

The Amazing Son in Law Chapter (Charlie Wade)

CHAPTER 2664 / 1

Charlie nodded in satisfaction, pointed at the other person, and said: "This brother must be dissatisfied, right?"

That person said in a hurry: "Don't dare, I will do whatever the commander asks me to do, absolutely nothing Erxin!"

Charlie smiled, walked up to him, patted his shoulder as well, and smiled: "You have a high level of consciousness! In the future,

I will definitely speak for you in front of the commander.

After finishing speaking, another trace of aura came in, following the method, and firmly controlling this person's consciousness.

At this time, a guy with a full face pointed to the eight hostages in the corner and said cursingly:

"The commander said time. As soon as it arrives, I start to kill people. I think it's almost the time, and I will execute the torture at that time!"

Charlie looked at this person, sneered, and asked: "You like killing people?"

The guy stared at Charlie. Disdainfully said: "Yes, I just like it, why? Do you have an opinion? Or do you want to speak for these Yankees?!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Why should I speak for them? I just think that the murder is really It's because you can't get up to the table. If you really have the ability, it is better to go to the battlefield to kill a few more enemies when the government forces come over.

The guy walked in front of Charlie in twos or twos, reached out his hand and grabbed Charlie's collar, and cursed, "Are you sarcastic to me?!"

Charlie sneered and said, "It seems that you are not stupid.

That guy is very angry. As soon as he raised his hand, his fist was about to hit Charlie's face. Charlie suddenly yelled: "Asshole, even your father dares to fight?! Don't hurry down and admit your mistake!"

This voice scared the other party. Got sluggish for an instant.

He didn't know that at that moment, Charlie had already given powerful psychological hints to his brain.

His whole figure was startled, and then he knelt on the ground with a thud, and said in fear, I was wrong.

CHAPTER 2664 / 2

Charlie would push him away this time, the man wearing headphones headset off somewhat surprised, blurting out: “?!! Camille, you kneel how this person is your father” is called Camille’s strong man blurted out, “Yes, he is my father!”

The man was dumbfounded and said, “Your brain is broken, right? Didn’t your father just die last year? My mother went to help carry the coffin. !”

Charlie looked at him at this time and said lightly: “I am not only his father, but also your father, why don’t I just kneel down and admit Your mistakes like him?”

This sentence also scared this person to death . He felt his mind. There was a dizziness, and then, he knelt down beside Camille subconsciously, choked up and said: “Dad, I was wrong.

Charlie also felt a sharp pain in his brain at this time. After carefully inspecting the body, there was only aura left.

A trace of remnants made him realize that he had just given five consecutive psychological hints, and his spiritual energy consumption was indeed too great.

In the past, he seldom concentrated on using aura. The time spent at this moment, the aura consumption is greater than in the past few months.

Fortunately, the five people, including Musa, have been psychologically hinted by themselves, and these five people have become their most loyal puppets.

So he pointed to the door of the room inside and said to the five people: “Who has the key? Open the door!”
