Jacob Wilson said earnestly: "I'm here to teach you life experience, especially you Claire Wilson Wilson. You are too busy with work every day. You should learn more like Charlie Wade. If you have something to do, you can take a good rest. Take a look at your home, in my opinion, you can take a few days off first and go on a trip with Charlie Wade or something."

Charlie Wade said at this time: "That dad, I may have to go to another place in the past two days."

"Going to another place?" Jacob Wilson asked curiously: "Good son-in-law, where are you going?"

Charlie Wade said, "I'm going to Eastcliff."

"Go to Eastcliff?" Jacob Wilson asked in surprise, "What are you going to do in Eastcliff?"

Claire Wilson Wilson was also puzzled.

In her impression, Charlie Wade had never left Aurouss Hilll for nearly four years since he married herself. She didn't know why she suddenly went to Eastcliff so far this time.

In fact, Charlie Wade did not go to other places. Some time ago, because of the southern region Beggar Gang, he went to the border of the two provinces. As for Eastcliff, he never went back since he left that year. At this time, Charlie Wade took out an excuse to watch Feng Shui again, and said with a smile: "Someone introduced me to a job about Feng Shui, and I went to Eastcliff to give a rich man a new villa to see Feng Shui." When Elaine Ma heard this, he asked excitedly: "Good son-in-law, the big family in Eastcliff, should you give a lot of money?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said lightly: "I said over there, if I go there, I will give it five million. If the feng shui looks good, I will give it another three million, making a total of 8 million."

"My god!" Elaine Ma said with joy: "You can make 8 million in one trip to Eastcliff? Good son-in-law, you are really promising! Mom used to be so clumsy, I didn't see you like that. Have the ability!"

Jacob Wilson gave her a blank look and coldly snorted: "You are always above the top. You didn't look down on Charlie Wade in the past, do you know now? Even if Charlie Wade has no family background, people rely on their own hands. Can rise to the pinnacle of life!"

Elaine Ma became anxious and cursed: "Don't fart! Was I the only one with higher eyes? In the first three years of Charlie Wade's marriage with Claire Wilson Wilson, you seem to be inferior to others in all sorts of things, right? The face says I'm here?"

Jacob Wilson's expression was a little embarrassed, and he said vaguely: "I...I...I at least realized earlier than you!"

Elaine Ma snorted coldly: "Ninety-nine steps, one hundred steps, you are so embarrassed!"

"You... don't fart!" Jacob Wilson blushed and retorted with a thick neck: "You are farting! If you take a hundred steps, I will only have fifty steps at most!"

Claire Wilson Wilson said helplessly, "It's OK, how can you two quarrel at everything!"

Jacob Wilson curled his lips, gave Elaine Ma a white look, and said, "The relationship is broken! Of course, everything can make a noise..."

Elaine Ma patted the table: "Jacob Wilson, it's endless, right?"

Jacob Wilson shrunk his neck: "Huh, I don't have the same knowledge as you."

Claire Wilson Wilson sighed, looked at Charlie Wade, and asked earnestly: "Did you agree to respond to the Eastcliff matter?"

"Yes." Charlie Wade said with a smile: "I will go there in the past few days, but don't worry, it won't be too long. I will be back in a few days at most."

In her impression, Charlie Wade gradually got to know a lot of big people in Aurouss Hilll because he knew Feng Shui.

To be honest, Charlie Wade really helped the family a lot by looking at Feng Shui.

Otherwise, it is impossible for the family to live in such a good villa and lead such a superior life.

In the past, Claire Wilson Wilson was very worried that Charlie Wade was fooling others by seeing Feng Shui, for fear that Charlie Wade would explode with thunder one day.

However, with the development of time, she discovered that none of the big people Charlie Wade knew about Feng Shui had turned against him.

This also proved that Charlie Wade's ability to see Feng Shui should have real talents, so he didn't need to worry too much.

Therefore, she softly said: "Eastcliff is not Aurouss Hilll. There are many very powerful characters in the place where dragons and tigers are hidden. If you go to Eastcliff, don't do whatever you want like in Aurouss Hilll, especially don't conflict with others. , We just do things, and come back as soon as we are done."

Charlie Wade hurriedly nodded and said: "Good wife, I know, don't worry, I will definitely not have any conflicts with others, I will come back immediately after I finish my Feng Shui."

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded: "Okay, you have to pay more attention to yourself."

Charlie Wade thought, after he came back from Eastcliff, he should be going to Japan, and he had to get Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall in his hands, so that it would speed up the production of Nova Dias.

Moreover, when the production capacity is sufficient, you can also prepare for the trial production of the liver protection tablets.

Therefore, he simply gave Claire Wilson Wilson a vaccination in advance and said: "By the way, Claire Wilson Wilson, after I return from Eastcliff, I may have to go to Japan again."

"Go to Japan?" Claire Wilson Wilson and his family of three were very surprised.

Claire Wilson Wilson blurted out and asked, "Isn't it? Does someone in Japan invite you to see Feng Shui?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Do you remember Liam from Weaver's Pharmaceuticals?"

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded: "Remember, didn't you also show him Feng Shui?"

"Yes." Charlie Wade said: "His Oracle Pharmaceutical wants to acquire a Japanese pharmaceutical company next, so he wants me to go to Japan to help him see if the company's Feng Shui is the same as that of his head office."

Claire Wilson Wilson asked in confusion, "Does Feng Shui still have so much attention to detail?"

Charlie Wade said: "My wife, don't you know that Feng Shui is very particular about Feng Shui. If his head office is Feng Shui, the Feng Shui of the company to be acquired in Japan belongs to Gold. After the completion of the acquisition, it will naturally be smooth sailing."

"However, if the Japanese company is a water company, then water will overcome fire. After the acquisition is completed, he will not only not rise to the next level, but it may even be affected by that side, so that the entire company will go. The road is downhill, so he asked me to go over and help him take a good look. If there are any hidden dangers in Feng Shui, I will help him change the Feng Shui Bureau directly in Japan."

Jacob Wilson was fascinated by it, and said excitedly: "Oh, good son-in-law, you can talk a little bit more quickly, I'm listening enthusiastically, just talk a little bit more so I can brag to others in the future!"

Elaine Ma on the side was very pleased and asked: "Good son-in-law, I invite you to visit Eastcliff and give 8 million. Then, if you go to Japan, wouldn't it be tens of millions?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "Almost."

"Oh!" Elaine Ma applauded happily: "Good son-in-law, good son-in-law! How fast is your money-making speed different from opening a money printing machine! Why don't you learn how to look at Feng Shui earlier, in that case, It's not necessary for our family to be looked down upon everywhere in the past few years, don't you think?"

Jacob Wilson said solemnly: "You know what a fart, it's a good meal, not afraid of being late!"

Elaine Ma exploded: "Jacob Wilson, are you sick today? Why don't you have to f*ck me no matter what I say? I will give you a face when the time comes, right?"

Jacob Wilson owes a bit, always looking for a chance to run on Elaine Ma, but if Elaine Ma is really aggressive, he is not an opponent at all.

Chapter 1480

Charlie Wade came out and ended the game: "Parents, you two don't always quarrel and quarrel. After all, you are still a family. Don't be so unpleasant."

Elaine Ma said to Jacob Wilson: "For the face of my good son-in-law, I won't have the same knowledge as you!"

After dinner, Jacob Wilson watched TV in the living room, Elaine Ma cleaned up in the kitchen, Claire Wilson Wilson said to Charlie Wade: "Husband, I am a little tired today, so I will take a bath first to relieve fatigue."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "My wife, fill the bathtub with water, put some bath salt, and take a good bath."

"Okay, then I'll go up first."

As soon as Claire Wilson Wilson went upstairs, Cameron Isaac called Charlie Wade and said, "Master, the dozen or so masters that Jiro Kobayashi has gathered from Japan have already set off."

"Oh?" Charlie Wade asked hurriedly: "Where did they start? Where did they go?"

Cameron Isaac said: "They all set off from Aurouss Hilll International Hotel and went to Oracle Pharmaceutical. Recently, Liam worked at Oracle Pharmaceutical until late every day. I suspect they wanted to kidnap Liam."

Charlie Wade asked: "How are your people preparing?"

Cameron Isaac said: "My men have been arranged. There are more than 50 people, all with guns. These Japanese masters have no weapons. It is not to be afraid. In addition, Don Albertt has also sent more than 100 ships."

People, stay ambush at Oracle Pharmaceutical and along the way. This time, make sure that the Japanese will never come back!"

Charlie Wade asked again: "Where is Jiro Kobayashi? Where is he?"

Cameron Isaac said: "Jiro Kobayashi also set off. I guess this time he wanted to personally attack Liam."

Charlie Wade said: "Okay, you send me a location, I will rush over now."

Cameron Isaac said: "Master, I just pretended to be a foreign bus here to avoid exposure. Should I stop by and pick you up?"

Charlie Wade said, "Come here as soon as possible."

A few minutes later, Cameron Isaac told Charlie Wade on WeChat that he had reached the door of Thompson First.

Charlie Wade hurriedly got up and said to the old husband, "Dad, I have something to go out."

The old man smiled and said, "Do you use a car? I will give you the key?"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "No need for Dad."

After speaking, he stepped out.

At the door of Thompson First, a luxury bus with more than 40 seats was parked at the door.

The bus is a Eastcliff license plate, and the words "Hong Kong to Aurouss Hill" are written on the huge windshield in front.

Charlie Wade smiled knowingly, it seemed that Cameron Isaac really had some tricks.

If you are Jiro Kobayashi and set up an ambush on Liam's way home, in addition to paying attention to Liam's own vehicles, he will definitely pay attention to other cars coming and going because Liam may have bodyguards to protect him in secret.

However, I will never pay attention to a bus with a foreign license.

If you see such a long-distance bus with a foreign license plate in the process of setting up an ambush, you will definitely treat it as a passing car.

In this way, Jiro Kobayashi will surely be caught off guard!

Chapter 1481

As soon as Charlie Wade got out of Thompson First, the automatic door of the bus slowly opened.

Cameron Isaac hurriedly got out of the car and said respectfully to Charlie Wade: "Master, I'm all ready, just waiting for you."

Charlie Wade nodded, and stepped onto the bus. As soon as he got on the bus, he saw that the car was full of more than forty young adults. All of them looked firm and strong, and at first glance they were all practicing family.

When these people saw Charlie Wade, they stood up one after another and bowed: "Hello Master!"

Cameron Isaac on the side said immediately: "Master, these are the men I have cultivated for so many years. They are my own people. You can rest assured!"

Charlie Wade nodded in satisfaction, and said to everyone: "Please sit down, everyone must do their best for tonight's affairs. Only success, no failure!"

Everyone shouted in unison: "Master, don't worry! I will do my best when I wait!"

Charlie Wade turned his face and said to Cameron Isaac: "Let the driver drive quickly and we will go there as soon as possible!"

"Good master!"

The site of Oracle Pharmaceutical is located in an industrial park on the outskirts of Aurouss Hilll City.

There is a distance of twenty to thirty kilometers from the city.

In the middle, most of them are expressways, and the traffic volume is large, so it is impossible for Jiro Kobayashi to do it on expressways.

However, after the expressway is down, there is a section of the down road to the pharmaceutical factory. This section of the road has a small number of vehicles and is a good place to start.

Therefore, both Charlie Wade and Cameron Isaac felt that Jiro Kobayashi would definitely choose to do something here.

So Charlie Wade immediately called Liam and told him not to leave Oracle Pharmaceutical for the time being, and when he and Cameron Isaac were almost ready, he would come out.

Liam naturally agreed without hesitation.

Liam now looked at Charlie Wade's head completely.

In fact, as early as the first time Charlie Wade helped him win Weaver's Pharmaceuticals, and even sent his father and his half-brother to Golim Mountain, Liam already had the heart to serve Charlie Wade. .

And last time in Golim Mountain, when Charlie Wade killed the Eight Heavenly Kings with his own power, he had already made a secret in his heart that he would follow Charlie Wade in this life.

So now, every word Charlie Wade said, he would regard it as a standard in his heart.

At this moment, Jiro Kobayashi is sitting in his Toyota Alfa luxury business car.

The car has reached a 90-degree bend on the national highway.

Here, the turning car cannot see the situation on the other side of the curve before turning, so it is most suitable for an ambush.

Once you have turned a corner and noticed that there is a roadblock in front of you, it is idiotic to think of turning around again.

Because of the special terrain here, on weekends and holidays, traffic police also like to check for drunk driving in such places. When the vehicle turns a turn and sees someone checking for drunk driving, there is no time to escape and there is no way to escape.

Chapter 1482

At this time, Jiro Kobayashi was holding a pack of Oracle Nova Dias in his hands.

Since yesterday he had a stomachache and ate a pack of Nova Dias for a few minutes before, he has not felt any stomach discomfort anymore.

This is enough to see that the efficacy of Oracle Nova Dias is more than one grade stronger than that of Niranax.

What made Jiro Kobayashi even more terrifying was that he only took Nova Dias once, but when he felt a little discomfort in his stomach just now, he subconsciously took a pack of Nova Dias instead of his own Kobayashi. Stomach powder.

You should know that Niranax was selected by him after reading a large number of Chinese classical medical books and trying out a large number of prescriptions. In this regard, he has always had a full sense of accomplishment, so he treats Niranax as if he treats his own child.

What I didn't expect was that I only used Nova Dias once and left Kobayashi's biological son behind. It can be seen that my body can't resist the efficacy of this Nova Dias at all!

Even if he is like this, let alone other ordinary consumers, after they have used Oracle Nova Dias, they will definitely throw Niranax aside without hesitation.

Therefore, no matter what, I must get the formula of Oracle Nova Dias! Thinking of this, he felt the burning sensation in his stomach a little bit, so he tore open the package of Nova Dias without hesitation, and swallowed it with his head up.

At this time, his whole person was excited and excited, but also a little nervous.

So he immediately said to the assistant beside him: "Pour me a glass of whiskey and ice cubes!"

The assistant nodded immediately, and took out a bottle of Japanese-made Nissan Whiskey from the car refrigerator. After half a glass, he added some ice cubes.

Jiro Kobayashi took the glass and took a hurried sip. He couldn't help but said excitedly: "The Chinese are really amazing! I thought the prescription of Kobayashi's Niranax is already amazing. I didn't expect that this Oracle Pharmaceutical could still discover Nova Dias, it is such a miraculous thing, it really is impressive!"

The assistant couldn't help saying: "Chairman, what Nova Dias uses may not be the prescriptions in Chinese classical medical books, or they may have developed them themselves."

"Impossible!" Jiro Kobayashi waved his hand and said without hesitation: "In recent years, the Chinese themselves have not paid much attention to Chinese medicine. After so many years, Yunnan Baiyao has barely managed to survive. So, this means they The traditional Chinese medicine practitioners of China have always been going downhill. There was no such good prescription as Oracle Nova Dias before. Now that it is going downhill, how could it be born? So I can basically be sure that this Oracle Nova Dias must have been accidentally discovered from classical medical books. Prescription."

The assistant quickly slapped a flattery: "Mr. Kobayashi, you still have the most insight!"

Jiro Kobayashi drank all the whiskey in the glass in one sip, then handed the glass to the assistant, and while beckoning him to continue pouring, he exclaimed: "When my father was alive, he said that Chinese history and culture cannot be taken away. The inexhaustible forest, now it seems that what your father said is true!"

The assistant nodded and asked on the side: "Mr. Kobayashi, if we get the prescription for Nova Dias, what should we do next?"

Jiro Kobayashi sneered and said, "I have already ordered. Once I get the prescription, I will let someone set a fire and burn the production base of Oracle Pharmaceutical directly. Then I will go back to Japan to make a little change in the prescription, and quietly change it. The prescription of Kobayashi's Niranax is changed. From now on, this medicine will be mine!"

Speaking of this, a cold light flashed in Jiro Kobayashi's eyes!

Now, Oracle Pharmaceutical is producing Oracle Nova Dias in three shifts. He knew very well that a fire could burn hundreds of employees of the pharmaceutical factory.

But for him, he doesn't care about it anymore.

Anyway, those who died were from Oracle Pharmaceutical. What does it have to do with him?

All he wanted was the formula of Nova Dias, nothing more!

Chapter 1483

When Jiro Kobayashi thought he had laid a net for Liam, Charlie Wade's big net had already trapped him firmly.

At this moment, and here, Jiro Kobayashi thought that his dozen or so masters who came from Japan would be able to eat Liam.

But he didn't know that on both sides of this intersection, at least 50 people had surrounded them to death.

At this time, the bus that Charlie Wade took was less than three kilometers away.

Oracle Pharmaceutical, where Liam is located, is about three kilometers away from here.

Therefore, Liam also walked out of Oracle Pharmaceutical at this time, got into his car, and walked off work on the national road as usual.

When Jiro Kobayashi's eyeliner reported, telling him that Liam had set off from Oracle Pharmaceutical and was still driving alone, Kobayashi's blood boiled!

Ten minutes later, Liam's Mercedes-Benz sedan drove into this corner.

At this time, the black wind was high, and there were no passing vehicles on the road.

Jiro Kobayashi's tactical planning is very simple and straightforward. Right here, he stopped the car that Liam was driving, then immediately tied him up, took him to a safe place for severe torture, and forced him to take out all the prescriptions.

Moreover, Jiro Kobayashi has already bought hundreds of commonly used Chinese medicinal materials in advance. As long as Liam provides the formula, he can immediately make the preparation on the spot and compare it with the Oracle Nova Dias on the market.

As long as the prescription of the medicine is consistent with the efficacy of Nova Dias, he can immediately rush back to Japan and start producing Kobayashi with the new prescription.

The dozen or so masters he had called stayed behind and completely destroyed the entire Oracle Pharmaceutical.

Seeing that Liam's car had already turned into a corner, Jiro Kobayashi was so excited that he even walked off the Toyota Alpha himself.

A dozen masters from Japan had already used vehicles to block Liam's road ahead. They disguised the scene of a rear-end collision. After Liam drove up to the front, there were two more cars, and they drove him back and side. All roads are blocked.

By then, Liam would be the turtle in the urn.

At this moment, Liam drove into the curve and saw two cars parked in front of him, and several people were standing on either side of the cars, as if arguing about something.

So he stopped the car directly, followed Charlie Wade's instructions, got out of the car, and asked, "What's the matter? Has the car crashed? Can you move the car to the side of the road to deal with the accident? In the middle of the road, this way is all blocked by you."

As soon as Liam's voice fell, the few people suddenly rushed towards him. Two of them were extremely fast, and they were in front of Liam in the blink of an eye, and then tightly controlled his hands from left to right. Arms.

Liam pretended to panic and shouted, "Who are you? What do you want to do?"

Jiro Kobayashi walked out of the darkness, grinning and said, "Hello Manager Weaver, let's meet again!"

Liam blurted out and asked, "Jiro Kobayashi?! What do you mean?!"

Jiro Kobayashi smiled and said: "It's not interesting, the cooperation during the day was not negotiated, so I want to invite you to change places, let's continue talking."

After speaking, he immediately said to the black-clothed men: "Take him away for me!"

At this moment, a bus suddenly drove over from the opposite side.

Chapter 1484

The driver shook his headlight and honked his horn.

Jiro Kobayashi frowned: "Damn, is there a bus going this way at night?"

After finishing speaking, he said to the black-clothed people: "Quickly get out of the way, otherwise, if passers-by are suspicious, there will be unnecessary trouble!"

The man in black was about to step forward, and the bus had already stopped in front of the two cars disguised as a car accident.

The driver put down the car window and shouted, "Hey, what's the point? There was a car accident, and you were blocked on both sides of the road?"

One of the people in black hurriedly said, "I'm sorry, I'm sorry, move away, move away now!"

The driver cursed and said, "Hurry up, what the hell is the ink? What a f*cking cow!"

When the man in black heard this, he was a little annoyed, and he cursed: "Bhaga! Why are you talking to me?!"

The driver sneered: "Oh, I'm still a Japanese, what the hell is it? I'm pretending to be here with grandpa? Don't look at where this is, this is the f*cking China, you know? China! Come on, follow Dad. , China!"

This man in black is in Japan, and he is also a respected martial arts master. Although he is not as good as Nanako Ito's master Yamamoto Kazuki, he is at least a master. He was suddenly annoyed by a bus driver pointing his nose to curse. Said: "Damn! If you don't show you some color today, you don't know what the price of cheap mouth is!"

Jiro Kobayashi hurriedly shouted: "Musashi! Focus on the overall situation and don't make trouble! Move the car quickly and let the bus pass by!"

Hearing this, the man in black had to gritted his teeth, pointed at the bus driver and cursed: "You are lucky today, I will spare you my life!"

The driver laughed, spit out the window, and continued to curse: "The little chicken feathers at the back are more acquainted, otherwise, I will kick you guys back to Japan from here! "

Jiro Kobayashi didn't expect that a bus driver would dare to call him a little feather.

An unprecedented shame, but surging out in his heart!

He is the president of Kobayashi Corporation! The helm of the Kobayashi family! In any case, can not accept such disrespectful titles and insults!

Just now he told that Musashi not to make trouble, pointing angrily at the bus driver, and yelling: "You guys, teach me a good lesson and bastard! He must tear his broken mouth!"

Several people in black were already furious, and upon hearing this, they rushed over with excitement.

They went straight to the door of the side bus, slammed the door, and yelled: "Damn it, open the door! You must be killed today, you ass!"

The driver of the bus was not at all shocked, pressing the button to open the door while cursing: "Grass! A bunch of crippled stuff, dare to pretend to be with me? See if I will kill you today!"

As soon as the voice fell, the car door opened completely.

A few Japanese masters in black rushed forward, trying to beat the driver to death.

However, they never dreamed that as soon as a few people got in the car, the door suddenly closed again. Suddenly more than forty strong men took out their pistols and pointed their guns directly at them in the dark carriage.

Just when they were almost peeing their pants, Charlie Wade stood up with a playful smile, and shouted coldly: "It's all the f*cking to hold my head and squat down. Otherwise, I will order him to be beaten into a piece of human-shaped honeycomb coal! "

Chapter 1485

These Japanese men in black looked at themselves with countless gunpoints, and they were suddenly confused.

what happened?

Didn't everyone come up to teach that cheap-mouthed bus driver?

Why did it seem to fall into the wolf den all at once?

At this time, the headed person yelled: "Baga! No! We are in ambush among us, run!"

As soon as the voice fell, I turned my head to look, and I couldn't help but feel desperate!

Why is the car door closed? !

Just when he didn't know what to do, Charlie Wade sneered and asked playfully: "What? You got in my car, do you still want to run?"

"No, no!" The man hurriedly shook his hands and said with a smile: "There must be some misunderstanding. We actually wanted to say sorry to the driver. After all, our attitude just now was relatively poor, and it affected you. Drive normally..."

Charlie Wade snorted: "Stop the f*cking nonsense with me! If you don't hold your head and squat down, I'll blow your head!"

The man shivered in fright: "Don't don't! Big brother, don't be impulsive! Can't I squat?"

After speaking, he hurriedly raised his hands to the top of his head and squatted down deeply.

When the other people saw him squatting down, they immediately squatted down.

At this time, Jiro Kobayashi outside didn't know what happened in the bus.

He is asking people to rush Liam into the car and take away.

At this moment, a large number of black cars suddenly drove on both sides of the curve.

These black cars immediately surrounded them with the bus, and they were completely blocked.

Jiro Kobayashi panicked suddenly.

He wasn't a fool either. When he saw this battle, he knew that the other party was not good, and he definitely came prepared.

So, he hurriedly shouted to the Japanese master around him: "Can't delay! Let's smash a bloody road!"

Jiro Kobayashi knew that he was already a turtle in the urn. If he didn't quickly find a way to break out, once he lost the ability to resist, he would have no choice but to catch it.

There is still a chance to break through this road!

He felt that as long as he could escape, it would be fine even if all the people around him died here.

These dead men wanted to do their best to escort Jiro Kobayashi through the siege, but they never dreamed that more than 40 men in black with guns and live ammunition came out of that bus.

Together with the people in black who came out of the black cars, there are at least a hundred!

On the other hand, there are not even 20 people on Jiro Kobayashi's side, and several people have been disarmed in the bus.

Jiro Kobayashi suddenly panicked and blurted out: "Hurry up and cover my breakthrough! Otherwise, everyone will die here today!"

Chapter 1486

As soon as the voice fell, there were loud gunfire around!

When the gunfire gradually stopped, Jiro Kobayashi was shocked to find that there was no one standing around him.

Charlie Wade had already explained that, except for Jiro Kobayashi, no one else would stay tonight.

Therefore, Cameron Isaac's men are naturally not so kind.

Jiro Kobayashi saw his assistant, his driver, and the masters he had invited from a long distance from Japan, all of them fell in a pool of blood, life and death unknown, and his whole body broke down and cried in an instant: "Please! Please don't Kill me! I am the patriarch of the Kobayashi family in Japan and the chairman of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall Co., Ltd.! As long as you don't kill me, I will give it no matter how much it costs!"

At this time, a cold voice came: "Jiro Kobayashi, I found out that the people of your Kobayashi family really don't have a long memory, and you always have to have trouble with me?"

When Jiro Kobayashi heard this voice, he shuddered.

Soon after, he saw Charlie Wade's handsome and arrogant face.

"Wade...Mr. Wade?!"

Jiro Kobayashi almost collapsed: "You... why are you here?"

Charlie Wade asked him: "Liam is my person, and Oracle Pharmaceutical is my company. If you want to kidnap him and snatch the formula of Oracle Nova Dias, then of course I will come to you for a while! lest you think I am a soft persimmon. , You and your dead ghost brother, anyone can pinch."

"Ah?!" Jiro Kobayashi knelt on the ground with a plop, and cried loudly:

"Mr. Wade, I'm sorry, Mr. Wade! I really don't know that Liam is yours, let alone Oracle Pharmaceutical is yours. , If I knew, I would kill me, I wouldn't dare to disobey you in any way!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Don't f*cking talk nonsense with me, you've already dealt with my people, and your mother said that you didn't disobey me? Are you so easy to deceive me as a three-year-old child?"

Jiro Kobayashi was really scared and passed out.

Does he know who Charlie Wade is? I also know Charlie Wade's methods.

After all, his brother was planted in Charlie Wade's hands.

This time, he himself was in Charlie Wade's hands, and he naturally knew that Charlie Wade could not spare himself easily.

Because he was afraid that Charlie Wade would kill his own brother like he killed his brother, he kowtowed and said: "Mr. Wade, please calm down and don't be familiar with people like me. You can count on what happened today. I will pay you as much money! How about a billion? As long as you nod your head, I will immediately have someone put the money into your account."

"Ten billion?" Charlie Wade snorted: "Yes, Jiro Kobayashi. This time, I'm not doing it for money."

Jiro Kobayashi cried and asked, "Mr. Wade, how can you be satisfied?" Charlie Wade said contemptuously: "You stay in Japan honestly, our well water does not disturb the river, everyone is in peace, but you don't have long eyes, and you have to come to me for trouble. If so, then I will send you to Meet your brother!"

"Ah?!" Jiro Kobayashi had always thought that his brother had been killed by Charlie Wade's men, and when he heard this, he peed his pants in shock.

His whole crotch was soaked quickly, even on the concrete floor, but he couldn't take care of it at this time, and he kept crying and crying:

"No, Mr. Wade! No! No! I'm still young!! I don't want to die!!! Please! Raise your hands high and spare my life, I am willing to be a cow and a horse for you!!"

Charlie Wade said contemptuously: "Jiro Kobayashi, look at you for a good job! The big masters cry like this, aren't you ashamed?"

Jiro Kobayashi was already crying with tears, "Mr. Wade...I...I don't want to die...I haven't lived enough...I I'm not married yet...No one in the Kobayashi family stays behind...You can't let my Kobayashi family's blood and soul be broken in a foreign country!"

Charlie Wade saw him crying like a girl, and said contemptuously: "Pee soaking urine and take a picture of yourself, how can you look like a hot-blooded man? When did I say I'm going to kill you? Don't worry, I will stay. You are a dog."

Jiro Kobayashi looked surprised: "You... didn't you say you want to send me to see my brother?"

Charlie Wade gave a hum, and said lightly: "I really want to send you to see your brother, but I forgot to tell you, I also left your brother alive as my dog!"

Chapter 1487

When Jiro Kobayashi heard that Charlie Wade said that he had spared his brother's life, his whole body had completely collapsed.

He said angrily, "You...you charged me 1 billion Dollar and promised to kill my brother. Have you been lying to me?!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Jiro Kobayashi, don't be so silly and sweet. If you come out, you will be intriguing. Can't you understand this?"

Jiro Kobayashi said angrily: "You...you are not trustworthy!"

Charlie Wade asked in turn: "I don't talk about credit? You talk? Do you think you are a person again? You fcking came to China from Japan, in order to grab my formula and intend to kidnap my subordinates, you fcking talk about credit? Also, your brother came to China from Japan and grabbed my magic medicine formula. He said he was credited? Or is it normal for your Kobayashi family to grab other people's things?"

Jiro Kobayashi was speechless.

Charlie Wade said in disgust at this time: "Isn't it saying that I don't speak credibility? That's okay! Then let's just do it, I will let someone kill your brother now!"

After finishing speaking, he looked at Jiro Kobayashi and said: "In addition, I have already said. I want to send you to meet your brother, but you don't want your brother to live, so I can only kill your brother first. , And then kill you and send you to hell to see your brother. This should be considered credibility, right?"

After hearing this, Jiro Kobayashi shivered with fright. He immediately knelt on the ground and kowtowed to Charlie Wade and said: "Mr. Wade, I was wrong! I just fart with my mouth full, you must not be like me. I have to thank you, you were merciful and spared my brother's life... and thank you, mercifully, you spared my life!"

Charlie Wade sneered: "It's almost the same, let's go, Jiro Kobayashi, I will take you to meet your brother."

After finishing speaking, he waved to Cameron Isaac: "Put him up and go to Don Albertt's dog farm!"

Cameron Isaac nodded immediately: "Good Master Wade!"

Liam on the side also hurriedly asked, "Master Wade, do you want me to come too?"

Charlie Wade patted him on the shoulder and said lightly: "You are already busy enough with the pharmaceutical factory. You have experienced this tonight. You should go back and have a rest. You will have the factory supervise the production tomorrow."

Liam nodded hurriedly and said, "Master Wade, then I will go back."

Cameron Isaac asked his men to put Ichiro Kobayashi in one of the cars. Later, he left a group of people to do the aftermath, and he personally drove Charlie Wade to Don Albertt's dog farm.

After arriving at the kennel, Cameron Isaac sent someone to bring Jiro Kobayashi into Don Albertt's office. Don Albertt hurriedly greeted him and said respectfully to Charlie Wade: "Master Wade, you are here!"

Charlie Wade nodded slightly and asked him, "Don Albertt, how is Ichiro Kobayashi doing here recently?"

Don Albertt smiled and said, "It's not bad. This grandson is quite obedient recently. He raises dogs, walks the dog, and cleans the kennel every day. In his spare time, he learns Chinese. Last month he also asked me to buy him Two dictionaries."

Charlie Wade smiled: "This guy is okay, and he also has a passion for learning."

Don Albertt said: "Master Wade, the key is that this grandson has nowhere to go. He never dared to leave the kennel for half a step. He stays here 24 hours a day. There is something to kill the boring time."

Charliene said, "Okay, you go and call him over."

"okay!"

Don Albertt stepped out immediately.

Chapter 1488

After a while, a man wearing a blue-gray labor insurance suit, gloves and sleeves ran in with excitement.

As soon as he entered the door, he saw Charlie Wade and hurriedly said excitedly: "Mr. Wade, hello! It's been a long time!"

Ichiro Kobayashi has been here for a long time. For a long time, he has dealt with several of Don Albertt's men every day. Most of the time, he can only deal with dogs.

So over time, he felt very lonely in his heart.

Hearing that Charlie Wade had come and wanted to see himself at this time, he couldn't help feeling agitated in his heart.

Excited because he felt that he hadn't seen acquaintances and friends for a long time, and Charlie Wade, although he was not a friend of his own, was at least an acquaintance?

It is already a rare thing for him to see the faces of acquaintances. Charlie Wade looked at him and said with a smile: "Ichiro Kobayashi, you can speak Chinese well, I can't hear any accent at all. Have you worked hard recently?"

Ichiro Kobayashi smiled shyly and said, "In addition to raising dogs every day, I have been studying Chinese for the rest of my time. Other workers at the kennel have been helping me practice speaking and pronunciation, so the progress is not bad, Mr. Wade. you flatter me!" Charlie Wade nodded, pointing to Jiro Kobayashi, who was kneeling on the ground with his back facing Ichiro Kobayashi trembling, and smiled: "Ichiro Kobayashi, I brought an acquaintance over to tell you about the past. Come and see who this person is."

Jiro Kobayashi was shaking violently in shock at this time. When he heard his brother's voice, he was very scared. This was mainly because he knew he was wrong and felt guilty. After all, I spent a lot of money at the beginning and found many people from Japan to come to China to hunt down and kill my own brother. In the end, he even gave Charlie Wade 1 billion to buy his brother's life.

But I never dreamed that Charlie Wade deceived himself and his brother was still alive.

Therefore, he was afraid that his brother would fight hard with him after seeing him.

Ichiro Kobayashi didn't know that the man kneeling in front of Charlie Wade with his back turned to him was his younger brother. He heard Charlie Wade say that he had brought an acquaintance to tell him about the past, so he curiously leaned in and wanted to find out.

It didn't matter to look at it. When he saw Jiro Kobayashi's face, he was struck by lightning.

Soon, Ichiro Kobayashi suddenly burst into blue veins!

"Jiro! You bastard! I have always regarded you as brothers, but I didn't expect you to want my life! I'll kill you!"

Jiro Kobayashi was frightened, and he blurted out and shouted: "Brother! Brother! I can't be blamed for this! At the beginning, my father took the medicine you sent back, and he died suddenly not long after. I thought that you deliberately killed your father. , So I want you to pay for your life..."

Ichiro Kobayashi rushed up angrily, grabbed Jiro Kobayashi by the collar, and punched him in the face with his fists!

At the same time, he gritted his teeth and cursed: "It might be useful for you to lie to other people in the family, but if you want to lie to me, there is no way!"

"Do you think I don't know what kind of wishful thinking you are playing? You know that I am in China, it is impossible to kill my father so far and make you for nothing!"

"You also know that after the death of my father, as the eldest son, I will inherit the family property!"

"That's why you added a charge of father-killing, wanted to kill me, and monopolized the entire Kobayashi family!"

Chapter 1489

After a short time, Jiro Kobayashi was beaten with blood on his face and almost passed out several times.

However, I was soon awakened by Kobayashi's angry fist!

Ichiro Kobayashi is awesome now.

Although I used to be a rich second generation who was hollowed out by wine, but during this period of hard work every day in Don Albertt's kennel, his physical fitness has been greatly improved. I dare not say that I am a master, but the hammer is the same. Jiro Kobayashi, who was hollowed out by alcohol, couldn't be more weak.

Jiro Kobayashi realized at this time how weak his body was. After a few punches, he was beaten for half his life.

He cried vaguely: "Brother, please forgive me for the sake of my brothers and compatriots, please forgive me..."

After speaking, he burst into tears.

Ichiro Kobayashi gritted his teeth and cursed: "Do you still think that we are brothers? Do you still think that we are compatriots?!"

"Jiro, have you forgotten how much I loved you when I was a child and a teenager?!"

"Even when we become adults, we often fight for family status, but I have never hurt you!"

"But what about you? You know that I am the brother of your same father and mother, and you know that I cannot take the initiative to kill your father, but you still put the charge of father killing on my head, even costing a billion to Take my life!"

"I don't have a brother who is inferior to a beast like you. Today I will clean up the door for the Kobayashi family! I personally kill you bastard!"

Jiro Kobayashi wailed in fright, and his voice became hoarse.

However, Ichiro Kobayashi has no sympathy.

His eyes were red with hatred at this time.

Seeing that he was really going to beat Jiro Kobayashi to death, Charlie Wade stepped forward to hold him, and said coldly: "Ichiro, let your brother live, and he will take over your job here."

Ichiro Kobayashi was startled, crying and asked Charlie Wade: "Mr. Wade, you...why do you want to keep such a perfidious bastard?! He can even bite his brother, so you are not afraid that he will be right someday. Are you a black hand?"

Charlie Wade laughed sarcastically: "I give him the courage, can he dare?"

When Jiro Kobayashi heard that Charlie Wade was planning to let himself go and let himself take over his brother's job here, he didn't care about knowing what the job was, so he knelt on the ground and kowtowed, crying, "Mr. Wade, thank you. Great mercy! Thank you!"

Charlie Wade chuckled, and Ichiro Kobayashi hurriedly asked respectfully: "Mr. Wade, you let him take over my job, what are my next arrangements?"

Charlie Wade turned to look at Ichiro Kobayashi, and asked faintly:

"Ichiro, do you want to return to Japan to inherit Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall?"

When Ichiro Kobayashi heard this, his blood boiled, and he blurted out, "Go back to Japan?! Inherit Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall?! Wade... Mr. Wade... You... You are not... Are you kidding me?!"

Charlie Wade smiled: "I am consulting your opinion very seriously. If I let you go back, would you like to go back?"

Ichiro Kobayashi was shaking with excitement and crying: "I am willing! Mr. Wade, I am willing!"

Charlie Wade nodded: "It's okay to go back, but I have a condition. You must promise me first."

Ichiro Kobayashi knew that Charlie Wade could not let himself go back for no reason, so he did not hesitate to say: "Mr. Wade, no matter what the conditions, I promise you! As long as you can let me go back to Japan!" Although the days at the kennel were not hard and did not suffer any serious crimes, it was after all countless times worse than when Ichiro Kobayashi was the eldest son of the Kobayashi family.

He had suffered for so long and wanted to go back in his dreams. He thought that he might be inseparable from this kennel in his life, but he did not expect that Charlie Wade was really willing to give himself this opportunity now.

Therefore, no matter what the price is paid, he has no complaints!

However, he never dreamed that Charlie Wade opened his mouth and said:

"Ichiro Kobayashi, I will send you back to Japan to let you take control of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals again, but I want you to give me 80% of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals. Can you agree?"

Chapter 1490

"What?!" Both Ichiro Kobayashi and Jiro Kobayashi were blindfolded.

Charlie Wade wants 80% of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's shares? !

This appetite is too big! This is no longer the lion's big mouth! This is the big mouth of the whale! Kobayashi's expression was extremely uncomfortable.

Just now, I was thinking that Charlie Wade might just want some money at most, and it doesn't matter if he has a few billions. After biting his teeth, he gave it to him. After all, Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall is still making money very quickly.

But I never dreamed that they wanted 80% of the shares!

However, when Jiro Kobayashi on the side heard this, he immediately settled an account. Why does Charlie Wade want shares of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall?

It must be that he wants to produce his Oracle Nova Dias with all his strength.

For example, if Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's current market value is 100 billion Dollar, then 80% of it to Charlie Wade, it looks like it gave him 80 billion Dollar.

However, my brother was staying in this kennel, and he certainly didn't know the Oracle Nova Dias that was just launched. The effect of this new stomach medicine was amazing!

Look at it this way, if Oracle Pharmaceutical continues to develop, the income of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall will be greatly affected.

If revenue plummets, market value will plummet.

Maybe after a while, the market value of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall has fallen below 20 billion.

In that case, what if you own 100% of the shares? Didn't it still cost 80 billion Dollar, even far more than 80 billion Dollar?

If Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall goes downhill because it can't compete with Oracle Pharmaceutical, it might go bankrupt one day.

However, if you accept Charlie Wade's cooperation, it will be another situation.

Once accepted the cooperation, Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall is equivalent to selling itself to Charlie Wade, and Charlie Wade will definitely use Kobayashi's production line to produce Nova Dias. In that case, the output of Nova Dias will increase sharply and profits will also increase.

Although the Kobayashi family still has 20% of the shares left, if Charlie Wade develops well, the market value of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall may double or even double.

If doubled and the market value changes from 100 billion to 200 billion, then 20% will be as much as 40 billion!

If you doubled it several times, it might even be better than doing it yourself before!

After all, now Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's leading products are completely overtaken by Oracle Pharmaceutical, and Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's performance is bound to decline rapidly!

Thinking of this, Jiro Kobayashi hurriedly vomited the blood in his mouth, raised his hands and said loudly, "Mr. Wade, I am willing! I am willing to give you 80% of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's shares! I beg you to let me go, and don't let my brother. Let it out!"

As soon as Ichiro Kobayashi heard this, he didn't hesitate to say, "Mr. Wade, don't listen to this beast barking here! I agree to your proposal! Give you 80% of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall!"

Jiro Kobayashi hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, I will give 85%!!!"

At this time, Jiro Kobayashi knew very well in his heart that if he failed in the competition and was left here, he would not be able to turn over for a lifetime!

Seeing this, Ichiro Kobayashi on the side scolded: "Jiro! Are you a brute still trying to harm me?! Your conscience has been eaten by a dog!"

After speaking, he turned to look at Charlie Wade, gritted his teeth and said: "Mr. Wade, I am willing to pay 90%!"

Chapter 1491

In fact, by this point, the two brothers had already figured it out.

What money is not money at this time is just a foreign object.

What really matters to them right now is freedom and the identity of the heir of the Kobayashi family!

With only 10% of the shares left in his own hands, he can also guarantee that he will live a lifetime.

But if you are trapped in a kennel in a foreign country for a lifetime, there will be no chance of turning over in this lifetime.

Therefore, if these two options are compared, it is really one heaven and one underground.

When I heard Ichiro Kobayashi said that he was willing to give Charlie Wade 90% of the shares, Jiro Kobayashi was already crazy.

He almost desperately blurted out: "Mr. Wade, if you are willing to cooperate with me, I can give you 95% of the shares!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "Jiro Kobayashi. You are a little late in your consciousness. I think it is better to cooperate with your brother on this matter."

As soon as Charlie Wade said this, Ichiro Kobayashi's expression was immediately extremely excited, while Jiro Kobayashi felt as if he had fallen into the abyss, and the whole person was completely desperate. Ichiro Kobayashi knelt on the ground excitedly and kowtowed to Charlie Wade, and choked up, "Mr. Wade, thank you for your trust and appreciation. I will look forward to everything in the future. You let me go east and I will never go west!"

Charlie Wade nodded, then looked at the desperate Jiro Kobayashi with a smile and said, "Jiro, you don't have to worry too much, let alone be so desperate. My cooperation with your brother is only temporary."

As soon as these words came out, the two brothers looked at Charlie Wade nervously.

Charlie Wade continued: "If your brother cooperates well, actively cooperates with me, and satisfies me, then I may continue to cooperate with him. But if he dares to touch me with other thoughts and make me feel dissatisfied, then he will be caught again, or caught here. Let him raise the dog for you, and then let you replace him as the helm of the Kobayashi family."

After listening to it, Ichiro Kobayashi immediately stated his position without hesitation: "Mr. Wade, although you can put your heart at ease, I will definitely not have any dissatisfaction, and will never let you have any dissatisfaction with me!"

Jiro Kobayashi was desperate.

Looking at it this way, I will only be a deterrent to my brother in the future, and the meaning of my own existence is to constantly remind my brother to listen to Charlie Wade's words.

If my brother didn't make any mistakes, then he wouldn't have a chance to stand up.

Ichiro Kobayashi also knows very well that Charlie Wade's younger brother has the means to control him. If he doesn't listen to him, then he is likely to swap himself with his younger brother. Therefore, he must fully cooperate with Charlie Wade so as not to return. To this ghost place! What Charlie Wade wanted was for the two brothers to check and balance each other. Seeing that the purpose was achieved, he relaxed.

Afterwards, he looked at Ichiro Kobayashi and said lightly: "Ichiro, you have to prepare well these few days. I will go to another place in these two days. After I come back, I will personally take you to Japan to inherit the Kobayashi family, but I am going. Before, you must sign a contract with me and give me 90% of the shares of your family, Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall."

Ichiro Kobayashi nodded like garlic: "Mr. Wade, don't worry, I can sign and draw at any time!"

Charlie Wade was satisfied now, smiled slightly, and said: "Okay, you two brothers will stay here now, I will come back in a few days."

After finishing speaking, he asked Don Albertt: "Don Albertt, you must show me these brothers, you must not go on any business trips, understand?"

Don Albertt nodded without hesitation and said, "Master Wade, don't worry, Don Albertt uses the head to ensure that there will be no mistakes!"

"it is good."

Charlie Wade looked at Cameron Isaac and said, "Okay, let's go."

.....

On the way back.

Charlie Wade's mobile phone received a push.

This post is a piece of news, with the headline "Japanese talented female Sanda player Nanako Ito is out of danger. The doctor said that she might bid farewell to the ring! »

Seeing this news, Charlie Wade hurriedly clicked to check it, and then saw the text of the report.

It turned out that after Nanako Ito returned to Japan, she immediately received emergency treatment at the best hospital in Tokyo.

Moreover, her injuries were very serious at the time. In fact, her internal organs were injured very critically, and she was unable to escape her life in danger.

After several hours of surgery, she was finally out of danger.

However, although she is out of danger, the situation of her physical injury is still not optimistic. The media quoted the introduction of Tokyo's top doctors. Nanako Ito is now seriously damaged in her physical function. She does not know whether she can recover. Even if she is out of danger, she wants to completely. The chance of recovering as before is also very slim, and there is a high probability that he will not be able to board the ring again.

The report also said that the Japanese people were very sad about the news and prayed for Nanako Ito on Japanese social networking sites, hoping that she would recover as soon as possible, continue to be in the ring, and win honor for Japan.

At the end of the article, it is revealed that it is reported that Nanako Ito will go to Kyoto for a long recuperation after her physical condition stabilizes. She may not appear in public view for a long time in the future.

Charlie Wade couldn't help but sigh after reading it.

It seems that Nanako Ito suffered a serious internal injury in the game. After all, she and Aurora weren't the same weight players at all, and injuries were inevitable.

In fact, she shouldn't have played this inevitable match at all. It's just that this girl with a weak appearance, but a very strong heart, knew that she might lose miserably, but she did not hesitate to hold on to the end.

Charlie Wade sighed softly, put the phone away, and said to Cameron Isaac who was driving, "Isaac, I am going to Eastcliff tomorrow. Please help me take care of things in Aurouss Hilll."

Cameron Isaac nodded immediately and respectfully said: "Master, you can rest assured that everything in Aurouss Hilll is guarded by me. I promise you with my life that there will never be any deviation."

Charlie Wade gave a hum, and said nothing.

Cameron Isaac asked again: "Master, do you want me to arrange a special plane to send you off?"

Charlie Wade shook his head: "No, if you arrange a special plane, the Wade family might know it too. I'm going to Eastcliff this time and it has nothing to do with the Wade family, and I don't want to be out of touch. It's better to keep a low profile."

Cameron Isaac nodded and said, "Master, do you want me to book the ticket for you?"

"Okay." Charlie Wade said, "then help me book the flight tomorrow morning."

Cameron Isaac hurriedly asked again: "Master, when do you plan to come back? I will help you book the return flight."

"I haven't figured it out yet." Charlie Wade said: "You don't have to worry about things coming back."

Cameron Isaac hesitated for a moment and said with a serious face:

"Master, Eastcliff is a place where dragons are hidden, tigers and dragons are mixed, so after you get there, it is best not to be arrogant to avoid unnecessary troubles. If you encounter any difficult problems, You can tell me, or tell the steward Thompson, we will do our best to help you without telling the family."

"okay, I get it."

Cameron Isaac also reminded: "Master, according to the information I have learned, Sam of the Kilgore family hates you for your bones. If you go to Eastcliff, try not to conflict with the person surnamed Kilgore, lest the dragon will not crush the snake."

"Sam?" Charlie Wade sneered: "If you didn't tell me, I almost forgot about this stupid."

Chapter 1493

For Charlie Wade, whether he was Master Wade or Young Master Wade, he didn't see Sam's kind of jumping clown at all.

Although the Kilgore family is also a big family of Eastcliff, their overall strength is actually nothing more than that.

Not to mention a Sam, even the entire Kilgore family may not be able to enter Charlie Wade's eyes.

Cameron Isaac naturally knew Charlie Wade's strength.

This is the master of killing the eight heavenly kings of the Webb family by one man!

With such strength, the Kilgore family is definitely not an opponent.

But Cameron Isaac also knew well, what is Eastcliff? The water is deep there. In the seemingly calm water, in fact, all giants can be hidden.

You don't know whether a carp will pop out in the next second, or a real dragon.

Moreover, Charlie Wade went to Eastcliff alone this time, and Cameron

Isaac was afraid that he would be outnumbered in Eastcliff, so he reminded him: "Master, although the Kilgore family is not top-notch in strength, there is a certain network and foundation in Eastcliff. Yes, you are not going to let the family know this time, so you should be as careful as possible."

Charlie Wade knew that Cameron Isaac said these words out of good intentions, so he nodded gently: "I know Isaac, don't worry."

While waiting for the red light, Cameron Isaac used his mobile phone to help Charlie Wade buy a ticket to Eastcliff tomorrow morning.

Then he said to Charlie Wade: "Master, the plane is at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, and I bought you first class."

"Okay." Charlie Wade nodded lightly and looked out the window, thinking that tomorrow would be his first return to Eastcliff after a lapse of more than ten years, he felt a little nervous in his heart.

This time, he was not going to return to the Wade family, nor was he going to meet with the Wade family.

But he planned to go to the tomb of his parents to pay respect and love.

As a child, he has not visited the tomb for so many years. He is really unfilial. If he does not visit in Eastcliff, it is even more inexcusable.

Back home.

Jacob Wilson and Elaine Ma have returned to their respective bedrooms.

Claire Wilson Wilson was not in the living room either. Charlie Wade came to the bedroom on the second floor and saw that Claire Wilson Wilson was standing on the terrace. So he walked to the front and said softly, "My wife, it's so late, why are you still standing outside? It's very cold now, so go back to your house quickly."

Claire Wilson Wilson had already seen him enter the yard just now, so he was not surprised at his appearance, and said with a smile: "The weather forecast says it will snow tonight. Aurouss Hill is located south of the Yangtze River. There is very little snowfall. At that time I couldn't see a single snow in a year, I wanted to see if I could wait until it snowed."

Charlie Wade nodded and asked with a smile: "If you like snow, we can go to the north to see the snow if we have the opportunity in the future."

Claire Wilson Wilson said with a look of yearning: "I especially like to look at places full of white snow, such as our Golim Mountain, such as Hokkaido in Japan, if we have a chance, let's go and see it?"

Charlie Wade smiled and asked, "Where to go? Golim Mountain or Hokkaido?"

Claire Wilson Wilson said: "Go to Golim Mountain first!"

When Charlie Wade thought of Golim Mountain, in addition to thinking of the scene where he killed the Eight Heavenly Kings at the foot of the mountain, he couldn't help but think of the Weaver family's lustful father and son, so he shook his head and said, "Golim Mountain should not go anymore, I have a chance to go to Hokkaido. , Or go to Kunlun Mountain."

Claire Wilson Wilson hummed, and sighed: "The New Year is almost here, and your birthday will be after the first month. Do you have any birthday wishes?"

Charlie Wade shook his head: "I don't have any birthday wishes, I only wish my lover to be healthy, safe and smooth."

Chapter 1494

Claire Wilson Wilson was moved by Charlie Wade's light words.

Can't help but walk to Charlie Wade's side, snuggle gently in his arms, look up at the stars in the sky, and say with happiness: "After the New Year, it's the fourth year of our marriage."

"Yeah." Charlie Wade couldn't help sighing: "It's been four years, and time flies really fast."

"Hurry?" Claire Wilson Wilson said earnestly, "I don't think time flies fast at all. In the past four years, too much has happened, especially in you, too many changes have taken place."

Charlie Wade touched his nose: "What? Have I changed?"

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded and said, "Of course it has changed! Whether it is the feeling to others, or the aura and temperament of your whole person, it seems that it has changed greatly from when you first got married."

As she spoke, she murmured softly: "But it's very strange, and then think about this change is really big, but sometimes think about it, and feel as if everything is quite natural, as if you are like this... .."

Charlie Wade sighed lightly and said to her: "Oh, my wife, the matter of going to Eastcliff to see Feng Shui has been decided, I will leave tomorrow morning."

"Leave tomorrow?" Claire Wilson Wilson asked in surprise: "Why are you so anxious?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "It's the twelfth lunar month, and the Chinese New Year is only twenty days away. The customers over there are also very anxious. They all want to do everything they should do before, and we can't drag others hind legs."

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded lightly and said seriously: "Husband, although Feng Shui makes money, I don't want you to run around often in the future. After you said this, I have been thinking about that we have been married for almost four years, and it seems that we have never been separated all day and night. When I think of you going to Eastcliff for several days, I am not used to it..."

Having said this, she sighed a little melancholy: "As you know, my parents' relationship has never been very good. Since my mom lost more than two million in gambling and was held in the detention center because of MLM, my dad doesn't seem to have any feelings for her anymore, especially when Matilda suddenly comes back, the relationship between the two of them has become worse..."

"When I come back from work every day, when I see the two of them resenting each other, quarreling and scolding, I feel very uncomfortable, so you can give me a little warmth at home. If you are away for several days, I don't know how to face it. To face them."

Charlie Wade hugged her a little closer, and said seriously: "The things between parents, let's just let it go, don't think about it so much, it will definitely not be so annoying, besides, I will immediately finish the work. Don't worry if you rush back."

"Yeah." Claire Wilson Wilson nodded and said with a smile: "Oh, yes, you haven't been to Eastcliff? This time you can take the opportunity to have fun. Eastcliff is an ancient capital with rich history and culture.!"

Charlie Wade gave a wry smile.

My wife thought that she grew up in Aurouss Hill Welfare Institute. She didn't know. Actually, he grew up in Eastcliff and didn't leave until he was eight years old.

However, he was so happy that Claire Wilson Wilson knew nothing about his identity, so he smiled and said, "Okay, I will definitely find opportunities to see more this time."

Claire Wilson Wilson smiled and said, "When my grandfather was still alive, he took me to Eastcliff several times. He had a very deep affection for Eastcliff. According to him, our ancestors and generations gave Eastcliff a big family. As slaves, the family was so kind to our family, but later because of the war, some domestic slaves were dismissed."

As she said, she said again: "But the reason why our family was able to have a later scale is also because that large family gave a lot of settlement allowances when they were dismissed."

Charlie Wade smiled and asked, "Have Grandpa ever said, what is the name and background of that big family?"

"He hasn't said it." Claire Wilson Wilson shook his head and said seriously: "However, my grandfather had always felt regret before, saying that he had no chance to repay this family's great kindness. Since I can remember, I have been talking about it for almost 20 years! But in the next few years, I might have seen it openly and never said this again." Speaking of this, Claire Wilson Wilson thought of something and suddenly said, "Hey, thinking about it now, it seems that after we got married, he never said it again!"

After hearing what Claire Wilson Wilson said, Charlie Wade laughed and said nothing.

He knew why Father Wilson stopped talking about this after he got married with Claire Wilson Wilson. That's because Father Wilson felt that if he married Claire Wilson Wilson to himself and gave him a family, it was equivalent to the Wade Family repayed.

But he would naturally not tell Claire Wilson Wilson about this.

At this moment, Claire Wilson Wilson suddenly looked at the sky and said with joy: "Wow! It's really snowing!"

Charlie Wade raised his head, and a piece of cold snow fell on his forehead, bringing a hint of coolness, and then instantly melted. At the beginning, only a few snowflakes fell sporadically, and ten minutes later, snowflakes all over the night sky fell. For Aurouss Hilll, a southern city, such heavy snow is indeed too rare. Claire Wilson Wilson danced happily in the snow like a child. Seeing the snow falling and getting bigger and bigger, she took Charlie Wade to the yard, collecting a thin layer of snow from the roof of the car, and said to Charlie Wade: "If it falls like this, you can build a snowman and have a snowball fight tomorrow!" Charlie Wade nodded and sighed, "I haven't built a snowman for many years."

The last time I did this kind of thing, when I was in the orphanage, together with my little friend Caleb, and together with Lisa, the sister of the orphanage, piled up a huge snowman on the open space of the orphanage.

In a blink of an eye, nearly ten years have passed.

The heavy snow in Aurouss Hilll is getting bigger and bigger. The Moments of Friends, and TikTok are almost all about the content of this snow. Even Lord Mooore posted a Moments of Friends and took a picture of the snow scene from the upper floor of the villa. The photo is accompanied by four words: "The Coming New Year."

Jasmine also posted to Moments. There is no picture. There is only one sentence: "I wrote your name in the snow. I was afraid that people would see it clearly, so I wiped it away..."

Charlie Wade guessed that the "you" she said should be himself, but he did not like or leave a message.

That night, Charlie Wade accompanied Claire Wilson Wilson, playing in the snow for a long time, until after twelve o'clock, the two went back to the room to rest.

Turning off the light, Charlie Wade lay on his half of the bed tossing and turning.

Now, there are less than ten hours left before I return to Eastcliff in 18 years.

Claire Wilson Wilson didn't fall asleep either. At night, she suddenly crawled to Charlie Wade's side of the bed, hugged him from behind, and said emotionally in his ear: "My husband, when you go tomorrow, I will Miss you....."

Charlie Wade nodded lightly, stroking her tender hands, with emotion in his heart.

Charlie Wade hardly fell asleep this night.

Fortunately, his body has long been different from ordinary people, even if he stays up all night, there is no discomfort.

Since it was a ten o'clock in the morning, he had to arrive at the airport before nine o'clock, so Charlie Wade got up very early.

When he got up, Claire Wilson Wilson, who had made snowmen until twelve o'clock last night, hadn't woken up yet.

Charlie Wade didn't want to disturb her either. He left a note on the bedside and wrote: "My wife, I'm leaving, wait for me to come back."

After that, he changed his clothes, brought his wallet and credentials, put a few rejuvenating pills on his body, and left the bedroom.

When he got downstairs, Elaine Ma, the mother-in-law wearing an apron, immediately drove out from the kitchen and said affectionately: "Oh my son-in-law, why do you get up so early today?"

Charlie Wade said: "I'm going to Eastcliff today, and I won't be back in a few days."

Elaine Ma hurriedly said diligently: "Oh, let's go today? Mom made you preserved egg and lean meat porridge. Eat a bowl before you go!"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "No, the plane is earlier, I have to go there earlier."

Elaine Ma said hurriedly: "Oh, then I'll give it to you!"

After speaking, he hurried out and followed Charlie Wade all the way to the door.

"Good son-in-law, do you drive to the airport?"

Charlie Wade shook his head: "No, I'll take a taxi."

Elaine Ma blurted out: "Why don't you let your dad's old thing drive you? Anyway, he is idle when he is idle."

Chapter 1496

Charlie Wade said lightly: "No, it's convenient for me to go by myself."

Elaine Ma smiled and nodded, and said, "Then you must pay attention to safety on the road!"

After speaking, seeing Charlie Wade go out, he hurriedly said: "Good son-in-law, if you see any good things in Eastcliff, please bring a copy for mom!"

"Okay."

Charlie Wade responded and took a step away from home.

.....

Aurouss Hilll Airport.

Charlie Wade didn't bring any luggage with him, so he changed his boarding pass and passed the security check.

Because Cameron Isaac bought him a first-class ticket, he went directly to the VIP lounge after passing the security check.

The plane took off at 10 o'clock, and the service staff in the VIP lounge personally guided him to board the plane early at 9:20.

Charlie Wade boarded the plane ahead of others, and there were already a few people in the first-class cabin.

The first class distribution of this aircraft is a 2+2 model, that is, there are two more spacious seats on each side of the corridor. The seats can be laid flat so that you can lie flat, which will be very comfortable.

Charlie Wade's position was near the window, and after sitting down, he looked out the window in a daze.

For more than ten years, Charlie Wade has not been in this state.

Anxious and faintly expecting.

The ancients said that he was close to hometown, and it could not be more appropriate to describe him now.

The plane was still picking up passengers, and when he smelled a faint scent in his nostrils, he turned his head and glanced subconsciously.

A young woman just came to her and was about to sit down.

Seeing him turning her head, the woman also glanced at him subconsciously, and suddenly exclaimed: "Charlie Wade?! Why are you here?"

Charlie Wade was also stunned.

Because the woman in front of him turned out to be Loreen, the woman who has always liked him, Claire Wilson Wilson's best friend.

He was also surprised and asked: "Loreen, why are you here?"

"I know Eastcliff!" Loreen said in surprise: "I am from Eastcliff, you shouldn't be stupid!"

After that, she hurriedly sat down and asked excitedly: "What about you? What are you doing in Eastcliff? What about Claire Wilson Wilson? Didn't she go with you?"

Charlie Wade shook his head and said, "I have something to do with Eastcliff. A friend introduced me to a Feng Shui job. The pay was pretty good, so I just went there."

Loreen nodded suddenly and said: "That's a coincidence! I just went home to celebrate my grandma's birthday. I didn't expect that we were not only on the same plane, but the seats were still next to each other. I said we two are particularly destined.!"

Although Loreen hadn't seen Charlie Wade for a while, her feelings for Charlie Wade had never changed.

In fact, she has been missing Charlie Wade very much all this time.

Originally, she received Claire Wilson Wilson's invitation to live with them at Thompson First, but during that time, too much happened in the Wilson family.

After a while, Mrs. Wilson's family ran up to the door, and the desperately looking to live in Thompson First;

After a while, Elaine Ma disappeared again, and Claire Wilson Wilson was searching all over the world;

Then, Jacob Wilson would entertain his first love at home;

Later, the missing Elaine Ma came back and made the whole family jumpy.

As an outsider, Loreen couldn't help but still live in Thompson First in such a chaotic environment, so she moved back to the hotel early.

Therefore, during this period of time, she almost fell ill with missing Charlie Wade!

Chapter 1497

To Loreen, Charlie Wade has always been a little far away.

He didn't feel much about Loreen, not to mention that Loreen was still a good girlfriend of his wife, and he had to keep a distance from her.

But I didn't expect that the two would still meet on the plane.

Loreen was in a good mood, she involuntarily got close to Charlie Wade, and asked, "Hey, Charlie Wade, how many days are you going to stay in Eastcliff this time?"

Charlie Wade said: "Not necessarily. It depends on the speed of the work. If it is fast, it will be two or three days, if it is slow, it will be four or five days."

Loreen said excitedly: "Oh, I booked the ticket four days later, how about you? When did you book the ticket? Can we come back together then?"

Charlie Wade said frankly: "I haven't booked the return flight ticket yet. Let's talk about it after the matter is over. It's still not sure."

Loreen said hurriedly: "Well then, when you are done with things, you tell me, I will see if the time can be coordinated, and if we can coordinate, then we will come back together."

Charlie Wade was somewhat repulsive in his heart, but on the surface, he still said indifferently: "Let's look at this when the time comes. There is still a lot of uncertainty."

Loreen didn't even notice that Charlie Wade was perfunctory, so she nodded and agreed.

Then she asked curiously: "What are you up to? How are you?"

Charlie Wade said: "I'm not busy, just show people Feng Shui occasionally, and stay at home for the rest of the time."

Loreen asked carefully: "After Claire Wilson Wilson came back, her mother didn't trouble you, right?"

"No." Charlie Wade smiled and said: "She is much more peaceful now than before?"

"That's really great." Loreen sighed sincerely: "I'm afraid Aunt Elaine Ma bullies you at home. It's great that she can settle down!"

Charlie Wade nodded lightly, took out his mobile phone, sent a WeChat message to Stefanie, and said to her: "Daisy, give me a specific address of your home, I will be here today."

Stefanie immediately sent him a voice call and asked excitedly: "Charlie Wade, are you here today?"

"Yes." Charlie Wade said: "I just finished handling the matter here last night, so I booked today's ticket temporarily."

Stefanie hurriedly said: "What time does it land? I will pick you up at the airport!"

Charlie Wade thought that she was a big star, and it was estimated that the paparazzi would follow him in and out, so he said: "Don't bother you, send me a specific position, and I will do it myself."

Stefanie said: "No! I'm going to pick you up! But don't worry, I will dress up for a while and I won't be recognized."

"Forget it." Charlie Wade said: "The paparazzi is very powerful. How many celebrities cheated and broke their shoes. They thought they were well hidden, but they were all photographed by the paparazzi."

Stefanie said helplessly: "Okay, then I will post the location to your WeChat later, can you be there at noon? I will let the family prepare lunch."

Charlie Wade thought for a while: "Almost, then I'll bother you."

Stefanie smiled and said: "I won't tell my parents about this first, just say that an old person is going to be a guest at home. I believe they will be very excited when they see you!"

Charlie Wade said, there was also a hint of warmth in his heart.

Chapter 1498

Thinking of the deterioration of Stefanie's father Orrin Sun, he asked, "Is Uncle Orrin's condition okay?"

"Not so good..." Stefanie said in a low voice, "It's not so good. The doctor has recommended that he be hospitalized again. My dad doesn't want to go. I think he is a little depressed. Maybe he has resigned. I don't want to toss any more, he always feels that he has no dignity when he receives various treatments in the hospital...You may not know his character, but my mother said that he is exactly like your father, and his brothers. It's like, they're very axis, don't listen to persuasion..." Charlie Wade knows that many decent people have less desire to survive when they are dying.

This is mainly because they have been decent for so many years, and they value face and dignity very much. They don't want to put down all their dignity and dignity at the end of their lives in order to live for such a limited period of time.

Charlie Wade even heard that many big people have signed a no-rescue agreement when they are severely ill. If their lives come to the end, they will not be intubated, operated or on a ventilator, just to make themselves more dignified.

It seems that Orrin Sun has already started planning for the future. Fortunately, the timing of my reunion with Stefanie was relatively coincidental. Otherwise, if we wait for Orrin Sun to pass away from a serious illness, we will not be able to save Orrin Sun's life.

So, he said to comfort him: "Don't worry about this matter so much, I will help you solve it after I arrive."

Stefanie choked and said, "Thank you, Charlie Wade, he should be very happy if you can come to see Dad!"

Charlie Wade didn't want to talk too much to Stefanie, so as not to be heard by Loreen, who was next to her, so she said: "Let's do this first. The plane is about to take off and will be shut down."

Stefanie hurriedly said, "Okay, Charlie Wade, I am waiting for you in Eastcliff!"

Charlie Wade hung up the phone, and Loreen couldn't help but smile: "Oh, Charlie Wade, you are so amazing now. No wonder people call you Master Wade. Listening to the tone you just called, it seems that they are waiting for you to fight the fire!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "Feng Shui is something like this sometimes, if there is no problem, but when there is a problem, it is often rushed."

Loreen sighed from the bottom of her heart: "Claire Wilson Wilson is really lucky to find a capable husband like you!"

After speaking, Loreen asked again: "By the way, where did you go to Eastcliff this time?"

Charlie Wade said: "Near Northeast Fifth Ring Road, there is the villa area."

Loreen said happily: "That's not far away! Come to my house and sit?"

Charlie Wade said embarrassingly: "I won't go, it's not appropriate, and I came to Eastcliff this time, there are quite a lot of things..."

Loreen smiled slightly: "It's okay. Look at that time. If you don't have time, it doesn't matter, but you have to give me a chance to treat you to dinner, just as I thank you for saving me twice, OK?"

Hearing that it was just a meal, Charlie Wade was not hypocritical, and nodded and agreed: "Okay."

At this time, the beautiful and generous flight attendants have begun to remind everyone to buckle up their seat belts and the plane is ready to roll out.

Afterwards, the plane started slowly and came to the end of the runway. After taxiing to a sufficient speed on the runway, it took off into the air.

Loreen was very excited along the way, constantly searching for topics by Charlie Wade's side.

But Charlie Wade's thoughts have always been in Eastcliff, the place that carries his childhood memories.

After the one-hour and forty-minute flight, the plane slowly descended and landed smoothly on the runway of Eastcliff International Airport.

Charlie Wade's heart suddenly beat at this time, and shouted in his heart: "Eastcliff, I'm back!"

Chapter 1499

When the plane landed, Charlie Wade and Loreen got off the plane together.

Because Charlie Wade didn't have any luggage checked, he didn't have to wait to pick up his luggage, and Loreen was a big beauty after all, and she usually took a lot of clothes, cosmetics, and skin care products when she went out.

Especially for things like cosmetics and skin care products, it is easy to exceed the capacity, so you must check in.

After getting off the plane, she couldn't leave directly like Charlie Wade, and she had to wait for the luggage to come out at the luggage collection area.

So she hurriedly asked Charlie Wade: "Charlie Wade, how do you go later?" Charlie Wade said, "I went out and stopped a taxi and left."

Loreen hurriedly said: "Then you might as well wait for me for a while, let's go together? It just happened that my family drove to pick me up, and I can see you off."

Charlie Wade smiled and waved his hand: "No, Loreen, I'm quite anxious over there, let's go."

Loreen said helplessly: "Okay, then let's make an appointment another day. Don't forget that you promised me. Let's have a meal together."

"Okay." Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said: "You wait for your luggage, I'll go first, and I'll make an appointment another day."

After bidding farewell to Loreen, Charlie Wade walked out of Eastcliff Airport alone.

After he went out, he was too late to sigh, and he was ready to go directly to the taxi stop to queue up for a taxi.

Just after he came out, a woman wrapped in a thick down jacket, wearing a down jacket hat, a mask and black sunglasses, ran towards him quickly. Before he could see clearly, the woman leaped at him happily, screaming happily, "Charlie Wade!"

Charlie Wade heard the woman's voice, it was Stefanie, so he put down his guard and let her plunge into his arms.

Holding Stefanie lightly, Charlie Wade couldn't help but ask her: "Didn't I tell you, didn't you use it to pick me up? Why did you come here?"

Stefanie said diligently: "I want to see you soon! I'm afraid I stay at home, and I can't help telling my parents the news of your coming in advance, so I just ran out."

Charlie Wade asked again: "You won't be spotted by the paparazzi when you come out. If you are secretly photographed by the paparazzi and you are a big star hugging a man at the gate of the airport, then your popularity will probably be greatly affected."

"What are you afraid of!" Stefanie said in a very indifferent tone: "If it is really photographed and exposed, then I will say that I am holding my fiancé. If the popularity will decline because of this, then let it go. I didn't rely on the entertainment industry to eat, so it's easy to find you when I come in and play. Now that I find you, I can leave the circle at any time."

"Okay." Charlie Wade helplessly asked her: "Let's go to see the uncle and aunt quickly, did you drive here?"

Stefanie nodded and said, "I just parked the car in the parking lot. Let's go and pick up the car together!"

With that said, Stefanie hugged Charlie Wade's arm and took him to the parking lot.

Stefanie drove a very humble old Volvo car today. After getting in the car, she took off her hat and said embarrassingly: "Charlie Wade, I'm sorry, the car I drove today is a bit shabby. The main reason is that most of the car paparazzi in our family know it, so I just drove this old car out. Don't dislike it."

Charlie Wade smiled and nodded, and said, "You don't know what days I have been living these years. I told you last time that I used to live in an orphanage. After I came out, my wife's grandfather arranged for me to go to the construction site. After a year of college, I have gone through all the hardships, even if you tell me that you need me to walk to your house, I don't care."

Stefanie looked at Charlie Wade and sighed softly, "Charlie Wade, you have suffered for so many years."

Chapter 1500

Charlie Wade shook his head: "It doesn't matter if you endure hardship.

In my opinion, all the hardship you eat is a kind of training for me."

Stefanie nodded earnestly, and while driving out of the parking lot, she said, "My dad was still talking about you yesterday. Didn't the doctor ask him to go back to the hospital for treatment? He knows that his physical condition may be very un-optimistic. So I sigh, the biggest regret is that I couldn't find you."

Charlie Wade was moved and smiled slightly: "Daisy, don't worry, with me, Uncle Orrin will definitely recover his health."

Stefanie didn't know Charlie Wade's abilities, let alone that Charlie Wade had the title of True Dragon Master in the upper class of Aurouss Hill, so she never believed that he could cure her father's terminal illness.

At this time, she just felt that Dad would be very pleased when he saw Charlie Wade. If the mood improves, I believe his body will also change to a certain extent.

Stefanie's home is not far from Eastcliff International Airport.

Eastcliff's airport is in the northeast of the city, and several top super villa districts of Eastcliff are also in the central villa district not far away.

Twenty minutes later, Stefanie drove the car to Eastcliff's Ocean Mansion.

Although there are many Eastcliff villas, most of them are townhouses of tens of millions. There are very few large and luxurious single-family single-family villas in the urban area. Most single-family villas are located in very remote areas in the north. Near the Mountain.

Among the limited single-family villas in the urban area, Ocean Mansion can be said to be one of the top villa areas.

Every villa here has a price of at least one billion Dollar and is luxurious.

However, this place still cannot be compared with the Wade family's mansion.

In Charlie Wade's memory, the Wade family's mansion was not a luxury villa built by this kind of developer, but the palace of a prince in the Quintong Dynasty.

That is the real low-key luxury and grand atmosphere. Charlie Wade remembered that just the dozens of golden snail pillars in the mansion were priceless.

It is said that as early as more than ten years ago, a quote on the market had already exceeded 1 billion.

This is not the most arrogant. The most arrogant one is the Prince Gong's Mansion in Eastcliff, where a pillar of Jinsinan is worth more than two billion.

However, Prince Gong's Mansion is a national cultural monument and is not owned by any individual.

Therefore, it can highlight the dignity of the Wade family mansion.

When Stefanie drove the car home, the courtyard door and garage door opened automatically.

A forty-year-old maid rushed into the garage, and while helping to open the car door, she respectfully said: "Miss, the madam is ready to cook, just wait for you, why didn't you just run away without saying a word." After speaking, she suddenly found a man sitting in the co-pilot. She was surprised, and said politely: "Hello, sir!"

Charlie Wade nodded slightly, and Stefanie on the side could not restrain his excitement, and asked the servant: "Aunt Dina, are my parents in the restaurant?"

Aunt Dina nodded slightly and said, "Miss, sir does not seem to be feeling well. I keep saying that I want to go back to my room to rest. Go ahead."

When Stefanie heard this, she hurriedly took Charlie Wade's hand and ran into the villa.

Passing through the huge and luxurious hall, Stefanie directly took Charlie Wade to the restaurant. As soon as he entered the restaurant, he excitedly said to a middle-aged couple at the table: "Dad, Mom, do you see who I brought!"

Chapter 1501

A man and a woman at the table, no matter their looks, temperament, and clothes at home, they all looked very luxurious and decent.

The man in it looked a little haggard, and his face and lips had lost his normal blood color. At first sight, he was chronically ill, or even dying.

But the woman next to him was very well maintained and very beautiful. Her appearance was seven points similar to Stefanie, and she seemed to be in her 30s.

Charlie Wade recognized the two at a glance, they were Uncle Orrin, whom he had known since childhood, and his wife, Angie.

Just when Charlie Wade recognized the two of them, the two also recognized him!

Orrin Sun's whole expression was extremely shocked. His face was already very thin. At this time, his eyes widened, trembling and trying to say something, but he seemed to be in his throat.

Angie who was on the side, was also dumbfounded. She stood up, pointing at Charlie Wade with one finger and covering her mouth with one hand:

"You...you...you are... ..You are Wade...Are you Charlie Wade???"

Charlie Wade's nose was sour, and he sighed softly, and said with a trembling voice: "Angie, I am Charlie Wade..."

After speaking, he looked at Orrin Sun who was trembling and unable to speak, and said in a trembling voice: "Uncle Orrin...Hello! And Angie, how are you!"

Orrin Sun looked at him and muttered, "Are you really Charlie Wade Wade?"

Charlie Wade nodded seriously and said, "Uncle Orrin, it's me, I'm Charlie Wade, do you still know me?"

"Recognize...recognize..." Orrin Sun wiped away tears and said: "You are the same as your father when you were young, and you are similar to the photos of your grandfather when you were young... .."

With that, he stood up laboriously, and then walked towards Charlie Wade. Charlie Wade hurried forward, came to Orrin a few steps to support him, and said with gratitude and guilt: "Uncle Orrin, for so many years, you and Aunt Angie have been worried..."

Orrin wiped out a cloud of old tears and choked up: "Charlie Wade, where have you been for so many years? In these years, Uncle Orrin has almost traveled all over the world to find you, and there has been no whereabouts of you... .."

Charlie Wade couldn't help but sighed: "Uncle Orrin, in fact, I have been in Aurouss Hillll these years, and I have been growing up in the orphanage until I was eighteen."

"How come?!" Orrin Sun blurted out: "I went to Aurouss Hillll to find you several times. I always go to the welfare home, orphanage, and rescue station, but I never found your whereabouts..."

Charlie Wade said, "Uncle Orrin, Stephen Thompson, the housekeeper of the Wade family back then, sent someone to take over the orphanage secretly. He was afraid that someone would harm me, so he hid all my information. I don't know. I only realized that something was wrong after I met your daughter a few days ago, so I went to Stephen Thompson and asked about it. Then he told me the hidden information..."

Orrin Sun was stunned for a while, and then he nodded and said: "That's how it is, that's how it is! It seems that Stephen Thompson is indeed a person who knows his gratitude, and your father treated him like a mountain back then. Wrong person!"

Chapter 1502

As he said, he couldn't help but choked up: "These years, I have not been able to find any of your whereabouts. I once thought that you are no longer alive..."

At this point, Orrin Sun pursed his lips, but tears have already burst. He endured it for a long time, until tears completely blurred his vision, and finally burst into tears: "Charlie Wade Wade, you are alive in the sky, look at your son, your son is back, he is back, and I finally have a face. See you..."

Orrin was agitated and cried a few times before coughing violently. Angie on the side was busy wiping the tears from her eyes. While carefully slapping her husband on the back, she choked and said: "Old Orrin, Charlie Wade is back here. Happy event, don't cry, your health is not good now, and you can't stand the emotional ups and downs."

After Orrin calmed down a little bit, he nodded with tears, took Charlie Wade's hand, and said seriously: "Charlie Wade, sit down and tell uncle how you came here these years."

After he finished speaking, he realized something, and hurriedly looked at his daughter Stefanie, and blurted out: "Daisy, how did you and your Charlie Wade meet?!"

Stefanie red eyes and choked up and said, "Dad, I'm sorry. I have kept this from you and mom. In fact, when I went to Aurouss Hillll to pick up an advertising endorsement, I saw Charlie Wade. To tell you, I just want to give you both a surprise after Charlie Wade comes home."

Orrin nodded repeatedly, and said with emotion: "Surprise! This is indeed a surprise! It is a great surprise!"

As he said, he grabbed Charlie Wade's hand with both hands and said seriously: "Charlie Wade, no matter what you have experienced over the years, it's good to be able to come back. Don't go back to Aurouss Hillll again this time. The marriage contract between you and Daisy was Your Aunt Angie and I made a decision with your father and your mother. No matter what you have experienced in the past, your Daisy is your fiancée. Now that you come back, my body is deteriorating. You two will take advantage of my old bones. The wedding is held before it gets to the ground!"

When Charlie Wade heard this, his expression suddenly became very embarrassed and guilty.

Seeing this, Angie hurriedly blurted out: "Charlie Wade, you must not have any psychological pressure. After you and your daughter are married, this home is your home. Whether you return to Wade's house or not, you won't be Wade's home. Forget it, you are my son-in-law!"

Angie's words are relatively subtle, but Charlie Wade understands the meaning very well. She is saying that no matter whether you have money or not, you don't need to care about Sun's family. It is your own home. Hearing this, Charlie Wade couldn't help comparing Angie with his mother-in-law Elaine Ma. This comparison was simply the difference between Moon and Firefly.

Stefanie said embarrassingly on the side: "Dad, Mom, Charlie Wade... he is now... already married..."

"Huh?" When the couple heard this, they were both dumbfounded!

Charlie Wade was also very embarrassed and said seriously: "I'm sorry Uncle Orrin and Aunt Angie, this matter is my fault, sorry you two and my parents' agreement back then..."

Orrin sighed, patted Charlie Wade on the shoulder, and said earnestly:

"Charlie Wade, although uncle doesn't know what you have gone through these years, when uncle can guess that you must have had a hard time these years, you were 8 years old. I have been wandering outside since 1999. Many things are definitely involuntary. Let's not talk about this matter. You can tell your uncle in detail how you came here these years."

"Yes." Angie also nodded and said: "The marriage contract can be discussed in the long term. Let's eat first and talk while eating!"

Chapter 1503

Orrin Sun pulled Charlie Wade and sat down on the seat beside him.

As soon as he took his seat, he immediately greeted Charlie Wade enthusiastically: "Charlie Wade, let's eat first. You see if the food at home is suitable for your appetite. If it doesn't suit your appetite, I will let them cook it again."

Charlie Wade said hurriedly, "Uncle Orrin, you don't have to be so polite."

Orrin Sun nodded and asked about Charlie Wade's life experience over the years.

Charlie Wade didn't hide much from Orrin Sun's family. Except for the secrets like "Apocalyptic Book" that no one could tell, he basically told them about other things.

Including his life before the age of eighteen, and his social experience after the age of eighteen, as well as his acquaintance with Mr. Wilson, his marriage to Claire Wilson Wilson, and his life after marriage.

The more Orrin and Angie listened, the more distressed they were. In their eyes, Charlie Wade is after all the descendants of the Wade family, a direct descendant of the Wade family, and his father back then was the brightest new star of the Wade family. It stands to reason that Charlie Wade should have lived the life of a man of fine clothes and food since he was a child, but he did not expect that he had experienced so much outside since he was a child, and ordinary people experienced constant hardships.

After listening, Orrin kept sighing and sighing, and then he asked Charlie Wade: "Charlie Wade, what are you going to do now? Are you planning to go back to Wade's house to recognize your grandfather and the others?"

Charlie Wade shook his head: "It's true, Uncle Orrin, I have no plans yet, and I have always suspected that the death of my parents is inseparable from the Wade family. Before I go I have find out if the Wade family is suspect in my parents' murder, so I'm not going to go back and recognize them."

Orrin Sun said earnestly: "Charlie Wade, you can listen to Uncle Orrin's advice and don't go back and recognize the Wade family, but don't turn against the Wade family."

Charlie Wade said seriously: "Will you turn your heads into enemies? It's not that I have the final say, but the facts have the final say. If they really murdered my parents, how can I not avenge my parents?"

Orrin Sun sighed and slowly said, "What happened back then...To be honest, I haven't found a definite clue yet. Whether your parents were harmed by people in the industry, there is no evidence yet. "

Charlie Wade said: "At least, my parents were forced to leave Eastcliff because of the exclusion of the Wade family. If it were not for them, my parents would not have died in Aurouss Hilll."

Orrin nodded slightly: "The causality of the matter is indeed the case. The Wade family should indeed be responsible for the death of your parents."

After speaking, Orrin Sun said with comfort: "Charlie Wade, you said that the Wade family instructed Stephen Thompson to give you a group with a market value of 100 billion Dollar, and gave you tens of billions of cash. In my opinion, this should be the Wade family's compensation to you. , Or compensation to your parents. Although these assets and cash are not too much to the Wade family, they are considered sincere. If you don't want to return to Wade's family, these assets will be enough for you to live your life. I have been suffering for so many years, so I should enjoy life and stop struggling with the past..."

Charlie Wade knew that Orrin was doing it for his own good, but he still shook his head gently. He said very seriously: "Uncle Orrin, although I have a relatively short relationship with my parents, I have only lived with them for eight years, but in my body What is flowing is the blood of the two of them. If I cannot avenge them in this life, how can I be worthy of the blood and life they gave me?"

Angie didn't speak, and when she heard this, she couldn't help but sigh with red eyes: "Charlie Wade's personality and temperament are almost exactly the same as those of Brother Wade back then. If Brother Wade got into the sand in his eyes, he wouldn't be resolute. Resolutely and resolutely took his wife and children to leave Eastcliff. You could not persuade Brother Wade back then, and now you may not be able to persuade Charlie Wade."

Orrin nodded sullenly, sighed, looked at Charlie Wade, then at his daughter Stefanie, and said seriously: "Charlie Wade, other things can be slowed down first. If you really want to be an enemy of the Wade family in the future, let Wade The family pays the price, and at least they have to be strong enough."

As Orrin said, he paused slightly and said with a serious face: "From my point of view, your top priority is to leave Aurouss Hilll and return to Eastcliff, and get married with your fiance first. At that time, even if you have not officially returned to the Wade family, You are also the son of my Sun family. If I do not die by chance, I will be able to make some arrangements for you so that you can lay a foundation in Sun family, so that the resources and connections of Sun family can be used by you." When Angie heard this, she nodded without hesitation and said, "Yes, Charlie Wade, although you are already married now, your marriage contract with our daughter is more than 20 years earlier than your current marriage, so you The girl from the Wilson family, in a sense, can be regarded as getting involved in your original engagement." Speaking of this, Angie was busy expressing her position: "Of course, the aunt is not accusing her. After all, she is not responsible for this matter. The aunt just wants to say that according to your parents' arrangements back then, you should marry our daughter. As for Wilson Wilson Family? Girl, my family will not lose her by then. After the divorce, my aunt will prepare her a billion in cash compensation, so you will never make it difficult for you."

Charlie Wade was a little embarrassed at once.

Before he came to Sun's family, what worried him most was that Stefanie's parents talked about the marriage contract with him.

After all, so many years have passed since the childhood marriage contract. For so many years, I and Stefanie have not met each other, and there is no relationship basis.

If you are still single now, considering your parents' arrangements before death, you can cultivate and cultivate relationships with Stefanie. If you get along, you might as well follow your parents' orders to get married.

But now that I am already married, how can I abandon Claire Wilson Wilson and be with Stefanie in this situation?

Seeing Charlie Wade's silence, Angie sighed and said seriously: "Charlie Wade, your uncle's current physical condition, you must have heard about it from your daughter, before that, we have been with your uncle. After treatment abroad for a long time, the domestic doctors discovered that your uncle's condition has deteriorated in the past two days, and are persuading you to continue the hospital treatment, but the situation is not optimistic, maybe one day..."

Speaking of this, Angie was feeling a little sad for a while, choked up a few times, wiped her tears, and then continued: "The marriage contract between you and your daughter was made by the four parents of ours. Now of the four parents two have gone. So, your uncle's body may not last too long. Your parents left early and didn't see your two children get married. Auntie hopes from the bottom of my heart that your uncle will not have the same regret... ."

Stefanie's eyes were already red, and she sat motionless, tears streaming incessantly.

At this moment, she is still the female star that people all over the country and people all over the world love crazily. Now she is a poor and helpless little girl. Charlie Wade can't help but feel pity when he sees it... .

Chapter 1505

At this time, Orrin coughed a few times with some discomfort. After he recovered, he said seriously: "Charlie Wade, in the past ten years, you have lived in Aurouss Hilll. Now your dragon should also be back. !" As he said, he sighed from the bottom of his heart: "Although the Sun family can't let you soar into the sky, but with the support of the Sun family, if you return to the Wade family in the future, you will have a certain degree of confidence. If you want to compete for the Wade family's property, there will be the Sun family behind you. , The chance of success will be much greater!"

Charlie Wade felt ashamed after hearing this.

He did not expect that even if he left the Wade family, even if he was married, Orrin Sun and Angie still hoped to fulfill their marriage contract that year and marry Stefanie, whom hundreds of millions of people have watched.

The more so, the stronger his regret for Stefanie and the entire Sun family.

At this time, Orrin said: "Charlie Wade, I was not going to go to the hospital for treatment anymore. I have seen all the big winds and waves in my life, so I am not afraid of death. I hope I can walk with more dignity, but Today, after seeing you again after so many years, I suddenly have a desire to survive. My best hope now is to see you and your daughter marry with your own eyes. If I can live until you two have a child, it will be a good life that I can say I died without regret." Stefanie on the side burst into tears, choked up: "Dad, don't say that..." Orrin smiled slightly and said seriously: "You know your dad, and you are never hypocritical or sensational. The words I just said are from the heart."

After finishing speaking, he looked at Angie and said seriously: "Wife, make a phone call with Dean Han of Fairview, and said I want to open, want active treatment, can live one more day, live until my daughter is married, and live to hold her. The grandson and granddaughter, no matter how many crimes they suffer, it is worth it."

Angie immediately nodded excitedly.

In fact, she has been persuading Orrin to actively cooperate with the treatment, even if there is a glimmer of hope, don't give up.

But Orrin himself had given up, because he didn't want to suffer all kinds of inhuman torture in order to live an extra year and a half.

Advanced cancer is extremely painful. It not only has to endure the rapid decline of the body, but also the physical and mental pain caused by radiotherapy and chemotherapy.

With each chemotherapy, the side effects of the drugs made him vomit to death, and with each radiotherapy, the skin, bones, and internal organs would be painful for a long time.

Over time, he was a tough man who was tortured into a skinny, terminally ill patient.

Therefore, he prefers to spend more time with his wife and daughter, suffer less inhuman torture, and leave a good last time for himself.

But now, his thoughts suddenly changed 180 degrees because of the appearance of Charlie Wade.

He wants to live. He wanted to watch his daughter get married with his own eyes.

He wanted to personally hand over his daughter, who has raised him for more than 20 years, to Charlie Wade on the wedding line to fulfill his promise to his brother and friend more than 20 years ago.

He even wanted to be outside the delivery room, waiting for the daughter in the delivery room to give birth to a child safely and let himself see the continuation of the family's blood.

Therefore, he now feels that if these wishes can be fulfilled, even if he has to endure the harshest and most painful torture in the world, he will not hesitate to survive!

At this time, Angie hurriedly took out her mobile phone to make a call. Charlie Wade hurriedly said at this moment: "Aunt Angie, I came this time, in fact, it was mainly for Uncle Orrin's illness. I have a way to make Uncle Orrin's illness completely heal."

"what?!"

Chapter 1506

Both Angie and Orrin were shocked.

Let Orrin's condition completely heal?

This... how is it possible?

Their family has been running around for this disease for a long time, finding the best experts in the world, using the best special medicines, medical devices and treatment methods in the world.

However, none of them could stop the rapid dying of Orrin's life.

Apple's founder, Steve Jobs, is also a billionaire and also suffering from pancreatic cancer. He also received the best treatment in the United States, but the result was very regrettable.

The world's top experts don't think that Orrin's illness is likely to be cured, and most of them believe that his life may be less than one year, or even less than six months.

Charlie Wade suddenly said that he could be cured, which sounded like a fantasy to the two.

Angie sighed and said seriously: "Charlie Wade, I know you must also care about your uncle Orrin, but his condition... is indeed very unoptimistic..."

Orrin nodded and said: "Hey...Charlie Wade, my disease, I can't know it better. Pancreatic cancer is the most fierce cancer, and I am now in the advanced stage. It has spread throughout the body. It is too late. Use our China As the saying goes, even for god is also hard to save."

Charlie Wade wanted to say something in his heart, he wanted to tell Orrin that even if god can't save you, I can save you!

However, people who don't know the truth about this will definitely feel that they are extremely arrogant.

So Charlie Wade said seriously: "Uncle Orrin, I occasionally got a good medicine some time ago, which has a very good effect on curing various diseases. I will take it with me this time. You might as well try it." Orrin naturally didn't believe it.

He himself is a standard atheist and a firm materialist. He firmly believes in science and half disbelief in metaphysics. In addition, he has become a doctor for a long time. The relevant materials and literature have been thoroughly studied and he is also He was 100% sure that he was hopeless, so when he heard Charlie Wade's words, he just shook his head helplessly and said: "Charlie Wade, you have this heart, uncle is very grateful, but the sinister degree of this disease, May be far beyond your understanding..."

Angie on the side also nodded and said, "Yes, Charlie Wade, your uncle Orrin's disease can be said to be the most difficult, dangerous, and cruel in the world..."

Charlie Wade knew they definitely didn't believe it, so he planned to take out the Rejuvenation Pill and let Orrin give it a try.

But at this moment, the servant suddenly ran over and said nervously, "Mr. Sun, Mrs. Sun, the two families of Second Master and Third Master are here..."

Angie frowned immediately and asked coldly: "What are they here for?"

The servant hurriedly said, "They said they were looking for you and your husband to discuss something important."

Angie blurted out: "Let them go! We have nothing to say with them!"

As soon as I finished saying this, I heard an angry voice sneer and said:

"Oh, sister-in-law, they are all in the family, there is no need to say such ugly things, right? The old man will be gone in a few years, so you won't let me and the youngest come in. If this old man knows Quaxia, I am afraid that you will be annoyed to come to life!"

Charlie Wade looked up and saw eight or nine people rushing in aggressively.

Angie's expression was immediately ugly, and she asked, "Hank Sun! This is my home! Without my permission, who let you break in without permission?"

Chapter 1507

Following Angie's anger, the man headed by the other party said with a disdainful expression: "Sister-in-law, this is my elder brother's home. Do I need to say hello to you when I come here as a younger brother?"

Angie said with an ugly expression: "Hank, then your eldest brother is a husband and wife, and half of this house belongs to me. If you break in without my permission, this is called rushing into the house!"

Hank curled his lips, looked up and down at Angie, and said with contempt: "Oh, sister-in-law, do you know that you and my elder brother are husband and wife? But have you fulfilled the obligations of a wife?"

Orrin stood up with difficulty, and reprimanded: "Yes, how do you talk to your sister-in-law? Your sister-in-law is like a mother, don't you understand this?"

"Elder sister-in-law is like a mother?" Hank sneered: "Big brother, don't forget, she is an outsider in Sun's family after all, and as the daughter-in-law of Sun's parents and sons, she failed to give birth to Sun's eldest grandson. When our parents passed away, there was no eldest grandson. She was the sinner of our Sun family!"

When Angie heard this, her face immediately became very ugly and a little bit aggrieved.

Orrin was trembling all over with loyalty, grabbed a bone china bowl, and slammed it to the ground. The porcelain bowl shattered under Hank's feet! Immediately afterwards, he blurted out: "Hank! You don't want to make a fuss about this! Your sister-in-law almost died because of a dystocia when she gave birth to Daisy. Since then, I vowed never to let your sister-in-law give birth again. For the second child, parents also respected this very much when they were alive, and even their two elders didn't have any opinion. What qualifications do you have to speak out here!?"

Hank said contemptuously: "Big Brother, my parents said they respect you, but I don't know how sad this incident is in my heart! It's just that I am embarrassed to express it in your face!"

After a pause, Hank said again: "Furthermore, to be honest, I even suspect that our parents died prematurely, which has a lot to do with the accumulation of depression and illness in our hearts! After all, it's your couple. Killed them!"

Stefanie felt that she was a junior at first, so she resisted her anger and did not interrupt, but at this time, seeing her second uncle speak so excessively, she immediately shouted: "Second uncle! Don't speak too much! This is my family! It is not your turn to come and Shout out here!" Hank hadn't spoken yet, and a man who was a few years younger than him said in a weird manner: "Oh, what's the matter, my dear niece, you are a great star now? Can you ignore your second uncle? Are you here? Don't forget, even if you are a big star, you are just an actor!" The speaker is Orrin Sun's third brother and Stefanie's third uncle, Carl.

The three Sun family brothers are loyal, righteous, and strong. This is also placed on the expectations of the Sun family's three sons, so that they can be loyal, upright, and strong.

It's just that the second child and the third child, compared to their names, are indeed a bit uncoordinated.

At this time, beside Carl, there was a young man in his early twenties who added fuel and jealousy: "Yes, cousin, our Sun family's ancestral motto is clearly written in the Sun family's ancestral motto. The descendants of the Sun family must never engage in an inferior career!" "Moreover, this actor, in the early years, it was a non-streaming industry that could not even enter the lower ninth stream. After returning, the status rose a little bit, and then he barely never entered the stream. It was ranked in the lower ninth stream. If you are an actor now, then you are lost. Is the face of our Sun family ancestor?"

Stefanie bit her white teeth and said angrily: "Carl, you only know how to spend time and drink, eat and drink blood, why are you here to point fingers at me? I tell you, there is no place for you to speak!"

Chapter 1508

Carl curled his lips and said: "Oh, cousin, you are so temperamental. In Sun's family, we are the same generation, so what if you are my sister? You are just a woman who will marry sooner or later, waiting for you to get married. ,You are no longer a member of the Sun family, you will be an outsider then, understand?"

Charlie Wade on the side wanted to speak at this time, but still held back.

After all, this is Sun's family affair, and as an outsider, I really can't find a suitable entry point.

If he intervenes at this time, he is also a stranger.

Moreover, it is still unclear what the meaning of Sun's second and third child came over, so he decided to observe again.

At this moment, Orrin Sun shouted angrily: "Enough! Don't talk nonsense!" After speaking, when everyone calmed down, he looked at Hank and Carl, and asked in a cold voice: "Second, third, you two shouldn't be circumspect and concealed here. What do you want to do? What? Just say it upright and openly, chirping like a maiden, and losing the face of our Sun family man!"

Hank touched his chin and smiled suddenly, a bit insidious, but pretending to be concerned: "Big brother, I heard that your health has deteriorated again? Did the hospital let you go to receive treatment, but you refused? "

Orrin Sun said coldly: "I'm sorry, I just wanted to start and decided to actively receive treatment. My daughter hasn't married yet, so I can't just die cowardly!"

Orrin was waiting for the crowd, his expression suddenly changed when he heard this.

Carl next to him couldn't help complaining: "Brother, haven't you already decided to give up treatment? Why do you regret it at this time? Even with active treatment, your condition may not be able to live longer for ten and a half month, for these ten and a half months. After going to the hospital, you were tortured, tortured, and experimented. Why did you say that you have come here?"

Orrin Sun's expression was extremely cold, and he gritted his teeth and said: "You guys, what are you trying to say? If you don't get to the point, don't blame me for driving you out!"

Hank smiled and said, "Big brother, the old man is eccentric. When he died, the Sun family's assets were divided by 50% for you and 25% for me and the youngest talent. What do you say you want so much for? Your family doesn't have a son either. When my daughter gets married, it's the water thrown out. This property can't be cheaper for outsiders?"

Speaking of this, Hank looked at Angie again and said with a smile:

"What's more, my sister-in-law is not too old and so beautiful. In the future, if your eldest brother is gone, how could she stay alone for the rest of her life? She must remarry. ! At that time, you will have to take away part of Sun's assets. You can bear to care about half of the assets of the family. In the end, they will fall into the hands of outsiders with your wife and daughter?"

When Angie heard this, she was not only angry but also humiliated, tears burst into her eyes immediately.

Stefanie also exploded in anger, clenched her fists and looked resentful. Needless to say, Orrin Sun's entire popularity trembled, his original bloodless face became paler, his whole person was shaky, and he might die almost at any time.

Charlie Wade couldn't stand it anymore. While reaching out to hold Orrin's swaying body, he shouted with an extremely gloomy expression:

"You bastards, it's a bit too deceitful!"

Chapter 1509

When Hank, Carl and others saw Charlie Wade when they came in, they didn't pay attention to him.

They came over today, and all their goals were focused on the three members of the Sun family, and they treated Charlie Wade and the other servants as nothing.

However, they did not expect that this young man would dare to challenge them here, and even said that they were assholes, suddenly became angry! The Sun family in Eastcliff is second only to the Banks Family and the Wade family in strength, and the total assets are also above the trillion level. Even if Hank and Carl each have only 25% of the Sun family's assets, but if each person puts it out separately, Are also the top rich, crushing those familiar people on the rich list now is nothing to say.

So, how can they accept that an unknown junior yells at them here?

Therefore, Hank was immediately furious and pointed at Charlie Wade and shouted coldly: "Boy, do you know who I am? Talking to me like Hank, do you want a long life?"

Charlie Wade sneered and said: "Of course I know who you are, asshole, you are asshole number one, the guy next to you is asshole number two, and the little a who just clamored, must be asshole number three, the rest If anyone wants to sort, speak early, lest they miss the top numbers!"

Hank and Carl are both heirs of the Sun family, and they have also received high-end education since they were young. Both are typical beasts in dress, trained under elite education.

In other words, such people seem to be very educated, rarely interact with others and do not speak dirty words. In fact, their bones have long been broken.

Take Hank as an example. Someone used to toast him at the dinner table. The height of the other party's wine glass was slightly higher than his wine glass. He was smiling at the time as if he didn't care, but he immediately asked the bodyguard to directly after the meal. Forced to stop the opponent's car, pulled the opponent out of the car, and broke his hands.

This is just a small matter. In fact, Hank closed his upper and lower lips, and he didn't know how many people were ruined or even destroyed. At this moment, Charlie Wade was so disrespectful to them, making him almost furious!

However, he was also a little confused about Charlie Wade's origin, so he was a little bit puzzled. This person was a guest at Orrin Sun's family. He naturally knew the strength of Sun's family, but he dared to talk to himself like this. Is it possible that he didn't know what he didn't know. The background?

The same goes for Carl. If the other party knows his identity and dared to speak wildly here, he must have two brushes.

However, Carl, who was young, did not have this self-knowledge.

He scolded angrily: "Damn, who is your kid? Do you know who you are talking to? We are from the Sun family! Do you f*cking want to die?"

Charlie Wade glanced at him, and said coldly: "You just barked at Daisy, right? Well, since you like to bite like a dog so much, it's better to kneel on the ground and learn two dog barkings. Satisfied, I can still let you go!"

"fck!" Carl was immediately furious: "You fcking seek death! Do you know who I am? I am the second son of the Sun family! You dare to be disrespectful to me, I will kill you every minute!"

Chapter 1510

At this time, a young man who was slightly older than Carl and had a calmer temper said: "This brother, today's affairs are our Sun family's housework. Please don't interfere."

The one speaking is Hank's son, Trevor, and the oldest male in the Sun family's grandson.

Stefanie is a girl, so she is considered the eldest grandchild of the Sun family.

Charlie Wade looked at Trevor and said indifferently: "Whenever something happens, just talk about it. Don't rely on the number of people here, just thinking about bullying fewer people. Here barking and clamoring shamelessly, the Sun family can be regarded as a family of Eastcliff. , Don't just show up as a lack of education!"

"You..." As soon as Carl heard this, he gritted his teeth and wanted to come forward.

Trevor stopped him, then gave Charlie Wade a cold look, and then said to Hank beside him: "Dad, let's stop talking nonsense and get to the point."

Hank looked at Charlie Wade coldly, and made up his mind that no matter who this kid is, after his business is resolved today, he must pay the price of blood to let him know that Sun family, it's not that he can speak freely. Insulting!

Therefore, he temporarily suppressed the resentment in his heart, looked at his eldest brother Orrin, and said, "Big brother, I am here as a child of the Sun family this time to defend and safeguard the rights and interests of the Sun family! 50% of the assets of our Sun family are in You are in your name, but you are running out of time now. After you leave, I will be the head of Sun's family. Naturally, I can't sit back and watch 50% of Sun's assets flow into outsiders' names. Therefore, I hope you will start with Sun's interests. Make a will and allocate at least 80% of your assets to me and the third child."

After saying this, he saw Orrin Sun's face very ugly, and he said:

"Brother, I am also for the Sun family, otherwise, once you die, and once your sister-in-law and daughter-in-law get your inheritance, your inheritance will not have a surname. Sun, the strength of the Sun family will instantly be squeezed out of Eastcliff's third place, and even the top five may not be guaranteed. You have the heart to look after the Sun family's hundred-year family business, and you will be cut after you die?"

Orrin said coldly: "Second, let your mouth be full of peach blossoms, but in the final analysis, don't you still want my possessions? I tell you, I have already made a will. In my will, mine The inheritance is divided into two, your sister-in-law inherits half, and my daughter inherits the other half. According to the law, since I have formulated the method of inheritance distribution, you have no right to intervene."

Hank's expression became colder, and he asked: "Are you just caring for your little family and not caring about us as everyone?"

Orrin Sun asked, "So what? My family property has nothing to do with you!"

Carl, the third child on the side, scolded angrily: "Big Brother! Have your cancer cells spread to your brain? How come you, a wise person, don't even have a brain right now?"

When Angie heard this, she yelled angrily: "Carl! You are too much!"

Carl coldly snorted, "Sister-in-law, this is too much? I tell you the too much is still behind."

After finishing speaking, he turned to look at Orrin and said coldly:

"Brother, let's take a step back and say, even if you are stubborn and unrepentant, let your wife and daughter inherit the family property, you think they are both Can a female classmate be able to hold on to so many assets? We came to you today to solve this problem calmly. You take out 80% of your family property, and the remaining 20% is enough for your wife and children to be prosperous and wealthy. Live a lifetime, but if you are too greedy, then I can't guarantee that your wife and children will live a stable life after you leave!"

Orrin was extremely angry, and shouted: "Carl, you beast! Are you threatening me?"

Chapter 1511

Hank on the side hurriedly smiled and said to Carl: "Oh, third, how do you talk to Big Brother? Big Brother's body may be gone at any time. If you are angry with him now and he has no time to change his will, then we Are you really going to draw swords with your sister-in-law and your niece? In that case, how can I bear it in my heart!"

Carl chuckled, "Second brother, you are right, I was too much. I apologize to Big Brother!"

After finishing speaking, he looked at Orrin Sun and said with a chuckle, "Big Brother, I'm sorry, I just said a little bit more seriously, don't take it to your heart."

Orrin was smiling and saying: "But eldest brother, although the third child speaks too much, but he is telling the truth. Think about it, who wants to let it flow into the hands of outsiders? If you cooperate with us, and your sister-in-law and Daisy are behind you, you can still get 20%..."

At this point, Hank's expression suddenly became very ugly, and his tone and voice became gloomy. He gritted his teeth and said: "But if you don't cooperate, brother, I may be anxious, and I will treat your family if I can't wait for you to enter the soil. The three are doing something. If your family of three is gone, all the assets in your name belong to me and your third brother. Do you understand this truth?"

Orrin Sun coughed violently, and then he spouted a mouthful of blood. The whole person was extremely angry and messed up the weak essence in the body.

Seeing this, Stefanie and Angie hurriedly stepped forward to support him and gently patted his back.

Charlie Wade couldn't bear it at this time. Looking at Hank, he asked in a cold voice: "What do you mean, if Uncle Orrin doesn't agree, you will start with their family of three?"

Hank was too lazy to continue to pretend, and said arrogantly and viciously: "Boy, no matter who you are, there is no place for you to speak here. I have business to do today, so I spare you my life, but I just spare you. One day, at this time tomorrow, if you are still alive, Hank will be a fool for so many years!"

After finishing speaking, he immediately looked at Orrin and said coldly: "Brother, since it's up to this point, then I will not hide it. I come today and must get 80% of the assets. Otherwise, don't blame me. Disregarding brotherhood with the youngest!"

Carl also echoed: "Big Brother, you are already a dying person, what are you doing so hard? You may die soon, but your wife and children can live for many years. There is no need to let them die."

When these words came out, Charlie Wade was immediately furious!

The blood all over his body also boiled instantly!

He suddenly lifted his foot at a very fast speed, and kicked Carl's abdomen fiercely!

Carl, Hank, and the bodyguards brought by the two of them had not yet figured out what was going on, Carl had already flown out directly! He flew out of the dining room and fell directly onto the floor of the living room. He only heard him wailing in mid-air. After landing, he immediately lost consciousness!

Carl saw his father being kicked into the air and passed out. He rushed forward, picked him up, and asked nervously, "Dad, dad, are you okay, dad?!"

Hank was extremely angry. He pointed at Charlie Wade and cursed: "Boy, you are so bold, you are not afraid..."

Before he finished speaking, Charlie Wade suddenly stretched out his hand and grabbed Hank's hand pointing at him, with a sudden force of his wrist!

With a click, Hank's right hand broke directly from his wrist!

"what!!!"

Orrin was holding his drooping hand and shouted angrily to the two burly men behind him: "Damn, kill him for me! Kill him now!"

Hank's son Trevor also said furiously: "Boy, do you dare to hurt my dad! You are done! My dad's bodyguard is known as the God of War and the Lord of War, and you must die today!"

"God of war? Realm master?" Charlie Wade looked at the two big guys walking towards him, and said coldly: "Since the reputation is so powerful, then I will let them both kneel down and call me Dad today!" Seeing this, Orrin was shocked and blurted, "Charlie Wade, be careful! Both of them are good hands with countless blood on their hands. You are not their opponent!"

Chapter 1512

After speaking, he gritted his teeth and said to Hank: "Second! Let them stop and don't hurt Charlie Wade, I promise your terms!"

In Orrin's view, Charlie Wade is not only his favorite son-in-law in the future, but also the only bloodline of his brother who has passed away many years. In any case, he can't sit back and watch Charlie Wade die because of himself!

In that case, he would have no face to face Charlie Wade's parents. Hank clutched his wrists, gritted his teeth and cursed: "Compromise now? It's too late! This kid dares to hurt me, I'm sure to let him be broken into pieces!"

After that, he said to the two men: "Kill him! Immediately! Immediately!"

Hank's two bodyguards also looked grim at this time.

One of them is known as the God of War, and the other is known as the realm master!

They are all famous characters in the arena, and now being so insulted by a little kung fu boy, naturally it is indignant, just thinking of killing him to defend his dignity.

Just when the two rushed to Charlie Wade, Stefanie, Orrin, and Angie were all nervous and their hearts beating like drums. They were all afraid that Charlie Wade would have a slight accident. Especially for the couple, they had just met Charlie Wade again, and didn't dare to put Charlie Wade in danger.

But just between the electric flints, Charlie Wade did not retreat. Instead, he greeted the god of war and the realm master. He transferred his reiki to both hands, with one arm, and it was like catching a chicken in an instant, one in each hand. , Grabbing the two people's necks, and lifting them up!

At this moment, everyone was stunned in shock!

what happened?

What the hell is going on?

This is Eastcliff's famous God of War and Realm Lord!

The strength of these two people, in the circle of bodyguards of the rich in Eastcliff, can almost go sideways.

Except for the top metaphysical masters supported by the Banks Family and the Wade Family in the legend, the others are not their opponents at all.

However, a young man like Charlie Wade directly defuses the two men's offense, and directly grabs the two men's necks and makes the two feet leave the ground immediately!

At this time, Charlie Wade's hands were like hydraulic pliers with dozens of tons of pressure, and they stuck their necks firmly.

The two were shocked instantly!

Desperately kicking his legs and waving his arms, he wanted to interrupt Charlie Wade's arms and escape to life.

However, only then did he realize that his body seemed to be choked by all power! The arms flicked up, like two long inflated balloons, they couldn't use half of their power at all!

Naturally, the same is true for his legs, and he can only hang in the air, unable to kick even if he wants to.

The expressions of the two of them were terrified, and their complexions quickly turned black and purple because of their suffocation.

The Sun family were also scared silly.

What the f*ck is this monster? ! One person, two hands, made a God of War and a realm master like this bird? !

Chapter 1513

At this moment, everyone present was stunned!

Not only Hank and Carl who came to provoke, but even Orrin's family of three were shocked and speechless.

This God of War and a realm master were both very famous figures in Eastcliff. The two had killed countless people and had never suffered any defeats. Anyone who mentioned them would be disgraced.

However, the two of them couldn't even handle a single move in front of Charlie Wade.

At least there must be back and forth in normal battles.

As the saying goes, you punch me and kick me, see what you do, and look for flaws. This is what a master can do.

But Charlie Wade suddenly rushed up, and the two hands pinched the two top masters into this bird shape, which made people wonder, how strong is his strength? !

Charlie Wade ignored the shock of these people. He looked at these two people contemptuously, and said coldly: "Don't say I didn't give you a chance to survive, kneel down and call Dad. If the call is nice and kind, I I'll spare your lives, will you?"

The two of them stared at Charlie Wade with a look of resentment.

Although they could not speak, their expressions were full of resentment and dissatisfaction.

Charlie Wade nodded, and said with a smile: "A God of War, a realm master, there really is something, he is not very capable, and his temper is not small. Okay, if that's the case, then reincarnate in the next life and be a good person!"

After speaking, they increased his strength a bit, making the two immediately feel the fear of death.

Although these two murdered countless people, in the final analysis, they were also greedy for prosperity and wealth. Otherwise, they would not sell their lives to Hank. Therefore, when the death approached, both of them were in agreement, and they began to feel extreme panic and panic. Scared.

They are not reconciled to die like this, after all, there are so many riches and glory in the world that they have not enjoyed, or have not enjoyed enough.

They have been working hard at the border for so many years, and they have gone all the way to the present, in order to be able to enjoy the life of a master.

However, it is not worth it to die in vain before enjoying a few years of blessing!

Afterwards, the God of War held by Charlie Wade on his left hand shouted hoarsely: "Dad...Dad..."

Because Charlie Wade's voice was stuck tightly, his voice was very small, almost inaudible, but his mouth shape was still in place, and he really wanted to admit it.

Charlie Wade nodded in satisfaction, took the lead in letting go of his left hand for a few minutes, and sneered: "Come on, let me give it a good call."

The God of War burst into tears, and said in a hoarse voice: "Dad... please go around me..."

Charlie Wade nodded: "Well, good son, since you are so sincerely begging Dad to forgive you, then Dad will show mercy and forgive you this time."

The God of War was overjoyed immediately, and at this moment, the realm master who Charlie Wade was holding on his right hand was about to faint. Suddenly seeing his good brother named Charlie Wade's father was forgiven, he immediately called his father desperately.

Of course, he couldn't make any sound in his throat, he could only make gestures.

Seeing that he was about to call Dad, Charlie Wade relaxed with his right hand and sneered: "Come on, give you a chance to scream."

The man was extremely humiliating, but in order to survive, he was still like a quail and honestly shouted: "Dad, please forgive me, dad..."

Charlie Wade nodded with satisfaction and said: "Seeing that you two are still a little sincere, then I will give you a chance to survive, kneel on the ground and call Dad, this time if the call is good, I will let you go."

The God of War blurted out and protested: "You asked me to call Dad. I have already called. Why didn't you let me go and let me call Dad on my knees?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "The first thing I said was to kneel down and call Dad. If you don't call, then I will let you die with dignity, and you can figure it out."

The realm master on the side angrily said: "How can I say that it is also the realm master of the north. Back then, it was able to defeat one hundred against one hundred. Don't go too far!"

Charlie Wade sneered and said: "The realm master of the North? What did you do?"

The landlord said: "Northern Mercenary Group, the largest private mercenary organization in the north!"

Chapter 1514

"Oh." Charlie Wade nodded and said with a smile: "Hello, realm lord, your title is pretty awesome, I also have a title, which is given by someone from the rivers and lakes. I don't know who compares with yours. More powerful?"

The landlord asked: "What is your title?"

The realm master's face changed.

Real dragon on earth?

What the hell!

Is it too arrogant?

Charlie Wade was too lazy to continue to talk to him, reapplying a bit of strength in his hand, and said blankly: "If you are willing to kneel and live, if you don't want to kneel and die, you only have three seconds to think about it."

The realm master felt that the strength in his throat was getting stronger and stronger, and his heart was frightened, and he blurted out: "I kneel! I kneel!"

Charlie Wade looked at the so-called God of War next to him: "What about you, Brother War God, kneel, or don't you kneel?"

"Kneel! I also kneel!"

The God of War also knew the truth that it is better to live than to die, and nodded without hesitation.

Charlie Wade smiled with satisfaction and directly pressed the two of them to the ground like a little chicken, and said coldly: "The voice is louder, otherwise I will abolish your roots and let you two be eunuchs for the rest of your life. !"

The two of them trembled in shock, knelt on the ground and cried in unison: "Daddy forgive me! Daddy forgive me!"

Brothers Hank and Carl looked very ugly.

However, at this time they have nothing to do.

I could only watch the two masters kneeling on the ground, calling this young man father.

Seeing the two people's devotion and earnestness, Charlie Wade nodded in satisfaction, and said, "My dear sons, it's not bad. Being able to bend and stretch is good material for big things."

The two raised their heads and looked at Charlie Wade angrily. They had killed him ten thousand times in their hearts.

At the same time, the two were thinking about the same thing.

That is how to find Charlie Wade to get the place back after passing this hurdle today.

At that time, he must take his life to be able to relieve his hatred!

What they didn't expect was that Charlie Wade was actually preparing for it a long time ago, and he would never have trouble.

So Charlie Wade looked funny and said with a smile: "Two dear sons, one of you is the God of War and the other is the realm master. It is really amazing. I am very relieved for my father, but I really do not like the two of you coming in one day. It looks like you are fighting late, so from today, let's be a good baby who sleeps on time."

The two people thought that Charlie Wade was simply humiliating them, so they were angry, but they didn't dare to say anything.

But they didn't expect that Charlie Wade had planned to abolish them long ago.

As a result, he quietly released reiki from his hand, directly penetrated into the two of them, and immediately sealed their dantian and meridians, making the two of them from the top masters in the eyes of ordinary people, and suddenly became the hands-free chicken. Power waste.

If the two of them dared to exert force or accumulate energy, not only would it be impossible for them to explode any lethality, they would also suffer the extreme pain of tens of thousands of ants biting their bodies, even if they wanted to move a few bricks.

Therefore, the two of them are already abolished by the standards, and they can no longer be abolished.

At this moment, Charlie Wade shouted coldly to the two of them: "Okay, you two go away and stay honestly. I still have something to do. I want to have a good chat with the two big guys from the Sun family!"

Chapter 1515

When the war god and realm master who were kneeling on the ground heard this, they knelt aside in a hurry, not daring to make any trouble.

As for Hank and Carl, when Charlie Wade said they wanted to have a good chat with them, the brothers' expressions were horrible, and they were already panicking.

They didn't expect that there would be such an evil star in the eldest brother's house.

Based on their understanding of Orrin, the family is nothing more than a few bodyguards who look after the nursing home. Although their abilities are good, they are a thousand miles away from the two they brought. Down. However, the ghost knows that there is another young man in their family, who has a terrifying manner and looks like a demon!

Seeing that Charlie Wade was making trouble for them, the two immediately took a step back, and Hank asked in panic: "You...what do you want to do?"

"Me?" Charlie Wade smiled: "You have been pretending so much for a long time, so I should pretend to be? Come on, let's talk about it, how are you going to solve this matter today?"

"How to solve it!" Hank gritted his teeth: "This is our Sun family's family affair, and it has nothing to do with outsiders! You can't control it!"

After speaking, he warned with a gloomy face: "Boy, I admit that you can fight very well, but it's useless to fight. If you provoke me, I will definitely not let you go!"

Orrin shouted angrily: "Second, do you dare to try a hair on Charlie Wade! Do you really think I, the boss of the Sun family, eat dry food?"

Hank was panicked, but still wanted to find a place, and said angrily, "Big brother, even if you are not eating dry food, how long can you live?"

As he said, he added: "Even if I admit to planting today, what about tomorrow? What about the day after tomorrow? Let me say, that's all for today. In the future, let's keep the water in the water. If you are willing to accept my previous proposal, we are still good brothers. When you leave, the third child and I must take care of the future generations and bury you; but if you disagree, then after you leave, don't blame me for not being affectionate with the third child. When the time comes, my sister-in-law and my daughter will..."

Before Hank's threatening words were finished, Charlie Wade suddenly raised his hand and slapped his face with a slap in the face, directly pulling him to the side in a daze!

Carl hurried to help, but he was also brought to the ground by the force of Hank's body.

The brothers each sighed. Orrin was just okay and just fell, but Hank was a bit miserable. This slap directly killed the dead molars, his mouth was full of blood, and his cheeks were swollen as if they were stung by a wasp. The same.

The others hurried forward and helped Hank, who was like a dead pig, up. Hank covered his face and whimpered indistinctly, "You...you dare to beat me...Do you really think that Hank is a vegetarian?"

Charlie Wade shook his head: "I didn't think you were a vegetarian. I think you are more like a shit eater. One mouth is stinking. I don't know if you know Kian, the second son of Southaven Webb family. I was in TikTok some time ago. It's still very popular on the Internet, I think your mouth is just like him!"

Hank was almost furious!

This kid actually compares Kian with himself!

That Kian, I have heard of him, and I heard of him, because I watched the video on TikTok, and almost didn't feel sick at the time!

Charlie Wade actually compares himself with him, isn't this an insult to his personality? !

He immediately shouted to the war god and the realm master who was kneeling on the ground: "Damn, kill him for me! Kill him, I will give you two 100 million!"

The two looked at each other.

A hundred million?

It sounds really attractive.

But how dare they step forward to provoke Charlie Wade? Charlie Wade could lift the two of them up like chickens and almost choked them to death with one move. The two of them had nothing to fight in front of Charlie Wade. In this case, even if this one hundred million was placed in front of them, they would not have this. Ability to earn...

Chapter 1516

However, there was a burst of ecstasy in the heart of the God of War. This is because he has always been wearing a gun next to him.

Although he is a martial artist and doesn't like to use guns, guns are also a life-saving support. He serves as a bodyguard for Hank. Most of the time, there is no danger, but he still saves one more hand.

It's just that when Charlie Wade was rubbing against him, he didn't have the opportunity to use the gun at all, and he couldn't even think about it.

But things are different now.

Charlie Wade's attention was no longer on his body.

Therefore, he couldn't help but think to himself, if Charlie Wade's attention was all on Hank and Carl, then he might have a chance to attack him!

No matter how strong they are, they are afraid of bullets. If one shot is hit, the opponent should immediately lose their combat effectiveness.

When the time comes to make up two more shots, even the martial arts master will definitely die!

At that time, not only will he have the insulted hatred, but he will also get a 100 million Dollar bonus from the boss! Then I don't have to work for the rest of my life, and I can retire directly to enjoy the glory and wealth!

Thinking of this, he immediately raised his arm, trying to sneak behind him to get a gun.

However, at this time, he suddenly realized that his arm was so soft that he could hardly use any strength.

The arm had been slumped before, and he was afraid that Charlie Wade would get angry, so he didn't dare to move, and he didn't realize that his arm had some symptoms of muscle weakness.

He was surprised in his heart, and said to himself: "What the hell is going on? Is it because I was so scared just now and my body was scared?"

Thinking of this, he gritted his teeth and wanted to use a bit more strength to drive his arm, but the power on his arm almost dissipated!

"This...what the hell is going on?!"

He was shocked in his heart, but for the 100 million, he still worked hard to suckle, trying to put his right hand behind him, what is usually easy, and now he has worked hard for a few minutes, tired and sweating, but he has not succeeded.

At the moment when he felt that his strength was almost exhausted, he finally put his hands behind his back with great effort, and touched his gun through his clothes.

However, trying to grab a gun is as difficult as reaching the sky.

At this moment, he only felt that his five fingers were like others, completely unable to drive.

Charlie Wade hadn't looked at him, but he could feel that this kid was doing his best to resist the reiki that he had left in his body, so he looked up at him and sneered: "What's wrong with the god of war? ?"

The God of War hurriedly said, "No, no, absolutely nothing.."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "If you want to get a gun, you have to get it out!"

After the God of War heard this, his whole body trembled: "How could he know that he couldn't take it out? Could it be...could it be that he did something to him?!"

Charlie Wade took a deep look and said coldly: "I advise you to be honest. You can at least control your sphincter now. If you dare to do it again, I will let you not even control your sphincter. If you urinate and urinate anytime, anywhere like a one-year-old, don't blame me for not giving you a chance!"

As soon as the person heard this, his soul was frightened!

What supernatural power does this guy have?

What method did he use to make himself almost a useless person? !

Chapter 1517

Hank trembled in shock at this time.

What the hell is this?

The God of War and Realm Master he hired with a high salary was choked by Charlie Wade and knelt down to call his father. That's fine, the key is that you can't even get the gun out?

You know this group of people are simply the ancestors of playing guns! They can't hold a gun, which is as ridiculous as a barber can't hold scissors!

However, no matter how unthinkable and unthinkable the fact is, it is also a fact.

Hank saw that the god of war was scared like a dead dog, and he didn't dare to say a word, knowing that it was absolutely useless to count on them today.

In this way, isn't that slap in the face just now for nothing?

Thinking of this, he was even more resentful. However, he did not dare to yell with Charlie Wade too much at this time.

So, he could only say angrily: "Okay! Kid, I remember you! Let's just wait and see!"

After speaking, he immediately said to his son Trevor next to him: "Let's go!"

Charlie Wade, who had been smiling all the time, suddenly sneered, "Go? Who let you go?"

Hank covered his face and took a step back, and asked tremblingly, "You...what do you mean!"

"What do I mean?" Charlie Wade said coldly: "You took a few dogs and ran to someone else's house to bite and disturb others to eat, and you want to turn your head and leave?"

Hank didn't expect that Charlie Wade slapped himself in the face and didn't want to give up, so he trembled and asked, "What do you want?"

Charlie Wade said: "My demands are very simple. If you mess with me, you must satisfy me, otherwise none of you will want to leave."

Trevor scolded angrily, "Boy, don't overdo it! Otherwise, you don't know how to die!"

Charlie Wade frowned and asked, "Who gave you the courage? You dare to talk to me like this at this time?"

Trevor had no bottom in his heart, but still gritted his teeth and threatened: "Provoke my Sun family, beware of my Sun family's order to pursue killings across the country, offering a reward of one billion for your head!"

Charlie Wade nodded: "Good boy, it's interesting, are you married yet?"

Trevor was stunned for a moment. What the hell is this? Why did you suddenly ask about this?

Seeing that he didn't speak, Charlie Wade immediately stretched out his hands and condensed his ears. As soon as he came up, he twisted it nearly one hundred and eighty degrees, and said coldly: "What the hell is asking you, are you deaf?"

Trevor felt a sharp pain in his ears, and felt like he was about to be pulled off by his life. He cried out in pain, "Ouch! It hurts to death! Release me!"

Charlie Wade used his hand again: "If your ears don't work well, don't ask for it at all!"

Trevor was afraid that Charlie Wade would really pull his ears off, so he immediately pleaded, "Please don't screw it up. If you screw it up, it will fall out!"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "Answer the question!"

Trevor said hurriedly: "I'm not married, I'm not married!"

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "I'm not married, and there are no children outside, right?"

"No, no!" Trevor shook his head repeatedly.

Charlie Wade asked him again: "Then how many children did your dad have?"

"Three..."

"How many men and women?"

"I have two older sisters..."

"Oh..." Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Then you are your father's only son, right?"

"Yes, yes yes yes..."

Chapter 1518

Charlie Wade looked at Hank again, smiled and asked him: "I heard what you meant just now, as if you are very patriarchal, and ridiculed that others have no sons. It seems that your son is your lifeblood. Right?"

Hank heard Charlie Wade's words, with a full threat, and asked nervously: "You...what do you want to do? I warn you, if I dare to hurt my son, I will fight with you! "

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "How can I hurt your son? I will only hurt your grandson."

"Grandson?" Hank was even more puzzled: "I don't have a grandson...what does this guy mean?"

Charlie Wade asked him: "By the way, do you know Kenneth Wilson, the chairman of the one Eastcliff Group?"

Hank frowned and asked suspiciously, "Yes, what's wrong?"

Charlie Wade asked again: "He has a hidden illness, he just got it some time ago, do you know?"

Hank shook his head: "Don't betray me, just tell me if you have anything!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Kenneth Wilson's hidden illness is just that the thing can't be used, but he still has fertility, that is, if he still wants a child, he can use artificial insemination... ."

Everyone was at a loss.

What is this guy going to say?

At this time, Charlie Wade sneered and said: "However, your son is not so lucky. From now on, he will be infertile."

With that, reiki entered Trevor's body.

When dealing with Kenneth Wilson, he also used infuriating energy to seal the roots, making him lose the ability to find pleasure, but he did not seal his ability to pass on from generation to generation, and Kenneth Wilson had children, so this ability was also optional for him.

However, for Trevor, fertility is still very important. After all, he is still young and is still waiting for him to pass on his lineage.

At this time, Trevor was angry, and said angrily: "You said I am not fertile, so I am not fertile? Is your mouth open or something?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Hey, I really made you right. I just opened this mouth and said everything is good. I said that if you have no fertility, you have no fertility. If you don't believe it, go back and try. "

Everyone at the scene looked at each other.

They were all afraid of Charlie Wade's strength, so they didn't dare to scold him, let alone do anything with him.

However, they also felt that Charlie Wade's words were too damn bad.

Cursing people's infertility, is this the f*cking thing done by the elders?

Hank gritted his teeth and asked, "Okay, what you say is what you say.

Are you satisfied now? Can we leave?"

"Not yet."

Charlie Wade waved his hand at Carl's son Daniel: "Come kid, come here."

Daniel took a step back in shock: "What do you want to do?!"

Charlie Wade said: "I plan to do a ligation for you too."

Daniel's face turned green, and he stepped back behind his father in two steps. He didn't dare to talk back or step forward.

Charlie Wade shook his head helplessly, and said, "Look at you, fortunately that I am better at it. Cloud ligation is fine."

After speaking, another trace of reiki came out.

After getting the two of them, Charlie Wade suddenly wanted to understand one thing and blurted out: "Oh, I forgot one thing, you two old things, shouldn't be too old, there must be fertility?"

Hank and Carl were almost mad.

How come they are old things?

Both of them are in their forties and not yet 50, and they are rich in family and well maintained. It can be said that they are old and strong, and their physical strength is not inferior to ordinary young people.

However, the two of them didn't know what medicine Charlie Wade sold in the gourd.

But Charlie Wade snapped his fingers twice and said to them: "Okay, you can get out. I will be in Eastcliff for these two days. If you want to seek revenge, you can come to me at any time, but if you have something to do. Ask to kneel at the door of Uncle Orrin's villa. If you are sincere, I might consider it."

Chapter 1519

Hank waited for a group of people to look at each other for a while, not knowing what to do.

Although Charlie Wade let them go, they really wanted to escape quickly, but listening to what Charlie Wade didn't seem to finish, they didn't dare to leave.

Because they didn't understand what Charlie Wade meant.

Charlie Wade was not going to let them figure it out.

Just like Kenneth Wilson, this kind of thing must be experienced by them.

Therefore, Charlie Wade and these people are still there, look at me, I see you stupidly, and directly said to the crowd: "Within three seconds, you can stay if you don't roll!"

Just as he was amnesty, Orrin waved to everyone: "Let's go!"

The surnamed Sun turned around to leave, leaving a war god and a realm master still kneeling.

The two wanted to go too, but their legs really didn't work well.

There was still a little remaining strength on his legs, at least he could barely stand up and stagger forward.

But because the kneeling time was so long and his legs were too numb, there was no way to stand up at this time.

Seeing that everyone was gone, the two were so anxious that they shed tears, and the God of War choked up: "Second Lord, please take us away, Second Lord!"

Hank angrily cursed: "You two rubbish! People can't be killed, the road will not go?"

The God of War choked up and said: "Second Lord, this leg really doesn't work anymore...As long as I can stand up, I dare not ask you to help..."

"I wipe..." Hank took a breath.

Then he couldn't help but glanced at Charlie Wade, and thought to himself, "What the hell is going on today? What is this kid? How can he make these two masters like this ghost?"

You know, these two are usually killers who do not blink their eyes. They move their hands with their palms as a knife, and the thick steel bars of their thumbs can be cut with one palm. Why can't they even stand up now? However, he didn't dare to think too much about it at this time. The immediate task at hand was to escape from here quickly and discuss the long-term plan after returning.

So he irritably said to Trevor and Daniel: "Trevor, Daniel, you two give them a hand!"

The two had no choice but to follow suit, walked to the God of War and the realm master, helped them up, and limped out.

Hank didn't dare to threaten Charlie Wade again, but he had already figured it out in his heart. There is absolutely no end to this matter today. He must find a way to chop him off, and then ask his eldest brother's family for property.

The eldest brother alone holds nearly trillions of assets. If it really falls into the hands of his wife and daughter, the Sun family will lose out!

Therefore, he deliberately said to Orrin with a dark face: "Big brother, tomorrow the group will hold a board of directors. As the chairman, you will participate in anyway. There will be media attendance at that time. The details of the board of directors must be reported to the Securities Regulatory Commission and The issue issued by investors is of great importance. Don't forget about this matter!"

There are countless companies and groups under the Sun family. There are just a few listed companies. Some are listed in the Mainland, some are listed in Hong Kong, and some are listed in the United States. However, the parent company behind these companies is the Sun Group. The total market value of the Sun Group is at least 2 trillion Dollar. However, the shares of the Sun Group are not unique to the Sun family. Some of the shares are in the hands of other shareholders, and some of the shares are issued by listed companies. in. The Sun family owns 51% of the shares of the Sun Group, which is about one trillion Dollar. Among these 51%, 50% are in the name of Orrin, and Hank and Carl each account for 25%.

It stands to reason that the three brothers hold exactly 51% of the shares, which is just in line with the absolute holding ratio. As long as the three of them are one mind, the Sun Group is completely under the control of the Sun family.

But now that the second and third, seeing that the boss Orrin is dying, they are desperate to grab his share.

Now that Hank sees that today's strategy of asking for shares has not succeeded, he is ready to continue to put pressure on his eldest brother through the board of directors tomorrow.

Even with the share issue, he would not agree for a while, he must be forced to give himself the position of chairman tomorrow!

As the saying goes, a country cannot be without a king for a day, and a dragon cannot be without a leader for a day.

With such a huge industrial matrix of the Sun Group, the chairman cannot be eliminated.

Although Orrin is still alive now, he is now very sick. If he is treated, he will definitely not have the energy to manage the group. If he is not treated, he will definitely not live long.

So now is a good time to force the palace.

In any case, he must first hand over the position and power of the chairman.

And then slowly plan the part of his shares.

If it doesn't work, then use the most extreme trick to kill all his wives and daughters after the elder brother's death.

In this way, the shares of their family of three naturally fell into the hands of himself and his third brother.

It's just that he dare not use such an extreme method, because after all, Eastcliff hides the dragon and the tiger. Many bigwigs know the situation of the major families well. If he does it secretly, even if he does it perfectly, he can't escape the eyes of these people.

At that time, the people in the top society of Eastcliff will know that they have murdered the eldest brother's family.

That way, the impact on Sun's family would be too great.

After all, every circle has its own rules. In the circle of Eastcliff giants, whoever dares to kill each other will become the object of rejection by everyone.

At that time, Sun's assets, connections, status, and prestige will shrink significantly.

Therefore, he still tends to outsmart.

When Orrin heard him mention the board of directors, he knew that he wanted to use the board to put pressure on himself.

Now that the new year is approaching, many listed companies have begun to make annual summaries, release annual financial reports, and announce to the people of the whole country that a group company such as the Sun Group is naturally attracting attention.

And now I am dying. If I participate in the board of directors and be seen as such by the people of the whole country, the people's confidence in the Sun Group will be greatly reduced. By then, the stocks will definitely fall and shareholders will face greater losses.

Therefore, when the time comes, the board of directors will definitely put pressure on itself, forcing itself to give up the chairmanship.

Before that, the three Sun family owned 51% of the shares, and they had absolute say in the board of directors. Other shareholders did not have the ability to force them to do things.

But things are different now.

The two younger brothers are at odds with him. He has only 25.5% of the shares, and the other 25.5% is in the hands of the two younger brothers. If the two of them don't agree with them, and instead unite with other board members to exclude themselves, then their 25.5% of the shares are no match for them.

As long as their combined shares exceed 51%, they can reasonably and legally impeach themselves and force themselves to cede the chairmanship.

Thinking of this, he said with a sullen expression: "Hank, I know what your wishful thinking is, but you can rest assured, as long as I Orrin still has a breath, I will be there for the board of directors tomorrow! No matter what your plan is, I won't let you succeed!"

Chapter 1521

Hank and Carl ran away from Orrin's home in a hurry.

At this time, the maid hurried in and said, "Sir, the bodyguards in our family are all injured. Look..."

Orrin immediately waved his hand and said: "Hurry up and call 120 and send it to Fairview for treatment. I will pay for all the expenses, and each person will pay another 200,000 medical expenses. I will arrange for my secretary to go there."

The servant nodded immediately, took out his mobile phone and dialed 120. Everyone also went out to check the injuries of the bodyguards. Although all of them looked miserable, they were not life-threatening.

However, these people are also very ashamed, and even ashamed to look up at Orrin, and constantly curse that they are too weak and ashamed of Orrin's trust.

Orrin didn't care about this either, and comforted one by one: "Today's matter is an accident. The other party came prepared, and all the masters came. You can't match each other, and you can understand it.

With that said, he again asked: "Don't think about it so much now, go to the hospital for treatment and recovery!"

Soon, the ambulance took the bodyguards away, and Orrin also arranged for his secretary to rush to the hospital to handle related matters.

When everything was arranged, he finally felt relieved.

A family of three returned to the restaurant with Charlie Wade. He took Charlie Wade's hand and choked up and said: "Charlie Wade, today...thanks to you!"

Angie and Stefanie on the side also nodded gratefully.

Angie said: "Charlie Wade, if it weren't for you, today I and you Uncle Orrin, I really don't know how to cross this hurdle..."

Stefanie also cried and said, "Charlie Wade, thank you so much today..."

As she said that, she remembered the grievances that her parents had just received, and she couldn't control her emotions, and tears couldn't stop streaming.

Charlie Wade hurriedly comforted: "Uncle Orrin, Angie, and Daisy, to me, you are my relatives. What kind of kindness is there to me..."

Orrin nodded and asked with red eyes: "Charlie Wade, how come you have such a strong strength? Even if they are not your opponents, this is too powerful? What have you experienced over the years? How can it be so tough?"

Charlie Wade said seriously: "Uncle Orrin, although I have had a hard time these years, I did encounter some opportunities that ordinary people can't meet, so I have some skills."

Orrin grabbed his hand and said sincerely: "Charlie Wade, if I leave, you, Angie and Daisy, and their mothers, are all dependent on you, otherwise, I will not be at ease until I die, and I will never look down..."

Angie wiped her tears, and said stubbornly: "Husband, don't say such dejected things, and don't worry about our wife. The big deal is that after you leave, our wife will donate all the money! Anyway, my family will pay it back. It's a little bit capable. My daughter is now a big star again. We must have no worries about the lives of our mothers and daughters. We donated all the property, and we won't let them both get a cent!"

Orrin sighed and nodded softly: "After I leave, everything will be in the hands of your wife. I have no other wishes. I only hope that your wife will live a healthy and peaceful life!"

Stefanie cried and said, "Dad, don't say that. Are you planning to be hospitalized and actively cooperate with treatment? There may be miracles! Don't make conclusions so early!"

Orrin laughed sadly: "Good girl, your dad has lived for most of his life. He has experienced all kinds of storms, and he can see and see through many things. As for my disease, I can't cure it everywhere. Treatment is nothing more than a question of whether to go in the first half of the year or the second half."

Now it is the twelfth lunar month of the lunar calendar, and it is also the first month of the new year in the solar calendar. Therefore, Orrin felt that he would definitely not be able to live this year.

When these words came out, Angie and Stefanie cried into a ball, both of them were top beauties, crying into such a pear blossom and rain, it really hurts.

Especially Stefanie, Charlie Wade didn't have much contact with her, but she could feel that her temper was very proud and strong, but now she was crying like this, how could she still have the slightest aura of fearlessness? She is like a little girl next door who makes people feel distressed.

Chapter 1522

So, Charlie Wade took a deep breath, looked at the three of them, and said seriously: "Uncle Orrin, Angie, and Daisy, with me Charlie Wade alive, no matter where I am, I will not let you be bullied!"

After speaking, Charlie Wade looked at Orrin again and said seriously: "Uncle Orrin, I have a way to cure your disease and restore your health!" If Charlie Wade said such a thing during dinner, Orrin would not believe it. He knew that his disease could never be cured.

But only to see that after Charlie Wade defeated the God of War and the realm master with his own power, he suddenly had an extremely strong trust in Charlie Wade.

He felt that since Charlie Wade said so, he must be certain.

So he hurriedly asked: "Charlie Wade, do you really have a way to heal me?!"

Angie also blushed and said: "Yes, Charlie Wade, your uncle Orrin's condition is really too serious. We asked this directly the top expert, but they all..."

Speaking of this, Angie did not go on.

In this case, the family of three has heard it too many times.

No matter which top expert is found, they all say that there is no cure for the disease, and it can last a few months at most.

Charlie Wade said confidently at this time: "Angie, don't worry, if I say yes, I can definitely do it!"

With that said, he took out a rejuvenating pill from his pocket, handed it to Orrin, and said earnestly: "Uncle Orrin, take this medicine, all your diseases will be cured!"

Orrin stared at him dumbfounded: "This...this...is this medicine so amazing?!"

If someone else handed him such a medicine and said that one pill would cure his illness, Orrin would definitely not believe it!

Because this completely subverted his understanding of the world, disease, cancer, and even life.

However, this was what Charlie Wade said, so he suddenly felt that Charlie Wade's words might really be a little credible!

Thinking of this, he immediately asked: "Charlie Wade, can I just take this medicine?"

Charlie Wade nodded lightly: "Swallow it directly, take it with warm water, and go and pour Uncle Orrin a glass of warm water."

"Okay Charlie Wade!" Stefanie immediately got up and poured a cup of warm water over.

Angie's expression on the side was a little complicated.

She was skeptical at this moment in her heart.

Half believe, and half feel unlikely.

However, she changed her mind to think that Charlie Wade would never harm her husband. It was nothing more than a pill. Even if the disease could not be cured, it should not hurt the body too much.

So she didn't speak, and waited for her husband to take the medicine to see if it worked.

When the warm water was brought, Orrin did not hesitate, put the rejuvenating pill that exuded a strong medicinal fragrance into his mouth, took another sip of water, and then raised his head and swallowed the rejuvenating pill...

Chapter 1523

The efficacy of Rejuvenating Pill is beyond doubt.

This is the essence recorded in the "Apocalyptic Book", which can make the dead trees come in spring, can rejuvenate the elderly, and can make the dying people repeat health.

At the beginning, Don Albertt was seriously injured by Webb's bodyguard, and his breath was almost absent, only the last faint breath was hanging. In that case, even the best doctor in the world can only save his life, but he can never save his brain, and it is better to be a vegetative end.

However, after taking a rejuvenation pill, Don Albertt not only fully recovered, his whole body was even more than ten years younger. This shows how magical the efficacy of rejuvenation Pill is. Therefore, Charlie Wade firmly believes that Rejuvenating Pill will also heal Orrin!

At this time, Orrin took the Rejuvenation Pill in front of his wife and daughter, and immediately felt an unprecedented sense of comfort, dissolving in his belly.

The whole body is like the ground completely chapped under the perennial drought. There is no more water in the soil.

However, this medicinal power is like an endless stream of clear springs, which instantly gushes out from the cracks in the ground, not only moisturizing the entire earth, but also covering the entire earth with abundant water!

Originally, his physical stamina had been consumed more than 80% by a serious illness. He had personally experienced the feeling that his body was constantly getting worse.

It was like a hole opened at the bottom of a bucket of water, allowing him to directly feel the accelerated passing of life on his body.

However, at this moment, he suddenly realized that the feeling that life is better than death seemed to be repeated backwards!

He could clearly feel that his own passing life was quickly added back. Soon, he felt that his body had recovered to 50% of what it was when he was healthy!

Immediately afterwards, it was 70%! It's 90%!

After that, it was ten percent!

In just over a minute, he felt that he had returned to his healthy state.

When I was sick, I was 48 years old, and now I am 50 years old.

Although there is a difference of two years, 48 years old is a healthy 48 years old, 50 years old, a dying 50 years old, the gap is different every day!

And now, he has found the feeling of being healthy and strong at the age of 48!

He felt that all this was really amazing, it was like having the most beautiful dream before dying!

However, the surprise is not over yet!

After all, this is a rejuvenation pill! !

This is the rejuvenation pill that Lord Moore is willing to bow his head and kneel to Charlie Wade!

This is Don Albertt's rejuvenating pill for Charlie Wade's liver and brain!

This is a rejuvenating pill that Travis Lane is willing to spend 2 billion Dollar in!

How could such a miraculous and precious rejuvenation pill only bring Orrin's body back to when he was forty-eight?

Rejuvenating Pill is like a magical force that can travel through time, dragging Orrin's body back desperately!

Then, Orrin felt that he seemed to be back when he was forty-five years old!

That year, one thing impressed him particularly deeply.

That year, his father died.

Orrin, who was extremely filial and filial, bought the best golden nanmu coffin for his father.

It takes sixteen young adults to lift the coffin.

Orrin took his younger brothers Hank and Carl and joined them, hoping to carry the coffin for his dead father by himself.

However, Hank and Carl couldn't support them at all, and were panting after trying them once.

In the end, it was Orrin and 15 young people who lifted the coffin and sent it to the cemetery.

Chapter 1524

After falling ill, Orrin missed himself at that time countless times.

At that time, I really refused to admit defeat! At forty-five years old, but still want to be like a 30-year-old young man.

In fact, my body at the time was indeed better than that of ordinary people of my age. Even though it was very difficult to lift the coffin, I still resisted it!

And now, that peak state is back!

Orrin was sitting on the chair and burst into tears immediately!

He felt that all this was simply a gift from heaven! When I was dying, I just hoped to survive, and I didn't dare to hope that my life could return to this peak state!

But, now, all this miraculous thing is happening to me!

At this time, the miracle happened not only to Orrin, but also to Angie and Stefanie!

At a speed visible to the naked eye, they saw Orrin's pale and colorless face, and they began to quickly restore ruddy.

The sunken eye sockets and dark circles that are unique to the terminally ill patient are rapidly disappearing, and his already pale hair is rapidly turning black! Even the wrinkles on his face seemed to be smoothed by an invisible iron of years!

Gosh! What did I see? I actually saw the turn of time!

Angie covered her mouth with her hands, her eyes widened, and her beautiful eyes, after shedding too many sad tears, shedding tears of excitement for the first time.

The same was true for Stefanie. Her tears had already burst, but she did not dare to make any noise for fear that it would disturb the continuation of the miracle.

During the period when her father was ill, she secretly worshipped all the gods in the world that she knew, and was able to descend from the mansion and manifest spirits.

However, after every prayer, it was endless disappointment and even despair.

But who would have thought that the gods could not heal his father, and her fiancé, whom she had missed for more than ten years, and that Charlie Wade who had been chasing behind his a in his childhood, brought his father the most miraculous miracle in the world!

Orrin's body is still going back in time.

At this time, he already felt the state of his forty years old.

That year, he heard from others that someone met a young Chinese man in faraway Argentina. The young Chinese man, in Buenos Aires, the capital of Argentina, worked as a temporary tour guide for Chinese tourists and made a living from this. , Very much like his big brother who worshipped the handle back then.

Orrin was extremely excited when he heard the news.

He immediately booked a full flight ticket to Argentina.

Argentina is the country farthest from China.

Whether you start from the east or the west, you need a straight line distance of at least 20,000 kilometers to get there.

There is no civil airliner that can fly 20,000 kilometers without stopping. Therefore, there is no direct flight from Eastcliff to Buenos Aires.

At that time, Orrin's private jet had a maximum range of less than 8,000 kilometers.

However, in order to find Charlie Wade, he set out in a hurry late that night without hesitation.

The plane first took off from Eastcliff, after a stop for refueling, first flew to Dallas, the United States, and then stopped for refueling again in Dallas, the United States, and then flew non-stop to Buenos Aires.

The entire flight time took almost thirty hours.

During these thirty hours, Orrin never closed his eyes.

He thought he would be able to find Charlie Wade's whereabouts that time, so he was so excited that he couldn't rest at all.

In addition, he had not rested for more than ten hours before taking off, so he held on for 48 hours, but he didn't even feel any fatigue at the time.

More than fifty hours have passed until he found the young man who really looked like Charlie Wade's father and asked if he was not the Charlie Wade he was looking for.

Until that moment, he felt a sense of depression and fatigue.

And now, he actually feels his body, back to that time...

His decades of worldview were completely subverted in an instant.

He couldn't figure out, what kind of magical medicine Charlie Wade gave him? Could it be that the elixir of the legendary Taishang Laojun failed? Otherwise, how could it be so magical?

At this moment, Orrin, who was at least ten years younger, was crying and choked silently...

Chapter 1525

At this moment, Angie and Stefanie were crying so hard that they couldn't help themselves.

The two of them left and right, holding Orrin's warm hand, so excited that they couldn't speak.

Although Orrin has not undergone any medical tests, and their wives have not received any authoritative report on whether Orrin has been cured, they believe in their own eyes, in their own judgment, and believe that he is now completely healed!

As a personal experience of the effects of rejuvenating pills, Orrin knows his own situation well. He is now 10,000% sure that he is not only healed, but his body is back to the state he was in when he was 10 years ago. .

This made him ecstatic.

It took him a long time to recover from his uncontrollable emotions.

Then, he raised his head to look at Charlie Wade, his eyes filled with gratitude.

Immediately afterwards, he gently pushed away the wife and daughter beside him, bending his legs and knelt down in front of Charlie Wade.

Charlie Wade didn't expect that Orrin would kneel to himself and hurriedly reached out to support him, making him unable to kneel anyway.

But Orrin has been working hard to push his hand away, and said solemnly and sincerely: "Charlie Wade, you recreated Uncle Orrin, this worship, you can't stop me anyway!"

Charlie Wade blurted out: "Uncle Orrin, you are my father's brother, that is equivalent to my uncle, how can I receive such a gift from you? Isn't this broken me..."

Orrin shook his head and said: "Charlie Wade, your kindness to me is as great as a mountain, even if you give most of my assets to you, it is no match for the kindness, so you will receive my worship anyway... ."

Before Charlie Wade could speak, Angie on the side had already knelt down, and Stefanie knelt on the ground without thinking.

Angie choked up and said: "Charlie Wade, you have a great kindness to our family. Auntie is unforgettable in this life..."

Stefanie on the side also nodded again and again: "Charlie Wade, thank you so much..."

At this moment, Orrin was still using his body to compete with Charlie Wade, insisting on kneeling on the ground.

Seeing this, Charlie Wade sighed, then let go of Orrin, stood up straight, and said seriously: "If this is the case, I won't stop you, but after thanking me, let's stop talking about this. Now, I haven't had a mouthful of food yet, let's eat lunch first, okay?"

Orrin immediately knelt on the ground, clasped his fists on top of his head, and said sincerely: "Charlie Wade, uncle is not stupid. I can see that you must be someone with great ability. Uncle thank you for giving me such a great opportunity. Uncle will remember this life. ! If there is anything that needs uncle to do in the future, don't dare to refuse to do it!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly, helped him up, and said, "Uncle Orrin, thank you too, can you eat?"

Orrin hurriedly smiled and said, "Come here, let's continue eating!"

After speaking, he looked at Angie excitedly and said with a smile:

"Wife! Go to our storeroom and get a bottle of my treasured top Maotai. I have a good drink with Charlie Wade today!, for more than a year! I have been greedy for a long time without a drop of wine!"

Angie wiped away her tears, and smiled and said, "Okay! You guys sit and eat first, I'll get it now!"

Chapter 1526

After a while, Angie came back with a bottle of Maotai in a four-jin bottle.

Orrin took over the bottle and opened the lid while saying to Charlie Wade: "Charlie Wade, since the year of her birth, every year on her birthday, I will spend a lot of money to save a batch of the best Moutai I can buy. So far, there is already a storage room in the basement. They are all auction-level top Maotais. They were originally prepared to wait for the wedding day of Daisy to entertain relatives and friends. Today, let's try it first!"

Angie smiled and said: "Charlie Wade, this batch of wine, your uncle Orrin is very precious. The storage room is like a brave, you can only get in. It has been stored for more than 20 years, and I haven't taken a bottle out to drink it. , This is the first time today!"

Orrin smiled and said, "This wine was originally prepared for the wedding of Charlie Wade and Daisy, so now it should be preheated!"

Stefanie on the side blushed immediately.

Charlie Wade was inevitably embarrassed.

marry?

I am a married person now, how can I marry Stefanie again?

Orrin also saw the embarrassment in Charlie Wade's expression, and said seriously: "Charlie Wade, I know your current situation, you don't have to have any psychological burden. Since I am now healed, I must live another 20 or 30 years. No problem, uncle is the master, our family has been waiting for you for three years!"

Speaking of this, Orrin said while pouring his wine, "In the past three years, you can solve the current problems in a few minutes, and then make a plan for your own future, whether you want to return to Eastcliff or Wade's home. , Think about all these things, but it doesn't matter if you return to the Wade family. In my eyes, you are the son-in-law of the Sun family. Everything in the Sun family belongs to you. It doesn't matter if you don't have the Wade family!"

"Yeah Charlie Wade!" Angie also said to the side: "You were born in Eastcliff and grew up in Eastcliff before you were eight years old. This is your root. After you marry Daisy, the best choice is to come back!" "If you feel tired of these cumbersome things in Eastcliff's wealthy family, I also support you and your daughter to settle overseas together, and you don't need to worry about money. The assets of your uncle Orrin and I are enough for the two of you in this world. In any country, you can live a lifetime without worries!"

Stefanie had a blushing face, and she didn't say a word shyly, but she looked at Charlie Wade from time to time, and she could see that the expression in her eyes was full of tenderness.

Charlie Wade knew that his marriage contract with Stefanie was the order of his parents.

And it has existed for more than 20 years, and I did not keep the promise of my parents. At this time, if I refuted it immediately, I would have no face to face my parents who had passed away.

So he nodded lightly and said seriously: "Uncle Orrin and Angie, I will consider these issues carefully."

In his opinion, the best solution is to delay the matter first, and then slowly ease the matter.

Orrin naturally agreed, and then handed Charlie Wade a glass of wine. He also picked up a glass and said boldly, "Come on, Charlie Wade! Finish this glass!"

Charlie Wade nodded, and the two of them clinked their glasses, and drank all the Moutai in the glass.

Orrin sipped his stomach with a glass of wine. The familiar and unfamiliar feeling made him smack his lips. He said excitedly: "Oh, now I understand that being rich and powerful is not as good as being healthy! Health is fundamental!"

As he said, he couldn't help asking Charlie Wade: "By the way, Charlie Wade, it is not convenient for you to tell uncle, what kind of magical medicine you gave me, how can it have such a magical effect? It's like an elixir. same!"

Chapter 1527

Charlie Wade heard Orrin's question about the rejuvenating pill and said with a smile: "Uncle Orrin, this medicine is called the rejuvenating pill. I dare not say that it is a real elixir, but I can say that it is at least half a fairy. Medicine was refined by ancient Chinese geniuses, and I also obtained it by chance."

Orrin did not doubt that he had him, and said seriously: "This medicine is really amazing. It really doesn't look like a mortal thing in the world. The feeling when I took the medicine just now is almost dreamlike! It seems that there are indeed many ancestors that we cannot understand their Supernatural power!"

Charlie Wade nodded in agreement.

Although he doesn't know who wrote the "Apocalyptic Book", according to the age of the Yuchun bottle, the bottle should have been made in the Ming Dynasty.

And the bottle did not have any traces of later cutting, that is to say, the wooden box where the "Apocalyptic Book" was originally stored should be put in in advance when making the mud before the Ming Dynasty craftsman made the jade pot spring bottle. .

And the material of the wooden box and the "Apocalyptic Book" is also very magical, there is no problem with the fire, and it disappears instantly after opening it, and Charlie Wade can't see through the mystery.

Therefore, he empathized with Orrin's words.

After three rounds of wine, Orrin became more and more interested and drank the wine very refreshingly. Soon, the two of them each dropped a catty of white wine.

Angie suddenly remembered something at this moment and said: "Be faithful, when you show up at the board of directors tomorrow, I'm afraid it will scare many people, especially the second and third."

Orrin sneered: "That's right! Tomorrow, I will not only stun the entire board of directors, but also reorganize the entire board! I used to take care of my second and third wife, and I never dreamed that they would fall into trouble when I was seriously ill, but From tomorrow on, their days in the Sun Group will not be so comfortable!"

Angie hurriedly said: "From now on, you must pay attention to the issue of personal safety. Whether it is a group or a family, you must have more bodyguards to prevent the elders and thirds from jumping over the wall."

Orrin nodded: "Don't worry, I will communicate with the best security company tomorrow, and spend 200 million to hire the best security team to protect our family's safety 24 hours. From now on, except for this one Apart from the people in the house, I don't trust anyone anymore!"

The people in this room Orrin said were his wife and daughter and Charlie Wade.

Now, besides these three people, he really can't believe anyone.

Even his own younger brother can betray him, and even think of robbing his own property, which is even more extreme. They even threatened him with the lives of his wife and children. This not only made him angry, but also made him feel angry. See through the nature of human nature. What about brothers? In the face of interests, don't you also draw swords to each other?

Thinking of this, Orrin looked at Charlie Wade and said seriously:

"Charlie Wade, if you don't have any plans tomorrow, why not go with me? With you, uncle will be more confident."

Charlie Wade naturally nodded and agreed without hesitation.

This time I came to Eastcliff to help Orrin solve the problem.

The physical problem is solved, and the asset problem must be helped as much as possible.

Otherwise, the current Orrin has recovered from a serious illness and his control of the group is at the weakest stage, and he may not be able to beat his two younger brothers.

In case his two younger brothers join other shareholders to squeeze him out, this is also a problem.

Moreover, Charlie Wade was even more worried that his two younger brothers would want to kill him.

After all, they have been greedy by these hundreds of billions of property for so long, and they cannot give up easily.

Chapter 1528

Therefore, I must help Orrin solve all the problems before leaving Eastcliff and returning to Aurouss Hilll.

Seeing Charlie Wade's agreement, Orrin sighed, took his wine glass, and said, "Come on, Charlie Wade, uncle toast you!"

Charlie Wade nodded and clinked glasses with him again.

Angie saw the two drunk happily, and whispered to Stefanie beside him:

"Your dad hasn't been so happy in a long time."

Stefanie also nodded repeatedly, and said in her mother's ear: "It seems that from the time Uncle Wade's accident until now, I haven't seen him so happy."

Angie was under the table, gently holding her daughter's hand, and whispered: "Charlie Wade is a good man, you must hold him!"

Stefanie was a little embarrassed and said, "Mom...how do you know now...

Charlie Wade is already married and he is not divorced now..."

Angie said earnestly: "Stupid boy, he is your fiancé since you were a child. This is your husband who was robbed of you, not her husband!"

After a slight pause, Angie said: "Besides, in Aurouss Hilll, I don't believe that a daughter with a family can be worthy of Charlie Wade, and the local richest man is far from qualified. Looking at the entire Eastcliff city, those who can be worthy of Charlie Wade, except you, Only the girl from the Banks Familyy."

"And you have a marriage contract with him. The two families are still friends for many years. It is justified and created by nature when you marry Charlie Wade."

"Moreover, by then, your dad and I will have more sons! Your dad will definitely be happy all day long!"

Stefanie's pretty face flushed with shame: "Mom, then you say, how should I hold it...I don't have any experience in this area..."

Angie said: "I will teach you slowly when I turn back!"

At this time, Charlie Wade also responded to Orrin with a glass of wine, and immediately said: "Uncle Orrin, I am here this time. In addition to seeing you and Angie and helping you treat your illness, I also want to go to my parents' tomb to mourn. Where are the parents buried now?"

Orrin gave a melancholy sigh, and said, "Your parents are now buried in Wade Mountain in the western suburbs."

"Wade Mountain?" Because Charlie Wade listened to Orrin uttering these words, he didn't know it belonged to Wade.

Therefore, he asked in surprise: "Uncle Orrin, why haven't I heard of this place you are talking about?"

Orrin said: "Wade Mountain is actually a mountain with excellent Fengshui in the western suburbs. Originally, your parents were buried in the tomb of Sabil in the northern suburbs, but something happened to the Wade family four years ago. I bought this mountain and renamed it Wade Mountain. Wade is the leaf of your Wade family, and the mausoleum is the mausoleum."

After speaking, Orrin said again: "After the Wade family bought Wade Mountain, they invested hundreds of millions to refurbish and develop the mountain. This development took three years. It was not completed until last spring. After the completion, Wade So the family moved the entire ancestral tomb. When the ancestral tomb was moved, there was a lot of movement and great momentum, and everyone in Eastcliff didn't know it." Charlie Wade frowned: "The Wade family has been in Eastcliff for hundreds of years. Over a hundred ancestors were buried in the ancestral tomb. On such a large scale, the Wade family said that the accommodating whole moved?"

Orrin nodded and said, "I heard the rumors about this incident that your grandfather fell ill unexpectedly four years ago, but no problem can be found. It will not help to seek medical advice everywhere."

"Later, the Wade family also traveled across the famous Sichuan and Dashan Mountains across the country and visited many experts. After seeing the experts, they all left without saying a word, turning around, and asking why they didn't mention a word... .."

"Your grandfather was in a madness, he went to the United States in person, and he invited back a hundred-year-old Chinese feng shui master after three visits to the thatched cottage. After the feng shui master came, he visited the tomb and said what the feng shui bureau of the Wade family is Longkun Shoal , And it's not easy to resolve, so he instructed the Wade family to move the ancestral grave to Wade Mountain..."

Chapter 1529

Charlie Wade didn't care too much about Wade Family Fengshui and moving the ancestral grave.

He has no interest in the people and affairs of the Wade Family. For the Wade family, he actually only cared about two things. First, where the parents are buried, and whether they can mourn by themselves;

Secondly, who did the parents hurt and whether they were the Wade family members. As for the other things of the Wade Family, he didn't want to take it into his mind.

Therefore, after listening to Orrin's introduction of Wadeling Mountain, Charlie Wade asked: "Uncle Orrin, can I go to Wade Mountain to mourn?"

Orrin said: "Wade Mountain is the ancestral tomb of your Wade family and a place of feng shui. Usually the Wade family controls it very strictly. Outsiders can't enter at all. Even if I go, I have to greet the Wade family in advance and make an appointment. But you are Wade family son, just say hello and you should be able to go directly."

Charlie Wade shook his head and said, "Uncle Orrin, I don't want to tell you anything. I don't want the Wade family to know that I have come to Eastcliff, so I don't want to have too much contact with them for the time being."

Orrin thought for a while, and then said: "Well, let me call your uncle later and say I want to pay homage to your parents and ask him to say hello to the people below. Then you disguise for a while and talk to I can go there together. After all, you look so much like your father. If you are in your generation, Parents Wade, they will definitely recognize you."

Charlie Wade hurriedly got up and bowed deeply to Orrin: "Uncle Orrin, thank you for your accomplishment!"

Orrin hurriedly got up to help, and said with a trembling, "Charlie Wade, what are you...what are you doing? You are the great benefactor of our family, why bother to salute me for this little thing..."

Charlie Wade said solemnly: "Uncle Orrin, it's not a trivial matter to me that my deceased parents mattered. My parents passed away eighteen years ago and I never went to the grave to pay filial piety. It's really unfaithful and unfilial. It is of great significance to me that you can fulfill me and give me this opportunity to fulfill my filial piety. How can I not salute you!"

Upon hearing this, Orrin hurriedly said to himself: "Oh, I said the wrong thing. This is really not a trivial matter. Don't worry, uncle will take you there tomorrow!"

Angie on the side said: "I will go with my daughter. If you and your father go, the Wade family will easily become suspicious. After all, the Wade family knows what is going on in our family. Besides you, our family also There are no young men."

Orrin said: "It doesn't matter, you can let Charlie Wade pretend to be my driver."

Angie nodded, but insisted, "Then our mothers should be with you, too. I haven't visited Brother Wade and Sister Wade for half a year."

"Yes!" Stefanie hurriedly said, "Dad, you can let me and mom go together too!"

Orrin nodded and said, "Okay, then go together tomorrow!"

After speaking, he thought about the time, and said: "In this way, in the morning, Charlie Wade and I will go to the group to open the board of directors. You two will wait at home. After the meeting, we will come over and pick you up."

Angie immediately agreed and said: "Okay!"

.....

Between pushing the cup and changing the cup, Charlie Wade and Orrin killed the four-jin bottle of Moutai.

They were full of food and drink, and the two of them were in high spirits, so Orrin took him and looked through many old photos in the study.

These old photos all have Charlie Wade's parents. The earliest photos were when Charlie Wade's parents were just married and before Charlie Wade.

Chapter 1530

Charlie Wade's parents, from the looks of them, are also absolutely human beings.

Charlie Wade's father is handsome, and his mother is glamorous and generous, especially the beauty of Charlie Wade's mother, Angie can't compare with it, no matter what era, they are outstanding.

It's a pity that the pair of golden boys and girls who were famous in Eastcliff back then are now gone, leaving only mottled images and remaining memories.

At that time, Orrin was not married, so at the wedding, he stood alone beside Charlie Wade's father and took a photo with Charlie Wade's parents.

Then there are photos of Orrin and Angie's wedding.

Charlie Wade's parents were there to congratulate his wedding.

So, the four of them took a group photo.

Then, it was Charlie Wade who was born, and the four people in the photo became five people. He was wrapped in a baby and hugged by his mother.

Then Stefanie was born.

As a result, the photo became six people.

These six people, from two children in their infancy, became Charlie Wade standing beside their parents, and then Stefanie also standing beside their parents.

Then, there was a group photo of the two children.

Charlie Wade is half a head taller than Stefanie, so he looks like a big brother, while Stefanie is like a little sister, closely following Charlie Wade's side.

What's interesting is that in the group photo of the two people, each Stefanie grasped Charlie Wade's arm tightly, with a very happy expression.

Charlie Wade, who was on the side, always had a pretentious taste, deliberately trying to keep a distance from Stefanie.

Orrin sighed while looking at these old photos for him: "I didn't expect that time flies so fast. In a blink of an eye, you are already so old."

Charlie Wade saw so many old photos of his parents, his eyes were red, and he almost shed tears several times, but he abruptly endured it.

Seeing this, Orrin patted his shoulder lightly and said, "Charlie Wade, your parents know well. If you know the news of your safety, you will definitely be very happy."

Charlie Wade nodded and said with emotion: "It's just that I feel a little shameless to face them. I haven't visited them for so many years, and I am ashamed. Moreover, for so many years, I haven't made any proud achievements or sorry for the cultivation of my parents."

"Don't say that." Orrin said earnestly: "Your parents are open-minded throughout their lives, and they have never hoped that their sons will become a dragon. They are the dragons and phoenixes among people, so the expectation of you has always been that you can grow up healthy and happy for a lifetime. Don't have any sorrows and troubles."

Speaking of this, Orrin smiled and said, "Do you know that your mother really likes the name Lily in Jin Yong's novels? I think it's a very good name, but Lily in the book is not a good person. When you were born, your mother joked that if you were a little girl, she would name you Lily."

Charlie Wade smiled knowingly, thinking of his mother, there was a warm current in his heart.

Indeed, as Orrin said, my mother never hoped that she would become a dragon or a phoenix. She told herself from an early age that a person needs to be happy when he is alive. It is enough to be a kind and upright person. Achievement and status are not important.

After chatting with Orrin for an afternoon, when Angie came in to deliver the fruit, she said to Charlie Wade: "Charlie Wade, the guest room has been prepared for you. On the second floor next to the girl's room, you drank so much wine at noon. Go back to your room and rest for a while. If there is anything, you can just find us directly."

"Okay." Charlie Wade nodded: "Thank you Angie."

Chapter 1531

At this moment. In the top ward of Sun's Hospital.

Hank, the second child of the Sun family, and Carl, the third child, received the first stage of treatment after taking CT of the affected area.

CT showed that Hank's wrist was broken and Carl's bladder was damaged.

Although neither of them is life-threatening, they need to be treated for a while.

And these are all thanks to Charlie Wade.

This Sun's hospital is a private high-level hospital invested by the Sun family.

Although the overall strength is not comparable to a top-tier tertiary hospital such as Union Medical College Hospital, it is definitely a leader among private hospitals.

The top families of Eastcliff actually each have their own private hospitals.

Although these hospitals are external in name, in most cases, they do not receive patients from outside at all.

Basically, they are exclusively for internal family use.

Now, except for the two brothers Hank and Carl, all the other people who were driven away from Orrin's house by Charlie Wade have also come here, discussing countermeasures with black faces.

What happened today was a huge accident that they never dreamed of.

They didn't expect that there would be a strange man in the house of Orrin;

Second, I didn't expect the strength of this strange man to be terribly strong.

A God of War and a realm master that Hank has hired heavily, has been diagnosed with severe symptoms of muscle weakness by the hospital.

This disease is very mysterious, and the medical community has not figured out what this ghost disease is.

Once sick, the muscles of the whole body will gradually lose their strength, and the skeletal muscles are very easy to fatigue, that is, the body is weak and tired.

If the condition continues to worsen, a young male laborer may not even be able to hold a bottle of water.

In more serious cases, you can't even control your eyelids.

The doctor in the hospital conducted a very systematic examination on the God of War and the realm master, and found that there was a big obstacle in the neuromuscular transmission of the two, which was a typical symptom of muscle weakness.

In fact, this was mainly because Charlie Wade used Reiki to seal the meridians of the two of them, but the doctor could not explore the existence of Reiki, and could only determine that they had muscle weakness from the clinical manifestations.

This makes Sun's second and third family members unable to understand. what happened?

Obviously he is a master of masters. When he arrived at Sun's house, he was lifted up by the kid like a chicken, and then he became weak?

This is too damn mysterious, right? Is that kid a hidden master?

Chapter 1532

But the masters of the hidden world pretend to obey the Basic Law as well. Why do they cause muscle weakness by pinching their necks?

It's like touching other people's faces and turning them into impotence. It's unreasonable!

The two families are very sad and want to find a chance to teach the kid from the eldest brother's family, but they don't know who is his last name, let alone what he comes from.

In fact, the most important thing is that the God of War and the realm master did not have a trick under the hands of others. Who else could they find to help kill them?

Hank was even more depressed. Not only did he lose a God of War and a realm master, he was also broken by Charlie Wade, which can be said to be a heavy loss.

When has he been so wronged?

At this moment, he even wanted to kill Charlie Wade's family.

It's a pity that he couldn't think of how to avenge the blood and hatred at this moment.

Carl was clutching his aching bladder. Seeing that his second brother was frantically licking his teeth, he hurriedly offered a plan: "Second brother, I said this, in fact, you don't need to retaliate in a hurry. Let's take the shares in the hands of the older brother first. what!"

"Yes, dad!" Carl's son Trevor also said, "My third uncle is right. We should get the shares and family property now. This is the top priority!" Hank said coldly: "That's right, I think your uncle will be alive within a few days, at most two or three months. Let's get the money first, and then find that kid to settle the account!"

Carl hurriedly asked, "Second brother, what good idea do you have for the board of directors tomorrow?"

Hank sneered: "I have already told several other shareholders that half of them are willing to cooperate with us to seize power. Although the remaining half are still thinking about the good of elder brother, it is not to be afraid, because we are now united. The share of rising has exceeded 51%!"

Carl asked: "Then we will force the eldest brother to hand over the position of chairman tomorrow?"

"Yes." Hank gritted his teeth and said: "At that time, I will come directly to the board of directors to force the palace. With the equity of the two of us and those who support us, we will directly vote to abolish his chairmanship and recommend me to do it. The new chairman! This will be able to reasonably and legally take over the Sun Group!"

As he said, Hank couldn't help but smile and said, "When I get the chairman's seat, I will begin to transfer the assets of the Sun Group."

Carl smiled and echoed: "After the assets are transferred to other company shells, the big brother's shares will be empty and have no value at all."

Trevor hurriedly asked: "Dad, what about uncle's personal assets? He has so many deposits, mansions, luxury cars, private islands, private jets, private yachts, and a large number of antiques. It is said that he has collected celebrity calligraphy and paintings over the years. That adds up to billions?"

"Billions?" Hank curled his lips: "You too underestimate your uncle! The calligraphy and paintings in the hands of Mr. Wanda are almost over 10 billion. The calligraphy and paintings in your uncle's hands are less than two or three hundred. Hundreds of millions! These are all held in the bank vault."

Trevor's eyes flashed greedy, and he said excitedly: "Dad! We must get this batch of calligraphy and paintings! Real estate can't rise now, and future income is limited, but the appreciation of antique calligraphy and paintings is really too much. Big! Look at the famous paintings of the world's famous artists, which one can't start with a hundred million dollars?"

Hank nodded and said coldly: "Don't worry, I already have a complete plan. I will first take the position of chairman, then transfer all the assets of the group, and then force your uncle to make a will and The property is given to us, otherwise, I will never make him feel better! Even if he dies, I will not make his wife and daughter feel better!"

Carl rubbed his hands in excitement: "Then wait for the board meeting tomorrow, and give my dear eldest brother a good show!"

Hank smiled and said: "Tomorrow, I will launch a cultural change on the board of directors to force Orrin to give way and rebuild a more prosperous Sun Group !"

Carl licked his face and said, "Second brother, don't forget your brother when that happens. You will be the only one looking forward to everything in the future for your brother!"

"That's natural!" Hank patted Carl's shoulder with his left hand, and smiled: "You and I have been living in the shadow of the boss for so many years, and it's time for the two of us to get started!"

Chapter 1533

When Hank and Carl are planning a bright future, Trevor and Daniel on the side also have their own thoughts.

The three Sun family brothers gave birth to eight children in total.

Orrin has only one daughter, Stefanie.

And Hank has three children, two daughters and one son, Trevor.

Carl has four children, three daughters, and one son, Daniel.

Because male males are not very prosperous, Trevor and Daniel, respectively, will undoubtedly be the only heirs to their father's property in the future.

Daniel saw the cordial enthusiasm between his father and his second uncle, and couldn't help but look at himself and his cousin Trevor next to him, and wondered in his heart: "When I inherit my father's family property and shares in the future, will I have to be like my father cheating on the second uncle? , Go to cheat my cousin? If I need to stick to him in the future, shouldn't I just start to suck him up now?"

And his cousin Trevor thought, the cousin Daniel next to him is actually not very clever, and he is not a compatriot with him. To be honest, the relationship is not deep.

My father, my third uncle, and even the eldest brother who is a naughty compatriot can cheat him, so in the future, can I also learn how to cheat Daniel?

Thinking of this, he felt that the nature of this matter was actually very interesting.

First, the family property was divided into three, and the second family and the third family joined forces to annex the old family.

Then the second family looked for a chance to annex the third family.

Then, wouldn't the entire Sun family fall into his own hands?

At this point, Trevor couldn't help getting excited!

Don't look at Sun's family in the entire Eastcliff, it can only be ranked third.

However, if you can sit on the entire Sun family alone, you can become the richest person in Eastcliff, not one of them.

Even if it was the top two big families of the Wade family and the Banks Family, it was impossible for anyone to be richer than the Sun family.

At that time, I said that I could not be a real Chinese richest man!

Daniel didn't know that his cousin who wanted to hurry up was actually starting to plan how to cheat him.

He deliberately had nothing to say, and Daniel said to Trevor with a smile on his face: "Hey, Brother Trevor, you said that the uncle's mischief, is it the boyfriend of the daughter?"

Trevor shook his head: "I don't know. The girl is also a public figure. If she falls in love, the paparazzi will definitely dig it out, right? But I haven't heard anything."

Daniel chuckled and said, "Do you remember that this dog ran the train with his mother's mouth full, and said that we will be infertile in the future. f*ck, when I get the chance, he must get rid of his stuff. Let him know what is true infertility!"

Trevor snorted coldly: "Damn, Master is very capable in that aspect. He is well-known in the upper circle of Eastcliff. Dare to say that it makes me infertile? f*ck, the woman I played with is better than him. Have seen so many!"

"Yes!" Daniel complimented: "Trevor, how does that female celebrity you got started two days ago feel?"

"It's okay." Trevor said casually: "It's not bad, it's a bit poor, and it's too thin."

Daniel hurriedly said flatteringly: "Trevor, I have a brother who runs a brokerage company that specializes in cultivating high-end models. There are several great European girls. Are you interested in getting started and changing tastes?"

Trevor frowned, a trace of lust flashed in his eyes, and asked, "When?"

Daniel hurriedly said, "It's better to hit the sun if you choose another day, just chant today! Later you will take my car and I will take you directly, how about it?"

Chapter 1534

"Yes!" Trevor nodded without hesitation.

Today, he was humiliated by Charlie Wade. He was in a depressed mood. Unexpectedly, Daniel immediately arranged an opportunity for himself to vent the fire, and naturally he immediately agreed.

.....

In the evening.

Brothers Trevor and Daniel came out of the hospital. They drove a car and went to an extremely high-end club in Eastcliff.

The name of this club is very popular, it is called No.1 Mansion.

If you want to set up a VIP in Mansion One, you have to shoot at least 10 million.

Because here, VIP has its own luxurious suites, which not only include restaurants, ktv, bathing hot springs and spa services, but also bedrooms, meeting rooms, chess and card rooms.

In addition, VIP also has its own personal butler and personal attendant. Once you come here, you can enjoy the dedicated imperial service, which is more chic than the ancient emperor.

In other words, the members who have organized here can not only eat, drink and have fun, but also hold business meetings and banquets, which have a wide range of uses.

Moreover, the privacy here is excellent, so you don't have to worry about leaking your privacy.

Because of the many benefits of No.1 Mansion, it is deeply loved by the rich Eastcliff.

Both Trevor and Daniel are members here, but they rarely play together, they all play their own games.

Today, in order to please Trevor, Daniel asked his friend who started a brokerage company to bring four young European models over, and he was ready to let Trevor have a good time. It was also considered as laying the foundation for his future.

Trevor was holding his stomach and couldn't vent, just planning to have a good time here tonight.

Soon, four young blond models were brought over, and each one was beautiful and moving, which made Trevor excited.

He immediately and unceremoniously chose the two most beautiful and best figures, and went to the luxurious bedroom in the suite.

And Daniel also took him to pick the remaining two and went to another room.

Five minutes later, the brothers ran out of their rooms in a panic.

The two looked at each other at the door, or Trevor spoke first: "Daniel, can you do that?"

Daniel was crying and shook his head. He spoke with tremors and crying voices. He choked up and said, "Brother, I'm not working anymore... I have no feeling or reaction at all. I'm so f*cking infertile... ."

After speaking, he looked at Trevor and asked him: "You brother, do you still have it?"

Trevor sat down on the ground and muttered: "Damn, I am gone...what the hell is going on, this is...I'm only in my twenties. How can I say that I can't do it?"

Daniel asked, "Brother, do you feel like that part has been completely disconnected from the body?"

Trevor nodded brightly and said with red eyes: "Damn, that's how it feels..."

Daniel was crumbling, pressed against the wall, and slowly slipped to the ground, desperately saying, "Brother, what do you say about this..."

Trevor said in a flustered manner: "Could it be that the kid today was right? No way! You have to go to the hospital and check it out. What's going on!"

Chapter 1535

The two brothers had just slipped away from the hospital more than half an hour ago, and hurried back soon afterwards.

To find out this kind of hidden disease, they only trust their own hospital, because if they are in other hospitals, it is likely to leak the wind.

If Eastcliff's dudes knew that the two young masters of the Sun family had suddenly lost their ability in that respect, it would not only be shame for them, but the entire Sun family would be embarrassed because of them.

Become the object of ridicule for the entire Eastcliff after dinner.

The two returned to the hospital, ignoring their father, who was still training in the ward, and rushed directly into the office of the hospital director.

The dean was preparing to get off work at this time, and suddenly saw the two young masters of the Sun family coming, and immediately asked compliments: "Master Daniel, Master Trevor, what can you do with me?"

Trevor blurted out: "Dean, quickly arrange for someone to check it up for us. We are both sick!"

The dean asked in surprise: "Everything is wrong? What is the problem? You two will probably introduce me, and then I will arrange related experts to check on you two immediately!"

Trevor looked around. There was no one else in the office, and the doors and windows of the room were closed. So he gritted his teeth and resisted embarrassment and said, "I don't seem to feel anymore!"

"There? Where?"

Trevor pointed to his crotch: "Damn, here, where the hell could it be, do you know it?"

The dean hurriedly waved his hands in fright: "No, no, Master Trevor, how come there is no feeling there? Is it because you have encountered a functional obstacle?"

"It's a hindrance to your mother!" Trevor cursed, "I don't feel it at all, understand? It's just like a f*cking disconnect! I can't feel it anymore!"

"No?!" The dean exclaimed: "I have never encountered this kind of thing. It stands to reason that this is unlikely. If the ability is damaged, there may be some obstacles, but it is impossible. I can't feel it at all!"

Trevor slapped him and scolded, "I f*cking need you to repeat what I have said with interrogative sentences? Hurry up and arrange an examination for me. If the best treatment period is delayed, I will kill you.!"

When Daniel saw his cousin start his hand, he immediately stepped forward and kicked the dean, gritted his teeth and said, "f*ck you not in a hurry? Believe it or not to fire you tonight?"

The dean was extremely aggrieved, but dared not to speak, so he respectfully said: "Two young masters, wait a minute, I will arrange for an andrology expert to come over!"

Soon after, the andrology specialist from the hospital came to the dean's office.

After understanding the relevant situation, he immediately took the two young masters of the Sun family to the examination room for examination. Ten minutes later, the andrology expert group of the entire hospital gathered in the examination room.

Some have already drove a few kilometers away from get off work, and some are simply taking a break today, but because of the important matter, they are still called over.

The expert team of seven or eight people was at a loss for the situation of the two young masters of the Sun family.

They used various means to check and found nothing abnormal, but the two always insisted that they didn't feel anything at all.

This incident disturbed Hank and Carl who were resting in the intensive care unit.

The two heard that their sons had some problems, so they hurried over.

After inquiring about the situation, the two were shocked!

Chapter 1536

Hank trembled all over, and blurted out and asked the director of the andrology department: "What the hell is going on? Has the cause been investigated?"

The director of the andrology department wiped a cold sweat, and said: "Second master, this thing is really weird. We have used various methods to check, but there is no clue. I have been in andrology for decades, and I have never seen it. Have such cases..."

Orrin was looking at the two crying children, frowning and asked, "Is there no way to cure it?"

The director of the andrology department said embarrassingly: "Second Lord, whether it can be cured is the second stage of the problem. The first stage of the problem is to figure out what is going on first, and we are completely confused now... ."

Hank felt dizzy in his brain, and thought to himself:

"What the hell is this?"

"The two children are both in their twenties, and the youngest Daniel is just in his early twenties. Isn't that clear?!"

"Sun family, but these two males!"

"If neither of them can work, then who will succeed the Sun family in the future?"

"I haven't had a grandson yet!"

Thinking of this, Hank hurriedly looked at his son Trevor, and blurted out: "Trevor, tell your dad, what is going on? How do you feel?"

Trevor was dragged to do so many tests. The doctor hadn't found out what was going on, so he became more and more desperate at this time, crying and saying, "Dad! I don't know what's going on! It's inexplicable. No, the key is that I don't feel anything. I pinch with my nails, but I don't feel anything at all. Even if it hurts, it's a good thing..."

Daniel also cried and said: "I also pinched secretly just now. I didn't have much energy, but I still felt nothing..."

Carl almost couldn't stand firmly, and hurriedly comforted: "Son, don't worry, son, hold on first, don't panic, let's slowly figure out a solution!"

Trevor said at this time: "Dad, do you think it has anything to do with the kid I met at the uncle's house today? That kid said today that if I want to lose my fertility, I thought this kid was just a bad mouth. But looking at it now, this thing is too damn fable, could it be he did it?"

"That's right!" Daniel also resentfully said: "That kid has a cheap mouth. If he says he is better, he can ligate us both..."

"Cloud ligation?!" Several male doctors were stunned.

Having studied medicine for many years, who the hell has heard of such a thing as Ligation?

It's totally impossible!

Hank suddenly thought of what Charlie Wade said at the time, his expression became more and more solemn.

At this time, he looked at Carl next to him, and said puzzledly: "Third brother, do you remember? That kid seemed to have asked both of us, saying that we are not too old and that we still have fertility..."

"Remember!" Carl nodded again and again: "That kid was too damn bad to talk, I was still scolding him in my heart!"

Hank smacked his lips and said solemnly: "Why do I think the more and more the f*ck I feel, what's wrong with this..."

Having said that, he frowned for a while and was silent for a while, then suddenly reached out and grabbed a hand into his crotch...

After catching this one, he looked horrified and shouted in a panic:

"Quick! Doctor, I can't feel it anymore. Check it out for me as soon as possible!!!"

Chapter 1537

Hank's words not only shocked everyone present, but also made the third child Carl around him involuntarily clamp his legs.

In terms of probability and logic, the son, nephew, and second elder brother all have problems in that area, and the chances that they will be spared accidentally are very slim.

Therefore, he also hurriedly inserted his hand into his trouser pocket, through the lining of the trouser pocket, went there and pinched it.

After this pinch, he was shocked immediately!

Because of him, I can't feel it at all...

He immediately cried and wailed, "I am still there! Check it out for me too, and I suddenly didn't feel it..."

The whole treatment room is full of shock...

This.....

This is too incredible, right?

Two generations of the Sun family and four males have all lost that ability? !

How is this possible?

If it is caused by illness, most of the diseases similar to the deterioration of body function are not contagious, like paralysis, stroke, Parkinson, frostbite, and muscle weakness. Similar diseases have never been contagious.

Therefore, if one of these four people had such a problem, it would still be understandable.

However, four people appear at the same time, which is too weird?

Moreover, even if it is a genetic problem, there has never been a case of a family of four at the same time.

For example, all men in this family have inherited the gene for hair loss. There is also a period of time. For example, they all begin to lose a lot of hair around the age of 40, and they are completely bald around the age of 50.

However, I have never heard of anyone with hereditary hair loss. Then one day, four men, forty-eight, forty-six, twenty-four, and twenty-one, all became bald at the same time. What a thing!

The director of the andrology department became more and more confused as he thought about it, and his already nervous palms were full of sweat.

Because he has no idea where to start the treatment.

After a systematic test, he was basically able to determine that all the four people in the Sun family had exactly the same symptoms, but he just didn't understand what caused them to get sick.

So he hurriedly asked: "Second Master and Third Master, you two will help me carefully recall what unusual places you have been to together recently, what unusual foods have been eaten together, and what unusual things have been encountered together. Things? Especially things with radioactive contamination!"

"No!" Hank blurted out: "We have been in Eastcliff for this period of time, and we haven't been anywhere! We haven't touched anything strange!"

Carl nodded again and again: "Our respective homes have comprehensive monitoring equipment. The quality of water supply and air quality are constantly monitored. There are no sources of pollution in the house, and a comprehensive radiological investigation has been done. There is absolutely no possibility of any radioactive materials. ."

"That's too weird..." The director of the andrology department bit the bullet and said, "The current situation is that the cause of the disease cannot be found at all. If the cause of the disease cannot be found, there is no way to start!"

Hank yelled: "Mom's waste! I can't even find the cause of the disease. What the hell do I want you to do?!"

The director of the andrology department said humbly: "Second Lord, you can certainly realize this is very strange without me. It may even be beyond the scope of medicine, so even if you beat me and scold me, it will not help! We are now We must work together to find a way to find out the cause of the disease, and then follow the path to find a cure..."

Chapter 1538

Orrin just gritted his teeth and cursed: "Why do you have so many excuses? If you can't do it, you can't do it. What the hell is it? If you can't, just get out of here, and come over with something that works!" On the contrary, Hank stopped Carl, frowning and thinking for a long time.

He also realized that this matter is really strange, I am afraid it is really not a medical matter.

At this moment, his son Trevor suddenly yelled: "Oh! Dad! Could it be the bastard at the uncle's house today?!"

Hank blurted out, "You said it was the kid who did it with me?!"

"That's right!" Trevor said: "He kept talking about cloud ligation at the time. He also said that it made me infertile. He even said that if we ask him for something, we will kneel at the door of the uncle's villa. Could this be done by him?"

Hank felt a little bit in his heart: "f*ck! It's really possible that the kid did this thing! After all, that kid hooked up and made my next God of War and a realm master weak. Maybe the current situation of our family is inseparable from him!"

Thinking of this, Hank gritted his teeth and cursed: "Damn, if it's that bastard, I must kill him!"

Carl hurriedly said: "Brother, how did we kill him? Did you forget how abnormal his strength is? Even if you send five war gods and five realm masters, I'm afraid you can't beat him!"

Trevor also said to the side: "Yes, Dad, today we went to the uncle's house and caught the uncle by surprise. Now the uncle must have sent someone to protect him tightly. Even without that kid, we're afraid we won't be able to get anything cheap."

When Hank heard this, he suddenly became decadent again.

This is so f*cking uncomfortable.

Knowing that it was the ghost of that kid, but he couldn't provoke him. How to mess with it?

Bring dozens of masters over, maybe there are more than a hundred masters around the villa secretly protecting it.

Coupled with the incredible strength of that kid, he certainly has no chance of winning!

Thinking of this, he gritted his teeth and said coldly: "It seems that we still have to take a long-term view. Let's bear with him first. On the board of directors tomorrow, we will take down the position of chairman." The other three nodded.

Right now, it's not the time to go head-to-head with Orrin and Charlie Wade, but to find a way to take the position of Chairman Orrin first. Once he seizes his power in the group, the situation will undergo a huge change. By then, Orrin can only be eroded!

After making up his mind, Hank said to the director of the andrology department: "You can arrange to get a part of the sperm for the four of us to freeze!"

"Frozen sperm?!" The others were also a little surprised. Carl asked, "Big brother, which one are you doing?"

Hank said with a cold face: "I'm afraid that if we really can't recover, the blood of the two families and the blood of the entire Sun family will be severed. First, freeze the sperm. In case we can't recover, we can still use artificial insemination. Way to continue the blood!"

Carl suddenly understood that the second brother was planning for the worst, leaving seeds for the two families first.

He couldn't help sighing from the bottom of his heart: "I have to say that the second brother's idea is very far-sighted. At first glance, he is a person who has a great view of the overall situation! If you want to be yourself, you will definitely not think of this. When the time comes, the worst situation will come. Didn't that Sun family cut off their children?"

Chapter 1539

Trevor and Daniel, two young people, also realized the importance of this matter, so they both nodded in agreement.

If you freeze the sperm first, you will leave the seeds. It is very easy to want a child later.

After all, as the old saying goes, be prepared!

Therefore, the director of the andrology department immediately arranged painless manual sampling for the four people and prepared a series of tests at the same time.

As long as it is taken out, it will be sampled for testing immediately, and the rest will be frozen at ultra-low temperature with liquid nitrogen. Once the testing is completed and there is no problem, it can be safely stored for a long time.

However, when the samples were taken out and tested under the testing equipment, the doctors discovered a fact that they could not believe. When they reported the results to the director of the andrology department, the director of the andrology department was swaying with fright.

Hank and others saw that his face was very ugly, and immediately asked, "What's the matter? Is there anything unusual?"

The director of the andrology department swallowed his saliva, forced himself to calm down, and said: "Second...Second Master... Third Master...There are also two Young Masters... The results have come out. The survival rate of your four seeds is... the survival rate..."

Seeing him grimacing, Trevor yelled anxiously: "What the hell are you doing here? What the hell is the survival rate, what the hell is you!"

The director of the andrology department had no choice but to bite the bullet and said tremblingly: "The survival rate of your four seeds is zero..."

"What?!" The four of them exclaimed. Carl injured his bladder, and his body was a little weak. One of them couldn't stand firmly and sat on the ground with a thud.

This news is like a bolt from the blue to the Sun family!

The survival rate of seeds is zero. Doesn't this mean that they no longer have the ability to reproduce offspring? !

Hank's frightened hands were shaking, and even his right hand wrapped in plaster was shaken by him.

He trembled and asked, "What the hell is going on? How could the seed not survive? I have always been normal!"

"Yeah!" Trevor also cried and said, "A few months ago, I just enlarged the belly of a tender model. In order to prevent her from haunting me, it took a million to get her abortion... Why is there no survival rate now?"

When Hank heard this, he slapped him with his left hand angrily, and cursed: "You bastard! We've made other people's stomachs bigger, so we won't let her give birth?! What if we are born as a son? , Don't our family have a future?"

Trevor was full of grievances and choked up: "Dad! You reminded me repeatedly that when you asked me to mess around outside, don't make a woman's belly bigger, let alone have an illegitimate child. You said that this would affect me in other colleges. The image in the eyes of the family will reduce my worth a lot, and I will not be able to marry the eldest daughter of the top family in the future, so I will spend money to have her abortion! Isn't this all according to your intentions?"

Hank yelled, raised his hand and slapped him several times, and while slapped, he cursed resentfully: "Make your mouth cheap! Make your mouth cheap! Make your mouth cheap!!!"

In fact, he knew very well that what his son Trevor said was the truth. Among the wealthy families in China, marriage is a good match.

This good match depends not only on the strength of the family, but also on the quality of both men and women.

If it is also a hundred-billion-class family, the male looks wretched, and the female has a delicate appearance, then there is no doubt that the eldest lady of this hundred-billion-class family cannot be regarded as the young master of this hundred-billion-class family.

If it is the same hundred billion-class family, men are just like talents, and women are in a mess, the elders and young masters will not compromise.

In addition to looks, if one of them is inferior, it will also greatly reduce their own value.

Chapter 1540

Among them, the most detrimental point for men is having illegitimate children outside.

Big family marriages, regardless of whether they are men or women, are spoiled by their parents. Which eldest lady is willing to marry an illegitimate child and become a stepmother? impossible.

Even when Stefanie met Charlie Wade again, she paid great attention to this matter. How could she be willing to be a stepmother at a young age and a young lady?

Hank also wants his son to maintain his own competitiveness, so he has repeatedly warned him that it is okay to play outside, but he must not have children.

At that time, he never thought that his son would lose his fertility one day!

It's better now, the seed survival rate is zero, and an illegitimate child has been killed. Isn't it true that we will cut off the children and grandchildren in the future?

Trevor was also very angry.

It's useless by itself, and the seed has no survival rate. Not only will I have no chance to get close to beauty in the future, but also have no chance to be a father. Isn't this just being an eunuch? !

Thinking of this, he looked at Hank with trepidation, and blurted out:

"Dad! This must be the bastard of the uncle's house. He has done something to us, or let's beg him! Nothing can be said. I'm still young, I don't want to be a living eunuch in the future..."

Daniel on the side was also scared to death, crying and said, "Second Uncle, Dad, I don't want to be a living eunuch either..."

Hank said with a black face: "Now go and beg him, what will the board of directors do tomorrow? When I was at your uncle's house today, I had already let go of the conversation. I will see him at the board of directors tomorrow. If today we run to beg that kid, They are bound to threaten the board of directors!"

"Moreover, maybe your uncle will use this to force me and your third uncle to sell all the voting rights. In that case, we will never be able to defeat your uncle!"

In the Sun Group, shares and voting rights correspond.

In other words, if you own 51% of the shares, you have 51% of the voting rights.

As long as the voting power accounts for 51%, all company affairs can be determined.

But there are exceptions.

For example, if Hank voluntarily, or is forced to surrender the voting rights corresponding to the part of the shares he owns, to Orrin completely, then Orrin will have his part of the right to speak.

As for Hank, although the shares are still there, the voting rights are gone and the voice is gone.

This is also the fundamental reason why Ali's Jack Ma has a very low shareholding ratio, but has a high right to speak.

Other shareholders trust him, or can't beat him, and transfer all the voting rights to him, then he will naturally be able to say nothing.

This is what Hank is worried about right now.

He was extremely depressed at this time, and couldn't help but secretly said: "It's all the damn blame me for being mean. I first mentioned the board of directors and gave my eldest brother a bit of prestige. If I go to my eldest brother now, I will definitely be countered by this!"

"So, in any case, I have to endure it until I succeed in seizing power tomorrow!"

"It really doesn't work, you can use the money to buy the young man in Brother's house after the matter is done!"

"One hundred million is not enough, and one billion is not enough. After all, there are no people in this world who can't move money!"

Chapter 1541

Because he didn't dare to delay the board's plan to seize power tomorrow, Hank decided to endure tonight first.

At the same time, he immediately asked the dean of the hospital to promise to pay a lot of money to find some top experts in related fields from the United States, and let them come and try to see if they can be cured by medical means.

If you can, that would be the best. When that happens, you don't need to ask the kid, just kill him!

If you can't...

Then this thing is a bit tricky, in order to keep on surpassing children and grandchildren, maybe I actually kneel down for that kid to beg for mercy!

Thinking of Charlie Wade's extremely arrogant face, Hank felt uncomfortable all over his body.

Carl on the side asked in a low voice: "Second brother, tomorrow's board of directors, won't that kid go too?"

"f*ck..." Hank felt a little bit in his heart, and his face immediately changed.

If that guy goes to the board of directors tomorrow, I am afraid it will be uncomfortable! If he helped Orrin suppress himself, what would he do? After thinking about it for a long time, he couldn't think of any solution, so he sighed and said: "Now it is meaningless to think about this, and there is no way to think of any way. When the time comes, soldiers will stop them and cover them!"

Orrin just remembered something, and whispered: "Second brother, do you remember that the kid in the eldest brother's family mentioned Kenneth Wilson from the Wilson Group? That guy came back from abroad some time ago, and he kept looking for opportunities to flatter me and want to engage with us. Click to cooperate, do you want me to ask him over to ask about the situation?"

"Okay!" Hank said hurriedly: "You can call him now and ask him to come to the hospital to see me!"

.....

Since leaving Aurouss Hilll in a dingy manner, Kenneth Wilson spent most of his time seeking medical advice all over the world, hoping to cure himself.

He first went to Japan, and then to the United States. He went around for a long time. He found a lot of doctors and spent a lot of money, but he couldn't solve the problem.

Over time, Kenneth Wilson basically gave up in his heart.

Fortunately, he was getting older and had children. After giving up treatment, he simply focused on his career.

Once a person loses lust and distractions and concentrates on his career, his concentration will increase exponentially.

Therefore, Kenneth Wilson now only wants to make the Wilson Group bigger and make more money, and then use money and material to fill his body and lust.

However, in Eastcliff, the Wilson family can only be regarded as a second-rate family, and the gap with the top family is still very large. Kenneth Wilson wanted to hug a thigh, so he hugged it, and finally got a little relationship with Carl of the Sun family.

But even though he tried desperately to kneel and lick Carl, Carl looked down on him somewhat, and didn't even think of accepting him as a dog.

When he was worried about how to conquer Carl, he suddenly received a call from Carl.

So he hurriedly connected and said flatly, "Oh, Mr. Sun, why are you free to call me?"

Carl asked him, "Old Wilson, are you in Eastcliff?"

"I'm here!" Kenneth Wilson said hurriedly, "I haven't left Eastcliff since I came back from the United States. What is your order, Mr. Sun?"

Carl said, "I want to ask you about something, but this matter is more important. Can you come to the Sun Group hospital now? Let's talk better in person."

"Yes!" Kenneth Wilson said with a smile: "Mr. Sun, wait a moment, I'll rush over!"

Chapter 1542

"Well, I'll wait for you here!"

.....

At this moment.

Charlie Wade and Orrin's family had dinner, and they were dragged by Orrin to drink a lot of liquor before returning to the guest room Angie arranged for him, taking a bath and lying down to rest.

At this time, Claire Wilson Wilson called him and asked him: "Husband, how is your progress in Eastcliff?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "It's not bad, the overall situation is fairly smooth, and it will be finished in about three days soon."

"That's good." Claire Wilson Wilson hummed, and said concerned: "You have to take care of yourself when you are outside. After all, you have never traveled far."

Charlie Wade was a little moved in his heart and smiled and said, "My wife, don't worry, I am an adult too, and can take good care of myself. I will rush back when I'm done."

"Okay." Claire Wilson Wilson smiled: "By the way, my husband, I have to ask you for something."

Charlie Wade asked hurriedly, "Wife, what are you doing so politely with me? Just tell me what's the matter."

Claire Wilson Wilson said: "That's right. Loreen was chatting with me today. She happened to be back to Eastcliff, and her grandmother had her birthday at noon the day after tomorrow. Can you help me buy some gifts to give it to her? Birthday feast?"

Charlie Wade calculated the time, and his business is mainly tomorrow. In the morning, I have to accompany Orrin to the Sun Group to participate in the board of directors, and then go to his parent's grave to pay homage to his parents. However, there is no arrangement the day after tomorrow. I was thinking about staying the day after tomorrow to see if Sun's affairs can be dusty. Settling, if the dust settles, then he will return to Aurouss Hilll the day after tomorrow.

Therefore, the day after tomorrow he was not prepared to leave Eastcliff, and it was not a big problem to drop by to attend the birthday banquet of Loreen's grandmother.

However, Charlie Wade felt somewhat uncomfortable.

Loreen came to Eastcliff on the same plane with herself. She did not say that she would let herself go to her grandma's birthday banquet. Then she chatted with Claire Wilson Wilson about the incident. She guessed that once she told Claire Wilson Wilson, Claire Wilson Wilson would definitely do it. Let yourself go?

Charlie Wade didn't really feel anything towards Loreen, but Loreen always thought a little bit carefully, which made him feel a little repulsive.

For example, that time she invited Claire Wilson Wilson to take a hot spring. In fact, the purpose was herself, but she used a curve to save the country to find a breakthrough from Claire Wilson Wilson. This time it was the same, basically a repeat of the old trick.

I don't know where this woman is interested in herself, so she has to let her give up on herself.

However, even though Charlie Wade had some opinions in his heart, he readily agreed and said, "That's it, I will prepare a gift tomorrow, and I will pass it at noon the day after tomorrow."

"Okay." Claire Wilson Wilson said, "Thank you, husband, for your hard work on my behalf. When I went to Eastcliff to play during my university, Grandma Thomas was very enthusiastic to me. I originally wanted to go to Eastcliff in person. Yes, but I have to take my mother to the hospital for a review tomorrow. If there is nothing wrong with the review, the cast on her leg will be removed, and my mother has been clamoring to hurry up the missing front teeth, so I am here. I really can't get away for a few days, I can only ask you."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Don't worry, wife, I will do it well."

Claire Wilson Wilson asked: "I'll transfer some money to you, and you can find a suitable gift at a price of around 100,000 Dollar. As for what you buy, I believe in your vision!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "You don't need to transfer money to me, I have money, and the customers here have already settled the bill in advance."

Claire Wilson Wilson was surprised and said: "So generous!"

Charlie Wade said: "After all, it's a big family!"

Claire Wilson Wilson said: "Well! In that case, then I won't be polite to you! Thank you husband!"

Chapter 1543

Kenneth Wilson sat on his Rolls Royce, galloping on the road at night. He is very trendy at this time.

After all, it was the invitation of Carl, the third member of the Sun family, who was going to go.

Although Carl ranks at the bottom of the Sun family and does not have any real power, he is still a direct heir of the Sun family after all. Both the amount of assets and the social status are much stronger than Kenneth Wilson.

Therefore, Kenneth Wilson desperately tried to flatter him, hoping to pass him and catch the Sun family line.

Although he didn't know what Orrin had just looking for himself, but he could take the initiative to find himself, which in itself was a big improvement.

Twenty minutes later.

Kenneth Wilson rushed to Sun's Hospital, when Carl's son Daniel was already waiting at the door.

Seeing Kenneth Wilson, he stepped forward and asked, "Is it Uncle Wilson?"

Kenneth Wilson nodded hurriedly and smiled and asked, "Are you Sun's son?"

"Yes." Daniel nodded and said, "Uncle Wilson follow me in. Both my father and my second uncle are waiting for you."

Kenneth Wilson asked in surprise, "Is the second master also there?"

"Yes, they are all waiting for you."

Kenneth Wilson became excited when he heard this.

In the entire Eastcliff, everyone knows that the Sun family's boss is seriously ill and that time is running out, so everyone knows that the head of the Sun family will definitely become the second master of the Sun family, Hank.

He didn't even dare to dream that he would have a chance to get along with the second master of the Sun family.

But isn't there a ready-made opportunity in front of us today?

He hurriedly followed Daniel to the intensive care ward. In the ward, he saw Hank and Carl with strange expressions.

As soon as Orrin saw him come in, he hurriedly drove all the other people out except the second brother, leaving only three of them in the ward.

So Orrin just got into the topic and asked Kenneth Wilson: "Old Wilson, I ask you one thing, you must answer truthfully."

Kenneth Wilson said without hesitation: "Don't worry, I must know that everything is endless!"

Carl endured the shame and embarrassment, and asked, "Old Wilson, I ask you, are you infertile now?"

After Kenneth Wilson heard this, his whole body was struck by lightning, standing still, dumbfounded, not knowing what to do.

He didn't even dream of it. As soon as Orrin spoke, he asked such a question that hit the soul directly.

He could not help secretly: "I did lose my fertility, but outsiders don't know about it! How did Carl know about it? Should I admit to such a shameful thing? In addition, Carl called me over to ask me this. What is the problem?"

Seeing that Kenneth Wilson looked embarrassed, but didn't say a word, Orrin was just anxious, and he smacked his lips and said, "Oh, old Wilson, what are you doing? Is it such a question, so difficult to answer? Just tell me, is it or not?"

Although Kenneth Wilson didn't know why Carl asked himself this question, but thinking about his inexhaustible and inexhaustible promise to him just now, he still bit the bullet and said: "Mr. Sun, to be honest, I really have no fertility."

Chapter 1544

Carl and his brother Hank glanced at each other, and then he hurriedly asked: "Old Wilson, tell me, how come you have no fertility? What's the matter?"

Kenneth Wilson said awkwardly: "Mr. Sun...you...you...why are you so concerned about this issue? To be honest, it's not that I don't want to tell you, but this Such things are really ashamed to speak out!"

Hank, who hasn't spoken all the time, said, "Mr. Wilson, don't have any psychological burdens. We are looking for you. To tell the truth, it's the exchange of information between patients and patients. It's so easy for everyone to share more clues."

"what?!"

Kenneth Wilson was dumbfounded. Information exchange between patients and patients? what does it mean? Don't these two brothers have that ability now? No way? !

These two are the uncles of the Sun family! And both of them are younger than themselves, how could something go wrong at such a young age?

He couldn't help asking: "Second Lord, you...what the hell is going on?"

Hank waved his hand and said, "Mr. Wilson, let me talk about your business first. I hope you can fulfill your promise. To me and the third child, I know everything and say nothing. I want to know the whole thing. The cause and effect of the matter."

Kenneth Wilson nodded, then sighed for a long time, and said, "Hey...this matter has to be wound up, that's a long story."

Having said that, Kenneth Wilson went to Aurouss Hillll for his father's last wish, met the Wilson family, and encountered Charlie Wade being punished by Charlie Wade, and they all told the Sun family brothers.

At first, the Sun family didn't feel anything. When they heard that Charlie Wade made him confused and lost that ability, Hank hurriedly asked: "What is the origin of that kid surnamed Wade? Could it be The Wade family?"

Kenneth Wilson thought of Charlie Wade and gritted his teeth and said, "That kid named Wade, he's the son-in-law of the Wilson family in Aurouss Hillll! Damn, that family is not as small as a hair! Their group was losing money and was negative equity. I owe tens of millions to the bank. Even so, the surnamed Wade and his father-in-law's family are still despised in this family. They are just rubbish among the rubbish. How could it be from Wade's family?"

Hank hurriedly asked him: "What does that kid look like?"

Kenneth Wilson said: "He is tall, looks a little handsome, speaks a little bit forcedly, and looks awkward."

Hank frowned and said to Carl, "Maybe it's the kid in the elder brother's house!"

Carl blurted out: "It must be him! Damn, second brother, you forgot, he actively mentioned Wilson's name, he must be the same person as Charlie Wade who abolished Wilson's fertility!"

Kenneth Wilson was shocked when he heard this, and blurted out: "What do you mean, is that Charlie Wade bastard next to the two eldest brother Orrin?"

"That's right!" Hank gritted his teeth: "Today, my brothers and our sons suffered a lot from his hands. f*ck, this kid is toxic. He said he made us infertile. , We are really gone!"

"Yeah!" Carl also said angrily: "When this btch changed his mouth, just a fcking word, the four of us somehow lost that ability!"

"f*ck..." Kenneth Wilson took a breath.

Charlie Wade is too ruthless, right?

Abolish the Sun's second child, third child, and their son directly? !

The Sun family is also the third-ranked super family in Eastcliff anyway.

If this kid broke the Sun family's incense, is he not afraid of Sun family's crazy revenge? !

Chapter 1545

Kenneth Wilson was surprised and shocked, and couldn't help but sigh:

"Speaking of which, Charlie Wade is really f*cking mysterious. He also moved his mouth that day, and then I was confused..."

Having said this, Kenneth Wilson couldn't help but think of his tragic experience in Aurouss Hilll.

First he was beaten by Charlie Wade, and then he was deprived of his ability to be a man. This is not the worst!

The worst thing is that I mistakenly believed in the old thing surnamed Weaver, and ate the so-called magic medicine of the Weaver family. Not only did he fail to regain his glory, he almost broke his roots.

In the end, it was under Charlie Wade's treatment that he could barely save his roots.

As for Charlie Wade's treatment when he kept his roots, it was another history of blood and tears.

At that time, one liter of urine was matched with one liter of medicine, so that I still have a shadow.

Thinking of this, he couldn't help sighing: "Hey, you two didn't know, I was in Aurouss Hillll, my old bone, but his mother made this kid miserable!"

Hank gritted his teeth and said: "According to this, this kid is just the live-in son-in-law of the Aurouss Hillll family, but how can he get on line with my elder brother? This is too strange!"

After Charlie Wade's parents were killed for many years after leaving Eastcliff, Hank had no longer in his mind. The image and memory of Charlie Wade's father. Therefore, he couldn't understand Charlie Wade's identity and could not figure out Charlie Wade's small The son-in-law of the city hanging silk comes to the door, why can he mix with his eldest brother, and he was invited to the house by the eldest brother to have dinner with his family of three.

You know, with the background of the eldest brother, even those few well-known Internet entrepreneurs in the country cannot be treated like this.

Kenneth Wilson remembered something, and blurted out: "I remember, this Charlie Wade was in Aurouss Hilll. He was abducted and deceived and scammed many people. Many local figures who have a good reputation should call him Master Wade."

"Master Wade?" Hank frowned and asked him, "What master? Which kind of master?"

Kenneth Wilson said: "It seems to be Feng Shui or something. It is said that he has a good sense of Feng Shui. The local rich man asked him to see Feng Shui once and he was rewarded with tens of millions or even hundreds of millions. A big villa worth more than 100 million Dollar, I don't know how this kid can fool around so much."

Carl hurriedly said, "Second brother! I understand! The eldest brother must be dying of illness. I really don't know what to do, so I can only go to the doctor if he is sick, and believe that the metaphysics of Feng Shui luck has come."

Hank nodded in agreement, and sneered: "I think so! 80% of them are really afraid of death and crazy, so I asked a liar to renew my life!"

Carl sneered: "It's really interesting. Didn't he yell for all his life that he is an atheist? He never believed in ghosts or gods. How come he is dying now and believes in Feng Shui luck again?"

"Then who knows to go..." Hank waved his hand and said, "However, this kid is really a bit mysterious. I still don't understand how he made us lose that ability. Could it be that he really has some metaphysical skills?"

Kenneth Wilson hurriedly said flatteringly: "Oh, my second master, there are some insights about this matter, but it hasn't been verified. If you don't mind, I can say it and give you your reference."

Hank nodded: "You speak it!"

Chapter 1546

Kenneth Wilson said: "I'm wondering, the metaphysical things are true, but they are also macroscopic. For example, it may gradually affect the quality of luck, but it is unlikely to affect a person's fertility in an instant. So I think that kid must have used some kind of sounding method."

Hank asked: "Sounding? What do you mean? Why do you say that?"

Kenneth Wilson explained: "This is like making magic. In addition to blindfolding, the most commonly used method for magicians is to make noises. Generally, when he points his right hand to show you, things are usually hidden in his left hand. When the hat is shown to you, things are usually hidden in the sleeves."

Hank nodded solemnly: "You go on."

Kenneth Wilson hurriedly said again: "Look, Charlie Wade seems to be engaged in metaphysics, but I think this grandson must have used some secret method to quietly poison us, but we were distracted when the poison was poisoned, so we didn't notice."

Hank suddenly thought of something. He straightened up and blurted out: "It makes sense! It makes sense! I have been thinking why two of my men had their necks choked by him, so they had muscle weakness. Now think about it. , It is very likely that he quietly used poison on my men! Otherwise, if two top masters take good care of them, how can they become two wastes inexplicably?"

Orrin on the side was busy saying, "Second brother, if the grandson really poisoned us, then he must have an antidote! Does this mean that as long as we can get the antidote from him, there will be Is it possible to recover?"

"Yes!" Hank also said immediately: "This kid must have a way to recover us! When we finish our business tomorrow, we will find a way to let him take out the antidote!"

When Kenneth Wilson heard this, he was immediately excited!

During this period of time, he has been troubled by the treatment of his roots, and he has even given up a bit these days.

But this does not mean that he is really willing to accept this status quo, but that he is really powerless.

If he can heal his own roots, he is willing to pay no matter how great the price is!

So, he hurriedly knelt on one knee, folded his fists on top of his head, and pleaded: "I am also Charlie Wade's victim. After suffering from this kid, if you two have the opportunity to give him the antidote, please You two are poor and poor, and give you a chance to heal next!"

Hank nodded slightly and said, "Mr. Wilson rest assured, you know everything about us today, and we will not forget you when we get the antidote in the future!"

Kenneth Wilson said excitedly: "Second Lord, thank you so much! Your great kindness is unforgettable!"

Hank gave a hum, and said to him: "When you go to Mr. Wilson, it's late, and you should go back to rest early. We will keep in touch with you about this matter, and we will notify you if we have any news."

Kenneth Wilson nodded hurriedly, and said respectfully: "Second Lord, then I will leave first!"

As soon as Kenneth Wilson left, Orrin hurriedly asked Hank: "Second brother, what is your chance of winning and let the bastard surname Wade hand over the cure?"

Hank coldly snorted, "Did you not listen to Kenneth Wilson's words? This kid is actually a liar who shows feng shui. He must be looking for money when he comes to Eastcliff to see his eldest brother. As long as he is looking for money, there is nothing to worry about. Yes, when we finish the board of directors tomorrow, I will directly use the money to hit him willingly to kneel down and call him Lord!"

Chapter 1547

Because of the strong cold air, the temperature in Eastcliff dropped sharply at night, and heavy snow fluttered in the sky.

Charlie Wade received a push on his cell phone saying that Eastcliff had issued a blue Blizzard warning from today night to tomorrow day.

Charlie Wade was wearing a single shirt and stepped out of the balcony of the guest room, thinking all his parents were in his mind.

Tomorrow, I'm going to visit my parents' grave.

This matter had been shelved in his heart for eighteen years, and he was always thinking about it.

When he was in deep thought, he suddenly heard Stefanie's voice: "Charlie Wade, are you not cold with so little clothes?"

Charlie Wade looked back. Stefanie didn't know when he had entered the room and came to the balcony door.

Stefanie hurriedly explained: "Excuse me, Charlie Wade, I knocked on the door just now, and no one answered, so I pushed the door and came in by myself."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and nodded softly: "It's okay, what are you doing so politely between you and me?"

Suddenly, two red clouds appeared on Stefanie's pretty face.

She walked to Charlie Wade and asked him: "Charlie Wade, were you thinking about something just now?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "I'm thinking about the past."

Stefanie gently touched his hand, and then held him without letting go. She said in gratitude, "Charlie Wade, thanks to you for my father's condition, thank you for saving his life!"

Charlie Wade said sincerely: "Uncle Orrin is a good brother of my father, and an elder I respect. I can't help but watch him seriously ill if I don't have the ability. This ability is naturally to save him."

"Yeah!" Stefanie nodded heavily, and said, "Charlie Wade, how many days can you stay in Eastcliff this time? I won't accompany my father to the board meeting tomorrow and after sweeping the grave for Uncle Wade and Aunt Wade, Are you going back?"

Charlie Wade said: "I still have some personal affairs the day after tomorrow, and I will go back after I'm done."

Stefanie's expression was a bit regretful and sad for a while, she raised her head, looked at him with clear and eager eyes, and asked, "Charlie Wade, can't you stay for a few more days? It's the Chinese New Year at this sight, or you Just leave after the New Year at my house?"

Charlie Wade chuckled: "There are still twenty days left during the Chinese New Year. If I never go back, I can't explain to your sister-in-law."

Stefanie said with a pretty face: "I don't admit that she is my sister-in-law, and you are not really my brother, you are the fiance I have identified since I was a child!"

Charlie Wade shook his head helplessly and smiled: "Okay, what you say is what you say."

Suddenly, Stefanie felt a little disappointed and secretly said: "Every time I chat with Charlie Wade, he always reminds me in various ways that he is married! But, doesn't he know that the life of his parents is greater than the sky? At least I After so many years of warning myself, why can't he be like me?"

Thinking of this, Stefanie couldn't help sighing, holding Charlie Wade's hand, and couldn't help but use some strength, and said with a bit of sadness: "Charlie Wade, you are the young master of the Wade family, and you are so capable, Aurouss Hilll, cannot tolerate you. Sooner or later you have to return to Eastcliff."

Charlie Wade was taken aback for a moment, and said calmly: "If you can come back, let's talk about it later."

.....

That night, Charlie Wade had an absurd dream.

In the dream, his parents did not die. He was still the young master of the Wade family, and he has grown up. He has attracted a lot of attention in Eastcliff, and he can call the wind and rain.

In his dream, he wore a decent suit, brought the bridegroom's corsage, and led a luxurious convoy to the super villa of Sun's family.

In the villa, Stefanie was wearing a holy white wedding dress, sitting on the bed in her boudoir, looking at herself with a flowery smile.

Then, a group of young men and women who they didn't know urged them to look for Stefanie's red shoes everywhere.

Chapter 1548

When he found Stefanie's red shoes and personally helped her put them on, the scene immediately flashed to the wedding scene.

The wedding in the dream is grand to the extreme.

Both Charlie Wade's parents were there, with a happy and kind smile on his face.

When the wedding music sounded, Orrin took Stefanie's hand, walked up to him, smiled and handed Stefanie's hand to him.

Afterwards, the two said their wedding vows, exchanged wedding rings, and kissed each other.

Then, the emcee asked Stefanie to turn her back to the bridesmaid and throw out her bouquet.

However, it was Claire Wilson Wilson who grabbed the bouquet!

However, Claire Wilson Wilson did not look happy when he grabbed the bouquet. On the contrary, her expression was very resentful...

Charlie Wade's eyes met her, he couldn't help but slapped a sharp spirit, and suddenly opened his eyes, only to realize that it was just a dream.

He was shocked by the absurdity in the dream, and he was stunned for a few minutes before he gradually recovered.

Seeing that the sky outside the window was getting brighter, he sighed, got up to wash, and walked out of the room.

Downstairs, Angie is preparing breakfast with the servant.

Orrin got up early, sitting in the living room vigorously, holding a cup of coffee, and reading the latest newspaper this morning.

There are not many people who still like to read newspapers these days.

Orrin is one of them.

Seeing Charlie Wade come downstairs, he immediately smiled and waved at him, and said with a smile: "Charlie Wade, come!"

"Good Uncle Orrin." Charlie Wade replied and walked over.

On the sofa, Charlie Wade sat beside Orrin.

Orrin handed him the newspaper in his hand, smiled and said, "Look at the front page."

Charlie Wade took the newspaper and looked at the front page headline.

There was a big line on it: "The chairman of the Sun Group is critically ill, and the Trillion Dollar Group may have no leader."

Charlie Wade couldn't help but frowned, and said, "This newspaper is too irresponsible, right?"

Orrin smiled slightly and said, "This must be the ghost of my two younger brothers. First let out the news that I am critically ill, and then let the stockholders and the market lose confidence in the Sun Group, and ask the securities institutions to lower their share price and Performance expectations, in that case, the Sun Group's share price will inevitably trigger a decline."

While speaking, Orrin looked at his watch and smiled: "It's half past eight, and there's still an hour to open. By that time, the stock prices of all listed companies under the Sun Group will surely fall sharply, or even directly limit."

Charlie Wade couldn't help frowning: "Uncle Orrin, they are also shareholders of the Sun Group. By doing this, isn't it a loss of their own interests?"

Orrin shook his head and smiled: "For major shareholders, it doesn't matter if the stock price drops a bit."

After speaking, Orrin explained: "Look, if the stock price drops because of the news that I am seriously ill now, the most anxious ones are retail investors and small shareholders. Seeing that they have less money, they will definitely come through various channels. Express dissatisfaction;"

"And the stock price fell because I was seriously ill. This pot is definitely for me to carry, so when the time comes, they can better incite other shareholders to force me to give way, because now the market is not at ease with me, only I gave way so they could breathe a sigh of relief."

"Once they successfully achieve their goals and kick me out of the board of directors, the stock price will rise back in time, so for the two of them, there is basically no actual loss. This trick is called killing with a knife."

Chapter 1549

After listening to Orrin's explanation, Charlie Wade understood that the second and third Sun family behind the real purpose of manipulating the media to release this kind of news.

He is also increasingly looking forward to what the two living eunuchs will think after seeing the radiant Orrin when he arrives at the Sun Group.

At this time, Stefanie also walked down, saw her father and Charlie Wade reading the newspaper, and asked curiously: "Dad, Charlie Wade, what news are you watching? You are so relish."

Orrin smiled and said, "Your dad, made headlines today."

"Really?" Stefanie hurried over, glanced at the title, and immediately said angrily: "This is too much, right? Even if the condition worsened before, it just needs to be hospitalized again, which is far from critical. What the media say is not responsible at all?"

Orrin laughed and said, "You are in the entertainment industry yourself. Don't you know the virtues of this private media? Chasing after the wind, listening to the wind is rain, and even talking nonsense. Isn't this what they do best? Besides, this There must be someone behind it, or they would not publish such unverified news."

Stefanie suddenly realized that, after thinking for a moment, she blurted out and asked, "Dad, did the second and third uncles do it?"

Orrin nodded: "Apart from them, there will be no other people. All of this must be for today's board of directors to build momentum and make me more passive then."

After speaking, Orrin said again: "Based on what I know about them, they will definitely invite media reporters to the scene today. They want to take pictures of my frail and dying illness and show them to the people all over the country!"

"This is too much!" Stefanie suddenly said angrily: "Then you will go over later, and directly tell the media face to face, that your illness has been cured, and they will be pissed off by then!"

Orrin smiled and said: "I have greeted Jason White just now. Before today's board of directors is over, no media reporters can enter the Sun Group building. After the meeting is over, the press conference will be held. The directors get off the hook."

Jason White is Orrin's deputy and the person he trusts most in the Sun Group. He has personally cultivated him and is very reliable.

Angie heard the dialogue and walked over and said, "Be loyal, or I will go with you today!"

Orrin waved his hand: "Don't go with me. The group already has a system, and family members are not allowed to interfere with work, and the nuns are public figures and it is not easy to get involved, so you two are still waiting at home and let Charlie Wade accompany you. I will go."

When Angie heard this, she nodded.

.....

After dinner, Charlie Wade and Orrin shared a Rolls-Royce, and under the protection of the security team, went to the Sun Group. These security personnel were hired by Orrin from a top security company yesterday afternoon.

This time, he invested a huge amount of money to protect himself, and the safety of his wife and children, and he will never let anyone enter the room.

The convoy drove into the underground parking lot of the Sun Group Building.

Here, there is an elevator dedicated to the chairman, which can directly reach the top floor of the building from the underground parking lot. Only Orrin and his entourage are qualified to use this elevator, even Hank and Carl are not qualified.

Moreover, the entrance of the chairman's exclusive elevator in the underground parking lot is in a separate enclosed garage. In other words, not only is it impossible for ordinary people to use his dedicated elevator, even if they want to enter this enclosed garage, it is impossible.

After the elevator reached the 58th floor, it came to a completely enclosed office area for the chairman.

Chapter 1550

This area has a total of nearly one thousand square meters, including the chairman's office, lounge, private meeting room and fitness and entertainment rooms.

In this area, ordinary people have no chance to enter.

In other words, from the moment Orrin entered the closed garage of the underground parking lot, he entered an environment where no one could disturb him, and the people who appeared here were his confidants.

After Orrin brought Charlie Wade and a group of bodyguards to his office, he immediately picked up the phone on the desk and said, "Let Jason come over."

Soon, a middle-aged man in his forties knocked on the door and came in. When the man saw Orrin, he was stunned. It took a long time to come back to his senses and blurted out: "Chairman, your expression today is so much better than before! Moreover, you look better than before you fell ill... .."

Orrin nodded slightly and said with a smile: "The doctor told me that the tumor in my body has completely disappeared."

Jason asked in surprise: "Really Chairman?! All the tumors in your body have disappeared?"

"Yes." Orrin smiled indifferently: "From now on, I am a healthy person again."

"Great!" Jason said excitedly, "This is simply a miracle!"

Orrin nodded and smiled: "I think so too."

Jason was very excited: "The chairman, the two vice-chairmen, and those directors are all discussing your condition in the large conference room outside. Just after the stock market opened, all the stocks of our listed companies all fell by the limit. What else did they say? , If you don't give up the position of chairman, the stocks will definitely fall to the limit tomorrow, this is good! You can slap them in the face! Then officially announce to the people of the whole country that you have recovered!"

Orrin smiled and said, "This is natural. Since they want me to be critically ill, then I will let them feel what it means to be completely disappointed!"

After that, he said again: "Jason, go and tell them that I will be there to preside over the meeting in five minutes!"

Jason nodded quickly: "Okay Chairman, I will go now!"

After Jason left, Orrin stood up and said to Charlie Wade vigorously: "Charlie Wade, go, with uncle, kill the enemy before the battle!"

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled, and said, "Uncle Orrin, please ask first."

Orrin laughed and took Charlie Wade out of the office, and then stepped out of the chairman's private office area.

In the large conference room on the 58th floor, Hank and Carl, brothers, had already made their sense.

Today they have made perfect preparations.

Not only did they get the support of some minority shareholders, but they also used this morning's headlines to make the outside world think that the big brother Orrin is about to die. Now the stock price has plummeted, and other minority shareholders are also in panic. And continue to fall. Therefore, in this moment, the board members in the entire conference room have all fallen to their brothers.

Hank had even thought out a specific implementation plan. After the eldest brother came, he directly threw the prepared newspaper in front of him, and then threw all the stock price drop to him.

Then, without waiting for him to explain, he immediately asked the board of directors to vote again and recommend a new chairman on the grounds that the current chairman was incompetent for this important position!

Chapter 1551

When Orrin was clanging like an abacus, the door of the office was pushed open vigorously.

Immediately afterwards, Orrin, who was full of red face and not irritable, walked in.

Charlie Wade followed him closely and entered the meeting room.

Everyone in the conference room, including Hank and Carl, was shocked and stunned after seeing Orrin's spirited appearance!

Hank and Carl looked at each other. Although the brothers did not communicate at all, they were thinking the same question: "The sick eldest brother yesterday suddenly became radiant today?! But it was just a night after that. Isn't it too obvious?"

The other board members, because they haven't seen Orrin for a long time, and seeing news reports, thought he was really dying, or even dying.

They were even mentally prepared, and felt that Orrin might be pushed in by someone in a wheelchair, sucking oxygen.

Therefore, when he suddenly saw his vigorous appearance, everyone was extremely shocked.

Is this the chairman who is said to be critically ill in the media report?

The current chairman seems to be in a much better condition than before he fell ill.

Is this what people often say?

But it's not like it. He looks like a middle-aged man who can no longer be sick!

Carl just secretly stabbed Hank and asked with a dazed expression:
"Second brother, this...what is going on..."

Hank gritted his teeth and shook his head: "I don't know either!"

At this time, Orrin had already arrived at the special seat in the center in front of the conference table, and let Charlie Wade sit on his right hand.

After sitting down, Orrin looked around with fierce eyes for a week, and said in a somewhat majestic voice: "Everyone, I apologize to everyone here. I rarely come to the group during this period. The group can operate normally. You have worked hard."

Everyone looked at me and I looked at you, and they didn't know how to respond.

This is mainly because many small shareholders in it have been bought by Hank and Carl, and they are ready to remove Orrin from the board of directors today.

However, seeing Orrin in excellent condition, they didn't know what to do at once.

Seeing this, Hank felt a little flustered in his heart, but he also knew that if he didn't quickly find a way to suppress the situation at this time, then all of his plans today might be aborted.

So he immediately opened his mouth and said: "Chairman, you haven't been in charge of the group's affairs for so long. Everyone here has paid a lot for the group. Are you the chairman of the board a bit too incompetent?"

Orrin nodded and smiled, and said: "You are right. I am indeed not competent enough during this period of time, so I didn't say anything just now. Thank you all. This is my true feelings to you. This is a hard time for everyone. "

After speaking, Orrin said again: "In the past 20 years, everyone has been by my side and accompany me in the mall. I am also fortunate not to live up to everyone's expectations and to make the group stronger and stronger. In those 20 years of rapid progress, I have never taken credit for arrogance and never abandoned any comrade-in-arms. During this time, I was left behind for a month or two due to personal reasons. Everyone thinks of my hard work over the past 20 years. Shouldn't I be blamed?" As soon as this was said, the other shareholders around him waved their hands subconsciously and said in unison: "How can it be, Chairman, why can we blame you!"

Charlie Wade listened beside him, and couldn't help but admire Orrin. Orrin's remark just now seemed to be a demonstration of weakness, but it was actually a demonstration to them.

He deliberately talked about how he led the group to advance by leaps and bounds in the past 20 years. On the surface, he wanted to make everyone think about the old feelings, but in essence, he was reminding this group of people that in the past 20 years, he was able to lead the group to advance by leaps and bounds. In the next twenty years, he can still make this group develop rapidly.

If this group of people want to exclude him, they must consider the actual situation of the group's development in the past two decades, and who can do better than Orrin.

This group of people realized it instantly.

Originally, they wanted to elect their second child Hank as chairman together.

However, after Orrin's reminder, they couldn't help but revisit the game. In the past two decades, Hank's performance in the group has found that this person has not actually made any outstanding achievements, and can only be said to be in the middle distance.

Therefore, his overall strength is far worse than his brother.

That being the case, why should everyone squeeze out the current chairman of the board and let a second child with poor ability take the post?

When the second child fooled everyone, he said that the boss was about to die.

But now, the state of the boss looks so good, it doesn't look like a person who will die in a short time.

And everyone believes that he can live for another 20 to 30 years in his state.

Therefore, at this moment, the hearts of those small shareholders have already turned their backs.

They decided to continue to support Orrin as chairman, because only he can lead everyone to make more money!

When Charlie Wade saw this, he couldn't help but admire, Uncle Orrin's hand was nothing short of a thousand catties! ?

At this time, Hank felt sad.

The eldest brother is really the eldest brother, and a few words can wipe out all the efforts he has made over the past few months.

The key is, how did he get rid of the illness? In just one night, he changed from a person who looked like he was about to die to a healthy person. This is what a hell!

Thinking of this, he suppressed the anger in his heart and asked:

"Chairman, although I am your brother, but out of responsibility to the entire group, I still have to ask, how is your condition now?"

Carl on the side also came to assist: "Yes, Chairman, as you know, the Sun Group is a super-large group with a comprehensive market value of more than one trillion Dollar. There are many listed groups under it, most of which have a market value of more than 10 billion or more than 100 billion. We must be responsible for all shareholders and investors! What if the group will do if you die one day? What should we do? What about shareholders?"

Orrin wiped out a smile on his expression, and said calmly: "Good question, I actually want to solemnly report to you about my physical condition."

As he said, he cleared his throat and said with a smile: "I did suffer from pancreatic cancer before. Domestic hospitals have relevant medical records, and overseas hospitals also have my major medical records. This is definitely not a fake."

Immediately, he sighed and continued: "Initially I thought I was running out of time, but sometimes my life is so many times, the tumor on my body disappeared miraculously, so now I I have regained my health again, and everyone should be able to see that my condition is much better than before, so don't worry, I will definitely lead the Sun Group to the next glory!"

Chapter 1553

When Orrin finished speaking these words loyally and vigorously, other people heard this as if they had taken a reassurance pill immediately. Not only were they relieved a lot, and even an excited smile filled their faces.

A few people even clapped involuntarily.

As a result, everyone else happily applauded and agreed. Everyone participates in the Sun Group, in the final analysis, to make money, and they don't want to engage in gangs and intrigues, they just want to follow the person who can lead them to make money, nothing more. Since a miracle happened to Orrin and his serious illness has been healed, why not continue to support him, stand by his side and make more money with him under his leadership?

The expressions of Hank and Carl were suddenly ugly to death. After carefully preparing the plan for such a long time, could it be completed right after the first step?

This feeling is really uncomfortable.

It is as if I have been practicing martial arts for decades in order to challenge the leader of the martial arts, thinking that I am invincible in the world.

As a result, when he arrived in front of the leader of the martial arts, the leader of the martial arts only made one move and he was completely defeated.

The blow to the two of them was tremendous.

At this time, Hank was still unwilling to admit defeat!

He sternly said: "Big brother! You don't want to take everyone here, how can advanced pancreatic cancer be cured? Do you think we are all three-year-old children? Didn't Apple's Steve Jobs also leave? You said you Now that he is healed, who believes it? In case you are playing tricks on everyone, when the time comes for investors to know, they will completely lose confidence in the stock price of our group, and the stock price will collapse all the way."

Orrin was not angry either. He stood up and turned around and asked with a smile: "Second, you see for yourself, is my current state like I'm sick?"

Hank played a rogue, and said, "What's the use of seeing? My eyes are not CT. I can't see where the tumors on your body are. Maybe you are looking back."

Orrin snorted coldly, suddenly raised his hand, and slapped his hand to Hank who was sitting on the left hand side.

There was a pop in the conference room, loud and crisp, and even a few echoes were formed in this huge conference room.

Hank was slapped with a Venus star in his eyes. The tremendous force made him leaned back uncontrollably. Then his chair lost his balance and fell to the ground with a loud noise.

Carl, the third child sitting next to him, hurriedly stepped forward to help.

Hank was under his support, holding his head and getting up, yelling angrily, "Big brother, what do you mean? Why do you beat me? You dignified chairman, you beat people on the board of directors, and you are not afraid of being laughed at by outsiders.?"

Orrin smiled slightly and said: "Second, don't you want to know if I have recovered? It was a slap just now, how do you feel? It looks like it was shot by a sick person?"

"You..." Hank didn't expect that he would not say anything after hitting himself, and even ridiculing himself by accusing him, he was suddenly angry!

However, at the moment he has nothing to do. He can't beat him with his hands. He can only gritted his teeth and said: "Big brother, there is no point in saying this. If you want to reassure me and investors, you should publish your latest update. The medical examination report must be a report issued by an authoritative medical examination institution." Orrin sneered and said, "You can't cry if you don't see the coffin, right? Yes, after the board of directors, I will call up the reporters waiting outside and hold a press conference. After the press conference, I will go to the Fairview Hospital for an examination. Now I have a whole body CT. Scanning, the results came out very quickly, if the fastest, the results can be announced this afternoon."

Hank saw that he had promised to be so refreshed, and he couldn't continue to find reasons for the trouble, so he gritted his teeth and said, "Okay! Then wait for the results of your physical examination! If you haven't recovered, then I think your physical condition, no it is suitable to continue to be the chairman of the board, so you should give up the position of chairman and let a healthy person take it!"

Charlie Wade, who had not spoken all the time, smiled at this time and said: "If the position of chairman must be filled by a healthy person, I believe that neither you nor your brother meets this requirement."

Hank blurted out and shouted: "You f*cking don't fart here! My body is very healthy!"

"Really?" Charlie Wade sneered: "If I guessed correctly, you should have lost fertility now? You don't even have fertility. You still have the face to say that you are very healthy? For you, fertility is ability not important at all?"

Hank had been holding back because of the loss of fertility. His previous character may have long been unable to bear to find Charlie Wade to settle the account.

The reason why he has been forbearing, he has not spoken to Charlie Wade until now, is also because he has always put the matter of taking over as chairman of the board first.

But I didn't expect that he hadn't found Charlie Wade to take the trouble, this guy actually took the initiative to ridicule himself with this incident, which made him suddenly unable to suppress his anger, and blurted out: "The surname is Wade, my fcking has already treated you The bottom line of the investigation is clear! Don't think I don't know what your background is, aren't you the fcking son-in-law of Aurouss Hilll? What are you pretending to be in front of me?"

Seeing that Hank had exploded, Carl also stood up and gritted his teeth and cursed: "The surname Wade, what method did you use later? If you don't let us return to normal today, don't blame me for being rude to you! Even if it is. The boss covers you, and we will not spare you!"

Trevor and Daniel, who were sitting at the farthest point in the conference room, kept suppressing their anger towards Charlie Wade. They didn't say a word, just because they were afraid of ruining Hank and Carl's good deeds. Now seeing that they both attack Charlie Wade, so Stand up immediately.

Trevor said viciously: "Charlie Wade is it! If you don't give us a satisfactory solution to this matter, I will let you lie in the urn back to Aurouss Hilll!"

Trevor was also not to be outdone: "Lying in the urn, don't even think about going back, I just lifted your ashes!"

Orrin screamed with a black face, "It's your turn! Do you think I can't be your home? Do you think I have a disease, you can ride on my neck and shit?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly at this time and said faintly: "Uncle Orrin, you have recovered from a serious illness. Don't get angry with these people, let me have a chat with them."

After finishing speaking, he looked at the other shareholders and said kindly: "Everyone, the next thing has nothing to do with the board of directors. Please avoid it first."

Everyone looked at Orrin.

Orrin nodded and said, "Okay, let's all go. There will be a reception in the press hall downstairs later. You can move there and wait first."

Everyone stood up almost without thinking and left the meeting room in an orderly manner.

As the door of the conference room closed again, Orrin said to Charlie Wade: "Charlie Wade, it has been specially soundproofed inside, so even if the gun is fired inside, you can't hear it from outside, so you can play freely."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Good Uncle Orrin."

When Hank and others heard this, their faces paled in shock.

They knew that Charlie Wade was very strong, and neither God of War nor Realm Master was his opponent.

If he had to do it right away, the four of them would not be enough to watch.

Therefore, Hank pretended to be calm and shouted: "Listen to me, I am the second master of the Sun family! My identity is beyond your reach in this life, so you'd better not offend me to death, otherwise If you do, you are at your own risk!"

Charlie Wade didn't get angry when he heard it. He laughed, and asked him: "Don't tell yourself so arrogantly. At the very least, you have to figure out who I am!"

Chapter 1555

"Find out who you are?!"

Although Hank was a little afraid of Charlie Wade's strength, when he heard this, his face was still full of disdain.

He looked at Charlie Wade and sarcastically said, "I said, I have already found out your details a long time ago. Isn't it just the live-in son-in-law of the Aurouss Hilll Wilson family? It's a poor family in a small city. What is it about me?"

"Yes!"

Carl immediately said coldly, "You have to figure it out. Pull out all the big families in Aurouss Hilll and add them together. It's less than half of our Sun family!"

Carl's words are somewhat arrogant and exaggerated, but fundamentally speaking, there is nothing wrong with his words.

Compared with Eastcliff, Aurouss Hilll is indeed not a big city.

Moreover, the Moore family, Aurouss Hilll's first family, had assets of more than 100 billion Dollar, which was far from the Sun family.

Therefore, Orrin had the confidence to say such arrogant words just now.

At this time, Charlie Wade smiled calmly and asked, "You didn't think about it. How could I have met Uncle Orrin if I were just the son-in-law of a poor family in a small city?"

Orrin nodded, looked at his two younger brothers and two nephews playfully, and smiled.

Hank coldly snorted, "Do you think I don't know what you do? Isn't it just a damn liar who looks at Fengshui?"

As he said, Hank was full of disdain: "I know, you did fool a few local turtles in Aurouss Hilll, but you know, this is the f*cking Eastcliff, not Aurouss Hilll! This is where the dragon and the tiger are really hidden, you If you can eat well in Aurouss Hilll, I think you can eat well in Eastcliff? There are many people here, and there are as many dragons and phoenixes as the crucian carp that crosses the river. An old fortune-telling man will drop down from the walls of the Forty-Nine City, I am afraid he is better than you!"

Charlie Wade nodded and sighed: "Oh, what you said really gave me the initiation. If you weren't talking about the difference between Aurouss Hilll and Eastcliff, I almost forgot about it, I I am not from Aurouss Hilll at all, I am actually from Eastcliff!"

"What?" Hank frowned, "Are you from Eastcliff?"

"Yeah." Charlie Wade smiled and nodded, patted his chest, and said: "I am a native of Eastcliff. I left Eastcliff to Aurouss Hilll when I was eight."

When Hank heard this, he immediately sneered: "Could it be that you had no foundation in Eastcliff before you were eight? You left Eastcliff at the age of eight, and now you come back after such a long time, you dare to run wild in front of me?"

Orrin smiled and asked him: "My second child, don't you see that Charlie Wade is somewhat familiar? Don't you think he looks like someone?"

Hank squinted his eyes to look at Charlie Wade carefully, and said, "Does this kid have anything special? He's just plain and ordinary, not as handsome as when I was young."

Orrin laughed out loud: "Second, I didn't expect you to be under my protection. After so many years of pampering you, your whole person will become more and more regressive. It's a waste of more than 40 years!"

Hank was startled, and subconsciously asked, "What do you mean? You don't have to tell me about it here, just say what you want!"

Orrin nodded: "Okay! Then I'll speak straight!"

After all, Orrin stood up and said in a haughty tone: "Do you remember that I had a elder brother who became a beggar, and the Sun family can have today, thanks to his promotion all the way more than ten or twenty years ago! Even when the old man was alive, He was a guest of honor and respected him. At that time, you were a dude with a half-bottle of water. The old man would not allow you to have much contact with my eldest brother, for fear that you would lose the Sun family in front of him. Face, what is my eldest brother's surname?"

Hank had forgotten Charlie Wade's father for many years. After all, the deceased has passed away, and many relatives may not be able to remember the deceased for more than ten years, let alone Hank and Charlie Wade's father. What friendship.

Back then, Hank just watched his elder brother worship the brightest star of the Wade family, and he was jealous, but after the death of Charlie Wade's father, he gradually forgot about it.

However, now that the eldest brother was so directly named, he immediately thought of the handsome and generous figure.

Chapter 1556

Hearing the last question of the eldest brother, he subconsciously said: "I remember him, his surname is Wade, the Wade family was the best..."

Speaking of this, his whole body was instantly shocked, his eyes widened to the extreme, staring at Charlie Wade forever!

At this moment, two figures that would have been twenty years apart overlapped in his mind.

Only then did he realize that the vigorous young man in front of him looked so much like that vigorous young man back then!

Reminiscent of Charlie Wade's surname Wade, and his relationship with his elder brother so close, he immediately seemed to be struck by thunder, trembling and pointing at Charlie Wade, and asked Orrin in a trembling voice: "Big brother, he...he ...Is he the son of Brother Wade, the second master of the Wade family?!"

The second master of the Wade family was talking about Charlie Wade's father, Bruce Wade!

The name Bruce is taken from the classic poem of a great man: "Today Bruce takes in hand, when will the dragon be bound!"

And Bruce Wade's implication is: Wade family has a son! And he was the second child of the Wade family heirs.

Although he is not the eldest son, his ability is the strongest of the Wade Family. At a young age, he can plan tactics and win a thousand miles in the market!

Under his leadership, the Wade family has even fought back and forth with the Rothschild family in Europe and the United States, which has a history of hundreds of years, and even made the other party suffer a compromise in the end!

In those days, countless rich second generations of Eastcliff regarded him as their idol in life!

Countless rich generations looked at him with grief and sighed like Wade had a child!

Countless wealthy daughters admired him so much that they regarded him as the best candidate for the wishful man!

When you marry Bruce Wade, this is the most familiar sentence in the circle of Eastcliff celebrities!

I think back then, there were all good women seeking great families, but who has ever seen the grand occasion of good men seeking great families?

Back then, the big business figures who came to Wade's house and hoped to marry their daughter to Bruce are too numerous to count!

Hank couldn't help thinking back then, that Bruce used the light of one person to cover the edge of all Eastcliff's peers!

At that time, everyone was sighing in their hearts, why were they born in the same era as Bruce? He is like a bright moon in the night sky, who can compete with him?

Thinking of this, Hank can already conclude that Charlie Wade is Bruce Wade's son!

He thought of Bruce's heroic posture, and his heart was immediately panicked. Looking at Charlie Wade, he suddenly knelt on one knee and blurted his face with all his face: "Master Wade, please forgive me for being clumsy. I didn't realize that you are actually the son of Brother Wade! "

Although Carl hadn't spoken for a while, seeing his second brother kneeling on one knee, he immediately followed him and knelt down on one knee.

Both Trevor and Daniel were blinded. They were young and didn't know Bruce Wade's glorious deeds back then. Seeing that their father actually knelt for Charlie Wade, they were stunned.

Daniel immediately wanted to protest loudly, but was grabbed by Trevor, who had a higher vision, and covered his mouth.

This is, Hank, who knelt on one knee, actually choked up and sighed:

"When I was young, I secretly made a dream in my heart and bowed my head to worship Bruce! It's a pity that Bruce died young, so I never I have the opportunity to learn one or two by his side. If I had the opportunity to learn a little by his side, I wouldn't be so dull today..."

Chapter 1557

The mention of Bruce Wade's name still makes many middle-aged people in the Eastcliff family sigh.

Because for these big families, no wealth is as important as a powerful offspring who can go straight ahead.

Shopping malls are like battlefields. Sometimes a slight deviation may lead to the annihilation of the entire army and the destruction of the entire army. This is why many families are ups and downs in the game, and many even directly launched the stage of history.

If a family wants to be prosperous, it doesn't matter how much money is in their hands, or how much land is in their hands, it doesn't matter how much land is in their hands. What matters is whether his descendants can continue to produce dragons and phoenixes.

The prosperity of the Wade family today is inseparable from the solid foundation that Bruce laid 20 years ago.

That's why people remember Bruce Wade and regard him as a bright moon in their hearts.

Charlie Wade didn't expect that brothers Hank and Carl would kneel on one knee when they heard their father's name. Seeing that the two people's respectful expression was not hypocritical, the anger towards the two of them was slightly relieved. It took a few minutes.

At this moment, Hank turned his head and looked at his son Trevor and the third son Daniel, and blurted out: "You two, seeing the blood of Brother Wade, don't hesitate to kneel down and admit your mistakes!"

Trevor understood in his heart.

Although he hadn't heard too many rumors about Bruce Wade, he guessed that Charlie Wade was a descendant of the Wade family of Eastcliff.

Don't care about the Sun family and the Wade family belonging to one of the three major Eastcliff families, but the weaker ones are not even a little bit.

Some people joked that the so-called three major Eastcliff families are actually nothing more than "two dragons playing beads".

Erlong refers to the Wade family and the Banks Family. As for the Sun family, it's just the bead.

The Wade Family's strength is much stronger than that of the Sun family.

Even if the brothers Orrin, Hank, and Carl are tied together, in front of the Wade family, they are not enough.

What's more, Orrin, the boss of the Sun family, stood with Charlie Wade at this time.

It is equivalent to the fact that the brothers Hank and Carl are not only facing the Wade family, but more than half of the Sun family!

After all, Orrin, the current eldest brother, seems to have recovered. He really needs to break his wrists. The second and third children can't even break off the eldest son. Why are you talking about the Wade Family?

Therefore, Trevor did not dare to delay. He came to his father Hank in three or two steps. He knelt on one knee and said devoutly: "Mr. Wade, please forgive me for being clumsy, I didn't know!"

Daniel's brain is not as good as Trevor's, but seeing that, he didn't dare to ask more. He came forward and knelt on the ground, learning from his cousin in a decent way, and respectfully said: "Mr. Wade, please forgive me for being clumsy!"

Charlie Wade nodded slightly, and said coldly: "For your respect for my father, you just insulted me, I won't pursue it for the time being."

The four of them breathed a sigh of relief at the same time.

But Charlie Wade immediately said: "However, your two brothers were embarrassed, trying to seize the assets of my Uncle Orrin, and also released news that Uncle Orrin was seriously ill, and many directors wanted to usurp power on the board of directors. , You must give Uncle Orrin a clear solution, otherwise, I will not let you go!"

Hank knew in his heart that this power-seeking plan had completely failed.

Not only can I not beat my eldest brother now, but I am also distracted from the board of directors. Relying on myself and my third brother, I want to continue to fight against my eldest brother. It is simply a dream. The best solution is to immediately recognize the counsel and strive to return to the previous state.

So, he immediately looked at Orrin and said sincerely: "Brother, this matter is my passion. I confessed my mistakes and punished them. From today onwards, he will completely eliminate all attempts to refrain from returning, and wholeheartedly assist him in running the Sun Group!"

Chapter 1558

The third child, Carl, also quickly admitted his mistake: "Big brother, just like the second brother, I apologize to you! If you have any instructions in the future, the third child, I will definitely take the lead and dare not follow!"

A trace of melancholy and hesitation flashed across Orrin's expression. In fact, he did not expect that the second and third would give up resistance so quickly.

Originally thought they would resist stubbornly, but what they didn't expect was that Charlie Wade and his father's identity completely frightened them.

Therefore, a complete victory was achieved at once, and both of the younger brothers confessed their mistakes with great concentration, and he did not think about how to deal with them.

At this time, Charlie Wade said: "Since you want to admit your mistakes, you must at least express it. Although I am an outsider, I also make a little suggestion here. Please listen and see if it is feasible."

Orrin hurriedly said, "Charlie Wade, you say!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Uncle Orrin, these four people are all blood relatives of your same clan. In my opinion, knowing your mistakes can make corrections."

When Hank and Carl heard this, they were happy and hurriedly nodded in agreement: "Yes, big brother, we are all brothers. For the sake of blood relationship and our sincere regret, let's forgive us this time!"

Charlie Wade said again at this time: "Don't worry, you can forgive me, but forgiveness is also conditional."

Hank of course knew that Charlie Wade could not be so good, and took the initiative to intercede for them. There must be other conditions in exchange for them, so he immediately clasped his fists and said, "Master Wade, please say!"

Charlie Wade said indifferently: "You are both shareholders of the Sun Group, and you have shares in the Sun Group. Since you want to follow Uncle Orrin with all your heart, you must be bound firmly with him, so my suggestion Yes, you two, immediately transfer the voting rights corresponding to all the shares in your hands to Uncle Orrin forever!" What Charlie Wade wanted was the voting rights corresponding to their shares, but not their shares.

In other words, how much should they hold, how much should they hold, how much should they earn, and how much money should they earn, but after the voting rights of the shares are handed over, they have no right to speak in this board of directors, and everything must be ordered by the controlling party. Decision-making.

In this way, Orrin's voting rights have reached the 51% absolute control requirement!

In the future, he will be one of the best in the Sun Group!

Even if all the remaining shareholders unite, they will only have 49% of the voice at most, so it is impossible to shake Orrin's control.

When Orrin heard this, his heart was clear.

Unexpectedly, Charlie Wade not only saved his life, but also wanted to help him regain control of the Sun Group.

This kid acts cleanly and decisively. He really has the shadow of his father back then!

Thinking of this, Orrin sighed besides being grateful, sighing his big brother!

Charlie Wade had been in Aurouss Hillll for many years. He hadn't received a good education or experienced good conditions. He struggled to get up from the grassroots mud pit by himself, but he did not expect that he was already quite a general.

If the eldest brother is still alive these years, and if Charlie Wade can be carefully nurtured under the hands of his father Bruce, then Charlie Wade is afraid that it has become a shining existence in the world!

Unfortunately, this beautiful vision can only be exchanged with a sigh.

However, the more he looked at Charlie Wade, the more pleasing he felt.

If he can become his son-in-law in the future, he will be able to give his daughter a lifetime of happiness, and he and his wife can be completely relieved!

Chapter 1559

At this moment, Hank felt a pain in his heart.

Charlie Wade's words made him realize that this is helping the eldest brother and disarming himself.

In a company, it doesn't matter how many employees or departments you have under your hands. What is important is how much power you have in the company.

The voting rights corresponding to the shares are tantamount to the company's internal struggle for power and profit.

If I let myself surrender all voting rights now, it would be tantamount to letting myself surrender all weapons and completely give up the possibility of resistance.

To be honest, he didn't want to be so controlled by others.

However, thinking about it the other way round, he has nothing to do. disagree?

There is no way to disagree. After all, the eldest brother is recovering now, and Young Master Wade is supporting him, so he is not an opponent.

Now he is still playing a criminal plot with himself, actually letting himself surrender the gun and not kill. If he doesn't agree, then they may change their routine to play the conspiracy. At that time, they will not surrender the gun but never kill. Endless trouble!

Thinking of this, he sighed softly and said, "Master Wade, I agree to your proposal and hand over all voting rights!"

Carl has been waiting for the second brother to express his opinion. He has a weak personality and has no opinion. Anyway, he and the second brother have tossed this matter together, so naturally he has to follow the second brother to advance and retreat.

So he hurriedly said, "Master Wade, I have no objection!"

Charlie Wade nodded with satisfaction, and said to Orrin: "Uncle Orrin, in this case, let's let the legal affairs come over and draw up the voting rights transfer agreement. After signing the agreement, you can just go to the press conference to hold a press conference in the release hall and put this The matter is made public."

After speaking, Charlie Wade checked the time and said, "It's ten o'clock now. If you move fast, hold a press conference before 11:30. That morning, before the stock market is closed, the Sun Group's stock price should respond. Soaring."

"Yes!" Orrin nodded loyally, and immediately said: "Just do what you said Charlie Wade!"

After speaking, he immediately took out his mobile phone and called his assistant: "Call all the legal department immediately!"

Hank gave up resistance and felt relieved. Then, he thought about the inexplicable loss of fertility between himself and his younger brother, son, and nephew. He hurriedly pleaded: "Master Wade, the four of us suddenly lost that. In terms of ability, to be honest, the Sun family's blood is all in the dogs and nephews, so please raise your hands high..." Orrin was a little surprised and didn't understand what it meant when Hank said that the four people lost that ability.

At this time, Carl, Trevor, and Daniel all looked at Charlie Wade with pleading eyes, hoping that he could restore the ability and majesty for everyone.

Charlie Wade said indifferently at this time: "First of all, I must tell you clearly that this matter is reversible to me. If I am in a good mood, I can restore all four of you to the original."

When the four of them heard this, they were immediately overjoyed.

What everyone fears most is that all this is irreversible.

In case it is really irreversible, then all is over.

Even if he compromises, concedes defeat, and surrenders the right to vote, he still can't enjoy the pleasure of a relationship.

But Charlie Wade's reversible sentence immediately ignited hope in their hearts.

However, Charlie Wade changed his words and said lightly: "Although it is reversible, when it is reversible, it depends on your performance and my personal mood. If you perform well and satisfy me, I will consider it. " The faces of Hank and others suddenly turned into four bitter gourds. Can't recover temporarily?

Chapter 1560

So everyone can only continue to live this life as a living eunuch?

When is the leader in such days?

However, since Charlie Wade had already said so, everyone really didn't dare to disobey him.

Otherwise, if someone is unhappy and just doesn't recover, wouldn't it be the end of the whole life?

Therefore, Hank could only respectfully say: "Please rest assured, Mr. Wade, I will do well when I wait!"

Charlie Wade nodded lightly, and said lightly: "Get up, and the legal affairs will come in for a while and see this scene, it must be quite strange."

When the four heard this, they stood up.

Later, Charlie Wade said coldly: "My identity, before I take the initiative to disclose it to the outside world, the four of you are absolutely not allowed to say a word to the outside world, otherwise, I will definitely not spare you."

Hank knew that he couldn't afford to provoke Charlie Wade. Not only was Wade Family Young Master, but also his eldest brother supported him. More importantly, the "lifelines" of the four were completely controlled by him, even if he killed himself. , I never dared to offend him.

Therefore, he agreed without hesitation and said, "Master Wade, don't worry, we will never reveal a word about you!"

The other three people also nodded in a humble manner.

Seeing their sincere attitude, Charlie Wade nodded slightly and said to Orrin: "Uncle Orrin, I will be an audience below at the press conference, so I won't show up in front of the media."

Orrin nodded and said, "Okay Charlie Wade, I'll let the secretary arrange a seat for you in a moment."

Soon, more than a dozen people came up from the legal department of the Sun Group.

These dozens of people are all top domestic lawyers and legal workers. They use their professional abilities to protect the legal rights of the entire Sun Group. They are all elites.

The agreement for the permanent transfer of voting rights is very simple and clear in itself, and there are no twists and turns, so everyone quickly drafted a contract with no flaws.

Once the contract is signed, it means that Hank and Carl will permanently transfer 100% of the voting rights corresponding to their shares to their eldest brother Orrin for free.

Even if they died and the heirs of their shares must continue to recognize this agreement.

Even if Orrin dies, his heirs will naturally inherit all the voting rights corresponding to the shares of Hank and Carl.

In other words, even if the Sun family's three brothers passed away decades later and their shares were inherited by their own children, Stefanie could still control the Sun family group completely, not afraid that the second and third children wanted to seek power.

The two did not have any tempers at this time, and obediently signed their names on the agreement.

Each agreement is in five copies, one of which is kept by Orrin, and the other by Hank or Carl.

There are three remaining copies, one for the legal department, one for the notary department for filing and custody, and one for the bank safe. In this way, the possibility of someone trying to destroy all contracts is avoided.

When the contract was signed, the second and third of the Sun family officially and permanently gave up resistance.

In the future, they can only honestly follow Orrin to make money and take dividends. If Orrin does not let them speak, they will not even have the right to speak on the board of directors.

After the contract was signed, Orrin stood up and said, "Go, go to the release hall, friends from the media and reporters who came here early in the morning, shouldn't you wait a long time?"

Chapter 1561

When he heard that he was going to the release hall, Hank blushed.

Most of the reporters who are waiting in the release hall came here early in the morning because they said they were going to open a board of directors today, and they used the media to release news that their eldest brother was critically ill.

They want to catch a big news about the replacement of the chairman of the Sun Group, so that Hank can also use the current media attention to beat his reputation.

Hank originally wanted them to report on his victory on the board of directors, so that after noon, the media could announce to the public that the chairman of the Sun Group had changed his position and he would become the next chairman.

Unexpectedly, all these things I did would eventually fulfill my eldest brother.

He could even think that once the big brother appeared at the press conference with a red face, all the media reporters who thought he was going to die would have to fry them on the spot!

After he announced that he had obtained 51% of the voting rights, the media reporters should be shocked to add nothing to it?

With his thoughts flying in his mind, he secretly sighed.

Maybe, this is my fate.

Originally, his abilities and wrists were inferior to that of the older brother. He wanted to take advantage of the vacancy, but he didn't expect that there would be a Wade Family Young Master beside him. What's even more amazing was that he recovered from the serious illness overnight. It seems that the only thing that suits him is to follow him as a foil.

In fact, Orrin is a smart man.

He considered many things very comprehensively, and he was only shivering from success.

It's a pity that in the end I still encountered Charlie Wade stirring the situation behind his back.

Without Charlie Wade, Orrin would strategize again, dragging a dying body, and it would be impossible to fight the union between him and Carl, and even the safety of his wife and daughter would not be guaranteed in the future.

However, Hank was able to see the situation in time and immediately gave up the original overall plan to stop the loss, and he can also see that this person is at least the number one.

Change to the kind of person who can't see the situation clearly and is still stubbornly resisting when he die, and he will soon be completely cold.

Orrin was grateful to Charlie Wade at this time.

The appearance of Charlie Wade not only saved his own life, but also saved his wife and daughter, and his career.

This kindness, in his opinion, is afraid that it will be a life of poverty, and he can't repay it all. He can only do his best for the rest of his life.

So he took Charlie Wade's hand and whispered to him: "Charlie Wade, if you don't want to return to Wade's house in the future, come to the Sun Group. Uncle will arrange for you a position of vice chairman. I only have a daughter. Daughter, everything in the future will be yours!" What Orrin said was not polite, but from the heart.

He felt that his daughter was going to marry Charlie Wade, and Charlie Wade was his son-in-law. If he did not return to Wade's house, Sun's family would belong to him in the future.

Although he is open-minded, he also feels that if his daughter marries Charlie Wade, she should be a good helper. Charlie Wade and his father, Bruce, are both his benefactors. As long as Charlie Wade can give his daughter a lifetime of happiness, He is willing to give all his assets as a dowry for his daughter.

Charlie Wade naturally knew what he meant. He really regarded himself as the future son-in-law, even half of his son.

But I couldn't deal with this kind of thing, so I said seriously: "Uncle Orrin, I have no plans to return to Eastcliff. I still allow me to consider this matter."

Orrin also didn't insist, nodded and said, "In short, you should never see your uncle at any time and under any circumstances. My home is your home!"

Charlie Wade nodded solemnly.

.....

Because Charlie Wade wanted to develop the conference, and Charlie Wade didn't want to appear on the scene, Charlie Wade sat in the auditorium of the conference as an ordinary guest in advance under the arrangement of Secretary Orrin.

All the cameras are aimed at the rostrum of the press conference, so he doesn't have to worry about being on TV.

Chapter 1562

When Charlie Wade sat down in the auditorium, the entire release hall was already overcrowded.

The major media have sent reporters one after another, with long guns and short cannons here, waiting for the Sun Group to release important news. At this moment, the outside world does not know the news of Orrin's recovery.

Everyone thought that Orrin was already dying and that he might not be able to join the board of directors today.

However, they expect Orrin to appear.

Because, as media people, they like to catch some topics that can arouse attention.

So they hope that they can capture the image of Orrin's late hero and add some sensational text at that time. This is a proper headline news.

Some people have even thought about the headline of the news.

For example, "The End of an Era", or "Orrin Sun is old, can the new chairman of the Sun Group turn the tide".

Now they are only waiting for Orrin, who is dyingly ill, to stagger in from the conference hall, even being pushed in a wheelchair.

At this moment, the on-site staff picked up the microphone and said: "Please be quiet, everyone present, our chairman will be there soon!"

As soon as this word came out, everyone turned their attention to the entrance of the venue.

The camera and camera have already found the angle, and put the entire entrance into the viewfinder frame.

Everyone was waiting for the moment the door opened and Orrin showed up. At this moment, the door was pushed open from the outside in.

The first step forward was Orrin's secretary.

The second step forward was Carl.

The third one is Hank.

The moment I saw Hank, the shutter sound on the scene had begun to intensively.

Because everyone knows that he is the second child of the Sun family, and is also the chairman of the Sun Group, and he is the unyielding successor.

Orrin is critically ill. He is the new chairman of a trillion business empire from Orrin.

However, no one thought that behind Hank, he did not see Orrin's shadow, but saw a middle-aged man who was nearly ten years younger than Hank, with a red face, tall and strong.

The media present could not help but exclaimed: "Who is this person? Why haven't I seen it before?"

No wonder they couldn't help Orrin all of a sudden.

In recent years, Orrin's image in front of the media has grown older.

Moreover, after Orrin became seriously ill, some media secretly took pictures of him in overseas hospitals. He was indeed very haggard. At the age of fifty, he seemed to be at least sixty.

Therefore, when I suddenly saw Orrin, who looked like 40 years old, no one could adapt to this violent contrast. Moreover, the media reporters were not relatives around him and couldn't recognize him at once. It was normal.

When Orrin walked in, some of the media reporters exclaimed: "I'll go!

The last one is Orrin, Chairman Sun!"

After he exclaimed, someone immediately questioned: "Bullshit! Orrin is almost dead, okay? The last person looks like he's forty years old. Can he be alone?"

The reporter resolutely said: "Ten years ago, I interviewed Chairman Sun, and he was what he is now! His appearance, demeanor, and demeanor are all right in memory!"

Chapter 1563

When the reporters heard this, everyone went to seriously look at Orrin now.

A closer look reveals that Orrin's previous shadow can indeed be seen, and that the five senses and temperament belong to the same person.

So everyone can be sure that this man in his forties is Orrin!

Now, the whole scene was in an uproar!

No one can understand why Orrin, who said in the headlines this morning that he is critically ill, is so energetic and radiant now!

Therefore, every photojournalist locked his lens firmly on Orrin, and the shutter sound made a sound!

At this time, the network media directly broadcast the conference live simultaneously on the Internet through on-site equipment.

When the vast number of people saw Orrin's red face, the stocks of many listed companies in the Sun Group that had already dropped their limit, immediately loosened!

The so-called limit-limit is a situation in which the stock price drops to 10% and it is not allowed to continue to fall, resulting in a large number of selling orders blocking the lowest price and the stock price unable to rise.

In fact, in this case, if someone eats all the sell orders at the limit price, the stock will automatically open the limit.

The most sensitive in the stock market are brokers and institutions. When they discovered that Orrin turned out to look like a okay person, they immediately realized that the news this morning must be fake news! Therefore, in this case, they fully believe that the Sun Group's share price will rise immediately.

At this time, if the selling order is eaten up at the limit price, you can buy bottom at the lowest price.

If the stock can rise against the trend in the future, from the lower limit all the way up to the daily limit, then the institution that buys the bottom will be able to seize the 20% rise in one day!

For example, the stock price was originally 100 Dollar, but ended up at 90 Dollar. At this time, 10,000 people put their sell orders at 90 Dollar. If someone puts these 10,000 people on a 90 Dollar stock Buy it all, and the stock price will begin to open the limit.

If you buy the bottom from the price of 90 Dollar, the stock price rises back to 100 Dollar, and then continues to rise to the 110 Dollar daily limit, it is equivalent to a short period of time, from 90 Dollar to 110 Dollar!

A large number of institutions are frantically accumulating funds, and the stock price has risen all the way after opening the down limit!

At this time, Orrin came to the front of the seat, stood in place and waved to the reporter, then walked up to the stage and sat in the middle of the rostrum.

In front of him, a microphone and his name tag were placed with the words: "Chairman, Orrin."

After sitting down, Orrin smiled into the microphone and said forcefully: "First of all, on behalf of the Sun Group and the Sun Group's board of directors, I would like to thank all friends from the media for participating in this press conference in their busy schedule."

A group of Sun Group shareholders followed him to applaud.

Afterwards, Orrin said: "Next, I will give some simple and concise answers to some of the questions that your media friends, stockholders and investors are concerned about."

Everyone didn't expect that Orrin would go straight to the topic after making a polite sentence, and he couldn't help but sit up straight, listening with respect.

Orrin cleared his throat and said in a loud voice: "The first problem is my personal health. I did have some problems with my body before, but now my body has fully recovered!"

As soon as this was said, everyone on the scene couldn't help but gasp. Everyone knows that Orrin got pancreatic cancer, and it is terminal stage.

This disease is known as the cancer with the highest mortality rate, and it is impossible to cure it.

Now, Orrin said that he has fully recovered, which has completely subverted everyone's understanding of the disease.

Chapter 1564

However, looking after Orrin's radiant face does not seem to be terminally ill. Is there really any medical miracle that can't be achieved?

At this moment, Orrin continued: "The second question, if you don't believe that my body has fully recovered, then after the press conference, I will go to Fairview Hospital for a full-body CT scan, and the result of the scan is I would like to announce it to all media and the general public."

With Orrin's words, everyone is not suspicious of his condition.

Because a whole body CT scan can find any kind of tumor, even very early stage carcinoma in situ, it can be found well.

If Orrin did not recover, he would definitely not dare to accept such an examination.

Everyone couldn't help but marvel. I didn't expect that even pancreatic cancer, a super terminal illness, could be born with such a miracle, which reminds people of the genius Jobs who died young a few years ago. It's the same disease, why didn't Jobs have such luck?

If Jobs is still alive, maybe he can bring more innovation and change to mankind.

Then, Orrin said: "The third question, I think everyone is very concerned about the arrangement of the chairman of the Sun Group. I now officially announce that I, Orrin, and the other two shareholders of the Sun Group, Hank and Carl, A few minutes ago, a voting rights transfer agreement was signed. Shareholders Hank and Carl have permanently transferred all the voting rights corresponding to their personal shares to me!"

When everyone heard this, they were even more stunned!

They had already inquired about the discord between the Sun family brothers from everywhere.

I know that Hank and Carl have been forming an alliance to deal with their elder brother, and they are also uniting with other shareholders to deal with their elder brother.

Everyone was still waiting to see a big family fight, but they didn't expect the three brothers to reach such a brotherly agreement.

Hank and Carl permanently transfer their voting rights to their eldest brother Orrin. Doesn't this mean that you will always obey Orrin?

What about the brothers competing?

What about the good legacy war?

The reporters present all felt extremely depressed.

It's like everyone has bought melon seeds and drinks, sitting in front of the TV and preparing to watch an Opera.

As a result, after turning on the TV, I found that all the empresses, concubines, and nobles in the harem were all clustered around the queen. Everyone had one mind with the queen. Everything was seen by the queen, and the whole harem was in harmony.

How can there be any fights? What's the life and death? How can there be any murder? As the party concerned, it is naturally the most cost-effective solution to make concerted efforts and turn fighting into jade. But as an audience, this kind of scene is boring to the extreme.

It can even be said to be very disappointing.

Orrin glanced over the eyes and expressions of all reporters. He smiled lightly and said into the microphone: "From today onwards, the three Sun family brothers of the Sun family will work together to bring the Sun family into a new glory. As the so-called brothers work together, and their profit cuts gold, we also believe that with our joint efforts, the Sun Group will surely return all stockholders and investors with better performance and higher market value."

After he finished speaking, he jokes and talks a little bit: "However, please allow me to say sorry to everyone here. I was disappointed for not letting you see a big family fight!"

As soon as these words came out, the reporters on the scene blushed, but at this moment the share prices of all listed companies under the Sun Group began to soar like a dragon!

Chapter 1565

Almost immediately after Orrin's domineering remarks, the stock price, which was steadily rising shortly after opening the limit, suddenly seemed to be sitting on a rocket, and directly rushed to the limit with a sound.

A large number of institutions and a large number of retail investors are staring at the press conference. Seeing this, they immediately have full confidence in the Sun Group and are optimistic about it, even far higher than before Orrin was sick!

Therefore, everyone started desperately buying all the stocks of Sun's Group-related listed companies that were available on the market, and immediately pulled the price to the daily limit.

In the blink of an eye, the stock price reversed and detonated the entire financial circle.

The reason why everyone is so optimistic about the Sun Group is not only because Orrin looks extremely healthy, but also because Orrin's voting rights in the Sun Group have reached 51%!

Before that, the three Gu brothers jointly held 51% of the shares and voting rights. Although Orrin alone owns half of it, he wants to implement a decision on the board of directors. He must also vote for the other two brothers, or let others Some minority shareholders who together exceed the shareholding ratio of Hank and Orrin voted in favor.

Now, no more.

He has fully achieved the goal of one person speaking and one person being the master. From now on, his control of the Sun Group will rise to an unprecedented new height.

This has strengthened the confidence of the market and investors in Orrin.

If you have confidence in him, you naturally have confidence in the Sun Group.

Once you have confidence in the company, you will have confidence in holding the company's stock.

As a result, the stock price skyrocketed!

Orrin did not talk to reporters too much at the scene. After explaining a few questions he wanted to say, he said: "In the future, the Sun Group will redouble its efforts to repay investors and shareholders for the Sun Group. Trust, and please trust us, we will definitely give you a satisfactory answer!"

After all, Orrin said again: "Today's press conference ends here, thank you for coming."

A reporter hurriedly stood up and asked loudly, "Chairman Sun, can you accept a simple interview?"

Orrin waved his hand: "There is no need for the interview. I just want to say so much. I have said too much, but it will affect everyone's reception of this important information."

After he finished speaking, Charlie Wade, who was under his stand, winked quietly and walked out of the venue.

The reporter also wanted to catch up for an interview, but the security personnel at the scene immediately stopped all the reporters and said politely: "Excuse me, the chairman does not accept additional interviews."

Charlie Wade stood up, Orrin's secretary had already arrived, and said respectfully: "Mr. Wade, the chairman said that the media has paid more attention. Let me take you through other exits."

Charlie Wade nodded, followed the secretary for a few steps, and came to Orrin's office.

Orrin was in red at this time. Seeing Charlie Wade coming in, he immediately stepped forward, patted his arm, and said excitedly: "Charlie Wade, you make me feel like a new life!"

Charlie Wade smiled: "Uncle Orrin, didn't you give you the medicine yesterday?"

Orrin shook his head: "It's not the same. I'm talking about a new life. It's in career. Starting today, the Sun Group can finally save a lot of internal friction and move forward!"

Speaking of this, Orrin sighed: "You don't know how it feels if you concentrate on doing things and the person next to you does everything possible to hold you back..."

"It's as if you want to lead everyone forward, and the people around you not only don't follow you, but also pull your sleeves, hug your thighs, and even block you in front and dig holes for you!"

"It's fine now, now I say to run, they must all run, not to run, they must run for me with a whip!"

Charlie Wade nodded and said with a smile: "Then I will congratulate Uncle Orrin in advance, and take the Sun family to the next level!"

Orrin looked at Charlie Wade and said seriously: "Charlie Wade, I hope that one day, you will lead the Wade family to the next level with the Sun family. At that time, you will be the most powerful person in the business world. !"

Chapter 1566

In Orrin's eyes, the Wade family and the Banks Family were two dragons competing.

The difference in strength between the two is not too great, but the Banks Family still beats the Wade Family.

In fact, in the early years, the strength of the two companies can be said to be almost the same.

Had it not been for Bruce's untimely death at a young age, the Wade family might have already surpassed the Banks Family under his leadership.

But it was precisely because of the fall of Bruce's genius that the Wade family had no successors, so that the Banks Family gradually opened up a bit of status.

However, Orrin believed that if Charlie Wade came to inherit the Wade family and then married his daughter, Charlie Wade would have both Wade and Sun in his hands by that time.

Even in the future, the two can be deeply merged together.

In that way, Charlie Wade would be able to beat the dust in the entire business community.

However, he didn't know when Charlie Wade could deal with all the matters of Aurouss Hill, and then he returned to Eastcliff to marry his daughter.

However, Orrin did not mention this matter, let alone urge him, but took a deep look at him, then patted him on the shoulder, and said seriously: "After leaving Charlie Wade, let's go see your parents. !"

Charlie Wade nodded gently and said, "Uncle Orrin, I want to buy them two bunches of flowers. Is there a flower shop nearby?"

"You don't need to buy it." Orrin said: "After we go out, your Angie has started to prepare. Now we are all ready. Let's go home directly, and after meeting with their wives, we will go to Wade Mountain together!" Charlie Wade said gratefully: "It's really hard work for Angie. These things should have been handled by my son..."

Orrin waved his hand: "Angie, you have the same sisters as your mother, and your father and I have the same brotherhood, and we have always regarded you as our own. Therefore, our two families are originally one family, and it is the same who manages them!"

Orrin's motorcade drove out of the Sun Group neatly.

The convoy returned to Sun's villa first, and the driver at home drove a black Rolls Royce out again. Angie and Stefanie were sitting in this car. Although the Rolls-Royce looked very large, it only had two seats in the back row, so the four people were divided into two cars, and under the escort of bodyguards, they quickly drove out of the city to the western suburbs of Eastcliff.

Eastcliff is surrounded by mountains on three sides and is full of endless Sabre Mountains.

Sabre is steep and steep, easy to defend and difficult to attack. From this point, the Great Wall of China began to extend in both directions, east to Shanghai, and west to Beijing.

Wade Mountain is an ingot-shaped green hill in the Sabe Mountains.

This place was originally deep in the mountains, with no people or roads. After the Wade family chose to build the ancestral tomb here, they built a road leading to the foot of the mountain and built a winding road to the mountainside. The investment was huge.

In the past, this mountain and this road were closed. Because the property rights were bought and the road was invested independently, other social vehicles and people were not allowed to enter. Orrin's motorcade could enter. This was because we had followed Wade in advance. Because the family said hello!

At this moment, Charlie Wade was sitting in the Rolls Royce, getting closer and closer to Wade Mountain.

In ten minutes, he will be able to see his parents who have been separated for nearly eighteen years.

Even though yin and yang are separated, he still can't restrain the tension in his heart.

He looked at Wade Mountain, and said silently in his heart: "Parents, my son has finally come to see you..."

Chapter 1567

Wade Mountain.

This mountain, which can be called a treasure of feng shui, is not only better than ingots in shape, but also better. It is surrounded by a continuous river with excellent water outlets.

The ancients loved mountains and water. Water not only cleans everything, it is also the source of life. Therefore, water must be indispensable for the so-called feng shui treasure.

The water of Wade Mountain is indeed beautiful from heaven. Not only does the heavenly gate open and the land is closed, but it also perfectly matches the trend of the fortune to the river and the position and orientation of the mountain itself, forming a "water bureau" feng shui array. .

Such a feng shui formation can guarantee the prosperity of the family and the prosperous future generations, and more importantly, it can break the situation of the Dragon Shoal before the Wade family.

Charlie Wade has a deep knowledge of Feng Shui mystery because he has studied the "Apocalyptic Book".

Although he didn't know why the old Feng Shui said that Wade Mountain was trapped in the shoal, he could perceive that the ancestral grave of Wade Mountain not only blessed the descendants and prospered family business, but also faintly soared into the sky.

This made him amazed. The Wade Family really had a lot of money. Not only could they buy such a feng shui place, but they could also invest so much money to make a big investment here.

The geomantic omen here is very good, and if the descendants are a little bit more vigorous, the Wade family will definitely continue to prosper.

When approaching the foot of Wade Mountain, Orrin reminded Charlie Wade:

"Charlie Wade, I will ask the driver to pull over and you can drive."

Charlie Wade didn't want to be exposed in front of the Wade family for the time being, so yesterday he had already agreed with Orrin, acting as a driver and assistant and going with him to worship his parents.

So he nodded and said, "Good Uncle Orrin, I'll drive."

The driver pulled the car over, handed the sunglasses to Charlie Wade, and said, "Mr. Wade, here is this for you."

Charlie Wade took the sunglasses and put them on, took out a disposable mask from his pocket, and then sat in the cab.

The driver did not stay in this car, but went to other vehicles behind.

Charlie Wade drove on and continued forward. When he reached the bottom of Wade Mountain, a mighty white marble gate tower stood in front of him, and under the gate tower, the electric gate was closed tightly, and several security personnel stood on both sides as if standing guard.

The leading car stopped in front of the gate, and then the convoy stopped one after another.

A security guard walked up to Orrin's car from the front. Orrin put down half of the window. The other side respectfully said, "Mr. Sun, please ask the bodyguard to park the car in the parking lot nearby. There are too many cars for fear of disturbing the ancestors of the Wade family. You can go in the car with your wife and young lady."

Orrin nodded and said to the assistant on the co-pilot: "Go and coordinate and let them wait for me in the parking lot."

The assistant hurriedly asked: "Chairman, what about your safety issues..."

Orrin said earnestly: "This is the site of the Wade Family, and there is absolutely no possibility of safety issues."

The security guard outside the car bowed respectfully: "Thank you Mr. Sun for your affirmation."

Afterwards, while the assistant pushed the door to get out of the car, he opened his mouth and said to Charlie Wade sitting in the cab: "Master driver, after going into the mountain, please don't honk the whistle or accelerate quickly, and keep the engine speed as low as possible. Below two thousand five hundred revolutions, so as not to make too much movement and disturb the quiet."

Charlie Wade nodded.

Naturally, the mausoleum should be as quiet as possible, not only can it not sound the horn, nor make noise.

Moreover, the sound of a car engine is the greater the speed, the greater the noise.

Chapter 1568

Whether it is an ordinary family car or a luxury car, when the engine speed is below 2,500 rpm, it will not make much movement, but if the speed is increased to three or four thousand, or even four or five thousand, the noise will immediately increased several times. Therefore, as a driver, you must be gentle when stepping on the accelerator.

At this time, all the vehicles carried by the security personnel drove into the parking lot beside the entrance building.

There are only two black Rolls Royces left, the one in front is driven by Charlie Wade, and the one in the back is another driver from the Sun family.

The electric door below the gate opened to both sides, and the security personnel made a gesture of asking. Charlie Wade stepped on the accelerator lightly and drove slowly into the gate building.

When Charlie Wade drove the car into the winding road of Wade Mountain, he became more and more admired for the Feng Shui master who selected this treasure.

There are countless mountains in the Sabre Mountains, and he can find them among the thousands of mountains, and he is indeed quite capable. The two cars were winding upwards on the Panshan Road, and Charlie Wade no longer paid attention to Feng Shui. He could already see a large white marble mausoleum on the mountainside. There was the current ancestral grave of the Wade family.

Soon, the Rolls Royce he was driving went to the flat ground not far below the tomb.

This is a specially opened parking lot. Several black men in black suits are standing here, it seems they should be the security personnel of Wade's grave.

The larger the family, the more attention is paid to the safety of the ancestral grave.

The top families can flourish and prosper, and the feng shui of the ancestral tomb must have played a considerable role, just like the ancient royal dragon veins, which is of great significance.

If it is a foe or a competitor who has misconceptions and deliberately destroys his family's ancestral grave, the wealth will be lost, or the family will be destroyed.

Therefore, there are as many as a hundred security personnel deployed by the Wade family in Wade Mountain. In a year, the maintenance and security expenses of the ancestral grave alone will cost at least several hundred million.

At this time, the security personnel guided Charlie Wade, and after stopping the car in the designated parking space of the parking lot, Charlie Wade immediately got out of the car and went to the back row to help Orrin open the door.

In the car behind, Angie and Stefanie also got out of the car.

Afterwards, the driver of that car opened the trunk, and Angie and Stefanie carefully took out a few bunches of flowers from inside, beckoned to Charlie Wade and said, "John, come here, and help hold the flowers."

Charlie Wade knew this little Lloyd called himself, so he understood it, hurried to the front, and took two bouquets of flowers from the hands of the two.

Angie took out two more bundles from inside, and he and Stefanie each held one.

Orrin also stepped forward at this time and said to Charlie Wade: "Come on, John, give me a bunch."

Charlie Wade hurriedly handed him one of them.

Orrin deliberately sighed at this time, rubbed the knee of his right leg, and said, "Some time ago, during chemotherapy, the knee of the right leg caused by the medicine seemed to be still a little uncomfortable. There are more than 100 steps, John, or you Just help me up."

Charlie Wade naturally nodded and agreed: "Good Chairman Sun!"

Orrin said to the other driver: "Curt, just let John help me over. You are waiting in the car."

The driver nodded immediately: "Okay!"

At this moment, the security officer said with some embarrassment: "Mr. Sun, this does not meet Wade's regulations. According to the Wade Family's regulations, only you, your wife, and the young lady can go up the mountain. Even we can't accompany you. It's still troublesome Sir, stay in the car and wait for you!"

Chapter 1569

The management of Wade's grave has always been extremely strict. According to the Wade family's regulations, in addition to immediate family members, collateral blood relatives who want to come to the ancestral tomb to worship must have the permission of the Wade family. The requirements for outsiders are even stricter.

It must be a family or individual who has a deep connection with the Wade family to be allowed to enter.

Like Orrin, he and Bruce are brothers of worship. Therefore, their family of three will be approved to worship.

But his entourage did not have the qualifications to approach Wade's grave.

After all, just two words, not worthy.

The Wade family buried here, whichever is placed outside, is a dragon and phoenix among the people, and who are the drivers, entourage, and assistant who are qualified to worship.

Not to mention other people's servants, even the Wade Family's servants and the Wade Family's security here are not eligible to enter the tomb area.

This area is cleaned and maintained three times in the morning, noon and evening every day, and the person responsible for cleaning and maintenance is not the subordinates of the Wade family, but the collateral relatives of the Wade family.

Of course, even if it is a collateral relative, it must be a talented person surnamed Wade.

Therefore, the security personnel stopped Charlie Wade, naturally because of this.

Orrin saw that the other party was about to stop Charlie Wade, and immediately said: "Young man, I have just recovered from a serious illness, and my body still has some sequelae. It is really inconvenient to move. Let my driver help me up. Your Wade graves were not so strict before. At that time, the entourage could also accompany it in."

The security personnel looked sorry, but said in a very firm tone: "I'm sorry, Mr. Sun, this is the new rule set by the family owner after the ancestral grave moved into Wade Mountain, and we must abide by it and never exceed it, so please Please forgive me."

Orrin suddenly became anxious.

It was for Charlie Wade to personally honor his parents, so I made a special trip to bring him here.

Charlie Wade didn't want to reveal his identity, so he could only pretend to be a driver, but what he didn't expect is that Wade's current management is so strict.

He, the chairman of the Sun Group, even put a pleading tone on the security personnel, saying: "Young man, I am indeed suffering from physical inconvenience. Please also look at the face of my relationship with the Wade family. Open up a side for me, you don't want to watch me roll down the stone steps without standing still, right?"

Seeing this, the security personnel hurriedly bowed deeply: "Mr. Sun, there is really no way to accommodate this matter, otherwise, the job you are playing will not be kept."

Orrin was a little annoyed, and questioned a bit angrily: "Your rules are too unreasonable, right? Our two are family friends, how can I make me look like an outsider?"

The security staff said embarrassingly: "Mr. Sun, let's tell you that this rule is set by the old master, and the owner treats the old master's words as a standard, so we must strictly observe and not violate it. Please forgive me!"

Orrin got angry anxiously, and blurted out, "Then this is not accommodating, right? Should I call Elder Wade now?"

The security personnel nodded hurriedly and said, "Mr. Sun, you should call the owner of the house. If the owner allows him, he will never stop him!"

Orrin knew that he couldn't persuade the other party, so he sighed and said, "Yes, I will call Elder Wade."

Although he said so, he had no bottom in his heart.

He knew about the Wade family, and knew that the Wade family moved the ancestral tomb to Wade Mountain because of an expert, and that expert should be the old master of the security staff.

If it was the request made by the old master, I believe that the old man would never open any back door to himself for his own Feng Shui.

Could it be that Charlie Wade could not be allowed to mourn his parents in person today?

Chapter 1570

He has been separated from his parents for 18 years!

Charlie Wade was also anxious at this time.

In fact, since he got the "Apocalyptic Book", he hasn't felt this panic and eagerness for a long time.

My parents were buried in one of the magnificent mausoleums not far away. As long as they stepped up to more than one hundred stone steps, they could go to their parents' graves to pay homage, fulfilling the biggest dream of eighteen years.

However, if these people don't let themselves go, they can't go all the way, right?

Or, do I have to identify myself from the Wade family?

However, although you can make yourself honorable to worship your parents in that way, after that, waiting for yourself is the real trouble.

At this moment, a loud voice sounded: "Let him go up!"

Everyone followed the prestige, only to see an old man with an old-fashioned, completely white hair, beard, and eyebrows, walking slowly over with a cane.

When Charlie Wade saw this person, he felt that he should be a hundred years old. Although he was very old, his walking posture was surprisingly stable with the help of crutches.

It is the twelfth lunar month of winter. The old man is only wearing a white Tom Ford suit, but he can't see that he is half cold.

And his crutches seem to be a bit different.

Charlie Wade has seen many old people's walking sticks, with dragon heads carved on the top, but there is a python carved on his walking stick.

After taking a few glances at the other party, Charlie Wade couldn't help but wondered in his heart: "Could it be that Uncle Orrin said this person, the old Chinese Fengshui master invited by the Wade family from the United States?"

Later, he couldn't help thinking: "Why did he agree to let me go up? Could it be that he saw through my identity? Is his insight so strong? Or is there any other way he can figure out my identity?"

Just when he couldn't think of the whole story, the person in charge of security asked in surprise: "Master, don't you mean that outsiders are not allowed to go up except Wade Family's best friend?"

The old man smiled slightly, looked at Charlie Wade and said, "He is not an outsider."

The security staff was even more puzzled: "Master, what do you mean? Why don't I understand?"

The old man smiled and said, "I think this person should have a deep connection with the Wade family in his previous life, so I'm not an outsider, let him go up."

"Have a relationship in the previous life?" The security personnel were naturally a little unbelieving, but the thought of feng shui was very mysterious at first, maybe this thing might be true.

So, he said embarrassingly: "Master, Patriarch meant..."

The old man replied: "Have your Patriarch said that as long as I am on this day, I will have the final say here?"

The security personnel hurriedly and respectfully said: "The owner did say that!"

The old man asked again: "Then your Patriarch has said that even if I ask you to tear down Wade's tomb, you must not disobey?"

The security staff is more respectful: "The owner did say it!"

The old man nodded and asked: "Then I let him go up, do you have any comments?"

The security staff took a step back subconsciously and respectfully said: "Go back to the old master, I have no opinion! Everything is subject to your opinion!"

The old man nodded in satisfaction, and then made a gesture of inviting Charlie Wade, saying, "This gentleman, please."

Chapter 1571

Charlie Wade was very puzzled.

He didn't quite understand why the old man seemed to have spotted himself at a glance.

However, since the old man helped him solve the current problem, the most important thing for him is to go and worship his parents first. The rest can be said later.

So he arched his hand at the old man and said, "Old sir, thank you."

After speaking, Orrin assisted Orrin pretendingly, and together with Angie and Stefanie, they stepped up the stone steps.

No one else followed, including the old master, who was also standing quietly below, looking at Charlie Wade's background, desperately restraining the excitement in his heart.

The tomb of the Wade family is divided into nine rows.

The top row is the first ancestor of the Wade family who left a grave.

The lower you go, the lower your seniority.

Charlie Wade's parents were buried in the penultimate row.

In this row, there are a total of twenty graves of the same size, but only one grave has a tombstone in front of it.

Orrin stopped in this row, pointed to the only tombstone in this row, and said to Charlie Wade: "Charlie Wade, that is your parents' tomb."

Charlie Wade nodded lightly and murmured: "In the Wade family's generation, only my parents have passed away. The others should still be alive, right?"

Orrin said: "Yes, even though this generation is in their 40s or 50s, they are in their 40s and 50s in their prime of life. If your parents were not harmed by others, they should be the mainstay of the Wade family now."

Charlie Wade sighed and walked inward.

Those security guards, as well as the old master, were all below, so they couldn't see the situation here either, Charlie Wade stopped pretending, and Orrin stepped in first.

When he came to his parents' grave, Charlie Wade took off his sunglasses and mask, and looked at the photos and names of his parents on the tombstone. The tears couldn't stop instantly, and he kept streaming. In his mind, it seemed that another movie was playing at a very fast speed.

This movie chronicles himself from the moment he remembered it and lasted until he was eight years old.

Then, he used a faster speed in his mind to flash his own life for more than ten years in fragments.

The eighteen years without parents have been long and difficult, and full of bitterness and pain that ordinary people can't understand.

At this moment, he had countless words in his heart that wanted to confide to his deceased parents, but when the words reached his mouth, and he couldn't say a word.

After crying for a moment in front of the tombstone, Charlie Wade knelt on the ground with a thud, holding flowers in both hands, and placing them respectfully in front of the tombstone, choked up and said: "Dad, mom, sons are not filial. You have been there for 18 years before his son came to see You, all these years, my son has been trapped and overwhelmed. He has not been able to do his filial piety. Please forgive me..."

After speaking, he leaned down and knocked nine heads in front of the tombstone.

People say that they kneel down to the sky, kneel down to the ground, and kneel down to their parents in the middle, but in Charlie Wade's eyes, the sky and the earth are not worth kneeling. In the world, only parents are worth kneeling.

Orrin also stepped forward at this time, knelt on one knee in front of the tombstone, and sighed: "Big brother and sister-in-law, I promised you for 18 years. After all, my brother did not break his promise and finally brought Charlie Wade back. Look at him. Now Already a talented person!"

You are almost exactly the same as your eldest brother, and you are also a dragon and phoenix!"

As he said, he wiped a tear and continued: "Last time I came to see you, I said I would go down and meet you soon, but I didn't expect that Charlie Wade saved my life, and the older brother and sister-in-law may have to work hard for you. Wait for me for a while..."

Speaking of this, Orrin was in tears.

Angie stepped forward, also knelt down beside Orrin on one knee, choked up and said: "Big brother, sister-in-law, thank you for being in heaven, bless god to survive the catastrophe, the Wade family's kindness to Sun family, we will never forget it in this life... .."

Stefanie knelt on her knees beside Charlie Wade, did not say a word, just cried silently next to Charlie Wade.

After kneeling on the ground for a long time, Charlie Wade wiped away his tears, and gently wiped his parents' tombstones with his sleeves several times, saying: "Dad, mom, my son can't stay with you for too long this time, but please don't worry. I will definitely come to see you every year."

After that, he sighed, helped Orrin beside him, and said, "Uncle Orrin, let's go."

Orrin nodded slightly and pulled his wife to stand up.

Charlie Wade put on his sunglasses and masks again, and walked down slowly with Orrin's family of three.

Chapter 1572

Below the stone steps, a few security guards were still standing straight.

And the old master, holding the python head crutch with both hands, looked at Charlie Wade with a little awe in his eyes.

Charlie Wade didn't speak, but walked to the old master and bowed deeply.

The old master hurriedly threw away the crutches to help, and said with sincerity and trepidation: "You can't make it, you can't make it..."

Several security personnel were a little surprised.

When the Patriarch of the Wade family bowed to the old master, the old master didn't blink. Why did the driver bow to him, so he was so polite?

At this time, the old master opened his mouth and asked Charlie Wade:

"Young man, I wonder if I can take a step to speak?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "No problem."

The old photographer turned to the security guards and said, "No one is allowed to follow."

Everyone nodded hurriedly.

Charlie Wade nodded to Orrin, and walked to the other side of the mountainside with the old master.

Here, there is a platform paved with natural marble, next to the mountain.

Charlie Wade always felt that the entire Wade Mountain had a soaring momentum. After seeing this huge and flat platform, he suddenly realized that the center of the entire Feng Shui Bureau was here.

The old master took him to stand in the center of this platform, and respectfully said: "The entire Wade Mountain and the entire Fengshui Array in Wade Mountain are actually set up for you."

Charlie Wade asked in surprise: "Set for me? I don't know what the old man means? Do you know me?"

The old Master said: "Four years ago, something happened to the Wade family, and the entire Wade family was trapped in the Dragon Shoal and couldn't get out of it. At that time, it was when you got married."

"Getting married?!" Charlie Wade exclaimed: "When I got married?"

"Yes." The old master nodded, and said: "Long Khun Shoal, this dragon is talking about you."

Charlie Wade frowned and asked: "Does that mean I'm trapped in a talk?"

"Yes." The old master said respectfully: "You are the only dragon in the Wade family! What is a dragon? The top is in the sky, and the bottom is in the sea, but you have become a home by the river. This is the dragon. Sleepy shoals!"

"And if you are trapped in the shoal, the entire Wade family's fortune will be exhausted. At that time, your grandfather was suffering from a serious illness and was unable to treat it because of this situation!"

After speaking, the old master said again: "So, your grandpa found me."

"And I, three months before your grandfather found me, just gave myself a divination."

"The hexagram image of that hexagram is a dead end. It means that my yang life may be exhausted within a few years. I was already a hundred or two at that time. It doesn't matter if I die. It's just that in the dead end, it happened to be revealed to me. A sect, all hexagrams in this sect, point to the east."

"I don't understand what I'm referring to. I've been looking for more clues. At this time, your grandpa came and asked me to go back to China to watch Feng Shui for Wade's family. Only then did I understand that the dead life was in the eastern motherland, At Wade's house."

"When I came to Eastcliff, I looked through all the feng shui clues for the Wade family. After a few hangs, I figured out that the Wade family has a dragon and is trapped in the shallows. If this dragon can't fly into the sky, not only the Wade family will be finished. There will be no trace of the path of life I set aside. Therefore, I spent four years searching and rebuilding Wade Mountain. Last spring, I broke the predicament of Wade Shoal, so you were able to get out of trouble. ."

When Charlie Wade heard this, his heart was shocked. Could it be that what he said to get himself out of trouble was to get the "Apocalyptic Book"? Because at this time last spring, I was completely in line with my own "Apocalyptic Book"!

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade sighed the old man's proficiency in feng shui divination, while worried, did he know the existence of the "Apocalyptic Book"?

This is one's deepest and deepest secret, and even the closest person can never tell it!

Therefore, he deliberately asked the old man: "Old gentleman, you said that by rebuilding Wade Mountain, I was able to get out of trouble. What do you mean by that? How can I get out of trouble? How can I get out of trouble?"

The old man shook his head: "This hexagram is not something I can fully understand. I can only calculate that you are out of trouble now, and you are going to soar into the sky. After you get out of trouble, you will also bring me my life. , I have continued my ten years of life, so I have not left, staying here waiting for you, but I can't figure out what this life is."

Charlie Wade was even more surprised. The so-called life of the old man, could it be the extra rejuvenation pills on his body? ! ?

Chapter 1573

This time in Eastcliff, Charlie Wade did bring more than one Rejuvenation Pill.

Although he was sure that a single rejuvenating pill could heal Orrin, he still brought two or three extra pills to be on the safe side, just in case.

From this point of view, among the hexagrams that the old man gave him for divination, the only life left in the dead is the rejuvenation pill on his body.

At the same time, he couldn't help but figure out what the old man said just now.

It seemed that when he married Claire Wilson in Aurouss Hill, the dilemma of Longkun Shoal had already formed.

The old man said just now that the reason why he was trapped in the shallows was because he became a home on the river bank. Aurouss Hill was originally located on the bank of the Yangtze River, which corresponds to it.

Moreover, his fate has been rough, and it was not until the sudden appearance of Stephen Thompson last spring that it brought him a turning point.

However, the biggest opportunity in life was not to be found again by the Wade family, but to get the "Apocalyptic Book" by chance. That time also happened to be last spring.

From this it can be seen that the cause and effect of the whole thing were first of all that he was trapped in the shallows, so that the whole Wade family was also unlucky.

Then, the Wade family found the old man and tried to ask him to help solve the trouble.

The old man made a divination for himself and saw that the East had an opportunity to increase his ten-year life, so he returned to the motherland not far away to solve the difficulties for the Wade family, and at the same time waited for his chance.

It took him four years to find Wade Mountain and set up a feng shui array on Wade Mountain to break through the situation of his own Dragon Shoal. The Wade Family survived the crisis and he benefited a lot.

And he has been waiting for his appearance, because he is the student in his hexagram.

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade bowed slightly to the old man: "Old sir, the younger generation really benefited a lot from all your hard work! Please be respected by the younger generation!"

The old man hurriedly stepped forward to stop him, and said in a very humble manner: "How can you do this, I dare not accept such a gift from you!"

Charlie Wade insisted: "It should be! If it weren't for you, I might still be trapped in the shallows!"

The old man shook his head: "In human fate, Longge is the supreme existence, so the Dragon Shoal is a predicament, not a dead end. The shoal can trap the dragon, but it can't kill the dragon. Therefore, the predicament when it will be cracked, it is only a matter of time. If I do not come to break this round, there will be others who will break this round!"

Speaking of this, he said with great emotion: "God knows good and evil, and the way of heaven is reincarnation. No matter who breaks your predicament, it is a great contribution, and the way of heaven will certainly give him enough in return."

Afterwards, the old man looked at Charlie Wade and said with a slight smile: "The hexagram says, if I help you get out of trouble, you will have a ten-year life, maybe in the ten years, the judge is already in the book of life and death. So, thank you again!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said to the old man: "Old sir, I believe in geomantic omen, fate, and heaven, but I don't believe in ghosts and gods. In this world, there will be no life and death books."

The old man nodded non-committal, and smiled: "Hey, the mystery of heaven is not something I can fully understand. To be honest, I still don't know where the students in the hexagrams are."

Charlie Wade nodded, took out a rejuvenating pill from the pocket inside his jacket, handed it to him, and said, "Old gentleman, this should be your lifeblood!"

The old man trembled all over, looking at Charlie Wade as if struck by lightning, then looked at the rejuvenating pill in his hand, and exclaimed: "This... is this?"

Chapter 1574

Charlie Wade said earnestly: "You helped me, I will naturally help you too. If you take this medicine, it will increase your longevity by ten years. It shouldn't be a problem."

Although the old man didn't know what Rejuvenation Pill was, he still nodded in excitement.

Immediately after losing his crutches, he knelt on the ground tremblingly, raising his hands above his head.

Charlie Wade put the Rejuvenating Pill in his hands, then helped him up and said: "Old sir, take it now. At your age, you should not see any effect from the outside after taking it, but the real effect, A person with great wisdom like you should be able to feel it."

The old man was very grateful and blurted out: "Thank you, Master Wade!" After that, he no longer hesitated and put the Rejuvenating Pill in his mouth.

After that, the old man closed his eyes motionlessly for about a minute. A minute later, he opened his eyes, looked at Charlie Wade with tears in his eyes, knelt down again, and choked up in his mouth: "Master Wade, this medicine is really a magical medicine! Next, thank you for your help! "

Charlie Wade said hurriedly: "Old sir, you are an elder, why should you be so polite."

The old man said seriously: "In terms of fate, you are Dragon and I am Python. Whenever the python sees a dragon, you must bow your head. Even if it is a python that has been doing things for a thousand years, you must bow down when you encounter a newly born young dragon. Just now there are too many people around, I am afraid that your identity will be leaked, and cannot salute you immediately. I hope you can forgive me!"

Charlie Wade smiled and waved his hand: "These are just some statements, you don't have to care about it like this."

The old man said very solemnly: "The more you believe in fate, the more you must follow the way of heaven and act in harmony with the sky. If I see you not worshipping, it will be disrespectful! If there is such a thing, the way of heaven will remember me!"

Seeing the old man's resolute attitude, Charlie Wade no longer insisted, but asked, "Old gentleman, the younger generation still doesn't know your name. Is it convenient to disclose it?"

The old man immediately arched his hands and said with respect: "Young Master Wade, whose surname is Exeor, is named Orion Exeor. He is a direct descendant of Balig Exeor, a master of Fengshui in the Moore Dynasty."

Charlie Wade suddenly realized, admiringly said: "Unexpectedly, after the old gentleman is a famous sect, no wonder I have such a profound knowledge of Feng Shui!"

With that, Charlie Wade couldn't help thinking of the fake Feng Shui master who deceived Jasmine back then. He also claimed to be a descendant of Balig Exeor, but he had no real skills.

However, the old man in front of him can master the art of divination. Even as far away as the United States, he can infer so many key issues. He is indeed a rare master.

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade asked again: "Old man, why have you always settled in the United States?"

Orion Exeor smiled bitterly and said: "During the War of Resistance, my father was concerned about the motherland and had the greatest divination in his life. Although he calculated that China would never die, he also calculated that the Exeor family would be destroyed, so he took his own At the expense of life, breaking the game saved the lives of other people in our family, but the premise is that our family must travel across oceans..."

"So in 1938, I buried my father, took my mother, younger siblings, and moved to the United States. Then I set up a family and started a business there. Later I thought about moving my family back. But because I have lived there for many years, my family and career , Chances, grievances are all involved, and can't afford to toss, so I have always settled there."

Charlie Wade nodded and asked him, "Then what are your plans next?"

Orion Exeor looked at the thousands of mountains, and said with a smile: "The descendants are all in the United States. I have been out for four years this time. They are so concerned. Since I have already gotten the opportunity of ten years of life from you, I thought about sealing it up. , Go back and live forever!"

Chapter 1575

Hearing that the old master was going back to the United States to take care of his life, Charlie Wade arched his hands at him and said with a smile: "In this case, the juniors wish you happiness and health for the rest of your life!"

Orion Exeor replied in a busy manner, and said flatteringly: "I would like to thank Master Wade for your blessing!"

After all, Orion Exeor hesitated for a moment and said, "Master Wade, I have a piece of advice below, I hope you can listen to it."

Charlie Wade said immediately: "Old gentleman, please say, the younger generation listens very carefully!"

Orion Exeor said: "Although your problem of the Dragon Shoal has been broken, you should not stay on the riverside to talk."

Charlie Wade asked, "Then where do you think I should go?"

Orion Exeor said respectfully: "I think you should come to Eastcliff, because this is the capital of a country. From the perspective of the city's feng shui fate, this is the city with the highest fate of the country. You come back here from As far as Feng Shui is concerned, it is the dragon entering the sea!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "Thank you for your suggestion, I will consider it seriously."

Orion Exeor nodded, as if he could see Charlie Wade's thoughts, and said seriously: "Master Wade, it is said that you must be cautious and the first one is not to deceive yourself. First of all, don't deceive your own heart. No matter what you say next, you should listen to everything, and you must be loyal to your original heart..."

Charlie Wade nodded: "I understand, the junior has been taught."

Orion Exeor hurriedly waved his hand and said, "Don't dare to be Master Wade! I will have a fate with you next time. I don't know if there will be a chance to meet again in the future. If you need it, I can count it for you..."

Charlie Wade subconsciously wanted to agree, but after thinking for a moment, he shook his head and said: "Old sir, you don't need to forget about the hexagrams. I am a temperament axis, and my destiny makes me go east. I might want to go west. Heavenly secret, on the contrary, I might do something against my intentions. Let me go on slowly!"

Orion Exeor was shocked.

Over the years, as a top-level photographer, he has been madly sought after by countless people, and countless people have come to him at all costs, count them, and give directions.

But even so, there are still many people who have no chance to make themselves count.

But it was the first time that he saw someone like Charlie Wade, and he didn't even have the heart to spy on the future, fortune, and heaven. It was really rare to see.

In shock, he couldn't help but admire Charlie Wade a little bit more. So, he bowed to Charlie Wade and said, "Master Wade, let's meet by chance!"

Charlie Wade smiled and nodded, and said: "Old gentleman, have a good journey!"

When they returned to the parking lot, everyone looked suspiciously at the two of them. They didn't understand, what is there to talk about, the old and the young, who had been talking for so long.

Orion Exeor knew that Charlie Wade did not want to reveal his identity, so he directly said to the person in charge of Wades Security: "Thank you for getting me a car. I will pack my luggage and send me to the airport."

The man asked in surprise: "Old Master, are you leaving now?"

Orion Exeor nodded and smiled: "It has been four years. My promise to your Patriarch has been fulfilled, and it's time to go back."

The man said hurriedly and respectfully: "Old Master, don't you go to the Wade family to meet the Patriarch? Or I will inform the Patriarch and let him come to see you?"

The person in charge of the security knows very well that the Wade Family's old man respects this old master very much.

Charlie Wade's grandfather is not seventy years old this year, and Orion Exeor is already a centenarian with a generation difference in age, so Charlie Wade's grandfather has always called himself a junior and respected him.

When the old man brought Orion Exeor back from abroad, he arranged for him to live in the Wade family mansion, and he was even more meticulously served on weekdays.

However, after Wade Mountain was built, Orion Exeor had to move out of the Wade family and live here.

The old man is too embarrassed to let the old master live in the tomb of the Wades. Even if Wade Mountain is very well built, there is an area dedicated to office and living for the staff, but the old man still feels that Orion Exeor's old man cannot condescend to live here.

However, Orion Exeor insisted on moving over even though he tried to stay.

Because he has been waiting for his chance, waiting for the life gate in his hexagram to open, waiting for Charlie Wade to appear, and give him the Rejuvenation Pill that can extend his life for ten years.

Now, the opportunity to stay for four years has arrived, and it is time to go.

Therefore, he said to the person in charge: "Thank you to tell your Patriarch that Exeor has promised him, and he has done it. Moreover, Exeor has been away for too long and is homesick, so he will not say goodbye to him. bye!"

After all, he arched his hands at everyone, and when he looked at Charlie Wade, he paused for a moment, his eyes full of gratitude.

Afterwards, he turned and raised his head and laughed loudly, and exclaimed in a puff of air: "Laugh to the sky and go out, I am a Penghao native!"

After saying this, people have already stepped out.

Orrin couldn't help sighing: "The centenarians still have this kind of courage, it's really extraordinary!"

Charlie Wade smiled on the side, and while the Wade family security personnel were chasing Orion Exeor away, he said to Orrin: "Uncle Orrin, let's go back too."

"Okay!" Orrin nodded and said: "Go back, come back next time!"

Charlie Wade will continue to play the role of the driver, so he opened the door for Orrin, and after Orrin got in the car, he got into the Rolls-Royce cab again.

Start the car.

As soon as Charlie Wade drove the car out of the parking lot, Orrin in the back row asked him, "Charlie Wade, what did the old teacher talk to you just now? I think he seems to respect you very much."

Charlie Wade smiled faintly and said, "The old man recognized me and knew that I was the Wade family, so he gave me some advice."

Orrin asked in surprise: "How can he recognize you?! He knows you?"

Charlie Wade shook his head: "I don't know him, but he is a descendant of the Exeor family after all. He is still very accomplished in Feng Shui and divination. Maybe I will come if I get it right."

Orrin couldn't help sighing: "No wonder the Wade family refused to let you go up the mountain, but he said that you are not an outsider. That was what he meant!"

After speaking, Orrin asked again: "This Feng Shui technique is so magical? Who knows when it will come?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Maybe, although the things of the ancestors are ancient, but I have to admit, they are also very intelligent, and even include great wisdom that we don't understand. Just like the Mayans, in such an ancient period, they almost The complete calendar has been calculated, and it looks incredible to us modern people."

Orrin nodded seriously, then remembered something, and asked Charlie Wade: "Charlie Wade, what are your plans next?"

Charlie Wade said: "Tomorrow, a friend's grandmother will have her birthday. I will send some gifts. After attending the birthday banquet, I will return to Aurouss Hilll."

Orrin hurriedly said, "What are you doing in such a hurry? It's not too late to live for a few more days before leaving!"

Chapter 1577

At Orrin's words, Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "Uncle Orrin, Aurouss Hilll still has a lot to do, so I can't go back."

Orrin heard this, nodded lightly, and sighed softly: "I hope you will often come to Eastcliff to see your uncle in the future. Angie and I are looking forward to your return to Eastcliff for development!"

Charlie Wade just responded, and didn't say more.

Orrin also tacitly did not ask this question again. Instead, he asked Charlie Wade: "Charlie Wade, you said you are going to attend the birthday banquet of your friend's grandma tomorrow. Are you ready for the gift?"

Charlie Wade said: "Not yet, I plan to go to the street to have a look later."

Although Charlie Wade has a rejuvenation pill that is of great significance to the elderly, he and Loreen's grandma have never even seen each other. Naturally, it was impossible to prepare such an expensive gift for birthday celebrations in the past, so he still planned to buy more than 100,000 Dollar on the street. The gifts on the left and right, expressing your heart, are almost the same.

When Orrin heard this, he smiled and said: "I have a fan in my house. The fan face is a picture of good fortune and longevity painted by Mr. Baishi. The fan bone is a fine-leaf red sandalwood, coupled with a master-level engraver. You might as well take it to give the other party a birthday gift."

Charlie Wade said hurriedly: "Uncle Orrin, how can this be? How can I take your things to give away, I should buy one myself."

Orrin insisted: "What is there to be polite between you and your uncle? A fan is nothing but a fan, which is not worth much. But because the subject is a picture of a happy birthday, it is still very good to use it as a birthday gift for the elderly."

As he said, Orrin hurriedly exhorted, "This is the case, don't turn away from your uncle, let alone see outsiders! Otherwise, uncle will be angry."

Seeing his resolute attitude, Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Then thank you Uncle Orrin!"

.....

The next morning.

Charlie Wade declined Orrin's kindness to send him a car, and walked out of Sun's house alone holding the long gift box he gave.

His wife Claire Wilson Wilson sent him an address, and that address was Thomas's villa.

Thomas's villa is not far from Sun's.

A total of more than 20 minutes by car.

In Eastcliff, the Thomas family can only be regarded as a second-rate family.

Moreover, in the second-rate, it is still the one at the end of the crane.

In the past few years, the Thomas family's career has declined severely. If it hadn't been for Loreen's aunt to marry the Kilgore family, the Kilgore family had given the Thomas family a hand. The Thomas family's fear would have fallen to the level of a third-rate family.

But this is Eastcliff after all, even if it is a family at the end of the second-tier, placed in other second-tier cities, it can definitely become the top.

Because of this, although the Thomas family has fallen a little, the Thomas family mansion is very luxurious. A grand luxury villa costs at least 300 million.

Charlie Wade's taxi could only stop at the door of the villa area, and the security management was very strict, so Charlie Wade could only call Loreen after getting off the bus at the door and let her come out to pick it up.

When Loreen heard that Charlie Wade was here, she ran out almost happily. Today's Loreen dressed very beautifully, and because it was her grandmother's birthday, she also deliberately put on some light makeup, which looked very dignified and generous.

Upon seeing Charlie Wade, Loreen said happily: "Charlie Wade, you are here!"

As he said, he ran up and hugged him by the arm, pulling him to walk in, and said with excitement, "Go, I will introduce my parents to you."

Charlie Wade hurriedly pulled out his arm and said awkwardly: "Loreen, we can't do this, it's not appropriate..."

Loreen deliberately curled her lips and said, "What's wrong? It's not good to be close to friends?"

Chapter 1578

Charlie Wade touched his nose: "Um...I am your girlfriend's husband after all!"

Loreen said slightly perfunctorily: "I know, the fake husband, I have been married for four years, and I don't know when you can play the game of the house."

Just as he was talking, a limited edition Bentley car drove up to the front and stopped beside them. The rear seat window was lowered. In the car, a middle-aged woman dressed in luxurious clothes looked at Loreen and asked, "Loreen, you Why did you come out?"

When Loreen saw the woman, she hurriedly smiled and said, "Oh, second aunt! Where is my second uncle?"

The middle-aged woman in the car said: "He is still busy, come over before the luncheon birthday banquet."

Loreen asked again: "What about my brother?"

The middle-aged woman said helplessly: "I didn't see him last night. I was mad at me. You said that this kid doesn't have a long memory at all. When his body recovers, he doesn't come home again. If you look back, you must help. Second aunt talk about him!"

Loreen smiled bitterly: "Second Aunt, I don't dare to talk about my brother's temper. As soon as I talk about him, he will bark at me..."

The middle-aged woman sighed and said: "This child is becoming more and more disobedient..."

With that, she looked at Charlie Wade next to Loreen and asked with a smile: "Oh, isn't this young man your boyfriend?"

Loreen glanced at Charlie Wade and smiled shyly: "Not yet."

"Isn't it?" The middle-aged woman said the word "return" heavily, and said with a smile: "Then when can I change from 'not yet' to 'yes'?" Loreen said embarrassedly: "Oh, second aunt, you are too gossip, go in quickly, grandma is talking about you!"

The middle-aged woman smiled and said, "Do you want me to take you two for a while?"

Loreen hurriedly waved her hand: "No need, we just walk in, it's not far."

The middle-aged woman nodded: "Okay, I won't quarrel with you, my second aunt will go in first."

After all, the Bentley car slowly drove into the gate of the villa area. Charlie Wade was a little helpless at this time, and hurriedly said to Loreen: "You must never introduce me to others like this. What if you get misunderstood? What if you know it at first? Then someone asks me if I am who, you say I am your girlfriend's husband."

Loreen pouted: "It's just a joke, why bother to be so serious."

Charlie Wade said seriously: "This matter must be true. This is a matter of principle."

Loreen had no choice but to nod her head: "Well, a matter of principle, it won't work if I don't say it!"

As she said, she hurriedly turned off the subject: "Let's go in quickly, it's too early!"

Charlie Wade wanted to give her a gift, and then left. But when he thought, his wife had confessed that she wanted to give Loreen's grandma a birthday. At least he had to meet Loreen's grandma. It would be considered as sending the words on behalf of his wife. mission accomplished.

So, he kept silent and followed Loreen into the villa area.

When walking in from the villa area, a red Ferrari suddenly whizzed past from behind. Loreen saw the car and hurriedly waved and shouted, "Cousin, cousin!"

It's just that the supercar engine sound was already loud, and the speed was so fast, it passed with a swish, so the driver did not hear her at all.

Charlie Wade asked Loreen: "Your cousin is driving?"

"Yes." Loreen nodded and said, "My cousin is very strange. He had an operation some time ago. It just happened not long before that, it was awkward again."

Chapter 1579

Charlie Wade didn't know who Loreen's cousin was.

I just think that Eastcliff has a lot of rich people, and there are also a lot of rich young masters. There are eight or nine of these young masters. They are all relatively awkward dudes, so it's not surprising. When he and Loreen came to the door of Thomas's villa, there were already all kinds of luxury cars parked here.

Outside the door, two middle-aged people were warmly welcoming guests. Loreen came to the front and hurriedly introduced them: "Dad, uncle, let me introduce to you, this is my friend in Aurouss Hilll, Charlie Wade." The two middle-aged men looked up and down Charlie Wade. Among them, Loreen's uncle spoke: "Isn't Aurouss Hilll heard of a family with the surname Wade?"

Loreen hurriedly explained: "Charlie Wade is not a member of the family, he is my university classmate."

Back then, Charlie Wade was arranged by Mr. Wilson to go to Aurouss Hilll University for a year. At that time, he was not only classmates with Claire Wilson Wilson, but also with Loreen.

At this time, Loreen didn't say that this was Claire Wilson Wilson's husband. In fact, she wanted to leave a way for herself. In case she and Charlie Wade had a chance to develop, after taking them home, her family would see it was too embarrassing to think that this was Claire Wilson Wilson's husband.

It was heard that it was Loreen's college classmate. Her uncle looked a little contemptuous and said, "Since he is a college classmate, let him enter and sit down."

Loreen's father whispered at this time: "Loreen, I just heard your cousin say that Young Master Sun will also come later, you should take the opportunity to get to know Young Master Sun."

Loreen couldn't help but frowned and said, "What do I know well about him? The two dudes of the Sun family don't have a good thing, and their reputation has long been stinky!"

"What do you know?" Loreen's father sternly shouted: "The Sun family is the third-ranked family in Eastcliff. The family strength is very strong, and you should not forget that Sun family males are not prosperous. There are only two boys in total, so this The gold content is even greater!" A family with many boys, no matter how strong it is, it will fall apart in the future.

Some families say they have hundreds of billions of funds, but the offspring have too many branches and leaves, and the division of assets is also very serious. It is possible that the entire family cannot find a person with assets of more than 10 billion. Therefore, such a family, Naturally, the gold content of men can't go up.

There are two males in the Sun family, Trevor and Daniel. Even if the two of them, each has only about 12.5% of the group's shares, each of them is worth more than 100 billion Dollar.

Loreen's father, Franklin Thomas, has always wanted Loreen to find a top rich second generation to marry, in order to restore the decline of the Thomas family.

Before, he and the father of the Thomas family heard that the Wade family bought an Emgrand group in Aurouss Hilll and gave it to a Wade family heir. He thought that which descendant the Wade family sent to Aurouss Hilll for training, so he immediately arranged for Loreen to go to work in the Emgrand Group.

However, Loreen had been to Aurouss Hilll for so long and had not even seen the chairman of the Emgrand Group, so Loreen's father gradually lost confidence.

He even thought about not letting his daughter go back to Aurouss Hilll this time. It took half a year and there was no gain. It's better to come back quickly and find a reliable big family boy in Eastcliff.

It just so happened that my nephew just came in and said happily that he would save his face today, or maybe he finally invited the young master of the Sun family over, so he felt that this was a good opportunity for his daughter.

However, Loreen didn't have any Sun family eldest master in her heart. Even the mysterious Wade Family Master, she doesn't care anymore. As early as after Charlie Wade rescued her, all she thought was Charlie Wade, and no other man could enter her eyes.

Chapter 1580

So, she said coldly: "Dad, I have no interest in Master Sun, so don't let me know him!"

After speaking, she looked at Charlie Wade and said, "Charlie Wade, let's go in!"

"You child!" Franklin said angrily: "Why are you so ignorant of good and evil? If you can be with Young Master Sun, how can you use Aurouss Hilll?"

Subconsciously, Loreen glanced at Charlie Wade again, and then stubbornly said to her father: "I just like Aurouss Hilll! I must look for my husband in Aurouss Hilll!"

Franklin reprimanded: "What are you talking about? How can there be any decent family in Aurouss Hilll? How can my daughter marry a man from such a small place!"

Loreen was very disappointed and said, "Dad, why are you so snobbish now?"

"I am snobbish?" Franklin said, "I am not all for your own good?"

On the side, Loreen's uncle spoke: "After going Franklin, there is no rush for this matter. Let Loreen accompany her classmates in first."

When Franklin saw her eldest brother come out, she said to Loreen: "It's all right, let's go in first, and let your mother talk to you!"

Loreen said angrily: "It's useless to say about it!"

After that, she immediately stepped forward to hold Charlie Wade, and blurted out: "Leave Charlie Wade, let's go in!"

Charlie Wade had no choice but to mix with other people's housework, so he quickly followed into the villa.

Franklin stomped his feet with anger, and the eldest brother beside him said: "Franklin, your vision seems to be getting worse!"

"Huh?" Franklin asked in surprise, "Big brother, what do you mean by this?"

Franklin's eldest brother smiled and said, "Did you not see that Loreen has been staring at the man next to her? Especially when you let her know Master Sun, she immediately looked at the man after hearing this. There must be a problem here!"

"What's the problem?" Franklin blurted out: "Big brother, don't you mean to say, Loreen might like that kid, right?"

"I think it's almost the same." Franklin's eldest brother said seriously: "Did you not listen to Loreen? They are college classmates, but they met a long time ago, and this kid is in Aurouss Hilll again, Loreen has been there for more than half a year. Staying in Aurouss Hilll, maybe the two of you will be better when they are in Aurouss Hilll!"

Franklin's expression changed: "Damn, Aurouss Hilll's little wanderers dare to be tempted by my daughter. It's really unreasonable!"

After that, he immediately said: "Brother, you are staring here, I'll ask Loreen what is going on!"

Franklin's eldest brother hurriedly grabbed him: "What are you in a hurry? Now ask Loreen, in case of a quarrel, wouldn't it disturb my mother's birthday party? If you want me to say, you'd better bear it and wait. After the birthday banquet, ask Loreen privately what is going on." Franklin hesitated for a moment, thinking of his mother's birthday banquet and many guests, it is indeed not suitable to question his daughter at this time, so he nodded, and said depressedly: "That kid toad wants to eat swan meat, I will make him look good when I look back!"

Chapter 1581

At this moment, Charlie Wade followed Loreen into the villa.

The residences of big families like Eastcliff are very luxurious. When you enter the door, the living room is almost the size of a small banquet hall.

At this time, there was a lot of people inside, and many of Eastcliff's more prestigious figures gathered here at this time, chatting eagerly in groups.

Accompanied by his wife, Mrs. Thomas was talking and laughing with a few old friends of the same age.

Loreen hurriedly said to Charlie Wade: "My grandma is over there, I will take you over to see her."

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "Then just give the gift I prepared to your grandma."

When the two came to the old couple, Loreen smiled and said to them:

"Grandpa and grandma, let me introduce you. This is my university classmate, his name is Charlie Wade!"

The Lady hurriedly smiled and said: "Oh, it's Loreen's college classmate! Welcome!"

After that, the Lady asked again: "By the way, Loreen, I remember that among your college classmates at the time, there was a girl who had a very good relationship with you. She was called Claire Wilson Wilson, right?"

At this time, Charlie Wade said: "Hello, Grandma Thomas, I am Claire Wilson Wilson's husband. In fact, Claire Wilson Wilson always wanted to come to you in person for birthdays, but there are indeed many things in the family that cannot be separated, so she asked me to take her place. Come here, please forgive me!"

The Lady smiled and said: "Oh, that little girl Claire Wilson Wilson is already married now!"

After that, she looked at Loreen again and said seriously: "Loreen, look, your college classmates are getting married one after another, but you don't even have a boyfriend up to now, you just listen to what grandma said. Don't go to Aurouss Hilll anymore. Find a boyfriend in Eastcliff, and get married early and grandma will feel at ease!"

Loreen had mixed feelings in her heart at this time.

She likes Charlie Wade, and it is the kind of like that goes deep into her bones, so in her heart, she has already decided not to marry anyone but Charlie Wade.

But unfortunately, Charlie Wade is the nominal husband of his good best friend, and now even his family knows it. Wouldn't it be even more impossible for him and Charlie Wade in the future?

Although the Thomas family is not a top-notch family in Eastcliff, it is still sturdy. How could it be possible to let his granddaughter be with a married man?

Even if he was divorced, he was married again, and it would be embarrassing to spread it out.

Thinking of this, she felt extremely disappointed.

At this moment, a discordant voice came: "Grandma! Grandpa!"

Loreen turned her head to see, her cousin Sam walked over with a look of sadness.

She subconsciously asked: "Cousin, I heard that you had an operation some time ago? How is your recovery now?"

When Sam heard her ask about the operation, he couldn't help being a little annoyed, and said angrily: "Don't talk about the operation this messy thing with me, think of it, I'm f*cking angry!"

Mrs. Thomas said distressedly: "Loreen, you don't know, your cousin suffered a serious crime some time ago!"
Charlie Wade didn't look back at this time, but he heard the voice really familiar.
After thinking about it carefully, I caught the identity of the owner of this voice in my mind.
Isn't this the Young Master Kilgore, Sam who was forced to swallow a string of gemstone necklaces in Jasmine's house at that time?
how? Is he Loreen's cousin?
Moreover, Sam called Loreen's grandmother grandma, which means that he is the child of Loreen's aunt.
This is really interesting.
Chapter 1582

At this moment, Loreen said to Sam: "Brother, let me introduce you to my college classmates!"
As soon as the voice fell, Charlie Wade turned around with a smile on his face. The moment Sam saw him, he felt like he had seen a ghost!
He was surprised for a long while before he came back to his senses, and then he began to gritted his teeth: "Okay! The name is Wade! I'm so f*cking worried that I can't find you. You dared to come to my grandma's house. I won't make it today. Damn you!"
Loreen was startled and blurted out: "Brother, what do you mean? Charlie Wade is a guest, why are you talking to him like this?"
Sam gritted his teeth and said, "Do you know why I had an operation?"
Loreen blurted out: "I heard my mother say that you swallowed a necklace."
"Yes!" Sam said angrily: "Why am I swallowing the necklace? It's because of this bastard!"
Charlie Wade snorted: "Master Kilgore, speak rationally and be kind, did I force you to swallow the necklace? did I break your mouth and stuff it into your stomach?"
Sam did not speak.
How to say?
Charlie Wade didn't have any problems with these words. He really didn't force him to swallow the necklace, but he lost the bet with him and couldn't get off the stage, so he bit his teeth and swallowed it.
But isn't he the culprit?
Thinking of this, Sam cursed sternly: "The surname is Wade! You're f*cking here to break this with me! I just want to settle this account with you!"
Charlie Wade ignored him. Instead, he looked at Mrs. Thomas, handed over the gift box he had brought, and said seriously: "Grandma Thomas, this is a birthday gift that Claire Wilson Wilson and I have prepared for you. Please be able to accept it. ."
The Lady didn't understand the contradiction between Charlie Wade and her grandson, but after all, she was an elder of a big family and she was very polite, so she reached out and took the gift and said, "Thank you for talking to Claire Wilson Wilson. Some thoughts."
Sam looked at Charlie Wade ignoring himself, his whole body almost exploded.
He snatched the gift box from his grandmother's hand, and then fell directly to the ground, pointing at Charlie Wade and cursing: "The surname is Wade, get out of me now, and then return to Aourouss Hill to give it to me Be prepared to wait for death, I will go to Aurouss Hill to kill you personally in two days!"

Charlie Wade didn't get angry, but said indifferently: "Sam, for Loreen's face, I call you Master Kilgore, but you shouldn't push your nose on your face, otherwise, don't blame me for disregarding Loreen's affection!"

Loreen was also very angry, and angrily said: "Cousin, what are you doing?! Charlie Wade is a guest! Why are you driving people out? Why are you throwing away the gifts they gave grandma?"

After speaking, he bent down and picked up the gift box that had been smashed open and the fan in the gift box.

Sam said contemptuously: "This kind of slut, what good can he give grandma to his mother? It's just a broken fan, and he can handle this kind of hanging silk!"

Mrs. Thomas sighed helplessly.

The Lady knew exactly what virtue her grandson was.

Although she heard that Charlie Wade might be inseparable from his grandson's operation, but looking at what this means, 80% of her grandson's own blame and asking for trouble, the responsibility may not lie with Charlie Wade.

So, she said seriously: "Sam, such a big person, why is his speech so shallow? Gifts represent the mind, regardless of high or low."

When Sam heard this, he immediately took out a gift box from his pocket. After opening it, it contained a Maitreya Buddha carved with green jade.

At first glance, the jadeite is an imperial green with excellent water.

The material is excellent, there is no flaws, and the carving is perfect.

There is also a circle of diamonds next to it, which is quite dazzling.

He handed the jade necklace to Mrs. Thomas, and said unconvinced:

"Grandma, this jade Buddha is Laokeng Emperor Green, worth at least 30 million. The broken fan is a few hundred dollars. There are so many, these two things are placed together, and the judgement is made! Rubbish is rubbish, and no matter how good the packaging is, it can't be valuable!"

Chapter 1583

Seeing Sam still having this face, Charlie Wade couldn't help but sneered: "I said Sam, you also remember whether you eat or not. Have you forgotten the necklace you swallowed last time?"

The main reason why Sam was forced to swallow that string of gemstone necklaces last time was because he lost the bet to Charlie Wade.

At that time, he felt that he had taken a string of tens of millions of necklaces that was already great, and at the same time the rejuvenation pill that Charlie Wade gave to Jasmine was worthless.

But he didn't expect that a rejuvenating pill would be directly sold at a sky-high price of 2 billion Dollar at Jasmine's birthday party.

However, after Sam came back, he has been pondering this matter, and the more he pondered, the more he felt that something was wrong.

He always felt that it was impossible for anyone to be willing to spend 2 billion on such a stupid thing.

So the greatest possibility, in fact, should be that Travis Lane and Charlie Wade joined forces to sing a double song for himself!

Although Travis Lane had spent 2 billion on the surface, it was very likely that Charlie Wade would return the money to him after turning around.

Therefore, he hated Charlie Wade even more.

It turned out that he was planning to go to Aurouss Hilll to settle accounts with him after the new year, but he unexpectedly came to Eastcliff and his grandma's house on his own initiative, which made him hate him immediately.

If it wasn't for the birthday banquet at this time, he would even wish to call someone over immediately and directly beat Charlie Wade to death. Therefore, he immediately yelled at Charlie Wade: "The surname is Wade, you f*cking calculated my account last time, I haven't settled it with you yet, now you dare to go to Eastcliff and pretend to be a force?"

As he said, he asked angrily: "You told Master the truth, did that Travis Lane be with you last time?"

Charlie Wade snorted disdainfully, and said: "If you can't afford to lose, just say it straight, not ashamed, but you can't afford to lose and you are still playing a rogue, that would be a bit ashamed."

Sam suddenly became angry, gritted his teeth and said: "You fcking said I can't afford to lose? I'm the fcking can't afford to lose?"

Charlie Wade smiled and asked, "If you can afford to lose, then let's gamble again."

Sam said immediately: "Okay! What to bet, you say it!"

Charlie Wade said, "Didn't you say that the fan I gave is only worth a few hundred Dollar? So, if my fan is better than your jade, you will eat your jade, just like the last time you ate gems. The necklace is the same."

"Grass!" When Sam heard that he mentioned that he had swallowed the necklace, he was immediately angry: "Boy, are you fcking looking for death, are you? Believe it or not, I fcking let people kill you!"

Loreen said angrily: "Cousin, Charlie Wade is my friend, don't go too far!"

"Excessive?" Sam snorted coldly: "It's not so good, you think it's too much? I tell you, new hatred and old hatred, I will definitely kill him this time!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Look, if you say you can't afford to lose, you still don't admit it. You have jumped the wall in a hurry, and your mouth is stiff? What's the matter, don't you dare to bet?"

"I don't dare to bet?" Sam said contemptuously: "My damn carefully selected emperor green jade pendant is not as good as your dashed fan? What a damn international joke!"

After that, Sam asked sternly: "What if you lose? Dare to eat your fan?"
Chapter 1584

Charlie Wade nodded: "Yes, then let's just say that. If I lose, I will eat the fan. If you lose, you will eat the jade pendant."

"Grass!" Sam gritted his teeth: "Okay! I don't believe it anymore! That's it! My jade was sold for 24 million Dollar. I have transaction records as proof. How much is your broken fan worth?"

Charlie Wade didn't know how much the fan was worth.

However, he knows that Baishi's paintings have been rising rapidly in recent years, and the price increase rate of his works is much faster than that of jadeite.

Although this is just a fan, it is by no means a random graffiti, but a picture of Fushou drawn very carefully.

Baishi's top painting "High Litu of Pines and Cypresses" has been auctioned for a maximum of more than 400 million Dollar, and this is still the auction price ten years ago. If it is auctioned now, it may even exceed 800 million.

Orrin is no ordinary person at first, and the things he collects, even if it is a fan, must be the finest work of Old Baishi.

Since it is a superb work, it would cost tens of millions for a fan alone, plus this superb fan bone with a perfect golden tumor scar, the price must be far above 24 million.

So Charlie Wade opened his mouth and said: "You can ask someone who knows how to paint to identify how much this fan is worth."

"Fan?" Sam curled his lips: "What the hell, it's so ugly!"

A knowledgeable person next to him immediately exclaimed: "Oh! This seems to be a painting by Baishi! Fushou Tu fan, this fan is very famous!"

"Yes!" someone echoed: "This fan seems to have been auctioned at Christie's in the past few years. If I remember correctly, it should have been auctioned off by Chairman Sun of the Sun family for 48.88 million!"

"Chairman Sun? Is it the Chairman Sun who announced his recovery in a high-profile manner yesterday and returned to the control of the Sun Group?"

"Yes, it's him!"

"It's weird, how could this young man have Chairman Sun's collection in his hand? Could it be stolen?"

"Stealing? It's impossible, but it's also impossible to be authentic. I guess it's an imitation, or it was copied by a contemporary expert."

Sam heard these conversations, with a sneer at the corners of his mouth, and said to Charlie Wade: "Okay, Charlie Wade, even f*cking fooled my grandma with fakes, you are really looking for death!"

Sam's grandmother said embarrassingly, "Oh, you two shouldn't fight here like your kids. The courtesy is light and affectionate. Why bother to explore the real price? Delong, you take a step back. After all, Charlie Wade is a guest. , And come from afar!"

"How do you do that!" Sam gritted his teeth and said, "Grandma, this grandson has pitted me so badly. I will definitely not let him go this time!"

As he said, he shook the folding fan in his hand and sneered: "Oh, I said Charlie Wade, if your fan is real, it is indeed worth more than my jadeite, but your thing is a fake, it's worth the f*ck. Three thousand dollars is great, how about it, hurry up and eat it!"

Charlie Wade smiled and asked, "Why do you say it is fake? Are you an expert in appraisal?"

Sam pointed to the crowd watching the excitement around him, and said:

"What everyone said just now, you must have heard it too, don't you want to be tough?"

After speaking, Sam said disgustedly: "This fan of authenticity is in the hands of Chairman Sun of the Sun Group. With your hanging silk, can you still get his collection from Chairman Sun? ?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "You're right. Chairman Sun really gave this fan to me. I heard someone next to me saying that it was photographed at a price of 48.88 million that year. It is already more expensive than your jade pendant. It's more than twice as expensive, so I won't talk nonsense with you anymore, hurry up and swallow your pendant."

Chapter 1585

"I swallow your sister!"

Sam yelled coldly: "f*cking your mouth when you die, even if you lie, you dare to bring Chairman Sun in. If Chairman Sun blames it, will you be the damn bear?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "If you don't believe me, just call Chairman Sun and ask him if he personally gave this fan to me."

"I'm pooh!" Sam curled his lips: "Even as the young master of the Thomas family, I don't have the right to contact Chairman Sun directly. Do you f*cking know that I can't ask Chairman Sun to confirm the authenticity, so I'm here unscrupulously? Pretend to be forced?"

Charlie Wade smiled noncommittantly: "This kind of thing is boring to talk about. It's better to find a professional authority to come and see."

"No need." Sam sneered: "Tell you, I specially invited Trevor, the eldest son of the Sun family, today. If this thing is true of you, then this is the collection of the eldest son of Sun, and you will know what the situation is.!"

Charlie Wade laughed even louder when he heard this: "Okay, since you have to wait for the eldest son of the Sun family, then wait for him to come."

Sam didn't expect that Charlie Wade was not scared at all, he was not even half empty, and he couldn't help being surprised.

If he changed himself to him, took a copy to pretend to be Chairman Sun's collection, and heard that Mr. Sun was coming over, then he would rush to avoid being caught by Mr. Sun.

But Charlie Wade didn't mean to run at all.

This made him wonder, why is this kid so confident?

Although he is in Aurouss Hilll, he seems to have some connections, but he can't really get into Orrin's relationship, right?

Who is Orrin? Eastcliff's third-largest family, the head of the Sun family!

Not to mention Charlie Wade, even his father can't get into this relationship. Why can his son-in-law in a small Aurouss Hilll place in Charlie Wade district have a relationship with Orrin? It's impossible!

At this moment, someone yelled: "Mr. Sun is here!"

All of a sudden, the spirit of twelve minutes was up.

Even Loreen's grandparents became serious in a hurry.

Don't care that Trevor is just a young man in his twenties from the Sun family, but in the eyes of the Thomas family and the guests from all walks of life, he can be regarded as the one at this birthday banquet.

Mrs. Thomas had to be polite and even flattering in front of Trevor.

At this moment, Trevor walked in with an arrogant expression under the gaze of everyone.

Loreen's father and uncle followed him with flattering faces, nodding and bowing, completely kneeling and licking without concealment. ?

Today, Trevor didn't plan to come here, because his relationship with Sam is just normal. Although the Kilgore family is a little stronger than the Thomas family now, it is still much worse than the Sun family, so Trevor doesn't look down on Sam at all.

But the main reason why he is still willing to come is that he heard from Sam that he has a really good-looking sister who just came back from Aurouss Hilll and wanted to introduce him to her.

Although Trevor still couldn't do that, he still had the virtue of that dude in his heart. Although his ability was gone, he was still full of illusions and longing for the opposite sex in his heart.

In fact, this is also human nature. It is no secret that the ancient eunuchs often confronted the palace ladies in the palace.

In addition, Trevor had long heard that Loreen, the granddaughter of the Thomas family, was beautiful, and it happened to have a chance this time, so he wanted to come over and take a look.

As soon as Trevor came in, Loreen's grandfather immediately took a step forward, enthusiastically and respectfully saying: "Master Sun, I don't know if you are coming here, if you have missed it, please forgive me! Trevor faintly waved his hand and said, "I also heard Sam say that today is his grandma's premiere and invited me to join in, so I rushed to interrupt."

Loreen's grandfather said hurriedly, "Master Sun, you can come, how can it be an interruption!"

Chapter 1586

With that said, the old man greeted Loreen immediately and said: "Come on, Loreen, get to know Young Master Sun!"

Loreen's grandfather, uncle, and father have surprisingly unanimous views on Loreen's life-long events.

They all felt that Loreen should marry a young master from a top family, so as to bring enough help to the Thomas family.

This is why they arranged Loreen to work for Aurouss Hilll Emgrand Group. However, Loreen had been to Aurouss Hilll for so long, and even the chairman of Emgrand Group hadn't seen him, so they gradually lost patience with this matter.

Now they looked at Trevor in front of them, and they all had the same idea, hoping that Loreen could be with Trevor, so that the Thomas family could fly into the sky.

The moment Trevor saw Loreen, his eyes straightened.

Although Eastcliff has many beautiful women, there are not many beautiful women in the big family.

After all, it is difficult for a person to have an excellent background and an excellent appearance at the same time.

Although the Thomas family is a little downright now, Loreen is really beautiful and moving!

Therefore, Trevor immediately moved his mind to Loreen.

He immediately reached out to Loreen and said very gentlemanly: "Miss Thomas, it is nice to meet you!"

Loreen's expression was somewhat cold, she deliberately didn't reach out her hand, but nodded and said, "It's also nice to meet you, Mr. Sun."

Aside, Loreen's father, Franklin, immediately reprimanded: "Loreen! Why are you so impolite? Why don't you shake hands with Young Master Sun?!"

Loreen said: "I'm sorry, Mr. Sun, I just touched the stray cat at the door and didn't wash my hands."

Trevor was a little bit upset. Loreen was so big that she didn't even wash her hands. It was too shameful for himself!

However, he didn't get angry on the spot, but wanted to endure the wave first, to leave a good impression on Loreen, and to facilitate the next in-depth development.

At this time, Sam hurried over with the folding fan brought by Charlie Wade, and said hello to Trevor respectfully, while saying: "Oh, Master Sun, you are here just right. This is a fool, holding a fan of your uncle. I don't want to say that it is genuine. I suspect that this kid has deliberately pretended to be imitations, and he wants to use Chairman Sun's reputation to pretend!"

After that, he immediately opened the fan and handed it to Trevor, and said respectfully: "Look, Master Sun, this is the fan! Tell everyone, is this true?"

Trevor frowned. He didn't understand antique bullshit. How could he tell the truth or not, he didn't even know the origin of this fan.

Fortunately, Sam said flatly at this time: "This fan is an old man Baishi's picture of the fortune and longevity. It is said that your uncle took the picture at the sky-high price of 48.88 million!"

When Trevor heard this, he thought to himself that if the genuine product was really uncle's collection, he would definitely not sell it.

After all, he values antique wenwan very much, and like Pai Yao, he can't get in. He has bought various famous paintings over the years. It is said that paintings are worth tens of billions.

Although the transaction price of this fan was only 48.88 million, based on his understanding of the uncle, it was impossible for him to get the collection in his hands.

What's more, he and the Thomas family didn't know each other at all, and the Thomas family didn't even have a chance to cheat him. How could he take out his collection as a gift to Mrs. Thomas?

Therefore, it can be concluded that the fan in front of us must be fake! Thinking of this, Trevor immediately asked in a cold voice: "Where is the idiot, even my uncle's collection dare to pretend to be? You're so bored!"

Chapter 1587

When Sam heard Trevor's curse, his eyebrows were immediately happy. If Trevor was also dissatisfied with Charlie Wade, then Charlie Wade would definitely die this time!

When the time comes, not only will I force him to swallow this fan, but also force him to kneel in front of me and call myself grandpa!

So, he pointed to Charlie Wade and blurted out: "Trevor, this is the fool!"

Trevor's eyeballs were on Loreen's body just now, and the Thomas family's flattery surrounded him, so he didn't even see Charlie Wade not far away. At this moment, he followed the direction of Sam's fingers and looked at Charlie Wade, and his soul frightened immediately!

"Wade... Charlie Wade?! How could he be here..."

When he thought that Charlie Wade could easily abolish a God of War, a realm master, and also let the four men in his family lose fertility, he felt a chill in his back!

What is more scary is not Charlie Wade's strange strength, but Charlie Wade's identity!

On the same day, Charlie Wade announced his true identity in the Sun family meeting room. He was the young master of the Wade family! The son of Bruce Wade, the legendary Eastcliff!

In addition, Charlie Wade had a 20-year marriage contract with his cousin Stefanie. If he does marry his cousin in the future, then he would have owned half of the Sun family group!

After all, the uncle Orrin, Stefanie's daughter, will definitely inherit the future family property by Stefanie alone.

After all, Stefanie is a female generation. If she marries Charlie Wade, it would be equivalent to treating Orrin's assets as a dowry and making Charlie Wade cheaper. By then, Charlie Wade will probably become the country's top richest, not one of them!

So, adding up all these reasons, he was really scared to Charlie Wade.

But he never dreamed that the "stupid" that Sam said was actually Charlie Wade!

And the most terrible thing is that his mouth is really cheap! He even scolded a stupid man, didn't this offend Charlie Wade to death? ! Thinking of this, Trevor hurriedly slapped himself in the face, and then said to Charlie Wade nervously: "Mr. Wade, I'm sorry, I didn't expect you to be here. I didn't see you just now. Please don't take it to your heart!"

Everyone present was frightened.

Especially Sam!

He originally wished that Trevor could take a gun out of his pocket and kill Charlie Wade on the spot, so as to relieve his hatred.

But I never dreamed that Trevor slapped himself and was so respectful to Charlie Wade!

What the hell are you doing? !

Charlie Wade, this idiot, wouldn't he fool Sun's family? !

Loreen was also struck by lightning.

She knew Charlie Wade's identity. He used to be an orphan, then he was a commoner. She had no place in her girlfriend's family. She has gradually improved by showing others Feng Shui this year.

However, there has been improvement, and even the young master of the Sun family, the third-ranked top family of Eastcliff, is so respectful to him. This is really incredible, right?

Charlie Wade looked at Trevor with a calm face at this time, and asked, "What? Do you know Master Kilgore?"

Trevor was frightened by Charlie Wade's expressionless words. When he thought that he was brought into the ditch by the bastard Sam, he was immediately furious, grabbed his collar, raised his hand and slapped him several times!

Chapter 1588

While beating desperately, he cursed in resentment: "Sam, you're so f*cking tired! Even Mr. Wade dare to scold you! See if I don't suck your broken mouth!"

Sam was immediately drawn with blood and swollen cheeks, his eyes were full of horror, but he couldn't say a word.

At this time, a middle-aged lady came out of the bathroom next to the hall while wiping the hand cream. When Sam was beaten, she exclaimed. She ran over and yelled: "Where is the bastard, dare to beat me." son!"

It was Sam's mother and Loreen's aunt, Lydia.

Lydia loves her son eagerly. Seeing that her son has been beaten up, she immediately went forward to tear it up with Trevor.

Trevor felt resentful in his heart. Seeing her ran to her, raised her foot, kicked her out with one kick.

Lydia sighed, the whole person had fallen backwards and fell to the ground. This time he was kicked and fell not lightly, so he could only cry on the ground: "What are you guys doing in a daze, killing this bastard? How can he let him bully Sam in Thomas's house!"

Lydia's elder brother Franklin sternly shouted: "Are you blind? Didn't you see that this is Young Master Sun?!"

Lydia was taken aback. He only saw someone beating his son just now, so he immediately rushed over to help. As a result, he was kicked as soon as he arrived, and she didn't even see Trevor's appearance.

Now, listening to what the elder brother said, she hurriedly looked at it. This look immediately frightened her soul out!

Damn!

Really the eldest master of the Sun family!

How strong is the Sun family! Even if the Kilgore family and the Thomas family are added together and multiplied by two, they may not be their opponents.

So, if Young Master Sun hits her son, isn't he just hitting him? What can I say?

But, what is going on? !

Didn't the son say that he finally invited the Sun family young master to join him today?

In this way, the relationship between the son and the Sun family eldest master must be an ordinary friend, right?

Then why did Young Master Sun beat him? ! It makes no sense!

So, she ignored the pain in her body, crying and begging: "Master Sun, Sam is your friend. Where is he not doing well, you should be more worried because of your friends, and there is no need to beat him to death!"

Trevor kept beating Sam on his hand, his palm was sore and his elbow cramped, but he still couldn't understand his hatred. He gritted his teeth and cursed: "This bastard, dare to insult Mr. Wade, I f*cking smacked his face. It's all light, and I won't get rid of him if I kill him!"

"This this....."

Lydia asked eagerly and surprised: "Which is Mr. Wade, what is going on?"

Loreen also recovered at this time, and hurriedly came to Charlie Wade and begged: "Charlie Wade, please say something, don't let Young Master Sun continue to fight like this, it will kill you if you continue to fight like this... ."

Seeing Loreen's expression anxious, Charlie Wade knew that she was also concerned about her cousin, so he said to Trevor, "It's almost done, don't fight anymore."

Trevor was waiting for Charlie Wade's words.

Because he was scolded at Charlie Wade by Sam's idiot, he knew very well that if Charlie Wade was dissatisfied, he could not stop doing anything. Seeing that Charlie Wade finally stopped, he was relieved, and kicked Sam to the ground, and cursed: "If Mr. Wade had been merciful, I would have killed you!"

Chapter 1589

Sam had the desire to die at this moment.

He really couldn't understand what Charlie Wade had the ability to make Young Master Sun respect him!

Even if he is really a Feng Shui master, he can't give him such a face, right?

However, he did not dare to ask such a question.

After all, looking at it now, this Trevor is really respectful to Charlie Wade.

Franklin on the side has already seen that Trevor is not the most distinguished guest today, this kid with the surname Wade is!

Therefore, he hurriedly said to Sam: "Sam! Don't you hurry up to apologize to Mr. Wade!"

Sam didn't expect that his uncle would even yell at himself to apologize to Charlie Wade. This is really because his family is not toward him.

However, he counted that although he was upset with Charlie Wade in his heart, she didn't dare to make trouble with Charlie Wade at this time. he could only cry to Charlie Wade and said, "Mr. Wade, I'm sorry, I shouldn't scold you, and hope you The adults don't count the villains..." Charlie Wade waved his hand: "These are trivial matters, and I didn't take it to heart."

Sam breathed a sigh of relief instantly. He didn't expect that Charlie Wade was not a caregiver, so he hurriedly hugged Charlie Wade and said, "Thank you, Mr. Wade, you have a lot!"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "If you are polite, you don't have to say it. I won't care about the things you scolded me just now, but the bet between us is to continue or to continue. There is a good saying, gentleman. It's hard to chase the horse!"

"what?!"

When Sam heard Charlie Wade say that he wanted to continue gambling, his whole body instantly fell to the bottom!

Originally, he thought that Charlie Wade's folding fan must be an imitation bought from outside, and it could never be a genuine product collected by Chairman Sun.

Therefore, the price of this fake is naturally not much higher. No matter how good a painter is, it cannot be more expensive than the jade pendant prepared by yourself.

However, it now appears that the situation has been reversed.

Because Trevor, the young master of the Sun family, is so respectful to Charlie Wade, then this proves that Charlie Wade is definitely a very important person in the eyes of the Sun family!

That being the case, it is very possible that Orrin really gave Charlie Wade the folding fan in his hand!

Someone said just now that Orrin spent 48.88 million to photograph this fan of Baishi that year!

At this price alone, it is more than twice as expensive as your jade pendant!

What's more, the collectibles market has been soaring in recent years, especially the painting and calligraphy market. Baishi's paintings are getting higher and higher prices, and they have rarely appeared on the auction market in recent years. .

The reason is mainly because the price of Baishi's paintings has risen too fast, and collectors hope to hold them for a period of time, and then sell them when the rate of appreciation temporarily slows down.

Therefore, at this time, the price of Baishi's paintings will only be more expensive than in previous years.

If this fan is really put up for auction, it will be at least 60 to 70 million Dollar.

It is far more than his own jade pendant with a transaction price of 24 million.

Thinking of this, Sam was terrified.

Charlie Wade insisted on gambling, so as agreed, he would swallow this jade pendant as well...

Chapter 1590

But I just had an operation just because I swallowed a gemstone necklace some time ago!

If you swallow this jade pendant now, wouldn't you have to go for another operation? !

When he thought of this, he paled in shock immediately, crying and crawling in front of Charlie Wade, begging bitterly: "Mr. Wade, I really know that I was wrong, please forgive me this time, I just finished the operation some time ago , The wound has just healed, if I suffer it again, I am afraid I will die..."

Lydia, who was eager to protect the calf just now, already understood the situation. She knew that blindly looking at her son would be useless and would only annoy Charlie Wade and Trevor, so she could only cry and plead: "This gentleman , I beg you, don't be familiar with my son, he is an unlearned dude, he has been punished last time, this time you let him go!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "It's not that I didn't let him go, but that he bit me so hard. He provoked the matter last time. It's the same thing today. He has to follow I bet, can you blame me for failing if you lose?"

Trevor on the side also echoed: "Damn, Sam, you bet with Mr. Wade, do you want to deny it if you lose? Okay, if that's the case, don't blame me for turning over and denying anyone!"

Sam waved his hand in fright: "No, no, I admit it! I admit it!"

At this time Sam has already seen the situation in front of him. If he doesn't recognize it today, Trevor must just let him go. Maybe he won't be able to get along in Eastcliff in the future, and he may even hurt the Kilgore family because of himself. And Kilgore's house.

Therefore, he can only honestly say: "I am willing to bet and lose..."

Having said that, he picked up the jade pendant and looked at it for a while, gritted his teeth, but was unwilling to swallow the jade pendant.

He knew exactly how painful it would be to swallow this kind of thing.

Lydia on the side was very distressed. She had witnessed how painful her son had been during the last operation and almost caused an intestinal obstruction. How could he be willing to experience it again this time? ! Thinking of this, she hurriedly pleaded: "Young Master Sun, you have poor pitiful Sam. It hasn't been long since he just had an operation, so I can't do it again this time..."

Don't look at Trevor here urging Sam to be willing to bet and lose, but he really doesn't know what exactly Sam bet on with Charlie Wade. Hearing Lydia said that he would have another operation, he asked Sam in surprise: "You kid and Wade What kind of bet did the husband make?"

Sam replied tremblingly: "I...I...I bet with Mr. Wade that if the fan he takes is more expensive than the jade I bought, I will swallow the jade. in stomach....."

Trevor was taken aback and asked in surprise, "Your mother said you just had an operation. What's going on?"

Sam had to bite the bullet and said: "Last time I was at Lord Mooore's house in Aourouss Hilll, I also made a bet with Mr. Wade. I also lost that bet. Then I swallowed a string of gemstone necklaces, which were later surgically removed due to intestinal obstruction."

Trevor swallowed, horrified in his heart.

This Sam is too miserable, right? Even swallowed a string of necklaces...

And this time, I have to swallow a jade pendant...

Although Trevor is not a good person, nor a kind, but when he hears such things, he can't help but sympathize with Sam in my heart.

It's not good to provoke you to Charlie Wade?

Who is Charlie Wade?

Don't talk about you, the God of War was in front of him, and he was crushed into a baby boy in an instant.

I am the damn young master of the Sun family, Eastcliff's well-known diamond king, nicknamed "Eastcliff Humanoid Pile Driver", he is windy and suave, and almost no one dares to mess with it in Eastcliff.

Didn't Charlie Wade lose his fertility and be beaten into a dog by Charlie Wade? In the end, he had to kneel down for Charlie Wade to beg for forgiveness.

I'm like that, let alone a bastard from a second-rate family like you!
Chapter 1591

In order to please Charlie Wade, Trevor put away the little sympathy in his heart for Sam.

He sternly said with a cold expression: "Sam, everyone is an adult, so you should be willing to bet and lose. I don't think you will be haggling here anymore. Hurry up and swallow this jade!"

Sam's expression immediately turned into a bitter face that was too bitter.

Trevor said coldly: "I'm telling you, please feel lucky in your heart. Last time you swallowed a necklace. This time it was just a pendant. Fortunately, you didn't match this pendant with a chain, otherwise you have to swallow it with the necklace. in stomach!"

Sam was crying and looked at her cousin Loreen, and pleaded bitterly: "Loreen, my good sister, please quickly plead with Mr. Wade, let Mr. Wade let me go this time, I really know I was wrong. From now on I will never do it right with him again. From now on, I will be his dog. I will do what he asks me to do. Even if he lets me bite, I will never hesitate, but ask him to forgive me this time."

Loreen's heart was also very tangled at this time.

The cousin was so dissatisfied with Charlie Wade just now.

Women are like this, don't think Sam is Loreen's cousin, the relationship between the two people was really good when they were young.

But Charlie Wade is Loreen's long-time lover, so if these two people are placed in front of her, she must be biased towards Charlie Wade in her heart.

Now Sam asked her to intercede with Charlie Wade, and she suddenly didn't know what to do.

When Lydia saw this, she ran to Loreen and knelt down while crying, and wailed and said, "Loreen, give auntie face, please beg Mr. Wade, he can raise your hand and spare your cousin. Once, my aunt knelt down for you!" Loreen wanted to stretch out her hand to help, but Lydia wanted to kneel down, and the two of them were so deadlocked.

Loreen really couldn't bear her aunt to kneel to herself, so she hurriedly looked at Charlie Wade, apologized, and asked a little pleadingly: "Charlie Wade, please look at my face. Just forgive my brother this time."

Charlie Wade hesitated for a moment, and said to Loreen: "Let's take a step to talk."

Loreen nodded hurriedly, followed Charlie Wade to the side, looking at Charlie Wade nervously, for fear that he would be angry with herself. Charlie Wade looked at her and asked, "When in Aurouss Hilll, a pair of brothers tried to assassinate you. Does it have anything to do with Sam?" Loreen waved her hand quickly: "It was not my cousin Sam who did that thing, it was my other cousin..."

"Your cousin?" Charlie Wade frowned, "Is he here?"

Loreen shook her head and said: "It is said that after the incident last time, someone with a lot of background warned the Thomas family that my cousin had a guilty conscience and hid abroad and never came back. This time my grandma passed her birthday. He won't come if he comes back." Charlie Wade nodded lightly, and then asked, "So, you and your cousin Sam have no contradiction, right?"

"That's right." Loreen said hurriedly: "My cousin is...how to put it, Sam is built a little bit, and he doesn't know how to learn, but he hasn't done anything that hurts the world, just I just like to pretend..." Speaking of this, Loreen pleaded diligently: "So, Charlie Wade...you don't have trouble with him today with this matter. Give me a face, okay?" While talking, Loreen already grabbed Charlie Wade's arm with both hands, shook it gently like a baby, and her face was full of pleading and shyness.

Charlie Wade was helpless, knowing that since Loreen had pleaded with her, she couldn't continue to embarrass her cousin even if she was looking at her friend's face.

However, Sam's pretended to be a bit too big, if he were to spare him like this, it would be too cheap for him.

Thinking of this, he said to Loreen: "Well, since it is your cousin, then I have to give you face in whatever I say."

Chapter 1592

Loreen was overjoyed and said excitedly: "Thank you so much Charlie Wade!"

Charlie Wade said hurriedly: "Wait a moment, I don't need to ask him to swallow that string of pendants, but he still has to accept other punishments, otherwise I'm afraid he won't remember him."

Loreen hurriedly asked, "Charlie Wade, what punishment are you going to make him accept? It won't be more serious than swallowing a pendant, right?"

"No." Charlie Wade smiled faintly and said: "You can rest assured that my punishment is a good thing for him."

Loreen just relieved her heart and said affectionately: "Charlie Wade, thank you, you forgave my brother for me, then give me a chance and let me repay you..."

Charlie Wade asked in surprise: "How do you want to repay me?"

Loreen blinked and smiled deliberately: "Of course, then gave you a baby, what do you think?"

Charlie Wade said solemnly: "In the future, don't say anything like this, I am your girlfriend's husband!"

Loreen nodded and said seriously: "I know, you two are fake marriages! There is no marriage fact. In fact, the best solution for you two is to give each other freedom."

Charlie Wade shook his head helplessly, and said, "I won't tell you this anymore, I'm also playing the piano to the cow."

After speaking, he turned back to the crowd.

Seeing him coming back, everyone hurriedly consciously stepped out of a channel.

Sam knelt on the ground, waiting for Charlie Wade's sentence.

Charlie Wade said indifferently: "Sam, because you are your cousin Loreen, I can give you a chance this time, but it depends on whether you can grasp it."

When Sam heard this, he immediately burst into tears and said: "Mr. Wade, thank you for raising your hand. Don't worry, I will take good care of it and never pretend to be anymore!"

Charlie Wade said: "It's useless to just say it. I can stop you from swallowing that jade pendant this time, but you have to use actual actions to prove that you can really change your mind!"

Sam nodded like smashing garlic: "Mr. Wade, if you have any request, I can definitely do it!"

Charlie Wade glanced at Loreen and said, "It's not easy for Loreen to be in Aurouss Hilll by herself. Let me say this. What about you, go to Aurouss Hilll and be a driver for Loreen for one year. You have to be honest this year. In Aurouss Hilll, if you dare to run or be passive, or if you dare to act in Aurouss Hilll, I will feed you a piece of brick!"

When Sam heard this, his heart was very bitter.

Sam's life is so moist, how can the small place in Aurouss Hilll have access to his own law?

Moreover, I still let myself go there and be a driver for my cousin for a year, but it is under Charlie Wade's nose. If I really go there, I am afraid that I can't even pretend to be forced, and girls dare not to be...

...

However, when he thought that if he didn't agree, he would have to swallow the jade pendant, and Trevor would definitely not let him go. He could only grit his teeth and agree, saying, "Okay, Mr. Wade, I will definitely follow your instructions... .."

Charlie Wade nodded in satisfaction and said, "Okay, I think you can prepare to set off after you have eaten this meal. The road is quite far away, and it will take more than ten days to talk about it."

"Huh?" Sam asked in surprise: "Mr. Wade, it takes only two hours to fly from Eastcliff to Aurouss Hilll..."

"Flying?" Charlie Wade said disdainfully: "It's up to you to be worthy of flying? You can ride a bike for me. Only tents and no hotels are allowed along the way. If you dare to take any other means of transportation, I will Your leg breaks!"

Chapter 1593

When I heard that I had to ride a bicycle all the way from Eastcliff to Aurouss Hilll, and then stayed in Aurouss Hilll as a driver for one year, Sam wanted to die.

The key is that this road is almost more than 1,200 kilometers. If it is really cycling, it shouldn't be exhausting?

And in the twelfth lunar winter, you have to ride a bike all the way south, and you are not allowed to stay in a hotel by yourself. The requirements are too harsh, right?

Sam felt very wronged, and when he was not careful, tears rolled off his eyes.

What the hell is this...

The three young masters of the Thomas family dignified, riding a bicycle to Aurouss Hilll.

With my small body, it is amazing to be able to ride fifty or sixty kilometers a day.

More than 1200 kilometers, co-authored to ride for 20 days!

But this is the twelfth lunar month!

He choked and said, "Mr. Wade, if I go to Aurouss Hilll by bicycle now, it will be the first month when I arrive, and my sister will definitely have to go back to Eastcliff to celebrate the New Year. Wouldn't I be empty in the past?"

Charlie Wade asked in a cold voice: "The first month is only here? Is your butt growing like a leg? It's 80 kilometers a day, and it will definitely be there in fifteen days! Just like the end of the twelfth lunar month."

Sam was crying and he was riding a bicycle for eighty kilometers a day. Isn't this dying?

I usually say that the key point is that I have just finished the operation, and the movement range is large, and the knife edge is faintly painful, I am afraid that I will suffer the old sin...

Just when he was still trying to bargain, Trevor on the side gritted his teeth and cursed: "You fcking have an opinion, don't you? Believe it or not, I fcking made you not able to return to Eastcliff?!"

Sam was so frightened that he trembled and nodded hurriedly and said, "I have no objection! I have no objection! I must be in Aurouss Hilll in fifteen days!"

After finishing speaking, he looked at Charlie Wade again, choked up and said: "Mr. Wade, can you let me leave after the New Year... Otherwise, I will come back to Aurouss Hilll again... "

Charlie Wade smiled and asked him, "Sam, do you still want to come back for the New Year?"

Sam said blankly: "My sister will be back then, so I can't stay there alone, right?"

Charlie Wade said: "After you arrive in Aurouss Hilll, the scope of your activities is limited to the administrative area of Aurouss Hilll City. Then I will ask someone to install a GPS locator on your ankle. As long as you leave Aurouss Hilll, I will send someone to catch you back. After the arrest, I will neither beat you nor scold you. Every time I arrest you, I will extend your one-year period. If you run away more often, stay in Aurouss Hilll for the rest of your life!"

Sam shrank his neck and said hurriedly: "Mr. Wade, don't worry, when I arrive, I will never leave Aurouss Hilll..."

After that, he asked Charlie Wade again: "Mr. Wade, I have one more thing I want to ask you. You see that I grow up so much and spend every lunar year with my parents. Don't let me be alone this year. Aurouss Hilll New Year..."

Before Charlie Wade spoke, Trevor spoke first. He gritted his teeth and cursed: "Sam! Are you f*cking tired and crooked? Are you always bargaining with Mr. Wade? Did Mr. Wade give you a face?"

"No, no..." Sam gave up the last resistance and hurriedly waved his hand: "I won't bargain...I will set off when the birthday banquet is over, and will not leave Aurouss Hilll within a year."

On the side, Lydia, who is eager for her son. Seeing that my son had finally escaped the pain and danger of having another operation, he was really relieved and hurriedly calmed down: "Son, rest assured, mom will let people buy you the best bicycle and the best set in Aurouss Hilll. A good house and buying the best car will never let you suffer in Aurouss Hilll!"

Sam finally relaxed.

That said, the punishment is fine.

Anyway, when I went to Aurouss Hilll, I only had to avoid Charlie Wade's sharpness, and I could enjoy life in a low-key manner during the rest of the time.

Chapter 1594

The only painful thing is the bicycle ride from Eastcliff to Aurouss Hilll.

But it's okay, riding a bicycle for half a month is better than lying in bed for half a month after surgery.

Moreover, I suffered a serious crime during the last operation, and I haven't recovered yet. If this happens again immediately, I am afraid that the pain will be doubled.

But at this time Charlie Wade said: "Let you go to Aurouss Hilll to make a good reformation. Do you think it is for you to enjoy the blessing? I tell you, this time to Aurouss Hilll, you can only ride the most ordinary old Phoenix 28 bicycle, other things You are not allowed to ride a car! Otherwise, I will let you go to Aurouss Hilll with a cart full of bricks!"

"In addition, after you arrive in Aurouss Hilll, apart from giving Loreen the time to drive, you can rent a single room in the shanty town of the village in the city at other times. Your monthly living expenses must not exceed 1,000 Dollar, including the rent."

"Don't worry, when you arrive in Aurouss Hilll, I will let people stare at you, dare to spend more than a dollar, and the renovation period will increase by one day. If you spend tens of thousands there first, you will not want to leave in this life!"

When Sam heard this, he felt that the sky was about to collapse.

Let him dignified a Kilgore master to live in the village in the city? !

And can't even rent more than 1,000 Dollar a month? !

Don't you want to let yourself eat the soil? !

He cried and said, "Mr. Wade, one thousand Dollar is afraid that even the rent is not enough..."

Charlie Wade said coldly: "Don't worry, Aurouss Hilll's consumption level is not as high as you think. The village in the city rents a single room for only 300 Dollar a month, and the remaining 700 is more than 20 Dollar per day. You live."

Charlie Wade himself had been at the bottom of the city for many years. He knew the poor people's lifestyle too well.

The rent in the village in the city was very cheap. Back then, a small bungalow was only 100 Dollar, and meals were not expensive. In the fly house in the alley, a veggie stir-fry was only two or three Dollar, and steamed buns could buy four for one Dollar. One, enough for one day.

Now it has doubled at most. One thousand Dollar per person and one month is enough.

Of course, that kind of life, naturally, there is no standard of living, that is, enough to eat.

However, that kind of life is the best solution for a dude like Sam, and it can definitely cure his pretending illness.

Sam heard this, the whole person has collapsed.

A thousand dollars is not enough to tell the truth a cigar.

Now that he wants to live for a month, isn't it killing him?

Lydia was also distressed and cried, looking at Loreen, choked up and said: "Loreen, please beg Mr. Wade again, don't push your brother to death!"

Loreen was also embarrassed at this time, what should she say? I have already asked my cousin for love once, and at this time I asked myself to speak, and I was embarrassed.

After all, the whole matter was my cousin looking for trouble, and I didn't want Charlie Wade to ignore him at all. In that case, wouldn't Charlie Wade be wronged?

Charlie Wade was her savior several times, and the only man she loved. She would rather be wronged by this hateful cousin than let Charlie Wade make compromises for herself.

So, she said embarrassingly: "Aunty, you can't always be so used to cousin, it will hurt him over time!"

Charlie Wade said in a cold voice at this time: "Sam, I advise you to agree to it as soon as possible before I change my mind. Otherwise, I will arrange for you to carry cement at the construction site in Aurouss Hilll. Aurouss Hilll had a GEM listed company before. The boss, his name is Jeff, do you know what he is doing now?"

Sam shook his head in a panic.

Charlie Wade sneered: "He is currently carrying cement at the construction site in Aurouss Hilll, and he will carry it for 20 years. Do you want to be a company with him?"

Chapter 1595

When he heard that he was going to carry cement at the construction site, Sam immediately shook his head frantically!

In comparison, living in a village in the city and living expenses of 1,000 Dollar a month is just a bit of suffering and crime. If you really go to a construction site to carry cement, you might have to leave half your life on the site.

Therefore, he almost nodded without thinking: "Mr. Wade, I accept the conditions you said and will never bargain with you again! Just don't let me go to the construction site..."

Charlie Wade was satisfied, and said coldly: "When you arrive in Aurouss Hilll, do a good job of reforming. Don't be mad all day long. If you are a cynical second generation ancestor like you, stay in Eastcliff, maybe you will cause greater disaster. Come and kill the Kilgore family and the Thomas family!"

The Thomas Brothers on the side shrank their necks.

For them, Charlie Wade's words had a certain initiation effect.

Sam's temperament, if he doesn't grind him twice, maybe he can really cause a catastrophe!

Today this incident is very representative. If he is not careful, he not only offends Charlie Wade, but also offends Young Master Sun. If Young Master Sun really wants to be honest with him, the Thomas Family will definitely be destroyed.

Especially Franklani, the eldest son of the Thomas family, was even more annoyed.

Sam is not from the Thomas family. Although he is the child of his own sister, he is still a foreigner. If this foreigner confuses his family, he will really cry without tears.

So, he said with a stern tone: "Little dragon! When you arrive in Aurouss Hilll, you must make a good reform and try to get rid of all the stinky problems on your body. Don't make troubles like you are now. Do you understand?"

Sam vaguely said: "I understand the uncle..."

Lydia still feels a little dissatisfied. It's okay for her elder brother not to talk to his nephew at all. It is really chilling to say such things.

Franklin also knew that Lydia must have an opinion in his heart, so he said to her earnestly: "Lydia, in the future, you must strictly discipline Sam, and don't just indulge and indulge him, otherwise, someday Sam If you cause trouble outside, it will cause trouble to the Thomas family. You daughter-in-law, in the eyes of the Thomas family, are also responsible for improper discipline, understand?"

When Lydia heard this, he suddenly realized that although the eldest brother's words were not very close to humanity, they were all facts.

In case Sam really gets into a disaster and hurts the Thomas family, she, the daughter-in-law of the Thomas family, will inevitably take the blame.

Most of the people are partial. Don't think that the Thomas elders and old ladies treat themselves well, but once Sam gets into trouble and has to be held accountable, they will definitely feel that they are more responsible for their children's education than their husbands.

If the old man of the Thomas family is really dissatisfied with him because of this, his status in the Thomas family will definitely be greatly affected.

After all, the current Thomas family's strength is much weaker than before. His natal family is not strong, and his husband is not taken seriously in the Thomas family. Naturally, his status will not rise. If he is affected by the children's troubles, then Don't even think about raising your head to be a man in the Thomas family.

Thinking of this, she also said to Sam with a serious face: "Sam! You must get rid of all those stinky problems on your body in the future, understand?"

Sam could only nod honestly and agree.

Now he really doesn't dare to pretend to be forced.

A live-in son-in-law of Aurouss Hilll can make himself into such a miserable situation. If he really provokes the young master of the top family, he must kill him?

So he hurriedly expressed his position: "When grandma's birthday banquet is over, I will immediately set off on a bicycle to Aurouss Hilll. After arriving in Aurouss Hilll, I must reflect on myself..."

At this point, a farce finally came to an end.

Chapter 1596

Charlie Wade took the folding fan that Orrin had given him from Sam, and personally gave it to Loreen's grandmother, and said: "Grandma Thomas, this is a little bit of love between me and Claire Wilson Wilson. I hope you will accept it. In addition, what happened just now For your birthday banquet, I am here to apologize to you and hope you can forgive me."

The Lady was a little flattered and hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade is polite. What happened just now was that my grandson did not do the right thing. In the final analysis, it was because we neglected to discipline and caused you trouble."

As she said, she looked at the folding fan and said, "Mr. Wade, this fan is too valuable, and I really can't stand the Lady!"

Charlie Wade hurriedly said: "Grandma Thomas, the gift is a kind of heart, it has nothing to do with value. You don't have to be polite. To be honest, I didn't spend any money on this fan. It was a gift from the chairman of the Sun Group. I just borrowed flowers to present the Buddha. Be so polite with me."

Elder Thomas on the side knew that this fan belonged to Orrin, and he actually hoped that the Lady would accept it.

After all, the value of this fan itself is very high, and the additional value behind it is even higher.

If you have this fan, the Thomas family and the Sun family are still in touch. If Orrin sees the face of this fan in the future and can help the Thomas family, wouldn't it be a big profit?

Therefore, he opened his mouth and said: "Oh, Mr. Wade is so polite! Our old husband and wife are extremely grateful too! If Mr. Wade has anything to do with the Thomas family in the future, just one sentence, the Thomas family will definitely go all out!"

When the old man said this, he was tantamount to accepting the gift. Charlie Wade also knew that the old man had his wisdom, so he nodded and said, "Grandpa Thomas is too polite!"

As a result, the Lady had to put down the folding fan.

Seeing this, Trevor said, "I tell you, Mr. Wade has a very high status in my uncle's mind, and he is equal to half a son. If you please Mr. Wade in the future, the Sun family will not treat you badly!"

The crowd nodded hurriedly and said yes, and their hearts were happy. Especially Mr. Thomas.

The look in Charlie Wade's eyes is no different from that of grandson-in-law.

Loreen was in a trance.

She really can't understand why Charlie Wade is so capable, and it doesn't matter if he has conquered a lot of Aurouss Hill local rich. Even Eastcliff's third-ranked Patriarch of the Sun family attaches so much importance to him. Is it possible that he sees Feng Shui so well? ? When she thought of this, she felt a sense of inferiority in her heart. Although she is the eldest granddaughter of the Thomas family, and she does not look inferior to other women, she is still a little embarrassed compared to a man with endless potential like Charlie Wade, and feels that she is really unworthy of him.

However, she immediately thought of her best friend Claire Wilson Wilson. She couldn't understand why Claire Wilson Wilson had such a good life? What luck is it to have such a good man who would rather be married to him and be guarded by him!

If you were to be her, you would have given Charlie Wade a bunch of children, married each other every day, and lived with him wholeheartedly.

But what about Claire Wilson Wilson?

So far, there is no real marriage with Charlie Wade...

Thinking of this, I feel worthless for Charlie Wade...

Chapter 1597

Subsequently, the birthday banquet officially began.

Charlie Wade was enshrined as a guest and sat beside the Lady with Loreen and Trevor.

After the opening of the banquet, the Thomas family took turns to toast him, their expressions, tone, and actions were full of compliments. Charlie Wade didn't have much air, and someone would drink it when they came to toast. Even if Sam only came to toast, he would drink it readily. During Trevor's period, he also carefully toasted Charlie Wade, licking his face and said, "Mr. Wade, there is something I want to ask you, brother..."

Charlie Wade knew what he wanted to say, but just wanted to restore his ability.

However, in view of the bad behaviors of their family of four and Orrin's family of three, Charlie Wade would never let them recover right now. Adults, have to pay for their actions, otherwise, how can they remember their lessons?

Therefore, he didn't wait for Trevor to finish, he interrupted lightly:

"Trevor, you have looked at this from beginning to end today. You should also know, why should I ask Sam to go to Aurouss Hillll to reform for a year?"

"Yes, yes!" Trevor nodded repeatedly and said, "Mr. Wade, you are upright and fair, and you are naturally trustworthy, but for this matter... Can you give us the same as you did with Sam? Set a time? So that we have hope in our hearts, what do you think?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "You also know that Sam does no evil, it is nothing more than a lower mouth, so I asked Sam to reform for a year, but you four, you are doing too much, and you even wanted to take your life before. The threat, of this nature, is much worse than Sam!"

Trevor's face was covered with cold sweat.

He knew what Charlie Wade meant.

Sam had a fight with him, and if he lost, he had to reform for a year. With his father, third uncle, and cousin, the four of them forced the uncle to hand over trillions of property, and even threatened to solve his aunt and cousin after his death. This sin is really much more serious than Sam.

Moreover, the uncle is the good brother of Charlie Wade's father, Bruce, and the aunt is the good sister of Charlie Wade's mother. The cousin is the fiancée of Charlie Wade's marriage contract since childhood. With such a close relationship, Charlie Wade must hate the four of them even more!

Speaking of Sam, Sam's mouth and guns have been reformed for a year, wouldn't the four of them be reformed for ten or twenty years? !

When he thought that the next ten or twenty years might not be able to bear children, and even less qualified to enjoy the comfort in that respect, Trevor wanted to die.

With a bitter face, he pleaded: "Mr. Wade, you are for my uncle's sake. Forgive us this time... Or you can shorten the time for the transformation..."

Charlie Wade said indifferently: "It depends on your performance. If you perform well, it may be enough for three to five years. If you do not perform well, it may not be for 20 to 30 years."

Trevor was about to cry, and whispered, "Master Wade, you will be my brother-in-law from now on, and I will be your brother-in-law from now on. You can look at this relationship, please forgive me. If your brother-in-law is impotent in the future When the news goes out, your face will lose face, don't you think?"

Charlie Wade smiled: "I think it's okay, there is nothing shameless."

"Uh..." Trevor almost collapsed.

Charlie Wade simply doesn't get in oil and salt!

He also wanted to rely on his cousin's relationship to do some tricks, but he didn't expect that they would not give a chance.

Moreover, even if you perform well, it may take three to five years, three to five years of abstinence, isn't this killing your own?

But apart from that, he didn't have any other good solutions. He could only say respectfully and cheeky: "Brother-in-law, I will do well in the future. Don't worry."

Charlie Wade said with a black face, "Don't talk nonsense, I'm not your brother-in-law."

Trevor nodded his head: "I know, it's not yet. Sooner or later it will be..."

Charlie Wade was too lazy to talk to him about such silly questions, so he simply stopped paying attention to him.

Loreen came over and asked him in a low voice at this time: "Charlie Wade, when are you going back to Aurouss Hilll?"

"tomorrow."

Chapter 1598

"Huh? So early? Not staying in Eastcliff for a few more days?"

"My business is over, there is nothing to be done, I will leave tomorrow."

When Loreen heard this, she said without hesitation: "Then I will leave tomorrow, shall we be together, okay? Take the same plane back."

Charlie Wade wanted to refuse, but seeing her pleading, he couldn't say anything to refuse.

After all, it's normal for friends to fly together, and I can't deliberately not fly with her on the same plane.

So Charlie Wade said: "Okay, let's go together."

Loreen hurriedly said: "Then you will come back and give me the ID card information, let me buy the tickets together!"

"Row."

.....

When the birthday banquet was going on, Sam's uncle and second uncle had already given him the equipment for riding to Aurouss Hilll.

They arranged for someone to purchase an old Phoenix 28 bicycle, and installed a luggage rack on the back of the bicycle, and then bought him a riding helmet, thick down jacket, sleeping bag, and tent. , Kettle these things.

They didn't really care about this nephew, but wanted him to go on the road as soon as he finished eating, so as not to drag him, and make Charlie Wade angry. If he hurts the Thomas family again, it would be a big loss.

Lydia didn't care about getting angry when he knew it, so he quickly called Heath, her husband, who had just finished his work and was about to come to the birthday party, and told him the matter, and then asked him to quickly pack some luggage for his son from home and change the clothes. Clothes inside and outside, dry food on the road, etc.

After hearing the causes and consequences of this incident, Heath was angry and frightened. Fortunately, the incident did not offend the Sun family. Otherwise, the Thomas family was afraid that it would be in great trouble.

So, he ignored his mother-in-law's birthday banquet, and hurried home to pack his son's things.

When the birthday banquet was almost over, he drove to hurriedly.

When Sam saw his father coming, he cried bitterly when he held his father apart.

He was about to go to Aurouss Hilll for a year of reformation. He had already guessed how hard it would be this year, so when he saw his father, he felt very sad.

Heath was also extremely helpless.

Although he feels sorry for his son, he has been hanging around in Eastcliff for so many years, and he knows the essence of high society too well.

In this upper class society, it is money that crushes people by one level.

Don't look at the Thomas family, but when you meet a top family like the Sun family, you don't even dare to let go. Since the son has offended the Sun family's people and the Sun family's distinguished guests, this matter must have to pay a price. Otherwise, the Thomas family will follow the Sun family's anger.

There was a family like this before. The son got into trouble, but he was eager to protect the calf. He had to use the entire family to carry it. As a result, the family was almost bankrupt, and the son could not be saved. The son was directly by the big family. The people were scrapped. Nowadays large families do business, basically like walking a tightrope. If you want to do large transactions of more than 100 million Dollar, you must use financial leverage, otherwise it will not develop at all. Even Wanda Group owes a large amount of loans to banks for rapid development. According to rumors, large enterprises like Country Garden have 900 billion in debt.

If it works well, the speed of making money must be greater than the speed of paying it back, so there will be no major situation. However, once the capital chain breaks, it may be overwhelming at any time.

There are a large number of banks and capital relationships behind the three major Eastcliff families. If you really want to reorganize a company and draw salaries directly from the capital chain, the other party will go bankrupt because the capital chain is broken. Therefore, Heath fears the strength of the Sun family more than Sam. It is precisely because of this that he was fortunate in his heart. Fortunately, it was only his son who was unlucky in the end. If the Kilgore family was affected, he would be scolded to death by the old man!

When the birthday banquet was over and the guests left, Sam had already pushed his brand new 28 bicycle.

Sam suddenly remembered a hit song on the short video website.

What is it, ride my beloved little motorcycle...

Thinking of that song, he looked at this old and ugly 28-year-old bicycle, and he couldn't help but sigh in his heart: "If you can go on a motorcycle, you can ride three or four hundred kilometers a day. Hurry to Aurouss Hilll, and you don't have to suffer too many sins along the way..." It's a pity that Charlie Wade won't give him room for bargaining. He can only push the 28 bicycle honestly and prepare to set off.

Uncle Franklin was holding a green riding helmet and was going to put it on for him. While dodging, he asked awkwardly: "Uncle, why do you buy me a green helmet..."

"Don't mention it." Franklin said helplessly: "I don't know what's going on. Helmets are being grabbed everywhere. The helmets in the bicycle shop have long been robbed. There are only a few green ones that have not been sold. I will let them If someone bought one for you, safety is the most important thing!"

Sam was almost crying.

No wonder this helmet is not robbed, it is green and oily! Fresh leeks are not as authentic as the green color of this helmet!

Although he has 10,000 dislikes in his heart, he also knows that safety is the first priority. Otherwise, if he breaks his brain by a fall, wouldn't it be finished?

So he gritted his teeth and asked the uncle to put the helmet on top of his head.

Franklini fixed the fixing strap of the helmet for him, then pointed to the phone holder on the bicycle handle, and said seriously: "Little dragon, this is a phone holder specially bought by my uncle. You put your phone on it. Tucked in, you can navigate on the road for more than a thousand kilometers. Be sure to watch the map carefully and don't go wrong."

Sam nodded and asked him: "Uncle, why didn't you buy me a power bank? What if my phone runs out of power while I am riding..."

"Oh!" Franklin patted his forehead: "Forget about this, or if you wait for a while, I will let someone buy you one!"

Loreen's father, Franklin, hurriedly said at this time: "I have one in my car. I bought it for a rainy day. I'll get it for you!"

At this time, Sam's father Heath patted him on the shoulder and said seriously: "It's better to go to Aurouss Hill. There are also very well-developed cities along the way. There are no wilderness, so you don't have to worry too much. Pay attention to safety and find a big tent in a park in the city at night. You should be able to reach Aurouss Hill in a dozen days."

Sam cried and nodded.

Heath sighed, and said: "You, you must ride it all the way honestly. Sneak rape and skiing are absolutely not allowed in the middle. This is also an experience for you, you know?"

Sam whimpered: "I know Dad..."

Lydia also wiped his tears on the side, and exhorted: "You must pay attention to safety when riding, and hide a little when you see a big car, you know?"

Sam choked repeatedly: "Okay mom, I see..."

Elder Thomas also asked: "Don't be lazy. If you are late, Mr. Wade will be angry."

Sam's heart is extremely depressed, is this still pro-grandpa? What I care about is not to make Charlie Wade angry...

The Lady was very gentle. She took out a yellow amulet from her pocket and handed it to Sam, saying, "Sam, this is the amulet that grandma asked for from the Lama Temple when she was young. The monk opened it and it was very effective. Grandma always carried it with her Now, grandma will give it to you, and it will keep you safe!"

Sam nodded gratefully: "Thank you, grandma..."

Charlie Wade, who has not spoken all the time, said: "Look, you have made progress now, at least you know to say thank you to your family!"

Sam was ashamed and whispered: "Thank you Mr. Wade for teaching, I will act in a low-key manner and be a good man in the future!"

Chapter 1600

"Yeah." Charlie Wade nodded, and said: "Okay, let's leave."

At this time, Franklin also ran over with the power bank, handed both the power bank and the charging cable to Sam, and said: "Sam, take the power bank!"

Sam put the power bank into his backpack, wiped away his tears, and said to everyone: "Grandma, master, father, mother, uncle, second uncle, I'm leaving..."

Everyone waved at him: "Let's go, pay attention to safety on the road!"

Sam looked at Charlie Wade again and bowed to him: "Mr. Wade, I'm leaving..."

Charlie Wade snorted and said: "Hurry up, you will be punished if you delay time."

Sam nodded busy: "Don't worry, I will do my best!"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "Okay, let's go!"

Sam nodded, glanced at his relatives reluctantly, and then straddled hard on the huge 28 bicycle, pedaled twice, and the car swayed out.

Lydia cried bitterly, and Heath hurriedly took her in his arms and comforted her: "Okay, Sam has grown up, and it's time to take responsibility for his actions."

Lydia cried and nodded. Although distressed, he couldn't say it anymore. Charlie Wade looked at Loreen at this time and said seriously: "When your cousin arrives in Aurouss Hilll, you must strictly restrain him. If he is honestly reforming, he may be able to change his mind, otherwise, this person may be abandoned in the future. "

Loreen quickly responded and said, "Don't worry, I will strictly restrain it."

"Yeah." Charlie Wade nodded and said: "Okay, I'll go back first."

Loreen asked: "Then I booked the ticket to tell you?"

"it is good!"

Loreen asked again: "Do you want me to pick you up where you live and go to the airport with you?"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "No, see you at the airport."

Trevor hurried up and said with a smile, "Mr. Wade, are you going back to my uncle's house? It's not easy to take a taxi here. Why should I drive you?"

Charlie Wade glanced at him and nodded slightly: "All right."

The whole Thomas family put Charlie Wade and Trevor in the car together, and finally breathed a sigh of relief when the car drove away.

In the car, Trevor said with a compliment: "Mr. Wade, your handling of Sam is really amazing!"

Charlie Wade said indifferently: "That's the case, you don't have to flatter me here."

Trevor hurriedly said: "I'm really not trying to flatter you. Usually, when people solve such problems, they often have to teach the other party and force the other party to honor the bet. But you can open the net, let him go, and give him Tailoring such a set of transformation plans is absolutely deliberate! I believe Sam will never dare to be arrogant and domineering again!"

Charlie Wade looked at him and asked, "What about you? Do you still dare to be arrogant and domineering in the future and draw swords at your relatives?"

Trevor's expression was stunned, and he blurted out: "No, no, absolutely not!"

Chapter 1601

Charlie Wade was sitting in Trevor's car on the way to Sun's home. Loreen sent him a WeChat message, saying, "Charlie Wade, I have booked the air tickets for the two of us back to Aurouss Hilll. It's nine o'clock tomorrow morning, okay?"

"Yes." Charlie Wade replied: "How much is the ticket? I'll transfer you."

Loreen complained: "It's just a plane ticket, so you have to give me money? You are too far apart from me, right!"

Charlie Wade said seriously: "You paid for me, how can I not pay you."

Loreen snorted and asked, "Then you saved me several times, how can I not repay you? When will Mr. Wade give me a chance to agree with me?"

Charlie Wade was speechless and said helplessly, "Well, I won't be polite to you about the ticket. See you at the airport tomorrow morning."

Loreen said: "Then you got the airport before eight o'clock, don't get up late."

Charlie Wade said, "Don't worry, I will be at the airport on time." After hanging up the phone, Trevor on the side asked nervously, "Mr. Wade, are you going back to Aurouss Hill tomorrow?"

"Correct."

Trevor asked again: "Mr. Wade, when will you come back again?"

"Not sure yet."

Trevor felt cold.

He originally thought that if Charlie Wade would stay in Eastcliff, he would go to his uncle's house every three to five days to fawn on him. Maybe after a while, he would be able to forgive him for what he did before and restore his fertility. .

But Charlie Wade will leave Eastcliff tomorrow, and he won't have a chance to cheat in the future. What can I do?

If Charlie Wade only comes back after three to five years, how can he live these three to five years..

Charlie Wade also saw through his thoughts and said lightly: "Even if I am not in Eastcliff, you can still perform well in front of your uncle's family. If they are satisfied with your performance, I can consider getting you back to normal in advance."

Trevor breathed a sigh of relief and hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade, don't worry, I will work hard!"

.....

When Charlie Wade returned to Sun's house, Orrin had already gone to the Sun Group.

He recovered from a serious illness and was in very good physical condition, so he devoted himself to work, struggling to strengthen his control in the Sun Group.

Except for the servants at home, Charlie Wade only saw Stefanie lying on the sofa reading novels.

Because all the villas are heated by the floor, even though it's cold outside, the villa is still very warm. The temperature in the room is constant at about 28 degrees. You can wear shorts and short sleeves at home like summer.

Stefanie was wearing a lace nightdress, and her slender and white legs were overlapped and exposed to the air.

Her figure is indeed the best among all the women Charlie Wade has ever seen. Even the little pepper Aurora who has been practicing martial arts all the time can't compare with it.

This is mainly because Stefanie's body proportions are so good, she is the #9 perfect body that all female stars dream of.

The so-called #9 perfect body refers to the height of a woman, which is equal to nine times the length of her own face. A woman with this ratio has the most perfect body. It is extremely difficult to find a woman with such a perfect body ratio in life. It's not an exaggeration to pick one.

Chapter 1602

Seeing Charlie Wade's return, Stefanie stood up happily, ran to him three or two steps, and said with a smile: "Charlie Wade, why did you come back so early? I thought you would not come back until the evening!"

Charlie Wade felt that his arm was being held tightly by her hands, and it was inevitable that he was a little bit disheartened, but he didn't dare to think about it, and said, "It's nothing more than attending a birthday banquet, and I will be back when it is over."

After speaking, Charlie Wade asked her: "Aunts and uncles are not here?" "Yeah." Stefanie said softly, "My dad has gone to the group, and my mother is going to a charity dinner. There are charity auctions and wine parties. I won't eat at home at night."

Charlie Wade nodded. He knew that with Angie's status, she was also a top-ranked super celebrity in Eastcliff. Her husband made a high-profile comeback, and she had to use her method to make a high-profile comeback to be able to support her husband.

Stefanie asked tentatively at this time: "Brother Charlie Wade, are you sure you are leaving tomorrow?"

Charlie Wade said, "Yes, I will leave tomorrow."

Stefanie looked a little lost, hesitated for a moment, remembered something, and said: "Charlie Wade, will you accompany me out for a tour!"

Charlie Wade asked her: "You are a big star, just go out on the street, won't you be followed by the paparazzi?"

Stefanie smiled and said, "Just like the last time I picked you up at the airport, just disguise it!"

After speaking, Stefanie said again: "I'll take you to the place we played when we were young, do you remember Millenia Square?"

"Millenia Square?" Charlie Wade frowned, always feeling that this place name was strange and familiar.

Stefanie said: "It's the place where we often asked our parents to take us when we were young. There are many small vendors, small shops, lots of delicious and fun things, and Millenia Square is next to Heathbrook. When we were young, it was winter. We would go to Heathbrook ice skating car, do you remember?"

In Charlie Wade's mind, a fragment of childhood suddenly appeared.

In the picture, I and Stefanie together, led by their parents, went to Paddock Alley to eat candied haws, and play ice carts on the ice in Heathbrook.

The winter in Eastcliff is very cold. Thick ice will form on the lake in Heathbrook. After the ice is frozen, people will go skating and playing ice carts on the lake. The children are all sitting on the self-made ice carts. An iron rod stabs and moves on the ice.

At that time, children didn't have any electronic products to play with, so when winter came, Charlie Wade wanted to go skating in Heathbrook.

He still remembers that Stefanie's parents had a very beautiful courtyard house at Heathbrook. Every time his parents took him to Heathbrook, they would first take him to visit Stefanie's parents, and then have a meal in the courtyard of Stefanie's house.

Thinking about it now, those memories that have not appeared in my mind for more than ten years are still vivid after so long.

At that time, Stefanie was just a follower. Wearing a thick cotton-padded jacket, like a small cotton ball, her little hands stretched out from the sleeves of the cotton-padded jacket, grabbing the corners of his clothes tightly, and would not let go.

At that time, she always had the nam "Charlie Wade" on her lips, her voice was sweet and waxy, and she was a little bit shy, it was really cute.

However, that place I loved most when I was a child, I haven't been to it for 18 years.

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade's heart was full of nostalgia.

So he asked Stefanie, "Daisy, is your courtyard on the back beach still there?"

"Yeah!" Stefanie said with a smile: "That is a protected building, and it is not allowed to be demolished. My dad spent a lot of money to renovate it two years ago. If the traffic in the city center is not too heavy, we would all want to move there. Permanent residence."

As she said, she couldn't hide her excitement and asked, "Charlie Wade, do you want me to take you there now?"

The memories in Charlie Wade's mind swarmed, and his heart suddenly became excited, and he blurted out: "Yes!"

Chapter 1603

After receiving Charlie Wade's definitive answer, Stefanie danced happily, ran back to the room, and immediately changed into a thick long down jacket.

To prevent people from seeing herself, she also brought a warm mask and a furry hat with two cute rabbit ears.

In addition, she also holds a pair of round-framed black-rimmed eyes in her hand. After wearing it, she is a cute and adorable girl. She has a great style with Stefanie, who is crazy attraction to all men. deviation. In fact, in Stefanie's bones, she is a cute and strange girl.

She has a simple mind, no love experience, no experience of getting along with the opposite sex, and no secretive thoughts of those girls outside. Charlie Wade saw the shadow of her childhood from her face. Looking back now, Stefanie was the sweet burden of her childhood.

The reason why I say it is a sweet burden is because, although I don't want her to be with her every day, calling me Charlie Wade like a stalker, but deep in my heart, I really enjoy the feeling of turning around me. .

Stefanie saw Charlie Wade look at her a little lost, her pretty face suddenly flushed, and she said timidly: "Charlie Wade, why are you looking at me like this..."

Charlie Wade came back to his senses and smiled awkwardly and politely and said, "It's just that I suddenly thought of things when I was young, and I was a little distracted."

Stefanie's heart was sweet and joyful, she lowered her eyelids slightly, and whispered, "Let's go quickly!"

In order not to expose Stefanie's identity as much as possible, Charlie Wade and she drove the humble old Volvo all the way from the villa area to the city center.

Heathbrook is in the center of Eastcliff and it can be said to be one of the most prosperous places in Eastcliff.

Moreover, this place has not been over-developed. The old courtyard houses are well protected. If you want to see the life of Eastcliff, you have to come to this place.

More than half an hour later, Stefanie drove into an alley near Heathbrook. From this slightly narrow alley, it is difficult to tell whether every household in it is an ordinary family or a large family. In Eastcliff, there are two kinds of people who live in the courtyard. One is a very poor person who lives in an old bungalow. There may not even be a toilet at home. You need to run to the public toilet every day. Even in the middle of the cold winter, you have to get up and run to the public toilet;

There is also a very wealthy person.

If you want to live in a courtyard house, you must first have enough money to make the courtyard house very livable. Because courtyards are mostly single-story buildings, from the outside, no one can see what the inside looks like. Only when you come in will you find the differences.

Some courtyards are crowded with briquettes, bicycles, and kimchi jars full of aisles. It is very difficult to walk. There are also many shabby-built shacks and there are many safety risks.

But there are also courtyards, from the outside, they do not show the mountains or dew, and are not eye-catching at all, but after entering, they found that there is a cave inside.

This is the case with Stefanie's courtyard house.

Other people's courtyards are crowded and messy, while Sun's courtyards are magnificent and antique!

Inside, there is not only a whole piece of white marble carved into the wall, but also nine majestic Tamrons with different poses.

Chapter 1604

This is the Nine Dragon Wall that was unique to ancient royal buildings. It can be said to be the highest standard. There is a similar Nine Dragon Wall in the Forbidden City.

It's okay to put it in modern times. If it's in ancient times, no one can use such high-standard things except the emperor.

Once discovered by the royal family, it would be a crime of treason, and it could even punish by death.

Moreover, this courtyard has four entrances and four exits, and the entry yard has actually built a miniature version of Eastcliff garden, with rockery, pavilion, small bridge, and running water.

There were only a few loyal servants of the Sun family in the courtyard, so Stefanie had no scruples, took off the mask, took Charlie Wade's arm, and said to him, "Charlie Wade, do you remember this yard? When we were young, we often played hide and seek here."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "I remember, but I feel that it is not the same as in the memory."

Stefanie smiled and said, "This is a refurbishment. Compared with before, there are some changes."

After that, she pointed to the frozen water and said, "There have always been many good koi carps here. Some have been raised in Sun's house for more than 30 years, and some are still what you have seen before! But now It's cold. The koi have been raised in the next wing, and they will be released when the spring begins. Would you like to go and see?"

Charlie Wade said in surprise: "How long does the Koi live?"

Stefanie smiled and said: "The life span of a koi is about 25 to 30 years. If it is well raised and taken care of, it can live a few more years."

With that said, Stefanie shook her fingers seriously and said: "Look, there are several kinds of pets. If you raise them well, they may live longer than you. The other is the koi, and the other is the tortoise and Parrots, macaws and sunflower parrots can live to 60 or 70 years old." As soon as the voice fell, she took Charlie Wade and said, "Go, I will take you to see them, and see if you can recognize them!"

Afterwards, Stefanie took Charlie Wade to a wing next to the courtyard. This wing room has a large area, and more than half of the area inside has been made into a constant temperature fish pond, in which a lot of huge koi are swimming around.

Stefanie pointed to one of the koi, which was nearly one meter long, and said excitedly: "Do you remember it? You used to name it Dax, which is the Dax in Doraemon."

Charlie Wade smiled and nodded: "Remember, in the impression when I was a child, he seemed to be the largest."

Stefanie nodded and said, "It is a Taisho three-color koi. My dad said that the price of buying it was worth the price of a three-bedroom in Eastcliff Third Ring Road."

Charlie Wade was slightly startled, although he was a little surprised, but he was not too shocked.

The koi is actually very expensive. Some time ago, the eldest lady of the Firth family spent more than 10 million Dollar to photograph a piece of koi news. Charlie Wade had also seen it.

Therefore, the value of precious koi cannot be measured by the dimensions of ordinary ornamental fish.

At this time, Stefanie bent over and squatted on the edge of the fish pond, beckoned and called to the huge koi, unexpectedly the koi swam over directly, Stefanie reached out to touch it, and it did not hide at all. . Stefanie touched the koi while saying, "Dax, look, Charlie Wade came to see you, do you remember him? He still remembers you."

Although Koi is not afraid of people, he may have some familiarity with Stefanie, but after all, it is not human, and it is impossible to give Stefanie any response.

And Stefanie was talking to herself, and then raised her head and said to Charlie Wade: "My dad said, Dax is only 30 years old this year. If he takes good care of him, he can live for another 40 years. We played with him when we were young. Charlie Wade, when we have a baby, the baby can play with it too!"

Chapter 1605

Although Charlie Wade didn't respond to Stefanie's words, his childhood memories continued to emerge in his mind, and they were still imperceptibly, making him feel a little closer to Stefanie.

He even came up with an imaginary picture in his mind. If his parents are still alive and he has not lived in Aurouss Hilll, should he be married to Stefanie now?

Perhaps the one who is guarding this pool of koi now is no longer the one who is walking with Stefanie, and perhaps his parents, Stefanie's parents.

Even, it is really possible to follow one or two and a half older children, chatting around me and Stefanie, crying to their parents, and then asking them many details and memories about the Koi.

In fact, all this is not Charlie Wade's unreasonable conjecture.

He knew his father's character. Bruce, the second master of the Wade family, had a good word. If he was still alive, if he dared to say not to marry Stefanie, he was afraid he would break his leg.

Moreover, most of Eastcliff's top rich second generations were married earlier, because the family had arranged the marriage partner early, and generally they would organize the wedding immediately when they reached the legal marriage age.

In that case, he might have married Stefanie in the door when he was 22 years old.

Counting it down to now, I may have been married to Stefanie for four years. If I was more efficient, it would be normal to have two children.

Seeing that Charlie Wade was a little lost, Stefanie asked quietly beside him, "Charlie Wade, what are you thinking?"

Charlie Wade smiled bitterly and said, "I think of my parents."

Stefanie sighed softly: "I also thought of Uncle Wade and Aunt Wade just now. I was just thinking that if there was nothing wrong with them that year, we might have already been married, and we might have had children. If you are here today, maybe three generations have gathered."

Charlie Wade was obviously startled.

Unexpectedly, Stefanie thought of it with him.

He couldn't help but sigh. Stefanie accepted her fiancée since she was a child. For so many years, she has always regarded finding and marrying herself as her life goal. If she really loses her in the future, how will he face Orrin and Angie? In the future, under Heaven, how will you face the parents who have made a promise?

Stefanie on the side didn't know that Charlie Wade was struggling in his mind, so she gently held his hand and said, "I'm sorry, Charlie Wade, I shouldn't mention Wade Uncle and Wade Auntie, which made you sad... .."

Charlie Wade shook his head and smiled, and said, "It's okay. After so many years, it's not so sad anymore, it's more of a regret..."

Stefanie clasped Charlie Wade's fingers along the way, pulled him up, and said with a smile, "Charlie Wade, let's go out and play!"

Charlie Wade nodded, shook off the melancholy thoughts in his mind, and strolled around the courtyard with Stefanie, and then went to Heathbrook together.

Along the way, Stefanie was unwilling to let go of his hand, and Charlie Wade didn't force her to see that she was so interested.

Although the weather is very cold now, for the authentic Eastcliff people, this is the best time to come to Heathbrook for skating.

Therefore, the whole Heathbrook is very lively, and the ice is full of men, women and children playing around.

Charlie Wade and Stefanie came to the ice hand in hand, rented a small ice car with two seats at the old man on the shore, and then Charlie Wade took Stefanie to play on the ice.

At this time, there was an extremely surprised look in the crowd, staring at Charlie Wade forever!

The owner of this look is Loreen.

Loreen is also a native Eastcliff girl. Because she will leave Eastcliff to return to Aurouss Hill tomorrow, she also misses the skating experience in Heathbrook. She took a little cousin at home and ran to Heathbrook to play together.

Chapter 1606

The two of them came earlier than Charlie Wade and Stefanie. They had been playing happily for more than half an hour, and when they were about to take a break, they saw Charlie Wade walking hand in hand with Stefanie. !

Stefanie wears a thick mask, black-rimmed glasses and a cute rabbit ear hat, so Loreen can't recognize who she is, but Charlie Wade didn't do any treatment to cover her face, plus it was his day and night. The lover of the dream, so she naturally recognized Charlie Wade at a glance!

At this moment, she felt that the three views and cognition of the whole person had been subverted!

How could Charlie Wade go skating hand in hand with a girl? !

Moreover, the two are so close, it is very abnormal at first sight!

If he remembers correctly, even if Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson have never been so close!

Could it be... Could it be that Charlie Wade derailed long ago? !

She always showed her love to Charlie Wade, Charlie Wade always refused him without hesitation and righteously. He thought that he was loyal to Claire Wilson Wilson, but he didn't expect that he would be in Eastcliff with a young beauty. Skating hand in hand!

Although she can't see Stefanie's face, she can tell from Stefanie's figure that this must be a superb beauty. With such a figure, she has already killed herself and even Claire Wilson Wilson so much that she has no scum!

Loreen's mood suddenly sank to the bottom.

She thought desperately in her heart: "No wonder Charlie Wade is always unwilling to accept my love, it turns out that he has a new love in Eastcliff..."

Loreen's cousin suddenly stunned when she saw her sister, and asked curiously: "Sister, what's the matter with you?"

Loreen came back to her senses and gave a wry smile: "Nothing, thinking about things."

The cousin asked with a smile: "Are you reluctant to leave? Or you should stop working in the Emgrand Group and go back to Eastcliff!"

Loreen was also a little confused in her heart.

The family really didn't want her to go back.

Dad, uncle and grandfather hope that she can stay in Eastcliff, and hope that she will have some development with Trevor, the eldest of the Sun family.

But Loreen wanted to go back.

The reason for wanting to go back was not for the job of the Emgrand Group, nor for the mysterious chairman of the Emgrand Group, but for Charlie Wade.

Charlie Wade saved her more than once, and that time when she injured her leg, she had a skin close to him. In fact, from the depths of her heart, she had been completely devoted to him long ago. She even felt that if she could not be with him in this life, even if she was his underground lover, she was willing.

After all, she loves him wishful thinking and no return, and being an underground lover without a reputation, she can become his woman anyway. Even if she would be scolded by others, even if she would become a mouse on the street, even if her good girlfriend Claire Wilson Wilson turned against her, she would not hesitate.

However, at this moment she suddenly realized that she didn't even have the qualifications to be Charlie Wade's underground lover.

Because, at this moment, the girl who was sitting on the ice cart and playing with Charlie Wade happily should be Charlie Wade's underground lover, right?

Thinking of this, Loreen's eyes were red and moist.

She suddenly envied the girl who could not see her face. Although she was just an underground lover of Charlie Wade, Charlie Wade was so attentive and considerate to her, playing with her like a boyfriend. This is not what she has always been the most Desired?

Chapter 1607

At this time, Charlie Wade didn't know that she was being closely followed by Loreen.

He has been completely immersed in the recreational sport that he loved very much when he was a child. Everyone has a childlike heart, and Charlie Wade is no exception.

When he was happiest, a child with his feet on the ice skates slid faster and faster on the ice, and came straight to the ice carts of Charlie Wade and Stefanie.

Unexpectedly, the child lost control of the direction. When he got closer and closer to Stefanie, he didn't turn around, and slammed into Stefanie in a daze.

As soon as he ran into her, the child screamed. Stefanie was shocked when she saw it!

Although the child seems to be in her early ten years and weighs no more than sixty or seventy kilograms, the impact of inertia cannot be underestimated after he gets up fast.

What's more dangerous is that the children wear ice skates instead of roller skates. The thing is sharp and sharp. Once a person is pricked or scratched, it can easily cause serious injury!

Seeing this, Charlie Wade suddenly jumped off the ice cart in a hurry, then hugged Stefanie in his arms and turned around half a circle, and lifted her away from the position where she was about to be hit.

However, seeing that the child was about to hit the ice truck, Charlie Wade couldn't bear the child's injury, so he kicked the ice truck along the way. The ice truck was between the sparkling flints that the child was about to hit, and from the ice. Jumped out in the other direction. The child didn't have much experience, and she didn't have any emergency response ability. She was about to hit an ice truck, so she was so scared that she covered his eyes.

At this moment, the ice car was kicked away by Charlie Wade again, and as a result, the child continued to rush forward, and the speed was even faster than before!

Loreen, who was not far away, was always on the three-point line formed by the child, Charlie Wade, and herself. Charlie Wade and Stefanie just blocked the little girl, so she didn't see exactly what happened, nor did she see a little girl out of control on the ice.

She only saw that Charlie Wade actually hugged the woman by her waist, and directly gave the woman an ambiguous princess hug, and her heart was sour and angry!

She couldn't help but secretly thought in her heart: "Charlie Wade is too much! It doesn't matter if you come to Eastcliff to meet a lover, and you dare to show affection so grandiosely in public places like Heathbrook, is this too reckless? "

Just when she was angry in her heart, a black shadow suddenly rushed over in front of her, and her cousin shouted next to her: "Ah! Sister Loreen, be careful!"

As soon as the voice fell, the dark shadow rushed to Loreen's eyes!

At this time, Loreen turned her attention away from Charlie Wade and Stefanie to the shadow that rushed towards her.

When she saw clearly that it turned out to be a girl who was covering her eyes and screaming in terror, she was also frightened not knowing what to do.

Anyone who has skated on ice or snow knows a basic safety rule, that is, you must stay away from people who are out of control!

On ice and snow, if a person can't brake, his speed will easily reach a very dangerous state. If hit by a person at high speed, or hit by a car at high speed, there is no big difference. .

The ice skates and snowboards are very hard and sharp and can easily cause very serious injuries.

Loreen didn't know what to do at this time. Deep down, she was even prepared to be hit hard by the child.

At the moment when the kid's ice skate was almost reaching herself, she closed her eyes in shock and screamed.

However, after a while, the expected impact did not happen!

Chapter 1608

At the moment of the moment, Charlie Wade put down Stefanie in his arms and quickly caught up with the little girl who was out of control. A second before he was about to collide with Loreen, he abruptly hugged her!

Loreen opened her eyes and found that Charlie Wade had stopped the out-of-control little girl at a critical moment, and she was really happy and angry.

Happily, Charlie Wade will always appear in front of her like Prince Charming at critical moments, and block all dangers for her;

Angrily, she had confessed to him for so long, and devoted herself to him hoping to be his underground lover, but he has repeatedly rejected her righteously, and has refused until now.

But she never expected that this guy would quietly find an underground lover in Eastcliff!

Charlie Wade hadn't noticed Loreen at this time.

His attention is focused on the child, because he knows very well that once a collision occurs, the child is more likely to be injured. For the same collision, the adult may be relieved, but the child may need to be hospitalized.

Fortunately, the child was only frightened, but did not suffer any substantial harm.

At this time, the little girl opened her eyes, seeing that Charlie Wade had saved herself and prevented herself from hitting anyone. She took a breath and said gratefully: "Thank you, uncle, thank you..."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly, put her on the ice, and told her: "Little girl, you must remember to slow down when you skate."

The little girl nodded hurriedly: "Thank you Uncle, I see..."

After speaking, she carefully waved at Charlie Wade: "Goodbye, uncle."

Charlie Wade watched her slowly slide away, and then he was relieved. He was about to go back to find Stefanie when he suddenly saw a familiar face, staring at him with uprightness.

He glanced and asked in surprise: "Loreen?! Why are you here?"

Loreen deliberately wrinkled her nose and snorted, and said, "Heathbrook is not yours, why can't I be here?"

Charlie Wade didn't know that Loreen was angry with him at this time.

Seeing that she seemed to be a bit aggressive, he smiled and said, "I didn't mean that. I just think it's a coincidence that Eastcliff is so big, how can I run into you here."

Loreen curled her lips: "Or the old saying goes, there is no impermeable wall in the world! I used to come to Heathbrook every winter for skating. I have been in Aurouss Hilll this year. I have no chance. I think I will leave tomorrow, so I want to come and play before I go. Play, I ran into you before I thought."

With that said, Loreen glanced at Stefanie who was walking over, and said to Charlie Wade: "If I don't come, I don't know yet, so you still have a little lover in Eastcliff!"

When Charlie Wade heard this, she knew that she had misunderstood her relationship with Stefanie, so she hurriedly said: "Loreen, you must have some misunderstanding about this matter. I don't have any lover. Don't talk nonsense. what."

Loreen curled her lips: "Everyone is an adult, so don't try to cover it up here, aren't you afraid that I will go back and tell Claire Wilson Wilson?"

Charlie Wade said seriously: "Loreen, you really misunderstood me about this."

As he was talking, Stefanie had already arrived. He saw Charlie Wade talking to a beautiful woman, so she took Charlie Wade's arm and asked intimately, "Charlie Wade, is this lady your friend?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "It's my college classmate."

When Stefanie heard that it was Charlie Wade's college classmate, she looked around and saw that there was no one else nearby except Loreen and her sister. Out of courtesy, she took off her mask and proactively reached out to Loreen with a smile. Said: "Hello sister, I am Stefanie Sun!"

Chapter 1609

Stefanie took off her mask because she felt that the woman in front of him was Charlie Wade's college classmate. Whether she positioned herself as Charlie Wade's friend or Charlie Wade's fiancée in the past twenty years, when she met Charlie Wade, Give a minimum of respect.

Therefore, she decided to take off the mask.

However, this move scared Loreen to the point of being struck by lightning, standing still and unable to move!

She looked at Stefanie's beautiful and familiar face and was speechless in surprise!

The woman in front of me is really the hottest female star in China, Stefanie Sun!

Stefanie Sun, the superstar who conquered the national audience and conquered Hollywood!

Moreover, some people don't know the identity of Stefanie Sun, and don't know that she is the daughter of the chairman of the Sun family, but Loreen is also the eldest lady of the Eastcliff family after all, so she knows the identity of Stefanie well!

At this moment, she felt that the whole person's worldview had been subverted.

Charlie Wade, how could you be with Stefanie, a girl of heaven? Moreover, the two of them also went skiing hand in hand with an ambiguous posture. More importantly, Charlie Wade gave her a princess hug just now!

God! The gap between the two is really too big!

Stefanie can be said to be the girl with the best overall strength in Eastcliff.

Although her family background is not the top in Eastcliff, it is second only to the Wade family and the Banks Family;

However, Stefanie's appearance, build, temperament, talent and popularity are a bit higher than those of the Wade Family and Banks Family girls. Therefore, in comprehensive consideration, no one from the Wade family and the Banks Family can compare to Stefanie.

Or in other words, Stefanie is not only the most outstanding one in Eastcliff, but also the most outstanding one in the whole country. Therefore, Loreen was extremely shocked and incredulous.
why?

Why would Charlie Wade be with a lady of heaven like Stefanie? Loreen is still in shock, her cousin has already covered her mouth in surprise and exclaimed: "Wow, it's really you..." Stefanie hurriedly put her finger to her mouth, made a silent gesture, and said with a smile: "Shhh...don't shout, there are too many people here."

Loreen's sister nodded hurriedly, and asked in a low voice with excitement: "Miss Sun, can I take a photo with you?" Stefanie stuck out her tongue and smiled and said, "It's okay to take a group photo, but it's better not to post it on social networking sites, okay?"

"Of course!" Loreen's sister said excitedly: "Don't worry, I will never leak!"

After speaking, she took her phone out of her pocket and leaned in to take a few photos with Stefanie.

Loreen came back to her senses at this time, and said to Stefanie with an apologetic expression: "I'm sorry, Miss Sun, I was so shocked just now, I didn't react at all."

Stefanie smiled sweetly: "It doesn't matter! Sister, don't be so polite!" Seeing Stefanie's smile, Loreen felt that as a woman, she would be sweetened by her smile.

Chapter 1610

In fact, like Claire Wilson Wilson, she is also a fan of Stefanie. If it weren't for Charlie Wade's presence, she would have rushed over to take a photo with Stefanie.

Therefore, Loreen couldn't help but tentatively asked: "Charlie Wade, how did you meet Miss Sun?"

Charlie Wade didn't think about how to answer Loreen's question.

If you say that Stefanie is a customer who sees Feng Shui on her own, then it is obviously unreasonable to come to Heathbrook ice skating car hand in hand with the customer;

But if I say that Stefanie is the one I knew when I was a child, I would suddenly reveal my identity.

After all, in Loreen's eyes, she is an orphan who has been living in the Aurouss Hillll City Orphanage.

How could an orphan who had lived in Aurouss Hillll since he was a child know the eldest lady of Eastcliff Sun's family? This is obviously unreasonable.

So Charlie Wade felt that it seemed difficult to explain this matter to Loreen without revealing his identity.

But just when he hesitated, Stefanie replied smoothly at this time:

"Charlie Wade and I have known each other since we were very young!"

After listening to Loreen, she was dumbfounded!

She suddenly became suspicious, thinking: "Charlie Wade has lived in the Aurouss Hillll Welfare Institute since he was a child. After leaving the orphanage at the age of eighteen, he worked on the construction site, and then met Claire Wilson Wilson's grandfather, who arranged for him. He went to Aurouss Hillll University to study for a year, and then he married Claire Wilson Wilson..."

"Calculated like this, Charlie Wade's life path shouldn't have left Aurouss Hilll. Then how could he know Miss Sun's family? The identities of these two people can be said to be one place each day. I don't know how many levels are in between.!"

"Could it be that Charlie Wade has any secrets he doesn't know?"

"This matter seems to have only this kind of explanation..."

So Loreen asked subconsciously: "Miss Sun, how did you and Charlie Wade know each other since childhood? Didn't Charlie Wade grow up in Aurouss Hilll?"

Stefanie subconsciously wanted to tell the truth, Charlie Wade reacted and hurriedly said to the side: "This matter is a long story..."

Loreen looked at Charlie Wade, waiting for his next words.

Charlie Wade knew that Stefanie's words just now must have subverted Loreen's consistent perception of herself, so Loreen could not give up, she would definitely break the casserole and ask the end.

If I don't give her an answer that satisfies her today, then she will definitely do everything possible to explore the truth of the matter in the future, and may even talk to Claire Wilson Wilson about it.

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade said: "Actually, when I was young, Miss Sun's parents took her to the Aurouss Hilll Welfare Institute. At that time, they donated a lot of money to the Aurouss Hilll Welfare Institute, and they also reached a group with me. One's charity assistance is a family helping an orphan. At that time, I met Miss Sun, and because I was a little older than her, she always called my brother and we always get along as brothers and sisters."

Stefanie heard this and knew that Charlie Wade definitely didn't want to reveal the identity of the Wade Family Young Master, so she nodded and said to Loreen, "Yes, so brother Charlie Wade and I met a long time ago!" Loreen suddenly realized. Rich people like to engage in charity, which is not unusual.

The reason Charlie Wade said, as a whole, sounds like nothing is wrong, and it fits Charlie Wade's entire life experience.

In addition, Stefanie next to her also affirmed Charlie Wade's statement, so Loreen did not doubt it anymore.

She just reproached and said: "Charlie Wade, you know a star as big as Miss Sun, why have you never heard you talk about it?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "You don't know me. I've never liked showing off. There's no need to always talk about my knowledge of Miss Sun. Besides, I'm just a hanging silk in everyone's eyes. I said, and everyone will definitely not believe it. On the contrary, it will definitely cause everyone to laugh at it. If this is the case, why should I ask myself to be mocked?"

Chapter 1611

Originally, Loreen only felt that Charlie Wade's rhetoric could barely pass, but there were always some things that made her feel that something was wrong.

However, Charlie Wade's self-deprecation directly swept away the only little doubt in Loreen's heart.

She thought that when Charlie Wade was in school, he was looked down upon by all kinds of people, even his classmates from the same background could bully him wantonly.

But he never cares about others, let alone argue or quarrel with others, it seems that everything has nothing to do with him.

With Charlie Wade's personality, it is indeed impossible to tell him about Stefanie. Moreover, even if he said it, no one would believe it. Thinking of this, she admired Charlie Wade somewhat. Knowing the Sun family and commensurate with Ms. Sun's siblings, but never told anyone about it, and would rather be looked down upon by others than thought of using this relationship. This is indeed very rare. However, she still has a little faint worry. Because just now, she saw Charlie Wade and Stefanie behave intimately, so she always felt that there seemed to be something abnormal between the two.

So she asked Charlie Wade tentatively: "Charlie Wade, how did you reconnect with Miss Sun?"

Charlie Wade smiled and asked, "Do you know Nova Dias?"

"I know." Loreen nodded and said, "Isn't this the super hot gastric medicine with amazing effect during this period? Oh, by the way, it seems that Miss Sun is the endorsement of it!"

Charlie Wade asked her again: "Then do you know that the manufacturer of Oracle Nova Dias, Oracle Pharmaceutical, is a Aurouss Hillll company?"

Loreen continued to nod her head: "Well, I know."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "When Stefanie went to Aurouss Hillll to shoot an advertisement some time ago, she also ate dinner with Claire Wilson Wilson and I, but because Stefanie is a public figure, I didn't tell you about it."

"That's it..." Loreen suddenly realized, and asked Charlie Wade: "At that time Claire Wilson Wilson knew that you two had known each other a long time ago?"

Charlie Wade shook his head: "In fact, I didn't tell Claire Wilson Wilson the truth at the time, because Stefanie was going to work at that time, and I didn't want others to know about my affairs with Stefanie, lest I would drag Stefanie's back legs. , So I didn't tell Claire Wilson Wilson or anyone about this at that time. In fact, if you didn't happen to meet you today, I wouldn't tell you."

Loreen nodded gently, and when she heard Charlie Wade always laugh at herself, she felt a little distressed in her heart, so she said: "Charlie Wade, don't be so arrogant all the time. In fact, you are very powerful, I think few people can compare to you!"

Loreen's remarks came from the heart.

She really felt that Charlie Wade was very unusual. If nothing else, the strength alone was by no means comparable to that of ordinary people. At the beginning, The Butcher Brothers had no ability to counterattack before him.

Judging by Charlie Wade's terrifying combat effectiveness, those who insulted him in the past were actually not his opponents at all, but Charlie Wade never cared about them.

Stefanie on the side hadn't spoken all the time. She knew that her unintentional remark just now almost caused Charlie Wade's trouble.

Fortunately, Charlie Wade's brain reacted quickly, otherwise it would be really hard to explain this matter.

Chapter 1612

Seeing that Loreen believed her words, Charlie Wade said: "Loreen, it's late, we'll leave first. See you at the airport tomorrow."

Loreen nodded slightly, remembering something, and hurriedly said: "By the way, you just saved me again!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "The old one is not you, it's the little girl. I really ran into it. You shouldn't have any big problems, but the little girl may be a little dangerous."

Loreen deliberately curled her lips and said in a very stubborn tone: "Thank you for that too!"

Charlie Wade smiled helplessly: "Okay, we have to go, so I won't be polite with you. Remember this, don't tell Claire Wilson Wilson first."

Loreen nodded: "Okay, I see, it must be tight-lipped. It's getting late and we both left."

Loreen and her cousin parked their car in a nearby parking lot. Charlie Wade and Stefanie just parked their car in Sun's courtyard, so everyone was not in the same direction, so they said goodbye on the edge of the ice rink.

After the separation, Charlie Wade finally breathed a sigh of relief. It seemed that today this incident was barely cleared.

After Charlie Wade and Stefanie turned and walked out several tens of meters, Stefanie asked him in a low voice, "Charlie Wade, why do you keep concealing your identity? If you show your identity, how dare those people in Aurouss Hillll bully you!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "I left Wade's house with my parents and fell into Aurouss Hillll. To put it bluntly, I'm just like an ordinary orphan. What can I do even if I show my identity? Others may not believe it."

Stefanie asked again: "Then after Uncle Wade and Aunt Wade passed away, you can obviously contact the Wade family and let them pick you back." Charlie Wade shook his head and said indifferently, "The situation in the Wade family is complicated, far beyond what I could control at the time. What's more, my parents just didn't want to bow their heads to the Wade family before leaving Aurouss Hillll. Although I was young, my body was flowing. It's their blood, how can they take the initiative to bow their heads to the Wade Family and return to the Wade Family to enjoy the glory and wealth after their death?"

Stefanie's eyes soon turned red. She hugged Charlie Wade's arm tightly and choked up and said: "I feel sorry for you for having suffered so much and suffered so many grievances for so many years. People look down on you and can bully you..."

Charlie Wade patted the back of her hand, and said with a smile: "Humans are like this. They have to withstand the ups and downs and be complimented by others for a lifetime. Maybe they don't know the dangers and sufferings of the world for a lifetime, so it is very likely that they will suffer in the future. Unfortunately, unlike me, I have seen the warmth and coldness of the world since I was eight years old. These experiences will be a precious asset for my future life."

Stefanie nodded slightly, tears running down the corners of her eyes. She really felt sorry for Charlie Wade's life over the past ten years. Even if Charlie Wade said so lightly, she felt a catch her throat every time she thought of it.

He was the young master of the Wade family, but he lived in Aurouss Hillll and suffered from the bottom of the society. Stefanie couldn't imagine how he survived so many years.

Although she is younger than Charlie Wade, she hopes to keep Charlie Wade in Eastcliff forever when she thinks of these things. She doesn't do anything by herself. Every day, she will do everything possible to treat him well and make up for him for so many years. Sins suffered.

At this moment, Charlie Wade suddenly sighed: "I will leave tomorrow. Let's see Stephen Thompson today!"

Stefanie asked in surprise: "Charlie Wade, are you going to see Uncle Thompson?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said: "My parents' things back then, I still need to ask him face to face."

Stefanie blurted out, "Then I will go with you!"

Chapter 1613

Charlie Wade was not overly wary of Stephen Thompson.

This is because he can analyze that Stephen Thompson has absolutely no malice towards him.

Even for so many years, I was able to grow up in Aurouss Hilll safely, thanks to Stephen Thompson's secret protection.

Therefore, if Stephen Thompson had malicious thoughts about himself, he would not wait until now.

This is also one of the few people who can absolutely trust Charlie Wade, so he is going to contact Stephen Thompson and ask him to meet to learn some details of the year.

Stephen Thompson was in the Wade Group at this time.

In the high-level conference room of the Wade family group, all the children of the Wade family gathered here to participate in the family meeting.

It was Nathaniel Wade, the old man of the Wade family, who presided over the meeting.

Nearly twenty descendants of the Wade family were all sitting in the meeting room.

At this moment, the old man said with emotion on his face: "Old Master Exeor walked in a hurry yesterday and went directly to the airport from Wade Mountain. I didn't even see him for the last time. What a pity!"

Charlie Wade's uncle, Corran Wade, asked, "Dad, did you let us come to the meeting for the old master's return to the United States?"

Lord Wade waved his hand and said: "The old master had told me a long time ago that the reason why he stayed in Eastcliff and the country after the completion of the Wade Mountain was to wait for a chance that belongs to him. He is gone, presumably he has gotten the opportunity he has been waiting for for years."

Everyone nodded, and a cousin of Charlie Wade's generation asked:

"Grandpa, is there anything important that you let us over today?"

When the old man called the entire Wade family's direct descendants for a meeting last time, and decided to move the ancestral grave, the Wade family's family business was too big after all. The children were in charge of various ministries and scattered across the country. If it was not an extremely important matter, there was no need to Everyone got together with great difficulty.

Lord Wade sighed and said: "At the beginning, the old master told me that after the dilemma of Wade's sleepy shoal was broken, he would have the opportunity to soar into the sky and rise to the next level, but I still couldn't understand it, Wade Mountain is Where is the opportunity to soar into the sky."

Everyone looked at each other for a while.

The current strength of the Wade Family ranks second among the big families in the country, second only to the Banks Familyy. If one were to rise to the next level, wouldn't it mean to surpass the Banks Familyy and become the first family in the country?

As a result, everyone was a little excited.

Charlie Wade's third uncle, Myles, said: "Dad, did the old master give some general clues? For example, where will this opportunity appear? Who is it? Or through what can I find relevant clues?"

Lord Wade shook his head and said: "The old master only said that the Wade family will usher in a god-given opportunity, but as to what the opportunity is and where to look for it, he didn't confide half a word, just said that it is a secret opportunity that should not be revealed!"

Corran Wade smacked his lips and said, "Then this range is too broad. We can't catch clues if we want to!"

Lord Wade said: "If you can't catch it, you have to find a way to take the initiative and search for it!"

After speaking, Lord Wade said again: "I have been thinking about a question for the past two days, that is, how can we surpass the Banks Family in the Wade family."

"Over the Banks Family?"

Chapter 1614

All the descendants of the Wade family, when you look at me and when I look at you, they all think this incident is almost a fantasy.

Compared with the Banks Family, the Wade family is similar, and the comprehensive strength of the Banks Family is about 20% higher than that of the Wade family.

However, because the Banks Family's and Wade family's property base is too large, the difference in money between the 20% gap is also astonishing.

If the Wade family wants to surpass the Banks Family, it will be possible to increase their assets by at least a few hundred billion. The size of the Banks Family is stronger than that of the Wade family, and the development speed is naturally faster than that of the Wade family, so the gap between the Wade family and the Banks Family is actually slowly widening.

Now wanting to go up against the trend and catch up with the Banks Family all the way is not only difficult, but more like a fantasy. Lord Wade could not help but sighed when everyone was silent. "Twenty years ago, when Bruce was still alive, under his leadership, the Wade family almost surpassed the Banks Family. At that time, Bruce formulated a strategy to dominate the country. Eastcliff's big family believed that the Wade family would inevitably surpass the Banks Family and become the top of the country..."

Having said that, Lord Wade was silent for a moment, his eyes full of compassion and said: "But, after Bruce has left, you people are really not as good as one..."

When the eldest son Corran Wade heard this, he was very dissatisfied and said, "Dad, it would be boring if you say that. We always say that we are not as good as Bruce and that is not as good as Bruce, but you drove away the Bruce and his family. If you didn't drive Bruce away, maybe the Wade Family has now achieved the goal of dominating the country."

"You..." William pointed at Corran angrily, trying to yell at him, but then he put it back.

He sighed and said to everyone: "What happened back then is over. Let's focus on the present."

Corran said, "Do you always have any good ways to shorten the distance between us and the Banks Family?"

Lord Wade hesitated for a moment, and said: "The Banks Familyy has always been a prosperous male. Father Banks has five sons and thirteen grandchildren, but he seems to have only two granddaughters. One of them is 22 years old this year and has reached the age of marriage, and the other As a minor, these two granddaughters are like pearls in the hands of the Banks Familyy. If the Wade family's grandchildren can marry the Banks Familyy's granddaughter, it will definitely help the Wade family!" Charlie Wade's aunt, Cynthia Wade, said: "Dad, Bank's granddaughter is very much loved in Bank's family. If you want to marry her, at least it must be our eldest grandson!"

Wade's grandson is Jon, the son of Corran.

At this time, Corran Wade sighed and said: "Cynthia, Jon has already signed a marriage contract with the Norwegian royal princess last year. The wedding will be held this summer. Almost all Eastcliff knows about this. There is no room for mediation!"

"Yeah." Charlie Wade's cousin Jon said: "Zara of the Banks Familyy, I have been in contact before. This woman has a cold personality and rarely participates in social activities. Many domestic and foreign celebrity gatherings have changed. She has never accepted the invitation from her. to pursue her is as difficult as going to heaven. What's more, I have a marriage contract. If I go to pursue her, the Banks Familyy can see my motives at a glance."

One of Charlie Wade's cousins, Brenden, the eldest son of Myles Wade, the eldest third of the Wade family, couldn't hide his excitement and said, "Grandpa, why don't I try?"

Corran Wade glanced at this plain-looking nephew, shook his head and said, "Brenden, the strength of the Banks Familyy is above us, even if you are the eldest son of William, you may not be able to enter the eyes of the Banks Familyy. Not to mention you?"

Myles said a little displeased: "Brother, what you said is boring. Who stipulated that Banks's parents and granddaughters must marry someone else's eldest son? Maybe our Brenden has this charm?"

Corran chuckled: "The third child, if you are not convinced, you can let Brenden give it a try. I'm just afraid that Brenden won't even have a chance to meet Zara Banks. In that case, it would be a laugh."

Lord Wade couldn't help sighing, splashing cold water and said, "I want to marry into the Banks Familyy, but Brenden is really too far behind." As he said, he suddenly remembered something, his eyes flashed, he looked at Stephen Thompson, who had not spoken, and said, "Stephen, do you think that if the son of Bruce is allowed to marry the Banks Familyy, can he agree?"

Chapter 1615

As soon as Mr. Wade said this, the whole audience let out a surprise! The son of Bruce, isn't that Charlie Wade?

In fact, as early as when Lord Wade asked Stephen Thompson to buy the Emgrand Group, to Aurouss Hilll to give it to Charlie Wade, and invite Charlie Wade to return to the family, everyone knew the news that Charlie Wade was still alive.

Except for the old man, everyone else was very wary of Charlie Wade, even extremely repulsive in their hearts, for fear that he would return to Eastcliff and compete with them for the Wade Family's property and power. Fortunately, Charlie Wade rejected Stephen Thompson's request and did not return to Wade's house, so everyone breathed a sigh of relief and slowly relaxed their guard.

However, even if Charlie Wade didn't come back, everyone was extremely dissatisfied with the matter of the grandfather throwing hundreds of billions and giving him the Emgrand Group. The Wade family's assets exceed trillions, but after all, the population is large.

Charlie Wade's grandfather has four sons and two daughters. Except for the second child, Bruce, who died young that year, the other three sons gave birth to seven grandchildren and six granddaughters. Although the two daughters were married, they both held important positions in the Wade family's financial empire. Therefore, even if they were evenly distributed, it would not be possible to reach the level of 100 billion per person under the circumstances of many children. Therefore, Charlie Wade got the Emgrand Group alone, which really made many Wade family members very jealous.

At that time, there were also many people who jointly opposed and strongly protested the eccentric approach of the father. But the old man resisted the crowd and insisted on doing so on the grounds that the Wade family owed too much to Bruce's family. Although everyone was dissatisfied with in 10,000 in their hearts, fortunately, Charlie Wade did not plan to return to Eastcliff to compete with them for more property, so everyone reluctantly accepted all this. In the eyes of everyone, it is actually quite good to let Charlie Wade be a feudal king outside, at least it will not affect their fight for the position of Wade Family Patriarch.

However, the old man actually wants Charlie Wade to come back, and he also wants him to marry the Banks Family. Isn't that for them to lead the wolf into the house?

Therefore, Corran Wade, blurted out: "Dad! The son of Bruce has been outside for so many years. He has not received high-end education, has not experienced family training and experience, and is completely a wild man. Let him marry the Banks Family. , Doesn't it make people laugh out loud? And, I remember, he has already made a family in Aurouss Hill!" "Yeah, dad!" The old third Myles also hurriedly said: "Which one of our Wade family's grandchildren is not the top domestic private school and has been studying from kindergarten to high school? Which one is not studying at a top overseas university? Which one is not from childhood? Receive the top-notch education combining Chinese and Western? Not only learning knowledge, learning business, learning management, but also learning multi-language, learning aristocratic horsemanship, learning golf, the son of the second brother, grew up in an orphanage, not even a university It's been, how could Miss Bank's eldest in the Banks Family look at such goods?"

Others also agreed with each other.

Stephen Thompson said blankly at this time: "Master Charlie Wade has been to university, but he has not been in college for four years. Moreover, I have some contact with Master Charlie Wade. In my opinion, Master Charlie Wade has the demeanor and courage of the second master, Bruce. He is definitely a dragon and a phoenix among people!"

Jon, shouted sternly: "Thompson, there is no place for you to speak. Don't look at who is around you, we are all surnamed Wade! You are a domestic slave with a foreign surname, what are you talking about here?"

Stephen Thompson said neither humble nor overbearing: "Although Thompson is not surnamed Wade, Thompson's life was given by his second master, so Thompson had already sworn that this life will belong to the Wade family, so every word I say, Have a clear conscience!"

Brenden said coldly: "You think we don't know you? You are not loyal to the Wade family at all, you are loyal to my second uncle, so you did everything possible to hide Charlie Wade, and you did everything possible to fool grandpa to buy him an imperial group, do you still want to fool Grandpa to get him back to Eastcliff? I think your selfishness is actually trying to help Charlie Wade win the position of the Wade Family Patriarch, right?!"

Everyone's expressions changed as soon as this was said!

Chapter 1616

Even Lord Wade couldn't help being stunned.

Stephen Thompson said in a cold voice at this time: "I never thought of letting Master Charlie Wade come back. I just tell you objectively that today's Master Charlie Wade is not inferior to Bruce Wade, who was so powerful in Eastcliff back then! As for the marriage, it is The master who proposed it, not me!"

"Besides, you don't have to be frightened here. Master Charlie Wade doesn't want to come back at all. With my understanding of him, even if I kneel down and beg him, he will not come back, let alone abandon his wife and go with the Banks Family marriage!"

When everyone heard this, they were relieved. Won't come back? It would be better not to come back! Lord Wade's eyes narrowed slightly.

After pondering for a while, he said seriously: "Actually, I think if Charlie Wade comes back, I can't say that he can really marry Zara Banks successfully."

"How is it possible?" Corran Wade blurted out: "The Banks Family's eyes are higher than the top, and Jon's outstanding status may not be able to do it. He is a vulgar person who has been outside for many years, why should Banks Family be swayed?!"

Lord Wade looked at Corran Wade coldly and grinned.

Corran Wade was shaken by the old man's glance, and he felt as if he could see through his mind at once.

Lord Wade knew in his heart that the reason why Corran Wade was here to belittle Charlie Wade was because he was afraid that Charlie Wade would really come back, and he was even more afraid that Charlie Wade would really agree to marry the Banks Family.

Because of fear, so belittle. It seems to be justified, but in fact it is just to cover up his inner panic. Others also agreed at this time, everyone's reason was simple, it was just that Charlie Wade grew up in a humble environment and couldn't be worthy of Miss Banks Family.

Myles said with a sneer on his face: "Dad, although Charlie Wade is the son of my second brother, he has been the sling in the mouth of a young man for so many years. How can a sling be compared with a lady of heaven like Zara?"

Seeing everyone objected, he thought that Elder Wade snorted and said, "You? Do you know that back then, Zara's mother, the eldest daughter-in-law of the Banks Family, wanted to find life and death for Bruce? Back then, she chased Bruce for many years. As long as Bruce nodded, she will be the second daughter-in-law of the Wade family. Today, she also mourns in front of Bruce's grave every year. Do you understand this kind of love for the house and the Wades?"

In a word, the audience was in an uproar! Corran Wade only remembered those past events at this time. Bruce back then, in the entire Eastcliff, that is really the dominant existence. I don't know how many wealthy daughters, I dream of marrying him, even if I am his lover. This includes Zara's mother and Bank's eldest daughter. Back then, countless men were deathly jealous of Bruce, including his eldest brother.

If the old man said that Zara's mother loves Bruce, then Charlie Wade and Zara's matter is really possible...

Chapter 1617

Just when everyone in the Wade family had their own ghosts, thinking about what reasons they should use to convince the old man to give up this idea.

The old man patted the table and said excitedly: "I think if Charlie Wade nodded in this matter, the success rate is very high!"

Cynthia Wade hurriedly said: "Dad, Charlie Wade is already married! Do you think it is possible for the Banks Family to marry the eldest granddaughter who is like a jewel in the palm to a married man? Even if Charlie Wade is divorced, it is a second time marriage!"

Lord Wade said indifferently: "As long as the charm is big enough, what about the third marriage, even if it is not divorced, do you know how many wealthy daughters Eastcliff had back then, would you rather give Bruce a little? They have no complaints, this is the charm of Bruce!"

Corran Wade said grimly: "Dad! Times are different! Now young people admire themselves, how can they be willing to wrong themselves?"

Lord Wade said coldly: "Will you or not? It's not you or me. It's the facts! How can I know if I don't try?!"

After that, he immediately said to Stephen Thompson: "Stephen, go to Aurouss Hill as soon as possible, and when you see Charlie Wade, tell him about this matter."

Stephen Thompson said earnestly: "Master, I don't think Master Charlie Wade will agree."

"What?" Lord Wade frowned, pointed at the other Wade Family heirs, and asked: "They don't want Charlie Wade to come back, don't you want it?"

Thompson hastily explained: "Master, you have misunderstood. I am looking forward to Young Master Wade's return to the Wade family day and night. However, based on my understanding of Master Charlie Wade, it is indeed impossible for him to agree to marry the Banks Family. He is very attentive to his current wife. When talking about the marriage, don't forget that he and Miss Sun's already have a marriage contract. That is the order of his parents and the words of the matchmaker. Master Charlie Wade counts. Miss Sun who considers the Sun family will not consider Zara from the Banks Family either!"

"f*ck..."

Everyone thought of a fact that they had ignored for many years.

As early as when Charlie Wade was young, he had already been engaged to Miss Daisy Sun, who is now the big star Stefanie!

Lord Wade suddenly cast a golden light in his eyes, and said excitedly: "Oh! I am dull! It turns out that the opportunity to soar into the sky that the old master said is on Charlie Wade!"

Others looked at Lord Wade, wondering why he suddenly said this.

Lord Wade sighed at this time: "Although the strength of the Sun family is much weaker than that of the Banks Family, but the Sun family is less! Orrin owns 25.5% of the Sun Group's shares! This does not count as his other assets. Adding up is afraid that it will reach the trillion level, even if there is no one, it will be infinitely close. The most perfect thing is that he has only one daughter, and everything about him in the future will belong to his daughter, in other words, it will also be his son-in-law!"

Everyone was to death with jealousy. real or fake? So Charlie Wade has been outside for so many years, and he still carries the marriage contract with Miss Sun's family? !

This is too damn enviable, right? !

At this moment, the old man stood up excitedly and said to Stephen Thompson: "Stephen, give you a task, I don't care what you use, within half a year, Charlie Wade must divorce the woman in Aurouss Hilll, and then return to the family. !"

Stephen Thompson nodded: "Master, I must go all out."

The other Wade family members were all annoyed.

According to the current trend, it depends on whether the old man must get Charlie Wade back.

Moreover, once Charlie Wade comes back, he is very likely to become the son-in-law of the Sun family, and also likely to become the son-in-law of the Banks Familyy.

At that time, he had become a real person in the Wade Family who could make ends meet.

Chapter 1618

This is an unacceptable situation for other cousins!

All of a sudden, everyone began to think desperately about the countermeasures.

Lord Wade's mood suddenly cleared up, and he could already determine that the opportunity for the Wade Family to take off that the old master Orion Exeor said was Charlie Wade.

This immediately solved the doubts that had troubled him for four years and made him feel good.

So he laughed, stood up, and said loudly, "Okay, I'll be here today, let's end the meeting!"

Everyone's expressions were a little strange, but no one dared to say anything against it, but everyone had their own ghosts in their hearts. The vast majority of them were unwilling to see Charlie Wade return to the Wade family in high profile.

After the meeting ended, Stephen Thompson returned to his office and just sat down in his seat, he received a call from Charlie Wade.

With joy in his heart, he hurriedly connected to the phone and asked respectfully: "Master, how do you think of calling me?"

Charlie Wade asked, "Steward Thompson, is it convenient for you to speak now?"

"Convenient." Stephen Thompson hurriedly said, "I'm in my own office. It's very safe and confidential. You can say anything."

Charlie Wade gave a hum, and said lightly: "I am in Eastcliff and want to see you. Do you have time?"

Stephen Thompson asked in surprise, "Master, have you come to Eastcliff? When did it happen?"

Charlie Wade said: "I have been here for two days, come over and do some things, plan to go back tomorrow, I want to see you before I leave."

Stephen Thompson immediately said, "It's okay, young master, please move to the Sweetwater Teahouse in the Hillcrest Guild Hall. That's the next industry."

Charlie Wade said: "Okay, then I will pass now."

Stephen Thompson hurriedly said, "Let's set off immediately!"

Hillcrest Guild Hall was a Quintong dynasty building. It was used to entertain people from Hillcrest area who went to Eastcliff to rush for the exam. It is a bit similar to the Quintong Dynasty Heathbrook office in Eastcliff. Later, it gradually developed into old Eastcliff people listening to music and tea. Great place.

Stephen Thompson invested in a teahouse in Hillcrest Guild Hall. This teahouse is antique and charming. Stephen Thompson often comes here to rest or entertain friends on weekdays.

With Stephen Thompson's current status as the chief steward of the Wade family, he is considered to be the number one person in Eastcliff. In addition to the top families, the patriarchs of other families have to be respectful in front of him, so his teahouse business is very well, many people with good looks like to come to join in.

When Charlie Wade arrived at Hillcrest Guild Hall, Stephen Thompson had already arrived one step ahead of him.

He personally greeted him at the door, seeing Charlie Wade coming with a woman wearing a mask, stunned.

Stephen Thompson has been cultivating in Eastcliff for many years and has extraordinary insight into many things. He can almost see at a glance that the woman wearing a mask who came with Charlie Wade is Miss Sun Sun.

At this moment, Stephen Thompson was extremely happy and said excitedly:

"Master and Miss Sun, how did you two meet together?"

Stefanie smiled and said, "Uncle Thompson, I'm all dressed up like this, and I can't hide from you!"

Stephen Thompson smiled and said, "Ms. Sun has an extraordinary temperament. How can a mask cover it."

After that, Stephen Thompson hurriedly said again: "Young Master, Miss Sun, it is not convenient to speak here, please follow me to the backyard!"

Chapter 1619

Sweetwater Tea House is divided into front yard, middle yard and back yard. They are all typical antique wooden buildings. There is also a stage inside. People often talk about cross talk or sing Peking opera here.

The front yard and the middle yard are both open to the outside world. Members of the tea house can consume here, but the back yard is not open to the outside world. This is Stephen Thompson's private domain, which is extremely confidential.

Stephen Thompson respectfully invited Charlie Wade and Stefanie into the private living room in the backyard.

After entering, Stephen Thompson immediately distracted all the service staff, personally invited Charlie Wade and Stefanie to sit down on the sofa, and at the same time personally used his set of precious Jianzhu tea set to make a pot of tea for the two.

After passing the fragrant tea cup to the two of them, Stephen Thompson couldn't hide his excitement and said, "Master, I really didn't expect you to come to Eastcliff, and you are still with Miss Sun... "

Stephen Thompson had actually longed for Charlie Wade to be willing to come back, and he had also longed for Charlie Wade to come together with Stefanie.

He has been in Eastcliff for many years, and he knows the situation of Wade family and other big families very well.

Based on his mastery of the entire Eastcliff family situation, he felt that the best choice for Charlie Wade was to divorce his current wife, and then leave the small city of Aurouss Hilll, come to Eastcliff, and get his identity of the young master, and then marry Stefanie openly. In Stephen Thompson's opinion, no one in this world is more suitable for Charlie Wade than Stefanie. The two of them are simply a match made in heaven.

This is not only because Charlie Wade and Stefanie originally had a marriage contract, but also because Orrin is a righteous person, and their family of three values love and righteousness.

More importantly, the Sun family has extraordinary strength and only has one only daughter. If Charlie Wade marries Stefanie, it is equivalent to putting half of the Sun family group behind him.

In that way, Charlie Wade is not only the second young master of the Wade family, but also the son of Uncle Orrin, no one can match in Eastcliff. Therefore, now that he saw Charlie Wade and Stefanie together, he was very excited.

Charlie Wade said lightly at this time: "I came to Eastcliff this time mainly to take a look at Uncle Orrin. Didn't he have a bad health some time ago, so I came to see him."

Stephen Thompson was shocked and blurted out: "Master, Chairman Sun suddenly recovered from a serious illness, and the whole person looks a lot younger on TV. Should you help from behind?"

Stephen Thompson paid no less attention to Charlie Wade. Although he didn't know many things, he still heard about Charlie Wade being regarded as a master in Aurouss Hilll. He knew that the second young master had some abilities that ordinary people did not have. .

Facing Stephen Thompson's problem, Charlie Wade smiled slightly, nodded gently, and said, "I also got a good medicine by chance, so I rushed over to take it to Uncle Orrin. Fortunately, the good medicine worked well."

Stephen Thompson trembled and said with emotion: "Master, the effect of your good medicine is more than good! It can be described as superb! Having lived for so many years, I have never heard of any medicine that can cure it. Good for advanced pancreatic cancer. From this we can see that your good medicine is definitely a miracle medicine!"

Charlie Wade nodded noncommittantly and looked at Stephen Thompson seriously: "Steward Thompson, I have prepared a copy of this good medicine for you. If you need it in the future, I will definitely deliver it to you."

Rejuvenation pills, Charlie Wade has them.

Chapter 1620

If it is really necessary, he can take it out and give it to Stephen Thompson at any time.

But the reason why he said he would wait until Stephen Thompson needed it was that he wanted to use Rejuvenation Pill to increase Stephen Thompson's reliability.

It was not that he had doubts about Stephen Thompson, but that he felt that it was always right to be cautious under any circumstances.

Stephen Thompson hangs with the Rejuvenation Pill, and Stephen Thompson's loyalty to him will inevitably increase.

As soon as Stephen Thompson heard this, his whole expression was stunned, and he immediately thanked him: "Master, with your words, you will die without regret when you go up to the sword mountain and down to the sea of fire!"

Stephen Thompson is not only a loyal person, but also a smart person.

Although he didn't know exactly what Rejuvenation Pill was, he could also get a glimpse of it through Orrin's performance.

First of all, the good medicine Charlie Wade said must be a miracle medicine that can cure all diseases. Even advanced pancreatic cancer, a severe disease with a fatality rate of almost 100%, can be cured. Then there may be no cure in this world.

Secondly, Orrin's whole body state on TV is better than when he was healthy, which proves that this good medicine can not only cure diseases, but also prolong life.

With these two effects, it can almost be called the world's treasure. But now, Charlie Wade actually promised to prepare a copy for himself, which not only made him excited, but also moved him extremely.

Charlie Wade nodded lightly and asked Stephen Thompson, "Steward Thompson, I came to see you this time to know the details of my parents being forced to leave and the murder. Do you have any more clues? For example, behind the scenes. Who is it?"

Stephen Thompson hesitated for a moment, and said, "Master, at the outset, your father clearly offended the Rothschild family, which has dominated the West for many years, but actually offended the entire Eastcliff family."

Charlie Wade frowned and asked him: "Why would my father offend the entire Eastcliff family?"

Stephen Thompson sighed and said, "Back then, your father led the Wade family to start transnational finance and trade under the tide of opening up the market economy. At that time, many large families in China knew nothing about overseas financial markets. It is very traditional physical trade, such as exporting some domestic products to overseas, and then importing some products from overseas to return to China. This kind of transnational trade is the most basic. Our ancestors have been doing this since the Ming and Moore Dynasties, even in the Moore Dynasty. Our country has become the largest foreign trade country in the world. Shanghai Port, one or two thousand years ago, can be said to be the busiest trading port in the world..."

Speaking of this, Stephen Thompson sighed and said, "However, until your father was young, the foreign trade of our domestic entrepreneurs was almost the same as that of the Ming and Moore Dynasties, with little technical content, while Europeans and Americans have already played multinational finance. It's supernatural, stocks, futures, oil, gold, private equity funds, hedge funds, venture capital, these are the housekeeping skills of Europe and the United States..."

"At the time, Asian countries were still relying on the hard-produced goods of workers to go overseas to exchange for money. When a little bit of little money was accumulated, their hedge funds went directly to Asia to wreak havoc with a lot of hot money. The financial turmoil can also legally steal the fruits of labor in Asian countries for years or even decades, causing a country's financial collapse, stock market collapse, and property market collapse..."

"Back then, the Rothschild family aimed at the blood-sucking goal of the big family in China. When everyone could only be slaughtered by others, it was your father who stood up and organized the entire Eastcliff family to work together against Rothschild. The Wade family finally caused the Rothschild family to retreat in embarrassment and dare not come to China for ten years..."

When Charlie Wade heard this, he couldn't help frowning: "According to what you said, the Eastcliff families should thank my father. Why does my father offend them?"

Chapter 1621

Hearing Charlie Wade's question, Stephen smiled bitterly, and said in a sad tone: "Master, most people in this world are like this. They don't know how to be grateful, and they will depend on others and enjoy them only when they need others. Others give themselves help and support, but as soon as they don't need others, they will immediately turn their faces, and even complain that others have robbed them of the limelight." Stephen said with emotion, "You don't know. At that time, your father led them with Ross. When the Rothshilde family fought fiercely, they were very flattering, and even took the initiative to form a Eastcliff business alliance and elected your father as the first chairman of the alliance."

"But when your father defeated the Rothschild family, they again immediately disbanded the business alliance, and even vilified your father's failure to operate, missed the opportunity to defeat the Rothschild family, and even maliciously slandered behind the scenes, saying that your father and the Rothschild family had joined forces to cheat the major families of Eastcliff interest "

Charlie Wade heard here, could not help but clenched fist, red with rage, thundered a low voice: "These people, it is too much, "

Stephen sighed: "hey Master ah, employing forward! , No need to look like people from behind, in every big family in Eastcliff, it is everywhere! Back then, your father, was a hero who resisted the Rothschild family, suddenly became the object of envy and slander of everyone in Eastcliff. Your father is too good!"

Stephen said here, he paused slightly, and continued: "The wood is beautiful in the forest, and the wind will destroy it. This is an eternal principle. After all, he is too good, so, The entire Eastcliff family turned their guns at him."

"The Rothschilds saw him become a target of public criticism, and immediately made a comeback, and they were also very insidious. They publicly declared that they were the Rothschilds, the Wade family, and him. His personal grievances, naturally let all other aristocratic families watch the fire from the other side!"

Stephen's tone became more and more angry: "The old man saw that the Wade family was going to be the target of the Rothschild family alone, and there were even a lot of Eastcliff behind. Other families waited for an opportunity to stab the knife, so they had to expel your father from the Wade family, and announced to the public that your father had nothing to do with the Wade family, so your father would take you and your mother to leave Eastcliff, Go to Aurouss Hilll."

Charlie Wade's expression was very gloomy. He gritted his teeth and said: "This incident is that the entire Eastcliff family betrayed the Wade family, and then the Wade family chose to betray my father, and finally pushed my father out as the scapegoat, Our family of three bears the anger of the Rothschild family alone."

Stephen nodded lightly, and said with red eyes: "It was indeed like this back then."

Charlie Wade's eyes were full of solemnity, and he said coldly: "It's all. A group of bastards who crossed the river and demolished bridges and fell into trouble, I swear by Charlie Wade, one of these bastards counts as one, and I will make them pay for it!"

Stephen hurriedly said, "Master, don't be impulsive! This happened back then. Except for the Sun family, all other families have participated in Eastcliff. From the Banks Familyy, which has been thriving in these years, to the other small families whose assets barely exceed 10 billion, all betrayed your father without exception. You must not Become their public enemy!"

Charlie Wade said with a resolute expression: "I am not a timid person. These people, even the Wade family, are all accomplices who killed my parents. I will not easily let them go!"

After speaking, he looked at Stephen and said seriously: "Steward Thompson, you don't need to worry too much. I'm not a fool. When I'm under-fed and lacking in strength, I will not directly go against Eastcliff's big family, I'll try my best, save energy, and give them a surprise!"

Stephen sighed lightly, nodded and said, "Master, it's not just that you want to avenge the second master and the second wife.

I am looking forward to this day for a long time. If you have any needs, I am willing to go through fire and water for this!" Charlie Wade nodded and said: "Steward Thompson, if there is anything that needs your help, I will definitely tell you."

Chapter 1622

Stephen hurriedly said, "Master, I have a small suggestion below. I wonder if you would like to listen to it."

Charlie Wade said, "Please tell me."

Stephen said, "Master, I want Eastcliff to let those who fail your father. People pay the price, you must first hold the Wade Family firmly in your hands, and then formulate a detailed and complete plan to destroy these families one by one!"

Charlie Wade asked him: "If I hold the Wade Family in my hands, Which family do you think I am going to defeat first?"

"Banks Familyy!"

Stephen said without hesitation: "Banks Familyy is the strongest. Killing them is equivalent to achieving half of the goal. Moreover, back then The group of people who stabbed your father secretly were all gathered by the Banks Familyy. They had formed an anti-Wade alliance in private, and the Banks Familyy was the leader."

"The anti-Wade alliance?" Charlie Wade sneered, "Okay." An anti-leaf alliance! Just four words, I will not give up with the Banks Familyy!"

Stephen said, "By the way, Master, today the master convened a meeting with all his protagonists and mentioned you and the Banks Familyy."

"Oh?" Charlie Wade frowned and asked him, "What did you say?"

Stephen glanced at Stefanie, hesitated for a moment, and said, "I just said straight away. The old master helped Wade family fix it. Nathaniel Wade, the master has been waiting for the Wade Family to take off for the second time. This time the old master also left. He pinned the Wade Family's hope of taking off on you, so he wants you to come back and ask you to follow The Banks Familyy to be married."

"Banks Familyy?!" Charlie Wade and Stefanie both looked shocked and questioned in unison.

"For him, it is the Banks Familyy!" Stephen sighed and said, "Miss Zara of the Banks Familyy is very important in the Banks Familyy. Whoever marries her will definitely get a lot of resources from the Banks Family. He wants you to go, but let me persuade you." After speaking, he glanced at Stefanie again and said embarrassingly: "Master also said, if the Banks Family is not good, Miss Sun is also an excellent candidate."

Stefanie blushed immediately.

Charlie Wade said in a cold voice, "When my father was accused of being accused by thousands of people, he instead of helping our family of three shelter us from the wind and rain, he drove us out. Now he wants me to help the Wade family take off. It's just a pipe dream. ! "

Stephen Thompson nodded his head and said: "Master, master approach is certainly a bit too much, but you also unnecessary too angry, on the contrary that was a good opportunity to bring counted on the meter, you could have promised him, with Miss Sun complete engagement, then Take the opportunity to ask him for more resources from the Wade Family. If you can become the next Patriarch of the Wade Family and deal with the Banks Family, you will definitely increase your chances of winning!"

Chapter 1623

"Become the Patriarch of the Wade Family?"

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently, and said with a little disdain: "I have no interest in the Patriarch of the Wade Family."

Stephen hurriedly said, "Master, don't forget, Wade The family is the second largest family in Eastcliff, and even the second largest family in the country. If you can get the Wade family, then the distance between you and the Banks Family will be infinitely closer!"

Charlie Wade waved his hand and said, "Steward Thompson, finally One day, I will use my own hands to defeat the Banks Family and all other families that have failed my father! I will rely on my own strength to let them kneel before my parents' grave to confess!"

Stephen sighed "Master, if you get the Wade Family, you will come sooner on this day!"

Charlie Wade said coldly, "I don't want to return to the Wade Family, because when that day comes, even the Wade Family will have to Kneel!" Stephen was frightened by Charlie Wade's determined attitude and cold aura.

At this moment, he saw Bruce's shadow on Charlie Wade's body.

It was also at this moment that he gave up his plan to persuade Charlie Wade to return to the Wade Family and fight for the head of the Wade Family.

Because he knew that the Wade family was not worthy!

The Wade family was not good enough for Bruce back then, and now they are not good enough for Bruce's son!

Therefore, he immediately stated to Charlie Wade: "Master, from now on, I will listen to your instructions. If you need it, I can leave Wade's house at any time, and focus on being with you!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "Now Don't worry, but in the future, I might really need Steward Thompson, for you to leave Wade's house and come out to help me."

Charlie Wade also wants to take Ichiro Kobayashi to Japan quickly before the arrival of the Lunar New Year, to thoroughly understand Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall. He took it in his own hands, and let Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's horsepower to produce Nova Dias for himself, and then develop a liver-protecting drug by himself, quickly seizing the global market.

The pharmaceutical industry is related to human health. As long as there is core technology, profitability is not a problem at all, and it can easily become a giant multinational group.

If you develop Oracle Pharmaceutical into the world's top pharmaceutical company, neither the Wade family nor the Banks Family will be able to compete with them.

Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals has several production bases in Japan with huge production capacity. It is definitely unrealistic to move all of them back to China. Therefore, a reliable person is needed to help him stare in Japan as the chairman of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals.

At that time, Kobayashi Pharmaceutical will have to be renamed Oracle Pharmaceutical, and it is certain that Ichiro Kobayashi's straw bag cannot be the chairman.

Therefore, Stephen became the most suitable candidate in Charlie Wade's eyes.

Although Stephen didn't know what Charlie Wade wanted to do, he didn't hesitate to say, "I will listen to your dispatch at any time!"

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "I'll be here today, Steward Thompson, I Go back with my wife first. I will have to go back to Aurouss Hill tomorrow."

Stephen asked in surprise, "Master, are you leaving so soon?"

Charlie Wade said, "I still have a lot to do. It's late."

Stephen said: "Then I'll take you and Miss Sun out!"

Charlie Wade said, "Oh, yes, the tea you made is good. Give me some. I'll go back and send my old man, he bought a bunch of junk tea from the deceptive tea seller on WeChat. I can't return without bringing some."

Stephen hurriedly said, "Master, wait a moment, I will arrange for someone to bring it over!"

Soon, a teahouse manager Carrying a few exquisite gift boxes and walked over quickly.

Stephen said to Charlie Wade: "Master, here are the best teas. You can bring it back and give Mr. Wilson a taste. If you like it, I will mail you some regularly. "

Charlie Wade took the tea and thanked him: "Steward Thompson, you are interested, thank you."

Stephen hurriedly bowed and said, "Don't dare to be" bid farewell to Stephen, Charlie Wade and Stefanie returned to the Sun family villa together.

Chapter 1624

On the way, Stefanie remained silent, as if something was on her mind. Seeing her beautiful brows were always frowning, Charlie Wade couldn't help but ask her: "

Daisy, what do you think?" Stefanie returned to his senses and said, "Charlie Wade, you and Claire Wilson Wilson have a relationship. Is it really good?"

Charlie Wade asked in amazement : "Why did you suddenly ask about this?" Stefanie said, "I'm just curious, and also a little worried about it."

"Worry about what?"

"Worry about your relationship if it is true? What should I do later?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and asked her: "Have you ever thought about what you will do in the future before meeting me?"

Stefanie nodded: "I thought about it, before I met you Before, I felt that I must find you. If I can't find you, I'll stay single. Anyway, I don't feel much about other men."

Charlie Wade asked, "If you really can't find me, you can't keep going. Single to 30 or 40 years old?"

Stefanie said seriously: "Don't say 30 or 40, what about 50 or 60 years old? My life is already fulfilled, so I won't be wronged just because I need a man. So I'd rather not chant, if I can't find you, then I might spend most of my life traveling around the world. When I'm old, I find a place I like to settle down, grow flowers, grow grass, and raise small animals. I donated all the family properties before, so it would be good for a lifetime."

Charlie Wade's persuasion reached his lips and swallowed it back. At this moment, he suddenly realized that he had left an indelible mark on Stefanie's life. No matter whether he would be with her in the future, this mark could not be removed by him.

This is what I owe her, and it is also an unshirkable responsibility. It's just that, at the moment, he still can't figure out how he should resolve the relationship between this girl and himself for more than 20 years.

That night, Angie personally cooked and cooked a table of rich and delicious meals.

Orrin took out the top Maotai he saved for Stefanie's wedding and had a drink with Charlie Wade.

Charlie Wade was about to leave, and both of them were a little bit sad. But the two also knew very well that Charlie Wade not only had a small family of his own in Aurouss Hilll, but also started his own business in Aurouss Hilll.

Charlie Wade did not go to the Emgrand Group given by the Wade family a few times. He did not take any money from the Emgrand Group; Charlie Wade did not spend much for the 10 billion given by the Wade family, and he spent almost all the money later. Earn it yourself, or taken it from Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall.

Now Oracle Pharmaceutical has become famous in China, and Oracle Nova Dias has become famous both at home and abroad for its powerful medicinal effects in a short period of time.

After trying this magical stomach medicine, many foreigners are crazy about purchasing and preparing to take it back to their country and share it with their loved ones.

This has further led to the popularity of Oracle Nova Dias.

Currently, Nova Dias has been in short supply. Distributors across the country are holding large amounts of cash, hoping to get more cash.

Following the development, Oracle Nova Dias is likely to become the world's best-selling and most well-known stomach medicine.

The practicability and applicability of stomach medicine are very wide. People all over the world, regardless of age, gender, or race, will have this aspect.

Therefore, this also means that Oracle Pharmaceutical's future development prospects are immeasurable.

Both husband and wife believed that if one day Charlie Wade could mass produce the magical rejuvenating pill, then Charlie Wade would definitely become the richest person in the world, not one of them.

Therefore, they also know that for Charlie Wade now, Aurouss Hilll is his base, his base camp, and the cornerstone of his personal career soaring!

Chapter 1625

Early the next morning, Charlie Wade was about to say goodbye to Stefanie's family, and then he took a taxi to the station, but unexpectedly, Orrin insisted on driving him personally. Angie and Stefanie were walking with him. Charlie Wade didn't want them to spend a lot of trouble, but couldn't stand the hospitality, so he agreed. On the road, Orrin drove his Rolls-Royce sedan, Angie sat in the passenger seat, and Charlie Wade and Stefanie sat in the back row. Stefanie's mood has always been a little depressed, but since her parents are in the car, she didn't speak, and she seemed to worry about it all the way. Seeing the outline of the airport can be seen outside the window, Stefanie plucked up the courage to stretch out her hand, quietly grabbed Charlie Wade's palm, and her little hand squeezed Charlie Wade's hand firmly. Charlie Wade turned his head to look subconsciously, and found that Stefanie's eyes were stubbornly and resentful looking at him, and he couldn't help feeling a bit of guilt in his heart. Rolls-Royce stopped steadily at the gate of the departure floor of the airport. Charlie Wade gently took his hand out of Stefanie's hand and said to the three of them: "Uncle Orrin, Angie, and Daisy, you just Don't get out of the bus. The airport is crowded and it's not so good to be seen by people, especially the girls, who are public figures." Stefanie said hurriedly, "I can wear a mask!" Angie said at this time: "If it's OK, even if you wear them Masks, you can only send Charlie Wade to the security checkpoint, there is not much distance in total, so don't take this risk." Orrin also nodded and said: "Yes, don't cause your Charlie Wade trouble." "Okay." Stefanie nodded slightly, looked at Charlie Wade, and said: "Charlie Wade, remember to tell me after you board the plane, and tell me after landing." Charlie Wade smiled: "Okay. Yes, I know, don't worry." After that, Charlie Wade got out of the car and took a small bag from the trunk. Afterwards, he waved goodbye to the Sun family of three through the window of the car, turned around and entered the airport. As soon as he entered the airport, he received a call from Loreen: "Charlie Wade, are you at the airport?" Charlie Wade said, "I'm here, and I'm going through the security check.?" Loreen hurriedly said, "Then you go in first., I'm in a traffic jam here, it may take about 20 minutes, I should be in time." Charlie Wade said, "Then see you during a break or at the boarding gate, if it is not possible, you can also see it on the plane. " No problem!" Charlie Wade hung up the phone, went through the security check alone and came to the t3 terminal. The t3 terminal of Eastcliff Airport is very large, with many luxury shops in it. Basically, major international brands have stores here. Charlie Wade thought that he only prepared some tea from Stephen for the old man, but he hadn't prepared gifts for his wife and mother-in-law Elaine Ma. When I set off, my mother-in-law still flattered herself to bring her some gifts. Seeing that she hadn't been a demon recently, and being respectful to herself, she really wanted to give her some sweetness.

As for his wife, Claire Wilson Wilson, let alone, it is natural to carefully prepare a gift for her. So he took advantage of this time to go shopping in the commercial street of the airport. Because Charlie Wade has very low material requirements in his daily life, he couldn't think of what gifts should be given to his wife and mother-in-law for a while. Thinking that women of any age like bags, Charlie Wade walked into the Hermès store without hesitation. The price disparity of Hermes is very large. The cheaper price is about 100,000, but this is only a starting point. Their high-end products can be expensive to millions. Charlie Wade was a bit dismissive of the arrogant cabinet sister in the store because of his ordinary clothes, but she didn't say anything malicious, but her attitude was somewhat unattractive. Charlie Wade didn't pay too much attention. He looked around in the store, and he took a fancy to the large limited edition crocodile leather handbag in the glass showcase. This handbag is the classic orange color of Hermès. The leather texture is very perfect, and the workmanship is also very elegant. It is very suitable for casual use or business use. Charlie Wade greeted the cabinet sister and asked, "Hello, I want this bag, please wrap it up for me, please."

The cabinet sister frowned and said, "Sir, the price of this bag is 580,000." Charlie Wade hummed and said, "No problem, I want it." The cabinet sister said again, "Sir, sorry. , Buying this bag requires distribution." Charlie Wade asked in surprise: "What does distribution mean? Can this bag be purchased directly?" The cabinet sister smiled contemptuously: "Sir, you are the first Come to our Hermès next time? Haven't you bought anything in our Hermès before?" Charlie Wade nodded, "No, why? What's the problem?" Sister cabinet hummed, "A lot of Hermès bags are not something you can buy. I bought them. You can pick, choose, and buy at will, but you can buy the basic items and basic items under 300,000, but the items above 300,000 are basically limited editions!" "Don't look at the price of this bag in the store. Five hundred and eighty thousand, but as long as you take it out, you can immediately sell for seven to eight hundred thousand. Therefore, if you want to buy this bag, you must be a senior member of Hermes and make an appointment with our store manager in advance. You can; or, you have to buy a certain amount of other items, and other items cannot be popular items, and you can buy this bag if you have enough of 500,000 ." Charlie Wade frowned: "According to what you mean, I If you want to buy this bag, you have to buy 500,000 other things first?" "That is right." The cabinet sister smiled and laughed: "Hermes all over the world follow this rule, don't you know it? Or you just want to Try your luck and want to cheat this bag out of our store to make the difference?" For Hermes, its limited-edition handbags have an amazing high preservation rate.

Even many styles are more expensive to sell in the second-hand market than first-hand, and the reason is the hunger marketing of Hermès. Other brands can buy things for money, but Hermès can't. Because the outside price is much more expensive than in the store, if you want to buy something from their store according to the price, you must buy hundreds of thousands or even millions of items. In this way, if you want to get a limited package, you need to pay more than one million.

However, Hermès is also very smart. If it is a distribution, you can't buy their hot-selling money, but can only buy their slow-moving money. Unsalable money is very nonsense. For example, some 18k gold rings cost about 1,000, but because of the Hermes mark, they will sell for 50,000, 80,000, or even more than 100,000.

Such a ring, even if it is bought and sold out, no one wants to buy it, unless it is transferred at a very low discount.

Charlie Wade didn't get angry after he understood the rules of Hermes. Since they have this rule, then he just followed the rules.

So Charlie Wade said: "In this case, I can buy other things for 500,000, right?" her eyes lit up when she heard this, but she didn't expect Charlie Wade to be a secret rich man with 500,000. Goods, I'm too lazy to bargain, just ready to ask for it?

When she heard this, she changed her indifference and hurried forward, and said respectfully: "Sir, I will show you the things that can be used for distribution in our shop. You can see what you need."

Charlie Wade points He nodded and said: "I just saw a common style handbag, the price seems to be around 160,000, can that be used for distribution?"

"Yes." The cabinet sister said without hesitation: "The price of that bag is 158,888, so you need another 340,000 or so."

Charlie Wade was about to look at the others. At this time, a woman's voice came from the door: "Tanaka, I want to see Hermes!" Then, another man's voice came: "Don't look, we are going to the boarding gate."

The Spoiled woman pleaded: "! There half an hour before boarding it, took me around Well," the man said helplessly: "Well, can only visit twenty minutes!"

"Tanaka, a very kind of you"!

Right Then, a pair of young man and woman stepped in. Charlie Wade recognized the man at a glance. Isn't he the same Koichi Tanaka who had been with Nanako Ito before? How could he appear here

Chapter 1627

At this moment, Koichi Tanaka's attention was all on the fashionable and somewhat coquettish woman beside him.

So he didn't find Charlie Wade in the store. Since the two spoke Chinese, Charlie Wade speculated that Tanaka's female companion should be Chinese. After the two came in, the woman took Tanaka and looked around the shop. Immediately afterwards, she pointed to the Hermès limited edition handbag that Charlie Wade had already bought for his wife, and said coquettishly: "Koichi, I want this bag!" Tanaka said embarrassingly, "My dear, we This time I came to Eastcliff to find a famous doctor for the eldest lady, not for shopping, and I didn't find a famous doctor. I don't know how to go back. If you really want to buy something, you can wait until you return to Japan and I will bring it. You go to Tokyo to see."

The woman reluctantly said: "I don't want to see in Tokyo, I want this one! You have to believe in fate when you buy a bag, and you must take it when you encounter it, otherwise it will be very difficult. Maybe I won't be able to buy it anymore!"

Tanaka said helplessly: "I have a difficult task on me. I can't bring you with me. It's already a violation of the rules to bring you here quietly. If you have a high profile for shopping, it's hard for me to go back and explain to the president!" The woman hummed, "I was a Eastcliff native before immigrating to Japan. If your president asks, you can tell him that I am just right. I also want to go back to my hometown to see my relatives. As for shopping, you can also say that I bought it myself." Then, the woman took Tanaka Koichi's arm and pleaded: "Koichi, I really like this bag. Buy it for me, okay? I beg you."

Tanaka hesitated for a moment, and said helplessly: "Okay, okay, but you must remember that after you go back, don't show off to the people around you, let alone this bag. I bought it in Eastcliff, do you understand?" The woman smiled happily and said, "I know!"

After speaking, he immediately waved at the cabinet sister next to Charlie Wade: "Beauty, I want this bag, help me get it!"

The cabinet sister said apologetically: "Sorry miss, this bag has been purchased. Mr. has decided, and he is now picking up the goods." As she said, the cabinet sister made a very respectful gesture with her palm facing Charlie Wade next to her.

Charlie Wade didn't even bother to look back at them. He just looked at the counter in front of him and said to the cabinet sister, "Thank you for helping me get two scarfs of 30,000 and the men's belt of 20,000." The cabinet sister nodded respectfully, and immediately helped him take out the things.

Seeing this, the woman said angrily: "Hey, didn't he have finished picking? Since he hasn't even finished picking the goods, it's still not the checkout? We can just swipe the card now!" Then she So he hurriedly said to Tanaka Koichi: "Koichi, take your card out!"

Tanaka said embarrassingly: "Since the man is scheduled first, let's change to another one."

"No!" The woman Hurriedly blurted out: "I want this one! I just saw this one!"

After that, she pointed to Charlie Wade and said to Tanaka Koichi: "Koichi, you give him a few dollars for the benefit, Let him transfer this bag to me, okay!"

Tanaka really couldn't stand the other party's soft and hard foam and coquettishness, so he had to say to Charlie Wade: "This sir, my girlfriend has taken a fancy to this bag. If you can give it to us, I am willing to give you one hundred thousand for a benefit. I don't know if you are willing to bargain?"

Charlie Wade waved his hand without looking back.

The woman said angrily: "Hey! You don't have to do anything, just make 100,000 in vain, where is there such a good thing? You didn't even agree, do you want the lion to speak out?"

Charlie Wade didn't bother to care about her. Continue to say to the cabinet sister: "Come on, bring me this fifty-eight women wallet."

"Hey!" The woman did not expect Charlie Wade to completely ignore her words, and said angrily: "My boyfriend is a senior assistant to the Ito family in Japan! It is the confidant of Ito Yuhiko, the head of the Ito family. If you offend him, you will let you in the future. Can't eat and walk around!"

Chapter 1628

Charlie Wade heard this and snorted: "A Japanese family is worthy to show off on my Chinese soil? Believe it or not, even if Ito Takehiko stands in front of me, as long as he dares to pretend to be forceful with me, I still beat him. Call grandpa on your knees."

"Asshole!" Koichi Tanaka, who had some guilt towards Charlie Wade because of his girlfriend's impoliteness, suddenly became angry.

He sternly reprimanded: "You dare to be disrespectful to Mr. Ito, is it too long?"

Charlie Wade smiled, turned his head to look at Koichi Tanaka, and asked coldly, "Is it Tanaka? It's been a long time."

The moment Tanaka saw Charlie Wade, his whole person seemed to have seen a ghost.

He still clearly remembered Charlie Wade's one move to destroy the picture of Yamamoto Kazuki. There is no doubt that Charlie Wade is definitely the most abnormal person he has ever seen in his life, and he did not expect to meet this evil star in the Hermes store in Eastcliff Airport.

His legs softened, he knelt on the ground with a thump, walked a few steps on the ground, and came to Charlie Wade's side, and said respectfully and fearfully: "Mr. Wade, I didn't expect it to be you! I'm so sorry!"

Koichi Tanaka was naturally afraid of Charlie Wade.

At the beginning, the Japanese national treasure level master Yamamoto Kazuki, just pretended to be a force with Charlie Wade, he was beaten into a cripple, and he said nothing to disobey him!

Otherwise, if Charlie Wade is unhappy, he will just abandon himself, but he can only lie down and return to Japan.

Tanaka Hiroshi forgot the woman. Seeing him suddenly kneel down and apologized to the man, he was amazed. He hurriedly stretched out his hand to get him up, and said angrily, "Koichi, are you crazy? You are Mr. Ito. In the eyes of the most promising young generation, the future is limitless, how can they kneel to a stranger?"

Tanaka angrily stretched out his hand, pulled the woman to the ground, and sternly shouted: "Presumptuous! Who made you rude in front of Mr. Wade? Hurry up and apologize to Mr. Wade!"

The woman was pulled to the ground by Tanaka. With a cry, her knees were so painful that she said aggrieved: "Koichi, what do you mean?!"

As soon as Tanaka raised his hand, he slapped her and cursed: "Give me the f*cking nonsense, and apologize quickly!"

The woman was stunned by the beating, but seeing that Koichi Tanaka was so nervous, she was also a little scared, so she had to hesitate to say to Charlie Wade: "Sir, yes...sorry, it's all my fault... .."

Charlie Wade was too lazy to be familiar with these two people, and said coldly: "You two will remember to me, I don't care how many of you are in Japan to fudge, as long as you are in China, you two will give me a low profile, as the saying goes. Well said, the Raptors can't cross the river yet, what are you two?"

Hiroshi Tanaka nodded hurriedly and begged: "Mr. Wade, I know I was wrong. From now on, I will be a low-key person, and I will teach this stupid woman to be a low-key person. Please don't be the same as the two of us."

Charlie Wade waved his hand disdainfully: "Go away."

When Tanaka heard Charlie Wade say these two words, he was relieved immediately and hurriedly thanked him: "Thank you, Mr. Wade, let's get out now, get out now..."

After that, he got up and ran out. Charlie Wade suddenly remembered something and stopped him and said: "Wait a minute!"

Tanaka trembled in shock, and asked nervously, "Mr. Charlie Wade, what else do you have to say?"

Charlie Wade said indifferently: "I ask you something, and you will answer me honestly."

"Okay!" Tanaka nodded hurriedly: "Don't worry, I must know everything!"

Charlie Wade asked coldly, "How is your eldest lady now?"

Chapter 1629

"Miss Ito?"

When Tanaka heard Charlie Wade's question, his expression flashed dim, and he sighed slightly, saying: "Mr. Wade, it is true that Miss Nanako suffered very serious injuries in the battle with Miss Quinton. They saved her life, her body is not as good as before. She now recuperating in Kyoto..."

Charlie Wade couldn't help feeling a little nervous when he thought of Nanako Ito's tenderness.

However, he still hid his emotions. On the surface, he asked, "Is there anything wrong? Can she still participate in the competition?"

Tanaka Hiroshi smiled bitterly: "She definitely can't participate in the competition. The eldest lady is very weak now. She was barely able to stand a few days ago, but she couldn't walk a few steps away. Now she rests in bed most of the time every day. If it's good, She will take a wheelchair to bask in the sun.

Charlie Wade suddenly saw the girl who loves to laugh, sitting in a wheelchair basking in the sun, and felt that his heart seemed to hurt. He asked again: "Then how is her mood?"

Hiroshi Tanaka shook his head: "The eldest lady seems to have no influence on the surface, and she is happy every day, but based on my understanding of her, she should have a lot of thoughts in her heart. She talked to me a few days ago and asked me if I don't particularly want to see people, but there are people who may never see them in my life. I don't know what the eldest lady means, but I can see that she was very depressed at the time..."

Charlie Wade couldn't help but sighed and said, "She shouldn't have played that game back then."

Tanaka didn't expect that Charlie Wade would feel sorry for his eldest lady.

After being stunned for a moment, he couldn't help sighing: "Mr. Wade, you are right. At the beginning, the president and I persuaded the lady not to play that game, but the lady disagreed life and death..."

After talking, Tanaka Koichi again said: "During this time, the guild grows up and searched all the famous doctors in Japan, but they were unable to treat the young lady's injuries. That's why I came to Eastcliff and went to the Eastcliff National Medical Center to seek medical advice for the young lady. medicine....."

Charlie Wade gave a hum and asked him, "How about it? Have you got it?"

"No." Hiroshi Tanaka shook his head dejectedly, and said: "Mr. Ito has offered a very high remuneration, and I hope to invite the famous doctors of the National Medical Center to Japan to treat the young lady, but they are not willing to accept it."

Charlie Wade shook his head. On the day Nanako Ito was injured, he was watching. He knew that Nanako Ito was injured very seriously, which was far beyond the current level of Chinese and Western medicine.

So no matter it is the current top Western medicine or Chinese medicine, it is impossible to cure her. Probably, the only person in this world who can cure her is himself.

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade remembered that he was going to Japan soon. I wonder if I can meet Nanako Ito in Kyoto this time?

If you have a chance, you must go to see her, at least, to heal her injuries.

At this time, Charlie Wade didn't have the mood to continue to care about with Tanaka Koichi and his girlfriend, so he waved his hand and said, "Okay, I won't pursue this matter, you two should go quickly."

Tanaka, as he received a pardon, hurriedly bowed to Charlie Wade, and said respectfully: "Mr. Charlie Wade, then let's go first..."

After that, he took the woman next to him and fled quickly.

Chapter 1630

Charlie Wade sighed with a melancholy expression, turned around and bought some small Hermes items from the counter as a distribution.

After matching up to 500,000, he directly swiped his card to check out, carrying a bunch of Hermes gift boxes, and heading to the VIP lounge.

When Charlie Wade arrived at the VIP lounge, Loreen had already arrived. Seeing Charlie Wade coming in with something to Hermes, she said with a bit of jealousy: "I said why I didn't see you after I came, so I went to visit Hermes! Did you buy a gift for Claire Wilson Wilson? Up?"

Charlie Wade nodded naturally: "I finally came to the big city of Eastcliff. Of course I have to buy some souvenirs for my wife."

Loreen curled her lips and said, "Charlie Wade, I found that you are hidden deep enough, a star as big as Stefanie, and any signed photo can be sold for thousands of dollars on a second-hand website. You knew her, and I never heard you talk about it."

Charlie Wade said indifferently: "How can I take others out as my capital to show off? Wouldn't that betray the kindness of others to me?"

Loreen nodded slightly: "That's what I said."

After all, she asked with some gossip: "Do you know what you two have known since childhood?"

Charlie Wade shook his head and said, "Of course I don't know, I actually don't want to tell anyone, but I didn't expect to be seen by you in Heathbrook yesterday, otherwise you wouldn't know."

Loreen said happily: "In this way, I actually know your secrets that you didn't even know at the beginning. Does this mean that our relationship has gone further?"

Charlie Wade said helplessly: "What are you thinking about? I just said it just happened to be bumped by you."

Loreen snorted, "Whether it happens or not, I also know one more secret about you than at first!"

After that, she stared at Charlie Wade's eyes and asked: "Eh Charlie Wade, how many secrets are there on you? It feels like you are mysterious, as if you can't see through you at all."

Charlie Wade didn't want her to ask questions about this kind of question, so he cleverly ridiculed: "What else is completely invisible?"

That time when we went to the hot springs together, I wore a pair of swimming trunks. You can't let you see the rest after you finish it." Loreen blushed suddenly!

In her mind, it suddenly appeared that when Charlie Wade was wearing swimming trunks in the hot spring hotel, that strong and perfect figure, the deer couldn't help but jump around.

Although blushing, she still whispered shyly: "Why can't I see the rest..." Charlie Wade said awkwardly: "Do you still have to ask why? We are friends, and you are my wife's best friend, so of course I can't show you the rest!"

Loreen lowered her head and whispered softly: "Why do you want to treat me like this? When someone was injured, didn't you also let you see the places you shouldn't be shown? Did you touch it?"

Charlie Wade blurted out: "These are two different things. I was to save you, not to take advantage of you."

Loreen pouted her little mouth, rolled her eyes towards Charlie Wade, and said, "Who knows if you are trying to take advantage? Maybe you are saving people and taking advantage, and do it both!"

As she said, she said hurriedly and seriously: "Actually, I don't care about letting you take advantage of it. Even if you want take advantage of me, I am willing to..."

Chapter 1631

Charlie Wade was already a little numb to Loreen's unrelenting show of love.

So he only regarded Loreen as joking with herself, so he changed the subject and asked him: "By the way, where did your cousin Sam pedal his bicycle?"

Loreen pouted her lips in disappointment. She also knew that Charlie Wade had been avoiding herself on emotional issues all the time, so she had become accustomed to Charlie Wade's attitude. Seeing him turn the topic off, she followed him and said: "I heard that I have arrived in the next town this morning, but I heard that I slept under the bridge at night and had a cold."

Charlie Wade smiled faintly and said: "When he rides to Aurouss Hilll, his physical fitness should be able to move forward a lot."

Loreen chuckled: "Actually, your punishment like this is also a good thing for him. My cousin is usually arrogant and domineering. He often makes trouble for the family, but he has never suffered any losses before, so I don't have a long memory, believe this. After this time, he will constrain a little."

Charlie Wade nodded slightly: "If it wasn't for your face, I would have to ask him to swallow the jade pendant during the birthday banquet, and let him have another operation to take it out. For such a person, the scar will be healed and forget the pain. , He will realize what is unforgettable by cutting the scar again."

Loreen looked at Charlie Wade: "Knowing that you are looking at my face, I let him go. After my cousin arrives in Aurouss Hilll, I will take him to invite you to dinner, and let him toast you to apologize."

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "It's okay to eat toast or something, let him reform in Aurouss Hilll honestly. If he performs well, maybe he can be sent back in advance. If he does not perform well, he can extend the deadline at any time."

Loreen pursed her lips and said, "Don't you always be so strict. If we really get together in the future, he is your brother-in-law. Although he is a cousin, he is also your brother-in-law!"

Charlie Wade shook his head helplessly: "You have this one all day long..."

"Hehe." Loreen said with a smile: "Who makes me like you? Anyway, I'm always ready. If you figure it out someday, please find me anytime!"

Charlie Wade ignored her. He looked up at the big screen and said, "Hey, it seems that our flight has already started to board first-class and business-class passengers. Let's go."

Loreen gave a hum, and while standing up to pack her luggage, she asked casually: "Did you tell Claire Wilson Wilson that we will go back together today?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "I said it on WeChat last night."

Loreen asked with a smile: "I was not jealous at first, right?"

"Why is this jealous?" Charlie Wade said: "She knew that I was attending your grandma's birthday banquet, so I told her directly that you just want to come back, and you booked the ticket for me."

Loreen smiled and nodded: "Then did you tell Claire Wilson Wilson that you gave my grandma a fan worth tens of millions?"

"No." Charlie Wade said: "Don't tell Claire Wilson Wilson about this. She doesn't know my relationship with Chairman Sun."

"I know." Loreen said seriously: "Don't worry, I will definitely not tell her."

Charlie Wade relaxed, and the two got on the plane first from the VIP boarding gate.

The two seats in the first class were next to each other. Loreen chose a window position, and Charlie Wade sat beside her.

After boarding the plane, Claire Wilson Wilson called Charlie Wade and asked with a smile, "Husband, are you on the plane?"

"Go on." Charlie Wade said, "It will take off in twenty minutes."

Claire Wilson Wilson asked again: "Loreen is with you, right?"

"Yes." Charlie Wade nodded: "Sit next to me."

Claire Wilson Wilson said, "Then you have to take care of her."

Charlie Wade said helplessly: "I didn't drive the plane. The flight attendant took care of everyone's food and drink along the way. What can I take care of her..."

Loreen deliberately approached the phone and said with a smile: "You can hug me when the plane encounters a turbulence, lest I be thrown out..."

Claire Wilson Wilson thought that Loreen was just joking, so she smiled and said, "You should buckle your seat belt, otherwise what if Charlie Wade doesn't have time to hug you?"

Chapter 1632

Loreen smiled: "I know!"

Claire Wilson Wilson smiled and said, "It happens that I have nothing to do today. I will drive to the airport to pick you up in a while."

"Okay!" Loreen said with a smile: "Then my big beautiful girl will have a hard time running!"

Claire Wilson Wilson smiled and said, "What are you doing so politely with me? Besides, it's not to pick you up alone, but also to pick up Charlie Wade from our house."

Loreen said: "Okay, you are to pick up Charlie Wade from your family, right?"

Claire Wilson Wilson smiled and said, "Yes!"

"Okay, okay." Loreen said helplessly: "If you can pick me up on the way, I'm already very satisfied!"

Claire Wilson Wilson said, "Then I won't tell you anymore. See you at the airport later!"

.....

After two hours of flight, the plane landed smoothly at Aurouss Hilll Airport.

Charlie Wade and Loreen came out of the airport together and saw Claire Wilson Wilson waiting here.

After seeing Claire Wilson Wilson for a few days, Charlie Wade missed it very much. Seeing that Claire Wilson Wilson was wearing a long and slender coat, he was slim and had an extraordinary temperament.

In the past few days, Claire Wilson Wilson also missed Charlie Wade very much.

After all, when the two got married, they had never been apart for such a long time.

I don't feel much about living together every day, but when one of them is not around, I can feel the feeling of discomfort and the feeling of constantly missing in my heart.

Seeing Charlie Wade coming out of the exit, Claire Wilson Wilson hurried forward a few steps and gently hugged him.

After hugging Charlie Wade for a few seconds, she hugged Loreen again.

Loreen was shocked by Claire Wilson Wilson's initiative to embrace Charlie Wade. She realized that her best friend's attitude towards Charlie Wade seemed to have undergone some subtle changes.

However, she couldn't analyze the specific changes.

Charlie Wade didn't expect that Claire Wilson Wilson would hug herself directly in front of Loreen. Thinking about it, his wife's feelings for him seemed to have made some progress, which was a good sign.

After Claire Wilson Wilson and Loreen hugged gently, he discovered that Charlie Wade was carrying several Hermes shopping bags, and asked in surprise: "Charlie Wade, why do you buy so many Hermes things?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "I bought some gifts for you and your parents."

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly said, "Oh, why buy such an expensive brand? Just buy some local specialties..."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Isn't this making money? It is only natural to spend some money on my family."

Claire Wilson Wilson said seriously: "You will spoil your mother like this. You still don't know who she is? If you buy her such expensive things this time, her appetite will be even bigger next time."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "This time I mainly bought a limited-edition bag for your wife. What I bought for my mother was all the ordinary styles that were used for distribution."

Claire Wilson Wilson said distressedly: "Then you have to spend a lot of money this time..."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Don't worry about money all the time here. It's easy to make money anyway. Let's go home first, and talk about it when we get home!"

Chapter 1633

Leaving the airport, Charlie Wade drove Claire Wilson Wilson's BMW and first sent Loreen back to the Shangri-La Hotel.

On the way, Claire Wilson Wilson wanted to invite Loreen to live in her home again, but Loreen said nothing.

Although living in Thompson First she can be closer to Charlie Wade, Loreen is also afraid of Elaine Ma and Jacob Wilson. These two people are really subverting the Three Views when they fought. As an outsider, it is really embarrassing to watch from the sidelines.

Moreover, she always felt that the Wilson family still had a time bomb. That time bomb is Jacob Wilson's first love, Matilda.

Elaine Ma still didn't know about Matilda's affairs, and could be upset with Jacob Wilson. If he knew this, he would have to fight directly at home.

Therefore, she felt that she should not go to Thompson First to find awkwardness, and it would be nice to live in Shangri-La.

Although staying in the hotel alone is a bit deserted, but fortunately, there is absolute freedom and unrestrained, even if you toss the room and throw it there in the morning, you will naturally clean and spotless after returning.

So, she said she didn't want to go to Thompson First anymore.

After sending Loreen, Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson went home together. Claire Wilson Wilson asked concerned: "Charlie Wade, have you been optimistic about Feng Shui for Miss Sun's house?"

"I'm optimistic." Charlie Wade smiled: "Their whole family They are all very satisfied and gave a five-star praise."

Claire Wilson Wilson relaxed and said: "If people are satisfied, then we can be assured of the money."

She said, she asked Charlie Wade again: "You buy With so many Hermes, didn't you spend less money?"

Charlie Wade said truthfully: "A total of one million or so."

"Ah? One million?!" Claire Wilson Wilson felt dizzy and exclaimed: "Why are you so willing to spend money to buy luxury goods and buy one million for our family's a year's living expenses, but not as much as one million?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Luxury, it must cost more money."

Charlie Wade pulled the car over and parked in the parking space on the side of the road, and gave himself to Claire Wilson Wilson from the back empty seat. I bought the Hermes limited edition crocodile leather handbag and handed it to Claire Wilson Wilson's arms. He smiled and said, "Open it and take a look!"

Claire Wilson Wilson carefully opened the package and saw the beautifully crafted bag. , Exclaimed: "The craftsmanship of this bag is really good and the leather is impeccable. This bag costs a lot, right?" Charlie Wade said: "The main reason is that this bag is more expensive, more than 500,000.

"Oh my god," Claire Wilson Wilson said nervously: "A bag is more than half a million? This is too expensive!"

Charlie Wade said with a smile: "My wife. Hermes limited edition items are not cheap, but don't think about it. Money is very expensive, because the Hermès limited edition bags are very valuable and can even increase in value. If such bags are resold, they will cost at least 600,000 to 700,000, or even higher."

Claire Wilson Wilson said with some anxiety: "But this bag It's too expensive, how can I be willing to use it, and my status can't afford such an expensive bag, or you can resell it!"

Charlie Wade hurriedly said: "That's OK! This is me How can I sell the gift I chose for you?"

Then he said again: "My wife, you can use this bag with confidence. If it is worn out, we will buy a new one. Now your husband, I am also in the eyes of high-ranking officials. Master of Feng Shui, you, as my wife, do you use a bag of 500,000? If you don't use it, people may tell me what I will say in the future. You might say that Charlie Wade is too picky and earns so A lot of money, I'm not even willing to buy a better bag for my wife!" Claire Wilson Wilson saw that Charlie Wade insisted, and there was some truth in what he said. He sighed and said gratefully: "My husband, then I will listen. Yours, thank you"

Chapter 1634

Charlie Wade remembered one thing and hurriedly said: "By the way, my wife, I will come back this time and take a rest for a day or two, so I have to go to Japan as soon as possible. I told you last time. There are also customers who have been urging me to go there."

Claire Wilson Wilson nodded and asked him, "How long will it take? It's more than half a month before the Chinese New Year. Many units are preparing for holidays. If you want to take a rest, wait for the next year." Go back to work again."

Charlie Wade said with a smile: "I have promised people, how can we temporarily release the pigeons at this time, but you can rest assured, it should be done in a few days, in fact, Japan is not far away, and we fly directly from Aurouss Hilll. It's been more than two hours in the past."

"Okay." Claire Wilson Wilson nodded gently and said, "Then you must take care of yourself when you arrive in Japan. If you are unfamiliar over there, don't conflict with others. , So as not to be bullied by the locals."

"Okay!" Charlie Wade said with a smile: "You still don't know what your own husband's current ability is? It will definitely not let people bully me."

Claire Wilson Wilson confessed to him. At a glance, he said: "I know you can fight, but you still have to make money with peace after all."

Charlie Wade nodded, "Don't worry, my wife, I will pay attention."

Back to Thompson First.

As soon as the car entered the villa yard, Elaine Ma, who had removed the plaster, ran out with joy.

She knew that Claire Wilson Wilson had gone to the airport to meet Charlie Wade, so she had been waiting for Charlie Wade to return.

The reason why he looked forward to Charlie Wade's return was mainly because Charlie Wade had promised her that he would bring her a gift when he came back from Eastcliff.

After Charlie Wade gave her a set of hundreds of thousands of caviar skin care products last time, she has already valued herself as a lavish son-in-law. I guess Charlie Wade will definitely prepare valuable gifts for herself this time. I can't wait a long time ago.

Seeing Charlie Wade stepping out of the car, Elaine Ma hurriedly greeted him with a smile, and said cheerfully: "Oh my good son-in-law, you can count as coming back. Mom wants to die for you these days!"

Charlie Wade felt a little uncomfortable with Elaine Ma's flattering attitude. Although Elaine Ma had already changed a lot before, it was the first time to say such nasty words.

At this time, Elaine Ma continued: "You don't know, Mom is worried about you these days. You have never been far away. Mom is afraid that you will not be able to adapt to the outside, eating and sleeping well, Mom. This has always been a thought in my heart!"

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "Mom, thank you for your concern. I have had a good time these past few days."

"That's good, that's good!" Elaine Ma breathed a sigh of relief. So he hurried to look in the car secretly.

Because Charlie Wade came back by car, it was impossible to take the gifts with her, so she looked in the car to see if there were any gifts ready.

At this time, the old man Jacob Wilson also walked out, holding a string of unremarkable red sandalwood beads in his hand, and said with a smile: "Oh, Charlie Wade, you are back, how have things been done in Eastcliff these days? How?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "Dad, things are going well for me."

Jacob Wilson nodded: "It's going to go well!"

Elaine Ma caught a glimpse of some gift boxes in the back seat of the car, but the car windows were covered with a film. Can't see what it is, so he hurriedly asked: "Oh my son-in-law, what are you putting in the back of this car? Is it a gift for us?"

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "This time, I have prepared some gifts for you and dad."

"Oh!" Elaine Ma immediately beamed, and said excitedly: "You really deserve to be my good son-in-law. I think about me all the time. Come out and show Mom, what gifts have you bought for Mom!"

Chapter 1635

Seeing Elaine Ma's eager look, Charlie Wade smiled lightly, opened the rear door and took out a bunch of Hermes gift boxes from inside.

When Elaine Ma saw so many Hermes, the whole person's eyes suddenly widened, and even gleamed twice!

She couldn't help but exclaimed in excitement: "My God, it's Hermès! Hermès bag is too expensive. Charlie Wade may not really be willing to buy it for me, but even an Hermès scarf would cost tens of thousands of dollars! "

So she came to the front with excitement, covering her mouth excitedly and said: "Oh, oh! It's Hermes! My son-in-law, you are so willing! What did you buy from Hermes for your mother?"

Charlie Wade picked out a few gift boxes of different sizes, and handed them to Elaine Ma, "Mom, this big one is a Hermes bag. It matches your temperament. Do you like it? ."

When Elaine Ma heard that it was a bag, she jumped up in excitement!

"Oh! It's really a bag! My good son-in-law! You are so willing to pay for mom!"

Elaine Ma has always wanted a better bag, but for so many years, her best bag, that is, an ordinary Louis Vuitton, looks like 15,000 Dollar.

In her eyes, Hermès bags, which can only be carried at the level of ladies, can't even be touched by ordinary and second-class people. She dreams of carrying an Hermes on her back, but she just dares Think about it, even if she had some money in her hands before, she would have to spend more than 100,000 to 200,000 to buy an Hermes, she would still be reluctant to bear it.

Unexpectedly, today Charlie Wade actually gave himself a Hermes bag!

This really gave her a huge surprise!

She hurriedly unpacked the Hermes package and took out the more than one hundred thousand handbags from the inside. She smiled and said: "Mom, this bag is so beautiful! How do you like it!"

After finishing speaking, he looked at Charlie Wade and said with a flattering smile: "Oh my son-in-law, you are so willing! You bought such an expensive bag for mom!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "You like it."

"I like it, I like it so much!" Elaine Ma excitedly held the bag in her arms, and sighed: "I was really blind before, and I didn't see that my good son-in-law has such great potential! Good son-in-law, what happened before Son, don't be familiar with mom!"

Charlie Wade nodded lightly.

I had known that such a world-class shrew like Elaine Ma could be bought with only a little profit, and I had already put her in order.

How could she fight her wits so many times, and sent her to a detention center for a few days.

But that's fine, Elaine Ma's character is the kind of master who doesn't suffer and doesn't know the evil in the world. After suffering a lot, her temper will naturally become more honest.

Afterwards, Charlie Wade took out two small gift boxes, handed them to Elaine Ma, and said, "Mom, here are two more gifts, which are also for you."

"Ah? There is mine?!" Elaine Ma was excited to kneel down for Charlie Wade.

Good guy, I don't want to say that I gave a Hermes bag, but there are other gifts. My son-in-law really looks more and more pleasing to the eye!

So she hurriedly took two gift boxes from Charlie Wade and opened them one by one.

"Wow! Hermès scarf! It's so beautiful! It's cold now, so it can be wrapped around it! This is a lot of money, right?"

Chapter 1636

Charlie Wade nodded: "Twenty to thirty thousand."

"Oh! My son-in-law is so generous! Buy me such an expensive scarf! Twenty to thirty thousand, you can buy a mink to wear!"

Afterwards, Elaine Ma opened another gift box and exclaimed: "Oh! This is the classic Hermès belt for women! My son-in-law, my mother has loved this belt for several years, and has been reluctant to buy it. I didn't expect you to realize my dream for me."

Jacob Wilson on the side looked a little bit sour, and couldn't help but ask: "Good son-in-law, didn't you bring any gifts for dad?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "If you have you, I have prepared several things for you."

Having said that, Charlie Wade handed him two Hermes gift boxes.

Jacob Wilson slapped his thigh happily, and said excitedly: "Oh, there really is me, really my good son-in-law!"

As soon as the voice fell, he rushed over and took the gift box from Charlie Wade.

Open the first one. It is a men's belt with the head of the belt and the golden letter h, shining in the sun.

Jacob Wilson clapped his hands happily: "Oh, this is the same Hermès belt of Tom Cruise! His belt was popular all over the country back then!"

Charlie Wade nodded and said with a smile: "This belt is now a standard for successful men."

Jacob Wilson sighed and sighed: "Oh, we old Wilson is also a successful person. We live in a Thompson First mansion, drive a BMW five-series sedan, Hermès trouser belt, and then we will string a large gold chain and get a gold watch. The upper-class people with small gold watches and three small barbecues a day!"

Claire Wilson Wilson said helplessly: "Dad, which middle-aged and old people do you see who are still wearing a big gold chain to swagger through the market? Those are standard equipment for young people and social people."

Jacob Wilson chuckled, "I just said that."

After speaking, he winked at Charlie Wade and said: "Good son-in-law, when can you give me a gold watch? I recently picked a Rolex, and that watch looks impressive!"

Charlie Wade suddenly thought: "Hey, before, Matilda seemed to have given his father-in-law Jacob Wilson a Rolex! It is worth three to four hundred thousand Dollar, but the old man was afraid that Elaine Ma would be jealous after seeing it, so he never dared to wear it."

"He is now mentioning Rolex again. It is estimated that 80% of them want me to agree to his so-called request."

"In this way, he can just look back and wear the Rolex that Matilda gave him. Even if Elaine Ma sees it, he can tell Elaine Ma that I bought him this watch."

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade couldn't help feeling in his heart: "This old man is not easy. In order to be able to put on the gifts from the first lover in a fair manner, he has to prepare so much in advance, so just help him!"

Therefore, Charlie Wade said to Jacob Wilson straightforwardly: "Dad, don't worry, Rolex, right? It's wrapped in me!"

As soon as Jacob Wilson heard this, he was immediately happy with nothing to add, and ran forward to hold Charlie Wade's hand, and said with emotion: "Good son-in-law, you are the one who knows me!"

After finishing speaking, he kept winking at Charlie Wade, his expression full of gratitude.

Elaine Ma on the side was unhappy, and said angrily: "Jacob Wilson, you old thing is really shameless, even you wear a Rolex for your unpromising appearance? Don't pit my son-in-law's money here!"

After speaking, Elaine Ma hurriedly smiled to Charlie Wade and said:

"Good son-in-law, you don't think mom has a decent watch until now. How about you turn around and give mom a piece?"

Chapter 1637

When Jacob Wilson received a Rolex from Matilda and showed off with Charlie Wade in the car, Claire Wilson Wilson was sitting in the back row.

So she knew very well that Dad now asked Charlie Wade to ask for a Rolex. In fact, it was a formality. The main reason was to find an opportunity to put the Rolex that Matilda gave him on his hand.

At this moment, although Claire Wilson Wilson felt a little uncomfortable, he could only turn one eye and close one eye when he thought of the past of his father and his mother, and the many wrongs he suffered over the years.

But Claire Wilson Wilson didn't expect that his mother would come to join in the fun at this time, and wanted Charlie Wade to buy her a Rolex.

She hurriedly said to Elaine Ma: "Mom, all Rolexes are worn by men. You don't look good on them. If you really like watches, I'll give you a female Tissot."

Elaine Ma said disgustingly: "Don't even think about fooling me, the watch of that brand is very cheap, I bought it for a few thousand dollars, and the low-end ones can't even cost three thousand. How can they compare with Rolex! I don't want it! "

Charlie Wade said smoothly: "Mom, I bought a lot of things in Eastcliff this time. I bought a gold watch for you and dad alone. It is estimated that our family's living standards will have to drop drastically. I happened to know a buddy who sells imitation watches. The imitation watches he sells are made the same as the real ones, there is no real fake ones, and they are cheap. How about I give you and dad a whole fake watch first to make do?"

Now Elaine Ma, in front of Charlie Wade, is no longer the vixen who blindly criticized the opposition back then. Charlie Wade treats her a little better, and she is quite sensible.

Thinking that Charlie Wade had already bought so many Hermes for himself, it would be hard for him to spend money to buy himself a gold watch, so he hurriedly said: "Oh, good son-in-law, mom just said it by the way, mom knows it's not easy for you to make money, so let's buy a fake for your dad first, and let him make do with it, then mom will not need it."

After that, he hurriedly added: "Hey, my son-in-law, if you take on the feng shui big job in the future and make a lot of money, don't forget my mother!"

Charlie Wade smiled and nodded: "No problem, I won't forget you if I make money in the future."

As he said, he winked at Jacob Wilson again and said, "Dad, how about letting my friend find you a replica Rolex? Anyway, most people can't see it, it's the same as the real one!"

How could Jacob Wilson know what Charlie Wade meant, anyway, just to find a reason to wear the watch given by Matilda outright, Elaine Ma thought it was a fake, but it would be better!

So he nodded hurriedly and said with a smile: "Oh, it's okay to fake it, anyway, I just want to wear it, but the real is a waste!"

Charlie Wade pushed the boat along the water: "Then it's settled. I'll call him soon and ask him to help find a high copy."

Jacob Wilson smiled and said, "Good, good!"

Charlie Wade then took out the tea that Stephen Thompson had given, and handed it to Jacob Wilson and said, "Dad, this is some good tea I asked someone to find for you. Don't buy tea from WeChat indiscriminately in the future."

Jacob Wilson smiled and said, "My tea is not bad! It tastes beautiful after drinking!"

Charlie Wade said: "Then you taste this and see how big the gap is."

Jacob Wilson nodded: "Okay, I'll try it later!"

At this time, Charlie Wade took out the remaining Hermès gift boxes and said to Claire Wilson Wilson: "My wife. These are all for you. Go back to your room and take them down slowly."

Claire Wilson Wilson was surprised and said, "Ah? Why are there still my gifts? They all gave me a bag..."

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "The rest are some small accessories, such as scarves, wallets and belts."

Chapter 1638

Claire Wilson Wilson gratefully said, "Thank you husband, but in the future, you must not spend money on me like this..." Charlie Wade knew that she couldn't accept such a high price in her heart, so she smiled and said, "Okay, OK, I know, I will buy you a gift with high cost performance in the future."

.....

Back in the room, Elaine Ma quickly put the Hermes that Charlie Wade had given her to the living room.

While putting the gifts and packing boxes away, she took out her mobile phone and took many photos from different angles.

Afterwards, she selected nine photos that she was satisfied with, and immediately sent them to the circle of friends, with the caption: "My good son-in-law went to work in Eastcliff and came back to give me a bunch of Hermes! I am so happy!"

In the circle of friends, likes and comments burst out in an instant, watching a lot of women's sour comments, Elaine Ma danced happily!

I can't help feeling proud: "It's so cool! The Lady is now living in a big villa and carrying Hermes, she is a proper super lady! After the two porcelain teeth of the front teeth are finished and set, the Lady can carry a Hermès bag, wearing a Hermès scarf, and wearing a Hermès belt, I'm going out in awe!"

And Jacob Wilson sat down on the sofa and quickly took out the tea leaves given by Charlie Wade, planning to make a pot, and taste the tea that he bought from WeChat. How was it different?

As soon as the tea leaves Stephen Thompson gave were opened, the refreshing tea aroma came out!

Jacob Wilson was cheered! He has never seen such fragrant tea! As soon as it was opened, it hadn't been brewed, and the taste lingered for three days, which made people feel refreshed.

Looking at the tea leaves, the pieces are perfect and impeccable. There are no problems of different sizes and colors, and there are no small pieces of foam and small bellflowers. At a glance, they are carefully selected piece by piece.

He grabbed a handful of tea leaves under the tip of his nose and lightly smelled it, then grabbed the tea he bought from the WeChat Maicha girl and smelled it, and suddenly he felt a huge gap.

The former is like a fine natural agarwood, the fragrance is rich and perfect, and it is completely natural, with no trace of processing.

But the latter is like fake agarwood made from low-quality firewood soaked in a chemical potion. The fragrance smells a little choking and pungent. Compared with the former, it is obviously not the same thing.

Jacob Wilson quickly put the tea leaves sent by Charlie Wade in the teapot. The electric kettle on the sea of tea was already boiling at this time. He quickly poured boiling water into the pot. Then, the fragrance of the tea was forced out by the hot water. The whole living room is full.

Jacob Wilson said in horror: "This... the taste of this tea is too good!" Claire Wilson Wilson smelled the scent too far away, and exclaimed: "Ah, it smells really good! Dad, can you give me a glass too!"

Elaine Ma, who has never liked tea, smelled the tea scent at this time, and said excitedly: "This tea smells very advanced, Jacob Wilson, give me a cup and taste!"

Jacob Wilson hurriedly took out four small tea cups, poured four cups of tea, and then took a cup by himself and took a careful sip on his mouth.

Then his eyes lit up and exclaimed: "Good tea! Good tea! Ah! I have never drunk such good tea in my life!"

Chapter 1639

Sighing at Jacob Wilson, Charlie Wade shook his head helplessly. This old man, indeed, has never seen anything in the world. Playing antiques can only afford fakes, and drinking tea is the same.

This is mainly because his status in the Wilson family is too low. He was not valued by the Lady before. Later, he was squeezed by Elaine Ma for many years. Life has been unsatisfactory and there is no improvement in money.

But fortunately, Jacob Wilson's personality is not bad. If he changed to another person, he would have been depressed because he couldn't think about it.

Here, while Charlie Wade's family was happily tasting the finest tea, Hannah was preparing lunch for the family in Villa A04 next door.

Because the child who was previously pregnant with the black coal kiln supervisor, he infected Christopher's whole body, Hannah was always excluded in this family.

But because Donald supported her, the Wilson family did not dare to do anything to her.

In the beginning, Hannah also pleased the Lady Wilson and Christopher in various ways, hoping to exchange their forgiveness, and even specially made an abalone dinner for Christopher, and bought expensive king crabs to supplement his body, although kind I did a bad thing, but it was really meant to please.

However, Hannah saw that she always had a hot face with her cold buttocks, so now she has some broken jars.

Recently, after the Wilson Group received Donald's investment, the business restarted. With Donald's help, it finally returned to formality, so the Wilson family all returned to work in the Wilson Group.

Mrs. Wilson is still the Lady in power, Christopher is the general manager, Harold is the business director, and Wendy is the business director.

This family of four goes to and from get off work together every day, so they are even more alienated from Hannah.

Hannah's current role at home has almost become the nanny for the four of them, doing laundry and cooking at home every day.

At this moment, she had just prepared the meal, but before the Wilson family came back, she took off her apron and sat on the sofa tiredly and played with her mobile phone.

Randomly swiping the circle of friends, and immediately reached the one of Elaine Ma. When she saw Elaine Ma showing off a bunch of Hermes in the circle of friends, Hannah was very depressed.

"This Elaine Ma is really a stinky burning bag! Isn't it just a few Hermes? Is there anything to show off?"

After a few curses, Hannah felt uncomfortable again.

"Elaine Ma kind of b*tch, there is a son-in-law like Charlie Wade to support her, what about me? What do I have?"

"Husband? Beat me, scold me, and divorce me. If it weren't for Mr. Webb, this old tortoise would have driven me out."

"Dead Lady? Not a good thing! This old thing is so bad, if Donald hadn't warned her enough, she was afraid that she would beat me to death together!"

"Hey, my son is not up for it. He doesn't have the ability to shit, and he will brag all the time. Such kind of stuff will definitely have nothing to do in the future, and I can't count on him."

"Wendy...hey...it would be great if Wendy was still with Gerald White. No matter what, she can continue to be Kenneth Wilson's lover. As a result, she has a reputation now. Whether to marry or not to go out is a problem, and it is even more a commodity that cannot be expected..."

"Hey, what can I expect in my life? Who can buy me a Hermes bag?"

Thinking of this, Hannah felt uncomfortable, and when she thought of the hardships and experiences she had experienced, tears burst into her eyes.
Chapter 1640

At this time, the door was pushed open. Christopher walked in first with the Lady. Harold and Wendy followed behind.

The Lady was wearing a noble mink coat, her face was red, and her face was indescribably happy.

Since regaining a new life in the Wilson family group, the Lady Wilson has been happy every day, her whole face is red, like a f*cking rejuvenation pill.

As soon as she entered the house, Mrs. Wilson opened her mouth and said, "Oh, although the Webb family is not good enough, at least the lean camel is bigger than the horse. With the project they gave, we can make at least 20 million Dollar in profit in the next year. ,that is really good!"

Christopher laughed and said, "Mom, it's not that you are far-sighted! If you weren't strategizing behind your back, our Wilson Group wouldn't have a chance to be born again!"

Lady Wilson nodded in satisfaction. She has always been narcissistic and has a strong desire for power. She likes to be flattered most.

Hannah on the sofa was very upset when she heard this, she couldn't help cursing inwardly: "The old dead woman is really shameless! What is your contribution to the rebirth of the Wilson family? Isn't it the help of Mr. Webb? Besides, Mr. Webb back then But first sent someone to the black coal kiln to rescue me! Only then did you get your family out of the detention center!"

Lady Wilson entered the living room happily, and when she saw Hannah sitting on the sofa playing with her mobile phone, she immediately shouted annoyed: "Hannah, what are you doing on the sofa instead of cooking in the kitchen? This is your sitting Place?"

Hannah stood up and said angrily, "Mom, what do you mean by this? I am also a member of this family. Am I not even qualified to sit on a sofa?"

Lady Wilson said sharply: "You are right! You are not qualified to sit on the sofa! In this house, you are a servant! Still a servant who dissatisfied me! If it weren't for Mr. Webb to cover you behind, I would Just drove you out of the pugnacious girl!"

"You..." Hannah said angrily: "The dead Lady, you're endless, right? You take that little mess out all day long and nag, is it interesting? Don't forget what Webb always does That said, let us put aside all our prejudices. If you have an old attitude, I will go to Mr. Webb to help me out!"

The Lady Wilson was speechless.

She insulted and bullied Hannah because she determined that Hannah did not dare to make trouble. But I didn't expect that the rabbit would bite in a hurry. Hannah dared to talk to herself like this. However, she did not dare to choke with Hannah right away, after all, Donald had indeed ordered that if she annoyed Donald, it might affect the rise of the Wilson family!

Thinking of this, she snorted and said, "Okay, since Mr. Webb asked us to let go of our prejudices, then I don't have the same knowledge as you, but I still advise you to figure out your own situation. In this family, you are a sinner. , There must be a sense of atonement at all times!"

Although Hannah was upset in her heart, she did not continue to argue with the Lady. Instead, she said blankly: "The food is ready, let's eat!" However, although she didn't say anything on the surface, she hated the Lady deeply in her heart.

She completely understood that Mrs. Wilson's attitude would only get worse in the future, not better.

If the Wilson Group continues to move up, Mrs. Wilson's posture will definitely be higher.

She couldn't help but sighed inwardly: "This dead old woman, if only I could fall a bit hard!"

Chapter 1641

Hannah followed the Wilson family into the restaurant with resentment towards Mrs. Wilson.

Lady Wilson sat down directly on the main seat of the dining table and glanced at Hannah's cooked food. She frowned dissatisfiedly and said, "Why are all home-cooked dishes? I don't have any hard dishes. I don't know I'm old. Do you need to replenish your body?"

Hannah said with a bit of aggrieved: "Mom, you can't blame me for this. The money in that family is yours. I only have a few hundred Dollar in total. How can I afford to buy a lot of big fish and meat." "

Lady Wilson coldly snorted, "I know you can find a reason. You can buy a chicken for a few hundred Dollar, right? A local chicken is only a hundred Dollar, can't you afford it?"

Hannah was very angry and said, "Mom, five people in the family eat, you don't pay me living expenses. I am also a clever woman who can't cook without rice. There is still pork in this meal today, and I might not even be able to eat meat for the next meal. "

Lady Wilson glared at her: "The living expenses are okay, but you have to be reimbursed. In the future, you will go to a regular supermarket to buy food and come to me for reimbursement with the receipt."

Hannah knew that the Lady was really afraid of getting her own money. Hannah felt a little disgusted when she thought that she might have to buy vegetables for hundreds of dollars every day and reconcile the reimbursement with the Lady.

But she didn't show it. She just said smoothly: "Okay, since mom is not too troublesome, then we will check the accounts once a day from now on."

The Lady Wilson smiled sarcastically: "I don't find it troublesome, the Lady is very energetic."

Hannah didn't pick her up with interest, picked up the bowl and took a couple of mouthfuls.

Wendy next to her was flipping her phone while sipping her food, and then said to Mrs. Wilson: "Grandma, can I apply for an image fee with you?"

Lady Wilson frowned and asked, "What image fee?"

Wendy behaved and said: "Grandma, look, I am now the commercial director of our Wilson Group. This commercial director usually specializes in external affairs. After going out, it represents the image of our company. So my dress, even Cosmetics and skin care products have to meet our company's positioning."

Lady Wilson gave her a white look, and said, "Don't be arguing with me here, just say what you want."

Wendy said: "Grandma, I want to apply for 100,000 Dollar to buy a bag, buy new clothes, and buy some cosmetics and skin care products."

"One hundred thousand?!" Mrs. Wilson coldly snorted, "Do you really think our family's money was brought by the wind?"

Wendy said aggrievedly: "Grandma, didn't Mr. Webb give us tens of millions? The funds in the company's account are also quite abundant. 100,000 Dollar is nothing to us!"

The Lady Wilson said angrily: "Isn't that what? I tell you, money is because I always think that 100,000 Dollar is nothing, 200,000 Dollar is nothing, and even 1 million is not much. Little by little, we defeated the Wilson Group! So from now on, we must seize this opportunity of rebirth from the ashes, and we must not make any mistakes we made before!"

Wendy was also a little unhappy, and muttered with a little emotion: "After so long and hard days, I don't even have a decent set of cosmetics now, so I will go out to discuss business and cooperation in such a disheveled manner. I'm sorry for the reputation of our Wilson Group. Besides, my bags were sold cheaply for the sake of life. Now I don't even have a good bag. Wouldn't I be laughed at when I go out."

Lady Wilson waved her hand impatiently: "Okay, don't come to this set with me. The bag problem will be solved. Just buy a fake one. Buy a fake Hermes. Wouldn't it be worthwhile to carry it out? "

Chapter 1642

"What's the face..." Wendy was anxious, choked up and said: "How can I say that I am also the commercial director of the Wilson Group. I was caught by a fake Hermes when I went out. What a shame if I was found out!"

Lady Wilson sneered and said, "You know what a fart! If you have a noble status these days, you just carry a fake bag, which is true in the eyes of others; but if you have a humble status, you are even saying the truth. In the eyes of others, he is also a fake! The Wilson Group is now in Phoenix Nirvana and rebirth from the ashes. In the eyes of outsiders, you, the commercial director, naturally contain a lot of gold. Even if you carry a fake bag, no one will think that is fake!"

Wendy was depressed: "Grandma, even if you don't look at it, if I am the commercial director of the Wilson Group, even if I am your granddaughter, giving me 100,000 Dollar is not too much, right?"

Lady Wilson snorted: "Don't come to this set, it's only ten thousand Dollar, you want it, don't pull it down!"

Wendy was extremely depressed, but when she thought of 10,000 Dollar, if she didn't want it, then she would lose a cent.

So she nodded and said aggrieved: "Well, ten thousand is ten thousand..."

The Lady Wilson cleared her throat and said solemnly: "I tell you, this time, we must let the Wilson Group regain its glory! We even want the Wilson Group to take another step, so you call me one by one. With the spirit of 12 points, no hedonistic thinking is allowed, otherwise, even if it is my son or grandson, I have to get out! Do you understand?"

Christopher, Harold, and Wendy knew in their hearts that the Lady said this to them.

Although my heart was depressed, everyone didn't dare to show any objection. They could only nodded bitterly and said in unison: "I understand..."

Mrs. Wilson was satisfied with this and waved her hand: "Okay, hurry up and eat. I have to go to the company in the afternoon to continue working!"

Everyone had no choice but to bow their heads to eat honestly.

At this moment, Wendy flipped through the WeChat Moments, and suddenly saw the one sent by Elaine Ma, her face suddenly blue with anger.

There was an uneasy feeling in her heart: "Elaine Ma's b*tch has a bunch of Hermes. I want to buy one. Grandma didn't even agree and asked me to buy a fake one. If I really buy a fake Hermes, in case, I was met by Elaine Ma, so I still have to let her die?!"

Thinking of this, she became more and more angry in her heart, why use such an expensive thing?

I am now youthful and naturally beautiful, why can't even Elaine Ma be as good?

Thinking of this, she said aggrieved: "Grandma! Look! Even Elaine Ma's b*tch has used real Hermes, why can't I use one real?!"

Lady Wilson snatched the phone from her, took a look, and said angrily: "Damn Elaine Ma, I know it all day long!"

Christopher also took the phone and looked at it and found that there was a picture of Elaine Ma taking a selfie with her bag on his back. He said coldly: "This stinky lady's legs seem to have been plastered off! I'm going to jump out!"

Harold's teeth tickled when he thought of Elaine Ma, and hurriedly asked him: "Dad, didn't you say you want to punish her before? When do you do it? I wanted to teach this damn lady a long time ago!"

"Don't worry." Jacob Wilson snorted coldly: "She broke her leg before and stayed at home all day long, so she couldn't rush into her house and fix her? Wouldn't we have to put us in? Since hers The cast has been removed from the leg, and she must be stumbling out. When the time comes, we will seize the opportunity and she must be treated well!"

Chapter 1643

Christopher still hates Elaine Ma very much.

Because Elaine Ma never put away the more than 20 green hats she hung on her terrace.

Not only have they confiscated, she has also successively bought a batch of new ones online, and now there are more than 30 in total.

Christopher goes in and out of the villa every day, passing through Charlie Wade's house, so he will see the more than 30 green hats fluttering in the wind, and every time he is angry enough.

Moreover, thinking of Elaine Ma's mockery of himself, he hated Elaine Ma even more.

I always wanted to find a chance to tidy up Elaine Ma, and by the way, I also added some blockage to Charlie Wade's house to make Donald as satisfied as possible. However, Elaine Ma had a plaster on his leg, and he stayed at home most of the time. He wanted to start. no chance. Now that Elaine Ma's plaster has been removed, she must be able to come out very quickly because of her character. As long as she goes out frequently, she has a chance to deal with her.

When I heard that Elaine Ma was going to be cleaned up, Mrs. Wilson was also interested. She said in a cold voice, "This damn Elaine Ma is jumping all day long. The last time she was in the detention center, she should be taken. All the legs are interrupted to relieve the hate!" Wendy hurriedly said: "Grandma, then we can find a chance to break her legs this time!"

"Yes, grandma!" Harold became excited immediately, and blurted out: "If you interrupt both her legs, I've long seen her not pleasing to my eyes!" The Lady Wilson looked at Christopher and said: "Christopher, Elaine Ma has been insulting you and humiliating the entire Wilson family. You should really make a plan to show this b*tch a little bit of color." Christopher nodded repeatedly: "Mom! Don't worry! I will definitely not let this stinky lady go!"

.....

After having lunch at home, Charlie Wade called Don Albertt to drive over and picked him up to the kennel.

He plans to go to Japan tomorrow and quickly settle all matters concerning Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall.

To get Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, it is inseparable from the help of brothers Ichiro Kobayashi and Jiro Kobayashi.

In Don Albertt's car, Charlie Wade asked him: "How are Ichiro Kobayashi and Jiro Kobayashi's performance at the kennel recently?"

Don Albertt chuckled: "Master Wade, these two brothers performed well in the kennel. They worked hard and didn't dare to pretend to be forceful everywhere. They were honestly like quail, but they couldn't meet. Two dogs with grudges are the same, and they have to be pinched as soon as they meet. I now assign the two to different areas and try to avoid them meeting."

Charlie Wade nodded lightly, there was naturally a deep hatred between Ichiro Kobayashi and Jiro Kobayashi.

Especially Ichiro Kobayashi, he was scammed by Charlie Wade, and even his father was poisoned to death by Charlie Wade. It was already miserable enough. I didn't expect that his younger brother would fall into trouble and gave him one. For the crime of poisoning his biological father, he also spent a lot of money to offer a reward for his head.

It can be said that he would never forgive Jiro Kobayashi until he died. In fact, Jiro Kobayashi hates his own brother.

Because Charlie Wade had already made it very clear last time, only one of the two brothers could go back to Japan with him, and the other person had to stay in the kennel and work for a lifetime.

And Charlie Wade himself tends to take his brother Ichiro Kobayashi home, so he hopes that his brother will have some accident every day, it is best to die suddenly, in that case, he will become the only candidate for Charlie Wade.

Chapter 1644

Although after returning to Japan with Charlie Wade, he must give him 90% of the shares, but this is much better than staying at the kennel to work.

After Charlie Wade came to the kennel, he instructed Don Albertt: "Bring both Ichiro Kobayashi and Jiro Kobayashi."

"Good Master Wade!"

Don Albertt immediately ordered to go down, and soon, several of his men came over with brothers Ichiro Kobayashi and Jiro Kobayashi wearing work clothes.

As soon as the two met at the door, Ichiro Kobayashi took advantage of the unpreparedness, rushed over and kicked Jiro Kobayashi, kicked Jiro

Kobayashi out, and said in a curse, "You bastard, dare to show up in front of me!" "

Jiro Kobayashi was kicked to the ground and hurriedly got up and rushed over to fight with him. He yelled, "You bastard, I must kill you!"

Ichiro Kobayashi is not to be outdone: "Come on, let's see who kills who! I will blow your head with a punch!"

Don Albertt's men hurriedly separated the two and kept them under control. One of them yelled, "What the hell is the f*ck? Just be honest with me! Otherwise, there will be good-looking ones from both of you later." ."

The two of them didn't dare to make any trouble, and were led into the room one after another.

Charlie Wade sat on the chair of the grandmaster, looked at the brothers with interest, and said with a smile: "Two, how are you doing these days?"

When the two saw Charlie Wade, they all knelt in front of him. Ichiro Kobayashi said excitedly: "Mr. Wade, you are finally here! I have been waiting for you to come back these days, so I can follow you to Japan, 90% of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's shares will be transferred to you!"

Jiro Kobayashi said hurriedly: "Mr. Wade, don't believe this bastard. He is a natural rebellious person and he is not a good person at all! Choose me! If you take me back to Japan, I will give you 95% of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall!"

Ichiro Kobayashi was crazy and he blurted out: "Jiro, you brute who murdered my brother, dare you to say that I was born with a bone?!"

Jiro Kobayashi ignored him and looked at Charlie Wade and pleaded: "Mr. Wade, I don't ask for anything else. You only need to leave me two shares, and I will give you the remaining 98%. Please, take me. Go back to Japan..."

Ichiro Kobayashi next to gritted his teeth: "Mr. Wade, if you take me back, 99% of the shares will be given to you!!!"

Jiro Kobayashi collapsed and shouted: "Mr. Wade, I will give you everything! You only need to save me some real estate and pay me a salary!"

Charlie Wade looked at the two brothers vying for me with interest, and smiled faintly: "Okay, don't chat here anymore. Charlie Wade always counts my words. Last time I promised Ichiro Kobayashi to take him back. He gave me 90% of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's shares, so naturally I will not break my promise."

After that, he looked at Ichiro Kobayashi who was ecstatic, and said, "Ichiro, you prepare, let's set off in the last two days."

Ichiro Kobayashi was trembling with excitement, and when he knocked Charlie Wade three times in a row, he said excitedly: "Thank you Mr. Wade, thank you Mr. Wade!"

Jiro Kobayashi almost collapsed, crying and said: "Mr. Wade, please take me back, I am willing to do anything you ask me..."

Charlie Wade said indifferently: "Well, Jiro, how about you, just stay here honestly. Here you can eat, drink, and live. You don't have to worry about anything. If your brother is not obedient, I Naturally, he will be sent back to replace you."

Jiro Kobayashi fell into despair. Will he wait until the year of the monkey? !

On the side, Ichiro Kobayashi seemed to be reborn, and he asked Charlie Wade excitedly: "Mr. Wade, when are we going to leave?"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "Tomorrow!"

Chapter 1645

Ichiro Kobayashi was excited when he heard that Charlie Wade would take him back to Japan tomorrow, but then he felt nervous again.

He looked at Charlie Wade and asked in a low voice, "Mr. Wade, how can I convince the public when I return to Japan like this? Everyone thinks that I killed my father, and they all think I'm dead. Suddenly going back, I am afraid it will be difficult to inherit Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall..."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Isn't this a trivial matter?"

After finishing speaking, he immediately beckoned to Don Albertt: "Don Albertt, arrange for someone to prepare a video camera and shoot a video of confession for Jiro Kobayashi to let him admit that he poisoned and killed his father, and then offered a huge reward for his brother in order to achieve the goal of monopolizing Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall."

When Jiro Kobayashi heard this, he felt as if the sky had fallen, crying and said, "Mr. Wade, you can't do this! Didn't you say that if my eldest brother behaves badly, just change me back? You let me now Plead guilty, how can I go back in the future?"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "What are you afraid of? You brothers will record a video of confessing guilt alone later. If your brother is in charge, you will be in charge; if you are in charge, let your brother be in charge. This is not Is it perfect?"

Both Jiro Kobayashi and Ichiro Kobayashi are full of despair, now that Charlie Wade is really going to die?

However, they are also very clear that their current life and death are in Charlie Wade's hands. If they really fight against him, they are likely to suffer a disaster.

So the two of them could only nod their heads honestly, and the people arranged by Don Albertt took them to the empty room next door to shoot the video.

Charlie Wade called Matilda's son Paul at this time and asked him as soon as he came up: "Paul, do you have time in the past few days?"

Paul hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade, what are your orders?"

Charlie Wade said: "It's the thing I told you before. I ask if you will accompany me to Japan to resolve the issue of the transfer of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's shares and complete the relevant legal procedures."

"No problem!" Paul said immediately: "When is the specific departure time? I can arrange what I have at hand, and then I can go with you."

Charlie Wade said with a smile: "Tomorrow, let's go early and return early."

"Ok." Paul said, "Then let me book the ticket, who are you with?"

Charlie Wade said casually: "You don't need to book the ticket. I will say hello to Cameron Isaac and let him arrange a private jet."

"it is good!"

Then Charlie Wade hung up the phone and called Cameron Isaac again.

After all, the Wade family has a big business. In Aurouss Hilll, there is a private jet specially assigned to Cameron Isaac for daily use. When Cameron Isaac heard that Charlie Wade was going to Japan, he immediately arranged for the crew of the private jet to apply for the route and departure time.

At the same time, he said to Charlie Wade: "Master, you are going to Japan this time, and you are not familiar with the place of your life. Or

I will go with you. I have some friendship with many Japanese companies and families. In case of any need, It can also be convenient for you." Since returning from killing the Eight Great Heavenly Kings in Golim Mountain, Cameron Isaac has followed Charlie Wade with all his heart, and regarded Charlie Wade as the only master in his heart, and Charlie Wade can also see that this person is now 100% credible and is completely under his control. Since he wanted to follow, he had no objection. So Charlie Wade said to him: "Let's do it, you arrange the plane, and then arrange two or three capable subordinates, and then go there together."

With that said, Charlie Wade glanced at Don Albertt and asked him, "Don Albertt, have you been okay in the last few days? If it's okay, come with me to Japan."

Chapter 1646

Don Albertt nodded immediately and said, "No problem, Master Wade! Don Albertt will listen to your instructions!"

Charlie Wade nodded in satisfaction, and said to Cameron Isaac: "Isaac, Don Albertt is with us, Paul from Smith Law Firm, and Ichiro Kobayashi from the Kobayashi family, please let the crew prepare."

"Good master! I'll make arrangements!"

At this time, the brothers Ichiro Kobayashi and Jiro Kobayashi also recorded their own back-to-back videos.

Later, the two were brought back by Don Albertt's men.

Charlie Wade looked at the two and said lightly: "Ichiro Kobayashi, you have a good rest today. Tomorrow Don Albertt will take you to the airport with you, but I will warn you in advance. Please be careful along the way. Don't think that coming to Japan is like Back at your home court, if you dare to have any disobedience, I will definitely not spare you."

Ichiro Kobayashi nodded like garlic: "Mr. Wade, don't worry, I will die, and I won't disobey you..."

Charlie Wade gave a hum, then looked at Jiro Kobayashi, and said lightly: "Jiro Kobayashi, you just stay here, Don Albertt's men will make you eat and drink well. Apart from work, you will have the rest. You can pray for a while, and pray that something will happen to your eldest brother, so that you have a chance to return to Japan."

Hearing this, Ichiro Kobayashi waved his hands in fright: "Mr. Wade, you don't need to worry about anything, I will never cause anything. Jiro, the bastard, will never have the chance to leave this kennel in this life!"

Jiro Kobayashi gritted his teeth angrily.

However, now that Ichiro Kobayashi became Charlie Wade's first choice, he could only honestly be a spare tire.

What is a spare tire?

If there are no problems with the tires being used, no air leaks, and no punctures, the spare tire will never have the opportunity to be employed. Thinking of this, the hatred in his heart for his eldest brother is even deeper.

If it weren't for so many people here, he would have liked to rush up now and strangle this big brother to death with his arm!

Seeing that the brothers were hostile and jealous of each other, Charlie Wade was very satisfied.

What he wants is such an effect, allowing them to deter and check and balance each other.

In this way, none of them dare to make trouble with themselves, and can only honestly let themselves be at their mercy and be their own puppets. Thinking of this, Charlie Wade stood up and said to Don Albertt, "Don Albertt, starting from tomorrow, we will strengthen the guard of the kennel. We must take care of Jiro Kobayashi, and we are not allowed to go on business trips!"

Don Albertt immediately nodded and said, "Master Wade, you can rest assured that there are more than 20 guards here, and dozens of the most ferocious purebred hounds. One bite of a dog will also take Jiro Kobayashi's. The small body is gone, tomorrow I will transfer ten more subordinates to come and surround this place into an iron bucket, there will never be any business trips!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Okay, your style of doing things has become more and more appetizing to me, but you should also pay attention to it. If he is disobedient and you really let the dog bite, don't let the dog bite to death. , It's a good thing to keep him alive."

Don Albertt looked at Jiro Kobayashi and smiled sullenly: "If this kid dares to run, I will let my snow mastiff bite his stuff first!"

Chapter 1647

Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall has multiple production bases in Japan. Its headquarter is located in Tokyo. In addition to Tokyo, there are also production lines of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall in several cities such as Yokohama, Osaka, and Nagoya.

In addition, some time ago, Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall also invested a large amount of funds to establish Asia's largest biopharmaceutical production base in Osaka.

When Charlie Wade went to Japan this time, in addition to finalizing the share transfer agreement with Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals and completing the share transfer, he also brought Liam from Weaver's Pharmaceuticals to inspect these production bases.

Liam is now the general manager of Oracle Pharmaceutical and the specific person in charge of Oracle Pharmaceutical. After Charlie Wade takes over Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, he will be in charge of the entire production line of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall for the time being.

In the future, if the time is right, Stephen Thompson can come over to take over Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, and then let Liam concentrate on the country, and continue to expand the scale of Oracle Pharmaceutical in China.

Therefore, Charlie Wade and Cameron Isaac made an itinerary plan.

They will fly from Aurouss Hilll to Tokyo tomorrow morning. Cameron Isaac will contact his men in Tokyo to respond to them locally, and arrange for a team to accompany them throughout the journey.

After getting things done in Tokyo, I drove from Tokyo and headed west to Yokohama.

Yokohama is near Tokyo, not too far away, and it is less than a hundred kilometers by car.

Then, drive from Yokohama to Nagoya and finally to Osaka.

After the inspection in Osaka, you can fly back to Aurouss Hilll directly from Osaka.

The reason why I have to drive around these cities is mainly because Japan has a relatively small land area. In fact, these cities are not far apart.

From Tokyo all the way to Osaka, it is more than 500 kilometers away. It takes less than an hour to arrive by plane. What's more, you have to go to the two cities of Yokohama and Nagoya in the middle. Instead, taking a plane is far less convenient than driving.

Charlie Wade studied the map of Japan and found a small detail. The highway from Nagoya to Osaka in Japan happened to pass through Kyoto. Nanako Ito, who was seriously injured, was resting in Kyoto. Charlie Wade couldn't help but think: I must go to Kyoto to see her!

.....

At the dinner table, Charlie Wade told the family directly that he was going to Japan tomorrow.

When I heard that Charlie Wade was leaving tomorrow, Claire Wilson Wilson said with a bit of dismay: "You just came back today, and you will leave tomorrow. You haven't stayed for 24 hours either..."

"Yeah!" Jacob Wilson couldn't help but muttered: "Good son-in-law, making money is important, but your body is more important. You keep running back and forth like this, and this body can't stand it either."

Elaine Ma was a little excited and said, "Oh, what do you know? You have never been successful since you got married, and you have no motivation at all. That's why our family has been looked down upon by the Lady, and we have never had a good life. "

After that, she looked at Charlie Wade with a flattering expression, and complimented: "Look at our family Charlie Wade, how ambitious! I don't know how many times stronger than you!"

Jacob Wilson snorted, "Are you a human again? You used to chase people, and Charlie Wade said that they were useless. Isn't it you? You used to chase your daughter to divorce Charlie Wade?"

Elaine Ma's expression was a little unnatural, and she said anxiously, "Jacob Wilson, you don't instigate discord here! I was wrong before, but I can correct it if I know the mistake!"

After speaking, he hurriedly said to Charlie Wade with a smile: "Good son-in-law, how many days are you going to go to Japan this time?"

Charlie Wade said: "If it's fast, it's three to five days, if it's slow, it's a week."

Chapter 1648

Claire Wilson Wilson couldn't help muttering: "Huh? So long?!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Isn't this going to a foreign country? I'm not familiar with the place. It's definitely not as convenient as doing things in China. If you really want to help others change Feng Shui, those raw materials are probably not available. It is so easy in China, so the time period may be longer."

Claire Wilson Wilson felt a little stunned.

In the past few days when Charlie Wade went to Eastcliff, she thought about him falling asleep every night. Now she finally looked forward to him coming back. She didn't expect him to leave again, and it would last for several days.

Elaine Ma couldn't help asking at this moment: "Good son-in-law, you went to Japan to show others Feng Shui this time, how much would they give you?"

Charlie Wade replied casually: "Two or three million."

"Oh! So much!" Elaine Ma clapped his hands happily, then gave a thumbs up and complimented: "My son-in-law is amazing! You can make two or three million by just watching Feng Shui!"

After finishing speaking, he quickly said with a smile: "Good son-in-law, I heard that Japanese cosmetics, cosmetics, skin care products, etc., the quality and efficacy are good, don't forget to buy some gifts for mom when you come back. what!"

Jacob Wilson couldn't see it anymore, and blurted out: "Elaine Ma, are you endless? Charlie Wade has bought you a lot of Hermes, and you still ask for gifts? You are not greedy enough!"

"You need to take care of it!" Elaine Ma gave Jacob Wilson a white look, and said angrily: "I'm asking about what I want, not what you want, what are you doing here? Who didn't mention the pants and gave you Exposed?" When Jacob Wilson heard this, his angry cheeks flushed and his whole body trembled!

"I didn't mention my pants to show myself? Doesn't this compare myself to that thing?"

"This lady's broken mouth is too bad! I really want to smoke her with a big mouth!"

However, Jacob Wilson only dared to think about it in his heart, if he really started with Elaine Ma, then he would be annoying. So he immediately looked at Claire Wilson Wilson and complained: "Claire Wilson Wilson, look at your mother, it's really a dog that can't spit out ivory. What kind of quality is this!"

Claire Wilson Wilson couldn't listen anymore, and couldn't help but said, "Mom, you can't be more civilized..."

"Good, good." Elaine Ma waved his hand indifferently: "I am a little more civilized, and I don't have a general knowledge of this old thing."

Charlie Wade, who was on the side, shook his head and smiled, but he didn't even think about it. He was used to the bickering between the two a long time ago. If the two of them didn't fight each other someday, they would have something wrong.

After dinner, Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson returned to the bedroom on the second floor.

As usual, the couple took a shower one after the other, and then lay on the bed one after another.

Charlie Wade hasn't gone further with Claire Wilson Wilson since he was promoted to the first level before the fight, but Charlie Wade hasn't been too anxious, not to mention that there have been a lot of things recently, and he has always been troubled by the presence of other women. Thinking of going to Japan tomorrow, Nanako Ito's face and how she looked when she was injured in the ring suddenly appeared in his mind. Charlie Wade didn't understand why he would never forget the Japanese woman Nanako Ito.

It seems that I am attracted by her dual character, which is gentle as water and tough and unyielding? While thinking wildly, Charlie Wade suddenly felt that Claire Wilson Wilson next to him moved.

I thought that Claire Wilson Wilson was just turning over normally, but she didn't expect that she would lift a corner of Charlie Wade's quilt and get into his side of the bed...

Claire Wilson Wilson got into Charlie Wade's bed and gently hugged his waist.

At this moment, she felt an unprecedented sense of security.

Having been with Charlie Wade for so long, this is the first time to hold Charlie Wade like this. Although she feels full of security, her heart is still short of breath.

Charlie Wade, who had been thinking about things, was startled by Claire Wilson Wilson's actions.

When he turned his face, Claire Wilson Wilson was also taken aback by him.

Claire Wilson Wilson's pretty face suddenly became hot, and she stammered: "Husband, you...you haven't slept yet?"

Charlie Wade also explained in a flustered manner: "I slept, woke up again..."

After speaking, he couldn't help asking: "Wife, why did you come into my bed?"

Claire Wilson Wilson said in embarrassment, "That...I...I am...I am..."

Claire Wilson Wilson stammered and murmured for a long time, before she simply turned her mind and said, "I just don't want you to go out again, so I want to hug you to sleep, okay?"

When Charlie Wade heard this, he felt a little throbbing in his heart. He stretched out his hand to put her in his arms and whispered softly:

"Silly girl, your husband will be back in a few days."

"Yeah." Claire Wilson Wilson gently leaned in Charlie Wade's arms and said with a smile: "I found that holding you to sleep like this is really safe."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Will I be able to get another level up from now on? How about we just sleep in a bed from now on?"

Claire Wilson Wilson was immediately embarrassed and said in a low voice, "It's not impossible to upgrade to one level, but for the time being, you can only upgrade to one level..."

Following Charlie Wade's previous routine, I must ask Claire Wilson Wilson at this time, when will he be able to reach the full level? When can I have a baby? After all, even Elaine Ma supported the two of them to have a baby quickly.

Perhaps, if he satisfactorily, he would be able to get things done for the couple.

However, because Charlie Wade always unconsciously appeared in his mind Nanako Ito's figure, which always made him feel a little uncomfortable. That feeling, like a thorn stuck in Charlie Wade's heart, instantly made him calm down a lot.

So, he gently hugged Claire Wilson Wilson, and said softly: "It's okay, you will be promoted to the next level, and it will be fine to sleep with you."

Now, it was Claire Wilson Wilson's turn to be surprised.

She also thought that Charlie Wade would definitely come to make some soft and hard bubbles.

However, he never expected that Charlie Wade would accept it so easily. This made her heart linger for a while.

In fact, she has had deep feelings and dependence on Charlie Wade after getting along for so long.

However, after all, she was an unmanned girl, and she was somewhat hesitant and worried about breaking through that layer of relationship.

If Charlie Wade was very active, she might just let him go.

But Charlie Wade's sudden calmness really made her unexpected.

She wanted to ask Charlie Wade, why did he act so indifferently today? Is it because he doesn't like herself?

However, she soon felt that it was really hard for her to speak such words, so she could only hide it deeply in her heart.

Soon, Charlie Wade by his side let out a uniform breathing sound, Claire Wilson Wilson sighed in his heart, and fell asleep slowly with a bit of loss.

.....

Chapter 1650

Charlie Wade woke up early the next morning. In fact, he didn't sleep well this night. I don't know why, as long as I close my eyes, I can't help but think of Nanako Ito. During this period of time, there have been many women around Charlie Wade.

Whether it was Jasmine, Aurora, or Xyla, Lisa, Loreen, and Stefanie, although these women more or less made him feel a little heart-stirring, none of them made him feel distressed like Nanako Ito.

After Stefanie waited for so many years and found herself for so many years, Charlie Wade was indeed very guilty, but after all, Stefanie was born in a big family and was loved by her parents in every possible way. After adulthood, she became an internationally renowned star, and was sought after and loved by countless people.

Even without herself, her life is very wonderful, very rich, and very happy.

But Nanako is different. Although she was also born in a rich family and was loved by her family, she was indeed injured too badly in the battle with Aurora. Suffering such a serious injury, the double blow to the body and spirit is absolutely impossible for an ordinary girl to experience in her lifetime.

Moreover, Charlie Wade can also imagine that although she is out of danger now, she must be tortured by injuries all the time. This feeling must be very painful.

And she could not have played this game. However, she did everything to make him admire her.

Even in the last match against Aurora, she waited for a chance to win with one move in order to make herself notice her, even if she was injured. Charlie Wade knew very well that if it wasn't for himself, how could she be injured so badly? It is precisely because of this that Charlie Wade always feels distressed for how she looked when she was injured.

Charlie Wade also reflected on that, as a married man, he should not feel sorry for other women, let alone a Japanese woman. However, that kind of mood is completely beyond his control. After washing, Charlie Wade quietly left the bedroom without waking Claire Wilson Wilson, who was still asleep.

At this time, Cameron Isaac had taken his entourage and waited at the door of Thompson First. Charlie Wade went downstairs and saw that Jacob Wilson and Elaine Ma hadn't gotten up, so he left a note, and then hurried out of the house.

At the door of Thompson First. Several Rolls-Royce cars parked side by side. As soon as Charlie Wade came out, Cameron Isaac and his men all got out of the car, bowed respectfully to him, and said in unison: "Mr. Wade!"

Charlie Wade nodded and got into the same car with Cameron Isaac.

As soon as he got on the bus, Cameron Isaac immediately said to Charlie Wade: "Master, Paul and Liam are all going by themselves. Don Albertt and Ichiro Kobayashi walked past the kennel. We only need to meet them at the airport, the plane and the crew. The personnel are ready, and they will leave at any time after they arrive!"

Charlie Wade said, the biggest difference between private jets and ordinary civil aviation flights is that the time is relatively free. As long as you apply for today's flight route, you can theoretically depart at any time.

There is an idea in his subconscious mind now, that is to go to Tokyo to get things done, and then rush all the way to Kyoto.

I don't know why, Nanako Ito has become a curse in his heart, always emerging and constantly affecting his emotions.

He felt that this might be mainly because he felt a bit of sympathy for Nanako Ito's experience, and if he cured her by himself, this demon would naturally be eliminated.

As a result, he said to Cameron Isaac a little impatiently: "Okay, time is waiting for no one, hurry up!"

Chapter 1651

Aurouss Hilll Airport.

The plane arranged by Cameron Isaac has been waiting in the hangar for a long time. Don Albertt had already arrived with Ichiro Kobayashi, and was waiting under the plane. Liam and Paul also arrived early, waiting for Charlie Wade's arrival.

nine in the morning. Cameron Isaac's motorcade drove to the hangar one after another. Cameron Isaac immediately got out of the car and personally opened the door for Charlie Wade. After Charlie Wade got out of the car, everyone came forward to greet him.

Charlie Wade nodded slightly, and said to everyone, "Are all the people here? If they are all there, then get on the plane now."

Cameron Isaac counted, and respectfully said to Charlie Wade: "Mr. Wade, it's all here."

"Okay, let's go!"

In addition to Cameron Isaac, Don Albertt, Liam, Paul and Ichiro Kobayashi, who accompanied Charlie Wade, there were also some twelve people under Don Albertt and Cameron Isaac.

After everyone boarded the plane, the crew immediately started the engine of the plane, pushed the plane out of the hangar, and then contacted the tower to jump in and take off first.

The plane jumped into the air and flew eastward.

During the flight, Ichiro Kobayashi was restless and looked very nervous. He plucked up the courage, came to Charlie Wade's side, and asked respectfully: "Mr. Wade, what if other members of the family are unwilling to accept me, and even think that I am the murderer of my father and refuse to let me inherit Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall? "

Charlie Wade said lightly: "I have a video of Jiro Kobayashi's confession in my hand, and I will show it to them in time."

Ichiro Kobayashi asked again: "Then what if they still don't believe it?" Charlie Wade smiled contemptuously: "Don't believe it? Just go through the legal process if you don't believe it. They said that you killed your father. Can you show tangible evidence? If you can't show it, it proves that you were not the murderer of your father. , What can they do with you?"

After that, Charlie Wade said again: "Besides, your brother has disappeared now, and you are the only heir to your father's estate. If the other members of your family do not agree with you, then all of them will be driven out of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall and let them fend for themselves. !"

Ichiro Kobayashi said with a little emboldened expression: "Mr. Wade, let's not tell you that, on the board of directors of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals, there are my uncles and family elders. Although they have no actual shares, they have certain shares. The pharmacy takes a lot of dividends, and they all hold some more important positions at Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall. If this group of people work against me, it's really not that easy to deal with..."

Charlie Wade said indifferently: "These are not problems. At that time, we will give them two ways. The first is to cooperate honestly. As long as you are obedient, the dividends that should be given to them will still be given to them; but if they don't toast There is only a second way to eat, drink, and fine. When that happens, there will be no one left, all of them will be gone. Everyone will be transferred after the earth is gone. These important positions can also be re-built a management team.

After that, Charlie Wade pointed to Liam and said to Ichiro Kobayashi: "It's really not possible. I will split a part of the management team of Oracle Pharmaceuticals and take over the management of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals. Then you will stay in Japan and enjoy the life of a drunken fan. Just do it, don't worry about anything else."

Ichiro Kobayashi knew very well that after he successfully transferred 90% of the shares to Charlie Wade, Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall had nothing to do with him.

What I can do is to honestly take the dividends given by Charlie Wade and live a life of drunken dreams of ordinary rich people.

Chapter 1652

Thinking about it carefully, Ichiro Kobayashi felt a little guilty in his heart.

Because in this way, it was equivalent to selling out his father's life's hard work.

There is an old Chinese saying that it is not distressing to ask the cubs to sell Yetian, but this old saying is a prodigal. Although Ichiro Kobayashi is not very capable, he really cannot be regarded as a prodigal.

If he were a prodigal son, he would not have come to China to participate in the Chinese Medicine Expo, let alone covet Dr. Simmons's magical medicine.

He wanted to get the magic medicine formula, but he also wanted to revitalize Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall and let Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall stand on the top of the world.

After all, he also has a leading family to flourish.

But now, Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall will soon be ruined in his hands.

Although Ichiro Kobayashi was very melancholy, but after thinking about it, he felt that this might not be a bad thing.

After all, he also knows how popular Oracle Nova Dias is now. Judging from the powerful medicinal effects of Oracle Nova Dias, it will definitely become a best-selling medicine in the world in the future.

As for Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, if it is not included by Charlie Wade, it will definitely go downhill in the future.

If Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall makes all-out efforts to produce Nova Dias after the change of ownership, it will surely create huge wealth around the world. By that time, his 10% shares may be allocated more money.

Thinking of this, Ichiro Kobayashi felt much more relaxed.

.....

More than two hours later, Charlie Wade's plane landed at Tokyo Airport.

After completing the immigration formalities, everyone came out of the airport, and the men arranged by Cameron Isaac were already waiting outside the airport.

Cameron Isaac arranged for these men to drive all Rolls-Royces.

In Japan, Rolls Royce is even more rare than in China.

This is mainly because most Japanese people choose cars from local Japanese brands, which are cheap and affordable.

Imported cars such as Mercedes-Benz, BMW and even Rolls-Royce have a very low percentage of appearances on the streets of Japan, so this fleet of Rolls-Royce is also very eye-catching at the airport.

Cameron Isaac personally opened the door of one of the Rolls-Royce cars for Charlie Wade. After Charlie Wade got in the car, he went to the other side to get on the car and asked Charlie Wade, "Master, where shall we go first?"

Charlie Wade said: "Go directly to the headquarters of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall."

Cameron Isaac said: "Master, I have investigated the situation of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall Co., Ltd. before, to be honest, their family is still very complicated, and I rashly brought Ichiro Kobayashi over, I am afraid it will be difficult to convince the public."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly, and said indifferently: "The more complicated, the more quickly I have to cut the mess. I'm here to make money, not to make friends with them. Could it be that I have to take all the mess of the Kobayashi family one by one. Is it smooth?"

Cameron Isaac said with some worry: "Master, after all, Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall is a large group worth more than 100 billion Dollar. I am afraid that the collateral members of their family will look at Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall. Now in their eyes, Ichiro Kobayashi is dead. Jiro has also disappeared, so it is a good opportunity to embezzle Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall. Maybe they have already started to divide Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall internally. We risked to harvest them, I am afraid that it will cause strong resistance..."

Charlie Wade smiled calmly: "From a legal point of view, no one can stop Ichiro Kobayashi from taking back Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall. If other people in the Kobayashi family are not convinced and want to make some small actions, then I will take this opportunity to take the rest of the Kobayashi family. Clean up the collateral members!"

Chapter 1653

At this time, Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's Tokyo headquarters is preparing to hold an emergency shareholders meeting.

During this time, the chairman of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall Co., Ltd., that is, Jiro Kobayashi, disappeared suddenly after he left for China, and the entire Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall Group was headless.

In the beginning, the shareholders of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals were still trying every means to find the whereabouts of Jiro Kobayashi. But they did a lot of hard work and tried, and they did not find Jiro Kobayashi.

After that, they immediately contacted Ito Takehiko, the leader of the Ito family.

I contacted Ito Yuhiko because the shareholders of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals know that Ito Yuhiko is very optimistic about Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals and Jiro Kobayashi, and hopes to recruit Jiro Kobayashi as his son-in-law, and then buy shares in Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals.

And the reason why Jiro Kobayashi went to China, in the final analysis, was to pursue Ito Yuhiko's daughter, Nanako Ito. As a result, Nanako Ito returned, but her follower Jiro Kobayashi evaporated from the world, which made the Kobayashi family members even hard to understand.

Ito Yuhiko is also very concerned about this matter. After all, he is very optimistic about Jiro Kobayashi and Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall too. If Jiro Kobayashi disappears, he will naturally be his son-in-law. Moreover, Oracle Nova Dias is currently insufficient in production capacity and has not been exported to overseas markets. Therefore, local Japanese consumers know nothing about this magic medicine. They still regard Kobayashi Niranex as the best in stomach medicine. Kobayashi Niranex is in the Japanese market. Sales have not received any impact. Therefore, in Ito's view, Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's future prospects are still bright.

In order not to miss the opportunity to invest in Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, Ito Yuhiko also sent many people to search for Jiro Kobayashi's whereabouts.

But it is a pity that they don't have a strong intelligence network in China, and they can't get any information about Jiro Kobayashi at all. As a result, Jiro Kobayashi seemed to have completely disappeared in the eyes of the Kobayashi family and Ito Yuhiko.

Over time, Ito Yuhiko took the lead in giving up the search for Jiro Kobayashi.

He felt that instead of looking for Jiro Kobayashi, it would be better to quickly let the Kobayashi family choose a new president, and then go to work with the new president by himself.

Subsequently, under the operation of Ito Takehiko, the Kobayashi family also gave up.

After the Kobayashi family gave up looking for Jiro Kobayashi, they began to enter the next stage, preparing to reform Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, and re-divide the cake of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall.

Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall was developed by Ichiro Kobayashi's father, Masao Kobayashi, in decades. Although many members of the Kobayashi family are involved, they do not directly own the shares of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall.

After the death of Kobayashi Masao, Ichiro Kobayashi was labeled as a father-killer, and Jiro Kobayashi naturally became the sole heir of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall.

However, now Jiro Kobayashi is also missing.

According to Japanese law, if Jiro Kobayashi's whereabouts remain unknown within a certain period of time, it can be determined from the legal level that the person is dead and his relatives have the right to inherit all his property.

In that way, all the shares of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall will become a Chinese meal for the collateral relatives of the Kobayashi family.

Ichiro Kobayashi's pro-uncle, Masayoshi Kobayashi, has now temporarily succeeded as the acting chairman of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall Co., Ltd., and exercises management power instead of Jiro Kobayashi.

Ito Yuhiko, who has been coveting Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's shares, immediately focused his attention on Kobayashi Masayoshi.

Chapter 1654

At this time, he called Masayoshi Kobayashi directly, and as soon as he came up he said: "Mr. Kobayashi, congratulations on your seat as the acting president!"

Kobayashi Masayoshi respectfully said: "Mr. Ito, thank you for your congratulations. My acting chairman is only a temporary agent. When my nephew Jiro Kobayashi returns, I will still give him this position."

Ito Yuihiko sneered and said, "I guess Jiro Kobayashi will not be back. You, the acting president, will soon become the official president!"

Masayoshi Kobayashi was secretly happy in his heart, but still said very honestly: "Mr. Ito, to tell you, I still think about it day and night, I hope Jiro can return safely."

Ito Yuihiko smiled and said, "Mr. Kobayashi, I am calling, not to be polite to you, but to have a business to cooperate with you."

Masayoshi Kobayashi hurriedly said, "Mr. Ito, please speak!"

Ito said in a serious tone: "I have always been very optimistic about Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's prospects. You should know this."

"Yes!" Kobayashi Masayoshi respectfully said: "I've heard about this a long time ago! Thank you for your importance to Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall!"

Ito Yuhiko said again: "I have always wanted to buy a stake in Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals. I have had a deep conversation with Jiro Kobayashi before, but it is a pity that he suddenly evaporated, so I can only come and continue this matter with you now."

Masayoshi Kobayashi hurriedly said, "This is okay, but I don't know how you want to advance, Mr. Ito?"

Ito Yuihiko said: "I want to make a deal with Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall and make two deals with you personally."

Kobayashi Masayoshi said: "Please speak."

Ito Takehiko said: "The transaction with Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall is an agreement that I intend to take a 30% stake in Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall at a valuation of 15 billion US dollars."

Kobayashi Masayoshi said embarrassingly: "Mr. Ito, the current value of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall is probably more than 20 billion U.S. dollars, and your price is 15 billion U.S. dollars, which is really a bit less..."

Ito Yuihiko said lightly: "Don't worry, I will discuss two deals with you next."

As he said, Ito Yuihiko said again: "The first one, as long as you can make me buy Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall at a valuation of 15 billion U.S. dollars, then I will privately give you 200 million U.S. dollars in cash."

"The second pen, as long as you help me make this happen, I will not only give you 200 million US dollars in cash, but also consolidate your position in Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall. I can assure you at that time whether Jiro Kobayashi will come back or not. You can sit firmly as the chairman of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall Co., Ltd.!"

Although the Ito family is the top family in Japan, it does not mean that Ito is a generous person.

He has always wanted to buy shares in Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals, to make a fortune with Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals, and he has always wanted to keep the price of shares as low as possible.

If it is a valuation of more than 20 billion U.S. dollars, if he wants to invest 30% of the shares, he has to pay at least six to seven billion U.S. dollars in cash.

However, if the valuation can be reduced to 15 billion U.S. dollars, which is also a 30% shareholding, it will only need to pay 4.5 billion U.S. dollars, which can save more than one or two billion U.S. dollars. When Kobayashi Masayoshi heard this, the first thought in his mind was that he didn't want to make such a big hole for Ito. After all, this was a price difference of more than two billion US dollars, and the amount was huge.

However, when he thought that he could return cash to himself privately and ensure that he would sit firmly as the president without any interference, he was vaguely moved.

After thinking about it, he opened his mouth and said: "Mr. Ito, since you have said so well, then I will not hide it with you. If you can privately return me five hundred million US dollars, then you can ensure that I sit firmly in the chairmanship. , Then when I have a meeting, I will try my best to promote the Ito family's stake in Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall!"

Chapter 1655

Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall Co., Ltd. meeting room.

A large group of collateral members of the Kobayashi family and corporate executives are all sitting in distress at this time.

Recently, there have been incidents in the group one after another, making everyone present a little nervous.

First, the old president died tragically by poisoning, and then the young master was suspected of killing his biological father by poison.

However, nervousness turned nervousness, and everyone was still full of expectations for the future.

Because they have not been able to deeply participate in the operation of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals before, let alone deeply intervene and enjoy the profit distribution of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals, they have always only got some petty profits.

It's different now.

Now, Masayoshi Kobayashi has become the acting president. He has promised everyone that he will release at least 40% of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's profits. If it can be realized, everyone in the room will have an annual income more than ten times.

At this moment, Kobayashi Masayoshi walked into the meeting room with full momentum.

Everyone turned their attention to him. In everyone's eyes, Kobayashi Zhengyi is now the god of wealth for everyone.

After entering the door, Masayoshi Kobayashi went straight to the chair of the conference room, and the others stood up respectfully to pay their respects.

At this time, without knowing who it was, he said flatteringly: "Welcome the president!"

Everyone returned to their senses and hurriedly said in unison: "Welcome to the president!"

After all, warm applause also sounded.

Masayoshi Kobayashi felt very comfortable in her heart, and said with a smile: "Don't scream about titles. I'm still the president of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall. If it is passed on, outsiders will gossip!"

The person who was the first to flatter hurriedly said: "Mr. Kobayashi, in our minds, you are the official president of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall!"

Kobayashi Masayoshi smiled triumphantly, and then put on a just and awe-inspiring look, and said seriously: "I personally hope that Mr. Jiro Kobayashi can return to Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall and take control of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's overall situation as soon as possible. Before I came back, I was only temporarily sitting in this position to manage the business for him!"

After that, he raised his hands and motioned everyone to sit down. After everyone sat down, he said seriously: "Everyone knows that Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall can be said to have internal and external troubles. I heard some time ago that a Chinese company called Oracle Pharmaceutical has launched a medicine called Nova Dias. This medicine is said to be much more effective than our Kobayashi's Niranex, but because the company's production capacity is relatively limited, it has not yet been exported to our Japanese market."

One of them hurriedly said: "My lord, I am going to report this to you. My son-in-law went to China last week and heard about this medicine, so he bought a box of it at a higher price. I tried it yesterday. After a while, I have to say that this medicine is more than a little bit stronger than our Niranex!"

Kobayashi Masayoshi said: "If this is the case, then Oracle Pharmaceutical will very likely become our next mortal enemy!"

After a pause, Kobayashi Masayoshi continued: "Moreover, our medicine is not as effective as it. If this continues, their output will continue to increase, and our sales will continue to decline. If Kobayashi's Niranex is in the global market, Oracle Nova Dias will then eat our revenue will lose most of it!"

Everyone's expressions were stunned.

Chapter 1656

Kobayashi's Niranex is the flagship product of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, and most of its revenue and profits are supported by this medicine.

If it is really beaten by Oracle Nova Dias, then Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's vitality will definitely be greatly injured.

So someone asked Masayoshi Kobayashi: "Mr. Kobayashi, we can't just wait and die like this! Do you have any good solutions?"

Kobayashi Masayoshi said: "There is also a way to deal with it, that is, we must increase investment in drug research and development, and we must quickly upgrade our current products. If our Niranex can surpass Oracle in terms of efficacy. Stomach, the market must still be ours!"

The person in charge of R&D opened the mouth and said: "My lord, if you want to increase investment in R&D, you need a huge budget. The company was sacked a lot of money some time ago. Can it still afford it now?"

Masayoshi Kobayashi said smoothly: "This is what I'm about to tell you. Our current cash flow is not very good. The investment in the production base in Osaka costs a lot, coupled with the previous accidental losses, which leads us to get it now. The funds invested in research and development are already less than 50 million U.S. dollars, so my idea is to raise a fund as soon as possible, with at least one billion U.S. dollars to upgrade our drug R&D laboratory!"

When everyone heard that they were going to raise funds, they all sat up straight. Some people asked, "My lord, do you have a suitable financing partner?"

Masayoshi Kobayashi nodded and said, "Before, Chairman Jiro Kobayashi had been negotiating with Mr. Yuhiko Ito, the patriarch of the Ito family, about financing. Surely everyone knows about this?"

Everyone nodded.

Jiro Kobayashi has always wanted to take Ito's investment, and even wanted to become Ito's son-in-law, otherwise he would not spend money to name Nanako Ito in the Sanda competition, which has long been known by Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall.

Even, everyone is ready for the marriage between Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall and the Ito family. Unfortunately, Jiro Kobayashi disappeared before the marriage was officially advanced.

Everyone thought that the cooperation with the Ito family would be terminated, but they did not expect that Masayoshi Kobayashi would now start cooperation with the Ito family.

As a result, everyone immediately became interested and asked excitedly:

"Sir, I don't know what kind of valuation the Ito family can give us?"

Masayoshi Kobayashi cleared his throat and said, "Mr. Yuhiko Ito of the Ito family is willing to invest US$4.5 billion in Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall at a valuation of US$15 billion, which will account for 30% of Kobayashi's total shares after the investment! "

"Valued at 15 billion US dollars?!"

Everyone couldn't help but talk.

At the beginning, Jiro Kobayashi and Ito Yuhiko talked about it, but it was not the price.

At that time, Jiro Kobayashi greeted everyone, and his valuation would be at least US$20 billion.

Why is it suddenly lowered so much now? !

Someone questioned: "Mr. Kobayashi, the Ito family's previous offer was not so low, why did it shrink so much?"

Someone said, "Yeah! At least 22 billion U.S. dollars is appropriate? A valuation of 15 billion U.S. dollars is nothing short of robbery..."

Kobayashi Zhengyi's expression was a bit ugly, and he said: "You have to figure out that we are facing internal and external troubles. It is not just that the president has disappeared for no reason. Oracle's Nova Dias has appeared in China. If we don't hurry up and raise funds at this time, If we wait for Oracle's Nova Dias to catch us by surprise, then our performance will drop significantly, let alone a valuation of 15 billion US dollars, even if it is 10 billion US dollars, it is impossible to get it!"

Chapter 1657

In fact, what Kobayashi said is true.

There is a certain information gap between Yuhiko Ito and him.

At this time, Ito Yuihiko thought that Kobayashi's stomach was invincible. At this time, grabbing Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall was equivalent to grabbing a profitable train.

However, Masayoshi Kobayashi and other members of the Kobayashi family now know about the existence of Oracle Pharmaceutical.

Knowing that at this moment, in China and in Aurouss Hilll, there is a Nova Dias that is popular in China. The efficacy of this Nova Dias is much stronger than that of Niranex.

Therefore, when Kobayashi Masayoshi expressed his concerns, others changed their minds almost immediately.

Just now they thought that Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals must have a valuation of at least 20 billion, and 15 billion US dollars is absolutely impossible to accept.

But now they suddenly realized that there are still people willing to offer a valuation of 15 billion US dollars, which is already very rare.

If Oracle Nova Dias successfully crosses Japan eastward, the valuation of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall will be greatly reduced.

As a result, everyone together almost immediately supported Kobayashi Masayoshi's decision one-sidedly.

Kobayashi was very excited.

As long as the agreement is signed with the Ito family, Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall will immediately receive a capital injection of 4.5 billion U.S. dollars, and he will also receive 500 million U.S. dollars in remuneration.

In this way, I suddenly became a super rich man!

As for Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, even if it will go bankrupt in the future, it has nothing to do with him. US$500 million is almost equivalent to more than 50 billion yen, which is enough for himself to live a life in style.

So, he immediately notified Ito Yuihiko to go to Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, strike the iron while it was hot, and sign the contract on the spot.

After hearing this news, Ito Yuhiko was very excited.

He felt that he had bought Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall at a low price and could earn at least three or four times more in the future, so he almost immediately took his assistants and lawyers and went straight to Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall without stopping.

Because the two companies are both located near Ginza, Tokyo, and both are located in Tokyo's most prosperous commercial area, the distance is not too far, only ten minutes away by car.

Kobayashi Masayoshi was overjoyed and said to everyone in the Kobayashi family: "Mr. Yuhiko Ito will come over and sign a contract with us. After the contract is signed, 4.5 billion US dollars will be paid to our account. In this way, we will have enough. Money, to deal with the next impact of Oracle Pharmaceutical on us!"

Everyone immediately beamed with joy.

US$4.5 billion is indeed an astronomical figure. With so much money, even if Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals loses US$100 million each year, it is enough to last for 45 years.

In this case, these senior executives can stay in Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall Co., Ltd., even if Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall suffers a huge impact, the money on the books will enable them to live well with food for many years.

.....

At this moment, Takehiko Ito walked out of the luxurious office building of the Ito family with high spirits and got into his Lexus car.

Following him were his two bodyguards and an assistant, and this assistant was Koichi Tanaka who had followed Nanako Ito before.

Koichi Tanaka was originally Ito Yuhiko's confidant. Some time ago, the reason why he let him go to China to participate in the competition with Nanako was because he was not at ease, so he let the person he trusted the most to accompany him all the way.

Chapter 1658

Now, Nanako Ito is recuperating in Kyoto, and Hiroshi Tanaka went to China to seek medicine for her a few days ago, but there was no progress, so he returned to Tokyo to return to life with Takehiko Ito, and then stayed in Tokyo.

In addition to the Lexus extension sedan Ito took, there were ten bodyguards, divided into two Lexus off-road vehicles, one after the other protecting Ito Yuhiko's car. The three vehicles formed a convoy and drove to Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall.

In the car, Ito Yuhiko looked very excited. He analyzed the financial reports and market sales of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals in the past two years and felt that the future of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals is very broad. It is definitely the best time to invest in shares now.

Therefore, in his view, the US$4.5 billion investment in Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall is like planting a large piece of gold in a magical land, and the future harvest will be at least 15 billion US dollars!

15 billion U.S. dollars, converted to Japanese yen, more than 150 billion, converted to Chinese RMB, more than 100 billion!

No one can hold back the excitement of such a large amount of wealth.

While he was excited, Ito could not help but sigh, and said with emotion:

"I don't know what happened to Jiro Kobayashi. What a great living person, how can I say that he disappeared?"

Koichi Tanaka also couldn't figure it out, and said: "Before the young lady participated in the finals, Jiro Kobayashi also came to visit him, saying that he must go to see the young lady's competition, and look forward to awarding the young lady after the final..."

"But on the day of the final, Jiro Kobayashi did not appear at the competition. Originally, he was still the guest of the final, but because he was absent for no reason, the organizer temporarily invited other people to present the award..."

"I have always felt that this matter is a bit inexplicable. It stands to reason that Jiro Kobayashi's thoughts about the eldest lady is absolutely impossible for him to miss the final."

Ito Xiuhiko sighed: "I wanted to hire him to be his son-in-law, but I didn't expect him to disappear..."

After speaking, she said with a bit of melancholy on her face: "Nanako's physical condition is not very good now. I don't know when and how long will it be to return to the original..."

Hiroshi Tanaka hurriedly said: "Mr. Ito, I have asked someone to help contact an American expert, and see if I can ask an American expert to come over and give the lady a consultation."

"Yeah." Ito nodded earnestly: "Be sure to bring in the best experts in the world, no matter how much money you spend, you will not hesitate!"

Koichi Tanaka asked again: "Mr. Ito, what about Mr. Yamamoto Kazuki? The doctors in Tokyo are also helpless about his injury. Would you like to ask an expert from the United States to come and see him?"

Ito Yuihiko waved his hand in disgust: "Forget it, it's a waste, it's not worth putting too much energy into him. If he is really capable, Nanako won't be hurt so badly!"

Hiroshi Tanaka said in a hurry: "Mr. Ito, in fact, Mr. Yamamoto can't be blamed for this matter. The main reason is that the coach of the opponent's opponent is too strong..."

"Formidable?" Ito snorted and said disdainfully: "Tanaka, you may have some misunderstanding of the word formidable! I tell you that the truly powerful is not karate at all, but our Japanese ninjutsu and Onmyoji, this is the real great supernatural power, the karate of Yamamoto Kazuki is nothing more than an ordinary person's fake style and fancy!"

Hiroshi Tanaka asked in surprise: "Guild Mr. Ito, do ninjutsu and onmyoji really exist?"

Ito Takehiko said indifferently: "Tanaka, ninjutsu and onmyoji are the national martial arts of Japan, especially ninjutsu. Even Westerners are obsessed with it. Why do you still doubt it?"

Hiroshi Tanaka said embarrassingly: "My Mr. Ito, I've been to Iga City, the hometown of ninjutsu, several times before, and I have seen ninjutsu performances there. I always feel that ninjutsu is a bit like a combination of acrobatics and magic."

Yuihiko Ito snorted and said with some sarcasm: "You, it's the frog at the bottom of the well, I tell you, true ninjutsu is no different from what is said in the legend, but now there are few true ninjas. Few, most of them are meticulously enshrined by top families. To the big families, they are like nuclear weapons. No family will take the initiative to expose!"

Having said that, he sneered and said: "Some time ago, the sixth generation of Yakuza group died inexplicably in his own heavily guarded Hokkaido hot spring palace. Do you know this?"

Koichi Tanaka nodded immediately: "This matter is almost unknown to everyone in Japan. It has been reported on TV that he died of a cerebral hemorrhage."

"Cerebral hemorrhage?" Takehiko Ito coldly snorted: "It's just a slander from the outside world. In fact, he died at the hands of a ninjutsu master!"

Chapter 1659

At this moment, Tanaka felt that his worldview had been subverted. The six generations of the famous Yakuza team died at the hands of a ninjutsu master, which is too legendary.

However, he did not dare to have any doubts about Ito's words.

Because he knows Yuhiko Ito's character very well, this person never says anything that is unsure.

If he says that, it must be that he has some special way to confirm that the facts are indeed what he said.

Even Koichi Tanaka suspected that there might be a master of ninjutsu in the Ito family.

However, he didn't ask much about it.

Because he knows that there are some questions he should not ask, and some things he should not know.

As the assistant of the Ito family and the confidant of Ito Takehiko, what I have to do is to serve Ito Takehiko well. Do not say a word about what you should ask and what should not be asked.

Therefore, he respectfully said to Ito Takehiko: "I'm ignorant in Shima. I didn't expect the legendary ninjutsu master to actually exist..."

Ito Yuhiko nodded gently, and sighed: "It's a pity that Master Ninjutsu is good at killing people invisible, not good at curing diseases and saving people. Otherwise, Nanako would not have to endure so much pain."

After that, he sighed and waved his hand again: "Don't talk about it, I will arrive at Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall later. After signing this contract, it is considered to be a worry for me. You will follow me tomorrow. For a trip to Kyoto, I want to put aside my business and return to Kyoto to accompany Nanako for a few days."

"it is good!"

.....

At this time, Charlie Wade was still on his way to Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall.

After all, the airport is still a little far away from Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, not as convenient as Ito Yuhiko. Therefore, Ito Yuhiko and his party arrived at Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall one step ahead of Charlie Wade.

In the executive meeting room of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, Masayoshi Kobayashi had already instructed everyone not to mention anything about Oracle Nova Dias, and first get the money from the Ito family. If after the investment of the Ito family, it is discovered that Oracle Nova Dias suddenly emerges, then the Kobayashi family will have to unify their slogans. If they ask, they will say that they don't know, and the relationship will be cleaned up so that the Ito family will not be accountable.

After all, it's just playing the Ito family.

Ito Yuihiko didn't know this. When he stepped into the meeting room, the entire management of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals all stood up and applauded. They all respected him, making him immediately feel that his face was greatly respected.

Masayoshi Kobayashi even surrendered the chairmanship of the conference room and said to Takehiko Ito: "Chairman Ito, please sit down!"

Ito nodded in satisfaction, sat down in the chair, and said with a smile: "I have always wanted to visit you, but there has never been a suitable opportunity. I see you here today. It is really a talent. Worthy of being a pillar of Japan!"

Everyone was full of joy when they saw that Ito Yuhiko gave everyone such a high evaluation. At this time, looking at Ito Yuhiko's expression, it was completely like watching a boy who lost money.

Chapter 1660

At this time, Ito Yuihiko said again: "I have always been very optimistic about Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals, and I am very willing to support Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals to go further, so I came here today just to sign an investment agreement with you. Regarding my investment intentions, you should not What's your opinion?"

Kobayashi Masayoshi hurriedly said respectfully: "Chairman Ito, you can rest assured that we have reached a consensus before you come, and you are very welcome to invest in our Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall."

Yuhiko Ito nodded to prevent night long dreams, and he said directly:

"Well, I have had a lot of things recently, and I am going to leave Tokyo tomorrow, so we simply sign the contract now. If there is no problem, I will immediately notify the finance. Make money."

Kobayashi Masayoshi blurted out: "No problem! Absolutely no problem, we can sign a contract immediately!"

Ito Yuihiko immediately said to Koichi Tanaka next to him: "Tanaka, take out the contract and show it to everyone."

Koichi Tanaka immediately took out a few contracts and distributed them, introducing: "Everyone, the investment details are already written in the contract. We valued Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall for this investment at US$15 billion, and we are planning to invest in Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall 100 million U.S. dollars, holding 30% of the shares. If you don't have any comments, we can sign the contract now, and we can arrange the financial payment immediately after the contract is completed."

Everyone accepted the contract, and after reading it carefully, they found that there were no hidden terms and risks, and they all looked at Kobayashi Masayoshi and asked him to directly sign the contract.

Kobayashi Masayoshi also wanted to settle this matter quickly, so he immediately signed his name on the contract with a wave of his hand in the name of the acting chairman.

After the contract was signed, Ito Yuihiko also immediately notified the finance company and credited $4.5 billion to Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's account.

What is left is that the board members of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall must submit an application to the commercial management department of Tokyo to officially change 30% of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's shares to the Ito family.

After hearing that the 4.5 billion U.S. dollars had already arrived, Kobayashi Masayoshi was so excited that he shook hands with Ito Takehiko and said, "Mr. Ito, you will be a shareholder of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall from now on!"

Yuihiko Ito laughed and said, "Don't worry, I won't interfere with your daily operations. You only need to do well and strive to become the world's top pharmaceutical company, and everyone will make money together!"

Kobayashi Masayoshi hurriedly said to the surrounding executives: "Come, everyone applaud, and welcome Mr. Ito to become a shareholder of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall!"

Everyone smiled and applauded.

At this moment, the door of the conference room was suddenly pushed open. Charlie Wade walked in first with no expression on his face, and said coldly: "What is the noise?"

Everyone immediately looked at Charlie Wade, everyone couldn't help being dumbfounded, who is this person? Why have you never seen it before? What are you doing here?

Ito Xiuhiko didn't expect anyone to come in and spoil the situation at this time, and snorted coldly: "Who are you? Can you break into this place?"

Charlie Wade looked at him and said indifferently: "Old man, I am a major shareholder of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall. Can you say I can't break through?"

"Joke!" Kobayashi Zhengyi said coldly: "You are not from Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall at all, so why do you say that you are a major shareholder?"

At this moment, Tanaka turned his head to recognize Charlie Wade, and exclaimed: "Mr. Wade, you... why are you here?"

Seeing that he was here, Charlie Wade snorted and said: "Tanaka, you are really a bit lingering, how can I meet you everywhere?"

Ito Yuhiko hurriedly asked Tanaka Koichi: "Tanaka, do you know him?!"

Hiroshi Tanaka hurriedly walked up to Ito Takehiko and whispered: "Mr. Ito, this is Charlie Wade Wade who abolished Mr. Yamamoto Kazuki..."

Chapter 1661

Ito Yuihiko couldn't understand why Charlie Wade came here, and Tanaka couldn't understand even more.

After all, in his impression, Charlie Wade's identity is just Aurora's coach, a local master in Arouss Hillll, who can't fight with Japan Bagan, but why did he suddenly appear in Tokyo, and also in the meeting room of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall?

What is even more confusing is why Charlie Wade said he is a major shareholder of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall? !

At this time, Ito's expression was a bit ugly. On the way he came, he heard Tanaka talk about Charlie Wade. In fact, he was very disdainful of such so-called masters, so he didn't take him to heart.

So he stared at Charlie Wade and shouted in a cold voice: "Boy, you must consider the consequences before speaking. You can't afford the price of talking about it!"

Charlie Wade didn't know Ito Takehiko. Seeing that the Japanese looked like he was about fifty years old, with a big back, his expression and tone were very arrogant, and he suddenly felt a little dissatisfied. He stared at Ito Takehiko, and said coldly: "Don't think you can pretend to be aggressive when you are old, and I will hit you if you get angry." When did Takehiko Ito feel so angry?

Even the current Yakuza Group's Seventh Generation Mee must be respectful when meeting him. In this country, no one dares to talk to him like that. As a result, Takehiko Ito was immediately furious, pointed at the two bodyguards beside him, and shouted angrily: "Teach him a lesson!"

As soon as the voice fell, the two people who had not moved like a mountain immediately rushed to Charlie Wade.

They are all top masters, and different from the competition-type players like Yamamoto Kazuki, they are all real combat players, really hands-on, there may not be any good-looking tricks and postures, but they are absolutely lethal!

The two of them let out a low growl, all the strength of their bodies was raised, and they immediately attacked Charlie Wade.

Seeing these two people rushing towards Charlie Wade, Tanaka became tense.

He was not worried about Charlie Wade, but about the two personal bodyguards of Ito Takehiko.

He had seen it with his own eyes at that time, how Charlie Wade used a palm to destroy Yamamoto Kazuki, and Yamamoto Kazuki was a scum without fighting power in front of him!

No matter how strong these two bodyguards are, they can't be several times stronger than Kazuki Yamamoto, right?

For Charlie Wade, it could be done in just a few palms.

At this moment, the two bodyguards had already rushed to Charlie Wade, one on the left and the other on the right, hitting both sides of Charlie Wade's ribs with heavy punches.

The ribs on both sides are one of the weakest parts of an adult's body. The ribs are not as hard as a skull, and they are extremely prone to breakage when hit from the side. If the ribs are broken from the side, the broken ribs themselves will also become a sharp blade pierced the victim's body.

The ribs protect the most important internal organs. Once a broken rib pierces the internal organs, it is extremely easy to cause severe internal bleeding, which may directly kill the other party!

This kind of cruel trick is almost killed!

Charlie Wade couldn't help narrowing his eyes slightly.

In ordinary conflicts, very few people come up and use such insidious tricks, either running their faces or running their limbs, even if they abolish all limbs, they will not kill others.

But he didn't expect that these two Japanese would be so insidious that they wanted to kill if they didn't agree with each other. Looking at it this way, I don't know how many people have already lost their lives!

Moreover, these two people know how to use chi, and it seems that they are also a good practice.

So Charlie Wade sneered, and at the moment when the two fists were about to hit his ribs on both sides, he suddenly stretched out his hand and grabbed the wrists of the two at extremely fast speed.

Chapter 1662

The two powerful offensive stopped abruptly at this moment!

Both of them were frightened by the sudden huge force on their wrists, and found that their fists couldn't move in, and they couldn't retreat. They immediately realized that they had met a master today!

The two looked at each other, and they could see the panic in each other's eyes.

Afterwards, the two exchanged glances, and at the same time they exerted force, trying to free their right hand from Charlie Wade's hand.

But unfortunately, with all their strength, they still couldn't withdraw their right hand even at all!

Charlie Wade looked at the two with a smile on his face, and said with interest: "The hands of the two are a bit dark! They attacked others' ribs when they came up, are you afraid of killing them?"

The two were very nervous, and one of them said: "We just want to test the strength of the opponent, nothing else!"

Charlie Wade laughed: "Such a bad reason can be imagined, and it seems there is really something!"

Seeing that his two personal bodyguards were completely controlled by Charlie Wade, Ito became nervous and blurted out: "What do you want to do?! Do you know who I am? If you mess with me, you will never end well in Japan! "

Charlie Wade smiled: "The duck has a hard mouth when you die, you really have your unique national integrity."

After finishing speaking, he looked at the two bodyguards of Ito Takehiko, and said lightly: "You two remember that all your encounters today are due to your master!"

The two of them were asking for mercy, and Charlie Wade suddenly twisted his hands, and their right arms were twisted into twists!

At this moment, the two cried out in pain, and everyone at the scene paled!

What is the identity of Ito Yuhiko?

He is the patriarch of Japan's top family!

The bodyguard next to him is almost the strongest bodyguard in Japan, but what I didn't expect is that the two people added up are not Charlie Wade's opponent!

At this time, Ito Yuhiko was also dumbfounded.

I never dreamed that these two bodyguards with rich practical experience and lots of blood on their hands would be abandoned at the same time so easily.

In Charlie Wade's eyes, these two people are just a little bit stronger than ordinary people, but they are still far from the level of a master. Even the worst among the eight heavenly kings they can't match.

Together, the two can at most be similar to The Butcher Brothers.

How could such a person be Charlie Wade's opponent.

If Yuhiko Ito really finds out the so-called master of ninjutsu in Japan, he might even give Charlie Wade a look.

At this time, Takehiko Ito scolded with a little nervousness: "You are a Chinese, so you dare to go wild in Tokyo! Are you afraid that I will not let you return to China?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "What? Do you still want to leave me in Japan as your son-in-law?"

"Bastard!" Ito Yuihiko exclaimed, "Boy, you are too arrogant!"

Charlie Wade said with a bit of disdain in his eyes: "I have no one in my eyes? I came here today to take over my own company. Instead, you barked at my company. What are you? I didn't beat you out. You are already respecting the old and loving the young!"

Hiroshi Tanaka hurried forward and said respectfully, "Mr. Wade, calm down your anger. This is the head of the Ito family and the chairman of Ito Corporation, Mr. Yuhiko Ito!"

Chapter 1663

"Ito Yuhiko?"

Charlie Wade frowned when he heard this, and asked Koichi Tanaka: "What is his relationship with Nanako?"

Hiroshi Tanaka hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, Mr. Ito, is Miss Nanako's father!"

Charlie Wade suddenly realized.

He actually didn't know much about the Ito family, except for Nanako Ito, he didn't know anyone else.

Hearing that the middle-aged Japanese man with a big back head turned out to be Nanako's father, his expression eased slightly.

Afterwards, he looked at Ito Takehiko, and said lightly: "For the sake of your daughter's face, I won't be familiar with you this time. Since you are not from the Kobayashi family, then you don't need to stay here and take you. People of mine go."

Ito Yuhiko's face was pale with anger!

As the patriarch of the dignified Ito family, when did he receive such contempt?

Moreover, this young man's tone was extremely proud, as if he was just taking care of his daughter's face, so he didn't care about himself. It was too much!

Thinking of this, he gritted his teeth and said: "Boy, why do you say that this is your company? You also said that you are a major shareholder of this company? I tell you that I just signed a contract with the representative chairman of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall. Officially acquired a 30% stake in Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall!"

"Oh?" Charlie Wade said with a smile: "Which representative chairman has this right to sign a contract with you on behalf of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall?"

Masayoshi Kobayashi stood up and said, "I am the acting chairman of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall. All shareholders clearly agreed to Mr. Ito's shareholding in Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall. Why are you an outsider interfering? Besides, you and this company The company has nothing to do. If I don't leave, I will call the police!"

Charlie Wade smiled: "I have nothing to do with this company? Come here, I will introduce you to an old acquaintance."

After that, he clapped his hands and shouted outside the door: "Come on, invite Mr. Kobayashi in!"

Cameron Isaac and Don Albertt immediately took Ichiro Kobayashi and walked into the meeting room.

When Ichiro Kobayashi entered the meeting room, everyone was stunned in shock!

"This...this...isn't this Ichiro?!"

"Isn't he dead?!"

"Yes! Jiro issued a kill order before and ordered his life to avenge the old president!"

There was a lot of discussion.

Ichiro Kobayashi's expression was a bit ugly at this time, and he said coldly: "I tell you, you are all deceived by that bastard Jiro! Father was not poisoned to death by me, but he was poisoned to death by Jiro and then blamed on me! In order to monopolize Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, he also spent a lot of money and wants my life!"

"Impossible!" Kobayashi Zhengyi said coldly: "I know exactly how the president died! You said that you got a magic medicine from China that would make the president stand up again, and the president Excited, I took Jiro and me to the airport to wait. After the medicine was delivered, the president died suddenly after taking the medicine. Do you dare to deny it?!"

Ichiro Kobayashi gritted his teeth and said: "I did get the magic drug at the beginning, but Jiro arranged for the magic drug to be dropped! You don't even think about it, why should I kill your father?"

Chapter 1664

Kobayashi Masayoshi angrily said: "You naturally want to monopolize Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, so that's why you killed the president!"

Ichiro Kobayashi scolded angrily: "Justice Kobayashi, your dog's brain is broken. You keep saying that I killed my father to save Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, but you keep your dog's eyes open to see clearly, I am exclusive. Did Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall? After his father died, who became the new president of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall?!"

Everyone stared at each other when he said this.

Ichiro Kobayashi was right.

After the death of the old chairman, Masao Kobayashi, it was Ichiro Kobayashi's younger brother, Jiro Kobayashi, who succeeded the chairman. Moreover, Jiro Kobayashi also spent a lot of money to get the head of Ichiro Kobayashi.

If this incident was really planned by Ichiro Kobayashi, is he too stupid? Not only did he not get any benefits, he even gave others a wedding gown, and even worse, after others put on the wedding gown, they wanted his life in turn...

Thinking of this, everyone suddenly realized that what happened back then might have something else hidden.

At this time, Kobayashi Masayoshi's mood is very complicated.

First of all, I managed to get rid of Kobayashi Masao and Ichiro Kobayashi, and then I missed Jiro Kobayashi and took the position of acting chairman of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall Co., Ltd.

But in a blink of an eye, Ichiro Kobayashi came back unscathed!

Isn't this fcking fcking?

The good life of co-working yourself is just beginning to end? !

He was full of resentment, and said angrily: "Ichiro, you have left Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall for a long time. The current Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall has been fully exercised by the shareholders meeting, and you have not eliminated the murder of your biological father. We will not allow you to Re-in charge of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall!"

Ichiro Kobayashi was also furious, and he sternly reprimanded: "Justice Kobayashi, you are my elder. I wanted to give you a little respect. I didn't expect you to be so ignorant of good or bad! Master is the real heir of the Kobayashi family, and the entire Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall It was founded by my dad. You just follow part-time jobs and get a high salary. Why do you interfere with our family's property? What the hell are you? Believe it or not, I will let you get out of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall now?!"

"You...you...you..." Kobayashi Zhengyi was scolded bloody, and trembling with anger, cursed: "You murderer of the father Scum, Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall will never fall into your hands!"

During this period of time, Ichiro Kobayashi worked hard at Don Albertt's kennel, and he was suffocated. He finally returned to Japan and returned to his own company. He didn't expect that Kobayashi would dare to yell at himself. He immediately became angry and went up. Give Kobayashi Masayoshi a slap in the face!

After working in the kennel for so long, Ichiro Kobayashi's physical fitness has improved a lot. In addition, he is a mature man, and Kobayashi Masayoshi has been slapped with a slap.

All the members of the Kobayashi family present were horrified. Ichiro Kobayashi pointed to the bewildered Kobayashi Masayoshi and cursed: "Dog stuff, I will let you know today!"

After all, he looked at Charlie Wade and bowed respectfully: "Mr. Wade, please publish the video of Jiro's confession to let them know the truth!"

Charlie Wade nodded and winked at Don Albertt. Don Albertt immediately took out his phone and played the video of Jiro Kobayashi's confession to everyone.

In the video, Jiro Kobayashi confessed in tears that his biological father, Masao Kobayashi, was killed by him, and he also admitted that he had spent a lot of money to hire someone to chase and kill his elder brother in an attempt to eliminate the trouble.

This completely subverted everyone's understanding of the whole thing. Kobayashi Masayoshi was also panicked. He now realized that Jiro Kobayashi might have been killed by Ichiro Kobayashi, and now this guy is going back to seize power!

Chapter 1665

At this time, Kobayashi Zhengyi was 10,000 unconvinced.

It was so hard for me to get to an acting president, just about to take charge of the entire Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, I didn't expect to wake up so soon!

So, he gritted his teeth and said: "Ichiro Kobayashi! Did you poison the old president? You haven't completely cleared the suspicion of this matter! Even if Jiro recorded this video, it cannot prove that the murderer must be. He! Who knows if you kidnapped Jiro and forced him to record this video?"

Having said that, he immediately looked at everyone and fanned the flames and said: "Everyone is right?"

Everyone nodded.

Kobayashi found out that he had a mass foundation, so he immediately continued to aggressively say: "This matter must be handed over to the police for investigation. When did the police say that Ichiro Kobayashi is no longer suspicious, and when will we hand over the rights of the shareholders meeting? Here you are, before that, you must not interfere with Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall in anything!"

As soon as Ichiro Kobayashi heard this, he ran at him!

He kicked Masayoshi Kobayashi's abdomen, and yelled, "Masayoshi Kobayashi, you f*cking tell yourself, are you shameless? According to Japanese law, I am the eldest son of the family and I should inherit the family business, and now I My brother has also disappeared. I am the only legal heir to my father. The company he founded is naturally inherited by me. You are a migrant worker who works in the company. Why are you shouting at me here?"

Thinking of the torture he suffered during this period of time, Ichiro Kobayashi was full of evil fire, and now Kobayashi Masayoshi still wants to prevent him from taking over Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, this kind of man-armed car behavior makes him very angry!

So, he rushed up angrily to punch and kick at Kobayashi Zhengyi, and yelled: "Don't look, what the hell are you? Have you ever seen a group of servants occupying the house and not letting the owner's son live? Did you come in? How the hell dared to stop me back to Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall? I tell you, you are now officially fired by Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, immediately get out of here!"

Kobayashi Masayoshi was beaten in various ways and grinned in pain. Although his heart was extremely angry, he was really frightened by Ichiro Kobayashi.

Ichiro Kobayashi's words sounded rude, but what he said was reasonable and legal.

He was originally the first heir of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall. Even if he was suspected of murdering his biological father and the police convicted him and arrested him in prison, it would not be possible to deprive him of the right to inherit the estate.

What Kobayashi Masayoshi said sounds like awe-inspiring justice, but in fact it is a manifestation of not knowing the law at all.

Seeing that Kobayashi Zhengyi was beaten up, Charlie Wade said: "Okay, continue the fight. If something happens to him, then you might really go to jail."

Ichiro Kobayashi stopped then and said respectfully to Charlie Wade: "I'm sorry, Mr. Wade, I made you upset."

Charlie Wade nodded slightly and said, "You all listen to me. As the legal heir of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, he has signed an equity transfer agreement with me. From now on, 90% of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's shares are owned by me. The remaining 10% goes to Ichiro Kobayashi, so now I am the absolute majority shareholder of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall."

After that, Charlie Wade waved to Paul: "Come on, Lawyer Paul, take out the copy of the contract and pass it on to them!"

Everyone at the scene was shocked upon hearing this.

Chapter 1666

Among them, Ito Yuhiko was the most unacceptable. He angrily protested: "The surname is Wade, you don't talk about it here! I just signed a contract with Kobayashi Masayoshi, and used 4.5 billion US dollars in cash to buy 30% of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's shares. ! I alone have 30%, so how can you get 90%? Isn't this a daydream?"

Charlie Wade sneered and asked him: "Mr. Ito, right? I ask you, what position is Kobayashi Masayoshi in this company? What right does he have to sign such an agreement with you?"

Ito Yuihiko said coldly: "He is the acting president of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall! Since he is the acting president, he naturally has the right to sign a financing agreement!"

Charlie Wade said contemptuously: "Should be nonsense here, who did his generation of president seal it? Did he seal it himself? There is something for him? The entire shares of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall are owned by Kobayashi Masao. Kobayashi Masao is dead. Ichiro Kobayashi and Jiro Kobayashi's, and Jiro Kobayashi's whereabouts are unknown now, so it's all Ichiro Kobayashi's. Why would Masayoshi Kobayashi make a decision for Ichiro Kobayashi and sell you 30% of the shares?"

Takehiko Ito angrily picked up the contract signed just now, and angrily scolded: "You can read it clearly. This contract is clearly written in black and white. I, the Ito family, own 30% of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall! And I have already paid for it!"

"Oh, I'm sorry." Charlie Wade said blankly: "The person who signed this contract with you is not qualified to sign this contract at all, so this contract is invalid. You move you yourself Think about it, if I sign an agreement for you and sell you the entire Japanese island, will the entire Japanese island be yours?"

After speaking, Charlie Wade took a copy of the equity transfer from Paul and threw it in front of Ito Yuhiko, saying: "Come, see what is written on this, Ichiro Kobayashi has voluntarily incorporated 90% of the shares into my own Oracle Pharmaceutical Company, in black and white!"

"And you have to figure out one thing, Ichiro Kobayashi is the legal heir of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, so this agreement in my hand is truly and legally valid!"

"As for your share, I'm sorry, but it's just a pile of waste paper! Even if you ask your Japanese lawyers and judges, I believe they will not admit that your pile of waste paper has any practical meaning!"

"You...you are a hooligan!" Ito Yuhiko also collapsed.

I have been strong for a lifetime, and I have never shown weakness in front of the Yakuza group, but I did not expect that I would meet a shameless person like Charlie Wade here today!

However, he also knows that his two personal bodyguards are now useless, and he is not Charlie Wade's opponent at all. He can't face him head-on, so he can only temporarily avoid his edge, then find a chance to take revenge, and think of other ways to get it. To the shares of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall.

So, he protested indignantly: "Well, since you said Ichiro Kobayashi is the legal heir, then we step back and say, anyway, I have paid 4.5 billion US dollars. If you say that the contract is invalid, then you Just return the 4.5 billion U.S. dollars to me immediately!"

Charlie Wade asked in surprise: "Mr. Ito, what did you say? I didn't hear clearly just now."

Ito Yuihiko said angrily: "I said you must immediately return to me the 4.5 billion U.S. dollars in Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's account!"

"Refund?" Charlie Wade snorted and said contemptuously: "I'm sorry, Mr. Ito, you may not know someone about me, Charlie Wade Wade, I have always had an iron rule when walking around the rivers and lakes. I don't know if you hear me. heard about it."

Yuhiko Ito gritted his teeth and asked, "What is the iron rule?!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "The iron rule is, never refund!"

Chapter 1667

"Never refund?!"

When Yuhiko Ito heard this, his shiny big back was almost exploded. He covered his chest and pointed at Charlie Wade and scolded: "The surname Wade, you keep saying that you have to follow the law, is that how you follow? I reached the account of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall for $4.5 billion, you either give me shares , If you don't give me shares, refund me. Do you still want to rely on my money and not give it to me? Charlie Wade nodded, and said blankly, "Yes! I just want to rely on your money. When the money goes into my pocket, it's up to me. If you ask me to take it out and give it back to you, I have to pay. Come out and pay you back? Charlie Wade, I don't want face?"

"you you....."

Ito Yuhiko felt a sharp pain in his heart.

He really has never seen such a brazen person in his life.

So, he gritted his teeth and scolded: "I still don't believe it, do you think you can swallow a huge sum of 4.5 billion dollars?"

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "Didn't I already swallow this? And you took the initiative to feed me."

Ito Yuhiko almost vomited blood.

Charlie Wade said to Cameron Isaac at this time: "Isaac, invite Mr. Ito out."

Cameron Isaac nodded, and immediately brought a few of his men to Takehiko Ito's, and said lightly: "Mr. Ito, you should ask yourself, don't force me to move, otherwise you will lie down for a while. Can't get up for five months."

"You...you dare to threaten me?!"

Cameron Isaac smiled and said, "I'm okay. I just threatened you. Master Wade has always had a bad temper. If you don't get out, he might beat you."

Yuhiko Ito gritted his teeth tightly, his heart was angry, but he didn't dare to resist here, he could only hold back his anger, and said coldly: "Okay! Very good! The surname is Wade, I want to see who has this ability. , Can take my 4.5 billion U.S. dollars! I will never finish this with you!"

After all, Ito Yuhiko left the meeting room with a black face after holding his hands.

Charlie Wade looked at his back and smiled faintly.

He had heard that Ito Yuhiko has always wanted to invest in Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, so he wanted to marry his daughter Nanako Ito to Jiro Kobayashi.

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade felt a little unhappy in his heart. Nanako Ito is so beautiful and tender as water, she is definitely a standard Yamato Nadeshiko. Marry her to Jiro Kobayashi? Ito Yuhiko was afraid that he was blind.

In his opinion, Ito Xihiko and his mother-in-law, Elaine Ma, are not much different. They are people who would rather sacrifice their daughter's happiness and seek benefits for themselves.

Therefore, he naturally didn't have a good impression of Ito Yuihiko. This 4.5 billion US dollar thing, it is not bad to give him a bitter taste.

Koichi Tanaka came to Charlie Wade at this time and said respectfully:

"Mr. Wade, I'm really sorry about this incident. I didn't expect that you are now a major shareholder of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall. If there is anything improper today, please forgive me."

As a person who has seen Charlie Wade's strength, Tanaka has full awe of Charlie Wade.

Abandoned Yamamoto Kazuki with a palm, and with his hands, Ito Yuhiko's bodyguards lost their combat effectiveness. Such a person was incredibly powerful in Tanaka's eyes.

Therefore, even if it is now in Japan and even if the Ito family has full influence in Japan, Koichi Tanaka still feels that the Ito family had better not provoke Charlie Wade, otherwise, no one knows what will happen to the entire Ito family. .

Chapter 1668

Seeing that Tanaka Koichi was quite on the road, Charlie Wade's expression was slightly relieved, and he said: "Tanaka, leave me a contact information, I may have something to find you in the future." Koichi Tanaka immediately took out a business card and handed it to Charlie Wade respectfully: "Mr. Wade, this is my business card. Please accept it."

Charlie Wade nodded, took the business card from him, and put it in his pocket.

Tanaka bowed slightly to Charlie Wade and said, "Mr. Wade, then I will leave first."

After that, he left the meeting room.

Ito Yuhiko's two personal bodyguards can only flee hurriedly, clutching the broken arm like the broken arm hero.

There was a dead silence in the meeting room.

Everyone looked at Charlie Wade and Ichiro Kobayashi with anxiety, and didn't know what fate was waiting for them next.

Ichiro Kobayashi cleared his throat at this time and said, "I tell you, as the legal heir of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, I have 100% decision-making power over Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, and the equity transfer agreement I signed also has 100% legal effect. , So now Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall is already a subsidiary of Oracle Pharmaceutical, if you still want to make money here to support your family!"

At this time, some people questioned: "Before the old president gave us 30% of the shares of the family executives, now you give 90% of the shares to others, how to protect our interests?!"

Ichiro Kobayashi said coldly: "In the future, you can get 3% of the income from my 10% shares. I can assure you of this!"

"Thirty percent, becomes three percent?!"

Someone questioned indignantly: "How can we support our family after shrinking so much?!"

"Yes! Isn't this killing us?!"

"Yes! We will starve to death sooner or later if this continues!"

Ichiro Kobayashi did not expect that after playing Kobayashi Masayoshi, there were so many people against him.

In the bottom of his heart, he could not help but secretly said: "This matter is really tricky. I sacrificed 90% to Charlie Wade. I was forced to use this 90% of the shares in exchange for freedom. Otherwise, I don't know that I will be placed under house arrest in that kennel. When will it happen, but these people will certainly not be willing to sacrifice 90% of their own interests..."

Charlie Wade said in a cold voice at this time: "If you can't accept Kobayashi's proposal, then go to the human resources department to go through the resignation procedures immediately."

"Let us resign?" Someone sneered: "The entire R&D, production, promotion, and sales of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals are all done by us. If we leave, Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals will immediately be paralyzed! All of the many production bases in the country You will all be in chaos, then you will just wait for bankruptcy!"

Charlie Wade smiled and asked him, "This friend, what are you responsible for at Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall?"

The man said proudly: "I am in charge of R&D! I am the head of the R&D department! Kobayashi's Niranex was developed by me and Mr. Jiro Kobayashi! Without me, the entire R&D of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall will be suspended!"

Someone echoed: "Yes! If Kobayashi Makawa leaves Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, then the entire Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall will completely lose its ability to innovate!"

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled and said, "Oh, that's great. I was thinking on the way here. After merging Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, I must make drastic reforms to Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall. The first department to be cut down is R&D department! Because the R&D department of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals is worthless in my eyes, it is rubbish!"

Kobayashi Makawa angrily shouted: "I am a postdoctoral fellow majoring in biopharmaceuticals at the University of Tokyo and one of the top pharmaceutical experts in Japan. The department I lead is the strongest among Japanese pharmaceutical companies. You dare to say that I am rubbish. ?!"

Charlie Wade said disdainfully: "As for the Niranex you developed, at least 80% of the prescriptions are stolen from ancient Chinese prescriptions, and the remaining 20% is a little improvement of your own. Obviously it is plagiarism, and it is said that it is self-developed, and calling you garbage is an insult to the word garbage!"

Chapter 1669

Objectively speaking, as a developed country, Japan has indeed made high achievements and achievements in many fields.

However, in terms of their medicine, in addition to Western medicine, almost all of the remaining line is copied from Chinese medicine.

Among them, Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, Ota Pharmaceutical, and Dapeng Pharmaceutical are models. They not only search for prescriptions from Chinese medicine classics, but they even touch porcelain Chinese medicine everywhere.

For example, Dapeng Pharmaceutical once launched a so-called Chinese medicine slimming granule, and the name they gave to this granule is actually the ancient Chinese genius doctor, Bianque.

This shows that Japanese pharmaceutical companies have no real accomplishments in Kampo medicines, and they almost rely solely on plagiarism.

This is also the fundamental reason why Charlie Wade dismissed their R&D department.

I have so many magical prescriptions on the Apocalyptic Books, how can I use the R&D department of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall?

After Kobayashi Zhenchuan was ridiculed by Charlie Wade, his cheeks were hot.

Kobayashi Makawa knew exactly what happened to Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall. Indeed, as Charlie Wade said, all the prescriptions of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall are basically derived from ancient Chinese medical books.

So he felt blushing at this moment, but he didn't know how to refute Charlie Wade's words.

Charlie Wade looked at Kobayashi Makawa, and said coldly: "R&D personnel like you who can only plagiarize are of no value to me, so I announce that from now on, the R&D department of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals will be dissolved on the spot. Expelled, not leaving one!"

"what?!"

The people at Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall were almost speechless in shock. Is this Charlie Wade too ruthless?

We must know that there are more than 100 people in the R&D department of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall. Behind these more than 100 people, there are more than 100 families.

Japan's social environment is that only one person in the family goes out to work, and most of the husbands go out to work, and the wife raises the family and the children at home.

This situation has led to extremely high requirements for job stability in Japanese families.

Generally speaking, most Japanese can work for a job for decades until retirement.

So for the Japanese, the most feared thing is unemployment.

Kobayashi Makawa was also shocked.

Although his previous income has not been low, his pressure is not small at all.

Tokyo's housing prices were originally the highest in Asia. In the past few years, when Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals was booming, he bought a large apartment in the urban area and repaid bank loans every month, which was more than 200,000 Dollar.

In addition, he has two sons and a newly born daughter.

Plus his wife, a family of five, all depend on his income alone.

Originally, his income from Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall was very high, almost 700,000 Dollar a month, so his previous life was very comfortable, his wife and children also lived in the upper class life, daily consumption is also very luxurious .

However, if he suddenly loses his job now, his family will immediately fall into a huge financial deficit, with a gap of at least 500,000 per month. If they cannot find a job with more than 500,000, the family will soon Will be overwhelmed.

Chapter 1670

The nervous Kobayashi Zhenchuan hurriedly cried and pleaded: "Mr. Wade, I am a high-end talent in the field of biological preparations. If you fire me, it must be a huge loss for you. I beg you, Please keep me here. I will definitely work hard for you!"

Charlie Wade said blankly, "I know you are begging me now? I'm sorry it's too late. You must go through the resignation procedures within today. Otherwise, the company will directly end the labor relationship with you."

After that, Charlie Wade looked at Cameron Isaac: "Kick him out."

Cameron Isaac nodded, and immediately stepped forward, grabbing Kobayashi Zhenchuan by the collar like a chicken, and dragging him out.

At this moment, the others in the conference room finally realized the urgency of the situation.

Charlie Wade has already obtained the equity transfer of Ichiro Kobayashi, and he is now the new boss of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, so he holds the power of life and death for everyone present at the scene.

If you anger him, you will really be kicked out of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall!

As a result, everyone immediately stood on the spot like a quail, afraid to move, let alone speak.

Charlie Wade said at this time: "To tell you the truth, I only need to keep the production links for the entire Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals, and all other links such as research and development, promotion, and sales can be eliminated!"

When this was outstanding, everyone was even scared to say it.

Charlie Wade continued: "The medicinal effect of Nova Dias relies on word-of-mouth communication. The real word-of-mouth medicinal effect is more effective than any kind of advertisement, so there is no need to leave a special promotion department;"

"The same is true for the sales department. Nova Dias is now in short supply, and dealers take the initiative to come to ask for goods, so there is no need for a special mis-sale department to be responsible for sales in various regions."

"Therefore, Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's promotion and sales departments are all dissolved on the spot, and all employees and leaders are not left!"

The scene was in an uproar!

There are only a few major departments in total. As a result, all the other departments except the production department have to be killed now. Thousands of people will be unemployed!

Three-quarters of these Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall executives at the scene will also lose their jobs!

Moreover, the current global economic situation is not so good. The middle-aged crisis is very serious. There are many middle-aged people across the world who have suffered layoffs and eventually jumped to commit suicide. This shows how stressful middle-aged people are now. . Most of the senior executives of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall at the scene were between 35 and 55 years old. They belonged to a typical middle-aged group and suddenly lost their jobs. To them, it was like the sky had fallen!

The whole scene suddenly crumbled.

Most Japanese, like Americans, have typical hedonism in their consumption philosophy. They don't like to save money but spend it as soon as they earn it. They are very keen on buying luxury houses, luxury cars, holiday villas and even yachts. .

And their wives, not only do not usually make money, but also spend a lot of money, which intensifies the daily expenses of the family.

Studies have shown that Japanese women have a high demand for luxury per capita. For brand-name bags such as Chanel, Louis Vuitton or Gucci, 90% Japanese women will have at least one, not to mention other luxury.

Such a family, of course, is very smart when there is no accident, but once the family's income collapses, it will immediately be on the verge of bankruptcy.

Many wealthy middle class immediately became negative equity holders after the economic crisis. They not only went bankrupt, but even became homeless. The reason is that they spend a lot of money but do not save money at all, resulting in poor risk resistance. .

This is also the case with most of these Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall executives.

So Charlie Wade's announcement that they are unemployed is almost equivalent to announcing that their family finances are bankrupt. Charlie Wade has no sympathy for these wailing middle-aged people. Kobayashi will be his own company in the future and will never raise idle or worthless Japanese employees. Therefore, these people must be expelled, and expelled as soon as possible!

Chapter 1671

At this moment, Ito Yuhiko was sitting in his car and cursing. Hiroshi Tanaka covered his face, and said with some nervousness and aggrievedness: "My Mr. Ito, Mr. Wade is extremely powerful and acts extremely casually. At first, Yamamoto Kazuki only said the words sick man of East Asia in front of him, and he was beaten up. If you really intend to kill him, he still doesn't know what kind of lethality will erupt, so even if you hit me, I will remind you from the bottom of my heart, don't talk to this man Right"

Ito Yuhiko's expression was extremely ugly.

He knows Koichi Tanaka.

This kid is loyal to himself, even if he asks him to perform a caesarean on the spot, I am afraid he will not hesitate.

Therefore, what Koichi Tanaka said must be from the heart.

Thinking of this, Ito Yuhiko couldn't help but wondered: "Could it be that that kid is so powerful? Even so powerful that Hiroshi Tanaka felt for a while that the patriarch of my dignified Ito family couldn't even offend him?"

Yuhiko Ito frowned and asked Koichi Tanaka: "Then you tell me, what should I do now? Can't you really just give him the 4.5 billion dollars for nothing?"

"It must be impossible." Tanaka Koichi said, "Chairman, the 4.5 billion US dollars we only paid Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall were remitted through Ito Corporation's public account. The bank has clear remittance records. Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall did not pay the corresponding shares for the 4.5 billion U.S. dollars. We can sue the court to demand that Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall must return all the 4.5 billion U.S. dollars. We will definitely win this kind of lawsuit."

"Fighting a lawsuit?" Ito Yuhiko's expression was very gloomy: "You let me Ito Yuhiko to fight with him? Go to the court and cry that this kid didn't pay me the money?!"

Koichi Tanaka said seriously: "Mr. Ito, this is the safest way and the way with the highest success rate."

"impossible!"

Yuhiko Ito said with a cold face and angrily said: "If the outside world knew that a young Chinese man would dare to take me 4.5 billion U.S. dollars and not return me, and I could not get him to return the money. Go to the court for help, where do I put my face? Where do I put the face of the entire Ito family? With this precedent, then other people can't ride on my neck and shit?!"

Because the underground world is legal under the Japanese government, many Japanese families and consortia will get involved in the underground industry and even cultivate their own underground forces.

Chapter 1672

The Ito family is not only Japan's top family, but also the top power of Japan's underground world.

There are three strongest underground organizations in Japan. The Yakuza ranks first, and the Ito family ranks second.

The underground world is a world where the weak eat the strong, and the most important thing to survive in this world is to stay strong.

For people in the underground world, sometimes it is not that they are cruel, but the law of survival forces them to be cruel.

If you have been implementing the principle of whoever beats you, you will dare to fight hard, and over time, no one will dare to provoke you. But if you don't go back after being beaten once, but swallow your anger and admit that you are unlucky, then from this day onwards, everyone in this world can come to bully you.

Moreover, there is another very important criterion for surviving in this world, that is, no external force can be used to solve problems.

If a person in the Japanese underground world asks the police and the court for help, that person will immediately be disgusted and rejected by the entire underground world.

Therefore, what Ito said, he couldn't get back the 4.5 billion U.S. dollars through legal means. He had to let Charlie Wade honestly and intact, and return the money to the Ito family's account.

Therefore, he gritted his teeth and said: "There are only two solutions to this matter. The first one is to let the surname Wade, and honestly return the money to me, and this matter must not be disturbed. Everyone knows it; the second one is to kill him directly!"

Hiroshi Tanaka said with some anxiety: "I will grow up, I am worried that Mr. Wade will not agree to your request."

Ito Hirohiko snorted coldly: "No? If you don't agree, choose the second plan and kill him!"

Although Koichi Tanaka didn't know how powerful Charlie Wade really was, he always felt that Charlie Wade was extraordinary.

And Charlie Wade is not only strong, but also the key means seems to be very powerful. Otherwise, how could Ichiro Kobayashi give him all the shares of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall?

Therefore, he felt that I should try to avoid the conflict with Charlie Wade as much as possible, otherwise, he might cause a big trouble.

So, he hurriedly changed the topic and said, "Mr. Ito, I don't think you should worry about Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's 4.5 billion US dollars now. The money will definitely not run away. It's just a matter of coming back early or late. Don't forget, the Chinese Eastcliff Banks Familyy will be coming soon!"

Ito Yuihiko frowned and asked: "Did the Banks Familyy say that the specific day has come?"

"No." Tanaka Hiroshi said: "They said they would come at any time. After all, the trip is a private jet, you can fly anytime you want."

After speaking, Tanaka persuaded: "My Mr. Ito, the Banks Familyy is not only watching this opportunity, but also the Takahashi family. I heard that the Banks Familyy came here this time. Choose one of the Takahashi family to be a partner. At this time, you must not make any extravagance!"

Yuhiko Ito gritted his teeth and nodded, and said: "In this case, I will bear the wave of the kid surnamed Wade, and you will keep an eye on him. If he does not leave Japan for the time being, then I will leave him alone. Take down the Banks Familyy cooperation first!"

Chapter 1673

Thinking of the Banks Familyy's cooperation, Ito's expression looked a little melancholy.

Sitting in the car, he sighed and said with emotion: "Koichi, in the past ten years, the speed of our Japanese economy has been relatively slow, so the strength of several top families, including our Ito family, has shrunk somewhat. And the successor is weak..."

Hiroshi Tanaka hurriedly asked: "My Mr. Ito, Japan once led the world in its development speed in the decades after the war, why hasn't it kept up with it in the past decade?"

Ito said with regret: "There are many reasons for this lag in economic development, firstly because Japan's local resources and land have been very scarce; secondly, because Japan has not made major innovations in the Internet and high-tech fields in recent years."

With that, Ito Yuhiko continued with emotion: "You see, many Japanese companies that had advantages in various fields more than ten years ago have gradually lost their original advantages in these years;"

"Look at the previous companies such as Sony, Panasonic, Hitachi and Toshiba. They are all in the world. I think that Sony's color TVs were the best in the world and sold all over the world. Sony Ericsson's mobile phones are also World-renowned, Panasonic and Hitachi's home appliances, and Toshiba's semiconductors are all top-class in the world, but what about now? All are gradually declining!"

"Most of the TVs in the world are produced in China, which are cheap, affordable and cost-effective; the world's mobile phones are divided into two parts, the United States' Apple occupies a large part, and the remaining large part is China's Huawei, LG and OnePlus. What about Japanese mobile phones? Even South Korea's Samsung is absent, and it's already decadent!"

Koichi Tanaka couldn't help but feel frustrated: "Mr. Ito, you are right. We in Japan have indeed completely lost many traditional advantages, especially in electronic products..."

Ito sighed: "More than electronic products? In addition, Japan's steel industry was once the world's top, our special steel, even the Americans have to look up, but because Kobe Steel was exposed to a long-term fraud scandal. , And plummeted!"

"Originally, Japan's Shinkansen technology was the world's best. High-speed rail technology was invented by us. The strength is unique in the world. But who would have thought that China's high-speed rail would come to the top, so that our Japanese high-speed rail technology and the high-speed rail technology of Germany and France all Decreased into the second-rate in the world, Japan's Shinkansen has also lost a lot of overseas markets..."

Koichi Tanaka also kept sighing: "We, the Ito family, hold different proportions of shares in the companies you mentioned. They are lonely, and our assets are shrinking. This is indeed a very serious problem... ." Yuhiko Ito hates that iron cannot be made into steel and said: "Not only that, but the most important thing is that our young people in Japan are seriously lacking in creativity as a whole!"

"Look at China in the past few years. A large number of world-class Internet companies have been born, such as Tencent, Alibaba, Toutiao, JD.com and Pinduoduo, as well as DJI drones that account for more than 70% of the world's drone market. In contrast, Japan has never had an influential Internet company in recent years! If we continue to develop like this, we will lose all our advantages!"

Hiroshi Tanaka nodded: "In contrast, the top families in China, with the continuous development and progress of all walks of life in China, their wealth and influence are also increasing. They now have the ability to directly challenge Europe and the United States. I don't put Japanese companies in my eyes at all."

"That's it." Ito said melancholy: "Before, they were still chasing us. As a result, in the blink of an eye, they surpassed us and chased the United States, but we were left behind by them. In the back of our heads, so that we now want to make a breakthrough in business, we have to turn back to please the Chinese family. It really responds to the old Chinese saying, 30 years in Hedong and 30 years in Hexi... ."

Speaking of this, Ito Takehiko seriously said: "Because we have been stagnating and China has been developing rapidly, we now need to be firmly tied to China's top families. This time the Banks Family's cooperation is right. For us, the significance is very important and should not be lost."

Hiroshi Tanaka nodded in a hurry and blurted out: "Mr. Ito, please rest assured, I will definitely go all out!"

The Japanese economy has been sluggish in recent years.

Chapter 1674

As Japan's top family, the Ito family is constantly being weakened. Also confused with them, there is another big family in Japan, the Takahashi family.

Both companies are now actively seeking breakthrough points, so they all pin their hopes on top Chinese families.

As the top family in China, the influence of the Banks Family has been continuously increasing in recent years, and with the rapid development of the Chinese economy, the strength of the Banks Family has also been soaring.

The focus of the Banks Family in the past few years has been on maintaining and consolidating the domestic market. After consolidating its position as the first family in China, it has only begun to turn its attention overseas in the past two years.

Therefore, in recent years, many Japanese families are eager to develop in-depth cooperation with the Banks Family.

Over the past ten years, China's import and export trade has continued to grow, shipping demand has increased, and port construction and development have been extremely fast. Now, China accounts for seven of the world's top ten ports in terms of throughput.

Today's global trade relies very heavily on shipping. The vast majority of oil, ore and various goods rely on ocean transportation.

For example, the oil in the entire East Asia and Southeast Asia is almost transported from the Middle East to ports by giant tankers;

The entire East Asia and Southeast Asia's iron ore also depends on a large number of giant freighters, transported from Australia and Brazil.

The Banks Family has been in port business for many years and has its own industries and shares in major domestic ports. It is now preparing to build Asia's largest shipping company and build Asia's largest shipping fleet, which can just match their domestic ports for resources

Complementary.

In order to build the largest shipping fleet in Asia, the Banks Family not only invested heavily on their own, but also prepared in-depth cooperation with consortiums in Japan and South Korea, giving them a certain share and letting them participate in depth.

The reason for winning the consortium of Japan and South Korea is mainly because Japan and South Korea are both developed countries, and the demand for shipping is also very large. In addition, South Korea's Busan Port, Japan's Tokyo Port, and Yokohama Port are all established large ports in Asia.

If the Banks Familyy can also hold the resources of these ports, by that time, the shipping company headed by the Banks Familyy can control the lifeline of the entire East Asia to a certain extent, and the future profit space will be huge.

The Japanese and South Korean consortiums are extremely excited about this news. They all hope to reach a cooperation with the Banks Familyy and then get on the boat of the Banks Familyy.

In Japan alone, there are at least a dozen families and consortia that hope to cooperate with the Banks Familyy.

Among them, the strongest ones are the Ito family and the Takahashi family!

Chapter 1675

In the afternoon, Charlie Wade expelled nearly half of the entire staff of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals in a desperate manner.

Originally, those people from Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall were still thinking of using a strike to fight against Charlie Wade, but he didn't expect that Charlie Wade was not at all soft to them, and they all fired them, leaving none.

This incident caused a huge earthquake in the Japanese business community!

First of all, no one thought that Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, which is an excellently developed company, would change ownership. Now 90% of the shares have been transferred to a Chinese and become a Chinese company. Secondly, no one thought that after Kobayashi became a Chinese company, it would kill half of its employees in one go!

In Japan, apart from bankruptcies, very few companies will suddenly expel so many people.

Especially for manufacturing companies like Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall with nearly 10,000 employees.

If half of them are fired at once, four or five thousand people will be fired!

Moreover, except for the employees in the production positions, the R&D, promotion and sales positions were all laid off. This operation method makes everyone feel incredible.

In their view, this method of layoffs is tantamount to abolishing martial arts.

But Charlie Wade didn't care.

What he needs is not the brand of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, nor the reputation and patents of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall. What he needs is only the production line of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall.

As long as Kobayashi Pharma honestly produces Nova Dias for itself according to its own requirements, that is the greatest value of Kobayashi Pharmacy at this stage.

The rest of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall that has not been expelled are all the people in charge of the production line.

Immediately afterwards, Charlie Wade immediately held a meeting at Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, appointing Liam as the general manager of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall and Ichiro Kobayashi as the deputy general manager.

At the same time, Charlie Wade also very clearly warned the remaining people in charge of the production line: "You people in charge of the production line will listen carefully. If you work for me honestly, listen to me and do things according to my instructions. Then your job can be retained and your income can be guaranteed. What I can promise you is to follow me honestly and I will make your income never lower than before."

As he said, Charlie Wade turned around and shouted sharply: "But! If anyone among you dares to play with me carefully, dare to fight against me, then I am sorry, I will immediately kick you out of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall!"

When the people who stayed heard this, they immediately acted like tamed wild dogs, and honestly didn't dare to say more.

When the group is angry, everyone wants to fight, because they feel that when everyone is tied together, Charlie Wade must not dare to do anything to himself. After all, he certainly does not want Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall to be paralyzed suddenly.

But what everyone didn't expect was that Charlie Wade didn't play cards according to the routine at all. Before everyone was tied together and confronted him, he had already driven out half of the people!

This immediately caused all the people who were evicted and their families into a serious economic crisis.

Therefore, how can the remaining group of people dare to have any thoughts of making troubles, to keep the job and to ensure that the salary is not lower than before, which is to ensure that their family life will not be affected in any way and let them completely relax. Tone. At this time, how can they have the least thought of confrontation? As a result, a group of people quickly surrendered and decided to continue working for Charlie Wade's Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall.

Chapter 1676

Charlie Wade nodded in satisfaction, and said to Ichiro Kobayashi: "From today, you must cooperate with Liam to readjust all production plans of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals, stop all production of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals before, and fully switch to production. Nova Dias, understand?"

Ichiro Kobayashi hurriedly expressed his heartfelt words: "Mr. Wade, don't worry, I will definitely cooperate with Mr. Weaver!"

Liam said to Charlie Wade at this time: "Mr. Wade, Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's production capacity is still very strong. If the production of Nova Dias is fully started, the demand for raw materials for Nova Dias will be huge. We have to do this in advance. Prepare, otherwise, once the production raw materials are insufficient, production capacity will be severely restricted."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "I will solve the raw material matter."

When he said this, Charlie Wade thought of Mr. Quinton, the lord of the Quinton family far away in Aurouss Hilll.

The Quinton family originally started from the medicinal material business.

Moreover, Mr. Quinton was also very trusted by Charlie Wade, so Charlie Wade planned to hand over all the raw materials and medicinal materials business to him.

After that, he immediately took out his cell phone and called Mr. Quinton.

When the phone was connected, Mr. Quinton was eating.

Seeing that it was Charlie Wade's call, he respectfully said, "Master Wade, why do you call me when you are free?"

Charlie Wade smiled and asked, "Mr Quinton, I have something to ask you." Mr. Quinton said respectfully: "Master Wade, please do not hesitate to ask."

Charlie Wade said: "What is the annual supply of medicinal materials in your Quinton family?"

Mr. Quinton thought for a while, and said: "Last year, our Quinton family made more than 200,000 tons of various medicinal materials and supplied them to more than 30 pharmaceutical companies across the country."

Charlie Wade snorted and asked, "Can we supply one million tons a year?"

Mr. Quinton exclaimed: "One million tons?! Master Wade, one million tons is almost equal to the total annual output of botanical medicinal materials in the three eastern provinces. Our total annual output in the country is also more than 5 million tons, the largest medicinal material in the country. The company can produce seven or eight hundred thousand tons a year..."

Charlie Wade asked him: "Then do you have the confidence to supply one million tons a year?"

Mr. Quinton said: "Master Wade, all the medicinal materials are in the hands of pharmaceutical farmers across the country. As long as I buy them, one million tons is not a big problem. The key is that I have no channels to digest so many medicinal materials! In fact, personally, I am eager to sell more medicinal materials, but the key is to find a strong enough next home."

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "To be honest, I have taken over Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals in Japan. In the near future, all the production capacity of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals will serve me, and I am also going to continue to expand the production line. This year, I will consume one million tons of medicinal materials is not a big problem. I can trust you. If you are interested in cooperating with me, then I will give you all the orders for the supply of one million tons of medicinal materials!"

As soon as Mr. Quinton heard this, he was so excited that he got up and got up from the dining chair. He couldn't care about throwing the bowls and chopsticks to the ground, and said excitedly: "Wade...Master Wade...You...what you said is true?!"

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently: "When did Charlie Wade tell you a lie?"

Mr. Quinton was immediately ecstatic, so excited that he couldn't add anything!

He was excited and thought to himself: "If Master Wade can really digest one million tons of medicinal materials from the Quinton family every year, it would be equivalent to five times the business volume of the Quinton family! That way, Isn't the Quinton Family's strength going to soar?! And my dream of revitalizing the Quinton Family can be easily realized?!"

At this moment, he almost regarded Charlie Wade as the reborn parent of the entire Quinton family, and said excitedly: "Master Wade! Since you look down on Quinton so much and are willing to pull a certain Quinton, then Quinton will never give it. You are holding back! Don't worry, no matter how many medicinal materials you want, even if I fight my life, I will definitely get it for you! And I will definitely give you the best quality and the lowest price!"

Chapter 1677

After Mr. Quinton hung up the phone, Aurora next to him hurriedly asked curiously: "Dad, what did Master Wade say when calling you?"

Mr. Quinton, who was still trapped in excitement and couldn't help himself, took about a few seconds to recover, and said excitedly:

"Aurora! We Quinton family, we are going to meet the great opportunity!"

Aurora asked in surprise: "Dad, what great opportunity?"

Mr. Quinton was so excited that even his words were a little trembling, and said, "Master Wade has annexed Japan's Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, saying that we will let the Quinton family supply him with raw materials and medicinal materials. The demand for a year is almost the same. One million tons!"

"Oh my God!" Aurora exclaimed in a dumbfounded voice: "One million tons?! Our family now has a supply of about 200,000 tons a year, right?"

"Yes" Mr. Quinton said excitedly: "Master Wade asked us to supply one million tons a year, and our Quinton family's revenue immediately doubled! Isn't this a great opportunity?"

Aurora nodded repeatedly, and said with gratitude: "Master Wade has really taken good care of our family. He can think of us for everything. He has helped us so much, and I don't know how to repay his kindness."

Mr. Quinton also agreed very much and said: "Master Wade is the second parent of our Quinton family. Whether the Quinton family can rise in the future depends entirely on Master Wade!"

After speaking, he couldn't help but look at Aurora, and sighed: "Aurora, Master Wade is right, our family has such a great kindness, and he will always take care of you like this, you have to hurry up!"

What exactly did Aurora's father mean? Knowing that he wanted to hold on tight, in fact, he wanted to make himself earlier and make substantial progress with Master Wade.

She suddenly said with a little shame: "Dad, many things are not what I want to do. After all, Master Wade has a wife. Although I like him, I still have more than enough energy."

Mr. Quinton nodded, and then said earnestly: "Aurora, otherwise, you will come forward to meet with Master Wade for the supply of medicinal materials to Master Wade. Anyway, you graduated this summer and you should enter the internship period soon. Now, just serve Master Wade's pharmaceutical factory wholeheartedly! This way you will have more opportunities to get along with Master Wade."

Aurora thought for a moment, then nodded immediately: "Good dad!"

Like Nanako Ito, she is already in her senior year this year.

There are basically no classes in the next semester of the senior year.

After the Chinese New Year, I basically enter the internship period.

At that time, almost all senior students will find a work unit to start an internship, and Aurora is no exception.

She studied finance and management at the Arouss Hilll Institute of Finance and Economics, and she was asked to cooperate with Charlie Wade, which happened to be a professional counterpart.

Thinking of this, Aurora couldn't help but look forward to it.

She herself has always been melancholy for not having the opportunity to get along with Charlie Wade often. If there is a work issue with Charlie Wade in the future, it means that she will often have the opportunity to see Charlie Wade.

This made her feel very excited

Tokyo, Japan at this moment.

After Charlie Wade's killing of chickens and monkeys, the only remaining executives of the entire Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall were as honest as sheep.

Ichiro Kobayashi also cooperated with Paul in the local commercial department in Tokyo to complete the transfer and change of the shares of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall.

Chapter 1678

Now, 90% of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's shares are all under the name of Oracle Pharmaceutical.

Because the next production work of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall is of great importance, Charlie Wade cannot leave Tokyo for the time being. He wants to ensure that all production lines of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall are successfully converted to Nova Dias before leaving Japan.

Therefore, the first production line to complete the conversion work is Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's Tokyo production line.

Charlie Wade asked Liam to take inventory of all the medicinal materials of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, count all the medicinal materials that can be used to produce Nova Dias, and then calculate how much other medicinal materials are needed based on the production capacity of the Tokyo production line.

After counting the demand, he immediately sent the list to Mr. Quinton, and asked him to immediately make arrangements to prepare these medicinal materials as soon as possible, and then quickly transport them to Tokyo by air transportation.

At the same time, Liam had to count the medicinal materials needed by several other production lines, and send them to Mr. Quinton one after another, so that Mr. Quinton could prepare, and then send the prepared medicinal materials to other production bases.

After doing all this, Charlie Wade and his party, led by Ichiro Kobayashi, came to the luxurious flat-floor villa of the Kobayashi family in central Tokyo.

Originally, Cameron Isaac had arranged a hotel for Charlie Wade, but because of Ichiro Kobayashi's kind invitation, Charlie Wade decided temporarily to stay at Ichiro Kobayashi's house temporarily.

This flat-storey villa of Ichiro Kobayashi's is the entire top floor of an 80-storey building. The indoor construction area alone is thousands of square meters. It is extremely luxurious. It also has exclusive use of the entire roof terrace and its own helipad. , Sky infinity swimming pool, can be said to be the ultimate luxury.

After nightfall, Charlie Wade took a bath and called his wife Claire Wilson Wilson to report that he was safe. Then he stood alone on the large terrace on the top floor, watching the bustling night view of Tokyo, with thoughts flying.

Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall is a key part of his energy accumulation.

If Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals successfully converts all production to produce Oracle Nova Dias for itself, then Oracle Nova Dias can be marketed worldwide in the shortest time.

Moreover, Charlie Wade had already figured it out clearly that the price of Nova Dias scattered in the domestic market would never be increased, and to give back to the domestic people with the greatest cost-effectiveness, but the price overseas must soar.

The selling price of retail terminals should be at least two to three times higher than 100.

That is about sixty dollars a box.

In this way, the net profit of each box is at least 30 dollars. Since Oracle Nova Dias can greatly relieve and treat many stomach diseases and discomforts, it will definitely become an essential medicine for every family in the future. Therefore, Charlie Wade estimates that Oracle's future income will increase rapidly at a rapid rate. , Maybe it can make tens of billions a year, and it's still US dollars. If you develop a few other categories, it will really make a huge profit. Charlie Wade is not a greedy person. The main reason why he can't wait to make more money is because he hopes to improve his overall strength as soon as possible.

The parents' grievances have not yet been repaid. The many Eastcliff families that formed the Anti-Leaf Alliance led by the Banks Family back then had to pay the price for the death of their parents.

Even the Wade Family bears an unshirkable responsibility in this matter. Charlie Wade knows very well that if he wants to oppose the entire Eastcliff family and make them surrender to him, the first thing is to improve his strength!

If one day, he can return to Eastcliff as the raptor crosses the river, then all Eastcliff's families will tremble in front of him!

Chapter 1679

Kyoto City is hundreds of kilometers away from Tokyo.

The huge mansion with a century-old history of the Ito family is located in the center of Kyoto City.

The Ito family residence is next to Nijo Castle, the residence of Oda Nobunaga, one of the three masters of the Warring States Period in Japan. Although the area is slightly smaller than Nijo Castle, the overall area is larger than the largest single-family villa in Eastcliff. Much more. Around the mansion, there is a moat dug during the war, and it still bears the responsibility of guarding the mansion.

On the city wall, a 360 degree surveillance with no dead ends was installed to ensure that this mansion would not be violated by anyone. And behind the towering city walls are bodyguards with live ammunition. The buildings in the mansion are all typical Japanese-style wooden buildings. Each one has a history of at least a hundred years. There are dozens of ancient trees with a history of 100 years in the courtyard, plus those mottled and countless. The century-old stone sculptures are antique and full of charm.

At this moment, in the large courtyard, a beautiful young woman is sitting alone in a wheelchair, looking up at the hazy sky. This beauty is the eldest lady of the Ito family, Nanako Ito.

She is waiting for the first snow this year in Kyoto.

In the past, the snow in Kyoto would come a little earlier, but this winter is an exception.

Although the winter of this year was cold, it was cold, and every day was extremely cold, but no snow fell.

Earlier today, the Kinki Regional Meteorological Department issued a heavy snow warning, saying that it will be heavy snow in Kyoto tonight, and Nanako Ito loves snowing days, so she waited early in the yard. However, after waiting till late at night, there was still no trace of the heavy snow, the sky was very cloudy, there was no starlight, and even the moon could not be seen clearly.

The housekeeper of Ito Mansion looked at Nanako Ito from a distance for a long time. Seeing that it was late, he walked over and respectfully said,

"Miss, it's late. It seems that the snow will not fall tonight, the weather is too cold, you should go back to your room and rest earlier."

Nanako Ito looked at the hazy moon in the sky and whispered softly:

"Since the weather forecast has said, there is still some hope after all. Watanabe-san should go back to rest first and leave me alone."

The housekeeper sighed slightly, and said distressedly: "Miss, or go back to rest first, I will arrange for the next person to wait here, if it snows, let the next person notify you as soon as possible."

Nanako Ito smiled lightly and said, "I'm here to watch. I just want to see the first snowflake falling from the sky, and I want to feel the first snowflake on my face. If I wait for the snow to fall. If you come out again, you will lose the fun."

The housekeeper hurriedly said: "But now it is cooling down, the temperature is getting lower and lower, and you will catch a cold if you stay outdoors for a long time."

"It doesn't matter." Nanako Ito said with a smile: "I will wait until twelve o'clock, no matter whether it is snowing or not, I will go back to my room to soak in a hot spring. Although Watanabe-san can rest assured, although I am injured, I still have relatively strong physical fitness. The temperature is colder, it will not have any effect on me."

The housekeeper nodded helplessly, and said respectfully: "I'm nearby. Miss, call me whenever you have any needs."

Nanako Ito chuckled softly: "Good Watanabe-san, thank you!"

The butler carefully retreated to the distance, and Nanako Ito continued to look up at the sky.

For some reason, Charlie Wade's appearance suddenly appeared in the cloudy night sky at this moment.

She felt like spring blossoms in her heart, and thought to herself:

"Charlie Wade, don't know if it snows in Aurouss Hill? I wonder if you are looking at the night sky above your head now? I don't know, do you think of me?"

Chapter 1680

Thinking wildly, the phone in her pocket suddenly vibrated.

She took out her mobile phone and found that it was Hiroshi Tanaka who was calling, so she hurriedly put away her thoughts, connected to the phone and smiled: "Tanaka-san, why call me so late?"

Hiroshi Tanaka sighed and said, "Miss, something happened today. The president is very angry. He just smashed a lot of antiques in the house."

Nanako Ito felt nervous, and hurriedly asked, "Tanaka-san, what happened? Is father having any trouble?"

Koichi Tanaka said: "Today, the president took me to Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, intending to sign a share agreement with the board of directors of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall. After the agreement was signed, the president and the financial staff sent 4.5 billion U.S. dollars to the account of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall."

When Nanako Ito heard this, she asked in a puzzled way: "Isn't my father always wanting to invest in Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals? Today this is what I wanted, so why is he angry?"

Hiroshi Tanaka said helplessly: "Before the president, the financial staff made the payment, I didn't know that Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall had actually changed hands."

"Changed ownership?" Nanako Ito asked in surprise, "What's the matter? Didn't it mean that Jiro Kobayashi is missing? Is he back again?"

"No," Koichi Tanaka explained: "It's not Jiro Kobayashi who is back, but Jiro Kobayashi's brother, who is said to have been dead, suddenly came back alive!"

"Huh?" Nanako Ito said with a bit of sorrow: "What's the matter? Why am I getting more and more confused?"

"Hey" Hiroshi Tanaka sighed and said, "This is nothing. The point is that Ichiro Kobayashi, as the sole heir of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals, transferred all the shares of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals 90 to a Chinese company called Oracle Pharmaceutical company."

Nanako Ito was surprised and said: "Isn't my father invested in Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall 30? Then Ichiro Kobayashi only has Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall 70 shares. How can he transfer 90% of the shares to a Chinese company? "

Hiroshi Tanaka said in a stunned voice: "This is the reason why the president is angry! He signed a share agreement with Kobayashi Masayoshi, the acting president of Pharmaceuticals, and paid after the signing, but Ichiro Kobayashi is back, which means The equity agreement signed by Masayoshi Kobayashi is invalid."

Nanako Ito nodded slightly and said, "So, my father's plan to buy a stake in Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall has been lost?"

"It's more than an intention to fail," Tanaka sighed: "The chairman of Oracle Pharmaceutical clearly told the president that Ito Co., Ltd. remitted the 4.5 billion US dollars of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, he will not refund!"

"Ah?!" Nanako Ito exclaimed, "How come there is such a shameless person? The act of holding shares is an equity transaction. When we pay, the other party must pay the corresponding shares. If the other party is unwilling to pay the shares, then it must Returning the money the same way, and even paying liquidated damages, why did the other party not give us shares and deduct our money?! This is too much, right?! Doesn't he know our Japanese laws? "

Koichi Tanaka said very depressed at this time: "Miss, the other party is simply an extrajudicial madman!"

"Extrajudicial fanatic?" Nanako Ito frowned: "With the character of his father, it is impossible to be willing to suffer from this dumb loss, right? Does he have no countermeasures?"

Hiroshi Tanaka sighed: "Of course the president of the president is not willing to suffer from this dumb loss. He originally wanted to fight the other party desperately, but I was persuaded by me. I am afraid that the president can't offend him! Oh, right, speaking of it. You know this person, Missy too"

"I know?" Nanako Ito asked in surprise, "Who is it?"

Koichi Tanaka said: "That's Aurora's coach, Charlie Wade Wade who injured Mr. Yamamoto Kazuki with one palm!"

"What? Charlie Wade?!"

When Nanako Ito heard this, she exclaimed in excitement, and blurted out: "Charlie Wade-kun has come to Japan?!"

Chapter 1681

Hiroshi Tanaka didn't expect that after hearing the news of Charlie Wade's arrival in Japan, the young lady's voice suddenly became extremely excited.

He couldn't help but secretly said, "Isn't what I said just now is not clear enough? This Charlie Wade depends on your father for four and a half billion dollars! Why do you seem to be excited when you hear that he is coming to Japan? ?"

However, Koichi Tanaka naturally did not dare to ask this question. At this time, Nanako Ito saw that he did not respond, and hurriedly asked him: "Tanaka-san, answer me quickly! Charlie Wade really came to Japan?" Koichi Tanaka can only honestly say: "Yes, Miss, he came to Japan, in Tokyo, I saw him today."

Nanako Ito asked, "He came to Japan, did he receive Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall?"

"It should be." Hiroshi Tanaka answered truthfully: "I don't know if the situation is too specific, but it should be to receive Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall."

Nanako Ito felt a little regretful, and thought to himself: "If Charlie Wade-kun came to Japan just to receive Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals, then he should only stay in Tokyo for a few days. After the business is finished, I am afraid he will return to China? He certainly won't. Coming to Kyoto, then I definitely won't have the chance to see him..."

Thinking of this, Nanako Ito suddenly had a very strong idea in her heart, she wanted to go to Tokyo, she wanted to see Charlie Wade!

So she hurriedly asked Koichi Tanaka: "Tanaka-san, do you know Charlie Wade will stay in Tokyo for a few days?"

Hiroshi Tanaka said awkwardly: "Miss, I don't know this too well..."

Nanako Ito hurriedly said, "I'll let Watanabe-san prepare and take the car back to Tokyo tomorrow morning."

"Back to Tokyo?" Tanaka asked, "Miss, didn't you always want to cultivate your body in Kyoto? Why do you suddenly want to come back at this time? Is it...Is it for Mr. Wade?"

"Yes!" Nanako Ito blurted out without thinking, "I want to see Charlie Wade-kun, if I don't go back, I'm afraid there will be no chance!"

Tanaka Hiroshi suddenly realized that something seemed to be wrong. He couldn't help thinking in his heart:

"The eldest lady has always been extremely reserved, and has never been confused because of any opposite sex."

"But now, she is very excited about the news that Charlie Wade came to Tokyo, and even plans to return to Tokyo to see Charlie Wade tomorrow morning. This is really abnormal..."

"Could it be..."

"Could it be that the eldest lady is already swooned by Charlie Wade?!"

When Tanaka Hiroshi thought of this, his whole person was already shocked. He secretly said: "The eldest lady has always admired superior martial arts masters, and Charlie Wade is also a master of masters. His strength is so staggering that the eldest lady is really tempted by him. , It makes sense..."

"But... the president is a complete nationalist. He has made it clear that he will marry a young lady in the future and must not marry a man from any country except Japan. If the lady really likes it Charlie Wade, if he is known by the president, he will definitely be angry!"

At this point, Tanaka Hiroshi hurriedly said: "Miss, I can't do anything!"

Nanako Ito asked in surprise, "Why Tanaka-san?"

Hiroshi Tanaka blurted out: "If the president knows that you have a deep love for Mr. Wade, you will definitely be very angry. Not only will you not see Mr. Wade, you may even be forbidden by the president, and you may grow up faster. Your marriage plan!"

Chapter 1682

Although Nanako Ito and Koichi Tanaka were separated by the phone, they blushed instantly at his words.

She vaguely explained: "Tanaka-san...you...you misunderstood, I...I didn't...not to Mr. Wade. Heart is born...love..."

Hiroshi Tanaka sighed: "Miss, I have served the Ito family for many years and have been by your side for a long time. I still know you very well. You don't have to hide from you, and I don't want to explore your privacy. The key is , If you can see your thoughts from the bottom of the page, the president will have the eyes of a torch, and it will be impossible to hide it. I am afraid that you will not see Mr. Wade, but will leak your thoughts in front of the president... ."

"This..." Nanako Ito was speechless.

She knew that Koichi Tanaka was out of good intentions, so she reminded her.

She also knows that her father, Ito Yuhiko, would never allow herself to have any possibility of development with foreign men. He has made it clear to herself countless times that he can only accept that he will marry a Japanese in the future, and it is purely Japanese. Japanese of descent.

As for the others, even the immigrants from China and the Korean Peninsula one or two hundred years ago and those who have lived in Japan for three or four generations are not purely Japanese in his eyes.

Just like the chairman of the SoftBank Group that invested in Alibaba, Sun Zhengyi, although he is the richest man in Japan, in the eyes of Ito Takehiko, he is not a Japanese at all.

Because Sun Zhengyi's grandfather's generation was originally from Daegu, South Korea.

Many years ago, Sun Zhengyi was born and raised in Japan when he immigrated from Daegu, South Korea to Japan to work as a miner.

In the eyes of most people, he is already a standard Japanese.

However, in the eyes of a nationalist like Takehiko Ito, Sun Zhengyi can only be regarded as a Korean Japanese at best.

This is like Americans who treat Chinese Americans like Chinese Americans. Even if Chinese Americans have American citizenship, they are still regarded as Chinese in the eyes of some Americans.

It is precisely because Nanako Ito knows her father very well that she is afraid of her hasty decision.

Koichi Tanaka is right. If she suddenly returns to Tokyo and insists on meeting Charlie Wade, Ito Yuhiko will definitely be very angry, and may even impose a foothold on Nanako Ito, or even directly interfere with her freedom of marriage. Find her a marriage partner and force her to marry. Thinking of this, Nanako Ito was extremely disappointed, and she murmured: "Thank you Tanaka-san, I understand..."

Hiroshi Tanaka hurriedly asked: "Miss, will you return to Tokyo tomorrow?"

Nanako Ito bit her lower lip lightly and remained silent for a long time. Then she said sadly: "I don't want to go back, so as to avoid accidents, it won't be good if you cause Charlie Wade again."

Hiroshi Tanaka breathed a sigh of relief and said: "Miss is wise, now the president is very annoyed with Mr. Wade. If it weren't for the cooperation of the Banks Family at the moment, the president would have thought of a way to deal with Mr. Wade. , If you come to Tokyo to meet Mr. Wade at this time, you will definitely add fuel to the fire..."

Nanako Ito whispered, full of loss, "I know Tanaka-san, besides, can I ask you something?"

Hiroshi Tanaka said in a hurry: "Miss, if you have anything to do, please give orders!"

Nanako Ito said: "If your father's conflict with Charlie Wade-kun intensifies, please Tanaka-san must stop your father's, and don't do anything to hurt Charlie Wade-kun because of his urgency..."

Hiroshi Tanaka said embarrassingly: "Miss, to be honest, Mr. Wade now depends on the president for 4.5 billion US dollars. Even if you like him, you can't turn your elbow out!"

Nanako Ito said very seriously: "I am not trying to protect Charlie Wade-jun, but to protect my father. The Ito family is not Charlie Wade-jun's opponent. If Charlie Wade-jun is offended, there will be a disaster..."

Chapter 1683

Nanako Ito knew very well that Charlie Wade's strength was far beyond his own.

After being injured, Master Yamamoto Kazuki once said that Charlie Wade's abolition of his palm was not just brute force, but with the internal energy mentioned in Chinese martial arts, which really destroyed his muscles and veins. It is this kind of inner strength.

Yamamoto Kazuki has also come into contact with some ninjutsu masters. Although his actual combat ability is much worse than that of ninjutsu masters, at least he can perform a few tricks under the hands of ninjutsu masters, unlike in front of Charlie Wade. There is nothing to resist. It can be seen that Charlie Wade's strength is even far above that of Japanese ninjutsu masters.

It was when Nanako Ito recognized this, she knew clearly that neither her father nor the Ito family was necessarily Charlie Wade's opponent.

However, Yuhiko Ito was not aware of this level.

He just felt that Charlie Wade's strength was better than Yamamoto Kazuki, and better than his two personal bodyguards, but if you really want to compare with ninjutsu masters, Charlie Wade must be a bit inferior.

After hearing Nanako Ito's words, Hiroshi Tanaka was embarrassed and said hurriedly: "Miss, I understand what you mean, please rest assured, if the president of the president has a conflict with Mr. Wade, I will definitely find a way to persuade him.!"

Nanako Ito gave a hum, then sighed lightly, and said, "It's Okay Tanaka-san, so be it. Just tell me if you have anything in time."

Hiroshi Tanaka said in a hurry: "Good eldest lady, then I won't bother you to rest!"

After hanging up the phone, Nanako Ito held the phone in both hands and looked up at the sky, feeling melancholy.

During this period of time, she missed Charlie Wade every day and night, looking forward to meeting him again, and at the same time, she felt that the chance of seeing him again was very slim.

But she didn't expect Charlie Wade to come to Japan!

Before, Charlie Wade was separated from her by the sea, she was on this side of the sea, and Charlie Wade was on the other side of the sea.

Now, Charlie Wade and her are on the same land, only more than 400 kilometers apart. If you drive, you can get there in four or five hours; if you take the Shinkansen, it will be more than two hours.

When I thought of Charlie Wade, who was thinking about it all night, only a few hours' drive away from him, Nanako Ito really wanted to see him.

However, when she thinks about her inconvenience now, she will inevitably be known by her father when she sees him in Tokyo, and she can only give up this idea unwillingly.

At this time, the dense dark clouds in the sky quietly dispersed at some point, and one after another star gradually emerged from the cloud.

Nanako Ito sighed and said to herself: "It seems that there should be no snow tonight."

After that, she put away the mobile phone, controlled the wheelchair with both hands, left the deserted yard and returned to her room.

With the help of the maid, Nanako Ito soaked in the hot spring for a while.

The pain in her body is still very serious, almost 24 hours, suffering from pain all the time.

Originally, the doctor advised her to wear an analgesic pump. The analgesic pump is a device that can automatically infuse fluids at a constant rate and can continuously push pain medications into her veins. Generally speaking, people who have been severely injured or who have just had an operation should wear an analgesic pump, which can relieve pain to a great extent.

But Nanako Ito has been reluctant to use it.

That's because the painkillers will cause certain damage to her nerves.

Once the painkillers have been used for a long time, it will be more difficult for her to recover in the future, and it is very likely that she will be an invalid who can no longer practice martial arts.

Therefore, she has been clenching her teeth and insisting, relying on tenacious willpower to resist physical pain.

The natural hot spring in the mansion is taken from the underground hot spring eye. It is rich in minerals and rich in selenium, which is of great benefit to the body and can relieve body pain to a certain extent.

But because her body is still injured, she can't soak in the hot spring for a long time, no more than one hour a day, so Nanako Ito's happiest time every day is the time in the hot spring.

Soaking her body in the hot spring, Nanako Ito couldn't help but think of Charlie Wade again.

She remembered how she was looking for him in the villa area where Charlie Wade lived with the shyness of a girl.

Chapter 1684

At that time, she was nervous like a little quail in front of Charlie Wade.

When he was at a loss, he gave Charlie Wade a cup of milk tea in his hand, and lied that he was going to drink it, but he did not expect that he actually took a sip of the milk tea.

And just before Charlie Wade drank it, Nanako Ito had just used that straw. That kind of indirect kissing behavior was the most ambiguous thing Nanako Ito had done with a man since she grew up.

It was also the indirect kiss that Nanako Ito has been thinking about ever since.

Thinking of Charlie Wade's appearance, she subconsciously raised her slender fingers and wrote Charlie Wade in traditional characters on the water.

There were waves of soft water ripples on the water, but she couldn't keep any of the strokes she wrote down.

It was this fleeting trace that allowed Nanako Ito to be confident and bold, and write Charlie Wade's name on the water again and again without leaving any traces.

This night, Nanako Ito couldn't sleep for a long time.

This night, the sky in Kyoto gradually cleared.

The heavy snow predicted by the meteorological department did not come.

The early morning weather forecast stated that due to the impact of the air currents, the heavy snow that was originally expected to fall last night was estimated to be two to three days later than originally planned.

The snow was delayed, and Nanako Ito was somewhat regretful.

She always felt that this was an expression of God's unbeauty.

Thinking of Charlie Wade, who was only a few hundred kilometers away from herself, but couldn't rush to meet Charlie Wade, a melancholy thought suddenly popped into her heart:

Perhaps, I have no relationship with Charlie Wade!

The next day, Aurouss Hilll.

Mr. Quinton rushed to Quinton's warehouse for storing medicinal materials early in the morning and personally directed the staff to prepare the Chinese herbal medicines for Charlie Wade.

Workers at the scene began to pack the boxes in full swing, and he urged on the side: "All medicinal materials must be checked manually before they are packed to ensure that the medicinal materials are not loaded incorrectly, there is no deterioration or damage, and that the amount of medicinal materials is sufficient. have you understood?"

"Understood Mr. Quinton!"

A group of employees hurriedly responded.

Mr. Quinton nodded in satisfaction and continued: "Before this afternoon, be sure to prepare the first batch of medicines and then send them to the airport. I have already contacted the air cargo company and will take off at 10 o'clock tonight. The goods are delivered to Tokyo!"

At the same time, at the Banks Family residence in Eastcliff.

For twenty years, the old man of the Banks Family held a morning meeting in the main hall of the mansion every day.

This morning meeting was just like the early dynasty of the ancient emperor, and the children of the Banks Family had to report to the old man the progress of various businesses in the daily morning meeting.

If the father has any orders, he will also announce them at the morning meeting.

The Banks Family is thriving, and there are more than 30 children and relatives participating in the morning meeting.

The rules at the morning meeting were also very strict. The old man sat down on a half-meter-high step, facing everyone, very majestic.

Children, grandchildren, and relatives sit in several rows according to their status and generation.

At this time, Mr. Banks was sitting on a chair like a dragon, looking at the children below the stage, and said in a majestic manner: "The recent international crude oil situation continues to be turbulent and the global economic downturn has caused international import and export trade to be affected. Now many ocean shipping companies are struggling. It is a good time for our Banks Family to buy bottoms and buck the trend. The cooperation with the Japanese must be accelerated!"

Chapter 1685

The Banks Familyy is a big family that was born in Huizhou, but has been standing in Eastcliff for a century.

During the Quintong Dynasty, when the Taiping Heavenly Kingdom movement swept across China, the Banks Familyy followed the red-top businessman and risked his life to transport arms and grains for the Quintong army, which was appreciated by the Quintong government.

After that, the Banks Familyy moved to Eastcliff from Huizhou with rich accumulation and wealth. Since then, the family has been in business for generations and its strength has been at the forefront of the country. In the past few decades, the Banks Familyy and the Wade family were fighting against each other. Under the attack of Charlie Wade's father, Bruce, they were already slightly tired, but after Bruce's death, the Banks Familyy immediately stepped on the Wade family. Became the first in the country.

The Lord of the Banks Familyy was named Alfred Banks.

Lord Banks is sixty in his seventies this year. Although he is not very old, he is no longer a prime man.

It stands to reason that his life has been considered a success, but he is still not satisfied.

He hopes to lay a solid foundation for the Banks Familyy before he retires. At the very least, to realize the long-cherished wish of "1 is greater than 2+3".

Since ancient times, no one in the business field can truly dominate. The true meaning of the so-called 1 is greater than 2+3 refers to the sum of the family ranked first, the overall strength is greater than the family ranked second, and the family ranked third.

To be more specific, it is equivalent to that the Banks Familyy's comprehensive strength is greater than the combined strength of the Wade Family and the Sun family.

In this way, even if the second-ranked and third-ranked join forces to fight against yourself, you don't have to worry at all.

Only in this way, the Banks Familyy can truly sit back and relax.

Now, the gap between the Banks Familyy and the Wade family is indeed getting wider, but if you want to truly achieve 1 greater than 2+3, there is still a gap of at least a few hundred billion in assets.

Therefore, the Banks Familyy is now actively seeking breakthroughs overseas, hoping to realize this ambition in one fell swoop.

As long as this goal is achieved, Eastcliff will no longer have the concept of three big families. Instead, it is the new pattern of the Banks Familyy that despises the heroes.

Therefore, Lord Banks attaches great importance to this shipping business.

Hearing that the old man attaches great importance to ocean transportation, one of the heirs of the Banks Familyy couldn't help but show off in front of him: "Grandpa, grandson feels that the development of the world economy has encountered considerable resistance now, and all countries have import and export trades. Great contraction. I don't know when foreign trade will fully recover. In this case, if you bet on ocean shipping, the risk is still very high. It is very likely that you will copy the bottom half of the mountain. So grandson advises you to think twice. Then go!"

"Think twice?" Lord Banks snorted coldly and ignored him. Instead, he looked at the middle-aged man next to him and sternly reprimanded:

"Fifth, how did you discipline your son? He didn't grow well, so I dare to question here. My decision, is it true that I am old and still able to eat?"

The fifth son is Jordan Banks, the fifth son of Lord Banks.

The Banks Family has five sons and two daughters.

Jordan is the fifth son of Father Banks and the last of the seven children.

The young man who just spoke was Austin, the youngest son of Jordan.

Austin is just eighteen years old this year, and is considered an academic genius. Last year, he was admitted to Harvard University on his own strength.

Chapter 1686

Because of his young age and the reason he has been favored at home, Austin has a strong desire to express himself.

However, he used to behave in front of his parents, and he had no chance to behave in front of his grandfather. Today, he finally seized the opportunity, thinking about the old man's ideas, and debating with him, so as to show his extraordinary talents. And wisdom, but did not expect, just a word, annoyed the Lord Banks.

He was about to open his mouth to explain, but he didn't think about it. His father Jordan stood up and opened his bow left and right. He drew several big mouths, and the corners of his mouth were full of blood. Then he roared with extreme anger: "You read Go inside the dog? Dare to question your grandfather's decision here?!"

"I..." Austin covered his face, the whole person aggrieved and wished to die here.

He hadn't been beaten when he grew up so old, and he didn't understand why his father, who had always been dotting on him, wanted to suck himself into death after one sentence angered his grandfather.

Moreover, it is still in front of the entire family.

At this time, Jordan hates this son who is not growing up!

He was very aware of the coercion of the old man, even his elder brother Zayne, he did not dare to stand up to the old man, let alone his ineffective little son?

It's not so popular!

It is very possible that his words will be completely beaten by the old man in the future, and after graduation from university, he will not even have the opportunity to return to Bank's home to work!

The reason why the old man Lord Banks is so hegemonic and authoritarian is greatly related to his growth experience.

When he was young, he had many brothers. His father not only had a main room, but also married a wife of six rooms and seven wives. He gave birth to more than 30 children, including 23 sons alone!

And Lord Banks was just one of these 23 sons.

Just like the ancient prince seizing the first-in-law, Lord Banks had been fighting openly and secretly with 22 brothers since he was a child. After fighting for fifty years, he finally inherited the position of Banks Family Patriarch.

Therefore, fifty years of constant fighting made his temperament extremely domineering and cruel.

If someone threatens his majesty, even if it is his son or grandson, he will never tolerate it.

Austin was young and ignorant, and with the aura of genius, he dared to confront Lord Banks to find a sense of existence. In everyone's eyes, this action was no different from looking for death!

Jordan even slapped Austin dozens of slaps, and he almost couldn't stand to faint. Lord Banks snorted and said: "Okay, don't beat him, let someone take him out, we Continue the meeting!"

Jordan's heart was bleeding a long time ago, but until the old man said, he didn't dare to stop.

Seeing that the old man finally spoke, he put his hands away and suppressed the distress in his heart, and yelled at the servant standing next to him: "Don't hurry up and get this unfilial son out of here!"

Several people immediately stepped forward and dragged out Austin, who was vomiting blood, dizzy and tinnitus.

Lord Banks cleared his throat and continued: "This cooperation with the Japanese will not only win at least 20% of the operating rights of Tokyo Port, Yokohama Port and Osaka Port, but also let them provide at least no less than For all kinds of cargo ships and oil tankers with a displacement of 3 million tons, whoever has the most resources will have the opportunity to become one of us. Therefore, when going to Japan this time, we must take a good look at the true strengths of Ito and Takahashi. In addition, we must force the two of them to use the most resources!"

The eldest son Zayne blurted out: "Father, I don't know who you plan to let these two Japanese families cooperate with this time?"

Lord Banks was silent for a moment, and then said: "Knowing Fitz, you are the eldest grandson, and it is time for you to take the lead. This time, you will take the lead!"

Fitz Banks, the eldest grandson of Lord Banks, and the eldest son of Zayne, is 28 years old this year and is the most outstanding male heir of the Banks Family.

Upon hearing that he was selected, Fitz immediately stood up and said firmly: "Please rest assured, I will go all out!"

Lord Banks nodded lightly, and his eyes fell on the beautiful and glamorous girl beside Fitz.

It was also at this moment that the old man's eyes were finally not so hard. Instead, he was replaced by a somewhat pampering look. He smiled and said, "Zara, you will graduate from Yale soon. It's also time to go out and exercise. This time you will follow Go with your brother, learn more, watch more, and accumulate some experience!"

The beautiful and glamorous girl stood up, bowed slightly, her expression was not lukewarm, her eyes were lukewarm, her tone was neither salty nor salty, and said, "Good grandpa, Zara knows."

Chapter 1687

When the old man announced that Fitz and Zara would go to Japan together, their father Zayne's expression became a little proud.

In his opinion, the father gave such an important matter to his sons and daughters, which is the evidence that he is the eldest son and is most trusted by the father.

The other heirs are envy and jealous.

The old man wants to train Fitz, and everyone has no opinion on this.

After all, Fitz is the eldest son and grandson. If placed in ancient times, this is the standard crown prince. No matter how strong other princes are, they must bow their heads when they see the eldest son and grandson.

However, let Fitz go for exercise, and also bring Zara along with him. This is really a bit too eccentric!

Under normal circumstances, if you encounter such a thing, you should let the eldest son and grandson take the lead, and then from the second, third, fourth and even fifth family, choose one or two younger generations who are agile and capable of training and let them follow the eldest son. The eldest grandson went out to meet the world together. However, I never expected that in addition to the eldest grandson in the eyes of the old man, there is only the eldest granddaughter he spoils the most!

In other words, this is tantamount to the old man showing his position. Except for the eldest grandson, all the other grandsons, in his eyes, are not as good as Zara's female stream!

This can make other families feel extremely uncomfortable.

Everyone in Eastcliff knows that the Banks Family is thriving.

The old man had 22 brothers and a dozen sisters back then. In his line, he still has 13 grandsons and two granddaughters.

But who could have expected that in his eyes, the eldest granddaughter Zara was the most favored.

The reason is that the old man has always been strict in his requirements and management of the male heirs of the family, so he and his sons and grandsons have always had a black face.

But the old man is also a mortal, and there is softness in his heart. He can't show the soft side to his son and grandson, so he gives the soft side to his granddaughter.

In addition, Zara has been smart since she was a child, and she has been loved by her father. In front of others, the father is a demon with decisiveness, extraordinary spirit, and arrogant personality, but in front of his granddaughter, he is an ordinary, kind and doting the younger generation.

In fact, the degree of doting the old man has for Zara can be seen from the name of Zara.

The juniors of the Banks Family are known for their generation.

Fitz's name is meant to know right and wrong and not to make detours;

In addition, there is Austin, which means drinking water to know the source;

Zayne means "Zayne Illustrated Report".

The name of each grandchild can be said to be full of the admonition and vigilance of Grandpa Banks to his grandchildren.

Only Zara.

The old man gave her this name, which means the joy of knowing fish.

In "Autumn Water", a conversation between Huizi and Zhuangzi is recorded.

Huizi said that Zi is not a fish, and he knows the joy of fish.

The old man named her Zara, hoping that she can be happy, happy, simple and happy. Since she can know "the joy of fish", she can naturally know "the joy of man".

Chapter 1688

It can be said that Lord Bank's incomparable love for Zara is everywhere.

It is precisely because of this that the entire young talents of Eastcliff are full of desire for Zara.

Solving Zara is not just a glamorous super beauty, a super schoolmaster who has stayed in the United States all year round and received the world's top high-end education, it is also equivalent to the entire Banks Family.

Someone joked that whoever marries Zara may obtain a huge wealth of up to trillions.

Therefore, Zara also has a nickname passed down by word of mouth among the large family groups in the country. The name is simple and rude, called Su Wanyi.

After the old man Lord Banks announced his decision, he said to his eldest son Zayne: "Zayne, you, Fitz and Zara should hurry up to discuss a general plan, and then hurry up to prepare for the journey. The sooner the better."

Zayne immediately stood up and said respectfully: "Father rest assured, I will discuss a plan with the two of them as soon as possible, and strive to leave for Japan tonight!"

Lord Banks nodded and exhorted: "As long as this kind of choice is made, it is particularly important who we contact first. Although the Ito family and the Takahashi family have fallen a bit due to the overall recession of the Japanese economy over the years, their overall strength is still in Japan. Stay at the forefront, and you must carefully decide which one to contact first."

Zayne said immediately: "Good father, we will start the discussion right away and report the results to you as soon as possible."

Lord Banks smiled with satisfaction and said: "Zayne, eighteen years ago, you won against Bruce Wade and became the most dazzling one among the younger generation of Eastcliff, but in the past eighteen years, you have not been able to achieve greater glory. Of course, you are not to blame. It is our Banks Family who have never encountered any decent opponents in China over the years."

Speaking of this, Lord Banks sneered, stood up, and fervently said: "The domestic market has no room for incremental growth. If we want to continue to grow, we must go abroad, go to sea, and develop into the ocean!"

"Otherwise, the veteran families in the West, including Rothschilds, will still pop out and disgust us at odds and ends!"

"Therefore, this ocean-going strategy is a good opportunity for the Banks Family to create new brilliance, and it is also a good stage for you to lay a higher achievement!"

"If this battle is fought beautifully, I can be considered to be consummated, and I can retreat with peace of mind to enjoy the family happiness. By then, you will be the Patriarch of the Banks Family!"

When Zayne heard this, he bowed deeply and shouted loudly, "Father rest assured, I will do my best! Create new glory for the Banks Family!"

After the meeting, Zayne returned to his mansion with a pair of children with excitement.

As soon as he got home, he called his sons and daughters to the study, and said with a high spirit: "Knowing the wrong and knowing the fish, this time is a good opportunity for our family to make new achievements in the Banks Family. You two are going to Japan this time. , We must get the best terms of cooperation. Whether we choose the Ito family or the Takahashi family in the end, we must compress their interests to the extreme and strive for the greatest benefit for our Banks Family!"

Fitz immediately said: "Dad, when we go to Japan this time, should we first contact the Ito family or the Takahashi family?"

Zayne asked, "What do you think?"

Fitz said: "I think it's best to contact the Ito family first, because the Ito family is strong in Tokyo and Kyoto. Tokyo has the Port of Tokyo, and there are Osaka Port and Nagoya Port near Kyoto. In theory, the Ito family is in Ports and shipping have greater potential."

"Yeah" Zayne nodded slightly, and said approvingly: "Your point of view is very reasonable, and I also tend to contact the Ito family first."

Zara frowned and said in a lukewarm tone: "Dad, brother, I think we should first contact the Takahashi family."

"Oh?" The two looked at Zara, and Zayne asked, "Zara, why do you think so?"

Chapter 1689

Faced with the questions of father and brother, Zara answered calmly:

"First of all, although the Ito family has strong resources in Tokyo, and also has good strength in Osaka and Nagoya, Japan's real super seaport is actually next to Tokyo. The port of Yokohama."

"Although the Takahashi family is slightly inferior to the Ito family in Tokyo, they are very tough in Yokohama. It can be said that Yokohama is the base camp of the Takahashi family."

"Secondly, the Ito family is somewhat troubled now, Ito Yuhiko His daughter was seriously injured while participating in an international Sanda competition in Aurouss Hillll some time ago and is currently recuperating. Ito himself loves this daughter very much. The physical condition of her daughter will more or less distract him. Once this person's energy is not full Focusing on our work 100% will have an impact on our cooperation. Even if the impact is only 1%, it is a real impact." Zayne frowned, "Ito Yuuhiko's daughter was injured? I have never heard of this."

Zara said lightly: "I asked someone to investigate the situation of these two companies, including their family's children." The eldest brother Fitz couldn't help but give a thumbs up: "Zara, you still think about the problem most. All-round!"

Zara said without a wave: "Brother, don't slap me here anymore. You will be the one who will be alone in the future. I will just help you think about it temporarily."

Fitz said with a smile: "Having such a good sister, I will really worry about it in the future!"

Zara gave him a blank look and said, "One more thing, I have heard that the Ito family had previously wanted to invest in a Japanese pharmaceutical company named Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals, this matter will also distract his energy to a certain extent."

Fitz nodded: "I know that company, they produce Niranex, I have used it before, and the effect is really good, very powerful."

"That's before." Zara said lightly: "Now, there is a Nova Dias in China, which has surpassed them in product strength."

"Oh" Fitz said with a smile: "I have a hunch that Oracle Pharmaceutical will soon emerge. It will catch up with Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals first, and eventually catch up." At this point, Fitz seriously suggested: "If possible, I think it's a good opportunity to invest in Oracle Pharmaceutical now. It's possible that there will be more than ten times the return on investment in a few years."

Zayne waved his hand and said, "No matter how big the pharmaceutical company is, it will be worth 100 billion. It's very big, we still focus on the bigger market and opportunities. This ocean-going project is the key to the internationalization of the Banks Familyy."

Zara wanted to say something, but he swallowed it and Nodded and said, "Get back to the subject, dad, which one do you think we should contact first? I still think that Ito Yuihiko has internal and external troubles, and other things involve energy, or the Takahashi family as a whole is more appropriate."

Zayne looked towards Fitz asked: "Knowledge, what do you think?"

Fitz immediately said: "If you listen to people persuading you to eat a full meal, I think you should listen to know fish. After all, those who investigate have the right to speak!"

Zayne Nodded with satisfaction, and said with a smile: "You two brothers and sisters are the most outstanding among my peers. If you two work together, you must be famous throughout the country, and even the world!"

Fitz said with a smile "I don't dare to compare with Zara. This girl is a wonder. At the age of 22, she is mentally mature and like forty-four. I really don't know what kind of person I have to find in the future to match."

Zara glared at him and said angrily: "I want you to worry about my business? Or think about yourself first. You have been in love with that Stefanie for so long, when are you going to confess to her?"

Fitz a bit embarrassment, he blurted out: "Don't talk nonsense! Stefanie and I are acquaintances, not even friends."

"Of course." Zara snorted, and said contemptuously: "I met someone. Even if you can't speak well, of course even friends can't do it!"

Chapter 1690

Zayne on the side frowned and asked him, "Fitz, do you have ideas about that girl from the Sun family?"

"No, Dad" Fitz hurriedly waved his hand: "I just admire her more simply."

Zayne nodded, paused for a while, and then said: "Sun's girl is really good. If you really like it, I don't have any objection. I'm just afraid that your grandpa will look down on Sun's family, then it will be difficult."

Fitz Upon hearing this, I was overjoyed, and blurted out, "Dad, are you really okay?" Zara blurted out: "Brother, are you stupid? Can't you hear that Dad is deliberately deceiving you?"

"Ah?!" Fitz panicked, and hurriedly looked at Zayne: "Dad, what do you mean?"

Zayne sighed and said seriously: "Fitz, you are not as smart as your sister!"

Fitz suddenly became embarrassed. Zayne had a face at this time, saying: "You are the son of the Banks Familyy and the third-generation heir of the future Banks Familyy, and the strength of the Sun family is really not enough in front of the Banks Familyy. Your grandfather will definitely not agree to it, nor do I. You will agree, don't forget, the girl from the Sun family has been engaged to Bruce's son since childhood, and I and Bruce are at odds, and I will never let you marry the girl from the Sun family in!"

Fitz sighed: "Dad , When did that happen, the millet is old and rotten, besides, didn't Bruce's son have been missing for many years?"

Zayne looked at him and said solemnly, "Leave aside this matter. , Your grandfather once discussed with me about your marriage. He even hopes that after completing the internationalization of the Banks Familyy, you can marry the eldest daughter of the top American family. This will be more beneficial to our overseas expansion. Domestically, it is also You really don't deserve your ladies."

Fitz was a little anxious and blurted out: "Dad, I don't like American women."

Zayne said solemnly: "This kind of thing has never been related to liking the word. It's nothing more than a four-character pair, understand?"

Fitz was a little depressed at once.

Zara on the side reminded me at this moment: "Dad, let me declare first, I don't care how you arrange my brother, but no one is allowed to influence my marriage in the future!"

Fitz exclaimed, "Hey, Zara ! You just sold your brother like that?"

"No." Zara said calmly, "We are in different situations. If I find a man who can make my heart beat, I will marry him, from the Banks Familyy. Nothing has anything to do with me anymore. In the future, I will give birth to children without the surname Banks, but you are different. You are going to inherit the Banks Familyy."

Fitz was speechless. The expression is very depressed.

Zayne looked at Zara helplessly, and reminded: "The premise for you to find the object is that you have to be the right one!"

Zara waved his hand: "What is the right one, does not exist, who is this lady fancy? Who, whether he is the king of heaven, or the trafficker."

"Bullshit!" Zayne said annoyedly: "In case you really find a pauper, what can you guarantee for your life's happiness?"

Zara curled her lips: "I don't believe it. , My dignified Miss Banks Familyy, can't afford a pauper?"

Chapter 1691

Zara's words made Zayne mad enough.

He pointed to Zara, and said angrily: "You will also talk about this at home, dare to speak out to see if your grandpa scolds you!"

Zara took out his cell phone and said with a smile: "Or I am now Give grandpa a call and tell him again in person."

"Hurry up and get you down!" Zayne hurriedly said: "It's all right, I won't talk nonsense with you, anyway, the horoscope hasn't been written yet, you two still Hurry up and study the matter of going to Japan, and then set off early!" Fitz said quickly: "Let's do this, Dad, this matter is just as Zara said. Let's meet the Takahashi family first, and then Ito. family, as the departure time of it, I think, or try to earlier, I am now ready to let the crew, starting immediately after lunch, you see how? "

Zayne nodded and said:" OK, you guys ready to seize the time to look at , After lunch, don't leave in a hurry. Go and report to your grandfather first. Tell your grandpa about your plans and ideas. If he doesn't have any comments, you are ready to set off!"

"Good dad." Fitz agreed, and then hurriedly winked at Zara and said, "Zara, go."

Zara nodded and followed Fitz out of his father's study.

As soon as he came out of the study, Fitz blamed: "You girl really owes you to Stefanie, why do you want to tell your dad about Stefanie?"

Zara chuckled, and said in a playful tone, "Why don't you mention it? You must have been hiding in your heart. Do you really have to accept your fate and obey the family arrangements in the future?"

Fitz sighed and said, "We are from this background, and we have everything we have on the day we were born. The only part of the feeling is that you don't have autonomy. Don't you know that? Why do you still choke those words with your dad?"

"I'm happy." Zara said wantonly, and then rationalized it. With short hair and a resolute expression, he said, "Anyway, Zara's future will never be at the mercy of anyone!"

Fitz shook his head helplessly: "Okay, I won't talk to you about these meaningless things. This time we are going to Japan. It may take a few days. You can quickly prepare your luggage. After dinner, let's go to Grandpa. Then, I'm ready to leave after the report." Zara hummed, stretched, and said lazily: "Hey, it's too early in the morning. I'll get up to sleep when I go back to the room. Come call me."

Fitz looked at her back and sighed heavily: "Sister, I really took you." Tokyo, Japan at this moment. Charlie Wade had been lying down on the top terrace of Kobayashi's house all morning. Today, Paul is busy resolving the remaining lengthy legal documents with the local business department in Tokyo.

Liam and Ichiro Kobayashi first went to the production base of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall in Tokyo. Although Mr. Quinton's medicinal materials will not arrive until the evening, Liam still needs to find out about the production base first, and then arrange the work of transferring Nova Dias in advance.

In this way, after the medicinal materials arrive at night, you can start trial production directly overtime.

Therefore, Charlie Wade became the most idle one. So, he sat on the deck chair on the terrace, enjoying the unique scenery and cold wind from 100 meters above Tokyo.

Cameron Isaac walked over at this time and said respectfully: "Master, if you are idle, shall we go out in the afternoon? Ginza and Shinjuku in Tokyo are still very prosperous."

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "I have nothing to do with shopping. Interested, you go with Don Albertt."

Cameron Isaac smiled and said: "I have something to go shopping with him, the old man, I guess he is holding back his energy and wants to try Japanese Fengyue places."

"Then let him Go." Charlie Wade smiled lightly: "That thing is considered legal in Japan, so go if you want."

Chapter 1692

Cameron Isaac nodded: "If there is nothing wrong in the evening, let him go over and see."

At noon, Charlie Wade didn't go anywhere. He is not familiar with Tokyo, and he doesn't have a lot of favor with this particularly prosperous modern city.

In contrast, he prefers Eastcliff. The city not only has advanced and prosperous modern high-rise buildings, but also has historical sites with hundreds or even thousands of years of history. The cultural atmosphere is very strong, and the foundation is much stronger than Tokyo.

However, Charlie Wade didn't want to deprive others of the right to go shopping because he was not interested, so he sent Cameron Isaac, Don Albertt and others out.

A group of people went to the bustling Ginza and Shinjuku for a whole afternoon, and when they came back, everyone had a good harvest, carrying a lot of big and small bags.

In the evening, Cameron Isaac arranged for everyone to have dinner at a Chinese restaurant opened by one of his staff.

After eating, Charlie Wade didn't see anything important, so he said to Cameron Isaac and Don Albertt: "You can move around freely for a while, and you don't have to go around me."

Don Albertt asked hurriedly, "Master Wade, do you have any arrangements for a while?"

Charlie Wade thought for a while and said, "I'll go out and walk around by myself."

Don Albertt smiled and asked, "Master Wade, are you going to Fengyue Street? I heard that the girls on Fengyue Street in Japan are very punctual!"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "Forget it, I want to go to the University of Tokyo and walk around. You should go to Fengyue Street to enjoy it yourself."

"To the University of Tokyo?" Don Albertt asked in surprise: "Master Wade, what are you doing there? It's not your alma mater."

Charlie Wade said calmly: "It's nothing, just want to go shopping, you don't have to follow me."

Cameron Isaac hurriedly said, "Master Wade, do you want me to send you a car?"

"No." Charlie Wade waved his hand and said, "After spending a day at Ichiro Kobayashi's house, I want to take a walk."

Seeing this, everyone no longer insisted. Charlie Wade came out of the hotel and got into the subway station next to the hotel alone. After seeing the route map, he took the subway to the University of Tokyo. He didn't know why he suddenly wanted to go to the University of Tokyo.

Thinking about it carefully, it might be because of Nanako Ito.

Although the girl didn't have much contact with him, she was still stubborn and distressed. Charlie Wade knew that she was not in Tokyo, but knew that she was a student of Tokyo University, so he wanted to take a walk and take a look where she went to school. At the same time, a luxury business jet modified by Boeing 737 took off from Eastcliff Airport. Fitz, Zara brother and sister, and more than a dozen of the Banks Family went to Tokyo together.

The Takahashi family, who had received the news in advance, was very excited about the decision of the Banks Family to meet them first. The main members of the family had already been waiting at Tokyo Narita Airport in advance.

At the same time, they also booked the best rooms in Tokyo's most stylish hotel, Aman Hotel Tokyo, in accordance with Zara's requirements. And Yuhiko Ito also received the news. After learning that the representative of the Banks Family had to meet the Takahashi family first, he was furious.

Coupled with the fact that Charlie Wade had relied on 4.5 billion US dollars yesterday, it has been stuck in his mind. The two things superimposed on each other, making it even more angry.

After dropping more than a dozen pieces of precious porcelain in a row, he secretly vowed that if he didn't get the chance to cooperate with the Banks Family this time, he would make Charlie Wade double the price!

Chapter 1693

Ito's anger did not come from hypocrisy or narrow-mindedness. During this time, he has been feeling upset. First, the beloved daughter was seriously injured, and then the future son-in-law Jiro Kobayashi disappeared inexplicably.

Immediately afterwards, he spent 4.5 billion US dollars and planned to invest in Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall. The contract was signed and the payment was made. As a result, Ichiro Kobayashi suddenly returned and unilaterally declared the investment contract he had signed invalid.

Then, Charlie Wade strongly stated that there were no shares, and the 4.5 billion U.S. dollars would not be refunded. Ito Yuihiko lived so big, he thought he had never seen such a brazen person.

If it wasn't for this kid who seemed to be really strong, plus the Chinese Banks Familyy was about to come to Japan to discuss cooperation, Ito Xiuhiko would really want to kill Charlie Wade immediately. But he did a great deal of tolerance for the Banks Familyy's arrival, but the first stop of the Banks Familyy's visit to Tokyo was not to discuss cooperation with himself, but to find his own enemy, the Takahashi family.

At this moment, Ito Yuhiko's mentality collapsed. what happened? Why have I always encountered so many problems recently? Is it to go to the temple to burn incense, worship Buddha, and eat vegetarian food for a few days? Seeing him furious, Tanaka did not dare to come up to persuade him for a long time.

Until Ito Yuihiko had enough vent by himself, Tanaka Koichi leaned forward and said, "Chairman, you don't have to be so angry about this matter. Even if the Banks Familyy gets in touch with the Takahashi family first, it doesn't mean anything. I have received Their message, they will visit the house in the morning the day after tomorrow. We still have a chance."

Yuhiko Ito said with a black face: "For this kind of thing, it is very important for the Banks Familyy to choose whom to meet first. It is as if you are talking about a girlfriend in Osaka, and at the same time you have work matters to go to Osaka. Your girlfriend should go to work first, which determines which is more important in your mind."

Hiroshi Tanaka said embarrassingly: "Mr. Ito, love and career are not the same thing..."

Ito Yuihiko said angrily: "Then treat you as a playboy, you have two lovers in Osaka, and now you go to Osaka to see them separately, then I ask you, will you choose to see your favorite one first, or first See the one you don't like that much?"

Hiroshi Tanaka hurriedly said: "It may also be that I like both, but I can't meet at the same time, so there must always be an order. If I don't know how to choose, maybe I will use lottery or guess coins. It's decided in a way, so it doesn't necessarily represent who I see first, who I like more."

Takehiko Ito raised his leg, kicked at Hiroshi Tanaka distractedly, and blurted out: "Go on, I f*cking use you to comfort me here? Why should I go!"

Hiroshi Tanaka stepped back a few steps, and said, "Mr. Ito, I'm right outside the door. If you have anything, please call me."

.....

at the same time. Charlie Wade has come to the campus of the University of Tokyo.

Although the styles of cities and cities are quite different, the University of Tokyo, like Eastcliff University, is one of the top universities in Asia, naturally with a strong academic atmosphere and a sense of sacredness.

Charlie Wade is a very knowledgeable person, but it is a pity that he did not have the opportunity to receive a complete higher education. This has always been a great regret in his heart.

Back then, one of his parents graduated from Eastcliff University and the other from Hillshire University. When he was a child, he would often follow his parents to visit these two universities, or accompany his parents to participate in some activities of his alma mater.

In the past, he always felt that he would definitely choose Eastcliff University in the future. After finishing his undergraduate degree, he would choose a top business school from around the world to study in business management. Of graduate students.

The heirs of most big families basically follow this line.

Because the members of the big family are also very clear in their hearts that the more they are born in the big family, the more they have to improve their comprehensive abilities, otherwise, they are very likely to be left out or eliminated by the family.

Among the top ten families in Eastcliff, as long as they are young heirs of the right age, it is impossible for anyone to have never studied at university. Of course, Charlie Wade is the only exception.

If Charlie Wade is not included, the ratio for undergraduates is 100%, and the ratio for postgraduates is also 100%.

Even those people who immediately devote themselves to the family business as soon as they graduate from university will spend their spare time to study for a master's degree.

It is a pity that Charlie Wade is now 26 years old, and he knows very well in his heart that it is impossible for him to return to school to study for a university or for a master's degree, so this has become his eternal regret.

At the University of Tokyo, you can see young people of different skin colors everywhere, dressed in simple and plain clothes, carrying school bags or holding textbooks, and many people appear to be in a hurry.

At first he was still surprised, and seeing the Chinese New Year in more than half a month, why didn't Japanese universities have holidays.

Chapter 1694

After thinking about it, I realized that although Japanese culture was deeply influenced by China and the Japanese people also celebrated the Lunar New Year in the early years, after the Meiji Restoration, the Japanese tried to escape from Asia and enter Europe, so they changed the New Year from the lunar calendar to Gregorian calendar.

Therefore, the biggest and most solemn festival in Japan is actually New Year's Day in the eyes of the Chinese. And now, the University of Tokyo seems to have entered the eve of the winter vacation, and the students are actively preparing for the exam.

When Charlie Wade strolled around the campus of the University of Tokyo, he couldn't help but think of Nanako Ito studying at this university.

If I hadn't seen it with my own eyes, it would be hard to imagine. A girl who looks so weak is not only a top student from the University of Tokyo, but also a powerful Sanda fighter.

This girl is really full of very polar contradictions. When he approached the library, Charlie Wade was even on the street light pole and saw Nanako Ito's support poster.

The poster has a photo of Nanako Ito wearing a school uniform, and her smile is really eye-catching. The content on the poster is to call on students from the University of Tokyo to support Nanako Ito in participating in the Aurouss Hilll International College Sanda Competition.

They even labeled Nanako Ito as "Japan's No. 1", "Pride of Japanese Women" and "A Strong Contender for Olympic Gold Medals."

Charlie Wade looked at it and couldn't help shaking his head. These labels are all put on by classmates who have high hopes for Nanako Ito. However, these labels have also caused moral kidnapping of Nanako Ito to a certain extent.

It's like telling Nanako Ito all the time that you must win, or else I'm sorry for the strong expectations. Compared with this kind of utilitarian support slogan, Charlie Wade feels that it is better to simply say to her: "Just work hard, and we will support you even if you fail."

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade shook his head and sighed, took out his mobile phone, and photographed this cinema poster as a souvenir. Seeing that it was not too early, and it was completely dark, he stepped out of the University of Tokyo.

After leaving the University of Tokyo, on the roadside of the University of Tokyo, a girl who sang with a guitar attracted his attention. There are many people playing piano and performing arts on the streets of Japan, but this girl plays and sings a Chinese song. This song is Pu Shu's "Ordinary Road".

The phrase "I have crossed the mountains and the sea, and also through the sea of people, everything I once possessed, all of a sudden disappeared like smoke", it suddenly hit Charlie Wade's heart, making him stop.

This girl looks like she is about twenty years old. She is a little thin and not long enough, but she is pretty. The little girl can sing very well, but many Japanese people passing by, probably because they don't understand, they pass by her indifferently, without even looking at her. And the guitar box in front of her contained only a small amount of Japanese yen. If converted into Chinese RMB, it might not add up to fifty Dollar.

Charlie Wade inferred from the little girl's pronunciation that the girl should be Chinese, so after the girl finished singing a song, he asked: "Is it Chinese?"

The little girl nodded, smiled sweetly, and said: "I am from Sichuan Province, are you also Chinese?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "I am from Aurouss Hilll."

After speaking, Charlie Wade asked her: "Are you working or living in Japan?"

"Go to school." The little girl pointed to the University of Tokyo not far away, and smiled: "I study here, occasionally come out to sing and make some money to subsidize living expenses."

Charlie Wade nodded, took out the wallet from his pocket, took out about one hundred thousand yen, and put it in the guitar case in front of her. The girl was taken aback, and hurriedly waved her hand: "Sir, you don't need to give so much money..."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "It is a pleasure to meet a compatriot in another country."

With that said, afraid that the girl would return the money to him, he turned around and left.

At this moment, several young Japanese men came to the girl, one of them snatched her guitar, and yelled, "Who asked you to sing here? Tell us Bunkyo Has the runaway group said hello? Also, what Chinese song are you singing now in Japan? Are you looking for death?!"

Chapter 1695

Japan is a country where gangs are legal, and there are various gang organizations in the society of this country.

The famous movie star Jackie Chan once starred in a movie called "Shinjuku Incident". The story background in the movie is the Japanese gangster.

In Japan, the Yakuza Formation and Inagawa will naturally be the big bosses at the top of the food chain.

However, not all gangsters are members of the Yakuza group and Inagawa. In fact, there are small-scale gang organizations in various cities and districts.

These organizations generally like to call themselves "rogues."

The favorite thing these tyrants do is to ride a roaring motorcycle with a variety of cold weapons, and fight fiercely against others in the streets and alleys.

Of course, more often it is actually bullying the soft and fearing the tough, and bullying the market.

The Chinese girl who played and sang, seeing a few rioters getting trouble with her, hurriedly begged: "Sorry, I don't know this is your site, I won't come next time, please forgive me this time."

"Isn't coming?" The gangster who snatched the girl's guitar sternly reprimanded: "If every unruly person can get away with just one sentence if he won't come next time, where do we put the face of Wenjing gangster?!"

The Chinese girl asked nervously, "Then... Then how can you let me go?"

The mobster glanced at the cash in the guitar case in front of her. It was obvious that there was at least one hundred thousand yen here. For these idle mobsters, this was a lot of wealth, enough for them to spend a day or two.

Therefore, he sneered: "It's easy to let us let you go, leave the guitar and the money!"

The Chinese girl bit her lip, hesitated for a moment, then said with tears: "Okay...I will give you the guitar and the money..."

Another violent clan immediately reached out and grabbed all the money, greedily put it in his pocket, then winked at the other people, and said: "Brothers, there is something tonight! Go to the bar to have a good night!"

The Chinese girl choked up and asked, "Then can I go?"

The mobster with the guitar looked at the girl up and down, and said with a wry face, "Don't go! I think you look good, so let's take your guitar and sing a Japanese song to the brothers, and then Go to the bar with your brothers for a night!"

"No!" The Chinese girl took a few steps back subconsciously, turned around and wanted to escape.

Unexpectedly, the man suddenly rushed over, grabbed the Chinese girl by the wrist, and sneered: "Want to run? Don't ask me who Onizuka Ryuji is!" Passers-by cast their curious and lively gazes, but Onizuka Ryuji immediately shouted: "What are you looking at? The Bunkyo runaway group does things, and who is not afraid of death, just stand still!"

As soon as these words came out, the passers-by who were onlookers suddenly became scattered. Japanese society seems to be highly polite, but in fact everyone is indifferent. This kind of indifference is polite on the surface, but shunned by the heart. No one wants to cause trouble to others, let alone trouble themselves. Therefore, naturally no one is willing to do what is right at this time.

Just when Onizuka Ryuji was proud of everyone's avoidance, a gloomy voice rang in his ear: "Let her go!"

Onizuka Ryuji turned around and followed the reputation. Seeing that it was the man who had just given the girl one hundred thousand yen, he sneered: "Asshole! Do you still want a hero to save the beauty?! Do you know that I am from the Bunkyo gang! "

Charlie Wade said indifferently: "I don't bother to care which group you belong to. If you don't let her go, I will do it at my own risk!"

Chapter 1696

Onitsuka Ryuji laughed presumptuously, and gritted his teeth: "You don't even look at Bunkyo's runaway group, boy, you are dead today!"

The girl was shocked and hurriedly shouted: "Sir, go! They are all members of the runaway group! The Bunkyo runaway group is the largest violent organization in the entire Bunkyo district, and you can't afford them!"

Charlie Wade touched his nose, looked at Onizuka Ryuji and said with a smile: "I heard that there are 23 districts in Tokyo. Doesn't that mean that there are at least 23 districts in Tokyo like your Bunkyo Bandit One?"

Onizuka Ryuji asked angrily: "So what? Our Bunkyo runaway group ranks in the top five in Tokyo! Can you afford it?"

Charlie Wade snorted: "You can't provoke it or not, you will know after you provoke it!"

"Asshole!" another mobster shouted angrily: "Boy, you are too arrogant!"

Onizuka Ryuji winked at those people and shouted sharply, "Kill him!"

When the other people heard this, they immediately pulled out the forearm iron rods from their waists, swarmed up, and rushed towards Charlie Wade. These people, without exception, are all ordinary gangsters, and their strength is almost equal to zero in Charlie Wade's eyes.

Therefore, Charlie Wade was not afraid of so many people rushing to him at once.

At this time, the girl who was caught tightly by Onizuka Ryuji shouted: "Sir, be careful! Run!"

"Run?" Charlie Wade smiled, "Dignified Chinese boy, how can you run?"

After that, his eyes suddenly became cold.

Immediately afterwards, the four people who rushed towards him suddenly felt a flower in front of them, only that Charlie Wade's right leg seemed to move very fast, kicking four feet in an instant.

Before they could see Charlie Wade's figure clearly, their abdomen was hit by a huge force. All four of them were kicked in the abdomen by Charlie Wade. The whole person immediately flew out uncontrollably, all in a parabolic posture. , Fell into the green belt on the side of the road.

Although Charlie Wade deliberately reduced most of his strength so as not to be directly fatal, the four of them were still severely injured. They fell into the green belt one by one, and couldn't get up at all, as if they were kicked. Half-life.

Onitsuka Ryuji and the girl who was caught by him looked dumbfounded. Especially Onizuka Ryuji.

He never dreamed that Charlie Wade had such a strong strength, and the four men were kicked when they went up. Isn't this kicking on the iron board?

Thinking of this, he hurriedly took out a small dagger from his pocket, pointed it at the girl's neck, and threatened nervously: "You, you...Don't come here! Or I will kill her! "

Charlie Wade said coldly: "If you let her go now, I will neither beat you nor scold you."

Onitsuka Ryuji heard this, and his eyes revealed a kind of joy after the disaster.

He was about to ask Charlie Wade if his words counted.

Then Charlie Wade continued: "I only need one of your right arms as punishment, so you can use at least one arm in the future."

"What?!" Onizuka Ryuji almost collapsed.

Don't hit me or scold me, "just" want me to have a right arm? !

Are you f*cking a devil?

At this time, Charlie Wade continued to say without expression: "I'll give you the opportunity, but if you still resist, then I will abolish your two arms and let you even use the toilet and wipe your a in the future. No! I'll count three seconds, consider it yourself!"

Chapter 1697

Onitsuka Ryuji felt a deep chill, and hit the sky from the soles of his feet!

He had never seen Charlie Wade such a cruel person, not only was a bit perverted with strong strength, but even spoke with a cruel strength that was countless higher than that of the Bozou clan.

The rioters threaten others, it will always be you who are looking for death, and I will kill you and other unnutritious words.

It is possible that the throat is screaming dumb, but in the end there is no fight at all.

But isn't it like this in the arena? Three points rely on momentum, three points rely on face, and the remaining four points rely on the means of fighting for power.

But this guy, when he opened his mouth, he said lightly that he wanted his right arm? Is his arm like a motorcycle tire? Say you can remove one without blinking? !

Seeing that this kid was stubborn, Charlie Wade lost his patience and said coldly: "I originally wanted to leave you an arm, but you just didn't want to be on the road. If that's the case, don't blame me for being impolite."

Onitsuka Ryuji was guilty, but yelled hoarsely: "Asshole! You Chinese had better keep a low profile! This is Japan! It's Tokyo! Are you afraid that my brothers will hack you to death?!"

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently: "Your brothers? Are they all lying in the green belt."

Onizuka Ryuji said loudly, "We have five hundred people in the Bunkyo Runaway Group! One person can beat you into flesh with one punch! No matter how you dare to take care of Laozi's nostalgia, just wait for our Bunkyo Runaway Team to kill you!"

Charlie Wade snorted coldly: "Noisy! Don't talk about a Wenjing runaway group, even if your Heavenly King Laozi Yakuza team comes, I won't take it seriously."

Onitsuka Ryuji's legs were frightened by Charlie Wade's words!

What's the source of this guy? ! The Yakuza group also dare to speak with contempt? ! Is he really not afraid of death? !

He almost collapsed. He just wanted the evil star to leave quickly, so the tip of the knife pressed against the Chinese girl's neck and shouted nervously: "If you don't go away again, I will kill this woman!"

Charlie Wade said with a gloomy expression: "If you dare to hurt her today, I want everyone in the Wenjing gang to be buried together!"

Onizuka Ryuji is really going to collapse.

Why doesn't this person eat soft and hard? Moreover, looking at his posture when he speaks, it seems that if he really hurts this girl, he will really kill all the members of the Bunkyo gangster..

What kind of perversion is this? !

At this time, Charlie Wade had exhausted his patience. He grasped the zipper of the jacket with his fingers, twisted his fingertips lightly, and he directly took off the metal slider of the zipper.

However, Onizuka Ryuji didn't see the movements of his hands, thinking that Charlie Wade was just finishing his clothes.

Immediately afterwards, Charlie Wade shook his hand at Onizuka Ryuji. Before Onizuka Ryuji recovered, he felt a sharp pain in his right hand.

The pain immediately dissipated the power of his palm, and the dagger was involuntary. Fall to the ground!

He was shocked in his heart and looked at his right hand, only to find that a piece of metal zipper pull was inserted into the back of his right hand!

At this time, the girl seized the opportunity in time, her arms suddenly broke free of his restraints, and ran to Charlie Wade quickly.

At this time, Onizuka Longer didn't dare to come forward and chase him.

He looked at Charlie Wade in amazement. After hesitating for a second, he immediately held his right hand, turned his head and ran!

Because the Chinese girl was singing on the side of the road, facing the sidewalk, now Onizuka Ryuji ran in the opposite direction and rushed directly onto the road.

Chapter 1698

Seeing that he was about to escape, Charlie Wade immediately took a step and chased him. The Chinese girl said nervously, "Sir, stop chasing, it's dangerous!"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "I have said that he should have two arms, and he can't break his words, so as not to let international friends laugh at us Chinese people are not talking!"

Onitsuka Ryuji heard Charlie Wade's remarks, his fear in his heart increased sharply, and he ran a little faster under his feet, almost trying his best to escape.

Just as he rushed to the middle of the road, a car suddenly couldn't get away, hit his lap and knocked him out at an angle.

After Onizuka Ryuji was hit, his whole person lost his balance completely, and he slumped to the side lane.

At this time, on the side lane, a convoy composed of Rolls-Royce was passing quickly.

Onitsuka Ryuji suddenly became uncontrollable and rushed in front of one of the Rolls-Royces. The Rolls-Royce was too late to dodge, and then rolled over his arms!

Hearing only two clear cracking sounds, the three-ton Rolls Royce directly broke Onitsuka Ryuji's arms!

Rolls-Royce braked, and then the entire Rolls-Royce team stopped.

In the Rolls-Royce car that broke Onitsuka Ryuji's arm, a young man with an angry expression came down. He was about twenty-six or seventy-seven years old. When he got out of the car, he angrily kicked between Onitsuka Ryuji's ribs. He screamed: "Bastard thing! Did you know there was a distinguished guest in my car?! It doesn't matter if you are dead, it shocked the distinguished guest in my car, and I threw you down!"

Onitsuka Ryuji's arms were crushed, and he wanted to die in pain, but being kicked over with this foot made him cough violently.

However, he raised his head weakly and saw the man kicking himself. He was so frightened that he cried and said, "Taka...Mr. Takahashi, I didn't deliberately hit you. I was caught by the man behind. Chasing and rushing to escape, only then fell under your wheels, please forgive me..."

The young man who walked down from the Rolls-Royce is the eldest master of the Takahashi family, Takahashi Eiki!

He had just picked up Fitz and Zara from Narita Airport and was about to escort them to the Aman Hotel where they were staying, but he didn't expect something like this to happen on the road!

Moreover, Fitz and Zara were in the same car with him. He was sitting in the co-pilot and proudly introduced to his siblings that there would never be a pedestrian running a red light in Tokyo when the driver suddenly ran into a red light. Onitsuka Ryuji who flees!

This incident simply slapped Takahashi Eiji in the face with lightning speed, and also shocked Fitz and Zara.

Fortunately, there is nothing wrong with the two of them. Otherwise, if it affects the cooperation and negotiation of the next two, wouldn't it be a mistake?

Therefore, he slammed on Onizuka Longer's body in anger and looked at Charlie Wade who was chasing him.

He pointed at Onizuka Ryuji at his feet, and asked Charlie Wade coldly, "Did you chase this person to the middle of the road?"

Charlie Wade frowned: "It's me, do you have an opinion?"

Takahashi Eiji angrily roared: "Enough to live, right? Do you know who I am?"

Charlie Wade squinted his eyes and snorted coldly: "I don't know who you are, and I don't bother to know who you are. I only know that the two arms of the person under your feet were reserved in advance by me just now. Now you broke his two arms, so you must give me a satisfactory explanation!"

Takahashi Eiji was stunned, and asked dumbfounded: "What did you just say?!"

Charlie Wade looked at him and asked contemptuously: "What? Didn't you hear what I just said? Seeing that you dress up like a dog, do you still suffer from intermittent deafness?"

Chapter 1699

At this moment, Takahashi Eiki almost exploded in anger.

He is the eldest son of the Takahashi family and the rising star of the Takahashi family. Not only does he have an extraordinary position in Tokyo, he can be regarded as widely known even in Japan.

To some extent, his status in Japan is very similar to that of the national husband who was very popular in the past few years.

Because of this, Eiji Takahashi's character has always been rebellious.

In his dictionary, there are no words for tolerance and bullying.

Seeing that this young man who was about his age ignored his majesty and identity, he choked with himself, and even questioned whether he had intermittent deafness. In his opinion, it was a death!

So, he immediately waved at the front and rear vehicles, and a dozen strong men in black suits immediately descended from a few Rolls-Royces. These people, without exception, are all bodyguards of the Takahashi family, and they are top masters.

The bodyguards got out of the car and surrounded Charlie Wade. Everyone stared at Charlie Wade and at the same time looked at Takahashi Yingji. As long as Takahashi Yingji said a word, they would attack Charlie Wade. At this time, Fitz and Zara in the car exchanged glances, and Fitz said: "There is no fraud in this matter, right?"

Zara shook his head: "It shouldn't be. If someone really wants to do something, they will never do it on the streets of downtown Tokyo, Japan. Isn't the viaduct from the airport to the city more suitable than here?" Fitz relaxed, smiled, and said, "Takahashi Yingji must have a hard time hanging on his face. Just after he said that no one ran the red light, he bumped into one."

After that, Fitz raised his eyebrows at Zara again: "I feel that Takahashi Hideki seems to be a little bit interesting to you. This kid is also very handsome. There are five people. Would you like to consider it?"

Zara said firmly: "I would never consider Japanese men."

"Why?" Fitz said: "Japanese men are at least similar to Chinese men, with less body hair and no body odor. If you change to men from Europe, America, Latin America, and Africa, that would be indescribable."

Zara curled his lips: "Don't say I haven't thought about falling in love now. Even if I fall in love, I must find a pure Chinese."

Fitz asked again: "Why?"

Zara said indifferently: "When two people get along, they have the same culture, the same tradition, the same habits, and the same cognition. It will save a lot of worry. If I tell my boyfriend, I want to go to Dunhuang to have a look. At Mogao Grottoes, he replied to me, "Where is Dunhuang? What is Mogao Grottoes?" I can slap him to death!"

Fitz laughed: "My dear sister, don't have such a strong character. Is it okay to beat your boyfriend at every turn in the future?"

Zara said: "I'm just making an analogy with you to let you know that Chinese men and Chinese women are the best combination, so you should never blindly pursue any foreign love in the future."

Fitz sighed and didn't want to continue talking about this topic.

Instead, he looked out the window and saw that Charlie Wade was surrounded by so many bodyguards, and his expression was not scared at all. He couldn't help but smile: "This Japanese guy It's kind of kind, surrounded by so many bodyguards, I'm not afraid at all."

Zara nodded and hummed: "Maybe your brain is not so good?"

Fitz smiled and said, "Don't say it, this Japanese guy is pretty handsome."

Zara smacked his lips: "Pray that he won't be beaten and disfigured by Hideki Takahashi later."

Fitz helplessly: "Why is your mouth so poisonous?"

Chapter 1700

Zara asked back: "Did you know me the first day?"

.....

At this moment, Takahashi Yingji was looking at Charlie Wade coldly. He wanted to give an order to let people beat Charlie Wade to death. However, after all, this place is near the University of Tokyo and a downtown area. So many people watched it. If it is done publicly, all kinds of public relations will be inevitable in the follow-up. In addition, there are two distinguished guests in the car, especially Zara, who are quite appetizing of her, and she has to maintain sufficient demeanor in front of her. If she shows the overbearing and violent side, it will definitely affect her impression of himself.

So, he looked at Charlie Wade, snorted, and said high up: "Boy, today is your luck, I don't want to be familiar with you, you kneel and knock me three heads, this matter is over!"

Charlie Wade seemed to hear Tianda's joke: "You seem to be a little confused about the situation. The crux of the problem now is that you still owe me two arms!"

"You..." Takahashi Eiji was really convinced, and he thought to himself:

"It's kind to give this kid a way to survive, but he ran into the road to death. If I take advantage of the situation to beat him, no one will Can't you blame me?"

Thinking of this, he gritted his teeth and said: "Good boy! I give you face, not to make you cheek! Since you don't want your face, then don't blame me for being polite!"

After speaking, he immediately shouted at the bodyguards: "Hit him!"

As soon as the voice fell, a thin girl suddenly rushed into the crowd, it was the Chinese girl who was playing and singing on the street.

The girl rushed in and stood in front of Charlie Wade, blurting out: "I'm sorry, this gentleman clashed with the mobster to protect me, and I hope you don't embarrass him!"

As she said, she bowed to everyone.

At this time, Charlie Wade directly stopped the girl and said lightly:

"These people are not worth your bow to them, go and wait."

"He is Eiji Takahashi..." The girl shed tears anxiously: "He is one of the most powerful second-generation rich in Tokyo. If you mess with him, you will have a lot of trouble!"

Charlie Wade said lightly: "I don't care if he is a high bridge, a low bridge, or a dangerous bridge. He owes me two arms today, and he must return it."

Having said that, Charlie Wade gently pushed her, and said: "Hurry and hide, otherwise if I am distracted and injured because of protecting you, you must be upset, right?"

The girl was pushed out by Charlie Wade and subconsciously wanted to break in again, but when she thought of Charlie Wade's words, she suddenly hesitated again.

She saw Charlie Wade's skill just now, knowing that Charlie Wade is not an ordinary person, maybe she has the ability to compete with these people, but if she is injured because of being distracted by herself, then she is really to blame!

Thinking of this, she had to stand aside nervously, the phone in her hand had already entered the alarm number, and planned to call the police as soon as the situation was wrong.

At this time, Zara in the Leslie car looked at Charlie Wade and couldn't help raising her eyebrows, and said to Fitz, "Hey, the Japanese guy in your mouth is actually a Chinese!"

Fitz sighed: "Since I am a Chinese, I should know the reason why a strong dragon does not suppress a snake. Why is it still against Takahashi Eiji? This kid has a bit of a tiger character..."

Zara shook his head and said regretfully: "This guy looks pretty good, but I didn't expect his brain to work well..."

Seeing that Charlie Wade was surrounded by so many bodyguards, Zara had determined in his heart that he was in a disaster today. However, she had no sympathy for Charlie Wade. Because she didn't see the whole cause of the incident, she only saw Charlie Wade desperately chasing a man on the road, causing the man to be hit by a car, and then his arms were broken by the car. Just so, it was already a bit bloody and cruel, and he didn't expect Charlie Wade to accept it before seeing it, and even argued with the young master of the Takahashi family. It was simply a brain problem. At this time, Eiji Takahashi saw that the time had been delayed for a long time, and his endurance had been completely exhausted. He immediately ordered his opponents: "Fight me! Only one breath left. Together with this person under my feet, they were thrown into the trash. Heap!"

More than ten bodyguards gathered around Charlie Wade for a long time, waiting for these words.

With an order from Takahashi Yingji, they quickly rushed to Charlie Wade, and everyone tried their best for fear of falling behind.

After all, Charlie Wade has only one person. In their eyes, this is the standard of more monks and porridge. Everyone is a top master. If anyone is a little slower, this kid may have fallen.

In that case, those who lag behind will have no chance to show their strength in front of the young master!

Seeing so many people surrounding Charlie Wade, Takahashi Hideyoshi suddenly shrank the encircling circle, and a sneer of mockery was wiped from the corner of his mouth.

"A Chinese man, dare to confront me with Eiji Takahashi on the streets of downtown Japan. Isn't this a death-seeking thing?"

"It's a pity that, as the eldest master of the Takahashi family, it is not convenient for me to personally shoot in front of so many people. Otherwise, I really want to destroy you by myself!"

Takahashi Yingji was expecting to see Charlie Wade's dying appearance immediately, but he didn't expect that a few screams of horror and pain suddenly came from the encircling circle surrounded by more than ten masters!

Immediately afterwards, several people on the periphery of the encirclement circle flew out one after another!

"what!"

"pain!"

"This kid, is he a monster?!"

Accompanied by these few hoarse roars, several people flew out, and then fell heavily to the ground.

One of them flew to the feet of Takahashi Eiji in a daze!

The subordinate was grabbed by Charlie Wade's and threw it out directly, so he lay heavily on Takahashi Yingji's feet, and with a bang, Takahashi Yingji was startled!

Immediately afterwards, the man raised his head with great difficulty, his forehead was already full of blood!

The man looked at Eiji Takahashi with extremely painful eyes, and said, "Young...Young master..."

Immediately after that, there was a pop, and a large cloud of blood mist was ejected from the mouth!

This large mass of blood mist was sprayed on Takahashi Eiji's vamp and trouser legs, and the white trousers were completely stained red with blood!

Takahashi Eiji hurried back half a meter in fright, and saw that his subordinate said in great pain, "Master...that bastard...ok... so awesome... ." After finishing talking, he lay down on the ground again with a loud boom, completely losing consciousness!

Takahashi Eiji felt that his brain was instantly energized with high voltage!

what happened? !

These bodyguards are top masters! Even the master of the master!

Why did he get down on the ground like a waste in front of that kid? !

Before he could understand the situation, several other people were also defeated by Charlie Wade one after another!

These so-called masters fell to the ground one after another, just like a bowling pin that was hit by a bowling ball.

Suddenly, besides Charlie Wade, only Yingji Takahashi stood alone.

Chapter 1702

Fitz and Zara in the car were also shocked!

Fitz swallowed his saliva and exclaimed: "This kid... is too strong?!"

Zara was also dumbfounded, and blurted out: "It is indeed a top expert, it seems that I underestimated him just now..."

At this moment, Charlie Wade had already put down all the bodyguards and walked towards Takahashi Yingji.

While Eiji Takahashi was trembling with fright and his legs were weak. He wanted to escape, only to find that his legs didn't listen at all.

And he knew very well in his heart that this guy was so powerful that he couldn't escape it...

So, he could only say in horror: "What do you want?! I tell you, I am the youngest of the Takahashi family!"

Charlie Wade went up and slapped Takahashi Yingji's face severely, and said coldly: "I care what bridge master you are, now let's talk about what you owe me two arms!"

Takahashi Eiji was dizzy by Charlie Wade's slap!

He grew up, he has always been spoiled, spoiled, and held in the palm of his hand by countless people like stars holding the moon. When has he been beaten?

Moreover, he was slapped in the street!

This is really shameful!

Hideki Takahashi clutched his swollen face, gritted his teeth and roared: "Asshole! Do you dare to hit me?! Beware that I want your life!"

Charlie Wade stretched out his hand and patted his face, and said faintly: "It's just a skin test for you. I said, you owe me two arms!"

After all, Charlie Wade didn't bother to talk nonsense with him, grabbing his right wrist directly, and shaking his hand was just a twist.

Immediately after hearing a "click", Takahashi Eiji's right arm had broken from the elbow, and his pain was so painful that he cried, his nose and tears flowed: "It hurts... my arm hurts so much. Up..."

Charlie Wade remained unmoved, and said: "This is just one piece, you still owe me one, come, stretch out your left hand!"

Takahashi Yingji was trembling in pain, and his face was extremely pale. He really realized that Charlie Wade hadn't joked with him this time.

Panicked, he knelt on the ground with his knees soft, crying and begging: "Brother, I'm sorry, it's me! I shouldn't be entangled with you, please forgive me, don't take my left arm It's also a waste...I beg you..."

Charlie Wade said with a grim expression: "Everyone is an adult, and you have to be brave enough to bear it, instead of kneeling down and begging for mercy!"

After speaking, Charlie Wade asked again: "Do you think that if you ask me, I will spare you?"

Takahashi Eiji was almost shocked.

What is this guy going to do?

Do you really want to scrap both of your arms?

In that case, wouldn't he be a useless person? What if I turn around and kill him?

Thinking of this, he wailed loudly, and pleaded with trepidation: "Sir, I am willing to pay you a sum of money, how about 100 million yen? As long as you nod your head, I will give you money!"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "Don't talk about these useless things, even if you give me 100 billion, you can't keep this arm."

At this time, Zara in the car couldn't stand it anymore, and said, "Brother, we can't just sit back and watch this matter, otherwise it won't be justified."

"Man?" Fitz blurted out: "Are you crazy? Didn't you see the strength of this kid? What if he even beats you?"

Zara said earnestly: "I'm going to reason with him, or know it with affection and move it with reason, otherwise we will sit in the car and watch Yingji Takahashi being deposed, which is not in line with the justice of the world."

"Oh, no! Safety first!"

Fitz was persuading, Zara had already opened the car door and went straight out!

Chapter 1703

Seeing that Charlie Wade didn't move at all, Takahashi Eiki felt that he was going to be cold today.

Because at this time, he is no longer available.

Even if it is now calling a master from the family to help, it is too late.

When Hideki Takahashi was desperate, the door of the Rolls Royce next to him suddenly opened.

Zara stepped out of the car and said to Charlie Wade: "This gentleman, you are Chinese. You have to be forgiving and forgiving. You don't understand the truth?"

Charlie Wade didn't expect that someone would dare to give this Takahashi Yingji a head start.

Moreover, she is still a woman.

He frowned and looked at Zara, and asked in a cold voice, "You should be Chinese too when I hear you? Why? Want to intercede for this little Japan?"

Zara said blankly, "I'm not pleading, I just advise you not to be a man, you should stay a line in everything."

Charlie Wade smiled and asked her: "Just now, he asked those dozen or so people to gang up on me, why didn't you stop me and persuade him to stay a line in everything?"

Zara was stunned by Charlie Wade's question.

Just now, a thought flashed in her mind, if Charlie Wade couldn't hold it and his life was in danger, she would definitely have to come down and stop Takahashi Yingji.

However, she knew very well in her heart that she would definitely not believe what she said now.

So she opened the mouth and said: "A dozen people beat you up, haven't you been injured? Since you are not injured, why don't you leave some room for the other party?"

Charlie Wade sneered and asked, "He doesn't give me room, why should I give it to him?"

Zara blurted out: "This gentleman, let's just talk about things. What happened just now was that you made a mistake first. This is the main road, not your back garden. You chasing and fighting people on this road are inherently wrong. First, and after that person was chased by you, he was finally crushed by this car."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Then I ask you, do you know why I chased that kid just now?"

Zara said coldly: "I don't know, I don't want to know, don't say anything else, you chase each other on the street, this itself is very rude."

Having said that, Zara said again: "You were wrong in this matter, but you did it to Mr. Takahashi for no reason, and you still attacked Mr. Takahashi for no reason. This is justified, right?"

Charlie Wade snorted: "Girl, I don't think you are like a treacherous person, why do you want to defend two Japanese? And there are still two scumbags?"

"Scum?" Zara asked back: "Then I ask you, why are the two scum in your mouth, one was chased by you and caused a car accident, the other was crippled by you?"

Charlie Wade said disdainfully: "The term superficial to describe person like you, could not be more appropriate!"

Zara was a little angry, but asked, "Hey, what did you say?! I'm superficial?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "Yes, and very superficial!"

After a pause, Charlie Wade said again: "The more superficial people, the more they believe what they see. Let's not talk about what evil this kid who was crushed by the car did, just say that this guy with the surname Takahashi, get off the car. Just pretend to be non-stop with me and let so many people work on me together. Do you think this person is innocent? If I were a little less skilled, I would have been beaten to death by those bodyguards a while ago!"

Zara's angry chest continued to rise and fall, and said angrily: "I just want you to be forgiving and forgiving. You have broken one of his arms. Isn't that enough?"

"Not enough!" Charlie Wade said blankly: "I just said, I have two!"
"you....."

Zara was really angry.

I didn't expect this kid to be so defiant!

Chapter 1704

In fact, she also knew that Eiji Takahashi had the current fate, and she was to blame.

But she still hoped that Charlie Wade could stop here by moving affection and reasoning, and don't really scrap both of Takahashi Yingji's arms.

Although Zara is not very old, she received elite education from a young age and stayed in the United States for many years, so she can be regarded as a standard business genius.

Therefore, she has an account in her heart for what she does.

For example, this time, as the representative of the Banks Family, I came to discuss cooperation with the Takahashi family. Before the cooperation was discussed, Takahashi Eiji was beaten as a useless person. If he sits idly by, it would be inappropriate to say anything about it. Not only does it seem that he is not very righteous, but it also affects the specific details and progress of the subsequent two talks about cooperation.

Therefore, she has come to stop her for emotions, reasoning, and interests.

Even if he didn't use it to block farts, Takahashi Yingji was still abandoned by Charlie Wade, at least he had tried hard, and he could have an explanation for his heart and the face of the Takahashi family. Of course, the best situation is that after he comes forward, the young man in front of him can give himself a face, and when he sees it, he will take care of Takahashi Eiji.

In this way, not only can I live well in my heart and face, the Takahashi family will also owe myself a favor. When I discuss the specific details of the cooperation later, I can even use this to ask the Takahashi family to sell more. Multiple benefits.

However, what she did not expect was that the hostility in this kid's temper was so heavy!

Seeing his posture, he must abolish Takahashi Eiji!

So, she suppressed the anger in her heart and said: "This gentleman, I am Za..."

Before she finished speaking, Charlie Wade interrupted her directly and said with a little dissatisfaction: "This lady, you don't need to tell me who you are, and I don't want to know, let alone try to suppress me with your identity. Because even if you are a heavenly king, I won't give you half face in this matter today, have you heard clearly?"

Zara's mood was a bit untenable! Since childhood, no one has dared to speak to her in this tone. She has long been accustomed to the feeling of being respected and complimented wherever she goes, but she did not expect that the guy in front of her would really not give any face!

Even, I didn't even let myself finish speaking!

The urge in Zara's heart was immediately ignited by Charlie Wade. She snorted and said angrily: "I'll take care of this matter today! If you dare to move him, I will definitely make you regret it! "

Charlie Wade smiled playfully: "Make me regret?"

Zara said confidently: "Yes!"

As soon as Zara finished speaking, she heard a click from the side, and then, Takahashi Hideki's miserable cry came out!

She immediately looked at Takahashi Yingji, and saw that his left arm had obviously been twisted by Charlie Wade, now with both arms shrugged in front of her, crying loudly in pain!

Zara looked at Charlie Wade angrily, and shouted: "What the hell is going on with you? You must have trouble with me?"

Charlie Wade shook his head: "Don't be affectionate. I don't know you at all. Why should I have trouble with you? You are air in my eyes."

After all, Charlie Wade didn't bother to look at the two of them again, took back all the money he had robbed from the singing girl from the pocket of Onizuka Longer who was lying on the ground, and then turned around and came to the singing girl.

"Take the money away and don't come out to play or sing in the future." The girl whimpered with grateful tears and choked: "I'm sorry, I'm causing you trouble..."

Charlie Wade shook his head and said, "If you are in a foreign country, you must take care of yourself. I'm leaving."

After that, he turned and left the scene.

Zara was so angry that she clenched her fists, staring at his back and shouted: "Asshole, stop for me!"

Chapter 1705

Hearing Zara's angrily shouting behind him, Charlie Wade dismissed it without turning his head.

Zara grew up so big and had never been so despised, so he was naturally very angry.

There are almost no girls in the Eastcliff wealthy family who are not self-righteous, but they are just about the importance.

Zara is regarded as the top existence in Eastcliff, and even among the wealthy daughters in the country. Therefore, both self-esteem and self-righteousness are slightly higher than ordinary people.

Therefore, being despised by Charlie Wade without looking back, made her whole popularity stomped straight.

However, she was also very clear in her heart that she was not Charlie Wade's opponent at all, and she was not familiar with her life in Tokyo. There was no other way except to get angry.

Just as Zara was very angry, Takahashi Yingji shrugged his two broken arms and came to Zara and the girl who sang and sang. His expression was extremely gloomy, staring at the girl who sang and sang, and asked viciously: "Say! Who is that guy?! What is his name, where does he live, and what is his background?!"

The girl said with some horror: "I don't know that gentleman..."

"Fart!" Takahashi yelled angrily: "Do you think I'm a three-year-old kid? You don't know if you don't know me? If you don't tell me honestly, I will kill you!"

Zara glared at him and said coldly, "Mr. Takahashi, it's not appropriate to yell at a little girl, right?"

Takahashi Eiji came back to his senses a little bit, suppressing the anger in his heart, gritted his teeth and said: "Miss Banks, you saw it just now, that bastard took my arms!"

Zara said blankly: "Yes, I saw it. It was the man who abolished your arm just now. What does it have to do with this little girl? You don't know what is wronged and indebted? Let's talk about it. , The injury on your arm can be recovered after three or five months of cultivation after a plaster cast. Is it such a lack of grace?"

"No manner?!" Takahashi Eiji couldn't hide his anger: "This girl is obviously related to that man, as long as she honestly tells me the man's information, I will naturally not embarrass her!"

Zara glared at him and said angrily: "This girl has said enough. If you don't know that man, don't you understand?"

Takahashi Eiji said angrily, "Who knows if she is lying!"

Zara said coldly: "Whether she is lying or not has nothing to do with you. If you want to ask for more details, you can ask others for advice. If others tell you, it's your duty. Don't tell you. It threatens the personal safety of others at every turn. Don't you remember what happened just now?"

Hideki Takahashi's expression was hard to look at all of a sudden. He knew that Zara was reminding himself not to be too arrogant. The reason why he offended the man just now was entirely because he was too arrogant. Not only did he curse, he also asked the bodyguard to do it. It ended up like this.

Zara's words made him feel very shameless on his face.

However, on the one hand, because the Banks Family behind Zara is much stronger than the Takahashi family, on the other hand, because he has a good impression of Zara, he can only suppress the anger in his heart at this time.

Zara asked the singing girl: "Girl, you just said you didn't know that man, then why did he help you out? I think he took some money from the person who was hit by the car just now. about you?"

The girl said seriously: "I can tell you clearly, that gentleman is a good person!"

"I was playing and singing on the side of the road, and no one cared about it. The gentleman gave me 100,000 yen, and then the mob went around with a few violent elements, grabbed my money and guitar, and asked me to accompany me. They went to drink, the gentleman saved me!"

Zara frowned, "Is the man who was hit by the car a runaway?"

Chapter 1706

"Yes!" The girl nodded and continued: "They are all members of the runaway group. The gentleman saw the uneven road and injured several other violent elements. Then the runaway clan who was hit by the car took a knife. Because of me, the gentleman knocked down his knife and I was spared."

"Then the violent race was about to run away, and the gentleman chased him out, causing him to be hit by a car. You know the rest."

After hearing this, Zara was stunned. She did not expect that the plot would be reversed so quickly! The rebellious and brutal young man just now was actually trying to save an innocent girl from the hands of the members of the runaway group. Moreover, that little girl is still a Chinese compatriot!

She could even imagine that if it weren't for the man to rescue her today, this Chinese girl in a foreign country would definitely be harmed by the Japanese mobsters, and might even be abused by them! No wonder, that man shot so hard! If you were yourself, you would want to abolish these people!

Takahashi Eiji was still yelling at the other party in anger, and even let a dozen bodyguards go up and besiege the other party. From this point of view, it is not too much to have two arms scrapped!

At this moment, Zara's anger at Charlie Wade's heart disappeared instantly.

So, Zara looked at the girl and asked, "Do you know what the other party is from? Which runaway group is from?"

The girl hurriedly replied: "It's the Bunkyo Runaway Group, the biggest violent group in Bunkyo District!"

"Bunkyo Runaway Group?" Zara looked at Takahashi Eiji, and asked coldly, "Bunkyo Runaway Group should be an external force of your Takahashi family, right? They grabbed money from a singing girl in the street and forced others to accompany him. This is too much, right?"

Takahashi Eiji's expression was shocked, and then he couldn't hide his embarrassment and said: "Miss Banks, where did you hear the rumor? Our Takahashi family has nothing to do with the runaway group.."

Zara snorted and said: "Mr. Takahashi, I have investigated it clearly before I came here. Your Takahashi family started from the gray world in the early years, but later you didn't go to the black, and then washed the white in time. The transformation is very successful again!"

After that, Zara said again: "I know that more than half of the runaway groups in Tokyo and the surrounding areas are under your family's control, but you are very smart and did not let the Takahashi family directly control these runaways. The regiment, instead of using some distant relatives with foreign surnames, right?"

Takahashi Eiki said embarrassingly: "That..Miss Banks..These runaway groups are indeed managed by our foreign relatives, but our Takahashi family has long since ignored this business."

Zara snorted coldly: "Mr. Takahashi, everyone is an adult. Don't think of me as a fool! The reason why this happened today and the reason your arm was scrapped is entirely because of your family. Tolerate the fate caused by the rampant group's nonsense!"

Hideki Takahashi was speechless and wanted to refute, but he couldn't find a reason to refute. Zara pointed to the Chinese girl and said to Takahashi Eiji: "Mr. Takahashi, this lady has nothing to do with this matter. I hope you will not trouble her in the future. Can you do it?"

Hideki Takahashi knew that he was wrong, and did not dare to offend Zara, so he nodded sadly: "Miss Banks, please rest assured, I will never embarrass her in the future..."

Chapter 1707

At this time, Takahashi Eiji was already angry inside.

He wanted to find a clue about the man from this Chinese girl, but he didn't expect that the girl didn't even know each other!

Takahashi Eiji knew in his heart that what the girl said was definitely not a lie, so I was afraid that it would not be so easy to find that man to settle accounts.

However, what is more important right now is to send someone from the family to the hotel, and to the hospital with Zara and Fitz.

Zara ignored Takahashi Eiji who had abandoned his arms. Instead, she helped the Chinese girl put the guitar away, then gave the other party a business card, and said seriously: "Girl, if anyone from now on, dare to do what happened today If you are in trouble, call me immediately. In addition, give my phone number to the person you trust most. If you are in trouble and can't call me in time, let the person you trust most call me."

Zara's words are more for Takahashi Hideki.

She knew that she would stay in Japan for a week at most. What if Takahashi Eiji waited for her to retaliate with this girl after she left Japan?

Therefore, I must make Takahashi Eiji hesitate.

With what he said just now, Takahashi Hideki would never provoke this girl again, because the energy of the Banks Familyy was definitely not something they could contend.

What's more, the Takahashi family is bent on reaching a cooperation with the Banks Familyy, and he has said it all. If he dares to trouble this girl, it can only show that Takahashi Eiji is mentally retarded.

Takahashi Hideyoshi naturally knew what Zara meant in his heart, and he was very uncomfortable because he couldn't come up with a depressed breath.

However, no matter how uncomfortable, you have to endure it.

As a result, he could only find a subordinate who could still make a call, and asked him to call home quickly.

Ten minutes later, the Takahashi family brought dozens of cars.

Headed by the head of the Takahashi family, Takahashi Eiji's father, Machi Takahashi.

Before Machi Takahashi got out of the car, he was shocked by the tragic sight in front of him and could not speak.

More than a dozen bodyguards were staggering everywhere, and traffic was even blocked because of them.

His own son's face was swollen and half of his face was drawn. What's worse, his two arms had completely lost control, and he was shrugging pitifully.

With a dark face, he apologized to Zara and Fitz first, and sent someone to send them and their entourage to the hotel.

Arranged for the Banks Familyy, he then ordered people to take his son and other people into the car and go to the hospital.

On the way, Maki Takahashi asked Eiji Takahashi carefully about the whole process. After listening, he was even more speechless.

After a while, he slapped the central armrest of the car fiercely, and shouted angrily: "What a jerk! A Chinese dare to hurt my son and a dozen bodyguards in Tokyo. This is a trampling on the dignity of my Takahashi family!"

Takahashi Hideki was also furious and choked and said, "Father, you must find that Chinese and kill him to avenge me!"

Takahashi nodded and said coldly: "Don't worry, I will let the wind go and let people find out his whereabouts!"

Takahashi Eiji couldn't wait to say: "Father, find him, I will kill him myself!"

"Personally?" Takahashi asked with a frown, "Can you still kill with your current hand?"

"Uh..." When Eiji Takahashi heard this, he cried and said, "Then I will let someone tie a knife to the sole of my shoe! Anyway, I must kill him myself!"

Chapter 1708

Jinzhi Takahashi nodded and said, "But we can't be too fanciful about this matter. After all, we still have to discuss cooperation with the Banks Familyy. If we want to find the Chinese in Tokyo and kill him, the Banks Familyy's There will definitely be minor words in my heart!"

Takahashi Eiji suddenly panicked: "Dad! Are you going to let the bastard off?!"

Takahashi said coldly: "Don't worry, I will never let him go. I will let people find him first, and then let the top ninja of the family watch him secretly. No matter where he goes, he will follow him all the way. After the dust settles on our cooperation with the Banks Familyy, we will catch that guy and quietly bring him back to Tokyo, let you execute him yourself!"

Hearing this, Takahashi Hideyoshi really felt relieved.

He can endure for a while for the cooperation between the clan and the Banks clan, but he must not let him go.

He was relieved to hear what his father said.

As long as you can kill Charlie Wade personally, you can wait a few more days!

Moreover, he believed that his top ninja, Charlie Wade could never be their opponent!

.....

After Charlie Wade left near the University of Tokyo, he went directly to Ichiro Kobayashi's home.

He didn't know that at this moment, he was completely popular on short video software in Japan.

Just now, someone who had something good taught him to the Mozou clan, and the video of him disposing of Takahashi Hideki was filmed and then uploaded to the short video software.

This time, the whole of Japan was shocked!

No one thought that a Chinese person could have such a strong strength, one person defeated almost 20 people in a row, it was incredible!

What's more, what makes Japanese people even more unbelievable is that this person dared to do something on Eiji Takahashi on the streets of Tokyo!

As Japan's top rich second-generation and Japanese national husband, who doesn't know Takahashi Eiji?

He was beaten up as a ghost on the streets of Tokyo. This is simply the most explosive news in Japan in recent times!

In this video, Charlie Wade and Takahashi Eiji, because it was late and the mobile phone video was not very clear, they could only take 50% of their looks clearly, and the quality was comparable to those videos released by paparazzi night celebrities. The photos are similar.

However, Rao's picture is enough for the Japanese people to recognize Takahashi Eiji.

As for Charlie Wade, because the Japanese people didn't have any idea about him, so when the video was released, the Japanese couldn't recognize him.

However, if you are a little familiar with Charlie Wade, you can still recognize Charlie Wade's identity from this video.

Ito Yuhiko was sitting in his study at this time, bored with a Cuban cigar and a glass of Scotch in his hand.

He was still annoyed at the first meeting of the Banks Family with the Takahashi family, and even more worried about Charlie Wade, his mood was naturally bad.

At this time, Tanaka Hiroshi rushed in without knocking on the door suddenly, and said anxiously: "My Mr. Ito, something has happened!"

Ito Yuhiko scolded annoyedly: "What big thing can make you mess like this?! What kind of style?!"

Hiroshi Tanaka didn't have time to explain, he hurriedly handed the phone to him, clicked play, and said, "Let's take a look, it's the big news of the Takahashi family!"

Chapter 1709

"Big news from the Takahashi family?!"

As soon as Ito heard this, he immediately glared: "Damn! What big news?

Did the Banks Family announce their cooperation with them so soon?

Shouldn't it, the Banks Family should have just landed in Tokyo, how could it be? Are you making a decision so quickly? Don't these beasts plan to meet us?"

Hiroshi Tanaka hurriedly said: "It's not this news, it's Takahashi Hideki who was scrapped on the street!"

"Takahashi Eiji was abolished?!" Ito Yuihiko blurted out like a lightning strike, "Who did it?"

In his impression, there are only a handful of people in Tokyo who dare to act on Takahashi Eiji.

If you want to do it yourself, you will be frustrated. After all, the gap between the Ito family and the Takahashi family is not too big. If you really do it on Takahashi, it is almost equivalent to declaring war on the Takahashi family.

Therefore, except for Takahashi Eiji's old son, Ito Yuhiko can't think of anyone else who would dare to attack him.

So, he quickly looked at Koichi Tanaka's cell phone, wanting to see who was so kind.

It didn't matter at this look, Ito was trembling with fright. He couldn't hold his fingers firmly, and the cigar fell out of his hand and fell on his pants. He immediately burned a hole in his expensive hand-sewn suit pants.

Ito Xiuhiko didn't care about feeling distressed, grabbed the cigar and threw it aside, pointed at the evil-looking man on the phone, and blurted out: "This...this...isn't this Charlie Wade Wade? ?!"

Although I only met Charlie Wade that time, Ito Xiuhiko remembered his appearance clearly.

This may be the power of hatred.

After all, Charlie Wade's face not only means humiliation to Ito Takehiko, but also represents a huge sum of US$4.5 billion!

He can recognize it really turned into ashes!

Seeing Charlie Wade in the video, continuously flipping Takahashi Eiji's more than a dozen bodyguards, and then abolished Takahashi Eiji's arms, Ito Yuhiko couldn't help but feel his back chills.

Only then did he realize how strong Charlie Wade is! Last time, he just abolished my two bodyguards. This time, he simply scrapped a dozen of Takahashi Eiji's bodyguards in one go! With this strength, the average ninjutsu master is not an opponent either! While surprised, deep in his heart he couldn't help but fear. Fortunately, he didn't make Charlie Wade anxious that day. Otherwise, just like Charlie Wade's violent temper, wouldn't he just hammer himself half to death?

Takahashi Eiji is a young man. He has a little physical resistance. He is too old, and he is really guilty of him. I am afraid that he will go directly to see Amaterasu in one or two rounds!

After a while of fear, Ito Takehiko was also a little gloating.

He watched Takahashi Eiji's screaming again and again, a smile appeared at the corner of his mouth, and then reached out to drag the progress bar, and replayed Takahashi Eiji's unlucky process again, and the smile on the corners of his mouth became even stronger.

Chapter 1710

Immediately afterwards, he played it again, and the smile at the corner of his mouth became more intense.

After watching it a dozen times in a row, Ito Yuihiko smiled: "Okay, the Takahashi family also has today! After this video has become popular throughout Japan, don't want the faces of their Takahashi family!"

Hiroshi Tanaka nodded and said: "Now this video has become a hit on all major online and video platforms in Japan, and the reputation of the Takahashi family will definitely suffer a severe setback!"

"Very good!" Takehiko Ito exhaled happily and said: "Oh, seeing this video makes me feel much better!"

After that, he remembered something, and said: "The Takahashi family and I have never dealt with each other, but this time we finally have a common enemy!"

Hiroshi Tanaka said in a hurry: "My Mr. Ito, are you trying to deal with Charlie Wade together with the Takahashi family?"

"Of course not!" Ito said with lingering fear: "I am different from the Takahashi family. Takahashi Eiji was beaten up in the street by Charlie Wade. It is known throughout the country. In contrast, I was much better. I was at Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall that day. Although I suffered a big loss, at any rate, I closed the door and suffered a loss without letting the people across the country know..."

Tanaka was stunned for a while.

Unexpectedly, the guild leader, who has always been staunch personality, would be so self-comforting...

At this time, Takehiko Ito said enthusiastically: "This incident is bound to affect the impression and attitude of the Banks Family towards the Takahashi family. This is a great thing for us!"

"That's true." Hiroshi Tanaka nodded again and again, and said: "This time the Takahashi family has not only suffered damage to their reputation, but also their ability. After all, they can be beaten like this at their own door. The Banks Family must be honest They are cooperating in ocean transportation and they will definitely worry that the Takahashi family will not be able to protect this business."

Ito Yuihiko smiled and said, "Hahaha, this is really the one thing that makes me most happy in recent times!"

When Hiroshi Tanaka saw that Ito Takehiko was in a better mood, he was relieved and said with a smile: "Mr. Ito, I have received news that the Takahashi family is now inquiring about Charlie Wade's identity. I guess they still want to find out and take revenge."

Ito Yuihiko asked, "What do you think about this? Do you think the Takahashi family can beat Charlie Wade?"

When Tanaka thought of the tremendous shock and horror that Charlie Wade had brought to him, he said: "I really can't say this. I always have a feeling for Charlie Wade... It feels like what we see is just him. The tip of the iceberg!"

Ito Yuihiko frowned: "What? Do you think that even if the Takahashi family gives it all, it is impossible to beat Charlie Wade?"

Tanaka Hao nodded and said truthfully: "My guild grows, the masters make tricks. Whoever is stronger will have the last laugh. Charlie Wade's strength lies here. A dozen top masters can't match him, Takahashi How does the family fight him?"

Ito Yuihiko sneered and said: "Don't forget, the Takahashi family also enshrines several top ninjas. My Japanese ninjutsu is so powerful, Charlie Wade can't be their opponent!"

Koichi Tanaka reminded: "The president, even the top ninja we worship, may not be able to defeat Takahashi Eiji's dozen personal bodyguards so easily, right? Even if it can be played, I am afraid it will be a terrible victory, but Charlie Wade , It's just one-sided crushing..."

With that, Koichi Tanaka pulled the video progress bar back to the scene where Charlie Wade singled out a dozen bodyguards against Takahashi Eiji. He pointed to the video and said to Takehiko Ito: "Sir, look, these dozen people are in Charlie Wade. In front of him, even chickens, ducks and geese can't compare with them. They almost knocked down one with a punch, kicked one with one kick!"

"Even when the chickens, ducks and geese are beaten by someone, they can still jump up and peck twice, but these so-called masters are absolutely waste in front of Charlie Wade!"

"Uh..." Ito Takehiko's expression gradually became more serious.

In the video, Charlie Wade's strength is really terrifying.

It seems that these dozen masters, who are not human at all, were directly ravaged by his cruel and inhuman madness...

Thinking of this, he looked at Koichi Tanaka sadly, and asked helplessly:

"Tanaka, you said our 4.5 billion US dollars, can we still ask for it back?!"

Chapter 1711

"This one....."

When Hiroshi Tanaka faced Ito's problem, he immediately fell into a dilemma. How should I answer? Can the answer come back? If you don't come back by any chance, do you have to take the blame? Will the answer come back?

Even if it was Ito Yuhiko, he would run away immediately! It seems that this question is really difficult to answer. Seeing that he was stubbornly speechless, Ito shook his heart, and blurted out, "You don't think that 80% of the money will come back, right?"

Hiroshi Tanaka quickly explained: "It's not that you will grow up. I don't think it will be so pessimistic. This matter is for me now. Can I come back? It should be 50-50!"

"50-50?" Ito Yuihiko said angrily, "What the hell is the difference between not telling me?"

Hiroshi Tanaka said in a hurry: "Mr. Ito, there are indeed many uncertainties in this matter. I am not ready to make a conclusion now, but don't forget, no matter how bad, we can still solve the problem through litigation."

"Proceedings?" Ito pointed at Hiroshi Tanaka and cursed: "You let the dog eat your brain? Takahashi Eiji was abolished by Charlie Wade in the street and has become the laughing stock of all Japan. If I f*cking sue him for occupying me forty-five Wouldn't it be even more laughed at by the whole of Japan if we don't give 100 million dollars?!"

Hiroshi Tanaka said embarrassingly: "Mr. Ito, this is 4.5 billion US dollars. We can't really admit it because we are afraid of being laughed at? The whole family's annual net profit can't reach this number... .."

"Yeah..." Ito said in a painful voice: "The recent economic downturn, our overall net profit last year was only more than 300 million US dollars. If there is not much improvement this year, maybe it will in loss."

For large families or large companies, losses are common.

For example, the domestic Zotye Automobile, their financial report shows that they have lost more than 10 billion Dollar in a year in 2019.

The American General Motors Corporation, which is also in the automotive industry, has suffered losses due to poor management for years. In GM's 100-year history, the worst year is a direct loss of 38.7 billion US dollars!

The international economic situation has been cold in the past two years, and the pressure on Ito Takehiko has been even greater.

In this market environment, the development prospects of medical and health companies are actually the broadest, because people may not buy cars or houses, but they have to buy medicines.

Because of this, he decided to do everything possible to invest in Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall.

Unexpectedly, he stepped into a deep pit.

Now that 4.5 billion dollars fell into the pit and can't get it back, I remember him scratching his heart.

Seeing that Ito was extremely depressed, Tanaka Hiroshi hurriedly persuaded: "My lord, in fact, you don't have to worry about it now. We are different from the Takahashi family. The Takahashi family doesn't even know who Charlie Wade is, but we at least know Charlie Wade's. In the bottom line, knowing that he is the current owner of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals and he is in Aurouss Hilll, China, and he stepped back and said that even if we had to meet each other in the end, we would be able to find him. The Takahashi family is different. They may not even be able to find him."

"Yes!" Ito Yuihiko suddenly felt his eyes light up and blurted out: "I just want them to find it! As long as they can't find Charlie Wade, they will always be the laughing stock of Japan! Hahaha, it's so happy!"

After that, Ito Yuhiko stood up immediately, lit another cigar excitedly, and took a sip, then smiled and said, "Tanaka, in my name, send a bunch of flowers and a fruit to the Takahashi family. The basket went over and said it was a sympathy and disgusted them! Hahaha!"

Chapter 1712

"Good Mr. Ito!"

.....

At this moment, Nanako Ito, who is far away in Kyoto, is still sitting in the courtyard waiting for the heavy snow that I don't know if it will come.

There was a sudden vibration from the phone in her pocket. After she opened it, she found that it was a push notification popped up by the software, with the title: "Takahashi Eiji was beaten up in the street by someone in Tokyo, and his arms were abolished!"

Nanako Ito couldn't help being surprised, and thought to herself: "Takahashi Eiji is very famous in Tokyo, why would anyone act on him in the street?"

However, she didn't have much interest in Takahashi Eiji, and didn't want to care about these gossips, so she didn't click on it.

However, as soon as the screen of the phone was locked, it immediately lit up again, and it was a push from another software. The title was similar to the one just now, except that this one added: "The mysterious man is superb and can be called the god of war!"

Nanako Ito, who has a deep love for fighting and martial arts, immediately cheered up.

She really wanted to see how powerful the mysterious person who was called the god of war by the Japanese media really is!

Later, she turned on the phone and played the video. Charlie Wade was surrounded by the crowd, and when she couldn't see anyone, Nanako Ito felt very calm.

When several people were quickly knocked into the air, her expression showed unconcealable shock, and she murmured: "Takahashi Eiji's bodyguard can't be a waiting person. It can be seen that this person is really strong! "

Then, she suddenly uttered an ah, the phone couldn't be held firmly, and she fell to the ground with a snap.

She hurriedly bent over to pick it up. Fortunately, the ground in the yard was not hard and the phone was not damaged. So she picked up the phone and couldn't wait to continue to look at it, her expression became more horrified and excited!

She blurted out excitedly: "Charlie Wade...It's really Charlie Wade!"

At this time, Nanako Ito has become a star chaser girl. And Charlie Wade is her idol! Therefore, as long as she saw Charlie Wade, she couldn't hide the excitement in her heart! What's more, Charlie Wade in the video is so elegant, so chic, and so domineering!

Nanako Ito, who has always been as quiet as still water, got up, the nympho who couldn't control it, and said to herself in surprise: "Charlie Wade is really handsome and powerful! This kind of strength is indeed a master of martial arts! No wonder! Can beat Yamamoto Kazuki-sensei with a single palm. With his strength, even if five Yamamoto Kazuki-sensei attack him at the same time, I am afraid it will not be difficult to win!"

With the extreme excitement of the young woman, Nanako Ito watched the video several times over and over again. At this moment, she couldn't wait to rush back to Tokyo immediately and try her best to meet Charlie Wade!

However, after a while, she gave up the idea again.

She knew that after Charlie Wade abolished Takahashi Yingji, he would have to face the Takahashi family's targeting, and his father also had conflicts with him. If she went to him at this time, let alone whether he had the energy to see himself. Just going to see him by yourself is likely to bring trouble to him!

Nanako Ito looked at the sky and murmured: "I only hope that Charlie Wade can leave Tokyo and Japan in peace. As for whether I can see him again, his safety is far less important than his safety. I hope God will bless you and Charlie Wade will never meet him. Danger....."

Chapter 1713

That night. The whole Tokyo runaway group united unprecedentedly. In the past, they were fighting each other, even competing, antagonizing, and fighting each other while guarding a site. Now they all have become comrades-in-arms. Everyone held hands together and searched through the carpet, just to find the whereabouts of the mysterious man who abolished Takahashi Eiji.

However, the instruction they received was not to hack the man, but to report his whereabouts to the Takahashi family immediately. As long as the exact clue is found, one million dollars will be given.

The mobsters usually don't have many opportunities to make money. They either collect some protection fees on Fengyue Street, or they are doing some chicken business, and their income is actually very low. In Japan, how can you be considered a successful mobster?

In fact, it's very simple. It is enough to have a large displacement motorcycle. Because in the eyes of the rioters, a good motorcycle is simply the standard equipment for the successful rioters. It's like an ancient warrior has a good horse.

However, most of the mobsters barely make ends meet, and simply cannot afford the cost of large-displacement motorcycles. Therefore, they have to walk, or take buses or subways, to fight with others on the streets. As for why not to take a taxi, it is because the taxi fare in Japan is surprisingly expensive. The mobsters go out for a fight. Before they get to the place, the taxi fare may have been over 1,000 Dollar, far exceeding their consumption ability. Because of this, they are desperate for money. One million dollars, even if it is divided among several people or dozens of people, it is a very objective figure in the hands of individuals. Therefore, these rioters all took to the street with their own brains, holding their mobile phones, while playing the video of Takahashi Eiji being beaten, while looking for Charlie Wade in the video. But they didn't dare to search with great fanfare, they only dared to search with their eyes quietly, because they knew that this man was incredibly powerful. If you see him, you must not hesitate, turn around and run, and report to the Takahashi family while running. That's it. At the same time, several ninjutsu masters enshrined by the Takahashi family also penetrated into the night wearing night clothes. They are extremely good at concealing body shape and breath, and they are very good at secretly searching and tracking. They are one of the few masters who can truly pass by without leaving marks. For top ninjutsu masters, it is completely possible for people to run in front and let top police dogs chase behind. In a few steps, the police dogs will lose all clues. However, although they are good at hiding their whereabouts, when it comes to attack power, they are still much worse than Chinese martial arts masters and internal masters. But then again, although their absolute strength may not be comparable to China's domestic masters, their overall combat effectiveness should not be underestimated. Because they are very good at using fatal blows, such as very good at using poisoned daggers, darts, and blow arrows. They like sneak attacks and give opponents a surprise. Therefore, if the average master is slightly less vigilant, it is really possible that they will follow their way, and maybe they will die when it is unclear. The task of these ninjutsu masters is to find Charlie Wade and monitor him secretly. After the Banks Family leaves Japan, or before Charlie Wade leaves Japan, they will kill him.

Chapter 1714

However, it was not easy for these ninjutsu masters to find Charlie Wade. Charlie Wade left no clues at the scene. They could only check Charlie Wade's whereabouts through the Tokyo monitoring system first.

.....

late at night. The first batch of raw materials prepared by Mr. Quinton arrived in Tokyo.

After the plane landed, it was unloaded and cleared immediately, and then shipped to the production line of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall at the fastest speed.

Since Liam and Ichiro Kobayashi have been training at the Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall Tokyo production base for a day, after the raw materials arrived at the base, they immediately entered the workshop and started producing Nova Dias.

In addition, Liam followed Charlie Wade's request and applied to the Japanese Drug Administration to directly change the name of Niranex to Nova Dias.

In this way, after successful trial production, Nova Dias can be put on the market directly in Japan and in the countries where Nova Dias has covered it.

During the trial production, Cameron Isaac asked his subordinates to drive him and come to Ichiro Kobayashi's house to pick Charlie Wade to the scene.

As soon as Charlie Wade got on the car, Cameron Isaac said nervously: "Master, why are you choking with the young master of the Takahashi family?"

Charlie Wade frowned and asked, "How did you know?"

Cameron Isaac hurriedly said: "Someone took a video of you teaching him and posted it on the Internet. Now it's spread all over Japan! You are hot in Japan!"

Charlie Wade frowned: "It has been spread throughout Japan within two hours?"

Cameron Isaac helplessly: "Master, think about how fast the cross talk between Mrr.. Lloyd and Marcus was spread on our domestic short video platform! We have more than one billion people in China, and that cross talk is not half It's been all over the country since just a few hours..."

Charlie Wade shrugged and said, "After all, our domestic Internet industry is very powerful, but is the Japanese Internet so developed?"

Cameron Isaac sighed and said, "Master, even if Japan hasn't done much in the past few years, it is still an established developed country.

Although their Internet is not as developed as ours, the video entertainment sector is still good. Young people have nothing to do all day long, except for drinking, eating and shopping, just playing with mobile phones."

As he said, he pointed to a few young boys walking side by side on the side of the road outside the window, and said, "Master, look at those little bastards. You just walked and looked at the phone. He didn't even take the road to watch. Several people in Tokyo have to kill several times a day. I guess the eight achievements of these people are watching your video!"

Charlie Wade asked, "Do you have any Japanese short video software? Find out and let me see it."

Cameron Isaac hurriedly took out his phone, found out the video and passed it to Charlie Wade: "Look, master."

Charlie Wade looked at the video and found that he was blurry in the video. This was a relief, and said: "Fortunately, the filming is not very clear, otherwise it will be troublesome if an acquaintance sees it. I still talked to my wife before I came. It was about coming to Japan to help people watch Feng Shui. If she wants to see this video, she must ask me what happened."

Cameron Isaac said: "You can rest assured that Japanese software is not compatible with ours in China, and Japanese short videos have no influence in our country."

Charlie Wade asked him: "Are you sure?"

Cameron Isaac nodded: "Yes, on our domestic short video platform, there are only a small number of people who are doing content. Most of the rest are copied and copied by a bunch of birdmen. One piece is hot, I can't wait for it. Ten thousand people plagiarize, and there is either a bunch of ugly and poor stinky silks playing the rich second generation, or a bunch of scammers selling some broken fish and shrimp live on the beach." Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "Regardless of these people, you call Stephen Thompson, this video of mine can't be circulated to China in any case."

"Good master!"

Under Liam's overall management, the production line of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals quickly produced the finished Nova Dias Powder. Charlie Wade came to Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's production base in the suburbs of Tokyo and personally did a quality inspection. After confirming that the newly produced Oracle Nova Dias was no different from the Oracle Nova Dias produced in Aurouss Hilll, he told Liam: "Liam, you We must ensure that the Tokyo production line maintains the current speed, work overtime and overtime, keep people shutting down the machine, and quickly produce a large number of finished products."

"Okay Master Wade!" Liam nodded immediately and asked, "By the way, Master Wade, when will our Nova Dias be officially launched in Japan?" Charlie Wade said: "Don't worry about the official launch. We have to debug the production lines in Yokohama, Nagoya, and Osaka, and then accumulate a batch of finished products. At the same time, we must also prepare to advertise in Japan for consumers throughout Japan and even Asia. Everyone knows that Kobayashi's Niranex has been fully upgraded, the name has been changed to Nova Dias, and the prescription has been enhanced. The effect is at least ten times the previous one. After the campaign is completed, sales will begin."

Liam hurriedly said: "Good Master Wade, after I have sorted out the production lines, I will immediately start to promote things."

Charlie Wade snorted and said, "Since the trial production has been successful here, we can go to Yokohama tomorrow."

Liam nodded and said, "Master Wade, I will leave an engineer here to supervise. Let's leave early tomorrow morning!"

Charlie Wade turned to Ichiro Kobayashi next to him and said: "Give you a chance to come back. You must take good care of it. Whether you can rest easy in your life next depends on how you perform in Japan. These production lines must be given to you. I manage it well, otherwise, I will cut off your dividends and let you drink Northwest Wind."

Now, Ichiro Kobayashi has given 90% of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's shares to Charlie Wade, and his remaining 10% will not play a decisive role in Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall.

As the majority shareholder of Absolute Holdings, Charlie Wade has all decision-making powers over the company.

In other words, if Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall makes 10 billion Dollar this year, Charlie Wade wants to withdraw all the profits of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall and transfer it to Oracle Pharmaceutical, Ichiro Kobayashi has nothing to do.

When the time comes, all profits will be taken away, and naturally he won't be able to pay him a dime in dividends, and he will have nothing to do.

Therefore, his best choice now is to honestly work for Charlie Wade. In this way, after Charlie Wade asks Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall to make money through the production of Nova Dias Powder, he will also generously release a portion of the profit dividend to him. Make sure that he can enjoy the rich life in Japan without worrying about money for the rest of his life.

Ichiro Kobayashi has been imprisoned in the kennel for a long time in the dark, so he can be said to cherish his current life very much. Seeing Charlie Wade said this, he hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, don't worry, Ichiro will be your dog in the future. , Wherever you let me go, I will go, whatever you ask me to do, I will do it!"

Charlie Wade nodded in satisfaction.

Seeing that the on-site production is in order and the production quality is up to the standard, Charlie Wade did not stay too much. He said to Cameron Isaac and Liam: "Okay, let's go back to rest and go to Yokohama tomorrow."

.....

When leaving Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, Cameron Isaac walked quickly ahead and helped Charlie Wade open the car door.

Charlie Wade was about to get into the car, and when he first stepped one leg into the car, his figure suddenly stopped for a few seconds.

Cameron Isaac asked hurriedly, "Master, what's wrong with you?"

Charlie Wade frowned slightly, then said calmly: "It's okay, let's go."

After speaking, he got into the car. Subsequently, the convoy drove away from the scene neatly. At this time, on the roof of a building opposite Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, four men in black were lying side by side.

Chapter 1716

These four people were covered with black equipment from head to toe, black hats, black robes, black shoes, and even black gloves on their hands.

Moreover, this kind of black equipment is very different from ordinary black cloth. The ordinary black cloth is only black, but the black on their bodies is completely black, like a black hole.

In fact, the reason why this black equipment has this effect is mainly because a layer of ultra-black material with extremely low light refractive index is attached to the outside.

The scientific name of this super-black material is Vantablack. It is made of carbon nanotubes, and its reflectivity to light is only 0.035%, which is 3.5/10,000, which is the darkest material that humans have made so far.

The clothes are coated with this material. In a poorly lit environment, the naked eye is almost completely unclear. So for ninjas who are good at hiding, this high-tech material is simply their gospel. Wear such clothes The ability to hide them has increased exponentially.

At this moment, one of the men said: "Brother, the guy paused for a second before getting into the car. I looked through the binoculars. He seemed to be looking at us. Could we be discovered by him? "

The black-clothed man he called his senior said coldly: "You are just farting! The straight-line distance between us and him is more than 800 meters, even beyond the effective range of most sniper rifles, and our location, altitude About thirty meters taller than that guy, how could he find us?"

"That's right!" The man on the far left sneered, "This kid is nothing more than a little fight. It is estimated that he is a Chinese master, but the internal power of their master is not supernatural. At most, it is more powerful. No Maybe you can find us even this far away."

The person asked before, "Brother, the Patriarch does not let us do anything to him now, what shall we do now?"

The brother said, "My second son and I followed the convoy with a powered paraglider. You two drove, and the radio followed my command."

The other three agreed in unison.

Immediately afterwards, the brother and the other person pulled a set of powered paragliders also painted with super black material from the roof.

Afterwards, the two men started the engines of the paraglider, and after the dark paraglider was blown up by the wind, they took off directly from the roof and disappeared into the night.

At this moment, Charlie Wade in the car frowned.

Just before getting into the car, he keenly felt that there were people lurking around.

After all, he obtained the good fortune of the "Apocalyptic Book", and occasionally got spiritual stones and reiki in his body, and then used Rejuvenation Pills as snacks. Not to mention his strong strength, his perception ability is much stronger than ordinary people. .

Those four people were on the top of the building in the distance. Not only were they very hidden, they also controlled their breath very well, but they still didn't hide from Charlie Wade. Charlie Wade couldn't help thinking about it in his heart.

First of all, these four people are hiding in the dark, they must be unkind, and ninety-nine percent of them are coming on their own; Secondly, these four people should all be relatively strong masters, not ordinary people; Again, these four people are very good at hiding their whereabouts.

Therefore, based on the analysis of these three points, he felt that the four people should be the famous ninjutsu masters in Japan, that is, ninjas.

And their master must be the Takahashi family who he just offended!

Chapter 1717

At the same time, two dark silent paragliders are flying fast at an altitude of two hundred meters.

This silent paraglider uses a lithium battery to drive an electric engine, so there is no noise generated when a fuel engine is running. Moreover, the fan blades of the paraglider have been carefully designed, and the air noise during high-speed operation is also very small. Using equipment to make up for the lack of strength is also the consistent development direction of Japanese ninjas.

In the early years, Japanese ninjas not only had to practice ninjutsu hard, but they also had to be proficient in chemistry, because they needed to prepare a variety of strange equipment.

On TV, the ancient ninja dropped a ball on the ground, and smoke was instantly ignited. After the smoke disappears, people also disappear.

This is not a fictional scene, but a real existence in history.

The round ball used by ancient ninjas is actually a mixture of smoke bombs and flash bombs made with the earth method.

When the explosion occurs, the instantaneous strong light will make the opponent's vision temporarily blind, and the smoke is an excellent cover for retreat, so when the opponent's vision recovers and the smoke clears, the ninja will have run away long ago.

In fact, it may not be true.

Ninjas are like chameleons, very good at hiding their whereabouts according to their surroundings.

When the target feels that they may have run away, they may hide on the beams of the house, or hide behind the target, or hide in the water, using the thin bamboo strips used to blow arrows to ensure breathing.

Modern ninjas integrate scientific and technological achievements into ninjutsu, which gives them better concealment capabilities.

For example, the super black materials on them, such as this paraglider, are their modern methods.

At this time, the two people on the paraglider were communicating with each other through wireless intercom, and one of them said: "Brother, should we control the distance a little bit? So that the other party will not find us."

"Impossible." The senior said very confidently: "Our current height is two hundred meters, and the straight-line distance from them is almost one kilometer. At such a distance, they can't hear any sound at all, nor can they see anything. Clue, even if the person directly below us looks up, it is impossible to spot us!"

The headed ninja thought he had achieved perfection, but he did not expect that Charlie Wade still noticed the two of them.

After realizing that he was being stared at by the two, Charlie Wade couldn't help but smile sarcastically. It seems that these ninjas intend to bite themselves and not let go. I just don't know when they are going to do it on themselves. Not only did Charlie Wade not worry about it, but faintly expecting it.

When he was young, he watched some ninja-related movies and TV series and cartoons, and he was still a little interested in the profession of ninja. Therefore, he also wanted to compete head-on with Japanese ninjas to see what level of ninja Japan boasted for thousands of years. So he decided not to change any of his next plans, but always pay attention to the movement of these four ninjas to see what they want to do.

Twenty minutes later. The convoy stopped downstairs in the building of Ichiro Kobayashi's house. Charlie Wade entered the building with everyone and came to the top floor. At this time, two ninjas riding powered paragliders were hovering in the night sky above the building, and the other two also drove downstairs.

Chapter 1718

The leading ninja observed the surrounding environment and saw that the Aman Hotel was not far from this building, so he immediately ordered: "Second, we fell on the top of the Aman Hotel to watch each other, the third, the old Fourth, look for a suitable place to hide downstairs and closely monitor the target first!"

In the intercom, the voice of three people immediately came: "Good brother!"

The two pitch-black paragliders slowly lowered their height, and finally landed on the roof of the Aman Hotel. After landing, the leading ninja immediately called Takahashi Eiji's father Machi Takahashi.

Maki Takahashi is in the hospital at this time. His eldest son, Eiji Takahashi, is still undergoing surgery to implant a steel plate.

After receiving the call from the other party, Takahashi Maki immediately asked, "Mr. Fujibayashi, how is the matter going?"

The one called Mr. Fujibayashi is the leader of these four ninjas.

His name is Tenglin Zhengzhe, and the Tenglin family is one of the four famous ninjutsu in Japan.

In the development of Japanese ninjutsu, there was once a master of ninjutsu named Tenglin Baowu.

This Tenglin Baowu was once a celebrity of the Tokugawa family, Japan's top family.

In 1676, he wrote a book called "Wanchuan Jihai", which combined the martial arts essence of famous Chinese and Japanese masters, and also referred to the famous "Sun Tzu Art of War" and "Tai Gong Art of War" in Chinese history. "This book was later regarded as the encyclopedia of ninjas.

Since his beginning, the Tenglin family has gradually become Japan's top ninjutsu family.

And Tenglin Zhengzhe is the heir of this generation of Tenglin family.

In Japan, ninjas have always been dependent on top-notch families to survive. There were a large number of ninjas who worked for them in large Japanese families and under the shoguns during the Warring States period. Although modern ninjas are becoming rarer and rarer, the true masters of ninjutsu are still attached to top big families.

This is mainly because the ninja family lacks sufficient earning power, and modern society is becoming more and more secure and more emphasis on the rule of law, so they cannot make money by killing people and arson, so they can only continue to adhere to the big family and become A master enshrined in a large family.

Said to be worship, in fact, it is captive.

Raising ninjas in captivity, giving them enough money, enough respect, and letting them work for themselves is also a common hobby of large Japanese families.

Teng Lin Zhengzhe is a master of the Takahashi family.

On the phone, he reported to Takahashi Zhenzhui: "Mr. Takahashi, we have tracked down that guy's address, which is opposite to the Aman Hotel in the city center. Now I am closely monitoring him on the roof of the Aman Hotel. Waiting for your next instructions."

"Good! Great!"

Maki Takahashi finally breathed a sigh of relief and gritted his teeth: "As long as I find him, I don't have to worry that my son's vengeance will not be avenged!"

After that, Takahashi Machi again ordered: "Mr. Fujibayashi, you must keep me staring at him. Wherever he goes, you will follow him and wait for my next step. But if he wants to leave Japan, Just kill him!"

Teng Lin Zhengzhe said: "Mr. Takahashi, please rest assured, from now on, I will never let the target leave our control!"

Takahashi really knows: "Mr. Fujibayashi, when things are done, I will give you a generous reward, at least five million US dollars!"

Teng Lin Zhengzhe smiled and said, "Thank you Mr. Takahashi in advance!"

Takahashi really knew what he thought of, and hurriedly said: "By the way, Mr. Fujibayashi, the eldest son of the Banks Family, Fitz, lives in the Aman Hotel. If possible, please help me monitor him. I want to know if he sees him at the hotel. Who did you call, who you called, and what you said."

Teng Lin Zhengzhe immediately said: "No problem, I will check it out now!"

Chapter 1719

At this moment. Aman Hotel Tokyo. This is one of the most luxurious hotels in Tokyo. Zara and Fitz stayed in this hotel at this time. The two lived in the best room type in this hotel. The rooms are next to each other. Every room here has floor-to-ceiling windows on three sides. You can clearly see the night view of Tokyo, which is truly beautiful.

Zara had just taken a shower at this time, her short hair was wet, so she simply combed all her hair to the back of her head. It is unimaginable that a woman with this kind of big back shape can be beautiful. After taking a shower, Zara wiped her body clean, put on the silk nightgown brought from China, holding a glass of red wine, and came to the huge French window.

She gently lay on the recliner in front of the French window, looking at the night view outside, lost in thought. In her mind, Charlie Wade could not help but appear again. Thinking of that man's arrogant and pretentious look, Zara was still angry. However, when he thought that everything that the man did was to protect an innocent Chinese girl, Zara felt a little admiration for him unconsciously.

In a foreign country, most people are more low-key and tolerant, hoping to avoid trouble as much as possible. In this case, even if you have been bullied, you may choose to endure a moment of calm and take a step back, let alone see others being bullied, and stand up for others. It can be seen from this point that the man is indeed very bloody, and the three views are also very positive, but he is a bit crazy.

Of course, the strength is so strong, there is nothing wrong with madness. Just thinking about it, she suddenly received a WeChat message on her mobile phone.

After opening it, it was a link sent by his brother Fitz, and then he sent another voice: "Zara, take a look, things tonight have caused trouble in Japan!"

Zara opened the link and saw that Charlie Wade's video has exceeded 10 million views on the Japanese network, and it is heading towards 20 million, and she can't help but be stunned.

There are more than 120 million people in Japan, and more than 15% of Japanese people have watched this video.

You know, Japan is still a highly aging society. If you remove the elderly, young children, and farmers who rarely go online in rural Japan, the amount of this video is already terrifying. And this is just the beginning.

The ghost knows how much it will be played tomorrow? Fitz sent a WeChat message at this time and told her: "Zara, Dad is going to have a video conference. Is it convenient for you now?"

Zara gave a hum and said, "Wait for me for a minute."

After speaking, she stood up, found a silk shawl, and draped it over her pink fragrant shoulder.

Chapter 1720

Her nightgown is a low-cut and big v-neck sling. She is very comfortable in the room, but it is a bit exposed after all, so she has to cover it. After the video conference was connected, Zayne asked in the video:

"Fitz, Zara, have you two arrived at the hotel?"

"Yes." Zara and Fitz nodded in unison.

Zayne asked again: "Have you met briefly with the Takahashi family?"

"Not yet." Zara said: "Originally, we planned to touch the cooperation intention in the hotel's meeting room tonight, but unexpectedly, the Takahashi family had a small accident and Takahashi Eiji suffered. Injury, his father Takahashi should be in the hospital with him."

Zayne frowned and asked, "What's the matter? Will it affect our cooperation with them?"

Zara said: "Eiji Takahashi was beaten by a passerby, but this incident was an accidental incident and should not affect cooperation."

"That's good." Zayne breathed a sigh of relief, and said, "You must understand the foundations of these two companies and choose the best one."

With that said, Zayne continued with a cruel expression: "You must find the strongest and most wolfish company for cooperation, whether it is the Takahashi family or the Ito family, as long as we choose one of them, then we will join forces with them and kill another one!"

Zara asked in surprise: "Dad, if we choose any company to cooperate, can we just focus on cooperation? There is no need to help them fight against another company, right?"

Zayne said: "I went to see your grandfather today, and the old man said that the Wade family seems to want to transport this cake by ocean, so if we choose the Takahashi family, they will definitely choose the Ito family, and vice versa. also the same."

Zayne paused, and then said: "What your grandpa means is that if we choose the Takahashi family, then we will join hands with the Takahashi family to kill the Ito family. If we choose the Ito family, we will have to go with the Ito family. Join forces to kill the Takahashi family. In short, you can't leave the Wade family any chance!"

Fitz asked in surprise: "The Wade family also want to get a share of the pie?"

"Yes." Zayne nodded and said, "I guess they just wanted to follow us because they saw that we started to get involved in this industry."

Fitz said coldly: "The Wade family is a little overwhelmed. Many domestic businesses haven't gotten the order, so they want to come to us to grab overseas markets?"

Zayne smiled: "This kind of thing is also normal. Big families, like big companies, have to do everything possible to steal other people's business."

After that, Zayne said: "Look at Tencent and Ali. One of them is doing a good job in social networking, but they desperately want to be an e-commerce company; an e-commerce company who is doing well, sharpened their heads and wants to do social networking, and Ali has become Alipay. , Tencent will do WeChat payment, Ali buys Hungry, Tencent will invest in Meituan takeaway, the two will always be like playing Go, you surround me, I surround you, we are the same as the Wade family, early Wade family When we started a new business, we also united many people to deal with them. Now that we have a new business, they can't just sit back and watch."

Zara smiled slightly and said, "Dad, as far as I know, the Wade family's generation seems to be nothing special. Moreover, the Wade family seems to be getting quieter and quieter in recent years. I think they will be difficult for a while. Cut into the business of ocean transportation and port operations."

Zayne said, "I have the same opinion as you on this matter, but your grandpa still hopes to be more cautious."

Fitz smiled and said: "Dad, grandpa is old and it is normal to be more conservative and cautious, but we don't need to worry about this. My view is the same as that of Zara. Wade family should not catch up for a while, and, The gap between them and us will definitely grow."

Zayne sighed, and said seriously: "Forty years ago, your grandfather treated the Wade family in the same way. He always felt that the Wade family had no successors and would be lonely in a short time, but he never dreamed that there was a Bruce Wade who was so wise and close to a demon, and brought Wade Family up all at once..."

As he said, Zayne's expression became extremely serious, and he asked the two brothers and sisters: "You must remember that a big family like ours is often the same as the country. In the long history of national development, many times it is to bet on the national fortune. Yes, just like when Germany attacked the Soviet Union, it was betting on national luck. If the bet wins, the entire Eastern Europe belongs to Hitler. The Soviet Union's massive oil, natural gas, and iron ore resources are sufficient to support Germany's rule of Europe; but if the bet loses If it fails, it will fall into the quagmire of two-front combat and ultimately fail."

"We are now focusing our efforts on ocean transportation. The Wade family wants to keep up, and they want to take a gamble!"

"If they bet, there is still a chance of not being separated; if they don't bet, we will definitely be left far behind!"

"So, even if the Wade Family doesn't have a capable person to pull the flag, they will definitely come in and fight with us! And we, no matter whether the Wade Family will catch up or not, we will cut their way first!"

Chapter 1721

Lord Banks' thinking was deeply influenced by his father.

The old man's father fought a war back then. The battlefield is different from the shopping mall. The battlefield is always desperate, so his business philosophy is also very simple. As long as he is his opponent, he must go to death.

Choose one between the Ito family and the Takahashi family, and then kill the other. In the eyes of Mr. Banks, it is like going to sea. There are two boats on the shore, but only one is needed. Then what should I do at this time? ?

Ordinary people randomly choose one that is pleasing to the eye, and then board the ship and set sail; After detailed research, smart people choose a ship with the strongest overall performance; The clever ruthless man will choose the one with the strongest overall performance, and then scuttle the other before sailing.

The reason for this is that if you simply choose one ship to ride, the remaining ship will become a huge hidden danger. Competitors may ride that ship to catch up, and finally leave themselves hidden. Therefore, if you choose one to ride and scuttle the other, you don't have to worry about your opponent being able to catch up with you.

When the time comes, the opponent can only sigh on the beach, being left behind by himself. This routine is simple and rude, but also very effective.

Zayne, and even Fitz and Zara, were born in peaceful times. After living in peaceful times for too long, gradually, they lost the bloodiness of the older generation.

However, when Zayne said the father's decision, Zara was the first to react.

She said with some enlightenment: "Dad, grandpa's strategy is wonderful! This will not only break the road of the Wade family, but also increase our influence in Japan. I was still worried before, the Takahashi family and the Ito family Each has its own strengths and weaknesses. No matter which one you choose, it is a pity to give up the other. If you win over one of them and then work together to swallow the other, it would be perfect!"

Zayne said, "Knowing the wrongs and knowing the fish, you two must remember that the biggest enemy of the Banks Familyy in the past, present, and the next ten years is the Wade family!"

"Therefore, no matter what field we are involved in in the future, we must also call the same principle: if the Wade family is also in this field, then the first priority is to kill the Wade family; if the Wade family has not entered this field yet, then we will We must do our best to prevent the Wade family from coming in!"

"Although the Anti-Leaf Alliance of the year is gone, we still have to beat the Wade Family to death. Only in this way can we prevent the Wade Family from taking the lead and forming an Anti-Soviet Alliance to deal with us. Understand?"

The two brothers and sisters said at the same time: "Understand!"

Zayne nodded and continued: "You have to think more, not only about your grandfather's strategic layout, but also about his tactical arrangements. The older generations said that shopping malls were like battlefields. At that time, shopping malls were based on the degree of cruelty. , Not lost to the battlefield. But the world has been at peace for decades since World War II. People have been at ease for too long, and their bloodliness has become weaker and weaker. The gap between the market and the battlefield has become larger and larger... .."

Zara said earnestly: "Dad, you are right. Brother and I will try to make up for blood and wolf nature!"

The Zayne in the video nodded and said admiringly: "The future of the Banks Familyy will ultimately belong to your generation. If the two of you can find the bloody nature of your ancestors, the Banks Familyy will no longer be just one. Extravagant hope!"

Let the Banks Familyy stand on top of the world, this sentence has been lingering in Zara and Fitz's ears from this moment on.

However, Fitz didn't know, at this moment, on the wall outside his room, like a gecko, clinging to a dark figure.

This figure was holding a special sound amplifier for spies, and recorded all the voices of their family of three video conferences.

And this figure is the ninjutsu master of the Takahashi family, Teng Lin Zhengzhe.

Maki Takahashi learned that he happened to be at the Aman Hotel, so he asked him to monitor Fitz. As Party A and Party B who are about to start negotiations on cooperation, if they can know the other party's cards and low prices in advance, it is absolutely no disadvantage. of.

The most feared thing in business negotiations is to miss the cards. This is the same as the poker table. When you are playing gold with someone, if you can know the opponent's card, then you will never lose, even if the card is not better than the opponent, you can get out early.

If you can know your opponent's cards, then you will never be scammed by the opponent. If the opponent holds a small hand that pretends to be pretentious and delusional, you can also see through it at a glance.

Many times, you obviously have the biggest card in the game, but you can't make any money. The reason is that you can't guess the opponent's hole cards and your psychological quality is not strong enough, so you are scared by the opponent's bluff and leave the game early.

Therefore, Takahashi is very eager to see Banks' hole cards. However, when Teng Lin Zhengzhe sent him the recording, he was scared into a cold sweat by the recording! It turns out that Banks' hole card is not just a good card, if it is a killing card!

Especially the strategy of Mr. Banks. If you choose Takahashi, you will kill Ito; if you choose Ito, you will kill Takahashi...

Maki Takahashi felt a bit cold in his back, and sat down on a chair alone, slandering in his heart: "That old man from the Banks Family is like a f*cking old beast!"

"Frankly speaking, I have been fighting with the Ito family for so many years, and I have never thought of destroying the other party. It is enough to step on him and beat him..."

"But this Lord Banks is so cruel that he has to kill his own family, or the Ito family, just to cut off his competitors' retreat?!"

"More importantly, I have no choice at all! If I was selected by the Banks Family and the Banks Family asked me to join them to kill the Takahashi family, can I refuse? If I refuse, he will turn his head and go to the Ito family. Kill me together..."

Thinking of this, Takahashi wiped his sweat while making up his mind. In any case, he must reach a cooperation with the Banks Family! Never let the Banks Family and the Ito family come together, otherwise, you will beat yourself!

The main reason why Takahashi is so scared is mainly because the strength of the Takahashi family is still too far behind the Banks Family. In recent years, the form of international economic development has almost been the rapid growth of China, while other countries have either stagnated or retreated without advancing.

Japan is the one that does not advance or retreat.

In recent years, Japan's GDP has not increased but declined. In 2011, it was still able to reach 6 trillion US dollars. As a result, when it bottomed out in 2018, it was only more than 4 trillion US dollars.

With the receding of Japan's economic development, these families in Japan have also suffered heavy losses. The current strength has been left behind by China's top families. It is almost impossible to compete with China's top families.

So, Takahashi Zhenzhi had an idea in his heart.

He decided that he would do everything possible to attack the Ito family, just like the Banks Family attacked the Wade family!

If the Banks Family wants to scuttle the Wade family's boat, they must scuttle the Ito family's boat!

Chapter 1723

When Machi Takahashi made a decision in his heart, the operation of his son Eiji Takahashi had also been completed.

Seeing his son, who had his arms in cast, was pushed out of the operating room by the doctor, Takahashi's heart twitched.

He wished to smash the body of the bastard who injured his son immediately.

But thinking about it carefully, the most important thing now is to settle down the cooperation with the Banks Family, otherwise, if the Banks Family cooperates with the Ito family, it will be yourself that is unlucky.

So he didn't dare to cause any trouble at this time, so he could only choose to bear it temporarily.

Fortunately, Teng Lin Zhengzhe has found the trace of the other party and is keeping a close eye on the other party. Therefore, he believes that this person has already pierced his wings and cannot escape. When will he die? It is a matter of time.

Takahashi Eiji had a local anesthesia in his arms, so his brain consciousness was still clear. Seeing his father waiting outside the operating room, he was moved and aggrieved, and tears immediately shed.

"My father, Yingji is not filial, which is causing you trouble!"
Maki Takahashi waved his hand and sighed: "You can't be blamed for this matter. You can take a good rest these two days. When your condition stabilizes, I will take you home for a good rest."

Takahashi Eiji nodded quickly.

Children always realize the warmth of home after being injured outside. Now Eiji Takahashi just wants to go home and lick the wound.

At this moment, someone rushed over and respectfully said to Takahashi Machichi: "Chairman, Ito Yuhiko sent flowers and fruit baskets to express condolences..."

"Ito Yuhiko?!" When Machi Takahashi heard these four words, his brows instantly frowned.

Immediately, he yelled coldly: "Humph! With my knowledge of Ito Yuihiko, the bastard, he is sending flowers and fruit baskets now. He must have come to mock me and watch my jokes! Last time his daughter was seriously injured after the game in China. When I returned to China and was treated in Tokyo, I also gave him flowers and a fruit basket to laugh at him. I didn't expect that he would find him back so soon!"

Takahashi Eiji, with his arms in plaster, said angrily, "Dad! Ito Yuhiko, that bastard, is a must-have guy himself! The flowers and fruit baskets you sent to the hospital last time were all said to have been thrown into him. Trash can, this time he did exactly what he did, showing that he had deliberately slapped my face! This time I lost such a big face, I don't know how this bastard will humiliate me in the future!"

Maki Takahashi smiled awkwardly and comforted: "Son, you don't have to be so angry. Maybe Ito Yuihiko doesn't mean anything else, just want to express condolences?"

Takahashi Eiji asked him back: "Dad, do you believe this? His daughter was injured. What kind of mentality did you send flowers and fruit baskets? Isn't it for mocking and watching a good show?"

Machi Takahashi sneered: "You are right, I was indeed trying to mock him..."

Takahashi Eiji said with a sad face: "The video of Nanako Ito's injury was spread all over Japan, but the people of Japan respect her and love her very much. Numerous fans are still launching activities to protect her and pray for her online. But I was injured this time, and all Japan is laughing at me. I am embarrassed this time..."

With that, Eiji Takahashi couldn't think about it, and cried uncontrollably.

It's no wonder that he is too fragile. After all, he was a Japanese national playboy before, and countless women are crazy about him and call him husband on the Internet.

Unexpectedly, in a blink of an eye, he would be beaten half to death in front of the people of the whole country. This incident can be said to have lost face for a lifetime. Moreover, it is almost impossible to get the face back again.

Chapter 1724

Even if he really killed Charlie Wade, it was useless. After all, the horror of his beating was already well known to the Japanese, and it was deeply rooted in the hearts of the people.

Machi Takahashi's expression was also ugly, and when he was thinking about how to comfort his son, his cell phone rang suddenly. Maki Takahashi took out his cell phone and saw that it was an unfamiliar number, so he pressed it to answer.

Immediately afterwards, Ito Yuhiko's voice came over the phone.

"Oh, Brother Takahashi, I heard that Lord Eiji was beaten in Tokyo today?"

At first glance, Ito Yuhiko's voice seemed to be somewhat concerned, but anyone with a little brain could hear it. This voice was simply sarcasm. Takahashi Machi said with a black face: "Ito, I remember I saved your phone number, why? You changed it?"

"No." Ito said with a smile: "My mobile phone number is still the same as before. I am using my assistant's mobile phone. I am not afraid to call you with my own mobile phone. You see my name. Sorry to pick it up! Hahaha!"

Machi Takahashi's expression went dark immediately.

Ito Yuhiko was right. If he knew it was his call, he would not answer if he died.

Unexpectedly, this dog was so damaged, so he changed his mobile phone number and called, just to mock himself on the phone?

Seeing that Takahashi really didn't speak, Ito Yuhiko immediately smiled and said, "Oh, Takahashi, why don't you speak anymore? Do you feel that your son is so humiliated at the door of the house that he really is a bit embarrassed?"

Takahashi was a little bit intolerable, and asked, "Ito, what's the matter with you? If it's okay, I'm going to hang up!"

"Don't!" Ito said with a smile, "Takahashi, I called, mainly because you and your son felt worthless! You see, it was also injured. When my daughter was injured, all of Japan was there. Comfort her and encourage her, but after your son was injured, all Japan laughed at him. People are also really damned. How can you make such a difference, right?"

Takahashi gritted his teeth angrily, and said coldly: "Ito Takehiko, how far are you f*cking for me! Don't let me see you again!"

When I heard Takahashi's swearing, he smiled a little, and said happily: "Takahashi, there is an idiom in China to describe you now. It is perfect. Do you know what it is?"

Maki Takahashi scolded, "I don't want to know, you go to Laozi!"

After speaking, Maki Takahashi hung up the phone!

However, not long after the call was hung up, he received a message on his cell phone.

The content of the message is: "Brother Takahashi, don't blame the brother for not reminding you, you really have to change your temper in the future, otherwise, you will easily suffer the loss your son just suffered! Eiji is young, he has broken two An arm is nothing, but if you are older, if you break both arms, you may not be able to recover in your life!"

Seeing this, Takahashi was really furious.

At this time, the phone received another text message.

It was sent by Takehiko Ito: "Oh, yes, the Chinese idiom used to describe you can't be more appropriate is: Goo jumps over the wall!"

Takahashi was so angry that he had nowhere to vent. He slammed the phone to the ground and fell to pieces. He cursed hysterically, "Ito Yuuhiko, you damn bastard! I really know that Takahashi will not avenge this revenge. "

At this moment, in Takahashi's heart, for the first time, he was murderous against Ito Yuhiko!

Chapter 1725

For so many years, Takahashi Machi and Ito Yuhiko have been fighting over and under.

It can be said that over the years, the two have regarded each other as their biggest competitors.

However, Jin Nao Takahashi and Ito Yuhiko are only in their fifties this year. They were both born in the most desolate and least self-confident years in post-war Japan, and they have been growing up peacefully. Therefore, they are not in the past. The blood and wolf nature of the older generation.

Therefore, the two sides have been fighting for so many years, and they are only competing in the commercial field. No one has ever thought about killing the other party to death.

This is like the boss of Ali and the boss of Tencent. Although they compete fiercely in different fields all day long, everyone still abides by laws and regulations very much.

Even if they are upset with each other in their hearts, the minimum politeness and rules can be guaranteed by everyone.

This is the phrase often said on the Internet: "He is grinning on his face, and I am in my heart."

However, after eavesdropping on the video conference of Banks' family, Takahashi Zhenzhi was shocked, but also felt the vigilance of Daigo's enlightenment!

At that moment, his whole person suddenly opened up! Now he doesn't want to use the previous law-abiding model to compete with Ito Takehiko. He now hopes that Ito Takehiko will disappear from this world! To be more precise, he hopes that the entire Ito family will disappear from this world! In that way, the Takahashi family would have no obstacles or stumbling blocks in Japan!

In Takahashi's mind, a death list has been placed. The first on this list of deaths is Takehiko Ito; The second place was Charlie Wade, who had abolished his son's arms. He thought it was easy to kill Charlie Wade, but it was difficult to kill Ito Takehiko.

Because Charlie Wade is just a martial arts master from China, and has been locked by the ninjutsu master sent by him, he can kill him at any time. However, it is not so easy to kill Ito Yuhiko.

After all, the Ito family has also been cultivating in Japan for many years, and the strength is comparable to that of the Takahashi family. They also have complete security personnel at ordinary times. More importantly, he has a high social status in Japan. I want to kill him. , Never directly use force, otherwise it is very likely to cause trouble for yourself.

Therefore, the best solution is to join forces with a more powerful family to continuously suppress the strength of the Ito family, first knock him out of the top family in Japan, and when he becomes a second-rate or third-rate family, everyone will treat his life and death. He doesn't care so much, and his overall strength will drop sharply.

It was easy to take his life at that time. Therefore, if you want to kill Ito Takehiko, you must join forces with the Banks Family. In the final analysis, this cooperation with the Banks Family, in his view, can only succeed and not fail.

.....

Teng Lin Zhengzhe and his three junior brothers lurked all night in their respective locations.

Chapter 1726

This night, the four of them took two-by-two shifts, with another person watching every four hours to ensure that all four of them could get a certain rest. They thought everything they did was perfect, but they didn't know that everything was under Charlie Wade's control. The reason why Charlie Wade didn't do any performance was mainly because he wanted to make plans first, and at the same time, he didn't try to get rid of it.

He doesn't want to do anything to these ninjas in Tokyo, mainly because he will go to several cities next. If the Takahashi family's ninjas are killed now, then the Takahashi family will definitely stick to them like dog skin plasters. Will bring a lot of inconvenience and trouble to myself.

Instead of this, it's better to let these four ninjas follow them all the time, and then look for opportunities to defeat them one by one.

Eight o'clock in the morning. Charlie Wade got up to wash, and after breakfast, Cameron Isaac's motorcade was ready downstairs. Paul's work has ended, so Charlie Wade arranged for him to return to Aurouss Hill first, so as not to delay other work in his law firm. After the convoy sent Paul away, carrying Charlie Wade, Don Albertt, Liam, Cameron Isaac, Ichiro Kobayashi and others, left Tokyo directly for Yokohama.

Teng Lin Zhengzhe and his younger brother followed along in two commercial vehicles. Originally thought that Charlie Wade was just coming to the airport to see Paul off, but unexpectedly, the convoy did not return to downtown Tokyo, but went directly to Yokohama.

So he immediately called Takahashi Zhenzhi and reported Charlie Wade's departure from Tokyo. Maki Takahashi instructed him to continue to follow, not to act rashly for now.

At the same time, Fitz and Zara had a formal meeting with Takahashi Zhenzhi. They met in the property owned by the Takahashi family in Ginza, Tokyo, and Machi Takahashi enthusiastically invited the two to sit in his office.

Afterwards, he said very religiously: "I wanted to have a simple exchange with the two yesterday, but I didn't expect the accident happened to the dog, so I neglected the two, and please forgive me."

As the eldest son of the Banks Familyy, Fitz took the initiative to smile and said: "Mr. Takahashi is too polite. I don't know what happened to Lord Eiji's injury?"

Maki Takahashi sighed and said, "He received surgery on his arms and was also put in a cast. It may take some time to recover."

Fitz nodded lightly, and said politely: "It's a pity that he will encounter such a thing. If Mr. Takahashi needs our Banks Familyy's help, please don't hesitate to speak, we will definitely go all out!"

Although Takahashi really knew that Fitz was only polite to himself, he still said gratefully, "Thank you, Master Banks for your concern!"

Fitz smiled and said: "Mr. Takahashi does not have to be so polite. If our two can finally reach a cooperation, then we are each other's strategic partners. Our Banks Familyy attaches great importance to strategic partners, and I communicated with my father last night. On the phone, he is also very concerned about Eiji's body, and he has repeatedly asked you whether it is useful to Banks' family. If the Japanese orthopedic doctor is not good enough, he can send several orthopedic experts from Eastcliff."

Maki Takahashi said flatteredly: "That's really thank you Mr. Banks, if you have this need, I will speak to you at that time!"

After talking, Takahashi sighed: "The Banks Familyy's sincere attitude towards its partners makes the Banks Familyy admire, and at the same time more fascinated. If there is a chance to reach a strategic cooperation with the Banks Familyy, the Takahashi family will definitely go all out and never disappoint Banks. Home's expectations!"

Fitz nodded lightly and smiled: "That's good! In that case, let's talk about the details of cooperation next."

Takahashi Jinzhi suddenly said with a cold face at this time: "Master Banks, Miss Banks, before we start talking, I want to give our cooperation a temporary precondition!"

Zara frowned: "Mr. Takahashi, temporarily increase the conditions, some are not suitable, right?"

Takahashi said sincerely: "Ms. Banks, the condition is not to raise the price from the Banks Familyy, but to ask the Banks Familyy to agree and cooperate to help completely eradicate the Ito family!"

Chapter 1727

Zara frowned as soon as Takahashi's words were spoken.

She couldn't help but wonder: "Yesterday my dad just said in a video conference that he would unite one of them and kill the other. Why did Takahashi take the initiative to take the initiative and join us to kill the Ito family?! Isn't it a coincidence? Is it true that Takahashi eavesdropped on the video conference of their family of three last night?"

Zara felt that his speculation was not impossible.

She thought to herself: "Although the bodyguards who accompanied her had been tested when she checked into the hotel yesterday and confirmed that there were no bugs and cameras in the room, this is after all in Tokyo, in the site of Takahashi Zhenzhi. If he wants to find a way, it should not be difficult to eavesdrop on me and my brother..."

Fitz also had some surprises and doubted whether it was tapped by Takahashi. However, because Takahashi Jinzhi was right in front of him, Fitz couldn't communicate with his sister, so he winked her.

Zara nodded quietly, and then asked Maki Takahashi with a calm expression: "Mr. Takahashi, why are you completely eradicating the Ito family?"

Takahashi said furiously: "That damn Ito Yuhiko has been working against me. If it's just normal business competition, it doesn't matter, but he has risen to the level of personality insult to me and my family!"

With that said, Takahashi Maki told the story of Yuhiko Ito sending flowers and fruit baskets yesterday, and calling to mock him.

After speaking out of righteous indignation, he still cursed in annoyance: "This Ito Yuhiko, joking with my son, and ridiculing it all, is too much! So I made up my mind when I was in the hospital yesterday. There is him without me, there is me without him!"

Takahashi is not stupid. He knows that if he rashly offered to join forces with the Banks Familyy to destroy the Ito family, the Banks Familyy would doubt whether they were being monitored.

Therefore, when he mentioned Ito Takehiko, he deliberately exaggerated his words, and the whole person was extremely angry. The whole performance can be said to have reached the acting skills of a powerful actor.

What he thought was that if the Banks Family really believed his words, then instead of suspecting that they were eavesdropped on, they would feel more like their natural allies.

In this way, he will definitely become the best candidate for cooperation in the eyes of the Banks Family. Zara was indeed relieved when he heard this. Obviously, she did believe what Takahashi said. Because all this sounds so natural.

Machi Takahashi's son was injured, and at the same time he became a laughing stock in Japan. This in itself already made him very irritated. At this time, Ito Yuhiko came to add fuel to the fire, teased him, and irritated him.

Thinking of this, she smiled slightly and said to Takahashi Machichi: "Mr. Takahashi, let's talk about cooperation first. As for the matter you just said, if the cooperation itself is okay and everyone can reach an agreement. , This matter can also be discussed."

Maki Takahashi immediately said excitedly: "That's really great! Don't worry, Miss Banks, I have shown 200% sincerity this time. I believe the Takahashi family must be the best choice for the Banks Family!"

.....

When Machi Takahashi had detailed negotiations with Fitz and Zara, Charlie Wade and his party had already arrived in Yokohama and went straight to Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall's production base in Yokohama. Mr. Quinton's medicinal materials had also been delivered two hours ago. Therefore, Ichiro Kobayashi and Liam began to organize workers at the Yokohama production base to conduct trial production of Nova Dias.

The trial production went very smoothly. At four o'clock in the afternoon, the first batch of qualified Nova Dias Powder was produced in batches from the assembly line.

After that, Charlie Wade and his party immediately drove to Nagoya, the most important city in central Japan.

When I arrived in Nagoya, it was late.

Chapter 1728

Cameron Isaac had already booked the best hotels in Nagoya for everyone in Japan. Charlie Wade could also detect that the four ninjas who had been following him had followed him all the way to this hotel. After Charlie Wade and others checked in, Teng Lin Zhengzhe, headed by the four ninjas, also brought the other three to the front desk of the hotel. They booked two rooms on the same floor as Charlie Wade. Moreover, they are very clever to book four different rooms, these four areas are next to two elevators, and the escape stairs at both ends. Japan is a country prone to earthquakes, so when designing their buildings, they fully considered the issue of escape. A building with two sets of escape stairs is really rare in other places.

The reason why they want to arrange the room in this way is that they can firmly control Charlie Wade's every move, so that it can also facilitate their monitoring. As for why not live directly around Charlie Wade, it was mainly because the rooms around Charlie Wade were all covered by Cameron Isaac's men.

Not long after Charlie Wade rested in the room, he noticed that the breath of the four people was getting closer, and after knowing that they were also living on this floor, Charlie Wade had a plan in his heart. Tonight, he wants to try the depth of these Japanese ninjas first.

At dinner, Cameron Isaac's men, Zhang Luo and everyone ate the most distinctive local eel rice at the most famous restaurant in Nagoya.

After dinner, Don Albertt proposed to go to Nagoya's Rong Business District together. Charlie Wade deliberately said: "You go, I want to walk around alone."

Don Albertt hurriedly said: "Master Wade, we are not familiar with this place in life, you should not act alone, or say where you want to go, we will accompany you together."

Cameron Isaac nodded again and again: "Yeah, Master Wade, let's stay with you!"

Charlie Wade waved his hand and said with a smile: "No one in Nagoya knows me, what are you worried about? Besides, I think I still have some ability to protect myself, so you don't have to worry about it."

When Cameron Isaac heard this, he knew that Charlie Wade would not let everyone follow him, so he respectfully said: "Master Wade, don't go too far. If you have any needs, remember to call us!"

Charlie Wade nodded: "Okay, you play yours." After speaking, Charlie Wade walked away alone.

At this time, in a car across the street, Teng Lin Zhengzhe's junior asked him: "Brother, do you want to follow him?"

Teng Lin Zhengzhe sneered and said, "He has already checked in at the hotel, and he will definitely go back. He won't run away."

Another junior asked: "Brother, do you mean you don't need to follow?"

Teng Lin Zhengzhe said: "The follower still needs to follow. I promised Mr. Takahashi not to let him leave the control area, so I will let the fourth child follow by himself. , Let's quickly put a bug in their room."

A man in his thirties sitting in the back row immediately said: "Okay brother, I will follow him!"

Teng Lin Zhengzhe gave a hum, and said, "You can just follow him far away, but don't lose it. If there is any abnormality, call in time, understand?"

"Understood brother!"

Chapter 1729

The reason why Charlie Wade wanted to leave Cameron Isaac and Don Albertt aside was to find a chance to act alone, so as to try to track his Japanese ninja, how many catties there are.

Moreover, he knew very well in his heart that since the other party had followed him to the hotel, he would definitely think that no matter where he went now, he would definitely return to the hotel.

Therefore, there is a high probability that they will not follow themselves with four people.

It's not that Charlie Wade was afraid of the other party's group, but he felt that there were only four people who followed all the way from Tokyo. If they were all alone, Takahashi Zhenzhi might have no one available.

If you solve all your opponents in one go, the rest of your time in Japan will be boring.

Therefore, Charlie Wade hopes to give them a "break down one by one."

Only by breaking through them one by one can the opponent's fears continue to increase, and the fears of Takahashi Machichi can be continuously increased.

When leaving the hotel, Charlie Wade had already noticed that the other party only sent one person to follow him in secret this time.

So, he planned to take this single guy first.

The guy who was alone, named Tenglin Quintongtian, was a distant relative of the Tenglin family. He learned ninjutsu from Tenglin Zhengzhe's father when he was young, so he was commensurate with Tenglin Zhengzhe's brother.

Among the four brothers of Tenglin Zhengzhe, although Tenglin Quintongtian's strength is not the strongest, but his talent is extremely high, especially very good at concealment and tracking. He debuted for many years and has never been escaped by the other no matter who is being tracked. .

Tenglin Quintongtian followed Charlie Wade all the way, and followed Charlie Wade away from the downtown area and the residential area with a high density of living. The distance from Charlie Wade was always between one hundred and two hundred meters.

His figure is very hidden, and his aura is very well controlled. People with less strength may not notice that he has been eyeing.

After leaving the city, Charlie Wade went straight to a park by the river. As it was already night, the weather was cold, and it was in the suburbs, the park was empty. Seeing that Charlie Wade entered the park and followed his Tenglin Quintongtian all the way, he did not hesitate to follow him. But what made him dream of was that Charlie Wade, who had been under his nose, suddenly disappeared after entering the park!

As a master of ninjutsu all year round, Tenglin Quintongtian's senses of hearing, sight, smell and touch are much more sensitive than ordinary people. He can hear sounds that ordinary people can't hear; he can also see things that ordinary people can't see.

His most powerful thing is that he is beyond ordinary hearing. Ninja tracking in the middle of the night relies on hearing the most. Tenglin Quintongtian can hear the sound of crickets crawling in the grass and the movement of ants crawling out of the cave within a radius of two to three hundred meters.

Because of his good hearing, he can hear everyone's breathing and heartbeat within a radius of 500 meters. When people are hiding, they can stay still or speak, but breathing and heartbeat cannot be avoided anyway. Therefore, it is impossible for ordinary people to escape the surveillance of Tenglin Quintongtian.

However, Charlie Wade, who was still within his sight and hearing range, suddenly disappeared without a trace, no footsteps, no breathing, and no heartbeat! It's not difficult to hold your breath for a short time, but you can't make your heart stop beating, right? This is obviously beyond human control!

This made Tenglin Quintongtian suddenly nervous. Because he realized that this thing is unusual! He immediately suppressed his breath to the extreme with extreme vigilance, and then remained motionless, carefully listening to the surrounding sounds. At the same time, he has pulled out two dark shurikens from his arms.

The shuriken is one of the most commonly used weapons by Japanese ninjas. The length of this weapon is about fifteen centimeters. It has symmetrical blades on both sides and a short grip, which looks like a dagger.

Chapter 1730

However, the use of this shuriken is quite different from that of a dagger. The use of daggers is mostly piercing and cutting, but the use of shuriken is throwing. It can be said that the use of shuriken is similar to that of Jackie Chan in martial arts novels.

If Chinese martial arts emphasizes an uprightness, then Japanese ninjutsu is sinister and vicious. Ninjas don't like to compete face-to-face with their opponents. They like to hurt people with dark arrows. It's best if the opponent doesn't find themselves until death. This is the ultimate ninja pursues.

They like to use weapons like shurikens, darts, and blow arrows, and they will smear highly toxic substances on the sharp blades, so as to ensure that as long as the opponent is broken by the sharp blade, they will be over. One minute later, Tenglin Quintongtian still did not catch any movement of Charlie Wade!

His hearing almost covers the entire park, and he can also conclude that there is only him alive in this park. Teng Lin Quintongtian couldn't help but wonder: "Where did the Chinese go? Did he escape or hide?!"

"If he escaped, how did he escape in an instant? Could he fail to transfer in an instant? Or did I not pay attention just now and be distracted by him?"

"If it is hidden, how can he not move at all for a minute? It is understandable to control his breathing, but it is a bit unrealistic to control his heartbeat?"

If it is the former, most of the responsibility lies with me, and I can't find the other party, so I should go back and report the penalty and pay more attention next time. But if it is the latter, then the strength of this person is simply unfathomable! Thinking of this, a cold sweat broke out behind him!

As a result, Tenglin Quintongtian gripped the shuriken tighter, and slowly turned his body silently under his feet, carefully staring at the surroundings, for fear that the other party would suddenly appear. After watching two laps, he was a little relieved to make sure that there were no ghosts around. When he was about to leave here quickly, he suddenly felt that someone patted his left shoulder lightly!

At this moment, his whole body was frightened and his hair exploded, and the whole person turned around like crazy, and the two poisoned shurikens were thrown out behind him with a scream. However, the sword in the two hands did not hit any target. After flying dozens of meters away, it was firmly nailed to the wall!

Damn it! People? ! Tenglin Quintongtian was shocked, but he didn't dare to delay his hands. As soon as he stretched out his hand, he took out two swords from the cowhide cover on his waist!

Tenglin Quintongtian, holding a shuriken, shouted with fear: "Who is it?! Get out of me!"

At this time, he felt that his right shoulder was tapped twice! At this moment, Tenglin Quintongtian almost freaked out! He took a violent step forward when he was crazy, and at the same time turned his head angrily, and threw the sword in both hands again!

However, this time it was still empty! Behind him, he couldn't even see a ghost! Tenglin Quintongtian was shocked, and hurriedly took out the last two swords in his hands. At this time, he heard a man behind him sneered and sneered: "It seems that Japanese ninjas are nothing more than this! It's really disappointing!"

Chapter 1731

Hearing this voice, Tenglin Quintongtian's liver and gallbladder were cracked! This really confirmed the scariest assumption in his heart! That Chinese has been here all the time and never left! And from the beginning to the end, I didn't hear this person's breathing or heartbeat. How did he do it? ! Moreover, he slapped his shoulder twice, which proved that he was close to his body at least twice, but he didn't even hear anything, not even his footsteps!

At this moment, he subconsciously wanted to turn around and throw out the shuriken, but he was a little worried deep in his heart. After all, he only has six swords in his hand. Four of them have been thrown out just now, and now the two in his hand are the last two!

What if these two are also empty? The opponent is right in front of him, and he will never give himself a chance to dig out other weapons. In other words, the sword in these two hands is his last chance. If you use it rashly, you may put yourself in a situation where you can never recover!

Tenglin Quintongtian didn't dare to act rashly, so he could only swallow his saliva nervously, and said with some humility: "This gentleman, you may have misunderstood. I am not a ninja, just a shuriken fan. "

"Oh?" Charlie Wade smiled playfully and asked him: "You are not a ninja, so what are you doing with me?"

Tenglin Quintongtian hurriedly said: "I didn't follow you, I just finished my dinner at night, come here to practice my shuriken..."

Charlie Wade sneered and said, "Do you think I will believe such a bad reason?"

Teng Lin Quintongtian said innocently, "I...I...I'm telling the truth..."

Charlie Wade sneered: "If I guessed correctly, you should be a member of the Takahashi family? I now give you a chance to survive and tell me everything exactly. If what you say satisfies me, then I can consider letting you go."

Hearing this, Tenglin Quintongtian knew in his heart that denying was no longer useful, and blindly denying it was likely to be a disaster.

Therefore, he can only cower and say: "Sir, I say! I say everything! I was indeed sent by the Takahashi family, and they asked me to follow you all the way from Tokyo to here..."

Charlie Wade asked again: "What is the plan of the Takahashi family? Do you want you to follow me like this?"

Tenglin Quintongtian hurriedly said: "No, Mr. Takahashi Machichi meant that we should follow you first, and wait for his instructions. He is now negotiating cooperation with a big family in China, so he doesn't want to be out of the question, but wants to wait until after the cooperation is finished. , Let us kill you again."

Charlie Wade nodded and asked, "What is the origin of you four ninjas?"

Tenglin Quintongtian said truthfully: "We are all members of the Tenglin family, and the Tenglin family is one of the major ninjutsu families in Japan."

Charlie Wade asked him with interest: "Since your family is a relatively large ninjutsu family in Japan, why should you follow the Takahashi family as running dogs?"

Tenglin Quintongtian hurriedly said: "This...actually, the main reason is that in the postwar years, ninjas and samurai have become less and less important in Japan. At the same time, the underworld is also rapidly rising, and they are equipped with very powerful heat. Weapon, so our living space is even smaller. In addition to being good at ninjutsu, the entire family has no other skills. It is not good at doing business and making money, so it can only survive by attaching to the big family..."

Speaking of this, Tenglin Quintongtian begged: "Sir, what I told you is all the truth, can you let me go?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Don't worry, I still have questions to ask, I can leave after answering all of my questions."

Tenglin Quintongtian's mind turned slightly, and he asked: "Sir, I...can I turn around and talk? I'm so nervous with my back facing you like this..." Charlie Wade said calmly: "Yes, turn around."

Tenglin Quintongtian turned around slowly, and when he turned around, the shuriken in his hand had not been put down.

At the same time, his toes slid gently on the ground, seemingly nothing unusual, but Charlie Wade still noticed the other's intentions.

Tenglin Quintongtian's shoes are special ninja shoes, which are not only light and quiet, but more importantly, they hide a short-edged dagger in the sole.

The short-edged switch is a slider with a special pattern on the sole. Normal walking and running will not trigger the shoe sole slider to eject the short blade. Only after the slider completes the S-shaped movement, will the short blade eject mechanism be triggered.

This kind of weapon is very common in the era of cold weapons. Even in China a hundred years ago, it was also a necessary hidden weapon for many people to walk the rivers and lakes.

In many film and television works, this hidden weapon has also been shown, but the principle is not revealed. In fact, this s-shaped slider is equivalent to the simplest mechanical code. Others don't know how to trigger it, but the user himself knows it. Obviously, you can be surprised at any time.

Chapter 1732

However, as the thermal weapon became more and more mature, this weapon gradually withdrew from the stage of history. But unexpectedly, Japanese ninjas are still in use. The moment Charlie Wade moved the sole of his shoe, he realized that this guy was preparing to unlock the short blade in the ninja shoe.

Even, his toes have completed 80% of the entire S-shape, as long as they move one centimeter in the correct direction at the end, the short blade hidden in the sole will suddenly pierce from the toe!

At this time, Tenglin Quintongtian has made up his mind. Once he finds the right opportunity, he first uses the sword in his two hands to attract the other's attention. When Charlie Wade's all attention is on the shuriken, he immediately uses the ninja shoes. The short blade launched an attack.

At that time, the upper and lower sides and the four sharp blades will come out, as long as one of them stabs Charlie Wade, Charlie Wade will undoubtedly die!

Although Gao Qiao Zhenzhi explained that he should not kill Charlie Wade for the time being, he felt that Charlie Wade had already threatened his life, and he did not care about Gao Qiao Zhenzhi's instructions. The most important thing was to kill Charlie Wade first!

After making up his mind, he began to attract Charlie Wade's attention and said, "Sir, if you have any questions, just ask, I will answer truthfully!"

Charlie Wade nodded and asked, "Are you four of you the strongest under Takahashi Zhenzhi?"

"Yes."

Charlie Wade frowned, and said with a bit of contempt: "I don't think the four of you are really good at it. Isn't your skill just throwing throwing knives? And you're dying. If you have this skill, In China, no one looks at performing arts on the streets, and you can't keep up with the heat if you eat shit."

Feeling humiliated, Tenglin Quintongtian blurted out: "Nonsense! My shuriken has always been accurate. Within 100 meters, the wings of flying flies can be cut off!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "So powerful?"

Tenglin Quintongtian said sternly: "Of course! If you don't believe me, I can show you something!"

Charlie Wade smiled contemptuously: "Come on, start your performance."

Tenglin Quintongtian gritted his teeth, realizing that the opportunity is coming, and sneered: "Okay! Then you are optimistic!"

After that, both hands suddenly shook, and the sword in both hands instantly pierced towards Charlie Wade!

Immediately afterwards, he rubbed his feet on the ground slightly, and the two short blades of his toes popped out instantly!

Tenglin Quintongtian didn't dare to delay half a minute, and immediately raised his foot and kicked Charlie Wade!

Charlie Wade had already guarded his hand, a trace of contempt flashed between his brows.

Immediately afterwards, he did not move. He just snapped two fingers with both hands, and then separated two invisible vigor, and slightly pushed the two shurikens that came straight at him a bit.

Immediately afterwards, the sword in the two hands was like a Chinese character "eight", swiping and flicking it, just passing Charlie Wade!

Tenglin Quintongtian was so scared that his face was pale by this strange scene. At this time, he could only hope for the short blade of his toes!

A strong wind blew, and his feet kicked in front of Charlie Wade.

Charlie Wade's expression was indifferent, and he quickly attacked with one hand, and grabbed his ankle tightly.

Tenglin Quintongtian looked at the short blade of the toe, and was only a few strands away from Charlie Wade, but Charlie Wade's hand was too strong, and he was completely unable to enter even half a minute!

At this time, Charlie Wade sneered and said contemptuously: "Since you like to hurt people with short blades so much, then I will fulfill you and arrange a happy ending for your life!"

Tenglin Quintongtian was frightened and collapsed, and he blurted out and pleaded: "No! Please..."

As soon as the voice fell, I felt a sudden pain in my ankle and knee!

With a crisp click, Tenglin Quintongtian saw his calf bend forward from the knee!

It turned out that Charlie Wade completely broke his calf from his knee with one hand!

He was tortured to collapse by the severe pain, opened his mouth and yelled hysterically: "Ah!!!"

The next moment, his voice stopped abruptly.

The short blade on the toe of his own shoe had already pierced into his mouth at this time, and the bloody blade tip came out directly from the back of his neck!

Chapter 1733

The moment Tenglin Quintongtian pierced the sharp blade, he felt pain and numbness at the wound, and a sense of weakness spread from the wound to his whole body.

The pain comes from the wound of a sharp blade;

The sense of powerlessness originates from the poison on the blade.

He was already unable to breathe, his face became more and more bruised, staring at Charlie Wade with an expression of horror, and sobbing in his mouth.

Charlie Wade looked at him and asked with interest: "Did you follow me first, how did I do it?"

Tenglin Quintongtian nodded desperately.

He didn't want to understand until he was on the verge of dying, why Charlie Wade had such a strong strength, why he could hide everything in front of him in an instant, and why he could make his two-handed sword deviate from the original trajectory.

Charlie Wade smiled slightly at this time and said: "Did you learn physics when you were a child? The transmission of sound depends on vibration. As long as you can control vibration, you can control any sound. No matter how sensitive your ears are, you won't feel it. To."

Tenglin Quintongtian's eyes were full of shock! Sound transmission depends on vibration, he knows this, but how can people control the vibration of sound? ! Immediately, he looked at Charlie Wade with eager eyes, making a um ah ah ah sound in his mouth.

Charlie Wade smiled and asked, "Do you want to ask, how did I make your two swords deviate?"

Tenglin Quintongtian nodded uncontrollably.

Charlie Wade smiled indifferently: "This is the same principle as how I control the vibration, but this ability is a profound Chinese heritage, far from your Japanese ninjutsu, so you don't think too much, go on the road."

Fujita Quintonglin's expression was full of shock and regret.

What is shocking is that China actually has such an inheritance of heavenly skills. Regrettably, I have come to an end in this life, and it is impossible to learn such a heavenly skill.

At this moment, Tenglin Quintongtian's face had begun to turn black and purple, and his eyes were staring, almost shooting out of his eye sockets.

And his whole person couldn't stop convulsing suddenly, and his whole person was shaking violently.

The reason for this is also because he himself smeared cyanide on his short blade. This highly toxic substance killed him very quickly and in a tragic manner.

This state continued for about ten seconds, and Tenglin Quintongtian lost his vitality and turned into a stiff corpse.

Charlie Wade didn't have any sympathy for the tragic death of Tenglin Quintongtian. This man carried so many poisonous weapons with him. God knows how many people he killed with these weapons before. Now, it is best for him to let him eat the consequences. punishment.

In other words, this is also his best destination.

Otherwise, if the crime is in the hands of other enemies someday, you may not even be able to keep a whole body.

At this moment, there was a short and slight vibration in Tenglin Quintongtian's pocket.

If it weren't for Charlie Wade's extremely keen senses, it would be impossible to detect it.

Astonished, he reached out to touch the inner pocket of Tenglin Quintongtian's shirt, and he found a mobile phone.

This mobile phone seems to have specially modified the vibration motor, which greatly shortens the period of vibration and greatly reduces the force of vibration. It is estimated that it is to prevent the mobile phone from revealing its whereabouts when it is hidden.

At this time, a message was displayed on the screen of the phone. After Charlie Wade unlocked the phone with Teng Lin Quintongtian's finger, he saw a text message with the title Teng Lin Zhengzhe. The text message contained only two numbers: "07."

Charlie Wade couldn't help frowning, scrolling up the text messages of the two and found that they were all communicating with two digits. Teng Lin Zhengzhe sent a 03, and Teng Lin Quintongtian responded with an 11. Chapter 1734

Charlie Wade speculated that this should be some kind of agreed code between them. Only they themselves know what the different numbers mean, so that they can realize basic communication encryption, even if they get Tenglin Quintongtian's mobile phone, There is no idea what the two are passing on.

However, Charlie Wade felt that the 07 sent by Teng Lin Zhengzhe should really mean to ask Teng Lin Quintongtian about his situation.

Thinking of this, he gently bends the phone with both hands, and when the phone is powered off, he put the phone back into Tenglin Quintongtian's pocket.

Immediately afterwards, he took out his mobile phone and called Cameron Isaac.

As soon as the phone was connected, he ordered: "Isaac, let your hands prepare a light refrigerated car, and then drive to the park on the outskirts of the river."

Cameron Isaac asked in surprise: "Master, what do you want to freeze the car for?"

Charlie Wade said lightly: "Be a big popsicle of personal flesh."

When Cameron Isaac heard this, he immediately became nervous, and blurted out, "Master, have you been attacked?! Are you okay?"

"Of course it's okay." Charlie Wade said: "You quickly do as I told you to find a car first, and I will send you the address in a moment."

"it is good!"

.....

At this moment, inside a hotel in downtown Nagoya.

Teng Lin Zhengzhe was about to install a bug in Charlie Wade's room. Just to be cautious, he sent Tenglin Quintongtian a message to ask him about his tracking, such as where Charlie Wade went and how long it will take to return.

If Charlie Wade can't come back for a while, then he can safely sneak into his room.

However, when the message was sent, Tenglin Quintongtian never responded, which made him feel a little uneasy.

The other two juniors were also in his room. Seeing Tenglin Quintongtian not responding to messages, everyone looked a little worried.

The four of them have worked closely for so many years and are very familiar with each other. There is no lag in the communication between them under any circumstances. The information is basically returned within seconds, and there has never been a situation where there is no reply for a few minutes.

Teng Lin Zhengzhe couldn't help muttering: "Could it be that Quintongtian was discovered by the other party?"

The second junior brother said: "No, senior brother! The fourth child has the strongest concealment ability. If he gets serious, the three of us together may not be able to find him. How can the Chinese detect his trace?"

Teng Lin Zhengzhe waved his hand and said solemnly: "Quintongtian hasn't responded to the message for so long. This is obviously very abnormal. Therefore, it is no longer meaningful to discuss his strength. The key is to find him!"

Thinking of this, he hurriedly sent another message to Tenglin Quintongtian. The content of this message was the number 10, which means one hundred thousand in a hurry, and he responded quickly!

However, when the message was sent, it still fell to the ground!

He waited anxiously for another minute, but there was still no response. The expressions of all three people became very ugly.

The Third Junior Brother couldn't sit still, and stood up and said, "Big Brother, go out and look for it!"

"Looking for?" Teng Lin Zhengzhe smacked his lips: "Where to find?"

Quintongtian has not communicated with us since we separated from us, we don't even know which direction to choose when we leave the hotel!"

The second younger brother blurted out: "What if there is an accident in Quintongtian?"

Teng Lin Zhengzhe said with a black face: "I think with Quintongtian's strength, even if it is discovered by the opponent, he can still fight. It may not really be an accident. Maybe it has already started with the opponent!"

After that, he blurted out: "Second, give Quintongtian a call!"

Chapter 1735

Teng Lin Zhengzhe's last hope is to pray that the reason why Tenglin Quintongtian didn't reply was because he was following Charlie Wade or was fighting Charlie Wade fiercely.

In short, as long as he is still alive.

The second child picked up the phone and immediately called Tenglin Quintongtian.

As a result, a series of prompts appeared on the phone, telling him that the other party's mobile phone might not be able to connect temporarily because of no signal.

The cold sweat of the second child shed at once.

He hurriedly said to Teng Lin Zhengzhe: "Brother, Quintongtian's phone cannot be connected..."

"How come..." Teng Lin Zhengzhe stood up immediately and blurted out:

"Quintongtian's mobile phone is always on standby all the time, why can't it be connected suddenly..."

The old third looked panicked and said, "Brother, has Quintongtian already encountered an accident?"

The second child said with certainty: "There must be a big problem!

Otherwise, Quintongtian will never be so abnormal!"

After that, he looked at Teng Lin Zhengzhe: "Brother, we have to find him!"

"Look?" Teng Lin Zhengzhe's expression was extremely ugly, and he said:

"We don't know where to look. If Quintongtian really encounters an accident, even if we find him, he may become a corpse. We risk it. If you look for it, you might expose yourself..."

"Then what to do?!" The third child asked: "Brother, we can't just sit and wait for death, right?"

Teng Lin Zhengzhe gritted his teeth and said, "Of course you can't sit and wait! So, you two will go downstairs and watch. I will install a bug in the Chinese room. If they come back, tell me immediately."

The second child asked eagerly: "Brother, what is the point of installing a bug now? What we are looking for now is the whereabouts of Quintongtian!"

Teng Lin Zhengzhe said coldly: "If Quintongtian really encounters an accident, then only the Chinese will know his whereabouts. Only by closely monitoring him can we know the whereabouts of Quintongtian!"

With that, Teng Lin Zhengzhe sighed and said: "Second, third, you two must be mentally prepared that Quintongtian is not alive.."

The expressions of the two suddenly became indescribable pain.

They are all senior brothers. Although they are not real brothers, they are also members of the Tenglin family. They are distant relatives. They have grown up together, learned ninjutsu together, and have the same siblings. Suddenly they were prepared for this. The two of them were naturally very sad.

However, Teng Lin Zhengzhe's words are indeed correct.

Nagoya is not very big, but it is definitely not a small city. With the capabilities of the three of them, it is impossible to find a missing person in this city.

The only clue is the Chinese. Therefore, all clues and truth must wait for him to return before they can surface.

As a result, the three immediately divided the work and cooperated. The two watched in the entrance hall downstairs of the hotel, and Teng Lin Zhengzhe sneaked into Charlie Wade's room and installed multiple bugs in the secret location of the room.

.....

Ten minutes later, Cameron Isaac, one of his subordinates, and the three of them, including Don Albertt, drove a refrigerated truck to the park where he was.

After the car stopped outside the park, Cameron Isaac and Don Albertt ran all the way to see Charlie Wade standing in front of a black and purple corpse, and the corpse even swallowed his own toes with his mouth wide open, and he was shocked!

Don Albertt couldn't help asking: "Master Wade, this...who is this person?!"

Charlie Wade said lightly: "A Japanese ninja, a member of the Takahashi family."

Chapter 1736

"The Takahashi family?!" Both were shocked.

Cameron Isaac blurted out: "Master! Is the Takahashi family going to kill you?!"

Charlie Wade nodded: "They want to follow me first, and then find a suitable opportunity to kill me."

Cameron Isaac gritted his teeth and cursed: "A Takahashi family is just as powerful as the Eastcliff Sun family at best, so they have such courage!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "People are still very strong at least in this three-acre land in Tokyo."

With that, Charlie Wade asked him: "Has the refrigerated car been found?"

"found it"! Cameron Isaac said: "We bought a freezer box to transport seafood directly from the seafood market at a high price. We drove over before the car had time to unload the cargo."

Charlie Wade asked: "According to that, the carriage is still frozen, right?"

Cameron Isaac nodded: "In the car, it is 20 degrees below zero. The fish inside is so hard that it can kill people."

Charlie Wade said with satisfaction: "Okay, you and Don Albertt lift this guy up and move it into the car before freezing."

Cameron Isaac asked hurriedly, "Master, what about the Takahashi family? Don't you ask them?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "The Takahashi family sent a total of four ninjas, one dead, and three more. When the four brothers have gathered in the freezer, they will be sent to Takahashi Zhenzhi at once. I gave him a big gift!"

The frozen container truck has a quick-freezing function. When the power is fully turned on, the body of Tenglin Quintongtian can be frozen into a pile of ice in ten minutes.

Before a few people put Tenglin Quintongtian on the freezer container, Charlie Wade took off the cowhide cover that stored the shuriken from him, planning to use it for others.

Afterwards, Charlie Wade told Cameron Isaac's subordinate who drove: "You first drive the car to a hidden place and park it properly. Remember not to cut off the oil and power of the refrigerated truck. Make sure that the container keeps cooling. I want to send four ice sculptures to Gaoqiao Zhenzhi. Don't look back. People will turn into four piles of rotten meat when they receive it. It won't be good if you give me a bad review. After all, I am an overseas customer and an international friend. The subordinate nodded quickly and said, "Don't worry, I must arrange this car properly!"

Cameron Isaac asked at this time: "Master, we are going to Osaka next stop. Will this car follow us? Will it be alerted by the other party?"

Charlie Wade said: "In principle, where we go, this car will go wherever we go, but there is no need to follow us closely. If we set off tomorrow, let this car leave us two hours first."

Cameron Isaac nodded immediately: "Okay!"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "The three of you go back. I will deal with the scene and go back by myself."

Cameron Isaac asked hurriedly: "Is there anything I can help? Or I will stay!"

"No." Charlie Wade said lightly: "I will go back after I finish handling it. This will also prevent the group of people from seeing the clues."

Seeing this, Cameron Isaac nodded and said, "Master, since this is the case, then I and Don Albertt will go back first."

After Cameron Isaac and Don Albertt left, Charlie Wade dealt with some traces in the park.

He found all the six-handed swords in Tenglin Quintongtian. He did not discard the six-handed swords, but put them all back in the cowhide case and kept them next to him.

Afterwards, the blood stains on the ground were also cleaned up by him, leaving no traces.

After doing all this, he was alone, walking back to the hotel leisurely.

Chapter 1737

The two juniors of Teng Lin Zhengzhe were watching around the hotel lobby.

Seeing that Charlie Wade returned to the hotel without incident, they immediately notified Teng Lin Zhengzhe. At the same time, the two of them were surprised at the same time. This guy seemed to have just gone out for a walk, and could not see anything. Didn't Tenglin Quintongtian act with him for the traces of fighting with others? !

The reason why they think so is because both of them feel that even if Tenglin Quintongtian's strength is not as good as Charlie Wade, it will certainly not be so weak.

If he has encountered an accident now, then his opponent will be injured a little bit, and it is absolutely impossible to look like nothing happened.

Teng Lin Zhengzhe, who had already installed several bugs in Charlie Wade's room, quietly walked out of Charlie Wade's room, and then told them on the intercom: "Come to my room!"

In fact, as soon as Charlie Wade entered the door, he noticed the breath of these two people.

After all, he followed himself all the way from Tokyo to Nagoya, and he was already familiar with these four people to a certain extent.

Seeing these people waiting for him in the hotel lobby, Charlie Wade knew that they must have a plan.

So he took the elevator back to his room quietly.

As soon as I entered the door, I felt another familiar feeling in the air.

From the inheritance of the "Apocalyptic Book", Charlie Wade knew that everyone has their own unique aura.

The so-called breath is like the magnetic field in physics.

A big living person, no matter how good he is to hide his figure, if he doesn't have the ability like Charlie Wade, it is difficult to hide his breath.

This is like a running car, no matter how environmentally friendly it is, it will definitely emit a faint exhaust gas, and the exhaust will still be in the air when the car is gone.

However, the smell of exhaust gas can be detected by anyone with a keen sense of smell.

However, the faint breath of a person is easy to dissipate, and unless the sense organs are extremely sensitive, it is impossible to detect it.

Teng Lin Zhengzhe thought he was hiding well, but he didn't expect that Charlie Wade would have noticed the traces he left as soon as he entered the room.

So Charlie Wade calmly looked around in the room and found several wireless bugs hidden on the back of the furniture, the bottom of the sofa, and the ceiling.

Seeing this, Charlie Wade couldn't help but sneer.

Since the Japanese friends even used the wiretap, and I didn't perform a play for them, I'm really sorry for their troublesome arrangements.

So he took out his mobile phone and sent a text WeChat message to Cameron Isaac and Don Albertt: "My room was tapped. Don Albertt will not come to my room for now. Isaac will cooperate with me in a show later."

Cameron Isaac hurriedly sent a text asking him what arrangements he had. Charlie Wade sent him a bunch of lines he played live, and then sent him a voice: "Isaac, come to my room."

After half a minute, Cameron Isaac knocked on Charlie Wade's door.

When the door was closed, Charlie Wade spoke nervously, "Isaac, I feel that Nagoya is a bit weird."

Cameron Isaac hurriedly followed Charlie Wade's script and asked him: "Master, what do you mean by weird?"

Charlie Wade said with some worry: "When I went for a walk just now, I always had a strange feeling, as if someone had been following me."

"No, master!" Cameron Isaac hurriedly said, "We have already left Tokyo, and we went to Yokohama in the middle, and now we are in Nagoya. Maybe no one will follow us here all the time?"

"It's hard to say." Charlie Wade sighed: "I played that bastard on the streets of Tokyo. It seems that I have a damn background. As the saying goes, strong dragons do not suppress local snakes. We go out and provoke the local big family. It's still a little troublesome!"

At this moment, in Teng Lin Zhengzhe's room, the three of them were already dumbfounded when they heard it on the radio.

The third child blurted out: "Brother, I heard what this guy meant, he didn't seem to meet Quintongtian directly?"

Teng Lin Zhengzhe stopped him with gestures, and said: "Keep listening!"

At this time, Cameron Isaac said again: "Master, are you a little too sensitive? I don't feel anyone is following us."

Chapter 1738

Charlie Wade said very seriously: "I always feel that something is wrong. Just now when I was out for a walk, I inexplicably heard someone behind it seemed to be fighting, and there was the sound of weapons colliding, but I looked back, what? nothing."

Cameron Isaac thought for a moment, and said, "Master, I think you are still too sensitive. Maybe you have auditory hallucinations."

"It's still not quite right." Charlie Wade smacked his lips: "The movement I overheard was very chaotic. It seemed that several people struck for a while, and then someone struggling and whimpering as if their mouth was covered, waiting for me to follow. When the voice walked over, there was a pool of blood on the ground, and there was also a shoe. That shoe was f*cking weird..."

Cameron Isaac said: "Master, the blood may be animal. As for shoes, what's weird about a shoe?"

Charlie Wade said very seriously: "Do you dare to believe that there is a damn knife on the toe of that shoe? It's like a f*cking movie, it's a damn door."

Cameron Isaac exclaimed: "What? There is a knife on the toe of the shoe? Is this too weird?!"

In Teng Lin Zhengzhe's room, when they heard Charlie Wade's words, all three looked terrified!

The second child said with some horror: "Brother, this should be Quintongtian's ninja shoes!"

Teng Lin Zhengzhe also became nervous and frowned, "According to what he said, it is possible that Quintongtian was harmed by others?"

The third child added at this time: "It is very likely that he is also a ninja!"

On the other side, Cameron Isaac asked Charlie Wade: "Master, do you think this is the legendary Japanese ninja?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said in agreement: "I think it's possible too!"

Cameron Isaac asked curiously: "Did you happen to have a ninja fighting with a ninja?"

Charlie Wade groaned: "I always think it shouldn't be so coincidental. I feel vaguely in my heart that maybe this matter has something to do with me."

"Can't it?" Cameron Isaac blurted out: "According to you, is it because someone wanted to mantis catch cicadas at you, and then was followed by other oriole?"

Charlie Wade said: "The ghost knows, it's possible, so I think this place in Nagoya is a bit weird. Let's finish our work as soon as possible and leave as soon as possible!"

Cameron Isaac snorted and said: "Master, I will make arrangements for me to arrive at the airport in the middle of the night, and the pharmaceutical factory will start trial production in the early morning. As long as the trial production is okay, let's leave this place of right and wrong!"

"Okay." Charlie Wade sighed and cursed in a low voice: "It's f*cking annoying. I have never had to worry about it since I've been in Japan. If I don't withdraw quickly this time, I might have to get involved in the disputes of the big Japanese family. go with."

Having said that, Charlie Wade waved his hand and said: "Okay, you go back and tell everyone to stay alert to avoid making mistakes!"

"it is good!"

After Cameron Isaac finished speaking, he left Charlie Wade's room.

At this time, Teng Lin Zhengzhe was a little confused.

He and his two younger brothers felt that what Charlie Wade said should be true.

There are four reasons.

First, it is impossible for Charlie Wade to retreat unscathed after starting hands with Tenglin Quintongtian;

Second, Charlie Wade couldn't detect the bug in the room, so he didn't have to lie in the room and act;

Third, Charlie Wade mentioned Tenglin Quintongtian's ninja shoes, and mentioned the short blade hidden in the ninja shoes! This feature is very secretive. With the three of them understanding Tenglin Quintongtian, it is impossible for Tenglin Quintongtian to use this hand to press the bottom of the box when it is not a last resort and must work hard!

Fourth, Charlie Wade just said that he heard that there were many people fighting, and there was only one person in Tenglin Quintongtian. If many people were fighting, it would prove that he was ambushed by many people, so this is also right with his sudden disappearance. Ok.

After analyzing all of this, Teng Lin Zhengzhe gritted his teeth and said: "All of this shows a fact: we were targeted by another group of ninjas!"

Teng Lin Zhengzhe's second junior brother blurted out and asked, "Brother, who do you think it will be?"

Teng Lin Zhengzhe thought for a moment, and said seriously: "We have never offended any ninja family on weekdays, so I guess that the one who did it on Quintongtian is most likely the enemy of the Takahashi family!" The third junior slapped his thigh immediately: "Damn, is it the Ito family?!"

Chapter 1739

At this moment, Tokyo, Japan.

Maki Takahashi ended a whole day of talks with Fitz and Zara.

The talks between the two sides can be said to be very in-depth, and both sides are very satisfied with each other.

This is mainly because Fitz and Zara feel that this person Takahashi Zhenzhi is very good, and he does not need to guide him to kill the Ito family himself. He already has this consciousness.

Secondly, it is also because in order to finalize the cooperation as soon as possible, Takahashi deliberately released a few percentage points of the profit share on the specific cooperation terms.

Fitz originally wanted to talk about the next three-to-seven cooperation agreement. Whether it was with the Takahashi family or the Ito family, only 30% of the benefits would be given to them.

But what I didn't expect was that Takahashi himself reduced his expected profit share to 25%!

Even Zara feels that the target of this cooperation can basically be finalized, that is, the Takahashi family. As for the Ito family, there is no need for negotiation.

But out of business reputation, the siblings decided to talk to the Ito family before making the final decision.

After all, before I came, I had made an appointment with someone from the Ito family, and I couldn't just kick the opponent out before I met.

Therefore, even if they just walked through the scenes, they couldn't let the Banks Family talk.

This is the business field.

Even if he has sharpened his knives secretly and is about to slaughter the other person to eat meat, he will still be very polite on the surface, and even call him brothers and sisters.

Machi Takahashi is indeed a smart man.

He knew that the Ito family could never offer better terms than their own. Even if the Ito family could accept a 25% share of the bill, they couldn't take the initiative to propose to the Banks Family to unite with the Banks Family to kill themselves.

After all, when doing business in peace times, most people are afraid to shout and kill. Even if they have this idea, they are still hiding in their hearts and afraid to speak out.

Ito Yuhiko didn't know the malicious plan of the Banks Family, and naturally it was impossible to actively cater to their tastes.

But I am different.

He had made a mistake and had known Banks' hole cards in advance.

Therefore, he believes that the Banks Family will eventually choose himself!

By then, the Takahashi family will also become the top presence in Japan!

Just when he was excited about this, he suddenly received a call from Teng Lin Zhengzhe.

Seeing that it was his call, Maki Takahashi immediately thought of the Chinese man who abolished his son's arms in the street!

This incident is simply the greatest shame the Takahashi family has suffered over the years! Every time I think about it, Takahashi really gets angry!

So he immediately connected the phone and asked in a cold voice,

"Tenglin, how is the matter going? Where is that bastard now?"

Teng Lin Zhengzhe hurriedly said: "Mr. Takahashi, something has happened to accidents. If I guessed correctly, my junior brother should be dead now, and there is no dead body!"

Chapter 1740

"What?!" Takahashi blurted out in shock: "You mean, Tenglin Quintongtian is dead? Who did it?! Is that the Chinese?!"

"No." Teng Lin Zhengzhe said with a gloomy expression: "There is a high probability that another ninja family did it!"

"Another ninja family?" Takahashi Machi frowned. "Did you provoke anyone?"

"No." Teng Lin Zhengzhe said: "Mr. Takahashi, our brothers have been doing things for you all these years. Except for your enemies, we have not made enemies outside, so I suspect that the other party should be directed against you.!"

"Targeting me?!" Takahashi blurted out, "Who is targeting me? And the other party also used ninjas. It seems that the background is not small!" Teng Lin Zhengzhe asked him: "Mr. Takahashi, do you think it is the Ito family? As far as I know, the famous Koga family in the ninja family has always been closely related to them!"

"This" Takahashi was also a little confused.

He didn't know what happened to Tenglin Quintongtian and who was killed by him.

So I thought in my heart: "There are not many ninja families in China. Except for the ninjas of the Ito family, the remaining families seem to have no need to be an enemy of me."

"Could it be that the old dog, Takehiko Ito, is also plotting to kill me?!"

At this time, Maki Takahashi, because he originally wanted to kill Ito Yuhiko, he felt somewhat preconceived in his heart that Ito Yuhiko might also be planning to kill himself!

"It seems that everyone is a swordsman, and they want to put each other to death!"

Thinking of this, he blurted out: "This time the big Chinese family came to Tokyo to meet me first. Ito Yuihiko must be furious, maybe he is targeting me!"

"And I guess, he is now waiting to discuss cooperation with the Banks Familyy. In order to leave a good impression on the Banks Familyy, he dare not directly act on me at this time, so he acted on you first. I estimate Ito's purpose. It is to weaken my strength in advance, and then slowly clean up me!"

Teng Lin Zhengzhe hurriedly asked, "Mr. Takahashi, what shall we do now?" Takahashi really thought about it for a long time, gritted his teeth and said in a deep voice: "Tenglin, you have been a little low-key these days, and you will send more people to watch the bastard secretly and wait for my news. Once I successfully sign the contract with the Banks Familyy, I will be the first Get rid of that bastard! To snow the shame of my Takahashi family!"

Teng Lin Zhengzhe immediately said: "Good Mr. Takahashi, I will definitely fulfill my mission!"

Maki Takahashi said again: "In addition, you will mobilize a group of people from your family to rush to Kyoto overnight!"

"Go to Kyoto?!" Teng Lin Zhengzhe asked in surprise: "Mr. Takahashi, why should I send people to Kyoto?"

Machi Takahashi said coldly: "Ito Yuhiko's baby daughter has been recuperating in Kyoto since he was injured. You will monitor her closely. When I started with Ito Yuhiko, I didn't want to leave any troubles, so his daughter Nanako Ito must also dead!"

"Furthermore, it is good for me to monitor Nanako Ito in advance. If Ito Yuhiko dares to attack me, then I will use his daughter as a threat and force him to dictate himself! In this way, I will have a double insurance!"

Teng Lin Zhengzhe immediately said: "I understand Mr. Takahashi, then I will notify the family, immediately arrange for personnel to go to Kyoto, and secretly monitor Ito Yuhiko's daughter!"

Maki Takahashi gritted his teeth and said: "Tenglin, you must make sure that as long as I call, your people will immediately kill Nanako Ito!"

Teng Lin Zhengzhe promised: "Mr. Takahashi, don't worry, Teng Lin should go all out!"

Takahashi hummed, and said, "Tenglin, don't worry, after you cooperate with me to destroy the Ito family, I will definitely give you a very generous remuneration, and then a generous settlement allowance for your junior."

Teng Lin Zhengzhe hurriedly said, "Then I would like to thank Mr. Takahashi in advance!"

Chapter 1741

Aman Hotel Tokyo.

After taking a shower, Zara turned on the laptop in her room, and again, together with her brother, had a video conference with Zayne who was far away in Eastcliff.

The two brothers and sisters truthfully reported Takahashi's huge concession to Zayne, and Zayne was greatly surprised.

In Zayne's view, Takahashi's true knowledge is too high, not only has the determination to kill the Ito family, but also has the consciousness of letting Lee give the Banks Family and be willing to be a younger brother.

Such a person can be said to be teachable.

Zara said: "Dad, we will meet Ito Yuhiko from the Ito family tomorrow as agreed in advance, but I think Ito Yuhiko has already lost his competitiveness in this cooperation. Bridge really knows better conditions."

Zayne gave a hum, and laughed: "Then go through the cutscene. After finishing the superficial work, you can sign with the Takahashi family, but before signing, you have to go to the major ports in Japan. Let's take a look at the actual operations of Tokyo, Yokohama, Nagoya and Osaka Port."

Zara nodded and said, "Don't worry, my brother and I have already planned the schedule."

"That's good." Zayne smiled with satisfaction: "I didn't expect Takahashi Jinzhi to be willing to reduce the share to 25%. You must know that your grandfather's psychological price was 30% at the time, and the maximum tolerance limit was 35%. Directly on the basis of his tolerance limit, he cut down 10%. After the contract is signed, your grandfather will be very happy and will definitely give you a great credit!"

Fitz smiled and said, "Dad, if Grandpa really gives us a great credit, can he let him give the entire ocean shipping business to our family?"

Zayne smiled and said, "I will definitely win this business from the old man, and I think the probability of the old man agreeing is very high. You will do a good job of preparing for cooperation in Japan. Then I will talk to the old man. Talk about it, try to let him give this business to your brothers and sisters."

Zara hurriedly waved his hand: "Dad, I don't want to do it, just let Brother take over."

Zayne asked in amazement: "Why? Why don't you want to do such a good opportunity?"

Zara said seriously: "I will go to the United States to study for an MBA after finishing this matter."

Fitz hurriedly said, "Oh, sister, you are so talented, what MBA are you still studying? It's a waste of time. It's better to go back to work in the family earlier and lock up some resources in advance!"

Zara shook his head: "Learning is endless. I don't want to come back to work so early, and I am not so interested in family resources."

Zayne hurriedly said: "Zara, you are not too young anymore. It's almost time to consider marriage. MBA is too time-consuming to read. It's better to get married in two years."

Zara asked back: "Get married? With whom?"

Zayne said: "Your grandpa will naturally help you choose the best one."

"I don't want it." Zara shook his head: "If I let my grandfather choose for me, then I might as well find someone who looks pleasing on the streets of Tokyo and marry casually."

"Stop talking about these bastards!" Zayne angrily said: "Don't let your grandpa ask you to go to Japan to talk about cooperation, but he will never allow you to marry a Japanese!"

Zara curled his lips and deliberately said to Zayne sullenly: "Who said I was going to marry a Japanese? There are also many Chinese people on the streets of Tokyo, okay? I met one on the way, who was tall and handsome. It's pretty fanciful, I think he's pleasing to the eye, or I can marry him, it's much better than going back and letting my grandfather choose for me."

Fitz said awkwardly: "Do you know what they are called?"

Zara hummed: "I'm just making an analogy. It doesn't matter what his name is. I can ask him next time I meet."

Fitz smiled and said: "I guess there is no chance to see him. With Takahashi's character, he will definitely not let him leave Japan alive."

Zara raised his eyebrows and said: "How do you know that Takahashi can kill him? I think that man is very capable, and Takahashi may not be able to do anything to him."

Fitz shook his head and said with a smile: "The strong dragon does not hold down the snake. Even if the two fists can beat four hands, they may not be able to beat forty or four hundred hands."

Chapter 1742

Hearing this, Zara's expression became a bit solemn.

What I said just now was just to get angry with my father, but when I really thought of the figure of that man, Zara was quite worried for him. Thinking that Machi Takahashi might not let him go easily, Zara blurted out: "Next time I have an interview with Machi Takahashi, I will warn him. If he dares to quietly attack that man after the cooperation is reached, then I Terminate cooperation at any time!"

"Naughty!" Zayne sternly scolded, "As the representative of the Banks Familyy, everything must be based on the interests of the Banks Familyy. How can you let a strange man affect the interests of the Banks Familyy?! As long as we can get Takahashi Zhenzhi The biggest concession clause, what does the life and death of this strange man have to do with us?!"

Zara also moved a bit of anger, and argued for reason: "The man offended the Takahashi family to save a little girl from his compatriots. How can I let the Takahashi family kill him?"

Zayne said disdainfully: "When the Takahashi family kills him, don't you just look at it?"

Zara said angrily: "Dad! How can you do this?! Are there any principles and morals?"

"Principles and ethics?" Zayne said coldly: "My principles and ethics are for the interests of the Banks Familyy! For the interests of the Banks Familyy, I don't need any principles and ethics!"

"you"

Zara was speechless.

Fitz hurriedly finished the game at this time: "Dad, Zara, we haven't finished talking about our business, why are you two still arguing?"

Zayne said with a gloomy expression: "Okay, don't talk about these meaningless things, Zara, you're going to study the MBA, let's discuss it after you come back."

"No need to discuss." Zara said with a very cold expression: "The admission notice of Harvard Business School has been sent to my mailbox. School starts in August, and I will leave in May."

"You kid"

Zayne was about to say something. Fitz just received a call on his cell phone. The call was from an assistant who came to Tokyo with them. The other party said in WeChat: "Young Master, the patriarch of the Matsumoto family in Tokyo, Ryoto Matsumoto begs to see you and the young lady at the hotel reception!

"The Matsumoto family?" Fitz frowned, "Is the Matsumoto family ranked third in Tokyo?"

"Yes!"

Fitz looked at the video conference interface on the computer and asked, "Dad, Zara, Matsumoto, the Matsumoto family, want to see you, do you want to meet?"

Zayne said disdainfully: "As far as I know, the strength of the Matsumoto family is much worse than that of the Takahashi family and the Ito family. We only need to choose between the Takahashi family and the Ito family. There is no need to waste energy planting garbage."

Fitz said to the assistant on the phone, "Reject the beloved Matsumoto, just say that I have taken a break and I will not see guests."

Zara opened his mouth at this moment: "Brother, let's see. This beloved Matsumoto still has some abilities. It is really not easy to bring the Matsumoto family together on his own, and as the saying goes. The smiley man, the patriarch of a family came to the hotel to see him personally. This has already put the figure very low. If we don't even see it, it will be more or less justifiable."

Zayne opened his mouth at this time: "Zara, you like to think more about things. This is good, but you can't think about everything so much. It will be too late! If you see this beloved Matsumoto tonight, maybe tomorrow The 4th, 5th, and even the 40th and 50th families in Tokyo will come to the hotel to ask to see you. Can you handle it?"

"This" Zara didn't know how to answer at once.

Zayne continued: "Okay, this matter is still up to your brother, reject it."

Zara nodded: "Okay"

Chapter 1743

The lobby of the Aman Hotel.

Ryoto Matsumoto, who is not yet forty years old, is looking forward to meeting with the Banks Familyy.

He personally came to the hotel to meet the Banks Familyy this time, hoping to use a humble attitude and attitude to seek an opportunity to interview the Banks Familyy.

Although the strength of the Matsumoto family is not as good as that of Takahashi and Ito, Ryoto Matsumoto feels that his ability is not weaker than anyone, and he is young and bold. He is definitely the ideal partner for the Banks Familyy.

However, the Matsumoto family had insufficient precipitation in the early years, and it was far from the Takahashi and Ito families.

Although Ryoto Matsumoto resolutely led the Matsumoto family to develop rapidly and catch up with them, there was still some distance from them. In fact, the Matsumoto family can be said to be the fastest rising family in Tokyo.

Ten years ago, it was still unknown. Today, ten years later, it is second only to Takahashi and Ito. This speed is regarded as a miracle to the outside world.

Therefore, Ryoto Matsumoto believes that as the head of the family, he came to the hotel to ask for a meeting in person, which definitely gave the Banks Familyy a lot of face.

However, he didn't know that in the eyes of the Banks Familyy, the strength of the Matsumoto family was about half that of the Takahashi family or the Ito family, so the Banks Familyy naturally wouldn't take him in their eyes.

At this time, Ryoto Matsumoto is full of confidence. He is a recognized business genius in Japan, a young and rich man who has the real ability to fight the world, so he thinks that the Banks Familyy should give himself a chance to have an interview, and he will definitely use it. Their eloquence and vision convince them to cooperate with them.

Ryoto Matsumoto's assistant was somewhat apprehensive, and said, "Boss, do you think the Banks Familyy will be willing to cooperate with us?"

Ryoto Matsumoto tidied up his suit and tie, and said confidently: "When I meet in a while, I will use my abilities and charm to make the Banks Familyy realize that my Ryoto Matsumoto is their most perfect one. Partners! As for Yuhiko Ito and Maki Takahashi, they are just a bunch of old men with outdated thinking and worrying abilities!"

As soon as the voice fell, Banks' assistant made a call to the front desk.

The little girl at the front desk answered the phone and immediately came to Ms. Matsumoto, bowed and said: "Mr. Matsumoto, I'm really sorry, Mr. Banks and Ms. Banks don't have time to see you, please go back."

Ryoto Matsumoto was stunned, and after a while, he asked in a daze, "What are you talking about? They don't have time to see me?!"

The little girl at the front desk nodded slightly and said, "It is true, so please go back."

Matsumoto immediately felt hot on her face!

I am also the patriarch of the Matsumoto family anyway, and a leader among young Japanese entrepreneurs. Those who came to the hotel to meet with the Banks Familyy in person can say that they have put their identity very humble.

But I never dreamed that even though I came to see me so humble, I would still receive the most ruthless and direct insult from the other party!

"No time to?!"

"Just let me go if I don't have time?!"

"The Banks Familyy is too arrogant, even too arrogant, right?!"

"Even if you are China's top family, even if you do have very good big projects, you can't put my face on the ground, right?!"

"What's more, if you step on my face, you don't step on it yourself, let a hotel front desk step on it. Where do you put my face?!"

Thinking of this, Ryoto Matsumoto had a dark face and said coldly to the front desk: "Contact them again and tell them that I am the patriarch of the Matsumoto family and the president of the Tokyo Young Entrepreneurs Association. Come here today. , Just to see the young master and young lady of the Banks Familyy, so that they must take time to talk to me once!"

Chapter 1744

The front desk was frightened by his hideous expression, and he said falteringly: "This gentleman, I'm really sorry! The assistants of the two distinguished guests have clearly told us that the two distinguished guests really don't have time to see you, so please don't Embarrass us..." Ryoto Matsumoto's original strong self-confidence was instantly crushed by the powder hit by the front desk girl!

He cursed almost hysterically, "My name is Ryoto Matsumoto, not this gentleman! Do you understand?"

The girl at the front desk took a few steps back in fright: "I'm really sorry, Mr. Matsumoto, I'm just passing on the reply from the guest. Please forgive me..."

In the lobby, many people watched Matsumoto whispering.

These people whispered in twos and threes. Although they couldn't hear what they said, from their expressions, Matsumoto could see that they were all laughing at themselves!

He has always been arrogant, thinking that he is the top spot among young Japanese companies in terms of ability. Unexpectedly, he took the initiative to come to see him, but the other party didn't bother to see him! This made Matsumoto very resentful in his heart. Ryoto Matsumoto clenched his fists and gritted his teeth, and his entire popularity trembled violently. The more confident and conceited people are, the worse their psychological endurance. The more people feel that everyone has to look at themselves, the more afraid of being looked down upon by others. Ryoto Matsumoto is the most typical example.

At this time, he was angered to the extreme in his heart, but he couldn't find a vent to vent. And his blushing appearance made the people around him despise the sarcasm. Although many people may not have the strength and wealth of Mr. Matsumoto, they see Mr. Matsumoto making a fool of himself in the public, and they are still very dark in their hearts.

Seeing that everyone was laughing at him, Matsumoto's assistant hurried forward and said in a low voice, "Boss, let's go first, in case someone has something good take out their phone and shoot the video on the Internet, causing it to be bad. It's hard to deal with the impact of..." Matsumoto gritted his teeth and nodded lightly. The moment he turned and left, he felt the whole world laughing at himself behind his back. Bite the bullet and return to his car, Matsumoto immediately urged the driver to drive as soon as he got in. He was afraid that he would walk slowly, and would make people laugh, for fear that the ridicule and ridicule of those people would fall into his own. ear.

The assistant could not help but persuade him: "Boss, the Banks Familyy must feel that our overall strength is still much worse than that of Takahashi and Ito, so they are regarded as cooperation options and do not want to waste time with us, but this must be It is their loss!"

Matsumoto was silent for a long while, with bloodshot eyes, gritted his teeth and said, "Want to choose between Takahashi and Ito? Very good! Since they don't want the face, don't blame me for being cruel! This time, it happened to be. I have a great opportunity to surpass Takahashi and Ito in one fell swoop!"

The assistant asked in surprise: "Boss, you...what do you mean by this? Why can't I understand..."

Mr. Matsumoto said in a cold voice with a vicious expression: "You don't need to understand, just do as I tell you!"

The assistant immediately said: "Boss, just give your orders!"

Ryoto Matsumoto said coldly: "The first thing, I write a check for 20 million dollars. You take it to the head of the Iga family and tell him that it is only a deposit. If he is interested, come to the house. I talk, if he is not interested, the money will be my gift to him!"

Chapter 1745

The Kobayashi Pharmaceutical production line in Nagoya has soon been able to produce qualified Nova Dias.

This is mainly because Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals itself is a top pharmaceutical company in Asia, with very advanced production lines, even more advanced than those of Oracle Pharmaceuticals.

Therefore, their production line switched to Oracle Nova Dias, as long as the formula and medicinal materials are in place, there is almost no difficulty.

After the production line went into normal operation, Charlie Wade left Nagoya and headed to Osaka together with a group of people.

Because there is a Kyoto between Nagoya and Osaka, according to Charlie Wade's original plan, after Nagoya's affairs are over, he plans to go to Kyoto and see Nanako Ito.

However, there are three ninjas following all the way right now, and he doesn't want to bring these three people to Kyoto.

So, he planned to solve these three people in Osaka, and after all the troubles were dealt with, he went to see Nanako Ito.

After making this decision, he felt somewhat regretful.

I thought I could see Nanako Ito earlier, but I didn't expect to wait until the end of the trip to Japan this time.

Charlie Wade was more worried about her body, and didn't know how she was injured now.

When Charlie Wade left Nagoya, he found that Teng Lin Zhengzhe's three ninjas seemed to be more low-key than before.

They doubled the distance to follow Charlie Wade, and were completely afraid to approach him. On the one hand, it seemed that they were throwing a rat for the unknown whereabouts of Tenglin Quintongtian, and on the other hand, because they could not figure out who was secretly targeting them. So be more cautious.

The convoy drove onto the expressway and passed by Kyoto.

No one knows that the seemingly calm and quaint ancient city of Kyoto at this time has actually been undercurrents.

Maki Takahashi felt that Ito Yuihiko was secretly targeting him, so Teng Lin Zhengzhe transferred a group of ninjas from the family, who had already lurked to Kyoto secretly, and closely monitored the Ito family's residence in Kyoto.

Once Machi Takahashi orders them, they can kidnap Nanako Ito or kill Nanako Ito directly. And Yuihiko Ito was unaware of these at this time.

At this time, he was meeting with Fitz and Zara in Tokyo.

However, the meeting process was not pleasant. Although Ito Yuhiko is very enthusiastic, he can also see that Fitz and Zara brothers and sisters seem to have come and walk through the scene. Although the two brothers and sisters are also very polite and serious, and they talk very comprehensively, Ito Yuhiko always feels that, deep in their hearts, they are not very concerned about this cooperation. At the meeting, he proposed to obtain a 35% share in the cooperation. Originally, he wanted to leave 5% room for counter-offer to the other party, and it would basically be possible to reach a consensus by letting the other party press down to 30%. However, I did not expect Fitz to directly throw a sentence: "Mr. Ito, from the opinion of our Banks Familyy, if it is higher than 20%, we can't think about it."

"what?!"

Ito Yuhiko was immediately stunned, and exclaimed in his heart: "20%? This is too damn dark!"

Chapter 1746

Fitz has his own consideration.

In the view of the Banks Familyy, Maki Takahashi has two advantages compared with Ito Takehiko: first, he wants to kill the Ito family; second, he is willing to reduce the share to 25%;

Therefore, looking at Ito Yuhiko now, he thinks that Ito Yuhiko must be at least equal to Takahashi's two points, and the other point is better than Takahashi's conditions. The first is to kill the Ito family, which is already an extreme request. Whether it is asking the Takahashi family to kill the Ito family or asking the Ito family to kill the Takahashi family, as long as it is killed, it will be the ultimate.

Therefore, even Ito Yuhiko is willing to join hands to kill the Takahashi family. At this point, he is only equal to Takahashi Machi. In this way, unless he can get more favorable terms than Takahashi Zhenzhi's expulsion on the second article, there is no need for the Banks Familyy to consider it.

That's why he offered a 20% share. If Ito agrees, then persuade him to agree to join forces to kill the Takahashi family. In that case, he won another 5% interest for the Banks Familyy.

However, as soon as Ito Yuhiko heard about 20%, he couldn't stretch himself immediately.

He was very angry and secretly thought: "I want 35%, you give me 20%, and he said that if it is higher than 20%, it will not be considered, and there will be no room for bargaining. This is too much, right?"

"This matter requires me to take advantage of my own domestic port and let you foreign capital come in to make money, but you only let me account for only 20%. Isn't it a bit deceptive?!"

Thinking of this, Ito's anger rose in his heart. He said coldly to Fitz: "Master Banks, 20% is too much. I admit that the Banks Familyy is strong and there are many ocean-going ships in hand, but you can't do that either. Squeeze me?"

Fitz said seriously: "Mr. Ito, the squeeze is far from talking, but we do have a lot of initiative now. Japan's economy is now declining. It is difficult for you to do this business at this stage. You want to earn this. Money, only cooperate with us."

After a pause, Fitz said: "Although the 20% is less, after the business is running, the amount of this piece is still very large. If you make 10 billion US dollars a year, the Ito family can share 2 billion. , What is the concept of two billion US dollars? I believe it is impossible for the Ito family to have so much profit in a year, right?"

Ito Xiuhiko shook his head and said, "Master Banks who does not calculate the account like this. If I do this by myself, although I may not make an annual profit of 10 billion U.S. dollars, the problem of doing more than 1 billion is not big. If you work hard by yourself, maybe you can achieve the scale of two to three billion. If you look at it this way, am I a loss?"

Zara spoke with a bit of arrogance at this time: "Mr. Ito, you just said that you might be able to achieve the scale of two or three billion US dollars with your hard work. In my opinion, it is impossible."

Yuhiko Ito frowned and asked, "Why is it impossible? My Ito family is one of the best in Japan!"

Zara smiled and said with a bit of pressure: "To be honest, if the Banks Family is not ready to do this business, you may have this opportunity, but since the Banks Family is going to enter the market now, then the Banks Family is there. It is certainly impossible for you to do such a large scale, and even the Banks Family may not allow you to do this business."

Ito Yuhiko's pride was hit hard.

He did not expect that Zara, who had never spoken very much, could speak so directly!

It can even be said that I don't give any face to Ito Takehiko!

Feeling the shock, Ito's unconvinced emotions burst instantly. He gritted his teeth and said coldly: "If this is the case, then there is no need to talk about it. The Ito family will operate this business by themselves! You will see with your own eyes how I did this business!"

Zara smiled slightly: "Mr. Ito, then I wish you good luck!"

Chapter 1747

The negotiations between Fitz, Zara, and Ito Takehiko ended up unhappy. When the brothers and sisters left Ito Co., Ltd., Ito Yuhiko scolded Bantian Niang angrily on the spot.

On the way back to the hotel, Fitz asked Zara: "Zara, I just planned to flicker Ito Takehiko, and see if he can agree to the 20% ratio. Why did you suddenly turn your face with him?"

Zara smiled slightly and said, "20% is obviously lower than the lowest price he can afford, so no matter how you talk to him today, he will not be able to agree to this ratio. If you really want to force him, you must It has to give him enough pressure."

Fitz asked: "Do you have any good ideas?"

Zara said: "You call Zhenzhi Takahashi, saying that you plan to sign a contract with him tomorrow, but before signing the contract, you have to talk to him about the details. The time is set to be tomorrow morning."

Fitz asked: "How do you say? It's so decided. Give them a contract?"

"No." Zara said indifferently: "I plan to sign the contract, but the details have to be finalized. We can just find a reason and say at that time. There are some details that need to be discussed again, and I can move the signing date later."

While speaking, Zara said again: "If you let the wind go now, Ito Yuihiko will definitely be very anxious. If not tomorrow, he will lower his posture and take the initiative to talk to us again."

Fitz nodded and said, "Okay, then listen to you, I'll call Takahashi Zhenzhi!"

Maki Takahashi received a call from Fitz. When he heard that the Banks Family was about to sign a contract with him, he was so excited! Later, while arranging his staff to prepare for tomorrow's signing ceremony, he let people go out and told the whole Tokyo that the Banks Family was ready to sign with him.

This news immediately spread among the Tokyo business elite.

Countless people called and sent messages to congratulate Takahashi Machi, because they believed that once the Takahashi family and the Banks Family cooperate, the Takahashi family will surely surpass the Ito family and become the first family in Japan!

Ito Yuhiko also received the news very quickly. He was still angered, but after hearing the news, he almost went out of anger.

He did not expect that as soon as the news came out, the Takahashi family would become a hot target.

Now, the entire Tokyo city is beginning to chase Takahashi Machi, who regards Takahashi Machi as the future richest man in Japan, immediately let Ito Yuhiko realize the meaning of Zara's previous words.

If the Banks Family united with the Takahashi family, he would definitely not have a bright future.

If this were the case, the Ito family seemed unscathed, but actually suffered heavy losses.

In the past, he was able to equalize with the Takahashi family, but if this cooperation is lost, the Takahashi family will quickly leave him behind.

At that time, all the aura on him will be robbed by Takahashi Machi.

The invisible loss is almost immeasurable!

Ito Yuhiko, who was extremely bored, shut himself in the room and thought about it all afternoon.

In the end, after nightfall, he reluctantly made a decision and called Banks' family to try to talk again.

If it doesn't work, I will directly agree to the 20% cooperation terms of the Banks Family.

At this moment, Zara and Fitz had just finished eating in the revolving restaurant on the top floor of the hotel. After the two returned to their rooms, Zara was going to take a bath first.

At this time, the door bell rang, and she saw from the LCD screen that her brother was knocking on the door, so she opened the door by hand.

Fitz stood at the door, holding his mobile phone, and said with a smile: "Zara, you are a god! Ito Yuhiko just called me!"

Zara leaned on the door frame and asked with a smile, "What did he say?"

Chapter 1748

Fitz said excitedly: "He means he is willing to consider our proposals and conditions, but he still hopes to have a face-to-face talk. What do you think?"

Zara said, "I think it's okay. Call him back and ask him to come to the hotel to talk to us early tomorrow morning. If the talk is good, we will cooperate with him. Takahashi Jinzhi won't be there. Let's talk again; if the talks are not good, we will go directly to sign the contract with Takahashi Zhenzhi!"

"Okay!" Fitz said eagerly: "I'll call him back!"

As soon as Fitz's voice fell, four black-clad ninjas suddenly rushed down from the ceiling of the hotel corridor?!

Zara and Fitz hadn't had time to react, they were already subdued by them.

Zara roared in horror: "Who are you?!"

One of the masked ninjas said coldly: "Miss Banks, I'm Mr. Ito's subordinate. I have something to do with you, so please don't feel wronged!"

"What?!" Zara and Fitz were both dumbfounded!

Zara was horrified, and thought to himself: "Ito Yuihiko just called and said that he was going to negotiate with his brother again. Why did the ninja kill him in a blink of an eye?!"

"Could it be that his renegotiating is false and the kidnapping of us is true?"

Zara hurriedly blurted out: "Several people, is there any misunderstanding in this? We are just about to renegotiate the meeting with Mr. Ito. What are you doing?"

The man grinned: "Ms. Banks, ask what you should ask, don't ask what you shouldn't, just walk with us, we won't kill you, but if you want to resist, or use some tricks If you do, I'm sorry, I will let you two die in Japan!"

Zara realized that something might be wrong, and blurted out: "Several people, if it's about money, you can speak as much as you want. No matter who you are instructed, I can give you double or even triple four. Times the price!"

The man sneered and said, "Sorry, we ninjas always pay attention to credibility, so I asked Miss Banks and Mr. Banks to not feel wronged!"

Having said that, he immediately winked at the two people around him! The two men immediately took out two special handkerchiefs from their pockets.

A large amount of ether was spilled into the handkerchief.

Before Zara and Fitz could scream, they were tightly covered with a handkerchief.

Immediately afterwards, the smell of a chemical potion puffed up the nose, making the two of them immediately unconscious!

Afterwards, the two ninjas carried the two siblings on their shoulders, tied them firmly with straps, and threw the downhill rope directly from the window of the hotel room, leading them to slide down the ground from the wall as light as a swallow.

Outside, two commercial vehicles had been waiting for a long time. After the black-clothed ninja carried the unconscious Banks brother and sister into the vehicle, the two commercial vehicles drove away from the scene quickly!

This series of kidnappings was nothing short of passing, and no one in the entire hotel knew that the Banks brothers and sisters had been abducted!

What is even more frightening is that more than a dozen people from the Banks Family have been poisoned to death in their respective rooms at this time.

It was the military sarin gas used by this group of ninjas that killed them.

This poisonous gas is a military chemical weapon. In 1995, someone used this highly poisonous chemical weapon to cause a terrorist incident on the Japanese subway.

After sarin gas invades the human body through the respiratory tract or skin and mucous membranes, it can cause the death of the victim in a very short time, and the lethal dose is even only 10 mg.

After the two cars drove quickly away from the hotel, the man in the car took out his mobile phone and made a call: "Mr. Matsumoto, the man has been caught, and all the other people in the Banks Familyy have died. We are in their room, secretly. It left the exclusive mark of the Tenglin family!"

On the phone, Matsumoto's excited voice came: "Very good! Very good! You will take them to Kyoto to wait for my news, kill them when needed, and hide their bodies in the Ito family in Kyoto. His mansion! After the death of Banks' family, grandchildren and eldest granddaughter, Ito Yuhiko's death was unclear! However, there was an exclusive imprint of the Tenglin family on the scene. Ito will definitely think that all of this is the fault of Takahashi, grandson. The family will definitely send someone over to avenge their heirs. Tokyo, here is a good show!"

Chapter 1749

The hotel quickly discovered the anomaly.

It was the guests downstairs who first discovered the problem. They found that there were two more ropes outside the window, so they informed the hotel reception.

The front desk of the hotel found Zara's room directly according to the room number found by the rope.

When they found that Zara's room was empty and the scene was a bit messy, the person in charge of the hotel immediately panicked!

The Banks brothers and sisters are not only their distinguished guests, but the Banks Familyy is also one of the shareholders of Aman Hotel Group. Naturally, they dare not neglect any such thing.

Soon after, they came to the room of Banks' entourage, looking for someone to ask what happened.

Unexpectedly, besides the corpse in the room, there are still corpses!

All the entourages and assistants in the Banks Familyy died tragically in their respective rooms!

The death is terrible!

The hotel manager was so scared on the spot that his legs were soft, and he sat on the ground with a puff, and then he wetted his crotch!

In the hotel I managed, more than a dozen people died at once, all of them from the Banks Familyy!

Even more desperate is that Fitz and Zara two brothers and sisters have disappeared!

This is the eldest grandson and eldest granddaughter of the Banks Familyy!

They are definitely the two most outstanding of the Banks Familyy's generation! Unexpectedly, he was kidnapped in the hotel he managed! If the Banks Familyy was to be held accountable, it would be hard for him to die! He hardly dared to delay, and while letting people call the police, he called his boss, the chairman of the Aman Hotel Group.

He wanted to notify the Banks Familyy immediately, so as not to blame the Banks Familyy for not reporting in time. However, in his capacity, he was not qualified to directly contact the Banks Familyy, so he could only call the boss, and the boss would relay it on his behalf. The chairman of Aman Hotel Group was in Dubai at this time. After hearing this, he almost suffered a heart attack on the spot!

Fitz and Zara were kidnapped in their hotel? ! This is simply a great sin! What if the two of them really have a shortcoming, the Banks Familyy still can't destroy themselves? !

So he immediately called Zayne who was far away in Eastcliff! After hearing the report, Zayne's blood pressure surged and he almost passed out. Fortunately, the Banks Familyy was rescued in time, and fortunately, there was no serious problem.

However, when I heard that Fitz and Zara were kidnapped in Japan, the whole Banks Familyy was extremely angry! Mr. Banks immediately let all the hermit masters of the Banks Familyy fly to Tokyo overnight, and issued two consecutive iron orders:

The first is to dig three feet of land in Tokyo, but also to find and rescue Fitz and Zara alive! Second, find out who is behind the scenes, and if the Banks Familyy owns it, you must also punish the whole clan!

Chapter 1750

An hour later, the two private jets took off one after another at Eastcliff International Airport, and nearly 100 top masters from the Banks Familyy were dispatched to Tokyo!

At this time in Tokyo, undercurrents are already surging under the calm surface!

After the police in Tokyo learned about this, they were so scared that they blew up the pot!

They know that this kind of killing more than a dozen people and kidnapping two people is not only extremely bad in nature, it is more likely to rise to an international incident!

As a result, the Tokyo police immediately blocked the Aman Hotel, and officers from the Investigation Section were searching for all valuable clues inch by inch.

They first found the mobile phone that Fitz left behind in Zara's room, and found the call records between him and Ito Takehiko, and then in the room of Banks' entourage, they found a ninja dart with the Tenglin family totem. .

As soon as these two clues came out, the Tokyo police became even more powerful!

The director of the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department, who came to supervise the scene personally, paled in shock after receiving these feedback.

He looked at the technicians below and asked loudly, "Are you sure that both the Ito family and the Takahashi family are suspected?!"

The police chief in charge of the on-site investigation blurted out:

"Minister, there is a gossip that both Ito and Takahashi are trying their best to reach cooperation with the Banks Familyy, but the Ito family seems to have fallen behind, so they have done something to the Banks Familyy. Motivation, and the ninja darts of the Tenglin family were discovered at the scene, and the Tenglin family is under the Takahashi family, so this incident may be the Takahashi family arguing for the Ito family. In short, there are suspicions on both sides... .."

The chief of the Metropolitan Police Department wanted to cry without tears, and blurted out: "Just the news of the deaths of a dozen people is likely to make a global sensation, not to mention the use of sarin to kill people, this can be regarded as a terrorist attack! It turns out that the eldest grandson and eldest granddaughter of China's first family were kidnapped. Now you tell me that the master behind the murderer may be one of the two largest families in Japan. How can this case be solved?"

The other party also said helplessly: "Director, I don't want to make the case so troublesome, but the evidence chain of the case is like this, and our top priority now is to find out the two brothers and sisters of the Banks Family. They are also dead, and our Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department will definitely become the laughing stock of the world!" The chief of the Metropolitan Police Department angrily said: "Let all the police in Tokyo move me! Even if you dig the entire Tokyo three feet, you must find people for me!"

The Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department's battle was so big that the entire Tokyo metropolis suddenly exploded.

The first to receive news was the big family in Tokyo.

Ito Yuhiko had not received Fitz's reply, so he took the initiative to call him. After calling him a few times and no one answered him, he immediately sent someone to find out the situation. When he heard the news, he was struck by lightning.

He couldn't understand, who was so bold that he dared to do something to the Banks Family.

Although he knew that before Fitz was kidnapped, he had just talked to him on the phone, but after all, he hadn't done anything extraordinary, so he had a clear conscience, and he didn't expect this matter to have anything to do with him.

However, after Maki Takahashi heard about this, he was immediately confused.

Fitz had already said that he would sign a contract with him tomorrow morning, but was suddenly kidnapped with his sister? Isn't this a good thing to do to yourself?

When he thought of this, the first suspect he thought of was Ito Yuhiko! This is not only because the Ito family is its biggest competitor, but also because of the death of Tenglin Quintongtian, it is highly suspected that it has something to do with Ito Takehiko!

The unclear death of Tenglin Quintongtian gave Takahashi a feeling of being watched. Now that the Banks brothers and sisters have been kidnapped again, he is naturally attributed to Ito Yuhiko.

Thinking of this, he suddenly became nervous!

Ito can kill more than a dozen people from the Banks Family and kidnap the Banks Family siblings, maybe he will do it on himself too!

So many people in the Banks Family have been killed, which proves that the manpower of Ito Takehiko's organization is very strong, and he must strengthen his safety protection!

So he immediately called Teng Lin Zhengzhe, who was monitoring Charlie Wade, and said nervously as soon as he opened his mouth: "Teng Lin, the three of you go back to Tokyo quickly, come back now!"

Teng Lin Zhengzhe asked in surprise: "Go back to Tokyo now? Mr.

Takahashi, don't we need to follow the Chinese?"

Maki Takahashi blurted out: "I can't take care of him anymore. The bastard of Ito Yuhiko is probably the one who tied the Banks Family. This time I'm afraid I'm going to die with me! Come back and protect my safety!"

Chapter 1751

At this moment, Charlie Wade was walking on the streets of Osaka. This time he went out, he still did not let Cameron Isaac and others follow. The reason was that he wanted to take advantage of this time and directly eliminate the remaining three ninjas who were following him. Because Osaka was already the last stop of the business on his trip to Japan, he wanted to quickly get rid of these three followers, and then hurry up to visit Kyoto.

He deliberately led the three of Teng Lin Zhengzhe to leave the downtown area, preparing to find a suitable place to start.

However, what he didn't expect was that the three people who had been quietly following him two or three hundred meters away suddenly began to turn their heads and walk back.

Charlie Wade couldn't help but wondered: "What's the matter? They are not following me anymore, are they aware of something?"

"But it shouldn't be. I alone did not show any intention to attack. I have even been completely ignorant of their existence. They have no reason to notice anything abnormal.

"Is it because they are in a hurry? Or is it that Takahashi gave up letting them follow me?"

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade sighed, turned around, and started following these three people in turn.

He didn't want to leave any hidden dangers for himself. After all, these ninjas have been with him for so long. If he let them go like this, the ghost knows if they will come back again?

Even, the ghosts knew that after they left Japan, they would follow Arouss Hilll to make trouble for themselves?

Arouss Hilll has his own wife, Claire Wilson Wilson, who is her own weakness, saying nothing can put her in danger!

So, today, let these three people keep their lives!

Teng Lin Zhengzhe never thought that Charlie Wade would follow them in turn. He always felt that Charlie Wade should not have noticed their existence, so now he took the two juniors and ran all the way to the hotel.

It's getting late now. It's impossible to get from Osaka to Tokyo by Shinkansen or airplanes, so the best way is to drive all the way.

If you drive fast, you can reach Tokyo in five or six hours.

Therefore, they have to go back to the hotel to pick up the car, and then set off quickly to Tokyo.

The three people walked in a hurry all the way and arrived at the hotel quickly.

At the entrance of the hotel, Teng Lin Zhengzhe said: "Second, you come back to the room with me to pack things, and third, you go to the basement to pick up the car and wait at the entrance of the hotel. We will come down and meet you soon!"

"Okay!" The old third nodded, and the three men were divided into two groups. The two used the elevator to go upstairs to the room and simply packed the soft and monitoring equipment, and one took the elevator to the underground garage to pick up the car.

As soon as Teng Lin Zhengzhe entered the elevator, he hurriedly called to report to Takahashi Zhenzhi.

As soon as the phone call, he hurriedly said respectfully: "Mr. Takahashi, we will leave for Tokyo in five minutes, and we are expected to arrive in more than four hours! Please stay at home during these few hours. , Wait for everything to be said after we arrive."

Takahashi said in a panic: "Tenglin, I asked someone to inquire about it. It is said that the other party's methods are very fierce, and even the sarin gas is used. This is a f*cking lunatic! I am afraid of them now. Start with me, how many masters does your Tenglin family have in Tokyo? Quickly let them all come to my house to protect me!"

Teng Lin Zhengzhe hurriedly said: "Mr. Takahashi, we don't have much manpower available in Tokyo now, because the remaining manpower has been sent to Kyoto and is staring at Nanako Ito. Should I tell them to rush back? "

Machi Takahashi hesitated for a moment, and then said: "No need! Leave them in Kyoto! As long as they can control Nanako Ito, I still have the capital to mediate with Ito Yuhiko! You can't put eggs in the same cage! "

Teng Lin Zhengzhe immediately said: "Okay, then the three of us will go back first. We must protect your safety!"

At the same time, Teng Lin Zhengzhe's third junior brother also got out of the elevator on the second basement floor and rushed all the way to the front of the car.

As soon as he unlocked the door to get into the car, he felt a sudden force of force grabbing his neck directly from behind!

Immediately afterwards, he saw someone using a shuriken to withstand his throat!

Moreover, he knows this shuriken! It is his little brother Tenglin Quintongtian owns!

He murmured in panic in his heart: "Could it be that this person is the one who killed the younger brother?!"

He was shocked and blurted out: "Big brother for your life! Don't kill me!"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "If you want to survive, just do as I say!"

Chapter 1752

He hurriedly nodded his head like smashing garlic: "I listen to you, don't be impulsive, this shuriken is smeared with poison, even if it breaks a little, it won't be saved..."

.....

At this moment.

After Teng Lin Zhengzhe and the second younger brother quickly packed some important items, they took the elevator to the hotel lobby.

They didn't even have time to check out, just thinking about getting in the car and returning to Tokyo.

However, when they went out, they found that their car was not waiting here.

Teng Lin Zhengzhe cursed: "Damn, the third bastard, what are you doing! Give him a call!"

The second younger brother immediately took out his mobile phone, called, and cursed: "Lao San, what are you doing? Why haven't you come out!"

At the request of Charlie Wade, the third child said: "Second brother, one of the tires is flat. I guess it's punctured. I'm jogging. I'm about to change my spare tire. Why don't you come down and help me? !"

"Damn!" The second junior brother said to Teng Lin Zhengzhe: "Brother, one of the tires may be punctured. I'll change it for him."

Teng Lin Zhengzhe nodded and exhorted: "You two move faster!" underground garage.

The third child who was held by Charlie Wade's shuriken against his neck, pleaded: "Brother, I have called according to your instructions, can you spare my life..."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "You did a good job, I will let you suffer less!"

After speaking, before he recovered, Charlie Wade slammed his hand on his neck!

Hearing a click, the person's neck was broken in an instant, and the whole person lost all consciousness at this moment and turned into a corpse.

After that, Charlie Wade did not hesitate, and immediately moved his body to the side of the car, with his back facing the front of the car, as if he was checking the backstage.

And Charlie Wade himself, behind the car next door, hid his breath, waiting for the next fish to be caught.

At this time, the second child ran over violently.

Due to the irritability, the whole person's vigilance was reduced a lot. Seeing that the third child was still squatting on the tires of the car, he was suddenly out of breath.

He ran over quickly, slapped the back of the youngest's head, and cursed: "Asshole! You are here to watch? Don't you know how to get the spare tire and jack out first?!"

After finishing speaking, I saw the youngest body, swayed by a slap, and fell to the ground.

The second child saw his eyes suddenly open and staring at him, and he was immediately frightened!

At this moment, he realized that the three of their brothers and sisters had also been targeted!

Moreover, it is very likely that the gang who killed the fourth Teng Lin Quintongtian was eyeing them!

Thinking of this, he flees with fright.

But when he turned around, a man suddenly appeared in front of him! This black shadow stretched out a hand at a very fast speed and pinched his neck tightly!

The second younger brother of Teng Lin Zhengzhe couldn't breathe instantly.

But at this time, he also saw the man in front of him clearly.

Isn't this person the same Chinese who followed his four brothers all the way from Tokyo? !

At this moment, the second child's mind was almost exploded!

He exclaimed in astonishment in his heart: "Could it be that...is it the Chinese who killed the fourth and third son?! Could it be that...has he been teasing us all the time?!"

When he was extremely frightened, Charlie Wade wiped a sneer at the corner of his mouth, and said playfully, "My buddy, what are you doing?"

Chapter 1753

"I...I...cough cough cough..."

The second child who was pinched around his neck immediately turned blue. He wanted to talk, but he couldn't say anything except one word for me. He looked at Charlie Wade with frightened and pleading eyes, hoping that Charlie Wade could leave him a way out.

But Charlie Wade said calmly: "People don't offend me, and I don't offend people. You guys started in Tokyo and followed and eavesdropped all the way, with the intention of killing me before I left Japan. Do you think I might let you go?"

The face of Teng Lin Zhengzhe's second junior brother was already full of despair.

Charlie Wade said calmly: "Okay, let's have a good time."

After speaking, with a gentle force on his hand, he heard a crisp sound from the opponent's neck, and the person completely lost his vitality.

Later, Charlie Wade stuffed the bodies of the second and third children into the trunk, as if these two people had never appeared here.

After doing all this, Charlie Wade took out his mobile phone and called Cameron Isaac: "Let your men drive the frozen car to the door of the hotel."

Teng Lin Zhengzhe, who was at the entrance of the hotel, waited for nearly ten minutes, and he was anxious before the two of them drove out. Although it is a little troublesome to change tires, it is impossible for two people to get better together for so long, right? He took out his cell phone and called the third child.

No one answered the phone.

Immediately afterwards, he called his second child again, but the call was still unanswered.

No one answered the phone calls of the two of them, which is really abnormal and excessive!

There was a strong sense of crisis in Teng Lin Zhengzhe's heart.

Thinking of the death of the fourth oldest Teng Lin Quintongtian, he felt a chill in his back!

"Could it be that we have been targeted by people now?!"

"Will the second and third child have suffered an accident?!"

Thinking of this, he subconsciously wanted to turn around and go to the basement to see what happened.

However, as soon as he took two steps, he stopped immediately.

"If the second and third children really encounter unexpected events, then the opponent's strength is definitely not something I can handle..."

"It seems that at the moment it can only be a thirty-six plan!"

Thinking of this, the flustered Teng Lin Zhengzhe turned and prepared to leave the scene quickly.

He wanted to leave this place of right and wrong first, and after making sure that no one was following him, he would find a way to leave Osaka.

but.....

At the moment he suddenly turned around to leave, he suddenly ran into a man full of arms.

At this moment, he was in a panic, and he didn't have the usual calm and alertness. He didn't even look at the person he had hit. He bowed his head and said I'm sorry, and wanted to leave quickly.

But at this moment, he suddenly felt his arm being pulled by the other party, and then he heard a familiar voice asking: "Mr. Teng Lin, where are you going in such a hurry?"

The moment Teng Lin Zhengzhe heard Charlie Wade's voice, his whole body trembled violently!

He listened to Charlie Wade in a hotel in Nagoya, so he recognized this voice all at once!

When he looked up subconsciously, he saw Charlie Wade looking at him with a smile on his face.

Teng Lin Zhengzhe asked in horror: "You...you...how do you..."

Chapter 1754

Charlie Wade smiled and asked, "You want to ask, how can I know your identity?"

Teng Lin Zhengzhe stared at Charlie Wade with wide eyes: "You...you always know?!"

Charlie Wade nodded and said with a smile: "Of course I know!"

"This is impossible!"

"What's impossible? Blame it on your Japanese ninja's strength, it's really a bit powerful."

Teng Lin Zhengzhe was struck by lightning. He blurted out and asked, "Is my junior brother killed by you?!"

Charlie Wade nodded generously and said, "Yes, it's me."

After speaking, Charlie Wade added: "Your second and third junior brothers were also killed by me. Their bodies are now lying in your trunk."

"Asshole!" Teng Lin Zhengzhe roared, and immediately, from the cuff of his left hand, a dagger suddenly fell out of his left hand.

Immediately afterwards, he concentrated all his power on his left hand, and suddenly stab Charlie Wade with all his strength.

Seeing his movements, Charlie Wade smiled slightly, still holding his right arm with one hand, and holding his left wrist with the other hand in a calm manner.

Teng Lin Zhengzhe didn't expect that Charlie Wade's strength was surprisingly great, and his left hand was so grasped by him that he couldn't move at all.

Charlie Wade saw his face full of shock and smiled and said, "Mr. Teng Lin, don't be so nervous. If you give up resistance, you can suffer a lot less sin when you are on the road later!"

Teng Lin Zhengzhe's whole body seemed to be thunderous, and he said in horror: "Sir! I am under orders from Takahashi, he let me follow you, please forgive me..."

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "You always have to pay back when you come out. You have to tie your head to your waistband. Who can you blame if you drop it?"

Teng Lin Zhengzhe blurted out: "As long as you don't kill me, I am willing to help you kill Takahashi Zhenzhi and avenge you!"

"No need." Charlie Wade said coldly: "The thing I don't like most in my life is you, a domestic slave of the three surnames who sells for glory. You are dead anyway. If you die with a little heart and backbone, I will count you. It's a man."

Teng Lin Zhengzhe choked and said, "Sir, don't you have an old Chinese saying that it is better to die than to live? Even if you are a dog, it is worse than death..."

Charlie Wade smiled lightly: "Being my dog, you are not worthy."

Having said that, Charlie Wade squeezed the meridian of his wrist and used a burst of vigor, and followed his meridians to destroy his meridians!

Teng Lin Zhengzhe only felt that his legs suddenly softened, and then his whole body had lost support, as if all the strength of his body had been vacuumed at this moment.

He was horrified and didn't know what was the reason or what was good, when a refrigerated container truck stopped by the roadside.

Cameron Isaac's men ran off the car and said respectfully to Charlie Wade: "Master, what do you want?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly, and supported the weakened Teng Lin Zhengzhe, and said to Cameron Isaac's subordinate: "My friend is drinking too much. You can get him into your car. He still has two friends. I have someone drive it out."

The man nodded immediately, taking over Teng Lin Zhengzhe and preparing to carry him into the passenger compartment of the refrigerated car.

Teng Lin Zhengzhe was shocked, and blurted out: "Where are you taking me?!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Look, your whole body is already soft and muddy now. This does not fit the characteristics of your Japanese ninjas. Are you Japanese ninjas with forbearance and hard as iron? I will put you in the container later. Frozen in the car for a few hours, so you can get back the hardness of the ninja!"

"What?! Freezing?!" Teng Lin Zhengzhe begged desperately: "This gentleman, I beg you, I really don't want to die, I don't want to die..." After speaking, he couldn't help looking into the distance, watching the pedestrians on the side of the road shouting: "Help...Help..."

However, in the next second, he realized that not only did he lose strength all over his body, but his voice became extremely weak. Although I was hoarse, this sound, I am afraid that people two meters away will not hear any movement...

At this moment, Cameron Isaac also ran over. He came to Charlie Wade and hurriedly asked: "Master, what is your business?"

Charlie Wade handed him a car key and said: "There is a commercial car in parking lot 094 in the basement, and there are two ninjas in the trunk. You drive the car out, and go to a safe place with the freezer car. Put the people in the trunk, and the guy in the co-pilot, into the freezer, and then send the four ice sculptures to the gate of Takahashi Machi's house in Tokyo for Machi Takahashi to sign for it!"

Chapter 1755

Five hours later.

The sky is getting brighter.

In the sky of Tokyo, there was a touch of white fish.

A new day has begun. Many people wake up from a deep sleep, but many people never sleep.

The night that just passed, the entire Tokyo was almost turned upside down.

The Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department dispatched all, and even seconded a large number of people from several nearby small cities. Not only did they find an earth-shaking situation in Tokyo, they also closed all the roads leading from Tokyo to the outside and set up cards for every vehicle leaving the city. Strictly searched, just to find the whereabouts of the Banks brother and sister.

Overnight, the entire Tokyo was under total martial law!

The keen media has already received news that the eldest grandson and eldest granddaughter of China's first family were kidnapped in Tokyo, and dozens of entourages were killed.

The explosion of this kind of news is unprecedented!

In the past, Tokyo has also encountered terrorist attacks and major criminal cases, but there has never been such a bad nature!

You know, the Banks Family is the richest and most powerful family in China.

They encountered such a serious criminal case in Japan, the nature of which even surpassed Bill Gates' kidnapping in Tokyo.

The Banks Familyy also spent half the night in Tokyo.

This time, not only did the Banks Familyy have hundreds of hidden masters, but Zayne also came personally.

The Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department attached great importance to the arrival of Zayne, and the director personally invited him to the Metropolitan Police Department to inform him of the investigation process of this case.

The so-called detection process of the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department is actually to bring Machi Takahashi and Takehiko Ito to the Metropolitan Police Department for interrogation.

Because in their opinion, both of them are suspect.

Moreover, the two people feel that it must be the other party's so-called, and they are harming themselves at the same time.

Ito Yuhiko felt that Takahashi must have deliberately wanted to use this incident to pour dirty water on the Ito family, so that the Banks Familyy can completely eradicate the Ito family;

Maki Takahashi felt that Yuhiko Ito must have felt that he couldn't get the cooperation of the Banks Familyy and deliberately wanted to frame himself, so he left a ninja dart of the Tenglin family on the scene. This clearly shows that it is planting and setting the blame!

The Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department is also at a loss.

In their view, although the two men seemed to have certain motives, the Metropolitan Police Department could not find any substantive evidence.

The only evidence is the ninja dart left on the scene.

This ninja dart really belongs to the Tenglin family, and the Tenglin family is attached to the Takahashi family. This is something everyone in Tokyo's upper class knows, and the Metropolitan Police Department naturally knows it.

However, this evidence is somewhat abrupt.

Because, no one was injured by the ninja dart at the scene where the ninja dart was found. The murderer was so professional that he killed more than a dozen people without leaving a living mouth. Why did he leave a ninja dart that was useless at all?

This is likely to be a blindfold left by the other party.

Therefore, the Chief of the Metropolitan Police Department said to Zayne: "Mr. Banks, we have to continue to investigate this matter. After all, it is difficult to explain the problem with a ninja dart alone, and it is very likely that the other party left us behind to confuse us. Smoke bombs!"

Zayne said with a black face to the director of the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department: "I don't care if it is a smoke bomb! If the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department can find my son and daughter within 24 hours, and ensure their safety, this I can no longer pursue the matter to the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department, but if it exceeds 24 hours, or if there is any accident to my son or daughter, I will definitely announce the matter to the world! Let the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department completely discredit you!"

The head of the Metropolitan Police Department is as big as a fight.

Chapter 1756

After 7 o'clock in the morning, the media will definitely report this matter.

At that time, it will definitely spread throughout Japan.

If within 24 hours, you can't save people, this news will surely spread all over the world.

At that time, this will not only be the scandal of the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department, but also the scandal of the entire Japan!

If the law and order in Japan are so bad, the murderer is so cruel, and so tough, who will dare to come to Tokyo in the future?

It is not only the rich and entrepreneurs who dare not come, but the politicians of various countries are afraid to come.

But Tokyo is the capital of Japan! If this scandal spreads all over the world, it will surely plunge the entire Japan into a diplomatic dilemma!

So he immediately asked his subordinates: "Are there any detailed autopsy results?"

The chief forensic doctor in charge of the autopsy immediately rushed to report to the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Commissioner and Zayne: "After our autopsy, it was found that more than a dozen Banks' entouragees who died of poisoning, without exception, were all sarin poisoning, and we It was discovered that they all died of liquid sarin poisoning."

Zayne frowned, "Liquid sarin gas, what do you mean?"

The forensic doctor hurriedly explained: "Sarin gas is a colorless oily liquid at room temperature, much like glycerin. When used in war, it is exploded to form a large area of aerosol, whether it is breathing or skin. Contact will cause poisoning."

"But the murderer this time must not want to make a big explosion, so he used a carrier similar to a syringe needle to inject about 30 milligrams of liquid sarin gas, and projected it on the victim at a certain distance to make the victim suffer. People died of poison."

The chief of the Metropolitan Police Department hurriedly asked: "That is to say, that ninja dart really has not been actually used?"

"Correct!"

The chief of the Metropolitan Police could not help asking Zayne, "Mr. Banks, you said that the person behind this incident is the enemy of the Banks Family?"

Zayne said with a green face: "I don't care whose enemy I am, I only know that my son and daughter were kidnapped in Tokyo! You must get them back to me unscathed!"

The chief of the Metropolitan Police Department was extremely helpless, and hurriedly arranged: "First, continue to enhance the search, and do not let go of any suspicious locations, vehicles, and people! Second, release both Ito Yuhiko and Takahashi, and then closely monitor me. What they do, see if you can find any clues!"

Maki Takahashi in the interrogation room, when he heard that he let himself go home, hurriedly asked: "It's not very peaceful these days, can you let me stay in the Metropolitan Police Department?"

The police officer handling the case said angrily: "You use the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department as a hotel? Get out quickly, otherwise we'll be hard!"

Takahashi was really helpless, so he returned home from the Metropolitan Police Department under the escort of a few bodyguards.

Along the way, Takahashi Machi has been worried.

He was afraid that someone would harm him, and Teng Lin Zhengzhe and the three of them were not around yet. If something happened, he was afraid that he would not even have the ability to resist.

So, he immediately called Teng Lin Zhengzhe.

However, no one answered a few calls in the past, which made him even more nervous.

"What the hell is going on? After a few hours, it's time to go back to Tokyo from Osaka? Why can't I get through the phone?"

Thinking of this, he couldn't help getting irritated, and made several more calls to Teng Lin Zhengzhe's two junior brothers, but none of them could get through.

At this time, he was already faintly aware of something bad in his heart. Could it be that Teng Lin Zhengzhe and the three of them, like their four junior brothers, were all killed by those mysterious ninjas?

At this moment, the housekeeper called, and as soon as he came up he said hurriedly: "Mr. Takahashi, there was a mysterious person just now. He said he sent you a great gift!"

Takahashi asked in horror, "Big gift?! What kind of gift?!"

"A truck!"

Chapter 1757

"Truck?! What the hell is going on?!"

The butler hurriedly said: "The other party drove the truck to the door of the villa, saying that it was a gift for you in the car."

"What about others?!"

"I heard it through the intercom on the doorbell at the door. When I came out, the people had disappeared, but the car was still..."

Takahashi shivered when he heard this!

Who would use a truck to give gifts? You left the truck at your door? ! Moreover, it is still in such a sensitive time period!

Thinking of this, he asked nervously: "Have you opened it to see what's inside?"

The butler said: "No, I want to wait until you come back before opening it."

Takahashi blurted out: "Call the police! Call the police! Maybe there is a bomb in the car!"

The housekeeper hurriedly said: "My lord, we have done explosives and toxic substances tests and no abnormalities have been found."

"Nothing abnormal?" Maki Takahashi breathed a sigh of relief when he heard this.

Under normal circumstances, if you want to use something to harm people, it is nothing more than bombs and poisons. Since there is nothing abnormal after detection, there should be no problem.

The equipment used at home to detect explosives and toxic substances is the same as that used by the airport and customs. The accuracy rate is extremely high. If there are such substances, it is absolutely impossible to hide them.

Thinking of this, he said: "I will be back in a few minutes, waiting for me."

After hanging up the phone, Takahashi couldn't help rubbing his temples, and his whole body was a bit exhausted.

From yesterday to today, Tokyo has been so chaotic that he is already a little nervous.

Ten minutes later, Takahashi Machi returned to his villa.

The biggest difference between Japan and China is that many houses are not built by developers, but are built by homeowners. This is very similar to China a few decades ago. Whether rich or poor, they buy land and build their own houses.

Therefore, in Japan, there are very few concepts of community, community, and apartment.

The mansion of Machi Takahashi, not far from the Japanese Imperial Palace, has an excellent location and a huge area.

When he came to the door of his house, he saw a frozen truck parked on the side of the road.

The butler ran over to open the door for him at this time, and said respectfully: "Mr. Takahashi, this is the car. The door is locked and the flame is not turned off. The freezer at the back is still cooling."

Takahashi touched his chin and couldn't help but slapped his lips: "Who the hell delivered this? Would you give me ice cream for the big winter?"

Eiji Takahashi, with his hands in plaster, was also supported by the servant. He walked out of the luxurious gate with sleepy eyes. He saw Machi Takahashi and the frozen car still in operation, and asked in surprise: "Dad, what is going on?"

Maki Takahashi shook his head and said, "I don't know which bastard it is. He drove such a car and said it was a gift for me."

Takahashi Eiji frowned and asked, "Is it a seafood delivery car? Yesterday, I ordered a top-quality bluefin tuna. I said it would be delivered in two days."

The housekeeper hurriedly said, "Master, the person who delivered it just now said it was a gift for the master, not for you."

Takahashi Eiji said, "Maybe it's a mistake. What about the delivery person?"

"Ran....."

"Strange..." Takahashi Eiji blurted out: "Why did you leave the car behind when you gave something?"

Takahashi's brows furrowed: "It always feels a little weird..."

The housekeeper said at this time: "My lord, we have checked with the equipment. There should be no danger. Would you like to open the freezer?"

Chapter 1758

Maki Takahashi pondered for a moment, then nodded gently: "Open it and see what kind of medicine is sold in the gourd!"

The butler immediately ordered the two servants: "You two, go and open the door of the freezer!"

The two immediately stepped forward and opened the lock of the freezer door one by one.

When he was about to open, Takahashi Machi took a few steps back subconsciously.

His nerves are a bit sensitive today, and he always feels that this world is full of weirdness.

The door opened to the left and right, and a burst of white mist sprayed out from inside.

The weather in Tokyo these days is humid and the temperature is slightly warmer. The temperature at this time is about three or four degrees above zero, but the temperature in the refrigerated car is lower than twenty degrees below zero, so this kind of water vapor will be cold. The mist produced.

Everyone stared at the fog gradually dissipating. After the fog slowly dissipated, the things in the carriage finally appeared in front of everyone.

But when everyone looked up, everyone was immediately frightened and screamed in unison!

In the carriage, there are four human-shaped ice sculptures standing neatly!

Moreover, these four ice sculptures are exactly Teng Lin Zhengzhe who was frozen into popsicles, and his three juniors!

And the shapes of these four people are also strange!

Someone swallowed his own feet backwards, and the whole person stood in the carriage, the whole being the independent shape of a golden rooster. This was the first Tenglin Quintongtian who was counter-killed by Charlie Wade.

There are also two people standing with their arms around each other, and they are the second and third.

As for Teng Lin Zhengzhe, he has one hand on his hips, and his other hand is pointing his middle finger outside the car..

The shapes of these four people, except that Tenglin Quintongtian was in the form at the time of death, the other three were made by Cameron Isaac's men as plastic models after being frozen.

In order to stabilize the shape, he poured some water on several people. After the water froze into ice, they completely strengthened their shapes.

Then there was this weird scene in front of everyone.

Takahashi Eiji got close, and when he glanced over, he let out a scared cry: "Ah! This...this...is this a real person or a wax figure?!"

Takahashi's nerves were already devastated, and suddenly saw his four confidants frozen into popsicles, their legs collapsed on the ground, and he shouted in fear, "Call the police! Call the police!"

Just as the housekeeper was about to take out his cell phone to make a call, a few police cars suddenly appeared and blocked the door.

Originally, they followed Takahashi Machichi secretly, wanting to see if he and the Banks Family's siblings disappeared, but they never dreamed that they just followed Takahashi Machichi to his door, and Takahashi Machi received four. Personal ice lolly..

The inspector of the Japanese Metropolitan Police Department who led the team came forward with a black face and personally stepped into the freezer for inspection. Then he mumbled in a little panic: "It's a living person... Damn... ..Really big living people! Four big living people! Is this the damn Tokyo where I lived for more than 30 years? Everything in front of me is too damn magical!"

The following police officer asked in surprise: "Inspector, are these four people still alive?"

The inspector scolded: "Live your mother! Have you frozen into popsicles if you haven't seen it?"

The police officer was full of grievances: "You just said that there are four big living people..."

The inspector wiped his cold sweat and said: "It's an ice sculpture made of four big living people...Hurry up, call the forensic doctor to come over for an autopsy!"

After speaking, he walked to the pale face of Machi Takahashi sitting on the ground, squatted down, and asked very seriously: "Mr. Takahashi, are these four people your subordinates?"

Takahashi nodded and murmured, "They are all members of the Tenglin family..."

"Tenglin family?!" The inspector exclaimed and blurted out: "Tenglin family, one of the four ninjutsu families?!"

"Yes..." Takahashi swallowed his saliva and said nervously, "The first is the eldest son of the Tenglin family, the current head of the family, Tenglin Zhengzhe..."

The detective's liver trembled in fright: "Teng Lin Zhengzhe can be regarded as one of our top ninjas in Japan. Even he died so miserably, who is it that you offend?"

Maki Takahashi watched Teng Lin Zhengzhe gesturing with his middle finger, crying desperately, "How the hell do I know!"

Chapter 1759

The inspector saw Takahashi's flustered look, and hurriedly said:

"Remember carefully, did you offend anyone? Generally speaking, unless there is a deep hatred, who would target you like this?"

After that, the inspector reminded: "Think about it, does anyone want to kill you, or do you want to kill anyone?!"

The first thing Takahashi thought of was Charlie Wade.

But soon he denied this idea in his heart.

After Tenglin Quintongtian disappeared for no reason, Tenglin Zhengzhe once eavesdropped on Charlie Wade and got a message that it was not Charlie Wade who killed Tenglin Quintongtian, but another group of ninjas.

At that time, Teng Lin Zhengzhe speculated that it should be a Koka ninja loyal to the Ito family.

However, he did not tell the Metropolitan Police Department about this matter.

Because, he felt that what he said to the Metropolitan Police Department was meaningless, because there was no direct evidence for this incident, and everything was just a guess by Teng Lin Zhengzhe during his lifetime. In my opinion, 80% of it is the Ito family behind the scenes, but in the eyes of the police, the opponent may be the Koga Ninja, but it may also be the Iga Ninja, Saga Ninja, or other low-key ninja family.

After all, Japanese ninjas have a long history and many schools.

Just like Chinese martial arts, Chinese martial arts has a wide variety of martial arts since ancient times, and there are many martial arts that can be named.

Shaolin, Kunlun, Emei, Huashan, the following unknown small and medium schools are countless.

The same is true in Japan. In addition to the four well-known ninja families, there are countless small families and sects.

Therefore, he decided not to let the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department intervene, and took revenge on Ito Yuhiko!

Soon, the forensic doctor arrived at the scene.

They transported the four hard corpses back to the forensic department of the Metropolitan Police Department. Such corpses must at least be completely thawed before being dissected.

At the same time, the news of Teng Lin Zhengzhe's four strange deaths was also reported to the top of the Metropolitan Police Department, making the entire Metropolitan Police Department shocked.

The director of the Metropolitan Police Department has almost collapsed! Fitz and Zara were kidnapped without a clue, and such a big incident happened in an instant.

Four superb ninjas will also be killed, this is simply a wave of unrest! Tokyo has also suddenly changed from a fashionable international city to a strange and sinful city.

However, it was just when the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department was in desperation and digging three feet in Tokyo.

Brother and sister Fitz and Zara have been secretly sent to Kyoto, hundreds of kilometers away.

According to Matsumoto's plan, he wanted the Banks Family's children to die in Ito's residence.

When the time comes, the Ito family will have no answer.

However, Ito Yuhiko is not a counselor, but also has a strong strength.

By then, he knew that he was being blamed, and he would definitely regard the man behind the scenes as Takahashi Makichi.

In this way, Ito Yuhiko will definitely fight to the death with Takahashi Machi!

It won't take long for Japan's top two families to suffer severely and even disappear completely.

At that time, the Matsumoto family can reap all the benefits, and then as the only optional collaborator of the Banks Family, they can cooperate with the Banks Family to further strengthen their own strength.

.....

Charlie Wade got up very early today.

The weather forecast software pops up a reminder that starting this afternoon, until night, there will be a blizzard in Kyoto and Osaka.

He first went to the production line of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall with Liam. In the afternoon, he asked Cameron Isaac for a car and planned to drive to Kyoto by himself.

Cameron Isaac didn't know where he was going. Seeing that the snow had fallen, and the snow was getting bigger and bigger, he hurriedly reminded him: "Master, there is a blizzard today. Driving in this kind of weather is too dangerous. If you have nothing important, Don't go out anymore."

Chapter 1760

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "It's okay, you don't have to worry, I have something personal to do, and I'll be back when it's done."

Cameron Isaac asked: "Is it in Osaka? Do you want me to arrange someone to escort you?"

"No need." Charlie Wade didn't say where he was going, and he didn't want to say.

He didn't know why, he kept thinking about Nanako Ito in his mind, perhaps out of sympathy for that girl, or out of admiration, or out of some other emotion, Charlie Wade couldn't figure it out, and he didn't want to go. miss you.

Now he just wants to go to Kyoto to see Nanako Ito in person, and take a look at her injuries by the way.

In any case, if her injury is cured, he can go back with peace of mind.

Cameron Isaac saw that Charlie Wade was unwilling to reveal his whereabouts, so he did not insist, but told him to drive carefully. If the snow is too big, wait until the snow stops before driving.

Charlie Wade accepted, and then drove off alone. Osaka is very close to Kyoto, and it takes about an hour to drive. When he arrived in Kyoto, the sky was already dark. The snow is getting bigger and bigger, almost like goose feathers.

Charlie Wade didn't know where the Ito family's mansion was, so he went to a Chinese restaurant to eat a bowl of Chinese ramen. When checking out, he asked the boss: "Boss, do you know where the Ito family's mansion is?"

The other party smiled and said: "The Ito family residence is next to Nijo Castle. It covers a large area and is easy to find. There is a plaque at the front entrance, which is the Chinese character Ito." Charlie Wade nodded, thanked him, and then went out of the restaurant. Nijo Castle is a well-known scenic spot in Kyoto, so you can search it directly on the map, and it is only two kilometers away from Charlie Wade.

After looking at it for a few minutes, Charlie Wade who was sitting in the car hesitated and hesitated. He hasn't figured out how to meet Nanako Ito.

When you arrive at the Ito family mansion, do you just knock on the door to see you? Inappropriate. After all, Ito Yuhiko's 4.5 billion dollars is still in his own hands. If his subordinates report Ito Yuhiko, he will definitely not let himself meet Nanako Ito.

then what should we do? Do you want to sneak in by yourself? Perhaps, there is only one suitable way. Thinking of this, Charlie Wade started the car, followed the navigation, and came to the vicinity of Nijo Castle. Sure enough, he saw the Ito family mansion not far from Nijo Castle.

The Ito family's mansion covers a large area. From the outside, half of the area is planted with towering old trees. The buildings are also Japanese-style ancient wooden buildings that incorporate strong Chinese architectural elements. You can know the age at a glance. Long time. Since there is an ancient moat around the Ito family's residence, and the two bridges entering and exiting belong to private territories, Charlie Wade parked his car on the side of the road not far away, and then braved the heavy snow and sneaked in in the dark. The residence of the Ito family.

At this moment.

Nanako Ito just finished soaking in the hot spring.

Because today was finally looking forward to the long-awaited snowfall, and it was a heavy snowfall, Nanako Ito swept away the haze in her heart, and she was in a particularly good mood.

She asked her servant to help put herself in an indescribably beautiful kimono, and then gracefully coiled up her long hair and inserted her favorite hairpin.

After that, pushing the wheelchair, she came to her small courtyard to enjoy the snow with great joy.

The Ito family's residence covers a large area, and there are several large and small courtyards. The courtyard where Nanako Ito is located is the most remote and quietest.

The snow fell heavily, and soon a layer of white snow fell on top of her head, and Nanako Ito looked at the snow flying in the sky, jumping for joy like a child.

After a while, she looked up at the sky and said in her heart piously: "I don't know what Charlie Wade is doing at this time? I don't know if it's snowing in Aurouss Hilll now? I don't know if he will think of me..."

Chapter 1761

Just when Nanako Ito looked up at the sky and missed Charlie Wade in her heart.

Charlie Wade, who was hiding on the wall, finally saw the moving figure in the courtyard below.

He bypassed the security of Ito's mansion and circled the Ito family's mansion halfway around the fence, only then saw Nanako Ito, who was always concerned about him.

Seeing Nanako Ito wearing a kimono with a light bun, Charlie Wade couldn't help sighing: "It is said that Nanako Ito is a standard Yamato Nadeshiko. It is indeed no exaggeration. She is definitely the most beautiful and perfect Japanese woman he has ever seen.."

However, the wheelchair under Nanako Ito made Charlie Wade a little bit embarrassed.

She could have not participated in the final with Aurora, and could also admit defeat and end the game early in the game, but she had to persist to the end, which caused great physical trauma to her body.

At this moment, Charlie Wade wanted to jump in directly from the wall and meet her next to her, but when he thought of using this kind of gentleman's way, he suddenly appeared in front of her, it might be a little embarrassing.

If she is scared by herself, how can he explain it?

If she asks herself why, how can he explain it?

Charlie Wade, who has always had an excellent psychological quality, hesitated at this moment.

At the same time, in Tokyo, hundreds of kilometers away.

Matsumoto, who is hiding in the dark, is still continuing his cruel game. While letting the subordinates who held Fitz and Zara brothers and sisters wait for an opportunity to come and kill others, he let another wave of people start a new round of planning in Tokyo.

He is like the Joker in "Batman: The Dark Knight", intending to play with everyone, and then gradually divide them and kill them one by one.

This time, his target was Takahashi Eiji.

He felt that it was just that when Fitz and Zara were kidnapped, they left a little trouble for their two families, and this was not enough to make the two families completely turned their faces.

Therefore, he wanted to add a bloody feud between these two families.

Only blood and blood will make people lose all their sanity and become extremely crazy.

So, in this evening, he stretched his claws towards Takahashi Machi, whose arms had been dismantled.

Takahashi Eiji is a young man in his prime.

His arm injury and a cast will not affect his physical needs.

And he is usually in Tokyo, and he is also well-known as a young girl and a dandy. Many well-known actresses in Tokyo are his lovers and playthings.

Some time ago, he had just made a huge sum of money to acquire Hua Dan, the head of a popular Japanese girl group, and became his lover. It happened that the girl group was doing a variety show on TV Tokyo today. Therefore, Takahashi Eiji intends to sneak out tonight and spend the night with her.

The other party is eager to establish a long-term relationship with him, and naturally she readily agrees.

So, under the stimulation of hormones, Eiji Takahashi scorned his father to let him stay at home and wait for the reminder of the storm to pass, and quietly arranged for his subordinates to drive him out of the house and head to the most luxurious high-end club in Shibuya, Tokyo.

Chapter 1762

In that high-end clubhouse, he has a fixed high-end private room all the year round. It is luxuriously decorated and concealed and private. It is the home ground of his unspoken Japanese female stars all the year round. A convoy of three Rolls-Royces took Takahashi Eiji to Shibuya, and Takahashi Eiji in the car was too excited, looking forward to the cloud and rain tonight.

When the convoy passed through an underground passage, a normal truck suddenly braked and hit the direction, blocking the entire road horizontally.

Several black commercial vehicles drove immediately behind, blocking the three Rolls-Royces of the Takahashi family.

The bodyguards in the leading and trailing vehicles realized that something was wrong, and they pulled out their guns to protect Eiji Takahashi.

However, in the black business cars behind, a large group of people in black with automatic weapons suddenly jumped out!

The firearms in these people's hands were all automatic rifles and mini-submachine guns. The firepower was much stronger than that of the Takahashi family's bodyguards. Before the Takahashi family's bodyguards could recover, all eight bodyguards were sifted.

At this time, Eiji Takahashi in the Rolls Royce in the middle was already shocked.

In his car, there is only one driver and one assistant, both of whom are ordinary people, and they have no combat effectiveness at all.

And the other party, not only has a large number of people, but also has extremely strong firepower, completely crushing!

Takahashi Hideki was so scared that he hurriedly called his father and said in a panic: "Dad! Save me, Dad! I'm surrounded by killers, come and save me!"

Maki Takahashi blurted out: "Aren't you at home?! Where's the killer?!"

Takahashi Eiji collapsed and cried: "Dad, I'm outside... on the way to Shibuya... I was surrounded and attacked by people, and the bodyguards were dead. They had already come to me, Dad. You think of a way to save me, I don't want to die..."

Maki Takahashi only felt that the sky was spinning, and he roared hoarsely: "Tell them, I can give them no matter how much they cost! As long as they keep you alive!"

As soon as the voice fell, the group of people in black had already surrounded the Rolls Royce where Takahashi was riding.

Eiki Takahashi rushed out of the car and shouted hysterically: "Please don't kill me! My father said, no matter how much money you want, you can satisfy you!"

The headed man in black grinned: "Money? We, the Ito family, don't care about money! What we want is the life of everyone in the Takahashi family! Now we will send you on the road first, and we will send you your father and your family soon. Go with you!"

Takahashi Eiji was so scared that he collapsed and wailed frantically: "I beg you not to kill me, I'm still young...I don't want to die..."

Machi Takahashi also yelled as hard as he could on the phone: "Let go of my son! Something is coming at me!"

The headed man in black sneered, "Oh? I was still on the phone with Mr. Takahashi? That's good, Mr. Takahashi, just listen to your son's desperate scream before his death.!"

After all, he smashed the Rolls-Royce glass with a gun, but the moment the gun was pointed at Takahashi Eiji, seeing the tears on Takahashi Eiji's face, he suddenly took the gun back.

Takahashi Eiji thought he had changed his mind and blurted out excitedly: "How much do you want, if you say a number, my father will give you the money immediately!"

"Yes!" Takahashi thought that things had turned for the better, and blurted out: "I can give you 100 million dollars. Give it now!"

The man in black chuckled and said grimly: "The two have thought too much, I just want to change the way of playing."

After that, he turned to look at his men and said coldly: "Come over with two barrels of gasoline from the trunk, and I will order them together with the people and the car!"

Chapter 1763

The next five minutes are the most painful, suffering, and collapsed five minutes of Takahashi's life.

He didn't dare to hang up the phone, because he knew that the next voice he heard might be the last voice his son left in the world.

However, he was also very clear in his heart that the other party would torture his son to death and make him suffer tremendous pain when he died.

As a father, does he really want to listen to his last scream in his ears, but he can do nothing and has no choice?

Immediately afterwards, the murderer poured gasoline into the Rolls Royce where Takahashi Eiji was riding, and even Takahashi Eiji's hysterical yelling in the car was completely disregarded.

After all the gasoline was poured in, the leader took out a pack of cigarettes and a box of matches, coldly lit the cigarette, took a hard sip, and then threw the still burning matchstick into the window!

The extremely luxurious Rolls-Royce turned into an incinerator in an instant, and the flames inside even spurted out frantically.

In the car, the screams of Takahashi Eiji, his assistant, and the driver were like hell on earth!

Maki Takahashi on the other end of the line burst into tears.

And the screams lasted for more than a minute before finally I couldn't hear them.

Takahashi knew very well that his son was dead. It is even possible to die without a whole body! At this moment, the anger of vengeance burned his sanity!

"Ito Yuihiko! You kill my son, I want to kill your family!"

Having said that, he immediately called the temporary Patriarch of the Tenglin family, and as soon as he spoke, he said in a cold voice: "The Ito family killed my son. The four Tenglin family members, including Tenglin Zhengzhe, are also Because of him, I want you to kill Ito Takehiko's daughter first, and then kill Ito Takehiko's old dog too!!!"

The other party's voice suddenly shuddered: "Mr. Takahashi, don't worry, our people are staring at the Ito family mansion in Kyoto. Ito Yuhiko's daughter has not left there. We can kill her tonight!"

Machi Takahashi roared hoarsely: "Kill her now! I want you to kill her now!!! I want you to behead her alive, and then send me the video, Ito Yuihiko let me hear me with my own ears My son died tragically, I want him to see his daughter's head in a strange place!!!"

The other party immediately said: "Okay Mr. Takahashi, I will order them to kill Nanako Ito!"

.....

at the same time in Kyoto.

The snow is getting bigger and bigger. In this heavy snow, Charlie Wade has quietly observed Nanako Ito for nearly ten minutes.

In these ten minutes, Nanako Ito looked at the sky in a daze, and sometimes bent down, collecting white snowflakes from the ground, playing alone seemed very happy.

At the moment when Charlie Wade decided to go down to see her, he suddenly noticed that from the darkness in the distance, several black shadows were attacking at his location at an extremely fast speed! Judging from the posture when running and the way of breathing when running, these black shadows are quite similar to the four of Teng Lin Zhengzhe.

Charlie Wade immediately became alert. These people should all be ninjas! Moreover, Bacheng is the ninja of the Tenglin family!

Chapter 1764

Charlie Wade felt that they were not good at coming, so he immediately concealed his breath and observed it secretly, and saw that these people climbed over the wall at an extremely fast speed, and then rushed toward Nanako Ito from multiple directions!

Although Nanako Ito was seriously injured but still hadn't healed, she was still a martial arts master after all, and she had a very high acumen. She had already noticed these six people before they got close. At this moment, Nanako Ito wanted to shout and call the housekeeper and housekeeper from other courtyards to help, but when she was about to ask for help, she suddenly gave up this idea.

Because, she has seen from the figures of these six people that these people are all ninjas without exception!

Although there are ninjas in my family, they are all in Tokyo, not in Kyoto.

The strength of the ninja is very strong, and the actual combat ability is stronger. Even before she is injured, I am afraid that she can't beat an ordinary ninja, let alone there are six!

And it seems that they have at least the strength of a mid-level ninja.

Almost at this moment, Nanako Ito understood that to gather all the people in this mansion, it was probably not the opponent of these six.

In this case, why bother calling for help and letting others die for yourself?

After all, this group of people came on their own at first sight.

So, just when these six people were almost rushing to Nanako Ito, she spoke neither humble nor scared: "Several ninjas, if they come to kill me, then I can cooperate, but please also let the rest of the house be spared. Most of human lives are not children of the Ito family, but only servants working in the Ito family."

The leader sneered: "I have long heard that the eldest daughter of the Ito family is extraordinary. When I saw it today, it was really extraordinary!"

After all, he drew out his knife and said coldly: "It's true that we are here to take your life to make your father pay for it. He secretly killed four members of my Tenglin family and Takahashi. The eldest master of the family, I can only wrong your daughter to pay a little interest first!"

Charlie Wade was startled when he heard this, "What? Takahashi Eiji is dead? It seems that after he left Tokyo, Tokyo is not at all peaceful!"

At this time, Nanako Ito, who was surrounded by six people in the courtyard, blurted out: "Impossible! My father is definitely not such a person! This matter must be another misunderstanding!"

"Misunderstanding?" The man gritted his teeth and cursed: "He froze the four masters of the Tenglin family into human-shaped popsicles and burned the young master of the Takahashi family into ashes. Tell me this is a misunderstanding?!"

Nanako Ito said unswervingly: "I know my father. Although he is not a perfect person, but he has at least a bottom line! Even if he is an enemy, he is upright and will never do things that would hurt people with secret arrows!"

The man sneered and said, "Knowing others, knowing the face and not knowing the heart, you may not really understand Ito Yuhiko! But you can take a step first, and after he gets on the road, you can ask him if he has done anything!"

After that, he immediately said to the person next to him: "Take out the mobile phone video, I will send the video of the beheading to Mr. Takahashi!"

"it is good!"

The leader took out an extremely sharp ninja sword from his waist, flashed a cold light, and said to Nanako Ito: "Miss Ito, time to die!" Nanako Ito nodded silently, and then closed her eyes confessing her fate, muttering to herself in grief: "Charlie Wade-kun, see you in the next life..."

The leader sighed slightly: "Miss Ito, I will make you die happy, and I hope you will not be born in a rich family in the next life!"

Having said that, he raised his ninja sword high, all his strength gathered his arms, ready to chop Nanako Ito's neck at any time.

Nanako Ito was also heartbroken at this time, her beautiful eyes were tightly closed, waiting for the moment when fate finally arrived!

At the moment when the head of the man raised his hand to make the knife fall, a blade of Hanmang came to him quickly through the air at an extremely fast speed!

With a scream, a poisonous shuriken has been shot from the center of his eyebrows!

And this person who was about to behead Nanako Ito died suddenly at this moment!

Charlie Wade finally made a move!

Chapter 1765

In fact, just as the man raised the ninja sword, the other five people took two steps back.

This is because they don't want to splash on them when the blood is sprayed out.

However, their eyes have been staring at Nanako Ito, waiting for the bloody scene to come.

And Nanako Ito herself is also ready to meet death.

However, the picture stopped abruptly at this moment!

The ninja sword held high, has been hovering in the air, and other people don't know why he has been so late.

When they looked over, they realized that the executioner wielding a knife was already dead!

Only a few centimeters in length was left on the center of his forehead. The wound was too close to the sword body, so only a small amount of blood penetrated from the wound and dripped on the white and thick snow.

, A bright red fainted instantly!

Just when these people were dumbfounded and didn't know what happened, they found that the sword in the hand that pierced this person's eyebrows was surprisingly familiar!

The person who took the phone to shoot the video shouted in horror: "Ah! This...this is Quintongtian's shuriken!"

This is indeed Tenglin Quintongtian's Shuriken!

After Charlie Wade killed him, he kept all his shurikens, and it just came in handy at this time!

The remaining five people were suddenly shocked!

The tragic death of Tenglin Zhengzhe and Tenglin Quintongtian has left them with lingering fears. Now, Tenglin Quintongtian's shuriken killed another member of their family. It can be seen that the crisis is in sight!

The person who took the video with his mobile phone, he threw away the phone and blurted out to the other four people: "Arrange an array!

Arrange an array!"

The other four people recovered for a while, and took out ninja knives one after another. The five people formed a small circle back to back, and each one was guarded in different directions.

This is the most commonly used pawn formation when ninjas are defending. At this time, Nanako Ito heard the movement and opened her eyes, and suddenly realized that the man who was about to slash him had become a standing corpse, and the other five people formed a defensive formation like a big enemy!

She hadn't figured out what was going on. Suddenly, one of the five people suddenly fell straight forward and plunged into the thick snow! The people around him hurriedly reached out and turned him over, only to find that there was a shuriken stuck in the center of his forehead and brow!

The man pointed to the wall and said nervously, "At the wall!"

As a result, the remaining four people gave up the circular defensive formation, one after another with twelve points, staring at the direction where the shuriken shot just now.

One of them trembled and said, "What is the ability to injure people with a secret arrow! Come out if you have the ability!"

Although he said so, he didn't expect such words to really excite the other party.

After all, this sounds too pediatric, how can the opponent be fooled by himself if he has such strength.

However, no one thought that just as his voice fell, a dark figure suddenly jumped down on the wall. Immediately, the dark shadow took a leisurely pace and strode towards them!

Every time that black shadow took a foot, the snow creaked on the ground, making the four people more and more frightened.

Nanako Ito stared at the dark shadow with wide-eyed eyes. She wanted to know who the man who saved her secretly was.

And when the dark shadow came to her to let her see the people, she was instantly struck by lightning! She never dreamed that the person who saved her would be Charlie Wade, who she had been thinking about for a long time!

At this moment, Nanako Ito thought that she was wrong, and she had hallucinations. So she wiped her eyes and looked at it carefully.

Chapter 1766

The smiling man in front of her is indeed Charlie Wade, whom he has missed and loved for a long time!

At this moment, in the depths of Nanako Ito's heart, countless questions suddenly emerged:

"How could it be him?!"

"Why is it him?!"

"Why is he here?!"

"Am I dreaming?!"

"Could it be that I am already dead, and all this is an illusion after my death?!"

"Just now, I even felt that even if I could see Charlie Wade before I died, I would die without regrets, but who would dare to believe that Charlie Wade suddenly came to save herself like a god from heaven." ?!"
Countless thoughts in her mind gathered together, she was surprised and hesitant, nervous and excited, and her whole body was trembling to the point of speechless.

At this time, Charlie Wade was the first to break the silence. He looked at Nanako Ito, smiled, and asked: "Miss Ito, how are you doing now?"

Hearing Charlie Wade's voice, Nanako Ito finally made sure that everything in front of her was not an illusion!

He has been in love for a long time and even thought that Charlie Wade, who would never have a chance to meet again, came to save her when she was in the most critical time!

At this moment, Nanako Ito finally realized the ultimate happiness of a woman.

She feels that in this life, there will be no more moment that can surpass every minute and every second of the present.

Even if it was to let her die now, she felt that her life had been completely fulfilled, without any regrets.

As a result, she couldn't control her emotions anymore and cried out loudly: "Charlie Wade! I came back from Aurouss Hilll, looking forward to reunion with you day and night, I didn't expect you to really come..."

The four ninjas were on the verge of an enemy, and one of them gritted his teeth and scolded: "Boy, did you kill Quintongtian?!"

Charlie Wade smiled cruelly: "I killed him, what can you do?"

The man gritted his teeth and shouted: "Asshole! Kill me six members of the Tenglin family, I want your life!"

Charlie Wade looked at the four ninjas, and said lightly: "You are a little bit noisy, since you want my life, don't bother other people in this mansion."

After speaking, he held his Thunder Order with one hand, and muttered in a low voice: "Thunder!"

Suddenly, a series of dull thunders suddenly sounded in the gloomy sky! This series of thunders immediately caused a dog barking around, and the originally quiet snowy night suddenly became noisy.

At this moment, Charlie Wade sneered with contempt, and shouted: "Want to get paid, right? Come on! I will send you to meet them before they are far away!"

The man didn't know that the thunder was caused by Charlie Wade, and he roared in anger, "Asshole, you must die today!"

As soon as the voice fell, he raised the ninja sword high and slashed at Charlie Wade at an extremely fast speed!

The other three are not far behind!

One of them jumped directly into the air, swiping a knife to Charlie Wade from mid-air!

The other two quickly drew away to the sides and waved the ninja sword, preparing to besiege Charlie Wade from the left and right wings!

As we all know, Japanese katana and ninja swords are all tempered by top craftsmen with top-notch stainless steel. The blades are so sharp that they can be broken by blowing!

The four attacked together, and Charlie Wade would be chopped into several pieces if he couldn't stand it a little bit!

These four people can be described as murderous!

Nanako Ito saw four terrifying cold lights in the night sky and shouted in horror: "Charlie Wade, be careful!"

Chapter 1767

The four ninjas of the Tenglin family all felt that this time they would definitely be able to give Charlie Wade a definite blow.

And Nanako Ito also raised her heart to her throat, for fear of Charlie Wade's accident.

For her, even if she died, she would never let Charlie Wade be hurt.

At this moment, Charlie Wade suddenly retreated several meters on the spot. The speed made the four ninjas stunned!

They themselves are preemptive, and they are faster than Charlie Wade in terms of starting time.

Moreover, they all have a ninja sword nearly one meter long in their hands, which undoubtedly further strengthens their attack range, allowing them to take advantage of the opportunity to move faster.

According to their understanding, it is almost impossible for anyone to escape at this moment.

It's like a bullet that is about to hit him that a normal person cannot escape!

However, Charlie Wade did it!

At the same time Charlie Wade retreated quickly, the Thunder Token was already in his pocket. Then, his left and right hands suddenly drew out two swords in his hand, and shot at the one in the air, and the one in front of the four people in front of him at high speed!

When the two heard the sound of shuriken breaking through the air, and seeing the cold light flying at extreme speed, they reminded each other: "Be careful!"

Immediately afterwards, the two of them were about to dodge to both sides, when they felt a sharp pain in their hearts.

The person who rose into the air fell quickly, and the person who first rushed towards Charlie Wade also knelt to the ground instantly!

The two people who doubled on the left and right wings were shocked by the situation in front of them.

Who could have imagined that this person moved so quickly, completely exceeding them by more than one grade!

It was originally a team of four full of confidence, but I didn't expect that even the fur of the other party was not even next to each other, and I would break the two again!

Under this circumstance, both of them knew that there was no chance to win at all, and they continued to attack blindly. There was no other way but to die.

As a result, the two exchanged glances, and then suddenly stopped. At the same time, they took out a ball about the size of a ping-pong ball from their pocket and slammed it to the ground.

Immediately afterwards, the ball burst out with a dazzling light, and another burst of black and thick smoke lit up. The two took advantage of the cover of these two smokes, turned around and fled.

Charlie Wade sneered, and took out the last two swords from the cowhide without hurriedly, and shot them at the two black mists.

The two of them had actually ran far away at this time, but they didn't expect that the sound of breaking through the air was still heard behind their heads, and the speed of breaking through the air was extremely fast, almost leaving them with a flash of light!

At this moment, there was only one thought in their minds: they were dead!

as predicted!

The swords in both hands pierced the backs of the two.

The poison smeared on the blade spread rapidly, and the two of them died in an instant!

At this time, the faint thunder in the sky continued.

Therefore, what happened in the courtyard of Nanako Ito did not disturb other people in the mansion.

Seeing that these six people had completely died, Charlie Wade finally breathed a sigh of relief, and at this moment, Nanako Ito, who was not far from him, looked at him with tears in her eyes.

Chapter 1768

"Charlie Wade..."

Nanako Ito choked, then turned the wheel of the wheelchair with both hands and came towards Charlie Wade.

Charlie Wade took a few steps quickly, came to her, and asked, "Miss Ito, are you okay?"

"It's okay, I'm okay..." Nanako Ito shook her head, and then she couldn't control her face and started crying.

At this moment, her biggest feeling was not the rest of her life, but the great surprise that Charlie Wade's sudden appearance brought her.

Seeing her crying as if she was emotionally out of control, Charlie Wade couldn't help but stretched out her hand and gently touched the back of her cold hand, softly comforting: "Miss Ito, stop crying, it's all right."

Nanako Ito wiped away her tears, shook her head and said, "I didn't cry for what happened just now..."

After finishing speaking, she raised her head, did not hide the deep love in her eyes, choked up and asked: "Charlie Wade, why are you coming to Kyoto?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "I came to Japan to do something. I just arrived in Osaka. I thought that Osaka is quite close to you, so I came to see you."

When Nanako Ito heard this, the sweetness in her heart seemed to melt away instantly.

She asked excitedly: "Charlie Wade, you...you came to see me because you missed me?"

"Uh..." Charlie Wade was asked by her.

I wanted to find an excuse to conceal it, but suddenly I felt that I came here so far. This action is the most honest answer. At this time, what else can I lie?

So, he nodded lightly, and said somewhat unnaturally: "Forget it..."

Nanako Ito was so happy to hear this!

Although there were still tears in the corners of her eyes, she smiled and said with great joy: "I didn't expect Charlie Wade to still think of me...this is...this really surprises me... .."

Then she hurriedly asked Charlie Wade: "Charlie Wade, how do you know that I am in Kyoto?"

Charlie Wade said: "I met Koichi Tanaka at Eastcliff Airport a few days ago and he told me."

"That's it!" Nanako Ito said shyly: "Charlie Wade, thank you for remembering me, and thank you for saving my life today..."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "You don't need to be so polite, just raise your hand."

After speaking, Charlie Wade asked her again: "I think you have been sitting in a wheelchair, haven't your body recovered yet?"

"Yes." Nanako Ito nodded gently: "Since the last time I finished the game with Aurora, I was seriously injured. I was treated in Tokyo for a period of time. I was out of danger, but my body still failed to recover. The injury may be possible. It takes a long period of recuperation to get better."

Charlie Wade nodded and said seriously: "Actually, I came to see you this time mainly to help you heal your injury. I didn't expect to encounter such a thing..."

Nanako Ito smiled gratefully, and said softly, "Charlie Wade, my injury has been seen by the best doctors in Japan. What they mean is that it is very rare to save my face. With existing medical methods, it is very difficult. Let me recover again. If I can get rid of the wheelchair in a few years, it will be considered a medical miracle."

After that, Nanako Ito raised her head again, staring at Charlie Wade with fiery eyes, and said seriously: "Charlie Wade, you can come to see me, I am already very moved, this is more important than getting me to stand up again or to recover."

"You don't know how much I miss you during this period of time, even I can't believe it, my biggest wish for such a long time is not to be able to recover, but to see you again..."

At this point, Nanako Ito mustered up the courage, took Charlie Wade's hand, and said affectionately: "Thank you, Charlie Wade! You are here, it is Nanako's blessing, if I can hold hands with you in this place. Walking in the snow for a while, you will have no regrets in this life..."

Seeing her gentle eyes, Charlie Wade felt a little distressed in his heart. He looked at Nanako Ito and said very seriously: "Nanako, I have a way for you to heal you and restore you to the beginning!"

Chapter 1769

Hearing Charlie Wade's unwavering words, Nanako Ito was a little dumbfounded.

She couldn't believe that her injury still had the possibility of recovering as before, but when Charlie Wade said this, she suddenly felt very trusting.

So, she asked Charlie Wade in surprise: "Charlie Wade, do you really have a way to heal my injury?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "But before I treat you, I'd better treat these corpses."

Nanako Ito hurriedly said, "I'll call the butler!"

"No need." Charlie Wade stopped her and said: "I had a little conflict with your father in Tokyo. If you tell the housekeeper about such a big matter, he will definitely notify your father immediately. It may not look good at that time. ."

Nanako Ito asked in surprise: "Charlie Wade, did you see my father in Tokyo?! Why are you conflicting?"

Charlie Wade shrugged his shoulders and said, "This matter is a long story. I will tell you later when I will treat you."

Nanako Ito stuck out her tongue and said with a smile: "It seems that father must have suffered a lot with Charlie Wade..."

Charlie Wade chuckled, "He didn't take the pain, He just lost a little money."

Nanako Ito smiled and said, "It doesn't matter, he is not short of money anyway, and it doesn't matter at all to lose."

Charlie Wade coughed and said, "It lost 4.5 billion US dollars."

"Huh?" Nanako Ito was shocked by Charlie Wade's words and asked in shock: "4.5 billion US dollars? You are not kidding, right?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "I'm not kidding, it's true, but I haven't considered whether it really cost him so much."

Nanako Ito said without hesitation: "Charlie Wade doesn't have to think about it. This money will be regarded as a thank you father for me. After all, you just saved my life. My life in his eyes is More than four and a half billion dollars."

Charlie Wade laughed and said, "You are generous, so you are not afraid that your father will know that he is angry with you?"

Nanako Ito shook his head and said seriously: "If he dares to be angry, then I will run away from home and go to China to join you, and then never come back!"

"Uh....."

Charlie Wade was speechless at once.

He didn't know if Nanako Ito was joking or was serious. If he was serious, he would naturally be willing deep in his heart, but he couldn't explain to Claire Wilson Wilson...

At this time, Nanako Ito saw Charlie Wade hesitating, and hurriedly smiled: "Charlie Wade, Nanako is making a joke with you, you don't have to be serious, and even if I really want to go to China, i must buy a house in Aourouss Hilll and settle down by myself. I Will not cause trouble to you!"

Charlie Wade sighed and said, "I'll talk about this later. I'll deal with these six corpses first. You have a lot of rooms in your yard. Which one is not commonly used?"

Nanako Ito pointed to the west wing and said, "That room is a storage room, but since I haven't come back for a long time, it has been empty."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "It's cold, I will send you back to the room, and then deal with these corpses. When the treatment is over, I will treat your wounds first. After the wounds are healed, you will inform the housekeeper at home , Let them dispose of the body properly."

Nanako Ito hurriedly asked, "Charlie Wade, are you going to leave after healing me?"

"Yes." Charlie Wade nodded and said, "I have to go back to Osaka. I will return to China after I finish my work in Osaka."

Nanako Ito looked a little lost, and murmured: "Then I hope..my injury will never be cured..."

Charlie Wade blurted out: "Don't talk nonsense, it's bad luck."

Nanako Ito said earnestly: "In that case, Charlie Wade can stay here forever? Because you said, you can only leave if the injury is cured, and you can't leave if the injury is not cured."

Charlie Wade looked at her with a helpless smile, and said, "Don't worry, I will definitely cure you."

Chapter 1770

Nanako Ito asked Charlie Wade, "Charlie Wade, do I have a chance to see you again in the future?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "Yes, I now put part of my business in Japan, and I might come here often in the future."

"That's great!" Nanako Ito said with joy, "Charlie Wade, can you promise me one thing?"

Charlie Wade said, "You said."

Nanako Ito hurriedly said, "I hope you can tell me every time you come to Japan. If it is convenient for you, I hope you allow me to see you!"

"In addition, if I go to China, if it is also convenient, please allow me to meet you, okay?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "No problem, I promise you."

Nanako Ito cheered like a little girl and said, "Then I will see you often in the future!"

Charlie Wade was touched by her sweet smile, and her voice became gentle. He smiled and said, "Okay, I will send you back to the room first, and I will come to help you heal later."

Soon, under Nanako Ito's guidance, Charlie Wade pushed her wheelchair and sent her back to her boudoir.

Nanako Ito's room has a typical Japanese classical layout. The whole house is made of natural wood flooring, which is clean and tidy and simple and elegant.

There is a tea table sitting on the floor in the room, as well as a Japanese-style book case and flower arrangement table. On the wall of the room, there are many calligraphy works, which seem to be written by Nanako Ito.

Charlie Wade sent her back to the room and helped her into the room.

In order to prevent Nanako Ito from falling, Charlie Wade held her hand with one hand, and supported her waist with one hand. Such intimate contact made his heart beat faster, and at the same time made Nanako Ito two red clouds float on her face.

Charlie Wade just so supported Nanako Ito, and at her request, he helped her sit down on the futon at the tea table.

On the tea table, there is a set of exquisite Japanese tea sets and a small incense burner.

After Nanako Ito sat down, Charlie Wade said: "Wait for me, I will deal with the dead body outside."

Nanako Ito looked at Charlie Wade shyly, and said, "Charlie Wade, I am in a bad health and can't help you, so let's make a cup of tea and wait for you to drink."

Charlie Wade nodded, said okay, then turned and left the room.

At this time, the six corpses lying in the snow were half buried by the snow.

Charlie Wade carefully moved the corpses to the storage room, and then stepped back to Nanako Ito's room.

When I returned, the room was already ignited with a delicate and quiet sandalwood incense, and Nanako Ito was carefully brushing the matcha powder with a Japanese-style tea bowl and brush.

Seeing Charlie Wade coming in, she hurriedly said to Charlie Wade:
"Charlie Wade, please sit down!"

Charlie Wade nodded and sat cross-legged on the futon in front of her. While brushing the matcha powder, Nanako Ito said to him: "The Japanese tea ceremony may not be the same as the Chinese tea ceremony. The tea here is brewed with matcha powder. I don't know if you are used to drinking it."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "I tasted Japanese tea ceremony with my parents when I was young, and I feel pretty good personally."

Nanako Ito nodded, smiled and said, "That's good!"

With that said, Nanako Ito was about to make Charlie Wade tea, Charlie Wade frowned suddenly, lowered her voice and said to her: "Someone has come in over the wall!"

"Ah?!" Nanako Ito's eyes widened in surprise: "Are you with the few people just now?"

Charlie Wade shook his head: "I don't know yet, but there is only one person on the other side. It may not be here to hurt you. Don't talk nonsense later, we will do what we do!"

Chapter 1771

Brother and sister Fitz and Zara have been transported directly to Kyoto since they were taken out of Tokyo.

At this time, the brothers and sisters were imprisoned in a house less than two kilometers away from here.

The ninjas of the Iga family are responsible for guarding them.

They have been waiting for Ryoto Matsumoto's order. If Ryoto Matsumoto lets them do it, they will immediately kill the brother and sister, and then quietly transport their bodies into the Ito family mansion.

However, before Matsumoto issued the order, they had to keep the siblings alive, so as not to be inconvenient to transport after the dead body was too long and stiff.

The ninjas of the Iga family are best at assassination. In their experience, the most convenient time to carry a corpse is within an hour after death. At this time, the corpse is relatively soft and can even be packed in a suitcase, but if it exceeds this time, The body will become more and more rigid.

So they plan to kill the brother and sister immediately after receiving the order of Matsumoto Ryoto, and then take them directly to the Ito's mansion to find a suitable place to hide.

Just ten minutes ago, Ryoto Matsumoto called and asked them to check the situation in the Ito family mansion.

First, take a look at the defense of Ito's mansion and find the weakest link. Then you have to find a suitable place to hide the dead body. After confirming it, kill the brothers and sisters directly.

So, an Iga ninja sneaked into the Ito house alone, preparing to step on a spot first.

It was this person that Charlie Wade noticed in Nanako Ito's room.

This person observed the wall for a while, and seemed to have selected the remote courtyard of Nanako Ito. After looking around for a while, he took out a few photos with his mobile phone, and then quietly rolled down the wall and planned to leave.

Charlie Wade stood up at this time and said to Nanako Ito: "I'll go out for a while, you are waiting for me here."

Nanako Ito hurriedly asked: "Charlie Wade, where are you going?"

Charlie Wade said: "That person was also a ninja just now. He came here alone, and 80% came to step on it. There may be other ninjas behind him. Let me go and see!"

Nanako Ito stretched out her hand to hold her, and said seriously: "Charlie Wade, please don't go, it will be dangerous!"

Charlie Wade said seriously: "If there are ninjas peeping in secret, it is very likely that they are conspiring against you. If I don't go now, they may find it soon. If this is the case, it is better to take the initiative and get it done once and for all. Get rid of them."

Nanako Ito said nervously, "But I am worried about you...I don't want you to take risks for me..."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and shook her hand and said seriously: "The reason why I came to Kyoto is for you. Whether it is a sword mountain or a sea of fire, since I have come, I will definitely take care of it!"

After speaking, he released Nanako Ito's hand, turned and left.

Nanako Ito was immediately hit by Charlie Wade's words. In addition to being moved and happy, her whole heart seemed to be melted by his words. When Charlie Wade said this sentence, there was no domineering voice, but it gave her an unprecedented sense of security.

Nanako Ito realized that at this moment, she was hopelessly in love with Charlie Wade.

For him, she was willing to give everything, even if she let her sacrifice her life for Charlie Wade, she would never hesitate.

So, she hurriedly reached out and grabbed Charlie Wade, and said piously: "Charlie Wade, please pay attention to safety. If you have any accidents, I will definitely die for you without hesitation!"

Chapter 1772

Charlie Wade turned around and smiled softly: "Don't worry, I will be back soon."

After speaking, Charlie Wade stepped away from Nanako Ito's boudoir and disappeared into the vast snowy night.

.....

In the wind and snow, the Iga ninja who came to step on the spot was running fast in the night.

He moves quickly and is as light as a swallow. Under the cover of the night, he is almost like an elusive ghost.

However, he would never have thought that right behind him, he was also followed by a super master who was a hundred times stronger than him.

This super master was Charlie Wade.

Ninja Iga ran for two kilometers without stopping, and finally stopped at a courtyard door. Then he came to the courtyard's simple door, buttoned the door four times in two long and two short ways, and the door opened one from the inside. A gap where only one person can pass sideways.

Immediately afterwards, he quickly stepped in and disappeared.

But Charlie Wade concealed his breath and heartbeat, and quietly jumped onto the wall, carefully watching the courtyard.

The entire courtyard is not too big. The front yard is more than 200 square meters, with some bamboo and ancient pine planted, and behind the courtyard is a wooden two-story building.

The Iga Ninja, who had just entered, went straight through the front yard and entered the two-story building.

Charlie Wade could feel that there were more than six or seven people in this building, so he walked along the wall and quietly came to the building.

At this time, on the second floor of this building, there is a hall of about 50 square meters. In the hall, there is a ninja in black. In addition, on the floor in the middle, there are two quilts. People with big ties and balaclavas.

The ninja that Charlie Wade followed all the way, after stepping up to the second floor, reported to one of the ninjas headed by: "Master Shang Ninja, I have just found out that the internal defense of the Ito family mansion is very weak, and there are only less than ten people. Guards, the strength is average!"

The leading ninja hummed and said: "This time we are going to quietly throw the corpses of these two Chinese people in, so even if the opponent's strength is weak, we have to make sure not to disturb anyone, quietly. Go in, leave the corpse, and then quietly withdraw."

After that, he asked again: "Have you found a suitable place to hide the body?"

"Found it!" The ninja hurriedly reported: "In the Ito Mansion, there is a very secluded small courtyard. There is also a pine forest in the small courtyard. Now the snow is thick. We can hide the body there for a short time. It should not be discovered by anyone."

Speaking of this, he immediately took out his mobile phone, turned out the album, and reported to the Chief Executive: "Shangren-sama, I took some photos. Please take a look."

The other party took the phone, flipped it a few times, and nodded in satisfaction: "Yes, at first glance, this pine forest shows that few people go there. The corpse is hidden here. No one will find it for several hours or even ten hours, Mr. Matsumoto. The requirement is for at least two hours not to be discovered by the Ito family. If you hide here, time is enough."

Another ninja hurriedly asked, "Master Shangren, when will we kill these two Chinese?"

The leader looked at the time and said, "Wait a minute, I'll call Mr. Matsumoto."

At this time, Zara, who was wearing a black headgear, struggled violently.

Because her mouth was blocked, she could only whimper with her nose, trying to attract the other's attention.

The headed ninja frowned, pulled off her headgear, and stared at Zara, who was extremely haggard and full of horror, and asked coldly: "What? Do you have any last words to say?"

Chapter 1773

At the moment Zara was uncovered, Charlie Wade immediately recognized her.

He couldn't help slandering in the bottom of his heart: "Isn't this woman the same woman who sat on the Rolls Royce Takahashi Eiji? When I taught Eiji Takahashi, she even choked a few words with me, but she didn't expect to be People have been tied up here, and it seems that they are going to kill her, and then blame Ito Yuhiko. It seems that this woman has a lot of background!"

At this time, Zara was still stuffed with a towel in her mouth, so she sobbed for a long time, but couldn't really say a word.

So, the headed Iga Ninja stretched out his hand and tore off the towel from her mouth, and said coldly: "Give you a chance, just say what you want to say."

Zara's eyes were full of horror, but she forced herself to calm down, and said tremblingly: "Let me and my brother, you can tell me how much it costs, and I will give you ten times how much it costs you!"

The leader sneered: "It's meaningless to talk about this. The rule in the Japanese ninja family is to be loyal to the employer. Only by being absolutely loyal to the employer can the ninja family be favored by the big family. Otherwise, once the big family is loyal to the ninja When there are doubts, all ninjas in Japan will lose their jobs. At that time, we will become the public enemies of all ninjas in Japan. Even if you give me more money, I won't have my life!"

Zara couldn't wait to say: "Then you can go to China! I will give you one billion dollars, enough for you to live comfortably in China for a lifetime! Never fight for others!"

The leader was startled and couldn't help sighing: "Girl, I didn't expect you to be quite rich. One billion dollars is indeed a very large sum. Let's not say whether you can get so much money, even if you You can tell, I just said that I don't have a life-saver. Even if you give me 10 billion dollars, I will still be hunted down by Japanese ninjas for the rest of my life. This deal is not worth it."

Zara blurted out: "Then you think that if you kill me, no one will chase you? I tell you, if you kill me, my family will chase you at all costs! To that At that time, no matter how much money you have, you will never spend it!"

"No, no," the man said with a smile: "I am planning to kill you, but after I am planning to kill you, I will blame Ito Yuhiko. Anyway, there are some differences between you because of cooperation. At that time, both the Metropolitan Police Department and the family behind you will regard Ito Yuihiko as the man behind the killing of you two."

Zara gritted his teeth and said, "All this is the envoy of Matsumoto, right?"

At this time, the headed Iga Ninja looked at Zara and sneered: "Mr. Matsumoto originally wanted to cooperate with you piously, but I didn't expect that you are really above the top, and you are very arrogant! Mr. Matsumoto came to see you in person, But you ignore it. Since you are so rude to Mr. Matsumoto, don't complain that Mr. Matsumoto is cruel to you!"

Just now, when the leader was talking to his subordinates, he mentioned Mr. Matsumoto. Zara had realized at that moment that the master of all this was Mr. Matsumoto.

She really did not expect that Ryoto Matsumoto, who can only rank third in Tokyo in strength, could be so vicious!

He attacked her and her elder brother and blamed Ito Yuhiko. He must take the opportunity to weaken the strength of the Ito family, and maybe even use other methods against the Takahashi family.

If the time comes as he planned, his family goes to Ito Yuhiko to seek revenge, wouldn't Matsumoto be able to take advantage of the fisherman? ! Thinking of this, she felt extremely regretful.

Knowing this, when Mr. Matsumoto came to see him, he and his brother should see him. No matter what he said, at least don't offend this person for face.

It's a pity that these things are now an afterthought, the big mistake has been made, and there is no room for reversal now.

Fitz on the side was too regretful, but he was covered with his head, his mouth was pouting, and he couldn't say a word.

The headed Iga Ninja took out his cell phone, called Ryoto Matsumoto, and respectfully said: "Mr. Matsumoto, Ito's mansion has been inquired, there is a very suitable place to hide the body, and the defense of the opponent is also very weak. We are confident that we will not be discovered by anyone in the process of hiding the body. I wonder when Mr. Matsumoto wants us to do it?"

Ryoto Matsumoto smiled and said, "Tokyo is very chaotic now. It hasn't been so chaotic for decades, so I want to wait a little longer so that I can rest assured to finish watching the Tokyo drama!"

Chapter 1774

Iga Ninja immediately said: "Good Mr. Matsumoto, we are always at your disposal!"

Ryoto Matsumoto sneered and said: "By the way, the two you kidnapped, their family members have come to Tokyo, I hope you will make these two people die a little bit more tragically, when the police find their bodies, the scene the better the miserable, the more miserable they die, the more angry their family members will be, and this event will be even more exciting!"

Iga Ninja hurriedly said: "Don't worry, we will do it!"

Ryoto Matsumoto said: "That woman is said to be pretty good. You might as well abuse her before killing her. If her family sees her being abused to death, they will definitely hate Ito Yuhiko! "

When Iga Ninja heard this, he suddenly laughed and said: "In fact, my brothers have been coveting this woman, but I am worried that your good deeds will be broken, so I have been stopping them, but since you with this sentence, I am completely relieved!"

Ryoto Matsumoto laughed and said, "It's okay, let the brothers enjoy it. By the way, you can come together. By the way, you can take some videos that will not expose your faces. If you send it out then, it will definitely have a better effect, haha Haha!"

Ninja Iga laughed similarly: "Mr. Matsumoto, don't worry, we will definitely shoot a blockbuster for you!"

Zara at this time, her face pale in fright.

She tremblingly pleaded: "I beg you to kill me directly, don't ruin my innocence..."

"Innocence?" Iga Ninja smiled and asked: "So, you are still innocent? A super beauty like you still retains innocence. This is really rare, such a precious gift, I must disassemble it yourself later!"

Ryoto Matsumoto smiled on the other side of the phone and said, "Okay Iga Kamino, I won't bother you with good things. You still have an hour and a half to indulge yourself. After an hour and a half, kill them, and then bury the corpse in Ito Takehiko's mansion!"

Iga Ninja hurriedly said, "Mr. Matsumoto, don't worry. After two hours, the bodies of these two people will lie in the snow in the Ito Mansion! You will be able to reveal the news to the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department. Up!"

"Very good! I will never treat you badly after it's done!"

Iga Shangren hung up the phone, looked at Zara, and rubbed his hands in excitement: "Beauty, before I die, I will let you taste the ultimate happiness of a woman. For your good, you must obediently cooperate with me. If it makes me happy, I can give you a reward!"

Zara almost collapsed. She burst into tears and said in horror: "Please, kill me now..."

Iga Kaminino laughed: "It's not so easy to want to die now. I have to ask me and my brothers if I agree!"

Zara shivered in shock, and blurted out, "Help! Help!"

Iga Kaminari sneered: "To tell you the truth, the several houses around here are all focused on repairs. Even if you are called Potemkin, there is no way anyone will come to rescue you! You can keep your voice and stay under me. Scream happily, the harder you call, the more excited I will be, hahahaha!"

The other ninjas also laughed presumptuously.

At this moment, a voice suddenly rang: "A group of beasts, together to bully a girl, do you want to force your face?"

It was Charlie Wade who spoke!

Chapter 1775

When Charlie Wade's voice suddenly sounded, so many well-trained ninjas were all startled by his voice!

No one thought that they would be tracked by others as well!

Moreover, before this person spoke, no one realized his existence!

The headed Iga Kaminin took out the ninja sword almost instantly, looked around vigilantly, and asked nervously, "Who?! Get out of me!"

At this moment, Charlie Wade jumped from the wall, and people had broken the window and entered, leaving the floor with broken glass ballast.

The moment Zara saw Charlie Wade, her whole body was struck by lightning! She couldn't believe that someone would come to save herself at this time, and she couldn't believe that it was the Chinese man she met on the streets of Tokyo to save herself!

Moreover, I also offended him because I didn't know what happened!

At this time, Charlie Wade was standing upright in the broken window. In her eyes, Charlie Wade in front of her was more than handsome, like a god!

The violent cold wind poured in from the broken window, blowing Charlie Wade's hair and clothes, in her eyes, there was a sense of sight of a great hero in a martial arts movie.

However, Charlie Wade's attention at this time was completely off Zara's body.

He stared at Iga Shangren with cold eyes, and said coldly: "I thought Japanese ninjas are so ethical, they turned out to be such a mob! It's fair for you to bully your Japanese women, and to bully our Chinese women is to die!"

Several other ninjas of the Iga family stepped back, staring at Charlie Wade and drew the ninja sword.

They knew that Charlie Wade could always hide nearby without being discovered, and he must have extraordinary strength, so they didn't dare to act rashly, they were all waiting for Iga Kaminin.

Iga Kaminin's face is blue at this time!

Others call him a superior ninja, which means superior ninja, not his name.

In the Japanese ninja registration system, roughly divided into upper ninja, middle ninja and lower ninja.

Shang Ninja is already at the top level among ninjas and is highly respected throughout Japan.

However, he did not expect that the Chinese man in front of him would dare to insult himself and insult a ninja. It was really unforgivable!

So he roared: "Boy! There is an old saying in China, there is a way to heaven, you don't go, and there is no way to hell, you break in! Since you are looking for death, don't blame me for being rude to you!"

Having said that, he immediately swung his ninja sword and shouted to the people around him: "Set up an array! Trapped in the formation and kill him! I will cut off his head with my own hands, and let him atone for the insult to the ninja!"

With a flash, the other six ninjas surrounded Charlie Wade one after another.

Charlie Wade didn't change his face at this time, and said coldly, "Want to cut my head? Not to mention that you only have two hands, even if you have eight hands!"

Iga Shangren said sarcastically: "Boy, it's okay to look down on me, but don't look down on Japanese ninjutsu. I'm a dignified Shangren. If I can't cut your head off, I'm sorry Amaterasu!"

Charlie Wade's expression became more and more gloomy, and he reprimanded in a deep voice, "Japanese Ninjutsu, right? Today, I really want to see and see, what! What a f*ck! Japanese Ninjutsu!"

"court death!"

Iga Kami is angry and rushes!

He roared, and immediately shook the ninja sword with both hands, rushing towards Charlie Wade with a mighty force!

Several other people also released knives one after another, intending to chop Charlie Wade into meat sauce.

Charlie Wade's tactics against Japanese ninjas are really powerless to complain.

Just like a group of mad dogs biting people, the core tactic is to attack in groups.

In their eyes, anyway, the ninja swords were smeared with highly toxic substances, and everyone rushed forward and attacked. As long as a knife pierced one centimeter of the opponent's skin, they would win the battle.

For thousands of years, Japanese ninjas have relied on such tricks to defeat their opponents countless times, which can be said to be a time-tested!

Chapter 1776

This time, they met, it was Charlie Wade!

Charlie Wade's face did not change at this time, and his toes gently rubbed on the ground, and a triangular piece of broken glass ballast on the ground suddenly bounced from the ground at a very fast speed, and went straight to Iga Shangren!

In the blink of an eye, Charlie Wade kicked another piece of glass ballast again, and shot in the same direction!

As Iga Kaminari rushed, he suddenly saw two crystal clear and colorful things in his eyes, like two shooting stars one after another, passing by his vision in an instant!

Before he had time to think about what it was, he suddenly felt a sharp pain in his right wrist holding the ninja sword!

In less than a blink of an eye, the same pain suddenly came from his left wrist!

After a while, he felt that his hands lost strength in a short time, and the ninja sword in his hand immediately took off and fell to the ground.

At the same time, two warm red water mists from unknown sources rushed onto his face immediately..

When he smelled the strong bloody smell in the red water mist, he finally realized that his hands had been cut off by the two meteor-like rays of light!

And the two red water mists that spewed out were blood mists spewing out from the wrists of his two hands!

He was shocked! I don't understand why this happened at all!

At this moment, Charlie Wade suddenly rushed forward!

He grabbed Iga Kamininho by the neck and picked up his 200lbs body directly!

At the same time, Charlie Wade has also avoided the encirclement of other people!

This group of mad dog-like ninjas thought that Charlie Wade might choose a direction to break through, but none of them expected that Charlie Wade would choose Iga Shangren's direction to break through!

Didn't this take the initiative to hit the hardest wall? !

However, Charlie Wade chose the hardest one among them!

At this time, Iga Shangren, the whole person was provoked by Charlie Wade pinching the neck with one hand, and the wrists of both hands were still bleeding. Although the arms can still move, they can't move completely below the wrists, so they can't move completely. Lost all attack power!

Charlie Wade pinched his neck, walked straight through the hall from the window, and then slammed his body against the wall with one hand!

At the same time, Charlie Wade still kept the posture of pinching his neck with one hand, making him 30 centimeters above the ground!

At this time, Iga Shangren, with his legs hanging in the air, stuck to the wall, relying on Charlie Wade's hand to get stuck so that he would not slip off the wall.

But the tremendous strength in Charlie Wade's hands made him almost unable to breathe, his legs kicked, his face was dark purple!

Everyone at the scene was frightened!

Especially the few Iga Ninjas, feeling that the whole worldview has been subverted! Everyone is horrified, what is the origin of this Chinese? ! He... why is he so strong! Do not! More than strong!

It's like a god! The powerful Iga Shinobu, under his hand, has fallen like a dead dog! What kind of perverted ability is necessary to form such a brutal and thorough crush on Iga Kaminino? !

At this time, Charlie Wade's expression was extremely cold, but the corners of his mouth appeared to be extremely ridiculous, and he sneered word by word: "It turns out! This is what the f*ck is called! Japanese Ninjutsu! How pathetic!"

Chapter 1777

Charlie Wade's words made everyone more frightened immediately!

They realized at this time that Charlie Wade had just kicked two pieces of broken glass ballast with his toes just now, and he had directly and accurately cut off Iga Kamininho's two hand muscles!

It is not difficult to kick the glass ballast.

It's not difficult to hurt people with kicked glass ballast.

But the difficulty is that it is impossible to accurately cut off a person's two hand muscles with a kicked glass ball!

What's more, instead of standing there and letting the opponent attack, Iga Shangren rushed all the way to the opponent, and would be cut off from his hands while moving at a high speed. This head is incredible!

Moreover, Charlie Wade can completely subdue Iga Shinobu with just one hand, and this ability is also incredible!

What kind of crazy strength is it that can reach this point? !

Zara also looked silly!

At this moment, Charlie Wade nailed Iga Shinnin to the wall with one hand, it was like a god in her eyes!

At this time, Iga Shangren was still struggling, trying to break away from Charlie Wade's control, but the tiger's mouth on Charlie Wade's right hand was like steel bars, leaving only a little space for him to breathe.

Iga Kaminino struggled and asked with a slight voice, "You...who are you?!"

"Me?" Charlie Wade smiled: "I am your Chinese father."

Iga Kamino's expression was extremely ugly, as were other people's expressions.

However, at this moment, no one dared to attack Charlie Wade.

Because they knew that with Charlie Wade's strength, Iga Shangren's neck could be chopped off easily.

At this time, Iga Kaminari gritted his teeth and asked: "I have no grievances with you, what do you want?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "I want your life!"

After finishing speaking, he looked at the dumb ninjas and sneered: "Oh yes, I also want your life too."

Everyone took a step back, holding knives in both hands, but their expressions were full of horror.

At this time, Iga Kaminobu shouted: "Hurry up and tie that woman! Come on!"

As soon as the voice fell, a ninja rushed up, put the ninja knife on Zara's neck, and said nervously: "Let him go! Otherwise, I will kill her!"

Charlie Wade gave a hum, and said lightly: "If you want to kill, feel free to kill. I don't know her either."

Iga Kaminino said hoarsely: "You don't bluff me here! Didn't you come to save her?!"

Charlie Wade said calmly: "Of course not! I came to Kyoto today to visit my old friend, that is, Miss Nanako of the Ito family. As a result, your people are so dying to go to the Ito family to inquire. Just come here."

As soon as Charlie Wade said these words, Iga Kaminin was ashamed!

He really thought that Charlie Wade was a member of the Banks Familyy, or a master hired by the Banks Familyy, who came to rescue Zara and Fitz. Then he could use the lives of their brothers and sisters as a bargaining chip, perhaps in exchange for one. Way out.

However, I never thought that this person turned out to be for Nanako Ito, so I followed the person I sent to step on it all the way!

Thinking of this, Iga Kaminino suddenly remembered something, and hurriedly pleaded: "This gentleman, we have no intention of hurting Miss Ito. We just wanted to kill these two people and then blame the Ito family. We didn't even think about it. It's going to be bad for Miss Ito!"

Chapter 1778

Charlie Wade sneered: "According to you, I killed two people casually and buried your home in the snow. Didn't it mean to harm you and your family?"

Iga Kaminori was stunned. He was very eager to survive, and hurriedly tossed Matsumoto Ryoto: "In fact, we are also commissioned by others. It is Matsumoto Ryoto who really wants to deal with the Ito family. It has nothing to do with us... .."

Charlie Wade asked back: "You are helping the gang to abuse you, and now you still tell me it doesn't matter, are your ninja bones so soft?"

Iga Kamijin suppressed the humiliation in his heart, and said: "I believe in an old saying in your country.. It's better to die than to live.. Please give me a chance, I am willing to help you After the saddle.."

Charlie Wade shook his head: "After you saddle me, you are not qualified."

After all, he looked around for a week and said lightly: "You are the same, get ready to go on the road!"

As soon as Iga Shinobu heard this, he immediately roared, "Go together, kill him! Kill him! Kill him and have a chance to live, otherwise he will have to wait for death!"

When everyone heard it, their faces were immediately full of awe.

They also knew very well that Charlie Wade was too strong, and if he confronted him head-on, or let him break one by one, everyone would be finished!

The best way is to attack them in groups. In any case, try your best to kill them. As for how many people like them can survive, it all depends on their own good fortune!

As a result, the remaining six ninjas rushed towards Charlie Wade with their swords mad, and everyone's expressions were extremely hideous!

Zara saw so many people attacking Charlie Wade, her heart has been in her throat!

However, she didn't make any sound, let alone remind Charlie Wade to be careful, because she knew that she didn't need to do anything to interfere with Charlie Wade's concentration.

She stared at Charlie Wade with hot eyes, and murmured in her heart: "Today, my life and death depends entirely on this man who does not yet know his name!"

"If he dies, I will definitely die; if he survives, maybe I will let my brother and I live a life..."

"This gentleman, what happened last time was that I was wrong. I have already apologized to you countless times in my heart. This time, I hope you can survive, even if I eventually die, I don't want you to die because of me... .."

When she thought of this, a group of ninjas had already passed through the entire hall and surrounded Charlie Wade tightly.

Charlie Wade didn't change his face. Seeing six knives slashing at him, with a wave of his hand, he directly waved Iga Shangren's body!

Seven people including Iga Shangren didn't expect Charlie Wade to use him as a meat shield!

At this moment, Iga frightened and screamed: "Stop! Stop!"

However, the six men came down fiercely, and they had already reached the stage of raising the sword, how could they be able to get it back!

Iga Kamijin watched as six knives slashed down, and in a short time, they slashed on him one after another!

Iga Kaminori felt severe pain all over his body, gritted his teeth and groaned: "Fool! Waste! Eight quacks!"

As soon as the voice fell, he died suddenly by vomiting blood!

Seeing that Iga Shangren was hacked to death by them, the six people turned pale with fright. At this moment, Charlie Wade suddenly slammed Iga Shangren's corpse, and flew away with the body and the six knives on him. Get out!

The remaining six ninjas did not recover at all. They only felt that the tiger's mouth was shaken, and the ninja sword disappeared!

At this time, the six were shocked, and some of them had completely lost their intent to fight and turned to flee!

At this moment, Charlie Wade sneered: "Since you have already made a move, it's me now!"

Chapter 1779

As soon as Charlie Wade's words fell, people already rushed out!

His physical function and speed are already far comparable to others, so these ninjas are not given a chance at all.

Every time you catch one, you directly hit the opponent's abdomen with a heavy punch, causing the opponent to instantly lose all combat power and escape opportunities.

In the blink of an eye, the six ninjas running away all lay on the ground one by one.

Zara was dumbfounded!

As the eldest granddaughter of the Banks Family, she is also one of the most favored children. She has been in contact with the masters hidden behind the Banks Family since childhood, but in her opinion, Charlie Wade's strength is far above those people!

What she can't understand is that the hidden masters enshrined by the Banks Family are hard to pick in the country. In theory, they have touched the ceiling of martial arts, but why is Charlie Wade so powerful that it is incredible? People?

The appearance of Charlie Wade suddenly raised the ceiling of martial arts in her mind by more than one level!

Seeing a group of ninjas lying on the ground wailing, Zara was shocked and relieved.

She knew that she and her brother were finally saved.

So, she couldn't help but looked at Charlie Wade excitedly, and blurted out: "Benevolence! Thank you so much today! I don't know what you call you? If you are willing to leave your name, I will do your best to report it to you. Great kindness!"

At this time, Charlie Wade finally turned his head and looked at Zara.

Zara is very beautiful. Even with her tortured hands tied behind her back, her short hair is messily attached to her face, but she still can't hide her perfect facial features and beauty.

However, Charlie Wade didn't like this woman very much.

First of all, he doesn't like the character of this woman.

In his opinion, this woman is self-righteous and arrogant, even if she can't see these characteristics at all, but combined with the impression of the first meeting, Charlie Wade believes that he is right.

Secondly, he didn't like the woman's looks either.

Zara is really beautiful to be beautiful, but is also really cold and arrogant, even with a bit of aggressive heroism.

In fact, in one sentence, this woman is a bit too pretending.

As a master of pretending, Charlie Wade doesn't like people who like to pretend to be like him.

As the saying goes, there is no room for two tigers in one mountain, and the two auras repel each other, even if the tiger is a female.

So Charlie Wade said calmly: "Whoever I am, don't bother you. I also don't want to know who you are. I am here today not to save you, but to kill them. As for saving you, But it's just a matter of convenience, so you don't have to thank me."

Zara has never been underestimated in her life, but she has encountered Charlie Wade twice.

However, at this moment, she doesn't have the slightest temper. She can only nod respectfully and sincerely said: "Anyway, thank you very much!"

Charlie Wade didn't speak, walked to her and untied the rope on her body.

After that, he pulled off his brother's headgear, and pulled off the towel that Fitz had stuck in his mouth.

Fitz has not been able to speak, nor has he seen everything that happened in this room, but when he heard Charlie Wade's voice, he had already guessed that it was him. Seeing Charlie Wade at this moment, the first sentence was: "This Brother, your great kindness, our brother and sister will never forget!"

Charlie Wade untied the rope on his body and said blankly: "Okay, don't talk so much nonsense, I will set fire to burn this place later, you two quickly run away."

Chapter 1780

Zara hurriedly asked, "My dear man! I wonder if you can lend me your phone. I want to call home. They have lost my phone..."

Zara said that he wanted to make a phone call at home, but actually wanted to take this opportunity to get Charlie Wade's phone number.

Now is the information age. As long as he can get the other party's mobile phone number, Zara can get all the other party's identity information.

In this case, after returning home, she will be able to find this benefactor.

Even if Charlie Wade saw through the other party's tricks, he sneered and said: "I'm sorry, the mobile phone is a personal item, so I can't borrow it."

After speaking, he reached out and took out a mobile phone from a ninja, and threw it to Zara: "Hey, use this, call your family, tell them the location, and let them send someone to pick you up as soon as possible. "

Zara was stunned to pick up the phone. The phone hit her lap. She was extremely disappointed, but she couldn't show it, so she picked it up and said gratefully, "Thank you. Grace!"

Charlie Wade flipped through the ninja again, and found out a very thin personal wallet, which contained five ten thousand yen banknotes in addition to the person's ID.

At the current exchange rate, 10,000 yen can be exchanged for more than 600 Dollar. Although 50,000 yen is not much, it is enough for them to find a place to stay, wait a few hours, and wait for their family to pick them up.

No matter what, the fifty thousand yen is enough for them to take the train back to Tokyo.

So Charlie Wade handed the money to Zara, and said: "You take the money, go with your brother quickly."

Zara hesitated in his heart. She really didn't want to leave like this. Because she didn't know Charlie Wade's identity yet, for fear that she would never see Charlie Wade again.

At this moment, she wanted to tell Charlie Wade her identity so that he would come to herself if he encountered any difficulties after returning home.

However, when the words came to her lips, she swallowed it back.

This is because she knew in her heart that an unruly top expert like Charlie Wade would never put her identity in her eyes. If she told him that she was the granddaughter of Banks, it would be counterproductive.

He might think that he deliberately used his identity to put pressure on him in front of him, and thus disgusted himself; He may also avoid himself completely in the country from now on because he does not want to have any intersection with him.

In that case, revealing the identity now would be self-defeating.

So, she had to stand up, bowed deeply to Charlie Wade, and said sincerely: "Benevolence, thank you for your life-saving grace, if there is a chance to meet again in the future, I will definitely repay your kindness today!"

Fitz also bowed aside: "yes, thank you!"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "Okay, let's go, I have business work later, I have no time to be polite with you here."

Fitz was a little embarrassed, so he nodded his head again and again: "Sorry, I delayed your business..."

Zara looked at Charlie Wade, bit her lower lip, trying to say something, but finally gave up.

When she and Fitz came to the wooden stairs on the second floor side by side, she suddenly turned around, hugged Charlie Wade, and said with great reluctance and piousness: "Savior, if there is a destiny in the future, we will see you again. !"

Charlie Wade didn't lift his head, and said coldly, "I won't see you again."

Chapter 1781

Zara was hurt by Charlie Wade's attitude again.

She looked at Charlie Wade's profile, bit her lower lip vigorously, did not speak any more, turned and left the courtyard with her brother.

The siblings staggered out, and Fitz asked in a low voice, "Zara, those ninjas were defeated by the young man just now?"

Zara said solemnly: "It's not that young man, it's Grace."

Fitz nodded in a hurry: "Well, it's Grace, so are those ninjas defeated by his bare hands?"

"Hmm." Zara said seriously: "I have never seen such a strong person...this is the first time..."

Fitz smacked his lips and said, "It would be great if he could be included in the Banks Family and used by my Banks Family."

"Impossible." Zara shook his head: "He has an arrogant personality and will definitely not be used by others, and he may be the top master of the hidden Sect. He may not put the Banks Family in his eyes."

Fitz said angrily: "It's also...hey...thanks to your benefactor, otherwise the two of us will have to die in Kyoto..."

After he finished speaking, he was busy and said again: "By the way, Zara, hurry up and call my dad! This time we were kidnapped, the family must have sent a lot of masters over, it is very likely that dad is here too! I have to let him know about us. In Kyoto, he also asked him to quickly chop off Matsumoto's bastard! I really didn't expect it to be this bastard who has been doing bad things behind his back!"

Zara nodded and took out his cell phone too busy.

At this time, a burst of fire suddenly appeared behind him, turning the originally dark night into red!

Zara hurriedly turned around, and saw that the two-story small building where he had almost died just now was ignited in an instant!

The wooden buildings burned, and there was a crackling sound of wood cracking, a bit like the sound of firecrackers. With this heavy snow, it also had a taste of Chinese New Year.

Fitz touched his chin and asked Zara: "Zara, did you say those ninjas died?"

Zara asked back: "Is it possible to survive such a big fire?"

Fitz waved his hand: "I didn't mean that, I mean, did my benefactor kill them first and then set the fire, or did he just put them all in a pot?"

Zara felt a bit of cold air coming out of his back, and immediately shook his head: "This kind of thing...I can't say it..."

After that, Charlie Wade's figure appeared in her mind again, and she couldn't help muttering: "Benevolence, he... is not a mortal... I really want to know what his identity is."

Fitz smiled and said: "If you want to know, let the family check it out. In the country, who else has a clue that we can't find?"

Zara shook his head: "Benevolence obviously doesn't want us to know his identity. If we deliberately investigate, what if we anger him?"

Fitz smacked his lips: "Oh, that's what I said..."

After all, Fitz thought of Charlie Wade's previous conversation with Iga Shangren and said, "By the way, when I was covered with my head just now, I heard Him tell the Iga family that he seems to be the Ito family. Missy's friend?"

"Oh yes!" Zara nodded and blurted out: "The reason why he came here is for Ito's daughter."

Fitz said: "It seems to be called Nanako Ito?"

"Yes." Zara blurted out: "It's Nanako Ito, a very beautiful girl, and she's also a martial artist."

Fitz said in some gossip: "Hey, Zara, do you think He is Nanako Ito's boyfriend? Maybe he can even become Ito's future son-in-law. Let's cooperate more with Ito in the future. , More contact, maybe there is still a chance to see him."

Zara heard this and suddenly became very uncomfortable.

She was extremely disappointed and asked herself: "Is he really Nanako Ito's boyfriend? That man is a Chinese, why should he be with a Japanese woman? Shouldn't you fall in love, get married, or have children with a Chinese woman? ?"

Thinking of this, Zara sighed faintly, and said: "Let me call Dad first..."

"Okay." Fitz nodded, bent over and grabbed a handful of snow from the ground, and smeared it on his face, sighing with emotion: "Oh, the feeling of the rest of my life is really good..."

.....

Chapter 1782

Tokyo at this moment.

The chaos remains.

The Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department has been driven mad.

First, the Banks Family's brothers and sisters were kidnapped and a dozen people were killed. Then the Takahashi family found several human popsicles. Then, Takahashi's son was burned alive in the car!

These few things, if you take out one of them, can be regarded as an annual criminal case.

However, in a very short period of time, one after another broke out in Tokyo!

Moreover, almost all the top big families are involved.

This is simply stepping the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department's face on the ground, and then repeatedly beating with a belt desperately!

Even worse, the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department has not found any useful clues.

A bunch of waste wood was almost digging three feet into Tokyo, and they still couldn't find a clue to the Banks brothers and sisters. They didn't even know who did it, let alone where they were.

Therefore, the entire Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department collectively caught blind.

Zayne was about to lose patience.

The life and death of his son and daughter are still unknown, and his whereabouts are unknown, and he has to wait endlessly for the trash of the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department. For him, it is simply the greatest suffering in his life!

Just when he was planning to contact the Japanese Ministry of Foreign Affairs directly to raise the matter to a major diplomatic incident, he suddenly received a call from a local Japanese mobile phone number.

After he connected suspiciously, he immediately heard Zara's voice: "Dad, it's me! Zara!"

Hearing his daughter's voice, Zayne's heart almost jumped out. He blurted out with excitement, "I know..."

At this time, Zara on the phone hurriedly interrupted him and said: "Dad, are there anyone else around you? If there are, don't let others know that I am calling!"

The human-like Zayne looked around. In addition to his own people, there are a few pig heads from the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department and even a few cabinet members, so he hurriedly changed his words: "Do you know me? Very busy now?! Hang up if there is nothing important, just say if there is something important!"

Zara said: "Dad, my brother and I are safe now. We have been rescued, but we are not in Tokyo, but in Kyoto."

While Zayne breathed a sigh of relief, he couldn't help but frown and look at the trash in the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department.

At this time, he hated these idiots in his heart.

"These dumb donkeys! They vowed to tell me that the other party is very likely to hide in Tokyo, and it is unlikely that they will go out of the city!"

"Furthermore, they also said that they blocked Tokyo's external traffic in time and set a strict check on all those who left the city, so the son and daughter are definitely in Tokyo. It just takes time to find them out!"

"The results of it?"

"People are in Kyoto, hundreds of kilometers away!"

"These idiots really want to take a knife and engrave the word idiot on their faces!"

However, Zayne also knew that now is not the time to be angry, so he asked, "What do you need me to do?"

Zara said: "Dad, don't tell the people in the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department. I doubt their abilities, and they are likely to leak information, so I want you to send our own people to Kyoto. Pick me and brother."

Zayne said immediately: "Okay!"

Zara said: "Also, Dad! The kidnapper was Ryoto Matsumoto in Tokyo! He wanted to kill us and then blame Ito Yuhiko, so he brought us to Kyoto!"

"What?!" Zayne's tone suddenly became extremely gloomy: "It's him?!"

Zayne had highly suspected that the man behind the kidnapping of his children should be Takehiko Ito.

However, the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department secretly monitored Ito Yuhiko, dug deep for so long, and found no clues.

At first, Zayne thought that the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department deliberately protected Ito Yuhiko, but now I know that Ito Yuhiko really has nothing to do with this matter.

Not only is it okay, but it's almost being blamed!

What Zayne did not expect was that the master behind the whole incident turned out to be Mr. Matsumoto!

I didn't even include him in the category of suspects!

It seems that this beloved Matsumoto is really sinister!

He was able to provoke so many incidents secretly, and it made the Ito family and the Takahashi family suspicion each other, and the Banks Family concentrated their suspects on these two families!

Thinking of this, Zayne could not wait to devour Matsumoto's life!

So he gritted his teeth and said: "I know everything you said, keep the phone open, and I will let the people under you contact you."

Zara hurriedly said, "Okay, my brother and I are waiting in Kyoto."

Zayne hung up the phone, stood up and said to the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Commissioner: "I have something to do, let's go ahead."

The Chief of Metropolitan Police hurriedly asked, "Mr. Banks, where are you going?"

"What does it have to do with you?" Zayne said in an unkind tone: "You still have to find a way to find my son and daughter, otherwise, I will call you the Japanese Ministry of Foreign Affairs!"

The Chief of Metropolitan Police hurried forward and pleaded bitterly: "Mr. Banks, you will give me the last 12 hours. Even if I turn Tokyo over these 12 hours, I will definitely find Fitz and Zara!"

After he finished speaking, he added: "Mr. Banks, even if the Ministry of Foreign Affairs knows about it, they still submit the case to our Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department. After all, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs is not a law enforcement agency, and they have no extra manpower to come. Do this..."

Zayne coldly snorted: "Then you guys hurry up! Don't linger here!"

After that, Zayne turned angrily and walked away.

After leaving the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department, Zayne's first sentence in the car was to tell his confidant next to him: "Mr. Redd, you will immediately bring twenty people to Kyoto to pick up Fitz and Zara. I'll take a while. Give you a cell phone number, you can contact Zara."

The middle-aged man known as Redd, his full name is Eric Redd, a confidant general who has followed Zayne for many years. Hearing Zayne's instructions, he immediately asked: "Master, have you found the young master and the young lady?"

"Yeah." Zayne nodded: "People are fine, but the black hand behind the scenes is beyond our imagination!"

Redd hurriedly asked: "Master, who is behind the scenes?"

Zayne gritted his teeth and said, "It's Mr. Matsumoto! Damn, dare to calculate on my son and daughter of Zayne, this Mr. Matsumoto has enough life! With a bang, let everyone else know, before dawn, I want Ryoto Matsumoto's item on the head!"

Redd's expression froze, and he immediately said, "Okay master, I'm going to order!"

Zayne rubbed his temples and said, "You let one of our planes fly to Osaka now. After you receive Fitz and Zara in Kyoto, you will directly send them to Osaka and let them return to China by plane. I'll take over the things in Japan!"

"Ok!"

.....

After a few minutes.

Chapter 1784

Nearly a hundred hidden masters of the Banks Family in Tokyo stopped secretly searching for Fitz and Zara. Twenty of them drove straight to Kyoto in the middle of the night, and the remaining nearly 80 people all started to Matsumoto. The mansion of the beloved is assembled.

Matsumoto didn't even know that he was in disaster.

He checked the time and saw that it was already ten o'clock in the night, so he took out his cell phone and called Iga Kaminbu.

According to his plan, let Iga Kaminbu to kill people now, and then hide the body in the Ito family mansion half an hour later.

Then, wait patiently for a few more hours, when the body has almost completely lost its residual temperature, then anonymously report the clue to the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department.

In this way, Ito Yuhiko will be finished early tomorrow morning.

After Takehiko Ito was finished, the only enemy in front of him was Shinichi Takahashi.

The current Takahashi Zhenzhi should still be immersed in the pain of bereavement, unable to extricate himself, it can be said that it is the most vulnerable time, he can set an ambush to kill him when he is going to die for Takahashi Eiji.

Matsumoto thought this in his mind, but the phone in his ear kept beeping unhurriedly.

"Why can't Iga Kaminin's phone call?"

Matsumoto frowned involuntarily.

"Didn't you tell him before? You must always keep the phone open, and you can communicate with anything in time. What's wrong?"

Matsumoto's heart suddenly twitched, and he said to himself, "Iga Kaminin, could it be an accident?!"

"But this shouldn't be it! They took the Banks Family siblings all the way to Kyoto, unconsciously, and the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department has been searching for so long without any clues. How could there be an accident? No sense!"

"If they were discovered while hiding their bodies in the Ito family, and they were killed by the Ito family's ambush, it sounds logical, but the key is that they did not get their own orders and could not kill them in advance. Because of the Banks Family brothers and sisters, this may not be true at all!"

"So, what happened to Kyoto?"

Ryoto Matsumoto, who had always been confident and thought he was strategizing, suddenly fell into a strong self-doubt.

.....

At this moment, it is not just Ryoto Matsumoto who can't make a call, but also Takahashi, who just lost his son.

Machi Takahashi has ordered that the Tenglin family ninja who is ambushing in Kyoto kill Nanako Ito first and take a video of her killing.

Then, he used this video to torture Ito Yuhiko and let Ito Yuhiko die in extreme pain.

However, the ninja of the Tenglin family never gave him any reply.

He called to ask about the progress, but the call was completely unreachable, and after several changes, no one answered.

Seeing that all the calls couldn't get through, Takahashi shoved the phone to the ground and shouted angrily: "It's a hell! It's a hell! The invincible Tenglin Ninja, why is it all f*cking rubbish these days? "

"Before, Teng Lin Zhengzhe and the others disappeared for no reason, and they were finally sent back frozen as popsicles. Now there is no news about this batch of damn, will they be sent back frozen as popsicles too!"

The subordinates hurriedly said: "Mr. Ito the master of the Tenglin family, will he encounter an ambush at Ito's house?"

"Where the hell came the ambush?" Takahashi scolded annoyedly: "The situation over there has long been clear. The Ito family doesn't even have a ninja in Kyoto, just a few housekeepers, servants and ordinary bodyguards. What did these people use to ambush the ninjas of the Tenglin family? And there are still six people!"

After speaking, Takahashi couldn't help but muttered, "What happened in Kyoto?!"

Chapter 1785

Neither Matsumoto nor Takahashi could understand what happened in Kyoto.

However, Matsumoto is far more shrewd than Takahashi.

When he couldn't contact Iga Kamininho, although he couldn't figure out why, he had realized in his subconscious that the matter was probably going to be a big mistake.

Thinking of this, he immediately called the other members of the Iga family and immediately asked them about Iga Kamininho.

But the people of the Iga family are also ignorant of what happened in Kyoto.

They also couldn't get in touch with Iga Shinobu, and didn't know if he was alive or dead.

At this time, Matsumoto really panicked.

He nervously paced back and forth in the living room at home, his brows were constantly frowning, and even his hand holding the cigar was shaking uncontrollably.

His younger brother Ryosuke Matsumoto saw him very nervously, and hurriedly calmed down: "Brother, don't panic, if you panic, we really don't know how to deal with it next!"

Unlike Takahashi Makichi, Takahashi Machichi's goal is Nanako Ito, which has nothing to do with the Banks Family, so it doesn't matter if his motivation is revealed.

The strength of the two families can basically come between five and five, so he is not afraid of Ito Yuhiko.

However, Matsumoto knew very well in his heart that if his motives were revealed, he would not only face the behemoth Banks Familyy, but also the Ito family and Takahashi family.

So, he smoked a cigar and said to Ryosuke Matsumoto: "The hand I played almost squeezed all our chips. If I win, the Matsumoto family can become the top in Japan; if I lose, , The Matsumoto family will be ravaged to death by the three big families of Banks Familyy, Ito family and Takahashi family!"

As he said, he couldn't hide his nervousness and said, "Now, Iga Kaminori can't get in touch, and Fitz and Zara are dead or alive. I don't know if our motives have been revealed. If it is not revealed, it doesn't matter. , At most, it's planting the plan of Takehiko Ito, but if it is revealed, then we will basically have no way to survive."

Matsumoto Ryosuke hurriedly asked: "Brother! We don't know if we have been exposed, are we just waiting for the verdict? That would be too passive? Even if we die, we have to find a way to fight back. You must not just give up!"

Matsumoto thought for a moment, gritted his teeth, and said coldly: "Of course we have to resist! Since the first card is still dead or alive, we will bet on the second!"

Ryosuke Matsumoto asked, "Brother, how do you bet on the second one?"

Ryoto Matsumoto said sternly: "I bet that our motives for the Banks Familyy have not been revealed yet! In this way, we will go all out to kill Machi Takahashi and Takehiko Ito! Kill them and we will have a chance to become No. 1 in Japan!"

"Ah? Kill them?" Ryosuke Matsumoto asked in amazement, "Isn't it just trying to deal with the Banks Familyy?"

Ryoto Matsumoto shook his head: "It is a wishful thinking to deal with the Banks Familyy. With their strength, as long as the target is aimed at us, we have no resistance."

As he said, Matsumoto said again: "However, Maki Takahashi must be at the weakest time now. He died of a few ninjas and lost his son. Now is a good time to kill him! Let the Iga family again Send a few ninjas to kill him! Anyway, Iga Ninjas are already in the same boat with us!"

Ryosuke Matsumoto asked again: "What about Ito Yuhiko? How to kill him? He seems to have no strength loss!"

Ryoto Matsumoto gritted his teeth and said: "Then it can only be outsmart! Go and kidnap a few families of police officers from the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department, and then force these officers to come home, saying that I will return to the Metropolitan Police Department to assist in the investigation of the Banks Familyy. As long as he leaves home, we will have a chance to deal with the disappearance!"

Ryosuke Matsumoto continued to ask: "Brother, what if the Banks Familyy knows about us?"

Ryoto Matsumoto said with a vicious expression: "If they really know that they are all dead, then why don't they pull Machi Takahashi and Takehiko Ito under the water?"

Chapter 1786

"Okay!" Ryosuke Matsumoto said grimly: "Even if we die, some people will die with us! Anyway, we won't lose!"

.....

At this moment.

After Charlie Wade set the two-story building on fire, he returned to the Ito family residence.

He went from the same road to Nanako Ito's courtyard.

At this time, Nanako Ito was sitting in front of the tea table with her eyes closed, her hands gently twisting a string of Bodhi beads, and she silently recited Buddhist scriptures to pray for Charlie Wade.

Buddhism is not only prevalent in China, it has also been prevalent in Japan for a long time. Since Master Jianzhen traveled east to Japan, Buddhism in Japan has developed rapidly.

Although the Buddhism of the two countries is somewhat surprised, there is almost no essential difference between the believers of the two countries in the matter of chanting and praying.

After reading silently for a long time, the incense in the incense burner had already burned. She felt the fragrance dissipate. When she opened her eyes and wanted to order another plate, she found that Charlie Wade was already sitting opposite her.

Nanako Ito was frightened, covering her mouth and exclaimed: "Charlie Wade, you...when did you come back?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "Just now, five seconds ago."

"Huh?" Nanako Ito said incredulously, "Why didn't I notice any movement?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Because I think you are chanting sutras, so I didn't want to disturb you."

Nanako Ito blushed, and said softly: "Nanako was praying for Charlie Wade just now, and I hope the gods will bless Charlie Wade to return safely..."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "Thank you!"

Nanako Ito smiled unnaturally and said, "Charlie Wade, you saved my life, so why bother to thank me for this little thing..."

Charlie Wade said earnestly: "I saved you out of my heart, and you prayed for me also out of my heart. The starting point is the same for everyone, so naturally there is no difference in size."

Nanako Ito couldn't help sighing: "Charlie Wade, you are really the only gentleman I have ever seen in my life, you are always considerate of others..."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "I'm not a gentleman, so don't praise me."

After speaking, Charlie Wade said hurriedly: "By the way, give me your hand and I will check your injury."

Nanako Ito replied shyly: "Charlie Wade, are you trying to signal me?"

"Yes." Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Don't you want to go for a walk in the snow? I will help you heal your injury quickly, and let's go for a walk on the snow in the yard. If you are not satisfied, I'll take you outside!"

"Ah?!" Nanako Ito asked dumbfounded: "Charlie Wade, you mean my injury will be healed soon? Before the snow melts?"

Charlie Wade said seriously: "You don't need to wait for the snow to melt. You can cooperate with me. We can walk in the snow together before it stops."

Chapter 1787

Nanako Ito couldn't believe that Charlie Wade could really heal herself.

But when she thought that the man in front of her who was eager to try to heal her was the one she loved, he was willing to give him a try.

So she shyly handed her right hand to Charlie Wade, and said shyly: "Charlie Wade, then...please!"

Charlie Wade nodded slightly, and stretched out his fingers to gently place her veins.

A trace of reiki traveled through Nanako Ito's veins into her body, and within the blink of an eye, it completely wandered through her body.

After a while, Charlie Wade took the opportunity to see the specific situation of Nanako Ito's injury.

From this look, I discovered that Nanako Ito's injury was indeed serious.

Almost all of her organs have suffered serious internal injuries. Not only that, but the meridians and bones are also damaged. The whole person seems to have become a fragmented porcelain doll. A little carelessness may cause serious secondary injuries. hurt.

Although she has been rescued from life danger after being rescued, her whole body has been in a state of very low safety.

She is currently less than one-fifth of ordinary people.

Someone who fell might be unharmed, stood up and patted the dirt and left. If she fell, she would be life-threatening, and she would have to be sent back to the hospital for rescue.

Charlie Wade could imagine how severe pain Nanako Ito's body would have to endure from such a severe injury, and the pain was continuous, even in her sleep.

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade couldn't help but feel distressed, and said with emotion: "I told you at the time that martial arts is a kind of spirit. There is no need to care too much about winning or losing the game, let alone putting yourself in a dangerous situation in the game. , Why are you betting your life against Aurora?"

Nanako Ito said with some shame: "Charlie Wade, Nanako is not betting on her life, but hopes to go all out without leaving any regrets..."

Having said this, she sighed and smiled bitterly: "It's just that I didn't clearly realize the gap between myself and Aurora. She was really too strong, incredible..."

Charlie Wade shook his head helplessly.

At this time, he also has his own treatment plan.

There are two options for treating Nanako.

The first is to directly use the reiki in her body to repair the damage suffered by her body. Compared with ordinary people, her body is indeed seriously damaged, but for herself, it is not a big problem. Reiki It will be repaired soon;

This method is simple, direct and convenient, with many benefits.

However, this approach has drawbacks.

If I directly repaired her injury with Reiki, how would I explain it to her?

After all, Nanako doesn't have a deep cultivation base, and she can't realize the existence of reiki. In her opinion, she may just touch her hand and heal her in a confused way. This may be too incredible for her.

And the second way is to swallow the rejuvenating pills.

The efficacy of Rejuvenating Pill is beyond doubt.

Chapter 1788

For ordinary people, this kind of medicine is simply a dream. It can be used by the elderly to prolong life for more than ten or twenty years; young people take it, and the body can be more than many times stronger than ordinary people; the injured take it, even if only one breath is left. , And can definitely strengthen the opponent's body on the basis of restoring the original.

At the beginning, Don Albertt was almost completely killed by Donald's men, leaving only the last breath, and he was saved with a rejuvenating pill.

That rejuvenating pill not only saved Don Albertt's life, but also made Don Albertt a few years younger, and his body was better than before the injury.

This is mainly because the effect of the Pill is too strong. When Don Albertt is cured, there is still remaining effect to improve his body.

Although Nanako Ito's injury was also very serious, in Charlie Wade's view, at most half a rejuvenating pill could be cured.

If you take a whole rejuvenating pill, it goes without saying that Nanako Ito's strength will be upgraded by one or two levels at the peak state before!

Therefore, Charlie Wade had a question in his heart.

Should I take half a rejuvenating pill for Nanako Ito, or just give her one and give her a chance.

Charlie Wade is not a stingy person, and the main reason why he is entangled with half or one is because Nanako Ito is a Japanese.

As the saying goes, people who are not of my race must have different hearts.

I dare not say that the other party must be harmful, but at least it is difficult to keep one mind with the people of the race.

And Nanako Ito is a martial arts master, has been participating in various international competitions, and originally planned to participate in the next Olympic Games.

If she allowed her to improve significantly, she would definitely pose a threat to Aurora in the future.

If Nanako Ito represented Japan and defeated Aurora who represented China in the next international competition, wouldn't it be equivalent to handing over the champion that should belong to China to Japan?

Charlie Wade's hesitation was based on this.

It stands to reason that I can take half a rejuvenating pill to Nanako Ito, so that she can fully recover, which is equivalent to giving her a great good fortune.

However, considering that Nanako Ito is obsessed with martial arts and has a pious mentality.

Therefore, in Charlie Wade's own selfish heart, he also wanted to give her another chance so that she could study the martial arts she loves more deeply.

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade looked at Nanako Ito and asked her: "Nanako, if I can cure you, can you promise me a condition?"

Nanako Ito said without hesitation: "Charlie Wade, even if you can't cure me, I will agree to any of your conditions, and I will never hesitate!"

Charlie Wade nodded and said seriously: "I want you to promise me that after I cure you, if you still love martial arts, just concentrate on studying it yourself, but don't participate in any form of international competitions, you can promise?"

"Yes!" Nanako Ito said with a firm gaze: "After the last match was injured, I deeply reflected on the principles Charlie Wade taught me before. Martial arts is a spirit, not a competition, so I myself have lost that match. Kind of passion."

Speaking of this, she looked at Charlie Wade affectionately, and said seriously: "Since I met you, I have known what is the truth that there are people outside the world and the heavens outside the world. A real top expert like you will not participate in the so-called competition, only throw Only with the desire for competition, victory and defeat, can we have the opportunity to achieve a more sophisticated martial arts training. Therefore, if I really has a chance to recover from the beginning, I will definitely not participate in any competitions!"

Seeing what she said was serious and firm, Charlie Wade felt relieved.

Immediately, he looked at Nanako, smiled slightly, took out a rejuvenation pill from his pocket, handed it to her, and smiled: "Nanako, if you take this pill, it will not only restore you to the original, but also Your body and strength have all improved!"

Chapter 1789

Although the effect of Rejuvenation Pill is very magical, it is very simple and unpretentious on the outside, but it is a black, round pill, and there is nothing special about it.

Nanako Ito looked at this medicine, did not conceal her astonishment, and asked Charlie Wade, "Charlie Wade, can this really cure my injury?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said with a smile: "If Master Wade takes the shot, it will naturally cure all diseases and invalid refunds."

"Master Wade?" Nanako Ito asked in surprise, "Is Master Wade the nickname of Charlie Wade?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "It's not a nickname, it's just a respect given by some friends in Aurouss Hilll."

Nanako Ito chuckled and said happily, "Then I can call Charlie Wade as Master Wade from now on?"

Charlie Wade said casually: "Yes, you can call me whatever you want."

Nanako Ito tilted her head and thought for a while, and said seriously: "Charlie Wade sounds more kind, should I only call Charlie Wade?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "Chinese people don't call each other that way."

Nanako Ito smiled sweetly and said seriously: "I hope I will be the only one calling Charlie Wade in the future!"

"Okay." Charlie Wade also somehow, to Nanako Ito's smile, his resistance seemed to weaken a lot.

Seeing her smile as sweet as maple syrup, Charlie Wade felt a bit of sweetness inexplicably at this moment.

Charlie Wade didn't dare to try to figure out the sweet taste carefully, so he turned the topic away and urged: "Hurry up and take the medicine. Didn't you say you want to go out to see the snow? Don't wait for a while and you haven't taken the medicine yet. "

Nanako Ito smiled and said, "The weather forecast says that the snow will fall until tomorrow."

With that, she picked up the Rejuvenating Pill and looked at Charlie Wade: "Charlie Wade, is this eaten directly?"

"Yes." Charlie Wade said seriously: "After you take it, I will help you guide the absorption of the medicine."

Nanako Ito nodded gently, and put the pill in his mouth without hesitation.

At the moment of entrance, the pill immediately turned into a warm current, poured from the mouth into the stomach, and from the stomach to the whole body.

Nanako Ito could clearly feel that her body was undergoing earth-shaking changes at this time.

She doesn't know how to describe this change. If she was injured before, it was like a porcelain bottle was broken on the ground and the fragments were all over the floor, then now she is like a broken porcelain bottle rewinding and playing all over the floor. The fragments quickly returned to the basket, pieced together into a complete self, who had never suffered any harm, and had never had a cracked self.

It's like going back in time, full of a strong sense of unreality.

At this time, Charlie Wade grabbed Nanako Ito's slender and white jade hands, and a trace of reiki entered to help her guide the absorption of the rejuvenating pills.

Nanako Ito thought that the feeling of turning back in time was extremely magical, but he did not expect that half of the effects of Rejuvenation Pill had not been exerted.

With the help of Charlie Wade, she felt that every cell in her body seemed to be nourished by the medicinal effect. She could feel that her body level had reached the peak level in the past and continued to improve. increase!

A few minutes later, she opened her eyes, ignoring the sweat on her face, looked at Charlie Wade in amazement, and blurted out, "Charlie Wade, what exactly is this magic medicine? How can it be so powerful? effect"

Chapter 1790

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "This medicine is called rejuvenation."

Nanako Ito suddenly remembered something, and suddenly said: "I know! I know! Charlie Wade! Aurora's strength suddenly improved before the quarterfinals. It should be because of this kind of rejuvenation pills?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "Yes, it is indeed the effect of Rejuvenation Pill."

Nanako Ito asked again: "Because of this, Charlie Wade doesn't want me to have a head-on contest with Aurora in the future, so I won't let me continue to participate in international competitions, right?"

Charlie Wade said frankly: "Yes, I am indeed out of this consideration."

Nanako Ito bit her lower lip lightly, and after hesitating for a while, she asked tentatively, "Is Charlie Wade asking this because he likes Aurora?"

Charlie Wade shook his head: "I am more like a brother to my sister Aurora. I don't want you two to meet on the field. It's more because we represent different countries. I don't want to influence it because of me. To the national honor of Chinese athletes, so I hope you will not continue to participate in international competitions."

Nanako Ito suddenly realized that she stood up suddenly, bowed to Charlie Wade ninety degrees, and said seriously: "Charlie Wade, please rest assured, from now on, i will concentrate on studying martial arts and will never participate in any form of martial arts. game!"

After saying this, she came back to her senses, looked at her legs, and said with excitement: "I have never thought before, it feels so good to stand up by myself"

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "Don't you want to take a stroll in the snow? Let's go now!"

"Yeah!" Nanako Ito nodded excitedly, walked around the tea table, took Charlie Wade's hand, and said excitedly: "Let's go Charlie Wade!"

Nanako Ito, who had just improved her strength, couldn't see the look of any martial arts master at this time.

At this moment, she is just a simple and happy little girl, holding the hand of her beloved man, running towards her favorite snowy night.

Nanako Ito loves snow, especially at night. In the quiet snow, you can enjoy the snow and the beauty of the night without being disturbed by others.

This is her girlish heart and her girlish feelings.

In the courtyard at this time, a thick layer of snow has fallen.

The trace of Charlie Wade's killing of Tenglin Ninja had been completely gone. The thick snow stepped on it and made a creaking sound, which made people feel as if they were far away from the hustle and bustle of the city.

Nanako Ito held Charlie Wade's hand tightly without letting go, pulling him to walk in the snow, and then raising Charlie Wade's hand high, and then holding his hand in a beautiful circle.

The exquisite skirt of the kimono, as she dexterously turns in the white snow, also sets off the extraordinary posture of Nanako Ito, making her posture a little more enchanting in grace.

Nanako Ito turned around in the snow a few times, and stopped when facing Charlie Wade.

She stared at Charlie Wade with her pair of shiny and pure eyes, and said sincerely with a bit of infatuation: "Charlie Wade, I have waited for this snow for several days. The weather forecast said that this snow was only a few days ago. After the meeting, I was sitting in a wheelchair, parked in the yard, looking up at the sky, waiting for the snow, while thinking of you."

"But that day, I didn't wait for the snow, let alone hope to wait for you."

Speaking of this, a layer of water mist suddenly appeared in her eyes, and she said with a bit of choking in her tenderness: "But I really didn't expect that today, the heavy snow that I have been looking forward to for a long time will be the same as mine. Charlie Wade, the long-awaited, is here together"

"At this moment, it is really the happiest, most satisfying and perfect moment in my life, so perfect that people can't believe it, so perfect as true as false, as dreamlike as fantasy"

Chapter 1791

When Charlie Wade and Nanako Ito walked hand in hand in the quiet snowy night of Kyoto, Tokyo was still undercurrents.

At this time, Maki Takahashi was at home, anxiously waiting for the news of Tenglin Ninja.

The Tenglin family is more anxious than him.

Because so far, the Tenglin family has lost ten ninjas, and almost all the young backbone of the family has been defeated.

Even though ten people are not too many, a family with ten young men is already a very large family.

First of all, these ten young adults have at least one or two generations of elders, mom and dad, aunts and uncles, grandparents, and at least ten people in total.

Secondly, these ten young adults are all males, but it is impossible for all young adults in a family to be males. If the male to female ratio is one to one, then there are at least ten female families.

Once again, at least half of the ten young men are married and have children. They have wives and children.

In this way, a family must have at least fifty or sixty people in order to have ten male young adults.

Now, the prime-age males of the Tenglin family have all been folded in, and the family's combat effectiveness has dropped sharply.

In this case, naturally, there is no ability to separate manpower to protect Takahashi.

Therefore, there is no ninja in Takahashi's home except for some bodyguards.

It was late at night, and Takahashi was still not tired.

On the one hand, he is still grieving for the tragic death of his son Takahashi Eiki; on the other hand, he wants to wait to see if he can still contact the missing Tenglin Ninja.

Although he knew subconsciously that the Tenglin Ninja sent to Kyoto had been murdered 80% of the time, but deep in his heart, he still held a glimmer of hope.

He felt that at least before he saw the corpse, there was still a possibility that things could come back. Maybe after a while, those Tenglin Ninjas would contact him?

Just as Takahashi was pacing back and forth in the living room, waiting anxiously, a very thin blow arrow suddenly shot out from the corner, and one shot hit Takahashi's back neck.

Maki Takahashi, who had just suffered the pain of losing his son, had not had time to figure out how to avenge him, and suddenly he was poisoned and fell to the ground!

The bodyguards discovered that he suddenly fell to the ground, and they gathered around them. After a closer look, they had lost their breath and heartbeat!

When the bodyguards searched for the murderer in amazement, the several Iga ninjas who had sneaked into the Tenglin family had already retreated.

In normal times, the Tenglin family will arrange at least four ninjas to lurk beside him, secretly protect him and prevent him from being assassinated by other ninjas.

But today, there is no ninja beside him.

Without the protection of a ninja, just relying on ordinary bodyguards, in front of the ninja is almost like no one.

Therefore, it is not difficult for the ninja to take the head of Takahashi's head.

Poor Takahashi Machi, just as the white-haired man gave away the black-haired man, he died too!

.....

at the same time.

Just as Yuhiko Ito fell asleep, he heard a knock on the door.

He asked with some annoyance: "It's so late, what else is there? If it's not something important, I'll talk about it tomorrow!"

Hiroshi Tanaka said in a hurry: "Mr. Ito, the police officer from the Metropolitan Police Department is here again, saying that there are still some things that need your cooperation to go to the Metropolitan Police Department for another questioning."

"I have to do some questioning?!" Ito Yuihiko roared angrily: "I have said everything that should be said, and there is nothing left to say!"

Koichi Tanaka explained: "My lord, the other party said that the Banks Family has been putting pressure on them, and it might cause an international diplomatic incident, so I still want to ask you to cooperate."

"International diplomatic incident?!"

Hearing this, Ito yelled angrily: "Damn, it's really annoying!"

Chapter 1792

Although he was very dissatisfied, Ito Yuhiko did not dare to continue at this time.

He is a businessman after all.

He knows very well that if he is really involved in international diplomatic events and affects Japan's international image, then Japanese citizens will definitely regard him as a criminal who smears Japan's image.

In this case, the people will spontaneously boycott the Ito family, which might make the Ito family a target of public criticism.

In this case, it is better to actively cooperate and clear up some of the relationships.

So, Takehiko Ito got up from the bed angrily, simply put on his clothes and opened the door.

Although Yuhiko Ito was irritable, he could still understand the truth.

Anyway, I'm walking and sitting properly, don't say asking questions again, even if I stay in the Metropolitan Police Department for a few days first?

So, he said to Tanaka Koichi: "You go to arrange the car, we will leave in a while!"

Hiroshi Tanaka nodded immediately and turned around to make arrangements.

A few minutes later, under the escort of several bodyguards and two ninjas, Ito got into his car and prepared to go to the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department.

At this time, Ryoto Matsumoto had already prepared Iga Ninja and other subordinates. He wanted to repeat the old tricks and found a suitable section of road to kill him on the way to the Metropolitan Police Department by Ito.

Now Takahashi Machi is cold, as long as Ito Takehiko kills, he will be the strongest in Tokyo and even Japan.

However, Ryoto Matsumoto didn't know that the master of the Banks Family had already surrounded his mansion at this time. The leader in the lead was not anxious to take people in immediately, but began to follow the actual situation of Matsumoto Ryoto's residence. Develop a strategy, hoping to wipe out the entire Matsumoto family.

According to Zayne's temper and disposition, if Ms. Matsumoto wants to kill his son and daughter, it is impossible for him to kill Matsumoto alone.

The most hateful, and the most once-and-for-all way is to destroy the Matsumoto family directly!

The Banks Family has never been a soft-hearted family.

From the Anti-Leaf Alliance back then to the current top Chinese family, the Banks Family's style of work has always been cruel!

The vehicle is about to enter a two-kilometer-long viaduct.

This viaduct is a closed road.

The bridge deck is 15 meters above the ground with an average height of 15 meters. It is almost as high as a five-story building, and there are only two lanes in a single direction. It is difficult for vehicles to make a U-turn at once. At least two steering wheels must be turned back and forth before it is possible to turn back. Back.

It would be even more troublesome if a team was blocked directly on it. If the team got into a disorderly rhythm, it is very likely that several cars would block each other, so that there would be nowhere to run.

However, Ito Yuhiko did not realize the danger.

This is mainly because Ito Yuhiko has not suffered any other losses, and has not been targeted, except for Charlie Wade's use of 4.5 billion US dollars.

Although both the Takahashi family and the Matsumoto family wanted to provoke him, they were all resolved by Charlie Wade, who cheated on him because of a coincidence.

It was precisely because he had no trouble that he felt that the reason why Tokyo was so messy was that someone wanted to target the Banks Family and the Takahashi family, and it had nothing to do with him.

Moreover, he is now indirectly a beneficiary.

If the Takahashi family suffers a severe setback, then the Ito family will be the number one in Japan while lying down, and the opportunity for cooperation with the Banks Family will naturally come naturally.

This feeling of lying down made Takehiko Ito who was sitting in the Rolls Royce proud.

So he picked up a cigar, lit it and put it in his mouth.

Just as Ito Yuhiko was about to take a sip, he suddenly felt a violent tremor of the vehicle. Then, the vehicle was uncontrollable and hit the roadside guardrail!

Iga Ninja's hunt for Ito Takehiko has begun!

Chapter 1793

Before the vehicle lost control and hit the roadside fence, Ito never thought he would be in danger.

Because, Yuhiko Ito is protected by the entire Koka Ninja.

It can be said that now in the big Japanese family, only his ninja has not suffered any harm or loss of combat.

In addition to him, the young and middle-aged of the Tenglin family were almost wiped out, and the Iga family also lost half of their combat effectiveness.

However, Ito's biggest negligence was that he went out too lightly this time.

He felt that he was going to the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department for questioning and cooperating with the investigation, and there was a police officer driving ahead and going to the Metropolitan Police Department by himself. There can be no one else thinking about himself on the way to the Metropolitan Police Department. Right?

It is precisely because of this that he did not arrange too many ninjas to protect himself.

However, he never expected that the police car that cleared the road would have been threatened and threatened by Mr. Matsumoto. Mr. Matsumoto laid a net and waited for him to get in.

Yuhiko Ito's motorcade suddenly lost control, mainly because a large number of salings had been planted by Iga Ninja on the road!

The so-called Saling is the most commonly used weapon of Japanese ninjas. It is generally a metal product covered with spikes. No matter how it is scattered on the ground, Saling will reveal several spikes facing in different directions.

In ancient times, when a Japanese ninja was hunted down, he would use Saling behind him. When the opponent catches up, as long as he stepped on it, he would pierce the sole of his foot.

And the current ninja has made a big upgrade to Saling. The current Saling uses extremely sturdy tungsten carbide alloy, which is also the hardest steel material in the world, with hardness equal to diamond.

Therefore, with such a sling, you can easily puncture any rubber tire!

The reason why Yuhiko Ito's team lost control in an instant was because the four tires of each car were stabbed by several salings, so without exception, they all lost control and crashed into the roadside.

At the moment of the collision, the cigar that Ito Takehiko had just lit fell on his crotch, and his whole body was shaken by the impact.

Fortunately, this old man has good safety habits, even if he is sitting in the rear seat, he also buckles his seat belt.

Otherwise, with the violent impact just now, no matter how good the car is, it will not be possible to offset the inertia on his body.

If one head hits the back of the front seat, 80% of him will lose his life.

At this time, several of Ito's bodyguards and two ninjas had gotten out of the two cars, and surrounded Ito's cars.

At this moment, six Iga ninjas suddenly leaped into the sky from the opposite lane, each of them gripping the ninja sword in both hands and killing them with all their faces!

Hiroshi Tanaka, who was in the co-pilot, turned pale, turned his head and said to Ito Yuhiko: "Guild Master! How come there are ninjas? Could it be sent by Takahashi?!"

Ito Xihiko was about to speak, and suddenly he yelled, and looked down, the cigar had burned through his pants and burned a scar on the inner thigh.

He hurriedly picked up the cigar, threw it aside, and blurted out: "Where is the police car leading the way?"

The driver said at this time: "My Mr. Ito, the police car has already driven away.."

"Did off?!" Ito Yuihiko cursed dumbfounded: "We were ambushed, and they drove away?! Is this a f*cking human?!"

Hiroshi Tanaka suddenly realized it, and he blurted out: "Guild, are the police officers deliberately lure you out?"

Ito Yuihiko roared: "Asshole! There is such a beast, who is deliberately calculating me!"

Chapter 1794

After he finished speaking, he hurriedly said to Tanaka Koichi: "Call the police! Let the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department send a helicopter to you! The bodyguards and ninjas outside, I'm afraid it won't last long!"

Hiroshi Tanaka saw that the six ninjas had already rushed up, quickly took out his mobile phone and called the Metropolitan Police Department to report to the police.

Although Tokyo is very uneasy these days, and the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department's handling efficiency and crime-solving capabilities are also messed up, but the hardware configuration of the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department is still very powerful. It is equipped with 14 police helicopters of all kinds. Once there is an emergency, the special operations team can be sent there quickly.

Koichi Tanaka directly called the head of the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department. After all, Ito Yuhiko is one of the top entrepreneurs in Tokyo, and the Metropolitan Police Department has to be a bit thin, and he can directly communicate with the chief in charge of everything.

At this moment, the director of the Tokyo Warning Service just learned that Takahashi was assassinated at home, and he was on the verge of collapse.

Fitz and Zara were not found;

The four human popsicles of the Tenglin family did not detect the murderer;

Takahashi Machi's son, Takahashi Eiji was burned to death in the car, and no murderer was found;

As a result, Maki Takahashi quickly got cold..

This series of serious criminal cases has cast a thick fog of magic and crime across Tokyo.

However, at this moment, Tanaka Hiroichi suddenly told him that Ito Yuihiko had also been ambushed and was in danger at this time. When he heard this, he felt a burst of blood on his head, and his legs collapsed directly in the office when he heard this. .

Several subordinates hurriedly stepped forward to help. He was extremely weak but full of anger and said: "Quick! Quickly send helicopters and special operations teams to the Yotsuya Viaduct to rescue Ito Yuhiko. Today Tokyo says nothing can be dead anymore!!! "

It stands to reason that a fully-armed modern special operations team has no gap with special forces in terms of equipment or combat effectiveness.

This kind of special police, single-handedly against a ninja, may not have any advantage in front of the ninja's weird body techniques and hidden weapons.

However, after dozens of individuals have formed firepower, formation, and complementary advantages, the ninja's advantage will disappear.

However, the biggest problem now is that the near thirst cannot be quenched by far!

It takes at least five minutes for the special operations team to assemble, several minutes for boarding the helicopter, and several minutes for the plane to take off and arrive quickly. Together, it takes at least ten minutes.

However, how can Ito Takehiko's men last for more than ten minutes? !

The two sides fought for several rounds outside the car, and Ito Yuhiko's bodyguards were all brought down to the ground!

Although the remaining two ninjas have been struggling to resist, they have been forced to retreat steadily, and they have suffered multiple injuries!

Looking at this form, it is estimated that in another minute, they will basically be unable to resist it!

At that time, the opponent will directly take the head of Ito Yuhiko!

Koichi Tanaka, who was in the co-pilot, hurriedly said to Takehiko Ito: "Mr. Ito, let's run away! If you don't run away, there will be no chance!"

"escape?!"

Ito Yuhiko trembled and said desperately in horror: "Where can we escape under this situation? Even if we escape, we will be caught by the other party. There is no way to survive!"

After all, Ito Yuhiko's expression dimmed, and he murmured: "Tanaka, you and I must be killed here today..."

Chapter 1795

At this time, Ito Takehiko had already decided that he was bound to die.

The rescuer will not be able to make it for a while, his own people can no longer survive, and the other ninja may be killed by the sword at any time.

The remaining driver and Koichi Tanaka have no actual combat effectiveness. Like him, they will be cut and killed by the opponent.

At this moment, he really wanted to call his daughter who is far away in Kyoto. Kyoto is a few hundred kilometers away, and her daughter must not know that she is in deep trouble. Call her quickly, and maybe hear her before she died. Voice, this is also a bit of comfort before death.

However, just as he took out his cell phone and was about to call Nanako Ito, Hiroshi Tanaka blurted out: "Mr. Ito! It's really too late if we don't run!"

Ito Yuihiko sighed: "I already told you just now, we have already pierced our wings and we have nowhere to escape..."

Having said that, he gritted his teeth and cursed: "It must be the beast Takahashi really knows! Scum! Asshole! He used such insidious means to deal with me!"

Hiroshi Tanaka quickly pointed out the window and blurted out: "Mr. Ito, don't scold Takahashi for now. If we run to both ends of the viaduct, we will definitely die! But, we can still jump from here!"

After that, he pointed to the guardrail outside the car and said excitedly: "Mr. Ito., when we push the car door, it will be the guardrail. If we turn over, we can jump off!"

Takehiko Ito paled in fright, and blurted out: "Are you crazy?! This viaduct is more than ten meters high. Didn't you just fall to death if you jumped down?"

Hiroshi Tanaka said solemnly: "I will grow up, this height may not necessarily die. As long as you don't let your body face down, or face and abdomen face down, you still have a chance to jump down, but if you don't jump, you will have no chance. Nothing!"

Takehiko Ito swallowed his saliva: "Jump down, immortal and crippled, it is impossible to escape their pursuit!"

Hiroshi Tanaka said seriously: "This place is so high, those ninjas must not dare to jump around! Even if they are stronger, their bodies are long, and we will be disabled if we jump. They are the same. If they don't dare to jump, Then you have to drive down the viaduct. The two ends of the viaduct are still far away. When they get around, the special operations team of the Metropolitan Police Department should be there!"

After speaking, he added: "Also, the viaduct we are walking on has no traffic at night, but the road below is relatively close to Fengyue Street. It is always lively at night, so there must be a lot of private cars and taxis going back and forth. !"

"Moreover, there are young people who enjoy nightlife, drunken people and homeless people!"

"Once they find that we are falling, they will definitely come around to watch the excitement or help!"

"Even if this group of ninjas really dared to jump down, they might not dare to kill us in front of so many people. As long as it can be dragged for a few minutes, the helicopter from the Metropolitan Police Department will probably arrive!"

Ito Yuhiko blurted out and asked, "What if you fall directly to death?!"

Hiroshi Tanaka gritted his teeth: "The Mr. Ito! Even if we fall to death, it is better than being killed by a ninja! The ghost knows how Takahashi wants us to die? What if Takahashi tells them to behead us?! "

Ito Yuhiko felt a chill in the back of his neck!

"Beheaded?!"

"That's too damn bad, right?!"

"I would rather jump from here and fall to death by yourself than be chopped off by the ninja with a knife!"

Thinking of this, he shook his heart: "Okay! Then jump!"

After speaking, he remembered Takahashi's true knowledge, gritted his teeth and said angrily: "Damn it, Takahashi forced me to jump high! This thing is really f*cking ironic! Today's hatred, I remembered Ito Yuhiko. If I can survive, I will smash the head of that bastard that Takahashi really knows! I'll break him into pieces!"

Chapter 1796

Hiroshi Tanaka sighed, turned his head and said to the driver, "Brother Yamamoto, let's jump together later!"

The driver wiped a cold sweat, nodded and said, "Okay! I'll be with you two!"

At this time, Ito Takehiko's two personal ninjas have already fought to the dying state!

Seeing that the two might be hacked to death by the other at any time, Tanaka Hiroshi hurriedly shouted: "Mr. Ito, Brother Yamamoto! It's now!"

Ito Yuhiko quickly pushed open the door on one side with him. At this time, the driver also opened the door of the cab, ready to get off.

However, the driver's side was right in front of the Iga Ninja. One of the ninjas saw that the driver was about to get out of the car, so he rushed over and pierced the driver's heart with a flying knife!

After the sharp ninja knife pierced the driver's body, the blade even pierced the hard door of the Rolls Royce.

The driver died almost instantly!

Ito saw the driver being killed across the car. He trembled unconsciously, and his legs became soft.

Although he is also a man who has experienced many battles in the market, it is the first time he has experienced this kind of disaster, and it is inevitable that he is nervous and afraid in his heart.

In addition, the older he is, the less courage he is, so Ito Yuhiko squatted on the ground in fright, unable to climb the one-meter-high guardrail at all.

At this time, the ninja who had just killed the driver suddenly discovered that Ito Yuhiko and Tanaka Hiroshi both had escaped from the car, as if they were about to jump off the bridge, and suddenly shouted: "Quick! Ito Yuhiko is going to escape!"

Having said that, he drew the ninja sword out forcefully, and stepped up to the roof of the car to kill Ito Yuhiko.

Seeing that Ito Yuhiko wanted to escape, the other ninjas immediately went mad and killed Ito Yuhiko's two lingering ninjas, and then swarmed up!

The more so, the weaker Ito's legs became uncontrollable, and even his efforts to stand up had no effect.

At this moment, Koichi Tanaka, who was about to climb over the guardrail, rushed desperately to push Ito Yuhiko's body, and shouted: "Mr. Ito!! You must support me with your hands! We must jump down, or we will die. what!!!"

Ito Yuhiko was instantly empowered by Daigo, and he knew that this was really the line between life and death!

So, he pulled his body up with both hands, coupled with the desperate push by Tanaka Hiroshi, he quickly jumped over the guardrail of the viaduct.

At the moment when he almost lost his balance and turned over, he looked at Koichi Tanaka gratefully and reluctantly, and shouted, "Koichi! You must not give up!"

Hiroshi Tanaka nodded, using a little more force in his hand, and pushed Ito Yuhiko down.

Immediately afterwards, he climbed up the guardrail at the fastest speed, watching the short knives of several ninjas that were about to be cut, he jumped, followed Ito Takehiko, and jumped off the bridge!

One after another, the two jumped off the highway bridge that was more than ten meters high.

At this moment, Ito hoped that a truck full of fluffy goods could appear under him.

It's a pity that there is nothing but the hard pavement below...

Chapter 1797

Before the fall, Ito Yuhiko's mind kept echoing Tanaka's words.

As long as you don't face down, face down, or belly down, you still have a chance to survive.

So, he struggled to adjust his body in mid-air, and landed heavily with his legs straight to the ground!

With a bang, Ito Yuhiko only felt an incomparable sharp pain from both legs, but he didn't care to check the injuries on his legs, and he immediately rolled a few somersaults on the ground to relieve the impact of his falling from the viaduct. .

Immediately afterwards, Koichi Tanaka fell heavily to the ground. Like Ito Takehiko, he landed on his legs and rolled over for several weeks.

Although their legs hurt to death, both of them saved their lives because of the correct landing posture. At this time, Ito looked at his legs and saw the entire knee, calf, ankle and sole of the foot. All fell beyond recognition!

Koichi Tanaka's situation was just as tragic. His legs were bloody and bloody, broken bones even pierced from the flesh, blood flowed across, and it was horrible!

When the passers-by saw this, they were shocked, and some women had already screamed.

Soon, several enthusiastic people gathered around, and one of them asked, "Two gentlemen, how do you feel? Would you like me to call an ambulance for you now?"

Ito Yuihiko cried bitterly and said, "Help me call the police! Someone on the bridge is chasing us!"

Everyone hurriedly looked up at the bridge. On the side of the guardrail of the over ten-meter viaduct, six ninjas were lined up in a row, looking down under the bridge with a bewildered expression.

One of the ninjas asked dumbfounded: "Boss, this...what about this?"

The boss didn't expect that this big piece of fat had already reached his lips, and it could fly away. He blurted out angrily: "Old fifth and sixth, the two of them can't move now, you two jump down and give him I'll kill!"

When the two heard this, each of them shrank their necks in shock.

One of them said embarrassingly: "Boss, if it is seven or eight meters high, you don't need to say that I have already jumped, but it must be about 15 meters! I jumped, and the result would not be better than them."

"Yeah!" Another said with a bitter expression, "Boss, the landing posture for the two of them is very scientific. If we are not so sure by any chance, we might just fall to death..."

The boss's expression is very ugly.

He knows that if his subordinates don't jump, he must not force him to jump, otherwise, how will this team lead in the future?

Thinking of this, he gritted his teeth and blurted out: "Get in the car! Let's get down and kill the ambulance and the police before they come!"

Everyone hurriedly wanted to turn around and return to the car. At this moment, they heard the roar of helicopters in the sky.

When several people looked up, they were not shocked!

At this moment, there are four police helicopters coming fast from different directions!

One of the ninjas said in horror: "Oh! It's a special operations team!"

Tokyo's special operations team is the most ace special police under the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department. They have been serving anti-terrorism missions all year round. They have extremely strong combat capabilities. Moreover, they are all American-style equipment and have strong firepower. Ninjas are in front of them, no different from primitive people.

What's more, they came in a helicopter!

If this is hovering over the head, holding a machine gun and shooting, even the most powerful ninja will be beaten into a sieve!

The boss of Iga Ninja immediately stunned, and shouted in a panic: "f*ck! Run away!"

The remaining five ninjas quickly got into the car under his leadership, and everyone fled in two cars.

The special operations team in Tokyo split immediately.

Two of the helicopters hovered directly nearby, allowing the combat team members to quickly reach the ground by cable drop from the helicopters to protect Ito Takehiko.

Chapter 1798

The other two helicopters directly caught up with the two vehicles in which Iga Ninja was riding.

Since the Iga Ninja was on the viaduct, there was nowhere to hide. He was driving a car and fleeing frantically, and the helicopter was approaching overhead.

Just when they wanted to escape with all their strength, the special forces on the helicopter directly hit the front hoods of the two vehicles with armor-piercing shells.

The penetration ability of armor-piercing projectiles is extremely strong, even military armor is difficult to resist, not to mention the civilian car engine, a few armor-piercing projectiles hit, the vehicle engine is instantly damaged.

When the engine is damaged, the vehicle immediately loses power, and the vehicle speed becomes slower and slower until it finally stops.

The six ninjas in the car were frightened. They were about to push the door and get out of the car, holding their heads and scurrying. They found that the helicopter had hovered two or three meters above the bridge deck one after another, and then a large number of special forces quickly descended. Down, the dark muzzle had been aimed at their heads.

Twenty special forces, directly let the six ninjas surrender, and did not dare to resist at all!

And at this time, Ito Yuhiko and Tanaka Koichi were also sent to the ambulance and drove to the hospital quickly.

.....

Matsumoto is at home at this time, feeling the feeling of strategizing.

The gambler's mentality is extremely heavy, and he already has that kind of immersion.

It's just that this gambling game is really too big, and he was a little nervous while excited, for fear that there would be accidents in the process of trading.

Now that Takahashi Machi is cold, Ito Yuhiko will be cold soon, and when he is cold, he will be the top one!

Nervous and excited, holding a glass of whiskey, thinking about the time in his heart, guessing that Ito Yuhiko was almost worthy of death, so he immediately took out his mobile phone and called Iga Ninja who was responsible for assassinating Ito Yuhiko.

As a result, the strange communication black hole appeared again.

The call that could be made ten minutes ago is not made.

Everything is the same as Iga Kaminin who is guarding the Banks brother and sister in Kyoto. If he is missing, he will disappear, and there is no trace.

Just when he was at a loss, the assistant walked up anxiously and said to him: "Guild Master, there was an accident with Iga Ninja!"

"What's the accident?!"

"Six Iga ninjas were all arrested. Ito Yuhiko and Tanaka Koichi fell from the viaduct. They have now been sent to the hospital. It is said that there is no life threatening!"

"What?!" Matsumoto gritted his teeth and cursed: "Let Ito Yuuhiko escape?! The ninjas of the Iga family are too trash!"

The assistant nodded and said seriously: "At present, it is indeed like this..."

Ryoto Matsumoto angrily threw the whiskey glass in his hand to the ground, and the glass slammed heavily on the marble floor tiles, and it broke instantly.

At this moment, a cold woman's voice suddenly came from the living room: "Mr. Matsumoto's temper is really big enough!"

Ryoto Matsumoto and his assistant were startled by the strange voice. The two followed their reputations and saw a woman in her twenties stepping in.

Ryoto Matsumoto was shocked, and blurted out and asked, "You...Who are you?! How did you get in?!"

The woman sneered: "Of course I walked in."

Matsumoto took a step back and asked nervously, "What are you going to do?!"

The woman looked at Mrs. Matsumoto with interest, and then said coldly after a while: "You tied up my young master and young lady of the Banks Familyy, and assassinated more than ten people of my Banks Familyy. What do you say I want to do? Of course it is. Take your life!"

Chapter 1799

Ryoto Matsumoto never dreamed that the Banks Familyy would find him!

Just when the woman said the whole thing, he trembled all over, and blurted out, "I have so many guards in my house, how could you let you in!"

Matsumoto's house has always been heavily guarded.

The stronger the heart of harm, the stronger the heart of defense.

In order not to be conspired by others, he arranged twenty bodyguards at home, among them there are ninjas from small families, and his defenses can be regarded as very strong.

So, he couldn't understand how this woman got in, why didn't he hear any movement? !

The woman smiled indifferently: "It doesn't matter how many guards there are, just kill them all? Besides, there are not many people, including your family, there are 36 people in total. Now they are all dead, leaving you two."

After that, the woman said again: "You killed more than a dozen of our Banks Familyy, we naturally want to ask for more interest."

Ryoto Matsumoto looks terrified!

He paled in fright, trembling all over, and blurted out, "You...you killed my whole family?!"

"Yes." The woman nodded: "But you can rest assured that our Banks Familyy is still very civilized. Your parents, wife and children, brother and sister-in-law are all poisoned and died, and there is no blood."

Matsumoto's legs weakened, he unconsciously stepped back two steps, fell on the sofa, his whole muscles violently violently, gritted his teeth and asked: "As the saying goes, it's no good for your wife and children. If you have any hatred, you can just attack me. ! Why do you want to start with my family!"

The woman smiled and asked, "What? Mr. Matsumoto has started talking about the justice of the world? Then when you killed more than a dozen people in my Banks Familyy and intended to murder my young master and the young lady of the Banks Familyy, why didn't you talk about the justice of the world? What? When you plan all this, you should think of such consequences."

Matsumoto gritted his teeth and roared: "You are beasts! Devil! No matter how bad my Matsumoto is, I have never killed a child! My son is only ten years old! My daughter is only eight years old!"

The woman smiled, and said coldly: "So what? If you dare to plot against my Banks Familyy, you must be prepared to bear the greatest price! To blame, you can only blame yourself for being too vicious and not leaving others behind. The way is not to leave a way for oneself."

Matsumoto's heart collapsed completely at this time.

He knows that when he comes out, the most basic quality is to be willing to bet to lose. He has suppressed everything in this game. Since he has lost, he naturally has to lose everything.

At this point, Matsumoto sighed sullenly, and said without love, "If this is the case, I am willing to bet, and you kill me too."

The woman nodded and said coldly: "You are definitely going to die, but we don't want you to die so happy. Before you die, I want to arrange for you to meet your family again."

After that, she clapped her hands and said loudly, "Bring in those dead people!"

As soon as the words fell, dozens of Banks Familyy masters walked in, carrying corpses one after another. These corpses were all placed neatly next to each other in front of Mr. Matsumoto.

Ryoto Matsumoto saw this scene, and his whole body was distraught.

He really didn't expect that he would end up like this.

And he also knew very well that he was bound to die today.

However, there is still the only glimmer of hope left in him, that hope is the eldest son taken away when his ex-wife divorced.

Ryoto Matsumoto got married for the first time 15 years ago, and his eldest son was born in the third year after marriage.

At that time, the Matsumoto family was still in despair, until Matsumoto met his current wife.

Ryoto Matsumoto's current wife was the daughter of a middle-class family in Tokyo. In order to take advantage of her natal power, Ryoto Matsumoto swept his wife out of the house and then married her.

Chapter 1800

Because the current wife didn't like Matsumoto's eldest son, Matsumoto kicked out his eldest son after marriage and let him follow his ex-wife.

Later, Matsumoto's second married wife gave him a pair of children, so he rarely thinks of his ex-wife and eldest son over the years.

But now, Ryoto Matsumoto thought of their wives, and finally felt a trace of comfort in his heart.

At least, after his death, the Matsumoto family's blood will not be completely cut off tonight.

His eldest son can continue to carry on his blood.

For the current Matsumoto Ryoto, nothing can comfort and rejoice him more than this.

The Banks Family girl in front of her seemed to see through his thoughts.

The woman smiled playfully and said to Matsumoto, "Mr. Matsumoto, I heard that you have a son?"

Matsumoto was taken aback and blurted out, "I didn't! Who did you hear? How could this be possible!"

The woman smiled: "Everyone is an adult, so there is no need to be embarrassed by such a botched lie."

After that, she said coldly: "Your eldest son's name is Matsumoto Taro. Later, after you drove him out of the house, he changed his surname, followed by your ex-wife's surname, Kurosawa, and changed his name to Kurosawa Shota. I'm twelve years old and I live in Yamanashi Prefecture, not far from Tokyo. Am I right?"

Matsumoto listened to her words, his whole body was struck by lightning.

After a while, he was already in tears, and he knelt on the ground with a shuddering puff, and begged bitterly: "I beg you, don't kill my son. I only have this one son. If he died too, The Matsumoto family will be completely extinct. I beg you to leave a bloodline for my Matsumoto family! I'll kowtow to you!"

Having said that, Matsumoto slammed his head against the hard marble floor.

At this time, he was extremely desperate and regretful in his heart, but he also knew that the bodies of his entire family were placed here. He had no way to save them, and he could not even save his life, so his only wish is to let his eldest son live.

Therefore, when he kowtows, he is also extremely pious, hoping to impress the ice-like woman in front of him.

Matsumoto only knocked three heads, and his forehead was already full of blood.

But he didn't dare to stop, and continued to kowtow until his forehead was completely bloody and bloody, and he almost fainted because of the blow to the head.

Ryoto Matsumoto gritted his teeth to support his body, and choked in his mouth: "Please! Please! Please! Please!!! Please promise my only request!!!"

The woman just smiled at this moment and said: "I'm sorry, you said it was too late. Just five minutes ago, Shota Kurosawa had been poisoned and died!"

When Ryoto Matsumoto heard this, he collapsed completely. He raised his head and shouted hysterically: "Why! Why do you want to destroy my Matsumoto family?! Why are you killing me like this?!"

The woman sneered: "This is the price you angered the Banks Family!"

Ryoto Matsumoto burst into tears immediately, and his tears were mixed with blood, making his entire face look particularly tragic.

At this time, he had also completely lost the will to survive, and he muttered: "Kill me, kill me now!"

The woman nodded, took out a sunflower seed carved from white jade from her pocket, and said lightly: "Ryoman Matsumoto, before you die, I hope you remember my name, my name is Xion Banks!"

After that, she shook one hand, and the sunflower seeds made of white jade shot out.

In the next second, a tiny hole of blood appeared on the center of Matsumoto's eyebrows, and the whole person had completely lost all vitality, with a bang, and fell to the ground!

Chapter 1801

At this moment, the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department.

The chief of the Metropolitan Police Department finally breathed a sigh of relief when he learned that Ito Yuhiko had been taken to the hospital and his life was not in danger.

He took out a cigarette and knocked on the cigarette case to make the tobacco tighter. Then he took out the lighter and lit the cigarette and took a puff.

After a while, he sighed: "Oh, it seems that this strange day is finally coming to an end..."

The person next to him hurriedly said: "Director, the Banks Family brothers and sisters have not been found..."

The director of the Metropolitan Police Department immediately said angrily: "Can't you add more traffic to me? The Banks brothers and sisters are still in a state of unclear life and death for the time being!"

With that said, he added: "Unknown life and death means that you don't know whether you are dead or alive. At least you can't be sure that you are dead. My request tonight is very simple. Don't tell me that someone has died, I'm satisfied. , Wait until tomorrow!"

The person next to him nodded quickly and said, "Minister, you have been working hard all day and night, or you should go home and rest first."

"Yeah." The director of the Metropolitan Police Department took a breath and said, "I want to go back and take a good rest."

Just as he was about to leave the Metropolitan Police Department, someone suddenly ran in in a panic and blurted out: "Director, Director! Something happened, Director!"

The chief of the Metropolitan Police Department was going crazy and blurted out: "What happened again?!"

The other party said breathlessly: "It's Matsu...Matsumoto...Something happened to the Matsumoto's family!"

The chief of the Metropolitan Police Department was dumbfounded and said: "First it was Machi Takahashi, then Ito Yuhiko, and now it's Matsumoto, why the hell did you breathe? You say! What happened to Matsumoto? He's still alive. ?"

In his opinion, as long as people are still alive, it doesn't matter if they are injured or disabled. Anyway, his only requirement is to stop dying.

As a result, the other party said with a horrified expression: "Director, something has happened to the Matsumoto family! There are more than 30 people in the family, all...all dead..."

"what?!"

When the Metropolitan Police Department heard this, he threw away the cigarette butt in despair, grabbed his hair with both hands, and collapsed and said, "I'm the f*cking going to split!!! What the hell is going on?! Is this still the Tokyo I am familiar with?! Why is it so endless?!"

The other party was also very collapsed, blurting out: "Tonight, the Matsumoto house suddenly lit a fire. After the firefighters put out the fire, they found that everyone in the Matsumoto house was lying neatly in the living room and burned beyond recognition. Arson, let's not mention how tragic the scene was. Many firefighters vomited into the hospital!" Upon hearing this, the chief of the Metropolitan Police Department felt his blood pressure surge immediately, and murmured: "I... my f*cking... I..." Before finishing speaking, the whole person's eyes went dark and he passed out completely.

.....

At the same time the ancient city of Kyoto.

Charlie Wade and Nanako Ito strolled for a long time in the snow.

During the period, Nanako Ito told Charlie Wade that since she came to Kyoto to recuperate from her injury, she had stayed in the mansion and never went out, so she wanted to go out for a walk.

So Charlie Wade took her and left the Ito mansion quietly over the wall, walking hand in hand through the streets of Kyoto.

Chapter 1802

Nanako Ito wanted to say something to Charlie Wade, but for a while she didn't know where to start, so she told Charlie Wade about her childhood and past.

Although she was born in a rich family, Nanako Ito's childhood was not a happy one.

Her mother died young, and although her father did not marry again, it could not make up for Nanako Ito's childhood shortcomings.

Moreover, Ito Yuhiko is busy with work all day, and the time that can be allocated to Nanako Ito is very small. In addition, Ito Yuhiko's character has always been serious and unsmiling, so Nanako Ito's childhood lacked a lot of care.

Nanako Ito's mother is a pretty lady, so when she was alive, she always taught Nanako Ito in a very traditional way, and Nanako Ito also followed her mother to learn tea ceremony, illustration, embroidery and female red, and even read poetry and books. In her character, the side of Yamato Nadeshiko was given by her mother.

However, after the death of her mother, Nanako Ito fell in love with martial arts because she felt that when she was practicing martial arts, she could temporarily forget the sadness and unhappiness in life.

At the beginning, she only practiced martial arts to escape reality, but over time, she completely fell in love with martial arts.

After she finished telling her story, she chased Charlie Wade and asked him: "Charlie Wade, can you tell me the story of your childhood?"

Charlie Wade smiled bitterly: "When I was a kid... I was at two extremes when I was a kid. I lived well before I was eight years old. My parents were kind, wealthy, and worry-free. But when I was eight, my parents died unexpectedly. , I fell into the street and became an orphan, and then I grew up in the orphanage..."

"Ah?!" When Nanako Ito heard this, she was surprised, and said with a bit of distress: "I'm sorry Charlie Wade, I didn't mean..."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "It's okay, needless to say I'm sorry."

Nanako Ito said with emotion: "In this way, my childhood is much happier than Charlie Wade. Although my father is strict and unsmiling to me on weekdays, he still loves me very much in his heart, but his way of expression is not so soft in comparison."

After all, Nanako Ito looked at Charlie Wade and said seriously: "Charlie Wade, in fact, you have a conflict with my father. I heard Tanaka talk about it before. The reason why I pretended not to know was that I didn't want you to feel embarrassed, but actually , Father's nature is not bad. If you have the opportunity, I still hope that you can let your previous suspicions go away and become friends..."

In fact, deep down in her heart, Nanako Ito really wanted to say that she didn't want Charlie Wade and her father to become friends. In her heart, she dreamed that the two would become a real relationship between husband and wife.

However, she knew that Charlie Wade was already married, so she could only hide such words in the most secret place in her heart and would never say them.

Charlie Wade didn't think much at this time, nodded slightly and said: "If there is a chance, I will."

Nanako Ito immediately became happy, and said seriously: "That's really great! But Charlie Wade don't get me wrong. I hope you and father will become friends, not for the 4.5 billion dollar thing. You must keep it for yourself, not my father!"

Charlie Wade couldn't help laughing and asked her: "Why did you turn your elbow out? Four and a half billion dollars is not a small sum!"

Nanako Ito blushed and said softly, "It doesn't matter, you saved my life and healed my injury. This money is regarded as a reward from my father to you!"

Charlie Wade couldn't help laughing, and said happily: "If your dad knows, 80% of him will be pissed off by you."

Nanako Ito stuck out her tongue and was about to talk when her phone suddenly vibrated.

She was a little surprised: "It's so late, who will call me? Could it be the servant who found out that I escaped?"

With that, she quickly took out her mobile phone and said in surprise:

"Oh, it's Father!"

Chapter 1803

Nanako Ito didn't expect that her father would call her even so late.

So, she said to Charlie Wade a little nervously: "Charlie Wade, I want to answer the call from father..."

Charlie Wade nodded, and smiled: "Go on."

Nanako Ito was so busy pressing the answer button, and asked carefully, "Father, what's the matter if you called me so late?"

On the other end of the phone, Ito Yuihiko's weak voice came: "Nanako, dad had an accident. I called to confirm your safety. Is everything okay in Kyoto?"

Nanako Ito hurriedly asked: "Father, what happened to you?! Does it matter?!"

Ito Yuhiko said: "I was hunted down together with Tanaka. Fortunately, I escaped by chance, but I'm afraid they will try to get you wrong, so I called to confirm."

At this moment, Yuhiko Ito is lying in the intensive care unit of the Tokyo Hospital. The family's ninjas, bodyguards, and police officers from the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department have already tightly protected the third and outer floors of the hospital.

Lying on the hospital bed, Ito did not have any serious trauma at first glance, but his legs below the knees have disappeared, but the ends of the two thighs are wrapped in thick gauze.

After falling from the viaduct, Ito's brain and internal organs did not suffer much damage.

However, the legs that mainly bear the impact of the fall were seriously injured.

His soles, ankles, and calf bones were almost completely shattered, and his bloody appearance was really horrible.

In this case, the doctor also concluded that his legs are no longer able to recover.

Moreover, fragmented bones and severely damaged muscles have lost their vitality and face a huge risk of infection.

Therefore, only if the severely damaged part is amputated as soon as possible, the damage can be stopped in time and Ito Yuhiko's life can be saved.

For ordinary people, once the body tissues die in a large area, there is basically no possibility of restoration.

If the limb is severely injured, if the limb is not amputated, the infected area will rot, and the entire body will soon be affected, eventually leading to death.

At that time, when the doctor was seeking Ito's opinion, Ito had little hesitation.

He is also considered a courageous and knowledgeable hero, able to clearly judge the situation he is facing at a critical moment.

In his opinion, it is a blessing to be able to save his life. If he is unwilling to accept the amputation and continue to delay, he will probably die because of it.

For him, except for his daughter, nothing is more important than survival.

Koichi Tanaka's situation was almost exactly the same as Ito's. He also underwent amputation of both legs below the knee, and recovered his life. At this time, he is recovering in the next ward.

Nanako Ito didn't know that her father had undergone amputation, and asked impatiently, "Father, are you okay? Is there any injury or danger?" Yuhiko Ito sighed lightly and said, "I and Tanaka's legs were injured a little, and we are now being treated in the hospital, but fortunately, there is no danger to our lives, so you can rest assured."

While talking, Ito Yuhiko said again: "The world has been very uneasy in the past few days. You must be careful in Kyoto. I am going to send a few ninjas to protect you!"

Nanako Ito blurted out: "Father, I want to return to Tokyo to see you!"
Chapter 1804

Ito Takehiko hurriedly said, "Don't come. Tokyo is very chaotic now. In just one or two days, too many people have died. Besides, if you are ill, you should rest in Kyoto!"

Nanako Ito hurriedly said: "My father, my injuries are all healed. Don't worry, I will rush to Tokyo to take care of you as soon as possible!"

Naturally, Ito Yuhiko didn't believe that his daughter's injuries would heal, and naturally thought that Nanako Ito was just comforting him. Therefore, he said to Nanako Ito in a serious tone: "Nanako, you have to listen to me, stay in Kyoto honestly, don't go anywhere, let alone come to Tokyo!"

What else Nanako Ito wanted to say, Ito Takehiko angrily said: "If you let me know that you dare to come to Tokyo secretly, I don't have a daughter!"

After that, he hung up the phone.

Nanako Ito burst into tears immediately. She was extremely worried about her father's safety. Although she was basically sure that the father on the phone did not look like life-threatening, she always felt that her father's injury was not as bad as he said on the phone. Such an understatement.

Charlie Wade on the side asked her: "Nanako, is there something wrong with your father?"

"Um..." Nanako Ito nodded tearfully, and said, "My father called and said that he was hunted down and he is now in the hospital..."

After speaking, she looked at Charlie Wade and choked up: "Charlie Wade, I'm so worried..."

Charlie Wade couldn't help but comforted: "Your father shouldn't be life-threatening, so you don't have to worry too much."

Nanako Ito shook her head and said, "I'm afraid that my father will hide something from me..."

After that, she looked at Charlie Wade eagerly and asked: "Charlie Wade, I want to go back to Tokyo, you...can you help me?"

Charlie Wade asked her: "How do you think I can help you?"

Nanako Ito said: "My father won't let me go back. If I tell the servants of the family, they will definitely not agree to it, and may even ban me. Since we have slipped out now, I don't want to go back again. I Hope you can lend me some money, and I will take the first train back to Tokyo after dawn!"

Seeing her look very urgent, Charlie Wade sighed and said, "It's just twelve o'clock in the night, and the train will have to wait until the morning at least, or I will drive you back, or it will be there in just over three hours. ."

"really?!"

Nanako Ito looked at Charlie Wade excitedly, and blurted out, "Will you really want to drive me to Tokyo?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "I've said everything, can I lie to you?"

Nanako Ito said, "But...but aren't you having business affairs in Osaka? If you send me to Tokyo, will it delay your affairs in Osaka?"

"It's okay." Charlie Wade smiled indifferently and comforted: "You don't have to worry about me. Someone is helping me deal with things in Osaka. The top priority now is to send you back to Tokyo to see your father, lest you keep worrying about him."

Nanako Ito grabbed Charlie Wade's hands and said in grateful words:

"Charlie Wade, thank you so much..."

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Okay, don't say anything polite. My car happened to be parked nearby. Let's set off now."

"Okay!" Nanako Ito nodded repeatedly, and her eyes were full of gratitude and obsession. Charlie Wade at this moment, in her eyes, is the world-famous hero sent by heaven to save her...

Chapter 1805

In the middle of the night, Charlie Wade drove the car, carrying Nanako Ito, and galloping back to Tokyo. In the middle of the journey, Cameron Isaac called Charlie Wade and asked him if he had finished the work and when he would return to Osaka. Charlie Wade told him that he would not be able to return for a while, and that he would not be able to return until tomorrow day.

Cameron Isaac didn't know what was wrong with Charlie Wade, but he knew that Charlie Wade was extremely strong, and no one in Japan could threaten him, so he was relieved. Nanako Ito, who was sitting in the co-pilot, seemed nervous all the way. Although Yuhiko Ito said on the phone that he was not in danger, Nanako Ito was still a little worried.

After more than three hours, Charlie Wade drove the car back to Tokyo and stopped in front of Tokyo's best hospital, Tokyo University Affiliated Hospital. This hospital is the highest ranked hospital in the world in Japan, and represents the highest level of treatment in Japan.

After the car stopped steadily, Nanako Ito couldn't wait to push the door to get out of the car, but before getting off the car, she looked at Charlie Wade and asked, "Charlie Wade, are you going to go up with me?" Charlie Wade said slightly embarrassed: "Your father may not want to see me, right?"

Nanako Ito said earnestly: "Charlie Wade, you saved my life, no matter how big a misunderstanding and holiday, I believe my father will never care about it again!"

Charlie Wade thought for a moment, and said: "Okay, then I will go with you."

In fact, what Charlie Wade thought was very simple. After all, Ito Yuhiko is Nanako Ito's father. If his physical condition really has any major problems, he might be able to help.

The two came to the floor of the intensive care unit and found that starting from the elevator entrance to the lounge and corridor, they were all full of people.

Among them, most of them are members of the Ito family, and a small part are members of special operations teams sent by the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department.

As soon as the elevator door opened, everyone outside looked at the elevator car vigilantly, and found that it was Nanako Ito and a strange man. Everyone was surprised.

At this time, a middle-aged woman rushed over and asked in surprise: "Nanako, why are you here?!"

The speaker is Ito Emi, the younger sister of Ito Takehiko and the aunt of Nanako Ito.

When Nanako Ito saw her, she hurriedly bowed, "Auntie, how is your father?"

A trace of melancholy flashed in Emi Ito's expression, and she sighed:

"Nanako, his vital signs are very stable. The doctor said that he is out of danger, but..."

Nanako Ito blurted out and asked, "But what?!"

"Hey..." Emi Ito sighed and said seriously: "My brother's legs are seriously injured. The doctor has already amputated his legs below the knees in order to save his life. For the rest of his life, I am afraid that I will have to sit. Wheelchair or artificial limb..."

"Ah?!" Nanako Ito's tears burst into her eyes.

Hearing that her father had both legs amputated, she naturally felt distressed deep in her heart.

She knows her father's character very well. He must be strong and tenacious throughout his life. It is indeed a very heavy blow for people like him to use a wheelchair for the rest of their lives.

It's like his mentor, Kazuki Yamamoto, who has studied martial arts all his life, but never thought that he was beaten as a waste because he underestimated Charlie Wade's strength. The original martial arts master could only lie in bed and live his life. This kind of blow can be called fatal. Charlie Wade couldn't help frowning at this moment. Ito Yuhiko's luck didn't know whether it was good or bad. To say that he was bad luck, but he still got his life back, otherwise, I am afraid that he has been separated from Nanako Ito long ago.

Chapter 1806

To say that he is lucky, in fact, he only needs to amputate a few hours later, as long as his leg is still on his body, his own rejuvenation pill can heal it.

But if the limb has been amputated, the Rejuvenation Pill will be helpless.

Although Rejuvenating Pill is strong, it does not have the effect of regenerating a broken limb.

Moreover, Ito Yuhiko was injured just now tonight, and amputation a few hours later will not have much impact.

After all, it takes time for damaged limb tissues to rot and infection. Doctors assist in certain anti-inflammatory treatments. A few hours' window can still be won.

If Yuhiko Ito hesitated and thought about it a little bit, he might be able to drag him and Nanako over.

However, what he didn't expect was that he would be so straightforward and had his limbs amputated directly.

Charlie Wade estimated that it was the hospital who felt that Ito's affected limb had no value for preservation, so he simply performed the amputation.

This can only be said that Ito's luck is not so good.

At this moment, Nanako Ito next to Charlie Wade cried and asked, "Auntie, father, he... is he in good condition? Is he particularly angry or depressed?"

Ito Emi gently took Nanako Ito's hand and smiled and said, "Your father looked very open this time. He personally told me that survival is already the greatest gift, even if he becomes a disabled person in the future. It's okay."

As he said, Emi Ito sighed again: "In fact, what your father fears most is not injury or disability, nor loss of life, but in the future journey of life, unable to accompany and walk with you, this time he will die. Escape, you don't know how happy he is! This is like a mountain of father's love!"

Nanako Ito couldn't control her emotions anymore, and she hugged Emi Ito and cried loudly.

Emi Ito patted her back gently, remembering something, and blurted out in surprise: "Nanako, why...how can you stand up?! The doctor said that you will always depend on you in the future. Wheelchair?"

Nanako Ito looked at Charlie Wade and said to Emi Ito truthfully, "Auntie, thanks to Charlie Wade, he cured me..."

"Charlie Wade?!" Emi Ito was shocked, and blurted out: "That's it...Is that Charlie Wade Wade, who owed our Ito family's 4.5 billion US dollars?!"

Nanako Ito was a little embarrassed and said, "Auntie, don't worry about money too much. Charlie Wade not only healed my injury, but also saved my life!"

"Save your life?!" Emi Ito blurted out, "Nanako, are you in any danger?"

Nanako Ito nodded and said, "Earlier tonight, Shinichi Takahashi sent six Tenglin ninjas to Kyoto to murder me. Thanks to Charlie Wade, I was spared..."

Emi Ito widened her eyes and blurted out: "I didn't expect Takahashi to be so vicious! Even you won't let it go!"

After that, she looked at Charlie Wade and said seriously: "Mr. Wade, I am not overly qualified for the grievances between you and my brother, but for the thing that you saved Nanako, I want to thank you on behalf of my brother and the entire Ito family! "

As soon as the voice fell, she immediately bowed to Ninety degrees and held it for about three to five seconds.

Charlie Wade said indifferently: "You are polite. I and Nanako are friends, and these are what friends should do."

At this time, a doctor ran over and said to Emi Ito: "The patient is awake and wants to see his family. Ms. Ito, please come with me."

Ito Emi hurriedly said to Nanako Ito, "Nanako, let's go see your father together."

Nanako Ito nodded heavily, and immediately asked Charlie Wade: "Charlie Wade, are you going?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly, thinking that since Ito Yuhiko has been amputated, he can't help much, so he said: "Nanako, I will not go there, lest Mr. Ito will be emotional and affect recovery after seeing me. ."

Chapter 1807

The reason why Charlie Wade came was because of Nanako Ito's face, so he could help if he wanted to.

But since Ito Yuhiko has been amputated and his life is not in danger, there is no need for his help here, and he does not want to go in and meet Ito Yuhiko to avoid embarrassment.

Nanako Ito didn't insist upon seeing this, and said softly: "Charlie Wade, then please wait here for a while, I'll go in and see my father!" Charlie Wade nodded: "Go, leave me alone." Nanako Ito nodded lightly, and then went to the ward with her aunt Emi Ito.

In the ward, Yuihiko Ito just woke up soon.

After both legs were amputated, the doctor used an analgesic pump for him, so he basically didn't feel the pain, but he was always worried about Nanako Ito in Kyoto, so he couldn't sleep well.

I just dreamed that Nanako had an accident in Kyoto, and Ito Yuhiko immediately woke up and wanted to order her sister Emi Ito to send someone to bring Nanako back to Tokyo as soon as possible.

However, what he didn't even dream of was that after the ward door was opened, he and his sister Ito Emi came in with his beloved baby daughter, Nanako Ito!

"Nanako?!" Takehiko Ito blurted out in surprise: "Why are you here?"

Nanako Ito saw her father lying on the hospital bed pale and bloodless, with thick gauze wrapped around her legs and knees, and disappeared without a trace from below the knees. She burst into tears and cried out, "Odosan! "

After speaking, she ran to the hospital bed, grabbed Ito Yuhiko's hand and cried bitterly.

Only then did Ito recover his senses. Seeing his daughter appear in front of him safely, he was relieved, and he was even more relieved. He rejoiced and said, "Nanako, Oudosan really didn't expect to see you alive. , At this moment, seeing you in front of me is really worth everything..."

Nanako Ito cried and said, "Odosan, you have suffered..."

Ito Yuihiko smiled and said, "No, no no, Nanako, I knew in my heart that being able to survive is already the greatest fortune. I am already very satisfied!"

As he said, he suddenly remembered a detail just now and exclaimed:

"Nanako, what about your legs...how can you walk?"

Nanako Ito choked and said, "Odosan, Nanako almost died by the sword of Tenglin Ninja tonight..."

"What?!" Takehiko Ito was shocked and blurted out: "Tenglin Ninja went to assassinate you?"

"Yeah!" Nanako Ito nodded and said, "The Tenglin family sent six ninjas to Kyoto to assassinate me..."

"Six ninjas?!" Takehiko Ito was even more horrified, and said nervously: "Kyoto didn't keep ninjas to protect you, how did you escape?!"

Nanako Ito hurriedly said, "Thanks to Charlie Wade Wade... he saved me..."

"Charlie Wade Wade?!" Ito Takehiko's eyes widened: "That Chinese?!"

"Yes!" Nanako Ito hurriedly said, "It is Charlie Wade Wade of China. He not only killed six Tenglin ninjas and saved my life, but he also cured my injury with a magical medicine. I am now completely whole! The recovery is as before, and I feel better than before!"

"Really?!" Ito Yuihiko asked in surprise: "Nanako, you didn't lie to Odusan?"

Emi Ito smiled and said, "Brother, didn't you see that Nanako ran over from the door just now?"

Chapter 1808

"Oh yes!" Ito was overjoyed, and nodded and said excitedly: "It's great! It's great! I dream of wishing Nanako can heal and stand up again. This is even more important than my own life! I didn't expect it to happen!" As he said, Ito Yuhiko asked Nanako Ito again: "According to this, you came to Tokyo. Charlie Wade should have sent you to you?"

Nanako Ito said truthfully: "Yes, Oudosan, it's Charlie Wade who drove me all the way to Kyoto here."

After that, Nanako Ito said again: "By the way, Oudosan, the corpses of the six Tenglin ninjas are still in the storage room of my courtyard. I have to trouble you to order the housekeeper to send someone to deal with it!"

"Okay..." Ito sighed, sighing as if he was talking to himself: "I have been hating Charlie Wade for the past few days, but I didn't expect him to save my beloved daughter and heal her. In contrast to my daughter's injury, I am really a villain's heart to save a gentleman's belly..."

After that, he hurriedly asked, "Nanako, where is Mr. Wade?"

Nanako Ito hurriedly said, "Back to Oudosan, Charlie Wade is outside."

Ito Yuhiko hurriedly tried to sit upright with both hands, and said seriously: "Hurry up and invite Mr. Wade in, I want to thank him face to face!"

Nanako Ito hesitated for a moment, and said, "Oudosan, Charlie Wade said, I'm afraid you will be angry if you see him..."

"How come!" Ito said seriously: "My contradiction with him is nothing more than the 4.5 billion dollars, but he saved your life! In the eyes of Oudosan, your life, Don't say 4.5 billion US dollars, even 45 billion US dollars, it can't be exchanged! Therefore, Mr. Wade is my great benefactor, and I want to thank him in person..."

Nanako Ito hesitated for a few seconds, and then said: "Oudosan, I will ask Charlie Wade, if he wants, I will bring him in."

Ito Yuhiko said immediately: "Okay! Go ahead!"

Nanako Ito came out of the ward and walked to Charlie Wade.

Charlie Wade asked in surprise, "Why did you come out so soon?"

Nanako Ito stammered and said, "Charlie Wade... Father, he... he... he wants to see you..."

Charlie Wade smiled a little awkwardly: "He has just finished the amputation, even if he is not life-threatening, his body should be relatively weak. It's not appropriate to see me at this time?"

Nanako Ito hurriedly waved his hand and said, "That's not the case! Father, he wants to thank you in person! Thank you for saving my life and healing my injury."

Charlie Wade asked a little surprised: "Your father really said that?"

"Yes." Nanako Ito solemnly nodded and said, "I use my personality to assure you!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said generously: "If this is the case, then I will go and meet Mr. Ito."

After that, Charlie Wade followed Nanako Ito to Ito's ward.

As soon as he entered the ward, Ito Yuhiko sat up with the help of Ito Emi, clasped his fists to Charlie Wade, and said piously: "Mr. Wade, thank you for saving the little girl's life and curing her. The injury, great grace, the Ito family is unforgettable!"

Charlie Wade really didn't expect that Ito Yuhiko's attitude was so good, so at this moment he was a little stunned.

Immediately, he smiled and said, "Mr. Ito is polite. Nanako and I are friends. I should do all these things."

Chapter 1809

Ito Yuihiko sighed and said apologetically: "There have been many things that have offended Mr. Charlie Wade before, and I hope Mr. Charlie Wade don't mind!"

Charlie Wade was also generous, smiled slightly, and said, "Mr. Ito is polite. I've turned over the previous misunderstandings and don't need to mention it again."

The subtext of Charlie Wade's words is actually, the misunderstanding will not be mentioned any more, and the 4.5 billion US dollars matter will not be mentioned again.

Although he was not short of money, he didn't want to spit out the money in his pocket easily.

It wasn't that he wanted to misuse Ito Yuihiko's money. The point was that even if the money was thrown out, he couldn't just spit it out in a few words.

At least, the money will have to be taken out by Nanako Ito when she needs it in the future, and it will be given to Nanako Ito.

But this may have to wait for Nanako Ito to inherit the Ito family.

Ito Yuihiko is also a good person. Hearing this, he knows what Charlie Wade means.

Four and a half billion US dollars is indeed a huge sum of money, but since Charlie Wade didn't want to give it, he couldn't chase Charlie Wade for it.

After all, Charlie Wade saved her daughter's life and made her completely healed. This is really a great kindness.

Otherwise, even if the daughter is not in danger, she will not be able to live without the torture of wheelchair and illness for the rest of her life.

Therefore, Ito Yuihiko also consciously did not mention the 4.5 billion US dollars, but asked very curiously: "Mr. Wade, how did you save the little girl Nanako by chance?"

Charlie Wade said truthfully: "I originally took over the production line of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall in Osaka. I heard that Ms. Nanako is in Kyoto, and it's only a 40-minute drive from Osaka to Kyoto. I wanted to meet her. I didn't expect this to happen. I met the ninjas of the Tenglin family and attacked her, so I killed them."

Charlie Wade couldn't help but sigh: "It's also a coincidence. If I arrive later, I might be helpless."

Ito Yuhiko also nodded in fear, and exclaimed, "Thanks to Mr. Wade!"

After finishing speaking, he couldn't restrain the angry cold voice: "??

The ninjas of the Tenglin family are loyal to Takahashi Machi. I don't understand why Takahashi Machi has acted on me! Everyone is competing with me. The Banks Familyy's cooperation, even if there are some holidays and misunderstandings on weekdays, there is no need to kill my daughter like this, right?!"

Charlie Wade frowned immediately: "What did you say? The Banks Familyy? Which Banks Familyy?!"

Ito Yuhiko explained: "It's the Banks Familyy, the top big family in China. They want to engage in ocean shipping and they have taken a fancy to a few ports in Japan, so they want to cooperate with Japanese families. Both the Ito family and the Takahashi family In their shortlist."

After speaking, Ito Yuihiko said again: "For our two families, whoever can cooperate with the Banks Familyy will have the opportunity to surpass each other and become the first family in Japan. Therefore, both of us attach great importance to this cooperation. , But I didn't expect that Takahashi Makishi would actually write like this!"

Charlie Wade suddenly remembered that he was in Kyoto, following the two Chinese people saved from the Iga family ninja.

Are they from the Banks Familyy? !

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade hurriedly asked again: "Mr. Ito, who did the Banks Familyy send to discuss cooperation with you this time?"

Ito Yuihiko said: "They sent their eldest grandson and eldest granddaughter, one named Fitz and the other named Zara."

Charlie Wade frowned and asked, "Aren't these two very young? Women are only in their early twenties, and men are only twenty-five and sixty?"

"Yes!" Ito said: "Fitz is almost twenty-five and sixty-five, Zara and Nanako should be about the same age, both 22 years old."

As he said, Ito sighed and said, "But, who would have thought that the Banks Familyy's siblings were bizarrely kidnapped after they came to Japan! The kidnapers also killed more than a dozen of Banks' entourage? It turned Tokyo upside down, and Machi Takahashi and I were both listed as suspects by the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department!"

Hearing this, Charlie Wade was basically sure that the siblings that he accidentally saved and let go in Kyoto were the eldest grandson and eldest granddaughter of the Banks Familyy! Thinking of this, Charlie Wade's expression suddenly became very ugly! The Banks Familyy!

Chapter 1810

Damn the Banks Familyy! At the beginning, it was the Banks Familyy who took the lead and united countless other families in Eastcliff to form an "anti-leaf alliance" that was an enemy of his father!

Although I am not sure whether the death of his parents is the result of the Banks Familyy and the Anti-Wade Alliance. However, at least you can be sure! In this matter, the Banks Familyy is absolutely unclear about the relationship! Unexpectedly, I saved the eldest grandson and eldest granddaughter of the enemy's family!

At this moment, Charlie Wade regretted it! The hatred of parents is not shared! Even if I didn't take the initiative to make the descendants of the Banks Familyy pay the price, I shouldn't save their lives! Thinking of this, Charlie Wade really wanted to slap himself a hundred times! Seeing his ugly expression, Ito Yuhiko hurriedly asked him: "Mr. Wade, do you know someone from the Banks Familyy?"

Charlie Wade sighed, shook his head and said, "I don't know, but I accidentally saved them in Kyoto..."

"What?!" Yuihiko Ito exclaimed: "The Banks brothers and sisters were taken to Kyoto? Could it be that Tenglin Ninja did it?"

"No." Charlie Wade shook his head and said: "Iga Ninja did it. At that time, after I solved Tenglin Ninja, I found Iga Ninja went to Ito's mansion to step on something. I was afraid that someone wanted to harm Nanako, so I followed along all the way. It was discovered that another group of ninjas had kidnapped the Banks Familyy brothers and sisters, and wanted to kill them before hiding their bodies in the Ito mansion to blame the Ito family."

Ito Yuihiko blurted out in amazement, "Who is instigated by those ninjas?! It is so vicious! This is to push my Ito family into the fire pit!"

Charlie Wade said, "I heard that they were instigated by a guy named Matsumoto."

"Matsumoto?!"

Ito Yuhiko, Ito Emi, and Nanako Ito were all shocked!

At this moment, they want to understand the ins and outs of the whole thing!

Ito Yuhiko shook his head and sighed: "When I jumped down from the viaduct, I thought it was Takahashi Makishi behind the scenes. I didn't expect that the instigator of all this was Ryoto Matsumoto! This bastard, secretly played the game. Let me and Takahashi Jinzhi suspicion each other, and want to pour the dirty water of kidnapping and murdering the Banks brothers and sisters on me. It's really vicious!"

Emi Ito spoke at this moment: "Brother, when you were resting, I heard some messages from the Metropolitan Police Department. I didn't understand it at first. Now after Mr. Wade mentioned this point, all the clues are correct. Got it!"

Ito Yuhiko hurriedly asked: "What information? What clue?!"

Emi Ito said truthfully: "Machi Takahashi's son was killed yesterday evening. The murderer blocked his convoy in the underground passage, locked him in the car and set it on fire to char..."

"What?!" Both Ito Yuhiko and Nanako Ito stared with surprise.

Emi Ito continued: "Later, Machi Takahashi was also assassinated by a ninja at home..."

"Machi Takahashi is dead?!"

Emi Ito nodded, and said, "There are more terrifying things..."

Takehiko Ito stabilized his mind, and said, "Say!"

"Matsumoto's family has more than 30 people, all of them have been killed!?"

Chapter 1811

The news that Matsumoto's family was destroyed completely shocked Ito Yuhiko.

He was already dumbfounded, and blurted out: "This will wipe out all the more than 30 Matsumotos. Isn't this too arrogant?! Who is so bold?"

Ito Emi shook her head and said, "I don't know the specifics. The police are also investigating this matter."

Charlie Wade said coldly at this time: "Do you still need to check it? It must be the Banks Familyy. I rescued the Banks Familyy siblings just in the middle of the night, and the Banks Familyy killed the Matsumoto family behind the scenes in the middle of the night."

Yuhiko Ito looked a little surprised, and murmured: "The Banks Familyy's behavior style is too harsh? Matsumoto Ryoto only acted on their subordinates and two younger generations. Even if they are revenge, they will take Matsumoto Ryoto. Isn't it enough to kill people? At most, kill their bodyguards. Why do you have to hurt so many people up and down?"

Charlie Wade said with a black face: "This should be the style of the Banks Familyy."

With that, Charlie Wade couldn't help thinking of his parents again. With the fierce style and vicious methods of the Banks Familyy, the death of their parents is probably directly caused by them! Thinking of this, Charlie Wade felt extremely upset! He was so damn blind that he saved and released the eldest grandson and eldest granddaughter of the Banks Familyy!

If you don't intervene, the two brothers and sisters would have become cold corpses by now! In that case, the talent pool of the younger generation of the Banks Familyy must have suffered heavy losses. More importantly, this can greatly blow the Banks Familyy's arrogance! This is not that Charlie Wade is narrow-minded, but that his parents' hatred is not shared!

Seeing Charlie Wade's ugly expression on the side, Ito Xiuhiko couldn't help asking: "Mr. Charlie Wade, are you okay?"

Charlie Wade chuckled and shook his head: "It's nothing, it's just a bit surprised."

What can he say? I can't tell Takehiko Ito about the death of his parents and his own life experience.

Ito Nodded, was silent for a moment, and suddenly sighed: "I didn't expect that in just a few days, things would turn into the current situation..."

As he said, he said with a serious face: "Now it seems that this incident seems to have been unintentionally, and the Ito family has become the biggest beneficiary."

Chapter 1812

Emi Ito agrees and said: "This is indeed the case. Originally, we competed fiercely with the Takahashi family, but I did not expect that both Takahashi Machi and Takahashi Eiji and his son were dead. Next, the Takahashi family will be very hurt."

"Also, Ryoto Matsumoto had been trying hard to catch up from behind. Now the entire Matsumoto family has been wiped out. All the business shares of the Matsumoto family have been released. Can the Takahashi family now have the ability to compete with us? Not to mention the families below. , If we take the opportunity to grab the resources released by the Takahashi and Matsumoto families, then we will soon be able to become the true Japanese first family!"

Ito Yuihiko nodded, but there was no sign of happiness in his expression. He sighed: "I wanted to be like a samurai, and frankly compete with Takahashi, but I didn't expect that I would become a snipe and clam. A fisherman who has gained nothing for nothing, is really unbelievable..."

At this moment, Charlie Wade looked at Ito Xiuhiko with admiration. Most people at this moment are probably excited and overwhelmed.

But what I didn't expect is that Ito Yuhiko still has this consciousness. At this time, Emi Ito counseled: "Brother, there is no need to worry about how to win. After all, the things encountered by these two families are not behind us. Even if we take advantage of it, Those who can pick it up have peace of mind, so the most urgent task is to quickly start cleaning the battlefield and take this opportunity to let the Ito family stand on top of their invincibility!"

Yuhiko Ito did not answer immediately, but turned to look at Charlie Wade, clasped his fists again, and said sincerely, "Mr. Wade, thank you for all this! If it were not for you, the end of the Ito family might not be much better than Takahashi Zhenzhi. If it weren't for you, I'm afraid that the Ito family and the Takahashi family have already been calculated by Matsumoto to ruin their homes. You are the benefactor of the Ito family!"

Seeing this, Ito Emi immediately stood up, knelt on one knee, clasped his fists, and said sincerely: "Mr. Wade, brother, he has trouble with his legs, so I would like to thank you on behalf of the Ito family. !"

Nanako Ito also hurriedly got up, and immediately knelt down with her aunt, and said in gratitude, "Charlie Wade, please also accept Nanako!"

Charlie Wade sighed lightly and said seriously: "You two, please get up. You don't need to do this. Although I helped the Ito family some by chance, I can escape this disaster. In the final analysis, it is the good fortune of the Ito family. "

Emi Ito and Nanako just got up.

Emi Ito said to Takehiko Ito: "Brother, Mr. Wade is right. In addition to Mr. Wade's help in this matter, I have to say that the good fortune of our Ito family is really rare! Not only can we take the opportunity to absorb the Takahashi family and the Matsumoto family The share released can also take advantage of the Takahashi family's vitality to promote cooperation with the Banks Familyyy. If you want to come to the Banks Family, now we only have the choice of the Ito family!"

"No!" Ito said without hesitation: "From now on, we will not cooperate with the Banks Family of any nature!"

Emi Ito couldn't help asking, "Brother, why is this?! Haven't you been looking forward to this collaboration?"

Ito Yuhiko said very seriously: "That's because I don't know enough about the Banks Familyyy! But now, through the Matsumoto family's affairs, I can see through the Banks Familyyy's behavior. The Banks Family is too hostile and has no bottom line. Even the underage children are not spared. To cooperate with this kind of family is to seek the skin of the tiger!"

Emi Ito looked terrified, and suddenly said: "What my brother said makes sense..The Banks Family's actions are indeed too cruel..."

As he said, Emi Ito suddenly remembered something and hurriedly said:

"Brother, I heard that another family in China ranked second only to the Banks Familyyy seems to want to get involved in ocean shipping. They have been competing with the Banks Familyyy for many years. Similar to our situation with the Takahashi family over the years, if conditions are right, we can cooperate with the Wade family."

Yuhiko Ito shook his head and said, "Forget it, the Banks Family and the Wade family are both very strong. In recent years, China's economic development has been advancing by leaps and bounds. The strength of these two families has also far surpassed other families in Asia, whether it is the Banks Familyyy or the Wade family. We are far from their opponents. To cooperate with the Banks Familyyy is to seek skin with the tiger, and to cooperate with the Wade family is to completely offend the tiger of the Banks Familyyy. In my opinion, we still should not put ourselves in such a dangerous situation!"

Speaking of this, Ito Yuihiko pondered for a moment and said seriously:

"In this way, starting from today, the Ito family will terminate all cooperation with foreign families, and will not accept any invitation for cooperation from foreign families. We have been working hard in the Japanese domestic market during this time. , Let's try our best, dig deep holes, and accumulate food! When our strength is equal to or similar to that of Wade and Banks, then consider cooperating with them!"

Chapter 1813

After hearing Ito Takehiko's words, Charlie Wade looked at him with a little admiration. It seems that Ito Yuhiko does have a good overall view, and he can control his inner greed, not to be greedy or aggressive. If you change to a very ambitious and greedy family, then I am afraid that you will immediately start to play high and play both ways.

On the one hand, it completely suppresses other families in the country, strives to eat their share in a short time, and makes oneself a fat man; On the one hand, we must cooperate with large overseas families as soon as possible to further open up profit channels and develop ourselves rapidly.

However, Takehiko Ito can clearly see the situation and the hidden dangers and hidden dangers. There is no doubt that the Banks Familyy is indeed the Tiger Wolf family. Such a family not only has no morals, but also has no basic humanity. When cooperating with such a family, you must be on guard at all times, otherwise it is very likely that the opponent will be severely stabbed behind you.

And if you fall to the Banks Familyy's competitors, it is equivalent to directly standing on the opposite side of the Banks Familyy, and the risk factor is even greater. Instead of doing this, it is better to close the door and try to develop yourself.

Ito Emi also understood her brother's worries and vision, and said seriously: "Brother, you are right. Emi is too dull to see this level."

Ito Yuhiko waved his hand: "Your thoughts are also normal. Starting a business is like a gamble. Either simply keep betting a little bit more, or you can have an unparalleled future; or after you reserve a certain amount of chips, learn to see and close.. ..."

Speaking of this, Ito Yuhiko sighed: "If it were before tonight, I might also be the same as you thought. I would take this opportunity to give him a big shot. However, I walked through the gate and lost both. After the legs, I finally knew the preciousness of life and the meaning of being alive, and after knowing that I almost lost Nanako, I became more aware of this..."

"So, I want to be more cautious now, and being steady is more important than anything else."

Emi Ito nodded seriously.

At this time, Yuhiko Ito glanced at Nanako Ito, and said seriously:

"Nanako, since you are now cured, from now on, stay in Tokyo with Odosan."

Nanako Ito hesitated slightly.

She likes the environment of Kyoto, and she is reluctant to leave Kyoto. However, thinking of the special situation now that I can no longer follow my own preferences, she immediately said: "Okay Odosan, I will stay with you!"

Ito Yuihiko said: "Let you stay in Tokyo not only to allow you to accompany me, but also to let you get in touch with the family's business and industry earlier and start preparing for succession."

Nanako Ito hurriedly said, "Odu-san, I have no experience in running a family business. Isn't it too early?"

Ito Yuihiko nodded and said seriously: "It is indeed a little earlier, but now the situation is special, my legs are gone, and it will be more inconvenient to move in the future..."

Speaking of this, Ito Yuhiko sighed a little lonely: "Moreover, I am a disabled person, and I am not suitable for showing up on behalf of the family, which will affect the family image."

"So, you must be ready to take my class now. At the very least, you must first assume the external image of the Ito family. Later, on the outside, you will represent the Ito family."

Chapter 1814

Emi Ito also persuaded: "Yes, Nanako, you should stand up to the stage for your father now and let your father teach you and make suggestions for you."

Nanako Ito nodded gently and said, "Okay, I will definitely work hard!"

Ito Yuhiko and Ito Emi were relieved to see Nanako's promise so refreshing.

Yuhiko Ito naturally has high hopes for his daughter, but Nanako was obsessed with martial arts before and did not have much interest in the operation and management of the family business.

At that time, Ito Yuhiko was still worrying about how to let his daughter gradually take care of her and focus on inheriting the family business.

I thought that I could carry my body for more than ten years, which would give Nanako Ito a few more years of free time.

Unexpectedly, things changed so much all at once.

Although most of Japanese culture originated from China, it has more or less localized development.

In China, most entrepreneurs put their interests first and do not pay much attention to external image issues.

However, after the Meiji Restoration in Japan, the degree of westernization was relatively high, so Japanese entrepreneurs attached great importance to the external image of enterprises.

To give the simplest example, if you do a clerical job in a Japanese company, you will have a headache in summer. Because most Japanese companies require their employees to wear formal attire during working hours, even in the middle of summer, they must wear a shirt, suit, and even a tie.

Therefore, Japanese entrepreneurs hold press conferences or attend public events, regardless of age, all in formal wear. And the Japanese like to bow, because they are talking here, and then they suddenly stand up ninety degrees and take a bow, then sit down and continue talking.

Therefore, Ito Takehiko's current state is particularly unsuitable as a company's external spokesperson.

Although Nanako Ito is young, she has a very good image and is especially in line with the Japanese aesthetics. She is responsible for the outside world. For the Ito family, it is the best choice.

Charlie Wade is also very optimistic about Nanako Ito, and encourages him: "If Nanako takes over the Ito family, it has the potential to turn the Ito family into an Internet celebrity company. The media will definitely beat the beauty president's personal settings. Setting up a successful establishment will enable the Ito family to achieve a multiplier effect in their careers."

When Nanako Ito heard Charlie Wade's words, she couldn't help being a little embarrassed, and said with a blushing face: "Charlie Wade should stop making a joke about me. I don't have the temperament of a beautiful president. It's nothing more than catching ducks on the shelves. I have to do it."

Charlie Wade earnestly said: "Don't be presumptuous. With your perfect image and temperament, you will definitely become a beauty entrepreneur crazily sought after by all of Japan in the future, and maybe you will become a business card of the Japanese business community overseas."

Nanako Ito was so complimented by Charlie Wade, she was ashamed and happy, and because she was a young girl who had just started her love, she had no ability to hide her own ability in this kind of thing, so she could only lower her head deeper and deeper.

Ito Yuhiko immediately saw his daughter's extraordinary. At this moment, he was already certain that his daughter had fallen in love with the Chinese man Charlie Wade. Observing for a moment, he strengthened his opinion. At this moment, as a father, he felt a little melancholy in his heart, but at the same time, he felt a little relieved for his daughter's emotional maturity.

So he opened his mouth and said: "Huimei, Nanako, you two go out first, I have something to say, I want to chat with Mr. Wade in private!"

Chapter 1815

Ito Emi and Nanako Ito didn't think much about it. Seeing Ito Yuihiko was about to chat with Charlie Wade in private, they got up to leave and left the ward.

After the two people left, Ito looked at Charlie Wade and said seriously: "Mr. Wade, what happened before was offensive, and I still have to apologize to you. Thank you for repaying your grievances with morality and saving the little girl of The Ito family, otherwise, if it really makes the Banks Family think that it was the Ito family who killed the Banks Family's heirs, the Ito family is afraid that they will face annihilation?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "Mr. Ito is polite. I saved Nanako out of a friend relationship. As for indirectly? Helping the Ito family, you don't have to be too polite to me. After all, I took your money. There is an old saying about taking money from others and helping others to eliminate disasters. I can't take money without doing anything, right?"

Ito Yuhiko was stunned. The reason why he was dumbfounded was also completely shocked by Charlie Wade's shamelessness. Charlie Wade's words are very clear. Take people's money and fight against people. This means that the 4.5 billion US dollars can't be taken for nothing. You have to do something for the Ito family.

Therefore, he has helped the Ito family get rid of the disaster, and the money can be taken with ease. Ito Yuhiko was shocked, more or less painful. Although he did feel that his daughter's life was more valuable than 45 billion U.S. dollars, he would still feel distressed if he really threw 4.5 billion dollars in.

However, he knew very well in his heart that if you lose the US$4.5 billion, you have lost. He has no other way to get the money back, or recover the loss to a certain extent, so there is no need to deal with this issue now. More tangled.

Thinking of this, he smiled awkwardly and said to Charlie Wade: "Mr. Wade, your Oracle Pharmaceutical has a very strong momentum of development. After the annexation of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall, I believe there must be a broader prospect. I don't know if we can, but How about a certain amount of cooperation on this?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Mr. Ito, there is actually nothing to cooperate in this matter. Oracle Pharmaceutical is the foundation of my life and I will not give up my share of it."

Ito Yuihiko hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, I don't want your share, but I really want to have a certain degree of in-depth cooperation with you. In the future, the Ito family will hand it over to Nanako. You and Nanako are friends, and I think It can be concluded that Nanako trusts you very much. You can try various forms of in-depth cooperation. This is good for you and us, and it is truly mutually beneficial."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "I will naturally consider this in the future. If the time is right, I will definitely not reject cooperation with Miss Nanako."

"That's good....."

Ito Yuihiko breathed a sigh of relief and said seriously: "Mr. Wade, I can see that Nanako likes you very much. If you two can have any possibility, then I'm so relieved.."

Charlie Wade said immediately: "Mr. Ito, Ms. Nanako is still very young. Don't talk nonsense about this kind of things. If it spreads out and gets misunderstood, it will ruin Nanako's reputation."

Ito Yuhiko waved his hand: "My daughter has been raised for 22 years. No one in this world knows her better than me. I can see that she really likes you, and she likes you sincerely, if possible. I also suggest that you stay in Japan for development. You have Oracle Pharmaceutical and Nanako has the Ito family. If you two can combine to become a husband and wife, you will definitely become the top existence in Asia and even the world."

Charlie Wade smiled and asked, "Mr. Ito should have investigated me? You should know that I am already married."

Chapter 1816

"I know." Yuhiko Ito smiled slightly and said indifferently: "What about being married? You are married, doesn't Nanako still like you? So, it's good for you and for Nanako, We don't care about your past and present. What we care about is your future!"

With that, Ito Yuihiko said very seriously: "Mr. Wade, after today's events, I have a very clear understanding of life. When people live, everything has meaning. Being rich means being rich, and being poor means being poor. If you die, no matter whether it is rich or poor, it will be nothing."

"If it were before today, I would never let my daughter marry a foreign man, but at this moment, these are no longer important to me. What is important is how to make my daughter happy; The important thing is, how can my daughter have the best life!"

"Mr. Wade has the ability, strength, and the charm that a strong man should have. Nanako is cultivated, has a background, is external and internal, and she likes you so much. I believe you must have some feelings for Nanako in your heart, otherwise If you did, you would never travel all the way to Japan and make a special trip to Kyoto to see her, save her life, heal her injuries, and even drive a few hundred kilometers in the middle of the night to send her to Tokyo to see me."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Mr. Ito, it is undeniable that Nanako is indeed a very good girl, but I still said that. I'm already married."

Ito Yuihiko waved his hand and said: "Don't always prevaricate me by getting married. You can divorce if you get married. Even if you don't leave, you can marry Nanako in Japan. As long as you don't go back, there is no problem."

Charlie Wade shook his head and smiled: "Mr. Ito, I really appreciate some of the precious qualities of Miss Nanako, but what you said is still impossible."

After a pause, Charlie Wade said again: "And I will not stay in Japan, today, tomorrow at the latest, I will return to China."

Ito Yuihiko smiled and said seriously: "Mr. Wade, you have an old Chinese saying that good birds choose wood and live in them. I have investigated your background. Forgive me to be honest, your current wife is not worthy of you! "

Charlie Wade looked at Ito Yuihiko non-commitantly, and asked with a smile: "Mr. Ito seems to have studied Chinese culture very much. Just now he could say the six words of 'dug a hole deep and accumulate grain', and now there is 'good bird'. "Choose wood and live', he seems to be a Chinese expert too!"

Ito said seriously: "When I was young, I admired Togo Heihachiro, who led the Japanese fleet to defeat the Russian navy in the Battle of Tsushima. It is said that Heihachiro Togo carried a waist plate with seven characters engraved on him: A lifetime bow. Yangming, I only knew then that Heihachiro Togo had been influenced by the Chinese sage White Yangming throughout his life, so I started to follow his footsteps, read Chinese history books, and learned a lot of Chinese culture and classical literature."

Charlie Wade nodded and said with a smile: "Mr. Ito is so studious, really admirable, but I still want to make it clear to you: I will not divorce my wife! So, just ask Mr. Ito not to mention it again."

Charlie Wade said again: "Also, I am leaving Japan soon, so please don't mention this to Nanako, so as not to have a bad negative impact on her."

Ito Yuihiko looked at Charlie Wade and said seriously: "Mr. Wade, you Chinese pay attention to the cycle of fate, you see, before tonight, it was Nanako who was injured sitting in a wheelchair. The doctor also vowed to say that she might live a lifetime. Can't stand up anymore, but now?" As Ito Yuhiko said, he reached out and patted his amputated knee lightly, and laughed at himself: "Now, Nanako, who was declared by the doctor that it is impossible to stand up again, stands up again, but I lost my legs, so I said Ah, this life is a cycle!"

Charlie Wade frowned and said: "Mr. Ito, I don't quite understand what you mean."

Ito said with a smile: "I mean, even if you leave Japan today and swear that you will never come back again, when the wheel of fortune turns, it is likely to send you back here, even if you are Can't help it!"

"The same is true for your wife. Even if you think you will never divorce her, the wheel of fortune may one day separate you!"

"Everything in the world is confusing and more confusing. Mr. Wade is still young and there are still decades to go in his life. Why should he speak so absolute now?"

Chapter 1817

The words of Ito Yuihiko made Charlie Wade more or less surprised. First of all, he did not expect that Ito Yuihiko would know so much about Chinese culture; Secondly, he did not expect that Ito would mention the cycle of fate.

He doesn't know whether the Japanese believe in Feng Shui or not, but now, the Japanese believe in fate at least. These words of Yuihiko Ito seem to be nonsense, but they also contain a bit of truth. What he said was not a complete catch. After all, no one can say good about fate.

He thought of Orion Exeor, the hundred-year-old Fengshui master he met in Wade Mountain in Eastcliff. Orion Exeor relied on the deduction of the cycle of fate that finally met himself in Wade Mountain.

It was also that he personally broke the fate of Wade Shoal so that he could fly into the sky.

That old gentleman must have a deeper understanding and perception of the fate cycle. It is a pity that the old man is on the other side of the ocean and may not have the opportunity to meet again in the future.

Otherwise, I really want to sit opposite him, sip tea, and have a long conversation.

However, at this moment, Charlie Wade suddenly thought of what Ito Takehiko said. There is a cycle of fate, maybe in the future, I will meet

Orion Exeor again. By the same token, if you leave Tokyo or Japan today, you may come back someday in the future.

Even if I don't come back, I should have the opportunity to meet Nanako Ito again at a certain time and in a certain place. Thinking of this, Charlie Wade sighed lightly and said to Takehiko Ito: "Mr. Ito, I think we should leave the future to the future. After all, neither you nor I can control our fate."

Ito Yuihiko nodded and said earnestly: "Mr. Wade, from today, the door of the Ito family will always be opened for you. In the future, the Ito family will replenish its energy and will not interact with any other overseas family or business. Cooperation, if one day, if you have enough ambitions and want to expand your horizons, the Ito family can cooperate with you unconditionally at any time!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Thank you Mr. Ito for your kindness, but I am a person with no ambitions, no schooling, no ambition and no ability, so let's go."

In Charlie Wade's view, although his attitude towards Ito Yuihiko had changed to a certain extent, it was not enough to let him put his guard down. Therefore, Charlie Wade didn't want him to know his future plans. In fact, in Charlie Wade's heart, he very much hopes to use Oracle Pharmaceutical to make the career snowball bigger and bigger. Because if he wants to avenge his parents, it is useless to rely solely on his personal strength. Not only his personal strength must be strong, but his economic strength is even more important!

Otherwise, how could he be able to deal with a behemoth like the Banks Family alone?

Among other things, just from the Banks Family's ability to cross the river with the Raptors, and directly kill all the local Japanese snakes and the Matsumoto family, it is enough to see how strong this family is. This not only shows that the Banks Family has an astonishing number of top masters, but also shows that they are extremely mobile. Fitz and Zara have an accident in Japan, and they can immediately send a large number of masters. And it's not worse than the US military.

If there is not enough strength, no one can single out such a family based on individual ability.

Not to mention the combat power of dozens of hundreds of masters swarming, just the relatives and friends around him, they are unable to protect.

Chapter 1818

Therefore, Charlie Wade knew very well that if he wanted to truly compete face-to-face with a family like the Banks Family in the future, he must have a strong comprehensive strength and be brave.

What's more, I haven't been able to determine how much responsibility the Wade family will bear for the death of their parents.

If the Wade family had a major responsibility that they could not shirk in the death of their parents, then they might face the two top families of the Banks Family and the Wade family in the future.

Therefore, Charlie Wade has decided that after returning to Aurouss Hill, he will keep a low profile and develop Oracle Pharmaceutical. Starting from Oracle Pharmaceutical, step by step, he formed his own business empire. Only in this way can I have the opportunity to face-to-face with the Banks Family and the Wade Family, and even trample them under their feet! Ito Yuihiko didn't know Charlie Wade's true identity, let alone what Charlie Wade was thinking. Seeing that he seemed to be really ambitious, he couldn't help but persuade:

"Mr. Wade, you have Oracle Pharmaceutical as your foundation and cash in your hand. Why don't you spread your business?"

"Take the current ocean transportation as an example. The vast majority of international oil and bulk trade logistics rely on shipping. Now the international economic situation is declining, and this is a good opportunity for bargain-hunting!"

"Furthermore, your China is the country with the best economic development momentum at present, and it also has the most complete industrial system. Export trade is rising year by year. China's demand for ocean transportation from all over the world will increase, and the prospects for ocean transportation will be even greater. For the vastness!"

"If Mr. Wade is willing to do it, you can start from the Chinese mainland. If you need to expand to Japan's port and shipping business, the Ito family will definitely cooperate with you. Even if it is your green leaf, I am willing!"

At this time, Ito Yuhiko had a very simple thought in his heart. Four and a half billion dollars will definitely not come back. Oracle Pharmaceutical will definitely not be able to buy shares. In this case, it is better to find a way to attract Charlie Wade step by step. If Charlie Wade can be recruited to Ito's house as a son-in-law, what else should I worry about in the future?

Charlie Wade has the strength and ability, and saved her daughter's life. More importantly, his daughter loves him. Before, I wanted my daughter to marry Ichiro Kobayashi. It wasn't that I had to force my daughter to marry the Kobayashi family, but that my daughter at that time was simply a silly girl with powerless love.

She doesn't have anyone she likes at all, and she doesn't know if she will move that muscle. Instead of this, I might as well choose the most suitable one for her. However, she obviously already has her favorite object now. As a father, he certainly hopes that his daughter will get what he wants. Besides, he also felt that a man like Charlie Wade was indeed a good choice to be a son-in-law.

For the happiness of his daughter, he is even willing to let the entire Ito family become his daughter's dowry. Anyway, he is this one daughter, everything is for her daughter to be happy and happy all her life. As for the assets of the Ito family, it doesn't matter whether the surname is Ito, Yamada, Watanabe, or even Wade.

Because these assets will still be in the hands of their daughters, son-in-law, and the offspring born to their daughters. In Ito's view, the real inheritance is blood, not surname.

Charlie Wade only smiled at Ito Yuhiko's suggestion, and said seriously: "It's true that my current development focus is to do a good job of Oracle Pharmaceutical. If Oracle Pharmaceutical can develop, then consider other businesses."

Chapter 1819

Seeing that Charlie Wade declined his proposal temporarily, Ito sighed regretfully. He really hoped that Charlie Wade would be able to set up the stall of ocean shipping. Because at this stage, the bulk of Asian ocean shipping is in China. More than half of the top ten busiest ports in the world are in China. Only with such a huge import and export trade can the huge ocean shipping industry be supported.

This is beyond the reach of Japan.

Therefore, even if the Ito family wants to do it themselves, there is not enough market and demand support in the local area, and it is difficult for a clever woman to cook without rice.

So he said to Charlie Wade: "Mr. Wade, the Ito family will gradually hand over to Nanako for operation and management. If you change your mind, you can contact her at any time. I believe you will be able to establish a very good foundation for cooperation."

Charlie Wade nodded lightly and said seriously: "If I have this idea, I will definitely contact Miss Nanako."

Ito Yuihiko smiled and said: "Nanako is a good girl. I dare say that in terms of overall conditions, Japan may not be able to find a better girl than her. Whoever marries her is to marry the best Japanese Yamato Nadeshiko. Will become the envy of men all over the world."

Charlie Wade smiled kindly, but did not answer.

Knowing that freezing three feet is not a day's cold, Ito said: "Mr. Wade, you and the little girl are tired and have no rest at night, or I will send you to the house to take a rest first."

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "No need Mr. Ito, I have something to do, I have to hurry back to Osaka, so I won't bother too much."

"That's how it works." Ito Takehiko seriously said: "Mr. Wade, you drove over overnight. You have not rested or even eaten any food. If you just leave, then the hospitality that my Ito family ancestors passed down, Wouldn't it be reduced to a laughing stock?"

As he said, he didn't wait for Charlie Wade to refuse, and hurriedly pressed the pager on the bedside, and said: "Let Huimei and Nanako come in."

After a while, Nanako Ito and Emi Ito knocked gently on the door and entered the ward.

Nanako Ito asked softly, "Odosan, what's your order?"

Yuihiko Ito said to Emi Ito: "Emi, Mr. Wade and Nanako have worked very hard all night. You arrange for someone to send them back to the house to rest. Remember to call ahead and let the chef prepare the best dishes!"

Ito Emi hurriedly said, "Good brother!"

Charlie Wade said sincerely: "Mr. Ito, really don't bother, I just drive back to Osaka directly."

Ito Yuhiko said very solemnly: "Mr. Wade, even if you want to go back to Osaka, you should at least sit down at the house for a while, eat a meal, have a cup of tea, and then leave!"

Nanako Ito also persuaded from the side: "Yeah, Charlie Wade, the mansion is not far from here, you can eat something, take a rest and set off again, it's not light yet!"

In the middle of the night, the two arrived in Tokyo by car for more than three hours, and it was only four o'clock in the morning.

And it's winter again now, and it's already late, and it will take at least two hours before dawn.

Seeing that both father and daughter were so polite, Charlie Wade had to agree, and said, "If this is the case, then I'm better off being respectful."

Upon hearing this, Emi Ito hurriedly said, "Then I will arrange the convoy. Now there are a lot of people from the Metropolitan Police Department. They are escorted and protected all the way. Safety is definitely guaranteed."

Ito Yuihiko nodded and exhorted: "You must be a good student to entertain Mr. Wade."

.....

Chapter 1820

Emi Ito quickly arranged a team to accompany him, and Charlie Wade still drove the car he came.

Nanako Ito also got into Charlie Wade's car without hesitation.

Afterwards, Charlie Wade drove the car and, under the leadership of the convoy, went to the residence of the Ito family in Tokyo.

Although Tokyo is one of the most expensive and busy cities in the world, the Ito family also owns a private manor in a quiet place.

The entire manor is designed with Japanese-style ancient buildings, which is very simple, but it reveals low-key luxury everywhere.

Charlie Wade found that even the wood used to build the house was extraordinary.

It seems that the top big families have no place to spend more money, so when building and decorating, they are completely trying to spend money everywhere. If you can use high-end ones, you definitely don't need ordinary ones, you can use imported ones. Never use local ones.

In the final analysis, it is still a sentence, only choose the expensive, not the right one.

Because Emi Ito called in advance, the servants of the entire Ito residence were all neatly dressed, waiting respectfully at the entrance of the residence, in the courtyard and inside the villa.

Charlie Wade parked the car and, led by Nanako Ito, walked through the beautiful courtyard and walked all the way to the door of the villa. All the servants along the way bowed 90 degrees, with a very humble attitude. The villa of the Ito family in Tokyo is a huge multi-storey wooden building. The whole building looks like a huge ancient temple, and the internal space is surprisingly large.

As soon as he arrived at the entrance of the main hall, Nanako Ito suddenly leaned down and knelt on the ground, holding both hands empty, and said to Charlie Wade: "Charlie Wade, please let me change slippers for you!"

Charlie Wade was stunned, and hurriedly waved his hand: "No need, no, give me slippers, I'll just do it myself."

Nanako Ito insisted, "I should help you to change it. This is a Japanese tradition, and you should just go to the countryside and do as the customs."

Charlie Wade thought to himself, China has long been equal between men and women, why in Japan, women still kneel and change shoes for men?

But then I think about it, since it is a custom of others, they may not feel that there is anything wrong with this. If they insist on opposing it, they will break the other party's rules.

So he had to lift his feet up and said sincerely: "Then work hard, Miss Nanako."

Nanako Ito, who was still wearing a kimono, looked up at Charlie Wade, and smiled ashamed. She was so beautiful.

Afterwards, she gently held Charlie Wade's feet with both hands, and gently changed him a pair of slippers, then slowly stood up and said to Charlie Wade: "Charlie Wade, please!"

Charlie Wade nodded slightly and walked in with her.

Nanako Ito introduced to him: "This house has a history of more than a hundred years. It was severely damaged during the Great Kanto Earthquake.

Because the repair cost was too high, no one paid attention to it. Later, it was taken by his father. I bought it and spent huge sums of money to repair it, and it looks like it is now."

Charlie Wade asked curiously: "Mr. Ito seems to have a soft spot for old houses? The house in Kyoto looks much older than this one."

Nanako Ito smiled softly: "In fact, it's mainly because I like this style of architecture. After I moved from Kyoto to Tokyo at the age of fourteen, I have not been accustomed to life in Tokyo, so my father bought it here and spent a lot of money. Money to repair it will become what it is now."

With that, Nanako Ito said with emotion: "But I still like Kyoto more."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "This mansion is quiet in the noisy, and it has an ancient flavor and charm. It is already very good, but the Kyoto one is indeed better."

Nanako Ito said in a sad tone: "My father asked me to take over the family affairs. It seems that I will rarely have the opportunity to go back in the future..."

After finishing speaking, she looked up at Charlie Wade, and asked a little pleading: "Charlie Wade, (have a request. I wonder if you can agree to it?"

Chapter 1821

Hearing Nanako's words, Charlie Wade immediately opened his mouth and said: "You speak, if I can, I will agree."

Nanako Ito hesitated for a moment, looked at him expectantly, and said seriously: "I want to ask Charlie Wade to leave later..."

"Later?"

Charlie Wade was slightly surprised, and subconsciously asked: "How long is that late? To tell you the truth, I actually plan to return to China tonight, and the plane is still waiting in Osaka."

Nanako Ito's eyelids were hot, her eyelids drooped slightly, and she whispered: "This...this mainly depends on your schedule. If time is tight, a few hours are all right..."

With that said, Nanako Ito hurriedly added: "Don't get me wrong, Charlie Wade. The main reason is that both father and Tanaka-san are seriously injured and hospitalized. Aunt is not only busy with family affairs, but also busy taking care of them..."

"And my mind is a little confused now, I don't know where to start for the time being, I want you to stay with me for a few more hours..."

Charlie Wade thought for a moment and nodded: "Then I will stay until the afternoon, because it will take four hours to return to Osaka."

Nanako Ito asked, "You booked a flight from Osaka?"

"No." Charlie Wade said truthfully: "My friend helped get a private jet, which is now parked at Osaka Airport."

Nanako Ito asked tentatively: "Charlie Wade, can you let the people you travel with, come to Tokyo by plane first, and then you go to Tokyo airport to meet them and fly back to China? In this case, You can save four hours of driving, okay?"

After finishing speaking, Nanako Ito hurriedly said: "If it is inconvenient, it doesn't matter, you needn't feel embarrassed..."

Charlie Wade thought for a while, his original plan was to drive back to Osaka first, then meet Cameron Isaac, Don Albertt, and Liam and fly back to Aurouss Hillll from Osaka.

However, the method Nanako Ito said is also a good solution. Let Cameron Isaac and the others come directly to Tokyo by plane, so they don't have to drive this way.

Moreover, it is normal for Nanako Ito to feel at a loss and helpless for a while after the Ito family has experienced an accident. You might as well stay here for another day, and you can also inquire about the Banks Family's actions in Tokyo.

Thinking of this, he said to Nanako Ito: "If this is the case, then I will wait for dawn to say hello to my friends and see their situation." Nanako Ito clenched her fists excitedly, and said happily, "That's great!"

The cheerful Nanako Ito quickly invited Charlie Wade to her restaurant. It is said that the restaurant at home is actually bigger than a medium-sized restaurant outside.

Charlie Wade feels like entering a Japanese-style buffet restaurant, where there are several busy chefs, and they are making all kinds of Japanese meals.

Nanako Ito asked Charlie Wade expectantly: "Charlie Wade, do you like any of these meals? Just say if you like them, and the chefs will prepare them for you immediately."

Chapter 1822

Charlie Wade looked around for a week, and didn't feel any sense of all kinds of delicacies, so he smiled slightly and said, "Thank you, please give me a bowl of ramen."

Nanako Ito hurriedly said to the chef responsible for making ramen: "Yokoyama-san, please make two bowls of ramen. Charlie Wade's bowl needs double noodles!"

The chef respectfully said: "Good lady, please wait a while with Mr. Charlie Wade."

.....

at the same time.

Just when Charlie Wade and Nanako Ito were having breakfast at Ito's house, in the presidential suite of the St. Regis Tokyo, Zayne, who was in his 50s, was already out of bed.

He was holding a cup of coffee and a cigarette in between, looking at the Tokyo street scene still shrouded in the dark outside the window, and he was surprised.

When the cigarette burned out, he poked the cigarette butt into the ashtray, then lit another one, and asked his confidant Mr. Palmer: "How are the young masters and young ladies now?"

Mr. Palmer checked the time and said, "The plane should land in Eastcliff in half an hour. I have already informed the family that the wife has already rushed to the airport with the doctor. When the plane lands, he will immediately take the young master. He and Miss sent to the family hospital for a comprehensive examination."

"Yeah." Zayne nodded, and said with a gloomy expression: "This time the incident is so dangerous, I almost put both Fitz and Zara brothers and sisters in Tokyo! This damn Matsumoto beloved, even if it is annihilated. He is full of doors, and it is difficult to quench my anger!"

Mr. Palmer hurriedly said: "Master, Matsumoto's family has become ashes, you don't have to be too angry."

Zayne gritted his teeth and licked his smoke before he said fiercely: "After all, it is in Tokyo. If it is not so convenient to do things without leaving, I will definitely let Ruoli catch Mr. Matsumoto in front of me. Cut him a thousand times, and he will die!"

Mr. Palmer said, "Master, the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department has guessed that this incident was caused by our Banks Family. When you are resting, they have been protesting with me. They feel that we have made such a big disturbance and they still don't say hello. Too much, and threatened to submit this matter to the Homeland Security Council for investigation and handling, thinking that this matter has violated their homeland security."

"Infringement of homeland security?" Zayne coldly snorted, "A good man Matsumoto in a small area can be hooked on homeland security? I think they are not satisfied that we killed so many people in Tokyo. Can't hang on it?"

"Yes." Mr. Palmer said truthfully: "The Tokyo government is also very dissatisfied. It feels that this matter is too cruel and affects Tokyo's image very much, so they decided to investigate it to the end."

"Moreover, the international airports of Tokyo and several surrounding cities have entered a state of emergency. They are strictly investigating all departing foreigners, and even announced that private jets that are temporarily not allowed to leave the country and charter flights take off. Our private jets They are all monitored. Things may be a little tricky."

Zayne asked him, "Which other airports in this state are relatively more relaxed?"

Mr. Palmer said: "At present, there should be only Osaka Airport, because Osaka is quite far away, hundreds of kilometers."

Zayne nodded and said, "Then let them spread out, find a way to take public transportation to Osaka, and then transfer another plane from China. Remember not to transfer from Eastcliff, from China to the sea, so as not to The Japanese customs are vigilant, and then take Ruoli and the people who actually participated in the action back to the country tonight."

"Good master!" Mr. Palmer nodded respectfully, and then asked again:

"Master, when do you plan to go back then?"

"I'm not in a hurry." Zayne smiled and said coldly: "The Takahashi family suffered heavy losses, the Matsumoto family was completely destroyed, and Ito Yuhiko was disabled. Tokyo is very safe now. I will stay for two more days."

After all, he checked the time and said, "Mr. Palmer, you go to prepare some gifts for visiting patients in the morning, and go with me to the hospital at noon to take a look at Takehiko Ito. This is our only partner at the moment. !"

Chapter 1823

Charlie Wade and Nanako Ito had breakfast together, and the sky in Tokyo was already bright.

Nanako Ito said to Charlie Wade: "Charlie Wade, I will ask the servant to prepare a guest room for you. You can take a short rest. I haven't slept all night. It's too hard."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly, shook his head and said, "Don't bother, I'm not tired."

"How can you not be tired?" Nanako Ito couldn't hide his distress. "Since the battle with Tenglin Ninja last night, Charlie Wade has never rested for a while, and he has gone through two battles and drove hundreds of kilometers."

Charlie Wade smiled and asked her, "You haven't rested, do you feel tired?"

Nanako Ito looked slightly startled, and he thought about it for a moment, and said: "I really don't feel tired at all. Not only I don't feel tired, but I also feel like I have inexhaustible strength all over my body. The whole person is in a very good state... ."

After that, she hurriedly asked, "Charlie Wade, this should be the effect of the medicine you gave me?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said with a smile: "Yes, that medicine can not only cure injuries, but also improve the body's ability and endurance, so people will not get tired so easily."

Nanako Ito couldn't help feeling: "This medicine is really amazing. If it produces energy, Charlie Wade's Oracle Pharmaceutical will definitely become the world's top pharmaceutical company, right?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "This medicine can't be mass-produced. It is a very rare thing in itself. It was left by ancient Chinese genius doctors. If you take one, you will lose one..."

In fact, the medicinal materials needed for refining the rejuvenating pills are not difficult to obtain.

But the key is that this pill must be refined with reiki.

Aura is like the powerful energy that turns steel into molten iron during steelmaking.

Without this energy, just pile a pile of iron ore together for 10,000 years, and iron ore cannot turn into steel.

Therefore, it is not difficult for Charlie Wade to make this medicine, but the possibility of mass production is minimal.

Moreover, he is not going to put such a strong medicine out for mass production.

This thing is too bad for ordinary people. If it comes out in large numbers, it is likely to cause a shock in the world, and it is definitely not a good thing for him.

?? When Nanako Ito heard him say this, she regretted a little bit, but didn't think about it any more.

Charlie Wade checked the time and said, "I'll call a friend and tell them about coming to Tokyo."

Nanako Ito nodded expectantly.

Charlie Wade took out his cell phone and called Cameron Isaac.

As soon as the phone was connected, Cameron Isaac asked him: "Master, where did you go? No one was seen all night..."

Charlie Wade said, "I'm in Tokyo."

"Ah?" Cameron Isaac became more puzzled, and asked, "Didn't you say that you are going to see friends in Kyoto? Why did you go to Tokyo again? This is a few hundred kilometers away."

Charlie Wade said: "Something happened to my friend's house, so I'll accompany her to take a look."

Then he asked, "By the way, Isaac, how are things going on in Osaka?"

Cameron Isaac hurriedly said, "Going back to the young master, things are going well. Today, the day will basically be over. When do you think we will return to Aurouss Hill?"

Charlie Wade said: "I called you just to talk about this. I have something to do in Tokyo. After you get it done, you will fly to Tokyo first. Then I will go to the airport and meet you. Let's be together. Tokyo flies to Aurouss Hill."

Cameron Isaac blurted out: "Master, private jets can't fly in Tokyo now! It's restricted by Tokyo."

Charlie Wade asked in surprise: "Why are private jets restricted here in Tokyo?"

Chapter 1824

Cameron Isaac said: "I heard from my Japanese subordinates that in the past two days in Tokyo, there have been many very serious criminal cases in succession, and they seem to be related to foreign forces. Therefore, Tokyo has strengthened customs control and private jets. If you want to leave Japan, only Osaka can fly in the entire country, and you can't fly anywhere else."

Hearing this, Charlie Wade understood in his heart.

Strict control here in Tokyo must be inseparable from the fact that the Banks Family killed Ryoto Matsumoto.

In fact, if you think about it carefully, you can figure out why.

Take the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department as an example. If someone violates the law in Tokyo, they definitely want to punish the perpetrator through normal legal means.

However, a group of foreigners suddenly came out on their own turf and abused lynching against their own nationals, and the methods were so brutal. This kind of thing cannot be tolerated by any country's security department.

Therefore, it can be seen that the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department, and even the Japanese Homeland Security Department, hope to catch the Banks Family's lynching gangsters as soon as possible, in order to emulate them, and at the same time save a bit of face.

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade sighed softly and said, "Forget it, you guys wait for me in Osaka. I will drive over in the afternoon."

Cameron Isaac hurriedly said, "Master, it's too hard to drive, such a long distance, and it's still snowing here in Osaka. The highway is closed because of the thick snow. You may not be able to make it in six or seven hours. Leave the car at Tokyo Airport and let my staff drive by themselves. You fly directly from Tokyo to Osaka. See you at the airport, so the time will be faster."

Charlie Wade asked him: "I have no restrictions on flying from Tokyo to Osaka, right?"

Cameron Isaac said: "There are currently no restrictions on flying within Japan. They can't control the entire domestic and overseas aviation at once, but it should be tightened gradually."

Charlie Wade said, "Let's leave tonight, no delay, I will try to arrive at Osaka Airport at seven, and then we will meet and take off from Osaka Airport on time at eight."

Cameron Isaac hurriedly said: "Good master, then we will arrive at Osaka Airport before seven o'clock to wait for you."

"Ok, see you tonight!"

Charlie Wade hung up the phone, and Nanako Ito hurriedly asked, "Charlie Wade, what happened to it?"

Charlie Wade nodded, and told Nanako Ito about the situation.

After hearing it, Nanako Ito said: "Then I will help Charlie Wade look at the ticket now."

With that said, he quickly took out his mobile phone and checked the flight information.

"Charlie Wade, there is a flight that takes off at 5:40 in the afternoon. It takes an hour to get to Osaka and land at 6:40, okay?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "The time is just right, so choose this one."

Nanako Ito said: "Charlie Wade, give me the passport number. I'll book the ticket. I'll take you to the airport in the afternoon!"

The short-haul ticket itself is not expensive, so Charlie Wade didn't decline, and said to Nanako Ito, "Thank you, Nanako."

Nanako Ito smiled knowingly: "You and I don't have to be so polite!"

After that, she remembered something and asked Charlie Wade: "By the way, Charlie Wade, would you like to bring some gifts for your family when you go back tonight? Shopping in Tokyo is still very convenient, usually in the afternoon, it will be more lively, if you want to go shopping, I have lunch with you, OK?"

Charlie Wade thought, he must bring some gifts to his wife after he has been away for so many days, and his mother-in-law, Elaine Ma, also hoped that she would bring something for her, so she still took time to go out and stroll around.

So, he said to Nanako: "Then you will take me hard to take me around, I am really not familiar with Tokyo."

Nanako Ito smiled and said, "No problem, I will accompany you to Ginza in the afternoon."

After that, she thought of her father Ito Yuihiko, and asked Charlie Wade: "Charlie Wade, I want to go to the hospital to deliver meals to my father at noon. Is it convenient for you to come with me?"

Charlie Wade agreed without thinking, "Okay, let's go to the hospital first, and then go shopping."

Chapter 1825

After breakfast, Charlie Wade, who had nothing to do, was dragged by Nanako Ito to her boudoir.

Just like in Kyoto, Nanako invited Charlie Wade to sit on the tatami in the boudoir, burned a plate of incense, and prepared a cup of Japanese matcha for Charlie Wade.

Then she said to Charlie Wade: "Charlie Wade, I want to take a look at the financial statements and detailed information of the family industry, and get familiar with the overall operation of the family as soon as possible. If you feel bored, please tell me."

Charlie Wade was free, so he said casually: "I have nothing to do, you are busy, I will play with the phone for a while."

Charlie Wade doesn't really like to play with mobile phones, and unlike young people nowadays, he always keeps his hands on the phone.

The reason why he wants to look at his cell phone is to check the news in Tokyo to see if he can find more useful information.

Nanako Ito leaned over in front of the book case and looked at the confidential family data attentively. The information in her hand was all top secret, but she did not shy away from Charlie Wade beside her.

Charlie Wade flipped through some local news, and one piece of news aroused his interest.

The news said that relatively serious violent incidents have occurred in Tokyo. As the number one violent organization in Japan, the Yakuza group issued a message to its members across the country, claiming to use violence to curb violence and use violence to maintain public order in Tokyo.

The Yakuza group is the head of the Japanese gang, and it is the world's three largest gangster organization with the Italian Mafia, and its strength cannot be underestimated.

They issued a statement at this time, although they did not name or surname, it should be aimed at the Banks Familyy.

This time the Banks Familyy played a bit too big, and offended all Japanese black and white.

Even if they can retreat completely this time and want to come to Japan to develop in the future, they will probably receive "special attention" from the Japanese government and non-governmental organizations.

At this moment, Eastcliff Wade Family Mansion.

Charlie Wade's grandfather, Nathaniel, called the entire Wade family to a meeting because of the same news.

Today's Lord Banks looks very happy.

While flipping through the news with a tablet, he said to everyone: "This time the Banks Familyy really lost his children and broke down! The cooperation has not yet been negotiated. The eldest grandson and the eldest granddaughter almost died, and now the entire Japan is given to I'm offended, and I'm afraid it will be difficult for the Banks Familyy to go to Japan for development in the future!"

Charlie Wade's uncle Corran laughed, and said triumphantly: "The Banks Familyy is also embarrassing this time. The Banks Familyy's old man is afraid that he can't eat for three days!"

Third Uncle Myles said with some regret: "Hey, in the final analysis, the Banks Familyy is still lucky, damn! Ryoto Matsumoto has done such a big game, why did the mysterious man rescue Fitz and Zara? If Fitz and Zara die in Tokyo, the entire Banks Familyy must be greatly injured! These are the two most outstanding members of their younger generation!"

"Yeah..." Lord Banks couldn't help sighing, "Although Lord Banks has the wrist and courage, after all, he is old and Zayne is more than hot, but his ability is still lacking. In front of Bruce, It's like a clown, and she's not enough to look at it. The wife he crazily pursues, after being rejected countless times by Bruce, became discouraged and chose to marry him..."

Speaking of this, Lord Banks sighed and said with a grimace: "If Bruce was still alive, don't say that Banks Familyy is the Heavenly Dragon, and it may not be Wade Family's opponent..."

Chapter 1826

Hearing the old man pitying Bruce again, the boss Corran was a bit dissatisfied and said: "Dad, Bruce has been away for so many years, so please stop mentioning this kind of thing. Let's talk about it again. Responsible, so even the entire Eastcliff family is inseparable, and it is not something we can control."

Myles also agreed: "Yes, Dad, isn't this talking about Fitz and Zara? Why did you talk about Bruce?"

The old man sighed and waved his hand: "Don't say it, don't say it, let's get it right! All in all, the Banks Familyy's first step towards Japan is already emptying one foot. The next situation will face them very much. Unfortunately, this is a good opportunity for us to catch up and take advantage of it! What do you think?"

Everyone glanced at each other, and Corran was also very agreeable and said: "Dad, you are right, I also think this is our great opportunity!"

"Our ocean shipping business started later than the Banks Familyy and was at an absolute disadvantage, but if we could take advantage of the failure of the Banks Familyy, reach a cooperation with the Ito family, and take down the Japanese market, it would be tantamount to getting stuck in the Banks Familyy. The neck is definitely a powerful blow to the Banks Familyy!"

Lord Wade nodded, but he pondered for a moment before he said: "At the moment, we are not suitable for direct competition with the Banks Familyy. This matter must be kept low-key and slowly. We must not let the Banks Familyy know in advance."

Corran asked in a puzzled way: "Dad, the Banks Familyy can go to Japan to destroy people's families in a high-profile manner. When we go to Japan to talk about cooperation, should we still hide it?"

Lord Wade smiled slightly: "The strength of the Banks Familyy is there. We are now talking about cooperation with the Ito family in the past with great fanfare. For the Banks Familyy, it just slapped them and made them hard on their faces."

After speaking, Lord Wade said again: "However, we slapped the Banks Familyy. With the style of the Banks Familyy, we will inevitably conflict with us, and we will be in trouble."

Corran asked hurriedly, "Dad, what do you mean then?"

Lord Wade said very seriously: "If you want to deal with the Banks Familyy, you must dissect your opponent from a deeper level, instead of superficially comparing the two sides' paper data!"

Corran quickly stood up, bowed and clasped his fists: "Dad, I am dull, please tell me!"

Lord Wade shook his head slightly, thinking of Bruce again in his heart. He sighed in his heart: "My eldest son, Corran, is also a brilliant talent, but he is still far from the level of genius, so he can't do it well. However, Bruce is the top genius who never came out of the world. He is never 'percent through a single point', but rather 'perceive without a point' and learns without a teacher! What a pity, what a pity..." Corran also saw a trace of disappointment in his father's eyes, and suddenly his face turned red.

Lord Wade expressed a few words in his heart, and quickly put away his thoughts, and said to everyone: "Although the Banks Familyy has many heirs, only Zayne can enter Lord Banks's eyes. What's more, Zayne's sons and daughters are very competitive. The two most outstanding young people of this generation."

"Especially that Zara, who is deeply loved by Lord Banks and Zayne. The degree of preference for Zara between these two fathers and sons has long surpassed other heirs, even the eldest grandson Fitz."

"So, once Lord Banks is dead, the power will definitely fall into the hands of the Zayne Banks Familyy!"

"In the future, among the Zayne Banks Familyy, the one with the greatest say in the future must be Zara!"

Speaking of this, Lord Wade was already glaring, and said forcefully:

"Zara is a female stream and will eventually marry as his wife. Once she gets married, it will be the day when the Banks Familyy was divided into two. So, who Whoever can conquer Zara can conquer half of the Banks Familyy's assets!"

Chapter 1829

I have to say that Zayne's acting skills are very good.

If it wasn't for Ito Yuihiko who knew what kind of person he was, it would be easy to be deceived by his smiling and friendly appearance.

Although disgusted in his heart, he still braced himself and did a good job on the surface, so he smiled and said: "Mr. Banks is too polite, you are coming to Japan, I was going to meet at the airport in person, and then arrange the hotel for you. Staying here, I didn't expect to encounter so many things."

Zayne hurriedly said: "Where is it, Mr. Ito doesn't have to be so polite. The friendship between our Banks Familyy and the Ito family has a long history. We will definitely continue to strengthen cooperation and deepen our relationship in the future. Why should we be stuck with this little thing?"

Seeing his hypocritical appearance, Ito wanted to vomit the breakfast in his stomach, but he could only nod his head and said in agreement: "Mr. Banks is right! You really don't have to be too rigid.."

Zayne nodded in satisfaction, and said seriously: "Mr. Ito, although the things that happened in Tokyo in the past two days are chaotic and even hurt you seriously, I still have to say something about the facts. This series of things After the dust settles, the Ito family is the biggest winner."

Ito Yuhiko knows what Zayne's words mean. He knows that in addition to explaining the facts, Zayne also wants to mention himself. Now his family is fighting between snipes and clams, and the fisherman is profiting, and he is pushing his family to profit from it. , He is Zayne.

In other words, Zayne also reminded himself, don't forget the help that Banks Familyy gave to yourself.

However, Ito doesn't want to owe such favors casually.

After all, the reason why the Ito family can survive this dispute is not really dependent on Zayne, but Charlie Wade!

Don't say that he didn't rely on Zayne. Zayne's sons and daughters can survive, and he must thank Charlie Wade!

If Charlie Wade hadn't saved Fitz and Zara brothers and sisters, and Zayne guarded the corpses of a pair of children, it might not have been able to find out the real murderer.

Therefore, Ito Yuihiko couldn't help but sighed: "Oh, Mr. Banks, it is very dangerous for the Ito family to survive this time!"

As he said, he patted the roots of his thighs and sighed: "Look at my legs, they are completely abolished. If it wasn't for my loyal servant Tanaka who pushed me to jump off the viaduct, I would have been knifed. Hacked to death."

In this remark, Ito Yuhiko actually explained a point to Zayne first. First of all, if he can survive, it has nothing to do with your Zayne and the Banks Familyy.

Immediately afterwards, Ito Yuihiko said again: "And my daughter, she also suffered a ninja ambush in Kyoto, and was fortunate to be saved by a master, so she was spared. Otherwise, I would really want a white-haired person to send a black-haired person. Up!"

Speaking of this, Ito Yuhiko pretended to be curious and asked: "By the way, Mr. Banks, it seems that your children were also saved by the mysterious master in Kyoto?"

Zayne's expression became a little depressed when he heard this.

What I meant just now was to mention Ito Yuhiko. You have the last laugh, and you have killed Machi Takahashi and Ryoto Matsumoto. More than half of the credit is due to a strangers help.

Unexpectedly, the old fox, Takehiko Ito, came directly to say something like this. The meaning is also very simple: Don't say I want to thank you, it doesn't exist. We both have to thank the mysterious master, otherwise my daughter will be finished. Both your son and daughter will be finished. Although Zayne was depressed, he couldn't refute Ito's words. After all, his sons and daughters were indeed saved by that mysterious man. I also asked my son and daughter specifically, who is that mysterious person? Now that you have such a powerful ability, can it be used by yourself?

But Zara told him that the mysterious person was very dismissive of their brother and sister. It was to help Takehiko Ito's daughter, Nanako Ito, to relieve the troubles, so they chased them all the way.

Chapter 1830

Rescue them brother and sister, that was just by the way. The only clue I know is that he should be Chinese. But I don't know anything in more detail.

Originally, Zayne wanted Xion to leave to check the clues and details of that person.

But now the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department, Japan's Ministry of Foreign Affairs, and the Homeland Security Department all want to capture Zayne's subordinates. So he could only give up this idea and let Xion return home first, so as not to be caught by the Japanese government.

Once caught by the Japanese government, it will be as serious as the killing of the door, even if it is not sentenced to death, it will be at least life imprisonment, so you won't think about it in this life.

So Zayne could only give up temporarily. Now I heard Ito mention that person again, so he deliberately asked: "Mr. Ito, that mysterious person is said to protect your daughter, so you should know him?"

Ito Yuhiko shook his head and said regretfully: "I really want to know him, but unfortunately, that person is really too mysterious. I asked my daughter, but my daughter didn't know, otherwise, I really want to take him. For my own use! With such a powerful person by your side, you should never have to worry about safety anymore!"

Zayne stared at Ito Takehiko for a moment, feeling that he didn't seem to be lying. It seems that Ito Takehiko does not know who the mysterious person is. But why would he save Nanako Ito? Is it a pure chivalrous man of justice? However, it seems a bit strange for a Chinese to come to Japan as a hero. Or, he is an overseas Chinese living in Japan?

Zayne couldn't think of a reason, so he simply left him behind, looked at Ito Takehiko, and said seriously: "Mr. Ito, I'm here this time. In fact, besides visiting you, I also want to talk to you about cooperation. Talk about a general intention."

After speaking, he said: "Ocean shipping is the next very important business of the Banks Family. Although we pursue a global strategy, we still attach great importance to the Japanese market in East Asia. Block business and reached a cooperation with the Ito family. I don't know what Mr. Ito wants?"

Yuhiko Ito nodded and said seriously: "The Ito family has always wanted to reach a cooperation with the Banks Family on this business."

When Zayne heard this, his eyebrows showed a bit of joy, and he thought to himself: "It seems that cooperation with the Ito family can be a matter of course."

Zayne was thinking triumphantly, but Ito Yuhiko had already planned to use the dragging technique.

Seeing him, he changed the conversation and said apologetically: "But Mr. Banks, you can see my current physical condition. The doctor said that I have to observe in the hospital for at least half a month."

"Moreover, even if you leave the hospital, you will have to rest for a few months when you go home. For the time being, you may not have much energy to focus on business operations."

"Therefore, whether or not this cooperation should be carried out or how it should be carried out, it may take a while to give you a clear answer..."

Chapter 1831

Zayne frowned when he heard this. He was naturally not satisfied with Ito's plan.

However, he also knows that Ito Yuhiko has just amputated his limbs. To put it ugly, the blood scabs on the wounds are still fresh. At this time, it is indeed unrealistic for him to immediately push such a large cooperation forward.

Moreover, Ito's daughter seems to be very young, about the same age as his daughter Zara. In this case, it is really difficult for him to draw conclusions immediately and move forward.

So, Zayne said seriously: "Mr. Ito really needs to take a good rest during this time. As for the specific cooperation matters, when you are discharged from the hospital, I will come again. Then I will visit the mansion and talk about the details of the cooperation. how is it?"

Yuhiko Ito nodded readily and smiled: "When the lower body recovers, if Mr. Banks comes to Tokyo, he must have a good banquet here!"

Zayne smiled slightly, and said, "Then I'll bother Mr. Ito."

He said, "By the way, Mr. Ito, I have one more thing to remind you of friendship."

Ito Yuhiko hurriedly said, "Mr. Banks, please speak."

Zayne said: "As far as I know, the Wade family of Eastcliff also wants to follow our pace and take the development route of ocean shipping. If I am not wrong, they should also want to contact you here and talk about it. Project cooperation."

After a pause, Zayne said: "However, the strength of the Wade family is far worse than ours, so I suggest that Mr. Ito doesn't have to consider them, as long as he concentrates on raising his body and waits for the body to recover, then talk to the Banks Family. Comprehensive cooperation must be the best choice."

Yuhiko Ito nodded and smiled, and said, "Don't hide from Mr. Banks, I have a certain understanding of the Wade family. Their ocean shipping business hasn't started at all. It's just that the Banks' family has improved so they are trying to catch up. It is really difficult for them to become a big climate, so in my mind, the Banks Family is ranked the highest priority."

Zayne said with great satisfaction: "Mr. Ito really has eyes like a torch! The Wade family just wants to follow a wave of wind, but they don't have any resources at all in this field! Let alone cooperate with the Ito family, even It is China's domestic port resources, and we will suppress it without a stand!"

Ito Yuhiko smiled and said: "Mr. Banks, don't worry, I will never cooperate with the Wade family. If you want to choose between the Banks Family and the Wade family, I will definitely choose Mr. Banks!"

Zayne laughed: "Oh, Mr. Ito, with your words, I can go back to China with confidence."

Ito Yuhiko asked, "When does Mr. Banks want to return to China?"

Zayne said: "Just these two days, mainly because private planes are restricted from taking off in Tokyo. I wait for him for two days. If the take-off permit is not open within two days, then I will buy a ticket and take a civil aviation flight back."

Yuhiko Ito nodded and said with emotion: "As far as I know, Mr. Banks' previous handwriting was too big, and the Tokyo authorities did have some criticism."

Zayne waved his hand indifferently: "The Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department and the Department of Homeland Security are all dogs biting. Ryoto Matsumoto is a sinister and vicious person. I don't know how many people will be killed if I leave him in the world! He is not only acting for the sky, but also protecting the public order in Tokyo!"

After he finished speaking, he looked at Ito Takehiko and said seriously: "Mr. Ito, aren't you the direct victim of Matsumoto? If I didn't kill him, he might have sent someone to the hospital to chase you down. Know how many people he will kill in Tokyo?"

Seeing Zayne's righteousness and boldness, Ito couldn't help being amazed by the thick skin of this man.

He cursed secretly in his heart: "Zayne, Zayne, you stinky shameless thing. You kill Mr. Matsumoto, kill Mr. Matsumoto's right-hand man, and even kill his younger brother. This is understandable, but you kill the whole family. Young and old, not staying one, what the hell is this? The saying that it's not good for your wife and children is still what your Chinese ancestors said. How come you are here, and even the basic morals and justice are ignored?"

"Now what you mean by this, are you destroying Matsumoto's family, or are you protecting me in disguise? I have to thank you for killing Matsumoto's family? What a f*cking bastard logic!"

However, on the surface, Ito Yuhiko still said with emotion: "Oh! This is really thanks to Mr. Banks, otherwise, I may really still have countless dangers and threats..."

Chapter 1832

Zayne nodded and said with a somewhat arrogant expression: "I hope the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department and the Japanese Homeland Security Department can understand this truth. Sometimes, the necessary surgery is still required, leaving the cancerous tissue in the body. It will only drag down the whole city, and I just fly over and perform a precise surgical operation on Tokyo!"

Yuhiko Ito nodded in agreement, but he said in his heart: "Damn, this Zayne is a real dog. The more you talk, the more shame you get!"

Zayne looked at the time and smiled: "Mr. Ito, your body is still injured. I won't bother you anymore. The nutritional supplements I brought you are all very good natural medicinal materials and ingredients. You look back. Asking someone to do it for you can speed up recovery."

With that, Zayne's right hand: "Since we all have the intention of deep cooperation with each other, then I will wait for your body to recover, and we will move forward together hand in hand!"

Ito Yuhiko said seriously: "No problem! You and I keep communicating at any time!"

"Okay!" Zayne laughed and said, "If this is the case, then I will leave first!"

Ito Yuhiko nodded: "Mr. Banks walks slowly, I won't see you off here!"

Zayne hastily patted him on the shoulder: "Mr. Ito, you are welcome, take a good rest and heal your injuries!"

Yuhiko Ito said to Emi Ito: "Emi, give me one for Mr. Banks!"

"Good brother!"

Zayne got up and shook hands with Ito Takehiko. Accompanied by Ito Emi, he stepped out of the ward.

At this time, Charlie Wade and Nanako Ito had just arrived at the hospital, standing at the elevator entrance waiting.

Ito Emi sent Zayne and Mr. Palmer to the elevator entrance, and said apologetically: "Mr. Banks, I have to take care of my brother, so I won't send you down."

Zayne smiled and said, "Ms. Ito, please stay. Go back and take care of Mr. Ito!"

Ito Emi nodded, and bowed ninety degrees, "Mr. Banks, go slowly!"

Zayne waved his hand and stepped into the elevator.

After the elevator door was closed, Zayne asked Mr. Palmer, who had been silent for a long time: "What do you think, what does Yuhiko Ito think?"

Mr. Palmer thought for a moment, and said seriously: "Master, I think that although Ito Yuhiko has a good disguise, he still feels a little afraid of you..."

"Yeah." Zayne nodded: "It should be because of the fact that Matsumoto Man's family was destroyed. Thinking about it now, what I did was really a little overdone."

After he finished speaking, he waved his hand again and said indifferently, "I don't care about him. I killed Matsumoto Manchu because he wanted to harm my son and daughter. He wanted me to end. If I don't let him die, others will think I am weak. It's a soft persimmon, anyone can squeeze it!"

Mr. Palmer asked: "Will Ito Takehiko dare not cooperate with us because of this?"

Zayne snorted coldly, and said, "Give him some time to heal his injury first, and then come to him. At that time, cooperation will have a cooperative approach, and there will be solutions for non-cooperation and cooperation!"

At this time, the elevator gave a ding sound and stopped on the first floor.

Mr. Palmer hurriedly stepped forward and said respectfully, "Master, please!"

Chapter 1833

When the elevator door opened, Zayne took the lead. When Charlie Wade saw the elevator coming, he was about to signal to let Nanako Ito next to him go first. At this time, Zayne had already stepped out. The moment he walked out of the elevator door, Zayne directly faced Charlie Wade's eyes. At this moment, Zayne frowned slightly subconsciously, a familiar and unfamiliar aura that made him feel nervous.

And Charlie Wade, although he didn't know the man in front of him, but seeing the other person's eyes with full alertness and surprise, he couldn't help but glance at him more. The opposite man was in his early fifties, with a normal appearance and a normal figure. He was dressed very luxuriously. There was a bit of hostility between his eyebrows, and he looked like a cruel master. A face, but between the sparks and flints. There was Nanako Ito beside Charlie Wade, so she didn't pay too much attention to this man, and after passing by, they entered the elevator with Nanako. When the elevator door was closed, Zayne suddenly stopped and looked back in the direction of the elevator.

Mr. Palmer on the side asked him: "Master, what's wrong with you?"

Zayne smacked his lips: "Weird... the kid who entered the elevator just now has a familiar feeling..."

Mr. Palmer asked curiously: "Do you have acquaintances in Japan?"

Zayne said: "There are many acquaintances, but there are really no such young people. The kid just now looks like a twenty-six or seventeen? He is about the same age as Fitz, or one or two years older than Fitz."

Mr. Palmer nodded: "It's about the same age as the son...Do you know him?" "do not know."

Zayne bit his lip and said with a black face: "But he looks quite similar to an old friend of mine!"

"Old friend?" Mr. Palmer asked curiously: "Master, who is your old friend?"

Zayne asked with a very cold expression: "Have you ever heard others talk about Bruce?"

Mr. Palmer is not very young. This year is less than forty years old. When Charlie Wade's father, Bruce, died, he was still studying abroad, and he didn't know what happened to Eastcliff at that time.

Therefore, he couldn't help asking: "Master, is the Bruce you said belongs to the Wade family?"

"Yes."

Zayne couldn't help thinking of Bruce's heroic posture. At that time, Bruce was really a super noble son who moved the capital. Handsome, unrestrained, and suave, and more importantly, his personal ability is extremely strong, and he is definitely the first to excel in Eastcliff. Back then, in front of Bruce, Zayne was completely gloomy.

Bruce, one of Eastcliff's celebrity ladies, squeezed their heads and wanted to marry Bruce, one by one, they could not wait to find a life for Bruce.

Zayne's wife, Deana, who was also Fitz and Zara's mother, loved Bruce to the death. Back then, Zayne exhausted everything and launched a frantic pursuit of Deana, but Deana completely dismissed it and wanted to marry Bruce. Even if Bruce already had a fiancée, Deana was determined to die for Bruce at any time. Even if Zayne worked hard to create a grand proposal that made a sensation in Eastcliff for her, Deana still did not agree. In front of countless people, Deana only said a few words to Zayne.

The first sentence is: I'm sorry, I can't marry you.

The second sentence is: Because Bruce is not married after all!

Chapter 1834

Because Bruce has a fiancée but is not yet married, Deana still feels there is a glimmer of hope and is still unwilling to give up.

He asked a woman to marry him, but the woman said in public that she was still waiting for another person. Zayne still remembers this strange shame.

From then on, he hated Bruce deeply. Later, Bruce got married in Eastcliff. That night, Deana cried out all his tears and stayed behind closed doors for a month.

Zayne brought flowers to Deana's house every day to beg to see him. He persisted for thirty-nine days and spent thirty-nine bouquets of roses before finally knocking on Deana's heart. Deana, who was nearly twenty catties thin, walked out of the room and the door, and said a word to Zayne who was holding flowers outside the door.

She asked Zayne if she might not forget Bruce for the rest of her life, Zayne would still marry her. Zayne gritted his teeth and agreed. Then,

Deana and Zayne became engaged, and a month later, married. When he first got married, Zayne slept with anxiety and fear every night.

He was afraid that his wife next to his pillow would suddenly call Bruce's name in his dream. Worry soon became a reality. A few days after the wedding, Zayne could hear Deana whimpering in her sleep and yelling Bruce's name every day while he was half asleep and half awake.

During that time, Zayne almost collapsed. Later, the eldest son Fitz was born. Deana finally shifted her focus from Bruce to his son. Since then, Zayne can finally sleep well. The son's loud cry in the middle of the night became even the most beautiful lullaby for him.

He can sleep peacefully in the cry of his son, but he can't listen to his wife's sleep, whispering Bruce's name in a very low voice, because the name Bruce is his nightmare! Thinking of the humiliation in the past, Zayne felt extremely angry. Even though the incident had passed more than two decades, even if Bruce had passed away long ago, he still couldn't swallow this breath.

Mr. Palmer was surprised when he saw his cold expression, clenched fists and trembling teeth. He played for Zayne for many years, knowing that Zayne looked like this, he was generally angry to the extreme. When I heard that Matsumoto was the man behind the kidnapping of Fitz and Zara, his performance was no different from now.

Mr. Palmer couldn't help but wonder in his heart: "What exactly did this Bruce do to make the master so angry?"

Thinking of this, he couldn't help asking: "Master, is the man just like that Bruce?"

"Like." Zayne nodded, and said: "But his temperament is a bit low-key, maybe he is dressed somewhat casually. Bruce back then can be said to be full of style, walking with wind, and amazing!"

Mr. Palmer asked again, "Is that kid just now the offspring of Bruce?"

"Impossible." Zayne said coldly, "Bruce's offspring has long since disappeared, and the life or death of it is uncertain. The Wade family can't find it by themselves. It is estimated that they died outside long ago."

As he said, Zayne smiled darkly, and mocked: "Back then, Bruce made enemies everywhere and offended the Rothschild family that smashed Europe and the United States. He was also targeted by all kinds of people in China because of his sharp edge. People who want to kill him are really Too much."

Speaking of this, Zayne lit a cigarette and said lightly: "Although the kid looks a lot like him just now, I think he is likely to be a Japanese, maybe it's just a little like him."

Mr. Palmer nodded slightly and asked him: "Master, where shall we go next? Back to the hotel or?"

"I won't go back to the hotel." Zayne said coldly, "If the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department can't catch them, if they can't stay away, they will definitely find a way to embarrass me and disgust me. I'd better leave Tokyo early!"

Having said that, Zayne told him: "Just leave the hotel room there. Let's drive north directly to Aomori Prefecture, the northernmost part of Honshu, Japan. We used to soak in hot springs for two days, relax and go."

Chapter 1835

When he took the elevator upstairs, Charlie Wade was still thinking about the man he met when he got out of the elevator just now. He was sure that he didn't know each other, why did that person look hostile when he saw him. He originally thought that the opponent would also be a hidden master, and he saw that he was extraordinary. But after thinking about it, I felt that something was wrong, because that man didn't have the aura of a strong man. From the perspective of his own strength, he should be an ordinary person. However, he didn't think too much. After getting out of the elevator, Nanako Ito took him to the ward where Ito Yuhiko was.

At this time, Ito Yuhiko was scolding his mother in the hospital bed. He said to Emi Ito: "This guy Zayne is a b*tch with a honey-sucking sword. Staying with this kind of person for a second makes me feel uncomfortable!"

Emi Ito nodded and said, "That Zayne really feels insidious, and the more friendly he smiles, the more chilling his back, especially when he thinks of what he did to the Matsumoto family in his head. I feel cold all over!"

Charlie Wade, who had just entered the door, blurted out and asked loudly: "That man just now was Zayne from the Banks Family?!"

Both Ito Yuhiko and Ito Emi were shocked, and they realized that Charlie Wade and Nanako had already entered.

So, Ito Yuhiko asked curiously: "Does Mr. Wade also know Zayne Banks?"

Charlie Wade frowned, and even his voice became colder: "The man who just got down from the elevator is Zayne Banks?!"

Ito said, "I don't know who you met in the elevator, but Zayne did just leave."

When Charlie Wade heard this, he turned around and ran out!

Zayne Banks! The initiator and leader of the Anti-Leaf Alliance! When Charlie Wade thought of this, hatred surged all over his body! He just wanted to chase out, even if it was to kill Zayne's bodyguard and entourage in broad daylight, he still had to catch the bastard and ask him why he wanted to target his parents.

Then let him have a taste, and he died on the street! It's a pity that when Charlie Wade chased him out, there was no shadow of Zayne everywhere in front of the hospital. Zayne was already in the car and headed to Aomori Prefecture. Charlie Wade couldn't help but beat his chest and feet at the entrance of the hospital! Since the death of my parents, this is the closest moment to my enemy!

However, he failed to recognize the other party! This is really annoying to him! The Wade Family and the Banks Family had always had a bad relationship, so even when Charlie Wade was young, he had never seen Zayne very much.

In addition, the Banks Family and the Wade Family are themselves top families, and they never appear on various wealth lists, and the media never report them, so Charlie Wade doesn't even know Zayne's appearance.

At this moment, Charlie Wade was extremely depressed. When I came to Japan this time, I had close contact with the Banks Family one after another. First he accidentally saved Fitz and Zara, and now he just passed Zayne!

Charlie Wade gritted his teeth and thought to himself, if he were to give himself a chance to go back a few minutes ago, the first thing he would do when he saw Zayne would be to smash his dog head first!

Chapter 1836

It's a pity that even if he has great abilities, it is impossible to turn back time.

Therefore, he can only hope for the next time.

At the same time, I swear from the bottom of my heart: "Zayne, if I have the opportunity to face you face to face again, I will definitely not let you go!"

.....

When Charlie Wade returned to the ward, Ito Yuihiko asked him with a look of surprise: "Mr. Charlie Wade, do you know Zayne? Or is there any relationship? Why are you so sensitive to him?"

Ito Emi and Nanako Ito also looked at Charlie Wade suspiciously, looking forward to his answer.

Seeing this, Charlie Wade laughed at himself, and said angrily: "You forgot? I accidentally saved his pair of children. He is so rich. It stands to reason that I have to give me 10 billion dollars. ? I didn't expect to let him run away..."

Ito Yuhiko suddenly became dumb.

He didn't doubt the authenticity of Charlie Wade's words, because Charlie Wade was in his eyes, everything was good, that his mother loved money like her life, for money, he could even shamelessly blackmail or even maliciously Occupy.

Therefore, he accidentally rescued Fitz and Zara. Because of his character, he didn't want to ask for some money. It really wasn't him. When Nanako Ito heard this, she couldn't help laughing and saying, "Charlie Wade, you are too fascinated by money, did you know that when you heard the three words Zayne just now, you acted as if he was your murderer? Like an enemy, I didn't expect it was just a creditor in your heart..."

Charlie Wade smiled bitterly and said casually: "Hey, it's a pity that he let him run away, but it's nothing. Sooner or later, he will still have the opportunity to see this debt. He can't hide from the fifteenth day of the first year."

Nanako Ito nodded, and then said to Takehiko Ito: "Odosan, I brought two sick meals here today. One is for you and the other is for Tanaka-san. Can I visit him? ?"

Ito Yuhiko nodded and said, "Tanaka is in the next ward. Go and have a look."

Nanako Ito turned her head to look at Charlie Wade: "Charlie Wade, are you going to see him?"

Charlie Wade's impression of Tanaka was pretty good, he was indeed a rare servant, so he nodded and said, "Okay, let's go and take a look."

At this time, Koichi Tanaka was lying on the upper half of the ward next door and reading.

Seeing Nanako Ito and Charlie Wade coming in, he hurriedly put down his book and said respectfully: "Hello, Miss Ito!"

Nanako Ito smiled slightly and walked forward with the lunch box, and said, "Tanaka-san, I brought you a sick meal from home. The chef at home made it specially. You can eat it while it is hot."

Hiroshi Tanaka was flattered and said, "Miss, how can I let you deliver food to me? This is really impossible..."

Nanako Ito said very religiously: "Tanaka-san, you saved the life of your father. I am very grateful. A meal is nothing but a little bit of thoughts!"

Hiroshi Tanaka said sincerely: "Miss, with your words, it is worth 10,000 deaths..."

Nanako Ito said: "Tanaka-san, if you have any needs, just tell your aunt that she will find a way to solve it for you, you must cheer up, recover well, and leave the hospital early!"

Hiroshi Tanaka nodded again and again, and said gratefully: "I know Miss, thank you for your concern!"

After speaking, he asked tentatively: "I took a wheelchair and went to the president's ward in the morning. I heard the president said that Mr. Wade cured your injury?"

Nanako Ito nodded and said, "Charlie Wade not only healed my injury, but also saved my life..."

Tanaka looked at Charlie Wade and thanked: "Mr. Wade, it is...thank you so much!"

Charlie Wade felt somewhat upset because he was rubbing shoulders with Zayne and missing opportunities for revenge. Seeing Tanaka talking to him, he couldn't help but said in a perfunctory tone: "You're welcome."

Hiroshi Tanaka asked in surprise, "Is there anything unhappy about Mr. Wade?"

Nanako Ito smiled charmingly and said, "He, just missed $10 billion and is sulking..."

Chapter 1837

Charlie Wade just smiled slightly to Nanako and didn't explain much.

After chatting with Tanaka Hiroshi for a while, Nanako said to him apologetically: "Tanaka-san, Charlie Wade is going back to Aurouss Hill tonight. I have to accompany him to buy some things. I will leave first and see you at night!"

Hiroshi Tanaka hurriedly said: "Miss, you and Mr. Wade go to work, don't worry about me, don't have to come to visit me specifically, too much trouble for you!"

Nanako Ito smiled and said, "It's not troublesome. We have known each other for so many years, so why are you so polite."

Hiroshi Tanaka nodded gratefully, then looked at Charlie Wade, and said seriously: "Mr. Wade, you will not be able to see you off when you return home tonight. I wish you a safe journey!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "Thank you Tanaka, we have a chance to see you again."

"Okay Mr. Wade, see you if you have a chance!"

Leaving Tanaka's ward, Nanako Ito accompanied Charlie Wade to Ginza, Tokyo. It's been a few days since I came to Japan. This is the first time I have come out to go shopping. Because when I went to Eastcliff last time, I bought a set of Hermes for his wife Claire Wilson Wilson, so this time Charlie Wade skipped the luxury goods of luggage.

Charlie Wade strolled around in the jewelry area and found a heart-shaped diamond ring from Tiffany's. The main diamond of this diamond ring has a net weight of three carats. The purity is very high, not very large, but it is very exquisite, and the heart-shaped cut is also very beautiful, which makes him look very fond at a glance.

Recalling that from the time of marriage to the present, he had not given Claire Wilson Wilson a real wedding ring, so Charlie Wade planned to buy this diamond ring back and give it to her.

He consulted the clerk and learned that the price of this ring was about 800,000, which was not expensive.

So Charlie Wade was going to buy this ring.

Nanako Ito couldn't hide her envy and asked: "Charlie Wade, you bought this ring for your wife, right?"

"Yes." Charlie Wade nodded and said: "She has been with me for so many years, and I haven't given her a ring yet."

Nanako Ito sighed and said, "You are so kind to your wife..."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and was about to say something modest.

Tiffany's salesperson said very politely: "Sir, may I ask how big your wife's ring finger is?"

This question stopped Charlie Wade from asking.

"How big is the ring? I really don't know this..."

The salesman explained: "If you don't know the size of the ring, it will be more troublesome to buy a large or small one. So I suggest you call your wife and determine the size of the ring. We will help you directly. You adjust to the most suitable state."

Charlie Wade hesitated slightly.

I wanted to give Claire Wilson Wilson a surprise. If I called and asked her now, wouldn't the surprise be gone? "

Just thinking about it, Nanako Ito whispered from the side: "Um... Charlie Wade, look at my hand, how bad is it compared to your wife?"

With that, Nanako Ito opened her hands, spreading her fingers in front of Charlie Wade.

Charlie Wade took a closer look, and said in surprise: "Nanako, it feels like your hand is similar to my wife's finger! Or please help me try it!"

Nanako Ito nodded without hesitation.

The salesman handed the ring to Charlie Wade and said, "Sir, please let this lady help you try it out!"

Charlie Wade didn't think too much. He picked up the ring with one hand, and gently dragged Nanako Ito's right wrist with the other, carefully putting the ring on her ring finger.

At this moment, Nanako Ito feels dreamlike and drunk.

Although she knew very well that she was only helping Charlie Wade's wife to try the ring, but when she thought that this was Charlie Wade putting a diamond ring on her ring finger, she was so excited that she couldn't add anything.

She said to herself in her mind: "If this is a dream, then I wish I could sleep here and never wake up again..."

Chapter 1838

The moment the ring passed through the knuckles of her ring finger and put it on her hand, Nanako's eyes were filled with tears. She hurriedly lowered her head, not wanting Charlie Wade to see what she was like now. She liked Charlie Wade very much, but she didn't want to put too much psychological burden on Charlie Wade.

Because she faintly knew in her heart that the big reason why Charlie Wade came to Japan this time to visit her in Kyoto was definitely not because of how much he liked her in his heart, but because he sympathized with and felt sorry for her.

She can understand Charlie Wade's feelings, that is a kind of empathy that a person who is also a martial artist has in her heart. What is empathy? It is the emotion of understanding each other, empathizing with each other, and empathizing with each other. It's like a racer, seeing another racer suffered a car accident and was seriously injured or even killed on the field, his empathy for the injured must be stronger than ordinary people.

In the same way, if a soldier sees his comrades-in-arms, or those who are with the same soldier, injured or disabled in battle, this kind of empathy will surely develop in his heart. Charlie Wade must be the same to himself.

Seeing that he didn't listen to persuasion, was seriously injured in the game, or even was pulled directly from the field by an ambulance, he must have sympathized with her more. In addition, he has a way to heal her, so when he comes to Japan this time, he will take time to go to Kyoto to see her, save her, and heal her injuries.

Therefore, Nanako Ito knew very well that although Charlie Wade was very good to herself, most of them should be sympathy born out of empathy. For a girl who is obsessed with each him, the last thing she wants is the sympathy of the other party. In fact, apart from love, any other emotions are not what she wants.

At this moment, Charlie Wade couldn't see Nanako's expression. His attention was focused on her fingers. Seeing that the ring Nanako Ito was wearing slightly larger, he gently took it off again, yes. The salesperson said, "I'm sorry, but the trouble is a little bit smaller." "Good sir." The salesman took the ring and began to readjust the ring. At this time, Nanako Ito felt a strong sense of loss. Although I knew it a long time ago, that ring would leave after just staying on my finger. But when the ring was really taken off by Charlie Wade, her heart hurt like a knife.

However, she did not dare to be seen by Charlie Wade, so while Charlie Wade was watching the salesman adjust the ring, she hurriedly said:

"Charlie Wade, let me go to the bathroom!"

After speaking, she ran away before Charlie Wade responded.

The reason why I had to run away was because the tears filled my eyes, and my tears were too big to bear. She didn't want Charlie Wade to see that she was crying at this time. Because she didn't want to affect Charlie Wade's concentrated mood. She had never thought of affecting Charlie Wade's life and Charlie Wade's marriage. After all, Charlie Wade has given her too much kindness.

She turned to leave, silently in her heart: "Tonight, Charlie Wade will leave Japan, return to the embrace of his family, and return to his wife..."

"In the future, I don't know what year and month I will come back again..."

"The next few hours will be the last few hours I will be with Charlie Wade..."

"I must control my emotions and don't add any psychological burden to him..."

Chapter 1839

When Nanako Ito returned from the bathroom, there were no traces of tears on her face, but her eyes were slightly red.

She deliberately bashed her face with cold water, so it seemed a lot more natural.

Back in the store, Nanako Ito took the initiative to smile and asked Charlie Wade: "Charlie Wade, have you adjusted it? Do you want me to try again?"

Charlie Wade smiled and nodded: "Can I trouble you?"

Nanako Ito smiled softly: "You don't have to be so polite."

As she said, she stretched out her right hand again and said grinning: "Come on! Try again!"

Charlie Wade didn't think much, picked up the adjusted ring and put it on the ring finger of her right hand again.

This time, the size of the shank has become very suitable, it is not tight or loose on her hand, it looks almost natural. Nanako Ito couldn't help changing the direction of her right hand, and under the light, carefully observed this diamond ring, which was expensive. Although this ring is not as gorgeous as the tens of millions of rings in the hands of ladies and beauties, it has its unique charm. Simple, atmospheric, beautiful and touching. Charlie Wade looked at the ring on Nanako Ito, and also liked it as he watched it. He knew that his wife didn't pursue those luxurious jewels, and this ring happened to match her calm temperament. Thinking of Claire, he couldn't help but turn his attention from the ring to Nanako Ito's face. To be honest, if you say that it is as quiet as still water, Claire Wilson Wilson may be able to achieve 80 or even 90 points, but Nanako Ito is absolutely 100 points. So in other words, it seems that this ring is more in line with the temperament of Nanako Ito. But Charlie Wade didn't think too much about this issue. Nanako Ito wore this ring, and observed it with joy and melancholy for a long time, only then reluctantly took it off and handed it to Charlie Wade. She said: "Charlie Wade, if appropriate, let the salesman help you wrap it up!"

"Yes!" Charlie Wade saw that the ring was indeed suitable, so he smiled and said to the salesperson: "Hello, please help me wrap this ring." "Good sir!"

The salesperson is also very happy.

Although Tiffany is also a well-known brand, the price of most diamond rings is actually in the range of 10,000 US dollars to 20,000 US dollars. In fact, very few people will buy rings with more than 20,000 US dollars. Sometimes it may not be possible for a week. Sell one. Like Charlie Wade's choice, the equivalent of a ring with a price of more than 100,000 US dollars, generally can sell such a limited number of rings a year.

Therefore, she regarded Charlie Wade as a distinguished VIP customer, so she helped him pack the ring very carefully, and said to Charlie Wade: "Sir, if you have no other needs, please follow me to the cashier to checkout Right."

Charlie Wade said: "No hurry, I want to see the bracelet."

The ring is a token of love between lovers, so when he bought this ring for his wife, he naturally couldn't buy the same thing for his mother-in-law.

Therefore, Charlie Wade planned to show Elaine Ma a bracelet, the price would not be too high, equivalent to two or three hundred thousand Dollar, which would be great.

Two or three hundred thousand dollar bracelets were enough for Elaine Ma to make her happily unable to sleep.

The salesperson heard that Charlie Wade wanted to buy a bracelet, and immediately said: "Sir, wait a moment, I will let the person in charge of the bracelet area show you and recommend a few styles for you."

In their store, each salesperson has his own exclusive counter, and this salesperson is responsible for the diamond ring, so the bracelet needs other people to provide shopping guide services for Charlie Wade.

Chapter 1840

Charlie Wade readily agreed. Soon, the salesman called another girl and said to her: "Ma'am, this VIP wants to see the bracelet. Can you recommend it for me."

The girl knew that Charlie Wade was rich, and immediately said with a big smile: "Sir, please come with me."

Nanako Ito hurriedly asked him: "Charlie Wade, do you still need me to try the bracelet for you?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "I plan to buy the bracelet for my mother-in-law. She is a bit fat, so I don't need to trouble you."

Nanako Ito smiled and said, "Then you will take a look for himself first, I want to see the ring, can I?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "Of course you can. Look first. I'll go over there to see the bracelet."

Nanako Ito smiled sweetly: "Okay!"

When Charlie Wade went to the bracelet area, Nanako Ito whispered to the girl who sold the ring: "Excuse me, is the ring I tried just now in stock?"

The salesperson nodded lightly and said, "Yes, we have three rings of this ring in our store. We sold two, and now there is one left. Do you want it now?"

Nanako Ito was overjoyed, and whispered: "It is not convenient for me to pay now. Can you keep it quietly for me? I will ask someone to come over and help me pay the bill later, and then please help me adjust the ring to the size just now.?"

The salesperson said politely: "Ms. no problem, please tell me your name. When the person you arrange comes over, you can tell me your name."

Nanako Ito smiled happily and said: "My name is Ito, and the other party will tell you that I bought it for Miss Ito."

The salesperson nodded slightly: "Okay, Miss Ito."

Nanako Ito blinked, and said in a low voice, "Don't tell the gentleman who came with me, to keep it secret for me."

Although the salesperson was a little puzzled, he nodded his head very dedicatedly and said, "Don't worry, I will not disclose it to anyone." "That's good!"

At this time, Charlie Wade was on the side of the bracelet counter, looking around.

There are many styles of bracelets in this store, most of which are relatively low-key and simple, but there is a rose gold bracelet full of diamonds that is more luxurious and luxurious.

Charlie Wade knows Elaine Ma very well. What she likes most about her mother-in-law is that she can see the wealth at a glance.

Things that are golden, full of diamonds, and sparkling at a glance, will definitely be able to win her taste.

And don't look at the diamonds, but because they are relatively small diamonds, the price is not high.

The bracelet that Charlie Wade chose for his mother-in-law was actually about 250,000 Dollar equivalent. Although it was not cheap, it was just drizzle to Charlie Wade.

After Charlie Wade chose, he asked the salesperson to pack the bracelet and pay the money together with the ring.

At this time, Nanako Ito had already set up the ring with the previous sales, and then sent a message to ask an assistant of her family to help over and pay.

After the arrangements were made, he came to Charlie Wade contentedly and asked him with a smile: "Charlie Wade, have you chosen everything?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "The money has been paid, hey, Nanako, why are you so happy?"

Charlie Wade could also see that Nanako Ito's condition at this time seemed to be much better than before, and she seemed to be happier. Nanako Ito stuck out her tongue playfully and blinked and said, "This is a secret. I can't tell you, otherwise you will definitely laugh at me." Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "How can it be!" Nanako Ito said shyly, "I'm too shy to tell you." Charlie Wade shrugged helplessly: "Since you don't want to say, then I won't ask..."

Chapter 1841

After leaving Tiffany, Nanako Ito accompanied Charlie Wade again, walking around the major shops in Ginza.

In order to appear less favoritism, Charlie Wade bought a high-end boss suit for his old husband Jacob Wilson.

Jacob Wilson now mixes with the Calligraphy and Painting Association every day, and has become the No. 2 figure in the entire Calligraphy and Painting Association. It can be said that he has a lot of face.

What's more, the calligraphy and painting association he is currently in and Matilda's senior college often have contacts and exchanges, so Charlie Wade buys a suit for the old man, and also wants to help the old man to dress up and make him more energetic and more energetic. Have a face.

In addition, Charlie Wade bought some other small accessories and small objects piecemeal.

At 3:30 in the afternoon, there are about two hours before Charlie Wade's flight to Osaka takes off. Considering that Tokyo Airport is far from the city, Charlie Wade said to Nanako Ito, "Nanako, the time is almost here. I have to go. It's the airport."

Nanako Ito said without hesitation: "Charlie Wade, I'll take you there!"

Charlie Wade said: "I have to drive over and leave the car at the airport. If you follow me, what will you do when you come back?"

"It doesn't matter." Nanako Ito blurted out: "I can ask someone to drive to the airport to pick me up. Don't worry about Charlie Wade!"

Charlie Wade asked subconsciously: "Too much trouble for you, right?"

"No, no!" Nanako Ito said with a pleading expression: "Charlie Wade, I want to take you to the airport, and even want to take you to Osaka and take you back to Aurouss Hilll, but the situation at home is very special now, it is really not suitable for getting out. Leaving, so I asked you to give me a chance to take you to the airport..."

Hearing this, Charlie Wade couldn't help feeling a little moved, so he said: "Then we two will drive to the airport together, and you should also call your family and arrange for them to send a car to the airport to pick you up."

"Yeah!" Nanako Ito nodded and said happily: "You don't have to worry, I will arrange it!"

"it is good!"

When Charlie Wade heard this, he didn't insist anymore. The two of them got in the car and drove to Tokyo Airport. This way was Charlie Wade's first journey back. On the way, Nanako Ito was worried. She had been sneaking at Charlie Wade next to her, feeling extremely reluctant to him in her heart. As early as in Aurouss Hilll, Nanako Ito had a passion for Charlie Wade. And when she met Charlie Wade again in Japan, Nanako Ito fell in love with him completely. After separating from Charlie Wade this time, she didn't know if she still had a chance to meet Charlie Wade again. Because she could feel in her heart that Charlie Wade had lifted the burden of her heart for herself.

Nanako Ito is a very smart girl. She could see that the reason why Charlie Wade came to Japan must be because of his injury, so he had a sympathy for himself in his heart. And he happened to have the medicine that could cure himself, so he took that medicine and went to Kyoto to find and cure himself.

At this moment, she was lonely deep in her heart and thought to herself: "My injury has been healed. It is estimated that Charlie Wade will be able to relieve me in the future?"

Thinking of this, Nanako Ito felt very sad. In her heart, she was willing to give up some and stay in Japan for Charlie Wade. But she also knew in her heart that this was unrealistic.

Chapter 1842

When Nanako Ito's thoughts were flying, Charlie Wade had already driven the car to the airport. After he parked the car in the airport parking lot, he got out of the car with Nanako Ito. Then, instead of leaving in a hurry, he bent down and put the car key on top of the front tire of the car.

Nanako Ito asked in surprise: "Charlie Wade, what are you doing?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "I leave the key here with my friend, otherwise the key will have to follow me back to China."

Nanako Ito asked suspiciously, "Isn't it lost? If someone finds out, can I just drive away?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "It is impossible for other people to see it here. There are so many cars here. Who would bend down to look at other people's car tires?"

After speaking, Charlie Wade said again: "I will tell the owner of the key when I look back. After the owner knows it, it will be very convenient to pick up the car."

Nanako Ito smiled and nodded, and said, "You are smart. I might never think of such a method for a lifetime."

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Actually, I mainly want to save some money, otherwise the mailing fee is quite high if I wait until I return to China and then send it to him."

Nanako Ito suddenly laughed and said, "Charlie Wade, in your case, you definitely won't be short of money... My father alone has contributed 4.5 billion US dollars to you, your Oracle Pharmaceuticals are developing rapidly again, so why save money so much..."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "It's not saving money, it's going to live a life. We won't save a point for what should be spent, and we won't waste a point for what shouldn't be spent."

Nanako Ito nodded earnestly: "Thank you Charlie Wade, I have been taught."

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "I am not a good teacher, I just express my own small opinions, which are some very crude personal opinions."

Nanako Ito said sincerely: "Although the reason is simple and obvious, I have never considered this. If I was in my previous status, it would not matter if I spent more money or wasted a bit, but now my father wants me to take over. Ito Co., Ltd., in the future, I must change my previously unconceptual attitude towards money. Only like you can I make the family business bigger and stronger!"

Seeing Nanako Ito's serious look, Charlie Wade smiled helplessly, and said, "I believe Ito Co., Ltd. will become stronger and stronger in your hands!"

Nanako Ito nodded gently: "Thank you Charlie Wade for your blessing, I hope I can live up to expectations..."

Charlie Wade looked at her, smiled encouragingly, and then said: "Okay, time is almost up, I have to go through the registration procedures, how do you go back?"

Nanako Ito said, "I asked the family assistant to drive me to pick me up."

With that, she checked the time and hurriedly said: "She may take a while to arrive, or I will send you to the security checkpoint!"

Charlie Wade nodded, and the two left the parking lot together and went straight to the airport departure hall.

At this moment, a woman with a delicate face and delicate features, but with a bit of heroism and coldness, walked into the airport departure hall.

This woman is about one hundred and seventy-five centimeters tall and has slender legs.

She was wearing a black tight leather jacket, black stretch leather pants, and black high-top leather boots. Her long black hair was tied into a bunch of ponytails and hung to her waist.

This woman is beautiful and moving, but her face is icy.

She stepped into the airport and went directly into the VIP security check channel.

The male staff in charge of checking the boarding information turned his eyes straight when he looked at the woman.

After the woman stood in front of him for a few seconds, he came back to his senses and said blushing: "Miss, please show your ID and boarding pass."

The woman handed over the certificate blankly, and the other side glanced at it. There a name written on her passport: Xion Banks!

Chapter 1843

At this stage, in order to detect the murderer of Matsumoto's family, Tokyo Airport has strengthened exit inspections.

However, due to the shortage of manpower, there is no way to strictly control all passengers.

Although Xion took a Chinese passport, because her boarding pass was for Osaka, not for leaving Japan, the staff did not report to the leader.

He just recited Xion's namesilently in his heart a few times, and felt that the name was very nice, but he couldn't tell why it was really nice.

Xion saw the other party holding his passport in a daze, and the first thought in her heart was whether her identity had been exposed and the other party had already noticed it.

However, she quickly analyzed it and felt that such a thing was unlikely.

First of all, the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department only knows that it was a hidden master from China who killed Matsumoto Manchu, but they don't know anything else.

They also don't know who killed the Matsumoto family.

What's more, Japan is so close to China. There are so many tourists, overseas Chinese and business elites between the two countries on weekdays. The Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department cannot lock itself in such a short period of time.

After a quick analysis in his mind, Xion could conclude that the staff in front of her was probably just amazed by her own appearance, and was a little slow to react.

So she asked the staff member blankly: "Does my passport look good?"

The other party nodded subconsciously: "Very pretty..."

After finishing speaking, I realized that I accidentally missed my mouth, and hurriedly handed the passport back to Xion with both hands, and said apologetically: "Miss Banks, I'm so sorry! I didn't mean it!"

Xion completely ignored his apology, but continued to ask him with a cold expression: "Then can I pass?"

"Of course!" The staff was pressed by Xion's glamorous aura to cold sweat, and quickly stamped her boarding pass and handed it to her respectfully.

Xion received the boarding pass and immediately turned to leave. The staff member turned to look at her back, with a face full of intoxication, and he couldn't help sighing and muttering: "This...this is simply her Majesty's. Aura...Apart from TV shows and anime, I have never seen a woman with such a strong aura..."

Although the staff member was thinking of Xion, Xion had completely forgotten him and came to the security inspection machine.

This time, all the masters of the Banks Family broke up, and Tokyo was unable to leave the country, so everyone dispersed, and as tourists, they bought ordinary flight tickets and flew to Osaka.

Xion chose the 5.40 flight.

After the flight arrives in Osaka, she will take the private jet temporarily seconded from Highland Falls to return home with other Banks' subordinates.

.....

At this moment, Charlie Wade also came to the VIP security check channel. Before entering the security checkpoint, he turned sideways and said to Nanako Ito next to him: "Nanako, you have taken so hard to send me so far. I'm going through the security check. You should go back soon."

Nanako Ito nodded reluctantly, and said seriously: "I wish you a good journey, and remember to report me peace after landing."

"Okay!" Charlie Wade smiled slightly, and said: "Take care of yourself too!"

Nanako Ito said with red eyes, "Thank you for your concern, I will definitely!"

Charlie Wade nodded and couldn't help but sigh softly. With this sigh, there was reluctance, but also relief. What is reluctant is that Nanako Ito is indeed a rare good girl. It can be said that apart from nationality, there is nothing wrong with it. If we say goodbye today, it will be difficult for the two to see each other again in the future, so Charlie Wade will naturally feel reluctant. As for letting go, it was mainly because I came to Japan this time and I had removed the thorn in my heart. That thorn is Nanako Ito.

Chapter 1844

At the beginning, Nanako Ito insisted on competing with Aurora. As for Aurora, it was because of her own rejuvenation pills that her strength improved by leaps. In the end, Aurora severely injured Nanako Ito in the ring, this was a thorn in Charlie Wade's heart.

On the one hand, he felt sorry for Nanako Ito, and on the other hand, he admired her character of never giving up. In addition, he also felt ashamed of Nanako Ito to a certain extent. Because it was her own hand that pushed Aurora from a level far below Nanako Ito to a position far surpassing Nanako Ito.

Now, I cured her by myself, so I dilute the distress; I saved her life and made her strength improved by leaps and bounds, so that guilt was also played down.

At this point, the distress and guilt have been washed away, and the rest is more of an appreciation for Nanako Ito.

Therefore, Charlie Wade smiled at her knowingly, revealing a row of white teeth: "If this is the case, then I will go first!"

"Okay!" Nanako Ito nodded heavily, feeling extremely sad, but still smiling and said sweetly: "Charlie Wade, I wish you good luck, peace and health!"

Ancient Japan respected martial arts, and the ultimate representative of martial arts was the Bushido that they highly respected.

Therefore, in Japanese tradition, wishing a person's martial arts has many meanings, not only wishing the other person good luck, but also wishing the other person invincibility.

It can be said that it is the highest blessing.

Charlie Wade didn't expect that Nanako Ito would say the words wishing her own martial arts prosperous, startled slightly, and immediately clasped a fist to her with a serious face, and said loudly: "Thank you Miss Nanako, we will have some time later!"

After speaking, she took a deep look at Nanako again, turned around and entered the security checkpoint.

At the moment Charlie Wade turned around, Nanako Ito's tears burst.

She looked at Charlie Wade's back, tears like rain!

She wanted to call Charlie Wade so that he could look back so that she could take a closer look at him.

However, she was afraid that when she stopped him, when he saw her face full of tears, he would think a lot, would misunderstand, and think that he deliberately wanted him to see him letting go of all the disguise.

Therefore, she resisted the urge to call him, just wanted to stand here, watch him disappear into that door, and then turned and left.

At this moment, Charlie Wade couldn't help it suddenly, and subconsciously looked back at her.

Just a glance made Charlie Wade's whole body as if struck by lightning, and stayed for a while. He wanted to turn his head, and beckoned to her courteously. But I didn't expect it. Looking back, Nanako, who was still smiling just now, was already crying into tears.

At this moment, Charlie Wade felt that the softest part of his heart seemed to have suffered a shock. This kind of feeling, in general, only needs two words, that is: heart broken!

Nanako Ito didn't expect that Charlie Wade would even look back at him again. At this moment, as the eldest lady of the Ito family, as the Yamato Nadeshiko who had undergone traditional Japanese education since childhood, she finally completely lost all self-control ability.

At this moment, she lost all her sanity and ran towards Charlie Wade crying, rushed straight into his arms and hugged him tightly. Before Charlie Wade came back to her senses, she gently stood on tiptoe and offered her first kiss on her own initiative. Those thin lips that were a little salty and cold because of her tears, kissed Charlie Wade's lips without hesitation... ..

Chapter 1845

Charlie Wade felt the soft and cold touch of Nanako's lips first, and then felt a slight bitter taste in his mouth. He knew in his heart that this was the taste of Nanako's tears.

At this moment, he felt a little bit reluctant and helpless.

A few seconds later, their lips parted, Nanako Ito raised her head, looked at Charlie Wade with red eyes, choked up and said: "Charlie Wade, don't forget me..."

Charlie Wade nodded earnestly: "Don't worry, it definitely won't!"

Nanako Ito said solemnly: "If there is anything that needs my help in the future, please you must tell me!"

Charlie Wade nodded: "Okay, so do you!"

Nanako Ito broke her tears into a smile: "Then Charlie Wade, let's go, if you get off the plane again, you won't be able to catch up!"

Charlie Wade looked at her and said softly: "Nanako, there will be a period later."

"Well, you will come later!"

Charlie Wade turned around this time, and did not look back. He didn't want to be like just now, when he looked back, he saw a tearful Nanako Ito. So, simply put your mind away and stepped into the security check channel.

The surrounding passengers, seeing the beautiful and charming Nanako Ito, covered their face with their hands at the security checkpoint, their eyes were crying, and they looked at Charlie Wade's figure without blinking until they disappeared, and their hearts were quite moved.

At this moment, most men envied the man who had just disappeared from the security check.

"How can that guy have such a beautiful woman watching him cry with such infatuation?!"

"The point is... he never looked back! This is too much!"

"Be me, I must turn around to save that woman and tell her I will never leave!"

Nanako Ito turned a deaf ear to everything in her body. After Charlie Wade disappeared for a long time, she was still immersed in the feelings that had nowhere to rest. Until, her cell phone rang.

The phone connected, and a woman's voice came: "Miss, I have arrived at the gate of the airport, where are you?"

Nanako Ito wiped away her tears hurriedly, and said, "Wait a moment, I'll be here soon!"

After speaking, she hurriedly looked into the security checkpoint again, and after making sure that Charlie Wade could not be seen, she turned and left the airport reluctantly.

Outside the airport at this time, three black Rolls Royces were already waiting side by side.

As soon as Nanako Ito walked out of the airport gate, the co-pilot of the Rolls-Royce in the middle walked down to a young woman. The woman respectfully greeted her: "Miss is here!"

Nanako Ito nodded, and before she got to the front, the man opened the back door for her.

After Nanako Ito got into the car, she closed the door and returned to the co-pilot.

After getting in the car, Nanako Ito couldn't help but asked her: "Kaana, did you buy the ring I wanted for me?"

"I got it!" The woman called Kawana, whose full name is Hisui Kawana, is a senior assistant of the Ito family. At this time, she immediately handed over a beautiful Tiffany jewelry box from the co-pilot. Nanako Ito took the jewelry box excitedly, and carefully unpacked it. When she opened the box, she found that in the jewelry box, lying quietly, the same ring that was exactly the same as the diamond ring that Charlie Wade had her try.

Chapter 1846

The rings are the same in style and size, even the size of the shank is exactly the same.

As soon as she saw this ring, Nanako Ito felt extremely happy and joyful, as if this ring was really given to herself by Charlie Wade.

Seeing her looking at this ring, Kawana was overjoyed and asked in surprise: "Miss, why would you be interested in a brand like Tiffany? This brand is a very ordinary jewelry brand, and this Rings are too cheap, and diamonds are really hard to get out..."

Kawana is right. This kind of diamond ring, which sells for less than 1 million, is simply for ordinary little rich men. The real rich man doesn't even bother to wear this kind of ring.

The richest people in Europe, America, Japan and South Korea like diamonds the most. Some of them are very pure, and the cutting process can reach the top diamonds. One is worth ten million. Real wealthy people buy this kind of diamonds, specially made into diamond rings.

Therefore, the diamond ring worn by the top wealthy people is worth more than tens of millions, which is really ordinary. Chinese rich people like more things. They not only like diamonds, but also all kinds of gems, especially jade.

The real top-quality emperor green jade has a surprisingly high price. It is not a big problem for a bracelet to be worth more than tens of millions or even hundreds of millions. Because for the wealthy, this kind of jewelry can not only bring out face, but also has a lot of room for appreciation.

The Ito family itself is Japan's top wealthy family, and Nanako Ito is the only daughter of the family patriarch. She would like this ordinary small diamond ring, which really exceeds Kawana's cognition of her.

Nanako Ito held the diamond ring in love, and said shyly: "Kaana, there are some things that cannot be measured by value. This ring may not be worth too much in your eyes, but it is invaluable in my eyes. ."

After all, she couldn't wait to wear the ring on her ring finger.

Looking at this ring, she couldn't help showing a happy smile on her face.

Kawana Hisui exclaimed: "Miss, the ring finger is specially used to wear a wedding ring. You can't wear a ring on the ring finger. Otherwise, if someone sees it, you will think you have been married. !"

When Nanako Ito heard this, she suddenly realized that as a single woman, she really shouldn't wear a ring on her ring finger. This would cause misunderstandings among people around her.

But this did not delay her love for the ring, so she hurriedly took off the ring, put it back carefully, and stuck out her tongue at Kawana Hisui: "It's okay, I just wear it for a try, and go out. I will definitely not wear it."

Kawana nodded and asked her, "Miss, where are we going now?"

Nanako Ito said: "Go to the hospital, I'll accompany my father!"

"it is good!"

.....

At this moment, Charlie Wade had successfully passed the security check, and took his passport and boarding pass to the VIP lounge. Now, there is about an hour before the flight takes off, and about half an hour before boarding. There were not many people in the VIP lounge, so Charlie Wade randomly found a seat and sat down.

As soon as I sat down, a beautiful waiter immediately said to ask: "Hello sir, do you need something to drink?"

Charlie Wade didn't know why, but Nanako Ito was still in his heart, so he waved his hand absently, "No, thank you."

The waiter nodded and said politely: "If you have any needs, please feel free to tell me."

"Ok."

After Charlie Wade finished speaking, he was about to take out his mobile phone to contact Cameron Isaac. With his keen hearing, he heard a woman not far away. She lowered her voice and said to the phone: "In order to avoid unnecessary trouble, notify the crew, tonight first, we will rest one night in Highland Falls and return to Eastcliff tomorrow!"

Chapter 1847

Originally, Xion's retreat plan was that everyone dispersed to Osaka, and then transferred a private jet from Highland Falls to bring everyone from Osaka directly back to Eastcliff.

However, considering that if the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department cannot catch itself and the other Banks Family members, it will definitely recheck the previous exit records, so a plane flying directly from Osaka to Eastcliff will inevitably become the most in the eyes of the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department. Suspicious object.

Therefore, Xion decided to fly to Highland Falls from Osaka first.

The Japanese side only has the right to check the flight information related to its own country. In theory, for all flights departing from Japan, the Japanese side has the right to check all the information about the flight.

But if you arrive at Highland Falls and then fly directly from Highland Falls to Eastcliff, then this is a completely domestic flight and has nothing to do with Japan. In this way, the Japanese clues are also broken.

It stands to reason that Xion would not make such a low-level mistake of being heard when making a phone call. She deliberately chose a corner in the VIP lounge where there was no one within 5 meters. And when she called just now, she deliberately suppressed her voice to the lowest level.

Judging from her experience, with the volume of her words just now, it is impossible for anyone to hear it even within three meters. Unless that person is only about one meter away from him. In addition, she didn't reveal too sensitive information when she spoke, only that she changed the plan and flew to Highland Falls first and then to Eastcliff. However, she did not expect that she would be heard by Charlie Wade several meters away when she called with such a low voice. Charlie Wade heard her words and immediately realized that this woman must be from the Banks Family. the reason is simple.

The reason why the entire Tokyo implements strict exit control is because the Banks Family destroyed Matsumoto's affairs. At this time, those who are deliberately thinking about leaving Japan and deliberately conceal their whereabouts are most likely from the Banks Family. What's more, this woman said on the phone just now that she must fly to Highland Falls before returning to Eastcliff.

This proves that her destination is actually Eastcliff.

Eastcliff happened to be the base camp of the Banks Familyy, so this woman must have worked for the Banks Familyy. After Xion gave orders, she put the phone back in her pocket and closed her eyes in the seat to rest. Charlie Wade quietly looked at the woman not far away. The beauty of her appearance was Charlie Wade's first impression of her, and his second impression of her was that the features of this woman made people feel too cold.

The Apocalyptic Book made Charlie Wade's perception more sensitive, allowing him to perceive a deeper taste from a person.

The feeling that Xion gave him was faintly bloody.

This kind of feeling is rarely encountered in ordinary people, so he can be sure that this woman's hands must be bloody. If he thinks about it, she should be the killer of the Banks Familyy.

Moreover, listening to what she said, the masters sent by the Banks Familyy to Japan should be just like herself, preparing to leave Japan by private jet from Osaka.

Thinking of this, he immediately took out his phone and sent Cameron Isaac a WeChat message: "Isaac, you can check it out immediately. There are a few private planes flying from Osaka tonight."

Cameron Isaac did not ask the reason, and immediately began an investigation.

Although he doesn't have much energy in Japan, collecting some tips, this basic problem can still be solved.

Chapter 1848

Civil aviation information itself is not considered a secret. Even the route of a private jet cannot be concealed from the airport staff and the airport dispatch system.

Therefore, Cameron Isaac quickly found some information and summarized it to Charlie Wade.

Cameron Isaac's message to Charlie Wade showed that there were four private jets flying from Osaka to Highland Falls tonight.

Two of them are small business jets with very few passengers. Both planes carry about 10 passengers. Considering that there are many masters from the Banks Familyy in Japan, it is unlikely to take this kind of aircraft back, so Charlie Wade Then directly filter out the two planes.

The remaining two are private jets modified from Airbus a320 aircraft, and the number of seats for the entire aircraft is about forty to fifty people.

Therefore, Charlie Wade speculated that the person from the Banks Familyy who left Japan from Osaka tonight took one of the two a320s.

So he asked Cameron Isaac to carefully investigate the information of the two aircraft.

Both aircraft are registered in China. One of them is under the name of a domestic private airline, but it is actually serving a high-end travel agency, specializing in high-end outbound charter flights, and this aircraft just left from the south yesterday. Shenzhen City sent a high-end tour group of forty people over, and today plans to pick up another group of tour group members to return to Shenzhen City.

The other one was registered under the name of a real estate company in China Shipping. The plane arrived in Osaka from China Shipping only today. The original flight plan was to fly from Osaka to Eastcliff, but the flight plan was temporarily changed and applied Permission to fly from Osaka to Highland Falls.

As soon as Charlie Wade saw this, he knew that the last plane must have been arranged by the Banks Familyy.

Analyzing so far, Charlie Wade suddenly had a bad idea.

As a result, he wiped a cold smile on the corner of his mouth, and after giving Cameron Isaac some orders, he smiled at the corner of his mouth, squinted his eyes on his seat and squinted to sleep.

Twenty minutes later, a gentle voice rang in his ears: "Priority boarding of your flight has already started, honorable first-class passenger. If you want to board the flight early, please go to the boarding gate.

Charlie Wade gave a hum, and glanced at Xion's position, and saw that Xion had also stood up, and thought to himself: "Thinking of this Banks Familyy's female assassin, she is on the same flight as me. ."

Afterwards, he stretched his waist and took his small suitcase, before Xion stepped out of the VIP lounge.

Charlie Wade came all the way to the boarding gate, and after showing his boarding pass, he gave priority to boarding from the VIP lane before all economy class passengers boarded the plane.

Since the plane was flying on a one-hour short-haul route from Tokyo to Osaka, the plane had very few first-class cabins, with only eight seats.

Charlie Wade's seat was in the second row by the window on the right.

The weak flight attendant offered to help him put the suitcase, Charlie Wade thanked him, but he did it himself and put the suitcase in the overhead compartment. Just as he sat down, Xion walked in with a few first-class passengers. When Charlie Wade saw her coming in, his first thought was to turn his head and not look at her, so as not to be discovered by her.

However, between the electric light and flint, he suddenly realized a problem. A female killer like Xion's strength and perception ability, although not necessarily better than herself, must be superior to ordinary people. And she is so beautiful, she must have accepted the attention given to her by ordinary men. If you deliberately avoid looking at her, she is very likely to notice something abnormal.

So Charlie Wade deliberately looked at Xion with a look of surprise and awe, as if he was shocked by her beauty and excited about being able to take the same plane with her. Xion felt Charlie Wade's scorching gaze, but just glanced at him casually, and her heart was immediately full of disdain.

She secretly said contemptuously in her heart: "Hey, it's another hanging silk who can't pull his legs when she sees a beautiful woman!"

Chapter 1849

Although Xion sneered at Charlie Wade's performance, it was Charlie Wade's superficial appearance that made her relax a little guard against Charlie Wade. Then, she stepped to Charlie Wade's side and sat down directly next to him. As soon as she sat down, Xion spent her spare time and looked at Charlie Wade silently. This was not because she had doubts about Charlie Wade, but because of her usual cautious habit. In each environment, the first thing she will do is to have a relatively in-depth understanding of the environment, so as to obtain more information that may be useful.

She observed Charlie Wade for a while, and found that this man was really handsome and looked pleasing to the eye. It is that when I look at myself occasionally, the straight-forward look makes people look a little bit uncomfortable.

So, Xion turned around, looked at Charlie Wade, and asked with a smile: "Mr. is Chinese?"

Charlie Wade didn't expect that this Banks Family's female assassin would turn her face to talk to him, so he pretended to be surprised, and then asked with a bit of surprise: "Beauty, how can you tell that I am Chinese? This is not A flight to China."

Xion smiled slightly and said seriously: "The difference between Japanese boys and Chinese boys is still very big. For example, Japanese boys basically shave their eyebrows, and their hairstyles and dressing styles are also different."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "The beauty is really observant."

Xion nodded, and asked him, "Where is Mr. from China?"

Charlie Wade said casually: "I'm from the southern region."

"Oh?" Xion raised her eyebrows and said with a smile: "southern region is a good place. As the saying goes, there is heaven above and Eastcliff below. The soil and water there are very nourishing."

After that, Xion asked him again: "By the way, since you are from southern region, you should know the Webb family of southern region, right?"

After all, Xion is a well-versed and experienced master. Hearing Charlie Wade introduced himself as southern region, his first thought was to determine whether Charlie Wade lied.

She felt that if the man next to her did not lie, he would most likely be a very useful tool person. In the next trip, if there is any emergency, he can be used as a shield, so that she can be better. Be safer.

Charlie Wade heard the woman next to him mention the Webb family, and knew that the other party wanted to test if he was from southern region, so he smiled and said, "Who doesn't know about the Webb family, the current owner is Donald, they have two sons, one is called Sean and the other is called Kian. That Kian is very famous. It is said that I don't know which of the tendons didn't match up, and he has to eat poop every once in a while. Oh, it's also amazing."

Xion smiled and said, "I didn't expect you to be familiar with Webb's affairs."

Charlie Wade said with a playful smile: "Of course, who doesn't know about the Webb family, southern region?"

As he said, Charlie Wade lowered his voice and said, "Tell you something more exciting!"

Xion nodded: "Listen with respect."

Charlie Wade hooked her and said, "You get closer and I will tell you."

Xion couldn't help frowning slightly, and said in a cold tone: "You can just say that."

Charlie Wade wrote a copy of his face: "How can this secret be told in front of so many people casually? If you want to listen, come and listen. If you don't listen, forget it."

Xion's anger came up all at once, seeing Charlie Wade's serious intention to take advantage of her, maybe he wanted to lick her with his big mouth.

Chapter 1850

However, Xion really wanted to know, what exactly Charlie Wade knew about the more explosive material, so he suppressed the disgust in her heart and moved her body towards him, and said coldly: "Hurry up!"

Charlie Wade also deliberately leaned toward her, spitting out warm air in her ear: "Some time ago, the brother-in-law of Donald, that is, Marcone, the leader of the southern region Gang, was killed. He was killed together, his wife, and a lot of beggars!"

Xion immediately retracted her body from Charlie Wade's side, keeping a certain distance from Charlie Wade, and said coldly: "That's it? It was all popular in short videos at the time. I ask you, Does anyone else know?"

Charlie Wade shrugged: "I thought you didn't know."

Xion glared at him disgustingly. In her opinion, Charlie Wade just used this matter to try to get close to her.

But fortunately, he didn't take any real advantage, so Xion didn't have an attack either.

However, after this incident, Xion's guard against Charlie Wade was even lower.

Seeing that Xion could no longer speak, Charlie Wade voluntarily leaned over to ask her, "Hey beauty, where are you from? I told you all, so do you want to talk to me?"

Xion said blankly: "You told me, it doesn't mean that I have to tell you."

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Beauty, don't be so cold! You are such a beautiful big beauty, you should smile more, smile more will make you look better!"

Xion rubbed her temples, and said disgustedly: "I'm sorry, I want to rest."

After speaking, she simply closed her eyes.

Charlie Wade asked again: "Beauty, what are you doing in Osaka? Are you going to Osaka or returning from Osaka?"

Xion opened her eyes, frowned at him, and asked, "How do you know that I am not going back to China from Osaka?"

"Tokyo won't let you go!" Charlie Wade sighed, and said, "I don't know what is going on in Tokyo, and what exit control is going on. My family is still waiting for me to go back to celebrate the New Year. There is no choice but to choose from Osaka. gone....."

Xion nodded lightly, and thought to herself: "It seems that I am too sensitive. People in Tokyo who want to return to China basically have to leave from Osaka or other airports in northeastern Japan. It's normal to return home from Osaka.

Therefore, Xion also completely lost the interest in chatting with Charlie Wade, and said: "Okay, I'll squint for a while, if nothing is wrong, don't chat with me."

Charlie Wade didn't shut his mouth wisely, but continued to ask: "By the way, the beauty, I listen to your accent, it sounds like a Eastcliff person!"

As soon as Xion's brows stretched out, she quickly frowned, denying: "I am not from Eastcliff, I am from Highland Falls."

Currently, Japan restricts exits and conducts investigations on all foreign tourists. Among them, the most important thing is tourists from China's Eastcliff native place, so Xion was cautious and described herself as a Chinese citizen.

Charlie Wade said in surprise at this time: "Oh, beautiful, you're boring. Everyone is Chinese. It's fate to meet on a Japanese plane. You don't need to chat with your compatriots and hide it, right? Your accent

As soon as I heard it was from Eastcliff, the people of Highland Falls are not talking like you."

Xion was about to be annoyed by Charlie Wade. She is now more and more sure that Charlie Wade has nothing wrong with him, nor is there any danger. He is just a bit sloppy, a bit wretched, and a bit too much nonsense. So while bothering him so much, she also completely relaxes her guard against him. .

At this time, she closed her eyes and rested her mind, too lazy to talk to Charlie Wade.

Charlie Wade has already instructed Cameron Isaac on WeChat to prepare him according to his plan..

Chapter 1851

Soon, the plane took off from Tokyo Airport. An hour later, we landed at Osaka Airport on time. When the plane landed, according to the usual practice, let first-class guests get off the plane first. Xion didn't have any luggage and was sitting in a row outside, so as soon as the plane stopped, she immediately got up and walked directly to the door. As soon as the cabin door opened, Xion stepped out. In order to avoid long nights and dreams, the plane arranged by the Banks Family will take off in half an hour, so she needs to go to the business jet terminal and go through the security check again. To reach the hangar of the private jet.

The duty process of private jets is different from that of ordinary civil aviation, and ordinary terminals only serve ordinary civil aviation passengers.

As long as the customized passengers take private jets or business jets, they all go through the security check and boarding at the business jet terminal.

When Charlie Wade walked out of the hatch carrying the suitcase, Xion was no longer in the long reach.

Charlie Wade couldn't help but smiled and thought to himself: "I want to go back so anxiously? The more anxious you want to go back, the less I don't want you to go back."

Thinking of this, he himself walked slowly to the business jet terminal while taking out his mobile phone and asked Cameron Isaac: "Isaac, how are things arranged to explain you?"

Cameron Isaac smiled and said, "Master, don't worry, I have everything ready."

Charlie Wade snorted and said, "You pay attention to the situation, I will be here soon."

"Good master!"

When Charlie Wade arrived at the business jet terminal and passed the security check smoothly, Cameron Isaac had been waiting in the terminal for a long time.

Seeing Charlie Wade, he immediately stepped forward and whispered to him: "Master, everyone else has already boarded the plane. The woman in black clothes you mentioned on WeChat, I just saw her. After passing the security check, I made a shuttle bus and went to Hangar No. 12. The plane parked there is the one you found out!"

After speaking, he said again: "Oh, yes, our plane is parked in Hangar 13 next to them, and the departure time we requested is just behind them, and their plane will be in front of us in a moment. One."

"Okay!" Charlie Wade laughed and said, "Go, go to the hangar first, and wait for a good show!"

Later, Charlie Wade and Cameron Isaac boarded a VIP shuttle bus and went to Hangar 13 together.

The shuttle bus drove all the way into the hangar, and the Gulfstream airliner that arrived was already waiting here.

When the plane sent Charlie Wade and the others to Japan, they first flew to Tokyo, and then flew directly to Osaka to wait. During this time, they never left Osaka.

Seeing Charlie Wade's arrival, Don Albertt, Liam and others hurriedly got off the plane before Charlie Wade arrived, and respectfully guarded outside the cabin door.

After Charlie Wade got out of the car, everyone called Master Wade, and then bowed deeply together.

Charlie Wade waved at them and said, "Don't engage in these etiquettes, board the plane quickly, I'm still waiting for a good show!"

After all, he has already taken the lead in boarding the plane. Seeing this, other people hurriedly followed.

After everyone boarded the plane, the flight attendant immediately closed the door, and then asked Cameron Isaac for instructions: "Mr. Wade, can the plane be launched?"

Cameron Isaac glanced at Charlie Wade, and when he saw Charlie Wade nodding, he immediately said to the flight attendant: "Let's launch it now!"

Subsequently, the aircraft was slowly pushed out of the hangar by ground vehicles.

The captain reported the situation to the tower and requested takeoff arrangements by the way. The tower responded to the instructions and informed the captain that there was a private jet going to Highland Falls in front of them and asked the captain to queue behind him to go to the runway.

Chapter 1852

So the captain immediately picked up the communicator and made a cabin announcement: "Mr. Wade, we have obtained the queuing permission from the tower. The tower puts us in line behind the China Shipping plane in Hangar No. 12. Now compare the planes waiting to take off at Osaka Airport. Many, it takes about forty minutes to take off."

As soon as Charlie Wade heard that the plane he was flying was behind the plane of Banks' family, he immediately said to Cameron Isaac, "Go, go to the cockpit!"

Cameron Isaac quickly followed Charlie Wade and squeezed into the somewhat narrow cockpit together.

As soon as Cameron Isaac came in, he asked the captain, "Where is the plane from China Shipping?"

The captain pointed to the plane that had just been pushed out from the hangar and was turning in place, and said, "Isaac, that's the one."

Cameron Isaac nodded and saw that the plane turned toward the runway after turning in place, so he quickly said to the captain, "Quickly follow him!"

The captain immediately increased the engine thrust, and the plane followed the Banks' plane and taxied forward unhurriedly.

Seeing the plane with its wings trembling constantly in front, Charlie Wade's face was full of smiles.

.....

At this moment, in the Airbus A320 sent by the Banks Familyy, more than fifty top masters of the Banks Familyy were sitting neatly. A middle-aged man, looking at Xion sitting in the front unsmilingly, stepped forward and smiled and said: "Miss Xion, this operation is really successful under your command. Let's destroy the Matsumoto family. None of them died, and we will be successfully withdrawn this time. As long as our planes fly together, the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department will never find us in this lifetime!"

As soon as the others heard this, they hurriedly agreed: "Yes, Miss Xion, you have a good leadership this time. After you go back, Mr. Banks will definitely promote you. Don't forget us at that time!"

Xion said indifferently: "I, like you, are both subordinates of the Banks Familyy. As long as you do things well, the Patriarch will definitely not treat you badly."

After that, Xion said again: "After going back this time, I will definitely report the truth to the Patriarch and ask for your credit. Please rest assured!"

When everyone heard this, they all smiled and apologized.

Although everyone is a master of martial arts, in the final analysis, they have completely entered the dunya, and they have worked for the Banks Familyy for money.

When Xion said that she wanted to ask for credit for everyone, everyone naturally knew, which meant that the Banks Familyy would definitely reward everyone with a generous amount of cash.

As a result, everyone clapped happily, cheering and whistling endlessly. At this time, Xion's phone vibrated.

She picked up her mobile phone, saw that Zayne was calling, hurriedly connected the phone, and said respectfully: "Patriarch!"

Zayne's voice came: "Xion, how is your side? Is it about to take off? There are no accidents and twists in the middle, right?"

Xion hurriedly said, "Master, our plane is already in line for take-off, and it is expected to take off in half an hour at most!"

"Very good!" Zayne said with a smile: "This time, you did a very beautiful job! When you return to Eastcliff, you will definitely be rewarded!"

Xion said piously: "Patriarch, it is Xion's blessing to share worries for you and the Banks Familyy..."

Zayne laughed and said, "If you leave, I am really lucky to have you as a strong general! Don't you always want to go back to your hometown to take a look, after this time you go back, I will give you a good vacation and go back to your hometown to take a rest Rest, you can rest until the Lantern Festival and then come back!"

Xion said gratefully: "Thank you Patriarch! I really want to go back and take a look. It would be great if I can rest!"

Zayne said, "You did so beautifully this time, and you will definitely have a good rest when you go back!"

When Xion was about to say thank you, a large number of helicopters roared from all directions outside. Outside the window, you could see many armored personnel carriers roaring, surrounding the planes.

In the sky, the helicopter shouted with a high-power speaker: "Listen to the people below, we are the Japanese Self-Defense Force! You are now surrounded!"

Chapter 1853

At this moment, more than fifty Banks Family masters in the plane looked shocked!

The plane is about to take off, and everyone will be able to retreat, leave Japan, and return home to receive awards.

Xion had even received repeated compliments from Zayne on the phone. Who could have predicted that at this moment, things suddenly changed dramatically!

More than a dozen helicopters of the Japanese Self-Defense Forces, more than 30 ground-wheeled armored vehicles, and the planes that surrounded Xion and others!

The Japanese Self-Defense Force is actually the Japanese army. Only after Japan was defeated that year, according to regulations, the defeated country could not have an army, so it made some changes in the form of the Self-Defense Force.

Although it is called the Self-Defense Force, the equipment and training standards of the entire Self-Defense Force are completely in accordance with the regular army.

The masters of the Banks Family are certainly very strong, but no matter how strong they are, they are just martial arts masters. Their little punches and kicks, in front of the guns and guns of the regular army, are almost like children playing house.

What's more, the Japanese Self-Defense Forces dispatched this time are all specially trained anti-terrorist special forces, and the number is large, and the total number of air and ground forces is at least 600 or 700!

These six to seven hundred people are almost the top presence in the Japanese Self-Defense Forces!

In addition, their equipment is very sophisticated, and they have set up a net in advance, so the Banks Family masters are simply inevitable!

Xion, who had not been in the old well, couldn't help panicking now.

She blurted out and asked the people around: "What's the matter?! How did the Japanese Self-Defense Force find us?! Who leaked the wind?!"

Everyone was full of horror, and they didn't know who had leaked the news. However, they know that everyone is over this time! Originally, the movement they made in Tokyo this time was so surprising that the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department and even the entire Japanese government hated them to their bones, so they would trace their whereabouts at all costs.

Tokyo and many surrounding cities have implemented exit controls in order to catch them early.

Now that they are in the hands of the Japanese Self-Defense Forces, you don't have to think about it, this is a big trouble!

At this time, Zayne's phone has not hung up.

Hearing the movement on the phone, he immediately blurted out and asked: "Xion, what's the matter?!"

Xion said with a trembling voice: "Patriarch...our plane is surrounded by the Japanese Self-Defense Force..."

"What?!" Zayne felt dizzy when he heard this!

He secretly said in his heart: "It's over! This is over! The Banks Family has sent nearly a hundred people to Japan this time. Except for some support and auxiliary personnel, the real core masters are all on that plane!"

"It can be said that the more than fifty people on that plane represent at least 80% of the combat effectiveness of the Banks Family!"

"Especially Xion, this is a general who can be one hundred!"

"If these people fall into the hands of the Japanese government, according to Japanese law, the principal offender should be properly sentenced to death, and the accessory should also be imprisoned for life..."

Thinking of this, Zayne almost ran away, and he tremblingly asked, "Ruo Li, what is going on?! Did you leak the wind, or did a traitor appear inside?!"

Xion also said nervously, "Going home, I don't know this now..."

At this time, the broadcast outside the plane continued: "This is the Japanese Self-Defense Force. You are restricted to immediately turn off the aircraft engine and open the door for investigation. Otherwise, we will resort to aggressive attacks!"

The captain and deputy captain in the cockpit panicked first.

They can all see the gunship above the front, and the large-caliber cannon in front of the helicopter has been aimed at them.

In front of this kind of military weapon, the civil aviation airliner has absolutely no power to parry. If the engine is not turned off, the cannon on the helicopter can instantly turn the aircraft into a hornet's nest. So they didn't care about asking Xion for instructions, and immediately turned off the aircraft engine.

Chapter 1854

At this time, the outside broadcast continued: "This is the Japanese Self-Defense Force. You are restricted to open all hatches immediately! Otherwise, our special forces will attack!"

The captain ran out of the cockpit at this time and said nervously: "The other party asked us to open the hatch. If we don't open it, we will attack!"

There was also chaos in the cabin.

These so-called super masters were completely panicked at this moment. Some people stood up in a panic, like a headless fly, pacing back and forth in the cabin, as if looking for a way to escape.

More than fifty people, like more than fifty cockroaches locked in a glass bottle, were so frightened that there was nothing to add! Xion also panicked. However, she knew very well in her heart that once the hatch was opened, it was tantamount to surrendering!

The massacre of the Matsumoto family angered the whole of Japan. If she takes everyone to surrender, the Japanese government will not let them go, and will punish them with the harshest means possible...

However, if you don't surrender, the end will probably be even worse! Because special forces all over the world basically adopt the same approach when fighting terrorism.

They will use directional bombs to blow open the doors and windows of the cabin, and then throw flash bombs and tear gas into the cabin.

Flash bombs will release extremely strong light instantly, blinding people's eyes in a short period of time. Once they lose their vision, they can only be slaughtered.

And tear gas is a double blow.

It not only makes people cough and loses combat effectiveness, but also makes people's eyes irritated and secretes a lot of tears, further destroying the opponent's vision.

The flash bombs and tear gas came in turns so many times, before the special forces rushed in, the people inside might not be able to hold it, climb out and surrender...

In despair, Xion asked Zayne on the other end of the phone,
"Patriarch...you...what do you think we should do..."
"How to do....."

Zayne whispered feebly, all the distressed are bleeding! The elite of the Banks Familyy's core are going to be wiped out! The blow and influence this brought to the Banks Familyy was too great! Moreover, in the next few years, it is impossible for the Banks Familyy to re-assemble such a team! Even if it can, it will have to pay a huge cost!

The cost of attracting a top master is sometimes higher than attracting a hundred ordinary people! With so many top players, the cost behind them is also astronomical.

What is even more depressing is that if these fifty people fall into the hands of the Japanese government, whether they are sentenced to death or life imprisonment, the Banks Familyy will have to pay their relatives a lot of living allowances all the year round!

This is also the core method used by the Banks Familyy to win over these masters. The reason why they worked for the Banks Familyy was because the Banks Familyy promised their high salaries, and they also promised that in the event of an accident, the Banks Familyy would pay their family members a monthly subsidy of more than one million Dollar.

It was this kind of money spent at any cost that allowed the Banks Familyy to gather such a large number of top experts. But now, once these fifty-odd people are captured by the Japanese government, their families will immediately become the oil bottle of the Banks Familyy! Moreover, the Banks Familyy must not kick these oil bottles away, otherwise, no one will be devoted to the Banks Familyy in the future! So, this time I really have to lose to grandma's house!

Chapter 1855

At the time when the two sides were deadlocked, the head of Japan's homeland security department had already flown to Osaka Airport by special plane.

With him, there was the Director of the Tokyo Warning Agency.

Originally, they were under tremendous pressure and carried out a carpet investigation in Tokyo. They tried their best to catch a group of murderers, so that they could give the people an explanation and the high-level officials.

But what I didn't expect was that these murderers were more cunning than the foxes, and left no useful clues at all.

When they originally wanted to continue to expand their search range, they suddenly received a message from a mysterious man saying that the murderer had arrived in Osaka and would return to China by plane from Osaka. This shocked the people of the Department of Homeland Security! If this group of people is really allowed to run away, this sensational massacre that caused a sensation across the country may not be broken for a lifetime.

At that time, the Japanese Metropolitan Police Department and the Homeland Security Department will be completely thrown into the face, and even be scolded by thousands of people.

Therefore, the Homeland Security Department immediately made a decision to directly take over the case from the Metropolitan Police Department, and then notify the Self-Defense Forces in Osaka to take over and prevent the plane from taking off at all costs.

The Japanese Self-Defense Force has tens of thousands of troops stationed in Osaka. Upon receiving instructions from the Homeland Security Bureau, they immediately dispatched the most powerful special forces to Osaka Airport.

Moreover, the Homeland Security Department even made an emergency plan to prepare a fighter squadron.

If the special forces fail to stop the private jet and allow it to take off, the Japanese Self-Defense Force's f35 fighter jet will immediately take off, trying to force it to return to Osaka Airport and land before it leaves Japan's airspace.

At this time, the special plane of the Department of Homeland Security just stopped, the person in charge immediately picked up the phone and asked: "How is the situation on the scene now? Is the other party's plane under control?!"

On the phone, the voice of the operational commander came immediately: "Now the opponent's aircraft is surrounded by our square-wheeled armored vehicles, and there is no possibility of breaking through, but the opponent has not yet been captured, we are already preparing for a storm!"

"Okay!" The head of the Department of Homeland Security gritted his teeth and said, "Give them one more minute. If they don't surrender obediently, immediately carry out a live ammunition attack! This time we must kill these cruel desperadoes in one fell swoop and give it to all of Japan. The people will explain!"

Following his order, four boarding vehicles with boarding ladders slowly drove towards Banks' plane from both sides.

Four combat squads with live ammunition have assembled under the plane. Once the boarding car is aimed at the cabin door, they will quickly rush up, blow up the cabin door, and use flash bombs and tear gas to conduct the first round of attack.

Their firearms have also been inspected. The all-American assault rifles have very powerful firepower. Once the fire is exchanged, these Banks Family's subordinates have no power to parry.

At this time, Xion, through the window, saw the boarding car approaching, she was already extremely nervous, but she still didn't think about what to do.

Someone around me panicked and proposed: "Let's open the hatch and surrender honestly. If they attack by force, the bullet will not be long-sighted!"

"Surrender?!" Someone immediately scolded angrily: "Damn! I killed four of the Matsumoto family alone. Isn't surrendering to death? He will definitely be sentenced to death by then!"

"The death penalty does not matter!" Another person blurted out: "The execution cycle of the death penalty in Japan is very long. Do you know the Shinrikyo who committed terrorist attacks at Tokyo subway stations before? Their leader Shoko Asahara used sand in 1995. Lin Duqi attacked the Tokyo subway and shocked the world, but he was not executed until 2018, and it has been delayed for more than 20 years! Even if we are sentenced to death, we can at least live in prison for more than ten or twenty years. It's better than being shot to death right now, right?"

"Yes!" Someone stood up, clenched a fist and said, "With our strength, even if we go to prison, we can definitely become a hegemon in the prison. No one wants to bully us. Then we can live even in prison. Very comfortable, why don't you think about it now?"

The conversation between these people immediately convinced most people. If you can live, no one is willing to give up the hope of survival. Even living in prison is much better than dying on the spot. So everyone looked at Xion and blurted out: "Miss Xion, let's surrender!"
Chapter 1856

"Yes! Surrender!"

"Leave the green hills, I'm not afraid that there will be no firewood!" Zayne on the phone also gave a long sigh and said to Xion: "Xion, surrender, I will do everything possible to mediate with the Japanese side, and I will rescue you anyway..."

The string in Xion's mind was finally loosened. Although he was still unwilling, he nodded and said, "Patriarch, I know... you take care, if you can't Serving you is in control..."

Zayne was heartbroken, but he could only speak, "Trust me, I will definitely save you!"

"Well! If you believe it!"

Xion said angrily, then hung up the phone and said to the flight attendant: "Okay, open the hatch!"

The flight attendant nodded immediately and opened the four front and rear hatches one after another.

Afterwards, I heard people shouting outside: "Everyone put their hands on top of their heads and lined up to walk down the spiral staircase. Anyone who dares to play tricks will be killed on the spot!"

Xion sighed, stood up, and said to everyone with a sad expression: "It is also fate for everyone to work together, I hope you can take care of yourself!"

After speaking, she raised her hands above her head, and stepped out of the hatch first.

Outside the cabin, the helicopter kept roaring overhead, and the huge wind blew Xion's long hair and clothes.

Countless guns were pointed at her below, and someone shouted: "Go down slowly, put your hands on your head and let us see!"

Xion could only do so.

The moment she stepped down the spiral staircase, she was also flustered for her unknown future.

Because she didn't know what the end of waiting for herself was.

After all, she is the principal culprit. After being arrested, others will definitely confess their identity as the principal culprit.

If nothing else, the death penalty must be waiting for her. Unless Zayne can really save her, she will undoubtedly die.

When she stepped down the spiral staircase, several heavily armed self-defense team members rushed up and pressed her to the ground, then put her hands behind her back, and handcuffed them in handcuffs.

Immediately afterwards, the remaining fifty or so people stepped off the plane one after another, all of them were handcuffed back and squatting on the ground, the heads of the assault rifles against the back of the head.

Even the crew members were not spared, they were all caught by their accomplices.

Charlie Wade stood in the cockpit of the plane behind, sneer in his heart as he watched the Banks Familyy get swept away.

These fifty-odd people are the claws and fangs of the Banks Familyy.

Now that they are all in the hands of the Japanese government, the Banks Familyy's vitality is greatly injured.

Banks Familyy, I, Charlie Wade, will definitely let you pay the price for the Anti-Leaf Alliance back then!

Chapter 1857

After all the members of the Banks Familyy plane were under control, the Japanese Self-Defense Forces began to clear the ground and gradually restore order at the airport.

They first drove over three buses with steel protective nets welded to their windows, so that everyone including Xion, under the watch of the self-defense team, boarded one by one.

In order to prevent these people from escaping as much as possible, the Japanese Self-Defense Forces put two sets of handcuffs on everyone, besides, they also handcuffed them.

Not only that, they also scattered these people and guarded them one-on-one.

The seat division on the bus has two seats on each side.

Therefore, every Banks Familyy in handcuffs and handcuffs was arranged to sit by the window, and then a self-defense team with live ammunition sat next to them to prevent them from having any chance to escape.

In addition, ten self-defense personnel armed with live ammunition were arranged in the corridor of the bus to guard all suspects in the vehicle. If there is any change, they will be shot and killed immediately.

Xion was leaning against the window with his face like ashes, looking out the window through the steel protective net. The airport at this time was brightly lit. For Xion, she should have taken off by plane and headed back home, but she never dreamed that she would become a prisoner. She still couldn't figure out which link went wrong. But she knew that she could not escape this time!

After a while, all of the Banks Familyy's men were escorted into the bus by the self-defense team. As a result, the three buses started slowly under the escort of ten wheeled armored vehicles, ready to leave the airport. In order to ensure that there are no accidents to the greatest extent, the Japanese Homeland Security Department plans to relocate all the more than 50 people from the Banks Familyy to the Japanese Self-Defense Forces station in Osaka.

There are tens of thousands of soldiers guarding them, and no one can rescue them from there. When the bus drove away from the scene, it happened to pass by the plane that Charlie Wade was on behind. The Gulfstream plane Charlie Wade took was a small plane with about ten seats, and the fuselage was not too high. And Xion was sitting in the bus, further shortening the height difference between the two.

When passing by this Gulfstream plane, Xion looked at the plane's cockpit, just like looking at the cab of an off-road vehicle from an ordinary car. Leaning against the window of the car, she was so desperate, she suddenly caught a glimpse of a man who was somewhat familiar standing in the cockpit of a Gulfstream plane passing by. She glanced at it, angrily almost exploded on the spot! Because she recognized that on that plane, the man who was looking at her playfully was the man who sat next to her when he came to Osaka from Tokyo!

"Why is he also on a private jet?"

"And, it's still behind our plane?"

"Why does the look in his eyes seem to play with me?!"

"And, why would he pretend to be a squinting ordinary person on the plane?!"

Countless questions suddenly gathered in Xion's brain.

She suddenly realized that the person who leaked her whereabouts was most likely the Chinese who flew to Osaka with her!

Xion couldn't help asking herself: "Who is he?!"

Charlie Wade was not afraid of being seen through by Xion at this time, he kept looking at Xion in the bus with a mocking look.

Chapter 1858

Seeing the other party getting closer and closer to him, Charlie Wade had a frivolous smile on his mouth, looked at Xion, waved at her, and shouted: "Hi, beauty!"

Xion looked at him with cannibal eyes.

Although Charlie Wade couldn't hear what Charlie Wade said, she could still easily recognize the mouth shape of the words "Hi Beauty".

From Charlie Wade's playful and ridiculous expressions, Xion realized that she was planted in the hands of this man. She stared at Charlie Wade fiercely with resentful eyes, and her teeth were almost crushed by her! At the moment when the car and the plane interacted and the distance between the two was the shortest, Charlie Wade made a decapitating gesture on his neck with his right hand. This gesture made Xion immediately furious!

Suddenly she jumped up from her seat and shouted hoarsely: "Bad son! I will kill you myself!"

Charlie Wade's hearing is much more sensitive than ordinary people, so he heard the woman's angry shout clearly.

Immediately, he smiled at Xion, and said with a smile: "I'm waiting for you!"

Xion recognized this mouth shape clearly, and was even more sure that Charlie Wade was the culprit who harmed her and more than fifty subordinates.

At this moment, she couldn't wait to eat Charlie Wade alive! However, the reality does not give her any chance of revenge at all. The convoy had already begun to accelerate at this time, and soon passed by Charlie Wade, and after leaving the airport, it drove towards the Self-Defense Force station.

At the same time, the airport staff had drove the plane towing the plane away, and at the same time the tower began to direct the airport to resume normal operations.

The captain beside Charlie Wade said: "The tower has approved us to go to the runway and take off!"

"Okay!" Charlie Wade smiled slightly, and said with satisfaction: "I have been out for so many days, it's time to go back!"

The plane quickly taxied to the end of the runway, then continued to accelerate on the runway, and finally took off and left Japan.

.....

All TV stations across the country are broadcasting major news urgently at this time. During the news, the host excitedly introduced to the audience that the Tokyo Matsumoto family killing case that shocked the whole country, 57 suspects have been arrested!

The news also specifically broadcast real shots of the capture scene.

The shocking scene of multiple armed helicopters, wheeled armored vehicles, and self-defense team members encircling the entire aircraft is indeed jaw-dropping.

Soon, the news spread throughout Japan.

Zayne was in a hot spring hotel in Aomori Prefecture at this time. After reading this news, he angrily smashed everything that could be smashed in the hotel room, including the TV hanging on the wall!

This time, the Banks Family not only suffered heavy losses, but also disgraced!

The old Lord Banks, who was in Eastcliff, had received the news for the first time.

He called and blurted out and asked: "What's the matter?! What's the matter?! More than 50 people were taken by the Japanese Self-Defense Forces?! How did you lead the team?! If you didn't completely hand it over to you, you caused me such a disaster. You are trying to piss me off!"

Zayne suppressed the anger in his heart, and said in pain, "Dad! I don't know what is going on, I don't know how to leak the wind, but you should know that I don't want to see this scene more than you. occur!"

As he said, he firmly grasped his hair with one hand, gritted his teeth and said word by word: "Although Xion's identity is shameful, she is my flesh and blood after all, and now even her has been arrested. It is very likely that I will be sentenced to death by the Japanese government. Do you understand what I feel when I am a father?"

Chapter 1859

Xion is only 21 years old this year.

Her actual age is one year younger than Zara.

However, from her birth until the age of eighteen, Zayne didn't know her existence.

Xion's biological mother, whose real name is Kairi Elms, is the eldest daughter of the He family of China's four major martial arts families and one of Zayne's personal bodyguards.

Kairi was not only beautiful, but also very capable. She was almost the leader of the Banks Family bodyguards at the time.

She was three years older than Zayne. When Zayne was fifteen years old, he went abroad to study. For his safety, Lord Banks asked the Elms family to come over and became Zayne's personal bodyguard.

That year, Kairi was eighteen years old and had just grown up.

Since that year, she has been with Zayne.

Accompany him to study, accompany him to study, accompany him to hone his family business, and accompany him to travel around the world.

Even when Zayne frantically pursued his current wife Deana, Kairi had been secretly guarding.

Kairi joined the world to protect Zayne when he was ignorant, and had been guarding him for more than ten years. she had no understanding of other men at all, so it was natural for her to have a secret love for Zayne, who she was most familiar with.

Kairi has always kept this love in her heart because of the differences in their identities, ages, and family background.

Until Zayne married Deana, Kairi, who was nearly 30 years old, still didn't reveal what she thought of him.

In the second year of Zara's birth, Zayne was 30 and Kairi was 33. Zayne encountered a plot overseas. Kairi tried her best to save him at the risk of her life, but Kairi himself was lost because of this. Lost an arm.

Kairi, who became a disabled person, had a sharp decline in combat capability, so Zayne had to let her retire and return to the Elm's home early.

When Kairi was leaving, Zayne was also upset.

After all, for the 30-year-old at the time, Kairi had been with him almost every step of his life.

Therefore, he asked Kairi if there was anything he could do for her. Kairi hesitated again and again, expressing the feelings she had buried in her heart for many years.

Zayne, who is usually hard-hearted, was also moved by Kairi's confession. That night, he had an excuse to go out and spent the night out with Kairi.

After that night, Kairi left Zayne and returned to her hometown in Northeast China.

After more than nine months, Xion was born.

Xion did not have the surname Banks at first, but followed her mother's surname. Xion Elms has been held in the palm of the hand by the Elms family since she was a child. She has never been to school. From the age of two to eighteen, she has been practicing ancient martial arts.

Therefore, at the age of eighteen, she has surpassed her mother at the age of eighteen and became the strongest in the Elms family.

After becoming an adult at the age of eighteen, Kairi told her her life experience. In Kairi's description, Zayne is a good father who values love and justice. The reason why he never cared about Xion is because he never knew her existence. Therefore, Kairi gave Xion two choices. Stay and continue to practice martial arts in Elm's family; Or leave home to work for her biological father.

Chapter 1860

Xion considered the latter for a long time and chose the latter.

Because she can faintly realize that this is the path her mother hopes to choose.

Zayne didn't know Xion's life experience at the beginning, but felt that this girl was extraordinary in strength, a manufacturable, and very much like Kairi back then.

Xion also obeyed her mother's instructions, and didn't want Zayne to know this, but the old and cunning Lord Banks saw some clues from Xion.

He always felt that the look in Zayne's eyes was something wrong with this young girl.

This kind of wrong made him vigilant.

He was afraid that Xion was an undercover agent sent by his opponent, so he asked people to thoroughly investigate Xion's identity. Going up the source step by step, he finally found Kairi.

After learning that Xion might be Zayne's daughter, the father ordered someone to collect the hair of the two and quietly compare the DNA. After getting the definite result, he told Zayne all this. Zayne's first reaction was shock, and his second reaction was moved.

He is really why Kairi is moved by his feelings. After that night that year, she not only gave birth to her own daughter, but also cultivated her into a talent, and quietly sent her back to him to protect his safety.

However, he was also worried about Xion's identity. After all, Xion is the illegitimate daughter of his derailed marriage. If you let your wife, children, and others know Xion's identity, then your image in their minds will be greatly reduced.

Moreover, with the wife's character, she will definitely choose to divorce herself without hesitation. Even with this mistake, nearly two decades have passed. After the old man discussed with him, the two thought of a solution, pretending not to know.

Since Xion didn't want to disclose his identity and recognize him as the father, he didn't need to take the initiative to recognize this daughter. Everyone keeps secrets in their hearts, and everything in life will not be affected by this. In the past few years, Zayne took special care of Xion and even trained her as a leader of the Banks Familyy master team. He felt that even if he couldn't show Xion's fatherly love, he must arrange Xion's future properly so that she could realize her own life value in Banks' house, and let her become a master in the future, and worry about food and clothing.

But he never expected that a trip to Japan would ruin all of Xion's future, even his life.

So, how can he not suffer at this moment! Lord Banks could understand his mood at this time. He was silent for a while, and sighed after a long while, saying: "The current situation is very unfavorable for the Banks Familyy. We have lost so many people at once. This matter will spread before dawn. All over the country, now we are like tigers with broken teeth. I am worried that the Wade family will be the first one to be unable to hold back! So you can't get too distracted by this matter, it's best to go back to China right away and discuss it together. Now, what should I do next!"

Zayne choked and said, "Dad, I have a request, and I hope you can agree to it!"

Lord Banks hummed, "Say it, I'll listen to it!"

Zayne stared at him and said, "At all costs, we must rescue Xion!"

Lord Banks said with emotion: "Zayne, this matter is really too ruthless! It is tantamount to slap the Japanese government in the face of the whole world. They will definitely deal with this kind of thing severely. If she is rescued, the cost may be too high for you to imagine!"

Zayne said seriously: "Xion's implementation is what I meant, so I am at my fault in this matter!"

He said, "The Japanese government just wanted to catch the murderer and bring it to justice, and give the people an account. They arrested more than fifty of us, and one of the fifty-something was released. The core purpose has no effect, is it always okay to sell face?"

Chapter 1861

"Selling face?"

When Lord Banks heard this, he said with some emotion: "In this world, everything can be clearly priced. People say that the enemy of killing his father is greater than the sky. Then you give him 100 million, ten 100 million or even 10 billion, 100 billion, there is always a price that can move him."

After that, he changed his words: "But! The key is how much money it costs to buy this face? If it really costs 10 billion, or even 100 billion, do you want to buy it too?"

Zayne fell silent all at once. He really wanted to save Xion.

She is his own flesh and blood. Tiger poison still doesn't eat her, how can he watch her die?

Xion, she is the top master of the Banks Familyy, and she is still young, if she can be rescued, then she can make a great contribution to the Banks Familyy in the future. However, no matter whether it is sentiment or reason, the cost must always be weighed before calculating the plan to be implemented.

If it is really necessary to pay a price of tens of billions or hundreds of billions, the Banks Familyy may not agree to it. After all, apart from him and the old man, no one in the Banks Familyy knew that Xion was his daughter, and they thought it was a subordinate of the Banks Familyy. It's fair to spend tens of millions for a subordinate. A top expert like Xion spends a few hundred million, and he just bites his teeth and accepts it.

But if you really want to spend more money, this matter will be clearly out of balance in the eyes of outsiders. At that time, even if you barely accept it, you will definitely wonder if there is any hidden truth in it. Seeing that he fell silent, Lord Banks said with comfort: "Zayne, if Xion is the flesh and blood of the Banks Familyy, your daughter, and my granddaughter, I certainly hope that she will be safe, but when doing business, we must weigh the pros and cons in everything. Disadvantages, or advantages equal disadvantages, can be done, but if the disadvantages outweigh the advantages, don't force it."

Zayne asked in anguish: "Dad, tell me, how much cost and price the Banks Familyy is willing to bear for Xion? We also paid a great price to rescue Fitz and Zara this time... ."

Lord Banks thought for a while, and said: "If Xion is a concubine after all, her identity is shameful, so I can't equate her with Zara. Let's do it, within one billion, so that the accounting can be hidden. High, it's troublesome for other people or your wife to ask."

Zayne hesitated for a moment and said, "Well, I will try it first, and I will fly to Osaka after a while to see if I can find the key person to mediate."

Lord Banks said: "Don't go. The Japanese government has long known that you are behind the scenes, but they don't want to get into trouble with Banks' family for the time being, so they won't go further after arresting those who did it. But if you still don't understand a little bit and leave Japan as soon as possible, in case there are changes in this matter, if someone among our people confessed you, I'm afraid the Japanese government will change your mind and take you!"

Zayne thought for a while, and felt that Dad's words made sense.

In this situation, the Japanese government has more or less sold the Banks Familyy for a little bit of face. As long as the murderer is brought to justice, they can not hold the Banks Familyy accountable. But if you don't keep a low profile at this time, and instead go to Osaka and try every means to mediate and save people, then you might be a bit shameless in the eyes of the Japanese government.

When the time comes, the Japanese government's lack of security will turn its faces.

Thinking of this, he sighed and said, "I know Dad. I will fly back from Aomori early tomorrow morning."

Chapter 1862

"Yeah." Lord Banks said: "You have to adjust yourself, don't put all your thoughts on Xion. Now the Banks Familyy's trouble is even greater. After returning, we will have a meeting to discuss the feasible solutions at this stage. The plan, if we don't quickly fill up the lost power, some families will be ready to move!"

"Ok, I see!"

.....

At this moment. Eastcliff, Wade family.

The major news of the Banks Familyy in Japan has instantly detonated the entire Eastcliff public opinion. All the families were shocked by this news, because no one expected that the Banks Familyy, as the top family in China, would suffer such a big loss and encounter such a big failure in Japan. However, this news is a huge bad news for the Banks Familyy, but for other families, it is a good news that cannot be better! The strength of the Banks Familyy in Eastcliff is indeed too strong. Except for the Wade Family's barely able to fight him, the gap between the other families and him can be described as heaven and earth. Now the strength of the Banks Familyy has been severely damaged. For other families, the gap with the Banks Familyy has naturally narrowed, so everyone is naturally happy to watch the Banks Familyy's jokes. Among them, the Wade Family was naturally the most excited one, not one of them.

Lord Wade was pacing back and forth in the living room of the villa with excitement, saying, "The masters of the Banks Familyy have always been a problem to my heart, especially that Xion, young and strong, scary, and capable of doing things. It is very strong, and the execution is outrageous. It has always been a thorn in my eye and a thorn in my flesh. I didn't expect that this time the full fold will be in Japan! It is great!"

"Yeah!" Corran on the side was also full of excitement: "The Banks Familyy is really losing money this time. The top masters have been swept up by Japan. For a long time in the future, they will all have their tails in their hands!"

Lord Wade nodded and asked him, "How is Jon talking with Ito Yuhiko?" Corran shrugged: "Jon met Ito Yuhiko at the hospital, but Ito Yuhiko doesn't seem to be interested in continuing this business at this stage, so I don't seem to be too caring."

Lord Wade said: "It is also understandable. After all, even ordinary people may not accept this kind of thing after losing his legs. What's more, Ito Yuhiko, Japan's top rich man, is understandable for a period of depression."

Corran asked again: "Then should I let Jon come back, or let him stay in Tokyo to see?"

Lord Wade thought for a while and said, "Let's stay in Tokyo first, and then visit Ito Takehiko in two days. Maybe his attitude will loosen. Now there are still a few days before the Chinese New Year. Let Jon stay in Tokyo until the twelfth lunar month. Nine come back again."

"Okay." Corran nodded and said, "I will go to Aurouss Hilll tomorrow morning. It would be great if Charlie Wade was willing to come back for the New Year!"

Corran chuckled and said casually: "It is good if Charlie Wade is willing to come back. If not, we can't force it..."

Lord Wade said very seriously: "The Wade family itself is not considered prosperous. If Charlie Wade is willing to come back, it will not only give the Wade family a boost, but also lock us in a marriage partner in advance. I dare not say that he can do it. The Zara from the Banks Familyy, but at least the Stefanie from the Sun family is within easy reach. Marriage with the Sun family is not bad. At least the two can be combined to suppress the Banks Familyy!"

Chapter 1863

Charlie Wade's plane landed safely at Aurouss Hilll Airport at around ten o'clock that night. In order to give Claire Wilson Wilson a surprise, Charlie Wade didn't tell her to come back tonight. Cameron Isaac had already arranged the convoy to pick up the plane, so when everyone got off the plane, they shared several cars and went home.

Don Albertt and Liam left separately, and Cameron Isaac took the initiative to drive Charlie Wade back to Thompson First, but Charlie Wade naturally did not refuse.

After getting in the car, Cameron Isaac smiled and said to Charlie Wade as he drove, "Master, this time we made the Banks Familyy so miserable. If the Banks Familyy knows about it, I'm afraid it will be desperate with us..."

"It doesn't matter." Charlie Wade said with a smile: "The Banks Familyy is now hard to protect itself. It has lost so many people. I am afraid that it will not be able to recover in a few years. It must be overwhelming in recent years.

"This is..." Cameron Isaac sighed: "Xion Banks, who was so distracted by the people of Eastcliff, was also brought in by you. The Banks Familyy really suffered a heavy loss this time."

"Xion?" Charlie Wade frowned and asked, "Who is Xion?"

Cameron Isaac said: "This is the woman you greeted her on the plane. She is Xion, one of the strongest players in the Banks Familyy."

"Oh?" Charlie Wade asked curiously: "Is she the heir of the Banks Familyy?"

"No." Cameron Isaac said: "It just happened to be Banks. She joined the Banks Familyy at the age of 18 and it has only been three years now. However, in the past three years, there has been a lot of noise, and the strength is really intolerable. Look down."

Charlie Wade nodded lightly and smiled: "Unfortunately, I don't have a chance to discuss with her."

Cameron Isaac laughed and said, "Master, she is also a master among ordinary people. How can she be compared with you? If you just say a word of thunder, I think Xion will turn to ashes!"

Charlie Wade said indifferently: "Thunderstorm this kind of thing can't be used too often, I have the opportunity in the future, I still hope to learn from real martial arts masters."

Cameron Isaac said: "The national martial arts masters are basically in Eastcliff. Some of them serve the Order and some serve the top families."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "If you have the opportunity, you can go to Eastcliff again."

While talking, Cameron Isaac's cell phone rang suddenly.

He kept his cell phone on the cell phone holder in the car. He looked down and exclaimed: "Master, it is your aunt who is calling..."

"My aunt?" Charlie Wade frowned, and the image of a young woman appeared in his mind.

He had an impression of his aunt. Aunt Cynthia was two years younger than his father. He was not close to his father before, and naturally he was not so close to a family of three.

In his memory, his aunt was a relatively snobby woman, because he felt that the uncle was the eldest son, so the aunt had been close to him since he was a child.

Moreover, because the uncle and dad were a little uncomfortable, the aunt stood in the uncle's camp. Before, she always tried every means to help the uncle run against her dad. This was what bored Charlie Wade.

Cameron Isaac was also a little puzzled at this time, saying: "I have no contact with your aunt. I don't know why she called me suddenly, so I will answer it first."

"Good." Charlie Wade exhorted: "Don't disclose any information about me."

"Good master!"

Cameron Isaac said, reaching out and pressing the answer button. As soon as the phone call, he respectfully said: "Hello, Miss!" Cameron Isaac was a subordinate of the Wade family, and the subordinates called the main family. Except for the old man, Corran, Bruce and Cynthia were all young masters and young ladies.

Chapter 1864

As for Charlie Wade's generation, they are generally called Young Master and Young Miss.

On the phone, Cynthia spoke with a high-pitched tone, "Isaac, are you in Aurouss Hilll recently?"

Cameron Isaac hurriedly said respectfully: "Miss Im back, I'm in Aurouss Hilll."

Cynthia gave a hum, and said, "Tomorrow, vacate the presidential suite of Aurouss Hilll Shangri-La Hotel, and arrange for a convoy to pick me up at the airport. I will fly there in the morning."

Cynthia usually travels by private jet, so there is no specific departure time at all.

Get up early and go a little earlier; get up late and go a little later.

After listening, Cameron Isaac asked in surprise: "Miss, you are coming to Aurouss Hilll?! I don't know what else needs to be prepared next?"

Cynthia asked, "What has Charlie Wade been up to lately?"

"Master Charlie Wade..." Cameron Isaac glanced at Charlie Wade, who was expressionless in the back seat, through the rearview mirror of the car, and said: "Master Charlie Wade is not busy, he should be at home with his wife. Right."

Cynthia said in a somewhat contemptuous tone: "The dignified young master of the Wade family, it's fine to join a low-class family in a third-rate city. Give him an Emgrand Group. If he doesn't manage it well, he only knows how to stay home with his wife and do housework every day. System!"

Cameron Isaac was embarrassed and didn't know how to answer the conversation for a while. After thinking for a while, he asked, "Miss, are you here this time to see Master Charlie Wade?"

"Right." Cynthia said, "Tomorrow night, let Charlie Wade come to Shangri-La to see me, so I will invite him to dinner."

Cameron Isaac hurriedly said, "Oh, well, I'll talk to Master Charlie Wade later."

"Yeah." Cynthia said: "By the way, I am a person who recognizes a bed when sleeping. What brand of bed does the master bedroom of your presidential suite use?"

Cameron Isaac thought for a while and said: "It seems to be the black label series of Simmons in the United States, all imported with original packaging."

Cynthia blurted out: "Replace it! Change to a bed from Swedish Heisteng, and ask for their high-end series."

Heisteng's bedding can be said to be the most expensive bed in the world. Any entry-level mattress costs hundreds of thousands, and a high-end series mattress costs millions.

If you add the bed frame, at least two million.

Even a five-star hotel would not use such an expensive bed.

But now that Cynthia has spoken, Cameron Isaac can only agree and say: "Miss, Aurouss Hilll should not have a Heisteng store. In this way, I will arrange someone to buy it at Highland Falls tomorrow morning, and then drive it back to you to replace it."

"Yeah." Cynthia's voice sounded satisfactory, and continued: "Yes, there are quilts. I want to cover the quilt made of Icelandic goose down. You bought it for me."

Iceland goose down is the world's top and most precious and rarest top down. It uses soft down on the breast and underarms of the Iceland goose duck. It is very precious and is made into a quilt, which costs at least one million. .

In other words, if Cynthia came to stay one night, just preparing the bed and quilt would cost at least three million Dollar.

Cameron Isaac did not dare to have any doubts, and immediately said:

"Good eldest lady, I will do everything tomorrow."

Cynthia hummed: "Okay, so be it, hang up."

After speaking, he directly hung up the phone.

Charlie Wade frowned at this moment and asked: "My aunt, suddenly coming to see me, what kind of medicine is sold in the gourd?"

Chapter 1865

Hearing Charlie Wade's question, Cameron Isaac was also puzzled: "Master, to be honest, I don't know your aunt. In my capacity, it's actually difficult to have direct contact with the Wade family's direct members. Steward Thompson will have more daily contact with them. Why don't you call and ask him?"

Charlie Wade waved his hand and said indifferently: "Forget it, it doesn't make sense to call and ask. Soldiers will stop you and the water will cover you. Let's see what she wants to do first."

Cameron Isaac asked again: "Then will you go to dinner with your aunt tomorrow?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "Go, if you set a time, tell me directly when the time comes, and you won't use it to pick me up, I will go by myself."

"Ok!"

Charlie Wade thought of her aunt's previous appearance. In her mind, she was a relatively mean woman. When she was five years old, she married a young master from a quasi-first-line family in Eastcliff, and later gave birth to a son. , I don't know.

So Charlie Wade asked Cameron Isaac: "Isaac, what is the status of my aunt at Wade's house now? It stands to reason that she is married, so she should not be able to intervene in her family's affairs anymore?"

Cameron Isaac replied truthfully: "Master, your aunt has separated from her lover a long time ago, and since the separation, she moved back to the Wade family."

Charlie Wade frowned and asked, "Separated? What's the matter?"

Cameron Isaac chuckled and said, "In fact, we shouldn't say such things, but since you asked, Master, I will tell you..."

Immediately, Cameron Isaac gave a slight pause and explained: "When your aunt married to the Bass family, although the Bass family was not as good as the Wade family, it is still a quasi-first-line family in the entire Eastcliff family. The overall strength is also very good. However. Six or seven years ago, the Bass family bet on the steel industry and invested a lot of money to build a steel group. It coincided with the continuous collapse of the steel industry, so the Bass family also lost a lot of money, and the family industry lost at least half. ."

Speaking of this, Cameron Isaac smiled helplessly: "Since the Bass family is gone, your aunt has always wanted to get a divorce, but the master felt that the divorce was detrimental, so he didn't let her leave."

Fortunately, your aunt moved from the Bass family. Come out, go back to the Wade family, and then start working in the Wade family again." Charlie Wade nodded lightly and hummed: "It seems that my aunt is not a fuel-efficient lamp."

Cameron Isaac smiled and said: "Your aunt's temper is really bad, and she is also famous in Eastcliff, so when you meet with him tomorrow, if there is something wrong, don't be too impulsive."

"Okay, I see." Charlie Wade smiled faintly and said: "In fact, you can guess without thinking, she probably wants me to return to Wade's house."

"Yes." Cameron Isaac agreed and said: "I think so, but Steward Thompson said that the master really wants you to go back. Considering that you may be more resistant at first, so I didn't make this matter clear."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "This time the Banks Family's accident, the Wade family should be very happy, right?"

Cameron Isaac also smiled and said, "You really did a great favor to the Wade family. The Banks Family has not suffered such a big loss in many years. Master should be very happy."

Charlie Wade put away his smile, sighed, and his eyes became more determined and said: "These two families, whichever one is the only one, is cheaper than the other. One day, if you can step on them together, it will be considered a real success! "

.....

When Cameron Isaac drove to the door of Thompson First, it was already eleven o'clock at night. Charlie Wade carried the suitcase, walked into Thompson First alone, came to the door of his villa, swiped his card directly into the yard.

The room was brightly lit. Charlie Wade opened the door directly with fingerprints before his wife and father-in-law were asleep. At this time, Claire Wilson Wilson, Jacob Wilson and Elaine Ma's family of three are sitting in front of the living room, watching TV intently.

Chapter 1866

Claire Wilson Wilson heard the door ring, turned his head and found that Charlie Wade turned out to be back. She ran over to him in surprise, and exclaimed in excitement: "Husband, why are you back today? Yesterday's video was not. Say it might have to wait two days?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Didn't that want to surprise you!"

After speaking, Claire Wilson Wilson ran up to him and plunged into his arms. In the past few days that Charlie Wade went to Japan, Claire Wilson Wilson missed him every night. Before that, she rarely felt this way. Charlie Wade missed her when he went to Eastcliff, but he didn't think so much.

Therefore, when she saw Charlie Wade suddenly come back, she ignored her all-time reservedness and hugged him directly. Charlie Wade didn't expect that his wife would hug herself directly in front of the old wife and mother-in-law, and for a while, she was a little delighted and embarrassed.

So, he said to Claire Wilson Wilson: "Wife, if you want to hug, you have to wait until you return to the house. After all, your parents are still watching."

Claire Wilson Wilson also recovered and blushed all of a sudden.

She was a little shy and fearful and said: "We just watched TV. It turned out that there was a massacre that killed more than 30 people in Japan a few days ago. It was really scary!"

Charlie Wade asked in surprise: "Has it been reported in China?"

"Yeah!" Claire Wilson Wilson nodded and said seriously: "Several TV stations are broadcasting, and it seems that they are still sending out troops to arrest suspects at the airport. The suspects alone arrested three buses. The law and order in Japan is also terrible. Now, I knew it was so messy over there, and I couldn't let you go if I said anything!" Charlie Wade smiled and said, "I don't know how messy there is, but it should be an accident."

Elaine Ma had already ran over happily at this time and said excitedly: "Oh my dear son-in-law, you are finally back! You don't know how much your mom missed you when you went to Japan these days!"

Jacob Wilson immediately dismantled the platform from the side and hummed: "You don't miss Charlie Wade, you are thinking about what they brought you!"

Elaine Ma immediately glared at Jacob Wilson and cursed: "Jacob Wilson, you don't fart! The Lady said it from the bottom of my heart. Even if my good son-in-law doesn't bring me anything, I miss him!"

Elaine Ma finished cursing in this voice, immediately turned to look at Charlie Wade, and asked with a smile: "Good son-in-law, have you come back this time, have you brought a gift for mom?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "Take it, take it all."

With that, he took out the gift he bought.

He first took out the ring that was given to Claire Wilson Wilson, handed it to his wife's hand, and said, "My wife, this is for you. Open it!"

Claire Wilson Wilson asked in surprise, "What is it?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "You'll know by unpacking and taking a look."

Elaine Ma also hurriedly urged: "Claire Wilson Wilson, you quickly open it, and let Mom open her eyes to see what gift the good son-in-law has prepared for you!"

Chapter 1867

Seeing that Elaine Ma was already full of eagerness, Charlie Wade put the suitcase on the ground and was about to open it.

Elaine Ma, who was on the side, could no longer hold it back, squatted down and said flatteringly: "Oh, my son-in-law, how can this kind of thing be bothering you? Mom will help you get it!"

Charlie Wade smiled helplessly and did not object.

Elaine Ma opened the box and saw a huge boss bag on the top. He couldn't help but said, "Hey, this boss should be men's clothing, right?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "This is the suit I picked for my dad. He is the standing director of the Painting and Calligraphy Association now. He always has social activities and so on. He is also a leader, and he is a little dignified to go out!"

Jacob Wilson was excited on the side: "Oh, Charlie Wade, you are really a good son-in-law of Dad! Dad has always wanted to buy a suit that can be worn out to drink tea, but he has been reluctant to start, but I did not expect you to do it for Dad! Dad! Thank you so much!"

Elaine Ma curled his lips, took out the suit bag and threw it at Jacob Wilson's feet in disdain, and said contemptuously: "You old thing is also worthy of such a good suit? Don't look at your old face, are you worthy?"

Jacob Wilson angrily said, "Why am I not worthy? I am in my early 50s and I haven't gotten blessed yet. Unlike you, my body is not out of shape!"

"What are you talking about?!" Elaine Ma suddenly exploded, and blurted out: "You dare to say that my Lady is out of shape?! Isn't she tired of life and crooked?"

Jacob Wilson hurriedly shrank his neck and said angrily, "I was just kidding.."

Elaine Ma glared at him fiercely, and then said to Charlie Wade: "Good son-in-law, what boss suit do you buy for him? Just his old thing, wearing a fake is worthy of him. I saw you last time. The fake Rolex I found for him is not bad, and it's good enough to match his bad old man!" Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Mom, Dad's suit doesn't have much money. It's a discount. The gift I bought for you is much more expensive than this."

When Elaine Ma heard this, she immediately smiled and said happily: "Really? Ouch! My good son-in-law loves me! What gift did you buy for mom, show it to mom!"

Charlie Wade took out the two Tiffany boxes, and handed the larger one to Elaine Ma.

"Mom, this is for you."

Elaine Ma looked at the Tiffany logo on the package and immediately danced with excitement: "Oh! Tiffany! This...this is a big international brand!"

Having said that, she immediately opened the package and couldn't wait. After that, she opened the exquisite Tiffany jewelry box again, and when she glanced at it, she found a golden bracelet full of diamonds lying inside, and she was suddenly surprised!

"Damn! I know this bracelet! It sells for hundreds of thousands in China! It's certainly not cheap to buy in Japan?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Mom likes it, it doesn't matter if you have more money or less."

Elaine Ma smiled: "Why don't I say that my son-in-law is the best!" After finishing speaking, hurry up and put the bracelet on your hand, and watch carefully from all angles under the light. While observing, he exclaimed: "This Tiffany thing is done well! The workmanship is fine, and there is no fault at all! Wear! It's so good with my temperament in my hands."

Although Jacob Wilson secretly curled his lips on the side, he did not dare to say anything ironic.

At this time, Charlie Wade took out another smaller gift box from the box and handed it to his wife Claire Wilson Wilson.

Chapter 1868

"My wife, this is for you, open it and see if you like it!"

Claire Wilson Wilson was surprised and said: "Bought it for me too?"

Husband, it is not easy for you to make money. You usually don't see you spend money for yourself, and you always buy things for me when you go out..."

Elaine Ma hurriedly said: "Silly girl, Charlie Wade is an absolute model of a good man who loves you, loves you, and spoils you! Look at your dad, this old stingy man. When did you give me any valuable things??"

Jacob Wilson said angrily: "You used to control the financial power of the family. I don't even have pocket money. What can I give you something?"

Elaine Ma sipped: "I'm pooh! Even if my husband has no money, he will do everything possible to give things to his wife. How about you? You will make excuses for having no money. Haven't you hidden private money yourself for so many years? "

Jacob Wilson picked up the suit Charlie Wade gave him and hummed: "I won't tell you about these useless ones. I will go back to my room and try the suit my good son-in-law bought me! It will happen that the Calligraphy and Painting Association will have activities tomorrow. I will wear this new suit then?!"

Claire Wilson Wilson had already carefully unpacked the gift box. When she saw a brilliant diamond ring lying in the jewelry box, she was shocked and covered her mouth!

Elaine Ma's eyes widened several times and exclaimed: "My mother! Such a big diamond?! Why should there be a three carat?!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Then you really know the goods, the main diamond on this ring is 3.2 carats!"

"Oh!!!"

Elaine Ma felt his scalp numb, and exclaimed: "So big?! This is not a million dollars?!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Renminbi is only eight hundred thousand Dollar!"

"It's only eight hundred thousand?!" Elaine Ma touched his chest, and said with emotion: "My dear! My son-in-law is really good at it! Eight hundred thousand diamond ring, only eight hundred thousand, really. Great wealth! Great! Great!"

Claire Wilson Wilson beside him couldn't help being shocked, and said, "Charlie Wade, you are busy running around every day, and it is not easy to make money. Why buy me such expensive things... The ring is so expensive, I can't wear it out, isn't it a waste of money..."

Charlie Wade said seriously: "My wife, we have been married for so long and haven't bought you a ring. Just treat this ring as my belated wedding ring for you!"

Claire Wilson Wilson's eyes were moved with tears.

She looked at Charlie Wade and choked: "If you really want to buy a wedding ring, then you can buy one for 20,000 or 30,000. Don't buy such an expensive one..."

As she said, she wiped her tears and continued: "And look at you...every time you just buy things for me and parents, but never buy things for yourself, how can I live in my heart? Go willingly..."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly, took out the ring, and took his wife's right hand, and said seriously: "Claire Wilson Wilson, it is my blessing to marry you. Thank you for your persistence for so many years. This ring is what I do Husband owes you what you owe, now I will make up for you, you must accept it!"

"Yeah!" Elaine Ma also helped to echo: "Daughter, look at how good Charlie Wade is and take you so much! You must have a good time with Charlie Wade. The most important thing is to have a baby quickly.!"

Claire Wilson Wilson was still moved by Charlie Wade's affectionate confession, but when he heard this, he blushed immediately.

At this time, Charlie Wade carefully put the ring on her right ring finger and said with a smile: "Wife, company is the most affectionate confession, thank you for being with me all these years!"

Chapter 1869

At this time, Claire Wilson Wilson was already moved to tears. Looking back on the years of marrying Charlie Wade, she was also filled with emotion deep in her heart. Back then, grandpa insisted on letting himself marry Charlie Wade, he didn't understand, and the whole family strongly opposed it, but grandpa still used his majesty to make himself compromise.

However, forced marriage made her misunderstand marriage from the beginning. After marrying Charlie Wade, the marriage she thought was to follow her grandfather's request and be Charlie Wade's wife. The two would live together like that. It doesn't matter whether it is suitable or not, it doesn't matter whether they like it or not.

Therefore, the two have respected each other for a long period of time. Although they are nominally husband and wife, they are actually just strangers living under the same roof.

Especially when he first got married, Claire Wilson Wilson also suffered strong pressure from all sides because of Charlie Wade's identity.

At that time, everyone was in her ears and kept telling her: Charlie Wade is a trash, a d*ck, and a rubbish. She shouldn't be with Charlie Wade, and divorce Charlie Wade quickly. But for her at that time, since she chose to marry him, no matter whether she was willing or not, she didn't want to embark on the road to divorce.

After all, Charlie Wade has never done anything to miss. Later, in her post-marriage life with Charlie Wade, she gradually saw the shining points on Charlie Wade's body, and gradually developed a little affection. However, she has never understood what it is like to like and love. After all, Claire Wilson Wilson had never been in a relationship before, and she was relatively ignorant and stupid about feelings, so that the two of them had been so confused to this day.

And now, facing Charlie Wade's affectionate confession, she suddenly felt a feeling of extreme acceleration in her heartbeat, which made her short of breath and dizzy. Of course, she was moved to tears. Elaine Ma on the side saw this scene with joy in his heart. She really felt that Charlie Wade was indeed a good son-in-law who could stand the test.

In the past, those rich second generations who liked Claire Wilson Wilson, although they were extremely flattering to themselves, there were few who could really do Charlie Wade's step. Looking back on the past, she treated Charlie Wade so much and insulted Charlie Wade so much. Charlie Wade still took his son-in-law's respect for his mother-in-law and always called her a mother. From this point of view, Charlie Wade is a good young man who repays his grievances with virtue.

What's more, she has repeatedly caused serious disasters, and in the end it was Charlie Wade who helped her settle, and even saved her life more than once. These are classic models for repaying morality!

The most important thing is that Charlie Wade is finally promising now. A Thompson First villa worth more than 100 million Dollar and two BMW cars were all earned by Charlie Wade. Every time he went out to show others Feng Shui, he would buy many expensive gifts.

Such a son-in-law, to be honest, is really hard to find with a lantern. Moreover, he is really good and caring for his daughter, which is even more rare.

So she hurriedly said to Claire Wilson Wilson: "Claire Wilson Wilson, Charlie Wade must be tired after flying back so late. You two should go back to the room and take a shower together and go to bed early!"

"Ah?" Claire Wilson Wilson was startled, his face flushed immediately, and said at a loss: "Mom...you...what are you talking about...what together Take a bath..."

Elaine Ma said solemnly: "Isn't it normal for a couple to take a bath together? It just so happens that the bathroom in our big villa also has a luxurious bathtub. That bathtub is suitable for two people. You can also wipe Charlie Wade's back or something. , How great..."

Claire Wilson Wilson was so embarrassed that she couldn't wait to get away. Although she is now more than 20 years old, in fact, she is still a little girl who has never been in a relationship before. Elaine Ma suddenly asked her to take a bath with Charlie Wade and asked her to wipe Charlie Wade's back. She couldn't adapt at all at all, she was ashamed and embarrassed.

Chapter 1870

Charlie Wade knew that his wife was a shy woman, and she had no experience in that aspect. How could she be able to hold Elaine Ma's ridicule.

So he hurriedly said: "Mom, at first I feel thin-skinned, so don't shame her."

Elaine Ma smiled and said, "Claire Wilson Wilson, have you seen it? Charlie Wade thinks more of you!"

As she said, she stretched her waist and said, "I won't talk to you anymore. I have to go back to my room and take pictures of my bracelet. You guys should rest early!"

While talking, Jacob Wilson walked out of the elevator wearing a brand-new boss suit.

As soon as I saw the three of them, I walked around the elevator entrance with a smug look, and smiled: "Look, we old Wilson still has some foundation, this suit is almost tailor-made, you just say I have this figure. It's rare in the world to be blessed in the fifties!"

At this time, Jacob Wilson, wearing a high-end and decent suit, did look very stylish. In addition, he did a good job in body management. At first glance, he really did not look like a person in his 50s.

But Charlie Wade knew very well in his heart that Jacob Wilson was actually a lazy man, and he didn't exercise much at all. The reason why he could keep his figure so good was completely tortured by Elaine Ma for so many years.

Although Elaine Ma has converged a lot now, the former Elaine Ma is simply a female devil. Whoever puts on a wife like this will be awful and dying. She is bored and bored every day. She doesn't even have any appetite for eating, and she doesn't want to gain weight. It's too possible.

So Charlie Wade praised: "Dad, you are dressed like this, and you look like you are forty years old. You really have a very good temperament!" "Yeah! Hehehe!" Jacob Wilson smiled triumphantly, and said: "I was in college back then. It was also a famous school grass, not much worse than those little fresh meats now!"

Claire Wilson Wilson shook his head helplessly: "Dad, when can you be a little humble? If you say this, it will make people laugh!"

Jacob Wilson curled his lips and said, "What are you afraid of? Your father, I put it in the pile of old men. That is definitely one of the best. To use an idiom to describe it, it's called a triumphant crowd!"

Elaine Ma looked at Jacob Wilson, who was young and style, and felt really uncomfortable.

She couldn't help thinking in her heart: "Jacob Wilson's dog stuff, it's really like that to clean up! It's my figure, I've been getting blessed all these years, and I'm getting a little out of control! During this period of time at home, my legs have been injured. , And even a serious lack of exercise, which leads to continuous weight gain! No! I must lose weight and get back to my body! Nothing can make her compare Jacob Wilson!"

So Elaine Ma gave Jacob Wilson unconvinced a glance, did not speak to him, but said to Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson: "I'm back to the room, and you two will go back to rest soon."

Claire Wilson Wilson blushed and responded, "Okay mom, let's go back to the room and rest!"

Jacob Wilson also said: "Charlie Wade, you go back to your room early to rest. You must be tired after running around for so many days. Let Claire Wilson Wilson put some hot water for you and take a good bath!"

Claire Wilson Wilson couldn't help but feel ashamed when she thought of what his mother said just now, but when she thought about it, her husband was really working hard. Taking a bath can relax a lot, and the feeling of exhaustion will definitely be greatly improved.

So she said to Charlie Wade: "Charlie Wade, you can chat with your dad for a while, I'll go up and give you some water, and you can take a bath in ten minutes."

Charlie Wade nodded.

After Claire Wilson Wilson and Elaine Ma took the elevator upstairs together, Jacob Wilson pulled Charlie Wade to make him a cup of tea to relieve his fatigue.

As soon as Charlie Wade sat down, the phone buzzed.

Looking down, it was an unfamiliar number from Eastcliff, so he stood up and said to Jacob Wilson, "Dad, I'll answer the phone."

Jacob Wilson said: "I'll answer the phone right here, go out?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "The customer is calling."

After speaking, he stepped out of the door.

When he came to the yard, Charlie Wade pressed the answer button and said, "Hello, who is it?"

On the phone, a woman's enthusiastic voice came: "Oh, Charlie Wade, I am your aunt! For so many years, aunt really misses you so much!"

Chapter 1871

If it weren't for the phone call between his aunt and Cameron Isaac on the way home, Charlie Wade at this moment would really believe that the enthusiasm of the woman on the phone really came from the heart.

So, he simply pretended to be very surprised, and said with a smile:

"Auntie, it's really you? Why would you remember to call me?"

Cynthia actually didn't want to call Charlie Wade either.

She had already passed the order to Cameron Isaac, so that Cameron Isaac would directly inform Charlie Wade to go to Shangri-La for dinner tomorrow.

However, Mr. Cameron came to her specifically just now and asked her to call Charlie Wade herself.

But it can also appear that she is more sincere, and, after all, she and Charlie Wade have not seen each other for so many years. A call ahead of time to get in touch with each other is tantamount to warming up in advance. For the next plan to persuade Charlie Wade to go home, also Will help.

So she smiled and said: "Charlie Wade, I haven't seen you for so many years, aunt has always been thinking about you. I wanted to see you in Aurouss Hilll a long time ago, but I heard Stephen Thompson say that you don't want to come back temporarily, so I just I didn't bother you..."

With that said, she asked with great concern: "Charlie Wade, how have you been all these years?"

Charlie Wade felt a little nauseous in his heart, but he kept politely saying, "Everything is fine for me, thank you aunt for your concern."

Corran breathed a sigh of relief and said with a smile: "You have a good time, auntie can't be more pleased!"

After that, she said again: "By the way, Charlie Wade, aunt called you, mainly because I want to go to Aurouss Hilll to see you tomorrow and ask you out for a meal. I wonder if you have time?"

Charlie Wade asked in surprise, "You are coming to Aurouss Hilll tomorrow?"

"Yes!" Corran said: "Actually, aunt wanted Cameron Isaac to notify you, but I thought about it, our aunts and nephews have not seen each other for so many years, so we still call you personally."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Okay, when will you arrive tomorrow, I will invite you to dinner!"

Corran smiled and said, "Let's have dinner in Shangri-La tomorrow night. I have already made Cameron Isaac ready."

"Okay." Charlie Wade did not hesitate, and agreed without thinking, "Then see you in Shangri-La tomorrow night."

Corran smiled and said, "Well, well, then we'll see you tomorrow!"

Charlie Wade hung up Cynthia's phone, the smile on his expression gradually disappeared. He has no affection for all the people surnamed Wade, whether it is his grandfather, his uncle, or his aunt. Before investigating the cause of his parents' death, the Wade family was the biggest suspect in his eyes.

Back in the room, Claire Wilson Wilson had already set a bath water for him. After taking a bath, Charlie Wade went back to bed to sleep with Claire Wilson Wilson. Claire Wilson Wilson, like a child waiting to hear the story, asked him if he had encountered any interesting things in Japan. Charlie Wade told Claire Wilson Wilson what had happened between the three big families in Tokyo.

However, he deliberately picked himself out of this series of events, not daring to let Claire Wilson Wilson know that he was deeply involved in it. He just told Claire Wilson Wilson that his clients in Japan happened to have some relationship with these families, so he got some first-hand inside information. Claire Wilson Wilson was shocked to hear Charlie Wade talk about these incredible things.

The elements of big family, ninja, and assassination sound not only incredible, but also new. Therefore, Claire Wilson Wilson was very happy to listen to it, and entangled Charlie Wade to talk about it very late.

Chapter 1872

The next day, Claire Wilson Wilson got up early to go to work at the company.

Charlie Wade had eaten breakfast made by Elaine Ma, and spent the whole day thinking about Cynthia's affairs.

Since Stephen Thompson found himself, until now, the Wade family has never directly appeared in his life.

For Charlie Wade, he also liked this situation where he didn't have to deal with the Wade family.

However, Cynthia broke the silence between himself and the Wade family this time, which also means that the Wade family has begun to want to win over themselves, and for whatever purpose they do not want to stay in Aurouss Hilll.

Even if I saw my aunt today and refused her request, the Wade family would definitely not give up.

It seems that the Wade Family will become a long-term trouble for himself in the future.

.....

At 5:30 in the afternoon, Charlie Wade said hello to his mother-in-law Elaine Ma, telling her that she would have something tonight and not eat at home.

Later, he went out alone and took a taxi to Shangri-La.

Cameron Isaac wanted to pick him up by car, but Charlie Wade refused.

The Wade family always thought that Cameron Isaac was theirs. If Cameron Isaac behaved too diligently to him, the Wade family might be aware of the abnormality.

When Charlie Wade arrived at the Shangri-La catering department, Cameron Isaac was already waiting here in person.

Seeing Charlie Wade arrived, Cameron Isaac immediately stepped forward and said respectfully: "Master, you are here."

Charlie Wade nodded and asked him, "Where is my aunt? Is she here?"

"Here." Cameron Isaac wiped the sweat from his forehead and whispered:

"Your aunt said that she was a little tired. I arranged for a spa technician to go to her room to serve her. It will take more than half an hour to finish the work. ."

Charlie Wade smiled faintly: "All right, then take me to the box first."

Cameron Isaac hurriedly said, "You two will have dinner in the sky garden tonight."

Charlie Wade couldn't help but frowned. He remembered the Sky Garden, where the wedding he had made up for Claire Wilson Wilson was held there.

The Sky Garden is a huge banquet hall with no boxes and translucent glass around it. It is usually a dining place for top Shangri-La members.

Choosing to eat there will inevitably be seen by other guests.

So Charlie Wade asked him, "Are there many guests tonight? In case many people see me having dinner with her, and then recognize her, it might expose my identity."

Cameron Isaac shrugged and said, "Don't worry, Shangri-La tonight has completely cleared the entire catering department. Whether it is the outside box or the sky garden, there are no other guests tonight."

Charlie Wade asked in surprise: "It's not enough to clear a sky garden?"

The boxes, Chinese restaurant and western restaurant outside are also cleared?"

"Yes." Cameron Isaac said: "The catering department will only entertain you and your aunt tonight."

Charlie Wade said awkwardly: "There is no need to toss like this, just find a higher-grade box?"

Cameron Isaac lowered his voice and said in Charlie Wade's ear: "Master, you may not know your aunt, she has always been like this."

After speaking, Cameron Isaac said again: "Your aunt usually has eyes above the top, and she has always sneered at a third-tier city like Arouss Hillll, and asked her to eat with locals in a third-tier city like this. In her eyes, An insult to her.."

"What score?" Charlie Wade said with a bit of disgust: "No matter how big the shelf is, don't you still have to eat, drink and sleep like ordinary people? What's the point of doing this kind of specialization everywhere?"

Chapter 1873

Charlie Wade stepped into the restaurant department of Shangri-La. The huge food and beverage department is indeed empty today. The waiters also evacuated a lot. According to Cameron Isaac, he was afraid that there would be too many waiters, which made Cynthia upset.

Charlie Wade walked through the outer restaurant of the catering department and came directly to the Sky Garden in the center. In the Sky Garden Banquet Hall at this time, the eighty-eight banquet tables have been completely removed, and only one is left in the center. Well-made Western-style dining table.

Charlie Wade didn't need to think about it. The removal of the eighty-eight banquet tables and chairs must have been instructed by his aunt. Therefore, he felt a little upset in his heart. Although Charlie Wade hadn't met this aunt until now, Charlie Wade felt very disgusted in his aunt's style of being a relative of the ancient emperor. Even if Charlie Wade now has nearly 60 billion Dollar in cash in his bank card, Charlie Wade still has no intention of showing off.

Not to mention that eating a meal is a waste of time and money, even if he is allowed to eat a bowl of beef noodles for ten Dollar at a roadside ramen restaurant, he will not feel anything wrong. Moreover, in order to have a meal, the entire Shangri-La field and the entire Sky Garden were emptied, and it was really impossible for Charlie Wade to experience any superiority.

On the contrary, this will make him very repulsive and resistant. Accompanied by Cameron Isaac, Charlie Wade came to the only table. The dining table is about two meters long and one meter wide, with two seats placed at both ends.

Cameron Isaac personally opened one of the seats for Charlie Wade and said, "Master, I have to apologize for waiting here for a while."

Charlie Wade nodded lightly and said, "Okay, go ahead and wait for her on my mobile phone."

Cameron Isaac asked hurriedly, "Master, would you like to drink something first, I'll let someone help you prepare it."

Charlie Wade said, "Just give me a glass of boiled water."

"Good young master."

Charlie Wade sat at the dining table alone, fiddling with her cell phone, just in time to receive a message from Nanako Ito: "What is Charlie Wade doing?"

Charlie Wade smiled knowingly when he saw her message, and replied, "Preparing to eat outside, how about you?"

Nanako Ito replied: "I just came back from the hospital and accompanied my father in the hospital."

Later, Nanako Ito sent another message: "Charlie Wade, does your wife like the ring you gave? Is the size of the ring still appropriate?"

Charlie Wade replied: "I like it, thank you for helping me try the ring, the size of the ring is also very suitable."

Nanako Ito sent a smiling face and said, "That would be great! It will be the Chinese Lunar New Year in four days. Nanako wishes Charlie Wade a Happy New Year in advance!"

With a smile on his face, Charlie Wade typed his fingertips and replied: "Thank you! How is Mr. Ito's body recovered?"

Nanako Ito replied: "The doctor said that after a few days of training, he can be discharged from the hospital."

"That's good." Charlie Wade just sent these three words, and at the entrance of the Hanging Garden, a woman dressed in luxurious and splendid walked in.

This woman looked at her age about forty years old, wearing a limited edition Chanel costume, with short and medium hair dyed in yellow. Her face was not beautiful, except for her indifferent appearance. Kind of very mean feeling.

This woman is Charlie Wade's aunt, Cynthia.

Chapter 1874

Cynthia walked very fast, the stride meteor came in and went straight to the dining table where Charlie Wade was.

And Cameron Isaac followed her step by step with a respectful attitude.

When Charlie Wade was still a few meters away, Cynthia smiled and said, "Oh, Charlie Wade, I haven't seen you for so many years, and he has grown into a handsome young man!"

Charlie Wade looked at Cynthia and found some childhood memories on her face.

So he laughed at himself and said, "I will be 27 years old soon, and I am not a big or small guy anymore."

Cynthia looked very intimate, and said with a smile: "Oh, you look so much like your dad! It's like a mold!"

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "Compared with the previous years, Auntie seems to have not changed much."

Cynthia laughed and said: "A dozen or twenty years have passed in a blink of an eye, and I am almost 50 years old. How could it be the same as before."

At this time, Cameron Isaac had already taken Cynthia's seat away carefully.

When Cynthia sat down, he glanced at Charlie Wade's side, and saw that Charlie Wade had always been sitting on the chair, but he hadn't stood up before he took a seat. She couldn't help feeling a little dissatisfied. According to the rules, the younger generation at the dinner table should stand up and wait respectfully when the elders arrive. If the elders speak, the younger ones must bend over and lower their heads to listen carefully; If the elder is seated, the younger must wait until the elder is seated and when the elder indicates that he can sit.

But Charlie Wade did well, his butt looked like he was on a chair all the way, not to mention standing up, he didn't even bother to move. Cynthia felt annoyed all at once.

She actually didn't have a good impression of Charlie Wade. If Charlie Wade keeps missing, never show up again, it is naturally best for her. But I didn't expect that this kid had been missing for so many years, and suddenly jumped out to divide the assets of the Wade Family. What made her even more unacceptable was that the old man gave him an Emgrand Group and 10 billion cash was not enough, and he wanted to return him to the Wade family.

She looked at Charlie Wade, who was dressed in ordinary clothes, had an easy-going temperament, and had some ignorance of etiquette, and she said in her heart: "What qualifications does such a person have to return to the Wade family? Any direct member of the Wade family has received aristocratic education since childhood. Then he went abroad to receive advanced studies. Compared with Charlie Wade, who only spent a year as a senior in Aurouss Hilll, it is almost heaven and earth. Letting such a semi-illiterate return to Wade Family will definitely lose Wade Family's face!"

However, although Cynthia didn't like Charlie Wade very much in hrt heart, she did not dare to refuse the father's explanation. After all, after she and her husband were completely separated, her wishful thinking was to return to the Wade family, so that in the future, she would get a share of the Wade family's family.

But after all, she was a married woman, and she wanted to return to her natal family to separate the family property. She herself was very repelled by Corran and Myles her brothers.

In this case, if Cynthia still wants to get some of his assets, she must have her father's strong support. Therefore, she has always been the only one in the Wade family. She usually has eyes above the top, no one is in the eye, and everyone dared to contradict her, but she did not dare to disobey the old man.

Moreover, whenever the old man confessed to her, she always went all out to make the old man happy.

Therefore, she also warned herself in her heart: "This time, I have to do the things my father arranged for me beautifully! Let's not say that I can persuade Charlie Wade to return to the Wade family, at least let Charlie Wade agree. For the Lunar New Year, I have to go back to Wade's house to spend time with the old man!"

Thinking of this, she suppressed her dissatisfaction with Charlie Wade, and said with a smile: "Charlie Wade, you have really suffered in Aurouss Hilll these years. My family hasn't seen you for so many years, and all of them miss you very much. When do you want to go home and have a look?"

Chapter 1875

"Go home and see?"

Charlie Wade couldn't help but smile when he heard these four words.

Cynthia saw that he had a fake smile on his face, so he said, "Charlie Wade, people say that you are leaving home to be the boss. Now that you are no longer young, you should go back and have a look after you have been away for so many years."

Charlie Wade nodded, agreeing: "You are right. After leaving for so long, I should take time to go back and have a look."

As he said, he smiled and said, "Well, I'll arrange a time later, and I will check it out if I have time."

Charlie Wade seemed to have agreed to Cynthia's proposal, but in fact it was nothing more than a drag formula.

After a while, to arrange another time, it is basically tantamount to nowhere. Anyway, his only idea is to deal with today.

Of course, Cynthia also knew Charlie Wade's plan, and immediately said, "Charlie Wade, don't have any resistance to your family. Family has always cared about you very much. Don't forget, your grandfather heard that you were after Aurouss Hilll. , Immediately asked Stephen Thompson to send you the Emgrand Group and 10 billion in cash. It is reasonable and reasonable. You should also go back and see his old man, what do you think?"

Charlie Wade asked back: "Aunty, is it true that I just have to go back and have a look, and this matter is even settled?"

Cynthia's dissatisfaction has grown stronger.

In her opinion, Charlie Wade was indeed a little ignorant of good and bad.

Wade Family asked him to come all the way to ask him to go back. This is already a shame for him. If he knows a little bit, he should immediately agree to it, and then go directly with his plane back to celebrate the New Year.

Unexpectedly, he actually played Tai Chi with himself here, and he even said nothing.

So, she said to Charlie Wade with a slightly displeased expression: "Charlie Wade, your grandfather invested 110 billion Dollar in you. This amount of money is nothing to the Wade family, but it is purely from Quantitatively speaking, it is definitely a huge sum of money. Is it possible to invest so much in you so that you can only go back and take a look?"

Charlie Wade looked at Cynthia and asked seriously: "Auntie, what exactly does the Wade family want from me? You don't have to hide it here. Let's open the skylight to speak up."

Cynthia hesitated for a moment, then nodded and said, "Well, since you said that, then I won't go around with you."

As he said, Cynthia sat up straight and said with a serious expression:

"Your grandfather meant to let you go back to Wade's house to spend a reunion year together. Then, Aurouss Hilll, you must hurry up and stop."

Charlie Wade raised his eyes and asked with interest, "Did it break? What happened?"

Cynthia said: "You are nothing more than an Emgrand Group in Aurouss Hilll, a family of your current wife."

Chapter 1876

As he said, Cynthia stretched out a finger and said arrogantly: "First of all, regarding the Emgrand Group, you can continue to ask Doris Young to help you take care of it at that time. We have investigated this person, and she has the ability, and during this period of time. The Emgrand Group has developed well in her hands, so you can rest assured to hand it over to her."

After that, Cynthia stretched out another finger: "Secondly, your current wife, Claire Wilson Wilson's family. We have investigated the situation of the Wilson family. To be honest, such a family can even count as a fart in front of the Wade family. No! How can their family be the Wade family's in-laws?"

Cynthia had already looked disgusted at this time, and said, "So, I advise you to leave that Claire Wilson Wilson as soon as possible and draw a clear line with their family. It is best to give them a sum of money directly and let them get away forever. Leave China so that no one will make a big fuss about them in the future and satirize our Wade family man who is hungry and does not choose food!"

Charlie Wade's face immediately became a little ugly when he heard this, and his voice became colder and colder. He said, "Auntie, my marriage is my own business, and it has nothing to do with you or the Wade family.

So, please also Don't interfere with the Wade Family!"

Cynthia sighed and persuaded: "Charlie Wade, don't be so arrogant. Think about it yourself. You are a descendant of the Wade family! Choose ten of the richest second generations in the country with the highest status and you will definitely be there. For a seat, how could the girl with the surname Wilson be worthy of you? She wouldn't even be qualified to carry you shoes! In ancient times, she didn't even have the qualifications to be you as a housekeeper!"

Charlie Wade said with a bit of sullen tone: "Auntie, she was my wife at first, and she married me when I was at the bottom of my life. I would never divorce her, so you don't need to divorce her. Moreover!"

Cynthia said with regret: "Charlie Wade! Don't use emotions!"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "Emotional matters, of course, must be emotional!"

Cynthia blurted out: "As a descendant of a wealthy family, feelings are not even a fart! Do you remember your uncle? He is also a kind of talent. He has treated me well for so many years, but what about it? Once his family strength can't match After I match, I must separate from him!" Immediately afterwards, Cynthia said unwillingly: "If it weren't for your grandfather's opinion, my woman's initiative to divorce will affect her reputation, and if I am not allowed to go through the divorce formalities, I would have severed all relations with him! You are a man, at all Don't worry about the impact of divorce on your reputation, you just divorced the surname Wilson, and returned to Eastcliff to marry a well-known eldest lady. The future is boundless!"

Charlie Wade sneered and said, "I'm sorry, I am more emotional. If you can do something like this, I can't do it!"

Seeing that Charlie Wade did not accept his suggestion, Cynthia immediately said: "Charlie Wade! You have to find out that Wade Family's hands are one of the best in the whole country! Any woman who wants to marry into our Wade family must have a family background that matches the Wade family! Otherwise, it will drag my Wade family back and shame my Wade family's face! The Wade family's face must not be ruined by you or ruined by the surname Wilson In the hands of the humble family!"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "I'm sorry, although my surname is Wade, I am not someone you can control and control at will. I am in charge of my marriage. No one else has the right to interfere. The same is true for you!"

"you!"

Cynthia was furious at that moment. He slapped the table and stood up and shouted angrily: "Charlie Wade! You thought I was talking to you in a good voice, and I was discussing it with you?!"

"What?" Charlie Wade asked her coldly, "Are you going to force me to get a divorce?"

Cynthia scolded, "You are the heir of the Wade family! You must follow the arrangements of the Wade family. What's more, do you think the Emgrand Group and the 10 billion cash are given to you in vain?! If you are not obedient, the Wade family can support you, just I can step on you!"

Charlie Wade was also immediately furious, and he said coldly: "You don't want to talk about the Emgrand Group and the 10 billion cash here! The reason why the Wade family was able to advance by leaps and bounds and stand at the top of the country was due to my father's dedication. Planning, and strategizing decision-making! If the property is counted, my father owns at least a quarter of the Wade family's asset inheritance rights. If that is the case, let alone 10 billion, even 100 billion, I deserve it! "

Speaking of this, Charlie Wade's tone became more severe, and he scolded: "My father did so much for the Wade family, but how did you return him? You forced our family of three out of Eastcliff! In the end, my parents died tragically. ! I haven't settled this account with you yet!"

Chapter 1877

Cynthia didn't expect Charlie Wade to dare to talk to himself like this! Moreover, when Charlie Wade said that he should inherit a quarter of Wade Family's assets, she was immediately furious!

So, she shouted directly: "Asshole! You are too high on yourself! Why do you inherit a quarter of the assets of the Wade family?!"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "Just because I am Charlie Wade! Just because my father is Bruce!"

Cynthia scolded, "Your dad has been dead for so many years, so you still want to inherit the Wade family's assets?! I tell you, you are not worthy!"

Charlie Wade looked at Cynthia and sneered: "My father flew for the Wade family back then. In my opinion, even the head of the Wade family is more than enough! It's you! I really have to follow the rules of the big family and get married. His daughter is the water that was poured out. Now that you are married, you are no longer a member of the Wade family! Why are you pointing fingers at me in front of me?!"

The sentence that the married daughter is the water poured out is the sentence that Cynthia hates most in her life.

Even if she married as a wife early on, she had been thinking about the Wade family's wealth.

Now, after separating from her husband and severing her kindness, she pinned her hopes for the future on the Wade family's fortune!

However, the elders of the Wade family, Corran, the old three Myles, and the old Four William have always been hostile to Cynthia. They often said this in front of Cynthia, and reminded her overtly and secretly not to worry about Wade family assets, because she was married. , Is no longer the Wade family, and is not worthy to inherit the Wade family's assets! Cynthia naturally refused to accept it!

She felt that her husband's family was unreliable, the only thing she could rely on was Elder Wade!

Therefore, in any case, she must please the old man, and let the old man give herself a legacy that can make her life safe for her life before death. This is also the goal of her hard work now.

However, what she didn't expect was that Charlie Wade, a kid who had been away from home for nearly twenty years, dared to say such things in front of her. It was like stepping on her tail and making her angry immediately!

So, she gritted her teeth and glared at Charlie Wade, and said angrily: "Charlie Wade! I tell you! If you are more acquainted and follow the instructions of the Wade Family, the Wade Family will naturally not treat you badly in the future, and will let you live a life of food and clothing!"

After all, she changed her conversation, her voice increased a little, and her eyes were cracked threatening: "But if you don't know each other! Then I tell you, the Wade family can hold you up, and naturally they can also throw you down. Go down! At that time, the Emgrand Group and the 10 billion will leave you! After all, you will be beaten back to your original shape and become the stinky hanging silk that is despised by everyone and the wife's family!"

Cynthia was out of control, her voice even screamed.

In the whole sky garden, her angrily voice echoed.

Cameron Isaac hurriedly evacuated all the service personnel, and walked out of the sky garden banquet hall and stood outside the door.

At this time, even if other people are slightly dissatisfied with Cynthia, it is possible that Cynthia's emotions will be further out of control.

Seeing that Cynthia's expression had already taken on a strong resentment, Charlie Wade smiled playfully, and asked her: "So cruel? Then

I would like to ask, if I'm acquainted, what would the Wade family command me? "

Chapter 1878

Cynthia thought that her threat had softened Charlie Wade, so she immediately sneered: "First divorced your wife from a humble background, and then returned to the Wade family to wait for your grandfather's dispatch. Now Orrin of the Sun family is unified. The Sun family's control over the entire Sun family has reached an unprecedented peak. His daughter has a marriage contract with you. If you marry his daughter, it will be of great help to the Wade family."

After all, Cynthia said again: "Or you can try the eldest granddaughter of the Banks Family, that is, the daughter of Zayne. She is very favored in the Banks Family. Her mother was one of your father's suitors back then. Maybe I will be willing to marry my daughter to you, and I will be even more helpful to the Wade family at that time!"

"So, after you divorced that woman, first try to develop with the eldest granddaughter of the Banks Family. If you can get her, you will get married with her. If you can't get it, you will fulfill the engagement with Orrin's daughter!"

Charlie Wade chuckled, "So the Wade Family wants me to sell for the Wade Family!"

Cynthia said coldly: "This is not a sell-off. After all, marriage is very common in the upper class. This is not only good for the Wade family, but also good for you!"

Charlie Wade sneered: "Auntie, since marriage has so many benefits, why don't you just divorce, and then try to get together with Orrin or Zayne? If you had this, it was with them. One of them hooked up, wouldn't it be a huge help to the Wade Family?!"

When Cynthia heard this, she felt like she had been slapped repeatedly by Charlie Wade. Then she realized that Charlie Wade seemed to be subdued, but it was actually to humiliate herself!

Thinking of this, she immediately became angered and gritted her teeth: "You beast! I am your aunt! How dare to insult me?!"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "I insult you? I shame you. If you were a man, I would have beaten you eight times!"

Cynthia almost fainted, clutching her chest with a hideous face.

Charlie Wade didn't bother to stay here at this time. He stood up and said to Cynthia disdainfully: "Go back and tell the old man, if he wants to return to the Emgrand Group and the 10 billion, I can return at any time!"

When he said this, his expression was stern and he shouted sharply:

"But!"

"My parents' account, I will definitely settle it with him in the future!"

"At that time, all the people who are responsible for this matter will have to pay me back with profit! No one can escape! Even him! No exception!"

"You, you" Cynthia trembled angrily, and yelled at Charlie Wade with his fingers: "You bastard! You dare to be so disrespectful to your grandfather because you are the heir of the Wade family! How outrageous!"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "What if I disrespect him? If you are not satisfied, you can go back and complain to him!"

Cynthia gritted his teeth and said, "Okay! Every word you say today will be truthfully told to your grandpa. If you are beaten back to your original form, don't blame my aunt for not giving you a chance!"

"Give me a chance?" Charlie Wade snorted: "You don't deserve any chance at all! However, if I find out in the future and find that you are also involved in the death of my parents, then you won't ask me to give you a chance. !"

"It turned you back! It turned you back!" Cynthia was already completely irritated by Charlie Wade. She grabbed a beautiful empty wine glass on the table and slammed it on the ground, shouting hysterically: "I will definitely make you regret it. of!"

Charlie Wade nodded and sneered contemptuously: "You can use whatever means you can, I'm waiting!"

After all, he walked toward the gate without looking back.

Chapter 1879

Seeing Charlie Wade's departure, Cynthia behind him couldn't help shouting angrily: "Charlie Wade! I haven't left yet, what qualifications do you have to leave first! I am your elder, your aunt! You dare to be so disrespectful to me, I must Make you pay!"

Charlie Wade ignored it. In his opinion, his aunt is completely an idiot spoiled by the family halo. He never forgets to hold his airs and arrogantly at all times. It is obviously the order of the old man to do business, but he only cares about his own air and face, such a person, even in the Wade family, is difficult to achieve. Therefore, Charlie Wade didn't bother to waste time with her.

After leaving the gate, Charlie Wade left the Sky Garden directly.

Cameron Isaac hurriedly greeted him and said nervously, "Master, why are you doing this? If Miss Cynthia goes to the master to file a complaint, then your situation will be passive!"

"So what?" Charlie Wade snorted: "Don't think she is from the Wade family, but in fact she is just a dog of the old man. She wants to bite me, but also depends on what the old man means! If the old man wants to really want to Start with me, then let him let him go!"

After that, Charlie Wade said again: "The reason why I only scolded her now, instead of hitting her or killing her, is because I was thinking that they still have blood connection with me. If they do it themselves, then I will even have this point. The bloodline is ignored! No matter who belongs to the Wade family, if you dare to bark in front of me, I will directly destroy him! If anyone dares to do anything to me and the people around me, I will directly kill him!"

At this moment, Charlie Wade's body was murderous!

Cameron Isaac sighed helplessly.

At this moment, what he was actually worried about was not what the Wade Family would do to Charlie Wade in the future, but worried. Once the Wade Family became angry and angered Charlie Wade, Charlie Wade was afraid that he would not let the Wade Family go.

In case it really started, Wade Family might not be Charlie Wade's opponent.

He sent Charlie Wade all the way to the door of Shangri-La, and respectfully said: "Master, where are you going? I will drive you."

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "No, you send me at this time, but the Wade family will be aware of the clues. Go and see Cynthia, and by the way, see what she has plans next."

Cameron Isaac nodded slightly: "Master, then I will go and see your aunt first."

Charlie Wade reminded him: "Take a look at Cynthia's return plan to see when she leaves. Besides, I must be guarded against her going to see my wife, understand?"

Cameron Isaac suddenly shuddered and stood up straight and respectfully said: "Master, don't worry, I understand!"

Charlie Wade did not put Cynthia in his eyes, but he also worried that Cynthia would think of other ways to save the country.

She wanted to divorce Claire Wilson Wilson on her own initiative, and then returned to Wade's house. She rejected her directly. Then, if she went to find her own wife, it would be a bit tricky for herself.

After all, Claire Wilson Wilson still doesn't know his identity. And he didn't plan to let her know.

At least, he didn't want his wife to know his identity before he found out the truth about his parents' death and successfully avenged his parents.

.....

After Charlie Wade left, Cameron Isaac turned back to the Sky Garden.

At this time, Cynthia was already furious on the spot.

Chapter 1880

The prepared western dining table had already been lifted by her, and the ground was full of mess.

Because there were a lot of broken glass ballast on the ground, the female foreman of Sky Garden was afraid that Cynthia was accidentally injured by the glass ballast, so she hurried over with two waiters to clean it.

Cynthia was full of sorrow and anger and had nowhere to vent. Seeing that the foreman came with two waiters, she was immediately furious. She went up and grabbed one of the girls. She raised her hand and pulled her face, while beating, she cursed and said in her mouth: "Did I let you come? Did I let you come?!"

The girl was slapped several times, crying and begging: "Miss you, calm down, I am also afraid that you will be injured by the glass ballast, so I quickly clean the glass ballast..."

Cynthia's heart was still very angry, and even increased a bit of strength in her hands, and yelled: "Bastard thing! I let you out, you can come out, I don't let you out, you better not even your face Let me see!"

Seeing this, the foreman hurriedly stepped forward and begged: "Miss, don't be angry, this is my own opinion, so I ran into you..."

Cynthia stared angrily, kicked the foreman's stomach, and cursed coldly: "Things that don't have eyes! All three of you have been fired. Get out!"

The foreman was kicked by Cynthia and sat down on the ground.

The ground was full of glass ballast, so she immediately felt a few pieces of glass ballast pierced into the flesh.

However, at this moment, she did not care about the severe pain caused by the glass ballast. She was pale and clutching her belly, and said in pain: "My stomach hurts... Lily, please call me a rescuer. car....."

Lili was the other of the two waiters. She was not beaten by Cynthia because she was standing a little far away from Cynthia.

As soon as she saw the foreman holding her stomach and her face in pain, she immediately asked with concern, "Sister Nan, are you okay? Hold on, I'll call 120!"

Cynthia looked at the foreman contemptuously, and said disgustedly, "What kind of pity do you pretend to be in front of me? Do you want me to lose money to you?"

The girl who was dialing the phone suddenly rebuked, "Why are you like this! Sister Nan is three months pregnant! You are still kicking her belly. If the child has something long and two short, no matter how much money he has It can't solve the problem!"

Cynthia couldn't help frowning, and said coldly: "What are you, dare you talk to me with this attitude?!"

The girl blurted out without showing weakness: "We are human! Not a thing! Even if we are not as high as you, our body is given by our parents! Why are you hitting us?!"

Cynthia is almost furious!

She grew up so big, in addition to behaved like a good man with her tail clipped in front of her father, no one had ever dared to disobey her and talk to her in such a tone!

But here today, she has been confronted by Charlie Wade and several waiters one after another, and she is naturally annoyed.

At this moment, she completely ignored the fact that the foreman was pregnant, and took a step forward, grabbed her mobile phone from the girl who had smashed her into the hands of the girl who was waiting for the 120-sound station to answer, and slammed it directly on the ground. Immediately afterwards, she immediately raised her hand and slapped her face, slapped her face fiercely, and gritted her teeth and cursed: "Shame on her face, and dare to yell at me here, don't you?!"

As he was talking, Cameron Isaac stepped forward, and when he saw this, he hurriedly stepped forward and asked: "Miss, what's the matter with you?"

Seeing Cameron Isaac's arrival, Cynthia said coldly: "Okay, you are here just right! I ask you, how do you manage this group of people under your hands? Even I dare to stand up! Is this going to shake the sky?!"

When Cameron Isaac saw that all three of his employees had been beaten, he didn't need to ask him to know that Cynthia must have vented his anger towards Charlie Wade on them, so he immediately said respectfully, "Miss, don't worry, these three do not have long eyes. I must deal with the person seriously! Don't get angry, or I will send you back to your room to rest first?"

Cynthia was also suffocated with anger, and looked at Cameron Isaac and said coldly: "Completely block these three b*tches for me!"

After that, she stretched out her hand and slapped Lily's face again, before turning around and leaving...

Chapter 1881

As soon as Corran left, Cameron Isaac hurriedly asked the three employees: "What happened just now?"

The Lily choked and said: "Mr. Cameron, Miss Cynthia was angry and raised the table. Sister Nan took us over to clean the glass ballast. As a result, Miss Cynthia suddenly acted on us and kicked Sister Nan in the stomach. Sister Nan was still pregnant. I was pregnant, I wanted to call an ambulance, and the eldest smashed my phone..."

Sister Nan, who was sitting on the ground with a painful face, said: "Mr. Cameron, I am to blame for this. You must not anger them. If the company wants to punish, please punish me alone!"

Cameron Isaac sighed and said, "I blame me for this. I didn't protect everyone. I will arrange for someone to take you to the hospital immediately. In addition, I will give you at least one month's vacation and give you a compensation of 200,000 Dollar each. "

After finishing speaking, he looked at the foreman sitting on the ground and said seriously: "Sister Nan, I will contact the best gynecologist in Aurouss Hilll to help you with the baby, and make sure that the child is fine at all costs. If the child can be saved, I will I will make up for your 200,000 fetal expenses; if I can't keep it, I will make up for you 500,000, and then give you one year of paid leave, and go back to take a good rest, and actively prepare for pregnancy!"

When Cameron Isaac said so, everyone was immediately relieved.

They also worried that Cameron Isaac would obey Cynthia's request and punish them severely.

Unexpectedly, it is really rare for Cameron Isaac to take care of everyone so much.

Seeing the three women crying and thanking them one after another, Cameron Isaac couldn't help persuading him, so he greeted the security team and rushed them to the hospital.

After all three of them were sent to the hospital, he sighed sadly in the office alone: "Hey, I really don't know when Cynthia, the aunt, will be tossing in Aurouss Hilll, let alone what she will do too much. It's a pity that I am a member of the Wade family after all. No matter what, I can't suppress her at all. If she really wants to cause trouble in Aurouss Hilll, I have nothing to do. It seems that I can only hope. Master Wade!"

.....

Charlie Wade didn't pay attention to his aunt, let alone take it to heart. After returning home, he began to prepare for the New Year with his family.

Since it was the first Spring Festival in the Thompson First Villa, the family of four paid great attention to the sense of ceremony of the Spring Festival this year.

Claire Wilson Wilson bought a lot of decorative window grilles, stickers, red lanterns and other accessories, intending to make his home more festive.

Although Elaine Ma is lazy, she has a strong vanity. She also wants to set out her home as soon as possible, and then take more photos to show off in her circle of friends, so she is busy with Claire Wilson Wilson. After Charlie Wade came back, he joined them.

Claire Wilson Wilson took out a bunch of beautifully made red lanterns from the big carton that he bought online, and said to Elaine Ma: "Mom, I want to decorate both the third and second floor terraces. Hang this on the railings of the terrace. Plant red lanterns and turn them on after dark, the effect must be particularly good."

Elaine Ma agreed without hesitation: "Okay! New Year, just have to be a little festive, I'll go hang up later!"

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly said, "Mom, I have another business, I want to discuss it with you."

Elaine Ma smiled and said, "Okay! Just talk about it!"

Claire Wilson Wilson said embarrassingly: "You have been hanging a lot of green hats on the terrace on the third floor. This is a big Chinese New Year. It is really inappropriate to hang so many green hats, or let's remove the green hats. Right!"

When Elaine Ma heard these words, she immediately blurted out without hesitation: "So how do you do it! Those green hats are all prepared for the old man Christopher, so that after he gets up every day, he opens his eyes and sees this. He piled up green hats, and then was gloomy all day. If I took them away, wouldn't it be a waste of money for him?"

Claire Wilson Wilson helplessly said, "Mom! Every family is full of lights and festivities for the celebration of the New Year. If we still have so many green hats, it will not look good at that time!"

Chapter 1882

"That won't work!" Elaine Ma said stubbornly, "Those green hats are my magic weapon against the Wilson family. I just want them to forcibly remember that Hannah was pregnant outside with wild species every day!"

Elaine Ma suddenly remembered something at this time, and said with a smile: "Hey! I will hang these lanterns and the green hats one by one in a while. When the lanterns are turned on, the red lanterns and the green hats are absolutely conspicuous! It will definitely anger the Wilson family!"

Claire Wilson Wilson persuaded: "Mom, those who celebrate the New Year, have to be forgiving and forgiving!"

Elaine Ma snorted coldly: "You don't come to persuade me. It's useless to persuade me. Don't you know that your grandmother broke my leg? And my two front teeth are also given by her. I will never forgive her for something!"

Seeing his mother's face full of determination, Claire Wilson Wilson felt a burst of powerlessness.

It seems that there is no possibility to persuade mother to change her mind.

At this time, Elaine Ma held a bunch of red lanterns by himself, and walked towards the elevator, and said as he walked: "I'm going to hang up the lanterns and hang them with the bunch of green hats!"

After half an hour.

Under the organization of Mrs. Wilson, the Wilson family was also lighting up the lights in their villa, so it was so lively.

The Wilson family is not what it used to be. The Wilson Group had previously received Donald's investment, and after repaying all the debts, it took another small project given by Donald. Now it has turned a profit.

Mrs. Wilson also took back the villa, antiques, and calligraphy and painting that had been seized by the bank before.

Because Donald promised to lend the Thompson First first-class luxury villa to their family for ten years, Mrs. Wilson simply rented out the old villa and could earn some rent back.

The company has survived enough again, and all the previous assets have returned to his own hands. The current Lady Wilson is very high-spirited. Christopher's family knew that the happy life in the future depended almost entirely on the Lady, so they always treated her as the empress. Christopher is also proud of the recent spring breeze. The Wilson Group has come back to life. He and Harold and Wendy and his sons and daughters are in important positions in the group.

Harold and Wendy have re-living the lives of the rich second generation, and of course they are also full of joy.

Hannah was the only one in the family who had the worst. No one gave her a good face all day long.

Christopher and Mrs. Wilson hated her deeply, but because of Donald, they couldn't drive her away, so they regarded her as a thorn in the eye.

Harold and Wendy also felt that their mother was too embarrassed to have been pregnant with wild species and contracted sexually transmitted diseases, so they always ignored her every day.

Being rejected by the whole family made Hannah very hurt.

Especially seeing the four people of their surname Wilson smiling every day, but she can only hold back at home, sweeping, cooking, and washing clothes, like a servant who doesn't need money, she feels even more uncomfortable.

At this moment, seeing that they were all preparing various decorations for the New Year, Hannah stepped forward, licking her face and said flatly, "Oh, mom, or I will help! You forgot that we lived in the past. When I was in the old villa, the decorations and decorations of the house were all made by me as soon as the Chinese New Year came!"

Lady Wilson glared at her, and said in disgust: "What's the matter with you? Hurry up and clean the windows! I tell you, as soon as today is over, there will be three days before the New Year. You must have all windows in the villa. Make me spotless!"

Chapter 1883

When the Lady said that she asked herself to clean the windows of the entire villa, Hannah suddenly collapsed.

She couldn't help but blurt out: "Mom! Our villa is so large, with so many rooms, so many windows, I can't finish it even after the first month of the year!"

Lady Wilson said with a sneer: "You still want to delay the first month? I tell you! Before the New Year's Eve you have cleaned all the windows of the whole family, I will drive you to the yard for New Year's Eve dinner!"

As soon as Hannah heard this, how angry the whole person was!

If it weren't for Christopher, Harold, and Wendy still here, she would have liked to rush over now, kick the Lady to the ground with one foot, and then ride on her stomach and slam her old face.

It is a pity that he has no chance to start at all.

Hannah was extremely helpless, even if there were 10,000 dissatisfaction in her heart, she could only swallow it all in her stomach, and said with an annoyance, "Good mother...I know...I will try my best. To wipe..."

Mrs. Wilson coldly snorted: "Forget your acquaintance! She was originally a woman who corrupted her family style. If she is not honest and obedient, even Donald can't save you!"

Faced with the arrogance of the Lady Wilson, Hannah felt so annoyed.

But at this time, she didn't dare to say a rebuttal, she could only nod and humiliate said: "Mom, you are right, I must listen to you!"

Christopher said at this time: "Mom, I'll go upstairs and hang some decorations."

The Lady Wilson hummed and said to Hannah: "You go to clean the windows now, hurry up!"

Hannah had no choice but to do it.

Christopher went upstairs here and came to his room. He was about to put a few grilles on the window. He suddenly saw that a row of red lanterns lit up on Elaine Ma's balcony opposite Charlie Wade's house.

What is disgusting is that these glowing red lanterns are all next to all kinds of green hats, and the red light is set off on the green hats, emitting a strange color, which makes people feel annoyed to watch.

Christopher was furious immediately!

He couldn't help cursing: "Damn, this Elaine Ma is too much, and he gave a green hat with a red lantern. Isn't this the fcking old saying, red and green race shit?! It's so fcking mad. I'm dead!"

Thinking of Elaine Ma not letting himself live during the New Year, Christopher felt uncomfortable, and gritted his teeth downstairs, and said to Harold who was putting window grilles in the living room?

"Harold, you come with me! Go find that Elaine Ma. Afterwards!"

Lady Wilson frowned and asked, "What are you going to do to Elaine Ma at this time?"

Christopher scolded angrily: "Mom, that stinky lady Elaine Ma is really deceiving people. She hung so many green hats on the balcony, and it's fine after hanging them for so long. Now they have one next to each green hat. The big red lantern, this is the damn Chinese New Year and wants me to die! I have to find her to settle the accounts!"

The Lady Wilson shouted sharply: "You stop me! Go to Elaine Ma to settle the account, have you two beat Charlie Wade? Do you two want to spend the New Year in the hospital?"

Christopher, who was still aggressive just now, was immediately dumb.

Chapter 1884

Charlie Wade's strength is very abnormal. If he is at home, finding the door with his son is equivalent to sending him to death.

Thinking of this, he couldn't help gritting his teeth: "Mom! I don't need to trouble her today, but in any case, I can't let Elaine Ma wear those green hats for the New Year!"

Lady Wilson said disdainfully: "If she likes to hang on, let her hang on! Now for our family, what counts for face? Money is the most real thing!

Christopher said angrily, "Then I can't bear Elaine Ma's bastard forever, right? When is this the f*cking stop?"

Harold said with a black face at this time: "Dad! Didn't you always say that you want to find a chance to engage in a wave of Elaine Ma? If you want me to say, we want to do it as soon as possible! It's best to do it before the New Year. Let the Charlie Wade family have a miserable year. If this happens, Mr. Webb will also be able to explain it! Otherwise, we will never start with their family, Mr. Webb will soon lose patience with us!"

Christopher's expression froze, and he blurted out: "Yes! Elaine Ma's stinky lady had a plaster on her leg before, and she stayed at home all day long and didn't go out. She didn't have a chance to fix her, but I think she seems to have the plaster removed now. Now, I have to prepare for the New Year in the past two days. In my opinion, Elaine Ma will definitely go out. It is better to find a chance to provoke her and let her learn a lot!"

After that, he looked at Mrs. Wilson again and asked, "Mom, what do you think?"

Lady Wilson pondered for a moment, and nodded: "We really have to teach Elaine Ma a lesson. At least we have to cause a little trouble for Charlie Wade's family, otherwise Donald is not comfortable."

Later, Mrs. Wilson remembered something and said excitedly: "Donald will just come to Aurouss Hill tomorrow to inspect a few projects. It is estimated that he will spend the night in Aurouss Hill!"

When Christopher heard this, he quickly agreed: "Mom, isn't this a good opportunity to give back to Mr. Webb! Why did Mr. Webb let us live in this villa and return it to our Wilson Group to invest? To put it bluntly, not just for Let us be under the nose of the Charlie Wade family and disgust them? If we take the money and never do anything, if Mr. Webb comes to blame someday, we'll be in luck!"

Lady Wilson hummed, and said: "If you do it often, let you figure out how to do this. I only ask for one thing. Don't kill anyone, otherwise Donald may not be able to. You can keep us."

Christopher nodded and sneered: "Don't worry, mom, I planned it a long time ago. I'm going to tie Elaine Ma and take some unsightly photos of her. It's best to find someone to get her pregnant and let them The family is ashamed!"

Lady Wilson frowned, and said: "Christopher, I have no objection if you find someone to do it, but you should never do it yourself!"

Christopher nodded and said, "Don't worry, Mom, I know it!"

Harold on the side hurriedly asked, "Dad, are you planning to start tomorrow?"

"Yes!" Christopher grinned and said, "Tie her up tomorrow, and then wait for a show for Mr. Webb tonight!"

Harold said hurriedly, "Dad, I used to know some friends, they were pretty reliable, and I can ask them to help!"

Christopher smiled and said: "Okay! You go find a few young and strong people, and then find a van, I have a buddy who has a vacant warehouse in the suburbs, and then I will get Elaine Ma there!"

Wendy on the side asked, "Dad, what if Elaine Ma doesn't go out tomorrow?"

Harold also nodded and said, "Yes, Dad, what if Elaine Ma doesn't go out?"

Christopher said: "If Elaine Ma doesn't go out, let's create an opportunity for her to go out! I have been observing her daily trajectory these days. Don't worry, I have a way to get her out of home by herself!"

Chapter 1885

Early the next morning.

Claire Wilson Wilson and Jacob Wilson left home early and went to work on their own affairs.

Claire Wilson Wilson's studio is closed according to the national legal holidays. It will be closed on New Year's Eve and will be closed for a total of seven days until the sixth day of the new year.

As for Jacob Wilson's Calligraphy and Painting Association, it is a hobby group in itself, so there is no such thing as a holiday, it depends on everyone's mood.

And Jacob Wilson didn't deal with Elaine Ma at home on weekdays, so he couldn't wait to be in the Calligraphy and Painting Association on the first day of the new year.

Elaine Ma didn't have much entertainment, and prepared the ingredients for the New Year's Eve dinner alone at home.

As for Charlie Wade, after getting up early in the morning, he checked the operation report of Oracle Pharmaceutical from Liam on his mobile phone.

At present, several production lines of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticall in Japan have begun to smoothly switch to Oracle Nova Dias, and a large amount of inventory has been in place within a period of time.

Charlie Wade plans to sell Oracle Nova Dias on the first day of the Lunar New Year in Japan. At that time, all major Japanese TV stations will also broadcast Stefanie's endorsement of Oracle Nova Dias ads.

As one of the most well-known actresses in Asia, Stefanie's influence in Japan cannot be underestimated.

In addition, the efficacy of Nova Dias is far ahead of similar competitors, so Charlie Wade believes that Nova Dias will be a hit in Japan.

When Elaine Ma downstairs was preparing the ingredients, the doorbell rang.

She stepped out of the yard, saw a courier guy standing outside the door, and opened the yard door directly.

The courier brother asked her: "Is this Ms. Elaine Ma's house?"

Elaine Ma nodded: "I am, what's the matter?"

The little brother handed a small package to her and said, "Hello Ms. Elaine Ma, this is your city express, please sign for it."

"Sent to me?!"

At this time, Elaine Ma was a little surprised. She didn't do much online shopping, and she didn't buy anything online recently. Why does she have her own city express delivery?

So, after she signed for the courier, she opened it suspiciously.

After unpacking, Elaine Ma found that the express included it was a trial package of high-end body care essential oils, as well as a very beautifully made card and a printed letter.

She opened the letter and read all the words on the letter: "Hello, distinguished guest, congratulations on your acquisition of the whole body spa treatment package of Lizi high-end beauty and health club worth 8888 Dollar. With the package card, you can visit the store at any time. Enjoy free full spa services, no appointment required!"

After reading these, Elaine Ma said with joy: "Oh, I'm going! Free body spa treatment?! Is there such a good thing?!"

The thought of lying on the beauty bed in the beauty salon and enjoying the meticulous massage by the technicians makes Elaine Ma feel itchy all over!

She could not help but secretly said: "I have been raising legs at home some time ago. I haven't enjoyed a high-end spa for a long time. I didn't expect that a free high-end spa would suddenly hit me. Maybe someone made a mistake. It's sent to me. If I don't hurry to experience it, if someone catches it back, wouldn't I be a big loser?!"

Thinking of this, Elaine Ma immediately put the package card into his pocket and ran into the house excitedly, went straight to his room on the third floor, changed clothes for going out, and planned to go out and make the spa immediately.

Thinking of Charlie Wade before going downstairs, she went to the door of Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson's room on the second floor, knocked gently on the door, and asked with a smile: "Good son-in-law, have you gotten up yet?"

Charlie Wade got up and opened the door and asked, "Mom, are you okay?"

Elaine Ma smiled embarrassedly: "Well, mom is going out for something.

The breakfast is ready and it's in the kitchen. It's still hot. Go down and eat while it's hot!"

Chapter 1886

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Okay mom, go ahead if you have anything."

Elaine Ma hurriedly smiled and said, "Good, good! Then mom will go out first, if you have anything to do, call mom!"

"it is good."

Charlie Wade didn't think too much, after all, Elaine Ma was also an adult, and it was normal to go out.

.....

Christopher had been on the terrace of his room at this time, staring closely at the door of Charlie Wade's house.

Seeing Elaine Ma went out in a hurry, a sneer was wiped from the corner of his mouth.

Afterwards, he walked downstairs quickly and said to Harold: "Harold, Elaine Ma is out! How are your friends preparing?"

Harold smiled and said, "Dad, don't worry if I do the job, I'm all ready, and I'm sure that Elaine Ma will never return!"

Christopher said hurriedly: "Come here, you will review the overall plan with me, and I will see if there are any omissions!"

Wendy and Mrs. Wilson also leaned in, waiting for Harold's text with a look of expectation.

Harold said triumphantly: "First of all, the beauty card sent to Elaine Ma by the same city courier just now, isn't that beauty salon called Lizi Beauty Health Club? The owner of this beauty club is a former friend of mine. He is now having difficulties in business and has always wanted to sell the beauty salon, but the economic situation is not good recently, so he has not been able to sell."

Christopher waved his hand: "Talk about the important point!"

Harold said hurriedly, "Don't worry, Dad! I have to explain the whole plan to you!"

Christopher nodded: "Yes, you say."

Harold then continued: "My friend can't make it anymore now, so I just want to take advantage of the fact that the New Year's members have a lot of things at home and can't take care of them to do beauty, and take advantage of the opportunity to roll the money away. I told him, as long as he cooperates. Well, I gave him 200,000 Dollar for this scene. He wanted to run away anyway, so he was naturally willing to make more money before running away."

Wendy on the side hurriedly asked: "Brother, did you intend to tie Elaine Ma to the beauty salon when you fudged Elaine Ma?"

"Yes!" Harold nodded and said, "That beauty salon has a back door. When Elaine Ma goes to the spa, I will arrange for a technician to put sleeping pills in her water. When she passes out, we drive to the beauty salon. At the back door of the courtyard, Elaine Ma was directly tied up and taken away from the back door, absolutely unaware of it!"

Hannah heard this and hurriedly asked, "Harold, what do you plan to do with Elaine Ma after torturing Elaine Ma?"

Harold said, "I haven't thought about this yet, what do you think?"

Hannah immediately gritted her teeth and said, "Find a black coal mine and send her to dig coal too!"

Harold said embarrassingly: "I don't know anyone who runs a black coal kiln either!"

Wendy blurted out: "Then send her to Africa to grow sugarcane! I heard that there are many illegal immigrants there, and they can only bury their heads in the sugarcane fields and chop sugarcane for the rest of their lives, and they cannot live without the African continent!"

Harold coughed and said awkwardly: "Wendy, what you said is illegal immigration, how can I have that relationship!"

Hannah was anxious and blurted out: "Harold, are you planning to find someone to take Elaine Ma after sleeping, take pictures, and then let her go?! This is too cheap for her, right?!"

Although Christopher was very disgusted with Hannah, but when he heard this, he couldn't help but nodded in agreement: "Yes! I just found someone to sleep with Elaine Ma, maybe he even let Elaine Ma take advantage!"

Lady Wilson thought for a moment, and said: "We are helping Mr. Webb with Elaine Ma. Or else you call and ask Mr. Webb to see if he has any friends who run black coal kilns. Lan arranged to dig coal!"

Chapter 1887

Donald's life has been miserable recently.

The eldest son Sean is still recovering from his injuries at home, and the second son Kian's condition has not improved. He has basically given up treatment.

In addition, Donald's wife Xenia is also divorcing him recently. The main reason for the divorce was the death of Marccone and his wife Lily. Xenia felt that Donald didn't protect his brother, nor did he find out who killed his brother.

In Xenia's eyes, what was even more exaggerated was that instead of helping his younger brother avenge Donald, he was at home every day, scolding his dead brother bloody.

Of course Donald hates Marccone crazy.

In his opinion, it was the bastard who completely ruined the reputation of the Webb family, so that the market value of the Webb family was directly cut down because of its reputation.

It was originally the first family in Southaven, but now, it can't even make the top ten in Southaven.

What made him a little unacceptable was that his wife was so ignorant to praise!

I haven't blamed her for being too doting on her younger brother, causing the Webb family to be implicated, but she blamed herself on the contrary, it is really unreasonable!

Because of this, the two of them simply fell into a long cold war.

Originally, Donald spoiled his wife very much, but now he doesn't even bother to care about her, and put all his thoughts into his career.

Now Donald has only one thought in his mind, which is to do everything possible to make the Webb family rise again!

At just this time, he was following up on a real estate project in Aurouss Hilll, so early this morning, he came to Aurouss Hilll from Southaven for inspection.

Just when he first arrived at the project site, he received a call from Christopher.

On the phone, Christopher said flatly: "Hello, Mr. Webb! I'm Christopher, we haven't seen you in a long time!"

Donald said coldly: "Christopher, you call me, what's the matter?"

Christopher hurriedly smiled and said, "Mr. Webb, this is the case.

Doesn't this mean that the New Year is coming? Our family wondered, saying that nothing will let Charlie Wade's family have a stable year, so we plan to confront Wade first today. Charlie Wade's mother-in-law, Elaine Ma, decided to find someone to give her to her first, and then take some photos and videos and upload them to the Internet, so that Charlie Wade's family will be disgraced!"

Donald suddenly became interested, and his voice improved a little, "Huh? Christopher, I heard that right, did your family finally dare to do something with Charlie Wade?"

Christopher said embarrassingly: "Mr. Webb, I really didn't think of a plan before, so I haven't moved, but you can rest assured! This time we must do this thing beautifully!"

With that said, Christopher said with a bit of bitterness: Charlie Wade is in Aurouss Hilll. I heard that there seems to be a nickname called Real Dragon in the world. I want to see if his mother-in-law lets people play, he is in this world. Can the true dragon's face hang on it? "

When Donald heard this, he smiled and said, "Not bad, not bad! Do this thing well, I will not treat you badly."

Christopher was overjoyed, and he was too busy to ask: "By the way, Mr. Webb, I called you. I actually wanted to ask you if you know the little boss who runs the black coal kiln. If you know him, that's really true. Great, after I find someone to take care of Elaine Ma, I will send her directly to the black coal mine!"

Chapter 1888

Donald thought for a while and said, "There are not many coal mines in the South, so I really don't know anyone who runs black coal mines." Speaking of this, he suddenly remembered something, and said with a smile: "But I do have a kid who runs a brick factory at home. The work in the brick factory is not easy compared to the black coal kiln. You can take Charlie Wade His mother-in-law sent there as a coolie!"

Christopher immediately smiled and said, "Oh, Mr. Webb, this is really great. A b*tch woman like this should throw her into the black brick factory!"

After speaking, he hurriedly asked: "Mr. Webb, do you think it is convenient for you to tell me the address of your friend? After I have asked Elaine Ma to take care of it, I will send it directly!"

"Don't worry!" Donald sneered: "I have a deep hatred with Charlie Wade. Now I just arrived in Aurouss Hilll. There is no reason to miss such an enjoyable thing. You tie her up first, and then give me an address. I will go over. Witness it with my own eyes!"

Christopher hurriedly agreed, "Mr. Webb, don't worry, I must have done this properly, and I will call and let you witness it in person!"

Donald hummed, and said with a smile: "Okay, I have something to work on. Call me after you finish it."

"Good Mr. Webb!"

As soon as Christopher hung up the phone, he immediately couldn't help but said to the family excitedly: "Mr. Webb said, he has a friend who runs a brick factory. When we tie Elaine Ma, we will let someone do it as planned. After that, she immediately sent to the brick factory to let her work hard in the brick factory for the rest of her life!"

When Hannah heard this, she felt very unbalanced in her heart. She said angrily, "I went to the black coal kiln at the time. How can Hannah go to the brick factory! This is too cheap for her!"

Christopher glared at her dryly, and blurted out: "You know what a shit! The brick factory is much more bitter than the black coal kiln. Although the black coal kiln is dirty and tired, it is warm in the winter and cool in the summer. The brick factory is different. The fire burns bricks in all seasons, and the heat alone can't stand the heat. Moreover, the work of moving bricks is no easier than digging coal. Generally speaking, brick factories suffer more than black coal kilns!"

Hannah felt a little more comfortable.

However, she still had one more question to ask, but she swallowed it again.

So I can only murmur in my heart: "Hey, I don't know if Elaine Ma will meet a squinty supervisor after being sent to the brick factory. If I can meet, that would be great, and it's better to let her Get sick and get pregnant again!"

.....

At this moment.

The Presidential Suite of Shangri-La Hotel.

Cynthia was making a short report to Lord Wade over the phone.

On the phone, she described Charlie Wade as a scumbag with perverted personality, hot temper, low quality, and unremarkable. She also always emphasized to Lord Wade: "Dad, Charlie Wade, this kid has not received any education for so many years and has very low quality. , You can't let him go back to Wade's house, otherwise, our Wade's face will be lost by him!"

Lord Wade listened to her little report of adding fuel and jealousy, and said lightly: "Cynthia, I always thought you were very smart. I didn't expect to be so easily influenced by emotions. It really disappointed me!"

Cynthia suddenly became nervous when he heard this, and blurted out:

"Dad, I...Where am I not doing well enough?"

Lord Wade said coldly: "You still don't understand, why do I want Charlie Wade to come back?"

Cynthia said embarrassingly: "Dad...I really don't understand too much. If you want me to say that Charlie Wade's quality is so low, not only can we not let him come back, but we have to draw a clear line with him!"

Lord Wade snorted and said: "What I want now is to let any of my grandsons marry Zara from the Banks Familyy, or to marry Stefanie from the Sun family. Now it seems that only Charlie Wade's Greatest chance!"

Chapter 1889

"how can that be possible!"

Cynthia blurted out: "Dad, you haven't seen Charlie Wade for many years, so you think of him too well. Let me tell you the truth, Charlie Wade is now a small gangster in a remote country! Whether it's Zara or Stefanie, They are all Eastcliff's famous lady of the sky, how can they be worthy of him?!"

Lord Wade said coldly: "I saw Orrin at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday, and I asked him if he still remembers Charlie Wade's engagement with his daughter. He said to me on the spot, as long as he can find Charlie Wade, he must not hesitate. Let your daughter marry him!"

"In addition, Orrin also said that no matter what Charlie Wade is now, even if he is begging along the street, he is also the future son of the Sun family. Their family has long reached a consensus on this matter!"

Cynthia was stunned: "What age is this, is Orrin crazy?"

Lord Wade said in a harsh tone: "I don't want to care if Orrin is crazy or not, don't worry about it. Your task now is to do everything possible to make Charlie Wade promise to come back for the New Year!"

Cynthia was so helpless that he had no choice but to say angrily: "Dad, tell you the truth, Charlie Wade was too much yesterday, so I didn't control my emotions yesterday. I had a big fight with him. He didn't eat anything, so he just waved away. Up..."

"Bastard!" Lord Wade yelled, "Don't think I don't know you. With your acting style, it's not good to say who is too much!"

After that, Lord Wade said again: "I don't care about anything else, I must bring Charlie Wade back to me! If he doesn't want to return, then you can think of something else!"

Cynthia hurriedly asked: "Other methods? What method?"

Lord Wade said, "Doesn't he have a wife in Aurouss Hillll? Can you find a way to get in touch with his wife or his father-in-law?"

Cynthia said immediately: "Then I will go to see his wife, give her some money, and let her divorce Charlie Wade!"

Lord Wade said: "Don't go to his wife, you can make a fuss from his mother-in-law first. I heard that his mother-in-law is very greedy for money and is a master who sees money!"

Cynthia quickly said, "Dad, then I will try to find a breakthrough from his mother-in-law!"

"Yeah!" Lord Wade reminded: "After you meet his mother-in-law, don't reveal your true identity, otherwise, if you let that kind of evil people know that Charlie Wade is a member of our Eastcliff Wade family, you will be killed. She won't let her daughter divorce Charlie Wade either."

"Good dad! I see!"

Cynthia quickly agreed, and then immediately took out the phone, called the bodyguard who brought Aurouss Hillll this time, and ordered: "Check me where Charlie Wade's mother-in-law is, I want to see her!"

.....

Elaine Ma rushed to take a taxi to the beauty club on the package card. When she came in and showed the package card, she was somewhat guilty, for fear that others might make a mistake, or the card itself could not be used.

But what she didn't expect was that the clerk said to her very politely: "Hello madam! Your package card can be used at any time and no appointment is required. Do you want to experience it now?"

When Elaine Ma heard this, he said excitedly: "Of course! I've been taking a taxi from a long distance, can't I just come and ask you? Hurry up and arrange a technician for me, I will have a good experience now."

The clerk nodded and said respectfully: "Madam, our full-body spa here is for bathing first. I will take you to bathe and change clothes first, and then arrange a technician to do the spa for you!"

Elaine Ma was very happy. When she had money in her hands, she did not go to beauty salons or beauty clubs to do facial or spa treatments.

Therefore, she knows the process of a high-end spa in a beauty salon. The first thing she must do is to soak in a flower petal milk bath, then put on the disposable underwear provided by the beauty club, and receive a full body massage from a technician.

Elaine Ma happily followed the clerk to the bathroom and found that a tank of water had been placed here, with milk, flower petals and bath salt added to the water, and immediately smiled and said, "Oh, your service is really in place. Come on, put the water away first."

Chapter 1890

The clerk thought that Elaine Ma had noticed the abnormality, and hurriedly said, "Uh...that...this is the case. We originally had a customer who made an appointment to come to the spa. The water for our bath is ready, and she said that we can't do anything temporarily, so you can just pick a ready-made one."

Elaine Ma smiled and said, "Oh, what a coincidence, it seems that God just wants to make up for me and let me enjoy it!"

After speaking, she waved to the clerk and said, "Okay, you can go out. I will take a bath by myself and let the technician prepare to wait for me."

"it is good!"

After the clerk came out, he immediately ran to report to the boss. When the boss heard that Elaine Ma was coming, he quickly called Harold and said to him, "Harold, people have already come and are taking a bath. When will you come?"

Harold said excitedly: "Great! Old Ben, you must stabilize her for me, don't expose any flaws, I am ready to go over!"

The owner of the beauty salon laughed and said, "Harold, who is my brother, since I have promised you, I will definitely do this thing beautifully!"

"Good!" Harold smiled and said, "Wait for half an hour!"

After finishing speaking, Harold said again: "Ben, your shop will not do business with other customers in the morning, so as to avoid accidents."

"Don't worry, I won't do other business in the morning, just pick up your order!"

.....

Just as Elaine Ma was lying in the bathtub soaking, a Rolls-Royce stopped at the door of this beauty salon.

A tall bodyguard walked out of the co-pilot. After getting out of the car, he immediately opened the rear door.

Immediately afterwards, Cynthia, dressed in gorgeous clothes, stepped down.

She looked at the door face of this beauty salon, and said contemptuously: "What a broken beauty salon, looking at it, it's not up to the standard!"

In fact, the decoration of this beauty salon is pretty good. Although it is not a top-notch, it is not affordable by ordinary housewives in Aurouss Hilll.

However, for the top rich second generation like Cynthia, it is really too much to be on the table.

The money she paid for a treatment at a top beauty salon is enough to buy this beauty salon.

The bodyguard whispered from the side: "Miss, the woman you are looking for is doing beauty treatment here, just came in ten minutes ago."

Cynthia nodded, and said in disgust, "Follow me in."

"it is good!"

The bodyguard took the lead and reached out and pushed open the door of this beauty salon.

The clerk rushed over and said apologetically: "I'm sorry, we won't receive guests in the morning."

Cynthia frowned: "I won't receive guests? A woman named Elaine Ma, didn't she just come to your store for a spa? Why didn't she become unwelcome when she came to you?"

Chapter 1891

The clerk was questioned by Cynthia, and he didn't know how to reply.

She knew very well in her heart that the boss meant that she would never treat guests this morning, so she couldn't let anyone in.

So she hurriedly said: "I'm sorry, Ma'am, we really don't treat guests in the morning. Ms. Elaine Ma made an appointment in advance, so I'm sorry."

Cynthia almost exploded in anger.

I condescended to come to this kind of shabby beauty salon. It is like a phoenix coming to the chicken coop. Didn't expect that this chicken coop would not let me enter? !

She immediately furiously said: "Don't let me in, right? Believe it or not, you won't have to do this in the future?!"

The clerk suddenly didn't know what to do.

She could also see that Cynthia's dressing was no ordinary person at first glance. If she really angered her, it might cause trouble.

So she could only say respectfully: "Sorry, ma'am, wait a moment, I will ask our boss for instructions."

Cynthia waved his hand in disgust: "Move faster, I have very limited patience!"

The clerk hurried to the boss's office. The boss was already in his office at this time, picking up valuable items.

He intends to help Harold this time. After earning Harold's 200,000 Dollar, he will immediately prepare to run away and vacate the shop tonight. If this is the case, when members of the shop arrive tomorrow, they will find beauty. The courtyard is empty.

This is also the usual routine for most gyms and beauty salons to run away, taking advantage of people's unprepared feet to apply oil, so that all members who have been fooled into applying for a stored-value card are caught off guard.

The clerk entered the office and hurriedly said: "Boss, there is another woman outside. She has to come in! I can't stop her, go and see!"

When the boss heard this, he frowned and asked, "What woman? Didn't you tell her not to treat guests in the morning?"

"Say it!" the clerk said aggrievedly: "I told her several times, but she insisted that the guest named Elaine Ma came in, why can't she enter..."

The boss suddenly became nervous: "Couldn't you know the name Elaine Ma?"

"I do not know either....."

The boss thought for a moment, and said: "Okay, I'll deal with her and see what she wants to do."

After speaking, he got up and came out of the office, all the way to the front desk.

Seeing Cynthia, the boss also saw that this woman should have a lot of background, and he was even more nervous.

So he hurriedly stepped forward and asked, "This lady, I don't know what your needs are?"

Corran said coldly: "Your store is open, why don't you let in? What do you mean by not serving guests in the morning?"

The boss chuckled and hurriedly said: "It's true that we have guests booked a full set of care in the morning, so it is not convenient to treat guests again. If you come in the afternoon or tomorrow, I will arrange the best technician to serve you!"

Cynthia said disdainfully: "Stop this set with me, I didn't come to your ruined place to consume!"

The boss frowned: "If you don't come to consume, what are you doing?"

Chapter 1892

Cynthia said, "I'm here to find Elaine Ma, who just came to your place for nursing care. I have something to talk to her in private."

As soon as the boss heard that he was not for consumption, he darkened his face and said annoyedly: "If you are not for consumption, then please go out. If you are looking for someone to discuss matters, you must divide the place. I don't provide such services. "

Cynthia winked at the bodyguard, and the bodyguard immediately took out 50,000 Dollar in cash from his small suitcase and patted it on the counter.

When the boss saw the money, his attitude became flattering again, and he smiled and asked, "This lady, what service do you want me to provide you with?"

Cynthia said coldly: "Take me to see Elaine Ma. I want to chat with Elaine Ma in private. It won't be too long, at most half an hour. During this half an hour, no one is allowed to bother and can do it. , This fifty thousand Dollar is your reward, do you understand?"

When the boss heard this, he thought to himself: "Harold asked me to give that Elaine Ma some sleeping pills. After she was asleep, Harold would take her away secretly. Now he has killed the eldest sister halfway and has to talk to Elaine Ma. It sounds like a good deal for an hour, and then give 50,000 Dollar. As long as you let Harold wait for half an hour, wait for the older sister to talk to Elaine Ma and leave, then give Elaine Ma sleeping pills? "

Thinking of this, he immediately agreed with a smile: "It's easy to talk about! Isn't it half an hour of private time, no problem, Ms. Elaine Ma is taking a bath, you can wait in the spa room first."

Cynthia nodded and said to the bodyguard, "Come with me."

"Hey!" The boss said hurriedly, "We are a female-only club. Members wear very casually here, and sometimes they don't even wear clothes. Even my boss can't enter the private service area for members. You can't bring this gentleman inside!"

Cynthia didn't think that an ordinary beauty salon would be dangerous, so he said to the bodyguard, "You are waiting outside."

The bodyguard nodded slightly.

Today, Cynthia's whereabouts were made on a temporary basis, and there was no suspicious person following along the way, so in this case, there was basically no possibility of encountering danger, so he didn't care too much.

The bodyguard waited at the door, and Corran said to the boss: "Can you take me in now?"

The boss smiled and hurriedly said, "Let our clerk take you in. I can't get in either."

"Good." Cynthia nodded, and followed the clerk into the beauty salon.

The apartment of this beauty salon is relatively deep, with the front desk and lobby outside, and then the bathing place through the promenade, and then the spa room is going deeper.

The reason why the spa room is placed in the deepest part is mainly because the guests who come to the spa are for complete relaxation and are very resistant to noise. If it is too close to the outside and close to the road, the vibration and horn sound of passing cars will be very obvious.

After Cynthia followed the clerk through the deep corridor, he came to one of the spa rooms.

The clerk respectfully said to her: "Hello, madam, please wait here for a while, and I will bring her here after Ms. Elaine Ma comes out."

Cynthia gave a hum, took out 10,000 Dollar in cash from her limited Hermes backpack, handed it to her, and exhorted: "Don't tell Elaine Ma I'll wait for her here, just take her in, understand?"

The clerk happily accepted the ten thousand Dollar, and said excitedly: "Don't worry, I won't say it!"

"Yeah." Cynthia nodded: "You go out first."

"Good lady."

After the clerk went out, Cynthia frowned and looked at the environment in the room, frowning in disgust.

She took out a cheque written a long time ago from her bag. The amount on the cheque was one billion Dollar, which she planned to use to buy Elaine Ma.

However, the more she looked at the low-end environment of this beauty salon, the more she sighed in her heart: "This Elaine Ma would actually go to this place to do a spa. He must be a bun who has never seen money. Give her a billion Dollar. too much!"

Chapter 1893

Thinking of this, Cynthia stuffed the one billion check back into her wallet.

She felt that if she wanted to buy a cheap woman like Elaine Ma, one billion would be taken advantage of, and one billion was enough.

As a result, she took out the checkbook again and temporarily wrote a check for 100 million Dollar.

She planned to take this one-billion-dollar check directly in a while to entice Elaine Ma to go home and force her daughter to divorce Charlie Wade. In this way, her mission to Aurouss Hill this time would be half completed.

After writing a check for 100 million, she took out a Hermès silk scarf from her bag and placed it on the sofa before sitting down.

At this time, Elaine Ma was still soaking in the bathtub.

In fact, she had washed it a long time ago, and the reason why she still didn't want to soak it out was mainly because she felt that the milk petal bath should have a good moisturizing effect on the skin, so it's better to soak for a while.

And Harold and Christopher, at this time, had already brought a few young men who were still alive and drove a large van to the back door of the beauty salon.

Harold took out the phone, called the boss, and asked, "Ben, how are things prepared? Have you fainted Elaine Ma? I'm just waiting at the back door!"

The boss thought to himself: "I haven't made the extra 50,000 Dollar yet, so I have to wait for my 50,000 Dollar to be safe before doing it!"

So, he said to Harold: "Harold, wait a moment, that Elaine Ma is taking a bath, there is a bit of ink, but don't worry, I will have the water with the added ingredients ready for her. After the bath, find a chance to let her drink it, and you will wait patiently for my notification. Once she faints, I will call you. Then you can just come in and bring someone!"

As soon as Harold heard this, he immediately smiled and said, "Ben, you are still reliable! Okay! In that case, I'll wait a while, and you will notify me immediately if it's done."

"Okay, just look at you!"

.....

Elaine Ma soaked for another ten minutes, feeling that the skin on her body was a little pale because of the blisters, and then she came out of the bathtub reluctantly.

After she came out, she immediately rang the service bell, and the clerk who had received her hurried in with a clean bath towel in her hand.

She helped Elaine Ma wrap the bath towel and asked diligently: "Madam, do you need to wear disposable underwear? I will open the package if necessary."

As she said, she added: "All our technicians and service staff are women. It doesn't matter if you don't wear them."

Elaine Ma thought for a while and said, "I'd better put it on. After all, this is not a bathhouse. It's too awkward to be alone."

The clerk nodded and quickly took apart the disposable underwear for her to wear, and prepared another bathrobe for her. After Elaine Ma put on the bathrobe, she was led to the spa room.

Opening the door, the service staff said to Elaine Ma: "Ms. Elaine Ma, please come in."

Elaine Ma nodded, and when she stepped through the door, she found a beautifully dressed woman sitting on the sofa in the room, and asked the clerk with some dissatisfaction: "This is your technician? This fancy suit is too exaggerated. Right? There are so many decorations on my body, making it look like a mannequin in a jewellery shop. What if I accidentally scratched me?"

Cynthia must be angry at this.

Secretly cursed in my heart: "The f*cking bun, said I was wearing fancy clothes, said I was pompous?!"

Chapter 1894

The clerk was also embarrassed at this time. Looking at Cynthia, she didn't know how to introduce Elaine Ma.

Cynthia frowned, and said in a very arrogant tone to the clerk: "Okay, you go out first, I'll talk to her."

The clerk immediately left the room as if he was amnestied, and took the door behind him.

Elaine Ma looked at Cynthia warily, and asked coldly, "Hey, who are you?"

Cynthia said lightly: "You don't deserve to know who I am."

Elaine Ma suddenly sipped: "I babble! The smelly Lady, what kind of big-tailed eagle is here with me? Dressed in colorful, damn United, and carrying a fake Hermes, it's not you who are awesome Up?"

Cynthia suddenly shouted angrily: "What are you talking about?! I am a catwalk coat customized by Chanel's top designer! My Hermes is also the top limited edition! The clothes I wear are worth at least 50 million! " Elaine Ma disdainfully said: "You f*cking pretend to be forced by me, when the Lady is a bunny who has never seen the world? Just your broken Hermes, and her mother dare to say that it is a limited edition. Tell you, the Lady is the real Hermes. people!"

As she said, she immediately took out the Hermès backpack she had placed in it before taking a shower from the locker, hung it on her arm and stretched it out in front of Cynthia, and said pretentiously: "Open your dog's eyes to the Lady, This is the real Hermes, simple and atmospheric, understand?"

Corran glanced at Elaine Ma's Hermes, and suddenly she burst into laughter.

Seeing her smile, Elaine Ma couldn't help but sneered: "What? I don't dare to pretend to be forced when I see the real Hermes, right?"

Cynthia sighed, and sneered: "I know what is poor, so you are called poor!"

As she said, her eyes were full of contempt and said: "Do you still dare to show off in front of me with the most basic entry-level Hermes?"

Immediately, Cynthia immediately picked up her Hermes, and sneered: "Open your dog's eyes and show me clearly, my Lady, this Hermes, can buy you more than 100!"

"fck your mother's old mule!" Elaine Ma said in disgust: "You fcking boast that you won't be taxed. Listen to what you mean, do you pay 10 million for that Hermes?"

Corran sneered: "15 million!"

Elaine Ma curled his lips: "I really don't know where the dead Lady came from. I chopped you up and sold you by a catty. You are not worth 15 million! Are you still here to pretend to be your grandma? Get out of here. Don't f*cking delay my spa!"

When Cynthia heard this, her whole body trembled with anger, and she wished to slap Elaine Ma immediately to give a lesson to this unseen turtle.

But after another thought, I came here today, not because she is more expensive than her Hermes, there is still business to be done.

So she gritted her teeth and waved her hand: "Okay, Elaine Ma, I won't talk nonsense with you anymore. It's meaningless. I came to you this time because I wanted to make a deal with you."

"Doing business?" Elaine Ma frowned, "I have nothing to do with the fake Hermes like you, so get out of here!"

Cynthia pressed her anger and said coldly: "You might as well listen to me first. I am looking for you this time for one purpose. You go back and get your daughter to divorce Charlie Wade. If you promise me, this check will be yours. ."

After that, she handed the 100 million dollar check to Elaine Ma, and said proudly: "This check is worth 100 million. As long as you promise me, you can take the money first!"

Seeing Elaine Ma's expression stunned, Cynthia sneered again, and said in a condescending tone: "But Elaine Ma, listen to me. Since you have taken my money, you must do what I explain! Otherwise, I will not only Letting you spit out this money a lot, and it will cost you a huge price!"

Chapter 1895

Elaine Ma looked at Cynthia dumbfounded, and blurted out unbelievably, "What are you talking about, this check is worth 100 million?!"

Seeing her surprised look, Corran sneered, and said sarcastically: "Look at the way you have never seen the world, Citibank cash check! Haven't you seen it? If you think of someone like you, you won't have the chance to see it in your life. Such a large cash check!"

Elaine Ma's whole expression immediately became uncertain.

Cynthia thought she completely shocked Elaine Ma, and smiled satisfied. She held the check in her hand and slapped it a few times, and smiled arrogantly: "Do you want this check? If you want, just listen to me and persuade your daughter to leave Charlie Wade!"

Elaine Ma's expression suddenly became a little annoyed. Cynthia hasn't figured out how this woman's expression has become so fast. Elaine Ma suddenly stretched out his hand and snatched the check over, took a close look in front of him, and then angrily tore the check into pieces!

Cynthia was dumbfounded. She saw Elaine Ma tear her one hundred million check into shreds, and immediately said in her heart: "It seems that I have underestimated this stinky lady named Elaine Ma! She tore the check even if she said it, it seems that her appetite is not small!"

At this moment, when Cynthia saw Elaine Ma staring at him with an extremely angry look, he gritted his teeth and said: "Okay! One hundred million is too small for you, yes! As long as you obediently listen to me, let your daughter and Charlie Wade divorce After the formalities are completed, I can give you 200 million!"

After all, she immediately took out the checkbook from Hermès' bag, took off the pen cap, and said coldly: "You think about it. If you want, I will write you a check now!"

When Cynthia said this, he thought to himself: "You Elaine Ma is nothing but an old hat in a small city. Don't look at you in a villa of Thompson First, but you must be a stinky silk who has never seen a lot of money. A billion is in front of you, I don't believe you will refuse!"

Thinking of this, Cynthia suddenly saw a flower, and in the next second, a sharp pain came from her left cheek!

"Snapped!"

It turned out that Elaine Ma directly raised his hand and slapped Cynthia severely!

Cynthia has never been beaten in her entire life, and never dreamed that she lived more than 40 years old. The first slap in his life was actually beaten by a scumbag!

She immediately felt a burst of anger rush to her head!

Staring at Elaine Ma, she yelled hysterically: "The name is Elaine Ma!

Are you f*cking crazy? Dare to beat me?! Do you know who the Lady is?"

As soon as the voice fell, Elaine Ma came up directly, kicked her chest, and kicked her directly from the back of the sofa!

Although Cynthia is not a good person, she is also an intellectual.

Although she was proud and bullied all her life, she basically did not bully herself by herself.

Therefore, Elaine Ma suddenly moved her hands, and she suddenly had no resistance!

Seeing being knocked to the ground by Elaine Ma, she struggled to get up and cursed with a disheveled hair: "Elaine Ma! Are you fcking sick?! My mother gives you money, if you fcking don't, there is no need to do it with my mother." Don't you f*cking understand the truth that a gentleman speaks but doesn't use his hands?!"

Elaine Ma gritted her teeth and cursed: "What a f*cking gentleman who talks but doesn't do anything? Since you dare to give the dead man the paper money to fool my Lady, why can't my Lady beat you like this! I will not only beat you today, I want to kill you!"

Cynthia was almost blinded at the moment.

She yelled hysterically, "What the hell are you doing?! The Lady gave you a cash check from Citibank! You can hear clearly, it's Citibank! Even if you f*cking have never seen the world, at least have some basic common sense. !"

Chapter 1896

"fck you!" Elaine Ma rushed over in a rage, and rode directly on Cynthia's stomach. With her big mouth bowed from side to side, she flicked towards Cynthia's face and cursed as she slapped, "You fcking treat me as a fool. The Lady has been fooled like this once, you f*cking dare to cheat the Lady!"

At this moment, Elaine Ma thought in her heart that Jacob Wilson was hospitalized in the hospital. She wanted a check for her daughter Claire Wilson Wilson's check-out rent. After Charlie Wade handed the check to her, she took the check to pay for the hospitalization.

Unexpectedly, the denomination of that check turned out to be 100 million!

At that time, the hospital cashier ridiculed her and threatened her to call the police to catch her.

In the end, she went back to Charlie Wade to settle the accounts in a rage, only to realize that Charlie Wade had bought the check from the funeral store and planned to burn it to his deceased parents.

Therefore, Cynthia now also took out a 100 million check, which looks almost exactly the same as Charlie Wade's 100 million check at that time. In this case, of course she was furious!

What's more hateful is that this damn Cynthia has been repeatedly emphasizing Citibank in front of her!

In this life, Elaine Ma hated Citibank the most! Because for her, the worst experience in her life was caused by the fake black gold card of Citibank. After that, she was put in a detention center, and was abused by the Lady Wilson, Wendy, and the big and rough Gena for several days. Those just a few days were definitely the black hole of Elaine Ma's life. Therefore, when she saw that Cynthia not only cheated herself with a cheque of 100 million Dollar from the dead, but also dared to use Citibank to chirp here, she was already angry!

Cynthia was dizzy and nauseous when Elaine Ma was beaten at this time, and her cheeks that Elaine Ma beat him back and forth were red and swollen, and the pain was unbearable. Although she screamed, her bodyguard was outside the gate at this time and couldn't hear the movement so deep inside, so she couldn't help her at all.

Even though Cynthia was beaten very dumbfounded, she knew very well in her heart that now it is idiotic to get her mobile phone and let the bodyguard come in to rescue her, so she can only fight with Elaine Ma! ? As a result, she suddenly stretched out her hand to grab Elaine Ma's hair like crazy. After grabbing a lock of Elaine Ma's hair, she yanked her desperately!

Elaine Ma didn't expect this lady to be beaten by herself all the time, and as a result she attacked her hair!

Suddenly, she felt a sharp pain in her hair, which made her scream several times, and she was desperately trying to beat Cynthia with her hands.

While beating and cursing: "Silly idiot, you dare to pull my Lady's hair, my Lady fight with you!"

Naturally, Cynthia was not to be outdone. With that strand of hair in her hand, she desperately tore, and directly tore all that strand of hair from Elaine Ma's head!

This time, Elaine Ma covered her head in pain and yelled. Cynthia saw that this was an opportunity, and directly pushed Elaine Ma to the ground, and then rushed up, riding on Elaine Ma's stomach, facing her face for a while. f*ck!

"Even I dare to fight, I f*cking kill you shrew!"

Cynthia was mad at this moment. If she were to give her a knife, she would be able to kill Elaine Ma on the spot.

At this moment, the waiter outside heard the movement and ran over in a hurry, opened the door to see, and was shocked immediately, so he hurried to the boss's room, opened the door and panted and said, "Boss, no... ..Not good! Then...the two women...in the room...fight...fight..."

Chapter 1897

As soon as the owner of the beauty salon heard that the two women were fighting, they became angry.

"Damn, aren't friends chatting? Why are you fighting again?!"

The clerk hurriedly said: "I don't know, it's a terrible beating. If you don't check it again, you will probably kill you!"
"f*ck!"

The beauty salon owner was nervous.

I haven't run away yet. If something goes wrong at this time and the police are brought in, it will be a big trouble.

So he hurried to check the situation. Before he got there, he heard that he had been beaten to the death.

Elaine Ma was yelling through the door: "Damn, stinky girl, my Lady can't cure Gena's big fat pig, and he can't cure you?!"

Cynthia obviously took the advantage, gritted his teeth and cursed: "You wait! I'm definitely not going to make you feel better! I won't let you live to see the sun tomorrow!"

"Snapped!"

Elaine Ma slapped Cynthia's face again: "That broken mouth, why the f*ck is forcing me to talk, see if I won't tear your mouth to you!"

The owner of the beauty salon opened the door and took a look, but was frightened by the two women with blood on their faces and quickly closed the door.

He muttered nervously in his mouth: "No way, no way! If you continue to do this, you must die!"

After speaking, he immediately ran to the back door, and when he pushed the door, he saw a van parked upside down at the door, with the trunk entrance facing the back door.

So he hurried to the co-pilot and took a picture. Harold put down the car window and asked excitedly: "Beni, has that stinky lady Elaine Ma fainted?"

The owner of the beauty salon said anxiously: "Fat! I fought with a woman inside. If you continue to fight, you will kill people. Go in and take them away!"

Harold asked in surprise: "What's the situation?! Have you started fighting? With whom?"

The owner of the beauty salon was a little guilty, but didn't mention a word about the fact that he charged Cynthia in. He said hurriedly: "I don't know who the hell is, you quickly take the person away, otherwise it's all over if something happens! I'm going to die, and you are going to die!"

Upon hearing this, Harold hurriedly led a few young people out of the car.

A crowd of people, led by the owner of the beauty salon, swarmed to the door of the spa room. Before opening the door, they heard the mess inside.

Harold kicked the door open. Seeing Elaine Ma was riding on a woman with a bloody face and beating her, he immediately said to a few people around him: "It's the woman above, grab her and take her into the car! "

Elaine Ma turned to find Harold, and suddenly shouted in panic: "Harold! What do you want to do?!"

Harold grinned and said, "Second aunt, you spent so long with our family and sent my mother to the black coal kiln. Now is the time to pay a price!"

After speaking, he waved his hand, and several people around him immediately rushed over and tied Elaine Ma up.

Cynthia didn't know what was going on, but when someone started to arrest the woman who had been beating him, he was finally relieved and angrily cursed: "The surname is Elaine Ma, my mother is going to break you into pieces! Wait! "

As Cynthia spoke, she reached into Hermès' bag and fetched her phone. Seeing this, Harold hurriedly scolded: "Damn, you still want to call?! Put the phone down for me! Otherwise, don't blame me for being polite!" Cynthia looked at him and blurted out: "This matter is my personal grievance with Elaine Ma, don't worry about it! Give Elaine Ma to me, and I will give you a satisfactory reward!"

Harold exploded immediately.

Chapter 1898

He thought to himself: "Is this woman mindless? Give Elaine Ma to you? How can our family explain to Mr. Webb? Besides, I don't care how you appeared here today, since you and Elaine Ma When they got together, in order to avoid problems with my kidnapping Elaine Ma, then I can only take you away!"

So he ignored Cynthia and said directly to the young people: "Tie up this Lady and take her away!"

When Cynthia heard this, he shouted angrily: "Tie me?! Do you know who I am?!"

Harold said in disgust: "I don't bother to know who you are. When you and Elaine Ma go to the brick factory to burn bricks, tell Elaine Ma who you are!"

After speaking, he said to the few people: "Give me both of them!"

Cynthia said hysterically: "You dare to move me, I'm Cyn...oo..."

Before Cynthia could say the rest, her mouth was tightly gagged with a towel.

The end of Elaine Ma was the same. After being gagged, Harold immediately said to them: "Hurry up and get people in the car!"

Several people immediately took Elaine Ma and Cynthia, walked out the back door quickly, and stuffed them into the carriage.

Harold said to the owner of the beauty salon at this time: "Ben, I advise you to withdraw as soon as possible and don't spend it here."

The owner of the beauty salon said: "No, I still have some second-hand equipment and furniture waiting to be processed!"

Harold asked him: "How much money can it be worth just such a little second-hand tatter?"

"It's worthless, but it's better than a lot of things. If you sell it, you can sell it for ten or twenty thousand."

Harold said hurriedly: "You quickly pull it down! How long do you have to spend for this 20,000 Dollar? In case it is for such a small amount of money, and you finally want to run away, then you will lose out. ! So I advise you to leave now! After I am gone, you should withdraw from the back door quickly!"

The beauty salon owner thought carefully: "Yes... the woman who came to Elaine Ma just now has a companion, but that companion is waiting outside at this time, and now she is taken away by Harold. The other party can't wait for anyone, and it will take half an hour, and he will definitely come in to see what happens. Isn't it a bad thing?!"

Thinking of this, he lost his heart. Anyway, he earned 200,000 Dollar from Harold, and another 50,000 Dollar from Cynthia, which is already a lot of money. If he doesn't run away now, if he can't get away. , I regret no tears!

So he hurriedly said to the clerk: "Go and say hello to the technician, pack things up and leave in five minutes!"

The clerk nodded busy: "Good boss!"

Soon, the van that Harold found, carrying Elaine Ma and Cynthia who were tied up by the five flowers, quickly left the back door of the beauty salon.

Within a few minutes, the owner of the beauty salon also took a clerk and a technician, with large and small bags of soft luggage, and sneaked away through the back door.

At this moment, Cynthia's bodyguard was still standing beside the Rolls-Royce on the roadside, waiting for Cynthia to come out.

How did he know that Cynthia was actually kidnapped in this ordinary beauty salon..

Twenty minutes passed, and Cynthia hadn't come out yet. The bodyguard took out his cell phone and planned to call Cynthia to ask.

At the same time, the van was driving outside the city.

Harold was sitting on the back seat with a smug look, while Elaine Ma, who was heavily tied up, was lying at his feet.

He deliberately stepped on Elaine Ma's face with his feet, and sneered: "Elaine Ma, I didn't expect it, you will have a f*cking today!"

Elaine Ma was speechless, so she could only whimper a few times.

At this moment, in Cynthia's bag next to him, the phone rang suddenly!

Chapter 1899

Cynthia's cell phone ringing shocked Harold.

He hurriedly reached out to Cynthia's bag and took out an Apple mobile phone.

Seeing someone calling her, he immediately turned off the phone without saying anything, and threw it back into Cynthia's bag.

Although Cynthia whimpered for a while, but there was nothing to do, and the intestines that she had regretted long ago were blue.

She thought to herself, "Isn't it the bad luck that I did? What am I doing with this Elaine Ma? If it wasn't for her, I wouldn't be kidnapped by this group of people!"

However, regret at this time has no meaning. Although she is the eldest daughter of Elder Wade, at this moment, she is also called every day to refuse, and the ground is not working.

At the same time, at the entrance of Lizi Beauty Salon.

Cynthia's bodyguard found that his master refused to answer her phone.

He didn't think much about it at first thought. After all, he knew that Cynthia was here to talk to Elaine Ma. Maybe it was inconvenient to answer his phone at the critical moment of negotiation.

However, in order to be sure that he was foolproof, he called Cynthia again. Unexpectedly, after the call was made, the phone turned off!

This moment made Cynthia's bodyguard nervous!

In today's society, mobile phones are very important to anyone.

Therefore, Cynthia's mobile phone has hardly ever been turned off during the day.

He immediately noticed something abnormal, so he immediately said to the driver: "Follow me in and have a look!"

The driver was also one of Cynthia's bodyguards. He immediately got off the Rolls-Royce and rushed into the beauty salon along with the bodyguards who had been guarding the car.

As soon as they entered the beauty salon, the two realized that something was wrong!

The clerk was not there, and it was a bit messy inside, obviously showing signs of hastily turned over.

So they searched from room to room and found the spa room where Cynthia and Elaine Ma had been fighting before.

When they saw the house full of mess, blood, and a lock of long hair on the ground, the two of them shook their hearts and looked at each other, and they could see the despair and collapse in each other's eyes!

On the sofa, there are silk scarves left by Cynthia!

From the scene, it can be easily seen that Cynthia was kidnapped!

The two bodyguards suddenly felt thunderous!

They were ordered to protect Cynthia's personal safety. They should have used their lives to defend Cynthia's safety, but they didn't expect Cynthia to be kidnapped right under their noses!

One of them desperately said: "It's over! This is over! The protector is not strong, this is a capital crime!"

The other person was equally desperate and collapsed and said, "This...this shouldn't be! Missy decided to come to see that Elaine Ma temporarily today, so it is impossible to reveal any whereabouts in advance, and our way is not. Without being followed by anyone, who would take her against her, this is not logical!"

"Oh, you don't care about what is reasonable or unreasonable. The top priority now is to find the eldest lady! Let's call Cameron Isaac as soon as possible! Aurouss Hilll is his site, he must be better than us!"

"It makes sense!"

As the man said, he immediately took out his mobile phone and called Cameron Isaac.

Cameron Isaac was in the hospital at this time, visiting the employee who miscarried because of Cynthia.

Cynthia's kick not only kicked the female employee's child, but also caused the female employee to cause a severe bleeding. Fortunately, the rescue was timely and he was temporarily out of danger.

Cameron Isaac hated and angered at the thought of Cynthia's arrogance and domineering, but as a servant of the Wade family, he had no right to point fingers at Cynthia anyway.

Chapter 1900

Therefore, he can only comfort his female employee and let her cultivate her body at ease.

After coming out of the ward, Cameron Isaac sighed, wondering when the grandmother Cynthia could leave when the phone suddenly rang.

The person who called was Cynthia's bodyguard.

Cameron Isaac answered the phone: "Hey, this is Cameron Isaac."

The nervous people on the other end of the phone almost cried, and choked up: "Mr. Cameron, something has happened, Mr. Cameron!"

Cameron Isaac frowned and asked, "What's the matter? It's such a fuss."

There was a shivering voice and said: "Isaac...Mr. Cameron, the eldest lady...she...she was kidnapped!"

There was a buzz in Cameron Isaac's mind!

What do you mean?

Cynthia was kidnapped in Aurouss Hilll?

Who is so bold that even the Wade family dare to tie them?

So, he hurriedly said, "Don't worry, let me know the matter clearly after the first five to ten!"

The other party hurriedly said, "Today the eldest lady is looking for a woman named Elaine Ma to talk about something, so we accompanied the eldest lady to a beauty salon and met with that Elaine Ma..."

"Unexpectedly...the two of them disappeared in the beauty salon together, and even the clerk and boss of the beauty salon were missing..."

In the next moment, he immediately thought of Charlie Wade.

He knew that Charlie Wade had a big quarrel with Cynthia in the Sky Garden, and the two sides must have been very uncomfortable, so it might really be Charlie Wade's hand.

So he hurriedly called Charlie Wade and asked as soon as he came up, "Master, where are you?"

Charlie Wade said lightly: "I'm at home, what's the matter?"

Cameron Isaac said nervously, "Master, did you tie up your aunt?"

Charlie Wade frowned: "No, I don't even bother to see her, why did I tie her up? Why, she was kidnapped?"

Cameron Isaac was surprised: "Ah? You didn't do this thing?! That's bad! This is really going to happen!"

Charlie Wade asked, "What the hell is going on?"

Cameron Isaac blurted out: "Your aunt went to the beauty salon to see your mother-in-law, and said she was going to talk to your mother-in-law in person, but she suddenly disappeared and disappeared in the beauty salon!"

Charlie Wade was shocked, and hurriedly asked him: "What about my mother-in-law? Missing too?! Do you know what she said to my mother-in-law?!"

What Charlie Wade feared most at this time was that Cynthia would reveal his identity in front of Elaine Ma.

Now, the Banks Family is the enemy he must get rid of, and the Wade family does not know whether it is an enemy or a friend. It is very likely that the two top Eastcliff families are their enemies. If their identity is revealed, they will be exposed to those around them. Brings a lot of danger.

Before these things were resolved, he was not going to tell Claire Wilson Wilson his identity.

However, if Cynthia and Elaine Ma show up, then he won't be able to hide..

Cameron Isaac also heard that Charlie Wade was a little nervous about this matter, and hurriedly said: "Master, I don't know the specific situation now. I don't know what your aunt and your mother-in-law said. Now they are both kidnapped. You have to find them first!"

Charlie Wade nodded, and said, "You call Don Albertt. His subordinates are scattered all over Arouss Hilll and have many eyes and ears. This kind of thing should be able to find a clue!"

Chapter 1901

Under Charlie Wade's order, the entire Arouss Hilll Underground World was dispatched almost at this instant.

Don Albertt even took to the streets in person, looking for clues to Elaine Ma with his men.

Harold didn't know this at this time.

He just wanted to take revenge on Elaine Ma, and then send her to the black brick kiln to work for a lifetime. This will not only suppress the arrogance of Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson, but also avenge himself and mother.

Christopher was also very excited.

His hatred for Elaine Ma has already reached a peak.

Of the four of Charlie Wade's family, he hates Elaine Ma the most!

The reason why I hate Elaine Ma so much is mainly because Hannah was sent to the black coal kiln, because Elaine Ma, and Hannah was pregnant in the black coal kiln and infected herself with a venereal disease.

That's fine, but this Elaine Ma has to hang dozens of green hats on the wall to disgust him, so that he will never forget the harm Hannah has brought to him, and he will always feel green on his head. As time continues to increase, it is no longer a common practice!

At this time, the father and son, together with their accomplices, dragged Elaine Ma and Cynthia to the abandoned warehouse in the suburbs. Because the warehouse is large, the van can be driven directly into the warehouse.

As soon as the car stopped, Harold jumped out of the car first, and then dragged Elaine Ma out of the car.

Christopher looked at Elaine Ma on the ground with a sneer, and said with a sneer: "Elaine Ma, Elaine Ma, you never dreamt that you would have a f*cking today?"

Elaine Ma was terrified, but because her mouth was blocked, she couldn't speak and could only sob loudly.

Christopher directly tore off the towel from her mouth.

Elaine Ma blurted out immediately: "Christopher! You are so f*cking tired and crooked, dare to kidnap your Lady?! Believe it or not, my son-in-law Charlie Wade, can blow your head anytime!"

"Huh?" Christopher raised his hand and slapped Elaine Ma, angrily said, "It's all about this time, so f*cking act with me? You think you are on your terrace now, don't you?"

Elaine Ma is a master who cannot afford to lose. Seeing that he dared to beat herself, she immediately furiously said: "Christopher, you wait! My son-in-law knows many people with good looks in Aurouss Hilll, and he will definitely teach you a lot!"

Christopher sneered and said: "Do you still expect Charlie Wade to teach us? I tell you, today I tied you here for two main purposes. First, let a few young people have fun with you, and take some videos to post. Online, let you and your family be ruined; second, send you to the black brick factory to burn the kiln and move bricks for a lifetime! How did you deal with Hannah in the first place, I will now get it back hundreds of times!"

As soon as Elaine Ma heard this, she was so frightened!

She really did not expect that Christopher would have such a vicious plan!

So, she immediately persuaded her and choked: "Brother, you shouldn't hate me so much. It was not me who wanted to harm my sister in the first place. It was my sister who wanted to harm me. Ask yourself if you didn't want to pit me. My son-in-law's villa, I can't do it against you!"

Christopher raised his hand and slapped it again, yelling, "Then you hung so many green hats on your terrace, how do you explain?"

Elaine Ma hurriedly said, "I was really wrong about that, eldest brother, you think I am your younger siblings, please spare me this time, I will definitely collect all the green hats after I go back. Do not stay!"

Christopher coldly snorted: "Now I know that I confessed my mistake? I tell you, it's too late! I don't want to save you this time!"

Harold on the side came over and asked in a low voice, "Dad, when should we let people do it?"

Christopher said: "Don't worry, when Mr. Webb comes over, Mr. Webb will have to witness it with his own eyes!"

Chapter 1902

Harold asked again: "What should I do if there is still a woman in the car? At that time, there was no way but to tie her together, but we don't know her either."

Christopher smacked his lips and said, "Don't worry, let Elaine Ma get rid of it first. If it doesn't work, send that woman to the black brick kiln!"

.....

At this moment, the Wade family had received news that Cynthia was kidnapped.

After Elder Wade heard about this, his whole body was instantly furious! He threw a beloved blue and white plum bottle directly in the living room, and roared angrily: "With the strength and status of my Wade family in the country, there are still people who dare to kidnap the immediate family members of the Wade family. This is too courageous. ?!"

The three brothers Corran, Myles, and William looked at me and you one by one, but none of them spoke.

Cynthia was kidnapped suddenly, and for them, it was not something worth worrying about.

On the contrary, it is something worthy of the expectations and excitement of the three of them.

None of the three brothers liked Cynthia.

The reason is nothing more than the word interest.

If Cynthia, like Aaliyah, the youngest daughter of the Wade family, would live steadily with her husband when she married, they would naturally not be dissatisfied with Cynthia.

But it was because Cynthia had already married out, but she couldn't keep herself in the husband's family and teach his sons. After separating from her husband, she ran back to the Wade family in an attempt to share a share of the family property. This made the three Wade family brothers treat Cynthia very much. disgust.

Moreover, Cynthia was already very serious.

She never cared about the feelings of the three brothers, only the feelings of the father alone.

Therefore, she would often deliberately target the three brothers in order to win the affection of the father, and make them annoying.

Now she has been kidnapped. Isn't this the gift God gave to the three of them?

Although the three of them haven't had any communication with each other, they all have the same wish in their hearts.

That is, I hope the kidnapers will kill Cynthia directly and never let her back again.

The old man Lord Wade was very annoyed. During this period of time, he increasingly felt that his eldest daughter Cynthia was not only capable, but also very obedient to his own words. Compared with the three sons, Cynthia made himself more compliant.

Now, my daughter, by her own order, went to Aurouss Hilll to find Charlie Wade, and was kidnapped in Aurouss Hilll. This not only threatened his daughter's life, but also slapped him in the face, so he could not do anything. accept.

So he immediately called Cameron Isaac and asked about the details of the matter.

Cameron Isaac could only reply truthfully, and told Cynthia to Elaine Ma and how he was kidnapped with Elaine Ma, and told Elder Wade in detail.

After listening to the old man Wade, he blurted out and asked: "Cameron Isaac, do you think the other party is targeting Cynthia or Elaine Ma?" Cameron Isaac said: "Master, I really can't analyze the specific situation now. The eldest has a high status. Maybe there are desperate desperados who want to kidnap her and blackmail a huge fortune. But Charlie Wade's mother-in-law has a pungent personality. Very often, I don't offend people less, maybe the other party may come to her to seek revenge. All of this will be known after the party is found."

Elder Wade immediately said in a cold voice: "Cameron Isaac, I have two requirements! First, you must rescue Cynthia anyway, otherwise you will be asked; second, immediately grab Cynthia's bodyguard, break his hands and feet, and then send back to Wade's house to accept punishment!"

Chapter 1903

Cameron Isaac also knew very well that Cynthia had to take responsibility for something wrong with Cynthia.

If Cynthia finally turned away from danger, everything would be fine, but if she really had some shortcomings, then her good life would have come to an end.

What's more, there was Charlie Wade's mother-in-law who disappeared with Cynthia this time.

Therefore, he further increased his search power, and even transferred the entire Shangri-La security guard out, just to search for the whereabouts of Cynthia and Elaine Ma as soon as possible.

However, the clues need to start from the beauty salon and a little bit of searching, so it is impossible to find them immediately.

Charlie Wade had also left home at this time and went to the beauty salon to meet Cameron Isaac.

He was worried about two things at this time. One thing was that Cynthia exposed his identity to Elaine Ma, and the other was that Elaine Ma was brutally murdered by the kidnappers.

In fact, until now, he has no family feelings towards Elaine Ma.

After all, Elaine Ma has been bullying and humiliating herself for more than three years, but only recently has it changed.

If there is a choice, Charlie Wade hopes that Elaine Ma will evaporate.

However, Charlie Wade felt a little unbearable when he thought of his wife Claire Wilson Wilson.

Claire Wilson Wilson is very kind after all, and she can be considered very filial to Elaine Ma. If Elaine Ma disappears for no reason, her blow will be extraordinary.

The last time Elaine Ma entered the detention center, she was missing for just a few days. Claire Wilson Wilson was going crazy. If Elaine Ma had something to happen this time, she would definitely be more worried than the last time.

Moreover, it seems that the New Year will be around in two days. If Elaine Ma had any accident at this time, the family would not have a good year.

Therefore, Charlie Wade still hopes to find and rescue Elaine Ma as much as possible.

.....

At this moment, abandoned warehouses in the suburbs.

Elaine Ma and Cynthia were tied together. The reason why the Wilson family and his son hadn't let Elaine Ma go to sleep was mainly because they wanted Donald to come over and inspect their work.

After all, this kind of work is soft and short.

The Wilson family got so many benefits from Donald, but they never let the Charlie Wade family jump in accordance with Donald's explanation, so Donald felt very insecure.

This is mainly because the Thompson First Villa they live in is not their own, but Donald lent them to live.

Moreover, Donald's investment in the Wilson Group's money is also conditional. Donald can withdraw all the money at any time, and then the Wilson family will still have nothing.

Therefore, they wholeheartedly hope that they can please Donald and satisfy Donald.

In this way, they can also get more benefits from the Webb family.

Donald was sitting in the car rushing to the warehouse, and he was very excited.

During this period of time, although he has been busy making the Webb family rise again and can't worry about fighting with Charlie Wade, the hatred of Charlie Wade in his heart has never been lessened.

Chapter 1904

This time I heard that Christopher wanted to attack Charlie Wade's mother-in-law first. Donald was naturally very happy. For fear of missing the show, he asked his men to drive and drive over to watch the live broadcast.

As soon as he arrived, Harold ran to open the door of the warehouse himself, and let the Rolls Royce in Donald drive in.

Christopher walked out of the car door excitedly and took the initiative to open the rear seat door for Donald.

As soon as the door opened, Christopher bowed very humbly and said, "Mr. Webb, you are here!"

Donald nodded and saw Elaine Ma tied back to back with Cynthia on the ground. He sneered and said, "This is Charlie Wade's mother-in-law, right?"

"Yes!" Christopher said with a bit of bitterness: "This girl, the number one vixen in the universe, is as cheap as a bone! I'll get her to be done later, and I'll help Mr. Webb! "

When Elaine Ma heard this, he hurriedly begged in fright: "I beg you to let me go, I have no grievances with you, why do you treat me like this..." Donald shouted coldly: "I have no grievances or hatreds? Do you know that your son-in-law Charlie Wade is my unshakable vengeance?! Today you fell into my hands, don't blame my cruel heart, blame it You found yourself a good son-in-law!"

Elaine Ma was about to collapse and cried out, "I was wronged! Charlie Wade is not the son-in-law I found for myself, but the live-in son-in-law hired by Christopher's father for the Wilson family. I strongly opposed it at the beginning, but the old man didn't listen to me. Yeah!"

Donald said contemptuously: "Don't f*cking talk to me about this nonsense, as long as it is the people around Charlie Wade, they will be a thorn in my eye and a thorn in my flesh!"

As he said, his expression was a little excited, but he said with some regret: "It's a pity, you are only Charlie Wade's mother-in-law, not Charlie Wade's immediate family member. If you can find a Charlie Wade's immediate family member first, then you will be in front of Charlie Wade. Just kill her with one knife!"

As soon as Donald said this, Elaine Ma felt that the woman tied to him behind her trembled violently.

Cynthia almost freaked out at this moment.

She originally thought that she was unlucky enough to meet Elaine Ma, a b*tch woman's enemy.

But now she realized that what she had encountered was not Elaine Ma's enemy, but Charlie Wade's enemy!

Moreover, the other party is still regretting that he has no chance to kill a Charlie Wade's immediate family...

Isn't she an immediate family member of Charlie Wade? I am Charlie Wade's aunt!

At this time, Donald looked at Christopher and said, "Old Wilson, when can you tie Charlie Wade's wife?"

When Christopher heard this, he said with some embarrassment: "Mr. Webb, what Claire Wilson Wilson said is also my niece, I can't make this hand..."

Donald waved his hand: "I didn't want to kill his wife! His wife is going to stay in the second to last. Before killing Charlie Wade, kill him in front of Charlie Wade!"

As he said, Donald paused slightly, and then said: "I mean, first kill an immediate family member who is related to Charlie Wade and get addicted. He has no parents, so there is no such thing as Seven Aunts and Eight Aunts. Kind of?"

Christopher thought about it for a while and said, "Charlie Wade has always been an orphan. I have never heard of his immediate family members. He should have died long ago!"

Donald sighed: "That's really a shame!"

At this moment, Elaine Ma suddenly had an idea, and blurted out: "I know I know! Charlie Wade has an immediate family member! The stinky lady who is tied to me is Charlie Wade's aunt! If you hate Charlie Wade, just take Kill her, kill her, it's definitely more useful than killing me!"

Cynthia was so scared that he had a cardiac arrest!

She cried desperately in her heart: "When I came out, my father still confessed to me. But don't let Elaine Ma know that I am the identity of the Wade family. What's afraid is that Elaine Ma knows that she is the Wade family, so the lion speaks loudly... So, how did Elaine Ma know that she is an Aunt to Charlie Wade?!"

Chapter 1905

Elaine Ma actually didn't know who Cynthia was.

She didn't even know what Cynthia's last name was, and where she came from.

And the reason why Elaine Ma said that Cynthia was Charlie Wade's aunt was completely nonsense.

The reason for saying this is completely because she completely scared her by Donald's words just now.

Elaine Ma was afraid that Donald would kill her, so she thought to herself: "Since Donald wants to kill an immediate family member of Charlie Wade to relieve his hatred, then I might as well cheat the b*tch behind me! This will not only make me myself It's safer, and I can avenge this woman for humiliating me and fighting me!"

"This damn woman, came and pretended me inexplicably! She lied to me with a fake cheque and asked me to persuade my daughter to divorce Charlie Wade. This is the point. I framed her as Charlie Wade's aunt. This is completely justified. of!"

Therefore, Elaine Ma didn't expect that he would actually be on the right side!

Donald didn't even expect that the woman behind Elaine Ma was Charlie Wade's aunt. He asked in surprise, "Elaine Ma, you said she was Charlie Wade's aunt, aren't you kidding me?"

"Of course not!" Elaine Ma blurted out immediately: "This woman is indeed Charlie Wade's aunt. Just now she ran to the beauty salon to find me and said that she would give me a check for 100 million Dollar and let my daughter leave Charlie Wade!"

After Donald heard this, he strode to Cynthia's face and looked her up and down.

Although he could see that Cynthia was well dressed and didn't look like an ordinary person, he didn't have any impression of her face.

This is not to blame for his ignorance. The main reason is that although the Wade family is famous, the direct members of the Wade family rarely show up in the public eye for personal safety.

Except for Eastcliff's upper class, ordinary people have no chance to meet the Wade family.

The media from all walks of life are absolutely afraid to report any personal information about the Wade family.

Therefore, although Donald was familiar with the Wade Family of Eastcliff, he even knew it well, but he really didn't know anyone in the Wade Family.

Naturally, he couldn't recognize Cynthia in front of him.

So he tore off the towel from Cynthia's mouth and asked coldly, "Are you Charlie Wade's aunt?"

Cynthia shuddered in shock, and shook his head desperately to deny: "No! I am not Charlie Wade's aunt! I have nothing to do with Charlie Wade!"

Elaine Ma yelled: "f*ck your mother! You have nothing to do with Charlie Wade, why should my daughter divorce Charlie Wade?!"

Cynthia was nervous and didn't know how to answer.

She heard Donald say with her own ears that Charlie Wade's immediate family would be slaughtered. If he knew that he was Charlie Wade's aunt, he would definitely kill her without saying a word.

Therefore, she knew that she would never admit this relationship.

She even didn't dare to expose the identity of her Wade family, because once the other party knew that she was the Wade family, she was afraid that she would do nothing and kill herself forever.

Donald saw that she hadn't spoken for a long time. He slapped Cynthia's face with a slap in the face and gritted his teeth furiously: "Don't say yes?! Okay! I'll kill you!"

Cynthia's face was extremely pale, and he cried and said, "Actually, I am not Charlie Wade's relative at all. I just think that Charlie Wade is a good-looking kid and capable, so I want him to be my son-in-law..."

Chapter 1906

"Fart!" Before Elaine Ma spoke this time, Donald cursed Cynthia first, then slapped her again, and cursed: "You the f*cking treat me as a three-year-old child? Charlie Wade married. do not know?"

"I know..." Cynthia cried and said, "Because I know, I can only make this move. I want to separate Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson first, and then my daughter will have a chance!"

Donald sneered: "You woman, you are very dishonest at first glance. I can tell from your eyes that you didn't tell me the truth!"

Cynthia was nervous to death.

In fact, she does not have very good psychological quality. She has been arrogant before. It is not because of how strong her psychological quality is, but because of the aura of the Wade family, so she can be free and unreasonable, not afraid that anyone dares to treat her badly. Read.

However, this is not Eastcliff after all.

She also underestimated Donald's hatred for Charlie Wade.

At this time, Donald just wanted to teach Charlie Wade a lesson first, and then find a chance to kill Charlie Wade as well.

Therefore, it is impossible for Donald to reason with Cynthia.

If Cynthia can't prove very clearly that she is not Charlie Wade's aunt, then Donald would rather kill the wrong person than let it go!

Therefore, Cynthia could only choked and said, "This gentleman, since you hate Charlie Wade so much, you must know that Charlie Wade was an orphan since childhood and grew up in an orphanage. How could I be his aunt? If I really are his aunt, How could I let my nephew live in the orphanage for so many years, don't you think?"

Donald snorted coldly, gritted his teeth and said: "What's impossible? When my bastard brother-in-law died, there was a little girl left behind. That little girl was my wife's niece, and she was also called my wife and aunt, my wife. She always wanted to bring her to my side to raise, but I did not agree, so the little girl is still living in the orphanage. Isn't this the same as your situation?"

Cynthia was stunned for a moment, and he had no idea what to do.

At this moment, Harold on the side rummaged in Cynthia's bag for a while, pulled out a document from his wallet, and handed it to Donald with a flat face, and said, "Mr. Webb, look, this woman is called Cynthia Wade. From Eastcliff!"

Donald frowned immediately.

Although the surname of Wade is not too much, it is not too few, so he did not think of Cynthia Wade and Charlie Wade Wade's family together. On the contrary, he discovered that this woman was also surnamed Wade, and almost instantly concluded that this woman must be Charlie Wade's aunt!

Thinking of this, he gritted his teeth and grabbed Cynthia's hair, and his big mouth drew several times. Cynthia's mouth was full of blood, and he said coldly: "You are brave enough, and dare you f*ck me. Do I really think Donald is an idiot?!"

Cynthia was beaten up and down, and her whole person almost collapsed.

She cried and said, "Mr. Webb, I beg you to let me go. I have no grievances with you. Why should you embarrass me again and again... .. If Charlie Wade has offended you, then you can kill him. Don't kill me, please..."

Cynthia didn't dare to reveal her true identity as a last resort, because once her true identity was revealed, it might be even stronger for Donald to kill others.

Therefore, she wants to carry it to the end!

If there is really no other way, then use your identity to make the last fight.

At this time, Donald grinned: "You said you have no grievances and no enemies with me?! I tell you, all Charlie Wade's relatives and friends are my enemies of Donald! You two, one is Charlie Wade's aunt, One is Charlie Wade's mother-in-law, so don't both of you want to run!"

After that, he immediately shouted to a bodyguard next to him: "Amao! First drag Charlie Wade's aunt to me, and he shot it away!"

Chapter 1907

Donald's violent shout made Cynthia's whole person instantly shaken into chaff.

Because of the high tension of his body, Cynthia didn't control it, so she urinated her pants on the spot.

Since she and Elaine Ma were tied back to back, after urinary incontinence, the urine flowed down into a big pool.

Elaine Ma suddenly felt that the place where she was sitting became damp in an instant, and there was still a bit of stinky smell in the air, immediately like an electric shock, while struggling to move her body, she cursed: "What about you girl? It's so disgusting! When is it bad to pee in pants, not pee now, f*ck me all!"

Cynthia has completely collapsed, and all the decentness that she has cultivated for decades of wealthy daughters has disappeared in this lesson.

She looked at Donald and cried and said, "Mr. Webb, please don't kill me. I am the eldest lady of the Wade family of Eastcliff. My name is Cynthia. As long as you spare me this time, I can give you a lot of money. My father Nathaniel Wade will also give you a lot of money!"

Suddenly, Donald was taken aback, looked at Cynthia, and asked incredulously: "You said you are the eldest lady of the Wade family?!"

Corran cried and said, "Yes, I am! I really am!"

Donald asked again: "You said your father is Nathaniel Wade?!"

Corran nodded repeatedly, choked up and said, "Yes! Nathaniel Wade is my father!"

Donald had never heard of Cynthia.

However, he had heard of Nathaniel Wade's name.

After all, Nathaniel Wade is the head of the Wade family, and he is very well-known throughout the country.

Cynthia said that she was Lord Wade's daughter. Donald's first thought was: "Impossible!"

He stared at Cynthia, and sneered coldly: "Didn't you just urinate? Take a good picture of yourself and see if you look like the Wade family?"

Cynthia collapsed and pleaded from the bottom of his heart: "Brother, I really am the Wade family!"

Donald said disdainfully, "Well, even if you are really from the Wade family, then I will ask you, what do you do to come to Aurouss Hilll if you are a dignified Miss Wade family?"

Cynthia choked up and said, "I...I'm looking for Charlie Wade..."

Donald was even more disdainful: "Charlie Wade is just a live-in son-in-law who knows Feng Shui metaphysics, don't you f*cking tell me that he is also from the Wade family of Eastcliff!"

Cynthia cried and said, "It's true! Charlie Wade is really a member of our Wade family. He is the son of my second brother and the grandson of my father..."

Elaine Ma was stunned, and forgot that all of her body was soaked with Cynthia's urine, and blurted out, "What did you say?! You said Charlie Wade is the grandson of Eastcliff Wade family?!"

"Yes..." Cynthia said sincerely: "Charlie Wade had been living in Eastcliff when he was a child. Later, due to some special reasons, he followed his parents to Aurouss Hilll, and then his parents died. Sent to Aurouss Hilll Welfare Institute..."

"Impossible!" Elaine Ma blurted out: "If Charlie Wade is really the young master of the Wade family, how could he have been growing up in the orphanage? And when he became an adult, he was picked up by my father-in-law from the construction site when he worked as a construction worker. Yes, you tell me now that he is the eldest of the Eastcliff Wade family? I f*cking said that I am the queen mother who went down to earth!" Donald also said in a cold voice: "What you said is not in line with common sense. If Charlie Wade really has such a powerful identity, how can he be included in such a poor family?" Christopher touched his nose, and said awkwardly, "Mr. Webb, are you saying that is not appropriate..."

Chapter 1908

"That's it, Mr. Webb..." Harold on the side was also a little unconvinced, and said: "Our Wilson family in Aurouss Hilll can be regarded as a middle-class family anyway, and that's also a good one!"

Donald glared at him and cursed: "Your family has a head and a face? Your sister has a head and a face, and even went to kneel and lick the bad old man Kenneth Wilson? With a head and a face, your mother still sleeps with the overseer in the black coal mine?"

As soon as Christopher heard this, his face flushed with shame, and he wanted to slash the ground and get in on the spot.

Harold beside him also wanted to die in embarrassment.

Donald seemed to be puzzled. He gritted his teeth and cursed: "Damn, the TV in Master's villa has been sold by your family secretly, and you have the face to tell me that your family has a head and a face? Your grandma runs away with a head and face. Charlie Wade's house steals foreign daffodils to make dumplings to eat? How much does it cost you to buy two catties of leeks at the damn vegetable market?! The fcking family is stupid, saying that you're all fcking stupid!"

Christopher and Harold and his son were speechless immediately.

What Donald said is the truth. After the Wilson family fell lonely, they did a lot of things that were not ethical, indiscriminate, and bullshit. If they were to say one by one, they would really bring the Wilson family back. The ancestor's face was lost.

Cynthia's desire to die is gone.

Obviously she was confessing his identity and Charlie Wade's background to Donald, how to say it, became Donald and cursed the other two people bloody?

So, she looked at Donald with a very pious expression: "Big brother, every word I say is true. I can swear to the heavens. Please look at the face of the Wade family and let me go. Right!"

.....

At this moment.

Charlie Wade was sitting on Cameron Isaac's helicopter, flying to the suburbs at high speed.

Christopher and Harold's methods of committing crimes are not smart, and it is not difficult for Cameron Isaac and his men to find out their trajectory.

Soon, they locked the van based on surveillance video, and then used traffic monitoring to get out their crime route along the way.

After learning that the other party was currently in an abandoned warehouse in the suburbs, Cameron Isaac immediately organized a large number of men to prepare for rescue.

Charlie Wade naturally went with him.

When the helicopter was flying, Charlie Wade, who was sitting in the cabin, looked sad.

Seeing this, Cameron Isaac on the side hurriedly comforted: "Master, we can rush over in a few minutes. Your mother-in-law and your aunt should not be in danger of life."

Charlie Wade rubbed the bridge of his nose and sighed: "Christopher and Harold are likely to be working for Donald. I can probably guess how they would treat Elaine Ma. It is likely that they will find someone similar to a black coal mine after torturing Elaine Ma. The place imprisoned her for suffering, so I am not worried that they will kill Elaine Ma."

Cameron Isaac nodded and said, "Your aunt is the eldest daughter of the Wade family. If it is Donald who is in charge behind her and your aunt reveals her identity, he should not dare to make trouble, so your aunt will probably not encounter Danger."

Charlie Wade smacked his lips and said: "What I worry about is that my aunt reveals her identity! If she reveals her identity, she will definitely reveal my identity. I don't want others to know that I have anything to do with the Wade family! "

Cameron Isaac hurriedly asked, "What if your aunt has already said it?"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "If she has already said it, then she must be a little wronged by the time!"

Chapter 1909

At this moment, an abandoned warehouse on the outskirts of the city.

Cynthia, who had not dared to reveal her identity, couldn't take care of that much now.

Seeing that Donald had never believed in herself, she hurriedly blurted out, "Mr. Webb, I really am the eldest daughter of the Wade family of Eastcliff. As for you just mentioned that Charlie Wade grew up in the orphanage, I don't deny that. This is mainly because Charlie Wade's situation is very special. His father was Bruce Wade, the famous Eastcliff Tiger back then. You should have heard of this, right?"

Donald felt a little in his heart.

He secretly thought: "Bruce?! This is my idol when I was young! The Bruce Wade back then, with his own power, made the Wade family stand on top of the country, even straight away, and even suppressed the old European and American family Rothschild. The arrogance of the Rothschild family, that man, in the domestic business world, was a godlike existence! It is a pity that Bruce died young, otherwise the future is boundless..."

Thinking of this, he frowned and looked at Cynthia, and asked, "You said Charlie Wade is Bruce's son?! What evidence is there?!"

Cynthia blurted out: "Don't you think that the two of them look very alike? The two are simply carved out of the same mold. What kind of evidence is needed..."

Donald said coldly: "What you said is just nonsense! I don't even know what Bruce looks like!"

Bruce passed away eighteen years ago. At that time, the Internet in China had just started. He usually relied on TV and newspapers to obtain information.

However, families like the Wade family generally do not report directly on TV and newspapers, so things about these big families are basically passed on by word of mouth from the upper class.

At that time, Donald was in Eastcliff again, so he never had a chance to see Bruce. He just heard about Bruce's many deeds.

So, how did he know that Charlie Wade and Bruce looked the same.

Cynthia had no choice but to say: "You also read my ID card just now. My name is Cynthia Wade, a native of Eastcliff. The word 'Wade' is my surname. I have two The elder brother, the two younger brothers, the eldest brother Corran, the second brother Bruce, the third brother Myles, the fourth brother William, and the younger sister named Aaliyah, these are all true! I am really the Wade family!"

Donald frowned.

Bruce has long been like a thunderbolt, and Cynthia has also heard about it.

He couldn't help muttering in his heart: "Is what this woman said is true?! If so, didn't I cause a catastrophe? If the Wade family is investigated by that time, the Webb family is afraid that the family will be ruined.!"

Seeing Donald's expression of uncertainties, and the nervousness that could not be concealed, Harold on the side was a little startled.

He asked Christopher in a low voice, "Dad, you said Charlie Wade's hanging silk, isn't it really a member of the Wade family?"

Christopher frowned and said seriously: "This...I don't know. It sounds impossible at first, but when I think about it, it doesn't seem to be a fake, otherwise, where did this woman emerge from? Are you here? Even if she is not Charlie Wade's aunt, at least she has a certain connection with Charlie Wade!"

Harold nodded repeatedly: "It makes sense!"

Elaine Ma was also in a cloud at this time.

She had sneered at all that Cynthia said, but the more Cynthia said, the more truth she felt.

She couldn't help but wondered in her heart: "Mom, is my son-in-law really the young master of the top big family?! If this is true, won't I have to become so prosperous in the future?!"

Elaine Ma suddenly became excited. However, after a while, the excitement in her heart was immediately replaced by despair.

She looked at the menacing people around her, and wailed in her heart: "Oh, why is my life so bitter? Finally, my son-in-law has great ability, but I was tied up by these bastards, in case they really give me away. What can I do after entering the black brick kiln? Will Charlie Wade come back and save me?!"

Chapter 1910

Thinking of this, Elaine Ma suddenly realized that she had treated Charlie Wade too badly before.

She thought of the past that she had been arrogant, screaming, and even bullying and insulting Charlie Wade before, and she regretted it very much.

I couldn't help thinking, "What if Charlie Wade still hates me in his heart? I'm missing this time. Maybe it's just as his wish. If he doesn't want me to go back at all, then he won't come to the rescue at all. Me, do I have to burn and move bricks in the black brick kiln for the rest of my life?!"

At this point, Elaine Ma burst into tears immediately.

At this time, Donald looked at Cynthia and said, "Since you said you are from the Wade family, then I ask you, what evidence do you have to prove it?"

Corran hurriedly said, "I have my checkbook and my personal signature stamp in my bag. You can take a look!"

Donald looked at Harold and blurted out, "Where is her bag?"

Harold immediately returned to the van and took out Cynthia's top runway Hermes.

As soon as he saw this bag, Donald shook his heart. Elaine Ma didn't know the goods and couldn't recognize how much the bag was worth, but he did. Back then, his wife Xenia also participated in the Hermès spring show. In that show, this bag was the finale.

Moreover, according to the official introduction of Hermès at the time, this bag is a collection of Hermès' top artisans, handmade, and there is only one, which is extremely valuable.

At that time, Xenia matched this bag at a glance, and he had to buy it all the time. It's a pity that Hermes officially stated that this bag had already been ordered by a celebrity in Eastcliff, so no one else would sell it.

Xenia didn't give up, and even asked Donald to act like a baby, hoping that Donald could find a way to help her buy this bag.

Donald tried several times, but the other party did not let go.

Later, a senior Hermès official told Donald that this bag had been ordered by a member of the top family of Eastcliff and persuaded him to give up.

Donald heard that it was ordered by a member of Eastcliff's top big family, and immediately understood that the other party was definitely not an object of competition.

Therefore, he spent a lot of money and bought a lot of other Hermes for his wife, which made his wife give up thinking about this bag.

Now, when he saw this bag again, he almost immediately determined Cynthia's identity deep down in his heart!

At this moment, Donald had all the desire to die deep in his heart!

"Isn't this a f*cking beeping dog? Isn't it! Today it was just the Wilson family father and son asking themselves to flatter him, saying that they wanted to engage in Elaine Ma, and he hated Charlie Wade, so come and watch the excitement... ."

"But who the hell would have imagined that the Wilson family's father and son, the eldest daughter of the Wade family, were tied together!"

"This is a member of the Wade family! Let's not talk about the courage of the trash father and son, the key is, how can such a big person make the father and son tied up? Is there not even a bodyguard by Cynthia?!"

As he was thinking, Harold had already handed Cynthia's bag over. He handed it over to Donald with respectful hands, and said flatly, "Mr. Webb, I don't think you should believe this stinky lady who is slanderous here. , When we went to catch Elaine Ma, this stinky lady was ganging up with Elaine Ma's vixen, and she was still riding the hammer on her face by Elaine Ma, but as long as she is a person with status, she can't even be around Not even a bodyguard, right?"

Cynthia blurted out: "I brought it! I brought two bodyguards and an assistant, but at the time I wanted to go to the beauty salon to talk to Elaine Ma about Charlie Wade, and I didn't want Elaine Ma to know my identity and be followed by her. so I let the bodyguard wait at the door..."

Speaking of this, Cynthia said angrily: "But I never expected that the owner of that beauty salon would be in the same group as you!"

Chapter 1911

Donald opened Cynthia's Hermes with fear.

Inside, in addition to the checkbook, there is indeed a badge of Cynthia's name.

People's name badges are usually not carved by ordinary people, and there is no need to use them.

But if it is an enterprise leader or senior management, almost everyone must.

A lot of money-related businesses need a corresponding name stamp, especially cash checks.

Moreover, the font of the name seal is generally unconventional, so Donald can clearly see that the words "Cynthia Wade" are engraved on this seal.

Seeing Cynthia's name badge, Donald's blood pressure rose instantly and he could barely stand.

In the next moment, he even had the desire to die.

This feeling is like asking the Wilson family and his son to catch a dog, but when the other party catches the dog, he still catches a tiger in confusion.

The key is that behind this tiger, there is also an extremely powerful family.

Donald cried angrily in his heart: "What the hell is this! I just want to teach Elaine Ma how to tie the young lady of the Wade family... Come join in the fun! This is a good thing Christopher, Harold and his son did, but Cynthia took me as the mastermind as soon as I came..."

At this moment, Cynthia saw that Donald's expression was very complicated, and he knew clearly that he should believe in his identity, so he hurriedly said: "Mr. Webb, I know that you really want to tie Elaine Ma, not me, between us. But it's just a misunderstanding. As long as you let me go, I will definitely not pursue what happened today. In the future, I will promote the cooperation between the Wade family and the Webb family. What do you think?"

Hearing this, Donald's heart was more or less moved.

Judging from today's things alone, I have nothing more than two choices. The first one is to do nothing but to kill Cynthia directly; The second is to quickly rein in the cliff, perhaps the Wade Family can still give themselves a chance.

If you choose the first one, you must have a prerequisite, that is, after you kill Cynthia, you must ensure that the Wade family cannot find yourself.

So he beckoned to Christopher, and said coldly: "Old Wilson, come, take a step to speak."

Christopher hurriedly followed up.

Christopher took him to the door of the warehouse and asked in a low voice, "Did you deliberately avoid surveillance on the way you tied these two women?"

"No." Christopher shook his head and said: "After we tied them up from the beauty salon, the driver navigated directly here, and the route they took was all the route planned by the navigation..."

Donald's legs softened and he almost couldn't stand firm.

Christopher hurriedly supported him and asked, "Mr. Webb, what's wrong with you?"

Donald opened his hand and asked angrily: "You didn't find a hidden place to change your car on the way you came?"

"Change the car?" Christopher asked in astonishment: "Mr. Webb, I don't think this is necessary, right? Isn't it just two stinky ladies? Just tuck it into the car and pull it over?"

As he said, Christopher reminded him: "Mr. Webb, I always feel that the lady named Cynthia has something wrong with her, but her mouth can be fooled. I almost believed what I just said, but I was careful. After thinking about it, I still feel that something is wrong!"

Chapter 1912

After a pause, Christopher continued to talk loudly: "Look, Mr. Webb, if this Cynthia is really the eldest from the top Eastcliff family, how could she come to Aurouss Hill? Besides, what she said about Charlie Wade's life experience is simply his Damn it! Charlie Wade's stinky hanging silk, before he arrived at our house, he was just a small casual worker who lived on the construction site with food and lodging, and a poor batch of hanging people! I'm not obedient, maybe he Back then, he couldn't even use wiping paper, how could he be the young master of a wealthy family? Which wealthy family was willing to throw their children out for so many years?"

Donald remained expressionless, and did not respond to what he said. Although what Christopher said may sound reasonable at first, there is no real evidence at all. However, Donald had seen Cynthia's checkbook and the name stamp just now. The checkbook is real, and the name stamp is by no means forgery.

Coupled with her top Hermes limited edition, it is basically certain that she must be Cynthia Wade. The question that bothers Donald now is what to do with Cynthia.

He was 10,000 people who didn't believe Cynthia's words. He couldn't understand the mentality of the upper class people.

She said that she could not blame the past, but it really made her free. The first thing she did was probably to kill him.

However, if you kill her now, it is too unsafe.

Because Christopher and Harold were far from cautious in handling this matter, they were sent here directly after they were tied up, and there was no change of cars along the way. As long as the road monitoring was strictly checked, the car could be tracked all the way.

Maybe, I will be here soon!

Thinking of this, Donald's nervous scalp became numb.

Immediately, he thought to himself: "Since this Cynthia can't kill him, he can only do everything he can to save the situation!"

After making up his mind, he immediately said to Christopher: "Go, follow me in."

Christopher nodded quickly, followed him eagerly, and walked back to the warehouse.

As soon as Donald entered the warehouse, he strode towards Cynthia.

Before he came to the front, he was very ashamed and said, "Oh, Madam Wade, what happened today is really a misunderstanding, Christopher and Harold, father and son, want to teach Charlie Wade's mother-in-law Elaine Ma, the shrew behind you, I didn't expect that their two goddamn bastards would arrest you. I'm so sorry!"

Upon hearing this, Cynthia was relieved immediately...

At this moment, she was so excited that she almost cried!

Harold on the side heard this and asked with surprise: "Mr. Webb, which one are you singing?"

"Which one did you sing?!" Donald grabbed Harold's collar directly, slapped it violently, and cursed: "You f*cking have a face to say? The whole thing is because of your father. Let's start together! If you two hadn't been for Elaine Ma, you wouldn't have Ms. Wade involved!"

After the fight, Donald cursed with lingering fears: "Fortunately, I came and took a look today. If I only took a look today, if you really do anything excessive to Ms. Wade, then I really killed both of you. A dog can't answer his hatred!"

Harold said with a dazed expression: "Mr. Webb, what do you mean by this? We tied Elaine Ma, but it's all for you!"

"For me?!" Donald scolded: "f*ck your mother! What does this have to do with me!"

After speaking, he immediately angrily shouted to several bodyguards around him: "Come here, give me the two arms of this bastard!"

Chapter 1913

Harold's whole body collapsed after hearing this!

Seeing Donald's bodyguards stepping forward, he rushed towards him, scared back, and shouted nervously: "Mr. Webb, what are you doing! I...we are not all for you. Isn't it... you don't need to appreciate it, why did you abolish my arms?"

Donald exploded in anger, and he blurted out: "If you dare to say it's for me, I'll break your legs!"

Harold was horrified. Before he could run far, he was firmly pressed to the ground by a few tall bodyguards.

Donald's bodyguards are not good, and since the boss has ordered, he will never hesitate.

Therefore, as soon as Harold was pushed to the ground, someone picked up a brick from the ground and slammed it on his shoulder.

Harold let out a painful ouch, and before he finished screaming, a sharp pain came from the other shoulder, which made him almost fainted.

Seeing that his son was smashed into such a miserable picture, Christopher hurried up to intercede, and blurted out: "Mr. Webb...Mr. Webb! My son is completely kind, even if he does something bad, you It shouldn't be so to him..."

Donald gritted his teeth and cursed: "Your father is really a lot of bullshit! Come here, give me both of his arms!"

At this moment, Donald knew that this incident could not be completely hidden, so he could only choose to fall to Cynthia.

He just wanted to do his best to prove to Cynthia that he was innocent.

Therefore, at this time, Christopher dare to say that they are out of good intentions, isn't this breaking the dirty water on himself?

In that case, don't blame yourself for being rude!

To abolish them is to give Cynthia a name.

If Cynthia relieved her hatred and anger in her heart, his troubles would be much smaller.

How could Christopher ever think that this damn Donald not only turned his face when he turned his face, but he abolished his son, and then he was about to abolish himself!

Seeing that his son was smashed to the ground and wailing, his first thought was to run away.

However, he is about to become a bad old man, which is the opponent of Donald's several mature bodyguards.

Therefore, before running a few steps, he was immediately pressed to the ground.

After that, the same brick was smashed twice, and Christopher was thrown to his son like a pig to be slaughtered. The wailing of the father and son resounded throughout the warehouse.

The wailing was so loud that the helicopter roared from a distance, and the people inside could not hear it.

The bloody father and son, their shoulders were full of blood at this time, they looked terrible.

Seeing that both father and son had their arms destroyed, Donald came to Cynthia flatly and said: "Ms. Wade, I have already taught these two beasts. I hope you don't get angry..."

Cynthia breathed a sigh of relief, but couldn't help complaining: "You have to unti me!"

"Oh, yes, yes!" Donald hurriedly started and untied Cynthia's rope.

Cynthia just regained her freedom and immediately jumped up from the ground, completely ignoring that she was full of urine. The first thought was to turn around, grab Elaine Ma by the hair, and hit her face with a violent blow!

Chapter 1914

"Asshole, I let you beat me! I let you beat me! You f*cking country shrew, even I dare to beat you, it's really against you!"

Elaine Ma was still tied up, so she didn't have any resistance at all, so she could only let Cynthia output wildly on her face and head.

At this time, Elaine Ma was yelling and begging for mercy: "Oh, elder sister, please don't beat me. Can I know if I am wrong?"

"Knowing that you are wrong?" Corran was even more furious when he heard this. He blasted the hammer at Elaine Ma and shouted angrily: "You have killed my Lady like this. Just tell my Lady that you know you are wrong?! The Lady not only wants it today? I have to kill you if I hit you!"

Elaine Ma frightened her a and blurted out: "Sister, forgive me! Don't forget, you are Charlie Wade's aunt, I am Charlie Wade's mother-in-law, we are relatives! Between relatives, how can you die like this? Hand! If my son-in-law turns against you in the future because of this, you won't be able to hold on to it!"

Cynthia snorted coldly: "I'm going to your mother! How could my Lady be relatives to a poor ghost like you! If Charlie Wade dares to bring your family back to Wade's house, my Lady will not let him go!"

When Donald on the side heard this, he suddenly became energetic and said excitedly: "Ms. Wade, as long as you have a word, I will let people kill this stinky lady!"

When Elaine Ma heard this, she looked at Cynthia in horror, and begged: "Sister, if you don't look at the face of the monk and the face of the Buddha, you will spare me a dog! At most you will label me like Christopher and Harold. , This is the head office..."

Cynthia also hoped that Elaine Ma would go to hell.

However, she suddenly thought of the father's entrustment to herself, and suddenly she felt a little daunted.

She knew that if she really let Donald kill Elaine Ma, Charlie Wade was afraid that she would not forgive herself.

At that time, if Charlie Wade resisted the Wade Family, the old man would definitely complain that he didn't get things done.

Thinking of this, she gave up the idea of killing Elaine Ma, stared at Elaine Ma, gritted her teeth and said: "Should you f*cking talk nonsense with me, the Lady can't kill you because of Charlie Wade's face today, but you are a capital offense." It can be avoided, living sins cannot escape!"

After finishing speaking, she looked at Donald and sternly shouted:

"Break her hands and feet!"

When Donald heard this, he immediately said, "Ms. Wade, don't worry, leave it to me!"

After finishing speaking, the opponent hurriedly shouted: "Come here, give up her hands and feet!"

As soon as the voice fell, several subordinates rushed over.

Elaine Ma was so frightened that she broke down and cried, but the other party directly held on to her, without saying anything, directly picked up the brick and slammed it on Elaine Ma's right knee.

At this moment, Elaine Ma fainted almost instantly in pain.

When her right knee was in the detention center, she was broken once by the Lady Wilson. After so long, she had just removed the plaster and recovered within a few days. This time, she was smashed again. The pain of the heart was so painful. She is desperate!

Elaine Ma immediately cried out heartbreakingly: "Please forgive me, my leg has been broken once, and now it happened to be broken again. You want my life... .."

Donald sternly reprimanded: "Stop the f*cking nonsense, Miss Wade will break your hands and legs. You have just finished a quarter!"

Elaine Ma screamed out like crazy: "Then you kill me! You kill me, I am a hundred dollars, no longer have to suffer this crime!"

Donald scolded in disgust: "What a f*cking shrew! You guys, quickly get rid of her for me!"

When the man with the slab was about to attack Elaine Ma's other leg, the door of the warehouse was suddenly kicked open. A dozen men in black with live ammunition quickly filed in and pointed their guns at the people inside. .

The headed man in black was holding a gun and said coldly: "No one is allowed to move. If anyone dares to move in my sight, be careful that my bullets do not have eyes!"

Chapter 1915

Seeing a group of men in black with live ammunition rushing in, everyone was stunned.

Donald asked nervously: "Who are you?!"

Among them, the man in black wearing a black mask said coldly: "We are Interpol! We are ordered to investigate a huge transnational fraud case!" It was not someone else who spoke, but Charlie Wade's most loyal subordinate, Don Albertt.

At this time, Charlie Wade was on the helicopter outside, but he never got off.

He didn't plan to come forward directly on this matter today, otherwise, there would be no way to explain to his mother-in-law Elaine Ma.

At this moment, Donald's expression is extremely surprised, Interpol? Check transnational fraud? What does it have to do with yourself?

I just kidnapped Elaine Ma and Cynthia!

Elaine Ma felt as if his nerves were hit by high-voltage electricity all at once, and his whole body trembled. He immediately thought of his tragic experience when he was sent to the cell for stealing Charlie Wade's bank card.

However, after a while, she immediately came back to her senses and cried out for help: "Comrade Interpol, help! I was kidnapped by these people, they are going to kill me!"

The headed man in black walked up to her, checked her injuries, and said coldly to those around him: "Protect the injured first!"

"Yes!" Several people in black drank at the same time, and then hurriedly stepped forward and dragged Elaine Ma, who had a broken leg aside.

Elaine Ma saw that he was being protected by a few men in black with guns, and he was completely relieved, and she cried loudly.

Seeing that Elaine Ma was protected, Donald immediately became anxious! He himself gave Cynthia a name. If he were protected by these Interpol, how could he satisfy Cynthia? !

So he immediately questioned: "Hey! Did you make a mistake? There is no suspect of transnational fraud! Quickly let the woman go!"

Don Albertt walked directly in front of him, kicked him on his abdomen, kicked him all the way, with the muzzle against his forehead, and said coldly: "What? Are you telling me to do things?!"

Feeling the cold muzzle, Donald was so frightened that he immediately waved his hand and said, "I dare not dare, I just want to confirm..."

Don Albertt said disdainfully: "No more nonsense, we will take you back to the Vienna headquarters for trial!"

Cynthia walked over in embarrassment at this time and said to Don Albertt, who was dressed in black, "Is Interpol? I know the person in charge of your Vienna headquarters. I don't care what you are going to do here. I now ask you to send it first. I go to the hospital and protect me all the way until someone in my family takes over!"

Don Albertt looked at Cynthia and sneered for a moment. Without a word, he slapped her loudly!

Corran sighed. Before he had time to question the reason, Don Albertt sternly shouted: "Caroline Wells, we have been investigating you for a long time! At the beginning, you specially made counterfeit Citibank black gold cards and searched for victims all over the country. You will be arrested on suspicion of defrauding the bank because you used the card you made. We have already investigated the fact that you used the alias Cynthia Wade to slander and deceive all over the world. We have already investigated it! Do you dare to argue here?!"

Cynthia was stunned by this remark.

Chapter 1916

She subconsciously questioned: "Who do you say is Caroline Wells?! How could I be called such an earthy name! I am Wade's parents and daughter! I am Cynthia Wade who has been replaced by a fake!"

Don Albertt shouted coldly: "You still pretend to me? You have killed so many people and caused so many companies and individuals bankrupted for so many years, don't you have the slightest knowledge of yourself?"

Elaine Ma was also dumbfounded..

Ten thousand voices in her heart kept lingering in her mind: "What the hell is going on? Who is this woman? Is she Charlie Wade's aunt or a transnational scammer?!"

"If she is Charlie Wade's aunt, what's the matter with these Interpol? They also accurately stated what they were arrested in prison, which seems to be really well-founded."

"If she is a transnational scammer, why did she find herself and want her daughter to divorce Charlie Wade? And even a big man like Donald believes she is really Wade's parents and daughter?!"

"These two things seem to have their own reasons. If you take out any of them, you can stand up..."

At this moment, Don Albertt continued to scold, "Caroline Wells, we have already investigated what you did. We also know the purpose of your visit to Elaine Ma this time. Don't you just want to give you that? Do the three women who have been sentenced to life imprisonment take revenge? You want Elaine Ma's family to ruin, right?"

As soon as Elaine Ma heard this, she suddenly thought of the three women who made trouble for her and wanted to kill her when she was in prison!

One of them was a middle-aged woman with a scar on her face. The woman said at the time that they were arrested because of Elaine Ma...

Thinking of this, Elaine Ma's balance has already tilted!

She began to feel that Cynthia should be a liar more likely!

At this moment, Cynthia was already stunned: "What are you talking about!

I am not Caroline Wells at all! I am Cynthia Wade!"

Don Albertt sneered: "Still pretending? It seems that you scammers are very involved in the drama. Sometimes you forget who you are and brainwash yourself? Well, if this is the case, then I don't Leave room for you. We have already understood your plan ahead of time! You want to use a short promise to induce Elaine Ma to persuade her daughter to divorce Charlie Wade, right?!"

Cynthia blurted out: "What the hell are you talking about?! The check I wrote to her is real!!! It's a real check not a fake replacement!!!"

A smile was wiped at the corner of Don Albertt's mouth, but Cynthia couldn't see it under the cover of the black mask.

Charlie Wade had long guessed that his aunt would definitely use the money to smash Elaine Ma, so he deliberately let Don Albertt pour dirty water on Cynthia.

Elaine Ma has been in jail. Fake checks and bank cards will definitely make her extremely sensitive.

Charlie Wade's guess of Elaine Ma was really thorough!

As soon as Elaine Ma heard this, he immediately blurted out: "Comrade Interpol, she gave me a fake check for 100 million Dollar!"

Don Albertt nodded and said coldly: "Her intention is to induce you to disturb your daughter's marriage first, and then ask you to go to the bank with a fake check to exchange it. Then the bank will definitely call the police. You will definitely be sent back to prison for fraud."

After that, Don Albertt paused and said, "It's just that you were let out by chance last time. If you go in again this time, you will not be so lucky. It is very likely that you will be the same as her three women. Sentenced to life imprisonment!"

When Elaine Ma heard this, she felt a chill in her back! I screamed in my heart: "My god! Fortunately, my mother has learned the skills. When I saw Caroline, this stinky lady giving her a check, she guessed that she must be a liar to the Lady. Sure enough! My mother is really stupid. I'm afraid I'll be imprisoned in a blink of an eye!"

Chapter 1917

The many key points mentioned by Don Albertt quickly convinced Elaine Ma of his words.

Now thinking of the three wicked women she met in the prison, she still had lingering fears, as if she had become a psychological shadow of her.

Don Albertt looked at her at this time and said seriously: "Ms. Elaine Ma, this time you did not believe in the tricks of this scammer and did not get deceived. This is indeed a very big improvement. Otherwise, once you are sentenced to life, you In this life, they will become human sandbags of Caroline Well's three subordinates..."

When Elaine Ma heard this, she couldn't help but be shocked!

"My mother! This is too damn dangerous! Fortunately, my Lady is strong and vigilant, otherwise, if she is actually trapped in prison, wouldn't it be the three stinky ladies who will be blasted for decades? ?!" Don Albertt turned his face, looked at Cynthia again, and said coldly: "Caroline Wells, now there are Interpol from more than 20 countries applying for extradition for your return to China for investigation. You can be said to be the biggest fraudster in human history! We will stay overnight! Send you back to the Interpol headquarters in Vienna for trial. Which country will extradite you back to your country for trial will depend on which country you committed the highest amount of crime!" Cynthia's entire will and spirit at this time has almost completely collapsed!

She felt as if she had suddenly fallen into a magical world, in this world, nobody believed anything she said..

Moreover, in this magical world, she was confused by the name Caroline Wells.

Moreover, she became a transnational scammer! Still the biggest scammer in human history! This is just nonsense!

Cynthia suddenly felt that there seemed to be a huge conspiracy behind the incident, so he shouted: "I now doubt your identity, whether it is Interpol! Show me your relevant documents!"

Don Albertt sneered: "Why? I found that I couldn't escape with my wings, so I wanted to take a bite back? I tell you Caroline Wells, this time you can't have any chance to escape!"

Having said that, he immediately ordered several people around him:

"Handcuff her and get on the helicopter!"

"Yes!"

Several people in black immediately rushed forward, handcuffed Cynthia's hands behind her back with handcuffs, and walked outside holding her.

Don Albertt said coldly: "Caroline Wells is a serious offender, wear a black hood for her!"

"it is good!"

One of the people in black immediately used a black cloth cover to directly cover Cynthia's head.

Elaine Ma, who was paralyzed on the ground because of a broken leg, blurted out and shouted: "Comrade Interpol, you must sentence her to death! Don't let this stinky lady come out to harm others!"

Don Albertt said lightly: "Don't worry, we will definitely get a fair trial!"

After finishing speaking, he shouted to the other subordinates: "Take this guy with the surname Webb away. We highly suspect that he is involved in cross-border money laundering. We wanted to arrest him a long time ago, but we didn't expect to meet him here!"

Donald said in a panic: "When did I become a suspect of cross-border money laundering?! I have been doing business on my duty, and I have never committed any illegal or criminal activities!"

Don Albertt slapped it directly, "f*ck me with slaps?! Don't you know how many nasty things your brother-in-law has done over the years?"

Donald blurted out, "My brother-in-law did that. What does it have to do with me?"

Chapter 1918

Don Albertt slapped his face again, and cursed: "If you didn't support him behind his back, how could he have done so many detrimental things?"

Do you think you can be exempted without doing it directly? Don't forget. The commanders of those invaders are all Class A war criminals!"

Donald blurted out: "But then I didn't launder money across borders either!"

Don Albertt sneered: "Whether it is washed or not, you know it yourself, and we know it too! When the time comes, all the evidence will be in front of you, depending on how hard your mouth is!"

After finishing speaking, he waved to the people around him: "Take this guy away for me!"

The person Don Albertt hates most in his life is Donald Webb.

He stared at Donald and cursed in his heart: "Donald, this old dog, sent Mr. Jones and others to Heaven Springs and almost killed me! Had Master Wade arrived in time and rewarded me with a rejuvenation pill, I might be early I have already reported to the Lord, this time you fell into my hands, see if I f*cking kill you!"

Seeing that Donald was also taken out, Elaine Ma hurriedly pointed at Christopher and Harold who were like dead dogs on the ground, and asked Don Albertt: "Comrade Interpol, the two of them intend to kidnap me, what should I do?"

Don Albertt said indifferently: "This... we are the Interpol after all. We are affiliated with the Interpol headquarters in Vienna. We mainly catch transnational crimes. Local criminals like them should be handed over directly to the local brothers. !"

Elaine Ma nodded repeatedly and echoed: "That's OK! Sent them to life imprisonment!"

Don Albertt nodded and said, "Don't worry about this. In this way, I will arrange someone to take you to the hospital, and then you will inform your family members. We will notify the local brothers of these two people, so you don't have to worry about it."

Elaine Ma burst into tears and cried, "Comrade Interpol, please send me to the hospital. My leg broke again in just a few days. Hey... God, why am I doing this? My fate is hard for me..."

Don Albertt greeted the people around him and said, "You, drive Ms. Elaine Ma to the hospital."

"Good Captain!"

Later, Elaine Ma was helped out of the warehouse by two people.

As soon as she left the warehouse, she was stunned by the sight in front of her!

In the open space at the entrance of the warehouse, three helicopters and a dozen black cars were parked.

She couldn't help sighing in her heart: "My boy! This Interpol is amazing! There are several helicopters! Fortunately there is Interpol today. Otherwise, wouldn't she be killed by Caroline Wells and Donald Webb?!"

Thinking of this, she cursed in her heart: "That Donald is a damn idiot! What a billionaire boss, you can't even see the identity of a fraudster like Caroline, and a mouthful of Ms. Wade shouted. That's an intimacy! It's so stupid!"

Afterwards, Elaine Ma was taken into a Rolls-Royce car, and the driver drove away quickly from the scene to Aurouss Hill People's Hospital. At this moment, Cynthia was sitting on the helicopter nervously. With a black cloth bag on her head, she couldn't see the surrounding environment at all, so she was extremely nervous.

At this time, she felt that her headgear was suddenly taken off, and she was terrified.

But when he took a closer look, he realized that the person sitting in front of her was her nephew, Charlie Wade!

At this moment, Cynthia finally knew that these Interpol were fakes at all, and they must all belong to Charlie Wade!

Caroline Wells and transnational scammers are nothing but his own playbook!

Realizing that Charlie Wade had been playing tricks on her, she suddenly sternly scolded: "Charlie Wade! Are you f*cking crazy?! I'm your aunt, you even dare to play with me?!"

Chapter 1919

Facing the furious Cynthia, Charlie Wade just smiled indifferently, and asked her: "Big New Year, don't you stay in Eastcliff to prepare for the New Year, go to Aurouss Hilll to find my trouble, persuade my mother-in-law, and make my wife to divorce me. You can do all kinds of mischievous things, can't I play you around yet?"

Cynthia's expression flashed a bit awkward, and then he gritted his teeth and said: "I'm all for your own good! Look at your wife. How can she be worthy of you?"

Charlie Wade said in a cold tone: "Can my wife be worthy of me? I don't need you to point fingers here. Today's matter is just a small lesson for you. If you know you, please go back to Eastcliff as soon as possible. Otherwise, I will have you left in Aurouss Hilll for the New Year."

Cynthia was immediately furious!

She struggled to get up, but was pushed back by the man in black next to her, she could only gritted her teeth and shouted: "Charlie Wade! Do you dare to threaten me?!"

Charlie Wade nodded and said blankly, "Now it's just threatening you. If you really annoy me, I might be going to hit you."

"Dare you!" Cynthia gritted his teeth and said, "If you dare to move me, I will fight you!"

Charlie Wade snorted and said, "Even my subordinates can slap you. Why don't I dare? The reason why I don't want to hit you is because I don't want to dirty my hands."

Cynthia yelled like a ghost: "The man who moved me, I will kill him sooner or later! And your mother-in-law! That shrew dared to beat me too! I will definitely want her to be broken into pieces!"

Charlie Wade frowned slightly, and raised his eyebrows and said, "What? You're still so arrogant, right? Okay, then you don't want to go back. Let's celebrate the New Year in Aurouss Hilll!"

Cynthia asked: "Do you want to detain me?!"

"Yes." Charlie Wade nodded: "You use the word very well, just to detain you!"

Cynthia was mad and shouted: "I'll give you the courage!"

Charlie Wade said calmly: "I don't need you to give it, I have already decided, are you not convinced? Okay, when will you be convinced, and when will you leave!"

Cynthia yelled hysterically: "Charlie Wade! I'm your elder anyway! It's your aunt! You can't be so presumptuous to me!"

"Elders?" Charlie Wade asked coldly: "You keep saying that it's my elders and my aunts. Then I ask you, where were you when I was in the orphanage?"

Cynthia was speechless.

Charlie Wade asked again: "Let me ask you again, when I was an adult, where were you when I was working on a construction site?"

Cynthia was still speechless.

Charlie Wade asked again: "Also, when I got married, where was my aunt?"

Cynthia's expression was dark, and she wanted to refute him, but she didn't know where to start.

Charlie Wade said at this time: "You, aunt, never cared about me or helped me. After all, life is like this. People have to learn to rely on themselves, but you Not only didn't help me, but also came to provoke the relationship between me and my wife. What is your intention?!"

"I...I..." Cynthia quibbled, "I asked that Claire Wilson Wilson would divorce you for your own good! That kind of woman doesn't deserve you!"

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Then I will leave you in Aurouss Hilll to sharpen your temper, and the same is for your good. After all, if your personality is not restrained, you still don't know what you will make in the future. Catastrophe, maybe your own life will be lost by you!"

Cynthia gritted his teeth and said: "Dare you! Give me a cell phone, I want to call your grandpa!"

Charlie Wade handed her the phone indifferently, and said, "Come on, use my phone, call it now!"

After finishing speaking, he said to the black clothed person beside her: "Unlock her handcuffs."

The man in black immediately followed suit.

After Cynthia regained his freedom with both hands, he immediately grabbed the phone from Charlie Wade, found a number to enter, and pressed dial.

After a few prompts on the phone, an old but very thick voice came:

"Hello, who?"

Cynthia heard the old man's voice and cried and said, "Dad, it's me, dad!"

Chapter 1920

"Cynthia?!" Lord Wade, the old man on the other end of the phone, blurted out: "How are you?! Have you encountered any danger?!"

Cynthia cried and said, "I was detained by Charlie Wade, and he said he wouldn't let me go back to Eastcliff for the New Year! Dad, this guy has no respect, and is arrogant. You have to help me out!"

Lord Wade said in surprise: "What's the matter?! Why did you have a conflict with Charlie Wade?"

Charlie Wade took the phone directly at this time, and said coldly: "She deceived me, found my mother-in-law, and asked my mother-in-law to persuade my wife to divorce me. Is this the Wade family's style of doing things?"

Lord Wade was startled, hesitated for a moment before sighing: "Charlie Wade, she is your aunt after all."

Charlie Wade asked back: "What's the matter? What right does she have to interfere with my freedom of marriage? Don't say she doesn't have this right, even you don't have this right!"

Lord Wade said with emotion: "Hey...you are right, she really shouldn't do this, I apologize to you for her, you can let her come back..."

Charlie Wade said coldly: "I said I will leave her in Aurouss Hilll for the New Year, and I will let her go back after the New Year, but before the New Year, no one wants her to leave Aurouss Hillll! Nor is the king of heaven!"

Lord Wade on the other end of the phone hesitated for a moment, and said helplessly: "All right, it's up to you!"

When these words came out, Cynthia looked desperate, and blurted out and pleaded: "Dad! I want to go back to Eastcliff to accompany you to celebrate the New Year, Dad!"

Lord Wade said earnestly: "Cynthia, your character is really too hot, take advantage of this lesson, take advantage of your temper, don't be 50 years old, and make trouble like young people all day long!"

"I..." Cynthia suddenly blocked up and didn't know what to say.

Lord Wade said again: "Charlie Wade, come home if you have time, grandpa is very..."

Before Lord Wade finished saying the words, Charlie Wade directly hung up the phone.

He has no relationship with Lord Wade, not to mention that he is more or less responsible for the death of his parents, so Charlie Wade is even more impatient with him.

As soon as the phone hung up, Cynthia choked up and asked: "Charlie Wade! Let me celebrate the New Year in Aurouss Hilll. I want to spend the New Year alone in the Presidential Suite in Shangri-La!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Shangri-La's presidential suite? I think you also want to be blinded. I will rent you a house in the village in the city and let you live there for a week."

"What?!" Cynthia collapsed and said: "You...you asked me to live in the village in the city?! You are so cruel!"

Charlie Wade sneered, and suddenly remembered that it was the Chinese New Year. Sam who came to Aurouss Hilll on a bicycle didn't know where he went?

So he directly called Loreen.

As soon as the phone call, Loreen asked happily, "Charlie Wade, why did you think of calling me?"

Charlie Wade asked her: "Loreen, where is your cousin Sam?"

Loreen said: "He told me this morning that he was about to cross the Yangtze River, and he might be able to reach Aurouss Hilll tonight."

Charlie Wade frowned: "Why is it so slow?"

Loreen said helplessly: "He had a small accident on the bike and injured his arm, so he slowed down."

Charlie Wade asked again: "Have you found a house for him in the village in the city?"

Loreen said: "I've found it, according to your request, 500 Dollar a month."

Charlie Wade gave a hum, and said, "Okay, I will check it out tomorrow." Hanging up the phone, at this moment, Don Albertt came over with Donald, who was wearing a black cloth cover.

Charlie Wade said to him immediately: "Arrange for someone to go to the village in the city, rent me the worst single room, arrange for Ms. Wade to stay there for seven nights, and she will not be allowed to go out for these seven days. She buys it, whether it is ingredients or daily necessities, only the most common ones are allowed, understand?"

Don Albertt nodded immediately and said, "Good Master Wade, I will arrange this!"

Chapter 1921

Cynthia was already furious.

She gritted her teeth and shouted: "Charlie Wade! Don't think that I, Cynthia, is muddled. In the Wade family, my status is much higher than you! You better respect me!"

Charlie Wade ignored her, but pointed to Don Albertt and pointed to the empty seat beside Cynthia.

Don Albertt understood, and immediately escorted Donald to Cynthia's side.

Afterwards, Charlie Wade stretched out his hand, took off Donald's headgear, and smiled slightly when he looked at him: "Hello, Mr. Webb, we meet again."

"Wade... Charlie Wade?!"

At this moment, Donald's whole person seemed to be split back and forth by thunder from the outside to the inside!

He couldn't imagine that Charlie Wade would actually appear in front of him!

Could it be...

Is it that he is behind all this today? !

How could he have so much energy? !

Seeing his horrified expression, Charlie Wade said with a smile: "Mr. Webb, it's been a long time, but let me introduce you to the b*tch next to you first."

Cynthia stared at Charlie Wade with splitting eyes, gritted his teeth and said: "Charlie Wade! Don't go too far!"

Charlie Wade ignored her and continued to say to Donald: "This shrew's real name is not Caroline Wells, but Cynthia Wade. She is the eldest daughter of Eastcliff's Wade family, and also my father's sister and my aunt."

"What?!" Donald seemed to explode a nuclear bomb in his heart!

His scared voice trembled and said, "You...oh no...you! Are you really...you are really the Wade family?!"

Charlie Wade smiled: "I am indeed the Wade family, but it's nothing great."

Donald shivered in a cold sweat and said, "Master Wade...you...why didn't you just say your identity! If you know that you are Master Wade Family, you will definitely be the only one looking forward to it. , Even if you give me 10,000 courage, I dare not fight against you!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Donald, don't be so scared, look at you, your face is pale. This Wade family, it's not as scary as you think,"

With that, he pointed to Cynthia beside him, and said, "Look, isn't Lord Wade's daughter tied up by you?"

Donald was frightened and waved his hand again and again and said,

"Master Wade, you must not say that! This matter is entirely a matter of Christopher and Harold's two bastards, and they told me that they were tying Elaine Ma. They didn't say that it was tied to Ms. Wade. After I came, I realized that they were so courageous and tied Ms. Wade too!"

Charlie Wade pointed at Cynthia and asked Donald: "Did you beat her just now?"

Donald looked like a dead father, choked up and said: "I was wrong...I really didn't know the true identity of Ms. Wade..."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Miss Wade Family, is it fun?"

Donald shook his head like a rattle.

Cynthia on the side looked so ugly.

Donald was frightened, and choked, "Master Wade, I really don't know the identity of you and Ms. Wade. Otherwise, how can I dare to think of you two badly..."

Charlie Wade looked at Donald at this time and asked, "Mr. Webb, have you ever thought about what will happen to the Webb family after today?"

When Donald heard this, his whole body trembled violently.

Chapter 1922

How can he not know the next fate of the Webb family?

Cynthia would definitely fight with himself. And the Wade Family will definitely stand up for her.

The Webb family in its heyday was not enough to look at in front of the Wade family, not to mention the current Webb family, whose strength was mostly defeated by Charlie Wade. At this time, in front of the Wade family, even an ant was not counted... ..

Donald even felt that the Wade family might destroy his tortured family... Thinking of this, he immediately choked up and pleaded: "Master Wade and Ms. Wade, I didn't know anything and accidentally offended you. Please forgive me, you both..."

Cynthia was hating Charlie Wade into her bones, but she didn't dare to be too angry, so she directly directed all the anger at Donald, gritted her teeth and cursed: "The surname is Webb, today, I, Cynthia, will definitely not I will spare you! Wait, I will let you die without a place to bury you!"

Donald almost collapsed when he heard this.

Damaged family reputation and shrinking assets are acceptable.

However, if the Wade Family really wants to smash themselves to the end, how can they be able to handle it...

If the family is really ruined at that time, it will be all over!

Thinking of this, he immediately looked at Charlie Wade with red eyes, and pleaded crying: "Master Wade, please help me. This time is really a misunderstanding. If the Wade family can forgive me, I would like to confess all of my business 20% of the shares are given away! I only ask you and Ms. Wade to raise your hands!"

Cynthia gritted his teeth and said: "Don't say your 20% shares, even if it is 50% or 100%? In my eyes, it's not even a fart!"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "Don't, even a fart is not counted in your eyes, it's pretty much in my eyes."

After he finished speaking, he immediately said to Donald: "Mr. Webb, you not only kidnapped my mother-in-law, but also my aunt. I am really a double victim of your incident today. Let's adjust the 20% to 40%, in the future, follow my orders and I promise that the Wade family will not trouble you."

When Donald heard this, his heart was joyful and sad.

The good news is that now that Charlie Wade has proposed a solution, he and the Webb family still have a chance to live.

Sadly, Charlie Wade showed that he was cutting his own meat with a knife, and 40% of the shares was almost equivalent to cutting the entire Webb family.

Cynthia was reluctant at this time. She has suffered too many grievances and disasters today. And she couldn't do anything to Charlie Wade, so the only object of catharsis was Donald.

If Charlie Wade blocked Donald's catharsis, wouldn't she have to find the father and son who kidnapped her? !

However, those are just two little guys, what can you do even if you kill their whole family?

Thinking of this, she yelled angrily: "Charlie Wade! Whether to trouble him or not, it is not you who have the final say, but I have the final say! It is your grandfather who has the final say!"

Charlie Wade said lightly: "I have already given Donald a solution for this matter. As long as he agrees, it will be useless for any of you to object."

With that, Charlie Wade looked at Cynthia, his voice suddenly increased by an octave, and he said coldly: "Also! Don't you think that I have not been in the Wade family for so many years, so you can let your Wade family at the mercy of you, let alone take me. When the marriage partner asks me to go back to help the Wade Family cling to other powerful and powerful people, I will never give the Wade Family this opportunity!"

"So, if you dare to calculate me behind your back next time, don't blame me for disregarding my blood! Whether it is you or the other people in the Wade family, I will not let it go!"

Cynthia was frightened by Charlie Wade's eyes and tone, but he roared incomparably: "Charlie Wade! Do you think you have the ability to challenge the Wade family now? Your Emgrand Group, your 10 billion cash, no Is it all given by the Wade Family?! The Wade Family can hold you up and step on you! If there is no Wade Family, you are just a stinky hanging silk without any foundation! With the strength of the Wade Family, you can be destroyed. Destroying Donald is ten times, a hundred times easier!"

Charlie Wade looked at her hysterical, raised his eyebrows, and asked playfully: "Oh? Really?"

Chapter 1923

Cynthia's self-esteem was deeply stung by Charlie Wade's playful eyes! She gritted her teeth and shouted: "Of course! Do you think I was joking with you?! If you continue to be so ignorant of praise, toasting and not eating fine wine, I promise you will be finished sooner or later! Not only you are finished, your wife, and your mother-in-law, and all the people around you are going to die!"

Speaking of this, Cynthia has also completely exploded. She shouted hoarsely like a shrew: "I tell you, your parents were lucky back then, and they can return to Eastcliff's grave if you die! If you die in the future, you don't even have the qualifications to enter the Wade Family Ancestor's grave!"

Charlie Wade's expression suddenly became extremely gloomy.

He looked at Cynthia and said lightly: "You are my father's biological sister, so I can't beat you."

Cynthia sneered and said, "Do you still know that I am your father's sister?! Don't you hurry up and respectfully treat me..."

Before Cynthia finished speaking, Charlie Wade immediately said to Don Albertt: "Don Albertt! You have no blood relationship with her, give me her mouth!"

Don Albertt immediately said loudly: "Yeah, Master Wade!"

After that, he immediately rushed over and grabbed Cynthia by the collar. Cynthia was taken aback and threatened: "Do you dare to hit me, I will definitely kill you in the future!"

Don Albertt slapped the face and slapped Cynthia's two posterior teeth.

He said coldly, "Master Wade gave me my life. Even if Master Wade asks me to kill the king, I will never Blink, not to mention you uneducated vixen!"

After all, it was another slap in the face.

Don Albertt had long been so angry with Cynthia's attitude towards Charlie Wade, he finally waited until Charlie Wade agreed, naturally he was merciless.

Cynthia was stunned by these two slaps. she was angry and angry, and shouted like crazy: "You will all die! All of you will die!!!"

Charlie Wade looked at her and said coldly:

"If you have investigated me carefully, you should know why I was revered as Master Wade in Aurouss Hilll!"

"If you have investigated me seriously, then you should also know why the Eight Heavenly Kings sent by Donald were completely wiped out by me under Golim Mountain!"

Having said that, Charlie Wade smiled and continued:

"If you have investigated me seriously, you should know that I just went to Japan a few days ago. As for the things that happened in Japan some time ago, I think you should know it!"

Cynthia's complexion continued to change dramatically, becoming more and more frightened and paler!

Charlie Wade stared at her, and then asked, "Don't you want me to go back and marry Stefanie Sun? Then you didn't think about it. My father's best friend Orrin was already dying. Why could he suddenly become alive and well? Is there really any medical miracle?"

After speaking, Charlie Wade pointed to Don Albertt and continued to question: "At the beginning, Don Albertt was in Heaven Springs and was almost killed by Donald's men. With the last breath, how did he come alive? Do you know?"

Cynthia's expression is as pale as paper!

At this time, Charlie Wade didn't conceal his aura, he filled his whole body with reiki, and shouted very aggressively: "If you haven't thought about these problems before, then please use your mind now and think about it. Think about it! After thinking it through, come tell me again, between the two of us, it wasn't you who could kill me, it was I who could kill you!"

Cynthia was immediately stunned by the momentum on Charlie Wade and what he had said!

The Wade family did investigate many things about Charlie Wade in Aurouss Hilll.

However, many clues obtained are not sufficient.

For example, they know that Charlie Wade seems to be very strong, but they have not had a clear understanding of how strong it is.

They also knew about Donald's Guards' death at the foot of Golim Mountain, but they didn't know who did it.

And Orrin!

Chapter 1924

Orrin, who was in the late stage of pancreatic cancer, suddenly recovered his health, and it seemed like a decade back in time. The entire upper class of Eastcliff was eager to know the reason, and wanted to know what kind of chance Orrin encountered. Raw.

However, everyone investigated for a while, and no one got any effective information.

Now, when Charlie Wade said this suddenly, Cynthia asked in horror:

"These things have something to do with you?!"

Charlie Wade snorted coldly: "What does it mean to have something to do with me? These things are all done by me, Charlie Wade Wade!"

At this time, even Donald was shocked with nothing to add.

The death of the Eight Great Heavenly Kings caused the Webb family to suffer a great loss, but they still don't know how the Eight Great Heavenly Kings died.

Now, he finally understood.

It turned out that the eight heavenly kings were all dead in Charlie Wade's hands!

He couldn't help but deepen his soul torture himself: "How powerful is this Charlie Wade?!"

Cynthia was also shocked.

Donald couldn't know what Charlie Wade said, what happened in Japan some time ago, but Cynthia knew it!

The three major families in Japan reshuffled almost overnight. One was wiped out, and the other half was wiped out. Only one Ito family remained. The patriarch Ito Yuhiko also lost his legs.

Behind this, there is an extremely powerful master who killed countless ninjas and even saved Zara and Fitz brothers and sisters. Could it be... Charlie Wade? !

Charlie Wade pointed to Donald and asked Cynthia, "Do you know that Donald has a son named Kian, who was in Aurouss Hilll some time ago. He must eat shit every hour like a demon?"

Donald's expression instantly became extremely pale!

And Cynthia was also shocked!

Although the Webb family is far from being famous in Eastcliff.

However, Kian, the second son of Donald, is very famous in Eastcliff.

Mainly because of that time, the short video platform has been pushing Kian's related videos. The whole country knows. At that time, the top masters of several major families all analyzed this matter and believed that Kian must be a master who can endure the sky, and made a very strong psychological suggestion.

Cynthia asked himself inwardly: "Could it be that Charlie Wade did that too?!"

Donald had also collapsed at this time!

He suppressed his anger, choked and said, "Master Wade! My youngest son has always been sensible! He just studied in Aurouss Hilll peacefully and did not do any bad things. Why did you harm him so far!!!"

Charlie Wade glanced at Donald, slapped his face severely, and angrily reprimanded: "Your bastard son, takes pleasure in playing with and ruining girls!"

"If you have enough play, the girls don't stop, but they have to use the scumbag's psychological hints to brainwash and force each other to commit suicide!"

"This kind of animal behavior, everyone can be punishable!"

"Now you are licking your face to tell me that your son who is not as good as a beast has always been sensible and has not done any bad things?!"

"Who gave you the courage?!"

Chapter 1925

Donald was reprimanded by Charlie Wade, and he dared not look up. He naturally knew these things about Kian. But he originally thought that it was all between his son and other girls. Even if he did harm a few girls, after all, he did not harm Charlie Wade and the people around Charlie Wade. Why did Charlie Wade hurt him?

However, seeing Charlie Wade so furious at the moment, he realized that the sense of justice in Charlie Wade's heart was far beyond his imagination!

Charlie Wade stared at Donald at this time, and said coldly: "Donald, my aunt wanted to kill you, but I didn't expect you to be so irreconcilable! In this case, I am also 40% of you. No, let the Wade Family dispose of you at will in the future!"

Donald burst into tears suddenly!

He was still carrying his hands behind his back, but he immediately leaned forward and knelt on the ground. While kowtow heavily, he cried and begged, "Master Wade, I was wrong! I know I was wrong! My son is indeed guilty of death, you Being able to spare him a dog's life is already a great kindness. It is because there is no eye and no way to discipline him. Please be merciful and forgive me once..."

Charlie Wade said coldly: "You have no way to discipline, more than this one!"

Having said that, Charlie Wade asked again: "Your brother-in-law Marcone has committed countless crimes! You, as the head of the first family in Southavem, Marcone committed these things by pulling your banner. It all happened under your nose. You know in your heart, why don't you stop? Why don't you stop?! If you lead him to the right path earlier, he won't poison so many people, and I won't let him sink in the river!"

Donald was shocked! At this time, he immediately realized that Charlie Wade did the thing that the original brother-in-law Marcone and the entire top of the Beggar Gang were destroyed...

So Donald didn't care about the shock, and cried, "I'm sorry, Master Wade! I do have an inescapable responsibility for this matter...I knew he was doing these things at first, so I wanted to stop it, but My wife cried and hanged up with me three times, my heart softened, just thinking, anyway, I don't participate in it myself, so he can do whatever he wants... I never expected it, because of this, Just committed a terrible mistake..."

Charlie Wade gritted his teeth and said: "You did commit a terrible mistake! How many children and families Marcone destroyed? Part of each of these debts is recorded on your Donald! With your crimes Look, even if I kill you now, the Nine Heavens Gods will make atonement for what you have done in your next life and the next life! Let your ninth reincarnation suffer all the suffering in the world!"

Donald's crying nose and tears flowed, and his voice trembled: "Master Wade, I really know what I was wrong! Please give me a chance to correct evil. I am willing to hand over 60% of the Webb family's assets. I have a chance to take the lead, the Webb family will do everything to you from today!"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "It's not just about money anymore. If you really want to correct the evil, I can give you a chance, depending on whether you can accept it."

When Donald heard this, he squatted his head and said, "Master Wade, please tell me! I will do my best to seize this opportunity!"

Charlie Wade said coldly: "Change 40% of your family assets to Don Albertt, and Don Albertt will hold it in the future, and another 20% will be used for charity to make up for the evil your brother-in-law Marccone has done over the years!"

Don Albertt blurted out: "Master Wade, how can this be done... You gave Don Albertt this old life, and if you want to give these assets, you are also given to you... How can you give me... .."

Charlie Wade said lightly: "If Mr. Webb agrees to this solution, you will take 40% first."

Donald dared to say nothing, and nodded hurriedly: "You can rest assured, Master Wade, I will do this today!"

Charlie Wade said again: "Donald, from today, you are Don Albertt's person. If Don Albertt asks you to go east, you must go east. The direction is half-way off. I want your Webb family to completely disappear in the south of the Yangtze River."

Donald didn't dare to say half a word, nodded hurriedly and said, "You can rest assured, Master Wade, you will be the master in the future..."

Charlie Wade said to Don Albertt: "Don Albertt, take care of him in the future, he dares to have any disobedience, tell me immediately!"

Don Albertt hurriedly said: "Master Wade, don't worry, Don Albertt knows! As for Donald's shares, Don Albertt will hold it for you temporarily!"

Charlie Wade nodded slightly.

Immediately, he looked at Cynthia, whose cheek was swollen by Don Albertt, and said lightly: "Auntie, since you am here, you will stay in Aurouss Hilll for a week and wait until the New Year to go back. But I have been busy recently. I'm not going to visit, I wish you a Happy New Year in advance."

Chapter 1926

Having said that, Charlie Wade became serious and warned: "This is the end of today's business. If you let me know that you dare to do any small actions behind my back, then don't blame me for being rude to you!" Cynthia stared at Charlie Wade and wanted to say something to support the scene, but when the words came to her lips, she couldn't say it all at once.

She found that Charlie Wade's character was too similar to his father, that is, her second brother Bruce.

Why was Bruce so famous back then? He looks like a weak scholar, but he can stand in front of the army. As long as it is what he decides to do, he has never given up and failed. Even if the whole world stands in front of him, he has to blaze a trail.

Therefore, there was a saying in the upper class society of Eastcliff: Wade family has a son, you can't tie a Tiger!

Mention Bruce, even his opponent would give him a thumb in my heart. At that time, he was the most dazzling new star of the Wade family.

Now, Cynthia realized that she had actually seen the aura on Charlie Wade's body. Therefore, at this moment, deep in her heart, she felt a little awe of Charlie Wade. It was also at this moment that she knew that she could no longer offend this nephew who hadn't seen her for many years, otherwise, she really didn't know if he would really kill off his relatives.

So, she could only smash her teeth and swallow in her belly. After a long while, she was aggrieved and said: "Charlie Wade, I will listen to you about this matter today. I will not pursue your mother-in-law or Donald. ..."

Having said this, she almost begged: "But, you can no longer protect the father and son who tied me up, right? Auntie has suffered so many crimes today, and you have to tell auntie... .."

After speaking, Cynthia thought of his series of tragic experiences today, her nose sour, and tears came down.

She was really miserable today.

I wanted to ask Elaine Ma to pretend to be a force, and bought her by the way, but he didn't expect to be hit by Elaine Ma.

Then Harold, Christopher and his son led them to this place;

Then Donald came again and beat her up. He almost shot her up with a single shot, causing her to pee on her pants...

She hadn't suffered any bitterness in her life, so she tasted the sufferings of the world today.

And what was even more annoying was that she had never fought with Elaine Ma before, and was slapped in the face by her. She wanted to kill her to relieve her anger, but she was Charlie Wade's mother-in-law, so she couldn't get revenge on her.

Donald now offers most of his family property and is willing to be Charlie Wade's running dog.

In this way, only the Wilson family father and son can retaliate...

Charlie Wade frowned when he heard this and asked Don Albertt, "What's the situation with Christopher and Harold now?"

Don Albertt said: "These two people were smashed with arms and legs by Donald's men. They have become useless. Master Wade will tell you what to do next with them!"

Chapter 1927

There is no doubt that Charlie Wade does not have a half-hearted relationship with Christopher and Harold and his son.

However, hearing that the two of them had their limbs broken, the anger in Charlie Wade's heart was mostly gone.

No one knows the Wilson family better than him.

Although each of them looks abominable, they are not even heinous villains.

Hannah used to pit Elaine Ma before. A large part of the reason was that when Elaine Ma was playing cards at a friend's house, he met Hannah and Christopher who came to see the house. Then they mocked them and made Hannah a lot. The mentality collapsed, and she wanted to cheat Elaine Ma's money.

Now Christopher and Harold kidnapped Elaine Ma and wanted to send her to the black brick kiln, also in order to repay the hatred of sending Hannah to the black coal kiln. To be honest, Elaine Ma is still blocking her guns to a certain extent.

In the final analysis, the Wilson family is really bad, but it has not yet reached the point where it must die.

Moreover, Charlie Wade really didn't like her aunt who was troublesome and indisputable. If she really let her kill Christopher and Harold to vent her anger, it would be cheaper for her. It would be better to let her keep holding on to this fire and have nowhere to vent. Grind her annoying character.

So Charlie Wade said: "What Christopher and Harold say are my wife's uncle and cousin, my brother and nephew, if you kill them, such a big funeral, our family Will the year pass?"

Cynthia hurriedly said: "Wait after the New Year to slaughter the two of them, right?!"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "My wife has a softer heart. If they really die, my wife will definitely be sad, so let them live."

When Cynthia heard this, she was anxious and uncomfortable, and blurted out: "They made me like this, you must let me out!"

Charlie Wade frowned and asked: "How do you calculate your breath? Both of them have lost their limbs. I'm afraid they can only lie in bed to eat and drink for a few months. Can't you breathe out?"

"I can't get out!" Cynthia said indignantly: "If I don't kill them, I won't be able to get out with such a bad breath!"

Charlie Wade shouted angrily: "If you can't get out, just hold on to me!!!"

The roar made Cynthia's liver tremble!

Charlie Wade glared at her fiercely, and asked in a cold voice: "It's obviously you who caused trouble first, and you will kill others at every turn. Who gives you the stinking troubles you are used to?!"

Cynthia's expression was very depressed, and she choked: "Your aunt, I grew up so old, and I have never suffered such a big loss today..."

Charlie Wade said coldly: "Then just let you have a taste today, and this is just the first dish, your character, if you don't change it, you will lose money in the future!"

After that, Charlie Wade waved his hand a little irritably: "I don't want to tell you so much nonsense. In short, this is the end of today, and I will never allow you to spread this matter in any direction! Otherwise, I Only you are asking! Did you understand?!"

Seeing that Charlie Wade's expression didn't mean joking with him, Cynthia couldn't help but play a little drum.

She realized this matter today, she was afraid that she would not be able to find her place.

Otherwise, with Charlie Wade's character, he would never spare himself.

So she could only say dejectedly: "Okay...I understand..."

Charlie Wade nodded and said to Don Albertt, "Don Albertt, quickly arrange a self-built house in the village in the city, and settle down my aunt, who has come from afar, so that people will keep an eye on her for 24 hours. Never leave the house for the next seven days. Half a step, as soon as seven days arrive, I will send her to the airport and let her go back!"

Don Albertt nodded immediately: "Master Wade don't worry, Don Albertt will do it right!"

Chapter 1928

Charlie Wade looked at Donald again: "Report everything to Don Albertt in the future, don't make any small actions, do you understand?"

Donald hurriedly squatted his head and said, "Charlie Wade, don't worry. From today onwards, I will follow your and Don Albertt's instructions..."

Charlie Wade said again: "By the way, Thompson First A06, did you buy it?"

Donald said awkwardly: "Yes, I bought it..."

Charlie Wade asked him, "You bought this villa for the Wilson family, did you come to make me sick?"

"Yes..." Donald said nervously, "Master Wade, this is my fault. Don't worry, I will take back the villa and let the Wilson family get out!"

"Don't!" Charlie Wade waved his hand and said: "It's so boring to get out. You are like this. First, stop all the businesses of the Wilson Group and withdraw all the investment you gave them. I still want them to return to the previous one. Although this species lives in Thompson First, it actually has nothing at all."

Donald said without hesitation: "Good Master Wade, I will make arrangements today!"

Charlie Wade nodded with satisfaction: "Okay, Don Albertt, you arrange my aunt, Donald will go and arrange the affairs of the Wilson Group. As for Christopher and Harold, don't turn around to the relevant departments, and go directly to the hospital. Go ahead."

The two hurriedly agreed to respectfully.

Cynthia's expression on the side was extremely ugly.

But ugly is ugly, she now dare not have any emotion of resistance.

Therefore, she could only say angrily: "Charlie Wade, look at you aunt, who was also injured and two teeth were lost. Or you can send me to the hospital first..."

Charlie Wade nodded: "It's okay to send to the hospital, but you should not make any wrong ideas, otherwise, it is not as simple as leaving you to live in Aurouss Hilll for a week. Maybe it will let you live in Aurouss Hilll for a year and a half."

Cynthia couldn't help but shudder when she heard this.

Charlie Wade arranged himself in the village in the city, basically the same as under house arrest. The environment there must be extremely bad, and it would be a great torment to stay for a day, and it would simply collapse for a week. If it is a year, it is really better to die.

Therefore, she can only honestly say: "Don't worry, since my aunt has said and listened to your instructions, she will never do anything else..."

Charlie Wade said to Don Albertt, "Then arrange for my aunt to go to the hospital for treatment first, and don't set the teeth in Aurouss Hilll. Let her go back to Eastcliff and do it again."

Don Albertt immediately agreed: "Good Master Wade!"

Immediately afterwards, Don Albertt asked Cynthia and Donald to be put in different vehicles, and then sent to the warehouse to take out the broken limbs of Christopher and Jacob Wilson.

At this time, the two of them were lying on the cold concrete floor and had completely collapsed. The father and son cried in the warehouse for a long time, and they almost dried up all their tears.

Harold felt so depressed and depressed in his heart, sobbing in his heart: "I originally wanted to teach Elaine Ma to please Donald, but he didn't expect that the Lady who was caught by them with Elaine Ma turned out to be a transnational fraud!"

"Besides, this scammer is so damn good to make up, he even made up a set of so-called rich master status for Charlie Wade...makes my dad and I believe it..."

"Even Donald believed the nonsense of that stinky lady!"

"Donald, you old dog, if you say you believe it, you can believe it, but there is no need to abolish our father and our father in order to please him! Our father and mother are both serving you, and you can't be so right no matter what. Us! What the hell is this!"

Chapter 1929

At this time, in Harold's heart, he had already regretted that his intestines were green.

Being beaten into a waste by Donald's men is actually not the worst, after all, it only takes a few months to recover after being injured.

The worst thing is that the International Criminal Police who came just now said that they would be handed over to the local authorities. If they were really handed over, the kidnapping charges of the father and son would definitely be inevitable.

This charge is a felony! Sentencing starts in ten years!

Thinking that he might stay in prison for ten years, Harold's emotions have completely collapsed.

When being lifted out by Don Albertt's men, Harold choked up with his nose and tears: "May I ask a few comrades of the Interpol...Could it be...Is it really going to send us? Are you going to jail... We... Our father was both instigated by others. The real man behind the scenes is Donald..."

Christopher also cried bitterly: "Although our father and son are wrong, we have already paid a painful price. Can you please raise your hands high and give our father and son a way of life..."

Harold turned around hard, looked at his father with red eyes, and cried out: "Dad...I don't want to go to jail, Dad..."

With tears on his face, Christopher choked and said, "When the time comes, I will push everything to Dad. I will say that everything is Dad's idea. You don't know anything. Try to make the judge lighter..."

When Harold heard this, he burst into tears.

The father and son cried and cried, and the scene suddenly became a little too noisy.

Don Albertt came over at this time and said coldly to the two of them:

"Don't f*cking cry! If you cry again, you will be sent to prison!"

As soon as Harold heard this, he asked incredulously: "Comrade Interpol, what do you mean...you don't send us to jail?"

Don Albertt said coldly: "Fortunately for you two, we must keep the arrest of Caroline absolutely confidential, so we cannot let people from other departments know about it for the time being. So today you kidnapped Elaine Ma and Caroline. Not communicated to local agencies!"

"Really?!" When Harold heard this, his whole body twitched with excitement.

However, because of the twitching, the severe pain in his limbs became more severe, so he kept wailing.

Although his mouth was screaming in pain, Harold's heart was extremely excited.

In any case, a prison sentence is finally saved!

.....

The Thompson First Villa at this moment.

Lady Wilson was lying on the sofa in the living room of Villa A06. While watching the time, she said to Wendy who was sitting on the other side:

"Why haven't your father and your brother figured it out yet? There has been no movement for so long."

Wendy said: "Maybe I can't take care of it. After all, there are quite a lot of things. Not only did they find someone to give Elaine Ma to that person, but also filmed the video and sent it to the black brick factory."

The Lady Wilson nodded gently, and said with a smirk: "This Elaine Ma, it's really drifting recently. It's always floating in the sky. It's really a bit ungrounded, so she should also experience it. What is civil suffering!"

Wendy smiled and said, "Yes, grandma, Elaine Ma, this b*tch woman, I hate her a long time ago, especially since she is so terrible this time, I can't wait to break her leg again!"

As she said, she said with a look of nostalgia: "It was interesting when I was in the cell. That Gena, the five big and three rough, could not wait to take Elaine Ma's feces out with a slap. Elaine Ma was really miserable at that time, think about it. I'm excited!"

Mrs. Wilson also nodded again and again, and said happily, "Oh! Gena, the rural lady, really has two strengths. That guy is as strong as a cow. To deal with Elaine Ma, one can beat her. Three are still turning around!"

Chapter 1930

Wendy sighed on the side: "It's a pity that Elaine Ma will be sent to the black brick kiln to burn bricks soon, and Gena hasn't come out yet. After she comes out, she may never see Elaine Ma again in this life."

"Who said no!" The Lady also sighed, "But it doesn't matter. When Elaine Ma arrives at the black brick kiln, there will be endless suffering waiting for her!"

At this time, Aurouss Hill Women's Detention Center.

Gena, who was in the air, suddenly sneezed.

Several entourages hurried over and asked diligently, "Sister Gena, what's wrong with you? Have you caught a cold?"

Gena rubbed his nose: "I don't know, maybe someone misses me."

The man next to him smiled and said: "Who would think of us like us prisoners who have no relatives and no cause!"

"Yes." The other person also echoed: "This will be the Chinese New Year right away, and no one in my family has ever visited me. It really makes me chill!"

After that, she looked at Gena and asked, "Sister Gena, how long can you release?"

Gena smacked and said, "Hey, it's still five or six months!"

"That's too soon, I'm still eight months away..."

"I'm still four months..."

"Hey, you can't spend the New Year at home this year, and it should be fine next year!"

Gena sighed: "My mother is gone, my husband also ran away with the vixen, and my brother's family is a tortoise bastard again. I don't even have a family member in this world..."

Having said this, Gena's eye circles suddenly reddened, and he choked up:

"Hey! Looking at the New Year, I couldn't burn some paper money for the Lady. I don't know how she lived there and whether she had enough money. it's cold today, I don't know if she and my dad have the money to celebrate the New Year..."

"Sister Gena, don't think about it. After you go out, there will be opportunities to burn paper for your parents!"

Gena nodded lightly, and couldn't help sighing: "Actually, I still miss that Lady. Seeing how she was bullied, I remember how pitiful my mother was when she was bullied by my sister-in-law when she was alive. Looks like, in this heart, there is a burst of pain..."

After speaking, she asked several other people, "You said, what is old Mrs. Wilson doing now? When she came in, she didn't even have a place to sleep. How is life now? Shouldn't she still wander in the street?"

As they were talking, the prison guard suddenly came over and said to a few of them: "Gena, Yadira, and Samantha, the three of you pack up and are ready to be released!"

The three of them were stunned!

Gena asked in surprise: "Preparing to be released from prison?! Isn't it time for me?"

The prison guard said: "Someone has already handled the bail pending trial for you. You can be released today!"

"Ah?!" Gena said in surprise: "I don't know anyone, who will help me get a bail pending trial?"

The prison guard said indifferently: "Your old acquaintance, Mrs. Wilson, asked someone to do it. She paid a lot of deposit for the three of you!" Gena was even more surprised and speechless. She opened her mouth wide and thought for a long time before she asked in disbelief, "Lady Wilson?! Isn't she miserable? Where can the money help us get the bail pending trial?!"

The prison guard laughed and said: "The Lady Wilson is amazing now. I heard that the family business has come back to life, and the family has also moved into the luxury villa of Thompson First. It is said that they are saved to let you go to Thompson First. Good day!"

Chapter 1931

When Gena and others heard this, they were all shocked and dumbfounded! At the same time, it is even more excited and ecstatic!

She asked, "Lady Wilson got her daughter-in-law's first-grade Thompson First villa?"

The prison guard said lightly: "She bought another set."

"I'm going to drop a mother!" Gena said dumbfounded: "A villa of more than 100 million Dollar, buy it if you want to buy it?"

The prison guard smiled and said: "Of course, they paid more than one million bail for the three of you just to get the bail pending trial. This is because you are worried about your kindness to her at the beginning, so I want to bail you out and pick you up. Go to Thompson First to live a fairy life!"

Gena's moved tears flowed, and as he wiped it, he choked with sobs: "Lady Wilson is about to catch up with my mother..."

The other two also looked excited, and one of them sighed with emotion: "Yes, you helped Sister Gena out of righteousness, and the Lady is also a person who knows gratitude. In the final analysis, this is the kindness that Sister Gena has planted!"

Gena's sense of justice immediately burst, and said solemnly: "Elaine Ma, that bastard, is so unfilial to her mother-in-law. I taught her that it is justified and obligatory! If she dares to bully Mrs. Wilson in the future, I will never forgive her.!"

The prison guard hurriedly reminded: "Gena! This is a rare opportunity to be released on bail. After you go out, you must make a good reform. You must never do any illegal or criminal things again! If you get caught in a fight again, not only The remaining sentence must be made up, and repeated offenders will be severely punished for repeated offenders!"

Gena blurted out: "Ah?! So serious?!"

"Of course!" The prison guard said very seriously: "You must be a good citizen who obeys the law, let alone fights with others, even if you litter or spit, you may be subject to administrative punishment!"

After that, the prison guard added: "After you go out, even if you have a criminal record, our law enforcement officers, as well as the community streets, will strictly watch your every move. If you are really messy, the law will definitely I won't forgive you!"

Gena's heart jumped in fright and hurriedly waved his hand: "Don't worry! After I go out, I will definitely change my mind and be a new woman!"

"It's almost the same!"

The prison guard nodded in satisfaction and said, "Also, you went to Mrs. Wilson's house and lived in the Thompson First Villa. It was the best house in Aourouss Hilll. The life there was also a fairy-like life, so you are more If you want to cherish it, or you can only go back here and sleep in hell again, understand?"

"Understood!"

Gena nodded as if pounding garlic, thinking about life in the Thompson First Villa in the future.

She was originally just a peasant woman, and her family's conditions have not been good. She had just saved some money a few years ago and repaired the old brick house with a history of more than 20 years. The living conditions are actually no better than the cell.

Her lifelong dream is to be able to move into the city and live in a two-bedroom house, but the housing prices in Aurouss Hillll are not cheap. She can afford it, so she can only think about it.

But now, she actually has the opportunity to live in the luxurious villa of Thompson First, which is simply a step from the bottom to the top!

The three were so excited that they almost cried.

At this time, the prison guard reminded: "Don't be eager to be happy, we still have a lot of procedures to go through, you guys cooperate, and you should be able to go out soon!"

"Good, good! We will definitely cooperate!"

.....

While Gena and others were going through the procedures for release on bail pending trial, Mrs. Wilson, who had been waiting at home for a long time, received a call from the hospital.

On the phone, the eager doctor came up and asked her: "Hello, are you the family of Christopher and Harold?"

Lady Wilson hummed: "I am, what's the matter?"

Chapter 1932

The other party hurriedly said: "Christopher and Harold are both seriously injured. They are now being treated in the emergency department of our Aurouss Hillll People's Hospital. Your family members should come over!"

"what?!"

Lady Wilson said in surprise, "The two of them were injured?! What is going on?!"

The other party said: "They have their limbs broken. Although they are not life-threatening, the injuries are still serious and they need human care. Come here!"

Lady Wilson panicked suddenly!

Wendy on the side asked: "Grandma, what's the matter?"

Mrs. Wilson said with a sad face: "The hospital called and said that your father and your brother were injured! They are in the hospital now! Let's go there!"

"Ah?!" Wendy stood up immediately in shock, and asked nervously, "Grandma, what's the matter? Didn't Dad and brother teach Elaine Ma the b*tch? Why are they injured and hospitalized?"

Lady Wilson said eagerly: "Oh! I don't know! Hurry up and get ready to go to the hospital!"

At this time, Hannah, who was preparing ingredients in the kitchen, heard the movement and walked out and asked, "Mom, what's the matter? What's the matter?"

Mrs. Wilson glared at her and shouted angrily: "You hurry up to change clothes and follow us to the hospital! Christopher and Harold are injured and hospitalized!"

"Ah?!" Hannah was also dumbfounded, and blurted out: "What's going on? This is... Elaine Ma still understands when he enters the hospital, why did they return to the hospital?"

Lady Wilson shouted sharply, "Why do you have so much nonsense? Hurry up and change your clothes and go help!"

How dare Hannah make a mistake, wiped her hands on her apron, and said in a hurry, "I'm going to change clothes..."

Three generations of women from the Wilson family hurried out and went straight to Aurouss Hilll People's Hospital.

At the same time, at the gate of the Aurouss Hilll Women's Detention Center, Gena, Yadira, and Samantha walked out of the iron gate by the high wall, holding their blankets and clothes.

As soon as he left the house, Gena immediately said to the two people around him: "Yadira and Samantha, they said, you must not look back after you come out, or you will have to come back sooner or later, you know?"

The other two nodded vigorously: "I know sister Gena!"

At this time, Yadira asked her: "Sister Gena, Mrs. Wilson has released us on bail, why don't you meet us?"

"That's right." Samantha also echoed: "Such a big thing is done, isn't it easy to arrange a car for me?"

Gena hurriedly said: "Don't think so! It is already a great blessing for people to save us and let us go to Thompson First to enjoy the blessings. How can we ask others to do everything! People, we must know how to be satisfied and be grateful. !"

The other two shrugged: "Well...Sister Gena, you are right, we will know later."

Gena said: "Let the three of us take a taxi to Thompson First. It's almost time for dinner now, maybe the Lady Wilson will hold a banquet at home and wait for us to pick up the dust!"

When the other two heard this, they were overjoyed and immediately said, "Then let's take a taxi and go there!"

At this moment, a Mercedes-Benz car stopped in front of the three of them. After the driver got out of the car, they asked the three of them:

"May I ask the three ladies, Gena, Yadira and Samantha?"

Gena nodded hurriedly: "It's us, who are you?"

The driver smiled and said, "I am the driver sent by Mrs. Wilson, who is here to pick you up to Thompson First! Please get in the car for three!"

Chapter 1933

After listening to the driver, Gena looked at this luxurious Mercedes-Benz car and said with excitement, "Lady Wilson is so kind to us! I have never been in a Mercedes-Benz car in my life!"

Yadira beside him couldn't help but sigh: "The best car I've ever ridden, or the police car driven by Comrade Police when I was arrested..."

Samantha nodded again and again: "Sister Yadira, I...the same is true for me!"

The driver heard their conversation and said with a smile: "Three, get in the car!"

"Good, good!" Gena reacted first, hurriedly opened the rear door and sat in.

The other two were also eager to squeeze in. The driver said hurriedly, "We only have two seats in the back row, so let one of the three take the co-pilot!"

Yadira was opening the rear door on the other side to get in. Samantha, who was a step slower, couldn't help but mumble: "That's a big car, there are only two seats in the back? The Santana, which was driven by comrades, is all in the back. Can sit three people!"

Gena said to her in the car, "You know what a shit, there are really only two seats in there, with a very large armrest in the middle, which feels like leather! Oh, it's really comfortable to put your arms on this. ! Yadira hurriedly sat in and said with a smile, "Really? Let me touch and feel it too!"

Samantha looked at the spacious and luxurious rear seats and the huge armrest box with LCD screen and control knobs, and said with envy: "I want to feel it too..."

Yadira waved her hand at her: "Oh, you will feel it next time! Sit ahead quickly, the Lady Wilson is still waiting for us!"

Samantha had no choice but to go to the co-pilot quietly.

In fact, this Mercedes-Benz is not luxurious, but it is a Mercedes-Benz S-Class with a price of less than one-fifth of Rolls-Royce.

However, for Gena and the others, this car is already the top luxury car they can imagine.

If you put a Rolls Royce in front of them, they might not recognize it. After all, for the most ordinary people, Mercedes-Benz's popularity is still the most popular!

Gena sat in the back row of this luxury Mercedes-Benz car with excitement!

She couldn't help but think to herself: "Riding in a luxury car and living in a luxury house, is my life finally going to soar into the sky?! This Lady Wilson, is simply my noble person!"

Thinking of this, she couldn't help but feel proud and thought: "Lady Wilson is so good to me, I must do more to her in the future. From now on, I will treat her as my own mother!"

The Mercedes-Benz drove fast and steady all the way.

This car had a pass for Thompson First's first product, so it sent them directly to the door of villa a06.

Afterwards, the driver used the administrator password to open the outer door of the villa, and then helped Gena and the three of them to enter their fingerprints and said to them: "After entering the fingerprints, you can enter and exit the door directly without a key."

Gena looked at the huge courtyard of the villa, shaking with joy. She asked, "Master, if you are tired, can we enter the door of the house even if we swipe our fingerprints?"

"Yes." The driver nodded and said, "The gate of the yard and the front entrance of the villa are both a set of smart home systems. After fingerprints are entered, they can be used in common use. You can go in now. From now on, treat this as yourself. Home, no matter what, don't be polite!"

Gena hurriedly asked, "Where is the Lady Wilson? Why didn't she come out?"

The driver smiled and said, "Mrs. Wilson went out for a while, so let me pick you up first. You can go first and choose a room. There are still a lot of empty rooms in the villa."

"Oh! Great!"

As soon as he heard that he was going to choose a room, Gena rushed over with his own blanket.

Not to be outdone, the other two hurriedly followed behind and ran to the door.

Gena tried to swipe his fingerprints on the doorknob, and the door of the room opened!

She pushed the door in excitement, and when she entered, she was shocked by the extremely luxurious interior!

Chapter 1934

This villa is, after all, the best and largest villa within the urban area of Aurouss Hilll, and it has undergone a very luxurious decoration. The decoration style is open and ostentatious, and the ultimate moneyism is exposed everywhere.

Therefore, Gena and the others just took a look, and they were completely crazy!

Before coming, they had also imagined what the inside of Mrs. Wilson's villa would look like.

However, even their most daring guesses are far less than the actual situation of this villa!

Samantha exclaimed from the side: "This..what kind of villa is this! The palace is just like this, right?!"

"Fart!" Yadira blurted out: "This is much more luxurious than the palace! Damn! Look at that sofa, it's so beautiful! I'm going to lie down!"

With that, the person has already ran over.

"I want to go too!" Samantha saw Yadira go, and when she was unwilling, she hurriedly dropped the blanket and ran all the way.

This sofa is a European-style top-level sofa imported from Italy. It is exclusively for the European royal family. The original owner of the villa originally imported it directly from abroad for more than one million Dollar.

Different from Rosewood furniture, Rosewood itself is expensive on wood, which is not comfortable for practical use. It is equivalent to buying a set of gold bricks as a mattress. Expensive is really expensive, but hard is also really hard.

Therefore, Rosewood Furniture is more like a financial product.

But this European style furniture is different.

It is mainly based on the brand, the workmanship, the extraordinary luxury appearance and the meticulous comfort.

Therefore, this kind of sofa is actually a high-end luxury consumable.

After the two pounced on the sofa, they also forgot to take off their shoes, so they directly stepped on the surface of the sofa with their feet, turning over and looking for the most comfortable posture.

Gena hurriedly said: "Hey, ah, slow down, don't sit down on the sofa with someone else's sofa! And the soles of your shoes are dirty on the sofa."

Samantha smiled and said, "Oh, it's okay, don't you tell me, let us be like our own home, and I will wear shoes on the couch when I'm at home!"

Yadira said excitedly: "Sister Gena, come and feel it, this sofa is so comfortable! I think the chair the Jade Emperor sits in the sky is not as comfortable as this!"

"Really?" Gena said with a smile: "I think this sofa is really good, it's very grand! I'll try it!"

After speaking, she stepped to the single-person sofa and sat down.

"Ouch! It's so soft!" Gena was lying on the sofa, her whole body trapped in the soft leather, dancing happily.

Samantha lying on the side said hurriedly: "Oh, sister Gena, you haven't tried it while lying down, this sofa is more comfortable lying down!"

After finishing speaking, he hurriedly stepped on the sofa to stand up, pulled Gena, and said flatly: "Sister Gena, come and try it! Make sure you lie down and you can't bear it!"

Gena lay down and tried it, and said with joy, "Oh, this is really great! I have the heart to sleep on the sofa later!"

Samantha smiled and said: "The sofas are so comfortable, the bed is definitely more comfortable!"

Yadira hurriedly asked: "Then shall we go to see the room? This villa is so big, we can definitely guarantee one room for three people!"

Gena said: "Well, let's wait for the Lady to come back and let her arrange a room for us."

Samantha curled her lips: "I can't wait. The villa rooms must be large or small, some facing south, some facing north, I want a south facing, bigger one, and I can get some sunshine every day! "

Yadira said hurriedly: "I want to face south too!"

As soon as Gena heard this, he immediately jumped up from the sofa and ran up the stairs, saying, "No! I have to choose first!"

Chapter 1935

Mrs. Wilson didn't know that when she went to the hospital, her house was already occupied by Gena.

She and Wendy rushed to the hospital in a hurry and found Christopher and Harold. The father and son were already half mummies wrapped in plaster. Although neither of them is life-threatening, they all fractured their limbs, so that they completely lost the ability to move, and could only lie in bed and wailing.

As soon as the Lady Wilson entered the door, she was shocked and anxious when she saw the two of them like this. She hurriedly stepped forward and asked: "Christopher! Harold! You guys...what's wrong with you?!"

When Christopher and Harold saw the Lady coming, they couldn't control their tears and wept loudly.

Especially Harold, crying very sadly.

Wendy burst into tears all at once, and asked pitifully, "Dad, brother, how did you become like this..."

Harold's eyes were red, and he cried and said, "Grandma! My dad and I were scrapped by Donald's people! Grandma, I'm so wronged! I kindly served him Donald. He was not only not grateful, but also let him People beat me and Dad like this, they are just brutes!"

Christopher also sighed: "Mom...people say that companions are like companions to tigers. I understand today! We can't accompany people like Donald, so we must keep our distance from him in the future!"

Lady Wilson said eagerly: "What happened on earth?! Tell me clearly!"

Only then did Christopher tell what happened.

Only then did the Lady Wilson understand that when they kidnapped Elaine Ma, they also tied up a transnational fraudster.

The most annoying thing is that Donald, a scheming man, was also deceived by a transnational fraudster. In order to please the other party, he interrupted the limbs of her son and grandson...

Hearing this, the Lady Wilson burst into tears, patting her thighs and howling: "God doesn't have eyes! If you don't trouble Elaine Ma today, that transnational scammer will definitely take Elaine Ma's family. People have broken their homes! But at this time, you just took the initiative to solve the trouble for Elaine Ma, and then caused the trouble to yourself. Today Elaine Ma was supposed to go to hell, but it turned out to be bad. You directly help Interpol and take the fraud. The crime is caught, which is equivalent to helping Elaine Ma completely free..."

When Harold heard that the truth was true, he cried louder and went crazy and said, "I didn't expect that we would end up getting the bastard of Elaine Ma for nothing. It's really a big loss... I, Harold has never suffered such a big loss in his entire life! And it was a big loss that he took the initiative to eat! Wendy, you slap me twice! I feel so uncomfortable in my heart..."

Wendy can only persuade: "Brother, since the matter has already happened, don't think about it again. The key now is whether your and dad's injuries are not serious and can you recover..."

Harold choked and said: "Recovery can be recovered, but it takes a while. The doctor said that we may not have the ability to take care of ourselves for several months. We have to eat, drink and sleep in bed. We may have to stay in the hospital and have to be accompanied by a caregiver... .."

Mrs. Wilson hurriedly asked, "Harold, where did Mr. Webb go? He was fooled by the scammer, so that you were dismissed. Later, the identity of the scammer was revealed. Didn't he give you any compensation or give you? A statement?"

"Say a shit!" Christopher said angrily from the side: "Donald, that old dog, was also directly arrested by Interpol! It is estimated that he will be out of luck!"

The Lady Wilson exclaimed: "Ah?! Then you two got the meal in vain?" Christopher naturally knew what the Lady's idea was, and he thought to himself: "What mom means, I must think that Harold and I were accidentally injured by Donald's people, and Donald has to make some compensation to make it reasonable."

"After all, my own mother is looking at money!"

Thinking of this, Christopher was a little depressed, and said, "Mom, you have to pay us the hospitalization fee first, let us transfer to the inpatient department! As for Donald, if he comes out in the future, I will ask him for an explanation! "

"Okay!" Mrs. Wilson nodded and said, "I'll pay the bill!"

Chapter 1936

With that, the Lady Wilson turned around and left the ward.

She stepped to the collection office and said, "I'm here to pay Christopher and Harold the hospital bill."

The other party inquired for a while and said, "The incurred treatment fee is 26,700, and another 80,000 Dollar of hospitalization deposit will be paid, which is a total of 10,06,700 Dollar."

Lady Wilson couldn't help but feel some pain.

"Although this one hundred thousand Dollar is not a lot, it is not too small. If this money is not compensated by Donald a hundred times, I really can't sleep in my dreams!"

Thinking, Mrs. Wilson still took out a bank card from her wallet and handed it to the other party: "Come on, swipe the card."

The other party took the card, swiped it on the POS machine, entered the amount, and said to the Lady: "Thank you for the password."

Mrs. Wilson immediately pressed the password and confirmed, but the pos machine never automatically issued an order.

The staff member in charge of the cash register took a look and said, "Your card is frozen, please change one."

"What? Frozen?!" Lady Wilson frowned, "How is it possible! I have tens of millions in my card!"

At first, after Donald helped the Wilson family repay the debt and the bank unsealed the previously sealed property, Mrs. Wilson returned part of her deposit.

After that, Donald invested in the Wilson family's money, and the Lady Wilson also found a way to find some companies that helped people take the account and put the money in her card. Now she has more than 20 million cash in her card, which has always been her. Pension money left for yourself.

Now, the other party suddenly told her that this card was frozen, and she suddenly became nervous.

The other party didn't know if there were tens of millions in her card, and she said impatiently: "I can't control how much money you have in the card, but the pos machine gave me feedback that the card has been frozen. If you have a problem, Call the bank!"

Lady Wilson was too shocked, and quickly took out her mobile phone and called the bank.

After waiting for a long time for the manual service, she hurriedly asked: "Why did your bank freeze my card?! What right do you have to do this?!"

The other party patiently said: "I'm sorry, I showed that your card is indeed frozen. The reason for the freezing is because your creditor filed a property preservation with the court."

"f*ck your mother!" Lady Wilson scolded angrily: "I have paid off all my debts a long time ago, how can there be any creditors?!"

The other party was also a little angry: "Madam, please speak up and don't swear! I can see the property preservation execution document. The document shows that your creditor Donald initiated property preservation and he helped you repay the amount before. Ten million debts, and tens of millions of funds invested in your company, but now he has to withdraw all the loans and investments, so he has frozen your bank card."

"what?!"

Mrs. Wilson suddenly felt thunderous!

Did Donald divest? !

This... Doesn't it mean that the Wilson family is going back to the previous situation of nothing and debt? !

Chapter 1937

Seeing that Mrs. Wilson stood blankly on the spot, the hospital toll collector asked, "Are you still paying? If you don't pay, we may ask you to discharge the two patients."

Mrs. Wilson immediately took out another bank card, chose one, handed it to the other party, and said, "Try this again!"

The toll collector nodded and took it and swiped it. After Mrs. Wilson entered the password, he shook his head and said, "This is also frozen." "Then try this one again!"

Lady Wilson passed all of her cards in succession, but the reminder that none of the cards was not frozen!

This made Old Lady Wilson's whole body very desperate!

Just when she was at a loss, a phone call came and she hurriedly connected, only to hear the other person say: "Hello madam, I am calling to inform you about the enterprises, villas, vehicles, antique paintings, etc. under your name. All real estate has been sealed by our court."

Please repay Mr. Webb's investment as soon as possible, otherwise, all your assets will enter the auction process!"

Lady Wilson cried and said, "You...you are trying to force me to death!"

The other party has an official attitude and said: "Sorry, we are also acting in accordance with the regulations. The amount of debt claimed by your creditors has far exceeded your assets, so if you do not repay the debt in time, we will take action against you. Sue!"

The Lady Wilson choked and said, "My son and grandson are now in hospital. You always want me to pay for the hospitalization, right?"

"Sorry, you are now a negative equity holder, and if you have money, you also need to repay Mr. Webb first."

"You fart!" The Lady Wilson shouted angrily: "What is the difference between you and drinking human blood?!"

"Sorry, it is justified to pay off debts."

Lady Wilson roared: "God, your mother, go to hell you! Bullying an Lady like me, you can't die!"

Having said that, Mrs. Wilson immediately hung up the phone angrily.

Here, the toll collector said embarrassingly: "Lady, are you still paying the fee? If you don't pay, please get out of the way first, because the people behind have to pay the fee."

Lady Wilson said with a black face, "Stop paying! I can't afford to eat, so I have to pay a fart!"

After all, she immediately called Donald with her mobile phone.

Although she didn't know what was going on with Donald, she still had a try and dialed his phone.

Unexpectedly, the call was quickly connected.

After Donald answered the phone, he asked in a bad tone: "Lady, what's the matter with you?"

Mrs. Wilson hurriedly said flatteringly: "Oh, Mr. Webb, that's it, Mr. Webb, why did I hear that you are going to divest suddenly? Didn't we say that you want to cooperate for a long time? You suddenly withdrew like this. But what should I do? Is there any misunderstanding in this?"

Chapter 1938

Donald said coldly: "There is no misunderstanding, I just completely lost confidence in your family, so I don't expect you to do anything for me.

In that case, what are you waiting for if you don't hurry up and divest?"

Mrs. Wilson immediately pleaded with pity: "Mr. Webb! Did the things my son and grandson did today make you feel unsatisfied? If they are not doing well enough, just say, I will let them next time. Correct, please give our family another chance!"

Donald said impatiently: "I have given you the opportunity, but the key is that you are not up to date! So don't come to beg me now."

Mrs. Wilson was desperate in her heart. Suddenly thinking about the villa, she hurriedly asked: "Mr. Webb, we signed an agreement about the villa. You agreed to lend it to us to live for 10 years. You can't go back. ! Otherwise our family will have to sleep on the streets!"

Donald sneered: "Of course you can see you in the villa. You can live for a while, but you have to make it clear to your son that if he dares to divorce Hannah, then I will kick your family out immediately!"

The Lady Wilson said angrily, "Mr. Webb, you don't need us to deal with Charlie Wade anymore. Why do you have to let my son stay with the dirty woman Hannah? You know, men hate most. What is being cuckolded by his own woman, as long as Hannah is still there, my son will never pass this hurdle..."

Donald said contemptuously: "Your son can't pass this hurdle. It has nothing to do with me. If you don't want to, you can move out of Thompson First and leave the villa to Hannah. ."

When Mrs. Wilson heard this, she immediately realized that she couldn't say more. If she continued to talk to Donald, she might not even be able to keep the right to reside in the villa.

Lady Wilson has experienced the taste of sleeping on the street, so she never wants to have such a hard life again.

She couldn't help but secretly thought: "As long as I can keep the residence right of Thompson First Villa, even if my son always wears a green hat on his head, I can accept it. I am so old that I can't live for many years. In the next few years, I don't want to suffer that kind of suffering anymore!"

So, she could only grit her teeth and agree, saying, "Mr. Webb, don't worry! I will definitely keep Hannah in Wilson's house!"

Donald snorted coldly: "Forget you acquainted! Don't call to bother me anymore."

Mrs. Wilson hurriedly asked: "Mr. Webb, don't hang up in a hurry, I have one more thing I want to ask you for help..."

"You said."

The Lady Wilson said hurriedly: "My son and grandson are both seriously injured, and now there is no money for treatment. Can you please lend us hundreds of thousands for help?"

"Lent you hundreds of thousands?" Donald said disdainfully: "Don't forget, your Wilson Group still owes me tens of millions. At this time, you still lick your face and ask me to borrow money. how thick?"

Lady Wilson cried and said, "But my son and grandson can't just consume it like this..."

Donald said: "I heard that they are no longer in danger, and the plaster is also put on. You can take them home and cultivate slowly."

Lady Wilson choked up and said, "But neither of them has the ability to take care of themselves. It will cost a lot of money to hire a caregiver or something..."

Donald smiled and said, "Well, you don't have to worry about them. I will tell the hospital about their treatment fees. You don't need to pay them. You can take them back at any time. In addition, I have already given it to you. Three helpers have been arranged. You can wait. Then these three people will help you."

Mrs. Wilson felt a glimmer of humanity in Donald at this moment, and thought: "In any case, Mr. Webb can still keep the villa for us to live in, and arrange for three helpers to come over. This is not bad. Maybe he was really angry, so he made the decision to divest. Maybe he will reinvest in the Wilson family when he gets better in the future!"

Thinking of this, Mrs. Wilson hurriedly said gratefully: "Thank you so much!"

Chapter 1939

At this moment, Elaine Ma's situation is also very tragic.

She was first sent to the best orthopedic hospital in Aurouss Hilll by Don Albertt's men, and then an expert was urgently arranged to perform joint surgery on her knee.

In fact, for injuries like hers, the best way is to undergo surgery in the shortest possible time. After fixing the knees with steel plates and nails, they are wrapped in plaster for protection.

In this way, the best recovery effect can also be obtained.

After the operation, he returned to the ward, where Don Albertt's men were already waiting for her.

The subordinate opened his mouth and said to Elaine Ma: "Ms. Elaine Ma, you have done a lot to arrest Caroline this time, so all your treatment costs this time will be borne by our Interpol."

Elaine Ma looked at the right leg that was put in a plaster again, and she burst into tears in discomfort, and choked up: "Comrade Interpol, you can't let that Caroline go anyway!"

The man nodded and said solemnly: "Ms. Elaine Ma, don't worry, we will bring her to justice!"

He said, "By the way, Ms. Elaine Ma, for your personal safety, I have to remind you of something else."

As soon as Elaine Ma heard that it was still related to his personal safety, he said hurriedly: "Say!"

The man said seriously: "Caroline is a transnational fraudster. Behind her is a huge fraud group spanning dozens of countries. Although we have arrested Caroline this time, there are still many of Caroline's comrades who have yet to be arrested, so you must not tell anyone about this matter, otherwise, it is very likely that you will be retaliated by this fraud group!"

When Elaine Ma heard this, she burst into tears!

"My mother, this is endless! It was because of this thing last time that I was taken into the detention center. I suffered a lot and my leg was broken..."

"Now my leg is just right, I haven't had time to jump for two days, or because of this, it was broken again, you said they will come to retaliate against me next time, then what can I do in the future? I... .. Why do I have such a hard life..."

The man hurriedly comforted: "Ms. Elaine Ma, don't get excited. This time is different from the last time."

Elaine Ma cried and asked, "What's the difference? Didn't you still catch them clean? As long as they have a comrade outside, it is possible to retaliate against me! And this time I got their boss Caroline in. Now, they will not let me go! They interrupted my leg before, and then it might kill me!"

The person explained: "This is Ms. Elaine Ma. We are still very cautious. The arrest of Caroline has not leaked any information. As long as we do not disclose it, and you do not disclose this matter, no one will think of it. Go on you."

Elaine Ma breathed a sigh of relief, and hurriedly asked, "But you see how miserable I am now, my leg was broken, my face was beaten and swollen into a pig's head, and my hair was choked off by that Caroline. How can I explain to my family?"

The man hurriedly said, "In fact, this matter is easy to explain. How did you explain to your family the last time you entered the detention center?"

Elaine Ma said: "I told them that I was tricked into a MLM organization, and then I was taken into the detention center as a MLM employee..."

The man nodded and said, "You told your family this time that members of several MLM organizations deliberately designed to retaliate against you, so they beat you like this. I think they should believe it."

Elaine Ma sighed, "Hey, this is the only way to do things now..."

The man took out Elaine Ma's mobile phone and handed it to her, "Ms. Elaine Ma, you can contact your family. To avoid suspicion, I will also leave."

Elaine Ma nodded, looked at the person in a flustered manner, and exhorted: "Comrade Interpol, please be sure to keep things alive today. Don't let Caroline's associates know that I got her in, otherwise I My life is definitely gone, please..."

The man said seriously: "Don't worry, we must keep it strictly confidential!"

After that, the man said in a convenient way: "Ms. Elaine Ma, take care of your injuries, I will leave first."

After the man left, Elaine Ma picked up the phone and quickly called Claire Wilson Wilson.

As soon as the phone was connected, she immediately cried and said, "Claire Wilson Wilson, my dear girl! Come and see mom in the hospital! Mom's leg is broken again... Why do you think mom is so fate... .."

Chapter 1940

Claire Wilson Wilson was about to get off work. she was shocked when he heard this, and blurted out, "Mom, what's wrong with you?! Why did you break your leg again?!"

Elaine Ma cried and said, "Don't mention it. Mom let the people of the MLM organization take revenge. They caught me and gave me a fat beating... My hair was smashed and my legs were broken. Up..."

"Ah?!" Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly asked: "Did you call the police?"

Elaine Ma cried and said: "Reported, Comrade Police has arrested them, come and see mom!"

Claire Wilson Wilson asked, "Which hospital are you in, I'll be there!"

Elaine Ma choked and said, "I'm in this Aurouss Hilll Orthopedic Hospital, come on..."

Claire Wilson Wilson blurted out: "Okay, mom, wait a minute, I'll come!"

Claire Wilson Wilson hung up Elaine Ma's phone at this time, and while drove to the hospital, he hurriedly called Charlie Wade.

Charlie Wade had already returned home at this time, watching TV in the living room pretending to be a casual person.

The old man Jacob Wilson also came back, and he was about to make a pot of tea and have a drink with Charlie Wade.

Charlie Wade received a call from Claire Wilson Wilson, already knowing what was going on, but still pretending not to know, he asked, "My wife, are you off work?"

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly said, "Husband, where are you?"

Charlie Wade casually said: "I'm at home."

Claire Wilson Wilson asked again: "Where is Dad?"

Charlie Wade said, "Dad is also at home and just came back."

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly said, "Then you and your dad should drive to the orthopedic hospital! Mom and she are in the hospital! I'm driving there too, let's see you at the hospital!"

Charlie Wade pretended to be surprised and asked, "What? Mom went to the hospital again? What's the matter?"

Claire Wilson Wilson said with a bit of sobbing, "Mom, she was retaliated by the people from the MLM organization. Those people broke her leg, but I don't know the specifics, so I have to go there!"

Charlie Wade said hurriedly: "That's OK! Then dad and I will go out and rush over!"

"Okay, see you in the hospital!"

Jacob Wilson was preparing to make tea. Hearing this, he asked in surprise, "Charlie Wade, what's the matter?"

Charlie Wade said: "Mom asked the people of the MLM organization to retaliate, and the leg was broken. At the hospital, let us go there!"

Jacob Wilson asked in surprise: "Elaine Ma's leg is broken again?! What you said is true?!"

Charlie Wade said awkwardly, "Dad, how do I think about what you mean? I seem quite happy..."

Jacob Wilson said seriously: "Charlie Wade, it is reasonable to say that I really shouldn't be gloating, but when I think about Elaine Ma's legs in plaster and crutches, I just want to laugh inexplicably... .. Isn't it a bit unkind to say that, hahaha..."

Charlie Wade shook his head helplessly: "You also know that you are not kind. When you see your mom later, don't laugh."

Jacob Wilson nodded: "Don't worry, I can hold it back."

After that, he hurriedly put down the tea set and urged: "My son-in-law, let's go quickly, I can't wait to see how embarrassed she is now!"

Chapter 1941

When Charlie Wade and Jacob Wilson arrived at the hospital, Claire Wilson Wilson had already arrived.

When Jacob Wilson and son-in-law came to the ward, Elaine Ma was holding Claire Wilson Wilson's hand, and the crying was called sorrow.

Claire Wilson Wilson was also wiping tears distressedly.

Although Charlie Wade heard that his mother-in-law had suffered a lot today, he had been outside at the time and had not entered, so he didn't see what was going on inside.

Moreover, after Elaine Ma was brought out by Don Albertt's men, he was directly sent to the hospital, and Charlie Wade did not see her face either.

Seeing Elaine Ma with a blue nose and swollen face and missing a piece of hair on her forehead, she couldn't help sighing in her heart: "Oh, my mother-in-law is really miserable. This time she was in this way. It was really a disaster. The ghost knew that Cynthia would suddenly run away. Looking for her?"

Seeing Charlie Wade's arrival, Elaine Ma felt wronged and finally regarded as a catharsis, crying and said: "Good son-in-law, mom is so miserable..."

After speaking, he cried out of breath.

Charlie Wade hurried forward, pretending to be concerned and asked: "Mom, what's wrong with you?"

Elaine Ma waved her hand and wiped her tears: "Hey, you can't mention it, you can't mention it, it's a bitter tear..."

Looking at her like this, Jacob Wilson didn't dare to laugh even if he wanted to laugh. He just stood there motionless or spoken.

Elaine Ma glanced at him, and said angrily: "Jacob Wilson, what are you doing here!"

Jacob Wilson hurriedly said, "You said what I am here to do, of course I am here to see you."

"Look at me?" Elaine Ma said angrily: "I think you came to see me making a joke!"

Jacob Wilson hummed in his heart: "Hey, I really made you right, but I can't admit it..."

So, I can only say embarrassingly: "Where are you talking about it? Even if we are separated or divorced, we will be together for half a lifetime. You were bullied into this way. I must feel sorry for you!"

Elaine Ma glared at him: "You feel bad ass, you! I don't know what your old dog is thinking, you f*cking want me to be lame forever!"

Jacob Wilson did not expect Elaine Ma to guess so accurately, but he did not dare to respond.

Fortunately, Claire Wilson Wilson on the side said at this time, "Mom, don't quarrel with Dad. He came to see you out of concern."

Elaine Ma said angrily, "I don't need his care."

After speaking, he looked at Charlie Wade again, and said bitterly: "Good son-in-law, this time I was tossed by the same group of people who engaged in MLM last time. Mom is really bad luck. This time I will be fighting for a few months. The plaster, not only can't cook for you, but also won't be able to go anywhere in the future. The days to come will be extremely depressing..."

Charlie Wade understood Elaine Ma's meaning at once.

So he immediately said openly: "Mom, in this case, I'll cook the food in the future. In addition, I will transfer you 100,000 Dollar in pocket money. You are really bored during this time. You can buy something online. Just play with things and it's time to kill."

When Elaine Ma heard this, she was immediately moved!

In fact, she didn't expect Charlie Wade to give herself money at all. She just felt that Charlie Wade had promised herself that she would pay 30,000 Dollar a month for food and another 10,000 Dollar for the hard cost of cooking. She did not dare to deduct the food cost, but the hard work should be taken for granted. .

But now I am limping again, and I can't buy vegetables and cook. No one can do this work. I'm afraid I can't ask Charlie Wade for the 10,000 Dollar.

Chapter 1942

That's why she wanted to pretend to be pitiful and hope that Charlie Wade won't deduct her 10,000 Dollar for hard work.

But I didn't expect Charlie Wade to be so generous, he would directly give himself one hundred thousand!

Hearing this, Elaine Ma immediately felt refreshed, and was also full of gratitude to Charlie Wade, and said hurriedly: "Hey, you are really a good son-in-law of your mother! With a son-in-law like you, mother has cultivated for several lifetimes. Blessing..."

Claire Wilson Wilson was secretly speechless when he heard this.

The reason for the tongue is that she discovered that when her mother said this, her attitude was really sincere. It seemed that she was really from the bottom of her heart, rather than just saying two polite words... Charlie Wade didn't expect that one hundred thousand Dollar would be able to move Elaine Ma into this, and he couldn't help but chuckled secretly, thinking: "I knew this superb mother-in-law, so I can send it away with such a small amount of money. I would not worry if I gave her some money. ?"

However, if you think about it, this matter is not that simple.

In the past, Elaine Ma controlled the family's financial power, not to mention, at least two million Dollar in his hands. At that time, if she was given more than two hundred thousand Dollar, she would really not be able to send her.

However, after being sacked by Hannah and spending a few days in the detention center, her starting point has been reduced a lot, and her appetite is not as great as before.

Charlie Wade was also very straightforward. After talking here, he immediately transferred 100,000 Dollar to Elaine Ma's card. When Elaine Ma received the receipt message from the bank, he immediately beamed and said happily: "It's my son-in-law who loves me!"

At this time, the doctor just came in for the rounds, Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly asked her: "Doctor, can I ask you, how is my mother's situation now?"

The female doctor explained: "The patient is mainly to recover and recuperate. This does take a while, and there is nothing else to pay attention to. You can let her observe and observe in the hospital, or you can take her home for recuperation first. "

Claire Wilson Wilson said, "Mom, why don't we take you home for training, so that it will be convenient for us to take care of you! Besides, it will be the Chinese New Year soon, and staying in the hospital is too deserted."

Elaine Ma nodded again and again: "This hospital feels very bad. I don't want to wait for a minute. Anyway, my leg is not broken for the first time. I already have experience. I will wait until my bottle of fluid infusion is finished later. Just take me home!"

.....

At the same time, in Aurouss Hillll People's Hospital.

Christopher and Harold were forced to leave the ward because they could not pay the hospital fee.

The father and son were lying on the mobile cart in the hospital, and the Lady Wilson and Wendy pushed them to the parking lot together.

When they came, it was Wendy who drove the new Bentley bought at home.

The Bentley is not an ambulance, and there is no way for them to lie down safely, so they can only find an ambulance to transport them.

However, it costs money to find an ambulance.

The family of four has no cash on them, and all bank cards and electronic payment accounts have been frozen. Now they are really penniless, and they don't know what to pay for the parking fee after driving out of the hospital.

Just when they were at a loss, two middle-aged men stepped over and said, "Is it Lady Wilson?"

Lady Wilson said in a hurry, "It's me, who are you?"

The other party said: "We, Mr. Webb, for the sake of your family's pitifulness, arranged an ambulance for you to take the four of you back to the villa."

The Lady Wilson breathed a sigh of relief and said gratefully: "That's great! Could you arrange an ambulance to take my son and my grandson back, and I will drive back together with my granddaughter."

The other party waved his hand: "Sorry, you two have to take the ambulance back together, because this Bentley was bought with our Mr. Webb's money, so Mr. Webb asked us to take the car back!"

Chapter 1943

Lady Wilson heard the other party's words, and she felt as if she was struck by lightning. Just stand on the spot!

She said helplessly and begging: "Two brothers, please call Mr. Webb and say that our family is exhausted now. I beg him to show mercy and leave us a little escape. Leave the Bentley to us..."

After speaking, she quickly added: "Even if you just borrow us to open it for a few years!"

The other side said blankly: "I'm sorry, we, Mr. Webb, said that a family like yours really can't come to the table, so he doesn't want to have any interest entanglements with you anymore. The villa allows you to live in, it is already him. The greatest kindness, if you don't know what is good or bad, then I'm sorry, the villa, Mr. Webb, can also take it back at any time!"

Lady Wilson's heart throbbed for a while, but at this time, she did not dare to say any rebellious words.

Wendy on the side couldn't help choking: "Please tell Mr. Webb again, you two, look at the way my dad and my brother are now, our family has no credit and hard work, and there is fatigue without hard work... .."

The other party said coldly: "If you are still talking so much nonsense, then the villa is really gone."

Lady Wilson hurriedly said at this time: "Wendy, stop talking! Get out the car keys quickly!"

Wendy was extremely angry, but she did not dare to continue to resist, so she cried and took out the car key and handed it to the other party.

The man took the key and said to the Wilson family: "Okay, the ambulance has been arranged for you. Your family of five should go back quickly. We will drive away first."

After speaking, the two got into the Bentley car and directly started the car to leave the scene.

At this time, an old ambulance drove to the family and stopped. The driver lowered the window and asked, "Are you going to Thompson First?"

"Yes..." Lady Wilson nodded sullenly, and said, "Thank you for sending the four of us to Thompson First a06."

The driver and a young man in the co-pilot got out of the car and helped them lift Christopher, Harold and his son up there, and then said to Mrs. Wilson and Wendy: "You two will squeeze after you."

The Lady Wilson nodded and said to Wendy: "Wendy, this ambulance is a bit tall, please help grandma."

Wendy wiped her tears, rubbed her red eyes again, choked up and said, "Good grandma..."

Hannah hurriedly followed, and said flatly: "Mom, I will help you too!"

Lady Wilson opened her hand and yelled angrily: "Get out! Don't touch me!"

Hannah didn't expect that the Lady suddenly got angry with herself, and asked a little aggrieved: "Mom, where did I offend you?"

Lady Wilson gritted her teeth and cursed: "You have offended me everywhere! If it weren't for you, our family wouldn't be what it is today! If it weren't for you, you wouldn't be able to beat you up for more than ten million! If it wasn't for you, Christopher will not always be ridiculed by Elaine Ma!! If it weren't for you, Christopher would not be able to do anything to Elaine Ma. He and Harold are so miserable now, this is all your harm!"

Hannah cried all at once.

Chapter 1944

She was also extremely aggrieved in her heart, crying and said, "Mom, I know you have been worried about my pregnancy in the black coal mine, but I was really trying to survive, otherwise, I might have already died! " "Furthermore, the ten million things I did not deliberately want to get rid of!"

"I intended to deceive Elaine Ma's money and villa, so as to improve the living conditions of our family! All my efforts and sacrifices are all for this family!"

When Mrs. Wilson heard her talk about pregnancy, she immediately felt as if she had been slapped twice, and immediately yelled: "You shameless b*tch, dare to mention pregnancy! Depraved family style, depraved morals, and extremely shameless! Had Donald protected you, I would have driven you out of the house!"

With that said, the Lady Wilson was so angry that she even lost her breathing rhythm. She gritted her teeth and said: "Also! When you came out of the black coal kiln, you were not only pregnant with a wild species! You also contracted a venereal disease! You also infected it. My son! Do you think I don't know?!"

Hannah's face turned red.

Just when she didn't know how to fight back, the driver asked impatiently, "I said your family can't leave? If you want to fight, pull the two sick numbers from the car and accompany you. Noisy, we are still waiting to get off work, we have no time to spend with you here!"

When Mrs. Wilson heard this, she immediately persuaded her, and hurriedly said: "Master driver, don't be angry, let's go, let's go!"

After speaking, she gave Hannah a fierce look, and then with the help of Wendy, she climbed into the ambulance.

Although Wendy sympathized with her mother, she didn't dare to speak up at this time, so she could only wink her mother and let her get in the car before talking.

Hannah also knew very well that she had no other place to live except the Thompson First a06 villa, so she could only swallow her anger and get into the car, and sat in the corner only in the corner.

After all five members of the family got into the ambulance, the ambulance immediately went to Thompson First.

In the car, Christopher was lying on the mobile hospital bed, looking at Mrs. Wilson, crying and asking: "Mom, what can we do in the future? Our family is now as poor as it is..."

Lady Wilson wiped her tears, and said in extremely painful and melancholy: "I don't know what to do. Now our family has no money, and your father is injured like this again. Later treatment, medication and rehabilitation It's a lot of money, it's really desperate..."

Harold cried and said, "Grandma, if you want to return to Thompson First to see if there are valuable things, let's get them out and sell them!"

There are still a lot of good things in our villa, just in the wine cellar. It is estimated that you can sell a lot of money!"

Lady Wilson nodded: "There is really no way, it can only be this way!"

Wendy asked at this time: "By the way, grandma, the two people just said that Donald arranged three helpers for our family. Where are they?"

Lady Wilson was also at a loss: "I don't know, it may be arranged but people haven't arrived yet, right?"

"Hey..." Wendy sighed: "If he could send three helpers over, Donald would be more or less conscientious. Otherwise, Dad and Brother would be hurt like this, just the three of us. It's really hard to take care of it."

"Who wouldn't say..." Mrs. Wilson said with emotion: "I guess Donald is indeed angry with us in his heart, but he should still have some hope for us, but he is now No matter how angry we are, if we have a chance in the future, we must perform well, and we should be able to win his trust again!"

Wendy nodded and sighed, "Hey, I hope the three helpers he arranged will arrive as soon as possible. It's best to have already arrived at the Thompson First first-grade waiting, otherwise we don't know how to get Dad and Brother back to the room later."

Chapter 1945

At this moment, in the a06 villa of Thompson First.

Gena, Yadira and Samantha have just filled their stomachs.

They waited left and right, but they couldn't wait for Mrs. Wilson's family to come back, and they were hungry and uncomfortable. They just found out that Hannah had some ingredients in the kitchen that Hannah had prepared but had not had time to cook, so they decided on their own and used those ingredients. A great meal.

Before Donald divested, the living standards of the Wilson family were still very good. After all, Donald invested in the Wilson Group, which restored the life of the Wilson Group, and the Lady also resumed her previous life like Lafayette. The level has also been greatly improved. Moreover, Hannah deliberately prepared very rich ingredients today, in order to celebrate the two of them after Christopher and Harold and his son got Elaine Ma.

Unexpectedly, these ingredients were not eaten by the Wilson family, and Gena's three were all cheaper.

The three of them were lying on the sofa watching TV with big belly and round belly.

This TV was brought up from the room on the first basement floor after Harold sold the big TV. Compared with the previous one, it is indeed a lot smaller. In the huge living room, it is somewhat different. Too coordinated.

While watching TV, Gena smacked his lips and said, "Oh, all the villas are good for Mrs. Wilson, but this TV seems to be a bit small. Compared with such a large living room, it looks uncoordinated."

Samantha asked in surprise: "My mother is coming! This big TV can't be 50 inches? The TV set in my village chief's house is not so big, is it small?"

"Yeah..." Yadira also echoed: "I have never watched such a big TV before."

Gena waved his hand and said, "You don't understand. The TVs of rich people start at 70 or 80 inches. Last year, when I was working at a housekeeping company in the city, I went to the rich people's house to clean, and the TV was much bigger than this. ring!"

Samantha said with emotion: "Goodbye! What are you doing with such a big TV? Don't you be tired if your eyes are running back and forth on such a big TV?"

Gena sneered and said: "Look at your promise. According to you, when people go to the cinema to watch a movie, their eyes will fall to the ground!"

Samantha scratched her head: "I have never been to a movie theater. I don't know what it is like."

Gena said: "I've been there, and I've done cleaning in movie theaters. Let me tell you that. The screen in the movie theater is bigger than a wall in this living room. Just think about it!"

Yadira on the side asked, "It's bigger than this wall, that's too scary!"

Gena said: "You two have never seen the world. When you turn around, let Mrs. Wilson take us to watch a movie in the cinema, then you will know!"

The three were chatting, and the ambulance had been driven into the yard. But their TV sound was loud, so no one heard the movement outside.

After the ambulance stopped steadily, the driver and the co-pilot jumped out of the car, and some roughly removed Christopher and Harold from the car.

They did not move down with the mobile beds, but directly moved them down and placed them on the marble floor in the yard.

The Lady Wilson was ready to get in the car and leave as soon as they saw them, and hurriedly said, "Aren't you going to help us get them in?"

The driver said impatiently: "The customer's request is to send you to the place. The entrance fee is not included. If you want us to help, you can pay two hundred Dollar per person."

Lady Wilson said: "I don't have a penny!"

The driver frowned and asked, "You live in such a luxurious villa, don't you have four hundred dollars?"

Mrs. Wilson eagerly said: "Now I don't need cash at all when I go out, so I haven't put any money at home. Now our mobile payment and bank cards are all frozen, there is really no way!"

Chapter 1946

The driver waved his hand: "Then we will be helpless."

Wendy said angrily, "You are doctors, shouldn't it be right for you to help the wounded?"

The driver looked at her and said seriously: "Little girl, I want to make it clear to you that we are not doctors, and ours is not a 120 ambulance in a public hospital, but a transfer ambulance operated by a private company, just like a taxi. We drive to make money by driving, and we will work when we give the money, understand?"

Wendy was speechless.

The man said disdainfully: "Who, who can live in such a good villa, can't afford four hundred dollars!"

After speaking, the two got into the car directly and started the car to leave.

Wendy stomped her feet angrily, the Lady sighed helplessly, and said to her and Hannah: "My old bones can't help me. You two first carry Christopher into the house, and then come out to carry Harold. Right."

Wendy and Hannah also knew that there was no other way. They could only gritted their teeth and used the strength of suckling to put Christopher up carefully.

Christopher kept paining, and said in pain, "You move a little bit, it hurts too much..."

Mrs. Wilson shook her head and sighed, "Going often, there is really no other way now, so just bear it!"

After that, she said to Wendy and Hannah: "You two help Christopher, I'll open the door first!"

Wendy and Hannah struggled with Christopher and moved to the door step by step. Lady Wilson was about to swipe her fingerprints to open the door.

Suddenly heard the movement of the TV inside, she asked Wendy in surprise: "Wendy, did you turn off the TV when you left? "

Wendy shook her head: "I was too rushed when I left, I forgot too."

"Okay." The Lady Wilson didn't think much, she opened the door directly.

As soon as the door opened, she saw three people lying on the sofa in the living room inside!

She was so scared that she yelled: "You...who are you?!"

When the three Gena heard the movement, they suddenly turned their heads and found that Old Lady Wilson and Wendy were coming, and they recognized these two former inmates at a glance.

Gena was so excited that he rushed over and said excitedly: "Lady! You are back! We have been waiting for you for a long time!"

Lady Wilson saw the three people running over barefoot, and she was shocked to speak.

She naturally recognized Gena and the others, but she couldn't figure out why these three people came out? And why is it in your own home? !

So, she asked in surprise: "Gena, you guys... why are you here!"

Gena said excitedly: "Lady! Are you still pretending to be confused here! Didn't you give us a bail pending trial and save us?"

"Me?!" The Lady Wilson said with a dazed expression: "This...Is there a misunderstanding?"

"Is there any misunderstanding!" Gena hurriedly said, "Lady, I know, you are grateful that we helped you a lot in the detention center and took care of you a lot, so you want to repay your favor and let us come and live with you!"

Yadira on the side also echoed: "Yes, Mrs. Wilson, you are so interesting! He also sent a Mercedes Benz to pick us up. For the first time in my life, I have been on a big run!"

Gena said with a bit of emotion: "Lady, let me just say something from my heart. The three of us are very grateful to you! So we all think about it. In the future, the three of us will live here and not leave. Let's take care of you as your own mother, and give you the end of your retirement life!"

Lady Wilson suddenly felt a deep despair in her heart, and she blurted out anxiously: "Gena, listen to me, there must be some misunderstanding in this, it really wasn't me who saved you! Besides, I really didn't want you to come here to live with me!"

Chapter 1947

Mrs. Wilson is a typical hiring person forward instead of backward.

When she was in the detention center, she needed Gena to support herself, so she was extremely polite to Gena at that time, and treated her like her own daughter.

But in fact, she doesn't even look down on a vulgar village woman like Gena.

Therefore, from the day she left the detention center, she had completely forgotten Gena.

For her, Gena is only a tool that must be used in a special period. After that special period, she never wants to have anything to do with Gena.

However, I never expected that this Gena would appear in his own home inexplicably!

Gena didn't expect that the Lady would deny what she had done.

In her opinion, it was obviously your Lady Wilson who saved us, arranged for the driver to pick us up to Thompson First, and entered our fingerprints on the gate. Why did she deny it at this time?

Thinking of this, Gena asked with a puzzled face: "Lady, what's wrong with you? You did all these good things, so why are you reluctant to admit it?"

"Yeah!" Yadira and Samantha also came over and asked uncomprehendingly:

"Lady, you obviously did all this. Why did you deny it? Why is that?"

Lady Wilson was surrounded by the three of them, feeling the stinky smell on their bodies, feeling dizzy, and choking her coughing.

The three of them didn't pay much attention to personal hygiene, and it was winter now, their clothes were thick, they didn't pay much attention to hygiene, didn't take a bath or change their clothes, so that the three of them had a strong body odor.

Now three people surrounded the Lady, and the smell was sour and sour. While covering her nose, Mrs. Wilson said grievously: "Gena, you really misunderstood. I really didn't do these things..."

Gena smiled, showing his big yellow teeth, and said with a smile: "Oh, Lady, I know you have a good heart, and you may not want to say something, but it doesn't matter, the relationship between our inmates is deep after all! Now! The three of us have also come out. From now on, we will all stay by your side and take care of you!"

Samantha on the side also said: "Yes, Lady, when you didn't come back, the three of us had already arranged a room. Fortunately, your villa is big enough and there are enough rooms. From now on, we will live in three of them. Here, you are the mothers of the three of us!"

"What?!" When the Lady Wilson heard this, she burst into flames and blurted out: "You have arranged the rooms? Who gives you the power?!"

Samantha didn't expect the Lady to suddenly get angry, and hurriedly asked: "What's the matter, Lady, you let us come over and live with you, we must get a share of the room!"

Lady Wilson trembled angrily, and said angrily: "This is my house, so I won't be held accountable if you break in without permission, but who gives you the right to divide my bedroom?! Leave me immediately!"

Wendy hurried over at this time and said in a low voice: "Grandma, we are currently short of manpower, so let them help, and let them go when Dad and Brother are better off."

Lady Wilson waved her hand and said coldly: "I can't let them be here without manpower. They are so stinky to be like this. Letting them stay one more minute will be my birthday! Besides, Mr. Webb will arrange a helper for us. Yes, it must be 10,000 times stronger than these three stinky old ladies!"

After that, she looked at Gena and said sharply: "You three, get out of me quickly!"

Gena was stunned!

Chapter 1948

She looked at Mrs. Wilson and said in disbelief: "Lady, you will let us get out? This is too much! Don't forget, we were in the detention center, but the three of us have been taking care of you and helping you. , Even your daughter-in-law Elaine Ma, we helped you teach!"

The Lady Wilson asked viciously: "Did I ask you to help me? When did I say that you asked Elaine Ma to teach me a lesson? It was entirely because you felt that Elaine Ma was upset that you started beating her!"

Gena was extremely disappointed: "Mrs. Wilson, you are really turning your face faster than turning a book! Back in the detention center, when we maintained you so much, I didn't expect to return to such a result!"

Lady Wilson said blankly: "I'm really sorry, I let you down, but this is also a lesson for you, telling you to recognize your identity in the future, don't think about it all day!"

Gena gritted his teeth and said, "Oh, Lady, are you talking like this? Okay! Then I won't leave! I think what you can do to me!"

Yadira and Samantha also said repeatedly: "Yes! We won't leave!"

The Lady Wilson did not expect that the three of them would even want to play rogues, and immediately said coldly: "You three, don't mess around here with me. You don't look in the mirror to see yourself. Just like you, your whole body is stinking. Are the soil buns worthy of living in this Thompson First villa? If even you can live in such a luxurious villa, it is really not long-sighted!"

With that said, Mrs. Wilson said with an arrogant face: "I was in the detention center when the Phoenix fell into the chicken coop and was forced to stay in the chicken coop for two days. You really thought I was with you. Is it a kind of person?"

Yadira yelled, "Lady Wilson! As the saying goes, a troubled phoenix is not as good as a chicken! Don't go too far, you dead old woman! If you annoy us, even if you are old, we will beat you! "

"Yes!" Samantha also immediately agreed: "How we beat Elaine Ma back then, now we can beat you how!"

Lady Wilson curled her lips and said: "You try to hit me. As long as you dare to do it, I will call the police immediately! You will definitely be caught back then!"

Gena also clenched her fists, her violent temper made her wish she would rush to punch the Lady Wilson now.

However, before she came out, she thought about the instructions given to herself by the prison guards, and she thought to herself: "The prison guards have said that we are all on bail pending trial. Although we have temporarily obtained personal freedom, we must abide by the law, otherwise, Because you don't abide by the law and cause trouble, you will most likely be caught again. Not only will you have to make up for the remaining sentence, it might even worsen it!"

Thinking of this, she had to suppress the anger in her heart, and said coldly: "Lady, I can see it too, you are idle and you have nothing to do with us, right? Since you think we can't climb up to you, then we Is it okay to go?"

Lady Wilson nodded: "It's best to leave as soon as possible, or I will call the police right away!"

Gena gritted his teeth and said to the two people around him: "Okay, anyway, we released it in advance. There is no need to go back to this matter, pack up things, let's go!"

Although the other two were unwilling to do so, they did not dare to make a mistake at this time, for fear of returning to the detention center, so they nodded angrily.

The three of them packed their belongings in anger and loss, and prepared to leave here with the blanket.

Lady Wilson has been supervising them. Seeing that they have packed their things, she fanned her hands in front of her nose and said with disgust on her face: "Oh, it's so stinking to me! You guys hurry up and roll as far as possible. If I dare to come again, I will call the police and arrest you as soon as possible!"

Gena felt the great humiliation, but because she was afraid of causing trouble, he could only grit her teeth and endure it, and said to the two people around her: "Let's go!"

At this moment, seven or eight strong men suddenly pushed in from outside, saw this situation, and asked: "What's the matter? Where are you three going?"

Gena thought that these fierce and strong men were all found by Mrs. Wilson, and immediately said nervously, "Don't be impulsive, a few big brothers, let's go! Let's go!"

The leader said coldly: "Why are you going?! Mr. Webb said, even if the three of you will treat this as your own home from now on, this house belongs to him, not to Mrs. Wilson. Mrs. Wilson is like you. It's just borrowing to live here, so as long as, Mr. Webb, nod our heads, she doesn't have the right to drive you away!"

Chapter 1949

The Lady Wilson was confused all at once.

Donald arranged for Gena and the others? !

What does Donald mean? !

Did he say that these three helpers arranged for him? !

Just before the Lady came back to her senses, Gena heard the brawny man's words and blurted out excitedly: "This big brother, what you said is true?! Can we really live here?"

The man nodded, "Of course! Hasn't the driver entered your fingerprints before? you will treat this as your home from now on!"

Lady Wilson shouted desperately: "Brother! Excuse me, tell Mr. Webb that we don't want such a helper! These three people are all peasant women and don't know a few big characters. What can you do for us? We can't change to three professional nurses, preferably the one who can wash clothes and cook!"

The man yelled coldly: "Lady, I found that although you are old and ugly, but you think well and beautifully! Still bargaining with us, Mr. Webb? Don't look at what you count?"

Lady Wilson was blushing when she was scolded, and she stammered and said: "Then we don't need to help, can't we? Let the three of them go. Let's do everything by ourselves. This is alright?"

"That's not okay! As I said just now, these three people are the same as your family. They will all be residents of this house from now on. They will sit on the same level as you. You have no right to let them go!"

Gena just heard this, looked at the Lady Wilson, sneered and said: "Oh, Lady Wilson, I think you are really a phoenix! Not long after you came out, you can turn over so quickly, I didn't expect this big villa is not you at all. Yeah! What are you pretending to here with me? I really thought this was your villa! I didn't expect it to be the same as the three of us, just rent it out!"

"Yes!" Yadira said contemptuously: "The clamor was so powerful just now, it seems to be really awesome, I didn't expect it was all pretended!" Samantha also echoed: "I still think you are really a phoenix. I live in such a good phoenix den. Only now I know that you are a pheasant who borrowed and lived in the phoenix den!"

Mrs. Wilson's expression was very ugly. This villa is indeed not hers. It belongs to Donald. Donald allowed them to live in the family so they could live. If Donald doesn't let them live anymore, they will have to get out. In other words, if Donald wants Gena and the three of them to live in, then her Lady Wilson has no right to obstruct.

Gena exhaled suddenly!

She excitedly said to the two of them: "From now on, we are also residents of this big villa! Some old pheasants pretending to be phoenixes no longer have the right to drive us out!"

"Yes!" The other two were also very excited.

After clarifying the relationship of interest, they were in a good mood. After all, this not only extinguished the arrogant arrogance of the Lady, but also allowed the three of them to live in this large villa reasonably and legally.

At this moment, Gena suddenly remembered something and asked the brawny headed man: "Brother, I want to ask you something!"

The man said: "You say!"

Chapter 1950

Gena said: "We looked at the rooms in this villa before and found that those big and good rooms were occupied by the Wilson family. All we could find were corner rooms. Since the three of us were with them Family rights are equal, so can we ask for reallocation of rooms?"

"Yes!" Samantha also recovered, and said excitedly: "I want to live in a big bedroom facing south too!"

The man naturally didn't think it was too big to watch the excitement, and said with a smile, "Of course, we don't care how you distribute it internally."

"That's great!" Gena said immediately: "I booked the big bedroom on the third floor! Who owns the bedroom? Move out quickly, otherwise, don't blame me for throwing everything out!"

Lady Wilson said angrily: "Dare you! The big bedroom on the third floor is my room! No one can grab it!"

Gena sneered and said, "You bad Lady, hurry up and get away! I just gave you a face. The three of us have come to you sincerely and really want to treat you as a mother! But Unexpectedly, your old thing is so unfeeling! Now that Mr. Webb has spoken, then let's speak with strength. I want the room on the third floor. If you dare to grab it, you can weigh yourself whether you have that ability!"

Mrs. Wilson was suddenly desperate!

Not only despair, but also deep regret!

She only understood now that these three people turned out to be the helpers Donald arranged for herself!

I knew this was the case, I shouldn't have yelled at them just now and had to drive them out...

Originally, although the three of them couldn't make it to the stage, they had enough respect for themselves, and they also had the strength to direct them to do anything.

But it's better now!

I actually offended the three of them to death!

And these three people were not driven out in the end...

Gena still wants to grab his room...

Isn't this shooting yourself in the foot? !

Thinking of this, Mrs. Wilson felt so uncomfortable and uncomfortable...

She could only lick her face and said to Gena: "Oh, Gena! It was a misunderstanding just now, don't you be familiar with me! I am old, confused, and can't live for a few years. Sometimes my brain is not enough. Use, say something that doesn't sound very nice, don't take it to your heart! I always treat you like a daughter!"

Gena said with a disgusted face: "Now it's close to me? I'll go to your mother! What the hell are you doing? I see through your old stuff this time! it's a dog thing like you! Everyone will live under the same roof in the future. You'd better not provoke me, otherwise, I will let you die in minutes!"

When the Lady Wilson heard this, she shuddered in shock, and blurted out: "You...are you not afraid to go in again?"

At this time, the brawny man immediately added: "Don't worry, Mr. Webb still has a lot of face, and this little thing is definitely done!"

When Gena heard this, he immediately felt as if he had been given a cardiotoxic injection, and sneered: "Then I'm sorry, Mrs. Wilson, from now on, the big room on the third floor belongs to me!"

Lady Wilson almost collapsed. The large bedroom on the third floor was the best bedroom in the entire villa. When she first moved in, she fell in love with that room, and it was extremely comfortable to live in, absolutely unmatched by other rooms.

Moreover, the Lady is eager to enjoy her life. She intends to live in such a good bedroom. Now seeing that Gena will snatch it away, she is naturally anxious. She cried and said, "Gena! You see how old I am. Yes, maybe I will die one day, so you can let me die in that better room, and I can have a good baby in my next life!"

Gena stepped forward and slapped the Lady Wilson, and shouted coldly: "You're so f*cking farting here! My mother drank pesticides, and the hospital said it was useless, so we took her back home. She died in the end. In the dilapidated brick house in my hometown, according to what you said, won't my mother have a good baby in her next life?!"

Chapter 1951

Lady Wilson was dizzy and slapped by Gena's slap.

She really did not expect that she had said so many insults to Gena before that Gena did not do anything to herself.

Unexpectedly, when she showed her weakness, she accidentally touched her inverse scale.

Although Gena has no culture, she is indeed a filial daughter.

At first, her mother was forced to commit suicide by taking medicine.

After hearing the news, she rushed back from her husband's house.

At that time, her mother was very sick and hopeless.

In the hospital, Gena's mother told her very weakly that she wanted to go home, saying that she was uncomfortable in the hospital.

Gena knew that she knew that she was going to die. When she was dying, all she wanted to do was to save some money for her family, and don't let her stay in the hospital for fearless treatment.

She wanted to take her mother back to her in-law's house, be good for a few days, and let her walk through the last part of life.

But her mother-in-law strongly opposed it, especially her mother-in-law, who yelled at her on the phone, saying that if she dared to pick her mother back, she would not even enter the house herself.

The younger brother who is afraid of his wife is unwilling to let his mother go back because it is unlucky for her to die in his own home.

In the end, Gena could only take her mother back to her old house that had been abandoned for many years.

In the old house, Gena tried her best to wipe her mother's body with warm water, put on clean clothes, and made her a bowl of Yangchun noodles with eggs.

After the mother ate the bowl of noodles, she held her hand and said to her contentedly, "Good girl, mom sleep for a while", and then she never woke up.

That day, Gena cried all the tears.

After her mother entered the soil, Gena beat her younger sister-in-law and was sent to the detention center.

It was also because of her filial piety that when she heard that Elaine Ma was very unfilial to Old Lady Wilson, she felt sympathy for Old Lady Wilson and hated Elaine Ma at the same time.

Generally speaking, this is a vulgar, sloppy, and uneducated peasant woman who has always respected her deceased mother and awe of human nature.

Although her temper is aggressive, she is not a bad person. She could tolerate the insults the Lady Wilson had put on her, but she couldn't tolerate even a slight offense to her mother. Lady Wilson only said that by dying in a better room, she can guarantee a good baby in her next life. It reminded her of her mother who had died in a dilapidated building. She always felt that her mother was loyal and kind-hearted, though poor and down for her life. However, her fate is so awkward, she has never enjoyed a blessing in her life, and finally was driven to a ruin by her daughter-in-law. She also felt that such a mother, even if she died in the worst room in the world, God had eyes, she would have a good baby and enjoy a lifetime of happiness in her next life. And what Mrs. Wilson said just now, inadvertently, not only denied her consistent firm belief in her heart, but also blasphemed her mother's holy and great image in her mind. Therefore, she couldn't bear it and slapped the Lady Wilson. At this time, the Lady Wilson, covering her face, looked at Gena resentfully.

Chapter 1952

Although she was very annoyed in her heart, but at this time, given her ten thousand courage, she did not dare to do anything with Gena. Donald's subordinates said in a cold voice at this time: "We are here this time. It is Mr. Webb's order to empty the assets in this villa. Mr. Webb means that in the future, except for the hard-decorated parts, as well as the bed, Except for the large pieces of furniture such as the sofa, all other household appliances, all valuable furnishings, and the good wine stored in the basement must all be emptied, leaving nothing!" When Mrs. Wilson heard this, she suddenly felt desperate. At first, she was worried that she had no money. She could sell the household appliances in the villa, especially the wine in the warehouse in the basement, which could sell for at least one million, but she didn't expect that such a rich person as Donald could even do this. I was worried about anything, and before I was ready to make a move, his people had already found it! The Lady Wilson said bitterly: "You can move away the little brothers, home appliances and so on, but please keep the wine for us. After all, we like to drink a few drinks occasionally..." The leader sneered and said: "It's fcking almost out of food, and still the fcking drinking? With that energy, you should study how to make money and make a living!" After finishing speaking, he immediately said to a few people around him: "Start moving! Don't leave me any valuables!" "it is good!" Several subordinates immediately agreed, and then began to search the villa for a while. They even carried a flatbed cart specially used for moving house, put all the valuables in the cart, and pulled out a little bit. Lady Wilson didn't dare to make any trouble, she could only watch them constantly move the things in the villa, not only moved all the wine out, even the TV on the wall was also taken down. What's more, the kitchen utensils, pots and utensils in the kitchen were all taken away by them.

Lady Wilson choked and said: "Several brothers, please also keep the cooking pots and pans for us..."

The man said coldly: "These are all kitchen utensils imported from Germany. One pot costs tens of thousands of dollars. Keep them for you. You must sell them all in two days!"

Lady Wilson cried and said, "No matter how I sell it, I can't sell the pot..."

The man said disdainfully: "We don't care about this. If you want to cook, you can find a way to buy another pot!"

After that, I checked in each room again to make sure that there were no valuables left. Then he said to his men: "You first put everything on the car!"

Several subordinates went out one after another, and the person said to Gena again: "You will live here steadily in the future. Mr. Webb has only one requirement of you, that is, you must not go to the house of Ms. Elaine Ma next door to find any trouble with their family. Otherwise, never be merciful!"

As soon as Gena heard this, he nodded quickly and said: "Don't worry, I will never trouble Elaine Ma! The trouble with Elaine Ma before was all because of Mrs. Wilson, an ungrateful Lady, so I will definitely do it again in the future. Not anymore!"

The man was satisfied and said: "Okay, don't you want the bedroom on the third floor? Go and take it quickly, let's go first."

Gena said excitedly: "Okay! I see! You go slowly!"

After the group of people left, the Lady Wilson sat on the ground and cried: "Oh my life, why is it so bitter..."

Wendy also cried out and said, "Grandma, Donald is too much. He clearly wants to play with us..."

Hannah said at this time: "People, Mr. Webb, may not really want to play with us. Originally, he wanted to arrange a few helpers for our family. Unexpectedly, your grandma would offend them to death when she came up. Now there are no other helpers. Now, there are three more enemies..."

Lady Wilson asked furiously: "Hannah, you slut who doesn't obey women's way, dare to point fingers at me!"

Hannah had been fed up with the Lady's arrogance for a long time. Seeing that the Lady was angry with herself, she immediately became angry and cursed: "You dead Lady, don't deceive too much! Do you really think you are still the Lady Wilson?! You are now very poor and utterly impoverished, and you're f*cking here with me, what the hell I owe you to the Wilson family?!"

Chapter 1953

Lady Wilson did not expect that Hannah, who had always been crushed by herself, would dare to challenge herself!

At this moment, she felt furious in her heart, but she didn't dare to say anything when she thought that she had no support at the moment and was like a frustrated ball.

If I had treated Gena better at first, then the three of them would now be their own loyal licking dogs, and Hannah would naturally not dare to make any mistakes.

It's a pity that I have already made enemies with Gena and the others. If I offend Hannah again at this time, I really can't find half a helper. So she could only say angrily: "I don't want to quarrel with you, let's send Christopher back to the room, and then move Harold in!"

Christopher was almost crying, and choked up: "Mom, you still remember me, I can't hold it anymore..."

The Lady Wilson hurriedly said, "Wendy, Hannah, please take Christopher back to the room and let him rest."

The two struggled to lift Christopher to the elevator. Wendy couldn't help but said to Gena: "Can't you three come over and help? Just watch it like this?"

Gena said blankly: "When the three of us came here, we really wanted to be a cow and a horse for your family, but your grandma was unwilling. Now, the three of us are in a co-tenant relationship with you, and it's love to help you. It's our duty not to help you!"

Wendy said angrily, "Can't you reach out and help?"

Gena shook his head: "Sorry, the love is gone!"

After speaking, she said to Mrs. Wilson again: "The biggest room on the third floor will be mine from now on!"

Lady Wilson stood there with tears in her eyes, but she dared not speak. After all, it was all her own fault, and she could only break her teeth and swallow in her stomach.

Otherwise, Gena will certainly not give up!

After Gena warned Mrs. Wilson, she took Yadira and Samantha to the third floor.

The three generations of women in the Wilson family had to work hard to move both Christopher and Harold to the second floor.

In order to take care of the father and son, Wendy and Hannah both moved them to the master bedroom on the second floor and let them sleep on the same bed.

The original personal belongings of Mrs. Wilson had already been thrown outside the door on the third floor by Gena.

The Lady also wanted to find a separate room on the third floor, but she did not expect that the other rooms on the third floor would be occupied by two other women.

In desperation, the Wilson family can only draw a line with the three of them. Gena and the others live on the third floor, Christopher and Harold live in the master bedroom on the second floor, and Wendy and Hannah live in one of the second bedrooms on the second floor. The other second bedroom was given to Mrs. Wilson.

After the busy work, the family of five was exhausted and hungry.

Lady Wilson wanted to eat a meal, so she directed Hannah to say: "Hurry up and make something to eat, I'm almost starving to death!"

Hannah choked and said: "Be a fart, do it, let Gena and the three of them eat the ingredients prepared before, and now the pots and pans have been taken away by Donald's people, and there is only half a bag of rice at home. , Even the rice cooker is gone, what do I use to cook?"

The Lady Wilson asked desperately: "Is there nothing to eat in the refrigerator? It's better to eat a few sticks of ham rather than hungry!"

Hannah said annoyedly: "Your Lady is demented? Even the refrigerator is dragged away. Where can I get you the ham sausage? How about you give me the money and I go out to buy it for you?"

Only then did the Lady Wilson remember that Donald's people had already moved the refrigerator out.

In other words, this villa now cannot even find a bite...

Harold was aggrieved at this time and cried, "Mom...I...I'm so hungry...I haven't eaten a bite since I went out... .."

Chapter 1954

Hannah couldn't help crying when she saw her son's miserable appearance, and choked up, "Harold, mom is really helpless. There is no bite to eat at home, and the money he can find has been taken away by Donald's people. What do you want me to get you to eat..."

Wendy cried and said, "Mom, or I will find a job tomorrow!"

Hannah nodded and said: "It's okay to find a job, but you have to find a job tomorrow. The salary will have to wait for the next month. This is looking at the Chinese New Year. Our family should not be hungry for the New Year.. ..."

Mrs. Wilson said at this time: "It's really impossible, just go find a part-time job! Find a job that pays daily!"

Wendy said: "It can only be like this..."

At the same time, Gena on the third floor was also holding a meeting with Yadira and Samantha.

The situation faced by the three of them is the same as that of the Wilson family, except that they have no money.

Therefore, Gena said to the two of them: "It is a blessing that we can live in this big villa now. As for the meal, I think we have to figure out a solution by ourselves."

Samantha hurriedly said: "Sister Gena, what do you think we should do? The Chinese New Year is only two days away, so we have to prepare a little bit. Not to mention the big fish and the meat, at least make dumplings for dinner, right?"

Gena said: "This is actually simple. I know a few cleaning companies that specialize in cleaning their homes. They can make about 20 Dollar an hour. The three of us work together for eight hours a day, and one person has one hundred. Sixth, this adds up to 500 Dollar, and now that the year has come, the service industry costs have risen. Going to the bathhouse and rubbing the back can also make a lot of money. As long as the three of us work hard, we will definitely make money. Enough for our lives."

Yadira said immediately: "No problem, although I haven't studied much, I still have strength for both arms!"

Samantha also nodded again and again: "Then we two will listen to sister Gena's arrangement!"

Gena gave a hum and said, "Go to bed early tonight, and we will go out to find work tomorrow morning!"

.....

The villa a05 next door is another scene.

Although Elaine Ma had a cast on her leg, she was in a pretty good mood. The young couple Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson had dinner together. Elaine Ma stretched his legs out of the dining table diagonally in a plaster cast, while eating and visiting TikTok with her mobile phone, her expression was very relaxed.

Seeing this, Jacob Wilson couldn't help but mock her: "I said Elaine Ma, you are really more and less heartless. You just broke your leg for a short time. Not only do you don't swear or curse the street, but you are like a okay person. Sitting on TikTok! This is not your Elaine Ma character!"

Elaine Ma glared at him, and said contemptuously: "What do you know? My Lady is different now. My Lady has learned how to counsel herself!"

Charlie Wade was very curious and asked: "Mom, can you tell me, how do you do psychological counseling?"

Elaine Ma waved his hand: "Hurt! Isn't it easy? You think my good son-in-law, if I sit here and think about my leg, then I must be more uncomfortable the more I think about it, and the more uncomfortable the more I think about it. I'm so angry that this leg won't return to nature, don't you think?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "This is indeed the truth."

Elaine Ma chuckled and said, "So, I don't think about it that way, and I don't think about my legs, I just miss that Caroline!"

Charlie Wade was dumb for a while, Caroline? Isn't that his aunt Cynthia? Elaine Ma said triumphantly at this time: "I just thought in my heart, my Lady is really fateful this time! The fraudster Caroline deliberately retaliated, not only didn't she die, she even f*cked with her! "

"Not only did she do a fight, she also swollen her nose and face. How awesome is this?"

Speaking of this, Elaine Ma refreshed and continued: "Now, Caroline has also been arrested, and I don't have to worry about anyone retaliating against me in the future. Can you say I can be upset?"

Claire Wilson Wilson asked in surprise: "Mom, who is Caroline? Is it a MLM organization?"

Elaine Ma realized that she had missed her mouth and nodded hurriedly: "Yes, that's right, Caroline is the boss of that MLM organization!

Heinous bastard!"

Chapter 1955

Charlie Wade marveled at Elaine Ma's spiritual victory method, and at the same time, she was relieved for the successful resolution of this matter. What he was most worried about before was that Cynthia exposed his identity. After all, his aunt's acting style was extremely arrogant. Maybe the moment his brain heated up, she revealed the identity of the Wade family.

Fortunately, Cynthia chose the wrong way as soon as she came up. She directly wrote Elaine Ma a 100 million cheque, and asked Elaine Ma to classify her as a liar as soon as she came up.

The four words Citibank even stung Elaine Ma's deepest pain in his heart, so that Elaine Ma directly responded to Cynthia's purchase by force.

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade couldn't help but feel funny.

My aunt, who has been living in Eastcliff for so many years, is always a respectable object wherever she goes, but she must have never imagined that she would be broken in Aurouss Hilll.

Moreover, it was still in Elaine Ma's hands.

Want to come, this time will definitely teach her a lesson.

Charlie Wade was thinking. The phone suddenly received a WeChat message.

When he saw it, it turned out to be a video from Don Albertt. The thumbnail of the video showed that it was a dilapidated small room, and his aunt Cynthia was standing in the camera with a bitter face.

He knew that Don Albertt should have settled her, so he immediately got up, went to the bathroom, and clicked on the video.

The video began to play, and Don Albertt's voice came: "Master Wade, take a look, this is the room prepared for your aunt! It's in the shanty town of the village in the city!"

In the video, it is a small room of less than 20 square meters. The room is very shabby. Apart from a bed, a simple wardrobe, a desk and a chair, there is almost nothing else.

Although this kind of self-built house is in poor condition, it has the advantage that the landlord has made a separate bathroom for each room, so that at least there is no need to queue for public toilets.

However, this toilet looks very ordinary, small and broken, and very dark.

As for the toilet, it is definitely not available. The landlord provided it with a very cheap squat toilet.

Cynthia stood in the middle of the room with a depressed face, and said angrily: "You show Charlie Wade, how can you live in this shabby place!" While filming the video, Don Albertt said coldly: "Why can't you live? Master Wade had lived on construction sites for several years. The conditions are much worse than this. Master Wade can live, why can't you?"

Cynthia was furious: "Don't compare me to him! I have lived for more than 40 years, and I have never experienced a hard day!"

Don Albertt sneered and said: "Congratulations, from now on, your seven-day dream tour is about to begin. Haven't you had a hard time? The next seven days, let you live it all at once!"

After that, Don Albertt said again: "Master Wade, look at this environment, are you satisfied? If you think the conditions are still a bit superior, then I will find a worse one!"

Seeing this, Charlie Wade couldn't help laughing.

Although he is not very old, he knows human nature better than most people after so many years of playing outside and encountering so many people of all kinds.

Therefore, he most likes to punish the wicked from the root of human nature.

For example, Jordan of Weaver's Pharmaceuticals, who always looked down upon Liam's mother who was born under the Golim Mountains, disappointed others, and delayed others for a lifetime. What's more hateful is that if they delay others, it's fine. They have all passed away. In rants, such a person is completely bad from the root of human nature.

That being the case, letting him settle down under the Golim Mountain for a lifetime is the best punishment for him.

It is also his best way of atonement.

Chapter 1956

My aunt.

Born in the mansion of Eastcliff since she was a child, she has enjoyed the glory and wealth all her life, always being arrogant, defiant, and arrogant.

That being the case, the best way to punish her is to let her live a hard life and severely frustrate her spirit!

Therefore, Charlie Wade sent a voice to Don Albertt: "Don Albertt, I think this environment is good, but you must make your people guard against it 24 hours a day, and never allow her to buy any goods online, nor allow her to Order any takeaway!"

"If she buys something, or orders takeaway, your people will stop it directly and absolutely can't give it to her!"

"As for her daily food, just let your people see the mood and buy her something from a small restaurant outside, but remember that the standard for a single day's food must never exceed fifty Dollar!"

At this moment, the shanty town of the village in the city. Don Albertt used the phone speaker to play the voice that Charlie Wade had just sent. Cynthia's face suddenly became even more ugly after hearing it!

She angrily said: "This is too much! Don't let me shop online, let me order takeaway?!"

Don Albertt sneered: "I just won't let you order, what's the matter?"

Cynthia said angrily: "I want to call Charlie Wade!"

Don Albertt smiled and said: "Based on what I know about Master Wade, if you make a call, the daily food standard will definitely not increase but decrease! You will definitely regret the call by then!"

Cynthia gritted her teeth and said, "You're f*cking here to bluff me!" After speaking, she immediately took out his mobile phone and called Charlie Wade.

Charlie Wade answered the phone, and Cynthia blurted out immediately: "Charlie Wade! You are too much, right?! You let me stay in Aurouss Hilll for a week and live in this kind of pig nest-like environment, and I will bear it! But why are you restricting my online shopping and ordering takeout?"

"Also! What good food can I eat for a food standard of fifty Dollar a day? What if I am malnourished during this period? What if I eat waste oil and cause heavy metal poisoning?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said, "Auntie, is Don Albertt by your side? You turn on the speakerphone and I will tell him."

Cynthia immediately turned on the speaker, and Charlie Wade said: "Don Albertt, can you hear me?"

Don Albertt's voice soon came: "Master Wade, I am here. Just give your orders!"

Charlie Wade gave a hum and said, "My aunt, her temper is still too strong!"

Having said that, he sighed and said, "Let's do it, reduce her daily food standard from fifty Dollar to thirty Dollar. If she is still not satisfied, reduce it to twenty or ten Dollar. It's really not good, one day. Five Dollar is also fine, two Dollar for steamed buns, one Dollar for pickled mustard, and the remaining two Dollar for some other tooth-fighting sacrifices!"

Don Albertt laughed out immediately: "Good Master Wade, I see!"

Cynthia suddenly collapsed, crying and said, "Charlie Wade, what do you mean?! If you don't want to add a little bit to me, just forget it, why you deduct me 20 Dollar?!"

Charlie Wade said, "Auntie, I'm all for your own good. Let you work hard, so that you can gain a little more experience and lessons after returning to society. But I think you are really insincere. The ancients said, The sky will descend to the people of Sri Lanka, you must first suffer from your mind, your muscles, and your body. Since you are not sincere and so stubborn, then I will increase my efforts to make you a better one soon. Pure people!"

Chapter 1957

Cynthia really didn't expect that what Don Albertt said before turned out to be true.

I wanted to find Charlie Wade's preferential treatment conditions, but she didn't expect that not only did Charlie Wade ignore her, but also directly lowered her daily food standard from fifty Dollar to thirty Dollar.

At this moment, she experienced the same pain as the Lady Wilson at this time.

I knew it would be such a result, so why bother to pretend to be this?

Don Albertt glanced at Cynthia, who was crying, and sneered, "What am I talking about? I said Master Wade will definitely lower your food standards. You just don't believe it. Have you taken it now?"

Cynthia was black and did not speak.

She dared not speak anymore.

Because she knew that she said so many mistakes, maybe she said a few more words, every day she really has to eat steamed buns and pickles. Seeing that she didn't dare to do it again, Don Albertt smiled and said, "Ms. Wade is here to enjoy the good time for seven days. There is nothing wrong, I will leave first."

Cynthia glared at Don Albertt fiercely. Seeing Don Albertt leaving the room, she couldn't help but burst into tears.

She immediately took out her cell phone and sent a video call to Lord Wade, the master Wade who was far away in Eastcliff.

As soon as the video went through, Cynthia cried and said, "Dad! Charlie Wade, this bastard humiliated me in every possible way! Look at what he did to me!"

With that, she switched cameras and took pictures of the situation in the room.

Lord Wade didn't expect that Charlie Wade would be so cruel to his own aunt. He directly arranged such a difficult environment for her, and he was somewhat dissatisfied in his heart.

He sighed: "Charlie Wade is indeed a bit overdone. Anyway, you are also his aunt..."

As he said, Lord Wade sighed again and said seriously: "However, Charlie Wade is of great use to the Wade family now, and nothing else, as long as he returns to the Wade family and marries the Sun family's daughter, the Wade family's strength is immediately It can go up a lot! If he can handle the Banks Family girl, it will be even more perfect..."

Hearing his father's sigh, Cynthia suddenly thought of what Charlie Wade had said to her on the helicopter.

He said that the eight heavenly kings of the Webb family died in his hands;

He said that Orrin was dyingly ill, but was reborn because of him;

He even said that a series of earth-shattering events that happened to the three major families in Japan some time ago were all personally done by him..

In this way, Charlie Wade's strength is likely to far exceed everyone's cognition..

Thinking of this, Cynthia twitched in his heart, and murmured: "These things must never let her father know! Otherwise, he will pay more attention to Charlie Wade's bastard! I, Cynthia, can't let him return to the Wade family by saying anything. ! Otherwise, once this kid returns to the Wade Family, there will be no place for me to stand in the Wade Family!"

So Cynthia immediately said: "Dad, let me tell you the truth, Charlie Wade is a cold-blooded animal without affection! You think he is of the Wade family's blood, and you want him to return to the Wade family, but he doesn't leave his body at all. The family's blood is in the eyes. He can treat me like this aunt. If we return to the Wade family, let's make him a little bit dissatisfied, then he wants to bring the whole Wade family into trouble. ?"

Lord Wade became silent all of a sudden.

Cynthia's words also made him a little alert.

Everyone hopes that their subordinates can have a viable general, but the first thing to consider is a very realistic issue, which is whether they can suppress the opponent.

Chapter 1958

What Charlie Wade did today, in Lord Wade's view, was indeed a bit too much.

Even if Cynthia went to his mother-in-law without authorization, he had the fault first, as Cynthia's nephew, he shouldn't do this to his aunt. He even forced his aunt to live in Aurouss Hilll Shanty Village for a week.

It can be seen that the Wade Family wants to tame Charlie Wade, let Charlie Wade re-identify his ancestors and return to the clan, and use it for the Wade Family. It is definitely not as easy as imagined. Therefore, this matter must not be rushed, otherwise, it may be counterproductive.

After Lord Wade wanted to understand this, he opened his mouth and said: "Cynthia, after all, this matter is your fault first, so even if Charlie Wade is indeed a bit too much, but you don't need to completely turn your face with Charlie Wade. Let's be aggrieved. We will discuss this matter in the future."

Cynthia secretly breathed a sigh of relief and hurriedly said: "I know Dad, I can't accompany you during this time, especially during the New Year, I can't pay you a New Year..."

Lord Wade smiled slightly: "These are all trivial things, don't worry, dad is waiting for you to come back."

"Okay!" Cynthia nodded to the video camera while wiping tears.

At this time, in Lord Wade's picture, the eldest son, Corran, stepped in and said a little anxiously: "Dad, I have a message."

Lord Wade frowned: "What news?"

Corran said: "I heard that the Banks Family is buying all kinds of masters across Asia, and the price is very high. An ordinary martial arts master will give tens of millions a year to a martial arts master. Calculated in 100 million a year, it is estimated that the cost of investing in this alone will be over 10 billion. Many top players who have retired from the arena are planning to return to the arena!"

Lord Wade asked in surprise: "Why are they making such a big move?"

Corran said: "Maybe it is to quickly make up for the loss of combat power in Japan. I heard that dozens of masters in the Banks Family have been sued by the Japanese prosecutors. No one of these masters are likely to escape from prison."

Lord Wade nodded, he knew very well how important combat power is to the top family.

Take what happened to the Banks Family in Japan this time. If it weren't for their own large reserves of masters, it would be impossible to send nearly a hundred martial arts masters to Japan overnight.

What's more advantageous is that when this master arrives in Japan, he can directly destroy the Matsumoto family with the attitude of a strong dragon slashing the ground with a snake.

These masters, without guns,, and bare hands, can burst out powerful combat effectiveness.

As long as you have a passport and visa, you can enter and leave any country at any time and maintain combat effectiveness at all times. Such a person is the most important support for a large family to fight overseas.

The combat effectiveness of guns is certainly strong, but no family can transport people with guns from one country to another.

Therefore, assassins who use guns have a severely limited combat effectiveness. Once they need to go overseas to perform missions without guns, they will almost lose their usefulness.

And the martial arts masters raised by top big families? Even in the country with the strictest gun control in the world, they can still guarantee combat effectiveness. This is the important point of masters.

Corran said to Lord Wade again at this time: "I heard that Zara, the eldest lady of the Banks Familyy, has been investigating a mysterious person across the country since she returned from Japan. The Banks Family even secretly offered a one billion price tag. To find information about this person."

"Oh?" Lord Wade asked in amazement: "What is this person's background? Is it the enemy of the Banks Familyy?"

"No." Corran said: "I heard that it seems to be Zara and Fitz's lifesaver!"

Chapter 1959

"Fitz's savior?!"

Hearing these words, the old man Wade suddenly asked in surprise: "Is that the mysterious person I mentioned at the beginning?"

"Yes!" Corran nodded, "There was a rumors back then that Zara and her brother were saved by a mysterious man when they were in Japan."

Elder Wade asked again: "The mysterious man saved their siblings in Japan, and Zara and the Banks Familyy are looking for clues to him in China. Is this mysterious man a native of China?!"

Corran said: "It looks like this! Otherwise, there is no need for the Banks Familyy to find a mysterious person in Japan who has appeared in Japan. Isn't that a boat for a sword?"

Elder Wade suddenly became excited!

He said excitedly: "No matter who the mysterious person is, at least one thing is certain. The strength of that mysterious person is absolutely so powerful that we can't understand it, or even incredible!"

"Yes!" Corran also sighed: "He can kill multiple Iga Ninjas and rescue Zara and Fitz with his own power. This person's strength is absolutely against the sky!"

Elder Wade blurted out: "If such a talent can be used by the Wade Family, what fear will the Wade Family have in the future!"

After that, he immediately said to Corran: "Corran, you quickly order, closely monitor the progress of the Banks Familyy, and do everything possible to find this mysterious person before the Banks Familyy. If you can't get ahead, then At least you have to do your best to draw that mysterious person to our Wade family!"

Corran nodded: "I know Dad!"

At this time, Cynthia, who had been silent in the video, had a very strange expression.

She suddenly remembered what Charlie Wade had said to herself before.

Could it be that the mysterious person the Banks Familyy was looking for was him? !

Thinking of this, she felt a chill in her back!

If Charlie Wade is really that mysterious person, then she can't let him return to Wade's house!

Originally from the Wade family's blood, and there was a marriage contract with Miss Sun's family, these two trump cards were enough for Charlie Wade to exchange for a very high status in the Wade family.

If he had the identity of this mysterious master again, he would be invincible. At that time, she would be driven out of the Wade Family! Just when Cynthia was thinking about it, Lord Wade gave Corran's instructions, and when he looked at the phone, he found that Cynthia had a strange expression, and asked in surprise: "Cynthia, what's wrong with you?"

Cynthia hurriedly said, "Ah, Dad, I'm fine, I was thinking about something just now."

Lord Wade nodded and sighed: "After you have gone, you can rest early, and stay in Aurouss Hilll for a few days. When you come back, Dad will pick you up!"

Cynthia hurriedly said, "Thank you Dad, I see!"

After hanging up the video, Cynthia couldn't help being afraid for a while.

At this moment, she really regretted it.

I shouldn't have come to Aurouss Hilll to take a trip to this muddy water. Before I came, I never thought that Charlie Wade would be such a hard bone to chew, and I didn't expect that his nephew seemed to be a highly hidden top master!

If I had known this before, if I killed myself, I would never come.

Before Cynthia came, she didn't regard Charlie Wade as an enemy. She just felt that Charlie Wade was just an heir left behind by the Wade Family. Letting him go home would be a gift to him.

Moreover, after such people go back, they can only serve as the flag of the family, and they cannot pose any threat to themselves.

But after coming to Aurouss Hilll, she really realized that the bones of her nephew, who hadn't seen each other in more than ten years, were as hard as her second brother.

At this time, Cynthia slandered in his heart: "If Charlie Wade is just like the second brother, it's okay to say. What's more terrifying is that the second brother was a scholar who had hard bones, but his fists were not hard."

"And what about Charlie Wade?"

"Not only the bones are harder, but the fists are harder!"

Chapter 1960

"It seems that in the future, I will stay away from him as much as possible! Try not to let him have the opportunity to return to the Wade family!"

.....

At this moment.

Eastcliff, Banks' Family.

Zara sat in front of the computer in the study, looking at the information gathered from all over the country.

Since returning from Japan, whether Zara opened her eyes or closed her eyes, Charlie Wade was all in her mind.

She has trouble sleeping and eating all day because of Charlie Wade.

However, she didn't tell anyone else what she was thinking, even her brother or her mother.

What she originally wanted was to use her energy to find the mysterious person who saved her, and then thank him in person.

However, she tried for several days without finding any valuable clues.

Immediately afterwards, in order to quickly replenish the missing strength of the Banks Familyy, Grandpa Banks decided to search for a new group of masters at all costs.

Zara immediately recommended the mysterious person to her grandfather. In her words at the time, if the Banks Family could find this mysterious person, this person would definitely be able to use one enemy against one hundred, which would increase the Banks Family's strike power dramatically!

Lord Banks was naturally overjoyed and immediately instructed Zara to find the mysterious man at all costs.

However, there is no way to find out the information of that mysterious person.

The Banks Family's informants have inquired from various sources in China and Japan, and no one has ever heard of such a powerful expert. There is a huge roster among the martial arts masters.

Basically, there are top masters who have learned from, have a background, and are well-known.

However, Charlie Wade is not a person in martial arts, so he is not known to them at all.

In this way, it will be more difficult for the martial artist to figure out his relevant information.

What's more, there are almost none in the martial arts masters at this stage that fit the kind of strength Zara described.

Domestic martial arts masters are not weaker than Japanese ninjas, and some people are even stronger than Japanese ninjas, but there is really no one who can face just a few ninjas and can completely wipe out the enemy and himself. Unharmed.

Zara's bitter search has no results, so he wants to find all the entry and exit records of the most recent period from the Japanese customs, and then make a selection based on nationality and approximate age group. However, since the Banks Family committed the killing of the door in Japan, the Japanese Homeland Security Department has imposed a lot of stricter customs control over it.

In the past, the Banks Family could easily obtain the entry and exit records of the whole of Japan, but now, they can't get the least information even after racking their brains.

Zara also wondered whether the mysterious master was a Chinese descent who settled in Japan. In that case, he might not be found in the immigration information.

However, Zara was unwilling to stand still, so she decided to start with a better-operated domestic.

While searching for clues about mysterious people in China, she is also doing everything possible to break through the layers of supervision in Japan, and strive to obtain Japan's entry and exit records and even immigration records as soon as possible.

However, Japan's data blockade is a bit strict, and it will be difficult to break through for a while.

When she was at a loss, a female friend who had a close relationship in Japan called her and said to her: "Zara, I can't get the entry and exit information and immigration records from Japan for the time being, but I found you a curvilinear way to save the country. Whether this method is feasible depends on whether you have patience!"

Zara blurted out, "You can tell me what the answer is, I have patience! Even if it is a needle in a haystack, I will find him!"

The other party smiled and said, "That's right. Although Japan's homeland security department has blocked customs records, it has not blocked the video surveillance of the airport. In addition to uploading it to the customs, I have also kept a copy of all the video surveillance of the airport. There is a way to get you a copy. If you have the patience to look for it bit by bit from countless surveillance videos in several airports, you may be able to find the clues of your lifesaver!"

Chapter 1961

Zara knows that entry and exit records are confidential customs documents, but airport surveillance is not.

Therefore, she secretly thought in her heart: "If you have returned home from Japan by plane, then he will not be able to bypass the surveillance video at Japanese airports. As long as I read the video carefully, I will definitely be able to find his trace."

"It's just that the workload may be very huge..."

"Besides, my elder brother and I are the only ones who have met my benefactor, so at most I let my brother come to help me. Others can't help if they want to."

Thinking of this, although Zara felt that the opportunity was a little slim, she still didn't want to give up. She immediately said, "please help me get the copy as soon as possible, and then send it to me using the Banks Family's exclusive network."

Massive data is very troublesome to transmit. Ordinary networks want to transmit surveillance videos from several airports and a large number of cameras for several days. I am afraid that optical transmission will take several months.

However, the top family like the Banks Family has its own dedicated network and large data server, and the transmission speed is extremely fast, and it can all be transmitted in a day or two.

The other party immediately agreed and said: "I'll let someone sort it out, and I will start sending you the data tomorrow."

With that, she couldn't help reminding Zara: "Zara, so many surveillance videos, it may take a long time to watch them all, and if your savior does not return from Japan in the end, all you put in Your energy will be lost; if you make a little mistake or miss your lifesaver among the millions of passengers, then your energy will be wasted, so before you start, you must first Think about it."

Zara smiled slightly: "These are not problems! Even if you want to watch a year's surveillance video in front of the computer, I will definitely stick to it."

The other party sighed helplessly, and said, "Oh, well, it's the Zara I know. You have this kind of unstoppable energy for not reaching the goal, which I will never learn in my life... .."

Zara smiled and said: "That's because you haven't encountered anything that can make you fail to achieve your goal and swear not to give up. If you do, you will be like me."

The other party laughed and joked: "What? You think your life-saver, as a prince charming?"

Zara chuckled and said, "Prince Charming is nothing but a horseback rider. My lifesaver, can do much better than Prince Charming!"

"Tsk tsk tsk..." The other party kept smacking his lips, and said with emotion: "Then I congratulate you as soon as possible for finding your savior, and by the way, you will also solve the major marital affairs. If this is the case, it will take more Time and energy to find him is not a loss, after all, it is a great thing that kills two birds with one stone and kills two birds with one stone, perfect!"

Zara actually blushed on the phone and blurted out: "What are you talking about! I just want to find a savior and thank him in person!"

"I don't believe you!" The other party grinned and said, "If it's just to thank you, didn't you say thank you when someone saved you?"

Zara replied with some embarrassment: "What I said at the time..."

They said: "Since I said thank you at that time, why bother to find people out at this time? Is it really to say thank you in person again?"

Zara said with a little shame: "In fact, it's not just to thank you. The family is also looking for some top masters to cooperate. I think this is a good opportunity to kill two birds with one stone. Not only can I thank him in person, but also help. Families match up to see if the two parties have a chance to cooperate."

The other party smiled and said: "If you want to do this, you will have three birds with one stone. Not only can you thank you in person, you can also cooperate with your family, and you can even hire a good son-in-law for your family!"

Zara felt her cheeks become a bit hot immediately, and couldn't help but angrily said: "You really can't vomit ivory from your dog's mouth. I won't talk nonsense with you, you quickly give me the information and prepare, and then I will start screening!"

Only then did the other party stop teasing, and said seriously: "I'll make arrangements, but today it's twenty-eighth Chinese New Year, and the next night is New Year's Eve. Your family has so many rules during Chinese New Year. Can you get over it?"

Zara said: "If you are too busy, you have to be busy. You should prepare for me as soon as possible. Don't delay."

"okay, I get it."

.....

Chapter 1962

Charlie Wade didn't know that Zara was doing everything possible to find himself at this time.

He focused his attention on the preparations for the new year's goods. This is the Spring Festival that Charlie Wade has most anticipated since his parents passed away.

In the previous years, he had a hard time, and the Spring Festival was no different from usual. Not only did he not enjoy the warmth of family, but he felt sad because other people were reuniting with their families.

After marrying Claire Wilson Wilson, he has no interest in Chinese New Year, because in the past, the whole family of Wilson family celebrated the New Year together, and Charlie Wade was naturally the object of everyone's sarcasm. He would be humiliated every time at the New Year's Eve dinner.

In contrast, this year's situation is much better, so this has become the Spring Festival that Charlie Wade has most anticipated in his heart since his parents passed away.

Early the next morning, the new year was twenty-nine.

The family ate at the dining table together. Charlie Wade listed all the items to be purchased to his wife and father-in-law, and made some adjustments based on everyone's opinions, and got a finalized version.

Because Elaine Ma's leg broke again, and Claire Wilson Wilson still insisted on finishing the last day's work, Charlie Wade and Jacob Wilson became responsible buyers.

Jacob Wilson and son-in-law prepared, and after breakfast, they went out to the supermarket to purchase together.

Claire Wilson Wilson finished his breakfast and stood up and said, "Husband, Dad, Mom, I have to go to the company. Today is the last working day before the holiday. I have to sort out the situation of some projects at hand, and then give the employees. Let's have a meeting and send out a New Year red envelope."

Elaine Ma murmured from the side, "What red envelopes do the employees send out? Haven't they all been paid?"

Claire Wilson Wilson said earnestly: "Everyone has worked hard for the projects at hand for a long time. How can you not send a red envelope at the end of the year? Not only red envelopes, but also year-end awards."

Elaine Ma felt distressed and said, "This money can be saved obviously, and I have to send it to outsiders. I really don't know how to say it!"

Charlie Wade said at this time: "Mom, the company relies solely on the employees to work hard to get better and better. Seeing the New Year, if the boss did not express anything at first, the employees would be chilled by her. After the end of the year, when I come back and propose to resign, doesn't this company fail to function?"

Jacob Wilson also agreed at this time: "My son-in-law was right. You mother-in-law is going to die. If you really want you to be the boss, you must be more ruthless than that week!"

Elaine Ma glared at him: "Jacob Wilson, did you just have a mouth? You can try one more thing, the Lady can still scratch your old face with a lame leg!"

Jacob Wilson shrank his neck in fright, and said angrily: "I don't bother to argue with you!"

Claire Wilson Wilson shook his head helplessly, and said, "Okay, dad, go shopping with Charlie Wade. I have to go to work, too."

"Okay." Jacob Wilson nodded and said: "You go first, we will go in a while."

As he was talking, there was a door bell outside, and Jacob Wilson opened the video intercom and saw a few middle-aged men in suits standing in front of the camera.

The leader said respectfully: "Excuse me, is Master Wade at home?"

It was Don Albertt who spoke.

And beside him, there are Cameron Isaac, Mr. Quinton, Mr. White and Liam. There seemed to be a few people behind him, but Jacob Wilson couldn't see clearly, he could only see that there were men and women, old and young. So, he hurriedly said to Charlie Wade: "My son-in-law, a lot of people with good looks have come to you!"

Chapter 1963

Charlie Wade had heard Don Albertt's voice through the speakers of the intercom system.

He didn't expect that Don Albertt would come to his home at this time, and listening to the meaning of the old man's words, it seemed that he was not the only one.

So he got up and said: "Dad, I'll go open the door."

Claire Wilson Wilson asked in amazement, "Charlie Wade, wouldn't it be the big figures who came to you to see Feng Shui?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "It must be them. Only they call me Master Wade."

Claire Wilson Wilson shook his head helplessly, and said jokingly, "Master Wade, I think you are Trickster Wade, it's almost the same!"

Charlie Wade raised his eyebrows: "It's also an ability to convince others who can fool you!"

After all, he stepped out and walked through the courtyard to the door. The door opened, and Charlie Wade was stunned by the sight in front of him.

It turned out that Don Albertt, Cameron Isaac, Mr. Quinton, Mr. White and Liam were not the only ones at the door.

Mr. Quinton also brought Aurora and Steven Quinton;

Mr. White also took Gerald White and Fred White;

The red-faced old man Moore unexpectedly came with Jasmine and Rueben.

The radiant old man Dr. Simmons also took his granddaughter Xyla to stand beside him.

Even Travis Lane, the richest man in Lancaster, rushed over with Charlie Wade's good brother Caleb at the orphanage, and Caleb, now Travis Lane's driver and assistant with an annual salary of several million, has become a favorite of Travis Lane's side people.

With so many people, they drove dozens of cars, large and small, to park up the large road at the door of Thompson First A05.

Before Charlie Wade came back to his senses, everyone at the same time clasped their fists to Charlie Wade and shouted respectfully: "Hello Master Wade!"

With so many people shouting together, everyone in the entire villa area was shocked. Many people have already walked out of the terrace to check what happened.

When they saw so many top luxury cars, so many Aurouss Hilll and Lancaster big figures gathered at the door of the a05 villa, they were all stunned!

At this time, the Lady Wilson, who had been hungry all night, heard the movement and hurried to the second floor terrace.

The terrace on the second floor was in the room where Christopher and Harold lived. Wendy and Hannah were also here to take care of them at this time. Hearing the movement outside, Wendy and Hannah had already taken a step ahead of the Lady to take a look on the terrace.

When they saw so many savvy people at the door of Charlie Wade's house, Wendy and Hannah's expressions were so ugly and ugly.

At this time, the Lady also walked up and asked in surprise: "Why are there so many cars? What are you doing?"

Hannah said sourly, "Didn't you see it? They all went to the Charlie Wade's family for New Year's greetings. Many of them were big people. I just saw that there was the Moore family's father and Travis Lane, the richest man in Lancaster."

Wendy said with red eyes, "I saw Mr. White! And Brother Gerald..."

Gerald White, in the earliest days, was Wendy's fiance.

At that time, Charlie Wade was still the smelly silk in everyone's eyes, and Gerald White was the future good son-in-law who was content with the entire Wilson family.

Wendy watched that she was about to marry into the White's family, and she was also arrogant and unlike every day.

At that time, Wendy was at the peak of her life.

However, not long after, Mr. White, the head of the White family, directly annulled the marriage contract between Wendy and Gerald White.

Chapter 1964

Although Wendy had been with Gerald White desperately for several years, and she was pregnant with his child, she was still left clean by Gerald White.

Later, Wendy became the concubine and plaything of Kenneth Wilson and Jeffrey Weaver. Following them, instead of getting much benefit, she suffered a lot of crimes and ruined her reputation.

The current Wendy was even more miserable. Although she was still living in this luxurious Thompson First villa, she was hungry all night, but she didn't even have the money to eat breakfast.

In this case, seeing Gerald White again, all kinds of scenes from that year appeared before her eyes, which made her feel extremely sad.

In a short while, Wendy's eyes were filled with tears, and then two lines of tears burst into her eyes.

She couldn't help but choked softly: "Brother Gerald...why did you not want me...Brother Gerald...what did I do wrong to make you leave so desperately? I... Brother Gerald..."

Speaking of this, Wendy was already crying!

Seeing her daughter cry like this, Hannah was of course very distressed deep in her heart. She gently embraced her and comforted her: "Wendy, believe mom, you will definitely find a better man than Gerald White in the future!"

Wendy cried and said, "How could it be possible...My reputation is completely bad now. When people talk about me, they are just a joke, mocking me for not loving enough, and being Kenneth Wilson, a man older than my dad. Wilson, he threw me to Jeffrey Weaver after he was done..." Having said that, Wendy turned around and glared at the complicated Wilson Lady, and said angrily: "It's all to blame you! It's all to the dead Lady! You forced me to seduce Kenneth Wilson! If it wasn't for you, My reputation cannot be broken! If it weren't for you, Brother Gerald and I might still have a chance! You ruined me!"

Lady Wilson was taken aback by Wendy's angry roar, she stepped back subconsciously, and said, "How can you blame me for this? Didn't you agree with Kenneth Wilson?"

Wendy scolded: "You fart! If you didn't force me, how could I agree?! You just want to use Kenneth Wilson in exchange for investment! You just want to sell my body in exchange for prosperity and wealth!"

Lady Wilson said angrily: "Wendy! You have to rely on your conscience! In this matter, can I benefit from it alone?"

After that, she pointed to Hannah and said angrily: "Don't forget, Kenneth Wilson gave you five million back at the beginning, but in the end it was cheaper for your parents! If you really want to say who betrayed your body in exchange for Wealth, I can only count one! Your parents must also be included! You must also be included!"

Hannah's expression suddenly became very ugly.

Although Mrs. Wilson's words were harsh, what she said was indeed the truth.

At the beginning, whether it was the Lady Wilson, Hannah and Christopher, they all liked Kenneth Wilson's ability and wealth.

Therefore, together they persuaded Wendy to enter Kenneth Wilson's room in the middle of the night. And Wendy was not completely forced, to be more precise, half-push half-step.

She broke up with Gerald White at the time, and the family's economic situation continued to deteriorate. She herself had long been dissatisfied with those poor days. Therefore, mixing with Kenneth Wilson was partly because of her own vanity.

Wendy was also blushing at this time. she knows. Everyone is responsible for this matter, including themselves. Just like a proverb, in an avalanche, no snowflake is innocent. Thinking of this, she also lost the idea of continuing to entangle with Mrs. Wilson, squatting on the ground and crying.

Lady Wilson ignored her, but looked at the big luxury car at the door of Charlie Wade's house and the large group of big people in the upper class, and her heart was so sad..

Hannah also had a taste in her heart! She thought that Charlie Wade had sent herself to the black coal kiln, and she was even more angry.

So he gritted his teeth and cursed: "Isn't Charlie Wade just a liar? What the hell! Master Wade, master his grandmother! How come so many big people believe him? Really blind Their dog eyes!"

The Lady Wilson sighed deeply, and said with extreme regret and despair: "Hey!!! I knew Charlie Wade would have what it is today, and I wouldn't have driven the family out of what I said back then! What a blind me! My dog's eyes!"

Chapter 1965

At this moment, at the entrance of Villa A05.

Charlie Wade looked at the crowd and asked with a bit of surprise: "Why are you all here?"

Don Albertt smiled and said at this time: "Master Wade, the Chinese New Year will be coming soon. Everyone is thinking of coming to you in advance and giving you some new year goods by the way."

Cameron Isaac also nodded and said: "Master Wade, everyone is afraid that taking turns will delay your time, so after negotiating in private, just come over together!"

Mr. Quinton echoed at this time: "Master Wade, everyone has prepared some small gifts for you, and I hope you don't dislike it!"

"Yes!" Mr. White also said hurriedly: "Master Wade, you are a person with great supernatural powers. If we are ordinary people like us, if the gifts prepared by ordinary people can't enter the eyes of your law, I hope you don't mind!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and said: "You still remember me, I am already very grateful, you don't have to spend money on me."

Lord Mooore, stepped forward at this time and said seriously: "Master Wade, you have the kindness to reinvent us. On the occasion of the Chinese New Year, we should be prepared to pay a visit. It is reasonable."

Charlie Wade arched his hands: "Master Moore, you are interested!"

Jasmine, standing next to Lord Mooore, wore a Chinese-style cheongsam jacket today, which vividly set off the hot figure and showed her feminine temperament impeccably.

Having not seen Charlie Wade for many days, Jasmine missed him very much in her heart. When she saw Charlie Wade's eyes look at her, her pretty face suddenly became red.

What she thought of in her mind was the scene where she was in the car and gave her first kiss to Charlie Wade.

When she thought of this, her face became even more red. In order to divert her attention, she hurriedly replied with shame: "Master Wade, Jasmine, wishes you a happy new year in advance!"

Aurora said not to be outdone: "Master Wade, Coach Wade, Aurora also wishes you a Happy New Year in advance, and I wish you all the best in the new year!"

Xyla hurriedly said: "Master Wade...Xyla...Xyla also wishes you a Happy New Year..."

Jasmine understood at this moment that the two little girls actually belonged to Charlie Wade.

At this moment, she couldn't help but sigh in her heart.

She knew very well that it was a very tormenting thing to like a married man like Charlie Wade. It seemed that these two little girls, like themselves, suffered from lovesickness to Charlie Wade.

With a smile on his face, Charlie Wade expressed gratitude to the three ladies one by one.

Later, Travis Lane brought Caleb over. Travis Lane put his hands together and said respectfully: "Master Wade, since the last time you took your Rejuvenation Pill, this body has become stronger and stronger. Thanks to you for everything! Grateful!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "Mr. Lane doesn't have to be so polite, after all, the Rejuvenating Pill was taken by you with your strength, so don't thank me.

When Caleb saw Charlie Wade at this time, his heart had already been overwhelmed.

Ever since Charlie Wade introduced himself to Travis Lane as a driver and assistant, Caleb has deeply realized that Charlie Wade is extraordinary. However, he really didn't expect Charlie Wade's strength to be so strong. My boss made a special trip to drive to Aurouss Hilll to give Charlie Wade a New Year gift. This shocked him a bit, but after he came, he realized that the scene was even more shocking!

In Aurouss Hilll, there are almost all figures with faces and faces! Moreover, they all showed such humility in front of Charlie Wade one by one, this scene is really staggering!

It was precisely because of the shock in his heart that Caleb felt a little flustered when facing Charlie Wade.

Charlie Wade looked at Caleb at this time and said with a smile, "Caleb, how is everything going well recently?"

Chapter 1966

Caleb hurriedly said, "Master Wade, everything is fine with me lately! Thanks to you and Mr. Lane for taking care of you!"

When Charlie Wade heard this, he couldn't help getting serious, and said seriously: "Caleb, everyone present can call me Master Wade, but you can't!"

Caleb said awkwardly, "Wade...I...hey...including Mr. Lane, so many people respect you so much, how can I make an exception... .."

Charlie Wade walked up to him, patted him on the shoulder, and said very solemnly: "Caleb, they call me Master Wade because I have helped them more or less, but you Caleb is different!"

Caleb hurriedly said: "I... I am also today thanks to your help... The help you brought to me is earth-shaking, and I have to respect you more than others."

Charlie Wade said with a somewhat displeased expression: "Don't be fooling around with me! The two of us grew up in the orphanage together. Although we were not born by the same mother, in those years in the orphanage, we two There is no difference between an individual and a brother!"

"After so many years, you and I supported each other, depended on each other, and shared weal and woe. I helped you. It was the brothers who pulled each other out. Why are you polite with me?"

When Caleb heard these words, he felt ashamed in his heart as he was grateful.

He thought to himself: "I was always afraid that I would not be able to climb Charlie Wade, so I became more and more sincere and frightened in front of him, but the more so, the more alienated I and him, but Charlie Wade has always regarded me as a brother. , If I treat him with respect and respect like a servant, he must be very uncomfortable..."

Thinking of this, Caleb stared at it and said, "Charlie Wade, brother got it, brother, thank you!"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly and nodded: "This is the brother of Charlie Wade. If you call me Master Wade next time, I will break your friendship directly!"

Caleb hurriedly said, "Charlie Wade, don't worry, I will never call you Master Wade again. You Charlie Wade is not a Master Wade in front of me, you are my Caleb's brother, my Caleb's brother for life!"

Charlie Wade nodded lightly, and said with satisfaction: "I am so happy to have you!"

At this time, Jacob Wilson and Claire Wilson Wilson also walked out. The two felt that if Charlie Wade's customers came to visit at home, of course they had to do a good job of hospitality, so they quickly cleaned up the living room at home and came out to invite the guests in to sit for a while.

But after they came out, the two people discovered that there were obviously more people outside than they expected!

What is even more frightening is that these people are almost all of Aurouss Hilll's most prestigious group!

Especially when she saw Jasmine, Claire Wilson Wilson suddenly felt a little inferior. She knew Jasmine was also outside, so she had to put on makeup before coming out.

Usually, Claire Wilson Wilson goes out without makeup, seldom puts on makeup, and is not so elegant in dress, and today is no exception. So, in front of Jasmine who was dressed up, she suddenly seemed a little bleak.

Jacob Wilson knew that his son-in-law was very capable now, and that his clients were all big shots, so seeing so many big shots made him feel nothing.

However, when he saw Dr. Simmons, Jacob Wilson hurriedly greeted him and said respectfully: "Oh, genius Dr. Simmons, you are here too! You are a life-saver, I should go down to pay you a New Year greeting..."

Dr. Simmons couldn't help feeling a little embarrassed, because he knew very well that the high paraplegia caused by Jacob Wilson's car accident was cured by Charlie Wade with magical medicine, and he had nothing to do with him.

Therefore, Jacob Wilson respected him so much that he couldn't help being embarrassed, and hurriedly said: "Mr. Wilson, you are too polite. Master Wade has the kindness of remaking someone, so I should come to visit him next time!"

At this time, Don Albertt stepped up and hugged Jacob Wilson. He bowed slightly and said respectfully: "Hello, Mr. Wilson! Albert is here. I wish you a happy New Year in advance!"

Jacob Wilson had several contacts with Don Albertt in Heaven Springs, and he had already been very familiar with each other, so he smiled and said, "You are polite, Don Albertt, and I wish you a happy new year!"

Don Albertt was very flattered and said: "If you can't do it, you can call me Albert, Mr. Wilson when you talk to me you call me Albert!"

Jacob Wilson was very proud of his heart, and secretly said: "Oh, my old Wilson has such a great face now?! Even the underground emperor of Aurouss Hilll, Don Albertt, is respectful and respectful in front of my old Wilson, is it worth it?! Moreover, if so many big people come to pay New Year's greetings today, if it spreads out, I don't know how many people will have their jaw dropped!"

Chapter 1967

In order not to neglect the guests, Charlie Wade invited everyone into the villa.

Everyone also hurriedly asked the accompanying people to take out the prepared gifts from the car, and then saw at least twenty or thirty people, holding various high-end gift boxes, lined up into the villa. Not far away, the Lady Wilson from Villa A04, her eyes straightened, and her mouth muttered: "This battle, which is an ordinary gift? This is simply the posture of officials from all over the ancient times lining up to pay tribute to the emperor! "

Hannah felt so uncomfortable and uncomfortable, she said: "This group of people are both rich and expensive. The gifts they give can not add up to 100 million?"

Wendy muttered with red eyes, "I'm afraid I can't stop one hundred million. Mr. White just gave away a villa and it cost more than one hundred million"

"Hey..." The Lady Wilson said with an extremely painful expression: "I can't do it anymore, I can't see it anymore, and I'll have a heart attack if I look at it..."

After speaking, he turned and entered the room.

Hannah said angrily: "I look at it, hey."

Wendy didn't say a word, seeing Gerald White following Mr. White into Charlie Wade's villa, she felt even more uncomfortable.

Harold was lying on the bed and wailing: "Mom...grandma...if you don't get something to eat, I will starve to death...you can't look at me. The wounded was lying in bed hungry. Donald's men didn't beat me and Dad to death. It seems that we are going to starve to death at home!"

Lady Wilson hurriedly said: "Wendy, didn't you say that you are going out to find a job today? Go out and have a look!"

After finishing speaking, she stared at Hannah again, blurted out:

"Hannah! You have to find a job to support your family!"

Hannah nodded, and said with a bit of anger: "I can go, but this house can't support idlers, you have to go if I go!"

"Me?!" Lady Wilson's speech was not smooth anymore, and she said angrily, "I...I'm so old...you let me go out to find a job?!"

Hannah asked her back: "Why? What's so great about being older? You don't need to eat when you are older? If you make it clear that you don't need to eat, then you don't need to go out to work. Go to the north bedroom to open the window and open your mouth. Wait to drink Northwest Wind!"

"You...you fart!" The Lady Wilson was furious: "I'm so old and don't let me eat. You are trying to force me to death!"

Hannah said with a cold face: "The situation at home is so miserable now, anyone must find a way to make money to support the family. Christopher and Harold are now injured. They can be temporarily exempted, but you can't!"

The Lady Wilson angrily said, "It turned you back! It turned you back! I am so old, and you have to force me to work! You are killing me! Why did our Wilson family marry you? A wolf-hearted daughter-in-law! God has eyes, and a sky thunder should drop you to death!"

Hannah sneered and said, "Don't be haggling with me. I won't force you if you don't go out to work, but I won't be able to support you if I make money. You can do it yourself!"

Lady Wilson didn't dare to pretend to be forced at this time, and said embarrassedly: "We can't all go to work for the three of us, we have to leave one person to take care of Christopher and Harold."

Hannah said: "It's even more inappropriate for you to take care of them. They are now paralyzed in bed. You don't even have the strength to turn them over. What's the use of staying?"

With that said, Hannah looked at Wendy and said, "Wendy, or else you stay and take care of your dad and your brother, and I will go out with your grandmother to find a job."

Wendy nodded gently: "Okay..."

.....

At this time, Charlie Wade was at home.

Elaine Ma, with her right leg in a cast, was stunned by the sight in front of her.

Chapter 1968

The big man came to the house and didn't say anything, but all kinds of gifts just piled up a hill in the living room.

Her excited mouth was almost grinning behind her ears, and she couldn't wait to rush to take apart these gifts one by one, but with so many big people here, she was really embarrassed.

As Charlie Wade's most heartfelt subordinate and the initiator of this collective visit, Don Albertt took out a piece of paper from his pocket and said loudly, "Master Wade, I have a gift list here. It's over here, let me read it to you."

Before Charlie Wade spoke, Elaine Ma over there hurriedly said excitedly: "Oh, read it! Read it loudly!"

Don Albertt said hurriedly, "Ms. Elaine Ma, don't worry, I must say it louder!"

With that said, he cleared his throat and said loudly:

"Shangri-La Cameron Isaac, giving Master Wade a set of Banshan Hot Spring Resort Villas, located in the Champs Elys Hot Spring Hotel, worth 80 million!"

This sentence made Elaine Ma stunned!

Elaine Ma couldn't help but exclaimed with excitement in the depths of her heart: "My mother! One shot is a set of 80 million hot spring villas, this...this is too bright! I really want to go to the Champs tonight. Experience the beautiful hot spring villa!"

Experience the beautiful hot spring villa!"

However, immediately afterwards, Elaine Ma looked at her right leg, and muttered in her heart: "I still have a cast on my leg, so I'm afraid I won't be able to soak in the hot spring for a while? But it doesn't matter, anyway, Champs Elys Hot Springs. I won't run, and it's never too late to go when my legs are better!"

Champs Elys Spa Hotel is an industry owned by Shangri-La.

Loreen also specially invited Charlie Wade and Claire Wilson Wilson to go there.

It is the best hot spring hotel in Aurouss Hilll and even the province. The Champs Elys Spa covers a large area. The entire foot of the mountain up to the mountainside is their industry. In addition to the hot spring hotel, there are several hot spring villas that are not for sale.

These hot spring villas are all built in the middle of the mountain. The villas have excellent scenery, exquisite architecture and luxurious decoration. More importantly, these villas have natural hot spring springs, and there are hot springs throughout the year.

The only fly in the ointment is the remote location. After all, the natural hot springs are closely related to the geography and topography. The entire Champs Elys hot spring hotel is built in the mountains, too far from the city and the commuting time is too long, so it is suitable for vacations, but not for long-term living.

Claire Wilson Wilson and Jacob Wilson were also frightened by such a valuable gift, and they were all startled and speechless.

Cameron Isaac said at this time: "Master Wade, the hot spring villa sent to you has always been a non-sale item of the Champs Elys Hot Spring Hotel, and never entertains guests. The hot springs there are rich in minerals and are good for people. It has a health care function. In the future, you can often go on vacation with your lover, and uncles and aunts to relax. If you don't usually go, our professional housekeeper will also take care of the villa and daily cleaning and maintenance. It is absolutely spotless!"

After all, Cameron Isaac said again: "The keys to the villa, the real estate certificate and other related documents are all in the gift box. Please also Master Wade to accept it!"

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled slightly: "Isaac always has a heart!"

Charlie Wade really didn't think the tens of millions of hot spring villas were too valuable, especially Cameron Isaac's own assets, which was nothing to him.

Claire Wilson Wilson was a little nervous and said in Charlie Wade's ear: "Husband, how can we accept such an expensive gift..."

Charlie Wade waved his hand and faintly said: "My wife, don't worry about this. I accept their gift, and naturally I will repay them in other ways."

Don Albertt looked at Charlie Wade at this time and asked respectfully: "Master Wade, then I continue to read?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "Go on."

Chapter 1969

With Charlie Wade's approval, Don Albertt continued to speak loudly:

"Lord Mooore, gives Master Wade a luxury yacht made in Italy and Sanlorenzo!"

"Yacht?!" Elaine Ma was the first to blurt out: "What kind of yacht? What kind of ship?"

Lord Mooore said with a smile: "Ms. Elaine Ma is misunderstood.

Sanlorenzo is a veteran European luxury yacht manufacturer. This yacht is more than 20 meters long and has three decks. It is very suitable for a family trip."

Elaine Ma was stunned and said, "You can get a lot of money for such a yacht, right?"

Rueben on the side said: "Taking taxes into account, it's about 70 million Dollar."

"How much more?!"

Elaine Ma was stunned: "A ship is 70 million?! This is too scary?!"

Claire Wilson Wilson couldn't help saying, "Lord Mooore, your gift is too expensive, we really can't"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly at this moment, made a gesture, interrupted Claire Wilson Wilson's words, and smiled slightly: "My wife, this is the heart of Lord Mooore, so don't shirk it."

After that, he looked at Lord Mooore and slightly arched his hands and said, "Master Moore, I deeply thank you!"

Lord Mooore hurriedly said: "Oh, Master Wade, I dare not be it! Don't worry if you like it!"

Afterwards, he said to Charlie Wade: "The keys to the yacht and related documents are in the gift box, but the yacht is now parked at the pier of the Aurouss Hilll Yacht Association. I have bought an exclusive berth for you. If you want to drive the yacht in the future, If you travel, or even go to sea along the Yangtze River, you can directly contact the staff of the Yacht Association."

Charlie Wade nodded lightly and smiled: "I guess it won't be used for a while. I don't have a yacht driver's license, so let's talk about it when I have time to take the test."

Lord Mooore hurriedly said, "Master Wade, if you need to use a yacht, you can let Jasmine or Reuben help you drive. Both of them have a yacht driver's license."

Jasmine said shyly: "Yeah, Master Wade, if you have a need for a yacht, just tell me directly."

After that, she remembered something, and then said: "Oh, right, after the Chinese New Year, if you want to use a yacht, you can contact my brother. I will go to Japan after the Chinese New Year. It may take a while. Time will come back."

"Oh?" Charlie Wade asked curiously: "Ms. Moore is going to Japan for a trip or?"

Jasmine said hurriedly: "I'm going to talk about business. The Moore family is now preparing to get involved in the steel manufacturing industry and want to discuss some cooperation with Japan's Nippon Steel." "Nippon Steel?" Charlie Wade frowned and asked her: "Is this company strong?"

Jasmine nodded and said, "Nippon Steel is one of the world's top steel companies and one of the world's largest steel companies."

Charlie Wade asked curiously: "Who is the boss behind this steel company?"

Jasmine said: "The big boss behind Nippon Steel is Sumitomo Group."

"Sumitomo Group?" Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "I haven't heard of it."

Jasmine laughed and said: "Sumitomo Group has a wide range of business, but most of them are in the industrial field, especially the heavy industry, which is really not closely related to daily life."

Charlie Wade nodded lightly and said, "If you need help in Japan, you can contact me. I have a few acquaintances in Japan."

Charlie Wade did not say directly that he knew Ito Yuhiko and Nanako Ito of the Ito family.

He doesn't want to let people know what he did in Japan some time ago, so he still tries to keep a low profile.

Jasmine didn't think much, and said with a smile: "Good Master Wade, if I need it, I will contact you!"

At this time, Don Albertt continued to read the gift list.

"Dr. Simmons will give a genius doctor and give Master Wade a pair of Dollar blue and white dragon-shaped elephant ear bottles!"

Chapter 1970

Hearing this, Jacob Wilson stood up suddenly and tremblingly asked:
"What?! Dollar blue and white?! Dragon-like ear bottle?!"

Don Albertt nodded: "Yes, Mr. Wilson, it is indeed a pair of Dollar blue and white dragon-shaped elephant ear bottles!"

"Oh my God!"

Jacob Wilson has always been fond of antique writing and playing. Although he is always fooled when buying things, he still knows the antique industry very well.

Dollar blue and white porcelain can be said to be one of the most expensive porcelain.

Any blue and white plate in the Dollar Dynasty can sell for millions.

If it is a large piece of Dollar blue and white, such as the well-known Guiguizi Xiashan blue and white can, the auction price more than ten years ago has exceeded 100 million Dollar, and now if it is brought out again, it will be at least 500 million.

Jacob Wilson once heard of a blue and white dragon-shaped elephant ear bottle in Dollar Dynasty.

Many appreciation manuals published by Christie's and Sotheby's record similar Dollar blue and white porcelain.

It is conservatively estimated that it must be at a price of 30-50 million!

At this time, Xyla took the initiative to open an exquisite mahogany gift box. The inner lining of the box was made of golden silk and silk.

And two beautiful Dollar blue and white porcelain vases are lying in the lining made of silk and satin.

Jacob Wilson's eyes are almost gone!

This is Dollar Blue porcelain!

The ultimate collection for antique lovers!

There is a Dollar Blue porcelain, which basically means that the collection has come to an end!

At this time, Jacob Wilson couldn't wait to step forward to pick up one of the bottles and play with it carefully.

However, he felt a little hairy when he thought of throwing a Dollar Dynasty jade pot spring bottle.

You know, the price of this Dollar Blue porcelain bottle is several times that of the Yen bottle!

Charlie Wade saw that the old man liked the bottle very much, so he smiled and said to Dr. Simmons: "Dr. Simmons, thank you for your gift. My father-in-law loves antiques the most in his life. I let him appreciate it up close."

Dr. Simmons hurriedly said, "Master Wade, please!"

Charlie Wade walked up to Xyla, took out one of the elephant ear bottles, and then handed it to Jacob Wilson. He smiled and said, "Dad, don't you like antiques? I will borrow flowers to present these bottles to you and give them to you. "

When Jacob Wilson heard this, his whole body trembled with excitement, and his heart had already reached the utmost excitement, but he was flattered on the face and said, "How does this make this, this is too expensive?"

Elaine Ma was also a little jealous.

Although she doesn't know how much the Dollar blue and white elephant ear bottles are worth, she knows that the Dollar blue and white elephant ear bottles are not cheap, and it is estimated that this pair of bottles is worth tens of millions.

So, she thought sourly in her heart: "Charlie Wade gave me hundreds of thousands of cosmetics and hundreds of thousands of bags, and Jacob Wilson, an old thing, turned out to be tens of millions of Dollar blue and white. Why is this old thing?"

When she was jealous, Charlie Wade smiled at Jacob Wilson and said, "This is the intention of the genius doctor. As long as you keep it well and treat it as a collection in your home, don't sell it!"

Jacob Wilson immediately patted his chest and said, "Good son-in-law, don't worry, even if I sell myself, I will never sell this pair of bottles!"

After that, he carefully took the Dollar blue and white elephant ear bottle from Charlie Wade's hands with both hands, and looked at the perfect hair color and enamel on it, tears filled his eyes with excitement.

Elaine Ma also breathed a sigh of relief at this time, thinking: "I'm an old thing like Jacob Wilson, I can really get such a pair of treasures from Charlie Wade! It turns out that I can only store it but not sell it! That's meaningless. ."

Chapter 1971

Elaine Ma has three sets of standards for measuring the value of items. The first is how much money can be exchanged for this thing. The second is how much face this thing can change. In her eyes, everything in the world, all-encompassing, is ultimately money and face.

For example, Charlie Wade gave her a set of top-notch caviar skin care products at a purchase price of nearly 400,000, and it can sell at least 300,000 for takeaway, so she can clearly feel the weight of the three hundred thousand.

This is in line with her first set of standards, and it is valuable!

For another example, Elaine Ma can not only sell 100,000 Dollar for takeaways, but also enjoy the envy and hatred of others, and let her feel the weight of more than 100,000. , But also feel very face.

This is in line with her second set of standards, face.

At this time, Elaine Ma looked at the set of Dollar Blue and thought with a lack of interest: "If an item can't be exchanged for money, and can't be brought to the house to pretend to be forced by others, how valuable is it?"

"This Dollar blue and white elephant ear bottle does seem to be very valuable, but it can't be sold out, and can't be taken out to show off, so in the eyes of the Lady, it is a worthless waste."

"Unless the Lady steals it and sells it another day, sell it for thousands of dollars"

However, Elaine Ma changed his mind and thought again: "No! Charlie Wade gave this thing to Jacob Wilson. If I sell it secretly, it doesn't matter if Jacob Wilson is angry. If Charlie Wade is angry, it will be difficult to handle."

Thinking of this, Elaine Ma could only give up the idea of playing this pair of Dollar blue and white dragon-shaped elephant ear bottles.

At this time, Don Albertt continued to read the gift list.

Mr. Quinton gave an emerald worth 50 million, and Mr. White gave a pink diamond of about the same value.

The two are relatively familiar and have a good relationship. At the last auto show, the two men gave Charlie Wade a sports car, so this time they discussed in advance and gave a valuable jewellery together. .

Although they are all jewels with similar value, they are of different varieties, so they are not afraid of clashing.

At this time, Aurora and Fred White each held a gift box and displayed the gems in it.

Two gems, one green and one pink, reflect colorful colors under the light, and the appearance is really perfect.

Elaine Ma was so interested in these two gems that even her eyes fell in. She couldn't help thinking of the jade bracelet that Mr. Quinton had given to Charlie Wade before.

The bracelet was worth at least several million. Charlie Wade gave it to Claire Wilson Wilson, and was later stolen by Elaine Ma to wear it. When wearing it, she took it as her own, but it was set up by Hannah. It was accidentally broken. This has always been a pain in Elaine Ma's heart that he does not want to recall.

Moreover, since then, Elaine Ma hasn't had much jewelry.

Now that she saw these two crystal and perfect gems, she suddenly moved her mind again, wishing that she could use both gems to make a necklace and put it on her neck and go out to scorn the market.

However, she dared to think about such a thing. If Charlie Wade didn't tell her, she would never dare to steal it.

After the gems were displayed, Don Albertt continued to read: "Travis Lane, sends Master Wade a EC145 helicopter produced by Eurocopter!"

As soon as these words came out, the audience was deeply shocked!

Chapter 1972

Just now, Lord Mooore had just delivered the yacht, and Travis Lane gave another helicopter

Claire Wilson Wilson was also shocked to speak. Now that she received the gift, she was already a little scared.

Fear, because these gifts are too expensive!

It is so precious that even those high-class people would never give such a precious gift.

So far, the prices of all the gifts mentioned are in the tens of millions, or even higher. Take any one out, they are all valuable treasures. As a result, these people have all used them to give to Charlie Wade. Claire Wilson Wilson felt very magical.

Travis Lane said at this time: "Master Wade, I heard that you don't often leave Aurouss Hilll. Lancaster is not too far away from Aurouss Hilll. It may take four or five hours to drive, but if you take a helicopter, two.

The hour is about to come, so I want to send you a helicopter. If you have any short- and medium-distance commuting needs, you can take a helicopter directly, which is much faster than a car."

Charlie Wade nodded slightly: "Travis always has a heart."

In fact, for Charlie Wade now, whether it is a hot spring villa, a private yacht, or a private helicopter, these are actually not attractive to him.

When he was very young, the Wade family owned almost all kinds of civilian transportation.

Millions and tens of millions of luxury cars are not worth mentioning. Wade has several private jets worth hundreds of millions or even billions.

Villas and manors worth more than 100 million Dollar cannot be counted anywhere in the world.

Not to mention luxury yachts.

In fact, when Charlie Wade's father was young, he bought a luxury cruise ship. It was a luxury cruise ship that could carry hundreds of people and could carry helicopters to travel around the world.

Back then, Bruce bought a luxury cruise ship entirely to make his wife happy.

Although Charlie Wade's mother is also a descendant of Teresa Rose, she is a foreign Chinese. The whole family is on the other side of the ocean. She grew up in the West and advocates outdoor travel.

In order to meet the needs of his wife to visit family and travel, Bruce bought the luxury cruise ship with huge sums of money and promised that she would spend two months each year to accompany her on the cruise ship to visit relatives on the other side of the ocean and cross half of the earth along the way. You can also travel together.

From the age of three, Charlie Wade followed his parents back to his grandmother's house every year on a luxury cruise until his parents had an accident at the age of eight.

Others expect to be able to travel around the world before death, and Charlie Wade has traveled around once a year since he was three years old.

In those few years, Charlie Wade lived a luxurious life that many people could not enjoy in his entire life, so that he personally had no pursuit of material things.

Everyone saw that so many gifts were sent, Charlie Wade's expression was still very calm, and everyone couldn't help feeling a little embarrassed. They knew that none of these gifts seemed to be sent to Charlie Wade's heart.

Later, Liam gave Charlie Wade a jade-carved statue. In his words, It is the god of wealth, who can protect Charlie Wade's safety and wealth.

Charlie Wade smiled and thanked him for accepting it.

Finally to Don Albertt himself, he took out a beautifully packaged gift box, handed it to Charlie Wade, and said seriously: "Master Wade, there is a little caution here."

Charlie Wade said with a smile: "Don Albertt, you read so many gifts from so many people, why don't you tell me what your own gift is?"

Don Albertt said embarrassingly: "This Don Albertt is afraid that Master Wade will be dissatisfied with the things he sent, so he laughs generously."

Charlie Wade shook his head: "No matter what you give, I am very grateful, how can I be dissatisfied."

Don Albertt nodded and said earnestly: "Master Wade, here is a villa near the imperial palace in Tokyo, Japan."

Chapter 1973

When everyone heard that Don Albertt gave Charlie Wade a villa in Tokyo, they were all surprised, and they didn't understand why Don Albertt wanted to send Charlie Wade to his villa in Japan.

But after a moment of surprise, Cameron Isaac and Liam suddenly realized in their hearts!

At the same time, they all sighed in their hearts, why didn't they think of this!

Back in Japan, they had been by Charlie Wade's side, busy assembling the production line of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals. After everyone arrived in Osaka, Charlie Wade suddenly wanted to go to Kyoto alone.

At that moment, Don Albertt guessed that Charlie Wade must have been looking for Nanako Ito. Don Albertt is a very smart person, and he has served with Charlie Wade for a long time, knowing more about some things about Charlie Wade. He had long seen that Charlie Wade seemed to have some appreciation for the Japanese female fighter named Nanako Ito, and then the female fighter returned to Japan for treatment because of an injury during the match.

Don Albertt paid attention to Nanako Ito's follow-up. She first received treatment in Tokyo, and then went to Kyoto to train, but Charlie Wade suddenly went to Kyoto when she was in Osaka, Don Albertt suddenly guessed the reason.

What is even more bizarre is that Charlie Wade drove to Kyoto that same day, and then drove from Kyoto to Tokyo at night. Combined with the Japanese news reports on a series of times at that time, Don Albertt used these clues to structure the whole thing in his mind. And the guess is not bad.

He knew that Nanako Ito inherited the Ito family and began to work hard to become the heir of the Ito family. He also knew that the Ito family had a luxurious mansion near the imperial residence in Tokyo, so he simply bought it next to the Ito family mansion. A mansion was given to Charlie Wade.

In his opinion, this should be what he liked, Charlie Wade would definitely like it very much.

Cameron Isaac and Liam also followed Charlie Wade all the way to Japan, so they also knew the outline of the matter.

Suddenly, I found that Don Albertt had given Charlie Wade a villa in Tokyo, and I immediately knew what Don Albertt was thinking.

While admiring him, the two were also annoyed that they did not think on this level.

Charlie Wade heard that Don Albertt had given him a villa in Tokyo, his first thought was also surprised. As soon as he came up, he didn't want to understand why Don Albertt gave himself a villa in Tokyo, and it seemed to be very close to the Ito family's residence in Tokyo. Then, he immediately realized that Don Albertt should have seen some clues, so he came specifically to meet his needs.

At this moment, Charlie Wade suddenly felt a little mixed. He really admires Nanako Ito and knows her feelings for him, but he is married after all, so he really shouldn't get too close to her. Before in Japan, the reason why I wanted to see her was mainly to heal her injuries, but I didn't expect so many things to happen later.

After curing Nanako Ito and sending her to Tokyo safely, Charlie Wade had already let go of it. But now Don Albertt suddenly gave away a villa in Tokyo, and immediately deepened the image of Nanako Ito in Charlie Wade's mind.

At this time, Elaine Ma clapped his hands happily: "Oh, I have long wanted to go to Japan to see cherry blossoms, shopping, etc. If I have my own villa in Tokyo, wouldn't I be able to go there often?"

Don Albertt said hurriedly: "Ms. Elaine Ma, you can go there at any time. I also arranged a few servants in Tokyo to be on standby around the clock to ensure that no matter what time you go there, you are in the best condition and there are people dedicated to you. Do your best to take care of you!"

"Oh, that's really great!" Elaine Ma said excitedly: "I wanted to travel abroad for a long time, but it's a pity that I have been unhappy in the early years, and there is no chance. Now My son-in-law has a good life, and I will have to go out often in the future!"

With that, she asked Lord Mooore: "Oh, Lord Mooore, can the yacht you gave me go all the way to Japan?"

Chapter 1974

Lord Mooore hurriedly replied: "Ms. Elaine Ma, that yacht has a maximum range of more than 2,000 nautical miles, which is nearly 4,000 kilometers, which is enough to travel all the way from Aurouss Hilll to the estuary, and then to Tokyo, but because this involves entry and exit. So you have to report to the customs in advance."

Elaine Ma immediately said to Charlie Wade excitedly: "Good son-in-law, let's take some time and sail a yacht to travel to Japan by ourselves. What do you think?"

Charlie Wade said vaguely: "Let's talk about this when I have time."

Elaine Ma hurriedly said: "Time is not easy to tell? Your dad and I don't go to work, and you don't go to work, so she started running the company on her own. She is the boss herself. Wouldn't it be a matter of a sentence when you want to take a holiday?"

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly said: "Mom, what are you talking about? Entrepreneurship requires focus to be effective. How can I leave the company and go traveling by myself"

Elaine Ma said, "It doesn't matter. You will stay and continue to work and let Charlie Wade take us to Tokyo. It just so happens that we are not at home, so you can focus more on your company."

Claire Wilson Wilson was speechless at once.

Although she didn't want her family to go travel alone, but Elaine Ma said this very skillfully.

She first asked Claire Wilson Wilson to go with him, but Claire Wilson Wilson refused on the grounds of working hard to start a business. So she said let Claire Wilson Wilson stay and start his own business. Claire Wilson Wilson couldn't refute it, otherwise she would just slap herself in the face.

So Claire Wilson Wilson had no choice but to say: "Hey, do whatever you like."

Charlie Wade smiled slightly, and said: "Don't talk about it for now, the Chinese New Year will be coming soon. Naturally, I will spend the holidays at home during this time. As for whether to go out to travel, I will wait until the end of the Chinese New Year."

Elaine Ma nodded hurriedly, and said with a smile: "Good son-in-law, mom listens to you!"

Charlie Wade gave a hum, then looked at everyone, and said seriously: "I really thank you all for coming here today, and you gave you so many gifts, which cost everyone."

Everyone hurriedly said: "Where and where, this is what we should do!"

Charlie Wade looked at the people and smiled and said, "As the saying goes, courtesy is about to come and go, after the Chinese New Year, I will definitely prepare a gift in return for everyone. At that time, I will have to trouble Mr. Quinton to help me prepare some materials."

As soon as these words came out, all those who came to pay the New Year's greetings showed an unquenchable ecstasy.

They knew that Charlie Wade wanted to give back their pill!

Otherwise, Charlie Wade would never say, let Mr. Quinton prepare the materials!

What does Mr. Quinton do?

He specializes in various Chinese herbal medicines!

Charlie Wade's first refining medicine was the material Mr. Quinton provided!

Charlie Wade now asked Mr. Quinton to prepare the materials, not to make a pill, what else could it be?

The reason why Charlie Wade didn't say it clearly was because he didn't want to directly mention the medicine in front of his wife and father-in-law.

He did not let his family know whether it was the previous basic medicine or the later rejuvenating medicine.

However, these people present have all been blessed by themselves, and they will understand as long as the words are clicked.

Please indicate the source:

Chapter 1975

Charlie Wade's rejuvenation pills are not much.

Moreover, as the saying goes, rare things are expensive. Travis Lane spent two billion for a rejuvenating pill, which proved that the rejuvenating pill is completely worth the price for the rich, so he did not intend to use the rejuvenating pill to return gifts to everyone. If this kind of thing is really bad, it will naturally not appear so scarce, and its value will naturally fall.

Therefore, Charlie Wade planned to ask Mr. Quinton to find some raw materials and refine a batch of the first pill that he had refined at the beginning, and then give one to each of you who came to give gifts today. Everyone just came to pay a New Year greeting to Charlie Wade and gave some gifts for the New Year, but they didn't expect that Charlie Wade would actually give me a pill in return, so everyone seemed very excited. Suddenly, no matter how much money was spent, it was 10,000. worth it. Afterwards, everyone exchanged glances, and Hong said, "Master Wade, with so many of us here, it will definitely affect your family's original plan. Let's leave first!"

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "After the Chinese New Year is over, I will choose a time to invite everyone to dinner, and I will take it with you in return."

Everyone hurriedly clasped their fists and bowed, and said uniformly, "Master Wade!"

The mighty convoy drove away. After Charlie Wade's family watched them leave at the door, Elaine Ma was the first to restrain himself and blurted out: "My god, it's really developed today! It's a villa again. It's a yacht and a helicopter again. It really makes a lot of money!" Jacob Wilson was also excited, and muttered: "The pair of Dollar blue and white elephant ear bottles are really good treasures at the national treasure level! I have to go and see again!"

Elaine Ma looked at Charlie Wade at this time and said, "By the way, my son-in-law! I think they still have a lot of gift boxes left. What are they inside, why didn't they say?"

Charlie Wade shook his head: "I don't know what's in there. If you want to know, you might as well take it apart."

Elaine Ma said happily, "I just want to see what it is! Then I will go and take it apart one by one!"

Claire Wilson Wilson was a little nervous at this time, but also a little worried and said, "Charlie Wade, why do they give you so many precious gifts? These things are worth hundreds of millions. Isn't this too much? How can we? What about you?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "I help them, and they give us gifts. It's all things you love and I want. What's wrong?"

Claire Wilson Wilson said: "This value is too high after all. Can you show them Feng Shui, can you be worth so much?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "As long as you believe in this thing, you are willing to spend as much money. There used to be a great master, so many big stars and rich people regarded him as a guest, and he also spent a lot of money for him. Isn't it because they believe that can change their destiny?"

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly said, "But wasn't that master finally exposed? It was all a lie."

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "He is a lie, but I am not."

As he said, he said again: "I show these people Feng Shui, these people have got great benefits without exception, otherwise, why do you think they have always believed in me? Of course they believe it only after seeing the effect."

Claire Wilson Wilson asked again: "Then you said you want to return a gift to them, what are you going to return?"

Charlie Wade said: "I will return to each of them a set of peace symbols."

"A Talisman?! " Claire Wilson Wilson asked in surprise: "Is it the kind of amulet that costs a few dollars in the temple?"

Charlie Wade nodded: "It's almost the same, but the difference is that what the temple sells is consecrated by the monks, and what I do is consecrated by myself."

Claire Wilson Wilson said with some worry: "Is it reliable for you to do all this? I always feel very worried, for fear that you will be taken away someday."

Charlie Wade comforted: "My wife, don't worry, I'm a business man, I always do business with integrity and fair business. I have been showing Feng Shui for a long time. Do you see anyone coming to trouble me?"

Claire Wilson Wilson was asked by Charlie Wade at once.

Charlie Wade was right.

For such a long time, he saw that Feng Shui had not made less money, and he also made a large villa of more than one hundred million Dollar, but none of those customers came to trouble him.

Especially Mr. White.

The villa was given by Mr. White, and Mr. White just gave a priceless pink diamond, which proves that Charlie Wade must have really helped him and he will be so loyal.

Chapter 1976

At this time, Elaine Ma persuaded: "Oh, Claire Wilson Wilson, you don't understand Feng Shui and other things, so don't tell Charlie Wade."

After that, Elaine Ma started to face and said very seriously: "Mom doesn't expect you to help Charlie Wade in your career, but Mom will never allow you to hold Charlie Wade's back legs! Our family's future will be It all depends on Charlie Wade!"

"Mom" Claire Wilson Wilson was choked by Elaine Ma and was speechless.

She could see that her mother had completely fallen to Charlie Wade, and nothing she said could be of any use.

So, she sighed helplessly: "Hey, I'm going to the company first"

Elaine Ma hurriedly said: "Claire Wilson Wilson, why don't you wait for Mom to finish the present before leaving?"

Claire Wilson Wilson shook his head and said, "I'm already very late, everyone is still waiting for me to hold a summary meeting."

Elaine Ma said, "That's OK, then you go first. If there is something good, Mom will take a picture and send it to you!"

Claire Wilson Wilson gave a hum, and said to Charlie Wade and Jacob Wilson: "Husband, Dad, I'm leaving now."

Charlie Wade nodded: "Drive slowly on the road and pay attention to safety."

Claire Wilson Wilson hurriedly said, "Don't worry, I will pay attention." After Claire Wilson Wilson drove away, Charlie Wade returned to the villa living room.

At this time, Jacob Wilson and Elaine Ma had already taken apart a pile of gift boxes by themselves.

Elaine Ma opened a gift box and exclaimed in excitement: "Damn! It turned out to be a limited edition Chanel bag!"

Jacob Wilson took out a bottle of Moutai. After reading it carefully, he was stunned and said: "My God, this is a five-star Moutai made in 58! There are very few in stock, and a bottle appeared at auctions a few years ago. It took 2.99 million!"

"What?!" Elaine Ma asked in horror: "A bottle of Moutai, 2.99 million?! Are you crazy?!"

Jacob Wilson curled his lips: "Look at you who have never seen the world! The 2.99 million Maotai scared you like this? I tell you, there is also a kind of Maotai that only has ten bottles in the country, called Handi Maotai, which is worth thousands of bottles. Million!"

"Han Emperor Maotai?" Elaine Ma frowned and asked, "What do you mean? Moutai dug out from the dry land?!"

Jacob Wilson said contemptuously: "You even went to college because you were Emperor of the Han Dynasty, not a dry land of arid land!"

Elaine Ma sipped: "Bah! Who do you look down on? It's obviously that you haven't said clearly, so does my Lady know Emperor of Han?"

Jacob Wilson immediately retorted: "You definitely don't know who Emperor of Han is. If you can tell the name of Emperor of Han today, I will count you as a college student!"

Elaine Ma was speechless immediately.

She really can't remember who Emperor of Han is Seeing her anxious look, Jacob Wilson sneered: "What? Can't remember? Is the university in vain?"

Elaine Ma said angrily: "Why are you so much bullshit? I tell you Jacob Wilson, the bottle of wine in your hand is worth three million, and you absolutely can't drink it! Save it and wait for it to appreciate later before selling it!"

Jacob Wilson annoyed and said, "This is what someone gave to my son-in-law Charlie Wade. It's up to you to tell me? My son-in-law says drink and drink, my son-in-law says sell it, and my son-in-law says it just smashed it, and you can only watch it. Go!"

"you"

Seeing the two arguing again, Charlie Wade shook his head helplessly.

At this time, his mobile phone rang suddenly, and it was Stefanie who called. So he said to the couple, "Dad and Mom, I have something to do. I will go back to the room first."

After finishing talking, I went straight into the elevator without waiting for their response.

Chapter 1977

Charlie Wade returned to his room with Claire Wilson and then connected to Stefanie's video call and asked her: "Hey, Stefanie." "Charlie Wade!" In the video, Stefanie, wearing a nightgown at home, waved at Charlie Wade excitedly.

In the video, Stefanie has no makeup, and her long black hair is casually draped over her shoulders. Without the full aura of a top star, she is more like a beautiful girl next door.

At this time, she happily asked in the video: "Charlie Wade, what are you doing?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "I'm not busy. Isn't it the Chinese New Year right away? Just prepare some New Year's goods at home."

Stefanie smiled happily: "Hehe, me too! This year we will return to the old house in Heathbrook for the New Year!"

With that, she switched the cameras and took a picture of the surrounding environment. As expected, she was in the courtyard of the Sun family.

Charlie Wade couldn't help asking: "Daisy, your courtyard is so big, does it seem a little deserted for a family of three to celebrate the New Year?"

"No!" Stefanie said with a smile: "This year I will spend the New Year with my second and third uncles. There are three big families in total, which is quite lively."

Charlie Wade nodded, thinking of her second and third uncles, and couldn't help but ask: "Daisy, your second and third uncles, how are you doing lately? Didn't you make any trouble with your family?"

Stefanie hurriedly said, "No, no! My second uncle and third uncle have a good attitude these days. They ran home every three days, and every time they went, they brought big and small bags of various gifts!"

"Oh, by the way, this year I will go back to my old house for the New Year. The two of them proposed to my dad. They said that the family hadn't been together for a long time for a lively Chinese New Year. So I wanted to get together for a while, my dad agreed. "

Charlie Wade knew that Stefanie's second uncle Hank and third uncle Carl, as well as their sons, are still in a state of infertility. During this period of time, you can guess that they must be very honest.

After all, they still hope to please Orrin's family and get their forgiveness.

Before, they had signed an agreement with Orrin, and everything in the future will only be the leader of Orrin, so now they can't make any more storms.

So Charlie Wade said with satisfaction: "That's good, if your two uncles are still unruly, you must tell me the first time."

Stefanie nodded quickly and said, "Charlie Wade, wait a moment, I'll go to my parents' room, they have something to tell you too!"

Charlie Wade hurriedly asked: "You should wear more clothes, this dress looks like you wear it in summer, don't freeze."

Stefanie said with a sweet smile: "It won't freeze, because the entire courtyard is covered with floor heating, and the heat is sufficient. The room has always been around 28 degrees."

Charlie Wade was relieved now.

In his mind, Stefanie is not so much a fiancée who has a marriage contract and a parental matchmaker's agreement, but a little sister who has been by his side since childhood.

Therefore, Charlie Wade also cared very much about her.

In the video, Stefanie trot all the way, through the huge hall, to the room of Orrin and Angie.

Orrin was drinking tea and reading at his desk at this time. Angie burned a small furnace of sandalwood and brought the incense burner to Orrin's desk. Seeing Stefanie rushing in at this time, he hurriedly said: "Daisy, you be careful, don't fall!"

Stefanie said excitedly: "Mom, I'm videoing with Charlie Wade!"

When Orrin heard the words Charlie Wade, he immediately put down the book in his hand, and asked excitedly: "Are you videoing with Charlie Wade? Hurry up, let me talk to him!"

Stefanie quickly placed the phone on the desk, with the camera and screen facing Orrin.

Orrin's complexion was very good at this time, and his whole state was very young. Seeing Charlie Wade in the video, he immediately smiled and said, "Charlie Wade! How are you in Aurouss Hilll recently?"

Chapter 1978

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Looking back on Uncle, everything is fine, how are you and Angie?"

"Okay! We are fine!" Orrin nodded repeatedly. At this time, Angie stood beside him, looked at Charlie Wade on the screen, and said with a smile: "Charlie Wade, when will you come to Eastcliff for a few days? Uncle Orrin has been thinking of you especially recently. Basically, I have to talk about you several times a day, and my ears are about to grow cocoons."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Uncle Orrin and Angie, when I finish my work, I will make time to visit Eastcliff to see you two."

Standing on the other side of Orrin, Stefanie murmured dissatisfied:

"What do you mean by looking at them, then what should I do? I don't have to watch it?"

Charlie Wade hurriedly smiled and said, "Look, of course I have to read it. I made a mistake. I have time to see you, Uncle Orrin and Angie! Are you satisfied now?"

Stefanie hummed triumphantly: "This is pretty much the same!"

At this time, Orrin said: "By the way, Charlie Wade, I heard that your aunt went to Aurouss Hilll?"

"Yes." Charlie Wade smiled slightly: "Uncle Orrin, have you heard about it?"

Orrin smiled and said, "Your grandpa called me this morning and told me about you and your aunt."

Charlie Wade asked in surprise: "He knows that I have met you?"

Orrin shook his head: "He didn't know yet, so he thought I hadn't received your message yet, so he told me about you."

Charlie Wade asked puzzledly: "Why does he want to tell you these things?"

Orrin smiled and said, "I see what he meant, mainly because he wanted to tell me your news, and then asked me if I was still willing to fulfill the promise I made with your dad and let you get married with my daughter."

Charlie Wade couldn't help but feel embarrassed.

It seemed that Grandpa meant that he still wanted to get himself back to the Wade family, and then let himself go to marry Stefanie.

At this time, Orrin also saw Charlie Wade's embarrassment and hurriedly said: "Charlie Wade, don't put any pressure on this matter. I just told your grandfather that I am willing to fulfill my promise, but I also said that this matter must be respected. What the children mean."

After speaking, Orrin said again: "Charlie Wade, you still come at your own pace. Since I said, our family will wait for you for three years and we must wait for you for three years."

Charlie Wade nodded lightly and said: "Uncle Orrin, thank you for your understanding."

Orrin waved his hand and said, "Uncle Orrin's life is yours. You don't have to be so polite with me."

Immediately, Orrin said again: "Oh, yes, your grandfather asked me to persuade you, after all, you and your aunt are all in the same family. Don't be so angry, let alone hurt your peace."

Charlie Wade said: "Uncle Orrin, my aunt is too domineering, and my grandfather doesn't give her the necessary restraint. When she arrived in Aurouss Hilll, she drank and abrogated me, and went to my mother-in-law to gossip. , It's really too arrogant."

Orrin nodded and said, "Your aunt is in Eastcliff. That is notoriously difficult to deal with. I didn't expect that going to Aurouss Hilll would let you get cured."

Charlie Wade said indifferently: "If she is not too much, I don't want to be familiar with her."

Orrin smiled slightly and said, "Your grandfather still wants me to persuade you. If you have time, go back to Wade's house. This year's Spring Festival is over. After the Lantern Festival, it's almost March. He hopes you will save energy. Come back, join him in the ancestor worship ceremony held by the Wade family in Wade Mountain."

Charlie Wade asked in surprise, "Holding an ancestor worship ceremony?" "Yes." Orrin said: "Your Wade family originally held an ancestor worship ceremony once in twelve years. It happened to be this year, and Wade Mountain was developed for more than three years. The construction was just completed last spring. Wade family moved the ancestral tomb in the fall. So this year's Spring Festival is also the first Spring Festival when Wade's tomb was moved to Wade Mountain."

"So your grandfather wants to hold a grand ceremony for ancestor worship. At that time, not only your surnamed Wade, but also dozens of Wade branches across the country will also go to participate. You are the grandson of the Wade family, and he hopes you can Be there, and formally pay homage to your parents by the way."

Chapter 1979

The Wade Family's ancestor worship is the most grand family ceremony in the entire Wade Family.

Large families value ancestor worship, especially large families with a long history like the Wade family, which have a profound history and many branches, and they attach great importance to ancestor worship ceremony. In fact, many wealthy families really want to engage in special ancestor worship ceremonies, but the real ancestor worship ceremonies are definitely not something ordinary families can do.

Some nouveau riche families want to hold an ancestor worship ceremony but can't hold up this stage.

Because these people's ancestors may have buried the ancestors of the last three or four generations in total, and when it comes to their identities, they may all be farmers in the previous generations. There is no tall story to tell for future generations.

Although the peasant class is also very worthy of respect, but in these upper-class societies, the ancestors did not have a strong enough identity background, and it was indeed somewhat ineffective. Especially in the upper class of Eastcliff.

In addition to comparing money and power, it is the family origin and heritage.

In Eastcliff, there were many elders and children who were in Qi during the Manchu and Quintong dynasties. When the ancestors of these families were in the Quintong dynasty, they were all nobles in the Qi. It was not which elder brother, which Gege, and even the first-rate elders in the dynasty.

Such a family has a strong foundation. When the ancestor worship ceremony, if you take out two or three ancestors' deeds and read it out, you can immediately give people a feeling of bullying.

The ancestors of the Wade family were also imperial officials. The ordinary family and the ancestors of the ancestors could not wait to build an ancestral hall for this ancestor in his hometown. However, the Wade family, the ancestors of the ancestors were awarded hundreds of scholars and ten of the champions. The top three, including the champion, made a total of 31.

With a history of nearly 300 years in the Quintong Dynasty, there were 112 examinations in the imperial examinations.

In this nearly three hundred years, a total of more than 20,000 scholars and 114 champions were awarded.

The Wade family accounted for nearly one-tenth, which was an extremely remarkable achievement.

It is precisely because of the talents of the ancestors that the Wade family can continue to exist for hundreds of years, and it has always been quite strong. Even in the era of war, it is at least a tyrant.

The Wade family has opened branches and leaves for so many years. There are at least tens of thousands of Wade family descendants all over the world, and a considerable number of them have gone overseas.

Their ancestors, going back hundreds of years, are the ancestors of the Wade family.

It's just that in ancient times, the eldest son inherited the mantle, and the other sons and concubines had to separate their families. Therefore, more and more Wade family members were reduced to collateral families, leaving only the descendant line as the real family.

It's like Charlie Wade's father has three brothers. According to the ancient rules, after Charlie Wade's parents' death, the three sons of the Wade family will be separated. By then, the eldest son, Corran, will inherit most of the family business and residence.

The second and third sons should leave the original Wade family mansion with their family members after three years of filial piety for their father, and start another family by themselves.

In this way, the second son and third son's two families became Wade family's collateral family.

At this time, the two collateral families were still relatively close to the main family. After all, the second, third, and eldest brothers were still the brothers of the siblings.

But by the time of Charlie Wade's generation, it was Charlie Wade's cousin who inherited the mantle of the main family, so the relationship between the two collateral families and the main family was another generation.

By the time of the third and fourth generations, these two collateral families have also derived several more detailed collateral families, so they are farther away from the main family. If it lasts for five or six generations, the span may have been more than 100 years.

At that time, we probably didn't know each other at all, and we could only find the names of descendants of other collateral families on the genealogy.

Chapter 1980

Therefore, as the main family, it is necessary to use the ceremony of worshipping the ancestors to gather people from the collateral family at regular intervals.

After you get to know and get acquainted with each other, and after worshipping the common ancestor together, the connection between bloodlines will be strengthened.

This is also a necessary way for large families to maintain their strength.

Therefore, the Wade family not only holds an ancestor worship ceremony every twelve years, but also revises the entire Wade family's genealogy at the ancestor worship ceremony.

Between this twelve year and the last twelve years, each family will have a new heir born, an older generation will die, and young adults will marry a wife.

Therefore, every twelve years, countless branches of the Wade family report the population changes of their family over the past twelve years to the main family.

At that time, the main family will select a respected old man to personally renew the genealogy, and write down the names and deeds of these people one by one.

The existing Wade family tree records the names of hundreds of Wade family descendants, as well as the names of hundreds of their spouses, such as Wade family's son XX, whose daughter XX was married, or the Wade family The daughter married to whose son so so so.

Each revision of the genealogy is also very grand.

The female parent of the genealogy is stored in a safe with constant temperature and humidity, and is invited out by the descendants of the Wade family every time the ancestor worships.

Please come out and after the worship, you must immediately and respectfully invite the mother back.

Later, renew the new genealogy.

After the renewal of the new genealogy is completed, please also grandly invite the new genealogy back, and keep it together with the countless parent parents.

All the Wade family members regard the genealogy as a family sacred object, sacred and inviolable.

The main family is the only family that has the right to retain the genealogy. Therefore, every time a collateral family comes to worship the ancestors, in addition to three bows and nine worships to the genealogy, it will also have a natural sense of belonging to the main family.

This is like the ancient emperor and ministers, through cumbersome etiquette, rituals, and strict rules and inheritance, to strengthen the minister's mind, the idea of loyalty to the emperor.

This is also a great support for the main family to let the collateral family bow their heads.

However, Charlie Wade had no impression of Wade Family's ancestor worship ceremony.

The last ancestor worship ceremony was twelve years ago, when he was still in Aurouss Hilll Welfare Institute;

The last ancestor worship ceremony was twenty-four years ago. At that time, he was too young, so small that he had no memory of this incident. However, although he can no longer find the memory of the ancestor worship ceremony 24 years ago, he is still very clear about the Wade Family's ancestor worship ceremony. The grandest worship ceremony for parents.

Therefore, Charlie Wade couldn't help but look forward to it.

He wasn't expecting to pay homage to the ancestors of the Wade family. He just expected to pay respect to his parents in a respectable, upright, and grand manner.

The last time he followed Orrin to worship his parents, he had to pretend to be Orrin's driver, and he failed to walk to his parents' grave with his true identity and kowtow. This has always been a regret in his mind. So he said to Orrin: "Uncle Orrin, please tell my grandfather that I will go to the ancestor worship ceremony on Spring Festival!"

Chapter 1981

Orrin originally thought that Charlie Wade would not agree, but he did not expect that he promised so readily, so he immediately said: "If your grandfather knows that you are willing to go back to the ancestor worship ceremony, he will be very happy!"

Charlie Wade smiled, thinking in his heart: "Whether he will be happy or not should not depend on whether I will attend the ancestor worship ceremony, but on whether I will follow his arrangements and become the Wade Family's foreign marriage tool."

However, he did not tell Orrin these words.

At this time, Stefanie spoke again: "By the way, Charlie Wade, my concert time in Aurouss Hilll has already been set!"

Charlie Wade was very surprised and asked: "The concert? In Aurouss Hilll?"

Stefanie nodded and smiled and said, "Originally, the next stop of my tour is Aurouss Hilll, but the specific time has not yet been determined."

Charlie Wade just remembered that when he was taking his wife to dinner with Stefanie, his wife once told him excitedly that Stefanie was going to hold a concert in Aurouss Hilll soon, but he didn't expect this matter to be on the agenda now.

So Charlie Wade asked her: "Daisy, when is your concert?"

Stefanie said: "It's on February 2 of the lunar calendar, at 7pm on your birthday, at the Olympic Stadium in Aurouss Hilll!"

Charlie Wade was suddenly surprised.

The second month of the lunar calendar? Is it my birthday?

Is this girl deliberately choosing to hold the concert on that day?

At this time, Stefanie said with a look of anticipation: "Charlie Wade, I have reserved the best ticket for you. You must come and join me when that happens!"

Charlie Wade nodded: "Don't worry, I will definitely go there."

Stefanie said happily, "Then let's meet in Aurouss Hilll then!"

"It is good."

At this time, Orrin suddenly heard a knock on the door during the video call.

Orrin said, "Come in."

Afterwards, Hank, the second child of the Sun family, pushed the door and said respectfully: "Brother, sister-in-law, the Banks Familyy came to give gifts."

Orrin frowned and asked in amazement: "The Banks Familyy? I have never been with them. Why did they suddenly come to me and give me gifts?"

Hank shook his head, and said with some puzzlement: "I didn't understand this either. This time, it is a pair of children from Zayne, Fitz and Zara. Zayne himself did not come. It is estimated that he is also self-aware, knowing that you have been very dissatisfied with him because of what happened to Big Brother Wade."

Orrin was even more puzzled, and said: "Zayne hasn't come, what are the juniors of the Banks Familyy doing? I haven't heard of the juniors of the Banks Familyy coming out to visit during the New Year!"

The Banks Familyy has always been very high in Eastcliff.

Neither Lord Banks nor his sons would ever visit others during the Chinese New Year. At most, they would visit their father-in-law and mother-in-law.

Even the younger generations of the Banks Familyy and Zara's generation never lowered their stature and took the initiative to visit other families.

Therefore, Orrin couldn't understand why Zayne's sons and daughters came to visit him.

Charlie Wade was also a little surprised.

Chapter 1982

Last time in Japan, he saved Fitz and Zara easily. He thought he saved two compatriots easily, but he didn't expect to be the enemy's child. This incident once made him very depressed.

Unexpectedly, the two people now ran to Orrin's home again.

Could it be that the Banks Familyy even wants to win over the Sun family? However, Charlie Wade didn't say much in the video. After all, Orrin didn't know his experience in Japan.

At this time, Hank, the second child of the Sun family, said: "Brother, why the younger generation of the Banks Familyy came to give gifts? I am not sure about this, but I think it may be related to the experience of the Banks Familyy in Japan some time ago. During this period, The Banks Familyy has indeed suffered heavy losses. Maybe now they have the idea to win over some families."

Orrin said with a cold face: "In Eastcliff, the thing I don't look down on the most is that Zayne! The complete bastard! The anti-leaf alliance against Bruce back then was the trash he smashed in it, and the secret arrow hurt people! "

Angie on the side said: "I can't look down on it, but I don't want to look down on it, but as the saying goes, you don't hit a smiley person. What's more, it is Zayne's two children who are here this time. Don't pass the old grievances to the younger generation. Otherwise if it is spread out, wouldn't it make people laugh."

Orrin thought for a moment, then nodded and said, "Well, let's see what medicine they sell in the gourd."

After that, he said to Charlie Wade: "Charlie Wade, someone from the Banks Familyy is here to give gifts, I will accept it."

Charlie Wade nodded, and said, "Good Uncle Orrin, go ahead, I'm here to wish you a Happy New Year in advance!"

Orrin smiled and nodded: "Happy! Happy! During the Chinese New Year in recent years, I have never been so happy as today!"

As he said, he couldn't help sighing again: "Hey, it would be great if you could spend the New Year in Eastcliff, Charlie Wade! If our family of four can spend a year together, it will be better than anything else! Then I will directly Once the door is closed, you can enjoy the family reunion, even if the heavenly kings come to the door, they will not see you!"

Charlie Wade knew that Orrin and his wife wanted to make themselves his son-in-law, and even his parents were in the spirit of heaven.

It's just that he has never thought of divorcing Claire Wilson Wilson, so at this moment, he doesn't know how to respond to Orrin's words.

At this time, Angie came out to round the scene and said: "It's OK, Charlie Wade must have a good idea, maybe your wish will come true in a few years, so why bother to rush now."

Orrin nodded: "Don't be in a hurry, don't be afraid of being late for a good meal, I've been waiting for so many years, don't care if I wait another three years!"

After that, he said to Charlie Wade: "Charlie Wade, uncle, I won't tell you more for now, and talk to you another day. Uncle here also wishes you a happy new year!"

Charlie Wade hurriedly said, "Thank you Uncle Orrin!"

Stefanie said at this time: "Dad and Mom, you go, I will chat with Charlie Wade for a while."

Orrin said, "You should come here together. I have nothing to talk with the younger generation of the Banks Family, don't you know each other? You can say a few words to them for me, and then find a reason to see you off."

Stefanie said helplessly: "Well then..."

After speaking, Stefanie said to Charlie Wade again: "Charlie Wade, then I will hang up first."

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "Okay, go ahead."

At this moment, the main hall of the Sun family courtyard.

Fitz, a talented person, sat on the red sandalwood sofa with the slim Zara.

After the Sun's servants offered tea, they retire first. There are only two of them in the main hall for the time being.

Zara saw that Fitz was a little nervous, and whispered in his ear:

"Brother, when I see your dream lover later, don't be too nervous!"

Chapter 1983

Fitz was a little nervous at first, but when he heard his sister say this, his heart became even more nervous.

They are two brothers and sisters, and Stefanie belong to the top rich second generation of Eastcliff. Although the relationship is not very close, they can be regarded as ordinary friends.

Fitz has been secretly in love with Stefanie for many years, but because Stefanie never mixes with the second-generation wealthy circle, he does not have much chance to contact Stefanie.

Moreover, Fitz didn't dare to confess to Stefanie, because he knew that in the eyes of his father Zayne, Sun's family was a little uncomfortable.

Fitz is the eldest son of the Banks Family, and there is no doubt that he will be the head of the Banks Family at some time in the future.

Therefore, Zayne attaches great importance to his marriage.

In Zayne's view, the Banks Familyy is now the number one family in the country, and the second-ranked family, the Wade family, is against them, so Fitz has no need to find a suitable marriage partner in China. Zayne's plan for Fitz was to either marry the person above him, or simply find a top family from abroad to marry.

Therefore, he naturally cannot be willing to let his son be with Stefanie of the Sun family.

Fitz never thought of confessing to Stefanie before.

As the eldest son of the Banks Familyy, although he is not as capable as Zara, his consciousness is higher than Zara.

He knew that his marriage could not be the master of his own, so he simply gave up the right of his own choice and let his family arrange it for him.

However, after being kidnapped by a ninja and almost killed last time in Japan, he suddenly felt that his life was short.

He feels that even if life is a good one, it is only a few decades, and maybe at a certain period of time because of an accident and died young.

That being the case, why do you need to compromise your marriage?

Since I have always liked Stefanie, why not have the courage to pursue it!

After he had said this plan to Zara, Zara immediately raised her hands in agreement, and deliberately helped him figure out a way to approach Stefanie.

Zara knew that Stefanie would have a series of national tour concerts after the new year, so she suggested to her brother to talk to Stefanie about the naming rights of the concert.

It happened that Fitz had a well-known cosmetics company in the country under his own name. Zara suggested using this cosmetics brand to discuss naming cooperation with Stefanie.

Zara's original intention was to let Fitz establish a business relationship with Stefanie, so that he could go to Stefanie's concert to cheer for her as the title dealer.

By doing two things like this, starting with public and then private, saving the country with curves, basically, the relationship between the two can be quickly brought closer.

If the elder brother has enough ability and charisma, it will be a matter of course.

At this time, Fitz felt a little nervous, and he asked Zara in a low voice: "Do you think Stefanie can agree to let me name her concert?"

Zara said seriously: "If you do what I said, I don't think the problem is big."

Chapter 1984

Fitz nodded softly, but still a little unsure, and said in a low voice:

"I heard that Stefanie seems to have a marriage contract with a younger member of the Wade family. If I really confess to her, can she agree?"

Zara comforted helplessly: "Oh, brother! Why are you chirping like a lady!"

"Don't think about it so much, you don't want to turn your bow back!"

"Moreover, even if she had a marriage contract, what about it? It was Bruce's son who had a marriage contract with her. When the Bruce couple were killed in the early years, he had already disappeared. Whether he is still alive is still unknown. , How could it be possible to come back and marry Stefanie?"

Speaking of this, Zara said again: "You, just play well and perform well. You are the eldest son of the Banks Familyy. In terms of financial resources, few people in the country can compare with you. In terms of looks, you look like a talent. , And with high education, I think you are more than enough to match Stefanie."

Fitz said with emotion: "In fact, there is one more thing, I don't know if you are not clear."

Zara asked: "What's the matter?"

Fitz said: "Dad and Bruce were always at odds. In order to fight against Bruce's unstoppable energy, Dad also formed an anti-Wade alliance that year. The hatred with Bruce can be said to be very deep. Stefanie's father is also a good brother to worship, so I am worried that Stefanie's father will have prejudice against the Banks Familyy."

Zara frowned and said, "I know that Dad and Bruce didn't deal with him. I heard my uncle talk about it, but Bruce and Orrin are brothers, I have never heard of... .."

As he said, Zara comforted: "But things have passed for so many years, I think he shouldn't hold such a grudge? Besides, even if he has prejudices, he also has prejudices against his dad, and won't be the same as those of us juniors. Besides, Stefanie is his only daughter. If Stefanie really likes you, I believe he will respect his daughter's choice. What do you think?"

Fitz's nervousness eased a bit after hearing her say this, and he nodded and said, "What you said makes sense... I will try it!"

Zara smiled and said, "You, be more confident. The world doesn't know how many women are lining up to marry you. Some of them have better overall conditions than Stefanie. What can you do to feel inferior?"

Fitz chuckled, "I said so, but I still feel nervous."

Zara earnestly said: "This is the problem of your mentality, and lack of self-confidence is the key! If I like a man in the future, I will never feel inferior at all. Even if he is the prince of the Middle East, I will not be inferior in front of him."

As he said, Zara laughed and said: "The prince is actually nothing great, let alone that I don't like the foreign person. Even if I really put a prince in front of me, I still look at him with my heels!"

"A prince seems to be very powerful. The family assets are hundreds of billions of dollars, but in their kind of family, the princes from all quarters add up to say a few hundred. On average, a prince has more than one billion dollars in assets, which is not enough. This is my own pocket money."

Fitz looked at Zara, chuckled lightly, and said seriously: "Hey, sometimes I really wish I could have your personality, and I don't care about anything, so I will naturally live very generously."

Zara asked him back: "Are you complimenting me or hurting me?"

"Praise you!" Fitz said earnestly: "Because I am the eldest son and grandson, I have been restrained and requested by my grandfather and dad since I was a child. The edges and corners of my personality have long been in front of them. It's smoothed out, and there is no sense of resistance at all. Unlike you, no matter who you can fight twice."

Zara said: "We are in different situations after all. It is you, not me, who will inherit the family in the future, so I can live a little heartless."

Fitz nodded and asked her, "By the way, aren't you looking for the Mystery Man? How is it?"

Zara sighed: "I just got the surveillance video of several major airports in Japan, and stared at them one by one. It is estimated that I will find my 30th birthday. I am still thinking of a reliable solution."

After that, Zara hurriedly said: "By the way, I will leave the surveillance video to accompany you to your home today. After you go back, you must help me sort it out!"

Chapter 1985

Hearing what my sister said, Fitz did not hesitate to pat his chest and agreed: "Don't worry, I will do my best to cooperate with you after I go back!"

Zara nodded in satisfaction, just about to speak, two men and two women walked in at the entrance of the main hall.

It was Orrin's family of three and the second child Hank.

When Stefanie came in, Fitz became a little nervous, and his palms immediately began to sweat.

Zara on the side saw him, hurriedly poked him with his finger, gave him a reminding look, and immediately stood up, smiled and said to the four people who came: "Uncle Orrin, Angie, also There is Stefanie, hello, sorry to bother you, I wish you a happy new year in advance!"

After speaking, he quickly took out a long gift box and handed it to Angie's hand, saying: "Angie, this is a New Year gift for you and Uncle Orrin!"

Seeing that it was Zara who spoke first, Angie took the initiative and smiled: "Oh, it's Zara, right? I haven't seen you for several years, and you look more and more beautiful!"

Zara smiled generously and said, "Auntie Angie, you're overwhelmed. If you want to say pretty, sister Stefanie is much more beautiful than me!"

Angie said: "You said your child is too polite, why did you bring gifts when you came to sit at home..."

Zara said, "Angie, who should be, is not a precious gift. It is a painting by the painter Picasso during his lifetime."

Angie said earnestly: "Knowing fish, this is too expensive, my aunt can't take it."

Zara hurriedly said: "Angie, don't be so polite. To be honest, a painting doesn't cost much, it's just a matter of heart."

After that, she hurriedly changed the subject and introduced Fitz, who was a little dull around her: "By the way, Angie and Uncle Orrin, this is my brother, Fitz! Sister Stefanie and my brother should know each other?" Stefanie nodded and said lightly: "Yes, I have met Mr. Banks several times."

Orrin saw that Fitz looked seven to eight points similar to Zayne, and suddenly felt a little unhappy in his heart.

He looked at Fitz and Zara, with a smile on his face and said: "To be honest, the Sun family has never visited the Banks Family in the past ten years. I don't know how your brothers and sisters condescended to come to My house?"

Zara hurriedly said: "Uncle Orrin is like this. My brother has a cosmetics company. This year I want to focus on enhancing brand awareness. I happen to be a fan of Stefanie. Knowing that Stefanie is about to hold a concert tour, I think Let's bring together the two parties to make a cooperation and let my brother name Stefanie's concert..."

Orrin was a little surprised. He originally thought that Zara and Fitz were coming over, and it was likely that they would represent the Banks Family and come to talk about some kind of family-level cooperation. However, what he didn't expect was that the brothers and sisters came only to talk to his daughter about a small concert at Aurouss Hill. However, he was a little relieved, since he was talking about cooperation with his daughter, then he didn't need to be involved in it. So he said indifferently: "You can talk to Stefanie directly about this. Normally, I will not interfere."

Zara nodded, then looked at Stefanie and asked her: "Sister Stefanie, I don't know how you feel about it?"

Stefanie is actually not very interested. She is not in the entertainment industry to make money, so she is fundamentally different from those female stars who see money and see.

Other female celebrities, no matter what they do, they may only look at money.

It depends on the amount of money to participate in variety shows and publicity activities, and how much money is paid for what songs to sing and which movies and TV series to participate in.

Chapter 1986

Some even sell their bodies for money. But Stefanie is an exception. Money really has no practical meaning to her. What's more, after she reunited with Charlie Wade, she had already made plans to quit the entertainment circle.

She wanted to quit the entertainment circle first, and then after Charlie Wade had dealt with her current marital problems, she would marry Charlie Wade, and then concentrate on helping her husband and children at home. She had already thought that when the concert tour reached the final stage, she announced her withdrawal at the concert site and stayed away from all music, film and television and TV programs.

Therefore, the kind of cooperation mentioned by Zara is even more uninterested in her.

So she bluntly said: "I'm sorry, Zara, I have no plans to find a title sponsor for this concert tour, and the relevant materials for the concert promotion have already been made, and some online platforms have already started. It's promoted. At this time, it's too late to sign the name, and it's too late to modify the promotional materials that have already been prepared."

Zara hurriedly said: "Why? Sister Stefanie, as long as you can nod your head, we will have no problem even getting on the bus halfway."

With that, she quickly winked at Fitz.

Fitz on the side hurriedly said: "This is Miss Sun, I want to combine this naming with your concert, and then do a large-scale public welfare promotion. As long as you nod, I can help each The concert will provide a sponsorship fee of 10 million Dollar. By that time, all the million Dollar will be donated to charity in the name of Miss Sun. The purpose of this money will be dedicated to improving the living environment and quality of education for orphans. , What do you think?"

When Stefanie heard this, she suddenly hesitated.

Originally, she had made up her mind to refuse directly, but she did not expect that Fitz would actually cooperate with herself in a charitable way.

Moreover, it is a charity action specifically aimed at orphans.

At this moment, he touched the softest part of her heart.

At first, after reuniting with Charlie Wade and learning that Charlie Wade had lived in the orphanage for ten years, Stefanie always felt distressed for Charlie Wade's hard childhood and teenage years.

If a person has grown up and entered society, it is not a big deal to endure some hardship. After all, that kind of life is also a kind of discipline.

However, if childhood suffers too much, it is probably an experience that is difficult for anyone to let go of.

After all, childhood is a period of innocence and sunshine, and it is too important for anyone.

If you have a good childhood, even when you think about it in your 70s or 80s, you can still make people feel happy.

If you have a bad childhood, I am afraid that you will be shrouded in a powerful shadow for the rest of your life.

Because she loves Charlie Wade, Stefanie also loves other orphans who have similar experiences with Charlie Wade.

At this moment, she was somewhat ashamed in her heart, and she couldn't help but think to herself: "I'm so stupid! Actually, I should have thought of doing something for other orphans, why should I wait for others to remind..."

Thinking of this, she said, "Let's do this, Mr. Banks, since it's charity, using your money in my name, I really don't dare to take it, it's better for me and your cosmetics company to do this together. Well, for every concert, your cosmetics company donate 10 million, and I personally donate 10 million!"

Chapter 1987

Hearing Stefanie's promise, Fitz was immediately overjoyed. Immediately, he looked at his sister Zara, his face was full of admiration. At this moment, Fitz really admires the five bodies that his sister Zara admires. He knew that although his sister was a few years younger than himself, her brain was much easier to use than his own! In the name of charity, to persuade Stefanie to accept the naming cooperation is also a solution that Zara has figured out a long time ago.

Zara has analyzed Stefanie, she is not short of money, second love, and third suitors. It is not easy for ordinary men to impress her. Don't talk about pursuing her, even if you want to cooperate with her, it is difficult to reach the sky.

Therefore, Zara felt that if he wanted to impress Stefanie, he had to find another way.

She thought that Stefanie once had a fiancé arranged by her parents, and that the fiancé's life and death was unknown. She felt that she could impress Stefanie by doing charity for orphans.

After all, a child who has been missing for many years has two possibilities. Either he has not been alive long ago, or he has been growing up as an orphan.

Therefore, she felt that Stefanie would definitely not refuse as long as her brother made a name for charity to orphans.

as predicted!

Stefanie was in her arms completely!

So, Fitz was very excited and said: "Miss Sun, in this case, let's wait for the contract to be signed in the next year, and then I will arrange for payment directly."

Stefanie nodded and said, "Since each donation is 10 million, then you don't need to pay my agency. Before each concert starts, we will each donate 10 million to local charities. That's all right, I don't know what Mr. Banks wants?"

Of course, Fitz didn't have the slightest opinion, and said without hesitation: "No problem! Absolutely no problem! Just follow the way Miss Sun said!"

Stefanie is actually a little selfish.

Her first concert tour a year later was in Aurouss Hilll, and Aurouss Hilll is where Charlie Wade has lived for so many years, so deep in her heart, she hopes to donate a sum of money to Aurouss Hilll's charity first.

At that time, the money can even be used to improve and expand the welfare home where Charlie Wade grew up.

After all, there are more than one billion people in the country. If you donate the money directly to the Charity Federation, you may not be able to give it to Aurouss Hilll.

Instead of this, it is better to donate 20 million directly to Aurouss Hilll.

Fitz didn't know Stefanie's plan. He had been paying close attention to Stefanie, so he knew that Stefanie's first concert after the year was selected in Aurouss Hilll.

However, because of his sister's previous reminder, he pretended to be curious and asked: "By the way, Miss Sun, I don't know where your first concert this year is?"

Stefanie immediately said: "The first concert was in Aurouss Hilll, on the second day of the second month of the lunar calendar."

Fitz nodded and said with a smile: "Arouss Hilll is not far away, and it can fly there in two hours. Since we have also reached a cooperation, then I will go to Aurouss Hilll to cheer for Miss Sun. By the way, I will personally promise to donate to the Aurouss Hilll Charity Foundation!"

Chapter 1988

Stefanie smiled slightly: "Then I will thank Mr. Banks for the Aurouss Hilll orphan."

Fitz hurriedly waved his hand: "Where and where, this should be done. What's more, I donated the money, which was actually used to make a donation to the Buddha. The money was originally intended to be used as a sponsorship fee. Thanks, it's also Miss Sun, not me."

Stefanie smiled for some reason, and then said, "Mr. Banks, since the cooperation has been decided, let's wait for the actual progress in a few years. I still have something to do now. I have to lose my company first."

As soon as Zara heard this, she quickly stood up and said with a smile: "Sister Stefanie, you are busy in advance, we won't bother!"

Stefanie nodded lightly and said, "Then I'll let the two of you out."

After finishing speaking, he greeted the servants at home and said: "Aunt Lace, please help me send the guests."

A middle-aged maid walked over immediately and said respectfully: "Two guests, please."

Fitz felt a little bit reluctant, but he stood up and said to Stefanie, Orrin and Angie: "Miss Sun, Uncle Orrin, Angie, let's go first."

Orrin nodded, and said nonchalantly, "Go slow."

Angie smiled and said politely: "Then we won't give away two people, and the road will be slow."

Zara hurriedly said, "Auntie Angie, stay for a while and come to play at home when you have time."

Angie politely said: "Well, if you have time, come to the mansion to visit."

With a few simple greetings, the family servant sent the Banks Familyy's siblings out.

After the two left, Orrin couldn't help frowning, and muttered: "I always feel that the two young people of the Banks Familyy are strange."

Angie nodded and said, "I have this feeling too, it seems a little unnatural."

After all, Angie said again: "It might have something to do with what they encountered in Japan some time ago? After all, the incident was quite a big deal. It is said that if a mysterious person saved them, the two of them might have had trouble. Died in Japan."

Orrin nodded and said with emotion: "Hey, I heard that Zayne also went to Japan at that time. Why didn't he die in Japan?"

Angie seriously asked: "You, don't talk nonsense, Zayne is also the quasi-patriarch of the Banks Familyy now. We really can't afford him. If you talk nonsense like this, don't you cause trouble for yourself when you spread it out?"

Orrin gritted his teeth and said: "That old bastard Zayne, in Eastcliff said that this grandson is the most damn thing! Back then, how many times did the older brother Bruce have the chance to kill him directly, and in the end he was relieved to let him go. Later, that villain's cheeks and avengers! It's so f*cking disgusting!"

Angie patted him on the back and comforted: "If you are done, don't worry about these things anymore. Even if you are recovering from a serious illness now, our family is not the opponent of the Banks Familyy. Zayne's hatred, etc. After Charlie Wade returns to Eastcliff in the future, you two will join hands to report!"

Orrin nodded repeatedly and said seriously: "You're right! One day Charlie Wade returned to Eastcliff, and married her daughter, and inherited the entire Wade family. At that time, I see what else the Banks Familyy can do. Sorry!"

Stefanie on the side was more or less embarrassed and whispered: "Oh, Dad...I haven't said anything about the marriage between brother Charlie Wade and I, don't forget that people are married now... .."

Orrin waved his hand and said firmly, "Daisy, don't worry, Charlie Wade will marry you within three years!"

Stefanie was a little shy and asked in surprise, "Dad...you...how are you so sure?"

Orrin looked at Stefanie and said very solemnly: "Charlie Wade's personality and his style of behavior are too much like your Uncle Wade. Based on this alone, I dare to conclude that Charlie Wade will follow his parents someday. Arrangements before death, we will marry you!"

Chapter 1989

Fitz and Zara were on the way back, Fitz drove, and Zara sat in the passenger.

It can be seen that Fitz is in a very good mood, and is happy from ear to ear.

Seeing this, Zara smiled helplessly, and said, "Brother, I've done this for you. You must help me if you are looking for a benefactor!"

Fitz blurted out without hesitation: "Zara, don't hesitate to put a ten thousand heart, brother must go all out, even if you blind my eyes, I will help you find your benefactor!"

Zara nodded with satisfaction: "You have a conscience!"

At this time, Fitz couldn't help sighing again: "Hey...there are too many video materials. Only the two of us have seen him. I can't ask others for help. I really don't know that. More information, let's see when we will go."

Zara said: "I have already figured out a general operation method, which should save us a lot of effort."

Fitz hurriedly asked: "What method of operation? Tell me quickly."

Zara explained: "Although only the two of us have seen the face of him, others cannot directly help us find someone from the video material, but they can at least help us do a simple screening!"

"First of all, I can ask the Banks staff to help me pass all the female passengers in the airport video, regardless of men, women, young or old, and then pass all men, including all whites, blacks and browns. The remaining male passengers with yellow skin will be screened out for the male passengers who appear to be underage, the middle-aged male passengers who seem to be over 30 years old, and the older middle-aged and elderly passengers! Adult young travelers who are about 18 to 28 years old."

"Then I asked them to crop all the frontal photos of eligible young male travelers in the video!"

"In this case, we don't have to stare at the video material forever, and hundreds of people can help us watch it!"

"Let them help us screen out eligible travelers and take a screenshot of his front. We only need to look for the man in all the clear photos from the screenshots!"

When Fitz heard this, he said excitedly: "Yes, you know the fish! Your brains turn really fast. According to you, we don't have to stare at the video. We just have to wait for others to watch the video. Cut out the picture, and then look for someone who looks like a benefactor from the picture!"

"Yes!" Zara nodded and said: "If we find that the young traveler on a screenshot looks like a good friend, then we will find the person who intercepted the picture and ask him to intercept it. The video of the photo was sent directly."

"In this case, we can combine the video to make a clearer judgment whether this person is a good-natured man!"

"If it is, then we can follow the video at the time to find out the entire trajectory of him at the airport, and we can naturally judge which flight he took and where he left Japan to the country. A city, and then we can go directly to that city to find my benefactor!"

Fitz gave Zara a thumbs up, and said sincerely: "Awesome! I believe that with this method, you should be able to find out the traces of him in a few days!"

.....

At this moment, Charlie Wade, who was far away in Aurouss Hilll, didn't know that Zara was one step closer to finding himself.

After he and his father-in-law Jacob Wilson gathered the gifts they gave, according to the original plan, they drove to the largest supermarket nearby to purchase the goods for the New Year.

Because the Chinese New Year is about to come, so many people come out to shop and purchase, and there are people and cars everywhere.

Charlie Wade had queued for more than half an hour after parking, and finally he was lined up to a parking space.

After Jacob Wilson and son-in-law parked the car, they came to the supermarket and found that there were more people in the supermarket, almost people next to each other, and the whole supermarket was in an overloaded state.

Chapter 1990

To make matters worse, because the Chinese New Year is about to come, many employees have already gone home on holiday. The passenger flow in the supermarket has doubled than usual, but the number of staff is less than usual. Therefore, all kinds of jobs in the supermarket are There is a shortage.

There is a shortage of salespersons, cleaners, and cashiers. Even the staff responsible for weighing are far from enough. You have to wait in line for ten minutes to buy a la carte.

Seeing so many people inside, Jacob Wilson was very frustrated and said, "Hey! I should go out early to buy so that I can lie at home and watch TV without having to come here to join in the fun!"

"Yes." Charlie Wade smiled helplessly, and said, "I wanted to come yesterday, but mom was hurt."

Jacob Wilson hummed: "Don't mention that stinky lady, you're making trouble all day long!"

Having said that, Jacob Wilson couldn't help but sigh: "You said she caused so many things all day long, why didn't she break the law? If she accidentally touched the high-voltage line of the law and put her in jail for several years, then How great!"

Charlie Wade couldn't help being dumb, and smiled: "Dad, if Claire Wilson Wilson hears you, she doesn't know how sad she should be."

Jacob Wilson hurriedly said, "Hey, I'm just talking to you, don't tell Claire Wilson Wilson!"

Charlie Wade nodded: "I know, don't worry."

Jacob Wilson sighed and said, "Hey, let's not talk about her, let's quickly buy the ingredients for the New Year's Eve dinner."

Charlie Wade said, "Then let's start with the vegetable section. The first one to enter the supermarket has to buy vegetables, because if you don't pay attention to this dish, the rest will be picked by others and not fresh. ."

As they talked, they came to the vegetable area.

Although the vegetable area is large, the shelves are densely arranged, and the aisles left in the middle are relatively narrow, which makes it easy to be crowded with more people.

Charlie Wade and Jacob Wilson were pushing the shopping cart into it, and suddenly they heard someone yelling: "You dead old woman, blind? Didn't you see me mopping the floor? Don't you hurry away?"

At this time, I heard a familiar voice again, and an old woman said in a solemn and aggrieved voice: "Gena...why are you always mopping the floor under my feet? Your mop has been dragged under my feet a dozen back and forth!"

It was Mrs. Wilson who spoke!

At this time, she is wearing a green vest for supermarket employees, holding a roll of breakpoint plastic bags for grocery shopping.

And in front of her, stood a woman of five big and three thick, also wearing a green vest.

This woman is Gena!

At this moment, Gena was standing in front of her with a mop and deliberately poke her feet with the mop.

Lady Wilson was almost knocked down by her several times, but she could only grab the edge of the shelf and begged bitterly: "Gena, all the previous mistakes were all my fault. Please look at my age. , Don't be familiar with me!"

Gena glared at her and said contemptuously: "Now I know to beg for mercy? Aren't you very arrogant before? Aren't you very arrogant when you scolded me?"

Lady Wilson dare not speak when she yelled.

Gena continued to sneer and said, "I think of you as Mrs. Wilson riding in a luxury car and living in a villa. How moist your small life is! I didn't expect that you old thing is just a donkey shit! It looks like five people. Actually, it's not as good as a piece of shit! You despised me so much yesterday, don't you still have to work in the same supermarket as me?"

Chapter 1991

The noise between the two immediately attracted Jacob Wilson's attention. He looked at his mother, amazed that he couldn't speak.

A moment later, he asked Charlie Wade, "Good son-in-law, that... Is that my mother? I can't be wrong, can I?"

Charlie Wade smiled slightly, "Dad, you're right, it's indeed her."

Jacob Wilson exclaimed, "She... Why is she wearing a staff vest?! Did she come here to work?"

Charlie Wade nodded, "It seems like it should be."

Jacob Wilson was surprised and said, "That's not right, didn't Donald inject capital into the Wilson family? They also bought them a villa in Townsend, so it's reasonable to assume that the family should be living a good life now!"

The first thing you need to know is that you can't be a part of the world's most beautiful people.

It's not like I'm not sure what I'm doing here, but I'm not sure what I'm doing here.

Charlie Wade spoke up at this time, "I heard that it seems like Donald has already withdrawn his capital."

"Divestment?" Jacob Wilson was shocked and said, "This Donald is too unreliable, saying that he will withdraw his capital? So why did he withdraw his funds? I'm sure with his assets, he doesn't care about investing that money in the Wilson Group, right?"

Charlie Wade shrugged his shoulders and smiled, "We're not sure about that."

Just said, saw Gina again with a mop poked the Lady's ankle a few times, said in disgust: "You bad old woman quickly get out of the way a little, always affect my mopping!"

Lady Wilson choked: "Gena, the supermarket leader gave me a job to help customers pull plastic bags here, if I don't do well I'll be fired, I'm begging you, don't give me a hard time, okay?"

Gina snorted, "I originally respected you, but as a result, you should know what you've done yourself, it's called asking for it!"

Saying that, Gina sneered a few times and gritted her teeth, "I'm telling you dead old woman, don't look at me as an uneducated rural old woman, but I'm a person whose bones are very hard! And I especially don't like people looking down on me! It doesn't matter if you ever hit me, but you shouldn't insult me!"

Afterwards, she put away the mop and deliberately bumped into her as she passed by Mrs. Wilson, knocking her into the shelf next to her and making her grimace in pain.

However, after hitting her, Gina didn't bother with her any further and took the mop and went to mop the floor elsewhere.

Lady Wilson stood there, the more she thought about it, the more aggrieved she became.

In her heart she thought to herself in grief and anger, "I've been raised in the Wilson family for so many years, when have I ever been bullied like this! How outrageous!"

"What's even more unacceptable is that I'm old enough now to be out doing this undignified temp work!"

"All these years, I've been in the Wilson family, but I haven't even personally washed a single teacup! Now, instead, you're in a supermarket, pulling plastic bags for various customers to save them time!"

"But what other way can I do it if I don't?"

"I won't even get a chance to fill my stomach if I don't do it..."

"I'll work here temporarily, and I'll at least give back a hundred dollars a day and manage a lunch..."

"If I don't do it, neither Hannah nor Gina will be able to give me a bite to eat..."

"Won't we be starving to death then?"

Thinking of this, Lady Wilson was so grieved that she stood by the shelves alone and sobbed.

When Jacob Wilson saw this, his heart was more or less not too tolerant and spoke to Charlie Wade, "Charlie Wade ah, I see that your grandmother is really pitiful, she definitely wouldn't come to this kind of place to work unless she had to..."

Chapter 1992

Charlie Wade asked him, "Dad, are you planning something?"

Charlie Wade didn't know what exactly Jacob Wilson's mood was at this time, but seeing that he was more or less unable to bear it, he thought that he might be trying to lend a hand to the Lady.

At this point, only Jacob Wilson sighed and said, "Seeing my own mother live such a life and do such a job with my own eyes, I, as a son, am definitely heartbroken, and it's not good for me to stand idly by."

At this point, Jacob Wilson suddenly changed his words, covered his eyes and spoke, "But well, I didn't see anything! It was all an illusion just now!"

After saying that, he quickly turned around and said to Charlie Wade, "Good son-in-law, let's go buy some fish, shrimp, meat and eggs first, as for the vegetables, let's go buy them from another supermarket, what do you think?"

How could Charlie Wade not know what he meant, immediately smiled and said, "Yes dad, I share your opinion, the food in this supermarket is really not too fresh, let's go to the market later and buy it, first go see if there are any bigger Boston lobsters, if there are, buy a few for home!"

Jacob Wilson smiled heedlessly and pointed his finger at Charlie Wade, exclaiming, "Still you understand me! Come on, let's go get lobster!"

Although Jacob Wilson's heart, he did have more or less sympathy for his mother's experience.

But he was not a fool.

The Lady's mouth for so many years, he had already seen it clearly.

When I dared my own family to go out, it was really no kindness at all, and even more so, no thought of the bloodline at all.

It's the first time I've been able to get a chance to do this.

Later, when the Wilson family wasn't working, she had to think and do many disgusting things in order to be able to live in her own Thompson First Villa.

The company has been in the process of creating a new generation of products and services.

So, he also hoped that reality would teach Old Lady Wilson a little bit of a profound lesson.

He was not going to give any help to Lady Wilson until she completely repented.

It's not just a matter of time, it's also a matter of time before we get to know each other.

The cashier area was now filled with long lines in front of every cashier.

Charlie Wade and Jacob Wilson waited in line for more than twenty minutes before they finally reached one of the cashiers.

Seeing that it was about to be his turn to check out, Jacob Wilson was busy walking to the shopping trolley and said to Charlie Wade, "Good son-in-law, you take something in the back for the cashier to scan, and I'll bag it in the front."

Charlie Wade nodded, Jacob Wilson stepped into the cashier channel first, and before Charlie Wade went up to get the merchandise, he first said to the cashier, "Come four plastic bags, want the biggest."

The cashier nodded and said, "Big bags for fifty cents each."

He said, bowing his head from the drawer beside him, he took out four large plastic bags and handed them to Jacob Wilson.

Jacob Wilson received the plastic bag and looked up subconsciously, boarding up and exclaimed, "Oh my, sister-in-law?! What are you doing here?"

"Huh?! It's... Is it you?!"

In front of the cash register, Hannah, wearing a supermarket employee vest, looked at Jacob Wilson with the same stunned amazement!

She never dreamed that she would run into Jacob Wilson when she was forced to come out to work as a temp and a cashier!

Another look at that young man on the other side who was looking out that thing from the shopping cart, isn't that the Wilson family's wasteful son-in-law, Charlie Wade!

As soon as Hannah saw Charlie Wade take out a thickened plastic bag containing several superb lobsters, her heart immediately sourly surmised, "I've been starving all day and night, and have been standing here all morning, and still haven't waited for the supermarket management's lunch, but they're lucky to have bought such a big bag full of lobsters! How is it that the difference in living standards between the two families, who also live in Thompson First, is so great!"

Chapter 1993

Charlie Wade also saw Hannah at this time.

Seeing Hannah in a supermarket green vest, Charlie Wade suddenly felt a little funny.

What came to his mind was the time when Hannah was a hard worker in the black coal kiln.

I wonder if Black Coal Kiln gave Hannah her work clothes back then?

Not to mention what Hannah really looks like in her black coal kiln overalls.

Hannah was having a hard time at this point.

She had a bitter hatred for Charlie Wade, that really had a bitter hatred.

When she set the trap for Elaine Ma in the first place, it was Charlie Wade who rushed over and ruined it for her.

That doesn't count.

The worst part was that Charlie Wade donated all her money to charity and sent her to the Black Coal Kiln.

When she remembered the time in the Black Coal Kiln, Hannah's heart was so uncomfortable that she wanted to die, and her heart could not help but shout angrily, "This damned Charlie Wade! He's the one who sent me to the black coal kiln for so many days, I gave so much and all I got was a body covered in venereal disease and a child, if it wasn't for him, how could I be so miserable today..."

The more she thought about it, the more she gnashed her teeth at Charlie Wade.

So, seeing Charlie Wade coming to buy something, she immediately said with a cold face, "Please change the cashier, I'm suspending the service here!"

Charlie Wade wasn't angry and said with a smile, "Auntie, aren't you bullying an honest person in a clear way? We've been waiting in line for so long to get to the front of the line, and so many people have checked out and left before, so why is the service suspended at our place?"

Hannah said in annoyance, "I want to take a break, can't I suspend the service? You think you own this supermarket too? You're just whining to me! I'm telling you, I'm not going to give you a thing today! You can go with whomever you like, but not with me!"

Jacob Wilson was dissatisfied, and with a bit of anger, he said, "I said sister-in-law, you're going a bit too far, we're the customers here, customers are God, you're the cashier here, you just want to serve God properly, why are you still acting up with us?"

As soon as Hannah heard him say that she wanted to serve him as God, she became annoyed and rebuked loudly, "Jacob Wilson, I am your sister-in-law no matter what, as the saying goes, elder sister-in-law is like a mother, younger brother-in-law is a son, and you even asked me to serve you, do you have any respect for the old and the young in your heart? Get the hell out of here! Don't bother me here!"

Jacob Wilson exploded and took off, "Also the elder sister-in-law is like a mother, just a stinky bitch like you, also worthy to say these four words to me?"

Hannah slammed the sweeping gun in her hand and shouted angrily, "Jacob Wilson who the fuck are you calling a stinking bitch?!"

Jacob Wilson trailed off, "Says you, what? No?"

Hannah hated, "You... You..... You..... If you say another word, I'll scratch that old face of yours to pieces!"

At that moment, a man in full uniform shouted angrily, "Station 8, what are you doing?! Why are you yelling at the customers?!"

Hannah was shocked for a moment!

Looking up, it was the manager of the cashier's department!

She was afraid of offending the supermarket's leadership and being swept away, so she hurriedly explained with a smile, "I'm sorry ah manager, I'm meeting my own relatives, so a couple of jokes."

Saying that, she pointed at Jacob Wilson and said, "This man is called Jacob Wilson, my husband's own brother, you don't mind!"

Hearing this, the cashier's expression softened a bit.

In the past few years, there have been a lot of people who have been in the process of getting into the business of buying and selling products.

Chapter 1994

Originally, Hannah came looking for a job today, applying for a casual job that pays 100 a day.

However, after a few conversations, he heard that Hannah had attended college, so he asked her to try cashiering.

The cashier's work wasn't tiring, and a hundred and fifty a day was fifty more than the odd jobs, so Hannah naturally agreed to it with glee.

If there is no problem, the manager is naturally willing to let Hannah continue to work, but if she dares to curse with customers at the cashier's counter, then this person definitely cannot be retained.

The good news is that she was joking with her own family members, so there's nothing to be harsh about it.

So, that manager opened his mouth to remind, "It's better to be influential in the workplace, and your own relatives don't joke around in the workplace, understand?"

Hannah hurriedly nodded her head vigorously and said flatteringly, "Don't worry, there won't be a next time!"

The manager hummed and turned and prepared to leave.

At this time, Jacob Wilson spoke up, "Hey, you're the manager here?"

The manager turned around again, "Yes, I am."

Jacob Wilson said coldly, "I want to file a complaint against you!"

The manager was surprised and asked, "You complained about me? Why?"

Jacob Wilson pointed at Hannah and said angrily, "The employees under your hands are attacking me physically and verbally abusing me for no reason, and you don't even care! This is a clear dereliction of duty! Is this how you usually indulge your men?"

The manager looked confused, "Aren't you two related?"

Jacob Wilson cursed, "Bah! Who's related to her?"

The manager was even more puzzled and pointed at Hannah, "She said so!"

Jacob Wilson said despicably, "You believe whatever she says? Looks like you really were derelict in your duties! I thought you two were related! How else could you be so conniving and shielding her?!"

The manager's heart thudded and hurriedly and politely asked, "Sir, you are not related to Hannah?"

Jacob Wilson's head held high and said coldly, "Of course not! I don't even know her! My son-in-law and I came to buy something, and we finally got in line for half a day, and then she insisted that she was on break and told us to go to another line, which is not intentionally difficult? And you just lied to me, you heard me, right?!"

The manager suddenly panicked and quickly looked at Hannah, questioning, "What the hell is going on! If you don't make it clear to me, you won't have to do it!"

Hannah was terrified too!

When she saw Jacob Wilson and Charlie Wade, she had a powerful fire in her heart, so she first disqualified Jacob Wilson regardless of the situation.

But what I didn't expect was for Jacob Wilson to go and complain to his own leader!

Isn't that like smashing your own job!

When she got here, she quickly begged, "Jacob Wilson, talk to the manager, we're family, I'm your sister-in-law, if I've done anything wrong, I'll apologize to you, but don't joke about my work, I'm begging you, okay?"

Jacob Wilson glared at her and said to that manager, "Look at this person, and she's still believing here, I don't even fucking know her, she's my sister-in-law when she opens her mouth and my sister-in-law when she closes her mouth, in your place, can you stand it?"

Hannah hurriedly explained, "Manager! Don't listen to him! I'm really his sister-in-law!"

Jacob Wilson looked at that manager, patted him on the shoulder, and asked him with a blank expression, "If I say now that I'm really your father, do you believe me?"

Chapter 1995

The manager of the supermarket's cashier department heard this and immediately understood in his mind.

"It turns out that not only did this Hannah clash with customers and shout at them, but she even made mischief in front of me in front of them, which is outrageous!"

"This kind of person, keeping her here in this job, there's no telling how many customers she's going to offend, and she might end up getting me in trouble!"

"No! Such a person must be told to get out of here immediately!"

Thinking of this, the manager of the cashier department said harshly without hesitation, "Hannah, I kindly let you work as a temporary worker, but I didn't expect you to treat customers so badly! In that case, I don't think you need to do anything, so hand over the keys to the cash register, take off your vest right now, and get out of here right now!"

Hannah collapsed!

I thought to myself, "I came here early in the morning to look for a job and stayed up all morning exhausted!"

"It's almost time for the lunch shift, and I was looking forward to going to the staff cafeteria for a fierce meal and filling my belly, but I didn't expect to be fired by the manager!"

"This way, not only do I have no lunch to fall back on, but I don't even have $150 a day to fall back on!"

Thinking of this, Hannah cried and begged, "Manager! I'm begging you manager, please don't fire me, I'm waiting for this job to support my family!"

I'm not sure if I'm going to be able to do that, but I think I'm going to be able to do that. I beg you to be merciful and forgive me this time, I will never dare again!"

The manager scowled and said: "Hannah, you are too good at making up stories. One step forward you say the customer is your brother-in-law, and the next you say your husband and son are paralyzed at home. What am I pulling here?"

Hannah cried out, "Manager! I'm really not pulling any punches, manager!" After saying that, she looked at Jacob Wilson and cried, "Jacob Wilson, I beg you to tell the truth to the manager and plead for me, your brother and Harold and the others are now crippled, I have to rely on my salary to support them ah!"

Jacob Wilson trailed off, "You're such an interesting person, is it interesting to always be messing around here? You just called me your brother-in-law for no reason, and now you've set me up with a brother? It's not over, is it?"

That manager was in a rage and reprimanded loudly, "Hannah, if you don't get out of here, I'll have security kick you out!"

Hannah saw that the matter could not be reversed, and stared at Jacob Wilson with hatred, then said to that manager, "In that case, trouble you to settle the salary for the morning, a hundred and fifty a day, I've been working here for a morning, how about giving me eighty or one hundred?"

The manager cursed: "I found out that you're really not generally thick-skinned, work to make you do this, and still have the face to ask me for money? Get out! Get out of here!"

Hannah said in exasperation, "If you don't give me the money, then I won't leave!"

The company has been in the process of developing the new product for the past two years, and is now in the process of developing the new product for the future.

At this time, that manager directly greeted a few security guards and took off, "Take the vest off this woman and drive her straight out!"

Chapter 1996

Hannah collapsed and shouted, "What right do you have to drag me out? Why don't you pay me on the basis of my salary?!"

But no matter how loudly she screamed, no one took pity on her, let alone sympathized with her.

Seeing Hannah being dragged out of the supermarket, that manager with a guilty face said to Charlie Wade and Jacob Wilson, "Two, but this matter is really sorry, I am the one who used the wrong person, I apologize to you two!"

Jacob Wilson nodded and spoke, "The main fault in this matter is not yours, but you are also partly to blame, and this is called improper use of people!"

Then, Jacob Wilson sighed and lamented, "Yeah in the end, it's still your eyes aren't very good."

The manager nodded repeatedly in embarrassment, "You are right in your criticism, I will definitely improve more in the future!"

Jacob Wilson stretched out his hand and patted his shoulder, speaking in the tone of a senior mentioning a younger generation, "Sharpen your skills!"

"Yes yes yes!" The manager kept nodding, then hurriedly greeted a cashier who had just returned from dinner for a shift, saying, "Jonathan, hurry over and pay the bill for these two customers, they've been delayed for a long time!"

That cashier hurriedly ran over, opened the computer and helped Charlie Wade and Jacob Wilson pay the bill.

It was the first time in the history of the company that the company has been able to offer a service to the public.

After Hannah was kicked out of the supermarket, she hadn't eaten any rice for dozens of hours, and was on the verge of fainting from hunger, with her entire head dizzy and her front stuck to her back.

She also really didn't have the strength to get another temp job, so she had to walk home.

As soon as she returned to Thomson's villa, Hannah sat down on the sofa, not even having the strength to raise her eyelids.

The first thing that you need to do is to take care of your own family, and you will be able to do that. Why are you back?"

Hannah cursed and said, "Forget about it! Fuck! It's really pissing me off!"

Wendy quickly asked after her, "Mom, what's going on?"

Hannah's eyes were red, tears came to her eyes, choking out, "I went out with your grandmother to look for a job, and found that just supermarkets are now hiring a lot of temporary workers, and the wages can also be daily, we went in to consult, your grandmother is old, people let her go to the vegetable area to help customers specifically pull plastic bags, let me go as a cashier, the result..."

At this point, Hannah sobbed emotionally and cried out, "Who knew that I would meet Jacob Wilson and Charlie Wade, the two bastards who were being stabbed by a thousand knives! Screwed me out of my job..."

Wendy gritted her teeth in anger as she heard this, "They've gone too far! How can you bully people so much!"

Saying that, she hurriedly asked again, "Mom, are you going to come in for the half day's pay then? If it's coming, you give me some first, I'll go buy some steamed buns and go to the diner and fry two dishes to bring back..."

At this point, Wendy's eyes reddened and she sobbed, "Dad and brother have cried in bed several times from hunger, it's so pitiful..."

When Hannah heard this, she wailed and pounded her chest, saying, "It's all because of that bastard Jacob Wilson! I was kicked out by the manager and worked all morning without settling a single penny ah..."

Chapter 1997

Hannah suddenly felt that the hellish life now is not as bad as it was in the black coal mine.

As she cried, she thought back to her life in the black coal kiln and sighed in her heart, "At first in the black coal kiln, although the environment was indeed a little worse, at least I could eat enough every day after following that overseer!"

"Not only do I not have to go hungry, but I also don't have to work much every day, and I can yell at Linda and her family, which is pretty cool when you think about it."

"And... And..... And that overseer, although he was a bit ugly and dirty, but he was really good at that, and on some level, he also made her experience something she had never experienced before..."

Thinking of this, Hannah sighed long and cried to Wendy, who was beside her, "Wendy, what kind of life do you call this family of ours! Day in and day out it's either this or that, a little money has gone down the drain, a company has gone bankrupt, and now I'm borrowing to live in someone else's villa without even a bite to eat, when will this kind of life ever end..."

Wendy also did not shed tears and choked, "Mom, I also can't understand, our family used to live quite well in all aspects, and I was also very close to Brother Gerald, and we were about to get married, and then all of a sudden it's not as good as one day..."

Hannah sighed and said, "Some other day it will be necessary to go to the temple to pay homage, if this continues, my little life will be tossed away..."

Wendy said, "Mom, now that I think about it carefully, it seems like our family started to go through bad luck right after Grandma's birthday that time before."

"Well?" Hannah was surprised and asked, "Which birthday?"

Wendy said, "Just last time ah, last birthday banquet, Gerald brother gave grandmother a Hetian jade Buddha, Wendell, also sent someone to give grandmother a jade Buddha medallion."

Hannah nodded, "I remember, that emerald Buddha medallion of Wendell was worth a lot of money, it was said to be worth three to four million..."

Speaking of which, Hannah exclaimed regretfully, "Pity! That emerald Buddha medallion, along with the rest of your grandmother's antique jewelry, was seized by the bank."

Wendy said, "At that birthday banquet, Charlie Wade even asked to borrow money from his grandmother to treat some Mrs. Lewis at that orphanage, do you still remember?"

"Remember ah." Hannah gritted her teeth and scolded, "That stinky hangman Charlie Wade, borrowing money for the birthday banquet, he was also really bold, and in the end, he was scolded by your grandmother and scuttled away, I'm happy when I think about it!"

Wendy said, "I'm not trying to say that, I'm trying to say that I always feel that our family has been constantly unlucky since that night..."

"Yes?" Hannah frowned and asked her, "What was the first unlucky thing that happened?"

Wendy was busy, "The first one is the day after the birthday feast, ah! I went to the Emgrand Group with Gerald brother, wanting to send invitations to the vice chairman of the Emgrand Group, Doris, and incidentally also climbing up the relationship, and I ran into Charlie Wade downstairs at the Emgrand Group..."

"Charlie Wade?" Hannah asked after her, "What did Charlie Wade go to do?"

Wendy said, "Charlie Wade said at the time that he was applying for a job at the Emgrand Group, then Brother Gerald and I mocked him, and then something strange happened right after that..."

"What's the weird thing?!"

Chapter 1998

Wendy said, "I went upstairs with Brother Gerald to see Doris, but Doris didn't see us, and also had people bring words to say that Emgrand Group doesn't cooperate with such low quality trash like us, and then Brother Gerald was also beaten by the security guards of Emgrand Group..."

Saying that, Wendy added, "And then, the Emgrand Group terminated the cooperation with Gerald brother's family, Gerald brother's father and uncle were very angry, from then on, Gerald brother and I also drifted apart, and then his uncle Mr. White was still somehow close to Charlie Wade, and even gave that big villa next door to Charlie Wade..."

"And then, the contract that Claire Wilson Wilson had negotiated with the Emgrand Group was also terminated by the Emgrand Group because of grandmother's broken promises, and since then, our family has been going downhill..."

"Wendell pursued Claire Wilson Wilson and chased after him, and his family went bankrupt, and his entire family disappeared for no reason..."

"Jason Grant of the Grant family also pursued Claire Wilson Wilson and ended up disappearing along with his father, and to this day the Grant family is still offering a heavy reward for their whereabouts..."

"Kenneth Wilson came to our family, originally to support our family, but he was also beaten by Charlie Wade, and not only lost his ability to be a man, but also returned to Eastcliff in disgrace..."

"Kenneth Wilson later gave me to Jeffrey Weaver, and Jeffrey also despised Charlie Wade, as a result, both Jeffrey and his father disappeared, and now the business is inherited by his family's illegitimate son, and I've also heard that the two of them are now digging for ginseng at the foot of Golim Mountain, I don't know if that's true or not..."

Hannah was starving, and when she heard this, she suddenly sat up, slapped the coffee table, and roared angrily, "That son of a bitch Charlie Wade! He's the one who sent me to the black coal mine in the first place! Fuck! In my opinion, he's the one behind it all!"

Wendy hurriedly asked her, "Mom, do you think this Charlie Wade is hiding some kind of strength? Otherwise, how could he have so much influence that no one is a match for him?!"

"Strength?" Hannah left her mouth open and said despicably, "That orphan, what kind of strength can he have? He doesn't even deserve to mention the word strength!"

Wendy asked rhetorically, "Then how can he get so many big names to pay him the utmost respect? It proves that he must still have some skills we don't know about."

Hannah gritted her teeth and said, "All he's good at is wooing people!"

Wendy shook her head and said, "I think he must still have real skills, otherwise it's impossible for so many big people to be deceived by him..."

Said Wendy seriously, "It's possible that he really knows something about feng shui! Maybe he used feng shui behind our backs to give us some kind of trick, that's why our family is getting more and more unlucky!"

Hannah suddenly glared her eyes wide open and spoke out of turn, "When you say it like that, it seems like there's some truth to it! He must have made that feng shui bureau for us, making us more and more unlucky and him more and more awesome!"

Wendy nodded her head in a row and said, "I think that's 80% of it! How else could he, a hanging son-in-law, become so powerful all of a sudden? Mom, we have to do something!"

Hannah said with a wry face, "What can I do? We can't even eat right now, if we want to fight with Charlie Wade and his family, we should at least have a backer!"

Wendy was busy saying, "I'm not talking about fighting with Charlie Wade mom, we haven't fought him before, and it's even more impossible now..."

Said Wendy with an eager face, "Mom, Claire Wilson Wilson is my cousin no matter what, Charlie Wade is my cousin-in-law even if he is no matter what, we might as well take the initiative to show him goodwill and then beg them to give us a hand, it's really no good, I can go and be a third mistress for Charlie Wade!"

Chapter 1999

Hannah became anxious once she heard Wendy say that she was willing to go as a mistress for Charlie Wade.

She blurted out, "Wendy! Are you out of your mind? It's not good for you to be a mistress to anyone, you have to be a mistress to that kind of hangman, how is he worthy of you?"

Wendy sighed and quietly said, "Mom, now I really think that Charlie Wade is actually quite a good person, handsome, responsible, and a good person, much better than Gerald."

"What nonsense are you talking about!" Hannah glared at her and said offhandedly, "Just Charlie Wade is that kind of stinky hangman, he's not even worthy of lifting your shoes!"

Wendy said with a bitter smile, "What have I been doing myself for almost a year now? I was the phoenix that soared into the sky before, falling in a straight line to now even worse than a village free-range chicken." Said Wendy, her entire body has been unable to control her sobbing: "Mom, look at me now, my reputation is completely ruined, how can there be any man willing to take a second look at me..."

Hannah saw Wendy's face filled with tears and hugged her head in a heartbreaking manner, comforting her, "Good daughter, we can't think like that, you know? What's a reputation? What's more important than living well?"

Saying that, Hannah said, "Besides, you haven't been with many men at all, Gerald is one, Kenneth Wilson is one, Jeffrey Weaver is one, and that adds up to three men, doesn't it? You're in your twenties. You've been with three men. What's that? How many girls have slept with more guys than you before they even graduated from college, and they're not afraid of having their reputations ruined?"

Wendy cried and shook her head, "Mom, that's different, it's not the same, dating in college, it's a closed little society, it's okay to make and build whatever you want for four years, as soon as you graduate, who else knows?"

"But I'm different, when I was with Brother Gerald, who in all of Aurouss Hilll didn't know?"

"Later with Kenneth Wilson, it was also known all over town!"

"I've had a bad reputation ever since, and everyone knows I'm with a man who's older than my father, so who can look up to me?"

"Not to mention the fact that it was later treated as merchandise by Kenneth Wilson and given directly to Jeffrey, a matter that no one in Aurouss Hillll even knows about..."

Hannah was filled with pain and choked, "Good daughter, I don't blame you for this, I blame mom, your father and your grandmother! If it wasn't for us seeing money, we wouldn't be able to say anything to push you into the fire..."

Saying that, she raised her hand and slapped herself in the face, saying angrily, "Mom is sorry! Mom's not human!"

Wendy hurriedly grabbed her hand and cried, "Mom, I don't blame you for this, I did it voluntarily at that time... It was me who couldn't resist the temptation of money and wanted to sacrifice myself for glory and wealth, it has nothing to do with you, don't beat yourself up like that..."

Hannah cried and exclaimed, "What kind of sin do you think this is that I've done well! How did a good day turn out like this..."

Wendy nodded her head incessantly at the side and said, "Like now, I can't endure it anymore, and to say it from the bottom of my heart, now, as long as I can live a peaceful and stable life, not to mention being a mistress for Charlie Wade, even if I'm a fornicating girl for Charlie Wade, I'm willing to..."

At this point, Wendy cried, "To this day, I have only truly begun to envy Claire Wilson Wilson..."

"At the earliest, everyone thought she had ruined her life by marrying a loser..."

"But who would have thought that this piece of trash she married would have treated her consistently for four years..."

"Moreover, this trash, who works and beats and scolds for her, even if the whole world laughs at him, he won't leave Claire Wilson Wilson for half a step..."

"What's even more precious is that this waste-like man was able to go against the grain and become the Master Wade respected by everyone in the entire Aurouss Hillll high society, isn't that a proper super potential?"

"Now look, a man like Charlie Wade is really the most reliable..."

"As for Gerald's stream, even if he's rich, what can he do?"

"At a critical moment, isn't it still a big disaster that each of them is flying?"

After hearing these words from Wendy, Hannah was slightly stunned and whirled with emotion, "You're right... This girl, Claire Wilson Wilson, looks foolish, but she didn't expect to be really wise!"

Chapter 2000

"Others have been looking at this, thinking about that, thinking about that and thinking about this, picking and choosing among 10,000 others, but ended up picking a pile of shit instead..."

"In favor of this Claire Wilson Wilson, who doesn't compete or pick and choose, the old man arranged for her to marry a stinky shit..."

"Who would have thought that stinky shit could one day turn to gold..."

Wendy nodded her head and said seriously, "If there is a chance, I must get closer to Charlie Wade, even if he doesn't look down on me, it's good to give our family a little help more or less, at a time like this, no one outside can be relied on, one is not as good as Charlie Wade..."

Hannah sighed and said, "Suit yourself, mom just got excited and is even more hungry, help me go back to the house and lie down for a while, wait for your grandmother to finish her shift and we'll have food..."

.....

Lady Wilson has been pulling plastic bags for customers at the supermarket all day.

It's the kind of plastic bag that you find in supermarkets, and when you pull on it, it generates static electricity.

However, Old Lady Wilson was quite content. Because at noon she had a free lunch from the supermarket's employee cafeteria. This is the most delicious meal Lady Wilson has ever eaten in her life. The food is nothing special, not only is it not very good, but it's not very greasy. But Old Lady Wilson has been hungry for too long.

At such times, giving her a bowl of white rice, that's already equal to the delicacy of heaven's grace, and if you add a meat and vegetable dish or two, it's really refreshing to the soul. It's not just a matter of time, it's also a matter of time. On the contrary, the old woman was also gradually feeling somewhat amused.

Busy until 5:00 p.m., it was supposed to be the end of the day, and the foreman came and gave her a hundred dollars and said to her, "Lady, what a great job you've done today, will you come back tomorrow? Tomorrow's New Year's Eve, noon is the time of greatest shortage, if you come tomorrow, pay two hundred a day!"

"Really?" Lady Wilson was overjoyed as she carefully pocketed the hundred dollars and said excitedly, "Then I'll come back tomorrow!"

The foreman nodded in satisfaction, "That's fine, then you can go back to rest first, tomorrow is still nine in the morning."

Lady Wilson agreed excitedly, then she suddenly remembered something and spoke up, "Foreman, what time does our cafeteria open in the afternoon?"

The foreman said, "Dinner is at 6pm."

Lady Wilson was busy asking, "Then... Can I go to the cafeteria for another meal then?"

The foreman said with some difficulty, "But an employee is issued one meal coupon and managed one meal a day, but didn't you already receive a meal coupon at noon?"

When Old Lady Wilson heard this, she nodded her head somewhat lost, "Alright then, I'll come back tomorrow then!"

When the foreman saw her lost look, he couldn't bear to see her and said, "How about this Lady, you work overtime until seven o'clock, I'll apply to the manager and give you a meal coupon, then you go to the canteen and eat before you go home, do you think it's okay?"

Lady Wilson was thrilled to hear this, and surmised, "Two more hours of pulling plastic bags, and then you can have another meal? Then of course I'll say yes!"

So she was so excited that she said, "Good foreman! Thank you Foreman!"

Chapter 2001

Lady Wilson has never been so happy as she is today, shaking all over for a meal.

She kept busy at the supermarket according to the foreman, and finally got the meal coupon she had been thinking about at 7pm.

It's not just a matter of time, it's also a matter of time.

It was too much to eat, and she rested in place on her seat in the cafeteria for half an hour before she stood up with her hands on the table, barely able to stand up.

Eat, drink, and be whole.

Lady Wilson wiped her mouth with the back of her hand and touched her belly with the palm of her hand, contentedly lamenting to herself, "I didn't expect that eating after this labor would taste so good! It's been a long day!"

Then, the Lady looked at the time and found that it was already past eight o'clock, so she planned to hurry home.

It's not just a matter of time, it's also a matter of time.

Thinking that her son and grandson were still lying in bed and hungry, Mrs. Wilson rushed to the window of the canteen and opened her mouth to ask the staff member who was getting ready to leave work: "Excuse me to ask, do we still need these leftovers and leftover steamed buns and rice?"

The other looked at her and said with a helpless look on his face, "No way Lady, you've eaten for three people by yourself and you're still not full?"

Lady Wilson wiped her mouth in embarrassment and said with a compensatory smile, "Hey, I'm full, the children at home are still hungry, you don't know ah, almost two days and two nights without food."

The other asked in surprise, "Seriously? In what age are people still unable to eat?"

Lady Wilson's face was on fire, embarrassed, "Hey, you don't know, my family this period of time, something happened, the family's eldest daughter-in-law, ah, with breast cancer, found out is the advanced stage, now are almost dead ball, my eldest son in order to treat her, spent all the family's money....."

Now, I'm going to go back to the old days.

It's really very cool!

The first thing that I want to do is to get rid of the Lady.

So, making up rumors that Hannah was dying of breast cancer in front of others made her feel a thrill of revenge.

The cafeteria staff gasped at this, "Huh? Late stage breast cancer, that's too bad..."

"That's not all!" Lady Wilson sighed long and hard, "Hey... My eldest daughter-in-law has advanced breast cancer, and my second daughter-in-law is even worse!"

The staff hurriedly asked, "Lady, what's wrong with your second daughter-in-law again?"

Lady Wilson said with a regretful face, "Second daughter-in-law already had uremia, living on dialysis all day long, and as a result, on the way to the hospital for dialysis a while ago, she got hit by a car again and had her legs amputated from the buttocks down..."

The staff was scared, "Is this... . this bad?"

Lady Wilson had a face like this: "What is this? Worse is yet to come!"

The staff pursued, "What could be worse?"

Lady Wilson lamented and said, "My second son's wife, who lost her legs and had to go to the hospital for dialysis, was already miserable enough, but she ended up having a stroke again, and now she's crooked all day long, smacking and twitching, just like that movie Country Love, which is even worse than their condition."

Chapter 2002

She hated that life really was as miserable as she had made it up to be!

I even want her to be as miserable as possible!

But how did the staff know that she was totally believing it.

The staff felt that normal people, who have nothing better to do than to curse their own families out of thin air? So what the Lady said must be true.

So she said with incomparable sympathy, "No wonder you're still out working at such an old age, it's not easy for your family to be in such a mess one after another."

She said, "Lady, we still have seven or eight steamed buns left, almost four servings of rice, and a little leftover food base. I'll pack some for you to bring back!"

Lady Wilson was excited, but still managed to suppress her ecstatic mood and said with a forlorn face, "Where would I get a lunch box... My two daughters-in-law are dying, I can't afford to buy that thing..."

She said, the Lady drew the plastic bag hanging by the counter and said offhand, "How about this big sister, you put all those leftovers in a plastic bag for me and I'll carry them home."

The staff nodded eagerly and said, "I'm fine with that, as long as you don't mind!"

Lady Wilson panicked, "No dislike, no dislike!"

It was the first time I had a chance to see the world.

Lady Wilson regretted it a bit once she got started, thinking, "So much leftover food, it's too damn heavy! How can we carry this back?" But then I thought, "No, we have to carry back whatever we say, with this food, the family can at least cover two days, otherwise the hundred dollars I earned today would be enough for what?"

With that in mind, she could only thank her as she bit the bullet and carried the four bags of food home.

They're not the only ones who have a good understanding of the world. I'm not sure if this is the case, but I'm not sure if it is.

Come to think of it, it's better to take the bus.

The newest addition to the company's portfolio is the newest addition to the company's portfolio.

The first thing I noticed was that the old man was not a good boy.

In fact, she has long known that local senior citizens, who reach the age of 65 or older, can go to the civil affairs department to get a senior citizen card for free bus rides.

However, before the Lady Wilson, never take the bus out, are full-time drivers, special car pick-up, that time she, how to look at the free ride on public transport card for the elderly?

For her at the time, not to mention using this card, even having this card was humiliating.

But now she regretted it, and at the same time muttered in her heart, "Looks like I'll wait until after the New Year and after people go to work, and then I'll hurry up and get my senior citizen card, that way at least it's free to take public transportation, and if I save a few dollars a day, I can save a lot in a month."

Carrying several large bags of food, Lady Wilson returned to the Thompson First Villa with great difficulty.
