

The Amazing Son in Law Chapter (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 2591

Charlie now has sufficient funds in his hands, and there is also a money printing machine that makes money continuously from Jiu Xuan Pharmaceutical, so it is really not difficult for him to start ocean transportation.

Whether it is setting up a company, docking a dock, or leasing a freighter, there is no problem with funding.

However, the most critical issue is that if you want to start such a large piece of new business, you must have someone with sufficient ability to help you take care of it.

The first thing Charlie thought of was Doris Young.

Needless to say, Doris Young's ability, and his character is absolutely trustworthy.

However, the only problem is that Doris Young still has to manage the Emgrand Group. If she is asked to take the lead for ocean transportation at the same time, she may be lacking in skills.

After thinking for a moment, Charlie decided to wait for Doris Young to come back from Hong Kong and talk to her first to see if she had any good ideas, or if she knew other talents who were good at management.

Therefore, he said to everyone: "Thank you for your suggestions, I will carefully consider the ocean shipping."

Ito Yuihiko hurriedly said: "If Mr. Wade wants to do it, he will definitely support him!"

Jasmin also said without hesitation: "Master Wade, Jasmin is also willing to support you unconditionally!"

Mr. Quinton hurriedly said: "Master Wade, and me! When I go back tonight, I will call Travis Lane . He is deeply rooted in Haicheng, and it seems that he has also participated in the port of Haicheng. If you choose Haicheng, his assistance will surely be able to get twice the result with half the effort!"

Charlie nodded and said, "Alright, you can help me ask about Travis Lane's situation. After I go back, I will give it a comprehensive consideration."

Mr. Quinton quickly agreed: "Good Master Wade!"

Just as Charlie was at the dinner table and was tempted by ocean transportation, Banks lakeside villa, who was also eating, suddenly received a tip.

After listening to the newsletter, he immediately said to Zayne with a dark face: "I just got the message that Ito Yuhiko of the Ito family has gone to Aurous Hill!"

"What?!" Zayne exclaimed, "Dad, how come Ito Takehiko went to Aurous Hill? The Ito family doesn't seem to have any business in Aurous Hill."

The old man Lord Banks said solemnly: "Although I don't know what business the Ito family has in Aurous Hill, I think things are not simple this time, because a bear is like his sister, and his loyalty. All of his subordinates chose to stay at Shangri-La in Aurous Hill!"

"Shangri-La?!" Zayne blurted out, "Isn't that the Wade Family's property?"
