What he thought in his mind was still Charlie's appearance, and the whole person was completely sunk in.

At this moment, Fitz returned to the room anxiously.

The first thing was to quickly send a voice message to his grandfather Lord Banks:

"Grandpa, I asked Zara, this time I rescued her and my mother. ,

It is indeed the Chinese who saved us both in Japan..."

Lord Banks, who was not sleepy and was sitting alone in the study, drinking tea. After listening to this voice, he suddenly slumped in a chair, unable to move for a long time.

He murmured: "How can such a strong person be an enemy of the Banks Family?

Could it be...

Is it because I angered him about Deana's actions?

But what does this have to do with defensiveness and defensiveness? Why are they kidnapped?"

"That guy saved Zara twice. He must have a close relationship with Zara.

If Zara angers me because of her mother, then this mysterious master will definitely be used by her in the future, and it will definitely be detrimental to me. ..."

"Furthermore, even if the Elms family is willing to cooperate with me again,

I am afraid it will be nothing but a drop in the bucket.

This person is too strong to imagine, how can his family be able to match?"

At this point, Lord Banks felt even more terrified.

He even thought: "I just take the initiative to take the initiative to plead guilty to Zara and her mother. If Zara can alleviate the hatred towards me, it might be changed...”

But then I thought about it again: “No...this seems to be wrong!”

“Even if Zara hates me, there is no reason to hate her biological father!

Her father was sent to Australia by me and was not involved in the car accident against her mother.

She has no reason to let the master attack her father.

What’s more, her second uncle has nothing to do with this matter, but even so, both of them have disappeared one after another.
