

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

2844-2847

Kairi Elms – Xion’s Mom’s words are talking about Lord Elms (Wilfred)’s pain.

He knew the virtue of the eldest son better than anyone else.

As early as twenty years ago, he discovered that his eldest son had lost his ultimate pursuit of martial arts.

Not only that, he also became obsessed with material comforts.

In his own words, after 20 to 30 years of martial arts training, it is time to enjoy life. Those martial arts stars and action stars also endured hardships when they were young, and began to reach the peak of life in the middle of life. Up.

Even many martial arts stars have become billionaires by the age of 30, and their personal status has also declined rapidly at a speed visible to the naked eye. At first glance, they have been training less and less.

The training is getting less and less, but the life is getting better and better.

At the age of seventeen or eighteen, working hard to make a movie may earn a few hundred dollars in salary, but at the age of 30, you can make tens of millions or more in salary by showing your face casually and embroidering your legs.

This also deeply stimulated Yoel.

He felt that since those martial arts stars who only practiced some foreign three-legged cat kung fu can become masters, then he has been practicing martial arts for 20 or 30 years, why can't he be like them?

Since then, Yoel's cultivation has almost stagnated.

However, the martial arts is extremely difficult in the first place, and it is not comparable to those fake arts.

Lord Elms (Wilfred) knew well that his eldest son's cultivation level had a great advantage over ordinary people, but he really wanted to make a living on the way to martial arts, which was indeed almost meaningless.

Not to mention letting him lead the whole Elms family.

However, even though Lord Elms (Wilfred) was very dissatisfied with Yoel's negativity, he did not have any other players in his hands.

His other younger brothers have relatively average talents.

Although they work hard, their overall strength is not even as good as Yoel, who is passive and sabotaged.

Kairi Elms – Xion’s Mom just said that the Elms family can be ranked among the four major martial arts families, and most of the reason is from Lord Elms (Wilfred) alone. This is true.

If Lord Elms (Wilfred) is dead, judging from the strength of the descendants of the Elms family, he will quickly fall out of the four major families.

Elms family sequence even fell out of the top ten in one breath.

Kairi Elms – Xion’s Mom was indeed excellent when she was young, but unfortunately, she was selected by the Banks Family when she was an adult, and went to the Banks Family to protect Zayne personally.

It is considered that she went out early to make money.

At that time, the Elms family had to rely on the Banks Family to survive, and Lord Elms (Wilfred) could only push Kairi Elms – Xion’s Mom out.

Since then, Kairi Elms – Xion’s Mom spends most of the day protecting the safety of Zayne, so she rarely has time to practice martial arts with all her strength.

Therefore, her cultivation base grew very slowly.

Later, in order to protect Zayne, she lost a right arm herself, and her strength dropped sharply.

Although the cultivation base is higher than Yoel, but after one arm is missing, the real combat ability is even worse than that of Yoel.

Moreover, Lord Elms (Wilfred) is also very clear that even if he is not partial and does not have a patriarchal mind, it is still difficult for the whole Elms family to accept a woman as the head of the house, and even more difficult to accept a disabled woman as the head of the house, so Lord Elms (Wilfred) thinks In the future, the owner of the Elms family, apart from Yoel, I am afraid that there will be no other candidates.

But now, what Kairi Elms – Xion's Mom said made him realize a key point.

The eldest son really has no intention of martial arts in recent years. If he gives him the remaining god pill, he may not have any positive effects at all.

Moreover, even if he is willing to hand the Elms family into the hands of his eldest son Yoel in the future, he may not really be able to develop the Elms family wholeheartedly.

On the contrary, he is very likely to directly package and sell the entire Elms family to the Banks Family, and then he takes the huge sum of money given by the Banks Family and runs out to enjoy his life.

In that case, the entire Elms family will become a tool for him to earn money.

Instead of this, it would be better to find a way to live a few more years and personally lead the Elms family further.

If he burns out his last energy and can push the Elms family to the position of the nation's number one martial arts family, then he will die without regret!

At this point, he finally made up his mind and said to Kairi Elms – Xion's Mom: "Kairi, you are right, letting the Elms family go higher and farther is our most important mission! Since Master Wade has given us such a coveted good fortune,

Then he will be the only one to look forward to in the future of my Elms family!"

Kairi Elms – Xion's Mom hurriedly asked, "Dad, did you agree to cooperate with Charlie?!"

Lord Elms (Wilfred) resolutely said: "Master Wade gave the god pill, and I have already taken one. How can I go back at this time?"

Kairi Elms – Xion's Mom said excitedly: "That's great! It's really great! As long as we wholeheartedly cooperate with Him, what Charlie can bring to us is by no means as simple as five divine pills and 100 million cash every year!

I believe that Master Wade will not only make the Elms family the number one martial arts family in the country, but also make the Elms family surpass the martial arts family and become a stronger existence!”

Lord Elms (Wilfred) subconsciously asked: “Kairi , you said that you surpass the martial arts family and become a stronger existence.

What is this stronger existence?”

Kairi Elms – Xion’s Mom shook her head and said calmly: “I don’t know. I originally thought that martial arts masters should be the strongest in melee combat.

But when I saw Master Wade yesterday, I felt that we are nothing more than frogs at the bottom of the well, martial arts.

We simply don’t understand what the vast world is outside the well...”

Lord Elms (Wilfred) couldn’t help asking: “Then what do you think of the strength of that Master Wade?”

Kairi Elms – Xion’s Mom said truthfully: “I can’t see the true strength of Charlie...”

Lord Elms (Wilfred) asked again: “Then you think this Master Wade is several levels higher than us?”

“How many levels?” Kairi Elms – Xion’s Mom hesitated, and suddenly remembered something her daughter Xion had told herself.

The reason why Xion was able to achieve great success in his Ren Vessel was not because he had taken the Shen Dan given by Charlie.

According to her daughter, Charlie just numbered her meridians, and seemed to use internal force to walk around in her meridians and directly help her achieve Renmai Dacheng.

This is equivalent to a height that most people are desperately practicing for a lifetime, and it is impossible for Charlie to reach that height.

For Charlie, it is just a matter of giving the opponent a pulse, and he can easily raise the opponent directly to that height.

Just moving your fingers is worth the effort of others for a lifetime.

How many levels are there between?

Perhaps, it can no longer be explained in terms of levels alone?

Thinking of this, she looked at her father and said seriously: “Dad, if you really let me say, it might be the same gap between Monkey King and Buddha Tathagata...”

Monkey King seems to have extraordinary abilities, but even Tathagata Buddha’s Wuzhishan escaped.

If we don’t go out, it seems to me that the gap between us and Master Wade is like this...”

Lord Elms (Wilfred) was shocked when he heard it, and his voice tremblingly asked: “When... really there is such a gap?!”

Kairi Elms – Xion’s Mom nodded without hesitation and said, “Dad, in my opinion, it is true!”

Lord Elms (Wilfred) couldn’t help asking: “Since this Young Master Wade has such an ability, where would we be seen in his eyes?”

Kairi Elms – Xion’s Mom smiled bitterly, and said, “Dad, blame me for not clarifying what I said.

Actually, Master Wade came to me this time not to win over the Elms family.”

Lord Elms (Wilfred) exclaimed: “What?! It’s not to win over the Elms family, what is it for?!”

Kairi Elms – Xion’s Mom thought of her precious daughter Xion, and smiled bitterly in her heart:

“In fact, everything was saved by Young Master Wade if she died. Young Master Wade feels distressed that she has not been able to meet my mother, so she came forward and invited me to Aurous Hill and Aurous Hill.

The daughter is reunited, all these good things are just because he takes care of me and the Elms family in the face of her daughter...”

However, she thought that she had promised that Charlie could not tell her daughter’s things, so she had no choice but to say:

“Dad, there are some things that I promised that Master Wade can’t say, so you don’t have to ask, you just need to know, The young master Wade asked us to cooperate, not because he really fancied our ability, but wanted to give us a good luck...”
