

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

If her daughter stays with him in the future, it will not be her daughter's blind dedication.

In this way, her life will naturally not be as sad as her own.

So she hurriedly said, "Master Wade, if Xion makes a catastrophe in Japan, the Japanese will never let her go easily.

You can rescue her from the Japanese, and you must be able to protect her well. If this child has been practicing hard since she was a child, and dare not say that she has outstanding aptitude, she can be regarded as the upper-middle grade among her peers.

After you help her get through the line of Ren, her strength can definitely be regarded as among her peers in the country.

The leader, with her by your side, she will definitely be able to help you solve many problems, so please keep her by your side!"

Charlie actually knew very well in his heart that as long as Xion's body was not found for a day, the Japanese would never give up.

Once Xion's identity is exposed, he will definitely face the scourge of death.

Therefore, staying by her side should be the best result for her.

Moreover, Charlie also felt that he did lack some truly capable assistants.

Whether Don Albert, Isaac Cameron, or other representatives of the Aurous Hill family, including Jesmin moore, are ordinary people with little cultivation skills. Although Aurora's current strength is good, she is still a little girl in school after all, she is sure. Can't let her do some fighting and killing things for herself.

Therefore, keeping Xion and cultivating her into a confidant is also a matter of very practical significance for me.

Xion not only has the strength, but also can command dozens of masters when he is in the Banks family.

The ups and downs in Japan proves that she still has a strong leadership ability.

If she is asked to come forward and cultivate a strong force for herself in the future, it will be of great benefit in the future.

Thinking of this, Charlie said, since you are willing to stay by my side, you will be my Charlie 's person from today onwards, and You will follow my orders in the future, and I will do my best to protect you.

Safe. If you decide to leave one day, you can tell me honestly and bluntly that I will never force to stay at that time, but you must keep in mind that before you leave formally, you must not go against the sun or eat inside, understand? "

Xion blurted out without hesitation: "Please rest assured Young Master Wade, as long as the Young Master does not dislike it, if you leave this life, you will definitely follow the Young Master and never leave!"
