

Chapter 2501

Early morning in Aurous Hill. Cynthia Wade, who had lost at least a dozen pounds, walked out of the dark alley empty-handed. Five minutes ago, Don Albert's men opened her door and told her that she could leave. At that moment, Cynthia Wade cried bitterly. She had been fed up with Aurous Hill, a cold, shabby, dark and humid city village. She stayed in this tattered place for so many days, and there was a cheap musty smell all over her body, which made her feel sick all the time. She could leave early, but Charlie delayed her for several days for no reason, and then added seven days to the original deadline. In fact, if you count it, it's past early morning, which means it's overtime again. However, this time Cynthia Wade had learned well, and he dared not yell at Charlie, or even the servants who guarded her. Therefore, at the moment of getting permission, she almost didn't even think about it, and went straight out. After running out, she realized that she didn't know where to go so late. She wants to return to Eastcliff immediately, but there can be no flights at this time. If her private plane is transferred from Eastcliff, it will take at least two or three hours, so where will she go in these two or three hours?

Thinking of this, she immediately called Isaac Cameron. She felt that Isaac Cameron also had a private jet in Aurous Hill, and she could directly ask Isaac Cameron to send him back. However, what she didn't expect was that Isaac Cameron's mobile phone was turned off. Isaac Cameron knew that Don Albert was going to release Cynthia Wade tonight, so he set his phone to do not disturb mode long ago. In this Do Not Disturb mode, only Charlie can get through his phone, and any other number calling him will not go through.

Cynthia could not get through, she angrily said: "Damn Isaac Cameron, bI bet your phone is off because you are deliberately avoiding me!"

Cynthia Wade has no time to be angry with Isaac Cameron now. The most important thing for her now is to quickly return to Eastcliff. So she sent a video call to her father, Lord Wade. At this time, the old man had already fallen asleep, and when he received the video, he answered a little sleepily: "

Cynthia, what's the matter so late?" Cynthia Wade cried and said, "Dad! Charlie, that little bastard, finally let me out, but I can't go back to Eastcliff now. Isaac Cameron's mobile phone is also turned off. You can quickly arrange a plane for me to pick me up..."

Lord Wade said, "Charlie has let you go? Then take a taxi to the airport, and I will arrange a plane to pick you up."

Cynthia Wade choked up: "Dad! You shouldn't make me take a taxi to the airport. I've never taken a taxi before. The taxi is trashy. A car is worth less than the four tires on my car, and everyone in it is worthless. It's dirty just to sit in."

Lord Wade said helplessly: "Cynthia! You have lived in a dirty and messy village for so many days now. Are you afraid of taking a taxi?"

Cynthia cried: "Dad! I came to Aurous Hill according to your request this time, but I really have eaten all the hardships I have never experienced in my life..."

Lord Wade also had a headache, and said, "Okay. It's alright, if you have anything to say, say it straight. A person of your age shouldn't be crying. Don't cry at all, and crying won't solve any problems."

After that, he yawned and said weakly: "Hey, I'm too sleepy. At my very old age, it will have too much impact on my body if I don't sleep well, so I won't say any more. You can take a taxi to the airport and I will sleep."

Chapter 2502

Although Cynthia Wade feels wronged, there was nothing she could do. So she simply said: "Then dad, you can don't forget to send a plane before you go to sleep..."

Lord Wade said tiredly, "You don't need to call me for such a trivial matter as dispatching a plane. You can call Stephen Thompson and let him arrange it. "

When Cynthia Wade heard this, she felt even more aggrieved. "Of course I know that this kind of thing can be done directly to Stephen Thompson. But the reason why I went to the old man directly was to be pitiful in front of him. This can also change the old man's impression of Charlie. Besides, the old man knows that I have suffered such a grievance in Aurous Hill, and he will definitely give me some compensation. Unexpectedly, the old man doesn't value me so much..." Cynthia Wade thought. She was dissatisfied, but didn't dare to continue to mess with the old man at this time.

She was about to say goodnight to the old man and ended the video as soon as possible. Unexpectedly, the landline on the bedside of the old man suddenly rang. The landline at the head of the old man's bed is his emergency communication line. Only when a major incident occurs and the old man is already resting, the subordinates who report the matter will find the old man through this dedicated line. At this time, Lord Wade also realized that something important might happen, so he put down the video and picked up the landline directly and asked, "What happened?"

On the phone, Stephen Thompson blurted out, "Master! Just received the news. James, the second child of the Banks Family, went to Aurous Hill tonight, he disappeared in Aurous Hill!"

"What?!" Lord Wade, who was tired a second before, sat up and asked excitedly: "James disappeared in Aurous Hill?! Really?!"

Stephen Thompson said: "It's true! The Banks Family sent a lot of people to Aurous Hill overnight, just to carpet the whereabouts of James!"

Lord Wade suddenly became extremely excited, he laughed "Great! Really great! His first son went to Australia, another missing in Aurous Hill. The old man is down by two sons! His strength will be cut in half!" Then,

He couldn't help sighing: "James must have been done in by Charlie! In the whole Aurous Hill, he has this kind of strength and this kind of courage!"

Stephen Thompson said, "Master, there is no clear evidence yet. It must be Young Master Wade."

Lord Wade smiled very confidently: "It must be him! It must be him! It can be no other person besides him!"

After speaking, Lord Wade said again: "Charlie Wade dares to take the second son of the Banks family! He is like a newborn calf who is not afraid of tigers!"

On the phone, Stephen Thompson solemnly said: "Master Charlie Wade is the son of Bruce! Someone has long said that Bruce has the destiny of the real dragon, Master Charlie, He is the son of Bruce, so he is not a newborn calf, he is... he is a dragon!"

Lord Wade laughed and said, "Yes, yes! He is the son of Bruce! Just like his father. There is one of a kind!"

Lord Wade said excitedly: "With Charlie here, the Wade family's take off is just around the corner! Just around the corner!"

Cynthia Wade, still on the call, was shocked when she heard this. She has no energy to feel sad for the excitement of her father now. She was completely shocked by what Charlie did. She was shocked to the core, and she was also terrified: "Charlie...Is this guy crazy?! He even dares to move against James Banks?! That's the second son of the Banks Family! This guy does not even give any face to James Banks! What could I even do to make him pay for the humiliation he made to me?!"

Chapter 2503

Lord Wade at this time has no extra energy to take care of Cynthia.

Now he is extremely excited, and there is only one thought in his mind: "The Banks Family has suffered heavy blows one after another, and the opportunity for the Wade family to surpass the Banks Family is near!"

At this point, he immediately said to Stephen Thompson: "We must closely follow the movements of the entire Banks Family, and at the same time, secretly send more manpower to Aurous Hill, just in case, if they find Charlie, we must not stand by and watch!"

Stephen Thompson immediately said, "Yes master, I will arrange it!" After speaking, Stephen Thompson said again: "Master, or I can go there in person!"

Lord Wade said seriously: "You still don't need to go, your identity is more sensitive, if you go to Aurous Hill at this time, The Banks Family will think that this matter has something to do with us, so you just stand still in Eastcliff, join me, and watch the changes."

"Yes!" Stephen Thompson hurriedly agreed and said, "Master, what else do you have for me?"

Lord Wade asked: "You will inform others now. I will have a meeting in 20 minutes. In addition, if there is any movement in Aurous Hill, you must report to me immediately!"

"Yes master!"

Lord Wade hung up the phone. Cynthia, still on the call spoke up and said: "Dad...what should I do..."

Lord Wade realized that the video call with Cynthia had not been hung up, so he said: "Aren't you able to handle this? Just call Steven and ask him to arrange a plane to pick you up."

After that, Lord Wade remembered something and blurted out: "By the way, Charlie let the people under him release you, right? Then you didn't see him in person?"

"No..." Cynthia said angrily.

Lord Wade gave a hum, and said, "You can call Charlie and tell him that you are leaving. You can also call him to apologize for the offense before."

Cynthia was dumbfounded: "What?! Dad! He treated me so badly, you want me to apologize to him? He detained me in Aurous Hill for weeks! How was I causing him trouble?!"

Lord Wade said coldly: "Your character really needs to be changed. When you go to Aurous Hill this time, there are problems with many things. It is only reasonable that you apologize to Charlie. The impression left behind is very bad. This may cause a big obstacle to his return to our Wade family in the future. If you don't want to let go of this and you want to damage our relations with Charlie then I will not forgive you! "

Cynthia almost collapsed. But when she heard Lord Wade's tone just now, she knew that if she didn't do it, the old man would definitely not forgive her. So she could only say angrily: "Okay... I'll call him..."

"Good." Lord Wade nodded in satisfaction, and said: "I am ready to go to the meeting. Good day."

After speaking, the old man hung up the video. While wiping away her tears, Cynthia went to find Charlie's mobile phone number and called him. At this moment, Charlie was editing the video, and Cynthia's phone number suddenly came up. He couldn't help frowning, hesitated for a moment, then answered the phone.

"Hello. "

Cynthia was even more angry when he heard Charlie's cold voice, but she didn't dare to say anything cross, so she could only smile and say, "Charlie, it's your aunt..."

Charlie Asked coldly: "What's the matter?"

Cynthia hurriedly said: "I called to apologize to you... I came to Aurous Hill because I didn't know how to deal with things. It caused you a lot of trouble and made you angry. I hope you can forgive me this time." After that, she said: "Also, I am going back to Eastcliff tonight. My stay here has really caused you trouble."

Charlie didn't expect that his aunt would call and apologize to him. Moreover, it was after she had recovered her freedom. It stands to reason that his aunt is unlikely to really know her mistake and repent.

Chapter 2504

If you make this call before you regain your freedom, 80% chance that it is to be let out. However, after she regained her freedom, she called to apologize, which is really incredible. Maybe it was the old man who forced her to apologize. But Charlie didn't bother to pay much mind to her, after all, the video he is working on is much more important, so he said lightly: "I hope you will be able to be humble and not be so arrogant. Do better. Look out for yourself." After saying this he hung up the phone.

On the other side of the phone, Cynthia gritted her teeth and stomped her feet while secretly muttering: "Boy, your time is coming, I will get even sooner or later!"

Charlie hung up Cynthia 's call and continued editing the video. At this moment, he received a news feed. When he looked at the title, he couldn't help laughing immediately.

The title is: "The Banks Group suffered a series of disaster. Following the disappearance of Deana and Zara Banks, James Banks, the vice president of the Banks Group, was also kidnapped in Aurous Hill!"

Charlie clicked on this headline curiously, and found this news, which was about James's kidnapping and disappearance in Aurous Hill. In addition, the news writer also speculated that there must be an extremely powerful company, family, or organization that is deliberately launching an attack against the Banks Family. First, Deana and Zara were kidnapped, and now it was James who evaporated from the world. All of this came quickly to the Banks Family! He urged the majority of people to discern the truth and never be misled by those who deliberately discredit the Banks Family on the Internet. He also kept saying that everything will eventually be uncovered, and the black hands behind the scenes will eventually surface and accept legal sanctions. Originally, some people did not believe that the Banks Family was really innocent. However, when they saw the news that James was also missing in Aurous Hill, they changed their views.

In their view, this must be that someone was deliberately attacking the Banks Family. The Banks Family is really in a bad spot. Lord Banks' daughter-in-law, granddaughter, and son have been kidnapped one after another, life or death is uncertain, and they have been framed and blamed for the murder of their daughter-in-law and granddaughter... Within a short time, the district is full of sympathy and support for the Banks Family.

When Charlie saw this, a smile appeared on his face. In his opinion, the more the Banks Family desperately seized every opportunity to save face, the harder the fall would be.

However, this old dog Lord Banks is really a contemporary hero. Xion said that he could sell the granddaughter and Deana, the daughter-in-law, said that he could kill. Now that his own son is missing, he has not forgotten to take this opportunity to wash the ground for the Banks Family. However, he must have never imagined that all these efforts he made will not only help the Banks Family to reverse public opinion, but will make the Banks Family's fall worse!

He took ten minutes to edit all the videos. In the past ten minutes, the Banks Family has bought almost all of the media platforms and madly pushed the press release just now. The public opinion on the Internet has completely supported the Banks Family. Charlie unhurriedly opened TikTok at this time, and uploaded the edited video.

He titled the video: "The Kidnapping Case of Aurous Hill Treasure Pavilion and the Unknown Case of the Forbidden Mountain Tunnel Car Accident!"

Chapter 2505

At this moment, the whole internet is sympathetic to the Banks Family's experience, and at the same time, we can't wait to find out the behind-the-scenes as soon as possible, so that the whole case can be revealed. However, at the moment, neither the Banks Family, the police, nor the majority of people can find any really valuable clues. Therefore, as long as any so-called clues are released on the Internet, countless people will immediately watch.

After the video of Charlie was sent out, because the title mentioned the big secret, it immediately attracted many users to click. It doesn't matter if you look at it, the entire video is clearly and intuitively displayed in front of the audience. In the beginning, it was the scene of a tragic car accident. Tate Landry died, Deana and Zara were seriously injured, and their lives were unclear. Immediately afterwards, John Garrett introduced himself to the camera. He said the shocking secret that shocked everyone!

It turned out that the reason why Deana and Zara were kidnapped by Tate Landry was not accidental at all. All of this was instructed by Lord Banks, the old man of the Banks Family! The reason is that he was very dissatisfied with Deana's divorce from his son, and was even more angry about her coming to Aurous Hill to participate in the auction. He even killed his granddaughter! Seeing this, the people couldn't help but have a strong sense of disgust towards Lord Banks.

At this time, Charlie with his voice changed asked a question in the video. Charlie asked him why Lord Banks, an old dog, had created such a terrible incident for the little trouble in his family. At this time, everyone remembered that Tate Landry tied up explosives, rushed into the treasure pavilion, and shot several hostages. He was completely instigated by Lord Banks! Not only were several innocent hostages killed in vain because of Lord Banks's conspiracy. More importantly, the safety of hundreds of people was threatened by Tate Landry's explosives! It almost almost led to an extremely tragic event!

And behind this, it turned out to be Lord Banks's idea! Immediately afterwards, everyone saw James's video again. James, who was embarrassed, confessed to the camera that the old dog Lord Banks not only killed Deana and Zara, but also Xion before them. She was also the cause of Lord Banks! What's even more outrageous is that Lord Banks, an old dog, has harmed his granddaughter and pushed Zayne out of the family. He is simply inhumane! In an instant, all the people who saw this video were irritated by Lord Banks's shameless behavior. These people suddenly became part of the fission propaganda and forwarded this explosive video to all their relatives and friends around them. In an instant, the traffic of this video skyrocketed! In just 10 minutes, tens of millions of people have watched this video. The trend of public opinion on the Internet immediately changed 360 degrees.

People used all the vicious words they could think of on the Internet to curse the old dog Lord Banks. The police were distressed because they couldn't find any relevant clues. After they discovered this video, they were immediately angry. Just an hour ago, the public relations director of the Banks Group made a special call, urging the police to solve the case as soon as possible, give the Banks Family an explanation, and rescue the three missing Banks Family as soon as possible.

The police also felt the pressure, because after all, the Banks Family is the most powerful family in the country. As a result, it was unexpected that three members of the family disappeared in Aurous Hill one after another. The pressure on the Aurous Hill police was comparable to that of Tokyo during the turmoil in the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department. But they couldn't think of it, just when they tried their best to solve the case, suddenly such a video broke out!

It turns out that this whole thing is just a case where the the Banks Family is shouting to catch the criminal but they are the culprit! The Banks kept saying that the police should solve the case as soon as possible, so as to give them an explanation. In fact, they were behind the scenes behind all these bloody crimes! Aurous Hill Police immediately reported the situation to the higher authorities and required the higher authorities to severely investigate and deal with it.

Chapter 2506

At this moment, Lord Banks, who was exhausted, just fell asleep. A rapid knock on the door awakened him from his dream.

"Master! Master! Something happened !" The one who shouted outside the door was the chief butler of the Banks Family.

Lord Banks opened his eyes suddenly and sat up from the bed. At this moment, his heart was very nervous, because everything that happened today was almost completely out of control for him, so that even his son was still missing, so he was afraid that he would suddenly have some other bad news. He got up in a hurry, put on a nightgown, stepped to the door and opened it.

Outside the door, the butler's face was pale, and his face was covered with fine beads of sweat. He could see that he was in a state of high tension and fear. Lord Banks shook his head, seeing the posture of the butler, knowing that something very serious must have happened.

So he hurriedly asked: "What's wrong?!"

The butler said without tears: "Master...just a few minutes ago, someone posted a video on TikTok. This video was of John Garrett and James..."

"What?!" When Lord Banks heard that the video was shot of John Garrett and his second son James, he was panicked! Both John Garrett and James are missing, and there are no valuable clues yet. At that time, a video related to the two of them exposed on the Internet is definitely not good!

So he hurriedly asked: "What video?! Let me see it!"

The butler tremblingly took out his mobile phone, opened TikTok, and played the video that had close to 100 million views. When he saw the scene of the car accident, Lord Banks panicked! When John Garrett said in front of the camera, it was Lord Banks who wanted Deana killed, Lord Banks's face was as pale as paper! He had already lost control of his emotions, and screamed: "Who did this...who did this?! Who did it?! I...I want to kill him! Kill his family!"

The steward said falteringly : "Master, you...you must watch the rest..." Lord Banks swallowed subconsciously and continued to look. At this time, John Garrett pushed Zara's death to Lord Banks' head in front of the camera. Lord Banks was furious instantly!

"What nonsense?! When did I want to kill Zara?! Son of a bitch! I keep him for so many years, he even betrayed me! I really want him cut to pieces! The person behind the video must be the one who opposes me behind the scenes. I will find him no matter what, and kill him soon!"

The housekeeper said, "Master, James is also in the hands of this mysterious man!"

As soon as his voice fell, the video switched to James's part. James in the picture is so miserable. He is a fifty-year-old middle-aged fat man, his body was stripped down to only a pair of pants, his body was poured over with cold water, and his head was still covered with ice. And his expression is full of fear and pleading, there is no slightest aura of the second son of the Banks Family, it is completely a middle-aged waste.

Lord Banks couldn't help feeling a little distressed. After all, he was his own son, and after the eldest son was abandoned by himself, the second son became the best candidate for heir in his mind. Seeing him being tortured in this way, Lord Banks naturally felt a deep feeling of distress. However, when James in the video spoke, Lord Banks's distress for him disappeared without a trace! After a while, he exploded like an erupting active volcano, roaring furiously: "This beast! He sold his father! I...I..."

Chapter 2507

Because Lord Banks was so angry, he couldn't keep his breath and he fell to one side in a daze.

The housekeeper hurriedly stepped forward and held him up, and said, "Master, how are you doing? Are you okay?"

Lord Banks was so angry that he couldn't even speak, and the housekeeper saw him in this state. Out of the intercom, he shouted: "The doctor, the master is not feeling well now, come here!"

Lord Banks breathed quickly, and said with difficulty: "Hurry...hurry up and help me sit on the sofa. ...." The butler hurriedly helped him, and carefully helped him to the sofa. At this time, the family doctor also rushed over, holding an oxygen bag and quick-acting stress pill in his hand. The doctor and the housekeeper together, after Lord Banks took the stress Pills, he inhaled oxygen again, which made his condition a little better.

Lord Banks was full of anger at this time. He clenched his fists and gritted his teeth and cursed: "This is because someone deliberately tried to destroy the Banks Family! Someone deliberately wants me dead!"

The housekeeper hurriedly said: "Master, Don't worry about it, your body is the most important thing anyway, but don't get angry..."

Lord Banks said in anguish: "I'm over, I'm over! This video, Not only did he announce the affairs of Xion and Deana, but he also held the black pot of Zara on me. Moreover, Tate Landry's account of tying explosives and rushing into the treasure pavilion to hold hostages was also counted on my head, this is... This is to make me a public enemy of the whole people!"

Thinking of this, Lord Banks was desperate! he knows too well the Chinese people's hatred and hatred quality and character. Those stars in the entertainment industry who have all kinds of bad deeds are shunned by the whole country. What more is going to happen to him? What if you have money? ? In front of the people, the richer you are, the less you can be arrogant and do whatever you want! Although the Banks Family was rich and powerful, they only dared to operate many dirty things behind the scenes, and never dared to get it to the face.

Sometimes people catch some clues accidentally by the people, and a lot of money and energy must be spent on crisis public relations. Just as many people on the Internet previously suspected that Lord Banks wanted to kill Deana, Lord Banks smashed hundreds of millions in a day for his own image, and washed the whole network. The reason is also the fear of exposing oneself, provoking criticism from the people across the country. However, Lord Banks couldn't even imagine that the situation he thought he had controlled would collapse completely in an instant!

The impact of this video right now is like a huge tsunami rushing toward the face. In the face of catastrophes like the tsunami, mankind has no chance of escape at all. The public opinion was extremely angry, leaving him no room for reversal at all. Lord Banks said to himself in pain: "All my previous efforts, all public relations, all of a sudden, all of them were in vain..."

Speaking of this, he continued angrily: "Not only in vain, but on the contrary. It also had the opposite effect! I had known that it would be the situation today, I would not choose to start with Deana in Aurous Hill... That was lifting a rock and hitting myself in the foot. I raised the machete. I cut off my hand..."

Chapter 2508

The butler couldn't help sighing: "Hey! Lord Banks, I didn't expect that John Garrett would take people to Aurous Hill to do this thing personally. There is also James, I really can't imagine that someone in the little Aurous Hill would dare to attack the second son, is he tired of his life?"

Lord Banks roared, "Check it out! You must check it out for me! Find out who is doing it against me! In addition, another 5 billion will be used for crisis public relations. Within 10 minutes, I will remove this video from all websites and apps. At the same time, no media is allowed Publish any opinions on this video!"

The butler said embarrassedly: "Master...other platforms and apps are okay, but TikTok, that is owned by the Wade family..."

What the hell?!" Lord Banks's eyes widened, and he blurted out: "This TikTok belongs to the Wade family? When did the Wade family start to enter the Internet industry?"

The butler said: "In fact, the Wade family has been around for several years." They bought TikTok a month ago. At that time, it seemed to have spent more than 80 billion. However, I don't know what the purpose of Wade's purchase of this platform was. Moreover, this kind of platform. Although it is very popular, it is because it is basically free for users, the profitability is relatively narrow. In addition to advertising, it is to let a group of Internet celebrities engage in live broadcast sales, and then the platform will take a profit from it. , The profit margin is much lower than the industry we are usually engaged in."

Lord Banks said desperately: "What is the Wade family's doing? Why would they buy this platform if it is not profitable?! What a fucking evil! "

The Banks Family and the Wade family are both top big families with a century-old history.

such big families, like the Rothschild family, generally operate in traditional industries. For example, the energy industry, financial industry, manufacturing industry, real estate industry and ocean shipping industry. But the established family basically does not touch the Internet industry. This is not to say that they are not interested in the Internet industry, but because they have been working in traditional industries for many years, all their advantages, contacts, and resources are concentrated in traditional industries. Moreover, the way of thinking of this kind of people is relatively conservative, so they generally do not take the initiative to do the Internet.

This is why the Internet giants all over the world are basically emerging rich. It is rare to hear of a top family with a century-old history that has created outstanding achievements in the Internet industry. The Banks Family is naturally the same. Lord Banks has basically no access to the Internet, so the Banks Family hardly does business on the Internet. Therefore, he basically doesn't know much about social media platforms. He only knows that it is a leisure and entertainment platform that some young people prefer.

In his impression, the Wade family seemed to be no different from the Banks Family. But he really didn't know that the Wade family actually bought TikTok. If TikTok belongs to the Wade family, then the possibility of wanting the Wade family to not publicize this video is almost zero.

But Lord Banks was unwilling to give up. He knows that the most important thing for him now is to delete this video quickly so that others can no longer watch it, and completely interrupt its spread. So if you want to achieve this goal, you can only ask the Wade Family for help.

So he covered his chest and said with difficulty: "Go and get my phone, I want to call Lord Wade!"

Chapter 2509

After Lord Wade heard the news of James' disappearance, he immediately summoned his sons and Stephen Thompson for a meeting overnight. In this meeting, Lord Wade and his sons were very excited. The Banks Family's loss this time was indeed heavy. The eldest son was sacrificed in the last round and the reputation of Master Banks was preserved, but in a blink of an eye, the second son also folded in, which would surely make the entire Banks Family upset. And the shortage of manpower is the next most serious problem for the Banks Family.

But at this moment, Stephen Thompson suddenly received a message. He looked down at his mobile phone and said with excitement: "Master, it seems that someone has exposed Banks' family on TikTok! Now the discussion among people is very intense!"

"Oh?!" Lord Wade hurriedly asked: "What content was exposed? Let me take a look!"

Stephen Thompson immediately opened TikTok, it was ranked first in the algorithm recommendation, it was the video uploaded by Charlie. Everyone hurriedly gathered around, and after watching it for dozens of seconds, everyone was excited and unable to speak.

After watching the video, Lord Wade was a little trembling with excitement: "This...this...this is really God helping me too! Lord Banks that old dog, not this time. The Banks Family is over this time! Hahaha!"

Charlie's uncle Corran couldn't help but sigh, "As soon as this video comes out, the Banks Family basically has no room to turn around Not only will the people across the country attack them, the police will also attack them, and the Thorne Family will never let them go!"

"Yeah!" Myles said with a smile: "In my opinion, it won't be long before the strength of the Banks Family will have been weakened one after another in many ways, maybe we don't need to do anything, and we will become the first family in the country again in a few days!"

Lord Wade nodded, and said, "This time, things are extraordinary. This old dog Lord Banks dares to make fun of the lives of hundreds of people. It is impossible for the people to forgive him easily! He's getting burned!"

Corran couldn't help asking, "Dad, how do you think they would punish the Banks Family?"

Lord Wade said seriously, "Such a major matter, and it has caused such a big public outrage, what the Banks Family can do It is to be borne by someone criminal responsibility, otherwise it would not be easy to give the general public an explanation."

Corran exclaimed: "Take criminal responsibility?" ! Could the old man Banks go to jail? "

William shook his head, opening:" Lord Banks is nearly eighty, it is unlikely he will go to jail, even if sentenced, it would be probation. "

Myles asked:" Dad, do you think they will arrest and sentence Lord Banks? "

William smiled:" That depends on if Lord Banks can find a scapegoat." Speaking of this, he couldn't help but said with a sarcasm: "But the way I see it, if Lord Banks wants to find someone to come out and take the blame, the people won't agree. After all, he already has a precedent for giving Zayne the pot. In this case, even if he pushes another son out to take the blame, the people will not buy it."

Corran said with a smile: "Then Lord Banks is in real trouble this time."

William nodded his head and said: "This time throwing it to a scapegoat is impossible. With this kind of thing, if people were not killed, and he could say that Tate Landry has died, then there could be no check against him, Lord Banks could have said that he just wanted Tate Landry to help teach Deana, and that he did not instruct Tate Landry to kill, then it would be impossible to directly convict him of intentional homicide." So saying, William added: "Lord Banks, after all, is strong, Lord Banks will try to find a way, as much as possible, to help their acquittal and mitigate punishment. With his age, it is nearly impossible to really convict him of a felony, so I estimate that he is likely to be charged with a minor crime, and then sentenced to a few years in prison. He is indeed very old, and then he will apply for a parole sentence outside prison. Basically It's just over."

Corran was extremely excited: "Hey! It would be great if Tate Landry hadn't died, and if he was captured alive, and then let him tell the truth about the matter in court, then Lord Banks would not escape death."

Lord Wade smiled slightly: "Corran, you are still too naive about this."

Corran asked puzzledly : "Dad, what do you mean by this?"

Lord Wade said lightly: "If Tate Landry is really not dead, Lord Banks may have escaped the country overnight!"

Chapter 2510

"How could he let himself stay in the country and become a prisoner? You know, he didn't have more than ten years to live, if sentenced to a fixed-term imprisonment of more than 10 years, then he can only die in prison! In that case, why not just escape? As long as you escape, with his assets, anywhere in the world he can live in any place like a king! The big deal is to give up the position of the Banks Family Patriarch, and then he will retire early and enjoy his later life for more than ten years. After he died, let his family transport his remains back to China and bury them in the ancestral grave of the Banks Family, it is considered the fallen leaves to return to their roots. In this case, he wouldn't need to sit in prison for a day."

Corran suddenly realized when he heard this. So, he said embarrassingly: "Dad, you consider things more comprehensively..."

Lord Wade sighed slightly, and thought to himself: "I have to say, my sons are growing up. They are really wise, but are are really lackluster."

Just as he sighed deep in his heart, his mobile phone suddenly rang. As Lord Wade, there may not be more than 10 people who know his mobile phone number and can call him directly except for his family. So at the moment the phone rang, he was somewhat surprised. Looking down, Lord Wade suddenly laughed.

"Haha! It turned out to be Lord Banks, this old guy is calling me so late, I don't know what the idea was!"

Several other people were immediately curious. You know, the Banks Family and the Wade family have almost no contact, especially the Patriarch of the two families, who regard each other as a thorn in the eye. Some of the previous negotiations on the division of territories were not discussed by the two in person, but were handed over to their own next generation. Now, Lord Banks suddenly called Lord Wade, and everyone was very curious about what Lord Banks wanted.

Lord Wade answered the phone and turned on the speaker. Lord Banks' voice came from the other end of the phone: "Oh Brother Wade! I haven't seen you for many days. What have you been up to?"

Lord Wade snorted and said with a smile: "Lord Banks. You know we don't engage in polite greetings anymore, just tell me what's the matter."

Lord Banks hesitated for a moment, and then he said: "Okay! Since Brother Wade is so happy, then I won't follow you too much. I called hoping that Brother Wade can do me a favor!"

Lord Wade smiled and said, "Ask me for help? What can I do?"

Lord Banks sighed and said seriously: "Brother Wade, I know that in the past, I have been really offensive, but this time I did have a little trouble, my brother, so I hope you can ignore the previous offense and help me delete the video about our Banks Family on your TikTok."

Lord Wade Surprised and said: "Oh, you want me to delete that video?"

"Yes!" Lord Banks said hurriedly, "I don't know if Brother Wade can help? If you can, you can name a price!"

Lord Wade He smiled and said exaggeratedly: "Oh, Lord Banks, let me just say something from my heart... You must be going crazy in your old age!"

Chapter 2511

Lord Wade's mockery made Lord Banks angry immediately! He really didn't expect that he would insult him when he came to Lord Wade to beg his help. As a result, the old bastard said that he was going senile! this is really outrageous!

But he still gritted his teeth and said: "Brother Wade! Our families have been fighting for so many years. You should also know that the mountains don't turn around. If you want to completely turn your face with me today, I will relax in the future. Otherwise don't blame me for being ruthless."

Lord Wade sneered, "Lord Banks, it's understating for me to say that you are a criminal. If you are really capable of forcing my hand, what's the point of coming to pretend to be a friend?" After he finished speaking, he continued to sneer: "You ran over to me to delete the video, which tells me you have no way of forcing my hand, or you would have started with that!"

Lord Banks suffered a huge humiliation, gritted his teeth and said: "Okay! Lord Wade, if you don't want to delete the video, then I won't force it. Since there is no front, then we will talk business directly. I heard that your TikTok was bought for more than 80 billion. I will give you 120 billion, you sell it to me and make a net profit of more than 30 billion, how about it?"

"No!" Lord Wade refused without hesitation: "You don't know how much I like the social media industry. The reason why I bought this platform in the beginning was to make the industry bigger and stronger. How could I sell so early?"

Lord Banks said coldly, "Speaking of which, isn't it just a little money? Well, I won't grind with you anymore, 150 billion! As long as you say, I will arrange payment now!"

"Impossible." Lord Wade smiled slightly: "I, as a person, have never been troubled by money in principle, but today's matter is definitely not a problem that money can solve. I advise you to die."

After speaking, he didn't wait for Lord Banks to respond, and simply hung up the phone. Lord Banks on the other end of the phone was so angry that his chest started to beat violently.

His butler hurriedly asked: "Master! This Lord Wade made it clear that he wanted to see our demise. Do you think he was secretly instigating the affairs of Aurous Hill? Maybe James is in his hands now. "

Lord Banks waved his hand: "No, Aurous Hill is part of his home turf, that would throw him into light as the prime suspect if he did that." Speaking, Lord Banks said again: "Don't forget, Tate Landry has never been to Aurous Hill before. When he exposed himself in Aurous Hill, he had just arrived in Aurous Hill. Think about it, when he arrived in Aurous Hill, he was consciously discovered by the police immediately, then rushed into the treasure pavilion and kidnapped Deana and Zara. After that, when he drove Deana and Zara to rendezvous with John Garrett, something happened suddenly, and the Wade Family didn't even have an hour to prepare. In this time window of less than an hour, they not only have to track Tate Landry accurately, but also have the ability to directly take down John Garrett and the four of them. John Garrett is very strong. As far as I know, the Wade family has No one who can surpass him."

Speaking of this, Lord Banks continued to analyze: "There is also the disappearance of James! James is in the hotel, protected by more than 20 masters from our Banks Family, but the other party can easily take him away without the more than 20 masters noticing it. This proves the strength of the other party. Among more than twenty masters like us, how can there be such a powerful person in the Wade family?"

Chapter 2512

"If the Wade Family is really capable of this, then they could easily kidnap me away, or kill me directly at home. After being assassinated, how could we keep our family from being crushed?"

"This is also..." The butler hesitated for a moment, and then asked: "Master, then, do you think it was the Wade family who suddenly made friends with some kind of hidden master?"

"It's unlikely..." Lord Banks shook his head, and said: "The Wade family has always paid less attention to martial arts masters than we do. Lord Wade only makes money and spends a lot of money. Money raises a large number of martial arts masters, this kind of thing is not interesting at all. So how can such people not find real masters to help?" After that, Lord Banks said with a grim expression: "I can think of the possibilities now. There are three things."

The housekeeper hurriedly asked: "Master, which three are they?"

Lord Banks said: "The first possibility is that the Elms family is against me in secret.!"

"The Elms family?!" The housekeeper hurriedly asked: "You Are you talking about Xion's family?"

"Yes!" Lord Banks gritted his teeth: "Since Xion's accident, the Elms family has evacuated all the masters in our Banks Family, but he has never asked me for an explanation. So the reason why he didn't ask me to talk about it was probably because he was planning to seek revenge on me secretly. Moreover, the Elms family is a martial arts family, and there are many masters in the family. Maybe it's the ghost they made in secret."

The butler asked again, "Master. What about the other two possibilities?"

Lord Banks said with a solemn expression: "Xion is still a wildcard. She could be dead or alive. If this girl is dead, it will be fine, but if she really escaped, she is also likely to find revenge!"

The steward said: "Master, since Xion's whereabouts is unknown, I have followed your instructions and have been paying attention to the customs entry situation across the country, and there has been no clue about Xion."

That can't be taken lightly!" Lord Banks sighed: "Although Xion is very young, she is indeed very capable. If she is really alive, she is a ticking time bomb." After that, Lord Banks continued: "However, no matter if it is the whole Elms family or Xion, their strength is very strong, but they are really not strong enough to cross our top 20 masters. The masters are unaware of anything, so this is something I haven't figured out..."

The housekeeper nodded and said seriously: "When the Elms family didn't turn face with us before, almost all of the situation in the family was

It is very clear that the strongest of their generation of young people is Xion , but she does not seem to be that strong..."

Lord Banks sighed and said, "There is another possibility."

The butler hurriedly asked: "Master, what's the possibility?"

Lord Banks said: "Do you remember that Fitz and Zara had an accident in Japan and were saved by a mysterious Chinese man?" "

"I remember." The butler said: "Miss Zara has always wanted to find the whereabouts of the mysterious person."

Lord Banks said: "That person is extremely powerful!" One person can kill multiple top Japanese ninjas unharmed, which is almost equivalent to one person being able to continuously kill multiple Chinese martial arts masters! Definitely the top of the top! If this person is really so strong, then he could quietly abduct James under the eyes of more than 20 masters in the Banks Family, there is still a possibility of this!"

Chapter 2513

Lord Banks now has completely messed up. It is precisely because of this that his thinking began to diverge, and even a little off the deep end. Deep down, he felt that the master behind this incident was probably the super master who saved Fitz and Zara in Japan.

But the housekeeper felt a bit whimsical. He said euphemistically:

"Master, the master that the eldest lady met in Japan has not confirmed his identity until now. We don't even know whether he is a Chinese native or a Chinese living in Japan. And Kyoto and Aurous Hill are thousands of kilometers apart, in a vast crowd of people, how can the two people overlap each other. Although this possibility exists, the probability is really too low..."

Lord Banks shook his head and said seriously: "The basis for my judgment is not probability, but feeling!" After all Lord Banks analyzed: "This mysterious person in Aurous Hill gave me a powerful feeling. I have only experienced this feeling once before. And the last time I felt this way was after I heard about the deeds of that super master in Japan! That guy can easily kill many top Japanese ninjas in close hand-to-hand combat, and he didn't make a fuss. This kind of master is something I have never heard of in all my years!"

"Although I have also heard of a lot of duels between Chinese and Japanese masters, and most of them are Chinese masters winning, but To be honest, I have never heard of a Japanese Ninja master showdown where a Chinese master can win unscathed. Even Bruce Lee can't guarantee his victory without injury. If the opponent can be unharmed, it will prove that his strength is far ahead of the opponent! In other words, this mysterious person can be unscathed with one enemy and seven, so it is not a problem to be afraid of one enemy and ten. Even if the number of opponents doubles, perhaps he can still pay a small price and win! One person killed fourteen top ninjas, how many people do you think there can be in the world who could do this?!"

The steward fell into thought. After a long time, he nodded seriously and said: "Master, you are right... He can kill seven Japanese ninjas unharmed, so his upper limit is far from seven. If you count this way, The strength of this person is simply unheard of..."

Lord Banks continued: "And this time Aurous Hill's behind-the-scenes man can not only easily capture the four men and John Garrett, but also has more than 20 masters in the Banks Family on guard and he quietly took James away. This strength is also unheard of. So this man feels like that mysterious Japanese master. I don't know anything at all, but these two mysterious persons bring me the same feeling, which makes me have to connect the two together!"

Speaking of this, Lord Banks said firmly: "Moreover! Between these two mysterious people Not only does the relationship feel the same, the important thing is that there is a clue that completely overlaps!"

The housekeeper hurriedly asked: "Master, what clue?!"

Lord Banks coldly spit out two words: "Zara Banks!"

Chapter 2514

The butler looked terrified and blurted out: "You mean, last time in Japan, the mysterious master saved the eldest lady, this time in Aurous Hill, he also saved the eldest lady?! "

"Yes." Lord Banks nodded his head, blurting out: " I have this feeling that Zara is not dead, she was really alive, and that to one to save her is the mysterious person who has rescued her once!"

The butler asked in a puzzled way: "Master, if the man behind Aurous Hill this time is really the mysterious person in Japan, then I can understand that he saved the eldest lady. But he kidnapped the second son also. Why?"

Lord Banks said: "James went to Aurous Hill on behalf of the Banks Family to deal with this matter. The natural thought is that he is there to avenge Deana and Zara. So he would naturally take James to get a preemptive strike in."

The butler hesitated: "Why is that mysterious person so good to Miss Zara? Why has he saved her twice?"

Lord Banks said sadly, "I can't tell you this, if my speculation is true, then this time I really made a terrible move..."

After that, Lord Banks sighed and said to himself: "If I knew that this mysterious master had love for Zara. If I died, I would not have attacked Deana. She is Zara's mother after all. If I kill her. Zara would not forgive me in this life..."

For a moment, Lord Banks looked extremely annoyed, and said in pain: "If my speculation is correct, then this mysterious person originally had a chance to be married to my Banks Family! How else can it develop to the point it is today!"

The butler hurriedly asked: "Master, If this is the case, is there still room for recovery?"

"Recovery?" Lord Banks wrinkled his old face into a ball, and said angrily: "How can I recover it now? I expelled her father and killed her mother. ,And even more nonsense, James and that damn John Garrett threw Zara's attempted murder on me. How could Zara forgive me?"

The butler thought for a while and said hurriedly: "Master, I have an idea, I don't know if it is feasible..."

Lord Banks quickly spat out: "Say it!"

The butler whispered: "In my opinion, it is better to let Zayne come back now! On the one hand, You have to apologize to him and explain that you started with Deana to protect the reputation of the family. As for Zara, this is simply someone else who wants to plant the blame on you! On the other hand, if you ask him to come back and continue to sit in his previous position, you are tantamount to taking a step back and showing him good grace."

Lord Banks's expression immediately became very weird. The housekeeper continued at this time: "Master, if your guess is correct, if Zara is still alive, then her mother must be alive too. You deported Zayne Australia before. , Today you drove Fitz out of the house which is equivalent to offending all four of the eldest son's family..."

After that, he remembered something, and hurriedly added: "Oh, yes, there is Xion! Xion's whereabouts are still unknown, and if this mysterious person is really in Aurous Hill, then I guess if Xion is still alive, maybe even she is by his side... So it seems, sir, you offended them all yes... But, the most important thing for you now, sir, is to quickly break one by one and try to save relationships with them. As long as there is someone in their family of four who speaks for you, you have the opportunity to break the game instead of being a dead end! "

Lord Banks was silent for a long time. He understood what the housekeeper meant. He knew that he had really offended his eldest son Zayne's family too hard. If Zayne was recalled to Eastcliff and confessed to him, he would be restored as heir then this matter may be reversed.

Chapter 2515

At this moment, Zayne is talking on the phone with his son Fitz. Fitz drove from Eastcliff to Aurous Hill late at night, but as soon as he arrived in Aurous Hill, he immediately fell into a predicament at a loss. He came to Aurous Hill to find the whereabouts of his mother and sister. However, the Aurous Hill police sent thousands of people to search the city for a whole day without any results. Fitz alone did not know where to start. He originally planned to go back to the Thorne's old house in Aurous Hill first and ask the old housekeeper for help. In that case, there is still a place to stay. However, when he thought that he had just offended his grandfather, and his grandfather sent people to search for his whereabouts, he suddenly felt a little worried.

Therefore, he called Zayne, who was far away in Australia, for help, and said to him: "Dad, grandpa knows that grandpa Thorne has an old house in Aurous Hill, maybe he has already sent someone there to wait for me to come. If I go to the old housekeeper for help, I might have been caught by the Banks Family before I even enter the door."

Zayne said solemnly, "There is indeed this risk! I think you should be more cautious. Don't contact the old housekeeper yet."

Fitz quickly asked: "Dad, what should I do now?" he emotionally choked back tears and said: "Dad I do not know what to do now. I don't know the whereabouts of Mom and Zara. I want to find them, but I don't have the ability to find them at all. I don't even have a helper around me. I feel like I'm a complete waste."

Zayne sighed and said with relief: "Don't be too self-conscious. This kind of thing is far beyond the scope that you can control. Even your grandfather can't grasp the direction of the whole thing, let alone you?"

Fitz cried and said: "I don't want to worry about him! I just want to find Mom and Zara as soon as possible, and make sure they are safe, otherwise, I will never forgive that old man in my life!" After that, Fitz hurriedly said: "Dad! Come back and help me, Dad! You are not here, my ability alone is too limited"

Zayne hesitated for a moment, and said: "You should look for a place to stay, but don't expose your whereabouts to the outside world. I'll wait for your grandpa's movement to see which path he is going to take next."

In fact, for Zayne, although he has already seen news reports and seen The video uploaded by Charlie and he hated Lord Banks, but he still didn't dare to turn his face against Lord Banks directly. The reason why he didn't dare to turn his face was also very simple. It was a complete lack of ability. Zayne doesn't even have a position as the head of the Banks Family, and Lord Banks is the real decision maker of the Banks Family.

Moreover, modern society is very different from feudal society. Feudal society can seek to usurp the throne, but in modern society, everything pays attention to the legal system. Almost all the assets of the Banks Group are in the name of the father. Even if other shareholders hold the shares of the Banks Group, the shares correspond to the vote. The right is completely handed over to the old man. It is impossible to seize the power of the old man. Even if the old man is killed, the shares in the old man's name will be linked to the major trust funds. The rest of the Banks Family can only take some living expenses from the trust funds on a regular basis. Not take control of the Banks Family. Therefore, even if Zayne knew that the old man was going to kill his wife, he would also kill his other daughter by the way, he didn't have the guts to go back and fight the old man desperately. Because as long as he dared to leave Australia without the permission of his father, he might be put under house arrest directly.

Chapter 2516

Because of this, although he was very worried about Zara's safety, he still did not dare to leave Australia for half a step until the father spoke. He even dared not call to question the old man, because once he angered the old man, his fate would only become worse on the existing basis. Fitz is young and has not really experienced anything. The biggest and most serious thing he has experienced in his life was when he was kidnapped in Japan. In fact, when he was kidnapped, he had already panicked. The whole process was like a quail half-dead in fright. He was far less calm than his sister Zara, so all the pressure at the moment was concentrated on his own shoulders, and he couldn't breathe. He desperately wanted his father to come back and be his backbone, but unfortunately, he dared not to disobey the old man.

Hearing that his father said he was waiting, Fitz couldn't control his emotions, and shouted: "Wait more? What are you waiting for? You are waiting to come back after the death of Mom and Zara to attend their funeral?!"

Zayne felt that every word his son said was like a loud slap in the face, slammed on his cheek, making him feel that his heart was dripping blood. However, he had no choice at this time. He has experienced far more things than Fitz. He knows what is meant by "the courage not to be one man", and he knows what is meant by "planning and then acting. He felt that those who knew the opponent had a gun and rushed up with their bare hands were brave men. Such people are mostly cannon fodder for others, how can they have the opportunity to become a famous player on the battlefield? The son angered the old man. In his opinion, he is already stupid. If he disobeys the old man's intentions at this time and runs back to the country during this sensitive period, he will definitely touch the old man's inverse scales. Once the old man thinks he is rebellious. Then in this life, there is no chance for him to get up again.

Therefore, he could only patiently explain: "Fitz, you asked me to go back and help you, but you know that with your grandfather's character, if I go back now, you know that I wouldn't even get to you before your grandfather would take me. It's even possible that you will never have the chance to see me again in your life."

He hesitated for a few seconds and said seriously: "Fitz, you listen to Dad once, it's too late today, you settle down in Aurous Hill first, To ensure your safety, contact your grandpa and ask your grandpa and your uncle to send someone to help you find the whereabouts of your mother and your sister. You can give me one day. If your grandpa does not contact you during this day I, then I'll beg him, no matter what, I will let him approve me to return to China."

Fitz wanted to scold his father angrily. However, after calming down, he also understood that what Dad said was not without reason. On the contrary, Dad was deliberate, but he was a bit too impulsive.

Thinking of this, he said softly: "Dad, if I know, you don't need to worry about me. I'll call Grandpa in a while, and I will communicate with you again if something happens."

Zayne gave a sigh and said: "Don't call your grandfather tonight. I guess he should already be planning how to find your mother and your sister. Don't bother him. Let's talk about it tomorrow!"

As he said, his phone suddenly rang. When a call came in, he exclaimed: "Your grandpa is calling me!"

Chapter 2517

Receiving a call from Lord Banks, Zayne felt both reasonable and outside reason. He reassured his son a few words quickly, then hung up the phone and turned on Lord Banks's call instead, and couldn't wait to figure out Lord Banks's intentions.

As soon as the phone was connected, Zayne said nervously, "Dad, why are you calling me so late?"

Lord Banks sighed on the other side of the phone, and said, "Hey, Zayne, Dad called to apologize to you." As he said, he asked, "You have already watched the videos circulating on the Internet?"

Zayne said truthfully: "Yes, Dad, I did." As soon as the voice fell, Zayne said again. Quickly add one sentence: "Dad, I know you must have some opinions on Deana, but I believe you will definitely not have any bad intentions towards Zara. James and John Garrett must be coerced by others, so they talk nonsense and pour dirty water on you!"

Zayne's words instantly moved Lord Banks's heart deeply. He really did not expect that his eldest son, at this time, could be so rational and objective, and he even broke through the truth of what he most wanted to scream in his heart! The truth of this matter is: "I fucking really never thought of killing my own granddaughter! I want to kill only Deana alone!"

"But, along with John Garrett and my own son, they all identified me in the video. My guilt, all the unwarranted charges, were thrown on me alone, and it was seen by more than one billion people across the country. I am so damned that I can't defend it!"

Human emotions are so subtle. Even if you are quite prejudiced against a person, when you are not understood by anyone and only this person can understand you, your attitude towards him will definitely change 180 degrees. Because he is your only soulmate. Lord Banks felt this way at this time! Unexpectedly, it was impossible to understand that his eldest son would break the secret in a word, which not only moved him, but also made him a little surprised. Zayne's words are actually intentional.

He actually hated Lord Banks very much in his heart, because even if Zara was not caused by the old man, Xion certainly was. Moreover, Zayne himself was buckled in a shit basin and thrown to Australia, which was also done by the old man himself. In this case, Zayne's hatred for him would not diminish at all. But he still cleverly concealed all the negative emotions, and from the beginning expressed a full understanding of the old man, and this time he won the deep heart of the old man.

The old man sighed and said: "Zayne, you know me, Zara is my most beloved granddaughter, how could I be cruel to her? The outsiders are really confused! Just listen to it. It is an obvious framing!" As he said, he hurriedly said again: "By the way, there are so many major incidents happening at home now one after another at home, you can't stay alone in Australia and enjoy the good fortune. Come back and help Dad tide over the difficulties!"

When Zayne heard the old man's words, his expression was even worse than eating shit.

Chapter 2518

"The old man does have a set. Obviously he sent me to Australia, and then put me under house arrest in disguise, and now he needs me to go back to help, even said that I am now in Australia to enjoy the good fortune, do I fucking enjoy it in this shabby place?"

Even though he thought so, Zayne immediately followed the old man's words and said: "Dad, I'm so sorry, I really have taken a break during this period. If you need me to go back and help, then I am waiting for your dispatch at any time."

Zayne wanted to go back, but he couldn't immediately state that. So he said if you need me, then I will set off. Even if the old man said something for this purpose, he must put the initiative in the old man's hands, and say one more word at the end, always waiting for the old man's dispatch. In this way, on the one hand, I appear to have absolute respect for the old man, on the other hand, I also appear to be humble in front of the old man. In this way, it can also reduce the old man's defensive heart for himself.

Hearing this, the old man felt refreshed and hurriedly said: "Well, I'll let the Australian side prepare the plane, and you can get back as soon as possible!"

After that, he added: "Yes, I plan to leave as soon as possible. Go to the southern region to hide from the limelight. Otherwise, the police and Thorne's family will come to you before dawn. It must be a big trouble then."

Zayne hurriedly asked, "Dad, you are leaving Eastcliff and plan to go somewhere?"

Lord Banks said: "I plan to go to Southaven, where we have some of our industries and a large manor. I want to go there first and be in quiet, and it is also closer to Aurous Hill, so it is more convenient for me to take command."

Zayne asked: "Dad, am I flying to Eastcliff or Southaven?"

"Fly to Southaven." Lord Banks said: "Go directly to the airport by helicopter. You can be there in about three hours in Southaven, I will fly directly to Southaven, I will wait for you there."

"Okay!" Zayne said immediately: "Then I will prepare for it."

Lord Banks said, "Zayne, there are some things, dad also has difficulties, you must not blame dad, especially Deana's affairs, Dad is also helpless to think about the reputation of the Banks Family."

Zayne said without hesitation: "Don't worry, Dad, I understand you 100%."

He sighed and said: "You tell me, Deana, this woman, hasn't forgotten Bruce in her heart for so many years! She and I haven't divorced yet, so she ran to Aurous Hill to buy the house where Bruce lived. When she was younger, she said it was me who killed him. What she did is to hit the face of the entire Banks Family! Even if you don't want to solve this trouble, once I go back, I won't let her go!"

After hearing this, Lord Banks said with satisfaction, "Zayne, I am very pleased with this recognition. You are indeed the son of Banks' family. In the face of the big right and wrong, you see much more clearly than ordinary people!" Speaking of this, he continued: "The time is running out, you should hurry up and prepare. Let's talk after you come back."

"Okay." Zayne said respectfully: "Dad, you drive overnight, pay more attention to your body!"

"Okay, I see." Lord Banks responded, thinking of something, and again said: "By the way, when the video first came out, Fitz came to me to make a fuss, and then he didn't know where he was going. If he contacted you, remember to apologize for me. His temper is really hot, so don't let him hit to heart."

Zayne really didn't expect that the old man would take the initiative to apologize to his son, and hurriedly said: "Dad, Fitz is the oldest and the problem is that he is not mature enough and has not encountered many things. It is easy to be stunned by information from the outside world, so that you can't see the essence of the matter. After I go back, I must bring him to you. Bow your head and admit your mistake!"

Lord Banks was very satisfied with Zayne's remarks, and said: "If so, then I can rest assured, you hurry back, I will wait for you in Southaven!"

Chapter 2519

One thing that Lord Banks is better at than Zayne is that he used clues to construct a general framework in his brain, and in this framework, he calculated the existence of this mysterious man. In fact, Lord Banks has always been a very shrewd old fox, and there are almost no loopholes in many of his plans, but several times because he could not foresee a variable like Charlie, so he missed the slightest point and was wrong. This time, he speculated that Zara was not dead, and speculated that Zara must be rescued by an expert, so he decided to try his best to restore Zayne's family. The first breakthrough point was naturally Zayne, the head of the family. The call just now not only calmed Zayne, but also expressed his apologies to Fitz in front of Zayne. If the father and son believed his words, he would have saved at least half of the family of four.

Although it is impossible for Zayne to forgive Lord Banks so easily, at this moment, his heart is indeed relieved a bit because of Lord Banks's initiative to admit his mistake just now. After all, Lord Banks never bowed his head to admit his mistakes in his entire life, and suddenly apologized in person, which really surprised him. Moreover, Lord Banks didn't reveal the existence of the mysterious factor Charlie, so he didn't know the real motive of the old man's softness. In addition, he himself was sent to Australia. Even if the old man did something wrong to him, there was no need for the old man to apologize to him. The old man could completely put him under house arrest. This is also the old man's consistent behavior style. But the old man didn't choose this method. Instead, he actively bowed his head to admit his mistake and begged for forgiveness. This made Zayne feel that the old man might really have realized that he had the idea of reforming and making up for himself.

The old man is willing to make up for himself and agree to let him go back to China, which is tantamount to preparing to restore his heir status. No one would have trouble with the trillions of fortunes, so in addition to surprise, Zayne's heart also had an uncontrollable excitement.

However, on the one hand, there was the grief and worry of the unknown of his own daughter, and on the other hand the excitement of Lord Banks turning over. These completely different moods mixed together, which made Zayne a little ashamed. The reason he was ashamed was also because he found that he couldn't stop the excitement in his heart under such circumstances. This also made him thoroughly understand a truth.

Why did the battle for the throne and power between the flesh and blood of the closest relatives occurred one after another in ancient times? Older brothers killed younger brothers, younger brothers killed older brothers, fathers killed their sons, sons killed their fathers, and so on. The reason is that the benefits placed in front of them are so great that they can leave their blood and affection behind. At the expense of one's loved ones, if only one hundred dollars can be exchanged for it, not many people in this world will agree. However, if you sacrifice your loved ones, what if you can get back ten billion, or even one trillion?

I am afraid that many people will be completely confused by this huge benefit. Zayne is also a mortal, and he also has emotions and desires. After being sent to Australia, he felt the loss of power. This sense of loss made him unforgettable. Now that he finally saw the opportunity to turn against the wind, how could he not be excited deep in his heart.

So, he called Fitz and briefly explained the situation to him, and then asked him: "Fitz, I think your grandpa really realized his mistake this time, so you should not be here either. I cannot resist him too much, you know?"

Fitz said angrily: "Dad! Mom and Zara are still gone because of him! They could be dead and you tell me not to resist him too much? Didn't you read the spread on the Internet? Did you see what Mom and Zara looked like in that car?!"

"Stupid!" Zayne said angrily, "It has already happened, what can you and your grandfather fighting save? If you do it your way not only are you risking them but you risk yourself!! You know, I am the eldest son of the Banks Family, and you are the eldest grandson of the Banks Family. Your grandfather will live no more than ten years at most. At that time, if I can't be the Banks Family's Patriarch, I can only get out of here! If your second uncle, your third uncle or your fourth uncle sits as the head of the house, will we make our family feel better?! I ask you, you know your grandfather's brothers, after your grandfather became the owner of the family, what will happen to each one of them? My uncles, not even one of them can live in China! The day they failed to seize the progeny, the family went overseas. The beginning!"

Speaking of this, Zayne said emotionally: "Those who have failed to seize the throne, leave China and go overseas, the assets that can be obtained are less than 1% of the family, the most unlucky, even ten thousandths. They can't get any of them! Do you want to wait ten years to be kicked out of China, take back all the positions, funds, and assets given to you by the family, and then the whole family will spend hundreds of millions of dollars in assets overseas?"

Fitz fell into silence. As the saying goes, it is easy to change from frugality to luxury, and it is difficult to change from luxury to frugality. Now I don't care about money at all. I have private jets when I go out, and the world is my own business. I can do whatever I want. But once my father has said that if he fails to seize power and is sent overseas, he will lose everything instantly.

The private jets cost hundreds of millions each. If all assets are really taken away, and only a few hundred million of assets are left to the family, what will be the life? Zayne also knew very well that his own words had touched his son's heart, so he was very wise to choose enough to stop instead of rushing for success.

So he opened his mouth and said: "Okay, I will tell you so much first. Your grandfather asked me to meet him in Southaven. You will find a place to stay in Aurous Hill tonight and drive to Southaven in the morning. I will be able to arrive in Southaven almost tomorrow afternoon, you come to the airport to see me, then let's go to see your grandpa together!"

Fitz was silent for a moment, he did not show his rebellion and confrontation, and whispered: "I know Dad, after you take off, send me a WeChat message, and I will find a good time to pick you up."

"Okay, be careful with yourself!"

This night, the reality is extremely calm, and the Internet The world continues to boil. The attack and abuse against Lord Banks has intensified. What Lord Banks did has even begun to be reported by overseas media. And Lord Banks himself, is quietly hiding in Southaven overnight.

Zayne boarded the private plane of the Banks Family and departed from Australia for a direct flight to Southaven.

As for Fitz, for the sake of caution, he did not go to seek refuge with anyone, nor did he go to the hotel. Instead, he lay in his car with the heater on all night.

This night, the three generations of the Banks Family all had no sleep. In sharp contrast with them, Deana and Zara, mother and daughter, lay on the extremely comfortable bed in the hotel and slept peacefully all night. At 8 o'clock in the morning, Zara was the first to wake up and opened her eyes slightly...

Chapter 2521

Life leaped into Zara's eyes. It was a luxury suite in a hotel. She was lying on a comfortable bed with a width of more than two meters. At this moment, she thought she was in the afterlife. So she immediately wanted to find her mother's whereabouts, and when she looked around, she found that her mother was lying beside herself!

At this time, she didn't care about the dream and reality. She stretched out her hand and shook her mother's body. She shouted: "Mom...Mom, wake up..."

She was still sleeping. Deana only woke up faintly. After she recovered, she looked at Zara in front of her and exclaimed: "Zara...are you okay?!"

Zara said hurriedly: "Mom, I...I don't know if I have anything..."

Deana looked around and asked subconsciously: "Aren't we...in the tunnel? How could... .."

Zara also shook his head subconsciously: "I don't know what's going on, it looks like this is a hotel..."

With that, Zara suddenly thought of Charlie's face! Suddenly it occurred to her that before she fell into a coma, what appeared in front of her was the benefactor that she was thinking about and trying her best to find him.

So she understood one thing, and exclaimed: "Mom! My benefactor must have saved us!"

"Your benefactor?!" Deana asked subconsciously, "You mean, the benefactor who saved you in Japan?! "

Yeah, that's him!! " Zara said excitedly, her voice trembling, tears completely uncontrollable sliding down her cheek: "Mom ..... my last memory before I was unconscious, is I'm dying, and my consciousness has reached the edge of fragmentation, and then... and then I saw him!"

Deana could not help but ask: "It could be an illusion because consciousness is not clear at that time. That man was in Japan, how could he appear in Aurous Hill???"

Zara firmly said: "Mom. It's him, it's really him! I will never remember it wrong!"

Then, she hurriedly checked her body. Soon, she discovered that her body, which had been severely injured in the car accident, was now unscathed. She said excitedly: "Mom! My benefactor must have rescued us from the tunnel! And our body injury must have been cured by him!"

Deana realized that at this time, there was no abnormality in her body. Before this, she and her daughter suffered a man-made car accident in the tunnel and suffered huge injuries.

She couldn't help exclaiming: "In such a serious car accident, it is almost impossible for anyone to survive! However, Zara and I are unscathed now...This is incredible... "

So, she hurriedly asked: "Zara, why did your benefactor come to save us?"

"I don't know." Zara shook her head blankly and said, "I searched for him a long time. I've never found him. This is the second time I've seen him..."

She couldn't help sighing as she said, "Mom, he saved me again... and not just to save. He saved me and saved you. We counted it now, my mother, and my brother, the three of us owe our lives to our benefactor..."

Then, Zara couldn't help complaining, "Mom The feng shui master my grandfather was looking for was nonsense! He told me not to look for my benefactor, and said that my life would recoil, and there would be catastrophes, but he definitely couldn't think of it, yes My benefactor saved me again! I said at the time that his calculations were not credible, and you scolded me..."

Chapter 2522

Deana immediately stopped and said: "Zara! Don't talk nonsense! How do you know that Master Exeor is inaccurate? Master Exeor has long said that you should not look for him, if you were obedient and went to Eastcliff, naturally you wouldn't encounter such a thing like we did."

Zara was not convinced, and blurted out: "Then if I go back, mom, your safety will not be guaranteed!? If I'm not here, my benefactor will not show up, then mother, you will be more ill-fated..."

Deana sighed and said, "Hey, this is the world's cause and effect. If you don't count the connection between you and him, I will pass you through you and get in touch with your benefactor, nor can I be saved by your benefactor because of this..."

said At this point, she couldn't help but sigh: "This benefactor is really a noble person in our family... I don't know if I can find him and thank him in person..."

Zara recovered. She couldn't hide her excitement and said, "The hotel we are staying in must have been arranged by my benefactor. I'll go to the service staff and ask!"

After that, she hurriedly got up from the bed and rushed out of the bedroom in three or two steps. Straight to the door of the executive suite. As soon as Zara pushed the door open, she saw four strong young women outside the door completely blocking the way.

She hurriedly asked: "Hello, may I ask where I am?"

One of the women said: "Hello Miss Banks, you are in the hotel arranged by our young master for you and Ms. Thorne."

Zara asked with surprise: "Then, who is your young master?"

The woman shook her head and said, "Sorry Miss Banks, our young master's identity is highly confidential, and we must never disclose it to the outside world."

Zara, not fazed, asked: "Can you take me to see him? I want to thank him in person..."

"I'm sorry. "The woman continued to shake her head, and said apologetically: "Our young master has ordered that if you and Miss Thorne wake up, you should have a good rest in the room. You can talk to us at any time if you need it, but you can't get out of the room."

"Ah?" Zara couldn't help asking: "This is your young master's intention for this arrangement?"

The woman explained: "That's right, our master told me that your grandfather is deliberately trying to kill your mother, and your own safety is not guaranteed, so he needs you and Ms. Thorne to stay in the hotel room temporarily. Don't go out. "

Zara felt a little lost, but when she thinks that her benefactor is also thinking for the safety of herself and her mother, she nodded and said helplessly: "Well then... please help me thank your young master... .."

Then she hurriedly asked again: "I...I have another question. "

"Miss Banks, please say. "

Zara asked expectantly: "Will your young master come here?" I...I want to see him...I don't know if I could have such an honor?"

The woman smiled slightly: "Miss Banks, I can't answer you exactly about this. Master did not tell me whether he will come."

Zara was even more disappointed. Unexpectedly, she was rescued by her benefactor once again, and was even put up in a high-end hotel by him, but she still couldn't see his face. At this time, she couldn't help asking: "Then, do you know where my phone is? If you know, can you return it to me?"

The woman said: "I'm sorry Miss Banks, our young master has ordered that you and Ms. Throne can't contact anyone outside for the time being, because many people are looking for your whereabouts. Once they know you are still alive, I am afraid it will be unfavorable for you, I hope you can understand!"

Chapter 2523

Zara did not expect that the benefactor not only did not show up, but even refused to allow her to contact the outside world, and her mood suddenly became even more disappointed.

She asked tentatively: "Will you let me report peace to my family? My grandfather must be very worried about the safety of my mother and me. As long as I report peace to him and let him know that we are fine. Now..."

The woman shook her head and said seriously: "Sorry Miss Banks, our young master's order is not to contact anyone outside, no matter who the other party is."

Although Zara didn't quite understand, she nodded slightly, thinking: "Although it looks like he put my mother and me under house arrest, I believe he must have his reasons, and it must be Out of goodwill."

So, she said, "I understand, thank you."

The woman said hurriedly, "Miss Banks you are polite. You and Ms. Thorne can tell us any needs, including what you want to eat. You can tell me what to drink and what to wear. Our young master ordered me to make arrangements."

"Okay..." Zara bowed slightly and said gratefully: "Thank you !"

After speaking, she realized that her stomach was indeed a little hungry, and she said, "Um...Can you help me and my mother prepare some breakfast?"

The woman said without thinking, "Of course it's OK. Miss, what would you like to eat?"

Zara hurriedly said, "It's all right, anything as long as it's lighter."

"Okay." The woman said: "Miss Banks, please go back to the room and rest for a while, I'll inform the back kitchen to prepare."

"Thank you!"

Zara thanked her, and then returned to the room.

When she returned to the room, Deana also walked out. Seeing her expression was a little lost, she hurriedly asked: "Zara, how is it?"

Zara said helplessly: "There are 4 female bodyguards at the door. Means, they didn't let me go out, saying that it was protecting us from the public by letting us stay here. There are many people outside now looking for our whereabouts. For our safety, our benefactor does not allow us to have any contact with the outside world. I originally wanted to tell the Foreign Affairs bulletin that it was safe, but they didn't allow it."

Deana nodded slightly and said seriously: "This is understandable. Your grandfather wants my life, and some people want your life. The situation behind this is not known how complicated it is. If you let the outside world know that we are still alive, I am afraid that it will really bring a lot of danger, and it will also cause a lot of trouble to your benefactor. "

Zara asked, "Mom, the female bodyguard at the door said, he is the young master of their family, so who do you think it will be? Is there any great family in Aurous Hill? "

"Aurous Hill?" Deana frowned for a moment, and said seriously: "I don't really understand the situation in Aurous Hill. I know there is a Moore family with assets of around 100 billion. This benefactor is extraordinary, and he is definitely not with the Moore family. The size of the family is too small. In other words, if the Moore family can cultivate such extraordinary talents, then the strength of the Moore family will never be the scale it is today. "

Zara asked again: "Could it be a hidden family?"

"A hidden family?" Deana thought for a while, and said seriously: "I can't say this, but to be honest, Aurous Hill's economic situation is not ranked in the top ten in China. In this kind of city, it is difficult to have any strong secrets. With a hidden family, the water must be deep enough to be able to hide the giants. "

Zara nodded in agreement, and muttered to herself: "This is true..." After she finished speaking, she had an idea, and said: "Mom, then you say, will the benefactor be in Beijing or other first-tier cities, where is the young master of a large family? "

"First-tier cities?" Deana was silent for a moment, and said: "There are only a few top families in China. As far as I know, none of these families have very powerful young masters, just like the Banks Family, including your brother. Among the male descendants of the new generation, who can be considered a young master? Other families are even more unlikely."

Chapter 2524

Zara couldn't help sighing. She also felt that what her mother said was right. The elder brothers of these top families may be very mysterious to the outside world, but for the real top family members, they know the elder brothers of these other families very well. Although all the elder brothers of these top families are so-called high-achieving students who have returned from studying abroad, Zara knows very well that most of these are glamorous straw bags.

To put it nicely, they are embroidered pillows. To put it ugly, they are donkey shit that has been polished. Each of these young masters speaks fluent English. At the same time, they understand the world pattern and can talk about and give pointers to the development of the global economy. But if you really let him take control, they would immediately make big mistake because they were mostly naive.

In the past, there was a well-known son \ who was known as a business wizard. He made billions on his own ability in just a few years, but in a blink of an eye there was news of the company's downfall and debt. Billions of assets turned into billions of liabilities in an instant. And such people are definitely not an exception in the upper class. Therefore, it is difficult for Zara to believe that her benefactor, her omnipotent benefactor, who is like a god soldier, will also be the son of a big family.

Thinking of this, she couldn't help but fall into deep thought again. After a long time, she said distressingly: "Mom, my benefactor is not the son of a big family, but he is called the young master. What kind of background will he come from?"

Deana smiled and said seriously. : "You have to find this benefactor, who has great magical powers, and his ability is no longer what I can imagine, so his identity is definitely not easy for us to guess."

Speaking of this, a face suddenly flashed in her mind. It was a very familiar but somewhat unfamiliar face. It was the young man I saw at the door of Bruce's former residence, which looked exactly like Bruce. He grew up. He must be so similar to Bruce that she can be sure that he is 100% Bruce's son.

Thinking of this, Deana couldn't help but wonder: "Would the benefactor that Zara is looking for be Bruce's son?!" As soon as this thought came out, Deana couldn't help but overthrow his own speculation.

"When I saw that young man that day, he was dressed in very ordinary clothes, and he was riding a tattered electric bike. It should be more difficult for him to come here so maybe he is not the benefactor that Zara has always been obsessed with..."

Deana fell into deep thought, and another question came up in his heart: "Then...who was the person who bid on Bruce's former residence with me at the auction. ? "

Zara saw her mother's expression sometimes dignified, sometimes tangled, and sometimes puzzled, so she couldn't help asking: "Mom, what are you thinking about?" "

Deana recovered and said:" Oh, nothing ..... just trying to sort out these clues."

After speaking, she said to Zara: "Zara, you don't need to be too anxious. Since the benefactor arranged us here and let his subordinates protect us at all times, it is equivalent to establishing an indirect relationship with us. This is much more optimistic than the situation where you found a needle in a haystack and couldn't find any clues before, so you wait patiently, I believe he will show up sooner or later!"

Zara nodded, then a thought suddenly struck her: "Mom! Do you think this hotel is the property of our benefactor?!"

Chapter 2525

Zara's randomly inspired realization stunned Deana.

She nodded in agreement and said: "Since this benefactor wants to properly settle us and strictly guard the secret that we are still alive, then he will definitely not just place us in a hotel that doesn't matter.... Besides, he has sent so many people at the door. It is most likely that this hotel is his property as you said. Even if it is not, then he and this hotel should have a close relationship. "

Zara nodded, and with excitement ran to the suite living room desk and opened the drawer. Generally, hotels will put some letter paper for guests to write on their desks. The name of the hotel will be printed on it. When she saw the words "Aurous Hill Shangri-La Hotel" above the letter paper, he couldn't help exclaiming: "Mom! The hotel we are in is called Shangri-La. I remember, Shangri-La seems to be the property of the Wade family!"

Deana was shocked: "Shangri-La?! Could it be...Is it really him..."

Originally, Deana had also thought about whether the benefactor was Bruce's son. But she also overturned her own guess. After all, Bruce's son had been missing since he was young, and he had not returned to Wade's house. It is unlikely that a fallen young master who has fallen outside the family would have such powerful ability. But now, when she heard that the hotel she was in was Shangri-La, she immediately began to think it again.

Here, Zara saw her mother in shock, so she subconsciously asked: "Mom, do you know anything? Who is this person?"

Deana recovered. Then, she said with a complicated expression: "Actually, there is also a young man in the Wade family who has been missing for many years..."

Zara suddenly realized, she blurted out: "Mom, you mean the son of Bruce Wade?"

Deana nodded and said calmly: "Yes, it is him."

Zara understands her mother's feelings about this very well. She knew that her mother has loved Bruce for so many years. It could be said that she was extremely infatuated with Bruce. Even if Bruce had been dead for nearly 20 years, her mother still missed him. Because of this, her mother came to Aurous Hill after learning the fact that her father had derailed, and she was murdered because she wanted to buy Bruce's former residence. Deana did not hide anything from her daughter, so she was not surprised when Zara mentioned it.

Zara asked with some surprise: "Mom, didn't Bruce Wade's son disappear after Bruce died? I remember it seems that the Wade family never found his whereabouts. How do you think he is the benefactor?"

Deana nodded seriously and said: "When I was at Bruce's old house, I saw a young man that looked almost exactly like Bruce. He looked to be about the same age as your brother, and that would make him the same age as Bruce's son."

Zara couldn't help asking: "Could it be a coincidence? After all, there are still many people who look alike... .."

Chapter 2526

"No." Deana said seriously: "If everything is really just a coincidence, most likely only one of these coincidences would happen at a time. For example, if you happen to meet someone who looks like me, sure, people who look alike, this is normal. I chanced upon someone who looks very similar to Bruce Wade. That can also be normal..."

"But..." Deana said, the tone and expression became more serious, and continued: "But, I unexpectedly saw this young man in Aurous Hill. Bruce was killed in Aurous Hill and his son also disappeared in Aurous Hill, so this is the second coincidence. Also! I not only saw him in Aurous Hill, I saw him at the gate of Bruce's former residence! If he has nothing to do with Bruce, why did he show up there?"

Zara was silent for a moment, nodded, and said seriously: "Mom, I think your analysis makes sense. The young man you saw at the gate of Bruce's former residence is very likely to be his son. ..." At this point, Zara's conversation turned around and said: "Mom, Bruce's son, if he had disappeared in Aurous Hill, he would still probably be in Aurous Hill, so the one you saw may indeed be Bruce's son, but Bruce's son may not be the benefactor! Do you have any clear evidence of this?"

Deana shook his head and said, "I don't have any direct evidence, after all, I haven't seen him yet, the benefactor you mentioned. But since the benefactor arranged us in the hotel of the Wade family, then I believe that he must have a deep relationship with the Wade family."

Zara fell into thought, then mused out loud: "If it's really like what you said, Bruce's son is the benefactor, then he has been in Aurous Hill for so many years, alone and helpless, how can he have such a strength? This...it doesn't make sense at all! A master like this can't be cultivated even by a top martial arts family."

"You see that the Elms family is so powerful, and they cultivated Xion, but Xion's strength is tens of thousands of miles away from those ninjas who kidnapped me in Japan. Xion is good, but she would barely be able to win against one. Two against her and she will definitely lose ..."

Deana smiled slightly: "I can't say this, but my instinct tells me the benefactor you are looking for is the son of Bruce Wade. "

Zara sighed, and said: "But I still don't understand. If he is really Bruce's son, then he should hate the Banks Family... After all, it was Dad who came forward to form the anti-Wade alliance, the Banks Family has been struggling with the Wade family for so many years, how could he save us? Especially my brother and I. We are both named Banks. To him, we are the children of his enemies..."

Deana shook his head: "I don't understand these questions, but I believe that we will meet sooner or later to figure it out. After all, this benefactor didn't save us for no reason. He settled us here, which means he has already maintained a bond with us. I believe it will not be long before he will reveal his face!"

Zara couldn't help getting a little excited, muttering to herself in a low voice: "He has saved our family so many times. If I can really see him, I will definitely return his kindness!"

Speaking, in her expression, she can't help showing the kind of shyness and fascination that a girl has for her sweetheart. It's not to blame her. Any woman who has experienced two life and death junctures and been saved twice by a person is bound to have some similar feelings about them. What's more, after Zara came back from Japan, she has been obsessed with Charlie. This time, she not only met Charlie, but was also saved by Charlie again. He also rescued her mother, which has completely captured Zara's proud heart.

Deana looked at her daughter's eyes and couldn't help but think of what she saw outside the door of Bruce's former residence. That young man, when she thinks of him, she can't help but think of the love of her life, Bruce. For a moment, her eyes suddenly filled with tears, and she sighed in her heart: "Zara, this girl, I am afraid that she has already been moved by the benefactor. If she is looking for Bruce's son, it is really fate. ...."

When Charlie settled Deana and Zara in the Shangri-La Hotel, he did not expect that the hotel would reveal his identity to a certain extent. After he posted the video on the Internet last night, he did not pay much attention to this matter. Because he knew that this video would definitely drag Lord Banks and the entire Banks Family into the quagmire of the whole people's crusade. And he uploaded the video to TikTok acquired by the Wade family, so that there is no need to worry that the Banks Family will remove this video. Because for the Wade family, no matter how much money they gave, it would be impossible for them to do business with The Banks' family. Lord Wade would never miss this opportunity to humiliate and attack the Banks Family.

When Charlie got up in the morning, Claire was still asleep, Charlie got out of bed gently to wash, and when he came to the first floor, Elaine was already cooking with crutches. Although Elaine had broken her leg, she was very active during this period. As long as it was housework within her ability, she did not shirk at all. At this time, Elaine was watching with gusto while holding her mobile phone, while guarding the egg fried rice in the wok, and under the armpit of her right arm was aluminum crutches.

Hearing Charlie coming downstairs, she hurriedly recovered, and said joyfully: "Oh my son-in-law, come and see, we have something serious in Aurous Hill!"

Charlie had basically guessed what she said after hearing her words. However, he still pretended to be curious and asked: "Mom, what's the matter?"

Elaine said solemnly: "Do you know that Eastcliff Banks Family?"

Charlie Nodded: "Oh... I've heard of them."

Elaine hurriedly said, "This old man from the Banks Family, who is so damn foul and shit, hired someone to kill his daughter-in-law, do you think this person is a bastard?"

Charlie smiled. Said: "Listen to you, this old man Banks is really a scumbag!"

"More than that!" Elaine gritted his teeth and said, "It's punishable by everyone! Now the law is civilized, or else In feudal society, such an old thing has to be put to death!"

Charlie saw that Elaine was almost crushing her mouthful of teeth clenching so hard, and he couldn't help but curiously asked: "Mom, what are you doing?"

"What are you asking?" Elaine said annoyedly: "When I read this news, I remembered that bastard mother in law at first! That dead old woman is just as bad as this dead old man! Damn, when she was in the detention center, do you know how cruel she was? The old things couldn't walk smoothly, and when they hit me, they tried to kill me, wishing to kill me in the detention center! These two old things are so bad to their daughters-in-law, they are simply a pair of dogs and women who are angry with everyone!"

Chapter 2528

Charlie didn't expect that Elaine thought of Mrs. Wilson through what Lord Banks had done, and he was speechless for a while.

At this time, Elaine couldn't help but sigh and say, "I just feel sorry for this woman named Deana! I think she must be a kind-hearted and smart woman like me, but God does not have eyes for us, even though we are so good. Women just can't get a good mother-in-law and a good father-in-law."

Deana is definitely the top celebrity in the noblewoman circle. In any aspect, she is stronger than Elaine, but Elaine is so shameless to say that she is the same as Deana, which shows that she is also thick-skinned. There is no edge.

But Charlie didn't bother to tell her more, so he smiled and said, "Mom, you are busy first, I'll go to the yard to get some air."

Although Elaine was still filled with righteous indignation, she hurriedly said with a smile upon hearing this. "Good son-in-law, you can wear more clothes. It's cold outside today."

"Okay." Charlie came out of the house and called Isaac Cameron in the yard.

As soon as the phone was connected, Isaac Cameron's voice came over: "Master!"

Charlie asked, "Isaac, how is your situation there?" Isaac Cameron hurriedly said, "Master, the hotel side is still strictly guarded. Staying guard, except for my confidant, even ordinary waiters and security guards are not allowed to approach. As for Ms. Thorne and Miss Banks, my staff just gave me feedback that Miss Banks wants to see you and ask about your identity, but my people don't reveal anything and let them stay in the room honestly. They just sent them some breakfast."

"In addition, I received news that the old man Lord Banks had fled Eastcliff overnight. The plane departed from Eastcliff Airport and flew east to the high seas, then circled the southern part of the Taiwan Strait, and then went all the way north. It was around 6 o'clock. After landing in Southaven, the flight trajectory of the plane was drawn with a big fishhook..."

Charlie asked curiously: "Why did he go to Southaven and make such a big circle? Is it because he is afraid that others will discover his true track? "

"Yes! "Isaac Cameron smiled and said: "Some media do not know the situation. They only know that his plane took off from Eastcliff and flew east out of the country. They all thought he had fled to Japan to take shelter."

Charlie said with a smile: "He ran to Southaven, he should not just want to avoid the limelight, Southaven is so close to Aurous Hill, I think he still wants to check on Aurous Hill. "

"I think so too." Isaac Cameron said earnestly: "The Banks Family has a bit of influence in Southaven, and Lord Banks's command of Aurous Hill's side is also considered to be on the front line himself. "

Charlie immediately ordered: "Hurry up and call Donald Webb to Aurous Hill, otherwise Lord Banks will probably find him to understand the situation. Although Donald Webb is surrendered now, he has lost a lot by my hands. Maybe he will take this opportunity to take refuge in the Banks Family to fight me. "

Isaac Cameron suddenly realized, and blurted out: "Oh, how did I forget Donald Webb!" With the acting style of the old fox like Lord Banks, when he arrives in Southaven, he will definitely sort out all the uncertain factors in Southaven first, and then plan to move later. Maybe he will summon Donald Webb this morning!"

Charlie said with a smile: "It shouldn't be so fast. Lord Banks certainly didn't worry less last night. He took a big circle in the plane and probably didn't have any thoughts to rest. The plane just landed more than two hours ago, so he is hurrying. Hurrying to the place of stay, I guess he will probably have to make up his sleep this morning. When he wakes up, he may first take a look at the local situation in Southaven. So, you call Donald Webb directly now, saying that I am looking for him in a hurry, and ask him and his eldest son Sean to take a helicopter over immediately. In this case, it shouldn't be too late. Furthermore, Lord Banks's trip to Southaven is so low-key that the Webb family certainly won't know about him now. "

Isaac Cameron said hurriedly: "Okay, Master, then I will call Donald Webb now!"

Chapter 2529

When Donald Webb was still asleep, he was woken up by Isaac Cameron on the phone. On the phone, Isaac Cameron told Donald Webb that Charlie asked him to take Sean to Aurous Hill immediately by helicopter. Donald Webb didn't dare to delay, got up quickly, took his son straight to Aurous Hill.

At ten o'clock in the morning, Donald Webb's helicopter approached Isaac Cameron's hotel gradually. As the helicopter continued to descend, Donald Webb couldn't help but think of the scene where the father and son were directly shot by Isaac Cameron's people last time here. That time was the most humiliating day of Donald Webb's life. Not only Mr. Jones and many other Webb family masters, but also very humiliating sentences were engraved on their foreheads, and even themselves and their son were beaten out by Isaac Cameron.

Looking back at that moment, Donald Webb's fist was clenched involuntarily. However, he suddenly thought of the Eight Heavenly Kings buried at the foot of Golim Mountain. Thinking of the tragic death of the Eight Heavenly Kings, he couldn't help fighting a cold war. It was precisely because of the death of the Eight Great Kings that he realized one of the most crucial facts: Charlie had enough strength to kill him and his whole family.

The Eight Great Heavenly Kings took their own orders against Charlie. Charlie killed them but didn't take his own life. This was already his own good fortune. In addition, he now knew Charlie's true identity, so he became a little more afraid of Charlie.

At this time, Sean beside him said with some worry: "Dad, what on earth did you say Charlie asked us for?"

Donald Webb hurriedly scolded, "Asshole, can you call Master Wade's name directly?"

Sean said aggrieved: "Dad, aren't we talking in private? Why are you so sensitive..."

Donald Webb blurted out: "I'm afraid you are stupid! Do you know what kind of person Mr. Wade is? Master Wade Family top master! One person can kill the eight kings! Don't provoke him if you provoke anyone, even if you call him by his name behind your back, it is easy to provoke him!"

Sean curled his lips: "Dad. Are you a little too sensitive?"

"Sensitive? "Donald Webb asked him back: "Did you watch the video on TikTok yesterday?"

"No." Sean said: "Since the incident of my brother and Mr. Lloyd and Marcus's bastard cross talks were transmitted to TikTok, I stopped watching TikTok, but I received news feeds, probably knowing the whole story."

When Sean mentioned Kian and Mr. Lloyd and Marcus, Donald Webb couldn't help but feel a little bit angry. He held back his anger and asked him: "Then you think, besides Mr. Wade, who else in Aurous Hill has the ability and Courage to dare to directly kidnap the second son of the Banks Family?"

Sean thought for a while, and his expression couldn't help but said nervously: "This...Dad, according to you, the second son of the Banks Family was kidnapped up by Charlie Wade?"

Donald Webb said: "In my opinion, in the whole of Aurous Hill, Mr. Wade has the ability to do this. No one except him..."

Sean couldn't help but exclaim, "Why did Young Master Wade suddenly act against the Banks Family? ! Isn't it declaring war with the Banks Family?!"

Donald Webb shook his head: "I do not know specifically how, but as far as I know, their families have always been had a feud, Mr. Wade might want to avenge his father."

Sean shrank his neck and sighed: "Young Master Wade acted too fiercely. As soon as the second young master of the Banks Family arrived in Aurous Hill, he was kidnapped. He was not afraid that the Banks Family would retaliate wildly after finding him... "

Donald Webb said seriously: "Judging from his ability to kill the Eight Heavenly Kings alone, he kidnapped the second young master of the Banks Family, but it was as simple as a cat catching a mouse."

Chapter 2530

Donald Webb said again: "If the Banks Family is really against Mr. Wade, maybe Mr. Wade can kill Lord Banks by himself. It's not hard to kill all the people in the Banks Family one by one. In my opinion, the reason why he still keeps this old guy alive is probably the same as a cat catching a mouse but not eating it. The main reason is not to eat the mouse. But to play with and torture him."

Sean couldn't help but panic.

Seeing him pale, Donald Webb reminded him sternly: "I will see Young Master Wade later, and you must give him enough respect, keep your posture to the lowest, I won't let you talk, you don't say anything. Understand?!"

Sean nodded hastily: "I know Dad..."

The helicopter landed on the top of the hotel, and Isaac Cameron was already waiting here. Donald Webb took Sean off the plane and hurriedly walked to Isaac Cameron and said respectfully: "Mr. Cameron, that you bother to greet us personally, I am really flattered..."

With that, he gave Sean a look, then opened his mouth and said: "Hurry up and say hello to Mr. Cameron!"

Sean said hurriedly: "Hello Mr. Cameron..."

Isaac Cameron nodded and said: "You two come with me. Master Wade is already in my office. He is waiting on us."

Donald Webb hurriedly followed Isaac Cameron and came to Isaac Cameron's office on the top floor of the hotel.

At this moment, Charlie was standing with his hand in front of the glass window of the office.

After Isaac Cameron brought the people in, Donald Webb hurriedly stepped forward, and respectfully said: "Hello, Master Wade!"

Sean also learned something, and said respectfully: "Hello, Master Wade!"

Charlie nodded slightly and said, "Donald Webb, do you know why I called on you? "

Donald Webb couldn't help but shook his head and said: "Mr. Wade, I really don't know what you are looking for. But you can tell me."

Charlie said calmly: "I saved the Banks Family's eldest daughter-in-law and eldest granddaughter yesterday, and then captured James, the second son of the Banks Family, and put a video on the news. Have you seen these things in the news? "

Donald Webb startled, quickly said: " Mr. Wade, we all already know."

Charlie hummed, and continued: "Early this morning, Lord Banks, the head of the Banks Family, went quietly to Southaven. I guess, this time he wants to go to Southaven to hide from the limelight, but also wants to use Southaven as a frontline position to look at Aurous Hill and investigate these matters. Especially looking for the whereabouts of his son."

Donald Webb asked: " Mr. Wade, this is your declaration of war?"

Charlie smiled: "Declaration of war? It would be boring to declare war. The Banks Family has always liked to play, so naturally I would not tell them."

Donald Webb took a step forward and said, "Young Master Wade, if there is anything that you need, please give me your orders! "

Charlie nodded and said, "There is something, I really need your help with."

Donald Webb hurriedly said, "Please speak, Master Wade."

Charlie said: "I guess that Lord Banks will take the initiative to contact Southaven's local big families this time, including your Webb family. They may ask you about the situation in Aurous Hill, or they may extend an olive branch and let you become an affiliated family of the Banks Family and work for the Banks Family."

Donald Webb quickly stated his position: "You can rest assured, Mr. Wade, I, Donald Webb, will look after your head in everything, and will never have any form of contact with the Banks Family!"

Charlie waved his hand: "No, I need you to establish contact with the Lord Banks!"

Chapter 2531

In Charlie's view, the Banks Family is now in a critical crisis. In addition, they are now being cast aside by the people of the whole country, so they must urgently need to add new things to their camp's power. Moreover, it happened that Lord Banks had gone to Southaven now, so Charlie speculated that he might take the initiative to win over Donald Webb and turn him into a dog of the Banks Family. In the eyes of the Banks Family before, people like Donald Webb couldn't get into their eyes. Even if Donald Webb ran to Eastcliff himself, Lord Banks would not give him a chance to meet.

However, this time is different. The Banks Family is now isolated and helpless. Whether it is in Eastcliff or Southaven, they must win over as many new teammates as possible. Therefore, Charlie wanted Donald Webb to be his undercover agent to see what Lord Banks had to do. When Donald Webb heard this, he immediately understood what Charlie meant. However, his heart is quite worried about this.

"Charlie asked me to go undercover next to the Banks Family, isn't this just sending me as cannon fodder? If the Banks Family knows, won't he kill my Webb family? The strength of the Webb family is inherent. It's a lot worse than the Banks Family, and after returning to Charlie, he paid a lot of shares. The strength of the Webb family is almost cut in half. How can he withstand the toss of the Banks Family?"

Charlie also saw his worries and said lightly. "Donald Webb, I have always rewarded and punished for doing things. If you do things beautifully this time, I will never treat you badly in the future, and you can rest assured that with me, the Banks Family will never do anything to you."

Donald Webb's heart is still a bit tangled. After all, he didn't know Charlie's so-called "will not treat him badly", What advantages could he give? And he didn't know, if the Banks Family really had to deal with him, would Charlie care about his life.

Seeing that he was still hesitating, Charlie said lightly: "Donald Webb, if you help me get this thing done, then I will help you cure your son's disease. What do you think?"

Donald Webb subconsciously said: "Young Master Wade, my two sons...they...have some unspeakable hidden diseases, you...you can really cure them. "

Kian was given a psychological hint by Charlie. Almost everyone in the country knew about the fact that he had to eat extra meals every hour, but Sean had his leg broken before, although he is better now, he became a lame man, and it is impossible to recover completely in his life.

Charlie sneered and said, "What is your son's condition? Don Albert almost died in Mr. Jones's hands at the beginning. Didn't I save him in the end?"

Yes. Donald Webb's spirit was immediately lifted. He knew that Mr. Jones went to Heaven Springs to kill Don Albert and Charlie's old father-in-law Jacob. He was about to die in his hands, but Charlie was rescued by a rejuvenating pill.

Therefore, he couldn't help but secretly thought: "If Charlie is really willing to help, whether it is Sean's legs or Kian's hidden illnesses that must be eaten every hour, I am afraid it can be cured... "

So, he asked excitedly: "Master Wade, you...do you really mean this?"

Charlie nodded and smiled: "Of course."

Donald Webb hurriedly said, "My eldest sons legs, he has been limping, the youngest son's mind has gone wrong...Can you cure it?"

Chapter 2532

At this time, Sean who stood by his side and dared not speak, couldn't help but get excited.

Charlie smiled and said: "It is an easy thing to cure, but I have to put words in front, if you help me do this thing, I can cure your son."

As soon as the words came out, Donald Webb's expression was a little disappointed, and he thought to himself: "Only one can be cured? Charlie, this guy made it clear that he wants to cure only one son!"

However, if one can be cured, it will always be better than none. He really felt sorry for his little son. If he had a chance to cure his illness, it would really make up for his huge regret.

So, he immediately agreed and said: "You can rest assured, Mr. Wade, I will go all out to complete the task you entrusted to me!"

Charlie smiled slightly, looked at the time, and said: "Okay, you two Go back quickly. Once the Banks Family finds you, let me know as soon as possible."

Donald Webb hurriedly said : "Okay Young Master Wade!"

Charlie looked at Isaac Cameron and ordered: "Isaac, see off the guests."

Isaac Cameron pointed immediately to the door, he made a gesture of invitation and smiled: "Mr. Webb, please."

Donald Webb hurriedly said to Charlie respectfully: "Master Wade, then I will go back first!"

After that, he took Sean and carefully exited the room.

Isaac Cameron sent the father and son to the tarmac on the roof of the building. After the father and son got on the plane, Sean said hurriedly: "Dad! After this matter is over, you must let Charlie heal my legs! "

Donald Webb said without hesitation?" said: "Except for your leg is a little lame now, there is basically nothing wrong with it, but your brother is still tortured every day, of course he must be treated first! "

Sean was anxious, and blurted out: "Dad! I'm the eldest son of the Webb family! If I limped on one leg in my life, where would the Webb family's face go? "

Donald Webb said sharply: "Then have you ever thought about your brother?" Have you ever wondered how he has managed to get through it step by step for such a long time? "

Sean was also a little anxious, and said quickly: "My younger brother has been used to it for so long. I went to see him in his room yesterday, and happened to meet someone serving him to eat it. He didn't show any pain. The whole process was normal. , Like a chronically ill patient taking medicine, numb."

While speaking, Sean couldn't help but said: "Furthermore, I shouldn't say something. The shame of my brother has already been completely lost. Even if he is cured, it is impossible to restore him to the family. He is a loss of family reputation! Will you let my brother come out to take over the family affairs after my brother is cured? If that's the case, as soon as he appears in the outside world, outsiders will point at him and say that he is a crazy person who ate that food before! In that case, the reputation of our Webb family will be hit twice by him! But I'm different, Dad! I am the future heir of the Webb family and the future business of the Webb family! If I appear in front of the public every time, I am a lame walking limping, then the Webb family's face will also be damaged; But if I can recover and become a normal person, then I will be able to appear in front of the public with a perfect image that is innocent enough and without any black history! When the time comes, us father and son will work together, and we will surely let the Webb family become as before!"

Donald Webb's heart was completely moved by Sean's words. As a father, he felt that his second son Kian was even more pitiful. But as the head of the family, he finally realized that if there is a chance, he can cure any of the two brothers, he has to choose his eldest son Sean, it is a more cost-effective thing.

As Sean said, Kian left an extremely deep impression on the people of the whole country before. This impression can be said to be unforgettable. So, even if you take this opportunity to let Kian return to normal, as long as he appears in the public field of vision, the public will wake up to that part of his unforgettable memories ..... after all, he can not heal then go everywhere to explain that he does not eat that stuff up. At this level, Donald Webb also accepted Sean's proposal.

So, he said: "Sean, we can do this to Charlie's satisfaction. Then let him heal your leg first. If there is a chance in the future, maybe he can also ask him to give Kian a cure."

Sean said excitedly, "Yes, Dad! As long as we follow Charlie and do more for Charlie, maybe Charlie will give us a chance to heal Kian."

Donald Webb nodded and exhorted: "Sean, you must keep this matter secret to everyone, and you must never tell it, otherwise if your brother knows about it, he will definitely hate me."

Sean hurriedly said: "Dad, don't worry! I won't say a word to the outside world!"

Donald Webb sighed, "Hey! If your brother does not have a chance to heal in the future, you should be an older brother and take care of him."

Sean said firmly: "Dad , don't worry! In fact, I have already considered it. When we get through this difficult period, and when Kian's mood stabilizes, we can consider sending him abroad! When he arrives abroad, he can change his identity and start again, so that there will not be so much psychological pressure. It is best to go to a country with relatively few Chinese. This is even better for him. "

Donald Webb was silent for a moment, and nodded slightly. He also knew that Sean did this to send his younger brother out so that he could dominate the entire Webb family. Although he had some disappointment in his heart, he did not show it. He grew up in the wealthy, so the infighting between the wealthy brothers he understood. Among the giants, brothers rarely have real affection. In contrast, tens of billions or even Hundreds of billions of assets are what they value most. Sean wants to send his younger brother Kian out of the country, not out of concern for his younger brother. He just hopes that the future troubles will be forever gone.

Donald Webb didn't point it out, but was very emotional. He whispered, "Sean, it's not easy for your brother. You are a big brother, but you must take care of him a little bit more. If you don't say anything else, at least you must protect him for the rest of his life."

When Sean heard this, he knew immediately that his father understood his intention. So he did not hesitate to say: "Dad, don't worry, I will take care of Kian forever."

When Donald Webb and his son returned to Southaven, Lord Banks also woke up from sleep. After waking up, he immediately called the housekeeper over and asked about the current progress of the matter.

Chapter 2534

The butler truthfully replied: "Master, the influence of video is still expanding, and it has gradually spread from China to overseas. The entire public opinion situation is for the Banks Family, extremely unfavorable. Besides, Lord Thorne of Thorne's family has made no less than 10 calls. I didn't dare to answer... Several leaders of Eastcliff also called and asked questions. They were very furious, and asked the Banks Family to give a clear answer. I excused that you were suffering from a physical illness and were temporarily delayed, but they asked us to give a clear statement within 24 hours... "

Lord Banks couldn't help sighing, gritted his teeth and said: "TikTok is in the hands of the Wade family. I think it is impossible to engage in this public relations. As for the Thorne Family, we don't have to worry about him. Lord Thorne will do whatever he wants. Anyway, I won't see him, nor do I need to see him for the rest of my life."

The butler hurriedly asked, "Master, that leader..."

Lord Banks sighed, "This is what I worry about the most... .... that Tate Landy, even explosives tied to hostage-taking, the impact of such a thing is very negative, and now all the exposure out there has put it all on me..... "

Lord Banks calmed down and said: "You give my feedback to the leaders, saying that I am recuperating abroad, and when my health improves a bit, I will immediately go to them and plead guilty!"

"Yes master... "

Lord Banks rubbed his temples, and asked with some faint voice: "By the way, which family has the strongest overall strength on Southaven's side?"

The butler seriously said: "The strongest should be the Webb family, but a lot of things happened to the Webb family some time ago, and their strength was lost by nearly half. They were originally the first family in the south of the Yangtze River, but now they are no longer in the top three."

Lord Banks nodded and said: "The Banks Family has been focusing on the overseas market for the past few years, and has not deeply plowed the domestic market. Now is the time to quickly regain the domestic market and network resources, and I may want to stay in Southaven for a long time, and with the locals

It is more convenient for a large family to get acquainted with each other, and it is better to use this Webb family for our own use." then he asked: "By the way, when will Zayne land?"

The butler checked the time and said, "Young Master should land around two or three o'clock in the afternoon."

Lord Banks hummed, and said: "So, you will meet the Webb family for me, tell them, and say that Banks Family wants to invite them over for dinner at night, but don't reveal my identity. Don't let people know that I am in Southaven, understand?"

The butler immediately nodded and said: "Understood master! I'm going to contact the Webb family now!"

At the same time, Zayne was flying over the Western Pacific in a private jet. Although he didn't close his sleep overnight, he was a little excited. Fitz was lying on his own in a complicated mood. In the car, there are three pictures that keep rotating. The first picture is the mother Deana in the car accident ; the second picture is the sister Zara who is also in the car accident; the third picture is the Banks Family patriarch.

Originally, these three pictures flashed by in his mind one after another and just repeated evenly in his mind. However, as time passed, the first two pictures gradually became a little thin, and the third picture began to firmly occupy the main position.

After the talk with his father over the phone, Fitz understood that his grandfather, even with his wealth, could not manipulate this situation. It was a strong temptation of power for his father. At the wave of his hand he will be able to command the assets of a super family with more than a one trillion dollar net worth. This kind of thing is the ultimate power that all businessmen desire most!

He analyzed the current situation carefully, and he couldn't help being more excited, because he felt: "The second uncle has disappeared, and his grandfather's reputation is completely destroyed in the street. In this way, the possibility of his father inheriting the Banks Family is much greater. And after his father there is only himself, which means that his chances of becoming the head of the Banks Family in the future are much greater!"

Chapter 2535

In order to win over Donald Webb, Lord Banks asked his housekeeper to directly bring gifts to visit Webb's house. The chief butler of the Banks Family has the same qualifications and status as Stephen Thompson. Moreover, the chief steward represents not only himself, but also the head of the family, Lord Banks. Therefore, let the steward visit in person and it definitely gives the Webb family face. Lord Banks attaches great importance to the win over the Webb family, so he will let his butler come to visit on his behalf. Lord Banks also knew very well that he had become a rat crossing the street right now, and it was impossible for him to return to Eastcliff for a long while. So he must be prepared to stay in Southaven for a long time.

This incident gave him the feeling that it was a period of history when the British and French coalition forces invaded Eastcliff in 1860 and the Emperor hurriedly fled to Rehe. When the Anglo-French allied forces invaded Eastcliff, the Emperor fled in a panic like him. However, the fate of the Emperor is a bit miserable. After waiting for a year in Rehe, he didn't have the chance to return. As a result, he died in the second year after escaping to Rehe, and he was only 31 years old.

In order not to repeat the same mistake, Lord Banks had made a comprehensive plan for himself since the moment he fled from Eastcliff. He came to Southaven because he wanted to gain a foothold in Southaven, not only to bring all the top local families in Southaven, but also to quickly transfer the industries of the Banks Family across the country to Southaven to consolidate the development of the Banks Family in Southaven. He wanted to make Southaven the second base camp of the Banks Family. In addition, he also wanted to put his eldest son Zayne up again and let him serve as the acting chairman of the entire Banks Group.

Once Zayne becomes the acting chairman of the board, it means that he has been formally established as the "prince" of the Banks Family. This will not only allow Zayne to stick to him honestly, but also reduce the outside world's attention to him to a certain extent. What he thought was to draw Zayne over, let him be his own puppet, and show his face in the public, while he hides in Southaven to listen to politics, so as to ensure that his power will not be weakened by Zayne.

The entire Banks Family has been in the hands of Lord Banks for so many years, whether it is the shares of the group, the voting rights and veto rights of the board of directors, and the management rights of family trust funds, etc., all are in Lord Banks alone. Therefore, as long as he does not transfer these rights, even if Zayne sits in the position of acting chairman, he cannot have any real power, let alone take this opportunity to seek usurpation.

Moreover, Lord Banks is extremely exquisite. He has already made a will. Once he dies, all the property of the entire Banks Family will be automatically handed over to the trust fund established by the Swiss Bank for management. The property of more than one trillion dollars, any one of the Banks Family The children have no right to call, they can only receive living expenses from the trust fund every month according to the rules set by Lord Banks.

As for the standard of living expenses, Lord Banks also set it early. His sons and daughters can receive 10 million per month, and his spouse can receive 5 million per month; his grandson can receive 6 million per month and his spouse can receive 3 million per month. If the grandson has heirs, each heir can receive 2 million per month before the age of 18.

Counting it down, if Lord Banks didn't change his will before his death, after his death, the entire Banks Family would receive two to three billion in living expenses in one month. However, the Banks Family's assets exceed one trillion, and its monthly net profit exceeds ten billion. No one is eligible to use the remaining money, so it can only be put into the trust fund for profit. It seems that it is very unfair to these children and grandchildren of Zayne, because even if they continue to receive living expenses until they die, the Banks Family will have more money.

However, the reason why Lord Banks is so determined has his own plan. First of all, this will is here, which is Lord Banks's amulet. Because no one of the heirs of the Banks Family would have the intention of murdering Lord Banks. The reason is that once Lord Banks dies, not only will they not be able to inherit the position of head of the family, but their income will be greatly reduced.

Originally, a family can earn tens of billions a year, and they can also get a lot of other resource support from the family, but once the father dies, everyone cuts down to receive the will's salary, which means their yearly salary can be cut down but ten times or even a hundred times.

And this will, in addition to the role of amulets, is equivalent to family insurance. The ancient emperors were worried about the monarchs in their heirs, if they were not good, they would not be a part of the will. And these modern rich men are also worried that their offspring will have a prodigal, ruining the family foundation. Therefore, almost every wealthy man will set up a trust fund, and if his descendants are unwilling to succeed, all his family assets will be managed by the trust fund, so as to ensure that the Banks Family's heirs will last forever, and they will always have money to spend, and they will not lose their wealth.

Moreover, this rule of relying on the leader for living expenses is particularly easy to stimulate the desire of these children and grandchildren to reproduce. Because, as long as they give birth to one heir, it is equivalent to giving birth to a meal ticket.

What the head of the family is most worried about is the continuation of the family name. If this allows children and grandchildren to have more children, coupled with sufficient trust fund assets, the continuation and development of the family can be ensured.

For Lord Banks, if his children and grandchildren did not satisfy him, he would not change this will until he died. But if there are very capable children and grandchildren who can gain their own trust, then there is time to change the will when he is about to die. In this way, this old fox can firmly hold the power of the entire Banks Family and all the initiative in his own hands, and it is impossible for any offspring to threaten his rule over the Banks Family.

Here, Donald Webb and Sean have just returned home. Before the two of them had just sat down when Lord Banks's butler came to the door.

When they heard that the chief butler of the Banks Family came to visit, Donald Webb's first thought was: "Charlie, this guy is really good! When I just came back, this Banks Family is here!"

Thinking of this, he hurried to Sean said: "Sean, in order to highlight the importance, you personally greet him outside, and invite the Banks Family's chief butler to my study!"

Sean nodded hastily and walked out quickly. Donald Webb straightened his collar and went to his study first. After a while, Sean walked in with a middle-aged man who was about fifty years old. As soon as this person entered the door, Donald Webb immediately greeted him.

Sean hurriedly introduced: "Dad, this is the chief steward of the Eastcliff Banks Family, Mr. Adrian Peters!"

Donald Webb immediately said with great enthusiasm: "Oh, Mr. Banks, I have been admired for a long time! Please sit down, please sit down! "

Adrian Peters nodded slightly, with something of a smile, said: "Mr. Webb, my master extends an invitation. Please do us a favor to join us for dinner."

Donald Webb although already guessed why the other party came, but he still pretended to be flattered, and said excitedly: "Mr. Banks wants to invite us to dinner?! Is this...is this true?"

"Of course!" Adrian Peters smiled slightly and said: "I don't know if Mr. Webb has time tonight?"

Donald Webb said without hesitation: "Yes! Of course! Are we going to Eastcliff? If yes, I will quickly get the crew ready for flight!"

Adrian Peters shook his head and laughed and said: "My master is in Southaven, and he wants to have a banquet at the Southaven home in the evening."

After saying that, he reminded him with a very serious expression: "Mr. Webb, the news that my master has come to Southaven is only for you and your son. Remember this matter and never reveal it to anyone!"

Chapter 2537

At four o'clock in the afternoon, Zayne's private jet began to descend over the suburbs of Southaven. Seeing that he was about to land at Southaven Airport, he called his son Fitz on his cell phone. Fitz, who was involved in this matter, had already drove the car to Southaven Airport. He parked the car in the parking lot, and stayed in the car waiting for his father's call.

Seeing his father's phone call, he hurriedly connected, and asked, "Dad, where are you?"

Zayne said, "In another twenty minutes I should land. Are you there yet?"

"I'm here." Fitz said: "You tell me after you leave customs, I will pick you up."

"Okay!" Zayne told him: "Don't forget to wear a mask and sunglasses, now our Banks Family is really sensitive. Don't let others notice that we are in Southaven."

"I know Dad." After hanging up the phone, Fitz hurriedly put on a mask and sunglasses, and drove the car to the main entrance of the airport arrival corridor. After waiting for another twenty minutes, Zayne's figure appeared at the exit of the airport arrival hall.

Like Fitz, Zayne wears a pair of black sunglasses and a disposable black mask.

However, Fitz recognized him at a glance, and then hurriedly got out of the car, beckoned to him, and shouted, "Dad, here!"

Zayne saw Fitz, and his spirit was shaken, and he ran to him immediately. Fitz also accumulated a lot of negative energy in the past two days. Seeing his father finally came back, he felt a sense of finding support in his heart. He hurriedly greeted him and hugged him.

At this moment, Fitz couldn't help but choked up and whispered:

"Dad...you finally came back..."

Zayne patted him on the back and sighed: "Hey! Fitz, I'm sorry, I'm sorry, your mom and Zara, when you need me most, I can't protect you and be by your side."

Fitz said sadly: "Dad...Mom and Zara, there is no whereabouts yet. You must find a way to find them..."

Zayne nodded solemnly: "Don't worry, I will try my best to find your mother and your sister."

Then, he looked around: "There are too many people here, they will get interested. Let's go."

Okay..." Fitz nodded hurriedly, turned to help Zayne open the passenger car door, let Zayne sit in first. When Fitz got back in the car, Zayne said to him: "Directly Drive to the West Lake. Your grandfather has a villa by the West Lake. He is there now. "

Fitz nodded his head and said: "I will navigate the West Lake, let me know the specific location to go."

The Banks Family's real estate in all parts of the country and even all over the world is really too much. Almost any slightly larger city will have Banks Family properties. How many villas the father has, even the father himself does not know, and this Even Fitz has never been to the villa in Southaven.

Driving into the airport expressway, Zayne said to Fitz beside him: "I will see your grandpa later, don't wait for your grandpa to take the initiative to follow. If you apologize, you must take the initiative to apologize to him, it is best to be more solemn, kneel down and apologize, understand?"

Fitz knows that this time his father's return from Australia is the key to his father and himself regaining the right of inheritance. He can't mess up in any way, so he solemnly said: "I know Dad, don't worry, see Grandpa I will kneel down and apologize to him immediately..."

Originally, Fitz was considered a man of spine, but in the face of huge interests, his bones became softer unconsciously.

Zayne told him again "Your grandfather is considered to have met the biggest Waterloo in his life this time. Judging from the influence of this video, your grandpa will never be able to turn around in this life, so this time is a good opportunity for both of us. If we can grasp this opportunity, and let your grandpa see our abilities, and on the other hand, let your grandpa see our absolute obedience to him, then we have the opportunity to inherit the entire Banks Family."

With that said, Zayne's words turned and he said, "But if we can't do it, your grandfather will definitely hand over the entire Banks Family's property to the overseas Trust Fund to take care of it before he dies. At that time, we can only take the living expenses per capita."

Fitz asked hurriedly, "Dad, how can we make Grandpa recognize our ability?"

Chapter 2538

Zayne earnestly said: "This time what your mother and Zara encountered is an excellent opportunity. Anyone with a discerning eye can see it. Someone wants to attack our Banks Family, and the other party is extremely capable, and they may have been planning for a long time. If we can help your grandfather catch the black hand behind the scenes, and solve all the threats of the Banks Family, then we will definitely show your grandfather!"

Then Zayne added: "You have to know that your grandfather has been nailed to the pillar of shame now, and it will not be possible to wash him until he dies! So as long as we can satisfy him, And during the period before his death, be obedient to him, and while respecting him, never challenge his majesty as the head of the family! Then before he dies, he would definitely take The position of the Patriarch of the family and pass it to me! And as long as we survive until he breathes his last, the entire Banks Family is ours!"

Fitz nodded quickly, and said excitedly: "Dad, I listen to you everything. Yes!"

At around 5 o'clock in the afternoon, Fitz drove the car into a huge manor on the edge of the West Lake under the guidance of Zayne. West Lake is a well-known tourist attraction in the country, and more than half of the area is open to all people, so there are very few lakeside villas here and the prices are extremely high. According to rumours, a famous domestic e-commerce boss, a boss named Jack Ma, has a luxurious villa here, which is said to be worth several hundred million. However, his villa was even worse than Lord Banks's.

This manor Lord Banks spent 800 million when he bought it ten years ago, and another 500 million was spent on renovation and reconstruction. After completion, he only came to live for a few days in the spring and autumn of each year.

Fitz drove into the manor. Butler Adrian Peters was already waiting at the entrance of the manor's main hall. As soon as he saw the father and son get off the bus, he hurried to greet him, and respectfully said: "Father and son! I didn't expect you two to come together!"

Zayne hurriedly asked: "Butler, where is my father now?"

Adrian Peters said quickly: "Master has been looking forward to your return, so I was asked to wait here early, and told that when you arrive, I will take you to see him immediately."

Zayne said hurriedly: "Then take us there quickly!"

"Yes!" Adrian Peters took the father and son to the main hall of the manor. In the main hall at this time, Lord Banks, who was somewhat depressed, was sitting in front of the burning fireplace and resting. When he saw son and grandson coming, he hurriedly got up on the recliner and walked to his son and said in tears: "Zayne... Fitz... I... I'm sorry for your family!"

When Fitz heard this, he recalled his father's explanation, and knelt in front of Lord Banks without saying a word, and confessed: "Grandpa...I didn't understand and I disrespected you, please, I accept my punishment!"

Lord Banks's expression flashed with a look of satisfaction, and he quickly reached out to help Fitz up, choked up and said: "Good boy, you are right, it is grandpa who is wrong.. It's grandpa who is confused. To make such an impulsive decision for the sake of the family's face.. Furthermore, the gangster took the opportunity to assassinate him and was burdened with many unreasonable charges..."

Zayne hurriedly stepped forward and supported Lord Banks, earnestly Said: "Dad, please don't say that. I and Fitz know very well that everything you do is for this family! "

Lord Banks nodded with satisfaction: "You two can understand my difficulties, and I can really look down upon myself!" "

Zayne nodded solemnly: "Dad, don't worry, Fitz and I can understand you very well..."

Lord Banks said with tears in his eyes and solemnly said, "Zayne, I promise you, I will definitely go all out to find Deana and Zara. If Deana is still alive, I will face her and plead guilty. Even if she wants my old life, I will willingly compensate her!"

Zayne hurriedly said: "Dad, our top priority now is not to find Deana and Zara, nor to find James, but to work together to pull out the enemies hidden in the dark!"

Chapter 2539

This word from Zayne speaks to Lord Banks's heart. Although Lord Banks took the initiative to apologize to Zayne and Fitz about Deana and Zara's affairs as soon as he came up, deep down in his heart, he did not want Zayne. The father and son were troubled by this issue. So Zayne took the initiative to change the topic now, just to cater to Lord Banks's inner thoughts.

So, he hurriedly said: "Zayne, you are right, we must work together to find out who is behind the scenes!" Then, he asked Zayne, "Do you know who is behind us? "

Zayne said subconsciously: "Dad, I don't think this matter has anything to do with the Wade family, but I don't have any evidence to prove that this matter is not something the Wade family did. I can only speculate through TikTok. The family should be involved to a certain extent, and Aurous Hill is the Wade family's sphere of influence, which is considered their home field."

Lord Banks nodded and said seriously: "My previous thoughts are similar to yours, but now I feel that the Wade family seems It's unlikely to have such strength, otherwise, they wouldn't wait until today to attack us."

Zayne fell into thought. He had considered his father's point of view, and he didn't understand it.

At this moment, Lord Banks looked at Fitz on the side, pretending to be casual, and asked: "By the way, do you have any ideas? In your mind, are there any clues that fit?"

Fitz hurriedly said : "Grandpa...I...I really can't think of any clues."

Lord Banks nodded, then pretended to remember something, and said: "Oh, right! When you and Zara were in Japan, didn't you meet a master? Who is that person? Have you found a clue?"

"No." Fitz said earnestly: "Zara has always wanted to find her benefactor, but we have tried many methods without any substantial progress."

Lord Banks felt tight and hurriedly asked: "You saw him at the time. Could you describe his characteristics, including looks and temperament, for me?"

Fitz thought for a while and said: " The man should be about the same age as me, very young, and he must be a Chinese or Japanese Chinese. As for his looks, he is very handsome, and his facial features and face are very tough, and he is very distinctive."

Lord Banks asked him: "Could you find a professional in criminal investigation to help you make a character portrait?"

Fitz hesitated for a moment, and said, "Grandpa, I thought about the character portrait before Zara and I. But to be honest, we only have one encounter, and what happened that day is really blurry because we were scared. We really want to remember the appearance of him, but it is a little vague...unless we meet again, then I can recognize it at a glance..."

Speaking of this, Fitz couldn't help but ask: "Grandpa, why did you suddenly ask about man? Do you suspect that he is behind this?"

Lord Banks sighed, pretending to say with emotion: "I don't doubt, I hope! I hope this benefactor is behind everything. In this case, I believe that Zara and your mother survived. The chances will be greater."

Fitz nodded lightly, and said sincerely: "He is a person with great supernatural powers. If it is like what you said, I believe that the possibility of Mom and Zara being alive is high. We have search extensively for him but have never found any sign of him. The probability of him appearing in Aurous Hill is very low."

Lord Banks smiled slightly: "Even if the possibility is very low, there is still possibility. We do everything. We must think on the bright side, if it is him, then this incident is actually a misunderstanding. As long as the misunderstanding is resolved , this person may still be used by our Banks Family!" After finishing, Lord Banks immediately ordered: "I know, apart from Zara, you are the only one who has seen the benefactor. He has saved you and will not be malicious to you. So you listen to my instructions and go to Aurous Hill immediately! See if you can draw him out!"

Chapter 2540

When Zayne heard this, he subconsciously said: "Dad, this place in Aurous Hill is very evil! James disappeared there. If Fitz is also high-profile, I fear..."

Lord Banks waved his hand: "Don't be afraid! My guess is generally not wrong! What we have to do now is lead the snake out of the cave."

Zayne's expression was a little tangled. Zara's whereabouts are still unknown and her life or death is still unknown, so he is really reluctant to let Fitz go to Aurous Hill to take a big risk. James was so high-profile that he was captured as soon as he arrived in Aurous Hill. If Fitz is also very high-profile, then there is a high chance that he will repeat the mistakes of James. The only possibility of exemption is that the mysterious man behind Aurous Hill is the benefactor who saved his son and daughter in Japan.

Just when he was hesitant, Fitz mustered up the courage and said seriously: "Grandpa, I am willing to go to Aurous Hill!"

Lord Banks nodded in satisfaction and smiled: "As expected of my Banks Family's eldest grandson! The courage is just extraordinary!"

As he said, he asked again: "By the way, Fitz, I heard that you sponsored a concert before, and it seems to be held in Aurous Hill?"

Fitz nodded: "Yes, grandpa, I sponsored Stefanie Sun's global concert tour. Aurous Hill is her first stop this year."

Lord Banks smiled: "It turns out to be the girl from the Sun family! That girl is also very well-known now, so this time you When you go to Aurous Hill, you can show up in the public eye in the name of sponsoring the concert."

Fitz said in a hurry, "Yes grandpa, I understand!"

Lord Banks suddenly had a thought in his mind at this time: "Fitz, he is definitely not doing nothing, and he is not trying to shirk his job. Why does he want to sponsor such a boring concert? Things in the entertainment industry are indeed exciting for ordinary people, but for super-class families, it's nothing. How many top stars in the entertainment industry have sharpened their heads and want to marry these super-class families. But the heirs of these top families aren't even a little bit compelled, and won't even look at them directly."

"I know it's Banks' grandchildren, if he beckons in the entertainment industry, I don't know how many top female stars will be desperate for him. But he ran to sponsor Sun's girl's concert. This is obviously a drunkard who doesn't want to drink!"

Thinking of this, Lord Banks's eyes turned and he planned to give Fitz a chance. Therefore, he deliberately pretended to be very sincere and sighed: "Oh, let me just say something to my heart. The girl of the Sun family is still very good overall. Although the strength of the family is a little worse, the image of this girl is good and dignified!" After speaking, he looked at Fitz and said earnestly: "Fitz, you are now at the age to marry a wife. If you can catch the Sun girl and bring her into our family, it's a good thing to say!"

Fitz got excited when he heard this, and blurted out, "Grandpa...you...you support me in pursuing Stefanie?!"

Chapter 2541

Fitz has secretly loved Stefanie for many years, but only told his sister Zara about this. The reason why he didn't dare to say it was because he knew that the Banks Family could not allow him to be with Stefanie. Lord Banks has always been above the top, and he has never looked down upon these families in China. Moreover, he has always been eager to make major breakthroughs in overseas markets. Therefore, he especially hoped that Fitz, as the eldest son of the Banks Family, could marry a daughter of a top European and American family, or a European royal princess. In this way, the Banks Family can exchange resources with each other. Otherwise, if you only find a family with a weaker overall strength than the Banks Family to marry in the country, then it is clear that others will take advantage of the Banks Family.

Because of this, Fitz dare not make any relevant disclosures. However, he never dreamed that his visionary grandfather would take the initiative to encourage him to pursue Stefanie. This was simply great news for him. However, Fitz didn't know that Lord Banks easily analyzed his true purpose from his sponsorship of Stefanie's concert. Saying that now, it's just a matter of doing what he wants.

Lord Banks deeply understands a truth, this truth is: desire drives everything. If you want to make the best use of a person, you have to master where his desires are. Lord Banks understood Fitz's deep desires, so he chose him to do what he wanted, supported him in pursuing Stefanie, and directly tied him firmly in his camp in one step.

Therefore, when Fitz expressed absolute shock at what he said, Lord Banks said in a serious manner: "Fitz, the most important thing about choosing a spouse is the price/performance ratio. The girl from the Sun family, regardless of appearance, ability, She is of good character. Although Sun's strength is slightly inferior, she is Orrin's only daughter. If you marry her, it will be a very cost-effective thing! So if you really want to pursue her, I of course agree with both hands."

Fitz immediately said excitedly: "Thank you, grandpa! With your words, I am relieved!"

Zayne on the side took all this in. This is the first time he knows that what his son wants in his heart is Stefanie of the Sun family.

He frowned and said earnestly: "Gitz, you like Sun's girl, and Dad doesn't object, but you have to know that Sun's family has always been prejudiced against Banks' family, especially Orrin, who was Bruce's best friend and brother back then. Since I established the Anti-Wade Alliance, he has completely drawn a line from the Banks Family. If you pursue Stefanie, the first thing you have to pass is his level."

Fitz nodded and said, "Dad, I have considered all of what you said. The old accounts between my parents are indeed a relatively large influence, but I still believe that feelings are the first thing. If I can really make Stefanie like my words, then I believe I can also make Stefanie's father accept me."

Zayne sincerely sighed, "I'm afraid it won't be that easy!"

Lord Banks couldn't help but smack his lips, thinking that he was racking his brains to make suggestions for his grandson, and said. He said: "Oh it's something I feel no need to draw a conclusion so early, Fitz was 26 years old this year, even if you wait to 36-years-old to get married it's not too late, so you have plenty of time to get him to change his attitude towards you."

Then he couldn't help but say with a little regret: "I heard that Orrin had pancreatic cancer and he was about to die. If that's the case, you would have lost a stumbling block if you wanted to pursue Sun's girl, but who knows why this guy suddenly recovered inexplicably. He is alive and the difficulty will indeed be much greater."

Fitz said at this time: "Grandpa, since you support me, then I will work hard to pursue Stefanie, as long as she is willing to be with me, I believe Her father can't stop us from being together."

"Yes." Lord Banks said with a smile: "You can rest assured to pursue it boldly. Grandpa will support one hundred percent!"

Then he said very seriously: "If Orrin is unwilling to forgive our Banks Family for the Anti-Wade Alliance things back then, let your father come personally and plead for the crime. If it still doesn't work, then my old bone will personally apologize to him! For the life-long happiness of my grandson, what is this trivial matter?"

Lord Banks's attitude immediately moved Fitz. Comparing this with the unquestionable personality that Grandpa said before, it has changed drastically.

Chapter 2542

He thought it was impossible for his grandfather to allow him to pursue Stefanie, but he did not expect that he would support himself so much. This instantly increased his confidence in pursuing Stefanie countless times.

So, he immediately said: "Grandpa, in that case, I will go to Aurous Hill now to see if I can bring out the black hands behind the scenes by preparing for the concert!"

Lord Banks nodded in satisfaction and smiled: "I sent someone to invite the Patriarch of the Southaven First Family, Donald Webb from the Webb Family. I guess he should be here in a while. Don't leave in a hurry. It's not too late to leave after dinner.

"Yes!"

...

At this moment, Aurous Hill Shangri-La. Zara was bored in the hotel room for a day, feeling anxious and impatient.

At six o'clock, Isaac Cameron's men knocked on the door on time, and two female bodyguards walked in with a food delivery truck. One of them respectfully said: "Miss Banks, Ms. Thorne, dinner is ready, please take a step in the restaurant."

Zara couldn't help asking: "When on earth your master would like to see me? I have been waiting all day..."

The female bodyguard said very politely: "I'm sorry Miss, our young master didn't come here today."

Zara asked, "Did he say when he would come?"

The female bodyguard shook her head: "Master never said it."

Zara didn't give up and asked again. "Then, can I ask you to call your young master, just say I want to talk to him."

The female bodyguard smiled slightly: "You can tell I am not qualified to talk to the young master directly, so states that I don't have the contact information of the young master."

This..." Zara's eyes were flushed red and choked: "Then what does your young master mean?" It took so much time to save us and settle us here, but he has been hiding and not showing up...If he really doesn't plan to show up, let my mother and I leave here!"

The female bodyguard said apologetically: "Miss Banks, the young master really didn't mean that my servant dared to speculate. As for what you said to leave here, I can't do it. The young master has ordered us to make sure you two stay in this suite."

Zara suddenly overcome with emotion, tears started to flow out.

The female bodyguards Seeing this, apologetically said: "Miss Banks, the food is ready, you help yourself, we will go out first."

Deana hurriedly stepped forward, holding Zara in her arms and gently comforting her, while saying to the two female bodyguards: "Thank you two!"

The two hurriedly exited the room. As soon as they left the room, the two came to Isaac Cameron's office. After knocking on the door and entering, facing Isaac Cameron and Charlie sitting on the sofa, they said respectfully: "Master, Mr. Cameron, Miss Banks was a little excited."

Isaac Cameron hurriedly said: "Tell me, what exactly is the excitement?"

The female bodyguard relayed the situation that just happened.

Isaac Cameron nodded after listening, and said : "Okay, you have worked hard, go and rest."

The female bodyguard bowed and retired.

At this moment, Isaac Cameron looked at Charlie and couldn't help asking: "Master, are you really not going to see her?" "

Chapter 2543

Isaac Cameron's words made Charlie a little hesitant. Whether he wants to see Zara and Deana, he hasn't decided yet. The main reason is that he didn't understand what mentality he should use to face an enemy's daughter and a woman who has loved his father for many years. But he knew it in his heart. Things have reached the point where they are today. Sooner or later, I still have to meet with them. Therefore, he has not yet determined whether it is the right time to meet with them right now.

At this time, Isaac Cameron saw Charlie's hesitation, and hurriedly persuaded him : "Master, to be honest, since they will see you sooner or later, it is better to see you sooner." He said, "Look, now Miss Banks It's almost equivalent to being put under house arrest by us. If you don't meet her, I'm afraid she will still be uncomfortable. This is also a torture for her. You might as well meet her and make her feel at ease. I can stay here."

Charlie said lightly: "I definitely want to see them, but it's not the time yet."

Isaac Cameron asked hurriedly, "Master, are you waiting for an opportunity?"

"Opportunity?" Charlie shook his head: "I'm waiting for Zayne."

Isaac Cameron exclaimed: "Master, you...you want to wait for Zayne?"

"Yes." Charlie said coldly: "I'll wait for him to come to Aurous Hill. If he doesn't come, I will personally bring him over!"

"The day Zayne came to Aurous Hill, I would naturally take him to meet with Zara and Deana!" Speaking of this, Charlie stood up and said blankly: "After Zayne comes to Aurous Hill, I will personally take him to my parents' grave and make him bow down! If he is not directly related to the death of my parents, let him give my parents a bow; If he is directly related to the death of my parents, I will let him be in front of my parents' grave 'a life for a life'!"

...

At half past six in the evening, Donald Webb drove to Banks' manor. He also came with his eldest son Sean. The father and son arrived in the manor in their cars, and the housekeeper Adrian Peters greeted them in person, and as soon as he met, he said politely: "Mr. Webb, Young Master Webb, our master is already waiting in the banquet hall, please come with me. "

Donald Webb couldn't help feeling a little nervous. He didn't come to have dinner with Lord Banks this time. He came to Lord Banks as an undercover agent at Charlie's request. He could not afford to provoke

Charlie. Let alone Charlie's background, Charlie's ability alone is far from what he dared to offend. Killing the eight heavenly kings of the Webb family by himself really angered him, and maybe he could wipe out the Webb family all by himself. But here He can't afford to offend Lord Banks at all. Who is Lord Banks? The person in charge of the first family in the country is simply the strongest person in the financial field. If he provokes him, he may not end well. Therefore, Donald Webb's inner talent It is inevitable to be nervous and scared. But he also knows in his heart that no matter what, Charlie is the one he wants to offend least. Since Charlie allows himself to be an undercover, he can only bite the bullet.

Chapter 2544

After that, he and Sean followed Adrian Peters to the banquet hall of the manor.

At this time, in the banquet hall, three generations, Lord Banks, Zayne, and Fitz were sitting at the front of the dining table.

Seeing Donald Webb and his son coming in, Lord Banks took the initiative to stand up and said with a smile: "Mr. Webb, I have heard of the name, and I finally know the face today!"

Donald Webb hurriedly said, somewhat flattered, "Mr. Banks, you are so polite. Compared with you, I am just a small business man who does a little bit of innocent business, and can't get on the table..."

Lord Banks waved his hand and smiled: "Where is this? Your Webb family is in Southaven as the number one family is in Eastcliff, so do not belittle yourself."

After that, he hurriedly said: "Come on, Mr. Webb, let me introduce to you, this is my son, Zayne, The other is my grandson, Fitz."

Donald Webb couldn't help feeling a little surprised, and he thought to himself: "Unexpectedly, this Zayne also came to Southaven. This guy went to Australia because of a scandal some time ago. Also, Lord Banks murdered Zayne's wife and daughter, how could this guy stand in front of Lord Banks so respectfully? Doesn't he need to avenge his wife and children?"

Zayne saw Donald stunned, and immediately guessed his thoughts, and suddenly couldn't help but feel a little embarrassed.

So, he first stretched out his hand and said: "Hello, Mr. Webb, I am Zayne, I am lucky enough to meet."

Donald recovered, and hurriedly clasped his fists and said, "Mr. Banks, I have looked forward to it for a long time! Mr. Banks, this is Sean, my son!"

Lord Banks said at this time: "Mr. Webb, please sit down, let's eat and talk."

Donald quickly agreed. Five people were seated in front of the huge dining table. Lord Banks took the initiative to take the wine glass and toast Donald Webb. After three rounds of wine, he smiled and said, "Mr. Webb, this time I am here in Southaven. So in the future, I will take care of you in Eastcliff."

Donald Webb said nervously, "Mr. Banks, you are so polite. It is definitely my honor for you to think of me when you come to Southaven. If you have anything to use with me, please do not hesitate to speak."

Lord Banks said with a smile: "Since Mr. Webb has said so, then I will not be polite to you, but Mr. Webb, please rest assured. If there is anything you require then do not hesitate to ask our Banks Family to help."

Donald said, "Then I would like to thank Mr. Banks in advance!"

Lord Banks nodded, put the glass down, opening: "Yes Mr. Webb, I want you to find out a little thing, I do not know whether you are convenient to say."

Donald Webb said hurriedly: "Sir, please tell me!"

Lord Banks said: "That's it, I want to know Mr. Webb, how much do you know about Aurous Hill?"

This..." Donald Webb thought for a while, and said, "Actually, I don't know much about Aurous Hill, it's just that Kian went to university in Aurous Hill."

Actually, Donald Webb didn't have a last resort, and didn't want to talk to anyone about his second son, Kian. Because Kian's affair at the beginning was already known to all the people in the country, and to mention it would be equivalent to losing face. However, Lord Banks at this time are asked about their understanding of the situation of the Aurous Hill, Donald also did not hide in the Aurous Hill school thing, because this thing was up and down the country, known to everybody, If he deliberately concealed it, it would definitely arouse Lord Banks's suspicion.

When Lord Banks heard him talking about Kian, he nodded slightly, and said apologetically: "I'm sorry, Mr. Webb, I know there are some things I shouldn't say here."

Donald Webb knew what he wanted to say next, so he could only smile awkwardly and said: "Mr. Banks, if you have any questions, just ask, don't be so polite." "

Lord Banks nodded, opening: "Mr. Webb, frankly, I have heard about what happened to your son. I want to ask, why did this happen to your youngest son?"

"Why?" Donald Webb cursed secretly in his heart: "Of course it's because of that bastard Charlie!" He had already admitted this in front of me, but I couldn't offend him, so I didn't dare to confront him..." However, Donald Webb did not dare to say what he was thinking.

Therefore, he could only say: "This...to be honest, after Kian's accident, Sean and I went to Aurous Hill as soon as possible. We also wanted to find out what caused this. There was such a big change, but after a lot of investigations, no valuable clues were found."

Lord Banks was a little disappointed, and then asked: "Mr. Webb, what do you think happened to your younger son? Natural disaster or man-made disaster?"

Chapter 2545

Hearing Lord Banks's question, Donald Webb's mind again thought of Charlie, and he couldn't help feeling cold deep in his heart. Then he replied: "Lord Banks Sir, let's not hide it from you. I suspected that Kian's matter may have been man-made, but after investigating it, I didn't find any relevant clues, so it must be caused by natural disasters. Perhaps it is more likely, or the child himself was stimulated by some kind of stimulation."

Lord Banks asked him: "Have you asked your son what unusual memories or impressions he had before and after the incident?"

Donald Webb truthfully said: "I asked him about this, but he told me that there was a memory gap before the incident, and he could not remember it at all."

Lord Banks nodded thoughtfully, and said in a deep voice: "If it is In this case, I guess the possibility of a man-made disaster is greater!"

Donald pretended to be shocked and asked, "Mr. Banks, do you mean someone deliberately harmed my son?"

"Yes!" Lord Banks said seriously: " Generally speaking, even if someone has mental problems, they don't behave as strangely as your son." After speaking, he asked again: "And I heard that your son's condition seems to be every hour. It will happen once every hour, right?"

Donald Webb said embarrassingly: "Yes, it is true."

Lord Banks hummed, and said seriously: "Then this is even more problematic! Normally, even if one person has a sexual psychosis, intermittent epilepsy, and even intermittent convulsions they are relatively random and absolutely irregular. Therefore, some people will fall asleep and suddenly get up and be sleepwalking, or suddenly have a seizure, but when you have heard of anyone who has a disease, that it is every hour like clockwork? This is obviously not right!"

Donald Webb thought: "Of course I know something is wrong, I also know that all this is the bastard Charlie's doing!" But what can I do? The eight heavenly kings in our family were all taken care of by Charlie. If I were to fight against him, maybe I would be like my son someday and become a hapless guy who eats shit every hour..."

Thinking of this, he was depressed, and on the surface he pretended to be extremely shocked and asked: "Mr. Banks... Do you think anyone has such an ability to make my son do this? "

Lord Banks said: "There are too many possibilities for this kind of thing. Whether it is the mystery of our country's geomantic omen or the puppets in Southeast Asia, there are methods that cannot be explained by science. I think you should find a metaphysics master. Show your son to him and maybe he can see where the problem is!"

Master of Metaphysics?" Donald Webb said seriously: "To be honest, our family really doesn't know any metaphysical masters, but I have heard that some people in Hong Kong seem to be engaged in Feng Shui metaphysics, and I don't know if there are any masters over there."

Lord Banks said: "Metaphysics should be the most developed in Hong Kong, but really when it comes to top metaphysics masters, you still have to go to America to find one. "

The United States?" Donald Webb was even more surprised, and asked: "Mr. Banks, I don't quite understand. Isn't Feng Shui metaphysics the thing of our Chinese ancestors?" Why do top academic masters look at the United States?"

Lord Banks smiled indifferently, and said seriously: "The masters of metaphysics are very powerful, they are basically all generations of their ancestors, and even dozens of generations have been studying metaphysics assiduously. The history of studying metaphysics in the entire family may exceed thousands of years. When great turmoil occurs, some really capable older generations of metaphysical masters will figure out clues in advance and then avoid them in advance."

Chapter 2546

Lord Banks continued to explain: "Anyone who has studied history knows that in 37 years, we have experienced a huge ordeal in China. At that time, many top metaphysical families had calculated the disaster that was going to happen. Many of them fled overseas ahead of time. Those who did not escape were either those masters who worked for the country and the people, or those who had insufficient abilities and limited skills, and could not calculate the twoswords of disaster. The top masters who stayed devoted their efforts to the country, in addition to the Eight-Year War, there were deaths and injuries. A large number of domestic metaphysical masters withered. The overseas group survived intact."

Donald Webb couldn't help asking: "Mr. Banks, there is still something unclear underneath . Why did these escaped metaphysical masters go to the United States?"

Lord Banks smiled: "Recall. Let's take a look at the history of World War II that you learned in junior high school. At that time, the whole world was wiped out. Europe, known as the birthplace of modern civilization, was also turned into a puddle of mud. Even Britain was blown to ruins, not to mention the European continent. Looking at the whole world, there was only the United States that year. Except for a small attack on Pearl Harbor, the mainland was almost out of war. The true masters of metaphysics had long been in the United States for peace, so almost all of them fled with their families and went to the United States, while World War II was raging, these masters stayed safe in the United States." Lord Banks then offered, "If you need it, I can help you find a top metaphysics from the United States. Let him take a look at your son's situation."

Donald Webb asked a little excitedly: "Mr. Banks, is what you said true?"

"Of course!" Lord Banks smiled and said seriously: "Since we are all If you are interested in getting together to do something big, then I must show something, so I will arrange for someone to contact me and let the master fly over as soon as possible. If the speed is fast, the master may be here tomorrow night. "

Although Donald Webb didn't dare to betray Charlie, he couldn't help but get excited when he thought that the master of metaphysics that Lord Banks had found might really be able to heal his son. This also made him feel the feeling of having the best of both worlds. If he could cleverly mediate between Charlie and Banks' family, wouldn't he be able to please both sides and obtain benefits from both sides?

Thinking of this, Donald Webb hurriedly stood up, clasped his fists in his hands, bowed and said, "Thank you Mr. Banks! If you need me in the future, just give me a call!"

Lord Banks waved his hand and said casually: "Donald, between you and me, you don't have to be polite." After that, he looked at Zayne and told him: "Zayne, you go back to talk with Mr. Mai in Los Angeles, it's better to invite Mr. Mai himself out of the mountains on a trip to Southaven."

Zayne nodded, busy: "I know dad, now estimated time in Los Angeles is before dawn, I'll wait for twelve hours and then get in touch."

Lord Banks smiled slightly, and said with emotion: "I haven't seen Mr. Mai in years, this time if Mr. Mai is willing to show his face and come here in person, I will also ask him to do the calculations for me. Recently, things in the Banks Family are not going well. After encountering various blows one after another, it might have a lot to do with Feng Shui luck!

Chapter 2547

In fact, Lord Banks himself is not very faithful. His long-dead old father believed in Feng Shui fate, but he didn't buy it. Lord Banks's acting style is very harsh, so he always believes that man can conquer the sky. When he is young, he will act vigorously and resolutely when he is young. However, Lord Banks now has more or less murmurs in his heart. If it's a coincidence, it's really a bit unreasonable. How can such bad luck and bad things happen to me? If it is not a coincidence, it is estimated that something happened in the fortune, otherwise it should not be unlucky. Therefore, he wanted to take this opportunity to let the authoritative Feng Shui take a look.

Mr. Mai, whom he asked Zayne to contact, followed his father and fled to the United States from Eastcliff in early '37. At the time, the five great feng shui families in China were the Exeor Family, the Zeng family, the Liao family, the Yang family and the Mai family. These five families, without exception, have all settled overseas.

The old generation of the Mai family had a good personal relationship with Lord Banks's father, so when Lord Banks's father was alive, they often asked them to come back and give advice. However, since the death of his father, Lord Banks has not been interested in this aspect, so he drifted away from them. But having said that, although there hasn't been any contact in recent years, the foundation of the relationship between the two families is still there.

Donald Webb is also not very faithful. However, he is now holding the attitude of trying and not asking for money, and he has accomplished it. If he fails, he has no loss. It is precisely with this feeling of having a source of both ends, Donald Webb's psychological pressure is suddenly relieved a lot. Coupled with Lord Banks's very polite attitude, Donald Webb really felt at home.

After dinner, Lord Banks asked Zayne to send the father and son out. On the way back, Donald Webb still had a smug smile on his face. In any case, it is a good thing to be able to establish contact with a top-notch family like the Banks Family. It may indeed open up a little commercial cooperation. As long as the Banks Family gives some resources at hand, the Webb family will be able to improve.

Sean saw his father's excitement, but he felt a little unhappy. He did not want his brother Kian to recover, because once his brother recovered, he would rob him of property. Lord Banks suddenly threw such an olive branch, which made him feel very angry.

But he didn't dare to show his feelings in front of his father, so he could only ask: "Dad, the Banks Family wants to help us find the Feng Shui master, do you want to report to Charlie?"

Donald Webb said without hesitation: "Of course this kind of thing can't be reported, otherwise, if Charlie makes a little action behind his back, wouldn't there be no chance for your brother to be cured?"

Sean said with some worry, "But The task that Charlie assigned to us is to be his dual spy! If we deliberately conceal the clues and don't tell him, will he blame us if he knows it?"

Chapter 2548

Donald Webb hesitated for a moment, and said: "The situation must be reported partly, but it is still necessary to have some reservations. It is best to avoid the heavy and light."

He took out the cell phone sent a voice message to Charlie: "Young Master Wade, you really have a brilliant plan. Lord Banks invited me to dinner tonight. At the dinner table, he also said that he would work closely with us. I have agreed to him. I will report any trends to you in time!"

After Charlie received this message, he replied with the word "OK" in text.

Donald Webb received the text and smiled slightly: "Look, isn't this solved? What we have to do now is to make Charlie feel that we are doing our best for him, and Lord Banks feels that we are indeed an object worthy of his careful cultivation. As long as we can do this well, we will be able to meet the two top families of the Wade Family and the Banks Family!"

...

This evening, Fitz returned to Aurous Hill alone. The task that Lord Banks gave him, in addition to continuing to try to find his mother and sister, also required him to actively prepare for Stefanie's concert in Aurous Hill soon, and try to take this opportunity to catch Stefanie. When Fitz arrived in Aurous Hill, he went directly to his grandfather's old house in Aurous Hill.

What he didn't expect was that his grandfather, uncle, and second uncle had already put aside the things at hand and came to Aurous Hill. At the same time, they had begun to mobilize all resources to search for the whereabouts of his mother and sister.

When his grandfather Lord Thorne saw him, he asked in surprise: "Fitz, you suddenly disappeared inexplicably, where did you go?"

Fitz hurriedly drove himself from Eastcliff to Aurous Hill, and went to Southaven to meet his father and grandfather and have a meeting. However, he did not say anything about the selection of the Banks Family's successor.

What Lord Thorne heard about him was that he was almost beaten up by Lord Banks's messenger and fled all the way to Aurous Hill. Naturally, he felt very distressed for his grandson.

Thinking of the missing daughter and granddaughter again, he choked with tears in his eyes: "Fitz, you have suffered! Don't worry, grandpa will not let you suffer this kind of grievance again! Also! Your two uncles will stay in Aurous Hill, and go all out to find the whereabouts of your mother and your sister! If they are still alive, everything is easy to say, but if they encounter unexpected events, I will definitely not let go of your bastard grandfather!"

Hearing Grandpa's words, Fitz's red eyes nodded heavily. However, even he himself did not expect that at this moment, he suddenly felt a trace of pride in his heart. He also had Donald Webb's kind of experience of right and left.

"The always strong grandfather, for the sake of fame and family, wants to come over to please me, and grandpa's side, because of these things I have encountered, especially loves me..."

"If I really become The heir of the Banks Family, on one side is the huge business empire of the entire Banks Family, on the other side is the strong relationship background of the Thorne Family, then in the future I can even take the Banks Family to a higher level! If I can successfully Stefanie's income is equivalent to harvesting half of the Sun family. By then, I will combine the assets of the Banks Family, the background of the Thorne Family, and half of the Sun family's industry. Then I am the richest man in the world! Who else is in the world that can compete with me? Now it seems that my next top priority is to win Stefanie!"

Thinking of this, Fitz had a strong impulse in his heart, wishing to take Stefanie right away. The dream of the world's richest man, like a curse, quickly changed Fitz's heart. Now he no longer cares about the life and death of his mother and sister. All he wants in his head is the supreme title of "the world's richest man"!

Chapter 2549

The video about the Banks scandal has been constantly fermenting on the Internet. While the Banks Family's reputation is notorious on the street, the Banks Group has not given any official explanation. The enthusiastic people came to Banks Group's official website and the official Facebook to denounce it, making the Banks Group's public relations team helpless.

While Deana and Zara were still missing in the eyes of the outside world, the Banks Group announced in a high profile that Zayne would temporarily take over as the acting chairman of the Banks Group. This is also equivalent to officially announcing the return of Zayne to the public.

Interestingly, the return of Zayne has aroused the sympathy of many people. Many people think that the master Zayne is too miserable. His illegitimate daughter was killed by his father, and he himself was sent to Australia by his father. This was unlucky enough, but his father still didn't want to let him go, and gave him a big black pot of betraying his daughter.

Worse still, when he was alone with all the infamy, his father murdered his eldest daughter and his wife. Now, his eldest daughter and wife are still unclear, and he has only one son left. In the eyes of people, in the world, there may not be a second person as miserable as him. Therefore, he suddenly came back to preside over the Banks Family, and to a certain extent, aroused the sympathy of the public and made the public's impression of the Banks Group a little better.

But Lord Banks was even more uncomfortable. Because he knew that the more Zayne could make the public feel compassionate, the less likely he was to step onto the stage and take charge of the Banks Family again. But now he has no good solution, he can only go through the immediate difficulties first.

Zayne cares about Zara, so after he was promoted to acting chairman, he immediately invested a lot of manpower and material resources to find the whereabouts of the mother and daughter in Aurous Hill and surrounding areas.

To this end, he even offered a cash reward of more than 100 million. Many private detectives and bounty hunters flocked to Aurous Hill in order to earn this huge reward. Unfortunately, no one can find the slightest clue about the mother and daughter.

Charlie didn't go to Shangri-La for two consecutive days. Zara, who was confined here, had become more impatient. She was not dissatisfied with the state of being confined, but was always looking forward to the figure of the benefactor.

With the warming of these two weathers, Stefanie's concert is getting closer. This concert is Stefanie's first concert this year. Therefore, both Stefanie and her agency paid great attention to this concert. Not to mention Stefanie herself. As planned, her first concert this year was on the 20th of the first month of the lunar calendar, and her first concert was held in Eastcliff.

However, because of the reunion with Charlie, it happened to be Charlie's birthday on February 2 of the lunar calendar, so she deliberately changed the concert from Eastcliff to Aurous Hill and postponed it to the second day of February of the lunar calendar. In fact, for Stefanie, this concert was performed for Charlie alone.

Chapter 2550

Since it is dedicated to the beloved, naturally it takes a little more thought. Therefore, although there is still a period of time before the performance, the preliminary work team has arrived in Aurous Hill and began to make very detailed preparations for the scene. Stefanie herself is a top singer and actress in the country, so the overall specifications of her concerts have always been very high. This time the concert, because of Charlie's sake, the specifications were especially surprisingly high.

The first is the venue, the largest Olympic Center in Aurous Hill has been opened, which can accommodate more than 50,000 people; the second is the stage hardware, which uses all the world's top equipment, lighting, sound, stage and background; other than that In addition, the chief director, tuner, lighting engineer, and dancer team are all the largest production teams in Europe and America.

After all, Europe and the United States have more experience in concerts, and these teams have even managed super-large concerts with more than 100,000 in their audiences. In fact, from the financial point of view, it is basically not profitable to hold such a very costly concert, and it may even lose money. But Stefanie didn't care at all. What she was looking forward to was to show her perfect self in front of Charlie.

Because Stefanie's concert is getting closer, the whole Aurous Hill is excited about it. Charlie also found that there are more and more publicity advertisements about Stefanie in the surrounding area. The background advertisements of bus stations, the electronic streaming media advertisements in elevators, the giant billboards on the roadside and the display spaces on the floors of high-rise buildings are almost all Stefanie's promotional materials for the concert.

This made Charlie wonder: "Hasn't the tickets for the concert been sold long ago? What is the point of investing in such a big publicity at this time?"

What he didn't know was that Fitz did all these publicity campaigns without exception.

Fitz is now thinking about how to use the opportunity of the concert to get closer to Stefanie.

Therefore, he decided to spend tens of millions in Aurous Hill advertising space, and replace it with Stefanie's concert promotional materials to help Stefanie make the concert's momentum strong enough, so that when Stefanie comes to Aurous Hill it will really make an impact.

The next day, when Charlie had breakfast and sent his wife Claire out of the house, he received a call from Isaac Cameron, and Isaac Cameron reported: "Master, there is something, I have to report to you. "

Charlie asked him: "What's the matter?"

Isaac Cameron said: "Miss Sun's agent has already booked the presidential suite with me for a week before and after the concert. Early this morning, Fitz Banks suddenly ran over and wanted to buy all the advertising spaces in the hotel that week, even the right to use the LED giant screen of the building directly opposite the presidential suite terrace. He also bought it."

Charlie heard this. Surprisingly asked: "What is Fitz doing? Wouldn't he just want to advertise to find his mother and his sister?"

"No!" Isaac Cameron hurriedly said, "This guy wants to be on these advertising spots and the giant LED screen to show the promotional posters of Miss Sun's concert!"

Charlie frowned and couldn't help but smack his lips: "This Fitz is really interesting. At this time, he doesn't find a way to find his mother and his sister. Instead, he's paying for this promotion. Such a big thought."

Isaac Cameron blurted out: "Master, I think this guy Fitz must want to pursue Miss Sun!"

"Yeah." Charlie smiled: "He has been so obvious."

Isaac Cameron said anxiously: "Master, you must take it seriously!"

Charlie couldn't help but said a little embarrassingly: "How can I take this kind of thing seriously? ....."

Chapter 2551

Seeing that Charlie seemed indifferent, Isaac Cameron said anxiously, "Master, Fitz, his mother and sister are still missing, yet he is still in the mood to pursue Miss Sun so hard. This proves that this kid is a ruthless and unjust thing. If Miss Sun is such a good girl, if she is really deceived by him, it is not just Miss Sun who suffers the loss. Wouldn't you also lose a lot?"

Charlie coughed twice: "Don't worry about it. I am a married person. It is her freedom to choose her other half. It is not a turn the two of us have to worry about."

After speaking, Charlie suddenly felt distasteful. At the same time, what makes him feel very surprised is that his heart at this moment really agrees with what Isaac Cameron said just now. As Isaac Cameron said, Fitz still has the heart to follow Stefanie at this time. More or less it proves that this person is a little unreasonable. More importantly, Charlie involuntarily thought about Stefanie and Fitz being together. Although it was just a hypothesis, it still made him feel bad.

Charlie Wade this moment really understood that Stefanie Sun has occupied a place in his heart.

Isaac Cameron, seeing Charlie has not spoken, could not help but mention the thought: "Master, this thing, you should definitely pay attention to it. You can not let this bastard succeed in this."

Charlie was silent for a moment, and said: "So, I don't care about everything else. You must not sell the advertising resources in your hands to him. No matter how much he offers."

Isaac Cameron heard this and said with a pleasant surprise: "As long as you say, I will never sell any spaces to Fitz."
"Good." Charlie said with satisfaction, he then said, "You Help me find out what other tricks Fitz is up to and tell me as soon as you find it."

Isaac Cameron hurriedly said, "Oh yes, master, there is one more thing, I haven't had time to report to you.

"Tell me."

"Master, this Fitz has a group company that specializes in cosmetics. This company also has many well-known cosmetics brands. This time he has reached a cooperation with Miss Sun. The cosmetics company was named Miss Sun's concert tour sponsorship. It is all for charity. The content of the cooperation he reached with Miss Sun was that every time Miss Sun held a concert, he would donate to a charity organization.

Charlie couldn't help touching his chin, and said with a serious expression: "This Fitz will really find an entry point, he is not short of money at all, so he does not look at any form of advertising sponsorship at all, but he has moved the people with charity, this kid seems to be a master or otherwise there are experts behind him."

Isaac Cameron hurriedly said, "Master, then you have to think of a countermeasure quickly."

Charlie said: "I see, monitor Fitz, if he does anything, tell me immediately.

"Yes, young master."

At this moment, Zayne came to Lord Banks's study early in the morning and reported to him: "Dad, our shipping license has been revoked."

"What?" When Lord Banks heard this, he immediately blurted out: "What's going on? How can the qualification certificate be revoked?"

Chapter 2552

Zayne proceeded to tell him: "According to the shipping department, it is because our Banks Group's overseas reputation has recently declined too sharply, and we failed in the overall score, so we are required to make rectification first. Until the rectification is over, we are not allowed to operate ocean shipping business."

Lord Banks was shocked: "Why did they tell us how long we need to make rectification?"

Zayne shook his head and said, "There is no deadline for rectification. They said that we should make rectification as soon as possible. After the rectification is completed, they will follow their time."

"Let's arrange a review. If there is no problem with the review, the license can be restored." Lord Banks exclaimed, "Isn't this a stumbling block? Our Banks Group's fastest growing business in the past two years is the ocean shipping business. The price is getting higher and higher. Now the freight of a container is three or four times more expensive than before. It is a rare opportunity in the shipping industry in a century. If we stop our business at this time, it will mean we will be cut off by half."

Zayne sighed: "Dad, I also told them about this, and even pleaded with them, hoping to get a chance of probation, but the other party just didn't let go. I also asked someone to inquire about the above meaning, if we cannot resolve this reputational crisis, and give a satisfactory explanation about Tate Landry's intrusion into Treasure Pavilion. This business will not be opened to us in the future."

Lord Banks gritted his teeth and said, "This time No one has been arguing about the incident. They are trying to force me to stand up as a target."

Zayne said helplessly: "In fact, this matter requires an explanation that can be explained above, but we have not given it up."

Lord Banks snorted coldly and said: "What solution can be provided? All the spearheads are directed at me. Unless I stand out and get beaten, this will never happen." After that, Lord Banks remembered something and hurriedly said: "By the way, you should prepare quickly A sum of cash was sent to the families of the victims who Tate Landry killed in Treasure Pavilion. In any case, let them come forward and record a video of understanding, and then edit the video of everyone's understanding into one and post it to the Internet."

Zayne Said: "Dad, the families of these victims may not cooperate with us in this way."

Lord Banks said coldly, "Huh, if they don't cooperate, give them 5 million. If they are willing to cooperate, give them 20 million."

Zayne nodded: "Dad, then I will arrange someone to go to Aurous Hill to talk to the victim's families."

Lord Banks said blankly: "Be sure to update to me."

"Yes dad"

Lord Banks frowned, and said coldly: "The biggest domestic ocean shipping industry is our Banks Family, followed by the Wade family."

"Now, if our transportation is stopped, wouldn't it be for It's a great opportunity for the Wade Family. As long as this stopped state lasts for more than three months, then the Banks Family will be overtaken by the Wade Family."

"Yes," Zayne said grimly: "The Wade Family is now actively sending, I heard that they had just ordered three container ships with the shipyard two days ago, and even went to South Korea to negotiate the chartering business with the South Korean shipping group, because the Wade's current business volume has surged. The capacity is not enough."

Lord Banks slapped the table angrily: "There is no reason to let the Wade family pick up a bargain for nothing." He said sternly : "This matter must not just wait passively. You must find a way to mediate. We temporarily revoke our qualifications, then we will find a qualified shell to hang in, at least not to stop our business."

Zayne hurriedly said, "Dad, I have already contacted this matter, but other domestic shipping companies dare not call us because they are also worried about being punished."

Lord Banks scolded in anger, "Damn, this group. They cheat on our Banks Family, and now all of them are damned. Since the domestic can't handle it, then go to a foreign company."

Zayne thought for a while, and said: "Korea's companies have already been preempted by the Wade's. Now, our best choice is the Ito family in Japan, after the Matsumoto family and the Takahashi family fell, almost all shipping in Japan is now in the hands of the Ito family."

Chapter 2553

When Lord Banks heard this he immediately cursed: "Damn, Ito Yuhiko, that dog, he is not on the map at all. When he and the Takahashi family were one of the two choices of ours, he was like a licking dog and fawned on us all day; now that the Takahashi and Matsumotos are all over, he is still arrogant. It's really unreasonable."

Ocean Shipping is one of the most profitable industries at the moment. If a large container ship runs on European and American routes with a full load, a container freight of 20,000 to 30,000, a single trip can earn at least tens of millions in freight. The Banks Family has the largest domestic transportation Fleet, as long as these ships run, they can create extremely high profits, and they are definitely the core and most important source of revenue for the Banks Family. However, now that their licenses have been revoked, none of these ships can get route approval. If they did not get approval, these ships can only be docked at the port, only a penny earned does not come back, and have to put a lot of money for daily maintenance.

in addition to the overall shipping and transport support team Although there was nothing to do, the Banks Family absolutely did not dare to lay off staff and could only continue to spend money to support it.

Therefore, Lord Banks felt very anxious about this, and said in a deep voice, "Hey, blame me, this incident is really bad. I don't know when we can get through it. It's likely that we won't have the chance to get the license back before things turn around."

Zayne thought for a moment and said, "Dad, or I'll go to Japan again. Talk to Ito Yuhiko If he is willing to cooperate with us, we will use a shell company to register a new company in Japan with Ito Yuhiko, and then take the Japanese license to temporarily change all our ships to that company's name. This will solve the urgent need."

Lord Banks nodded and sighed and said: "The method is indeed a good way, but I don't know what attitude Ito will take. This guy must feel that the Ito family's opportunities are unique now, and may not be able to promise to cooperate with us."

Zayne said: "The Ito family business has been given to Ito Takehiko's daughter some time recently. Nanako Ito is at the helm. Although this girl is young, her style of doing things is still very radical. In a short time, she has integrated Japan's shipping resources, and her overall strength has improved rapidly."

Lord Banks frowned: "Nanako Ito, that is the only daughter of Ito Takehiko?"

"Yes," Zayne said: "She is now in helm."

Lord Banks thoughtfully exclaimed: "Takehiko Ito , And Orrin Sun, how come these two people only gave birth to a daughter? Wouldn't it be a waste of money for others in the future?"

Zayne shrugged: "Who knows what they think, and a big entrepreneur with only one daughter, It's not just the two of them."

Lord Banks sighed, "Hey, Nanako Ito's price-performance ratio is much better than Stefanie's."

He said, he couldn't help but figure it out, and said, "Look, the Ito family is holding it now. Given the unique opportunity, the strength has skyrocketed. Not only are they Japan's first family, but also the second and third places are far behind. In contrast, the Sun family is indeed a little less interesting, and Stefanie has not yet taken over the Ito family. The true strength comparison is much worse than Nanako Ito."

This is true. Zayne nodded in agreement, and said: "This Nanako Ito has always had the title of Yamato Nadeshiko. Now the Japanese media simply call her the "future Japan's richest person", and there are probably many men who want to marry her."

Zayne said: "Dad, didn't you agree with Fitz to pursue Stefanie?"

Lord Banks said very seriously, "But now it seems that Stefanie is far away from Nanako Ito. It's more cost-effective."

Zayne said embarrassedly, "Dad, Fitz has just gone to Aurous Hill, we change our minds at this time, and it will definitely have a big blow to his enthusiasm. After all, he really likes Stefanie."

Lord Banks smacked his lips, and said: "If you know that, let him continue to try and pursue that Stefanie. You can find another chance to make an appointment with Ito Yuihiko, or simply make an appointment with Nanako Ito to see if he can make another appointment. Let's talk about it in a few minutes. The big deal is that we will give them more profit margins. As long as they are willing to establish a joint venture with us to help us revitalize this business, we can share 20% of the profit with her."

Zayne nodded and agreed, and said, "Dad, I will communicate with the Ito family. If possible, I will make an appointment with them as soon as possible."

Chapter 2554

At this moment, Tokyo, Japan. Inside the Ito Mansion, it was a busy scene.

Nanako Ito ran around the room constantly, packing all kinds of clothes and daily necessities into the suitcase. Her assistant Kawana Hisui, at this time, was in a hurry in the backyard kennel. After finally letting her grab a very naughty little Akita, she hurriedly hugged the Akita tightly in her arms, and hurried to the door of Nanako Ito's room.

"Miss, can you see this puppy?"

Nanako Ito just put a cherry blossom pink jacket with a strong girlish breath into the box, looked up at the puppy in her arms, and said with a smile: "It turned out to be Momotaro. To be honest, I am really reluctant to send it away."

Kawana said hurriedly: "Miss, then I'll get another one. "

Nanako Ito quickly stopped her, opening: "No Kawana, after all the other is Master Wade's friend, since she likes the Akita dog, I will send her the best."

Kawana shook her head and sighed: "Miss, you are so kind with Charlie, not only with him, but also with his friends."

Nanako Ito said with some shame: "Charlie-jun Yes, he is kind to the Ito family. Of course I have to do my best for a little thing."

Kawana Kurei blurted out subconsciously: "But he is already married."

Nanako Ito said with a somewhat embarrassed expression: "I am in his debt. I just want to repay the favor, and it has nothing to do with whether I get married or not."

Kawana Hisui put the Akita dog named Momotaro on the ground, grabbed Nanako Ito's right hand, pointed to the ring on her right middle finger, and said, "Miss, if you really just want to repay him, Why would you keep wearing this ring in your hand?"

Nanako hurriedly concealed her hand: "This ring, this ring is a gift I gave myself and it has nothing to do with Charlie."

Chapter 2555

Kawana Kurei saw Nanako Ito's desire to cover up, she couldn't help sighing, and said helplessly: "Miss, if I have a mirror in front of you now, you will know that you are Nanako Ito, the worst liar in the world"

Nanako immediately blushed with shame, and said falteringly: "I'm not lying!"

"Okay, it's OK." Kawakami said helplessly: "Miss, I'm just Your assistant, you don't have to bother to lie to me. It's just that when you face Charlie, don't be so cramped."

Nanako Ito said with embarrassment: "I'm sorry Kawana, I'm actually not talking about this..."

Nanako sighed helplessly, and said, "Hey, don't say anything. Thank you for your reminder. Please help me put Momotaro into the flight box. Give him some water. We will go by helicopter in a moment. The airport is out."

Kawana nodded: "Okay lady, is there anything else you need me to help, I'll come back."

Nanako Ito waved her hand and said, "No, you can help me settle Momotaro, and then you Pack your luggage. Let's go to Aurous Hill this time. It will take a long time."

Kawana said hurriedly, "Miss, you don't plan to come back until the concert is over."

Yes. "Nanako Ito said seriously: "I plan to stay in Aurous Hill until the concert ends. "

Kawana asked: "What work shall i schedule to be taken care of? there are so many things to be done, "

"it does not matter." Nanako Ito smiled and said: "I will deal with work issues eight hours a day, all the work will be through computers and mobile phones Solved online. During this period of time, I have been promoting the entire Ito Group's online and office reforms. This time I just look at the actual results."

As she said, she smiled and comforted: "Kawana, don't worry, I am not the kind of woman who is playful or irresponsible with work. Even if I go to Aurous Hill, I will not be careless about the work I should do."

Kawana nodded gently. She also had to admit that Nanako Ito is a very hard-working woman, and she took over the position of the head of the family not long ago, but it is very serious and responsible, and many innovative measures she has implemented are quite effective.

Her father Yuhiko Ito is a very traditional Japanese businessman. This old generation of Japanese entrepreneurs usually pays great attention to the sense of ritual. As long as they leave home every day, they must be in suits and leather shoes. They are also meticulous in the company and very rigid.

After Nanako Ito took over the Ito Group, the first thing it did was to gradually transform the Ito Group into a more modern company. The first is to promote paperless offices in the company as much as possible. Paperless is only one aspect, but the bigger purpose is to put most of the work, documents, and files online. In this way, not only the timeliness is fast, the privacy is strong, but also the safety is high, making it easier to read and view.

At the beginning, many old employees were still a little unacceptable. They still followed the older generation's working methods, and they had to be careful and step by step. However, under the impetus of Nanako Ito, everyone not only accepted the new office style, but also actually felt that the overall work efficiency has been greatly improved.

Now, Nanako Ito continues to promote the company's online interaction, and even specifically enables real-time video conferencing solutions to ensure that she and other executives, no matter where in the world, as long as there is a network , Even if the work is separated by thousands of miles, the work can be guaranteed not to be affected in any way.

This is a very simple thing for many emerging Internet companies, and it has even become the basic way of their daily work, but for established traditional companies, this is still very new and wants to change them in a short time. My work habits are by no means an easy task. Fortunately, Nanako Ito's management skills are unambiguous, so these innovations can be steadily promoted.

During this period of time, while reforming the Ito Group, Nanako Ito also went all out to integrate many other resources. The market released by the Takahashi family and the Matsumoto family was fully collected and the Ito family took another step up. This also made Kawana Hisui very admired. Therefore, she is not worried that Nanako Ito will leave her work behind when she goes to Aurous Hill.

Chapter 2556

However, she also has her own concerns. She worries that Nanako Ito will become reluctant after she goes to Aurous Hill and meets her beloved man. Sometimes, many people who are particularly capable and promising will lose their morale and pursuit for the one they love. Therefore, she was also afraid that after Nanako Ito went to Aurous Hill, she would not want to return to Japan.

However, Kawana did not dare to express her worry, because she was afraid that after she said it, she would leave a psychological hint to Nanako Ito, so she said: "Miss, then I will go and settle Momotaro. after that I will be ready to meet with you again. "

Nanako Ito looked at the time, said:." you will have to come to me, my helicopter leaves in ten minutes."

"Yes lady, then I'll go over to tarmac."

Kawana. After Kurei left, Nanako Ito was packing her things. Her father Takehiko Ito slowly entered the house in an electric wheelchair. Seeing that she was packing her luggage, he asked: "Nanako, how long will you go to Aurous Hill this time"

Nanako Ito hurriedly put down the clothes in her hand, and said shyly, "Odosan, I will go there for about ten days this time.

"Ten days" Ito Yuhiko couldn't help it. He exclaimed and asked: "Why is it so long?"

Nanako Ito blushed and said, "Odosan, I want to stay in Aurous Hill for a few more days. It can be considered a rest. During this period of time, I have been busy with work, and I am really tired.

Ito Yuhiko smiled slightly, and said, "I think you are tired if you are tired. It is true that you want to see Charlie earlier."

"Odosan" Nanako Ito said with embarrassment, "Since you understand everything, don't ask for it."

Looking at his daughter's shy answer, Ito said with a bit of distress: "Nanako, O'Dao Sang does not object that you like Charlie, but you must promise O'Dao Sang not to fall into it. Get too deep, at least, don't delay your own future because you can't be with him."

Nanako Ito said hurriedly: "I know Odosan, don't worry."

Ito Nodded, stretched out, and smiled: "Oh, I'm bored at home these days. If you are do not mind, I would like to go with you."

"Ah!" Nanako Ito exclaimed: "Odosan, you want to go Aurous Hill?!"

"Yes." Ito Yuhiko said with a smile: "While you are gone I am too deserted here. I just wanted to go to Aurous Hill to meet Mr. Wade. I didn't even have a chance to thank him. I have to say something this time. Drink two glasses with him. I have a few bottles of 50-year-old whiskey, which happened to be brought to Mr. Wade to taste."

Nanako nodded hurriedly and said, "That's great, so let's go and talk together." She suddenly remembered something, and said embarrassingly: "But Oudosang, I told Miss Moore this time I'll live in her home, if you live with me in her house, I'm afraid it's not appropriate."

Ito Yuihiko smiled and said, "It's okay. You and Kawana still live in Miss Moore's house. I'll stay in the hotel with Tanaka."

Nanako Ito hurriedly asked, "Tanaka-san is also with me."

"Ito Yuihiko sighed and said: Since his amputation, Tanaka has been a little frustrated. After all, he is still young and can't accept such a severe blow, so I plan to let him go out with me. He had been there before. Aurous Hill, take him to the old place this time to see if he can cheer him up again."

Nanako Ito couldn't help but feel emotional. The relationship between her father and Tanaka Koichi, the master and servant, is indeed very deep. Don't give up, and it's really moving.

So she hurriedly said: "If this is the case, please prepare for Oudosang and Tanaka-san as soon as possible."

Chapter 2557

Because Ito Yuihiko wanted to take his loyal subordinate Koichi Tanaka and his sister Emi Ito to Aurous Hill, Nanako Ito hurriedly delayed the flight departure time and cancelled the helicopter flight then planned to go to the airport.

For Ito Yuhiko and Tanaka Koichi, who had both legs amputated, the experience of taking a helicopter was not friendly and inconvenient. So Nanako Ito re-arranged a fleet of assistants and servants who needed to go to Aurous Hill. More than ten people traveled to Tokyo Narita Airport by car.

In order to take care of her father, Nanako Ito and Yuhiko Ito shared a commercial vehicle. When the vehicle was on the way to the airport, Nanako was already excited. Thinking of arriving in Aurous Hill where Charlie lives in a few hours, Nanako Ito wanted to call him now and tell him the news.

However, Nanako didn't want to go to Aurous Hill for his purpose, which was too obvious. She went to Aurous Hill this time for several high-sounding reasons. The first reason is that she wants to see Jasmine and the Akita dog she gave to Jasmine; the second reason is that she can also go to Stefanie's concert. She really likes Stefanie and has always wanted to look for a chance to watch her live performance; the third reason is to send Momotaro to Aurora, because Aurora also likes Akita dogs, and through Jasmine, she promised Aurora that she would give her one.

However, these three reasons are just superficial rhetoric. The core motivation that really drove Nanako Ito and allowed her to travel thousands of miles to Aurous Hill was because she missed Charlie day and night and wanted to find a chance to meet him. Moreover, she did not want to make her true motives too obvious. Because she was worried that that would bring some psychological pressure to Charlie. That's why she used these three reasonable reasons to get herself to Aurous Hill first, and then waited for Aurous Hill to contact Charlie.

In this way, you can conceal your core motivation to meet Charlie.

At this time, Emi Ito, who was sitting in the co-pilot, said to Takehiko Ito: "Ouni, I have already booked a hotel in Aurous Hill. This time I am staying at the Aurous Hill Shangri-La Hotel. I have already booked a presidential suite. , And several luxurious suites next to it."

Ito Yuhiko nodded lightly, and said: "Emi, you can decide these things by yourself, and you don't need to report to me."

Ito Emi hurriedly said: "Yes Oonni, I see."

While talking, Nanako Ito suddenly received a call from Kawana Hisui, who was sitting in front in a Mercedes-Benz car.

Nanako Ito got on the phone and asked, "Kawana, what's the matter?"

Kawana is busy and said, "Zayne from China Eastcliff Banks' family just called me and he said that he hopes to talk to us about a framework for cooperation."

"The Banks Family" Nanako Ito frowned, and said without hesitation: "We have stopped cooperating with overseas companies for the time being, just refuse him."

Kawana Hisui explained: "Miss, this cooperation is very different from the past. The overall conditions are very friendly to our Ito Group."

"Very friendly" Nanako Ito asked curiously: "How friendly is it?"

Kawana said in detail: "Miss, Banks The family's shipping license was revoked because they had a catastrophe in China. Now they have a large number of shipping ships that can only be anchored in China's ports and cannot create profits. That means that they want to establish a joint venture with us, and put all the ships under the name of the joint venture company. We don't need to produce anything. We only need to obtain a qualification in Japan. They will operate the remaining ships themselves. They can give us 20% profit."

Nanako Ito couldn't help but said in surprise: "Is the Banks Family so generous to divide the profit by 20%?"

Chapter 2558

Kawana Hisui said: "Zayne really said that. He also said that in terms of proportions, there is still some room to talk about. I personally feel that even if it is 30%, the Banks Family won't have any comments."

Nanako Ito was silent for a moment, and said, "Kawana, don't reply to him about this matter. I always felt that the Banks Family really lacks a basic moral limit. Don't cooperate with this family."

"Okay" Kawana did not persuade her much, and immediately replied, "Then I will leave him alone."

After hanging up the phone, Ito Yuhiko on the side asked, "Why did the Banks Family come to work with us?"

When Nanako Ito was talking about business, she became like a subordinate in front of Ito Yuhiko. She respectfully said: "The Banks Family's shipping license has been revoked, so now they want to cooperate with us and need a solution."

"Sitting in the co-pilot of Emi Ito exclaimed: "If you really can make a profit of 30%, that for us is definitely a huge bonus!"

Yuhiko Ito shook his head and said indifferently: "The essence of the Banks Family is an extremely selfish family. In their logic, only he takes other people's money, and no one else takes his money. At this time, they are willing to give such a large profit. It can only prove that the problems they are facing are very serious. Once we help them tide over the difficulties, they will definitely turn their attention to the part of the profit that is transferred to us. They will definitely do everything possible to get the money back with interest."

"Yes." Nanako Ito nodded in agreement: "My father and I have the same opinion. We must stay away from the Banks family."

...

Half an hour later a Gulfstream G650 aircraft took off from Tokyo Narita Airport. Nanako Ito took the opportunity to go to Aurous Hill with her father and aunt.

At the same time, Lord Banks stood on the terrace of the lakeside villa, overlooking the calm lake, with a cold expression.

He looked at Zayne next to him, and asked in a cold voice: "Has the Ito family responded yet?"

"No." Zayne answered truthfully: "I contacted Nanako Ito's assistant. She said that she would feed back the situation to Nanako Ito. Maybe Nanako Ito needs to think about it again."

Lord Banks shook his head: "There is nothing to consider about this kind of thing. If Nanako Ito is really interested, of course, she will contact us immediately to discuss the details of the follow-up cooperation. If she is not interested, naturally it will be like now, she will not respond any more."

Zayne said hurriedly, "It's also possible that they just wanted to deliberately make us wait, and then take the opportunity to up the profits."

Lord Banks said coldly, "Even if they are trying that, they will at least accept it on the surface. First establish a smooth communication channel between each other. When one does not respond directly, most likely the other party is not interested at all."

As they were talking, the housekeeper Adrian Peters walked over and whispered "Master, Mr. Mai's plane will arrive in Southaven in one hour."

"Oh" Lord Banks raised his eyebrows suddenly and blurted out: "Quickly, tell the kitchen, press the prepared menu, and immediately set up a banquet for Mr. Mai to meet us at. In addition, you will notify Donald Webb and let him come quickly."

Chapter 2559

Donald Webb received Adrian Peters's notice, and he was very excited. The problem with his younger son Kian has always made him very worried, but he knew very well that Charlie would not be able to cure his younger son in a short while, and now the Banks Family invited a master of Feng Shui metaphysics, he naturally looked forward to this master solving his problem.

So, he immediately said to Adrian Peters: "Thank you, butler, for telling me that. I will bring Kian over and let Master Mai take a look at him."

Adrian Peters heard this and said hurriedly: "Don't! Doesn't your son ask for something every hour? Mr. Mai has just arrived and you don't know how Mr. Mai feels, you should come by yourself first. After you come, explain your younger son's situation with him. The old man will give a detailed introduction, this will let Mr. Mai be mentally prepared."

Donald Webb suddenly felt hot on his face. He only thought of having a chance to heal his youngest son, but he ignored how much his son is now being rejected.

So he had to respectfully say, "Thank you for the reminder. I will do this."

While Donald Webb departed for the Lake Villa, Isaac Cameron received a report. Half the year the presidential suite is vacant, however it has just been booked by the Ito family of Japan. Even more surprising was that in the list of residents the name of Yuhiko Ito was included. He immediately called Charlie to report.

Charlie was also quite shocked by this. He looked at the list sent to him by Isaac Cameron and was surprised to see Yuhiko Ito's name, as well as Yuhiko Ito's sister Ito Emi, and Yuhiko Ito's right hand man, Tanaka. Charlie wondered why Yuhiko Ito was in Aurous Hill, but also with Tanaka. Knowing that both of them have undergone amputation, and they are both disabled now without legs. Charlie didn't have any thoughts of despising the disabled or discriminating against the disabled. He just didn't understand why these two people who are in this situation would come all the way to Aurous Hill.

Thinking about it again, Jasmine said at the beginning that Nanako Ito would also come to Aurous Hill to watch Stefanie's concert. In that case, it is estimated that Nanako Ito will also be here this time. The reason why I can't see Nanako Ito's name on the hotel's occupant list is because Nanako Ito is planning to live in Jasmine's house this time.

But Charlie was also a little surprised that when Nanako Ito came to Aurous Hill, she didn't call him and let him know she was coming.

...

On the other side, Donald Webb hurried to the lakeside villa of the Banks Family.

After arriving, he did not see Lord Banks and Zayne, but the butler Adrian Peters received him.

Adrian Peters arranged him in a lounge and warned him: "Mr. Mai will be there in a while. You will wait here first. He left this room without authorization. Just sit here and wait for my news."

Donald Webb was a little unhappy with Adrian Peters's superior and pretentious attitude. After all, Adrian Peters is not the Banks Family, he is just a dog of Lord Banks's. Although Donald Webb despised Adrian Peters in his heart by 10,000 people, he did not dare to show any dissatisfaction in front of Adrian Peters. He could only say respectfully: "Don't worry, butler, I will wait here honestly."

Adrian nodded in satisfaction, and left the lounge.

Chapter 2560

After he turned and left the lounge.

Donald Webb sat on the sofa a little annoyed, and muttered to himself: "Fuck, it's just a dog. He dared to pretend to me like this. He said so much, he didn't even pour me a glass of water.

After half an hour a team consisting of a few Rolls-Royce pulled up to the lakeside villa's door.

Lord Banks, Zayne, and Adrian Peters, are waiting at the door. As the cars stopped, Zayne personally stepped forward and opened the rear door of the second Rolls Royce.

Inside the door, there was an old man with silver hair wearing a black embroidered Tom Ford suit . It seemed that he had to be in his 80s. But he was very sturdy, and you couldn't guess how he actually was.

Zayne, who is more than fifty years old, looked at the old man in front of him, and said respectfully: "Grandpa Mai, you have been missed for many years."

The old man smiled slightly. , Twisted his beard, and said cheerfully: "You are abiding by the way. When I saw you last time, you were a big and young man. Now it's been a long time no doubt.

Zayne said respectfully: "Grandpa Mai, I am now in my fifties. I want to know how you can still be so energetic in your old age."

The old man laughed and said, "I can't talk about the spirit. It's over."

Lord Banks said hurriedly at this time: "Zayne, please get your Grandpa Mai out first. Don't let your Grandpa Mai sit in the car for a long time. It's not good for his health.

So Zayne came back to his senses and hurriedly reached out and said: "Grandpa Mai, let us go inside."

This old man is the thirty-first generation of the Mai family. Mr. Mai is well-known in the American Chinese circle. Although not as good as others, he can definitely be regarded as a relatively top group of Chinese American Feng Shui masters.

Since Orion Exeor has been relatively low-key these years, and has been to China for several years, he just gave Mr. Mai a chance to rise.

Ninety-three years old and he has never retired, and is still active in the field of Feng Shui. He often goes around to watch Feng Shui and fortune-telling for some top wealthy people, because his strength is indeed high. Not to mention the great reputation behind his family name.

This time, in order to invite him out of the mountain, the Banks Family spent 15 million U.S. dollars, and at the same time paid for his charter flights to and from Aurous Hill, as well as all other expenses for food, clothing, housing and transportation, which brought him over from the United States.

At this time, Mr. Mai stretched out his hand and grabbed Zayne's arm, and came out of the car dexterously. Lord Banks hurried forward, bowed and said, "Uncle Mai, it's so hard for you to come so far. I'm sorry.

Mr. Mai smiled and said, "Alfred Banks, your father and I were good brothers. If you have something, I will help."

As he said, the door of the co-pilot was also pushed open, and a twenty-seven-year-old young man stepped down, paced to the old man, and said respectfully: "Grandpa."

Mr. Mai stretched out his hand to bring him to his side, and said with a smile: "Alfred, Zayne, let me introduce to you, this is my eldest great-grandson, Mike.

"Mike" Zayne asked subconsciously: "Is it an English name or a Chinese name?"

The young man smiled and said, "Uncle Banks, Mike is my Chinese name, but my English name is also Mike, and the two Chinese characters are also transliterated.

Mr. Mai smiled and said: "Young people are more fashionable. When Mike's father named him, he deliberately gave him a name that combines Chinese and Western."

Lord Banks said hurriedly, "This name is very interesting, and it happens to be Mai. Two birds with one arrow, it is really wonderful.

Mr. Mai waved his hand: "Alfred, don't brag about his dad here. Mike's name is a bit witty. It's not wonderful."

Lord Banks smiled awkwardly and said, "Uncle Mai, I am not as high as your education level. As far as I am concerned, this name is really great."

Mr. Mai patted him on the shoulder and said with a smile: "Okay, let's sit down and talk about your Banks Family."

Chapter 2561

Lord Banks respectfully invited Mr. Mai to sit on the sofa. After sitting down, he sighed and said painfully: "Hey Uncle Mai, this time you must help me."

Mr. Mai nodded, and said seriously: "Since I have come here, I will naturally do my best, so you must tell me everything exactly."

Lord Banks replied and sighed: "In the end, I blame myself for being so confused and making some unreasonable decisions

Lord Banks told of Fitz and Zara who were kidnapped in Japan. When Xion destroyed the Matsumoto family, and when he himself betrayed Xion and assassinated Deana. After that, he looked worried and asked: "Uncle Mai, is this bad karma come upon me?."

Mr. Mai waved his hand and said seriously: "Alfred, you are my life nephew, so I won't come with you that tricky stuff. Remember, in this world, No matter from the perspective of Feng Shui or from the perspective of science, there is no such thing as karma at all."

Lord Banks asked in surprise: "Why do you believe in the Taoist school of law, don't you talk about reincarnation and karma?"

Mr. Mai shook his head and said, "What you are talking about is Buddhism. Moreover, our Feng Shui metaphysics is not a Taoist school. We are the Book of Changes and Gossip, Chi Men Dun

Lord Banks hurriedly asked: "Then you just said that there is no karma, is this true?"

Mr. Mai smiled and said: "In my opinion, it is natural, but it doesn't matter if you don't believe me. Let me sort out the views in our Feng Shui metaphysics, just as a discussion."

Lord Banks said hurriedly: "Please tell me."

Mr. Mai paused slightly and said: I ask you, according to karma, those who do evil must will be severely punished, and those who do good will be rewarded, right? "

Lord Banks nodded: "According to them, it is true."

Mr. Mai asked back: "Then I'll ask you, some babies die right after they are born. They have only just begun in this life. There is no evil or goodness. Why don't even have a chance for healthy growth?"

Lord Banks is embarrassed: "This is beyond me. I do not know."

Mr. Mai nodded and asked, "Then I'll ask you again, why do some people have a life of good deeds and virtues, but they have ill-fated destiny." After speaking, Mr. Mai sighed in a melancholy, and said slowly: "When I was young, it coincided with the Central Plains war, and my father moved his family from the Central Plains to Eastcliff to avoid the war. At that time there was a woman next door who ate and recited Buddha every day, remembering the way of doing good. Her husband died young, and she took pains to raise the three sons and let them start a family, but when they were old, none of the three sons offered to support her."

"The three daughters-in-law came to fight and scolded each other to fight for the family property. The next time, she had to deliberately snatch her only little ration, and even the water tank had to be smashed to be satisfied, just hoping that she would die sooner, so as to occupy the old house."

"Although the three sons won't do anything to her, they often come over with cynicism. Even when someone next door died, they point to her nose and scold her why she can't be the same as the old man in the neighbor's house and die soon."

"Not only did the woman not have enough to eat or wear warmly, she also washed her face with tears all day long. Although she did not cry and blind her eyes, her eyesight was also deteriorating. In addition, she couldn't light the lamp oil. Every time the sun went down, she would not see her fingers."

Chapter 2562

"But she never expected any son's to just leave her, and eventually she froze to death on that extremely cold winter day in Eastcliff. On the day of the funeral, the three sons cried and cried, but everyone can see that it was just a scene for outsiders. After the show, they happily sold the ancestral home where their mother lived, and after the money was divided, they made off happily. You say, if there really is karma, why did this woman's good deeds lead to a lifetime of suffering?"

Lord Banks thought, seriously said: "Perhaps the last generation owed a debt, and she had to repay what was owed."

Mr. Mai sneered and said disdainfully: "Only people who can't understand the law of events will use such rhetoric to impose an explanation. If everyone believes in the previous life or the next life, then you might as well lend me all your money so In the next life, you will be doubled back. Do you agree to this?"

Although Lord Banks knows that Mr. Mai is saying is just to give an example, he starts to agree with Mr. Mai.

At this time, Mr. Mai continued: "Similarly, some people are full of evil, and as a result, not only do they start and end well, but also their children and grandchildren can be shaded.

"It's like the old woman I just said. After her tragic death, she The three of his sons are lucky, one is doing business so well, one is a warlord, and the other goes to work hard. The offspring are still well-known entrepreneurs. The good guys don't get a day's blessing, but the bad guys are lucky. After many generations of his own family, don't you say that this karma was dealt?"

Lord Banks for a while and was speechless.

Zayne on the side could not help asking: "Grandpa Mai, if karma does not exist at all as you said, then this family has these two extremes. Why are there these two extremes?"

Mr. Mai smiled slightly: "Zayne you ask a good point. If you don't understand the rules, you'll just raise your head and curse God and say, "Good people don't live long and cause harm for thousands of years" but have you thought about it? If there really is causal reincarnation, this sentence is simply impossible, because causal reincarnation will not let good people live long, nor will it cause harm to the millennium. This is a contradiction in itself."

Mr. Mai changed the conversation and said again: "But if you can understand this law, you will know that in fact, all of this has nothing to do with karma, but from a family. Each has a different fate.

Lord Banks hurriedly said: "Uncle Mai, what is the interpretation of fate,"

Mr. Mai explained : "Fate is numerology, the principle of life, or the law of life. My father once said that the old woman was originally the fate of the lone star of the evil gods. Although she does good all day long, no matter how much she does, it is difficult to change her fate. To use the simplest analogy, Even if you eat more carrots, you cannot become a rabbit, because these are two completely different sets of logic. You can't pretend to think that rabbits all like carrots, and as long as you eat more carrots, you will become a rabbit."

Lord Banks and Zayne and his son nodded thoughtfully.

Mr. Mai continued: "The lone star of Tiansha not only kills her husband, her wife, but also her descendants. What's most miserable is that she not only defeats others, but also cannot escape the lonely end of her six relatives in her old age, so she has A lifetime of suffering, a lifetime of sin. Although her three sons are extremely unfilial, in terms of fate, their own career prospects are invisibly suppressed by the fate of the old woman."

"Because the old woman died so early, the three of them won't die because of this, and only then did they have the opportunity to soar into the sky later. If the three of them are filial sons, and take their mothers in turn to take turns to do their filial piety, then it is possible that these three sons will die prematurely due to various reasons, maybe they will all die in front of the old woman. This, although it sounds absurd and incredible, but this is the real fate."

Chapter 2563

Mr. Mai's words made Lord Banks and Zayne and his son dumbfounded. In fact, they didn't believe in gods, immortals, or karma or feng shui. There is only one he believes in, and that is true power and wealth. The Banks Family has encountered various troubles frequently recently, which made him feel that he might be facing karma.

But listening to Mr. Mai's analysis, it seems that it has nothing to do with karma.

Therefore, Lord Banks couldn't help asking: "Uncle Mai, I want to ask more specifically, what is the reason for our Banks Family recently, and we have encountered various problems one after another.

Mr. Mai did not say anything, but recruited his great-grandson Mike. He beckoned.

Mike walked immediately. He came forward and handed a compass to Mr. Mai. He also handed a few dice made of animal bones and joints and a few old mottled coins to Mr. Mai.

Mr. Mai stood up and paced back and forth in the living room. Lord Banks and Zayne hurriedly followed by his side, watching his every move nervously, but did not dare to interrupt.

Mr. Mai looked for a moment and pointed. Looking at the Bogu shelf used to partition the space on the side of the hall, he opened his mouth and said, "Mike, move this shelf away.

Mike walked up immediately and reached out and moved the Bogu shelf made of solid wood to the side. Mr. Mai placed the compass on the ground where the Bogu shelf was originally located, and then re-adjusted the compass's direction according to the scale and position on the compass.

Afterwards, he opened his mouth and said: "Alfred, tell me about your birth date."

"I..". Lord Banks said embarrassingly: "What do you mean?"

"Say the year, month, day and approximate time of birth."

Lord Banks recalled for a moment and reported his birth date to Mr. Mai.

Mr. Mai pinched his fingers for a moment, and said lightly: "From the perspective of the birth date, your life is generally relatively smooth, but the birth date alone is not detailed enough. After all, there are so many people in the world, and there are also many people with the same birth date. Someone is here, this can only guess a general direction."

Lord Banks hurriedly asked: "Uncle Mai, how can I be more detailed?"

Mr. Mai said seriously: "I just said that in the gossip, everything in the world follows a set of invisible and intangible rules, there are many factors. The birth date is only one of them. In addition, there are your own bones, the feng shui of your Banks Family's yang and yin houses, and even your spouse and children are very important. "

Lord Banks asked puzzledly: "I think many Feng Shui masters just use a compass to calculate. Why is it so troublesome when I come to you?"

Mr. Mai was not angry, and said lightly: "Most people's fate is constantly changing. This is why some people have suffered too much food in the first half of their lives, but in the second half of their lives, they have a thunder, steep but rich. This is because his fate has changed. It may be that he married a wife, it is possible that the birth of a son whose birth date can bring him great wealth, these are unpredictable by ordinary people."

"It's like real estate. You develop a residential area in a certain area of a city. The market price of this building is 50,000. However, if suddenly one day, the subway is open, the price may rise to 60,000; Suddenly one day, a well-known school set up a campus nearby, and the price may rise to 70,000; if other huge favorable policies can be met, the house price can even break through 100,000 and higher all the way. The subway may correspond to a good wife, and a well-known school may correspond to a good son, which is good."

Lord Banks hurriedly asked, "The bad direction?"

Mr. Mai said: "The bad direction has more possibilities. Similarly, taking real estate as an example, you may also repeat the mistakes of many so-called ghost towns. Originally, you thought that the city was very developed and you desperately built a lot of real estate, but then, it is possible that local resources will begin to dry up, the local economy will be frustrated, and house prices will fall; it may also be that local resources are affected by the market and the prices continue The decline caused companies to go bankrupt and house prices fell; it might even be due to the emergence of other competitors that caused the entire city's industry to suffer a blow. "

After speaking, Mr. Mai said again: "You should have heard the story of Detroit. It was originally the largest automobile city in the United States. It was extremely brilliant, but in the end it was depressed until a large number of people fled. The local real estate even shrank by more than 90%, but it really defeated. Who are the people in this city? Toyota and Honda from Japan, Mercedes-Benz and BMW from Germany, these are all factors that may change the law.

Lord Banks suddenly realized that he hurriedly asked: "Uncle Mai, what information do you need? I must know."

Chapter 2564

Mr. Mai nodded, and said calmly : "I want your wife's birthday, and the birthday of Zayne."

Lord Banks hurriedly agreed and immediately reported the specific date of birth.

Mr. Mai listened and calculated. The more he listened, the more hesitated and hesitated for a moment. He opened his mouth and said, "Your wife and Zayne, it can be said that from this point, they are very prosperous for you, and they are kind of burning themselves for you. Like adding wood to a fire."

He said again: "Furthermore, your five elements are very prosperous, and all four heavenly stems are prosperous. Combining your wife and children, from the perspective of fate, you are not rich or rich in this life. It stands to reason. Your fate, let alone one in a thousand miles, it's almost impossible to find one even in a million or tens of thousands of miles, that is almost impeccable. According to the development of your fate, you will surely be successful in your life. There should not be such an ordeal."

"Is it?" Lord Banks asked excitedly: Uncle Mai, then what is going on with me now?

Mr. Mai shook his head and said, "I'm not finished." He grabbed a handful of bones. The bone die was thrown on the ground casually, and a few copper coins were also thrown down.

Immediately afterwards, he kept observing the bone dice, as well as the position and orientation of the copper coins, and the whole population was muttering words and did not know what was being said. Lord Banks became more and more nervous, staring at Mr. Mai intently, not even blinking his eyes.

A minute later, Mr. Mai suddenly grabbed one of the copper coins on the ground, fixed his eyes on him, and muttered: "If you don't follow this hexagram, this Tianju Tongbao shouldn't be heads up."

He threw more coins, worth four to five million, on the ground. He watch as the coins spun and finally settled down and fell over.

However, this time, this Tianju Tongbao still had its head up. He was nervous, grabbed the coins throwing again. Who would have thought, throwing coins on floor for several laps, they finally stop, and each time the head is up.

This time, when Mr. Mai was visibly sweating.

Lord Banks saw this, his heart was also hung tightly, and couldn't help but ask cautiously: "What the hell is this copper coin that Mai has lost three times in a row? It's too evil."

At this time, Mr. Mai's forehead was already covered with beads of sweat.

He stretched out his hand, wiped a cold sweat with his cuff, and murmured: "This Tianju Tongbao, in my gossip, represents dry days, but dry for days, it ought to be a word upside down fishes, but now I could not even throw three times, it is the word head-on, which means that one day changed this hexagram."

Lord Banks heart thump He murmured, 'Although I don't know what the fucking meaning of the coin means, I can clearly feel that this is definitely not a good thing' so he hurriedly asked: "Uncle Mai, What does it mean?"

Mr. Mai stared at the bone dice and copper coins all over the floor, and said dumbfounded: "From the perspective of the hexagram, it is the God Dragon who came to the world."

Chapter 2565

"The Dragon God of Thunder has come to the world..." Mr. Mai whispered.

Lord Banks was horrified, and at the same time he was a little questioning.

He secretly thought: "What kind of dragon came to the world, this does not seem reliable," but he quickly thought about how Mr. Mai just now After tossing the coin, the words were all headed up in the end. It couldn't be a coincidence, so he felt something was wrong again in his heart.

So, he tentatively asked Mr. Mai: "Uncle Mai, what is the birth of a dragon?"

Mr. Mai is a little trembling, and he says: "If you follow this hexagram Judging from this, the birth of The Dragon God means that in your fate, there is a big figure who is a Dragon God.. Lord Banks frowned: "Then is this great figure an enemy or a friend to me?"

Mr. Mai said seriously. "At present, it seems that the possibility of being an enemy is far greater than that of a friend."

"How is it possible?" Lord Banks blurted out: "But I haven't provoked any powerful people recently. Why is there such an enemy suddenly?"

Mr. Mai shook his head and said: "I can't see this anymore. Maybe it's because I'm not good enough, or my life is not enough, and I can't see through the rest."

Speaking, Mr. Mai said again: "But from the perspective of this hexagram, it is really bad for you. It is very likely that all the problems you have encountered recently originated from this."

Lord Banks was still a little unbelievable. He pointed to the copper coin and asked, "Does it mean that the so-called dragon came to the world as long as the coin has its head up?"

"Yes."

Lord Banks asked again: "Can the hexagram be wrong?"

Mr. Mai said seriously: "This is the case with the hexagrams, and it can never be wrong."

Lord Banks didn't give up, and said: "Uncle Mai, can I trouble you to throw the coin a few more times, if the coin is down, does it mean that the trouble has gone away or disappeared?"

Mr. Mai sighed and said: "I tossed it a few times and the result was the same."

After speaking, he grabbed the Tianju Tongbao and threw it up again. Everyone stared at the copper coin, but the copper coin was still facing upward.

Lord Banks gritted his teeth: "Thank you Uncle Mai, try again."

Mr. Mai didn't speak, picked up the copper coin and threw it again this time, but the result was still his head up.

Mr. Mai sighed: "Alfred, this is fate. The hexagram is a form of fate. It just shows your fate truthfully. If you want to change fate, you must solve the problem fundamentally. It can't be solved by tossing a few copper coins."

Lord Banks is already sweating coldly. He can't help muttering, "It's really fucking wicked. This is obviously a probability of fifty-five. How can it be all be the same five times in a row?"

There was a fierce flash in his eyes, he rushed to grab the Tianju Tongbao, and then threw it forward. This time, the copper coin was spinning on the ground for a long time. When it finally stopped, Lord Banks was excited and said: "The coin is upside down this time, this time it is upside down."

Mr. Mai shook his head helplessly and said: "I started the hexagram. Only what I throw is counted. Your throw is meaningless. With that, he picked it up again . He picked up the copper coin and threw it. The copper coin still had the head up.
