

The Amazing Son in Law Chapter (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 2687 Part 1

The slender Concorde airliner took off from the Lebanese capital Beirut International Airport.

The plane soared into the sky and sailed towards China at the fastest speed.

On the plane, Ziva Hank sat in the window, staring out of the window in a daze.

Until now, she still feels that the experience of the past hour or so is like a dream.

However, she quietly looked at Charlie, who was sitting not far away with her eyes closed and rested, and she could clearly feel that all this was not a dream, but a real existence.

Thinking of Charlie going to Syria alone and saving himself from the brink of death, Ziva Hank felt very guilty besides being grateful.

She felt that after so many years of reading and studying economics and finance for so many years, she was naive and could not even see through human nature.

At first, she was not ashamed of her abandoning her peers? But now that she thinks about it carefully, all her friends are really peaceful.

In their opinion, they would rather die with them by yourself than have a chance of life.

Even they had a chance to live, but they were squandered unscrupulously.

As a result, they squandered their opportunities and started to feel extremely angry that they had the opportunity to leave.

This kind of person made her fully appreciate the evil of human nature.

Thinking of this, she silently stood up from her seat, then paced to Charlie's side and sat down gently.

Charlie, who was closing his eyes and rested, felt a person sitting next to him, opened his eyes and saw that it was Ziva Hank, he smiled and asked her, "Why don't you take advantage of these few hours of flying time and take a good rest?"

Ziva Hank said in embarrassment, "He was very confused and couldn't sleep..."

With that, she looked at Charlie and said in shame: "Mr. Wade,

I am really embarrassed today."

Charlie smiled slightly: "Are you doing it for your friends?"

"En..." Ziva Hank nodded lightly, and said with emotion: "I really didn't think they were all such people.

You are right. I don't know enough about human nature. Maybe it is Social experience is still lacking."

Charlie smiled and said: "The more lack of social experience, the more proof that you have been well protected since childhood.

Many children of a few years and teenagers have a lot of social experience early on.

This proves that The protection given to them by their native family is not enough."

After speaking, Charlie said again: "Furthermore, this thing you experienced is indeed quite special.

Under normal circumstances, it is impossible for a normal person to experience being kidnapped by the armed forces of another country.

100 million people, it is estimated that there are not even six or seven thousand people with this kind of experience.

After conversion, only one person in an average of 1 million people will have this kind of experience. So congratulations, after tonight, you will have one 99.99% of people don't have the opportunity to have practical experience, and the vast majority of them are immediately left behind."

Ziva Hank was even more ashamed and blushed and said, "Don't make fun of me. I know I've done this thing from start to finish."
