but I won't tell her about you. When she comes, I will take her to meet you directly. What do you think?"

Xion said with a red eye: "Benevolence, as long as you can see your mother, Xion will be satisfied! If it is really inconvenient, you can even just make a phone call..."

Charlie smiled and said, "You should let your mother come down to Aurous Hill to be more controllable without knowing that you are alive.

If she has plenty of time, she can stay here with you for a period of time. You can claim to come and talk to me about cooperation.

After all, I heard that when you had an accident, the Elms family completely turned their faces with the Banks Family.

Coming to me to talk about cooperation at this time will not arouse other people's suspicion."

Xion nodded, and said excitedly: "Thank you, benefactor! Then everything is arranged by the benefactor!"

Charlie looked at Isaac Cameron and said, "Isaac, you will remember Xion's mother's contact information for a while, first communicate with her in the name of the Wade family to see if she is willing to come over, if she is not interested in cooperating with me Interested, just tell her that the young master of the Wade family wants to talk to her about dealing with the Banks Family together."

Isaac Cameron hurriedly said: "Good master, I will implement this matter later."

Charlie turned to look at Xion and said, "Xion, give Isaac the contact information, and then go back to the room and rest."

"Great!"

Northeast at this moment.

This small town is one of the coldest places in China.

Even though it is the end of the first month, the minimum temperature in Mocheng still reaches minus 17-8 degrees, almost the same as the freezer compartment of the refrigerator.

During the coldest time of the whole winter, the temperature here can reach about minus fifty degrees.

The Elms family, one of the four major martial arts families in China, took root in this county-level city with a population of less than 100,000.

The ancestors of the Elms family were not native Mocheng people.

They originated from the Jiaodong Peninsula. During the Ming and Qing Dynasties, they were well-known martial arts families on the Jiaodong Peninsula. Their ancestors have always lived by playing darts and martial arts schools.

However, at that time, the Elms family mainly practiced outside martial arts, so they were far from the level of the martial arts family.

Until the end of the Qing Dynasty, when the Jiaodong Peninsula was struck by war, when the Elms family and his family broke through the Guandong, by chance, they obtained a fragment of the inner family boxing method.

The reason why it is a fragmented scroll is mainly because nearly half of its content has long been lost.

There are many defects in both the boxing method and the corresponding mental method.

But even so, after the Elms family moved to the northeast, they relied on this incomplete inner family boxing technique to rank among the martial arts family.

Moreover, the inner family boxing method that the Elms family got is very incomplete, so when the Elms family is training hard, the internal force is often disturbed and the meridians are reversed. Once this happens, it can be severely injured for several months.

, The martial arts was completely abolished, and many younger generations even died as a result.

Therefore, the Elms family gradually came up with a response plan, which is to practice this internal martial arts in extremely cold places as much as possible. The extremely cold weather helps to better control the internal force, thereby reducing the probability of accidents.

Because of this, the Elms family moved to the coldest desert city in China a few decades ago, and then took root here.

Xion spent her childhood and entire teenage years here, and her mother, Kairi, had been living here since she broke her arm to save Zayen and rarely left Mocheng.

However, in the recent period, Kairi has been running outside for almost half of the time.

At first, when Xion was arrested in Japan, she heard Zayen say that she would save Xion, and went to Japan to see Xion in person, so that she could rest assured to wait for her to return home.

Unexpectedly, there was news of Xion's disappearance and the Banks Family betraying Xion immediately.

Since then, Kairi spent most of his time in Japan looking for Xion's whereabouts.

Although she knew she was looking for a needle in a haystack, she tried her best to search for a long time in

Tokyo and surrounding areas, and then spent huge sums of money to hire search and rescue ships to search in the seas of Japan, and even search in coastal areas in China, but she never found any relevant clues.

The day before yesterday, she had just returned from the southeast coast. This time she ran through several key port cities and still hadn't heard any news of anyone sneaking ashore.

She knew very well that the longer time was delayed, the less likely it was that Xion would survive.

So, she discussed with her father Wilfred and planned to raise some more funds, and then search the coastal areas of the Jiaodong Peninsula to see if she could find Xion's whereabouts...
