

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 2852-2855

Hearing Kairi Elms's words, Lord Elms (Wilfred) almost said without hesitation: "In this case, after

I settle down at home, I will also go to Aurous Hill with you and wait for Charlie's dispatch."

Kairi Elms nodded. Although his father was old, he was indeed the highest in the cultivation of the Elms family.

If he didn't go to Aurous Hill, he didn't know how to explain it to Young Master Wade.

Later, she asked her father: "Dad, what should I do over the Banks Family?"

Lord Elms (Wilfred) broke through the fourth meridian and became the second master to break through the four meridians in the Elms family's hundreds of years of history.

He was in excitement at this time.

Hearing Kairi Elms's problems, he immediately began to make new ideas about the future of the Elms family.

Adjustment.

He opened the mouth and said: “Since Master Wade gave us such good luck, then I will naturally terminate the cooperation with the Banks Family, and completely draw a line with the Banks Family, and then immediately set out to select the right person, and go to Aurous Hill to return to Master Wade.”

As he said, he said with emotion: “Master Wade, including you, only need eleven people from the Elms family.

In this way, the old and the weak, women and children don't have to leave their homes with us.

Those who are not enough in their cultivation, You can also stay in Mocheng and continue to practice with great concentration...”

At this point, he couldn't help sighing: “Hey! Mocheng is a legacy left by our ancestors, and I don't want to give up in my heart.

Before the Banks Family let us go south, this old house must be abandoned, so this Generally speaking, it is very good.

These hundreds of people can continue to stay in Mocheng and work hard.”

Kairi Elms nodded, thinking of something, and said, “Dad, let’s discuss something with you.”

Lord Elms (Wilfred) hurriedly said, “Say!”

Kairi Elms said: “This time I went to Aurous Hill, I did not consider my elder brother’s line.

Although his cultivation is good, he has been too wasteful in recent years and his mind is not on this.

He is still not allowed to contact Master Wade. As for him Those two sons are even more so, they are not even in the top 20 in tElms family.”

“Yes.” Lord Elms (Wilfred) also nodded very seriously: “Your eldest brother is thinking about making money.

This time Bank’s Butler came over with a one-billion check.

He didn't know how excited he was. It was really disappointing..."

As he said, he sighed again: "I originally thought that I would hand the Elms family to his hands after a hundred years, but after observing these years, your eldest brother is not a competent person..."

Kairi Elms hurriedly said: "Dad, you don't have to worry about these things.

In my opinion, the Elms family will definitely flourish under your rule in the next 20 years!

As for the future master selection, you don't have to worry about it now. You are in town, coupled with the support of Charlie, in the next 20 years, the Elms family will surely have a better young generation, and there will surely be a suitable host to choose!"

Lord Elms (Wilfred) immediately felt relieved when he heard this, and nodded slightly, looking forward to the future of the Elms family.

But when he thought of Xion, he couldn't help sighing: "Hey! If Xion is still there, it will be fine."

Looking at the whole Elms family, your elder brother is committed to material enjoyment, your second brother's talent is really average, and your situation is different.

It's quite special. There is no young generation who is ambitious and decisive, and really has the demeanor of a general, but if there is only one person, the whole Elms family,

I can't find a second person who is more suitable to lead the Elms family... .."

Kairi Elms was pleasantly surprised, but couldn't help but said, "Dad, if Xion is a girl with a foreign surname, even if she is here, many people will be unconvinced if she leads the Elms family."

"Not convinced?" Lord Elms (Wilfred) sneered, and said: "It seems that you are a mother, and you don't know enough about Xion."

With Xion's style of acting, it is useless for anyone in this family to be unconvinced.

She will definitely treat those stings. The thorns on the head are all cleaned, even if it is your eldest brother, it is not Xion's opponent."

Kairi Elms thought about Xion's destruction of the entire Matsumoto family in Japan, and she couldn't help sighing: "If Xion this child, he was too hostile before.

This is also the fault of the Banks Family, who has been using her as a knife.

The accumulated murderous aura is too great. weight....."

"Yes..." Lord Elms (Wilfred) sighed, "Don't talk about it, Kairi, I know you still don't want to give up Xion in your heart, or I will choose some people from the younger generation at home, when they are a group of three or five.

Going out in turns to continue searching for Xion's whereabouts, what do you think?"

Kairi Elms hesitated for a moment, and said, "Dad, let's forget it.

Let's go to Aurous Hill to see Young Master Wade.

If we are looking for Xion's affairs, we can put it aside for now."

On a few occasions, Kairi Elms could hardly control it, and wanted to tell her father about the current situation of her daughter Xion, which made the father feel at ease and comforted the father.

More importantly, if my father really wants Xion to succeed the Patriarch in the future, she will naturally be 10,000 willing to be a mother.

If the father knew Xion's situation, he would be able to make early plans.

However, whenever the words came to her lips, she swallowed again.

She felt that since she had agreed to Charlie's request for confidentiality, she would definitely not make an exception even if she was her own father, otherwise there would be any integrity at all.

She thought that after the old man went to Aurous Hill, as Charlie became more familiar with the old man, maybe he would allow Xion to meet the old man in private.

Lord Elms (Wilfred) on the side didn't think much. He checked the time and said, "Go, go to Bank's Butler, and clarify things as early as possible."

Kairi Elms nodded and asked,

"Dad, if the Banks Family is to blame, what are you going to do?"

Lord Elms (Wilfred) said calmly: "When the Banks Family is a member, it is naturally impossible to extract energy to deal with us.

What's more, since we are standing in line with the young Master Wade family, we don't have to worry about the Banks Family targeting us. If the young Master Wade family gives us an order, let us To deal with the Banks Family, we might even tear up the face first. After all, people are the masters.

This is the rule of the world.”

Kairi Elms breathed a sigh of relief and said, “I understand Dad.”

As he was talking, someone knocked on the door outside the study.

Lord Elms (Wilfred) said: “Come in.”

Yoel opened the door and looked at Kairi Elms vigilantly, and said to Lord Elms (Wilfred):

“Dad, you haven’t finished talking here?

Bank’s Butler has gotten up and is having breakfast, saying that he wants to see you to ask about the specific situation.”

Lord Elms (Wilfred) nodded: “It just so happens that I have something important to find him, let’s go together.”

Kiri chuckles in her heart, and mutters in her heart, “Important thing? What important thing?

Shouldn’t I have to go back after chatting with Kairi Elms for a while?! That’s 2 billion a year!”

Thinking of this, he hurriedly asked tentatively: “Dad...what do you want to find Bank’s Butler?

Isn't there any change in the cooperation?!"

Lord Elms (Wilfred) glanced at him, seeing his elder son's face full of nervousness, his appearance seemed to have lost two billion , and he couldn't help feeling a little disgusted.

It is said that the dragon begets the dragon and the phoenix begets the phoenix. I have been obsessed with martial arts all my life and never coveted the so-called glory and wealth.

Why did I give birth to such a product?

Thinking of this, he said in a bad tone: "Why? Are you worried about changes in cooperation?"

Kiri hurriedly said, "Dad, the terms of cooperation given by the Banks Family this time are rare in a lifetime.

Don't make your brain fever or make irrational judgments!"

Lord Elms (Wilfred) snorted coldly: "Huh! I'm not wise to judge? To tell you the truth, I have decided not to cooperate with the Banks Family anymore.

Now I will go and inform Bank's Butler in person!"
