

The Amazing Son in Law Chapter (Charlie Wade)

CHAPTER 2576

Jacob heard it quite thirty-nine degrees, and was even more distressed. He proactively bent down and pressed his forehead against Matilda's forehead. After feeling for a flash, he blurted out: "My forehead is basically hot, otherwise you go sit on the sofa first, I'll get you a wet towel and apply it."

Matilda said embarrassedly, "That would be too troublesome for you. Jacob is serious. Said: "You and me are still so polite, does one remember that once I was in college, I had a fever and couldn't attend class within the dormitory. You took the initiative to skip class and visited the boys' dormitory to require care of me for each day .

When Matilda heard this, her expression immediately became extremely ashamed.

She naturally remembered the past that Jacob said.

Because that point, it had been much more than simply Jacob's illness and fever.

At that point, the 2 were crazy, but the school students at that point were relatively simple, in order that they only held hands occasionally, or gave a mild hug on the riverside where nobody was there.

aside from that, there's basically nothing more advanced, but at heart it's also completely voluntary.

Although Jacob has nothing to try to do, he's okay and likes to brag and do, but in his bones he's actually an uneventful character.

Now suddenly mentioning the past during a serious manner, just deliberately trying to draw the atmosphere upward.

In his opinion, the simplest thing is to breed the atmosphere within the boys' dormitory back during this villa. that might be great for him.

soon as he said this, Matilda's pale complexion suddenly turned ruddy.

Matilda may be a woman in any case. At this point, she was naturally ashamed and impatience, and recalled the past that year and therefore the unforgettable scene within the deep memory. The scenes and scenes unconsciously surfaced in his mind again.

However, she is embarrassed to offer any positive response. After all, this type of thing is indeed a touch too ambiguous.

Jacob was actually holding back a touch little bit of badness in his heart. He deliberately mentioned the past, just to ascertain Matilda's embarrassment and embarrassment.

Because in his opinion, the more shy Matilda is, the more proof that she still loves herself deeply in her heart.

Seeing Matilda not talking, he hurriedly laughed twice and asked: "Matilda, why are you not talking? Back once you visited the dormitory to require care of me, did you forget all about it? Would you wish me to assist you recall your memories"

Matilda shy and anxious, he said hurriedly: "Did you say you wet the towel for me? plow ahead .
