and if this price continues, 2 billion a year, ten years It is 20 billion...

that is, at least 5 billion was spent in ten years..."

However, I changed my mind and thought:
"However, the Banks Family is in great crisis
right now,

and the father's own safety has become a problem.

It is indeed not the time to bargain. Quickly get the Elms family over and protect the safety of the father is the top priority.

The old man must have his own plan. This price will be maintained for the Elms family for one or two years at most.

Once the crisis is lifted, the old man will never continue to raise the Elms family at such a high price."

Thinking of this, Bank's Butler felt a little more comfortable.

Immediately, he asked Lord Elms (Wilfred): "what do you think of it?"

Lord Elms (Wilfred) felt a dry pain in his throat, swallowed, and then said:

"I really didn't expect that Lord Banks would value the Elms family so much..."

Bank's Butler smiled and said, "Of course, our master doesn't value the Elms family for one or two days."

As he said, Bank's Butler waved his hand and said with a smile:

"He's old, let's stop talking about these imaginary things.

I have also conveyed the words of the master to you just now.

You are the head of the Elms family, and whether the Elms family is willing to accept the master? You must give me a definite answer."

Lord Elms (Wilfred) nodded, and he calmly analyzed the pros and cons of the Elms family's agreement or non-acceptance of this matter.

Promise, the benefits will naturally be countless.

Returning to the Banks Family's command and having sufficient money, the younger generations of tElms family will be able to provide all the resources needed to practice martial arts at any cost and regardless of the cost.

Perhaps within a few years, Elms family will be able to emerge a group of outstanding geniuses like Xion.

This is of great significance to the Elms family.

Because, once the overall strength of the younger generation has made great progress, the entire Elms family can quickly start with their opponents.

The Elms family has hundreds of years of foundation, and the biggest dream of every patriarch is to enable the Elms family to reach the top of the domestic martial arts family.

Climbing to the top means seeing all the mountains and small mountains.

No longer one of the eight big families, one of the four big families, or one of the three big families.

Rather, the biggest and strongest one!

There is no one again!

This is the benefit of agreeing to the Banks Family.

On the other hand, what are the disadvantages of agreeing to the Banks Family?

Lord Elms (Wilfred) thought about it, as if there was nothing left except for his uncomfortable heart and feeling sorry for his daughter Kairi Elms – Xion's Mom and granddaughter Xion.

It's really nothing...

On the one hand, the Elms family's centuries-old plan, on the other hand, betrayed his daughter and granddaughter.

From the very beginning of this balance, great differences have appeared.

Lord Elms (Wilfred) suddenly felt that he didn't need to hesitate at all for this kind of problem.

Why hesitate anymore?
