insisted on taking any medicine indiscriminately to try and restore his own manhood, it would only allow the medicine to continue accumulating in the nerves, which would ultimately lead to tissue necrosis.

It seemed as though the Weaver family was really in deep trouble this time. Kenneth was not only a difficult person, but he was also an evil person. He would never give up until he had completely destroyed the Weaver family.

At this time, Isaac said, "The second young lord of the Webb family is now locked up at Castle Peak Psychiatric Hospital. It is said that he had come down with a very strange disease. He has to eat sh*t every hour and if he does not, he'd feel as if he's dying. His father and brother had already flown into Aurouss Hilll overnight and they brought many mental and medical experts with them but it seems to be completely useless. Now, they can barely sustain his life by feeding him sh*t every hour."

As he spoke about this, Isaac sighed as he said, "I can actually be considered a very well-informed and well-read person but this is really the first time that I've ever heard of such a disease. If not for the videos that I've seen on social media, I'd never believe this to be true! This is really a very big and strange world!"

Charlie Wade nodded before he asked out of curiosity, "What are his father and brother doing?"

Isaac quickly replied, "The current head of the Webb family is Kian's grandfather, Lord Webb. However, even though Lord Webb is still the current head of the Webb family, as the eldest son, Kian's father, Donald Webb had already begun taking over the family business on a large scale. This is not that surprising considering the fact that he would possibly be the next head of the Webb family."

After that, Isaac continued speaking, "As for Kian's brother, Sean Webb, he has just graduated from Cambridge University the year before this and he has just begun to take over part of the family business under Donald's guidance. Donald regards Sean as his heir and he's nurturing Sean to take over his position in the far future."

Charlie Wade nodded as he listened to Isaac's words. He knew that the Webb family had a relatively strong background and he knew that they could be considered as the most powerful family in the southern region. However, he was not afraid of the Webb family at all.

He taught the second young lord of the Webb family a lesson because their son was a brutal and heartless scumbag. If the Webb family was not convinced and intended to pursue an investigation into the matter, then Charlie Wade really did not mind having some fun with them.

At this time, Isaac's car stopped in front of Charlie Wade's house.

Charlie Wade pushed the car door open before he said slightly, "You have been running around all night. Thank you for your hard work. You should go back and have some rest now."

Isaac nodded in a hurry before he said, "Thank you for your concern, Mr. Wade!"

After getting out of the car, the sky was already getting brighter.

When Charlie Wade entered his house, he noticed that his wife, Claire Wilson Wilson, and his father-in-law were still fast asleep.

He returned to his bedroom and he was relieved when he saw Claire Wilson Wilson sleeping soundly in bed.

Because of the Apocalyptic Book, Charlie Wade's mental state was always very good and at its most optimum. Therefore, he would not feel tired at all even if he did not get to sleep all night. At this time, Charlie Wade took out the three-hundred-year-old purple ginseng that he bought for a hundred million dollars from the auction last night. After that, he carefully observed it for a few moments.

The superb purple ginseng had great medicinal strength and it was more than enough for Charlie Wade to refine an even better rejuvenating pill.

The medicinal effect of this rejuvenating pill was very magical and it could even bring the dead back to life!

If a dying person took this rejuvenating pill, he could be brought back to life and live for several years more!

Moreover, if a person took this pill in their twilight years, they could possibly prolong their lives for another ten years or more.

Even if a healthy person took this pill, they could instantly make their body stronger, prevent diseases, and also make their own body resistant to all sorts of poison. To an ordinary person, this rejuvenating pill could be regarded as the most magical among all magic medicine.

Charlie Wade's body was already much stronger compared to any ordinary person's but if he made a rejuvenating pill and took it regularly, he could regulate his own body and he would be able to push his potential even further!

Therefore, Charlie Wade decided to take some time today to prepare all the remaining herbs and materials that he needed to refine the rejuvenating pills!

Chapter 489

Claire Wilson Wilson woke up at around seven in the morning.

As soon as Charlie Wade heard some movements, he hurriedly pretended to be asleep as he laid motionlessly on the floor.

After getting up, Claire Wilson Wilson stretched as she got out of bed quietly. When she looked at Charlie Wade, who was sleeping on the floor at this time, Claire Wilson Wilson could not help but feel a little distressed.

Ever since Charlie Wade married her and became the son-in-law of the Wilson family, he had been sleeping on the floor for more than three years.

When they first got married, Claire Wilson Wilson really did not care much about Charlie Wade and she did not have any feelings for him.

However, after spending so many years with him, Claire Wilson Wilson did not know why she felt particularly safe with Charlie Wade by her side.

Sometimes, Claire Wilson Wilson was even afraid that Charlie Wade would suddenly leave her.

In this recent period of time, so much had happened at home and it made Claire Wilson Wilson even more certain that Charlie Wade was actually the only person she could actually rely on the most in this world. Aside from Charlie Wade, all of her close relatives were not reliable at all.

Of course, there was no need to even mention her grandmother and the rest of her relatives. They did not consider her as part of their family at all.

As for her own mother, Claire Wilson Wilson was also completely speechless. In her mother's eyes, Claire Wilson Wilson was simply just a tool for her to reach the pinnacle of life and lead a rich and wealthy life. Even though Claire Wilson Wilson had already been married to Charlie Wade for more than three years, Elaine Ma was still hoping that Claire Wilson Wilson and Charlie Wade would get a divorce just so Claire Wilson Wilson would be able to marry a rich man.

Moreover, Claire Wilson Wilson's father was a confused man and it would be great if he did not cause any trouble for them outside, let alone provide her with any support at all those critical moments.

Therefore, Claire Wilson Wilson felt most at ease and secure with Charlie Wade, who was sleeping on the floor at this time.

Claire Wilson Wilson's heart was surging and beating frantically as she looked at Charlie Wade. At this time, her bedroom door was suddenly pushed open.

As soon as she looked up, Claire Wilson Wilson saw her mother, Elaine Ma, rushing aggressively into her bedroom dressed in her pajamas.

Claire Wilson Wilson could not help but ask, "Mom, what are you doing? Why did you barge in without knocking on the door first?"

Elaine Ma quickly ran over to the other side of the bed before she looked down and saw Charlie Wade, who was fast asleep on the floor. At this time, she heaved a huge sigh of relief before she muttered, "I had a nightmare. I dreamt that you were pregnant with Charlie Wade's child. Oh my god! That almost scared me to death. Therefore, I had to come over to check if Charlie Wade is sleeping on your bed! Fortunately, he isn't!"

At this time, Elaine Ma massaged her chest gently as she said, "Let me tell you something, Claire Wilson Wilson. You must never let Charlie Wade up on your bed! Do you hear me?"

Claire Wilson Wilson was a little annoyed and she said, "Mom, Charlie Wade and I are already husband and wife. So, our sleeping arrangement is none of your business!"

"My a*s!" Elaine Ma yelled as she placed her hands on her hips. "I was the one who gave birth to you so everything that you do is my business! I will not allow a piece of trash to take advantage of my daughter's body!"

Claire Wilson Wilson replied angrily, "Mom! Charlie Wade saved your life!"

At this time, Elaine Ma left one hand on her hip as she swung her other hand and replied indignantly, "Don't talk to me about that useless piece of trash! I, your mother, have been living in this world for such a long time and the only thing that I've ever relied on is being heartless!"

After that, Elaine Ma said, "Claire Wilson Wilson, you have to be a smart girl. The most valuable thing that you own is your body! With such a perfect body and beautiful face, you'll definitely be able to marry a billionaire after you divorce Charlie Wade in the future! Wouldn't our family be living a good life then?"

Claire Wilson Wilson flicked her quilt angrily before she said, "I can't be bothered to continue arguing with you. I'm going to wash up now."

"Hey, you kid..." Elaine Ma hurriedly chased after Claire Wilson Wilson as she wanted to continue educating her.

After the both of them left the bedroom, Charlie Wade opened his eyes with a sullen feeling in his heart. This devil mother-in-law of his was really a terrible person! He would have no choice but to teach her a lesson someday!

Chapter 490

At half past seven in the morning, Charlie Wade pretended that he had just woken up. After washing up, he went out to buy something before he came home.

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly headed to her office after eating breakfast. After that, Elaine Ma put down the dishes before she dragged her husband, Jacob Wilson, out to visit the villa at Thompson First with her. She was already starting to lose her patience since it was taking such a long time for the renovations at the villa to be completed.

Jacob Wilson was very unwilling to go and he tried to persuade her, "There are several floors in the villa and it adds up to more than a thousand square meters. The renovation and decorating job for the villa must be really very laborious. It should probably take more than half a year for them to be done with the renovation works. It's useless even if you are anxious."

Elaine Ma replied in a dissatisfied manner, "I don't care! I have already lived in this broken house for long enough. If the renovations aren't completed by next month, then I'd rather sleep in the uncompleted villa instead of staying here a minute longer!"

After that, Elaine Ma urged Jacob Wilson immediately, "Stop talking nonsense! Change out of your clothes and drive me over to have a look at the villa. Hurry up! Otherwise, I'll get rid of all the antiques you've brought back home!"

Jacob Wilson did not pursue much in his life and the only thing that he was really interested in was antiques. Even though he was always getting scammed and even though he spent a lot of money buying plenty of useless items, he somehow felt that the things that he bought were in fact all very valuable. Even if they were not valuable at all now, he was certain that they would certainly be very valuable after waiting a few years. Therefore, he had always regarded all of his items as some sort of rare treasure.

Jacob Wilson immediately relented and gave in as soon as he heard Elaine Ma threatening to throw all his treasures away. "Okay, okay. I'll accompany you there, alright?"

Elaine Ma pushed him before she said, "Then, what are you still waiting for? Hurry up and change into your clothes!"

Jacob Wilson cried out at this time, "I have not finished eating half of my crullers yet! Just let me finish my meal first!"

"Eat, eat, and eat! All you know how to do is to eat!" Elaine Ma said out of annoyance. "You're becoming as useless as Charlie Wade! All you do is eat and sleep, eat, and sleep! What other things have you done in your life?"

At this time, Jacob Wilson replied with a gloomy expression on his face, "Okay, fine. I'll stop eating."

After he was done speaking, Jacob Wilson quickly got up to change his clothes.

When he returned after, Elaine Ma urged him to leave the house immediately.

When Charlie Wade saw that his entire family had already gone out, he quickly took out his cell phone before he called Graham to ask him to send over more than thirty types of medicinal herbs and materials. He wanted to refine his rejuvenating pill as soon as he possibly could!

Graham naturally agreed to send the herbs over to him and told him that he would deliver the herbs and materials to him as soon as possible.

As soon as he hung up, Charlie Wade suddenly received a phone call from Anthony.

As soon as the call was connected, Anthony said respectfully, "Mr. Wade, did you manage to catch the Japanese man who tried to steal the medicine from me yesterday?"

"Yes, we caught them," Charlie Wade replied. "I simply laid out the trap for them but I really did not expect them to jump right into it."

Anthony was also surprised and he quickly said, "Mr. Wade, I heard some of my friends in the medical circle saying that the chairman of Kobayashi Pharma, Mr. Masao Kobayashi, passed away early this morning from a sudden illness. Is this incident related to the four pills that you gave to me that day?"

At this time, Charlie Wade replied faintly, "Yes, Mr. Masao Kobayashi died after he took one of the four pills that I gave you. In fact, those pills aren't actually miracle medicine but are actually poison."

Anthony had already anticipated that there would certainly be a problem with the pills that Charlie Wade had given to him. As soon as he heard

Charlie Wade's words, he could not help but exclaim, "Mr. Wade, you're really incredible! If you did not plan all of this ahead of time, then the magical pills that you had given to me would have already been taken away by the Japanese man..."

As they were talking, Charlie Wade suddenly heard the voice of Anthony's granddaughter, Xyla speaking in the background, "Grandpa! The brothers from the Weaver family, Jeffrey and Liam, are here to see you!"

"The Weaver family?" Anthony could not help but frowned. "Why are they here to see me?"

When Charlie Wade heard this, he simply smiled and said, "I heard that Kenneth's nerves have begun to fester after taking the medicine created by the Weaver family. I think that they are probably here to beg you to help them."

At this time, Anthony immediately replied, "Mr. Wade, don't worry. I know that the b*stard, Kenneth, was very disrespectful towards you. Therefore, even if he were to die in front of me, I would not lift a finger to help him!"

Chapter 491

At this time, Jeffrey and Liam were stopped by the staff of Serene World Clinic.

"Excuse me, did you make an appointment for your visit today?"

The guy asked as he looked at Jeffrey very vigilantly.

He had never seen Jeffrey before and there had been too many messy and inappropriate people coming to Serene World Clinic to look for Anthony in the past two days. Therefore, the young man did not dare to let anyone in so casually.

Jeffrey hurriedly replied, "Hello, young brother. I am Jeffrey, the young lord of the Weaver family. Please inform the genius doctor, Dr. Simmons, that I admit I must have offended him at the Chinese Medical Expo the other day. The reason I'm here today is to apologize to Dr. Simmons and I really hope that he'll be able to give me an opportunity to apologize to him in person."

The young man replied coldly, "Dr. Simmons has said he won't be seeing anyone who does not have an appointment with him! So, please leave immediately!"

"You should at least be speaking politely to me. I am still the young lord of the Weaver family anyway. Let me tell..."

"Sorry, but none of us at Serene World Clinic know of the Weaver family. Please leave immediately. Otherwise, I have no choice but to call the police!"

The young man did not want to give up and he could not be bothered to show Jeffrey any respect. Therefore, he was chasing him out of the clinic at this time.

"Don't do this to me, brother. We can talk things out nicely..." Jeffrey started panicking at this time.

The reason why he came here today was to beg Anthony to take action to save Kenneth.

If Kenneth's penis continued festering to the point where he needed amputation, then the Weaver family would definitely have to pay for it!

In the eyes of the Weaver family, Anthony was probably the only person who would be able to save Kenneth now.

Even though Jeffrey would be asking an extravagant request from Anthony, as long as Anthony could cure Kenneth, the Weaver family would also be able to escape from a disaster!

Therefore, Jeffrey placed all of his hopes on Anthony.

If his father found out that he did not even get to see Anthony in person, he would definitely be furious.

At the same time, Liam, the illegitimate son of the Weaver family, simply stood at the side without saying anything at all.

This time, his father, Jordan, had already said that whoever could solve this crisis would succeed him as the chairman of Weaver Pharmaceuticals. Therefore, the first thing that came to Liam's mind was to seek Anthony's help.

However, he did not expect Jeffrey to have the same idea and since he had run into his brother at the clinic, he could only become a follower and assistant to his elder brother.

Jeffrey wanted to see Anthony as soon as possible, so he opened his mouth and yelled into the Serene World Clinic, "Dr. Simmons, we need your help to save a life! Please let us in!"

The young man was very angry at this time. "I've already told you that Dr. Simmons is not seeing anyone without an appointment! Don't you think it's very shameless for you to be screaming in this manner?"

At this time, Anthony had just ended his phone call with Charlie Wade and he stepped out of his consultation room.

He walked towards the door before he stared coldly at the Weaver brothers as he said, "Why are both of you causing trouble at Serene World Clinic?"

When Jeffrey saw Anthony, he quickly pushed the young man aside before he hurriedly said, "Dr. Simmons, I am Jeffrey from the Weaver family. I really need your help!"

Anthony simply glared at him before he said, "I remember you. I saw you being very disrespectful towards Mr. Wade at the Chinese Medicine Expo the other day. Now, you actually have the audacity to come and create trouble at my clinic?"

Jeffrey hurriedly begged, "Don't get me wrong, Dr. Simmons. I was confused and I know that I offended Mr. Wade at the Chinese Medicine Expo the other day. That is entirely my fault. However, I ask that you have mercy and forgive me for my mistake."

"Impossible," Anthony replied coldly. "Mr. Wade has been very kind to me all this while. The fact that you offended him is even more serious than if you had offended me. So, no matter what you're about to ask of me, I will never do it for you. Please leave this place immediately."

After he was done speaking, Anthony turned around as he was ready to chase them away.

Jeffrey panicked and started begging, "I'm really sorry for what I did, Dr. Simmons. I know that it was my mistake. It's my fault. I have no complaints at all if you want to hit or scold me. It's just that the Weaver family has encountered a huge crisis this time. Could you really bear to see the Weaver family completely destroyed just like that?"

Anthony replied coldly, "Sorry, but I'm not that familiar with you at all. Moreover, your family has nothing to do with me. Please leave immediately."

As soon as he heard Anthony's words, Jeffrey hurriedly snatched the brocade box from Liam before he handed it over to Anthony and said respectfully, "Dr. Simmons, this is just a token of my appreciation. It is a piece of Hetian jade worth more than five million dollars! Please accept it!"

Anthony did not even look at the so-called Hetian jade before he said unceremoniously, "Don't tell me how it's worth five million dollars. I won't accept it even if it's worth fifty million dollars or five hundred million dollars! Take it with you and leave immediately! You are not welcomed here!"

At this time, Liam, who had been keeping silent all this time, sighed softly as he knelt on the ground directly before he started begging Anthony bitterly, "Dr. Simmons, please be merciful and save the Weaver family. I will kowtow to you as a form of gratitude for your kindness towards our family."

Anthony got a little less angry after seeing Liam's pious appearance.

Compared to the arrogant and conceited Jeffrey, Liam was obviously better educated and more polite. Both brothers were the opposite of each other.

Jeffrey glared at Liam, filled with dissatisfaction in his heart. He cursed silently in his heart at this time, 'This b*stard is really good at putting on an act! He's actually kneeling down and kowtowing in front of Dr. Simmons? Perhaps he wants to steal the credit and covets the position of the head of the family!'

As he thought about this, Jeffrey kicked Liam aside before he yelled, "You're just an illegitimate child. What qualifications do you have to kneel on behalf of the Weaver family? If there's anyone who's going to kneel on behalf of the Weaver family, that person would be me!"

Even though Liam was kicked to the ground, he did not complain or say anything at all. Instead, he hurriedly got up before he patted off the dirt on his body before he stood aside in a humble manner.

At this time, Jeffrey quickly knelt down on his knees as he begged, "Dr. Simmons, you should have heard that Kenneth's illness did not get better but instead deteriorated after taking the medication concocted by the Weaver family. Now that his penis is rotting, he's threatening to destroy the Weaver family! You're the only person who can save the Weaver family now!"

Anthony had already known the purpose of their visit to him today and even after listening to Jeffrey's explanation, he turned down their request once again without any hesitation at all. "You want me to save Kenneth? Let me tell you, it's absolutely impossible! Both you and Kenneth have repeatedly disrespected Mr. Wade. Even if you were to tell me that the sky is falling down on me, I won't lift a single finger to help him!"

After he was done speaking, Anthony told his staff in a cold manner, "Okay, get these two men out of my clinic now!"

Immediately afterwards, Anthony turned around and walked further inside Serene World Clinic without even turning his head back.

Even though it is said that a healer should have a parental heart, no one should be required to do good for the wicked.

The staff quickly kicked Liam and Jeffrey out at this time before he said, "If both of you dare to appear at Serene World Clinic again, I will call the police immediately!"

Jeffrey had a very ugly expression on his face as he stood at the entrance of Serene World Clinic.

Aside from Anthony, there weren't any other genius doctors in Aurouss Hill who would be able to cure Kenneth.

Therefore, Kenneth's illness might deteriorate and worsen, and the Weaver family would completely lose all hope then!

At this time, Liam asked in a low voice, "Brother, what should we do now?"

Jeffrey glanced at Liam in disgust before he slapped him and said, "Liam, how many times do I have to tell you not to call me your brother? You're a b*stard child and you aren't worthy of being my brother!"

After that, Jeffrey glared at him with a contemptuous expression on his face before he said, "I'm going to look for someone else to find a way out of this issue. You can go back on your own!"

After that, Jeffrey got into his limousine before driving away immediately.

Liam stood there for a moment with anger in his eyes.

After that, he reached his arms into his pocket before he touched something that he had hidden with him for more than ten years. After a short while, it seemed as though he had made some sort of decision as he secretly gritted his teeth before he turned around and entered Serene World Clinic again...

Chapter 493

When the staff member saw that Liam had entered Serene World Clinic again, he scowled before he said, "Why are you back here again? Please leave now! You are not welcomed here!"

Liam begged, "Brother, I have something that I'd like to say to Dr. Simmons in person. I'll leave as soon as I say my words."

The staff member frowned before he said, "Dr. Simmons has already said that he does not want to see you. Why are you still being so thick-skinned?"

Liam knelt on the ground before he yelled, "Dr. Simmons, I am Liam and I would like to speak to you face to face. Please be merciful and listen to me for a short while. If you refuse to see me, I will just kneel and wait outside until you decide to meet me!"

At this time, Anthony had already walked into the consultation room at the back of Serene World Clinic. However, he could not help but sigh when he heard Liam's voice.

He had already been in contact with the illegitimate child of the Weaver family a couple of times and Anthony could tell that he was indeed very educated and polite.

Moreover, Anthony also felt that Liam's situation in the Weaver family was really worthy of sympathy.

As soon as Anthony heard Liam's words, he also felt compassionate and slightly moved.

Therefore, he came out of the consultation room and when he saw that Jeffrey had already left and Liam was all alone at the entrance of the clinic, he said, "You can come in and meet me."

"Thank you, Dr. Simmons!" Liam was overjoyed at this time. He got up in a hurry before he followed Anthony towards the back of the clinic.

As soon as they entered the back hall, Liam immediately took out a slender wooden box made of mahogany from his pockets. After that, he opened the wooden box, revealing a whole piece of snow white ginseng.

After that, Liam offered the ginseng to Anthony with both hands as he blurted out, "Dr. Simmons, this is the thousand-year-old snow white ginseng that my mother left me before she passed away. I want to dedicate this piece of thousand-year-old snow white ginseng to Mr. Wade so he can have mercy on me and help the Weaver family on my behalf!"

Anthony was stunned when he saw the snow white ginseng.

It turned out to be really a thousand-year-old snow white ginseng!

Anthony had only ever seen and read a description of this type of ginseng in classical medical books.

He even thought that such a thing did not exist in this world and believed that the snow white ginseng could only live for up to a hundred years old at most.

Even though this piece of snow white ginseng was not very long, its whole body was already a little translucent and this was because it had already been waxed. A normal piece of ginseng would not normally wax and therefore, it was obvious that this was indeed a ginseng that was more than a thousand year old!

This made Anthony conclude that this snow white ginseng was definitely more than a thousand years old!

Unexpectedly, this thing really existed in this world!

At this time, he could not help but asked in surprise, "This...this is really yours? Why do you have such precious medicinal materials in your possession?"

Liam nodded before he said earnestly, "Dr. Simmons, to tell you the truth, my mother is a native of Mount Golmin. My ancestors and my grandfather have been collecting medicinal herbs on Mount Golmin for generations. This thousand-year-old snow white ginseng has actually been handed down in my mother's family for many generations. It is one of our family's most prized possession."

After that, Liam said once again, "When my father, Jordan Weaver, just started his medicinal material business, he often came to Mount Golmin to gather medicinal herbs and materials. He lied about being a single man and deceived my mother. After my mother got pregnant and gave birth to me, he left us all alone. I grew up and spent most of my life on Mount Golmin..."

"When my mother fell seriously ill and was about to pass away, she was afraid that I would be left alone in this world. Therefore, she secretly contacted my grandfather and since I am one of the descendants of the Weaver family, my grandfather did not want me to live outside alone. At that time, my grandfather ordered my father to pick me up from Mount Golmin and bring me back to the Weaver family."

"Before my mother passed away, she left me this piece of thousand-year-old snow white ginseng and told me to keep it with me at all times in preparation for any emergencies. Now that the Weaver family is facing such a huge crisis, I am more than willing to dedicate this thousand-year-old snow white ginseng to Mr. Wade if he would just lend a helping hand to our family!"

Anthony was utterly speechless because he was extremely shocked.

He had always known that Liam was an illegitimate child but he did not know that there was such a story behind it.

Chapter 494

Liam had never told anyone about his life. Anthony was the first person that he ever told his story to.

Ever since he was brought back to the Weaver family, Liam had always been insulted and humiliated by everyone around him.

Since his childhood, his father, Jordan, and his half-brother, Jeffrey, had always hated him. He had always been scolded, beaten, and subjected to various sorts of humiliations but he had slowly gotten used to it.

He had been very patient as he slowly waited for the day when he would finally be able to find a suitable opportunity to get out of his dark and miserable situation.

Since the Weaver family was suffering from such a huge crisis and since Jordan had already officially announced that the position of chairman of Weaver Pharmaceuticals would be given to anyone who could resolve this crisis, Liam decided that he should take advantage of this opportunity to use the thousand-year-old snow white ginseng that he had kept hidden for more than twenty years to turn his life around!

This thousand-year-old snow white ginseng was priceless.

The normal price for the three-hundred-year-old purple ginseng that Charlie Wade and Kenneth competed for previously was estimated to be around thirty million dollars.

This thousand-year-old snow white ginseng could be sold for at least one hundred million dollars ordinarily. If someone were to fight for it, it would not be uncommon for it to be sold for at least three hundred million dollars.

Liam was willing to hand this thousand-year-old snow white ginseng to Charlie Wade so Charlie Wade would be able to resolve the crisis that the Weaver family was facing. If he could successfully resolve the crisis, then he would finally be able to take over the position of chairman of Weaver Pharmaceuticals.

Anthony was shocked by this thousand-year-old snow white ginseng.

He knew that Charlie Wade had the ability to refine and concoct medicine and he knew that this thousand-year-old snow white ginseng would definitely be of great help to Charlie Wade.

Therefore, he immediately took out his cell phone to call Charlie Wade.

At this time, Charlie Wade had just received the medicinal herbs and materials from Graham. After that, he combined the three-hundred-year-old purple ginseng with all the other medicinal herbs and materials to make about thirty Rejuvenating Pills.

As soon as he was done making the Rejuvenating Pills, Charlie Wade suddenly received a phone call from Anthony.

As soon as the call was connected, Anthony's voice sounded on the other end of the line. "Mr. Wade, Liam, the illegitimate son of the Weaver family is asking for your help. If you can help the Weaver family to tide over the crisis they are facing, he's willing to give you a thousand-year-old snow white ginseng!"

"A thousand year old snow white ginseng? Is it true?"

Charlie Wade was very surprised. The three-hundred-year-old purple ginseng was already a very rare medicinal herb. Moreover, the snow white ginseng was even more precious and rarer than the purple ginseng itself.

What's more, the thousand-year-old snow white ginseng was definitely regarded as a treasure in the medical field.

In fact, Charlie Wade was a little excited when he heard about the thousand-year-old snow white ginseng. He had read in the Apocalyptic Book that even snow white ginseng that was more than five hundred years old was already a treasure of heaven with an extremely strong aura. If he could get his hands on it, then he would definitely be able to improve his strength and his abilities.

At this time, Anthony quickly said, "To be honest, Mr. Wade, this is the first time that I am seeing a thousand-year-old snow white ginseng for myself. Therefore, I am not really sure whether it is really a thousand years old. However, I can be certain that it is definitely more than five hundred years old."

Charlie Wade hummed before he praised Anthony, "Dr. Simmons, you did a good job with this matter. In fact, I just made a new pill that will be able to make you ten times younger than you are! I will pass you one of these pills!"

When Anthony heard Charlie Wade's voice, he trembled in excitement as he said respectfully, "Mr. Wade, you are really too kind to me. In fact, I am only doing what I need to do. It is my responsibility..."

Charlie Wade smiled before he said, "Dr. Simmons, I've told you that I will always reward and punish people accordingly. If you do things for me, I will naturally not forget to give you credit for it. You can bring Liam to me now and I will reward you in the future."

After that, Charlie Wade said once again, "Why don't you bring Liam over to see me now so I can determine the authenticity of his thousand-year-old snow white ginseng?"

Anthony replied immediately, "Okay, Mr. Wade! I will bring him over immediately!"

Chapter 495

Anthony hung up the phone before he told Liam, "Mr. Wade has already agreed to meet you. You can come with me now."

When Liam heard this, he immediately showed an expression of gratitude as he bowed before Anthony and said, "Thank you for your generosity and help, Dr. Simmons!"

Anthony waved his hand before he said, "I'm just lending Mr. Wade a hand. You don't need to thank me. If Mr. Wade is willing to help you, then you can just thank him directly."

Liam nodded in a hurry before he said, "Okay, should we leave now, Dr. Simmons?"

Anthony nodded before he called out to his granddaughter, Xyla, as he said, "Xyla! Can you drive us over to Mr. Wade's house?"

When Xyla heard that her grandfather was going to see Charlie Wade, she was very excited and she quickly said, "Grandpa, let's go over now! We wouldn't want Mr. Wade to wait so long!"

After that, Liam took his thousand-year-old snow white ginseng with him before he followed Anthony and Xyla out of Serene World Clinic. After that, they got into a new Audi that Xyla had recently bought.

After Anthony made the decision to stay in Aurouss Hilll, Xyla had decided to buy this car so it would be more convenient for her to travel around with her grandfather.

Xyla drove towards Charlie Wade's house and within ten minutes, they were already in front of Charlie Wade's house.

At this time, Anthony looked at Liam before he gave him a gentle reminder. "Your brother had some conflicts with Mr. Wade in the past. You must remember not to be disrespectful towards Mr. Wade when you see him later."

Liam nodded hurriedly before he said, "You don't need to worry, Dr. Simmons. I would never dare disrespect Mr. Wade!"

"Okay." Anthony knew that Liam and his arrogant brother were two completely different people. So, he simply nodded before he pressed the doorbell.

Charlie Wade quickly opened the door. As soon as they saw Charlie Wade, Anthony and Xyla hurriedly bowed before they greeted him respectfully, "Hello, Mr. Wade!"

Liam also hurriedly saluted and greeted Charlie Wade respectfully, "Nice to meet you, Mr. Wade."

Charlie Wade nodded before he said, "You don't have to be so polite. Come in and have a seat so that we can talk."

The three of them quickly walked into the house.

As soon as they entered the house, the three of them could not help but look around the living room. This was the first time that they had ever visited Charlie Wade's house and they could not help but feel a little surprised. Charlie Wade had so many connections with all the upper class people in Aurouss Hilll and he had such a respectable status. So, why did he choose to live in such an ordinary residential building?

Liam also felt that Charlie Wade was unfathomable. He was obviously a very wealthy man who could easily spend one hundred million dollars at an auction and yet, he was living in such a simple environment.

Charlie Wade did not know what the three of them were thinking about and he simply pointed at the sofa before he said, "Please sit down."

The three of them nodded before they sat down directly opposite Charlie Wade.

Chapter 496

At this time Charlie Wade looked at Liam before he asked curiously, "I heard that you have something to ask me?"

Liam nodded hurriedly before he took out the wooden box containing the thousand-year-old snow white ginseng from his pocket and handed it over to Charlie Wade. After that, he said respectfully, "Mr. Wade, this thousand-year-old snow white ginseng is a family heirloom that was passed down in my mother's family for many generations. I've been carrying it close to me all these years but this kind of treasure can never reach its maximum potential in my hands. Therefore, after thinking about it, I've decided to dedicate it to you, Mr. Wade!"

Charlie Wade did not say anything and he simply opened the wooden box to look at the thousand-year-old snow white ginseng. At this time, he could see a piece of snow white ginseng with human-like roots and some wax surrounding it lying inside the box.

Moreover, with just a single glance, Charlie Wade could feel the strong and rich spiritual energy within the snow white ginseng. This was really a treasure of heaven and earth! It had survived for thousands of years between heaven and earth and had absorbed all the aura between heaven and earth. Furthermore, the thousand-year-old snow white ginseng originated from Mount Golmin, where it has always been very well protected and had an almost primitive ecology. Therefore, this was indeed a very pure snow white ginseng.

Charlie Wade could not help but feel a little excited. If he used this thousand-year-old snow white ginseng for himself, he would definitely be able to reach a new high potential for his own strength and ability. This was simply an opportunity he could not resist.

Therefore, Charlie Wade asked faintly, "So, what would you like me to do for you, Liam?"

Liam hurriedly replied, "Mr. Wade, you should know about the chairman of Modestway Group, Kenneth Wilson from Eastcliff. He lost his manhood some time ago and after taking a medicine prescribed by the Weaver family, his penis is starting to rot. The doctor is now saying that he can no longer keep his penis intact and that he would need to amputate it. If he really has to amputate his penis, then he'll definitely destroy the Weaver family! Therefore, I'd really like to ask for you to take action to help the Weaver family, Mr. Wade. If you can just cure Kenneth of his disease, then the Weaver family will definitely be able to survive this disaster..."

Charlie Wade smiled playfully at this time. Instead of directly replying to Liam, he asked him with a curious expression on his face, "I heard that you've suffered countless insults and humiliation in the Weaver family. So, why are you giving me this precious snow white ginseng at this time and begging me to help the Weaver family overcome this crisis?"

Liam confessed immediately, "Yes, I've suffered plenty of humiliation in the Weaver family throughout the years. To be completely honest with you, I have no feelings for the Weaver family at all. If my mother did not fall sick and pass away when I was still young, I would not have come to the Weaver family at all. I left Mount Golmin just to come to Aurouss Hilll..."

As he spoke about this, Liam suddenly became a little excited. He clenched his fists tightly together as he said, "The Weaver family has already insulted and humiliated me for so many years. The only reason why I'm still staying in the Weaver family is just so I'll be able to look for an opportunity to avenge myself for all the humiliation I've suffered and endured all this while! Furthermore, my father inflicted great harm upon my mother back then and I've always hoped to be able to make him lower his head in front of me. I want him to go up to Mount Golmin and visit my mother's grave to apologize to her for what he did!"

At this point, Liam was feeling a little agitated.

He choked as he said, "Mr. Wade, my mother was originally the only daughter of a family of herbal medicine collectors at the foot of Mount Golmin. Even though she did not come from a big family, she lived a good life because of the craftsmanship of their herbs and medicine. When the scum of my father came to Mount Golmin, he was immediately attracted to my mother because she was beautiful and young. Therefore, he easily deceived my mother as she was still very innocent and ignorant at that time. He fooled around with my mother when my mother thought that he would marry her in the end. Unexpectedly, he was only a scumbag who left when he found out that my mother was pregnant with his child..."

As he spoke about this, Liam continued telling Charlie Wade about everything that happened back then.

Liam's mother was pregnant without ever getting married and she was vilified in Mount Golmin when she was pregnant with Jordan's child. If it weren't because of her pregnancy, she would have ended her life a long time ago.

After Liam was born, he became a b*stard child that everyone living in the village at the foot of Mount Golmin would point and laugh at. The only warmth and safe haven that he had during his childhood was his mother.

However, his mother fell ill from overworking and all the accumulated resentment she was feeling. Therefore, she died when he was still a young boy.

Ever since Liam entered the Weaver family, he had never experienced a single good day.

His father looked down on his mother and so he also looked down on him. His stepmother and half-brother abused him, beat him, and humiliated him for more than twenty years. All this while, Liam had been holding in all the resentment that he was feeling just so he would be able to look for an opportunity to take revenge.

As he spoke about this, Liam looked at Charlie Wade before he said sincerely, "Mr. Wade, my father promised that the person who resolves this crisis will become the chairman of Weaver Pharmaceuticals. If you can help me become the chairman of Weaver Pharmaceuticals, I promise to work for you and obey all your commands for the rest of my life!"

Chapter 497

When Charlie Wade heard Liam's words, he suddenly felt that Liam was in a similar situation as he was.

Once upon a time, he was also an orphan and piece of trash who was humiliated and bullied by others.

His life only turned around when Stephen Thompson found him and handed Emgrand Group and a black card with tens of billions of dollars over to him.

Later, Charlie Wade finally had the opportunity to achieve greatness when he found the Apocalyptic Book by accident.

Once upon a time, he had also been cast aside by everyone. He had also been waiting for an opportunity to prove himself to everyone, as well as to slap all those who had despised him in the past!

Therefore, he could understand Liam's feelings very well.

Liam was a child who had been called a b*stard ever since he was a young boy. His mother died and even though he was brought into his own biological father's home, he was subjected to even greater torture and humiliation. After more than twenty years, the degree of tolerance in his heart had already increased greatly.

As he thought about this, Charlie Wade decided to help him. Charlie Wade wanted to help Liam to gain control of the entire Weaver family.

It just so happened that Liam's brother was his enemy. Moreover, Charlie Wade could also put the thousand-year old-snow white ginseng to good use for himself!

Therefore, Charlie Wade said, "Liam, since you want to take revenge so badly, I will definitely help you."

As soon as Liam heard his words, he knelt down on the ground with excitement before he slammed his head to the ground as he said, "Thank you, Mr. Wade. Thank you for your generosity! I will never forget it!"

Charlie Wade nodded before he helped him up and asked, "So, where is Kenneth now?"

"At the Weaver family mansion!" Liam replied in a hurry. "Since the ulceration on his penis cannot be treated, he can only temporarily receive anti-inflammatory and antibacterial treatments at the Weaver family mansion."

Charlie Wade nodded again before he said, "Alright then. If that is the case, then let's go and treat him now."

As he spoke, Charlie Wade said again, "However, I have to tell you this. I'm only going to cure the ulceration so that his penis does not rot any further. I will not restore his manhood for him."

Liam hurriedly replied, "Mr. Wade, don't worry! His manhood has nothing to do with the Weaver family at all! The Weaver family only needs to cure him of the ulceration and prevent his penis from rotting so that he does not need to amputate it!"

Charlie Wade smiled before he said, "Alright then. We can leave now."

Liam nodded excitedly before he said, "Okay, Mr. Wade!"

At this time, everyone was gathered in the Weaver family mansion's living room and they had extremely anxious expressions on their faces.

The deadline given by Kenneth was already near but it seemed as though no one had found a solution to solve Kenneth's troubles.

At this time, Kenneth also had a gloomy expression on his face. He was still infusing fluids into his body. However, the antibiotics could only slow down the rotting but not cure him. In fact, Kenneth was already beginning to feel more pain and he could feel the situation getting more and more serious.

When Kenneth saw the Weaver family members leaving and eventually returning one by one, he could not help but ask in anger, "What? You have not found a way to heal me yet?"

Everyone had an embarrassed look on their faces and they started panicking as they exchanged glances with one another.

Chapter 498

Kenneth glared at the head of the Weaver family before he shouted, "Jordan Weaver! Haven't you found a way to cure me yet?"

Jordan trembled a little as he replied, "Don't worry, Chairman Wilson. I have already sent someone to find a famous doctor to come over to cure you. I have also mobilized all the Weaver family's contacts in the pharmaceutical industry and we are all looking for even stronger antibiotics that would help to cure you."

Even though he was saying that, Jordan knew that there was no hope at all.

He had originally hoped that Jeffrey would be able to invite Anthony to come over to cure Kenneth but Anthony did not give him any face at all. After Jeffrey was driven out of Serene World Clinic by Anthony, he had also gone to look for a few other famous genius doctors in Aurouss Hilll. However, as soon as any one of them heard that the patient was Kenneth, no one wanted to come.

In fact, word about the incident involving Anthony had already spread all over Aurouss Hilll. Moreover, they also knew that Kenneth's penis was ulcerating because he had been taking medicine indiscriminately.

The doctor at Silverwing Hospital also said that the only cure for this situation was an amputation. Who would dare to get involved in this matter right now?

If he was not cured, not only would they be ridiculed, but they might also suffer from Kenneth's retaliation. After all, he had retaliated against the Weaver family simply because they had given him medication that ultimately caused his penis to start rotting.

After searching around with no hope of finding anyone to treat Kenneth, Jeffrey could only return home out of desperation.

At this time, the other members of the Weaver family were also in a similar situation as Jeffrey. As soon as anyone heard that the patient was Kenneth, eleven out of ten doctors were unwilling to come. They did not even want to come even if they were offered a lot of money.

When Jordan saw this, he suddenly felt that the future of the Weaver family was very bleak.

In fact, Kenneth's rate of festering was not too slow. At this rate, it could be estimated that his penis would be completely rotten in less than two days' time. At that time, the Weaver family would certainly meet its demise...

At this time, Jeffrey dragged Jordan aside before he asked in a low voice, "Dad...what should we do now? Why don't we run away instead?"

Jordan looked at Jeffrey with a sullen expression on his face. The more he looked at him, the angrier and frustrated he felt. "You only know how to escape all the time! Where could you possibly run to? Do you think that Kenneth will not look for us after we leave Aourouss Hill?"

After that, Jordan looked at Jeffrey with an annoyed expression on his face as he said, "I asked you to bring Dr. Simmons here but you came back all by yourself! You're really useless!"

Jeffrey was very dissatisfied and he argued, "Dad, you can't blame me! As soon as Dr. Simmons heard that I wanted him to treat Kenneth, he refused immediately. It's clear that he has an enmity with Kenneth. So, what else can I do?"

At this time, Jordan raised his hand and gave Jeffrey a slap across his face before he cursed at him, "This has always been the case with you ever since you were a child! Whenever something happens, you will always shirk your responsibility! Do you think that you aren't to blame just because Dr. Simmons refuses to come? Have you thought about this? Would we even be in this situation if you did not try to win Kenneth over by giving him a drug that has not been clinically verified?"

As he spoke about this, Jordan scolded angrily, "If you did not do that, would we have ended up in this situation? I've worked so hard my entire life to build up Weaver Pharmaceuticals and now you're about to destroy it overnight!"

Jeffrey had been spoiled ever since he was young and his father had rarely ever hit him. At this point, Jordan could not help but slap Jeffrey as he was filled with anger and disappointment.

Jeffrey also had a very ugly expression on his face at this time. He knew that he was to blame for this incident and it was impossible for him to push the responsibility to someone else.

He could only cover his face as he stammered, "Dad, I'm really sorry. I was wrong but I was only trying to bring the Weaver family further. After all, Kenneth is the chairman of Modestway Group and I thought that our future would definitely be brighter if we developed a good relationship with him..."

Jordan sighed in despair because Jeffrey's words somehow touched him to a certain extent. He knew that his son did not intend to harm the Weaver family. He had only done this because he hoped that he would be able to help the Weaver family prosper even further...

Was this really the destiny of the Weaver family?

Perhaps this was the price that he had to pay for fooling around too much when he was younger?

As he was about to lose all hope, someone in the Weaver family suddenly yelled excitedly, "Liam has brought the genius doctor, Dr. Simmons, and a young man back with him!"

Chapter 499

As soon as he said this, everyone was very excited.

Jordan's eyes widened as he asked in a trembling voice, "What did you just say? Who did Liam bring back with him?"

A person yelled at the door, "Liam brought Dr. Simmons and a young man back with him! They have already entered the yard!"

As soon as the voice fell, Jordan immediately had an ecstatic look on his face!

Dr. Simmons was here?

Has Liam finally invited Dr. Simmons here?

Oh my god! It seemed as though there was hope for the Weaver family!

Kenneth was even more excited at this time.

He did not care about the needle infused at the back of his hand. His eyes were filled with excitement at this time!

Ever since his penis began to rot, Kenneth knew that Dr. Simmons was the only one who could cure him.

However, he also knew that Anthony was very dissatisfied with him and it would be impossible for him to step up and save him.

Moreover, he really could not understand why Anthony would change his mind and agree to treat him for the sake of the Weaver family. However, he could not be too bothered about it. He simply wanted to cure himself.

Even if he could not use it, he wanted it to be in perfect condition. He did not want to amputate it...

At this time, Jordan, who had not been in good health, quickly walked towards the door, filled with excitement in his heart. "Hurry! Bring Dr. Simmons in immediately!"

Jeffrey was in disbelief and he blurted out immediately, "How can that b*stard, Liam, possibly get Dr. Simmons to come here? There's no way that he possibly did this!"

"Shut up! I don't care how he did it. It's a good thing that he's managed to invite Dr. Simmons to come here."

Jordan glared at Jeffrey before he warned him "Do not talk nonsense later! If there's anything you need to say, wait until Dr. Simmons cures Chairman Wilson first!"

Jeffrey was very upset but he could only nod as he listened to his father's words.

At this time, Liam stepped into the Weaver family mansion with Anthony and Charlie Wade.

When they saw Anthony, the rest of the Weaver family members were all relieved.

Everyone felt that the Weaver family would finally be saved now that Anthony was here.

"Unexpectedly, in the moment of crisis, it is none other than Liam who has turned the tide around. He's really incredible!"

"It seems as though Weaver Pharmaceuticals will be handed over to Liam now!"

With Liam's sudden performance, the direction of the entire Weaver family seemed to have changed a little.

After all, Jordan was the one who proclaimed that anyone who could resolve this crisis would become the chairman of Weaver Pharmaceuticals and the head of the Weaver family!

Everyone could not help but feel a little strange at this time.

Jeffrey was filled with hatred and anger as he listened to everyone's comments.

'Liam! You d*mn b*stard! You actually dare to steal my limelight?'

There was also that wretched Dr. Simmons! When Jeffrey invited him, he had refused to come. So, why did he come when Liam invited him?

At this time, Jeffrey suddenly saw Charlie Wade.

The expression on his face turned ugly immediately.

He would never forget the humiliation that he suffered when Charlie Wade forced him to lick the urinals at Glorious Club!

Chapter 500

Unexpectedly, this guy was actually together with that b*stard, Liam!

Kenneth was also going to greet Anthony excitedly. However, the expression on his face changed as soon as he saw Charlie Wade.

At the same time, he could not help but feel very upset.

The humiliation that he had suffered in front of Charlie Wade was no less than what Jeffrey had suffered!

Originally, he regarded Charlie Wade as his mortal enemy. However, now that Charlie Wade was here with Anthony, he did not dare to say anything or cause a scene at all. This was because he knew that Anthony really looked up to and respected Charlie Wade. If he offended Charlie Wade again, Kenneth was afraid that Anthony would refuse to cure him.

As he thought about this, Kenneth stepped forward immediately before he bowed and said, "Uncle Simmons, I know that I've angered you previously. I know that it is all my fault. I know that I was wrong. Please heal me!"

At this time, Anthony replied nonchalantly, "I've already told you that both our families would have nothing to do with one another in the future. Please do not address me as your uncle again in the future!"

After that, Anthony pointed at Charlie Wade before he said respectfully, "Also, the person who will take care of you today isn't me but Mr. Wade instead!"

In Anthony's eyes, Charlie Wade's ability was almost close to God's. Moreover, Charlie Wade's ability at refining magical pills and medicine had already suppressed that of all the doctors and pharmacists in this world.

Therefore, Anthony respected Charlie Wade with all of his heart.

Kenneth was stunned when he heard this and he looked at Charlie Wade in disbelief before he said, "What? Charlie Wade, do you really think that someone like you will be able to cure me?"

At this time, Charlie Wade looked at Kenneth with a playful expression on his face as he said, "Well, Kenneth, what kind of attitude is that? Do you really want to go through an amputation?"

Anthony also frowned as he said, "Kenneth, Mr. Wade is the only person in this world who can save you from your misery now. I hope that you won't have any regrets in future if you're going to continue disrespecting Mr. Wade!"

Kenneth choked as soon as he heard Anthony's words.

In fact, he had already suspected that Charlie Wade was the one who made him lose his manhood in the first place. However, he could not find any evidence linking it at all.

Moreover, Charlie Wade had already humiliated him more than once! He had even forced him to address him as his father and grandfather!

It could be said that the person that Kenneth hated the most in this world was Charlie Wade.

However, as soon as Kenneth heard that Charlie Wade was possibly the only person in this world who could save him, he quickly buried all the hatred that he was feeling. After that, he looked at Charlie Wade with a flattering expression on his face as he said, "I was wrong, Mr. Wade. Please do not take it to heart. Please help me. Please save my life!"

Charlie Wade smiled faintly before he looked at him and said, "Kenneth, have you forgotten who I am?"

Kenneth gritted his teeth as he secretly thought to himself that he could endure this humiliation for the sake of his own roots!

Therefore, he immediately knelt down in front of Charlie Wade before he said, "Grandpa, everything that happened in the past is my fault. Please do not take it to heart and please cure me!"

As he said this, he also slapped himself in the face, out of fear that Charlie Wade would still be angry and refuse to give him any treatment at all.

At this time, everyone gathered in the Weaver family mansion were all dumbfounded. This was Chairman Wilson!

Chairman Wilson from Modestway Group was actually calling a young man his grandfather?

What is the identity of this young man who could actually make the chairman of a publicly listed corporation bow before him?

Charlie Wade nodded in satisfaction before he said, "Alright then, I do think you're getting better and better at it."

Both Jordan and Anthony really admired Charlie Wade but Kenneth was even willing to call Charlie Wade his grandfather! It was really shocking!

At this time, Jordan stepped forward and complimented, "I have already heard of your name for the longest time, Mr. Wade! I really did not expect to meet you in person today. You are truly a master! Please help me cure the chairman's illness today."

Jeffrey, who was standing aside, could not help but feel angry when he saw Charlie Wade. Therefore, he gritted his teeth as he said, "Dad! This grandson is not a master at all! I have looked into him and I found out that he is nothing more than someone who could read a little Feng Shui! Don't fall for his trap! That b*stard, Liam, must have called him here to deceive you!"

Jordan trembled a little at this time and when he saw the frown on Charlie Wade's face, he gave Jeffrey a tight slap across his face without any hesitation at all.

What he did not expect was that Kenneth, who was kneeling on the ground at this time, also jumped up and slapped Jeffrey across the face when he heard his words. Both of them gave Jeffrey two tight slaps across his left and right cheek!

Chapter 501

Jeffrey really did not expect to get slapped by both his father and Kenneth at the same time because he was questioning Charlie Wade's identity.

In fact, he could actually tolerate it if Kenneth hit him because he knew that he was the one who had caused Kenneth to end up this way—the only reason Kenneth had ended up like this was due to the medicine that he had given him. Therefore, it was only normal for Kenneth to hate him.

However, Jeffrey really could not believe that his father, who would barely hit him throughout all these years, had suddenly slapped him twice in a row!

He covered his face as he looked at Jordan and said, "Dad! Why did you hit me again? Did I make a mistake?"

"A*shole! Shut up right now!"

Jordan glared at him fiercely before he cursed in his heart. Why couldn't his prodigal son have the ability and sense to know the right things that he should be doing at a time like this?

Since Anthony was also doing Charlie Wade's bidding, then Charlie Wade would be the only savior of the Weaver family! Even if he was really nothing but a piece of trash, he should not offend him!

After reprimanding Jeffrey, Jordan quickly said, "Mr. Wade, I have already obstructed the dog. You should not take it to heart..."

Kenneth was also panicking at this time. He hated Jeffrey to death. At this time, he kicked Jeffrey before he said in a cold manner, "Jeffrey! Stop talking so much over here. I will f*cking chop you up if you offend Grandpa Wade and he refuses to treat me!"

Jeffrey screamed out in pain as he rolled about three meters away.

After kicking Jeffrey, Kenneth laughed before he looked at Charlie Wade and said, "Grandpa Wade, please do not be bothered with this kind of garbage. He isn't worthy of your time at all. Please hurry up and treat me now!"

Jeffrey was completely stunned at this time. Charlie Wade was just a piece of trash and he was simply a useless son-in-law of the Wilson family. Moreover, Charlie Wade was also constantly relying on Feng Shui tricks to fool a bunch of wealthy and powerful people. Meanwhile, he was just telling the truth, so why was he the one who was getting beaten up in the end?

Charlie Wade looked at them with a cold expression on his face before he said, "If Liam did not beg me, I wouldn't be here at all. Therefore, I hope that all of you know that Liam was the one who resolved your family crisis today. All the credit should go to Liam entirely."

When Jordan heard Charlie Wade's words, he hurriedly praised Liam, "Liam, you did a good job this time. I'll definitely remember this."

Liam was very excited because he felt that as long as Charlie Wade could cure Kenneth's rotten penis, then he would become the chairman of Weaver Pharmaceuticals!

However, Liam did not know that Jordan had other plans in his heart.

To Jordan, Liam was just a b*stard child born and bred by a village girl from Mount Golmin that he had simply been fooling around with.

In fact, the only reason why Jordan said that whoever resolved the family crisis would become the chairman of Weaver Pharmaceuticals was because he wanted to motivate Jeffrey and make him think actively of ways to resolve the issue. Unexpectedly, Liam was the one who had come up with the ultimate solution at the end of the day. He was the one to achieve the breakthrough and invite Anthony and Charlie Wade to come over to treat Kenneth.

If he really fulfilled his promise, then he would have to make Liam the chairman of Weaver Pharmaceuticals as soon as Charlie Wade took the initiative to cure Kenneth.

But how would that be possible?

He was just a piece of trash who should not have existed at all!

In the beginning, he had accidentally discovered a beautiful girl at the village at the foot of Mount Golmin. Therefore, he decided to deceive her and have his share of fun with her without any intentions of marrying her at all.

Jordan did not expect the girl to get pregnant!

What was even more unexpected was the fact that the girl simply gritted her teeth and gave birth to his child all by herself. He had clearly refused her marriage request and he even left Mount Golmin and never once set foot there again.

After learning of Liam's existence, Jordan's wife nagged and argued with him for a long time and he felt very restless during that period of time. Therefore, Jordan had already hated Liam even before meeting him in person.

In fact, Jordan was an extremely selfish person and he had several illegitimate children outside that he refused to acknowledge.

In his opinion, the reason why those illegitimate children were born were simply because their mothers had no respect for themselves and they did not know where they stood! Therefore, Jordan felt that he did not have to take responsibility for them.

Chapter 502

They were all just fooling around. Thus, Jordan felt that the women should just get rid of the baby once they discovered their pregnancies. Why the h*ll would they give birth to their child?

This was the fundamental reason why Jordan had always hated Liam.

If it weren't because his father found out that he had another grandson out there, Jordan would never have taken in a b*stard child who was given to him by a village woman!

Even if Liam made a significant contribution to the Weaver family, he would never be able to hand over the Weaver family's business over to him! Who was he to deserve this?

However, Jordan did not reveal the slander and discomfort in his heart. He simply wanted to send the plague god, Kenneth, away!

Therefore, Jordan said respectfully, "Mr. Wade, please help Chairman Wilson!"

Kenneth also looked at Charlie Wade with a bitter expression on his face. After all, wasn't the reason why he called Charlie Wade his grandfather and why he apologized to him simply because he wanted to cure his illness?

Otherwise, why else would he tolerate and endure this humiliation?

Charlie Wade smiled playfully before he said to Kenneth, "Come, let me check your pulse."

Kenneth hurriedly stretched out his wrist.

Charlie Wade pretended to check his pulse before he said, "The reason for your illness is your body suffering from blood stasis. The downward movement isn't smooth and you also took medicine that would promote liver and kidney failure. This caused the accumulation of components in your lower region that has led to the ulceration. It is simply impossible to cure your disease by using an anti-inflammatory drug!"

Kenneth felt that his explanation was very reasonable and he hurriedly asked, "Mr. Wade, how do you think my disease should be treated, then?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly before he said, "Your disease requires a combination of eighteen different Chinese medicine to produce a bowl of medicinal soup."

After that, Charlie Wade waved his hand before he said, "Please give me a pen and paper so I can give you a prescription."

Kenneth was very excited and he blurted out immediately, "Great! Great! Thank you, Mr. Wade."

After that, Kenneth hurriedly asked Jordan for a piece of paper and pen before he handed it over to Charlie Wade in a respectful manner.

Charlie Wade scribbled eighteen of the most bitter Chinese herbs before prescribing them in large doses.

If anyone tasted or drank a sip of this boiled medicine, they would probably not be able to taste anything else because the tongues would be filled with a bitter taste.

After writing the prescription, Charlie Wade handed it over to Jordan before he said, "Since the Weaver family owns a pharmaceutical company, it should be relatively easy for you to gather all these herbs, right?"

Jordan looked at the prescription and he nodded when he saw that the medicinal herbs that Charlie Wade had prescribed were all relatively common. "Yes! We have all of these Chinese herbs at home. I will get someone to get them!"

After that, Jordan called for one of his servants before he handed him the prescription and said, "Go and get the medicine ready!"

"Okay!"

The servant hurried to grab the medicine according to the prescription. At this time, Kenneth was trembling with excitement and he blurted out, "Mr. Wade, will I be cured as soon as I drink this medicine that is decocted with water?"

Charlie Wade nodded slightly before he shrugged and said, "Yes, you will definitely recover after taking this medicine but you are still lacking a drug primer."

"A drug primer?" Kenneth asked hurriedly. "What do I need to use as a drug primer? Tell me and I will get someone to prepare it immediately!"

Charlie Wade smiled before he said, "Since there is a large amount of blood stasis, you will need to use human urine as a drug primer for your medicine!"

Chapter 503

"Using human urine?!" Kenneth immediately said with an awkward expression, "Is... isn't this a little disgusting? Do you really need to use urine?"

Charlie Wade snorted. "Do you think I'm bluffing?"

He pointed to Jordan and asked, "You! You've been in the pharmaceutical business for many years now. Let me ask you, don't they use the urine of little boys as a primer in ancient medicine?"

"Yes, that's right!" Jordan nodded. "Many ancient methods require little boys' urine as a medicine primer. In fact, there's even a tradition of eating urine-soaked eggs in the south. It's proven to have a certain health effect."

Then, he turned to Kenneth and said, "Don't worry, Mr. Wilson. Little boys' urine is a very pristine ingredient in Chinese medicine, it's not as dirty as you imagine it to be."

Kenneth was a little relieved when he heard it was the little boys' urine.

He had seen the appearance of the little boys' urine in the Chinese classic movies. Indeed, it wasn't as disgusting as it sounded.

However, just when he had digested the information about boy urine, Charlie Wade suddenly said, "Actually, in your case, we can't use boys' urine as the drug primer. The yang energy in the boy urine is extremely strong as boys have never experienced the love-making ritual before. You have excessive reiki in your body, so if you consume boys' urine, it will only aggravate your condition!"

Kenneth gaped in surprise. "Then, Master Wade, should I use girls' urine instead?"

"No, that won't work." Charlie Wade shook his head. "To treat your disorder, you must use an adult male's urine. It's even better if the adult man has slept with many women, the more the better! That is because the more women he has slept with, the more ying is accumulated in his urine and it will have an excellent effect on your condition."

Kenneth was a little taken aback by his remark and asked, "Master Wade, no offense, but are you deliberately fooling me because you still have a grudge against me? Why do I feel as if it's getting even more mystifying and odd as you describe it?"

Charlie Wade said flatly, "I, Charlie Wade Wade, can swear with my life. If you follow my instructions and do exactly as I say, your ulceration and necrosis will be completely cured. Otherwise, I'll be struck by lightning."

Then, he glared at Kenneth disdainfully and said, "That's all I can say. My hands are tied if you don't believe me."

The trust slowly built up in Kenneth's mind when he saw Charlie Wade's sincerity in this matter.

Charlie Wade could still see the doubt in Kenneth's eyes, so he continued, "Okay, let's do this instead. When my medicine is ready, I'll give you a hundred million dollars if it doesn't work within ten minutes after you drink it. You guys can be our witnesses."

Charlie Wade spent a hundred million dollars on a 300-year-old purple ginseng at the auction of the Chinese Medicine Expo, so they believed that he could easily come out with another hundred million for this occasion.

Now, Kenneth was even certain that Charlie Wade wasn't lying. Otherwise, why would he bet a hundred million dollars on him drinking pee? It was a losing business on Charlie Wade's side.

If he could just grit his teeth and get it over with, he would become the world's richest person even if the medicine failed!

So, for his penis's sake, he blurted, "Okay! Let's do it!"

Then, he pondered for a moment and said seriously, "Master Wade, I've slept with many women in my life, at least a hundred, so can I drink my own urine? It will still work, right?"

Charlie Wade frowned in disdain. "What do you think? If your urine would really work, do you still have to drink it? It would've worked while it is in your own bladder!"

"Huh?" Kenneth muttered in shock. "I can't drink my own urine? Whose should I use?"

Charlie Wade looked around the crowd and said, "Come on, guys, please report how much experience you have in this area. Please answer honestly or you'll be held responsible if Mr. Wilson's treatment doesn't work!"

Chapter 504

The guys in the crowd looked at each other silently, then they simultaneously looked at Jordan, the head of the Weaver family.

Everyone knew that Jordan had been a womanizer when he was young. Back in the days, he had even eaten a poisonous remedy made out of billies just for the sole purpose of sleeping around with women that put his life on the verge of death when he was only sixty years old. So, he was the man who slept with the most women among them all.

Jordan started to grin triumphantly when he noticed everyone's gaze falling upon him. He stood upright and said, "Master Wade, for your information, I was quite charming when I was young, so I did have plenty of admirers back in the days. I guess I slept with about three to five hundred women!"

Charlie Wade nodded reluctantly and said to Kenneth as he pointed at Jordan, "Okay, he's your man."

Kenneth grimaced slightly.

Did Charlie Wade really ask him to drink the old coot's urine? That was too f*cking disgusting!

However, Charlie Wade did say that the more experience the man was, the better the effect. Jordan was more flirtatious than he was, so indeed, he was the best candidate.

Hence, he gritted his teeth in dismay and mumbled, "Okay... so be it..."

Charlie Wade turned to Jordan. "So, Mr. Weaver, take two liters of plain water and hold back your urine. When you have the urge to urinate, get a basin to collect it. Let me know when you've filled the one-liter bottle."

"One liter?!" Kenneth almost crumbled to the floor. "Isn't it a little too much, Master Wade..."

"Hey, what if it doesn't work if it's too little? Are you trying to steal the hundred million from me?"

"Oh no, no." Kenneth waved his hands frantically. "I just thought that a sip or two would be enough, one liter is too scary..."

Charlie Wade looked at him and said in an earnest tone, "If you want to cure the necrosis, you have to finish one liter. Don't blame me if there are any side effects."

Kenneth was a little agitated and depressed, wondering if Charlie Wade was just fooling him. However, from his serious look and his promise on his own life and the hundred million bet, Kenneth could sense that Charlie Wade was not bluffing.

At this moment, the man who collected the ingredients came back with two big bags in his hands. The dried and dehydrated medicinal materials alone were around twenty pounds according to Charlie Wade's request.

Charlie Wade commanded, "Here, divide the materials into four parts, then put each part in a casserole along with ten liters of water. Boil them on high heat for one hour, then mix them into one pot and boil for another half an hour. Lastly, add forty liters of water and boil it into one liter of medicine."

Then, Charlie Wade turned to Kenneth and said, "When the medicine is done and Mr. Weaver's urine is ready, you will have one liter of medicine and one liter of urine. Urine first, followed by the medicine, are you clear?"

Kenneth wanted to drop on the floor and cried.

Did he seriously want him to drink two liters of horrific liquids in one go?! One liter of extremely bitter Chinese herbal medicine, and one liter of the old man's urine, that was the worst combination ever!

But, he didn't dare bargain for the sake of his penis, and instead sheepishly asked, "Master Wade, can I take the medicine first then the urine? The bitterness of the medicine can cover the disgusting taste of the urine."

"Are you kidding me?" Charlie Wade frowned in disagreement. "Do you understand the function of a primer? The primer is to enhance the efficacy of the medicine, so of course, you'd have to take the primer before the medicine! If you swap the order around like that, the medicine can't take effect!"

Chapter 505

Charlie Wade's remark made Kenneth dizzy and at a loss. After a while, he finally comprehended Charlie Wade's words.

Since the urine was the primer, it was used to enhance the efficacy of the medicine, so of course, he had to drink the urine first.

But, one liter of urine...

Kenneth collapsed into the slumber of concern again.

On the contrary, Charlie Wade smiled cheerfully and said, "You can't delay this any longer. If your penis is completely rotten, don't blame me for not saving you."

Kenneth shuddered at the imagination and blurted, "Okay! I'll follow your instructions!"

Charlie Wade nodded and said to Jordan, "Mr. Weaver, please have a drink of water first, then get someone to boil the medicine."

Jordan bowed respectfully and said, "Okay, Master Wade, I'll drink the water now..."

Kenneth heaved a long sigh, resigning to his fate. To him, healing his penis was more important than anything else.

On the other hand, Charlie Wade was extremely delighted.

The urine and the most bitter medicine were not needed to treat Kenneth's illness at all. All he needed was a little bit of the magical elixir that Charlie Wade refined and his ulceration would be cured.

Jordan's urine as the primer was just a ruse to trick Kenneth.

After a while, the extremely bitter aroma of the medicine wafted across the Weaver family home. Just inhaling the aroma itself made others feel thirsty and their throats dry, so it was hard to imagine how uncomfortable it would be to drink it.

After boiling pots and pots of medicine and water over high heat, it transformed into a liter of concentrated black soup that looked no different from crude oil.

Jordan had not returned yet after the medicine was done. Kenneth urged someone to look for him as he waited anxiously.

It was quite a tormenting moment for Jordan too. Due to his age, his kidney function was a little lacking, so it was a painful process for him to drink so much water in one breath and urinate afterward.

After twenty minutes, Jordan ran out of the toilet clutching his nose.

"Master Wade, the one-liter urine is ready!"

Charlie Wade stepped further away from them for fear that he would suffocate from the stench. He, too, pinched his nose and said to Kenneth, "Go on, drink the primer, then the medicine!"

"Okay!" Kenneth nodded hurriedly.

The intensifying pain from his penis reminded him that the matter was very urgent. He quickly grabbed the yellowish fluid from Jordan and held it in front of him.

Jeffrey was feeling nauseated upon the scene. When Kenneth was about to drink that thing, it reminded him of his urinal-licking incident at Glorious Club the other day that made him want to throw up right there and then.

Kenneth was feeling sick too.

It was a large tumbler of one liter, and Jordan even peed so much that it was slightly higher than the one-liter scale on the tumbler.

He shook his head and decided to see the awful yellowish liquid as a lifesaver. He lifted the glass, closed his eyes, and poured the liquid into his mouth!

In an instant, the strong odor exploded inside Kenneth's mouth and nasal cavity. It was so awful that his immediate reflex signaled for him to puke, but when he thought about how Charlie Wade said the urine could help enhance the efficacy of the medicine, he shut his mouth and swallowed it again!

The audience felt like throwing up upon the scene.

Chapter 506

The scumbag's situation was comparable to that of the rich kid infamously known for eating shit who was all over the Internet...

Kenneth drank the urine in one gulp, wiped his mouth, and urged hurriedly, "Where's the medicine? Quick! Give it to me now!"

Charlie Wade took the bowl of thick black medicinal soup from the servant and secretly sprinkled a little bit of the magical elixir's scraps into the soup.

Then, he handed the soup to Kenneth and said with a smile, "Here, Mr. Wilson!"

The strong urine smell was lingering in Kenneth's mouth that he needed something to ease the awfulness, so he quickly took a big sip of the soup when he got it.

The bitterness almost knocked him out after the big sip.

He had never tasted anything so damn bitter in his life. It was like a tonne of licorice slices melted into this bowl of medicinal soup.

Besides, not only was the medicine bitter, but it also burned badly!

As soon as his tongue touched the soup, it went numb, followed by the whole mouth. As the medicine entered his stomach, it was burning like drinking sulfuric acid!

At the same time, Kenneth felt a different kind of warmth flowing from his stomach to his penis!

Indeed, it relieved the pain almost instantly! It was so f*cking amazing!

Kenneth was very excited upon feeling the sensation. He quickly poured the rest of the medicine into his mouth regardless of its bitterness.

As he was reaching the bottom of the bowl, the dregs were as thick as black sesame paste and that made him grimace painfully when he poured it into his mouth. He managed to swallow them all into his stomach for the sake of his illness.

At this moment, his entire mouth turned very numb and it burned like hell. He didn't know that the medicine had temporarily ruined the taste buds to the point that he wouldn't be able to taste anything no matter what he ate for the next few months.

Moreover, as the medicine also burned his digestive system, he would have countless episodes of diarrhea for the next few months as the medicine was cleared out of his body.

In conclusion, he would suffer for some time.

Kenneth didn't have the residue energy to feel the discomfort the medicine had given him. He felt as if there was a cool breath surging to the ulcerated penis that made him feel comfortable and soothed.

"That is so amazing, I feel the effect of the medicine already!"

Over the moon, Kenneth took off his pants in front of everyone and almost burst into tears of joy. The ulceration on the penis had healed very quickly! It was really amazing!

Charlie Wade said flatly, "The ulceration should've been cured by now, but the nerves in your penis have turned necrotic, so I think it'll be hard for you to regain your manhood. Besides, I'd advise you not to just take any kind of medicine. Otherwise, you might have to go through the same process again."

Kenneth nodded profusely.

When the ulceration started to fester on his penis, he no longer hoped to regain his charisma glory. He was happy enough for his penis to stay where it was.

He was extremely delighted now that his penis was intact!

Charlie Wade continued, "Kenneth, you should be fortunate that I was the one who had won the auction of the 300-year-old premium purple ginseng the other day instead of you. Otherwise, if you had taken the so-called medicine using the premium ginseng, your penis would rot the minute you drank the medicine! I wouldn't even be able to do anything then!"

Kenneth shuddered in fear. He didn't dare to be bossy around Charlie Wade anymore, he bowed respectfully and said, "Master Wade, thank you for your help!"

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Since you have recovered, can you let the Weaver family off the hook now?"

"Of course, definitely!" Kenneth nodded.

Although he had suffered a lot because of these, there was no need to dispute with the Weaver family anymore since his penis was cured.

His feelings for Aurouss Hilll right now were nothing but sadness and misery. It was as if he started to suffer since he stepped foot in this place.

Now that his penis was cured, he wanted to just return to Eastcliff and leave this sad place...

Chapter 507

After so many sufferings and misery, Kenneth wanted to go home so badly.

Besides, he knew that there was no one who could help him regain his manhood in Aurouss Hilll, so he wanted to try his luck at Eastcliff.

He also had an important function to attend to—his mother's 84th birthday. As her eldest son, he must go back to celebrate her birthday.

His mother had requested that he invite Anthony to the birthday banquet, but from the looks of it, it seemed that Anthony still hadn't forgiven him. Despite that, he cleared his throat and asked, "Uncle Simmons, my mother's birthday is just around the corner. I would like to invite you to join our celebration."

Anthony said emotionlessly, "Mr. Wilson, I've told you, I have nothing to do with your family anymore so don't waste your time persuading me to attend the birthday banquet."

Kenneth sighed and nodded dejectedly. Although he wanted to jump on the old man and beat the crap out of him, he still said humbly, "Okay, Uncle Simmons. Since you've made up your mind, I won't force you to do anything you don't want to. So, excuse me, I'll go back to Eastcliff now."

Anthony nodded.

Kenneth looked at Anthony and then Charlie Wade. He was still in the midst of anger, but he swallowed his fury and left sheepishly with his bodyguards.

Jordan was relieved when Kenneth was finally gone.

Moreover, he received a blessing in disguise too as he got a good prescription out of this commotion.

He discovered that he could treat penis ulceration with the dozen Chinese medicinal ingredients paired with his urine. It was wonderful! He could totally offer the treatment if anyone suffered such a condition in the future!

He hurried forward and said, "Master Wade, you are indeed Aurouss Hilll's genius doctor and you have such marvelous skills. Thanks to your help, our family is able to survive Kenneth's attack. We will forever be in debt to your kindness."

The others also bowed and saluted. "Thank you, Master Wade, for saving our family from the fury."

Charlie Wade glanced at them indifferently and uttered, "I'm not here to listen to boring speeches."

He pointed at Liam and said to Jordan, "Since Liam has solved the family's troubles, then as you've promised, he should be made the chairman of the Weaver Pharmaceuticals now, right? When do you plan to make the official announcement?"

Jordan was irritated by Charlie Wade's blunt remark. He was the head of the family, he didn't need an outsider to tell him what to do!

Besides, it was absolutely impossible for him to hand over the chairman position to the b*stard son!

Jeffrey was equally pissed at Charlie Wade's intervention. How dare he help the b*stard snatch the chairman's position? Didn't he know that he was the eldest son of the Weaver family that had the ultimate right to inherit the company?

Liam, on the other hand, was extremely excited and grateful. He looked at Charlie Wade, his eyes full of gratitude, and he saw Charlie Wade as his second parent. However...

Jordan smiled and said calmly, "Master Wade, to be honest, this is our family's personal affair. Besides, the appointment of the chairman is very important, we cannot decide so clumsily."

Chapter 508

What Jordan really meant was, "You, Charlie Wade Wade, are nothing but an outsider. Please stay away from the Weaver family's affairs!"

Liam felt as if he had fallen from the sky to hell when he heard his heartless father's remark.

He realized that he had been tricked—very miserably too!

His father had never wanted to give him the chance at all!

Even if he surrendered his mother's precious snow ginseng to plead Charlie Wade to save his family, his father would never want to elect him as the company's chairman.

Charlie Wade frowned in dismay and asked coldly, "Oh? Are you planning to break your promise?"

Jordan quickly explained, "Oh no, Master Wade, that's a misunderstanding. There's something that you aren't aware of. Well, the other day, I told both my sons that whoever could solve this problem for our family will have a bigger chance to be the chairman. Of course, I'll give Liam credit for what he did for the family today, so when it comes to the election for the chairman position, he'll have a higher chance of winning."

Jordan was being completely shameless and dishonest. He changed his claim from confirmation to 'having a bigger chance', which turned the control of the agenda back into his hands. It was like tossing a coin in his hand in which he could decide on heads or tails, who could win his game?

Jeffrey was a little agitated by Charlie Wade's interference. Kenneth left anyway, and the crisis had been resolved, so he had no reason to be afraid of Charlie Wade anymore. He blurted in annoyance, "Charlie Wade, it's our family's affairs, it's none of your business. Get out of here when we ask nicely, there is no place for you to be so rude in our house!"

Jordan was an ungrateful old dog himself. Since his son was so straightforward, he said directly, "Frankly speaking, I will never hand over my company to the son of a b*tch from Mount Golmin. I've slept with so many women in my entire life and this b*stard's mom was the worst of them all. She was nothing but a f*cking village girl. I only slept with her because I was young and I had to release myself, otherwise, I wouldn't even bat an eye at her."

Liam growled angrily, "What did you just say about my mother?!"

Jordan arched his eyebrow in disdain and shouted coldly, "What? Do you want to talk back to me now? You really are the son of a b*tch! After so many years, we've let you stay under the roof, we've fed you, we've provided you with education, and this is how you repay us? How dare you want a place in the Weaver family business? From now on, you're no longer part of our family. Get the hell out of here!"

Liam dropped his head, disappointed, and stood sullenly on the side. He had admitted defeat, he had only his naivety to blame because he believed Jordan!

If so, he had no purpose to stay in the Weaver family anymore. It was better to just cut ties with them!

Liam clenched his fists, gritted his teeth, and said, "Alright! From now on, I have nothing to do with the Weaver family!"

Jeffrey was extremely thrilled, he smirked, "B*stard, who are you to decide you have nothing to do with us? We've wanted to kick you out from a long time ago, don't you know? It's such a waste of our efforts to raise you for so many years!"

Charlie Wade asked Jordan coldly, "Jordan Weaver, are you sure this is what you want to do?"

Jordan sneered contemptuously, "Again, this is our family's affairs and has nothing to do with you. You've overstayed your welcome, now get out!"

Jordan didn't believe that Charlie Wade had some sort of a powerful background—he was just a person who happened to have a cure for Kenneth's disorder. This nobody couldn't do anything about him.

Now that Kenneth was cured and left their house, he had nothing to do with the Weaver family even if he was hit and killed in a car accident.

So, why did he have to bother himself with Charlie Wade?

Chapter 509

Charlie Wade wasn't very surprised when Jordan went back on his words. In fact, he had expected it.

When there was more than one child in the family, it was only normal that parents found it difficult to treat each offspring fairly and equally.

Lady Wilson was the best example. She didn't like Claire Wilson Wilson very much because she disobeyed her by being together with Charlie Wade, so she favored the obedient Wendy more.

Jordan had never ever regarded Liam as his own son. He only raised Liam as a servant in the Weaver family, so how could he possibly hand over the family business to him?

Charlie Wade glared at Jordan and asked again, "I'll give you one last chance to settle the chairman position issue. Think about it carefully before you speak."

Jordan sneered, "I don't have to think, I'll tell you one more time, I'll never let Liam be the chairman! To tell you the truth, I've never thought about electing him as the chairman. Even if he saved the Weaver family today, to me, he is nothing but an illegitimate son, a b*stard who was born by the village sl*t without my consent!"

Then, he turned to Liam and shouted, "And you, you ungrateful dog! I've kept you in our house for so many years is to make you an obedient dog! How dare you covet the chairman position! If I had known how greedy and ungrateful you were, I wouldn't have brought you back in the first place! I should've just thrown you into the lake at the mountain after that woman died!"

Liam glared back at Jordan in great dismay. "Jordan Weaver, you can insult me, but don't you dare insult my mother!"

"Your mother?" Jordan smirked in disdain, "A village sl*t who bit off more than she could chew, and she even dreamed of marrying me! Shameless woman! She makes me sick!"

Liam trembled in anger, he clenched his fists so tightly that veins were visible on his arms. "Jordan Weaver, you insult my mother over and over again. I'll kill you!"

He was about to rush forward when Charlie Wade stood in his way and said flatly, "Liam, stop. Don't dirty your hands with that crippled old man, it will tarnish your reputation as the head of the Weaver family, the chairman of Weaver Pharmaceuticals."

Everyone gaped in bewilderment upon Charlie Wade's direct remark.

Jordan was taken aback, then laughed sinisterly and said, "Dude, you're so funny, do you know that? Do you think you have the final say about our family's business?"

Charlie Wade nodded matter-of-factly. "When I say he is the head of the Weaver family today, that's what he is!"

Jordan smirked disdainfully, "Kiddo, I'll forgive your rudeness as you treated Kenneth on our behalf, now get out of here when I ask nicely. Otherwise, I'll let you see for yourself how ruthless our family can be!"

Jeffrey joined his father's provocation and said, "Charlie Wade, I haven't settled the score with you since the last time! If you get nosy into our family's business, I won't let you off the hook so easily!"

Charlie Wade barged forward and slapped him on the face, sending him spinning!

No one had expected Charlie Wade to make the move!

The Weaver family members wanted to jump on him. Charlie Wade glared at them coldly and said, "Listen to me carefully. From now on, I, Charlie Wade Wade, will make Jordan and Jeffrey Weaver marked men! I'll release a hit list to the underworld! If any of you want to stand up for them, go ahead, I don't mind putting a few more names on the hit list!"

The hit list in the underworld was like the film John Wick. Once the list was issued with a lucrative reward, the entire underworld would rattle and they would go after the marked men for the reward.

Ichiro Kobayashi, who was now taking care of Don Albertt's dogs in his kennel, had a price put on his head by his brother in Japan. The reward of a mere fifty million had many people excited to make a move on him. If he put the same price tag on Jordan and Jeffrey, they would not be peaceful for the rest of their life.

Jordan smirked at Charlie Wade's remark, "Who do you think you are, really? Do you think you're so compelling? My family's net worth is at least one billion dollars, I can take one billion as the reward and order a hitman on you!"

Charlie Wade smirked back, "Rubbish, you don't have the power to do that."

Then, he took out his phone and called Albert.

Albert's gracious voice sounded from the other end of the line when the call was connected. "Yes, Master Wade, what can I do for you?"

"Albert, release a hit list for me, I want Jordan and Jeffrey Weaver to be hunted down! The reward is a hundred million dollars and it will take effect at midnight!"

"Alright, Master Wade, I'll release the order to the entire city right away!"

Chapter 510

Immediately afterward, the notifications of incoming messages buzzed on Jeffrey's phone like a swarm of busy bees!

He was a member of a chat message group whose members consisted of several people with good relationships with the Weaver family. They were becoming frantic at this moment!

"Jeff, how did you end up on Don Albertt's bad side? He is offering a reward of a hundred million dollars for a hit list on you and your dad! It will take effect at midnight!"

Jeffrey's face darkened. He was shocked and scared.

Before he could reply, another message popped up in the group.

"F*ck, Zeke White is adding another hundred million bonus on the hit list!"

"D*mn, Graham Quinton too! The reward has now increased to three hundred million!"

"Oh my god! The Moore family is in it too! They add two hundred million, which makes the rewards five hundred million dollars now! D*mn!"

Blood drained from Jeffrey's face and cold sweat drenched his face and body. He dropped the phone and the screen broke.

Jordan hurriedly asked, "Jeffrey, what's going on?"

Shivered in fear, Jeffrey told Jordan everything in a shaky tone.

Jordan was so shocked upon the news. It was as if his soul had left his body!

What happened?

Why was this young man so influential and dynamic?

The infamous Don Albertt succumbed to his orders, while the White family and the Quinton families were also courteous to him.

What's even more terrifying was the Moore family, the most powerful family in Aurouss Hilll, wanted to curry favor with him too?! Who was he?!

Five hundred million dollars! With that much money as the reward, the underworld of the entire country would pursue him and his son as prized treasures!

He was really scared this time. As he stole a glimpse at the indifferent Charlie Wade, his legs went jelly. He knelt down on the floor, cold sweat drenching him profusely, and he was shaking uncontrollably!

"Master Wade, please have mercy on us! Please spare us!"

Jordan knelt on the floor too and started pleading, "Master Wade, I'm sorry! I'm terribly sorry for looking down upon you. Please forgive me, please forgive us! I'll never do it again, I swear! I'll be your dog forever!"

Charlie Wade glared at them coldly and said, "Oh, you want to stay alive now, huh? What's with the pompous attitude just now?"

Jordan slapped himself on his cheek and cried, "Master Wade, it's my bad, I wasn't thinking straight. Please forgive me..."

Then, he continued hurriedly, "Master Wade, Liam will be the chairman of Weaver Pharmaceuticals and he's the head of the Weaver family now! Are you satisfied?"

"Well, I would've been satisfied if you had said it earlier, but now, nope, too late."

Jordan squealed in shock and asked, "Master Wade, what can I do to please you?"

Charlie Wade looked at him and the astonished Jeffrey indifferently, and said, "You hate Mount Golmin and the woman who lived there and gave birth to Liam so much, don't you? Okay then, I order you and your son to go to Mount Golmin to scavenge ginseng for the rest of your lives and you can't leave that place forever!"

Then, a layer of gloomy ice hovered beneath Charlie Wade's expression as he said, one word at a time, "Listen to me carefully, you can't leave Mount Golmin for the rest of your lives!"

Chapter 511

Jordan wailed in utter desperation upon hearing Charlie Wade's order!

He found Mount Golmin, the treacherous mountain, and its icy cold weather very repulsive!

He would not even have stepped foot into that cold place had it not been for the fact that he had to collect the medicine himself at the beginning of his business.

Because of his repulsion towards the bitter cold place, he was equally disgusted by Liam's mother and only treated her as a temporary escort.

However, he never dreamed that, many decades later, Charlie Wade would punish him by making him stay at Mount Golmin without ever being able to leave the place!

That's the place that he hated the most! It would be like taking his own life if he locked him there and never be allowed to leave!

He was certain that he would die anytime soon due to his deteriorating health, but if he went to a place like Mount Golmin, he would die faster!

Besides, the place was like a living hell for a pleasure-seeking old coot like him!

He looked at Charlie Wade in despair and pleaded, "Master Wade, I'm not going to live much longer. Please, I beg for your mercy. I'll give Liam the entire Weaver Pharmaceuticals as long as you let me stay in Aurouss Hilll for the rest of my aging life..."

Charlie Wade said coldly, "Have you ever thought about how Liam's mother has been gone for twenty years? You have lived twenty years longer than her, you scumbag! You should be grateful! So, repent for your sins at Mount Golmin for the rest of your life! Not only would you need to go into the mountain to search for ginseng every day, but you also have to visit Liam's mother's grave every day!"

Then, he turned to Liam and ordered, "Liam, after you take over the company, send someone over to monitor them every day. Make sure that they go to your mother's grave every morning, then spend the rest of the morning and evening on the mountains collecting ginseng. They are not allowed to use phones, surf the Internet, or watch TV. Make sure they live a life that rises with the lark and goes to bed with the lamb! If they dare to slack off even for a little while, break their legs and freeze them into popsicles in the snow!"

Liam was very astonished and thrilled. Charlie Wade had not only helped him get the company, but he also helped him to punish Jordan and Jeffrey in such a perfect way that he could never dream of!

To let them spend the rest of their lives in the place they spurned the most was very ironic, humorous, and satisfying!

He knelt before Charlie Wade and said respectfully, "Thank you, Master Wade. Don't worry, I will do as you say!"

Charlie Wade nodded and said while glaring at the weeping Jordan and Jeffrey, "If they dare to escape from Mount Golmin, the five hundred million hit order will be activated automatically. They will die if they dare to leave Mount Golmin!"

Jeffrey wailed, tears and snots smeared his face.

He was the second-in-chief of Weaver Pharmaceuticals and had a wide network of connections in Aurouss Hilll. Thanks to his privileged family background, he led a life of indulgence and luxury.

It would be more painful for him to be locked up at Mount Golmin forever than being sentenced to life imprisonment!

At the very least, you could still mingle with people despite the hardship in the prison, but how could he stand the treacherous and cold place like Mount Golmin?

Chapter 512

Jeffrey wailed in despair, "No! I don't want to go! I don't want to go to that h*llhole!"

Then, he turned to Charlie Wade and knocked his head on the floor to beg him. "Master Wade, please forgive me! I can even leave the country and never return, I'll never bug Liam again! Please don't send me to Mount Golmin!"

Charlie Wade ignored their plea and said to the rest of the family members directly, "Listen carefully. From now on, you have only two options. You either be under Liam's leadership and work hard, and I can assure you that Liam will take care of your welfare, or you can follow them to Mount Golmin to search for ginseng!"

Charlie Wade stomped and said firmly, "I'll give all of you ten seconds, think carefully and stand behind those whom you want to follow!"

Everyone scattered around like an army of ants once Charlie Wade commanded.

Not surprisingly, they all scrambled and stood in line behind Liam!

Jordan and Jeffrey growled at them furiously, "Ungrateful jerks! Our family has fed you for nothing!"

They ignored them completely. Everyone hit a man who was down, and now that the father and son had obviously lost power, even fools wouldn't pick their side and spent the rest of their life with them at Mount Golmin!

Jeffrey wailed loudly and Jordan convulsed in shock.

As Jeffrey watched the truth unfold, he crawled to Liam and begged, "Liam, my dear brother, although we are not born by the same mother, we have the same father! We share half of our blood! Please, I beg of you, please plead with Master Wade to forgive us! I'll give you everything—you shall own the Weaver family and the business. I don't want anything, just don't send me to Mount Golmin!"

Liam glanced at him coldly and said, "Huh, I won't disobey Master Wade for a scumbag like you! Moreover, you never regard me as your brother, not even once! You've insulted me and my mother for so many years and I hate you to the core! You deserve the very last bit of the punishment!"

Jordan said in a shaky voice, "Liam, I'm your father. Aren't you scared of karma after what you've done to your own father?"

"No, I'm not!" Liam replied coldly, "You, on the other hand, after you've hurt so many women and let down so many of your own offsprings, aren't you afraid of retribution?"

Then, Liam said calmly, "Actually, you are already getting retribution! You know very clearly that you won't live for long. Even if a miracle happens and you can live for a few more years, based on your physical condition, it would be nothing but a living hell to you! This is your retribution!"

"You... you..." Jordan was so angry he was speechless. He coughed violently and his body shuddered.

Charlie Wade said flatly, "I'll give you two an hour to prepare your things. One hour later, I'll have someone to take you to Mount Golmin!"

He immediately called Albert and said, "Albert, send some of your brighter men and two cars to the Weaver family to pick Jordan and Jeffrey up, then send them all the way to Mount Golmin!"

"Okay, Master Wade, I'll get right on it!"

Then, Albert asked, "By the way, Master Wade, what should I do after sending them to the mountains?"

"Send them to the village at the foot of the mountain. Then, buy them a small house for them to have a roof to live under and let them stay there. Next, buy them some groceries and food. From now on, they will stay at Mount Golmin forever. Even if they die, they will be the spirit of Mount Golmin! If they are cremated, bury their ashes at the foot of the mountain! Do you understand?"

"Yes, Master Wade, totally!"

Chapter 513

Jordan and Jeffrey sat on the floor and cried desperately. They still couldn't accept the fact that they would be sent to Mount Golmin.

Seeing their miserable state, Charlie Wade said flatly, "Although it's autumn now, it's already very cold there. If you don't prepare any thick clothes and jackets for the winter and freeze to death, you'll only have yourselves to blame."

Upon his command, they realized that if they delayed any longer, they might have to go to Mount Golmin empty-handed when Albert and his men arrived. So, exchanging dejected glances, they got up and headed to their rooms to pack their things.

At this moment, they had completely given up their struggle as they had realized how Charlie Wade's ability was far beyond their control.

The prominent families in Aurouss Hillll were all adding the reward of the hit order for Charlie Wade's sake. If they didn't move now, they would really die in the city!

The rest of the family members avoided Jordan and Jeffrey at all costs. No one was willing to step forward and help even if Jordan couldn't walk properly due to his deteriorating health. After all, no one wanted to offend Liam, the new head of the Weaver family, and the almighty Charlie Wade.

When the father and son were packing their things, Albert personally came to the house with his boys.

Albert arranged six of his finest men for the mission and three Land Cruisers with strong overall performance and adaptability for the journey up north.

The journey spanned over two thousand kilometers and it might take at least two days to get there.

The men that Albert arranged for the mission were equipped with extraordinary strength and power that could prevent Jordan and Jeffrey from escaping in the middle of the journey.

On the other hand, Charlie Wade doubted that they would escape even if they were given the chance because if they did, the hit order would be activated and they would have all kinds of people going after them. It was better to just surrender to their fate and go to Mount Golmin.

Half an hour later, Jordan and Jeffrey appeared in the living room with two large suitcases, their expression as gloomy as a cloudy storm.

Charlie Wade said instantly, "Alright, the people and cars are here. Hurry up and get in the car, let's move now!"

The father and son nodded sullenly and were taken away by Albert's men. They continuously looked back at their family and the house, but they had to go now despite their reluctance.

Jordan was filled with regret and despair now.

If he had known this would be the outcome, he would have handed over the position of the chairman to Liam as he promised after the crisis was resolved. If so, Liam wouldn't kick him out of the house and all the way to Mount Golmin.

He only had himself to blame for what had happened today.

Liam watched as Jordan and Jeffrey were hurled onto the car, and the three cars left the house and headed straight for Mount Golmin, which was more than two thousand kilometers away.

His eyes were drenched with tears until the convoy disappeared from his sight.

He walked towards Charlie Wade, knelt before him, and said with a choked voice, "Master Wade, thank you for all you've done! Thanks to you, I've achieved the two biggest wishes of my life. From now on, I owe you my life. Weaver Pharmaceuticals is yours and I'll surrender myself to you! I'll do anything for you, regardless of the danger and consequences!"

Charlie Wade pasted a gentle smile and said, "Liam, you are a very brave man and a good son. What you're lacking is an opportunity, which I'm willing to give you because of my admiration for you. But remember, don't become the man that you hate the most. If I find out that you, Liam Weaver, have become another Jordan Weaver, I'll kill you myself, do you hear me?"

Liam knocked his head against the floor and said loudly, "Yes, I understand! If I fail your entrustment in any way, I'll end my own life!"

Chapter 514

Charlie Wade nodded and said flatly, "Get up. Sort out the Weaver family's business and manage it well. I may need your help in the future."

"Yes, Master Wade, I'll always obey your instruction!"

For Liam, his life had been completed today. Therefore, he only had two thoughts in his mind right now.

One, he would return Charlie Wade's favor in any possible way.

Two, he would not become Jordan Weaver!

Charlie Wade patted Liam on the shoulder and said calmly, "Do well in your business, make your mom proud!"

Liam nodded, again and again, his tears flowing like rivers.

Charlie Wade said to Anthony and Xyla, "Okay, everything is resolved now. Let's go."

Xyla glanced at Charlie Wade as if she was looking at the god of heaven.

She didn't know that a man could be so attractive and charismatic. The temperament and aura that he possessed when he kicked Jordan and Jeffrey out of the house were really unprecedented.

Anthony was very experienced and knowledgeable, but he admired Charlie Wade more and more. He felt that his decision to stay in Aurouss Hill was one of the best decisions he had made in recent years.

On the way back, Xyla was behind the wheel while Charlie Wade and Anthony were sitting in the back seat. Anthony sighed and said, "Master Wade, the way you handled the Weaver family's affairs was justified and well-founded, I'm impressed!"

Charlie Wade smiled. "The best punishment is to force a person to accept what he hates the most. Mount Golmin is our country's treasure, it is rich in natural resources and treasures that haven't been found yet, but he, Jordan Weaver, is so repulsed and disgusted by even the mention of the mountain. In that case, let him live in the mountains for the rest of his life."

After a short pause, Charlie Wade continued, "If he can realize the beauty of Mount Golmin before he dies, he would be able to correct his own mistake and turn back from the wrong path, but if he persists with his stubbornness like he always does, he will spend the rest of his life in pain and die in pain."

"Wow, Master Wade, you want Jordan to repent his mistakes!"

"Nah, I'm not that holy, I only want to teach him a deep enough lesson. Whether he can repent for his mistakes or not is out of my control. Perhaps he wouldn't be able to stand the environment there and will hang himself, or maybe he is able to wake up and see his own mistakes and spend the remaining life in a meaningful way at the mountain. But again, that would depend on himself and it has nothing to do with me."

Anthony sighed and said in a solemn tone, "Master Wade, you are a man of great wisdom!"

Charlie Wade waved his hand. "Nah, I'm not, I just have some mischievous cleverness."

Then, as if something had struck his mind, Charlie Wade reached into his pocket, retrieved a wooden box, and handed it to Anthony. "Mr. Simmons, this is the medicine I've kept for you, here."

Anthony took it carefully and said, "Thank you, Master Wade."

Charlie Wade took out a newly refined Rejuvenating Pill and handed it to him. "Here, I refined it recently. Take it before going to bed at night, it will make you at least ten years younger and if I'm not mistaken, it will extend your lifespan by ten years too."

Anthony gaped in surprise. "Mas... Master Wade... is it so miraculous?!"

Chapter 515

The Rejuvenating Pill could indeed be regarded as a miraculous elixir to ordinary people. It could make people younger and even extend their lifespan.

However, to Charlie Wade, the pill was nothing but one of the low-level medicines recorded in the Apocalyptic Book, which meant that it wasn't that magical.

Charlie Wade made thirty pills this time. He reserved a portion for himself as a supplement and kept another portion as a reward to those who were obedient and sensible.

Although Anthony was highly respected in the Chinese medicine division, in Charlie Wade's eyes, he was just his disciple.

Anthony was sincere and wholehearted in being by his side and returning his favor. He wasn't much of help most of the time, but he was genuine, so the pill was a handy reward.

As he gave the pill to Anthony, he said, "Don't keep it, take it tonight and rest well."

Anthony suppressed the excitement and said, "Okay, thank you, Master Wade!"

Charlie Wade nodded. "I hope you can be healthy and energetic and make more contributions to society through your clinic's services."

"Of course! I'm operating Serene World Clinic not to make money, but to treat patients and save people instead. I've never charged the patients for the treatment and I only charge them the ingredients fee for their medicine. In fact, I even waive the charge for those with financial difficulties!"

"Good, very good. Keep it up."

After Charlie Wade returned home, Kenneth returned to the Wilson family house after a trip to Silverwing Hospital.

The reason why he had gone to the hospital was mainly to get a second opinion on his penis necrosis. He wanted to get a doctor to diagnose him and verify that he had really recovered.

The doctor was amazed by his advanced improvement. It was supposed to be the worst form of ulceration that needed an emergency amputation surgery, but now, his penis looked very normal and intact.

After a series of examinations and confirming that the necrosis had healed, Kenneth was completely relieved.

As he exited the hospital, he looked up to the sky and shook his head in dismay.

He felt that Aurouss Hilll had brought him the worst luck, so he decided to pack his luggage and return to Eastcliff immediately.

Arouss Hilll had become a sad place to Kenneth. He would never come back if it wasn't necessary.

Before coming to Aurouss Hilll, he was an elite, the best of the best.

After coming here, he had lost his manhood, suffered all kinds of humiliation, and even nearly lost the most precious thing, but what did he get?

He got nothing!

He only got to taste the young and beautiful Wendy for a few days and lost his manhood afterwards, and he spent fifteen million just for a few days of sexual joy!

Kenneth was heartache when he thought of the money gone and all the anguish he encountered.

Wendy, on the other hand, knew nothing of it. She didn't know that Kenneth saw her as a hindrance now.

She was still waiting for him to come back and regain his masculine glory.

Chapter 516

When Kenneth returned to the Wilson family home, Wendy hurried forward and greeted him with joy, "Kenneth, you're finally home. Did the Weaver family fix you?"

Kenneth huffed in annoyance, "They couldn't fix me at all, in the end, they asked Charlie Wade to cure me."

"Charlie Wade? Charlie WadeWade?" Wendy asked in surprise, "So, did he heal you?"

Kenneth sighed, "Yes, but just the necrosis, it's still unusable..."

Wendy said indignantly, "Then you shouldn't let the Weaver family go so easily, especially Jeffrey! It was he who fooled you into taking their lousy medicine and caused you so much distress and misery. You have to let them heal you no matter what!"

Kenneth's expression was distant and cold. "I let the Weaver family go because of Charlie Wade, but when I return to Eastcliff, I will pursue the Weaver family on this matter!"

Wendy was stunned. "Ken... Kenneth, are you going back to Eastcliff?"

Kenneth glanced at Wendy emotionlessly and said, "Of course I'm going back. Aurouss Hilll has given me enough bad luck already!"

Wendy immediately panicked when she heard that her god of wealth was leaving. She clung on him and said coyly, "But Kenneth, I don't want to leave you. Take me to Eastcliff with you, okay?"

Wendy knew that the Wilson family had no hope of bouncing back this time.

He had only given them ten million dollars out of the eighty million dollar investment that he promised them. It wasn't even enough to cover the debt.

She had nowhere to go now. Everyone in Aurouss Hilll already knew about her being Kenneth's mistress, so it was almost impossible for her to find a decent husband to marry in the city.

Therefore, the only option she had right now was to cling on Kenneth and never let go. This was the only chance she could start anew.

However, how could Kenneth take her to Eastcliff? He was married, what if his wife found out about her? World War 3 would erupt in no time!

Besides, it was useless for Kenneth to bring Wendy with him. He couldn't do anything to her right now. She had lost the sole purpose as a lover.

So, Kenneth said in a direct and harsh manner, "No, I can't, Eastcliff is not someplace you can go to. Just stay in Aurouss Hilll."

Wendy shrieked frantically, "Then, what should I do?"

"What else can you do? We are over. As for the future, let's see when I'll be coming to Aurouss Hilll again and we'll see if there's still fate between us then."

The entire Wilson family was equally confused and stuttered when Kenneth suddenly decided to leave.

Lady Wilson was expecting Kenneth to give them the remaining seventy million dollars as he promised, but if he left now, it would devastate the family to the point of kicking them into the abyss.

They had no other way to go except declaring bankruptcy.

Besides, due to the outstanding debts, even the deteriorating mansion might be put up to cover the debt!

Lady Wilson saw Kenneth as their floating boat in the ocean of debt. If he left, the Wilson family would be in despair again.

So, she pleaded to Kenneth, her eyes reddish and her voice hoarse, "Kenneth, if you leave now, our family is done! We are family, Wendy is your lover, you can't just leave us!"

Then, she hurriedly blurted, "Why don't you take us back to Eastcliff? We'll follow you like loyal servants, you are our boss!"

Christopher interjected, "Yes! Kenneth, throughout your stay in the city for the past few days, we have treated you like a distinguished guest. My father saved your father's life too! Please, I beg you, please be merciful and take us to Eastcliff."

A dash of irritation flashed across Kenneth's eyes. He sneered and said, "That's so funny. We aren't related at all, why do I want to take you to Eastcliff?"

He added, "Furthermore, yes, your father did save my father, but I've returned the favor by investing ten million in your company, so that's it between us!"

Chapter 517

Kenneth turned up his nose at Lady Wilson and the rest of the family, so he couldn't care less about their devastating status.

Right now, all he could think of was getting back to Eastcliff as soon as possible, then visiting the finest doctor in the city to treat his erectile disorder.

Lady Wilson marched forward to plead with him again, but Kenneth shoved her away irritably and said, "That's enough, I need to pack my things now. End of discussion."

Lady Wilson's face turned pale. "No, Kenneth, you can't just leave us like this. You know how we are right now. Without your help, we'll go bankrupt..."

Then, she winked at Wendy.

Wendy stuck herself on Kenneth's arm and pleaded, "Kenneth, Grandma is right. Besides, didn't you say that you want to invest eighty million dollars in our company? You only gave us ten million so far, it's not enough to solve our crisis!"

Then, she added, "Why don't you give us the remaining seventy million to keep the company afloat? Perhaps we'll already be up and moving when you return to Aurouss Hilll."

The rest of the family looked at him expectantly and desperately. Kenneth could leave whenever he wanted, but he had to give them the money before he left, otherwise, the Wilson family would be done for.

Harold marched forward too. "Kenneth, everyone in the upper-class circle in the city knows that my sister is your lover. Her reputation is somewhat tarnished now. If you go, she will be a laughing stock!"

They didn't expect that Kenneth would be enraged by their remarks!

He cursed, his face as gloomy as a thundercloud, "Money, money, money! All you can think of is money! You should be grateful that I didn't take back the ten million dollars, how dare you still ask me for more money? Don't make me laugh!"

Lady Wilson didn't want to give up. She squeezed out a few drops of tears and said, "Kenneth, please, we really need your help!"

The rest of the family pleaded with him at the same time like the group of beggars by the street.

Kenneth was annoyed. He slapped Lady Wilson across the face and growled, "Get the h*ll away from me! If you dare say another word, I'll ask my lawyer to seek compensation from you and ask you to refund the ten million dollars! Deal with it!"

Lady Wilson covered her reddened face and fell silent.

If they really irritated him to the point where he sought legal action for the ten million dollars, they couldn't produce the money now!

So, she could only sigh in despair and watched as Kenneth carried his bag and left with his bodyguards.

After Kenneth left, the five members of the Wilson family fell into a silent and sad ambiance.

Lady Wilson was upset, Harold and Wendy were at a loss, while Christopher and Hannah exchanged sinister glances.

Actually, Christopher still has some savings in his hands.

He had about ten million dollars of saving in his account, and the additional five million that Kenneth had given Wendy as her pocket money. They planned to use the fifteen million dollars to buy a house.

The money could be used to pay off most of Wilson Group's debts, but he wouldn't want to do that!

The current Wilson Group was a bottomless pit. Using his money to pay off the debts was like throwing his money down the drain, for he would not get any returns from it. Why should he do it then?

Anyway, the company was registered under Lady Wilson's name, so she was responsible for the debts too. If the court took action for the failure of debt settlement, they would only seize her villa and personal funds and would not include him. He could use the fifteen million dollars as his pension fund.

He cleared his throat and said, intending to toss the problem back to Lady Wilson, "Mom, we still owe a lot of money to the banks and suppliers. What can we pay them with if they come knocking at our door?"

I'm afraid that this house will be seized and auctioned by the bank, you'd better prepare yourself for the worst case scenario..."

Chapter 518

Lady Wilson was down in the mouth.

What should she do? What else could she do?

The Wilson family did not have other sources of income, they were deep in debts, and their capital chains had long been broken. The only way they could get out of this mess was to find investors quickly, otherwise, they would fall apart soon.

But Kenneth, who was most likely to help them, had also left. Who else could they find now?

Lady Wilson sighed and said, "Right now, we can only take one step at a time."

Suddenly, her eyes shone brightly as if something struck her mind. She looked at Wendy and said, "Wendy, Kenneth gave you to Jeffrey Weaver, didn't he? Although the Weaver family isn't as rich as Kenneth, at least their net worth is around one to two billion! Why don't you beg him to invest several million to our company to help us get through the mess?"

Christopher clapped his hands in excitement. "Oh yeah! How could we forget about Jeffrey! Wendy, you were in a brief relationship with him, weren't you? I think he won't watch us die!"

Wendy couldn't care less about the embarrassment of her being around men. She quickly took out her phone and called Jeffrey, thinking that he could solve their problems.

However, she didn't know that Jeffrey was sitting in a Land Cruiser, heading north.

The song North to Alaska by Johnny Horton was playing on the player, without a way to know whether or not it had been done intentionally by the driver. Jeffrey felt his heart getting colder and bleeding as he listened to the song.

Besides, his phone was confiscated by Albert's men because Charlie Wade precisely ordered that Jordan and Jeffrey could not use their phone or surf the Internet. So, he didn't know that Wendy was looking for him anxiously.

Wendy felt a little peculiar and surprised when she couldn't get through his phone. She mumbled, confused, "What happened? Jeffrey switched off his phone. It should be time to celebrate since they've just solved Kenneth's problem!"

Lady Wilson said, "Maybe his phone battery is dead. Try again later!"

"Okay!"

At this moment, the great turmoil that had just occurred in the Weaver family had spread throughout Aurouss Hillll like wildfire. It had created such huge turbulence, especially in the pharmaceutical industry.

Rumors had it that Jordan Weaver, the head of the Weaver family, and Jeffrey, his son and also the successor of Weaver Pharmaceuticals, were hurled to Mount Golmin. There was even a hit order against them, jointly issued by multiple prominent families. Everyone realized that they must have offended some VIPs.

No one knew for sure whom they had offended.

The rest of the Weaver family members dared not talk about it, let alone Don Albertt.

The news spread across the city at such a high speed that it soon reached Christopher.

He was totally devastated when he knew that Jeffrey and Jordan had lost power and were now on their way to Mount Golmin.

He told his family about the news. Lady Wilson's blood pressure shot up in an instant and fell back in a daze. She would have freefallen into trouble if Christopher wasn't fast enough to catch her.

Christopher helped his mother up on the sofa. The old lady wailed in anguish as she slapped her thigh and said, "Oh god, you want us dead, don't you!"

Chapter 519

Lady Wilson fell into complete despair.

She didn't want the legacy that she worked hard for her whole life to be gone just like that.

Besides, this villa was the only property she had in Aurouss Hillll.

If they went bankrupt, the villa would definitely be seized. Next, she, her son, and his family would be kicked off to the streets.

Then, she suddenly remembered that Christopher must have some money in his hands. She quickly asked, "Chris, how much money do you have right now?"

Christopher's heart skipped a beat in panic. He blurted, "Mom, I don't have much, just a few million..."

"A few million? Why so little?" Lady Wilson frowned in dismay. "Kenneth gave Wendy five million. Over the years, you've stayed here without any additional expenses and you even receive salary from Wilson Group! Where did all your money go?"

Christopher's face twisted into a sad grimace. "Mom, I don't have any savings! Yes, my living expenses have been quite low because I stay with you, but I still have to spend money on Harold, Wendy, and Hannah. I'm quite a big spender too, so I don't have much savings."

"If so, invest whatever money you have into the company first. It can at least drag the whole matter for a while. Then, I'll find a way to get more investments."

"Mom! I... I put all my money in fixed deposit accounts... I can't withdraw them now!"

"Oh, just shut it!" Lady Wilson roared. "Do you think I don't know what you're thinking in your nasty little mind? You want to keep the money for yourself, don't you?"

Christopher zipped his mouth awkwardly.

"Have you heard of the saying 'no eggs remain unbroken when the nest is overturned'? If the Wilson family crumbles, do you think you can live well?"

Christopher nodded frantically, "Yes, Mom, you're right... but the money is really stuck in a fixed deposit account right now."

"So what?" Lady Wilson growled, "Do you think I'm not familiar with banking matters? You can withdraw the money before maturity, you'll just lose your interest, that's all. Is that what you care about at a critical moment like this? I'll give you one day to withdraw all your money and transfer it to the company account. Then, I'll call our creditors to see if we can come out with some sort of an instalment plan for the payment, at least it can give us a year or two to regain our composure!"

It had been very troublesome for the creditors to collect debts in recent years. Therefore, if the debtors were courteous and could provide them a clear installment repayment plan, most creditors would agree to the idea, especially if they could repay a little of their debts first.

Lady Wilson was thinking of using Christopher's money to calm the creditors down and buy her some time to manage the debts. Otherwise, her villa would be seized next month!

Christopher was very reluctant and unwilling to succumb to his mother's request.

He knew that Wilson Group was a bottomless pit now and he didn't want to throw his money into the pit. He could only nod his head to his mother's intense request and said, "Okay, Mom. Don't worry, Hannah and I will go to the bank later and transfer the money to the company's account!"

Lady Wilson was slightly relieved by his remark. "I guess you have at least ten million in cash, right? You transfer eight million first and we'll see how things go."

Christopher cursed his mother in his heart, 'D*mn it, she is such a greedy monster! How can she ask for eight million when she presumes that I have ten million? I don't want to give her even a single penny!'

He hid his disguise with a nod while winking at Hannah secretly. He said, "Alright then, Mom. I'll go out with Hannah to handle the matter, you stay at home and wait for our good news."

Lady Wilson nodded in satisfaction. "Okay. Go on now."

Christopher dragged Hannah out of the house. When they were outside, Hannah shrieked, "What the h*ll, are you crazy?! How could you agree to the old lady's ridiculous request? Do you really want to give her eight million? We only have a total of fifteen million dollars in our hands!"

Chapter 520

"No, I'm not!" Christopher yelled frustratedly, "I'm just trying to get my mom off my back! Hurry and spend our money quickly so she won't bug us about it. It's best if we can find a good house today and buy it!"

Hannah asked in shock, "What? Now?"

"Yes!" Christopher said, "My mom thought that I have ten million, didn't she? So, let's use ten million to buy a house. Then, we can show her the house purchase contract and tell her that we've used the money to buy a house. What else can she say then?"

Hannah grinned in delight and said, "Wow, Chris, you're such a genius! Alright! Let's go house shopping!"

When the Wilson family was in the muddy situation again, the Weaver family became the hottest topic in town.

What happened in the Weaver family was a harsh reminder to everyone that if you were not the best, you would likely be crushed by the people at the top of the pyramid!

Weaver Pharmaceuticals was one of the top pharmaceutical companies in the southern region, and because of that, Jordan and Jeffrey had indulged in the unlimited glory and luxury.

But now? In the blink of an eye, they had been sent to Mount Golmin and had become the docile ginseng pickers. In fact, they had to spend the rest of their lives on the mountain! It couldn't be more miserable than that!

Meanwhile, Liam Weaver, Jordan's illegitimate son whose existence was almost invisible in the family, had suddenly become the head of the Weaver family and the chairman of Weaver Pharmaceuticals. It was very shocking and astonishing!

However, it was definitely a new chapter for Liam and the Weaver family as he started to take the lead of the family and the company.

Besides, rumor had it that Don Albertt, the White family, the Quinton family, and even the Moore family were helping Liam to be elected as the chairman behind the scene.

This proved that Liam shared some kind of a relationship with these prominent families, which indicated that Liam's strength would be improved by multiple folds on the basis of the Weaver family.

Before today, Liam was the target of bullies in Aurouss Hilll. As the illegitimate son, his status in the family was no better than the servants'.

Whenever he was out with Jeffrey, many people bullied him for no reason. In fact, most of them insulted him in order to please Jeffrey. They thought that Liam would not rise to a respectable status due to the suppression from his father and brother, but unexpectedly, he did rise up and immediately moved his way up the social pyramid.

So, starting from noon, many people came knocking on the Weaver family house's door. They came with generous gifts to congratulate him on his appointment as chairman of Weaver Pharmaceuticals.

Among them were people who had tormented and beaten him. Not only did they prepare luxurious gifts, but they also hoped that Liam could forgive them and not seek revenge after he came into power.

However, Liam had never ever borne the thought of retaliation. He treated everyone who had insulted him with a kind smile and sincerity because he remembered Charlie Wade's advice to not become the kind of person he hated the most!

He saw the humiliation and oppression as a test from God. If it weren't for those horrible experiences, he wouldn't have the good fortune to be supported by Master Wade and reached where he was now.

Therefore, he did not dare to be cocky, and he never wanted to.

He wanted to be a low-key good man and manage the company well so that Master Wade would be pleased by his growth. Besides, he hoped he could gain more experience and abilities to repay Master Wade's favor.

Chapter 521

When the news about the Weaver family hit the streets, Charlie Wade, who had kicked Jordan and Jeffrey into living hell and helped Liam to rise up, was in the kitchen cooking lunch for his wife and in-laws.

At the dining table, Jacob Wilson and Elaine Ma were actively talking about the Weaver family. They loved to talk about such gossip, especially Elaine Ma. She would be thrilled for the next three days if she knew about the misfortune that happened in another family.

When Elaine Ma mocked Jordan and Jeffrey for their misfortune, Claire Wilson Wilson chided, "Mom, don't mock others like that, it's not nice."

Elaine Ma snorted in disdain. "Huh, I can ignore other people, but I won't miss a chance of mocking the Weaver family!"

Then, she said in a sheepish tone, "Oh yes, did you know that Wendy was seemingly with Jeffrey a few days ago?"

"Huh?" Claire Wilson Wilson gaped in bewilderment. "No way. Jeffrey is thirty-something, isn't he? He is at least a decade older than Wendy! I don't think Wendy wants to be with him."

Elaine Ma clicked her tongue amusingly. "Haha, do you really think Wendy is a saint? Tell you something, I heard that she had been Kenneth's lover for some time! You know Kenneth, right? Kenneth Wilson, the chairman of Modestway Group in Eastcliff. Then, it was Kenneth who passed her to Jeffrey!"

This time, it was Jacob Wilson who was in utter shock. "What? Did you say Kenneth from Eastcliff? Wendy was his lover? No way! Kenneth is older than Chris!"

Elaine Ma said, "Your mom wanted to curry favor with Kenneth so that she could get investment from him to save the company, so she instructed Wendy to sleep with Kenneth. I must say, the guy kept his promise, he invested 10 million into the company. Everyone knows about it, it's the truth."

"Oh my goodness..." Claire Wilson Wilson gasped, "How could Grandma do that?! How could she ask Wendy to be with Kenneth just for money? How could my uncle and aunt agree to such an arrangement?"

"Them?" Elaine Ma snorted contemptuously, "I bet they were looking forward to it!"

Then, she said in a mocking tone, "Well, the old lady had quite wishful thinking, but too bad Kenneth only invested ten million and that's it."

Claire Wilson Wilson said, "Wilson Group's debts amount to about thirty million, the ten million is just a drop in the bucket. I guess Grandma and the rest must be having a difficult time now."

"She deserves it!" Elaine Ma growled, "Your grandma deserves every last bit of it! Don't you see how she has bullied us for so many years? I wish that they'd go bankrupt soon and I hope to watch the old coot sleeping on the street! Only then would she realize how many mistakes she's made! Honestly, I feel relieved and at ease when I think of it!"

Jacob Wilson started awkwardly, "Enough. Mom might be wrong at some point, but you can't curse her like that! If they really go bankrupt and they are kicked out of the house, do you think we can turn our backs on her when she comes to us?"

Elaine Ma blurted furiously, "Are you kidding me? I don't care, of course! So what if she has to sleep on the street? I won't even care if she starves to death! Did you forget what she said and how she looked at us when she kicked us out of her family? I will never forgive her!"

Jacob Wilson sighed and said nothing more.

He was indeed angry with his mother, but he wasn't as angry as Elaine Ma was.

Elaine Ma smiled triumphantly and said, "Huh, I can't wait to see the end of the Wilson family. When they are done for, we'll be moving into the big Thompson First villa, and it would be like heaven and hell! Until then, I'll let them know that fortune knocks once at every man's door!"

She turned to Charlie Wade and urged, "Charlie Wade, have you been in contact with Mr. Zeke White? Ask him to urge the contractor to speed up their renovation progress. I want to move in next month!"

Chapter 522

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Yes, Mr. White informed me that the work will be completed next month and we can move in then."

Claire Wilson Wilson said, "Would it be good to move in right after the renovation is completed? Shouldn't we wait for a while for the smell of the paint and whatever to disappear first?"

Elaine Ma interjected, "Ah, it's okay. I went to see the progress with your dad the other day. They used imported non-polluting materials for the renovation containing zero formaldehyde. There was really no smell at all in the house. In fact, they installed an air purifying system in the house that replaces fresh air twenty-four hours a day, it is very advanced and healthy!"

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded without a word. She was rather indifferent and aloof about the whole idea of moving to the Thompson First villa, but Charlie Wade was right. They would not live on the same floor as her parents after moving into the new house. In this case, they would have more privacy and personal space, unlike now, where there was no such thing as privacy even in their own room.

Moreover, she promised Loreen that she would reserve a room for her in the villa and invite her to live in. After all, it wasn't so nice for a girl to stay alone at a hotel.

Charlie Wade couldn't be bothered by the villa. He lived a great and lavish life before he was eight, and spent the rest of his childhood and adolescence in the orphanage. He was already at the stage where he was not pleased by external gains and not saddened by personal losses.

At this moment, Elaine Ma received a text message that made her smile when she glanced at it.

She lifted her delightful gaze and said, "An old friend of mine is asking me to play eight rounds of mahjong at her place this afternoon. I won't be home for dinner."

Jacob Wilson asked in surprise, "Eight rounds? Won't it take about ten hours then?"

Elaine Ma rolled her eyes in annoyance and said, "So what if it's ten hours? I even played for two days straight when I was young!"

Jacob Wilson tried a persuasive voice instead. "You said it yourself, when you were young, but you're not young anymore! Sitting for long hours makes one prone to many illnesses—lumbar disc herniation, cervical problems, high blood pressure, all of which are caused by sitting for too long."

Elaine Ma waved her hand agitatedly, "Ah, shut it! I'm feeling fine, don't curse me!"

Claire Wilson frowned and said in a concerned tone, "Mom, I don't mind if you play mahjong for leisure, but please, there are two things I want to say, so listen. One, don't play for too long and two, please don't play by the rules that will make you win or lose thousands of thousands per round, okay?"

"Argh, you're no fun! We're just playing to pass our time!" Elaine Ma said nonchalantly, "Besides, I'm doing this for our family! Look at your dad who's a loser. Look at Charlie Wade, who isn't only a loser, but also a liar who goes around deceiving people—I bet he will cause trouble to our family! And you, you are still in the beginning of your business and have not earned any money yet. How else can your dad and I retire leisurely? I'm depending on mahjong to earn some side income for the family!"

Charlie Wade was agitated by his mother-in-law's harsh remarks. She still mocked him once in a while and even felt that he was a big liar. In his mind, he imagined such a scene—he would slap her across the face and said, "Since you think I'm a big liar, then don't move into the villa that I've gotten from deceiving people!"

His mother-in-law needed to learn some lessons for herself!

Chapter 523

Since people were waiting for her, Elaine Ma did not even bother to finish her meal. She quickly grabbed her bag before she took a cab to an older villa complex in Arouss Hilll, the West Garden Villa.

An old friend of hers lived in the vicinity of this villa complex.

The West Garden Villa had been relatively prosperous and luxurious in Arouss Hilll twenty years ago. However, since it was already an old villa complex, it was not as luxurious and elegant as it used to be.

In the past, Elaine Ma felt that the West Garden Villa was already very good and luxurious. Moreover, she felt that she would never be able to move into a villa like this in her lifetime.

Nevertheless, things were different now. When she thought of how she was going to move into the best villa at Thompson First very soon, Elaine Ma felt a little dismissive of the West Garden Villa.

Her old friend who lived at this villa complex was called Summer Gibson, and Elaine Ma had met her many years ago.

Summer came from a pretty good family background. Her husband made a lot of money in his early years, and after he passed away in an accident, he left Summer with a lot of money,

After raising and sending her child abroad for further education, she would simply play mahjong for fun to pass time every day.

Summer was very rich but she had very lousy hands and poor mahjong skills. Therefore, she would always lose points to Elaine Ma whenever they played mahjong together. Elaine Ma would always have more points and a better hand than her.

Therefore, Elaine Ma regarded Summer as her God of Wealth and would definitely be there whenever Summer invited her over to play mahjong.

As soon as she rang Summer's doorbell, the door was opened almost immediately. At this time, a woman who was about the same age as Elaine Ma quickly greeted her with a warm smile on her face. "Sister Elaine Ma, you're here! Come on in!"

This middle-aged woman was none other than Summer.

Elaine Ma hurriedly greeted her before stepping through the door and saying with a smile, "Oh, Summer! I am sorry to keep you waiting for a long time."

After that, both of them headed to the living room. At this time, the other two friends who had gathered to play mahjong with the both of them were already sitting and waiting for Elaine Ma at the mahjong table.

"Sister Elaine Ma, you are finally here!"

Another middle-aged woman said impatiently when she saw Elaine Ma walking into the living room. "Come and sit down! We will start by playing eight continuous laps today!"

As soon as Elaine Ma and Summer sat down at the mahjong table, the mahjong game officially began.

As Elaine Ma rubbed the mahjong tiles in her hand, she turned around and said, "Summer, you have already lived in this villa for quite a long time, right?"

After touching a tile, Summer smiled before she replied, "Yes, this villa was bought for more than ten years ago, mainly for investment purposes. After my child went abroad, I was living alone in the city, but the villa was too big for me. I could not help but feel very anxious living alone in such a huge villa."

"Then, have you thought about renovating and refurbishing your villa?" Elaine Ma asked with an interested expression on her face. "Let me tell you, my daughter happens to own a renovation and refurbishment company, and she is also partnering with the Emgrand Group! If you are interested in renovating or refurbishing your villa, I can ask my daughter to give you a special price. When that time comes, she will surely turn your villa into a magnificent palace!"

"Sister Elaine Ma, thank you for your kindness," Summer replied as she smiled slightly. After that, she sighed before she said, "However, I am already planning to sell this villa."

"Sell it?" Elaine Ma was very puzzled. "Why do you want to sell your villa? You are not short of money. I know that your husband left you seven or eight different houses, and you have also invested in several real estates yourself. Isn't it good for you to keep this villa for investment purposes?"

Chapter 524

Summer shook her head before she smiled and said, "Actually, I am going to the United States after a while. I am going to settle down there, and I am not going to come back to Arouss Hilll anymore."

At this time, Elaine Ma asked in surprise, "How are you planning to settle down in the United States?"

Summer nodded slightly before she said, "Didn't I tell you that my son went abroad to study in the United States? He has not returned to the country after leaving for the United States. He is already married there, and my daughter-in-law is also pregnant now. My son does not intend to come back to Arouss Hilll anymore. Therefore, he wants to bring me over to live with him in the United States so that I can help him to look after his children in the future."

One of the women sitting at the mahjong table suddenly blurted out, "Oh, Summer! Are you going to sell all of your houses and properties in Arouss Hilll then?"

Summer replied, "I will just keep one of the smaller condominiums in the urban area. If there is an opportunity in the future, my family can come back to Arouss Hilll for a short vacation for a few days."

Elaine Ma could not help but feel a little sorry and disappointed when she heard Summer's words.

She was not sorry that she was going to lose a good friend whom she could chat with and play mahjong with. Instead, Elaine Ma was upset because she felt that she would never be able to find another person like Summer who was rich and bad at playing mahjong, but would never get upset and was always willing to lose money to her!

At this time, outside the West Garden Villa, Christopher and Hannah had just parked their car at the entrance of the villa and were waiting for their real estate agent to arrive.

Christopher intended to find a suitable house that would cost them less than ten million dollars. Therefore, he had contacted a real estate company and had asked for a real estate agent to help him find a villa that cost about ten million dollars.

The average price of the houses in Aurouss Hilll was a little more than thirty thousand dollars, but a villa was naturally more expensive. It would be basically impossible for anyone to buy a brand new villa for ten million dollars. Therefore, they could only afford to come and look at this old villa.

Hannah was very dissatisfied as she stared at the entrance of the West Garden Villa. "Christopher, don't you think that this villa complex is a little too old? Just look at the villas here! It looks even older than the old lady's villa. Why don't we look at some other villas in another area instead?"

Christopher quickly replied, "There is no way we will be able to afford another villa elsewhere. Moreover, the first-grade houses at Thompson First are actually pretty good, but you refuse to buy a house there."

Hannah became very annoyed as she replied, "That piece of trash Charlie Wade owns a villa at Thompson First! I do not want to risk running into Jacob Wilson and Elaine Ma there in the future! I am not going to buy an ordinary residential house or condominium apartment at Thompson First!"

Christopher replied, "Therefore, it would be more cost-effective for us to buy this kind of old villa. It has a very large and spacious area, and it will be very comfortable for our entire family to move in. It does not matter if the villa is a little older because we can always renovate it again."

After that, Christopher continued speaking, "You have to consider the situation that we're in, Hannah. Both Harold and Wendy are both single. Each of them will already occupy one bedroom each. Both of us will take one bedroom, and that will already be three bedrooms. If Harold gets married in the future, he will definitely continue living with us. When he has a child, we have to make sure that the child has a room too. That is already four bedrooms!"

Christopher continued explaining, "And wouldn't mom come to live with us in the future too? At that time, we will have to make sure that she has a bedroom to herself too. We would need five bedrooms in total! Thus, it would be most practical for us to buy a villa."

Hannah asked angrily, "Why must your mother come and live with us? Why doesn't she go and live with Jacob Wilson instead?"

Christopher shrugged as he said, "Since the old lady has already severed all ties with Jacob Wilson's family, do you think that Jacob Wilson will allow her to live with them?"

Hannah was very dissatisfied and she continued her argument, "No matter what, the old lady cannot come and live with us! I will not allow it! Anyway, the Wilson family is already done for, and we will not reap any further benefits from the old lady any longer. We should just send her to Jacob Wilson's house. It is none of our business if he allows her to live with him or not! We do not need to care about that old lady anymore!"

Christopher quickly replied, "Hannah, you might not know about this, but my mother bought a life insurance policy about twenty years ago. It is a financial insurance policy. The insurance payout after her death is at least six million dollars! If you drive the old lady out of our house and ask her to live with Jacob Wilson instead, the six million dollars will belong to Jacob Wilson after she dies!"

"More than six million dollars?" Hannah's eyes lit up immediately as she asked in surprise, "She bought so much insurance?"

Chapter 525

"Yes." Christopher quickly explained, "This is the life insurance that my dad bought for her when he was still alive in order to leave a way out for the future generations."

After that, Christopher also said, "Why don't you analyze and do the calculations yourself? How many more years could my mother possibly live when she is already so old? I think that she can only live for another three to five years at most. Let's just let her live with us for another three to five years. After her death, we will be able to get our hands on the six million dollars life insurance. Don't you think that it is very worth it?"

"Yes, it is worth it!" Hannah replied as she rubbed her hands excitedly. After that, she said, "We have to take good care of your mother now. We should not allow Jacob Wilson and his family to lay their hands on your mother's life insurance!"

Christopher nodded as he smiled, "That is only natural. Don't worry, we will not split the six million dollars with Jacob Wilson and his family when the time comes!"

Hannah hurriedly replied, "Not only will he not get a single penny from the six million dollars, but we also have to make sure that Jacob Wilson pays half the amount of money for your mother's funeral and burial plot when she dies!"

At this time, Christopher subconsciously replied, "The old lady has already severed all ties with him. Do you think that he will willingly pay the money for her funeral and burial?"

"Are you stupid?" Hannah could not help but burst out immediately. "The old lady might have already broken off all relations with him verbally, but it does not have any legal effect at all! When the old lady dies, we can go to court and sue Jacob Wilson if he refuses to pay half of the amount that we will have to spend on the old lady's funeral and burial. After all, before the law, Jacob Wilson is still legally the son of that old lady, and he has the obligation and responsibility to pay for her funeral and burial too!"

Christopher beamed as he broke out into laughter. "Wife! You are right. At that time, we certainly have to ask Jacob Wilson to come out with half of the money for the expenses incurred. You are still the smarter one between the both of us, darling! Hahaha!"

Hannah was very proud of herself and grinned as she said, "The two fools, Jacob Wilson and Elaine Ma, are always trying to play with us, but how could they possibly be our opponents?"

As soon as her voice fell, a young real estate agent who was dressed in a small suit came over before asking politely, "Hello, are you Mr. and Mrs. Wilson?"

"Yes, yes, yes!" Christopher replied as he nodded hurriedly. "You must be the real estate agent from the Lynnox Real Estate Company, right?"

"That's right," the young girl replied with a smile on her face. "Sir, madam, I have already made an appointment with the owner of the villa, she is already waiting for us. We can go in and take a look around the villa now."

"Okay." Christopher nodded before he replied, "Let's go over and take a look, then."

As she led them toward the villa, the young girl took the opportunity to explain the situation. "I will tell you a little about the villa. The owner of the villa is a middle-aged lady. She wants to get rid of all her properties as soon as possible because she will be migrating to the United States soon. That is the reason why she is selling her villa at a slightly cheaper price as compared to the market price. This is definitely a very good deal!"

Christopher and Hannah could not help but smile to themselves when they heard the young girl's words.

It was simply perfect if it was cheaper!

If this villa was suitable, they could use the money that they saved from the purchase of the villa to renovate and refurbish the villa instead!

Meanwhile, Elaine Ma was still playing with Summer and her friends. As they were in the midst of the mahjong game, the doorbell suddenly rang.

Summer looked at her friends apologetically before she said, "I'm sorry but please excuse me for a short while. I think the real estate agent is here with my potential buyer. I am going to go and open the door to invite them in now."

Then, Summer stood up before she walked toward the entrance and opened the front door.

When Summer saw the real estate agent standing at the front door with a middle-aged couple, she knew that these were the potential buyers who had come here to take a look at her villa today. She smiled pleasantly at them before she said, "Hello, please come in..."

At this time, the real estate agent quickly spoke up, "Miss Gibson, let me introduce you to the potential buyers. This is Mr. Wilson and his wife, Miss Queen. This is the couple that I told you about over the phone, and they seemed to be very interested in buying your villa."

The middle-aged man smiled slightly before he took a step forward and said politely, "Hello, Miss Gibson. My name is Christopher Wilson, and I am very pleased to meet you."

The visitors were none other than Christopher and his wife, Hannah.

Chapter 526

Summer smiled before she said, "Oh, please come in! Come in! I have not lived in this villa for many years. So, please just make yourselves at home as you look around the villa."

"Okay!" Christopher nodded before he entered the villa with Hannah. After that, he began looking at the layout and interior design of the villa.

At this time, Shella, the real estate agent, smiled before she said, "Mr. Wilson, the West Garden Villa is one of the first villa complexes that was developed in Aurouss Hilll. The supporting facilities are all relatively complete, and it has very tight and good security. Therefore, your safety is guaranteed. The villa has an actual living area of four hundred and seventy square meters, and this fully meets all of your previous requirements..."

The reason Christopher was looking forward to buying an old villa was because it would be relatively cheaper. A normal four hundred and seventy square meters villa cost at least twenty million dollars in Aurouss Hilll, but the current market price of a villa in this villa complex generally costs only thirteen or fourteen million dollars. Moreover, it seemed as though he would be able to bargain and cut down the price of the villa today.

Therefore, Christopher asked Summer immediately, "Miss Gibson, how much do you intend to sell your villa for?"

"Since I will be leaving for the United States soon, I am actually in a hurry to sell this villa. Therefore, I will sell my villa for a relatively cheaper price..."

Summer smiled slightly before she said, "Well, if both of you are really interested in buying my villa, I will sell it to you for twelve million dollars. What do you think?"

"What?! Are you trying to steal or rob from us?" Hannah raised her voice as she blurted out her words in shock. "This is such an old villa, but you actually have the audacity to ask for twelve million dollars?"

Summer did not get angry and merely smiled as she said, "In this villa community, most of the listing prices for the villas here are above thirteen and a half million dollars. Some people are placing their villa for sale for fourteen million dollars. Therefore, the price of twelve million dollars that I have quoted to you is in fact a very, very cost-effective and special price."

Right then, Elaine Ma, who was sitting in the living room, heard the familiar voices from outside. She glanced outside out of curiosity and saw Hannah who was very displeased and dissatisfied at this time.

The man standing next to her was none other than Christopher, the eldest son of the Wilson family.

Elaine Ma really did not expect to see both of them here. After thinking about what Summer had just said, Elaine Ma deduced that both of them were potential buyers who were interested to buy Summer's old villa.

Wasn't the Wilson family about to go bankrupt? How could Christopher even afford to buy a villa at a time like this?

At this time, Hannah had a very arrogant expression on her face as she said, "Miss Gibson, to be honest with you, only a fool would buy this old villa for twelve million dollars. I heard that you were going to the United States soon, so I know that you will want to get rid of this villa as soon as you can. If you agree to sell me this villa for eight million dollars, we can complete the sales and transaction immediately today! After that, you can even pack your bags and leave for the United States tomorrow! Wouldn't that be the best of both worlds for you?"

Hannah's main reason for lowering the price of the villa was because she knew that the other party was in a hurry to sell. In her opinion, since the other party was in a hurry to sell, she definitely had to take advantage of this opportunity to bargain and lower the price of the villa so that she could make a big profit for herself.

She felt that if Summer was anxiously waiting to leave for the United States because she had a family member who was dying or in need of help, she would surely be able to pressure her into selling her villa for a lower price.

However, Hannah did not know that Summer was actually very wealthy and had more than one house that she was waiting to sell. Therefore, she was not in need of money at all. Why would she possibly allow Hannah to take advantage of her and sell her the villa at a loss just because she was in a hurry to sell?

Summer naturally knew that Hannah was up to no good. Therefore, she frowned before she replied in a disapproving tone, "Miss Queen, I admit that my villa is a little old, but I have already given you a very fair price for it. You will definitely not be able to find a lower price for a villa in this area than the price that I have just offered you. As for the price of eight million dollars that you have mentioned, I am afraid that is nothing but a fantasy!"

After that, Summer continued speaking, "Since it seems as though both of you are not really sincere, I don't think that we need to continue talking about this anymore."

Christopher knew very well that his wife's counter-offer of eight million dollars was indeed very ridiculous. Why would anyone sell this villa for eight million dollars?! In fact, if someone placed this villa for sale at eleven million dollars, it would be sold within half an hour because it would indeed be a very good bargain for a villa like this! It would be very much cheaper than the market price!

Therefore, Christopher hurriedly replied, "Miss Gibson, please do not be angry. My wife is not sensible and she does not know that she is talking nonsense."

Hannah glared at Christopher before she said, "I am not sensible?! Christopher, have you forgotten who is in charge of this family? Have you forgotten who has always been the one making decisions for the family? I am telling you, I will not buy this villa for more than eight million dollars!"

Then, Hannah tried to wink at Christopher, almost as though she was trying to tell him that she had got this under her control. Hannah was confident that she would be able to take this woman down.

Just then, Elaine Ma walked over with a smile on her face as she said cheerfully, "Oh! Brother-in-law and sister-in-law, you actually expect to buy this villa for only eight million dollars? Are you insane?"

Chapter 527

Truth be told, Hannah and Christopher would never have dreamt that they would run into Elaine Ma here!

Both of them really could not comprehend the situation. Why was Elaine Ma here at the villa?

Was she friends with Summer?

Hannah was a little annoyed at this time.

In fact, she had already planned to slaughter the price of the villa and insist on purchasing the villa for eight million dollars. If the other party disagreed with the price, she would just increase the price little by little until a maximum of nine million dollars. Hannah was confident that she would definitely be able to buy the villa for nine million dollars.

However, she never would have expected Elaine Ma to suddenly appear and attack them at this time!

Besides, Elaine Ma had always been very polite and respectful toward her. So, why was she suddenly so courageous to even mock her in front of everyone else today? When did she become so courageous?

Elaine Ma had been bullied by Christopher and Hannah ever since she had married into the Wilson family. After being bullied for more than twenty years, Elaine Ma naturally hated them to the core.

Since she heard that the Wilson family was going to go bankrupt and lose everything that they had soon, Elaine Ma had been looking for an opportunity to taunt and humiliate the both of them. Unexpectedly, the heavens had eyes, and she was given this golden opportunity to make fun of them today!

This gave Elaine Ma an opportunity to avenge the hatred that she had felt all these years.

The expression on Hannah's face was very ugly after listening to Elaine Ma's sarcastic remark. She turned her head and looked at Elaine Ma before she said, "Elaine Ma, what do you mean by that?"

Elaine Ma smiled before she said, "Oh! Sister-in-law, do you really mean to say that you do not understand what I am saying? My friend's villa is worth more than ten million dollars, but you are actually trying to offer her only eight million dollars for it? Can you be even more shameless than this? I know that you might have become very poor recently, but this is not a valid reason for you to come out and try to take advantage of others!"

As Elaine Ma spoke, she did not bother to conceal her feelings, or rather, she did not want to conceal it at all. Elaine Ma did not care about their feelings whatsoever.

Her husband, Jacob Wilson, had no place or status in the Wilson family, and that was the reason why she had been living under the pressure and control of this couple for so many years. She had been suffocated and filled with grievances throughout all these years.

Since she finally had the opportunity to trample all over them, Elaine Ma naturally wanted them to feel the bitterness she had tasted all this while!

The expression on Hannah's face turned even uglier as she glared at Elaine Ma and said, "Okay, Elaine Ma. It seems as though you have become even more skillful after just a few days, right? You used to be so cowardly like a mouse who had just seen a cat when you saw me in the past. Now, you actually dare to talk to me in this manner?"

Hannah was also very angry at this time!

In the past, Elaine Ma was simply an inferior person who could not do anything or stand up to her at all.

However, when Elaine Ma saw that the Wilson family was about to go bankrupt, she immediately had the courage and guts to jump at her and taunt her! What a b*tch!

When Elaine Ma heard Hannah mention the past, she quickly replied arrogantly, "Oh, sister-in-law. Do you really think you can continue pressuring me just because the old lady favored you? Why don't you take a look in the mirror so you can see how poor you are now? You still dare to act tough in front of me?"

Then, Elaine Ma continued speaking, "To tell you the truth, I have already been unhappy and dissatisfied with you for a very long time, Hannah. Over the years, the old lady had always been very biased and impartial. She always favored you because you were her eldest daughter-in-law. Otherwise, how could I possibly have swallowed my pride, bowed down to you, and praised you when you were actually worth nothing at all? You are just a stinky woman who knows how to kneel down and suck up to an old lady! The Wilson family is already going bankrupt and you are still trying to act tough in front of me?! Pfft! Why don't you take a piss and look at who you really are?"

Hannah's face turned red with anger at this time.

In the entire Wilson family, was she truly the only one who had been kneeling down and sucking up to Lady Wilson?

When Elaine Ma was trying to curry favor with Lady Wilson, she was more than willing to do anything that she could, and she worked even harder than anyone else to please the old lady! So, how could Elaine Ma say that about her when they were both obviously in the same boat?!

Chapter 528

Christopher turned pale, and he quickly stepped forward to reprimand Elaine Ma. "Elaine Ma! Stop trying to criticize and insult us! No matter how depressing our situation is, we are definitely better off than you. Why don't you take a look at your own life instead? Your husband is a piece of trash, your son-in-law is a piece of trash, and your whole family is simply pathetic!"

Elaine Ma's eyes widened immediately, but she simply replied in disdain, "Oh! Big brother, you are right! My husband is really nothing but a piece of trash, but what else can I do? All the men in the Wilson family are nothing but garbage! Don't you already know this in your own heart?"

"You..." Christopher gritted his teeth in anger.

Good for you, Elaine Ma. I was scolding your husband, but you actually dragged my husband and son into this?!

At this time, Elaine Ma did not give Christopher any chance to continue speaking at all. She simply placed her hands on her waist as she said arrogantly, "But don't you dare say that my precious son-in-law, Charlie Wade, is a piece of trash! My precious son-in-law is really amazing! Moreover, I will also be able to move into my luxurious villa at Thompson First next month. Can you even afford a villa there? Do you have the ability to buy a villa there?"

In truth, Elaine Ma was not all that proud of Charlie Wade.

However, she was simply taking advantage of this opportunity to use Charlie Wade to antagonize Christopher. It was really exhilarating!

When Christopher heard Elaine Ma's words, he felt very uncomfortable and distressed.

D*mn it! She was right.

Even though Charlie Wade was nothing but a piece of trash, he actually owned a luxurious villa at Thompson First. What about himself? He could only afford to buy a second-hand villa that was already twenty years old. Charlie Wade could probably buy ten of these villas with one of his villas at Thompson First.

Elaine Ma felt very happy and victorious when she saw the ugly and uncomfortable expression on Christopher's face. She was so excited that she felt as though she could perform a dance right here.

After that, Elaine Ma sighed before she continued attacking Christopher. "Oh. To be completely honest with you, I did think that Charlie Wade was nothing but a pathetic piece of trash in the past. I used to look down on him, and I really envied you and sister-in-law. Your daughter, Wendy, was engaged to the wealthy and powerful Gerald from the White family. Your family would have risen up the ranks in an instant if Wendy were to marry into the White family!"

Elaine Ma sighed as she shook her head with regrets. "Well, who would have thought that Wendy would actually be dumped by Gerald? I guess Gerald is truly the scumbag of all scumbags! How could he be so heartless? He got Wendy pregnant, and then he dumped her without any hesitation at all. Who would do that to anyone?"

Hannah and Christopher exchanged glances with one another. At this time, they were so angry and furious, they could kill anyone!

D*mn it! This lousy woman was absolutely overstepping her boundaries!

At this time, Elaine Ma continued speaking, "But still, I envied you. Even though Gerald dumped Wendy, I heard that Wendy still got her hands on a new son-in-law for my brother and sister-in-law! I heard that your new son-in-law was Kenneth Wilson, the chairman of Modestway Group! He is so much wealthier and more powerful compared to Gerald!"

As she spoke about this, Elaine Ma had a regretful expression on her face as she said, "However, even though Kenneth seems like the perfect man, there is still one big problem with him. He is a little too old. Brother-in-law, I think that Kenneth should be at least two to three years older than you. Am I right? Can I interview you and ask you a question? What does it feel like to have a son-in-law who is older than you?"

Hannah could clearly hear the irony and sarcasm in Elaine Ma's words, and the expression on her face was extremely ugly as she yelled, "Elaine Ma! You'd better shut your mouth right now! Otherwise, I will tear your mouth apart today!"

"Hey!" Elaine Ma replied disdainfully, "Sister-in-law, I am simply speaking the truth. Why do you want me to shut my mouth? Why won't you let me continue speaking? Why do you want to tear my mouth apart?"

As she spoke, Elaine Ma snorted coldly before she said, "Let me tell you something, Hannah. Don't think that you can bully me just because you have a son-in-law who is older than you! Don't think that I don't know that Kenneth has already dumped Wendy a long time ago! Am I right?"

"I also heard that Kenneth gave Wendy away to Jeffrey from the Weaver family. Hahaha. Chairman Wilson is truly a very interesting person. Wendy is a person, not an item or a puppy. How could he just give her away to someone else so casually?"

"That is the reason why I say my precious son-in-law, Charlie Wade, is still the best. Even though he can be a little useless at times, at least he is very reliable, and he will never give up on our family just like that."

Hannah was about to lose her cool and go crazy because of Elaine Ma's ridicule.

She gritted her teeth before she rushed directly at Elaine Ma as she yelled hysterically, "Elaine Ma! I am going to fight it out with you today!"

Chapter 529

When Elaine Ma saw that Hannah had already raised her hands as she rushed toward her, she immediately took a few steps back as she said coldly,

"Let me tell you something, Hannah. You cannot afford to offend me, so you'd better keep your hands to yourself!"

At this time, Hannah replied savagely, "I can't afford to offend a stinky woman like you?! If I do not tear your mouth apart today, my last name will not be Queen!"

Elaine Ma snorted before she retorted, "My precious son-in-law, Charlie Wade, is very good at fighting. I believe you have not forgotten how he dealt with the bodyguards you hired or how he taught your useless son, Harold, a lesson that he would never forget? Believe it or not, if you try and provoke me today, I will just call Charlie Wade right now. I will ask him to come here and teach both of you a lesson immediately!"

Hannah shuddered as soon as she heard Elaine Ma's words. She became very frustrated and felt as though all the anger and hatred she was feeling was already dissipating..

To be honest, Charlie Wade had truly left a very strong psychological shadow on her.

She could not figure out why a pathetic piece of trash like Charlie Wade, who was always bullied and insulted, could actually be so good at fighting. He was really insane and uncontrollable when he was beating people up!

Christopher was also very afraid of Charlie Wade. After all, he had personally witnessed what Charlie Wade could do with his own two eyes, and he had almost peed out of fear the last time.

When Elaine Ma saw that both of them were silent as they were too afraid to say anything anymore, she knew that they were both afraid of Charlie Wade. Therefore, she sneered before she said, "Oh, I sympathize with both of you actually. The Wilson family is going down, and both Harold and Wendy are still single. I am also afraid that it will no longer be possible for Wendy to find a husband in Aurouss Hilll anymore. Ah, both of you are going to be so miserable and pitiful in the future."

After that, Elaine Ma continued speaking with a serious expression on her face. "Don't blame me for not giving you a kind reminder. I don't think you should even be buying a villa at this time. Why do you want to buy a villa anyway? You should just save up whatever money you can so that you will not have to starve or find a way to put food on your table in the future. You should just buy a cheap and small house in the suburbs and use your remaining money to start a small business instead."

Christopher and Hannah were so angry that they were completely at a loss for words.

Elaine Ma continued, "Oh, right! I think that both of you should open a mahjong hall! If that is the case, when Summer sells her villa, I will bring my friends over to your mahjong hall to support your business. That way, you and your family will not starve to death then. What do you think?"

Christopher felt as though he was coming down with a heart attack.

On the other hand, Hannah was ready to perish with Elaine Ma!

This was the first time they had ever felt so humiliated and insulted because of Elaine Ma.

This was the most ruthless and satirical remarks that anyone had ever said to them in their entire lives!

What was even more hateful was the fact that they could not retaliate at all!

How could they possibly retort her words?

Their food, clothes, house, daughter, son-in-law... everything was inferior to that stinky woman, Elaine Ma!

As they thought about it, Christopher and his wife felt even more frustrated. They felt so ashamed and angry that they wanted to dig a hole so that they could hide immediately.

Elaine Ma was very satisfied at this time that she could even sing out loud. She really could not remember the last time she had felt so happy. She had finally avenged all of the hatred and dissatisfaction she had felt in the past!

When Christopher realized that he would not be able to regain his face today, he simply said coldly, "Elaine Ma, you will pay for your arrogance today sooner or later!"

Elaine Ma nodded as she sighed and said, "Yes, big brother. I really think that I will have to pay the price for my actions soon. I will have to move into the luxurious villa at Thompson First next month. I am afraid that I will be lost every day because the villa is so big. How could I be able to live comfortably in the villa? The villa is so huge, I am afraid that I will feel very uncomfortable then..."

After that, Elaine Ma sighed before she said, "Ahh, when we move into the villa at Thompson First, we will be on a completely different level and status compared to you, big brother. We might not be able to see you so often in the future. Brother and sister-in-law, it seems as though you are right. There is a price that I will have to pay for my arrogance today!"

Christopher felt as though he was going to explode in anger. In order to preserve his own life, he gritted his teeth before he stomped his feet and cursed, "D*mn it! We are not going to buy this villa anymore. Let's go!"

Chapter 530

After that, Christopher took Hannah with him as they left the villa immediately.

The real estate agent who had been standing at the side also followed awkwardly behind them. Even though she also despised these two customers after listening to Elaine Ma's words, she had no choice but to follow after them because the customer was always the king.

When Summer saw both of them leaving, she could not help but sigh and say, "Sister Elaine Ma, your relatives are truly strange. Did they treat me as a fool? She actually dared to ask to buy my villa for eight million dollars..."

Elaine Ma smiled before she replied, "Well, they are going bankrupt soon. In fact, they are just a bunch of poor people with no money at all. I think that they may not be able to afford it even if you promised to sell the villa to them for eight million dollars!"

Summer nodded before she said, "That is truly disappointing. Let's ignore them and continue playing our mahjong instead!"

Christopher and his wife, Hannah, began cursing in unison after they left the villa.

The main reason why they did not dare to curse or swear in front of Elaine Ma was simply because they were both afraid of her son-in-law, Charlie Wade.

If they got beaten up by Charlie Wade, they would surely be on the losing end.

The real estate agent followed quickly behind them, and after they were done scolding and cursing, she asked cautiously, "Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, do you want to take a look at other houses instead?"

Hannah had a very ugly expression on her face as she glared at the girl and cursed, "Look?! What are you looking at? Get out of my sight!"

After saying that, Hannah grabbed Christopher as they walked out of the villa complex.

The real estate agent could not help but shed tears of grievances at this time. However, since she had a weaker personality, she did not step forward to demand justice for herself.

After leaving the villa, Hannah could not help but feel even more angry and frustrated. After that, she could not help but tell Christopher, "This Elaine Ma is really good at showing off! Look at how she is acting just because she has some money now! How can she actually go around showing off that she is already going to move into the luxurious villa at Thompson First soon?! If it were not for that piece of trash, Charlie Wade, going around to deceive people, how could they possibly own a villa at Thompson First?! Ahh! I am so annoyed and frustrated right now!"

Christopher had a cold expression on his face as he agreed with Hannah's words. "That lousy woman is really too much!"

After that, Christopher sighed as he said helplessly, "Alas, we cannot afford to take any actions against her now. The Wilson family is going to crumble and fall soon. Anyone will be able to humiliate and trample all over us then..."

At this time, Hannah immediately asked, "Then, are we still going to buy a house then? If we do not buy a house, your mother is going to ask you to give her eight million dollars!"

"Buy! Of course, we're going to buy a house!" Christopher replied immediately. "However, we will not be buying the house now."

Hannah hurriedly asked, "If so, when will we buy the house?"

Christopher replied, "Doesn't that stinky woman, Elaine Ma, have some money now? I think that we should try to scam the money out of her."

"Scam her? How could we possibly scam her?" Hannah asked in surprise.

Christopher had a sullen expression on his face as he said, "Doesn't she enjoy gambling? Then, let's make a bet. First, we will use a petty profit to lure her into the game. After that, we will keep luring her to place a bigger bet, and we will then hire an experienced old man to deal with her! We will eventually be able to cheat all of her money out of her!"

At this time, Christopher sneered before he said, "It would be even better if we could get her to mortgage the villa at Thompson First to us! If that is the case, we will be able to turn our lives around immediately!"

Chapter 531

Elaine Ma did not know that both Christopher and Hannah had already begun plotting to rob her of her assets and the luxurious villa at Thompson First that was owned by her son-in-law, Charlie Wade.

She continued playing mahjong at Summer's villa with her friends until late at night, not even bothering to go home for dinner. The four ladies decided to order some KFC takeaways instead. They held onto the bucket of chicken as they enjoyed their chicken drumsticks and mahjong game. They could not stop smiling as they continued touching the mahjong tiles.

Charlie Wade was already done preparing dinner and was enjoying a meal with his wife and father-in-law at this time. Claire Wilson Wilson could not help but complain when she saw that her mother was not home at all. After that, Claire Wilson Wilson said, "Dad! Can you please start to control mom occasionally? You should try to stop her from playing mahjong and gambling all the time!"

"Control her?" Jacob Wilson snorted before he said, "I do not have the ability to do that. Why don't you try and control her instead? If I can actually control your mother, do you think I would be in this state today? Do you know the reason why your grandmother had always favored and doted on her uncle instead of me?"

Claire Wilson Wilson was very surprised as she asked her father, "It cannot possibly be because of mother, right?"

"It is precisely because of her!" Jacob Wilson replied as he sighed. "In the beginning, your grandfather and grandmother did not allow me to get married to your mother. If your mother had not been pregnant with you, your grandfather would never have given in and compromised in the end."

Charlie Wade was very surprised when he heard his father-in-law's words. He never expected his mother-in-law and the old man to actually have a baby before marriage!

At this time, Jacob Wilson continued telling Claire Wilson Wilson, "Actually, your grandmother has never liked your mother. This fact has not changed at all even after more than twenty years."

"Why?" Claire Wilson Wilson was very puzzled at this time. "Even if she has any dissatisfactions against my mother, shouldn't she already let go of all her prejudices after more than twenty years?"

Jacob Wilson replied, "Your grandmother thinks that your mother is shrewd and looks down on your mother's family because they are relatively poorer."

Claire Wilson Wilson could not help but sigh at this time. After that, she said, "I know that it is not right of me to say this, but I feel that my grandmother is not any better compared to my mother..."

"You are right." Jacob Wilson nodded before he said, "I think that the main reason why your grandmother dislikes your mother so much is because she feels that she is remarkably too similar to herself..."

Claire Wilson Wilson rubbed her forehead gently before she muttered, "I think that what you said certainly makes sense..."

Charlie Wade did not say anything but he could not help but agree with Jacob Wilson's words in his heart.

Lady Wilson was the big devil, and Elaine Ma was the little devil. When the big devil grew older, she was afraid when she saw the little devil. She was afraid that as she grew older, the little devil would slowly become the big devil and then start oppressing her instead.

So, that was the fundamental reason why Lady Wilson had always tried to keep Elaine Ma under her control.

In fact, the relationship between a mother-in-law and daughter-in-law in this country was very delicate. However, in the final analysis, everything pointed to nothing more than one main point: A mother-in-law would always want to have absolute control over her daughter-in-law, and a daughter-in-law would always want to be free of her mother-in-law's control.

This was especially so for a woman like Lady Wilson, who had a strong desire to control and manipulate the people around her. Not many people could actually stand or tolerate her.

At this time, the television that has been playing in the background suddenly showed a piece of news happening in Aurouss Hilll.

The reporter said, "The following is a piece of emergency news. A few days ago, Masao Kobayashi, the chairman of Kobayashi Pharma, died in a freak accident in Tokyo. According to the Japanese media, the cause of Masao Kobayashi's death was because he was poisoned by his eldest son, Ichiro Kobayashi. News reports showed that Masao Kobayashi took a drug with a strong excitatory effect which caused the heart to become overloaded, and he died of a sudden heart attack."

The reporter continued speaking, "Interpol has received news that Ichiro Kobayashi is currently hiding and seeking refuge in Aurouss Hilll. The Kobayashi family is offering a reward of three billion yen to anyone who can hunt Ichiro Kobayashi down. Therefore, a large number of Japanese hitmen and gang members have entered Aurouss Hilll to hunt this man down. The police are also actively hunting the killers down in Aurouss Hilll. The police are requesting everyone to remain vigilant, and the citizens are advised to call the police immediately if you see any suspicious people!"

As soon as Jacob Wilson heard the news, he smacked his lips together as he said, "This Ichiro Kobayashi is truly a beast! How could he kill his own father just because he wanted to inherit his family property?"

Charlie Wade could not help but chuckle when he heard his father-in-law's words.

Ichiro Kobayashi was not a beast, he was just being seriously wronged.

He was actually a filial son who genuinely wanted to cure his father's high paraplegia.

Chapter 532

However, it was a pity that he did it the wrong way. That was the reason why this filial son was now regarded as a beast by everyone.

After two whole days of fermentation, the death of Masao Kobayashi, the chairman of Kobayashi Pharma, had aroused a great deal of attention in Japan.

Under the vigorous propaganda launched by Masao's second son, Jiro, Ichiro suddenly became the chief culprit who had poisoned his own biological father to death in an attempt to take over his father's role as the chairman of Kobayashi Pharma.

At this time, the whole of Japan was scolding Ichiro, for they thought that he was actually the most unfilial son in Japan. People even nicknamed him the shame of Japan!

At the same time, Jiro also increased the cash reward for his brother, Ichiro's head from 1 billion yen to 3 billion yen.

He wanted to take over the position of the chairman of Kobayashi Pharma as soon as possible. Therefore, he had no choice but to make sure that his brother died quickly, and he should never be allowed to return to Japan before he died.

Jiro knew very well that his elder brother had never intended to kill their father. Even if he had wanted to, he would not have attempted to kill his father while he was still stuck abroad. If he was in Japan, he could take over the role of the chairman of Kobayashi Pharma as soon as this tragedy happened.

Therefore, Jiro could only assume that his brother was also a victim of this incident, and he was also suffering at this time.

After all, Kobayashi Pharma has already transferred ten billion dollars to Charlie Wade, and this was more than enough proof that Charlie Wade was actually the one behind this whole incident.

However, if he did not push the blame onto his elder brother, then, as the eldest son, Ichiro would become the rightful heir to the throne. He would become the rightful chairman of Kobayashi Pharma.

If the second son wanted to counter-attack and secure the position for himself, he would have no choice but to continue oppressing his brother.

Because of this, Jiro could not wait for his brother to die in Aurouss Hilll.

If Ichiro was not given a chance to speak, his position as the chairman of Kobayashi Pharma would be even more stable and secure.

From his continuous increase in the cash reward and bounty for his brother's head, it was obvious that Jiro was very eager to kill Ichiro as soon as possible.

Therefore, Charlie Wade sent a text message to Albert, asking him to contact Jiro. Charlie Wade asked Albert to demand one billion dollars from Jiro in exchange for Ichiro. Otherwise, Charlie Wade would personally escort Ichiro back to Tokyo and help him to hold a press conference so that he could clarify the matter in person. If that happened, Ichiro would be able to openly compete with Jiro to become the successor of Kobayashi Pharma.

In truth, Charlie Wade's thinking was very simple. If Jiro truly wanted to become the chairman of Kobayashi Pharma, he would have to cooperate with him. Otherwise, if Charlie Wade released Ichiro, the brothers would have to share Kobayashi Pharma, and Jiro's loss would be far greater than just one billion dollars.

Albert did not say anything and immediately got in touch with Jiro, relaying Charlie Wade's request to him.

Jiro almost went crazy after listening to Albert's words.

One billion dollars?!

Kobayashi Pharma has already given Charlie Wade ten billion dollars for the prescription of the poison!

The ten billion dollars incident was voluntary, and his father had been completely fooled by the other party.

It was d*mn frustrating for Jiro to even think about it. After all, his father had actually spent ten billion dollars to buy a poison that had eventually taken his very own life.

If this transaction were to be exposed to the public, this would really be the most unjust transaction of the century.

Jiro felt that if Charlie Wade was humane, he would actually help him kill his brother in exchange for the ten billion dollars. However, he never expected this guy to open his mouth and ask him for another one billion dollars instead. Did he really think that he owned a bank?!

Chapter 533

Jiro really hated Charlie Wade to the core.

However, he did not dare to offend Charlie Wade.

Therefore, he could only try to bargain with Albert.

His tone was also very pious. "Don Albertt, could you please convey my message to Mr. Wade? There are only about two or three billion dollars left in Kobayashi Pharma's bank account, and many of our debtors have not paid us back. We also owe the bank several billion dollars in loan now. We are really under a great deal of pressure!

Albert replied, "Mr. Wade has always meant what he says. So, don't think that you can bargain with Mr. Wade as and when you please!"

Jiro begged, "Don Albertt, I'm really having a hard time now. Why don't we do this instead? Tell Mr. Wade to give me two months. I will definitely transfer the money over to him in two months. However, during these two months, he must make sure that my brother does not say anything or show his face in public, let alone return to Japan under any circumstances at all!

"Two months?" Albert thought for a moment before he said, "Wait a moment. I will ask for Mr. Wade's opinion."

After that, Albert immediately sent a text message to Charlie Wade and told him all about Jiro's request to transfer him the money in two months.

Charlie Wade was cleaning up the dining table at this time, and when he saw Albert's message, he did not hesitate to send a reply immediately.

[Tell him not to try and bargain with me anymore. If he tries to bargain with me again, I will talk to his brother, and I will send his brother back to Japan to fight for the inheritance with him. Tell him that his brother would agree to my request even if I asked him for five billion yen!]

Ichiro was hiding at Albert's dog farm at this time. He knew that countless people wanted to kill him, and so, he was in a panicked and anxious state all day.

In his opinion, he would die in the blink of an eye, so, if Charlie Wade really gave him a chance to return to Japan and fight for his inheritance, he would even be willing to give Charlie Wade more than eighty percent of any inheritance that he received without any hesitation at all.

Albert called Jiro once again as soon as he received Charlie Wade's reply. "Mr. Kobayashi, you are trying so hard to bargain with Mr. Wade for just one billion yen, but have you ever thought about it in depth? If Mr. Wade decides to talk to your brother and send him back to Japan to fight for the inheritance with you, Ichiro might agree to pay Mr. Wade two or three billion yen immediately as remuneration! When that time comes, you will not only be losing just one billion yen! As far as I know, Kobayashi Pharma is a pharmaceutical company with a market value of tens of billions of dollars!"

When Jiro heard Albert's words, he gritted his teeth and replied without any hesitation at all, "Don Albertt, please tell Mr. Wade that I agree to his request! I will go and raise the money right now!"

In fact, even though Kobayashi Pharma did not have much money left in their bank account, Jiro's father, Masao, had a lot of money deposited into his personal bank account.

The money was supposed to be shared between the two brothers after their father passed away. However, if Ichiro died, Kobayashi Pharma, as well as all the cash deposits, antiques, and real estate left behind by his father, would all belong to him alone.

Jiro did not want to delay anything further. Thus, he quickly transferred the money over to Charlie Wade after a mere ten minutes. After that, he called Albert and said, "Don Albertt, the money has already been transferred to Mr. Wade's bank account. Please ask him to check if he has already received the money. By the way, please ask him to send my brother on his way as soon as possible after confirming that he has already received the money. I hope that he dies as soon as possible!"

Albert promised, "Don't worry, Mr. Wade has always been a very credible person. As long as he has already received your money, he will definitely make sure that your brother will completely evaporate from this world."

After he hung up the phone, Albert immediately sent a text message to Charlie Wade, "Mr. Wade, have you received the money from Jiro?"

Charlie Wade replied, "Yes, I have received it."

Chapter 534

Albert hurriedly asked, "So, do you want me to kill and get rid of Ichiro now? Should I take a video of the killing for Jiro to see?"

Charlie Wade replied, "I want you to hide Ichiro somewhere and then find someone who can make special video effects. I want you to film a headshot of Ichiro and send that video to Jiro after having that person use some special effects to make sure that Jiro will believe that his brother is already dead."

Albert asked in surprise, "Mr. Wade, are you trying to save Ichiro's life?"

Charlie Wade replied, "Yes. I think keeping Ichiro alive will be of great use to us one day. Perhaps I can even use Ichiro to get my hands on Kobayashi Pharma in the future. I will be going too easy on Jiro if I killed Ichiro for him, just for one billion yen."

After that, Charlie Wade spoke again, "Also, you should not think too much about morals or your credibility when it comes to this matter. After all, we don't owe the Japanese anything at all. On the contrary, the more miserable they are, the better it would be for us!"

"I understand!" Albert hurriedly replied, "Don't worry, Mr. Wade. I will arrange for more manpower to protect Ichiro from now on!"

At this time at the Moore family mansion.

The members of the Moore family were all seated around the dining table as they discussed the matter relating to Kobayashi Pharma.

As soon as Lord Mooore heard the news about Kobayashi Pharma, he said, "I have a feeling that this Kobayashi Pharma incident has something to do with Mr. Wade."

Jasmine, who had just picked up a piece of broccoli suddenly put the broccoli down without eating or speaking at all.

At this time, her cousin, Reuben, also spoke up and said, "Grandpa, I feel the same way too. I heard that Masao Kobayashi of Kobayashi Pharma took a special pill to cure his high paraplegia first before he died of a sudden heart attack. I also heard that Ichiro Kobayashi had asked the genius doctor, Dr. Simmons, for the prescription to cure high paraplegia at the Chinese Medicine Expo. I speculate that the medicine used by Dr. Simmons to cure high paraplegia is the same magical pill that Charlie Wade gave to you."

Lord Mooore spoke up immediately, "Reuben! Mr. Wade's name is not something you can call out so casually!"

Reuben hurriedly changed his words, "Sorry, grandpa. I did not think before I spoke. I think that the medicine used by Dr. Simmons should be the same magical pill that Mr. Wade has given to you."

When he saw that Reuben was sincere when he changed his sentence, Lord Mooore nodded in approval before he said, "I think so too. Dr. Simmons' medical skills are indeed very amazing, but he has not reached the miraculous stage where he would be able to bring a person back to life or turn his life around. Mr. Wade's magical pill is the only medicine in this entire country that could possibly have this effect on anyone."

With that, Lord Mooore could not help but sigh as he said, "The medicine given by Mr. Wade the last time was indeed very effective. I was a dying man, but after taking the medicine, I can feel that my body is already much stronger than before. However, it might be because I was too ill before this, but even though my life is no longer in danger, I somehow feel that my body is still languid. It must be because of my old age..."

Reuben hurriedly responded, "Grandpa, why don't I look for Mr. Wade and ask him for another magical pill? I can also offer to buy it from him! If you take another magical pill, I believe that you will definitely feel much better, and you will also feel physically stronger!"

Lord Mooore hurriedly waved his hand before he said, "No, no! Mr. Wade has already given us the magical pill once. We have not even repaid his kindness yet. If we show up just to ask him for another pill, it will look like we are insatiable. We should know our own place!"

Chapter 535

Reuben truly could not understand why his grandfather respected Charlie Wade so much.

Lord Mooore regarded Charlie Wade as God. His reason was similar to Anthony's reason for respecting Charlie Wade so much. Both of them were already old men in their twilight years. The more they knew about their upcoming destiny, the more they were afraid of it.

However, Reuben was not even thirty years old yet, and if anyone told him that he would be able to live for another five years after taking the magical pill, he would easily dismiss it. On the contrary, for an old man in his twilight years, someone telling him that he would be able to live for another five years was a miracle that was truly comparable to God's hand.

Jasmine could more or less understand her grandpa's psychological thoughts. After all, unlike Reuben, she also owned one of the magical pills given by Charlie Wade. She had been hiding the magical pill in her car, and the only people who knew about the magical medicine was just Charlie Wade and herself.

With this magical pill, Jasmine had an unprecedented peace of mind because she knew that even if anything untoward happened to her, she would have a chance to survive and come back against the wind as long as the medicine was in her hands.

If other people had an opportunity like this, they would not think that it was a great deal at all. This was because they felt that they would not be able to gain anything from this magical pill whatsoever.

Reuben was like that.

He knew that Charlie Wade's magical pill was very precious. However, if he could get his hands on one, he would definitely give it to the old man so that he could use this opportunity to make the old man feel even more pleased and satisfied with him. That way, he would be able to secure and inherit more from the old man in the future. He would not have secretly kept the medicine for himself as Jasmine had.

This was not to say that Jasmine was not filial to her grandfather. Rather, she felt that this medicine represented Charlie Wade's concern toward her.

Charlie Wade absolutely wanted her to keep this medicine for herself. Therefore, Jasmine felt as though she did not want to disappoint Charlie Wade's hope for herself. She did not want to use the gift that Charlie Wade had given her to win over her grandfather's acknowledgment and appreciation.

At the same time, Lord Mooore suddenly remembered something, and he blurted out, "By the way, Reuben, Jasmine, there is something I want the both of you to do for me after dinner. I want you to make a trip to the Castle Peak Psychiatric Hospital together."

"The Castle Peak Psychiatric Hospital?" Reuben asked in surprise. "Grandpa, why do you want us to go there? What is going on?"

Lord Mooore replied, "I heard that something happened to the younger generation of the Webb family from Sudbury. That is why all of them have already rushed over to Aurouss Hillll to visit him."

After that, the old man continued speaking, "I want you to greet Donald, the eldest son of the Webb family. He is about the same age as your father, but since your father is not in Aurouss Hilll right now, it would be inappropriate for an elder like me to personally make a trip there myself. Therefore, I want both of you to act as the Moore family's representative. Just go and take a look at them and send our regards to them. After all, our families have always shared a close relationship."

Reuben nodded before he suddenly said, "I remember now! I saw the video of that kid on social media. It seems as though the young boy who went insane and kept eating shit was a member of the Webb family?"

"Oh, cousin!" Jasmine said helplessly as she put her chopsticks down. "We are still having dinner! Why did you have to bring up something so disgusting?!"

Reuben laughed slightly before he said, "Oh, sorry. I'm sorry. It was a slip of mouth."

Lord Mooore had also watched the video, and he suddenly felt very disgusted as well. Therefore, he put down his chopsticks before he said, "I heard that the young boy from the Webb family has already been hospitalized in the Castle Peak Psychiatric Hospital for the past two days. Just make a trip there and send your greetings to Donald. Tell him not to be offended and that your father is unable to visit him personally because he is not in Aurouss Hilll."

"Okay, grandpa," Reuben nodded quickly.

The Webb family from Sudbury was even stronger and more powerful compared to the Moore family. Even though the Moore family could rank in the top five families in the South Region, they could not make it to the top three.

These top-notch big families were all very close to one another. Generally speaking, whenever anyone visited someone else's home court, the host would definitely do their best to entertain their guests to prove their sincerity.

Chapter 536

At this time, Jasmine asked, "Grandpa, should we bring any gifts along with us?"

Lord Mooore replied, "Someone gave me a piece of cold jade a few years ago. It has the effect of calming the mind and giving peace to the owner. I want you to give it to Donald and tell him that it is for his son. Even though it might only have a small effect, it is better than nothing at all."

Jasmine nodded before she said, "Okay, grandpa. I understand."

Just then, Lord Mooore stood up before he said, "Jasmine, I want you to come with me."

"Okay, grandpa." Jasmine stood up without any hesitation and hurriedly followed her grandfather into his study room.

Upon entering the study room, Lord Mooore sat down on his mahogany chair before he asked Jasmine, "Jasmine, I want to ask you whether you have made any progress with Mr. Wade recently?"

Jasmine blushed as soon as she heard her grandfather's words. "Grandpa, I... I... that..."

Lord Mooore smiled when he saw Jasmine's flustered reaction. "Young girl, why are you so shy and embarrassed? Just tell me what the progress is!"

Jasmine was very embarrassed as she replied, "Grandpa, to be honest, Mr. Wade has been very busy recently. We have almost no chance to meet at all..."

Lord Mooore was a little disappointed, and he said, "Jasmine, you cannot be so nonchalant about this matter! You are still young, but your grandfather is already getting older! You might be able to wait, but your grandpa cannot afford to wait for another few more years..."

Then, Lord Mooore continued speaking, "Jasmine, grandpa is not asking you to be an unethical person with no morals at all. I am not forcing you to do anything with Mr. Wade if you do not want to. The main reason I am asking you to get closer to Mr. Wade is because I can also tell that you truly like Mr. Wade from the bottom of your heart. Am I right?"

Jasmine nodded slightly as her face flushed red immediately.

Truthfully, she had become even more enamored with Charlie Wade the more she got to know him.

She was a strong and capable woman who loved a man who was equally strong and capable. The stronger the man was, the more attractive she felt he was.

Therefore, it was completely inevitable for her to feel attracted and enamored by Charlie Wade.

Lord Mooore sighed softly before he said, "Well, the biggest pity is that Mr. Wade got married so early. However, in this modern society, people take these things very lightly nowadays. Therefore, it's not a big deal even if a man has a second or third marriage. So, you don't have to be too bothered about the fact that Mr. Wade has already been married before. You don't need to care who his first wife was. All you need to know is that you should do all that you can to keep a good man by your side forever. Even if he has already been married ten times before you, the most important thing is to get him to stay by your side for the rest of your life."

Jasmine nodded slightly before she said, "Grandpa, I understand what you are trying to say. I cannot chase after Mr. Wade too desperately because I am afraid that he would start to dislike me if I did that. I heard that Mr. Wade is still very loving and kind toward his wife."

"Yes." Lord Mooore nodded in agreement. "In that case, it is not wrong for you to fight steadily, step by step, as you try to win Mr. Wade over in secret."

At this time, Lord Mooore recalled something and he quickly said, "By the way, it will be my eightieth birthday in a few days. Please invite Mr. Wade to come to my birthday banquet. Once he is here, you can take advantage of this opportunity to get closer to him and get to know him better."

Jasmine hurriedly replied, "Yes, grandpa. I will do that."

"Okay." Lord Mooore nodded before he said, "Alright then. It is already getting late. You should head to the Castle Peak Psychiatric Hospital now to visit the junior of the Webb family first!"

Chapter 537

Very soon, Reuben drove Jasmine out of the house, and they headed straight to the Castle Peak Psychiatric Hospital in the suburb.

In the Castle Peak Psychiatric Hospital, the nurses had just fed Kian, who was going crazy at this point.

Kian finally regained his consciousness after they fed him, wiped his mouth, rinsed his mouth, and washed his stomach for him. Kian had a very satisfied expression on his face as he lay on the hospital bed with his hands and feet tied up.

The few nurses resisted the urge to vomit as they walked out from the intensive care unit to the family resting room outside with a basin filled with the filth that they had just washed out of Kian's stomach.

At this time, Kian's father, Donald, and his brother, Sean, were sitting on the sofa with no expression on their faces.

After coming out of the intensive care unit, one of the nurses greeted them respectfully. "Mr. Webb and junior Mr. Webb, the patient, have already regained consciousness."

Donald asked coldly, "Have you finished the gastric lavage procedure?"

The nurse nodded before she whispered, "Yes, we have already completed the procedure!"

"Okay." Donald asked again, "The things that you fed him this time... have you already disinfected it?"

The nurse hurriedly replied, "It has already been sterilized. We placed it inside the pressure cooker and sterilized it at a high temperature and pressure. Even though we cannot eliminate the smell, I can assure you that there are no longer any bacteria or viruses in it..."

Kian's iron rule of having extra 'supplements' every hour on the dot remained the same.

Donald naturally did not dare to stop his son from doing so. After all, he could see that his son was truly on the verge of death if they fed him even one minute later. Donald was afraid that something would really happen to his son.

Therefore, he discussed this matter with a team of medical experts before they came up with a temporary solution, which was to put those 'supplements' for Kian in a pressure cooker for at least half an hour in advance so that it would not contain any bacteria and viruses that would make him sick.

This was the only buffer they could come up with at this stage.

Donald glanced at the few nurses before he waved his hands sullenly and said, "Alright then, you can all leave now. Please remember to prepare all of his next meals in advance."

The nurse nodded before she said, "Mr. Webb, you can rest assured that we have already prepared all of his eight meals for tonight in advance. Each of his meals has already been sterilized in advance, and we will serve the patient his meal at room temperature."

Donald suddenly felt a surge of nausea overpowering him, and he quickly waved his hand as he said, "Alright, you can leave now."

After the few nurses had left the room, Sean whispered to his father, "Dad, are we really going to let this continue? How could Kian possibly need to eat shit every hour?! If this news spreads to the public, the Webb family will definitely lose face!"

Donald asked, "What else can we do? Do you want me to watch your brother die?"

Sean hurriedly replied, "I did not mean that at all. I am just saying that we should bring Kian back to Sudbury. It is not a solution for us to continue staying here. We should bring Kian back home and use our own family doctor and nurses to handle him. At the very least, we can be more rest assured that they would be tight-lipped about this matter."

Donald thought about it before he replied, "Okay, then. We will send your brother back to Sudbury, but we cannot leave Aurouss Hillll yet."

"Why?" Sean asked in surprise. "What other business do we have here?"

Donald replied, "I suspect it is not an accident that your brother suddenly contracted this sudden illness. Something must have happened to cause him to behave in this manner. There must be some clues or information that we have not figured out yet. I plan to stay in Aurouss Hilll for a short while to investigate and look into this matter. I want you to stay here with me."

Sean nodded when he heard his father's words and said, "Yes, dad. I will stay here with you."

Donald nodded before he said, "If that's the case, we will arrange for our doctor to accompany Kian back to Sudbury tomorrow morning."

Upon saying that, Donald stood up before he said, "Come, let's go in and see your brother."

The father and son stood up before they pushed the door of the intensive care unit open. At this time, a strong and disgusting stench overcame them immediately.

Even though the windows were all open and the exhaust fan was already turned on, the smell was still lingering even after a long time.

Chapter 538

Kian was lying on his bed with tears in his eyes as he looked out the window silently. He could smell the strong stench on his breath whenever he breathed, and he felt very disgusted with himself.

"Kian."

When he saw the decadent and desolate expression on his son's face, Donald could not help but feel distressed.

Kian did not look at him but instead continued to stare out the window as he choked and said, "Dad, why don't you just let me die? I am really on the verge of collapse because I have to do something so disgusting every hour of the day..."

Donald hurriedly stepped forward as he held his son's hand and said, "My good son, you have to remember that it is always better for you to live than to die!"

Kian burst into tears before he said, "But, who can live an even more miserable life than mine? If I have to continue living like this for the rest of my life, I would rather be dead now..."

Donald felt very upset, and he said seriously, "Kian, don't worry. Dad will definitely heal you no matter what method I have to use. I promise you!"

Kian turned his head around and looked at his father before he subconsciously asked, "Dad, do you mean what you just said?"

As Kian spoke, the strong stench coming from his mouth hit Donald directly.

Donald's eyes reddened immediately, and he even shed two drops of tears. He resisted the wave of nausea that hit and his strong urge to vomit before he nodded and replied, "Yes, I mean it! You don't have to worry!"

Then, Donald spoke again, "I will arrange for someone to take you back to Sudbury tomorrow. I will stay behind in Aurouss Hilll to find the culprit who did this to you. After that, I will surely find a cure for you. Make sure that you take care of your health after you go home. Wait for your father to come back with good news!"

Kian nodded excitedly as he suddenly felt a glimmer of hope.

Sean could not help but sigh as he said, "Kian, don't worry. I swear I'll take revenge for you and kill the person who did this to you!"

Kian was very touched and nodded before saying, "Thank you, brother!"

At this time, a nurse came knocking on the door before she entered and said, "Mr. Webb, there is a Mr. Moore and Miss Moore who are here to see you."

"Mr. Moore and Miss Moore?" Donald frowned slightly before he came to a sudden realization. "They must be from the Moore family. Please invite them in."

After that, he hurriedly added, "Please ask them to wait in the waiting room outside. Don't bring them into the ward."

The nurse nodded before she turned around and left.

Sean asked in surprise, "Dad, is the Moore family here?"

"I think it should be them," Donald replied. "We have not visited the Moore family yet since we came to Aurouss Hilll to deal with our personal matters. Perhaps the Moore family has already heard about our predicament and have decided to visit us instead."

Sean nodded when he heard his father's words. At this time, he suddenly thought of Jasmine, the young lady of the Moore family.

The last time he had seen Jasmine was about three to four years ago. At that time, Jasmine was already very beautiful.

He had thought of pursuing Jasmine back then. After all, Jasmine was not only very beautiful, well-educated, and capable, but the most important thing was the fact that the Moore family was also very wealthy and powerful. It could be said that the Moore family would be a perfect match for the Webb family.

However, he had not completed his studies at that time, so he did not have the time to pursue and go after Jasmine.

After returning to the country, he had been busy learning the ropes and taking over the family business from his father. Therefore, he did not come to Aurouss Hilll and kept delaying his intentions and plan to pursue Jasmine.

When he heard that there were visitors from the Moore family, Sean's affection and feelings for Jasmine suddenly returned!

He was already looking forward to meeting her again. He sincerely hoped that Jasmine would be one of the two people who came here today!

Chapter 539

Donald and his son, Sean, had just come out from the intensive care unit when the nurse brought Reuben and Jasmine into the family waiting room.

Sean spotted the slim and glamorous Jasmine at a single glance. He was taken aback for a moment and only regained his senses after a few seconds.

Donald was also a little surprised to see Jasmine.

He was Jasmine's elder, so he had not had much contact or interaction with Jasmine. They had not seen each other for several years, but unexpectedly, this young girl was now even more beautiful and attractive than she had been in the past. She would not lose out to those big celebrities at all!

At this time, Reuben quickly stepped up as he spoke very respectfully, "Hello, Uncle Webb. I am Reuben from the Moore family, and this is my cousin, Jasmine. My grandpa heard that you are in Aurouss Hilll, so he wanted us to come and pay you a visit."

Reuben continued, "My father is not in Aurouss Hilll for the time being so he could not come and visit you in person today. Please forgive us for being rude."

Donald hurriedly replied, "Oh! Lord Mooore is too polite. I was supposed to visit him, but something happened at home, so I could not walk away at all. I was the one being rude."

Even though there was a substantial difference between the wealth and power of the Webb and Moore family, they were both one of the most powerful and influential families in the South Region. Therefore, it was already a traditional custom between these two families that anyone who visited the other person's territory should take the initiative to come and visit the host first.

If Donald came to Aurouss Hilll, under any normal circumstances, the first thing he would do was to visit the Moore family. That way, the two families would be able to maintain a close relationship with one another.

However, Donald could not help but feel a little embarrassed.

After all, his family's current predicament was indeed a little special. He felt that it would be very shameful to talk about his youngest son's current condition.

Therefore, he simply replied frankly, "Oh, the reason I came to Aurouss Hilll this time is because my youngest son, Kian, has come down with some physical and mental problems. As soon as I arrived at Aurouss Hilll, I stayed at the Castle Peak Psychiatric Hospital without going anywhere else. Otherwise, I would have gone to visit Lord Mooore a long time ago. I hope that Lord Mooore will forgive me and I sincerely hope that he will not hold this against me."

Jasmine hurriedly replied, "Uncle Webb, you don't need to be so courteous and polite. Grandpa knows that you have some personal business to deal with. Therefore, he does not blame you at all."

As she spoke, Jasmine took out the piece of cold jade with a carving of Guanyin on it and handed it to Donald saying, "Uncle Webb, my grandfather asked me to pass this piece of cold jade to you. He said that it has the effect of calming the mind and bringing peace to its owner. He hopes that it will be able to alleviate your youngest son's condition a little."

Donald hurriedly said, "Please help me thank Lord Mooore for his kind gesture."

Then, he reached out his hand to take the piece of cold jade from Jasmine.

Sean had been watching Jasmine all this time without saying anything at all. After he had finally regained his composure, he said calmly, "Jasmine, it seems as though we have not seen each other for a long time, right?"

Jasmine nodded as she smiled slightly and said, "Yes, I think it has already been three to four years since we last met each other. I don't remember too clearly."

Sean smiled before he said, "Time really flies by! You have already changed a lot over these few years. It seems as though both of us should keep in touch in the future! Otherwise, we might not even recognize each other when we bump into one another in two more years!"

Jasmine laughed before she replied politely, "Yes. We have not seen each other for so many years, and everyone has already changed quite a bit."

Donald was keenly aware of Sean's abnormal behavior, and he could instantly tell that his son was interested in Jasmine.

At this time, he suddenly felt that it would actually be great if Jasmine could marry into the Webb family. It would be perfect if she became his daughter-in-law!

There were many other large and powerful families in the South Region, and many of them had daughters of marriageable age. However, one of the main problems with girls from a wealthy and powerful family was that they were usually not very good looking or attractive.

Even though some of them were pretty good looking, they had very poor temperament because they had been spoiled ever since they were young. There were rarely any girls who were as intelligent and well behaved as Jasmine.

If there was a marriage arrangement between the Moore family and the Webb family, they could join forces and would also be able to actively promote and help each other out.

Chapter 540

If the two families could work together after marriage, the two families might even have an opportunity to lead and take control of the entire South Region.

As he thought about this, he deliberately smiled and asked, "Jasmine, you are so outstanding and beautiful. So, I cannot help but wonder if you are already married?"

Jasmine quickly replied in a hurry, "Uncle Webb, you must be joking. If I were to get married, my grandpa would surely have notified and invited you to come to my wedding banquet for a drink already!"

Donald smiled as he nodded slightly. This girl was very intelligent, and she knew exactly what to say.

After that, he asked again, "Then, Jasmine, do you have a boyfriend now? If you have a boyfriend, can I know which family he is from?"

As soon as Sean heard his father's question, he hurriedly looked at Jasmine with a concerned expression on his face as he looked forward to Jasmine's reply.

Jasmine immediately thought of Charlie Wade at this moment.

How good would it be if Charlie Wade was not married yet? She would have already confessed her feelings to him.

Moreover, Jasmine believed that Charlie Wade would not turn down her confession as she could be regarded as one of the better choices amongst all the girls who were interested in him. If that was the case, she could proudly reply and say that Charlie Wade Wade was her boyfriend when someone asked her a question like this...

As she thought about it, Jasmine could not help but sigh in her heart. Then, she replied, "Uncle Webb, I do not have a boyfriend yet."

Both Donald and Sean heaved a huge sigh of relief.

She did not have a boyfriend. That was perfect!

It would not be easy for them to find another girl like Jasmine. Since she was still single, it was the perfect opportunity for his son to pursue her!

Donald immediately said to Jasmine, "By the way, Jasmine, please send my regards to Lord Mooore when you go home later. Please tell him that I have already arranged for a plane to send my youngest son home for treatment tomorrow. Sean and I will be staying back in Aurouss Hilll to investigate and look into Kian's sudden illness. So, both of us would like to come and pay a visit to your grandfather tomorrow."

Jasmine did not think too much about it and simply nodded before saying, "Okay, Uncle Webb. I will definitely inform my grandfather when I get back."

Donald felt that he should take advantage of this opportunity to bring Sean over to the Moore family mansion so that they could stay there for a few days since they would be in Aurouss Hilll for some time anyway.

As the host, it was only natural for the Moore family to arrange for Donald and his son to stay at the Moore family mansion for a few days since they were visiting Aurouss Hillll. This way, he would also be able to create an opportunity for his son to get closer to Jasmine.

Donald also felt that this would be an excellent opportunity for him to bring up the topic of marriage to Lord Mooore. He presumed that Lord Mooore would not turn down his request.

After all, the Webb family was the wealthiest and most powerful family in the whole South Region. Sean was also the eldest grandson of the Webb family, and he was the first heir of the younger generation. It was not an exaggeration to say that he was a diamond in the making in the South Region.

As long as Lord Mooore agreed to his request, Donald was certain that he would definitely help him persuade Jasmine to agree to Sean's marriage proposal. That way, they would be able to decide on their marriage, and the two families could choose an early auspicious date so that they could get the marriage done and over with as soon as possible.

After all, Donald was not young anymore. He had already been looking forward to the day where he could hold his grandson and personally witness the continuation of the Webb family name. However, he had not met a woman who he deemed worthy of his son.

When he saw Jasmine earlier, he immediately felt that there would be no better candidate to become his daughter-in-law in this world other than Jasmine!

He never would have imagined that Jasmine's heart already belonged to someone else.

Moreover, the man who made Jasmine so enamored was none other than the culprit who had turned his youngest son into a shit-eating beast. It was Charlie Wade!

Chapter 541

At this time, Reuben, who had not spoken for a long time, stared at both of them coldly. He could tell that both father and son from the Webb family were interested and moved by his sister, Jasmine.

At this time, he could not help but feel a little excited.

It would be great if Jasmine could marry into the Webb family!

At that time, Jasmine would marry into the Webb family and become a part of their family. When that happened, she would naturally not be able to compete with him for the Moore family's property and inheritance. He would naturally become the well-deserving heir of the Moore family.

In fact, Reuben was afraid that Jasmine would truly end up together with Charlie Wade.

He did not know Charlie Wade's true identity and status. He only knew that Charlie Wade seemed to have some supernatural powers, and that was the reason why his grandfather respected him so much.

If Jasmine ended up with Charlie Wade, there was no doubt that Charlie Wade would marry into the Moore family. At that time, he would definitely be in trouble!

Jasmine was already his biggest rival when it came to vying for the Moore family's property and inheritance. If she did not marry far away, she would always remain as his rival and competitor!

Moreover, Reuben knew that his grandfather really respected Charlie Wade very much, and he had been desperately hoping for Charlie Wade to join the Moore family. If Jasmine could accomplish what their grandfather wanted her to do, their grandfather would certainly place more attention and focus on Jasmine and Charlie Wade!

Jasmine and Charlie Wade would certainly take over the Moore family if that happened. So, what would happen to him then?

Therefore, Reuben absolutely did not want Jasmine to end up with Charlie Wade at all!

Since the Webb family seemed to have intentions of taking Jasmine as their daughter-in-law, all he had to do now was think of a way to persuade his grandfather and Jasmine to accept the marriage proposal offered by the Webb family. Reuben had to send Jasmine away as soon as he could!

Jasmine was not aware of the intentions of the father and son from the Webb family. Finally, Jasmine and Reuben courteously approached them before excusing themselves as it was already getting late.

Donald and Sean walked both of them downstairs before they watched silently as the pair drove away from the hospital in their car. It was only at this point that Donald finally sighed and said, "Jasmine is truly a very perfect and wonderful girl!"

Sean nodded and said, "Yes, I honestly did not expect her to become even more beautiful after just a few years."

Donald replied seriously, "Beauty is one thing, but family background, education, and temperament are the most important things."

After that, he continued speaking, "Jasmine is amazing in all of those aspects. If you can marry her, it would be a good thing for you."

Sean smiled before he said, "Dad, I will really need you to help me out in this matter. Jasmine's parents have already passed away. So, you will have to try to convince her grandfather on my behalf."

Donald smiled as he assured his son, "You can rest assured. I know what I have to do. I believe that Lord Mooore will also want Jasmine to marry into a good family. The Webb family will surely be a perfect choice for him."

After that, Donald spoke up again, "I think that Lord Mooore will definitely agree to it as soon as I bring this topic up. After that, we can proceed to plan Jasmine and your marriage. If everything goes well, we should be able to discuss and plan your wedding well within a month!"

"Okay!" Sean was very excited. "It would be best if we could have our wedding this year!"

At this time, all Sean could think about was Jasmine. He had completely forgotten about his pitiful and miserable younger brother.

After returning to the ward, they found that Kian was starting to lose control again.

The nurses were already bringing in his 'extra meal' that had been sterilized under high temperature and pressure. After that, they fed Kian his food so that he could enjoy it first before they performed gastric lavage on him to wash out as much of the 'food' as they possibly could.

Donald stepped into the intensive care unit to take a look and immediately walked back out with a black expression on his face.

Sean did not even bother to enter the ward at all. He simply sat on the sofa outside as he looked through Jasmine's social media profile.

Before coming to Aurouss Hilll, he had not paid much attention to Jasmine whom he had not seen for so many years.

Chapter 542

After seeing her just now, all of his deep desires and feelings for Jasmine ignited once again.

Therefore, he wanted to browse through each and every photo of Jasmine's circle of friends.

He carefully observed every picture of Jasmine and her friends. As he looked at her pictures, he sighed as he thought to himself that she was indeed a very perfect girl, and there was not the slightest fault that he could find in her at all.

Thus, he secretly vowed to himself that he would have to get Jasmine no matter what he had to do!

On the way back to the Moore family mansion, Reuben tentatively said to Jasmine, "Jasmine, I think that Sean seems to be interested in you!"

Jasmine replied flatly, "Oh."

"Oh?" Reuben parroted her before asking curiously, "Why are you so cold and indifferent toward it?"

"Then?" Jasmine asked, "Does he mean anything to me at all? No, he is nothing to me. So, do I have to pretend to be very excited just because he is interested in me?"

Reuben asked, "Sean is very handsome. Aren't you in the least bit interested in him?"

Jasmine shook her head before she said, "I have no feelings for him at all. In fact, he is not even a friend of mine. At best, he could only be considered an acquaintance."

Reuben hurriedly tried to persuade her, "Are you stupid? Do you know how wealthy and powerful the Webb family is? They are the top and most influential family in the South Region! If you get together with Sean, this will definitely be the icing on the cake for the Moore family!"

"I have no feelings for him whatsoever," Jasmine replied indifferently. "I will not get together with a person I have no feelings for even if he is the richest man in this world."

Reuben asked in surprise, "Jasmine, don't tell me that you are really in love with Charlie Wade?!"

Jasmine glanced at Reuben embarrassedly, and she could not answer his question at all.

Reuben sighed before he said, "My dear sister, are you truly that foolish? I know that grandpa might be confused, but are you really going to try and pursue Charlie Wade just because grandpa asked you to do that? Charlie Wade is already someone else's husband. He has a wife. What about you? You are the noblest and most eligible girl amongst all the other girls in Aurouss Hilll. How could you possibly get together with a man like Charlie Wade?"

At this time, Jasmine evaded his question and said, "Brother, don't worry about me. I will take care of my own business."

"Hey!" Reuben replied as he sighed pretentiously. "I am your brother, and I've watched you grow up ever since you were a young girl. As your brother, I sincerely hope that you will be able to marry a man who is right for you and has never been married before, just like you. It would be a huge pity if you married a man like Charlie Wade who has already been married before!"

After that, Reuben continued speaking, "What's more, Charlie Wade is just a useless son-in-law who knows nothing at all. How could he possibly be worthy of someone like you?"

Jasmine turned around and looked at Reuben before she said sternly, "Brother! Mr. Wade is not as useless as you make him out to be. You just haven't seen him for who he is yet."

Reuben replied disdainfully, "What is he capable of? What other abilities does he have? All that he knows how to do is to concoct some medicine. I don't think that is so great at all."

Jasmine shook her head before she said, "Everyone has their many different faces. In many people's eyes, Mr. Wade might be nothing more than a piece of trash and a useless son-in-law. However, in my eyes, Mr. Wade is a real master, and he is different from what everyone thinks he is!"

Reuben curled his lips slightly before he said, "Don't tell me you really think that he is a real dragon in this world, Jasmine. I want to laugh when I think about it! Pfft..."

Jasmine glanced at Reuben and felt that the sarcastic expression on Reuben's face made him seem like he was mentally retarded.

However, Reuben felt that it was time for Jasmine and his grandfather to open their eyes and see Charlie Wade's true colors.

Charlie Wade was the real dragon in this world? If so, Reuben would just have to figure out a way for Sean to become Nezha so that he could strip Charlie Wade of his skin and tendons!

At the same time, Anthony was at the Serene World Clinic and was currently in a daze as he stared at the Rejuvenating Pill that Charlie Wade had given him.

He was thinking about what Charlie Wade had said to him. Charlie Wade told him that this medicine would be able to make him ten years younger, and it would also extend his life by another ten years.

Although he knew that Charlie Wade had magical powers, he still felt that this kind of medicinal effect was simply a fantasy.

As the saying goes, there would be a day when flowers bloom and people would never be young again.

Human beings could control anything in this world, but time was the only thing they could never control.

How many people in this world could actually come up with a Rejuvenating Pill that could turn time around?

However, since the medicine had been given to him by Charlie Wade, Anthony had full confidence in the medicine's ability.

He knew that Charlie Wade would never deceive or lie to him. If Charlie Wade said the medicine would have such a magical effect, it simply meant that the medicine would have that effect.

Therefore, Anthony made up his mind to take the medicine according to Charlie Wade's instructions.

Anthony carefully placed the Rejuvenating Pill into his mouth. He initially thought that it would be very difficult for him to swallow this pill. Unexpectedly, the pill immediately dissolved, and there was a pleasant and sweet taste that flowed directly into his abdomen.

This was followed by a magical moment that Anthony would never forget.

He felt a warm current tightly wrapping itself around his whole body, and it felt like strange energy was beginning to work on every part of his body.

At first, Anthony could feel some tightness on his face. Then, his scalp began to itch and go numb before the rest of his joints started feeling a little warm.

A few minutes later, Anthony felt as though he had been completely reborn!

He truly felt that his body had been restored to the way it had been ten years ago!

Anthony subconsciously stepped in front of the mirror and was shocked when he saw his reflection!

It was no wonder why he had felt some tightness on his face earlier. It turned out that his old and wrinkled skin had tightened up, and he looked so much younger than he was before!

What was even more amazing was that he previously had a head full of grey hair, but unexpectedly, half of his head was now filled with black hair!

He could also easily straighten his body which was already hunched and bent over, and there were great improvements in his severely degraded joints.

Anthony hurriedly checked his pulse and found that his breathing and pulse had greatly improved compared to how it had been before!

This meant that Anthony not only looked younger and had stronger bones, but his internal organs had all been rejuvenated and made new again!

This was equivalent to him suddenly returning to his sixties when he was in fact already in his seventies!

Anthony was filled with shock and excitement!

If a person's life was a clock, the energy stored in the clock would continue to fade over time, and this clock would stop completely when the moment came where all of the energy stored in the clock was completely exhausted.

Yet now, it seemed as though Charlie Wade had used his God's hands to rewind and turn Anthony's clock backward twice!

This also meant that Anthony's clock could run for another two more rounds!

Wasn't this a miracle?!

Chapter 544

If there was really such an elixir and miraculous medicine, even if it was one million or one billion dollars, those old and wealthy people would rush to buy it.

After all, what was the use of making more money if they were aging and getting older? If they could use that money to restore their youth, those billionaires who had tens of billions of dollars would certainly be willing to spend half or most of their wealth to earn them another ten to twenty years of life without any hesitation at all!

This was how they could buy time for themselves!

Anthony could not help but shed tears of excitement at this moment!

He could not help but cry bitterly.

Then, he immediately took out his cell phone and sent Charlie Wade a text message: [Mr. Wade, I have already taken the Rejuvenating Pill that you gave to me. Thank you for your reward. I will definitely do my best and do everything that I can for you in the future!]

Charlie Wade replied lightly: [If the effect of the medicine is good, that is the best. However, other than Xyla, you should remember not to tell anyone else about this medicine.]

After all, Charlie Wade needed a premium three-hundred-year-old purple ginseng just to create this Rejuvenating Pill. It was truly a very rare and precious medicine.

At this time, Anthony called out to his granddaughter, Xyla, who had been busy grinding medicine next door to come over to his room. As soon as Xyla saw her grandfather, she was shocked and asked, "Grandpa... What happened to you? Why do I feel as though you suddenly look so much younger? This is exactly how you looked when I was about ten years old!"

Anthony was very excited as he said, "This is all thanks to the Rejuvenating Pill Mr. Wade gave to me. He told me that I would become ten years younger and I would be able to live longer after taking this medicine. I really did not expect it to have such a magical effect!"

Xyla was stunned and blurted out immediately, "Grandpa, what kind of miraculous medicine is this? How can it have such a magical effect? This is simply too incredible!"

Anthony trembled as he said, "I have told you before that Mr. Wade is truly a real dragon in this world. Everything that he does is beyond our comprehension. I have already lived such a long life, and I never expected to be able to meet someone as amazing as Mr. Wade in this lifetime..."

As he spoke, Anthony hurriedly took out a small wooden box containing the magical pills that Charlie Wade had given to him.

There was one and a half magical pill inside the small wooden box at this time.

These were the magical pills that Charlie Wade had refined and concocted to treat and repair the body, restore nerve damages, and also to strengthen a person's body.

Half of it was the remaining half of the pill from what he used to help Charlie Wade save Jacob Wilson.

After that, Charlie Wade had rewarded him with another magical pill after finding out that he had refused to treat Kenneth's illness.

Anthony kept thinking that since he was already old, he should be carrying this one and a half magical pill around with him at all times in case of an emergency.

However, since Charlie Wade had already blessed him with a Rejuvenating Pill, he was prepared to give one of his magical pills to his granddaughter, Xyla.

Therefore, Anthony took out the whole pill before he said, "Xyla, this is the magic pill that Mr. Wade has given to me. I was originally planning to keep it for myself..."

As he spoke about this, Anthony looked at Xyla before he said sincerely, "Xyla, do not blame grandpa for being so selfish. After all, your grandpa is already old, and old people are always afraid to die. I did not want to leave you so soon..."

Xyla hurriedly cut in, "Grandpa, don't say such things! I have never thought that you were selfish!"

Anthony smiled slightly as he said, "Actually, I understand and I know full well that I am being very selfish."

After that, Anthony handed the magical pill to Xyla before he said, "Xyla, your grandfather has already received too many favors from Mr. Wade. I am already an old man, but I am truly blessed to be able to enjoy Mr. Wade's kind blessings and help. Therefore, I do not want to be enjoying all these blessings given by Mr. Wade all by myself. I am giving this magical pill to you, and you should keep this with you at all times in case of an emergency."

Xyla hurriedly waved her hands as she said, "Grandpa, you should keep this medicine for yourself! I do not need it at all!"

Anthony earnestly replied, "Xyla, be good and listen to your grandpa. You should just accept this medicine and keep it with you. Your grandpa should not be enjoying all these blessings and good fortune by myself. I want to share some of my good fortune with you."

Then, Anthony sighed again as he said, "Xyla, from now on, you have to make sure that you serve Mr. Wade well. You have to continue serving him even if your grandpa dies in the future. This is not only to repay Mr. Wade for his kindness but also so that you will be able to seek a greater blessing and good fortune for yourself!"

Chapter 545

When she saw the earnest and sincere expression on her grandfather's face, Xyla hesitated for a moment before she finally took the pill from his hands.

Once upon a time, she had also dreamt whether she could own the miraculous medicine for herself. However, she knew that her grandfather was already old, and she knew that he needed the medicine more than herself. Therefore, she did not think much about it.

Xyla never expected her grandfather to willingly give her the medicine that Charlie Wade had given to him!

Therefore, after receiving this magical pill, she was also extremely excited. At the same time, her grandfather's words kept echoing in her mind.

Serve Mr. Wade for a lifetime?

Xyla wanted to do so, but she did not know whether Charlie Wade would despise her for it.

Anthony could see right through her careful thoughts. Therefore, he smiled slightly before he said, "Xyla, Mr. Wade is a person who values love and justice. As long as you treat him wholeheartedly and are sincere, he will surely treat you in kind. Your grandpa is already old and I will not live for much longer. You are still young, and I want you to always stay by Mr. Wade's side to serve him. I can assure you that as long as you serve him with all your heart, Mr. Wade will definitely not treat you badly in the future."

Xyla nodded before she said, "Don't worry, grandpa. I know what I have to do!"

Anthony sighed as he said, "In the beginning, when Reuben invited me to come to Aurouss Hilll to treat Lord Mooore's illness, I was planning to let you come here alone. After all, my old wounds and injuries were not healed then. However, I was afraid that Lord Mooore would not be able to live for long even if you treated him. That was the reason why I decided to make the trip here anyway. Who would have known that I would meet such a noble man because of this trip to Aurouss Hilll..."

Anthony stayed up all night because he was filled with excitement.

At the same time, Lord Mooore from the Moore family also could not sleep.

However, he was not as fortunate as Anthony. After Charlie Wade had saved his life and he had taken the magical pill, his health and body were indeed much better compared to when he was seriously ill and bedridden. His legs were much more flexible, but because of his poor health, there were no massive improvements to his physical fitness.

Since the temperature in Aurouss Hilll had dropped and it was much cooler over the past two days, Lord Mooore constantly felt very cold and was coughing all the time. This was the main reason why he could not sleep at night.

Early the next morning, Lord Mooore felt very dizzy when he woke up.

He had been coughing badly and had stayed up all night because of it. Therefore, both his physical and mental health was not that good at this point.

When the old man came out of his bedroom, both Jasmine and Reuben had already left the house. Both of them were now busy running the family business for him, and they always left the house early and returned home late every night.

Therefore, Lord Mooore asked his butler, Oscar, to drive him to Anthony's Serene World Clinic. He planned to get Anthony to prescribe him with some medications to warm his body up and also to treat his bad cough.

As soon as Serene World Clinic opened its door in the morning, there was already a Rolls-Royce parked outside the entrance. The top-notch luxury car immediately caught and attracted the attention of many pedestrians.

After that, Oscar supported the elderly Lord Mooore as he got out of the Rolls-Royce.

At this time, there were four of the Moore family's most well-trained bodyguards following closely behind both of them.

Lord Mooore took two steps before he stopped to cough twice, and then he took another step forward.

Oscar supported each of his steps and also helped to rub the old man's back as he coughed. At this time, Oscar asked respectfully, "Lord Mooore, since you are feeling so unwell, you should be resting at home. I can ask Dr. Simmons to come over to see you."

"I can't do that." Lord Mooore waved his hand before he said, "Dr. Simmons is so reputable and famous, and he is a well-known doctor in this country. Many people are waiting to see him and ask for his help. So, how could I possibly ask him to come and see me because of my minor illness?"

Oscar replied, "Lord Mooore, you will be celebrating your eightieth birthday soon. You are the birthday star, so how could you possibly do everything yourself?"

Chapter 546

"It's okay." Lord Mooore replied indifferently. "I can also hand the invitation card to Dr. Simmons so that I can invite him to come and attend my eightieth birthday banquet."

Then, he pointed at the entrance of the Serene World Clinic before he said, "Come, bring me into the clinic now."

At this time, Xyla happened to be busy in the outer hall of the Serene World Clinic. When she saw Lord Mooore coming into the clinic, she hurriedly rushed forward as she said respectfully, "Lord Mooore, why are you here today? Are you feeling any physical discomfort?"

Lord Mooore coughed slightly before he smiled and said, "When a person gets older, their body and health is not as good as it used to be. Recently, the weather has gotten a little colder, and I think I am down with a cold. I came here to ask your grandfather to prescribe some medicine for me."

Xyla hurriedly replied, "Please come in immediately. I will go inside and ask my grandpa to come out!"

After that, Xyla invited Lord Mooore into the clinic. After sitting Lord Mooore down, she ran inside before asking Anthony to come out.

As soon as he heard that Lord Mooore was here, Anthony hurriedly put down everything he was doing and rushed out to receive him.

Anthony had always regarded Charlie Wade as his greatest benefactor, but he was also very grateful toward Lord Mooore. After all, the only reason why he had gotten to know Charlie Wade was because Lord Mooore had been so critically ill. That was the reason why Anthony had accepted Reuben's invitation to come to Aurouss Hilll to see him.

If it weren't because of that incident, Anthony would never have had the opportunity to meet Charlie Wade.

Therefore, Anthony had always felt very grateful toward Lord Mooore from the bottom of his heart.

When Lord Mooore saw Anthony who had just walked out from the back of the clinic, he was so shocked that he was completely at a loss for words!

He could not understand how Anthony had suddenly become so young again!

The last time they had met, Anthony was clearly a regular old man who practiced medicine and had a greying beard and hair. However, most of his grey hair was now black and shiny, and it seemed as though there were much fewer fine lines and wrinkles on his face. Anthony's shriveled body also looked much healthier, and he had a very ruddy complexion and seemed to be full of energy.

Anthony was supposed to be in his seventies, but because of his good health and complexion, he looked as though he was only in his sixties!

To Lord Mooore, this was simply the same as turning back time!

He really could not understand how Anthony could become so much younger all of a sudden!

Lord Mooore could not help comparing himself to Anthony. He was eighty years old this year and was only a few years older than Anthony. However, he looked much older because he had been critically ill and had been vomiting and sick for a long time.

However, when Lord Mooore compared himself to Anthony, he felt that they were almost a generation apart even though Anthony was less than ten years younger than him!

Lord Mooore, who was in shock, could not sit still anymore. He stood up as he trembled and asked in shock, "Brother Simmons, hasn't it only been a few days since I last met you? Why do you look so different now? I feel that you look so much younger now. You look like you are more than twenty years younger than me now! Did you discover an extraordinary way to regain your youth and health?!"

Anthony hurriedly arched his hands before he said, "Brother Moore, the reason why there is a sudden change in me is because I recently encountered a very good opportunity."

Lord Mooore was very envious when he heard Anthony's words. If he could, he wanted to encounter the same opportunity as Anthony did.

He was more than willing to do so even if it would cost him all of his wealth!

Therefore, Lord Mooore asked Oscar to retreat temporarily. When Lord Mooore was left alone with Anthony, he cautiously asked, "Brother Simmons, I wonder if it would be convenient for you to reveal where your opportunity came from?"

Anthony lowered his head as he said apologetically, Brother Moore, please forgive me but I cannot reveal the source of my opportunity. I have already made a promise, and I have to keep my word!"

As soon as Lord Mooore heard Anthony's words, his eyes flickered and he blurted out immediately, "Was the opportunity you are talking about given to you by Mr. Wade?"

Chapter 547

Lord Mooore was not stupid. What kind of opportunity could actually make a person look ten years younger than he originally was?!

He was afraid that there was only one person in Aurouss Hilll who could do such a miraculous thing.

That person was none other than Charlie Wade Wade!

Even though Anthony did not respond, Lord Mooore knew very well that Anthony must have received this good fortune from Charlie Wade. That was the reason why Anthony could become so young all of a sudden!

At this time, Anthony could not help but feel a little anxious and complicated.

He did not dare to talk about the Rejuvenating Pill without Charlie Wade's approval.

After all, Charlie Wade had expressly reminded him not to tell anyone else about this matter just yesterday.

However, Lord Mooore had already guessed it himself. Therefore, Anthony was placed in a very tough spot.

When he saw the look on Lord Mooore's face, Anthony could only reply awkwardly, "Brother Moore, you guessed this on your own. Please do not tell Mr. Wade that I said anything to you... Mr. Wade does not want me to tell anyone about this at all."

Lord Mooore was even more affirmative of his guess after listening to Anthony's words.

It seemed as though the person who gave this gift and opportunity to Anthony was none other than his good grandson-in-law, Charlie Wade!

Lord Mooore felt very envious about this.

His envy even reached a certain level where he began to feel very jealous of Anthony.

How could anyone possibly not want to be like Anthony? He was already in his seventies, but he looked like he was only sixty years old at most!

Who wouldn't want to be given an opportunity to live for another ten years or more?

As soon as a person reached middle or old age, they would definitely become more and more afraid of death and old age.

Lord Mooore was like this too.

He had already recovered from a serious illness, but there were still many minor problems with his body.

Even though the last magical pill that Charlie Wade gave to him could prolong his life for a few more years, it was simply keeping him alive.

If it was possible, Lord Mooore also wanted to have a body that was ten years younger, just like Anthony.

At this time, Lord Mooore could only sigh as he said, "I never knew that Mr. Wade had such an amazing and incredible ability!"

Anthony solemnly replied, "Mr. Wade is really very well-versed in the field of medicine. I am afraid that I can only worship and look up to him in this life..."

Lord Mooore sighed once again as he said, "If Mr. Wade could also give me this same gift and opportunity, I would not mind giving him tens of billions of dollars in return for it!"

Although he said those words, Lord Mooore knew very well that he could not go and directly make such a request to Charlie Wade. On one hand, he would be betraying Anthony, and on the other hand, he would indirectly be betraying Charlie Wade as well.

Therefore, Lord Mooore felt that he could only wait for a coincidence or the right time for him to receive this gift and opportunity from Charlie Wade. He knew that he would not be able to force Charlie Wade to do anything no matter what it was.

The best opportunity for him to receive this gift would be if Charlie Wade became his grandson-in-law!

If Jasmine could marry him, he would not have to worry about any opportunities at all.

However, it was a pity that Jasmine and Charlie Wade had not made any clear progress in their relationship whatsoever. This made Lord Mooore feel a little worried.

It seemed as though he had no choice but to find a way to bring these two young people together!

Even if the Moore family had to lose face or even if Jasmine had to end up becoming his lover, Lord Mooore would not have any hesitations at all!

This was because Lord Mooore knew that as long as Charlie Wade and the Moore family had a deeper relationship, Jasmine would not be the only one benefitting from this relationship. Instead, the whole Moore family would surely gain and benefit from this!

Chapter 548

Just when Lord Mooore had already made up his mind, Anthony suddenly asked, "Brother Moore, where are you feeling unwell today?"

Lord Mooore put his thoughts away before he looked at Anthony and said, "Brother Simmons, just take a look at me now. My body and health are worsening day by day. Since it is autumn and the weather is getting a little colder, I have recently caught a cold because I did not pay too much attention to my own health. This is the reason why I decided to come and ask you to prescribe some medicine for me today."

Anthony hurriedly replied, "Let me check your pulse for you first to see what is wrong with your body."

Lord Mooore nodded before he stretched out his hand.

Anthony placed his finger on Lord Mooore's wrist as he checked his pulse and looked at Lord Mooore's other conditions. After that, he heaved a sigh of relief when he discovered that the latter was only infected with a cold.

"It is just the chills and a slight cold. I will prescribe some medicine for you. You can take these medicinal herbs home and decoct them before taking the medicine. You will definitely feel better in two to three days."

"Thank you, Brother Simmons." Lord Mooore nodded slightly before he seemed to suddenly recall something. After that, he turned around as he said, "By the way, there is something else that I wanted to tell you."

Lord Mooore paused for a moment before he said, "I will be hosting my eightieth birthday banquet in two days. Since we are brothers who have already known each other for such a long time, you have to come to my banquet."

As he spoke, Lord Mooore handed a bronze invitation card over to Anthony.

Anthony took the invitation card in his hand before he promised, "Don't worry, Brother Moore. I will definitely be there on time."

After that, Anthony hurriedly packed the medicine for Lord Mooore and gave it to him. Then, Anthony personally sent him to the door and walked him to his car.

As Lord Mooore was returning to the Moore family mansion, Donald and Sean had just sent Kian to the airport.

To prevent him from wanting to have an 'extra meal' on the plane, the nurses guarding him waited for him to finish his 'extra meal' before they sent him up on the plane.

Kian regained his consciousness and could smell the foul stench emitting from his mouth at this time. Kian looked at his father with pain in his eyes as he choked and said, "Dad, there must be someone who is out to harm me. You have to find out who is this beast who did this to me. You have to avenge me!"

Donald nodded before he said solemnly, "Don't worry, Kian. I will find out the identity of the culprit who is trying to hurt you. I will make sure that he dies and suffers a fate worse than death for treating you like this!"

After that, Donald said once again, "After you go home, make sure you stay at home and take good care of yourself. Do not go out in public. I will look for a world-renowned doctor to treat you. I will make sure we cure you of your illness!"

Kian choked as he nodded again and again before getting on the plane reluctantly.

Finally, the Webb family's private jet took off from the Aurous Airport. Donald and Sean stood in place as they watched the plane depart and disappear into the sky.

After that, Donald turned around and said to Sean, "Come, let's go to the Moore family mansion now. We will propose a marriage between you and Jasmine today!"

Sean replied excitedly, "Great, dad! We should decide on this matter sooner rather than later. We have to finalize it as soon as possible!"

After he was done speaking, Sean nervously asked his father, "Dad, do you think the Moore family will turn down our marriage proposal?"

Donald laughed before he replied confidently, "You are the eldest son of the Webb family. Do you know how many girls from so many wealthy and powerful families are waiting in line for you to pick them? Even though Jasmine is indeed very beautiful and attractive, the Webb family is much wealthier and more powerful compared to the Moore family. Lord Moore will certainly be very excited and anxious to marry Jasmine to you!"

"Really?" Sean was very happy. "So, you mean to say that the Moore family will definitely agree with this marriage proposal?"

Donald smiled indifferently before he said confidently, "Son, in the South Region, which woman will not want to marry you? The Moore family is fortunate that you have taken an interest in Jasmine and would like to marry her! No matter what it is, in the final analysis, it is the Moore family's good fortune to be able to marry Jasmine to you!"

After that, Donald said arrogantly, "Do you believe me if I say that as soon as I bring up this matter to the Moore family, Lord Moore will absolutely agree to it immediately?"

Sean smiled brightly before he said, "Alright, then! Dad, let's go to the Moore family mansion now!"

Donald smiled slightly before he said, "You are the eldest son and the eldest grandson of the Webb family. Why does it seem as though you have no backbone or prospects at all when it comes to Jasmine?"

After that, Donald reminded Sean, "When we arrive at the Moore family mansion later, you should assume a high and mighty attitude. You should let the Moore family know that it is their good fortune if Jasmine is given the opportunity to marry you. Do you understand?"

"I understand!"

Chapter 549

Later that afternoon, at the Moore family mansion.

Donald and Sean had already selected some gifts in advance before heading to the Moore family mansion.

Lord Moore knew that the father and son from the Webb family were at Arouss Hilll, but he also knew that something had happened to the youngest son of the Webb family. Therefore, he did not expect them to come and visit him so soon.

However, since both the eldest son and eldest grandson of the Webb family were here, Lord Mooore was naturally very polite, and he came out to entertain the both of them in person.

At this time, Donald and Sean were both sitting opposite Lord Mooore in the living room, and Oscar was serving tea and snacks to everyone as they all chatted happily together.

Donald presented Lord Mooore with a lot of gifts and also shook hands with Lord Mooore as he said, "Uncle Moore, I have not seen you in such a long time! I did not expect you to look so strong and healthy at this age. I really envy you, Lord Mooore!"

Lord Mooore smiled slightly before he said, "My body is not as strong and healthy as it seems. At best, I will be able to live for a few more years."

Donald hurriedly replied, "Uncle Moore, you are truly too humble."

After that, he spoke again, "Uncle Moore, I heard that you fell critically ill the last time. However, you seem to look very radiant. I believe that you are already in good health now?"

Lord Mooore smiled bitterly before he said, "At first, I really thought that I was lucky and in good health, but I only realize today that I am far from great."

Donald was a little surprised when he heard Lord Mooore's words. He quickly asked, "Uncle Moore, what do you define as great then?"

Lord Mooore smiled slightly before he exclaimed, "Well, it would be great if I could return to the state my body was in more than ten years ago overnight!"

As he said this, Lord Mooore thought of Anthony who had subverted his cognition and shocked him terribly today.

He could not forget about it even after coming back from the Serene World Clinic, and he was still brooding over it.

He did not know if he would ever be able to experience an opportunity like that for himself. If he could, he would not have lived in vain.

Donald did not know what Lord Mooore had experienced and witnessed for himself. Therefore, he thought that Lord Mooore was joking when he said this. So, he smiled before he said, "As the saying goes, there is a day where the flowers will bloom again, but people will never become young again. Uncle Moore, I know that you wish that you were young again. I also have the same wish as you. Unfortunately, this is nothing more than a fantasy that is impossible to realize."

Lord Mooore smiled slightly and did not say anything else.

After all, the only reason why Donald felt they couldn't become young again was because he had never encountered someone like Charlie Wade in this world.

Thus, Lord Mooore did not want to waste any more time talking to him about this.

At this time, Lord Mooore suddenly asked Donald, "By the way, Donald, how is your second son's situation now?"

Donald sighed before he said, "He is still in the same condition. I have already tried all sorts of methods and ways, but there is no progress at all. I have already sent him back to Sudbury on a plane earlier this morning."

As he spoke about this, Donald continued speaking, "The reason Sean and I have decided to stay back in Aurouss Hilll is because I want to find out the reason why my youngest son suddenly came down with this illness. I strongly suspect that someone has cast a spell on him or used black magic on him. There is a strong reason for us to believe that his illness has something to do with the witchcraft practices in Southeast Asia. I wonder if you know anyone good at dealing with this kind of practice in Aurouss Hilll, Uncle Moore?"

Lord Mooore shook his head before he said, "I have only heard of witchcraft and black magic, but I have never seen or experienced it personally before. I can't even be certain whether these things really exist or not."

Donald replied earnestly, "These things are actually true, but they are usually used by the smaller communities and poorer people on the sidelines. Many people use these methods because they desire to become richer and gain wealth for themselves. Wealthy and powerful families such as ours generally do not engage in these practices."

Chapter 550

Lord Mooore nodded before he said, "Yes, the wealthy and powerful families believe in Feng Shui and the eight characters. This is the essence of our ancestry. As for the dregs in Southeast Asia, I really do not have any respect for them whatsoever."

Donald said, "From this point of view, it seems as though we really cannot find any clues leading to this matter at all. In this case, it is not easy for us to find the culprit behind this incident!"

After that, Donald clasped his fists together before he said, "Uncle Moore, Sean and I will be staying in Aurouss Hilll for a few more days. We want to stay here to investigate and look for any relevant clues about my son's sudden illness. Uncle Moore, if it is not inconvenient for you, can we stay at your house for a few days?"

At this time, Lord Mooore smiled before he said, "The Moore family has always had a good friendship with the Webb family. Why are you being so polite with me over this small matter? Since you are already here, I will naturally do my best to host both of you. I will ask the servants to clean up two of the guest rooms for you later."

The Moore family mansion was huge, and there were more than a dozen rooms on the first floor itself. There were also plenty of guest rooms in the mansion. Therefore, it was not too much trouble for Lord Moore to allow Donald and Sean to stay at their house temporarily for a few days.

Donald was overjoyed when he heard this and quickly thanked him. "Thank you for your kindness, Uncle Moore!"

After that, Donald pulled Sean who had been silent all this while to his side before he smiled and said, "Uncle Moore, I haven't officially introduced my son to you. This is Sean, the next generation heir to the Webb family in the future."

Sean hurriedly bowed as he said respectfully, "Junior Sean would like to show my respect to you, Grandpa Moore!"

Lord Moore smiled and nodded slightly before he said, "It seems as though your eldest son and the grandson of the Webb family is indeed very talented and smart!"

Donald laughed before he said, "Uncle Moore, you are too polite. In fact, both your grandchildren are also giants amongst men!"

Then, Donald sighed before he said, "Especially Jasmine. I have not seen her in so many years and I almost could not recognize her when she visited us at the hospital yesterday! She is truly becoming more beautiful and mature by the day."

Lord Moore smiled and said, "Jasmine might look very mature and capable, but she is still just a little girl at heart."

Donald nodded before he deliberately asked, "Uncle Moore, Jasmine is already of marriageable age. I wonder if you have already found a good husband for her?"

At this time, Lord Moore suddenly thought of Charlie Wade. Unfortunately, Charlie Wade was already the son-in-law of the Wilson family and the husband of Claire Wilson Wilson. Moreover, it seemed as though his granddaughter had not made any substantial progress. Therefore, he could only say, "I have not found a husband for Jasmine yet. I am not in a hurry to marry her off because she is still young anyway."

Donald hurriedly replied, "Uncle Moore, truthfully, you should be anxious about this matter. After all, time flies by very quickly. If you don't worry about it this year, you will worry about it next year and the year after that. One day, you will realize that it is already too late, and then you will rush to look for a son-in-law, wait for them to fall in love, talk about marriage, get married, and when she should conceive a baby! Jasmine might already be thirty years old by then!"

Lord Mooore nodded in agreement before he said, "Well, what you said does make sense. I will take it to heart and keep it in mind. I will also sit down with Jasmine and persuade her to start planning for her marriage earlier."

In truth, Lord Mooore was thinking that he would use this set of rhetoric theories to try and persuade Jasmine to take the initiative to pursue and attack Charlie Wade as soon as possible instead of wasting any more precious time.

On the other hand, Donald thought that he had already set the groundwork for himself and could go straight to the topic now.

Therefore, he said confidently, "Uncle Moore, since Jasmine and Sean are both about the same age and can be regarded as good friends who are of marriageable age, I wonder if you would like to become in-laws with the Webb family?"

After that, Donald smiled because he was confident that he had already won Lord Mooore over.

He felt that after listening to his persuasion, Lord Mooore would definitely agree to his marriage proposal without any hesitation.

At this time, Sean was also staring at Lord Mooore nervously as he waited for Lord Mooore to agree to the marriage proposal.

Unexpectedly, as soon as Lord Mooore heard Donald's words, he blurted out his answer immediately.

"No!" Then, he emphasized once again, "Absolutely not!"

Chapter 551

"Absolutely not?!"

Donald would never have expected Lord Mooore to turn down his request just like that.

It seemed as though Lord Mooore did not even think about it before turning down his request.

Why?

Why?!

The Webb family was wealthier and more powerful than the Moore family. His son was even the eldest grandson of the Webb family. To put it bluntly, he was the most outstanding young man in the whole South Region.

There were so many girls from many different big and powerful families who were waiting to get involved with Sean, even trying to take the initiative to get closer to him!

They were giving the Moore family face simply by saying that they had taken an interest in Jasmine!

After all, the Moore family would be using the Webb family to climb up in status!

Lord Mooore had ten thousand reasons to agree to the marriage proposal, but he should not have any reasons to turn it down!

Yet, it seemed as though Lord Mooore had turned down the marriage proposal without any hesitation whatsoever. Why?

Why did he look down on the Webb family?

Donald felt very uncomfortable and could only ask anxiously, "Uncle Moore, do you think that Sean is not worthy of Jasmine?"

In his subconscious mind, Lord Mooore indeed wanted to say "No, he is not good enough!".

Are you kidding me? Could Sean ever be compared to Charlie Wade?

In his eyes, Donald's precious son could never be compared to Charlie Wade.

After all, Sean could not make him look ten years younger in a single day.

But Charlie Wade could! He could make him look and feel ten years younger!

Moreover, Charlie Wade's talent and ability had already reached the sky. He had extraordinary strength and power. So, how could a junior from the Webb family possibly compare to him?

However, Lord Mooore could not speak too bluntly since the Webb family were still their friends and acquaintance after all. He did not want to say those hurtful words to them.

Therefore, he simply replied calmly, "Donald, please do not get too offended. I do not have the final say in this matter. As you know, the younger generation nowadays is all about freedom of love and marriage. I will leave everything to Jasmine to make her own decisions about her marriage. I do not want to call the shots for her lifelong happiness."

Donald shook his head before he said, "Uncle Moore, don't you know how our families work? In our family, no matter whether you are a boy or girl, there is no such thing as freedom of love and marriage! Don't we have to follow all of our family's arrangements? Uncle Moore, as long as you agree to the marriage proposal, I believe that Jasmine will not dare to disobey you."

Families like theirs had always paid extra attention to their marriages.

Donald initially thought that Lord Mooore would certainly agree joyfully as soon as he proposed a marriage between Sean and Jasmine. After all, the Webb family was undoubtedly stronger and more powerful compared to the Moore family. It would be an upgrade for Jasmine to marry into the Webb family.

Moreover, Jasmine was at the perfect age to get married.

Chapter 552

In these wealthy and powerful families, the girls would often get engaged when they were twenty years old.

Moreover, most of them would get married as soon as they graduated from college at the age of twenty-two or twenty-three years old.

Therefore, Donald was hoping for Lord Mooore to mention this matter directly to Jasmine. He was also hoping that Lord Mooore would directly ask Jasmine to accept the marriage proposal.

Most of the girls in these wealthy and powerful families were all aware of these family arrangements for marriage. As long as the elders in the family made the arrangements, the younger generation would naturally obey them.

Lord Mooore did not expect Donald to continue persisting even though he had already declined the marriage proposal directly.

Therefore, he could only chuckle and wave his hand as he said, "To be honest, Jasmine is still very young, and I do not wish for her to be married yet. After all, her elder brother is not even married yet."

At this time, Donald blurted out, "Boys can wait to get married even when they are older, but girls cannot do that! The latest age for them to get married is when they are at the age of twenty-four or twenty-five years old. If a girl waits until she is thirty years old to get married, that would be greatly discounting her own value too!"

Lord Mooore smiled faintly before he said, "For someone who sincerely likes Jasmine, it would not matter to them if she is twenty-four or twenty-five years old when they get married. Even if she is thirty, forty, or fifty years old, Jasmine will still be happily married. However, if someone does not truly love her, there would be a huge difference for them if they got married when she was twenty-five or twenty-six. Therefore, I only wish for my granddaughter to be happily married."

Sean hurriedly spoke up at this time. "Grandpa Moore, if you are willing to let me marry Jasmine, I promise you that I will definitely love her and treat her well for the rest of my life!"

Lord Mooore nodded before he said, "Of course I believe that you will treat her well. However, everything depends on Jasmine and I will not decide on her behalf."

Donald felt a little upset.

He had already said so much and his son had even promised to love and take good care of his granddaughter, yet, he was still rejecting them. What did he mean by that? Was he looking down on the Webb family?

Donald was silent for a moment before he asked, "Uncle Moore, can I ask you a question? Since you keep turning down my request, is it because you have a better candidate in mind to become the son-in-law of the Moore family instead?"

When Lord Mooore saw that the other party was still persistent, he did not want to beat around the bush any longer. He wanted the other party to give up. Therefore, Lord Mooore nodded before he replied, "Yes. I will not hide it any longer. I do have a strong candidate in mind."

After that, he added, "Jasmine also has a candidate in her heart, and both of us feel the same way about the same person."

Sean was extremely disappointed when he heard Lord Mooore's words. He had finally met a woman who made his heart skip a beat. However, he never expected that her family would reject him, look down on him, and also reveal that she already had a person that she loved!

Donald was also very shocked and could not hide the anger that he was feeling toward Lord Mooore at this time.

D*mn it! Did this terrible old man really have such high expectations that he even looked down on the Webb family? This was unbelievable!

As he thought about it, Donald frowned before he asked, "Uncle Moore, since this person can make you turn down the Webb family, he must be from a very wealthy and prestigious family in Eastcliff, am I right?"

Lord Mooore shook his head before he said, "No... that young man is just an ordinary man. He is not from any wealthy or prestigious family at all. In fact, if I remember correctly, he was an orphan who grew up in an orphanage ever since he was eight years old."

Donald became even angrier when he heard Lord Mooore's words, and he blurted out immediately, "How could an orphan who has no parents at all possibly be better than Sean?! Uncle Moore, what do you see in him?"

Lord Mooore laughed before he said, "Sometimes, people cannot be compared merely in terms of wealth and their family background. Some people are naturally more capable and talented compared to others."

Donald frowned before he asked, "Uncle Moore, do you mean to say that Sean is not capable?"

"Of course not." Lord Mooore smiled as he continued speaking. "I meant to say that everyone always has their own strengths and weaknesses. For instance, Sean could be very good in every aspect, but he might not be able to play basketball. However, another person might not be good at anything at all, but he could be very good at basketball. If a girl is attracted to a guy because of his basketball skills, no one could say that Sean was not good in the first place. In truth, Sean was not weaker than the other party, but he only lost simply because the girl was attracted to a guy who could play basketball."

At this time, Lord Mooore's inner thoughts were, 'D*mn it, Donald. Why do you have so much nonsense to say? I have already said so much but you still refuse to retreat. Instead, you continue to argue and try to justify your position in this matter. Do you really want me to tell you face to face that your son is nothing but sh*t in my eyes? Will you finally be satisfied then?!'

Chapter 553

Donald was a little annoyed by this unexpected response.

He thought that Lord Mooore would agree to his marriage proposal without hesitation and immediately accept his son as their family's son-in-law.

However, Lord Moored had rejected his proposal over and over again!

Humiliation and confusion filled Donald's mind.

Sean was equally frustrated and said, "Lord Mooore, why don't you want Jasmine to marry me? Our Webb family is the number one family in the South Region. Even in this country, how many could dare say that they are better than me, Sean Webb?"

Lord Mooore smiled gently at him and said, "Of course, Young Master Webb is a very excellent gentleman, but you can't force feelings to grow out of nowhere. You can take a horse to the water, but you cannot make him drink."

For Lord Mooore, it was hard for him to be too harsh against the father and son who did not have a clear conscience of the matter, so he could only beat around the bush and try to talk sense into them.

Sean snorted irritably, feeling rather upset and agitated.

He assumed the meeting would progress as smoothly as he had planned it, but it was harder than scaling Everest.

Just when he pouted in irritation, Reuben arrived home.

When Reuben saw Donald and Sean in their living room, he hurried forward and said politely, "Hi, Uncle Webb, Sean, what a surprise! Welcome to our house. May I know what's the occasion of the visit?"

Donald smiled back at him and said, "Oh, hi, Reuben. I just sent Kian back to Sudbury this morning, but Sean and I plan to stay back in Aurouss Hill to find out who is the culprit behind Kian's illness. We are here to see your grandfather and hope that we can stay here for a few days."

Then, he added, "Oh yes, by the way, do you think my son, Sean, and your cousin, Jasmine, is a match made in heaven?"

Reuben blurted excitedly, "Of course! Of course, they are! They are a perfect match for each other!"

Donald nodded with a satisfied smile and said to Lord Mooore, "Uncle Moore, see! You've heard what Reuben has said. I think even if you ask all the families in the South Region, they will say the same thing as he did."

Lord Mooore pursed his lips, embarrassed.

Reuben interjected frantically, "Grandpa, I think Sean and Jasmine would make a great couple. If they are married, it will be a strong alliance between the two families too!"

Reuben knew what his grandfather was thinking. The old man wanted Jasmine to be with Charlie Wade.

However, he strongly opposed it. He was eager to persuade his grandfather to agree to the Webb family's marriage proposal.

Lord Mooore never expected his grandson to join forces with the outsiders to persuade him! Didn't he know that he wanted Jasmine to be with Charlie Wade?

In his heart, Lord Mooore knew that Reuben was aware of his intentions, thus, he took the Webb family's side because he didn't want anything to happen between Jasmine and Charlie Wade.

Because of this, Lord Mooore felt even more disappointed with Reuben.

Lord Mooore was a man with a sophisticated mind through his lifelong experience, and he could see right through Reuben's little tricks and schemes.

He cleared his throat and said flatly, "Reuben, you are not in place to persuade me about your cousin's business."

Reuben's heart skipped a beat in fear. He shut his mouth quickly, knowing that he had upset his grandfather.

Just then, Oscar, the butler, came in from the main door and announced, "Master, Miss Jasmine is back. She is in the garage now."

Chapter 554

Lord Mooore nodded lightly as Donald and Sean exchanged glances.

Sean could see what his father was trying to say through his eyes—he was encouraging him to approach Jasmine personally about the marriage proposal.

After a while, Jasmine came into the house. She was a little surprised to see Donald and Sean at her house, however, she quickly composed herself and greeted them politely.

Donald smiled and said, "Hi, Jasmine. Your grandfather and I were just talking about you."

Jasmine asked in astonishment, "Talking about me? May I know what's the agenda?"

Sean looked at Jasmine intensely and said, "Jasmine, we've known each other since we were kids, so we can be regarded as half childhood sweethearts, right? Besides, our families have been friends for decades, so we wish to cement old ties by marriage. Hence, I asked my father to come and offer a marriage proposal to your grandfather, and he said to respect your decision. May I know if you would give me a chance?"

Jasmine stuttered awkwardly, "Sean, we have not seen each other for some time, isn't it a bit too abrupt for you to say this..."

"Oh, if you think I'm being too abrupt, we can start slowly by dating and eventually cultivating our relationship. What do you think?"

Jasmine looked at her grandfather for help and then shook her head apologetically, "I'm so sorry, Sean. I've already got someone in my mind..."

Sean was flustered but he continued, "Jasmine, your grandfather said that the man you like is an ordinary man who is not part of a prominent family. As the granddaughter of the prestigious Moore family, you will be a laughingstock if you marry such an ordinary man!"

"No, I won't," Jasmine said firmly. "You should marry the love of your life. If you get married for other reasons, it violates the pure essence of marriage."

Then, she tried to persuade him, "Sean, you said it yourself. We have known each other since young. I would like to offer a piece of advice—don't choose your spouse for the sake of the family's benefit. The marriage will not last, let alone be happy."

Sean was extremely annoyed by her remarks.

D*mn it, I came here to ask for your hand! Not only did you reject me, but you also gave me such ridiculous and nonsensical advice! How dare you shun me like this!

Donald was equally bewildered and shocked by Jasmine's response. Jasmine not only rejected his son's courtship, but she even used the excuse of an unhappy and short-lived diplomatic marriage to block his attempt to a dead-end! She was rejecting Sean through and through!

The more amazed he was toward Jasmine's wittiness, the more he hoped that Jasmine could become his daughter-in-law. She would be an excellent plus one to his son!

From this point on, he was determined that the Webb family would take down the Moore family's granddaughter by all means!

Hence, Donald stepped forward to pat Sean's shoulder and said with a smile, "Son, you and Jasmine are so young, you should advocate freedom of love and marriage. So, don't rush it. You guys are still fresh, there is plenty of time ahead. Don't be upset for now."

Lord Mooore was a little relieved when Donald took a step back. He nodded gladly and gestured to Oscar, "Arrange a guest room each for Donald and Sean, be attentive to every detail, okay? Then, inform the kitchen staff to prepare lunch and entertain our guests at noon."

Oscar bowed hurriedly and said to Donald and Sean, "Please follow me to the guest rooms."

Donald nodded and said to the Moore family members, "Excuse us, we'll see you at the dining hall later."

Then, they followed Oscar to their rooms.

Once they closed the door, Sean shouted anxiously, "Dad! How dare Lord Mooore look down on me?! What, am I not a suitable candidate for his precious granddaughter?!"

Donald plastered a calm smile on his face and said, "Kid, relax. I'll have someone to investigate if Jasmine truly has someone in her mind. If she does, I'll find out who he is!"

Chapter 555

"Who is he?!"

Sean was annoyed and frustrated. "Dad, no matter who he is, among the young people in the South Region, no one is better than me! He's just a loser! Even the dragon in the sky has to hold still around me!"

Then, his face sank as he said, "Don't you think the old man is too much? It's an honor that I want Jasmine to marry me! Who do they think they are to look down on me!"

Donald said flatly, "Sean, don't forget that we are staying with the Moore family. Walls have ears. How will you explain yourself if they hear what you've said? There will be no turning back."

Sean closed his mouth in shock.

Donald sighed, slightly disappointed. "Boy, you are always like this. Too impatient. Next time, you must be calm and steady."

"I'm sorry, dad. I didn't think straight."

"Lord Moore has always been shrewd and cautious throughout his life, otherwise, he wouldn't have been able to establish such a huge and diversified family business. I don't think he will make such a ridiculous mistake. He will definitely disagree if Jasmine likes an ordinary man, so I suspect that the guy must be somebody."

A flash of cold light flitted through Sean's eyes as he said, "Dad, I've never heard of any amazing young man among the big families in the South Region. In fact, we, the Webb family, are at the top..."

Donald pondered for a second and said, "You said it yourself. Our family is the top in the South Region, but we are at the bottom of the pyramid in the country. The truly powerful and influential families are in Eastcliff. I suspect that the man Jasmine admires may be the offspring of one of Eastcliff's big families."

Sean sucked in a breath. "Dad, what do you mean?"

"Tomorrow night, I'll organize a banquet at Heaven Springs and invite some heads of other Aurouss Hilll's families to join me. I believe they will come after hearing my name."

Right then, Oscar knocked on the door and said, "Mr. Webb, Master invites you to join him for lunch at the dining hall."

"Okay, thanks," Donald said, "Please inform Uncle Moore that we'll be there right away!"

Then, he lowered his voice again and spoke to Sean, "I have two objectives for this banquet. First, I want the guests to help us find clues about what happened to your brother. Second, I want to know who Jasmine admires so much! If he truly is the offspring of a big family, we'll have to find an alternative way to mend the matter, but if he is just an ordinary man, I'll wipe him off the grid forever!"

Sean grinned excitedly and said, "Okay, Dad, I understand!"

Meanwhile, Charlie Wade had just finished preparing lunch and was eating with Claire Wilson Wilson and his in-laws.

In the middle of lunch, Jacob Wilson looked extremely happy, and there was a wide smile plastered on his face as if something joyous was going on.

Elaine Ma frowned in annoyance as she looked at Jacob Wilson and said, "Hey, old fool, what's with that awful smile? What did you do?"

"I didn't do anything, goodness!" Jacob Wilson shrieked frantically, "We have a class reunion later in the evening, we'll visit our alma mater along with our former class teacher."

Chapter 556

"Class reunion?" Elaine Ma said disdainfully, "You guys are already a bunch of dying old folks, why would you want to have a class reunion? Haven't you heard, a class reunion is just an excuse for old lovers to go on dates!"

"Oh my God, shut up!" Jacob Wilson blurted, "There will only be guys at the reunion, we didn't invite any of our female classmates."

"Really?" Elaine Ma frowned in disbelief.

"Yes, honest! You should know best how our class was. There were only a handful of female students in our class, and all of them live overseas right now. So, there will only be us male students at the reunion."

"No, I don't believe you! You can't go!" Elaine Ma shouted. "You must be going to see that old lover of yours! Do you think I don't know!"

Charlie Wade was stunned. Did his father-in-law have some romantic love story in the past?

"What old lover? It's just a bunch of male friends!"

Elaine Ma snorted disdainfully. She turned her pouty face to the other side and ignored Jacob Wilson.

Jacob Wilson anxiously tried again, "Charlie Wade has to go with me anyway. Our teacher is wheelchair-bound now, there is no elevator in the old campus, so we need a few young and strong men to lift him to the classroom on the fifth floor. Just let Charlie Wade be my witness and report everything he sees to you. If there is a female friend present, I'll face the music!"

Elaine Ma growled, "No, I won't let you go!"

Jacob Wilson was a little annoyed by now, and he burst out, "My old friends and I, we haven't seen each other for years, how can I be absent?! Moreover, our teacher is eighty-something, this is perhaps the last time I'm going to see him!"

Claire Wilson Wilson looked at her parents and said, "Mom, just let Dad go. It's not easy to organize a class reunion at his age, you don't want him to be a laughingstock because he misses the gathering, do you?"

Elaine Ma glared at her and said, "What do you know? Your dad hooked up with a vixen in their class for a long time. If I hadn't tackled him with a little trick, your dad would have gotten together with that vixen! You would never exist!"

Charlie Wade found the remarks a little peculiar and strange. It sounded as though Elaine Ma was the boyfriend snatcher here, but why did she act like she was being reasonable?

Jacob Wilson blushed in embarrassment and huffed at Elaine Ma, "Just stop, don't blurt out our embarrassing past to the kids!"

Then, he turned to Claire Wilson Wilson and said anxiously, "Claire Wilson Wilson, don't listen to your mom's nonsense. She always blabbers nonsense from her mouth just to frame me..."

Claire Wilson Wilson blushed as well. She didn't want to know about the love triangles between her parents, so, she said to Elaine Ma, "Mom, just let Dad go to the reunion, and you can go to play mahjong. Wouldn't that be great?"

Jacob Wilson widened his eyes in astonishment and threatened, "Alright, if you don't let me go to the class reunion, you can't go play mahjong either! Let's both stay at home and stare at each other!"

Elaine Ma became outraged and shouted, "D*mn it, I'm going to make money at the mahjong game! Summer is going to the United States soon, I must play a few more games with her before she leaves. Now, I can make at least three to five thousand per game!"

Then, she turned to Charlie Wade and urged anxiously, "Charlie Wade, go with your dad later! Call me immediately if there is a female at the reunion. I'll tear his face off!"

Chapter 557

Jacob Wilson was intimidated by Elaine Ma's loud growl, but he spruced himself up and said, "A straight foot has no fear of a crooked shoe!"

Elaine Ma glared at him and uttered, "Ah, I don't want to talk to you anymore. Okay, I'm going out to play mahjong."

She then stood up and stretched out her hand at Jacob Wilson saying, "Give me your car key!"

"What? Why would you need a car for your mahjong game? I want to use it later!"

Elaine Ma rolled her eyes and said contemptuously, "Why? Do you want to show off to your friends? No way! Give me the car key, quick!"

Jacob Wilson sighed dejectedly and passed her the car key as he said, "Drive carefully, don't scratch it."

"Argh, shut up! If you provoke me again, I'll drive your car down the drain!"

Jacob Wilson was extremely agitated, but Elaine Ma felt as though she had gotten her revenge. She put on her jacket, a triumphant smile on her face, and walked out the door.

After Elaine Ma left, Jacob Wilson sighed again and said, "Charlie Wade, go with me to the reunion later. Some of my friends will bring some young people to help too."

"Okay, Dad." Charlie Wade didn't want to go but he had to.

Claire Wilson Wilson passed her car key to Jacob Wilson and said, "Dad, drive my car then. I'll take the taxi to work."

"Forget it." Jacob Wilson waved his hand. "Your car is the lousiest model of the BMW 5 Series. My friends will laugh at me if they see it."

Claire Wilson Wilson shrugged and put the key back into her bag. She said to Charlie Wade, "You guys have to take the taxi then."

Charlie Wade nodded and threw a sideways glance at Jacob Wilson thinking, 'D*mn it, the old man is too vain! Do you, out of all people, find Claire Wilson Wilson's 5 Series to be an embarrassment? Do you know that her car is actually the flagship 760?'

Meanwhile, while Elaine Ma was downstairs and heading toward her car, she heard a familiar voice calling for her.

"Hey, Elaine Ma, wait!"

Elaine Ma looked toward the direction of the voice only to realize that it was Hannah, Christopher's wife.

She was a little surprised by her presence. She had had a great time humiliating her and her husband the other day at Summer's villa, yet, she hadn't expected that this woman would show up here.

She asked curiously, "Hannah, why are you here?"

The couple's expression of resentment floated into Elaine Ma's mind, and it made her extremely thrilled and gleeful. Elaine Ma had always worried that her pension would be thrown down the drain if the Wilson family went bankrupt, but unlike before, she had become the person who wanted to see them go bankrupt the most.

It was because she had found a greater source of pleasure—to mock Christopher and Hannah!

If the Wilson family was completely bankrupt, she could insult them daily!

Christopher and Hannah had been mocking them for as long as she remembered, so she wanted to pay back for what they did to her!

Hence, she was quite happy to see Hannah here because the loser had actually appeared before her when she felt that the previous insults weren't enough!

Chapter 558

Hannah donned an apologetic expression and said, "Elaine Ma, actually, I'm here to apologize to you..."

She cleared her throat and continued, "Yes, I've always looked down on you in the past. Not only was I rude to you, but I also often badmouthed you in front of Mother. I know my mistakes now and I have deeply repented on it. So, I'm here to offer you my sincere apology."

Then, her face flushed as she bit her lips and bowed deeply to Elaine Ma.

Elaine Ma was taken aback. She thought the lunatic was here to pick a fight with her, but unexpectedly, she had apologized and bowed to her!

She had prepared herself for the verbal attacks, but she didn't know what to do now that her enemy was being so humble instead of drawing a sword.

When Hannah saw that Elaine Ma had kept quiet, she put up her best dramatic disguise and knelt on the floor, crying and begging. "Oh, my dear Elaine Ma, are you still angry at me? I'm very sorry! Over the past years, I had not figured out the truth. We are both sisters-in-law and outsiders in the Wilson family. We are supposed to team up and get along!"

Then, she slapped herself on the face abruptly and cried, "Elaine Ma, I was immature and short-sighted, I hope you can forgive me. Let's be friends again, shall we?"

Elaine Ma was extremely thrilled by the abrupt change of Hannah's attitude!

Alright!

The aloof and arrogant Hannah had actually knelt before her and slapped herself! It was such a satisfying scene!

She was never so humble and soft-spoken to her before, and today, she finally felt the refreshing feeling of stepping on someone under her foot.

Hannah got rather hot under the collar when she saw the pompous smirk on Elaine Ma's face, but she hid it under her distressed act and sighed, "Elaine Ma, to tell you the truth, I've finally come to my senses. I've been so rude and harsh to you over the years, and I treated you so badly, but for what? I gained nothing out of it. Right now, I feel very sorry and regretful. If only I'd treated you slightly better in the past, we would not end up like this, would we?"

Then, she continued earnestly, "It is all my fault, I only hope that you can forgive me for what I committed for the sake of our relationship over the years."

Elaine Ma was over the moon, but she said calmly, "Oh, Hannah, you've truly surprised me with your changes. I'm impressed! I thought you would never learn your mistakes!"

Hannah smiled bashfully and said, "Huh, see? I am and feel very sorry about it!"

For the last two decades, Elaine Ma had always dreamed that her pompous sister-in-law would be so humble to her, and her dreams had come true today!

Elaine Ma couldn't help feeling proud and said with a smile, "Well, I'm not so petty anyway. Since you've realized your mistakes, I forgive you. Let's let bygones be bygones."

Hannah said in gratitude, "Oh, thank you! Elaine Ma, you have such a forgiving heart. Let us be best friends from now!"

Although she was saying this, inside her, she cursed the worst profanities at Elaine Ma!

'Oh my f*cking god, Elaine Ma, you disgust me! How could I not know how you are after all those years of getting along? I'll compliment you first, let you float on your so-called cloud nine, and then I'll squeeze you dry!'

Elaine Ma took the BMW car key from her pocket and said, "Hannah, since we have dismissed our misunderstandings, I have to go now. I'm meeting some friends for mahjong. See ya!"

Hannah had been wondering how to invite Elaine Ma for mahjong, so when the latter said that, Hannah immediately stopped her and blurted, "Huh, are you going to play mahjong now?"

Elaine Ma nodded. "Why, yes! Why?"

"Oh, this is such a coincidence! I have a friend who is very wealthy and loves to play mahjong, but her skills are not on par. But, you know, a rich lady like her doesn't even care about money, she purely enjoys the fun the game brings her, so she doesn't even blink every time she loses tens of thousands of dollars."

Then, Hannah lowered her voice and said cautiously, "It just so happens that she's looking for a few friends to play mahjong with her every day, I wonder if you are interested. We can join forces and win big cash from her!"

Chapter 559

A flash of light sparked through Elaine Ma's eyes!

She had been worried that she wouldn't be able to find an easy mark after Summer left the country, so she was thankful that Hannah had found one for her!

Besides, she assumed that the easy mark was richer than Summer because she could only win several thousand from Summer, but this lady lost ten times the money in a day!

She loved playing mahjong with people who had deep pockets but poor skills. She could make a mini fortune from the game!

If she joined forces with Hannah and agreed on some secret codes, they could win for sure!

With this thought in mind, she was overjoyed and excited!

Money meant everything to her to the point she would definitely replace her parents with money!

She was on the edge of her seat when she heard Hannah's proposal!

Seeing the excitement in Elaine Ma's eyes, Hannah hurriedly said in a low voice, "Let's rehearse our little secret codes first. While we are at the table, we'll look at each other's gestures. We touch our nose when we want dots; we point our fingers when we want bamboo; we purse our lips when we want characters. We can work together and win big!"

Elaine Ma immediately agreed happily and said, "Okay, then. Let's play with your friends and see!"

Hannah pasted a wide smile and said, "Deal! She is very rich though. She lives in a Thompson First villa. When can we go?"

"Let's go right now! Take a ride in my BMW!"

When they got in the car, Hannah couldn't help but smirk coldly as she looked at Elaine Ma's eager expression.

In order to create a trap for Elaine Ma, she had hired two con women and spent a bit lavishly to rent the Thompson First villa. Her goal was simple. She wanted to win all of Elaine Ma's money and property, leaving her with nothing!

Of course, Elaine Ma didn't know that she was walking right into the trap. She was in the midst of the excitement to bully the so-called easy mark.

While Elaine Ma and Hannah were on their way to Thompson First, Charlie Wade and Jacob Wilson arrived at Jacob Wilson's alma mater, Bell Height University.

Charlie Wade was a little surprised as he looked at the majestic gate tower carved in white marble at the entrance and the arch with the name of the school written on it—National Bell Height University.

He never imagined that his father-in-law, who always looked so useless and inept, graduated from an ivy league!

In fact, during his era, a university student was scarce compared to now, let alone one from a famous university..

Jacob Wilson sighed at Charlie Wade's surprised gaze and asked, "Why? You don't think that I look like someone who has gone to college, do you?"

Charlie Wade nodded blankly. "Dad, you honestly don't look like you've graduated college.."

Jacob Wilson sighed again, but this time, there was a proud light on his face. "Back then, I was quite popular in school, and my academic tracks were excellent. I would have furthered my studies up north, but I didn't want to be too far away from home."

Charlie Wade chuckled and asked curiously, "What happened later? Why did you become a househusband after graduating from a prestigious university?"

Charlie Wade looked at Jacob Wilson and felt that it was rather interesting that he, a dignified university graduate and the second son of a wealthy family, had eventually turned into a useless man who was scolded by his wife every day.

Jacob Wilson choked for a bit and mumbled bashfully, "Later... Sigh, I don't want to talk about it, it's nothing but bitter tears.."

In the middle of their conversation, a man about the same age as Jacob Wilson walked out from behind the gate and rushed toward them when he saw them.

"Hey, Jacob Wilson, long time no see! Wow, look at you, so smart and charming.."

Chapter 560

Jacob Wilson stared at the man standing in front of him for a while before he laughed and said in surprise, "Oh my God, is that you, Eric? Eric Shaw? Wow, we haven't seen each other for about 30 years! Look at you, so smart and handsome! You must be doing very well, huh!"

Eric shook his head. "Nah, I'm nothing compared to you, Jacob Wilson. You are, what the youngsters nowadays say, the rich kid on the block.."

The Wilson family had been a noble family name back in the days.

At that moment, Lord Wilson had been in his prime, earning his first pot of gold when he plunged into the business arena for the first time, subsequently earning himself an honored reputation too. Hence, Jacob Wilson was living a good life thanks to his father. His pocket money alone might be more than half of his classmates combined.

Because of this, he had attracted the attention of Elaine Ma from another class.

Jacob Wilson chuckled bashfully at his friend's remark, but before he could say anything, another middle-aged man and a young man walked toward them.

The middle-aged man approached them and snorted, "Huh, rich kid my *ss! You guys don't even know his current situation because you are not staying here... Let me tell you, the so-called Wilson family is done, and our Jacob Wilson here is not doing so well himself..."

Jacob Wilson's expression turned a little gloomy. "Hey, Aaron, what's your point? I live my life, you don't have to poke your nose into my business."

Eric cleared his throat and tried to ease the mood. "Hey, you guys, look at yourselves, white hair and all. It's been such a long time, why are you two still behaving like Tom and Jerry? You always got on each other's nerves back in college. Why, couldn't any of you forget about the robbing girlfriend agenda?"

Jacob Wilson sneered and said with a proud look, "Huh, why do I have to get on his nerves? He is nothing but my defeated opponent. At that time, when she was dating me, Aaron was so jealous that he drank like there was no tomorrow in the dorm every day, crying when he was drunk. I know that he was so jealous of me to the point he wanted to kill me so badly! Hahaha!"

At this moment, a lot of elderly people surrounded them. They laughed upon Jacob Wilson's remarks and added, "Yes, that's right! Aaron was truly infatuated back then. I still remember how he cried every day, his eyes were so swollen that he could barely see."

"Yes! Haha! Everyone was saying what a hopeless romantic he was!"

As Charlie Wade listened to the men's conversations, he couldn't help feeling astonished.

Had his father-in-law and this Aaron been rivals in love?

Did this Aaron also like Elaine Ma?

Elaine Ma was clearly a fire pit, how could she possibly have attracted so many people to jump in?

Were they that blind and dumb?

Aaron was agitated by the mocking and teasing. He glared at Jacob Wilson and growled, "Hey, Jacob Wilson, don't simply brand me with names before verification! Did you just say that I'm your defeated opponent? What a joke! Did you win? Did Matilda stay with you in the end? No, right? She dumped you and went to The States!"

Matilda?

Charlie Wade finally realized that they were not talking about Elaine Ma...

The group of friends laughed.

Someone patted Jacob Wilson on the shoulder and asked curiously, "Jacob Wilson, why did Matilda break up with you anyway?"

"Yes! We have been so curious about this for decades! Tell us, what happened?"

Jacob Wilson didn't expect that his friends would turn their focus back to him. He waved his hand and said awkwardly, "Sigh, let's not talk about the past..."

Charlie Wade caught a glimpse of heartbreak and pain in Jacob Wilson's awkward expression.

Was there any hidden agenda in the past between his parents-in-law?

Chapter 561

Charlie Wade couldn't help quenching his curiosity and asked, "Dad, who is this Matilda that everyone is talking about?"

Jacob Wilson rolled his eyes and shushed him, "Shush! You don't have to rub it in!"

Charlie Wade shrugged indifferently and kept quiet.

Meanwhile, as more and more people surrounded them, Aaron spruced himself up proudly and introduced the young man standing next to him. "Guys, I would like all of you to meet my son-in-law, Jake Dunn. He owns a startup company in the internet service industry, and the company will soon be listed on the Growth Enterprise Market."

"Wow!" Eric exclaimed in shock. "How much will the company's market be worth after listing? I bet it must be hundreds of millions, right?"

"Hundreds of millions?" Aaron curled his lips pompously and blurted, "It starts with a billion, to say the least! Think about it, do you know how difficult it is for a company to be listed?! Without a certain foundation and stability, how could a company pass so many rounds of reviews by the Securities Regulatory Commission?"

Then, he added, "Tell you the truth, when his company is listed, the market value will definitely exceed 1 billion dollars! The performance of his company has risen very rapidly over the past two years. If you're interested in making money, you should buy his company's shares!"

Jake, Aaron's son-in-law, who had been quiet the whole time suddenly said, "Dad, hold on, relax. I'm just an entrepreneur who recently ventured into the industry. I pale in comparison to your old friends who have made great achievements throughout their lives!"

Jake's modesty had won the favor of many people at the scene.

An old man with silver hair sighed, "Oh, Aaron, your son-in-law is so young and promising, yet, so humble and low-key. He is a good son-in-law, you're very lucky!"

"Of course!" Aaron nodded dismissively. Then, he turned to Jacob Wilson and asked attentively, "By the way, Jacob Wilson, what does your son-in-law do?"

"My son-in-law?" Jacob Wilson glanced at Charlie Wade and huffed a disappointing sigh. He wanted to brag and conceal it with a lie, but it would be even more embarrassing if someone saw through his lies, so he said sheepishly, "He does housework."

"What? Housework?" Loud waves of laughter echoed among the crowd.

No one would have thought that they would get such an absurd answer from Jacob Wilson.

Aaron grinned and said, "He does housework, which means he doesn't have a job, am I right? Jacob Wilson, I heard that you are a househusband as well, right? Why don't I ask my son-in-law to assign some jobs for both of you? Jacob Wilson, you're quite old now, I think you should be fine with being a guard at the entrance. As for your son-in-law, he is young and has experience in housework, so he can work at the staff canteen as a chef and waiter. What do you think?"

The crowd laughed again.

Charlie Wade remained silent the whole time. He was so used to being insulted and mocked over the years that he felt nothing out of it. He had gone through worse insults than this, so not only did he not feel ashamed at all, but he felt that Aaron's sarcasm was a bit mediocre.

Jacob Wilson, on the other hand, was extremely infuriated. He cursed inside his heart, 'Aaron Philips, you jerk! You pompous b*stard, you started to mock and tease me when we've just met, you've crossed the line! Do you still hold a grudge for not being able to tackle Matilda? That's why you can't get off my back after so many years!'

Aaron started again when none of them responded, "Hey, Jacob Wilson, are you deaf? I kindly introduced some jobs to you, can't you say something?"

Then, he turned to Charlie Wade and blurted in annoyance, "Young man, your father-in-law's brain cannot function very well due to his age, so I can forgive him for being slow and impolite. But you, young man, are you impolite and slow like him too?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Uncle, frankly speaking, I'm not cheap to be hired. My required salary is very high."

Chapter 562

"High salary?" Aaron curled his lips into a smirk. "How high do you want? Is four to five thousand enough to hire you as a chef?"

Jake wanted to please his father-in-law, so he said, "Dad, since he is your old friend's son-in-law, I must give him some additional benefit. Okay then, I'll give you ten thousand per month!"

Charlie Wade chuckled in amusement and said, "Pardon me, but I don't want money."

Aaron frowned, confused. "You don't want money, then what do you want?"

"Whoever hires me has to marry his daughter to me. Let's take my father-in-law as an example. He wanted to hire me to do household chores, so he married his darling daughter to me. So, Aaron, if you want to hire me, you must marry your daughter to me too!"

Aaron's face flushed in fury as he shouted, "You are so ungrateful! I'm being kind enough to offer you a job and this is how you repay me?!"

The enraged Jake glared at Charlie Wade and said, "Hey, buddy, my father-in-law has only one daughter, and she is my wife! Be careful with what you say, otherwise, I'll kill you!"

Charlie Wade chuckled. "You guys are so funny. Did I ever ask you to offer me a job? You guys started it first. Since you wanted to give me a job so badly, I stated my terms and conditions. Just say yes if you agree, and no if you disagree, isn't that normal?"

Jake angrily said, "Why did you make such an absurd request? You're looking for trouble!"

Charlie Wade said flatly, "No, I'm not. That was my condition all along. Frankly speaking, I have been married to my wife for over three years. For the past three years, I've been doing all kinds of household chores at home, cooking, cleaning, going to the market, that's my job scope, and my salary package is my wife. If you want to hire me, you have to follow the terms I requested. If you can provide it, that's fine, but if you can't, just shut up. Plain and simple. Can't you understand such a simple exchange?"

"You..." Aaron and Jake were speechless and dumbstruck.

Charlie Wade was right.

He had never asked them for a job, instead, it was they who had come at him pompously. Charlie Wade had stated his terms for accepting the job, so why were they so furious about it?

Sensing that a battle was about to erupt, the crowd quickly interjected, "Hey, we're all here for the reunion, let's have fun and enjoy the party. Don't quarrel over such a small matter."

Aaron and Jake were agitated as the tables were turned, but they couldn't say anything to ease their anger.

After all, they had started the dispute first, and everyone was witnesses. If they held Charlie Wade accountable, the crowd would look down on them for being petty.

Jacob Wilson, however, was thrilled and happy!

He didn't know that his son-in-law was so clever and witty that he had managed to defend himself and forced Aaron and Jake to be quiet. He gave him a thumbs up excitedly.

Jake glared at Charlie Wade with a bit of resentment in his eyes.

Initially, he had intended to show off in a low-key way at his father-in-law's reunion since he was the owner of a soon-to-be listed company, yet, Charlie Wade had come out of nowhere and pushed him into a trap he had dug himself.

It was such a bitter pill for him to swallow, he had to find a way to turn the tables!

Chapter 563

In order to turn the tables, Jake recalled a name that Aaron had mocked Jacob Wilson with, Matilda. So, he pretended to be curious and asked, "Dad, what's the issue with this Matilda that you talked about earlier? You guys seem to be very close to her, I'm rather curious..."

Aaron threw a sideways glance at Jacob Wilson and said with a grin, "Matilda Hall was the most beautiful girl in our batch, and a lot of boys fell in love with her. In fact, if her admirers queued up, it would circle the university twice."

Then, Aaron deliberately raised his voice and laughed, "Eventually, Matilda must have been hypnotized or something, because she chose Jacob Wilson! Since he was in love with the most beautiful and popular girl in school, he had to avoid walking into people for fear that he would be ambushed and beaten."

"What happened later?"

Again, Aaron looked at Jacob Wilson in amusement and giggled. "Then, Matilda dumped him and flew to the United States. She hasn't come back since."

Then, he turned to Jacob Wilson and asked in a mocking tone, "Oh, Jacob Wilson, do you know why Matilda broke up with you?"

Jacob Wilson growled, "It's none of your business."

Aaron laughed at his reaction. "Let me tell you, in truth, Matilda was irritated because of her countless admirers, so she decided to find a fake boyfriend to shun all the annoying buggers. Hence, she chose you, and you were the only one who was kept in the dark. After she used you, she dumped you and went abroad! Hahaha!"

Jacob Wilson shouted angrily, "Shut up! Matilda and I broke up because..."

He couldn't finish his sentence.

His expression changed from outrage to regret, desolation, and sadness. He hung his head low, sighed gently, and waved his hand. "Forget it, let's drop the subject."

"Oh, don't!" Aaron said aggressively. "Don't leave your words hanging like that! Tell us, why did you break up with her? Wasn't it because she was done with you?"

"Of course not!"

"Tell us then!"

"It's between us, you have no business meddling in our affairs."

Aaron clicked his tongue in annoyance and said, "In my opinion, you are just too embarrassed to admit that you were fooled!"

Jacob Wilson waved his hand dejectedly. "Say whatever you want, no comment."

"You..." Aaron didn't expect Jacob Wilson to call a truce so soon, and he rolled his eyes at him in agitation, feeling as though he had punched air instead of a sandbag.

At this moment, more and more people had arrived, and very soon, more than twenty guys were gathered at the gate.

Jacob Wilson was right, the people who came to the reunion were all guys.

These elderly pals seemed to have a very sincere and genuine friendship among one another. They started chatting with each other, and Charlie Wade even saw that some of them had tears in their eyes.

Eric, the first to approach Jacob Wilson, came to them and ushered, "Guys, don't just stand there, come in and talk."

Aaron nodded. "Yes, let's go to our old classroom to talk. Mr. Lee may take a while to arrive since he is feeling under the weather. Let's go in first."

The crowd gathered to walk into the school together. Someone asked Eric, "Hey, what did you talk about just now? It seemed to be an intense conversation."

Eric laughed and said, "We were talking about Matilda Hall. By the way, will she come today?"

Someone laughed. "Jacob Wilson didn't even ask this question, don't be too nosy."

"Well, I ask on behalf of him! Matilda was his first love, I wonder if he still remembers her after all these years."

Aaron interjected with a sneer, "I bet he can't forget Matilda for the rest of his life, given his dire and catastrophic life now."

"Huh? What happened?" Someone asked curiously.

"I'll tell you more in detail once we get to our classroom."

Jacob Wilson huffed irritably, "Oh, can you just shut up for a second?"

Aaron chuckled and said, "But I want to talk about it, can you control my mouth?"

As they walked into the classroom, the group of men looked around them, and the nostalgic memories of their good times in university flooded their minds. Some of them even wept as soon as they walked into the room.

Aaron sat in his seat and sighed as if he was regretful before speaking, "To tell you guys the bitter truth, Matilda was just looking for an excuse to shun her admirers, that's why she was together with Jacob Wilson. See, she went to the States right after graduation."

Aaron huffed a breath and continued, "I heard that Jacob Wilson's mother didn't seem too fond of him, which was why he was a complete failure in life until he had a daughter. He thought that he could turn his life around with his daughter's help, but who knew she found herself a loser husband! I even heard that his son-in-law is an orphan and a moocher, so, compared to us, Jacob Wilson didn't do so great after graduation."

The guys were intrigued by the topic. They gathered around Aaron and wanted to know more about the details.

Charlie Wade scratched his nose in amusement, thinking that Aaron knew Jacob Wilson's situation very well. He even knew his orphan status and the moocher thing. It looked like his resentment toward Jacob Wilson was indeed very deep!

Someone gaped in shock and said, "But why did Jacob Wilson become like this? He was the chairman of the student union and the top student in school, why did he end up like this?"

Jacob Wilson cursed angrily, "Aaron Philips, can you shut up?"

Jake giggled in amusement and said, "Uncle Wilson, why so serious? Everyone is just trying to have some fun, no one will take it seriously. Please try to be a little open-minded."

Jacob Wilson was extremely gloomy and frustrated. The happiness came from the basis of his pain, what was so fun about it?

Aaron glanced at Jacob Wilson resentfully and smiled as he said, "That's not the worst. Do you know what the worst thing is?"

"What?" the crowd asked simultaneously.

Aaron laughed. "The worst thing is, Jacob Wilson married a certain celebrity in our school! Guess who she is?"

Someone complained, "Ah, how can we guess that? We went to other places for work after graduation unlike you who has always been in Aurouss Hilll. Of course you would know more than we do!"

"That's right. Enough with the cliffhanger, hurry up and spill the beans! We are all curious!"

Aaron laughed again before saying out loud, "He married Elaine Ma Parker, the number one vixen in our school back in those days!"

Chapter 565

When Elaine Ma's name echoed across the room, Charlie Wade was so shocked that his jaw dropped. He never expected that Elaine Ma and Jacob Wilson were collegemates!

He didn't even expect that she had the reputation of the college's number one vixen!

Honestly speaking, Elaine Ma didn't seem like someone who had gone to a university before.

Honestly, she didn't even seem like a person who had finished junior high!

Given her inferior temperament and character, it was incredible for her to be admitted into the university.

Charlie Wade was not the only one surprised at this moment.

All of Jacob Wilson's classmates were equally dumbfounded and shocked!

No one thought that Jacob Wilson would end up with Elaine Ma!

Although Elaine Ma was not in the same class as them, her reputation preceded her back in the days!

She was the symbol of arrogance and stubbornness back then, very vicious too. Stealing other people's things was normal for her. When she was caught, instead of admitting her mistakes, she would fight with the person who had caught her.

There was a particular occasion that had made her famous. One day, her thermos broke, but she didn't want to spend money on a new one, so she stole one from the cafeteria.

The owner of the thermos had been a huge and brawny boy. He went to Elaine Ma to reclaim his thermos, but she had pointed at his nose and scolded him for half an hour.

Annoyed, the boy had slapped her. Elaine Ma then carried a bottle of hot water and threatened to splash it on him. The boy ran for more than ten minutes, but he was splashed by the hot water that burned his hand.

Elaine Ma even threatened the boy that if he still dared to approach her, she would splash him with sulfuric acid instead of hot water.

Sure enough, the boy had been terrified and didn't dare to report her wrongdoings. Instead, he begged her to let him go.

Because of this incident, Elaine Ma had become very famous at school, infamous in fact.

Ever since then, no one dared to mingle with her. She would even dare to shout and beat up boys, and a lot of them had been scolded by her.

So, when they heard that Jacob Wilson and Elaine Ma were married, everyone was stunned!

Someone looked at Jacob Wilson sympathetically and asked, "Jacob Wilson, I remember that Elaine Ma was indeed fond of you, but you were doing so well back then. Why did you marry her?"

Jacob Wilson was agitated as he was reminded of the horrid past, and he growled, "Why do you want to know? You guys are so annoying!"

Aaron, on the other hand, was thrilled to see Jacob Wilson's irritation. He explained with a happy grin on his face. "You guys didn't know much about it, but I do. Do you still remember the senior year party after graduation?"

"Yes, yes! I remember that many of us were drunk."

"Yes, it was at that party that Elaine Ma made Jacob Wilson drink so much then he went unconscious. Some guys offered to send him home, but Elaine Ma stopped us, saying that she would handle him. Do you know what she did? She carried Jacob Wilson to the motel..."

"The motel?! Oh my God, seriously?!"

"You guys left early, but I was very curious, so I followed them and took a peek. Guess what happened?"

"D*mn it, Aaron, hurry up already!" Someone huffed.

Aaron laughed and finished his story. "Elaine Ma did the deed with him that night, and he hit the jackpot! Not long after, they realized that Elaine Ma was pregnant. Matilda left the country immediately after graduation, so Jacob Wilson had no choice but to marry Elaine Ma. Hahaha!"

Chapter 566

Everyone laughed hysterically upon the reveal! No one would have predicted such an amazing twist in the story!

Jake added, "Wow, Uncle Wilson, you're incredible! You're like the main character in a romance movie where you broke up with your college sweetheart and married your nemesis! Hahaha!"

Charlie Wade was not in place to comment about the matter, but he found the whole incident hilarious as well.

Never did he think that there was this kind of backstory of his parents-in-law. Elaine Ma was herself through and through. Not only did she get Jacob Wilson drunk, but she also did the deed with him! It was such a devious act!

After muffling their laughter, the men felt sympathetic toward Jacob Wilson and started offering him words of encouragement and comfort.

Aaron still kept an eye on Jacob Wilson and said with a laugh, "Don't sympathize with Jacob Wilson yet. Elaine Ma was pretty miserable to marry him!"

The crowd was puzzled. "What's so miserable about it? She got to marry Jacob Wilson, isn't that enough?"

Aaron sighed. "Oh, there's something you don't know. Elaine Ma was aiming at rich kids, dreaming that she would marry them and live a lavish life after marriage. That was why she fell in love with Jacob Wilson, because, well, his family was quite rich at that time..."

Then, he changed his tone to one of mockery and said, "But who knew, Jacob Wilson would be so useless after graduation, he didn't get any resources nor attention from his family, and then, the family started to deteriorate year after year. Elaine Ma's dream of becoming the wife of a rich man was shattered! She didn't even know that she married a deadbeat loser!"

Jacob Wilson was abashed as Aaron revealed his affairs, his face turning into a bright shade of red as he shouted, "Aaron Philips, I'm warning you, stay away from my business!"

Aaron snorted, "Huh, everyone in Aurouss Hilll knows about your family's affairs! Do you think they won't know about it if I shut up?"

Then, he continued loudly, "Initially, your family was quite influential and powerful, so you could still cheat your way when you're outside by using your family's name. But now, your family is done. You are just a loser who doesn't know how to earn money, Elaine Ma is playing mahjong day in and day out without a proper job, your son-in-law is just a deadbeat moocher, thus, your entire family solely depends on your daughter's income! I wonder what kind of sins did your daughter commit in her previous life that she was reincarnated into such a useless family and ended up with a loser husband. I pity her!"

Charlie Wade grew a little agitated upon the mention of Claire Wilson Wilson.

He wouldn't mind if they teased him or even his in-laws, but he would never allow them to comment about Claire Wilson Wilson.

Because she was his wife.

He frowned and said, "Uncle Philips, just mind your own business. Stop poking your nose into other family's affairs."

Aaron responded with a look of disdain, "Why? I'm just concerned about your family, am I wrong?"

Then, he stood up and blurted in an arrogant tone, "Yes, I think that it's a pity for Jacob Wilson's daughter to be in such a dysfunctional family. Look at me, I'm in the senior management of a petrochemical company. I earn a salary of twenty thousand a month just by reporting at work daily. When I retire at the age of 65, I'll get a pension of around twenty thousand and 100% reimbursement for medical treatment!"

"My wife is a deputy manager of the company too, she earns fifteen thousand a month. When we both retire, our national pension will be worth forty thousand a month!"

"Now, look at Jacob Wilson and Elaine Ma. They are in their fifties, but do not have a formal job. They won't even have a pension when they are old. They will become a social burden, won't they?"

Next, he pulled his son-in-law to stand beside him and said seriously, "Now, look at my son-in-law, the CEO of Aurous Continental Technology which will soon be listed on the GEM! His company's revenue will reach about one to two billion a year, and he can be regarded as one of the top pioneers in Aurouss Hilll! Look at how our family is thriving, this is what a comfortable life should be!"

The flattering and envious voices resonated around them, everyone praising Aaron and Jake.

Indeed, their family's career and their financial foundation were enviable among the crowd.

Aaron was indulging in the awe and admiration that was showered upon him at this moment as he glared disdainfully at Jacob Wilson and Charlie Wade, thinking, 'Huh, I've been waiting for this moment for a long time! It truly doesn't disappoint me! I'm so excited and happy!'

However, he failed to notice the playful smirk on the corner of Charlie Wade's lips.

"Oh, are you and your wife working at the petrochemical company? And your son-in-law is the CEO of Aurous Continental Technology. Good to know. I was a bit worried about how to deal with you, but thankfully, you've revealed all of your information, thank you for that."

Chapter 567

Thanks to Aaron's information, Charlie Wade sent Isaac a message asking him to investigate Aaron Philips and his wife's personal information as well as their track record at the petrochemical company. At the same time, he asked him to check the relevant information of Aurous Continental Technology.

While Isaac was working on the tasks, Aaron was enjoying the flattering words and admiration of his friends.

This group of old people mostly worked in government sectors or state-owned enterprises. Most of them were regular staff who had spent their years working hard for the company. They were earning a few thousand dollars a month which fell short of the best but better than the worst.

Hence, Aaron, who was in the senior management of the petrochemical company, made them very envious.

The petrochemical company provided the perfect track of performance and revenue. Although the management team in a petrochemical company was not its core cadres, it could be regarded as one of the prominent positions in the company. Based on their salary package and employees' welfare, it was a lucrative career that surpassed everyone in the room.

What's more, his son-in-law was the CEO of a company that was about to go public! A listed company could garner a net worth of several billion or even tens of billions! Jake was still so young, he would likely be a super-rich man given a few years.

Jacob Wilson felt defeated and upset.

Back then, Aaron had indeed been his defeated opponent. He went after Matilda with great efforts, but she had ignored him completely. On the contrary, Matilda and Jacob Wilson had fallen in love at first sight.

Aaron was spreading falsified rumors about how Matilda only saw him as a backup. It was total bullsh*t!

Back then, he and Matilda were madly in love and had even wanted to get married then. Matilda had even lost her virginity to him.

Unfortunately, Elaine Ma, the shameless vixen, had set him up. She made him drunk, did the deed with him, and went to flaunt it to Matilda. Matilda had been heartbroken and left the country.

In summary, Elaine Ma was the cause of everything that had happened to him!

If it weren't for her, he would have gotten married to Matilda, furthered their studies abroad together, and started their lives together there!

As the memories flooded Jacob Wilson's mind, he was bombarded by a mixture of feelings and overwhelming bitterness. It was so painfully bitter that he felt like crying and couldn't be bothered by Aaron's attack.

At this moment, Charlie Wade received a reply from Isaac. He had obtained the detailed information of Aaron and his family in just a few minutes.

Aaron Philips, the deputy chief of the sales department of the petrochemical department. He seemed to have quite a bit of authority with a lucrative salary package, but he took quite a large amount of kickbacks and bribery. On the surface, it seemed as though he only earned twenty thousand of wages a month, but the fact was he had bribed thousands of millions of dollars using his position as a mask.

Some of the assets he embezzled had been transferred to offshore accounts overseas, some under his daughter's name, and some were laundered by investing in Jake's company.

As for Jake Dunn, he was a loser who had failed many times in his business a few years ago. When he found out that Aaron was a small-time leader with real authority in the petrochemical company, he had pursued his daughter and had gotten her pregnant.

They had gotten married immediately afterward. He had asked Aaron to support his business, thus, Aaron personally funded 30 million dollars for Jake to start up his company.

Moreover, Jake's Aurous Continental Technology was essentially a money laundering company for several illegal casinos in Aurouss Hilll.

They had established an internet crowdfunding app that imitated a fundraising website for sick patients, but in fact, the so-called donations came from multiple accounts in the underworld. The money was aggregated into a large pool, then, it would be distributed to the virtual 'patients' in millions of millions of dollars. That was why the company's track of performance seemed perfect in the book.

Ironically, the biggest client of Jake's company was Don Albertt Rhodes.

Albert owned several underground casinos in Aurouss Hillll that he laundered the money through the company's crowdfunding app.

A gratified smile appeared on Charlie Wade's face as he read the messages.

'Aaron Philips, Jake Dunn, I will let you enjoy this for a few more minutes. When you have had enough, what awaits you is endless darkness!'

Chapter 568

At this moment, someone shouted from outside, "Guys, Mr. Lee is here. Quick, get two young men to help carry him up the stairs."

Jacob Wilson finally breathed a sigh of relief and urged Charlie Wade, "Hurry, go and help."

Charlie Wade nodded.

Aaron said to Jake as well, "You too. We old folks are not as strong as the youngsters, we can't do it anymore."

"Okay." Jake nodded and walked out the door with Charlie Wade.

As they walked down the stairs, the supercilious Jake walked ahead of Charlie Wade and didn't bother to even bat an eye at him.

Charlie Wade couldn't be bothered either. This bugger and his company wouldn't survive after today anyway. He just needed to find the best timing to deliver the fatal blow.

Extreme joy spawned extreme sadness, and that was the worst blow a man could get. Jake hadn't reached extreme joy yet.

They arrived downstairs and saw an eighty-something-year-old man with white hair sitting in a wheelchair and looking up at the old school building.

A middle-aged man was standing next to him. He smiled when he saw Charlie Wade and Jake, and he said, "Hi, thank you for your help. I'm sorry for the bother, but I really can't carry him up the stairs. The lecture building is so old, there isn't even an elevator installed. My dad always wanted to come back to school to have a look after he retired, but because of his legs, he can't go anywhere."

The old man laughed. "Well, you watch over me like a mother hen just because you don't want me to move a muscle. I can climb up there myself if I want to."

This tickled his son's laughing bug, and he laughed along with his father as he said, "Father, you've been teaching at the university for your whole life, aren't you bored of the campus?"

Mr. Lee shook his head with a warm smile on his face and said righteously, "Teaching and educating people is a lifelong mission."

His son smiled helplessly and said, "Okay, fine. We'll fulfill your wish today and let you give your old students a lesson."

Charlie Wade listened in awe and respect. These older generation educators saw their occupation more than just a job, but a lifetime career, a faith.

There was a trace of disdain that flashed across Jake's face, but he remained expressionless and said, "Let's go, everyone is waiting."

Then, he looked at Charlie Wade and urged, "Hey, come and give me a hand!"

Charlie Wade replied without even looking back at him, "I'd rather do it by myself than work with a clumsy person like you. I don't want Mr. Lee to fall and hurt himself."

"What? Are you sure you can do it alone?" Jake glared at him in disbelief.

Ignoring him, Charlie Wade walked behind the wheelchair, stretched his arms on the wheels, and grabbed them firmly. Then, he lifted the wheelchair as if he was a forklift and walked up the stairs steadily.

To begin with, Charlie Wade's physical strength was extraordinary. Also, he had taken two of the Rejuvenating Pills a few days ago after he had made them, and his physical strength had improved greatly. It was nothing to him if he had to carry a much heavier load, let alone an old man in a wheelchair.

Jake was astonished, yet, he shrugged happily since he could save his energy without having to lift the old man. He followed behind them and said with a grin, "Hey, tough guy. Since you're so strong, you can work at the construction site carrying bricks and concrete! I have a friend who is in the construction industry, would you like me to introduce him to you?"

Charlie Wade looked back at him and asked with a smile, "Oh, do you want to carry bricks and concrete at the construction site?"

"I meant you!" Jake growled contemptuously.

Charlie Wade chuckled. "Okay, good to know that you've made an arrangement for yourself! So, I'll let you work at a construction site for 20 years, what do you think?"

Chapter 569

Jake hissed at Charlie Wade's irrelevant response, "Do you think it's funny? It's actually an honor to let you work at the construction site!"

Charlie Wade nodded with a laugh. "Alright, I know, I get it. I'll arrange it for you."

Jake was irritated by his ambiguous remark and chided, "Crazy!"

Then, he added, "As an experienced person, let me give you some advice. You are still young, go out and find something serious to do. You may still be successful in the coming days."

"What? Did you think working in construction is an obscure job? No, it's not. Do you know Arnold Schwarzenegger? He was laying bricks and started his own construction business. Okay, his business failed, but he became famous, didn't he?"

"Besides, look at the latest trends. TikTok, Snapchat, Instagram, and Facebook are so popular right now, you could register for an account and post some of your daily work at the construction site, maybe you will become famous!"

"By the way, I have a Snapchat account. Do you want to follow me?"

Jake asked disdainfully, "Oh, you, as a househusband, have a Snapchat account, huh? What's your username? Aurous's biggest loser?"

Charlie Wade chuckled, "A househusband? I'm an amazing son-in-law!"

"Amazing son-in-law?" Jake glared at Charlie Wade in contempt. "You? Amazing? Oh please, can you be less cocky? If you are amazing, then am I Godlike, a deity, a Maker then?"

"You? You are just a muddy son-in-law."

"A muddy son-in-law? What do you mean?"

Charlie Wade laughed. "The son-in-law who carries bricks! Don't you understand this?"

"F*ck!" Jake cursed. "How dare you!"

Charlie Wade ignored him. He carried Mr. Lee and walked swiftly up the stairs to the classroom.

Mr. Lee patted Charlie Wade's hand and said, "Thank you, young man. You can face humiliation with humor and stand your ground, you have a bright and promising future."

Then, Mr. Lee turned his wheelchair and entered the room.

Jake muttered in a scornful tone, "Huh, bloody old man. I wonder where he can tell that this bugger is promising."

Charlie Wade couldn't be bothered by his sarcasm. He was not far from his destiny anyway.

With the arrival of Mr. Lee, a loud cheer echoed across the room as the guys came forward to greet their teacher.

The relationship between teachers and students in their era could even be described as a relationship between father and son.

Mr. Lee nodded with a pleasant sigh as he looked at his students who were now with wrinkled faces and grayish hair.

He had been a lecturer all his life, and he had students all over the country and even the world. He felt no regrets as he looked at his students.

"Mr. Lee, give us another lecture!" Someone suggested with a sobbing voice.

The rest of the group nodded simultaneously.

Mr. Lee nodded, tears flooding his eyes. He sat behind the podium, his fingers stroking the rough surface, and he slowly said, "Good morning, class."

"Good morning, Mr. Lee," The crowd shouted in unison.

Mr. Lee smiled lightly. "I'm too old to even stand on my feet, and I can't shout like I used to do, hence, the quality of the lecture may not be as good as before. Please accept my apology."

Chapter 570

Everyone's eyes started turning red, and some of them even cried a little. "Oh, Mr. Lee. Please don't, you don't have to apologize to us..."

Mr. Lee plastered a warm smile on his face. "I've been through thick and thin for all my life, I've witnessed your growth, I've witnessed the development of the country. I have nothing much to say but this, 'be contented with a simple and virtuous life, delight in wisdom'. I'm still a poor old man after years of teaching, but my lifetime ideology is to live happily and be content with no regrets!"

Loud applause shook the classroom. Everyone cheered, especially Jacob Wilson. He felt that Mr. Lee was the beacon to show the way after hearing what he said.

Although he didn't have much money, indulging himself in the antiques and cultural relics was his way to pursue happiness, so he was glad about it.

Of course, there was still a source of pain in his life, and that was Elaine Ma.

Mr. Lee shuddered slightly as he gave everyone a lecture about ancient language history on stage. Then, as he panted heavily, everyone quickly helped him down.

They were satisfied to be able to listen to their beloved lecturer's class, so they were grateful for his effort.

Aaron started, "Hey, since everyone's wish for a lecture has been granted and it's such a rare opportunity for us to get together, I'll let Jake reserve a place for us to relax and have fun."

Then, he turned to Jake and asked, "By the way, Jake, do you have any recommendations? I want the best venue!"

Jake nodded and said, "There is a clubhouse called the Glorious Club that was recently opened in Aurouss Hillll which belongs to the Moore family. It is said to be the largest and most luxurious entertainment hub in the city. I'm one of their members, so we can continue our party there! It's on my tab!"

The crowd gasped and grinned when they heard that Jake was a member of the Glorious Club!

The clubhouse was truly extraordinary and exquisite!

It was known to be the most upscale venue in Aurouss Hillll, and its members were prominent figures in the city.

In other words, if you were not at the top of the social pyramid in Aurouss Hillll, you would never be eligible to be a member of the club.

The requirement of the membership of the club was also an important reference for determining the person's status in society. Jake was certainly outstanding to be one of their members at such a young age!

Moreover, everyone had heard of the Glorious Club, but apart from Jake, none of them was a member. Not just a member, they didn't even have the chance to enter the club and experience what the luxurious leisure club in the city was like.

Now, thanks to Jake, they could finally enter the club and see for themselves. It would be the best chance for them to show off if they could take pictures inside the club and upload it on their social media!

Hence, the crowd started flattering Jake again.

Jake, of course, was enjoying the attention he gained yet again. The membership of the Glorious Club was his latest tool to flaunt himself and had proved effective every time!

Whenever he announced that he was a member of the club, he would be showered with praises and compliments that he enjoyed dearly.

However, he had not gotten the membership because he was qualified. Instead, he had begged Don Albertt several times for a favor, and Don Albertt had finally helped him to register as a member.

Don Albertt would not have done such a thing had it not been for using him as a money-laundering machine.

After all, in Albert's eyes, this kind of person was no different from Axel Jordan, the guy who created a scam out of the P2P scheme. They were just his dogs who executed tasks for him.

For these dogs to stay loyal and keep bringing him wealth and fame, he had to throw them a few bones and treats once in a while.

This way, these dogs would work harder!

Chapter 571

Soon, everyone hopped into multiple cars and went to the Glorious Club.

Mr. Lee was hesitant to go, but since it was rare for them to get together and his students had invited him to join them enthusiastically, he agreed.

Charlie Wade and Jacob Wilson hopped into a taxi together. Jacob Wilson whined angrily, "That Aaron Philips is too much! Why can't he just leave me alone? Argh, d*mn, I'm pissed!"

Charlie Wade chuckled at his whining and said, "Dad, if you're so upset, let's just go home then."

"No!" Jacob Wilson muttered, "I haven't been to the clubhouse, I want to go and see!"

Charlie Wade shrugged and nodded.

When they arrived at the clubhouse, everyone gathered in the lobby. They were mesmerized and amazed at the luxurious decorations of the clubhouse.

The extremely expensive and sophisticated interior design of the clubhouse had exceeded these elderly people's imagination and their memories about a recreation center.

Jacob Wilson was equally amazed. He pointed his phone around the lobby and took multiple pictures, even uploading them on his social media to show off.

Jake proudly explained, "Uncles, the clubhouse has 15 floors. The higher the floor, the higher the qualification requirements for membership. The floors are divided according to the membership tier, you can't simply go to the upper floor if your membership doesn't have the authorization. The minimum spending limit on the first floor, the lowest and most basic level, is about a hundred thousand dollars. Ordinary people simply can't afford it."

Loud gapes resonated across the group.

One hundred thousand was their minimum spending limit?! An average family of three couldn't even make so much money in a year!

Indeed, not everyone could afford such a service.

Under the gazes of admirations and appreciation, Jake took out his membership card and flaunted it around.

The card was silver in color, it was very beautifully crafted and shone brightly. He handed the card to the front desk while saying, "I'm just a silver card member, but it is ranked second in the tier. Below me is the classic membership. As a silver card member, I can go to the seventh floor and below. This time, I'll take you all directly to the seventh floor."

Then, he added, "The minimum spending limit for the seventh floor is three hundred thousand, very exclusive!"

Aaron turned to Jacob Wilson and said arrogantly, "Hey, Jacob Wilson, I bet you have never been to such a high-end place, huh? You should thank me. It's your honor that my son-in-law gets to bring all of us into this place, and also a chance to expose yourself to the lifestyle of the upper-class society."

Jacob Wilson's face turned gloomy. "How would you know that I've never been to such a place? Let me tell you, I've been to such places, I've experienced great things, okay!"

Aaron mocked indiscreetly, "Hahaha! What kind of great things have you experienced? Have you been to the Glorious Club? Have you ever spent a penny here?"

Jacob Wilson fell into an awkward silence.

He wouldn't be able to afford such expenses even when the Wilson family was at its prime, not to mention the fact that his family was going to go bankrupt soon...

Jacob Wilson sighed dejectedly and shut his mouth.

At this moment, Jake walked to the front desk and handed the card over to the receptionist. "Prepare a suite on the seventh floor for us, put all the expenses on this card."

Chapter 572

The receptionist said with an apologetic expression, "Sir, I'm so sorry, all our suites on the seventh floor are fully booked. We've checked, but the only available suites for your membership level are on the third floor and below. Would you like us to prepare a suite for you on the third floor?"

Jake hissed irritably, "What? Are you serious? You want me to go to the third floor? This is a disgrace to my status and my membership! How will others think of me if I go to the third floor?"

"I'm very sorry, sir, but there's nothing I can do. All the suites on the fourth to the seventh floors have been reserved in advance. You did not make any reservation, so, our hands are tied..."

"If so, just give me a free upgrade and let me go to the eighth floor or above!"

"I'm sorry, sir," the receptionist said in a polite yet firm tone, "At the Glorious Club, we only allow downgrade service for the membership tier, but not upgrade. That is to say, if the ceiling of your Silver card membership only reaches the seventh floor, that means you can only use the facilities from the seventh floor and below, but nothing above the seventh floor. This is the rigid rule of our club!"

Jake frowned and huffed in annoyance as he shouted, "I don't care! Get me a room on the seventh floor, or find a way for me to use the eighth floor's suite!"

"I'm very sorry, sir, the eighth floor is reserved for the VIP and VIP Gold members. Unfortunately, your membership is not qualified to use that floor. Besides, we have clearly stipulated here that no one can skip the tier or upgrade their suite..."

"Stipulate, rules, the f*ck with that! I want a suite on the seventh floor right now! How dare you refuse my demand? Don't you know the customer is king?!"

"I am so sorry, sir, but I'm not allowed to do so. Maybe you can find a friend who has a higher-tier membership and get him or her to book a suite on the higher floor."

Jake arched his eyebrow, intrigued, "Find a friend, you say?"

"Yes," the receptionist replied politely, "Most of our members here are Classic and Silver members, that's why there is always a shortage of suites below the seventh floor, but there are plenty of vacant suites on the eighth to the fourteenth floor. If your friend is a VIP member, you can go up to the tenth floor. If he is a VIP Gold member, you can go up to the fourteenth floor."

Jake gritted his teeth in disdain and sneered, "Alright, then. You want me to find a friend, huh? I'll find a friend! To tell you the truth, Don Albertt and I are great buddies. He is a VIP member! I'm going to call him right now and ask him to reserve a suite for me! But you'd better think carefully about how you explain yourself to Don Albertt for offending his friend!"

Charlie Wade rolled his eyes in utter disgust as he watched this bizarre scene.

The poor girl was just a receptionist who was doing everything per the rules of the club. Why did you threaten her? Besides, you used Don Albertt's name as your shield! What were you, a coward fox who hid behind the devilish tiger?

So, he walked up and said to him, "Mr. Dunn, leave the poor girl alone, okay? She is just doing her job. Besides, the third floor is good enough. Even the first floor is already very luxurious. Why do we need to go up to the seventh floor or above?"

Jake rolled his eyes in disdain. "Shut up! For a loser like you, it is already a God-sent privilege to drink a glass of water in the club's lobby, but for someone of my status, anything below the seventh floor is an insult to me!"

Charlie Wade chuckled and said indifferently, "Well, it doesn't matter anyway. This is the last time you'll be able to come to the club, so just enjoy whatever you can."

Jake frowned in confusion. "What the heck do you mean by that?"

"Oh, did you forget what I told you? You'll be working on the construction site for the next 20 years. This is your last time being in the Glorious Club, so a suite on the third floor is as good as you can get now. After all, you won't be able to enjoy any of this after today."

Jake was furious and cursed, "Charlie Wade Wade, was it? Damn it, you f*cking loser! If it weren't for the fact that our fathers-in-law are classmates, do you think you can get into the club? I bet you can't even enter their entrance, for f*cks sake! Who do you think you are to be so cocky?"

Charlie Wade smiled faintly. "Well, I'll give you five minutes to make up your mind. When five minutes is up and you don't give me any answer, I'll decide for you."

Jake smirked, "What the hell? What decision? Who do you think you are, loser? Alright, I'll show you what it's like to be in the upper-class society!"

He took out his phone and immediately made a call.

When his call was answered, he changed into a flattering tone and said respectfully, "Hi, Don Albertt, it's me, Jake Dunn. I want to ask you for a favor..."

Chapter 573

Albert was at The Heaven Springs at this time.

Donald, the wealthiest and most powerful man in the South Region had reserved the Diamond Box in The Heaven Springs tonight as he prepared to entertain the head of some of the most prestigious families in Aurouss Hilll.

Albert knew that the Webb family was even wealthier and more powerful than the Moore family. Therefore, he did not dare to neglect Donald's orders and personally supervised the chef who was preparing the dishes in The Heaven Springs.

As he was arranging for the food preparations, he suddenly received a phone call from Jake. At this time, he asked impatiently, "Yes, what do you want? Hurry up and speak! I am busy over here."

In Albert's eyes, Jake was nothing more than his lapdog. He did not care about Jake the slightest bit because he had so many lap dogs around him anyway.

Jake knew that he could not afford to offend Albert. Therefore, he said humbly, "Don Albertt, I am at the Glorious Club at the moment. I would like to ask you for a favor."

Albert asked immediately, "What's the matter?"

Jake hurriedly replied, "I wanted to bring my old man here to enjoy himself tonight, but it seems as though all the rooms on the seventh floor are already full. My membership card is the Silver membership card that you helped me obtain before this. Therefore, I cannot go up to any higher floors at all. I would like to ask you to help me to book a room on the eighth floor if it is not too inconvenient for you. After all, you own a VIP membership card here, and your membership is much more honorable than mine!"

Albert replied faintly, "Maybe another day. I have something to do at The Heaven Springs today, so I cannot go to the Glorious Club right now."

At this time, Jake hurriedly pleaded, "Don Albertt, please do me this favor. The Heaven Springs is not too far from the Glorious Club, I think you can get here in five minutes by car. Could you please make a trip here for my sake? My father-in-law and more than twenty of his classmates are waiting here with me..."

As he spoke, Jake pleaded once again, "Don Albertt, please help me just this once. Otherwise, I would not know where to hide my face anymore..."

Albert really did not want to help Jake book the room, however, he recalled that Jake was a tool that he could use to launder his gambling money. Therefore, Albert felt that he should give him some warmth sometimes so that he would continue to be grateful to him.

Moreover, The Heaven Springs was indeed not too far away from the Glorious Club. It would probably only take him about ten minutes to reach there. Therefore, Albert decided to go and help Jake out instead. "Okay then, I will come over now."

Jake was very excited at this time and he blurted out, "Thank you! Thank you, Don Albertt! I will be waiting for you in the lobby on the first floor!"

After hanging up the phone, Jake looked at the waitress with an arrogant expression on his face as he said, "Did you hear that? Don Albertt is coming over to help me book a room! You'd better be careful!"

The waitress was a little nervous but she calmly replied, "I am sorry, sir, but we have to do everything per the rules of the club. Even if you invite Miss Moore here tonight, I will still have to do things the same way because I have a clear conscience."

The expression on Jake's face was very ugly as he said, "You honestly think you are so great, huh? Are you using Miss Moore to try and crush me?"

The waitress replied immediately, "I do not dare to do so. I am simply telling you the facts."

"Huh!" Jake gave her a disgusted look before he turned around and told his father-in-law and his friends, "Uncles, please just wait for a moment. I have invited the famous Don Albertt from Aurouss Hilll to come over and help us book a room on the eighth floor! The eighth floor is even more luxurious than the seventh floor!"

The crowd of people started cheering and praising him immediately.

Many of the old men gave Jake a thumbs up because they were all already looking forward to seeing the eighth floor of the Glorious Club!

Charlie Wade could not help but feel that this situation was very hilarious.

This Jake really wanted to die faster!

Chapter 574

He was asking Albert to come here? Wasn't he seeking death for himself?

He had initially wanted him to bask in his joy and sorrows, but it seemed that he wanted to continue pretending that he was very cool. Now, it seemed as though this son-in-law had indeed cut off his own chances of living because he was pretending to be very cool himself.

Jake did not know that he had already dug his own grave. Moreover, he was even being complimented by so many people. At this time, Jake walked up to Charlie Wade before he smiled and said arrogantly, "Charlie Wade, you've offended me just now. Therefore, the opportunity to go to the eighth floor of the Glorious Club has nothing to do with you anymore. You can leave with your father-in-law now."

Jacob Wilson glared at Jake with an ugly expression on his face as he said, "Hey, Jake! Don't you think that you are being a little too much? Did you actually think that I came here to eat and drink with you for free? I am here to meet up with my old classmates!"

Jake curled his lips before he said, "The reunion party with your old classmates? Isn't the party at the school already over? I am the one who arranged for this second party, so are you going to insist on coming along with us even if you are not invited at all?"

"Exactly!" Aaron snorted coldly as he said, "Jacob Wilson, weren't you very arrogant before this? You were a rich second generation when you were in school. Since you're so capable, you can just book a room in the Glorious Club all by yourself, then! Do you really intend to let my son-in-law treat you to food and drink for free?"

The other classmates never expected Aaron and his son-in-law to suddenly start attacking Jacob Wilson and Charlie Wade. Moreover, they were using some very nasty and bad words on them in front of everyone else.

However, none of Jacob Wilson's classmates dared to step up to help Jacob Wilson at all. After all, Aaron's son-in-law was indeed the one who had arranged for the second gathering at the Glorious Club. The only reason they could enter the club was because of Jake in the first place. So, who would possibly dare to speak up for Jacob Wilson now?

Jacob Wilson had a very ugly expression on his face as he blurted out, "Aaron, you are such a bully!"

"Did I bully you?" Aaron asked disdainfully. "I am simply not inviting you out to have food, drink, and fun with us for free. So, why is that considered bullying?"

At this time, Jacob Wilson quickly replied, "Okay, then! If that is the case, I will just pay for my own expenses today! You can just tell me how much it costs per person and I will pay for myself and my son-in-law."

Aaron laughed before he said contemptuously, "Do you really think that everything will be fine if you just pay for your share? Don't you know that you have to own a membership to be able to step into this club? If it weren't for my son-in-law, would you possibly be able to step into the Glorious Club at all? No! So, even if you pay me any money, you are not coming in with us tonight!"

Jacob Wilson gritted his teeth before he said, "Aaron! You are really too much!"

Aaron nodded before he said arrogantly, "Yes, I am really too much. I am doing this on purpose, but what is wrong with that? Who asked you to always challenge me when we were still in school? Who else can you blame now that you are worse off than me?"

After that, Aaron continued speaking, "Just take a look at yourself. You are already in your fifties, but you are still so pathetic. You do not have a job, and you do not have any pension for your retirement at all. I believe that it is only a matter of time before you are reduced to a beggar on the street. When that time comes, all of our classmates will have to organize a crowdfunding event just to help you!"

Jacob Wilson trembled with anger as he said to Charlie Wade, "Let's go! I do not want to fight with this crazy person anymore!"

Charlie Wade smiled before he said, "What's the rush, dad? The show has not even begun yet. It is not too late for us to leave after we watch the show!"

Aaron glared at Charlie Wade before he said, "You are still waiting to watch a good show?! Let me tell you, it is absolutely impossible for the both of you to come with us to the eighth floor today! If you pretend to come upstairs using my son-in-law's name, I will get the security guards to kick you out!"

Charlie Wade laughed before he said, "The good show that I'm referring to is not a scene on the eighth floor. The good show I'm talking about is a classic drama where the son-in-law will beat up his own father-in-law. I think this show is about to begin in two or three minutes!"

Aaron was stunned, and he pointed a finger at Jacob Wilson as he laughed and said, "Did you hear that, Jacob Wilson? Even your useless son-in-law looks down on you and is prepared to beat you up! Hahaha. I really cannot help but wonder how much beating your old bones can stand! Hahaha!"

Jacob Wilson was taken aback, and he looked at Charlie Wade before he asked, "What do you mean by that, Charlie Wade?"

Charlie Wade smiled before he said, "Dad, please do not get me wrong. The classic drama that I am talking about is a scene of Jake beating Aaron up. I suggest that you take out your cell phone and prepare to record a video. There will definitely be a lot of likes when you post this video up on your social media account!"

Chapter 575

Aaron was furious when he heard Charlie Wade's words.

He glared at Charlie Wade contemptuously before he said, "You are hilarious. My son-in-law is so filial toward me. Why would he ever hit me?"

After he was done talking, Aaron pointed at Jake before he said arrogantly, "Let me tell you something. My son-in-law is so many times better than your trashy son-in-law! Do you know how much pocket money my filial son-in-law gives to me every month? He gives me pocket money of one hundred thousand dollars every month! I am not despising or looking down on you, but can you even make one hundred thousand dollars a year?"

Jake sneered before he said, "Charlie Wade, you are truly very brave! Don Albertt will be here soon. If you don't leave now, do you believe that I will get Don Albertt to tear your mouth apart later?"

"Are you really going to make Albert tear my mouth apart?" Charlie Wade asked as he stared at Jake with a look of disbelief on his face.

Jake sneered before he said, "What? You don't believe it? Do you know what my relationship to Don Albertt is?"

Charlie Wade shook his head before he asked out of mock curiosity, "Then, why don't you tell me what is your relationship with Albert?"

"I am a good brother of Don Albertt!" After that, Jake glared at Charlie Wade before he said, "Who said that you can call him Albert? You have to call him Don Albertt!"

Charlie Wade smiled before he said, "When Albert arrives later, you can ask him if he dares to make me call him Don Albertt. How about that?"

Jake looked at Charlie Wade in surprise before he sneered and said, "How dare you be so disrespectful toward Don Albertt? You are done for! I will ask Don Albertt to tear your mouth apart when he comes here later!"

Just as he was done speaking, Jake saw Albert walk into the lobby at this time.

Moreover, Albert also had two followers who were trailing closely behind him.

Jake hurriedly waved his hand before he called out excitedly, "Don Albertt, I'm here!"

Then, Jake sneered as he looked at Charlie Wade and said, "Charlie Wade, Don Albertt is here. You're dead!"

As Charlie Wade's back was facing the entrance, Albert did not see him when he was walking in. Moreover, Charlie Wade did not bother to turn around at all.

When Don Albertt finally arrived in front of them, Jake hurriedly said, "Don Albertt, there is a stupid bird here who is being disrespectful toward you! He is calling you directly by your name, Albert!"

Albert frowned and was about to show off his own power, but as soon as he turned around, he saw Charlie Wade standing amongst the crowd of people. At this time, Charlie Wade was looking at Albert with a grim expression on his face. Albert trembled in fright as he asked in a shaky voice, "Wade... Mr. Wade, what are you doing here?"

Everyone was shocked when they heard Albert's words.

What was happening?!

Albert had such a fierce reputation, but he was actually being so respectful toward Charlie Wade?!

Moreover, why was he calling Charlie Wade 'Mr. Wade' when he was so much younger than him?

At this time, Charlie Wade looked at Albert coldly before he asked in a sharp voice, "Albert, is this your good brother? He is not only acting cool in front of me, but he kept chirping and saying that he is going to ask you to tear my mouth apart today."

Albert was trembling in shock at this time!

Who was Charlie Wade? Charlie Wade was even more important to him than his own father! If it weren't because Charlie Wade appreciated him, he would never have gotten his hands on the magical pill!

Moreover, he had been trying to get into Isaac's good books all this while but to no avail. However, Isaac was now supporting him and showing him some respect because of his connection to Charlie Wade.

Therefore, Charlie Wade was almost like Albert's own parent!

As for Jake, he was just one of his lap dogs! Why would he attack his own parents? What the hell was this?

At this time, Albert turned around and glared at Jake before he asked in an extremely cold and harsh tone, "You actually dared to offend Mr. Wade?"

Jake was very shocked.

Chapter 576

He had no idea what was going on now.

He did not know why Albert was giving Charlie Wade so much face. Wasn't Charlie Wade just the useless son-in-law of his father-in-law's old classmate?

His father-in-law's old classmate was just a pathetic and useless person. So, his son-in-law would also naturally be just another pathetic piece of trash!

Why was Albert attaching so much importance to this useless piece of trash?

Before he could figure out the reason, Albert had already given him a tight slap across his face!

Slap!

Jake felt a little dizzy, and his cheek swelled up immediately.

"Don Albertt, what are you..."

Jake trembled in shock as he asked, "Don Albertt, did I do something wrong?"

Albert gritted his teeth before he cursed and said, "You are nothing more than a lapdog, but you actually dared to offend Mr. Wade? You must already be tired of living, aren't you? Okay, then! I will drag you to my dog farm, chop you up, and feed you to the dogs today!"

Jake felt as though his head was going to explode. He was paralyzed with fright as he collapsed to the ground.

As Albert's lapdog, he naturally knew who Albert was. Countless people had already died in Albert's hands, and many of them were buried in the bellies of those fighting dogs raised by Albert!

After that, Jake hurriedly knelt in front of Albert before he kowtowed and said, "Don Albertt, please forgive me. Don Albertt! Please, I didn't mean to do it. I did not know that he was your friend.."

"Friend?!" Albert exclaimed as he kicked Jake in his chest. "Mr. Wade is the bright moon in my heart! I can only ever look up to him. How could I possibly be his friend?!"

In fact, Albert meant those words from the bottom of his heart. Everyone was once again shocked to hear Albert's words. Who on earth was Charlie Wade? Why was Albert being so respectful toward him?

Aaron was also trembling in fright at this time. He could not help but feel a little distressed when he saw Albert hitting and kicking his son-in-law, but he was feeling very afraid at this time!

Albert turned around and instructed his men, "Come, help me drag this dog to the dog farm now!"

The two bodyguards immediately stepped forward to drag Jake away.

Jake was so frightened that he started crying before he turned around to look at Charlie Wade. After that, he kept kowtowing in front of Charlie Wade as he pleaded, "Charlie Wade, it's my fault. I did not know what I was doing. Please ask Don Albertt to spare my life this time on the account that my father-in-law was your father-in-law's old classmate for so many years!"

Charlie Wade smiled before he said, "What's wrong? You're asking for my help now? Weren't you chasing me away not too long ago?"

Jake wiped the tears off his face and choked as he said, "Mr. Wade, I was wrong. I am willing to become your slave for the rest of my life if you will just forgive me and let me off this time!"

Jake's face was very pale as he continued speaking, "Mr. Wade, as long as you are willing to forgive me and let me go, I am willing to give you all the assets that I own under my name!"

When Aaron heard this, he blurted out immediately, "Jake! Are you insane? There is a lot of money that I gave you under your name! Moreover, half of those assets belong to my daughter!"

"You old fart! Just shut up already!"

Jake gritted his teeth as he glared angrily at Aaron. After that, he continued cursing, "You f*cking old dog! Are you f*cking blind? Can't you see that I'm about to lose my life here?"

Aaron was truly shocked at this time because he never expected Jake to scold him and curse at him. Therefore, he glared at him before saying, "You... how dare you talk to me in that manner?! Don't forget that I am your father!"

"F*ck you!" Jake replied bitterly, "If you did not ask me to help you take revenge on Mr. Wade's father-in-law, how could I have possibly offended Mr. Wade?"

Then, Jake hurriedly looked at Charlie Wade with tears in his eyes before he said, "Mr. Wade, this old man has been telling me all about how I should help him ridicule you and your father-in-law today. He is the one who made me offend you and your father-in-law! He is the culprit! He is the one you should chop up and feed to the dogs!"

Chapter 577

"You...you..."

Aaron was so mad and furious at his son-in-law, Jake, that his chest was rising and falling violently at this time.

He never would have dreamt that the son-in-law he had always loved and admired would suddenly become a vicious jackass who wanted him dead!

He shuddered as he cursed out loud, "Jake! I must have been blind to allow my daughter to marry an ungrateful brat like you!"

Why would Jake care about the fact that Aaron was his father-in-law now?

He was even more afraid that Charlie Wade and Albert were truly going to kill him! He would really lose everything then!

If someone had to pay the price and die today, Jake would rather the victim be his father-in-law than himself!

After all, today's events had all been caused by that old man. If he had not asked him to cause trouble for Jacob Wilson and his son-in-law, Charlie Wade, why would he have even ended up in this situation now?

Therefore, Jake pointed his finger at Aaron before saying, "Aaron, you old dog! The only reason why I offended Mr. Wade and Don Albertt today was all because of you! You were the one who instructed me to do so! Therefore, it is only fair and right that you should die instead! Why? Why should I die because of you?"

"You fool!" Aaron waved his hand in a flurry before he said, "Oh, Charlie Wade. Don't listen to that b*stard who is spouting nonsense. I did not instruct him to target you or your father-in-law at all. He was the one who wanted to find and cause trouble for you. Do not fall for his lies and be fooled by him!"

Jake continued crying as he yelled, "Mr. Wade, you have to keep your eyes wide open! Just think about it. I have no grievances or grudges against you at all. So, why would I mock you and cause trouble for you for no reason whatsoever? This is all because of Aaron! He was jealous of your father-in-law because he got the woman that he always wanted. He could not let go of his hatred and jealousy even after so many years, and he has always been thinking of taking revenge. That is the reason why he asked me to deal with you and to cause trouble for you and your father-in-law. He is trying to shirk the responsibility now, but you should not let him go so easily. You have to teach him a lesson!"

Charlie Wade nodded before he said lightly, "Don't worry. He will surely suffer a very terrible and miserable fate. He can rot in prison just for the crime of his greed and taking advantage of his position to take other people's money for himself. He will definitely be arrested for his crimes tonight!"

As soon as Aaron heard Charlie Wade's words, his heart shook, and his legs softened immediately. He knelt to the ground with a thump before he started begging for mercy. "Charlie Wade, Charlie Wade, please do not send me to prison. You know that an old man like me will not survive much longer. Please just let me off."

Charlie Wade ignored Aaron and simply looked at Jake before he asked faintly, "Weren't you asking me to spare your life?"

Jake hurriedly nodded like a clove of garlic that was being pounded as he said, "Yes, Mr. Wade. I beg you... please have mercy on me..."

Charlie Wade replied, "Of course, I will be more than willing to spare your life. However, I already told you just now that there is going to be a classic drama where a son-in-law is going to beat up his old man. So, I believe you know what you have to do, then?"

How could Jake not understand the meaning behind Charlie Wade's words?

At this time, Jake was already filled with hatred for Aaron who was trying to push the responsibility to him. Therefore, he really did not care that the latter was his father-in-law anymore. Jake quickly broke free from Don Albertt's bodyguard before he rushed at Aaron and punched him in his face.

As Aaron was already an old man, he fell to the ground and yelled in pain as soon as Jake punched him.

Jake was filled with hatred and tremendous anger, and he was also keen to put on a good performance for Charlie Wade so that he would be able to reduce the anger that Charlie Wade felt toward him. Therefore, he did not give his father-in-law any face at all.

Instead, he hit his father-in-law really hard, and he continued hitting him with all of his might and strength.

Aaron was already an old man, and he was not Jake's opponent at all. Therefore, he could only yell out in pain as he begged for mercy when Jake continued hitting and punching him in the face.

Still, why would Jake care about him even if he was begging for mercy at this time?

After he was done, Jake cursed, "You old dog! You are the main culprit! This is all your fault! I'm going to kill you!"

Chapter 578

At the same time, Jake continued punching and hitting Aaron until he knocked him unconscious. After that, he woke him up with two tight slaps across his face before he continued to hit him again...

Aaron's old classmates could only watch in amazement, but none of them dared to step forward to stop him at all. Meanwhile, Jacob Wilson was so excited because he could finally get his revenge on Aaron.

When he saw that Aaron was almost beaten to death by Jake, Charlie Wade stopped him immediately as he said, "Stop it! If you continue beating him up, he is going to die. I still want him to spend the rest of his life in prison!"

Jake hurriedly stopped. After tearing himself away from Aaron, he spat on him before cursing at him in disgust. "Old dog, you are still trying to harm me and push the responsibility to me? If it weren't because of Mr. Wade's graciousness, I would have already killed you! D*mn it!"

After he was done speaking, Jake knelt to the ground before he crawled to Charlie Wade as he begged, "Mr. Wade, are you satisfied with my performance just now? Can you please spare my life? Please..."

Charlie Wade nodded slightly as he said, "Alright. I can spare your life, but I will still have to punish you because it is simply impossible for me to forgive you just like that!"

Jake hurriedly asked, "Mr. Wade, what can I do to make you forgive me?"

Charlie Wade smiled before he said, "Jake, do you remember what I said to you before? Do you remember that I asked you to be prepared to go to the construction site to carry cement for the next twenty years of your life?"

Jake collapsed to the ground as he cried out, "Mr. Wade, I do not want to go to the construction site. I beg you, please listen to me. Please just forgive me this time. From now on, I will be your dog. I will be your slave, and I will do anything you want me to do!"

Charlie Wade nodded as he replied with a playful smile on his face, "Okay, then."

Jake excitedly replied, "Thank you, Mr. Wade! Thank you, Mr. Wade!"

Charlie Wade smiled before he said, "I have not even finished speaking, so don't thank me so soon."

Then, Charlie Wade smiled again as he said, "Jake, didn't you say that you would be my dog? You said that you would be my slave who will do anything that I ask you to do? Then, I will ask you to go to the construction site and carry cement for the next twenty years! You are free to go as soon as you fulfill your duty for twenty years!"

"Huh?!" Jake was already on the verge of collapse...

At this time, Charlie Wade said to Albert, "Albert, I want you to find me a construction site, tie a dog chain around Jake's neck, and make him carry cement on the construction site every day for the next twenty years of his life. He will be free to leave after he serves his twenty years. If he tries to run away, you can just kill him by feeding him to the dogs!"

Albert nodded immediately as he said, "Mr. Wade, don't worry! I have several ongoing construction sites in Aurouss Hilll. I will put him in the most painful and tiring site!"

"Okay." Charlie Wade was very satisfied at this time. "I want him to work hard while reflecting on his actions."

Jake cried as he said, "Mr. Wade, twenty years is too long. Please be magnanimous and shorten the time a little. Otherwise, my life will be over just like that..."

Charlie Wade replied coldly, "Stop trying to bargain with me. There was a father and son whom I knew in the past. However, they kept trying to act tough in front of me, so I sent them to Mount Golmin to look and dig for ginseng. They will never be able to leave Mount Golmin in this lifetime. If you continue bargaining with me, I will arrange for someone to send you there as well!"

Albert also replied coldly at this time, "Jake, I advise you to just accept your fate. My men drove the two men who were sent to Mount Golmin the last time. They drove for three days and nights before they finally reached the foot of Mount Golmin!"

"Moreover, it was winter then and it was freezing even at the foot of Mount Golmin. The temperature is below negative twenty degrees outside, and even if you stay in the house, the temperature is about negative seven or eight degrees! To prevent themselves from freezing to death, both of them had to go out on the mountain to chop firewood!"

"I heard that the temperature can easily fall below negative forty degrees outside, and even if you take a piss, your pee can turn into frozen ice skewers immediately! If you want to try that, I can make the arrangements for you to go there right now!"

Jake was shocked when he heard that Albert would send him to Mount Golmin to dig ginseng for the rest of his life. He was so scared that he hurriedly cried out, "No, no! Don Albertt, I accept my fate! I accept my fate! I am going to the construction site to carry cement. I do not want to go to Mount Golmin to dig ginseng!"

Chapter 579

Jake had completely resigned to his fate.

Compared to having to dig ginseng for the rest of his life on Mount Golmin, he was already very blessed to be able to stay and carry cement at a construction site in Aurouss Hillll for the next twenty years of his life.

At least he would be able to live in the city, go home, and enjoy the nightlife now and then.

If he was sent to Mount Golmin, the rest of his life would be gone.

When he saw that he had already accepted his fate, Albert snorted before he said, "You should know that you are already very lucky. I could have just taken you to the dog farm and fed you to my dogs today!"

Jake nodded in a hurry before he said with gratitude, "Thank you, Mr. Wade. Thank you for being so gracious to me... Thank you, Don Albertt..."

Albert quickly instructed his men, "Come over here and bring him to the construction site now. Let him eat and live with the workers at the construction site. He is only allowed to take two days off every month!"

"Yes, Don Albertt!" two of Albert's men hurriedly hauled Jake out of the lobby.

Albert pointed his finger at Aaron who was still lying unconscious on the ground before he asked Charlie Wade, "Mr. Wade, what should we do about that old man?"

Charlie Wade replied lightly, "The police will come for him soon."

As soon as his voice fell, a team of police officers rushed into the lobby and asked, "Which one of you is Aaron Phillips?"

Jacob Wilson hurriedly pointed his finger at Aaron who was lying on the ground before he said, "Officer, that is the guy you're looking for."

The police officers walked up to Aaron before they compared him to a picture that they had of him. After a brief moment, one of the police officers said, "Yes, that's him. Take him away!"

His subordinate who was standing next to him asked, "Captain, it seems as though this person is injured and unconscious. What should we do?"

"Send him to the hospital first," the captain replied. "We will detain him after he receives treatment."

At this time, Eric, one of his old classmates, hurriedly asked, "Officer, what crime did Aaron commit?"

The captain replied immediately, "Aaron is suspected of misusing his professional position to misappropriate illegal profits amounting to more than fifty million dollars!"

Everyone was in shock.

No one would have imagined that Aaron, who held such a high position in the petrochemical company and had a very high salary, would actually take advantage of his position to misappropriate funds and take illegal profits for himself!

At this time, Aaron, who was unconscious, was taken away by the police officers. His old classmates could not help but sigh at the sudden change of events.

However, every one of them was looking at Charlie Wade with unprecedented awe.

After all, Charlie Wade had put both Jake and Aaron in their place, and his ability was really beyond everyone's understanding.

Jacob Wilson was also very satisfied because he felt that Charlie Wade had saved him a lot of face. Jacob Wilson was also very happy because many of his old classmates came up to compliment him.

However, some of them could not help but sigh as they said, "Oh no, Jake is gone. I am afraid we will not be able to go for a second round, then. Should we just leave now?"

The group of old men was all a little lost.

Everyone had been very excited to come and see the Glorious Club. Unexpectedly, they could only enter the lobby without seeing the inside of the club at all.

At this time, Charlie Wade suddenly asked Albert, "Albert, what is the highest floor you can go to with your membership card?"

"The tenth floor," Albert hurriedly replied.

Charlie Wade quickly asked, "Then, please help me book a room on the tenth floor so that these old men can have some fun tonight."

Albert asked in surprise, "But Mr. Wade, don't you have an All-Access..."

Charlie Wade waved his hand, motioning for Albert to keep silent about his membership card.

Chapter 580

Charlie Wade was the only one with the All-Access Supreme VIP membership card in the entire Glorious Club. Moreover, he had access to every floor in the club, including the exclusive fifteenth floor and all of his expenses would be free of charge!

However, Charlie Wade did not want Jacob Wilson to know that he had this membership card.

Otherwise, with his temper and personality, Jacob Wilson would surely haunt him and force Charlie Wade to bring him here every day. He might even find a way to take over his membership card for himself so that he could have the bragging rights to bring his friends here.

Therefore, it was better for Charlie Wade to keep this matter from Jacob Wilson.

Albert immediately understood what Charlie Wade meant, and he quickly took out his VIP membership card before handing it to the waitress and saying, "Prepare a large private room for me on the tenth floor. Charge all of their expenses to my account."

The waitress respectfully accepted Albert's membership card before smiling and saying, "The 1008 room on the tenth floor has already been opened for you. You can go up to the tenth floor anytime you want. The room is very large and spacious, and it can accommodate up to thirty people."

Albert nodded before he spoke to Charlie Wade respectfully, "Mr. Wade, you can go up to the tenth floor with these uncles now."

At this time, Charlie Wade quickly informed the group of old men, "Uncles, my friend has already booked private room 1008 on the tenth floor for us. He will be covering all of our expenses today. Please follow the waitress as she leads you to the room now."

Everyone truly did not expect that there would still be a second round, and they all cheered in excitement.

Many of them initially thought that they would only be able to reach the seventh floor of the Glorious Club, but who would have expected that they would be able to go to the tenth floor?

Jacob Wilson was also very happy and satisfied. He quickly smiled as he said, "My son-in-law is the most capable, unlike Jake who can only brag and talk about it!"

Everyone could not help but agree as they praised and complemented Charlie Wade. "Oh, Charlie Wade, you are truly a very amazing boy! Jacob Wilson is so blessed to have a son-in-law like you!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly before he said, "Uncles, you all think too highly of me. I do not have any outstanding abilities or talents. I am just lucky that I know a few friends. Please, hurry up and head to the tenth floor to have fun!"

At this time, Jacob Wilson asked, "Charlie Wade, are you not coming up with us?"

Charlie Wade said, "I would like to chat with Albert for a little while before I go up. Dad, you should go up with your friends first."

"Okay." Jacob Wilson nodded before he thanked Albert and headed upstairs with his old classmates.

After everyone had left, Charlie Wade asked Albert, "So, how did you deal with Ichiro's matter previously?"

Albert hurriedly replied, "Don't worry, Mr. Wade. I found the best computer graphics expert who is very good at special effects to edit the video for me. I also hired a prop artist from the Film Academy to make a fake video of Ichiro's death before I sent it to Jiro. I think he is completely assured and convinced that Ichiro is dead now."

"Okay." Charlie Wade smiled slightly before he said, "Make sure you take good care of Ichiro. I will send him back to Japan later on to fight for the inheritance and property from his brother. However, I will make sure that he signs an agreement with me in advance so that eighty percent of his property will belong to me."

Albert nodded repeatedly before he said, "Okay, Mr. Wade. I know what I have to do. I will talk to him as soon as I get back."

Charlie Wade nodded as he said, "You did a good job. You can go back first. I will go upstairs and accompany my father-in-law and his friends for a short while."

"Okay." Albert bowed respectfully before he said, "Mr. Wade, I will leave first. Please do not hesitate to call me if you need me to do anything."

At this time, Charlie Wade was waiting for the elevator to go to the tenth floor. When the elevator arrived at the ground floor, Charlie Wade did not expect that Jasmine, who was beautifully dressed and all dolled up, would walk out of the elevator.

Jasmine was dressed up very attractively today and her face, which was originally beautiful and flawless, seemed even more delicate and charming.

She was wearing a black one-piece Chanel dress which perfectly embraced her slender and perfect figure, and her fair and tender legs also stood out in this dress.

Her long black hair was coiled up in a bun, and she looked very mature and perfect.

What surprised Charlie Wade even more was that Jasmine exuded a very charming and refreshing scent today. Her fragrance penetrated straight into his nostrils, making him feel very relaxed and comfortable.

Charlie Wade was very surprised to see the beautiful and amazing Jasmine, and Jasmine was even more delighted to see Charlie Wade!

She had just been thinking about Charlie Wade, but she did not expect to see Charlie Wade as soon as the elevator door opened!

Jasmine could not suppress her happiness and excitement at all! She looked like a young girl who had just met her first love as she asked softly, "Mr. Wade, why are you here? Why didn't you let me know that you are going to be here so that I could come and entertain you personally?"

Chapter 581

Charlie Wade looked at Jasmine before he smiled and said, "I came here with my father-in-law to attend his class reunion with his old classmates. I didn't tell you about it because I did not want to trouble you."

Jasmine hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade, you should tell me in advance that your father-in-law will be having a class reunion here! I would have made the necessary preparations to entertain him and his friends!"

Charlie Wade smiled as he said, "There is no need for you to make any special preparations for him. After all, it is just a group of old men who are just out to catch up and have some fun. I am afraid that they will not be able to adapt to it if everything is too grand."

As he spoke, Charlie Wade said again, "Furthermore, I have never told my father-in-law that I have a good relationship with you. I am afraid that he will be very confused if the young lady from the Moore family comes out to entertain him personally."

Jasmine nodded slightly before she said, "By the way, Mr. Wade, my grandfather will be holding his eightieth birthday banquet at noon tomorrow. I was originally intending to send you the invitation card tonight to ask you if you have the time to come for his birthday banquet tomorrow. My grandfather has been talking about you and really wants to see you."

Charlie Wade thought for a moment before he nodded and said, "I have nothing on tomorrow. I will come to the birthday banquet."

For Charlie Wade, even though the Moore family was not that powerful, they were still the wealthiest and most powerful family in Aurouss Hilll. Therefore, Charlie Wade felt that he could save himself a lot of trouble if he maintained a good relationship with them.

Furthermore, Charlie Wade had a very good impression of Jasmine. He felt that this woman was very smart and promising, and that made him want to appreciate her a little more.

When Jasmine saw that Charlie Wade had already agreed to come for her grandfather's birthday banquet, she hurriedly asked, "Mr. Wade, should I come and pick you up in the morning tomorrow?"

Charlie Wade declined immediately as he said, "No, it's okay. You must be busy since it's Lord Moore's birthday banquet tomorrow. I will just go over to your house by myself."

Jasmine nodded before she smiled sweetly and said, "Okay then, Mr. Wade. You can come and look for me when you arrive tomorrow."

"Okay, I will do that."

Jasmine lowered her head to look at the time on her watch before she said apologetically, "Mr. Wade, I will not bother you anymore. I have to go back and make some preparations for the banquet now."

"Go." Charlie Wade nodded, and he watched Jasmine leave before he took the elevator to the tenth floor.

Room 1008 on the tenth floor.

The group of old men was all surprised at the level of luxury of the room, and every single one of them held their cell phones in their hands as they continued snapping pictures.

The highest floor that a well-known mobster boss in Aurouss Hilll with an unprecedented reputation could reach was the tenth floor of the Glorious Club. Therefore, they knew that the people who could enjoy a room on the tenth floor were all very impressive.

This was an eye-opener for Jacob Wilson and his old classmates because they naturally did not have the ability or status to come here on their own.

Everyone was praising Charlie Wade, and someone said, "This is all thanks to Jacob Wilson's son-in-law! This place truly looks and feels more like a royal palace!"

"Yes! I have already lived for more than fifty years in this life, but I have never been to such a luxurious place! Jacob Wilson's son-in-law is truly amazing!"

Everyone kept praising Charlie Wade, and this made Jacob Wilson feel very proud of himself.

He had been targeted and ridiculed at the very beginning, so, he never would have expected to become the person who would receive so much respect and so many compliments from his old classmates. Jacob Wilson was very satisfied, and this was a huge boost to his self-esteem.

As Jacob Wilson and his classmates were enjoying the ultimate luxury on the tenth floor of the Glorious Club, Elaine Ma and Hannah had already arrived at the Thompson First villa to play mahjong with a rich and wealthy woman who was introduced by Hannah.

At this time, a middle-aged woman who was dressed up to the brim was sitting on the banker's seat as she prepared and set up an electronic mahjong machine. She smiled before she said, "Hannah, who is this sister? Why don't you introduce her to me?"

Chapter 582

Hannah said, "Sister Linda, let me introduce the both of you. This is the friend that I mentioned to you before. Her name is Elaine Ma. She enjoys playing mahjong, just like you, and she always has a very good hand in mahjong! She's always been willing to bet, and she is not a sore loser either."

Elaine Ma hurriedly said, "Hello, Sister Linda!"

Linda nodded lightly before she smiled and said, "It just so happens that I have always been missing another permanent mahjong friend. If you're interested, you can come here often to play mahjong with me and Hannah in the future."

Elaine Ma hurriedly replied, "Oh, that's really great! This is such a coincidence! I have a friend who I have been regularly playing mahjong with, but she is already going to the United States soon. I was afraid that I would not be able to find a friend to play mahjong with anymore!"

Linda took the initiative to stretch out her hand and said to Elaine Ma politely and respectfully, "Hello, Elaine Ma. I am Linda. Welcome to my house!"

Elaine Ma quickly shook hands with her.

After that, Linda said, "Oh, you see, my villa has basically been sitting idle after the renovation was done. So, I thought of using it as a venue for my sisters to play mahjong with me."

Elaine Ma could not help but feel a little envious of Linda. She could simply use such a big and luxurious villa to play mahjong. This meant that she was probably even richer than Summer.

After that, Elaine Ma quickly looked around the Thompson First villa.

The renovation and interior design of the villa were indeed very luxurious, but this villa was not as big as the one that Zeke had given to Charlie Wade.

The villa that Zeke had given to Charlie Wade was the largest villa unit in the entire Thompson First. Moreover, the villa supposedly owned by Linda was the smallest villa amongst all the villas in Thompson First.

However, even the smallest villa was already very big and luxurious for most people.

Elaine Ma could not help but ask, "Sister Linda, how much did you spend to buy this villa?"

Linda was stunned for a moment before she hurriedly replied, "Oh, it did not cost me too much. I paid about eighty million dollars for it."

In fact, this villa did not belong to Linda at all. This villa was the property of a film and television company.

After buying the villa, the film and television company had renovated it and turned it into an indoor filming location. Not too long ago, a television series called, 'New Love Apartment' was actually filmed and completed here. However, the television series was still in post-production, and it had not been officially broadcasted yet.

The villa happened to be vacant after the television series was completed, and the film and television company would not be filming for another month. Therefore, they decided to temporarily rent out the villa to cover some of their cost.

To set up this trap for Elaine Ma, Hannah had rented this villa for five thousand dollars a day. She was prepared to cheat Elaine Ma of all her money here because she wanted to take revenge on Elaine Ma for humiliating and insulting her and Christopher the other day.

It would be best if she could also cheat Charlie Wade's villa out of Elaine Ma. That way, she would be able to turn her life around immediately!

Elaine Ma did not know that all of this was simply a trap that had been laid out for her. She thought that she was really lucky to have met an acquaintance who would eventually develop into a long-term cash-making machine for her.

Therefore, Elaine Ma looked at Linda with a flattering expression on her face as she said, "Oh! Sister Linda, it would be really convenient for us to play mahjong together in the future! My family and I will be moving into my son-in-law's villa, which is Villa A05 at Thompson First next month!"

Linda had already long known that Elaine Ma had a villa at Thompson First. If it weren't because of that villa, she would not have agreed to work together with Hannah just to cheat Elaine Ma of her savings.

Linda was in her fifties, and she had been a croupier at a casino in Macau for more than thirty years. She was definitely good at all sorts of cards and gambling games, including poker and mahjong, which she was superb in.

This time, Hannah promised Linda that she would provide her the technical support in the game, and that both of them would split the profits equally between them.

Therefore, Elaine Ma regarded Linda as her ATM, while Linda regarded her as a big fat pig that she could not wait to split into half! After that, she would be able to share the profits equally with Hannah!

Chapter 583

Everyone had their own tricks up their sleeves, and they could not wait to start the game.

Therefore, Linda clapped her hands as she greeted another woman, smiled, and said, "By the way, this is Gianna Rowe. She is also a close friend of mine. We are all not very good at gambling, so we should just start the game with the four of us now!"

Elaine Ma also replied excitedly, "Okay, let's get started immediately. To be honest, my hands are getting itchy already!"

Linda smiled before she suggested, "Since today is the first time we are playing mahjong together with Sister Elaine Ma, let's not start with too much capital. We will start with one thousand dollars, and we will cap it at sixty-four times, okay?"

"What?"

Elaine Ma was a little shocked when she heard Linda's words. She blurted out immediately, "A thousand dollars capped at sixty-four times?! This would eventually cost more than sixty thousand dollars at the end of the day! Do you usually play mahjong with such a big capital?"

Linda smiled before she waved her hand and said, "Sister Elaine Ma, is this considered a big capital? To be honest, this is the smallest I have ever played. When I was playing with some of my friends the other day, we were playing at three thousand to five thousand dollars. We even played a few rounds of ten thousand dollars."

Then, Linda pointed at Hannah who was sitting next to Elaine Ma before she said, "The last time Hannah played a five thousand dollar game with me, I think I lost close to one million dollars that day! On the other hand, I think that Hannah won three hundred thousand dollars that night, right?"

Hannah hurriedly replied, "Oh, Sister Linda! You are just too rich. You cannot even remember how much money you lost that night?! You lost more than two million dollars that day! I won about five hundred thousand dollars, but the biggest winner that night was Gianna!"

At this time, the woman named Gianna smiled before she said, "Oh, I simply won a little more than a million dollars that night. That is not a lot of money to Sister Linda anyway!"

Linda smiled before she said, "To be completely honest, that small amount of money means nothing to me. My husband earns hundreds of millions of dollars every year, so he does not really mind if I lose thirty to fifty million dollars playing mahjong."

Elaine Ma could not help but feel very excited when she heard Linda's words.

Linda was truly a fool!

Moreover, if Hannah was going to partner up with her, it would surely be an easy win for them!

Elaine Ma quickly dispelled all of her doubts and worries from before as she smiled and said, "Okay then, Sister Linda. Let's start with one thousand dollars."

Linda nodded before she smiled and said, "Let's get the dice rolling!"

"Okay!" Elaine Ma rubbed her hands together excitedly.

After Linda dealt the cards, she immediately took the lead to start the game.

After that, the four of them started checking their tiles.

Elaine Ma was very excited with the tiles she had been dealt with!

She could not believe how lucky she was!

All she needed to win the game was just a tile with three on one side, and a twenty thousand tile. If she could draw these tiles, she would win the game immediately!

Elaine Ma was very excited, and she began looking forward to drawing the card that she lacked.

However, after being unable to draw the tile that she needed after a few rounds, she thought of her agreement with Hannah. After that, she sent her a signal, asking her for a three.

Hannah understood her intentions and hurriedly let go of a three tile.

"Three!"

"Oh, I will take it!" Elaine Ma was very happy as she took the tile in front of her before she discarded a tile and said, "Eight!"

After that, Elaine Ma said triumphantly, "I have a draw!"

Linda asked her in surprise, "Oh, Sister Elaine Ma! You have a draw so soon?"

Elaine Ma smiled before she said, "Yes, it seems as though I have a very good hand today."

Linda nodded as she said, "Then, I hope I will not burn myself."

After that, Linda reached out her hand before she discarded her tile, "Twenty thousand!"

Chapter 584

Elaine Ma was overjoyed when she saw Linda discarding the twenty thousand tile, and she immediately flipped her tiles over as she yelled, "Haha! I win! I take twenty thousand!"

"Oh, no!" Linda deliberately replied, "Ahh! Why am I always so unlucky?! Why did I discard that tile?!"

Elaine Ma hurriedly replied, "Hey, Sister Linda, we have already come to an agreement. So, since you've lost, you cannot go back on your words anymore!"

Linda replied, "Don't worry, Sister Elaine Ma. I am not that kind of person. Since I am the one who discarded the wrong tile, I will definitely pay you the money that you won."

Hannah also chimed in as she said, "Yes, Elaine Ma. Sister Linda is betting a few thousand dollars for a mahjong game just for fun."

At this time, Linda had already handed the twenty-four thousand dollars over to Elaine Ma as she said, "You won twenty-four thousand dollars, right? Why don't you count this money first?"

Elaine Ma was very excited, and she quickly took the money in her hands and counted it before she put the money aside as she continued playing mahjong with them.

After that, Elaine Ma's luck remained surprisingly good.

Any tiles that she was dealt with were always good, and Elaine Ma won almost every game with Hannah's help.

After playing a few rounds of mahjong, Elaine Ma had only lost two rounds. She had been winning all the other rounds they had been playing. At this point, she had already won more than three hundred thousand dollars!

She was already used to playing mahjong, but the most money she had ever won from playing mahjong was just ten thousand dollars. She had never won so much money before, and after counting her winnings and realizing that she had won more than three hundred thousand dollars, Elaine Ma could not hold her excitement any longer.

At this time, as they were shuffling the tiles, Hannah coughed lightly to give her accomplices a signal.

The expression on Linda's face changed, and she knew that it was already time for them to close the net.

Since they had already fed the pig, it was now time to slaughter the pig!

Immediately afterward, Linda yawned before she said, "Oh! It's so boring to just play one thousand dollars. I am already falling asleep. Why don't we place a bigger bet instead so that I can feel more refreshed and energized for the game?"

Hannah smiled before she said, "Well, I am fine with that."

Then, Hannah turned around and looked at Elaine Ma as she smiled and asked, "What do you think about that, Elaine Ma?"

Elaine Ma did not know that she had already fallen into a trap. She felt that she had won three hundred thousand dollars so easily and if she played a little bigger, she would probably be able to win three million dollars tonight!

She was simply greedy to win more money and did not even think about the possibility of her losing the game.

Therefore, she was very excited as she said, "Okay, let's play a bigger amount, then!"

Linda nodded before she said, "Well, let's start playing at ten thousand dollars, then! It's really boring if we keep placing small bets."

After that, Linda continued speaking, "If you guys think that the amount is too big, I can ask my neighbor to come over and play with you guys instead. She also likes to place smaller bets when playing mahjong. I can ask her to take over my spot while I go upstairs and take a nap."

"Ten thousand dollars?" Elaine Ma was stunned. Wasn't that too big?

It would be scary to lose five or six hundred thousand dollars just like that.

At this time, Hannah winked at Elaine Ma before she smiled and said, "Ten thousand dollars is still okay, Elaine Ma. You have been really lucky throughout the night, so if we really placed ten thousand dollars as the bet, you might even be able to make five million dollars tonight!"

As soon as she heard the words 'five million dollars', Elaine Ma's sanity disappeared in an instant.

If she did not agree to the amount, Linda would just ask her neighbor to come and play with them instead. So, how would she be able to win a few million dollars tonight, then?

Therefore, Elaine Ma nodded in excitement before she said, "Okay! Let's play a ten thousand dollars bet instead!"

"Okay!" Linda smiled slightly before she said, "Come on, let's start now! Since we are playing a big amount now, let's use internet banking to transfer the money. That would be much more convenient."

The other three women nodded in agreement as they said, "Alright, then! let's play!"

Chapter 585

After reaching a consensus, all of them began to draw their tiles again.

After Elaine Ma finished drawing her tiles, she flipped her tiles around and almost screamed out in excitement as soon as she straightened her tiles!

Her tiles were perfect!

The so-called 'Heavenly Hand' meant that they could win as soon as they drew their tiles!

She had to have so much good luck to be able to draw such good tiles!

Besides that, the tiles that she drew were really very good. She had a pair of seven to eighty thousand, and this would mean that she would be able to win with a sixty or ninety thousand.

Generally speaking, as long as the ten thousand and ninety thousand were in someone else's hands, she would not be able to win. That meant that from this moment onward, as long as someone discarded ninety thousand dollars, Elaine Ma would win the game immediately!

Under this kind of circumstances, she would be able to win at the highest multiplier!

As she thought about this, Elaine Ma excitedly arranged her tiles as she said, "I have a draw!"

Linda asked in surprise, "Elaine Ma that is amazing. You have a draw with the cards that you just drew?"

"Yes!" Elaine Ma said with a huge smile on her face. "I really don't know what is going on, but I am truly very lucky today!"

Linda nodded before she said, "It seems as though you are destined to win today."

After they were done speaking, Linda, who was seated at the banker's seat, straightened her tiles before she said, "Concealed Kong!"

Elaine Ma exclaimed in surprise, "Oh! Sister Linda, you have a Concealed Kong as soon as you straighten your tiles. That is really amazing!"

Linda smiled before she said, "My other tiles are not that good!"

Elaine Ma reminded her at this time, "By the way, Sister Linda, if you draw another tile, you will have to reveal your concealed tiles."

"Of course!" Linda nodded before she smiled, "Don't worry. I will definitely show you my tiles as soon as I draw it."

Since Elaine Ma had already called for a draw, she could not change her hand anymore. Therefore, she could only continue drawing and playing until someone discarded or if she drew a winning tile herself.

However, Elaine Ma did not know that the ninety thousand tile was actually hidden under Linda's Concealed Kong!

Moreover, Hannah and Gianna both had two of the forty and sixty thousand tiles.

As Elaine Ma was anxiously drawing and playing her cards, Linda suddenly exclaimed, "Oh, I also have a draw now!"

After she was done speaking, Linda turned her tiles around to reveal the four hidden tiles for her Concealed Kong.

Elaine Ma suddenly felt dizzy when she saw those four tiles.

What bad luck!

Linda was actually concealing the ninety thousand tile! It was no wonder why she could not get the ninety thousand tile even after drawing so many times. Moreover, none of them were discarding any ninety thousand tiles at all.

As she was feeling slightly depressed, Elaine Ma could not help but think that even if the ninety thousand tile was gone, the sixty thousand tile was not out yet. This meant that she still had a chance to win!

She really wanted to give Hannah a secret signal to ask for a sixty thousand tile.

However, when she thought about it carefully, the best way to win at mahjong would be to draw her own tile so that everyone at the table would have to pay her three to one. If Hannah gave the sixty thousand tile to her, she would not be able to win money from Hannah. Elaine Ma felt that it would be a waste since she had such a good hand.

Therefore, she decided to rely on her own ability or to wait for someone else to discard a tile instead of relying on Hannah.

If Hannah discarded the sixty thousand tile herself, she would be overjoyed because Hannah would have to pay her then!

When it was Elaine Ma's turn to draw a tile, she felt very excited when she started to touch her tile. She was about to exclaim in excitement, but she was very disappointed when she turned the tile around.

It turned out to be eighty thousand.

Bad luck!

If it was just a little smaller, if only if it was a sixty thousand tile, she would have already won!

In that case, three of them would have to pay her six hundred and forty thousand dollars each, and that would amount to almost two million dollars!

However, Elaine Ma comforted herself by thinking since the eighty thousand tile was here, it would only be a matter of time when the sixty thousand tile came out.

Therefore, she casually discarded the eighty thousand tile as she said, "Eighty thousand!"

Chapter 586

"I win!" Linda yelled excitedly as she pushed all of her tiles down suddenly! "I have fifty-eight thousand, all in one suit, a Concealed Hand, and a Concealed Kong! This is a multiplier of forty-eight, and that means I win four hundred and eighty thousand dollars! Sorry, Sister Elaine Ma!"

Elaine Ma felt as though she had just fallen into an ice cellar!

Four hundred and eighty thousand dollars just because she discarded one tile?

She had just won three hundred thousand dollars after such a long time, and she was already giving up all of her winnings just like that. She even had to top up another one hundred over thousand dollars to make up for the losses...

That was more than a hundred thousand dollars!

Elaine Ma felt very uncomfortable, and she felt as though she was breaking apart mentally.

Hannah hurriedly persuaded her, "Oh! Elaine Ma, it cannot be possible for you to win every game anyway! You have already won so many games. It does not matter if you lose one game. You will get back all of your losses almost right away!"

Linda also smiled as she said, "Yes, it is just one round anyway. We are going to play many more rounds today!"

Elaine Ma felt a little more comforted and assured at this time. However, she was suffocating in her heart, and she really wanted to win back all the money that she had lost!

After using her internet banking to transfer four hundred and eighty thousand dollars to Linda, they continued with their next game.

However, Elaine Ma got very bad tiles for her next game.

She was in shock when she turned her tiles over! How could she possibly have such a bad hand?!

She was either missing a tile or having a broken combination. She did not even have a pair at all!

If she had tiles like this, she would need to draw at least seven or eight tiles for her to win...

She was on the verge of collapse!

How could she possibly turn this around?

Elaine Ma felt that she would not even be able to win even after everyone had already made up two sets of tiles!

Moreover, it seemed as though the other three people on the table had very good hands as they were all very happy and excited at this point.

Hannah was the first to draw her tile.

After that, it was followed by Linda and Gianna.

As soon as she saw them drawing their tiles, Elaine Ma could feel her heart beating frantically.

When she saw that her tiles were getting more and more hopeless, Elaine Ma started to feel even more anxious and worried.

At this time, she reached out her hand and touched a 'Yaoji' tile. She felt that there was an eighty percent probability that she would be safe if she discarded this tile. Therefore, she threw the tile out before she yelled, "Yaoji! I don't think any of you would want this card, right?"

Gianna, who was seated next to Elaine Ma, yelled excitedly, "Hahaha! This is crazy! I won!"

Hannah also replied in an embarrassed manner, "Oh my God! I won too. I have a Dragon Tiles Suit!"

Linda smiled as she said, "Hey! I won too! I got the Thirteen Orphans!"

Elaine Ma looked at the tiles displayed by the other three players, and she was utterly shocked when she realized that all of them had won because she had discarded her 'Yaoji' tile!

With just one single tile!

This was terrible.

Elaine Ma had already lost one hundred and eighty times because of this game, and this amounted to one million and eight hundred thousand dollars!

Elaine Ma felt as though her head was already spinning at this time.

What was happening?! She had suddenly lost two games in a row, and she already lost more than two million dollars simply because of these two games! This was simply too cruel!

Besides, Elaine Ma did not have much money left. Her entire savings amounted to more than two million dollars, but after deducting all her losses today, she would be left with two to three hundred thousand dollars..

Elaine Ma really wanted to cry, but Gianna was already urging her at this time, "Sister Elaine Ma, why don't we settle the account first? After that, we can move on to the next game."

When she heard Gianna asking her to settle the account with them, the expression on Elaine Ma's face changed immediately. This was one million and eight hundred dollars! How could she possibly be willing to give it to them?

The other three women exchanged glances with one another. At this time, Hannah started to persuade Elaine Ma again, "Elaine Ma, it does not matter if you lose two games. If you are lucky, you will definitely be able to win two more games later. If you stop playing now, you will not be able to get back what you lost!"

After that, she continued speaking, "The last time we played, Gianna also lost two to three million dollars. However, she won two million dollars with a big four and won, followed by another two million dollars because of a big three. She won back a lot of money that night!"

Chapter 587

Even though Hannah was trying to stabilize Elaine Ma's mentality and emotions, Elaine Ma's mentality had already collapsed at this point!

To put it bluntly, she did have some skills when it came to playing mahjong. However, the biggest problem was that she could not change the tiles that she drew. There was nothing she could do if she had a bad hand. At this time, all of her emotions were openly displayed on her face.

For instance, she could be very excited for a very long time if she won, but when she lost, she could not help but wait to eat the other person alive!

She had won so many games earlier, but she had only won about three hundred thousand dollars. However, she had lost so much money after losing two big games. This naturally made her feel very uncomfortable. Not only did she lose the three hundred thousand dollars she had won, but she also lost more than two million dollars! This was literally half of her life savings!

Elaine Ma had not earned much money for herself in this life, and her husband did not have many skills at all. Therefore, it was very difficult for her to save two million dollars.

In truth, she had almost lost a lot of money when she set out to buy the P2P financial management funds in the past. Fortunately, Charlie Wade had stood up for her and had gotten back the money for her.

After that, she had taken her daughter's office rental refund of more than one hundred thousand dollars and the money from Jacobs' mediocre sale of his antiques to make up the two million dollars in her savings account.

As a result, she had lost all of her money just because of two games...

When Linda saw that Elaine Ma's face had already turned green, she deliberately agitated her by asking, "Sister Elaine Ma, do you still want to play? Are you feeling heartbroken because of the money you've lost? It is just a little more than two million dollars anyway. You can afford a villa in Thompson First, but it is so painful for you to lose this little bit of money?"

"Play! Of course, we're playing!" Elaine Ma's face twitched slightly as she said, "This small amount of money is not a problem at all! We are just playing for fun, anyway. Let's continue!"

"Yes, we are just playing for fun anyway! Money is not an issue," the other two women chimed in immediately.

At this time, Elaine Ma had no idea that the other three women were in fact cooperating and working together to cheat her out of her money.

This was an automatic mahjong machine, and when shuffling the tiles, Linda could actually shuffle the tiles according to the predetermined plan.

That way, she would be able to control the distribution of the tiles!

In the last game, Elaine Ma had gotten a very good hand, but the sixty thousand and ninety thousand had already been divided equally between the other three players. Therefore, Elaine Ma's tiles were already at a dead-end as soon as she was dealt those tiles. As long as the three of them refused to discard their cards, Elaine Ma would never be able to win at all.

However, Elaine Ma did not know this.

Elaine Ma was naturally confident after getting a Heavenly Hand! Even though she did not win in the end, she thought that it was just because she was unlucky and missed a tile.

It was this kind of mentality that made Elaine Ma feel even more inclined to fight back.

After that, Linda controlled the automatic mahjong machine to make sure that Elaine Ma could win the next game.

Elaine Ma proceeded to win two games in a row as her tiles were very beautiful. However, even though she won, she did not win much money.

She only won one hundred thousand dollars from the three of them. This was just a drop in the bucket compared to what she had already lost to them!

Elaine Ma became even more emotional and unstable at this point. She had lost more than two million dollars because she had lost two games, but she only won one hundred thousand dollars after winning another two games?! Why couldn't she win two big games instead?

As she thought about it, Elaine Ma gritted her teeth as she prepared to smash it out with these three people!

They continued with their game.

This time, Elaine Ma had three east, three west, three south, and two north. Her other two cards were two red suits.

Elaine Ma was stunned when she saw these sets of tiles.

Chapter 588

This set of tiles was another Heavenly Hand. She could win with two North Winds and a red tile.

Most importantly, if she could get a North Wind tile, she would be able to get East, South, West, and North Wind. She would be able to win a big four!

Winning with a big four was one of the biggest multipliers!

If she could touch a North Wind, she would be able to win her two million dollars back!

As she thought about it, Elaine Ma really wanted to yell in excitement as she wanted to get a North Wind tile.

She felt that the North Wind tile or the red tile would usually be of little use to anyone. Therefore, an average person would usually discard these tiles when they have it. So, even if she could not draw the tile on her own, someone would definitely discard one of these tiles.

Little did she know, these tiles that she had were already a dead-end!

The North Wind and the red tile that she needed were already in Gianna's hand. That was to say, like her previous Heavenly Hand, the set in her tiles was already a dead-end, and she would never be able to win this game at all.

Elaine Ma kept waiting for the North Wind and the red tile, but it did not appear even after so many rounds. After waiting for a few more rounds, Linda drew a tile before she turned it over and said with a smile on her face, "Oh! It seems as though I have a draw again! This time, I have another Concealed Hand! I win by a multiplier of forty-eight times!"

Gianna saw that she touched the last six tiles and she hurriedly said, "Oh, Sister Linda! You won by the last six tile! I have three of them in my hand. That means that you've won the Last Tile Claim!"

"Oh! It really is the Last Tile Claim!"

Linda clapped her hands excitedly as she said, "Then, add another eight times. Therefore, it is a multiplier of fifty-six times which adds up to five hundred and sixty thousand dollars!"

Elaine Ma could not help but feel dizzy at this time!

She only had a little more than two hundred thousand dollars left in her bank account. How could she possibly afford to pay another five hundred and sixty thousand dollars to Linda now?

Elaine Ma could not help but pull Hannah aside at this time as she asked in a low voice, "Sister-in-law, to tell you the truth, I do not have so much money anymore. Can you lend me some money?"

Hannah secretly cursed in her heart because she felt that Elaine Ma deserved it. However, she pretended to be in a difficult spot as she said, "Sister-in-law, I don't have that much money either. You should also know about the situation the Wilson family is in..."

Elaine Ma hurriedly asked, "But weren't you and brother-in-law looking to buy a villa not too long ago? Even an old villa would already cost more than ten million dollars! Couldn't you lend me a few hundred thousand dollars today?"

Hannah sighed before she said, "That money has all been taken away by that old lady to fill up the holes in the Wilson Group!"

Elaine Ma said anxiously, "Then, what should I do now? I do not have enough money to pay for the losses now. I can't continue to play, so what should I do to turn things around now?"

At this time, Linda suddenly asked, "Sister Elaine Ma, are you already broke? Do you have enough money to settle the account? If you are not going to play anymore, please settle the account first."

Elaine Ma was very anxious at this time. After that, she smiled before she said, "Why wouldn't I have any more money? I simply did not bring enough money out with me. Can I owe you this small sum of money first? I will settle the account with you after we are done playing these last eight rounds of mahjong."

She felt that she had to find a way to win her money back today. If she did not continue playing with them, she would lose more than two million dollars today!

She originally thought that it would be very easy for her to talk to Linda and convince her to agree to her request since Linda was so rich and often lost millions of dollars during every mahjong game. Elaine Ma felt that Linda did not care too much about money anyway.

Unexpectedly, Linda suddenly had a very cold expression on her face as she said in a sharp voice, "Sister Elaine Ma, you cannot do this! Every mahjong game should be settled after every win or loss! How can you be owing anyone money? When I lost the game to you, I paid and settled my account immediately, so why are you trying to delay settling the account now that you've lost?"

Linda continued speaking, "Besides, how can you still expect to continue playing with us when you don't even have enough money to settle your account now? It would not be that bad if you won the game, but what will we do if you continue losing and refuse to pay us?"

Elaine Ma's face was flushed red, and she did not know what to say.

When Linda saw the expression on Elaine Ma's face, she said contemptuously, "The only reason why I was willing to invite you over to play mahjong today is because Hannah told me that you are pretty good at playing mahjong. If you are not willing to fork out the money to continue playing, please settle the account with me first. Give me the five hundred and sixty thousand dollars that I won and we will stop playing today!"

Chapter 589

Elaine Ma had completely fallen into a pit. She did not realize that she had already fallen into a trap. All she could think about was how she could win her money back.

Therefore, Elaine Ma got very nervous when she heard that Linda did not want to continue playing anymore. At this time, she blurted out immediately, "How can we stop playing just because you want to stop playing now?! We already agreed to play another eight rounds! We have only played three rounds now!"

Linda replied helplessly, "Sister Elaine Ma, it's not that I do not want to play with you anymore. However, the point is that you do not have the money to play with us anymore!"

After she was done speaking, Linda said, "Why don't we take a step back instead? Why don't you settle this account first and then, we can play a smaller game? I will still accompany you to play even if it is a one thousand dollars or one hundred dollars game. Will that be fine?"

"One thousand dollars? One hundred dollars?" Elaine Ma blurted out anxiously. "How could we do that? How can I possibly win my money back if we are only going to place such small bets?"

Linda replied helplessly, "Well, if you want to continue betting ten thousand dollars, you have to take out your money first. Otherwise, I do not want to play anymore and we will just stop playing today."

Hannah hurriedly stepped in and said, "Sister Linda, Elaine Ma really does not have so much money on hand. Since we are all friends, why don't you give her a way out?"

After that, Hannah secretly winked at Linda.

Linda immediately understood what Hannah was trying to tell her. "Alright then, I will give you face today because of Hannah. If you do not have any more cash, you can use something else of equal value as a mortgage instead."

As soon as Linda said these words, Elaine Ma suddenly felt as though she had been given a way out of hell.

Elaine Ma hurriedly replied, "The house that I am living in now is a small three-bedroom apartment. I think it should be worth two million dollars at least. Is it okay if I mortgage the house to you?"

"That would be fine!" Linda smiled before she said, "However, you have to bring me the house deed first. After that, you have to write me a mortgage contract."

Elaine Ma blurted out immediately, "Okay, then. Wait for me. I will go home and bring the house deed over to you right now!"

After she was done speaking, Elaine Ma hurriedly got up to leave.

Linda hurriedly stopped her as she said, "Hey! Sister Elaine Ma, don't leave in such a hurry. You have not paid me the five hundred and sixty thousand dollars that you lost to me just now."

Elaine Ma checked the balance in her bank account and realized that she only had two hundred and sixty thousand dollars left. Therefore, she said, "Sister Linda, I only have two hundred and sixty thousand dollars left in my bank account. Can I transfer this amount to you first? After that, I will go home and bring my house deed over and you can deduct the rest of the money that I owe you from the amount that I will get from my mortgage. Is that okay?"

"That would be fine." Linda said, "Why don't you write me an IOU for three hundred thousand dollars first? After that, you can go home and bring your house deed over. Otherwise, what would I do if you refused to pay me the three hundred thousand dollars that you owed me after you leave? Am I right?"

At this time, Elaine Ma simply wanted to go home and take her house deed so that she could continue playing mahjong with them. She wanted to win her money back from them! Therefore, as soon as she had heard Linda's words, she nodded without any hesitation at all as she said, "Okay, then! I will write you the IOU now!"

Linda immediately brought a piece of paper and pen over before Elaine Ma wrote an IOU for three hundred thousand dollars on it. Linda finally let her go when she pressed her fingerprint on the IOU.

Elaine Ma drove home in a hurry as soon as she left the villa at Thompson First.

Elaine Ma knew that her daughter was probably still busy at work, and her husband and son-in-law would still be out for her husband's class reunion. Therefore, she was certain that they would not find out she had taken the house deed if she returned home and left immediately.

That way, she would be able to turn things around by continuing the mahjong game with her friends.

Very soon, Elaine Ma returned to the villa at Thompson First with the house deed in her hands.

After getting the house deed, Linda immediately searched for the market value of a house in the same community on her cell phone. At this time, she found out that the lowest price for a house of the same value was only one million and eight hundred dollars. Therefore, she looked at Elaine Ma as she said, "Sister Elaine Ma, the bank generally recognizes only ninety percent of the market value of the house whenever they accept any mortgage. The market value for your house is one million and eight hundred thousand dollars. So, even if you mortgage your house, you will only get one million six hundred and twenty thousand dollars."

All Elaine Ma wanted at this point was to continue playing mahjong with them so that she could turn things around. Therefore, she blurted out immediately, "Alright then, I will mortgage my house to you for one million six hundred and twenty thousand dollars. After deducting the three hundred thousand dollars that I owe you, you can just transfer one million three hundred and twenty thousand dollars to me. We can continue playing after that. What do you think?"

Linda replied, "That will be fine, but we will have to draw up a mortgage contract first. Otherwise, I am afraid that you will refuse to acknowledge it when you lose the house to me later."

Elaine Ma said anxiously, "Alright then, let's hurry up and sign the mortgage contract now so we can continue playing already!"

After that, Elaine Ma signed a mortgage contract with Linda and also pressed her fingerprint on the contract. After the mortgage contract had been signed, Linda transferred one million three hundred and twenty thousand dollars to Elaine Ma.

Linda did not care about that money at all because she knew that even though she was transferring those one million three hundred and twenty thousand dollars to Elaine Ma, it would all come back to her soon.

Chapter 590

Elaine Ma secretly made up her mind to earn back all of her money and make more profits this time!

She gave everything that she had to continue playing the game.

However, she would never have expected to lose the one million three hundred and twenty thousand dollars in just half an hour!

Elaine Ma was completely bewildered at this time. She was very unwilling to stop playing after losing all her money, and she quickly said, "Come, come, let's play another round!"

Linda said, "Sister Elaine Ma, you don't have any more money now. So, how are you going to pay us if you lose after we continue playing?"

"I..."

Elaine Ma did not know how she should answer her question.

She had completely exhausted everything she had.

She had already used up all of her savings, and she had even mortgaged the only house occupied by her entire family.

She did not have anything else she could mortgage anymore.

However, Linda had sharp eyes, and she could recognize the value of the jade bracelet on Elaine Ma's wrist at a single glance. Therefore, she blurted out, "Oh, I think that you have a valuable jade bracelet too!"

"Jade bracelet?" Elaine Ma looked down at her wrist and suddenly remembered that she still had a valuable treasure on her.

This jade bracelet was a gift from Graham, the head of the Quinton family, because he had wanted to get into Charlie Wade's good books.

Charlie Wade had originally given this jade bracelet to her daughter, Claire Wilson Wilson, but she had taken it from her daughter before Claire Wilson Wilson even had the opportunity to wear it. After that, Elaine Ma refused to return it, and she blatantly took it and treated it as though it belonged to her.

Since it was just a jade bracelet, Charlie Wade did not care too much about it. Moreover, Claire Wilson Wilson did not want to ask her mother to return it to her. Therefore, Elaine Ma had always been wearing the jade bracelet.

At this time, Elaine Ma hurriedly took off the jade bracelet before she handed it over to Linda and said, "This jade bracelet is one of the finest and purest jade bracelets in the market. It was bought for five million dollars, but why don't I mortgage it to you for four million dollars instead?"

Linda took the jade bracelet in her hands to examine it and was pleasantly surprised.

This jade bracelet was indeed made out of top-quality and precious jade. Therefore, it would not be expensive at all if this jade bracelet cost five million dollars.

However, since Linda had already worked in a casino for so many years, she was a connoisseur at cheating and taking advantage of people.

Linda smiled slightly before she handed the jade bracelet back to Elaine Ma. After that, she said, "Sister Elaine Ma, your jade bracelet is indeed very precious. However, to be honest with you, I don't think that it is worth five million dollars at all. It is worth only a few hundred thousand dollars at most."

"How is that possible?" Elaine Ma blurted out, "This jade bracelet cost five million dollars! I saw the receipt with my own two eyes!"

"Well, even if you bought it for five million dollars, it does not necessarily mean that you will be able to sell it for five million dollars," Linda replied disdainfully. "After all, you should understand how things work in the jade industry. If you are slaughtered when you buy the jade, it does not mean that you will be able to slaughter someone else and sell it for the same price. Do you understand what I am saying?"

After that, Linda continued speaking, "Well, since we are all friends and since we are getting along so well, for the sake of our friendship, I am willing to give one million dollars to you if you mortgage this jade bracelet to me. If you accept my deal, we can sign a mortgage contract. If you do not want it, we can just forget it."

Elaine Ma was already desperate at this point, and she simply blurted out, "I am willing!"

Hannah quickly said, "Oh, Elaine Ma. Why don't you forget it already? Even if you mortgage this jade bracelet for one million dollars, you will only be able to play another two or three more rounds before the money is gone anyway. So, why bother at all?"

Linda nodded before she said, "Hannah is right. One million dollars is not really a big deal. So, why don't we call it a day and continue playing another day instead?"

"No!" Elaine Ma yelled anxiously. "Do you truly think that I have no more money left? Don't forget that I still have a villa at Thompson First. My villa is the largest and most luxurious Villa A05! It is worth one hundred and thirty million dollars!"

Hannah hurriedly replied, "Oh, but isn't that villa owned by Charlie Wade? Can you honestly mortgage his villa?"

Elaine Ma burst out anxiously, "Of course I can do that! Why not?! He is my son-in-law. If he dares to refuse my request, I will deal with him properly at that time!"

Chapter 591

Hannah already knew that Zeke was the one who had given Charlie Wade the villa at Thompson First.

Therefore, she knew that she would have to push Elaine Ma to the limit if she wanted to win the villa at Thompson First over from Elaine Ma.

Hannah knew that Charlie Wade would not sit back and watch idly if Elaine Ma did something so unreasonable.

At that time, she would finally have the opportunity to take over the villa.

Therefore, Hannah told Elaine Ma, "You have already lost so much money. I think that it will be very difficult for you to win back all your money if we continue betting only ten thousand dollars. Why don't we raise the bet instead? How about fifty thousand dollars? Anyway, you have enough money to cover your losses with the villa, but if you win, you can easily win back all your money in just two games!"

Elaine Ma had already lost all of her reasoning at this point, and she simply wanted to win all of her money back. Upon hearing this, Elaine Ma immediately nodded in agreement as she blurted out, "Alright, then! Let's bet fifty thousand dollars instead!"

Linda said, "But you don't have the house deed for the villa, right?"

Elaine Ma replied, "It does not matter at all. The villa belongs to my son-in-law, and anything that my son-in-law owns belongs to me!"

Linda shook her head as she said, "I think there is no way I can give you money for a mortgage without the house deed. It is simply too risky for me."

After that, Linda stretched out five fingers as she said, "Well, why don't you sign an agreement stating that you will mortgage the villa to me instead? I can lend you fifty million in total. I will give five million dollars to you first, and I will transfer another five million to you each time you lose it all."

Elaine Ma nodded before she said, "Alright then, I will mortgage the villa to you for fifty million dollars! Fifty million dollars should be more than enough for me to win my money back!"

Linda smiled slightly before she said, "Okay, then! We can continue playing after we sign the agreement."

At this time, Elaine Ma quickly signed the agreement to put down the Villa A05 at Thompson First as a mortgage for fifty million dollars without any hesitation. After that, Linda transferred five million dollars to her.

As a result, Elaine Ma lost five million dollars after only playing another three rounds of mahjong!

Linda smiled before she said, "Oh, don't worry. You have another forty-five million dollars. I will transfer another five million dollars to you!"

After that, Linda transferred the five million dollars that she had just won back into Elaine Ma's bank account.

After a few more rounds, Elaine Ma had lost the second batch of five million dollars.

Elaine Ma was about to collapse at this point.

In the blink of an eye, she had already lost her savings of more than two million dollars, her house, and she had already lost ten million dollars after putting Charlie Wade's Thompson First villa down for mortgage...

Gambling was, in itself, a psychological black hole. Once someone falls into it, it would be very difficult for the person to climb out of it. Instead, the person would gradually be consumed and swallowed by the black hole.

This was the reason why it was difficult for many gambling addicts to get a hold of their lives. This was because they had no control over their own state of mind at all.

This was also the same case for Elaine Ma.

She had already put everything she had into this game, and she simply wanted to continue gambling because she knew that she had to turn things over and win back everything she had lost.

However, it was impossible for her to win in a carefully planned game. She was simply a lamb that was getting slaughtered over and over again without any possibility of turning over and making a comeback.

Five million dollars, come and gone, one after the other.

Chapter 592

In fact, these five million dollars was made up of Elaine Ma's two over million dollars, including the two million dollars that Hannah had put in as bait. Linda was simply repeatedly lending the same five million dollars that Elaine Ma kept taking and losing back to her. After a whole night, the fifty million dollars that Elaine Ma got from mortgaging the villa was already lost.

At this time, Linda told Elaine Ma, "Sister Elaine Ma, I am sorry, but it seems as though you have already used up the fifty million dollars that you got from the mortgage."

Elaine Ma felt as though she was going insane, and she blurted out immediately, "My villa is worth more than one hundred million dollars! You cannot simply take a mortgage from me for just fifty million dollars! You should give me another fifty million dollars for it!"

"I am sorry." Linda smiled slightly before she said, "We have already signed a mortgage contract, and everything is written in black and white. You were the one who agreed to mortgage the villa to me for fifty million dollars. According to our agreement, you have three days to raise the money. If you are trying to raise money, it would be fifty million dollars, plus another five million dollars as interest. Therefore, you owe me fifty-five million in total. If you can pay me fifty-five million dollars, you can keep the villa, but if you cannot pay me, the villa that you mortgaged to me will officially belong to me."

Elaine Ma blurted out immediately, "No, that villa does not belong to me! It belongs to my son-in-law, so what I said does not count at all!"

At this time, Elaine Ma knew that she could not bring the villa into this situation because the villa belonged to Charlie Wade. If she asked Charlie Wade for the villa, her daughter and husband would definitely find out that she had lost so much money as well as their house deed! They would also find out that she had mortgaged Charlie Wade's villa and lost all of that money.

Therefore, Elaine Ma hurriedly said, "Sister Linda, you have already won a house and more than two million dollars from me today. So, please, can you just forget about the villa? You have already won so much and made so much money from me today!"

As soon as she heard Elaine Ma's words, the expression on Linda's face changed as she said coldly, "Elaine Ma, are you trying to run away without paying up after losing to me? Do you really think that I can be bullied so easily? Don't blame me for turning my back on you if you do not pay me what you owe me!"

Elaine Ma hurriedly cried out loud, "Sister Linda, I know that you are a good person. I really cannot give you the villa because it does not belong to me at all!"

Linda was very indifferent, and she simply replied coldly, "You should stop talking nonsense in front of me! You can either choose to pay me the money you owe me, or transfer the ownership of the villa to me! Otherwise, I will ask my nephew to come and collect the debt from you!"

Then, Linda continued speaking, "My nephew is a gangster. If you refuse to pay me the money you owe me, I will ask him to chop off your hands immediately!"

Elaine Ma cried bitterly as she said, "Sister Linda, even if you kill me, I will not be able to give you fifty-five million dollars..."

After that, Elaine Ma turned around and quickly begged Hannah, "Sister-in-law, why don't you put in a good word for me? Isn't Sister Linda your friend? Didn't you say that Sister Linda did not care about money at all? Please help me ask her to let me go this time. Please help me..."

At this time, Hannah said helplessly, "I am sorry, Elaine Ma, but I really cannot help you in this matter at all. After all, you've lost too much money."

Even though it seemed as though Hannah pitied Elaine Ma, she was actually feeling very happy and refreshed in her heart!

Hahaha!

Elaine Ma, you stinky woman! Who asked you to show off your wealth in front of me? Who asked you to taunt and humiliate me in the first place? Now, you are finally suffering this fate because you offended me! Your savings, your house, and even your son-in-law's villa belong to me now!

From now on, Elaine Ma would be left with nothing at all!

When Elaine Ma realized that it was useless for her to beg Hannah, she hurriedly knelt in front of Linda as she grabbed the latter's legs and said, "Sister Linda, you are so rich. Please do not push me into a dead end. Can you please let me off? I really cannot come up with so much money!"

Linda kicked her away before saying in disgust, "Don't try to bargain with me now. Why didn't you say that you would return me my money when you were winning earlier? Why are you asking me to let you off now that you've lost money to me? You owe me tens of millions in debt. So, how could you possibly be so thick-skinned?"

Elaine Ma hurriedly got up after she was kicked to the ground. She continued crying and begging, "Sister Linda, I really do not have that much money to give you!"

Linda simply stared at her before she replied coldly, "In that case, ask your son-in-law to come and transfer his villa over to me!"

Elaine Ma replied immediately, "No, I cannot do that. If my family finds out about this, my husband will divorce me..."

Linda glared at Elaine Ma with a cold expression on her face before saying, "Elaine Ma, are you really going to refuse to pay me what you owe me? Alright, then. Just wait. I will call my nephew now and ask him to come over and teach you a lesson if you do not pay me what you owe me today. You can either choose to pay me the money or give me the villa. Otherwise, I will ask my nephew to beat you up until you are half dead!"

Chapter 593

Linda had already exposed her true colors.

She was already entering the finishing stage of slaughtering the pig!

When Elaine Ma saw the murderous expression on Linda's face, she felt that she could not possibly be a wealthy woman at all.

She suddenly realized that she had probably been cheated.

After looking at Hannah, she felt that something was really wrong at this point.

Why would Hannah take the initiative to come and apologize to her today? Moreover, why would Hannah even take the initiative to invite her to come over to play mahjong with them?

Was this really planned by Hannah?

There was something amiss with Linda too!

Wasn't she supposed to be bad at playing mahjong?

So, how could she possibly win so much money from her then?

As she thought about this, Elaine Ma suddenly realized that she had probably been fooled!

At this time, Elaine Ma pointed a finger at Hannah before she blurted out furiously, "You with the last name Queen! You are such a shameless b*tch! You actually colluded with others and set up a trap to cheat me of my money!"

Hannah was taken aback and she quickly replied, "Elaine Ma, what are you talking about? Why are you saying that I cheated you when you had lost the money on your own? Didn't you see that I've also lost money today?"

Elaine Ma continued scolding, "Don't try to fool me any longer! You told me to signal to you before we started playing. So, why didn't you give me any of the tiles that I needed?"

Hannah had a dodgy expression on her face as she said, "What are you talking about? I don't understand what you're trying to say at all. I think that you should pay Sister Linda the money that you owe her as soon as possible. Stop talking to me about all these useless things!"

Linda also glared at Elaine Ma with a cold expression on her face as she said, "The one with the surname Parker, you'd better hurry up and pay me the money that you owe me! Otherwise, I'll make sure to teach you a lesson tonight!"

Elaine Ma lost her temper and she pushed all the mahjong tiles onto the ground before she cursed, "You're all b*stards! I know that the three of you ganged up to cheat me of my money! I won't give you anything today!"

Linda frowned as she said, "No? You're refusing to pay up? Okay, just wait. I'll ask my nephew to come over immediately!"

After she was done speaking, Linda took out her cell phone before she made a phone call.

When Elaine Ma heard that Linda was going to call her nephew who was a gangster to come over, she anxiously yelled, "No, don't! Don't call your nephew. Sister Linda, why don't we talk things over in an amicable manner?"

Linda simply ignored Elaine Ma.

The phone call was connected quickly and Linda opened her mouth and said, "Nephew! Someone owes me tens of millions of dollars but she's refusing to pay up! Come over here and help me get my money! I'll buy you a BMW in return!"

As soon as Linda spoke, an angry voice sounded over the other end of the line. "Huh? What did you say, Second Aunt? Someone actually refused to pay up when she owes you money? Is she tired of living in Aurouss Hilll? Where are you? I will bring some of my men over there to teach her a lesson now!"

Linda hurriedly replied, "Good! Good! I am at Villa C11 at Thompson First. Come over as soon as you can!"

After hanging up the phone, Linda looked at Elaine Ma with an arrogant expression on her face as she sneered and said, "My nephew is already on his way here. I'd advise you to find a way to raise the money as soon as possible, or you can ask your son-in-law to come and transfer the ownership of the villa over to me. Otherwise, you are dead meat when my nephew arrives!"

At this time, Elaine Ma felt very regretful and she really wanted to slap herself in the face.

Why was she so obsessed with money? Why did she even agree to come and play mahjong with Hannah and her little group of scammers?

She had even lost all of her savings and her house, as well as mortgaged Charlie Wade's villa to Linda!

What would happen if Charlie Wade was unwilling to let her take his villa to repay her debts?

Elaine Ma suddenly felt very desperate as she thought about this.

At this time, there was a sudden rush of footsteps outside the villa.

After that, a burly man stepped through the front door. There were more than a dozen subordinates following behind him and all of them looked extremely rough and cold. Elaine Ma could tell with a single glance that they were not good people.

Chapter 594

As soon as he stepped through the front door, the man had a cold expression on his face as he yelled, "F*ck! Who is the one who is refusing to pay my second aunt the money that she owes her?"

Linda pointed her finger at Elaine Ma before she said, "Hudson, she is the one!"

The visitor was none other than her nephew, Hudson Howard.

Hudson fixed his icy cold gaze on Elaine Ma before he said, "What? You actually dare to try not paying my second aunt the money that you owe her? Do you know who I am? Are you already tired of living in Aurouss Hill?"

Elaine Ma was so scared that she trembled as she said, "I...I really don't have money to pay you..."

Linda replied in a cold manner, "Stop talking nonsense with me! Give me your villa if you don't have any money! Otherwise, I will teach you a lesson today!"

Elaine Ma was on the verge of collapsing and she quickly yelled, "I don't have money! I have no money at all! I don't have any money to give you even if you kill me!"

Hudson stepped forward and grabbed Elaine Ma by her hair before giving her a tight slap across her face.

Elaine Ma's cheeks were red and swollen in an instance and her nose started bleeding because of that slap.

Elaine Ma sat down on the ground as she started crying as she yelled in pain. Hudson gave her another tight slap across her face as he cursed, "D*mn it! If you continue making another sound, I will tear your mouth apart!"

Elaine Ma was so shocked and frightened that she closed her mouth immediately. She stared at Hudson and she did not even dare to breathe loudly.

Hudson kicked Elaine Ma to the ground before he continued kicking and stepping on her. After that, he asked in a cold manner, "Let me ask you again, are you really going to default on your payment?"

Elaine Ma felt unbearable pain after being kicked and stepped on and she cried and wailed, "Sister Linda, please just let me off this time on behalf of our friendship!"

Linda frowned before she said, "I've only just met you today, so I don't think you can even be considered my friend. Besides that, what kind of good friend would just forget it when you owe them fifty-five million dollars?"

At this time, Hudson who had his feet on Elaine Ma also threatened, "Old woman, are you still trying to bargain with my second aunt? Have you seen my brothers? If you refuse to pay up, I will ask them to take turns to wait on you and I will also shoot a video of them doing you! Since you are already of this age, I believe it is also very difficult for your husband to satisfy you, right? I will make sure that my brothers satisfy you today!"

Elaine Ma was really frightened at this time!

She pleaded bitterly, "Sister Linda, please give me a way out. Why don't you let me call my son-in-law? I will ask him to bring over the house deed for the villa and you can let me off after that..."

Elaine Ma could clearly see the tattoos on all of the men standing before her. She knew that they were all fierce and evil men.

There was no way that she could afford to offend them.

If she continued persisting, she would either be beaten to death or forced to film that kind of video...

It seemed as though Charlie Wade was the only one who could save her now!

Hudson smiled coldly before he said, "Of course you can call your son-in-law, but how can I be sure that your people are not going to call the police?"

"Absolutely not!" Elaine Ma quickly replied, "Why don't I make the phone call in front of you then?"

Hudson replied, "Before I allow you to make the phone call, you should take off all your clothes and let me take a three hundred and sixty degree video of you. That way, I will be able to post this video of you on the Internet if you ever dare to call the police in the future!"

Elaine Ma felt as though she had been struck by lightning!

He wanted to take a naked video of her?

She was already over fifty years old! Why was he trying to take that kind of video of her?

If this video leaked out to the public, where would she hide her face?

Elaine Ma also knew that if she agreed to take the video, she would be giving the other party a big handle over herself.

With this threat, she would simply be at the mercy of others.

Moreover, if she refused to pay up or if she dared to call the police in future, the other party would definitely post this video online and she would end up becoming a laughing stock in the whole of Aurouss Hill!

She would never agree to film this video!

Chapter 595

As soon as she thought about this, Elaine Ma could not help but break down as she broke into tears. She felt a strong sense of humiliation overcoming her at this time.

Elaine Ma cried and pleaded, "Please don't force me to take a video. I'll call my son-in-law and ask him to come here without causing any problems for you at all. I'll ask him to bring the house deed here immediately. I won't say anything else."

Hudson was very indifferent as he stared at her with a cold expression on his face as he said, "These are my rules and this is how I do things. You have to shoot this video no matter what happens today. Even if you refuse to do so, you will still have to take this video!"

"If you take the initiative to remove your own clothes, then all of us can end this matter peacefully. However, if you refuse to cooperate with me, then I will ask my men to tear your clothes off on your behalf!"

As he spoke, Hudson looked Elaine Ma up and down before he said with a lewd smile on his face, "Yes, I forgot to tell you that the Japanese actually like to buy this sort of movie from our country nowadays. A woman like yourself will definitely fit the Japanese market perfectly. If I sell your video to Japan in the future, you might actually become a celebrity then!"

Elaine Ma almost fainted out of fright.

As soon as she heard his words, she no longer dared to bargain with him. She started shedding tears as she felt utterly humiliated. "I'll cooperate with you, okay? I'll cooperate..."

Hudson nodded before he kicked Elaine Ma and said, "Get in the room and take off your clothes now!"

After getting kicked, Elaine Ma crawled into the next bedroom. She laid on the bed and she kept crying as she slowly took off her clothes.

As soon as she took off all her clothes, Elaine Ma burst into tears as she felt that she was about to collapse mentally.

She felt that she no longer had the face to continue living in this world.

Hudson sneered before he took out his cell phone and started filming Elaine Ma's naked body. After that, he said, "Well, I really did not expect an old woman such as yourself to have such a pretty figure!"

Elaine Ma covered her face as she cried but there was nothing that she could do at all. Hudson did not feel any sympathy for her.

In fact, Linda had already arranged and planned everything in advance. When she was still playing mahjong with Elaine Ma, Linda had already asked Hudson to be prepared. Therefore, Hudson had already brought all of his brothers with him as they waited outside the villa community. After receiving the phone call from Linda, Hudson came in and used force to force Elaine Ma into submission!

After he was done filming the video, Hudson walked out of the bedroom with a tearful and miserable Elaine Ma. After that, he said in a cold manner, "Okay, you can call your family and ask them to come over now. If they refuse to pay up, I will send the video of you to everyone so that they can all have a good look at you!"

Elaine Ma nodded before she hurriedly said, "I will call my son-in-law now..."

Even though Elaine Ma really despised and looked down on Charlie Wade, she knew that Charlie Wade was the only one who could save her this time.

Since Hudson had already taken a video of her, he was not worried that she would be up to any tricks at all. He simply said lightly, "Hurry up and ask him to come over immediately. Otherwise, you'll die a terrible death!"

Elaine Ma did not dare to play any tricks at all. She quickly took out her cell phone and made a phone call to Charlie Wade.

At this time, Charlie Wade was still in the private room on the tenth floor of Glorious Club. He was watching Jacob Wilson drink tea, eat snacks, sing, and chat with his old classmates as they reminisced about the past. Charlie Wade felt that the relationship shared between these old men were in fact a little enviable.

Charlie Wade suddenly heard his cell phone ringing and when he picked up his cell phone, he realized that his mother-in-law, Elaine Ma, was calling him.

He could not help but feel a little curious. His mother-in-law rarely took the initiative to call him unless she was in trouble or being cheated.

He really did not want to answer her call but after thinking about it, Charlie Wade was afraid that Elaine Ma would complain to Claire Wilson Wilson if he did not answer her call. She was still Claire Wilson Wilson's mother at the end of the day.

Therefore, he walked out of Room 1008 before he answered the call and said, "Hello, Mom. What's wrong?"

Elaine Ma's anxious voice sounded over the other end of the line. "Charlie Wade, Mom has lost some money while playing mahjong and these people refuse to let me go now! You have to come and save me!"

"Um..." Charlie Wade hesitated for a moment before he said, "Mom, I don't have much money. I only have about ten to twenty thousand dollars. Would that be enough?"

Elaine Ma did not know that Charlie Wade was loaded. Even though Charlie Wade had money, he did not want to spend it on Elaine Ma. Therefore, he deliberately pretended to be poor and said that he only had ten to twenty thousand dollars.

Chapter 596

Elaine Ma blurted out immediately, "Charlie Wade, Mom does not want your money."

Huh?

Charlie Wade was very surprised at this time. What the hell? She did not want his money? When did his mother-in-law become so humane?

Charlie Wade was very surprised but he almost vomited blood out of anger when he heard Elaine Ma's next sentence.

At this time, Elaine Ma said, "Charlie Wade, just bring the house deed for the villa that Zeke White has given you over here!"

"What?" Charlie Wade blurted out immediately. "Mom, do you know how much that villa is worth? It's worth one hundred and thirty million dollars! Don't tell me that you can lose more than one hundred million dollars by playing mahjong with some old ladies in the mahjong hall!"

Elaine Ma choked and she said, "No, I did not lose one hundred million dollars. I lost more than sixty million dollars in total and I owe her another fifty-five million dollars..."

After that, Elaine Ma blurted out, "My dear son-in-law, you must bring the house deed for the villa here to save me. If you don't save me, I'll really be dead this time!"

Charlie Wade blurted out, "Mom! This villa is worth one hundred and thirty million dollars. You're actually exchanging it for fifty-five million dollars?"

Elaine Ma felt very anxious and she said, "My dear son-in-law, please find a way to bring fifty-five million dollars here then. If you can't find a way to raise fifty-five million dollars, then please just bring the house deed over here with you. Otherwise, Mom is really going to die. When that time comes, you can only come here with Claire Wilson Wilson to collect my dead body!"

Immediately afterwards, another man's voice sounded over the other end of the line: "You are Elaine Ma's son-in-law, aren't you? You'd better hurry up and come over here with the house deed immediately. Otherwise, your mother-in-law will not leave this villa alive today!"

Charlie Wade frowned before he asked, "Who are you?"

The other party yelled immediately, "You aren't qualified to know who I am! You only need to know that your mother-in-law owes me fifty-five million dollars. If you refuse to pay up, then you can be prepared to collect her dead body!"

After that, the other party continued speaking, "Oh, by the way, your mother-in-law took off all of her clothes for me to take a high definition video of her just now. If you refuse to pay up, I will spread this video across the Internet and city even after her death!"

Charlie Wade was very enraged when he heard those words.

He did not care if anyone hit Elaine Ma, scolded Elaine Ma, forced himself on Elaine Ma, or even killed Elaine Ma. In fact, he might even thank them for it.

However, he found it unbearable that someone had taken this kind of video of her and threatened to circulate it on the Internet and all around the city.

This was because Charlie Wade was afraid that his wife, Claire Wilson Wilson, would be very upset if she ever saw the video!

She was a very kindhearted person and she was even willing to use all of her savings to help him to save Mrs. Lewis from the orphanage. She had even shed tears because of her!

Claire Wilson Wilson had even withstood countless ridicule and pressure from the whole family as she begged Lady Wilson for help during Lady Wilson's birthday banquet.

It would definitely be a fatal blow to Claire Wilson Wilson if she were to find out that her mother, Elaine Ma, was not only killed, but that there was also this kind of video of her circulating everywhere even after her death. She would be immersed in great pain for the rest of her life!

Charlie Wade did not really care about Elaine Ma's life or death, but he really cared about Claire Wilson Wilson!

All these years, Claire Wilson Wilson had always respected him and took care of him. She had never once despised him or looked down on him even when everyone in the world looked down on him.

Claire Wilson Wilson would even help him and encourage him whenever he was feeling down. How could he possibly repay her kindness? How could he bear to see her in pain?

As he thought about this, Charlie Wade immediately said, "Please don't hurt my mother-in-law. You just want the villa, right? I will just give it to you then. Give me your address and I will go there with the house deed for the villa now!"

Chapter 597

As soon as the other party heard his words, he immediately said, "Villa C11 at Thompson First. You'd better bring your house deed along with you. If you dare to call the police, I'll kill your mother-in-law right away!"

Charlie Wade replied immediately, "Okay, I'll bring it over there right away."

After hanging up the phone, Charlie Wade went back into the private room before he told Jacob Wilson, "Dad, I have to go out and get something done. You can continue having fun here with your friends. Just let the waitress know if you need anything. Everything will be charged to Albert's account."

"Okay." Jacob Wilson nodded before he patted Charlie Wade on his shoulder as he said, "My dear son-in-law, thank you so much for what you have done for me today. If it weren't for you, I would have felt so ashamed and lost so much face today."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly before he said, "Dad, I've only found out today that it hasn't been easy for you all these years. As your son-in-law, it is only natural for me to help you get some face and respect!"

Jacob Wilson felt very touched and he simply sighed as he nodded repeatedly.

Charlie Wade did not say anything else and he simply stood up before he walked out of the room.

He did not go home to pick up his house deed but instead, he simply stopped a cab before he headed straight to the villa at Thompson First.

On the way there, he called Albert immediately.

As soon as the call was connected, Albert said respectfully, "Mr. Wade, what can I do for you?"

Charlie Wade replied, "I want to bring your men over to Thompson First now. My mother-in-law has lost more than sixty million dollars in a mahjong game. Some people are holding her hostage now. I think that something isn't right with this situation. I want you to come over with me to see what's going on there."

Albert was very furious when he heard Charlie Wade's words.

D*mn it! Someone actually had the guts to set up a trap to trick Charlie Wade's mother-in-law in Aurouss Hillll?

This person was simply seeking his own death!

Albert immediately replied, "Mr. Wade, I will bring my men over there to hack that b*starved to death right now!"

Very soon, Charlie Wade arrived at the villa at Thompson First where his mother-in-law was being held hostage.

Charlie Wade knocked on the front door and as soon as he entered the villa, he saw about a dozen gangsters surrounding his disheveled mother-in-law in the living room. His mother-in-law's face was red and swollen because she had been severely beaten up and she looked very pitiful and miserable at this time.

Charlie Wade also noticed that there were two other middle-aged women that he did not know there in the villa. When Charlie Wade looked around the villa, he saw that even Hannah was here.

Charlie Wade was slightly taken aback. Why was this woman here?

Hannah had a guilty conscience when she saw Charlie Wade but she calmed herself down immediately.

She felt that it was not her fault that Elaine Ma lost money to Linda. After all, Elaine Ma did not lose money to her anyway. She was just here to enjoy the show, so what could Charlie Wade possibly do to her?

As soon as Elaine Ma saw Charlie Wade walking into the living room, she burst into tears as she wailed, "Charlie Wade, my dear son-in-law. What took you so long? I was waiting so anxiously for you!"

Charlie Wade looked at his mother-in-law before he asked, "Mom, how can you lose more than sixty million dollars by playing mahjong?"

"I don't know why I was so unlucky!"

Elaine Ma cried as she explained, "Your aunt had asked me to come and play mahjong with her friends. I thought that I would just join them for a few games just for fun. Who would have known that I would lose more and more money to them after a few games? After that, they even forced me to mortgage your villa at Thompson First to them. I had no other choice..."

At this time, Elaine Ma had a furious expression on her face as she said, "I suspect that these people are deliberately ganging up to cheat me of my money!"

Charlie Wade sneered before he said, "You don't have to suspect anything. They're obviously out to cheat you."

Linda could not help but yell out loud at this time, "Hey! Don't run your mouth talking nonsense here! Everyone was a willing and voluntary participant in this mahjong game. Who can you blame if your mother-in-law has bad luck?"

At this time, Hudson quickly said, "Second Aunt, why are you wasting your breath on him? I'll talk to him!"

After that, Hudson glared at Charlie Wade before he said, "Hurry up and hand your house deed over to me! I also want you to write me a voluntary transfer statement! Otherwise, you and your mother-in-law will not be leaving this villa today!"

"Oh."

Charlie Wade nodded faintly before he said, "I did not bring my house deed with me."

Elaine Ma became anxious and she started to lose her cool when she heard his words!

The expression on her face changed and she was filled with anger. She quickly said, "Charlie Wade! Are you trying to kill me? Didn't I tell you to bring your house deed here with you to save me? Don't you have ears at all?"

Charlie Wade replied lightly, "Sorry, Mom. I've already promised Claire Wilson Wilson that I'll move into the villa with her next month when the renovation is completed. I can't break my promise to Claire Wilson Wilson."

Elaine Ma cursed, "So, you'd rather keep your promise to Claire Wilson Wilson than save my life? I will die here today if you refuse to hand the villa over to them!"

Charlie Wade replied, "You won't die so easily with me around."

Chapter 598

"Based on your ability?" Elaine Ma was very furious as she cursed at Charlie Wade. "Haven't you seen that there are more than a dozen men here? You shouldn't be dragging me down even if you are planning to die here today!"

At this time, Hudson glared at Charlie Wade before he smiled coldly and said, "Young man, I asked you to bring your house deed along with you and you actually dare to play around with me? Do you believe that I'm going to let you die here today?"

Charlie Wade replied indifferently, "I'll only give you one chance to survive. If you answer my question well, I will spare your life today. Listen carefully. Who was the one who instigated this trap for my mother-in-law today?"

Hudson laughed before he said, "You're really a very interesting person! You actually dare to threaten me when you've come to my territory all by yourself? You really are courageous! Are you tired of living?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly before he asked, "Where is your territory?"

Hudson stomped his feet on the ground before he said, "This villa is my territory!"

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled before he asked, "Then, do you want to know where my territory is?"

Hudson asked contemptuously, "Why? Are you trying to compare territories with me? Okay then, let's talk about it then. Tell me, where is your territory?"

Charlie Wade replied calmly, "The entire Aurouss Hilll is my territory."

"D*mn it!" Hudson cursed at Charlie Wade, "Are you f*cking around with me? The entire Aurouss Hilll is your territory? Do you really treat Don Albertt as though he's nothing at all? Let me tell you something! My big boss is Don Albertt's godson! No one in Aurouss Hilll can afford to provoke me!"

"Well, even Don Albertt will have to kneel down in front of me if he's here today. So, who are you to me anyway?"

Charlie Wade snorted before he pointed at Hudson as he said, "I'm giving you one last chance. Tell me honestly, who set up this trap today?"

"I...d*mn it..." Hudson was furious at this time. "How dare you be so disrespectful towards Don Albertt? I'll kill you today!"

As soon as his voice fell, Hudson suddenly felt a strong force gripping his right hand.

When he looked up, Hudson saw that Charlie Wade was already holding firmly onto his right wrist.

At this time, Charlie Wade grinned before he said, "Come on, I'll give you 'twelve rings'."

Hudson subconsciously replied, "What twelve rings?"

Charlie Wade suddenly grabbed his right thumb as he pushed it back slightly...

With a click, Hudson's thumb snapped backwards immediately.

Hudson's thumb was broken and he quickly yelled out in pain.

Charlie Wade laughed slightly as he said, "This is the first ring."

After that, Charlie Wade grabbed his right index finger before he broke it!

There was another click at this time.

Charlie Wade smiled before he said, "This is the second ring."

Hudson was in so much pain and he felt that he was going to collapse at this time. He broke out in cold sweat as he yelled hysterically at his subordinates, "D*mn it! I want you to hack him to death now!"

As soon as his voice fell, Charlie Wade broke the middle finger of his right hand..

"Crack!"

Charlie Wade smiled as he said, "Well, that is the third ring!"

"Ahh! D*mn it! I'm in so much pain that I am dying. What are you doing...hack him to death now!"

More than a dozen men had already pulled out their machetes as they rushed towards Charlie Wade at this time.

Charlie Wade remained unmoved.

There were only about a dozen punks here and they meant nothing to him at all.

Therefore, Charlie Wade continued breaking Hudson's ring finger.

Crack!

Hudson's fourth finger broke immediately.

At this time, more than a dozen machetes were already swinging at Charlie Wade!

Chapter 599

After Hudson got four of his fingers broken continuously, he was in so much pain that he felt he was about to pass out.

However, he was overjoyed when he saw that his men had already swung their machetes at Charlie Wade!

He dared to break his fingers? He would ask his brothers to chop off all of Charlie Wade's fingers then!

Charlie Wade did not care about these punks at all.

As they were about to slash Charlie Wade, an angry voice sounded from the door. "D*mn it! Stop whatever you are doing now! If anyone dares to lay a finger on Mr. Wade, I will hack you to death on the spot!"

The dozen punks looked up and they were so frightened that they almost peed in their pants!

Don Albertt!

It turned out to be Don Albertt, the mobster boss of Aurouss Hill!

Why was he here?

At this time, Albert brought some of his most powerful subordinates here with him today. Moreover, these subordinates of his were all armed with guns and they were no ordinary gangsters.

After the men armed with guns stepped into the villa, they pointed their guns at the gang of people who were armed with machetes. The group of men quickly dropped their machetes on the ground immediately.

One of the younger men was terrified and he quickly knelt on the ground with a thud as he cried out loud and said, "Don Albertt, please spare my life!"

After he knelt down, everyone else also knelt down immediately.

They were nothing more than a bunch of lowly gangsters. Therefore, it was only natural for them to be frightened to death in front of Don Albertt.

Hudson was also shocked at this time.

What was happening?

Why was Don Albertt here?

At this time, Albert hurriedly walked towards Charlie Wade and said, "Mr. Wade, I'm sorry for being late!"

Charlie Wade waved his hand before he said, "Ask your men to lock these guys up in the room first."

Albert nodded before he immediately instructed his men to lock all of those gangsters up in the next room.

After that, Charlie Wade looked at Hudson who had already turned pale before he said, "So, I've already said that I'll give you twelve rings today, but I've only given you four rings. So, let's continue!"

After that, Charlie Wade proceeded to break Hudson's right pinky..

Crack..

Hudson could not help but yell out in pain.

At this time, Albert who was standing aside quickly said, "Mr. Wade, you don't have to waste your precious time on someone as meaningless as this. You can just leave him to me. I'll bring him to my dog farm and let all of my Tibetan Mastiffs tear him apart!"

Hudson was very shocked and he blurted out immediately, "Don Albertt! Don Albertt! This is all a misunderstanding! Brother Wayne is my big boss! I am one of his men!"

"Wayne?" Albert frowned immediately. "You're one of Wayne's men?"

Hudson nodded repeatedly as he cried and said, "Brother Wayne is my big boss. So, that also means that I'm one of your followers, Don Albertt!"

Albert stared at the young man before he asked, "Then, do you know whose disciple I am?"

Hudson quickly replied, "Don Albertt, you are the mobster boss of Aurouss Hilll. Of course, you're no one's disciple..."

Albert gave him a tight slap across his face before he pointed at Charlie Wade and said, "I am Mr. Wade's disciple!"

"What?"

He was Charlie Wade's disciple. He did not even call himself his younger brother!

For instance, there is the head of a sect. After that, there are dozens of masters under the head, hundreds of leaders under the masters, tens of thousands of younger brothers below the leaders, and lastly there were disciples of these younger brothers!

The famous and reputable Don Albertt actually said that he was this young man's disciple. This meant that he was being extremely humble and respectful in front of this young man!

Hudson was trembling in fright when he heard Don Albertt's words.

What was going on here?

His second aunt had asked him to scheme against an old lady so that he could force the old lady's son-in-law to hand his villa over to them. He really did not expect the other party to be Don Albertt's boss!

Linda was also so frightened that she felt her legs going weak immediately. She stared at Hannah with a pale look on her face as she asked in a low voice, "Who is this that you've just offended? Are you trying to get me killed?"

Hannah was also very confused at this time.

She knew that Charlie Wade was always fooling and cheating people with Feng Shui but she really did not expect him to be so powerful!

Elaine Ma was also dumbfounded at this time. Her dear son-in-law was really too amazing! He was not only close to many wealthy and powerful people, but he was also so capable on his own? Charlie Wade was indeed very amazing..

Chapter 600

Hudson was trembling in fright at this time and he quickly said to Charlie Wade, "Mr. Wade, I was wrong! I was fooled by my second aunt. She had asked me to do this. She was the one who set up the trap for your mother-in-law. I was completely deceived and used by her..."

At this time, Charlie Wade gave Hudson a tight slap across his face before he said coldly, "If you dare to say another word before the twelve rings is over, I will ask Albert to chop you up into a hundred pieces!"

Hudson was frightened by Charlie Wade's fierce gaze and he shut his mouth immediately.

Charlie Wade looked at the five broken fingers on his right hand before he said, "Your right hand is almost done. Come on, are you ready?"

After he was done speaking, Charlie Wade grabbed his wrist before he flipped it with a fierce force!

Click!

Hudson's right wrist was completely broken.

Hudson's legs softened and he fell to the ground with a thump!

He wanted to beg for mercy but he did not dare to say a word when he thought about what Charlie Wade had just said to him.

However, this piercing pain made him feel as though he was on the verge of collapsing.

At this time, Charlie Wade said, "Twelve rings. That was just six rings. There are still another six rings that I want to give you."

After he was done speaking, Charlie Wade bent over before he grabbed Hudson's left hand.

Hudson looked at Charlie Wade with tears in his eyes but he did not dare to say anything at all. He simply looked at Charlie Wade with a pitiful expression in his eyes as he shook his head to beg Charlie Wade for mercy.

Charlie Wade gave him a cruel smile.

After that, he grabbed Hudson's left thumb before he said, "The seventh ring!"

Hudson trembled in pain!

Charlie Wade did not give him a chance to react and he continued, "Come, the eighth ring!"

Hudson felt that he was about to faint because he was in so much pain.

However, the ninth ring awakened him immediately.

The expression on Charlie Wade's face was extremely terrifying and cruel.

Charlie Wade patted Hudson's face gently before he smiled and said, "There are four more rings. Make sure you don't miss it!"

Immediately afterwards, he heard another click!

This kind of disciplinary action was equivalent to cutting meat with a dull knife. Even Albert was shocked at this scene.

"There are three more rings!"

Linda was paralyzed with fear at this time.

She could only imagine that it would be her turn to suffer after her nephew was done enduring Charlie Wade's twelve rings.

Hannah wanted to escape as soon as she could but she was quickly dragged by into the living room by one of Albert's men who pointed a pistol at her head as he kicked her to the ground.

Hannah was almost frightened to death when the black muzzle was pointed directly at her forehead.

At this time, Hudson had already endured eleven rings.

The ten fingers on both his hands were already like beans hanging from a vine—they were completely limp. He could not move any of his fingers at all.

Now, he was only able to move his left wrist.

Charlie Wade said to him, "Come, this is the last ring!"

Hudson was in so much pain that he could not even kneel down anymore. He could only let Charlie Wade grab his left wrist before he broke it directly.

Twelve rings!

Hudson could only howl in pain.

He knew that he was already a useless person in future. His wrists and all of his ten fingers were limp and useless. So, what else could he do in the future?

Continue to be a gangster?

Could he even hold a knife in future?

He would be hacked to death by his enemies in the blink of an eye!

Charlie Wade squatted down in front of Hudson as he said coldly, "You still have two legs and feet. If you do not answer my question well, I will make sure to give you another twelve rings!"

Hudson turned pale immediately and he quickly replied, "I'll answer all of your questions seriously no matter what you ask me!"

Charlie Wade nodded before he glanced at Hannah and Linda who were trembling in fear. After that, he asked in a cold voice, "Tell me clearly about everything that happened today. If you miss out any single detail, I'll make sure that both your legs are useless by the end of the night!"

Chapter 601

Hudson started panicking as soon as he heard Charlie Wade's words. After that, he hurriedly pointed his finger at Linda and said, "Mr. Wade, that's my second aunt. She called me last night and told me that she was going to set up a trap for a woman so that she could cheat her out of her money. She asked me to come over here to scare the old woman when the time came. That was why I agreed to her request..."

After that, Hudson hurriedly spoke again, "Mr. Wade, I was really used and taken advantage of!"

Linda was frightened when Charlie Wade turned around to glance at her.

Charlie Wade pointed his finger at Linda before he beckoned for her to come over to him. "You, come over here."

Linda did not dare to disobey Charlie Wade's words and she hurriedly came before him as she said with a trembling voice, "Mr. Wade, this is all a misunderstanding! If I had known that Elaine Ma was your mother-in-law, I wouldn't have dared to cheat her even if I had immense courage!"

After that, Linda pointed her finger at Hannah before she blurted out, "This stinky woman, Hannah, was the one who tricked me into doing this! She told me that her younger brother-in-law and sister-in-law are very rich and terrible people. Therefore, she told me that she wanted to teach her sister-in-law a lesson and she asked me to help her set up this trap.

She told me that she wanted to cheat your mother-in-law of her villa at Thompson First..."

Hannah was also frightened and she hurriedly said, "Charlie Wade, this is all just a misunderstanding. I really didn't lie to your mother-in-law. I was also deceived by Linda. Linda has always pretended to be very lousy at mahjong in front of me. I wanted to bring your mother-in-law over here so that she could make a fortune. I really did not expect her to lose so much money to Linda..."

Elaine Ma was very angry when she heard Hannah's words and she yelled angrily, "Hannah Queen! You b*tch! You were trying to cheat me out of my money and Charlie Wade's villa?"

Hannah quickly took a step back as she waved her hands and said, "No, no, don't talk nonsense. I wouldn't dare to do that!"

Linda cursed as she glared coldly at Hannah. "Are you still trying to deny it? Okay then, I will show Mr. Wade our chat history!"

After that, Linda quickly took out her cell phone before she opened her text message and played a voice note for Charlie Wade.

Hannah's voice sounded immediately. "Sister Linda! I heard that you are already back in Aurouss Hilll?"

Linda's voice followed. "Yes, I came back two days ago."

Hannah then replied, "Sister Linda, I heard that you worked as a croupier in Macau for many years. You must have good skills at the gambling table, right?"

Linda: "I wouldn't dare say that. I can barely rank amongst the top five in Macau but I dare say that there isn't anyone that I can't beat in Aurouss Hillll."

Hannah: "Wow! That is really amazing, Sister Linda. I wonder if you'd be interested if I tell you that I have a way for you to make a fortune?"

Linda: "Why don't you tell me about it first?"

Hannah: "I have a younger sister-in-law who is quite rich. She has a villa at Thompson First and the villa is top-rated and is worth more than one hundred million dollars. This stupid b*tch is addicted to gambling and I was thinking of setting up a trap for her so that I can cheat her out of her money. Should I call her to come over and we'll set up a trap to get money out of her?"

Linda: "She owns a villa worth more than one hundred million dollars? Is that really true?"

Hannah: "It's true!"

Linda: "Okay then, but I want sixty percent of the profits after we're done with the scam!"

Hannah: "No problem! You can get sixty percent and I will get forty percent!"

Hannah was already trembling in fear as soon as the voice note was played. She hurriedly said, "Charlie Wade, I didn't mean to do that. I am still your aunt no matter what happens. We're a family..."

Charlie Wade looked at Hannah before he said, "I'll deal with you later."

After that, he asked one of Albert's men to drag her to the side.

Then, Charlie Wade looked at Linda before he smiled and asked, "I heard that you're very good at cheating when you are gambling?"

Linda hurriedly explained, "Mr. Wade, in fact, I only know a few tricks to cheat..."

Charlie Wade nodded as he asked, "So, could you tell me how you cheated in the mahjong game today?"

Linda hurriedly explained, "Well, I can actually customize the settings on the automatic mahjong machine. I can set all the presets for the tiles in advance on my computer. After that, I can just activate it on my cell phone at any time. When the automatic mahjong machine shuffles the tiles, it will simply follow my request and shuffle the tiles according to my settings."

Linda continued explaining, "When the time comes, I can simply use the software to control the number of tiles and I can specify the tiles that would go to each player. I purposely gave your mother-in-law all but one tile that would make up the Heavenly Hand and it is actually a dead end. She would never be able to win the game because I had already given another player the tile that she would need in order to win. Moreover, both Hannah and Gianna are working together with me. So, it was basically impossible for your mother-in-law to win..."

After listening to Linda's explanation, Charlie Wade nodded slightly before he asked, "So, how many people have you harmed and cheated using this method?"

Linda hurriedly replied, "Not many, not many...I don't usually do such a thing."

Charlie Wade frowned before he asked, "So, how many gamblers did you help the casino to cheat when you were working as a croupier in Macau? Among these gamblers you've cheated, how many of them have gone bankrupt and sold their own sons or daughters, or even taken their own lives because of you?"

Chapter 602

"This...this..." Linda was sweating profusely at this time.

Over the years, she had already done plenty of such evil acts. She did not know how many lives she had ruined.

Gambling was in itself an abyss that could swallow everything up. Some people fell into this abyss on their own, while others fell into it with their entire families.

However, Linda had never cared about the life or death of these victims at all. She felt that this was her means to earn a living. How could she possibly win if other people did not lose?

Therefore, she has never felt guilty because of these people.

Charlie Wade could see right through the hearts of these people.

People like this were the cruelest and most ruthless vampires in this world.

She lived by sucking other people's blood and she did not care whether other people would die because she was sucking all of their blood.

Charlie Wade naturally had no sympathy for such people.

He looked at Linda with a playful expression on her face as he smiled and said, "Well, let's do this then. Why don't you play a few games with me?"

Linda was stunned and she asked in surprise, "Mr. Wade, what would you like to play?"

Charlie Wade replied, "I don't know how to gamble. I don't know how to play poker, mahjong, or anything else. I only know how to play rock paper scissors."

Linda asked with a puzzled expression on her face, "You want to play rock paper scissors with me?"

Charlie Wade nodded before he said, "Yes, I'm going to play rock paper scissors with you. We'll bet ten million dollars for each game. What do you think about that?"

"This...this..." Linda was very nervous at this time. "Mr. Wade, I do not dare to play with you..."

Charlie Wade replied, "You'll have to play no matter if you want to or otherwise!"

Linda nodded before she replied in an anxious manner, "Okay then. I'll do as you say, Mr. Wade..."

After that, Linda asked again, "Mr. Wade, are we going to play now?"

Charlie Wade smiled before he said, "Don't worry, we aren't in a rush. I'll have to make some preparations to cheat before we start playing."

"Preparations to cheat?" Linda was very surprised.

Charlie Wade smiled before he asked, "You don't know what I am talking about? Just like how you made all the plans and preparations before you cheat my mother-in-law out of her money, I'm going to do the same to win all of your money today."

"Ah?" Linda felt even more puzzled at this time.

What could Charlie Wade possibly do to cheat in rock paper scissors?

She had been cheating people for a lifetime but she really did not understand how anyone could possibly cheat in rock paper scissors!

Was he going to deliberately be a few seconds behind his opponent? Was he going to wait to see what other people were going to do before he showed his hand?

But that was simply too low and underhanded, right?

Before Linda could even figure out what Charlie Wade was going to do, Charlie Wade suddenly grabbed her right hand and straightened all five of her fingers before breaking them all at once. Crack!

All five of her fingers broke at once!

Linda cried out in pain but Charlie Wade simply raised her left hand before he broke all five fingers on her left hand as well.

Linda could no longer control any of her ten fingers and all ten of her fingers were limp as they hung onto her skin in an unnatural manner.

At this time, Charlie Wade simply said, "Well, if your hand is in that position, I'm going to assume that you are showing paper by default. If you're going to form a rock, you'll have to curl all five of your fingers to make a fist. If you're going to form a scissors, you have to make a V with your fingers. Do you understand me?"

Linda cried out loud as she said, "Mr. Wade, all ten of my fingers are broken! How can I possibly form a rock or scissors now?"

Charlie Wade replied disdainfully, "That is none of my business. It has nothing to do with me at all. After all, when you cheat people of their money, you had also made sure that they had no chance of winning at all. I'm simply giving you a taste of your own medicine today! This is what they call to deal with a man according to how they deal with you."

Chapter 603

Linda was completely devastated.

Never did she expect that Charlie Wade, with his harmless and innocent appearance, would be so ruthless and cruel!

He broke her ten fingers and asked her to play rock-paper-scissors with him. She could only form the shape of paper with her broken fingers, which could only mean that she would keep on losing in the game!

Charlie Wade glanced at her blankly and said, "Alright, let's begin."

He shook his hand while muttering, "Rock, paper, scissors!"

As soon as his voice fell, he immediately formed a scissors hand.

Linda couldn't control her fingers at all. She glared at Charlie Wade with her sorrowful eyes.

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "Okay, scissors beats paper, I win. You owe me ten million."

"Come on, let's play the second round."

"Rock, paper, scissors!"

"Oh, I won again! You owe me twenty million."

"Come on, third round!"

"Rock, paper, scissors!"

"Hey, silly you, why do you keep showing paper? Huh, you're so funny. You owe me thirty million now."

Charlie Wade amused himself with the game. Soon, he won ten rounds, accumulating one hundred million.

"Come on, settle the bill now."

Linda's face twisted into a horrifying grimace. "Master Wade, I don't have that much money..."

Charlie Wade waved his hands indifferently and said, "I don't care. Call your family, your children, your children-in-law, and your husband for help. Tell them to bring all the money in your accounts, as well as the properties that can be mortgaged to settle the bill. If it is short by even a penny, I'll send you and all of your family members who are over the age of eighteen to work at the black coal mine to repay your debts with a monthly salary of two thousand dollars per person. You'll be free when you pay off the hundred million."

Then, he turned to Albert and asked, "Do you know of anyone who owns coal mines?"

"Yes," Albert blurted, "I have some pals who evicted arrest here and ran to Erith. They own several coal mines in Erith, you can send them there!"

"Very good." Charlie Wade nodded and turned to Linda. "Okay, tell me honestly, how many family members do you have?"

Linda knelt on the floor, wailing and begging, "Please, Master Wade! My children are top students who graduated from prestigious universities. They work as professionals in their respective fields, please don't ruin their lives!"

"Oh, your children graduated from famous universities, huh? What about those families that you've ruined? Is there food on their tables for their children to eat? Can their children go to school? Are they still alive? Why didn't you consider them when you ruined their lives?"

Linda was trembling in utter fear, her face as pale as snow.

Indeed, she harmed many people, a lot of families were ruined under her hands, but she never cared.

All she wanted was to make money and the rest was just collateral damage that she couldn't be bothered with.

Now, she had to reap what she sowed.

Charlie Wade wanted to send her children, whom she provided with the best lives, to the coal mine as miners!

Destroying her deceitful efforts was the best punishment for her!

Chapter 604

Linda was frightened by Charlie Wade's remark. She wailed and said, "Master Wade, please forgive me, I'm sorry! I can give you all my money! I earned quite a lot when I was in Macau and I have a total of twenty million in my hands. I can give you all that money, please spare my children!"

She took out her phone, opened the mobile banking app, and showed Charlie Wade the balance of her account.

Indeed, there were more than twenty-one million in her personal account.

Charlie Wade said flatly, "Donate the money to the official donation account of Hope Foundation!"

He retrieved his phone, searched for the official account, showed it to Linda, and said coldly, "Transfer it now."

"Master Wade, will you let me go after I donate the money?"

"Oh? Do you want a bargain now?"

Linda was taken aback. She grabbed his phone, keyed in the account number that Charlie Wade showed her, and donated all the money to the charity.

She passed the phone back to Charlie Wade and cried, "Master Wade, I've donated all the money and my account balance is zero. Can you let me go now, please?"

After verifying the donation, he said coldly, "Don't forget that you owe me a hundred million from the rock paper scissors game just now. Deducting the twenty-one million that you donated, you still owe me seventy-nine million."

"Master Wade, the twenty-one million is all I have..."

Charlie Wade nodded indifferently. "I told you, didn't I? I'll send you and your family to the coal mine to work. You pay the seventy-nine million dollars debt with your two thousand dollar monthly salary and I'll let you go after you clear the debt."

"Master Wade, at two thousand a month, we'll only earn twenty-four thousand a year. We won't be able to clear the debt until we die!"

"What about the families who you'd ruined? How did they pay off their debts? Have you ever thought about that? Karma is a b*tch, b*tch."

Charlie Wade turned to Hudson and asked, "Tell me honestly, how many immediate members are there in your aunt's family?"

Hudson sucked a nervous breath and uttered, "She has a husband, a son, and a daughter. Her son got married the year before and his wife's family runs an underground casino in Aurouss Hilll. Her daughter got married last month and her husband offers microloans to the young college students. Several students have committed suicide because they couldn't pay off the loans."

"Wow, I'm impressed. A con woman gave birth to two children and one married the daughter of the owner of an illegal casino while the other one married a microloan lender. Well, as they say, birds of a feather flock together."

He sent a message to Isaac.

"There is a con woman in Aurouss Hilll named Linda Howard who has just returned from Macau. Find out where her family is right now, and bring her husband, son, daughter, and her children-in-law to Thompson First C11 villa."

Although Albert was the king of the underworld in Aurouss Hilll, he belonged to the underworld and there were some limitations to the things that he could execute, such as to handle the consequences after he kidnapped those people and brought them to the villa.

But Isaac was different.

He was the spokesperson of the Wade family in Aurouss Hilll. In the city, even the honorable Lord Mooore of the Moore family had to tread carefully around him.

So, there was basically nothing that Isaac couldn't do in Aurouss Hilll.

After receiving Charlie Wade's order, Isaac started his work and sent his men to investigate and search for Linda's family.

Linda wailed and cried, her face, neck, and body drenched by her tears and snot. She knelt before Charlie Wade and knocked her head on the floor to plea for a bargain and beg for forgiveness until her forehead was bleeding, but Charlie Wade showed no sympathy for her.

After what she did to the families from her conning scheme, it was time for her to have a taste of her own medicine!

However, he could only let her taste one dose of her medicine, which was incomparable to the pain she had caused others!

Chapter 605

While Linda cried bitterly, Charlie Wade ordered Albert's men to bring Hannah to him.

Hannah was shaking with fright. She looked at Charlie Wade and pleaded, "Charlie Wade, I'm your aunt. You're part of our family. For...for the sake of the Wilson family, could you forgive me, please?"

Charlie Wade chuckled as if he heard a funny joke. "Stop with your nonsense. Tell me, how much money do you have now?"

Hannah's heart skipped a beat. She blurted out frantically, "I don't have any money... Really, I don't have any money!"

"I'll give you a chance to come clean. I advise you to take it or you'll end up like Linda."

Hannah trembled in fear. She was being cautious in the midst of terror and said, "I... I have five million, that's all our family has..."

Charlie Wade nodded knowingly. "Okay, open your mobile banking app now and show me the balance.

"I... I don't have the app!"

"Is that so?" Charlie Wade said in a cold tone, "If I find out that a mobile banking app is installed on your phone, I'll break your leg."

"O... okay, I'll show you, I'll show you..."

She took out her phone frantically and opened the mobile banking app.

She panicked when she saw the balance.

She had fifteen million in her account.

This was her and her husband's savings, and the money that Wendy received from Kenneth for being his lover!

The money had not been in her account earlier but was in Christopher's.

Christopher had quickly transferred the money to her account because Lady Wilson kept bugging them about the money.

She had wanted to use the money to buy a house.

However, during her previous house viewing, she bumped into Elaine Ma and it ended badly.

Because of the unhappy incident, she dismissed the idea of buying a house. She had planned to con Elaine Ma's money and the Thompson First villa before searching for a better house to buy.

If Charlie Wade knew that she had fifteen million, he would definitely not leave her a penny...

Just when she was contemplating on what to do, Charlie Wade snatched the phone off her hand, looked at the phone, and frowned. "Didn't you say that you only have five million?"

Hannah cried desperately, "Charlie Wade, this is all we have! Please, the Wilson family is done and Mom's house will be taken away by the bank. We need this money to buy a house..."

Then, she said pitifully, "Harold isn't married yet and neither is Wendy. This is the only money that we have..."

Charlie Wade snorted, "It's none of my business. Don't say that I've not given you a way out. I'll forgive you if you donate this money now but if you don't, I'll let Albert throw you into the ocean! Choose now!"

Hannah grimaced in terror as she glanced at the fearsome Albert and said in a shaky voice, "Okay! I'll donate the money! Please spare my life! I'll donate all the money now!"

She took her phone back and transferred all the money in her account to Hope Foundation.

Charlie Wade nodded satisfyingly and said, "Alright, since you're so sensible, I'll spare your life."

Hannah sighed in relief and said, "So, Charlie Wade, could you let me go now?"

"Let you go?" Charlie Wade arched his eyebrow and then shook his head. "I said I'll spare your life, but I never said you could go!"

Chapter 606

"Huh?!" Hannah shrieked in a panic, "But I just donated fifteen million as you said..."

"So what?" Charlie Wade said coldly. "You're the mastermind behind today's scam, do you think it's fair for me to punish Linda alone?"

"Yeah!" Linda growled indignantly, "She's the real culprit!"

Charlie Wade looked at Hannah and smirked, "See, even your accomplice says that you're the culprit. You have to go to the coal mine with your pal here and contribute to the Hope Foundation."

Then, he pointed to the woman named Gianna and commanded, "And you too, the three of you, get ready to work at the coal mine and redeem yourself."

Gianna cried out loud. She shook her head and hands, knocked her head on the floor to beg, and wailed, "No, please don't! I'm innocent! Linda dragged me here to join them for mahjong, that's all! I don't know about their plan, I don't know anything!"

Charlie Wade said coldly, "Do you think I'd believe you? Shut up when I ask nicely and I'll spare your family. If I hear a single yelp from you, you'll end up like Linda and your whole family will go to the coal mine with you!"

Gianna shut her mouth tightly and shivered in great fear. Indeed, she didn't mumble a word although she was terrified.

Then, Charlie Wade said to Albert, "Albert, make a headcount of all of these bullies here, including Hudson, and send all of them to work in the coal mine. They will be given the worst accommodation and food, a monthly salary of two thousand dollars, and they'll work all year round!"

He added in a louder and stern voice, "If these people work hard and voluntarily work overtime, give them a reasonable salary increment. On the contrary, if they are lazy and procrastinate, deduct their salary accordingly. No matter what, as long as they manage to accumulate three hundred grand to donate to the Hope Foundation, let them go."

Two thousand a month, twenty-four thousand a year, it would take more than a decade to accumulate three hundred thousand dollars.

Even if their salary was increased to three thousand a month, thirty-six thousand a year, they still needed at least nine years to reach the three hundred thousand mark.

Charlie Wade felt that since these people were part of the gambling racket, they had to atone for those families who were ruined by gambling and bankrupt. They also had to atone for the children who had gone through all kinds of hardships because of their parents' gambling habits.

Sending them to work at the coal mine and make a donation with their salary was the best punishment for them.

Albert nodded and said, "Okay, Master Wade, I'll prepare a bus right away and send them there!"

Charlie Wade commanded, "Before you let those gangsters on the bus, break their legs so as to prevent them from trying to escape from the mine."

"Alright, Master Wade. Don't worry, I'll break their leg here, then have them cuffed with iron chains all day long when they arrive at the coal mine so that they can't run away!"

"Good." Charlie Wade nodded in satisfaction.

Hannah cried desperately and pleaded, "Charlie Wade, you can't lock me at the coal mine forever... I still have my husband and children to take care of and my mother-in-law to support..."

Charlie Wade said flatly, "Simple, the same rule applies to you too, I'll let you go when you save enough to make the three hundred thousand dollar donation."

Hannah wailed loudly, "No, Charlie Wade, you can't do this to me! We are family!"

"Family? Why didn't you think of this when you cheated my mother-in-law? Why didn't you think that we are family then?"

"Yeah!"

Elaine Ma, who had been silent throughout, shouted angrily, "Hannah Queen, you cruel b*tch, you wanted to con me and now you talk about family?"

Hannah knelt in front of her, crying and begging, "Elaine Ma, I'm so sorry, I know I did you wrong, but I'm still your sister-in-law after all. Please forgive me!"

Elaine Ma kicked her aside and growled, "You conned me. You let me lose two million dollars, then you aimed your target at my house, then my villa. You were trying to drive us to a dead-end! You are a cruel and greedy b*tch!"

Then, something crossed Elaine Ma's mind suddenly. She slapped her thigh and screamed, "D*mn, my money!"

Chapter 607

Elaine Ma completely forgot about her money when she was immersed by the scene of the people wailing and crying.

When the thought struck her mind, she turned to Charlie Wade and yelled, "Hurry, ask them to return the money to me! They won more than two million dollars from me!"

Charlie Wade asked them to donate their money to Hope Foundation for two reasons, one was to punish them and the other was to teach his mother-in-law a lesson.

You were always so greedy and dissatisfied with your current situation, weren't you?

You were addicted to gambling, weren't you?

You thought that you could make a fortune and be rich by playing mahjong, didn't you?

Well, I let you lose all your money so that this experience would stick in your mind!

Charlie Wade looked at the women on the floor and asked, already knowing what their answer would be, "Hey, about the money you won from my mother-in-law—quickly discuss how you're going to repay her!"

They exchanged befuddled glances and cried, "We've donated all our money to the foundation, including her money..."

Charlie Wade turned to Elaine Ma and shrugged indifferently, "Sorry, Mom, they don't have the money."

"What?!" Elaine Ma gaped in horror and then screamed in great dismay. She barged forward, grabbed Hannah's hair with one hand and Linda's hair with the other, and shook their heads violently. She even bumped their heads together like two bowling balls.

She screamed and cursed hysterically, "Argh, b*tches! Give me back my money! Give it back to me!!!"

A lot of their hair was torn off their scalps from the shaking and tugging. Their painful wails echoed through the house. Hannah cried out aggrievedly, "Elaine Ma, please let go, Elaine Ma, please! Your money has gone mostly to Linda, I only won a little from you and I donated it all..."

Elaine Ma let go of Hannah and grabbed Linda's hair with both hands. Then, she released one hand to slap and scratch her face until it was covered in blood and was swelling badly.

"Linda Howard, you'd better return the money to me today or I'll scratch your skin off your face! Argh, d*mn you! I'll ruin your face!"

Linda didn't dare to fight back although she was in great pain. She could only cry and beg, saying, "Elaine Ma, I'm sorry. Elaine Ma, please let me go. I really don't have the money now, I donated all of them to the charity at your son-in-law's order, that includes the money that I won from you. I really don't have any money to give you..."

Elaine Ma was out of her mind. She scratched Linda's mouth and shouted, "I don't care! Give me back my money! Give me back my money!"

Soon, the corner of Linda's mouth was torn and bleeding. Her face grimaced in pain and she wailed in horror.

Elaine Ma had gone completely crazy now. All she wanted was to get her money back which was all the money their family had. These people conned her of all her money.

Now she had only taken back her house and nothing else..

She knocked Linda to the floor, crouched over her, and slapped her non-stop.

Linda was in utter pain. She screamed and struggled violently. Suddenly, there was a sudden cracking sound from the pocket of Linda's jacket. Elaine Ma and Linda froze.

After a while, Elaine Ma roared, "Bangle! My bangle! My jade bangle!"

She screamed like a lunatic as she reached out to Linda's pocket. Abruptly, she yelped in pain and withdrew her hand. Her fingers had been cut and were bleeding.

Even so, she reached in Linda's pocket again and retrieved a small part of the broken jade bangle out of the pocket...

Elaine Ma sat on the floor and howled in despair as she looked at the broken bangle!

The jade bangle that was worth five million dollars!

And she had broken it!

The most valuable jadeite jewelry were bangles. A bangle with such a good quality could fetch up to four or five million on the market. However, once broken, they could only be made into rings or pendants that would only be worth around two hundred thousand...

Chapter 608

Elaine Ma was on the verge of collapsing.

She couldn't collect the two million dollars and she broke the five million dollar jade bangle. It was a terrible loss!

She turned her glare at Gianna and shouted hysterically, "You! You didn't donate your money! Give me back my money! Give me all my money back or I'll kill you! I'll f*cking kill you!"

Gianna knelt on the floor in fright, crying and pleading, "I don't have any money, I'm very poor. I only have around sixty thousand in my savings account. I'll transfer it all to you if you want it..."

Elaine Ma slapped her furiously and growled, "I don't believe you! Show me your balance! Hurry!"

"I really don't have any money, I have an income of two thousand something a month. I wouldn't have joined Linda to con people if I were rich..."

Then, she took out her phone, opened the mobile banking app, and showed Elaine Ma her balance. It really only had sixty-three thousand dollars in it.

Elaine Ma nearly fainted.

What could she do with sixty-three thousand dollars?!

She had lost a hundred times that amount!

Elaine Ma turned her fury gaze at Charlie Wade and yelled, "You! It's all your fault! Loser, why did you let them donate the money? Why didn't you let them pay me back?!"

Charlie Wade frowned in annoyance and said monotonously, "Mom, I just saved your life. Nothing is more important than that!"

"Argh!" Elaine Ma stomped furiously, "I don't need you to save my life! I want you to get my money back! Now that my money's all gone, what's the point of staying alive? Give me back my money! Give it back!"

Charlie Wade rolled his eyes at her, ignoring her.

He had deliberately made her lose the money so that it could teach her a lesson. Otherwise, she would get into more trouble in the future.

He didn't even care if she died, but it would make Claire Wilson Wilson sad and he didn't want that to happen.

While watching the chaotic scene unfold, Albert was agitated by Elaine Ma's irrationality and felt sorry for Charlie Wade.

What kind of a f*cking mother-in-law she was? How could she still so stubbornly cause a scene after he saved her life?!

Albert glared at her indignantly and chided, "Hey, I'm warning you, don't think that you can be disrespectful to Master Wade just because you are his mother-in-law! If you don't tone it down a bit, I'll send you to the coal mine with them!"

Elaine Ma was startled by his loud growl. She suppressed her anger and muttered sheepishly, "It's none of your business."

Then, she pointed at Charlie Wade and said, "Do you know that this guy is actually a big liar? You're being fooled by him. He's using you as his weapon and shield! Someday when you come to your senses, you'll be the first to kill him!"

Albert was enraged. He slapped her and yelled, "If you dare to instigate my relationship with Master Wade again, I'll kill you!"

Elaine Ma crouched in fear.

She knew how capable Albert was. She would definitely be dead if she got on his nerves, so she stepped back and kept her mouth shut.

Albert stood in front of Charlie Wade, bowed, and said in an anguished voice, "Master Wade, I feel so upset and angry on your behalf! I have something to say even if it may upset you!"

Then, he raised his voice a little and blurted, "As a man with such powerful ability and strength, why do you want to be the son-in-law of this shrew? Even if you and your wife are very much in love, there's no reason to let this kind of vixen be alive on the planet! Besides, she has disrespected you over and over again. You should just kill her!"

Chapter 609

Charlie Wade shook his head slightly and said, "Forget it, Albert. Sometimes, there are things that you must learn to accept, be it good or bad."

Albert glared at Elaine Ma indignantly while she crouched at the side, trembling in horror.

She didn't dare to mention a word about the money anymore and kept the grief and bitterness in her heart.

At this moment, several cars stopped abruptly in the villa's courtyard. Isaac got out of the car and personally escorted five adults who were tied up into the house.

Fear and terror were written all over the five people's faces. As soon as they saw Linda after entering the door, a young man blurted, "Mom, what's going on?!"

Linda looked at the crowd and wailed in despair when she saw her husband, children, and children-in-law being taken into the house.

"I'm sorry, I'm so sorry, it's all my fault... I'm so sorry for dragging all of you into this..."

A man in his fifties hurriedly asked, "Dear, what's going on?!"

Charlie Wade said coldly, "Are you aware that your wife is a con woman who ruins other people's lives?"

"I... I didn't know..." the man mumbled sheepishly.

Charlie Wade watched his expression and reaction closely. He smirked and said, "Are you trying to bluff me? Your wife has been active for so long, it would be so weird if you don't know who she really is!"

Then, he glanced at the five people slowly and asked, "Which of you are Linda's children?"

A young man and woman raised their hands timidly. They still couldn't comprehend the situation.

Charlie Wade sneered, "I heard that you've graduated from prestigious universities. Do you know where your tuition fees came from?"

They exchanged nervous glances, neither daring to speak.

Linda's husband roughly grasped the situation. He assumed that his wife had been caught when she cheated, so he quickly said, "Sir, did you catch my wife cheating? If so, let me know how much she owes you, I'll compensate you for the money lost. Is it okay?"

Linda wailed, "Dear, our money has been donated to the charity, all twenty million of it, including the two million I won today!"

"What? You donated it?!" Linda's husband asked in shock, "To whom did you donate it to?"

Charlie Wade answered in a cold tone, "To Hope Foundation!"

Then, he looked at the family of five like an eagle watching over its prey and reprimanded sternly, "You blood-sucking vampires, I wonder how many people you've scammed and how many families have you ruined over the years! But look at you having a comfortable and luxurious life. You can even send your children to good universities and they've become successful people. Do you think you can get away with this?"

Linda's entire family looked scared and horrified.

Charlie Wade continued, "Today, I will send all of you to the coal mine in Erith for labor work and use your blood and sweat as atonement for your sins!"

"What?!" the young folks shrieked abruptly.

A man yelled, "No! I'm not from their family, I'm just their son-in-law..."

Charlie Wade nodded. "So? Do you seriously think you can get away with this? I heard that you are a lender of microloans, right? Tell me, how many young people have you ruined?"

"I... I..."

"From now on, if I listen to another rambling from you, you don't have to go to the coal mine, I'll just dig a pit and bury you. You'll be coal after ten million years!"

Another good-looking young woman cried, "I'm just their daughter-in-law, I haven't done anything wrong!"

Charlie Wade asked, "I heard that your family owns an underground casino, am I right?"

Chapter 610

Blood drained from the woman's face. She blurted, her voice shaky, "I... I've never been involved in the operations, I just do the accounting..."

"Accounting?" Charlie Wade said flatly, "That makes you an accomplice too! You'd better go with them to redeem yourself. All of you are really a bunch of scum!"

Isaac said, "Master Wade, I know this woman. Her father is Lucas Frank and he runs an underground casino nearby. Do you want me to destroy them?"

"Investigate their operations and background and see what they've done. If their sins are unforgivable, just kill them."

The woman collapsed on the floor, frightened and befuddled.

Soon, three Toyota Coaster mini buses drove into Thompson First and parked in front of the villa. Albert's men broke Hudson's leg along with the rest of his gang's before sending them into the bus.

Charlie Wade said to Elaine Ma, "Mom, let's go."

There was a dash of embarrassment on Elaine Ma's face. She pulled Charlie Wade aside and whispered, "They filmed me, the shameful kind. Quick, help me find it out!"

"The shameful kind?" Charlie Wade frowned in confusion. "What do you mean?"

Elaine Ma stomped anxiously. "That kind of video! They forced me to take off my clothes and filmed me...You must find the video and delete it! If the video leaks out, I may as well just die here!"

Charlie Wade was dumbfounded for a second. He never expected that his mother-in-law had been through such an erotic ride.

Shaking his head dejectedly, he pulled Hudson towards him and asked coldly, "Did you film her?"

Hudson cried in horror, "Sir, I'm sorry, I wasn't thinking straight..."

"Stop all the bullsh*t. Where's the video?"

"On my phone!"

"Did you send it to anyone?"

"No, no, I swear!"

Charlie Wade nodded. He took the phone out of his pocket, handed it to Elaine Ma, and said, "Mom, look for the video yourself and delete it."

Elaine Ma quickly grabbed the phone, found the video in the album, and deleted it.

On second thought, she threw the phone on the floor and smashed it.

Then, she growled in dismay, "I'll go after all of them get on the bus!"

Charlie Wade shrugged indifferently. "Okay, I'll ask them to hurry up. It's getting dark, I need to go home to cook for Claire Wilson Wilson."

After watching all of them being loaded into the three buses, Elaine Ma huffed and threw the car key to Charlie Wade. "You drive."

Charlie Wade bid farewell to Isaac and Albert, then got into Jacob Wilson's BMW and drove away from Thompson First.

As soon as they left Thompson First, Elaine Ma cried out loud, "Oh my god, I'm so unlucky today! I lost two million dollars but I only got sixty thousand back! I broke the jade bangle..."

The more she thought about it, the more distressed and heartbroken she was. She glared at Charlie Wade who was behind the wheels with her teary eyes and chided, "It's all your fault, loser! What the hell is wrong with you? Why did you ask them to donate the money to Hope Foundation?! Why didn't you let them pay me back?!"

Charlie Wade said calmly, "Mom, if you had taken their money just now, what do you think would happen if the police find out they've disappeared? The police would track their past activities and find out that you took their money right before they disappeared. There would be nothing you can do to clear your name and by then, Dad and Claire Wilson Wilson would know about this too..."

Elaine Ma was shocked by his remark and blurted out, "Hey, don't tell Dad and Claire Wilson Wilson about this, do you hear me?!"

Chapter 611

Elaine Ma knew that if she was busted, she could be charged for gambling. Worse still, if her husband and daughter knew that she had gambled with such a large amount of money, they would be infuriated.

She would be condemned for what she had done.

Although the money was gone now, at least she did not end up worse than those people who were sent to the coal mine for the next one to two decades.

Yet, she couldn't help feeling depressed with the money and bangle lost.

She could still explain herself about the broken bangle. She had taken the broken pieces with her anyway, she could tell her family that the bangle broke.

What explanation should she come up with regarding the money?

Jacob Wilson did not have his own bank account. All the household money was in her own hands, including the money her husband earned from reselling the antiques.

Now, she had lost all the money to gambling. If Jacob Wilson were to find out about it, he would be extremely angry at her!

Elaine Ma was sighing in depression and agitation. She was regretful about what happened today.

On the way home, Albert called Charlie Wade and said, "Master Wade, I personally watched the team departing to the highway and they are on the way to Erith now. I should have gone there myself and handled the situation, but I have some business to tend to at Heaven Springs tonight. Some bigshot reserved the Diamond Suite for a dinner banquet, so I need to go and take a look..."

Then, he added, "But don't worry, I'll fly there tomorrow to check on things. The convoy will be there when I arrive in the afternoon."

Charlie Wade asked curiously, "Do you have noble guests tonight at your restaurant? Who is it?"

"The Webb family of the South Region, that is, Donald Webb and his son, Sean."

Charlie Wade frowned in confusion. It has been several days, why hadn't they left yet?

Did they intend to stay at Aurouss Hilll and dig him out?

After all, he was the reason why Kian Webb had to eat poop every hour.

The Webb family must have realized that there must be a hidden agenda behind this, and so, they have stayed back in search of the truth.

However, Charlie Wade was not worried at all. No matter how powerful the Webb family was, they were not on par with the Wade family.

Besides, even without mentioning the Wade family's name, the Webb family couldn't touch him with his current power and strength.

If they insisted on targeting him, he had no choice but to counterattack them.

Hence, Charlie Wade said into the phone, "Okay, noted. Get busy, then."

"Okay, Master Wade!"

They almost arrived home when he ended the call.

Elaine Ma said, "Pull the car over, I'll drive back by myself. You can walk home, I don't want your dad and Claire Wilson Wilson to see us coming back together!"

Charlie Wade nodded indifferently. He stopped the car by the road and got off. He could visit the market and buy some ingredients for dinner.

When he was at the market, he called Jacob Wilson to see if the party at Glorious Club was over.

Jacob Wilson told Charlie Wade that he had just returned home after the party and thanked Charlie Wade profusely for amending his honor tonight.

When Charlie Wade returned home from the market, Jacob Wilson was sitting in the living room, humming delightfully while holding a cup of tea.

He grinned from ear to ear when he saw Charlie Wade coming in. "Hey, my dear son-in-law, welcome home!"

Chapter 612

Charlie Wade smiled at him. After finding out that Claire Wilson Wilson and Elaine Ma were not in the living room, he asked, "Have Claire Wilson Wilson and Mom returned?"

"No and yes," Jacob Wilson gestured indifferently and said, "Your mom went into the room as soon as she came home, saying that she was not feeling well. I wonder what's wrong with her, she must have lost money playing mahjong and is heartbroken!"

Charlie Wade nodded and asked attentively, "Dad, don't you want to check on her? Just in case?"

"Argh, forget it." Jacob Wilson gestured, unconcerned. "She only knows playing mahjong and nothing else, I'm sick of it. Even if she loses, it's only about several thousand, just leave her be. She'll know how to slow down after crying for two days!"

Charlie Wade tried to stifle his laugh.

Several thousand?

Dad, you should multiply that by eight thousand!

Your wife has lost more than sixty million today!

Now that he thought about it, he couldn't help but sigh at Elaine Ma's stupidity. She had lost more than sixty million in a mahjong game with those aunties. What kind of idiot must she be to have made such a horrifying mistake?

Meanwhile, at the Wilson family villa, just like Jacob Wilson, Christopher was sitting comfortably on a recliner in the living room, sipping tea and humming gleeful songs while waiting for Hannah's triumphant return.

There was no doubt that Christopher and Jacob Wilson were brothers. The way they celebrated happy moments was almost the same.

Christopher was looking at his phone and giggled every time he read the message that Hannah had sent him an hour ago.

The message read, "Dear, Elaine Ma's two million dollars in savings, her house that she currently lives in, and the jade bangle worth five million are in our hands now! She has also mortgaged the Thompson First villa to us as collateral for her debts, Charlie Wade is sending us the housing contract now! We're going to be rich!"

Christopher made a brief calculation in his mind. Excluding the miscellaneous things, the villa alone could sell for at least a hundred and twenty million. When they divided the money by four, he would get nearly fifty million!

Fifty million, that was more than enough!

At that time, if he added in his cash, Elaine Ma's current house, and the jade bangle, they could get a few million more. By then, they would get more than fifty million!

In addition to the fifteen million dollars he had in his account, it would add up to nearly seventy million!

The money would be enough for him to enjoy his lavish life for a long time even if the Wilson family were to go bankrupt!

He even started planning on how he would spend the money.

First of all, he would give his mother eight million.

The old lady had been bugging him continuously because of the eight million. He could only comfort her by saying that the fund manager needed two days' time to withdraw the money from their fixed deposit account and assured her that he would transfer the money to the Wilson Group's account as soon as he received the money.

So, he decided he would give eight million to his mother and shut her up forever after Hannah cheated Elaine Ma of her money.

As for the remaining money, he would keep it a secret and must not let his mother know of its existence. He planned to buy a mansion and move in after the family goes bankrupt.

Christopher was extremely happy when his imagination ran wild in his head. He sighed in a grin, "Sigh, Elaine Ma, you b*tch, how dare you be so cocky with us after getting the villa, huh? Do you feel the pain now? Serve you right, b*tch! Think of the losses as compensation for our emotional damages!"

He didn't feel a bit of sadness or sorrow for making Elaine Ma bankrupt.

This b*tch deserved to be cheated and scammed!

In fact, he should think of a way to scam her money every time she had money in her pocket and turn her into their long-term income source!

Chapter 613

While Christopher indulged in his imagination, thinking about how to make Elaine Ma his long-term cash withdrawal machine, Lady Wilson walked in from the outside with a gloomy expression.

Christopher jumped from his seat and greeted, "Mom, you're home! How's everything?"

Lady Wilson huffed indignantly and said, "The bank will soon start the bankruptcy liquidation process, they said that it will start next Monday. Once the process starts, they will seize this house. Where is the eight million that you promised? Why haven't you transferred it to me yet?!"

Christopher chuckled pretentiously. "Mom, stop rushing me. Didn't I tell you that the money is stuck in the fixed deposit account? My fund manager is trying to withdraw it as soon as possible. I promised that I'll give you the money, just be patient."

If possible, he didn't want to give his mother even a penny. However, something changed his mind.

He depended on Lady Wilson to inherit the anonymous assets that Lady Wilson had hidden away, including the millions in life insurance after her death, several million jewelry in her personal possession, and his father's antiques worth more than twenty million.

He understood his mother very well. Those jewelry and antiques were her last straw, she would never use them to save the company. Moreover, no one knew where these things were kept except for her. She must have shifted these things to a safe place a long time ago so that when the bank and court order came to seize the company and property, they would never find these things.

If he had a fallout with his mother now, his mother might not leave the inheritance to him. So, no matter what, he had to give the eight million dollars up!

When Linda sold Charlie Wade's Thompson First villa, he could give Lady Wilson the eight million!

Lady Wilson couldn't read his mind, but hearing his excuses, she huffed in agitation, "Chris, I raised you. I know something's brewing in your mind just by looking at your expression. Don't you dare drag this matter and keep the money for yourself! If you don't give me the money, I'll move to Jacob Wilson's house tomorrow. When I die, I'll leave my life insurance, jewelry, and your father's antiques to Jacob Wilson! Don't say I didn't warn you!"

Christopher panicked. Just as he thought, his mother threatened him with the inheritance. He quickly walked to his mother and comforted, "Mom, what are you talking about? Since I've already promised you, I'll definitely give you the money. I'll give it as soon as today and tomorrow at the latest, okay?"

Lady Wilson crashed down on the sofa and said, "Okay, bring me the money now!"

Christopher spread his arms, frowning. "Mom, I really don't have the money now... Don't worry, I'll give it to you tomorrow!"

Before he could finish, Lady Wilson yelped in agony and cried, "Argh! Tomorrow, tomorrow! You ungrateful b*stard, how dare you to keep pushing the word tomorrow in my face! I've raised you for nothing!"

Christopher patted the old woman's hand and said gently, "Mom, relax, stop yelling. I really don't have the money, it is with Hannah! She has gone out today to settle the matter. When she comes back, I'll give it to you no later than tomorrow!"

Lady Wilson stopped crying and asked, "It's getting late, why hasn't she returned?"

"I'm not sure. She had gone out to the bank, she should be back soon..."

Then, he took out his phone and sent Hannah a message, "Dear, where are you now? Are you on the way home?"

Yet, he did not receive any reply.

He frowned in confusion and said, "Mom, I'll call Hannah now."

He called Hannah and turned on the speakerphone, and a system reminder resonated, "Sorry, the person you have called is unavailable."

"Huh, that's weird. See, Mom? You heard it, her phone must be out of battery, I can't get through to her..."

"Continue to call until you get through!" Lady Wilson chided angrily, "Let me warn you, don't you try to fool me. Give me the phone, I'll call her myself!"

Christopher sighed helplessly and handed the phone to his mother. "Here, you call her."

Chapter 614

After taking the phone, Lady Wilson tried to dial Hannah's number, but the same notification came through.

She said in confusion, "What's wrong? Why has she switched off her phone?"

"Mom, it's quite common for the phone to turn off automatically when the battery is dead. Besides, she's outside and it's inconvenient for her to charge her phone."

Lady Wilson threw the phone to him and chided angrily, "Then keep calling until the call gets through!"

Christopher sighed. He sat on the couch and kept calling and hanging up.

It went on for half an hour but he couldn't get through to her.

As Christopher attempted to call her again, he felt that something wasn't going right as they had planned...

Logically speaking, the mahjong scam that Hannah and Linda had planned was not held outdoors but inside a house. Charging a phone should not be a big problem.

Moreover, he reminded her again and again to always keep in touch just so he could go and save her if anything happened.

Hence, it was impossible that she would turn off her phone without warning.

What exactly was going on?

As his mind ran wild, he sat up straight, frowned sternly, and mumbled to himself, "Something isn't right..."

Lady Wilson threw a sideways glance at him and said, "Drop the act. Tell me, what the hell is going on!"

Suddenly, Christopher felt like he stumbled into a messy web, he started to feel uneasy and irritable. He looked at his mother and said, "Mom, please stay out of this first. I can't contact Hannah now, let me try to call some other people to see if anyone is with her."

Then, he searched for Linda's number and called her.

The same system reminder sounded. Her phone was switched off too.

Next, he tried calling Hudson and Gianna, and the result was the same...

This was so weird! What the hell was going on?!

Christopher was completely confused and agitated!

He scratched his head in a panic, the bad premonition in his heart growing stronger and stronger.

Lady Wilson watched his son curiously. Slowly, she started to feel that he was not faking it, and it was then when she realized that something must have gone wrong!

She sat up straight and hurriedly asked, "Chris, what is going on? Tell me now!"

Christopher shook his head in bewilderment and mumbled, "I don't know what's going on..."

"Then why do you look so frustrated and unsettled? Why hasn't Hannah been in touch yet? What are you hiding from me?"

Christopher hesitated for a moment. Then, he sighed, cleared his throat, and said, "Mom, let me be honest with you. Actually, Hannah had set up a trap for Elaine Ma today. She hired a con woman to play mahjong with Elaine Ma with the purpose of cheating Elaine Ma of her money and Charlie Wade's villa. When the bank seizes our house, you can finally stay at the Thompson First villa that you've always dreamed of!"

Lady Wilson blinked in excitement and blurted in a hurry, "So, did Hannah get the villa? When can I move in?"

Chapter 615

Upon hearing the words 'Thompson First', Lady Wilson's eyes opened so wide they almost popped out of her eye sockets.

She had coveted Charlie Wade's new villa for a long time and even in her dreams, she wanted to move into the house so badly.

In fact, she hoped she could die in the house.

There were some superstitions and sayings among the folk, such as it is best not to die in the hospital because you might not find the way home.

Another one was it is best to wear your shroud before you die because you might be naked when you go to the afterlife.

Yet another example was that if you die in a mansion, you would be able to reincarnate into a wealthy family in your next life and enjoy the glory and wealth.

Therefore, Lady Wilson longed that she could live in a top-notch luxury villa like Thompson First until the day she died.

The other day, she had directed Harold to rob the villa but ended with horrible consequences. Harold and his bodyguards had been beaten up terribly.

Since then, she stopped thinking about robbing the villa forcibly, but her greed never ended.

She was extremely thrilled when she heard that Christopher and Hannah were planning to snatch the villa out of Elaine Ma's hands!

At this moment, Harold and Wendy had just returned home. They were equally excited when they overheard their father and grandmother's conversation.

Harold rushed forward and asked anxiously, "Dad, did you just say the Mom was going to snatch Charlie Wade's villa from Elaine Ma? How is it? Did she succeed?"

Wendy grinned excitedly too. "Yes, Dad, how is it?"

Christopher sighed dejectedly though and said, "In the last message your mom sent me, she said that she had gotten Elaine Ma's cash, the house that she currently lives in, and Charlie Wade's Thompson First villa..."

Before he could finish, Lady Wilson interjected with a shrill voice, "That is really great news! Wonderful! In that case, when the bank seizes our house, we can immediately move into Thompson First! Hahaha! Elaine Ma, that uneducated pathetic shrew! She deserves to be cheated! It is best if we can make her broke and miserable!"

Christopher plastered a bitter smile on his face as he said, "Mom, even if the scam works, we still have to share it with the partners. If we want to keep the villa, we must compensate those con women several hundred thousand, but the most critical thing is that I can't get hold of Hannah! I can't get in touch with her along with her partners who organized the scam with her! They're all gone!"

"Gone?" Lady Wilson was startled. After a short pause, she frowned and muttered, "Chris, do you think she has run away with the money?"

"Run away?" Christopher blurted in disbelief, "No way! Hmm, I don't think so. Why would she run away?"

Harold also said, "Grandma, Mom wouldn't run away with the money, don't worry!"

Lady Wilson shook her head and said, "Nah, it's hard to say! Look at us, we are partly finished now, and Hannah knows very well that our family can no longer return to its previous glory. And you, you idiot, you've given her all the money. If she decides that she doesn't want to live a miserable life with you, she'd just run away with the money!"

Then, her tone became solemn. "Think about it, what if she has sold the villa and gotten tens of millions or billions of dollars in her pocket? She has more than one reason to run! Maybe she has already gone abroad and disappeared just like that!"

Christopher defended her, saying, "Mom, Hannah has been married to me for so many years. We quarrel and fight sometimes but our relationship is very solid!"

Lady Wilson chided coldly, "That's because she had no money! She had to rely on us financially, but now? The financial power was shifted to her hands the minute you gave her all your savings. She doesn't need you anymore!"

Then, she growled loudly, "Besides, if she gets Charlie Wade's villa today, her net worth must have skyrocketed several fold with the tens of millions of assets in her possession! To her, you are no longer a husband but a handicap instead!"

Christopher froze abruptly.

He didn't want to admit that what his mother said was true, but vaguely, he realized there was something wrong in this matter.

Chapter 616

It was possible that Hannah would make a run for it if she really had that much money in hand. After all, she and Elaine Ma were two peas in a pod. They were greedy and loved money more than anything.

'Mother is right,' Christopher thought. 'Now that me, our children, and even my mother have become burdens, it's possible that she has chosen to run away with the money!'

A layer of resentment and gloom surfaced on Christopher's face. He said in a deep voice, "Let me call Elaine Ma and ask."

He grabbed his phone and called Elaine Ma.

His call was answered almost immediately.

"Hey, Elaine Ma, it's your brother-in-law, Christopher..."

Elaine Ma gritted her teeth in disdain when his voice came from the other end of the line!

This f*cking old dog! He must have known about Hannah's plot to scam her!

Maybe he was the real mastermind behind all this!

When she thought about the terrible losses she had suffered today, she wanted to curse him at the top of her lungs!

However, when her thought shifted to the fact that Hannah was on her way to the coal mine, she suppressed her anger and said disdainfully, "Christopher Wilson, my husband and I were kicked out of the Wilson family, remember? Why are you calling yourself 'brother-in-law'?"

Christopher huffed a heavy breath of dismay, but since he had called her for an important reason, he knew that he couldn't annoy her. Hence, he cleared his throat and said sheepishly, "Sorry, Elaine Ma, I misspoke."

Elaine Ma snorted. "Alright, I don't have time for your bullsh*t. Talk, what do you want from me?"

Christopher asked hastily, "Elaine Ma, have you seen Hannah today?"

Elaine Ma quickly denied, "No! I've not seen her since we met at Summer's house the other day. What happened?"

"No?!" Christopher yelped, and then cursed in his heart, 'B*tch, who do you think you're fooling, you lying b*tch? Hannah has been broadcasting to me live the entire day today! She reported to me when she arrived at your house, she reported to me when she was in your BMW, and she reported to me when she was playing mahjong with you. In fact, she even reported to me how much money and assets she had won from you! And you dare to say that you didn't see her?!'

Christopher was exceptionally furious, but he swallowed his fury, and tried again, "When Hannah went out this morning, she said she was going to play mahjong with you. Are you sure you didn't meet her?"

Elaine Ma was rather chagrined. The three women who played mahjong with her today along with their gangster had been sent to the coal mine. If their family members somehow found out that their disappearance was related to her, they might get revenge on her. Worse, she wouldn't be able to defend her innocence if they called the police!

So, she had no choice but to deny it to the end!

She said impatiently, "Hey, you're funny, do you know that? How can I not know if I have seen her or not? The answer is still NO! No, I didn't meet her today!"

Christopher didn't care if he would be exposed. He started to ask with a frantic tone, "Elaine Ma, please don't hang up. Tell me honestly, please, did you see her? Where did she go? At noon, she sent me a message saying that she was playing mahjong with you at a friend's house and she even told me that she had won Charlie Wade's Thompson First villa! How could you not have met her?"

"Christopher, are you trying to make a joke here? It's not funny, by the way! Since when did she win our villa? Besides, I said I haven't seen Hannah today, do you understand? I can't stand her, how could I have played mahjong with her?"

Speaking of which, she figured that Christopher must be behind the scam, so she gritted her teeth and exclaimed, "Christopher, it's possible that your wife has eloped with someone and used me as a smokescreen! I heard a rumor that she used to frequent a gigolo at the KTV lounge who is about the same age as your son Harold. I even heard that they wanted to save money and run away together!"

Chapter 617

Christopher shouted angrily into the phone, "Elaine Ma, you're slinging mud—that's a pack of f*cking lies!"

Elaine Ma blurted anxiously, "Oh, don't you believe me? Fine! If you can find Hannah, I'll admit defeat!"

"What do you mean?"

"Go and figure it out yourself! I'm very tired now, I don't want to talk to you anymore!"

Immediately, Elaine Ma ended the call.

Christopher almost smashed the phone with anger when he heard the busy tone on the phone.

Harold caught his arms hurriedly and said, "Dad, calm down! The priority right now is to find Mom!"

Unfortunately, Harold didn't know that his mother was on the way to the gullies in Erith and it was utterly impossible for the Wilson family to find her with their resources.

Wendy leaned against her father and persuaded, "Yeah, Dad! Don't be so mad! What did the b*tch say?"

Christopher huffed indignantly, "Elaine Ma said that your mom has an affair with some dude and that she eloped with him!"

"What?!" Harold, Wendy, and Lady Wilson looked shocked! Their jaws almost dropped to the floor!

"An affair?!" Lady Wilson shouted. "Is this true?"

"I don't know, Mom!" Christopher said anxiously, "That's what Elaine Ma said on the phone! She said that the setup and scam were just a decoy, and that Hannah had actually set me up for me to let down my guard so that she could grab more time for herself to run away!"

Harold cursed in dismay, "The b*tch lied, Dad! My mom did not have an affair, let alone elope with him!"

Christopher's face twisted a little weirdly. He said in a much calmer and colder tone, "We aren't sure! Anyway, now that I think about it, your mom did seem a little suspicious!"

"What are you saying?" Harold and Wendy asked simultaneously, "What do you mean by that?"

"Your grandma has been asking me for the eight million dollars but your mom didn't want to give it to her. She's the one who had suggested that I transfer all the money into her account and let me tell your grandma that the money was stuck in the fund management account. That was why I had transferred all our money to her—the fifteen million, all of it!"

Upon hearing the amount, Lady Wilson's eyes opened so wide they almost popped out of her eye sockets. She slapped Christopher across the face and chided, "Didn't you say that you only had ten million?!"

Christopher was shocked by the slap as well as the truth he just blurted impulsively. He was feeling extremely aggrieved and angry that he raised his voice and talked back, "Mom! It was you who estimated that I have ten million! I didn't say it myself!"

"Then why didn't you be honest with me?! I'm your mother! Why didn't you come clean with me and tell me how much money you actually had?!"

Christopher was dumbstruck.

Indeed, it was his fault for concealing the fact about the actual balance in his account, he was guilty as charged.

Lady Wilson huffed in anguish, "I always thought that you were different from your brother. I thought that you were better, smarter, and slicker than him! But, how dare you, how the hell dare you lie to me!"

Then, she gritted her teeth and muttered, "A wise man can be ruined by his own wisdom, silly boy! Instead of being truthful to your mother, you gave all the money to your wife. Great, now that she has run away with all the money, we're done!"

Wendy uttered in agitation, "No! Grandma, my mom wouldn't do that!"

Lady Wilson glared at her and blurted from the corner of her lips, "She wouldn't do that, you say? Then, tell me, where is she now? Where did she go? Why did she disappear now?!"

Then, she continued aggressively, "Also, your mom kept talking about the scam, but why did all of her accomplices including herself disappear except Elaine Ma? This shows that there is a lot of oddity in this matter!"

Harold blurted his opinion that popped at the top of his head, "Is it possible that Elaine Ma was behind this? Could it be that she, in turn, took care of my mom and her accomplices?"

Lady Wilson exclaimed disgustedly, "Elaine Ma? Do you think that the stupid b*tch is capable enough to do such a thing? Only your idiotic uncle would be fooled by her! I don't want to comment about your mother's character right now, but she is ten times more clever than Elaine Ma, that's the fact! If she had really wanted to fool Elaine Ma, there's no way that Elaine Ma could have counterattacked!"

Chapter 618

There was a dash of uncertainty and doubt on Christopher's face. He was almost convinced that his wife had run away with the money!

There was no other better explanation than this!

How could four adults disappear out of thin air just like that?

Even if they did, there must be some clues or traces left behind, right?

The more he thought about it, the more certain he was that Hannah might have betrayed him! Indeed, she was very rich now with the winning and their fifteen million cash.

He huffed and bit his lips in anguish, then said, "No, I can't just wait here. I want to go to Elaine Ma and ask her in person!"

The annoyed Lady Wilson smacked Christopher with her cane and cursed, "You'd better get some answers from her and find Hannah! Even if you can't find her, get the fifteen million back for me! You don't have to come back if you can't get the money, I'll just assume that I only have one son!"

Christopher nodded dejectedly. "Okay, alright, I'll go now!"

Suddenly, Lady Wilson said, "Wait! I'll go with you!"

"Why? Mom, you'll only create more trouble if you go!"

"Did you just say I'll create more trouble?!" Lady Wilson cursed, "After losing all the money, you dare say that I'm a troublemaker?! I must go, nothing you say or do can stop me! If you don't resolve this matter, I'll break ties with you and live with Jacob Wilson!"

Annoyed and upset, Christopher nodded reluctantly and said, "Alright, fine, let's go then!"

They quickly rushed out to take a taxi and went straight to Elaine Ma's house.

Meanwhile, Charlie Wade and Jacob Wilson were sitting in the living room watching TV while Elaine Ma was alone in the room, wailing and weeping under the blanket for the two million dollars that she lost and the broken jade bangle.

At this moment, there was a sudden bang on the door.

Charlie Wade went to open the door and frowned when he saw Lady Wilson and Christopher standing at the door. He asked in an unfriendly tone, "What are you doing here?"

The agitation in Lady Wilson's messy mind increased the minute she saw Charlie Wade. She cursed while trying to push Charlie Wade away, "Get out of my way, loser! I want to see Elaine Ma!"

The frown grew deeper between Charlie Wade's eyes. His cold voice persisted, "Old lady, we're no longer related to you and you aren't welcome here!"

"What did you just say?!" Lady Wilson growled angrily, "How dare you?! Watch your tongue, you disrespectful jerk!"

"Do you really think you're still the head of the Wilson family? Do you really think your dominant and pompous attitude still works wherever you go? Again, you are not welcome here, so get lost!"

Charlie Wade wanted to close the door when Jacob Wilson ran over after hearing the commotion.

He, too, frowned when he saw the two people standing at the door and asked, "What are you doing here?"

Lady Wilson snorted and asked with sheer majestic temperament, "Jacob Wilson! Do you still see me as your mother?"

Jacob Wilson was startled, but he replied steadily, "Well, you were the one wanting to sever ties with me. You should ask yourself if you see me as your son."

Lady Wilson's face twisted in embarrassment. She blurted, "Blood is thicker than water! I'm always your mother no matter what!"

Jacob Wilson sighed in annoyance. He was fed up with being put down and insulted by his own mother, so he said in dismay, "You kick me out of the house and cut ties with me when you're tired of me but you call yourself my mother when you need me. Are you serious? I'm sorry, I don't want such a mother!"

Jacob Wilson immediately turned his head and went back inside.

Charlie Wade smiled at the unwanted guests and said, "Well, you've heard what my father-in-law said. Please go back!"

Chapter 619

Never did Lady Wilson expect that the cowardly Jacob Wilson would be so gutsy and confident in front of her!

She couldn't help feeling angry and frustrated!

For decades, she had been suppressing Jacob Wilson using her majesty and authority, and Jacob Wilson had never been able to resist or even refute her bossiness.

He didn't even dare to object when she kicked him out of the Wilson family house.

But now, he dared to say such things to her!

He had become bold and brazen, didn't he?!

He didn't want such a mother?! How the hell dare he spout such a rebellious remark!

This was outrageous!

Just when she blew a gasket and wanted to pick a bone with them to solidify her dignity, Christopher, on the other hand, stood humbly and said, "Charlie Wade, we aren't here to look for trouble today, I have something very urgent that I need to ask Elaine Ma, so could you please ask her to come out quickly?"

Charlie Wade knew that Christopher must be here because of Hannah, but he wouldn't know, not even in his dreams, that Hannah, Linda, and their clan had been sent to Erith secretly. To him, it was like Hannah had disappeared into thin air.

So, Charlie Wade said, "Well, you can tell me and I'll pass the message to her."

"My wife is gone!"

Charlie Wade pretended to be shocked and asked, "Gone? How?"

Christopher was irritated by Charlie Wade's nosiness, but he contained his fury and said, "I just can't find her, I can't get in touch with her. Before she lost contact, she told me that she was with Elaine Ma, and that's why I've come to ask in case Elaine Ma knows something."

Charlie Wade chuckled. "Actually, you can deduce the situation without asking."

"What do you mean?" Christopher blurted in confusion.

"Simple. I think your wife ran away."

Then, Charlie Wade cracked his knuckles, making a series of popping sounds, and said, "Have you looked into the mirror lately? Look at you—no money, no power, no friends. I guess you'll have to file for bankruptcy soon, am I right? I bet the villa will be seized, right? Aunty Hannah has never suffered a day in her life, did you really think she'll live with you in a shady rented flat?"

Christopher growled furiously, "This is none of your business, shut the f*ck up!"

Jacob Wilson walked over and said in a serious tone, "Brother, I think Charlie Wade is right. The Wilson family is a bottomless pit now. If I were Hannah, not only would I not live with you, but I'd also take all your money and start a new life by myself!"

"You..." Christopher didn't expect that Jacob Wilson would rub salt directly into his wound. He huffed indignantly and shouted, "Jacob Wilson Wilson, don't you dare insult my wife like that! I would have broken your nose already if you weren't my brother!"

As soon as his scornful growl faded, Charlie Wade slapped him across the face. Stars and bright lights appeared in his eyes in an instant.

Before he could regain his composure, Charlie Wade chided coldly, "Christopher, how dare you be so presumptuous at my house. Did you forget what happened to your dear son and your lackeys?"

Christopher shut his mouth sheepishly after being slapped.

He knew that he was in the worst standpoint right now.

Chapter 620

Even if he was still the former Christopher, he couldn't go up against Charlie Wade in any way.

He wasn't sure when and how Charlie Wade had become so skillful and amazing in martial arts that he could defeat the Wilson family's brawny bodyguards. He definitely couldn't withstand Charlie Wade's beating!

Dejected, Christopher contained his fury and said in a low voice, "Jacob Wilson, it's my fault for being so rude earlier. I'm sorry, but could you please ask Elaine Ma to see me? I have something important that I must ask her."

Jacob Wilson was utterly happy right now. He wanted to just hug his darling son-in-law and kiss him!

He had been so frustrated by Christopher's provocation when suddenly, Charlie Wade slapped him! It was such a refreshing scene!

Smiling gleefully inside, Jacob Wilson donned an emotionless face and said, "Brother, did you and Hannah want to buy a villa two days ago?"

"How did you know?" asked Christopher suspiciously.

"Elaine Ma told me. She was at her friend's house playing mahjong when you and Hannah went to view the house."

Christopher nodded. "Yeah, we did, but what does it have to do with today?"

Lady Wilson, on the other hand, frowned in confusion and asked, "Chris, what's going on? Are you planning to buy a house? When? Why? Why don't know anything about it?"

Christopher was startled and then sighed desperately in his heart.

The gears in his brain were stuck by all the anxiety and tension that he completely forgot that he didn't want his mother to know they were buying a new place.

Staring uneasily at Lady Wilson's grumpy face, he put on a patience tone and explained, "Mom, Hannah and I are afraid that we wouldn't have any place to live after the villa is seized, so we went ahead to view any potential house that we can afford.."

"Bullsh*t!" Lady Wilson cursed. "My house will be seized because you didn't want to help the family with your money! You're so stingy when it comes to helping the company and you even went as far as viewing houses behind my back?!"

Christopher looked extremely embarrassed and awkward. He knew that he couldn't settle his mother's wrath any time soon...

Frustrated, Lady Wilson slapped him and shouted, "Ungrateful b*stard! You don't believe in your own mother and choose to believe an outsider! Great, now your fifteen million is thrown down the drain! You are literally driving us to a dead end, b*stard!"

Jacob Wilson felt quite bitter and upset when he heard that his brother had fifteen million in his possession.

He was once part of the family, but he only had one million in his savings. Later, he managed to increase his saving to two million after trading the antiques and some stipends from Claire Wilson Wilson.

Unexpectedly, Christopher had fifteen million!

Feeling sourish, Jacob Wilson said, "No wonder! Brother, you transferred all the money to Hannah, didn't you?"

Christopher huffed angrily, "It's none of your business!"

Jacob Wilson sighed and said, "Brother, you've given Hannah so much money. Even if she doesn't want to cheat on you, there are many young men out there who dream that a rich woman would be able to support them financially and they would grasp onto her tightly like she is their lifebuoy!"

"What do you mean by that?" Christopher demanded, frowning angrily.

Jacob Wilson pretended to be shocked and said, "Haven't you read all those real life cases on the Internet? There are so many similar cases out there! Some young men will target rich old women like Hannah and seduce them with their youthful energy. When the time comes, they would simply say something like, 'Ah, I don't want to work anymore.' Then, these rich women will immediately give them cars and houses, keep them as their toyboy, or even elope with them!"

Then, Jacob Wilson shook his head and said regretfully, "Fifteen million, Chris, fifteen million! I wonder how many young men are surrounding Hannah like bees to flowers! I'm afraid she can't make the decision in an instant!"

Chapter 621

Christopher was trembling with anger at Jacob Wilson's deliberate sarcasm!

Indeed, he occasionally saw such news on virtual news portals. In fact, he admitted that he had even imagined such a scene before. He imagined that one day when he was super rich and bumped into a young and beautiful girl who told him that she didn't want to work anymore, he would just send her an address and let her come to him...

Of course, it was nothing but a figment of his imagination. He had never had the courage nor the ability to turn it into a reality.

However, when Jacob Wilson talked about his wife like that, for some reason, a very vivid and realistic picture showed up in his mind!

In the imaginative picture, there was a young man leaning against his wife's embrace and calling her name sweetly...

Christopher was extremely agitated, wondering how many times his wife had cheated on him. He stomped furiously and cursed, "Jacob Wilson, don't you dare mock my wife like that! Your wife isn't any better! You should be thankful that you are poor, otherwise, Elaine Ma would have ten toyboys under her paycheck!"

At this moment, Jacob Wilson's bedroom door opened wide. Elaine Ma barged out rapidly, pointing to Christopher's nose and cursing, "You b*stard! Your wife ran away, why did you come to my house and cause a scene? How dare you insult me? Just look at yourself, you pathetic old coot!"

When Elaine Ma finally revealed herself, Christopher asked sharply, "Elaine Ma! Have you seen Hannah or not?!"

"I told you that I haven't seen her! You are so irritating! I told you that Hannah eloped with her toyboy, taking all your money with her! It's up to you if you want to believe me or not!"

"You said she cheated on me with a toyboy, do you have any proof?"

"Huh, your wife disappeared along with the money, what proof do you want? If you want the proof so badly, just go and look for it yourself! Why do you come here?"

Christopher was so angry that his heart nearly burst out of his chest. Lady Wilson said coldly, "That's enough, let's go home now! Stop embarrassing yourself!"

Christopher pointed to Elaine Ma with his ghastly glare and exclaimed, "Vixen, just you wait and see! I'll f*cking come at you!"

Elaine Ma spit on him and shouted, "Come as you please, but you're about to go bankrupt that you can't even afford a decent meal! You'll starve to death sooner or later, you b*stard!"

Then, Elaine Ma slammed the door directly at them.

Christopher was extremely agitated, but he didn't dare to confront them again for fear that Charlie Wade would slap him again, so he could only leave with Lady Wilson in a dingy manner.

When they were at the gate, Lady Wilson warned Christopher in an utterly cold voice, "Three days—find Hannah or bring me the money. If you fail, you don't have to come home anymore!"

Then, she huffed agitatedly and left.

Christopher was devastated.

The world was so big, searching for Hannah would be like finding a needle in the haystack!

He had no other way but to go to Hannah's family first.

After Christopher was gone, Elaine Ma's depressed feeling was lifted slightly.

Jacob Wilson had no clue at all what happened today, he thought that the story about how Hannah ran away with the money was real, so he said in a gloating grin, "Haha! No man is wise all the time! I bet Chris never would have guessed that Hannah would do this to him! This is so funny! Hahahaha!"

Charlie Wade glanced at Elaine Ma quietly, impressed by his mother-in-law's swift thinking. She denied seeing Hannah till the end and had even accused Hannah of eloping with a toyboy. It only took her a small effort to divert Christopher's attention to a completely different direction.

Elaine Ma, on the other hand, glared at Charlie Wade bitterly and hoped that she could eat him up with her glare!

It was all because of this loser that Linda and Hannah had donated all her money. Now that she had lost all the family's savings, she wondered how she was going to hide it from Jacob Wilson!

Chapter 622

At this moment, the gleeful Jacob Wilson said, "Oh yes, dear, give me twenty grand. I want to have a get-together tomorrow."

"A get-together?" Elaine Ma asked nervously, "Why do you need twenty grand for a get-together?! Did you invite the president?"

"I joined the Aurous Calligraphy and Painting Association, I've told you that, remember? Now, there's a vacancy for the executive director of the association and I want it! So, I'd like to invite the chairman and other directors to dinner to enhance our relationship."

Then, he added with a smug look, "If I'm elected as one of the executive directors, I'll be popular in the antique social group in the city!"

Elaine Ma shouted angrily, "Are you crazy? Why do you need twenty grand for dinner? Do you really think we own a money printer at home? No, I don't allow you to!"

Jacob Wilson hurriedly said, "Oh, dear, I just want to climb the ladder one step at a time! Once I become the director, I will have more opportunities to get in touch with the rare and precious antiques and there will be chances for me to grab treasures at bargain prices! You've seen how good I am at this, I've made hundreds of thousands with the same tactic!"

Elaine Ma was feeling guilty about the money, but she pretended an enraged tone and said, "But still, you can't spend twenty grand on a dinner banquet! Do you think our money grows on trees?"

Jacob Wilson was annoyed. "With every penny I spend, I'll earn it back in the future! Or you just consider this as a loan, huh? Is that okay?"

Elaine Ma condemned contemptuously, "Hah, do you think I don't know how lousy you actually are? So what if you become a director, you still can't earn peanuts! I think you're becoming more and more like Charlie Wade—you're also turning into a big liar who deceives people all day long!"

"Argh, why do you look down on me so much?"

"Yeah, I look down on you, so what? You want money, don't you? Look at my lips. No!"

Then, she turned and barged into her room, pretending to be angry.

Jacob Wilson was utterly confused and irritated.

What was wrong with that woman? Why couldn't she give him the money? Part of the money was his too!

He was about to go to the room to begin another argument when Charlie Wade stopped him and said with a smile, "Dad, if Mom doesn't want to give you the money, you know whatever you do would be useless."

Jacob Wilson huffed, annoyed, "But I've already told them that I want to invite them for a get-together! I only have a thousand plus in my pocket, it isn't enough!"

Then, he added, "The president said that there is a great chance I'll be appointed as the director. It all depends on my performance!"

Charlie Wade sighed quietly.

He was fully aware of how miserable his father-in-law was in terms of verifying antiquities. He was the purest idiot of them all who had been scammed so many times and lost a lot of money. The only time he had earned money from trading antiques was from Zachary.

He heard that Zachary was avoiding Jacob Wilson at all costs, ignoring his phone calls and messages. He would even ditch his shop and escape when he bumped into Jacob Wilson in Antique Street.

Jacob Wilson was in the association with a sole purpose—to make up the number.

But of course, he wouldn't say such things out loud. Instead, he said, "Dad, I still have some pocket money, I'll transfer twenty grand to you right away."

Jacob Wilson was delighted. "Oh, my dear son-in-law, you're the best! Thank you! You've done me a great favor!"

Charlie Wade sighed as he transferred the money and said, "Alright, Claire Wilson Wilson is coming back soon, I'll start making dinner."

Jacob Wilson smiled gleefully when he received the money and said in a coy tone, "My dear son-in-law, let me help you!"

Chapter 623

As Charlie Wade was preparing dinner, Donald and his son, Sean, also left the Moore family mansion and drove to The Heaven Springs.

Donald has invited some of the more powerful and prestigious people in Aurouss Hilll to attend the banquet dinner that he would be hosting at The Heaven Springs tonight. On one hand, he wanted to find more clues relating to his youngest son, Kian's sudden illness, and on the other hand, he wanted to lay down a little foundation for the Webb family in Aurouss Hilll.

Although the Webb family was the top family in the South Region, this did not mean that they had sufficient control and power over the entire South Region.

The Webb family's base camp was in Sudbury, and this meant that they had extraordinary control and power in the Sudbury area. However, since the Moore family's base camp was in Aurouss Hilll, this meant that the Webb family's influence and power in Aurouss Hilll were relatively worse than the Moore family.

As these wealthy and powerful families in the South Region each had their own spheres of influence, each and every one of them maintained a tacit understanding and respect for each other. No one would try to expand their own strength or power within the sphere of influence of another prestigious family.

Donald was not trying to gain more influence in Aurouss Hilll, but the point was that his eldest son, Sean, really wanted to marry Jasmine from the Moore family. In order to achieve this goal, Sean would have to remain in Aurouss Hilll for a long time in the near future. Therefore, Donald wanted to lay the foundation for his son in Aurouss Hilll. He planned to greet all the big families in Aurouss Hilll in advance so that it would be more convenient for Sean to stay around in Aurouss Hilll in the future.

Sean had felt a little more irritated than usual over the past two days. First of all, it was because Lord Mooore had directly refused and turned down the marriage proposal offered by Donald the last time he had brought it up. This made Sean feel very awkward and embarrassed.

Also, Sean felt even more troubled because of Jasmine's attitude.

Both Sean and his father had been living in the Moore family mansion for the past few days. However, during their stay here, Sean felt as though Jasmine would always leave the house early in the morning, and she would only come back home late at night, every single day!

Sean had heard Reuben saying that Jasmine used to eat breakfast at home before she left the house in the morning, and she would then try to come home early in the evening to accompany her grandfather for dinner.

However, for the past few days, Jasmine did not even have breakfast at home before she left the house. She would always head toward her car and drive out of the house as soon as she left her bedroom in the morning.

Jasmine would even have dinner outside nowadays before coming home very late at night. After that, she would go back directly into her own bedroom as soon as she came home. She basically did not give Sean a chance to meet her at all.

This made Sean feel very depressed.

He really did not expect Jasmine to somehow look down on him. Moreover, he felt as though Jasmine was very unwilling to marry him. Why?!

When they were in the car, Donald could immediately tell that his son was not in the right mood and condition. Therefore, he said, "Son, you have to have more patience no matter what you do. You might not be able to find another girl like Jasmine in the entire South Region. If you really want to win her over so you can marry her, you have to be willing to put in some energy and effort."

Sean started to lose his temper as he said, "Dad, you know that there will not be a second young man in the whole of the South Region who would be better than me, right? Why can't she just feel blessed and appreciate her good fortune since I am interested in her and want to marry her?"

Donald replied lightly, "You probably do not understand this, but girls from prestigious families are always more popular compared to young men from any prestigious family."

After that, Donald continued speaking. "A woman like Jasmine would definitely be sought after, even by many of the young men from the most prestigious and powerful families in Eastcliff. All of them would be vying to marry her. This is because Jasmine is not only very beautiful and capable, but her family's strength and power are also very admirable. She is very all-rounded and would be able to save her future husband a lot of face when they get married in the future. Jasmine would not only be able to play a very important role in the family that she marries into, but she could also bring a very generous dowry with her."

"However, it would be extremely difficult if you want to marry a girl from the most powerful and prestigious family in Eastcliff. This is because they are not only looking and judging your individual personality and abilities, but they would also be judging the entire strength and wealth of the entire Webb family."

"In a layman's term, in the upper-class society, if a woman has a comprehensive strength of seventy points, she would be able to marry a man that has a comprehensive strength of eighty points. However, a man with the comprehensive strength of seventy points would hardly be able to marry a woman with the comprehensive strength of seventy points."

Sean was a little agitated and blurted out immediately, "Do you mean to say that I am the one who will be climbing up the social ladder if I have the benefit of marrying Jasmine?"

Donald replied, "Even though you might not want to hear this, it is nothing more than the truth. Jasmine will definitely be able to find a better man than you, but it will be much more difficult for you to ever find a better woman than Jasmine."

Sean was stunned for a moment, feeling a little unconvinced. However, after putting some thought into it, he felt that his father was right.

Out of all the women he had ever met, Jasmine was indeed the woman with the highest score.

As for the daughters of those prestigious and top families in Eastcliff, even if they would be relatively wealthier compared to the Moore family, it would be very difficult for him to find anyone with Jasmine's appearance and temperament.

Besides that, even if the girls admired him or were interested in him, their family might not necessarily be able to accept him into their families.

Donald sighed before he said, "I received news from home that your younger brother's condition is not very optimistic now."

"What's wrong?" Sean hurriedly asked. "Did his condition deteriorate any further?"

"No, that did not happen." Donald continued speaking, "His illness is the same as it was before. He still has to eat shit every hour. However, it seems as though your brother's emotional and mental condition is in very bad shape. In the past, he would feel like committing suicide if he did not get to eat shit every hour. However, now, whenever he has finished eating shit and regained his consciousness, he would feel like committing suicide. He said that it is too painful and pointless for him to continue living like this."

Donald could only sigh after he was done speaking. He really did not know who Kian had offended and why he would end up the way he was now.

Sean gritted his teeth as he said, "If I were to catch the man who harmed my brother and made him this way, I will definitely take his life!"

Actually...

Even though Sean was saying this, what he desired the most was not to avenge or look for a cure for his younger brother. What Sean wanted the most at this time was to win Jasmine over.

In fact, Sean did not really care about his younger brother's situation.

On the contrary, he felt as though it would be best for him if his brother continued to remain in this condition and state of mind.

This was because he would not need to worry about having an absolute competitor to inherit the family fortune in the future.

If Kian continued to remain this way and no cure was found, Kian would never be able to inherit any family assets or property in his life. He would only end up getting locked up in the house by his family just so they could sustain and keep him alive.

That way, Sean would have the opportunity to inherit the Webb family fortune all by himself.

Donald sighed again as he said, "Sean, you don't have to worry about your brother's affairs. I will investigate and look into this matter myself. You should focus on pursuing Jasmine with all your heart and might. You have to make sure that you win Jasmine over. Do you understand?"

Sean hurriedly nodded. "I understand, Dad!"

Donald hummed before he said, "I set something up in The Heaven Springs today. The people I have invited to attend the banquet dinner tonight are the head of the White family, the Quinton family, the Lloyd family, the Zimmerman family, and the Kline family. These families have been rooted in Aurouss Hilll for many years, and each of these families has their own merits, strengths, connections, and resources."

"I also invited the owner of The Heaven Springs, Don Albertt, to join us for dinner tonight. He is the mobster boss of the underground world in Aurouss Hilll. Even though he may appear scary and not have a prestigious identity, he knows about almost everything that is going on in Aurouss Hilll. Most of the things in Aurouss Hilll will not be able to escape his eyes. Therefore, I believe that as long as you form a close connection to these people tonight, it will definitely be of great use to you in your pursuit of Jasmine in the future."

Sean only knew about the White family and the Quinton family, and he knew that the head of these two households was none other than Zeke White and Graham Quinton. He knew of their families' wealth and power, but he did not know much about the other families that his father had just mentioned. Therefore, he quickly asked, "Dad, aside from the White family and the Quinton family, what are the origins of the Lloyd, Zimmerman, and Kline family?"

Donald laughed before he replied, "The Zimmerman family and the Kline family are ordinary families who gained their wealth and influence through real estate development. There is nothing extraordinary about them, but the Lloyd family is a little more interesting. Their family runs a financial company, and most of what they are doing is actually illegal. In fact, they could be categorized as a form of a loan shark. They have just emerged over the past two years and have also supported a large number of gangsters and thugs who are in the debt collection field."

Sean was very surprised and asked, "Does that mean that he is similar in nature to Don Albertt then?"

"Yes, they are similar in nature." Donald nodded before he continued speaking, "However, the Lloyd family's strength cannot be compared to Don Albertt. Don Albertt has many men under his control in the whole of Aurouss Hilll. The number of men working for Don Albertt is dozens of times more than Cain Lloyd's collection team. Therefore, even though Cain hates Don Albertt to the core, he does not dare to do anything to him at all."

"Cain hates Don Albertt?" Sean asked in surprise. "Did something happen between both of them?"

Donald smiled before he said, "It seems as though there was a big conflict between them. Cain has an only child named Marcus. It seems that some time ago, Marcus seriously offended Don Albertt. In order to punish Marcus for his actions, Don Albertt carved two words directly onto Marcus's forehead."

"What words?"

"Pathetic jerk!"

Chapter 625

"Oh, my God!"

Sean could not stop himself from exclaiming out loud when he heard this. "Don Albertt actually used a knife to carve the words 'pathetic jerk' on Cain's son's forehead?! You would not be exaggerating if you said that there was a deep hatred between them!"

"Yes." Donald smiled slightly before he said, "I guess Cain and his son can only dream of killing Don Albertt and getting rid of him in their dreams!"

When he heard his father's words, Sean could not help but ask, "Dad, since you know that there is an enmity between Cain and Don Albertt, why did you still invite Cain to come for the banquet dinner tonight?"

Donald smiled again as he said, "Don't you think that this is an opportunity for us to make use of Cain? He is nothing but a stray dog who wants to bite but does not dare to open his mouth. What he is currently lacking is a host that will back him up and support him so that he can open his mouth and bite with confidence in the future."

At this time, Sean replied, "Dad, if you want to take advantage of this situation and make use of Cain, why did you still arrange for the banquet dinner to be held at The Heaven Springs? Since Cain and Don Albertt cannot get along at all, wouldn't that be making things difficult for yourself?"

Donald looked at Sean with a deep expression in his eyes as he said, "Cain and Don Albertt are both dogs. The only difference is that Cain is just a stray dog without an owner, but Don Albertt is a dog with the backup and support of the Moore family."

Sean nodded before he asked, "What, then? What are you trying to get out of this, dad?"

Donald replied, "If you intend to marry Jasmine in the future, you have to show your power and influence in Aurouss Hilll. Even though these prestigious and powerful families in Aurouss Hilll are all very polite and respectful toward us, they do not regard us as masters. On the other hand, they regard the Moore family as the master in Aurouss Hilll. Therefore, we will have to develop our own forces and power in Aurouss Hilll."

After that, Donald continued speaking. "There are two kinds of forces in this world. First is the public force, and secondly, the underground forces. The public forces are those prestigious families who do serious and decent business with the exception of the Lloyd family and Don Albertt who are part of the underground forces. If we cannot subdue Don Albertt, then, we should train and raise a dog who will be able to challenge and fight against Don Albertt instead. In my opinion, the Lloyd family is best suited to take on that role."

Donald looked at Sean before he gave him a serious warning. "If you want to inherit and take over the Webb family in the future, you have to be skilled in planning your strategies. Do you know the reason why I invited Cain to come for the banquet dinner at The Heaven Springs tonight?"

"First of all, I want Cain to feel pleasantly surprised. He is nothing but a stray dog with no backup or owner, but he was actually given the opportunity to have dinner with someone as powerful as me."

"On the other hand, I also want to make Cain feel very humiliated. How? As a stray dog without an owner, Cain would have to suffer and endure the humiliation of swallowing his anger when facing his mortal enemy, Don Albertt. His desire for revenge will only be doubled when he suffers even more humiliation. At that time, I will be merciful and offer Cain an opportunity to become my dog. That will give him a chance to exact revenge on Don Albertt. He will definitely be very grateful toward me, and he will go all out and give everything he has to take Don Albertt down."

"As Don Albertt is the mobster boss of the underground world, the underground world will eventually be dominated by the Webb family when he falls from his throne. Do you understand what I am planning to do now?"

Sean came to a sudden realization when he heard his father's explanation!

He could not help but say in excitement, "Dad, I think that your plan is absolutely wonderful! In that case, Cain will surely treat you and the Webb family as his savior and benefactor! That way, the Lloyd family can become the vanguard that will pave the way for the Webb family when we want to enter Aurouss Hilll in the future."

Donald replied, "That's right. This is the only way for Aurouss Hilll to become an indestructible hinterland for the Webb family."

Sean truly admired his father's strategy and could only sigh as he said, "I do not know when I can ever have at least one-tenth of your ability, Dad..."

Donald smiled slightly before he said, "Your current behavior and personality are already very similar to how I was during my younger days. All you have to do now is to accumulate more experience, precipitate more, think everything through slowly, and be patient and not impulsive when figuring things out!"

After listening to his father's words, Sean said, "Dad, I understand now!"

"Okay." Donald nodded in satisfaction before he said, "Let's get back to the topic about Jasmine. You have to be steady and patient, like an eagle that is keeping watch on its prey. Make sure that you win Jasmine over and bring her into the Webb family!"

Sean replied respectfully, "I got it, Dad! I will definitely live up to your expectations!"

As soon as his voice fell, both of them had already arrived at the entrance of The Heaven Springs.

Chapter 626

Before their car had even stopped properly, Sean looked out the window and saw a middle-aged man hurriedly rushing forward to greet them from outside the car. At this time, the middle-aged man also saluted both the father and son respectfully.

Donald nodded slightly at him before he told Sean, "This is the Cain Lloyd I was telling you about."

Sean was slightly surprised.

As soon as the car stopped, Cain came forward in a hurry as he opened the car door for Donald. After that, he quickly greeted them with a smile on his face, "Cain Lloyd at your service, Mr. Webb and young master Webb..."

Donald nodded before he said, "You've arrived rather early today."

Cain hurriedly replied, "I truly would never have expected you to invite me to come for your banquet dinner tonight. I was afraid that I would be late if I did not come earlier."

Cain originally would not have the opportunity to come to The Heaven Springs in his lifetime.

This was because Albert not only engraved the words 'pathetic jerk' on his son's forehead, but he had also ordered his son to come to The Heaven Springs every Friday to give him a routine report. Besides that, Albert would also check his son's forehead every Friday. Albert had repeatedly given his son a warning stating that if he found out that the scar on his forehead was getting lighter, he would carve it on his forehead again and he would make sure that the words were even more deeply engraved this time. He was simply a beast!

Cain seriously hated Albert because of the humiliation that both he and his son had to endure. Therefore, he refused to step foot into Albert's territory.

However, this time was different.

Cain would never have dreamt that Donald, from the most prestigious and influential Webb family, would actually take the initiative to call him and invite him to attend the banquet dinner that he was hosting at The Heaven Springs.

This was Donald Webb from the top family in the whole of the South Region!

He could easily be the most powerful and influential person in the South Region!

Cain thought that he would never have the opportunity to meet someone like him. Therefore, he was naturally very excited when he received Donald's sudden invitation.

Cain was very eager to establish a relationship and connection with the Webb family through this dinner tonight. This would be the best opportunity for him to try and become the dog of the Webb family. This way, he would finally have the opportunity to exact his revenge on Albert!

Donald nodded in satisfaction before he said, "Cain, you have a very good attitude. I like that. Keep it up."

Cain trembled in excitement when he heard Donald's words, and he quickly bowed in front of Donald before he said, "Mr. Webb, I have already admired and looked up to the Webb family for a very long time. I am also very amazed and in awe of your reputation. If you do not despise me, will you give me the opportunity to work for the Webb family? I will definitely do everything to the best of my ability to serve you and the Webb family!"

Donald glanced slightly at Cain and felt that this man certainly knew how to behave in front of his owner.

However, Donald had the intention to tear him down first. Therefore, he simply replied indifferently, "I don't think that the Lloyd family is qualified enough to become the Webb family's dog. However, I have to admit that I am very impressed with your personality and attitude. It just so happens that I need a runner to run some errands in Aurouss Hilll for me recently. You can help me carry out some errands for the time being, and if you get those things done well for me, I will not treat you badly in the future."

Cain was very happy and pleased and he replied respectfully, "Thank you, Mr. Webb. I am more than willing to become your slave, and I will definitely do my best for you!"

Donald nodded before he said, "Okay, I think it is almost time for us to go in now. Don Albertt should have already made all the necessary preparations for the banquet dinner tonight. You can come in with me."

There was a look of hatred and resentment on Cain's face as soon as he heard Donald mentioning 'Don Albertt'. However, he quickly regained his composure and bowed respectfully before he gestured toward Donald and said humbly, "Please, after you, Mr. Webb!"

Donald was very satisfied with Cain's attitude. He nodded slightly before he walked into The Heaven Springs.

Albert had already arranged for the employees of The Heaven Springs to make all the necessary preparations and prepare all the dishes for the banquet dinner that night. At the same time, all the other people who were invited to the banquet had also arrived early, and they had already been waiting for Donald for quite a long time.

Albert, Graham, and Zeke had the same attitude toward the Webb family. They were not here to flatter Donald or to curry any favor with him, but they also had no intention of offending him and the Webb family.

This was the reason why they accepted the Webb family invitation to attend this banquet dinner tonight.

In fact, the three of them had already thought everything through. They had even met up in private to discuss this matter amongst themselves. They decided to simply give the Webb family some face and to be polite and respectful toward Donald, but they would still follow and abide by Charlie Wade's instructions.

As for the other families' heads, they had come to the banquet dinner tonight simply to get into the Webb family's good books.

After all, no matter what it was, it was an undeniable fact that the Webb family was the top family in the entire South Region. To many of the small and medium-class families, they were simply a towering high tree that was filled with fruits. Moreover, it was only natural that every monkey would hope to be able to hang onto this tree as tightly as they could.

When they saw Donald and his son, Sean, entering the Diamond Room, the other families' heads instantly stood up to greet and welcome them.

Amongst them, the head of the Zimmerman family was the first to flatter Donald. "Mr. Webb, you are truly a very talented and superb person. Your son is also as talented as you are, and he absolutely deserves to be in the most prestigious family in the whole of the South Region! Both of you exude a completely different style and charm!"

The head of the Kline family also nodded as he said, "Yes, I agree! I have not met Mr. Webb in person before, but since I have the honor of meeting you today, I realize that compared to the rumors that I have heard before, you are even more amazing and outstanding in person!"

Donald nodded slightly as he looked around the room with a majestic expression on his face.

Everyone seated in this private room tonight was all famous people in Aurouss Hilll. It was obvious that the head of the Zimmerman family, the Kline family, and the Lloyd family were all very respectful toward him. Donald could tell that they were trying their best to impress and flatter him at this point.

On the other hand, Zeke, Graham, and Albert remained very calm and composed. They had an indifferent expression on their faces, but they were still very polite toward Donald out of common courtesy. However, they did not bother to praise or give him any heartfelt compliments at all.

Even though Donald did not say anything, he was still secretly very unhappy with Zeke.

Cain continued to follow Donald around as though he was his grandson. As soon as he saw Albert when he entered the private room, Cain could not help but stare at him with extremely resentful eyes.

In his eyes, Albert was the one who had personally forged this feud with him!

His precious son had become one of the two biggest jokes in the whole of Aurouss Hilll during this time because Albert had carved the words 'pathetic jerk' on his forehead.

The other joke in Aurouss Hilll was that Kian, the second son of the Webb family, was a poop-eating monster.

However, since everyone was afraid of the strength and power of the Webb family, no one dared to make fun of this matter in public. They could only laugh about this in private. On the contrary, the Lloyd family was not very strong or influential in Aurouss Hilll. Therefore, the misfortune suffered by Cain's son, Marcus, had been widely spread throughout the entire Aurouss Hilll and had become a topic of conversation amongst many people who treated this as a joke.

Just the day before yesterday, Cain was out for work when he heard two young children about the age of ten years old arguing with one another. One of the boys scolded his friend and called him a pathetic jerk. However, the other kid had quickly turned around and yelled, "I am not a pathetic jerk! Marcus Lloyd is the real pathetic jerk!"

As soon as Cain heard this, he stepped forward and gave the kid a tight slap across his face. The young boy fell to the ground without knowing what was happening. When the young boy's father came up to confront Cain about this matter, he ordered his driver and bodyguard to beat him up. The man was beaten up so badly that he was eventually sent to the hospital.

However, there were still so many people who were mocking and making fun of Marcus in Aurouss Hilll. How could he possibly stop them all?

Furthermore, there were many people that Cain simply could not afford to offend in Aurouss Hilll.

This kind of humiliation made Cain feel as though he wanted to kill someone. If it was not because Albert was much more powerful compared to him, he would have already brought his men over here with him to chop Albert up and make mincemeat out of him.

This was the reason Cain felt as though he was boiling in anger when he saw Albert at this time. There was a fiery expression in his eyes because he was meeting his enemy face to face.

Truthfully, Albert did not expect to see this guy here at all. After all, Donald had simply asked him to set up a table for him to host a dinner here tonight. Donald did not give him the list of guests that would be attending the dinner.

Chapter 628

However, Albert did not care about seeing Cain face to face. When he saw the murderous expression on Cain's face, Albert simply glared coldly at Cain as he deliberately raised his hand to touch his forehead.

Cain trembled in rage when he saw Albert touching his forehead.

However, he could only shake in anger as he did not dare to yell at Albert or take any actions against him whatsoever.

After all, Cain knew that Albert was much stronger compared to him. Moreover, Donald himself had also said that he was still under probation as he was not even qualified to even become the Webb family's dog.

Cain felt extremely uncomfortable as he thought about this.

What kind of world was this? Why did he have to be on probation and go under a d*men's trial period just to become someone else's dog?

However, he would endure the probationary period if he had to. As long as he passed this probation, things would definitely turn out well for him in the end. When that time came, he would have the strength to fight against Albert and exact his revenge upon him!

As the saying goes, a lack of forbearance in small matters would upset great plans.

He would simply have to endure humiliation to fulfill a greater part of his mission.

As the owner of The Heaven Springs and one of the guests for the banquet tonight, Albert naturally took the initiative to step forward and invite Donald to sit at the main seat of the table tonight. As soon as Donald sat down, Sean sat down at his right side immediately.

Since the seat next to the left of Donald was empty at this time, many people were staring at that seat because they wanted to get as close to Donald as they possibly could.

However, since Cain had been following closely behind Donald this entire time, he was the fastest to make his move. As soon as Donald sat down on the main seat, he quickly rushed forward to sit down at the left seat next to Donald.

At this time, the few of them continued praising and complimenting Donald. Donald did not say much, but he simply sat down with a majestic aura surrounding him.

After everyone had taken the initiative to greet him, Donald finally said, "The reason why I invited all of you to attend this banquet dinner tonight is mainly because I want to get to know all of you better. I am still relatively new in Aurouss Hilll, and I will inevitably have to trouble all of you if I need any help in Aurouss Hilll in the future."

Cain was the first to stand up as he laughed and said, "That is only natural, Mr. Webb. The Lloyd family is more than blessed and glad to be able to serve the Webb family. We will definitely pledge our loyalty and support to the Webb family."

Cain knew very well that Donald needed someone to take the lead and speak up as soon as he spoke. Therefore, he mustered up the courage to bravely take the lead and speak up and be the first to pledge his allegiance to him.

Donald glanced at Cain before he nodded in approval. After that, he said, "Cain, I will surely look out for you and give you more benefits if you do things well for me in the future."

Cain was indeed a very sharp person who knew exactly what to do and say at a time like this.

"Thank you, Mr. Webb. I will do my utmost best to serve you well."

At this time, the head of the Zimmerman and Kline family also hurriedly expressed their positions. Both of them were also kneeling and sucking up to Donald as they made it clear that they wanted to be on board the Webb family's big boat.

Only Zeke, Graham, and Albert silently exchanged glances with one another without saying anything at all.

They knew that Donald wanted them to express their positions and pledge their allegiance to him.

If they declared that they would help the Webb family if they ever needed any of their help, this was tantamount to them officially announcing that they were seeking refuge with the Webb family.

However, the three of them only wanted to follow and serve Charlie Wade with all of their hearts. Therefore, they simply could not pledge their allegiance to Donald.

After all, in the eyes of these three people, Charlie Wade was truly the real dragon on earth. Compared to Charlie Wade, even if the Webb family was very strong, Donald was still a mortal. Since he was nothing more than a mortal being, how could he possibly be compared to Charlie Wade?

Donald glanced at the three of them before he said, "It seems as though the three of you are not willing to work for the Webb family, then?"

Chapter 629

When they were faced with Donald's sudden question, Zeke smiled faintly before he said, "Mr. Webb, it is true that the three of us have already pledged our loyalty to someone else. Therefore, it would be very difficult for us to pledge our allegiance to the Webb family instead. We hope that you will understand our difficulties and forgive us..."

Graham touched his nose slightly before he said, "Mr. White's intentions are my intentions too."

Donald looked at Albert before he asked, "What about you, Don Albertt?"

Albert smiled before he said, "I am just a nobody amongst the upper class, simply a mobster boss. However, the thing that I pay utmost attention to is the word 'loyalty'. The person that I have pledged my allegiance and loyalty to is treating me very well, thus, I will not turn my back on him and depend on someone else instead."

Donald could not help but frown at this time. He did not expect the three of them to have such a determined attitude.

He really could not understand why the three of them would pledge such allegiance and loyalty to the Moore family. Donald could not help but wonder what kind of benefits the Moore family had given them to make them so loyal toward them.

When Cain heard what the three of them had just said, he stood up immediately. Then, he pointed his finger at them before he cursed, "Don't the three of you know how to give Mr. Webb any face at all? Do you even know anything about the Webb family? Do you know how many people are lining up to become dogs and slaves for the Webb family? You should consider yourselves lucky that Mr. Webb even acknowledged you! How dare you refuse and turn down his request?!"

Donald reached out his hand to stop Cain from questioning them at this time. After that, he said lightly, "Everyone has their own plans and aspirations. I will not force anyone to comply with my requests."

After that, Donald continued speaking, "However, even if you are not going to pledge your allegiance and loyalty to the Webb family, would it be okay for you to offer to help me?"

Albert replied lightly, "Mr. Webb, of course. As long as the matter you are asking for does not violate my principles, I will naturally offer my help to you."

Donald nodded as he said, "There are two main reasons for my visit to Aurouss Hillll this time. First of all, the Webb family has recently encountered some problems, and I am certain that every one of you here is well aware of it."

No one replied to Donald's question, but the awkward and embarrassed expression on their faces said it all.

Donald knew that the matter relating to his second son was very detrimental to the reputation and dignity of the Webb family. The Webb family had also become a laughingstock in the hearts of countless people because of this incident. However, it was because of this humiliation that he could not help but feel even more eager and determined to catch the culprit who had done this to his son.

Therefore, Donald had a very cold expression on his face as he said, "The first thing I want you to help me with is to find the culprit who did this to my youngest son. I am not very familiar with the situation in Aurouss Hillll. Therefore, I would like to be able to rely on you for all your help regarding this matter. I would like you to ask your men to help me keep an eye on this matter and notify me as soon as you have any news or clues about this matter. I can personally promise that the Webb family will definitely give a great reward to the person who can provide me with any important leads on this matter. The cash reward will not be less than one hundred million dollars!"

The fact that Donald was willing to give a one hundred million cash reward to anyone who would be able to provide them with a clue proved that the Webb family was indeed very wealthy and powerful.

At this time, Cain blurted out immediately, "Mr. Webb, you can rest assured that the Lloyd family will definitely go all out to help the Webb family with this matter!"

The head of the Zimmerman family and the Kline family did not want to be left behind, and they quickly expressed their positions, one after the other.

Even though this was the case, Zeke, Graham, and Albert still did not say anything at all.

Donald was a little frustrated and asked, "So, are the three of you truly not going to give me any face whatsoever?"

Graham, Zeke, and Albert exchanged glances with one another before they said, "It's not that we are not giving any face to you, Mr. Webb. Since you have already spoken up, we will definitely do our best to help you. It's just that the three of us have relatively solid and realistic personalities, and we do not like to just use our mouths to say everything baselessly."

The other three men who were sucking up to Donald had a very unsightly expression on their faces, but they could not say anything to refute those words at all.

Donald simply nodded slightly at this time.

He already knew and understood their attitudes. It was okay for them to help him, but it was completely impossible for them to become his dog.

Based on Donald's personality, he would have already gotten mad and lost his temper if this was any other situation.

However, today was a very special occasion. He knew that the next topic he wanted to talk about was much more important. Therefore, he simply glanced at them coldly before he continued speaking, "That was the first thing. The second thing that I would like to ask for your help has something to do with Jasmine from the Moore family."

"The Moore family?" Albert echoed as he frowned immediately. After that, Albert said, "Mr. Webb, Miss Moore has always treated all of us very well. If you are going to target Miss Moore, then I, Albert, will never agree to it!"

Chapter 630

Donald replied indifferently, "I am not asking you to help me deal with the Moore family. My son has recently fallen in love with Jasmine, and he would like to marry Jasmine from the Moore family. However, I heard that Jasmine seems to be in love with someone else. Therefore, I would really appreciate it if you could help me to find out the identity of the man Jasmine is in love with. If you can help me find this young man, I will definitely offer you a great reward!"

Zeke and the others immediately exchanged glances with one another again.

If Donald was saying that Jasmine already had someone she was interested in, they believed that this person would be none other than Mr. Wade himself..

However, it was naturally impossible for them to tell Donald about Charlie Wade or to even mention his name to him.

At this time, Cain asked diligently, "Mr. Webb, do you want me to kill this person as soon as I find him?"

Donald waved his hand as he said, "I do not need your help with anything else in this matter. I only need you to help me to find this person. After that, I will decide what I am going to do and how I am going to deal with him."

Everyone at the dinner table had their own thoughts at this time.

The reason why the Webb family was holding this banquet dinner tonight was because of two matters. Moreover, the two matters that Donald needed help with was to ask them to help him look for someone. He was also offering a big and generous reward to anyone who would be able to look for a clue to help him find the identity of the young man Jasmine was in love with.

At this time, Donald said, "Okay, then. That is all I would like to ask all of you to help me with. We can start eating now. I would like to give a toast to all of you first."

Everyone picked up their wine glasses as they drank with Donald.

Cain then turned around to look at Donald before he asked, "Mr. Webb, I wonder how your second child, Kian, is doing now?"

Donald could not help but frown instinctively as soon as he heard his question.

What the hell was this man trying to do? Did he have to bring that matter up?

However, since Donald wanted to gather a few dogs for his own use, he could not be too harsh or demanding on these dogs. Therefore, he simply shook his head as he said, "He is not getting any better. I have already sent him back to the Webb family mansion in Sudbury."

Cain hurriedly replied, "Mr. Webb, I know that a genius doctor has recently arrived in Aurouss Hilll. It is rumored that he has extremely superb medical skills. He used to treat a lot of wealthy and powerful people in Eastcliff and Raventon! Why don't you seek his help to administer treatment for Kian?"

"Oh?" Donald put down his chopsticks before he hurriedly asked, "Who is this genius doctor you are talking about? What is his name?"

Cain hurriedly replied, "He is a reputable and well-known doctor, Dr. Anthony Simmons. It is said that his medical skills are even greater and of a higher standard compared to all the doctors at the National Medical Center."

Donald was very surprised and he asked again, "The genius doctor, Dr. Simmons, is in Aurouss Hilll? I thought he was still in Raventon!"

Even though the Webb family was the top family in the entire South Region, this did not include Raventon. Raventon was a municipality with the best economic development in the country. It was also a place where many talented individuals were hidden and concealed. Therefore, no one really knew how many talented and great people were hidden in Raventon.

It had been rumored that Anthony spent most of his time in Raventon. Besides that, he would also travel to Eastcliff occasionally to see some of the wealthier and more powerful patients. Donald had naturally heard about Anthony's medical skills. However, he never expected Anthony to actually be in Aurouss Hilll. After all, Aurouss Hilll was just a second-tier city that could not be compared to Raventon or even Eastcliff!

Cain laughed slightly before he hurriedly replied, "I am not too sure why the genius doctor, Dr. Simmons, suddenly decided to come to Aurouss Hilll. He even opened a medical clinic in Aurouss Hilll called the Serene World Clinic. That place is always packed with people, and even if you are willing to pay millions in dollars, you might not necessarily be able to see him!"

As he spoke, Cain continued, "I also heard that the genius doctor cured a patient with high paraplegia not too long ago! The whole world was shocked at this medical miracle!"

"Is that true?" Donald instantly felt ecstatic when he heard about this!

He would never have imagined that the genius doctor, Dr. Simmons, would actually be in Aurouss Hilll!

At this time, Donald could not help but feel that there might be hope for his second son if he looked for Anthony and asked for his help! He might be able to save his second son!

Chapter 631

When Donald learned that Anthony was in Aurouss Hilll, he became very excited.

He had already heard about Anthony's superb medical skills ever since a long time ago. Since Anthony could even cure the supposedly incurable high paraplegia, it would surely not be impossible for him to cure the strange disease and illness that his second son, Kian, has recently contracted!

As he thought about this, he was in a very good mood. After that, he turned around to look at Sean before he said, "Prepare a generous gift! We will go to the Serene World Clinic to see Dr. Anthony early tomorrow morning!"

Sean simply nodded as he said, "Okay, dad. I will make all the necessary preparations."

"Okay," Donald replied as a rare smile appeared on his face. He was very relaxed and much more relieved when he said, "I think that it would be best if we could solve all these problems at once. First, we can find a cure for your younger brother and find the culprit who did this to your younger brother! After that, we can try to win over Jasmine from the Moore family. I really hope that your brother can be cured and return to his normal self so that he can participate in your wedding with Jasmine as a normal and regular person."

Sean hurriedly replied, "Don't worry, dad. I will make sure that all your expectations and everything you wish for will come true. When I hold my wedding, I will ask my younger brother to be my best man!"

Donald nodded as he heaved a huge sigh of relief. After that, he exclaimed, "I am truly proud to call you my son!"

Sean had a pious smile on his face, but he was secretly feeling a little frustrated in his heart.

When his younger brother was still fine, he did not put too much thought into the future struggle that he would be facing with his younger brother when it came to the Webb family's inheritance. After all, his younger brother had not even graduated from university. Moreover, Kian had not even started learning the ropes and getting to know all the connections that the Webb family had in all of their businesses.

However, now that something unexpected had happened to his younger brother, Sean suddenly realized that this was actually a great thing for him.

Therefore, he did not really want his brother to return to normal at all.

Sean knew that he could not resist his father's instructions. Therefore, he could only secretly hope that Anthony would not be able to cure his younger brother's strange illness.

At this time, the few people who were seated around the dinner table were constantly praising and complimenting Donald. Some of them even took the initiative to stand up and humbly offer a toast to him from time to time.

Albert, Zeke, and Graham could all tell that Donald and his son, Sean, really wanted to discover Charlie Wade's identity. Once they discovered that Charlie Wade was the person that Jasmine was in love with, they would certainly try to take action against him.

As Albert had been in the underground world and since he had been fighting and killing people for decades, he had better eyes and much sharper instincts compared to everyone else.

When he put some careful thought into the entire matter, Albert suddenly had a strong feeling that the person who turned Kian into a poop-eating monster who had to eat shit every hour was none other than Charlie Wade.

After all, Albert really could not think of anyone else in Aurouss Hill apart from Charlie Wade who would be able to do this kind of mysterious thing.

The only thing that was bothering him was why would Charlie Wade make an enemy out of Kian?

Kian was just a young adult who was still in his early twenties. Moreover, he was only a few years younger than Charlie Wade.

He was not a member of the underground world and was just an ordinary student in the Aurous University of Finance and Economics. There was no way that Kian could actually be acquainted with Charlie Wade at all. Therefore, it was unlikely that they would become enemies..

At this time, Albert suddenly thought of something.

He suddenly recalled that Graham's daughter, Aurora, was also studying at the Aurous University of Finance and Economics!

He initially felt that there was no connection between Charlie Wade and Kian. However, now, he finally figured out a possible connection between Charlie Wade and Kian.

That link was none other than Aurora.

Did Charlie Wade and Kian cross paths or even have a contradiction with one another because of Aurora?

This was because Albert knew very well that Charlie Wade would not deliberately turn Kian into a poop-eating monster if there were no contradictions between them.

In his opinion, Charlie Wade had always been a very humble and low-key person who would never show off his skills or abilities!

Generally speaking, if the other party did not deliberately provoke or pick a fight with Charlie Wade, he would never take any actions against anyone else.

Therefore, Albert was certain that if his conjecture was right, Charlie Wade must have gotten into a conflict or disagreement with Kian because of Aurora.

Chapter 632

Albert could not help but feel a little worried when he thought about this.

He could tell that Donald truly hated the person who had had a run-in with Kian. Moreover, it was also obvious that he was very extremely angry and frustrated with the man that Jasmine was in love with.

If these two things pointed to two different people, both of them would undoubtedly face a fate worse than death. At the very least, in Donald's eyes, both of these targets would have to be killed.

If these two things pointed toward the same person, Albert believed that the Webb family would definitely do everything in their ability to kill and destroy this person.

Therefore, he could not help but feel a little worried about Charlie Wade.

Even though he knew that Charlie Wade was very strong and capable, he was still worried that Charlie Wade would be facing a lot of trouble when he faced a powerful and influential family such as the Webb family.

After the dinner, everyone walked Donald and his son, Sean, to the ground floor of The Heaven Springs. The several dogs, including Cain, insisted on accompanying Donald and Sean all the way to their parked car in the carpark.

Albert, Zeke, and Graham did not go along with them. After bidding farewell to Donald and Sean, the three of them exchanged glances with one another before they went back into The Heaven Springs.

After they gathered in Albert's office, Graham finally asked in a worried voice, "Brothers, it seems as though the Webb family will surely give their all to look for Mr. Wade and try to deal with him. What should we do?"

Zeke sighed before he said, "Although Jasmine's thoughts and feelings for Mr. Wade are obvious to all of us, I think that only a few of us know about this. No outsiders know about this matter."

Albert waved his hand before he said, "If the Webb family really wants to investigate and look into this matter, I don't think that we will be able to hide this from him for much longer. Furthermore, I think that we are not the only people who know about Miss Moore's feelings and affection for Mr. Wade. Everyone working for the Moore family will definitely know about this matter. Besides, anyone who has seen or witnessed Miss Moore's interactions with Mr. Wade would also be able to tell that she has feelings for him."

At this time, Albert added grimly, "I am not only worried about this matter."

After he spoke, Albert looked at Graham before he asked, "Mr. Quinton, is your daughter, Miss Aurora, currently studying at the Aurous University of Finance and Economics?"

"Yes." Graham smiled as he said, "The Aurous University of Finance and Economics is one of the best financial universities in this country. Among all of their subjects, I heard that the business management major at this university is simply fantastic. I really want her to be able to have a good business management study experience so that she will be able to help me with the family business in the future."

Albert nodded slightly before he said, "Then, did you know that the second son of the Webb family, Kian, also attended the Aurous University of Finance and Economics?"

"Yes, I know that." Graham nodded before he asked, "What's wrong?"

Albert replied, "I suspect that the reason why Kian came down with this sudden illness is all because of Mr. Wade!"

"What?!" Both Graham and Zeke exclaimed in shock.

Graham asked, "What makes you think that?"

Albert replied, "I think that it is possibly because of Aurora. If you truly want to find out the truth behind this matter, perhaps you should make a phone call to your daughter now and ask her whether she knows anything about Kian's condition."

Graham had a very serious expression on his face at this time.

He thought to himself for a brief moment before he nodded and said, "Okay, I will call Aurora right now."

Then, he quickly took out his cell phone and made a phone call to Aurora.

At this time, Aurora was practicing her fighting skills in the villa.

There was a huge room that was specifically reserved as Aurora's gym and exercise room in the Quinton family villa.

Aurora had been obsessed with fighting and exercising ever since she was a young girl. Therefore, she would always be working out and practicing her fighting skills at home whenever she had any free time to herself.

Ever since she had gotten to know Charlie Wade, Aurora had been practicing even harder.

In her opinion, Charlie Wade was a very capable and powerful man, and he would never be interested in a weak woman.

Therefore, she wanted to work hard to improve her own strength and physical abilities. Even if she knew that it would be impossible for her to catch up to Charlie Wade's strength and abilities, she did not want him to look down on her!

Chapter 633

Aurora was sweating profusely and panting from exhaustion at this time.

She had already completed several sets of exercises that she had planned for herself. After she was done with her exercises, she carefully observed herself in the huge mirror in front of her.

In fact, Aurora had a very good figure.

Since she was frequently exercising, her figure was very fit and muscular, and she had a better body line and shape compared to any ordinary girl.

At this time, Aurora was wearing a very tight-fitting shirt and a pair of yoga pants that were hugging her waist, hips, and legs as she tied her hair up in a neat ponytail. She looked extremely hot!

As she was admiring her figure in the mirror, all that was running through her mind was Charlie Wade.

As she thought about Charlie Wade, she suddenly felt very embarrassed and started blushing immediately.

Her father had always asked her to look for ways to get closer to Charlie Wade. However, Charlie Wade was always very mysterious with his whereabouts, and it seemed as though he was always appearing one moment and disappearing in the next. Even if Aurora wanted to look for him, she did not have any suitable reasons at all.

When she asked for Charlie Wade's help to save her best friend the last time, she never expected Charlie Wade to not only help her best friend get rid of the other party's psychological hints and manipulation, but that he would also unexpectedly turn Kian into the laughingstock of the entire country. Aurora could not help but admire and worship Charlie Wade for what he had done.

She had always liked and appreciated powerful men who could not only completely conquer her body and mind, but also a man who would be able to make her love him, believe in him, obey him, and even listen to everything that he said. To Aurora, Charlie Wade was the perfect candidate!

Just as she was thinking about Charlie Wade, her cell phone that was on the floor started ringing.

The cell phone's ringtone disrupted her thoughts immediately. Aurora looked down at her cell phone and realized that it was a phone call from her father. So, she quickly answered the phone without any hesitation.

"Dad!"

Graham quickly asked her solemnly, "Aurora, I have something to ask you, but you have to promise to answer me truthfully!"

Aurora did not know why her father was being so stern and serious. Therefore, she hurriedly replied, "Okay, dad. Please go ahead and ask me anything. I will answer all of your questions truthfully."

Graham asked, "Tell me the truth now. Were you the one who asked Mr. Wade to do whatever he did to Kian?"

"Ahh?!" Aurora was very flustered at this time and she quickly asked, "Dad, how did you find out about it? Did Mr. Wade tell you about it?"

Graham was shocked!

It was indeed her doing!

This girl had truly overstepped her boundaries!

Why had Charlie Wade helped her to deal with the second son of the Webb family?

Wasn't this simply causing trouble for Charlie Wade?

As he thought about this, Graham blurted out, "You little brat! I asked you to go to the Aurous University of Finance and Economics to study! Not to cause any trouble for Mr. Wade! Didn't you know about Kian's family background?!"

Aurora replied in a very aggrieved manner, "I really did not know... I only knew that his family was pretty well off. I did not know everything in detail..."

After that, Aurora continued speaking, "Besides, I did not ask Mr. Wade to deal with Kian at all. Kian was the one who used some psychological hints to control and manipulate my best friend. My best friend nearly committed suicide a couple of times because of him. Therefore, I had no other choice but to go and ask Mr. Wade for help..."

"Furthermore, I only intended to ask Mr. Wade to help me save my best friend. However, Mr. Wade was very dissatisfied with Kian and decided to teach him a lesson instead because he did not want to allow Kian to continue going around and causing harm to others!"

Chapter 634

"Sigh!" Graham could not help but sigh out loud. After that, he said, "You've caused quite some harm to Mr. Wade this time! Now, the Webb family is here to look for him! Donald is gathering all the heads of the powerful and prestigious families in Aurouss Hilll to help him find out more information about Mr. Wade!"

"What?!" Aurora started panicking, and she blurted out immediately, "Dad, will the Webb family try to find fault with Mr. Wade?"

Graham replied, "The Webb family is after Mr. Wade's life!"

Aurora cried out anxiously, and she hurriedly said, "Dad, this incident happened all because of me. Can you tell the Webb family that the reason why Kian turned out this way was because of me?! I do not want Mr. Wade to get involved and dragged into this matter because of me..."

"Are you honestly that stupid?!" Graham could not help but sigh as he said, "Do you think that the Webb family are really such reasonable people? Since Kian contracted this sudden illness because of Mr. Wade, do you honestly think that the Webb family will let Mr. Wade off just like that even if they find out that you were the one who asked for his help? If they find out the truth, they will definitely get rid of both you and Mr. Wade!"

"What should I do, then?" Aurora cried as she said, "Dad, I truly did not mean to cause any trouble for Mr. Wade. He's not in danger, right?"

Graham replied, "The Webb family has not found out that Mr. Wade was the one who did this. However, you have to tell me everything clearly now. How many people know about this matter?"

Aurora replied, "Only Mr. Wade and I know about this matter."

"Only the both of you?" Graham asked puzzledly, "What about your best friend? Doesn't she know anything about this matter at all?"

Aurora quickly replied, "It's actually very strange. It seems as though my friend does not remember anything about Mr. Wade at all. When she recalled this incident, she simply remembered that she suddenly had an epiphany that she should live well so that she could serve and make a contribution to society."

Graham could not help but sigh as he said, "Mr. Wade's methods and skills are truly superb! Both Kian and your best friend could not remember him at all after this happened."

As he spoke about this, Graham said again, "If that is the case, I feel much more relieved then. However, you should also take extra caution, and you must remember not to mention or talk about this matter to anyone else. Do you understand?"

Aurora hurriedly replied, "Yes, dad. I understand!"

"Okay." Graham continued, "To not cause any more trouble for Mr. Wade, you should also attend classes diligently from now onward. Avoid making any contact with Mr. Wade for the time being so that no one will find out about your relationship with him. Do you understand?"

In truth, Aurora felt a little sad and disappointed when her father told her not to contact Charlie Wade.

However, when she thought about it, she knew that her father had only said this because he did not want her to cause any trouble for Charlie Wade. Therefore, she quickly agreed and said, "Dad, I know what I have to do. Don't worry. I will be obedient and listen to your instructions."

"Okay, then." Graham felt a little more relieved at this time. "Okay, then, let's just do that for the time being. I have something else that I need to do now."

After he was done speaking, Graham hung up the phone immediately.

As soon as he hung up the phone, Zeke hurriedly asked, "Graham, was Mr. Wade really the one who gave Kian that strange illness?"

Graham nodded with a serious expression on his face. After that, he looked at Albert before he said seriously, "Don Albertt, your analysis was right!"

Albert said, "If so, should we talk to Mr. Wade about this matter? Should we tell him everything so that he can be prepared for what's coming?"

"Of course!" Graham hurriedly said, "We should not only tell him everything, but we also have to clarify the entire situation and let him know our position and attitude. Otherwise, when Mr. Wade finds out that we were having dinner with Donald, it would be very troublesome if he misunderstands us and thinks that we are going to back Donald up."

As soon as he spoke, Graham sighed before he said, "If I knew that Donald and his son, Sean, were planning to deal with Mr. Wade, I would not have attended the banquet dinner tonight even if it cost me my life!"

"Yes, me too!" Albert cursed, "I thought that I should be considerate and meticulous since the Webb family, the top and most prestigious family in the South Region, wanted to host a banquet dinner at The Heaven Springs. However, I really did not expect that the father and son were actually planning to deal with Mr. Wade! If I knew about this matter, I would rather offend the Webb family than allow Donald to host a banquet at The Heaven Springs. I even allowed him to use the Diamond Room that Mr. Wade previously sat in..."

Zeke blurted out, "Mr. Wade has been very kind and gracious toward the three of us. I am even carrying the magical pill that Mr. Wade gave to me on my body all the time. Therefore, the three of us should always remain loyal and dedicated to Mr. Wade. The most important thing right now is for us to inform Mr. Wade about this matter and explain everything to him so that he knows of our attitude and loyalty toward him."

Graham nodded before he said, "That's right. I will give Mr. Wade a call right now!"

Chapter 635

Charlie Wade had just eaten his dinner and was cleaning up the dishes in the kitchen at this time. When he received the phone call from Graham, he quickly answered the call before he asked, "Mr. Quinton, why are you looking for me?"

Graham hurriedly replied, "Mr. Wade, there is something I have to report to you after discussing this matter with Mr. White and Don Albertt."

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently before he said, "If there is anything you need to tell me, you can just speak to me directly. You don't have to be so polite toward me."

Graham quickly replied, "Okay, Mr. Wade. I will just say it, then. Today, Donald from the Webb family in Sudbury hosted a banquet dinner at The Heaven Springs. He invited some of the heads of the most wealthy and powerful families in Aurouss Hilll including Mr. White, Don Albertt, and myself to attend the banquet dinner tonight. Then, he asked us for some help to deal with some matters, and we felt that something was not right. Therefore, we decided to report this to you instead."

As soon as he heard that the Webb family had hosted a banquet dinner, Charlie Wade asked, "Why did the Webb family look for you?"

Graham explained, "Kian from the Webb family encountered a terrible situation not too long ago. The Webb family is trying to look for clues and evidence everywhere to find the culprit who placed Kian in this condition. I called Aurora just now and she has already confessed and told me everything that happened. I am afraid that the Webb family will come and look for you..."

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently before he said, "Yes, I am indeed the reason why Kian is in that condition right now. The main reason why I did what I did was because I found that young boy's behavior and attitude very unacceptable. I think that it is okay for him to fall in love with girls and start a relationship with them. However, I find it really very unforgivable for him to deliberately play around with these girls and to even manipulate them into hurting themselves because of him. Therefore, I decided to teach him a lesson so that he will not be able to hurt others anymore in the future."

Graham was very surprised at this time.

He was not surprised at what Charlie Wade had done, but he was surprised at Charlie Wade's direct and straight confession.

Graham felt that in Charlie Wade's opinion, turning the second son of the Webb family into a poop-eating monster was no different than simply squeezing an ant to death. He could not help but feel that Charlie Wade was not worried about the consequences of his actions at all.

At this time, he could not help but wonder how Charlie Wade could actually be so confident? How could he not have a care in the world even when he was facing the Webb family?

In the South Region, everyone would be in awe whenever someone mentioned the Webb family, but it seemed as though the Webb family was nothing to Charlie Wade at all.

Once Graham had regained his senses, he quickly said, "Mr. Wade, don't worry. The three of us will be very tight-lipped about this matter, and we will keep this to ourselves. Even if the Webb family finds out that you were the culprit behind this matter and wants to find trouble with you, we will not agree to help them at all!"

Charlie Wade smiled before he said, "You don't have to be so nervous and worried. They can come and try to exact revenge on me if they want to. I am Charlie Wade Wade, and I have never feared anything."

After that, Charlie Wade continued speaking, "In fact, you could even tell them directly that I was the one who did that to Kian. If Donald is not convinced or if he wants to deal with me, he can come and confront me directly then."

Graham quickly replied, "Mr. Wade, I know that you do not think that the Webb family is a threat to you at all. However, the Webb family has a very strong powerful status and strength in the South Region. It will surely be very troublesome for you in the future if you choose to become enemies with them."

After that, Graham continued, "Mr. Wade, in my opinion, I would like to suggest that you keep a low profile and not let the Webb family find out the truth about this matter. Otherwise, you will definitely face a lot of trouble in the future."

Charlie Wade smiled before he said, "Mr. Quinton, thank you for your concern, but you really do not need to worry too much about this matter. There is always a solution to every situation. We will deal with the problem when the time comes."

"Alright, then." After that, Graham continued speaking, "By the way, Mr. Wade, there is another reason why the Webb family decided to host this banquet dinner tonight."

Charlie Wade asked, "What is the second matter?"

Graham replied, "The Webb family seems to be very interested in getting Sean and Jasmine to get married. However, according to Donald, Jasmine has publicly confessed that she is already in love with someone else. Therefore, the Webb family wants us to help them uncover the identity of the man Jasmine is in love with..."

At this time, Graham asked tentatively, "Mr. Wade, are you the person Miss Moore is in love with?"

Charlie Wade paused slightly before he said, "You should not be talking nonsense without any concrete evidence. After all, I am already a married man. If this kind of rumors spread to the public, it will leave a huge impact on the girl's reputation."

Graham hurriedly replied, "Yes, Mr. Wade. You are right to criticize me. I will never say anything like this again in the future!"

"Okay." Charlie Wade said lightly, "The three of you do not have to worry too much about me. Just do what you have to do and don't take anything to heart. The Webb family alone is not a threat to me, and they will not be able to do anything to me."

Chapter 636

Actually, Charlie Wade knew very well in his heart that Jasmine definitely had some feelings for him.

However, he did not know how to deal with this kind of affection. Therefore, he decided to simply pretend that nothing was going on so that he could just deal with this matter in the future.

Donald woke up early the next day.

He was unable to sleep well all night because he was very worried and concerned about looking for Anthony to treat his second son, Kian.

Kian's current situation was still relatively pessimistic. His condition of having to eat shit had not been alleviated at all, and Kian's current emotion and mental health were also gradually starting to collapse.

Who wouldn't feel that way? He had to eat shit more than twenty times a day, and it was only inevitable for him to feel as though he was on the verge of collapse.

Furthermore, Kian himself had grown up as a spoiled and pampered child. The thought of having to do this kind of thing for the rest of his life was even more terrifying to him than death itself.

Therefore, Donald really hoped that he would be able to cure his son as soon as possible. He wanted his son to return to normal. At the same time, he also wanted to kill the person who had done this to his son. He was not only doing this for revenge but also so that they would not have to suffer any more consequences in the future.

As he was very determined to get this done, Donald did not even bother to have breakfast at the Moore family mansion. He simply woke his son up and they brought some bodyguards with them before heading directly to the Serene World Clinic.

Donald was filled with excitement and anticipation when they were in the car, but Sean was a little discouraged.

In fact, Sean actually hoped that his brother's condition would never be cured and that he would remain that way for the rest of his life. This way, he would be able to save himself a lot of trouble.

Therefore, he asked his father tentatively, "Dad, do you think Dr. Simmons will truly be able to cure my younger brother?"

"I believe that he will definitely be able to cure him." After that, Donald said calmly, "If Dr. Simmons can cure even high-paraplegia, I believe that it will not be an issue for him to cure your younger brother at all."

Sean nodded as he felt a little discouraged inside.

They arrived at the Serene World Clinic shortly after, and the bodyguard quickly opened the car door for Donald and his son.

As soon as Donald stepped out of his car, he saw that there was already a long line waiting outside the entrance of the Serene World Clinic.

He could not help but sigh as he said, "It seems as though this genius doctor is really amazing and well sought after."

At this time, an assistant walked up before he said respectfully, "Mr. Webb, Dr. Simmons only sees ten patients every day. However, the patients that he chooses to see are not according to the order of the queue, but according to the severity of the patient's illness. Even if you are standing at the front of the line, if Dr. Simmons feels that your illness is not as severe, he will not see you. Instead, he will simply recommend that you go to another hospital to treat your illness."

"Okay." Donald looked at the long line once again. When he saw that there were all kinds of people waiting in line, he waved his hand in disgust as he instructed his bodyguard, "Take some cash from the trunk and give each of these people one thousand dollars before asking them to leave the line immediately."

The bodyguard nodded before he quickly took some cash from the trunk and went to the front of the line and said in a loud voice, "The Serene World Clinic will be closed for the day. Those of you who are already standing in line can come forward and collect one thousand dollars from me now. After that, you can leave and come back another day!"

The crowd of people was all very dissatisfied. At this time, someone from the crowd shouted, "Why should we leave? You should just abide by the rules set up by the genius doctor, Dr. Simmons! Everyone has to line up to wait for treatment!"

The leader of the bodyguards snorted coldly before he cursed and said, "Why are you still f*cking making so much noise when we are already giving you one thousand dollars for no reason at all?!"

The man blurted out in response, "One thousand dollars? My mother is seriously ill, and I've brought her all the way here today to ask for the genius doctor's help. Do you truly think these one thousand dollars is that great? How about I give you one thousand dollars and you go as far away from this place as you possibly can instead?!"

"D*mn it! You don't appreciate it when we give you face?" The leader of the bodyguards glared at the man before he sneered and instructed his subordinates, "Beat him up! Beat him up nicely!"

Chapter 637

As soon as they heard his order, a few bodyguards quickly rushed forward before they grabbed the man and started punching and kicking him.

An old lady in her seventies who was standing next to the man started crying and shouting when she saw those men beating her son up. "I beg you, please stop beating him up already. We will just leave, we will leave now, okay?!"

The leader of the bodyguards said, "What the hell? You should have just done so from the very beginning!"

Then, the leader kicked the middle-aged man aside as he took out one thousand dollars and threw it on the man's face before he cursed, "Get out of here now!"

The old lady continued crying as she used all of her strength and effort to help her son to stand. The people who were gathered outside the Serene World Clinic were all very angry when they witnessed this scene. However, since they saw that the other party was already driving so many luxury cars with so many bodyguards with them, they knew that they could not afford to provoke them. Therefore, they could only keep silent as they swallowed their anger.

At this time, a few other bodyguards stepped forward before they handed one thousand dollars out to each person who was standing in line before they said, "Get lost!"

Some of the people quickly took the money before they ran away immediately. However, some people had more dignity and were unwilling to take the money. Instead, they simply turned around and left because they knew that they could not afford to offend them.

At this time, one of the staff working at the Serene World Clinic rushed out when he heard the noise and commotion outside. As soon as he witnessed this scene, he quickly asked, "What do you think you are doing? Why are you beating people up?"

"Why am I beating him?" The leader of the bodyguards asked as he frowned. "We are from the Webb family in Sudbury, and if anyone does not know their place, we will have no choice but to teach them a lesson to put them in their rightful place."

After he was done speaking, he glanced at the people who were still standing outside the Serene World Clinic before cursing and saying, "Why are you still here? Why don't you hurry up and leave already? Are you itching for a beating? Dr. Simmons is not seeing any other patients today! You'd better leave now while I am still giving you face!"

The staff replied indignantly, "Don't you think that you are being too much? Do you know the rules at the Serene World Clinic? If you want to receive medical treatment from Dr. Simmons, you will have to queue up just like everyone else!"

At this time, Sean replied coldly, "Those rules were administered by the genius doctor for these poor people, but those rules do not apply to the Webb family. In the South Region, whatever the Webb family says is the rule! These people must leave this place today because they are not worthy enough to appear at the same time and place as the Webb family!"

"You..." The staff was very furious at this point. After that, he blurted out, "How can you be so unreasonable and domineering?"

Sean replied icily, "Young man, who gave you the right to talk to a member of the Webb family in this manner? Are you tired of living?"

The staff simply replied in a humble and determined manner, "The Serene World Clinic is a place for the genius doctor to cure diseases and save the lives of his patients! Therefore, everyone who comes here will have to abide by the rules set by the genius doctor, Dr. Simmons!"

"Rules set by the genius doctor?" Sean snorted before he said, "Even the genius doctor will have to obey the rules set by the Webb family! If you don't believe me, you can ask the genius doctor to come out right now and you can see for yourself then!"

In truth, Sean was deliberately acting as arrogant as he possibly could because he felt that it would be best if Anthony refused to see the Webb family due to his arrogance and attitude. In that case, Anthony would surely refuse to treat his younger brother.

In short, he was simply trying to prevent Anthony from treating his brother because he did not want his younger brother to be cured of his strange illness.

Donald had not spoken a word after giving his bodyguards the instruction to pay the people off.

He had not said anything when the bodyguards stepped forward to drive the people away either. This was because he felt that this was the Webb family's usual style of getting things done.

Whenever the Webb family went out in public, they would never allow any ordinary people to be close to them or to be anywhere near them at all.

Even if the Webb family were to visit a store or shop, their bodyguards would always clear and chase all the other guests out of the shops so that the Webb family members could stroll and walk around in the shop freely.

They had already long been accustomed to enjoying this kind of privilege and special treatment. Therefore, even when they came to see Anthony today, they did not want to be associated or in line with all these ordinary people.

However, at this time, Donald could not help but feel that Sean's attitude was a little out of hand.

He felt that Sean could target and attack all these ordinary people, but he should not be targeting Anthony at all!

Chapter 638

After all, Anthony was not any ordinary person.

He was a genius doctor who was very famous and reputable throughout the entire country. Moreover, Anthony also had a lot of connections with a lot of wealthy and powerful people. There were also a lot of powerful and prestigious people who came here to ask for Anthony's diagnosis and treatment. Therefore, Donald knew that he had to be very respectful and polite toward Anthony if he wanted to ask for his help to treat his youngest son.

However, Donald did not realize that Sean was doing this intentionally. He only felt that his son was probably acting this way because he was already used to being spoiled and pampered. Therefore, he might have lost control of his temper because he was already used to being overbearing and domineering.

Donald quickly said, "Sean, the reason why we came here today is to ask for the genius doctor's help to treat your younger brother. We should not be rude and disrespectful toward him!"

Sean hurriedly replied, "I got it, dad. Sorry for losing control of my temper just now. I am willing to accept any punishment you have for me."

Donald waved his hand before he spoke to the staff of the Serene World Clinic, "Young man, please tell the genius doctor, Dr. Simmons, that Donald from the Webb family in Sudbury is here to visit and see him."

Even though the young man was very dissatisfied with this group of people, he did not dare to say anything because the leader of the bodyguards was glaring at him with a deadly expression on his face. Therefore, he could only simply turn around as he hurried back into the clinic to inform Anthony about this matter.

Very soon, Anthony walked out of the clinic with a very cold expression on his face.

He glanced at Donald and Sean who were standing at the entrance of his clinic before he frowned and asked, "Are both of you the ones who drove all my patients away without my consent? Don't you think you are being a little too unreasonable?"

Donald smiled slightly before he said, "Dr. Simmons, I am Donald from the Webb family. I believe you must have heard about me before."

Anthony glared coldly at Donald before he said, "Yes, I have heard about the Webb family who is the top family in Sudbury and the entire South Region. However, I have only just discovered and experienced the true potential and power of the Webb family for myself today!"

Donald smiled as he replied, "Dr. Simmons, please do not be angry anymore. Can we go in and talk?"

Upon saying that, Donald walked into the Serene World Clinic as though he was not an outsider who was not welcomed in this place.

Anthony was furious, and he snorted coldly as he said, "Sorry, but I cannot afford to treat you because the Webb family is simply too powerful. Therefore, I don't think that we have anything to talk about."

Donald continued smiling as he said, "Dr. Simmons, you are a genius doctor that is recognized all around the country. Why do you need to be so angry just because of a bunch of poor people? I know that you are a genius doctor who is recognized by everyone in the upper-class society. Therefore, you should put greater value and attention in treating large and powerful families. Will you even be able to pay your rent if you focus on treating these poor people?"

Anthony replied earnestly, "The reason why I opened the Serene World Clinic is because I want to help people who need my help to cure their illnesses and diseases. I did not open this clinic just because I want to make money. In fact, there are also times where I treat some of my poorer patients without taking a single penny from them! I will just donate medicine and money to them if they are in need. If my intention was just to make more money, why would I even bother opening my clinic in Aurouss Hill!?!"

Donald was slightly taken aback because he could not believe that Anthony did not open his clinic to make money.

He did not believe that there could be a person who was not doing something for money.

The only possibility he could think of was that the money that had been offered was not high enough!

Therefore, Donald opened his mouth as he said, "Dr. Simmons, I have heard about your name and reputation for a very long time, and I know that there is not a disease or illness in this world that you will not be able to cure. Therefore, I came here today to seek your help to treat my youngest son."

Then, Donald continued speaking, "Why don't we do this instead? You can close your clinic for the day, and I will arrange for a private jet to bring you to Sudbury. I will give you ten million dollars to make a trip there to take a look at my son, and if you manage to cure him of his illness, I will give you another fifty million dollars!"

Anthony waved his hand before he replied faintly, "Excuse me, sorry, but I am only based in the Serene World Clinic now. Aside from my close and old friends, anyone who wants to see me will have to come to the Serene World Clinic to receive treatment."

After that, Anthony added, "In addition to that, anyone who wants to come to the Serene World Clinic to receive treatment will have to abide by the rules that I have already set here. However, I am truly disgusted by your behavior and attitude because you drove all my patients away today. Therefore, you and your family are not welcomed here!"

Chapter 639

Anthony had met with many big and powerful figures before, and some of them had an even more powerful and higher status compared to Donald. However, those big figures actually treated him with reverence and respect.

This was the first time Anthony had met anyone such as the Webb family, who was being so disrespectful toward him.

Even though the Webb family was indeed the top and most influential family in Sudbury and the South Region, Anthony was not afraid of them at all. Therefore, he simply turned down and refused their request flatly.

Donald could not help but frown. He never expected Anthony to blatantly ignore his request. Since he had already made a personal trip to invite the genius doctor to make a trip to see his youngest son, he expected him to immediately agree to his request. He did not expect Anthony to turn down his request without any hesitation whatsoever!

Donald was very annoyed at this time, and he said coldly, "Dr. Simmons, I truly hope that you can speak to me more politely. Do you really need me to remind you how powerful and influential the Webb family is?"

Anthony snorted coldly before he replied arrogantly, "I have already lived to such an old age, my tone and the way I speak has always been like this. If you cannot accept the way I speak, you are free to leave."

"You..."

Donald was extremely furious inside!

Ever since he had arrived at Aurouss Hilll, he felt that the people here were all a little strange.

He could not understand why there seemed to be obstacles wherever he went. Moreover, it seemed as though it was completely useless for him to bring up the Webb family's name and reputation in Aurouss Hilll.

The banquet dinner last night was also proof of his suspicions. Even though Zeke, Graham, and Albert were all very polite and respectful toward him on the surface, they did not take any of his requests seriously at all.

However, at this point, even Anthony dared to be so impolite and disrespectful toward him! Did the people in Aurouss Hilll really have no fear for the Webb family from Sudbury at all?

When Sean saw the anger and rage in his father's eyes, he immediately realized that this was his golden opportunity to perform. Therefore, he quickly yelled, "Old man, how dare you talk to my father in this manner? Do you believe that I will smash your hospital to pieces today?"

Donald quickly stopped Sean before he looked at Anthony and smiled as he said, "I am sorry, Dr. Simmons. Please do not be offended by my son's words. He is just a young man, and young men nowadays are all very impulsive and have a very bad temper."

After that, Donald suppressed the anger that he was feeling in his heart and said, "Dr. Simmons, the reason why I came to look for you today is because I wanted to ask you to make a trip to Sudbury to take a look at my son. Sudbury is not too far away from Aurouss Hilll, and you can arrive there in one hour on a private jet. I will give you ten million dollars if you just make a trip there to see if you can treat my son's illness. What do you think of this proposal?"

Anthony shook his head before he said lightly, "I have no way to cure your son. So, please leave now..."

"You..." Sean retorted angrily, "You old man! You do not even know what disease or illness my younger brother has! If so, how can you say that you have no way to cure him? Are you simply disregarding the Webb family now?!"

The expression on Donald's face was also very dark. He looked at Anthony before he said coldly, "Dr. Simmons, why do I feel as though you hold a grudge against the Webb family?"

Anthony glared at him coldly as he said, "You came to my clinic today, and you refused to abide by my rules. After that, you drove all my patients away without my consent. Aren't you the one who is finding fault with me in the first place?"

Donald replied coldly, "I've already told you that I was not targeting you! I was only targeting the poor people because they are not worthy of being under the same roof as me!"

Anthony sneered before he said, "What a joke! All beings are equal in this world. Can you control anyone who is under the same sky as you?"

Donald replied, "I might not be able to manage and control everyone under the sky, but I can control everyone under the same roof as me!"

After that, Donald said sharply, "Anthony Simmons, I am already giving you a lot of face by personally making this trip here today. I have also prepared a very generous gift for you. If you agree to come and take a look at my son, I will give you ten million dollars, and I will also give you the gift. However, if you refuse to make the trip to take a look at my son, you will be an enemy of the Webb family!"

Anthony then replied humbly, "I've already told you that I have no way to cure your son. If you really have to regard me as an enemy of your family, you can just do as you please. I have been practicing medicine for a lifetime, and I have already dedicated my life and death to practicing medicine. Don't bother telling me that you are from the Webb family in Sudbury. There is nothing I can do even if you are from the Schulz family in Eastcliff or the Wade family in Eastcliff! I only have this life, and you can take it if you want to!"

Chapter 640

The expression on Donald's face was very ugly at this time.

He never expected Anthony to be so firm.

All he had done was chase those pathetic and poor people away from the clinic, and yet, Anthony was already finding fault with him because of this?

Donald truly felt like giving Anthony a tight slap across his old face when he was faced with Anthony's arrogant attitude. After all, he had never been so humiliated and disrespected before in his entire life.

However, as he thought about it carefully, he still did not dare to offend Anthony.

Anthony was a national expert in Chinese medicine, and he could easily be regarded as one of the top doctors in the country. Donald could not even keep count of the number of powerful and influential people who had been treated and cured by Anthony. Donald knew that many wealthy and powerful people in Eastcliff had already benefited a lot from Anthony. If he really had the guts to beat him up today, he would only bring about a lot of hatred and trouble for himself.

Therefore, he could only endure the urge to do something to Anthony and snort as he said, "Dr. Simmons, you came from a benevolent and gracious generation of famous and reputable doctors. Why are you being so difficult today? You have not even met my youngest son, so how can you possibly say that there is no way for you to cure him at all?"

After that, Donald continued speaking, "I can accept it if you say that there is nothing you can do to treat and cure Kian if you say so after you see him! So, if you are really a genius doctor, I sincerely hope that you will take the initiative to make a trip to Sudbury for my son's sake!"

Anthony replied coldly, "Donald, don't you know anything about your youngest son at all? Don't you know about his personality and character? Even an old man like me has already heard about all his deeds and doings. Just because he has some money, he would go around deceiving and playing with girls' feelings before he slowly controls and manipulates their thoughts. Your youngest son takes pleasure and pride in allowing young girls to harm themselves or even commit suicide because of him! Even if I were to die today, I, Anthony Simmons, will never treat someone like him!"

Donald was extremely furious at this point!

He thought to himself, 'The one with the last name Simmons! I have already tolerated you long enough! It seems as though you are really seeking death today!'

After that, Donald replied coldly, "Anthony Simmons, do you mean to say that you are going to go against the will of the Webb family?"

Anthony replied, "It is your freedom to think and say whatever you want to, but no matter what you say, I will never treat your son! The both of you can walk yourselves out now."

Donald had a very cold and stern expression on his face as he said, "It seems as though the Webb family will have no power or authority in Aurouss Hillll if I do not show you what we are capable of."

Then, Donald stared at Anthony before he said, "You with the last name Simmons, have you ever thought about the consequences of offending the Webb family?"

"Consequences? What are the consequences?" Anthony sneered before he said, "So, is the Webb family planning to kill me to get rid of me?"

At this time, Donald really had a killing intent in his eyes. He was truly tempted to kill Anthony and dispose of him.

However, he also knew very well that he could not afford to kill Anthony.

If he killed him and someone with high power and influence needed to seek Anthony's medical treatment, he would definitely be in big trouble.

After a moment of silence, Donald replied with a black face, "I will not kill you, but if word spreads out to the public that you do not have any respect for the Webb family, the Webb family will definitely suffer a huge blow to our reputation! Therefore, I am going to let you know the consequence and price you will have to pay for offending the top family in the South Region!"

As soon as his voice fell, Donald turned around and instructed his bodyguards, "Come and tear his clinic apart now! I want you to smash everything in his clinic!"

Anthony rebuked Donald as he yelled out, "Donald, I dare you to do that!"

Donald snorted coldly before he said angrily, "You with the last name Simmons, I know that you are acquainted and connected to a lot of wealthy and powerful people. Therefore, I have no choice but to think twice about killing you. However, I have no worries or fear at all to smash everything in your clinic and tear your clinic apart."

After that, Donald continued yelling, "Let me tell you something. Anthony Simmons, if you dare to open another clinic in the future, I will send my men to smash your clinic again. I will destroy your clinic every time you try to open a new one. I really want to see who can help you out then!"

Chapter 641

As soon as Donald's voice fell, all of his bodyguards swarmed into the clinic immediately!

The bodyguards began kicking all of the medicine racks on the sides of the clinic as they knocked down all the Chinese medical herbs and materials to the ground. After that, they also smashed all the medicine pots into pieces on the ground.

In a blink of an eye, the huge medical hall had turned into a complete mess.

Anthony trembled in anger, but he knew that there was no way he would be able to stop them. Therefore, he could only watch silently as the bodyguards continued smashing and destroying his clinic in front of him.

The clinic was completely in a mess and ruined, and it did not look anything like it did just a short while ago.

Donald snorted coldly before he said, "Dr. Simmons, I will give you another three days to consider my proposal. Before you agree to my request, I will come and smash and destroy your clinic if you dare to reopen your clinic at any time! You'd better think twice before you do anything or make any decisions..."

After that, Donald turned around as he left the clinic with Sean and his bodyguards.

When the young staff working at the Serene World Clinic saw that everything in the medical hall had been smashed and destroyed, he cried out loud as he asked Anthony, "Dr. Simmons, should we call the police?"

Anthony waved his hand slightly before he said, "No. The Webb family is very influential and has connections everywhere. Even if we called the police, we will not be able to solve anything at all."

The young man hurriedly asked, "What should we do, then?"

Anthony replied, "We will just repair and fix all the damages done to the Serene World Clinic so that we can reopen and resume business as soon as possible."

The young man quickly said, "But the guy just now said that if you reopen your clinic, he will send his men over to smash and destroy your clinic again..."

Anthony replied indifferently, "So, does that mean that I will stop opening my clinic and medical hall just because I am afraid that he will send his men here to smash and destroy my clinic? I have been studying medicine my entire life. Should I really stop seeing or treating my patients simply because I am afraid he will send his men to come and destroy my clinic?"

When the young man saw the indifferent expression on Anthony's face, he could not help but sigh. He could feel the courage of the old genius doctor, and he knew that he was a very kindhearted man who was worried about the patients who would not be able to receive his treatments.

At this time, the young man quickly asked, "Should I call Sister Xyla and ask her to come back as soon as possible? She is probably waiting to pick you up so that you can attend Lord Moore's birthday banquet."

Anthony nodded as he suddenly recalled that today was Lord Moore's birthday!

When Lord Mooore had come to see him for treatment a few days ago, he had already told him about his upcoming eightieth birthday banquet. Lord Mooore had also personally invited him to participate and attend his birthday banquet.

Xyla specifically drove to Raventon yesterday so that she could prepare a birthday gift for Lord Mooore. She was planning to drive back to Aurouss Hilll this morning before coming to the Serene World Clinic to pick him up so that they could go to the Moore family mansion together.

At this time, Anthony suddenly recalled that he had heard rumors stating that Donald and his son were both currently staying at the Moore family mansion!

Therefore, both of them would definitely be attending the birthday banquet that would be held at noon later!

As he thought about this, Anthony suddenly decided not to attend the birthday banquet anymore. If he attended the birthday banquet, he would inevitably run into the father and son from the Webb family. He did not want to end up quarreling with them and causing trouble for the birthday star who was already old.

Anthony felt that it would be better if he did not go instead.

Moreover, he truly did not have the mood to attend the birthday banquet at this time.

The Serene World Clinic had been smashed and destroyed, and all he could think about was how he could restore and reopen his clinic as soon as possible.

Besides, Anthony knew very well that he could not possibly take the Serene World Clinic off his mind at this moment. Even if he forced himself to attend Lord Mooore's birthday banquet, he would be very absent-minded at the party because he would not be able to get his mind off the Serene World Clinic.

If Lord Mooore noticed that something was amiss, Anthony would be placed in a very difficult position if he had to explain himself.

After putting some thought into it, Anthony gave Lord Mooore a call. He excused himself from the party, stating that he couldn't make it because he wasn't feeling too well.

Lord Mooore was very worried and concerned about Anthony and was only relieved after Anthony told him that he was merely feeling a little under the weather because he had caught a cold as it was rather chilly nowadays. Lord Mooore did not force Anthony to come for his birthday banquet, but he made an appointment to meet up with him in private some other day instead.

At this time, Donald and his son were both driving back to the Moore family mansion after leaving the Serene World Clinic.

Donald's initial plan was to come over and tell Anthony about his youngest son's condition. He was originally certain that Anthony would have definitely agreed to help the Webb family. Therefore, he had already prepared to make the necessary arrangements for a private jet to send Anthony over to Sudbury immediately to treat his youngest son, Kian. After that, he would attend Lord Moore's birthday banquet with Sean before heading back to Sudbury after the party.

Chapter 642

However, Donald never expected reality to be so cruel even though he had already planned everything perfectly.

Anthony had directly rejected Donald's proposal without any hesitation whatsoever. Besides that, he even said that his youngest son could only blame himself for the predicament that he was in. This made him very angry.

After getting into the car, Donald continued cursing as he said, "Anthony, that old dog! He really does not know what's good for himself! I would have taken his life if I did not have to worry about getting into a lot of trouble!"

On the contrary, Sean was secretly feeling very happy.

He had initially been very worried that Anthony would truly be able to cure his younger brother.

Unexpectedly, after visiting his clinic, Anthony had actually completely refused to treat his younger brother. As a result, Sean would not have to worry about having a strong competitor on his path to inheriting the Webb family fortune.

However, he could not publicly display his feelings or emotions. Therefore, he could only say, "Dad, why don't we hire a few hitmen to go over and kill that old man one night?"

"No!" Donald blurted out immediately. "Even though this old man might not have a lot of money, many powerful and influential people actually owe him a lot of favors. They are all expecting him to live a long and healthy life. Killing him would be equivalent to pronouncing the early deaths of many powerful figures in advance. At that time, the Webb family will definitely become the subject of public criticism!"

Sean nodded before he said, "Alright, then. We will just do everything according to what you have decided, dad. We will smash and destroy his clinic as long as he dares to reopen it in the future!"

Donald replied, "That is just a little something to intimidate the old man. It would be best if I can force him to agree to see and treat your younger brother."

Sean felt a little nervous, and he blurted out, "But Dad, that old man simply refused to agree to your request!"

Donald replied, "That is why I am going to ask for Lord Mooore's help to intercede on my behalf."

Sean hurriedly said, "Dad, it is Lord Mooore's birthday banquet today. So, I think that it would not be appropriate for us to ask him for this favor now, right?"

"You're right." Donald nodded before he said, "We will talk to him about it tonight or tomorrow."

Then, Donald looked at Sean before he said, "You have to hurry up and look for ways to cultivate and build a relationship with Jasmine as soon as you can. You have to get her to agree to marry you as soon as possible!"

Sean nodded before he said, "Dad, don't worry. I have already instructed Cain to help me to carefully prepare a gift for Jasmine. I will give her the gift later. I believe that she will positively like it."

Donald nodded before he said, "This young woman is very capable. If you can marry her, she will surely be of great help to the Webb family in the future. When you inherit the Webb family business, your grandfather and I can rest assured if you have Jasmine by your side to help you."

Sean had a very determined expression on his face as he said, "Dad, don't worry. I will definitely marry Jasmine and make her my woman!"

As they continued chatting, they had already arrived at the entrance of the Moore family mansion.

The lights were already lit up outside the main entrance of the Moore family mansion at this time.

As the head of the top and most influential family in Aurouss Hilll, Lord Mooore was a person of high status and authority. Therefore, it was only natural that his birthday banquet was very grand and luxurious.

Even though the banquet had not officially begun, many guests had already arrived in advance as they waited outside the gate of the mansion.

The Moore family was the top and most influential family in Aurouss Hilll after all. Thus, many smaller families were still trying to get into their good books.

Consequently, no one dared to neglect Lord Mooore's birthday banquet.

At this time, even though Marcus's father, Cain, was not invited to attend Lord Mooore's birthday banquet, he had been waiting outside the gate of the Moore family mansion for a very long time.

When he saw Donald and his son arriving back at the Moore family mansion, he quickly rushed forward with a beautiful gift box in his hand.

As soon as Sean rolled the car window down, Cain hurriedly said, "Young Master Webb, I have the gift that you asked me to prepare for you. This is the finest masterpiece of the top Italian jewelry designer, Mr. Fischer. You gave me one hundred million dollars for it, but I only used ninety-eight million dollars!"

Sean took the gift box from his hand and when he opened it, he saw a beautifully shaped bracelet inlaid with dozens of pink natural diamonds which was very valuable.

Donald asked, "Did you prepare this bracelet for Jasmine?"

"Yes." Sean smiled before he said, "The bracelet she is wearing right now looks very cheap and ugly! I believe that bracelet only cost several hundred thousand dollars. I think she will absolutely love this bracelet that I am going to give to her!"

Chapter 643

When Donald saw that Sean had already begun to take action, he nodded in satisfaction as he praised him, "Good job, Sean! You have already learned to observe the fine details so that you can take advantage of the situation to advance forward!"

Sean smiled before he said, "Dad, I have already been following you around for so long, thus, I have learned and picked up some of your skills. However, I still have a lot to learn from you as I am still far behind you."

"No," Donald said seriously, "It is good enough that you noticed that Jasmine's bracelet is relatively old and worthless. That is already a very big improvement. Moreover, you even took the initiative to buy her a nicer and more expensive bracelet. That proves that you are already learning to take action because you are much more mature and stable now! That is not bad at all. You did very well!"

Sean was overjoyed when his father praised him. When he saw Cain looking at him with a desperate expression on his face, Cain smiled before he said in satisfaction, "Cain, this bracelet is truly very beautiful. You did very well this time. If you continue doing things this well for me in the future, I will not treat you badly at all."

Cain replied respectfully, "Yes, sir! I will do my absolute best for you!"

After that, Cain hurriedly handed the remaining two million dollars to Sean as he said, "This is the remaining two million dollars after buying the bracelet."

When Sean saw how sincere Cain was, he was very satisfied and he said, "You can keep the two million dollars for yourself."

Even though Cain did not care about the two million dollars at all, he knew that this was a reward and incentive that Sean was giving to him. Therefore, he nodded in excitement before he said gratefully, "Thank you, sir!"

At this time, Donald was also looking at Cain with a very satisfied expression on his face.

He did not expect Cain to not only have a sufficiently pious attitude, but the latter had also gotten his work done so neatly and perfectly.

Besides, Cain was also the first person who had pledged his allegiance and agreed to become the Webb family's dog after they had come to Aurouss Hilll.

Therefore, Donald felt that he should reward Cain for his loyalty.

At this time, Donald suddenly asked, "Cain, did Lord Mooore invite you to attend his birthday banquet today?"

Cain smiled bitterly before he said, "Mr. Webb, to tell you the truth, how could someone of my status and identity possibly have been invited to attend Lord Mooore's birthday banquet?"

In fact, there were many people like Cain who were not qualified enough to participate in Lord Mooore's birthday banquet. However, they were all still hoping and dreaming that they could be given the opportunity to participate and attend the banquet.

This was because all the top and most influential people in Aurouss Hilll would naturally be invited to attend Lord Mooore's birthday banquet. Therefore, it would be a perfect and uniquely convenient opportunity for anyone to expand their contacts and connections here today.

Donald looked at Cain before he smiled slightly and said, "I know that you will not be able to get into the birthday banquet by yourself. However, since you are also working for the Webb family now, I will bring you around to meet more people. I would also like the people in Aurouss Hilll to know that you are working for the Webb family now."

Cain was ecstatic and quickly said, "Thank you, Mr. Webb! Thank you for giving me such a great opportunity. I will definitely continue to do my best for you and your son."

For someone like Cain, he would never have been qualified enough to attend Lord Mooore's birthday banquet on his own. However, Donald was actually willing to bring him in so that he could be a part of this party. This alone was enough to make Cain feel extremely grateful toward Donald.

At this time, Donald said lightly, "Alright then, get in the car. We can continue talking after going inside."

Cain hurriedly got into the co-driver seat before he followed Donald and his son as they drove into the Moore family mansion.

The father and son eventually stopped their car in the courtyard of the Moore family mansion. As soon as they stepped out of the car, they saw Jasmine, who was dressed in an extremely dignified and beautiful red dress, running out of the mansion.

Jasmine had put on her makeup even more carefully today, so she looked much more beautiful compared to her usual self.

Sean was stunned, and it took a short while for him to come back to his senses. When he saw Jasmine getting into her car, he rushed forward before he opened Jasmine's car door and asked, "Jasmine, where are you going?"

Jasmine replied indifferently, "I am going to pick up a distinguished guest!"

Sean asked disdainfully, "What kind of distinguished guest is so important that you actually have to go and pick him up in person?"

Jasmine replied lightly, "Of course, he is the most important guest!"

Jasmine then said, "Can you please let go of my car door? I have to leave now."

Chapter 644

Sean felt a little sullen in his heart. Both he and his father were standing in front of Jasmine right now. Yet, unexpectedly, Jasmine had actually said that there was an even more important guest compared to them. Who else in Aurouss Hilll could be more important than his father and himself?

In other words, who else in Aurouss Hilll could possibly have even greater status or power compared to the Webb family?

Even though he was feeling a little upset, Kian continued speaking in a very gentlemanly manner as he said, "By the way, Jasmine, I've specially prepared a gift for you. I am not sure whether you will like it or not."

Jasmine frowned before she said, "Mr. Webb, you should keep the gift. I do not need anything, and I do not want you to spend so much on me. Besides, I simply cannot accept your gift for no reason at all."

At this time, Sean hurriedly took out the gift box Cain had given to him before he said earnestly, "Jasmine, why are you being so polite with me? In fact, I noticed that the bracelet you have been wearing is very old and worn out. I couldn't help but feel a little distressed for you. You are the dignified young lady of the Moore family, so how could you possibly be wearing such a simple and cheap piece of jewelry?"

As he spoke, Sean had already taken out the bracelet he had bought as he said, "Jasmine, this bracelet is a masterpiece created by the Italian jewelry designer, Mr. Fischer. It is the only limited edition bracelet in this world and is worth one hundred million dollars. I bought this bracelet especially for you. This bracelet will surely match your identity and temperament. That piece of rubbish on your hand should have been thrown into the trash can a long time ago!"

Sean initially thought that every woman in the world would love any kind of expensive jewelry. Therefore, he believed that Jasmine would be no exception.

Sean was confident that this bracelet that he had bought at a high and expensive price would definitely touch Jasmine's heart.

However, he never expected the expression on Jasmine's face to change as soon as she heard his words. Moreover, she was staring at Sean with unprecedented anger and disgust on her face!

Yes, the bracelet on her hand was not worth a lot of money, and it did look a little old and worn out.

But!

This bracelet was a relic her mother had left behind for her!

Ever since her mother had passed away a long time ago, Jasmine had been wearing this bracelet on her hand because it carried a very precious and extraordinary meaning to her! She truly loved and treasured this bracelet very much.

In the past, when she had been accidentally trapped in the terrifying Feng Shui 'dragon encapsulation formation', she had not even been that upset or afraid when she had almost died in several car accidents. However, she had felt as though she was in extreme pain and that she would rather be dead when she realized that she had lost the bracelet her mother had left to her.

That was also the reason why she had invited Master Lennard to come over to Aurouss Hillll all the way from Hong Kong to help her to change her fortune. All so she would be able to find her bracelet.

However, she had almost been killed because of that fake Master Lennard!

If Charlie Wade had not stepped in to help her resolve the 'dragon encapsulation formation' she was trapped in because he noticed that something was amiss, she would have already lost her life a long time ago.

The reason why she could retrieve her lost bracelet was all thanks to Charlie Wade!

If Charlie Wade had not broken the 'dragon encapsulation formation', she would never have the luck to retrieve her precious bracelet!

It was obvious that this bracelet was indeed very precious to Jasmine!

However, the important and precious bracelet which carried all her feelings and longings, that was entrusted to her by her mother, was actually regarded as rubbish to Sean! Sean had even asked her to throw her bracelet into the trash can! This made Jasmine so angry that she felt as though she was going to explode in anger.

At this time, Jasmine pushed Sean's hand which was holding the diamond bracelet away as she said coldly, "Sean! This bracelet is a relic that my mother left behind for me. It is even more precious to me than my own life. Who gave you the right to insult my bracelet?"

Sean was stunned.

F*ck! What the hell?

That broken bracelet turned out to be a relic left behind by Jasmine's mother?

Wasn't he merely shooting himself in the foot?!

Sean became very upset, and before he could find a way to salvage the situation, Jasmine had already angrily closed the car door and stepped on the accelerator, driving away immediately.

Sean stood alone in a daze, and the expression on his face at this time was even uglier than the expression his younger brother had whenever he had to eat shit every hour...

Chapter 645

Sean truly felt like dying at this very moment.

He would never have dreamt that the broken bracelet on Jasmine's wrist would turn out to be a relic left behind by her mother...

Moreover, he had even said that the relic left behind by her mother was nothing more than a piece of garbage...

This was a complete disaster!

Jasmine was already originally cold and indifferent toward him. Therefore, he was initially planning to rely on this bracelet to earn himself some points.

Unexpectedly, he had only dug his own grave...

This time, his score in Jasmine's mind had probably been reduced to a negative score.

At this time, Donald, who had been standing not too far away, could not help but feel a little puzzled as he stared at his son who was left standing all alone in a daze.

Didn't his son go over to give Jasmine the gift just now?

Jasmine must have been very happy to receive such an expensive gift.

If so, why did Jasmine drive away in such haste?

As he had some doubts in his heart, Donald walked over to his son before he patted him gently on the shoulder and asked, "How did things go with Jasmine?"

When Donald saw that Sean was still holding the diamond bracelet in his hand, he asked in surprise, "Did Jasmine reject your gift?"

Sean had a very sad and miserable expression on his face as he said, "Dad, the broken bracelet that Jasmine was wearing was actually a relic that her mother left behind to her... I did not know about it. I even said that the bracelet was just a worthless piece of rubbish that was not worthy of someone of her temperament and status..."

"D*mn it..."

Donald was also very surprised at this time.

After that, he sighed as he said, "Sean! You should have known that someone of Jasmine's status and identity would never wear such a cheap and shabby bracelet for no reason at all. Since she was wearing the bracelet on her hand, there should have been a deeper and hidden meaning behind it! You are simply too careless!"

Sean was about to cry, and he looked at his father with an aggrieved expression on his face as he said, "Dad, you told me earlier that I was very meticulous and focused, so how could you say that I am careless now..."

Donald flushed and arranged his thoughts before he said seriously, "You have indeed begun to be a little more observant, but your observation is not detailed enough. You should learn a lesson from your mistake this time and make sure that you do not make the same mistakes anymore in the future."

Sean sighed before he said, "Well, I know, dad..."

After that, Sean said, "By the way, dad, Jasmine drove out to pick someone up in person. She even said that the person she was going to pick up was the most distinguished and important guest today. Dad, what kind of distinguished guest could he possibly be that the Moore family actually takes him so seriously?"

Donald frowned before he replied, "I do not know anything about that. As far as I know, apart from us, the guests that the Moore family has invited to attend Lord Mooore's birthday banquet today are some of their old friends and business partners in Aurouss Hilll. I did not hear about them inviting any distinguished guests to participate in the banquet today."

"That's weird," Sean muttered. "Do you think Jasmine went to pick up her sweetheart, then?"

"I'm not too sure about that." Donald said, "You'd better pay attention to see who Jasmine comes back with later."

"Okay."

At this time, Jasmine was driving to Charlie Wade's house.

Even though she knew that she should be staying at home to help out since it was her grandfather's eightieth birthday banquet, Jasmine really missed Charlie Wade. Therefore, she decided to come out to pick him up personally so that she could spend some time alone on the road with him.

Once Charlie Wade arrived at the Moore family mansion, she would definitely not have the opportunity to talk to him in private since there would be so many other guests around.

When Lord Mooore heard that Jasmine was heading out to pick Charlie Wade up, he naturally agreed without any hesitation. Although Charlie Wade was already a married man, Lord Mooore had already long regarded Charlie Wade as the future grandson-in-law of the Moore family.

As Jasmine was on the way to Charlie Wade's house, she took out her cell phone as she prepared to call Charlie Wade.

Since it was a weekend, everyone in the family would wake up later than usual. Therefore, Charlie Wade only prepared and set breakfast on the table at ten o'clock in the morning.

Chapter 646

Claire Wilson Wilson came out of the bedroom as she stretched her waist and asked Charlie Wade, "Do you have something on today?"

Charlie Wade replied, "I am going to attend a friend's birthday party later at noon."

After that, Charlie Wade asked Claire Wilson Wilson, "Wife, did you need something?"

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded slightly before she said, "Yes, I wanted to do some shopping, but if you're busy, you can go ahead and do your own thing! I will ask Loreen to accompany me."

Charlie Wade replied, "Sorry, my dear wife. You can go shopping with Loreen today. I will accompany you some other day."

Claire Wilson smiled slightly as she said, "Okay, then."

Charlie Wade's mother-in-law, Elaine Ma, had a very black face as she said, "Oh, Charlie Wade, are you going to attend your friend's birthday party? Is he old?"

Charlie Wade nodded as he said, "Yes, he is eighty years old."

Elaine Ma sneered before she said, "Are you trying to use your set of silly skills to try and fool those old men so that you can cheat them out of all their money?"

Charlie Wade simply replied, "I did not lie to anyone."

"You are still pretending even now?" Elaine Ma said as she snorted coldly. "Are there any more wealthy and powerful figures in Aurouss Hilll that have not been fooled by you yet? Let me tell you something. I can already predict your future. You are no different from those fortune-tellers from back then. Only two futures are awaiting you. You will either end up in prison or get hacked to death!"

Elaine Ma had been very upset with Charlie Wade recently. The main reason was simply because Charlie Wade has donated all of the money she had lost to Linda and Hannah to the Hope Foundation.

Now, her pockets were even cleaner than her face. Even though her store-value card for the beauty salon had already been used up, she did not have the money to top up the card to renew the beauty services. Elaine Ma did not know how she was going to explain things to her husband or daughter if they found out she had lost all the family money.

Elaine Ma felt that Charlie Wade was the main culprit behind this matter!

Therefore, she was naturally very unhappy with Charlie Wade.

When Jacob Wilson heard Elaine Ma targeting Charlie Wade again, he hurriedly stood up to defend him as he said, "Seriously, why are you doing this again? What did Charlie Wade ever do to you? Don't you think that Charlie Wade has really done well to prove himself during this time?"

"What a load of crap!" Elaine Ma did not know that when Jacob Wilson had attended a gathering with his old classmates not too long ago, he had managed to save himself a lot of face because of Charlie Wade.

When Elaine Ma saw her husband speaking up for Charlie Wade, she started cursing immediately, "Jacob Wilson, don't be fooled by this guy over here! Otherwise, you will not even know when you have already been sold out by him!"

Jacob Wilson was too lazy to be bothered with Elaine Ma. Instead, he simply handed his BMW car keys over to Charlie Wade before he said, "Charlie Wade, Dad has already reserved a room at The Heaven Springs for dinner tonight. I will be having dinner with the leaders of the Calligraphy and Painting Association. I will definitely be drinking a little with them, so I don't think that I will be able to drive home later. Can you keep my car keys so that you can come and pick me up from The Heaven Springs later tonight?"

Charlie Wade nodded slightly before he took the car keys and asked, "Dad, what time should I pick you up?"

Jacob Wilson replied, "We have already made an appointment to meet up for dinner at seven o'clock. I think that we should be done by about half-past eight to nine o'clock. You can come to The Heaven Springs to wait for me at half-past eight tonight."

"Okay."

As soon as Charlie Wade had agreed to pick Jacob Wilson up, Elaine Ma anxiously asked, "Jacob Wilson! Are you going to treat your guests to dinner at The Heaven Springs tonight? Where did you get so much money?"

Jacob Wilson did not dare to say that Charlie Wade was the one who had given him the money. Therefore, he retorted immediately, "Why do you care so much about the origins of my money? I am not spending your money anyway!"

Elaine Ma replied angrily, "Don't you know that it will cost you at least twenty to thirty thousand dollars just to book a room to host a dinner at The Heaven Springs? Do you have so much money to waste?"

Jacob Wilson said angrily, "I've already told you a long time ago that I want to compete for the position of the standing director. What is twenty or thirty thousand dollars for a meal? Besides, I am not spending any of your money at all!"

Elaine Ma became very furious, and she blurted out, "I can already go to the beauty salon to do several face and body treatments with twenty thousand dollars! Why do you have to use so much money just to entertain some guests for dinner?"

Jacob Wilson retorted, "I've never once stopped you when you go to the beauty salon and spend ten to twenty thousand dollars there every month! You are also keeping our family's savings of more than two million dollars in your bank account. You can spend your money, and I can spend my own money. Why are you still trying to control what I do with my own money?"

Elaine Ma was startled when Jacob Wilson suddenly mentioned the family's savings.

Their family savings of two million dollars was indeed supposed to be in her bank account, but now, it had already been donated to the Hope Foundation!

She did not even have money to go to a beauty salon for facials anymore!

How great would it be if she could use the twenty thousand dollars that Jacob Wilson was going to spend on food on her facials at the beauty salon instead?

Chapter 647

Charlie Wade truly felt like laughing when he saw Elaine Ma's performance.

He knew that Elaine Ma was really short of money right now. She usually spent a lot of money all by herself, but she had to be very sad now that all of her money was completely exhausted.

Now, Elaine Ma felt even more depressed when she saw that Jacob Wilson was going to The Heaven Springs for dinner tonight.

Sure enough, Elaine Ma said to Jacob Wilson, "No! I want you to give me the twenty thousand dollars you are going to spend on dinner tonight!"

"Why should I do that?" Jacob Wilson was also very anxious and he blurted out, "Elaine Ma, I am warning you not to go too far! All of our family's savings are already in your hands. Even if you do not want to give it to me, it's fine. Yet, you are still trying to ask me to give you my own money?"

Elaine Ma had a guilty conscience, but she continued speaking stubbornly, "Can't you just go to a cheaper place for dinner tonight? You can just spend ten thousand dollars on dinner and give me the other ten thousand dollars instead!"

Jacob Wilson replied angrily, "You have so much money in your hands! Why do you have to take ten thousand dollars from me? Don't you think that you are being too much?"

Elaine Ma said angrily, "I don't care anymore! If you don't give me ten thousand dollars today, I will not let you go out for dinner tonight! If I allow you to step out of this house today, it will mean that I, Elaine Ma, have already lost!"

"You are insane!" Jacob Wilson replied as he slammed his chopsticks down on the table. After that, he said angrily, "I am warning you not to take things too far, Elaine Ma! I've finally managed to invite the president and all the board members out for dinner tonight, and I have already informed them that we will be having dinner at The Heaven Springs. If you make me lose face, I will never forgive you or let you go just like this!"

"Alright, then! You can just come at me. Who is afraid of whom?"

Elaine Ma was very anxious because she really wanted to take the ten thousand dollars from Jacob Wilson!

If she could just get her hands on the ten thousand dollars, she would be able to renew her beauty pass and go for a facial with her friends later in the afternoon.

Earlier that morning, everyone in her group chat had already made an appointment with one another to go to the beauty salon for a facial together in the afternoon. However, since Elaine Ma did not have any more money inside her card, she could only decline the invitation under the pretext that she had something on in the afternoon.

If Jacob Wilson could give the ten thousand dollars to her, she could go and join her friends for a facial as usual!

Jacob Wilson almost cried out in anger when he heard Elaine Ma's words. He stood up and glared at Elaine Ma as he said indignantly, "Elaine Ma, why are you so unreasonable? We always give you all the money we bring home, and I even gave you the hundreds of thousands of dollars that I made from my antique sales. Why are you still not satisfied with what you have? Don't try and push your luck too far!"

Elaine Ma gritted her teeth before she said, "Is ten thousand dollars not enough for a meal? I just want to curb your habit of spending so wastefully and extravagantly! I really do not want you to be a spendthrift!"

Jacob Wilson's eyes flashed red with anger as he said, "Think about it yourself! How much pocket money do I get from you throughout the entire year? When have I ever been wasteful or extravagant in my spending? In my opinion, you are the one who is wasteful and extravagant! Look at all the clothes and jewelry you own. Even though you cannot fit any more clothes into your cupboard, you still buy clothes endlessly!"

Elaine Ma replied angrily, "I have been suffering so many grievances for so many years after I married you! Can't you just allow me to buy some clothes? Do you still have a conscience?"

After that, tears started rolling down Elaine Ma's cheeks as she choked and said, "Back then, I suffered so much ridicule and insults when you got me pregnant before marriage! After marrying you, I was constantly bullied and humiliated by your mother. Now, you are even reprimanding me for simply buying some clothes for myself. I truly have a very miserable life!"

Jacob Wilson felt that he wanted to die at this point.

When they were younger, Elaine Ma was the one who had gotten him drunk so that she could end up sleeping with him!

If it weren't because of what she had done, why would his first love have been so angry that she left for the United States?!

Elaine Ma had ruined his entire life, and the only reason why he chose to put up with her was because of his precious daughter. However, now, she would not even allow him to go out for dinner with his friends tonight! Wasn't that a little too much?

As he thought about this, Jacob Wilson trembled in anger as he said, "Elaine Ma, don't you know for yourself what you did back then? Do you really still have the gall to blame me for it?"

"What did I do?! You got me pregnant with your child!" Elaine Ma continued crying as she yelled out loud, "I was just an innocent girl whom you took advantage of after you got me drunk!"

"You... you are ridiculous!"

Jacob Wilson was so aggrieved that he truly felt like crying. Over the past few decades, he had been secretly enduring and suffering inside his heart. He never expected Elaine Ma to distort the truth and blame him for everything instead. How shameless could this woman be?!

At this time, Claire Wilson Wilson was already getting a little overwhelmed, and she said, "Dad, Mom, can the both of you just stop arguing already? Can we just have our breakfast in peace?"

Chapter 648

After that, Claire Wilson Wilson looked at Elaine Ma before she said, "Mom, can you stop making things difficult for dad already? He does not usually spend much money anyway. Why are you confronting him now that he simply wants to treat some of his friends to dinner?"

Elaine Ma said, "I am simply trying to save some money for the family! Are we the kind of family who should be spending twenty thousand dollars just for a meal?"

After that, Elaine Ma glared at Jacob Wilson before she said, "No matter what it is, you will have to give me the money today, whether you want to or not!"

In truth, Claire Wilson Wilson already knew what her mother was up to.

She knew that her mother was just a very materialistic person who was mad about money. If her father refused to give her mother the money today, it would be impossible for him to leave the house.

At this time, Claire Wilson Wilson quickly cut in. "Mom, stop making things difficult for dad. You want ten thousand dollars, right? I will give it to you."

"Okay!" Elaine Ma replied in excitement, "Then you'd better transfer the money over to me right away!"

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded slightly before she took out her cell phone and transferred ten thousand dollars over to Elaine Ma.

Elaine Ma quickly turned on her cell phone to check that she had already received the money that Claire Wilson Wilson had transferred over to her. She could not help but grin to herself when she saw that she had already received the money.

After that, Elaine Ma quickly texted her group of five friends: [Sisters! I am joining all of you for the facial later in the afternoon!]

Someone in the group asked: [Eh! Didn't you say that you had something on in the afternoon earlier in the morning?]

Elaine Ma hurriedly replied: [I was planning to go shopping at first, but my legs are hurting a little. So, I decided not to go shopping and to go to the beauty salon to do some facials and relax instead!]

Claire Wilson Wilson could not help but sigh helpless when she saw the look on her mother's face after receiving the money from her. After all, Claire Wilson Wilson did not know that her mother was already left with nothing as she had already lost their entire family's savings.

At this time, Charlie Wade's cell phone started vibrating on the dining table.

It was a phone call from Jasmine.

Charlie Wade quickly picked up the phone to answer the call, and Jasmine's gentle and pleasant voice sounded over the other end of the line, "Master Wade, I will arrive at your house in less than ten minutes. When will it be convenient for you to come out?"

Charlie Wade replied, "Please wait for me for a short while. I will come down after cleaning up the dishes when my family is done with breakfast."

"Alright, then. I will be waiting for you outside your house."

Jasmine could not help but feel a little distressed after listening to Charlie Wade's reply.

Master Wade was such a perfect and capable man. Why did he still have to clean up the dishes at home? Wasn't it simply too insulting to him?!

At this time, Jasmine could not help but think in her heart that if Charlie Wade was her man, she would never allow him to do any housework at all!

After all, a man should go out and pursue a career for himself, and he should be carefully served and waited on by his wife when he comes home. How could a man be made to do the house chores at home?!

On one hand, Jasmine felt very strongly about Charlie Wade being treated so worthlessly, and on the other hand, Jasmine was very eager to become the woman who could serve Charlie Wade well at home.

As soon as Charlie Wade hung up the phone, Claire Wilson Wilson asked, "Charlie Wade, is your friend here to pick you up?"

"Yes." Charlie Wade nodded before he said, "My friend's granddaughter just came over here to pick me up."

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded, and without even thinking about it, she quickly said, "Alright then, you should just go now. I will help to clean up the dishes today. Don't keep her waiting for too long."

Charlie Wade hurriedly replied, "My dear wife, it is okay to let her wait for a short while. I will leave as soon as I am done with the dishes."

Claire Wilson Wilson quickly pushed him away before she said, "Oh, come on. Just let me do the dishes today. You should leave since you have something on. Don't make people wait too long for you!"

Chapter 649

When Charlie Wade saw how persistent Claire Wilson Wilson was, he nodded as he said, "Alright then, wife. Thank you for your hard work. I will leave now."

"Alright, go!" Claire Wilson Wilson then quickly asked, "Since you are attending a friend's birthday banquet, did you prepare a present for him?"

Charlie Wade hummed before he said, "Yes, I've prepared a gift for him already."

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly asked, "What gift did you prepare for him? Make sure that it is not too petty or cheap, otherwise, he might feel a little dissatisfied!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly before he said, "I have already prepared something that I made myself for him. It is not the gift that counts, but the thought behind it that matters anyway. After all, my friend does not really care that much about money. Therefore, I believe he will definitely love my gift."

"That's great!" Claire Wilson Wilson nodded before she smiled and said, "If that is the case, you should leave now!"

"Okay."

At this time, Charlie Wade got up before he put on an ordinary coat. After that, he bid farewell to Claire Wilson Wilson and his father and mother-in-law before he left the house immediately.

As soon as Charlie Wade stepped out of the house, Elaine Ma put her cell phone down before she looked at Claire Wilson Wilson with a serious expression on her face. "Claire Wilson Wilson, why are you spoiling Charlie Wade so much nowadays? What else can that useless piece of trash do besides help with all the housework at home? I was even thinking of letting him do even more house chores at home. On the other hand, you are simply offering to help Charlie Wade do all the housework now!"

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly replied, "Mom, since Charlie Wade has something on, just let him leave earlier. I can do these simple house chores such as cleaning up the dishes after breakfast. It is not a big deal anyway."

Elaine Ma blurted out, "That is not what I think! You should treat a man the same way you would raise a dog! If you are strict with your discipline with him from the beginning to the end, he will not even dare to randomly poop and pee at home, let alone jump on the bed or bite on any of your furniture. Moreover, he will even wag his tail when he sees you."

After that, Elaine Ma continued speaking solemnly, "However, if you just relax a little and give him some freedom, he will not only be even more arrogant, but he might also turn around to bite you in the back one day! Just look at your father whom I have been disciplining over the years. Don't you think that he is very obedient and submissive to me now?"

When Jacob Wilson heard Elaine Ma's words, the expression on his face turned extremely ugly. He could not help but curse in his heart. D*mn this stinky woman! So, you have always been treating me like a dog?

However, Jacob Wilson did not dare to get mad or lose his temper at Elaine Ma. Therefore, he could only swallow his anger and keep everything to himself even though he was really upset.

Claire Wilson Wilson glanced sympathetically at her father before she said helplessly, "Mom, I will clean up the dishes, and then I will also go out after that."

After that, Claire Wilson Wilson ignored Elaine Ma and quickly took all the dishes as she headed straight into the kitchen.

The kitchen window of Claire Wilson Wilson's house just so happened to face the entrance of the community. Therefore, when Claire Wilson Wilson subconsciously looked out the window as she was doing the dishes, she could see her husband, Charlie Wade, walking outside.

Charlie Wade did not know that his wife, Claire Wilson Wilson, was looking at him from the kitchen window at this time.

When he stepped out of the gate, he saw a red Rolls-Royce Phantom parked outside the community gate.

Immediately afterward, a very elegant woman with a noble temperament, a beautiful face, and long, slender legs stepped out of the car. This young woman was none other than Jasmine, the young lady of the Moore family.

Jasmine was wearing a red customized dress, and she looked even more beautiful today compared to any other day. She truly carried the elegance and aura of a young lady from a wealthy and powerful family.

Even though Jasmine said that the reason why she dressed up today was because of her grandfather's birthday celebration, the real reason why she had dressed up so beautifully was for Charlie Wade.

After all, a woman would doll up just to please herself. This phrase had not changed at all ever since ancient times. Jasmine simply hoped that Charlie Wade would notice her beauty and pay more attention as well as show more concern toward her in the future.

Charlie Wade could not help but look Jasmine up and down in surprise when he saw her.

Even though this was not the first time Charlie Wade had seen Jasmine's beauty, he could not help but praise her immediately, "Jasmine, you look truly beautiful today."

Jasmine looked at Charlie Wade with affection in her eyes. When she heard his words, she could not help but feel her heart fluttering inside. She was also blushing a little.

At this time, Jasmine held her dress as she turned gently in front of Charlie Wade and asked, "Do you really think that I look very beautiful in this outfit today?"

Charlie Wade smiled faintly before he replied, "Of course! You look extremely stunning and I think that this dress fits your temperament and elegance perfectly."

Jasmine became even more embarrassed, and she could feel the tips of her ears burning.

Then, Jasmine bowed respectfully before she said shyly, "Thank you, Master Wade, for your kind words."

Chapter 650

Charlie Wade smiled slightly before he said, "Thank you for coming all the way here to pick me up today."

Jasmine hurriedly replied, "Yes, this is my responsibility. After all, it is the Moore family's honor that you are able to attend my grandfather's birthday banquet today."

As she spoke, Jasmine hurriedly trotted two steps forward as she took the initiative to open the door of the co-driver seat before she bowed slightly and made a gesture at Charlie Wade as she blushed and said, "Master Wade, please get into the car."

Charlie Wade nodded before he got into the car directly without being courteous or polite to Jasmine at all.

If anyone saw Jasmine, the famous and prestigious young lady of the Moore family, personally taking the initiative to open the car door for a young man, they would be so shocked that their jaw would be hanging out in the open.

However, no matter which aspect it was from, Charlie Wade felt that it was only natural for him to be worthy of Jasmine's act of opening the car door for him.

In terms of identity, he was the young lord of the Wade family. The Wade family was definitely more powerful and influential compared to the Moore family.

In terms of strength, he was Master Wade. Even Jasmine's grandfather was very respectful and polite to him. Therefore, Charlie Wade felt that it was only natural for Jasmine to open the car door for him.

Charlie Wade did not know that Claire Wilson Wilson happened to witness this scene clearly for herself.

Claire Wilson Wilson had already met Jasmine once. This was because Jasmine had personally made a trip to her studio's opening ceremony to congratulate her.

When she had seen Jasmine the last time, Claire Wilson Wilson had felt as though she was inferior to Jasmine in every way possible.

Claire Wilson Wilson knew that she could not compare to Jasmine in terms of their family backgrounds, their appearance, their temperament, ability, and also financial resources. Claire Wilson Wilson could not help but feel a little ashamed and embarrassed because she felt as though she had met a stunning and gorgeous beauty who was better than her in every aspect.

However, Claire Wilson Wilson would never have expected that Jasmine, who was so well-known and reputable in Aurouss Hillll, would actually be so respectful toward her husband!

She not only drove all the way here to personally pick him up, but she even opened the car door for him! Why was Jasmine being so polite toward her husband?

As she thought about this, Claire Wilson Wilson could not help but feel a little upset. It seemed as though she was jealous!

At this time, a thought suddenly ran through her mind...

Was it because Jasmine was interested in her husband?!

However, in the next moment, Claire Wilson Wilson could not help but feel that her suspicions were a little too absurd!

What was Jasmine's identity?

She was the young lady of the Moore family! She had a family asset exceeding one hundred billion dollars.

Who was her husband? He was nothing but a vagrant!

Even if Charlie Wade really had some mysterious skills and abilities in Feng Shui, it would be completely impossible for Charlie Wade to be able to match up with the young lady of a big family like Jasmine.

However, Claire Wilson Wilson could not help but wonder why Jasmine was being so polite and respectful toward her husband?

Claire Wilson Wilson could not help but feel a little irritated and annoyed because she could not seem to figure out the answer to this question.

At this time, Jasmine had already started the Rolls-Royce as she left the community area with Charlie Wade.

Claire Wilson Wilson felt even more upset when she saw the luxurious car gradually driving away from their house.

Was there something unspeakable going on between the both of them?

She subconsciously took out her cell phone because she wanted to call Charlie Wade. However, she hesitated as soon as she held the cell phone in her hand.

After much deliberation, Claire Wilson Wilson decided to find another opportunity to ask Charlie Wade regarding this matter after he had come home instead.

She decided not to act so impulsively.

They were husband and wife after all. So, she should also have a considerate level of trust and respect for him!

Chapter 651

In the car.

Jasmine drove as she spoke to Charlie Wade, "Master Wade, my grandpa has been talking about you for a few days now. He was afraid that you would not have the time to come and attend his birthday banquet. I believe that he will definitely be very happy to see you!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly before he said, "Since I have already promised you that I will be coming to attend the birthday banquet, why would I break my promise to you?"

"Mm!" Jasmine nodded happily before she said, "I think that the person my grandpa wants to meet the most today is you."

As she spoke, Jasmine could not help but sigh as she said, "I do not know what is going on with my grandpa. He has been talking about you continuously over the past few days ever since he went to see the genius doctor, Dr. Simmons, a few days ago. He also told me in secret that his greatest wish is to see you at his birthday banquet today."

Charlie Wade was stunned for a moment before he chuckled lightly.

He knew the reason why Lord Mooore wanted to see him so badly.

He must have seen the changes to Anthony's body and physical appearance, and he must have discovered the magical effect of the Rejuvenating Pill. Therefore, Lord Mooore must be really eager for Charlie Wade to give him one of those pills!

In fact, Lord Mooore was not the only one who would not be able to resist the temptation of the Rejuvenating Pill. Charlie Wade knew that all the old and elderly people would never be able to resist the temptation and attraction of the Rejuvenating Pill.

Charlie Wade did consider what kind of gift he should prepare for Lord Mooore after he received the invitation to attend his birthday banquet.

After much deliberation, he had finally decided that someone like Lord Mooore did not need any gifts or money. Therefore, he might as well just give him a Rejuvenating Pill as a gift instead.

The Rejuvenating Pill was nothing magical to him, and the most expensive ingredient in the pill was none other than the three hundred years old purple ginseng.

Furthermore, since he had helped Liam, the illegitimate child from the Weaver family, Liam had given him his most treasured family heirloom, which was the snow-white ginseng that was more than a thousand years old to thank him. If Charlie Wade used this thousand-year-old snow-white ginseng to refine and concoct a new medicine, the effect would definitely be much better compared to the Rejuvenating Pill.

Therefore, Charlie Wade would be doing Lord Mooore a huge favor at not much cost to himself by giving him the Rejuvenating Pill. He was simply killing two birds with one stone.

At this time, Jasmine said, "Master Wade, grandpa has invited a lot of your friends to attend his birthday banquet today. You can have a good time chatting and catching up with them later."

"Oh, is that so?" Charlie Wade smiled before he asked, "Who did he invite?"

Jasmine replied, "I know that grandpa invited Doris, the vice-chairman of Emgrand Group, to come for his birthday banquet today. I heard that you have a good relationship with her, right?"

Charlie Wade nodded, "Yes, it's not bad."

Jasmine smiled before she said, "She will be coming today."

After that, Jasmine paused slightly before she said, "As for the head of the Quinton family and the White family, it naturally goes without saying that the both of them also share a good relationship with you, right?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Yes, that's right."

Then, Jasmine said, "Grandpa also invited Liam, the chairman of Weaver Pharmaceutical to come today. I heard you were the one who backed him up and supported him?"

Charlie Wade nodded slightly before he replied, "Yes. Liam was an illegitimate child who had always been unwelcomed in the Weaver family. Since his father and half-brother offended me, I decided to support and back him up instead."

Jasmine pursed her lips tightly together before she said, "Master Wade, I heard that you asked Don Albertt to send the father and son from the Weaver family up to Mount Golmin to dig ginseng?"

"Yes." Charlie Wade replied, "Since Jordan looked down on Mount Golmin so much, I decided to send him over there to reflect on his actions."

Jasmine smiled before she said, "I heard that the two of them are leading a very miserable life on Mount Golmin. They have to dig for ginseng in exchange for food. Some time ago, the mountain was filled and covered with heavy snow. Both the father and son could not go out to the mountain to dig and collect any ginseng and so, they did not have anything to eat or drink. Therefore, they ran to one of the villager's houses and stole a chicken. However, they were caught in the act, and both of them were beaten up badly."

Charlie Wade could not help but ask out of curiosity, "Why are you paying so much attention to this matter? I don't even know all of these recent things that have happened to both of them."

Jasmine blushed from embarrassment as she said, "Well, I felt that both of them really deserved to be punished for their actions. Hence, I decided to ask around and look into this matter because I wanted to know what kind of punishment they were getting."

Charlie Wade smiled before he said, "Then, are you also paying attention to the group of people who were sent to dig coal in Erith?"

Jasmine smiled before she said, "Yes, I've paid some attention to that matter as well! They seem to be really miserable. They have to go to the coal mines for twelve hours a day. The working environment and conditions are very bad, the work intensity is very heavy, and they do not have enough food most of the time. I heard that they always cry pitifully late at night..."

Chapter 652

Charlie Wade smiled before he said, "This is the price they have to pay for harming others."

"Yes!" Jasmine nodded as she said, "These people should be held responsible for their own actions!"

As they spoke, Jasmine had already driven her car into the Moore family mansion.

At this time, Zeke, Graham, Albert, Liam, and Doris had all already been waiting in the Moore family courtyard for a long time. As soon as Charlie Wade stepped out of the car, the group of people quickly surrounded the both of them.

When Jasmine stopped the car, she quickly said, "Master Wade, please sit down and wait for me to open the car door for you."

Charlie Wade hurriedly replied, "You don't need to be so polite to me. I can just get down by myself."

Jasmine quickly replied, "No! No! Master Wade, you are our most distinguished guest today! I have to give you the most common courtesy. Otherwise, my grandpa will definitely scold me!"

As she spoke, Jasmine quickly pushed the car door open as she ran over to the passenger side and opened the car door for Charlie Wade.

Charlie Wade could only smile helplessly as he stepped out of the car.

He felt that Jasmine was simply overreacting, but Jasmine felt that these etiquettes and acts were all essential. After all, Jasmine knew how much her grandfather valued and treasured Charlie Wade.

At the same time...

Sean was standing on the terrace on the second floor of the mansion as he looked at the courtyard, and he happened to witness Jasmine's actions at this time.

He had already been standing there for quite some time, waiting ever since Jasmine had driven out of the mansion. He was hoping to see and identify the status of the distinguished guest Jasmine had talked about.

He had also been secretly hoping that the so-called distinguished guest Jasmine had gone to pick up personally would be an old man or preferably, an old woman. That way, he would be able to completely eliminate the possibility of this distinguished guest becoming his love rival.

However, Sean never expected Jasmine to personally make a trip just to pick up a young man who was about his age!

Moreover, what surprised Sean even more was the fact that Jasmine had actually gotten off the car to open the car door for the young man!

At this time, Sean could not help but wonder why Jasmine respected and thought so highly of this person that she would even step out and open the car door for a young man who was about the same age as herself?

Was this the man Jasmine was in love with?

Was this the perfect grandson-in-law that Lord Mooore truly wanted?

It had to be him!

As he thought about this, Sean had a very dark expression on his face, and he was raging with anger!

He fixed his gaze on Charlie Wade as he looked the strange man up and down.

Even though Charlie Wade was indeed a handsome man with some demeanor and chic, he was nothing but an ordinary person in terms of clothes and dressing.

Sean could tell at a single glance that Charlie Wade's clothes and shoes would probably only amount to a few thousand dollars.

A pair of Sean's socks were already worth more than a few thousand dollars.

This kind of person looked like a pathetic jerk who was picked up from the side of the streets. Why was Jasmine taking him so seriously?

Moreover, Sean could tell that Jasmine was definitely enamored with this pathetic piece of trash judging from her twitchy and shy gestures when she interacted with him!

Sean could not help but clench his fists tightly together, and he was exerting so much force that his knuckles had already turned white!

At this point, Sean felt that he had to vent his frustrations on something, and he slammed his fist on the railing as he cursed, "D*mn it! Where did this piece of trash pop up from?! How dare he try to snatch my woman away from me? He is truly asking for his own death!"

Chapter 653

Sean's loud growl attracted a lot of curious glances from the guests who passed him by on the second floor, wondering why the young master of the Webb family suddenly became angry.

Sean glared at them in annoyance and shouted, "What are you looking at? Get lost!"

The frightened guests quickly turned their heads and looked away. Sean, with his gloomy face, gestured for Cain to come to him.

Cain sprinted toward him like a loyal puppy and asked diligently, "Yes, Young Master Webb, what do you need?"

Sean pointed to Charlie Wade who was standing beside Jasmine in the yard and muttered indignantly, "Check that dude's identity. I want to know who the heck he is!"

Cain looked curiously in the direction where Sean was pointing and was shocked when he saw the person, so much so that his eyes opened wide!

Wasn't that Charlie Wade Wade?!

He recognized the guy even if he turned into ashes!

Charlie Wade was the reason why Marcus, his precious son, had the words 'pathetic jerk' carved on his forehead by Albert! Had it not been for offending Charlie Wade, Albert would never have hurt his son like that!

Therefore, Albert was just the executioner, whereas Charlie Wade was the main culprit!

His son's word-carving incident had become the city's laughingstock. Whenever he thought of the sorrowful incident, he wanted to skin Charlie Wade alive!

However, he dared not go up against Albert, so he could only swallow his pride and contain his anger!

He gritted his teeth and replied, "I know him. His name is Charlie Wade Wade!"

Sean asked coldly, "Who is he? What is his background? He must have a death wish for touching my girl!"

Cain became ecstatic upon seeing Sean so upset with Charlie Wade and thought, 'Yes, my chance for revenge is here!'

Thus, he leaned closer to Sean and said, "He is a loser who married into the Wilson family as a live-in son-in-law. As for the Wilson family, it is just a lousy family who is on the verge of bankruptcy."

Sean frowned into a darker expression and asked, "Are you sure he is a live-in son-in-law?"

Cain replied firmly, "Yes, absolutely."

Then, he further explained, "His wife is Claire Wilson Wilson Wilson, a pretty lady with a lot of admirers in the city, unfortunately, she chose to marry that loser. Rumor has it that after they got married, he became a househusband who does all the house chores for the family like cooking, cleaning, and laundry. I heard that he is from poverty and is a typical deadbeat loser. Everyone in Aurouss Hilll knows about it!"

A dash of coldness and anger flashed in Sean's eyes.

Previously, both his father and himself had suspected that Jasmine's admirer was most likely from a prestigious family in Eastcliff, and if so, he didn't stand a chance in the competition.

But never did he expect that Jasmine would choose to like a deadbeat loser who was also a pathetic live-in son-in-law!

A son-in-law! This proved that Charlie Wade was married!

A deadbeat loser, a moocher, and also a married man!

He could still convince himself to give up if Jasmine's target was a rich man from a prominent family, but she had actually fallen in love with a married man! This was beyond common sense!

It was also a harsh slap to his face!

After all, he was the young master from the top family in the South Region with a net worth of nearly 200 billion dollars! Why did he pale in comparison to this miserable loser in Jasmine's eyes?!

Chapter 654

Jasmine was so attentive and gentle toward Charlie Wade, yet so cold and stern toward him, this was so insulting!

Sean gritted his teeth in dismay and commanded Cain coldly, "I'll give you a task right now. If you do it well, wait for awesome rewards, but don't come to see me ever again if you fail!"

Cain spruced up and burst out, "Alright, Mr. Webb, speak your orders. I'll do my best!"

Sean shot a ghastly glare at Charlie Wade in the yard and said, "Later, think of a way to humiliate Charlie Wade in front of Jasmine! Teach him a lesson. I want him to be embarrassed so badly in front of Jasmine! It's best if you can make him leave this place like a defeated dog!"

Cain grinned excitedly upon hearing Sean's demand. It was the best chance to take his revenge! He blurted excitedly, "Okay, Mr. Webb! I'll go down and meet him now!"

He had done some investigations on Charlie Wade. The latter had managed to fool some of the VIPs in Aurouss Hilll with his feng shui tricks that had earned him the title 'Master Wade'. Don Albertt, the White family, the Quinton family, and even the Moore family, saw Charlie Wade as the most honorable existence, and he was someone Cain couldn't provoke at all.

However, just because he couldn't provoke him didn't mean that the Webb family couldn't either!

Since Charlie Wade had offended the young master of the powerful Webb family, sooner or later, the Webb family would teach him a lesson he would never forget!

Now that Sean had asked him to make a stand, it was a chance for revenge as well as a chance to please his master! It was like killing two birds with one stone!

The wrath of fury started to burn and spread widely as the new hatred combined with the old ones, and Cain felt exceptionally confident and enthusiastic as he had Sean Webb as his backup. He swore that he would bite a piece of meat off Charlie Wade today. In fact, he wished he could even kill him today!

So, he immediately said to Sean, "Mr. Webb, I'll go and meet him now!"

Most of the people were gathered around the yard. Zeke White, Graham Quinton, Albert Rhodes, Liam Weaver, and Doris Young surrounded and greeted Charlie Wade respectfully.

Zeke, Graham, Albert, and Liam addressed Charlie Wade as Master Wade, while Doris called him Mr. Wade.

There was a beautiful and stunning woman standing beside Graham in a light blue dress. Charlie Wade looked at the woman carefully and was surprised to find that the beautiful woman was none other than Aurora, the athletic and energetic young woman who always donned sportswear!

He couldn't help but exclaim, "Wow, Aurora, I almost couldn't recognize you today!"

Aurora blushed timidly upon hearing his remark. She bit her lip and said shyly, "Hello, Master Wade!"

For Lord Mooore's birthday banquet, she had deliberately dressed herself up in a mature style. Because she was a college student and a few years Charlie Wade's junior, she didn't want Charlie Wade to see her as a younger sister, so she hoped that from dressing up a little more maturely, she might be able to move Charlie Wade's heart.

Charlie Wade smiled at her and replied, "Hello back to you."

Liam approached him, bowed, and said, "Master Wade, I have been waiting for you to inspect the operation of Weaver Pharmaceutical. May I know when you will be available?"

Charlie Wade waved his hand. "The company is yours, manage it well. You don't need my inspection and verification."

"But Master Wade, everything I have today is yours, so, the company is also yours! If you need any help, just say it, I'll be the first to come!"

"Thank you, Liam, I appreciate it very much."

Liam bowed deeply. "You're welcome, Master Wade. You did so much more for me than I could ever repay you for."

At this moment, a sharp and sarcastic voice echoed across the crowd, "Oh d*mn, it's so f*cking weird, why are all of the prominent figures in Aurouss Hillll crowding themselves around the deadbeat loser and buttering him up? Hey, are you all blind or simply wanting to taste some shit because of your bland mouths?"

Chapter 655

Cain's mockery was unexpected and shocking.

The mockery not only targeted Charlie Wade, but also the people who paid their respects to Charlie Wade.

Albert almost burst into flames of wrath when Cain came out of nowhere with his senseless insult. He glared at him and shouted coldly, "Cain Lloyd, do you have a f*cking death wish? Do you want me to carve words on your forehead just as I did to your son?!"

Charlie Wade realized the cause of this direct mockery the second he laid eyes on the outraged Cain.

This man was Marcus Lloyd's father.

Marcus, the rich kid with his catchphrase 'pathetic jerk', the young man who had provoked him at the Champs Elys Resort which resulted in a miserable ending—Albert had carved the words 'pathetic jerk' on his forehead as directed by him.

He didn't expect to bump into the young man's father at the Moore family's banquet, let alone be insulted by him.

Cain exchanged a hateful glare with Albert and said, "Albert Rhodes, don't you be so f*cking cocky and bossy! Do you really think I'm scared of you?!"

Then, he pointed at Charlie Wade and said viciously, "I don't get it, why a deadbeat loser like you who can only survive by mooching off your wife and in-laws can be here! And why are all these people complimenting you and calling you 'Master Wade'? What the hell?! Are they all f*cking blind to the point they cannot see what kind of a loser you are?"

His rude remarks infuriated the crowd, and they were all prepared to jump at Cain, but Charlie Wade stopped them and said flatly, "Everyone, today is Lord Mooore's birthday, please don't do anything silly and make a fool out of yourself."

Then, he turned to Cain and said with a smile, "I was wondering what kind of idiot produced such an arrogant son like Marcus, and now that I see you, I finally know why."

After a short pause, Charlie Wade continued, "You're supposed to learn something from what happened to your son. Take my advice. Keep a low profile and don't be so cocky. The skin on your forehead is so wrinkled, it may not be as smooth as how we did it on your son's forehead if we wanted to carve words on it."

"You..." Cain huffed indignantly. He pointed at Charlie Wade and cursed, "Hey, listen, don't say I never give you a chance to stay alive. If you kneel before me right now and let me carve the word 'pathetic jerk' on your forehead, I'll let you go, otherwise, I'll f*cking kill you!"

Charlie Wade grinned in disdain. "What gave you the confidence to make you think you could kill me?"

"You think you are so powerful and almighty just because you have Albert, the garbage thug, as your sidekick, but I have the Webb family as my backup. Albert is a nobody! I can kill him like I kill an ant, let alone a loser like you."

Don Albertt's face flushed in extreme anger. He barged forward furiously when Charlie Wade stopped him and said with a smile, "Cain, your master is quite a coward. It's okay for them to let their dogs run wild, but they should be present, shouldn't they? What if the dog is beaten to death?"

Cain sneered, "Charlie Wade Wade, don't think I don't know who you are. You are nothing but a scammer who fools these people with your so-called mystical tricks. They are still in the dark, but when they come to their senses, I won't have to do anything because they will not let you off the hook!"

Then, he turned to Jasmine and said seriously, "Miss Moore, you are recognized as a powerful and charming female entrepreneur in Aurouss Hilll. How could you be deceived by a loser like him? Besides, he is married! He married into and lives with his wife's family! You'll only ruin your reputation if you get too close to a loser like him. If rumors spread that the number one lady in Aurouss Hilll has fallen in love with a married loser, it will cause a huge impact on your reputation!"

Jasmine's face twisted into a contemptuous grimace.

Admittedly, she liked Charlie Wade, and Charlie Wade was indeed married, but so what? Was it wrong to like someone from the bottom of her heart?

Besides, Cain Lloyd, who did you think you were to comment on me even if I really did something wrong?!

However, Jasmine knew that she should remain calm against Cain's accusation because if she got angry, people might assume that it was out of shame and that what Cain had said was true.

Instead, Jasmine donned a dark expression and chided him, "Cain Lloyd, right? We don't have you in our guest list, who brought you in?"

Chapter 656

Cain said with an arrogant grin, "Mr. Webb brought me in! To tell you the truth, I am now the Webb family's man. As far as I'm concerned, no one here has the power and influence to go up against the Webb family, right? The Webb family is so much more powerful than all of you combined! If you dare touch me, you are literally provoking the Webb family!"

Cain looked very cocky and triumphant. He knew that by mentioning the Webb family, no one would dare to do anything to him.

When he glanced around him like an almighty cock, he saw a black shadow flash past him suddenly, and before he could react to it, his face was slapped hard!

He felt as though the sky had grown dark and starry after being slapped, and he stumbled backward from the great force. After managing to compose himself and stand still, he lifted his gaze and saw that the person who had slapped him was none other than Charlie Wade.

Charlie Wade plastered a wide smile on his face and said flatly, "I couldn't be bothered if you didn't mention the Webb family, but since you did, I have to show them some colors!"

"D*mn it! You slapped me! F*cker!"

Never did Cain expect that he would get a slap in the face when he mentioned the Webb family. Although Charlie Wade had slapped his face, it was the same as slapping the Webb family's face!

Charlie Wade was nothing but a scammer who knew a trick or two to fool others, but he was going up against the Webb family, the most prominent family in the South Region!

Charlie Wade smiled at his curse and slapped him again. "Did you think I wouldn't dare to slap you just because you are the Webb family's dog? Let me tell you, I am slapping the Webb family's dog! If you're not happy about this, go and tell your master to come and see me!"

Before Charlie Wade came today, he had made up his mind.

Albert had called and given him a heads-up that the Webb family was looking for him everywhere for two reasons—he had turned Kian into a poop-eating monster, and he was the man Jasmine liked.

So, in due time, the Webb family would eventually figure it out and get to him.

In fact, there was a high chance that they already knew that Jasmine admired him. It was also possible that they were behind Cain's obnoxious behavior toward him and the other guests.

If so, it was better if he could force the Webb family out of their foxhole and challenge them face-to-face rather than bothering himself with Cain, their lap dog.

Cain was going insane from Charlie Wade's provocation.

He had clearly mentioned the Webb family's name, and yet, Charlie Wade still dared to instigate them! Did he have a death wish?!

Alright, Charlie Wade Wade, since you wanted to die, I'll fulfill your request!

Cain knew that Sean was watching them from the terrace on the second floor, so he raised his voice and shouted, "Charlie Wade Wade, I have already stated clearly that I am the Webb family's man but you still dared to lay hands on me! Do you even take the Webb family seriously?!"

Charlie Wade noticed that he had been peeking toward the second-floor terrace sheepishly, so he guessed easily that his master was there.

Thus, he laughed out loud and said loudly, "The Webb family, so what? A family who keeps trash like you as their dogs must be trash themselves as well! Why do I have to take a bunch of trash seriously?"

Chapter 657

Sean was extremely infuriated when he heard Charlie Wade insulting his family, so he turned and rushed down the stairs to confront Charlie Wade.

Meanwhile, Jasmine glared at Cain and his swollen face in disdain and gestured for her bodyguards.

She pointed at Cain when the bodyguards arrived and demanded, "Kick this guy out! Break his legs if he dares to come in again!"

"Yes, Ma'am!"

The bodyguards marched forward, grabbed Cain, and was about to drag him out of the yard when a chilly voice echoed from the house.

"How dare you! Let him go!"

With his hands behind his back, Sean walked down the stairs slowly, indifference and anger imprinted on his face.

Initially, he had wanted Cain to cause a scene and humiliate Charlie Wade in order to drag him down, making him look bad in front of Jasmine.

However, he did not expect that Charlie Wade would be so arrogant. He had slapped Cain twice on his face without any concern to the Webb family!

This was not the worst humiliation yet!

The worst thing Charlie Wade did was to call the Webb family trash!

This was totally unbearable!

The bodyguards didn't dare to make another move since Sean had come down and ordered them to stop. They knew that Sean and his father were the distinguished guests of the family as they had lived in the house for a few days.

A flash of excitement flashed across Cain's eyes, and he blurted, "Mr. Webb, please help me!"

Sean glared at him disdainfully and cursed quietly, 'Useless dog, what good are you if you cannot handle such a small matter?'

Jasmine frowned in contempt and asked, "Sean, what are you doing? Do you have anything to do with this?"

Sean said flatly, "Nothing. Still, Cain is our guy. He came with me and my dad. If you throw him out now, you are humiliating us!"

Then, he turned to Charlie Wade and said, "And you! How dare you slap my man and insult my family! Kneel now and slap yourself as a punishment, otherwise, you won't like what I'm going to do to you!"

For him, although Cain was his dog, only he could beat him, not other people! This represented his pride, his family's pride!

Charlie Wade looked back at him and asked, "Why? Is your family very powerful?"

"Of course," Sean sneered arrogantly, "The Webb family is the number one family in the South Region. We are among the top families in the country! How dare you say that my family is rubbish?!"

Charlie Wade smirked at his remark and eyed him from head to toe. Indeed, he and his brother were very much alike. They were truly brothers of the same mother.

However, before he could say anything, Jasmine stepped forward and hurriedly said, "Sean, Cain was the one who started it all. Please don't put Master Wade in a difficult position."

"Master Wade?" Sean became very agitated when Jasmine stepped forward to defend Charlie Wade, and he blurted, "He is just a loser, why do you call him master?"

Jasmine said solemnly, "Sean, please be respectful! Master Wade is my idol, I won't allow you to slander him like that!"

Sean was getting more and more annoyed by her reaction. She was supposed to be the goddess of them all, but instead, she was being Charlie Wade the loser's ass-kisser!

He growled in dismay as if he was spilling all the hatred and wrath inside him. "Why? What does this dude have that I don't?! I'm supposed to be the one you admire and flatter! You're so blind and ignorant!"

Chapter 658

Sean sneered in disdain. "Jasmine, don't say I didn't warn you. This guy insulted the Webb family and bit our dog. Even if Lord Mooore comes to talk it out, we won't let him off so easily!"

Then, he pointed at Cain and shouted to Charlie Wade, "I'll forgive you temporarily if you kneel before my dog and apologize, and then kneel before me and apologize again!"

Cain was over the moon when he heard it. He would wag his tail if he had one!

He was thankful that Sean had stood up for him after he had been slapped twice! So, while covering his swollen cheek, he strode to Charlie Wade and said arrogantly, "You heard him, right? Kneel before me right now!!"

Charlie Wade snorted contemptuously, and then, in a split second, he stretched his arm out, grabbed Cain's neck, and lifted him upward!

Sean watched the scene with wide eyes, completely dumbfounded!

Never did he expect that Charlie Wade could lift a 150-pound man with one arm, his feet suspended off the ground!

Cain could only feel a strong force strangling his neck as his legs were kicking in the air. However, the more he struggled, the more he became breathless!

Charlie Wade stared at Cain and said coldly, "If you dare to utter one more word, I'll carve the words 'pathetic jerk' on your forehead just as I did to your son!"

Then, he flung him to the floor.

Cain yelped loudly in pain as he was slammed to the floor. He felt as though the bones in his body were all broken, but he was frightened by Charlie Wade's ruthlessness and charisma, so he crawled to Sean's side with his mouth tightly shut.

Jasmine urged her bodyguards indignantly, "What are you standing there for? Kick this man out of our property right now!"

The bodyguards nodded and immediately marched forward, restraining Cain.

Cain frantically shouted, "Mr. Webb, Mr. Webb, help me!"

Sean clenched his knuckles tightly until they turned white. This was an utter humiliation that he had never had to face before!

The wrath of fury was burning violently in his eyes. He gritted his teeth and said to Jasmine, "Do you know that this loser is a married man and a useless live-in son-in-law? How dare you kick my people out for him?!"

Jasmine replied with a cold face, "Master Wade is our family's honorable guest, and he is also one of the people I admire most. Your dog aside, even if you dare to continue to be disrespectful to Master Wade, I'll kick you out of here!"

Sean squinted his eyes darkly. He looked intensely at Jasmine and then at Charlie Wade as he sneered.

He said in dismay, "Dude, you think you're so powerful, huh! You dare to be so arrogant to me just because Jasmine is backing you up! Haven't you heard of the Webb family in Erith?!"

Charlie Wade smiled faintly and said, "Oh. Yes, I've heard of it."

Sean then continued with a cold and contemptuous expression, "Good, then! You've insulted my family, calling my family trash! If you don't apologize to me right now and beg me for forgiveness, our family will hunt you down! Until then, not even God can protect you!"

"I've heard of the Webb family because of a viral video I saw on the Internet. You know, the young man who ate an old man's shit in a hospital toilet?"

"I also heard that the young man's name is Kian Webb. He is one of your family members, isn't he? The way I see it, your family is quite savage. I wonder how he can eat that thing just like that!"

Sean grimaced angrily when Charlie Wade mentioned his brother's shit-eating incident!

D*mn it, this was the biggest scandal in the Webb family's century-old history!

At that moment, Albert mimicked a meme on the internet and exaggeratedly said, "F*ck! Savage!"

A burst of loud laughter resonated across the yard.

Meanwhile, Sean looked like he wanted Charlie Wade's head on a platter!

Chapter 659

The mockery and laughter made Sean see red, and he clenched his fists so tightly that his knuckles popped continuously!

He glared at Charlie Wade and exclaimed, "Dude, don't say that I never gave you a chance to repent, you did this to yourself! My family will not let you go, you'll never see tomorrow's sun rise!"

Before Charlie Wade could say anything, Jasmine shouted, "Sean Webb, how dare you!"

Sean huffed coldly, "Why not?! Did you think I would let my family be insulted in a shabby town like Aurouss Hilll just like that? Let me tell you! Everyone in Aurouss Hilll must bow to the majestic Webb family!"

Jasmine's face darkened in dismay, and she demanded, "Sean, you are not welcome here. Please get out!"

"What? You want to kick me out?!" Sean looked at Jasmine, shocked, and scornful. "You want to kick me out because of this deadbeat loser?!"

Jasmine said firmly, "Yes! I'll say it again, please get out!"

At this moment, Reuben, Jasmine's cousin, came out of nowhere and hurriedly persuaded them, "Hey, Mr. Webb, Jasmine, calm down. What are you two arguing about?"

Sean quickly blurted when he saw Reuben, "Reuben, thank heavens you're here. Your cousin wants to kick me out of the house because of this lowly loser!"

Reuben glanced at Charlie Wade, feeling somewhat awkward and cumbersome.

In truth, he too scorned Charlie Wade's presence, but he knew that his grandfather believed in him, valued, and respected him, so he dared not disrespect Charlie Wade openly.

As he suspected that there was a discord going on between Charlie Wade and Sean, he hurriedly smiled and said, "Hey, this is just a misunderstanding, I suggest everyone calm down."

He first turned to Charlie Wade and said, "Master Wade, this is Sean Webb, the eldest son and the eldest grandson of the Webb family in Erith."

Then, he quickly turned to Sean and explained, "Mr. Webb, this is Charlie Wade Wade. Master Wade has saved my grandfather's life before."

Sean snorted in dismay, "Master? F*ck you! From what I see, he is just a scammer! He hurt my dog and insulted my family, I won't let him go even if God himself apologizes on his behalf!"

Before Sean could do anything, Lord Mooore and Donald walked over from the house.

Lord Mooore had heard the commotion briefly, and he walked toward the crowd. He frowned in annoyance and asked, "Jasmine, Reuben, what is going on?"

As soon as Sean heard Lord Mooore's voice, he quickly said, "Grandpa Moore, so good to see you here! Jasmine kicked my people out of the property because of this Charlie Wade Wade! Besides, he insulted my family, and this is an utter humiliation to me and my entire family! You must..."

Before he could finish his sentence, Lord Mooore immediately marched forward, held Charlie Wade's hands, and said with total respect, "Master Wade, welcome!"

Sean and Donald looked stunned and shocked by the ridiculous scene!

Why would the 80-year-old Lord Mooore be so respectful to a young and lousily dressed man?!

Charlie Wade smiled gently at Lord Mooore and said, "Mr. Moore, I see that you look rather pale and lethargic, are you not feeling well these days?"

Lord Mooore gasped in surprise and said, "Oh, Master Wade, you are indeed the true dragon, you can see right through me. Yes, honestly speaking, because of the fluctuating weather, I was somewhat infected with a mild cold in addition to my old age, hence, I am quite tired and weak lately."

Charlie Wade nodded. "This is because your core is too weak at the moment. The medicine that I gave you last time was mainly to treat the hidden illnesses that have been accumulated in your body over the many years. Although it has cured your problems, it didn't improve your physical fitness much."

Lord Mooore hurriedly bowed and said, "Even so, I am very grateful for your help, Master Wade! If not for you, I'm afraid that I wouldn't even be around for this birthday banquet today!"

Charlie Wade smiled warmly and said, "I prepared a birthday gift for you today, I believe it will be helpful to your current situation."

Lord Mooore was so surprised upon hearing it, and he shivered in excitement!

A birthday gift? It would be helpful to his current situation?!

Chapter 660

Could it be...

Could it be...

Could it be the Rejuvenating Pill that Anthony had taken?!

Lord Mooore had been dreaming of getting a chance for Charlie Wade to bless him with one of the Rejuvenating Pills so that he could indulge in the intense feeling of going back in time, borrowing more time to stay alive and helping the family go further.

However, if there was one thing he had learned throughout his long life, it was that chances were hard to come by!

He dared not go to Charlie Wade for the pill for fear that Charlie Wade would find him repulsive, thus, he could only wait patiently for the right moment to come.

Initially, he thought that this rare chance would only come by when Jasmine and Charlie Wade had made substantial progress in terms of their relationship.

But now, from the way Charlie Wade put it, he felt as though Charlie Wade might truly have prepared the pill as a birthday gift for him.

He wasn't sure and did not dare to ask him directly, so he bowed at Charlie Wade as he suppressed the excitement and longing. "Thank you for your generosity, Master Wade!"

Donald frowned in confusion and dismay. He leaned against Sean and whispered, "What's going on? Who is that dude?! Why is the old man so respectful toward him?!"

Sean gritted his teeth indignantly and blurted, "Dad! That b*stard is the guest that Jasmine fetched personally! Besides, I think Jasmine is very attached to him!"

"Oh?" Donald frowned. "So, is he the person we're looking for?"

Sean nodded profusely and said bitterly, "He is very pompous and cocky. He beat Cain Lloyd just now and Jasmine kicked him out!"

"What?!"

Donald growled furiously, "We brought Cain in here, which means we publicly announced that Cain is our guy! He still dared to lay hands on Cain after all we did?!"

Sean continued, "Not only that, dad! He insulted us and called our family trash, even going as far as to ridicule Kian openly! I wanted to kill him just now!"

Donald was extremely furious when he heard this!

He was the second-generation heir of the Webb family and would soon succeed his father and become the head of the family. However, he never expected that there was someone who was so disrespectful to the Webb family in a small town like Aurouss Hill! This was outrageous, and he couldn't accept it!

Hence, he turned and said to Lord Mooore, "Uncle, this man beat Cain Lloyd and insulted our family. Cain is our man, and I can't allow my family's dignity to be trampled like that! Please, you must be fair in handling this matter!"

From just this remark, Lord Mooore could comprehend the entire incident.

He suspected that Sean was the foolish culprit who had let Cain provoke Master Wade. Otherwise, with Master Wade's honorable reputation, why would he stoop to the same level as a low-life like Cain?

He found that the current situation was a little tricky. He had Master Wade at one side, and the Webb family at the other. Of course, he had to defend Master Wade, but the Webb family was the number one family in the South Region, and it would bring devastating damage to the Moore family if he offended them..

However, when the Rejuvenating Pill popped up in his mind, all the other problems seemed to fade away!

He chided Donald sternly, "Mr. Webb, Master Wade saved my life! No one is allowed to tarnish Master Wade's reputation in my house!"

Chapter 661

In Lord Mooore's opinion, Charlie Wade had always been the best candidate for the son-in-law of the Moore family.

With his eighty years of life experience, he knew at a glance that Charlie Wade was extraordinary!

Charlie Wade was the first man he recognized to possess powerful abilities that were comparable to a true dragon on earth!

In addition to the wonderful effects of the Rejuvenating Pill, he was more convinced of Charlie Wade's ability and wanted to lean on him.

Establishing a good relationship with the Webb family was nothing more than diversifying more routes to make even more money for the family.

However, the Moore family was considered rich even though they were not as wealthy as the Webb family.

There was not much difference between a net worth of 100 billion dollars or 200 billion dollars, it only equaled one thing—they already owned more money than they could spend.

Moreover, for Lord Mooore, money was no longer important. Lifespan and health were the most important of all!

Therefore, his dire wish was for Charlie Wade to marry into their family and become Jasmine's husband. How could he tolerate others ridiculing Charlie Wade on the family's territory?!

Donald and Sean were dumbstruck.

After Donald being so direct and blunt, they didn't expect that Lord Mooore would choose Charlie Wade over the Webb family!

Donald felt his face burning with rage. He hated Lord Mooore very much for his biases and thought to himself, 'D*mn it, you annoying old coot! How dare you put me on the spot in front of so many people! I'm the future head of the Webb family! You've tarnished my reputation!'

Sean was equally annoyed. He frowned and complained, "Grandpa Moore, as far as I'm concerned, this Charlie Wade Wade is just a feng shui scammer! Don't be fooled by this piece of rubbish!"

Lord Mooore's face immediately turned dark and sullen.

He glared at Sean and chided coldly, "I've lived for eighty years, I think I know how to judge people. I don't need your guidance!"

Donald was equally sullen upon hearing this and said, "Uncle, does that mean you are taking this outsider's side?"

"Yes!" Lord Mooore stated firmly. "In my eyes, Master Wade is the true dragon on earth, no one can compare to him!"

Lord Mooore's loud and stern voice echoed across the yard!

Everyone froze on the spot, astonished!

Donald was extremely annoyed.

His pet peeve was the tarnish of his dignity, and Lord Mooore had literally just done so!

At this moment, he wanted to walk away and completely cut ties with the Moore family!

The Webb family was more influential and powerful than the Moore family. If the Webb family announced that they would break ties with the Moore family, the Moore family would inevitably be impacted by negative forces that would cost them at least several billions of losses!

However, if he walked away right now, there would be no turning back, and his wish for his son to marry Jasmine would never be granted!

After spending his entire life in a wealthy family, Donald knew very well about the importance of a good wife to wealthy men.

If Sean married an ordinary woman, she would not be able to bring him any assistance and may even diminish his will and determination to fight and strive for success.

If Sean married a celebrity, she would ultimately become a prodigal who sucked his fortune like a greedy vampire sucking his blood and spent lavishly, and that would eventually lead their family to bankruptcy.

If Sean married an unproductive rich girl with an irritating temperament, she would probably drag him into joining the bandwagon of the prodigal. It would be like dumping their billion-dollar inheritance into the ocean.

He had seen too many cases of wealthy men marrying the wrong women and spending the rest of their lives in regrets.

Therefore, he was determined for his son to marry the perfect wife who was gentle and charming and could bring great help to him and his family!

Chapter 662

Jasmine was the best candidate as his son's wife!

Donald was a little hesitant and indecisive when he thought of it.

Following Donald's gloomy silence, the atmosphere turned into an awkward reticence.

Reuben secretly punched his knuckles in dismay when he witnessed this awkward scene.

If both families fought and generated an irreversible crack or in the worst-case scenario, turned against each other, it would undoubtedly be a massive blow to the Moore family!

More importantly, Jasmine would be even more unlikely to marry Sean!

If Jasmine didn't marry him, his position as the future heir would be unstable!

Even if he was appointed as the head of the family, Jasmine might have a part in the family's inheritance!

He was determined to not let Jasmine stay with the Moore family, and so, he would definitely oppose strongly for Jasmine to marry Charlie Wade and let him live in their house!

Therefore, he hurriedly stood up to lighten the mood and said, "Hey, Uncle Webb, Sean, today is my grandfather's birthday, so, he is the king of the day. Please calm down and relax, let's not destroy our harmonious friendship."

Reuben was offering a chance for everyone to ease the mood and buffer.

Donald was still in a black mood. He didn't want to turn things sour between both families, but he was still infuriated by the embarrassment.

As the saying went, 'you cannot sell the cow and drink the milk', but Lord Mooore actually wanted both. If he had to choose one of the two, he would undoubtedly choose Charlie Wade. However, since he didn't have to choose, he definitely wanted both.

Hence, Reuben's interjection offered a chance for both men to reconcile temporarily.

Donald cleared his throat and started, "Reuben is right. Today is Uncle Moore's 80th birthday, I can't ruin it. Uncle, I'm sorry for what happened just now, I was too impulsive. I hope you can forgive me!"

In this way, not only did he give himself an out but also Lord Moore.

As the junior, he had taken the initiative to apologize on the grounds of Lord Moore's birthday and he had also shown that he was respectful to the elder as well as saving his own face.

In his opinion, the right choice for the moment was to ease the confrontation between himself and Lord Moore. As for Charlie Wade, he had a million ways to kill him after the party was over later!

A warmth slowly spread over Lord Moore's face. He nodded and said, "Yes, harmony brings wealth. I don't want everyone to be in an unpleasant mood on this auspicious day either."

Then, he turned to Charlie Wade and asked, "Master Wade, what do you think?"

Charlie Wade found Donald and Sean repulsive, but he didn't need Lord Moore to stand up for him. He preferred to torment and punish these pretentious b*stars himself.

Nevertheless, today was indeed Lord Moore's birthday banquet. It was unnecessary for him to make a scene with the other guests here. Even if he wanted to fight them, they should take the fight outside out of respect for the owner of the house.

Thus, he said flatly, "Lord Moore, you are the boss today, the ultimate decision is on you."

Lord Moore hurriedly laughed and said, "Huh, it's just a misunderstanding, it's great that everyone can talk it through! Come, come, let's move to the banquet hall, the party is about to begin!"

The wrath of resentment and unpleasantness was still burning wildly inside Sean's heart, and his eyes almost burst into flames as he glared at Charlie Wade, but he couldn't do anything since the adults had reached a truce.

He simply glared at Charlie Wade with his murderous glances and cursed inwardly, 'B*stard, you'll be done soon!'

Chapter 663

The crowd started to walk toward the banquet hall where the birthday celebration was about to begin.

Lord Mooore exchanged a few words with Charlie Wade and went to sit at the main seat.

Sitting next to him was his eldest son, third son, and fourth son.

Among the second-generation heirs of the Moore family, Reuben's father was the eldest son, and Jasmine's father was the second son, but he had died young, hence, Jasmine was the only one left in this line.

As for the family of the third and fourth sons, they were relatively young and their children were still in the teenage or elementary school age, thus, they were not considered in the inheritance competition.

The rest of the guests sat down at their assigned tables.

Charlie Wade sat with the Quinton family, the White family, Albert, and so on.

Donald and Sean were sitting with a few local families. Some of them were families who were busy buttering them up, and they surrounded the Webb family's father and son, continuously flattering them.

The table was full of mouth-watering delicacies as well as luxurious aged wine.

Jasmine couldn't sit with Charlie Wade, but her beautiful eyes were constantly following him and never shifted for a split second.

Sitting on Charlie Wade's right was Aurora, while Zeke sat on his left side.

After Zeke had taken his seat, he whispered to Charlie Wade, "Master Wade, the renovation at the Thompson First villa will be completed soon, may I know when do you plan to move in?"

"I'll move in as soon as the renovation is completed."

He had discussed this matter with Claire Wilson Wilson. The villa was so much better than their current place, but more importantly, they would stay on a separate floor from Elaine Ma. They would be grateful for the much-needed privacy and avoidance of her disturbance.

Zeke quickly said, "Master Wade, do you need me to buy some furniture and electrical appliances in advance? That way, you and your wife can just pack your bags and move in right away."

Charlie Wade pondered his suggestion for a while. Although Claire Wilson Wilson was quite frugal, she had quite a high taste in terms of lifestyle and interior decoration. In addition to the renovation, the most important elements in a house were the purchase and placement of furniture. It would be convenient if he let Zeke handle everything, but Claire Wilson Wilson might not like it.

It would be best if he let Claire Wilson Wilson decide the furniture selection and layout according to her own preference.

Therefore, he said to Zeke, "Well, you don't need to worry about those things. I'll take my family furniture shopping. After all, everyone has different preferences."

"Yes, that was my concern as well, so I didn't take the initiative to furnish the house. By the way, I prepared a 10 million shopping card for you, it can be used in all furniture and home appliance stores in Aurouss Hilll."

Charlie Wade waved his hand with a smile. "Thank you, but I won't take your money. It's not appropriate."

Frankly, Charlie Wade was loaded. He had hardly spent the 10 billion the Wade family had given him, and besides, there was an additional 10 billion from blackmailing Japan's Kobayashi Pharma.

He had more than 20 billion lying in the bank that he didn't know how to spend.

He hadn't included the Emgrand Group's net profit that kept pouring in either. It would be a larger and more significant sum if that was counted in.

Zeke knew that Charlie Wade was definitely not short of money when he rejected his offer, so, he hurriedly said, "Then, I'll keep the card for you first. You can ask me at any time if you need it."

Charlie Wade nodded lightly.

Chapter 664

At this moment, he received a text from Jasmine: [Master Wade, I hope you don't take what happened earlier personally. With the Moore family around, the Webb family will not be too presumptuous.]

Charlie Wade smiled and replied: [Of course, I don't mind, they are nothing but a bunch of circus clowns.]

Meanwhile, Donald and Sean were sitting in the VIP seats on the other side.

Sean looked at Jasmine, then at Charlie Wade, and saw that both of them were looking at their phones. When she put it down, he picked it up, and when he put it down, she picked it up again. It was obvious that they were exchanging texts.

As he watched their exchange, he was even more agitated. He had added Jasmine as his Facebook friend, but she had set her profile as private!

In fact, she rarely responded whenever he chatted with her.

However, as he watched the frequency of her chatting with Charlie Wade now, she was so acute and responsive, almost as though she was afraid to miss his message for even a second. She even had a sweet little smile on her face as she looked at her phone.

Sean was very experienced in courting girls, and he could see that Jasmine was indeed in love with Charlie Wade now.

As he glared at them, the wrath of fury started to ignite inside him again.

He leaned against his father and said in a low voice, "Dad, I want Charlie Wade dead! Tonight!"

Donald sighed at Sean's agitated expression and shook his head. "Do you know what is the only thing that I'm quite disappointed with in you?"

Sean shook his head, puzzled.

Donald sighed again and said, "You are too impulsive and hasty. You can't get your priorities straight."

Then, he continued, "Charlie Wade is just a nobody with no background, we can kill him whenever we want. Don't ruin the relationship with the Moore family because of him. The most important thing right now is to let you win Jasmine's heart!"

Sean was still a little annoyed, but he nodded heavy heartedly. "I know. Okay, I'll wait for another two days, and then I'll get someone to kill him!"

"Calm down and observe him first. Although Charlie Wade is a nobody, he has many supporters in the city. Not only the Quinton family, the White family, and Don Albertt, but even the Moore family supports him. He can be a problem for us."

"What should we do?"

"We first need to sketch out a perfect plan if we want to kill him!"

Then, Donald explained further, "Even though Albert is just a thug, he has many men under him. If we get on his nerves, he can easily summon thousands of men in a split second, so we should beware of him. If we kill Charlie Wade, he may retaliate, and if that happens, we may not be able to escape Aurouss Hilll alive."

"Albert?" Sean frowned and blurted, "Let's kill him first, then!"

Donald nodded. "Yes, that's what I thought as well. First, let Albert be caught off guard and we'll kill him when he doesn't notice. Then, we'll help Cain Lloyd take over his place and become the new king of the underworld!"

A sinister tinge flashed across Donald's expression. "By that time, we will have a strong foundation of power and forces in Aurouss Hilll! It will be a piece of cake to wipe Charlie Wade and those futile families off the grid!"

Sean was getting more and more excited as he listened to his father's plan and blurted, "So, Dad, when do we kill Albert? I can't stand him anymore!"

"Relax, I have a plan laid out. My men will send Albert across the Rainbow Bridge tonight!"

Chapter 665

Sean shivered in elation at the thought of killing Albert tonight!

His father was right, Don Albertt was Charlie Wade's firearm in Aurouss Hilll!

If they wanted to attack Charlie Wade, they must first remove his firearm!

Not only must they remove his firearm, but they also had to turn the firearm into their own!

That way, the firearm would become the bridgehead for the Webb family to march into Aurouss Hilll in the future!

At that time, Charlie Wade would pay the price with his own life for insulting them and tackling Sean's girl!

The Quinton family and the White family would also pay the price for not taking the Webb family's side!

Donald looked at Sean and said flatly, "You must learn to calm down and put up a poker face, don't let your true emotions show so easily on your face and body language."

Sean quickly retracted his grin. "Okay, Dad, I understand!"

"Good." Donald nodded, putting Charlie Wade's matter behind him, and he asked, "Have you prepared the birthday gift for Lord Mooore?"

Sean nodded. "Yes, I have. I've inquired and found out that Lord Moore likes the works of Johannes Vermeer. He owns a tiny collection himself, so I specially asked someone to take a copy of The Geographer from our home gallery as the birthday gift. It is worth at least two to three billion, I believe he will like it!"

Donald nodded, a hint of satisfaction appearing in his eyes.

The Geographer was a treasure among treasures in the Webb family. With the painting as a stepping stone, he was certain that it would open the

Moore family's door and be more welcoming to their family, and they might even agree to the marriage proposal.

Finally, the birthday banquet had officially begun.

Lord Mooore walked onto the small stage and thanked all the guests present for attending his 80-year-old birthday banquet.

After a short speech, the next agenda was the guests taking turns to congratulate Lord Mooore and present their gifts.

Two bodyguards in black suits carried an imperial armchair onto the stage and assisted Lord Mooore to sit on the chair.

Reuben's father, his third uncle, and fourth uncle stood up first and lined up on the stage.

They knelt and bowed before Lord Mooore before offering their gifts one by one.

Oscar, the family's head butler, stood beside Lord Mooore to receive the gift while announcing the gift and its value to the guests.

This was also the tacit understanding and habit that the upper-class family had long formed.

"The eldest son, Tyler Moore, presents a tropical island in the Maldives, worth 500 million!"

Loud gasps echoed through the banquet hall!

Tyler was indeed generous as his gift was an island!

Tyler was Reuben's father, Jasmine's uncle.

Tyler spoke to Lord Mooore, "Father, I heard that you were not feeling well a few days ago, so I bought a tropical island for you so that you can go there to escape the cold when winter comes!"

Lord Mooore smiled and nodded. "Good, good. Tyler, thank you!"

"The third son, Branson Moore, presents a villa in Hawaii, worth 200 million!"

A middle-aged man who was much younger than Tyler said hurriedly, "Father, I didn't expect that Tyler would give you an island, the villa really pales in comparison!"

Lord Mooore smiled warmly. "Nonsense, my son. I appreciate your thought. Thank you for your gift."

"The fourth son, Anders Moore, presents a luxury yacht worth 150 million!"

Another middle-aged man hurriedly said, "Father, Branson and I bought the yacht and the villa for you. When you go to Hawaii, you can enjoy a day or two on the yacht."

Then, he said complementing, "But we didn't expect that Tyler would give you an island! We can send you to the Maldives with the yacht!"

Lord Mooore laughed. "Good, good, when winter comes, we can go to the island in the Maldives for a vacation!"

Chapter 666

After the three sons, Jasmine and Reuben walked on stage, knelt in front of Lord Mooore, and presented their gifts.

Oscar then announced:

"The eldest grandson, Reuben Moore, presents a pair of imperial jadeite ornaments, worth 80 million."

"The eldest granddaughter, Jasmine Moore, presents a painting, The Blinding of Samson by Rembrandt, worth 70 million."

After the family finished their rounds, the guests stepped forward one after another, giving gifts.

Although the guests' gifts were not as valuable as the Moore family members', they were also quite pricey between the range of 10 to 30 million.

Next, Donald and Sean stood up. Sean held the gift carefully and walked toward Lord Mooore with his father.

On his way, Sean shot a scornful look at Charlie Wade.

He was about to give Lord Mooore a priceless piece of authentic painting from Vermeer, it had to be the most valuable gift among all the guests!

He was certain that Charlie Wade's gift would pale in comparison to his gift, he would know by then that they were from different worlds!

Sean was feeling extremely proud of himself as he imagined the scene. He held the painting carefully and bowed before Lord Mooore. Then, he marched forward and said with a smile, "Grandpa Moore, this is a gift from me! I heard that you like Johannes Vermeer's painting, so I had someone bring one from our house, The Geographer, which is worth hundreds of millions of dollars. I hope you like it."

Then, Oscar immediately announced loudly, "The eldest son of the Webb family presents a copy of Vermeer's original The Geographer, with a value of over 100 million!"

His announcement attracted curious gazes and attention from all the guests.

Vermeer's paintings were relatively few and rare in the market, and every piece of his painting was extremely priceless.

Any of the most common paintings came with a price tag of at least 30 to 40 million, let alone the extremely rare ones.

Previously, Vermeer's The Girl with the Pearl Earring had been sold abroad for 3.6 billion dollars.

The Geographer was also one of Vermeer's rare treasures. Five years ago, it had been sold to a mysterious rich man at an auction at a price of nearly 200 million dollars. There was almost no news about the painting ever since.

No one expected that the painting would resurface at the Webb family's house. It could be assumed that the mysterious man who bought the painting was them.

Five years ago, the painting was worth 200 million dollars. If it was auctioned off now, the value would possibly be increased to 300 million!

It could even fetch 400 million if they were lucky!

Lord Mooore blinked in astonishment when he heard the announcement.

He never expected the Webb family to be so generous in giving him the painting of The Geographer that was worth more than 300 million!

Everyone in Aurouss Hilll knew that he liked Vermeer's painting, so it was impossible for the Webb family to overlook it.

By presenting Vermeer's The Geographer as a birthday gift, they were completely catering to his pleasure regardless of cost.

Lord Mooore couldn't hide his excitement and said, "Sean, thank you, you are so generous! I've been looking for this painting for a long time, thank you for giving it to me. I appreciate it very much!"

Sean was very proud and delighted upon hearing this.

Haha, he had guessed it right! The old man was obsessed with Vermeer, he couldn't get his eyes off the painting!

However, he donned a calm and composed expression and said, "Grandpa Moore, you're welcome. This is just a token of my affection."

Then, he couldn't help but glance at Charlie Wade.

Charlie Wade had not yet come to give his gifts. Now that he had approached the stage first to give the most expensive gift before Charlie Wade, there was no way Charlie Wade could beat him at this!

Hence, he smiled and said, "Brother Wade, I wonder what kind of gifts you have prepared for Grandpa Moore? Grandpa Moore admires you so much, you wouldn't let him down, would you?"

Chapter 667

In Sean's opinion, he was convinced that there was nothing Charlie Wade, the deadbeat moocher, could give to Lord Moore that was comparable to Vermeer's painting!

Thus, he concluded that he would win over Charlie Wade big time and also become the winner in the gift-giving round who surprised the guests and impressed Lord Moore the most.

After all, in Sean's view, Charlie Wade was just a worthless loser who had chosen to marry into his wife's family, it was impossible for him to come out with a decent gift, so no matter what his present was, it couldn't possibly be on par with the precious painting he had given Lord Moore!

Therefore, he sneered, "Grandpa Moore, I heard that Master Wade has been lingering in the feng shui fraud for some time now, he must have accumulated a significant fortune from all the scamming he did. I bet his birthday gift to you must be a precious treasure that is worth hundreds of millions, or maybe even billions of dollars!"

Then, he turned his sneer at Charlie Wade, "The painting I gave is only worth 400 million, I believe your gift must be more expensive than mine!"

Lord Moore frowned at Sean's sarcastic remark, his dissatisfaction toward the young man growing. He then said with a cold expression, "No matter what Master Wade gives to me, they are all priceless treasures!"

Sean was taken aback by the cold treatment and unfriendly tone.

What kind of magic potion had Charlie Wade given to Lord Moore anyway? Why was he taking his side all the time?!

Meanwhile, Charlie Wade stood up and approached the stage since his name had been mentioned.

Everyone glued their eyes at him, wondering what kind of gift he would give.

However, he was not holding anything in his hands nor did it look like he was carrying anything inside his pockets.

Did Charlie Wade plan to play "empty-handed" with Lord Moore on such a glamorous occasion?!

Even if he wanted to give a painting, it was impossible to put it into his pocket no matter how tiny the painting was!

Since Charlie Wade was walking up empty-handed, most people assumed that he did not prepare a gift. Even if he had, it was highly likely to be a worthless piece of shit and completely incomparable to the Vermeer painting.

On the other hand, Lord Mooore was sitting at the edge of his chair, his heart in his mouth.

He focused entirely on Charlie Wade.

In truth, he was shaking in wonderment when he saw Charlie Wade approach him empty-handed!

His biggest concern was seeing Charlie Wade holding a gift box, a scroll, or some physical object to come to him.

Because at a moment like this, he didn't want anything except the Rejuvenating Pill!

Vermeer's painting was indeed an awesome present, it truly catered to his preference as antiquity.

However, it was just his hobby.

When you were on the verge of dying, what was the use of putting all his favorite things in front of him?

He would rather exchange all of those things for a few more days to live.

Thus, Lord Mooore was looking forward to Charlie Wade giving him the Rejuvenating Pill! It could be regarded as his greatest expectation right now.

At this moment, Charlie Wade had come to a stop in front of Lord Mooore, calm and tranquil.

Before he could speak, Sean interjected mockingly, "Hey, Brother Wade, don't you think you're a little bit too stingy? Today is Grandpa Moore's 80th birthday, how could you attend his banquet empty-handed? The nerves you've got!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and asked, "Who told you that I didn't prepare any gift?"

"Where is your gift, then? Show us!"

Sean said contemptuously, "Did you simply buy something off the shelf and come? Open your eyes and look around, which of these gifts is worth ten million or below?"

Chapter 668

Charlie Wade smiled at him with feigned ignorance and retrieved a small wooden box from his pocket.

Charlie Wade had bought the wooden box by the street for five dollars. He had bought it because he thought it was inappropriate to put the pill directly into his pocket or wrap it with a napkin.

Sean couldn't conceal his disdain when he saw the wooden box and sneered, "D*mn, what the heck is that? Did you buy that by the street for ten dollars?"

Charlie Wade smiled. "You are half right. Yes, I bought it by the street, but it only cost me five dollars instead of ten."

Everyone gaped in shock at Charlie Wade's remark!

Did he even take Lord Mooore seriously?

How could he come to Lord Mooore's birthday with a five-dollar wooden box?!

Even if there was something in the box, it would be some lousy junk, right?

He wouldn't put something valuable inside such a shabby-looking box.

Hence, everyone started booing at Charlie Wade.

Even Reuben covered his mouth and tutted contemptuously.

Sean howled indignantly as if he had caught Charlie Wade red-handed, "Charlie Wade Wade, you are being so disrespectful! How dare you give Grandpa Moore such junk? You're doing this intentionally, aren't you?"

Ignoring him, Charlie Wade opened the small wooden box, revealing the black and round pill inside, and said to Lord Mooore, "Mr. Moore, this is the birthday gift I prepared for you by chance, the Rejuvenating Pill. I hope you like it."

He used the term 'by chance' in order to avoid unnecessary problems.

Lord Mooore was trembling in excitement when he saw the pill! He stood up, feeling a surge of energy rushing to the top of his head.

He started shaking violently as soon as he got up as the uncontrollable excitement surged through his body!

He had been wishing, even in his dreams, that Master Wade would bless him with the rare chance that he had given to Anthony, but he could only keep it as a secret as he knew the chance was so precious and exceptional.

However, he never expected that his ultimate dream would come true, and it was even better now because it had happened on his birthday!

Master Wade had granted him the precious dream!

The guests watched intensely as Lord Mooore walked toward Charlie Wade on shaky legs.

Those who didn't know Charlie Wade assumed that Lord Mooore was agitated and infuriated by Charlie Wade's mischief as he had never suffered such humiliation in his life. They assumed that he would slap Charlie Wade in the face and kick him out of here.

Sean took a peek and saw the dark, unassuming pill lying in the box, and he couldn't see anything mystical about it. He huffed in disdain, "Charlie Wade, are you honestly going to give Lord Mooore a shitty pill on his 80th birthday? Isn't that an enhancement pill you just bought off the street? Are you sure the people who take it won't die?!"

Charlie Wade ignored him and explained to Lord Mooore, "Mr. Moore, this Rejuvenating Pill has the effect of prolonging life and improving physical fitness. After taking it, it can make you feel ten years younger, and your life expectancy will be extended by at least ten years."

Sean couldn't help but shake his head in amusement and tease, "Oh my goodness, Charlie Wade, do you think you can fool the almighty and clever Grandpa Moore with that nonsense? What kind of a shitty enhancement pill can make someone ten years younger? What kind of joke are you trying to tell? You're certainly treating all of us as fools, aren't you?"

The guests nodded simultaneously. They all agreed that Charlie Wade's claims were ridiculous and out of this world.

A pill that could make someone ten years younger? Who was he trying to trick?!

However, out of everyone's expectation, Lord Mooore came to Charlie Wade, trembling, and suddenly, knelt on the floor!

Loud gasps resonated across the banquet hall instantly, and everyone was so shocked as if they had been struck by lightning!

Chapter 669

No one would have imagined that the 80-year-old Lord Mooore would actually kneel to Charlie Wade!

Supposedly, when someone lived to be 80 years old, his parents and elders might have already passed away. No one, not even God himself, deserved the privilege of getting him to kneel before them.

Moreover, Lord Mooore was the head of the Moore family! The largest and most prominent family in Arouss Hillll!

Their 80-year-old family patriarch had literally knelt before a young man in his twenties!

This was incredibly extraordinary and bizarre!

Sean was equally dumbfounded.

What the hell?!

Had the old man actually knelt for a piece of enhancement pill?

You should've said so sooner!

I could've used the 400 million dollars on the Vermeer's painting to buy enhancement pills, it would have been enough to cater to your needs until your 200th birthday!

I didn't even ask you to kneel to me, betrothing Jasmine to me was all I asked for!

Meanwhile, the Moore family members were all donning different expressions.

Jasmine was filled with uncontrollable thrill and excitement.

Her parents had passed away when she was young. Her grandfather had raised her to adulthood, and she shared a deep and emotional relationship with him.

Besides, she had heard from her grandfather that Dr. Simmons had been given the Rejuvenating Pill some time ago, and she also knew that her grandfather desperately yearned to get the pill himself.

For Jasmine, she hoped that her grandfather could be blessed with such a rare opportunity to get the pill and live healthily for another ten years.

However, the other family members did not share the same thought, especially Reuben, the eldest grandson of the Moore family. He was utterly worried and upset by this scene.

For as long as his grandfather was alive and kicking, he would not completely hand over the power to his father, and it would be difficult for him to become the sole heir of the family inheritance.

As far as he was concerned, Lord Mooore had not written any will regarding the division of his inheritance and estate, so, no one knew how much assets he intended to distribute to his three sons after his death as well as Jasmine whose parents had perished.

If Reuben's father couldn't inherit the entire family business, he would get an even smaller inheritance. Thus, he didn't want his grandfather to live longer than he was supposed to.

At this moment, Lord Mooore knelt in front of Charlie Wade, tears of astonishment pouring down his cheeks.

With a warm smile on his face, Charlie Wade placed the box in his hand and said gently, "This pill is extremely precious and rare. It's the only one left in the world, so I advise you to take it as soon as possible in case it turns bad."

Lord Mooore accepted the wooden box with shaky hands, and he was very elated!

Amidst everyone's intense gaze and stunned gasp, he bowed down, his forehead touching the ground!

The backs of his hands were on the ground, the palms facing upward, and he said earnestly, "I, Jonathan Moore, thank Master Wade for his generosity and opportunity! I can never repay his ultimate favor, and I hereby swear to God that I will do my best to be loyal to Master Wade for the rest of my life!"

Louder exclamations echoed through the hall once again!

If they hadn't seen it with their own eyes, who could believe that Lord Mooore would actually kneel and bow to a young man and say such pious words?!

The most clueless and incomprehensible one of them all was Sean!

Chapter 670

Sean thought that the old thing must have lost his mind or someone had knocked him hard on the head, otherwise, why would he kneel and bow to Charlie Wade?!

Lord Mooore was the most senior among all the attendees today. Even though the Webb family was at a higher level than the Moore family in terms of the social class pyramid, his father's power and assets were lesser than the Moore family, not to mention, Lord Mooore was an elder.

As for the guests, many of them were from average and above average families, but they were still worth at least over 100 million.

There was only one loser in this hall, and that was Charlie Wade!

Yet, Lord Mooore chose to kneel before this loser and even bowed his head to him!

Why?!

What the f*ck did Charlie Wade have that he didn't?!

Why did Lord Mooore kneel to Charlie Wade so humbly?!

In other words, he would give his granddaughter to this loser, wouldn't he?!

Sean was extremely depressed and infuriated as he thought about it!

If he didn't tarnish Charlie Wade's influence right now, Lord Mooore might even be willing to let Jasmine be the loser's mistress!

So, he gritted his teeth and said indignantly, "Grandpa Moore! How could you believe this loser and his bullshit? That pill there, it's obvious that he bought it from a lousy doctor by the street! The box is five dollars, the pill must be ten at best! Please don't be fooled by him! You may ruin your health if you take it!"

Lord Mooore glared at Sean and chided him coldly, "Sean, you are my family's guest, but Master Wade is my savior. He saved my life and did me favors that I cannot repay. If you dare to insult him again, I'll make this very personal!"

Sean stomped his feet anxiously. "Grandpa Moore, are you out of your mind? How can you believe in such bullshit?!"

Jasmine rose to her feet and angrily said, "Sean Webb! Watch your tongue!"

Sean frowned at Jasmine and asked, "Your grandpa is confused, and you too? The pill is just a worthless piece of shit that people use to scam the dull-witted elderly! You are an educated person! You graduated from a prestigious university in The States, and yet, are you saying that you also believe in Charlie Wade's bullshit?!"

"Of course I do!" Jasmine burst out without hesitation, "I'll never doubt anything Master Wade says! As for you, if you attack Master Wade again and insult my grandfather, I'll kick you out of here!"

"You..." Sean's blood was boiling.

What the hell was all this?!

How did a shabby little pill turn Lord Mooore and Jasmine into such ignorant fools?!

He wouldn't even bother to take a look at the piece of shit if someone gave it to him!

Why did they treat it as a priceless treasure?

Lord Mooore had only said a simple 'thank you' to his f*cking 400 million dollar painting, but he had knelt before Charlie Wade for a worthless enhancement pill!

D*mn it! If they wanted to measure the gifts by value, Lord Mooore should have buried his knees deep into the floor for Sean!

He turned to the guests and shouted in great dismay, "Come, let me listen to your judgment. What is the value of an enhancement pill like this? Is it more precious than my Vermeer painting? You, the Moore family! Why are you treating this loser so respectfully instead of me?!"

Donald was equally enraged as his son had received such a cold treatment after giving such an expensive gift. He stood up and snorted angrily, "Uncle Moore, indeed, your family is at the top of the social pyramid in Aurouss Hilll, but you can't taunt our family like this! Why are you being so respectful and gracious to the person who gives away a piece of the rubbish, but you treat my son coldly when he has given you such a rare painting?"

"If you don't give us a reasonable explanation today, I can only assume that the Moore family deliberately looks down upon our family!"

Holding the Rejuvenating Pill carefully in his hands, Lord Mooore chided sternly, "Donald Webb, you are the eldest son of the Webb family, but I never knew that you were so ignorant and have such a narrow vision! Do you truly think that this pill is rubbish? To tell you the truth, if you knew the effect of this pill, you would also kneel in front of Master Wade and beg him to give you one!"

Donald said coldly, "Huh, me? Don't make me laugh! I'm not even 60 yet, do you think I'm as confused and stupid as you are?!"

Charlie Wade smiled as he glanced at Donald's resolute and somewhat sarcastic expression, and he said to Lord Mooore, "There is a lyric that sings, 'Miner's lady, a stranger to blue water'. The lady who lives at the coal mine all year round will never know the blue hue of the ocean, similar to the person who doesn't believe that there is a God in this world because they have never seen miracles."

Then, he chuckled ambiguously and said flatly, "In that case, why don't you take the pill here so that they can see what kind of miraculous effect the pill brings!"

Chapter 671

Lord Mooore had been very enthusiastic after receiving the Rejuvenating Pill, and he wanted to swallow it the minute he received it.

After all, he had seen the magical effect materialize on Anthony after the latter had taken the pill, so he was very worried about damaging it when he held it in his hand.

The only way to feel assured was to eat it!

Since Charlie Wade had said so, Lord Mooore nodded and said gratefully, "Okay, Master Wade, I'll take it now!"

Then, he carefully put the pill into his mouth and swallowed it!

As the pill was being digested, he felt that the pill had transformed into a stream of heat that surged into his limbs and veins, warming his body, and every cell in his body was full of vitality. It was as if he had returned to his teenage years, feeling youthful and energetic.

Just like Anthony, Lord Mooore felt that every part of his body had been nourished by the pill to the point that it was glowing with long-lost youth.

Surprisingly, he found that the old wounds and illnesses that had lingered in his body for many decades were gradually disappearing, and the wrinkles on his face began to smoothen, and his skin started to tighten.

He felt an itch on his scalp as well, and it seemed that new hair was starting to grow!

Lord Mooore was experiencing astonishing physical and internal changes right in front of everyone's eyes!

He was slightly crouching in the beginning. He slowly stood straight and upright. His hair, although not all, was starting to turn black.

The senile lines on his face had also faded to a visible extent, and his spirit and dynamic were completely different from before!

If one were to say Lord Mooore looked like an old man in his eighties earlier, now, he looked like he was in his sixties at best!

In fact, he suddenly looked very energized and active, his dynamic eyes even suggested that he was a middle-aged man!

Those who had dismissed the Rejuvenating Pill earlier were stunned by Lord Mooore's incredible and supernatural changes!

No one had ever seen such a miraculous sight, and even Jasmine was completely taken aback by the sight!

The former rickety old man had now become a gray-haired middle-aged man. This reminded Jasmine of the time the old man had taken her into his arms when her father had passed away a decade ago and told her not to be afraid and that he would always be there for her.

Her grandfather had only been in his sixties at the time, and right now, he looked almost the same as he did back then.

In other words, it could be said that her grandfather's biological clock had been reversed thanks to the Rejuvenating Pill!

It also meant that his life would be extended by ten more years..

Did that mean that her grandfather could live until he was 100 years old!?

Jasmine burst into joyful tears all of a sudden!

The rest of the Moore family members did not truly care about her. When her father had died, they were grieving on the outside, but celebrating in their hearts, delighted that there was one less person in the inheritance war among them.

As such, her only relative in the world who sincerely cared about her was her grandfather!

So, of course she hoped that her grandfather could live a long life!

When Lord Mooore was dying, he had once told her that his biggest regret was that he couldn't walk her down the aisle.

Lord Mooore had said that Jasmine was the one he was most worried about because she had lost her parents since she was a child, and he adored her very much. She was also the only child who was the most sincere and filial to him.

Hence, his biggest concern was that Jasmine hadn't started a family when he died. Then, Jasmine would become lonely.

Lord Mooore hoped to watch her marry a man who loved her and whom she loved in return, a capable and reliable man who could take care of and protect her.

Only in that way could he leave the world peacefully.

However, now, Jasmine knew that he didn't have to worry about any of that any longer.

Not only could he walk her down the aisle, but he could also see her having kids and building her own family. He could even enjoy the happiness of four generations living together!

When this thought flashed through Jasmine's mind, she couldn't help looking at Charlie Wade.

Chapter 672

Charlie Wade was her ideal partner if she ever wanted to marry someone and have children with.

But would Charlie Wade fall in love with her?

Would Charlie Wade be willing to give up on his current loveless marriage and be with her?

Jasmine was a little worried.

On the other hand, the rest of the crowd cheered loudly!

They were so excited when they saw with their own eyes the exceptional changes that happened to Lord Mooore!

"How... how is it possible... How did Lord Mooore become so young suddenly?!"

"Oh my goodness, is this the effect of the Rejuvenating Pill?!"

"A pill that can make someone ten years younger! This is a magical pill!"

"Master Wade was indeed the true dragon!"

"I... I want the pill too..."

"Me too... I'm willing to buy it for 10 million!"

"One million? You must be kidding! I'll buy it for 100 million!"

"D*mn it! If Master Wade wants to sell the pill, I'll pay 200 million!"

Ear-deafening astonishment and exclamations resonated in the hall!

If they hadn't seen it with their own eyes, no one would have believed that a literal rejuvenation pill was real!

This kind of thing could only happen on TV, the movies, and in dramas, but it had happened in real life!

All the guests today were successful people who were in their 40s and 50s, or even older. People of this age had already felt the despair and hardship of the passing of time, and in this case, youth.

They had started to have wrinkles crawling up their faces and necks, their physique was much worse than when they were young. Backaches, knee pains, muscle strains, and so on, were inevitable.

In addition, hair loss, obesity, getting up at night, and rapid sexual deterioration was also unspeakable misery suffered by these men.

No one in their 50s and 60s would not miss the happiness and joy in their youth!

Unfortunately, back when they were young, most of these men were healthy but had no money, and as they grew older, their fortune expanded, but their health dissipated.

Not many people were as fortunate as Donald who was born with a silver spoon to have money and physical strength ever since the day they were born.

Many of these men did not have the luck to attract women when they were young, but when they had the money and career, and countless young women had started courting them, they lacked the physical and sexual strength to meet their needs.

As such, they stopped dreaming about having both money and youth in their hands at the same time. Instead, they wished that they could reincarnate into a wealthier family in their next life.

Therefore, when they witnessed the miracle that happened to Lord Mooore, a hopeful and longing fire started to burn within them!

Even a rich man like Donald was on his tiptoes as he witnessed the miraculous changes on Lord Mooore!

Indeed, his youth had been filled with money, energy, and power.

At that time, he was a playboy sought after by countless beauties. His youth life could be described as hopping between different bushes of flowers every day, and it certainly sounded as scandalous and flirtatious as it might. He was as popular as David Beckham, even.

However, it was all in the past, being kept in the folder of his glorious history. His manhood and masculinity had deteriorated day by day.

Hence, he missed those youthful days when he was a bold, free, and casual young man.

At this moment, when he looked at Charlie Wade, there was no longer hatred and resentment. Instead, it was replaced by eagerness and expectation..

He walked up to Charlie Wade, bowed respectfully, and said, "Master Wade, may I know if you still have any Rejuvenating Pills left? If you do, please give me one. I'll pay 500 million dollars for it!"

Chapter 673

No one at the scene would have expected Donald, who was scolding Charlie Wade and pressuring Lord Mooore to give him an explanation earlier, to suddenly change so quickly.

Even Sean himself was stunned at this time!

He blurted out subconsciously as he asked, "Dad! Why are you being so polite towards a casual and useless son-in-law such as him? Don't forget that he called our family garbage when we were outside just now!"

At this time, Donald blurted out, "B*stard! You'd better shut up now!"

There were so many things that Donald could not say in front of everyone here.

However, he was already roaring in his heart.

You b*stard! What would you know?

Sean was still young and his body was at its peak as he was still in his twenties. That was the reason why he could sing songs every night, party and drink, go to bed at three o'clock in the morning, wake up at nine o'clock in the morning, or even stay up all night. However, he could not do that anymore!

Sean's current physical state was typical of a well-fed man who would never understand how a hungry man would ever feel when he was starving!

His son could eat expensive fish and meat every day. So, how could he possibly understand how a person who has not eaten for three days would bend his waist over just for a mouthful of rice?

That was because he has never experienced hunger in his entire life!

He would never understand the feeling of hunger that would make a person so flustered, as well as experience hair loss, weak limbs, and uneven breathing. He would never understand why a person who was starving would kneel down just for a bun!

For someone like Donald, although he had not reached a very old age yet, he knew that his body was already in a much worse state compared to his younger days. He had money, status, and strength but he did not have his youth anymore. Therefore, when Donald saw the sudden change in Lord Moore's physical body, he really longed for the same thing deep down in his heart.

He would be willing to pay five hundred million dollars to buy a magic medicine like this. In fact, he would even be willing to pay five billion dollars for a pill like that!

The expression on Sean's face turned very ugly after getting scolded by his father.

However, he did not dare to talk back to his father because he understood his father's temper very well. If he continued talking back to him, Sean knew that his father would probably beat him up in public!

As Sean was feeling very down and prepared to retreat, Donald noticed that Charlie Wade was not responding to his offer at all. Therefore, he hurriedly yelled at Sean, who was about to retreat, as he said, "You a*shole! Come over here and apologize to Master Wade now!"

Sean had a very aggrieved expression on his face as he subconsciously said, "Dad, are you actually asking me to apologize to him?"

Donald replied coldly, "Yes! I want you to come over here and apologize to Master Wade right now. Otherwise, I won't let you off!"

Sean never would have dreamt that his father would actually reprimand and scold him under the gaze and watchful eyes of so many people. He really felt like dying.

This was especially so because Jasmine was also staring at him with ridicule in her eyes..

This made Sean feel as though he was suffocating at this time!

He could not stop himself from blurting out, "Dad! Even if you kill me, I'll never apologize to this kind of useless and pathetic jerk!"

After that, Sean turned around and walked away immediately.

Donald was very angry and furious when he witnessed this situation!

He knew that his son's biggest shortcoming was that he never knew how he should be acting and behaving in every situation.

Even if they were billionaires, there were also times when they would have to lower themselves and bow before other people. At a time like this, even if they had to kneel down, they should be kneeling down willingly.

The Rejuvenating Pill was indeed a very magical medicine. It would be fine if he had never seen this medicine before. However, now that he had witnessed it for himself, he did not want to miss out on it!

Donald knew that it would be the biggest regret of his lifetime if he missed out on this opportunity!

How much was his son's dignity worth in the face of this kind of opportunity?

Just as Donald was about to stop his son from leaving, Charlie Wade, who had been silent this entire time, simply smiled slightly as he said, "Mr. Webb, since Sean is unhappy, there's no point in making things difficult for him. As the saying goes, nothing forcibly done can ever be agreeable. Similarly, a forced apology wouldn't be acceptable too."

After that, Charlie Wade turned his attention away from Donald before he focused his attention on Lord Mooore instead. "Lord Mooore, the Rejuvenating Pill can at least extend your life for another ten or more years. I believe that you can easily live up to a hundred years old. I hope that you won't forget to invite me to your hundredth birthday banquet when the time comes!"

When Lord Mooore heard Charlie Wade's words, his eyes were filled with tears as he was extremely excited. At this time, he quickly knelt to the ground with a thud as he said piously, "I thank you for your kindness, Master Wade! I will never forget your kindness and graciousness towards an old man like me!"

Charlie Wade smiled faintly before he nodded and said, "Don't just thank me. You should also be thanking your good and filial granddaughter, Jasmine. If it weren't because of her, I wouldn't have gotten to know you or the Moore family at all, let alone give you this precious and valuable Rejuvenating Pill! Therefore, you shouldn't forget what she has done for you and you must remember to treat her right in the future!"

Jasmine could not help but trembled a little when she heard Charlie Wade's words.

She knew that Charlie Wade was giving her a big gift at this time!

It was a very big gift that could even ensure that she would be able to inherit the Moore family from her grandfather!

Chapter 674

Jasmine looked at Charlie Wade with gratitude in her eyes and the feelings that she had for him increased intensely again!

She felt that she would never be able to repay Charlie Wade's kindness towards herself even if she willingly gave her life to him!

When Reuben heard this, he felt very angry inside.

He was very annoyed!

He blamed and hated Charlie Wade for being so nosy!

He blamed Charlie Wade for renewing and prolonging Lord Mooore's life!

He even blamed Charlie Wade for giving all the credit to Jasmine!

However, he did not dare to display even the slightest resentment that he was feeling deep within his heart and he could only subdue the murderous intent that he was feeling inside.

At this time, Lord Mooore nodded repeatedly as he replied sincerely, "Yes! I will always keep Master Wade's instructions to heart!"

After that, Lord Mooore kowtowed in front of Charlie Wade again to express his gratitude and thanks to him.

Charlie Wade had the opportunity to stop Lord Mooore from kneeling down and kowtowing to him twice, but he did not do so.

His reason was very simple. Charlie Wade felt that it was only right for Lord Mooore to kneel before him!

After all, Charlie Wade was giving him such good fortune and the medicine that he had given him was going to prolong his life expectancy for another ten long years at least! This kind of good fortune was so great and rare that it would not even be an exaggeration if Lord Mooore had to kneel down and kowtow before Charlie Wade twice every day for the rest of his life!

An ordinary man who believed in god would worship his god at least three times a day, but could the god actually give him another ten years of life?

No!

God could not do that, but Charlie Wade could!

Therefore, it was only natural for Charlie Wade to receive these two kowtows from Lord Mooore!

When they saw this scene, all the sons of the Moore family also came forward, one after the other. The first person to step forward was Tyler, who was none other than Lord Mooore's eldest son, followed by his third and fourth brothers.

At this time, the three brothers stepped up as they knelt down behind Lord Mooore immediately.

Tyler held up his arched hands as he proclaimed, "Thank you, Master Wade, for blessing my father with such a good and rare opportunity. I, Tyler Moore, the son of the Moore family, would like to offer my sincere gratitude and thanks to Master Wade!"

After he was done speaking, Tyler kowtowed in front of Charlie Wade without raising his head for the longest time.

After he did so, his third and fourth brother also quickly followed suit as they expressed their thanks and gratitude to Charlie Wade.

At this time, Reuben and Jasmine also walked up and knelt down behind them.

Even though Reuben was very angry, he still shouted in a very pious voice, "Thank you, Master Wade for giving my grandfather, Lord Mooore, this precious opportunity. Thank you once again, Master Wade!"

Jasmine glanced at Charlie Wade with a very complicated and deep expression in her eyes. She was filled with gratitude, admiration, affection, and awe at this time.

After kneeling down on the ground, Jasmine also spoke up in her soft and beautiful voice. "Thank you, Master Wade, for everything you've done for the Moore family. As Lord Mooore's granddaughter, I would like to offer my most sincere thanks to you, Master Wade!"

The remaining grandchildren and members of the Moore family also followed suit as they knelt down in front of Charlie Wade to thank him.

It was Lord Mooore's eightieth birthday today.

Originally, he should have been the person who would be sitting at the main seat to receive words of blessings from all of his descendants.

However, at this time, all the members of the Moore family, from the eighty-year-old head of the family to the youngest seven or eight-year-old grandchild were all kneeling down in front of Charlie Wade in an extremely respectful manner to thank him!

This scene really stunned every single guest who had attended Lord Mooore's birthday banquet today!

The Moore family was the top and most powerful family in Aurouss Hilll!

However, all of them were now kneeling down and kowtowing in front of Master Wade!

No one at the scene felt that it was a shameful thing for the whole family to kneel down in front of Charlie Wade.

On the contrary, they all felt very envious in their hearts. Some of them were even filled with jealousy!

Why?

Why didn't this great opportunity fall on them instead?

Chapter 675

Donald also developed a very strong sense of jealousy towards Lord Moore.

If he knew that this medicine was so amazing, he would have grabbed the pill in his own hands no matter what it would have cost him!

However, it was really a pity that he had blindly offended Charlie Wade.

Before this, he was actually plotting to get Charlie Wade killed so that his son could have a better opportunity to pursue Jasmine.

However, after witnessing everything today, he simply wanted to obtain a Rejuvenating Pill from Charlie Wade.

As for whom his son would be marrying in the future, that question was not even that important anymore in the face of the Rejuvenating Pill.

Therefore, he took advantage of this situation when the members of the Moore family were all kneeling on the ground before Charlie Wade to rush out of the Moore family mansion to bring back his resentful son, Sean.

Sean asked angrily, "Dad, do you know what you're asking me to do? You want me to go back and apologize to that piece of trash?"

"That's right!" Donald replied sharply. "I want you to apologize to him immediately. If an apology does not work, then I want you to kneel down and apologize to him. If kneeling down and apologizing to him does not work, then I want you to kowtow and apologize to him! In short, no matter what it takes, you have to beg for his forgiveness and get him to accept your apology today!"

"Why?" Sean exploded immediately.

"Why do you want me to kowtow and apologize to him? If you want me to do that, then you should just kill me instead! Can't you see that Jasmine is obviously in love with him? If I kowtow before him and apologize for my mistake, then I won't ever have any chance to pursue Jasmine in the future!"

Donald replied coldly, "The most important thing right now isn't whether you'll be able to marry Jasmine. Instead, the most important thing at this time is whether I can get my hands on Charlie Wade's Rejuvenating Pill!"

Sean blurted out, "Dad, you're still so young! Why are you even interested in something like that?"

"Young?" Donald snorted as he laughed and said, "In any case, I must make sure that I get a Rejuvenating Pill from Charlie Wade no matter what it costs me. Nothing else is more important than this!"

Sean stared at his father with wide opened eyes as he said, "Dad! Have you forgotten about our plan? We were going to kill Don Albertt today and Charlie Wade tomorrow! Are you telling me that you're going to forget all about our plan just because of a Rejuvenating Pill?"

Donald glared at Sean before he replied coldly, "Why don't you know anything about strategy at all? If Charlie Wade is a mountain standing in our way, then of course we'll have to blow him up and flatten him to the ground. However, now that we've found such a priceless and valuable treasure on this mountain, do you think it makes sense to blast him to pieces and flatten him before we get our hands on the treasure?"

At this time, Sean subconsciously asked, "Dad, what do you mean..."

Donald had a sullen expression on his face as he said coldly, "First, we'll try whatever we can to get our hands on the treasure before we blow the mountain into pieces! This is the choice and decision that a wise man would make!"

Sean was very happy when he heard his father's words and he blurted out, "Dad, do you mean to say that you intend to get a Rejuvenation Pill from Charlie Wade before you kill him?"

"Yes!" Donald replied coldly, "Didn't Charlie Wade say that he'd obtained this Rejuvenation Pill by chance? Since he's so willing to give the Rejuvenation Pill to Lord Mooore, then this proves that he definitely has more Rejuvenation Pills in his hand! Otherwise, it would be completely impossible for anyone to give their one and only Rejuvenation Pill to someone else!"

As he spoke about this, Donald snorted before he said in a firm manner, "I believe that Charlie Wade is carrying at least another few Rejuvenation Pills on him. If we can get our hands on the pills, then I'll be able to protect the Webb family for at least a hundred years!"

Sean hurriedly asked, "Dad, after getting the Rejuvenation Pills, will we be getting rid of Don Albertt and Charlie Wade according to our original plan?"

"Of course!" Donald replied with a gloomy expression on his face. "I won't only be getting rid of both of them, but I'll also get rid of all the people who are supporting and pledging their loyalty to Charlie Wade in Aurouss Hillll! I'll also get rid of Lord Mooore, that nasty old man! D*mn it! It's no wonder why that old thing does not even want to give me any face at all. It turns out that Charlie Wade has had such a priceless and valuable treasure in his hand all this while!"

Sean asked tentatively, "Dad, are you going to do something to the Moore family?"

Donald nodded slightly before he looked around to make sure that there was no one around them. After that, he said seriously, "First of all, we'll have to think of a way to get our hands on the Rejuvenation Pill. After that, we'll kill both Don Albertt and Charlie Wade. Then, I'll offer the Moore family a way out only if they obediently agree to allow Jasmine to marry you. If they refuse to accept my kind offer at that time, then they can't blame me for not being merciful!"

After that, Donald continued speaking, "However, before we can proceed with this plan, you'll have to listen to and obey all of my instructions. You can't continue being so arrogant!"

Chapter 676

Sean replied excitedly, "I'll listen to you, Dad!"

Donald nodded in satisfaction as he said, "Come, let's go in and ask Charlie Wade to give me one of the Rejuvenation Pill!"

"Ask him for the pill?" Sean hurriedly asked, "How are you going to ask for it?"

"By kneeling!" Donald replied indifferently, "Since the entire Moore family has already knelt down in front of Charlie Wade, then we'll have to kneel down in front of him too!"

"Kneel? You want me to kneel down in front of Charlie Wade?" Sean jumped up as he yelled, "You want me to kneel before him? Dad, why don't you kill me instead?"

Donald could not help but frown as he stared at his son and said, "Did you even hear anything that I was telling you earlier?"

Sean had a very sad and depressed expression on his face as he said, "But Dad, you're asking me to kneel before him! When have I ever knelt down before anyone else aside from you and my grandfather? Didn't you tell me that men should never kneel down in front of anyone else?"

Donald sneered before he replied, "If Han Xin thought the same way as you when he was humiliated in the past, then he wouldn't have been named the God of War in Chinese history!"

After that, Donald asked, "What does it matter if you have to kneel in front of others? You can kneel down in front of a person before stabbing him. That is how a true hero acts!"

Sean nodded slightly when he heard his father's words and he replied, "Okay then, I'll listen to you, Dad."

Donald patted his son gently on his shoulder as he smiled and said, "Being able to conform to change is also a very huge improvement!"

After that, Donald could not hide the excitement on his face as he said, "Come on and follow me into the Moore family mansion now!"

At this time, Charlie Wade has already helped Lord Mooore up to his feet.

As Lord Mooore stood up, the other members of the Moore family also followed in his steps.

Everyone also stood in line to offer up their birthday gifts to Lord Mooore at this moment. Therefore, Charlie Wade returned to his seat as he allowed Lord Mooore to continue with his birthday banquet.

After Charlie Wade returned to his seat, a group of people started gathering around him as they spoke to him excitedly.

Everyone was rushing forward to place their bids for a Rejuvenating Pill.

There were also people who had already started the bid from three hundred million dollars, to four hundred million dollars, and even as high as five hundred millions dollars at one go.

However, Charlie Wade simply replied indifferently, "I'm sorry everyone, but I really received the Rejuvenation Pill by accident. I don't have any more of these pills after giving it to Lord Mooore."

Someone recognized Charlie Wade and he knew that he was none other than the great Master Wade who had struck Jack Yalman the Feng Shui master from Hong Kong to death at the metaphysics gathering at the White family mansion. Therefore, he shouted out, "Master Wade, I know that you're the supreme leader of the metaphysics circle! I'm sure that you must have refined and concocted this Rejuvenating Pill on your own. Please have some compassion for us and refine a batch of these pills for all the old and elderly men like us. We'll be more than willing to pay you the highest price that we can for this pill!"

At this time, Charlie Wade thought to himself and knew that he would not be able to experience any peace in his life if anyone were to find out that he had the ability to refine the Rejuvenation Pill. Therefore, he replied lightly, "Even if I am the supreme leader of the metaphysics circle, there are just some things that are way beyond my abilities."

As Charlie Wade spoke, he had a look of regret on his face as he said, "Based on my personal research, this Rejuvenation Pill was refined by a genius doctor and warlock during the ancient times. It is a pill that was specifically refined for emperors and generals in the army. After many years passed, it seemed as though this medicine has slowly started to fade and even the method of refining and concocting the medicine is already lost. Therefore, I believe it will be impossible for anyone to refine the Rejuvenation Pill now. However, all of you can rest assured that I'll definitely share this pill with everyone if I have the skills and capability to refine and concoct the Rejuvenation Pill in the future!"

When everyone heard Charlie Wade's words, they could not help but give up. At the same time, they could only hope that Charlie Wade would really be able to refine the Rejuvenating Pill one day.

Donald and his son had just entered the Moore family mansion at this time. When Sean heard Charlie Wade's words, he quickly spoke to his father, "Dad, Charlie Wade said that he doesn't have any more Rejuvenation Pills on him!"

"Doesn't have any more?" Donald smiled contemptuously before he said confidently, "I don't believe him!"

Chapter 677

When Sean saw that his father firmly believed that Charlie Wade definitely had more Rejuvenation Pills on him, he looked at his father before he asked, "Dad, are you really going to look for Charlie Wade and beg him to give you a Rejuvenation Pill?"

"That's right." Donald nodded slightly before he said, "You'll come with me later and I'll apologize to Charlie Wade on your behalf. After that, you'll kneel down and beg for Charlie Wade's forgiveness. After that, I'll take advantage of the opportunity to ask him for a Rejuvenation Pill then."

Sean had a very depressed expression on his face as he said, "Dad, do you mean that you want me to kneel down before him and apologize and confess to my mistake? After that, you'll take advantage of this opportunity to ask him for the pill?"

Donald glared at Sean before he asked, "Do you have anything to say about my plan?"

Sean was startled by the look in his father's eyes and he hurriedly waved his hand as he said, "No...I have no objections at all!"

Donald nodded in satisfaction before he said, "Like I said, a man needs to be as flexible as they possibly can be. If you kneeling down is useless, then I'll kneel down too. As long as I can get my hands on the Rejuvenation Pill, I'd even be willing to call him my father! In this world, is there anything else more important than life itself?"

"Well..." Sean knew that his father had already been completely hooked by the temptation of the Rejuvenation Pill. Therefore, he knew that it was completely useless for him to say anything at all at this time.

As the father and son were walking back into the banquet hall, Charlie Wade had already sent everyone who was surrounding him away.

The birthday banquet was about to begin at this time but when Charlie Wade looked around him, he noticed that there were two empty seats at the table that he was sitting at.

These two seats had originally been prepared for Anthony and his granddaughter, Xyla.

Charlie Wade could not help but wonder if something was wrong.

From his understanding, Anthony was a very punctual person who had a good sense of timing and he would always keep all of his promises. Therefore, he was not the kind of person who would be so late.

As he thought about this, Charlie Wade took out his cell phone and called Anthony immediately.

The phone call was connected very quickly.

However, it was Xyla who answered the phone.

"Wade...Master Wade..."

Xyla's voice was a little nervous and aggrieved.

Charlie Wade hurriedly asked, "Xyla? Where's your grandfather? Why aren't both of you here at Lord Mooore's eightieth birthday banquet?"

Xyla replied with an angry voice, "Master Wade, my grandfather's clinic has been smashed and destroyed! He's busy cleaning up and fixing up his clinic now. We might not be able to attend the birthday banquet today. My grandfather did not want to tell you and Lord Mooore about this matter because he was afraid that it would affect everyone's mood..."

At this time, Charlie Wade could not help but wonder who would actually be courageous enough to smash the well-known and reputable Dr. Simmons' clinic?

Charlie Wade hurriedly asked, "Who did this?"

Xyla replied, "The father and son of the Webb family from Sudbury! They wanted to ask my grandfather to make a trip to their home in Sudbury to treat Kian's illness. However, my grandfather felt that Kian is a very despicable person who deserves to suffer and he refused to agree to their request. That's the reason why they had asked their men to smash and destroy my grandfather's clinic!"

Charlie Wade had a very cold expression on his face when he heard Xyla's words.

It turned out to be the work of Donald and his son?

Anger flashed through Charlie Wade's heart as he asked, "Xyla, are you or your grandfather hurt in any way?"

Xyla quickly replied, "No. I was not at the clinic at that time. Our clinic had already been smashed and ruined when I came back. The Webb family members had also left with their men at that time. My grandfather is also fine. Only the clinic has been smashed and destroyed."

When Charlie Wade heard that they were both not injured, he relaxed a little as he said, "Xyla, tell your grandfather that I will help him to deal with this matter."

After he was done speaking, Charlie Wade hung up the phone with a cold expression on his face.

The Webb family were really very arrogant. They did not even bother to constrain themselves now that they were in Aurouss Hilll and Charlie Wade could not believe that they even dared to smash and destroy Anthony's medical hall.

Chapter 678

First of all, what was the reason that Anthony decided to open the Serene World Clinic in Aurouss Hilll? It was simply because Anthony wanted to repay Charlie Wade's kindness. That was the main reason that Anthony had decided to move to Aurouss Hilll.

As a result, Donald and his son actually had the audacity to smash and destroy Anthony's medical hall. He really could not tolerate and swallow the anger that he was feeling!

Unexpectedly, Donald returned to the banquet hall with Sean at this time.

Moreover, instead of bringing Sean back to his table, Donald brought Sean with him as they headed directly to Charlie Wade's table.

As soon as they arrived at Charlie Wade's table, Donald immediately arched his hand as he said in a respectful manner, "Master Wade, I'm sorry if my son has offended you in any way because he didn't know what he was doing and saying earlier. I've brought him here to apologize to you and to ask for your forgiveness now. I hope that you won't take it to heart and I hope that you can accept his apology and forgive him for his mistake."

Charlie Wade had just hung up the phone and he was still feeling very angry at this time. In fact, Charlie Wade knew that the reason why Donald dragged his son, Sean, all the way here to apologize to him was simply because he wanted to get a Rejuvenating Pill from him. Therefore, he smiled as he said, "Mr. Webb, just not too long ago, both you and your son were calling me a useless son-in-law who's nothing more than a pathetic piece of trash. So, how can I be worthy of an apology from you or your son? Mr. Webb, didn't you say that I am just a pathetic piece of trash that you can scold or hit whenever you want to?"

When Donald heard Charlie Wade's words, he knew that Charlie Wade did not intend to forgive them just like that.

Therefore, Donald immediately yelled at Sean, "A*shole! Come here and kneel down to apologize to Master Wade now!"

As soon as Donald spoke up, many people turned around and placed their attention on them.

They could not help but wonder whether Sean from the Webb family would really kneel down before Charlie Wade!

Sean was so angry and frustrated that he could feel his whole body burning up at this time!

No matter what it was, he was still the young master of the Webb family. He was part of the super rich second generation in the entire South Region. How could his father ask him to kneel down in front of a useless son-in-law from Aurouss Hill? If words about this matter spreads out to the public, how could he possibly face anyone in the future?

As he was hesitating, Sean turned around and he was frightened and shocked when he saw the expression on his father's face. Sean was afraid that if he continued to refuse and hesitate, his father would be so angry that he would kick him down to the ground and beat him up in front of everyone else. Therefore, Sean could only lower his head as he bent his knees and knelt down in front of Charlie Wade.

"Oh my god! The young master of the Webb family really knelt down in front of him!"

There was a huge uproar in the banquet hall.

Sean's face turned so hot and red and he felt that he was about to die.

Donald did not say anything else after he saw his son kneeling down in front of Charlie Wade. Shortly after, Donald yelled, "Why are you in a daze? Hurry up and apologize to Master Wade now!"

At this time, Sean could only say, "Master Wade, I am sorry. I was wrong. Please forgive me!"

Charlie Wade replied calmly, "I think that it would be better not to say anything at all if you're going to apologize without any sincerity at all. We'll be able to save everyone's time and there will be no hard feelings at all."

When Donald heard Charlie Wade's words, he immediately understood that asking his son to kneel down was not enough to impress and appease Charlie Wade.

Therefore, he shouted angrily at his son as he said, "Hurry up and kowtow in front of Master Wade now! I want you to beg for Master Wade's forgiveness!"

Sean clenched his teeth before he leaned forward and kowtowed before he said, "Master Wade, please forgive me for acting impulsively! I am extremely sorry for my actions and words!"

Charlie Wade laughed playfully before he said, "Since you're already apologizing so sincerely, then we can treat it as though this incident has never happened."

Donald finally heaved a huge sigh of relief when he heard Charlie Wade's words. After that, he blurted out, "Master Wade, there's something else that I would like to ask of you! I wonder if you'll be willing to sell me one of your Rejuvenating Pills? I am willing to pay you one billion dollars in cash for it!"

Everyone at the scene could not help but exclaim in shock!

He was offering him five hundred million dollars just a while ago but it had already become one billion dollars in the blink of an eye? As expected, the Webb family was really rich and one billion dollars or eight hundred million dollars was nothing at all to them.

Charlie Wade smiled slightly at this time before he said, "Mr. Webb, you're really thinking too much. I don't have any more Rejuvenating Pills on me but even if I have one, it would be simply impossible for me to sell it for just one billion dollars. Besides that, even if I was willing to sell it for one billion dollars, I'd never sell it to you!"

As soon as he spoke, Charlie Wade snorted coldly as he said, "I'm a man who holds grudges. I can still clearly remember that you were clamoring for me to be responsible for beating Cain up and you even said that you'll make sure I pay the price for my actions. Now, you actually have the audacity to come and ask me for a Rejuvenating Pill? Do you really think that I'm a goldfish with only seven seconds of memory?"

Chapter 679

Donald felt his heart tighten as soon as he heard Charlie Wade's words.

He knew that Charlie Wade would not give in so easily. However, since he had already offered a sky-high price of one billion dollars, he thought that Charlie Wade would have given in and forgotten all the contradictions that had happened earlier for the sake of the money.

However, he really did not expect this guy to pay no attention to the sky-high price of one billion dollars at all. Instead, Charlie Wade was going through the old account and he was still taking it to heart.

If this was a normal business transaction, Donald would have already left upon encountering an opponent who would be negotiating in this manner, no matter how big the business opportunity was.

However, Donald could not just shake his hands and leave right now.

This was because deep down in his heart, Donald could not resist the temptation of the Rejuvenating Pill at all. It was as though Donald had been completely captivated by the attraction brought about by the Rejuvenating Pill, and the pill and the consequent effect after he took the pill was all that he could think about.

Therefore, Donald knelt down without any hesitation at all as he clasped his hands together before he said to Charlie Wade in a pious and respectful manner, "Master Wade, I didn't know any better. I know that everyone in Aurouss Hilll treats and regards you as the dragon on earth. Please do not hold anything against an ordinary and common man such as myself!"

Donald was indeed a very eloquent person.

In order to prevent his opponent from having the opportunity to continue stomping and trampling all over him, he had deliberately lifted and praised his opponent. This way, it would basically be very difficult for his opponent to continue insulting him.

However, at this time, Charlie Wade was not angry at the father and son for what they had said to him. Instead, he was angry and furious because he had found out that they actually had the audacity to smash and destroy Anthony's Serene World Clinic.

Charlie Wade would definitely have to avenge Anthony. Otherwise, he would not be at ease.

Therefore, Charlie Wade looked at Donald before he smiled and said, "One billion dollars is indeed a very sincere and tempting offer. However, Mr. Webb, I feel that your manners seem to be a little inferior compared to your son's."

Donald was a little taken aback and he instantly realized that Charlie Wade was referring to the fact that he did not know him.

At this point, Donald did not feel that it was shameful or embarrassing for him to kowtow before Charlie Wade at all. After all, he was doing this for the Rejuvenating Pill!

As he thought about it, Donald hurriedly kowtowed in front of Charlie Wade without any hesitation at all.

After kowtowing to Charlie Wade, Donald raised his head before he said piously, "Master Wade, please give me an opportunity! As long as you're willing to sell a Rejuvenating Pill to me, I will credit one billion dollars in cash to your account immediately!"

Charlie Wade looked at him and he smiled playfully before he said, "The Rejuvenating Pill is a simple matter. In fact, you've guessed it correctly. I do have another Rejuvenating Pill on me and I was originally intending to keep this pill for myself. However, since you're offering me a very good price for the pill, then I can definitely consider selling this pill to you..."

As he spoke, Charlie Wade reached into his pocket before he slowly took out a wooden box, similar to the one that he had given to Lord Mooore earlier. After opening the wooden box, there was indeed another Rejuvenating Pill inside the wooden box.

After taking out the Rejuvenating Pill, Charlie Wade stood up before he said to everyone who was present at the scene, "Everyone, the Rejuvenating Pill is indeed a very priceless and valuable treasure. I hid this piece of information from all of you earlier and I hope that you can all forgive me. I'll tell you the truth. There is indeed another Rejuvenating Pill and I was initially intending to keep it for myself. I did not have the intention to sell it to anyone at all. However, since Mr. Webb seems to be so sincere and since he quoted such a high price for the pill, I am going to take his offer into careful consideration."

Even though everyone was very greedy for the Rejuvenation Pill, they did not stand a chance at all.

After all, how many of them could actually offer one billion dollars in cash for the Rejuvenating Pill?

Not more than five of the people present at the birthday banquet today could actually afford to do that.

Besides that, who would dare to compete with the Webb family at a time like this?

Both Donald and his son had already knelt down and kowtowed before Charlie Wade for this medicine. If they tried to take the medicine from him at this time, wouldn't they be incurring the wrath of the Webb family?

Donald looked at the Rejuvenating Pill and he could smell the fresh medicinal fragrance emitting from the pill. He was very excited as he said, "Master Wade, as long as you're willing to sell this pill to me, I will transfer one billion dollars to your account immediately!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly before he said, "Don't get too excited. Before we talk about the Rejuvenating Pill, there is something else that we haven't talked about yet."

"Something else?" Donald frowned before he asked, "What are you referring to?"

The expression on Charlie Wade's face was very dull and gloomy as he replied coldly, "Anthony and I are very close friends. How are you going to fix things with me, now that you and your son decided to smash and destroy Anthony's Serene World Clinic earlier today?"

As soon as Lord Mooore heard Charlie Wade's words, he could not help but frown immediately. He had a very angry and gloomy expression on his face as he said, "Donald! The genius doctor, Dr. Simmons, is an expert doctor who is very well-known in Aourouss Hilll. He has treated and saved the lives of countless people! Moreover, he's also one of my very close friends! Why did you smash his clinic?"

Donald was very shocked when he heard Charlie Wade and Lord Moore's words.

Unexpectedly, Anthony and Charlie Wade actually shared a strong friendship!

Chapter 680

This was really tricky!

He really did not know about their relationship prior to this!

Donald had simply thought that Anthony was nothing more than a well-known and reputable doctor in the country. Since he could not beat him up, then he could only smash and destroy his clinic to exert a little pressure and force the genius doctor to finally agree to see and treat his youngest son.

He really did not expect to cause more trouble for himself.

However, Donald was very eager to get his hand on the Rejuvenating Pill. At this time, Donald could only turn around as he pointed his finger at his son, Sean, who was kneeling down beside him at this time. After that, he said indignantly, "Hey! This is all my son's fault! He is very impulsive and ill-mannered. I'm sorry that I did not teach my son well!"

Sean could not help but twitch slightly at this time.

He really did not expect that he would have to bear the responsibility for his father's action at this time.

Even though he was very angry, he did not dare to show his dissatisfaction at all.

Since he had no choice but to bear the responsibility on his father's behalf, he could only sigh as he gritted his teeth in anger!

After that, Sean lowered his head before he said, "I'm sorry for acting impulsively. I shouldn't have smashed and destroyed the genius doctor Dr. Simmons' clinic. Please forgive me for my actions, Master Wade!"

Donald also hurriedly said, "Master Wade, you can rest assured that I will definitely give the genius doctor ten times the compensation for all the losses caused from us destroying his clinic."

At this time, Charlie Wade replied lightly, "Some things cannot simply be resolved using money."

Donald hurriedly asked, "So, how do you want to solve this matter then, Master Wade?"

"Me?" Charlie Wade looked at Donald before he smiled and said, "My solution is actually very simple..."

As he spoke, Charlie Wade deliberately slowed down his rhythm as he turned and fixed his gaze on Sean instead.

Sean could not help but feel a little nervous and flustered when he locked eyes with Charlie Wade. After all, Charlie Wade was staring at him with a fierce and intense gaze.

As he was still wondering what kind of solution Charlie Wade would propose, Charlie Wade suddenly reached out his hand as he grabbed hold of Sean's right wrist before he twisted it gently...

With a click, Charlie Wade directly broke Sean's right wrist!

"Ahh!"

Sean screamed in pain and his face turned red immediately before turning pale again.

"Ahh! My wrist is broken! Charlie Wade, you are asking to die!"

Charlie Wade swung Sean's broken wrist aside before he replied coldly, "Since you smashed and destroyed Dr. Simmons' clinic, then it is only right for me to break your hand. This is called a direct exchange!"

Sean yelled out in pain as he shouted, "Dad! This piece of trash actually broke my hand! I want to kill him. I want him dead now!"

Donald was also stunned at the sudden turn of events. He really did not expect Charlie Wade to attack his son directly. Moreover, he would never have expected Charlie Wade to be so cruel to directly break one of his son's hands just like that.

However, at this time, all Donald could think of was the Rejuvenating Pill in Charlie Wade's hand.

In his opinion, if Charlie Wade would be willing to sell him the Rejuvenating Pill, he could still accept it even if his son would have to pay for it with his broken hand. Donald thought that he would only deal with Charlie Wade and settle the score with him after he has taken the Rejuvenating Pill from Charlie Wade!

Therefore, Donald's face darkened as he opened his mouth and said, "Master Wade, I believe that my son has already paid the price for smashing and destroying Dr. Simmons' medical hall. So, can you sell me the Rejuvenating Pill now?"

"The Rejuvenating Pill..." Charlie Wade took the Rejuvenating Pill out of the small wooden box before he waved it in front of Donald a couple of times.

At this time, Donald's eyes were gleaming and shining brightly as he stared at the Rejuvenating Pill.

Donald really did not expect Charlie Wade to smile faintly at this time before he said, "Compared to the one billion dollars that you are going to give me, I think that it would be better for me to take this pill myself instead!"

After he was done speaking, Charlie Wade raised his hand before he placed the Rejuvenating Pill into his mouth and chewed twice before directly swallowing the pill!

Chapter 681

Donald was stunned as he watched Charlie Wade swallow the rejuvenating pill, and suddenly became angry!

Only then did he realize that Charlie Wade was playing with himself from beginning to end!

He didn't mean to sell the Rejuvenation Pill to himself, he just wanted to make his father and son embarrassed in public!

And he actually naively thought that the one billion quotation had already touched him, and he only had to apologize to him, and he would agree to sell the rejuvenating pill to himself!

When he thought that he was being played so much by him, and that his son's hand had been abolished by him, Donald was so angry that he almost went away!

He instantly stood up from the ground and shouted: "Charlie Wade, Donald, I will not kill you, I will not be a man!"

Having said that, he immediately took out his cell phone and called his bodyguard.

His bodyguards are all masters of masters, and they are all gods of war who have retreated from the army!

These people usually seem to be no different from ordinary people, but any one of them is a top killer!

It can be said that they are all top killers who have crawled out of the dead!

But Charlie Wade looked calm at this moment, unmoved at all.

After a rejuvenation pill was in his stomach, he felt a heat wave rolling in his body. He had already taken five or six pills. Although it did not play a young role, it could improve the physical fitness a lot. So at this time, he was full of energy. , But there is nowhere to go, if the Webb family's bodyguard dared to pretend to be forced by him, he would just clean them up in one go!

However, he didn't expect that Lord Mooore gave a cold snort and suddenly stood up and shouted angrily: "Donald! Although your Webb family is big, my Moore family is not muddled. I want to see if your Webb family has it. What a mighty prestige, dare to hurt my Moore family distinguished guests in my Moore family!"

Having said that, Lord Mooore shouted: "Come here, surround the hall for me! Who dares to move Master Wade with a finger today and beat me to death!"

Donald stared at Lord Mooore, gritted his teeth and said angrily: "Uncle Moore, he used my father and son as monkeys and abolished one of my son's hands. You still want to protect him?! Could it be that you, the Moore family? Openly against my Webb family?!"

Lord Mooore said coldly: "Master Wade is Moore's benefactor and recreated Moore's Entong. If you have to fight against Master Wade, you are against my Moore family!"

"Good! Good! Good!"

Donald gritted his teeth and said: "Your Moore family is amazing! Don't put my Webb family in your eyes! Do you think this is in your territory, you can ride on my Webb family's head and shit?!"

Lord Mooore arrogantly said: "Moore is magnanimous and can't do things like riding on someone else's head and shit, but if someone wants to target Moore's benefactor on Moore's site, I'm sorry! Don't care about him. Who is it, Moore is never used to his problems!"

Lord Mooore yelled, shocking everyone present!

In his lifetime, the old man himself has experienced countless waves and sands, he has seen all battles, and he has developed a kind of majesty without anger and prestige. In addition, he has just eaten rejuvenating pills and is full of breath. The anger is really shocking!

Donald was also a little distressed!

He came to Aurouss Hilll with only a few bodyguards with him.

Even though these bodyguards are masters in the hands of masters, facing so many people in the Moore family, there is definitely no chance of winning.

After all, this is the base camp of the Moore family. There are dozens of bodyguards in front of the Moore family. Who knows how many people are still hiding in the secret?

If you really want to fight, Donald will definitely not please!

A few top bodyguards may be able to fight in and out like Zhao Zilong, but he and his son are not as effective as they are, and they may be injured or even left by the Moore family here.

Although the Webb family is powerful, they are all located in Eastcliff, and now the distant water cannot save the nearby fire!

Thinking of this, Donald could only decide to avoid his edge for the time being!

So, he sneered and said: "Uncle Moore meant to tear his face with our Webb family? Ok! In this case, I will represent the Webb family and break with the Moore family. From then on, the Moore and Webb families are incompatible!"

Chapter 682

Seeing this, Rueben on the side hurriedly stood up and blurted out:

"Grandpa, our Moore family has been with Webb family for many years, please think twice!"

Rueben didn't want to see that he was killed, and the two families of Moore and Webb completely broke off.

He also hopes to marry Jasmine to the Webb family. If the two families break completely, it will never be possible!

Lord Mooore glanced at Rueben and said lightly: "There is nothing to think twice about, the Webb family is the first family in the south of the Yangtze River, and our Moore family can't afford it! The Moore family has since broken off with the Webb family!"

Everyone present was dumbfounded.

Everyone could not imagine that a birthday banquet caused a complete break between the Webb family, the first family in Eastcliff, and the Moore family, the first family in Aurouss Hilll...

It seems that Aurouss Hilll is about to change in the future!

Donald's sullen gaze flicked across Lord Mooore and Charlie Wade, and said angrily: "What a Moore family, what a master Wade, I, Donald, remember you! Let's take a look! Sean, let's go!"

After that, Donald helped Sean and walked away.

Charlie Wade said lightly: "Do you think the matter is over?"

Donald turned his head and asked with murderous aura, "What do you want for Wade?"

Charlie Wade said: "I abolished your son's hand, only to teach him a lesson, but you have to make compensation for smashing Dr. Simmons's shop!"

After all, Charlie Wade said undoubtedly: "I will give you ten times the compensation to Dr. Simmons within three days, and I will apologize to Dr. Simmons and beg for forgiveness. Otherwise, I will take Sean another My hand is gone!"

When Donald heard this, his eyes were cold and murderous!

He roared with his eyesight cracking: "Charlie Wade! You are so majestic! Do you know the status of my Webb family in the south of the Yangtze River? If you provoke my Webb family, I will leave you dead without a place to die!"

Charlie Wade sneered and said: "Don't be here to talk to me, your Webb family is not even the root hair in my eyes! I advise you to get out of Aurouss Hilll as soon as you pay for Dr. Simmons, otherwise, you father and son two People are likely to save their lives!"

"you....."

Donald really didn't expect Charlie Wade to be so crazy!

He had the intention to kill Charlie Wade now, but thinking of the old and immortal attitude of Lord Mooore, he could only bear it temporarily unwillingly.

However, in his heart, Charlie Wade is already a mortal person!

Only now, the time to kill him is not yet ripe.

After I go back, I will make a good plan. If it is not enough, I will draw a group of masters from the Webb family to smooth out Charlie Wade and Moore family!

Thinking of this, Donald waved his hand fiercely and blurted out: "Sean, let's go!"

After that, he took Sean with his broken hand and left the Moore family villa in embarrassment.

Rueben looked at Donald's leaving figure, then at Jasmine and the young man who was more than ten years younger, gritted his teeth secretly, his eyes full of unwillingness.

For myself today, it was a heavy loss!

Suddenly, this old thing of grandpa has a life span of more than ten years, and Charlie Wade counts Jasmine's great credit, and grandpa also completely turned his face with the Webb family for Charlie Wade..

If this continues, maybe one day Grandpa will suddenly announce that Jasmine will be the heir to the next generation!

In that way, wouldn't I be empty out of the basket?

Donald and Sean and his son left the Moore's villa with incomparable resentment.

Sean clutched his severed hand and said with tears: "Dad! I said a long time ago not to beg the hanging silk surnamed Wade, you must not listen! Now my hands are broken, and you are still caught by him. Humiliated in public, I lose my face!"

Donald said with a black face: "Since the surname Wade is looking for death, don't blame me for being impolite! Don't worry, Dad will avenge you!"

Sean blurted out: "Then we will kill Charlie Wade tonight!"

"No!" Donald said coldly: "Or according to the original plan, kill Don Albertt first! Pull out the firepower of Don Albertt, whether it is killing Charlie Wade or the Moore family, it will be easy!"

Sean hurriedly asked, "Dad, what are your specific plans?"

Donald said: "Heal your hands first, and we will discuss the rest in the long run!"

The two said, they have already walked out of the Moore family compound. Mrr.. Lloyd, who had been driven out before and had been waiting here, hurriedly covered his red and swollen face and greeted him quickly.

"Mr. Webb, Master..." Mr. Lloydgang ran to the front, just about to ask them what happened to Charlie Wade's waste? Did you avenge yourself? However, he suddenly saw Sean's face pale, his left hand grasped the shrugged right wrist, and he snorted in his heart, and couldn't help feeling that something was wrong.

So Mrr.. Lloyd hurriedly asked: "Sean, what's wrong with your hand?"

Sean snorted in pain, and cursed: "It's all Charlie Wade's trash, but he dare to abandon my hand in public. I must have him dead without a place to be buried!"

Originally, after Sean discovered that Charlie Wade was the man Jasmine liked, he wanted to use this birthday banquet to trample Charlie Wade on his feet, so that Jasmine could recognize reality, then change his mind and choose to be with him.

Unexpectedly, instead of stepping on Charlie Wade's feet, he, together with his father, was fiercely teased by Charlie Wade!

Just now, he and his father took turns to apologize to Charlie Wade. This is simply the second shame after Webb's step-brother Kian became a feces-swallowing beast!

And this bastard, not only makes himself face lost in full view! He also broke his wrist!

After today, I am afraid that the entire Aurouss Hillll will remember that his grandfather of the first family in the south of the Yangtze River was slapped in public by the nameless pawn, Charlie Wade, and became the laughing stock of everyone!

Mrr.. Lloyd was shocked when he heard Sean's words!

He didn't expect that Charlie Wade's trash would even dare to beat Sean!

So, he couldn't help but provoke Sean and said, "Sean, Charlie Wade dares to treat you like this, you must not let him go!"

Donald said coldly: "Don't worry, this Charlie Wade won't live long!"

With that, Donald told Mrr.. Lloyd: "Mrr.. Lloyd, you are a local and you are familiar with the local area. I will give you a task."

Mrr.. Lloyd hurriedly said, "Mr. Webb, please give your orders!"
Donald said: "You first take the young master to the best orthopedic hospital and heal the young master's hand. You must not make any mistakes!"

Mrr.. Lloyd suddenly realized that Sean's hand was interrupted by Charlie Wade, and said quickly, "Mr. Webb, don't worry! I will take the young master to the best orthopedic hospital!"

Chapter 684

When Sean heard this, he couldn't help asking: "Dad, won't you go to the hospital with me?"

Donald said, "I still have a lot of things to deal with today. Now that we have broken up with the Moore family, we must find another place to stay. I plan to go to Shangri-La and book a presidential suite there. By the way, Visit Cameron Isaac, the owner of Shangri-La. After you finish reading your hands, you will come to Shangri-La directly to find me. Then I will tell you about my plan in detail!"

"Go to visit Cameron Isaac?" Sean said complainingly: "Dad, why do you want to visit him? Isn't he just a dog from the Eastcliff Wade family? More important than my broken hand?"

Donald frowned and said: "What do you know? Although the Webb family dominates in the south of the Yangtze River, compared with the Wade family of Eastcliff, they are nothing more than a rich native. Wade family is the real top family!"

"That Cameron Isaac, don't look at it as the Wade family's dog, but he is the spokesperson of the Wade family in Aurouss Hilll, representing the face of the Wade family in Aurouss Hilll. I must visit in person. If I can open a breakthrough from him, maybe I can borrow Ji has a relationship with the Wade family."

For the Webb family, although it bears the name of the first family in the south of the Yangtze River on the bright side, and acts as a blessing in the entire south of the Yangtze River, it can be said to be different from the real top-level hidden family like the Wade family.

If you can take this opportunity to catch up with the Wade family, the entire Webb family will fly into the sky.

When Sean heard this, he no longer complained, and nodded and said, "I know Dad, then you go to Shangri-La first, and after I see the doctor and get a cast, I will go to you."

Donald said to Sean: "Okay, you go to the hospital first, and I will notify you when I arrange it."

Sean said with a look of expectation, followed Mrr.. Lloyd into the car and went to the hospital to treat his severed hand.

.....

After Sean and Mrr.. Lloyd left, Donald, accompanied by bodyguards and assistants, went to Shangri-La.

Along the way, he was thinking angrily about how to get rid of Charlie Wade so that he could solve his hatred, and this old man Moore who didn't know the current affairs.

Do you think that if you take a rejuvenating pill, you are a teenager, and you can live longer than a teenager?

If you dare to talk to me like Donald, then I will directly take away your Moore family!

Soon, the convoy stopped outside the Shangri-La Hotel.

Donald asked the accompanying bodyguard to take out his most precious Webbyishan mother tree Dahongpao tea from the car, and prepare it as a gift for Cameron Isaac.

His big red robe was picked from the six remaining mother trees in Webbyi Mountain. It is of great value. The annual output is only a dozen catties, and the price of a catty can even be tens of millions.

Moreover, this is not something you can buy with money.

Because most of the limited output of this tea every year is directly supplied to Eastcliff, the rest, which can flow into the market, don't even have two catties.

And Donald's pot of Dahongpao, which weighs a full catty, was only obtained after he spent a lot of money, thought about it, and used adult affection.

Because Donald treats this tea as a treasure, he takes it with him wherever he goes, and occasionally wants to drink it, then quietly soaks himself a gram or two.

Deciding to come to Shangri-La Hotel, he felt that he could not meet Cameron Isaac empty-handed, so he planned to give this pot of Dahongpao as a gift to Cameron Isaac to gain a good impression of the other party. As soon as he entered Shangri-La, Donald stepped to the front desk and said to the lady at the front desk: "Hello, please inform you Mr. Cameron, and say that Donald from southern region Webb's family is here to see you!"

Shangri-La's front desk is by no means an ordinary front desk lady. She has long known all the dignitaries in Eastcliff. He heard that it was the Webb family of southern region, and immediately took it seriously. He picked up the phone and called Cameron Isaac's office directly.

"Mr. Cameron, Mr. Donald from the Webb family of southern region wants to see you!"

Chapter 685

Cameron Isaac didn't know that Donald and Charlie Wade had conflicts. Hearing that Donald came to visit, he did not neglect. Although he was the spokesperson of the Wade family in Arouss Hilll, the other party was the eldest son of the first family in Eastcliff after all. He took the initiative to visit him and respected him.

So, he hurriedly said to the front desk: "Just ask Mr. Webb to come to my office."

The front desk did not dare to neglect, and quickly said to Donald:

"Hello, Mr. Webb, our Mr. Cameron invites you to his office, please come with me."

Donald nodded, followed the girl at the front desk, and took the president's exclusive elevator to Cameron Isaac's office.

As far as Donald is concerned, he is the son of Webb's family, and staying in a hotel in Arouss Hilll is naturally the best.

It just so happens that the best hotel in Arouss Hilll is Shangri-La, so coming by yourself to visit Cameron Isaac and deepen your relationship is also killing two birds with one stone.

Seeing Donald coming in, Cameron Isaac stood up with a smile, and took the initiative to reach out and shook Donald's hand. He greeted him: "I heard that Mr. Webb is active in Eastcliff all the year round. Why did you suddenly come to Arouss Hilll this time?"

Donald sighed and said, "Hey, it's a long story. My youngest son Kian doesn't know who has offended him. Something has happened. I came this time to find a solution."

Cameron Isaac nodded. Of course he had heard about Kian. He even watched the video on Douyin at the beginning. So when I remembered it suddenly, I felt a little nauseous and involuntarily retched.

With Cameron Isaac's retching, Donald's expression became extremely embarrassing.

He didn't know why Cameron Isaac was retching. To be honest, he felt sick and uncomfortable when he thought of some clips of his younger son.

Therefore, Donald could only change the subject and said, "Forget it, I came here today mainly to visit Mr. Cameron. I won't talk about these disappointments. I brought some gifts to Mr. Cameron. I hope you like it."

After that, he immediately handed the pot of mother tree Dahongpao tea to Cameron Isaac.

"Mr. Cameron, this is the Dahongpao tea from the mother tree of Webbyi Mountain. It is my personal treasure. It is not usually visible. If you like tea, you will definitely like it."

Cameron Isaac naturally knew how precious the mother tree red robe is, and quickly waved his hand: "How can this make the Webbyi Mountain mother tree tea less and less available in the market, and it is the collection of Mr. Webb, how can I win the love."

Donald immediately said, "Mr. Cameron, don't be polite. You are the spokesperson of the Wade family in Aurouss Hilll and even in Eastcliff. We in the Webb family have always looked forward to cooperating with the Wade family. In the future, we will have to count on Mr. Cameron to match our Webb family. It."

When Cameron Isaac heard the words, he waved his hand and said, "I'm just a servant of the Wade family, and I do everything within my scope. Mr. Webb is serious."

Donald said sincerely: "Mr Chen is too humble."

Seeing Donald's sincere attitude, Cameron Isaac said: "Since Mr. Webb is so caring, then I'm not polite to you. I have a few bottles of collector-class Louis XIII here. I'll let you give you some bottles to taste. "

Donald was flattered, and hurriedly said: "Oh, that's really thank you Mr. Cameron!"

Cameron Isaac smiled slightly and said, "Mr. Webb came here today, surely it's not just about sending tea to Chen, right?"

Donald nodded and said, "It's true that my eldest son, my eldest son, and a few bodyguards and assistants may live in Aurouss Hilll for a period of time, so I just thought that Shangri-La will make trouble."

Cameron Isaac laughed and said, "Welcome! Since Mr. Webb is here, he is naturally a distinguished guest. I will ask Linglang to arrange a presidential suite for you and Linglang. You can live as much as you like. It doesn't matter how long you stay."

Donald hurriedly said gratefully: "Oh, thank you so much, Mr. Cameron!"

Cameron Isaac smiled indifferently: "Mr. Webb doesn't need to be so polite."

After speaking, she asked curiously: "By the way, where is Mr. Webb, your grandson? Why didn't you come with you?"

Chapter 686

Donald was embarrassed to say that his son had his wrist broken, so he said, "He happened to have something wrong. I guess he won't come here until a while. When he comes, I will bring him to visit you!"

Cameron Isaac nodded and said: "Otherwise, I will arrange for someone to take you back to the room to rest. When Linglang comes back in the evening, we will have dinner together, and it will be my host who will pick you up."

Donald was overjoyed, and said, "Then there will be Mr. Cameron."

He felt that he and Cameron Isaac were just nodding acquaintances and knew each other before, but now that Cameron Isaac accepts his gift after visiting the house, the relationship is a step closer.

And this is what Donald desires most.

As the Eastcliff Wade family's spokesperson in Aurouss Hilll, Cameron Isaac is a stepping stone. As long as he can maintain a good relationship with him, he will definitely be able to take this opportunity in the future to embrace the true towering tree of Wade family.

Moreover, Donald also has his own careful thinking.

He felt that if the Webb family couldn't find someone who could treat Kian, they could ask the Wade family to take action after they hugged Wade Family's thigh.

With the strength of the Wade Family, with a single order, countless capable people and strangers were behind them.

And Cameron Isaac didn't think much about it, after all, it was the first family in the south of the Yangtze River.

So, after he and Donald exchanged greetings for a while, they were taken to the presidential suite to rest first.

After Donald took a few bodyguards into the luxurious presidential suite, he called Sean and asked him to come and have a round with him.

At this time, Sean had finished plastering in the hospital. After receiving a call from Donald, he took Mrr.. Lloyd to Shangri-La.

Sitting in the car, Sean's expression was still very gloomy, his face full of depression.

Seeing this, Mrr.. Lloyd quickly said: "Sean, the doctor has ordered that you have just put on a plaster. Don't get angry, otherwise it will affect the healing of your bones and cause sequelae."

Sean said angrily: "I will definitely not let go of that damn Charlie Wade, I will chop off both his hands!"

Mrr.. Lloyd was overjoyed. Sean was beaten and severed. He was the most excited one, because in this way, the Webb family would definitely not let Charlie Wade go. The enmity engraved on his son's forehead would be avenged!

However, he said with great concern: "Sean, you must take care of your health. It is never too late to say revenge."

Sean sneered and said fiercely: "Wait and see, that Charlie Wade will not be long."

Coming to Shangri-La, Sean took Mrr.. Lloyd straight to the presidential suite where Donald stayed.

After knocking on the door, the bodyguard opened the door from the inside.

Sean walked into the huge living room and said to Donald sitting on the sofa, "Dad, I'm back."

Donald gave a hum, and asked with concern: "How is your hand? What did the doctor say?"

Sean said with a dark face, "It's broken, the doctor put a plaster on it, I'm afraid it will take a few months to recuperate to see you better."

Donald nodded, and said, "You need to pay more attention recently, and don't leave any sequelae."

Sean blurted out: "Dad, it doesn't matter what your hands are, you can tell us how we are going to deal with Charlie Wade?!"

Donald sneered and said, "If you want to kill Charlie Wade, kill Don Albertt first tonight!"

Chapter 687

Mr. Lloyd heard Donald say that he would kill Don Albertt first tonight, and his heart suddenly became excited!

He had long been expecting Don Albertt to die, but he did not expect to finally get his wish now!

Moreover, to kill Don Albertt, he will not only get revenge, but the Webb family will also take advantage of the trend to hold himself in the top position!

Wouldn't he be able to become the next underground emperor of Aurouss Hilll? !

Thinking of this, he trembled with excitement.

Sean asked on the side: "Dad, Don Albertt has many younger brothers in Aurouss Hilll. Is it so easy to kill him?"

Donald said lightly: "You have to figure out one thing, to kill Don Albertt, you don't have to kill all his little brothers first!"

"Dad, what do you mean?"

Donald said coldly: "There are thousands of Don Albertt, but he may not always be around him. We only need to know where he will be at a specific time, then find him there and kill him directly!"

Mrr.. Lloyd hurriedly said, "I know! Don Albertt's whereabouts are uncertain during the day, but he usually stays in Heaven Springs at night, because his Heaven Springs is very famous in Aurouss Hilll, and many of his friends will go there to eat at night."

Donald asked him: "How many security guards does Heaven Springs have?"

Mrr.. Lloyd thought for a while and said, "For the security guard, there should be about ten, and the rest are waiters."

Donald snorted coldly: "Ten security guards are not enough. My bodyguards were all masters in the army. Which one can't be ten?"

After all, he looked at a burly middle-aged man headed by his five bodyguards and asked: "Jones Zizhou, you have been with me for the longest time, the strongest, and the most efficient in doing things. I will let you take other People, go to Heaven Springs to kill Don Albertt tonight, whoever blocks you, kill whoever you want, can you do it?"

Jones Zizhou immediately clasped his fists and said, "Master Webb, don't worry, a dozen security guards are just ants in front of us. As for that Don Albertt, he will kill him like a dog!"

Donald nodded in satisfaction, then looked at Mrr.. Lloyd, and said:

"Mrr.. Lloyd, don't you have a bloody vengeance with Don Albertt? I now give you a chance to take revenge. You will take my person to Heaven Springs tonight, Get rid of Don Albertt! Get rid of him, my Webb family will come out to protect you, and hold you in one hand as the new underground emperor of Aurouss Hilll!"

When Mrr.. Lloyd heard this, there was a deep hatred in his eyes, and his heart was already boiling!

What is the purpose of making a dog for the Webb family and working hard? Isn't it just revenge and kill Don Albertt and Charlie Wade?

Now, Donald gave himself a chance, a chance to become the underground emperor of Aurouss Hilll!

How can I refuse such a good thing? !

Moreover, he had long heard that the Webb family's bodyguards were all retired soldiers from the army.

There are five such people, it is more than enough to go to Heaven Springs to kill a Don Albertt!

Once Don Albertt dies, his little brother will immediately be headless!

At this time, there was Webb family backing up for themselves.

It is easy to become the new underground emperor of Aurouss Hill!

From now on, with the Webb family's relationship, it is very likely that I will reach the pinnacle of my life!

.....

Chapter 688

At this moment, at the birthday banquet of Lord Mooore, Charlie Wade waited for the formal opening of the feast, and then offered Lord Mooore a glass of wine, and he quickly went to Dr. Simmons's Serene Medical Clinic to see the situation.

At the dinner table, Mr. White, Mr. Quinton, Quinton Aoxue, Don Albertt, Liam and even Lori White looked at him with more respect than before.

The miraculous effect of Rejuvenation Pill is really impressive.

However, everyone was quite self-aware, and no one took the initiative to mention the Rejuvenation Pill with him.

Although Charlie Wade still had twenty rejuvenating pills left, he was not ready to take them out as gifts.

Although Mr. White, Mr. Quinton and Don Albertt are all young, they are far from reaching old age.

Therefore, there is no need for them to take Rejuvenation Pill now.

If in the future they will still follow their karma and follow them steadily, they will definitely give them one at the right time.

At the dinner table, Charlie Wade looked at Liam, who hadn't seen him for a few days, and asked him curiously: "How is Weaver's Pharmaceuticals?"

Liam hurriedly said respectfully: "Master Hui Wade, the development of Weaver's Pharmaceutical is normal. I am also organizing some old Chinese medicine practitioners and pharmacists of Chinese patent medicine to explore and study our ancient Chinese prescriptions, and prepare to introduce some ancient Chinese medicines. Fang's medicines."

Having said that, Liam said with some regret: "Our ancestors left so many good prescriptions. Now they are either lost or stolen by pharmaceutical companies in other countries. It is a shame, so I want to do everything. Explore the possibilities."

Charlie Wade nodded and said approvingly: "This is a good idea. The good things our ancestors left behind have been taken away by Japanese and South Korean companies. If we don't pay attention anymore, then the Chinese ancestors left behind Fang, I'm afraid it will become the bragging capital of these small neighboring countries."

With that, Charlie Wade suddenly thought of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall in Japan.

Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall was cheated by himself for more than 10 billion. Now is the time when his vitality is severely injured, and he also left a hidden danger for Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall.

Jiro Kobayashi, the second son of the Kobayashi family, thought that his elder brother was dead, but he couldn't think of it. Ichiro Kobayashi is still feeding and shoveling shit at Don Albertt's kennel.

If Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall is in a state of failure, that's fine. If Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's head rises a bit, he can take Ichiro Kobayashi back to pick the peaches.

Thinking of this, he asked Liam: "How is the situation with Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall in Japan?"

Liam said: "Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall had a problem some time ago. It seems that it has lost a large amount of cash. Now it is a little bit difficult in capital turnover, but they are now thin and dead camels are bigger than horses, not to mention Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall still has Many best-selling drugs should be restored within a short period of time."

Charlie Wade snorted, already thinking about it.

When Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall was relieved, he sent Ichiro Kobayashi back to Japan and helped him run Jiro Kobayashi for whatever he said.

In that way, Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall is basically its own.

So he said to Liam, "If there is anything happening at Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, please give me feedback in time."

"Good Master Wade." Liam nodded piously, and said respectfully: "I will pay close attention to it."

Charlie Wade asked again: "By the way, how are your father and your brother in Golim Mountain?"

Liam smiled slightly and said: "The people I sent and the people from Orvel took turns to stare at them. I heard that Golim Mountain has cooled down recently and the mountain is covered by heavy snow. The two of them are in short supply and there are not enough ginseng harvesting products. This winter Maybe you can only live without food and clothing."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "It doesn't matter if you lack food or clothing, as long as you can't die."

Liam said immediately: "Master Wade can rest assured, although I hate them in my heart, but after all, there is blood relationship. In any case, they will save their lives and let them dig and regret in Golim Mountain!"

Chapter 689

At this time, the energetic Lord Mooore, with a group of Moore family children, came to toast Charlie Wade.

A group of people followed Lord Mooore and called Master Wade well.

Charlie Wade got up slightly, picked up the wine glass, and said to Lord Mooore: "Lord Mooore don't have to be so polite, I respect you with this glass of wine, I wish you a better life than Nanshan."

After speaking, Charlie Wade raised his head and drank the wine, and then said: "I am going to see the old Serene Medical Clinic of Dr. Simmons, and I will retire later."

Lord Mooore sighed and said, "Oh, the medicine hall of the genius Dr. Simmons was smashed. I should also go and take a look. It's just that there are so many guests on the scene, and I really can't get away..."

Charlie Wade nodded and said with a smile: "Lord Mooore is born today, so naturally I want to share the joy with everyone. I have already called Xyla to make sure that neither she nor Dr. Simmons were injured. Don't worry."

Lord Mooore hurriedly said: "Master Wade, let Jasmine go with you. After all, Jasmine picked you up. It is not convenient for you to go from here."

Charlie Wade did not refuse either, nodded and agreed, and then said to a few people present: "Everyone, eat and drink well, I will take a step first."

Everyone got up to see each other, but seeing Charlie Wade instructed with gestures, they sat back one after another.

Charlie Wade said to Don Albertt when he was leaving: "My husband seems to be going to have a dinner in Heaven Springs tonight. If you go to Heaven Springs, please help me take care of it. If you don't, then help me and the people over there. Someone say hello."

Don Albertt hurriedly said, "Master Wade don't worry, I usually stay in Heaven Springs at night. After your old man arrives, I will definitely make arrangements."

"Yeah." Charlie Wade nodded and said: "Then you have to work so hard."

Don Albertt said hurriedly: "Master Wade, you are polite, this is what I should do!"

In Charlie Wade's eyes, Jacob Wilson, the father-in-law, was a pretty good person, and after knowing his past things, Charlie Wade did feel that he was actually pitiful, so he instinctively wanted to take care of him a little bit more.

After bidding farewell to everyone, Charlie Wade stepped out of the Moore family villa accompanied by Jasmine.

Jasmine took Charlie Wade all the way to the front of her car and personally opened the passenger door for Charlie Wade. After Charlie Wade got in the car, she got in.

As soon as she got on the bus, Jasmine looked at Charlie Wade gratefully and said sincerely: "Master Wade, thank you so much today..."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "You don't have to thank me. This chance of Rejuvenation Pill is given to your grandfather. It is enough for him to thank me."

Jasmine hurriedly said, "Master Wade, I thank you not only for this, but also because of what you said to Grandpa..."

Jasmine was very grateful to Charlie Wade, mainly because of what Charlie Wade said to Lord Moore.

She lost her parents since she was a child. Although the material conditions in the Moore family are very good, she rarely feels family affection, and she does not have the feeling of being taken care of and protected by others at all times.

However, Charlie Wade would actually speak for her just now, and even put the credit for returning Chundan to her. This is to help her establish her position in the Moore family. To Jasmine, it seems like Charlie Wade's moment. Protecting herself in general, filled her with a warm current that she had never experienced before.

It is not easy for her to live in the Moore family alone.

Charlie Wade looked at her, smiled slightly, and said, "I think you are the most suitable candidate to inherit the Moore family from the third generation of the Moore family. As for your cousin, to be honest, it feels like a strong foreigner, if the Moore family is Handed over to him, it will definitely go downhill."

Chapter 690

Jasmine hurriedly waved her hand: "Actually, my brother is quite good. I am not going to inherit the Moore family in the future. I just hope that after my grandfather dies, I won't be swept out by them..."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said seriously: "With me, this kind of thing will not happen."

Jasmine was so grateful that she rubbed her eyes and said, "Master Wade, I will send you to Serene Medical Clinic..."

After all, start the car and drive out of the villa.

In Serene Medical Clinic at this time, Dr. Simmons was taking Xyla to clean up the medicine cabinet that was smashed by Webb's bodyguard.

Seeing Charlie Wade and Jasmine stepping forward, Dr. Simmons hurried forward and said in surprise: "Master Wade, why are you here? And Miss Moore, isn't your grandpa having his birthday?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "I heard Xyla say that Webb's family had come here to make trouble, so I'll take a look at the situation on your side. Is the loss great?"

Dr. Simmons waved his hand and smiled calmly: "It's nothing more than the loss of some medicine cabinets and medicinal materials."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "I broke Sean's right hand as a small punishment. In addition, I told them that I must come and apologize within three days."

When Dr. Simmons heard these words, he hurriedly said nervously: "Master Wade, you don't need to fight with the Webb family for the little things of old age! The Webb family is the first family in the south of the Yangtze River. I'm afraid they will hold you grudges and intentions. revenge....."

Charlie Wade said calmly: "Don't worry, if the Webb family wants to retaliate, let him come, and I will tell them with the result that Aurouss Hilll is not Eastcliff, and it is a price to pretend to be forced."

Xyla looked admiringly and said, "Master Wade, thank you for helping me and grandpa out of this nasty breath. The father and son surnamed Webb are really too much, so I have to teach them a lesson and make them a little in awe!"

Dr. Simmons looked at Xyla and reprimanded: "What are you talking about? How many times have I told you, don't trouble Master Wade, why don't you understand?"

Xyla nodded aggrievedly, not daring to say more.

Charlie Wade said at this moment: "Dr. Simmons, it is true that the reason why the Webb family father and son came to trouble you, to a certain extent, also has something to do with me."

Dr. Simmons, Xyla, and Jasmine were all a little surprised, and they didn't understand what Charlie Wade meant.

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "Everyone is not an outsider, so I'm telling the truth. The second son of the Webb family, Kian, became like the one uploaded by Douyin because I added a psychological hint to him. ."

"Ah?!" All three people present were dumbfounded!

No one thought that the culprit behind Kian, who became a feces-swallowing beast and famous all over the country, turned out to be Charlie Wade!

Xyla subconsciously asked, "Master Wade, do you have any conflicts with that Kian?"

Charlie Wade said calmly: "I have no contradiction with him, just simply can't bear it."

After speaking, Charlie Wade said again: "This kid does not study well in college, always abuses female students, and even tries to induce Mr. Quinton's daughter's girlfriend to commit suicide. I can't see it, so I showed him a lesson and let him do this. There is no way to abuse a girl in my life."

Xyla immediately looked at him in admiration and blurted out: "Master Wade, you are really my idol! I have long heard that Kian is not a good thing. He has become like this. I don't know how many people clapped and cheered! It turns out that it was Master Wade who walked the way for the sky!"

Jasmine on the side could not help exclaiming: "Master Wade, the reason why Donald is still in Aurouss Hilll is to find someone who will attack Kian. I didn't expect it to be you..."

Chapter 691

Just when Jasmine, Xyla and Dr. Simmons were sighing about Kian's affairs, Charlie Wade's old father-in-law Jacob Wilson wore a suit and happily came out from home and took a taxi to Heaven Springs.

Because he was going to have a little wine in the evening, Jacob Wilson left the BMW car at home and gave the car key to Charlie Wade so that Charlie Wade could drive to Heaven Springs to pick him up.

Jacob Wilson has no other hobbies during the recent period. He just likes to study antiques, cultural relics and calligraphy and painting, so he joined the Calligraphy and Painting Association.

This dinner is also to be able to get a seat as a standing director of the association.

In order to show his respect for the leaders of the association, he deliberately took the 20,000 Dollar that Charlie Wade transferred to him, and set a bronze box in Heaven Springs.

Although this is the worst box in Heaven Springs, it is much stronger than most other restaurants.

When Jacob Wilson arrived at Heaven Springs, Don Albertt was on his way. The waiter didn't know Jacob Wilson, so he directly led Jacob Wilson to the bronze box he had reserved.

Seeing that the others hadn't arrived yet, Jacob Wilson was not impatient, and simply sat in his seat and patiently waited for everyone to arrive.

A few minutes later, the door of the box was pushed open, and a middle-aged man of his age stepped in.

After seeing Jacob Wilson, the middle-aged man walked forward, smiled and said, "Brother Wilson, you came really early, when did you arrive?"

Jacob Wilson hurriedly said: "Mr. Phillips, I have been here for a while. Today, the chairman and the executive directors are honored to participate in this dinner of my group. I am really honored and excited, so I rushed over in advance and awaited your ride. ."

The middle-aged man who came here was named David Phillips, a standing director of the Calligraphy and Painting Association.

He and Jacob Wilson had a pretty good relationship in peacetime. Both of them liked to throw up some antique calligraphy and painting, so they often found things together in the antique street, and they had a lot of friendship.

When he heard that Jacob Wilson wanted to compete for the position of executive director, he was the first to stand up and support Jacob Wilson.

Moreover, Jacob Wilson hosted a banquet for the leaders of the association today. The reason why they agreed to come over is largely because of Mr. Phillips's face.

Seeing that Jacob Wilson was so polite, Mr. Phillips laughed and said, "Brother Wilson, you have a heart!"

Jacob Wilson hurriedly made a please gesture and said, "Mr. Phillips, please sit down!"

Mr. Phillips was not in a hurry to sit down. Seeing that the others hadn't come, he reminded him in a low voice: "Brother Wilson, you come to sit in this standing director's seat. I naturally have no objection, but other people in the association, But not necessarily!" When Jacob Wilson heard this, he was a little worried, and asked quickly, "Mr. Phillips, you can tell me carefully."

Mr. Phillips sighed and said: "The position of executive director is often missed, and it is more authoritative when he speaks it out, so it has always been a fat man. Our executive director goes out to participate in an antique program. Give an appearance fee of tens of thousands of dollars, so many people are staring at this position."

Speaking of this, Mr. Phillips said again: "Let's take Samuel Yount as an example. During the recent period, I heard that he has been coping with the chairman and other executive directors, and he has given them gifts in private. According to the current situation, he will be your biggest competitor!"

Chapter 692

"Samuel Yount?" Jacob Wilson couldn't help but frowned, and said: "That's it, a man who burns a little money and doesn't know his surname?"

Mr. Phillips nodded and said, "So, it is not enough for me to support you alone. When others come, you must try to win the support of several other executive directors and even the president, so that you can be in the internal voting, you defeated Samuel Yount and became the new executive director, do you know?"

Jacob Wilson nodded hurriedly and said sincerely: "Mr. Phillips, what you said really made me inspire me, thank you so much!"

Mr. Phillips smiled slightly and said, "What are you being polite to me!" As he said, he glanced at the time and said, "The president and they are coming soon. Let's wait at the door of the box. It seems more sincere."

Jacob Wilson nodded repeatedly, and did not dare to sit in his seat again. Together with Mr. Phillips, he walked to the door of the box and stood still, waiting for the appearance of the leaders and directors of the Calligraphy and Painting Association.

After a while, other members of the Calligraphy and Painting Association arrived one after another.

A spirited old man came to the door of the box, surrounded by the people around him, as if stars arched over the moon.

When Mr. Phillips saw the old man, he immediately stepped forward and smiled and said, "Mr. Price!"

Jacob Wilson also hurriedly followed and said respectfully: "Chairman Price, you are here!"

Mr. Price nodded slightly, and pretended to complain: "Jacob Wilson, look at you, how did you make such a big scene? Didn't you say it, we pay attention to everything in a simple party, you are looking for a restaurant at random, and order an ordinary The location of the lobby is just right, why do we need to book a box in Heaven Springs with extravagance?"

Although he said so, he even blamed Jacob Wilson for being too grand, but it was only polite on the surface, but he didn't think like that in his heart.

If Jacob Wilson really put the place where the guests had dinner in the lobby of another hotel, he would definitely turn around and leave, and would never have any contact with him in the future.

Jacob Wilson hurriedly said: "Everyone who came today is a leader. With the leader here, how dare I be negligent!"

As he said, he laughed and said, "Since everyone is here, let's get seated quickly."

Chairman Price also nodded and said, "OK, everyone, sit down!"

At this moment, a middle-aged man who was following Mr. Price suddenly snorted and said: "Jacob Wilson, you are in Heaven Springs for a dinner, and you only book a bronze box with the worst grade. It is too disrespectful for the president and Other executive directors, right?"

Jacob Wilson saw the other party, his face suddenly became difficult to look, and said, "Samuel Yount, I invited everyone to dinner, but I didn't invite you. What are you doing with you licking your face? Besides, what private room I have ordered has nothing to do with you. , Is it your turn to make irresponsible remarks here?"

The person in front of him is his biggest competitor, Samuel Yount, competing for the position of executive director.

Samuel Yount said contemptuously: "You can't say that. What is the status of Mr. Price, and what status are these executive directors?"

As he said, Samuel Yount snorted and said, "What is the purpose of your inviting everyone to eat today? Everyone knows well, isn't it just for the position of the executive director? However, you think you have ordered the most second bronze box. Can you let the president and the others support you? This is too insincere. This is obviously to fool everyone as if they have never seen the world before!"

After speaking, he looked at everyone and said with a smile on his face: "The mere bronze box is really not worthy of your identity! In order to show respect to the president and the executive directors, I specially booked a golden box upstairs. , Why don't we just move to my place!"

Chapter 693

Hearing that Samuel Yount actually booked a golden box upstairs, everyone present was shocked!

You know, in the entire Aurouss Hilll, Heaven Springs is one of the top hotels in Aurouss Hilll.

Even some savvy figures in the upper class of Aurouss Hilll, who trust their relationships and spend a lot of money, can hardly be able to book a golden box.

Among the people present, even Mr. Price, who has the highest status, had no chance to enter the golden box for dinner, and they had never even seen how luxurious it was.

Now, Samuel Yount is going to entertain all the people present in the golden box, so that they have the opportunity to go in and see. This is really surprising and exciting!

In comparison, Jacob Wilson's small bronze box is completely rubbish that can't make it to the table.

At the thought of this, everyone felt a little disappointed in Jacob Wilson.

When I look at Samuel Yount, I have an indescribable appreciation.

Mr. Price was a little moved, but after all, he agreed to come to Jacob Wilson's dinner first, so it was not easy to make a decision directly, so he deliberately asked everyone for their opinions and said: "You have such a kind invitation, what do you mean?"

Someone couldn't help saying: "Mr. Price, I haven't been to the Golden Box, just take this opportunity to learn more!"

"Yes, Mr. Price! It's also good to go in and take a few photos and post to a circle of friends!"

Mr. Price saw that everyone seemed to want to go to the Golden Box, so he smiled and said, "Since everyone thinks so, let's go and see?"

"Good, good!" Everyone agreed.

Samuel Yount was overjoyed and said with a big smile: "Everyone, please go upstairs."

Jacob Wilson on the side was depressed and broke!

Today, he was obviously the one who invited him to dinner, who would have killed a Samuel Yount halfway through!

This guy made a golden box, ran over and said a few words, and cut off the meal he had carefully prepared!

It cost 20,000 Dollar to order this meal. The key is that the money spent, not only did not play any role, but because of the appearance of Samuel Yount, he was looked down upon by everyone...

This made Jacob Wilson extremely annoyed, this time he really picked up a rock and hit his own foot.

When everyone was about to move upstairs, Samuel Yount looked at Jacob Wilson with a smug look, and said sarcastically, "Jacob Wilson, you old hanging silk, I must have never seen how luxurious the golden box is, or you should come here too. Sit down?"

Upon hearing this, Jacob Wilson felt even more embarrassed and unbearable!

He blurted out angrily and retorted: "Samuel Yount, who do you say is the old Diaosi? Do you think I am someone who has never seen the world? I tell you, I have seen all the ten floors of the Glorious Club, a golden box in Heaven Springs. That's it, how can you say it from your broken mouth, it's like it's better than the Jade Emperor's High Heaven Palace!" Samuel Yount laughed and said, "Oh, I said Jacob Wilson, you really laughed at me. You have been to the Glorious Club because of your poor virtue? You have also been to the tenth floor that can only be enjoyed by VIP members? Would you not Are you going to clean the house?"

Hearing Samuel Yount's ridicule, everyone couldn't help laughing.

Everyone has the same opinion as Samuel Yount. The bronze box of Heaven Springs can be ordered by ordinary people through gritted teeth, but the Glorious Club is only for members.

If you want to become a member, you have very high requirements. If your qualifications, abilities, and financial resources are not up to standard, you will have no chance to get in and spend money.

Chapter 694

Therefore, among the people present today, not even one has been to the fifth floor of the Glorious Club.

Even Samuel Yount himself had just made a member of the lowest level of the Glorious Club.

When Jacob Wilson said that he had been on the tenth floor, everyone naturally didn't believe it.

Jacob Wilson didn't expect to tell the truth, but these people felt that they were bragging, so they said with a bit of annoyance, "My son-in-law arranged for me and some old classmates to go up. You don't believe me and I fell down!"

Samuel Yount laughed loudly: "I know that your son-in-law, Aurouss Hilll's first live-in son-in-law is he? I heard that he is a stinky silkworm who eats soft rice. He is not as good as you. Why does he take you to the Glorious Club?"

Jacob Wilson snorted coldly, "Believe it or not."

Samuel Yount smiled and said: "If you really have this ability, why don't you invite the president to have fun in the Glorious Club? Why do you have to book a low-grade bronze box in Heaven Springs?"

After speaking, he suddenly realized: "Oh, I understand, you have not put the president and other executive directors in your eyes! Do you think that their status and status are worthy of sitting in bronze? The box? Doesn't deserve to go to the Glorious Club at all?"

When Samuel Yount spoke, Jacob Wilson, who was immediately blocked, couldn't argue.

This Samuel Yount is too bad and very clever. For a while, he seems to be wearing a high hat, but for a while, you can't get off the stage.

Therefore, no matter how angry Jacob Wilson was at this moment, he could not find any reason to refute Samuel Yount.

So, he could only say angrily: "I didn't mean that..."

Seeing that his combat power is so weak, Samuel Yount couldn't help wave his hand, and said, "Forget it, I don't bother to talk nonsense with you old lady. With your patience, I also deserve to be a standing director? I really want you to be. Wouldn't it be laughable and generous in the future?"

After speaking, he turned to look at Mr. Price and the others, immediately put on a warm smile, and said: "Mr. Price, let's go."

Samuel Yount set a golden box for everyone, which won the favor of many people present, and even a few standing directors who were originally in a neutral attitude gave him a kind smile.

Jacob Wilson stomped his feet with anger when he saw such a scene, but he was helpless.

Mr. Phillips next to him grabbed him and whispered in his ear: "Brother Wilson, you don't have to be discouraged. The current situation is just a dispute of spirit!"

As he said, he leaned in and said in a low voice, "In my opinion, you can't get angry. Instead, you have to go to the golden box, perform well in front of the president and the others, and make the final fight. If you give up now I am afraid that the position of the executive director will really fall into the hands of Samuel Yount."

Jacob Wilson suddenly woke up from his dream!

Yes indeed!

Even though he lost to Samuel Yount in the stage of the treat, it does not mean that the other party will be the final winner.

If I really let go today in a rage, that would be the real loss of all previous achievements and all losses!

So he thanked Mr. Phillips and said, "Mr. Phillips, thank you for your reminder. I'm going to see what Samuel Yount can do!"

After all, he said to Samuel Yount: "Since you are so sincere, then I will go to the golden box with you to get insights."

Samuel Yount snorted disdainfully, and said: "Just say you are an old wire, and you still don't admit it! If you really missed this opportunity to meet me, I think you will go back tonight and wake up several times in the middle of the night. !"

Chapter 695

Jacob Wilson was so ridiculed by Samuel Yount, his face was naturally very uncontrollable.

However, he kept in mind Mr. Phillips's reminder that the top priority is to fight for the position of standing director, not to get angry with Samuel Yount.

So, he resisted his anger, didn't speak, and went with everyone, following Samuel Yount, all the way to a golden box upstairs. As soon as they entered the door, everyone was surprised and admired again and again by the luxurious decoration in the golden box. A standing director spoke at this moment and said with a sigh: "Today we are all thanks to the talents, so that we can see the luxury of the golden box of Heaven Springs!"

Someone echoed: "Yes! Not long ago, a friend of mine who was worth tens of millions of dollars wanted to book this box. He went a lot of ways, but he couldn't make a decision. He could only regretfully choose the next best one. Silver box."

Upon hearing this, everyone was even more curious, and some people couldn't help but ask Samuel Yount: "Youcai, how did you book the golden box? Did someone help or?"

Samuel Yount said with a proud face: "My Samuel Yount wants to book a golden box. Where do I need help from others? To put it bluntly, this is what I said!"

After speaking, he explained to everyone: "To tell you the truth, I am a frequent visitor to Heaven Springs, I often eat here, and I am also a friend of Don Albertt, so the box below the diamond level, if I want, Heaven Springs will be open for me at any time!"

After listening, everyone present was amazed!

Mr. Price said incredulously: "You are talented, are you friends with our underground emperor Don Albertt in Aurouss Hill?"

"Of course!"

Samuel Yount said triumphantly: "If I don't know him well, how can I have such a big face, so I can book the golden box easily?"

Although Samuel Yount said so, in fact, he knew Don Albertt, but Don Albertt didn't know him.

The reason why he was able to book this golden box was not because of Don Albertt's relationship at all, but because he spent a huge price far exceeding the original price of the golden box before he transferred it from others.

At this time, taking Don Albertt out to talk about the matter was just thinking that the fox would be pretending to be more prestigious in front of everyone.

However, no one would doubt the truth or falsehood of this statement.

After all, the golden boxes were all seated in, so everyone thought that Samuel Yount was telling the truth, and it was a compliment to Samuel Yount now.

At this moment, Samuel Yount was praised by everyone, and was even more proud. He looked at Jacob Wilson and sarcastically said: "Jacob Wilson, you didn't see the chairman and all the directors seated? Why are you so low on the price of eyesight, why don't you give us quickly Bring tea and pour water?"

Jacob Wilson looked ugly and blurted out, "Samuel Yount, what do you mean?"

Samuel Yount said contemptuously: "What can I mean? You don't look at it. Among these people, which status is not higher than you? You are an old hanging silk. If you don't serve us tea, do you want us to serve you?"

Jacob Wilson's face was even more ugly, and he said angrily; "You said that my status is not as good as that of the chairman and other executive directors. I admit this, but what kind of status you are, don't you know it? Everyone is ordinary in the association. Members, what are you pretending to be with me here? You want me to serve you tea and water, dream about you!"

Mr. Phillips next to him also said displeasably: "Samuel Yount, is it a bit too much for you to speak like this?"

Samuel Yount laughed and said, "What's wrong with me? Who made Jacob Wilson's old hanging silk too rubbish? If he can book a golden box, I can also serve him in turn. The problem is that he doesn't have this ability!"

After speaking, he looked at Jacob Wilson coldly and said, "Do you think I asked you to come to the Golden Box to let you eat and drink? To tell you the truth, for someone like you, let you serve tea. Pouring water is already giving you a lot of face, don't shame your face!"

Chapter 696

Jacob Wilson gritted his teeth angrily.

I had known that Samuel Yount was so vicious, biting himself like a dog, and said nothing to ask for this boring.

.....

Just when Jacob Wilson was so speechless and uncomfortable.

Don Albertt's car just stopped at the gate of Heaven Springs.

The first thing after getting off the bus is to hurriedly ask the hotel manager who opened the door: "Is there someone named Jacob Wilson who has reserved our box today?"

"Yes, it's on Bronze No. 3." The hotel manager will carefully record the guests of the hotel every day, naturally knowing every guest who booked the box today.

Don Albertt nodded and hurriedly said, "Go, go to the bronze box No. 3 with me!"

When the Moore family was at the banquet, Master Wade told himself that his old husband would come to his restaurant for dinner and let himself take care of it.

How can you condescend to sit in the small bronze box? You have to go to the diamond box to say anything!

Don Albertt hurriedly came to the door of Bronze Box No. 3 and found that the door was open, but there was no one in the box.

He was taken aback for a moment and asked the waitress in the box: "I ask you, where is Mr. Wilson who booked this box?!"

The waitress hurriedly said: "Fifth Lord, Mr. Jacob Wilson was there before, but was invited to the golden box upstairs by other guests just now. It is in the golden box No. 2."

Don Albertt immediately said to the hotel manager: "Go, follow me!"

.....

At this time, in the golden box, Samuel Yount looked at Jacob Wilson coldly, and still sneered: "Jacob Wilson, at your level, I don't think you are even qualified to join the Calligraphy and Painting Association. Why are you embarrassed to compete for the executive director?"

Jacob Wilson said coldly: "You said I'm not level? I think you are not level. Even if I'm not level anymore, I picked up a leak in the Antique Street. I bought it for thousands of dollars and sold it for hundreds of thousands.?"

Samuel Yount said contemptuously: "You just blow it. Anyway, your mouth is on your face. You can blow it whatever you want. You can also say that you picked up a leak for thousands of dollars and sold for tens of millions. The problem is Who believes it?"

Jacob Wilson snorted and said, "If you believe it or not, go to the Antique Street and ask Zachary, I picked up the omission and he took it!" "Zachary?" Samuel Yount frowned, and blurted out: "Zachary is a famous profiteer on Antique Street. He is very treacherous. He is the darkest in the entire Antique Street. Can he spend hundreds of thousands on your things? Kill me. Do not believe!"

Jacob Wilson said contemptuously: "If you don't believe me, you can ask him tomorrow."

"Believe you a ghost." Samuel Yount said with a curled mouth: "I don't bother to talk nonsense with you, and don't see who I am. Is it worthy to eat with us? Pour everyone's wine quickly. , If you can't do this thing well, just get out of here! Don't be an eyesore here!"

Jacob Wilson trembled with anger, and was about to speak, when a voice suddenly rang out behind him: "What are you that dare to talk to Mr. Wilson like this? Are you tired of living?"

Chapter 697

When everyone heard this voice, they looked out the door, and saw Don Albertt leading the hotel manager and stepping into the box.

Naturally, Samuel Yount knew Don Albertt. When he saw Don Albertt was here, he hurriedly stepped forward and said respectfully: "Don Albertt, why are you here in person..."

Unexpectedly, Don Albertt glanced at him coldly, and said: "Just now you called Mr. Wilson the old man, was it you?"

Samuel Yount was stunned, what do you mean? Don Albertt knows Jacob Wilson? !

Thinking of this, he hurriedly explained: "Don Albertt, this is probably a misunderstanding. Both Jacob Wilson and I are members of the Calligraphy and Painting Association. We usually have a good relationship with each other. Occasionally ridicule is not true!"

Don Albertt frowned, saw Jacob Wilson, and hurriedly said respectfully: "Mr. Wilson, I didn't expect you to visit Heaven Springs today. Hong Mou's bad greetings, please forgive me!"

Everyone in the room was shocked to see such a scene!

Especially Samuel Yount, who was scared into a cold sweat at this moment, couldn't believe his eyes at all!

The underground emperor Hong Fifth, who is famous throughout Arouss Hilll, is actually so respectful to Jacob Wilson, the old hanging silk? Isn't this too f*cking bullshit? !

At this time, it was not only Mr. Price and others who were surprised. Jacob Wilson was also taken aback and couldn't help asking, "Do you know me?"

Don Albertt explained with a humble face: "Last time in the Glorious Club, when Master Wade ordered me to dispose of Aaron Phillips and Jake, his son-in-law, I was fortunate to see you."

Jacob Wilson asked again: "Master Wade that you said is my son-in-law Charlie Wade?"

Don Albertt said solemnly: "Yes, it is Master Charlie Wade Wade!"

Jacob Wilson suddenly realized!

Only then did he want to understand, as Don Albertt's lofty status, how could he condescend and be so respectful to himself, an ordinary person who has no money and power, and co-authored because of his son-in-law Charlie Wade.

It seems that the son-in-law is a big flicker, and it also has the benefits of a big flicker, at least before he is free of thunder, he can follow him.

At this time, Don Albertt pointed to Samuel Yount and asked Jacob Wilson: "Mr. Wilson, I just heard this person insult you. Do you want me to teach him a lesson?"

Samuel Yount paled with fright, and hurriedly said: "Jacob Wilson, we are members of an association, we are all brothers, you have to help me say something!"

"What can I say for you!" Jacob Wilson said with a look of emotion: "You have said it yourself, I am just an old silk, I only serve you with tea and water, so I can speak for you?"

Samuel Yount suddenly cried and said with a mournful face: "Oh my good brother, don't be familiar with me, I'm just playing with you!"

Jacob Wilson chuckled: "Don't, my old Diaosi dare not be your good brother. It's better for us to draw a clear line at this time!"

Samuel Yount knew that Jacob Wilson still hated him, and he regretted it. He knew that Don Albertt was so powerful, so he didn't dare to pretend to be forceful!

Looking at Samuel Yount, Don Albertt said in a cold voice, "You are on my site, and you dare to be disrespectful to Mr. Wilson. I don't know how to write the dead words?"

Samuel Yount's face was instantly pale, and his cowardly lips trembled and couldn't speak.

Chapter 698

Pointing at Samuel Yount, Don Albertt shouted to the men behind him: "Come on, pull this guy out and beat me fiercely, especially the broken mouth, and slap me to death."

When Samuel Yount heard this, he was so scared that he was so scared that he immediately knelt in front of Don Albertt and shouted: "Orvel, I'm sorry, I didn't know Jacob Wilson was your distinguished guest! It was my fault, and I apologize to you. Forgive me, and spare me this time!"

He really didn't expect that Jacob Wilson's son-in-law would be such a bull, even the majestic underground emperor of Aurouss Hilll would become Jacob Wilson's licking dog!

Just as he wanted to beg for mercy anymore, some of Don Albertt's bodyguards immediately took a step forward, and slapped him!

Samuel Yount was instantly dizzy and dizzy, and then he was punched and kicked by a few strong bodyguards in front of him. He looked miserable.

Don Albertt looked at Samuel Yount coldly and said, "I ask you, why are you targeting Mr. Wilson?"

Samuel Yount was full of blood, crying and said, "I'm sorry, Don Albertt, I was just competing with Jacob Wilson for the standing director of the Painting and Calligraphy Association, so I couldn't stop talking.. please forgive me..."

Don Albertt ignored him, but looked at the crowd in the private room and asked, "Who is the head of the Calligraphy and Painting Association?"

Chairman Price hurriedly said: "I am currently the chairman of the Calligraphy and Painting Association."

Don Albertt nodded, pointed at Samuel Yount, and said coldly: "I ask you, this kind of rubbish can also enter your painting and calligraphy association. How did you become the president? Can you do it? Can you give it to me? Let it out!"

Mr. Price shuddered in fright. He was very eager to survive, and he blurted out subconsciously: "I will resign tomorrow! At that time, Jacob Wilson must be elected as the president of the Calligraphy and Painting Association..."

When Jacob Wilson heard this, he hurriedly waved his hand and said, "I can't help Mr. Price, I'm not at the level of a president. I'm very satisfied to be a standing director..."

Chairman Price hurriedly said: "Since Don Albertt thinks you can, then you must be able to!"

Jacob Wilson waved his hand again and again and said, "I'm not quite accomplished yet, I can't afford this position..."

At this time, Don Albertt looked at Chairman Price and said, "Since you are the chairman, I will give you a suggestion."

After a pause, Don Albertt pointed to Samuel Yount and said, "First of all, let me remove this trash permanently."

Chairman Price blurted out: "It must be! I will remove him completely tomorrow!"

Don Albertt gave a hum, then pointed at Jacob Wilson, and said, "Mr. Wilson has a very high level of knowledge in antique calligraphy and painting. Since he is humble and unwilling to be the chairman, you should give him the position of standing director. Do you understand?"

Mr. Price hurriedly promised: "Yes, yes! I will do as you order!"

As he said, he changed his face and said to Samuel Yount: "Samuel Yount, I announce that from this moment on, you have been removed from the Aurouss Hilll Painting and Calligraphy Association! And you cannot join for life!"

Samuel Yount's heart is desperate!

To be honest, he himself does not have much ability to appraise treasures. The reason why he was able to join the Aurouss Hilll Local Painting and Calligraphy Association was because he had spent some money to get this place.

Usually he relied on the membership of the Calligraphy and Calligraphy Association to scam him everywhere, thinking that being a standing director would be more convenient for him to defraud money, but he did not expect that he would be permanently removed because he offended Jacob Wilson!

However, he dared not express any dissatisfaction, after all, the coercion of Don Albertt was placed here, and he could not bear it anyway. Just when he had accepted his fate, Don Albertt looked at him and said in a cold voice: "Don't you think you have a good identity? I will arrange a place for you that can best highlight your identity!"

With that, Don Albertt ordered his opponent: "Carry him away, find the dirtiest pig farm, and let him live with the dirtiest old sow for a week. This week, he eats, drinks and sleeps. Stay with the old sow, what the pig eats what he eats, where the pig sleeps where he sleeps, I want him to feel what is super VIP treatment!"

Chapter 699

Samuel Yount's complexion changed drastically, he was scared to death in an instant, and his heart was desperate!

Let yourself live and sleep with the old sow, but also let yourself eat pig food?

Too f*cking disgusting, right? !

Let's not talk about how dirty the environment in the pigsty is, just talk about the smell of the old sow, which is nasty and smelly. If you let yourself sleep with her, it will make you sick! Besides, the pig food fed by the pigs is full of leftovers and leftovers. Due to the lack of air circulation and the sultry temperature, it will be rotten within a few hours. How can the body that has been pampered and maintained for many years be able to hold it? ! Moreover, I have to live with the old sow for a week. I am afraid that I will burp first after a week!

Thinking of this, he hurriedly begged Don Albertt, saying: "Don Albertt, please be merciful and forgive me. I don't want to sleep with the old sow, the place is too dirty, I can't stand it... .."

Don Albertt sneered and said: "Can't stand it, right? Okay, double the time, two weeks!"

Samuel Yount cried loudly.

Don Albertt warned: "Cry? Just add another week to cry!"

Jacob Wilson felt that Samuel Yount had been beaten up and there was no need to get him to live with the old sow for three weeks, so he said, "Or don't go to the pig farm. The place is really dirty. ."

Don Albertt nodded and said: "The pig farm is indeed quite dirty, and it is very smelly, so I never run a pig farm."

As he said, he suddenly remembered something and said excitedly: "By the way, I have a kennel in the suburbs, where there are expensive fighting dogs. Then you can chop him up and feed the dogs directly, saving worry and effort, and It is also very clean and hygienic, he will definitely like it!"

Upon hearing this, Samuel Yount was so frightened that he peed his pants, all over.

If you can live, who would be willing to die!

It's better to die than to live, isn't it just sleeping and eating with the old sow?

I admit it!

Therefore, he was extremely eager to survive, and immediately pleaded: "Don Albertt, let me go and live with the old sow!"

Don Albertt nodded in satisfaction and said: "Take him down, remember, you must find the dirtiest pig farm!"

Afterwards, a few strong men dragged away the bruised and swollen Samuel Yount, leaving behind a table of outrageous guests.

When Mr. Price and others saw such a scene, their old faces twitched, and they said that Samuel Yount was not ordinarily miserable.

However, who can be blamed for this, he is responsible for everything. If he had a better attitude towards Jacob Wilson, how could he end up like this?

When Samuel Yount started the three-week customized luxury tour of the pigsty, Don Albertt respectfully said to Jacob Wilson: "Mr. Wilson, the guy just peed on this ground. In order not to hinder you and others, please move Meals in the Diamond Box at Heaven Springs! All expenses today will be paid by Heaven Springs."

When these words came out, Mr. Price and the others were shocked!

what? Did you hear me right?

The dignified Aurouss Hilll Underground Emperor, it doesn't matter if he is respectful to Jacob Wilson, now in order to please him, he actually opened the highest-standard diamond box in Heaven Springs to him? !

In the whole Aurouss Hilll, there are only a handful of people who are eligible to book the Diamond Box in Heaven Springs.

But now, Don Albertt is rushing to curry favor with Jacob Wilson, and without waiting for him to ask, he directly expresses that he wants to open the diamond box for him? And it's free!

If this is spread out, who would dare to believe it!

Chapter 700

Jacob Wilson was also a little surprised, hesitatingly said: "This...isn't it appropriate?"

Don Albertt said solemnly, "Mr. Wilson, you are Master Wade's father-in-law. Of course it is most appropriate to go to the Diamond Box to dine!"

When Jacob Wilson heard him say this, he relaxed and said flatly, "Don Albertt, you are so polite."

Only then did Chairman Price and others realize that Jacob Wilson turned out to be a better figure!

If you have a good relationship with others, you will definitely feel relieved in the future!

Afterwards, Don Albertt personally invited everyone to the Diamond Box.

Mr. Price and others followed Jacob Wilson in turn, their faces respectful, and they didn't dare to make any big claims.

Jacob Wilson saw all this in his eyes, and he couldn't help but close his mouth in joy.

Obviously, I am rushing to ask these people to eat, but now, these people are all in awe of themselves!

At this moment, Jacob Wilson felt that the son-in-law Charlie Wade really gave himself a face!

.....

When Jacob Wilson was invited by Don Albertt to go all the way to the luxurious diamond box, Mrr.. Lloyd and his son and the five Webb family bodyguards headed by Jones also came to the door of Heaven Springs.

Mrr.. Lloyd's face was full of cold killing intent.

During this period of time, his son Marcus's forehead has been hanging with two big characters, living a life that is better than death.

Before today, he didn't dare to avenge his son because he couldn't provoke the two culprits, Charlie Wade and Don Albertt.

Even the son was extremely humiliating. He came to Heaven Springs once a week to find Don Albertt and let Don Albertt check the lettering on his forehead.

This is a great shame to him and his son!

However, tonight, he wants Don Albertt to pay the debt!

And the reason why he brought his son here this time was precisely because tonight happened to be the day when his son came to check in this week. He was going to let his son use the opportunity to come in and inquire about the situation of Don Albertt and Heaven Springs.

For example, where is Don Albertt and how many bodyguards he has.

If you don't figure it out and you rush in, you may be taken by Don Albertt to escape.

So he said to Marcus, who was standing next to him, "Son, you will go in with Don Albertt later, what it was like before, and what it is today!

But you have to be careful and look at Don Albertt. Where is the specific location, how many of his subordinates are in Heaven Springs now, who knows all about him, and then come back to report to me, you know?"

Marcus gritted his teeth and nodded, and said bitterly: "I know Dad! Don't worry, I must figure it out!"

Mrr.. Lloyd was pleased to pat his shoulder and said seriously: "Good son, Dad will avenge you tonight! Let Don Albertt pay you his life!" Marcus hurriedly asked, "Dad, besides Don Albertt, the one who humiliated me is Charlie Wade! He must die too!"

"Don't worry!" Mrr.. Lloyd said seriously: "Kill Don Albertt tonight. I am the new underground emperor of Aurouss Hilll. At that time, we will cooperate with the Webb family and directly kill that Charlie Wade! Then let him follow Don Albertt be a companion!"

Marcus was suddenly very excited, and when he recalled the humiliation he suffered during the time and the beginning, tears burst into his eyes. Immediately, he touched the scar carved on his forehead by Don Albertt, crying and said, "Dad! Can the words on my forehead be removed?"

Mrr.. Lloyd said in a gloomy and vicious voice: "Good son, don't worry, when you kill these two damned guys, Dad will take you to Korea for the best cosmetic surgery and will definitely help you remove all the scars!"
Chapter 701

Before that, every time Marcus came to Heaven Springs to find Don Albertt with the words "Pathetic Jerk" on his forehead, his heart was extremely broken.

Every time he came over, he would be watched by the guests and waiters of Heaven Springs, which made him feel a kind of extreme humiliation.

However, today is different.

Today is the last time for Don Albertt to die. After tonight, Don Albertt will completely pass away in Aurouss Hilll! Instead, his father, Mrr.. Lloyd!

At that time, his father will become the underground emperor of Aurouss Hilll!

At that time, people will respect him as "Master Lloyd"!

At that time, I will also remove the humiliating scar on my forehead, and I will always be free from the shadow of the words "Pathetic Jerk"!

At the thought of this, Marcus was almost excited.

At this time, after seeing his son in the car, Mrr.. Lloyd hurriedly said respectfully to Mr. Jones, the Webb family bodyguard, "Mr. Jones, everything will depend on you later!"

Mr. Jones nodded coldly and said, "Don't worry, no one in Aurouss Hilll can compare to me! This Don Albertt won't survive tonight!"

Mrr.. Lloyd was extremely excited.

At this moment, he and his son have been looking forward to it for a long time.

.....

At this moment, Don Albertt directly invited Jacob Wilson and others to the Diamond Box of Heaven Springs.

He protected Jacob Wilson all the way, pointed to the most noble seat among them, and respectfully said: "Mr. Wilson, please come to your seat."

Jacob Wilson was still a little uncomfortable. He looked at Mr. Price and said, "Mr. Price should be here!"

Mr. Price's heart was tense, and he hurriedly waved his hand and said, "Oh, Jacob Wilson, how dare I sit in the seat! You should come!"

If Jacob Wilson asked him to take a seat just now, he would have taken it without thinking.

After all, he is the president and the person in charge of the Calligraphy and Painting Association. It is normal to be here.

However, after seeing Don Albertt being so polite to Jacob Wilson, he suddenly felt a little timid. Fortunately, he didn't show up in front of Jacob Wilson like Samuel Yount. Otherwise, he would go to the pig farm to experience the special life with the old sow. Opportunity, I am afraid I have my own.

When other people saw this scene, they hurriedly echoed: "Yes, Brother Wilson, you must be the one here to sit here, please hurry up!"

Jacob Wilson was still very proud of being touted in the clouds and mists, so he smiled: "Haha, since everyone is so enthusiastic, it is hard to be kind, I won't be polite to everyone!"

After he finished speaking, he sat on the main seat, and Mr. Phillips and Chairman Price sat on his left and right.

After Don Albertt waited for him to take his seat, he smiled and said, "Mr. Wilson, please wait for a while. The food will be ready soon. You can use tea first."

While she was talking, a beautiful female manager walked into the box and put it in Don Albertt's ear and said: "Albert, that kid from the Lloyd family has come to you to order."

After listening to Don Albertt, he immediately became happy and said: "Well, today is the day when Mr. Wilson became the standing director of the Painting and Calligraphy Association. Since this kid is here, he is called into the Diamond Box, To help Mr. Wilson!"

The beautiful female manager got the order and bowed slightly and walked out of the diamond box.

When Jacob Wilson heard that, in addition to allowing himself to use the diamond box, Don Albertt also specially prepared a celebration program.

He was flattered and said: "Albert, you don't need to be so polite..."

Don Albertt waved his hand and said with a smile: "Haha, this is what I should do!"

After speaking, he played a dumb riddle, and then said: "Mr. Wilson, don't worry, the show I prepared for you is definitely the only one in Aurouss Hilll, and it has something to do with your son-in-law, Master Wade. I promise to make you shine. !"

Upon hearing this, everyone was also interested, sitting in their respective positions, looking forward to it.

Chapter 702

After a while, the beautiful female manager turned back again, and this time, behind her, there was a young man who shrank and dared not look up. Jacob Wilson and the others in the Calligraphy and Painting Association were immediately confused, and said to their hearts, this kid is the show Don Albertt prepared?

This young man, there is nothing outstanding about it!

However, at this moment, when the young man in front of him walked into the box, without saying anything, he immediately bowed to Don Albertt and said respectfully and fearfully: "Don Albertt, I'm here to report to you. Please review it."

The person who came was Marcus.

On the same day, after mentioning the word "Pathetic Jerk" in the Hot Springs, Don Albertt clearly told him that he would come to his front every other week to check it out in person.

In order to make sure this guy dare not do any scar removal repairs, let alone plastic surgery.

However, Don Albertt didn't know that he came here today not to make a point, but to make a stand.

From entering the door to now, Marcus has been counting the number of security guards silently.

After entering the box, I took a closer look at the people in the box. Seeing that the box was full of old men, he was relieved.

Even if this old man is a friend of Don Albertt, he might not have any practical combat effectiveness. With a machete, he can knock them down.

At this time, Don Albertt said to Marcus: "Marcus, these are the leaders of our Aurouss Hilll Calligraphy and Painting Association. Since it is the Calligraphy and Painting Association, it is natural to have a lot of research and attainments in calligraphy. Lift up, let Mr. Wilson and the others look at the human calligraphy on your forehead, and let everyone comment on it!"

Hearing this, Marcus's heart was instantly humiliated!

He wanted to turn around and leave, but he knew very well in his heart that his father was still waiting for him to go back and report the situation before bringing someone in.

Therefore, I must hold back now, and do a full set of acting!

Thinking of this, he could only grit his teeth, slowly raised his head, and showed his forehead to everyone present.

Although these old men are not young anymore, they are more or less presbyopic, but the words "Pathetic Jerk" on his forehead are really eye-catching! Everyone recognized it at a glance!

Chairman Price said in surprise: "This..what's going on? This little gentleman, why should I engrave the word "Pathetic Jerk" on his forehead?"

Don Albertt sneered and said: "This little brother usually has a bad mouth, and he likes to call others poor. He accidentally offended Master Wade and even called Master Wade a pathetic jerk. Since he likes to say these two words, then I will engrave him on his forehead so that he will accompany these two characters for the rest of his life.

Jacob Wilson asked in surprise, "Is his lettering on his forehead because he offended my son-in-law?"

"Yes!" Don Albertt nodded and said, "Your son-in-law, Master Wade, how can this kind of hanging silk be violated!"

Mr. Price said in surprise: "Oh, Jacob Wilson, why haven't you told us that you have such a powerful son-in-law!"

"Yeah!" Mr. Phillips also sighed: "Jacob Wilson, what you hide is too deep, it's really low-key!"

Jacob Wilson laughed and said, "Oh, my son-in-law is very low-key, so I'm not too high-key!"

Everyone complimented.

Marcus looked at Jacob Wilson with a smug look, and thought viciously, it turns out that you old thing is the bastard father-in-law of Charlie Wade!

Then you really hit the jackpot today!

Today, I must take your life!

Think of it as asking your damn son-in-law for some interest!

Chapter 703

After Marcus was ridiculed by the crowd, he was sent out by Don Albertt. If he always goes out of Heaven Springs, he will definitely go home with his forehead.

But this time, instead of covering his forehead, he walked back to the parking lot with a murderous look and got into the car that Mrr.. Lloyd and Mr. Jones were in.

Mrr.. Lloyd had been waiting here for a long time. When Marcus got in the car, he hurriedly asked: "Son, what's the situation inside?"

Marcus gritted his teeth and said: "There are more than 30 waiters and security guards, but more than half are women. The ones who are really a bit combative are twelve security guards."

Mrr.. Lloyd turned his head to look at the middle-aged man who was next to him, and said worriedly: "Mr. Jones, are you sure with so many people? If you start working in a while, will you not suffer?"

Mr. Jones sneered coldly and said, "Don't say that more than half of the 30-odd people are women. Even if they are all security guards, it is useless to us!"

Mrr.. Lloyd immediately complimented: "Mr. Jones is really extraordinary! I admire it!"

Mr. Jones nodded arrogantly, looked at Marcus again, and asked, "Where is Don Albertt now?"

Marcus blurted out: "Don Albertt is in the Diamond Box on the top floor!" As he said, he said with a look of excitement: "Dad, Mr. Jones, I found a surprise in Heaven Springs!"

"Oh? What is it?" Mrr.. Lloyd asked quickly.

Marcusyin smiled coldly, and said: "I found Charlie Wade's wasteful old man in there, he was also eating here! And he was in the diamond box, Don Albertt was also there to wait on him, and we will go in for a while, do you want him? Kill it together?"

"Charlie Wade's father-in-law?!" Mrr.. Lloyd was overjoyed when he heard this, and said: "It's really easy! At Lord Mooore's birthday banquet today, this Charlie Wade beat me! Let him first today!"

If you can kill Charlie Wade's father-in-law, you will be able to avenge yourself and his son. Secondly, Sean will hate Charlie Wade. If he kills his father-in-law, Sean will definitely treat yourself differently.

Thinking of this, he turned his head to look at Mr. Jones, and said, "Mr. Jones, how Charlie Wade treated Mr. Webb and the young master at the Moore family birthday banquet. You must have heard of it too. Since Charlie Wade's wasteful old man is also there. , Do you think we should get rid of him too?"

Mr. Jones nodded and said: "Charlie Wade insulted my master and young master. I naturally wish to cut him a thousand times. Since I met his old man, I have no reason to spare him!"

Mrr.. Lloyd nodded excitedly, and said, "Then let's go in together, and let them die today!"

...

the other side.

In the diamond box of Heaven Springs, a variety of dishes are served on the table, which can be described as a delicacy.

As the underground emperor of Aurouss Hilll, Don Albertt said with respect to Jacob Wilson at this moment: "Mr. Wilson, I specially asked the back chef to prepare this table of special health-preserving dishes. I hope it will suit your appetite. These ingredients are all Aurouss Hilll can buy the top class, and it is natural and without any additives."

Jacob Wilson's saliva flowed down looking at the various delicacies in front of him.

You know, even before the Wilson family went bankrupt, he had never been to such a top restaurant, let alone eaten such good things.

Sometimes, he dreams of experiencing the extravagant life of such a master. He can order a top-quality shark fin, a top-quality abalone, and steam an Australian lobster or king crab in the restaurant. However, for so many years, he has never had such an opportunity. He has eaten the most expensive meal, and the per capita is only two thousand Dollar. Today, he has already spared it, and he is ready to eat a meal of two or three thousand per person.

Chapter 704

But Don Albertt's preparations today were truly extravagant. One serving of the best double-headed alone cost 8,880 Dollar. Jacob Wilson was dumbfounded.

Let alone black truffles, caviar and other delicacies, it costs thousands of dollars for a casual serving.

This meal, if calculated according to the specifications, is already at least two to three million!

Jacob Wilson had never eaten such an expensive meal in his entire life. He was so excited that he was so busy that he said to Don Albertt: "Don Albertt, thank you so much for your so much hospitality!"

Don Albertt smiled slightly, took out a business card of his own from his pocket, handed it to Jacob Wilson's hand, and said: "Mr. Wilson, this is the next business card, please keep it! Next time you come to Heaven Springs again, Give me a call and I will immediately ask someone to pack out the diamond box and use it as you like."

After Jacob Wilson took the business card, he was filled with joy.

Other people in the Calligraphy and Painting Association were even more enthusiastic when they saw such a scene!

This Jacob Wilson is really amazing! The famous Don Albertt is like a grandson in front of him, and there is no such thing as a big boss.

Don Albertt not only served dishes and poured wine in the box himself, but even took the initiative to pour a glass of white wine. He came to Jacob Wilson's face and said respectfully: "Mr. Wilson, I toast you a glass!"

Jacob Wilson immediately held up the wine glass flattered, touched Don Albertt, and then drank the wine in the glass.

After a glass of wine, he couldn't help sighing: "Oh, this wine is really delicious!"

Don Albertt smiled and said: "This is a 40-year-old Moutai, and you need a six-figure bottle for a catty. Mr. Wilson will drink more if he likes it. I will let someone bring two more bottles later. !"

Jacob Wilson hurriedly thanked: "Oh, Don Albertt, I really don't know how to thank you! You are so kind!"

"It should be!" Don Albertt said piously: "Master Wade treats me as kind as a mountain, and you are Master Wade's father-in-law. I naturally have to treat you wholeheartedly to be worthy of Master Wade's kindness to me!"

Jacob Wilson couldn't help sighing, why did this Charlie Wade fool? He's almost fooling Don Albertt into his dog legs!

Unexpectedly, this guy has no other abilities, and the ability to fool people is really amazing..

Others at the dinner table, seeing Jacob Wilson having such a face in front of Don Albertt, had long been willing to cater to him.

Mr. Price couldn't help holding up the wine glass and said with a smile on his face: "Oh, today I really want to thank Jacob Wilson for arranging such a show! The old man has lived all his life and has never eaten such a luxurious meal. Eye-opened!"

As he said, he said with a serious look: "In addition, today our Calligraphy and Painting Association has ushered in a new executive director. Come, come, let us all respect director Wilson a glass!"

Everyone was also very acquainted, and they picked up their wine glasses and said with a smile: "Director Wilson, we respect you together!"

When Jacob Wilson heard that Chairman Price took the lead in calling himself Director Wilson, he was surprised and said: "Chairman Price, am I elected?!"

"Of course!" Chairman Price said with a smile: "Jacob Wilson, our standing director is none other than you!"

When Jacob Wilson heard this, he was immediately excited and said hurriedly, "Thank you, Mr. Price! Thank you everyone! I will continue to work harder and make more contributions to our Calligraphy and Painting Association!"

Everyone also laughed flatteringly, and then they brought up their glasses together.

When I was about to have a drink, there was a loud bang, and the door of the box was kicked open!

Chapter 705

The people in the box were suddenly startled by the loud noise.

Everyone was too busy to watch, and saw a burly middle-aged man walking into the box with a cold face.

And behind him, four middle-aged men with arrogant faces also stepped in. These five people are Donald's personal bodyguards.

Mrr.. Lloyd and Marcus followed these men's a with arrogant faces, with a grin on their faces, very arrogant.

Don Albertt frowned when he saw Mrr.. Lloyd and Marcus and his son, and said coldly: "You father and son are really courageous, dare you bring someone to kick my Heaven Springs?"

Marcus snorted coldly and said, "Don Albertt, will your death be imminent and will not delay your pretending? Tell you, you humiliated Master Marcus, he dare not forget for a moment, today is here to kill you!"

When these words came out, everyone's jaw dropped!

Did you hear me right?

There are people who are bold enough to want the life of Don Albertt? !

Don Albertt also sneered sarcastically at this time: "You want my life?

Do you really think that Don Albertt is eating dry rice? Do you know how many younger brothers I have in Aurouss Hilll?"

Mrr.. Lloyd said coldly at this moment: "I'm telling you Don Albertt, how many little brothers you have are useless, and all of the more than ten security guards in your Heaven Springs have been abolished, and no one can save you now!"

As he said, he pointed to Mr. Jones beside him, with a vicious expression on his face: "These are all masters of the Webb family. With them, you are hard to fly today, and you are definitely a place to die! Marcus gives you a chance. , You kneel in front of Marcus and lick your shoes clean. Marcus will leave you a whole body. Otherwise, I will smash you into pieces today!"

When Don Albertt heard this, he couldn't help feeling a little nervous.

It seems that I was still negligent!

For so many years, his position in Aurouss Hilll has been so respected that he has long believed that there are still people in Aurouss Hilll who dared to touch himself.

Therefore, he did not always carry dozens of bodyguards with him.

I always feel that a dozen security guards in Heaven Springs are also good at protecting their own safety.

But no one thought that the Webb family would actually do something to themselves!

Moreover, the five bodyguards of the Webb family really looked extraordinary, at first glance they were masters of the masters.

It seems that even if I bring twenty people here today, he may not be able to stop these five people!

At this time, Marcus pointed at Jacob Wilson and asked in a cold voice:

"You are Charlie Wade's old man?!"

Jacob Wilson said in his heart: "You...what do you want to do?!"

"What do I want to do?" Marcus sneered, and said, "Charlie Wade's trash, not only humiliating me, but also humiliating my father, is it true that our father and my father are in the mud? He is lucky if he is not here today, otherwise, I would kill him today!"

After speaking, Marcus looked at Jacob Wilson and said viciously:

"However, since Charlie Wade is not here today, then you, the old man, pay some interest for him!"

When Jacob Wilson heard this, his face paled in fright, and he asked in a panic: "What...what do you mean...what do you want to do?"

"What do I want to do?" Marcus gritted his teeth and said: "Of course I am going to kill you! Let your good son-in-law come to collect the body for you!"

Jacob Wilson was taken aback, and immediately wanted to hide under the table.

At the dinner table, the other members of the Calligraphy and Painting Association also hid in the corner for fear of avoiding it.

Mr. Jones said coldly at this time: "All those who have nothing to do with Don Albertt and Jacob Wilson, get out of here! Otherwise, I will kill them together!"

As soon as the voice fell, Mr. Price and the others ran out in a panic.

Jacob Wilson's friend Mr. Phillips was at a loss. He wanted to escape, but seeing that Jacob Wilson's life was in danger here, he didn't want to abandon him for a while.

Chapter 706

Jacob Wilson was trembling in fright at this time. Seeing that Mr. Phillips was still hesitant, he hurriedly said: "Mr. Phillips, go quickly. If this group of people really do anything to you, I can't explain to your family!"

Mr. Jones shouted coldly: "If you don't want to go, just stay."

Mr. Phillips gritted his teeth and dared not delay any longer, and hurried out of the box.

Jacob Wilson was desperate in his heart, but fortunately Don Albertt was still in the box, so he prayed that Don Albertt could cope with the situation.

However, Don Albertt could do nothing at this time.

This group of people kicked open the door of the diamond box and made such a big movement. If there was no accident, their own people would have appeared long ago.

Up to now, no one has come over, which proves that these people have been ill-adjusted.

Mrr.. Lloyd gritted his teeth and looked at Don Albertt, and said coldly: "Don Albertt, your death date is here!"

After speaking, he turned his head and said respectfully to Mr. Jones: "Mr. Jones, please do it!"

Mr. Jones nodded, took a step forward, and said, "Don Albertt, come forward and die!"

When Don Albertt was young, he was considered a half-practitioner. He did not accept his fate when he was young. Instead, he prepared a posture to deal with it. He said coldly: "If you want my fate, it depends on whether you have this ability. Now!"

Mr. Jones sneered and said, "You are just an ant in my eyes!"

After all, he walked directly towards Don Albertt.

Don Albertt looked solemn, but knew that he couldn't give in at this time, so he immediately punched Mr. Jones.

Mr. Jones sneered, only to punch lightly.

But when the two fists collided, Don Albertt only felt that his body was hit by a huge boulder, and with a puff, he felt a strong attack. He couldn't stand it, he immediately flew out and fell to the ground. .

Don Albertt, who fell to the ground, suddenly changed his complexion. He couldn't believe that the strength of this man was so abnormal! It's crushing yourself!

Marcus saw this scene, his eyes lit up, and his heart was ecstatic!

And his father Mrr.. Lloyd is even more excited!

The one who fell to the ground was the underground emperor of Aurouss Hill!

However, after tonight, his position will be replaced by himself!

And he will become a dead body!

Thinking of this, Mrr.. Lloyd immediately sneered: "Don Albertt, aren't you very arrogant and awesome? Now you know what there are outsiders and there are heaven outside, right?"

After all, Mrr.. Lloyd walked up to Don Albertt and gritted his teeth and said: "Before killing you, I also want you to taste it. What is humiliation!"

Immediately, he hurriedly said to Mr. Jones: "Mr. Jones, please help me to control him. I want to engrave the word "Pathetic Jerk" on his forehead to avenge my son!"

Mr. Jones said coldly: "I came to kill him today, not to ask you to engrave him. If you want to engrave, you can wait until I kill him!"

Mrr.. Lloyd hurriedly said: "Mr. Jones, in that case, he won't be able to feel the pain of humiliation and death!"

Mr. Jones glanced at him and said, "The surname over there is Wilson, you can engrave it whatever you want, Don Albertt, I will kill him first!"

After all, Mr. Jones grabbed Don Albertt's neck with one hand, and lifted him up with his feet hanging in the air!

Mr. Jones only used a little force on his hand, and Don Albertt suddenly felt a sharp pain in his neck, completely out of breath, and it felt more painful than hanging himself. It seemed that his Adam's apple would be crushed vigorously!

At this moment, Don Albertt's face was full of black and purple, his heart had already realized that he would die today!

Chapter 707

As early as when Mrr.. Lloyd rushed into the Diamond Box, Charlie Wade left home and drove the old man's BMW car to Heaven Springs.

Originally, he was not prepared to go out so early.

But his mother-in-law Elaine Ma kept talking to him at home.

For a while, I disliked Jacob Wilson and went to a restaurant to be extravagant. I felt that 20,000 Dollar would be better for her to buy cosmetics, and by the way, I could go to the mahjong hall to rub a few circles with friends;

After a while, I disliked Charlie Wade for not going out to work and eat plain rice when he was idle at home;

Later, she said more and more vigorously. She insisted on introducing Charlie Wade a job as a security guard in the parking lot. She also said that the salary of 3,000 Dollar a month would be paid to her.

Charlie Wade knew that Elaine Ma had run out of money recently, and her pocket was cleaner than her face, and she couldn't play outside, so she could only stay at home most of the time.

And as long as she is at home, she will be sulking and complaining constantly.

She was in a bad mood, and Charlie Wade was even more unpleasant.

It just so happened that tonight the old wife Jacob Wilson and his wife Claire Wilson Wilson hadn't come home yet, so Elaine Ma kept chirping at him, really annoying Charlie Wade, so he went out early, even in the car. Sitting is much better than listening to her complaining at home.

Charlie Wade drove to Heaven Springs and stopped at the door of Heaven Springs. He didn't get up in a hurry.

He checked that the time was still early, and it was estimated that the old man would have to sit on it for a while, so he turned off the fire and sat in the car to listen to songs and pass the time.

According to the original plan, the plan was to wait for the old man to call himself after he had finished drinking and had enough food and drink, and then went up to pick him up.

However, after waiting at the gate of Heaven Springs for a while, Charlie Wade realized that something was wrong.

At the gate of Heaven Springs, there have always been two security guards and two waitresses. The security guards are responsible for guarding and the waiter is responsible for welcoming guests.

But today, there is no one at the gate of Heaven Springs.

Moreover, there was a sign at the door stating that business was closed. "what's the situation?"

Charlie Wade thought to himself, did Don Albertt know that the old man is coming today, so he directly booked the venue for him?

Don Albertt is very insightful in handling things, and maybe he might be a charter.

Thinking like this, he saw a lot of panicked old men at the gate of Heaven Springs.

Charlie Wade was even more puzzled.

These old men all looked the same age as Jacob Wilson, and each of them looked scared, as if something had happened inside.

So Charlie Wade hurriedly got out of the car and stopped an old man to ask: "Uncle, what happened upstairs?"

It was Chairman Price who was stopped.

He was still in shock, and he kept shaking and said, "Someone is being killed upstairs!"

When Charlie Wade heard this, he snorted in his heart!

Murdered? !

what's the situation? !

Could it be that something happened to Heaven Springs? !

Thinking of this, he immediately rushed into Heaven Springs.

Chapter 708

When I entered Heaven Springs, I discovered that the waiter and security had fallen to the ground.

Charlie Wade stepped forward to investigate, and found that all the waiters and security guards had passed out, and everyone had bruises on their necks, and it seemed that they had passed out with their hands.

"This is a master!" Charlie Wade couldn't help but pay attention, and immediately stepped upstairs!

At this time, Don Albertt was dying, his eyes turned white.

On the other side, Mrr.. Lloyd and Marcus winked at each other seeing this.

Marcus took a dagger from his waist and looked at Jacob Wilson who was trembling in the corner, and said coldly: "Since Don Albertt dealt with it, then I will let this Jacob Wilson suffer double crime!"

After that, he said to his father Mrr.. Lloyd: "Dad, you grab this old thing, and I will engrave the four characters "Pathetic Jerk father-in-law" on his forehead!"

Mrr.. Lloyd nodded, and said coldly: "Engrave! Must engrave! Be harder and engrave me on his skull!"

Jacob Wilson's scared soul was not possessed, and he blurted out: "I have no grievances with you, why do you treat me like this?!"

"No grievances and no enmity?!" Marcus rushed to Jacob Wilson with a vigorous step, slapped him directly, and slapped Jacob Wilson's face severely.

"I'm not dead! Your son-in-law has humiliated me, dare you say that you have no grievances with me? I tell you, today I will not only engrave the four characters of hanging father-in-law on your forehead, I f*cking want it Kill you! Let your damn poor son-in-law come and collect your body!"

Marcus's blade was extremely sharp, and Jacob Wilson cried in fright as he watched the cold light refracted by the blade.

However, he had no other way. He could only blurt out to shout to Don Albertt: "Don Albertt help!"

Don Albertt was on the verge of death at this time. His brain was about to lose consciousness due to lack of oxygen. Suddenly he heard Jacob Wilson's call for help. With the last bit of effort, he said: "Mr.

Wilson, I'm sorry, it was Don Albertt who failed you."

Mr. Jones said with a gloomy expression: "Don Albertt, you haven't died for so long, you old guy is a bit capable, but I advise you not to insist anymore. If you continue to persist, you will only suffer more pain!"

Don Albertt's face was completely black and purple, but he still roared hoarsely: "I will never let you off if I am a ghost!"

"Oh?" Mr. Jones sneered: "Then I will wait for you to turn into a ghost to find me tonight. Then, I will let you die again!"

Don Albertt smiled hard and said, "Don't worry, Master Wade will avenge me today! I will walk a little slower on Afterlife Road and wait for you to come over!"

"Noisy!"

Mr. Jones snorted coldly and said, "Master Wade is nothing but rubbish in my eyes!"

After that, Mr. Jones said again: "But you really have to go slower on Afterlife Road, because soon I will send Master Wade on the road. Then, on Afterlife Road, you two can go together!"

"Just rely on you?" Don Albertt sneered incomparably, "You don't know Master Wade's strength at all. In front of Master Wade, you are not even worthy of rubbish!"

"Looking for death!" Mr. Jones looked cold, and said coldly: "Come on, if you have anything, go and talk to Lord Yan!"

Immediately, he increased a bit of strength in his hand, and the breath of Don Albertt was immediately pinched. The last bit of back light has been exhausted, and the lamp is about to run out.

Marcus laughed loudly at this moment: "Cool! Kill Don Albertt and Charlie Wade's father-in-law tonight, if you kill Charlie Wade tomorrow, I will get revenge!"

At this time, Mrr.. Lloyd had already held down Jacob Wilson's head and said to Marcus: "Son, hurry up and engrave! After the engraving, I will take a photo as a souvenir!"

"Good!" Marcus grinned, the tip of the knife already touching Jacob Wilson's forehead.

At this time, Don Albertt's eyes were completely rolled up, and he almost died of asphyxiation.

At this moment, the door of the box was suddenly kicked directly by someone!

When Jacob Wilson saw someone coming, he broke down and cried, and shouted loudly, "Charlie Wade, my good son-in-law, if you come one step later, you can only collect the body!"

Chapter 709

Charlie Wade's face was as cold as frost at this time!

He really didn't expect that Mrr.. Lloyd and Marcus would dare to bring someone to kill Don Albertt and his father-in-law!

At this moment, he was so angry that he had already moved to kill!

And Mrr.. Lloyd and Marcus were too excited when they saw him coming!

After such a long time, how much ridicule and humiliation Marcus has been living a life worse than death?

And all this is thanks to Charlie Wade!

Right now, I finally got revenge!

And Mrr.. Lloyd was slapped by Charlie Wade today, and he naturally hated him to the bone. Originally regretted that he could not take his life today, he did not expect that he would come to the door himself!

Immediately, Mrr.. Lloyd said to Mr. Jones: "Mr. Jones! This bastard is Charlie Wade! Kill him!"

Marcus shouted from the side: "Mr. Jones, quickly kill this poor man!"

Charlie Wade frowned and said, "You let Don Albertt and my old man, I might consider spare you a dog."

Mrr.. Lloyd was furious, and blurted out, "Charlie Wade, what are you talking about rubbish? He wants to pretend to be forceful, so he really takes himself seriously? Do you know if Mr. Jones can take you every minute? Life!"

After speaking, he said coldly again: "I tell you, since you dare to appear here today, then don't think about being able to go out alive!"

Charlie Wade said disdainfully: "Do you think it's just a few rubbish? Can you kill me?"

Mrr.. Lloyd looked at Charlie Wade coldly, and the villain said with great ambition: "Charlie Wade, I know you are skilled, but the few behind me, but the great masters carefully cultivated by the Webb family, are all powerful, how can you? If you can fight, you can't be their opponent! Believe it or not, Mr. Jones will hit you all over the floor with a single move. Can't you survive or die?!"

Marcus hurriedly said: "Dad, what can I say to Charlie Wade this trash, want me to say, just beat him into a trash! I want him to kneel in front of me, kowtow to admit his mistake, and before Charlie Wade's death, I also have to engrave the word waste on his forehead, take it with my mobile phone, and post the video to the Internet so that the whole Aurouss Hillll will know that Charlie Wade is a useless waste!"

Mrr.. Lloyd laughed and said, "Okay! Just do what you said!"

Seeing Mr. Jones pinching Don Albertt hard, Charlie Wade said coldly: "Let him go."

Mr. Jones said with a look of contempt: "Let go of him? Boy, believe it or not, I can kill you with one hand! I will send you on the road with Don Albertt!"

Seeing his face full of confidence, Charlie Wade sneered: "This hand of yours doesn't belong to you anymore!"

After that, he rushed up immediately!

Mr. Jones didn't expect Charlie Wade to rush towards him, and before letting go of Don Albertt with his right hand, he attacked Charlie Wade fiercely with his left hand!

Mr. Jones was full of confidence at this time.

He felt that he was already strong and out of place. How could an ordinary person be his opponent?

Even if it is Don Albertt who has been fighting for half a lifetime, isn't it still done by one hand?

However, what he did not expect was that Charlie Wade flashed his attack in an instant, and then suddenly grabbed his arm and punched his shoulder!

This punch is beyond imagination!

Mr. Jones's left shoulder has all been shattered into dust!

The bones turned into powder in the flesh, this kind of pain is like thousands of bone spurs, constantly piercing the nerves and flesh, causing Mr. Jones to grin in pain, as if all his strength was emptied in an instant!

Immediately afterwards, as soon as he loosened his right hand, Don Albertt slumped to the ground, and his whole body had no reaction.

Charlie Wade looked at him, and could sense that he still had an extremely weak breath, and he was not dead, and he was relieved.

Since Don Albertt only had a trace of life left, Charlie Wade didn't worry about saving him immediately. Instead, he looked at the group of people in front of him and said coldly, "None of you want to leave today!"

Chapter 710

Mr. Jones's left shoulder was shattered, and there was only a layer of skin and flesh on his left arm, completely out of control, he could only hang on one side, and his expression at this time was even more horrified!

He is the king of special forces! Very strong! Never encountered an opponent in the military!

If it weren't for the price offered by the Webb family, how could he be willing to be someone else's bodyguard and thug with his strength and arrogance.

Mr. Jones has never tasted defeat for so many years, but he did not expect that he was just a face-to-face with Charlie Wade, and his left arm was abolished. This Charlie Wade's strength is too strong, right? ! Charlie Wade looked at Mr. Jones with a look of horror, and sneered, "What? Afraid?"

Mr. Jones looked terrified, took a step back subconsciously, and questioned: "Who are you? Why do you have such strength?"

Charlie Wade said lightly: "Who am I? I am the person you shouldn't mess with in your life!"

Mr. Jones gritted his teeth and said to the four brothers around him: "Go together and kill him!"

The other four immediately rushed forward, and Mr. Jones joined them with a stubborn arm!

The five immediately surrounded Charlie Wade with a murderous look! However, their faces are extremely solemn!

Just now Charlie Wade did it, and even Mr. Jones couldn't make an effective defense. It can be seen that the opponent's skill is much better than them!

Therefore, they can only hope that the five people can work together to beat Charlie Wade!

Charlie Wade smiled coldly at this time, and said indifferently: "The chicken and dog."

In the next moment, Charlie Wade was like lightning, and he fought fiercely with the five people in an instant!

However, Charlie Wade's speed, strength, and explosive power are much stronger than them!

Therefore, in front of Charlie Wade, these people have no power to parry! There was only a crackling sound, mixed with the screams of a few people, constantly resounding through the box.

And these five people constantly feel that they are being hit hard!

Some suddenly got a punch in the chest, and several ribs broke!

Others, like Mr. Jones, accidentally broke their arms and became one-armed heroes!

There was even worse. Charlie Wade smashed his chin with a punch, and there was a pile of bones and rotten flesh attached to his lower lip. It looked so miserable!

Mr. Jones didn't find any good end either. He suffered heavy blows in the abdomen, and his whole person was like a dead dog, sitting on the ground unable to move!

At this time, he was completely frightened!

Before today, he had never thought that someone would be so strong that he could crush himself with a single hand!

And now, after years of encountering a rival, he finally understands the truth that there are mountains beyond the mountains, and the heavens beyond the sky!

Charlie Wade's strength, for him, was already terrifying to the degree of abnormality! In front of him, he is the real ant!

And Mr. Lloyd and his son, who were still arrogant, looked shocked when they saw such a scene!

Didn't you even dream that Mr. Jones was beaten into a dead dog in front of Charlie Wade after a few hits!

Not only him, but also his four subordinates have become four dead dogs who can only panic and pant!

Charlie Wade stepped heavily on Mr. Jones's chest and broke many of his ribs.

He looked down at the terrified Mr. Jones, watching the painful vomiting blood, coldly asked: "Come on, tell me, who is the real ant?!"

Chapter 711

Mr. Jones was almost disabled at this time, and his whole body was in terrible pain, all courage and strength had been completely dissipated! He looked at Charlie Wade desperately, thinking of those weak who had been killed by himself.

Today, will he also follow the footsteps of those weak? Was crushed and killed by a master that he could not contend with? !

Thinking of this, Mr. Jones was terrified!

His strength is indeed very strong, but it does not mean that he is not afraid of death.

in contrast. The more he kills, the more he cherishes life.

He wants to live, he wants to live comfortably, live comfortably, and lively.

That's why he followed the Webb family and helped him to abuse him.

The enemy of the Webb family, he came to kill, and after the killing, he could exchange huge wealth from the Webb family.

After the good days of the past few years, he feels that life is too good.

So, let him die now, he can't accept it anyway.

So, he cried and said to Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, I do not know Taishan. I don't know you have such a powerful strength. I only ask you to think that I am only doing things for the Webb family and obeying the orders of the Webb family. On the basis of this, spare my life!"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "Just because you are working for the Webb family, I think you are even more hateful!"

With that, Charlie Wade stepped on his right shoulder and completely abolished his entire right arm!

Mr. Jones wailed and cried, but Charlie Wade said in disgust: "Others have real grudges against me. They come to kill me. I understand, but I have no grudges against you. You came to kill me for money, you said, Are you more hateful than my enemy?"

"Master Wade, sorry..."

Mr. Jones didn't expect that he wanted to defend himself with a few words, but he didn't intend to make Charlie Wade even more upset. Now his shoulders have been shattered. From now on, these two arms are just like the two sleeves. They can only be slumped and moved back and forth with the body. He is no different from the waste!

Charlie Wade turned his face at this moment, looked at Mrr.. Lloyd and his son who were frightened, and said coldly: "You two are very arrogant, do you even dare to fight my father-in-law?"

The two arrogant Mrr.. Lloyd and his son were already scared and stupid! You know, the five people who were abandoned by Charlie Wade, although young, are also the bodyguards of the young master Sean, and they are very powerful.

But they never dreamed that this group of people would be so vulnerable, and they weren't even Charlie Wade's enemy of one move? !

The thought of this made Marcus panicked.

He pressed the dagger tightly to Jacob Wilson's neck, and shouted in a trembling voice: "Charlie Wade, you stop Master! Otherwise, Master will kill your old man!"

Jacob Wilson was so frightened that he hurriedly shouted to Charlie Wade: "Charlie Wade, save me Charlie Wade!"

At this moment, Mrr.. Lloyd suddenly raised his arm and slapped Marcus severely. Marcus slapped Marcus with gold stars.

Before Marcus came back to his senses, he stunned his face and asked, "Dad, why are you hitting me?!"

Mrr.. Lloyd blurted out angrily: "You bastard, dare to take a knife against Master Wade's old man's neck, are you looking for death?! Don't you hurry to kneel down for Master Wade!"

After scolding his son, Mrr.. Lloyd turned around, knelt on the ground with a puff, and immediately cried with tears: "Master Wade, I was bewitched by the Webb family and his son. They let me kill Don Albertt and then held me to sit Don Albertt. He also said that he would kill you and speak out for his son. Please read it for the sake of my temporary confusion, forgive me!"

Marcus is a stunned young man, but Mrr.. Lloyd is not.

He knew very well that the current situation had been completely pulled back by Charlie Wade alone. If he was still fighting against Charlie Wade at this time, it would really be a lantern in the toilet and death!

Of course he really wants to sit in the position of Don Albertt, but he also needs his life to sit! Therefore, at this time, the Webb family, the southern region's first family, and the Aurouss Hillll underground emperor are nothing to him. He just wants to survive and survive well.

Otherwise, even if Charlie Wade relented and allowed himself to survive, he would probably end up like Mr. Jones.

Chapter 712

This Mr. Jones is already a useless person. He will not even have the ability to wipe his butt. Both shoulders have been completely shattered, and the flesh and tissues are also broken into mud. The first thing to do when it is brought to the hospital must be amputation of both arms.

He doesn't want to live a life that is worse than death!

At this time, Marcus wanted to understand that it's useless for him to pretend to be ruthless with Charlie Wade. A man like Mr. Jones beats Don Albertt's subordinates and cuts melons and vegetables. Under Charlie Wade's hands, no What's the trick?

Even if he really used a knife against Jacob Wilson's throat, I was afraid that Charlie Wade would be able to kill himself on the premise of saving Jacob Wilson's life.

So, dad knows the current affairs!

Thinking of this, he also knelt down with a puff, crying and said, "Master Wade, I was wrong, please forgive me... My dad and I came over today because of the persecution by Young Master Webb, otherwise You give me ten courage, and I dare not move your people..."

After speaking, he knelt on the ground, kowtowed his head again to apologize, cried bitterly, and broke down.

Charlie Wade sneered and said: "It seems that your father and son have a strong desire to survive!"

Mrr.. Lloyd hurriedly said: "Master Wade, we are also astray and know how to return..."

Charlie Wade snorted coldly: "You two kneel down for me! If you dare to move, I will screw off your dog heads!"

The father and son trembled all over, and both knelt on the ground not daring to move.

Charlie Wade stepped to Don Albertt's side at this time and felt his pulse.

Although it was discovered just now that he still had a breath, he was indeed deprived of oxygen for too long, and his body had been seriously damaged and extremely weak.

Such a person seems to have suffered a severe brain injury. Although he has not died, he may not be able to wake up in three to five years, and it is even difficult to wake up for a lifetime.

Charlie Wade couldn't bear to watch him become a living dead.

After all, in the eyes of Charlie Wade, Don Albertt is a tough guy and loyal. Such a person is rare, and he can't just watch him become a useless person.

So Charlie Wade blocked his vision with his body, and from an angle that no one could see, he took out a rejuvenating pill from his pocket and put it directly into Don Albertt's mouth.

Because it is a secret medicine refined by a lost ancient prescription, this medicine melts in the mouth and has great efficacy!

Therefore, the medicine quickly turned into a warm current and entered Don Albertt's internal organs.

Soon, Don Albertt woke up quietly from the state of dying.

Don Albertt was already in a deep coma, but suddenly he woke up, opened his eyes, saw Charlie Wade right in front of him, and was speechless in surprise.

He knew that he was dying just now, but he didn't know why he was waking up suddenly now.

He couldn't help exclaiming: "Master Wade...what...what's going on? I...I'm not dead?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said lightly: "You can't die with me."

Don Albertt was very grateful and blurted out: "Thank you Master Wade for your life-saving grace!"

After finishing speaking, he said guiltily: "I'm sorry Master Wade, because I hurt your father-in-law..."

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "It's not your fault, besides, my father-in-law was not hurt."

Don Albertt breathed a sigh of relief at once, and the next moment, he felt a strong flow of heat in his body, which was swimming around his body.

This flow of heat not only healed his injury, but also made his body greatly improved and improved.

He feels that his body has become more vigorous and younger than before! Originally he had some presbyopia, but looking at Charlie Wade at this moment, it became clearer and clearer!

He stared at Charlie Wade dumbfounded, trembling with excitement, and asked in a trembling voice: "Master Wade, how come in my body...Could it be...rejuvenation..."

Chapter 713

Today at Lord Moore's birthday banquet, Don Albertt had seen the Rejuvenation Pill, and he also saw how magical it is.

However, he did not dare to hope that he could have such a chance.

Therefore, although he felt as if he had taken Rejuvenation Pill, this incident shocked him too much. Therefore, deep down in his heart, he was not sure whether he really took the Rejuvenation Pill.

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and hurriedly gave him a silent look, and said lightly: "This is your chance, feel it well."

Don Albertt burst into tears at this moment!

He knew that what Master Wade meant was to give himself a chance! He couldn't imagine that in the last second, he would almost die! And in the next second, not only did he not die, but he also got the great opportunity that Master Wade bestowed on him!

Rejuvenation pill!

The great opportunity that I didn't even dare to dream of, unexpectedly came so uninvited!

At this moment, Don Albertt's loyalty to Charlie Wade was almost bursting!

He even felt that his life was given by Charlie Wade. From now on, every second of his life would be for Master Wade.

Therefore, in the future, I will definitely devote myself to the saddle for Master Wade, because without Master Wade, I would already be a dead person!

Immediately afterwards, Don Albertt's body quickly recovered. He even stood up with a rush of ground, then knelt in front of Charlie Wade, and said, "Don Albertt, Master Wade's life-saving grace! From today, Don Albertt's life, it belongs to Master Wade!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "Get up!"

When Don Albertt heard the sound, he stood up.

Afterwards, he looked around and saw that the Lloyd family and his son were kneeling on the ground, not daring to move. Mr. Jones and the five Webb family bodyguards had all become useless. He couldn't help but sigh that Master Wade's strength is truly unfathomable!

With so many people, they didn't even hurt Master Wade!

Immediately, he couldn't help asking, "Master Wade, what do you plan to do with these people? Do you kill them directly? Or..."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "Come on, let's go to the first trial and convict them!"

"Trial?" Don Albertt asked in surprise, "Master Wade, what do you mean?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "It's the ancient prefect master who was promoted to trial."

Don Albertt nodded hurriedly, moved a chair over, and said with a smile: "Master Wade, please sit down, let's be promoted!"

Charlie Wade laughed, sat down on the chair, pointed at Mrr.. Lloyd, Marcus and his son, and said coldly: "The criminals Mrr.. Lloyd and Marcus, you two are dogs for the Webb family and you intend to kill me. " Mrr.. Lloyd and Marcus were scared and bowed, crying, "Master Wade, be forgiving, Master Wade...We are also forced to be helpless..."

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently, and said generously: "Since you are also bewitched by others, then this official will save you from the death penalty!"

When the two heard this, they were so excited that they were about to cry.

But Charlie Wade went on to say: "Capital sins can be avoided, and living sins are hard to forgive! If you two want to survive, it depends on your performance!"

Mrr.. Lloyd and Marcus expressed their opinions one after another:

"Master Wade, from now on, our father and son will serve you as cows and horses! Forever!"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "I don't want you two to saddle me up."

Chapter 714

After all, he said to Don Albertt, "Don Albertt, since this Mrr.. Lloyd is already poor, what should his father be?"

Don Albertt thought for a while, and said, "If you want to hang on his dad...should he be called the father of the poor to him?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "Yes! You are right, you are the father of the poor."

After speaking, Charlie Wade looked at Mrr.. Lloyd and asked with a smile, "Mrr.. Lloyd, what do you think?"

Mrr.. Lloyd hurriedly nodded his head like pounding garlic, and said flatly: "Don Albertt is right, I am the father of the poor!"

"Yeah." Charlie Wade nodded in satisfaction, and said to Don Albertt:

"Look, since he said so by himself, then quickly prepare your calligraphy and give him a pair."

"Calligraphy?" Don Albertt was stunned, and blurted out: "Master Wade, what calligraphy? I'm not good at writing calligraphy..."

Charlie Wade pointed to the word "Pathetic Jerk" on Marcus's head and asked Don Albertt: "Human calligraphy, have you forgotten?"

Don Albertt slapped his forehead suddenly, and said guiltily: "Oh, I'm sorry Master Wade, I am dumb, I didn't expect you to mean this!"

Mrr.. Lloyd was frightened when he heard this!

The word "Pathetic Jerk" on my son's forehead has already made myself very painful. If he had the word "father of Pathetic Jerk" on his forehead, then he might as well die!

So he cried and said, "Master Wade, you see that I am too old, so please give me some face..."

Charlie Wade nodded and said seriously: "I gave you a face, so I asked Don Albertt to carve your forehead. Otherwise, I would also engrave the words "Pathetic Jerk" on both sides of your face. Your son will give you a pair, and you can make a money for your father and son!"

Mrr.. Lloyd collapsed and cried, and yelled: "Master Wade, please forgive me. I am old and my skin is wrinkled. Master Webb is not easy to get a knife!"

Don Albertt sneered: "Mrr.. Lloyd, don't bother you, my hand is very stable, even if your forehead is full of large folds, I can engrave the words for you!"

Jacob Wilson hurriedly blurted out and complained at this time: "Good son-in-law, this Mrr.. Lloyd is not a damn thing. He was going to engrave the words "poor father-in-law" on my forehead, and he said that he should work harder to engrave it on my skull!"

Mrr.. Lloyd shuddered, crying and said, "Mr. Wilson, I was joking..."

"You let your mother's old mule fart!" Jacob Wilson shouted angrily:

"Your son's knife hit my forehead just now. If it weren't for my son-in-law's arrival in time, he would have asked you to engrave it! "

Mrr.. Lloyd hurriedly cried to Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, I really made a little joke with your father-in-law, not sincere..."

Charlie Wade said coldly: "I don't care if you are sincere or not, I will give you the choice now, either, you can let Don Albertt finish carving the characters without moving; or I will let Don Albertt take a knife and castrate your son, and yes Castrate in front of you! Choose your own choice!"

When Marcus heard this, he burst into tears and knelt in front of Mrr.. Lloyd. He kept kowtow and cried: "Dad, dad...you can't let him castrate me, I will pay There is no child... Our old Lloyd family can't endure..."

Mrr.. Lloyd also passed out in pain.

What should I do? If I knew it was today, I would kill myself, and I would not dare to provoke Don Albertt or Charlie Wade to his father-in-law!

Now, Charlie Wade put such a multiple-choice question in front of him, how should he choose?

Choose lettering? The wiseness of my life is considered to be thrown into the pit.

However, if you don't choose engraving, your son's roots may be severed by Don Albertt. This is not just the root of the son alone, this is the root of the entire Lloyd family..

Thinking of this, he shook his whole body, looked at Don Albertt, and choked in despair and pain: "Don Albertt, please show me some mercy when you engrave..."

Don Albertt sneered and said, "Don't worry, I will definitely engrave it on your skull!"

Chapter 715

Mrr.. Lloyd frightened and cried out in despair. The moment Don Albertt's knife touched his forehead, he yelled in pain, and even struggled to hide.

Don Albertt slapped him directly, and said coldly, "Scream again, and I will cut your son's roots!"

Upon hearing this, Mrr.. Lloyd didn't dare to move any more, he could only cry, gritted his teeth, and accepted Don Albertt's human flesh calligraphy.

Don Albertt hit the knife very hard, and soon carved four large characters on Mrr.. Lloyd's forehead, the father of the Pathetic Jerk! Mrr.. Lloyd's entire forehead was already bloody, looking very miserable. Marcus was also scared to death by the side, watching his father also get engraved and engraved four at a time. This feeling, this taste, is really uncomfortable.

After the words were carved, Mrr.. Lloyd tremblingly cried and asked Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, can you let us go?"

Charlie Wade shook his head and said, "Do you think that living sin is just a little bit?"

After finishing talking, he said to Marcus: "Come on, hang on, give me your phone."

Marcus hurriedly took out his latest Apple phone and handed it to Charlie Wade after unlocking it.

Charlie Wade asked him: "Is there a camera?"

"Yes..." Marcus nodded quickly.

Charlie Wade found Facebook, opened it, and said to him: "Come on, today your father and son record a video on Facebook. If the recording is good, I will let you go. If the recording is not good, all legs and feet will be interrupted. ."

The father and son hurriedly said, "Master Wade, we can do what you say. As long as you don't kill us, anything is fine..."

"Yeah." Charlie Wade nodded slightly and said, "Come on, I will tell you both of your lines. You two have memorized them. You made a mistake. Do you understand?"

The two of them nodded: "I understand, I understand!"

"Okay." Charlie Wade sneered, greeted the two of them to come to the front, and said the lines he designed for them.

When the words were finished, both father and son were shocked.

Mrr.. Lloyd cried and said, "Master Wade, if we really want to say this, make a video and send it out, the Webb family will definitely kill us." Marcus also said to the side: "Master Wade, you are killing our grandpa..." Charlie Wade said coldly: "What? The Webb family will kill you, but I won't?"

The two of them paled in shock.

Charlie Wade said again: "Tell you, if you record this video honestly, you two will have at least one night to escape. As long as you escape from Eastcliff, the Webb family may not be able to do anything to you. If you escape the country, You two can live a life in peace, but if you don't follow my instructions, then you will stay here tonight!"

Hearing this, Mr. Lloyd hurriedly said: "Master Wade, we have spent so many years in Aurouss Hill. If we leave tonight, many assets will not be taken away!"

Charlie Wade frowned: "What? Want to bargain? Forget it, don't record it, just hand it over!"

Marcus hurriedly persuaded his father, saying: "Dad! What life is more important! Let's go to Eastcliff first tonight, and then fly from Eastcliff to Malaysia tomorrow morning to find my uncle! We will also buy in Malaysia in the future. A small manor, I won't come back in this life!"

Thinking of this, Mrr.. Lloyd gritted his teeth and said, "Master Wade, let's shoot!"

Chapter 716

Charlie Wade nodded in satisfaction and said: "Come on, start quickly." After speaking, he picked up the phone and pointed it at the Lloyd family and his son.

The two men stood side by side, Marcus wiped away his tears, and said with a strong smile: "Hello everyone, I am a Pathetic Jerk named Marcus." Mrr.. Lloyd also hurriedly said: "I am Mrr.. Lloyd, the father of the Pathetic Jerk."

The two men said at the same time: "Our father and son will tell you a story today!"

Marcus continued: "Everyone must have seen these two characters on my forehead. The reason why I engraved the two characters on my forehead is mainly because I have always been arrogant and engraved these two characters on my forehead. It's just to remind everyone that they are pathetic jerks."

Mrr.. Lloyd also said: "I say that I am a hero, a hero, and I am a hero of my son. Since my son has carved the word "Pathetic Jerk" on his forehead, then I definitely can't hold back my son, so I am on the forehead. Engrave the words "Father of Pathetic Jerk"."

Marcus said at this time: "When you see this, you will definitely ask, why are my dad and I so arrogant? This is mainly because we have a very good relationship with the southern region Webb family!"

"Yes!" Mrr.. Lloyd said next to him: "Everyone knows that the Webb family is rich, but the most powerful thing in the Webb family is not riches, but a son who likes to eat shit!"

Marcus answered, "Yes. Speaking of the son of the Webb family who eats shit, everyone must have watched the video on Facebook. This guy has to eat one meal an hour, and one bite will not work. He is in the hospital toilet. In order to eat something hot, he pulled the old man who was being relieved from the squat pit and grabbed the shit from the crowd. Do you think this is an ordinary person?"

Mrr.. Lloyd echoed from the side: "According to you, this Webb family is really extraordinary!"

"Of course." Marcus nodded repeatedly and praised with a thumbs up: "So I still have to say that the Webb family is amazing, or else, the second young master of the Webb family, can you be so arrogant?"

Mrr.. Lloyd asked curiously: "Hey, right, why haven't you heard the second young master of the Webb family recently?"

Marcus said: "I heard, people are living comfortably now! It's a royal treatment!"

"How do you say?" Mrr.. Lloyd looked gossip.

Marcus said: "People are doing great now. They live in the Webb family's mansion. It is said that there is a special person to pull the shit at 20 a day, and they all eat fresh."

Mrr.. Lloyd asked in surprise: "So exciting? With more than 20 meals a day, can the Webb family's output be sufficient?"

Marcus said earnestly: "That's definitely not enough. Think about it, no matter how the Webb family can pull it, they can't stand up to occasional constipation or something."

"Ouch!" Mrr.. Lloyd blurted out: "Then the second young master of the Webb family might be interrupted!"

After that, Mrr.. Lloyd asked Marcus: "Dad, do you want to sign up for my father, and go to the Webb's house in Eastcliff for a few days, and how many warm meals for Master Webb?"

Marcus nodded repeatedly and smiled and said, "This is a good idea! If we go, the old man from the Webb family, that bastard, and the b*tch of Donald, don't you be grateful to kowtow to us?"

When he said this, Marcus's heart trembled.

This is really going to offend the Webb family to death!

Mrr.. Lloyd felt like jumping wildly in his heart, but he glanced at Charlie Wade and could only bite the bullet and continued: "It's more than a kowtow! I'm probably grateful to kneel and lick with both of us. I heard that the Webb family likes it. Recognize your godfather everywhere, maybe when you get excited, you have to recognize me as a godfather or something."

"Old man Webb likes to recognize his godfather?" Marcus asked in surprise: "Why do you have this habit?"

"Then who knows to go." Mrr.. Lloyd shrugged and said, "I heard that the old immortal has already recognized more than 300 godfathers. It may be that the old immortal likes to be a son!"

Chapter 717

Marcus quickly took over Mrr.. Lloyd's words and said: "Then if I go to the Webb family, will the old man from the Webb family also recognize me as a father?"

Mrr.. Lloyd snapped his fingers: "Hey, don't tell me, I think it's very likely!"

Marcus hurriedly said, "Oh, dad, this is not okay! The old man calls us both fathers, so don't we two have a difference?"

Mrr.. Lloyd thought for a moment, then nodded and said, "It makes sense, then I will let him recognize me as a godfather. Isn't it all right?"

Marcus hehe: "I think it works!"

Mrr.. Lloyd said at this time: "In fact, this Webb family has a little special hobby. Not only Kian likes to eat shit and Old Webb likes to recognize godfathers, but Donald also has special hobbies."

"Really?" Marcus asked curiously, "What is Donald's hobby? Could it be that he also likes to eat that stuff?"

"It's not." Mrr.. Lloyd said, "I heard that when Donald was young, he had a strong green hat plot."

Marcus asked curiously: "Dad, what does the green hat plot mean?"

Mrr.. Lloyd said: "Hey, I just like to be cuckolded, and the more he wears, the cooler he is!"

Marcus exclaimed: "Is it so magical?"

"Of course!" Mrr.. Lloyd laughed stiffly and said, "It is said that when Donald was young, he had a particularly lofty dream."

Marcus hurriedly asked: "What dream?"

Mrr.. Lloyd said: "I dream of wearing 10,000 green hats, but if I lose one, I feel that life is not fulfilled enough!"

Marcus put his finger to the fortune and said, "Dad, wearing a green hat 365 days a year, Donald will wear a green hat for 30 years! The key is that his wife can't stay idle all day long!"

Mrr.. Lloyd smiled and said: "Look, you don't understand this. Who said that people wear one top a day? Sometimes people wear several tops a day, or even several tops at a time!"

When Marcus heard this, he immediately gave a thumbs up, and exclaimed, "Why don't you say that the Webb family is awesome! It's amazing!"

After that, Marcus asked again: "By the way, Dad, that Sean, does he have any special hobbies?"

"He?" Mrr.. Lloyd laughed, and said, "The Webb family is the most powerful ass!"

Marcus asked curiously: "What is it?"

Mrr.. Lloyd said mysteriously: "Actually, this bastard is a homosexual!"

"Huh?" Marcus exclaimed, "Sean is gay?!"

"Yes!" Mrr.. Lloyd blurted out: "He is not only gay, but also the kind of character who is f*cked by men inside! I tell you, don't watch him drag him to death all day long, in fact, he will change immediately after closing the door. Become a perverted fake lady! It is said that he likes to hang out with strong men most, and there are several at a time, very powerful!"

He said, "Do you know? There is a bodyguard named Mr. Jones beside Donald and Sean and his son. This person is amazing! Back then, he was a super master who killed people without blinking. Later he took himself with him. A few of my brothers worked as bodyguards next to the Webb family's father and son, but this person is also a gay, who happens to be the type that Sean likes, so Sean and these five bodyguards stay together all day long, singing songs every night. So happy!"

"Oh my God!" Marcus exclaimed: "It turns out that the Webb family are all playing so exciting! I'm really ignorant!"

Mrr.. Lloyd smiled and said: "Let's put it this way, this Webb family, one of them counts as one, all of them are perverts among perverts, animals among animals!"

Chapter 718

Speaking of this, Mrr.. Lloyd paused, and still mustered the courage to say: "But to tell you the truth, Donald's wife is still very good. I think back then, she was also a famous beauty in the Eastcliff area!"

Marcus hurriedly asked, "Is that the one who likes to cuckold Donald, and even plans to wear 10,000?"

"Yes, that's her!" Mrr.. Lloyd said with a look of fascination: "I really want to come with her once in my dreams! Let me also put a green hat on Donald!"

Marcus said hurriedly, "Dad, I heard that she never refused to come. Would you like to take me too?"

Mrr.. Lloyd smiled and said: "Okay, let's go now? It's not nine o'clock in the evening. Our father and I drive, drive faster. We can reach Eastcliff at 12 o'clock, just enough to make Donald's wife Take good care of us!"

"Go!" Marcus also hurriedly smiled: "Then let's set off now!"

At this time, Charlie Wade pressed the button to stop the video and nodded in satisfaction: "Yes, not bad. It seems that you two have a talent for talking gossip. Okay, let's run away!"

Mrr.. Lloyd was crying and asked, "Master Wade, are you sending this video?"

"Yes." Charlie Wade nodded, and said, "I will send your video immediately. Once your video is on Facebook, it is estimated that the whole network will become popular immediately!"

Mrr.. Lloyd trembled in fright, and said, "Master Wade, can you send the video later? If you do it now, the Webb family will come to chase us down soon..."

Charlie Wade kicked Mr. Jones, who was like a dead dog, and said to Mrr.. Lloyd: "Look at you, what are you afraid of? The Webb family brought all these bodyguards. Now they are all lying here. What can you do? Afraid? Are you afraid that Donald and Sean will chase down you two in person? I think they may not be as good as your two. If the four of you fight, they must be the ones who suffer."

Mrr.. Lloyd thought about it, it seems that this is indeed the case. No one is available in the Webb family in Aurouss Hillll. It takes time to transfer people from the southern region to Aurouss Hillll. By then, he and his son will be gone.

Marcus said to Mrr.. Lloyd, "Dad, let's go back and pack our things, and then drive to Eastcliff overnight and buy the earliest plane to fly to Malaysia tomorrow. If that's the case, the Webb family will definitely not be able to catch us!"

Mrr.. Lloyd sighed and said: "This video of ours has offended the entire Webb family. I'm afraid they will chase us both around the world desperately under anger..."

Marcus shuddered, and said with some worry: "Dad, the Webb family shouldn't be too bad, right?"

"No?" Mrr.. Lloyd sighed: "You don't know, Donald loves his wife the most...We insult his wife so much, I'm afraid..."

Charlie Wade was too lazy to listen to the nonsense of the two of them here, and said lightly: "I'm going to upload the video right away. If you two of you want to run, run quickly. You can survive fast. Don't blame me if you run slow. Give you a chance to survive!"

Mrr.. Lloyd recovered, and hurriedly said, "Master Wade, let's go now! Let's go now!"

After finishing talking, he pulled Marcus and blurted out: "Go, go home and pack up, go to Eastcliff overnight!"

Marcus was also afraid of being chased by the Webb family, and hurriedly nodded.

Immediately afterwards, the father and son ran away nervously and embarrassedly.

Looking at the backs of the two of them, Don Albertt asked Charlie Wade respectfully: "Master Wade, just let them go like this?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Don't worry, the two of them insulted the Webb family so much. The Webb family will definitely do their best to hunt them down. They may not be able to live long, even if they live long, they will be fearful for a lifetime."

Charlie Wade said with a smile: "Moreover, they will never have the courage to return to China in their entire lives, and they may not dare to return to the country for burial if they die. Otherwise, the descendants of the Webb family will definitely dig out their ashes! "

Chapter 719

When the Lloyd family and his son fled for their lives, Don Albertt suddenly felt that Master Wade's punishment was very interesting. Without having to do it himself, the two men could be in a state of panic all day long. It can be said to be the best punishment for both of them.

At this time, five bodyguards from Webb's family remained in the box.

Don Albertt asked, "Master Wade, how do you deal with these people? Do you think you killed them directly? Or..."

Charlie Wade smacked his lips and said, "Think about this, do you have any good ideas?"

Looking at Mr. Jones who was like a dead dog, Don Albertt was naturally very angry.

He had never thought before that the Webb family would actually kill him.

Today, thanks to Master Wade, I was able to take his life back.

Otherwise, he would have already died under Mr. Jones's hands!

Therefore, Don Albertt's hatred of the Webb family at this moment has reached its peak in an instant.

He couldn't wait to slash the five people like Mr. Jones.

So he hurriedly said: "Master Wade, it's better to leave these five people to me!"

Charlie Wade asked curiously: "What do you plan to do?"

Don Albertt said coldly: "Take them all to the kennel, and let my dog eat them all in one month!"

After that, Don Albertt said again: "Tonight, let my dog eat all the stuff in their crotch!"

When Mr. Jones and other five people heard this, they all cried in shock! These killers and powerful masters who usually kill people are now scared to death.

Mr. Jones even cried out of breath, and pleaded bitterly: "Master Wade, Don Albertt, I really know that I was wrong! Please show mercy to the two of you, and spare my life!"

The other four people also pleaded and cried.

Charlie Wade looked at Don Albertt at this time, and smiled unpredictably: "They are just a few dogs of the Webb family. Killing them is meaningless. For the Webb family, it doesn't matter how many people die. Another interesting way."

Mr. Jones and the other five people suddenly breathed a sigh of relief.

In any case, when Charlie Wade said this, his fortunes were saved!

At this time, Don Albertt hurriedly asked, "Master Wade, what kind of way would you like to change?"

Charlie Wade thought for a while and said, "Well, let's leave some calligraphy on their foreheads, let them go back, and show them to Donald."

After speaking, he turned his head to look at the five people, and said in a cold voice: "Which of the five of you will be the first to come? I tell you, there is a discount for the first one. Increment by one word!" Hearing this, Mr. Jones thought of the tragic situation when Mrr.. Lloyd was engraved with the words "Father of the Pathetic Jerk" just now, and he shook his heart, subconsciously wanting to continue begging for mercy. However, one of them, knowing that he could not escape this time, suddenly shouted: "Me! I am the first to come!" Then someone shouted: "I am the second!"

"My third!"

"Me, my fourth!"

The four of them are almost like setting off firecrackers, occupying the first to fourth in one breath.

Mr. Jones, who has not spoken all the time, is only the fifth one.

His expression was extremely depressed, and he almost wanted to commit suicide on the spot!

Chapter 720

The first person to engrave four characters;

The second person carved five words;

The third person engraved six characters;

The fourth person engraved seven characters;

I'm the fifth, don't I have to engrave eight characters? !

How can there be such a big place on the forehead!

Mr. Jones suddenly cried, wiping his tears, and begged: "Master Wade, please forgive me this time. From now on, I will wait on you before and after. Everything will listen to your instructions and be your dog... .."

Charlie Wade said calmly: "You are not qualified to be my dog, but if you continue to talk so much nonsense, I will let Don Albertt take you to the kennel and feed his dog! I Charlie Wade did what he said, if you don't believe it, try another sentence!"

Mr. Jones suddenly closed his mouth in fright.

He was really afraid of Charlie Wade!

Since Charlie Wade said so, he doesn't care about letting a fart, for fear that Charlie Wade will really kill him!

At this time, Don Albertt picked up the dagger from the ground, walked to the person who raised his hand first, and asked, "Master Wade, what was the first to carve?"

Charlie Wade thought for a while and said, "You have to be concise and concise! How can you be concise and concise..."

After thinking for a moment, Charlie Wade blurted out: "If you have it, just make Sean beep!"

The man was about to cry.

If the four characters Sean silly beep are engraved on one's forehead, the eldest master can't kill himself alive? !

However, he didn't dare to refuse halfway at this time, because now he has no right to refuse. If he dares to say a word, he might irritate Charlie Wade and be sent to the kennel to feed the dog!

"Okay." Don Albertt readily agreed, holding a dagger, and engraving four deep words on this person's face: "Sean silly beep".

The man's face was dripping with blood, and the four big characters on his face and forehead made the other four people feel chilling.

After carving, Don Albertt pulled out the second person who signed up and asked Charlie Wade, "Master Wade, what did this person carve?"

Charlie Wade thought about it and said with a smile: "This time it's five words, so let's engrave Kian likes to eat shit."

Don Albertt nodded, and immediately carved his own human calligraphy on the second person's forehead.

At this time, Mr. Jones found that the number of words really increased as he went back, so he hurriedly shouted: "Don Albertt! I'm the third, I'm the third! Don't grab anyone!"

Don Albertt gave a sneer and asked, "Where is your arrogant energy? Why is it like this now? What's the difference between it and a dog who eats food?"

Mr. Jones hurriedly pleaded: "Don Albertt, you regard me as a dog, so please engrave it for me first!"

Charlie Wade frowned, went up and kicked Mr. Jones directly, and said coldly: "You guy is really unscrupulous. The four of them are little brothers who were born to death with you. You want to cheat them in the face of disaster?"

Mr. Jones was kicked far away, crying and said, "Master Wade, I am a timid and fearful lord, so please be kind and let Don Albertt engrave it for me first..."

Charlie Wade said coldly: "Stop the f*cking nonsense with me, you are the last! Beep more with me, and just engrave a list of teachers on your face!"

Don Albertt smiled and said: "Master Wade, the teacher's list is very long, I am afraid that a face will not be carved!"

As he said, Don Albertt recited and counted with his fingers, and said: "The first emperor has not started his own business but the middle way has collapsed. Today is three points, Yizhou is exhausted...Oh, this is almost full. My face is full..."

Charlie Wade waved his hand indifferently, and said, "There is no engraving on his face and a neck, no neck is engraved, and his body. If it's a big deal, he will engrave all the places where love can be engraved on his body and let him see more often. Seeing the teacher's table and memorizing the teacher's table more often."

Mr. Jones was frightened immediately, and hurriedly cried and pleaded: "Master Wade! Master Wade, I was wrong. I dare not beep anymore. You are right. I am the last one! I won't say a word. Honestly waiting!"

Chapter 721

Mr. Jones shut up, and Don Albertt pulled the third person who had volunteered before him, and asked Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, what is the third person engraved on his head?"

Charlie Wade replied: "Sean is gay."

Don Albertt nodded and waved his big hand, six bloody big characters were engraved on the man's forehead.

Immediately afterwards, it was the fourth.

Don Albertt said to Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, it's seven words this time."

"Yeah." Charlie Wade thought for a while and said: "Then Donald is incompetent."

Don Albertt couldn't help but laughed and said, "Master Wade, why is the bird incompetent? Shouldn't it be sex?"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "Sex is a sensitive word. You can't use it indiscriminately. If you let the girls see it, you will blush."

Immediately afterwards, Don Albertt finished the calligraphy of the fourth person's body.

The last one left is Mr. Jones.

Mr. Jones looked at the blood on his four little brothers' heads and faces, and was frightened.

He is a very arrogant person. He has always been strong and unmatched, which gave him the best illusion in the world. The more he has this illusion, the more serious the burden of idols.

However, he really didn't dare to say a word of bullshit at this time, otherwise, he was really afraid that Charlie Wade would let Don Albertt engrave himself as a teacher!

Not to mention carving out the teacher's table, even if it is a song, it can't stand it!

So he could only silently tremble and cry, waiting for the moment when his fame was destroyed.

At this moment, Mr. Jones had only one wish in his heart, that is, Charlie Wade must not let Don Albertt engrave too vulgar sentences for himself.

However, he did not understand Charlie Wade.

The more this time, the more Charlie Wade likes to be vulgar.

Holding a bloody knife, Don Albertt pointed to Mr. Jones, who was pale, and asked, "Master Wade, what did this grandson carve?"

Charlie Wade thought for a while and said, "Isn't these eight characters? Be casual, close to the people, and grounded at that moment."

After speaking, Charlie Wade said again: "In this way, I'll poop to Sean to eat for him."

Mr. Jones felt ashamed when he heard these eight words.

Don Albertt hurriedly asked, "Master Wade, is it wrong? Kian, not Sean, likes to eat shit."

Charlie Wade waved his hand casually and said, "Oh, it's the same.

Anyway, he wants to show Donald and Sean when he goes back. It's better to carve Sean."

"Go!" Don Albertt nodded immediately and said: "Then I will engrave him, a bit bigger and a bit deeper!"

Mr. Jones looked at the bloody tip of the knife and cried, "Don Albertt! I beg you to do one thing?"

Don Albertt said impatiently, "Why are you so much nonsense?"

Mr. Jones cried and said, "I just want you to change the knife. This knife has been carved from Mrr.. Lloyd, and it has been carved by five people. It is not disinfected. It is easy to get sick. In case anyone has one. AIDS or something, isn't that a cross infection..."

When Mr. Jones said this, the other four people trembled with fright.

One of them blurted out and asked: "Are you three free of AIDS?!"

"No!" The other three shook their heads.

Chapter 722

But whether it is true or not, no one knows.

Don Albertt was also a little annoyed at this time, and slapped Mr. Jones's face with a slap, and cursed: "Just your bullshit, if you don't believe it, I will give you a preface to the King of Teng?"

Mr. Jones was drawn to stare at Venus. At this time, he really didn't dare to say any more, so he could only cry while enduring Don Albertt's sharp blade.

He could feel the sensation of the tip of the knife cutting the skin on his forehead and touching the skull. The sharp pain made him almost faint, and the blood was constantly dripping from his forehead, even making him unable to open his eyes at all.

He had to regret and regret at this moment in his heart. He knew that today, no matter how much Donald gave, he would not be able to kill Don Albertt..

Unfortunately, in this world, there is no regret medicine to take.. At this time, Donald's five bodyguards all became human calligraphy works, and all five faces were terrible. Especially the last Mr. Jones was carved with eight characters directly, and his forehead was not enough, so he borrowed the place of his face. , The whole face looked terrifying.

Moreover, the words engraved on their faces are all insults to the Webb family, and it is estimated that the Webb family will see their lungs explode.

Mr. Jones cried and asked, "Master Wade, can you let us go?"

Charlie Wade said: "Of course you can let it go, but in order to prevent you people from continuing to help the gang, I have to teach you a lesson!"

After all, Charlie Wade grabbed the person in front of him, smashed his two arms with two punches, and the remaining few people did the same. In the blink of an eye, all of these people's arms were scrapped. In the future, wanting to be a bodyguard, a killer, and a thug is absolutely useless. No one will hire such a disabled person as a bodyguard.

Therefore, it is certainly impossible for them to continue to harm society in the future.

The five of them had been tortured at this time and looked uncomfortable, and it felt that even if they were caught in the temple of Yama, they would feel more comfortable than here.

Charlie Wade is too human! His method of torture is simply unheard of..

At this time, Charlie Wade stood up with satisfaction and said coldly: "You five, go back and bring words to Donald and Sean. If you want to target me, just let them go, but if you dare to involve me. The rest of the people, then I will make the entire Webb family irresistible!"

The five people struggled to get up with their legs and ran out of Heaven Springs in a very embarrassing manner.

After the five people fled, Don Albertt asked Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, Mrr.. Lloyd, Marcus's video, what are you going to do with it? Do you want to upload Facebook now?"

Charlie Wade waved his hand and said with a smile: "Don't worry, wait a while, let Mrr.. Lloyd and Marcus run for a while, or I will be seen by the Webb family as soon as I let go, and the Webb family will offer a reward. Their lives, then they may not survive tomorrow morning and have to report to Hades."

Don Albertt hurriedly said, "Isn't it better to die? These two people should have died a long time ago as dogs with Webb's family!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "If you didn't make this video, it would naturally be the most worry-free killing them, but since the video has been filmed, it would naturally make them live the most worry-free, because they only need to live, Webb The family will be laughed at by the people all over the country, and will be immersed in the pain of humiliation and anger all day long, unable to extricate themselves! Therefore, Mrr.. Lloyd and Marcus have to be kept alive! They are alive, this is interesting!"

Don Albertt nodded immediately and said, "I understand Master Wade!"

After that, Don Albertt asked again: "Master Wade, what about Donald and Sean?"

Charlie Wade looked at the time and said, "I guess these five people will go to Donald to complain and complain now, but Donald is a very dogged person. If the situation is wrong, he will definitely run away, maybe even overnight. Take Sean back to Eastcliff."

Don Albertt blurted out: "Master Wade, then we have to find a way, we can't let the tiger go back to the mountain!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "It's okay to let the tigers go back to the mountain. After all, the Webb family is more than these two tigers. Let them go back first to bring out more tigers. The best way is to find an opportunity to kill them all at once.!"

Speaking of this, Charlie Wade asked Don Albertt: "Have you heard a word?"

Don Albertt hurriedly asked, "Master Wade, what are you talking about?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "A family, it just needs to be neat and tidy!"

Chapter 723

Jacob Wilson has been in the corner, silently watching his son-in-law turn things around and kill all quarters, and he is extremely shocked. He didn't understand why Charlie Wade had such a strong strength and such a strong aura.

This is totally two extremes from Charlie Wade, who is usually called and drunk by Elaine Ma at home!

At this time, Charlie Wade stepped forward to him and asked, "Dad, are you okay?"

Jacob Wilson hurriedly shook his head and said, "It's okay, it's okay, oh, fortunately you came in time, otherwise I will be miserable..."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "Dad, you are fine. I have already taught these people, are you satisfied?"

"Satisfied and satisfied!" Jacob Wilson nodded, and then said a little worried: "Charlie Wade, were you a bit too cruel just now? That Webb family... won't come to avenge you, right??"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "When dealing with Webb family, you can't be afraid of their revenge. If you don't provoke him, he will kill you. Then instead of doing this, it's better to do it with him, what do you think?"

Jacob Wilson said embarrassingly, "That's right, but I'm just worried. They bit us hard. We don't have the money or the big business of their family. If we really do it, we might want to Lost!"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "Dad, don't worry, I will protect Claire Wilson Wilson, as well as the safety of you and mom. Don't worry about that."

Jacob Wilson nodded um.

Charlie Wade said again: "By the way, Dad, in order not to worry Claire Wilson Wilson and Mom about this matter, we must not tell them both when we go back."

"That's that!" How dare Jacob Wilson say, if Elaine Ma knew about such a big thing, he wouldn't be able to fry it? It must be upset at home!

Charlie Wade relaxed.

The only thing I'm afraid of is that the old man can't keep his mouth shut and tell what happened today.

But he seemed scared enough to see him, I guess this matter can be stabilized.

Charlie Wade immediately said to Don Albertt: "Don Albertt, find more subordinates to accompany you these days, and by the way, find some subordinates to protect my family members secretly, don't take it lightly."

Don Albertt nodded immediately: "Master Wade, please rest assured, Don Albertt will make arrangements!"

"Yeah." Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "Okay, I just came to take my dad home. Now that the matter is resolved, we should also go back."

After finishing speaking, he said to Jacob Wilson, "Dad, shall we go?"

"Good, good." Jacob Wilson nodded hurriedly.

He just wants to go home quickly and digest the whole bunch of things that just happened.

While Charlie Wade took Jacob Wilson home, Mrr.. Lloyd and his son were at home like bandits, frantically tossing and cleaning the gold and silver at home.

Marcus's mother hadn't figured out what was going on. Seeing that her husband was also engraved with words on his forehead, and it was the four characters of the father of the poor, she hurried forward to ask.

Mrr.. Lloyd blurted out: "Don't ask so much, we are in a big disaster now, and we must pack our things quickly. We must leave Arouss Hill tonight, otherwise we may die without a place to bury!"

"Ah?!" Marcus's mother hurriedly asked: "Where are we going?"

"Go to Malaysia!" Mrr.. Lloyd said, "Go to my brother, and never return to China again!"

"What?!" Marcus's mother collapsed instantly and cried out: "Why are you going to Malaysia suddenly? I can't come back later? What about my parents? What about my brothers and sisters?"

Mrr.. Lloyd questioned: "You don't want your life anymore? Give it back to your parents. Your parents are doing well in Arouss Hill. Now the trouble is that our family of three will die. Maybe your parents will come to give it to you. The three of us collect the corpses? Hurry up and pack my things!"

Chapter 724

When Marcus's mother heard this, she didn't dare to say more. She knew the situation was serious, so she hurriedly started to pack her things. Mrr.. Lloyd asked Marcus at this time: "Look at Facebook, has our video been sent by Charlie Wade?"

Marcus opened his hands and said, "My phone is at Charlie Wade's. Charlie Wade used my phone to take pictures."

"Damn it." Mrr.. Lloyd hurriedly took out his mobile phone, threw it to Marcus, and said, "Hurry up and see!"

Marcus took the phone and immediately started downloading and installing the app.

After swiping a few videos on Facebook, he found that there was no cross talk between himself and his father. He was a little relieved and said, "Charlie Wade probably hasn't posted yet."

"That's good." Mrr.. Lloyd nodded and said, "Let's not delay, go quickly! Let's leave in half an hour!"

After finishing speaking, he told his wife, "Don't bring anything you can't finish with. Call your mother back and ask her to help us sell everything for cash, and then take it to the black market and exchange it for US dollars. Let's, when we get to Malaysia, the renminbi will not work well, so we have to use the U.S. dollar!"

His wife nodded quickly: "I'll call her later, because she has our spare key!"

.....

At this moment, Mr. Jones and other five broken arms have returned to Shangri-La Hotel.

All five of them had no arms and could not drive a car, so they could only hit two cars.

When taking a taxi, a lot of drivers didn't dare to pull it when they saw it, and ran away in a hurry.

After all, these five guys are too scary, one by one, bloody and scornful, and more importantly, there are damn words engraved on their heads, this is absolutely abnormal!

Later, Mr. Jones was in a hurry. He promised ten Dollar for the road and gave ten thousand Dollar, and then he stopped a rental car.

After stopping, the five people squeezed in.

The driver hurriedly said: "Oh, my car can take up to five people with the driver and passengers. You have one more. Let's get another one!"

Mr. Jones said angrily: "What the hell is so much nonsense, I will give you 10,000 Dollar, can't you get one more?"

As soon as the driver heard this, he had no choice but to bear it, nodded and said: "Then you sit behind the four squeeze, don't close the door."

Four people desperately squeezed in the back row. Mr. Jones sat in the passenger seat and said with a gloomy expression: "Go to the Shangri-La Hotel, drive faster!"

The driver subconsciously said: "Five, if you are injured like this, why not go to the hospital first?"

"If you fcking talk, I will fck you!"

Mr. Jones looked upset.

The driver shrank his neck in shock.

The other younger brothers couldn't help saying, "Brother, let's go to the hospital first, at least stop the bleeding and see if the shoulder can be saved..."

"Save me!" Mr. Jones said with an extremely gloomy expression: "No matter how good the orthopedic doctor is, it is impossible to cure us. We have to let the Webb family and his son know that we are abolished because of them, and they have to give everything they say. A resettlement fee. In addition, we have to let them know how much Charlie Wade looked down on him and how much he insulted him. Only in this way can he kill Charlie Wade at all costs and avenge us!"

Another person asked: "Brother, if we see these words on our foreheads, if they are seen by Mr. Webb and Young Master, will they be angry with us?"

"How is it possible?" Mr. Jones said: "These are all made by Charlie Wade for making Don Albertt, who are wronged and debts are in charge. Mr. Webb can still tell the truth!"

Chapter 725

Car arrived to the door of Shangri-La.

The five elders couldn't even open the door.

The Shangri-La waiters themselves looked down upon the rental, and rarely took the initiative to open the door for the guests who took the rental.

When they saw the rental, they deliberately used it as air, so they didn't come forward.

There was a moment of silence in the car, and Mr. Jones could only shout to the driver: "Damn, you are blind? Don't you know to help open the door?"

The driver was a little annoyed and said, "Then you pay the fare first, 10,000 Dollar, you said yes."

Mr. Jones said: "You help me drive the door, and you take it from my pocket after getting out of the car. My arm is injured and I can't move."

The driver got out of the car and helped them open the door.

Immediately afterwards, five people with blood all over their heads finally got out of the car.

They were covered in bruises and scribbled characters on their foreheads, so they looked very scary and very eye-catching.

Therefore, when they appeared, they immediately attracted the attention of everyone around them, and what's more, they subconsciously made a harsh laugh.

"What's the matter with these people, they actually have lettering on their foreheads, are they doing performance art? Hahaha, it's really funny, it's so funny!"

"Yes, I have lived for most of my life, and I have seen many artists, some pretending to be beggars begging on the street, and some who use a needle to draw ink and paint on paper. I have never seen such a wonderful work, and I have carved it. The characters are ugly!"

"This situation and this scene really opened my eyes. In my opinion, these people and the rich second generation who grabbed shit on Facebook some time ago have a good fight!"

"Dude, you reminded me of this. I have to quickly take a picture and post it on Facebook, so that netizens all over the country will come and see these wonderful works of Aurouss Hillll. By then, the number of hits will not reach millions?"

"Yes, right, right, everyone hurry up and take pictures. After passing this village, there will be no more shop!"

While talking, someone took out their mobile phone, turned on Douyinacebook, clicked on the video to shoot, and directly posted the desolate appearance of Mr. Jones and others to the Internet.

Seeing everyone holding their cellphones to snap at him, Mr. Jones suddenly became angry. He wanted to reach out to cover his forehead, but his arms were all gone, and he couldn't raise it at all.

He was so annoyed that he could only blurt out, "What shot? Get out!"

Everyone shuddered by his ferocious appearance, and they didn't want to be familiar with this kind of mad dog. Only then did they choose to stop with unfinished intentions, and hid far away.

Mr. Jones was satisfied when he saw such a scene, and immediately took the people into the Shangri-La Hotel.

The driver hurriedly stopped him: "Hey, hey, you have not given me the ten thousand Dollar you promised!"

Mr. Jones stared at him coldly, and said angrily: "I'll give it to your mother!"

After speaking, he lifted his foot and kicked him out with one kick.

Although both hands have been abolished, and the foundation of years of hard training has also been abolished, but it is not a problem for Mr. Jones to beat a taxi driver.

After he kicked over, he immediately said to the four people around him: "Damn, kick him to death!"

The four people rushed up immediately, kicking the taxi driver.

Chapter 726

When the Shangri-La security captain saw this, he immediately led the team and rushed over, stopped them, and said coldly: "Several people, don't make trouble at Shangri-La's door, or don't blame me for being polite!"

Mr. Jones knew that Cameron Isaac, the boss of Shangri-La, had a strong background, so he hurriedly stopped, stopped the people around him, and said to the driver: "Fortune telling you today, please be careful in the future, or you will be killed!"

After speaking, take someone to enter Shangri-La.

As soon as they were about to enter, the security guards immediately reached out to stop them, and the lobby manager hurriedly came over and said: "Sorry, gentlemen, you are indecently dressed and poorly groomed. According to regulations, you cannot enter our Shangri-La Hotel!"

Hearing this, Mr. Jones calmed down and said with disdain: "We are from the Webb family of southern region, you, a little manager, dare to stop me?!"

The lobby manager frowned and said with a strong attitude: "This gentleman, I don't care if you are from the southern region family or someone from another family. According to the regulations, you are not allowed to enter Shangri-La!"

After speaking, he said coldly: "Several faces have already scared our guests and affected the reputation of our hotel. Please leave immediately, otherwise, you will be at your own risk!"

Mr. Jones's heart was raging, and he said coldly: "I will give you the face of Mr. Cameron and will not beat you, but if you continue to find uncomfortable, then don't blame me for being rude to you!"

The lobby manager did not back down and blurted out: "I'm sorry, the rules are the rules, you can't enter Shangri-La!"

Mr. Jones gritted his teeth.

Not to mention a lobby manager, even if the security team all come up, it is impossible to be the opponent of their five useless people. Everyone can take this group of people down with the work of their legs.

However, the other party is Cameron Isaac's dog, which is a bit tricky. If Cameron Isaac is offended, wouldn't it be worth the loss?

At this moment, their noises attracted the attention of many people in the lobby.

Many people were watching them whispering, and Mr. Jones listened carefully, only to realize that these people were actually discussing what characters were carved on their foreheads!

He was immediately embarrassed and unwilling to stay here to be watched, so he said to the lobby manager with a black face, "I will give you three seconds, give me the f*ck, otherwise, don't blame I'm not polite to you!"

The lobby manager also had a bit of temper, and immediately shouted to the security captain: "Captain Sullivan, these people have seriously affected the image of Shangri-La, kick them all out!"

Mr. Jones was furious and cursed: "Shame on your face, beat me!"

After speaking, he rushed forward first, kicked the lobby manager to the ground with one kick, and immediately vomited blood from his kick!

Mr. Jones vomited bloody sputum on his face, cursing: "If you don't know whether you live or die, dare to talk more, believe it or not, I will just destroy you!"

The lobby manager endured the huge pain in his body, and ordered several security guards behind him: "Shoot out all these guys who dare to make trouble in Shangri-La!"

But with this order, before a few security guards could react, unexpectedly, the other four bodyguards of Webb's family rushed forward, and they went crazy in an instant!

This group of people suffered a lot in front of Charlie Wade, and they were already holding back the fire. Suddenly, there was an object of exasperation. They had completely lost their minds and vented wildly to this group of people. They just wanted to put the group in front of them. People were killed to relieve the hatred in the heart.

Although Charlie Wade had their hands severed by Charlie Wade, they were from a family training family. Their legs and knees could cause great damage to these security guards.

Therefore, with just one move, all these weak security guards were overthrown to the ground, causing the opponent to lose combat effectiveness.

Seeing that these people were losing, and if they continued to fight, they would definitely be dead. Mr. Jones asked everyone to stop the attack and said coldly, "A bunch of dogs that don't have long eyes slap their mouths, and they dare to fight against my Webb family. I ah, Don't look at what virtue you are!"

After speaking, he took the elevator directly with people and went upstairs.

Chapter 727

After the five Mr. Jones left, the scene was in a mess.

Shangri-La's lobby manager and several security guards were all injured lying on the ground, their noses and faces swollen looking very miserable.

A security guard struggled to get up and hurriedly helped the lobby manager from the ground, and couldn't help but ask: "Manager, what should I do now?"

The lobby manager said with a cold face, "You quickly take other people to the hospital, I will find Mr. Cameron! If you dare to make trouble in Shangri-La, I still don't believe Mr. Cameron will let him go!"

With that said, he limped to Cameron Isaac's office.

At this time, Donald and Sean, the father and son, were staying in the presidential suite of the Shangri-La Hotel, patiently waiting for Mr. Jones and others to return to their lives.

A few dozen minutes ago, Donald also received a message from Mrr.. Lloyd, saying that he had arrived at Heaven Springs and subdued Don Albertt. Not only that, but he also found an unexpected surprise. Charlie Wade's father-in-law was also Dining in Heaven Springs.

This made Donald very happy. He felt that just taking advantage of this opportunity, he would kill Charlie Wade's father-in-law first.

But now seeing that time has passed by almost an hour, Mrr.. Lloyd has not reported any progress to himself, which makes Donald aware that something is wrong.

He called Mrr.. Lloyd but no one answered, and he called Mr. Jones again, but no one answered.

Actually, the mobile phone is in Mr. Jones's pocket, but both of his arms are useless, and there is no way to get the mobile phone out of his pocket.

The other four people are the same, and there is nothing they can do at this time.

If only the fingers were scrapped, it would be nice to still be able to control the phone by sliding the belly of the fingers with the drooping fingers, but now, the whole arm can't use any strength, it's a complete mess.

Donald couldn't get through Mr. Jones's phone, and he couldn't help feeling a little nervous.

Mr. Jones's strength is very strong. He hasn't met an opponent so far, so he can't plant on Don Albertt, right?

Sean frowned and couldn't help but say to his father Donald: "Dad, Mrr.. Lloyd's situation, no one has given us any reply up to now, did Mr. Jones and the others have an accident?"

Donald shook his head and said confidently: "Impossible, Mr. Jones and the others are all experts. They are powerful. Looking at the whole Aurouss Hilll, it is impossible for anyone to be their opponent!"

As he was talking, he took out his phone again and called Mr. Jones. Immediately afterwards, he heard a cell phone ringing outside the corridor.

While he was still wondering, he heard the doorbell ring.

It was a little brother of Mr. Jones, who pressed the doorbell with his forehead.

When Sean heard the doorbell rang, he blurted out: "It is estimated that someone has returned!"

After finishing speaking, he hurried to the door, opened the door and was stunned for a moment!

Donald paced over slowly at this time, still smiling and saying: "What am I talking about? With Don Albertt's insignificant role, how can he beat Mr. Jones?"

After finishing speaking, he did not forget to say to his son who was in a daze at the door, and said with earnest words: "You, don't rush and mess up your position. You must be calm when you become a big thing. You have to think about this in the future."

Sean swallowed his saliva, pointed at the five ghost-like people outside the door with horror, and said blankly: "Dad, come and take a look!"

"What are you looking at?" Donald said indifferently, "Didn't they come back from Heaven Springs? What are they still standing outside the door? Let them come in and tell me in detail about the process of killing Don Albertt!"

When Sean heard this, he took a step back subconsciously to make room.

Mr. Jones and the five people gathered up their courage, shook their two broken arms, and walked in with their heads downcast and dejected!

When Donald saw the five people coming in, he was shocked and stunned.

The tea cup in his hand was suddenly unsteady, and he dropped to the ground..

Chapter 728

He looked at five ghost-like people, and said dumbfounded:

"You...you...what's the matter?! What happened to your foreheads? Why is it all blood?! This... .. How does it look like it was written by someone?!"

As several of them kept their heads down, it was difficult for Donald to make out the words on their foreheads.

Mr. Jones immediately took a step forward, thumped, and knelt in front of Donald, and said in fear, "Mr. Webb, I'm not doing things well, please punish us!"

Seeing these people in such a horrible situation, Donald's heart shook, his face changed suddenly, and he asked: "You can tell me clearly, what happened?!"

Mr. Jones knelt on the ground, bowed his head and cried, "Mr. Webb, we will help Mrr.. Lloyd deal with Don Albertt as ordered by the young master. Today in Heaven Springs, we had already controlled Don Albertt and even caught Wilson. Charlie Wade's father-in-law, but who expected that Charlie Wade would suddenly rush in..."

Speaking of this, he wept bitterly and said: "Mr. Webb, that Charlie Wade's strength is too strong, not to mention that I am not his worthy opponent. Even the five of us can't match him at all. However, not only did we all have his arms scrapped by him, but he also engraved words on our foreheads..."

Donald was struck by lightning!

Better than Mr. Jones? ! Is that still a human? !

He trembled with disbelief on his face and said, "Even you are not Charlie Wade's opponents of the trash?! That trash...that trash is so strong?!"

As he said, he thought of engraving, and hurriedly asked: "Engraving? What kind of words? Look up, let me see!"

Mr. Jones and the others hesitated for a while, but didn't dare to defy Donald's orders, they could only raise their heads with a gray face, that expression was even more tragic than the dead family!

Donald and his son stared at these people's foreheads, and suddenly became furious!

Sean beep!

Kian loves to eat shit!

Sean is gay!

Donald is incompetent!

I want to poop to Sean to eat!

They looked at these extremely humiliating words, their faces turned green!

Donald has lived for most of his life. He has seen all kinds of punishment methods, and he has even seen many corpses who died tragically, but he has never seen such a scene!

This...this is f*cking cruel!

Engrave on someone's forehead, and the engraved words are still so full of humiliation!

This really makes people feel a tingling scalp and chills in the limbs!

Donald was panicked and angry, and questioned: "This is all the waste of Charlie Wade?!"

Mr. Jones knelt on the ground and said: "It was the calligraphy that he made Don Albertt, and he also asked me to bring you a message, saying that if you want to target him, just come, but if you dare to involve people around him, then he will let Our Webb family will never recover..."

After Sean heard this, he couldn't help but furious, gritted his teeth and said: "Dad, Charlie Wade alone would dare to let my Webb family be overwhelmed. What a big tone! How can you be worthy of the Webb family's face if you don't kill him!"

Donald's expression was a bit cold, and he said, "Do you think it is easy to kill him? These five people have been completely abandoned. You and my father and son are in Aurouss Hilll. Now there is not even a bodyguard. If Charlie Wade comes to the door, we What to resist?!"

Just now, Sean, who was pretending to be forced to kill Charlie Wade, turned pale in shock and said: "Dad, let's run now!"

Donald glared at him, and said in dissatisfaction: "What are you panicking? This is in Shangri-La! I don't believe that Eastcliff Wade family's property, that waste dare to kill here! If he really dares to come, then Eastcliff Wade The family will never let him go!"

Chapter 729

At this moment, the lobby manager who was kicked half-dead by Mr. Jones, with the support of several employees, staggered to the door of Cameron Isaac's office.

Knocking on the office door, as soon as the lobby manager entered, Cameron Isaac saw that he was completely injured, and blurted out, "Manager, what's the matter?"

Manager said indignantly: "Mr. Cameron, some bodyguards from southern region Webb's family dared to break into our hotel and fight me and some security guards in the lobby of our hotel!"

"What?!" Cameron Isaac frowned and blurted out: "What's the matter? Both the Webb family and his son live in our presidential suite, and their bodyguards also live in it. Why did they break into the hotel? Fight?"

Manager hurriedly explained: "It's like this. A few of them seemed to have just had a fight with someone outside. They were covered in blood, their arms were broken, and their foreheads were carved with a knife. , The face is full of blood, it looks like Shura, doesn't our hotel always have a request to not allow guests with disheveled clothes to enter, so I stopped them..."

Cameron Isaac frowned.

He had also heard of Webb's bodyguard.

It is said that the strength is very extraordinary.

These five people, in Aurouss Hilll, even Cameron Isaac's own bodyguards may not be their opponents. Therefore, when Cameron Isaac heard that their arms and foreheads were engraved on them, he was stunned!

He couldn't figure out, when did Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon start in places like Aurouss Hilll?

Is there such a master who can abolish all the five bodyguards of the Webb family? What kind of perverted power must this be?

Thinking of this, he said to Manager: "This matter is a bit weird, don't worry, I'll call someone to check it."

Cameron Isaac had many eyes and ears in Aurouss Hilll. He quickly picked up his mobile phone, dialed a number, and said in a cold voice: "Check it out now, the bodyguard of Webb's family in southern region, what did you do in Aurouss Hilll tonight, within five minutes, I want to All results!" Three minutes later, Cameron Isaac's phone rang. Hearing the words on the other end of the phone, Cameron Isaac was struck by lightning!

It turned out that the bodyguard of the Webb family went to Heaven Springs tonight and wanted to punish Don Albertt, but unexpectedly, he was defeated by his young master Charlie Wade!

The five masters of the Webb family were actually defeated by the young master? !

Oh my god, Master has such a powerful strength? !

Cameron Isaac was terrified!

Immediately, a strong anger surged in his heart!

Webb family, so bold!

Don Albertt had been with the young master a long time ago, and he was considered half of the Wade family. How dare the Webb family come to Aurouss Hilll to punish Don Albertt, and even clashed with his own young master?

They are tired of life, right? !

Moreover, after this group of people went to punish Don Albertt and was beaten to death by their own young master, they were so arrogant that they beat the lobby manager of Shangri-La? !

Who the hell is going to offend the Wade Family to death!

Thinking of this, Cameron Isaac was furious!

I even gave the father and son face back and let them live in the presidential suite in Shangri-La. If the young master knew about it, what if the crime came down? !

The angry Cameron Isaac almost wished to rush to the presidential suite where the Webb family and his son are located, and break the legs of these two dogs!

However, when he thought that the young master was also involved, he didn't dare to call the shots without authorization, so he immediately called Charlie Wade.

When the phone was connected, Charlie Wade had just stopped the car.

After the old man got off the car, Charlie Wade said to him: "Dad, I will pick up the phone and go up again."

Jacob Wilson nodded and said, "You can pick it up, I'll smoke a cigarette outside and wait for you."

Chapter 730

The old man went to smoke, and he sat in the car to answer the phone.

As soon as the phone was connected, Cameron Isaac hurriedly said,

"Master, I heard that you have a conflict with Webb's bodyguard?"

Charlie Wade gave a hum, and said, "Your information is quite timely!"

Cameron Isaac hurriedly said: "Master, I also heard that these five people are making trouble in Shangri-La, and I found out after finding someone to check."

With that said, Cameron Isaac explained what happened after the five Mr. Jones went to Shangri-La.

After listening to Charlie Wade, he said coldly: "These five dogs, I didn't expect that dogs can't change their poop. I thought they could learn to be honest and low-key, but I didn't expect them to have both arms. Leg trouble!"

Cameron Isaac hurriedly said: "Master, now the Webb family and his son are also in Shangri-La, what do you want to do with them, you only need to give an order and do so immediately!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "In this way, you go to their room first and break the legs of these five dogs. I see if they have all their hands and feet gone, what else will they do to cause trouble."

Cameron Isaac blurted out: "Good master! What else do you want?"

Charlie Wade said again: "There are also Donald and Sean. I don't plan to kill them for the time being, but I can't make them so cheap. You can help me to break one of them and drive them out of Aurouss Hilll. !"

"Okay!" Cameron Isaac said immediately: "Master, don't worry, I will do this wisely!"

After speaking, Cameron Isaac asked again: "By the way, Master, do you want me to tell them clearly so that they know what kind of existence they provoke?"

"No." Charlie Wade said indifferently: "If I let them know my true identity, they will probably be completely persuaded. That would be boring."

After speaking, Charlie Wade said again: "Remember, you went to teach them this time, it was completely because the Webb family bodyguards made trouble in Shangri-La and ruined Wade family's face."

Cameron Isaac said immediately: "I understand Master!"

"Well, I understand, just do it."

.....

In the presidential suite at this time, Donald was darkened, looking at the five dead dogs in front of him!

On the one hand, he hated the waste of these five people, even Charlie Wade could not handle it, on the other hand, he hated the words engraved on the heads of these five people.

Damn, it's a complete insult to the Webb family!

He shouted to Mr. Jones in a cold voice: "I will arrange for someone to perform cosmetic surgery on you, cut off all the skin on your forehead, take skin from other parts of your body and transplant it, and then you should be able to remove these words!"

Mr. Jones nodded hurriedly, and said with a trembling, "Thank you, Mr. Webb..."

Donald used to have some respect and respect for Mr. Jones, but now he is not pleasing to the eye.

So, he said coldly: "I will transfer a group of new bodyguards from the family, and then you can disband on the spot."

"Disbanded on the spot?!" Mr. Jones blurted out: "Mr. Webb, are you trying to fire us?"

Donald frowned and asked, "Otherwise? I'll keep you as a bodyguard? Can you still be a bodyguard like this?"

Mr. Jones blurted out: "Mr. Webb, our five brothers have been with you for so long, and we have killed many people, prevented a lot of disasters, and suffered a lot of injuries for you. Today, all five of us were abandoned by Charlie Wade. This is also to help you. How can you get into trouble at this time and let us disband on the spot?"

Donald asked in return: "Why? If you don't dissolve, do you still want me to provide for you?!"

As he said, Donald said in disgust: "Don't tell me these useless things. I will give you 500,000 severance pay at that time. If you know how to raise money, you can get out of it. If you don't know how to raise money, Don't blame me for being rude then!"

Chapter 731

Although Donald is a billionaire, he is not a generous person.

In other words, in his eyes, the money that should not be spent is not spent any more.

For example, Mr. Jones and these five wastes.

The bodyguard with his broken hand can't even open the door of his mother's car. What are you going to do?

Their wages are ridiculously high, and if they continue to be kept, they can only be charity and provide them with old age.

Therefore, they should be driven away as soon as possible at this time.

The farther you go, the better. Donald actually didn't want to pay 500,000 severance pay. Therefore, he felt that he was already very generous.

However, Mr. Jones certainly didn't think so! I am a useless person now! What is the concept of waste? In this life, it is tantamount to being an armless person!

Armless people, eat, drink, and sleep, why don't they need someone to take care of?

In the next few decades, there will be more places to spend money!

They were so badly injured because of the Webb family. At this time, the Webb family fell into trouble, wouldn't it be their life? !

Thinking of this, Mr. Jones felt resentful.

However, he didn't dare to do anything to Donald.

Because the Webb family is too strong, five of my own brothers have been scrapped, and dozens of bodyguards may come in a blink of an eye. He is already a useless person. When the time comes, he will face the Webb family. Get killed?

Mr. Jones really wanted to cry without tears at this time.

Why didn't I notice that Donald turned out to be such a bastard! The subordinates said that they kicked, and the ministers in the arms completely ignored him. He was simply a beast with no heart and liver!

At this moment, the door of the presidential suite was suddenly opened.

The waiter used the universal room card to open the door of the presidential suite. Then, Cameron Isaac walked in with dozens of personal bodyguards with a cold face.

Donald didn't expect the door to be opened suddenly, but he was shocked when he saw Cameron Isaac walked in slowly with unspeakable anger and indifference.

Behind him, in addition to following the Manager who was beaten by Mr. Jones before, there were also dozens of strong bodyguards in suits.

Seeing Cameron Isaac's sudden appearance, Donald felt confused, but he didn't dare to neglect. He hurriedly put away his face full of anger, and smiled: "Isaac, why are you here?"

Unexpectedly, Cameron Isaac said with a cold face and angrily said:

"Donald, you are so brave! Do you know that Shangri-La is an industry under the name of the Wade family?"

Donald's expression suddenly stunned, and he couldn't help but wonder, is this Cameron Isaac taking the wrong pill?

I was still chatting and laughing with me before, so why didn't I have too much effort in the conference, so I changed into such an inhumane face?

Or even call yourself a dog? !

However, no matter how unhappy he was, he knew that he could not offend Cameron Isaac.

Therefore, Donald hurriedly said respectfully: "Mr. Cameron, of course I know that Shangri-La is the industry of the Wade family. To be honest, my admiration for the Wade family is really like a surging river, and I hope I can rely on you. , Get acquainted with the Wade family, and I will serve the Wade family in the future..”

Cameron Isaac looked at Donald, raised his hand and slapped him severely, then kicked him to the ground.

Chapter 732

Donald screamed, and fell to the ground in pain, panic in his heart.

Sean, who was next to him, subconsciously rebuked angrily: “Hey, why are you hitting my dad?!”

Cameron Isaac strode to him and hit his nose with a punch. He was covered with blood and yelled: “Your dad has to be respectful in front of me. Who are you to dare talk to me like this?! Tired of living? Believe it or not, I will kill you now?”

“You’re looking for death!” Sean grew up so old and had never suffered from being beaten, so he ate twice today.

First Charlie Wade scrapped one of his own hands, and then Cameron Isaac smashed his nose with a punch.

He was spoiled and arrogant since he was a child. How could he ever suffer such a crime?

So angrily roared: “Do you think that you are the Wade family’s dog? That’s great? My Webb family is the first family in the south of the Yangtze River. I will kill you in a minute!”

As soon as Sean’s voice fell, Donald rushed over, slapped his face with a slap, and angrily cursed: “Bastard thing! How do you talk to Mr.

Cameron?! Hurry up to Mr. Cameron. Kneel down and admit your mistakes!”

Donald was shocked by Sean at this time.

He couldn’t think that his own son was so useless, he couldn’t even tell the situation?

Even if Cameron Isaac was just the Wade family’s dog, the Wade family is standing behind him!

Who are the Wade Family? One of the top three families in the country!

In terms of financial resources, the Webb family may not be one-tenth the Wade family.

Because the Wade family is a trillion-level family, but whether it is one trillion or nine trillion, no one can figure out.

After all, a behemoth like the Wade Family can never be seen through by ordinary people!

When it comes to power and status, the Wade Family is far more numerous than the Webb Family!

Therefore, even if Cameron Isaac kills the two of them now, the Webb family will definitely not dare to react!

Even his own father, Mr. Webb, might not even care about holding a funeral for himself until he first went to Eastcliff and pleaded guilty to the Wade family!

Sean even dared to scold Cameron Isaac at this time. Isn’t this looking for death? !

After Sean was slapped, he realized that he had caused a catastrophe.

Apart from anything else, he immediately knelt in front of Cameron Isaac in fear, kowtow and begged for mercy: “I’m sorry, Mr. Cameron! I was impulsive! ”

Cameron Isaac went up and kicked him in the chest. After kicking him down, he went up and stepped on his face, and said coldly: “Boy, you have offended the Wade family. Believe it or not, I can make your Webb family extinct! ”

Sean's face was swollen just now, and now Cameron Isaac stepped on his face. He couldn't speak clearly, but he could only insist on saying: "Isaac, I'm really wrong. You beat me and scolded me. Anyway, please don't be like me..."

Seeing that his son was beaten like this, Donald felt distressed and couldn't help asking: "Mr. Cameron, I have my heartfelt respect for you. If you are dissatisfied with us, please tell me. , If someone Webb really did something wrong, I am willing to be punished, but you have to make me understand!"

Mr. Cameron sneered, and said, "Your heartfelt respect? You respect me, so you let these silly dog bodyguards of your Webb family rush into my Shangri-La lobby. In my Shangri-La lobby, and hurt my Shangri-La people? Then if you don't respect me, will you even call me?"

Donald was struck by lightning! What? His bodyguard actually beat Cameron Isaac's men in the lobby of Shangri-La?

Which thing with no brain did this? Thinking of this, Donald's icy eyes fell on Mr. Jones and the others. Needless to say, he also knows that it must be one of these five people who caused the catastrophe!

Chapter 733

Donald was extremely angry, staring at the five people kneeling on the ground, and asked coldly: "Who did it? Or did the five of you do it together?!"

Feeling the killing intent in Donald's eyes, Mr. Jones was shocked. He hurriedly said, "Mr. Webb, it's not us to blame! We have already explained to the security guard at the door and the lobby manager and said we are Webb. People at home, but they insisted that our manners were disordered and that we were not allowed to come in, I was anxious to return to you, so I broke into the hotel and clashed with them..."

Hearing this, Donald suddenly became angry. He slapped on the face and cursed: "It's really a bunch of trash! Can Shangri-La also be something you can break through?!"

As he said, he immediately said to Cameron Isaac: "Mr. Cameron! These five wastes attacked your people, I want you to kill them!"

In fact, Donald couldn't wait for Cameron Isaac to drag these five people away and kill them. They are five wastes anyway, and leaving them in the world will only waste your own money.

Cameron Isaac also knew Donald's wishful thinking, and said coldly:

"Donald, are you the boss? If you don't help your little brother, you will sell your own people if something happens. Your Webb family's work is really true. Too low-level, isn't it? If it's spread out, how do you Webb family still mix?"

Donald was suddenly shocked.

What does Cameron Isaac mean? He has already handed over all the five people who are looking for things to him. He still holds on to him? However, he dared not yell at Cameron Isaac, so he could only suppress the soaring anger in his heart, walked to Cameron Isaac's body, and apologized: "Isaac, this matter is my fault. I apologize to you!"

After speaking, he said again: "In order to express my apologies, I am willing to spend 10 million Dollar for the medical expenses and mental damage expenses of the injured staff. I hope you can forgive the Webb family for this mistake. What do you think? "

In his opinion, although Cameron Isaac is the spokesperson of the Wade family in Aurouss Hilll, after all, he is also the second-generation heir of the Webb family somehow, and he also paid out 10 million as compensation. No matter what, the other party will not be because This trivial matter will cause conflict and disharmony with the southern region Webb family, right?

Unexpectedly, Cameron Isaac's face was still cold at this time, and said, "Do you think that my dignified Eastcliff Wade family cares about ten million Dollar? According to your statement, I will now let people beat you father and son into rubbish. , And give another 20 million to Mr. Webb who is far away in Eastcliff. Even if this matter is over, do you agree?!"

As soon as these words came out, Donald's expression was so ugly and ugly.

He never expected that Cameron Isaac would be so stubborn!

The few of my own non-eyed subordinates just beat a lobby manager in a small area. What's the big deal?

Moreover, the other party didn't suffer multiple injuries. Cameron Isaac had to chat with himself here for this?

With Cameron Isaac's tough attitude, if someone else came over, Donald would have let him be broken into pieces!

You know, throughout the southern region, the second-generation heir to the dignified Webb family, when did he suffer such grievances?

But having said that, he never dared to offend Cameron Isaac, after all, he was the spokesperson of the Wade family in Aurouss Hilll.

As the second-generation heir of the Webb family, once there is a conflict with Cameron Isaac, it means that the Webb family is directly provoking the authority of the Wade family.

In this way, it will definitely bring great trouble to the whole family!

Once Eastcliff Wade family asks the guilt, and fights for it, the Webb family is bound to fall into an abyss that cannot be restored!

Therefore, he could only endure the anger deep in his heart and did not immediately break out. He was very aware of the current affairs and smiled and said: "Mr. Cameron, I said the wrong thing. I apologize to you. I hope you won't remember the misdeed!"

Chapter 734

After speaking, he licked his lips and said: "Mr. Cameron, how do you want to solve this matter today? As long as you give a solution, Webb will do everything you can to do the way you said!"

Cameron Isaac smiled coldly in his heart, and secretly said in his heart that this second-generation heir of the Webb family is quite capable of bending and stretching, and sure enough.

However, today they provoke their own young master, it is really impossible for me to come!

Had it not been for the command of the young master, Cameron Isaac would have waited to cut them off immediately!

He snorted coldly and said, "I'm sorry, I don't accept your apology, nor will the Eastcliff Wade family accept it!"

Donald held back his anger and asked in a low voice, "Mr. Cameron, how do you want to solve it?"

Cameron Isaac said coldly: "Your five men injured my people with their legs. I want to abolish all the legs of these five people!"

As soon as these words came out, Donald immediately said without hesitation: "No problem! Since Mr. Cameron has spoken, these five people's legs will be at your disposal!"

As soon as Mr. Jones heard this, he suddenly collapsed and shouted:

"Donald! You can't be like this, right?! The five of us have already had our arms destroyed. If our legs are destroyed, what is the difference with the living dead?! "

Donald scolded coldly: "Damn, your arms were scrapped because you were inferior to human skills, and your legs were scrapped because you offended Mr. Cameron. This is all your fault, you deserve it!"

"You..." Mr. Jones roared angrily: "Donald, you are an old tortoise bastard! If I knew you were such a face, I Mr. Jones should screw your head off!"

Donald was furious and said to Cameron Isaac: "Mr. Cameron, you see, for this kind of bastard thing, you break their legs, it is all kind of grace to them! Such people should be killed directly. !"

Cameron Isaac smiled playfully and said: "They were damned originally, but I saw the carved calligraphy on their foreheads, and felt that the five of them had to live well to be worthy of the artwork on their foreheads."

Donald's face suddenly became a little ugly.

The foreheads of these five people were all engraved with words that insulted the Webb family. Cameron Isaac actually said that these words are works of art. Isn't that an insult to the Webb family?

However, he dared not pretend to force Cameron Isaac.

So I can only laugh with him and say: "Since Mr. Cameron, you think they are alive, please interrupt their legs and let them be a useless person forever!"

Cameron Isaac nodded playfully, and his opponent said, "Come on, first interrupt these five dog legs for me!"

Donald breathed a sigh of relief. It seems that Cameron Isaac can calm down his anger this time. However, he felt wrong again in an instant!

Cameron Isaac just said, "First" interrupt the legs of these five dogs? ! Why is it first? Is there anything after?

Chapter 735

Before Donald had figured out what Cameron Isaac's remark meant, Cameron Isaac's men had already moved!

His subordinates are also top masters, but if you really talk about strength, no one may be better than Mr. Jones.

However, Mr. Jones is now half a dead dog, and it may be okay to deal with ordinary people, but dealing with experts is simply a waste.

Therefore, facing Cameron Isaac's men, he has no opportunity to refute or resist.

Charlie Wade had already planned his destiny in advance! Mr. Jones's heart was extremely desperate and dead. I never dreamed that I would end up like this!

If your legs are also abolished, wouldn't you be completely cold in this life? At that time, I will be a d*ck with a broken arm and leg, lying on the bed, unable to move, and not even capable of taking care of himself...

At this time, Cameron Isaac's men stepped forward to Mr. Jones and the others, and the first one started with Mr. Jones.

The man said coldly to some of his men, "Hold his legs for me!"

Several men immediately stepped forward and pressed Mr. Jones's legs to the ground.

Immediately afterwards, the man took out a finger tiger made of pure steel from his arms, put it on his hand, and slammed it against Mr.

Jones's right knee. The whole knee was suddenly broken into slag.

Mr. Jones suddenly felt a piercing pain, and kept wailing.

But this is only halfway through!

The other party then slammed on the knee of his other leg again, and with a click, the knee cracked.

Afterwards, this person kept breaking all the legs of these five bodyguards!

There was a wailing in the living room of the presidential suite. Donald's complexion did not change the slightest. These five people, he couldn't wait to kill them directly, so he didn't care about their current fate.

I only care if Cameron Isaac is satisfied.

If not satisfied, what else would he want? !

So he asked Cameron Isaac: "Mr. Cameron, I don't know the result now, are you still satisfied?"

Cameron Isaac said coldly: "Of course not satisfied!"

Donald trembled all over, and hurriedly asked: "Mr. Cameron, how can you be satisfied?"

Cameron Isaac looked at him with a cold expression in his eyes: "It's very simple, I want you and your son to have a leg!"

"What!?" Donald looked startled and blurted out: "Mr. Cameron, are you kidding too much?"

Cameron Isaac squinted his eyes and asked him, "Which one of your eyes saw me joking with you?!"

Donald stepped back involuntarily in fright, and blurted out in a panic: "Mr. Cameron, the person under his hand has had a little conflict because of a little misunderstanding, why should you take this seriously?"

As he said, he lowered his posture and said in a humble tone: "If Webb did not hear well in any way, please ask Mr. Cameron to make it clear that Webb will make all efforts to correct it. You don't need to continue to hold onto it. It hurts the harmony between our two families, right?"

Cameron Isaac said coldly: "Only your Webb family is worthy to talk to the Wade family about peace? Are you a fart?"

After all, Cameron Isaac sternly shouted: "If you want to survive, just let me get rid of a leg, otherwise, nobody can save you today!"

Donald trembled in shock! This Cameron Isaac is going to be real! Want a leg by yourself? ! What a joke!

He is the eldest son of the Webb family and the second-generation heir of the Webb family!

In the whole southern region, I can be said to be under one person and over ten thousand people, and the only person above him is his own Father.

The Webb family is strong throughout the southern region, and it is always the Webb family bullying others. When has it been bullied by others? !

This Cameron Isaac rushed in and beat him up with his son, but for the Wade Family's face, he could bear it.

However, he actually wants to break the legs of himself and his son, how can he accept it? !

If this were to be spread out, wouldn't the Webb family be discredited? !

Thinking of this, he plucked up courage and shouted sharply: "Cameron Isaac! Don't go too far! Do you think you are a member of the Wade family? You are just a subordinate of the Wade family! Who gave you the courage to let you dare Against my Webb family?! Even if my Webb family is not as strong as the Wade family, it is still the first family in the south of the Yangtze River. I don't believe that the Wade family will indulge you like this?!"

Chapter 736

Cameron Isaac smiled playfully: "Do you want to know who gave me the courage? I'm sorry, it was Master Wade!"

If it was normal, he was just a spokesperson for the Wade family, and he really didn't dare to directly conflict with the Webb family on behalf of the Wade family, let alone interrupt the legs of Webb's parents and grandson.

However, today's decision was not made by myself, but by my young master! If his young master said he wanted to kill the Webb family and his son, he would immediately follow suit, and the Wade family would definitely support the protection!

Therefore, Cameron Isaac has no scruples at all.

Donald and his son were stunned! Is Master Wade going to deal with himself? However, when did you offend Master Wade? ! I don't even know Master Wade!

At this moment, if they were killed, they couldn't know that Charlie Wade, the well-known trash son in Aurouss Hilll, was actually the young master of the Wade Family!

Donald said in a panic: "Mr Cameron, is there any misunderstanding in this? When did we offend Master Wade?"

Cameron Isaac was too lazy to explain to them, sneered, and said to the people around him: "First discard that small leg! Then discard the old one!"

As soon as the voice fell, the man in black around him rushed to Sean! Sean was scared! He was pressed to the ground by the man in black and shouted: "Dad! Hurry up and help Dad! Dad, help me!"

Donald was trembling even at his teeth!

I thought that Shangri-La was the safest place, but I didn't expect it to be the real wolf den!

This Cameron Isaac, relying on being a member of the Wade family, is confident, what can he do now? beg for mercy? He doesn't buy it at all! Show your identity? He doesn't care at all!

Go head-to-head with him? Is there anyone else available around me?

Thinking of this, his heart was completely ashes! He knew that he could not save his son. I can't even save myself!

At this moment, the black man wearing a finger tiger's punch suddenly fell!After the click, Sean howled sadly like a slaughtered pig!His right leg is useless! The right hand and right leg are all dead at this time! Moreover, the injury of the right leg is too serious, and there is no possibility of recovery!

In other words, in the future, he, the dignified eldest son of the Webb family, will become a lame ridiculed by others! Sean burst into tears immediately! How could this be! Why is this happening? !

What kind of place is Aurouss Hilll? Why do you feel that this small city is full of devastating demons! Donald was heartbroken. The one he loves most is the eldest son.

After all, the eldest son will inherit his mantle in the future, and he has always been a focus of training. Unexpectedly, it turned out to be a disabled person now!

And his second son is still that shit swallowing beast that eats shit every hour...

Why is your own destiny so miserable? !

At this time, Cameron Isaac pointed to Donald who was indignant in his heart, and said to the black man: "Come on, this old guy!"

Donald snorted in his heart, his legs softened involuntarily, and he knelt on the ground with a thump..

Cameron Isaac looked at him who was kneeling, and laughed coldly: "Oh, Mr. Webb, why are you kneeling? Kneeling, you also have to break your leg!"

Chapter 737

Donald collapsed!

He knew that he was already powerless. When he came to Aurouss Hilll this time, instead of detecting the murderer of the younger son, he got in with his elder son's legs..

Cameron Isaac's subordinates walked to the front in three or two steps, grabbed his right leg, fists up and down..

Donald felt an extremely strong pain in his knee, and the pain almost made him faint.

He gritted his teeth and tried to stop himself from screaming, but the severe pain only made him endure for less than ten seconds, and then he let out a cry, crying!

Cameron Isaac looked at all this coldly, and snorted disdainfully: "Webb Family, for whatever the f*ck, I dare to stray wild on the Wade Family's site. This is a little punishment for you. If you dare to touch Wade Family, the Wade Family will definitely destroy your Webb Family!"

Cameron Isaac's words are loud and loud! Especially the last six words, destroy your Webb family! It was even so scary that Donald twitched violently!

what happened..... What exactly happened here..... Why does the Wade Family want to target themselves so?

If I wanted to kneel and lick the Wade family, I couldn't find a chance. Why would the Wade family hate them for being a shareholder and would punish themselves so

He can't figure it out, totally can't figure it out! He can only attribute all this to Mr. Jones's five people who fought in Shangri-La! It seems that the Wade family's majesty really does not tolerate any form of trampling, even if it is just making trouble in the Wade Family's property and beating Wade Family's insignificant subordinates, they will also be punished by the Wade Family!

Donald hates this damn Mr. Jones crazy! Blame him!

It was he who hired him, so he and his son were also implicated! At this moment, he could not wait to rush over and choke this Mr. Jones alive! Moreover, his heart was really moved to kill!

He knew that he couldn't kill people on Cameron Isaac's territory, but he had made up his mind. After leaving Shangri-La, he immediately called and asked the family to send some masters over to kill Mr. Jones and his four brothers directly, leaving them five dead.

At this time, Cameron Isaac said coldly: "I will give you ten minutes to get out of Shangri-La. If you are still in Shangri-La after ten minutes, I will have your other leg broken too!"

Donald trembled all over, and hurriedly said with sincerity and fear: "Mr. Cameron, let's go now! Let's go!"

After speaking, he jumped to his son's side, reached out to help him, tearful, and comforted: "Son, let's go back home. Dad must find the best orthopedic doctor to treat your leg!"

Sean also cried in a mess. With the help of his father, he got up with difficulty and cried and said, "Dad...can my legs be cured?"

"Yes, it will definitely be possible!" Donald also knew that the knee has been completely shattered, and there is almost no possibility of cure. Even if all the artificial joints are replaced, there will be serious damage in the future, even if it is not a lame, it is a lame man. It is absolutely impossible to restore the appearance of a normal person. However, he cannot see his son that way. He is still young after all! So, he didn't dare to pack things anymore, and supported each other with his son, and walked to the door of the presidential suite. At this time, Cameron Isaac suddenly smiled and said: "Hold on!"

Chapter 738

Donald trembled all over, turned around, and asked nervously, "Mr. Cameron, what do you want to say?"

Cameron Isaac pointed to Mr. Jones and other five people lying on the ground, and said coldly: "You two, drag me out these five dead dogs, don't dirty my Shangri-La place!"

"I..." Donald was anxious, almost vomiting blood!

After a while, he came back to his senses and blurted out: "Mr. Cameron, these five people have nothing to do with the Webb family anymore, you can do it at will! You want to kill or smash it!"

Cameron Isaac said coldly: "Did you forget what I just said? These five people have works of art on their foreheads. You brought them back to Webb's house, waited on me and let them live well, and you must not let them die. , Let alone remove the artwork on their foreheads, understand?" artwork.....

Donald looked at Mr. Jones and the five of them with resentment. Every word on the forehead of these five people was like a sharp knife, slamming his heart!

Now, Cameron Isaac actually asked him to take these five people home to serve? This is really too humiliating! However, he did not dare to have the slightest temper. What can you humiliate yourself? What should be received, still have to be received!

It seems that at the moment I can only deal with him first, take these five people away and bring them back home, and then let them evaporate! Just as thinking about this, Cameron Isaac said again: "Yes, I forgot to remind you, these five people are to be brought home, you will let them live well, and they will be sent to Aurouss Hilll by special plane every once in a while for my inspection. I want the life of one of your sons; if two people die, I want the life of a pair of your sons; if three people die, your dog's life is mine!"

Donald Webb's body trembled violently with anger! This...this is shit riding on the neck! What exactly does Cameron Isaac have against my Webb family? Why do you want to humiliate yourself in such an extremely insulting way? However, how dare he say a word to Cameron Isaac?

So I could only cry and nod: "Mr. Cameron, what you say is what..."

Cameron Isaac was satisfied and said coldly: "Okay, you two, get out with them behind your back!"

Donald begged: "Mr. Cameron, I broke my leg, my son also broke his leg, and he also broke his hand earlier today. We two disabled people, how can we carry these five people on their backs... .. Please forgive us, or please arrange some of your subordinates to help carry them out..."

Cameron Isaac asked coldly: "If you don't carry it, don't you? Don't leave if you don't carry . I will break your hands and feet. The seven of you are lying here together waiting for the Webb family to pick you up!"

Sean suddenly collapsed and cried: "Mr. Cameron...how did we make you unhappy, please give us a good time, don't torture me and my dad, I'll kowtow to you!"

With that, Sean, who had broken his leg, knelt on the ground with difficulty and kept kowtow with one hand supporting it.

He is really scared! And I'm so scared!

What the hell is the top luxury Shangri-La, this is simply Hell on earth!

I just want to escape now, escape back to the southern region, escape back to my own home, then lock myself up and lick the wounds alone.

What happened today is really humiliating, and he will not even want to go out to meet people in the next few years!

Cameron Isaac didn't buy anything for his kneeling and kowtow, and said coldly: "Well, I have already said, either you two will get me away from these five dogs, or you will become such dead dogs just like them. There are only two roads, choose your own!"

Donald hurriedly and humbly pleaded: "Mr. Cameron, don't be angry, we will get them all out, even if it is crawling, we will drag all five of them out!"

Chapter 739

With Donald's complete compromise, the injured and lame father and son can only leaned down with a gray face and tried their best to prepare to carry Mr. Jones and others out of the Shangri-La Hotel.

However, the two had already become disabled, and Sean was even more miserable, having broken hands and feet, so carrying these five profuse sweats was simply extremely difficult.

The father and son took the lead in dragging Mr. Jones out, and every time they took a step, they both panted with exhaustion.

Not only was he tired, but the leg that was broken was even more painful. However, neither of them dared to yell at this time, so they could only grit their teeth and persist.

Cameron Isaac hugged his shoulders, as if watching a good show, watching the father and son exert all their energy, and drag the five people to the square outside Shangri-La Hotel one after another like a shitball. Donald slumped on the ground tiredly and raised his hand to wipe off his sweat. Then he asked Cameron Isaac: "Mr. Cameron, are you satisfied now?"

Cameron Isaac nodded and said coldly: "But you took too long. I let you do it in ten minutes. How about you? It took an hour!"

"I'm really sorry..." Donald said humiliatingly: "The legs and feet of Sean and I are indeed inconvenient. It is a waste of your precious time."

Cameron Isaac snorted, and said, "You know it!"

Afterwards, he said sharply: "This square at the entrance is also my site for Shangri-La. Hurry up and let people come and pick you up. If I come out later, if I see you are still there, I will break your other leg!"

After Cameron Isaac finished speaking, he turned and left the scene.

The father and son were left almost desperate.

Sean cried and asked Donald at this time: "Dad, what shall we do now? I want to go back to the southern region, and I don't want to stay in Aurouss Hilll anymore..."

Donald gritted his teeth and said, "I will call your grandfather now and ask him to send a helicopter over to take us back!"

In fact, Donald had already broken his heart in Aurouss Hilll. At this time, he just wanted to go back and treat his legs quickly.

So Donald immediately called his father, and on the phone, he complained to his father about what happened here.

After listening to this, Mr. Webb became furious.

"The Wade Family is really deceiving people too much!"

His eldest son and eldest grandson had both broken their legs, and it was fake that Mr. Webb was not angry.

However, after getting angry, he sighed again and said, "Wait, I will contact the general aviation company in Aurouss Hilll, and hurry up to rent a helicopter to pick you up."

Donald also knew that even if his father regained his energy, there would be no way to do this. After all, the Webb family could only be regarded as ants in front of the Wade family, without any strength to compete with it.

A few minutes later, the old man called and told Donald: "The helicopter has been found. I will be there to pick you up in 15 minutes!"

"Great..." Donald even choked up.

He has never suffered such a big humiliation in his life. Now he is like a child who has been wronged outside, just thinking about being able to go home sooner.

After hanging up the phone, he said to Sean: "Your grandpa has arranged a helicopter, and it will be there in 15 minutes!"

When Sean heard this, he cried in excitement.

Donald hugged him, and the father and son cried together.

The five Mr. Jones lying on the ground also felt very complicated.

They are sad, because they are now completely useless, and may never have the chance to stand up.

But they were also very fortunate. Fortunately, Cameron Isaac came forward and asked the Webb family to take care of them and send them to be inspected by Cameron Isaac regularly.

This also means that he will not be retaliated by the Webb family and will not be killed by the Webb family. On the contrary, he will be raised by the Webb family.

Thinking about it this way, at least the future life will still have a fall, otherwise, with Donald's character, he will definitely kill himself immediately.

Chapter 740

At this moment, Kian, who had been at the Webb's Family home, suddenly called Donald.

At this time, he had just finished eating and had just regained his senses. Regardless of the stench in his mouth, he hurriedly called his father Donald.

Donald didn't expect the younger son to call him.

After all, he has been very depressed during this period of time. Every time he finishes eating, he wants to die and commit suicide. The whole person is very decadent. No one wants to see or talk.

I don't know why you are calling yourself at this time?

Could it be that I heard about what happened to my eldest son and called to comfort me?

Thinking of this, Donald felt somewhat relieved.

But after the call was connected, he heard Kian's extremely flustered voice: "Dad! It's not good! Grandpa had a heart attack just now!"

"What?!" Donald blurted out, "What's the matter? When I was talking on the phone with your grandpa just now, his voice sounded fine!"

Kian said: "Just now, a friend of my grandfather called and asked him to watch a video on Facebook, and I showed it to him. As a result, he suffered a heart attack after watching it! Now the medical team at home is trying to rescue him. Fortunately, there is no danger to life"

"Video? What video?!" Donald said anxiously: "What kind of video is the old man who has nothing to watch? Are you scared by the horror videos above?"

"No..." Kian blurted out: "There is a pair of father and son with lettering on their foreheads. They said that a cross talk was sent to Facebook!"
"Crosstalk?!" Donald didn't understand even more.

Then he suddenly asked: "What did you just say, lettering on your forehead?"

"Yes!" Kian said hurriedly: "They introduced themselves, and said one was called Mrr.. Lloyd and the other was Marcus!"

Donald is even more surprised!

What happened to these two father and son?

Yes indeed!

When I saw that Mr. Jones and the others had become useless and had their foreheads engraved on them, I was shocked that they were not enough, and I completely forgot about Mrr.. Lloyd and his son.

Where did these two go?

Said the cross talk went?

So, he asked in amazement: "What did these two talk about on video? How could you have your grandpa's heart attack?"

Kian said: "I probably watched a little bit. Their video is all about scolding our family. The scolding is really terrible! They not only tease me about eating shit, they also tease you and my brother. With my mother and my grandpa!"

"f*ck!" Donald was furious, and scolded: "The father and son named Lloyd are guilty of having a bear heart and a leopard! Dare to take our Webb family for fun?!"

After speaking, he immediately said to Sean: "Quickly open Facebook and search for Mrr.. Lloyd Marcus's video!"

Sean was very surprised. He didn't know why his father wanted to watch Facebook suddenly, let alone why Mrr.. Lloyd, Marcus and his son would talk about on Facebook.

However, he obediently took out his phone, turned on Facebook, searched Mrr.. Lloyd and Marcus, and suddenly came out a video that had been liked more than a million times!

He subconsciously clicked on it, and the voices of Mrr.. Lloyd, Marcus and his son came out.

Donald also hurried over to listen. It didn't matter if he heard it, the expressions of the father and son were getting more and more ugly!

Halfway through hearing this, Donald hated him, and almost wanted to take a knife himself and cut Mrr.. Lloyd, Marcus and his son thousands of times!

Do not! Thousands of knives can't solve the hatred in my heart!

Chapter 741

It's not just Donald who is angry. Sean was also angry!

This "cross talk" between Mrr.. Lloyd and Marcus and his son almost crushed and humiliated the entire Webb family on the ground!

Even after the humiliation was over, the father and son pissed on them!

What makes them even more unacceptable!

This cross talk was spread to Facebook and made it public all over the Internet!

Since the Webb family is the first family in the south of the Yangtze River, it can be regarded as having a good face in the country, so this cross talk so openly mocked them, satirized them, and insulted them, and it exploded in the circle of netizens!

On the one hand, people are curious, what is the origin of these two foreheads? You dare to insult the Webb family so much, isn't this looking for death?

On the other hand, people also like to watch this kind of big family drama, so everyone started to pay attention to this video, so it immediately got a huge amount of attention.

Now the whole network is spreading this cross talk frantically. Countless people reposted, liked, commented, and even reposted it on Facebook, Instagram, Tik Tok, WeChat groups, and QQ groups. The popularity is extremely high.

Donald Webb was enraged, so he immediately took out his cell phone and called his local underground spokesperson in Eastcliff. As soon as he came up, he said, "I want the lives of Mrr.. Lloyd and Marcus and his son! Today! I want it tonight!"

The other party was surprised and asked, "Master Webb, is it because of the Facebook video?"

"Why are you so fcking bullshit?!" When Donald heard that he also mentioned the Facebook video, he knew that this matter had spread so much, he blurted out: "Find them both tonight, kill them both, I'll give you 20 million, if you can't find it or kill them, I'll fcking kill you!" "Okay, Lord Webb, I'll take ten carts to Aurouss Hill overnight, and find them if I say anything, kill them both, and give this breath to Lord Webb!"

But Donald didn't know. At this moment, Mrr.. Lloyd's family had already drove on the highway overnight and rushed all the way to Eastcliff. After arrangements were made to kill Mrr.. Lloyd and his son, Donald immediately called a friend.

As soon as he came up, he said to the other party: "Mr. Phillips, did you see that video on Facebook?"

"I saw it." The other party couldn't help asking: "Old Webb, what's the background of this person, dare to fight against you like this?"

Donald said coldly: "Just leave it alone, I have sent someone to kill them. I called you to ask you for a favor."

"You said."

Donald said: "I have 30 million. Please help me contact the public relations company and the operation of Facebook, and help me delete this video. It is best to block the entire network and don't let it spread again!"

Now, celebrities, celebrities, and entrepreneurs all have special crisis public relations.

Once the negatives broke out on the Internet, you can immediately spend a lot of money on it, and all kinds of online searches and news can be removed.

Therefore, what Donald thought at this time was to quickly spend money to remove all the videos. After the removal, there will be no new transmissions, so after a while, people will naturally forget about this. Or, when someone else's news breaks out, everyone's eyes will be attracted by the other person, and then they will be relieved.

The other party thought for a while and said, "Mr. Webb, you have too much influence in this matter. If you want to completely suppress it, 30 million is not enough!"

Donald immediately said: "Then you make an offer! How much can you suppress it!"

The other party hesitated for a while and said: "Well, I won't say 100 million, don't say 50 million, you give me 70 million, I promise to delete this video permanently on Facebook!"

"Okay!" Donald blurted out: "I will arrange for someone to make money now!"

Soon, Donald arranged his own finances and immediately remitted 70 million Dollar to the other company.

While Donald was waiting for the helicopter, the video was deleted on Facebook.

At this moment, Charlie Wade was in the kitchen, cooking while watching the volume of video plays and likes soaring.

Marcus's phone is in front of him, and his Facebook account is about to explode at this time!

Charlie Wade liked his black humor very much, and felt that it was a very murderous punishment for the Webb family.

Chapter 742

However, when the number of likes exceeded 1.5 million, his Facebook suddenly prompted: "Your account has been permanently banned for posting illegal videos!"

Charlie Wade frowned suddenly. What the hell? Permanent ban?

He immediately took out his mobile phone and searched for the cross talk between Mr. Lloyd and his son, and found that the entire Facebook had been deleted cleanly!

He suddenly realized that this must be Donald who spent money to do crisis deletion public relations!

Charlie Wade didn't expect that Donald could still use this method to curb the spread of the video, and he was suddenly a little annoyed.

After thinking about it, he took out his cell phone and called Stephen Thompson who was far away in Eastcliff.

If Cameron Isaac is only one of the many spokespersons of the Wade family, but Stephen Thompson is the only steward of the Wade family.

In other words, in the entire Wade family, except for the surname Wade, he is the top.

After the phone call, Stephen Thompson immediately said respectfully:

"Hello Master, you haven't called me for a long time."

Charlie Wade gave a hum, and said, "I called you now. I want to ask you for help."

Stephen Thompson hurriedly said: "Master, you are serious. You are the young master of the Wade family, and I am a servant of the Wade family. If you have anything to do, just tell me!"

Charlie Wade said, "I want to ask you, how much is Facebook worth now?"

Stephen Thompson thought for a while, and said: "If you calculate it based on the valuation, there are some elements of false reporting. The declared valuation should be about 130 billion Dollar."

Charlie Wade asked again: "If you buy it directly? How much is the price?"

Stephen Thompson said: "If the price is one price, it will be between 80 billion and 90 billion."

Charlie Wade asked again: "Can you buy Facebook for me?"

"Yes!" Stephen Thompson said immediately: "Master, wait a moment, I will let people contact the boss of Facebook. I believe he will not refuse the offer from the Wade family."

Charlie Wade said in his heart, as long as Facebook bought it, he would put that crosstalk on the homepage of Facebook users across the country, asking them to open Facebook, and they would see that crosstalk.

Don't your Webb family want to delete the video with me? I f*cking bought this video company directly, I see how you delete it!

At this time, Donald didn't know that Charlie Wade had already started to buy Facebook.

He searched the video several times, and finally heaved a sigh of relief after finding that there was no video.

However, his anger towards Mrr.. Lloyd and Marcus did not diminish at all. Moreover, he thought carefully about the details.

Marcus had long been engraved with the word "Pathetic Jerk" on his forehead. I knew this, but Mrr.. Lloyd's forehead had not been engraved before. When I saw him today, he was fine.

In other words, this video should have been shot after Mr. Jones was defeated and abandoned by Charlie Wade.

Moreover, in the video, the father and son laughed more ugly than they cried. It should be the video that someone threatened them to film.

Anyway, who threatened them? It seems that there is only one possibility, and that is Charlie Wade! Thinking of this, Donald gritted his teeth bitterly! The surname is Wade, I will kill you one day! Otherwise, I will be called a person in vain!

Chapter 743

Just when Donald finally breathed a sigh of relief because Facebook's video was deleted, he never dreamed that Facebook had already completed the transaction with the Wade Family in Eastcliff.

Eastcliff Wade Family acquired Facebook wholly-owned for 85 billion.

Before this news was released, the Wade family had already begun to take over Facebook's operations.

The first thing they did was to restore Marcus's deleted account, as well as the deleted hot video.

Immediately afterwards, the technicians through the setting, let all the mobile users across the country, the first time they turn on the app, they will see this video directly on the screen!

Donald didn't know that things had changed a hundred and eighty degrees.

When he was waiting for the helicopter to come over, he suddenly received another call from Kian.

Kian yelled in panic on the phone: "Dad, what's going on, why is the video playing when the Facebook app is turned on?! Now the number of likes has exceeded two million, I asked many people, when they open the app this video plays!"

"What?!" Donald exclaimed suddenly and blurted out: "Are you sure? I just spent 70 million to solve this problem, there is no reason to come up again!"

Kian said confidently: "Of course I'm sure. I saw it myself. As long as you open the app, it's that section. I also asked several people that their app is like this. Dad, what should I do now... .."

Donald said with a black face, "Let me see what is going on!"

After speaking, he immediately hung up and asked Sean to turn on Facebook. really!

As soon as Facebook is turned on, it is the crosstalk by Mrr.. Lloyd and Marcus by default!

He was so angry that he immediately called the person who was in crisis public relations, and blurted out: "Mr. Phillips, are you playing me so much? How come the video is released again?! And all users will see it by default! "

The other party said embarrassingly: "Oh, Mr. Webb, I just received the news. You can't blame me for this. The main reason is that Eastcliff Wade's family just bought Facebook and paid 85 billion in cash. The other party did not hesitate. They just sold it..."

"What are you talking about?!" Donald went crazy and exclaimed: "The Wade family bought Facebook whole?"

"That's right!" Mr. Phillips said embarrassingly, "Just now, they contacted Facebook's boss directly and quoted a cash purchase price. The other party agreed without hesitation. You know, the world recently The economy is not so good. The entrepreneurs who start their own businesses want to get rid of their hands and realize it. At such a high price, they are paid directly in one lump sum, and there is no resistance at all..." As he said, the other party hurriedly said: "Mr. Webb, don't be angry, the 70 million, I will leave it as it is, and I will immediately let the finance call you back! This time I'm really sorry, brother, I can do nothing. !"

Donald was shocked! What is the Wade Family's purpose? So how can a big family smash with a small character like yourself?

He didn't offend the Wade family much! It's nothing more than five of your own dogs, who injured Wade's servants in Shangri-La. Is it necessary to revenge yourself so frantically?

In order to make a fool of myself, even bought Facebook directly? ! At this moment, Donald still didn't know that Charlie Wade's son-in-law would have anything to do with the Eastcliff Wade family.

In his mind, he instinctively thought that these were two completely different things.

One is that he offended Charlie Wade, Charlie Wade injured his subordinates, and recorded a cross talk between Mrr.. Lloyd and Marcus; One was that his subordinates offended the Wade family, and the Wade family protected their assets. Starting from Cameron Isaac to the Wade family, they began to have trouble with themselves.

It must be a coincidence that these two incidents collided together on Facebook. It should be that the Wade family saw this video and wanted to use this video to humiliate the Webb family, but found out that they had deleted the video by crisis PR, so they simply put it. Facebook bought it.

Eighty-five billion in cash, you can take it, this boldness is indeed a top big family!

Chapter 744

Even though the Webb family's assets are around 200 billion Dollar, the proportion of cash is actually not so much, at most less than 10 billion Dollar.

A family is like a family. If a family has 2 million assets, it does not mean that they have 2 million cash. The house may be worth 1.3 million, a car worth 200,000, and Miscellaneous other things are worth two hundred thousand Dollar, and finally there are two hundred thousand Dollar in cash.

With so many assets and cash, there are only two million.

Therefore, the Webb family has a net worth of 200 billion Dollar, and the real cash proportion is not much.

If they were to buy Facebook for 85 billion, they would have to sell nearly half of their assets.

However, the Wade family is different.

No one knows exactly how much assets and cash the Wade family has. In short, they bought things with a lot of money.

The imperial group of 100 billion, buy it when you say buy; the steep tone of 85 billion, buy it when you say it!

Donald was a little frightened in his heart. The Wade family was so willing to spend the capital to deal with the Webb family. Could it be that they were going to fight the Webb family to the end?

If this is the case, wouldn't the Webb family want to be cool? Just as he was panicking, there was a roar from far and near in the sky. The helicopter arranged by Mr. Webb is here.

This is a heavy civilian helicopter with a large fuselage that can accommodate at least ten people. This time, not only will Donald and his son be taken away, but also Mr. Jones's five wastes will be taken away. Donald saw that the helicopter had hovered over his head and was slowly descending, his flustered heart eased slightly.

For him, it is more important that nothing goes home now. For big things, you can wait to go home before slowly discussing solutions. At this moment, Cameron Isaac stepped out of the Shangri-La Hotel.

Behind him were dozens of black-clothed bodyguards de deer, with a murderous look on their faces. Donald trembled for a while when he saw this scene.

He originally thought that the Wade family might not really want to rip apart with the Webb family, it was likely that Cameron Isaac was good at making opinions.

However, the news that the Wade Family bought Facebook directly made him realize that this was not Cameron Isaac's advocacy, but that the entire Wade Family was targeting the Webb Family!

That's why he was flustered, limped up to meet him, nodded and bowed his head and said, "Mr. Cameron, we will get out of here. It won't delay you too long. Please forgive me, and I ask you to talk to the Wade family. To say a few good things, thousands of mistakes are all the fault of the Webb family. The Webb family will definitely go to Eastcliff to apologize in a few days. I also ask the Wade family to have a lot of them. Don't be familiar with our kind of hanging silk family... .."

Donald is really scared.

In order to use a video to humiliate the Webb family, the Wade family can buy Facebook for 85 billion Dollar. If the Wade family really wants to kill the Webb family, they don't know what terrifying power they will use!

Cameron Isaac looked at Donald coldly at this time, and said contemptuously: "Just you, are you worthy to go to the Wade family to make an apology? Don't look at what you count as a thing!"

Donald's face suddenly flushed red! Yes, I don't deserve to visit Wade's house..

At this time, Cameron Isaac yelled in a cold voice: "Let your helicopter roll farther away, don't fall on my Shangri-La, otherwise, I will have your helicopter dismantled, and then you and your son His other leg is also broken! Let you climb out of Aurouss Hilll for me!"

Chapter 745

The helicopter is now overhead. Just let it land, and the people inside will lift up their father and son and these five dead dogs, and they can take off in less than ten minutes, and they can take their son home. However, Cameron Isaac was not even willing to give himself this convenience!

He couldn't help begging: "Mr. Cameron, you think our father and son are already miserable enough, so please raise your hands and let us get on the plane back home! Your great kindness, Webb will never forget!"

Cameron Isaac snorted coldly, "It's close to me? You don't take a picture of yourself without soaking urine, is it worth it?"

After speaking, Cameron Isaac waved his hand: "I have already said what I have said. If the helicopter lands, I will have the pilot pull down and break the leg. You can have the helicopter or your other leg !"

Donald was desperate. He knew that Cameron Isaac's resolute attitude was absolutely impossible to give himself this face.

So he could only sigh, and tearfully said: "Isaac, wait a minute, I'll call the pilot..."

As he said, he limped to the side and asked for the contact information of the pilot from the general aviation company to get through the phone.

The pilot received his call and hurriedly said: "Hello, Mr. Webb, I am ready to land now! Please wait a moment!"

Donald hurriedly said, "Don't land! Shangri-La will not let the helicopter land here!"

After speaking, he hurriedly asked: "Is there any place to land near here? My son and I have broken legs and feet, and can't be too far away!"

"Oh..." the pilot said embarrassingly: "Mr. Webb, this is the city. Except for the square at the entrance of Shangri-La, only the apron on the top of the Shangri-La building can land."

"That won't work either!" Donald said, "You have to avoid Shangri-La's place."

The pilot said: "This... there is an elementary school two kilometers away. We can try to land on the playground of that elementary school. This is the nearest place."

"Two kilometers?!" Donald hesitated.

Both myself and my son were lame, and both their right legs were scrapped and they could not drive the car. Is it too far to walk over? Moreover, there are these five dead dogs!

Thinking of this, he hurriedly asked: "How many people are there on your plane?"

"Three."

Donald hurriedly said, "That way, I will give you 10,000 Dollar per person. After you land the plane at that elementary school, take a taxi and pick us up. There are seven of us and our legs and feet are not very good."

The other party thought for a while and said, "Okay, Mr. Webb, wait a moment, we will pick you up after landing." The helicopter hovered overhead for a moment, then climbed and flew away.

Donald wiped away tears and said to Cameron Isaac: "Mr. Cameron, are you satisfied now?"

Cameron Isaac looked at him disgustedly: "Take your son and get out, don't appear in front of me like a fly!"

Chapter 746

After speaking, Cameron Isaac turned and left. Donald squatted on the spot, crying silently, covering his face. The dignity of a lifetime has been trampled down today! What the hell does it mean to live for this purpose?

The point is, how can I make the Wade Family? Even if this hatred is as deep as the sea today, there is no way to repay it. Is there anything more painful than this? By the way, there is more!

On the internet, the video between the Lloyd family and his son is still spreading wildly. Now the number of likes has reached more than three million, which is almost all over the Internet...

Ten minutes later, two helicopter pilots and a mechanic rushed over by taxi. Donald finally saw the savior of his life.

The three people got him and his son Sean in the car first, and then the five dead dogs in the car. The driver pulled them to the primary school playground where the helicopter was parked. The three people got all the seven people in the car. After the plane, the plane took off in the dark and hurried to the southern region.

When the Webb family and his son came to Aurouss Hilll, they came by private jet. They were extremely high-profile and arrogant!

But who could have imagined that when the two of them left, they broke their hands and feet and suffered humiliation, like a bereaved dog!

In the cabin of the plane, Donald and Sean, father and son, looked at the bustling night view of Aurouss Hilll, embracing and crying!

No one thought that this trip to Aurouss Hilll would end in such a bleak situation!

The father and son cried for a long time, and finally eased their emotions. Sean clutched his broken hand and said angrily: "Dad, I don't understand. Charlie Wade's trash is just the son-in-law of a small family. , How come there is such a strong strength, Mr. Jones and the five of them are not his opponents!"

As he said, he said angrily: "I don't know why, I always have a feeling that the Wade family is targeting us, not because Mr. Jones's trash wounded the Shangri-La people, but as if the Wade family was helping Charlie Wade!"

Donald's expression was pale, and he said, "You think too much! Charlie Wade is just a live-in son-in-law with a stronger personal strength. He may have practiced with an expert before, but he is absolutely impossible to have anything to do with the Wade Family! "

Sean said: "Then why did the Wade family help him?! And they are all named Wade, are they distant relatives?"

Donald shook his head and said, "Do you see how well the Wade family protects the calf? Even these security guards and lobby managers do not allow anyone to bully, and they can even turn their faces with the Webb family for this reason! If Charlie Wade really belongs to the Wade family A distant relative, how could the Wade family sit back and watch him as the son-in-law in Aurouss Hilll?"

Immediately, Donald said: "I heard that this Charlie Wade was very humiliated in his wife's family. The key point is that his wife's family is not even a third-rate family. If he is really a distant relative of the Wade family, the Wade family must be early So he took action to put his wife's obedience to his family!"

Speaking of this, Donald regretted it in his heart and blurted out: "I knew Charlie Wade had such a strong personal strength, so I directly mobilized a dozen or twenty masters and killed him at once! This will be done once and for all! There will be so many troubles behind!"

When he mentioned Charlie Wade, Sean felt bitter in his heart, and hurriedly asked, "Dad, what shall we do with Charlie Wade next? Everything today is due to that Charlie Wade! If it weren't for him to abolish With these five wastes of Mr. Jones, they can't offend Cameron Isaac, and the Wade family can't offend us! They definitely can't spare him!"

Donald said coldly: "The current situation is already very unfavorable to us. It is not a wise move to deal with Charlie Wade now. When we return home, we will keep a low profile for a while, and wait for the turmoil to pass, and then consider the long-term plan!"

Sean was shocked, and blurted out: "Dad, Charlie Wade made our Webb family lose face in front of the people of the whole country, so just forget it?"

Donald said with a cold face, "How could it be forgotten?! Anyone who dares to offend our Webb family must pay the price of their lives! Charlie Wade's revenge for a broken hand and the dignity of my Webb family, I must let He pays for with his blood! Let him die without a place to bury him!!!"

Chapter 747

Before Charlie Wade was cooking, Stephen Thompson called and told him that Facebook had already bought it.

He turned on Facebook and saw that the video has been restored, and it is indeed the first one to open the screen for all users. The number of likes has grown rapidly, and now it has exceeded 5 million.

This makes him feel happy. You think you can control Facebook, so I just bought Facebook. Now you are dumbfounded? What I want is this feeling! It seemed that the Webb family was really uncomfortable now.

This video, I will at least hang it on Facebook for a while. The Webb family must be uncomfortable, but they definitely have nothing to do.

When the meal was ready, Charlie Wade put away his mobile phone and came out of the kitchen with the food. Only then did he discover that his wife Claire Wilson Wilson had also returned and was sitting in the living room looking at the phone.

Not only Claire Wilson Wilson was looking at his cell phone, but his father-in-law Jacob Wilson and his mother-in-law Elaine Ma were all looking at the cell phone.

Elaine Ma sighed as he watched, "The Lloyd family and the two masters are really brave, so speaking of the Webb family, can't the Webb family kill them?"

Claire Wilson Wilson looked very nervous. She recognized Marcus in the video. The Pathetic Jerk on Marcus's forehead was the one that she watched Don Albertt carve up.

At first, I went to the hot springs with my husband Charlie Wade and my girlfriend Loreen. They had a little conflict with Marcus in the parking lot. Later, Don Albertt suddenly appeared and helped Charlie Wade beat Marcus severely.

Later, it was also Charlie Wade who asked Don Albertt to engrave the words "Pathetic Jerk" on Marcus's forehead.

Now, in the video, Marcus's father had "Father of the Pathetic Jerk" engraved on his forehead. She thought of Charlie Wade all of a sudden, and felt that this matter seemed instinctive to Charlie Wade.

So, when she saw Charlie Wade coming out of the kitchen with food, she hurriedly walked to him and asked him in a low voice, "Charlie Wade, tell me the truth, are you conflicting with Marcus and his father again? !!"

"No!" Charlie Wade lied: "I haven't seen them at all!"

"Really?" Claire Wilson Wilson frowned, remembering that when she saw Charlie Wade in Jasmine's Rolls Royce in the kitchen this morning, she couldn't help feeling jealous again.

So she asked in a low voice, "Then I ask you, when you went out this morning, why was Miss Moore picking you up?"

Charlie Wade was stunned, and immediately said seriously: "She came to pick me up because today her grandfather invited me to his birthday banquet."

"Really?" Claire Wilson Wilson didn't quite believe it.

Charlie Wade hurriedly said: "Why? Did I lie to you? Didn't I tell you that there is a friend who is going to have a birthday, he is the Lord of the Moore family."

Claire Wilson Wilson had a bad taste in her heart and mumbled and asked, "Why is Jasmine so good to you? She even drove to the door to pick you up. I think she even gave you the car door. It's very respectful. Does she like you? Huh?"

"Hey..." Charlie Wade laughed and said: "Wife, who is your husband, a hanging silk who doesn't even have a job, and it's a fool to show others Feng Shui or something. A few people, but they don't make the Moore family like them? What kind of family is the Moore family, the first family in Aurouss Hilll! Think about how they can look at me, not to mention, I am a married person, Aurouss Hilll, who doesn't know me, the soft rice king..."

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly said: "Don't be so presumptuous of yourself!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "I didn't slander myself. Isn't this all the truth? Many people saw me, and they just talked about rubbish, hanging silk, eating soft rice, and the son-in-law. Actually, I've been used to it for a long time."

Claire Wilson Wilson said earnestly: "Anyway, you are my husband, you are not a waste, nor are you eating soft food."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "My wife knows how to appreciate me. I think in Aurouss Hilll, the person who appreciates me most is you."

Chapter 748

After speaking, Charlie Wade said again: "So you see, how can Miss Moore look at hanging silk like me?"

Claire Wilson Wilson couldn't help saying: "But...but I think she really respects you! She took the initiative to get out of the car and open the door for you!"

Charlie Wade snorted and said: "She respects me because her grandfather believes in me. Her grandfather is getting older and he believes in Feng Shui fortune and fate more and more, and I am the one he trusts, so he respects me. Naturally, his granddaughter should be polite to me too. If she neglects me, her grandfather will blame her.

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded slightly. Charlie Wade's explanation seemed to be no problem. Everything can be said and explained. Thinking of this, she dispelled a lot of doubts in her heart. In fact, she was in a bad mood all day today.

When shopping with Loreen, she also seemed a little uninterested and worried.

The main reason was that she always felt that Jasmine seemed to really mean something to Charlie Wade. Otherwise, a woman has the strongest sixth sense!

She just looked from a distance and felt that Jasmine seemed to like Charlie Wade. And it really made her guess!

Fortunately, Charlie Wade's brain reacted quickly, and he immediately devalued himself before covering up this doubt in her heart. In fact, Charlie Wade knows Jasmine's affection for him deep in his heart. He is not a fool either, he also feels many things, he can see that Jasmine must have a heart for herself, and this intention is very strong. Of course, he didn't have any thoughts of betraying Claire Wilson Wilson, so to Jasmine, he had always pretended to be stupid, pretending to be confused.

Fortunately, Jasmine was more graceful and restrained, and did not take the initiative to express her feelings to herself, so she gave herself space to pretend to be confused.

At this time, Claire Wilson Wilson felt much more relieved and said, "You, don't interact too closely with these upper-class people in the future. When they believe you, they will hold you, and when they don't believe you, they will fall. If they lose you, if they really want to throw you, you are likely to suffer a big loss."

Charlie Wade nodded hurriedly and said seriously: "My wife, don't worry, I will try to keep my distance from them in the future."

Seeing his sincere attitude, Claire Wilson Wilson was a little relieved. At this time, the mother-in-law Elaine Ma came over with her mobile phone and muttered impatiently to Charlie Wade: "Can't you still eat? You run out every day without a shit, and everything about grocery shopping and cooking is delayed! Me and your dad I've been waiting hungry for a long time!"

Charlie Wade hurriedly said: "Mom, there is something wrong today, but you can rest assured that I will not delay buying vegetables and cooking in the future."

"You better remember what you said!" Elaine Ma snorted coldly, her face full of discomfort.

In fact, she had always resented Charlie Wade for what he asked Hannah to donate the money last time.

There were two million in it that belonged to her money, but now it was completely lost.

She has no money now, and can't go out and play with the old sisters. She can only stay at home by herself every day to make her sulking, so Charlie Wade is even more unpleasant.

At this time, Jacob Wilson walked over and suddenly asked, "By the way, Charlie Wade, when will our Thompson First villa be finished?"

Chapter 749

When Jacob Wilson asked about the villa, he actually wanted to help Charlie Wade.

He knew his wife's temperament and personality, plus she had recently taken gunpowder, so Jacob Wilson was also afraid that she would catch Charlie Wade, and kept sarcasm at him.

In Jacob Wilson's eyes, his son-in-law is really saving his life time and time again, so he now treats Charlie Wade as a son-in-law.

In addition, as the saying goes, a son-in-law is half a son, so when he saw Charlie Wade being scolded, he even felt sorry for his son-in-law. However, when he asked about the villa, Elaine Ma's attention was suddenly attracted!

She looked at Charlie Wade and blurted out: "Yeah, when will the villa be renovated and moved in? When I move in, I will leave a separate room with a mahjong machine so that it can be like my friend. , I asked my friend to play Mahjong in my villa!"

Charlie Wade thought to himself, playing mahjong? Do you have money to lose? Living in a large villa worth more than 100 million Dollar, you find someone to come to your house to play mahjong, and then you can't afford to lose two thousand dollars. Are you ashamed?

However, he certainly couldn't say this directly to his mother-in-law, that is, he mocked her in his heart.

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade didn't bother to be familiar with his mother-in-law, and said lightly: "I saw Mr. White today. He said that the villa is basically installed, but furniture and appliances are missing. If we want to move in, we can buy some furniture. Put home appliances in, and then you can move."

"Great!" Jacob Wilson was very happy when he heard that the villa could live in.

Elaine Ma on the side was also very excited, haha laughed and said, "Okay, okay, okay! I'm finally getting rid of this broken house!"

With that, she suddenly recovered. Buy furniture and appliances? ! What the hell! Didn't the villa have any furniture or appliances? ! All the money made Charlie Wade donate the Hope Project, so what kind of purchase did he get? !

Thinking of this, Elaine Ma's expression immediately became ugly, and she said coldly: "That Mr. White is too much, so expensive villas are given away, furniture and appliances are not provided, let us buy it ourselves?! Why are so small! "

When Claire Wilson Wilson heard this, he reluctantly said: "Oh, mom, why are you like this? People sent a villa worth more than 100 million Dollar, are you still not satisfied?"

Charlie Wade immediately understood Elaine Ma's desperate look.

My mother-in-law must be afraid that Claire Wilson Wilson and Jacob Wilson will know that she has no money!

Therefore, Charlie Wade deliberately said: "Mom, what Mr. White gave was a villa, not furniture and appliances. Besides, this furniture and appliances should be selected according to personal preference. If they give it to you, if you don't like it, there will be so many. Where to put the furniture?"

Elaine Ma made a strong argument: "Why don't I like the gift? As long as it is free, I like it!"

Jacob Wilson took the conversation and said, "Oh, it's okay for us to buy the furniture we like. Tomorrow, we will go to the furniture store and take a look. If we have any furniture we like, we don't need the money. Ah, after all, we still have more than two million Dollar in our family. Buying some good furniture and home appliances can not use more than one million Dollar at most."

Elaine Ma panicked suddenly and blurted out: "What to buy? Don't buy it! Let that Mr. White give it away!"

After she finished speaking, she said to Charlie Wade annoyed: "You call that Mr. White, what the hell are you doing? The car is delivered, how can I drive the old lady without adding a tank of gas? Let him be matched and we will move. past!"

Charlie Wade deliberately said: "Mom, this is not possible. Mr. White regrets that he should not give such an expensive villa. He told me in the past two days that he wanted to change to a smaller and more partial villa for me."

Chapter 750

"What the hell?" Elaine Ma was anxious, cursing: "What kind of dog thing is this? Can you ask for a gift from someone?"

Charlie Wade opened his hands: "After all, it was something that was given by someone else, even if someone repents and doesn't want to give it away, what can we do? We can't compare with White's family!"

Elaine Ma said angrily, "How can it be like this! It's a bastard to send the villa without the furniture!"

Jacob Wilson said: "Okay! You should be content too, stop twittering here, take out our money, and buy furniture tomorrow! After buying furniture, I will find a moving company to move next week!"

Elaine Ma panicked and said, "No! If you don't talk about furniture, you can't move it!"

"What are you talking about?" Jacob Wilson frowned and asked, "I buy the furniture we use ourselves. What else can I say?"

"I...I..." Elaine Ma said in a panic: "I don't buy it! If you want to buy it, you can buy it yourself!"

Jacob Wilson blurted out: "What nonsense are you talking about, how can I have the money to buy furniture? My son-in-law gave me the money for my dinner party!"

"What?!" Elaine Ma blew up all of a sudden, blurted out: "Charlie Wade, where did you get the 20,000 Dollar?!"

Charlie Wade said: "Private money."

"Private money?" Elaine Ma said annoyedly: "If you eat our house, live in our house, and use our house, you still dare to hide your private house money?! Say, how much private house money you have, all will be kept by me! "

Elaine Ma is now insane and desperate to make money. Hearing that Charlie Wade has private money, she immediately became greedy!

Charlie Wade said indifferently at this time: "Mom, I didn't save much money for my private house. I just occasionally showed people to see Feng Shui and made some money. Didn't this I bought two BMWs? I don't have much money anymore. ."

Elaine Ma hurriedly asked, "How many money do you have?"

Charlie Wade shrugged: "Maybe there is less than 10,000 Dollar, seven or eight thousand!"

"Give it to me!" Elaine Ma blurted out: "You are not allowed to save a penny of private money in the future!"

Claire Wilson Wilson couldn't see it anymore, and said coldly, "Mom, what do you always bully Charlie Wade for! It's not easy for him to save some money, and it's just a little bit in total. You still wonder if you have More than two million?!"

Elaine Ma was speechless.

How can I have more than two million?

So she could only say angrily: "Well, let's move when the time comes.

Let's move the old furniture in our house and use it first!"

"Huh?" Jacob Wilson was stunned, and said, "Do you know how big the villa is? There are three floors above ground and two floors underground. The total area is more than 1,000 square meters. There are more than 100 points in our house. Put this piece of furniture in. What does it show?"

With that, Jacob Wilson pointed to his own fabric sofa and said: "Just put this broken sofa in a living room of the boss of Thompson First.

What's the matter? Wouldn't it be an ant riding an elephant?"

Elaine Ma was very guilty and made strong words: "You know what? This saves money! Otherwise, just buy some furniture and appliances for the villa, and it will cost more than one million! Spending so much money is just for vanity? People can't live their lives!"

Jacob Wilson was stunned... I am vanity? I can't live? What face does Elaine Ma have to say to me like this?

Chapter 751

Although Jacob Wilson was useless, he was by no means a fool. In this family, to talk about vanity, I have both myself and his wife Elaine Ma. However, Elaine Ma's vanity is at least 10,000 times stronger than himself! Elaine Ma is a typical face-to-face, vanity to the extreme! Now she has the face to say that she is vanity? This old lady really doesn't know what a face is! While being angry, Jacob Wilson suddenly thought of something not quite right.

Elaine Ma has always been thinking about Thompson First's A05 villa. Before the renovation was finished, he had been thinking about moving in, and even dragged herself to see the progress of the villa's renovation several times. At that time, Elaine Ma also planned what he would buy for the living room. What kind of sofa, what kind of bed should I buy in the bedroom, and what kind of table should I buy in the restaurant?

In other words, Elaine Ma had never thought that Mr. White would furnish furniture.

Therefore, she is also ready to spend money on furniture, and can't wait to live in.

But, why is the villa now completely renovated and has to buy furniture to move in, and she is reluctant to spend money to buy it?

This thing must be strange!

So, Jacob Wilson asked in a cold voice: "Elaine Ma, you are reluctant to buy furniture. What is the reason? Is there not so much money at home?"

Elaine Ma hurriedly said: "No, no, I just want to save some money, I might have to spend money when starting a business, how can we spend all our money on pleasure?"

Jacob Wilson frowned and blurted out: "Come on, you open your mobile bank and let me see the balance!"

"What do you mean?" Elaine Ma was flustered, but pretended to be annoyed:

"Jacob Wilson, you want to check my account? Do you not trust me?!"

"Yes!" Jacob Wilson replied decisively and coldly said: "I seriously doubt now whether you have made a big gap in the money at home!

Otherwise, with your personality, I would have long wished to move to the soup tonight."

Elaine Ma quibbled: "You don't have to calculate there. I will manage the money at home. This is what we said when we got married. What qualifications do you have to check my account?!"

When Jacob Wilson saw that Elaine Ma was playing a rogue completely, he immediately guessed that there must be something wrong with the money. He immediately said seriously: "Elaine Ma, don't think you can fool it this time, if you don't let me look at the bank account. The balance, I will divorce you!"

"Divorce?!" Elaine Ma exploded, and blurted out: "Jacob Wilson, you are amazing! You are going to divorce me! Do you still have a conscience? Have you ever thought about how much hardship I have suffered with you for so many years? , How many wrongs did I suffer? Back then, when I was unmarried, I got pregnant first, and how many people pointed me behind my back? Have you forgotten?"

"I haven't forgotten." Jacob Wilson said, "That's why I have been accommodating you and forbearing you. The same is true now, but I just want to know how much money is left in my family. Don't forget, I am also from this family. As a member, I also contributed a lot of income to this family! Before I had a fight with my mother and the Wilson Group did not go downhill, I would get a bonus of 20,000 or 30,000 every month!"

Elaine Ma snorted coldly: "Don't come with me. In this house, I am the one in charge of the money. You are not qualified to ask!"

Jacob Wilson gritted his teeth and said: "Okay! Are you going to die? Okay! In this case, we will divorce tomorrow. I have nothing to say with you!"

"you dare!"

"Why don't I dare?"

Jacob Wilson shouted coldly: "I'll tell you! I will go to find a lawyer tomorrow! I will do what I say! Anyway, there is nothing worth dividing in this family, that is, two million deposits and a house. The child is also big and married, so if you don't involve the child with whom, it will be done soon."

Chapter 752

As he said, Jacob Wilson stared at Elaine Ma again, and said, "The two million cash is left to you for safekeeping. Then I will directly sue the court and ask to divide the half. If you can't take it out, you will be legally responsible. of!"

"You..." Elaine Ma really didn't expect that Jacob Wilson, an old fellow, would be so cruel!

Divorce yourself and divide your property? If he really sues himself, what can he do?

I am old now and have no money. I am really divorced, so what good days do I have?

When I thought of this, Elaine Ma was a little confused.

She softened hurriedly and said: "Oh my husband, why are you so angry! We two walked over in the wind and rain for more than 20 years, are you worthy of turning your face with me at this time?"

Jacob Wilson said seriously: "I just want to know how much money is left in the family. If you refuse to disclose, then I will divorce you tomorrow!"

In fact, Jacob Wilson had been fed up with Elaine Ma for a long time. It can even be said that he didn't like Elaine Ma at all back then!

He was in love with Matilda, the school flower of the year, and Elaine Ma got involved in the third party. He has been ignoring Elaine Ma. That's why Elaine Ma thought of the shameless trick. First she got him drunk and had a relationship with him. Then she told Matilda and made Matilda break up with him in pain.

It was also because Elaine Ma was lucky and became pregnant at that time, so she used the child to force Jacob Wilson to marry herself.

Jacob Wilson lost Matilda at the time and was hit hard. When he thought that Elaine Ma was pregnant with her own child, he chose to marry Elaine Ma for the sake of the child, and then he had a sad marriage life for more than two decades.

Originally, Jacob Wilson had already accepted his fate. What happens if you are divorced? So I didn't touch this thought.

When the classmates reunion last time, he was a little shaken when he was so ridiculed by everyone.

Today, Elaine Ma behaved so abnormally, so violently, arrogantly, and unreasonably. He has completely given up his mind. Now he can't wait to divorce her and get rid of this woman!

Elaine Ma was really panicked at this time.

She has been bullying Jacob Wilson for so many years, Jacob Wilson can bear it, and has never been so resolute or tough, so it can be seen that she really made him anxious!

Although Elaine Ma is pungent, she is actually a paper tiger. When she yelled, if the other party slapped her, she would be honest immediately; But if others showed a little fear, she immediately rushed to bite someone. So, seeing Jacob Wilson really angry, she was really scared. Claire Wilson Wilson also said at this time: "Mom, although money matters are yours, both dad and I are qualified and have the right to know the financial situation of the family. Since dad wants to see the specific balance, you can open the mobile banking. Let him see!"

Elaine Ma bit her lip, the line of defense in her heart has completely collapsed.

She looked at Jacob Wilson dodgingly, and gathered the courage to whisper: "The money...there is no more..."

"What's the thing?" Jacob Wilson suddenly exploded, and blurted out: "There is no money?! More than two million Dollar, no more?!"

Chapter 753

The voice of Jacob Wilson shocked Elaine Ma immediately!

At this moment, she couldn't continue to conceal it, so she could only vainly said: "Husband, I'm sorry, my family's money has all made me lose all the cards..."

She didn't dare to say that she was tricked by Hannah, because the Wilson family is still frantically looking for Hannah. If she tells the truth and spreads it out, the Wilson family probably will come soon.

She didn't think about Charlie Wade. The main reason was that she didn't want to cause trouble for herself. After all, Don Albertt sent all those people to the black coal mine at the time. These people are all missing now. If it is found out, it will be impossible. Well, I must be implicated.

So she can only say that the money was lost by her own card game, but there is no way to say that she was deceived by Hannah's design.

When Jacob Wilson heard that she had lost more than two million in card games, his anger went wild. One could not control it, and he slapped Elaine Ma's face with a slap in the face, yelling: "Did you lose more than two million? You prodigal wife, do you know how many years this is our family's savings!"

Elaine Ma married Jacob Wilson for so many years, this is the first time he has been beaten. A slap relentlessly and vigorously came over, directly harming Elaine Ma!

Elaine Ma held her face for a while, then suddenly furious, cursing: "Jacob Wilson! Do you dare to hit me?!"

"Hit you?!" Jacob Wilson gritted his teeth and said, "It's easy to hit you!"

After speaking, he raised his hand and slapped it again!

This time Jacob Wilson was really furious, so he grabbed Elaine Ma's hair, pointed it at her face and snapped his bow left and right. He cursed at the same time: "I let you bet! I let you bet! You made our family work hard. You lost all my money. Not only will I hit you, I will divorce you!"

Claire Wilson Wilson looked silly, and hurriedly wanted to come up to the fight, but Jacob Wilson said, "No one will stop me today. Not only will I hit this stinky lady, I must completely draw a line with her!"

Elaine Ma had already been drawn blood all over his face at this time, and her lungs were about to explode, but when she heard this, she suddenly panicked!

Based on her understanding of Jacob Wilson, she knew very well that Jacob Wilson was really angry!

A person who rarely gets angry, if suddenly gets angry, then there is no doubt that he must be really very angry! He wants to divorce now, will she be helpless in the future? !

At this time, Elaine Ma was unwilling to divorce, so being slapped she can only endure!

So she cried and said, "My husband, I am wrong...I am wrong husband.. Please forgive me!"

As she said, she knelt on the ground as soon as his legs softened, hugged Jacob Wilson's legs, and cried, "Husband, I didn't want to lose so much money in a card game, but I was so obsessed with my heart. When, so all the money is lost, I beg you to forgive me, I really know I was wrong!"

"You know it's wrong?" Jacob Wilson gritted his teeth and said, "You know it's wrong. Why didn't you tell me about the money loss? You know it was wrong. Why did you just talk with me? Do you think you lost all your money? Let me see the account balance, this matter can pass?! Do you think you can kneel down on my knees and beg me to forgive you now? I tell you Elaine Ma, you are dreaming! Today's marriage, I'm leaving! I'll go to the Civil Affairs Bureau to go through the divorce procedures tomorrow morning, and I will make a clean break with you from now on!"

When Claire Wilson Wilson heard this, she couldn't bear it. As a child, how could she be willing to see her parents divorce?

Chapter 754

Moreover, the parents are so old that they will have to rely on and help each other when they are old. At this time, divorce makes it difficult for both of them to be happy.

More importantly, after the divorce, where do the parents live? There is only one set of houses in the family, but there is one set of villas, but that was given to Charlie Wade. Claire Wilson Wilson always felt that the villa was unreliable, and she might leave the villa someday.

So, in this way, you can't let your father or mother go out of the house, right?

Moreover, my company has just started. Although everyone is taking care of their own business, the company is very small after all and needs a little bit of money. Now there is no money to buy a house for any one of my parents as a pension. So if this family really wants to separate, it must be torn apart and lose both sides.

So she could only plead: "Oh, dad, mom has admitted wrong, so don't be familiar with her, forgive her this time, okay?"

After speaking, she hurriedly added another sentence, saying: "If you don't have any money, you can make more money. After all, our company is doing pretty well now. I believe it will definitely make more money in the future!"

Jacob Wilson said angrily: "This is not a matter of two million, but a matter of nature! She took the savings of our whole family, but she was completely irresponsible. She would not say anything to us if she lost everything. Never forgive!"

Then, Jacob Wilson said again: "Think about it for yourself at first. She lost all her money and didn't speak. If one day I am in a car accident like last time, I am about to die, waiting for her to pay me for first aid. , She can't get it out, what should I do? If the same thing happens to you and Charlie Wade, what should I do?"

"This money is not only our family's savings, but also our future support! She is completely irresponsible to us. What does such a person still keep her in this house? In my opinion, it is better to follow her. Make a clean break, so she won't hurt us again in the future!"

Claire Wilson Wilson sighed, and didn't know what to say. What Dad said was true. Mom lost so much money at once. The nature is indeed too bad. But, again, she is also her own mother!

Elaine Ma was also frightened by Jacob Wilson's decisive tone. Holding his legs tightly, he kept kowtow, crying and saying: "My husband...husband...you can't divorce me. I can't live without you. I really know I'm wrong. Just forgive me this time. If you don't forgive me, what is the point of being alive? I'm dead, forget me!"

After speaking, he let go of Jacob Wilson's legs and ran to the balcony. Claire Wilson Wilson was startled, and hurried to catch up. I live on the 15th floor, if my mother really wants to find a short sight, this will be terrible!

Jacob Wilson looked at him coldly, and blurted out: "In the beginning, you leave her alone, you let her dance, I still don't believe it! You cried, made trouble and hanged three times. Your mother is a master, and that skill has long been perfect!"

As soon as Elaine Ma heard this, she shouted: "Jacob Wilson, are you really going to kill me? Okay, then I really just jump down and forget it, and make you feel guilty forever!"

After speaking, she rushed to the balcony, opened the window, and wanted to climb outside.

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly hugged her waist, crying and said, "Mom, what are you doing? Let's talk about what's the matter..."

Elaine Ma burst into tears and said, "What else can I say. Your dad is so unfeeling to want me to die, what face do I have to live in this world!"

Chapter 755

On the balcony, Claire Wilson Wilson hugged Elaine Ma, crying and said, "Mom, Dad is also angry. Give him some time and he will be relieved slowly. Don't think about it!"

Elaine Ma crawled on the window and cried loudly: "Good girl, don't stop mom. Tonight is mom's death. In the future, you will celebrate the holidays. Don't forget to burn some money for mom. Don't talk to Charlie Wade, who is an unfilial son. Like, I don't want to burn paper for his dead parents! My parents have no money to spend below, so they come to him with a dream and burn the checks..."

Charlie Wade's face turned green when he heard this!

Elaine Ma, Elaine Ma, you are so amazing. Last time in the hospital, you accidentally gave you the one hundred million cheque from Jasmine, which almost made you pick up a big leak!

Fortunately, you don't believe it. Take it back to trouble me. If this really allows you to exchange 100 million in cash, wouldn't you burn the bag to the sky?

This proves that you have no life to make a fortune at all.

So, he couldn't help but pray in his heart, Jacob Wilson, you can be tough once, you must divorce this b*tch!

When you are divorced, I will cover you from now on. Anyway, what I have is money. I will give you three melons and dates. It will be enough for you to live and moisturize. Maybe you can meet a good old lady. Come on The second spring!

At this time, Claire Wilson Wilson felt very uncomfortable. He cried and said, "Mom, what can't you just say that you have to find a life? Even if you really divorced your dad, can you live on like this? Why do you want to Can't think of it?"

Elaine Ma cried out loudly: "I followed your dad when I was a big girl. I was pregnant before I got married. How many people pointed me at my spine. I was neither angry nor complained. I just wanted to Live well with your dad, who would have thought that after so many years of suffering and tiredness, your dad is going to divorce me..."

As she said, she shouted desperately: "Why am I still alive? I'll just die and forget me!"

Almost everyone in the community heard Elaine Ma's shout from the window. Then, downstairs, someone yelled: "Big girl, don't think about it, what is more important than being alive!"

"Yes, old girl, my husband is raising a mistress outside, so I didn't even think about jumping off the building!"

Others scolded: "Grass, you stinky lady will die outside, don't die in our community, otherwise the housing prices of the entire community will be pulled down by you!"

As soon as Elaine Ma heard this, she exploded and scolded angrily: "That dog's grotesque is talking about it? I die wherever my old mother loves to die. After my old mother's death, she will haunt you and haunt you all the time. The whole family, I want to kill your whole family, leaving no one left, and make your mouth cheap!"

As soon as I said this, there was a dead silence outside...

No one thought that Elaine Ma's combat effectiveness was so fierce, that he would be able to curse such words...

When Elaine Ma saw that the person who was speaking fell silent, she immediately cursed: "The dog who made me get out and die just now, why don't you speak at this time? I tell you, you won't survive tonight! Your whole family will be violent tonight. Kill! Your mother killed a car, your father killed a dog, your wife and children killed by lightning!" The whole community collapsed...

What a hatred, such a curse? !

At this time, I heard someone yelling from outside, "Do you believe me, stinky lady, I'll hack you right now?"

Elaine Ma was not afraid, and blurted out: "Come on, you, bastard, you think I will be afraid of you? I tell you, I don't want to live anymore, and I will die with you at that time!"

After finishing speaking, Elaine Ma said again: "You bastard have a kind of house number to report, I will now take a knife to your door to cut her wrist! Cut the artery, blood smashed into your door! Then again! Hanged at your door! I will haunt you forever!"

As soon as the other party heard that, he was completely shocked almost immediately.

A ruthless person like Elaine Ma, ordinary people really can't provoke him. Who is Elaine Ma? If you bite against the Tibetan Mastiff, you can't lose it. How could ordinary people be her opponent!

Elaine Ma sneered when he saw the man's defeat, Wilson brat still dare to pretend to be your grandma? Your grandma can stand in front of your house and scold you for three weeks. If your mother doesn't know you if you don't scold you, you will be like your grandma for more than 40 years!

Chapter 756

At this time, Claire Wilson Wilson was also about to collapse.

On the one hand, my father is about to divorce, and my mother is about to commit suicide. In the meantime, my mother can still have a big quarrel on the balcony with a person who only hears his voice and does not know who it is, and the quarrel is so unbearable...

Jacob Wilson was also a little flustered.

He knew that Elaine Ma's fighting power was fierce, but he didn't expect to be so fierce... If she insists on divorcing her, will she stay in front of her for the rest of her life and curse? What is the difference between such a life and hell?

Thinking of this, Jacob Wilson sighed in his heart, secretly thinking that today's marriage might not be possible. Even if I can leave, Old Wilson still dare not leave in my heart...

After Elaine Ma cursed the street on the balcony and victoriously opened the flag, he wanted to open it too.

After thinking for a few minutes on the balcony, she climbed down again, patted the dust on her body, walked back to the house and said to Jacob Wilson, "Jacob Wilson, you can get a divorce, and the house belongs to me. Give me 50,000 Dollar a month for living expenses. , You are not allowed to move to Thompson First villa with us, you will leave the house alone and find a way to live by yourself!"

Jacob Wilson was mad and blurted: "Why? You are the sinner in this family! It is you, not me, who should go out of the house!"

Elaine Ma sternly said: "Want to drive me away? There are no doors! I definitely won't leave. By then, I will live in the villa of Thompson First!"

"Why are you so shameless!" Jacob Wilson is going crazy, what's the matter? Just now, the initiative was still in his own hands, why would he be eaten by Elaine Ma again when he turned his face?

Elaine Ma gave it up right now and said disdainfully: "I'm just shameless! What can you do? I tell you, if you want to divorce me, then I won't make you feel better. The old lady is not afraid of wearing shoes. If you don't believe me, try it!"

"You..." Jacob Wilson's aggrieved tears rolled in his eyes.

Charlie Wade couldn't help sighing when he saw this.

It seems that Jacob Wilson has lost again in this wave.

The key is that the loser is uncomfortable!

Seeing Jacob Wilson's fierce attack, he was about to push up the opponent's high ground. In the end, he did not expect that the opponent would directly rise up, rush to tear down his base, and complete a beautiful counter-kill... .

Loss! Lost to grandma's house... Charlie Wade couldn't help feeling extremely sorry.

Jacob Wilson was really persuaded at this time. He didn't know what to do at once, and he was in a dilemma.

Get a divorce, it may be a real clean-up, and this old lady may be like a dog, chasing herself and biting for the rest of her life;

Let's not leave, this is really uncomfortable, and the desire to die is all there...

At this moment, Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly opened the mouth to complete the battle, saying: "Mom and dad, don't quarrel. The past is over. Can't we live a good life in the future? You both step back, and mom will not worry about the money, and play less mahjong. Dad, you manage the money, but don't talk about the previous things."

Jacob Wilson said with a sad face, "I will be in charge of the money in the future? Where is the money from this family let me control..."

Chapter 757

When Elaine Ma saw Jacob Wilson a little bit about to compromise at this time, she hurriedly changed her compliment and said, "Oh my husband, our family will definitely be able to make money in the future! From now on, the company will make money. She gave it to us. All the money will be kept by you, and you will be in charge of the financial power of our family in the future, okay?"

Jacob Wilson felt a little relieved when he heard this.

Thinking that if I head-to-head with Elaine Ma, I might not be able to get a bargain, so I simply borrowed the donkey from the slope, which was considered a default solution.

Elaine Ma thought to himself, Jacob Wilson, I can't help my mother?

Now I have no money, so on the surface, if you are in charge of financial power, you are just a hollow shell.

As long as she has money from now on, my old lady will definitely bring back the financial power!

Thinking of this, she was very proud, and quickly coaxed Jacob Wilson and said, "My husband, you are so kind. I will cook tomorrow by myself and make your favorite braised prawns with oil!"

Seeing that the two had passed this hurdle safely, Claire Wilson Wilson was relieved, but Charlie Wade was a group of regrets.

This old man, I was really awkward to death, and it was for the sake of being so close, and it was really hopeless to be able to provoke again. Regardless, it is his own life anyway, since he chooses to continue to suffer in dire straits, let him go.

When a farce ended, Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson went back to the room with their own thoughts.

In the room, Claire Wilson Wilson immediately showed a sad face.

Charlie Wade hurriedly asked: "Wife. What's wrong with you?"

Claire Wilson Wilson shook his head, sighed, and said, "My mother really makes me helpless, more than two million Dollar, if you don't have it, it will be gone, hey..."

Charlie Wade comforted: "My wife, if you are worried about money, don't take it too seriously. My husband looks back and thinks of ways to make more money back."

Claire Wilson Wilson said: "I'm not worried about money, I'm worried about people, you say my mother is really uneasy!"

Charlie Wade said helplessly: "There is no way, what kind of mother is, you know better than me."

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded and sighed, "It's because I'm clear that I have no choice. I can see that my mother hasn't really regretted it at all. When my dad is gone, she must be the same again."

Charlie Wade comforted her and said, "Don't think about it so much now, you are busy with your affairs, don't worry too much about family affairs, parents are not young anymore, they are adults, and they can find a way for their own affairs."

After speaking, Charlie Wade said again: "As for Thompson First purchase of furniture and home appliances, I will find a way."

"Huh?" Claire Wilson Wilson asked in surprise: "What can you do?"

Charlie Wade said: "I happened to have another feng shui job in the past two days. I should be able to make a fortune. Then I can just use it to buy furniture and home appliances, and then we can move in."

Claire Wilson Wilson said with some worry: "I'm just afraid that you will always show you Feng Shui. What if you are not optimistic one day and provoke others? After all, they are all decent figures."

Charlie Wade said with a smile: "I don't show people the feng shui indiscriminately. Generally, after reading it, it does have a certain effect. You can just say that the Moore family's father Moore, someone can make the Moore family more than 100 billion in assets. , What a great person is this? I think if Feng Shui is really ineffective, how can people believe me?"

Claire Wilson Wilson hesitated for a moment, nodded lightly, and said: "It makes sense."

Immediately, Claire Wilson Wilson said again: "You must not lie, don't cause trouble, don't be like my mother, understand?"

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "My wife, don't worry! I know it in my heart."

Chapter 758

"Yeah." Claire Wilson Wilson said, "I'll take a shower."

.....

When Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson were already laying down and preparing to rest, a heavy helicopter screamed over the city of Southaven.

The Webb family, father and son, spent two hours on the helicopter, and finally arrived over the Webb family's top luxury villa in Southaven. The whole family of Webb family was waiting on the big lawn of the villa at this time. The family already knew what happened to them in Aurouss Hilll. At this time, they all wanted to come over to meet and comfort them.

Kian also followed his mother at this time, waiting on the side of the lawn.

Donald and Sean on the plane, as the plane continued to descend, they also saw their relatives waiting on the ground. Both were in tears. The experience in Aurouss Hilll was like purgatory, which caused great suffering for both of them.

Now that they finally returned home, they were naturally filled with emotion!

When the plane landed and the door opened, Webb's servants hurriedly helped the father and son and Mr. Jones and other five people to get off the plane.

Seeing that both father and son had broken their legs, Sean even broke his hand. Both father and son cried and blushed, and the whole Webb family was shocked.

They have not yet figured out why the eldest son and grandson of the Webb family went to Aurouss Hilll to become so miserable, like having experienced a catastrophe...

When everyone saw the words on the foreheads of the five Mr. Jones, they were all dumbfounded!

When Kian saw the words "Kian loves to eat shit" engraved on one of them's foreheads, he suddenly went crazy, rushed up and kicked him on his stomach, yelling, "Bad son, you What is written on his forehead?! Bring me a knife quickly, and I will cut off all the flesh on his forehead!"

The man cried and said, "Master, this is all carved by Aurouss Hilll Don Albertt! And he carved it very hard, it has been carved on the forehead..." Donald also hurriedly said: "Qian, don't be impulsive! These five people and the words on their foreheads can't move!"

"Can't move?!" Kian was mad and cursed: "Why can't move? He engraved the words "I eat shit" on his forehead! This is humiliating me!"

Donald said: "The Wade Family's spokesperson said, we can't hurt them, don't neglect them, let alone get rid of the words on their foreheads, otherwise, the Wade Family will not let us go!"

"Wade Family?!" Everyone present was dumbfounded.

Kian was also shocked.

When he was not attacking, he was a normal person, so he knew how powerful the Eastcliff Wade family was, and he was not the object of the Webb family to provoke.

It's just that he can't figure it out, why did the Wade family of Eastcliff target the Webb family? What did the Webb family do wrong?

When Donald saw her wife, she stepped forward and said with red eyes:

"Husband, the video on Facebook is too insulting. She describes me as a woman who can do her best. I...I"

Donald held his wife in his arms distressedly, and said helplessly: "My wife, I worked hard on Facebook, but I didn't expect that Eastcliff Wade's family bought Facebook directly, and put the video on top, as did her husband. There's no way, but you shouldn't be too serious about it, after all, it's all nonsense, and anyone with a brain knows it's not true."

After speaking, Donald said again: "Don't worry, I have sent someone to chase down these two video-recording dogs, they probably won't survive tonight!"

Donald's younger brother, Darius said with a distressed expression:

"Brother, go and see our dad. After a heart attack, people can no longer get up. They are lying in our intensive care unit."

Donald hurriedly said: "Quickly, someone will support me, hurry up and have a look!"

Chapter 759

At this time, the Lord of the Webb family was already lying in the intensive care unit of his mansion.

Important indicators such as electrocardiogram, blood pressure, and blood oxygen are monitored all the time. In order to prevent the old man's body from getting worse, he even specially infused nutrient solution and inhaled oxygen.

The video on Facebook really irritated Lord Webb. In addition, he was old and his anti-strike ability was not so strong, so he caught it all at once, almost out of breath for a myocardial infarction.

When Donald brought Sean, Kian, and his younger brother Darius to the intensive care unit, the old man was lying in bed angrily cursing.

"Two innocent dog things, dare to humiliate my Webb family openly, really damn it! If you don't kill these two dog things, my Webb family will definitely be laughed at in Eastcliff all the year round! The majesty of my first family in Southaven is also There will be nothing left!"

Donald called the police when he saw the old man's heart rate, he limped forward and blurted out: "Dad! You are like this, so don't get angry!"

"You rubbish!" When Mr. Webb saw Donald, he scolded, "I asked you to go to Aurouss Hilll to find out who harmed Qian. It's good for you. You shame my Webb family's face!"

Donald said dejectedly: "Dad, this time I went to Aurouss Hilll, it was too far from what I expected. I never thought that someone in Aurouss Hilll could use their own efforts to abolish Mr. Jones and the five others; I didn't expect to accidentally offend Cameron Isaac, and being completely crushed by the Wade Family, I can't help it..."

As he said, he pointed to his right leg, and pointed to the right leg of his son Sean, and said sadly, "Dad, both of my legs and Sean's legs have been scrapped, and Sean's hands have been scrapped. You really Do you think I want to do this? It's just that we really can't afford to offend the Wade Family in Eastcliff. Even if the Wade Family takes the lives of my father and son, we will not be able to resist!"

Elder Webb gave a cold snort and said, "If I didn't think you had been injured, I would have gotten up and beat you personally!"

Donald could only knelt on the ground with a puff, and said ashamed:

"Dad! It is Donald who is not doing things badly. He lost the face of the Webb family. Please punish me!"

Lord Webb said with a black face: "I ask you, are those two bastards killed?"

"Not yet." Donald said hurriedly: "I have arranged for someone to go there. I believe I can find them soon and kill them!"

Elder Webb said: "After the person is killed, the media must report the deaths of these two people, so that the whole region must know, offending the Webb family's fate!"

Donald nodded quickly: "Don't worry, Dad, I will definitely get this thing done!"

Lord Webb asked again: "Did you delete the video on Facebook?"

"Deleted..." Donald didn't dare to say that Facebook had been bought by the Wade family, for fear that the old man would get angry.

Lord Webb gave a hum and said, "Remember what I said, I want those two bastards to die! Within 24 hours, they must die!"

Donald hurriedly said, "Don't worry, Dad, I will do as you ordered!"

Lord Webb's expression eased a little, looking at Sean, he said distressedly: "Sean, this time I go to Aurouss Hilll, you have suffered."

It is not Donald or his brother Darius that the old man loves most, but his eldest grandson Sean.

Seeing Sean's current tragic situation, he was really distressed deep in his heart.

Chapter 760

Sean also knew that grandpa spoiled himself since he was a child. When he heard this, he burst into tears, but he still wiped away his tears firmly, saying, "Grandpa, don't worry about me. I can hold it, but you, definitely Take care of yourself!"

Like Lord Mooore, Lord Webb is also the face of the Webb family.

Moreover, Lord Webb's contacts in Southaven are very wide. Many people in business, politics and even the gray world have to give him face. This is not only because of his high qualifications, but also because he has very close and direct relationships with many people. Everyone has been helped by him.

If Lord Webb is gone, these people will certainly not give the Webb family the same face as before. By that time, the Webb family's influence will inevitably drop a lot.

In addition, Mr. Webb is quite shrewd. He did not hold the power when he was old. He passed the Patriarch to Donald early and retreated behind the scenes. In this way, he would not occupy the power of the Webb family for a long time. , And disgusted by descendants

Therefore, the Webb family all hope that the father can live a long and healthy life.

Seeing that the father's mood stabilized slightly, everyone hurriedly said goodbye.

Once out of the surveillance ward, Donald confessed to his brother Darius, saying: "Darius, you go and tell everyone in the family, including servants and drivers, to never have Facebook on the phone. Otherwise, if you find out, I want him to look good!"

"Okay brother!" Darius nodded hurriedly, and then said: "Brother, you and Sean's legs must be treated quickly, the doctor is already waiting!"

Donald and Sean's legs have not yet been treated, and the family doctor is waiting for them to be treated.

However, after a doctor's examination, they found that the knees of the Webb family and his son had been completely broken and there was no possibility of recovery.

So he said to the two of them: "Mr. Webb, young master, the situation of the knee is not optimistic now. I think the best solution is to order an artificial knee joint and then perform an operation for replacement."

Donald hurriedly asked: "How much influence will the artificial knee joint have?"

The doctor said: "After all, I am not my own, and I will be a little uncomfortable at least, but at least I will not be lame, I can bend, stand, walk, and at most I am a little lame and cannot run."

Donald's expression was indifferent.

This result is in line with his psychological expectations, and his idea is still realistic, as long as you don't really become a cripple with a broken leg.

Sean was very sad and cried, "Dad, I'm only in my twenties, and I don't want to be a lame!"

Donald patted him on the shoulder, and said earnestly: "Son, you are in your twenties, and you have to learn to face the reality. It is difficult for your knees to return to their original state. This is not a question of money, but the level of medical care. The question, what can you do if you don't want it? You should think about it a little bit and focus on how to get revenge."

"Vengeance..." Sean blurted out: "Yes! I must take revenge! I must smash that Charlie Wade's body! Then take Jasmine over to marry me! Even if she disagrees, I use a gun Forcing her to marry me too!"

Donald nodded with a cold face, and said, "I have already thought about it. This Charlie Wade has extraordinary strength, and is supported by many people from the Moore family and Aurouss Hilll. If you want to kill him, you must not be impatient, and you have to plan to move. Slowly!"

Sean hurriedly asked: "Dad, do you have any good solutions?"

Donald said: "Our previous problem was that we underestimated the enemy, were too aggressive, and we rushed out without knowing the opponent, so we suffered a big loss. This time, I am going to first understand from the outside and figure out what forces Charlie Wade has. , How strong, and how many enemies he has, and then touch his weaknesses to figure out all of these. We are targeting and prescribing the right medicine. We must make him unable to resist!"

Chapter 761

The Webb family quickly released a new family motto:

Anyone who enters or leaves Webb's house, no matter who it is, must not have the Facebook app in their mobile phone. Once discovered, they will be punished severely!

Of course, the Webb family followed this family motto very much, because the Facebook had a video insulting their family on top. Even if they asked them to watch it, they didn't want to watch it.

However, everyone in the family complained.

They just work in Webb's family, and they don't have the surname Webb, and they don't feel uncomfortable with the video at the top.

Moreover, on the contrary, everyone felt that this video looked particularly cool! Special relief!

This is mainly because working in Webb's family is subject to stricter restrictions and controls. Everyone lives in a state of high pressure and is very depressed.

The Webb family has always been strict with subordinates, and there are many rules and regulations for subordinates in the family law. It can be said that they will be beaten, scolded and even punished at every turn. Therefore, now they see someone scolding the Webb family so much on Facebook, they still feel pretty good!

When Donald and Sean were undergoing knee trauma treatment, Kian withdrew from the treatment room because he couldn't bear to look at their bloody knees.

At this time, Kian felt particularly contradictory in her heart.

Before today, he was living in pain all the time.

The dignified second young master of Webb's family eats shit every hour. This makes people all over the country laugh out loud and makes him miserable.

Especially every time after eating shit, the moment his consciousness recovers, he is extremely painful.

However, just now, seeing the way his father and brother had their legs broken, he suddenly felt that the whole person seemed a lot easier.

This feeling is strange, but also very realistic.

It's like, at first, I was the only one who didn't wear clothes on the street, so I was very cramped and panicked, but suddenly, there were two more people who didn't wear clothes, and I felt less panic and urgency.

Feeling relaxed for a while, Kian rarely wants to drink two glasses.

The Webb Family Villa occupies a huge area, like a palace of its own. It not only has living spaces, but also medical, fitness, leisure and entertainment places.

Kian left the consulting room and went to the bar.

When passing by the door of a bathroom specially used by the subordinates, he suddenly heard a familiar voice coming from inside.

After listening carefully, Kian couldn't help but become angry!

In this bathroom, someone is listening to the cross talk of Mrr.. Lloyd and his son!

And, unfortunately, I just heard Mrr.. Lloyd and his son mocking his own poop!

Kian suddenly became angry!

Damn, I said that Facebook is not allowed to be downloaded, so why is someone watching this video secretly? Really looking for death!

Thinking of this, Kian slammed open the door of the bathroom. On the toilet seat was a middle-aged man in his 40s. This man Kian knew, and he was one of the Webb family drivers!

The other party didn't think that the second young master would suddenly break in. He was still holding a mobile phone in his hand, and a cross talk of Mrr.. Lloyd and Marcus was still on the phone.

Kian scolded angrily: "You watch this kind of video at Webb's house, are you looking for death? I will kill you bastard!"

Chapter 762

After that, he rushed forward and punched and kicked the driver!

The driver was beaten and yelled, but he didn't dare to fight back. He could only stretch out his arms to block. At the end of the block, he couldn't hold him anymore, and he didn't care about wiping his butt. He just lifted his pants and ran out.

Kian scolded: "Dog bastard, let me see where you go! I must interrupt your leg today!"

After speaking, I was about to catch up, and suddenly felt dizzy in my brain.

At this moment, Kian wailed in his heart, it was over..

He knew that he had another attack!

Immediately afterwards, Kian lost consciousness for an instant, and his eyes were on the filthy thing left in the toilet by the driver. His eyes lit up, without saying a word, he squatted on the ground and reached out to grab it, grabbing it and gobbled it up. Stuffed..

A few people here saw the driver running out of the bathroom with his pants, wondering what was going on. When they went to the bathroom, they saw that Kian was squatting in front of the toilet and having a good meal, all of them vomited.

One of them hurriedly yelled: "Quick, quick, stop the Second Young Master. The Second Young Master eats a pressure cooker for high-temperature sterilization. You can't eat this fresh, and you will get sick!"

The crowd vomited, and they dragged Kian out of the bathroom.

Kian had a seizure and the six relatives did not recognize him. Seeing that these people prevented him from enjoying the "food", he immediately yelled: "Asshole, let me go quickly, or I will kill you!"

This opening, the stinking smell is so bad, the key is to spray a group of subordinates with scum on their faces, and the disgusting group of subordinates can't wait to die.

Seeing that something was wrong here, other people hurried up to greet him. A servant who was holding Kian tightly yelled: "Go get the high-voltage cabinet for the young master to sterilize it! Hurry up!"

"Oh oh oh!" The man turned his head quickly and ran back.

Everyone knows that Kian has a seizure, and it is impossible to stop without eating, so he can only quickly get him a sterile "supper" that has been sterilized.

Knowing that Kian had a sudden attack, and was in the bathroom, and ate something left by a driver, Webb's family suddenly became a mess again.

.....

At this time in Aurouss Hilll, the mist in the middle of the night is gradually covering the ancient city.

Ten seven-seater commercial vehicles drove quickly into Aurouss Hilll City and stopped in front of Mrr.. Lloyd's house.

These ten cars were full of people and they drove over from Southaven to take the lives of Mrr.. Lloyd, Marcus and his son.

These seventy people surrounded Mrr.. Lloyd's house to death, and when they rushed in, they discovered that the house was empty!

The leader beat his chest and said: "Damn, let the dog and son run away!"

"Boss, what should I do?!"

The man said distressedly: "If they are at home, they will be slaughtered right now and return to Mr. Webb, but once they are not at home, they may be anywhere! Aurouss Hilll has a population of millions of people, where are 70 of us going? Looking for it?"

"What should I do then?" The other party asked, "Why don't you call Mr. Webb first? Otherwise, Mr. Webb feels that we are not doing things badly. If we blame it again, it will be troublesome!"

"Yes!" The headed person immediately called Donald.

Donald just dealt with the injury on his knee and waited for the transplant operation after the customized knee joint arrived. He suddenly received a call and immediately connected to question: "Have you killed Mrr.. Lloyd and Marcus, these two dog bastards?! "

"Mr. Webb..." the leader said embarrassingly: "Mr. Webb, Mrr.. Lloyd's family has already gone to the building. I took a look. It should have been rushed to pack up and leave. It should have been too late. For a long time, only two or three hours."

"Damn!" When Donald heard this, he was furious and blurted out: "Find me! Even if you find the ends of the world, you must find these two bastards and kill them for me!"

Chapter 763

Seventy people from Southaven began a carpet search in Aurouss Hilll.

However, they could not find any clues about Mrr.. Lloyd and Marcus.

In fact, the current Mrr.. Lloyd family had already drove away from Aurouss Hilll, and was galloping north in the dark.

It is easy to catch a fish in the washbasin, but it is really difficult to find this fish accurately in the lake!

In the night, Marcus was driving, and the luxurious Mercedes-Benz car ran all the way. Mrr.. Lloyd's cell phone suddenly rang.

It was Mrr.. Lloyd's neighbor who called. The two have a good relationship and often go out to eat, drink and have fun together.

Before Mrr.. Lloyd left, I called him and asked him to help pay attention to his own movement. So now he called suddenly, Mrr.. Lloyd guessed that there should be some movement at home.

Sure enough, as soon as he got on the phone, the other party lowered his voice and said, "Mrr.. Lloyd, dozens of people came to surround your house just now, and the group of people quietly got in!"

"Several dozens of people?!" Mrr.. Lloyd exclaimed and blurted out: "What about now?"

"I just came out and left." The other party said: "It looks like it's not easy to give up..."

Mrr.. Lloyd gave a hum and said, "I know, thank you!"

"Why are you polite with me!"

After hanging up the phone, Mrr.. Lloyd said with a cold face: "Sure enough, the Webb family sent someone to kill us! It is said that they sent dozens of people, shit, really ruthless!"

Marcus blurted out, "Dad, shouldn't they find us?"

Mrr.. Lloyd waved his hand: "Impossible. China is such a big country.

Where can he find us? Let's not stop the car tonight. We will drive directly to Eastcliff Airport. Tomorrow, we will buy the earliest plane and fly directly to Malaysia. When we get there, we will be anonymous.

Tian lives in his own manor and is a rich man. The Webb family will never even think of finding us for the rest of their lives!"

Tears burst into Marcus's eyes and said, "Dad, when you come to Malaysia, you don't have to talk to Albert at five o'clock every week. We should be able to get rid of the engraved characters on our foreheads?"

"Yes!" Mrr.. Lloyd touched the dry and solidified scar on his forehead, and said depressedly: "The engraving enmity, I am afraid that there will be no chance to repay..."

.....

The Moore family mansion at this time is still a brightly lit scene. Lord Mooore wore a white Tai Chi practice suit and played Tai Chi in the yard against the cold wave.

Although the weather has cooled down and the old man is only wearing thin clothes, the old man does not feel cold at all, but is sweating!

The old man's three sons, several grandsons, and granddaughter all gathered around the courtyard to watch.

Rueben became more surprised as he watched. He didn't expect this Rejuvenation Pill to be so magical. Not only did it make the old man younger and his body tougher, but more importantly, even the whole person's mental outlook was completely different!

Who would dare to imagine that the old man who was about to die a few months ago is so lively now!

He has been punching for more than two hours, so he should be tired when he is a young man!

However, he didn't feel tired at all.

On the contrary, the more you fight, the more vigorous.

This is not a good signal!

If you look at it this way, the old man's body is so hard, it won't be a big problem for another ten or twenty years.

Chapter 764

Theodore, Rueben's father, was also stunned at the side, he was even more depressed than Rueben.

When a prince, what I fear most is that my father will live too long.

At the time when Kangxi reigned for 61 years, the prince Ai Xinjue Luo Yinfeng, the prince alone had been the prince for 30 to 40 years. In the end, he couldn't wait any longer before he intended to usurp the throne. Now Lord Mooore still holds the power of the Moore family, the longer he lives, the more sad he will be?

If he lives for more than ten years and he will be in his seventies and eighties, how can he have any chance to become the Patriarch of the Moore Family?

Maybe even, I have to die before him..

Thinking of this, Theodore felt extremely depressed.

Jasmine on the side, seeing that grandpa's body and spirit are much better, she feels very happy.

Seeing that the old man was a little tired after playing for so long, Jasmine hurriedly handed over the prepared towel and said, "Grandpa, or come here tonight, let's call again tomorrow." >

"Okay!" Lord Mooore nodded excitedly, took the towel and wiped his sweat, and sighed: "Moore has ever thought that when he is about to die in his life, he can get such a chance. I am extremely grateful to Master Wade... .."

With that, Lord Mooore said to Jasmine again: "Jasmine, you have to pay close attention to the matter between you and Master Wade. Grandpa's biggest wish now is to wait for you and Master Wade to hand it over to you. Master Wade!"

When Jasmine heard this, her face immediately turned red.

Theodore said at this time: "Dad, Jasmine and Master Wade, please think twice!"

"Think twice?" Lord Mooore asked back: "Don't you see that Master Wade has the ability to reach the sky, but he is a true dragon on earth? If you have a daughter, you are afraid that you would also dream of wanting to recruit Master Wade into the house as a son-in-law! "

Theodore said awkwardly: "Dad, what you said is correct, but the key is that Master Wade is already married. You asked Jasmine to pursue Master Wade. Didn't this encourage Jasmine to intervene?"

When Jasmine heard the third party intervene in such words, her face was immediately a little embarrassed.

She also knew that Charlie Wade was already married, and she was always rushing to get close to him. It was indeed a bit inappropriate. Now that the uncle said that, it was naturally even more embarrassing.

Lord Mooore snorted coldly at this time, and said, "You know what a fart? Master Wade and the girl from the Wilson family are simply famous and inaccurate. In that case, what should we worry about?"

After finishing speaking, Lord Mooore simply ignored him and said to Jasmine, "Jasmine, don't care what other people think. If you also like Master Wade, just let go and pursue it."

Jasmine pursed her mouth and did not speak, obviously feeling a little uncomfortable in her heart.

Lord Mooore saw her thoughts, turned his head and glared at Theodore, and said coldly: "From today, no one is allowed to say that Master Wade was married, otherwise, don't blame me for being unwelcome!"

When Theodore heard this, he hurriedly bowed and said, "Dad, I'm sorry, I was the one who talked too much!"

"Huh, you know it!" Lord Mooore snorted dissatisfied, and immediately said to Jasmine, "Jasmine, you can make an appointment with Master Wade for me tomorrow. I would like to invite him to dinner and thank him for giving me a rejuvenation pill. Great kindness, I will prepare a one-billion-cash card at that time, as my little care, and give it to Master Wade during the meal."

The rest of the Moore family were shocked!

Billion in cash? !

The cash flow of the entire Moore family is only about 3 billion. The old man is going to take out one-third of the cash flow of the family and give it to Charlie Wade? !

Both Theodore and Rueben's eyes burst into flames.

The cash in hand of the father and son may not add up to three to five billion, the old man wants to give Charlie Wade one billion now? !

Chapter 765

Early the next morning.

Claire Wilson ate early and went to the company.

The old man, Jacob Wilson, had a dark face all morning, and he was full of upset when he saw Elaine Ma, and Charlie Wade was too lazy to care about her.

The thought of the family's savings of more than two million, which caused Elaine Ma to lose completely, and Jacob Wilson was furious. He doesn't have much money himself, this little money is accumulated by his family for many years.

And the money he earned from dumping antiques has now been wiped out.

Jacob Wilson even felt that he should come back out of the world, go to the antique street, pick up a leak, and then find Zachary to sell it. Elaine Ma seemed a little guilty of conscience when she woke up early in the morning, so she always smiled at Jacob Wilson, but Jacob Wilson still ignored her.

Seeing her hot face pressed her cold ass, Elaine Ma is now daring to be angry and afraid to speak, so she can only point her finger at Charlie Wade and said angrily: "Hey, Charlie Wade, you are idle at home, you are also idle at home. People look at feng shui and so on, flicker some money back to buy furniture for the house! Otherwise, how can we move to Thompson First?"

Charlie Wade said lightly: "I will try my best."

Elaine Ma pinched her waist and said, "As far as you can, you have to make money back!"

Jacob Wilson said dissatisfied: "Where are you bluffing? Charlie Wade made a great contribution to the family. Unlike you, you not only didn't make a penny, but you spent a lot of money, and even lost money. This family, we All three are positive numbers, and you are the only negative number! And your negative number is still very negative, so we cancel out all our positive numbers in one go!"

"You..." Elaine Ma flushed with anger.

She wanted to question Jacob Wilson. She was bluffing at Charlie Wade. What does it have to do with you? You Jacob Wilson is amazing now. Not only do you dare to yell at me and beat me, but you also dare to stand up for Charlie Wade?

Co-authored my old lady, is now the one with the lowest status in this family? I said nothing can't work, right?

While Elaine Ma was holding the fire, Charlie Wade's cell phone rang. Jasmine called. After the phone was connected, Jasmine said respectfully on the other end of the phone: "Master Wade, are you busy?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "Nothing is busy, what's the matter?"

"That's it." Jasmine said: "Grandpa is very grateful for the Rejuvenation thing. I would like to treat you to a meal. I wonder if you have time?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Didn't you just ate it yesterday? You still ate it today?"

Jasmine said: "Yesterday was a birthday banquet. Today I want to invite you to dinner alone. I don't know if you have time?"

Charlie Wade thought for a while, and asked, "What time?"

Jasmine hurriedly said, "It depends on what time is convenient for you."

Charlie Wade said: "Then just go to noon."

"Good!" Jasmine said hurriedly: "I asked Don Albertt to clear the Heaven Springs in advance and wait for you in the Diamond Box at noon!"

Charlie Wade said, "See you at noon, then."

"Okay Master Wade, see you at noon!"

After hanging up the phone, Charlie Wade said to Elaine Ma and Jacob Wilson, "Dad, Mom, I have something to do at noon, and I can't cook at home. You two should go out to eat or order a takeaway."

Elaine Ma blurted out, "What is it? Let's go out to eat and order takeaway? You are so good now, you don't even make meals?!"

Charlie Wade said lightly: "A client asked me to see Feng Shui. He is a rich boss."

Chapter 766

"Huh?!" Elaine Ma asked in surprise: "A big boss asks you to see Feng Shui?"

"Yes." Charlie Wade nodded and said, "I'll go at noon."

"Great!" Elaine Ma got excited and blurted out: "Hurry up! Go for more money, and it's best to make all the money for our furniture in one step!"

Charlie Wade said, "I will try my best."

In fact, Charlie Wade had already made up his mind. He took out two million from his card, and then said that he made it for people to show Feng Shui, and used the money to buy furniture.

He also didn't want his wife to live in this dilapidated house all the time, and to live here, separated from Elaine Ma by a wall, and shared a bathroom, not to mention how annoying.

If you move to a villa, you live on the first floor with your wife, and you let Elaine Ma and Jacob Wilson live on the first floor, then you can stop a lot.

Therefore, he just pretended that he was going to show people Feng Shui.

In fact, he had already thought about it. After having dinner with Lord Moore, he went directly to the bank to apply for a new card, transfer two million in, and then hand the money to his wife. Or Jacob Wilson.

In short, it must not be handed over to Elaine Ma, a prodigal old lady.

Otherwise, she is likely to get the money and immediately go to the beauty salon to charge her 200,000 balance for face and body use.

At eleven o'clock, Jasmine drove out of the community.

She respectfully called Charlie Wade and told Charlie Wade that he had arrived and that Charlie Wade went downstairs.

At the gate of the community, Jasmine got off the car respectfully and opened the door for him. After he got in the car, she said to him:

"Master Wade, Grandpa has already gone to Heaven Springs to wait for you in advance, let's go there too."

"Okay." Charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "Thanks for coming here to pick me up."

Jasmine was a little shy, and said with a blushing face: "This is what Jasmine should do."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said nothing.

.....

Heaven Springs at this time.

Accompanied by two bodyguards, Lord Moore stepped into the door.

I invited Charlie Wade to dinner today. He didn't bring the descendants of the Moore family. Apart from the report, he brought Jasmine alone.

When Don Albertt heard that Lord Moore had arrived, he hurriedly greeted him and said respectfully: "Lord Moore, I'm really sorry. The person under the supervision of the diamond box just now arranged the arrangement, but he couldn't meet him in time."

Lord man Moore looked at Don Albertt, suddenly surprised.

Don Albertt in front of him was actually much younger than he looked at yesterday's birthday party!

Could it be that he also got Master Wade's Rejuvenation Pill? !

Thinking of this, Lord Moore couldn't help but tremble and asked, "Don Albertt...you...you got the chance of Master Wade?!"

Don Albertt hurriedly nodded, and while reaching out to respectfully help Lord Moore, he said in a low voice, "Lord Moore, let's tell you, the Webb family sent someone to Heaven Springs last night and injured more than a dozen security guards. After my life, Master Wade appeared in time to save me and gave me a rejuvenation pill. Otherwise, even if I am alive now, I am still a living dead!"

Lord Mooore asked in surprise: "What's the situation? Why didn't I hear about it?"

Don Albertt sighed: "After the birthday banquet at noon yesterday, Master Wade said that his father-in-law would come to Heaven Springs to host a banquet at night. The father and son Marcus suddenly broke in with Donald's five bodyguards and almost killed me! They also wanted to kill Master Wade's father-in-law! In fact, their real goal was Master Wade!" "What?!" Lord Mooore didn't pay attention to these things at all yesterday. He was immersed in the powerful effects of Rejuvenation Pill and couldn't extricate himself, and the others in the Moore family also had their own thoughts, like Jasmine, who was happy. However, Theodore and Rueben and his son were worried, and everyone did not pay attention to what happened outside.

At this time, Lord Mooore heard that Donald was going to kill Master Wade, he was furious, and blurted out: "Damn the Webb family!" Having said that, he immediately said to a bodyguard next to him: "Speak out immediately, if the Webb family dared to touch a hair of Master Wade, my Moore family will have the whole clan and fight to the end!"

Chapter 767

Before Charlie Wade arrived at Heaven Springs, the Moore family's statement had spread throughout Aurouss Hilll, and then spread throughout the upper class of Southaven.

No one thought that the Moore family, the first family in Aurouss Hilll, would openly challenge the Webb family, the first family in the south of the Yangtze River.

This is really a good show to watch.

When Theodore and Rueben and his son heard the news, they immediately exploded. What's wrong with Lord Mooore?

Yesterday's birthday banquet, it doesn't matter if Lord Mooore is angry with Donald. Everyone is a little unhappy in private, so I can talk about it later if I find a chance.

But now the old man openly challenged the Webb family, which is almost equivalent to publicly declaring a complete break with the Webb family, and may even become a mortal enemy with the Webb family!

Both the father and son think, what is the cause of the father? Even if you want to curry favor with Charlie Wade, there is no need to openly turn your face with the Webb family, right? In this case, in the future, the Webb family may fight against the Moore family everywhere.

Not only that, if the old man is doing this, Jasmine and Sean are less likely to be together!

The Webb family was also very angry when he got the news.

Originally, the Webb family was enough to jump around, but now Lord Mooore suddenly said that he would fight to the end with the Moore family, which made the current situation of the Webb family even more uncomfortable.

The Webb family's current affairs were big enough for the Webb family, and suddenly they ran out of the Moore family to sing the opposite, which naturally made the Webb family more irritable.

Lord Webb was still lying on the hospital bed. Donald ordered the whole family not to tell the father of the Moore family's statement. At the same time, he also made a decision to ignore the Moore family for the time being and not to respond to the Moore family's statement.

Right now, the majesty of the Webb family has suffered a great deal.

Although it is still the first family in the south of the Yangtze River, the news that has offended the Wade family of Eastcliff has already caused trouble in the city.

Before, the outside world didn't know who the Webb family had offended, only that Facebook kept putting cross talks that humiliated their family on the top of the homepage.

Today during the day, after the news of the Wade Family's acquisition of Facebook came out, the outside world immediately understood that it turned out that the Webb Family had offended the Wade Family!

The families that had a good relationship with the Webb family took the initiative to alienate them at this time, mainly because the Wade family was too strong, and no one wanted to be too close to the Webb family at this time.

As a result, the Webb family suddenly fell into a passive position, and even because many families had to draw a clear line with them, their overall strength was also affected.

At this time, the Webb family had no energy to fight against the Moore family, after all, they still had a bigger enemy, Charlie Wade.

.....

Jasmine drove to Heaven Springs, and Don Albertt hurried out to greet her.

Seeing Charlie Wade tall and handsome, Jasmine beautiful and generous, Don Albertt couldn't help but admire in his heart: This is the appearance of a golden girl and a talented girl! With Miss Moore's beauty and education, looking at the whole country, there may not be anyone who can be compared!

Don Albertt respectfully invited Charlie Wade and Jasmine to the diamond box. The old and strong Moore Master has been waiting here for a long time.

Seeing Charlie Wade coming in, Lord Mooore hurriedly got up and bowed, and said to Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, you are here, please move to the main seat!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "Lord Mooore, you are the oldest, you should be the main seat."

"How did you make it?" Old Moore hurriedly said, "Master Wade is the real dragon in Moore's eyes, and the main seat naturally wants you to sit."

Chapter 768

Jasmine also hurriedly said to the side: "Master Wade, Grandpa has always respected you, so let's take the seat."

Charlie Wade hesitated for a while, then nodded and said, "If this is the case, then it is better for me to be respectful."

After that, Charlie Wade sat down on the main seat.

At this time, Don Albertt hurriedly said: "Master Wade, Lord Mooore, Miss Moore, you three have a good dinner, Don Albertt won't bother too much!"

After all, Don Albertt carefully left the box.

With no other people in the box, Lord Mooore took out a golden bank card from his Armani suit pocket, raised his hands in front of Charlie Wade respectfully, and said respectfully: "Master Wade, you gave me the opportunity yesterday, I am really grateful! If you don't want to report it, I prepared a bank card for you. There is 1 billion in cash in this card. It is my little care for you. Please accept it."

Charlie Wade glanced at the bank card and said, "Lord Mooore, I am not short of money. You should take this card back."

Charlie Wade was telling the truth.

He has more than 20 billion in cash, but now he has no chance to spend it.

Lord Mooore insisted: "Master Wade, Lord Mooore knows that you will not be a person short of money, but last time you bought the 300-year-old purple ginseng at a sky-high price of 100 million Dollar in cash. In the future, in case there are any good medicinal materials to be photographed, in case you are a little nervous on hand and you miss a good thing, you will regret it if you want to, so please accept the money, and you can prepare for it."

In fact, Lord Mooore gave Charlie Wade money, he was a little selfish. He knew that Charlie Wade had taken the best purple ginseng to make a rejuvenating pill, and he was also drenched in the light of heaven, so he thought, give Charlie Wade some more money, in case Charlie Wade can buy more in the future With good medicinal materials and refining better medicines, wouldn't I have a chance to get Master Wade again?

So he stood up, knelt on one knee, holding the bank card in his hands, and said: "Master Wade, Moore has a little bit of care, please accept it, otherwise Moore will keep kneeling!"

Charlie Wade hurriedly helped him up, smiled slightly, and said calmly: "If this is the case, then I will accept it."

"It's so good!" Lord Mooore stood up with joy, and said to Charlie Wade: "If Master Wade needs money in the future, or if there are other places where the Moore family can help, just speak up, Moore Certainly, I will try my best to help you solve it!"

Charlie Wade nodded slightly and said, "Lord Mooore is interested."

"Where is it!" Lord Mooore said with great joy: "Moore is fortunate to have the precious opportunity given by Master Wade, and naturally hopes that he can do more for Master Wade, and repay Master Wade's kindness in the future!"

After that, Lord Mooore hurriedly said: "By the way, Master Wade, the password for this card is Jasmine's birthday, 951201."

Charlie Wade looked at Jasmine and asked curiously, "Jasmine, is your birthday on December 1st?"

Jasmine hurriedly stood up, bowed slightly, and said respectfully:

"Master Wade, I was indeed born on December 1."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Then it will be your birthday in less than a month."

"Yes." Jasmine nodded nervously, and then asked tentatively: "Master Wade, I want to hold a birthday dinner at that time, I wonder if Master Wade has time to attend it?"

After Jasmine finished speaking, her eyes kept staring at Charlie Wade's face, looking forward to Charlie Wade's promise.

Charlie Wade thought for a moment, then nodded and said, "Since it's your birthday, then I'm naturally going to come to join. Then you can tell me the location."

Jasmine was overjoyed and hurriedly bowed, "Thank you, Master Wade!"

Charlie Wade said: "Jasmine, you and I are about the same age, so we don't have to be so polite between us."

Jasmine nodded lightly, and laughed lightly said, "Good Master Wade, I got it!"

Chapter 769

After dinner, Charlie Wade declined Jasmine's request to send him home, and said goodbye to her and Lord Mooore in front of Heaven Springs, and walked to a construction bank near Heaven Springs.

When he came to China Construction Bank, he transferred 998 million from the card that Lord Mooore gave him. After the money was transferred to his card, he had only 2 million left. 'S bank card returned home.

At home, Jacob Wilson and Elaine Ma had just eaten takeaway.

Seeing him back, Elaine Ma hurriedly stepped forward and asked, "Charlie Wade, what do you think about Feng Shui? Have you made any money?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said lightly: "I made a little bit."

"What's the point?" Elaine Ma blurted out: "Get all the money out!"

Charlie Wade directly took out his bank card and said: "There are two million in this card."

"Two million?!" Elaine Ma's eyes straightened!

Excited, she took the card into her hand and blurted out: "You guy is not lying to me, right? There are really two million cards in this card?"

"Right." Charlie Wade said lightly: "I have checked on the ATM, and it is indeed two million."

"Great!" Elaine Ma cheered excitedly!

Two million!

Wouldn't it be that he made up for the large sum of money he lost?

The thought of being able to go to a beauty salon with a friend to make a face, make an appointment with a mahjong friend, and even live in Thompson First villa, Elaine Ma was very excited.

She took the bank card in her hand and looked at it carefully for a moment. Only then did she recover and asked: "Does this card have a password?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said: "There is a password, the password is..."

I was about to say what the password was, but Charlie Wade suddenly came back to his senses.

its not right!

Didn't you Elaine Ma say yesterday that Jacob Wilson will be in charge of the money in the future?

Why do you still have the face to ask me for a password?

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade hurriedly turned his face and said to Jacob Wilson who was on the side: "Dad, didn't you say yesterday that you will keep all the money at home in the future?"

Jacob Wilson came back to his senses only then, suddenly, right! I am in charge of the money. I should control the two million!

So he hurriedly got up, walked up to Elaine Ma in two steps, and said, "Give me the card."

Elaine Ma subconsciously hid the card behind him, looked at Jacob Wilson cautiously, and asked, "What are you doing?"

Jacob Wilson said coldly: "You just said yesterday that I will be in charge of the money, so I have to go back today?"

Elaine Ma stammered and said, "I don't have one. I just want to confirm whether this card is what Charlie Wade said, there are two million."

After that, she said again: "Honey, to be honest, you are a big man, it is difficult to manage the money in an orderly manner. Or you can see, let me take care of the money in this family, how about?"

Jacob Wilson suddenly became angry and cursed: "Elaine Ma, what you just said last night, you haven't even passed 24 hours, so you don't recognize it?"

Elaine Ma explained: "Oh, I really didn't mean that..."

"Then what do you mean?" Jacob Wilson said coldly: "I tell you, you don't want to control money in the future! If you insist on managing money, then we two will go through the divorce procedures immediately!"

Elaine Ma was a little confused at once.

Although she wanted these two million very much, but Charlie Wade didn't tell her password, it didn't make much sense to hold the card by herself, and she couldn't get the money.

So she could only pass the card to Jacob Wilson angrily, then turned her head and gave Charlie Wade a vicious look.

Chapter 770

Charlie Wade just pretended not to see her eyes, and quickly turned his face again, and said to Jacob Wilson: "Dad, this money will be used to buy furniture and home appliances. Buy it as soon as possible. After buying it, we can move in as soon as possible."

"Good, good!" Jacob Wilson nodded, carefully put the card into his pocket, and asked Charlie Wade: "Good son-in-law, what is the bank card password?"

Charlie Wade said, "I will send it on WeChat later."

"it is good"! Jacob Wilson hurriedly said: "Then, I will go to the bank first. You will send me the password. I will transfer the money to my card in the past. This money must be earmarked."

Charlie Wade nodded, and said: "Then you go first, I'll send it to you later."

Elaine Ma was furious.

What does Charlie Wade mean? In front of your own face, you don't even want to say the password. Is this defending yourself? What a jerk!

Charlie Wade was indeed guarding her. Elaine Ma didn't have any ethics, and he might have secretly taken the money away, so it's better to be careful.

Jacob Wilson got dressed and went out. He received the password from Charlie Wade when he was almost at the bank. After inserting the card in the ATM, he checked the card, and there were indeed two million in the card.

Seeing the actual balance figure on the ATM, Jacob Wilson was very surprised.

Charlie Wade is really amazing! If you go out to show others the feng shui, you will give two million?

If this is a little more of this kind of business, wouldn't he want to make a fortune?

Astonished, Jacob Wilson entered his bank account and transferred all the money in this card to his card.

Afterwards, he took out his mobile phone to check the mobile banking and found that the money had arrived, which was a relief.

When I was walking back, I suddenly received a WeChat message from Charlie Wade. The content of the WeChat message was: "Dad, remember to change the phone unlocking password, mobile banking password, and payment password, otherwise it will easily go wrong!"

Fortunately, my son-in-law reminded me quickly, otherwise I would go back like this. As long as Elaine Ma took a few minutes to get his mobile phone, she must have taken all the money away.

So he did not dare to delay, and hurriedly changed all the passwords, and replaced them with a new password that Elaine Ma could not guess.

When Jacob Wilson returned home, Elaine Ma hurried up and asked: "How did it go, is there really two million?"

"Of course!" Jacob Wilson said arrogantly: "When did my son-in-law lie to me?"

Elaine Ma asked hurriedly: "Those two million have been transferred to your card?"

"Yeah." Jacob Wilson nodded, not wanting to talk to her, and asked:

"Where is Charlie Wade?"

"He went out to buy groceries."

Jacob Wilson let out a cry and said, "I have to call my daughter and say, tomorrow morning we will go to the furniture store to see the furniture."

Elaine Ma hurriedly asked: "Then, after buying the furniture tomorrow, can I move in that day?"

Jacob Wilson said irritably, "If you buy so much furniture, you can't wait for someone to deliver it and install it? It will take two or three days."

Elaine Ma smiled and said: "My husband knows a lot, I don't know these doorways. I thought I could live in on the same day I bought it!"

As she said, she hurried over, rubbed Jacob Wilson with her body, and said softly: "Husband, the sisters called me to go to the beauty salon for a spa, saying that it has a good effect on firming the body and lifting the skin. But I don't have any money in my hand. Why don't you transfer seven or eighty thousand to me first?"

"No!" Jacob Wilson resolutely refused: "What's going on at home, do you want to go to the spa? You are not the one who burns the bag!"

Elaine Ma said aggrieved: "Husband, am I not for you too? Do you want me to become a yellow-faced woman?"

Jacob Wilson said coldly: "Do you think you used to run to the beauty salon every day, it was not a yellow-faced woman? In my eyes, you have always been a yellow-faced woman!"

Elaine Ma's expression turned dark, and she blurted out, "Jacob Wilson, what do you mean?"

"Literally." Jacob Wilson snorted coldly, and said, "If you are not satisfied with me, we will get a divorce, and it will be over!"

Chapter 771

When Elaine Ma heard Jacob Wilson mentioning divorce again, her anger exploded.

However, she did not vent her anger at all. Because she knew that at this time she had to endure.

Who let her lose more than two million in gambling?

At this time, bear with it for a while, wait until you find an opportunity, and then settle the account with Jacob Wilson.

Thinking of this, she sighed and said, "Husband, you are right. It is really too expensive to do a spa. I still save a little money for the family and don't do it."

Jacob Wilson's expression softened a little when she saw that she was quite on the road. At this time, Jacob Wilson was a little proud. For so many years, I haven't been able to suppress Elaine Ma. Sometimes Elaine Ma said something. If he raised different opinions, he would definitely have to scold Elaine Ma.

But now, Elaine Ma seems to have begun to compromise with herself. If Elaine Ma could only serve her in front of her in the future, wouldn't she be a turned serf singing? However, Jacob Wilson couldn't help being cautious. This girl has been domineering all her life, can she really change it all at once? Thinking of this, he was ready to try this woman! So he said to Elaine Ma, "I'll take a bath, and you can make me a cup of hot tea and bring it in."

Elaine Ma asked in surprise: "What do you do for a bath in the afternoon?"

Jacob Wilson said: "I'm happy, can you manage it?"

Elaine Ma gritted his teeth angrily, but after another thought, if he went to take a bath, wouldn't he be able to use his mobile phone? Then I simply transferred the two million to my card!

When the time comes, the money is in your own hands. What do you Jacob Wilson pretend to do with me? If the old lady wants to make a face, she will make a face, if she wants to make a spa, she will make a spa, and she wants to play mahjong. If you refuse to accept you, get out!

So Elaine Ma immediately nodded, and said respectfully: "My husband, you work so hard every day, I will follow you in everything from now on! In this way, you go take a bath first, and I will make good tea for you to bring in!"

"Yeah." Jacob Wilson arrogantly responded, with his hands behind his back, he swaggered back to the room.

After returning to the room, Jacob Wilson first took off his jacket and pants, and then threw the phone on the bed.

In order to make a mark, he specifically pulled a piece of hair from his head, then placed it on the top of the phone screen, and noted the position of the hair.

If Elaine Ma came to pick up her mobile phone, it would be difficult to see clearly that there was a strand of hair falling on the black screen. If she picked it up easily, the strands of hair would definitely fall off, and she knew she was peeking at her mobile phone. .

It doesn't matter if Elaine Ma has this anti-reconnaissance consciousness, she may not be able to remember the specific position of the hair, once it moves, it will definitely not be in the same place again.

When you come back from the shower, you can check the location to determine if she has touched her phone!

After doing all this, Jacob Wilson hummed a small song to the bathroom, and Elaine Ma soon brought him in with a cup of tea.

After entering, Elaine Ma searched for Jacob Wilson's mobile phone with his eyes, and at the same time actively asked him if he wanted to wipe his back by himself.

"No need, go out quickly, don't delay my bath!"

As Jacob Wilson said, he waved his hand directly, sending her out like a dog.

Elaine Ma was not angry either.

Because she looked around in the bathroom and didn't see Jacob Wilson's mobile phone, she probably didn't bring it in!

So the first thing she came out, she wanted to find Jacob Wilson's cell phone in the bedroom!

As soon as I entered the bedroom, I saw Jacob Wilson's phone on the bed. Elaine Ma is overjoyed!

I rushed to the front in a few steps, picked up the phone, and didn't notice a single strand of hair slipping off the screen of the phone.

She hurriedly tried to unlock Jacob Wilson's phone with her fingerprint, but she was surprised to find that her fingerprint could not be identified!

its not right!

Chapter 772

When Jacob Wilson first changed the phone, she arrogantly asked to enter her fingerprint in it so that she could check it at any time. Did this guy delete her fingerprint?

Elaine Ma couldn't help gritting his teeth.

Damn, this guy started to beware of himself!

Annoyed, Elaine Ma hurriedly tried the unlock code.

Not only did she record fingerprints on Jacob Wilson's mobile phone, she also knew the six-digit unlock code for his mobile phone.

However, after she entered the password she remembered, the phone prompted the password error!

Elaine Ma didn't believe it, and entered it again, but it was still wrong!

She suddenly became angry!

Damn, Jacob Wilson, this dog thing! He deleted my fingerprint and changed my password!

Did you expect to steal his mobile phone to transfer money? Or after getting these two million, he was guarded like a thief?

This is really outrageous!

Elaine Ma was uncomfortable, and tried a few more passwords that Jacob Wilson might have set, but what he didn't expect was that all of these passwords were wrong!

The previous password was the wedding anniversary of the two, but it has been changed.

Try Jacob Wilson's birthday, it's not right!

My birthday is not right!

Daughter Claire Wilson Wilson's birthday is not right!

Even if Mrs. Wilson's birthday was entered, it still displayed incorrectly!

Elaine Ma began to wonder.

What kind of password will this old thing set?

She was thinking hard, but she couldn't think of an answer.

Between this sparkle and flint, she suddenly thought of someone!

Matilda!

That school flower of the year! Also Jacob Wilson's first love!

And she is Matilda's roommate, and even her "good sister"!

To say that at that time, I was really envious, jealous and hateful to both of them!

At that time, Jacob Wilson was handsome and stylish, and had money at home. He was really the Prince Charming in the hearts of many girls.

At that time, Elaine Ma wanted to fix Jacob Wilson and marry into a wealthy family, so he didn't hesitate to have sex with Jacob Wilson while he was drunk while Jacob Wilson was in love with Matilda.

It was with this trick that she angered Matilda and became the ultimate winner of this battle.

However, Elaine Ma knew in his heart that Jacob Wilson had not forgotten Matilda for many years! She even called Matilda by the name of Matilda when she talked in sleep several times! These things were recorded by Jacob Wilson on his account book by myself!

So, at this moment, she thought, would Jacob Wilson's mobile phone password be Matilda's birthday? !

As Matilda's best friend at the time, Elaine Ma still remembered her birthday, so she immediately entered Matilda's birthday in the mobile phone password input area. Unexpectedly, what made her stunned was the mobile phone. It was unlocked!

Elaine Ma was really angry, hated and excited!

Annoyed, hated, of course it is Jacob Wilson, an old man who has never changed. After so many years, he is still thinking about that damn Matilda!

I am excited because I guessed the password correctly. Doesn't it mean that I can transfer the two million away?

Okay, isn't you Jacob Wilson thinking about your first love?

The old lady will transfer all your money away, and then kick you out of the house!

Anyway, your old lover is in the United States, and you don't have the ability to find her in the past, and people are said to have a very good life, and they may not look at you!

You old dog, just wait for penniless and wandering on the streets!

Chapter 773

Elaine Ma gritted his teeth at Jacob Wilson, and immediately opened his mobile bank, preparing to go in and transfer all the two million that Charlie Wade gave him.

When entering the mobile banking to request the password, she directly used Matilda's birthday, and she really came in!

At this time, there is 2,027,232.15 Dollar in the balance of the bank card.

Among them, two million were transferred in by Jacob Wilson just now, and another twenty thousand were the last time Charlie Wade gave Jacob Wilson a dinner party, but Jacob Wilson did not spend the money.

The remaining seven thousand dollars are regarded as Jacob Wilson's private money.

Elaine Ma immediately clicked the transfer, filled in her account, and then entered 2027232.14 in the transfer amount column. She decided to leave only a cent for Jacob Wilson to let him know the cost of offending herself!

After entering all the transfer information and checking to confirm that there was no problem, Elaine Ma sneered and clicked to transfer immediately.

Then, a dialog box pops up: "Please enter the payment password."

Elaine Ma entered Matilda's birthday again, but this time she didn't succeed!

Mobile banking immediately popped up a prompt: "The password is wrong, you can try 2 more times today!"

"Damn!" Elaine Ma immediately gritted his teeth and cursed: "The old dog even set a different payment password separately..."

While scolding, she thought in her heart, what exactly would Jacob Wilson set the payment password to?

Since the unlock password and the online banking login password are both Matilda's birthday, the payment password must be inseparable from Matilda.

However, I really can't think of any other details!

She thought about Matilda's bedroom number and bed number at the time.

The system prompts an error again, and prompts that she can try again today. If the error continues, the mobile banking will be locked.

Elaine Ma didn't dare to try again.

In case of a wrong trial, the mobile banking cannot be logged in today, Jacob Wilson found out that he should be exposed in advance?

Thinking of this, she could only grit her teeth and give up, and put Jacob Wilson's phone back in the distance.

However, she already hated Jacob Wilson and gritted her teeth bitterly at this time, ready to find someone, to clean him up, so that he still remembered the fox in his mind!

Ten minutes later, Jacob Wilson changed into clean cotton long trousers and walked out of the bathroom, humming a small song as he walked.

Elaine Ma had already left the bedroom and was sitting in the living room pretending to watch TV. Jacob Wilson returned to the room and hurried to the bed to check his mobile phone.

There is no change in the location of the phone, but the hair on the phone has long been missing.

It seems that the old lady is really trying to unlock her phone in secret!

She unlocked her mobile phone, she must have only one purpose, money! Fortunately, I am smart and changed my password in advance. Otherwise, if I didn't watch it for two minutes, the two million might be taken away by Elaine Ma!

Fortunately, Jacob Wilson felt that he was right to be more cautious. The unlock password and mobile banking login password used Matilda's birthday. As for the payment password, he used the date of the day when he and Matilda first tasted the forbidden fruit.

Only he and Matilda knew the date of the latter in the world, so he didn't worry that Elaine Ma might guess it.

Facts proved that Elaine Ma really couldn't guess.

However, if Elaine Ma knew about this, she would be able to attack Jacob Wilson with a knife on the spot.

Throughout the afternoon, Elaine Ma seemed very worried.

She had been thinking about a way to deal with Jacob Wilson and get the money out by the way, but after much deliberation, there was no substantial progress.

In the evening, Charlie Wade made a meal and Claire Wilson Wilson came back.

As soon as Claire Wilson Wilson came back, Jacob Wilson told her to let her go to the furniture store tomorrow morning.

Chapter 774

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly asked Charlie Wade how the two million came.

Charlie Wade said lightly: "Look at Feng Shui."

Claire Wilson Wilson was surprised and said, "You can give two million with a feng shui look. Isn't this too outrageous?"

Charlie Wade asked back: "Wasn't it even more ridiculous that the White family gave back a villa?"

Claire Wilson Wilson was speechless to refute.

Charlie Wade said: "My wife, I know what you are worried about, but you can rest assured that I helped this big man see Feng Shui and indirectly helped him solve a big business problem, which made him earn tens of millions. It is reasonable to take him two million."

Claire Wilson Wilson was just a little relieved and asked, "Did you give the two million to your dad?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "I gave it to him."

Claire Wilson Wilson said anxiously: "I'm worried that my mother will be thinking about the money, maybe she will be a demon again!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "It's okay, let's go to the furniture store tomorrow, and try to spend the two million. When the time comes, my mother will not miss it."

.....

At this moment, the Wilson family villa.

Lady Wilson held the collection slip from the Agricultural Bank, her expression uglier than crying.

The Agricultural Bank owes more than 10 million in arrears. According to the requirements of the Agricultural Bank, it must first repay 10 percent, which is more than 1 million.

Now the Wilson family is down and out of money, and more and more orders are being collected by the bank.

The more than one million Dollar in the Agricultural Bank is still small, and there are more than 20 million holes in China Merchants Bank. I don't know how to fill it.

Christopher Wilson was also worried at this time and said to the old lady Wilson: "Mom, it's really not good. Let's sell our mahogany furniture.

How can I sell it for a million? Fill it in and think about the rest."

"Selling furniture, you know selling furniture!"

Lady Wilson angrily reprimanded: "These furniture are all left by your father. You really don't feel sorry for selling!"

Christopher Wilson said helplessly, "Isn't there anything I can do? If you don't sell, the hurdle in front of us will be overwhelming!"

Lady Wilson grabbed a teacup and suddenly fell to Christopher Wilson's feet!

The teacup suddenly fell apart, and Christopher Wilson also hurriedly stepped aside in fright.

The Lady Wilson glared at Christopher Wilson, gritted her teeth and said:

"I told you a long time ago, give me the money! Give me the money! What about you? You don't believe me! You don't believe me! You play with me carefully, you take you All that money was given to Hannah, that damn stinky lady, and now it's alright, and that b*tch Hannah ran away with money. Are you satisfied? Are you comfortable?"

The mention of Hannah or the thought of her makes Christopher Wilson very uncomfortable.

This woman can be a lie!

For more than 20 years, she has been doing very well, loving herself and children very much, and she is very responsible for her family.

However, she never dreamed that she would donate all her money and ran away when the Wilson family was in the most difficult time!

This incident dealt a huge blow to Christopher Wilson, and also caused him extremely injured.

He even wanted to find Hannah and cut her a thousand times. However, reality does not give him this opportunity at all. He asked people to inquire and looked for clues everywhere, but found nothing. Hannah disappeared completely as if the world had evaporated.

Seeing the old lady's anger, he had to speak out and persuade him: "Mom, you are right, but our biggest problem now is that we need a sum of money to help us in the emergency, our furniture, or the antiques my dad left behind. , You say you have to sell a few things, so that you can exchange some cash to save your life!"

Chapter 775

When the Lady Wilson heard that Christopher Wilson asked herself to sell furniture or antiques, she didn't get angry.

She angrily said: "I can bear selling furniture, don't even think about selling antiques! Those are the coffin books your dad left me when he died!"

Christopher Wilson hurriedly persuaded: "Mom, this person is still the most important thing when you are alive. Are you hiding those antiques until you bring them back to my dad?"

"Don't fart!" Lady Wilson cursed angrily, and shouted: "Do you know what a fart? These furniture are all registered in the bank. Once the bank comes to seal up, they will definitely buckle this batch of furniture, but those antiques, The bank doesn't know that, once we are finally unable to recover and the house is taken away by the bank, those antiques can be used to save lives!"

Christopher Wilson realized this!

Selling furniture now is tantamount to secretly disposing of the mortgaged things to the bank in advance, which is regarded as making up for the loss.

But now selling antiques, once the people in the bank know that they are worried about it, they may have to find all these antiques by digging the ground.

Therefore, this antique cannot be sold as a last resort.

Therefore, Christopher Wilson hurriedly complimented and said: "Mom, you should think more comprehensively, I will listen to you."

Lady Wilson snorted coldly and said, "You had listened to me and gave me the money. Today will not be like now!"

Thinking of the Wilson family's severance of financial resources and the tragic situation of being heavily in debt, Mrs. Wilson jumped angrily.

And all of this is thanks to Christopher Wilson's wife, Hannah.

If it weren't for Hannah's b*tch to run away with money, how could the Wilson family be reduced to its current miserable situation?

Moreover, Mrs. Wilson had thought about it a long time ago and asked her son to take out 8 million first, and first repay part of the bank's foreign debt, and then drag it for a while to find other solutions.

But now, everything has fallen through. There is no money for money, no people for money, and the bank has urged the door to come. The entire Wilson family is already in a depressed state.

The older Mrs. Wilson wanted to get more and more angry, she couldn't help but slapped the table and cursed: "Hannah, this btch, how come I haven't noticed that she is a natural rebellion! She and Elaine Ma, the btch, are just like the same raccoon. Let her marry into the Wilson family. This is the decision I regret in my life. I should have driven her out of the Wilson family and starved to death on the street."

Speaking of this, Mrs. Wilson bit her posterior molars and said angrily: "This b*tch is cool now! More than two million in cash in her hand, she also has a little white face, I don't know where I am happy now! "

Lady Wilson didn't know that at this moment, her daughter-in-law Hannah was much worse than Wilson's family.

Every day, she digs coal in the dark coal kiln. She has to wear a dozen cattles of cast iron shackles on her feet. It is impossible to rest if she does not work for twelve hours a day. Her hands and feet are worn out with blood blisters. , Flesh and blood.

Moreover, the owner of the mine where Hannah was located was very cruel, and arranged a fierce supervisor for the group of laborers Don Albertt had sent over. They were beaten up for their coal mining activities. If they were dissatisfied, they used it. The whip lashed hard.

Hannah used to be properly maintained, and she could be said to have the charm at the age of 40 or 50. So when she arrived at the black coal kiln, she was remembered by the overseer. Originally, she didn't look down on the dirty and smelly overseer and would rather die. Not willing to let him touch.

However, after being beaten maliciously several times by the opponent and deliberately hungry several times, she completely compromised and became the concubine of the overseer in the black coal mine.

After being a concubine for a supervisor, although she had some relief from physical labor, she suffered mentally.

Originally, she was also a woman worth tens of millions and living in a villa every day, so she was a half-laden woman.

But now, in a dim, dirty, and even smelly tiled house, trying her best to cater to the dirty old supervisor with her body is simply the greatest torment in the world.

Chapter 776

But in order to live, in order not to be beaten or hungry, Hannah can only choose to compromise.

However, at this time, the Wilson family, how did they know that she was suffering and insulted like this.

They thought she was lying in a five-star hotel, being served by a lover who was twenty years younger than her.

Therefore, the Wilson cursed Hannah bitterly. Christopher Wilson and his sons and daughters heard this. Not only were they not angry, but they were also aroused by anger and dissatisfaction in their hearts.

To say that the most hurt person by Hannah belonged to Christopher Wilson's family.

For Christopher Wilson, both people and wealth are empty, and all day long wondering whether Hannah would go crazy looking for young guys outside with the ten million Dollar, and wear countless green hats on herself.

The reason why Harold and Wendy hate Hannah is very simple, that is money!

Without the money, the Wilson family was struggling. Even with the two rich second generations of them, they were desperately like dogs. The more they lived, the more they were suffocated.

"Damn, Hannah, this b*tch, if I get her one day, I have to break her leg, otherwise I can't get out of this nasty breath!"

Christopher gritted his teeth and cursed loudly. After the cursing, he took out his phone and said angrily: "I'm looking for a car. I will take these furniture to the furniture store tomorrow morning and let people give an estimate. If it's appropriate, then Sold directly."

Lady Wilson looked at the furniture displayed at home in pain with a look of dismay.

When the Lord Wilson was alive, the Wilson family had a glorious experience. Some furniture was made of fine rosewood. Not only does it have a lot of value, but the meaning is also different.

However, there is no way to reluctantly, if you don't sell it, you will have to return to the bank sooner or later.

So she said to Christopher: "If these furniture are sold slowly, let alone the value of one million six hundred and seven hundred thousand, we are anxious to sell, the other party will definitely have to keep the price down, so the price must not be so high, but if you can give it a price One million and three hundred thousand, you can shoot."

"Okay." Christopher Wilson nodded and said, "1.3 million is not too much, at least it can be turned around first."

.....

At this time, Jacob Wilson was lying on the sofa, using his mobile phone to look for pictures of furniture, and wanted to look at the furniture style he was interested in first.

Elaine Ma muttered with ulterior motives from the side: "Jacob Wilson, don't be extravagant when buying furniture, save a little money and we will live in the future."

Jacob Wilson snorted disdainfully, and said, "My son-in-law said, two million will be used to buy furniture and appliances."

Elaine Ma suddenly became anxious, and blurted out: "I buy furniture, but life is not enough?"

Jacob Wilson said dissatisfied: "What are you yelling at? This money was given by Charlie Wade to buy furniture and appliances. If you spend 1.5 million, the remaining 500,000 will be returned to Charlie Wade. I persuade you. Don't worry about it, I won't give you a penny."

"You..." Elaine Ma gritted his teeth bitterly.

But at this time, Jacob Wilson had two million in his hands, and she had nothing in his hands. Before cracking his password, she couldn't do anything!

At this time, Jacob Wilson saw a set of classical Chinese-style all-wood furniture and sighed: "If we can take a set of this kind of furniture, or get the set of rosewood and mahogany furniture from the Wilson family, we put it in our set. It's perfect in the new villa!"

Chapter 777

The next morning, Charlie Wade's family of four had eaten and drove directly to the Furniture City.

Elaine Ma thought about it all night, but she didn't think of how to get the money from Jacob Wilson's bank account. Seeing that it was going to be spent, she scratched her heart anxiously.

At the same time, Mrs. Wilson's family also got up early in the morning. After breakfast, the truck arrived. The workers loaded the Rosewood furniture from the Wilson family, and drove to the furniture market with the Wilson family.

In the west of Aurouss Hillll, there is a large-scale furniture city. Almost all the furniture sellers in Aurouss Hillll gather here.

There are everything from high, middle and low grade furniture here, and it can be said to be the best place to buy furniture.

Jacob Wilson himself has always been under the influence of Father Wilson, and he especially likes antiques. Not only does he like to shop for antiques, he also likes old furniture, especially old furniture with good wood.

He has always liked the set of Rosewood furniture in the Wilson's villa, but it's a pity that he can't have it to himself, so he can only think about it.

Because he likes old wooden furniture, Jacob Wilson has to go straight to the wooden furniture hall when he arrives in the furniture city.

When Elaine Ma saw him head straight to the wooden furniture store, his face was immediately pulled off, and he blurted out: "Jacob Wilson, you are not allowed to buy a bunch of rotten wooden furniture home! Our house is a luxuriously decorated villa. Buy it if you want. This kind of luxurious European-style furniture, that kind of wood furniture, is earthy and expensive, and it's uncomfortable to sit down, absolutely not to buy!"

"What do you know?" Jacob Wilson said disdainfully: "Chinese-style furniture plays with wood and heritage, and there is still a lot of room for appreciation for this thing, and culturally talented people can understand it!"

Elaine Ma blurted out: "We are both from the same university, do you think you are more educated than me?"

Jacob Wilson waved his hand: "This kind of culture talks about the foundation, I don't need to explain it to you."

After finishing speaking, he said to Charlie Wade: "Good son-in-law, if we can buy a set of Rosewood furniture, we won't come in vain today!"

Charlie Wade nodded indifferently and said, "Dad, as you like it."

Seeing that Jacob Wilson ignored her, Elaine Ma stomped her feet in anger. She would have been mad at her when she was going, but now she dare not mad at him casually. After all, she doesn't have any money now. Isn't it too passive to turn her face at this time?

So she could only pull Claire Wilson Wilson aside and said, "Claire Wilson Wilson, you persuade your dad not to buy that kind of flashy wooden furniture, which is expensive and unsightly. What's the matter? Keep hundreds of thousands in the bank. Isn't it good to prepare for a rainy day?"

Claire Wilson Wilson said helplessly: "Mom, since that money Charlie Wade has given Dad full control, let's not interfere."

"You kid, why aren't you facing me at all?" Elaine Ma didn't expect Claire Wilson Wilson to be indifferent to him at all, and suddenly felt uncomfortable.

Claire Wilson Wilson said earnestly: "Mom, you have lost so much money in a game of cards. It's time to learn a little bit and stop. Now that you have agreed to let Dad control the money, you must respect Dad's choice." Elaine Ma was as uncomfortable as it was in his throat.

At this time, Jacob Wilson walked directly into a shop called "Kane's Emporium", this shop is a store that specializes in Rosewood furniture, which is quite famous in Aurouss Hilll.

As soon as I entered, a shopping guide stepped forward and asked enthusiastically: "What would you like to see?"

Jacob Wilson said: "I want to see the rosewood furniture, which is in the living room."

The shopping guide hurriedly asked: "Then how big is your living room?"

Jacob Wilson said: "Almost a hundred square meters!"

Chapter 778

"A living room with more than 100 square meters?!" The shopping guide was dumbfounded after listening, and blurted out: "This is too big, right?" Jacob Wilson chuckled and said, "Thompson First's largest villa, can the living room be small?"

The shopping guide's eyes were full of shock, and he hurriedly said: "Sir, such a big living room, then you can buy more furniture to look less empty!"

After that, the shopping guide hurriedly led him to a set of Rosewood sofa and introduced: "Sir, our set of 3221 Rosewood sofa is specially designed for villa customers. There are eight people in total. Being able to sit down is very atmospheric."

Jacob Wilson stepped forward and touched the armrest of the sofa. He was very satisfied with the slippery touch. He curiously asked, "What price is this set?"

The other party said: "Sir, this set is made of Fujian Rosewood, good quality wood, and old material. If you like it, we can give you a cost price of 1.98 million!"

"Oh!" Jacob Wilson was startled and said, "You are expensive!"

The other party explained: "This is made of Fujian materials, good materials, so the price is naturally more expensive, but your Thompson First first-class large-scale villa is worth hundreds of millions of dollars. Such a luxurious villa requires such a set of sofas.!"

Elaine Ma frowned on the side and said: "What kind of a ghost sofa, a set will cost almost two million. After buying this family, you can just sleep on the sofa!"

Jacob Wilson glared at her, and then said embarrassingly: "This set is too over-budget, is there a cheaper one? For example, the price of Burmese rosewood is not much lower than that of Fujian?"

The shopping guide said: "This set of Burmese rosewood costs about one million Dollar, and we don't have it in stock now."

After finishing talking, the shopping guide added another sentence, saying: "Most people who play rosewood still like Fujian materials, but Burmese materials are really not up to the standard."

Jacob Wilson smacked his lips, feeling a little regretful.

I bought a sofa set for nearly two million, which obviously exceeded my budget too much.

After all, not only buying a sofa at home, but also other furniture and appliances in the living room, furniture for at least two bedrooms, furniture for the dining room, and appliances for the room.

Bedroom furniture and dining room furniture don't need to be so good, but at least a few hundred thousand are enough. So if you want to buy a good sofa, the budget cannot exceed 1.4 million.

So he hurriedly asked the shopping guide: "If I order a set of Burmese materials, how long will it take to deliver it?"

"This..." The other party thought for a while, and said, "It will take a month for less to say. You know, this kind of timber is more troublesome to purchase. When the timber comes in, it will be sent to the processing plant for processing. It will take a long time to send it to Aurouss Hill again."

"This is too long..."

Jacob Wilson thought to himself, can't the living room even have a sofa after moving in as a family?

It seems that I can only look at other cheaper sofas.

As he was thinking, he suddenly heard a familiar voice, and said, "Is the boss here? Can I accept second-hand old furniture? Fujian Rosewood!"

Jacob Wilson turned his head subconsciously, and suddenly looked at his big brother Christopher, who was walking into the store.

Christopher didn't expect that he would meet Jacob Wilson's family here. When he thought of his current desolate appearance, he almost subconsciously wanted to turn around and leave.

At this time, a man suddenly walked out of the store, looked at Jacob Wilson, and hurriedly asked loudly: "Did you say you want to sell Fujian Rosewood furniture?"

Chapter 779

Jacob Wilson was confused by the boss's question.

I'm obviously here to buy furniture, how can I sell it?

So he said to the boss: "I'm here to buy furniture, can you understand it?"

The shopping guide also hurriedly said: "Boss, this gentleman wants to buy a set of Rosewood furniture."

After finishing speaking, he pointed to Christopher who had just come in, and said, "This gentleman is selling furniture."

The boss suddenly realized, and hurriedly said to Jacob Wilson: "Oh, I'm so sorry, I made a mistake."

Then he looked at Christopher and asked him, "Sir, are you selling furniture?"

When Christopher heard Jacob Wilson say that he was here to buy furniture, he really wanted to turn around and leave.

After all, he didn't want Jacob Wilson to read the joke either.

However, this store is the largest rosewood furniture store in Aurouss Hill, and it is also the most affordable store for second-hand rosewood furniture on the market. If you turn around and go, you might lose a thousands or so less when you go to other stores. Millions even.

So, he could only bite the bullet and said to the boss: "Yes, it's me. I have a set of Fujian Rosewood sofas and chairs that I want to sell. They are all old things."

The boss hurriedly smiled and said: "Okay, we mainly make furniture for Fujian Rosewood. Where are your goods? Is it convenient to take a look first?"

Christopher glanced at Jacob Wilson awkwardly, and said in a low voice, "The goods are in the car, and the car is in the parking lot. You can come and see with me."

Looking at Christopher at this time, Jacob Wilson was secretly surprised. Because of the disappearance of Hannah, Christopher Wilson has been very upset recently, and at the same time worried, so he has lost a lot of weight, his hair has turned white all of a sudden, and he looks quite a little down.

Jacob Wilson had never seen such a decadent big brother.

And Christopher's side was followed by Mrs. Wilson and his son and daughter.

The four grandparents all looked decadent, especially the son, with ugly expressions.

The thought of selling the valuable furniture left by her husband made Lady Wilson feel like a knife cut in her heart, not only hurting but also bleeding.

Suddenly seeing Jacob Wilson and Jacob Wilson's family also here, her face suddenly became more ugly.

Jacob Wilson hesitated for a moment, but he walked over and asked, "Mom, brother, why are you here?"

"Humph!" Christopher Wilson said coldly, "What? We are not allowed in this place?"

Jacob Wilson hurriedly said: "I didn't mean that. You just said that you want to sell a set of Fujian Rosewood furniture. Isn't it the one that our dad left behind?"

Christopher Wilson suddenly became angry, and blurted out, "What does it have to do with you?"

Chapter 780

After that, he was too lazy to take care of Jacob Wilson, and said to the boss: "You can go out with me to see the goods!"

"Okay!" The boss nodded, and went out of the store with Christopher. Mrs. Wilson frowned at this moment and looked at Jacob Wilson, and asked coldly: "What are you doing here?"

Although Jacob Wilson had indeed severed the relationship with the family, on the bright side, she was his own mother anyway, and there was still some respect and jealousy when she met.

So, he replied respectfully: "Mom, Charlie Wade's villa isn't decorated, we are thinking about buying some furniture so we can move in."

Jacob Wilson was telling the truth, but listening to Mrs. Wilson's ears made her feel more uncomfortable than hitting her in the face!

When I watched this, I was about to be driven out of the villa, and even started to sell some things left by the old man, but the Jacob Wilson family, who was driven out of the house by himself, was going to move to the super luxurious building of Thompson First. Go to the villa, isn't this just to draw your own face? !

When I thought that Thompson First A05 was the best villa in Aurouss Hill, the Lady Wilson felt uncomfortable. She gritted her teeth and said, "You came to show off to me on purpose and watch me joke, right?"

"No!" Jacob Wilson shouted wronged, and hurriedly explained: "Mom, I didn't mean it. You asked me why I came here, so I told the truth."

Seeing Jacob Wilson's humble expression in front of the Lady Wilson, Elaine Ma was very upset.

This Lady Wilson has bullied herself for so many years, and now she's down to the point of selling second-hand furniture, is she still arrogant here? Who do you show with an old face?

Thinking of this, Elaine Ma immediately stepped forward and said mockingly: "Oh, my mother, why did you come here? You still want to sell the furniture that Dad left behind? The Wilson family is now poor. Does it look like?"

The Lady Wilson looked at Elaine Ma's mocking, playful face, suddenly became angry, and blurted out: "Elaine Ma, who gave you the courage to talk to me like this?!"

"Oh!" Elaine Ma curled his lips and said, "What is it? You are about to go bankrupt, and you still treat yourself as the head of the family? Isn't it ashamed?"

When the Lady Wilson heard Elaine Ma mocked herself, she immediately blurted out, "Elaine Ma, how do you talk to me? Is there still my mother-in-law in your eyes?"

Elaine Ma said disdainfully: "I know you can't look down on me. What you like is your eldest daughter-in-law Hannah, but your eldest daughter-in-law is really filial to you. I heard that you gave your son a favor. The big green hat swept away all his savings."

Speaking of this, Elaine Ma sighed and deliberately reprimanded: "This sister-in-law is really cruel. Even if you leave one or two million for your family, you wouldn't want to sell furniture so miserable now!"

The Wilson angrily cursed: "Elaine Ma! You shrew, I shouldn't have let you into my Wilson family back then!"

Elaine Ma said contemptuously: "I'm sorry, we have left the Wilson family now and are no longer in your Wilson family's door, and the broken villa of your Wilson family is too old for too long, we have long been unable to look down on it, let me tell you , After we bought the furniture today, we moved directly to Thompson First A05, a large villa with thousands of square meters, full of luxurious decoration, living in it is like a queen and mother, but you , you have no chance to live in this life. !"

In the past, Elaine Ma was not less angry with Mrs. Wilson, and never had a chance to find her place.

Moreover, she has always held grudges, and has no chance to retaliate against the Lady Wilson. Now that she is in despair, she naturally has to sneer.

Lady Wilson was trembling with anger at this time, and gritted her teeth and said: "Elaine Ma, don't be too proud, isn't your villa deceived by Charlie Wade's trash? You will be kicked out one day. , Then I will wait to see you sleep on the street!"

Elaine Ma pinched her waist and said, "Wait to see me sleeping on the street? I think you will be sleeping on the street soon, right? I heard that the bank will take your villa soon. Then I will see what you do. Do! Someday if you starve to death, die of thirst, or freeze to death on the side of the road, you must reflect on it carefully before you die, why did you end up so tragically? Is it because you have done too much retribution in this life!"

Chapter 781

"Enough!" The Lady Wilson's chest rose and fell violently, staring at Elaine Ma, and cursed: "You shrew, what if the Wilson family is now down? Sooner or later we have a chance to rise again, your family will It's impossible to return to Wilson's house if you wish.

Jacob Wilson hurriedly said to Elaine Ma at this time: "How can you talk to mom like this? Hurry up and apologize to mom!"

Elaine Ma frowned and looked at Jacob Wilson, and said coldly: "You forgot how this old woman drove you out? At this time, she started to turn to her again. You treat her as a mother. Does she treat you as a son?"

After finishing speaking, Elaine Ma pointed at Mrs. Wilson again, and said coldly: "Lady, I beg you to figure out what is wrong with you now, and you are still pretending with me? I tell you, you are kneeling now. If you ask me to return on the ground, I won't go back! What kind of shit Wilson's family is reduced to selling furniture to survive. Who the hell is going back!"

The Lady Wilson was mad and pointed to Elaine Ma's nose, saying every word: "Elaine Ma, my has lived for so many years. You are the first person who dares to talk to me like this. Remember what you said today. Sooner or later, one day, I will break your leg and make you kneel in front of me and kowtow to apologize!"

Elaine Ma disdainfully smiled: "Come on, just you? A handful of old bones are almost in the soil, and you want to break my 's leg? Come on, my leg is here, if you have the ability, you can hit me. Give it a try?"

As he said, Elaine Ma actually stretched out his legs and sneered at the Lady Wilson with contempt.

This made the Lady Wilson annoyed enough, she couldn't wait to really interrupt Elaine Ma's legs on the spot, so that she would dare to be so arrogant again.

However, in front of Charlie Wade, Mrs. Wilson didn't dare at all.

She still remembers the scene where Charlie Wade hit a group of bodyguards alone, which made her still feel lingering.

Harold Wilson used to be very arrogant, but now that Charlie Wade was there, he didn't dare to move for a long time. Seeing that his grandma was insulted by Elaine Ma, he didn't dare to step forward and help find a place, so he could only hide behind with a sad face.

At this time, Christopher had a dark face and came back with the boss. As soon as he came back, he said to Mrs. Wilson: "Mom, let's go, they bid too low!"

The boss hurriedly said: "Brother, 1.1 million is really a lot. Your set of furniture is of average materials, and it has been old and the damage is relatively large. My price is already very fair. You can change it to another place. , Absolutely can't get a higher price than this."

Lady. Wilson was so angry that she heard that the quotation was only one million and one hundred thousand, and she immediately scolded: "For such a good piece of furniture, only one million and one hundred thousand? Your heart is too dark, right?"

The boss said helplessly: "I'm a sincere price. If you don't believe it, just ask about it again."

Mrs. Wilson coldly snorted and said to her family: "Go! Change another house! I still don't believe it!"

Jacob Wilson hurriedly said at this time: "Mom, or I will give you 1.2 million, you can sell it to me, to be honest, I have feelings for Dad's furniture."

"You want to be beautiful!" Lady Wilson gritted her teeth and said, "Even if I chopped and burned the wood, I will never sell it to you!"

After speaking, she waved to Christopher Wilson, "Go!"

Christopher Wilson gave Jacob Wilson a dry look, and hurriedly accompanied the Lady Wilson to turn around and leave.

Looking at their backs, Jacob Wilson couldn't help but shook his head again and again, and sighed: "I didn't expect that the Wilson family would be reduced to a seller's property. That set of furniture was my father's favorite during his lifetime. It's a shame to sell it!"

Claire Wilson Wilson knew that his father had a lot of affection for that furniture, but he still came forward to comfort him: "Okay, Dad, grandma has a temper. It's impossible to sell that furniture to you. Let's take a look at the others. ."

"Yeah." Jacob Wilson sighed, and immediately said to the shopping guide: "Let me take a look again, your Fujian materials are too expensive, and Burmese materials have been waiting too long."

Chapter 782

The shopping guide nodded and said, "If you need it, come back."

Turning around, Mrs. Wilson's family has disappeared.

Jacob Wilson went to several shops selling rosewood, but it seemed that he didn't see the one he liked.

Elaine Ma was anxious, so he proposed to buy other furniture such as the bedroom, dining room, etc., otherwise it is very likely that he would go shopping for nothing today.

Jacob Wilson also felt that it was not a problem to look at it this way, so the family moved to the living hall.

Elaine Ma chose a set of tens of thousands of beds for herself, and Claire Wilson Wilson also chose a set of more than 10,000. Furniture such as wardrobes, dining tables, and storage cabinets were quickly available in the living hall.

He even bought all the household appliances he needed and other miscellaneous things for a total of more than 700,000 Dollar.

Elaine Ma has been quietly settling accounts for Jacob Wilson. Knowing that he still has more than 1.2 million Dollar left, she has an idea in her heart. If Jacob Wilson really uses the money to buy a set of rosewood sofas, it will really be any money. There is not much left, but if you just buy a good European style sofa, at least one million will be left. So she kept mumbling next to Jacob Wilson and said: "Jacob Wilson, if you can't find a suitable rosewood sofa, it's better to buy a set of European style first, and when you have money, let's just buy a set of 1 million Dollar. Isn't the Persian red pear better?"

Jacob Wilson knew what her idea was, so he said lightly: "You don't have to worry about what kind of sofa I buy. Anyway, the furniture for the bedroom, dining room, and recreation room are all available, enough for you."

Elaine Ma was very depressed, and blurted out: "Why don't you listen to persuasion! You buy a ready-made sofa and it will be delivered to your home in the afternoon. Tomorrow our family can move to a new house happily. But, if you continue to consume it, this little money can't buy Fujian materials, and you can't look down on Burmese materials. How long will it be spent?"

Jacob Wilson suddenly hesitated.

More than 1.2 million Dollar, buying rosewood is indeed high or low. If you continue to hesitate, it will definitely delay the normal use after moving.

If, according to Elaine Ma, buy a set of European-style sofa now, it can be delivered to you this afternoon, and you can move in tomorrow.

When Jacob Wilson was hesitant, Charlie Wade suddenly said, "Dad, I think Mrs. Wilson will definitely contact you after a while."

Jacob Wilson asked subconsciously: "Why?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Because of the money! That set of furniture must be sold for less than 1.1 million Dollar. It is estimated that you will have the highest price after a round, so it must be sold to you."

Elaine Ma said contemptuously: "What are you talking nonsense? Didn't you listen to the Lady just now? Even if you chop and burn wood, you won't sell it to us!"

"So what?" Charlie Wade said calmly, "They are now at the poorest time. Dad has paid an extra 100,000 Dollar. This 100,000 Dollar is a large sum for them. The Lady Wilson is so smart. People who are arrogant will definitely not throw away this 100,000 Dollar for nothing."

Elaine Ma curled his lips and said: "Just can you? Do you think you can see a feng shui fool, so you can see through everything? Based on my understanding of the Lady Wilson, if she can swallow this breath, take this Sell the furniture to us, and I will eat that set of furniture raw!" As soon as the voice fell, Jacob Wilson's cell phone rang suddenly, and he was surprised and said, "It's my eldest brother."

After speaking, he quickly picked up the phone to connect.

Christopher Wilson said coldly on the phone, "You said just now that you want this set of furniture for $1.2 million, is it true?"

Chapter 783

When Jacob Wilson heard this, he said with excitement: "Of course it is true, 1.2 million, I want it!"

Christopher Wilson said angrily: "Okay, since you really want it, put the money on your mother's card, and this furniture will be sold to you!"

Jacob Wilson left an eye on it and said, "In this way, you send the furniture to Thompson First A05. After the furniture is unloaded, I will pay immediately."

Christopher Wilson on the other side of the phone hesitated for a moment, and said, "Okay, things are in the car now and can be transported at any time."

Jacob Wilson hurriedly said, "Well, let's see you at Thompson First! I'll wait for you there!"

After speaking, Jacob Wilson immediately hung up and said excitedly:

"Charlie Wade, you guessed it! They are willing to sell!"

Elaine Ma's expression suddenly became very ugly.

Not only did he just say something, he was slapped in the face by a phone call by Jacob Wilson, but more importantly, if Jacob Wilson bought the old furniture with this 1.2 million Dollar, wouldn't his family have no money?

Thinking of this, Elaine Ma was extremely depressed, and the look in Charlie Wade's eyes was almost humane.

Charlie Wade didn't bother to talk to Elaine Ma, he knew exactly what Elaine Ma wanted, so the more she couldn't get it, the more interesting he found it.

It just so happened that the family of four had also bought other furniture, so Charlie Wade drove the car and drove the family to Thompson First.

Thompson First's A05 villa has been completed. Except for the lack of furniture, everything else is full of incomparable luxury. The decoration of the living room is magnificent. The whole floor is polished by natural marble, like a mirror, which makes people feel like a mirror. It feels magnificent.

Elaine Ma looked at the extravagant decoration, her pores were stretched out, and she was happy from ear to ear.

Jacob Wilson was also inexplicably surprised, and said with emotion:

"When I saw it last time, the decoration was not finished yet, and the living room is still covered with scratch-resistant floor mats. I can't see the details. If I look at it today, it looks more stylish than the palace.!"

Claire Wilson Wilson does the decoration herself, so you can see the cost of the decoration of this villa at a glance. She pulled Charlie Wade aside and whispered: "This decoration probably costs tens of millions. Why is Mr. White doing this? Generous?"

Charlie Wade said: "After all, it's a rich man. A villa worth more than one hundred million Dollar is given away, so tens of millions of decorations are nothing."

"Okay..." Claire Wilson Wilson stuck his tongue out and said, "This is the first time I have seen such a high-standard residential decoration. It's too scary."

Charlie Wade smiled without saying a word.

In his mind, there are still many memories of being in the Wade family as a child.

The Wade Family Mansion in my memory was many times more luxurious than this ten or twenty years ago.

Just when Claire Wilson Wilson's family of three were amazed by the luxurious decoration of the villa, Christopher Wilson led the truck with the goods and arrived at the door of Thompson First Villa.

Jacob Wilson was overjoyed and hurried out to direct the porters to move the Fujian Rosewood furniture into the villa.

Lady Wilson took Christopher, Harold and Wendy, got out of the car and took a look in the courtyard. After the villa's courtyard was renovated, it was much more luxurious than before, and the four of them felt uncomfortable to death.

Christopher went into the villa because he had to follow in to see how the furniture was moved. When he came out, his face looked many times uglier than before.

Mrs. Wilson couldn't help asking: "Christopher, how is the decoration inside?"

"Hey..." Christopher Wilson sighed and said uncomfortably: "I have never seen such a luxurious decoration! It's so dizzy!"

"Really?!" The Lady Wilson came to her energy, blurted out: "I want to go in and take a look!"

Harold also wanted to see and insight, so he hurriedly said: "Grandma, I will support you!"

Wendy looked at this villa with an extremely complicated mood.

She used to be the fiancée of Gerald White's son, and this villa was owned by Gerald White's uncle Zeke White. If she had married Gerald White, this villa could not only come here often, but might even live here.

Chapter 784

But now, the one who is about to live here is Claire Wilson Wilson, who she has looked down upon and has been very upset!

Thinking of this, she couldn't help saying: "Grandma, I'll be with you too!"

After speaking, he walked up quickly, and supported his grandma with his brother Harold from left to right.

The grandparents walked into the living room, looking at the magnificent and carved decoration, they couldn't even speak in amazement.

Above the living room, there is an oversized ceiling of more than ten meters high. In the center is a huge and luxurious golden crystal lamp. The light is refracted through the crystal and it is colorful and it is so beautiful that it is suffocating!

Lady Wilson stood in the living room, her legs trembling.

My own villa, if compared with this place, is simply a huge pit!

The decoration here is simply countless times stronger than that of our own villa!

The Lady Wilson couldn't help thinking, what a pleasant experience would it be if you could live here?

I'm afraid that I just want to stay at home every day, look here, touch there...

It's a pity that I have no life!

This son, Jacob Wilson, don't look at the usual squanderings, he is really lucky in choosing a son-in-law.

Who would have thought that the smelly silk from an orphanage like Charlie Wade could have such good luck?

Knowing this a long time ago, I would never look down on Charlie Wade at the beginning, and be polite to him when you say anything, and be polite to Jacob Wilson's family. In that case, I might have the opportunity to live in this luxurious villa.

It is a pity that he had clearly severed his relationship with Jacob Wilson at the beginning, even if he wanted to restore the relationship with him, he would not agree...

Harold and Wendy on the side felt even more uncomfortable.

Wendy looked at this palace-like living room, her eyes even turned red.

If it wasn't grandma who had offended Charlie Wade, how could the White family retreat to herself?

I should have become the young grand daughter of the White family, but now, after being played by Chairman Wilson and Mr. Weaver, my reputation in Aurouss Hillll has been completely ruined. During this time, I didn't even have a suitor by my side. I wanted to marry a rich family. It's a foolish dream!

When the grandfather and grandson were thinking about each other, the porter had moved all the furniture into the living room.

Jacob Wilson took a count and checked one by one to make sure that everything was okay, and he was extremely excited.

He is really sentimental about this set of furniture, and it can be said that it is the best result to buy this set of furniture.

So he came to the Lady Wilson with a look of excitement and said: "Mom, there is nothing wrong with the furniture, how can I pay you?"

The Lady Wilson looked at Jacob Wilson with a complicated expression, and said, "Jacob Wilson, you are also mom's son. Since you like this set of furniture so much, this furniture mom will give it to you."

Jacob Wilson hurriedly said: "Mom, how can this work? One size fits one size. Even if you send me these pieces of furniture, your eldest brother won't agree. Besides, isn't the Wilson family short of money right now? Maybe it can help the Wilson family."

Mrs. Wilson shook her head and said earnestly, "Jacob Wilson, I know what you want, but don't worry. The Wilson family is still your mother and I am in charge. As long as I say this furniture is given to you, it is given to you."

When Jacob Wilson heard this, he said gratefully: "Thank you mom!"

Elaine Ma on the side was also very excited. Is this Lady Wilson changing her attitude? If you don't want it, just don't want it? That's great! I have another chance!

Unexpectedly, Mrs. Wilson sighed pitifully at this time: "Jacob Wilson, Wilson's villa will be taken away soon. By that time, your mother and I will be sleeping on the street. Your villa is so big and luxurious, isn't it? Shouldn't you leave a bedroom for mom?"

Chapter 785

As soon as Mrs. Wilson said this, the expressions of everyone present changed!

Elaine Ma was the first to change his face!

She instantly understood the intention of her !

Good old man! What an old fox! It's fake that you give furniture, it's real that you want to live in our big villa!

I finally asked you to get rid of the Wilson family, even better than the Wilson family, and can crush the Wilson family.

As a result, you suddenly licked your face and wanted to live in our big villa?

You don't take a piss and take a picture of yourself, are you worthy? !

Jacob Wilson was not a fool either. The last second was indeed touched by the generosity of his mother , but in this second, he immediately understood her intentions.

He knew that if he let her live in his new villa, it would simply lead the wolf into the house, and the whole family would be disturbed, so he could not agree to anything.

Charlie Wade was also a little worried, if this old woman really lived in, that day would be totally turned upside down!

Not only the Charlie Wade family was shocked, but Harold and Wendy next to them were even more shocked!

Not only are they shocked, they are also very angry!

Her meaning is too obvious, this is to go directly to curry with Jacob Wilson's family, and then move over to live with them.

In that case, what should a family of three do? !

My mother rolled 15 million and ran away. My father is almost penniless now, and their siblings have no savings.

The only reliance is the batch of antiques hidden in the hands of Lady Wilson. If she defected to Jacob Wilson's family at this time, wouldn't her family be ruined? !

Once the bank takes away the villa, I'm afraid my family will sleep on the street!

Just when they were tense, Elaine Ma took the lead. She looked at Mrs. Wilson with contempt, and said coldly: "Oh, your wishful thinking is really good. Please kick us out first. Let us live now. It's a big villa, so I want to exchange a set of broken furniture for a room? Do you know how much my villa is? 130 million! Counting the decoration, maybe it's 150 million, a bedroom At least it's worth tens of millions. How much is your set of furniture?"

Lady. Wilson only wants to live in this villa now, so facing Elaine Ma's ridicule, she said with an innocent look: "My daughter, this set of furniture is a little bit of care for mom to send you to the house. How can my heart use money? How about measuring?"

Elaine Ma immediately said: "Don't come to this set. Let's use money to measure it. Isn't it 1.2 million? We would rather give you than let you move in."

Jacob Wilson also instantly realized. Yes, if Mrs. Wilson also moved in, then her life would be no different from hell.

So he immediately said to Mrs. Wilson: "Mom, just send it, you give me a card number, and I will call the money!"

Seeing that Jacob Wilson was not fooled, Mrs. Wilson suddenly lowered her face and asked in a cold voice, "What? Are you obliged to break up with your mother?"

Jacob Wilson hurriedly said: "Mom, I didn't tell you to make a clean break, but you said, but in my eyes, you will always be my mother."

"Where is my mother in your eyes?" Lady Wilson said angrily, "You don't want to leave me a room in such a big villa. You would rather see me starving to death or freezing to death outside. Don't want to support me! Your conscience has been eaten by dogs!"

Before Jacob Wilson had time to speak, Elaine Ma blurted out: "Don't fix that useless thing. Sell sofas and sell sofas. Why do you still rely on us? Tell you, you were the one who broke the relationship and drove us out. Now you regret it, but we don't regret it. After leaving Wilson's house, we don't know how happy we were. If you ask us to restore the relationship now, we will not agree."

Chapter 786

Jacob Wilson also nodded again and again.

He knows what it feels like to have a b*tch in the house, it's just like jumping around.

If there are two shrews in the family, don't ask for this one.

So he was cruel and said: "Mom, give me a card number, I will send you the money, or you can let these porters move the furniture."

Lady Wilson was very angry, and she pointed to Jacob Wilson and was about to come up and slap him. Fortunately, Jacob Wilson reacted quickly and took two steps back to make her rush away.

She was shivering with Jacob Wilson's attitude, and what was even more depressing was that she had no chance to enjoy such a luxurious and extravagant villa, which made every pore in her body feel as uncomfortable as a needle.

However, there is no other way right now.

She could only glare at Jacob Wilson, gritted her teeth and said: "Okay! Really my good son! From now on, we will completely cut off all relations! Even if I die, don't come!"

Elaine Ma answered, "That's just right, it saves us trouble."

"you....."

Lady Wilson coughed violently, took out a bank card, and shouted to Jacob Wilson: "Transfer money! You have to give me 1.21 million!"

Elaine Ma frowned and asked, "Why give you 1.21 million? Didn't you say 1.2 million?"

She said angrily: "I hire a car and hire someone for nothing?"

Elaine Ma said coldly: "What does it have to do with me when you hire someone and hire a car? Why don't you ask for money for the paper you shit and wipe your a in the morning? Do you want me to reimburse you?"

Lady Wilson gritted her teeth and cursed: "You shrew, I slap your broken mouth!"

With that, she stretched out her hand to hit Elaine Ma.

Elaine Ma is not Jacob Wilson, she is not at all polite, she just shakes her hand to open the Lady Wilson's hand forcefully, and coldly said:

"Why? Still want to do it? You are right, I am indeed a shrew, but you are not something. Good bird! You old shrew, do it with me at my house, believe it or not, I'll suck you with my big mouth?"

Having been bullied and despised by Lady Wilson for so many years, Elaine Ma had long wanted to avenge this revenge. He had never had a chance before, but today is a godsend.

Lady Wilson didn't expect that Elaine Ma was really not afraid of herself at all. Although angry, there was really no way to do it.

At this time, Jacob Wilson took the phone to operate, and then said to the : "Mom, 1.21 million has been called to you, you can check it, please go back if there is no problem."

Elaine Ma blurted out: "You have the money to burn? Give me the 10,000 Dollar to do a few spas. What can I do for her? Isn't this feeding the dog?"

Jacob Wilson waved his hand: "Okay, don't say a few words!"

Mrs. Wilson received a text message on her mobile phone at this time.

When she took it out, she found that her account had reached 1.21 million. So she stared at Elaine Ma and said coldly: "Elaine Ma, wait for me. Open your mouth!"

After that, she said to Harold and Wendy: "Let's go!"

Harold and Wendy breathed a sigh of relief.

They are really afraid that their second uncle Jacob Wilson is not firm enough. If they really agree to let Lady Wilson live in, their family of three will be over.

Fortunately, they didn't let her succeed!

Chapter 787

Outside the villa, Christopher saw Lady Wilson coming out with her son and daughter, and immediately asked: "Mom, have you given the money?"

Lady Wilson said with a black face: "Hey, let's go!"

Seeing that Mrs. Wilson seemed very angry, Christopher hurriedly grabbed Harold and asked in a low voice, "What's the matter? Is your grandma angry?"

Harold waited for his sister and grandma to go farther, and then whispered, "Dad, grandma is such a thing!"

"How do you say it!" Christopher let out a low growl, and reprimanded:

"We all rely on your grandma now. You say that to her. What if she hears it?"

Harold said angrily: "Dad! Do you know what grandma said to your second uncle? She said that the furniture was given to your second uncle for nothing. As long as your second uncle keeps a room for her in this villa, let her Come live! Fortunately, the second uncle ignored her, and Elaine Ma even scolded her!"

"What?!" Christopher's expression suddenly changed when he heard this!

OK!

My own mother is really a mess!

Before the accident, she didn't look down on her brother's family, and she was the one who drove them away.

Now that the Wilson family is no longer working, and her younger brother's house is living in a big villa again, she wants to turn her back?

You want to live in a big villa with all your heart, and don't consider it for our family of three at all!

My slut wife ran away with money, and the family of three had no source of income. It all relied on you to sell old things for emergency. At this time, you want to abandon us and go for your own good!

Thinking of this, Christopher was too angry!

But he also dared not say anything, so he could only whisper to Harold:

"We have to find a way to get the antiques left by your grandfather from your grandma, so that we can save ourselves."

Harold hurriedly said: "Grandma has always been reluctant to say it! I keep asking her, she has never answered me directly, the old woman is very good!"

Christopher said coldly: "Come slowly, keep an eye on your grandma these past two days, except for going to the toilet, let me follow her closely!"

"it is good!"

.....

The Wilson family is gone, and Elaine Ma is in the new villa, laughing triumphantly.

Although she still hated Jacob Wilson's changing her mobile phone password to Matilda's birthday, and she also hated Jacob Wilson for spending all her money without giving herself, but today she stunned Lady Wilson. She swept away the grievances of more than two decades and was extremely happy.

Even more happily, I am finally moving into this villa!

Such a luxurious house, I didn't even dare to dream of it before, but now it is in front of my eyes!

Now only the sofa furniture has arrived, but in the afternoon, the people in the furniture store will bring other furniture and home appliances one after another, and then they can officially move in!

Elaine Ma was very excited, and said to Claire Wilson: "Your dad and I will live in the biggest bedroom on the third floor!"

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded and said, "You can live on the third floor. Charlie Wade and I live on the second floor."

Then, she said again: "By the way, I promised Loreen before we moved to the villa to leave her a room. Loreen has been in Aurouss Hilll for a long time, and she has been living in a hotel, which is very pitiful."

Elaine Ma hurriedly asked, "Is that Loreen from the Eastcliff Thomas family?"

"Yes." Claire Wilson Wilson said: "It's her."

Elaine Ma smiled and said: "Okay! The Thomas family is very powerful, and the strength is comparable to that of the Moore family. You have a good relationship with her, and you may be of great use in the future!"

After speaking, Elaine Ma hurried to the elevator and said: "I will go up to the third floor to see how the bedroom is arranged!"

Charlie Wade said to Claire Wilson Wilson, "Shall we go to the second floor to have a look?"

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded and walked up the stairs with him to the second floor.

Chapter 788

The layout of the second floor is the same as that of the third floor. There are three rooms, including one large bedroom and two smaller bedrooms.

The large bedroom is a suite, with a living area outside and a separate bathroom.

Of course Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson chose this room, and then left the bedroom next door to Loreen.

There is also a room on the second floor. Claire Wilson Wilson planned it into her own study. Her company often had to produce design drawings and construction plans, so she needed a room where she could work.

Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson looked around in the room and deliberately said to Claire Wilson Wilson: "My wife, the bed we bought seems to be two meters wide, right?"

"Yeah." Claire Wilson Wilson nodded, and said, "This bedroom is too big. It's not nice to choose a 1.8-meter bed."

Charlie Wade said with a smile: "The two-meter-three bed, you sleep alone, is it too wide?"

Claire Wilson Wilson understood the meaning of his words at once, his face flushed, and asked in a low voice, "What do you mean?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Wife, don't you understand what I mean? I have been sleeping on the floor for three years. Should I go up one level?"

Claire Wilson Wilson said embarrassedly: "What level of promotion? I don't understand what you are saying."

Charlie Wade said hurriedly, "I just upgraded from the ground to the bed."

Claire Wilson Wilson said with a blushing face: "No one said that you would not be allowed to upgrade. Once I asked you if it was cold on the ground, and you still said if it was cold, and you don't want to get up, who do you blame?"

When Charlie Wade heard this, his eyebrows were instantly pleased, and he smiled: "My wife, after we move to a new house, I will officially upgrade, OK?"

Claire Wilson Wilson was very shy and said, "It's up to you!"

After speaking, he hurried out of the room.

Charlie Wade felt very happy. After sleeping on this floor for more than three years, it seemed that it was time to stand up and sing!

.....

In the afternoon, people from the furniture company drove several trucks over to deliver and install them.

There are two bedrooms on the second and third floors, and an additional study room on the second floor.

In one afternoon, all the furniture and home appliances were all available, and only a few pots and pans, bedding and pillows and other daily necessities, you can live here directly.

Elaine Ma lay on his large bed of more than 10,000 Dollar, rolling in excitement, and said to Jacob Wilson, "I plan not to leave today, and I will sleep here at night!"

Jacob Wilson frowned and said, "How can I live tonight? There are no bedding and toiletries!"

Elaine Ma said, "I don't want to go back to live in that broken house anyway!"

Jacob Wilson said with a bit of disgust: "You can't live with it. Anyway, I will go back to live tonight, and I will pack my things and move them in together. If you don't go, you can live here by yourself."

Elaine Ma thought that there was no quilt, and said angrily: "Well, let's go back to clean up together at night, and find a car tomorrow to move in all at once!"

After speaking, Elaine Ma deliberately asked: "How much money is left in our house?"

Jacob Wilson asked vigilantly: "Why are you asking this?"

Elaine Ma said, "I just ask, can't it work?"

Jacob Wilson said: "There are tens of thousands of dollars at home. I warn you not to use the idea of this money. If you want to spend money in the future, you can go out and earn it by yourself. Otherwise, in this house, you will eat, live in, and have you. It is used, but it is not spent by you!"

As soon as Elaine Ma heard this, the fire in her heart could no longer be suppressed, she blurted out: "Jacob Wilson, I f*cking gave you a face, didn't you? You and me have become more and more arrogant these past few days!"

Jacob Wilson asked in a cold voice, "Don't forget, you have lost more than two million Dollar in your family. I am so kind to you!"

Elaine Ma scolded, "You fcking don't fck with me! You changed your phone password to Matilda's birthday. I haven't counted the f*cking account with you yet! I really didn't expect it! I have given everything to you for more than 20 years, and you are still thinking about the vixen who suffered a thousand swords! What's the matter, you still want to keep the sound of the vixen with that fox?!"

Chapter 789

Elaine Ma's words made Jacob Wilson panicked!

He knew about Elaine Ma secretly unlocking his mobile phone, but he thought he had changed the password, Elaine Ma must have guessed it incorrectly, but he did not expect that Elaine Ma knew that he changed the password to Matilda's birthday!

This made him feel flustered for a while, and at the same time he was afraid for a while!

Fortunately, I set a separate payment password by myself, otherwise, the money might have been taken away by Elaine Ma!

Seeing Jacob Wilson's stubbornness, Elaine Ma immediately broke out, and gritted his teeth and cursed: "Aren't you very good these past two days? Hit me, scold me, and show me your face. Why are you dumb now? Didn't you let me say that bit of your dirty mind?"

Jacob Wilson blurted out: "You don't want to talk nonsense here, I don't have any dirty thoughts!"

"Fart!" Elaine Ma scolded: "The phone password has been changed to her birthday, and you told me that you have no dirty thoughts? Fortunately, the vixen who suffered a thousand swords has gone to the United States. Otherwise, you can't bear me. Cheating with her?!"

Jacob Wilson blushed and said, "Why are you like this? Why is Matilda a vixen? Back then, Matilda and I dealt with each other very well. You got me drunk and had a relationship with me, and I ran with you afterwards. Matilda was tricked by you, you are a fox, OK?"

Elaine Ma said angrily: "I am a fox? I f*cking gave birth to your child, I am a fox?"

Jacob Wilson was also furious, and blurted out: "You are a vixen! If you hadn't had sex with me when I was drunk, I would have married Matilda!" As soon as Elaine Ma heard this, he rushed to Jacob Wilson's face in two steps, went up and slapped him, hysterically scolding: "You f*cking dare to scold me like a vixen, and dare to defend Matilda, I'll fight with you today! "

Jacob Wilson was slapped and trembling with anger. He kicked Elaine Ma to the side and pointed to her nose and cursed: "I have tolerated you for more than 20 years. I have had enough of you! If you don't want to After that, we will get divorced immediately! We just moved into the villa right away, and there are many bedrooms. We will separate first before we go through the divorce procedures!"

Elaine Ma was kicked and sat on the ground, crying loudly: "Jacob Wilson! You ungrateful bastard, I have been with you for so many years and have suffered so much. You still think about other women! Now I have to divorce me! I want my daughter to make the decision for me!"

After finishing speaking, she cried loudly in the direction of the door: "My dear daughter, you have to call the shots for your mother, your mother is wronged! Your father is not a thing!"

At this time, Claire Wilson Wilson was setting up the study room on the second floor with Charlie Wade. When he heard the upstairs crying and noisy, Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly said: "It's broken, they're fighting again!"

After speaking, he rushed out the door.

Of course Charlie Wade followed closely behind.

The two hurried upstairs, and as soon as they entered the master bedroom on the third floor, they saw Elaine Ma sitting on the ground, crying tears blurred, and at the same time slapped the ground with both hands, crying: "My dear girl, you can Come, if you don't come, your mother will let your dad, this unscrupulous bastard, be her to death!"

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly wanted to help her, and at the same time asked: "What's wrong with you? The new house has just been finished. Isn't it very happy? Why are you two arguing again?"

Elaine Ma pointed at Jacob Wilson and cried and said, "Your dad, shameless, changed his mobile phone password to the birthday of his first love. Just now he pointed to my nose and called me a vixen. I was pregnant with you back then, and he has long been flying with his first love. He dislikes our marriage!"

When Claire Wilson Wilson heard this, he was really uncomfortable, and hurriedly asked Jacob Wilson, "Dad, is what mom said is true?" Jacob Wilson's expression was extremely ugly and embarrassed, he didn't know how to explain it.

I did change the phone password to Matilda's birthday, and I did call Elaine Ma a vixen.

However, Elaine Ma is really vicious! I never said anything to dislike our daughter, but at this time, she also tied her daughter to her chariot!

Chapter 790

So he could only bite the bullet and explained: "Claire Wilson Wilson, what I told your mother about us back then was not against you. Dad always loved you."

Claire Wilson Wilson didn't know the stories back then, and couldn't help but say a little bit of dissatisfaction: "Dad, I don't care what happened between you and mom, and whether there was still between you and mom. The third one, I only know that you have been married to your mother more than 20 years ago. This is a marriage of your own choice. You must give this marriage enough respect!"

"Like you, changing your mobile phone password to the birthday of your first lover is an infidelity to your marriage! If you don't love your mother or hate your mother, you can divorce your mother and pursue your own happiness, but you can't just do something like this before a marriage is over!"

Jacob Wilson suddenly felt helpless.

He also knew that his daughter was right, and that he did not divorce Elaine Ma, so he changed the phone password to the birthday of his first love, which really shouldn't be.

So he said ashamed: "Claire Wilson Wilson, you are right about this. Dad did a bad job. Dad apologizes to you."

Claire Wilson Wilson said, "You should apologize to mom, not me."

Jacob Wilson can only bite the bullet and say to Elaine Ma: "My fault, I shouldn't change the password to Matilda's birthday, nor should I do it with you, I will change it."

Elaine Ma succeeded, and immediately said: "You immediately change your mobile phone password to my birthday, and then change your bank login password and payment password to my birthday!"

Jacob Wilson rebuked: "Aren't you just trying to control money? What's the point of acting in so many dramas?"

Elaine Ma made a strong argument: "I don't want to manage money, I hope you will give me the respect I deserve!"

Jacob Wilson nodded and said, "Okay! You want to change the password, right? I will change it now."

After finishing speaking, he immediately took out his mobile phone, advanced to mobile banking, and transferred the remaining tens of thousands of dollars to Charlie Wade, and then changed the password to Elaine Ma's birthday.

After finishing all these, Jacob Wilson said coldly, "Okay, I have changed everything, are you satisfied?"

Elaine Ma immediately snatched the phone from him and said, "I will check it first!"

After that, enter your birthday to unlock, and then hurriedly enter the mobile banking.

As a result, when she saw that the balance turned out to be zero, her heart suddenly became angry!

Money? !

Obviously there are tens of thousands of Dollar left!

She hurriedly checked the transfer records and discovered that just now, Jacob Wilson had transferred all the money to Charlie Wade!

This old thing would rather transfer all the money back to Charlie Wade than let himself get a point!

However, Elaine Ma couldn't do anything else for a while.

You can't ask the whereabouts of the money in front of your daughter, it seems that you are all about the money!

I had to gritted my teeth, jot down this in my heart, and then slowly calculate with Jacob Wilson!

Chapter 791

At the end of a farce, neither Jacob Wilson nor Elaine Ma benefited.

Elaine Ma wanted money, but in the end she didn't get a point, and she hurt her depressed chest for a day.

When a family of four returned home from the villa, everyone began to pack their own things. Claire Wilson Wilson did not forget to call Loreen to tell her about the move tomorrow, so that she would prepare tomorrow, check out from the hotel and move in together. live.

When Loreen heard the news, she danced happily.

Ever since she liked Charlie Wade, she had always wanted to find more opportunities to get along with Charlie Wade, but she was busy with work and had to take Claire Wilson Wilson into consideration, so she never had any chance.

If you can live with Claire Wilson Wilson and Charlie Wade, then there will naturally be more opportunities.

So she agreed almost without thinking.

When Charlie Wade's family was busy packing things, Wilson's family was just jumping around.

After selling the furniture and returning from Thompson First,

Christopher has become more dissatisfied with his mother.

Lady Wilson wanted to live in the big villa of Jacob Wilson's house, and the incident stung Christopher.

Let him realize that Lady Wilson is really selfish.

She had always been selfish before, considering her own interests. Once Jacob Wilson was better for her, she would abandon herself and prefer Jacob Wilson.

So when he got home, he told Mrs. Wilson that she would transfer the 1.21 million that sold furniture to himself.

He felt that Lady Wilson might abandon herself at any time, so he had to make plans early, at least to get some money in his hands?

Otherwise, if she turns against him, who can he count on?

His son, Harold, is a waste. In the past, the Wilson family had no problems, and it was okay to let him be a rich second generation who was eating and waiting to die. Now the Wilson family is in a desperate situation. It is impossible to expect him to make progress and make money.

Daughter Wendy is a canary again. She doesn't touch the sun with two fingers. She can't cook well. Moreover, in Aurouss Hilll nowadays, who doesn't know about Wendy's troubles, it's hard to find someone to marry him, even more so. Can't count on it.

So he said to Mrs. Wilson: "Mom, you are the legal representative of the Wilson Group and the person in charge. If you put the money here, it will easily be frozen by the bank!"

Lady. Wilson didn't think so, she said lightly: "The money for selling furniture is used to pay back the bank."

As a last resort, Mrs. Wilson did not want the Wilson Group to go bankrupt and liquidate, because once the Wilson Group went bankrupt, she would be finished.

She is a legal person of the Wilson Group. If she has money and does not return the bank, not only will the bank seal up her house, she will even be sued and arrested.

In that case, it's me who is unlucky, and it is me who is in jail. Therefore, she insisted on repaying the bank's minimum repayment first, and at the same time, she also planned to intercede with the bank's account manager so that the other party could be allowed a period of grace.

When Christopher heard this, he immediately exploded and blurted out: "Mom, the house is almost impossible to open. After a while, more than one million came, and you returned it to the bank. What do we eat and drink?"

Chapter 792

Mrs. Wilson coldly snorted: "If I didn't pay the money, I was taken to jail! Don't forget that I am a legal person in the company and I am responsible for the company's debts!"

Christopher hurriedly said, "Then you should at least take out one or two hundred thousand, let's take a breath! I am living now, and I can't even smoke a pack of cigarettes for fifty Dollar!"

"Do you still smoke?" Lady Wilson said sharply, "It would be nice to have a bite of food, and still want to smoke?"

Christopher held the fire in his heart, but sighed in his mouth: "Mom, I am old, so I can bear it, but Harold and Wendy are still young! They have not suffered much, so I can't wrong them!"

Lady Wilson coldly snorted: "Then I don't care, the more I have to cut down on food and clothing, and tide over difficulties together at this time!"

As soon as these words came out, Harold and Wendy immediately became dissatisfied.

The two of them were spoiled and coddled and couldn't endure any hardship. Since Hannah ran away with money, their lives have been very hard during this period of time.

However, now that Mrs. Wilson is rich, she doesn't want to open the warehouse and put grain, instead she wants everyone to cut down on food and clothing. Isn't this killing them?

Immediately, Harold said: "Grandma, it's easy for you to say it. When you are old, eating less and drinking less, it's no problem for you to eat less, but how can my sister and I be like this? We can't eat this. It's kind of bitter, I'm not good at eating and drinking these days, and I've lost a few kilos of weight!"

"Yes, grandma!" Wendy said with no air: "The cosmetics I used before were thousands of dollars or tens of thousands of dollars. Now I can only use the most common L'Oreal. Seeing that this L'Oreal is almost running out. I don't even have money to buy it. Grandma, do you still want me to spend some bucks on the sod honey?"

After she finished speaking, she immediately said, "I don't care. Grandma, you have to give me 20,000 Dollar today. I will buy a set of Aquamarine Mystery, otherwise my face will be completely ruined!"

Mrs. Wilson coldly snorted: "Poor scream! The mystery of the sea blue? Is Dabao sod honey sorry for you? Useless things, even Chairman Wilson can't grasp it. If you could hold Chairman Wilson in the first place, our family will be as good as today. Like?"

Wendy suddenly became anxious and blurted out, "What does this have to do with me? It was Chairman Wilson who was made incompetent by Charlie Wade. Before he became incompetent, I coaxed him well, don't forget that he gave me five Million and ten million to the Wilson family!"

"So what?" Lady Wilson said coldly: "He hasn't left yet? If you really have that ability, even if he becomes incompetent, he will stay. After all, you can't do it!"

Christopher was still holding the fire, but when Lady Wilson said this about her daughter Wendy, he felt a little angry and blurted out: "Mom, Wendy and Chairman Wilson have also listened to your instructions. How can you get into trouble at this time? Cross the river and demolish the bridge?"

Lady Wilson coldly snorted: "I crossed the river and demolished the bridge? Did I cross the river? Obviously the bridge disappeared before halfway through, causing me to fall into the water and almost drowned!"

Christopher said annoyedly: "Mom, anyway, I just said that I can't pay the money back to the bank. I have to spend 200,000 Dollar to improve my life if I say anything. Otherwise, you can sell all my dad's antiques for some money. , Otherwise you can hide those things and you won't be able to take them away in the future!"

"You curse me to death?!" Lady Wilson suddenly became angry, and said coldly: "You three want to shake the sky, don't you?"

Lady Wilson's voice changed, sharp and scary.

She didn't expect that Christopher, who had always been flattering and obedient to herself, dared to slap her nose on her nose, and even dared to speak harsh words to herself!

At this moment, she also deeply realized that her eldest son, grandson, and granddaughter were not really following her in a desperate manner. They are just three parasites attached to themselves, all the time thinking about opening their mouths to draw nutrients from their bodies! The more this happens, the more he has to keep his money and things under control, and must not let the three of them succeed!

Chapter 793

After Lady Wilson and Christopher renounced their morality, an unhealable crack occurred in each other's hearts.

In the end, Lady Wilson only used 50,000 Dollar as the living expenses of the family of four, and the rest was all returned to the two banks that owed money.

After the bank received this part of the repayment, the person in charge of the collection department also gave Lady Wilson a lot of face, saying that the debt could be extended appropriately to give the Wilson family a chance to breathe.

Lady Wilson finally breathed a sigh of relief.

She is still counting on the Wilson Group to come back to life. As long as the bankruptcy can be delayed, she may have a chance.

Maybe when the next Chairman Wilson will come out?

For myself, the Wilson family is currently facing great difficulties, but in the final analysis, it is only a problem of tens of millions. If you really encounter a big boss like Chairman Wilson with a worth of tens of billions, the other party will casually leak from your fingers. A little money was enough to bring the Wilson family back to life.

Compared with Lady Wilson who is full of longing and anticipation, Christopher is very depressed.

Lady Wilson kept only 50,000 Dollar for the furniture, and the 50,000 Dollar was still in her own hands.

Christopher himself was going to be exhausted, and he was so close that he could not even afford a pack of cigarettes.

That night, Lady Wilson only took 20 Dollar to buy vegetables, and she bought a bunch of rotten cabbage and half a catty of pork.

Christopher felt dry and uncomfortable, but there was no other way. He could only endure it in his heart, and at the same time racked his brains to study where Lady Wilson would hide the antique left by the old man. Just as the Wilson family complained about the poor life of clear soup and water, Claire Wilson Wilson's family had already begun to move to the Thompson First villa early the next morning.

Since the furniture is newly bought, there is no need to carry any large items when moving. The four people each packed their clothes and supplies, and then packed the tableware and kitchenware. They found a truck and pulled them all at once. .

Charlie Wade was in a particularly good mood, because when he was tidying up the bedroom, he deliberately asked Claire Wilson Wilson if he wanted to put the blanket roll he used to lay on the floor.

Claire Wilson Wilson said embarrassedly: "Aren't you all ready to upgrade? Why are you still bringing these things?"

Upon hearing this, Charlie Wade was suddenly excited!

After the truck arrived at Thompson First's first product, Jacob Wilson put a few hand-drawn small salutes in the air at the door, which was regarded as a housewarming joy.

Then, a family of four began to clean up their rooms.

Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson cleaned up the master bedroom on the second floor, Elaine Ma cleaned up the master bedroom on the third floor by herself, while Jacob Wilson went to clean up the small room next door with a muffled voice.

In his words, he wanted to separate from Elaine Ma.

Elaine Ma didn't bother to quarrel with him, anyway, she was going to sleep in the master bedroom on the third floor. As for Jacob Wilson, wherever she likes to sleep, she is upset when she sees him now, and it's a pleasure to be separated.

However, Claire Wilson Wilson felt a little uncomfortable.

Although the relationship between her parents has not been very good, they have been here for more than 20 years, and now they are separated, which makes her feel uncomfortable.

But she also knew that, as a daughter, she shouldn't interfere too much with her parents' affairs, so she thought, whether they should be separated first, both of them can calm down and think about it.

If they can all want to open up, then the future will be better.

When Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson were about to pack up, Loreen also took a taxi.

She didn't have much things, just two suitcases and one bag, Claire Wilson Wilson enthusiastically invited her in, and then took her directly to the second floor by elevator.

As soon as she got out of the elevator, she shouted: "Charlie Wade, come and help Loreen!"

Chapter 794

Charlie Wade hurriedly went out and saw Loreen who had been specially dressed up.

Loreen is very beautiful today. A beige windbreaker with a black base sweater inside not only looks tall, but also particularly feminine. As for the lower body, it is a woolen short skirt with black leggings, and a slender pair. The legs are completely outlined, thin and long, very eye-catching.

When Loreen saw Charlie Wade, her face was flushed, she waved her hand at him a little nervously, and said, "Charlie Wade, I will thank you for your care in the future!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly, nodded and said: "Welcome, welcome."

In fact, Charlie Wade felt a little helpless in his heart. He knew that Loreen liked him. However, now she suddenly moved over to live under the same roof with herself, which really made him a bit uncomfortable.

But of course he couldn't show anything abnormal in front of Claire Wilson Wilson.

Claire Wilson Wilson pointed to Loreen's two big boxes and said to Charlie Wade: "Charlie Wade, you are strong, help Loreen get the luggage to her bedroom."

"Okay." Charlie Wade nodded and dragged two boxes into Loreen's bedroom. Loreen also followed in, feeling sweet in her heart.

In her opinion, she will be able to get closer to Charlie Wade in the future, no matter whether she can be with Charlie Wade in the end, as long as she can get closer to him, she will be very satisfied.

After all, in her heart, Charlie Wade is not only the object of her secret crush, but also her savior twice, so she only longed to be closer to Charlie Wade, so that she would be satisfied.

As for whether the two will develop, it depends on the relationship between him and Claire Wilson Wilson.

If the two are always a false marriage, then oneself will naturally have to fight for it, but if the two have a real relationship, then one can definitely not grab the husband of her girlfriend.

Loreen followed Charlie Wade into the room, looked around, and said in surprise: "Ah, this room is quite big!"

"Yeah." Charlie Wade smiled and said, "It must be enough for you to live alone."

Loreen pursed her lips and nodded. She immediately saw that Claire Wilson Wilson hadn't come in, so she hurriedly asked, "How are you and Claire Wilson Wilson?"

"Very good." Charlie Wade replied smoothly.

"Oh..." Loreen asked vaguely: "Are there any changes compared to before?"

Loreen wanted to know whether Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson had broken through that relationship, but it was difficult to ask very clearly, so she could only vaguely knock on the side.

Charlie Wade didn't think much, just casually said: "We are in a stable relationship, and there is no change."

When Loreen heard him say that there was no change, she felt more at ease. It is estimated that Claire Wilson Wilson and Charlie Wade are still sleeping in separate beds, which proves that the two of them still have no breakthrough.

For myself, this is good news.

At this time, Elaine Ma on the third floor was very excited. She took a lot of photos and selfies in her large bedroom, and also turned on the beauty filter to the maximum, and then carefully selected a few of the living room and the photos taken from the outside. Photos were sent to the circle of friends together.

The accompanying text is: "Oh, after waiting for so long, I finally moved into my Thompson First villa! This is the largest villa of Thompson First! With such a large living room and such a large bedroom, I don't know how to sleep at night. Will you be scared here!"

After writing this, she thought of Mrs. Wilson and added another sentence: "Hey, this villa has three floors above ground and two floors below ground. There are five floors in total. There are ten bedrooms, each of which is very luxurious and stylish, but we have a family of four. Where can I live here? I'm really sad..."

Chapter 795

Elaine Ma finished editing the copy of the Moments, and deliberately added a few shy expressions to the back, and then opened the location of Thompson First, and clicked send happily.

When this was posted, many people immediately liked and commented.

The message was all kinds of admiration, catering, kneeling and licking, marveling at how luxurious her mansion is.

After all, no one thought that Elaine Ma could live in a top-notch villa of more than one hundred million Dollar, which is beyond the understanding of her by everyone who knew her.

At this time, the Wilson family was boiling cabbage around a pot of duck racks, eating bitter tears.

Lady Wilson herself did not lose the money, and was quite dissatisfied with Christopher and his children's contradictions yesterday, so she also deliberately wanted to toss them.

So, she went out to buy vegetables in the morning, only bought a duck rack, and then bought two Chinese cabbage, washed and chopped directly, and simmered in a pot.

She felt that, anyway, she was old, had a small appetite, and couldn't eat anything that was too meaty and greasy, so she put this kind of clear soup and watery things, as for the three of them, they would like to eat or not, and would not eat it.

Christopher, Harold, and Wendy were almost exhausted. The three of them couldn't make up the money for a meal, so they could only eat this stuff with Lady Wilson at home.

The duck frame looked not small, but it was all bones, and there was no meat at all. The bone scum in front of Harold had already eaten a lot, but it just didn't fill his stomach.

Annoyed, he ate while scanning the circle of friends.

Suddenly I saw the one sent by Elaine Ma, and after a closer look, he gritted his teeth and threw the chopsticks off his head. He cursed, "Grass! Elaine Ma, a shrew, has actually moved into Thompson First's villa. Damn, she too. Is it worthy of Thompson First?! God is blind!"

When Lady Wilson heard this, she picked up her mobile phone and took a look, and she was suddenly angry!

"This damn dog thing, specifically said that there are ten bedrooms can't live, this is deliberately to me!"

Lady Wilson was extremely uncomfortable, and she cursed in her heart that she couldn't give me a room for so many rooms and let me live in it. Now she is still sending out intentionally to irritate me. It is really a thousand cuts that she will not understand her hatred!

At this time, Christopher also looked at the mobile phone circle of friends, looked at the photos of the mansion sent by Elaine Ma, and then looked at the duck rack in front of him to boil the cabbage. He was so angry that he couldn't eat anymore, and directly pulled Elaine Ma into the blacklist. .

Out of sight out of mind!

Wendy also has Elaine Ma's WeChat friends, and she opened a glance and was also very angry.

Seeing the emotions of these three people, Lady Wilson was a little depressed, and said hurriedly: "Don't care about the things Elaine Ma sent. She will have to be driven out of the villa within a few days." After speaking, she cleared her throat and said, "Our top priority is to think about how to make the Wilson Group overcome the difficulties and regain its vitality!"

Christopher said angrily: "What difficulties have you overcome? Tens of millions of debts must be solved? What can be done? This villa is so old, I think it can sell at most 17.8 million, and the remaining holes will be repaid. It's big."

After he finished speaking, he looked at Mrs. Wilson with some complaints, and said, "The antiques that dad left behind can be sold for tens of millions, right? If you want me to say Mom, you might as well give me all those antiques. I sell them for real. , And then go to buy a house. After the bank takes the villa away, you can still have a place to live."

Lady Wilson said with a cold face: "Buy a house? Do you think I can live there if I buy a house? I can't pay my debts. I might go to jail! I'm already this old. If I go to jail, I will pay Can you come out alive?"

Chapter 796

Christopher plucked up the courage and said, "Mom, even if the court sentenced you to jail one day, Harold and Wendy and I have this money, we can live a stable life anyway, but if you don't take these antiques out, you will Once in prison, the three of us will starve to death outside!"

"Starve to death?" Lady Wilson said coldly: "You three have hands and feet, even if you go to sweep the street, you can't starve to death! I tell you Christopher, the batch of antiques left by your father is my help Money, don't think about it!"

Christopher couldn't hold back his anger, he stood up quickly, and said coldly: "The things my dad left behind are for our children and grandchildren. Why are you alone?"

Lady Wilson said coldly: "Why? Are you going to rebel? Okay, just call me, bark my teeth, I'm dead, none of you want to know where the antiques are. Nothing!"

As he said, Lady Wilson snorted and sneered: "Anyway, I am an old woman. She has long enough to live, and it doesn't matter if I die now. Before I die, I will definitely make a will to donate my life insurance. I won't give you any points! The three of you will suffer at that time. The three of you will have the ability and inability, and the ability and ability. If the Wilson family collapses and I die, even if the three of you don't go to the streets to beg for food, It will be reduced to the bottom of the society, and your hard days will be early!"

When Christopher heard this, he immediately persuaded him. He has no choice. There is really no way.

Lack of money and no ability to make money is the biggest problem for him and his pair of children. If Lady Wilson is really dead and the life insurance is also donated, he will have no hope.

So he could only suppress his anger and humbly said: "Mom, I am in a rush. Don't be like me."

Lady Wilson snorted coldly, and said arrogantly: "This is pretty much the same!"

At this time, several bank and court cars suddenly stopped at the entrance of Wilson's villa.

A large number of law enforcement officers in uniforms and several bank managers quickly came to the door and banged the door.

The family was astonished, Harold hurriedly got up and opened the door. Once he opened the door, he was stunned by the sight in front of him!

At this time, a large number of people rushed in and directly commanded many security guards to blockade the scene.

Then, a person in charge of the court stepped into the villa and said to Lady Wilson who was eating: "Are you the person in charge of the Wilson Group?"

Before waiting for Mrs. Wilson to reply, she said to Conveniently: "On behalf of the district court, I formally inform you that multiple creditors of yours have jointly filed an application with the court to request the Wilson Group and all the people in your name. Freeze assets, freeze all accounts under the Wilson Group and your personal name, and force you to fulfill your repayment obligations!"

Lady Wilson blurted out: "I just paid back more than one million to the bank! The bank manager also told me that if I can give me a period of grace, why did I change my mind in a while?!"

The other party said coldly: "The bank considers that you have no profitability, and it is impossible to repay if you delay it. Therefore, it initiated an application together with other creditors and seized all the assets under your name. Now I will give you an hour to clean up. I moved my own things out, here is going to be sealed!" premier "what?!"

Lady Wilson stood up tremblingly, and blurted out and asked: "Seize all my assets?! Why?!"

The other party said coldly: "Of course it is because you owe money not to pay back! Also, don't blame me for not reminding you, you can only take away daily clothes, toiletries and ordinary furniture. All cash, luxury goods, and valuables must be left behind.!"

Chapter 797

When Mrs. Wilson heard this, her face suddenly changed!

She shook her body, and the crutch in her hand fell to the ground with a snap.

I thought there was still enough time to find someone to help me, but I didn't expect that the life-giving spell was delivered so quickly!

When Christopher and his children heard this, their faces turned pale!

"Mom? What is the situation, our house is going to be sealed up? Haven't we already given over one million?"

With the current economic conditions of the Wilson family, if the villa is sealed, they will not even have a place to live, and none of them have any skills, the end will only be worse.

Not only Christopher and others are going out to look for work or part-time jobs, but even Lady Wilson has to find a place to wash the dishes. Otherwise, they will not survive at all.

Lady Wilson sat down on the ground and said, "You are killing our family of four! I just paid back the money, and you are about to take my house!" The person in charge said coldly: "We are acting in accordance with the law. If you owe money if you don't pay it back, the creditor has the right to request the court to freeze and seal all your assets! Now I'll give you a piece of advice, if you can get the money to pay off the debt, villa and account. They will all be unblocked, but if you can't pay off your debts in the next three months, the creditor will file a lawsuit against you, and you may be charged for fraud!"

Mrs. Wilson frantically hugged each other's legs and blurted out, "You can't seal up my villa. I have lived here for nearly 20 years. This is my home!"

The other party ignored her and said directly to several staff members: "First take her out and let her calm down."

Several people hurriedly put her up and took her out of the door. Lady Wilson broke down and cried out: "You can't do this! You can't do this!" No one paid any attention to her yelling.

Christopher and others were also taken out by law enforcement officers. At this time, Christopher was desperate.

He has seen the situation and it is now enforced by the court. If he dares to block it, it is a blatant resistance to the law.

Who makes his family owe others money?

Now that people go to the court to apply for enforcement, it is completely reasonable and legal.

Harold collapsed at this time and said: "Dad, what can we do? Where do we live in the villa?"

Wendy cried directly: "We are miserable and poor enough now. If the villa is gone, then I might as well die."

Hearing the words, Lady Wilson scratched her hair and cursed: "The bank of the gods, how can it do things to such an extent, it doesn't give people a way to survive!"

Christopher blurted out at this time: "Mom! Where are your antiques?! If they find out, it will be all over!"

When Lady Wilson heard this, her eyes went dark, and she almost fell down.

Christopher hurriedly stepped forward to hold her back. Then she eased her energies and said nervously, "Those antiques are all in a hidden area under the basement floor. They probably won't find it..."

Chapter 798

Christopher rubbed his temples and said, "If it is discovered, then everything will be over."

As he was talking, another young man in uniform came in outside the door, holding a strange device in his hand.

This device is a long pole with a circle in front of it, which looks a lot like the mine detector used in the movie.

Christopher asked in surprise: "Young man, are you a mine detector?"

The man smiled and said, "No, but the principle is similar. They are all metal detectors. They will give out when they encounter metal underground. Mines are also made of metal, so this can also be used for mine clearance, but the sensitivity is almost inferior."

When Christopher heard that it was a metal detector, he groaned in his heart and blurted out: "It's fine for you to seal other people's houses. Do you still have to go to other people's houses to clear mines?"

The man said: "With our years of seizure experience, generally as long as it is a villa, there are hidden compartments in the basement, and there are some valuable things hidden inside, so my task is to find them all, and then according to the law, all Seizure!"

When Mrs. Wilson heard this, she collapsed to the ground.

Christopher's heart was also a little choked. The man hurried into the villa after speaking. Only then did Christopher hurriedly help Lady Wilson up and asked, "Mom, what's in the antiques of Dad?"

Lady Wilson said nervously: "There are two vases, an ancient painting, and some other antiques..."

Christopher Wilson hurriedly asked again, "Are there any metal objects?"

"Yes..." The said in a panic: "There is a Ming Dynasty bronze lamp, a set of tin ware, and two gold horseshoes..."

When Christopher Wilson heard this, he slapped his thigh abruptly, and said with great pain: "It's over! It's over! This is all over! You hide all these things in the basement, and when they go down and use the stuff, they will find everything out! "

After that, he pointed at Lady Wilson angrily and rebuked: "Just say that you are the most greedy! I told you a long time ago, take things out, take them out, take them out, and I will exchange for some money, you just don't Take it! I don't want to take it if I die! If you really can bring it into the coffin, it's fine, now you can't take it away if you die, it's all sealed up!"

Lady Wilson was nervous to die, her mouth still insisted: "It's impossible, they can't find it, I hide things very concealed, and no one can find it except me!"

Just after speaking, the person in charge walked out of the house and came directly to the , and said coldly: "Hello, we found a secret compartment in the basement of this house, which contains a number of antique cultural relics and precious metals."

When this was just said, Lady Wilson, who had just been lifted up, sat on the ground again, her face full of despair.

The person in charge said again: "Because this villa is in your name, we acquiesce that the hidden things belong to you. Therefore, we will seal up these cultural relics and precious metals in accordance with the law. These will be publicly auctioned, and all the proceeds from the auction will be used to repay the debt you owe."

"If the total amount of the auction exceeds your total debt, we will refund you the remaining funds after the debt is repaid; if the total amount of the auction is less than your total debt, the creditor has the right to continue to sue you!"

When the man finished speaking, he took out a form and said to Mrs.

Wilson: "If you understand what I just said, please sign on it!"

"I won't sign!" Lady Wilson shouted hysterically: "You have no right to seize my antiques! Those are my coffin books!"

The person in charge said coldly: "Sorry, according to the law, these antiques have been sealed by us. Even if you don't sign, you can't change any established facts."

After speaking, he turned around and went back to the villa.

Mrs. Wilson's eyes went dark, and she immediately passed out in a coma...

Chapter 799

When Lady Wilson passed out, Christopher rushed over, grabbed her collar and shook it vigorously in anger!

Lady Wilson was awake vigorously as soon as she fell into a coma. As soon as she opened her eyes, Christopher scolded furiously, "Didn't you say that no one except you can find those antiques? Now these antiques are gone! They are gone! !!! How do you let our family live?!"

Lady Wilson felt a pain in her heart, and she was crying in a mess at this time. She was in grief and wailed and said, "I don't know it will be like this. If I knew it would be like this, I won't be hiding at home if I was killed... .."

Speaking of this, Lady Wilson couldn't help crying tears: "It's over, it's really over this time, everything is over, all my life's hard work is over!"

Harold was also desperate. He cried and said, "There is nothing here, and even the dinner for the evening is gone... I have no food to eat at night, and I can still be hungry, but where to sleep at night? You can't sleep in the street!"

Wendy collapsed as soon as she heard this, and cried loudly, "Isn't this going to be wandering on the streets? I don't want it!"

At this time, the staff have begun to carry the things from the house before the car.

Lady Wilson watched all her antiques have been sealed and taken away. She cried loudly in the yard. She wanted to rush to snatch it several times, but was stopped by law enforcement officers.

Christopher looked more and more angry, angrily wishing to give Lady Wilson a kick, this is too selfish! Selfish to the extreme!

The key point is that she was selfish and didn't get any good results. All these things are now confiscated, and there is no doubt that it is impossible to return in this life.

All valuable things were moved away, and the family's worthless clothes and broken furniture were all moved out by the staff, and they were stacked on the side of the road outside the door.

When everything was almost moved, the court staff put a seal on the door of the villa. The person in charge came to the courtyard and said to the four members of the Wilson family: "We are now going to stick the door outside the courtyard as well. Put on the seal, please cooperate and move outside. You are already prohibited from entering inside."

"I won't go! This is my home, why should I go!"

Lady Wilson's crying eyes were red and swollen, and the appearance of her disheveled hair was just like that in Jin Yong's novel, the Qiu Qianchi who had been under the well for decades and only vomited jujube seeds!

The person in charge said: "This has been sealed up. To be clear, this is no longer your home. If you continue to stay here, you are obstructing official duties! We have the right to detain you!"

When Christopher heard this, the three of them went out in a hurry.

They don't want to be caught in the detention center for a few days at this time.

Lady Wilson didn't want to go, but at this moment, there was no one around her, and there was no one to support her, so she could only cry and walk out.

After going out of the gate, the court staff also posted two seals on the gate, and then told Mrs. Wilson again: "You have three months to prepare funds. If the funds are not available after three months, these things will be auctioned. , If it is not enough to repay the debt after the auction, then you will have to be sued!"

Lady Wilson sat slumped in front of her house with a desperate face. Villas can sell for up to 17.8 million, and antiques and cultural relics can sell for more than 10 million, which may not be enough for 30 million.

However, the various debts of the Wilson Group currently add up to at least 60 million.

This money is not enough..

Chapter 800

In other words, in the next three months, I will not have a place to stay, but after three months, I may be going to jail..

Lady Wilson cried out of breath, and almost pumped it out a few times. After the people in the court gave the warning, they stopped telling them, and went straight into the car.

The four members of the Wilson family could only sit helplessly on the side of their house, guarding a pile of tattered furniture and clothing and daily necessities, weeping secretly.

At this time, they were completely helpless.

Unexpectedly, at this time, the house leaks rain.

Several security guards from the villa property rushed over and said to them: "You guys, please take your things and move out of our villa area as soon as possible. Don't be here to affect the appearance of our villa area."

"What are you talking about?!" Christopher Wilson scolded angrily: "I have lived here for almost 20 years. You said I affected the appearance of this place? You want to drive me out?!"

The other party said coldly: "Sorry, I also received a notice that you are no longer the owners of our place. Since you have lived here before, you must know that our community is closed management and no outsiders are allowed to enter. Yes, so please leave as soon as possible."

As he said, he pointed to a lot of things on the side of the road, and said: "These things also ask you to move out as soon as possible. If you don't move, our property assumes that these are abandoned things and are free to deal with them."

Christopher trembles dryly, and yells: "Too much deception! Master fights with you!"

Several strong security guards immediately pushed him forward and screamed: "What do you want to do? Do you want to do it? There are a dozen people in our security team. How many can you beat?!"

Christopher was immediately shocked.

Harold from behind scolded angrily: "Be careful that I call you to complain!"

The security guard sneered: "Complain to us? We follow the rules. What qualifications do you have to complain to us? I tell you, you are not the owners of our community now. If you still stay here and don't leave, I will call the police to arrest you!"

"You..." Harold wanted to start cursing, but seeing the other party's aggressive posture, he froze again.

Christopher knew that it was useless for him to stay here now, and he did not take any reason. The house was sealed, and he was naturally not the owner of the community. It was only natural for him to be driven out.

So he could only sigh, and said to a few people: "Pick up your things, only the useful and valuable ones, and leave the rest here and let them take care of them!"

Wendy cried and said, "Dad, where can I go now!"

Christopher shook his head and sighed, "I don't know, but it's not a problem to stay here..."

Harold also cried, wiped away his tears, and said, "Dad, why don't we go and beg my second uncle... Apologize to him, admit a mistake, and beg him to take us in, second aunt Didn't the circle of friends say that there are ten bedrooms in her villa? It's enough to ask them to give us two, let us sleep one, let Wendy and grandma sleep one..."

Christopher's face is more ugly than bitter gourd, and he sighed: "What you said is simple. Who is your second aunt? Haven't you counted it? At this time, she is too late to watch our jokes, how could she kindly take us in and give us a room?!"

Lady Wilson who had not spoken all of a sudden stood up and gritted her teeth and said: "Go to Thompson First! Even if I die today, I will die at the door of Thompson First! If Jacob Wilson and Elaine Ma don't take us in, I will sue them. Abandon the elderly!"

Chapter 801

At this moment, Thompson First Villa.

Elaine Ma was lying on the deck chair on the second-floor all-glass balcony, watching her phone close from ear to ear.

More than 300 people have liked her, breaking her record since using WeChat.

As for the comments, I can't count them one after a while, or even return them.

Elaine Ma finally felt it today, what is called attention.

People in the entire circle of friends are staring at their circle of friends, and they don't hesitate to praise her in the comment area, and she is relaxed and happy.

At this time, Elaine Ma's sisters who played better, sent a message from everyone in the group: "Oh, sister Elaine Ma moved to the Thompson First first-class mansion today, and she has to entertain her for dinner!"

"That's it!" Many people echoed: "Sister Elaine Ma, you are moving to a big house that sells for more than 100 million Dollar. It's such a big happy event, it's impossible not to invite us to dinner!"

After a while, all the people in the group came out and lined up for Elaine Ma to invite him to dinner.

Elaine Ma looked at their compliments while feeling depressed in her heart.

invite to a meal? How can I have money?

Don't think that I live in a mansion worth more than 100 million Dollar, but I really can't even get a thousand Dollar.

At this time, someone said: "Sister Elaine Ma is worthy, why should I invite a Shangri-La to talk about it!"

An elder sister in the group said: "If Sister Elaine Ma is going to have dinner today, I will take everyone to a high-end spa in the evening. It feels great!"

"Then I invite everyone to sing at Golden Emperor KTV tonight!"

"After singing the song, how about I invite everyone to squeeze their feet and enjoy a foot massage?"

"You are all arranged so densely, then I will invite a late night bar!"

Everyone had arranged the evening activities, so the eldest sister who took the lead was Elaine Ma, and said, "Sister Elaine Ma, you are saying nothing, everyone is waiting for you!"

When Elaine Ma saw that everyone had arranged so well, she also wanted to go out and play with the sisters in her heart.

After all, she was too depressed during this period, and really wanted to take the opportunity to relax.

However, everyone asked themselves to treat themselves to dinner, and couldn't afford to pay for it!

Thinking of this, she can only find excuses and say: "Oh, sisters, I'm so sorry. I just moved, there are still a lot of places to clean up in the house, so I may not get time!"

"Oh!" Someone said: "Sister Elaine Ma, the villa has been moved in, so I will slowly clean up! Today is the day of housewarming. If you miss it, there will be no such good sign!"

Elaine Ma was also very excited.

But, money is a big problem!

Jacob Wilson has already returned all the remaining money to Charlie Wade, so he can only go to Charlie Wade and ask for the tens of thousands of dollars back!

So she said to her friend: "Wait for me, I will confirm the time with my family, and I will reply to you later."

The eldest sister said: "It's half past one in the afternoon. Give us a quasi-trust before three o'clock, so we can arrange time!"

"Okay." Elaine Ma hurriedly agreed, and then quickly got up and wanted to find Charlie Wade.

At this time, Charlie Wade was cooking in the kitchen downstairs.

Chapter 802

Since I just moved to a new house, it took a long time to clean up, so today I had dinner later than usual.

But Charlie Wade's treatment was good. Two beauties, Claire Wilson and Loreen, surrounded him and helped him in the kitchen, so cooking became a kind of enjoyment.

After preparing the meal and serving it out, Elaine Ma also walked down from the elevator at this time.

She was going to ask Charlie Wade for money, but when she saw people preparing to eat in the restaurant, she suddenly hesitated.

She wasn't embarrassed to talk to Charlie Wade, the key husband and daughter were here, so she felt it inappropriate to speak immediately.

At this moment, she heard the doorbell ringing outside, so she said in surprise: "Why someone came to visit just after moving in?"

After speaking, he turned and walked out of the gate and went through the yard to open it.

As soon as the door opened, she suddenly discovered that Mrs. Wilson was standing at the door with Christopher, Harold and Wendy .

Elaine Ma didn't know that Wilson's family had been kicked out. When she saw Lady Wilson and a group of people, standing at the door like people fleeing with large bags, they frowned and asked, "Why are you here again?"

Seeing Elaine Ma opened the door, Mrs. Wilson ignored her, and walked in blankly.

Elaine Ma hurriedly stood in front of her and said, "What are you doing? Did you break into the house? Believe it or not, I called the police to catch you!"

The Lady Wilson squeezed Elaine Ma away, and while walking inside, she said dissatisfied: "I can't come to see my son? Now I can't even enter your house?"

Elaine Ma was anxious, and grabbed her, and said, "Why don't you understand the good words? You are not welcome here, have you heard? Don't run to our house if you have anything to do in the future, go quickly!"

Lady Wilson broke free from her and walked in. As soon as she entered the living room, she smelled the scent of the food and she shrugged her nose. It smells so good..

It's more fragrant than the duck stand boiled cabbage for lunch! Before the meal was finished at the crucial noon, the people from the court came to the door, and after crying and crying for a long time, the Lady was hungry and pressed her back.

At this moment, when I smelled the scent, my stomach gurgled. When Elaine Ma heard this voice, she sneered immediately, and said, "It turns out that you are going to our house to beg for food.. I think you were so arrogant at the beginning. Every meal was cold and hot. Why are you hungry now? Be like this ghost?"

When Lady Wilson heard Elaine Ma's words, her face flushed suddenly, and she wanted to go back directly, but when she thought that she was still planning to live in Thompson First and want to live a good life, she could only bear her for a while. "My daughter-in-law, mom is really hungry. You can always let mom eat first, right?"

Elaine Ma sneered and said, "Stop dreaming, I'll give you ten seconds to get out by yourself, or let the police come and take you away!"

Seeing that Lady Wilson couldn't make sense with her, she shouted in a loud voice: "Jacob Wilson! Do you have the heart to watch your mother starve to death?"

Jacob Wilson walked out with a sad look and said, "Mom, 1.21 million was just given to you yesterday, what else are you doing?"

Mrs. Wilson immediately sat on the ground and cried loudly: "My son, don't you know that the bank has sealed our villa, and your brother and I have nowhere to stay now!"

After that, she looked at Jacob Wilson, crying and pleading: "Good son, you can't see your mother starve to death or freeze to death, right?"

Jacob Wilson was a little surprised at once, and blurted out: "What's the matter? How could the villa be sealed?"

"It's not because of the debts owed by the Wilson Group!" Lady Wilson wiped her eyes and said, "Good son, you can't save yourself, your villa is so big, you prepare two rooms for your mother. I sleep in the same room with Wendy, and let your brother sleep in the same room with Harold."

Elaine Ma suddenly became anxious, and blurted out: "Lady, why are you so shameless? We have already said that our house does not welcome you, and licked her face to stay, are you ashamed?"

The Lady Wilson ignored her, looked at Jacob Wilson, and pleaded: "Jacob Wilson, you are the head of the family, can you speak for your mother?"

After finishing speaking, she cried: "Son please, I'm kneeling down for you!"

Chapter 803

Seeing the Lady about to kneel, Jacob Wilson panicked and hurriedly reached out to support her.

But the Lady was determined to kneel down. She was paralyzed and fell straight down. She thought about kneeling first and then said, to see if you Jacob Wilson is really hard-hearted. It's useless for the Lady to kneel for you?

Jacob Wilson thought the same as Elaine Ma.

Although he was at odds with Elaine Ma and even planned to separate from her immediately, he and Elaine Ma agreed on the matter of the Lady, that is, in any case, the Lady should not be allowed to live in!

So, Jacob Wilson held the Lady in his arms, and said coldly: "Mom, don't come to me to play any tricks. No matter what you say, I can't let you live in this villa!"

The Lady Wilson blamed sadly: "Jacob Wilson, do you still have a conscience? You were born during my pregnancy in October. You moved into such a big villa, and you didn't even let me live?!"

Jacob Wilson nodded and resolutely said: "Mom, you will die of your heart. In any case, I will not agree with you to live here!"

"Have you heard?" Elaine Ma pinched his waist and said, "If you still know that you want a face, just leave, don't wait for me to call the police and drag you out, then your old face won't look good!"

Lady Wilson's face was immediately pulled down, and she snorted coldly, and said, "Jacob Wilson is my son! My son! He has the obligation to support me. I have no place to live now. He must accept and support me! Starting today, I am. Just live here and go nowhere! If you don't let me live, I will go to the court to sue you. If you move me, I will call the police and say that you abused the elders, and you will be arrested at that time!" Computer:

Elaine Ma pointed at Lady Wilson and cursed: "You're an old hag, you're starting to play tricks, right? I don't believe anyone dares to catch me! If you don't get out today, I will kill you!"

After speaking, Elaine Ma opened her teeth and danced her claws, and hit Lady Wilson's face.

Christopher hurriedly blocked her and said, "What are you going to do? Do you beat the old lady? I tell you, my phone can record images!"

Harold and Wendy also rushed up quickly, surrounded the Lady, and arguably said, "It is reasonable and legal for you to support grandma!"

Jacob Wilson was dumbfounded.

He also doesn't know how the law generally deals with such problems, but it sounds like if it really gets into the judicial organs, it seems that he is really unreasonable.

Elaine Ma also panicked. If this really makes them succeed here, how will the good life be? !

I just moved in today, and I didn't get a good night's sleep in this villa. Lady Wilson, a nuisance, was about to get entangled in it.

Wouldn't it be annoying to her? !

When the couple didn't know what to do, Charlie Wade suddenly said: "It is indeed his duty to let my father-in-law support his grandmother, but this villa belongs to me, and I have no obligation but to support my wife!"

Jacob Wilson breathed a sigh of relief and hurriedly said, "Have you heard? The villa belongs to my son-in-law, not mine. I can't be the master!"

Lady Wilson gritted her teeth and looked at Charlie Wade, coldly snorted: "You have been eating and drinking for so many years in my Wilson family, shouldn't you support me?"

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently: "I am not legally obligated to support you, so I'm sorry, please go back."

Lady Wilson spoofed and said, "Then I don't care, if you marry my granddaughter, you have to support me! I will live in this villa today. No one wants to get me out. I will die here! "

Charlie Wade frowned and said, "You are trespassing into the homes and provoking troubles. If you don't leave, I will call the police to arrest you!"

The Lady Wilson sneered: "Catch me? I came to my son's house and my granddaughter's house. Why should the police catch me?! Even if you bring the Jade Emperor over, I'm not afraid!"

Chapter 804

Charlie Wade nodded, since you don't want to face, don't blame yourself for being rude.

So, he said lightly: "Lady, since you don't have a place to live, how about I arrange a place for you to live? It includes food and housing, without spending a penny."

"Don't come to this set with me!" Lady Wilson said disdainfully, "Do you want me to live in the old house where the four of you used to live? I tell you, there is no door! Lady, I don't Maybe I live in such a shabby place, I'll live in you Thompson First first product today!"

Charlie Wade sneered: "You think too much, the old house is also bought with money, how can it be for you to live in vain."

After speaking, he immediately took out his mobile phone and sent Cameron Isaac a WeChat.

"The Wilson family came to Thompson First to make trouble. Say hello and get these people into the detention center for half a month."

Cameron Isaac quickly returned the message: "Understand the young master, I will make arrangements."

At this time, Elaine Ma was really upset with Mrs. Wilson, and he just wanted to push her and drive her out. Mrs. Wilson was too anxious, so she took out her mobile phone and called the police directly, blurting out: "Comrade police, come soon. Help me, my daughter-in-law doesn't support me, and she has to beat me out and let me die out!"

The police said very responsibly: "Where is the address? Let's send someone there!"

The Lady blurted out: "It's in the Thompson First Villa area A05!"

"Okay, please wait a moment, our police officers will be here soon!"

Charlie Wade just finished sending WeChat. Seeing that she called the police, he smiled and said, "Since the police have called, then everyone will wait for the police to decide."

Elaine Ma was anxious about it. She was very afraid that the police would come and forced Jacob Wilson to support the elderly.

So she hurriedly said to Charlie Wade: "What police are you waiting for, throw them all out, or else the police will come in a while, and the old things will be here, wouldn't it be more troublesome!"

Lady Wilson coldly snorted and said, "What's the matter? Are you afraid? If you obediently clean up a room and give it to me, so that I can live here safely, I will tell the police officer well, otherwise, you have to take you all Catch it!"

Christopher hurriedly said to the side: "Mom, it is to pack two rooms and come out! I have to live with Harold! How can I say it is Jacob Wilson's eldest brother, he also has a maintenance obligation to me! Otherwise, I will tell the police that they fight It broke my heart!"

After finishing speaking, Christopher looked at Charlie Wade again and snorted coldly: "Tell you that the surname is Wade, I have coronary heart disease, and you can lie here anytime and anywhere. If I lie here, you have to be responsible to the end!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "Then wait until the police arrive."

Soon, there was a knock on the door.

Christopher was overjoyed and hurriedly told Harold: "Harold, go open the door!"

Harold quickly went out and opened the door.

At this time, a team of police officers walked in outside the door.

Lady Wilson hurriedly cried and shouted: "Comrade police, you have to give my old woman the shot. My son is not willing to support me. My daughter-in-law and grandson-in-law have to beat me!"

Chapter 805

Elaine Ma hurriedly said: "Comrade police, don't listen to this Lady's nonsense. My husband was kicked out of the house by her and severed the relationship between mother and child!"

The police officer looked at Elaine Ma, then looked down at Mrs. Wilson, and asked, "Is what she said is true?"

"It's not true!" Lady Wilson said hurriedly, "I was just talking for a while!"

"An angry word?" Jacob Wilson was also angry, and blurted out: "You have long stopped letting us live in the Wilson family villa. You also kicked out my daughter and me from the Wilson family group, and detained me and Elaine Ma in the Wilson family. The group's pension, cut off the mother-child relationship with me, and now I'm in a downfall, just tell me it's a moment of anger?!"

The police officer frowned and asked, "Whose does this villa belong to?"

Charlie Wade said: "Me."

The police officer nodded and asked, "What is your relationship with this Lady on the ground?"

"It doesn't matter." Charlie Wade said: "She is my wife's grandmother."

The police officer said to the Lady: "You have come to the wrong place. You can consult with your son and daughter about maintenance, but you can't break into your grandson-in-law's house and make trouble. You are already suspected of breaking into the house and provoking trouble. ."

"What?!" The Lady Wilson scolded angrily: "Your head is crowded? My son's house, can't I come?"

The police officer said patiently, "The key is that it's not your son's house, understand?"

"I understand your uncle!" Mrs. Wilson scolded angrily: "I don't care about this, they must take me in today, otherwise, I won't leave!"

Christopher also concealed himself and blurted out: "I am Jacob Wilson's eldest brother, I have no place to live now, and he also has maintenance obligations to me. If they don't take us in, we will not leave!"

"That's right, we are not going!" Harold and Wendy also sat on the ground, lying here.

Elaine Ma's face was extremely ugly, and said: "Your family of four is too shameless, right? Isn't it possible to rely on my house?!"

Lady Wilson gritted her teeth and said, "Anyway, if you don't let me live, I'll just sit here, sit here without eating or drinking! I'm going to die at your door! I'll haunt you when you become a ghost!"

Elaine Ma was stunned. Charlie Wade was also shocked.

Isn't this the way the mother-in-law used to scold the streets in the previous neighborhood?

The Lady Wilson and Elaine Ma, really are born to be the same.

The police officer looked at these four people, waved to the subordinates beside him, and ordered: "Come on, take these people back."

"Yes!"

The other police officers quickly controlled Mrs. Wilson and handcuffed them quickly.

Lady Wilson was confused by this scene and said angrily: "Policeman, did you catch me wrong? They abandoned me and what did you catch me for?"

The police officer glanced at her and said: "You have been suspected of provoking troubles. In accordance with the law and order, you will be detained for 15 days!"

Lady Wilson struggled quickly, and said, "Why are you indifferent? You are turning black and white and wronging good people!"

The police officer frowned and said: "If you don't abandon your support, you can file a lawsuit in the court, and the court will judge it, but you can't go to someone else's house to make trouble. This is already illegal!"

After that, the police officer warned: "The four of you had better be honest. If you yell or even resist, you will be deemed to be obstructing official duties, and you may be sentenced at that time!"

Lady Wilson was desperate and blurted out: "Why! Why! Why are you arresting me? I'm just an old lady who has no place to live. Even if you are pitiful and pity me, you can't take me away!"

The police officer said coldly: "No matter how poor you are, you must obey the law! Take it all away!"

Chapter 806

Harold was escorted out by two police officers. He turned his head to look at Charlie Wade, and said angrily: "Charlie Wade, is it because your trash framed us!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Guess what?"

Christopher cursed loudly: "If you have the surname Wade, you will definitely get retribution! Sooner or later you will be slashed a thousand times!"

The leading police officer scolded, "Shut up."

Afterwards, a group of police officers escorted all the four members of the Wilson family into a police car and drove to the police station.

Elaine Ma watched the police car drive away, dancing with excitement, cheering repeatedly: "Great, this dead old woman finally got retribution!"

Jacob Wilson sighed, and said to her: "Keep a little bit of morals, don't let her live or let her live, but she will be my mother after all."

Elaine Ma curled his lips: "Whoever you love, just don't live in my house!"

Claire Wilson Wilson, who had not spoken all the time, sighed and said, "Grandma is also very poor now, or let her live in our old house."

"Lend it to her?" Elaine Ma sneered: "I'm pooh! Even if I buy four pigs and put them in, I will never let them live in! You forgot how she treated us?!"

Claire Wilson Wilson sighed and said, "It's my grandmother after all, so I can't bear it more or less."

Elaine Ma waved his hand: "You don't have to overflow with sympathy with me. This old thing has long been owed by Christopher and his family! This time, just let them go to the detention center to suffer!"

Speaking of this, Elaine Ma said with regret: "It's a pity that I can't go to the detention center to see the desolate state of Old Lady Wilson in the cell. Otherwise, I will take a video and watch it twenty times a day!"

Claire Wilson Wilson shook his head helplessly, and said, "Whether it's okay to let grandma get some education, it's best to let her change her son."

Speaking of this, Claire Wilson Wilson said to Elaine Ma again: "Mom, if nothing happens in the afternoon, I will go to the company."

Loreen on the side also said: "I happen to have to go back to the company to do something, or should we be together?"

"Okay." Claire Wilson Wilson said: "Then I'll give it to you."

Claire Wilson Wilson and Loreen cleaned up quickly and left in a hurry. Charlie Wade sent the two to the yard and watched Claire Wilson Wilson drive away.

At this time, Charlie Wade received a WeChat message from Cameron Isaac, which read: "Master, all four members of the Wilson family have been detained for 15 days due to provocation and provocation. They have been sent to the detention center."

"Good." Charlie Wade replied: "It's done well."

Cameron Isaac asked again: "Master, is fifteen days a bit shorter? Would you like me to do it and keep them off for a year or a half?"

"No." Charlie Wade replied: "They have been shut down for a year or a half. Instead, they have a place to eat and sleep. It's better to let them out and let them come out and feel the feeling of being on the street."

"Good young master."

Charlie Wade put away the phone and saw Elaine Ma throw all the luggage of the Wilson family into the trash can outside.

The four members of the Wilson family have arrived home in misery.

When they came out of the detention center, they would definitely not even have a change of clothes.

While sighing, Elaine Ma walked back after losing his luggage, and went straight to Charlie Wade, and said: "Charlie Wade, did your dad put all the money left over from buying furniture back into your card?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "Yes, what's the matter?"

Elaine Ma said angrily: "Give it to me, I want to use it!"

Chapter 807

Elaine Ma felt that as long as she talked to Charlie Wade, Charlie Wade would definitely not dare to disobey her.

As long as he puts the money into her card, she can invite his good sisters to eat together. After the meal, the sisters arrange a dragon. This is the life of the upper class.

Charlie Wade immediately shook his head when she heard that she wanted money, "Mom, I can't give you this money."

Elaine Ma frowned, and blurted out: "Why?"

Charlie Wade said indifferently: "Now dad is in charge of the money at home. If you use money, you have to make dad agree."

"What are you talking about?!" Elaine Ma said coldly: "I can't speak well now, am I?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "For money issues, dad must agree."

Elaine Ma said annoyedly: "You don't take Jacob Wilson out to press me, I tell you, I am your mother, if I ask you for money, you have to give it to me!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "You can give it. As long as Dad agrees, it's okay to give it to you."

"You..." Elaine Ma was so angry that he pointed at Charlie Wade and asked, "Do you have to go against me?"

Charlie Wade asked in return: "Mom, my dad will take care of the money in the future. You said this by yourself, not me. Am I also implementing your decision?"

Elaine Ma gritted his teeth and said: "Don't talk so much nonsense, quickly give me the money, have you heard?"

Charlie Wade stretched out his hand and said apologetically, "Sorry mom, if Dad doesn't agree the money, even if you kill me, I won't give it."

After speaking, Charlie Wade didn't bother to talk to her anymore, and walked back to the villa.

Looking at Charlie Wade's back, Elaine Ma was so angry that his lungs were about to explode!

She wanted to find Jacob Wilson and ask Jacob Wilson to say yes to Charlie Wade, but after another thought, she gave up the idea because she knew that Jacob Wilson would definitely not agree.

This old guy is better than Charlie Wade now. Not only does he refuse to listen to her own words and follow her, he even asks him to get on the board, and he wants to separate with himself. At this time, he is asking him instead of taking it for himself. Shame?

Elaine Ma was so angry and bored in her heart, she didn't know what to do for a while.

In the WeChat group, the old sisters are still waiting for her reply. She is embarrassed, and she is not willing to give up all entertainment plans like this.

At this time, Charlie Wade was cleaning up in the kitchen, and Jacob Wilson was enjoying tea and reading the newspaper on the set of Rosewood sofa left by his father.

At this moment, Elaine Ma's mind suddenly flashed a light.

Charlie Wade, this guy, usually cheats and deceives those rich people under the guise of Feng Shui, and he can fool him to two million at a time. Does the ghost know if he has other private money?

Maybe the last time he watched Feng Shui, he actually made three million?

When she thought of this, she immediately remembered Charlie Wade's purchase of two BMWs.

At that time, even the money to buy two BMWs was the private money that Charlie Wade saved!

Two cars, nearly a million!

In other words, Charlie Wade does have the habit of hiding private money, and he has a lot of private money!

If he can find his bank card and try his password again, wouldn't he be able to get all his private money?

Don't ask this guy to have a million, even if there is one hundred thousand, it is enough to spend some time with my sisters!

Thinking of this, Elaine Ma's face immediately showed an inevitable smile, and immediately decided to steal from him!

Chapter 808

So, she went to the second floor non-stop, trying to open the rooms of Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson.

When she opened, she found that the door was not locked, and she was immediately happy!

When she entered the house, she began to dump the cabinets.

However, Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson just moved here today, and they have not been carefully placed in the cabinet, and there is nothing valuable.

Elaine Ma searched for a long time, but couldn't find Charlie Wade's wallet and bank card. When she was upset, she suddenly saw Charlie Wade's coat hanging in the closet, so she hurried forward, rummaged in her pocket, and found out one. Black gold bank card.

The bank card was written in English. Elaine Ma was a student bastard when he was in college. After so many years, English has been returned to the teacher.

So, after watching for a long time, she only saw that this card was from Citibank, but she didn't understand what the card came from.

However, looking carefully at this card, the workmanship is exquisite, and it seems to be extraordinary.

She was overjoyed, and immediately took the black gold card into her arms, thinking to herself, Charlie Wade, Charlie Wade, if you don't give the old woman money, won't the old woman take it by herself?

Also, if your kid behaves better just now, my Lady may still leave you a few hundred dollars in the card.

But your attitude toward me was so bad just now, and you used Jacob Wilson to suppress me, then you really made the wrong person!

Just wait for me, as long as I try out your password, if I can leave you a penny in your bank card, even if I lose!

Thinking of this, Elaine Ma, with excitement, quietly left the villa and rushed to the nearest Citibank.

.....

Charlie Wade, who was tidying up in the kitchen, had no idea that Elaine Ma would steal his bank card.

As soon as he cleaned the bowls, the phone rang suddenly.

He picked up his mobile phone and saw that the contact showed the words "Mrs. Lewis", and he was immediately happy.

When Charlie Wade was eight years old, both his parents died. If it weren't for Mrs. Lewis from the orphanage, he would have starved to death on the street.

Therefore, Charlie Wade has always been grateful to Mrs. Lewis and never dared to forget this kind of grace.

That's why Charlie Wade was cheeky looking for the Lady to borrow money at the birthday banquet of the Lady Wilson, and give Mrs. Lewis a kidney transplant.

Later, Stephen Thompson appeared and Mrs. Lewis was also transferred to Fairview Hospital in Eastcliff for the best treatment.

During this period of time, Charlie Wade only knew that her surgery was going well, and Stephen Thompson had also arranged the best recovery treatment for her, but Charlie Wade himself had not actively contacted Mrs. Lewis. This was mainly because she didn't want to disturb her. I hope she Concentrate on raising your body in Eastcliff.

Pressing the answer button, Charlie Wade hurriedly said: "Mrs. Lewis!"

Mrs. Lewis's kind voice came over the phone: "It's me, Charlie Wade, how are you doing recently?"

Charlie Wade said excitedly: "I'm pretty good Mrs. Lewis, how is your health?"

Mrs. Lewis smiled and said: "I am recovering very well now, and the rejection reaction is not very strong. The doctor said that I will almost meet the discharge standards and will be able to return to Aurouss Hill in a few days."

Charlie Wade was overjoyed: "That's great. When Auntie, you come back, I will pick you up."

Mrs. Lewis hurriedly said: "Charlie Wade, don't spend money. If the nurse accidentally said that you missed the mouth just now, I didn't know that you paid the millions of treatment fees before and after the operation, and the aunt didn't know. How can I thank you..."

With that, Mrs. Lewis on the other end of the phone couldn't help sobbing.

Charlie Wade felt sour and hurriedly said, "Mrs. Lewis, don't cry, this is what I should do. You forgot that when I was eight years old, I wandered on the street for three days and three nights, hungry and skinny. It was not you who brought me back to the orphanage, I might have died on the street long ago..."

Chapter 809

Mrs. Lewis on the other end of the phone sighed: "It was aunt's duty to save you at the beginning, but you did not have this obligation to help aunt with so much medical expenses. What's more, what was your life in Wilson's family? Aunt knew well."

After speaking, Mrs. Lewis said again: "Charlie Wade, don't worry, Auntie will find a way to return this money to you."

Charlie Wade was moved when he heard this, Mrs. Lewis really thought about herself everywhere, treating herself as a son.

So he said seriously: "Mrs. Lewis, you don't have to worry about money, and you don't have to think about paying me back."

Mrs. Lewis quickly said, "How can this work? You spent so much money on your aunt's behalf. Auntie must find a way to pay you back!"

Charlie Wade refused again: "I always remember your kindness to me. No matter how much money is spent on treating your illness, it should be done. If you raise money again, you will treat me as an outsider. , I will never see you again!"

Mrs. Lewis felt very moved when she heard this, but she was also very clear that no matter what Charlie Wade said, she must find a way to return the money to him.

But she can only change her mouth and say: "You are sensible now, and the aunt listens to you."

With that, Mrs. Lewis asked again: "By the way, Charlie Wade, how are you and Claire Wilson Wilson?"

She remembered that the relationship between Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson had always been delicate, so she was very concerned about it.

Although she knew that Charlie Wade was only married for some special reasons, and it seemed that her relationship with Claire Wilson Wilson was not very stable, but she always felt that this pair of young people was indeed a good match.

Therefore, she wholeheartedly hoped that Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson could truly have love, and then give birth to a boy and grow old together.

Charlie Wade heard Mrs. Lewis's question and hurriedly said with a smile: "Mrs. Lewis, Claire Wilson Wilson and I are in a stable relationship now. When you come back, I will bring Claire Wilson Wilson to pick you up."

Mrs. Lewis breathed a sigh of relief and smiled: "Oh, then you have to hurry up and let Claire Wilson Wilson become pregnant. You two are not too young anymore. It's time to have a baby. Listening to Auntie's advice, the young couple has a baby. After that, the relationship will be more stable!"

Charlie Wade sighed, he hasn't gotten into Claire Wilson Wilson's bed until now. It's a little bit early to want children now, right? But you can't say this to Mrs. Lewis, so he smiled and said: "I know Mrs. Lewis, don't worry, we will consider it carefully."

Mrs. Lewis smiled and said, "That's good, that's good! Auntie won't tell you anymore. The nurse urged me to hang up and said that I can't talk too much."

Charlie Wade hurriedly said, "You must tell me when you return to Aurouss Hill!"

"Ok, rest assured! Goodbye!"

After speaking, he hung up.

.....

At the same time, Elaine Ma rushed to the nearby Citibank.

She took the black gold card and went directly to the bank's ATM.

She felt that Charlie Wade wouldn't have too much money in the card, and she didn't have to toss at the counter, just operate it directly at the ATM and transfer the money to her card.

So, she inserted her black gold card, and the interface immediately popped up: "Hello, honorable Citibank VIP member, it is a great honor to serve you, please enter your black gold card password."

Elaine Ma curled his lips: "What kind of shit, you are still a supreme VIP member, pretending to be forced. When the Lady had two million in her card, she was also a wealth management VIP customer at ICBC!"

With that, she was going to try the password of this card.

Because of the experience of successfully trying out the password of Jacob Wilson's mobile phone, Elaine Ma felt that this time was also determined to win.

She thought about it carefully, and thought to herself: Charlie Wade, this trash, is really affectionate to her daughter, maybe the bank card password is her daughter's birthday.

So she directly entered Claire Wilson Wilson's birthday.

Then, the screen prompts directly: "Hello, distinguished VIP member of Citibank, the password you entered is wrong, you can try 2 more times today."

"wrong password?"

Elaine Ma was stunned for a moment, and then yelled: "Oh, Charlie Wade, you say you love my daughter all day long, but the bank card password is not my daughter's birthday! Look at Jacob Wilson's dead ghost, the phone password can be set to two The birthday of an old lover more than ten years ago!"

Thinking of this, she frowned again and thought to herself, could it be their wedding anniversary?

Chapter 810

After that, she immediately entered the wedding anniversary of Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson.

The prompt on the screen: "Hello, distinguished VIP member of Citibank, the password you entered is wrong, you can try again today."

"Damn!" Elaine Ma cursed and muttered to herself: "Isn't it right? It's just a chance..."

When her heart was extremely anxious, she suddenly thought, could the password be Charlie Wade's own birthday?

She couldn't wait to try it, but she suddenly realized that she didn't know when Charlie Wade's birthday was.

So I had to pick up the phone and call his daughter Claire Wilson Wilson.

As soon as the phone was connected, he hurriedly asked: "Claire Wilson Wilson, when is Charlie Wade's birthday?"

Claire Wilson Wilson asked curiously: "Mom, why are you asking this?"

Claire Wilson Wilson knew that her mother had never looked down upon Charlie Wade, so she didn't quite understand why she asked herself for Charlie Wade's birthday.

Elaine Ma hurriedly said: "Oh, I don't think that Charlie Wade has made a lot of hard work to get a villa for our family, so I want to find a chance to reward him, give him a birthday or something."

Claire Wilson Wilson said: "Charlie Wade's birthday is the second month of the second lunar month."

Elaine Ma frowned and said, "February 2? The dragon raised his head?"

Claire Wilson Wilson said, "Yes, it was the day the dragon raised his head."

Elaine Ma hurriedly asked, "What day is the solar calendar?"

"March 13th."

"Okay, I see."

After Elaine Ma finished speaking, she hung up the phone impatiently, and then she began to fall into thought.

She knows in which year Charlie Wade was born, but now she is not sure whether to use 0202 in the lunar calendar or 0313 in the solar calendar.

Now there is another chance to try the password. If you make a mistake, you may just swallow the card.

Therefore, she must do a multiple choice question.

After thinking about it, Elaine Ma feels that Charlie Wade's birthday on the lunar calendar is February and the second dragon's head is raised.

This is a more meaningful day, and it is also the dragon's head festival in the lunar calendar. In contrast, the solar birthday on March 13 looks somewhat different Unremarkable.

Therefore, she felt that if Charlie Wade used her birthday as her password, she probably also used the lunar calendar.

So she confided her heart and directly entered Charlie Wade's birthday on the lunar calendar into the password area.

Immediately afterwards, a prompt that excited her popped up on the screen: "Hello, distinguished VIP member of Citibank, your password has been verified successfully, please select a specific service."

Elaine Ma didn't expect that she had made a mistake, and she was really wrong, and she was overjoyed.

She immediately clicked the option to check the balance, wanting to see how much money Charlie Wade had in his bank card.

After a while, the screen immediately showed a large number of numbers that were so long that Elaine Ma was dizzy.

"Yeah, I can't think that Charlie Wade's waste money is really a lot. Let me count how many times I can make faces."

Elaine Ma murmured subconsciously, and then carefully counted, the soul was completely scared.

"One, ten, one hundred, one thousand, ten thousand, one hundred thousand, one million, ten million!!!"

"Billion!!!"

"Billions!!!"

"Ten billion!!!"

Elaine Ma slammed his heart tightly, and did not faint when holding on, and exclaimed in a flustered mouth: "What the hell is hell, this waste card has 21.9 billion?!?!"

Chapter 811

Elaine Ma stared at the numbers on the cash machine screen, shocked. At this moment, she felt that the whole world had collapsed.

She was shocked and she didn't understand why Charlie Wade had a deposit of more than 20 billion!

"How is this possible? Twenty billion! I am crazy or Charlie Wade is crazy! Where did he get so much money?"

Elaine Ma's hands are shaking, 20 billion! Not two hundred Dollar, not two million!

She had never dreamed of so much money in her life!

Where did Charlie Wade get so much money? Could it be that he fooled Bill Gates?

At this moment, Elaine Ma's first thought was to call Charlie Wade and ask what was going on.

But the next moment, she suddenly realized that it was impossible!

Isn't it exposed when you call?

Before Charlie Wade knew it, he had to get as much of his money as possible and get it into his card!

Thinking of this, she immediately clicked on the transfer function and entered her bank account number. Then, when she entered the transfer amount, she hesitated slightly.

After a while, she looked excited, and entered 21,900,000,000 in the amount column!

A total of 21.9 billion, Elaine Ma plans to credit all of it to his account.

She didn't bother to worry about how Charlie Wade got the money.

But the money was seen by myself, it was all my own!

Fighting with the Lady and Jacob Wilson for a lifetime, isn't it just for a little money to provide for the elderly?

After the previous two million Dollar was gone, she fully understood how painful it was to lose money.

So, now, seeing the money, she has only a strong possessive desire in her heart.

With all this money, what can I worry about in my life?

The life that I had never dreamed of before seems to have begun to wave to myself.

So, she immediately pressed the confirmation button with emotion.

21.9 billion!

It's all mine!

I, Elaine Ma, have a chance to become a billionaire!

At this moment of ecstasy in her heart, a prompt popped up on the screen:

"Automated teller machine transfers. The maximum transfer amount in a single day is 1 million Dollar, and the maximum cash withdrawal amount in a single day is 100,000 Dollar. If you need a higher amount of financial Service, please go to the counter with your card!"

"Oh shit!"

Elaine Ma scolded: "The single-day limit is only 1 million, which is enough to do an egg? You can transfer 365 million away without falling a day! Wouldn't it be better to transfer 21.9 billion away by this method? Decades!"

Thinking of this, Elaine Ma immediately chose to withdraw the card, and then went into the bank with the card!

No, today, no matter what, all the money must be transferred away! So as not to have many dreams at night!

Chapter 812

My Elaine Ma's style of work is tornadoes, wherever I go, no penny is left!

Afterwards, Elaine Ma walked towards the bank lobby with excitement.

As soon as she walked in, an enthusiastic young woman said to her:

"Hello, what kind of business is going on? I'll help you get an account."

Elaine Ma shook the black gold card in her hand and couldn't wait to say:

"I want to make a transfer!"

When the young woman saw the black gold card in her hand, she was shocked!

All Citibank staff have undergone professional training before taking up their posts. In the training class, there is a section dedicated to explaining the black gold card!

This black gold card is the highest standard of Citibank. It is limited to one hundred issued in the world, and only five in China!

Everyone holding a black gold card is a super VIP guest of Citibank, no matter it is any executive of Citibank, he will serve him respectfully when he sees it!

She never expected that the legendary Black Gold Card would appear in the second-tier city of Aurouss Hilll!

So she hurriedly stepped forward, bowed very respectfully ninety degrees, and blurted out: "Dear distinguished guest, please follow me to the VIP reception room! I will ask our president to come over and handle the business for you personally!"

When Elaine Ma heard that she was a distinguished guest, she immediately felt the strong pleasure of pretending to be successful from her scalp to her toes, so she immediately urged and laughed: "Hurry up and take me over! Neglect me, be careful I let Your president fired you!"

The other party panicked and said hurriedly: "Please don't be angry, please follow me!"

The young woman invited Elaine Ma to the VIP room, and immediately asked the service staff in the VIP room to pour water on Elaine Ma, and then ran to the president's office quickly, and hurriedly pushed the door in without knocking on the door, and said, "The president .! Here comes the VIP!"

The bank president frowned, very dissatisfied with the staff's act of pushing the door without knocking, and shouted coldly: "What does the fuss look like? If people see it, they think how rough our bank staff are!"

The young woman said breathlessly: "Mr. President, the VIPs with black gold cards are here to handle business!"

The president suddenly sat up from the chair, his eyes widened, his breathing was short, and he blurted out and asked, "What? You say it again!"

The young woman said, "The Black Gold VIP guest is here! It's in the VIP room! Go and take a look!"

"My God!" The president felt a whirlwind feeling: "The VIP of the Black Gold Card? Are you sure it is the Black Gold Card? Only five of the gadgets have been issued nationwide, and I have never seen the real thing!"

"I'm sure!" the young woman said confidently: "We talked about the black gold card during our training. I will definitely not read it wrong!" The governor hurriedly straightened his collar and quickly got up and ran out.

Black gold card VIP, that is the VIP of VIPs, the super VIP of VIP, who has this card, who is not a super rich person worth hundreds of billions? It is said that the five cards issued nationwide are all given to top families, one each for the three top families of Eastcliff and the two top families of Highland Falls, and there is no more!

I don't know which family member came with the black gold card today? Wade family, Pitts family, or Highland Falls Hunt family? Or the other two families? !

The president rushed to the VIP room, opened the door respectfully, and saw Elaine Ma sitting on the sofa.

At this time, Elaine Ma had the illusion of the Empress Dowager Cixi, arrogantly tilting Erlang's legs.

At the thought of immediately becoming a super rich man with 21.9 billion Dollar in cash, Elaine Ma was so excited that she almost became incontinent.

The president could not see the depth of Elaine Ma, but he also recognized the black gold card in her hand, so he hurriedly stepped forward, bowed and said, "Hello, honorable black gold card guest, I am the president of the bank. Lee Tomas, you just call me Leei."

Elaine Ma gave an arrogant hum, and said contemptuously: "Oh, Lee, you just came here, I want to transfer money, but you shit ATMs say you can only transfer one million a day, it's not the f*ck What about bullshit? My mother has more than 20 billion, and can only transfer 1 million a day. Can I transfer it to death?"

Lee hurriedly apologized and said, "Dear distinguished guest, I'm really sorry. This ATM is for ordinary people to put it bluntly. Think about it, it's just a boxy machine with limited capacity. If you put it to death, you can't put a lot of money. How can it match your status as a VIP of the Black Gold Card?"

As he said, he hurriedly complimented: "A super VIP like you, to any Citibank, as long as you show the black gold card, it is the top VIP treatment. The president personally entertains you, how can you stand your noble body? Operate in front of the ATM!"

Chapter 813

Hearing what Lee said, Elaine Ma felt a lot of comfort immediately.

It turns out that ATMs are for ordinary people!

Hahaha, ordinary people, aren't they just poor people?

This Lee Tomas is right. Like herself, a super rich lady who is about to have tens of billions of assets, how can her distinguished body stand in front of an ATM to operate that shit?

Thinking of this, Elaine Ma stretched happily and said to Lee: "Yes, Lee, you have a future!"

"Where and where, you passed the award!" Mr. Tomas respectfully said: "If you want to handle the transfer business, I can do it for you personally."

After speaking, he immediately sat opposite Elaine Ma and turned on the computer dedicated to the VIP room.

After the computer was turned on, he asked Elaine Ma: "Madam, which account and how much are you going to transfer to?"

Elaine Ma took out a bank card of his own, handed it to him together with the black gold card, and opened his mouth: "From this black card, transfer me 21.9 billion to this white ICBC card!"

Lee was so frightened that he almost urinated.

"Madam...Are you sure you want to transfer 21.9 billion?!"

Elaine Ma nodded, and said impatiently: "Yes, what the hell, I have to do it quickly, have you heard it? Otherwise, I will smash your bank!"

Lee swallowed, and subconsciously took the black card, put the chip up and inserted it into the card reader, and then said to Elaine Ma: "Please enter your password."

Elaine Ma raised his hand and entered Charlie Wade's lunar birthday on the password keyboard.

The password is correct.

Later, Lee also saw the account balance, which was indeed more than 21.9 billion Dollar.

He was shocked in his heart.

Unexpectedly, a middle-aged woman who took out a black gold card would have more than 20 billion in it. What a lady!

However, he is just the president of a small branch in Aurouss Hilll, and his authority is not enough to check the identity of the owner of the black gold card, so he doesn't know whose name the card is.

But the black gold card is like this.

Most people cannot find out the true identity of the owner of the black gold card. As long as someone withdraws money from the black gold card, there is no need to ask how many banks to withdraw, because the privacy of the black gold card owner must be fully respected.

Moreover, the black gold card is never afraid of stealing it.

Because in this world, no matter how courageous a thief is, he will retract his hand in shock when he sees the black gold card.

Once someone steals the black gold card and steals the money in the black gold card, with the strength of the black gold card owner, this person is absolutely lifeless to spend the money.

This is the same as if the credit card amount of a rich person is extremely high, but without a password.

For those who are rich, there is no need to set a password on a credit card. Whoever dares to steal it, the bank and the police are the first to let him go.

The black gold card of Charlie Wade was sent to him by Stephen Thompson, and the password was set at the beginning. Because this card was rarely used, Charlie Wade never changed the password.

When Stephen Thompson gave this card to Charlie Wade, the password of the card was Charlie Wade's birthday in the lunar calendar, and Elaine Ma guessed it by mistake.

Now, Elaine Ma wants to take away all the money in this card.

Because Lee did not have the authority to check the identity of the card owner, he could not determine who Elaine Ma was. Moreover, out of respect for the owner of the black gold card, he could only do business.

Thinking of this, he complimented: "Are you sure you want to transfer 21.9 billion to this ICBC card, right?"

Elaine Ma said impatiently: "I'm sure, what are your ink marks? Hurry up!"

Lee was taken aback and nodded hurriedly and said, "Okay, I'll help you handle it!"

Afterwards, he immediately entered Elaine Ma's account on the computer. After confirming that it was correct, he clicked Confirm, and then said to Elaine Ma: "Please enter your password again to confirm."

Elaine Ma can't wait to enter the password.

Chapter 814

Lee said immediately: "I am reminding that the money has been transferred out."

Elaine Ma hurriedly turned on the phone, opened his mobile bank, went in and took a look, and asked in surprise, "Why haven't I arrived?"

Li Thomastao hurriedly said: "Don't worry, this is 21.9 billion Dollar after all. The banking system has to repeatedly confirm such a large amount and report it to the central bank for the record, so it will take a while to get the account."

Elaine Ma was a little impatient, and asked: "Are you f*cking bullshit with me? Have to wait? How long will it take?!"

Lee said: "This is uncertain. If it is fast, it will take tens of minutes, if it is slow, it will be up to one working day."

Elaine Ma said angrily: "Why is it going to take so long! Let it be faster, or I will let you Citibank fire you!"

Lee said helplessly: "This is not something I can control, it's the central bank's decision. Even if you go to the court to sue me, I can't help it..."

Elaine Ma saw that Lee was indeed unable to affect this speed, and said angrily: "I knew it was so slow. I would transfer a million first, and then transfer the rest. I was really mad at me!"

Lee hurriedly said, "You can wait here for a while and have a look."

She was already scratching her heart at this time.

21.9 billion!

She felt uncomfortable when the account arrived one second late.

But I have no other way, I can only wait.

So she said coldly: "I'm waiting here, go and pour me a cup of coffee! Want the best!"

Lee hurriedly said: "I'll go and pour it for you!"

.....

At this moment.

After Charlie Wade came out of the kitchen, Jacob Wilson waved at him, smiled and said, "Good son-in-law, come sit down and have a cup of tea."

"Okay." There was no one at home, and Charlie Wade was polite with Jacob Wilson, so he sat directly in front of him.

Jacob Wilson hurriedly poured him a cup of tea, and said with a smile: "Oh, thanks to your blessing, I have the opportunity to sit in this big villa and drink tea. Come and taste it."

Charlie Wade nodded, smiled and said, "Thank you Dad."

After speaking, he picked up the teacup and took a bite, shaking his head secretly.

Jacob Wilson really didn't have much money, and he lived relatively cheaply. The tea was worth up to three hundred Dollar a catty, and he still enjoyed drinking it.

Jacob Wilson smiled and said at this time: "This tea is a good thing. I secretly bought it from the granddaughter of a tea farmer on WeChat. It was 5,000 Dollar a catty. I was not willing to buy more, so I bought two taels. I usually don't want to drink it. "

Charlie Wade asked in surprise: "The tea farmer's granddaughter? It's not the grandfather who is sick and has no money to see a doctor, and sells his top-quality tea cheaply?"

"Oh, how do you know?" Jacob Wilson smiled and said: "Good tea is also to be picked up, and the opportunity is rare. If you drink it well, I will get you some when I look back."

Charlie Wade sighed helplessly, and said, "Dad, you have cheated people. Those are all routines, not true."

"How is it possible?" Jacob Wilson said with a serious face, "I'm so good with little girls! There are still many videos and photos in the circle of friends."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "It's all fabricated fake materials and fake materials. Maybe it's a big guy who is talking with you."

When speaking, Charlie Wade also secretly thought in his heart that Jacob Wilson had indeed had a hard time, he had never seen any good things.

The tea that I drank with my father when I was young was not sold by two pounds, but by grams, and no tea was cheaper than gold.

However, this kind of good thing, my old father-in-law must have never tasted it. It seems that I have a chance to make some good tea for him, so that he will also have a long experience.

At this moment, his mobile phone suddenly received a text message.

"Dear Mr. Charlie Wade, your black gold card account was successfully transferred out of RMB 21,900,000,000.00 at 15:02 today."

Charlie Wade frowned when he saw this text message, and uttered three words in his mouth:

"What the hell!"

Chapter 815

Charlie Wade, who had always been calm, couldn't help being dumbfounded when he saw this short breath!

In his Citibank Black Gold Card, there are a total of a little over 21.9 billion in deposits.

Among them, when Stephen Thompson first sent the card, there were 10 billion in it;

Then he pitted Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall twice. The first time he pitted Kobayashi's president Masao Kobayashi for 10 billion. After his death, he pitted his second son for a billion;

A few days ago, Lord Mooore gave himself another one-billion-dollar card. He had nowhere to deal with it, so he put the money into this card.

The total revenue is 22 billion.

But I didn't spend a lot of money, so he still has 21.9 billion plus tens of millions of change.

Now they were transferred away at 21.9 billion. Who did it? !

The first thing he thought of was the Wade Family.

Could it be that he was reluctant to return to Wade's house for so long, and that Wade's family took back the money in his card?

Then your big family won't take away their own money, right?

Wade family is unlikely, then it might be stolen!

However, the black gold card is said to have very powerful chip encryption and the possibility of forgery is extremely low, so it is possible that the card has been stolen!

Thinking of this, he immediately put down his teacup and walked to the second floor.

Jacob Wilson hurriedly asked, "Charlie Wade, why are you going? Good tea, let's go after drinking?"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "Dad, I have something urgent to deal with. I will get you some real good tea to taste."

After speaking, the person ran up the stairs.

Jacob Wilson sighed and sighed: "Hey, this kid, I don't know how to drink such good tea. What kind of real good tea can you make for me? Don't let people fool them and burn them up."

Charlie Wade rushed back to the room at this time, the first thing was to look for his black gold card in his coat.

Some coats, sure enough!

Damn it.

This is a bit of a pull.

The security of Thompson First Villa is so good, who can steal his card? Besides, if you steal the card, you don't know the password! The password is your birthday, even if you try, you must be someone who knows you before you have the chance to try it out...

At this time, a familiar face suddenly popped out of his mind.

Elaine Ma!

It's definitely her!

When Charlie Wade thought of this, his expression immediately went cold. Okay, you usually make a bad habit, just forget it, and steal Master's money?

The point is, you are so bold! 21.9 billion, are you scared after seeing it? Are they all transferred to Master? Your heart is so dark!

Thinking of this, he immediately took out his cell phone and called Stephen Thompson.

On the other side of the phone, Stephen Thompson's old and steady voice came: "Master, what's your order?"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "My black gold card was stolen, and the money inside was also taken away."

Stephen Thompson hurriedly asked, "Master, how many are there in total?"

Charlie Wade said: "21.9 billion!"

"So many?!" Stephen Thompson was surprised. It didn't take long for the 10 billion to be given to Charlie Wade, how could it become 21.9 billion so quickly? The speed of making money, Master, is too awesome, right? However, he was not overly surprised, but hurriedly and professionally judged: "So much money is transferred out, the central bank will definitely check it first. That is to say, the money is now out of your card to the central bank's settlement center. After the approval, the money will be released to the other party. The amount is so large that it will probably take at least an hour. Master, how long has your money been out?"

Charlie Wade said: "A few minutes, not too long."

Chapter 816

Stephen Thompson breathed a sigh of relief and said, "That's good, the Wade family cooperates very closely with the central bank. I say hello, and the money will be returned to your card."

"Okay." Charlie Wade also relieved a little.

Two minutes after hanging up the phone, Charlie Wade received another text message on his cell phone:

"Dear Mr. Charlie Wade, RMB 21,900,000,000.00 will be credited to your Black Gold Card account at 15:06 today."

Charlie Wade breathed a sigh of relief when the money came back.

But then another serious problem came to mind.

Elaine Ma stole his card.

Tried out my own password.

I also saw the amazing balance in my card.

If Claire Wilson Wilson knew about this incident, how to explain it? !

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade's expression grew colder.

Elaine Ma, I think you are Claire Wilson Wilson's mother. I have endured you for so long, but you are really playing too much today.

I must not let you go easily today!

So he immediately called Cameron Isaac again.

On the other end of the phone, Cameron Isaac's voice rang respectfully:

"Master, what's your order?"

Charlie Wade said angrily: "My mother-in-law stole my black gold card, and ransacked me 21.9 billion. I am going to teach her a lesson. Please help me contact the relevant department and cooperate."

Cameron Isaac said immediately, "Master, please give me your orders!"

Charlie Wade immediately informed Cameron Isaac of his arrangements, and said: "You must make arrangements for me, don't go on a business trip, understand?"

"Understood Master!"

.....

Citibank VIP room. Elaine Ma refreshed his mobile banking over and over again.

In mobile banking at this time, there was only a pitiful 0.32 Dollar.

All she was thinking about was that the 21.9 billion hurriedly arrived, so that she could instantly reach the pinnacle of her life!

However, after brushing for a long time, ten minutes passed, and the money has not arrived yet.

She couldn't help being a little irritable, and was about to scold that Lee Tomas, when she suddenly received a call from a friend.

"Hey, Elaine Ma, are you going to make a face tomorrow? We are going to form a group and go together."

Elaine Ma disdainfully said, "Making face? What kind of face? What kind of face is I, and making faces with you? What the hell do you want?"

The voice of the other party immediately changed: "What do you mean by talking?"

Elaine Ma sneered: "What do I mean? I tell you that going to a beauty salon to do facials is what people like you do, and I want to buy the beauty salon directly and serve me alone. I will follow you in the future. This kind of person draws a line!"

The other party said in disbelief: "Elaine Ma, are you crazy? Just you, and you still bought the beauty salon? Are you dreaming!"

Elaine Ma shook his head and said with a sense of superiority: "I have nothing to say with you, the poor, I tell you, Elaine Ma is now different from what I used to be. You can't imagine the money I have in this life."

The other party sneered and said, "I think you should take medicine!"

After speaking, he directly hung up the phone.

Elaine Ma didn't care when she was hung up. Now she's floating all over, like this kind of poor friend, don't touch it if you don't touch it in the future. .

So she drank a sip of the top Blue Mountain coffee and watched Lee and scolded: "Hurry up, do it faster! My mother's money hasn't arrived yet, what are you doing? Believe it or not, I'll call you tomorrow. Don't do it?"

Lee was very annoyed by Elaine Ma's arrogant attitude, but he could only bite the bullet and said: "Madam, please wait a moment, the central bank will take time to deal with it!"

Elaine Ma said unreasonably: "I don't care about your shit reasons, you can find out what happened to me, otherwise I will just give you millions to kill you!"

Chapter 817

Li Thomastao was frightened by Elaine Ma, and could only say helplessly: "Then I will help you look at our progress. If it has been reported to the central bank, I can't find the rest."

Elaine Ma was anxious, so she splashed coffee on his face and cursed: "Hurry up, what's the force? My mother is going to die!"

Lee was screaming when he was splashed. Fortunately, the coffee was not very hot, otherwise he would have to be disfigured.

He was furious, but he really didn't dare to provoke such a big man, so he could only humbly say: "Wait a minute, I will help you see the progress of our trip."

After that, after entering the system and checking, he said in surprise: "No! This money shows that the central bank has returned it."

"What is it? Where did you go?"

Lee said: "Your black gold card has been returned to the account."

"What?" Elaine Ma slapped Lee when he went up, cursing: "What's the matter with you bastard? Why is my mother's money returned again?!"

Lee, an old man who was aggrieved, cried and cried, "Madam, I really don't know...this is returned by the central bank, not by me... ."

"f*ck your mother!" Elaine Ma slapped the table and yelled, "Hurry up and transfer it to me again! Maybe I broke this bank!"

At this time, Elaine Ma was full of hurriedly getting the 21.9 billion. Even if her mother stood in front of her, she would kick away without hesitation.

I thought that the money was coming soon, but I never dreamed that the central bank returned the money again. What the hell? Cheating?

At this moment, there was a rush of footsteps outside the VIP room.

Immediately afterwards, the door was kicked open. A group of police officers with guns and live ammunition quickly rushed in and asked: "Who used the black gold card to transfer the money just now?!"

Lee was frightened, and pointed to Elaine Ma tremblingly and said: "This lady, is there any problem?"

The police ignored him and said directly to Elaine Ma: "What's your name?"

When Elaine Ma saw the police coming, she was shocked and panicked. what happened? Charlie Wade called the police?

I am his mother-in-law! Shouldn't it be illegal for a mother-in-law to take money from her son-in-law?

Just when she was stunned, the police questioned again: "What is your name!"

"I...I..." Elaine Ma said flusteredly: "My name is Elaine Ma..."

The police said coldly: "Elaine Ma, right? You are now officially arrested by us for being suspected of participating in a major overseas bank fraud case!"

After that, he shouted to the two people around him: "Handcuff me and take it away!"

When Elaine Ma heard this, her face paled in fright, and she blurted out: "Police officer, misunderstanding, I just came to transfer the account, the card is not mine, and I have not defrauded the bank!" Officer Lloyd said coldly: "Let's say these things when you arrive in the interrogation room. As servants of the people, we will not wrong any good person, but we will never let any bad person go."

Chapter 818

Elaine Ma hurriedly shouted: "This card is not mine, this card belongs to my son-in-law, and my son-in-law's name is Charlie Wade! Are you misunderstanding?"

Officer Lloyd said coldly: "I'm telling you, this card was forged by an overseas high-tech criminal group! It was specially used to defraud banks of huge amounts of money! This transnational case, we have joined the International Criminal Police Organization of 23 countries and it has been investigated. It's been two years, and now it's finally time for you, the fox, to show his feet! Now that the evidence is there, you still dare to quibble?!"

Elaine Ma suddenly collapsed! Damn, that card is forged? ! He just said it!

Charlie Wade, this damn stinky silk, how could he have 21.9 billion so much money!

It turned out to be a f*cking lie!

The point is, listening to the police, this card seems to be involved in a major transnational case? !

Joint tracing by Interpol in 23 countries? This battle is too big, right? If they really think they did it, they can't shoot themselves?

Thinking of this, Elaine Ma knelt on the ground with a puff, and tremblingly cried: "Comrades, you really wronged me. I'm an ordinary law-abiding citizen. This card was given to me by my damn son-in-law, I The son-in-law is idle all day long and is cheated everywhere. You must catch him and give me my innocence!"

After she finished speaking, she hurriedly said: "This Charlie Wade is now in Thompson First Villa A05. Go and take him away. It's better to sentence him to life imprisonment! I don't like to see this bastard again in my life. !"

The leading policeman snorted coldly: "You are shaking the pot quickly! We don't know Charlie Wade, we only know that you used this card. You used this card to defraud Citibank 21.9B. Fortunately, we discovered it early and intercepted the transfer in time. Otherwise, you will succeed! You will wait to sit in prison this time!"

Elaine Ma collapsed completely, and she slumped on the ground and cried loudly: "Comrade police, I am really innocent, I am wronged!"

Just as she was talking, a cup of tea was suddenly poured on Elaine Ma's face. Lee rushed up and kicked Elaine Ma to the ground with a single kick. Then he rushed up crazy and slammed her face on her face, shouting hysterically. "Damn, you liar, I'm also a bank leader, you screamed at me, poured coffee on my face, and slapped me in the face, I'll kill you!" The two young policemen hurriedly pulled Lee away, when Elaine Ma was already bloodied and terrible.

The police headed at this time said: "Okay, take the people in the car and go back to the bureau for the trial!"

Elaine Ma, with a blood-stained face, was dragged by two policemen, his legs slid on the ground, and his mouth was crazy and shouted in a torn voice: "I'm wronged! The card is not mine! The card is Charlie Wade's. Bastard! What are you doing with me? Why don't you catch that bastard? The people in the whole bank lobby were staring at this scene dumbfounded. Elaine Ma couldn't care about the embarrassment. The wow-wow rusher shouted: "Help! I was wronged! You must testify for me! "

Everyone froze, testify? What proof do we know you?

At this time, the policeman leading the team said coldly: "I tell you, even if you have a skyrocket, it's useless! When you arrive at the police station, there is a longer interrogation waiting for you. I advise you to keep your strength!"

The blood-stained Elaine Ma was like a wolf, desperately breaking free from the restraint of the police and the handcuffs, and shouted: "Let me make a call! I want to call my daughter! Let my daughter bring the liar over to commit the crime. Turn yourself in, then you will know that I am innocent!"

The policeman took the phone out of her pocket directly and said coldly: "You are the main suspect in a major transnational criminal case. During our interrogation and handling of the case, you have no right to contact anyone!"

After that, she turned off Elaine Ma's cell phone and shouted to the two policemen who were dragging her: "Hurry up and get in the car, hurry up!" The two of them moved directly to the left and right, lifted Elaine Ma, carried her out of the bank lobby, and stuffed it into the back seat of the police car.

Immediately, a group of police cars roared to the police station!

Chapter 819

As soon as Elaine Ma arrived, he was directly taken to the crime team for interrogation.

Seeing the words "criminal group", Elaine Ma trembled in shock.

Being taken all the way to the interrogation room of the police station, Elaine Ma had already panicked and was about to collapse, and the whole body was no longer arrogant, like a cock that was defeated.

In the interrogation room, the incandescent light shone on Elaine Ma's face.

Sitting on the opposite side were several police officers from the crime team.

One of them said coldly to Elaine Ma: "The criminal suspect, Elaine Ma, you are now the first suspect and the only suspect of an overseas high-tech criminal gang. You must truthfully explain your criminal process, otherwise, what is waiting for you will be It is a just trial."

At this moment, Elaine Ma immediately started crying: "Comrade, you caught the wrong person, Charlie Wade is the suspect...No, he is a criminal, I am a good citizen who abides by the law, I stole it from his pocket, it's not me."

The police officer frowned and said, "You said it was your son-in-law, will we believe it? It's stuck on you, and you took it to the bank to withdraw money. You are the biggest suspect!"

Another police officer beside him sneered and said: "I see this Elaine Ma, because the situation has been revealed, do you want to pull his son-in-law to top the bag?"

After that, he stared at Elaine Ma and said coldly: "You can even do such a frenzied thing. It's too inhuman, right?"

Elaine Ma shouted wronged: "What I said is true. My son-in-law Charlie Wade is really a liar. He is best at scams and abductions, and he is definitely a criminal!"

The police officer slapped the table and said angrily: "I think you are the criminal! I'll say it again, be lenient in confession and strict in resistance."

Elaine Ma cried anxiously: "Comrade police, I have already confessed...If half of what I said is false, I will be thundered!"

The policeman shouted angrily: "This is the police station, do you think it is a temple? Give me a swear to the heavens? I tell you! Hurry up and explain your upper family, next family, and accomplices, and link your organization's crime chain Let me explain everything clearly! Now the International Criminal Police of 23 other countries require you to be taken back to the country for investigation. If you resist to the end, we will hand you over to the US police and let them take you to the US for interrogation. Let me tell you that the American police are very violent in law enforcement. They often use torture to extract confessions. Please ask for your own blessings!"

Elaine Ma wailed in fright: "Police officer, I was really wronged. How can I go to my next home? I stole a bank card from my son-in-law, and then I was arrested here, please. Don't hand me over to the American police..."

The police officer stood up and said to others: "The criminal Elaine Ma has a rampant attitude. She refuses to explain the crimes of forging bank cards and transnational fraud. First, put her in the detention center and wait for further investigation."

Elaine Ma was frightened and cried, and went straight to the ground, and started to splash: "If I don't go to the detention center, you can't wrong the good people. If you wrong me, I will die with you!"

The police officer looked at Elaine Ma, who was lying on the ground and reluctant to get up, and said coldly: "Put her up for me and close the detention center directly!"

"Yes!"

The others immediately set up Elaine Ma like a dead pig, and it was useless for Elaine Ma to cry for his father and his mother, and sent directly to the Aurouss Hilll City Detention Center.

.....

There are three detention centers in Aurouss Hilll, which specialize in administrative and criminal detention, as well as prisoners who have not yet been tried or have a short sentence.

After the trial, prisoners with longer sentences are directly transferred to prison to serve their sentences.

Chapter 820

The three detention centers in Aurouss Hilll perform their duties. One is dedicated to detaining male suspects, one is dedicated to detaining female suspects, and the other is dedicated to detaining juvenile detainees.

After the four members of the Wilson family were arrested in the afternoon, they were sent to two detention centers.

The Lady Wilson and Wendy went to the women's detention center, while Christopher and Harold went to the men's detention center.

When she first entered the cell, Mrs. Wilson was still very uncomfortable. After being locked in, she sat on a simple bed, thinking about her experience during this time.

During this period of time, it was the greatest catastrophe for Mrs. Wilson and the Wilson family. Mrs. Wilson's life's hard work and coffins were all sealed by the court, and her son refused to let her live in the Thompson first product, and called her to the police. Grasping the prison, these things made her think more and more angry. Sitting cross-legged on the cot, thinking of the painful place, she slapped the bed in despair, crying loudly: "What a sin I have done, my family is bankrupt, my son doesn't support me, and my daughter-in-law has also taken me Send to the detention center, this goddamn unfilial son! This is to make me die in the detention center!"

Wendy sat aside, also angry and sad, and cried and said, "Grandma, Second Uncle used to be like this. He used to obey you and never dared to resist. Why is he so cruel now..."

Lady Wilson coldly snorted, and said angrily: "It's not Elaine Ma's vixen who suffered a thousand swords! This vixen has been uneasy since she got married to our Wilson family. If it weren't for her to stop him this time, your second uncle I guess I agreed to let us live in!"

With that said, the Lady felt sad again, wiped a cloud of tears, and cried: "I'm really too fateful. When I go there and meet the old man, if he knows I was forced by my daughter-in-law Dead, don't know how much I feel sorry for me..."

The grandfather and grandson were in the prison cell, mourning in their hearts and crying.

Because the Lady is too old, the inmates in the same cell rarely see anyone who is still in the detention center at such an age, so they came to inquire curiously.

Among them was a tall and strong middle-aged woman who had been squatting in this cell for three months. She was the boss of this cell. She walked up to her and asked, "Lady, is your daughter-in-law so bad? Put you in the detention center? What is going on?"

"Yeah, what's the matter? Tell us about it?"

When someone asked questions, other prisoners in the cell also gathered in front of Mrs. Wilson.

They were originally a group of old ladies who love gossip, and their favorite gossip is the short stories of the parents, so they all hurriedly came to the front, pricked their ears, and waited to hear the following.

At this time, Mrs. Wilson had nowhere to vent the evil fire that was holding her stomach.

Hearing so many people coming to inquire, he cried and cried: "I tell you, my life is really bitter! My daughter-in-law is simply not human, she and her shameless trash son-in-law, constantly Framed us, made us a big family in Aurouss Hilll with a big face, step by step bankruptcy, let us owe a debt, even our house was taken away by the court."

The fat woman said coldly: "Why is there such a bad person?"

Lady. Wilson flushed suddenly, and said angrily: "They are so bad, they are so bad!"

"My grandchildren and I were driven out by the court to be homeless, but their family bought a Thompson First villa, worth more than one hundred million!"

"Our family has nowhere to go, but their family of four sleeps in more than a dozen bedrooms, they can't sleep at all!"

"I thought they were my own sons and daughters-in-law. No matter what, they wouldn't see me living on the street? So I went to run to them. Who knows, they not only beat me, scolded me, kicked me, but also called the police. Saying that I broke into the homes and provoked troubles, and let the police arrest us all!"

As soon as the fat woman heard this, she clenched her fists and said angrily: "I, Gena Hill, hate the bastard who disrespects the elderly the most in my life! If it weren't for my brother-in-law, my mother-in-law, my mother could not commit suicide by drinking pesticide! So I was sentenced to ten months in detention because after my mother died, I blasted my brother-in-law!"

Speaking of this, Gena's eyes were already filled with anger and tears. She gritted her teeth and said: "Lady, don't cry. If I have a chance to see your daughter-in-law, I will hammer her to death for you!"

Chapter 821

Gena's words immediately aroused the anger of the people around him, and these people were suddenly filled with righteous indignation!

Although everyone is a prisoner, people in detention centers generally do not commit serious crimes, nor are they extremely vicious people. They instinctively sympathize with the weak.

Hearing Mrs. Wilson's words, and seeing that Mrs. Wilson had gray hair, she couldn't help but believe her words.

As a result, everyone immediately condemned in indignation.

"Even such an old mother abandoned her, this is simply a family of beasts."

"Who would say no? I live in a big villa worth 100 million Dollar, but I refuse to give the Lady even a bedroom. How could there be such a disgusting person."

"Lady, don't worry, such a daughter-in-law will be struck to death by lightning sooner or later!"

The Lady Wilson burst into tears: "Thank you, thank you for your concern and support. I really didn't expect this bad old woman to meet so many good people here!"

Gena sighed and said: "Lady, let's tell you that, when I see you, I think of my mother who died after drinking medicine. It's not easy for an old man! It's even harder to meet an unfilial daughter-in-law!"

Lady Wilson nodded and cried, "Hey, I was detained for fifteen days. I don't know what to do if I go out after fifteen days. I have no place to eat or live. After a few months, maybe I will pay. Will be sued by the court."

Gena hurriedly said: "Lady, then you might as well stay in the detention center. Let's have three meals on time this day, including food and accommodation. Isn't it better than going out and living on the street?"

When Mrs. Wilson heard this, she felt desperate.

Do you really want to fall into the detention center in the future?

Thinking of this, Lady Wilson shouted wildly in her heart: "No! How can I say that he is also the head of the Wilson family. If you are reduced to pensions in prison, then all the hard-earned faces in this life will have to be Lost it all before you die?!"

Must find a chance to stand up!

.....

At this moment, a police car stopped at the door of the detention center. Two police officers walked into the detention center with a woman with disheveled hair.

This woman is Elaine Ma.

Elaine Ma was desolately held by the police, with cold handcuffs on her hands.

Along the way, she had already cried her tears dry and her throat became hoarse. She never dreamed that she stole Charlie Wade's bank card, but turned her face into a prisoner.

According to the police officer, I am now facing indefinite custody and detention. I will not submit a prosecution to the prosecutors until the entire chain of transnational crime has been investigated and other suspects have been arrested.

After the initiation of the public prosecution, the court opens a trial and finally decides how many years it will be based on how old the whole case is.

Elaine Ma asked in a panic, if he was found guilty of this crime, how long would the sentence be probable.

The police officer told her that the attempt to defraud the bank with 21.9 billion was arguably the largest fraud case in decades. Even if it was attempted, its nature was extremely bad, so it was likely to be sentenced to life imprisonment.

If you seize your accomplice and unearth more evidence, you may even be shot.

Elaine Ma was so scared that she was almost incontinent. She hated Charlie Wade to death. She wanted to talk to her daughter Claire Wilson Wilson on the phone immediately, and then asked her to divorce the big liar Charlie Wade immediately.

Chapter 822

However, the police officer said that she was suspected of being involved in a major and important case. Before the case was tried, she could not meet or contact her family members, or even hire a lawyer for the time being.

Elaine Ma was full of hatred in his heart, but there was nowhere to vent. After entering the high wall of the detention center, the police officers immediately took Elaine Ma to go through the detention formalities.

The procedures are complicated. Not only do you need to take pictures and verify your body, you also have to take off all your clothes and hand them to the detention center, and then change into the prison uniforms and uniform daily necessities provided by the detention center.

Elaine Ma changed into prison uniforms, and the two police officers who had sent him over have already left. From now on, everything about her will be under the management of the detention center.

A female prison guard took her into the prison, and as she walked, she introduced to her as usual: "This is a cell with twenty people. She gets up at six in the morning, turns off the lights at ten in the evening, and has three meals a day. They all eat in their own cell."

After that, she glanced at Elaine Ma and said blankly: "However, the meals are all quantitative. You may not be able to eat completely with your physique. If you need any food or daily necessities, you can let your family give it to you. You charge a little money in your name, and then you can buy things in the canteen inside."

"That's great!" Elaine Ma hurriedly asked: "How do I contact my family?!"

At this time, the female prison guard remembered that when the police officer sent Elaine Ma over, she explained her affairs, so she said with a cold face: "I almost forgot, you are a suspect in a major criminal case and cannot contact the outside world for the time being. So if you don't have enough to eat, consider it a diet!"

When Elaine Ma heard this, his heart was suddenly desperate. Suddenly she thought at this moment that the Lady Wilson and Wendy seemed to have been put in the detention center too, would she not run into them?

Thinking of this, she couldn't help feeling a little nervous.

But soon the tension disappeared.

It doesn't matter if you meet Old Lady Wilson and Wendy . Old Lady Wilson is a bad Lady, and if she dares to seduce herself, she can kick her half of her life with one kick!

As for Wendy , although this little girl is young, she is also a little girl with ten fingers that does not touch the sun. Her small physique can't even carry two laps at the mahjong table. She really wants to start with herself. The slap in the face.

At this time, the prison guard pointed to the cell not far in front and said, "Elaine Ma, that is cell 025, you will be here from now on!"

Elaine Ma nodded hurriedly.

At the same time, in cell 025, Mrs. Wilson just calmed down a little bit under the comfort of everyone.

She really didn't expect that these inmates in the cell would sympathize with herself so much. Everyone gathered around you to comfort herself with a word and a word, which really made her feel more comfortable.

Wendy 's mood is much better than when she first entered the detention center.

She felt that the detention center must be the same as in the movie.

There are all kinds of bullies everywhere in the detention center.

Newcomers will be bullied and humiliated all kinds of things when they come in. They can't even eat food, but she didn't expect it to be so warm inside.

At this moment, someone looked at the door and shouted: "Here is a newcomer!"

Outside the iron gate, the female prison guard opened the cell where the Lady Wilson was, pushed Elaine Ma, and pushed Elaine Ma into the cell, saying: "Go in and reflect on it!"

As soon as Elaine Ma was pushed in, the iron door closed again.

She looked a little nervously at the other prisoners in the cell and found that they were all surrounded by a lower bunk. She was still a little surprised, and said to herself, "Why are these old ladies in a circle? What about listening to the story?"

At this time, the Lady Wilson, who was surrounded by the crowd, recognized Elaine Ma at a glance. She trembled in shock immediately, and then shouted with canthus: "Elaine Ma! You shrew, you have today!"

Chapter 823

Elaine Ma was startled by the sudden voice.

Taking a closer look, it turned out that Mrs. Wilson was sitting cross-legged on the bed, pointing at herself and cursing the street.

Lady Wilson did not expect that she would encounter Elaine Ma in the detention center.

Moreover, Elaine Ma was wearing the same prison uniform as her own in the detention center. It seemed that she was arrested for committing a crime!

After Elaine Ma saw Lady Wilson and Wendy, she was also very flustered. She really didn't expect that she was actually placed in the cell where the two of them were.

Just now I was thinking about not splitting up with the two of them, but I didn't expect to be so unlucky.

So she hurriedly shouted at the small window of the iron gate while the prison guard was not far away: "Comrade prison guard, can you change me to a cell? I don't want to live with the two of them."

The prison guard said blankly, "Do you think your house opened the detention center? You can change it if you want? You don't want to live in a cell. Don't commit any crime, why did you go early?"

Elaine Ma hurriedly defended: "I have explained it to you. That thing was completely done by my trash son-in-law. It has nothing to do with me. Go catch him and let me go, please. "

The prison guard ignored Elaine Ma's begging eyes and said, "Don't talk so much nonsense, you don't want to go out for the rest of your life!" After speaking, he turned around and left.

Elaine Ma watched the other side's back go further and further, and his heart gradually sank.

Wendy sneered at this time and said, "Elaine Ma! You just moved into the Thompson First Villa, and you haven't slept for a while. Why did you come to the detention center? According to the prison guards, you are still committing a serious crime!"

Elaine Ma turned her head and looked at the grandparents and grandchildren, and cried out unluckily in her heart, but soon calmed down.

A bad Lady, a yellow-haired girl, what is there to be afraid of?

Thinking of this, Elaine Ma coldly snorted, "What's the matter? Just you two have fallen away and want to see me making a joke? Even if my Lady enters the detention center, she is also a person with a villa outside, how about you? You still have a home outside. Isn't it that I look down on you two, just like you two, you'll have to starve to death on the street when you go out!"

Lady Wilson shouted angrily: "Elaine Ma, do you still know your surname? You are so arrogant in the detention center!"

"Yeah, what's the matter?" Elaine Ma said disdainfully: "I am not arrogant for a day or two, you are not convinced?"

After finishing speaking, Elaine Ma continued to use his poisonous tongue, and said coldly: "After you go out, you are probably going to starve to death if you don't live for three days, but Wendy doesn't have to worry about it. At any rate, it's a dichotomy. , You can support yourself by going to the street."

Wendy suddenly exploded: "Elaine Ma, what are you talking about?!"

Elaine Ma curled his lips and said, "I said you were going to stand on the street, why? Are you still not convinced? What is your own situation? What is the situation of Chairman Wilson and Mr. Weaver, do you want me to remind you?"

Lady Wilson was trembling with anger, she deliberately glanced at Gena, then pointed to Elaine Ma and said: "Elaine Ma! My Wilson family has a daughter-in-law like you, this is a family shame!"

As soon as he finished speaking, Gena on the side exploded.

She stood up quickly, pointed at Elaine Ma and asked the Lady: "Is this your daughter-in-law who is not something?"

Chapter 824

Seeing that the purpose was achieved, Mrs. Wilson burst into tears, slapped her legs, and wailed: "My life is suffering! My family is unfortunate, married to such a daughter-in-law, and she will be scolded by her nose when she is about to die. what!"

Gena couldn't bear it when the Lady cried.

She remembered the tragic appearance of her mother who was sent to the hospital after drinking pesticides. At that time, she hadn't died yet, but the doctor told herself that because of taking a lot of pesticides, her lungs had become irreversibly fibrotic, and even the best doctors could not save her.

At that time, her mother was crying like this in bed, and Gena couldn't help crying every time he thought of that scene.

Now that Elaine Ma has forced the Lady to be like this, and is even more arrogant than her own bastard sister-in-law, the anger in her heart can't stand it!

She immediately strode like Elaine Ma, and said coldly: "You bastard! Didn't your parents teach you to honor your in-laws before you got married?"

Elaine Ma didn't realize that Gena was here to do it with herself, and when she heard that she even taught herself to honor her in-laws, she suddenly said with contempt: "Honor to her in-laws? Are you kidding me? If such a mother-in-law is lying on your head, You are afraid that you would have killed her early."

When Gena heard this, she couldn't think of how disgusting and nasty the Lady Wilson was. She just hated this Elaine Ma crazy! Can't wait to punch her to death!

So she rushed to Elaine Ma, and hit Elaine Ma's nose with a punch. Elaine Ma yelled and was smashed by a punch and sat on the ground. Gena, the big five and three thick, rode directly on her stomach, pulling her hair desperately with one hand, and slapped her with all his strength with the other hand, and cursed, "I'll kill You are not filial to your mother-in-law! I will kill you!"

Elaine Ma yelled when he was beaten, and blurted out, "Who are you, why are you hitting me! I asked you to mess with me?"

Gena cursed her while smoking her, "You shameless dog, you abuse your mother-in-law and everyone is punishable! I am doing the way for heaven today!"

Seeing Elaine Ma being beaten, Mrs. Wilson was so excited that she blurted out: "Quick! Help me over!"

After speaking, she shivered and was about to stand up.

Wendy and another woman hurriedly helped her up and took her to Elaine Ma.

Lady Wilson was full of excitement and viciousness. She came to Elaine Ma and cursed excitedly: "You bastard, bastard, look at me today!"

After speaking, he immediately reached out and left a few blood marks on Elaine Ma's face!

Elaine Ma cried out in pain, and blurted out, "Help! Help the prison guard! Murder!"

The prison guard had already gone far by this time. Gena smashed her hair out a lot, grabbed a hand again, and squeezed it between his fingers.

While squeezing her face, he sneered and said: "Prison guard The patrol is over, and I won't come again within an hour. Look at how I can kill your unfilial dog!"

Wendy was also waiting to vent her anger, so she lifted her foot and kicked Elaine Ma, cursing, "Aren't you great? You live in a villa of of Thompson First, aren't you awesome? You know, then. It was my former fiance's villa! Why did you live in and let me fall into the street! I kicked you to death!"

Elaine Ma has indeed been beaten several times, but she has never been beaten so badly!

Because each has its own hatred and hatred, these three people are simply fighting to death, leaving no affection at all!

And soon other inmates joined in and attacked Elaine Ma!

Elaine Ma was quickly beaten and there was no good place on his body, so she could only wailed in despair, "I beg you to stop beating, I am going to die!"

Gena slapped it in the face: "It's okay if he can talk! You can't die for a while, just keep hitting!"

Chapter 825

When Elaine Ma encountered a blast in the detention center, Charlie Wade received a call from Cameron Isaac.

As soon as Cameron Isaac came up, he said, "Master, Elaine Ma has been put in the detention center, and I have arranged her in a cell with the Lady of the Wilson family and that Wendy according to your wishes."

Charlie Wade asked, "Have you said hello to the prison guard?"

Cameron Isaac said: "I have asked my subordinates to say hello to the person in charge of the detention center. No one will care about what torture Elaine Ma suffers inside."

"Okay." Charlie Wade said coldly: "Let her suffer more in it!"

Cameron Isaac hurriedly asked: "Master, do you want me to arrange a few people to go in and do her directly? If this is the case, she won't be able to provoke you again."

Charlie Wade hesitated for a moment and said, "Don't worry, let me see how things develop."

For Charlie Wade, he hoped that Elaine Ma would disappear in the world of himself and Claire Wilson Wilson from now on.

Moreover, he believes that Jacob Wilson will not only have no opinion on this, on the contrary, he will definitely feel relieved.

However, it is difficult for Claire Wilson Wilson to say.

Based on Charlie Wade's understanding of her, she is a very filial and affectionate woman. If her mother suddenly evaporates from the world, she may not be able to let it go for a lifetime.

Therefore, Charlie Wade was going to observe Claire Wilson Wilson's reaction first.

In order not to let Claire Wilson Wilson see anything, when he went to the supermarket in the afternoon to buy vegetables, he still bought the food for four people, and also bought something Elaine Ma likes to eat.

However, Elaine Ma had no chance to taste it.

Gena took a group of people and hammered Elaine Ma half to death. Seeing that she had been beaten into a pig head, she temporarily let her go, and sternly threatened: "Tell you, don't talk nonsense when the warning comes, or else pay. Hit you! Do you know?"

How dare Elaine Ma say no, nodded hurriedly and said: "I know, I know, I will not talk nonsense..."

In fact, what Elaine Ma thought in her heart was that the prison guards immediately called for help as soon as they arrived, and sent all of you b*tches to the prison guards. Don't think about it one by one! I have heard that if a prisoner in a prison fights, he will be given additional punishment!

When Charlie Wade went home and started cooking, it was time for dinner in the detention center.

After all, all hours in the detention center are very disciplined, eating, going to bed, and getting up early, so they eat early at night. When the prison guards came to the cell where Elaine Ma was located, shortly after Elaine Ma had been beaten, she was curled up in a corner. She had no strength to sit up, and there was no good place to sit up and down. It was so miserable.

The prison guard opened the door of the cell and said lightly: "It's time to eat, you sent to the cell..."

Just after speaking, Elaine Ma, with a blue nose and a swollen face, crawled over to her and cried out: "Prison guards help, guards! They beat people! They want to kill me! You must punish them severely!"

The prison guard frowned and looked at her, remembering the explanation from the leader, so he directly regarded her as nothing, and continued to say to Gena and others: "You sent two people in your cell to get food." Gena was a little worried when he saw Elaine Ma's complaint, and was afraid that he might be detained, but he didn't expect the prison guards to ignore her at all, so he was relieved and quickly commanded the two women around him and said, "You two and the prison guards Go get the food!"

"Good." The two hurriedly got up and came to the prison guard.

The prison guard beckoned and said: "Follow me."

While she was talking, Elaine Ma hugged her leg and cried and said, "Please change me to a cell, otherwise they will kill me!"

Chapter 826

The prison guard took a step back, pulled his leg out, and said to the two people who were going to get the food: "Hurry up and go."

The two hurried to the front and followed the guards out.

Elaine Ma was desperate inside.

As soon as the prison guards closed the iron gate, Gena walked towards Elaine Ma with a dark face, gritted his teeth and said: "Elaine Ma, you are quite kind, dare you to accuse me?!"

Elaine Ma collapsed and said: "I'm sorry, sorry, I was confused for a while, please forgive me this time!"

"Forgive you?" Gena raised his arm and slapped it. Elaine Ma, who drew directly, was dizzy.

Lady Wilson also came over shivering, and she gritted her teeth and stepped directly on Elaine Ma's fingers. She cursed, "Dog stuff! It seems that you still beat less! Wait, I will pay. I have to stay here for fifteen days, and you will feel better for these fifteen days!"

Gena on the side hurriedly said: "Lady, it is hard to be divided into a cell with this unfilial bastard. If I were you, I would definitely reluctant to leave in fifteen days! I can't wait to beat her five or six times every day to relieve the hatred!"

The Lady nodded repeatedly and said, "If I can beat her every day, I can't bear to leave to be honest!"

Elaine Ma collapsed and blurted out: "Mom, just forgive me. If you don't hit me or let this woman hit me in the future, I will arrange a room for you at Thompson First, OK?"

The Lady snorted coldly: "Are you stupid? You don't know how long you want to stay here, how do you arrange for me?!"

Elaine Ma said, "I will write you a letter when you leave. Take it to find Claire Wilson Wilson. Then Claire Wilson Wilson will know what's going on, and she will definitely let you live in!"

The Lady frowned and asked, "Really?"

"Really!" Elaine Ma nodded and cried, "You don't know what the girl is like from Claire Wilson Wilson. She is the most filial. If I say it, she will definitely agree!"

The Lady hesitated suddenly.

To say hate Elaine Ma, it is really hate, the kind of hate to the bones. However, the temptation of Thompson First's A05 villa is also quite big. Moreover, Elaine Ma still doesn't know how long he will be locked in it. When the time comes to live in Thompson First's first-grade villa by himself, wouldn't it be cool if Elaine Ma is in the way?

Thinking of this, the Lady was ready to agree.

So she immediately said: "Elaine Ma, you can write a letter now, and I will spare you when you finish writing, and I won't hit you anymore!"

Elaine Ma was shrewd in her heart and blurted out: "Mom, don't hit me in the future, I must have written it to you the day you let it go!"

The Lady was not confused, and said sharply: "You want to play me? If I'm going to let it go, if you don't write about it, wouldn't I be fooled by you?"

Elaine Ma blurted out: "I can swear to heaven, I will write to you!"

The Lady snorted coldly: "I don't believe your oath!"

At this time, Gena on the side smiled and said, "Lady, isn't it easy? If she writes that everything is fine now, but if she doesn't write, beat her ten times and twenty times a day, I don't think she can write. write!"

Elaine Ma yelled: "You can't do this! It will kill you! You won't have a better life if you kill it!"

Gena grinned and said: "Don't worry, it's really fatal. I will tie your sheets to the beams of the room, and then hang your body! I will say that you committed suicide in fear of sin!"

Chapter 827

With a few words, Gena scared Elaine Ma almost to wet his pants.

She didn't doubt Gena's words at all, because Gena seemed to be too vicious, coupled with the fact that she had beaten her very hard just now, it immediately cast a psychological shadow on her.

Lady Wilson relied on Gena to support herself, so she kicked Elaine Ma and cursed: "Are you writing or not writing?"

Elaine Ma let out a painful cry, and said, "I write...I can't write..."

Gena slapped her again and cursed: "You are a cheap bone. Tell you well that you don't agree. You will be honest if you beat you!"

Elaine Ma was so wronged and hurriedly blurted out: "You didn't tell me well...just do it when you come up..."

Gena gritted his teeth, raised his hand and slapped fiercely, cursing, "Dare to talk back? It's you!"

This slap slapped Elaine Ma's two front teeth that had been loosened.

Elaine Ma only felt that his upper lip suddenly collapsed, and then the bloody smell of his mouth melted away. The two teeth of the upper front teeth had been beaten into the mouth and almost swallowed by herself.

She spit out the teeth in her mouth in a hurry, looked at the two bloody front teeth, crying heartbreakingly: "You kill me! I don't want to live anymore!"

Gena went up and slapped a few more times, cursing: "What are you calling? The whole detention center shows that your voice is loud?"

Elaine Ma was crying desperately while covering her face, but Lady Wilson was trembling with excitement. She grabbed Elaine Ma's hair, shook it vigorously, and cursed: "Why are you crying? Are you not very good? Why are you crying at this time? Why don't you let so many inmates see, what kind of school do you, Aurouss Hilll No. 1 Vixen do?"

Wendy also hurriedly said to everyone at this time: "Everyone, don't be fooled by her acting skills! This person has long been broken to the bone, and he is a wolf-hearted bastard! Very bad to her mother-in-law and lives with Thompson First's villa. She doesn't take in the homeless mother-in-law in her big villa. The key point is that she didn't buy the villa by herself. It was her son-in-law who bluffed and tricked her outside!"

Everyone was stunned, and some people exclaimed: "What does her son-in-law do? How can I deceive a big villa?"

Wendy hurriedly said: "It doesn't matter what you are doing. The key is to change to any normal person. Don't worry about how the son-in-law got the big villa. You have the opportunity to live in and thank the son-in-law? She doesn't. Every day, she frustrated her daughter to divorce her son-in-law. You said, for this kind of grateful vixen, hitting her a few times is not equivalent to doing things for the sky?"

Everyone nodded repeatedly.

Anyway, no matter how you hear it, you think that Elaine Ma is a beast, so no matter how badly he fights, he won't get rid of his hatred.

At this time, Elaine Ma could only sit on the ground and cry with her face in her hands, not daring to say a word.

At this time, Gena threw her a piece of paper and a pen, and shouted coldly: "Write quickly, if you don't write well, I will hit you!"

Elaine Ma could only swallow her anger, picked up the pen tremblingly, and started writing on the paper.

After writing the letter, the Lady Wilson snatched it over and looked at the content. She found that Elaine Ma was indeed in the letter and asked Claire Wilson Wilson to solve the room for her family of four. She immediately became proud of her and said with a smile: "This is good. Now, fifteen days later, you have no chance to enjoy the Thompson First villa. I will go with Christopher, Harold and Wendy will enjoy it for you. Stay here!"

When Elaine Ma thought that she might stay in jail for the rest of her life, she couldn't help but cried miserably.

Gena was so disgusted, he went straight up and kicked her, and said, "Why are you crying? It's so annoying!"

Elaine Ma clutched the place where he was kicked, and asked, "Didn't you say you won't hit me?"

Gena nodded and said coldly: "I said, but I regret it now, can't it?"

When Elaine Ma heard this, she was immediately trembling with Gena's shamelessness, and hurriedly said to Mrs. Wilson: "Mom, you promised me, you won't let her hit me after I write the letter!"

"What did I promise you?" The Lady Wilson looked at her disgustingly, pinched the inside of her arm with a rough old hand, and cursed: "You dog is so arrogant, I really think you can write a note. Are you not being beaten? You may not be able to get out for the rest of your life. I will have the opportunity to beat you in the next fifteen days."

Chapter 828

After finishing speaking, he raised his hand and slapped Elaine Ma again, and said coldly, "From the day Jacob Wilson wanted to marry you, I have seen you not pleasing to your eyes. You have disgusted me for so many years. I must make enough money!"

Elaine Ma is completely broken!

She did not expect that Old Lady Wilson would be so shameless!
If you say anything you have said before, you will change your opinion!
However, I have nothing to do with her now!
Even with this Gena here, he dare not even say a word of dissatisfaction!
Thinking of this, Elaine Ma was extremely sad, and only hoped that this was a nightmare and that he would wake up sooner.
After a while, the two people who went out to pick up the meal came back with two large plastic baskets.
Inside are all aluminum alloy lunch boxes of uniform specifications, tableware, as well as rice and dishes are packed inside, everyone's is exactly the same.
As soon as the two entered the door, someone cheered: "Eat, let's eat!"
With that said, she ran over and took a lunch box, then opened it and ate it happily.
Gena was also hungry, so he planned to let Elaine Ma go temporarily and fill her stomach first.
Lady. Wilson and Wendy were also hungry and hungry, and came over to get a lunch box.
As soon as Wendy opened it, she saw that there were two squares in the lunch box in front of her. One square was for vegetables and the other was for rice.
The point is that this dish, Wendy, looks familiar.
Someone excitedly said: "Oh, eat duck rack and boil cabbage tonight! It's okay!"
Wendy came back to her senses, and wondered why this dish was so familiar.
It turned out to have just eaten at noon.
When she thought of this, she felt a little nauseous. The stomach that was already too hungry seemed to be full at once.
The Lady didn't care, she asked Wendy while eating, "Wendy, why don't you eat?"
Wendy cried and said, "Grandma, what's the difference between this and what you did at noon..."
Lady Wilson said: "It's better than what I cooked, you will know by tasting it."
Wendy sighed and said, "Then I have enough of this flavor."
Gena reminded her: "Little girl, this meal is pretty good. If you don't eat it now, you will have to wait until tomorrow morning at seven o'clock. If you are hungry at night, you can eat without supper."
Wendy hurriedly asked, "Then can I stop eating and eat when I'm hungry?"
Gena said: "It takes half an hour to eat, and after half an hour someone will come to collect the tableware. If you want to count, you can take it away if you don't eat it, unless you pour it in your washbasin and wait until you are hungry to eat with the basin at night."
Wendy was spoiled for so many years, how could she stand this, she couldn't help but retching when she thought of eating in the basin, so she hurriedly bit her scalp and said, "Then I'll take two bites..."

Chapter 829

Elaine Ma, who was beaten and bruised, was already so hungry that her chest was pressed against his back.
At noon, Charlie Wade had just made the meal, but she hadn't eaten a bite, and then was arrested by the police.
After tossing all afternoon to now, coupled with the shock and beating, the physical exhaustion is huge, so I am hungry.

So she cautiously crawled over, took a lunch box from the plastic basket, and was about to go to the corner to eat by herself, Gena suddenly shouted to her: "Elaine Ma, what are you doing?"

Elaine Ma hurriedly said: "Big...Big sister, I want to eat a meal..."

"Eating?" Gena shouted: "You bastard who is not filial to her mother-in-law, even have the face to eat?!"

"I...I..." Elaine Ma suddenly choked up, but suddenly didn't know how to answer Gena's question.

Gena reprimanded dissatisfied at this time: "What am I? Come here for me!"

Elaine Ma could only stagger up to her, nodded and bowed, and said, "Sister, what do you want..."

Gena snatched the lunch box in Elaine Ma's hand and said coldly: "You are not worthy of eating, go away."

As soon as Elaine Ma heard this, she cried and said, "Sister, I ate something in the morning today. I am almost hungry and dizzy by now. You have to pity me and let me have two bites..."

"Eat?" Gena said with a smile: "You are a person who lives in the first class of Thompson First. Isn't the price of this kind of food reduced?"

Elaine Ma cried and said, "Sister, I am really hungry. Please be merciful and let me eat two bites. You can't just watch me starve to death..."

Gena said coldly: "Don't worry, you won't die if you don't eat for two or three days."

Elaine Ma begged: "But I'm really hungry..."

Gena asked disgustedly: "Are you endless? I'm telling you, you'd better leave me aside, and say one more f*cking word, believe it or not and kill you now?"

Elaine Ma looked at Gena's fierce appearance, and her heart trembled, and tears of grievance rolled down immediately.

She was afraid that Gena would beat her again, so she could only hide in the corner by herself, watching Gena eat up her own meal with spoonful by spoonful...

.....

At this moment, Charlie Wade was preparing dinner in Thompson First's large kitchen.

Claire Wilson Wilson and Loreen came back together. As soon as Loreen got home, Loreen hurried to the kitchen, saying: "Oh, I came to live in your house and caused you trouble. Let me help you with more housework!"

After speaking, I got into the kitchen and asked Charlie Wade shyly: "Is there anyone I can help?"

Charlie Wade said, "I can do without your help, you can go out and watch TV with Claire Wilson Wilson."

"But I don't want to watch TV!" Loreen replied shyly: "I just want to help you, or I'm fine."

Charlie Wade didn't know what she was thinking about, and hurriedly said, "It's really not necessary. I'm used to cooking by myself. You can sit out and wait for dinner."

While talking, Claire Wilson Wilson stepped into the kitchen and asked Charlie Wade: "Charlie Wade, have you seen my mother?"

Chapter 830

"No." Charlie Wade pretended to be surprised and asked: "What's the matter? Mom hasn't come back yet?"

"No." Claire Wilson Wilson said: "I thought she was going to a party with friends, but her former friend called me just now and said that my mother hadn't been able to contact me since the afternoon. They kept waiting for her to confirm the meal. Things, but I couldn't find anyone. I asked my dad. Dad said he didn't know where she was, so I wanted to ask you." Charlie Wade said indifferently: "I really don't know where Mom is going. She asked me for money at noon, saying that she was going to have dinner with friends, but I thought, is my father not in charge of the money now, so it was with Dad's consent. Dad refused to let me give it to me. Mom was still a little angry."

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded thoughtfully, and said to himself: "This is a bit weird. I'm not at home, and I didn't go to party with friends. Where would I go..."

Charlie Wade shrugged his shoulders and said, "Maybe you have found a place to play mahjong, right?"

Claire Wilson Wilson said, "That won't mean that the phone is turned off. No one can be contacted anymore. I have never had it before."

"What if the phone runs out of power?" Charlie Wade said: "Don't worry, mom is an adult, so she should be able to take care of herself."

Claire Wilson Wilson sighed: "Although she is an adult, her style of acting is not as good as a child. I am really afraid that she will get into trouble everywhere."

Loreen asked in surprise: "Can't find Auntie?"

"Yes." Claire Wilson Wilson said anxiously: "The phone has been unable to get through. After asking about it, no one has seen her."

At this time, Jacob Wilson poked his head in, and asked in surprise: "Why did you guys go in the kitchen when you came back? I also said that you should come and drink tea with me."

Claire Wilson Wilson asked him, "Dad, did Mom contact you? Why doesn't she go home so late?"

When Jacob Wilson heard her ask Elaine Ma, he snorted coldly, and said angrily: "Who knows, leave her alone, maybe we she is in trouble."

After learning that Elaine Ma had lost all the money at home, Jacob Wilson's dissatisfaction with Elaine Ma could no longer hide.

In the past few days, when he saw Elaine Ma, he remembered that all the money at home had lost a clean thing, so he wanted Elaine Ma to go out crazy, not seeing and not bothering.

Claire Wilson Wilson sighed helplessly, and said, "Dad, I know that mom did something wrong, but mom has already apologized, and she knows that she was wrong, so don't be angry with her anymore. What if you are forced to run away from home?"

"Run away from home?" Jacob Wilson sneered disdainfully, and said: "If she can really run away from home, I will go to the Luohan Temple to burn incense and worship Buddha tonight and thank the Buddha. It is best if she can be like Hannah, directly from this world. The world has evaporated, so I'm really relieved!"

Claire Wilson Wilson felt helpless when she heard this. The relationship between her parents was so bad that she felt a deep sense of powerlessness.

After a moment of silence, she said, "Dad, no matter how big a mistake Mom is, you have been walking for more than 20 years. Can't you forgive each other if you forgive each other?"

Jacob Wilson waved his hand: "Forgive her? If it doesn't exist, I will never forgive her in this life!"

After speaking, Jacob Wilson put his hands behind him and walked out slowly.

Claire Wilson Wilson sighed and hesitated again and again before saying to Charlie Wade: "Charlie Wade, you know a lot of people in Aurouss Hill. Don Albertt seems to have a good relationship with you, can you ask her to check it out? Has anyone seen mom."

Charlie Wade said, "My wife, children sometimes go out to play a little late. Mom only went out for one afternoon. What's more to worry about? She used to play mahjong and sat down at the mahjong table. The circle will never get up, if she really went to play cards at someone, even if she turned over Aurouss Hill, she might not be able to find her!"

Claire Wilson Wilson pursed his lips and thought for a while, and then said, "Well, let's wait. If you don't return by ten o'clock, I will call the police!"

"Report to the police?" Charlie Wade said awkwardly, "Isn't it? People's police are usually very busy, so don't bother them with this kind of thing."

"How do you do that." Claire Wilson Wilson said seriously: "The big aunt has disappeared and has not been found. What if my mother is the same as her! If I can't see my mother at ten o'clock, or contact Mom, just accompany me to the police station!"

Chapter 831

At dinner, Claire Wilson Wilson barely moved her fork.

She repeatedly picked up her mobile phone to call Elaine Ma and send WeChat messages, but everything seemed like a stone sinking into the ocean without any feedback.

Jacob Wilson looked at ease and content, anyway, he felt that Elaine Ma had better run away, just like Hannah. In that case, his life would be truly liberated.

Claire Wilson Wilson repeated anxiously about going to the police station. Jacob Wilson said to the side: "Oh, Claire Wilson Wilson, your mother is an adult. Maybe she has something to do. What do you care about her? What if she is single-minded. If you want to leave this house, you can't let the police catch her back, right?"

"How come?" Claire Wilson Wilson said seriously: "Mom has been looking forward to the Thompson First villa for so long, and now she has finally moved in. She wants to leave this home again, and she will never leave this time because of her character! Dad, you have lived with Mom for so long, don't you still know her?"

Jacob Wilson suddenly fell into thought. The daughter's words woke him up. Who is Elaine Ma? She is a person whose vanity is so strong that she can even explode. And he is also a person who dreams of having fun. When she left home, it was impossible for her to leave home on the day when the whole family moved into Thompson First villa. This was not his style at all.

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but frown, wondering to himself, could it be that Elaine Ma was really surprised?

In fact, although Jacob Wilson dislikes Elaine Ma, he has lived together for so many years after all. If something happened to this person suddenly, his heart is somewhat empty. If he is really staying at home and drinking tea, he always feels a little inappropriate.

So he sighed and said, "Eat first, and I'll go out with you after eating."

Seeing that his father's attitude had eased, Claire Wilson Wilson felt a little more comfortable, and said hurriedly, "Dad, why don't we wait, let's split up, I'll call the police, and you can find the mahjong hall my mother often goes to."

Jacob Wilson said: "Okay, I'll find it."

Charlie Wade said: "My wife, let me go to the police with you."

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly said: "The alarm is simple, one person is enough, you should go everywhere with your dad."

"Okay." Charlie Wade nodded, but he was a little worried about Claire Wilson Wilson, so he said to Loreen: "Loreen, you can stay with Claire Wilson Wilson."

Loreen hurriedly said: "No problem, I will be with Claire Wilson Wilson."

After a few bites of food hastily, the four of them were divided into two vehicles and soldiers to leave Thompson First.

Claire Wilson Wilson drove Loreen to the police station, and Charlie Wade drove Jacob Wilson to the mahjong hall.

However, before getting on the bus, Charlie Wade sent Cameron Isaac a special WeChat message with the content: "My wife is going to call the police. You should say hello to the police station. Don't disclose any news about my mother-in-law."

Cameron Isaac quickly replied: "Young master, don't worry, I have already called them. Young Claire Wilson Wilson will never find any information about Elaine Ma."

"That's good." Charlie Wade relaxed a lot.

Driving the car, Jacob Wilson drove out.

As soon as he left the house, Charlie Wade asked Jacob Wilson: "Dad, where shall we find it?"

Jacob Wilson sighed: "I don't know where she likes to play mahjong. Just drive around and see if there is a mahjong hall. If you see it, go in and look for it."

Charlie Wade smiled secretly in his heart. It seemed that Jacob Wilson was also dealing with errands and acted to show Claire Wilson Wilson.

I searched for a few mahjong halls, but didn't find Elaine Ma's shadow.

Jacob Wilson was not in a hurry. Anyway, his main idea was to come out and behave. By the way, he would feel more at ease. As for Elaine Ma's specific comfort and whereabouts, He didn't care too much.

Chapter 832

After searching for a while and not finding anyone, Jacob Wilson said, "Charlie Wade, should we go back, or find a place to eat some skewers? I was always nervous at first for dinner, which made me not full. "

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Okay, Dad, I know a roadside barbecue stall, which tastes very good."

Jacob Wilson patted his thigh: "Let's go, let's try the roasted waist. By the way, let me drink two more bottles of beer.

Charlie Wade said hurriedly, "I'm driving, Dad, I can't drink."

Jacob Wilson waved his hand: "Hey, I'll just call you a rider. It's not easy for my son and I want to have a drink. Your mother usually cares, chatting and chatting in my ears all day long, and I'm so annoyed. Now she happens to be away, don't my son and I have a drink?"

Charlie Wade shrugged and said with a smile: "Since you have said so, drink it!"

With that said, he drove the car to the side of the barbecue stall.

The two ordered a lot of skewers and a few bottles of beer, and happily sat on the side of the road and skewered them.

Elaine Ma was missing, and Charlie Wade was naturally very happy as the master and initiator behind the scenes.

And because Jacob Wilson was tortured by Elaine Ma for too long, he suddenly felt a lot relaxed, and he was naturally very happy.

As soon as the two of them sat down and were about to start eating, Claire Wilson Wilson called Charlie Wade.

He hurriedly winked at Jacob Wilson, then put on the phone and asked concerned: "Hey Claire Wilson Wilson, have you called the police?"

Claire Wilson Wilson said in a frustrated voice: "We have called the police, but the police mean that mom is an adult, and the missing time is less than ten hours. There is no way to send police to help find them immediately, but they are already there. The missing person is reported in the system, and if someone finds her, it will notify me."

Charlie Wade said, "That's good. In fact, what the police said is right. They have only been missing for a few hours. How can they send a large number of police to search for them? The people's police have more and more important things waiting for them. do."

"Hey..." Claire Wilson Wilson said, "I just don't feel very good. I always feel that things are a bit strange in my instinct. I'm really afraid that something will happen to my mother...Her temperament, just in case If you have a conflict with people outside, you will easily suffer a big loss..."

Charlie Wade said, she is indeed a vixen! Claire Wilson Wilson really knew Elaine Ma's temperament.

Thinking of this, he couldn't help sighing inwardly. Ever since he married Claire Wilson Wilson and entered the Wilson family, he has been lucky over the past three years that Claire Wilson Wilson is an extremely rare good girl.

It is not just how beautiful and attractive she is on the outside, but more importantly, the kindness of her heart is really amazing.

Especially in this kind of family environment, the entire Wilson family, from Elaine Ma to the Lady, to Christopher's family, did not have a good person.

Jacob Wilson is barely good, but he is also cowardly and timid.

In such a family, Claire Wilson Wilson was able to possess gold-like qualities, which Charlie Wade had always appreciated very much.

He also began to ponder about Elaine Ma.

If Elaine Ma was kept for a lifetime, then there was no doubt that Claire Wilson Wilson would not be able to let go.

In other words, for the sake of his wife, sooner or later, he had to release his brain-dead mother-in-law.

It's not impossible to let it out, but the key is to let her suffer enough first.

Moreover, he still has hidden dangers that have not been resolved.

For example, when Elaine Ma comes out, she will definitely ask herself the first time, asking herself why she has such a bank card.

She would definitely consider herself a member of a scam gang.

In this case, she would definitely tell Claire Wilson Wilson about this.

So, in any case, you have to think of a good way to make Elaine Ma obediently close her broken mouth!

Chapter 833

Charlie Wade was considering the problem, Claire Wilson Wilson asked impatiently: "How are you and dad? Do you have any clues?"

"Uh..." Charlie Wade looked at the pile of skewers and beer in front of him, and said against his will: "We are still looking for the mahjong hall, and we have no clues for the time being."

Claire Wilson Wilson sighed and said, "Then you continue to look for it, and Loreen and I will continue to look for it."

"Yeah." Charlie Wade said hurriedly: "Don't worry, dad and I will work hard to find!"

"Okay." Claire Wilson Wilson said: "Then I'll hang up first and communicate if there is anything in time."

"no problem!"

Charlie Wade hung up the phone, and Jacob Wilson was already appetizing. He drank a glass of beer, poured another glass for Charlie Wade, and said while eating the skewers: "Good son-in-law, no one is going to bother us today. Let's have a good drink, come, let's go first."

Charlie Wade was funny in his heart. Elaine Ma was not there, and the old man was relieved. He nodded and said, "You should drink less. Drinking too much is not good for your health."

Jacob Wilson laughed and said: "People are refreshed at happy events. I am looking forward to your mother being admitted by the MLM organization. Anyway, if you go in and suffer a bit, you can't die. She's been stuck for three or five years. Yes, let us have a birthday in a few years." Charlie Wade nodded and sighed: "I think it's good too, but I'm afraid she won't accept it at first."

Jacob Wilson sighed, "That's right. At first, this child is filial, too filial, the key is silly filial piety! Is it your mother's kind of person, is she worthy of such filial piety? You have no blood relationship with her, you yourself Say, if your mother is like this, are you still filial to her?"

Charlie Wade was a bit embarrassed and a bit melancholy and said: "If my mother is still alive, even if her temperament is worse than his mother-in-law, I will be a hundred willing."

"That's true." Jacob Wilson said embarrassedly: "I'm sorry, dad shouldn't mention this, just use me as an analogy. You see, Claire Wilson Wilson's grandmother, and her mother's temperament are basically the same. To be honest, they are two shrews, one older and the other younger."

Having said that, Jacob Wilson drank a glass of wine and said seriously: "So you see that I am not filial and filial. My mother can't do things. I won't let her live in my house when she is on the street. Why? you can't say that because it was your mother, you protected her when she killed, right?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "You are right."

Jacob Wilson sighed and said, "Actually, your life is much better than mine. If you marry a good child like Claire Wilson Wilson, even if you are not successful anymore, she will not divorce you. If you are like me, marry a b*tch, then Your days are terrible."

Seeing Jacob Wilson's melancholy look, Charlie Wade couldn't help but feel a bit of sympathy. This old man's life was really not easy. He had a sweet first love, and he had a good relationship with his first girlfriend, but Elaine Ma gave it to him. how miserable it is.

At this time, Charlie Wade deliberately asked: "Dad, tell me the story of your first lover? Last time your classmates reunion, I listened to a few uncles chatting, and it seemed to be quite legendary."

"What's the legend!" Jacob Wilson lamented, and said, "I and Matilda were getting married before graduation. It was difficult to go abroad at the time, but her family has something to do. We can send us to the United States for further studies. I planned to have a happy event after graduation, and then go to the United States for graduate studies together..."

Speaking of this, Jacob Wilson said angrily: "Who would have thought that when I graduated and everyone was partying, I would have a f*cking drink! When I wake up, your mother-in-law and I have already..."

"Hey..." Jacob Wilson covered his face and said, "Elaine Ma, this woman is also very scheming. She told Matilda about this at the time. She was so angry with Matilda. Similarly, a b*tch like Elaine Ma likes to be noisy. Matilda directly wrote me a parting letter, then packed up and went to the United States by herself. I have never seen her since."

Charlie Wade asked curiously: "You didn't explain to her then?"

Chapter 834

"How to explain?" Jacob Wilson said: "No matter how you explain it, Elaine Ma and I have actually happened. Matilda has a cleanliness, life is clean, and emotions are also clean. She also knows that I was drunk and designed by Elaine Ma. , But she felt that she could no longer accept me like that, so she broke up with me without hesitation and went to the United States."

Charlie Wade deliberately asked him: "Then do you still think of her in your heart?"

Jacob Wilson also opened the chatterbox, and said with emotion: "I think, how can I not, she is the first woman in my life, and the only woman I have ever loved, otherwise I would not change the phone password to her birthday."

Charlie Wade nodded with understanding, and then asked: "Then have you inquired about her current situation?"

"I've inquired about." Jacob Wilson said: "But I can't find out anything. In the past few years, I only heard that she married an American and gave birth to a son. It is said that the family conditions are very good, but there is nothing more detailed. People know, after all, our old classmates didn't have much contact with her, and we immediately broke contact with our classmates."

Charlie Wade nodded lightly, and thought to himself, if Matilda knew that Jacob Wilson had become like this now, I guess he wouldn't feel the same way back then.

Jacob Wilson saw that Charlie Wade had not drunk at this time, and said with some dissatisfaction: "Good son-in-law, why don't you drink two glasses? Just let me drink it alone!"

Charlie Wade smiled and picked up the wine, and said, "Go, go, have a drink with you."

Just after speaking, Jacob Wilson's cell phone rang suddenly.

The phone showed an unfamiliar number, and he couldn't help frowning: "That's it, who will call me."

After speaking, he subconsciously pressed to answer.

A woman's gentle voice came from the other end of the phone, and she asked tentatively, "Excuse me, is this Jacob Wilson?"

Jacob Wilson was taken aback and asked nervously, "You...you are..."

The other party smiled slightly and said with a smile: "I'm Matilda."

Jacob Wilson was struck by lightning!

He was stunned for a while, and then asked excitedly: "Matilda? It's really you?!"

"It's me." The other party smiled and said, "Is my voice getting old, so you can't recognize it anymore? But I heard your voice didn't change much."

Jacob Wilson said in a panic: "I...you...we haven't been in contact for so many years, why would you suddenly call me? I...I just talked to my son-in-law. Talking about you..."

"Really?" The other party couldn't help asking: "Why would you talk to your son-in-law about me? Could it be that you told him the old stories?"

"No, it's not." Jacob Wilson obviously has completely messed up and said hurriedly: "I'm drinking with my son-in-law, I was a little bit overwhelmed, and I was emotional."

After that, Jacob Wilson asked, "Matilda did you think of contacting me?" Matilda smiled slightly: "My son and I are going to return to Aurouss Hilll to settle, so I will contact you and other old classmates. When I return to Aurouss Hilll, I want to treat you to dinner. After all, everyone hasn't See you..."

Chapter 835

Jacob Wilson never dreamed that he would receive another call from Matilda in his life.

What was even more unexpected was that Matilda was going to return home! She went directly to the United States after graduating from university, and then she stayed there. Since then, no one has seen her again. It has been more than 20 years since then.

However, even if he didn't meet again after more than 20 years, Jacob Wilson's heart was still stirred by her voice.

So he hurriedly asked: "Matilda, you...are you really coming back? When will you be back?!"

Matilda smiled and said, "I will be on the plane right away, and I will arrive at Aurouss Hilll at around 11 o'clock tomorrow. If nothing happens, let's have a dinner together with our classmates the day after tomorrow!"

Jacob Wilson was extremely excited. He said with excitement and unbearable excitement: "Oh, you will be in Aurouss Hilll tomorrow...tomorrow?! Then...where do you live?"

Matilda said: "My son has booked a hotel in Shangri-La. In the next few days, we may live in Shangri-La for a period of time, and then see if there is a suitable house in Aurouss Hilll. If so, we will buy one."

Jacob Wilson asked tentatively: "Then...then your husband also come back with you?"

"No." Matilda said in a frustrated voice: "My husband passed away, so I decided to go back to China with my son and not stay in the United States."

Jacob Wilson's heart suddenly blossomed!

So he hurriedly blurted out: "Then...Would you like to have a meal together after landing? I'll pick you up! I'll pick you up!"

Matilda hesitated for a moment and said, "Oh, if Elaine Ma knew, she wouldn't let you eat with me alone, right?"

When Jacob Wilson heard this, he almost didn't laugh.

Elaine Ma? She is missing! Hahaha! She just disappeared, and Matilda is coming back, this... isn't this just God opening his eyes?

Jacob Wilson got up from the chair of the barbecue booth excitedly, and walked back and forth: "Don't worry about Elaine Ma, Elaine Ma and I are also in a broken relationship now, we are separated, and she doesn't care about my business."

Matilda asked in surprise: "Why are you two still separated?"

"Oh..." Jacob Wilson sighed, "This is a long story because the child has no mother."

After speaking, he hurriedly said: "Matilda, I will pick you up at the airport at noon tomorrow, don't you live in Shangri-La? Then let's have a meal in Shangri-La!"

Matilda thought for a while, and said, "Um...I still have my son, isn't it inappropriate?"

"It doesn't matter!" Jacob Wilson hurriedly said, "I can take my son-in-law. My son-in-law should be about the same age as your son. Let the young people talk more. Let's talk about us."

"Well then." Matilda said with a smile: "Then we will see you at the airport tomorrow. I haven't seen you in more than 20 years. Don't forget to write a sign, otherwise I'm afraid we won't recognize each other!"

Jacob Wilson said excitedly: "Good, good! I will write a sign tomorrow."

Matilda said: "Jacob Wilson, then I won't talk to you, I will board the plane right away, fly for more than twelve hours, and arrive at Aurouss Hilll at 10 noon tomorrow."

"Good!" Jacob Wilson said with a smirk, "See you at the airport tomorrow!"

After hanging up the phone, Jacob Wilson was jumping around in excitement, like a fifteen or sixteen-year-old boy.

Charlie Wade looked funny for a while, and couldn't help asking, "Dad, is your first love coming back?"

Chapter 836

"Yes!" Jacob Wilson said excitedly: "The key is that her husband is dead, haha! Isn't this God helping me too?!"

Charlie Wade nodded, but then said: "Dad, but Mom is not dead..."

Jacob Wilson's expression suddenly cooled down again, and he said awkwardly, "Don't get me wrong, I didn't curse her to death."

With that, Jacob Wilson sighed and said, "You said that if she was like Hannah, she would have eloped with someone, it would be great..."

Charlie Wade shook his head helplessly, Jacob Wilson's heart, fearing that it had all gone to Matilda, who was about to return home. The feelings that had been faintly for Elaine Ma had already disappeared.

Therefore, Charlie Wade couldn't help sighing: "If Claire Wilson Wilson can accept that my mother-in-laws disappearance is an elopement with someone else, that would be great."

If Claire Wilson Wilson treats Elaine Ma as well as Jacob Wilson, then he will let Elaine Ma disappear from the world in minutes.

For people like Elaine Ma, it would be cheaper for her to watch everything, eat, drink, and live. It's better to send her to the black coal mine to dig for coal and go with Hannah.

Hannah's gang probably hated Elaine Ma. If Elaine Ma were also sent there, it wouldn't be justified not to suffer dozens of beatings a day.

It is a pity that Claire Wilson Wilson is too kind, kind enough to be too tolerant of Elaine Ma.

Jacob Wilson was in a very good mood. He ate and drank all by himself. He was so happy. He kept pulling Charlie Wade to accompany him to drink, but Charlie Wade always picked up the wine glass and poured the wine while he was not paying attention. After all, it was tonight. The first day he went to bed, he still hoped that he could complete the marriage with Claire Wilson Wilson. Wouldn't it be too disappointing to drink alcohol? Jacob Wilson ate and drank enough. It was already more than ten o'clock in the night. Claire Wilson Wilson called Charlie Wade to ask about the situation. Charlie Wade had to say: "We haven't found it. I guess my mother didn't come out to play mahjong. Where are you? "

Claire Wilson Wilson said in an anxious voice: "I also found some of my mother's former friends, but I haven't found any clues."

Charlie Wade said: "Why don't you just stop looking around like the headless chicken tonight? Let's go home and wait. Since the police have reported missing, I believe they will help pay attention. What do you think??"

"Hey..." Claire Wilson Wilson sighed and said, "That can only be the case. Loreen and I are going back now, and you and Dad will go back too."

"Okay." Charlie Wade answered, then hung up the phone and said to Jacob Wilson, "Dad, let's go."

Jacob Wilson patted his thigh and said with a smile, "Go! Go home and take a bath and sleep. You will accompany me to the airport tomorrow morning."

Charlie Wade asked in surprise, "I want to go?"

"Of course." Jacob Wilson said: "Matilda is still taking her son. We are reminiscing about the past. Isn't her son just an electric light bulb? Then you will talk to him more, nonsense, and create something private for me and Matilda. Chance to chat."

"Okay." Charlie Wade nodded and agreed, "Then I will go with you tomorrow."

"Oh, right." Jacob Wilson said embarrassedly: "Good son-in-law, your father and I have no money, and I will pay you the money left over from buying furniture. Or tomorrow Shangri-La, will you help dad arrange a table?"

"Okay, I'll arrange it." Charlie Wade didn't have any selfish intentions to the old husband, after all, he was pretty good to him.

So Charlie Wade sent Cameron Isaac a WeChat message, asking him to save himself a better box in Shangri-La tomorrow.

However, he also pointed out that you must not be the best gear, otherwise it is difficult to explain, and it is almost the same if it is above the middle.

Cameron Isaac immediately ordered the lobby manager of Shangri-La to arrange the boxes in advance.

At this moment, in the detention center.

Because the lights had already been turned off, Elaine Ma could only lie on her wooden bed hungry, enduring the pain all over her body.

As soon as I lay down, my stomach groaned.

Gena, who was not far away from her, immediately cursed: "Elaine Ma, if you groan me in your stomach, you can roll me out of the toilet and go to sleep!"

Chapter 837

I haven't eaten a bite for more than twelve hours, and I have been violently beaten. I have already hungry on my chest and back. Even if I can resist eating or drinking, I can't help my stomach cry!

However, she did not dare to offend Gena.

After all, this stinky lady beat up people too hard.

I was thinking about going to sleep with my head covered quickly. Who would have thought that at this time, my unbelievable stomach groaned again.

Gena stood up immediately, rushed to Elaine Ma in three or two steps, and greeted her face with a slap in the face. Elaine Ma's red and swollen face was blown up with a slap, and it was more like an explosion.

Elaine Ma could only plead, "I'm sorry, sorry, I didn't mean it..."

Due to the loss of two front teeth, Elaine Ma is now seriously leaking, so her speech is very unclear, and it is more difficult to listen to her. Gena slapped it again and cursed: "Damn, your tongue was cut off? You can't speak clearly? Tell me loudly and clearly!"

Elaine Ma hurriedly said loudly: "I didn't mean it! I'm sorry!"

When the voice went down, the two front teeth were vacant, and a ball of saliva was directly sprayed on Gena's face impartially.

Gena stretched out his hand and touched it, angrily grabbed Elaine Ma by the hair, dragged her off the bed directly, and dragged her hair into the toilet.

Elaine Ma struggled and yelled all the way, but no one sympathized with her at all, on the contrary, everyone still watched with relish.

Lady Wilson staggered to the door of the toilet, watching Gena press Elaine Ma on the damp floor and bow left and right, and said with a smile: "Gena, let her sleep in the toilet at night!"

Gena nodded, then slapped Elaine Ma, and said angrily: "If you dare to go out of the toilet tonight, I will f*cking kill you!"

Elaine Ma's face was even more swollen, and the painful whole person almost collapsed. She could only nod her head and whimper vaguely: "I sleep in the toilet! I sleep in the toilet! Please stop hitting me, just don't hit me again. Dead, please!"

Gena snorted coldly and said, "Is this dying? Tell you, your good days are long, let me wait!"

After finishing speaking, he stood up and kicked Elaine Ma again before turning to leave.

Lady Wilson did not leave, but leaned on the door frame of the toilet, looking at Elaine Ma, who was crying on the ground, and sneered: "Elaine Ma, people are watching, you are an unfilial dog. Let me live in Thompson First, you can enjoy it by yourself? Take a look! You have not slept in Thompson First for one night, and you have fallen to the present end. What is it, do you know? It proves that you did not live at all Enter the life of Thompson First!"

Elaine Ma cried and said, "Mom, all the previous mistakes were my fault, but you have beaten and scolded and scolded. I beg you to tell Gena, don't beat me. I'm wrong!"

"Knowing what's wrong?" Mrs. Wilson coldly snorted, "Do you think I don't know what you are? If it is strong, it will be soft, and if it is soft, it will be strong. If it weren't for Gena and other inmates to support me here, you would just fight me, if someone like you really knows what's wrong, the sun can come out from the west!"

Lady Wilson and Elaine Ma are actually the same kind of people, and they know each other's routines very well.

The Lady knew very well in her heart that neither Elaine Ma nor herself could really succumb to one person, the only possibility was forced by the situation.

Elaine Ma is kneeling on her own now. If she is given a chance to come back, she will worsen her situation.

Chapter 838

Why not change to be yourself?

Therefore, she did not intend to have any kindness to Elaine Ma.

Moreover, when she remembered the humiliation she had suffered at Thompson First, she felt resentful in her heart, and said coldly, "This is the result of your own self-expression. Enjoy your own bitter bar!"

This is only the first day. There are fourteen days left when we get together!"

After speaking, Mrs. Wilson coldly snorted and turned to go out of the toilet.

Elaine Ma sat on the floor of the toilet alone, hungry and cold. She was desperate and wanted to cry, but when she thought of the fierce Gena, she immediately covered her mouth.

In the end, I couldn't help it, so I hugged my legs and buried my face between the legs and started crying.

Elaine Ma has never experienced such a tragic experience in her life, and she suffered more sins in one day than she has suffered in the past decades combined.

She panicked when she thought of living in this cell for 14 days with Mrs. Wilson.

Especially when she thought that she would have to wait indefinitely in the detention center, she became even more desperate, and her tears were almost dry.

.....

When Elaine Ma was crying in the toilet of the detention center, Charlie Wade and the old husband just drove back to the big villa of Thompson First.

Jacob Wilson was humming and singing tunes with excitement along the way, and the joy on his face was beyond words!

Claire Wilson Wilson and Loreen had already returned before them.

Charlie Wade and Jacob Wilson stepped into the door and saw Claire Wilson Wilson rushing around in the living room.

Seeing them coming in, Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly asked, "Dad, Charlie Wade, how many mahjong halls have you been to?"

Jacob Wilson said with a guilty conscience: "I don't know anymore. Anyway, there are many. We went all the way and looked for them. When we saw the mahjong hall and the chess room, we went in and asked."

Claire Wilson Wilson asked, "Is there no result?"

"No..." Jacob Wilson waved his hand and said, "Oh, Claire Wilson Wilson, your mother is such a big person, nothing will happen, at most it is cheated by the MLM organization. Worry..."

"How can I not worry..." Claire Wilson Wilson said with red eyes, "What if she encounters an accident? Now that there is no news from people, all bad things may happen, and the more it's more dangerous if you drag on. Looking at so many disappearances reported on the Internet, how many people find them and everyone is happy? Most of the results are bad guys, accidents, and the worst. what!"

Jacob Wilson said embarrassingly: "How can it be as dangerous as you think, don't you see if your mother is worthy of the bad guys' mind? Is she rich? She has already lost all the money at home. Isn't it pretty? Other robbers struggled to rob her once, risking being shot in jail, and robbing her like that would be a shame?"

"Dad!" Claire Wilson Wilson said angrily, "Dad, how can you say that?!"

At this time, Jacob Wilson was thinking about Matilda all over his head. In addition, he drank some wine and was a little unrestrained. He didn't care about Elaine Ma, so he said indifferently: "Oh, it's a bit ugly, but Every sentence is the truth, one is impossible to rob money, and the other is impossible to rob sex, what danger can she have?"

"Besides, you don't know your mother's temper? Who dares to provoke her? She yelled out of the window in the community before us. The dogs in the whole community dare not bark. Are you afraid of her having trouble?" Claire Wilson Wilson was speechless by Jacob Wilson's words, and then his nose shrugged slightly, and asked angrily, "Dad! Did you go drinking just now?!"

Chapter 839

Originally, Claire Wilson Wilson hadn't seen Jacob Wilson drinking. But after she got closer, she suddenly smelled the smell of alcohol on his body, and suddenly became very angry!

My father usually likes to drink some wine, she has absolutely no opinion, but the point is, he clearly said that she was going to the mahjong hall to find her mother. Why did he come back after drinking? ! This...this proves that he didn't go to his mother at all, but...to drink! When Jacob Wilson heard Claire Wilson Wilson asking himself about drinking, he hurriedly covered his mouth, stepped back, and explained in a panic: "Don't talk nonsense, I didn't drink!"

"You're just talking nonsense!" Claire Wilson Wilson stomped angrily: "I can smell the smell of alcohol on you! I didn't have it when I went out, I have it now! It must have been drinking in the middle!"

As she said, she fixed her eyes on Jacob Wilson's collar, and found that there were a few oil spots, and her angry eyes were red: "Mom has disappeared and no one can be found. Not only will you not look for her, but you will also eat and drink. , How happy you are!"

Jacob Wilson said embarrassingly: "Oh, me...Oh, I...I really don't..."

Claire Wilson Wilson angrily said, "Dad, do you think I can believe it?"

Jacob Wilson knew there was no sophistry, so he could only look at Charlie Wade and said, "Charlie Wade called me to go."

After finishing speaking, he hurriedly winked at Charlie Wade, which meant a good son-in-law, please help me carry this pot first.

Charlie Wade is also very human, and without hesitation, he nodded and said: "Yes, that's right, Dad is right, I really called him to drink."

In fact, Charlie Wade knew very well, anyway, he didn't drink any alcohol, Jacob Wilson drank dizzy, the more he said it was his own idea at this time, the less Claire Wilson Wilson would believe it.

re enough, Claire Wilson Wilson stomped his foot and said angrily: "Dad, at this time you are still throwing the pot to Charlie Wade! Can't you be a little manly?"

Jacob Wilson said with a gloomy expression: "I'm telling the truth. If you don't believe me, I can't help it."

After finishing speaking, he quickly said: "Oh, I'm really old, and I feel sleepy and uncomfortable after ten o'clock. I will go back to my room and rest first."

Claire Wilson Wilson wanted to stop him, but he ran away without looking back.

In desperation, Claire Wilson Wilson looked at Charlie Wade again, and said: "You too, I called you to ask you, and you said you were looking for a mahjong hall, but actually took my dad to eat and drink!"

Charlie Wade coughed and said, "The main dad said he was hungry and uncomfortable. I can't drag the old man hungry and run with me all over the street. In case of hypoglycemia and fainting, he might be vulnerable to danger."

"Then you can't lie to me! Tell me the truth, can you tell me that you two are eating?"

Charlie Wade didn't know how to answer at once, and felt that this matter was indeed not handled properly. The key is that Jacob Wilson could not be seen by Claire Wilson Wilson. If he knew this was the case, I really didn't go to the barbecue.

So he could only apologize sincerely: "I'm sorry, my wife, I owe this matter to me. Dad said at the time that I didn't tell you, so I couldn't tell you on the phone."

Charlie Wade was not guilty at all when he said this.

Anyway, the pot is tossed back and forth. Since the old husband is not here, it is natural to throw the pot to him.

Claire Wilson Wilson also believed Charlie Wade's words, thinking that it must be Dad's idea, and Charlie Wade was forced to be by his side and couldn't tell the truth to himself.

Although her anger had subsided a bit, she still felt very wronged in her heart, so she sighed weakly, and said with some emotional breakdown:

"Charlie Wade, my mother is missing now, my dad doesn't care, neither will you, how would you let me find her by myself...If something happens to her, how will you let me live the rest of my life? I might not forgive myself until I die!"

Charlie Wade hurriedly comforted and said, "Don't think too much about it, mom will definitely not have an accident."

Chapter 840

Claire Wilson Wilson couldn't hear it at all, and waved his hand: "Forget it, I don't want to talk about this problem anymore, I will go back to the room and calm down."

After speaking, he stepped up the stairs.

Seeing her disappearing at the corner of the stairs, Charlie Wade couldn't help sighing.

It seems that Elaine Ma is really hard for her to deal with.

Can't kill, nor let her evaporate from the world, after she has suffered enough, she still has to let her come back.

However, it is also very troublesome to let her come back. How can we make her shut up and not talk nonsense?

Psychological hints?

Not reliable!

Because the side effect of psychological cues is that once this person starts to do things according to his own cues, his own consciousness will be lost.

Just like Kian, he implied that he had to add a meal every hour. When he added a meal, he was following his own psychological cues. At that time, he had completely forgotten himself and just wanted to eat. The more you eat, the better.

However, once he was full and the psychological suggestion ended, he would regain his own consciousness. At that time, he was still him and Kian.

So this is very embarrassing. If you give Elaine Ma a psychological hint that you can't talk nonsense, then this hint must always work.

In that case, Elaine Ma is no longer Elaine Ma, she may be a lunatic, or a lunatic with no self-consciousness at all.

So I have to make Elaine Ma willingly shut up, not mentioning anything about his bank card, this technical difficulty is really big enough.

After Claire Wilson Wilson left, in the huge living room, only Charlie Wade and Loreen who had not spoken were left.

Loreen has been waiting for an opportunity to be alone with Charlie Wade, and finally waited, so she hurriedly said to him: "Charlie Wade, don't be angry with her, she didn't intend to be angry with you, but the aunt was missing. Now, she is really anxious..."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "I know, I won't be angry with her, she is my wife after all."

Hearing this, Loreen's eyes flashed with envy.

She didn't understand that Claire Wilson Wilson and Charlie Wade were just married in a fake marriage. Why did Charlie Wade feel so passionate about her? Doesn't he know that this is just a scene?

Thinking of this, she couldn't help but feel a little lost.

Regarding appearance, she asked herself if she was not much worse than Claire Wilson Wilson.

In terms of net worth, she is also a child of the Thomas family of Eastcliff, much better than Claire Wilson Wilson.

Moreover, I have expressed my heart to him a long time ago. I really love him and I sincerely hope to be with him. But why does he guard the woman who doesn't love him like this?

Thinking of this, she couldn't help but ask Charlie Wade with a grimace: "Charlie Wade, you should know what I want for you, but do you really have no feeling for me?"

Charlie Wade couldn't help being a little big head when she heard what she said, and said: "Loreen, you are Claire Wilson Wilson's best friend, and Claire Wilson Wilson is my wife again, so I'm naturally the same as Claire Wilson Wilson. As a good friend, there are many good men in this world. You don't need to put your mind on me. I'm already married."

Loreen's eyes were red, and tears came out. She stubbornly wiped away the tears and said: "You are not married at all, but a scene. This scene has been acting for more than three years. It's going to be over! What will you do then? Are you standing alone on the stage and continue to perform?"

Charlie Wade looked at her, smiled slightly, and reached out to wipe away the tears for her, but his expression was very firm and said: "Believe me, this scene will never end!"

Chapter 841

Loreen felt the gentleness when Charlie Wade wiped away tears for herself, and at the same time, she listened to his firm emotional confession to Claire Wilson Wilson, and her heart was extremely painful.

She said with a hoarse voice: "Charlie Wade, if Claire Wilson Wilson really loves you, I will never do anything to disturb you, but you know that she was with you because of her promise to her grandfather, you think so Your feelings, do you insist on making sense by yourself? Why not let your own life and the beginning of your life be the same?"

After that, she couldn't help sobbing and asked him, "Which one is I inferior to Claire Wilson Wilson? Tell me, I will try to catch up with her, don't refuse so fast, give me a chance?"

Charlie Wade stood up and shook his head: "Loreen, sometimes you don't understand the mind of a man. You are kind to me at first, just like you think I am kind to you. Just because of this, Enough for me to stay with her. As for whether she loves me or not, I am not in a hurry to figure it out. I still have a long time to understand, explore and even change bit by bit. Just like you did to me, even if I repeatedly tell you that I am married and have no interest in women other than Claire Wilson Wilson, don't you still continue to confess to me?"

Loreen understood at once. In fact, Charlie Wade treats Claire Wilson Wilson just like she treats Charlie Wade. With that said, she immediately realized. However, after the realization, she was also uncomfortable.

Just as Charlie Wade was unwilling to give up Claire Wilson Wilson anyway, Loreen was also unwilling to give up Charlie Wade anyway.

So she wiped her eyes, looked at Charlie Wade, and said stubbornly: "You don't want to give up Claire Wilson Wilson, and I am also unwilling to give up on you. Since you can wait for Claire Wilson Wilson, then I can wait for you too! No matter how long you wait. It doesn't matter, I will wait forever!"

Charlie Wade sighed: "Well, since you have decided, I will respect your decision."

After all, Charlie Wade checked the time and said, "It's getting late, go back to the room and rest."

Loreen nodded lightly and said: "You go back first, I want to sit down for a while."

Charlie Wade gave a hum and stepped upstairs.

After Charlie Wade left, Loreen sat on the sofa with mixed feelings.

There were grievances, unwillingness, sadness, and obsession, all kinds of emotions popped up in her mind, making her entangled.

Loreen felt that Charlie Wade might be the only man she would fall in love with wholeheartedly in her life. If she didn't get together with him, then she would never meet a man who made her feel so excited.

She couldn't help feeling sad when she thought that she might never get the man she loved the most.

Is it because he is destined to miss Charlie Wade in this life? No, she doesn't believe it!

She believes that God will not arbitrarily arrange a silent ending if he sends Charlie Wade to her side twice to let him save herself from danger. He will definitely arrange a perfect ending for himself, as long as he can stick to it with a sincere heart.

Persevere, then persist until victory!

.....

When Charlie Wade gently opened the door of the room, Claire Wilson Wilson was standing alone on the balcony on the second floor.

Her perfect figure looked hazy and enchanting in the moonlight, which made Charlie Wade's heart beat.

It is true that Claire Wilson Wilson is a good and filial girl, but it is her good energy that makes her insist on not divorcing.

She is foolish and filial to Elaine Ma, but foolish and loyal to herself. That year, soon after the two got married, Mr. Wilson passed away.

At that time, the entire Wilson family was persuading Claire Wilson Wilson to divorce him.

After all, the reason why Claire Wilson Wilson married him at the beginning was because of the father's fate, and everyone else opposed it.

Therefore, those people all hope that she can divorce him and marry the rich young master of a big family to change the fate of the entire Wilson family.

However, she feels that marrying herself means marrying a chicken and a dog, marrying a dog and a dog. As long as she does not divorce her, she will never divorce herself. This is her loyalty to her marriage and her husband in law. Loyalty.

Chapter 842

If Claire Wilson hadn't relied on this stubborn "stupidity", she would have listened to persuasion and had enough.

In that way, what kind of destiny would you be? Charlie Wade didn't dare to think. Before marrying Claire Wilson, his life was very difficult.

Because the orphanage does not accept adults, on his eighteenth birthday, Mrs. Lewis bought a birthday cake with her frugal money, celebrated his birthday, and sent him out of the orphanage with tears.

At that moment, Charlie Wade once again became lonely and helpless in this world.

Mrs. Lewis wanted to help him, she wanted to introduce him to work and provide him with living allowances, but he had no face to ask.

He found a construction site alone, and moved bricks, sand, and cement with others at the age of 18.

He is not willing to rent a house, so he has been living in the prefabricated house on the construction site, eating the cheapest meals, and doing the most tiring, heaviest and dirtiest work.

He only kept a small part of the money he earned to live, and the rest was donated to the orphanage.

Because the orphanage still has many brothers and sisters who are just as helpless and lonely as themselves. They are still young and need more care and love.

However, after all, the orphanage has limited funds and can ensure that they are fed and clothed, but it cannot guarantee that they eat well and wear well.

Therefore, he spared no effort to donate the money he saved to his younger brothers and sisters to improve their lives, and even buy them textbooks for them to study hard.

In the fourth year of working on the construction site, his construction team was employed by the Wilson family and began to work on a project for the Wilson family.

At that time, Grandpa Wilson, who came to inspect the construction site, could tell at a glance that Charlie Wade and his grandfather looked almost exactly the same when they were young.

And the reason Grandpa Wilson knew Charlie Wade's grandfather was because the Wilson family was the Wade family's servant a hundred years ago!

From his grandfather's generation, Elder Wilson fled all the way to Eastcliff. When he was about to starve to death, the Wade family took them in.

In order to repay their favor, they voluntarily sold themselves to the Wade family and started long-term jobs.

At that time, the Wade family was already one of the largest families in the Forty-Nine Cities, and the head of the family was kind and kind to the servants, allowing them to marry, allowing them to have children, so that they could live and work in the Wade family.

Elder Wilson's father was born and raised in the Wade family.

Later, Elder Wilson's father became an adult, and he voluntarily sold himself to the Wade family and continued to work for the Wade family.

Later, Elder Wilson was also born in the Wade family.

Therefore, when he was a child and a young man, he was raised in the Wade family, and also worked as a servant in the Wade family.

The Lord of the Wade family was about the same age as the old man Wilson, and the two had grown up together. Of course, there was a huge difference in status, so the old man Wilson knew him, but he didn't know the old man Wilson.

After the war, the Wade family also prepared to move out to avoid the war, but couldn't take so many domestic servants, so they gave most of the domestic servants a generous settlement allowance and dismissed them. It was at that time that Elder Wilson returned to his hometown with the Wade family's settlement allowance.

Therefore, when he saw Charlie Wade, he firmly believed that he must be a descendant of the Wade family.

Therefore, after his repeated questioning, Charlie Wade revealed his life experience.

At that time, Grandpa Wilson knelt directly on the ground and knocked three heads to Charlie Wade, saying that he was kneeling and thanking the Wade family for their kindness to the Wilson family.

Then Lord Wilson took him back to the Wilson family and insisted on marrying his eldest granddaughter Claire Wilson Wilson.

At that time, the Lord Wilson didn't know if Charlie Wade, the young dragon, could even fly into the sky.

But he felt that the descendants of the Wade family shouldn't spend their lives on the construction site.

As the servants of the Wade family for generations, the Wilson family has the responsibility and obligation to take care of this young master Wade family who is living away and give him a stable home!

Chapter 843

Looking back on the past, Charlie Wade was full of emotion. There are only two people in the Wilson family who really treated him well.

One is Mr. Wilson, who has passed away, and the other is his wife, Claire Wilson Wilson.

Now, Father Wilson has also passed away, and the entire Wilson family is really good to him, and only Claire Wilson Wilson is left.

Seeing Claire Wilson Wilson standing on the balcony with a sad face at this time, Charlie Wade slowly walked over, came to the balcony, and said to her: "Claire Wilson Wilson, you don't have to worry too much, mom will definitely come back safely."

Claire Wilson Wilson realized that he had come in. He glanced back and said annoyedly: "You don't really care about her, so of course you don't think she will have something to do. Even if she has something, you will not really. Sad."

Charlie Wade knew that she was still mad at herself, so he sighed, walked up to him, and comforted: "My wife, I know you are worried that your mother will suffer and even be dangerous outside, but you don't think that her character, If she can suffer a bit, will it be good for her?"

Claire Wilson Wilson said: "I understand what you mean, but the key is that the loss must be within a controllable category. If it rises to personal danger, everything will be uncontrollable..."

Charlie Wade nodded and said: "Let's take a good rest first, and we will continue to go out to find tomorrow morning, okay?"

Claire Wilson Wilson hesitated for a moment, and nodded slightly, "Go to bed first, and I will go to the police station to ask about the progress tomorrow. They said that if there is no one to be found tomorrow, they will send the missing information to the Blue Sky Rescue Team and ask them to help."

"Yeah." Charlie Wade hurriedly coaxed her and said, "The Blue Sky Rescue Team can mobilize a strong social force. It shouldn't be a problem to find someone to come out."

"I hope..." Claire Wilson Wilson said, turning around and walking back to the room.

Charlie Wade hurriedly followed behind her, faintly excited.

After all, tonight is a great day for me to be promoted, and finally I can sleep with my wife in bed!

Even if it goes well, you can make up for the unfinished bridal chamber with your wife!

With that in mind, Charlie Wade hurriedly followed into the house and was about to directly hug Claire Wilson Wilson up and put it on the bed. As a result, he saw that Claire Wilson Wilson hadn't gone to the bedside, and went directly to the closet to take out a set of bedding, and looked at Charlie Wade angrily. Claire Wilson Wilson said: "Here, you are still sleeping on the ground tonight!"

"Ah?!" Charlie Wade asked in surprise: "Good wife, didn't you say that you can already be promoted to one level? I have been stuck at this level for more than three years, so I should be promoted!"

Claire Wilson Wilson was ashamed and angry, and stomped his feet and said, "That was what I said before. Now the situation has changed, so the upgrade will take a bit longer!"

Charlie Wade asked depressed, "When will it be delayed?"

Claire Wilson Wilson angrily said, "Slow down until mom comes home!"

Charlie Wade was taken aback, and his expression immediately slumped.

Elaine Ma, Elaine Ma, you are so lingering!

Just thinking about it, Claire Wilson Wilson was already lying on the bed and said angrily: "You are not allowed to sneak up! Otherwise I will drive you to the bedroom on the first floor!"

Charlie Wade had no choice but to say angrily: "Okay, my wife, I won't upgrade yet, I'll talk about it when Mom comes back."

This night, Charlie Wade was quite depressed. At the same time, I was even more annoyed at Elaine Ma.

This mother-in-law, if she hadn't owed her hand to steal her black card, things wouldn't be what it is now!

If she were honest, she would definitely be sleeping in the big bedroom upstairs now, and he and Claire Wilson Wilson would sleep on the same bed.

It seems that this woman still owes repairs!

When I look back, I have to say hello to Cameron Isaac and send a few people in to teach her a lesson! At least let her learn a lesson, and dare not steal other people's things and steal other people's bank cards to withdraw money from the bank in the future!

.....

Chapter 844

In sharp contrast with Charlie Wade, Jacob Wilson upstairs.

Jacob Wilson didn't fall asleep when he was excited this evening.

He remembered his past with Matilda several times in his mind, thinking back and forth, and taste back and forth, the whole person has been completely immersed in it!

The more she thought about Matilda, the more she looked forward to seeing her again.

Early the next morning, Jacob Wilson, who hadn't slept the whole night, was rather vigorous, and his happy whole body was closed from ear to ear.

He got up early to wash, and shaved his beard clean without leaving a single stubble. Then he combed his gray hair well, sprayed some styling spray, and then turned the box and the cabinet again and looked for it. Out of the high-end suit that I have been reluctant to wear. This suit was specially made in Hong Kong when the Wilson family was in its heyday. At that time, he was also the second son of the Wilson family. The old man didn't hesitate to give his pocket money, so he had a lot of face when he went out every day. Fortunately, Jacob Wilson's life is not good these years, so he didn't get lucky. This suit still fits well. After changing into his clothes, Jacob Wilson looked at himself in the mirror, showing a satisfied smile when he was ten years younger. Just as the so-called happy events are refreshing, the smile on Jacob Wilson's face is simply uncontrollable!

I believe that Matilda will not be disappointed when she sees him now! Thinking of this, he was so excited that he couldn't wait to rush to the airport immediately to meet Matilda again. However, Matilda's plane landed at more than ten o'clock, so it was still early, so he went downstairs and came to the restaurant. In the restaurant, Claire Wilson Wilson and Loreen were sitting at the table drinking milk. Charlie Wade was still busy in the kitchen with fried eggs and bacon. Loreen was the first to see Jacob Wilson and was surprised and said: "Wow! Uncle dressed so young today. Ah!" "Really?" Jacob Wilson smiled a little embarrassedly, and asked, "Is it okay?"

Loreen gave a thumbs up: "That's great!" Claire Wilson Wilson raised his head at this time and saw that his father was actually wearing his favorite suit. He was surprised and asked: "Dad, what are you doing in this dress?" Jacob Wilson hurriedly said: "I have something to do today. An old friend came back from abroad and wants to meet for a meal." After that, Jacob Wilson said again: "Oh yes, Charlie Wade is with me at noon. Don't go home for dinner, just order a meal at the company." "Dad!" Claire Wilson Wilson said with some dissatisfaction: "Mom is still missing! I still expect you and Charlie Wade to go out with me today to find someone. Why are you still making an appointment with your old classmates for dinner?" Jacob Wilson said, "Then everyone is here, I can't help but meet up, right?"

Claire Wilson Wilson said angrily, "But my mother is missing! Shouldn't you worry about her first? At this time, you are still in the mood to go to an appointment. Are you and your mother a couple?" Jacob Wilson nodded and said, "It's a couple." After that, I added another sentence: "But I'm separated." Claire Wilson Wilson was angrily speechless. Dad was dressed so formal at this time, and even his hairstyle was deliberately adjusted. It must have been a meeting with a female classmate. Moreover, Dad said that the other party came back from abroad, and that is probably the first love his mother said! She felt angry when she thought that her mother was still missing but her father was dressed up and going to eat with his first love. Jacob Wilson said seriously at this time: "Your mother can find it anytime, but I have already made an appointment with someone for this dinner. I can't break the appointment. I will find it together after dinner. I will find it with Charlie Wade!"

Claire Wilson Wilson said: "Go by yourself, Charlie Wade will follow me to find!"

"How can I do that!" Jacob Wilson said hurriedly, "I can't go alone with my son. How inappropriate? Or you let Charlie Wade go to your mother, and you go with me!"

Chapter 845

When he heard that his father asked him to meet his first love, Claire Wilson Wilson refused almost without hesitation: "I'm not going!"

Jacob Wilson opened his hand: "Then don't stop Charlie Wade from following me, anyway, one of you must follow me."

"You..." Claire Wilson Wilson was furious and asked: "It is more important to eat with your old classmates, or to find your mother is more important. Dad, don't you know it clearly?"

Jacob Wilson blurted out: "It is clear, of course it is more important to eat with old classmates!"

"you....."

Although Claire Wilson Wilson had always had a good temper, he was really going to be blown up at this time.

Jacob Wilson said indifferently at this time: "Claire Wilson Wilson, you have to understand one thing, this world does not revolve around your mother. There are four people in this family. Your mother and I have our own needs. You can revolve around your mother, but you can't force me or force Charlie Wade to revolve around your mother. We don't have anything to live on? We don't have any needs ourselves?"

Speaking of this, Jacob Wilson continued with a little excitement: "Could it be that if your mother can't find it back one day, I can't do other things a day, so I can only go out to find her? Then if she can't find it back forever, then I don't have to Besides, I will find her to die in the second half of my life? If this is the case, then I would rather run away from home. Why should I do this?"

Claire Wilson Wilson was speechless.

Although she knew that what her father was talking about was false, she still had to admit that there was some truth in this statement.

Dad has been suppressed by his mother for so many years, and now his mother has suddenly disappeared. For him, it should be a kind of relief, but also a kind of release.

In desperation, she could only compromise and said: "You want to party with classmates, I have no objection, but after the meeting, you have to help me find my mother's whereabouts!"

"Good, good." Jacob Wilson agreed repeatedly, and said with a smile:

"Don't worry, I will go all out at that time."

Charlie Wade came out carrying fried eggs and bacon. He saw Jacob Wilson dressed up and said in surprise: "Oh, dad, you are handsome today."

Jacob Wilson smiled happily, and said happily, "How about it, can you tell it?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said with a smile: "That's so good."

Claire Wilson Wilson rubbed his temples and said to Charlie Wade: "You accompany your dad to see his old classmates at noon. After dinner, you will quickly go to a place like Mahjong Hall to find out if anyone sees you. Mom."

Charlie Wade immediately agreed and said, "Good wife, I will go with Dad after dinner with Dad."

.....

At the same time, breakfast was also started in the detention center. Elaine Ma slept in the toilet all night. She was trembling all over. She was hungry and almost fainted. She was looking forward to eating breakfast to add something, otherwise she would really be hungry and faint.

The two people who took the meal quickly brought back a plastic basket. Everyone went to take the meal. Elaine Ma didn't dare to take it directly. Instead, she walked up to Gena and asked pitifully, "Sister Gena, can I have a bite? I haven't eaten anything for a day and night..." Gena frowned while drinking porridge and steamed buns, and asked her, "What does it have to do with me whether you eat or not? Am I not letting you eat it?"

Elaine Ma said bitterly, "I'm afraid you will hit me again after I eat..." Gena sneered and said, "It's good if you know it. If you want to eat, you can eat whatever you want. If you are full, you can get beaten up."

Chapter 846

Elaine Ma knew this was a threat. As long as she eats by herself, even as long as she reaches out to get the meal, she will probably suffer a meal. So she cried and pleaded: "Sister, you beat, scolded, scolded, and punished yesterday. Please be merciful and forgive me..."

Gena raised his eyebrows and asked: "I can spare you, but who can bring my dead mother back to life? Do you know how miserable it was when she drank pesticides and finally lay in the hospital bed with breathless and suffocated breath??"

Elaine Ma burst into tears and said: "Sister I know you are a filial daughter, but I haven't harmed your mother..."

Gena angrily said: "You still talk nonsense with me? I tell you, my mother was killed by an unfilial daughter-in-law, so I feel sick when I see someone like you! You should be glad that it is not an ancient society, otherwise My Lady chopped you out for the sky!"

Lady Wilson hummed triumphantly: "Gena, you are so right! This kind of woman was supposed to be immersed in a pig cage in ancient times! It is the kind of bamboo cage, put her in it, and then fall Put on a few big rocks and throw them into the river to drown her directly!"

Elaine Ma was so frightened that she didn't dare to say anything, nor did she dared to eat. She could only bow her head and stand in front of Gena, like a kid who made a mistake.

Gena drank her last mouthful of porridge, and used the last piece of steamed bread to turn around in the porridge bowl, dipped all the remaining rice fat in the porridge bowl, and ate it in one bite.

Afterwards, she said intently: "Oh, I don't seem to be full."

At this time, a female prisoner pointed to the plastic basket and said, "Sister Gena, isn't there still one portion left in there? You can eat that portion too!"

Gena deliberately looked at Elaine Ma with a smile, and asked with a grin: "Oh Elaine Ma, I have breakfast for you, are you okay?"

"No comments, no comments!" How can Elaine Ma dare to say nothing? Can only nod like garlic.

Gena smiled and said, "I'm fine, I am a person who exercises a lot, so I have a lot of appetite. It took a lot of physical energy to beat you yesterday, and I really need to make up for it today."

With that, she walked to the plastic basket and took out the lunch box inside. After opening it, she held the buns in one hand and the lunch box in the other for porridge.

Because she deliberately wanted to torture Elaine Ma, she drank porridge and sucked very loudly, making Elaine Ma's gluttonous legs soft and her stomach twitching.

Gena ate up all the steamed buns and drank almost one third of the porridge. Then she shook her hand deliberately and threw the lunch box to the ground, and the porridge was immediately spilled.

Gena sighed and said annoyedly: "Why is it spilled? It's a waste..."

As she said, she waved to Elaine Ma and said, "Go to the toilet and get a mop, and mop this piece clean."

Elaine Ma has never cherished food in her entire life, and she has not even finished a bowl of rice cleanly, but now looking at the pool of rice porridge on the ground, she feels very distressed.

Seeing her eyes fixed on the rice porridge on the ground, Gena smiled and said, "Elaine Ma, if you are hungry, you can also kneel on the ground and lick the porridge."

When Elaine Ma heard this, she felt wronged and wanted to die.

Kneeling on the ground and licking porridge? How dirty this ground is! Countless people have stepped on it. The mop that mopped the floor in the toilet is already black. Now that I let myself lick the porridge spilled on the floor, how can I stand it?

You can't lick it even if you starve to death!

Thinking of this, she hurriedly said: "I'd better mop it clean."

Gena sneered: "Whatever you do, but you will lick it sooner or later. If you don't believe it, let's just wait and see!"

Chapter 847

A little more than eight o'clock, Charlie Wade drove the car and went out with the old man who burned the bag.

There were still more than two hours before the plane landed, but Jacob Wilson couldn't wait.

After the Thompson First, he hurriedly asked Charlie Wade: "Good son-in-law, do you know where the flowers are sold? I want to buy a bunch of roses to take with him."

Charlie Wade said, "Dad, people still bring their son. It's not appropriate for you to send roses in front of his son, right?"

Jacob Wilson thought for a while, nodded and said, "You are right, then let me be given a bunch of ordinary flowers."

Charlie Wade said: "I know there is a flower shop, not far away, let's go buy flowers first."

When he arrived at the flower shop, Charlie Wade spent five hundred Dollar and asked the shopkeeper to help with a bouquet of flowers that symbolized friendship, and then he took Jacob Wilson back to the car. Holding the bouquet of flowers, Jacob Wilson was very excited, and said with a smile: "This boss is good at craftsmanship. This flower looks very impressive! I believe Matilda will like it!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly, and said to his heart that Jacob Wilson is a typical second spring glow. If this Matilda is interesting to him, maybe the two can get together.

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade felt a little sympathetic to the old man. No way, for the sake of my wife, I must not let Elaine Ma evaporate from the world. Therefore, although the old man can happily meet the old lover now, but after a few days Elaine Ma is released, his hard life will be again it has started.

If Elaine Ma knows that Matilda is back, he still doesn't know how to make trouble, then Jacob Wilson's life will probably be more sad than before.

But naturally, Charlie Wade didn't tell his dad. After all, he is in the most exciting time now, so let him enjoy the feeling of freedom and the breath of his first girlfriend before Elaine Ma comes out!

At this time, Jacob Wilson asked again: "Oh yes Charlie Wade, have you booked a place in Shangri-La?"

"It's booked." Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Don't worry about me, I will satisfy you and Matilda today."

"That's good, that's good!" Jacob Wilson breathed a sigh of relief. He held the flower and looked at it again. He approached the only rose in the bouquet and smelled it, and sighed, "Scent! It's so refreshing!" After finishing speaking, I couldn't help humming an old song: "Rose rose, I love you; rose rose, love is heavy..."

Charlie Wade shook his head and sighed secretly. He didn't expect that after last night, he would be quite depressed...

.....

After driving to the airport, the two arrived at the arrival hall of the airport. Jacob Wilson kept staring at the arrival screen at the airport. After searching for a long time, he finally found Matilda's flight. The expected landing time of the flight is 10:20, and there is one hour left, and the other party is returning from abroad, there must be an entry process, so it is estimated that it will be 11 o'clock when she comes out.

Jacob Wilson was very excited and didn't feel tired. He stood for more than an hour after standing.

Five minutes before eleven o'clock, a group of people came out from the exit. Jacob Wilson was holding flowers looking forward to it. Suddenly he saw a middle-aged woman wearing a black dress, and immediately waved to her excitedly: "Matilda! "

When the other party saw him, he was taken aback for a moment, and then he said with surprise on his face: "Oh my God, Jacob Wilson!"

After all, walk a few steps quickly and walk towards Jacob Wilson.

Charlie Wade also became interested, and hurriedly wanted to see what Jacob Wilson, his first love, looked like.

So he took a look, and he was shocked!

Matilda is said to be the same year as Jacob Wilson, and both are 48 years old, but Matilda doesn't look like a 48-year-old woman at all! She is tall and slender, and her skin is well maintained. She wears a long black one-piece dress, which looks like a goddess, and her hair is very dignified.

Chapter 848

As for the appearance, it is even more impeccable, beautiful and generous, and it has a bookish breath from the previous generation of intellectuals.

Among the stars of this age group, there is an actress named Kelly Hu. She is regarded as one of the most beautiful and charming women among the stars of this age group, but Matilda is even more beautiful than Kelly Hu!

Kelly Hu is in her early 50s and she is still charming, and Matilda's actual age is three years younger than Kelly Hu, and she seems to be more than six or seven years younger than her!

This is an aunt who is nearly fifty years old!

This is an eldest sister who is less than 40 years old in her thirties!

Charlie Wade was stunned. He really didn't expect that Jacob Wilson's first love was such an impeccable super middle-aged beauty. It can be imagined that she must be very beautiful when she was young!

God!

Charlie Wade is a little envious of Jacob Wilson, this wimpy old man, how can He actually fall in love with such a super beauty back then!

At the same time, Charlie Wade also sympathized with Jacob Wilson more!

Because of Elaine Ma, he has lost such a majestic beauty, this is simply picking up a grain of sesame seeds and losing ten acres of watermelon land!

At this moment, Jacob Wilson looked at Matilda, who was still beautiful in front of him, and felt even more sympathetic to her than Charlie Wade! Why is there no trace of too much time on Matilda's face after more than 20 years?

Why is she still so beautiful that she can't breathe after more than twenty years?

Why is it that more than 20 years have passed, her shallow smile and faint dimples are still so high, so that she can't move her legs just by looking at it?

At this time, Matilda walked to Jacob Wilson quickly. After standing still, staring at him, she smiled gently: "Jacob Wilson, I really didn't expect it, we haven't seen you in more than 20 years!"

Jacob Wilson was a little nervous. He was a little helpless and said, "That, yeah, Matilda, I didn't expect it to be... for so many years!"

When Charlie Wade saw that the old man was still holding the flowers when he was talking to Matilda, he forgot to give them to them, and hurriedly reminded him behind him: "Dad, don't hold the flowers all the time, give them to them!"

Jacob Wilson came back to his senses, and hurriedly handed the flower to Matilda, and said nervously, "Matilda, this...this flower is for you.

Welcome back to Aurouss Hilll!"

Matilda took the flowers with joy, took a deep look at Jacob Wilson, and said, "Jacob Wilson, thank you!"

There was no flower in Jacob Wilson's hand. He didn't know where to put his hands at once, so he rubbed awkwardly and smiled stiffly: "Matilda, we haven't seen each other for so many years, why are you polite to me..."

At this time, a tall and handsome young man with blond hair came over with his luggage from behind.

This blond young man has white skin, no different from white people in Europe and America, but his eye pupils are black, and his facial features are somewhat Asian in style, and he looks a bit like Matilda. He looks like a mixed race.

He walked up to Matilda and yelled with a smile, "Mom, is this your college classmate?"

Matilda hurriedly pulled him and introduced Jacob Wilson, "Jacob Wilson, let me introduce to you. This is my son, Paul."

Jacob Wilson took the initiative to stretch out his hand and smiled: "Oh, Paul, hello! You speak Chinese really well!"

Paul laughed and said, "Uncle is polite. Although I am an American citizen and my father is also American, I still have half Chinese blood. My mother taught me to speak Chinese since I was a child and never let me slack off."

Jacob Wilson nodded and quickly introduced Charlie Wade, saying: "Matilda, Paul, I will introduce you to you, this is my son-in-law, Charlie Wade Wade!"

Paul took the initiative to stretch out his hand to Charlie Wade, smiled and said, "Hello, Mr. Wade!"

Chapter 849

Paul's Chinese is indeed very good. When he closed his eyes and listened, he couldn't tell that it was an American. Charlie Wade was also very surprised. So he shook hands with him and said with admiration, "Mr. Paul's Chinese is really impeccable. ."

Paul smiled humbly, and said, "Mr. Wade has been awarded!"

Jacob Wilson hurriedly said: "By the way, Matilda, I have booked a box at Shangri-La Hotel. Let's go to have a meal first, and pick up the dust for you and your son!"

Matilda smiled and said, "Thank you so much, Jacob Wilson and son-in-law, who came to pick us up from afar and invited us to dinner..."

"It should be!" Jacob Wilson smiled awkwardly, and couldn't wait to say:

"It just so happened that we were driving here, let's go directly!"

"Okay." Matilda nodded, and then said to Paul: "Son, tell your driver, we won't take the company car, let's take your Uncle Wilson's car."

Paul smiled and said, "Okay mom, I'll call the driver and ask him to send the luggage to the hotel room first."

"it is good!"

Paul politely said to Jacob Wilson and Charlie Wade: "Uncle Wilson, Charlie Wade, wait for me first, I'll make a call, sorry!"

Jacob Wilson hurriedly said: "Oh, Paul, look at your child, you are too polite, you don't need to be so polite with your uncle."

Paul smiled and said, "It should be."

After speaking, he took out his mobile phone and walked aside to make a call.

Jacob Wilson then asked Matilda curiously: "Matilda, you and your son returned to China, and did you arrange a driver in China?"

Matilda nodded and said: "After Paul's father passed away, didn't I always want to return to the country to settle, but his father left a company. Paul said that he can't throw away his father's life's hard work, so he began to gradually start business six months ago. The transfer to China is here."

Jacob Wilson asked in surprise: "Did you transfer all the industries to China first?"

"Yes." Matilda said: "But I don't participate much in these things, it is Paul taking care of it."

Jacob Wilson nodded lightly, feeling a little inferior in his heart.

Matilda and her son returned to settle in China, and even transferred the business. An enterprise worth such a lot of trouble is probably not small in scale. From this point of view, Matilda's current economic strength is very strong.

In contrast, I am a little embarrassed. After all, the Wilson family is now down, and he has no source of income. It can even be described as penniless. The only one who can do it is Thompson First. The villa is now, but this villa is still owned by Charlie Wade.

Thinking of this, Jacob Wilson felt a little bored. Given her current situation, would Matilda look down on him? It's been half a lifetime, and most middle-aged people have at least a certain career, industry and family business, but they still have nothing to do now, which is too shameful!

Charlie Wade also saw that Jacob Wilson's expression was a little upset, knowing that he must think that Matilda is too good, and he is not worthy of others, but he did not break it either.

At this time, Paul finished the call and said with a smile: "Mom, Uncle Wilson, and Brother Charlie Wade, I have already told the driver, let's go out."

"Okay." Charlie Wade said with a smile: "Then let's go."

The four people went out of the airport together. A brand new Rolls-Royce Phantom stopped in front of them. A foreigner got out of the car and respectfully said to Paul in English: "Hello, general manager!"

Paul nodded slightly.

The foreigner driver said to Matilda, "Hello, Chairman."

Matilda nodded and smiled, and said, "Mike, you help me deliver my luggage to Shangri-La, and directly ask the front desk to send the luggage to my and Mike's rooms."

Chapter 850

The foreigner driver nodded hurriedly and said, "Okay chairman, I will go now!"

Then, he opened the trunk of the Rolls-Royce Phantom, took all the suitcases in Paul's hand, and stuffed them into the trunk.

After doing this, he asked Matilda again: "Chairman, don't you and the general manager go in this car?"

Matilda nodded and said, "I'll take my old classmate's car and go, you can go first."

Jacob Wilson looked at the brand new and luxurious Rolls Royce, feeling particularly uneasy.

He can see the value of this car.

The bare car costs eight or nine million, and this car is equipped with a pure gold little golden man logo, and it costs more than two hundred thousand!

Therefore, Jacob Wilson felt even more inferior.

He couldn't help but said to Matilda, "Oh, Matilda, you should take this Rolls Royce over there. My car is not up to grade. I'm afraid that you won't get used to it and you will be wronged again."

Matilda said seriously: "Jacob Wilson, we have known each other for so many years, do you think I am the kind of person who loves vanity?"

Jacob Wilson was suddenly embarrassed.

He hesitated and said: "My car is just an ordinary BMW 5 series. I'm afraid I will wrong you..."

Matilda was a little angry, and said, "Jacob Wilson, why do you care about these things so much now? Rolls-Royce and BMW 5 series are also scared, even if it is still the kind of 28-year-old bicycle popular among your male students. Are they all a means of transportation? Don't talk about the BMW 5 Series, even if you are riding a big 28 to pick me up today, I am willing to ride."

As he said, Matilda said with a smile, "But I guess it's a bit hard for you to ride a bicycle at your age now?"

When Matilda said this, Jacob Wilson felt a lot more comfortable.

He was really afraid that Matilda was used to being a Rolls-Royce and would feel a little uncomfortable when sitting in his BMW fifth series. If it made her feel uncomfortable, he would have trouble with her face. However, Paul suddenly said to Matilda in English in a low voice at this time: "Mom, maybe you should take this car. The comfort of the BMW 5 Series is very poor, I am afraid you can't adapt."

Matilda waved her hand, and also whispered: "When you see my old classmates in the future, don't drive this public car. Ask if your company has the most common commercial car, like the Buick gl8 two or three. A hundred thousand cars, I don't want to come back after more than 20 years, to make everyone feel too distant."

Paul reluctantly said: "The company really doesn't have such a cheap car. The most common commercial vehicles are Toyota Elfa with more than one million Dollar..."

Matilda said: "Then just buy a car worth two or three hundred thousand Dollar."

Paul had no choice but to nod his head and said, "Well, since you have ordered everything, then I will arrange it."

After speaking, he stepped to the driver and told him: "Go back and buy a Buick gl8."

The driver was taken aback for a moment and said, "General Manager, our company doesn't have such a low-end car."

Paul said, "It's okay, just go buy one and come back."

"it is good."

Because Charlie Wade's physical fitness far exceeds that of ordinary people, he couldn't help but admire Matilda very much when he heard the whispers among them.

This aunt is not only beautiful and extraordinary, but more importantly, her emotional intelligence is too high.

Such a woman, for a middle-aged man, is even more goddess than the goddess of his dreams.

He can even have a foreboding that Jacob Wilson, the old man, should soon be completely fallen...

Chapter 851

The driver drove the Rolls-Royce Phantom away, and Charlie Wade also drove the fifth-series BMW of the old man.

As soon as the car stopped in front of the three people, the old man hurriedly opened the rear door, and the gentleman said to Matilda:

"Matilda, please first!"

Matilda nodded and smiled, bending down and getting into the car.

Immediately afterwards, Paul seemed to go to sit with his mother in the back row on the other side, but Jacob Wilson said to him: "Oh, Paul, you and Charlie Wade are both young people. You should have many topics in common. Let's have a good chat with him while driving!"

After speaking, without waiting for Paul's promise, he already came to the back door on the other side, opened the car door and sat in.

Paul had no choice but to get into the co-pilot.

Charlie Wade drove toward the city, and Jacob Wilson in the back row said to Matilda with a little embarrassment: "Oh, Matilda, this car is a bit crude, and I hope you don't mind too much."

Matilda said helplessly: "Jacob Wilson, I have already told you, I don't care about these things, so you don't have to mention them all the time."

"Yes, yes." Jacob Wilson complimented: "I don't mean you care, I just feel that this car is not worthy of your temperament. Look at how you look like a fifty-year-old middle-aged and elderly person. It's less than forty! A woman with temperament like you should ride in a top luxury car like a Rolls-Royce."

When Matilda heard him complimenting herself, her face flushed slightly, and she smiled and said, "After so many years, you still speak so well." Jacob Wilson smiled and said, "What I said is all from the bottom of my heart."

Matilda nodded and asked him, "By the way, how are you doing for so many years?"

Jacob Wilson sighed and said angrily: "I have done it, that is, to be honest, after graduating from university, I have not been so happy."

Matilda asked in a low voice, "Are you and Elaine Ma unhappy?"

"Happiness?" Jacob Wilson gave a wry smile and exclaimed: "I have never had these two words with her for more than 20 years."

Seeing Jacob Wilson's wry smile, there was an inexhaustible pain, and a distress and regret flashed in Matilda's beautiful eyes.

She remembered the thing that she could not forget the eve of college graduation.

That day, my roommate ran back, crying and said to himself that his boyfriend took her for the first time after drinking.

I suddenly felt a bolt from the blue sky, and the whole person was on the verge of collapse.

At that time, she had already started happily planning the route after graduation. The family arranged for herself and her boyfriend to go abroad for further study, so that the two could stay and fly together, and at the same time, they could get a higher diploma together and come back together later. Serve the country and become a pillar of the country.

But who would have thought that suddenly, such a disintegrating thing would happen.

At that time, my roommate was still crying and confessing in front of me, saying that she was sorry for herself and that her boyfriend was too drunk and didn't know, I hope I don't mind or tell others.

But how can I not mind?

My boyfriend is sleeping with his roommate, how could I not care?

Especially his own character, he is born to emphasize feelings rather than interests. For the one he loves, he can be wronged by heaven, but he must never allow his beloved to betray him or have any flaws in his relationship. .

Therefore, she could not accept such a thing, so she chose to quit, and left Arouss Hilll and China sadly.

Even after going abroad, she was even more shocked when she learned that her ex-boyfriend had married that roommate.

Chapter 852

At that time, it happened that an American boy was madly pursuing her, so out of anger, and out of wanting to forget the past as soon as possible, she agreed to the other party's pursuit.

As a result, the two quickly married, got married, and soon had children. That American boy was very kind to her and cared for her for a lifetime, but she has been unable to forget her ex-boyfriend for more than 20 years.

When she looked back at that period of history, she realized that she had been deliberate and fooled by others.

My roommate didn't come to me to confess at all, nor did she really hope that she would not mind this. She just hoped that she would mind, that she couldn't let it go, and she wanted to take the initiative to quit, and then handed her ex-boyfriend to her.

But the oneself back then was still too young, too proud, too focused on the principles of life and the purity of feelings, so she gave up her beloved man. Right in the arms of that roommate.

Because of Jacob Wilson's unforgettable heart, Matilda's married life was actually very painful.

Her husband loves her very much, and she has fulfilled the responsibilities and obligations of a good wife, never betrayed him, took good care of her family and children, and even helped him a lot in his career.

However, deep in her heart, she knew that this was just a life of supporting and respecting him. Although she thanked him very much, respected him, cared for him and even loved him, she did not love him. The marriage without love lasted for more than 20 years, and her husband died because of cancer.

Matilda took care of her husband wholeheartedly until he was buried. After her husband was buried, Matilda's heart suddenly became empty. At this time, she realized that she had completely fulfilled all her obligations to her husband as a wife.

Virtuous, loyal, caring for the family, passing on from generation to generation, she goes all out at every point.

However, after her husband died, she suddenly realized that her life should be lived for herself once.

So, she resolutely prepared to return home.

And what she wanted to see most when she returned to China was Jacob Wilson, who was impulsive and handed over to Elaine Ma.

However, she really did not expect that Jacob Wilson and Elaine Ma would be so unhappy.

In the words of Jacob Wilson, I haven't felt happiness in more than 20 years, so how much torment in these days?

Although I haven't felt true love for more than 20 years, but fortunately, my husband treats myself very well, even if there is no love, at least he is still very happy.

Jacob Wilson was also very melancholy at this time.

For more than twenty years, he has been regretting that he had drunk too much that night.

For more than 20 years, he has never loved Elaine Ma, nor has he felt the happiness of his family.

He has been obsessed with Matilda for more than 20 years, and it is more than 20 years since he saw Matilda again and her scorching demeanor. His heart is full of regret.

I should have been with this perfect, humble, intellectual and understanding woman for half of my life.

But why, I just missed her and came together with a shrew like Elaine Ma? At this moment, Jacob Wilson felt that what he had missed was the whole world!

Chapter 853

Jacob Wilson recalled this in his heart, his eyes flushed, and two lines of tears could not help but flow out.

The main reason is that the current Matilda is too perfect. Even if Charlie Wade saw it, he felt that he was more than 100,000 times stronger than Elaine Ma, and Jacob Wilson spent more than 20 years with a b*tch who only had one in 100,000 of his ex-girlfriend. , Now that he looks at Matilda and thinks about it again, can he feel uncomfortable in his heart?

When Matilda saw Jacob Wilson's tears, she felt even more uncomfortable. She also regretted. Regret shouldn't leave him on impulse. In the past twenty years, he has not been happy and he has no love. Both people suffered the same torture. Since this is the case, why did you separate in the first place? He knew that he couldn't like Elaine Ma. He knew that he must have completely lost consciousness before being taken advantage of by Elaine Ma. I even knew in the subconscious that Elaine Ma was behind the scenes. However, I couldn't help that arrogance at the time. The results of it? For more than 20 years, the two people have no real happiness.

Thinking of this, Matilda felt very uncomfortable.

She quietly took out a pack of tissues from her bag, took out one, and stuffed it into Jacob Wilson's hand.

Jacob Wilson originally turned his face to the window, not wanting Matilda to see her tears, but suddenly he was stuffed with a tissue in his hand. He hurriedly looked at Matilda on the side, only to find that her eyes were also choked. Tears, tears gleaming.

At this moment, Jacob Wilson asked herself in her heart, does Matilda still have feelings for him? !

If she really still has feelings for him, can he reconnect with her? !

Thinking of this, when he was excited, he suddenly became nervous again.

He was nervous, where did Elaine Ma go, and will she come back?

If she didn't come back, how nice she would be!

You can pursue Matilda wholeheartedly!

I am already fifty years old, and if I don't pursue my true love, I will never have love for my life!

But what if Elaine Ma comes back...

If that b*tch knew that Matilda was back, she would be crazy! She will definitely stare at her, and will never let herself have the opportunity to meet or contact Matilda!

More importantly, once Elaine Ma sees Matilda now, she will definitely be stimulated.

Because now Matilda is much more beautiful than Elaine Ma, and more temperamental than her, more educated than her, richer than her, and more cultivated than her, every place is much better than her.

So compared to her, Elaine Ma is just a mess of stinky shit.

Chapter 854

Jacob Wilson couldn't help begging to heaven in his heart, hoping that Elaine Ma would never come back. She had harmed him for more than 20 years, so she should give him some freedom. After all, it was really not easy to bear her for more than 20 years.

If Elaine Ma never comes back, then he believes that he must have the opportunity to continue to be with Matilda and to continue his relationship.

Moreover, he thinks that Matilda's son is still a very nice person, and he should be able to accept himself as his stepdad.

And his daughter Claire Wilson Wilson is also a more sensible and filial girl.

If her mother is indeed missing, she would not object to her search for her second spring without gambling. After all, it is impossible for her to live alone after Elaine Ma disappeared. The only thing he worried about now was whether Elaine Ma, a woman, would return.

So he can only pray to God.

And he didn't know at this moment. It is not God that can decide all of this, but his son-in-law, Charlie Wade.

.....

After Charlie Wade drove to Shangri-La, the hotel staff immediately stepped forward and opened the door.

He handed the car to the waiter who parked the car, and then said to his father-in-law and his first love, Matilda, mother and son: "Shangri-La is considered to be a relatively good hotel in Aurouss Hilll. The local cuisine is the best. It's delicious. I've already booked a good box here, but I don't know if it fits the taste of the second person."

Matilda hurriedly said, "Oh, Charlie Wade, you are really too polite. I don't have any requirements for food, and I'm honest, after leaving Aurouss Hilll for so many years, I still want to try our Aurouss Hilll. The flavor!"

Charlie Wade said with a smile: "Then you came to Shangri-La, it really didn't come wrong."

After all, he was next to Paul: "Mr. Paul, I don't know how you feel about Chinese dining? Are you still used to eating?"

Paul smiled and said, "Mr. Wade, don't forget that I am also half Chinese, and to be honest, I prefer Chinese food to those fast food and western food in the United States."

As he said, Paul hurriedly said: "By the way, let me tell you, my mother cooks very well. She is the best Chinese chef I have ever seen. She has great cooking skills."

Charlie Wade couldn't help but exclaimed: "I didn't expect Aunt Matilda to look so beautiful, have such a good temperament, and cook deliciously."

Matilda said modestly: "Don't listen to this kid's nonsense, he brags too much for me."

Jacob Wilson could not help but sigh at the side at this time: "When we were going to school together, you always said to cook for me, but at that time everyone was living on campus, and there was never a very suitable opportunity. More than 20 years have passed. Now, to be honest, I haven't eaten this meal yet..."

Matilda smiled and said seriously: "Then if I have the opportunity, I can cook for you to taste. But I can put the shame on the front. My cooking is not as delicious as Paul said. If you are disappointed then If you do, don't blame me."

When Jacob Wilson heard this, he became excited, and blurted out, "Really? When will you have time?"

After that, Jacob Wilson couldn't wait to say: "If you have time, we can make an appointment at my house! What kind of dishes you will do, or what you want to do, tell me directly. I will buy and make all the ingredients in advance. Everything is prepared, and then you and Paul come to the house, you just cook, I'll help you, let the children just eat."

Matilda said with some embarrassment: "Is this appropriate? Elaine Ma shouldn't want to see me, right?"

In yesterday's phone call, Jacob Wilson told Matilda that he and Elaine Ma had broken up and had separated, but there was no specific reason for that, and he did not say that Elaine Ma is now missing.

Therefore, Matilda thought that the two had just separated bedrooms, but they still lived in a house, so they didn't want to go to his house, for fear that they would meet Elaine Ma again, not to mention that this old man is not a good thing.

Jacob Wilson hurriedly waved his hand at this time, and said indifferently: "You don't have to worry about her. She is not at home now, and she doesn't know when she will be back. It will be impossible for a while."

Having said that, Jacob Wilson said again: "In my opinion, choosing a day is better than hitting the sun! Let's have dinner in Shangri-La at noon, and then you will go back to the hotel to rest and rest. Come to my house in the afternoon. We can cook together. Have a meal, so I can also introduce my daughter to you!"

Chapter 855

Jacob Wilson's consideration was simple, because he was worried that Elaine Ma would come back suddenly in the next two days.

In case she suddenly returned home, then she would not have such a good opportunity.

Killing him, he did not dare to invite Matilda to eat at his home while Elaine Ma was still at home.

In that case, Elaine Ma would probably hack him to death with a knife. So he felt it. If you want to have such an opportunity, you must do it as soon as possible, and the sooner the better.

Matilda couldn't help thinking back then.

Because her hometown was in Eastcliff, when she was studying in Aurouss Hilll, she could only live in a dormitory.

Moreover, when everyone was in love, they were relatively shy and low-key, and didn't dare to let the family know, so she always wanted to cook a meal for Jacob Wilson, but she never found a suitable opportunity.

Back then it was not as convenient as it is now.

Now if you want to find a place to cook for couples, you can directly find a hotel apartment or a short-term rental family apartment to solve the problem, and there are kitchen utensils, everything.

But at that time, there was no such condition.

Even if you are staying in an ordinary guest house outside, you need to open a letter of introduction by your unit. Therefore, young people at that time are in love, it is impossible to go out to a hotel or guest house to open a room.

At that time, the school's own guest house did not need to open a letter of introduction, as long as the student ID can open a room, but ordinary students dare not go there to open a room, because they are likely to be caught by classmates and teachers.

The first time that Matilda and Jacob Wilson tasted the forbidden fruit was when Jacob Wilson secretly took her home one night when there was no one in Wilson's house. The two of them hurriedly finished it at home. After that, the two wanted to taste that taste again, they could only wait until Jacob Wilson had no one at home.

However, in the Wilson family at that time, although the eldest brother Christopher went to school in other places, most of the projects of Mr. Wilson were in the local area and he did not often go out.

And Mrs. Wilson seldom travels far, so the chance of no one at home is extremely rare.

Therefore, for a long time, when two people wanted to try the forbidden fruit, they could only choose to go to the school grove, or in the park of Aurouss Hill, or to abandoned houses or even construction sites. Most college students of that era used this way to fall in love, and there was no way.

It seems crazy now, but it was really normal in that era. After all, young people's hormones need to be released and there is no suitable venue to choose from.

Especially the small woods in the school are the most popular. They are dark inside. There may be a pair every ten meters. Everyone can hear other people's voices, but no one says nothing and doesn't look at other people. A tacit understanding, each busy with its own things.

Because no one can see who, and no one knows who it is, no one feels ashamed.

Sometimes, the school teacher took a flashlight to catch in the small woods. I thought that at most one or two couples could be caught in it, but unexpectedly, he was shocked as if he plunged into a pile of wild ducks. A sky full of wild ducks.

Now, when two people think back to the past in their hearts, especially when they think back to the bits and pieces of the two people together, even now they seem crazy, romantic, or shameful details. There is an extraordinary throbbing in my heart.

Charlie Wade found that Matilda's face suddenly turned red. And the whole person seems to be still shy.

He couldn't help thinking in his heart, didn't he just go to the house to cook and eat? Why did this Auntie Matilda suddenly blush?

Then he went to see the old man beside him again, and found that his face turned red all of a sudden.

Chapter 856

Moreover, the whole person seemed very awkward, and he didn't know where to put both hands, so he could only keep rubbing with his fingertips. Charlie Wade understood right away that the two middle-aged and elderly people must have some unusual memories about "cooking and eating" or about "going home with him".

Paul also found out that things didn't seem right, but he was too embarrassed to say anything, so he could only say to Charlie Wade, "Mr. Wade, let's go to the box first."

With that, he said to Matilda: "Mom, you've been on the plane for more than ten hours. It should be quite tired. If you and Uncle Wilson want to talk, we can sit in the box and talk." is the fastest.

Only then did Matilda suddenly come back to her senses. What he was thinking of just now was the past with Jacob Wilson, and even recalled the details of her first time with Jacob Wilson.

Nearly 50 years old, she blushed all of a sudden, and hurriedly followed her son's words and said: "Oh, that's right, you see we are all confused already, let's go sit in the box and talk!"

Jacob Wilson also hurriedly echoed: "Yes, yes, we hurriedly went to sit in the box, and we all blamed me. I just thought about chatting, but I forgot about it!"

Charlie Wade shook his head helplessly, and even sighed in his heart. It seems that these two people are really fighting fire!

And it's the dry wood and raging fire that have been waiting for more than 20 years. If they meet together and give them a chance to burn, then it will definitely burn a raging fire..

.....

Charlie Wade led the way, leading everyone to Shangri-La's dining department.

The manager of the catering department had been instructed long ago. As soon as he saw Charlie Wade, he immediately greeted him and asked respectfully: "Hello sir, are you a member of Shangri-La?"

Charlie Wade shook his head and said, "I am not a member, but I have asked a friend to book a box for me."

The other party hurriedly asked again: "Then what is your surname? What box number is reserved?"

Charlie Wade said: "My surname is Wade, but I don't know what box number I booked. I booked the box through your Mr. Cameron."

The other party immediately bowed respectfully and said: "So you are Mr. Wade. We have prepared the box you want for you. Please come with me."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly, nodded and said, "Thank you."

The manager of the catering department took the four people to the box. Paul asked Charlie Wade curiously: "Mr. Wade, do you know Mr. Cameron here?"

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled and said, "I know, but I'm not familiar."

Paul subconsciously said, "Shangri-La seems to be the property of the Wade family, and Mr. Cameron here is the spokesperson of the Wade family."

Charlie Wade looked at Paul in surprise, he really didn't expect this American to touch this place so clearly.

So he smiled and asked, "Mr. Paul must have done a lot of homework for Aurouss Hilll, right?"

Paul nodded generously and said, "Before I was going to move the company to Aurouss Hilll, I had already begun to understand some of the situation in Aurouss Hilll. After all, the company was my father's painstaking effort. I could not bring it to a place without preparation. In a strange environment."

Charlie Wade couldn't help but admired: "Mr. Paul is so meticulous and forward-looking. I believe he will be able to flourish in Aurouss Hilll in the future."

Paul smiled slightly: "Mr. Wade passed the award."

After that, he suddenly remembered something. He looked at Charlie Wade and asked curiously: "Mr. Wade, your surname is Wade, and you know Mr. Cameron from Shangri-La. Are you from the Wade family of Eastcliff?"

Chapter 857

Charlie Wade really didn't expect that Paul could guess his identity all at once.

However, he knew that Paul was just a guess, and he couldn't admit this kind of thing.

Charlie Wade was about to deny it, and the old man on the side laughed and said: "Oh, Paul, you really think too much. My son-in-law is the son-in-law recruited from our family. If he is from the Wade family, I am afraid that our family will fly on the branch and become a phoenix."

Although Jacob Wilson is usually not very motivated, and he doesn't do any business. But he still knew the name of the Wade family in Eastcliff. It can even be said that there are not many people in China who don't know the Wade Family because the Wade Family is so famous.

Because of this, it was impossible for him to believe that Charlie Wade belonged to the Wade family.

Because there are too many people surnamed Wade in this world, but there is only one Wade family.

He knew Charlie Wade's life experience very clearly. When he was young, he entered the orphanage. When he was 18, he went out to work on the construction site. When he was in his early 20s, he was taken home by his father and became his own son-in-law.

How could such a person belong to the Wade family?

If Charlie Wade would be Eastcliff Wade family, wouldn't he be the lost young master of the Wade family?

As soon as Paul heard that Charlie Wade was the son-in-law, he immediately realized that he had guessed wrong. After all, what kind of family was the Wade family? How could such a family let their young master be the son-in-law of others? Even the president of the United States cannot have such qualifications.

So he smiled and said to Charlie Wade: "It seems that I have misunderstood. I'm sorry, but the main reason is that you are also surnamed Wade, and this Shangri-La is the property of Wade family, so I think too much. I hope Mr. Wade will forgive me a lot."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "Mr. Paul, you don't have to be so polite."

While they were talking, the manager of the catering department took them to the door of the box, and respectfully said to the four people: "Mr. Wade and three distinguished guests, please come inside!"

The four of them stepped into the box, and Charlie Wade invited his father-in-law to sit in the main seat, and then said to his first love, Matilda, "Auntie, sit with my father-in-law, after all, you have been so many years. I haven't met, there must be a lot of things you want to talk about."

Matilda nodded, and said with a smile: "Yeah, then you can sit with Paul. I think your conversation is quite speculative."

Charlie Wade hurriedly nodded and agreed, but kept reminding himself in his own heart that he should be a little more cautious when speaking in front of Paul, because this person does not seem simple.

After sitting down, Charlie Wade handed the menu to the two elders and asked them to order some meals they liked.

Jacob Wilson hurriedly said: "Oh, Matilda, I still remember which dishes you like to eat, or let me have some?"

Matilda asked in surprise: "No, after all these years, do you remember what I like to eat?"

Jacob Wilson smiled and said, "Of course, I will definitely not forget this."

Having said that, Jacob Wilson picked up the menu and ordered several dishes with the waiter, all of which were local dishes from Aurouss Hilll.

Every time Jacob Wilson ordered a dish, Matilda's expression became even more surprised. After Jacob Wilson ordered several times in one breath, she was already dumbfounded by surprise.

Because every dish he ordered was a Aurouss Hilll dish that she liked very much back then.

Chapter 858

Matilda couldn't help sighing: "I didn't expect that you still remember these dishes. To be honest, some of them don't even remember me."

After speaking, Matilda said again: "Actually, the food in my hometown of Eastcliff is also delicious, but I don't know why after coming to Aurouss Hill and attending university, I prefer the local dishes of Aurouss Hill."

Jacob Wilson smiled and said, "I still remember that you always said that you would make me some southern region dishes for me to try. It's a pity..."

Speaking of this, Jacob Wilson hurriedly asked: "By the way, Matilda, we said just now about going to my house to cook and eat. How are you thinking about it? To be honest, I have been waiting for so many years, and I want to realize this wish!"

When Matilda heard this, her heart was even more moved, so she said, "I have no problem. I don't know if Paul has time at night."

After speaking, she looked at her son Paul and asked: "Son, do you have any other arrangements for the evening? If not, how about we go to your Uncle Wilson's house for dinner together? I can also see Uncle Wilson's daughter."

Paul simply nodded and smiled and said, "Then I really can't say no."

When Jacob Wilson heard this, he became excited!

Immediately he blurted out: "In this case, then we'll make it so, Matilda, what dishes are you going to cook for the evening?"

Matilda smiled and said, "Oh, now you let me say that I really can't tell for a while..."

After that, she suddenly remembered something and smiled: "Why don't we add a WeChat account for a while, I will tell you on WeChat when I think of it, and then I will trouble you to help me go to the vegetable market. Buy all the ingredients you bought, oh yes, you will also send me your home address, and I will go with my son around 5:30 in the afternoon."

Jacob Wilson was so excited that he took out his mobile phone, opened his WeChat scan function, and said, "Matilda, I will scan you."

The two have not been in contact for more than 20 years. Even if it is Jacob Wilson's phone number, Matilda asked for an old classmate to come temporarily, so the two have never added WeChat before.

In this era, WeChat has become more important than mobile phone numbers. Your mobile phone number courier, food delivery person, and even telemarketing and telecom fraud scammers all know, but your WeChat must be your good friend or someone you know.

Therefore, being able to add to WeChat is the closest contact method.

What's more, after adding WeChat, you can see the other party's circle of friends, you can see the other party's photos, the other party's videos, and every bit of the other party's life.

If one person has feelings for another person, then he will definitely want to take a look at all his circle of friends.

At this moment, Jacob Wilson and Matilda had almost exactly the same thoughts.

Seeing that the two had already added WeChat, Paul on the side also took out his mobile phone and politely said to Charlie Wade: "Mr. Wade, why don't we add WeChat to each other and leave a contact information?"

Charlie Wade actually doesn't like adding strangers to WeChat, but since Paul took the initiative to say it, but he is not easy to refuse, so he turned on his mobile phone and scanned it and said: "ok, let me scan you."

After the two added WeChat, Paul asked Charlie Wade curiously: "Mr. Wade doesn't know where to graduate?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "I'm not as high as I am. I just stay at home. My usual job is cleaning, washing clothes, buying vegetables, and cooking."

After listening to Paul, he was taken aback, but he didn't show any eyes or expressions that looked down upon Charlie Wade. He smiled and said, "Mr. Wade, this life is also very leisurely and elegant. To be honest, I am envious!"

Chapter 859

After all, Paul was born in a family of high-ranking intellectuals, so the overall quality is quite high, not like others, when he heard that Charlie Wade is the son-in-law, he looked at him differently.

And Charlie Wade didn't feel any embarrassment. After all, it was not a day or two for him to be a live-in son-in-law.

At this time, Paul said to Charlie Wade again: "By the way, Mr. Wade, since you know Mr. Cameron from Shangri-La, but I don't know if it is convenient for you to take some time to recommend me? After all, I just moved the company back to Aurouss Hilll. We also need to actively expand Aurouss Hilll's local resources and contacts. If Mr. Wade can help me with this, then I will definitely not treat you badly."

Charlie Wade did not want Paul to know how close he was to Cameron Isaac. After all, he almost guessed the relationship between himself and the Wade family just now. If he really got to know Cameron Isaac through himself, he might have learned from it. Taste more details.

So he apologized and said to Paul: "Mr. Paul, to tell you, I don't know Mr. Cameron, I just have a personal relationship with a friend of Mr. Cameron, and I am ashamed of this, that person is me. I met when I helped others watch Feng Shui."

"Feng Shui?" Paul asked in surprise: "Mr. Wade, are you a Feng Shui master?"

Charlie Wade smiled lightly and said calmly: "I can't talk about what Feng Shui master is. It's nothing more than reading a few books and learning with the old man for a while. To put it bluntly, it's somewhat foolish."

Jacob Wilson on the side was afraid that Charlie Wade would be embarrassed, and asked roundly, "By the way, Paul, what business does your company do? They have moved from the United States to Aurouss Hilll specifically, so the business should be very large, right?"

Paul smiled and said: "Uncle Wilson, our company is actually a multinational law firm, mainly providing high-end legal support for some Fortune 500 companies."

Jacob Wilson asked in surprise, "Paul, are you a lawyer yourself?"

Paul nodded and said, "Yes, Uncle Wilson, my dad and I are both lawyers. To be clear, I have inherited his mantle."

Jacob Wilson said with emotion: "The requirements for being a lawyer in the United States seem to be very high, right? Generally speaking, it seems that you need a PhD?"

Paul smiled slightly and said: "Uncle Wilson, you are right. There are two professions in the United States that have the highest requirements for academic qualifications. One is a doctor and the other is a lawyer. Generally speaking, a registered lawyer must be at least a law school. Graduated with a master's degree."

Jacob Wilson nodded slightly and asked: "Then what degree are you?"

Paul humbly said: "My Ph.D. graduated from Yale Law School."

Jacob Wilson nodded in amazement and said, "Yale University, that is a world-class university! It is really amazing to be admitted to a doctorate in this kind of university!"

Paul said seriously: "Uncle tells you that even if you get a doctoral degree, you only have the qualifications to be a regular lawyer. A truly good lawyer needs a long period of growth, some even 10 years. More than a year of working experience and practical experience in hundreds of successful cases are enough, so for me, I am just an entry-level elementary school student."

Speaking of this, Paul looked at his mother, Matilda, and said:

"Actually, I have just graduated. If I were to run our own law firm independently, my own experience would not be enough, so I'm just on the surface, I assumed the position of general manager, but it was my mother who really helped me behind the scenes, and even guided me to run the company. Without her help, the company would probably be destroyed in my hands."

Chapter 860

Jacob Wilson looked at Matilda in surprise, and blurted out, "Oh, Matilda, are you very proficient in law and law firms?"

Paul smiled and said: "Uncle Wilson, don't underestimate my mother. In fact, my mother is also a PhD student at Yale Law School. She and my father met and married at Yale Law School's Master's School. My dad founded the family's law firm, and my mother has been there to assist him. Without my mother's good help, my dad's career would not be successful.

Immediately, Paul sighed with self-deprecation: "It's just that my ability hasn't grown up yet, so I have to bother my mother to distract me."

Matilda smiled and said, "Son, in fact, you have done a very good job. Mom especially hopes that you can grow up as soon as possible, and then take over the company as a whole. In this case, Mom won't have to work so hard anymore."

With that, Matilda couldn't help sighing: "Mom is now back to China and Aurouss Hilll. The biggest idea in my heart is not to start our family's business in Aurouss Hilll, but to enjoy the retirement life of a Chinese Lady in Aurouss Hilll."

Afterwards, Matilda looked at Jacob Wilson and sighed in her heart: I have been working hard in the United States for so many years, but I am actually very tired of my career.

In addition, I have never really felt the taste of love, so I now want to go back to China, let go of all that before, concentrate on being an Lady, and if given the opportunity, she even hopes to be able to be with Jacob Wilson, his first love. If you continue the frontier, this will make up for the regrets that you have had for many years.

He also knows that lawyers in the United States are actually a very popular profession, because many lawsuits in the United States are very high in compensation, often tens of millions, even hundreds of millions of dollars.

According to media reports, a few years ago, someone sued Marlboro, a famous American tobacco brand, for inducing smoking and causing death. The American court even awarded hundreds of millions of dollars in compensation.

There was also an Asian man who was beaten by American Airlines security on the plane. That incident had a very bad impact on the airline. In the end, the lawyer won tens of millions of dollars in compensation for the Asian man. .

For lawyers, they also have to receive at least 30-50% of the compensation amount, and sometimes even higher.

Therefore, this is why the lawyers in the United States are very professional, and they are simply desperate to file a lawsuit, and even do everything they want.

Because the benefits behind this are really too great, it is possible to win a big lawsuit, and the direct compensation is divided into several million tens of millions of dollars, which is much easier than ordinary people to make money.

Therefore, in the United States, the status of lawyers is also very high, and they are all upper-class people.

Especially some of the more famous super heroes in the United States, people like this can generally become billionaires, and even many stars, billionaires and important American guests.

Therefore, Jacob Wilson couldn't help but feel more inferior in his heart, because he guessed that the family of Matilda must be very, very rich, even enough to make their mother and son become an upper class society in Aurouss Hilll.

In contrast, there is nothing I can tell...

Chapter 861

Shangri-La's meal was a joy for the guests. Charlie Wade's father-in-law was naturally very happy, and Matilda was also in a very good mood. Her husband passed away some time ago, and she has been a little sad. At this time, it feels like the rain has passed the day. .

Paul looked very pleased when he saw his mother in such a good mood.

As for Charlie Wade, he just hit the old man who felt sorry for him.

Because Matilda is so good, he can't imagine how many old men in Aurouss Hilll will pursue her crazy after such a beautiful, temperament, single and golden Lady returns to Aurouss Hilll. It is estimated that the old husband will only be troubled in the future. Increase, not decrease.

The mother and son came to China on the plane for so long, and their bodies were already a little tired, so after dinner, Jacob Wilson and Charlie Wade sent them to the room they had opened in Shangri-La without too much interruption.

When he arrived at the guest room department, Jacob Wilson was again irritated, because Matilda and her son both opened super luxurious executive suites.

Shangri-La's luxurious executive suite is second only to the presidential suite. It can accommodate four people and the rent per night is tens of thousands. It can be said to be very luxurious. You can live in this type of room if you can go out, and it's a set per person. The financial capacity of Matilda's family is very strong.

After bidding farewell, Charlie Wade and Jacob Wilson left the hotel together.

As soon as he left the hotel door, Jacob Wilson couldn't help but take a deep breath, then he couldn't help but sigh again.

Charlie Wade sighed with emotion when he saw him next to him, and couldn't help asking: "Dad, what are you sighing for?"

Jacob Wilson said with a sad face: "I really didn't expect it. I really didn't expect Matilda to have such a good life in the United States. I didn't expect that their family even had a law firm of their own.

Compared with her, I am really useless..."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and comforted: "Dad, I don't think Aunt Matilda has any intention of despising you, and Aunt Matilda is really low-key and very humble. She is definitely not that kind of special material woman. Don't worry too much about these material gaps."

Jacob Wilson sighed, and said helplessly: "I understand what you are saying, but as a man, I always feel that such a face is particularly shameless."

Charlie Wade said with a smile: "Dad, you think too much. Look at me. When Claire Wilson Wilson and I got married, I had nothing. I wanted money without money, status without status, ability without ability. At that time, the gap between me and Claire Wilson Wilson was much larger than the gap between you and Aunt Matilda, but didn't Claire Wilson Wilson get along well with me?"

Jacob Wilson was stunned suddenly, and after thinking about it carefully, it was really true.

I think so much now, it doesn't make any sense, because with my current ability and my current family background, it is impossible to surpass Matilda.

Is it because you can't surpass her, you can never be with her? of course not!

Jacob Wilson could see that after so many years, Matilda still has feelings for him, and she also said when she was at the airport, even if she was riding a 28 bicycle to pick him up, she would not have any opinion.

This is enough to see that Matilda doesn't care about material things. Thinking of this, he finally breathed a sigh of relief. But then, another problem came to my mind.

Chapter 862

He suddenly turned his head and looked at Charlie Wade, and asked worriedly: "Charlie Wade, do you think your mother can come back in this life?"

Charlie Wade couldn't help but asked him awkwardly: "Do you think I should say yes? Or can I not?"

Jacob Wilson was startled slightly, and said in embarrassment, "Hey, in fact, I know that you have very big opinions on your mother just like me in your heart, right?"

Charlie Wade said hurriedly, "Dad, I haven't said this before!"

Jacob Wilson hurriedly said: "Let's talk, you don't have to hide with me. After all, Claire Wilson Wilson is not here, what can we say, can't you?"

Charlie Wade knew what Jacob Wilson was thinking.

He must be looking for a comrade in arms now.

Because he didn't want his mother-in-law to come back, but his wife was very eager to find her mother-in-law and return home as soon as possible. Therefore, a psychological confrontation formed between the father and daughter.

The current situation is 1:1, and he acts as a neutral party, so now the old man urgently needs to win him over.

After all, there are only three people left in a family. If two people want their mother-in-law not to come back, then his psychological appeal will take the lead.

So, he looked at Charlie Wade and further induced: "Charlie Wade, your mother has scolded you every day for the past few years, and even asked Claire Wilson Wilson to divorce you repeatedly. I see it all! To be honest, Many times, as an old man, I feel sad for you. As the saying goes, a son-in-law is half a son! When did you mother treat you as half a son? You are not as good as an outsider in her heart! "

Charlie Wade looked at Jacob Wilson with a sincere face, and said seriously: "Dad, mom will come back or not, it doesn't depend on whether we two want her back, even if neither of us wants her back, she might be there tonight. Suddenly returned home, maybe even when Aunt Matilda was cooking, she suddenly rushed into the kitchen to fight with Aunt Matilda. The legs were on Mom's body. If we really want to come back, we can't stop her."

In fact, Charlie Wade himself can decide everything about Elaine Ma, but he can only say that to Jacob Wilson.

As soon as Charlie Wade said this, Jacob Wilson's face immediately became extremely frightened. He looked at Charlie Wade and asked with a trembling voice: "You said this would not be so coincidental? Ask your Aunt Matilda to eat at home tonight, if Your mother suddenly came back at this time, and the house must be fried. According to your mother's character, she is going to kill people..."

Seeing that Jacob Wilson was so frightened and worried, Charlie Wade hurriedly said: "Dad, I don't think Mom will be back tonight, so please feel free to invite Aunt Matilda to go home for dinner."

Jacob Wilson was said to be scared by him, and blurted out, "How can you be sure that your mother won't come back? Like you just said, the legs are on her body. What if she does come back? "

Charlie Wade, in his panic now, smiled calmly and said: "Don't worry, Dad, I promise you that Mom will not come back tonight. If she comes back tonight, she will turn her head off and kick it for you."

Jacob Wilson hurriedly said: "Oh, I don't want your head. I want your Aunt Matilda to be able to eat a meal in our house with peace of mind."

After that, Jacob Wilson said again: "I thought of a good way, good son-in-law, you must help me!"

Charlie Wade smiled and asked, "Dad, tell me, what is a good way? What do you want me to do?"

Jacob Wilson hurriedly said: "After your Aunt Matilda arrives in the afternoon, I will lock the door of the villa from the inside. In the meantime, if your mother comes back, you will go out and help me with it. If you are strong, even if you carry it, You have to carry her away. If you can't carry her, you will knock her out! In any case, you must never let her come in and meet your Aunt Matilda!"

Chapter 863

Charlie Wade had never thought that his old husband would be such a devil before.

But he can also understand the feelings of the old man.

After all, he is the first girlfriend that I haven't seen for more than 20 years, and she is still so perfect now. If she were her own, she would not dare to make any mistakes in this matter.

Moreover, Elaine Ma's character is indeed a super time bomb. Once such a person initiates a fire, it is possible that the power of nuclear weapons will really burst out.

So there is nothing wrong with him being so cautious.

But he didn't know that Elaine Ma was currently in the detention center, suffering from inhuman torture. If she didn't nod her head, she would never come out.

Jacob Wilson and son-in-law drove home, and Claire Wilson Wilson had just returned.

Upon seeing her, Charlie Wade hurriedly asked: "My wife, have you gone to the police station? What did the police say, is there any news about mom?"

Claire Wilson Wilson's face was a little pale and said: "The police told me that they have issued a notice of assistance in the whole city, and even communicated with the person in charge of the Blue Sky Rescue Team, but the current feedback is that no one has seen his mother. I couldn't find any clues about whereabouts."

Elaine Ma was taken away by the police directly when he was withdrawing money from the bank. Cameron Isaac had already said hello, so it was definitely impossible for them to reveal any clues.

And when Elaine Ma was at the bank, she was always in the VIP reception room, so in the process, she didn't contact any outsiders at all. Cameron Isaac at the bank also said hello, so the outside world could not have any clues. Blue sky It is impossible for the rescue team to find her.

He comforted Claire Wilson Wilson and said, "My wife, don't worry. Mom hasn't been missing for more than 24 hours. We can wait a little longer."

Jacob Wilson on the side also hurriedly agreed: "Yes, Claire Wilson Wilson, your mother only went out yesterday afternoon, and now it's barely a day and a night, so I don't think you need to worry too much."

Claire Wilson Wilson shook his head and resolutely said: "No, I must go and look for it again, otherwise I will always feel uneasy."

After speaking, she looked at Charlie Wade and blurted out: "Charlie Wade, you will help me look around in the afternoon and inquire everywhere, especially in places like the chess room of Mahjong Hall. My mother likes to go to that kind of place."

Charlie Wade immediately agreed and said, "Then I will look for it!"

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly ordered: "You must never deal with errands like yesterday, and then come back to deceive me!"

Charlie Wade promised again and again, "My wife, don't worry, I will definitely not. Today I will be careful and look for all the mahjong halls and chess rooms in Aurouss Hill!"

Claire Wilson Wilson immediately said, "Then every one of them must take a picture for me when you look for it!"

Claire Wilson Wilson felt a little depressed when he thought of last night when he said he was going to find his mother, but in the end he went to eat and drink with his dad.

Although she knew that all of this should be Dad's idea, she was still a little disappointed in her heart.

Chapter 864

Charlie Wade hurriedly asked her: "Wife, where are you going to find this afternoon?"

Claire Wilson Wilson said: "I am going to meet my mother's friends, as well as the beauty salon where they often go to make faces, and the club where they often go to spa."

Jacob Wilson hurriedly said at this time: "Claire Wilson Wilson, Dad will not go out to see your mother in the afternoon, because Dad invited his old classmates to eat at home, and my old classmate wants to show her hand to our family, so Dad will go in the afternoon. Buy some ingredients, and then tidy up the house and prepare."

Claire Wilson Wilson asked in astonishment: "Dad, haven't you and your old classmates already had dinner at noon? Why do you have to make another appointment at night?"

Jacob Wilson explained: "Eating at noon is at noon, and noon is eaten in a restaurant. People have returned home from a long distance, so they should always invite others to sit at home and have a home-cooked meal at home. This is to entertain friends. The serious way!"

Claire Wilson Wilson said angrily: "Dad, even if you want to entertain classmates, you have to divide the time. Now that mom is missing, why are you still in the mood to invite your old classmates to eat at home? You can't wait for my mom to find him. Will you treat me afterwards? After all, my mother is also your old classmate. Wouldn't it be better for you three old classmates to meet?"

"What a shit." Jacob Wilson muttered in his heart: It is because your mother is missing that I feel in the mood, and I have the courage to invite my old classmates to eat at home, otherwise I would be killed, I would not have the guts.

However, he must not say this in front of his daughter, so he hurriedly waved his hand and said, "Oh, you don't understand. They have been to the United States for more than 20 years. I have finally returned. I will definitely do my best as a landlord. One thing must be done on the day when someone comes back to have a sense of ritual! How can someone wait for someone to come back for a few days before picking up others? What is it? Others will think that your dad can't handle things. ."

Then, Jacob Wilson said again: "And they did not come back alone. They also brought their son with him. His son is about the same age as you and Charlie Wade, and he is still a well-known American lawyer who runs a Well-known law firms, you young people know each other, and there may be great benefits in the future. How rare is this opportunity!"

Claire Wilson Wilson said angrily: "I don't think there is anything rare. I don't want to know your classmate and your classmate's son. I just want to find my mother as soon as possible and bring my mother home."

Jacob Wilson couldn't help but scolded, "Why is your kid so ignorant? It's just a dinner, can't you not find you? Don't you eat dinner anymore? I think you are clearly trying to fight against your dad! "

"I don't!" Claire Wilson Wilson said anxiously: "I just don't feel in the mood to meet strangers at this time, and I am not in the mood to meet strangers."

Jacob Wilson said angrily: "That's Dad's old classmate, even if you look at your dad's face, you can't say such things!"

In fact, there was something in Jacob Wilson's subconscious that he didn't say, and he didn't dare to say it.

The sentence is: If your mother doesn't come back in this life, my old classmate is probably your stepmother! His son may be your brother in the future! It's always good to meet in advance!

Charlie Wade also persuaded at this time: "Yes, my wife, Aunt Matilda is Dad's old classmate after all. Dad should try his best to be a landlord. As children, we must also cooperate with each other. No face."

After all, he hurriedly said: "Well, let's go find mom in the afternoon. Anyway, I don't need to cook tonight. Aunt Matilda is here to cook. Then let Dad go shopping in the afternoon, and then Aunt Matilda. Come to cook at home, we will come back to eat directly after we finish looking for mom, we can go out to look for after dinner, then it won't take up our time to find mom too much, don't you think?"

Claire Wilson Wilson also felt that his speech was a bit heavy just now, and was worried about how to end the scene. Seeing that Charlie Wade was coming to fight the fire at this time, he followed his words, nodded and said, "That's it, just as you say. To do it."

Jacob Wilson let out a sigh of relief, and couldn't help but give Charlie Wade a grateful look...

Chapter 865

At this moment, in Aurouss Hilll Detention Center.

Elaine Ma watched everyone finish their lunch, and watched Gena finish his lunch, almost collapsed in sadness.

She hasn't eaten anything for more than 24 hours, and after a few more beatings, she was forced to sleep all night in a cold and humid toilet.

Now she is dizzy with hunger, and she is on the verge of fainting.

But she dared not express any dissatisfaction, because Gena might come up to beat herself again at any time.

Lady Wilson had a small appetite, and after she was full, half of the rice was left in the lunch box.

She deliberately carried the lunch box, paced to Elaine Ma, handed the lunch box to Elaine Ma, and asked with a smile: "I haven't eaten anything for one night a day. It's uncomfortable for me to be hungry? Would you like to have two bites?"

Elaine Ma looked at the Lady incredulously, and asked cautiously: "Mom, do you really let me eat it?"

Lady Wilson nodded and said, "Seeing that you have been hungry for so long, I still feel uncomfortable. As long as you don't think my Lady is dirty, just eat my leftovers."

The food at noon in the detention center was not good, just a stew and a rice, and there was nothing fishy in the stew.

But even so, Elaine Ma was still drooling when he smelled the scent of the food.

She still cares about whether the Lady is dirty or not. As long as she eats a bite, she can accept it as long as she doesn't let herself lick from the ground.

So she hurriedly said gratefully: "Thank you mom, thank you!"

After speaking, he had to reach out to pick up the Lady's lunch box.

Just when her hand touched the lunch box, the Lady directly dumped all the leftovers and rice soup on her head.

Afterwards, the Lady Wilson looked at her and sneered: "You don't think I am dirty, I think you are dirty, you are a shameless bastard woman who deserves to eat my leftovers. Pooh, even I am. If you throw it away or feed the dog, it won't be for you!"

Only then did Elaine Ma realize that she was being tricked by the Lady.

She didn't care about wiping off the food on her head. She broke down and cried: "When will you torture me? I've been so miserable, why are you still? Can't you let me go? Even though we two have not dealt with each other for so many years, have I hit you? Have I touched you? But what did you do to me? You want to kill me!"

Mrs. Wilson coldly snorted, and said disdainfully: "Do I have to beat me before I can beat you? If you are in awe of me and are honest and polite, invite me into Thompson First villa, Am I still doing this to you?"

Elaine Ma cried and said, "I know I was wrong. I really know I was wrong.

If I have a chance to go out, I will use the eight-lift sedan chair to carry you back to the villa of Thompson First, and I will give the best Room for you to live in."

After speaking, Elaine Ma said again: "Didn't I have written you a letter? You just have to wait until your 15-day detention period expires and take that letter to find Claire Wilson Wilson, she will definitely be in the villa. I arranged a room for you in my villa! You can enjoy the good fortune in Thompson First, why are you still having trouble with me now?"

Lady Wilson gritted her teeth, directly used the aluminum lunch box, slammed it on top of her head, and said sharply: "Why am I having trouble with you? I tell you, I can't wait to kill you! Don't say beat you. Pause, even if I kill you and take your skin off, I won't get rid of my hatred! Lady, I have come here in my life, when have I suffered such humiliation? All this is thanks to you, you think I will forgive Is it you?"

Chapter 866

After that, the Lady Wilson immediately shouted to Wendy : "Wendy, come here, our daughter takes her to the bathroom and washes away the food on her head with cold water! Otherwise, later in case she ate secretly behind us, On the contrary, it is cheaper for her!"

Elaine Ma shouted in horror: "It's almost winter now! You are going to wash my head with cold water, you are going to kill me!"

Gena, who had been watching the excitement by the side, suddenly said coldly: "Stop the damn talking nonsense, otherwise, not only will the Lady use cold water to wash your head, I will also give you a shower with cold water!"

Elaine Ma was so frightened that she could only cry loudly while letting her mother and niece drag her into the bathroom.

Immediately afterwards, Wendy put her head under the faucet of the mop pool and screwed the faucet to the maximum without hesitation!

The cold tap water directly washed Elaine Ma's head, leaving her brain blank, followed by the biting cold, which made her shiver all over. She was holding her head full of cold water, looking at the grinning Lady Wilson, begging: "Mom, I beg you, give me a towel, or I will really freeze to death!"

The Lady Wilson sneered: "Just you still want a towel, do you deserve it? If you really freeze to death, it will be a good thing. You are free yourself, and the Lady will also relieve my hatred!"

As she said, she looked at Elaine Ma and said sarcastically, "Or you can just cooperate with it. If you die, it's a hundred!"

Elaine Ma collapsed on the ground and cried loudly. The Lady glanced at her in disgust, and said to Wendy : "Let this b*tch cry here, let's go!" Wendy also said happily: "btch! Your good days have just begun! Now it's to clean up you. When I finish cleaning up your old btch, I will definitely find a chance to clean up that little b*tch Claire Wilson Wilson!"

.....

Claire Wilson Wilson never dreamed that her wonderful mother was being tortured to death by her grandma and her cousin.

Because her father Jacob Wilson was unwilling to come out to find her mother, she could only split up with Charlie Wade planner, one to find the chess and card room and the other to the beauty salon.

Charlie Wade got the car key from the old man, and was about to get into the old man's car, and went to the chess and card room to behave. Claire Wilson Wilson grabbed him and asked in a low voice: "Charlie Wade, I ask you, Dad What is the specific situation of that old classmate?"

Charlie Wade asked curiously: "Wife, what do you want to know?"

Claire Wilson Wilson said: "I want to know her appearance, temperament and personality, as well as her family situation, relationship situation, and her future plans after returning to China."

Charlie Wade said truthfully: "That Auntie Matilda is really very beautiful, has a very good temperament, and her personality feels very low-key and humble, and very very friendly. As for her family situation, her husband is very simple. Has passed away, now she and her son are dependent on each other."

After speaking, Charlie Wade hurriedly changed his words: "It can't be said that it is dependent on each other. After all, the mother and son are still very powerful. I heard that they have opened a very large law firm, and it is designed for the world's top Fortune 500 companies. They have already moved their businesses back to Aurouss Hilll, and their future plans are definitely to prepare for retirement in Aurouss Hilll."

Chapter 867

"what?!"

Claire Wilson Wilson was shocked and said: "Good looks, good temperament, and perfect personality. More importantly, he is widowed and gold.. Isn't this the diamond king among middle-aged aunts?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said seriously: "It is indeed the king of the diamond, but this auntie Matilda does not look like an aunt at all, more like an older sister."

Claire Wilson Wilson asked in surprise, "Is it so exaggerated? How does she look like?"

Charlie Wade said: "Looking at it is only thirty-seven or eighty years old, up to forty."

"real or fake?!"

Claire Wilson Wilson's face was unbelievable, she rarely saw a woman who was 50 years old, she would look like thirty-seven or eighteen.

Even a movie star is not so outrageous, right?

Charlie Wade said seriously: "I didn't make any jokes with you at all.

Aunt Han looks really young. You know that movie star Kelly Hu, Aunt Han looks younger and more beautiful than her."

Claire Wilson Wilson exclaimed: "So exaggerated?"

Charlie Wade smiled calmly and said, "It just so happens that she will come to eat at home tonight, you will know when you meet."

Claire Wilson Wilson no longer doubted Charlie Wade's words. She said anxiously: "This woman is her father's first love. Now she is widowed and the conditions are so good. It just so happens that the relationship between my father and my mother is so unstable and even more angry. The human thing is that my mother is still missing at this time. Wouldn't it be necessary for this woman to take advantage of this?!"

Charlie Wade smiled a little embarrassedly and said, "Wife, that's not what we can manage as children. After all, parents also have their freedom. As children, we can only respect, not objection."

Claire Wilson Wilson suddenly became impatient. Although she knew that her mother was not a good and virtuous woman, she was also her own mother after all. How could she want to see her mother abandoned by her father? Thinking of this, her heart became even more eager, eager to find her mother quickly and take her home.

So she hurriedly said to Charlie Wade: "Oh, it's getting late. Let's start separately. You must do as much as possible this afternoon. You must arrange all the chess and card rooms. You must take the picture of your mother, carefully. Go and ask every owner and every customer in the store."

Charlie Wade said: "I don't have a picture of my mother."

For Elaine Ma, Charlie Wade was too late to hide, how could he keep any photos of her in his mobile phone.

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly said, "I will immediately send you the ID photo my mother took some time ago!"

.....

After Charlie Wade drove out of home, he started near his home and shuttled between the chess and card rooms.

Every time he went to the entrance of a chess and card room, he would take a photo of the front entrance of the chess and card room, then another photo of the chess and card room, and then send the two photos to his wife to prove that he had been there.

Whenever Claire Wilson Wilson asked him how it turned out, his rhetoric was the same: the boss said that he had never seen this person, and the guests said that he had never seen this person.

Although he didn't really ask, he knew the result must be like this.

Claire Wilson Wilson looked at the various feedbacks he kept sending. On the one hand, she knew that Charlie Wade was indeed helping her find her mother, but on the other hand, she couldn't find any clues for a long time, and her heart became more and more anxious.

It is said that the best time to solve a disappearance case is the 24 hours before the disappearance. If a clue can be found in these 24 hours, there is a higher probability that the person will be found.

Chapter 868

At this time, 24 hours had passed since Elaine Ma disappeared.

So Claire Wilson Wilson was also very worried and nervous now, so he went to the beauty salons and clubs that Elaine Ma often went to without stopping.

She came to one of the beauty salons, took the picture of Elaine Ma and asked the boss: "Hello, have you seen the woman in the photo?"

The boss looked at Elaine Ma's picture and said in surprise: "Oh, isn't this Sister Elaine Ma?"

Claire Wilson Wilson asked in surprise, "Do you know my mother?"

The boss smiled and said, "So you are Sister Elaine Ma's daughter. Sister Elaine Ma used to be a frequent visitor to me, but I haven't seen her much these days. Sister Elaine Ma used to come to me with friends. What's the matter? Has Sister Elaine Ma disappeared?"

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded and asked, "Then do you know his or her friends? Can you give me a contact method?"

The boss suddenly thought of something and blurted out: "Oh, a friend of Sister Elaine Ma is making a face with me now, should I call her out and ask?"

Claire Wilson Wilson said gratefully, "Thank you so much, for your hard work!"

"You're welcome, you should."

The boss smiled slightly, picked up the walkie-talkie, and said: "Lili, you call Sister White, just say Sister Elaine Ma's daughter has come to Sister Elaine Ma, and I want to ask her face to face."

A response came quickly from the intercom: "Okay, Sister White said this will come."

Claire Wilson Wilson waited for a while and saw a fat, very rich and burly woman walking out with a mask on her face.

This woman's face is a bit too fat, so the entire mask is a little bit too much, and it looks somewhat funny.

But Claire Wilson Wilson didn't mean to laugh. She just looked at each other expectantly, hoping to get some information and clues from her mother.

That White Sister walked up to Claire Wilson Wilson, looked her up and down, and asked, "Are you Elaine Ma's daughter?"

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly said respectfully: "Hello Aunt White, I am Elaine Ma's daughter, I would like to ask you, have you seen my mother since yesterday?"

"Damn!" Sister White snorted angrily: "Friends like your mother, we can't afford it!"

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly asked: "Aunt White, what do you mean by this? Does my mother have any conflicts with you?"

Sister White curled her lips and said, "How dare I have any conflicts with the old horse? I just called her to make a face with her yesterday afternoon, but do you know how your mother speaks?"

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly asked, "Aunt White, what did my mother say at the time?"

Sister White scolded angrily: "What kind of identity your mother said at the time, how could she have facials with me? She also said that people like us do facials in a beauty salon. She wants to buy the beauty salon directly. Come down, serve her alone, and said that she wants to draw a line with us!"

After speaking, Sister White looked at Claire Wilson Wilson and asked angrily: "Talk to yourself, is your mother going too far?"

"Everyone is a friend. I kindly asked her to come out and make a face together. She was so sarcasm and ridiculed me. She also said that I was a poor man and said that she had wealth that I could not imagine in my life! What do you mean? She Elaine Ma got rich? Can't look at our poor sisters?"

"If you don't look at me, just don't contact me. What are you doing to harm someone? I f*cking provoke you? Why did you come up to harm me? You really mad at me!"

Chapter 869

Sister White said annoyedly, the already tight mask on her face was collapsed by her twisted facial muscles.

She looked at the mask on the ground, feeling distressed.

Thinking of yesterday's events, she felt even more depressed to death.

Although she and Elaine Ma are not so good friends, they all have a good friendship. They often play together, make faces together, and often play cards together.

Friends like this, everyone has a lot of each other, and they usually greet each other with a polite smile, and no one will embarrass anyone, but Elaine Ma was on the phone yesterday and ridiculed herself so badly that she I was so angry that I didn't sleep last night.

Claire Wilson Wilson was puzzled, why did his mother talk to Sister White like this? She doesn't have much money, but she has been very low-key recently. Did she find any windfall yesterday?

He also said that he would buy a beauty salon and serve him alone, which proves that this windfall is not a small amount.

But the problem came again, even if she really got a windfall, there is no need to evaporate!

what on earth is this kind of happenings?

The more Claire Wilson Wilson thought about it, the more he didn't understand.

At this time, the angry sister White asked, "What? Your mother is missing?"

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly nodded and said, "Yes! She hasn't come back since she went out at noon yesterday, and she couldn't get through the phone, WeChat didn't reply, and the video couldn't get through. It's been a day and a night!"

Sister White was stunned, and then snorted and said: "It may be that after your mother got rich, not only did we old friends like us, but even you and your dad didn't even look at you, so she chose to evaporate. Got it."

As she said, Sister White sighed slightly and said, "I feel much better after hearing what you say. Elaine Ma can't even look down on her husband and daughter, or even poor sisters like us. It's also normal."

Claire Wilson Wilson felt a little bit in his heart. She thought of her aunt Hannah.

Hannah evaporated with more than 15 million people at the time. It is said that she still raised her little white face outside and eloped with her.

If mother really got a windfall, would she be the same as Hannah?

Thinking of this, Claire Wilson Wilson suddenly felt nervous.

She hurriedly asked Sister White again: "Aunt White, do you know any other clues?"

Sister White waved her hand and said, "I just made a phone call with your mother. From then to now, I have never contacted her again, and there is no news about her."

Claire Wilson Wilson could only say gratefully: "Thank you Aunt White."

Sister White said indifferently: "You don't need to be polite, but I should thank you. I was quite flustered in my heart. Listening to you, I suddenly feel better."

Claire Wilson Wilson could only say sincerely to Sister White: "Aunt White, I'm really sorry, I apologize to you for my mother."

Sister White waved her hand and said seriously: "You don't need to apologize. If your mother can't find it, then forget it. But if you can find it, you tell her not to show up in front of me in the future, otherwise I don't care about her. How rich I am, I will smoke her with a big mouth."

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded awkwardly, and after thanking him again, he hurriedly left the beauty salon.

After coming out, Claire Wilson Wilson has been thinking about this issue.

According to mom's character. If she really talked to Sister White like that on the phone, it would prove that she was really rich, otherwise she would definitely not dare to talk like that.

But I remember that at noon yesterday, my mother wanted to ask Dad for money and went to the beauty salon to make a face. Later, she went to Charlie Wade to ask for it, but Charlie Wade didn't give it.

Chapter 870

In other words, my mother was penniless.

So why didn't she miss that Aunt White while on the phone not long afterwards, in the tone of a nouveau riche?

To say that in such a short period of time, she suddenly became rich?

Where does the money come from?

Taking a step back, even if she is really rich, why should she disappear? Is it really because you hate yourself and your father when you have money?

It's not impossible with her mother's personality, but she has been thinking of Thompson First for a long time.

Even if she did get a fortune by accident, it stands to reason that she should hide the money quietly, and then continue to come back to enjoy the luxurious Thompson First Villa. This is in line with her mother's behavioral style.

It wasn't that after getting a sum of money, the world evaporated immediately, and she couldn't even live in the villa, not to mention that she didn't even live in the villa to sleep.

The more Claire Wilson Wilson thought about it, the more he felt that this matter was strange and very contradictory, and there was a strange and unexplainable aura everywhere.

However, the clues stopped abruptly when they arrived at Aunt White, and for the time being, he couldn't continue to explore other clues.

Therefore, to solve these mysteries, more clues must be found. Once the mystery is solved, then the whereabouts of mother will be clear.

Otherwise, you may never find where your mother is.

.....

Charlie Wade drove around Aurouss Hilll City, thinking about his mother-in-law.

He saw his wife getting more and more anxious, and he didn't want his wife to suffer such torture from the bottom of his heart.

But now he hasn't figured out exactly what method should be used to release Elaine Ma.

As he drove through an intersection, he saw the eye-catching words on the intersection billboard: "All the people mobilize, resolutely crack down on MLM and MLM behavior in disguise, completely eradicate the soil for MLM survival, and build a safe and harmonious Aurouss Hilll!"

Seeing this slogan, Charlie Wade suddenly had a plan.

So he immediately called Cameron Isaac and asked, "How is my mother-in-law in the detention center recently?"

Cameron Isaac respectfully said: "Master, your mother-in-law suffered a bit in the detention center. It seems that everyone in the cell is not pleasing to her eyes, so she has to be treated."

Charlie Wade snorted and said, "She used to scold Wilson Lady so badly before, and this Lady has such a grudge. This time, she will definitely not let her go easily. It is normal for her to suffer a bit."

Cameron Isaac asked, "Master, do you think about how to solve this problem? With all due respect, your mother-in-law has suffered so much in it. If you let her out, she will definitely not give up, the first thing. It must be trouble for you."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Don't worry about this. I already have a general plan, but I still need your cooperation. Then I must cooperate with me and act her in a big show."

Cameron Isaac hurriedly said, "Master, you can just ask if you have any questions."

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently: "I am not ready to let her out now, I will contact you when I let her out."

"Good master!"

Chapter 871

Charlie Wade pretended to look for it all afternoon, and received a call from Jacob Wilson, saying that Matilda was going home soon, so he drove home.

Claire Wilson Wilson also received a call from her father. Although she was reluctant, he drove home.

Loreen heard that there was a visitor at home, and said tonight that she did not want to go home for dinner.

Claire Wilson Wilson wanted her to accompany her, so she wouldn't be so embarrassed, but Loreen felt embarrassed herself, so she used the excuse to work overtime and eat out by herself.

Claire Wilson Wilson couldn't force it, so he said to Jacob Wilson, "Dad, after your classmates come later, try not to talk about me. I am not in a good mood today, and I don't want to talk too much."

Jacob Wilson also knows that if his daughter is willing to go home at this time and eat this meal with herself and her old classmates, even if it is a lot of face, he can't force her.

So he said to Charlie Wade: "Good son-in-law, you have to talk more at the dinner table later, and be more active and active."

"Okay." Charlie Wade nodded awkwardly.

At this time, the door bell in the villa rang, Jacob Wilson couldn't wait to walk to the videophone, and immediately said to Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson excitedly: "They are here, I'll open the door."

After speaking, he opened the door and went through the yard to open the door.

Claire Wilson Wilson looked at Jacob Wilson's positive look, couldn't help sighing, and asked Charlie Wade: "You said my dad and that Matilda, is there something else?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "I haven't seen each other for more than 20 years, what can I do? You must be thinking too much."

Claire Wilson Wilson said earnestly: "But when I see my dad like this, I seem to be a little too excited."

Charlie Wade comforted: "You don't know about this. After all, they have had a history."

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly said: "But my dad has already married my mother, and he and my mother are not divorced! He is responsible for and loyal to the marriage!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "It seems like Dad really had an extramarital affair. He just saw his first love today. How could it be so serious as you said."

Claire Wilson Wilson sighed and said, "I'm just worried, not that they already have something now."

At this time, Matilda was outside the villa, marveling at this top-notch villa in Aurouss Hilll.

She has been away from China for a long time, so she doesn't understand many domestic real estate and other things, nor does she understand what the words Thompson First A05 mean in China.

When Jacob Wilson told her the address, he only talked about Thompson First Villa A05, and Matilda didn't think too much.

But after she came to Thompson First, she discovered that the villa in this place turned out to be so luxurious and atmospheric.

Seeing that Jacob Wilson lives in such a luxurious villa area now, it made her faintly surprised.

Because she used to ask her classmates to inquire about Jacob Wilson's recent developments over the years, but the feedback she got was that he was not very happy, which made her a little confused.

While waiting for Jacob Wilson to open the door outside the gate of A05, Paul was bored, so he checked the approximate selling price with his mobile phone, and said to his mother: "The house here needs about 80 million to more than one hundred million. I read it online. It is said that Type A villas are the largest in size, and they probably sell for tens to hundred million."

Chapter 872

Matilda nodded and said, "More than one hundred million is not expensive, but I don't quite understand. In your Uncle Wilson's situation, how can he afford the villa here?"

Paul smiled slightly and said, "This requires you to ask him personally."

Matilda also smiled and said, "Maybe it's called hiding."

Paul thought for a while, and said, "Well, let me be honest, I feel that Uncle Wilson should be a good person, but not like a hidden person."

Matilda asked curiously: "What do you mean by that?"

Paul said, "It's nothing, it just feels a little strange."

Matilda smiled and said: "Well, let's not discuss this. I should be happy for the old classmate who can live in such an expensive villa. As for the others, we don't have to ask about it."

Paul nodded and said seriously: "Mom, you are right."

At this time, Jacob Wilson had also opened the door of the villa. When he saw Matilda and Paul, he immediately said excitedly: "Oh, Matilda and Paul, you are here, please come in, please come in quickly."

Matilda smiled and said: "Oh, Jacob Wilson, your house is really beautiful. When I entered this community just now, it felt very high-end and atmosphere. This should be the best villa area in Aurouss Hilll?"

Jacob Wilson said modestly: "I don't know if it's the best. Actually, I just moved in just two days ago."

Matilda and Paul walked into the villa with Jacob Wilson.

Seeing the exquisite decoration in the yard, Matilda couldn't help sighing: "It seems that the decoration of your villa is also a lot of thought. It should be designed for you by a high-end designer?"

Jacob Wilson said: "In fact, this villa was not decorated by us. In fact, this villa was also given to him by my son-in-law's friend."

Paul's expression was very surprised, and he blurted out: "Uncle Wilson, this villa is worth more than one hundred million, right? Mr. Wade's friend was willing to give him such an expensive villa?"

Jacob Wilson nodded and said, "Not only the villa was given away, but even the decoration was paid for by his friends. We just bought some furniture by ourselves and didn't spend much money."

Paul couldn't help asking: "Is this villa also earned by Mr. Wade showing Feng Shui for others?"

Jacob Wilson happily said, "You really guessed right. This villa is his reward for showing others Feng Shui. Let me tell you, don't look at my son-in-law. It seems that there is nothing serious about doing things, and there is nothing to do. , But his ability to look at Feng Shui is truly unique in the upper class of Aurouss Hilll!"

Paul felt a little strange in his heart. Normally speaking, no matter how expensive Feng Shui masters are, there will be more than one or two hundred million price tags once, right?

Charlie Wade showed others Feng Shui, and others gave him such a good villa, coupled with exquisite decoration, this should not only be for the villa, there must be other reasons.

It seems that Charlie Wade is definitely not an ordinary person!

Thinking of this, Paul couldn't help but exclaimed: "Actually, I also believe in Feng Shui. But I have never met a very good and very capable Feng Shui master. Since Mr. Wade is so capable, then my new company must Ask him to help me take a look at Feng Shui."

Jacob Wilson smiled and said: "Then you can go back and talk to him, Charlie Wade is very interesting, I believe he will not refuse you!"

Chapter 873

At this time, Jacob Wilson had taken Matilda and her son Paul and walked in through the yard.

When they met, Claire Wilson Wilson was shocked by Matilda. She heard Charlie Wade say that Matilda's temperament and appearance were very good, but she didn't expect it to be so good.

Being a woman, Claire Wilson Wilson even envied Matilda a little.

After all, it is really amazing that a woman can maintain such a good level at the age of about 50.

Matilda was also a little surprised when she saw Claire Wilson Wilson. She really didn't expect that the daughters of Jacob Wilson and Elaine Ma were so beautiful and outstanding.

The Paul next to him, at the moment he saw Claire Wilson Wilson, couldn't help being a little stunned. He was also shocked by Claire Wilson Wilson's beauty and temperament.

Jacob Wilson introduced at this time: "Matilda, let me introduce to you, this is my daughter Claire Wilson Wilson."

After that, he looked at Claire Wilson Wilson again, and said with a smile: "Claire Wilson Wilson, this is my father's old classmate, Matilda, you want to be called Matilda."

Claire Wilson Wilson was shocked by Matilda's beauty and temperament, and at the same time was even more worried about the relationship between her father and her.

Because compared with Matilda, my mother really seems to be a thousand miles away. In addition, the relationship between the two of them is not stable. Now that there is such a strong competitor, I am afraid it will become More fragile.

However, out of politeness, she shook hands with Matilda very warmly, and said with some respect: "Hello, Matilda."

Matilda smiled, and sighed sincerely: "Claire Wilson Wilson, you really look so beautiful!"

Claire Wilson Wilson said modestly: "Auntie Matilda, I really appreciate it. Compared to you, I am far behind."

"No, no," Matilda said seriously: "When I was your age, I was not as beautiful as you."

After that, she looked at Charlie Wade and said with a smile: "Charlie Wade Wade is really blessed to marry such a good wife."

Charlie Wade smiled and nodded and said, "Matilda, you are right. This is my blessing."

Matilda smiled and introduced her son again, and said: "Claire Wilson Wilson, this is my son. He is called Paul. He should be one year younger than you. It stands to reason that he should call you sister."

Paul on the side hurriedly stretched out his hand to Claire Wilson Wilson and said seriously: "Hello Miss Wilson, I am Paul, my full name is Paul Smith, and I am glad to meet you."

Claire Wilson Wilson was hesitating whether to shake hands with Paul, and Matilda hurriedly said: "Son, Claire Wilson Wilson is a married person. It is necessary to avoid suspicion when contacting the opposite sex." Only then did Paul come back to his senses, hurriedly withdrew his hand, and smiled awkwardly: "I'm really embarrassed, it's because I was rash." Claire Wilson Wilson nodded slightly and smiled as a response. Charlie Wade couldn't help being surprised, Matilda's tutor was really extraordinary.

Jacob Wilson couldn't wait to say at this time: "Matilda, I have already bought all the ingredients and seasonings related to those dishes, and I'm in the kitchen now. I'll go in and beat you, what do you think?"

Matilda naturally nodded and smiled: "No problem, let's cook a meal for the children today."

After all, she said to Paul: "Son, you have a good chat with Charlie Wade and his wife. In the future, you have to develop as much as possible for a long time. Everyone knows and understands more. It is good for everyone's future development. Young people should Communicate more and make more friends to expand your network."

Paul nodded hurriedly and said, "Mom, don't worry, I know."

Jacob Wilson took Matilda to the kitchen and turned around to explain to Charlie Wade, saying, "My son-in-law, there is my good tea on the coffee table. You can make a cup and give Paul a taste."

Chapter 874

Charlie Wade nodded: "Okay Dad, I see."

Jacob Wilson hurriedly said, "Also, don't forget the thing I reminded you!"

Charlie Wade knew what he was talking about. He wanted to pay more attention to himself. If the mother-in-law came back, she would not be allowed to enter the door and break Matilda's affairs in her own house. So he smiled and said: "Dad, don't worry, I will give you a military order for this matter, and there will be no mistakes."

Jacob Wilson gave him a thumbs up and exclaimed, "Really my good son-in-law, I will not treat you badly in the future!"

After speaking, Jacob Wilson took Matilda and plunged into the kitchen. Claire Wilson Wilson asked Charlie Wade curiously: "What did Dad tell you? The two of you are mysterious and seem to be engaged in a shameful conspiracy."

Charlie Wade said, I definitely can't tell you, did your dad let me be here to guard you? If your mother comes back, I will carry her away. If I can't carry it, I will knock her out and carry her away.

So he smiled and said, "It's okay. Dad just asked me to entertain Paul. Don't let him think that our family has no hospitality."

"Really?" Claire Wilson Wilson was full of disbelief.

Charlie Wade said seriously: "Of course it's true. Didn't you hear that he asked me to make tea for Paul just now?"

As he said, he hurriedly greeted Paul and said, "Come here to Paul, and I will give you a taste of the high-end tea my father-in-law bought from the WeChat tea seller."

Charlie Wade feels that Paul is an American, even if he is half of Chinese ancestry, he probably doesn't know much about tea when he lives in the United States.

Therefore, the ordinary tea that his father-in-law bought by the deceit, should still be able to fool him.

Unexpectedly, Paul immediately smiled and said, "Oh, what I like most is drinking tea. Since Uncle Wilson has good tea here, I must try it."

Charlie Wade was taken aback for a while, and said with a smile: "Since you understand tea, then I think you might be disappointed."

With that, he took Paul to sit down on the sofa, ready to make tea.

Claire Wilson Wilson didn't really want to chat with his father's first lover's son, so he said to the two of them: "You two men talk, I don't like tea too much, and I have a headache. I'll go back to the house and rest for a while, sorry. I'm lost."

Paul hurriedly stood up and said politely: "Okay Miss Wilson, take a rest first."

Claire Wilson Wilson went upstairs, and Charlie Wade said to Paul: "Sit down, don't stand and talk."

After Paul sat down, he looked at the Fujian yellow rosewood sofa sitting under him, and said in surprise: "The material of this sofa is really good! At first glance, it is made of sea yellow material, and it is old. As soon as the pulp comes out, the texture of this wood is particularly beautiful, a good thing!"

Charlie Wade was a bit stunned. He really didn't expect that although Paul was a mixed race, his mother was completely a Chinese.

He speaks good Chinese, knows tea, knows wood, and even knows patina. The other half of this guy's American ancestry is not fake, right?

And why is his hobby so similar to his dad?

Had it not been for his blond hair and a standard white skin color, he would even doubt if he had been left behind by the old man.

Chapter 875

So Charlie Wade looked at Paul and asked curiously: "Paul, did you often come to China before?"

Paul shook his head and said with a smile: "I just come here on business occasionally, but every time it doesn't take more than a week."

Charlie Wade asked with a puzzled look: "Then how do you know so much about tea, Chinese furniture and wood?"

Paul smiled and said: "It's mainly because my mother likes these. I only came into contact with these when I was a child."

As he said, Paul said again: "Don't look at me as if I look like a mixed race, and I seem to be more of a white race, but in fact I am a downright China person in my bones. I have been very influenced by my mother since I was a child. I like Chinese culture and Chinese food, Chinese habits and everything in China."

"That's it."

Charlie Wade nodded, boiled water in the sea of tea, and started to prepare tea, while letting people be fooled into buying tea on WeChat.

After brewing the tea, Charlie Wade poured a cup for Paul and himself, and smiled and said to Paul: "Come, taste my old man's tea."

Paul nodded and thanked him, then took his teacup to his lips and took a sip.

Immediately afterwards, his expression became a little weird.

After tasting it for a long time, he said embarrassedly: "Uncle Wilson's taste in drinking tea is very strange. To be honest, I can't taste the goodness of this tea. Why does Uncle Wilson treat it as a good treasure? Where's the tea?"

Charlie Wade thought to himself that this Paul was really acquainted, much better than his own dad.

I am a silly old man who has been drinking this kind of tea. Not only did he fail to drink it, but the more he drank, the better it tasted.

If he hadn't stopped him, he would definitely find the WeChat girl who sells tea to buy some more.

So he smiled and said to Paul: "My old dad bought this tea from a liar on WeChat. It cost a lot of money, but it's really not a good thing."

Paul also understood what was going on. He nodded slightly and said to Charlie Wade: "I have the superb Jin Jun eyebrows that I entrusted to others and bought from the south. I have a chance to give some to Mr. Wade next day. Uncle Wilson tasted it. The tea was really good. It was a tea that was picked and fried by the top master."

Charlie Wade politely thanked him and said, "My old man doesn't know much about tea, but he just likes it very much, so if you give him good tea, it will be a violent thing. Just keep drinking this tea and entertain yourself."

In fact, Charlie Wade's psychological activity is that my son-in-law hasn't given him any good tea. Does it seem inappropriate for you, an outsider?

Paul didn't realize Charlie Wade's mentality. He thought of what Jacob Wilson told him before entering the villa, and looked at Charlie Wade curiously: "Mr. Wade, I heard Uncle Wilson say that this villa is for others to see. Is it true that you earned it from Feng Shui?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "That's right. Actually, it's not just looking at Feng Shui, but by looking at Feng Shui, it solves some of the more important problems for others."

Paul said very sincerely: "Mr. Wade will tell you that, I am a person who has studied the Book of Changes and gossip and other things, but I have never had a very good master to get started, and my spare time is also relatively limited. , So my research is relatively superficial."

After speaking, Paul said again: "By the way, Mr. Wade, my new company will be officially opened in Aurouss Hilll soon. Could you please help me take a look at Feng Shui?"

Charlie Wade saw that this Paul was very friendly to himself, and his EQ and quality were relatively high. In line with the principle of reaching out and not hitting the smiley person, he smiled and said, "When will your company open? I can take time to take a look."

Paul was very excited and said, "Thank you so much. My company will open the day after tomorrow. If you have time, can it be tomorrow?"

"it is good."

.....

In the kitchen at this moment, Matilda has put on her apron, and with the help of Jacob Wilson, she began to process the ingredients and prepare to cook.

Jacob Wilson hit the side, playing very diligently.

He dreams of having such a day, he and his beloved Matilda can have a sumptuous dinner in the kitchen together.

But he didn't expect that this dream would finally come true after twenty years.

Matilda was full of emotion. She has lived in the United States with her husband for more than 20 years, and the two often cook together, but she has never made herself feel the way she is now.

I feel that the man next to me, as long as he stands by his side, he can bring him an infinite sense of intimacy. Cooking for him by myself, busy in the kitchen with him, full of joy and satisfaction.

When two people are cooking together, there is always some friction and contact on the body. Sometimes they rub their hands, sometimes they touch other parts. Soon, the two of them are red. face.

After all, both of them have had a lot of past events, and they are each other's first love, and even when they first tasted the forbidden fruit, they both gave each other the first time.

So after so many years, after seeing each other again, the hearts of these two people are always affected by the memories of the past.

It is as if there is a strong magnetic field inside the two people, and it is the kind of magnetic field that the opposite sex attracts.

When Jacob Wilson laid hands on Matilda, he had been close to each other countless times, and had an impulse in his heart several times, wanting to hug the other person directly in his arms.

But this impulse was quickly suppressed by the timidity in his heart. Matilda herself is very capable in housework, but today because she has her first love around her, she also feels that no matter what she does, she seems a little absent-minded.

Even always distracted by the man around him.

A few times when she cut things, she almost cut her own hands because of distraction.

Jacob Wilson was also a little absent-minded by the side. His energy was not on washing vegetables, picking vegetables, and helping Matilda at all, but on Matilda himself.

At this moment, Jacob Wilson even regretted moving to Thompson First's big villa.

Because, if it were in the previous home, in such a small kitchen, two people were busy working in it, even if they borrowed it, they would have to touch or even stick to each other.

But the kitchen of Thompson First's villa is really too big.

Even if there are five people working in it at the same time, they can be in order without disturbing each other.

Therefore, every time Jacob Wilson wants to get closer to Matilda, he needs to find some special reasons or excuses.

Jacob Wilson struggled for a long time and didn't dare to hug Matilda.

Every time he mustered up the courage, he soon persuaded him again.

Finally, when Matilda put the shrimp used to make Longjing shrimp into the pot, Jacob Wilson suddenly showed courage and hugged her from behind Matilda, and murmured nervously and excitedly in his mouth: "Matilda, Over the past twenty years, I really miss you!"

Chapter 877

Suddenly, Matilda was hugged tightly by Jacob Wilson, and her whole body stiffened in a moment.

From the bottom of her heart, why didn't she hope that Jacob Wilson could hug herself tightly after twenty years?

After all, this is the only person he has loved in his life.

At this moment, the first lover from more than 20 years ago hugged himself so tightly, his hands clasped tightly on her belly, and the feeling seemed to have brought her back to the twenty-year-old. Youth years.

The true feelings in Matilda's heart were surging, and she suddenly couldn't help it, and put her hand on the other's hand.

But at the moment she put her hand on Jacob Wilson's hand, she suddenly realized that it was wrong for her to do so.

So she broke away from Jacob Wilson's embrace, arranging her hair in a panic, and said unnaturally: "Jacob Wilson, we two can't do this, you are married after all, and I can't sorry Elaine Ma! "

Jacob Wilson was immediately anxious, and blurted out: "At the beginning, she was jealous for you. When we were together, we were in such a good relationship. She knew that I was your boyfriend, and she took advantage of it when I was drunk. And in, if she were not so shameless, the two of us would have already been together!"

Matilda sighed lightly and said: "Even though the past was her fault, I was the one who chose to let go. Since I have chosen to let go and give you to her, I will not be like her back then. I'm sorry for that, and I'm sorry for her again. This is a matter of principle. Otherwise, would I be like her?"

Jacob Wilson was anxious and said, "That woman has almost ruined the relationship between the two of us for a lifetime. Do you still need to talk to her about principles at this time?"

Matilda said seriously: "In fact, after that incident happened back then, I also knew in my heart that all of this was caused by Elaine Ma behind her back. I know she is a villain, but I can't become a villain because of being hurt by a villain."

As she said, she looked at Jacob Wilson again, and said very seriously: "You are her husband after all. I can meet you and eat with you like a normal friend or an old classmate, but we can't have a relationship It's not possible at all..."

Jacob Wilson's tears were streaming down. He looked at Matilda and choked and said, "Is it impossible for the two of us in this life? After so many years, we can finally meet again, don't you want to make up for us? Was it a regret back then?"

Matilda's expression was also a bit painful, and she sighed: "Of course I want to, otherwise I won't make a special trip back from the United States, but I think that gentlemen must do everything they want when it comes to money and feelings. If we The two have a chance to be together again, and that must be after you and Elaine Ma divorced."

Jacob Wilson blurted out without hesitation: "Then I will divorce her immediately!"

Matilda said very seriously: "Jacob Wilson, don't get me wrong. I'm not saying that after you divorce Elaine Ma, the two of us can be together." Jacob Wilson asked nervously, "Matilda, what do you mean by this? I don't understand, don't you want to be with me?"

Matilda said sincerely: "Jacob Wilson, after all we haven't seen each other for so many years, how could we suddenly decide to be together? This is too trifling."

As she said, she said with a serious face: "We were in school when we were dating. At that time, we were all students. We had to study and socialize with our classmates every day. We never lived together. Life is different from falling in love. Especially at our age, we must not only consider our own life, not only our own feelings, but also our children and their views on each other."

Chapter 878

"So this kind of thing is not something we can decide with our lips when we are like teenagers. We must think carefully before we can make a more mature decision."

Jacob Wilson said immediately: "I can't accept what you said. I know you still have feelings for me in your heart, and I have feelings for you in my heart. Since both people have feelings, what can't you break through?"

With that said, Jacob Wilson forced him to ask: "Matilda, I want you to tell the truth, do you really feel about me now?"

Matilda said with some embarrassment: "How do you ask me to answer your question? After all, we were together back then, and the relationship was so good, and we were all our first loves, and we had regrets for more than 20 years. It's self-deception."

As he said, Matilda said again: "But as I said just now, this matter is not just about how you feel."

Jacob Wilson's tears flowed more and more, aggrieved like a child.

For so many years, he has suffered too much emotionally. So he felt great comfort at the moment when Matilda came back.

When he saw Matilda, he really realized that his previous life had always been in dire straits.

Therefore, he didn't want to live that kind of life for a minute.

Seeing Jacob Wilson crying like a child, Matilda's eyes were red.

She walked up to Jacob Wilson, used her sleeves to gently wipe away his tears, and said distressedly: "Jacob Wilson, you have worked so hard for so many years. If you can go back in time, return to the one before our graduation. At that time, even if you and Elaine Ma already have facts, I will not give up on you..."

As she said, she sighed sadly again: "It's a pity, time is gone, no one can let the years turn back. In a blink of an eye, we are all middle-aged and elderly people over half a hundred years old."

Jacob Wilson grasped her hand tightly and said excitedly: "Matilda!

Because we can't let the years turn back, we should not let down our future! Let us not let down in a second!"

At this point, Jacob Wilson was very excited, knelt on one knee, and blurted out: "Matilda, I want to be with you!"

Seeing him kneeling, Matilda suddenly panicked, and hurriedly pulled him up and blurted out: "Oh, Jacob Wilson, what are you doing? Get up!"

Jacob Wilson said stubbornly: "If you don't agree to me, then I won't be able to get up here!"

Matilda glanced at the door of the kitchen and said anxiously: "Oh, get up quickly, if you let the children come in, how can you explain this?"

Jacob Wilson said seriously: "If Paul comes in and sees it, then I will tell him that I love his mother. I want to be with his mother and hope to be blessed by him; if it was the first time I saw it, Then I will tell her that I love you, and I want to divorce her mother and be with you!"

Chapter 879

When talking about this, Jacob Wilson suddenly became emotional.

He stared at Matilda's eyes and said emotionally: "Matilda, I'm really not joking with you. Every word I say comes from the bottom of my heart. In the past twenty years since you left, I have never been happy, we are all this old, why can't we put aside those scruples and pursue a real love vigorously?"

Matilda sighed faintly: "Jacob Wilson, I have thought about everything you said, and to be honest, I also have illusions in my heart. It's just that the current situation is really not like before. The third party I hate most in my life. So I don't want to become a third party, so we shouldn't be so anxious about this matter. Give me some time, and I will give you some time."

Jacob Wilson hurriedly asked: "Are you willing to stay with me after I divorced Elaine Ma?"

Matilda's big beautiful eyes with a few fine wrinkles stared at Jacob Wilson unblinkingly, and said seriously: "Jacob Wilson, I admit that one of my big motives for returning to China is to hope to see you again. I hope I can continue with you again."

Having said that, she changed the conversation and said: "However, we are not 18 or even 20-year-old youngsters. We have to think carefully about things now. I have no way to answer the question of whether we are willing to be with you. After you are truly single, the two of us have tried to get along for a while, and I will answer your question solemnly."

Jacob Wilson blurted out without hesitation: "I am willing, I am willing, ten thousand are willing, one million are willing."

Matilda said seriously: "Jacob Wilson, I also hope that you will seriously and solemnly consider Elaine Ma, but your marriage. Consider whether there is still love between you two. If you still have love, then I will I wish you all the same as before; if you do not have love, then you must tell her clearly as early as possible. I still know your character very well. If you are constantly interrupted, you will always be disturbed."

Matilda is already a complete winner in life, but the only thing she has not won in her life is true love.

Therefore, she is obsessed with Jacob Wilson.

Everyone should have an obsessive object in his heart. If this obsessive object is with him, then his life is happy and his life is happy; but if the obsessive object is not with him Together, he will regret for life. Therefore, Matilda's return to China this time can be said to be nothing else, just to rediscover the unforgettable love during this period of sunset in life.

Jacob Wilson couldn't wait to say: "Matilda, as long as you don't dislike me and are willing to stay with me, I will divorce Elaine Ma!"

Matilda sighed softly and said, "Whether you and her were intentional or unintentional, or if you were used by others, in the final analysis, you have betrayed our feelings. If you are really willing to make up for it, then of course I am also willing. Give you a chance."

Recalling that year, Jacob Wilson suddenly stood up and once again hugged Matilda face-to-face.

While hugging her tightly, he said: "Matilda, I regretted what happened back then for more than 20 years. This time I will never let myself regret it again. You must wait for me!"

Matilda nodded and said softly: "Okay! I'm waiting for you! But you can't hold me like this anymore. What we do now is wrong!"

Jacob Wilson said stubbornly: "Whether it is right or wrong, I just want to hold you now!"

Matilda was struggling in her heart. I want to talk about her feeling of being held in his arms, but she has lived a decent life in her life and cannot accept that she is so close to a married man.

So she said in a panic: "Oh, you let me go first, it's not good for us, and I still have to cook..."

Jacob Wilson said: "I have you in my heart, and you also have me in my heart. What's so bad about this!"

After speaking, Jacob Wilson actually plucked up the courage, lowered his head and wanted to kiss Matilda.

Matilda hurriedly avoided him, and said very solemnly: "Have you talked to you for a long time?"

Chapter 880

As he was talking, a burning smell spread in the kitchen.

Matilda exclaimed: "Oh, my Longjing Shrimp!"

Having said that, he hurriedly pushed Jacob Wilson away, blushing and ran to the side of the stove, and when he looked into the pot, he let out a mournful cry: "It's over, it's over, the shrimps are all overcooked!"

Jacob Wilson quickly reminded him from the side: "Quickly turn off the fire, or it will burn out soon."

Matilda hurriedly turned off the gas on the stove. The shrimp that had been burnt in the pot said helplessly, "I blame you, originally this was my best dish, but it's all over now... ."

Jacob Wilson was also embarrassed and guilty, and said, "Should I go out and buy you a bag of shrimps again?"

At this time, both Charlie Wade and Paul, who were drinking tea outside, could smell the mushy smell spreading out of the kitchen, and Charlie Wade subconsciously said, "Is it a mess?"

Paul frowned and said, "My mother cooks very professionally. It shouldn't happen to her..."

Charlie Wade stood up and said, "Paul, sit down for a while. I'll go in and take a look. Don't be surprised."

Paul hurriedly said, "I will go too."

After saying that he was about to get up, Charlie Wade stretched out his hand, pressed him back, and said with a smile: "Sit and drink tea. I'll just go and see it."

What Charlie Wade was thinking at this time was, if your mother and my old husband were doing the firewood in the kitchen at this time, and the two of them were disheveled and forgot what was in the pot, how embarrassing would you rush in like this?

I'm different. My mother and my husband are not related by blood. I just went in to watch the show.

Paul didn't know that Charlie Wade's heart at this time was all thoughts of watching the show. Seeing that Charlie Wade had already stepped to the kitchen, he didn't insist on it anymore.

Charlie Wade came to the kitchen, opened the kitchen door, and probed in. Seeing that the two people in the kitchen were hurriedly tidying up and had burnt the pot, their clothes looked neat, and there was nothing wrong with them, Charlie Wade couldn't help feeling a little disappointed.

I wanted to come over and eat a melon, but I didn't even have a watermelon rind.

However, looking at the faces of his old husband and his first love, both seem to be a little red, and it feels as if the two should have had some closer contact just now.

So Charlie Wade deliberately pretended to be surprised and asked: "Dad, Matilda, I don't know what burned, are you two all right?"

Jacob Wilson hurriedly said in a panic: "Well, nothing is wrong, nothing is wrong, just accidentally, the pot burned, I am dealing with you Matilda, don't worry."

Charlie Wade said, two people can still see the confusion after watching a pot, you two must have done nothing good just now.

Jacob Wilson said with a guilty conscience at this time: "Charlie Wade, you should go out and have tea with Paul. It is enough to have me and Matilda here..."

Chapter 881

The two first-love lovers, who had been in the kitchen for more than an hour, finally made a table of food.

Jacob Wilson ran out to tell Charlie Wade and Paul: "Get ready, we can eat."

After speaking, he asked Paul again: "By the way, Paul, do you want to drink two cups at night?"

Paul smiled and took out a portable gift box and said: "Uncle Wilson, I just brought two bottles of 30-year-old Maotai. This bottle of Moutai is not an ordinary Moutai. It was an export version more than 20 years ago. It was exported to the United States, and then collected by collectors in the United States. It has been properly preserved until now. Each bottle is two kilograms."

Jacob Wilson was surprised and said: "For 30 years of aging more than 20 years ago, isn't it more than 50 years since now?"

"Yes!" Paul said with a smile: "It should be about 56 years."

Jacob Wilson sighed, "Oh, this wine is too precious. It's a waste to give it to me. You should keep it for yourself."

Paul hurriedly said: "Uncle Wilson, you don't need to be so polite to me. It was originally a gift for you. If you want, we will drink it with a bottle in the evening. If you don't want it, we will change another wine."

When Jacob Wilson heard this, he smiled and said, "In that case, thank you. Let's drink a bottle tonight!"

With that said, Jacob Wilson said to Charlie Wade again: "Charlie Wade, you go upstairs and told Claire Wilson Wilson to come down for dinner."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Then I will go upstairs and call her."

After that, Charlie Wade got upstairs and when he came to the bedroom, he found Claire Wilson Wilson lying on the bed with his back to the door. He said, "My wife, go downstairs to eat."

While talking, Charlie Wade was about to walk into the bedroom when he heard his wife say: "Oh, don't come here yet."

Immediately afterwards, Claire Wilson Wilson stood up, turned her back to Charlie Wade, as if reaching out and wiping her eyes.

Charlie Wade hurriedly walked around in front of her, looked at her red eyes, and asked: "Wife, why are you crying again?"

Claire Wilson Wilson shook his head and stubbornly denied: "I didn't cry, but my eyes were a little uncomfortable."

Charlie Wade said distressedly: "Still quibbling. My eyes are red like this, and I still said I didn't cry?"

After speaking, he asked softly: "Is it because of mom?"

Claire Wilson Wilson was silent for a moment, then sighed, nodded and said: "It has been almost 30 hours now, and there is no news yet. I'm really afraid that Mom will have some accident."

As she said, tears burst into her eyes again: "Furthermore, when such a big thing happened at home, I expected my dad to be able to stick with me, but I didn't expect him to..."

At this point, Claire Wilson Wilson couldn't speak anymore. He couldn't keep his emotions all at once, so he cried out.

Charlie Wade hurriedly stretched out his hand and took her in his arms. While gently tapping her back, he comforted in her ear: "My wife, don't cry, mom will definitely be fine. Don't worry, I assure you."

Claire Wilson Wilson sobbed and asked, "What can you promise me? You don't know where she is, you don't know what she has gone through, and you don't know whether she is in danger... ."

Charlie Wade said seriously: "Don't worry, since I have promised you, I will definitely not let her have trouble. I will ask those capable friends to help them find a way."

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly asked, "Really? You go to them, can they be willing to help?"

Chapter 882

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Don't worry about it. If someone agrees, they are stronger than us and have a wider network than us. Maybe they can help us figure out what happened."

Claire Wilson Wilson breathed a sigh of relief and said gratefully: "Charlie Wade, that's really thank you so much!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Silly girl, I'm your husband, why are you polite to me?"

As he said, he patted her on the shoulder hurriedly, and said: "Let's go, let's go down for dinner first, and after dinner, I'll go out to find my friends and see if others are willing to help. If they don't, then I will Ask them for help. Anyway, I promise you that Mom will come back safely!"

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded heavily, feeling a lot more comfortable.

Before that, she felt that she was the only one in the family about her mother's disappearance. Now that Charlie Wade stood with herself so resolutely and was willing to help, she was naturally relieved.

Charlie Wade really felt sorry for Claire Wilson Wilson at this time. It can be seen that Elaine Ma's disappearance has been worrying her all the time. If Elaine Ma is not allowed to come back quickly, Elaine Ma hasn't had any major incidents in the detention center, and his wife is probably already. Unbearable.

So he decided in his heart that he would implement it tomorrow. He had already figured out the plan, and he could get Elaine Ma back the day after tomorrow.

To comfort Claire Wilson Wilson, Charlie Wade took her downstairs. In the restaurant downstairs, Jacob Wilson and Matilda had already prepared a table of food.

On the other hand, Paul opened one of the rare bottles of Maotai aging. Seeing Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson walking down, he smiled and asked Charlie Wade: "Mr. Wade, would you like to have two glasses?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "Okay, then I will have two drinks with you."

Claire Wilson Wilson on the side reminded in a low voice: "Aren't you going to find your friends after dinner? Or don't drink, you can't drive after drinking."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "It's okay. I'll take a taxi after I finish drinking. It's the first time Mr. Paul came to the house. It's impossible to drink two drinks with him."

Hearing this, Claire Wilson Wilson nodded and said, "Okay, as long as you don't drive anymore."

At this time, Jacob Wilson walked out of the kitchen with a pot of Xihu beef soup, and saw Claire Wilson Wilson, he smiled and said, "Oh, Claire Wilson Wilson, try your Matilda's craftsmanship later. I just stole it."

After eating two bites, I can tell you this, just three words, which is great."

Claire Wilson Wilson had no appetite for food at all now, not to mention that the meal was made by her mother's rival in love back then, so she didn't want to eat it even more.

But because of face, she could only sit down at the table.

At this time, Matilda took off her apron and walked out of the kitchen with the bowls and chopsticks. Seeing that Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson were both down, she smiled slightly and said, "I'm sorry, I made you wait for a long time. time to eat."

Then, she asked Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson with concern: "You two must be hungry? Come on, move your forks!"

The table is full of home-cooked dishes of authentic taste made by Matilda.

There are braised prawns in oil, Thomaspo meat, fish head tofu, fried shrimp eel and so on.

These dishes are really beautiful, and they are not much more than professional restaurants.

Matilda said with some regret: "I originally had a Longjing Shrimp that I was better at, but I was too busy in the kitchen just now, so I didn't care about it all at once, and it's mashed up, so I can only make it for you next time. ."

When talking about the Longjing shrimp paste pot, Matilda thought of the scene where Jacob Wilson suddenly hugged herself in the kitchen. Two red clouds appeared on Matilda's beautiful face...

Chapter 883

Seeing the food Matilda made, Charlie Wade couldn't help but appetite, but out of politeness, he didn't feel ashamed to use his fork directly, instead he took out a bottle of drink and poured it on the two ladies. Later, he picked up the wine glass and said with a smile: "Matilda and Paul, welcome you back to China, welcome you back to Aurouss Hilll, and welcome you to our home as a guest. Let's have a drink together."

Jacob Wilson also hurriedly echoed: "That's it, I'll take the wind and dust for you, let's have a drink together!"

Matilda picked up a drink and said sincerely: "I really appreciate your hospitality. I didn't expect to be able to have a home-cooked meal at my old classmate's house on the first day of returning to Aurouss Hilll.

Thank you very much."

Jacob Wilson smiled and said: "Matilda, we have been old classmates for so many years, what are you doing so politely for this little thing!"

After that, he said: "Furthermore, this table of food today is all your credit. I'm just battling it out. I'm very embarrassed about it. How can any old classmates come here as guests? I cook it myself."

Matilda smiled and said: "What's so embarrassing about this, I said it at first, I will cook today."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Come on, let's dry this first glass of wine first!"

Everyone picked up their wine glasses and drinks. The three men drank all the wine in the small wine cup, and the two ladies took their drinks and took a sip.

Claire Wilson Wilson's expression was slightly indifferent, but she can't be blamed.

After all, she has also tried her best to express her kindness to Matilda.

Matilda is also very clear in her heart that Claire Wilson Wilson must have an opinion on herself, so she also deliberately flattered her, and smiled and said to Claire Wilson Wilson: "Claire Wilson Wilson, first try the braised prawns cooked by auntie. , See if it suits your taste." With that said, Matilda took the initiative to pick up a prawn for her and handed it to her bowl.

Claire Wilson Wilson was somewhat embarrassed. After all, this woman was her father's first love back then. Now she is sitting in her own home and picking vegetables for herself. This feeling is always a bit wrong. However, she nodded very kindly, and said softly, "Thank you Auntie Matilda."

Having said that, she also tasted the braised prawns.

Unexpectedly, the taste of this shrimp made her amazed at the entrance. Well, Claire Wilson Wilson has eaten this dish of braised prawns more than once, but she has never tasted such a good one.

The braised prawns cooked by Matilda have moderate sweet and salty taste, tangy aroma, and good flavor.

Claire Wilson Wilson was even more amazed in her heart. This Auntie Matilda is really not an ordinary woman. Not only does she have a good temperament and a good image, she even cooks so deliciously.

She recalled the meals her mother had cooked. There was only one adjective that could describe it, which was hard to swallow. Compared with Matilda's cooking skills, it was almost every day!

More importantly, my mother never seeks improvement in cooking. What was the taste of cooking more than 20 years ago, it still tastes that cooking now.

Later, after I married Charlie Wade and Charlie Wade was in charge of cooking, my life was much better.

However, although Charlie Wade's cooking is good, it's still far behind Matilda.

Chapter 884

At this time, Matilda gave him another piece and said with a smile: "At first you tasted this fish, which is also a specialty of aunt, but I haven't done it for some time. I don't know if it suits you. Taste." Seeing the enthusiastic Matilda put the fish into his bowl, Claire Wilson Wilson nodded in order not to hurt people's face, and said, "Thank you Auntie Matilda, but you don't always have to add vegetables to me, you eat first."

Matilda nodded and said with a smile: "You must eat more food yourself. If you can't reach it, let Charlie Wade pick it up for you."

Claire Wilson Wilson agreed, and then tasted the fish that Matilda gave her. After taking this bite, she immediately surprised her.

Matilda's cooking is really delicious. The fish is soft and soft, fragrant and delicious. It is impeccable.

Jacob Wilson was also dumbfounded.

He has never eaten such delicious home-cooked food in his entire life.

You have to know that eating a delicious meal at home is completely different from eating a delicious meal in a restaurant.

There is a warm feeling of home as a blessing, and that feeling will make men linger.

This is why women always say that if you want to keep a man's heart, you must first keep the man's stomach.

Jacob Wilson felt that his stomach and his taste buds were conquered by Matilda's cooking skills at this moment.

He looked at Paul enviously and said: "Paul, your mother cooks so deliciously, you are blessed."

Paul smiled and said seriously: "Uncle Wilson, this question depends on how you look at it."

"Take me as an example. When I was in college, it was very painful, because I left home and my mother. No matter what I ate at school, I almost felt a little bit meaningless;"

"Later, because of the busy business of the law firm, I often traveled on business. Most of the time I flew back and forth across the United States, and there was still a lot of time flying back and forth around the world, and I had no chance to taste the food my mother cooked."

"But. My appetite has been spoiled by her cooking skills, so I can't get used to eating wherever I go. This feeling is actually very painful."

Jacob Wilson sighed: "That's true. It is easy for people to change from frugality to luxury, and it is difficult to change from extravagance to frugality. Your mother cooks so deliciously. If it was me, I would not be interested in any food outside. ."

When Claire Wilson Wilson heard the cryptic meaning in his father's words, she was not very happy, so she took a drink and said to Matilda: "Auntie Matilda, I toast you, you must be very hard to come back from the United States so far. This glass is to wash the dust for you."

Matilda hurriedly picked up a drink and said with a smile: "Thank you Claire Wilson Wilson, then we will drink a drink instead of wine."

Claire Wilson Wilson touched his cup slightly with that of Matilda, and at the same time she couldn't help but sighed and said, "Hey, it would be nice if my mother was also at home. She has been talking about you for so many years, knowing that you are back. , She must be very happy."

When Claire Wilson Wilson mentioned Elaine Ma, Jacob Wilson and Matilda both had unnatural expressions.

Both of them knew very well in their hearts that Claire Wilson Wilson mentioned Elaine Ma at this time, deliberately speaking to them both, reminding them that this family, and her mother, even if her mother is not here, she is The hostess of this house!

Matilda's dignified expression was a bit embarrassing, she smiled unnaturally and said, "I haven't seen your mother for so many years, and I really want to see her."

After speaking, she looked at Jacob Wilson and asked, "By the way, where did Elaine Ma go? Why is she not at home?"

Jacob Wilson hurriedly said: "She, I have been back to her family in the past two days. I guess I will be back in a few days."

Chapter 885

Since Matilda's cooking skills are so good, everyone has a little support for this meal.

Although Claire Wilson Wilson was somewhat dissatisfied with Matilda in his heart, and was a bit repulsive, he did not have any ability to resist her cooking.

She usually pays attention to diet, but this evening she ate three times the usual amount of food.

Not to mention Charlie Wade and Jacob Wilson, the father-in-law. The two elders were like windswept clouds, eating almost all the dishes, and there was not much vegetable soup left.

After eating, Jacob Wilson secretly put his hand under the table, loosened his belt, and temporarily relieved his bulging stomach.

At the same time, he could not help but secretly thought: "Matilda is really perfect in every aspect. If she can really divorce Elaine Ma and stay with her, it will be from the eighteenth hell, all at once. To heaven.

Even Charlie Wade couldn't help but imagine that if Jacob Wilson could be with Matilda, then his days would be much more comfortable.

A mother-in-law like Matilda can't really find her with a lantern, and she cooks so deliciously. If she becomes her own "step mother-in-law," then she will save herself from cooking in the future.

It's a pity that he can't let Elaine Ma disappear from the world.

After eating dinner later, he has to talk to Cameron Isaac to see how to release Elaine Ma from the detention center.

.....

After eating, Matilda took the initiative to clean up the dining room and kitchen.

Charlie Wade hurried to take over, but she refused to let Charlie Wade interfere, saying that women should do everything in the kitchen.

After everything was cleaned up, Matilda said to the family: "It's late, and Paul and I won't bother you today. Thank you for your hospitality today. I have a very happy meal!"

Jacob Wilson hurriedly said: "Oh, Matilda, I have to thank you. It was you who gave us such a hearty meal of Eastcliff home-cooked dishes and fulfilled my wish for more than 20 years."

Matilda smiled and nodded. For her, it was also a wish for many years, but in front of Claire Wilson Wilson, she was not suitable to say many things, so she said: "Okay, we I won't bother you. You stay here, we will go first."

Jacob Wilson asked, "How did you come here?"

Matilda said: "Paul came by car, but the car stopped at the door of your villa."

Jacob Wilson said: "Oh, can Paul still drive after drinking?"

Matilda smiled and said, "He can't drive, I can drive, and I haven't drunk."

"Oh yes!" Jacob Wilson said with a smile: "I just forgot about this. That's fine. I'll send you to the car."

After that, she opened the door without waiting for Matilda to express her attitude, walked out first, and then made another sign of please.

Seeing this, Matilda said, "Thank you, Jacob Wilson."

Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson sent them outside the gate, and after saying goodbye to them politely, Jacob Wilson took them out.

Chapter 886

Seeing them walking away, Claire Wilson Wilson closed the door and said to Charlie Wade: "The feeling between this Auntie Matilda and my dad is too obvious. You say my dad will not cheat... ."

Charlie Wade said seriously: "I think Auntie Matilda is definitely not that kind of person. She is a very principled person. Even if she likes our dad in her heart, she will definitely wait for our dad and our mother to divorce. What development does Dad have?"

Claire Wilson Wilson angrily rebuked, "What are you talking about? How could Dad divorce Mom?"

Charlie Wade knew that Claire Wilson Wilson would definitely not be able to accept such a thing, so he didn't talk to her in depth. After checking the time, he said: "My wife, you can take a good rest at home. Don't go out to find your mother. I will go. I beg a friend to see if they have any other channels, so I can ask for help."

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded and said, "Do you want me to go with you?"

Charlie Wade hurriedly said: "No need, I just take a taxi to go by myself. You haven't been worrying about it for the past two days, so go back to your room and take a rest." live

Claire Wilson Wilson sighed and said, "That's OK, then I won't go with you. If you have any questions, remember to communicate with me in time. If you have a clue, you must tell me immediately."

Charlie Wade agreed, opening the door and saying: "Okay, then I will go straight away."

Saying goodbye to his wife, when Charlie Wade left and came outside the entire villa area, the old man had just sent away Matilda and her son. Seeing that Charlie Wade was going out, Jacob Wilson hurriedly asked, "Charlie Wade, it's so late, do you want to go out?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "I'll beg a few friends to see if I can find clues about mom."

As soon as Jacob Wilson heard this, he suddenly became nervous, and hurriedly grabbed him and asked, "Who are you going to ask for? Are you going to ask Don Albertt? Or to ask that Miss Moore?"

Charlie Wade said: "Just ask, they have a lot of contacts, maybe there is some way to find mom."

"Oh..." Jacob Wilson clutched his chest with a heartbroken expression, and asked, "My son-in-law, should we be so anxious about this matter? Can't we take it easy? You say our father It's only a day since these two good days, are you going to destroy it yourself?"

Charlie Wade naturally knew what Jacob Wilson was thinking, he must be 10,000 unwilling, so he wanted to find Elaine Ma back now.

After all, he had just met his first love today, and the two seemed to have some opportunities for development. At this time, the person he didn't want to see most was probably Elaine Ma.

However, in Charlie Wade's eyes, Jacob Wilson's happiness is naturally inferior to that of his wife's happiness.

So he could only say with a helpless look: "I'm sorry, Dad, Claire Wilson Wilson's mood has not been very good recently. If I can't find Mom again, I think she will be stimulated, so I have to find a way to get Mom as fast as possible. get back."

Jacob Wilson's expression was extremely ugly, and he said seriously: "Good son-in-law, she is already an adult at first, and an adult must have a certain degree of tolerance. You should temper her and let her wait two more. Goodness, dad beg you..."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "Dad, don't be so anxious now. Even if I ask a friend for help, it may not be possible to get Mom back right away."

Jacob Wilson blurted out: "How could I not be in a hurry. Whether it is Don Albertt or Miss Moore, they are all capable people in Aurouss Hilll. Isn't it easy for them to find someone? Maybe your mother will do it tonight. Come back!"

Charlie Wade looked at Jacob Wilson's almost crying expression, and said helplessly: "Dad, this kind of thing is not something we can do whatever we want. Instead of hoping that mom will come back a few days later, or even not come back, It's better to hope that she will come back soon."

After speaking, Charlie Wade added: "After mom comes back, you can tell her clearly, and then formally divorce her. In this way, you can pursue your own happiness without any worries!"

Chapter 887

Charlie Wade's words made Jacob Wilson wake up instantly.

Only at this time did he realize that evasion is not the solution to the problem, only to face the problem and completely solve the problem is the best solution.

If you want to stay and fly with Matilda, you must divorce Elaine Ma. Only after divorce can oneself be able to marry Matilda into the door upright and upright.

Thinking of this, he felt much better, and said to Charlie Wade: "Okay, I know, you can go to your friends for help, I will find someone to inquire about the divorce, and when your mother comes back, I just ask her for a divorce."

After bidding farewell to Jacob Wilson, Charlie Wade took a taxi to Shangri-La Hotel.

Cameron Isaac is already here waiting for him.

The manager of the hotel respectfully invited Charlie Wade to Cameron Isaac's office.

As soon as the door of the office closed, Cameron Isaac immediately said respectfully: "Master, I'm really sorry, but you have to condescend to come to me for your hard work. I should see you."

Charlie Wade waved his hand and said, "It's better to say something when I come to see you. It's not easy to explain when you go to see me."

Then he asked, "My mother-in-law who stole more than 20 billion from me, how is she in the detention center now?"

"It's very miserable." Cameron Isaac said: "She became a public enemy of the entire cell inside. I heard that she seemed to have not eaten a bite of food since she went in."

Charlie Wade nodded lightly. Said blankly: "She is responsible for all this, and she can't blame others."

Cameron Isaac said seriously on the side: "Master, I really didn't expect that when such a woman saw more than 20 billion deposits, she was not afraid or worried, and she didn't even think about it. How could there be so much money in the card, so she dared to transfer all the money to his card, this person is simply too courageous!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "My mother-in-law, she loves money the most in life. She used to be a third person to intervene in my old wife and her first love, because my old wife was still relatively wealthy at the time, which can be regarded as a standard. What she didn't expect was that after getting married, the conditions in my husband's family began to get worse and worse, and soon there was no money. This person ran for money all his life, but he didn't get it. So my heart has been suppressed and has been distorted"

Cameron Isaac said: "Master, in fact, I dared to suggest you that it is best to let your mother-in-law learn a little more lessons in it. At the very least, she should be detained for three years and five years, and she can be detained for one and a half years. I have just been locked in for less than two days now, do you want to release her?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said: "Let her come out, mainly because I feel bad for my wife. But if she is not honest after she comes out, I still have other ways to treat her slowly."

After speaking, Charlie Wade said again: "Yes, tomorrow morning you will arrange for the police station to interrogate her, like I told you last time, find all the actors that should be found, and prepare all the props, and then give her a performance. Big drama."

Cameron Isaac blurted out immediately: "Master, don't worry, I must have everything ready."

Charlie Wade said indifferently: "I came to see you, mainly to go through the process with you again. Don't make any mistakes then."

Cameron Isaac nodded and said, "Master, let's start sorting it out!"

Chapter 888

.....

After Charlie Wade sorted out all the procedures for tomorrow with Cameron Isaac, he took a taxi home without rush.

But at this moment, in the Aurouss Hilll Detention Center, Elaine Ma's nightmare continues.

Because she was tortured and beaten by all kinds of tortures and beaten from the time she first entered the detention center, and she was poured cold water on her head, plus not eating a bite for two days and nights, Elaine Ma had completely collapsed. Not only did she have a bad cold, And also developed a high fever.

The high fever made Elaine Ma burn all over, and she was almost fainted by the high fever, but at this time, she was still not allowed to lie in the bed, and could only curl up and shiver in the corner of the detention center cell alone.

Because of her fever, she felt an extreme cold, which made her sway her whole body nonstop.

She felt that she was about to be unable to hold it, so she murmured and pleaded: "Please, please have mercy on me, give me a quilt, I'm so cold, I'm so cold... ."

Lady Wilson sneered: "What is your name? People like you still want to cover the quilt. I tell you, you have to sleep in the toilet tonight!"

Wendy echoed: "Grandma, I think she has to take a bath in cold water! How about we go to the toilet and help her?"

When Elaine Ma heard this, she cried her nose and burst into tears, and pleaded miserably, Mom, I really can't do it. If you let me sleep in the toilet and give me a cold shower tonight, then I'll be I must have died here at night, I beg you to show mercy! "

Lady Wilson said viciously: "You still expect me to pity you? I tell you, I wish you would die soon! You better not wait until night to die, you better die now!"

Elaine Ma wailed and said, "Mom, you and me are just the contradiction between mother-in-law and daughter-in-law, and I have suffered from your anger for more than 20 years. Why are you killing me now? Even if you are angry with me There is no need to fix me for not letting you live in the villa, right?"

After finishing talking, she looked at the big sister Gena in the cell, crying and begging: "Sister Gena, I know you hate your unfilial daughter-in-law, but I don't let her live in my villa. This mother-in-law is just drawing the line!"

"I have been married to the Wilson family for more than 20 years. I have never beaten her, never really scolded her, and even been bullied by her all the time. During this time, the Wilson family is not good enough. I have mocked her and ridiculed her. , But it's all disrespect, but that's all."

"But you also saw how she treated me in the past two days. She beat me, scolded me, tried everything she could to torture me, bully me, this is basically killing me!"

"As a sensible person, can't you see who is the wicked person between me and her?"

"If I am as evil as her, do you think she can live to this day?"

"If I'm as evil as her, how could she still be so healthy and even fight me? This proves that I am not as evil as she said, and she is the real evil person!"

When talking about this, Elaine Ma was in tears, and the whole person was like one who had suffered great injustice.

Seeing that she dared to accuse herself, the Lady Wilson walked up to her angrily and slapped her face with a slap.

Immediately afterwards, the Lady grabbed her hair and slammed it against the wall, swearing in her mouth, "You shameless thing, you dare to provoke discord here, you see I won't kill you!"

Chapter 889

Hearing Elaine Ma's tearful complaint, Gena also realized at this time that what she said seemed to make sense.

Although the Lady all accused Elaine Ma of being unfilial, and even scolded her to beat her and prevent her from living in the villa of Thompson First.

But the Lady didn't look like a person who had been tortured for a long time. She was in good health and strong in spirit, and she was not at all soft in fighting people.

So it seems that if Elaine Ma has 10 points for her unfilial piety, then her hatred and revenge for Elaine Ma would have 100 points.

Seeing that the Lady was still fighting Elaine Ma at this time, Gena felt something was wrong.

She immediately said, "Don't fight the Lady. You are indeed a bit cruel. In any case, you won't drive her to death, right?"

Hearing this, Elaine Ma breathed a sigh of relief.

It has been almost two days since she entered the detention center, and she had long seen that Gena was the only support for the Lady here.

With Gena behind her back, she dared to insult and beat herself unscrupulously.

If Gena is no longer supporting her, or even Gena feels sorry for herself and prohibits her from doing anything to herself, then her future life will be really much better.

Thinking of this, Elaine Ma continued to cry: "Sister Gena, you are more sensible, you can tell at a glance, between me and the Lady, she is not me who really wants to kill each other! She has been thinking Push me to death. If you don't do anything again, I might really be tortured to death by this cruel Lady!"

Lady Wilson was a little impatient, and hurriedly blurted out: "Gena, you must not believe this woman who is talking nonsense, there is no truth in her mouth!"

Gena said seriously: "Is there any truth in her mouth? I really don't know, but I'm not blind. It's almost enough for the Lady if you are enough. After all, you haven't suffered any injuries or physical torture. Why do you want to fix her to death like this?"

Lady Wilson felt a little in her heart. She realized that she had gone too far.

Although I haven't dealt with the hate in my heart yet, my own behavior has already broken Gena's heart balance, making her feel that she is a bit too much!

If he doesn't want to do anything, then Gena's inner balance will lean towards Elaine Ma, and then, she will really be passive.

Thinking of this, Lady Wilson hurriedly burst into tears, and pointed to Elaine Ma and complained: "Gena, you must not be fooled by this wicked woman!"

As she said, she was so angry that her voice trembled, and she sternly said: "Do you think she is a good person without hitting me? Do you know what she has done to our family?"

"Back then, my son had a very good first love girlfriend, and I was also a very ideal candidate for a daughter-in-law. That girl is really a pretty girl and a shameless girl, so many times better than this shameless woman!"

"At that time, my son was already preparing, and he married someone after he graduated, but do you know what happened just before graduation?"

Gena looked surprised and asked: "What happened?"

The Lady Wilson pointed at Elaine Ma and said angrily: "It's this stinky shameless woman. Knowing that our family was well-off at the time, she wanted to marry in and be a wife, so she took advantage of my son to be drunk and forced him to stay with her. My son had a relationship! Then he told my son's girlfriend about it shamelessly! The woman who finally forced me to break up with my son and go abroad!"

"In the end, my son was forced to marry this b*tch who he didn't love at all! Since then, for more than 20 years, my son has not been happy for a day!"

"My son's marriage is unfortunate, thanks to this b*tch woman!"

Chapter 890:

"She ruined my son's life! I hit her twice, do you think it can make up for my son's lifelong happiness?"

The women in the entire cell were stunned. No one thought that Elaine Ma had done such a shameless thing back then! What do women hate most? The cheating man and the mistress! Therefore, Mrs. Wilson's words successfully aroused everyone's hatred of Elaine Ma again!

So many people scolded:

"This stinky shameless woman dares to do such shameless things at a young age. Damn it!"

"That's it, how can a serious woman insist on getting on her body when a man is drunk? Isn't this just a slut?"

"It's damn disgusting! It's nothing more than a third party intervenes, the key is to use such abusive methods!"

Seeing that she had successfully helped Elaine Ma a wave of hatred, Lady Wilson was relieved in her heart, but she couldn't help but think to herself: "Elaine Ma, damn thing, at this time, she still wants to instigate discord and want to come back? Okay, Then I will drive you into the abyss!"

As a result, she also shed two lines of tears, and angrily complained: "You don't know the most disgusting thing!"

"This sorrowful woman, and my son's girlfriend at the time, were still roommates in the same dormitory back then, still best friends and good friends!"

"As a result, this sorrowful woman turned her head to do such a shameless thing. She slept with her good girlfriend's boyfriend!"

"She not only robbed her good girlfriend's boyfriend, but also forced her good girlfriend to go to the United States. I heard that people have not returned to China for more than 20 years. This is all thanks to this woman! "

Mrs. Wilson's words successfully made the little pity that everyone had just established instantly turned to ashes.

It was replaced by a total hatred of Elaine Ma!

Elaine Ma was so nervous that she almost collapsed. She didn't expect that the Lady would move out of Matilda's affairs and turn into ashes the little mass foundation she had just established.

What Elaine Ma did to Matilda and Jacob Wilson, their sweet lovers, was an extreme evil that all women disdain. Therefore, everyone's sympathy for her disappeared in an instant. Not only that, everyone's hatred for her is even stronger!

One of the women jumped down from the upper bunk and came to Elaine Ma in three or two steps, picked up her plastic slippers, and slammed Elaine Ma's face fiercely.

"I beat you to death! You shameless thing! My husband was hooked up by a porno woman like you!"

A group of women immediately screamed, and someone shouted: "Good fight, kill this shameless slut!"

At this time, Elaine Ma was beaten and yelled, but two more women rushed towards her quickly, kicked her one by one, and then punched and kicked her!

Lady Wilson looked at all this coldly, and sneered in her heart.

"Elaine Ma, you still want to fight with me based on your little weight, it's just looking for death!"

Chapter 891

Elaine Ma never dreamed that after more than 20 years, she would still get such a fat beating because of Matilda's incident.

She was looking at herself and was about to persuade Gena, but she didn't expect that after Mrs. Wilson moved out of this matter, she would directly subvert all her efforts, and instead plunge herself into an endless abyss.

The few women who came up to beat him up had all experienced the tragic past of being meddled by someone, so when they hit her, they brought all their new and old hatreds into it, and they didn't show any mercy at all. Elaine Ma was beaten again quickly, and her whole body was almost dying. Several times Elaine Ma felt that she was going to be in shock, but before she was really shocked, she was woken up twice by others.

After a group of people beat Elaine Ma, Lady Wilson said to the side: "I think we'd better get this sorrowful woman to the toilet, so that she won't make us upset here!"

"Yes!" The woman who rushed up to start her hands coldly said, "The Lady is right. Throw her into the toilet!"

With that said, she greeted another woman next to her and said, "We are both a leg, and we will drag her in."

"Okay!" The other party immediately nodded and agreed, so the two of them pulled Elaine Ma's leg and dragged her from the ground to the toilet.

Wendy also hurriedly followed. Seeing that the two women threw Elaine Ma into the toilet, she took out the washbasin and took a basin of water and poured it directly on her body. She sneered and said, "Elaine Ma, you never dreamed. Do you think you will have today? Just rely on you, still want to fight with grandma?"

Elaine Ma was awakened by the cold water, shaking violently and regretting in her heart.

I shouldn't say those things in front of Gena, trying to arouse Gena's sympathy.

If he didn't accuse Mrs. Wilson of what happened just now, he wouldn't end up like this.

What she regrets more is that she shouldn't steal the bank card of her son-in-law Charlie Wade, and never dreamed that Charlie Wade turned out to be a transnational liar!

If she didn't steal his bank card, he would be the one who would come in and suffer this time sooner or later, but because he couldn't control his hands, she was here now, suffering this inhuman torture.

Her intestines are already regretful.

That night, Elaine Ma sat in the corner of the toilet holding her legs and struggled till dawn.

In the evening, Elaine Ma had already developed a high fever, which made her bewildered.

More importantly, she hasn't eaten anything for nearly 48 hours!

When everyone else started to wash in the toilet in the morning, Elaine Ma was so weak that he didn't even have the strength to lift his eyelids. Someone in the cell went to get the breakfast for the whole cell. The breakfast consisted of rice porridge with steamed buns.

When Gena and others were eating, they found that Elaine Ma hadn't come out, so she told someone to say: "Go in and see if the sorrowful woman is dead, and drag it out if she doesn't die."

So the man came to the toilet, took a look at Elaine Ma, and found Elaine Ma was curled up in the corner shivering, so he walked forward, grabbed her hair, and abruptly pulled her out of it.

When Elaine Ma came out, Gena was already eating her box of lunch.

Just like yesterday morning, Gena finished the steamed buns and deliberately left about one-third of the porridge. Then she looked at Elaine Ma and said playfully, "I haven't eaten anything for two days and two nights. You must be hungry? "

Chapter 892

Elaine Ma nodded in a daze, and said: "Sister Gena, please let me have a bite, otherwise I might really die..."

Gena sneered and poured all the porridge in the bowl on the ground, then tapped a little with her toes, and said with a sneer: "Do you want to eat it? Then lick it on the ground!"

When Gena asked Elaine Ma to lick the porridge on the ground yesterday, Elaine Ma was 10,000 unwilling.

Because she felt that, no matter what, she could not just lie on the ground and do such abusive things just to eat one bite.

But now, she can't take care of so much anymore. What about the three abuses, as long as they can fill up their stomachs, or even just fill up, let herself kneel on the ground and lick?

So she immediately knelt down and lay on the ground without hesitation, licking the cold porridge on the concrete floor with her tongue.

Lady Wilson couldn't be more happy seeing this scene.

The thought that Elaine Ma might stay in it for ten to twenty years or even longer in the future made her feel even more excited.

Elaine Ma licked the porridge on the ground bit by bit, and even ate a lot of sand in her mouth, but she didn't care about it at all.

At this moment, the prison guard opened the door of the cell, looked at Elaine Ma in the room, and said coldly: "Elaine Ma, come out, the police station is about to interrogate!"

Those who have not been sentenced in the detention center are collectively referred to as suspects. Suspects are often taken back to the police station by the police for interrogation. This is also a normal process.

As soon as Elaine Ma heard that she was going to interrogate herself, she had no doubts, she immediately got up with difficulty, crying and rushed to the door, watching the prison guard pleading: "Please, take me away soon."

She didn't know long ago that this arraignment was just a good show arranged for her son-in-law Charlie Wade!

The prison guard saw her in such a miserable state, his whole body was wounded, even two front teeth had fallen, and he couldn't help but be surprised.

Immediately, she said to Elaine Ma: "Come out quickly, the police officer who will pick you up is still waiting!"

These two police officers are the two police officers who sent Elaine Ma over the previous two days.

After less than 48 hours, Elaine Ma has become inhumane, making them a little dumbfounded.

But they also knew that someone had already greeted them and prevented them from asking about Elaine Ma, so they all pretended not to see it and said directly to Elaine Ma, "Let's go, our car is waiting outside."

After all, the man walked up to Elaine Ma with handcuffs and handcuffed her hands together.

Elaine Ma followed them out and asked nervously, "Comrade police officer, I was really wronged. Is there any progress in your case? When will my grievance be cleared and let me go home. what!"

After speaking, Elaine Ma couldn't help but wept bitterly.

The police officer said: "You are now involved in a transnational fraud case. This is the largest transnational fraud ever recorded in the world, and you, as the first suspect we have now, are the key to our investigation and arrest. Breakthrough."

After that, the police officer said again: "If you are more acquainted, you'd better confess all your accomplices. This can help us solve the case, and it can also help you do meritorious service and strive for leniency!"

Elaine Ma cried bitterly and said tremblingly: "Comrade Constable. Please believe me, I am willing to swear with my life that I really don't know anything about this. The person you are going to arrest is my son-in-law. I can take you to arrest him. If you have any problems, you can try him, or even shoot him, there is no problem, but you can't wrong the good guy!"

Chapter 893

As soon as Elaine Ma was taken to the police station, she was immediately stuffed into the interrogation room.

Several police officers came in immediately, sat in front of her, and said, "Elaine Ma, how have you considered these two days? Are you ready to explain your business?"

Elaine Ma cried and said, "Comrade police officer, I was really wronged..."

The officer snorted coldly: "What? Are you stubborn? Do you really think we are stupid? If we can't catch your accomplices, you will have to fight all crimes by yourself. In this case, you might be going to be shot!" When he heard that he might be shot, Elaine Ma panicked and immediately pleaded: "Comrade police officer, I have said it many times, that card is really not mine!"

"I took that card out of my son-in-law's pocket, and the code of that card is my son-in-law's birthday. This is enough to prove that this card belongs to my son-in-law, not mine. Since you said this Card is suspected of transnational fraud, and the real mastermind must be my damn son-in-law. Why don't you arrest him and have to arrest me?"

The police officer sneered: "Your son-in-law's name is Charlie Wade, right?"

Elaine Ma hurriedly asked: "You have already investigated him. Did you catch him? Did you try him out of the blue? Did you sentence him to give him a quick account?"

The police officer took out a black card from a file bag, put the black card in front of Elaine Ma, and asked, "Elaine Ma, was this the bank card you used to withdraw money from the bank?"

Elaine Ma recognized the black card at a glance. As soon as she closed her eyes in the past two days, what this card appeared in her mind.

If it weren't for this card, how could one become a prisoner and suffer so many inhuman tortures?

So she was really worried about this card, and she was deeply impressed! She resentfully said: "This is the card, this is what I stole from my son-in-law's pocket! He must be the culprit! You quickly catch him, try him, and shoot him!"

The police officer sneered, then took out another portfolio, opened the portfolio, and poured the contents on the table.

What made Elaine Ma dream of was that all the black cards that came out of this portfolio were exactly the same, and there were at least a few hundred!

Elaine Ma exclaimed and asked: "Are these cards found from Charlie Wade's bastard?"

The police officer said: "To tell you the truth, that transnational criminal group forged many of these black gold cards, and they are very, very intelligent. They bought the personal information of many people from the Internet and set the forged card passwords. Set these people's birthdays and send these cards to these people to trick them into going to the bank to check the balance in this card."

"The balance of each of these hundreds of cards is 21.9 billion Dollar!"

"Once the deceived person can't control his greed and tries to take the money from the card, then he becomes an accomplice to help the criminal group defraud the bank and take money from the bank."

"Fortunately, you did not get the money at that time, you have been arrested by us, otherwise once you get out of that bank, the criminal group will look at you, kidnap you, ask for your bank card password, and then Take away all the 21.9 billion you just scammed from the bank, and finally kill you and divide your body! In that case, you will evaporate in this world!"

Elaine Ma was stunned, she blurted out and asked: "You mean, this card was mailed to my son-in-law Charlie Wade by the criminal group?"

"That's right!" the police officer said sharply, "and not only sent it to your son-in-law, as far as we know, at least thousands of people in Aurouss Hilll received this card! There are tens of thousands of people across the country!"

Chapter 894

As he said, the police officer said again: "Your son-in-law is a very upright person, and a very magnanimous person. He has no greed. After he received this card, he found out the balance of this card. He immediately reported to the police. We were going to tell him not to behave in a rush, but unexpectedly, you stole this card without a long eye, and you took it to Citibank to withdraw money!"

Elaine Ma exclaimed and said regretfully: "Oh! I should have known this situation, even if it killed me, I would not steal his bank card!"

As Elaine Ma said, the whole person was already crying, she did not expect that she would step on this kind of thunder without long eyes!

It turned out that this card was a criminal who stole Charlie Wade's personal data, and then forged it and sent it directly to Charlie Wade! What they did was to lure Charlie Wade and make Charlie Wade greedy for the 21.9 billion balance in the card!

Then asked Charlie Wade to go to the bank to transfer the money out and transfer it to his own account!

In that way, Charlie Wade helped them complete the whole process of defrauding the bank, and they could completely get rid of the crime and avoid all risks!

After Charlie Wade transfers the money to his own account, these criminals can directly approach Charlie Wade, threaten him to call out the money, and then kill Charlie Wade and let Charlie Wade take the blame... ..

Thinking of this, Elaine Ma was already covered in cold sweat.

She didn't have the slightest doubt about what the police officer told her.

At this time, she realized that when she was about to transfer the 21.9 billion in the bank, she almost passed Death!

If it weren't for the police to arrive in time, take yourself away, so that you might have been killed by the criminal group now!

When she thought that she was almost dead, but she was lucky enough to get her life back, she was grateful!

Even the inhuman torture in the cell has suddenly become worthwhile!

Fortunately, I went to the cell and was tortured by Old Lady Wilson and Gena, otherwise, I am afraid that I have become a lonely ghost!

Fortunately, Elaine Ma couldn't help crying and said to the police officer: "Comrade police officer, since you all know that you have been wronged, please let me go!"

The police officer said coldly: "Let you go, if you let you go, if you talk too much about this matter, if you start to provoke the snake, then how will we catch the suspect in the future?"

Elaine Ma hurriedly stated: "You can rest assured, as long as you let me go, I will never talk about this to anyone!"

The police officer asked, "Can you really not tell anyone? Even your daughter and your husband, you can never say a word!"

Elaine Ma nodded and said, "I can! I can! I can definitely do it!"

The police officer said coldly: "I can't believe you. As long as you miss a word on this matter, it may bring irreversible consequences. Can you afford it by then?"

Elaine Ma cried and said, "Comrade police officer, please rest assured, I will bring this matter into the coffin even if I die, and I will never mention a word again!"

Chapter 895

Elaine Ma had completely believed the story the police officer told her. What she worries most now is that the police officers continue to lock herself in the detention center in order not to provoke them. Then she really doesn't know when and when she will be able to regain her freedom. So she looked at the police officer pleadingly, crying and said, "Comrade police officer, I really don't know a word, so you just let me go. If you lock me up again, I will die inside. Up..."

The police officer shook his head cautiously and said, "Elaine Ma, I still can't believe you. I see people like you a lot. On the surface, no one tells you. In fact, the mouth is faster than anyone. If you let it go, you will tell others about this immediately."

As he said, the police officer said again: "And don't think that I locked you up to solve the case. In fact, I am also for your safety!"

"Because after letting you out, once you talk nonsense, once they know about it, they are likely to kill you! It is even possible to kill you, and then all the evidence will be planted on you, let You are their substitute!"

"In that case, wouldn't you be more wronged than anyone?"

"So, to be on the safe side, you should continue to stay in our detention center until we have caught all the suspects before releasing you. This will also ensure your safety."

Elaine Ma said desperately: "Then I have to wait until the year of the monkey and the moon? I beg you to be merciful and let me go. I really won't talk nonsense. I beg you, I am willing to kneel down for you. Kow your head, just beg you to let me go, don't lock me up again..."

Speaking of this, Elaine Ma is already crying out of breath...

"Forget it." The police officer said coldly: "We can't take this risk. After all, this case is about the international criminal police of 23 countries. If you do it because of you, we can't bear this responsibility. !"

The police officer next to her sang red face at this time and said, "I think her attitude is quite sincere. As long as she can control her own mouth, it doesn't hurt to let her go."

The black-faced police officer replied: "If the case cannot go on because of her, who will bear the responsibility? If she is killed because of this, who will bear the responsibility?"

The red-faced policeman looked at Elaine Ma and asked, "Elaine Ma, can you control your own mouth? If you can, you write a letter of guarantee, we will consider letting you go, but if you promise to write , Go out and talk nonsense, even if you say a word nonsense, as long as we know about it, we will immediately arrest you, and will never let you out until the case is finished!"

Elaine Ma wiped her tears with her sleeves, crying out of breath, and said, "Comrade police officer, you can rest your heart. I will tell you a heart-wrenching remark. I am also a greedy for life and fear of death. Human, this matter is related to my own life safety. Even if you kill me and force me with a gun, I dare not say a word!"

The black-faced police officer asked coldly: "What about your son-in-law? Will you go to your son-in-law to confront this matter right after you leave?"

Elaine Ma sighed in his heart, didn't he even have the chance to find Charlie Wade that bastard?

Then who should be accounted for after so many beatings and so many humiliations in the detention center?

Chapter 896

So, she asked in a low voice tentatively, "That...comrade police officer...I'm just at home, can I tell my son-in-law about this in private?"

The black-faced police officer slapped the table angrily, and blurted out to the red-faced police officer beside him: "I said this kind of stupid woman can't believe it. You have to let her go. Did you hear what she said? Go down and confront Charlie Wade! Isn't this going to kill yourself and ruin our case?"

The red-faced police officer's complexion also darkened, staring at Elaine Ma, and said coldly: "Elaine Ma, you really disappoint me. I just thought you could do it without mentioning it. I didn't expect you to return I want to confront your son-in-law! Are all the things I said to you just for nothing?"

Elaine Ma panicked suddenly, and tremblingly asked: "Comrade Constable, to be honest, I will end the game today. It will be Charlie Wade's card. Can't I confront him? Is it?"

The red-faced police officer scolded angrily: "Stupid! Charlie Wade is one of the members who received the black card! The criminal gang itself has been staring at him, and it is even possible that his every move, every word and deed is in theirs. Within the monitoring range, there may be many monitors and listening devices installed in your home. If you dare to go back and mention a word with him, it is very likely that you will be killed by yourself, or even your whole family.!"

Elaine Ma was shocked and hurriedly said: "Then I won't say it, I won't say it, I won't say a word, I won't say anyone!"

The black-faced policeman snorted coldly: "Now say this? Tell you! It's too late! I said a long time ago that people like you are not credible at all, and letting you out is a scourge. Sooner or later it will ruin our major affairs. Then take your own life in!"

After finishing speaking, he said to the red-faced police officer: "I think it's better to shut her back again, when the case is solved, and when will she be released!"

The red-faced police officer no longer objected, nodded and said, "Be cautious, I think it can only be this way!"

When Elaine Ma heard the conversation between the two, she burst into tears and burst into tears, crying heartbreakingly. While slamming her mouth with her handcuffed hands, she blurted out: "Comrade police officer, I really know what's wrong. Yes, I really don't say a word anymore, you let me go, I will never mention this to anyone again, please don't send me back, otherwise I I will die inside!"

The black-faced police officer stared at her and said coldly: "I can't believe you at all!"

Elaine Ma regretted it and wanted to beat herself to death.

Why do you want to mention Charlie Wade? What is more important now than letting yourself out?

Besides, what's the point of going to Charlie Wade by yourself? This card itself was given to Charlie Wade deliberately by criminals. It was low-handed and could not stand the temptation. Even if he went to settle accounts with Charlie Wade, he would still be an unknown teacher.

What's more, there is that damn transnational criminal group behind this, if because she scolds Charlie Wade, she ends up killing herself, wouldn't it be a big loss? !

It's okay now, just because I had a bad mouth, I was able to let myself go, but now it seems that I have been tossed by myself..

She thought over and over again, and could only use the trick of a b*tch crying, making trouble, and hanging herself. She cried and said to the two police officers: "Comrade police officer, if you don't let me go, then I will hang myself in the detention center when I go back. !"

Chapter 897

Seeing Elaine Ma look looking for life, the two police officers looked at each other and the red-faced policeman asked: "Elaine Ma, we can consider letting you go, but there are some issues that must be communicated to you first. Let you go, you go home, your family asks about your whereabouts in the past two days, how do you tell them?"

Elaine Ma hurriedly said: "I, I will tell them..I have these two days... these two days.."

Elaine Ma hesitated for a long time, and didn't say a word, so she came, because she herself didn't know how to explain to her husband and daughter after returning home.

After all, I have been missing for two days and nights for no reason.

What's more important is that I don't have a good place all over my body now, and I'm just getting beaten.

More importantly, even the front teeth have lost two, which is too miserable.

The red-faced policeman said indifferently: "Let's do it, I'll give you an idea. If we decide to let you go after consideration, then after you get home, you can tell your husband, your daughter and your son-in-law, this In two days you entered an MLM organization by mistake. The MLM organization brainwashed you and asked you to go to the bank to complete the fraud, and then you were arrested by the police."

Elaine Ma nodded quickly, and blurted out: "Comrade police officer, don't worry, as long as you put me back, I will tell my family according to your instructions, and I will never reveal a word about this matter, let alone It will delay your capture of transnational fraudsters!"

The policeman hummed and said lightly: "Okay, let's study and discuss this matter, and we will send you back to the detention center immediately. If we discuss and decide to release you, the detention center will directly handle the formalities for you. ."

Elaine Ma hurriedly asked: "Comrade Constable, you will not let me go to the end of the discussion, will you?"

The black-faced police officer slapped the table and scolded, "We have to discuss this matter! You can go back and wait patiently for the results of our discussion. There is no room for you to bargain!"

When Elaine Ma heard this, she didn't dare to say more, so she agreed to honestly and tremblingly said, "Comrade police officer, am I going to wait for news now?"

"Yes!" The black-faced police officer said coldly: "We will let the police drive you back now. You must remember that after you go out of this door, don't say a word about related things!"

Elaine Ma nodded resolutely and promised: "Don't worry, I won't say a word even if I kill me!"

Later, Elaine Ma was drove back to the detention center by two policemen. On the way back, she was very depressed.

Unexpectedly, this incident turned out to be such a reason.

It's a big matter, and it's impossible to find Charlie Wade's bastard to settle accounts.

Otherwise, if they can't speak a word well, miss a word, and are known by the police, they will probably catch themselves back to the detention center again.

In that case, I don't know which year and month I can come out.

.....

Just when Elaine Ma was sent back to the detention center, Jacob Wilson couldn't wait to find a chance and continued to meet Matilda again.

Last night, I had a very delicious home-cooked meal with Matilda at home, and it was Matilda who cooked it herself, which made Jacob Wilson happy. So early in the morning, he sent Matilda a WeChat message, inviting her to visit the old University, their alma mater, to find memories of the year.

As soon as Matilda heard that he invited herself to visit her alma mater, she immediately agreed without hesitation.

Chapter 898

Immediately, Jacob Wilson immediately cleaned himself up, ignoring breakfast, so he was anxious to go out.

Seeing him dressed up again, Claire Wilson Wilson immediately asked, "Dad, where are you going this morning?"

Jacob Wilson happily said: "I have an appointment with your Matilda, and we went to my alma mater today. She hasn't come back for more than 20 years!"

When Claire Wilson Wilson heard this, he suddenly became angry, and blurted out: "Mom has been missing for almost two days and two nights, and there is still no news. How can you go hanging out with Matilda? Are you not prepared? Go and find out where mom is?"

"Hey..." Jacob Wilson chuckled, and said in a veiled manner, alas, isn't it up to you and Charlie Wade to find someone? After all, you two are young people, doing things more reliably than my old guy, so I just wait patiently for your good news. "

Claire Wilson Wilson angrily said, "Dad, I'm really angry no matter how you look like this! How come you still can't tell the priorities? My mother's safety is in your heart, isn't it better than staying with Matilda Is it important to visit your alma mater?"

Jacob Wilson knew that this kind of thing was wrong, so he didn't want to talk too much about the right or wrong of this matter with his daughter, so he waved his hand in a hurry and said, "Oh, it's late, I won't follow. You said it, let's talk to you when I come back, I'll go first, bye!"

After speaking, he has already stepped out.

Claire Wilson Wilson wanted to stop him in the end, but it was no longer useful.

Jacob Wilson has already seized the door.

Seeing Jacob Wilson leaving, Claire Wilson Wilson said angrily to Charlie Wade: "Have you seen? Dad won't even bring you this time. I believe Matilda will not take her son with her today. They are going to be there. The world of two people..."

Charlie Wade hurriedly said: "Oh, don't think about it so much. They are just old classmates meeting each other. What kind of two-person world is it?"

Claire Wilson Wilson said with red eyes: "You don't need to excuse them, I can see what they are doing at a glance..."

After that, she asked Charlie Wade again: "By the way, have those friends started to help you find your mother's whereabouts? Did they reply to you?"

Charlie Wade said: "They told me that there would be results within today, and I also asked them to inquire. There have been no serious social security or criminal cases recently, so they also told me that my mother is in danger. The possibility is very low. We should be able to get my mother back in a day or two."

Hearing this, Claire Wilson Wilson's mood improved. She sighed and said, "I hope your friends can be more reliable. It's best to let mom come back today. Otherwise, I really am It's going to crash..."

Charlie Wade couldn't help but slander in his heart, letting her come back is sure to let it back anytime.

But the key is to make her shut up honestly.

Otherwise, letting her back is a hidden danger.

It's better to let her stay in the detention center.

So he sent Cameron Isaac a WeChat and asked him: "How is the matter with my mother-in-law?"

Cameron Isaac quickly replied: "I asked the police to say hello to her. The words were very serious. I believe she must not dare to talk nonsense!"

Charlie Wade relaxed and said: "In this way, you send a few more people in to help me make a scene, deepen and deepen her impression, and let her shut her mouth completely!"

Chapter 899

Jacob Wilson dressed himself as an old overseas Chinese, handsome and stylish.

This time, he and Matilda had a very tacit understanding, Jacob Wilson did not bring Charlie Wade with him, and Matilda did not bring his son Paul.

Jacob Wilson personally drove his BMW 5 Series, went to the Shangri-La Hotel to pick up Matilda, and went back to his alma mater together.

Now, Matilda is wearing a long gray woolen coat, and she looks very temperamental. As soon as she meets at the door of Shangri-La, Jacob Wilson is fascinated by her.

He got out of the car and opened the door to Matilda, and he couldn't help but exclaimed, "Matilda, what you are wearing today is so beautiful!"

Matilda smiled slightly and said, "I'm all of an age. What else is beautiful or not? I just have to go back to my alma mater to have a look, so I should tidy myself up a bit, and I can't shame my alma mater."

Having said that, Matilda said again: "Besides, I will have a party with our old classmates today."

"Oh, yes!" Jacob Wilson patted his head and said, "Look at my memory. I just wanted to accompany you to visit my alma mater. I forgot about the class reunion. By the way, is the location of the class reunion set? If there is no decision, I can ask my son-in-law to help."

Matilda hurriedly said: "The place has already been decided. I asked Paul to help him. He said it was a local place called Glorious Club."

Jacob Wilson was surprised and said: "Glorious Club? The requirements for the guests are very high. Will Paul be able to get membership there as soon as he arrives in Aurouss Hilll?"

Matilda smiled and said, "I don't know the details. I only know that he told me that our law firm seems to have a long-term cooperative relationship with the parent company of this Glorious Club. Legal affairs are entrusted to our law firm."

Jacob Wilson couldn't help being shocked!

The parent company of Glorious Club is naturally the famous Moore family in Aurouss Hilll. He did not expect that the law firm of Matilda's family would have a cooperative relationship with the Moore family!

He originally wanted his son-in-law Charlie Wade to help arrange a venue in the Glorious Club, and by the way, he could also make himself pretentious.

But I didn't expect that Matilda's son solved the matter directly, which is really extraordinary.

So, Jacob Wilson hurriedly made an inviting gesture and said, "Come, Matilda, get in the car."

Matilda thanked him, and gracefully sat in the co-pilot of Jacob Wilson's BMW 5 Series.

As Jacob Wilson drove towards the University, he couldn't help but sigh:

"You have been away for more than 20 years and haven't come back again?"

Matilda said: "I have been back to China, Eastcliff, but I have never returned to Aurouss Hilll."

Jacob Wilson hurriedly asked, "Isn't it because of that incident that you didn't return to Aurouss Hilll?"

Matilda said seriously: "Half and half, on the one hand, because of the previous incident, I don't want to come back to face the memories. On the other hand, I have no relatives in Aurouss Hilll, and my old classmates have not been in contact for a long time. So I never came back."

Chapter 900

Jacob Wilson nodded, thinking of the last time when the classmates reunion, many classmates used their previous relationship with Matilda and Elaine Ma to tease themselves.

Therefore, he said to Matilda seriously: "Matilda, we have a party today. Maybe those old classmates will tease us about what we have done in the past. Don't take it too seriously. It's a bit old and rude!"

Matilda smiled and said, "As long as it's not distorting the facts, it doesn't matter if I make a joke. If I'm afraid of them ridicule, how can I bring this classmate together? Everyone hasn't seen each other for more than 20 years. What's the point of teasing me?"

.....

When he arrived at the University, Jacob Wilson parked his car in the parking lot at the entrance of the school and walked into the school side by side with Matilda.

Classes are taking place in the school, so the campus is very quiet.

The two of them were walking on the concrete road of the campus. Jacob Wilson introduced to Matilda next to him, saying: "In fact, our school has been rebuilt and renovated several times over the years, and it is no longer what it looked like in the past. It's broken."

"Yes!" Matilda couldn't help but sighed: "I remember that our school had only one cement road back then, that is the road that came in from the school gate. The other roads were paved with slag ash, and sometimes the school let the local Students from home brought some burnt briquettes to pave the road. The road was very muddy when it rained. At that time, it was very disgusting, but now that I think about it, I still miss it." :>

"Yes, yes, yes!" Jacob Wilson said with a smile: "I used to bring burnt briquettes from home to the school. Do you remember that the school had a sports meeting that year. As a result, the track in our school's playground was too bad. Just start, we tried every means to get more materials that can be used to pave the road."

Matilda smiled and said: "Of course I remember, at that time you paid for yourself, brought a lot of male students, and bought burnt briquettes everywhere in the city by pushing a tricycle."

With that said, Matilda looked at Jacob Wilson's eyes with ambiguous brilliance, and said with emotion: "I remember that at that time you drove a lot of cars to the school. Later, half of the entire playground track was covered. The people you brought are spread out, so the teachers and the school value you very much and make you the president of our school."

"Yes." Jacob Wilson rubbed his hands with some embarrassment, and said, "Did dedication was popular at that time!"

Matilda nodded, and sighed: "Oh, you were really heroic at that time, and countless little girls admired them very much. I remember the girls who liked you in school at the time, that was really a long line."

Jacob Wilson blushed and said cheerfully: "At that time, there were more boys who liked you. I can't count the number of them."

Matilda smiled indifferently: "It's all the old calendar. No matter how many people like you, it's useless. Many people just think of you as a passing moment. When they like you, they like it, but when they turn their heads, they forget it."

At this time, Jacob Wilson pointed to a small park on the campus and said, "This used to be a big forest. In the evening, many students fall in love, and those who have sex will come here for dates. We also often come here at that time. do you remember?"

Matilda, who had always been calm, blushed immediately when he said this. How could she not remember that wood? Back then, it was the holy place where many wild ducks from the school met, and Jacob Wilson and herself had visited many times.

At that time, everyone was in this small forest, but they were really relaxed. Once they loved it, they felt that they could do everything with their loved ones.

In addition, in that era, there was no other place to go, so everyone came here, and everyone was not surprised.

But think about it now. The young people back then were quite open-minded, and they were much bolder than the young people now..

Chapter 901

Jacob Wilson deliberately mentioned the small forest, just to see how Matilda blushed.

Even if she was calm, she would be ashamed to think of the presumptuous youth and sweet and ambiguous past of the two.

Jacob Wilson felt that he had to make Matilda think more about the past, and think about the past that made people excited, and it would definitely arouse the fire in her heart that had been waiting for more than 20 years.

Naturally, Matilda knew what he meant, and she couldn't help but turn the subject away when she was shy, and blurted out: "By the way, how is our former teacher in charge now?"

Jacob Wilson said: "It's not bad, but the legs are not very convenient. Last time when our old classmates got together, we invited him to his alma mater and invited him to the classroom to give us a lecture."

"Really?" Matilda sighed: "It's a shame not to be able to attend your party!"

Jacob Wilson smiled and said: "We had a small gathering that time. We were all old classmates from Aurouss Hilll or near Aurouss Hilll, and they were all male classmates."

Matilda nodded and said: "Today's party seems to have a lot of classmates, because I contacted several girls who had a good relationship with me, and they are all willing to come."

"That's good." Jacob Wilson said with a smile: "Then we can get together this time."

Matilda said: "But I heard that Aaron Phillips seemed to have been dealt with because of corruption some time ago? He is now in custody awaiting prosecution."

"Yes." When Jacob Wilson thought that Aaron Phillips took his son-in-law to pretend to be forceful with him last time, he was furious.

The old bastard last time, he really slandered himself in front of his old classmates.

Now he is in jail, not knowing how beautiful he is.

So he smiled and said, "Old Aaron, he deserves it. You say you work well, don't do it well, and you think about using your position to facilitate corruption all day long. What should we do? Our teacher taught that year. We do not ask us to become talents, but we must make us a righteous person. People like him belong to themselves and have their own problems!"

Matilda nodded in agreement. In fact, most of the old intellectuals of their generation are very upright. Everyone went to university with the attitude of contributing to the country and society.

Although Matilda has always lived in the United States, she has always been concerned about China. There have been several major natural disasters in the country. Matilda has donated a lot of cash and materials, and has even been commended by the country.

However, she has always acted very low-key, and this kind of thing has never been mentioned to others, so old classmates such as Jacob Wilson have no idea that Matilda is still a great charity overseas Chinese. At this moment, Jacob Wilson's cell phone rang suddenly.

He picked it up and found that it was the WeChat group of the Student Union during the university years. No one had spoken in this group for several days. At this time, all of them suddenly said, "Classmates, Matilda is organizing a class gathering at noon today. Are you here yet?"

"I'm in Aurouss Hilll, I'm already preparing for a banquet!"

"I'm on my way to Aurouss Hilll, there is still a hundred kilometers left, and I will arrive in an hour and a half!"

"I just got off the plane! I came here specially from Eastcliff!"

At this time, someone Jacob Wilson said, "Jacob Wilson, come out soon, your first love is back! You old guy don't know yet, do you?"

It was Zane Colton who had a good relationship with Jacob Wilson.

Last time Aaron Phillips ridiculed Jacob Wilson, thanks to him being there to help Jacob Wilson round the field.

Jacob Wilson saw that Zane had turned himself, and smiled and rolled his eyes, and said, "Why do you say that I don't know? If I tell you, I will be with Matilda now, believe it or not?"

Zane sent a voice and said with a smile: "I believe it, of course I believe it, what is the relationship between the two of you? Back then, the two of you were recognized by our school, a perfect match!"

When Jacob Wilson heard this, he felt very happy, so he also sent a voice over and laughed loudly: "Haha, Zane, you tell the truth!"

Leah, a female classmate in the class who had an excellent relationship with Matilda back then, followed him with an angry expression and replied: "Jacob Wilson, you scumbag still has a smile? It was you who took Matilda I'm so angry! I haven't had a chance to meet Matilda sister for so many years!"

Jacob Wilson suddenly became embarrassed again. Back then, he inadvertently cheated on Elaine Ma after drinking. This incident was at school, but everyone knew it. Even thinking about it now, he felt extremely embarrassed. It was the biggest shame in his life.

Just when Jacob Wilson didn't know how to reply, a person in the group who had not spoken jumped out and directly sent a red envelope.

Chapter 902

Jacob Wilson grabbed the red envelope a long time ago, so he immediately clicked the red envelope subconsciously, and was surprised to find that he actually received 200 Dollar!

Only then did he discover that many of his classmates had received 200 Dollar.

It seems that this is a big red envelope with 200 Dollar per person! Jacob Wilson was still gratifying for the 200 Dollar unexpected fortune, but when he saw the other party's nickname, it was called "I miss that beautiful sunny day", and his face turned black suddenly!

At this time, the classmates in the group are all exploding!

"I'll go, thank you boss!"

"Yeah! Boss Greyson of Wake Diving, every shot is 200 Dollar per person, which is really unusual."

"I have heard that Boss Greyson has made a lot of money over the years, and he really deserves his reputation."

"That's it! People thank you, boss, now you are a well-known Hong Kong businessman, what does this little money count?"

The man sent a smiling face and another voice, speaking in a Hong Kong accent, and said: "Oh, Matilda came back from the United States. I was very excited, so I sent a red envelope to make everyone happy."

After speaking, he sent another red envelope.

Looking at the other's nickname, Jacob Wilson seemed to be obsessed with Matilda, and he was naturally very upset.

However, seeing the red envelopes coming out, I was reluctant to let go. So he could only curse this guy in his heart for being blind, while reaching out and opening the red envelope.

Unexpectedly, this is another red envelope of 200 Dollar per person!

With these two red envelopes, the other party has already issued more than 10,000 Dollar!

Suddenly there were a lot of compliments in the group.

The other party smiled at this moment: "Attention everyone, the third round of red envelopes is here!"

After speaking, another red envelope was sent out.

Everyone rushed to grab the red envelope, and Jacob Wilson also ordered the red envelope without any promise.

As a result, the third red envelope is still 200 Dollar!

Jacob Wilson was a little puzzled. He really couldn't think of who this person would be. After all, they didn't have classmates from Hong Kong back then. They were all classmates from mainland China. So who is this person who speaks Hong Kong and Taiwanese?

At this time, the other party issued a fourth red envelope.

The thunderous person is 200 Dollar per person.

Then came the fifth red envelope, still 200 Dollar..

In just one or two minutes, all the online classmates in the group grabbed a red envelope of 1,000 Dollar.

But Matilda never grabbed the other party's red envelope.

At this time, "Missing that beautiful sunny day" said in the group: "I have flown from Hong Kong to Aurouss Hilll this morning, and I am staying at the Shangri-La Hotel. I heard that Matilda also lives in this hotel. I don't know if you are here. Which room? If it is convenient, apply through my friend and tell me your room number in private chat. I'll go chat with you!"

After that, Matilda was still behind.

When Matilda saw this, she couldn't help but frown, and said lightly:

"This Greyson Tate is the same as it was twenty years ago. He likes showing off so much!"

Chapter 903

"Greyson Tate?!"

When Jacob Wilson heard the name, his jealousy was overturned.

This Greyson was the head of the External Relations Department of the Student Union at the time, and he was also a wealthy second-generation family.

Back then, both he and Aaron Phillips were one of Matilda's suitors.

It's just that at that time, Matilda had no interest in him and Aaron Phillips, so even if Greyson chased Matilda for many years, Matilda was still unmoved.

After Jacob Wilson and Matilda were together, Greyson worked against him in various ways, always trying his best to show off in front of Matilda. Later, after Matilda broke up with Jacob Wilson, he immediately realized that his great opportunity was coming, so he launched a crazy pursuit of Matilda.

But Matilda still did not accept him, but went directly to the United States.

Greyson's family was very wealthy. His father had already established his business in Hong Kong before he went to university. It can be said that he was the first group of tycoons to become rich after the country opened up.

Therefore, Greyson had a strong family background, so he gritted his teeth and stomped his feet, chasing Matilda to the United States.

It is a pity that even in the United States, Matilda still refused to accept him.

Greyson saw Matilda finally fall in love with an American, and then left the United States in a desperate manner. Since then, he has gone to Hong Kong to develop.

More than 20 years later, he has become a well-known successful businessman in Hong Kong.

Jacob Wilson felt very uncomfortable, because he knew that what he lacked most now was money, and what Greyson lacked least was money.

Who would have thought that Greyson was among the group of old classmates, just sending out red envelopes and sending out tens of thousands of dollars in one go.

At this time, the students in the group who received the red envelopes continued to compliment.

"Boss Greyson is so affectionate. When I hear that Matilda is coming back, I can't sit still."

"Thank you boss, you are not afraid that Matilda's husband will be jealous?"

"That's, you ran over so aggressively. In the past, I saw the sweetness of Matilda and her husband. Don't you smash your old heart that has been beating for forty to fifty years?"

"How can I explain to my wife when I go home?"

At this time, Leah, a good friend of Matilda, made a silent expression in the group, saying: "Don't talk about it here, sister Matilda's husband, has passed away some time ago.. "

As soon as Leah said this, the old classmates in the group immediately made a blessing expression with their hands folded.

There are also many people inside Matilda, saying: "Sister Matilda, let's change our grief!"

However, although everyone said so on the surface, most of the male students did not feel sorry for this incident at all.

Especially Greyson, he didn't know how excited he was when he heard that her husband Matilda had passed away.

What he has been waiting for is to have a chance to truly come together with Matilda.

After all, this was the woman he couldn't get anyway.

Now that her husband has passed away, isn't there any obstacle to her?

Chapter 904

Therefore, Greyson immediately replied in the group: "Hey, my wife has passed away long ago. It seems that Matilda and I have the same fate..."

An old classmate who had something good, heard his words and immediately said in the group: "Oh, then you and Matilda, aren't this a match made in heaven?"

Several other old classmates who took his red envelopes also joined in. Some people even said: "Oh, Greyson, you and Matilda are now widowed, then you two are really suitable, and I remember that you had a soft spot for Matilda back then, you must work hard. Ah, we old classmates are all blessing you from our hearts!"

When Greyson heard this, he immediately laughed and said, "Then I would like to thank the old classmates for their blessings in advance, but this matter still depends on what Matilda means."

Having said that, he said again: "Whether Matilda replied or not, I decided to return to Aurouss Hilll for long-term development this time."

"Isn't it?" Someone in the group exclaimed: "Greyson, your family has been developing in Hong Kong for many years? Why did you suddenly decide to return to Aurouss Hilll at this time?"

Greyson said: "Matilda has lived in the United States for so many years, and she has decided to come back now? It seems that we are better at Aurouss Hilll. This is the place where we swayed our youth, sweat and tears. I intend to come back this time. Retired in Aurouss Hilll!"

Jacob Wilson couldn't help it anymore. He immediately tweeted in the group: "Greyson, I advise you not to settle in Aurouss Hilll. Matilda didn't like you back then, and it's impossible to like you now, so don't It's boring to find yourself!"

In fact, Jacob Wilson was very nervous and inferior at this time.

In his opinion, Greyson is now a large Hong Kong businessman, worth hundreds of millions, and he is stronger than himself and I don't know where to go.

I haven't had a good life all these years. Compared with the high-spirited self in college, it's a world of difference. The most important thing is that he and Elaine Ma have not yet divorced, they belong to a married man, and Greyson is now widowed! It just so happens that Matilda is also widowed, so if they are together, it is really a good fit.

Therefore, no matter how the comparison is made, I am at a disadvantage. I haven't seen Matilda for so many years, and Jacob Wilson can't figure out what Matilda is thinking now. What if he sees Greyson right at the party at noon?

Greyson saw Jacob Wilson talking in the group at this time, and said with a smile: "Oh, I thought that our original student council president would only snatch red envelopes. I didn't expect that the president would finally speak."

Jacob Wilson's face immediately turned red when he heard this. As the saying goes, he was sluggish and shorthanded. He just snatched several 200 Dollar red envelopes from others. Now that he was said by others, his face was really a bit unbearable.

This is no food in the pocket, panic in my heart.

Jacob Wilson has never had a rich life. In addition, Elaine Ma has always been in charge of the money in the family before. Therefore, even if he grabs a red envelope of 5 Dollar and 8 Dollar from the WeChat group, he can be happy for a long time. .

So it has long been a habit to grab every red envelope.

Today, Greyson gave out red envelopes in the group. He didn't even bother to see who sent it. The first thing was to grab them first.

In the end, each of these red envelopes was 200 Dollar, and Jacob Wilson who grabbed it was secretly beautiful in his heart, but he did not expect that the grab was a red envelope issued by a rival in love, and the grab was also out of touch.

It's not worth the loss.

Seeing that he stopped talking, Greyson continued to ridicule: "The president is a good official. He has graduated for so many years, and he still wants to order me?"

Jacob Wilson bit his scalp and replied: "I am not an order, but to persuade you, for your good."

Greyson immediately replied: "For my good? For my good, you wouldn't let me return to Aurouss Hilll to settle and be with you? I think you guy, it's been so many years and still can't forget Matilda. I'm afraid I will return to Aurouss Hilll to settle down. Be your rival in love!"

Chapter 905

Hearing what Greyson said, Jacob Wilson felt a little guilty.

He was indeed afraid that Greyson would become his rival in love, but he certainly couldn't say such things among his classmates.

After all, he is now married.

Therefore, he could only say in the group against his will: "I'm afraid you have been in Hong Kong for so long, and suddenly you feel uncomfortable when you come back to Aurouss Hilll. We are all old and our bodies are getting old, so we rashly change to a different water and soil. In cities, maybe the health is going to be a problem."

Greyson laughed twice and said, "I am in good health, so I won't bother you!"

Jacob Wilson didn't bother to talk to him anymore, put his phone in his pocket, and said to Matilda beside him: "Matilda, let's go inside and go shopping."

Matilda nodded, and went on walking around the alma mater with him.

After 10 o'clock, Matilda checked the time and said to Jacob Wilson next to him: "The class reunion arrives at 11 o'clock. I think it's almost the time. Let's pass now."

Jacob Wilson nodded, smiled and said: "Okay."

Later, he drove his BMW 5 Series and brought Matilda to the Glorious Club.

This time, Paul booked for Matilda on the fourteenth floor of the Glorious Club. This is already the top level of the Glorious Club, which normal members can reach.

Jacob Wilson couldn't help being a little surprised!

The last time he relied on his son-in-law Charlie Wade to know Lord Don Albertt, he went to the tenth floor once.

But never expected that this time Paul would be able to book directly to the fourteenth floor!

It is said that the 15th floor is used by the Moore family and is not open to the public. In other words, Paul should be the most senior member here.

Moreover, the tenth floor of the Glorious Clubhouse is already very, very luxurious, isn't the fourteenth floor going to be luxurious to the sky?

Walking up the elevator, Jacob Wilson couldn't help asking Matilda next to him: "Matilda, is Paul and the Moore family good?"

Matilda nodded and said, "After all, we have had a cooperative relationship for so many years, and we have helped them solve a lot of problems legally, so the Moore family is fairly polite to us."

Jacob Wilson was amazed in his heart. It seemed that Paul, a young man, was really young and promising.

The two came to the huge luxury box on the fourteenth floor, and many old classmates were already waiting in the box.

This box has a table that can accommodate 50 people for dinner at the same time. The table is huge and very luxurious.

The entire table is electric. As long as a person sits there, the food will rotate in front of him repeatedly at a constant speed, ensuring that everyone can taste every dish.

Moreover, such a large table, full of 100 dishes, is extremely luxurious. It is said that the standard for such a meal starts at least 20,000 per person.

There are more than 40 old classmates who came here today, which is much more than last time. It is estimated that Paul's expenses for this entertainment will be at least more than 1 million.

Seeing Matilda and Jacob Wilson come in together, many old classmates were dumbfounded.

Someone who has something good directly points out and asks: "Matilda, why are you here with Jacob Wilson?"

"Did you two meet down by accident? Or did you two meet together?"

Among the crowd, a very stylish middle-aged and elderly man in a high-end suit with a big back combed his head. At this time, his eyes were staring at Matilda, and he was Greyson.

Chapter 906

Greyson has been waiting for Matilda since he entered the box. Now that Matilda is here, he is naturally looking at her intently.

He found that Matilda was still so beautiful, so outstanding, so intoxicating.

He didn't dare to imagine that Matilda was 50 years old, and she could be so beautiful.

This also strengthened his belief in pursuing Matilda.

But he never expected that Matilda, who had been thinking about it for more than 20 years, would walk in with Jacob Wilson, the scumbag who had hurt him.

He couldn't help feeling angry, and stood up and questioned Jacob Wilson: "Jacob Wilson, why are you embarrassed to come up with Matilda? What you did to Matilda back then, we all know well, if it weren't for you, a scumbag, Matilda How is it possible that you have lived in the United States for so many years? You should be very ashamed of her in your heart. If I were you, I would have no face at all!"

Jacob Wilson was also very angry. He said annoyedly: "Greyson, don't speak too much. Anyone with a discerning eye knows what happened back then, you can't blame me at all!"

As he said, he added: "Do you think I've had a better life in the past twenty years? I tell you, in the past twenty years, I regret more than anyone and feel ashamed than anyone!"

Greyson said dubiously: "You are ashamed! So I advise you to leave quickly, you shouldn't come for this meal."

At this time, Matilda suddenly spoke and said, "It's all right, you don't want to talk about the old sesame seeds and rotten grains. It is not when I was young, I liked to talk about gossip. Forty or fifty years old, why do you still say this?"

After speaking, she looked around for a week and said seriously: "Every one of you here is personally invited by me, so there must not be any unpleasantness between you."

Jacob Wilson sneered at this time and said to Greyson: "Greyson, have you heard? Even Matilda said that. What qualifications do you have to drive me away?"

After finishing speaking, he patted his forehead and said: "Oh, yes, I forgot to tell you, I didn't just come up with Matilda, I picked her up at the hotel where Matilda lived this morning, and then went to my alma mater together. , I remembered our youth back then, and then came to meet with you, why? Do you have any opinions?"

When Greyson heard this, he felt uncomfortable.

After all, I have always had a unilateral crush on Matilda, unlike Jacob Wilson.

Jacob Wilson and Matilda had been together for a long time.

Moreover, the two of them were really talented and beautiful at the time, and they were the most standard pair recognized in the school.

Therefore, there are many stories between these two people, and the two of them went back to their alma mater to recall the past, which in itself seemed a little ambiguous.

Greyson was very depressed. When he didn't know how to refute, the young Paul opened the door and said to Matilda with a smile: "Mom, I have already greeted Oscar, the housekeeper of the Moore family, today you and yours The classmates gather here, and he will arrange everything properly, so you don't have to worry about it, just gather with your uncles and aunts."

When everyone saw Paul, they couldn't help but marvel, and a woman blurted out, "Oh, Matilda, isn't this your son? How handsome!"

Matilda nodded lightly and said to everyone: "Come on, let me introduce you to everyone. This is my son. His English name is Paul Smith." Another person exclaimed: "Oh, Matilda, your son is still a mixed race, he was born to your American husband, right?" Matilda smiled and said, "I didn't give birth to my husband, but who else could I give birth to?" Everyone laughed. Greyson asked at this time: "Hey, by the way, Matilda, Paul should also have a Chinese name?" Matilda nodded and said with a smile: "Of course, Paul's Chinese name is my last name." Everyone hurriedly asked curiously: "Then what is Paul's Chinese name?" Paul smiled slightly and said, "Uncle and Auntie, my Chinese name is Han..." Before the latter words came out, Matilda hurriedly interrupted: "Today is our party, not with my son. Let him go first. Let's relive the old together with the elderly!"

Chapter 907

When Paul saw that his mother didn't want others to know his Chinese name, he immediately smiled and said, "Uncles and aunts, if you eat and drink and have fun, I will leave first." Jacob Wilson hurriedly said, "Oh, Paul, what are you going for in a hurry? Why don't you eat with us?" The reason why he wants to talk to Paul at this time is to let others see that he and Paul have known each other a long time ago. If this is the case, everyone can guess that he has already met Matilda before this meeting. In this way, everyone naturally knows that the relationship between the two is extraordinary, which can also make those who have ideas about Matilda retreat. When others heard the conversation between these two people, they did feel that something was not quite right. Why is Jacob Wilson so familiar with Paul? Paul smiled and said to him at this time: "I won't eat with my uncles and aunts at noon, because I still have business in the afternoon." Having said that, I specifically told Jacob Wilson that I asked Mr. Wade to come to my company in the afternoon to help me see Feng Shui, and I had to come and entertain him. Jacob Wilson smiled and nodded, and said: "My son-in-law has no other skills. It's okay to look at Feng Shui's skills. Let him take a look at you when the time comes. He will definitely not ask you how much money, otherwise, yesterday's Don't you just drink the wine for nothing?" After that, Jacob Wilson said again: "Well, let me call him and let him give you a free bill!" Greyson on the side was very depressed when he heard this. what happened? Could it be that this Paul, Jacob Wilson, and Jacob Wilson's son-in-law have already drank together? When did this happen? Is it yesterday? Didn't Matilda just arrived in Aurouss Hilll yesterday? Just arrived yesterday, and had dinner with Jacob Wilson and others? This is really a special treatment! Thinking of this, Greyson felt a little uncomfortable. He not only thought to himself, does Matilda still like Jacob Wilson now?

At this time, Paul smiled and said to Jacob Wilson: "Uncle Wilson, you don't need to be so polite. If you ask Mr. Wade to waive me, then I'm ashamed to let him watch it for me."

Matilda on the side also smiled and said, "Jacob Wilson, let's not interfere with the children's affairs."

Jacob Wilson glanced at Greyson and saw that his expression was very depressed, and he knew that his goal had been achieved, so he stopped talking to Paul about this, but smiled and said to him: "Okay, then you go ahead. Your mother is here to take care of me, so don't worry."

Greyson felt even more depressed when he heard him say this. What do you mean by this? Why do I feel like you are Paul's stepdad?

Thinking of this, Greyson held a fire in his heart, and thought to himself: Jacob Wilson, Jacob Wilson, you already took Matilda 20 years ago, now if you dare to ruin my good deeds, then I will not let you go! " So he deliberately said loudly: "By the way, Jacob Wilson, what about your wife? That is the shrew who is very famous throughout our college. What is the name?"

An old classmate in the class smiled and said, "Her name is Elaine Ma!" "Yes! It's Elaine Ma!" Greyson smiled and said, "Jacob Wilson, I heard that you and Elaine Ma are very affectionate. Your relationship should have deepened after so many years? Why didn't you call Elaine Ma together today? "

As soon as Jacob Wilson heard him mentioning Elaine Ma, his face immediately became uncontrollable, and he blurted out, "Greyson, which pot is not opened here. Elaine Ma is not a classmate in our class, why is she here?"

Chapter 908

Greyson smiled and said: "You, you have to figure out that you are a married man after all, so don't mess around with flowers outside, and don't be unruly towards other women, otherwise, once Elaine Ma's shrews know , she will definitely not spare you."

Jacob Wilson suddenly became angry and blurted out: "Greyson, what are you talking about here? When did I get in trouble, and when did I feel bad about other women? I tell you, don't think you have two bad money. You can point to sang and curse here, Jacob Wilson will not eat yours!" Matilda's expression was very embarrassed, and her voice became a little angry, and she said, "You two are endless, right? What I said just now, we are here for a class reunion today, not to make you arguing here. If you are still like this, then I will leave!"

Jacob Wilson said innocently: "Matilda, you heard it too, it's the old bastard Greyson who is fanning the flames by the side!"

Greyson was also a well-known Hong Kong businessman anyway, and he was confessed wherever he went. At this time, Jacob Wilson was scolded as an old bastard, and he was naturally very dissatisfied.

So he slapped the table and stood up and shouted angrily: "Jacob Wilson, who the f*ck do you say is the old bastard?"

Jacob Wilson's this also came up, glaring at him and said, "I'm talking about you, what's wrong?"

Greyson said coldly: "Jacob Wilson, don't think it's an old classmate, I can't do anything to you, I tell you, you really annoy me, I make you can't eat, you think I am going back to Aurouss Hillll from Hong Kong , Can you be bullied by a worm like you? Don't weigh and weigh what strength you have and yell at me?"

Jacob Wilson suddenly felt a little guilty. If he wanted to talk about his strength, he wouldn't even be able to get 10,000 Dollar. The villa I lived in was also abducted by my son-in-law, and compared with a vendor like Greyson, it was useless at all.

If you really angered Greyson, you might not be able to offend him.

When he was riding a tiger, Paul hurriedly said: "Two uncles, this game is for my mother's team today, so please give my mother a face and don't quarrel in my mother's team. "

Jacob Wilson immediately borrowed the donkey from the slope and blurted out: "Paul, uncle looks at your face and doesn't have the same knowledge as him!"

Greyson said annoyedly: "After you scold me, you still say you don't have the same knowledge as me? Do you believe that I'm licking you now?"

Matilda's expression became frosty, and she asked coldly, "Greyson, what do you want? If you really don't listen to advice, then I can only ask you to go out. Don't blame me for disregarding the love of my classmates."

Greyson was very annoyed. It was obvious that he was scolded. Why didn't Matilda look at her at all?

Jacob Wilson also felt that his face couldn't hold back. How should he respond when he was scolded in public? Hard? Will he really come up and smoke himself?

At this moment, a 60-year-old old man stepped in.

When the old man saw Paul, he smiled and said, "Mr. Paul, the chef has already prepared the food. I wonder if you can start the food?"

Paul looked at the old man and said in surprise: "Oh, Oscar, why are you here in person?"

With the name of Oscar, everyone at the dinner table was shocked!

Oscar? Could it be Oscar, the chief steward of the Moore family in Aurouss Hilll?

Everyone knows that this Oscar is a great figure with great status and face in Aurouss Hilll!

Chapter 909

When Greyson heard that this person was Oscar, he immediately put away the arrogant face that he had just dealt with Jacob Wilson.

Because when he was still studying in Aurouss Hilll in his early years, he knew that the Moore family was very strong, and that the Moore family was now the strongest family in Aurouss Hilll.

Although he is now a well-known Hong Kong businessman and has hundreds of millions of fortunes, it is still far from the Moore family.

The assets of the Moore family are tens of billions, a hundred times more than themselves, so the Moore family's stewardship status is much higher than that of itself, and its energy is much greater than that of itself.

Paul was also a little flattered at this time, he really didn't expect that Oscar would come here in person.

At this time, Oscar smiled and said to Paul: "Mr. Paul, the Moore family has not cooperated with your law firm in one or two days. When I just opened up the export business in the United States, I accompanied our master to the United States. Moreover, we encountered many legal problems at the time, and your father helped us solve them. In fact, our old Lord Moore and your father had a personal relationship with you very well, but you were still in school at that time, and you might not be clear about these. "

Speaking of this, Oscar said again: "So, for the Moore family, you are the son of an old man, how can we neglect? If we neglect, it seems that we have no way of hospitality." :

Paul nodded gratefully and said, "Uncle Oscar, if you have the opportunity, please help me thank Lord Mooore, and also help me tell Lord Mooore that I may be a little busy these days. After I have settled the matter here. After the company starts to get on the right track safely and steadily in Aurouss Hilll, I will definitely come to visit."

Oscar nodded and smiled, and said, "You can contact me directly at that time, and I will help you arrange time with the Lord Mooore."

After all, Oscar said: "Okay, I won't bother here anymore. Since the dishes can be served, then I will let the back chef quickly start the dishes."

Paul said: "I just want to go, Oscar, let's go out together."

"Good." Oscar nodded.

As Oscar was about to leave, Greyson hurriedly stood up and said respectfully: "Hello Oscar, I am Greyson from Hong Kong Huisite Trading Company. I am glad to meet you!"

Oscar looked at him in surprise, and asked curiously: "I'm sorry, I don't seem to remember this company. Does your company cooperate with the Moore family?"

Greyson hurriedly said respectfully: "You said that Oscar, I have always hoped to cooperate with the Moore family. There has never been a good opportunity. If possible, I hope Oscar can help introduce him."

Oscar smiled courteously and said, "Thank you for admiring the Moore family, but the Moore family's requirements for partners are very high. With all due respect, if it is a company that no one has ever heard of, basically It is unlikely to cooperate with the Moore family."

A person like Oscar, who has been a housekeeper for many years, knows the entire family's business well, and has a certain understanding of top companies, large companies, and well-known companies across the country. This is also his professionalism.

If he hasn't heard of a company, then the scale of this company must not be very large, at best it is second-rate.

It is impossible for the Moore family to cooperate with a second-rate company.

Greyson's expression was a bit awkward, he didn't expect that he would be rejected so simply by Oscar.

Although the other party did not speak very directly, but the meaning is already clear at a glance.

This made Greyson feel a little frustrated, but he dared not express any dissatisfaction, so he could only respectfully and humbly said: "Sorry Oscar, I did not mean to offend!"

After finishing speaking, he sat back a little angrily, feeling a hot on his face. He had known that he would not be boring, not only did he not get any benefits, but he also lost face in front of his classmates.

Oscar nodded slightly to him as a response, his expression was a bit arrogant, but this was also normal, after all, he had long been a respected upper-class figure in Aurouss Hilll.

Chapter 910

Paul looked at the crowd at this time and said: "Uncles and aunts, please gather here, I will leave first."

After finishing speaking, he specifically said to Jacob Wilson: "Uncle Wilson, I'm leaving first."

Jacob Wilson looked at Paul as if he were looking at half of his son, and said kindly and kindly: "Go, go, then go to work!"

At this time, Oscar saw Jacob Wilson, and he was surprised and said: "Oh, you are Mr. Wilson, right?"

Jacob Wilson didn't expect that the well-known Oscar, the housekeeper of the Moore family, would even know him, so he was surprised and asked, "You...how do you know me?"

Oscar said respectfully: "Mr. Wilson, let's tell you that Master Wade is so kind to the Moore family that everyone in the Moore family is grateful for Master Wade's kindness. Don't dare to forget it! You are Master Wade's father-in-law, how could I? Don't know you?"

Jacob Wilson suddenly realized!

It turned out to be in the face of his son-in-law Charlie Wade...

It's really getting harder and harder for my son-in-law to flicker. It turned out that the Don Albertt, who thought he was fooling, and Mr. White, who fudged him, are also very powerful. He didn't expect that he would fool the Moore family, the largest family in Aurouss Hilll.

Paul on the side was shocked. He naturally knew that the Master Wade that Oscar was talking about was Charlie Wade.

But he really didn't expect Charlie Wade to be so awesome.

Even the head housekeeper of the Moore family, Oscar, respectfully called him Master Wade.

And according to what he said, Charlie Wade has great kindness to the entire Moore family, is it the kindness that Charlie Wade can see from looking at Feng Shui?

Thinking of this, he felt that Charlie Wade's image was a bit more mysterious. When he thought that he would come to his company to see Feng Shui this afternoon, he wanted to see if he could take the opportunity to learn some in-depth information about him.

Oscar said respectfully to Jacob Wilson at this time: "Mr. Wilson, I didn't expect you to be at this table today. In that case, Oscar will serve you at this table today. If you have any needs, you can directly order certain."

Jacob Wilson's classmates were shocked. Many of them were natives of Aurouss Hillll. Everyone knew how strong the Moore family was, so no one thought that Jacob Wilson would have this kind of face.

Greyson was also shocked.

He couldn't figure out why Oscar, who was dismissive of himself, was so polite to Jacob Wilson!

I have inquired about Jacob Wilson's situation before, but he is nothing more than a fallen household.

The Wilson family has long been dying, and it is basically cold now. Jacob Wilson must have no capital himself, nothing more than an old hanging silk.

However, why does Uncle Oscar have to respect him this old hanging silk?

Is it just because of his son-in-law called Master Wade? !

Thinking of this, Greyson was curious about Jacob Wilson's son-in-law.

So, he asked a classmate next to him in a low voice, "Who is Jacob Wilson's son-in-law?"

Chapter 911

Greyson, who was quite disdainful of Jacob Wilson just now, was a little more jealous of Jacob Wilson at this moment.

In any case, his son-in-law can make Oscar so caring and respectful, which proves that Jacob Wilson is more important than himself in Oscar's eyes.

He asked his old classmates about the background of Jacob Wilson's son-in-law, who happened to have attended the last class reunion, so he smiled and said, "The son-in-law of Jacob Wilson seems to be a vagrant. It is said that he is a full-time worker at home. Master, what exactly does it do, we really don't know."

Greyson is in business after all and has seen the world.

From Oscar's attitude alone, he realized that he must never underestimate Jacob Wilson's son-in-law.

Maybe the other party is still a very big person, otherwise it would be impossible for Oscar to be so respectful.

This also made him feel worried, fearing after ridiculing Jacob Wilson just now.

Aside from other things, just with Oscar's respectful attitude, it can be seen that if he is really torn apart with Jacob Wilson, Oscar will definitely not be against him.

Therefore, he looked at Jacob Wilson with some fear, hesitated for a moment, and said: "Jacob Wilson, I was so embarrassed just now. They were all angry words made in anger. Don't take it to your heart. Everyone is old classmate. It's just a matter of just saying a few words, what do you think?"

Jacob Wilson knew very well in his heart that Greyson was so arrogant just now, and suddenly became so polite at this moment, and even took the initiative to apologize to himself, it must be because Oscar's attitude made him realize that he was not so easy to mess with.

He didn't want to just give up with Greyson, but Matilda also said at this time: "Jacob Wilson, both are classmates, don't mention the unpleasantness just now."

Jacob Wilson nodded and said to Greyson: "Since Matilda has spoken, I won't mention it anymore. I am a person who does not offend me and I am not offender. If you do not continue to trouble me, of course I will not follow Your general knowledge."

If someone talked to Greyson like this, he would have exploded.

But at this time, he dared not clamor with Jacob Wilson anymore.

After all, this is in the Moore family's territory, and Oscar has such respect for Jacob Wilson. If he really makes trouble, he must be finished.

Therefore, he can only say in an utter anger, "Jacob Wilson, you have a lot of adults, I will definitely toast you later."

Other students also noticed the change in Greyson's attitude. Everyone knew that Greyson was a little jealous of Jacob Wilson.

Some people are also surprised, this Jacob Wilson, his son-in-law is really so good, can the Moore family be so polite to him?

Jacob Wilson's heart at this moment is also very proud. He didn't expect that even though he didn't bring his son-in-law, his son-in-law could still help him grow a face.

With this attitude of Oscar today, in the circle of classmates, no one should dare to underestimate himself.

.....

At this moment, Paul also took the car to his company "Smith Law Firm."

Americans and Chinese act in different styles. Chinese seldom use their own names to name companies, because the Chinese as a whole still believe in acting low-key, obscure, and not too public.

The whole should highlight a modest way of doing things.

However, Americans are generally very high-profile. Well-known American companies are basically named after their founders.

Chapter 912

For example, the famous Boeing Company is a super aerospace group that produces passenger aircraft, military aircraft and space shuttles.

He was named Boeing because of their founder, William Edward Boeing.

It is equivalent to the founder using his surname as the name of the company.

Another example is the world-renowned hotel company Hilton Group. Its founder is Conrad Hilton. This family is also the famous Hilton family. Paul's full name is Paul Smith, Paul is his first name, and Smith is his family name.

Since his father founded this law firm, he named it Smith Law Firm after his family name.

"Smith Law Firm" has been well-known internationally after many years of hard work by Paul's father.

So this time Paul moved his office to Aurouss Hilll and directly chose the best area in Aurouss Hilll for the company's location.

And he chose the most prosperous and top-notch office building, Gemdale Building.

The Gemdale Building, with 58 floors, is the best and top five-star office building in Aurouss Hilll. Basically all the top enterprises in Aurouss Hilll and the country and even the world can settle in the Gemdale Building.

Because Paul Smith's law firm is also very well-known, and it serves all of the world's top 500 companies, they also pay great attention to their appearance.

It is worth mentioning that the Emgrand Group, which Wade Family bought to Charlie Wade, is the largest group company in Aurouss Hilll, and it is mainly based on real estate.

The Emgrand Group owns a number of high-end office buildings in Aurouss Hilll, and these office buildings are operated by the Emgrand Group itself and have not been sold. This includes the entire Gemdale Building. Charlie Wade was a little surprised when he heard that Paul chose the company in the Gemdale Building.

Unexpectedly, he chose his property by such a coincidence.

But think about it carefully. The Gemdale Building is the best office building in Aurouss Hilll. A law firm like his is in need of a sufficient facade, so there is no other option except Gemdale Building.

After he had lunch at home, he took a taxi to Gemdale Building.

Paul's law firm is on the 27th floor of the Gemdale Building. He took the elevator directly to the 27th floor. Paul was already waiting for him at the elevator entrance.

When he saw Charlie Wade, Paul was very, very polite, and he came forward and said politely: "Oh, Mr. Wade, it's really hard for you to come here." Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said to Paul: "It's just a matter of raising your hand, don't be so polite."

Paul invited Charlie Wade to walk in and said, "Mr. Wade, I had already let someone rent the 27th floor of Gemdale Building a few months ago, and the renovation started immediately. Now the renovation is basically fast.

The construction is completed, how about the overall Feng Shui? Is there anything that is not suitable, and if so, how to modify it?"

Charlie Wade probably read it once, and soon found out that Paul had a very careful Feng Shui layout here. He smiled and said: "Paul, you seem to have seen an expert here, right? I think you have set up this entry point. The Fengshui Bureau can gather wealth; there is a disaster-avoidance Fengshui Bureau in the main hall. For legal business like you, this type of Fengshui Bureau can avoid disputes to the greatest extent. Overall it is very good."

Paul exclaimed and said: "Mr. Wade, you are really smart, you can see my Feng Shui arrangement at a glance."

Charlie Wade said calmly: "Paul, your mother and my father-in-law have been classmates for so many years, so you don't have to be too polite with me. But I'm very curious, since you have already found someone here to see Feng Shui, why do you invite me? What?"

Paul did not hide it at all, and said frankly: "It is true. Yesterday you invited you to help me see Feng Shui, mainly to see if Mr. Wade really has the true talents in this area. Now it seems to be abrupt. Please forgive me, Mr. Wade!"

Chapter 913

Paul was really curious about Charlie Wade. From the beginning, he thought Charlie Wade belonged to the Wade family of Eastcliff. Later, even though Charlie Wade let him dispel this doubt, the title of Master Charlie Wade still gave Paul a new name. doubt.

Asking Charlie Wade to come over and show himself Feng Shui is actually Paul's one-step temptation. He has already asked someone to watch Feng Shui specifically here.

If Charlie Wade couldn't tell after he came, that the Feng Shui Bureau had already been set up here, it would prove that he didn't have such a level as Master Wade;

But if Charlie Wade can see the Feng Shui Bureau here after coming, it will prove that Charlie Wade's level is extraordinary.

Paul did not expect that Charlie Wade could see all the Feng Shui layouts here at a glance. You must know that the previous master also watched for a long time and studied for a long time before thinking about and laying out these.

Charlie Wade was not angry about Paul's suspicion. On the contrary, he admired Paul's magnanimity. He would say whatever he wanted, without covering up. This kind of quality is very rare in today's society.

So he said to Paul: "You want to see if I have this ability to learn. This is also human nature, but since I am here, I will charge you a fee for feng shui, which is also human nature. "

In fact, Charlie Wade didn't intend to ask Paul for money before he came. After all, he was the son of the old man and his lover, so he still had to give this little face.

But since Paul is so frank, one said one, and the other said two, then he should also get along with him in the same way.

When Paul heard this, he immediately said, "Of course! Since Mr. Wade is invited, how can he not pay for it!"

As he said, he took out the checkbook from his pocket without hesitation, drew on it for a while, tore it off and handed it to Charlie Wade, saying, "Mr. Wade, this 1 million is a little bit of my care. Please also Shine. "

Charlie Wade accepted the check with a slight smile, and said with a smile: "Then I would be more respectful than fate."

After speaking, Charlie Wade looked around, and said: "That means it is indeed seen by an expert, but the expert will inevitably omit something. For example, the entrance of the Fengshui Bureau is naturally There is nothing wrong with it, but the failure to make a corresponding layout behind this is really a failure."

Hearing what he said, Paul hurriedly asked: "Mr. Wade, what do you mean by this?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Feng Shui often says that purple energy comes from the east, wealth comes from the east, and your entrance faces east. There is nothing wrong with setting up the Fengshui Bureau, which means that money comes in from your entrance and enters your company. , This is a good start, but your company must be able to keep the money." After all, he pointed to the back of the company and said: "Look at this side of your company, there are all transparent floor-to-ceiling windows and transparent glass. There is no such thing in the Feng Shui Bureau, so you just come in from the entrance and stay I went out directly from the back without stopping. Do you know what it is called?"

Paul asked nervously: "Please also ask Mr. Wade to make it clear!"

Charlie Wade laughed and said: "There is an old Chinese saying that bamboo baskets can be used to catch water. Why do you say that is because although the mouth of bamboo baskets can enter water, the gap itself is too big to retain water. If the company can't retain money , It is very likely that your company will be big in and out in the future, with more money in and out, and in the end nothing will be left behind."

Paul exclaimed and asked, "Master Wade, how should this situation be resolved?"

Charlie Wade said lightly: "First of all, all glass must be filmed. As I said earlier, if the glass is transparent, it means nothing, but once it has a color, even if it is just a light brown color, it is equivalent to putting it on. The glass becomes a wall."

Chapter 914

Paul nodded in excitement, and blurted out: "Thank you so much, Mr. Wade, I will arrange for someone to do it quickly."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "Don't worry, I haven't finished talking yet."

Paul hurriedly said respectfully: "Mr. Wade, please tell me."

Charlie Wade said: "When you put a film on the glass, you also have to place a golden brave on the left and right sides. It must be made of pure gold to play the best role in fortune. Moreover, Paixiu is famous. The best way to keep money is to eat but not pull, but not to get in. This is tantamount to setting up a feng shui bureau for keeping money. After the money comes in, you can keep it, and your business will naturally flourish."

Paul held a fist at Charlie Wade with a grateful look, and said respectfully: "Mr. Wade is indeed worthy of the title of Master Wade. From today onwards, I, like everyone else, will respect you as Master Wade!"

Charlie Wade smiled and waved his hand: "You still don't call me Master Wade. If you call me Master Wade in front of my old man, or in front of your mother, I don't know how to explain it to them. "

Paul blurted out: "From then on, in front of them, I will call you Mr. Wade, but when not in front of them, I must call you Master Wade!"

Having said that, Paul immediately took out his checkbook again, and wrote and painted on it for a while. Then he tore off the check, dragged his hands to Charlie Wade respectfully and said, "Master Wade, this is a supply. Please accept your expenses."

Charlie Wade glanced at it and found that the check was written for 4 million, and he said to Paul: "One million is already a lot. You don't need to be so polite with me. I will accept this million, but this 4 million You should take it back."

Paul resolutely said: "No, Mr. Wade, if it weren't for you, I might just be in Aurouss Hillll in the future."

Charlie Wade waved his hand and smiled: "These are just some sayings about Fengshui. Even if I don't point it out to you, you may not be able to make money. After all, your law firm has been in business for so many years and is already very famous. "

Paul said earnestly: "Master Wade, it is true that when my dad opened a law firm, he first took a few cases and lost all of them, and the reasons for losing the case are strange. During that time, using my mother's words Said, Dad happily drank cold water and stuffed his teeth."

"Later, my mother invited a Feng Shui gentleman from Chinatown to see Feng Shui in my dad's law firm. At first, my father rejected this kind of oriental feudal superstition, but when that Feng Shui gentleman clearly figured out what happened to my father After a few difficulties, my father realized that the mystic academic fengshui was really extraordinary!"

"Then the Feng Shui gentleman changed the layout of my father's law firm and re-established a Feng Shui bureau for him. Since then, my father's law firm has prospered."

Speaking of this, Paul said with emotion: "If it weren't for the Feng Shui man at the beginning, my father might have failed at the beginning of his business, so there would be no Smith Law Firm, which is why I am so firm. Believe in the reason of Feng Shui."

Charlie Wade didn't expect that at the beginning of the Paul's business, it was Feng Shui that survived.

Feng Shui sometimes is so magical. When you are ready and owe the east wind, the east wind may not come.

Then no matter how you prepare, it is impossible to succeed.

Feng Shui, in the subtlety, plays the role of borrowing the east wind!

Chapter 915

Paul's admiration for Charlie Wade really called a five-body cast.

He himself is an American who think more like a Chinese. He is obsessed with Chinese traditional culture and Feng Shui metaphysics, and he believes very much.

Everything that Charlie Wade said just now made him feel that this man's accomplishments in Feng Shui were unfathomable.

So he didn't understand why someone would give Charlie Wade a luxury villa worth more than one hundred million.

Paul is very aware of the importance of a Feng Shui master. A good Feng Shui master can not only help people improve their luck and gather wealth. It can even help people change their lives against the sky.

Therefore, the better the Feng Shui master, the higher their appearance fee and the higher their worth. For example, Hong Kong's Li Jiacheng, it is said that their royal Feng Shui masters will pay hundreds of millions of Hong Kong dollars for one visit.

Therefore, he even felt that his 4 million cheque was a bit small.

I knew I should write him a check for 10 million.

Thinking of this, he directly shredded the 4 million cheque and threw it aside, and then hurriedly rewritten a 9 million cheque and handed it to Charlie Wade respectfully, "Master Wade, please accept it."

Charlie Wade said earnestly: "Paul, I'll charge you 1 million is enough, you don't have to give it to me anymore."

Paul said very seriously: "Master Wade, Feng Shui metaphysics itself emphasizes piety. In some respects, money is also a representative of piety, so I hope you can laugh at it. Otherwise, you will appear to be insincere. ."

Charlie Wade is not short of money. There are nearly 22 billion in the entire account, so he doesn't know how to spend it.

Whether Paul gives himself 1 million or 10 million, there is actually no difference to himself.

Charlie Wade was not going to ask Paul for too much money. The money was just a form. He had no opinion on how much he gave, but he gave too much, and it was indeed not appropriate.

However, Paul was very determined, and he was unwilling to take the money back, he insisted on letting Charlie Wade accept it.

Seeing this, Charlie Wade no longer shied away from him, saying: "Since you have to give me the money, I will accept it first, but if I need to use your barrister in the future, you can You must charge as much money as you should collect."

Paul smiled and said, "How can that work? You are Master Wade. You can use me. That's an exaltation to me."

Charlie Wade said, "In this case, I have legal affairs in the future, so I dare not come to you."

Paul hurriedly said: "Master Wade, if you have any legal needs in the future, you can come to me and I must collect the money normally. Is this the head office?"

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "It's pretty much the same."

After speaking, he looked at the time and said, "Paul, since there is nothing wrong with you, then I won't bother you today."

Paul hurriedly said: "Master Wade, I would like to treat you to a meal tonight. I wonder if you have time?"

Charlie Wade smiled and waved his hand and said, "I don't have to eat, there is still something waiting for me to do, I have to go."

When Paul heard this, he immediately nodded and said, "Since Master Wade has something to do, then I will not keep you. I will send you out.

Master Wade, please."

Paul's simplicity made Charlie Wade very appreciated.

Most Chinese people prefer to be polite. If someone else wants to invite themselves to dinner, and if they shirk something, they will definitely continue to invite a few more enthusiastic invitations until they explicitly refuse it.

Sometimes even if deep down in my heart, I don't really want to invite the other party to dinner, they will treat each other politely.

Chapter 916

It's like a few people rushing to pay after dinner.

Everyone is rushing to pay, but not everyone really wants to pay.

It is very possible that everyone just wants to be polite, because if you are not polite, it seems that you are not sensible.

Therefore, there are often people at the hotel bar asking who pays the bill, and you come and go all the time.

Charlie Wade saw many such people, but he admired Paul's witty, decisive, and straightforward people.

Since he has said something, he will absolutely stop talking nonsense, and send himself away directly. This is the way of communication between smart people.

Afterwards, Paul took Charlie Wade all the way out of the company and came to the elevator door.

He took the initiative to press the elevator button for Charlie Wade, and then an elevator came up from the first floor and stopped on this floor.

As soon as the elevator stopped, Paul hurriedly made a please gesture.

Just about to speak to Charlie Wade, at this moment, the elevator door suddenly opened, and a super beauty with a glamorous and tall figure, wearing a small suit on the upper body and a skirt with a covered hip suddenly appeared in the elevator.

The beauty is glamorous and moving, but at the same time there is no lack of glamorous and sexy. It can be described as the best of the best, so that all men are excited.

Paul looked at each other in surprise and exclaimed: "Miss Moore, why are you here?"

The beauty was about to speak when she suddenly saw Charlie Wade next to Paul, her cold and pretty face suddenly seemed to be bathed in the spring breeze, with a cheerful smile of the little girl, she said in surprise:

"Master Wade, why are you here?"

Charlie Wade looked up and found out that the person in the elevator turned out to be Jasmine, the eldest of the Moore family. She was also accompanied by several bodyguards, each holding a beautiful flower basket.

Jasmine didn't expect to meet her sweetheart Charlie Wade here, and she was naturally very happy in her heart.

Charlie Wade felt a little surprised to see her here, and said with a smile: "I will help my friend take a look at his Feng Shui here."

After all, he thought that Paul had recognized Jasmine just now, so he guessed that the two of them must know each other.

Jasmine smiled and said, "It seems that Master Wade, you also know Mr. Paul. I came here because my grandpa asked me to help him and gave Mr. Paul some flower baskets to congratulate him on the opening of his company."

After speaking, she realized that she hadn't greeted Paul, so she said with some embarrassment: "Mr. Paul, it's been a long time."

Paul is a smart man, and the most contacted suspects in his work as a lawyer, so he has a very strong ability to interpret people's eyes and expressions.

FBI in the United States once offered a course on interpreting facial expressions.

This is mainly to teach the case handlers how to use the subtle expressions and eye changes of the suspect to guess whether the other party is lying.

This is a very high-end psychology category, but it is also a compulsory course for every judicial officer.

Paul studied law in the United States for many years, and also became a lawyer, coupled with his childhood family edification, so that he has a unique talent in this area.

Therefore, from Jasmine's look at Charlie Wade's expression and eyes, he could tell that Jasmine liked Charlie Wade.

While admiring Charlie Wade, he was able to attract such a stunning beauty as Jasmine, and he couldn't help but sigh. It seems that Charlie Wade is really extraordinary, and even the eldest lady of the Moore family has a deep love for him.

More importantly, Charlie Wade is a married person. The Moore family's eldest lady would actually like a married man. This is simply explosive news!

Chapter 917

At this time, the graceful Jasmine walked out of the elevator.

Although she came to give Paul a flower basket, her eyes were always on Charlie Wade's body.

Every time I saw Charlie Wade, Jasmine felt very happy, as if she had returned to the age when she was 18 years old.

In fact, an eldest lady like her matured earlier than most people, got in touch with the human world earlier, and learned to put on a mask earlier. But after seeing Charlie Wade, after falling in love with Charlie Wade, Jasmine's ability to put a mask on herself failed in front of him.

She looked at Charlie Wade with admiration and admiration in her eyes, and she answered shyly: "Master Wade, how did you and Mr. Paul know each other? Mr. Paul should have just arrived in China not long ago?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "My father-in-law and Mr. Paul's mother are college classmates, so they met each other."

Jasmine was surprised and said: "Oh, how could it be such a coincidence!"

Paul on the side smiled and said, "It's such a coincidence. I didn't expect that, Miss Moore, you also know Master Wade."

Jasmine took a deep look at Charlie Wade and said to Paul: "Master Wade can be regarded as my savior. Do you remember one time when our export goods arrived in the United States, they were immediately said to be unqualified, but Do you want to sue us and make us bear huge compensation?"

Paul immediately nodded and said: "Of course I remember that time you asked me to rush from the east coast of the United States to the west coast of the United States to help you resolve this dispute, but the problem has been resolved before I reach the west coast."

Jasmine said with lingering fear: "I accidentally broke the Feng Shui at home that time. Not only did the business suffer, but I also had many problems with it. I even had frequent driving problems and accidents."

With that, Jasmine raised her wrist to reveal the bracelet her mother had left her, and said with emotion: "At that time, this bracelet was already lost. If it weren't for Master Wade, I wouldn't be able to find it back."

Paul exclaimed: "It turns out that the great Feng Shui master you told me was Master Wade!"

Jasmine nodded and said, "Yes, it's Master Wade."

Paul's eyes looking at Charlie Wade are already full of worship and admiration!

He blurted out: "Master Wade, I really didn't expect that you are the Feng Shui master who has always been praised by Miss Moore!"

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently, waved his hand and said, "It's nothing more than a little bit of bugging skills, not worth mentioning."

Paul hurriedly said: "Master Wade, you are really too modest. If you hadn't pointed it out just now, my Feng Shui bureau might have a big problem. I'm so grateful!"

Although Charlie Wade was very humble, Paul didn't think so. He already had some respect for Charlie Wade in his heart.

Moreover, even the eldest lady of the Moore family praised Charlie Wade for being more natural, not to mention Charlie Wade.

At this moment, Charlie Wade said, "I still have something to do, so let's talk about it first, and I will leave first."

Jasmine hurriedly asked: "Master Wade, where are you going? Have you driven yet? If you didn't drive, I will see you off!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Don't you need to retell the past with Paul?"

Jasmine hurriedly said: "Paul and I are old acquaintances. From now on, he will develop in Aurouss Hilll. We have time to relive the past. If you don't drive today, please let me see you off!"

Seeing this, Paul knew that Jasmine not only liked Charlie Wade, but also put Charlie Wade in a very, very important position in her heart.

At this time, he said in a hurry, "Miss Moore, thank you for the flower baskets you gave, and thank you, Lord Mooore, for helping me. If you have the opportunity, you will definitely come to visit you next time. deal with."

Chapter 918

Jasmine glanced at Paul gratefully, and said to him, "That's fine, since you have something to do, then I won't bother you much, let's get together again!"

Paul is indeed very high in EQ, and also very high in IQ. He can see that Jasmine's mind is all on Charlie Wade, so she proposed to send Charlie Wade to him. In that case, why not push the boat along the way and help her. ?

So Jasmine said to Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, I'll give it to you!"

Charlie Wade nodded and said with a smile: "Well then, I will trouble you."

Jasmine smiled shyly, and said seriously: "Master Wade, don't be so polite with me."

.....

Jasmine left her bodyguard to carry the flower baskets to Paul. She pressed the elevator, reached out to block the elevator door, and said to Charlie Wade, "Master Wade, please!"

Charlie Wade nodded slightly, stepped into the elevator first, and Jasmine followed in.

The elevator door closed, and the faint and advanced fragrance of Jasmine's body slowly penetrated Charlie Wade's nostrils.

I have to say that Jasmine's taste is very high, the perfume on her body is light and long. Not only makes people feel very comfortable and refreshing, but it also smells not vulgar, and even makes people obsessive and addictive.

Standing with her, Charlie Wade even had some contemplation in his heart. It is undeniable that Jasmine is indeed very beautiful, with a very noble temperament, and more importantly, this woman is too gentle when she is in front of her, and she can't see the air of Missy.

The two left the Gemdale Building together, and Jasmine personally opened the door of her Rolls-Royce and asked Charlie Wade to sit in.

After getting in the car, Jasmine respectfully asked Charlie Wade next to him: "Master Wade, where are you going, I will see you off!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "Then please send me back to Thompson First A05."

Jasmine asked in amazement: "Mr. Wade, are you going to do errands? Why are you going home suddenly?"

Charlie Wade said with a smile: "The time to do something hasn't arrived yet, I'll go home and wait."

Although Jasmine was a little surprised, she nodded slightly and said, "Then I will send you back."

As she said that, she plucked up courage again and asked expectantly: "Master Wade, when will you have time? I want to treat you to dinner..." Charlie Wade thought for a while and said, "Let's take two days. There have been a lot of things recently, especially today."

He has already explained to Cameron Isaac very clearly that once he is ready to release Elaine Ma, the detention center will specifically ask her to call him.

At that time, I will go and pick Elaine Ma back.

The reason why he had to pick up Elaine Ma himself was mainly because he wanted to see how miserable Elaine Ma was now.

This woman, who dared to steal 21.9 billion, would never be able to learn a lesson if she didn't suffer from it.

21.9 billion. If you don't show mercy to her and you are not afraid of revealing your identity, and you call the police directly, Elaine Ma will be sentenced to at least a suspended death sentence even if you don't shoot her for such a large amount of money involved.

Let her go in and suffer for a few days and then let her out. It's already very cheap for her!

Chapter 919

After Elaine Ma returned to the detention center from the police station for questioning, she has been waiting for the result with anxiety. She didn't know if the police would let herself go, so she could only pray in her heart.

In the two days since entering the detention center, Elaine Ma has suffered. She has never suffered the painful torture in her life. Now she feels that she is on the verge of collapse. If she does not let herself go out, she will really have to die here. It.

Lady Wilson knew that Elaine Ma was called to the police station for questioning in the morning, and she felt a little worried in her heart. She was afraid that Elaine Ma would tell the police officers that she and Gena tortured and beat Elaine Ma.

Moreover, she was also worried that Elaine Ma would apply for a cell change with the police officer.

If the police officer replaced her, wouldn't she lose the greatest pleasure?

For so long, the Wilson family has suffered so many misfortunes and tribulations, that Lady Wilson's mood has been very low. It was not until Elaine Ma and her were locked up in the same cell that she regained the joy and joy of life. Beautiful.

The thought that Elaine Ma might have been in prison for more than ten or twenty years, and that she would be able to go out after waiting for more than 10 days, Lady Wilson felt excited.

Seeing Elaine Ma curled up in the corner of the cell, Lady Wilson was very playful. She stepped up to Elaine Ma and asked with a smile: "Oh, I heard you were called to the police station for questioning?"

Elaine Ma looked at her, shivering: "Yes, mother, I was called to ask about the situation."

Lady Wilson asked coldly: "Then did you talk nonsense with the police? Did you not complain to them?"

Elaine Ma hurriedly waved her hand and said, "Don't worry, mom, I didn't tell the police what happened in the cell. They came to me to ask about the case."

Lady Wilson relaxed, snorted and asked her: "I said Elaine Ma, have you consulted with a lawyer? How many years are you going to be sentenced to in this situation? Is 10 years and 15 years enough?"

Elaine Ma shook his head repeatedly and muttered: "I haven't found a lawyer yet, so I don't know how long I will be sentenced."

After killing Elaine Ma, Elaine Ma did not dare to say that he might be released soon.

Because once they knew they were going to be let go, they would definitely do everything possible to torture themselves severely before they left.

So Elaine Ma decided to forbear, until the moment the police came to let him go.

The Lady Wilson sneered and said proudly: "I have heard others say that in your case, at least 15 years will be sentenced!"

The Lady said with a long sigh, but she said with excitement: "Oh, 15 years, Elaine Ma, 15 days, my Lady can't stand it for 15 years, how will you take it then? I will worry about you when I think about it. ."

Elaine Ma said nonchalantly: "I don't know ah! Mom! When I thought that I might be locked up in it for more than ten years, my heart was so cool..."

Gena stepped to Elaine Ma at this time, and slapped her right and left, and then looked down at her: "Like you, a pornographic woman who snatches someone else's husband, don't say you have been detained for more than ten years, even if you are detained for a lifetime. I don't understand the hate. Think about that Matilda who was forced to the United States by you. Although I don't know him or her, I haven't even met her, but when I think of what you do to her, I want to do it for her. Bad breath!"

After that, he stretched out his hand to grab Elaine Ma's hair, crackling her face several times.

Elaine Ma's mouth soon shed blood, and at the moment Gena stopped, she did not expect that the Lady Wilson on the side was also waiting to teach her.

Just as Gena stopped, Lady Wilson suddenly stretched out her hand, tightly grabbing Elaine Ma's ear, and pulling desperately, making Elaine Ma cry out in pain.

Elaine Ma grinned and asked, "Mom, why are you pulling my ears? Did I do something wrong, mom?"

Chapter 920

Lady Wilson coldly snorted: "You still have the face to ask me, what did you do wrong? I tell you, as long as you are alive, as long as you can breathe, it is wrong. Your only correct choice is to die quickly. , Don't waste air in this world!"

Elaine Ma felt that her ears were about to be pulled off, and the pain was so painful, but she didn't dare to have the slightest sense of disobedience, so she could only swallow the bitterness into her stomach, thinking that if she persisted, she could just persist. out!

After I go out, this bad Lady will also be released in less than ten days. At that time, this bad Lady has no place to live, no place to eat, no place to drink, or she will go to death on the street. There is a chance to find her revenge!

Doesn't this bad Lady feel that she is going to be locked up in it for more than ten years?

She also wanted to take the letter written by herself and go to live in her Thompson First Villa, which is simply a dream!

She must have never imagined that it would be impossible for her to be detained here for more than ten years, and she will be released soon!

When the prison guards came to let him go, I believe this bad wife will be dumbfounded, dumbfounded, and even very painful, very depressed, and very angry!

Maybe it's possible to die here on the spot.

Lady Wilson did not expect that Elaine Ma might be released. She only felt that Elaine Ma might stay in jail for the rest of her life.

That's why she has always regarded the letter written by Elaine Ma as a treasure, because with this letter in her hand, she can go to live in the big mansion of Thompson First after only waiting for more than ten days after it is released.

OMG, Thompson First, how dare I think about it before!

After staying in the Thompson First villa this time, he said nothing would be possible to move away, and he would die in a mansion like Thompson First A05.

She is more feudal and superstitious. She feels that only by dying in this kind of mansion can she devote herself to a wealthier family and enjoy a lifetime of prosperity.

At this time, the guards in the detention center stepped over.

Only then did Mrs. Wilson reluctantly let go of Elaine Ma's ears. Just now, with all her strength, she pulled Elaine Ma's ears so red and swollen, and there was even some tearing and bleeding at the base of the ears.

Elaine Ma's painful tears burst, but when she saw the prison guard, she was almost crazy with excitement.

The prison guard is here, the prison guard is here to let himself go!

I am finally going to be free again!

I can finally return to the big mansion of Thompson First, have a full meal, and sleep peacefully!

For more than two days, I didn't eat anything except licking two mouthfuls of porridge on the ground, I didn't sleep well, and I also had a fever. This feeling was simply too painful.

So Elaine Ma can't wait to leave here quickly, leave here forever.

The prison guard strode to the cell, opened the door, and said, "It's time to let the wind out, everyone lined up to the playground!"

"Out of the air?!"

Elaine Ma's heart was extremely excited, and instantly fell to the bottom.

Are the prison guards here to take everyone out? Isn't she ready to let herself out? Haven't the police officers discussed whether they want to let themselves out?

Chapter 921

Although Elaine Ma was desperate in her heart, at the detention center, she knew that she had to listen to the prison guard, so she hurriedly followed everyone out of the cell.

When they arrived at the playground, the prison guard said: "First run three laps around the playground, and then freely move for half an hour. After half an hour, gather at the entrance of the playground and return to the cell!"

Everyone rushed to line up. Gena was the head of the cell, so she arranged the queue. She glanced at Elaine Ma and said: "You stand in the front, everyone behind is staring at you, if you don't run well, I will blow your head!"

Then she turned her head to look at other people and said, "You can help the Lady and run slowly, don't exhaust the Lady."

Lady Wilson smiled and said: "Gena, you are really interested. Although I am old, my body is not bad. I don't need anyone to support me. I just walk slowly behind you."

Gena nodded, and then shouted, "Get ready, run!"

Elaine Ma was at the forefront. Hearing this, he quickly endured the pain in his whole body and the weakness of not eating much for two days and nights, and started to run. Then everyone followed her.

Elaine Ma is very weak, and she was uncomfortable as if she was about to fall apart, so after two steps, her legs were soft, one staggered and almost fell.

The woman behind her kicked her directly on the waist and cursed: "Sorry women who rob someone else's husband, who run crookedly every step of the way, what else can you do?"

Another woman laughed and said, "This sorrowful woman can also grab someone else's husband. Although she can't run, she will run to someone else's bed!"

Everyone burst into laughter, Elaine Ma could only endure the humiliation deep in his heart, gritted his teeth and ran forward.

At this moment, Elaine Ma saw three fierce women standing on the runway in the corner of the playground, staring in his direction as if looking at him.

As soon as she ran past the three women, one of the women stretched out a hand and grabbed her shoulder.

Elaine Ma was caught, and the whole team stopped. Gena came up and asked, "What are the three of you doing?"

These three women are fierce and vicious. The person who just stretched out her hand to hold Elaine Ma had a scar on her face from the corner of his left eye to her right chin. This scar split her face in half. She looks extremely scary.

Although Gena is the king and hegemony in her cell, in the final analysis she is nothing more than an ordinary peasant woman. Let her beat Elaine Ma, she dares to beat, but she must not dare to let her attack someone with a knife.

So when she saw that there was a scar on the other's face, she knew that this woman was absolutely extraordinary, she was an existence she couldn't afford.

The scar woman said, "I'm looking for a person named Elaine Ma, is it your cell? Which one is her?"

When Elaine Ma heard that he was looking for herself, she was frightened and distraught, waved her hands again and again: "I don't know, I have never heard of a person called Elaine Ma..."

Lady Wilson pointed to Elaine Ma, and said, "Don't listen to this shameless woman being nonsense here, she is Elaine Ma!"

Wendy also said: "Yes, it is her! She is Elaine Ma! She is still a scammer!"

The Scar Woman turned her head to look at Elaine Ma, and slapped Elaine Ma's face severely.

At first glance, this scar woman had practiced, and she had muscles all over her body, so her slap was much stronger than Gena's and others. This slapped Elaine Ma directly to the ground. Elaine Ma was directly slapped by the slap, and fell to the ground with a bang, and then spit out a posterior molar, which was really miserable.

Chapter 922

Everyone felt timid when they saw the scar woman being so cruel, but Lady Wilson was very happy, anyway, as long as she saw Elaine Ma being beaten, she felt very happy.

Wendy also felt that this was really hateful. After seeing Elaine Ma suffered so many beatings, she didn't have the energy to slap her. A slap directly knocked her to the ground. This is the power that ordinary people can have.

Elaine Ma was scared to death!

Being beaten is not a big problem for her, because she has not been beaten less in the past two days, and she has already practiced.

But the key is that she doesn't know why this scar woman hit herself.

Is she a member of that transnational fraud group, came to ask herself to settle accounts?

Just when Elaine Ma was terrified, Gena said to the scared woman with a face: "Eldest sister, we are not familiar with this woman. If you want to beat her, you can beat her. It doesn't matter if you kill her, but We still have to run, do you think we can keep running?"

The Scar Woman snorted coldly and said, "I don't care if anyone waits, get out of me! Otherwise, don't blame me for being polite!"

Gena hurriedly waved and shouted: "Sisters, come and run with me, 121, 121!"

People in the same cell hurriedly followed her and yelled chants. People in the 20s yelled 121 and hurried away.

Only the three women and Elaine Ma himself remained at the scene.

Elaine Ma was so frightened that she blurted out and asked, "Sister, where did I provoke you? At least tell me..."

Scar woman kicked Elaine Ma's belly, and she was clutching her belly and wailing on the ground.

Then, she took out a black bank card from her pocket and asked, "Elaine Ma, you look up, do you recognize this card?"

As soon as Elaine Ma looked up, her heart was shocked, this card is so special, how could she not recognize it, it is exactly the same as the card stolen from Charlie Wade!

These three people are indeed from the fraud gang? !

In the morning, didn't the police still tell themselves that they didn't find a clue? Why are three accomplices caught now?

These three women even knew that they were 80% here to settle their accounts, and it is possible that they caused them to go to jail.

It's over now, they won't get angry and kill themselves?

She was obviously going to be released soon. Wouldn't it be too miserable if someone killed him at this time?

So, she said with tears and nose: "I really don't recognize this bank card, did you recognize the wrong person?"

"Admit it? Are you f*cking kidding me?"

The Scar Woman grabbed Elaine Ma's hair, slapped her face with a slap, and said, "Do you know why the three of us came in? It's because you, a woman, attracted the police and caught the three of us. Being arrested, let me tell you, the three of us are likely to be sentenced to life imprisonment, and this is all your harm!"

Elaine Ma cried out and cried, "I'm sorry, I'm really sorry, I am also a victim, I don't know that there are so many things behind that card..."

Scar woman looked at her and shouted angrily at the two people around her: "Damn, give me a hard hit, and beat her half to death! Anyway, she will be locked in for more than ten or twenty years, and we will do it every day. Beat her twice to relieve her anger, when will she be killed, and when will it be finished!"

Chapter 923

When the other two women heard this, they rushed forward, and the three of them punched and kicked Elaine Ma together.

The fists and big feet greeted Elaine Ma frantically, as if he didn't want money, and Elaine Ma kept calling out.

In fact, these three people were sent by Cameron Isaac to teach Elaine Ma, in order to convince Elaine Ma that she was in great trouble.

In this way, after she was released, she wouldn't dare to mess with Charlie Wade.

At this time, Elaine Ma was beaten and rolled back and forth on the ground, screaming and begging for mercy endlessly.

The others were still running, but when they heard this scream, they stopped and stared at them from a distance, all in shock.

Although Gena also beat Elaine Ma, he was not as cruel as the three of them. It was almost as if beaten to death...

It can be seen that these three people must not be ordinary people.

"Oh, it's so miserable, so miserable!" Gena couldn't help sighing: "This Elaine Ma, it's really a thumping man...I sympathize with her a little bit..."

And the Lady Wilson saw that Elaine Ma was beaten so badly, she immediately laughed on the side, and laughed loudly: "It's great, beat this shrew to death, beat her so hard that she can't speak with her broken mouth!"

Wendy also clapped vigorously and smiled: "Hit! Hit it hard! Pump her face! Smash her broken face!"

At this time, the scar woman saw that Elaine Ma was almost beaten, and then she said: "Okay, leave her a dog, or if she is killed now, she will be beaten for the next 20 years. Why are you venting?"

The two stopped now.

Elaine Ma's nose and face were swollen, and she fell to the ground and kept screaming, feeling that she had only one breath left.

Scar woman walked up to her and said coldly: "I tell you, your good days are still early, this is the end of your low hands, wait, I will let you not survive, but you cannot die!"

Elaine Ma burst into tears with fright.

The suffering that Charlie Wade's black card brought to him was even more tragic than the nine-nine-nine-eighty-one difficulties that Jesus took from the scriptures.

From the time I stole that card to the present, besides being beaten, I was being beaten. I was hungry after I was beaten, I was frozen when I was hungry, I was poured with cold water when I was frozen, and poured in cold water when I was completely frozen. And sleep in the toilet...

This is simply a scene of human tragedy.

When the scar woman saw Elaine Ma lying on the ground and crying, she kicked her and snorted coldly: "Cry again, cry again and you will break your teeth!"

Elaine Ma closed her mouth immediately. She didn't dare to make a half-word or a little sound. She had already lost two front teeth and one posterior molar. At this time, if her mouth was broken again, she would have to spend the rest of her life. How to live!

Seeing that she didn't dare to make any more noises, the scar woman sneered: "Okay, get out of here."

Elaine Ma was relieved. Although the beaten couldn't stand up, she still clung to the distance with her hands, trying to stay away from the three women.

After Elaine Ma was beaten, the three women also turned and left. At this moment, two prison guards suddenly appeared, greeted Gena to come, and drove Elaine Ma back to the cell.

Although Gena hates Elaine Ma very much, seeing Elaine Ma being beaten like this, he also has a hint of compassion in his heart.

As a result, she was physically strong, Elaine Ma helped her up and led her to the cell.

Others followed behind, each with their own thoughts.

Chapter 924

Some people sympathized with her, some watched a good show, and some had lingering fears.

When Elaine Ma was framed back to the cell, Charlie Wade received a call from Cameron Isaac at home.

On the phone, Cameron Isaac said, "Master, I have sent someone to teach Elaine Ma. I believe that after she comes out, I will definitely not dare to say one more word to you."

Charlie Wade said lightly: "Well, you did a good job."

Cameron Isaac said: "Master, please forgive me. I think that your mother-in-law has done too much. She stole so much money from you. In fact, it is better to hand it over to the law. At least give her a suspended death sentence. Why bother her Release it?"

Charlie Wade gave a wry smile: "You don't understand, my mother-in-law is a ticket."

Cameron Isaac hurriedly asked: "Tickets? Master, what do you mean by this?"

Charlie Wade couldn't tell him directly that his mother-in-law Elaine Ma was actually his ticket to the wife's bed, so he said indifferently:

"Okay, don't ask so much, go make arrangements, it's almost time to let them go. "

"Okay!" Cameron Isaac nodded immediately: "I'll make arrangements!"

.....

At this moment, Elaine Ma was lying on her little bed, howling.

This was the reason why she came to the guard, and was able to lie down on the bed for the first time.

Thanks to Gena's pity for her, she felt it was too miserable for her to be beaten by thousands of people, so after taking her back, she put her directly on her bed.

The Lady Wilson walked into the room at this time, looked at Elaine Ma on the bed, and said with a sneer: "Oh Elaine Ma, you have offended so many people, why would anyone want to beat you twice? I see you The days from now on are really hard to get through!"

Elaine Ma was about to collapse at this time, she even wondered, are the policemen not going to let herself go out? If that is the case, then I will be too miserable in the future.

To be beaten in the cell, and beaten out of the cell, how many beats do you have to get on this day?

Wendy also echoed: "Grandma, I think this b*tch woman may not live for more than ten or twenty years. According to this style of play, it is estimated that in two or three months, she will have to be beaten to death?"

Lady Wilson laughed and said: "Oh, it deserves it, it really deserves it!"

After finishing speaking, she sat in front of Elaine Ma, looked at Elaine Ma with a swollen nose and swollen nose, and said excitedly: "Haha, Elaine Ma, you probably never dreamed that you would have today? It's fine now, you will be here in the future. Suffer well in this prison. After a few days of going out with Wendy, we will go to Thompson First to enjoy the good fortune!"

Elaine Ma was aggrieved and said: "Even if you are going to live in the Thompson First villa, there is no need to curse me to death, right? I am also the daughter-in-law of the Wilson family, the wife of your son, and the mother of your granddaughter. How can you be so cruel? what!"

Lady Wilson sneered: "Of course I am cruel to you! Besides, I have never regarded you as the daughter-in-law of my Wilson family. How do you deserve to be the daughter-in-law of our Wilson family? After the first rank of the minister, let my son change to another daughter-in-law. When the time comes, our family will be happy, it is really family happiness! You just wait for moldy and smelly in this prison!"

When Elaine Ma heard this, she was almost furious!

how? Do you want Jacob Wilson to change his wife? Enjoy family happiness with you?

Your bad old woman is just a pipe dream!

You wait! I will definitely go out! At that time, let's see how my Lady turned to see you jokes!

Elaine Ma was thinking fiercely in his heart, when the prison guard suddenly opened the door and said: "Elaine Ma, you have been released, come out with me to pack your things and go through the formalities so that your family can pick you up! "

Chapter 925

The words made the whole cell stunned!

Lady Wilson and Wendy couldn't believe their ears! Why? Didn't it mean that Elaine Ma committed fraud? Doesn't it mean that she will be imprisoned for at least 10 years, 20 years, or even longer? Why let her go now? !

Now let her go, how can I live in Thompson First after I go out in ten days? The Lady Wilson panicked! At this moment, when Elaine Ma, who had been seen half dead, immediately jumped out of bed with excitement when he heard this! The pain of being beaten up just now was completely incomprehensible, as if being driven out of the sky by this sentence at this moment. Thankfully, I can finally go out!

Elaine Ma excitedly danced and cheered: "Haha, great, my Lady is finally going to let go, hahaha, great, great, really great, my Lady is going back to live in my old mother's Thompson First villa!"

After finishing speaking, she immediately looked at Mrs. Wilson and cursed coldly: "Hahaha, bad Lady, you never dreamed that my Lady would be released, hahaha!"

"And Wendy, you two poor, just stay in jail! Cherish your days in jail. Once you are released, you will not even have a place to live. You will have to Fall to the streets!"

"Just like you two are so poor, you still want to live in the first grade of Thompson First of my Lady, I yeah, after you let go, go and open your ancestral grave! See who of your eighth generation ancestors is worthy of the first grade of Thompson First What? Let alone you two paupers!"

Lady Wilson was trembling with anger, and at this moment, she wished to tear Elaine Ma alive.

She even regretted not encouraging Gena to kill Elaine Ma directly.

Now this b*tch woman is about to be released suddenly, this is nothing short of eyes!

Wendy scolded angrily: "You shrew, don't be too happy too early, maybe the court is about to hear you, and you will be sentenced to life imprisonment after you are tried! Don't even want to go out in this life!"

Elaine Ma suddenly cursed and shouted: "f*ck your mother's ass, my Lady has already washed away her grievances, she will be released, she will regain her freedom, you homeless homeless people, please hurry up! " After finishing speaking, Elaine Ma looked at Gena again and gritted his teeth and cursed: "Gena, an ugly fat pig from the countryside, dare to beat my Lady and let my Lady kneel on the ground to lick the porridge. I tell you, you will wait for me. Now, when you let it go, my Lady will find someone to kill you bastard, aren't you the most filial one? Wait, when I find out where your mother is buried, I will take your mother's grave away and lay her ashes!"

Gena was trembling with anger, and was about to fight her desperately on the spot.

Just about to start, I heard the prison guard yell from behind: "Elaine Ma, are you going to leave?"

Elaine Ma hurriedly said: "Walk, go now, I don't want to stay here for a minute."

The prison guard said in a cold voice, "Then hurry up and pack things."

Because the prison guards were there, the others wanted to beat Elaine Ma, but they didn't dare to do it, they could only hate it.

Gena hates her the most, because she hates her mother who is abused by others. This Elaine Ma dare to say that she is going to spread her mother's ashes. It's a crime!

Chapter 926

Elaine Ma was completely confident at this time. While packing his own things, he said coldly to the people around him: "By the way, there are a few of you who have beaten me, don't even want to run! I tell you, I am here. The outside forces are very powerful. Starting today, I will wait for you when I go out. I will fight one by one, and let you bully me again!"

Elaine Ma counted them down one by one, turning the expressions of everyone in the cell blue and angry.

After scolding these people, Elaine Ma could be regarded as letting out a sigh of relief.

At this time, she had finished packing her things, and was about to leave with the prison guard, when she suddenly felt a urge to pee.

She muttered to herself: "Damn, why do you have urine at this time..." As she said, she whispered again: "No! This cell is too bad, and the urine taken from here must also be particularly bad, and you must leave after the spread!"

Thinking of this, she sneered at Mrs. Wilson and Gena, and said contemptuously: "My Lady happened to have a pee, so I will leave it to you guys!"

After speaking, Elaine Ma hummed a song, twisted her waist, and walked into the toilet.

Outside, a group of people were silent, and Elaine Ma gasped for breath. Lady Wilson clutched her chest, she looked like she was mad, and she said: "I'm so angry, I'm really angry! It must be my unfilial son who came to bail her!"

Gena asked in an interface: "Your son bailed her without bail? This is not what a bastard is!"

Lady Wilson cried and said, "My son is also a useless man. He was taken care of by this shrew. They just don't want me to live. They just tried every means to toss my Lady..."

After that, Mrs. Wilson deliberately instigated the divorce and said to Gena: "Gena, this woman is very vicious. She said she wants to pick up your mother's grave. I think she will definitely do something like this. You have to be sorry. Shun change!"

When Gena heard this, she immediately felt a puff of blood rushing to the top of her head, making her tremble all over.

She gritted her teeth, stood up directly, and immediately rushed into the toilet!

This is my last chance to teach Elaine Ma, if I don't seize it, then this b*tch will really leave.

When the Lady Wilson saw her rushing into the bathroom furiously, she immediately followed in tremblingly.

Wendy, and several others who were scolded by Elaine Ma, also immediately followed!

When Elaine Ma was about to relieve her hand, she suddenly heard the toilet door slammed and kicked open. Then, facing Gena's big foot, she kicked her and sat down in the toilet.

Her legs stuck on the edge of the urinal, her a sank in, painful, and she couldn't stand up after getting stuck.

When Gena thought that Elaine Ma was going to pick up his mother's grave and also lift up her mother's ashes, Gena grinned with hatred, and said to others: "Beat me hard! Kill her! Let her be a stinky girl. Let's pretend to be forced!"

A group of people immediately hit Elaine Ma on the head and body.

Elaine Ma was caught off guard, yelling and raising her hands, trying to block the opponent's fists and feet, but it was in vain.

At this time, Wendy's eyes flashed with cold light. She had long wanted to beat Elaine Ma, but she had never had a chance!

Seeing that everyone in front of me was greeting Elaine Ma's upper body, and Elaine Ma was tall with two legs up, Wendy immediately stepped forward, held Elaine Ma on one leg, and winked at the Lady Wilson, saying, "Grandma, let's just Smash this b*tch's leg to her! Otherwise, there will be no chance again!"

"Good!" Lady Wilson nodded with gritted teeth!

Chapter 927

The Lady Wilson saw that her dream of living in Thompson First's villa future was broken again, and she hated Elaine Ma to death. Moreover, Elaine Ma dared to be so arrogant in front of her just now, and to speak so excessively, which made the Lady feel resentful. For Mrs. Wilson, the last thing she wants to see is Elaine Ma's escape from the sea of suffering, but now Elaine Ma is going to be let go? ! If Elaine Ma is released, then this is the last chance to teach her! Once missed, there may be no chance in the future! So the Lady, regardless of her old age and health, raised her leg and slammed her foot on Elaine Ma's knee. With a click, Elaine Ma suddenly let out a terrible scream. She felt severe pain in her leg, it must be a broken leg! Lady Wilson succeeded in one blow and was excited, but she did not expect that her body movements were too great, and one of them couldn't stand firmly and slipped to the ground. This fall directly hit her tailbone, and the pain caused her to scream "Oh, oh,".

But Elaine Ma was obviously more miserable. Seeing her right knee, she folded an arc in the opposite direction, and her pain was so painful that she could only scream incessantly, "Ah...my leg! I have broken my leg!" The prison guard heard the movement inside and shouted outside: "What's the matter? What are you doing inside?"

When everyone heard this, they hurriedly stopped and stood aside. Gena took a look, and then smiled deliberately: "Ken, this b*tch is dripping badly. She is about to go out. She wants to kick the Lady. He didn't expect to break her leg. She deserves it!"

After speaking, she hurriedly helped Lady Wilson and went out of the toilet.

Elaine Ma cried loudly: "Guard, come and save me, my leg is broken!" The prison guard had already arrived at the door of the toilet. As soon as he came in, he saw Elaine Ma's tragic situation, frowned and asked everyone, "What are you doing?"

Gena stood up and said, "I don't know. Just now the Lady came in to go to the bathroom. She had to kick someone, but she slipped and fell like this."

Lady Wilson also endured the pain, and said: "This animal kicked me, and my tail vertebra was broken. It hurts me to death..."

Elaine Ma cried loudly: "You fart, you bastards hit me and broke my leg!" Gena sneered and said, "Do you have any evidence? We, more than 20 people, have seen you kicking the Lady. You still want to make a sophistry?"

Elaine Ma pointed at the crowd and cried out, "You were the one who beat me! You collectively broke my leg!"

The prison guard frowned. It is impossible for a normal person to go to the toilet for no reason and her leg broke.

So Elaine Ma broke her leg, it was obviously beaten by these people in the cell.

But if one person does it alone, she can still handle it, and if all of them do it, there is really no way at all.

Firstly, it is impossible for all members to deal with it. Secondly, it may be very troublesome to ask these people to confess who is fighting. It requires constant isolation and brings these people out one by one for interrogation.

Thinking of this, she began to speak: "After doing Elaine Ma, if you continue to make trouble like this, you won't be able to leave today. If you want to investigate and deal with it again, you will have to wait a long time at least."

Chapter 928

Elaine Ma cried and said, "Then you can't let them break my leg in vain, right?"

The prison guard said indifferently: "If you want to report them, I'll go through the normal process and let the police come for interrogation. But in that case, you may also need to go to the police station. You have to record your confession, and I have to say something. To be honest, you are alone, they are more than 20 people, they may not admit what you say, if they bite you back then and insist that you hurt the Lady, then you are shooting yourself in the foot."

When Elaine Ma heard this, she suddenly became desperate.

She also knows that these female prisoners are not good people, and they are very united under Gena's leadership, not to mention that she has provoked public anger. If she makes this matter to the police, it is very likely that they will turn out to be them. Bite yourself together.

In that case, it would be more troublesome for myself.

It's better to go out as soon as possible. The sooner you go out, the better!

Thinking of this, Elaine Ma nodded angrily, and said, "I want to go out, I want to go out now!"

The guard nodded, helped Elaine Ma walked out of the bathroom, and then led her out of the cell.

The moment he left the cell, Elaine Ma turned back and said to Lady Wilson: "Dead Lady, wait for me. Sooner or later, I will break both of your legs!"

Lady. Wilson said coldly: "You b*tch, you won't die sooner or later!"

Elaine Ma ignored the Lady and looked at Gena again, and said sharply: "Gena, you dog and woman, wait for me. Your mother's grave will definitely not be kept!"

Gena yelled angrily: "Dare you, I must kill you."

Elaine Ma limped out with the support of the prison guards, turning around and cursing: "Look at me, dare you, wait. When you come out, take a look at your mother's grave and see you. Has Mom's ashes been raised by me!"

After speaking, without looking back, she followed the prison guard out of the cell in the detention center.

Elaine Ma came to the office area of the detention center, and the prison guards led her into an office. There were already two police officers sitting in this office, the two who were in charge of her case.

When the two police officers saw her being supported by the prison guards, they jumped in, and they were suddenly dumbfounded.

The guard said to the two of them: "She had a conflict with a cellmate in the same cell just now in the bathroom, and her leg was hurt."

Elaine Ma said angrily, "Is it hurt? My leg is broken, OK, haven't you seen it?"

The prison guard asked in a cold voice, "What I told you just now, you are all deaf to your ears, right? Do you want to call everyone out now, and then transfer you to the Public Security Bureau for a good trial. I'll tell you, don't judge you. For three to five days, don't even think of it!"

One of the police officers said, "After Elaine Ma, you can go home now and it's very good. As for the injury on your leg, you can wait until you go out and go to the hospital for treatment. You can keep it for three to five months. ."

Elaine Ma nodded angrily and asked, "Comrade police officer, when can I be released?"

The police officer said, "Did you remember everything we told you before?"

Elaine Ma hurriedly said: "Don't worry, I remember it clearly, and I won't say a word to anyone after I go out and kill me!"

When Elaine Ma was let out in the afternoon, she was beaten and threatened by the three fierce women. She was so frightened that she was deeply aware of the huge danger behind this incident.

So now she can't hide, how can she dare to mention it again?

The police officer was satisfied, and returned Elaine Ma's cell phone to her and said, "Okay, I will call your son-in-law now and let your son-in-law pick you up."

Chapter 929

After Elaine Ma picked up her mobile phone, she couldn't wait to turn it on.

Since calling in, she has never been able to touch her phone again, nor can she contact her husband and daughter.

Suddenly taking back the phone, Elaine Ma suddenly felt a strong grievance.

My husband and daughter certainly didn't know that they had suffered so much inhuman torture in the past two days.

But this kind of thing, I just can't tell them.

Because once she uttered a word, she might be murdered, or she might be caught by the police again and put in jail.

After the phone was turned on, Elaine Ma could receive countless messages on WeChat. She clicked on it and found that basically every message came from her daughter Claire Wilson Wilson.

Seeing that her daughter was always worried about herself and kept sending her various messages, Elaine Ma felt very comforted.

But she couldn't help but think of another thing.

Why didn't my husband send me a WeChat?

He has been missing for two days, is he not worried at all?

Thinking of this, Elaine Ma was quite dissatisfied, and she couldn't help but wonder: I didn't expect Jacob Wilson, an old thing to be so unaffectionate, that he had been missing for so long, she didn't even have a WeChat! Be sure to settle accounts with him afterwards!

At this time, the police officer said: "Don't play WeChat there anymore. Call your son-in-law quickly."

Elaine Ma hurriedly asked: "Comrade Constable, can I stop my son-in-law from picking me up? I am so annoyed to die when I think of this man. I hate my teeth. Can I let my daughter pick me up?"

The police officer slapped the table and shouted coldly: "The reason why we let you find your son-in-law to pick you up is because we want to confirm whether the criminals are looking at your son-in-law now, otherwise, if you rashly put you back, You are very likely to be targeted by others, maybe you will be killed tonight. In that case, don't blame me for not reminding you!"

As soon as Elaine Ma heard this, her liver trembled with fright, and she hurriedly said: "That's fine, I'll call my son-in-law now, comrade police, please make sure to see if the criminals are looking at him." The police officer nodded and said coldly: "Don't worry, as long as you do as we say, we will naturally investigate."

Elaine Ma breathed a sigh of relief and said, "Then I'll call him now!" The police officer asked her again: "Do you know how to tell him?" "Know!" Elaine Ma forced the pain in his leg and said honestly: "I told him that I was cheated by a MLM organization, and then I was caught by the police. Now I am relieved of my grievances and can finally go home. Up."

The policeman hummed, waved his hand and said, "Okay, let's call now." At this moment, Charlie Wade was waiting for Elaine Ma's call at home. Suddenly the phone on the table rang. He hurriedly picked up the phone and realized that it was indeed his mother-in-law who was calling, so he pressed the answer button.

"Mom?! Where are you? We are going crazy looking for you these past two days!"

Charlie Wade started acting as soon as he spoke.

Elaine Ma hated her crazy in her heart, but she couldn't say it directly, so she could only say in a cold voice: "I'm in the city detention center right now, please drive to pick me up!"

Charlie Wade said: "Mom, the car at home has been driven away, or I'll take a taxi to pick you up."

Elaine Ma asked angrily: "Are both cars driven away?"

Charlie Wade gave a hum and said, "Claire Wilson Wilson has gone to the company, and Dad has gone to the party."

Chapter 930

"Party?!" Elaine Ma asked, "That damn Jacob Wilson is still in the mood to party? Whom did he go to party with?"

Charlie Wade said: "Talk to some old classmates. I'm not very clear about the details. Should I call him?"

Elaine Ma said angrily: "You come to pick me up first! I am injured now and must go to the hospital!"

Charlie Wade asked, "Mom, what hurt you? Does it matter?"

Elaine Ma said angrily: "My leg is broken! You are so much nonsense, get out of here!"

Charlie Wade said: "Okay, then I will pass now."

After hanging up the phone, Charlie Wade immediately went out, stopped a taxi, and went to Aurouss Hilll Detention Center.

On the way to the detention center, he called Claire Wilson Wilson and said to her: "Wife, Mom called me, and I'm going to pick her up now."

When Claire Wilson Wilson heard this, she blurted out excitedly and asked, "Really? Did Mom call you? Where is she? Is she okay?!"

Charlie Wade said: "Mom said she was in the Aurouss Hilll Detention Center. As for the reason, I asked her. She said that she was deceived into a pyramid scheme two days ago and was arrested by the police again, so she was locked in. It was released after being free of suspicion."

Claire Wilson Wilson suddenly realized!

I suspected that my mother was cheated away by pyramid schemes, but I didn't expect it to be caught by the police!

It seems that after mom comes home, you must tell her well, and never trust people outside who can make her rich overnight.

Thinking of this, she hurriedly said: "Then I will go over now, we will see it in the detention center."

Charlie Wade hurriedly said, "My wife, don't come here. Mom told me on the phone that she was injured. After I picked her up, I would take her to the hospital immediately. Then you can see you at the hospital!"

Claire Wilson Wilson asked nervously, "What's the matter? Where did Mom get hurt? Is it serious?"

Charlie Wade said: "Mom said on the phone that her leg was broken, but I don't know whether it's serious or not. You have to see the doctor to find out."

Claire Wilson Wilson burst into tears all of a sudden, and said, "Then you will come directly to the emergency department of the People's Hospital after picking up your mother. I will go there now!"

.....

When Charlie Wade came to the detention center and saw Elaine Ma, Elaine Ma was already tortured.

She had a bruised nose and swollen face, her body was wounded, her front teeth had lost two, and her hair was ripped apart and some of her scalp had been exposed.

And Elaine Ma came in for the past two days, almost as if he didn't eat or drink, so the whole person has two avatars, originally quite rich, now it is a bit horrible.

What's worse is Elaine Ma's right leg, which has broken from the knee at this time, and can only hang at this strange angle. It seems that he has been tortured quite miserably.

Charlie Wade asked in surprise, "Mom, what's wrong with you? Why do you suffer so many injuries?"

"You want to take care of it!" Elaine Ma gritted his teeth and said, "Don't hurry up and take me to the hospital!"

Charlie Wade shrugged and said, "Okay, the taxi is waiting outside. I'll take you to the hospital."

The police officer looked at Elaine Ma and said coldly: "Elaine Ma! What did you tell you just now? If you still have this attitude, then don't go out and stay inside!"

As soon as Elaine Ma heard this, she was so frightened that she blurted out to Charlie Wade, "Oh my good son-in-law, it was all bad for mom just now. Mom shouldn't yell at you..."

The police officer stared at Elaine Ma and warned: "Don't forget what I told you. We are only letting you out temporarily, but we will always watch you, understand?"

Chapter 931

Seeing Charlie Wade, Elaine Ma's heart was full of hatred.

Although she had believed the police's statement, she believed that Charlie Wade was also a tool in the eyes of those transnational criminals, instead of keeping a fake bank card deliberately.

However, all of my disasters started from his card after all. If it weren't for his card, I wouldn't suffer these grievances, so I naturally regarded Charlie Wade as the biggest culprit.

Because of this, she saw Charlie Wade now, naturally it was impossible to show him any good expressions.

But suddenly she was yelled at by the police officer, which shocked her.

The thought that she might be stared at by the police all the time in the future, Elaine Ma felt very uncomfortable.

But she has nothing to do, who gets herself involved in such a huge vortex.

As a result, she could only hold back the hatred deep in her heart towards Charlie Wade and calm down.

Seeing that she was honest, the police officer said to Charlie Wade, "You are her son-in-law, right?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said: "I am."

The police officer simply said: "Okay, then you come over and sign a document with me to prove that you have taken the person away."

Charlie Wade followed the police officer to sign a document, and then asked him: "Can I go now?"

Then he nodded and said: "Okay, you can go."

So Charlie Wade said to his mother-in-law, "Mom, let's go, I'll take you to the hospital."

Elaine Ma gritted his teeth angrily, but didn't dare to say anything cruel, so she could only act in front of the police officer and said, "Oh, my good son-in-law, you give me a hand, otherwise my leg can't move."

Charlie Wade walked to her, resisted the stench on her body, and helped her up.

Elaine Ma's right leg was very painful, and it hurt his heart with a slight movement, but now Elaine Ma is no longer the previous Elaine Ma. The previous Elaine Ma has not suffered any losses, suffered no crimes, and never suffered. She has been bullied by the flesh, but now Elaine Ma, after two days of intensive beatings, already has a fairly strong tolerance.

In her opinion, the pain of a broken leg was nothing short of a drizzle compared to the pain and torture in the detention center.

She couldn't help but think of the song that said that this pain in the wind and rain is nothing...

As long as you can get rid of the nightmare of the detention center, even if you break two legs, as long as you can go out, it is worth it.

Charlie Wade helped his mother-in-law out of the detention center. An old Jetta taxi at the door had been waiting here. It was the taxi he had taken when he came. So he said to Elaine Ma, "Mom, let's get in the car." Elaine Ma was extremely depressed when he saw this broken taxi!

I have suffered so many crimes and finally let it go. I have to come to a good car to pick me up to say anything, right?

No matter what, I have to drive my husband's BMW 530 over!

The results of it? BMW didn't see it, and even let itself do this kind of broken rental!

Elaine Ma was extremely angry, wanting to scold Jacob Wilson, and even more to scold Charlie Wade.

But the most uncomfortable thing was that although she was very angry in her heart, she couldn't go crazy with Charlie Wade.

She didn't dare to go crazy with Charlie Wade because of the bank card, nor could she go crazy with Charlie Wade because of the taxi.

I can only hold the anger in my heart, and my discomfort is almost exploding.

Afterwards, Elaine Ma was depressed and got into the dilapidated taxi with Charlie Wade's support.

After getting on the bus, Charlie Wade said to the taxi driver: "Hello, master, go to the emergency department of the People's Hospital."

Chapter 932

The driver hurriedly drove a taxi to the People's Hospital.

Sitting in the co-pilot, Charlie Wade said to Elaine Ma, "Mom, I have already called Claire Wilson Wilson. She has already rushed to the People's Hospital. I will show you your legs later."

Elaine Ma snorted bitterly, then turned his face out of the window angrily, and said in a strange way: "It's really useless to have a son-in-law like you, it will only cause me trouble!"

Charlie Wade deliberately asked: "Mom, what do you mean by this? When did I cause you trouble again?"

Elaine Ma glared at him through the rearview mirror, and said coldly, "Don't ask! Think about it for yourself, I won't say anything if you ask!"

Elaine Ma has been warned by the police many times, and now she doesn't dare to be mad at Charlie Wade directly, and can only use this obscure way to get angry.

Charlie Wade naturally knew what he thought of this wonderful mother-in-law, so he deliberately said: "Excuse me, I really can't think of what trouble I caused you."

Elaine Ma's chest was ups and downs with anger, and the words that yelled at Charlie Wade several times had reached his lips, but in the end he could only endure it, the feeling was like a throat.

So she could not think about it for a while, forced herself to bring the topic to Jacob Wilson, and asked, "Who did your dad have a party with? When did he go?"

Charlie Wade said: "I went in the morning, but I don't know who is there, because I didn't ask him."

Charlie Wade knew very well that if his mother-in-law knew that his father-in-law had gone to a party with his first love and their classmates, he would be so angry that the taxi would be smashed.

So he simply pretended to be stupid and asked her to ask the old man directly at that time, but he didn't want to wade in the muddy water between the three of them.

Elaine Ma was very angry and cursed: "Didn't you just get together some time ago? Why did you get together again? It seems that during the two days I was in the detention center, his life was very chic!"

After speaking, Elaine Ma immediately took out his mobile phone and called Jacob Wilson.

At this moment, Jacob Wilson was in the glorious club, having fun with Matilda and a group of old classmates.

And Jacob Wilson himself was in a good mood, because no one of his old classmates, including Greyson, dared to mock him anymore.

Looking at Charlie Wade's face, Oscar personally served Jacob Wilson and his classmates. This face is really rare in Arouss Hilll.

So the old classmates of Jacob Wilson couldn't help but admire him.

Everyone had a hearty lunch in the clubhouse, because everyone was still in the mood, so Matilda asked for a box in the Glorious Club, and everyone started singing.

The KTV environment of the Glorious Club can be said to be the best in the whole Arouss Hilll. Dozens of old classmates are not crowded in it. On the contrary, it is very spacious. The decoration inside is naturally luxurious and the facilities are advanced and comfortable.

But the only bad thing is that there are too many people at the party. Everyone clicks a lot of songs at once, so it takes a long time to sing in line.

Jacob Wilson specifically ordered a song by his beloved, and finally waited for his own song for more than half an hour, so he picked up the microphone, and then handed the other microphone to Matilda, and said diligently: "Matilda, this Let's sing the song together."

My confidant lover is originally a duet love song, and in the eyes of the older generation, this song is still very famous.

Moreover, the two singers who sang this song are also a couple in real life, so they add a bit of sweetness to this song.

When the old classmates watched Jacob Wilson clicked this song, and even specially invited Matilda to sing with him, they couldn't help but scream.

Someone said: "Oh, Jacob Wilson, you deliberately clicked on such a song and invited our beautiful Matilda to sing it together. What is your intention?"

Others said: "Hey, don't you understand his thoughts? It must be Jacobs's heart that everyone knows."

Some people even flattered Jacob Wilson and said, "Oh, Jacob Wilson and Matilda should have been a couple. They haven't seen each other for more than 20 years. Singing such a song together is really just right!"

Jacob Wilson was completely overwhelmed with joy when he heard this.

At this moment, he had no idea that his nightmare was about to come!

Chapter 933

Although Matilda blushed a little at this time, she accepted the microphone openly and smiled and said, "Don't get me wrong, don't you just sing a song together? If someone else is willing to sing with me, neither will I Opinion."

Greyson felt a little upset in his heart. He felt that you, Jacob Wilson, were also a married person. How could you openly invite your goddess to sing this kind of love song?

But when he thought that Jacob Wilson's son-in-law could make Oscar take it so seriously, he swallowed it again when he reached his lips.

Jacob Wilson always had an excited smile on his face, and couldn't help but secretly look at Matilda, his heart was already surging.

Matilda accidentally caught a glimpse of Jacob Wilson. Seeing his unconcealed obsession with herself in his eyes, she couldn't help but blush.

At this time, the prelude to the song has started.

Matilda took the microphone and stared at the screen intently.

Just after the prelude, Matilda took the lead in singing the female part.

"Let my love be with you forever..."

"Do you feel that, I am worried for you."

Matilda's singing voice is very nice, and to these old men, it is like the sound of nature, making them intoxicated.

Jacob Wilson even got goosebumps all over his body. He felt that even if Matilda's voice was compared with that of a professional singer, it was not so much.

The students were also thunderous with applause.

Matilda had finished singing her female part at this time, and then it was time for Jacob Wilson to sing his part.

Just as Jacob Wilson picked up the microphone and prepared to sing affectionately, his mobile phone on the KTV coffee table suddenly shook. He looked down subconsciously, and was shocked by the words on the phone screen.

The person's name displayed on the phone is "wife"...

what the hell? !

Jacob Wilson's mood collapsed instantly!

Elaine Ma has been missing for two days and two nights, but the phone has been turned off and cannot get through. Why is she calling herself now? Could it be...

Is this dominatrix back?

In the next second, Jacob Wilson affirmed his guess in his heart.

Elaine Ma's mobile phone was said to have been turned off for the first two days, and now he called herself suddenly, that must have been back...

Jacob Wilson was suddenly panicked!

Elaine Ma is back, what can I do?

Isn't my good life coming to an end?

At this time, the phone is still shaking on the desktop, and the part that I should sing is already gone.

The classmates booed for a while and said, "Jacob Wilson, are you too nervous to sing with Matilda? You don't know if it's your turn to sing?"

Matilda couldn't help asking: "Jacob Wilson, why don't you sing your part?"

Jacob Wilson wiped the cold sweat from his forehead and looked at the phone again. He knew that with Elaine Ma's personality, if she didn't answer her phone, she would definitely be mad.

Chapter 934

So he said in a panic: "Sorry, sorry, I'll answer the phone first, and come back to sing again later!"

After speaking, he hurriedly picked up the phone and quickly got out of the box.

When Greyson saw this, he immediately picked up the microphone he left behind and said with a smile: "Come to Matilda, I will sing with you!"

Jacob Wilson took his mobile phone out of the box, and then hurriedly pressed the answer button.

As soon as the call was connected, Elaine Ma's iconic roar came over: "Jacob Wilson, are you going to die? My Lady has been missing for two days and two nights. You didn't have a phone call or a WeChat account, so you went to a f*cking party? !"

As soon as Jacob Wilson heard this, he suddenly slammed in his heart, and his originally passionate heart instantly became extremely cold.

It's over, this stinky lady is really back!

God is too unfair to himself, my good days have just passed two days!

It's just started to party and sing with Matilda. Without any substantial development, this stinky lady is back? !

Isn't this taking your own life?

He was so depressed that he almost wanted to die, but Elaine Ma on the other end of the phone asked angrily: "Jacob Wilson of the dog day, are you dumb? Why are you not talking?"

Jacob Wilson hurriedly explained: "Oh, my wife, don't be angry with your wife and listen to me. I have been looking for you for these two days. If you don't believe me, you can ask your girl or Charlie Wade. In order to find you, I will talk to Charlie Wade. We searched all the Mahjong halls in Aourouss Hilll!"

Elaine Ma yelled: "Don't tell me that it's useless, I just want to know who you are partying with, how can I listen to someone singing, are you in KTV? Well, you have no conscience, You were still in the mood to sing when I was unclear about my life and death!"

Jacob Wilson explained: "When I meet with some old classmates, they have to call me over."

Elaine Ma gritted his teeth and cursed: "I tell you Jacob Wilson, my Lady has a broken leg and is about to go to the emergency department of the People's Hospital. You'd better roll over to me immediately, otherwise I will never end with you!"

Jacob Wilson was shocked, how dare he say no at this time, and hurriedly said: "Good wife, I will come now!"

After speaking, he hung up the phone and ran back to the box. At this time, his sweetheart, Matilda, was singing duet to Greyson and his beloved. He must not be jealous, and hurriedly said to Matilda, "Matilda, I have something important to do. Do it, let's go first."

Matilda asked in surprise: "Why are you leaving now? Is something wrong?" "Nothing happened." Jacob Wilson chuckled and said, "It's just a call from home to tell me something. Let me go. I have to go back first!"

Matilda nodded and asked, "It doesn't matter, do you want me to come and help?"

Jacob Wilson hurriedly waved his hand and blurted out: "No need, no, I can go by myself."

Although Matilda was a bit regretful, she nodded her head very understandingly and said, "Then if you need any help, remember to call me."

"Okay!" Jacob Wilson nodded, and hurriedly said to the others: "Everyone, my house is a little bit gone beforehand, everyone should eat and drink and have fun."

Everyone couldn't help saying: "Jacob Wilson, this is just beginning to sing, why did you leave? I haven't heard your singing."

Jacob Wilson can only bite the bullet and say, "There is something really wrong this time."

Greyson felt very happy and said, "Oh, Jacob Wilson, did Elaine Ma call you to urge you to go back? You didn't bring her to the party. She must be angry?"

Jacob Wilson glared at him and said coldly, "Greyson, what's the matter with you? Why are you everywhere?"

After speaking, he reluctantly glanced at Matilda and turned his head out of the box.

As soon as he got out of the box, Jacob Wilson stamped his feet with anger.

What the hell is this? How did Elaine Ma come back so soon? Why can't you learn from Hannah?

Look at Hannah, there has been no news since he disappeared, and it's just like the world has evaporated. If Elaine Ma could learn from her, it would be great.

Jacob Wilson rushed out of the Glorious Club, hurriedly drove his BMW to the People's Hospital.

Chapter 935

Also running towards the People's Hospital was Claire Wilson Wilson, who was full of worries.

She heard that her mother's leg was broken, and she was extremely anxious in her heart. She didn't know what happened to her mother in the past two days.

Elaine Ma hung up the phone, holding her right leg, aching cold sweat like rain.

While she screamed, she urged the driver in annoyance, and said, "Can you still work with this broken car? Drive so slow! My mom is about to hurt, you know?"

The taxi driver said unhurriedly: "City driving is limited in speed. You must strictly follow the speed limit regulations. Speeding will not only deduct points, but also pose a great threat to the safety of pedestrians."

"Threatening your mother!" Elaine Ma was feeling angry. Hearing what he said, he immediately scolded angrily: "Drive faster! It hurts me so much that you can make more money or why? You are so delaying. In case I am disabled, my mother will never end with you in this life!"

The driver said helplessly: "I have driven this car fast enough! If you think I am driving slow, then you can go down and change another car!"

Elaine Ma didn't even think about it, and blurted out: "What's your attitude? Believe it or not, I will complain to you? Believe it or not, I will make you unemployed today?"

The driver said angrily: "I follow the traffic rules and regulations. What are you complaining about me? Are you complaining about my unwillingness to speed?"

Elaine Ma gritted his teeth and cursed: "I complained that you were indecent and sexually harassed me!"

The driver laughed suddenly, looked at her through the rearview mirror, and said contemptuously: "You look at what you look like, what's so ugly? Your two front teeth are gloriously laid off, just like the one in the sketch Like Moore Dandan, you still have the face to say that I sexually harass you? Don't sexually harass me, I will burn a lot of incense!"

Elaine Ma suffocated her stomach. When he heard that the driver dared to talk back to him, even dared to ridicule his ugliness, he suddenly became angry and shouted coldly: "What's your name? Which company do you work for? I'm right now. Call to complain, believe it or not?"

When the driver heard this, he immediately became angry and pulled the car over and said disdainfully: "If you want to complain, please complain. If I can't take your order, get out of here!"

Elaine Ma scolded, "Let me go down? How old are you! Drive me quickly, have you heard? I delayed my Lady's treatment of his legs, and my Lady is desperate with you!"

The driver turned off the car and sneered: "I'm sorry, my car is broken and can't go. If you don't want to get off, then you just stay here."

Elaine Ma did not expect that the other party would not buy his own account at all, and was about to continue to get angry, but did not expect the driver to push the car door and smoke.

Charlie Wade was amused while sitting in the co-pilot.

My mother-in-law seems to never figure out the situation.

Now it is her own broken leg that needs treatment as soon as possible, and it is not the broken leg of a taxi driver. What is the point of her pretending to be a taxi driver?

Now people just stop driving, isn't she the one who delayed it?

But Charlie Wade didn't bother to care about her, so he deliberately asked: "Mom, what shall we do now? Can't you just spend it here?"

Elaine Ma is about to explode, but now he has a broken leg and must rush to the hospital for treatment as soon as possible. Otherwise, what if something is left behind and becomes disabled later?

So she could only say to Charlie Wade: "Go and stop another car!"

Charlie Wade nodded, got out of the car and walked to the side of the road to wait for a while, beckoning to stop another taxi.

Chapter 936

Afterwards, he returned to the car just now and helped Elaine Ma out of the broken leg.

Elaine Ma managed to endure the pain in his leg, got out of the car, and then endured the pain again, and was sent into another car by Charlie Wade.

As soon as she was driving, she lowered the window and cursed the driver who was smoking on the side of the road: "Bad son, you must have a car accident and die outside today!"

When the driver heard this, he cursed with anger: "You ugly guy must have died in front of Master!"

Elaine Ma was immediately furious and wanted to stick out his head to continue cursing, but the car had already driven far, so she could only give up in anger.

Charlie Wade, who hadn't spoken all the time, couldn't help but sigh in his heart: He, mother-in-law, seems to have been tortured in the detention center, otherwise she would not be like this.

He couldn't help but began to sympathize with his old father-in-law Jacob Wilson. Elaine Ma wanted to know that he was busy dating Matilda these two days, and he couldn't get his brains out?

.....

The taxi came to the emergency department of Aurouss Hilll People's Hospital.

Claire Wilson Wilson was already waiting here.

Seeing Elaine Ma not only broke a leg, but also had a miserable appearance with a blue nose and a swollen face. Even two of his front teeth had fallen out. He couldn't help but his eyes were red. He walked up and asked, crying, "Mom, how can you suffer? Such a serious injury?" When Elaine Ma saw her daughter, she felt sad. All the grievances she had suffered in the past two days could not be restrained at this moment. She hugged Claire Wilson Wilson and cried loudly: "My dear girl, Mom's life is so bitter, don't you know? I almost died in these two days, you almost never saw Mom again!"

After speaking, Elaine Ma's mood suddenly collapsed, and she burst into tears.

Claire Wilson Wilson saw that her mother had been wronged so much, naturally she felt very uncomfortable. While supporting her mother, she cried and asked, "Mom, what's the matter with you these past few days? Tell me.!"

Elaine Ma wiped out a tear, with an urge in her heart, wanting to tell her daughter exactly what happened.

But when the words came to her lips, she swallowed them all back. She knew that she couldn't talk nonsense about this kind of words, otherwise the words would cause death or jail.

So she could only lie: "Hey, don't mention it! Mom let a MLM swindle.

After that person tricked me into the MLM organization, she kept beating me and forced me to buy their products. , But how can I have money? They kept beating me, and they didn't give me food, my front teeth were knocked out by them."

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly asked, "Mom, have you called the police? Let the police arrest them!"

Elaine Ma cried and said, "Later, the MLM organization was caught by the police, and even I was arrested by the police into the detention center. Unexpectedly, I met your grandma and Wendy in the detention center. They were both in the detention center. In the detention center, get together to bully me!"

Claire Wilson Wilson asked in shock: "Grandma and Wendy?! Why are you locked up with them?"

Elaine Ma cried out of breath and said: "I don't know why I was so unlucky that I met two of them bastards. They didn't let me sleep, didn't let me eat, and they put them on me. Pour cold water, you don't know what kind of life your mother has been living in the past two days, that is worse than hell..."

Claire Wilson Wilson burst into tears when he heard this.

Elaine Ma vented for a while, just as his mood improved a little, suddenly thought of Jacob Wilson, and immediately questioned: "Claire Wilson Wilson, you tell me the truth, who on earth did your dad go to the party with?"

Chapter 937

Claire Wilson Wilson knew very well in his heart that if he let his mother know that his father was going to party with Matilda and their old classmates, she would definitely be so angry.

At this time, she was already very emotional, and she couldn't say anything to add fuel to her fire.

So she said: "It should be a gathering with his old classmates. I am not too clear about the specifics. Maybe it is the last time."

"It's not quite right!" Elaine Ma said with a black face: "His old classmates can't get together once in a few years. It is impossible to get together again in a short time and go again. This time there must be a different opportunity. !"

Claire Wilson Wilson could only lie against his will: "I don't know this too well."

Elaine Ma gritted his teeth with anger, and said coldly: "This old bastard, I have suffered so much inside, and he still has the mind to go to party with others, really heartless!"

Claire Wilson Wilson had no choice but to speak for his father, saying against his will: "Mom, during the two days you disappeared, Dad was also very anxious. Today is a party that I can't get rid of before going to the party."

"I don't believe it!" Elaine Ma said sternly: "This old bastard, he said that he would separate from me two days ago! I went in without the separation. I guess he doesn't know how happy he is!"

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly said, "Mom, don't speculate about Dad like this..."

As he was talking, Jacob Wilson drove his BMW 530 to the hospital.

Seeing Elaine Ma's horrible look, Jacob Wilson was also stunned.

Although he has no feelings for Elaine Ma in his heart, he has lived under Elaine Ma's lust for so many years that his heart is still very timid towards Elaine Ma.

So the fundamental reason why Elaine Ma quickly turned the other way around when he called.

When Elaine Ma saw Jacob Wilson, his anger went wild.

There is no other reason. The main reason is that Jacob Wilson's dressing up is really too careful, with a decent suit, a decent tie, and his hair meticulously combed. At first glance, he has been well dressed for a long time.

Elaine Ma is not a fool. She immediately realized that Jacob Wilson's dressing up today was definitely not for herself, but for the party. This made her suddenly become extremely alert.

She began to speculate, what are the important elements of this party that would make Jacob Wilson dress so seriously for the first time? From the time he married him to the present, except for the day of the wedding, I seem to have never seen him dressed up so vigorously!

When Jacob Wilson arrived, he asked, "Where did you go? How did you make it like this?"

Elaine Ma stared at him coldly, and blurted out: "You who are named Wilson tell me the truth, who are you partying with?"

Jacob Wilson's expression was a little unnatural, and he said falteringly, "Isn't it the same classmates in my class before? You all know it."

Elaine Ma asked, "Didn't you just visit the other day? Why did you meet again?"

Jacob Wilson said, "Didn't we just go to more than 20 people last time, but today there are a few more people."

"Oh?" Elaine Ma frowned and asked sternly: "Jacob Wilson, let me ask you, is Matilda here?"

Jacob Wilson suddenly panicked.

He didn't expect that Elaine Ma would be able to ask Matilda all of a sudden, this woman's intuition is really a bit too accurate, right? However, he must not dare to say anything about Matilda to Elaine Ma, so he lied: "No, she has been away for more than 20 years and has never come back."

Chapter 938

Elaine Ma asked coldly: "Really not?"

Jacob Wilson hurriedly said: "Oh, I really didn't. Why did I lie to you, and now you care about whether this is turning the cart before the horse? The most important thing now is to look at your injury. Is your leg broken?"

Elaine Ma was patronizing to find out about Jacob Wilson's affairs. She couldn't even take care of her already injured and broken leg. After being reminded by Jacob Wilson, she remembered the pain in her right leg. So she hurriedly said to Claire Wilson: "Good girl, take mom to see a doctor, don't let mom leave any disability!"

.....

After leaving the emergency room and seeing the doctor, Claire Wilson Wilson asked nervously, "Doctor, how is my mother's situation?"

Elaine Ma was afraid that she would have three long and two shortcomings, and hurriedly asked: "Yes, doctor, how is the result of the examination? I won't be a lame?"

The doctor said to Elaine Ma: "From the X-rays, you have a comminuted fracture of your calf. The condition is more serious, but if you take good care of your injury, you should not be lame. I suggest you get a cast first and then be hospitalized for observation. About half a month, so that we can guarantee nothing."

Elaine Ma was relieved when he heard that she would not become lame, but when she heard that she needed to be hospitalized, she was immediately anxious: "Ah? Why are you going to be hospitalized? After the cast, can I go home and recuperate?"

The thought that she hadn't lived in the luxurious Thompson First mansion until now, Elaine Ma felt aggrieved.

After two days of inhuman torture, she dreamed of returning to the big villa, lying on the soft big bed, and feeling the joy of living in Thompson First.

The doctor shook his head and said: "The first half month of the cast is very important. It is related to your overall recovery. If you go home, if something goes wrong and one is not dealt with in time, it may be the root cause of the disease. "

Upon hearing this, Elaine Ma's face suddenly filled with loss.

However, Jacob Wilson on the side was full of joy!

Elaine Ma came back suddenly, and it was irreversible for him, but if Elaine Ma could be hospitalized, he could relax for a few more days.

Therefore, he deliberately said to Elaine Ma: "Wife, you can follow the doctor's arrangement and stay in the hospital with peace of mind, so as to avoid leaving the root of the disease in the future."

Elaine Ma frowned and looked at Jacob Wilson, and asked, "What? You just don't want me to go home?"

Jacob Wilson hurriedly waved his hand: "I didn't mean that."

Elaine Ma snorted coldly, remembering something, and then hurriedly asked Charlie Wade: "Didn't you happen to know the genius doctor Dr. Simmons? You immediately call him and ask him to come and treat my leg."

Charlie Wade's brows suddenly frowned upon hearing the tone of his mother-in-law's order.

For a b*tch like Elaine Ma, still want Dr. Simmons to treat her legs?

Charlie Wade sneered in his heart, and said indifferently: "Mr. Simmons is not in Aurouss Hilll for the time being, he has gone to Eastcliff to treat someone."

Upon hearing this, Elaine Ma immediately said: "Then I will wait for him to come back to the head office?"

Charlie Wade said, "he may not be able to come back in ten and a half months."

The doctor said: "You have to put a plaster first, no matter what."

Elaine Ma said immediately: "Okay! Then put a cast first, and I will go home and rest after the cast!"

When Jacob Wilson saw Elaine Ma insist on being so persistent, he knew that it was impossible for her to be hospitalized. He couldn't help but secretly conceal the news of Matilda's return from her for a while. he mentions divorce, then she will definitely not agree.

That being the case, it is better to go back at night and find a chance to divorce her first, it is best to let her divorce first!

Chapter 939

After Elaine Ma got cast in the People's Hospital, Jacob Wilson drove home to rest.

Along the way, Elaine Ma kept scolding Jacob Wilson next to him, and at the same time beating on the side, trying to figure out why she dressed herself so glamorously at the party today.

However, Jacob Wilson's mouth was tighter than a safe.

He just wanted to wait for a good time tonight to discuss the divorce with Elaine Ma, so he must not let Elaine Ma know about Matilda before that.

In the other car, Charlie Wade drove Claire Wilson Wilson with red eyes, and drove unhurriedly behind Jacob Wilson's car.

Claire Wilson Wilson was very sympathetic to her mother. After all, she was her daughter. Anyone who saw his mother suffered so many injuries and so many tortures would feel uncomfortable.

In addition, one thing that worries her is the relationship between her father and mother.

She knew that her father liked Matilda. Compared with Matilda, her mother was far behind, so she was worried that her father would finally give up the current marriage and pursue his own happiness.

Charlie Wade saw the wife on the side with a sad face, and was about to persuade her, when he suddenly received a call from Cameron Isaac.

Cameron Isaac asked him on the phone: "Master, have you received your mother-in-law?"

Because his wife was by his side, Charlie Wade couldn't speak too clearly, so he said vaguely: "Yes."

Cameron Isaac said: "That's good."

After speaking, he said again: "By the way, Master, I heard a news."

Charlie Wade asked: "What news?"

Cameron Isaac said: "The Webb family in Eastcliff seems to be looking for you everywhere. They even sent someone to Eastcliff to find Kenneth Wilson. They seemed to have sent someone to Golim Mountain to find Jordan and Jeffrey Weaver, the father and son. , But it was discovered by the people arranged by Don Albertt, so they fled early."

Charlie Wade couldn't help but frowned.

The Webb family suddenly contacted Kenneth Wilson, and even contacted the Weaver family and his son. There was only one possibility, that is, they wanted to unite more of their mortal enemies to deal with themselves.

Since Donald and Sean father and son were insulted and fled back to Southaven, the Webb family did nothing. They thought they had realized that they were not something they could afford, but they did not expect that they were actually Darkness.

Charlie Wade asked: "Who else did they contact?"

Cameron Isaac said: "The Webb family also sent people to contact those who have been taught by others before, but they are all low-level hanging silks, and you can't make waves if you want to, just like the one who bullied your classmate Darren White. Dog men and women and their fathers."

Afterwards, Cameron Isaac asked: "Master, do you want me to say hello to the family and kill the Webb family directly, or let the family warn the Webb family so that they can be honest in the future?"

"No." Charlie Wade said with a smile: "I don't want others to help."

Charlie Wade is not ready to return to Wade's house yet, he even feels that he does not necessarily have to return to Wade's house in the future.

After all, I have been away from the Wade family for so many years, and to be honest, although I can't talk about a deep hatred with the Wade family, there is still a hurdle in my heart, and that hurdle was the accidental death of his parents that year.

Therefore, he said to Cameron Isaac: "Some things are more interesting if you have to do it yourself. Relying on others for help is not only unreliable, but also a lot of fun."

Cameron Isaac hurriedly said: "But young master, the Webb family is in the whole southern region. It is a top-notch existence. If they are really deliberate about going against you, I'm afraid you can't handle it alone."

Chapter 940

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "Don't worry about this. Although I am not a very talented person, I am not a soft persimmon that everyone can pinch."

Cameron Isaac sighed and said: "Master, you still have to be more careful, and you must not neglect the Webb family. The Webb family has only offered a reward of 300 million Dollar to kill Mrr.. Lloyd and Marcus, the father and son. Countless people are chasing down their father and son all over the world. Once their father and son are exposed, they may be hacked to death by countless people."

Charlie Wade asked curiously: "Does anyone know where the father and son have gone?"

Cameron Isaac said: "It is said that they went abroad, but no one knows which country they went to, because they seemed to use fake passports when they left."

Charlie Wade nodded. Although he didn't say anything, he knew in his heart that the reason why the Webb family wanted to hunt down the father and son was actually because of the cross talk on the Facebook.

The Webb family had been deliberately trying to delete the cross talk from Facebook, but because Facebook had now been bought by Stephen Thompson, they had no choice.

Because of the cross talk, the entire Webb family has no face and cannot be deleted, so the only way to find face is to kill both Mrr.. Lloyd and his son, so that the world knows that the Webb family is definitely not insulted.

Cameron Isaac said at this time: "Master, the Webb family is willing to spend 300 million or more to deal with Mrr.. Lloyd and his son. If it is to deal with you, I believe they will be willing to pay a higher price, so you must be careful. ."

Charlie Wade said lightly: "Okay, I get it."

Cameron Isaac said: "Master, if you need any help, please tell me."

Charlie Wade gave a hum, quietly glanced at his wife next to him, and said to Cameron Isaac: "I'm on my way home now, I'll talk about it later."

"it is good."

Charlie Wade hung up the phone, and Claire Wilson Wilson asked curiously:

"Who are you calling? What are you talking about for help or not, for soft persimmons but not soft persimmons, is anyone going to bully you?"

"No." Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Didn't our mother be bullied by the MLM organization, so I plan to find friends to see if I can help my mother."

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly said, "Don't!"

She said, "To be honest, my mother has suffered so many sins. Although it is pitiful, I am a daughter who is fair to her. She also takes the blame. She takes money too seriously. And I always think of taking shortcuts for nothing. Even if I don't fall for this one today, I will still fall for something else tomorrow."

Charlie Wade nodded in agreement. He didn't expect that although Claire Wilson Wilson was somewhat filial to Elaine Ma, he still knew at least what kind of person Elaine Ma was.

At first, helping Elaine Ma to vent his anger was just to find an excuse. Seeing that Claire Wilson Wilson said this, he did not continue to talk about this topic.

At this moment, Charlie Wade's mind was thinking of Webb's family in Southaven.

Since the Webb family's father and son are still obsessed with their previous experience, sooner or later they will come to avenge themselves. But there is a problem. It is a bit beyond his expectations. The Webb family and his sons are very arrogant in doing things, and seek revenge on themselves. Why do they need to find a helper?

When they contact Kenneth Wilson and other people who have offended him, they should just want to unite a few more enemies to target themselves. This is a bad signal to Charlie Wade.

Because the enemy is always easy to defeat when he is proud.

But when the enemy is no longer proud, they will become more cunning and more difficult to deal with.

The Webb family has a strong strength, and now they have to unite others to deal with themselves, which proves that they have made great progress now and deserve their attention!

Chapter 941

Two BMW cars, one after the other, returned to Thompson First's big villa.

Jacob Wilson was scolded all the way by Elaine Ma, and his dissatisfaction grew stronger.

When he first received a call from Elaine Ma, he was singing a love song with his first love, so he was guilty of conscience. He became angry when he heard her and went to the hospital in a hurry.

But after calming down, he felt more and more that Elaine Ma was really hopeless.

Therefore, Jacob Wilson's idea of divorcing her became stronger.

After getting out of the car, Jacob Wilson abducted the one bought from the hospital to Elaine Ma directly from the back row.

Elaine Ma was still waiting for him to help him in, even carrying himself in, but he didn't expect him to pass a crutch directly.

Elaine Ma squeezed on the crutches and cursed in place: "Jacob Wilson, you bastard, my leg is broken, you throw me a crutches?"

Jacob Wilson said: "Anyway, you have to get used to crutches sooner or later, otherwise, what do you do if you go to the bathroom?"

"What's the matter?" Elaine Ma asked angrily: "What do you mean, I won't be able to count on you in the future?"

Jacob Wilson said with a black face, "Don't forget, we two have separated!"

Elaine Ma immediately wanted to yell at him. At this moment, Charlie Wade happened to park in front of him.

When Claire Wilson got out of the car, Elaine Ma immediately complained to her. With the mentality of turning big things into small things, Claire Wilson hurriedly supported her and comforted her: "Oh, mom, don't be angry with your dad. Your body will be bad, and your body will be bad if you get angry."

Elaine Ma still wanted to curse, but suddenly felt dizzy in her brain, and immediately realized that he had been hungry for too long and was about to pass out of hypoglycemia.

So she said weakly: "Oh, I'm going to die, I'm starving to death, where is Charlie Wade? Hurry up and cook for me! I want to eat braised pork and beef stew"

Charlie Wade said blankly, "I haven't had time to buy groceries today. I only have some noodles at home. Why should I make a bowl of noodles for you?"

Elaine Ma blurted out: "I've been hungry for two days and two nights! What's the use of a bowl of noodles?"

Charlie Wade said lightly: "Then I will go shopping now."

As soon as Elaine Ma heard this, he said in a hurry: "I'm hungry and fainted when you buy it!"

Charlie Wade asked, "Why don't I order you a takeaway?"

Elaine Ma blurted out: "It takes half an hour or even forty minutes to take out. Let me cook the noodles and knock two more eggs!"

Charlie Wade said casually: "There are no eggs, I haven't bought them yet."

Elaine Ma said: "Will you give me a taste? Give me some green vegetables. I haven't eaten any vegetables in the past two days, and my mouth on the fire is rotten."

Charlie Wade shrugged and said: "There is nothing but dried noodles at home. If you want to eat, I will give you a bowl of clear noodle soup."

Elaine Ma stomped angrily, pointed at Charlie Wade and asked Claire Wilson Wilson: "Claire Wilson Wilson, is this waste deliberately against me? Why is there nothing at home?"

Claire Wilson Wilson looked embarrassed.

Charlie Wade said at this time: "I have been looking for you for the past two days. I didn't cook at all at home, so I didn't go shopping."

Elaine Ma was angry and uncomfortable, but now he didn't have the strength to get angry with him, so he said to Charlie Wade: "Then you quickly get me a bowl of noodles!"

Chapter 942

Charlie Wade responded and walked to the kitchen.

In fact, there was a box of eggs in the refrigerator, but he didn't want to feed them to Elaine Ma, so he smashed all the eggs out and poured them into the sewer. Although pouring them into the sewer is a waste, if it gets into Elaine Ma's stomach, More wasteful.

Then he used a pot to boil some hot water, grabbed a handful of noodles, and threw it in.

Just when he was perfunctory, the phone suddenly received a WeChat message.

He opened WeChat and found that there was someone in the chat group of "Arouss Hilll Welfare Institute".

The 20th and 30th people in this group were all taken in by Mrs. Lewis and raised up orphans, but now everyone has been in the society for many years, and many people are scattered all over the country. The connection is not too close.

Charlie Wade clicked to open the group and found that it was not someone himself, but someone who sent a message from everyone.

The message was sent by a girl named Lisa Fey in the orphanage. The content read: "Secretly tell everyone a good news, Mrs. Lewis has recovered from illness and returned to Arouss Hilll!"

Lisa is a little girl Charlie Wade met in the orphanage.

This little girl was abandoned by her parents not long after she was born, she was raised by Mrs. Lewis, two or three years younger than Charlie Wade, and she was a little sister in Charlie Wade's eyes.

Mrs. Lewis didn't know what her surname was, so she asked her to name her Lisa Fey.

After Lisa became an adult, she worked with Mrs. Lewis in the orphanage, and was the only one who remained in the orphanage among the many friends that year.

Seeing her saying that Mrs. Lewis has recovered from illness, Charlie Wade hurriedly asked in the group: "Why didn't Mrs. Lewis tell us when she came back, so we might as well pick her up."

Lisa said: "Brother Charlie Wade, Mrs. Lewis said that she didn't want to cause you trouble, so no one told me. I also found out after she came back suddenly this afternoon."

Charlie Wade asked again: "How is Mrs. Lewis's health? Does she look okay? She just recovered and was discharged from the hospital, won't she go back to work in the orphanage?"

"Yeah!" Lisa said: "What kind of person Mrs. Lewis is, Brother Charlie Wade, you must know better. How can she be free? She hasn't come to the orphanage for so long. She cares about the children in her heart. Crazy."

After speaking, Lisa said again: "But I see Mrs. Lewis's body, and it feels pretty good. It doesn't look like someone who has been seriously ill at all. It should have been restored to its original condition!"

Charlie Wade breathed a sigh of relief. After all, Stephen Thompson sent Mrs. Lewis to the best Fairview Hospital in Eastcliff, and he also paid Mrs. Lewis two million in medical expenses, which included very high-end postoperative recovery. .

At this time, other people in the group also sent out messages.

"Ah, Mrs. Lewis is discharged from the hospital? That's great!"

"Haha, I knew that Mrs. Lewis is a good person, and she will definitely recover one day!"

At this moment, a person named Jeff Mowry suddenly everyone in the group said: "Everyone, since Mrs. Lewis has recovered and discharged, then I suggest that our friends in Aurouss Hilll, now go to the welfare home to visit Mrs. Lewis, by the way Find a restaurant and pick her up, what do you think?"

"Yes, right, right, Jeff, your idea is good! I'm getting off work soon, and I can go there anytime!"

"Yes, it is a happy event for Mrs. Lewis to recover from illness, we must visit her!"

In response, Lisa sent a happy expression, saying: "That's what I mean by sending a message to everyone. Since we haven't seen Mrs. Lewis for a long time, and everyone hasn't seen each other for a long time, it's better to take this opportunity. We all join together and invite Mrs. Lewis to have a meal, so I believe Mrs. Lewis will also be very happy!"

"Oh, you guys in Aurouss Hilll, can't you wait for another day or two?"

Wait for us outsiders to rush back, or I will buy a plane ticket now and go back tomorrow!"

That Jeff said: "Receiving things like wind and dust, of course, is the most ceremonial feeling on the day of return!"

Chapter 943

"Yes!" a friend named Caleb Morales in the group said: "Mrs. Lewis got such a serious disease and finally healed it back. If we children raised by her, don't come to see her for the first time. , Maybe she will feel lost too."

Jeff said: "Well, let's find a five-star hotel, and we must take care of Mrs. Lewis."

Lisa said: "Jeff, let's not be so extravagant. Mrs. Lewis is thrifty all her life. If she goes to such a good place to eat, she will definitely feel distressed. Why don't we just serve home-cooked food at the entrance of the orphanage for many years? !"

When Charlie Wade thought of the home-style restaurant that had been in operation for more than ten years, he couldn't help feeling sighed. On her 18th birthday that year, Mrs. Lewis took the frugal money and took herself and a few friends to eat a meal in that restaurant. She also bought a cake for herself, and after celebrating her birthday, she no longer met the adoption regulations of the orphanage, so she entered the society alone.

Now think about it, the meal he ate there was the most tender meal he had ever eaten in his life.

So he immediately said: "I really didn't expect that restaurant is still open! The place Lisa chose is great! Then let's make an appointment there!"

Jeff replied: "I said Charlie Wade, everyone has been working for so many years, and they have some savings. Facing Mrs. Lewis, don't you need to be so stingy?"

Charlie Wade said: "I am not stingy, but respect Mrs. Lewis's habit. We ask Mrs. Lewis to go to a five-star hotel. Mrs. Lewis may not be really happy. On the contrary, she may feel too extravagant and wasteful and will feel distressed for a long time."

Jeff said: "Cut, don't I know you yet? Don't you just want to save two dollars?"

After speaking, Jeff sent another voice: "Charlie Wade, I know that you are not doing well. It is normal for you to be a son-in-law. It is normal to have no money in your pocket. But after all, Mrs. Lewis brought you up, so much kindness. , Even if you have some blood, what can you do if you join in and invite her to have a good meal?"

Charlie Wade couldn't help frowning.

This Jeff didn't deal with him when he was in the orphanage. At that time, Jeff relied on that he was stronger than his peers and formed gangs in the orphanage, and he often got together to bully other children.

Charlie Wade was also targeted by the opponent, but because he had practiced some martial arts when he was at Wade's house in Eastcliff, most people were not his opponents at all, so when Jeff brought someone to trouble him, a group of people were directly beaten by him. The crying father yelling mother, looking for teeth everywhere.

From then on, Jeff, with a very small mind, held a grudge against Charlie Wade, sang everything against him, and targeted him everywhere.

Moreover, this guy has always been wrong, and always caused trouble for the orphanage when he was young.

He was caught stealing things several times, and in the end it was Mrs. Lewis who came forward to lose money and apologize to save him.
