

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 2848-2851

Lord Elms (Wilfred) also knew that since the other party had this kind of strength and this kind of god pill, cooperating with the Elms family was indeed a kind of support and gift.

It's just that he couldn't understand how this kind of good thing would fall on the Elms family.

So, he subconsciously asked: "Kairi, this Master Wade, why do you want to cooperate with us?"

Before you came back, I thought that Master Wade must want to compete with the Banks Family when he came back.

After you came back, I learned that the young master of the Wade Family has a lot of magical powers, and the Banks Family is nothing in his eyes. If he really wants to compete with the Banks Family, he doesn't need to cooperate with us at all..."

Kairi Elms nodded and said seriously: "That's why I said, this is a good fortune that Young Master Wade gave to our Elms family.

We must seize this opportunity anyway!"

Kairi Elms had already analyzed Charlie's motives.

She felt: "In terms of strength, Young Master Wade doesn't know how much he is better than the Elms family.

With his magical powers, the Elms family can't get into his eyes at all."

"The reason why he is still willing to take the initiative to take the money, take the pill to cooperate with the Elms family, is nothing more than because of Xion's face."

"When I think about it, Young Master Wade must have some subtle feelings for Xion."

"This is not only Xion's own good fortune, but also the whole Elms family's good fortune."

Lord Elms (Wilfred) also nodded in agreement, and said with emotion:

“Such a god-given opportunity is naturally to be grasped firmly!”

Having said that, he immediately said: “I will go to Bank’s Butler and tell him clearly that the Elms family refuses the Banks Family’s invitation to cooperate!”

Kairi Elms hurriedly stopped him and said, “Dad, you should take the second divine pill first!

What if you can break through the fourth meridian in one effort?”

Lord Elms (Wilfred) hesitated for a moment, and nodded gently, “Okay! In that case, I will take it and see if I can break through the fourth meridian!

If I can, my family will be able to regain the peak!”

Kairi Elms also looked forward to it.

For the Elms family, Lord Elms (Wilfred) is not only a leader, but also a mainstay.

If his cultivation level can be further advanced, it will not only make the Elms family take a big step forward, but more importantly, it will also give the Elms family's descendants a huge encouragement.

Lord Elms (Wilfred) also looks forward to it.

He picked up the god pill, looked at it for a few seconds, and put it into his mouth.

Since he had already had an experience, this time, he concentrated on his luck and prepared all the internal energy, so that at the moment when the medicinal power diverged, he would guide the medicinal power to rush to the fourth meridian and bring the pulse.

When taking a magic pill, because of inexperience, the effect of the medicine was forcibly absorbed by the dry body.

Although this can greatly improve your physical fitness, it can even make your body younger and longer to a certain extent.

Life expectancy, but he still reluctant to waste the power of medicine on it.

He wanted to use all the medicinal effects of the second god pill to impact the pulse.

After a while, the surging medicinal power rushed outwards from his abdomen.

Lord Elms (Wilfred) was prepared, and hurriedly exhausted his whole body's internal strength to pack the medicinal power tightly.

The powerful medicinal power is like a swift flood, and Lord Elms (Wilfred)'s internal force is like a dam used to resist the flood, desperately controlling the direction of the medicinal power, and doing everything possible to guide the medicinal power to the fourth meridian.

It's just that this medicinal power is too fierce, even if he has fully controlled it, almost 30% of the medicinal power is still absorbed by the body.

As for his pulse, although there are signs of loosening, whether it can break through, he has no confidence in his heart, so he can only concentrate all his energy to make the last fight.

Kairi Elms saw her father flush all over, her face full of sweat, and her left hand could not help but grasp the corner of her shirt.

Although she was anxious and nervous, she knew that she could not help with her father's affairs and could only wait patiently.

Lord Elms (Wilfred) is equally anxious.

He felt that the power of the medicine was continuously consuming the pulse, but there was still no sign that the pulse was going to be broken.

Seeing that the power of the medicine was mostly broken and there was little left, pessimism was unavoidable in his heart.

But when the medicinal power was only less than 20% left, he suddenly felt that the spiritual platform was clear and the whole person had entered an unprecedented state of detachment, as if he had just awakened from a good sleep that he had never slept in his entire life.

The whole person can't be said to be comfortable and relaxed.

He was astonished for a moment, and then he was immediately excited, and said excitedly: "Breakthrough!"

Kairi! Dad really broke through!”

“Really, Dad! Great! It’s... Great!”

Kairi Elms was very excited when he heard this. Seeing his father’s vigorous expression, his heart was extremely relieved, and tears burst into his eyes for a while.

She knew that breaking through the four meridians was her father’s lifelong dream.

Originally, everyone, including my father, thought that this day could not come, but unexpectedly, today is really realized!

When Kairi Elms burst into tears, Lord Elms (Wilfred) also wetted his eyes.

He trembled and choked: “I really didn’t expect that Lord Elms (Wilfred) would have one day to break through the four meridians, and finally be worthy of our Elms family’s ancestors...”

After all, the emotions are even more excited, and the old tears are already running.

Kairi Elms asked hurriedly, "Dad, how much do you have through the fourth meridian now?!"

Lord Elms (Wilfred) said: "Only 10%, but there must be a chance to continue to improve in the future! After all, now the Ren channel has become a big success, and the governor channel has also increased from 50% to 70%.

The Rendu channel is the top priority of cultivation. It is tantamount to further consolidating the foundation for future cultivation, and later cultivation will get twice the result with half the effort!"

Kairi Elms nodded repeatedly and said excitedly: "I see that after you took the second divine pill, your physical condition and mental outlook have improved a lot.

It is not a dream to want you to live a long life, and you will surely continue to improve your cultivation in the future.

, May be able to break through to the fifth meridian and create a new height in Hejia!"

Lord Elms (Wilfred) said with emotion: “If I really had that day, I would really die without regrets!”

Having said that, he hurriedly said: “Kairi, your current cultivation level has also been greatly improved, and your talents have always been smart.

Although you have lost an arm and your actual combat ability is indeed affected a lot, the room for improvement is actually There is no discount.

In my opinion, you might as well pick up your cultivation again, and you will surely have a new breakthrough!”

Kairi Elms fell silent all at once.

In fact, she has never completely given up on martial arts practice.

It’s just that she is no longer devoted to cultivation as she did when she was young.

The way of martial arts is very similar to that of professional athletes.

If you really want to make a difference, you must first put martial arts in the most important position in your life, 24 hours a day, at least half of the time is spent on systematic and hard training, before you have a chance to succeed.

Just like a table tennis player, people start to train frantically before the table is high. They can't reach their peak state until they are in their twenties. During this period, you must ensure that you train with high strength, rain or shine.

Since Kairi Elms was injured, he went from the state of a professional athlete to the state of a retired athlete. Most of his energy is taking care of Xion every day, and he has too little time to train.

Although it can squeeze out two or three hours a day for training, it is far from the requirements of professional athletes.

This time, her father asked her to pick it up again, and he meant to restore her to the professional athlete-like training method.

In fact, she also wanted to train as hard as her father said, but when she thought that she had promised Charlie to go to Aurous Hill and had to guard her daughter Xion, she said to Lord Elms (Wilfred): “Dad, Master Wade said.

If you agree to cooperate, I need to take the ten best masters of the Elms family to Aurous Hill to listen to his orders at any time.

I guess it will be difficult for me to train as intensively as before.”

As she said, she said busy again: “But I will spend as much time as possible on cultivation, don’t worry about this!”
