

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 2864-2867

At this time, Lord Elms (Wilfred) was in the ancestral hall and inserted the three sticks of incense in front of his biological father's rank.

The Elms family Ancestral Hall enshrines nearly a hundred ancestors, and most of them are people who have made significant contributions to the Elms family.

Among them, the one with the lowest qualifications is Lord Elms (Wilfred)'s biological father.

Therefore, he respected the incense one by one from top to bottom, and respected his father as the last one.

His hand had just inserted the three joss sticks that had been ignited into the censer, and before he could withdraw his hands from the top of the censer. Hearing the cry of the youngest son outside the ancestral hall, he was shocked for an instant, and accidentally took the three sticks. The incense broke all at once.

Seeing this, Kairi Elms – Xion's Mom hurriedly asked with concern: "Dad, are you okay?!"

Lord Elms (Wilfred) closed his eyes and was silent for a moment, before smiling bitterly, "It's okay, your eldest brother did this kind of thing, and it didn't matter to me.

He was surprised." As he said, he said with emotion: "Borrowing a famous saying from a great man, it will rain, and my mother will marry someone . Let him go." Kairi Elms – Xion's Mom wanted to say something, but the words came to the lips, and they were abrupt . Swallowed back.

The eldest brother took away forty or fifty family members this time, which is equivalent to taking away half of the Elms family. I have to say that this is bound to be a major loss to the Elms family.

Although they insisted on leaving, if the old man came forward, with the majesty and strength of the old man, even if he stayed forcibly, he could keep them all.

However, she changed her mind and thought again.

"Since these people can be deceived by money, what's the point of leaving them forever?"

"Leaving these forty or fifty people is equivalent to leaving forty or fifty. I don't know when the gunpowder bag will explode.

" It will not benefit the Elms family in the future, it will only leave more and more hidden dangers."

“On the contrary, this time through the temptation of money to directly eliminate all these people who are not enough for the family, it will be a good thing for the future Elms family.”

For Kairi Elms – Xion’s Mom, she clearly knows that the current Elms Home, after the drastic changes this morning, it is no longer what it used to be.

The old man successfully opened up the fourth meridian, and his cultivation was in line with the ancestor who had the highest cultivation of He Jiashu over the past century. Among the four major martial arts families, there is no one else.

Coupled with the help of Charlie, a superb nobleman behind his back, the Elms family will surely develop rapidly in the future.

Before taking off, removing those hidden dangers is to help Elms family clean up the garbage and lay a better foundation in the future.

Lord Elms (Wilfred) actually thinks so too.

He opened his mouth and said to Kairi Elms – Xion’s Mom: “Kairi, tell Manish not to interfere with anyone who wants to leave.

Whoever wants to leave, just let him go, and then let him tell those who stayed and let them all.

Wait for me in the main hall. After I have worshipped my ancestors, there are important things to announce.”

“Kairi understands!”

Kairi Elms – Xion’s Mom hurried out of the ancestral hall, and said to Manish (Elms youngest son), who was standing at the door with anxious face: “Manish, Dad let me I tell you, whoever wants to leave , let him go. If you don’t want to leave , all wait in the main hall.” Manish (Elms youngest son) hurriedly said: “Sister! Big brother has brought 40 or 50 family members this time, which is almost half of our home If you let them go like this, once it spreads out to our family, it will definitely fall out of the ranks of the four major martial arts families in the country...”

Kairi Elms – Xion’s Mom smiled slightly and said seriously: “Manish, what you are talking about may not be true. The people who walked today are likely to be a good thing for us and our family, just like cancer.

Once a person’s lungs If a malignant tumor the size of a fingernail grows, the doctor will advise him to remove the entire lung lobe. It is not a bad thing to cut it off, on the contrary, it is a great good thing.”

“But...” Manish (Elms youngest son) anxiously said, “Sister, you I understand all these so-called great principles, but you have also said that if a tumor is found in the lung, it is enough to cut one lung lobe. People have five lung lobes. Cutting one of them will not have a big impact, but you have to cut off two and three. What about the film? Don’t you have to live on oxygen in the future?”

Seeing that he admits to death, Kairi Elms – Xion’s Mom immediately gave up communicating with him normally, and directly cursed: “Where did you come from so much nonsense?”

If you let you go back to convey it, you just go back obediently. Convey, talk nonsense, believe it or not, I will kick you back?” After that, she was about to kick.

Manish (Elms youngest son) originally wanted to argue with his sister. He immediately gave up all thoughts when he heard this, and hurriedly responded, “Can I go now?”

After speaking, he ran back sullenly.

At this time, the forty or fifty people of the Elms family who were willing to follow Yoel to Southaven had already begun loading their luggage.

Among them, there are Lord Elms (Wilfred)’s second brother, a family of Yoel’s second uncle, Yoel’s own brother Kabir and his family, and Yoel’s cousin and Lord Elms (Wilfred)’s cousin’s family.

After Manish (Elms youngest son) ran back, he did not stop these people from loading the car.

Instead, he ran into the house and said to the rest of the people: “Everyone, my father said, let everyone wait in the main hall. He is paying homage to his ancestors. Return to the main hall to announce important things to everyone.”

Someone asked, “Manish, what important things do you want to announce?”

Manish (Elms youngest son) shook his head: “I don’t know what it is. Let’s wait together!”

Ten o’clock in the morning. , The Banks Family’s motorcade departed on time, carrying Yoel and more than 40 other Elms family members all the way south.

On the way, these Elms family members were very excited.

Because Bank’s Butler told them that Lord Banks, the elder of the Banks Family, was willing to pay them one billion yuan a year.

In fact, Lord Banks gave this money a pain.

The true God didn’t invite him, so he invited a bunch of people to spend half of the budget, which was a huge loss.

However, he did not dare to make a joke about his life safety at this time, even if there were only a half of the Elms family, he had to win over.

Anyway, the money will only be given for one year at the most. After the troubles and crises are resolved, the price will not be available next year. Even if a better helper is found, the group of people may be swept out directly.

Not long after the convoy left the Elms family, Lord Elms (Wilfred) paid homage to the ancestors of the Elms family and returned to the Elms family mansion.

The remaining seventy or eighty Elms family members were all anxiously waiting in the main hall.

Everyone was whispering in groups, discussing the family who had just left, and discussing what important things the old man has to announce later.

These people chose to stay, partly because of their incomparable respect and conviction for Lord Elms (Wilfred), and partly because they wanted to practice martial arts well and didn't take money in their eyes.

At this time, they were all waiting for Lord Elms (Wilfred)'s arrival, waiting for Lord Elms (Wilfred) to unravel the mystery for them.

At a quarter past ten, Lord Elms (Wilfred), accompanied by Kairi Elms – Xion's Mom, stepped into the main hall.

Seeing the remaining seventy or eighty people, Lord Elms (Wilfred)'s expression was also somewhat relieved in his majestic expression.

Everyone was a little surprised when they saw him.

These people's cultivation bases are not as good as Lord Elms (Wilfred)'s, so I can't see what cultivation base he is now, but everyone can feel that Lord Elms (Wilfred) today seems to be younger and stronger than before.

At this time, Lord Elms (Wilfred) looked at everyone and said lightly: "Some people left just now, and everyone must have seen it."

Everyone dare not speak, I don't know if the old man is happy, sad or angry.

Lord Elms (Wilfred) smiled frankly and said: "As a family that is committed to moving forward, the Elms family is like a revolutionary team.

In this team, it is allowed to fall behind and to withdraw, but only not allowed to drag back. So these people Leaving is definitely a good thing for the rest of us, not a bad thing." After all

, he said with a serious tone, and continued: "Now, I officially announce that the Elms family is officially the same as the one who left the Elms family today.

People draw all boundaries. From now on, they will no longer have anything to do with them, and they will never be allowed to return to their homes in the future. You all remember, even if I die, the successor will continue to implement mine. This decision!"

Everyone couldn't help but feel a little awe-inspiring.

Is this tantamount to complete severance?

There are not only the father's own son, but also his younger brother, and his cousin.

Is it because the old man doesn't feel distressed at all and doesn't want to save it at all?

Just before everyone recovered from the shock, Lord Elms (Wilfred) cleared his throat and said: "Next, I want to announce a very important thing!"

Everyone thought they had just drawn a line with those people. Decision is the important thing the old man said.

Unexpectedly, there is something else that really matters.

As a result, everyone worked hard and waited for the answer to the mystery to be solved.

Lord Elms (Wilfred) couldn't hide his excitement at this moment and said: "Just this morning, I opened up my fourth meridian!" As soon as this word came out, the audience was shocked!

When the Elms family heard the news that Lord Elms (Wilfred) announced that he had broken through the fourth meridian, everyone was astonished for a moment, and then there was a burst of almost crazy cheers!

Breaking through the four meridians means becoming a four-star warrior!

Throughout China, the title of "Four Star Warrior" has not appeared in nearly a hundred years!

For them, hearing this news is as exciting as the news that the Chinese people had heard of the success of the first atomic bomb.

Back then, China Huaxia successfully developed an atomic bomb, which meant that China's sons and daughters no longer had to face nuclear threats from nuclear countries

, and at the same time they had strong self-protection capabilities.

Now, Lord Elms (Wilfred) has successfully broken through the fourth meridian, which is almost equivalent to the Elms family possessing an atomic bomb!

Just a few minutes ago, everyone present was worried about the future fate of the Elms family because of the departure of Yoel and others.

But now, they have completely ignored Yoel's problem.

Because from now on, the Elms family will take a big step forward and become the top martial arts family in the country!

Lord Elms (Wilfred)'s youngest son, was extremely excited. He blurted out, "Dad! Did you go to the ancestral hall early in the morning to report your breakthrough to your ancestors?"

Lord Elms (Wilfred) nodded: "Yes, in the ancestral hall just now, I have already reported to all the ancestors of the Elms family.

I believe that the ancestors of the Elms family will be proud of their ancestors."

Manish (Elms youngest son) couldn't help but sighed: "Dad, why didn't you announce this news earlier?

If the eldest brother knows that you have made such a major breakthrough, he might not be tempted by the conditions set by the Elms family."

Lord Elms (Wilfred) said lightly: "Fortunately, I didn't announce it in advance, otherwise how could I know his wolf ambition!"

After speaking, Lord Elms (Wilfred) sighed and said, "Well, everyone has their own ambitions.

As long as he doesn't threaten to harm our Elms family's interests in the future, I will stay with him in the future."

Manish (Elms youngest son) also knew what his father said was reasonable, so he stopped insisting too much.

Lord Elms (Wilfred)'s eldest brother,, said: "Wilfred, when will you announce the news of your breakthrough in the fourth meridian?"

Lord Elms (Wilfred) thought for a while, and said: "Let's announce it now, and inform all martial artists of this matter publicly, and also declare that from now on, the Elms family will no longer accept solicitations from anyone, and Elms's house in Mocheng will be closed from now on.

Entertain any visitors again."

In the martial arts family, there is an unwritten rule that once someone in a family with a name and a surname breaks through three or more meridians, it must be advertised among the martial arts people.

Lord Elms (Wilfred) is no exception this time.

Moreover, Lord Elms (Wilfred) knew very well that once the outside world knew that he had broken through the 4th meridian, a large number of people would come to visit Mocheng after hearing the wind.

Among them, not only fellow members came to congratulate them, but also scattered martial arts practitioners came to apprentice, and there were also many families like the Elms family who came to solicit.

Therefore, he let people explain in advance that the Elms family no longer accepts solicitation and no longer treats foreign guests.

This is tantamount to shutting out all of the above possibilities.

The reason for this decision was that Lord Elms (Wilfred) had already thought very clearly in his heart that the future of the Elms family was actually pinned on Charlie.

Therefore, the most important thing for me is to serve Master wade with all my strength. As for others, there is no need to waste my energy and the energy of the Elms family.

Lord elms bro. was puzzled and couldn't help asking: "Willfred, in the past, some people broke through the three meridians.

Almost all martial arts families will send people to send gifts. Among the martial arts people, the limelight is naturally the same. But when we close the door at this time, will it look too different?"

Lord Elms (Wilfred) said earnestly: "Brother, I was able to make such a major breakthrough.

Thanks to the help of a noble person, all the Elms family will look forward to this noble man in the future, and this noble man will give the Elms family a lot of very scarce training resources in the future. , Believe me, this will definitely benefit the whole Elms family.

Maybe in a few years, the next person who breaks through the three meridians will appear in the Elms family, or maybe in a few years

, there will be the next breakthrough like me. People of the four meridians, by then, the strength of our Elms family will be different!"

His brother immediately nodded when he heard this, and said excitedly: "In this case, I will wait for nature to listen to your instructions!"

The remaining people, regardless of age or sex, are very loyal to the Elms family and Lord Elms (Wilfred), so at this time Lord Elms (Wilfred) makes any decision, they will support it.

Lord Elms (Wilfred) also realized that after the eldest son took the group of people away, when he made major decisions, he lost a lot of voices of opposition or doubt, which also made him realize the importance of teamwork.

The current Elms family will no longer do endless internal friction as before. On the contrary, the current Elms family will twist into a rope and work together to achieve greater achievements!

Thinking of this, he couldn't help getting excited deep in his heart, and said: "That's right!

There is one more thing to announce to the public. All those who leave the Elms family will not be allowed to come back again.

From now on, the door of the Elms family will not be Anyone who leaves open it!"

Just as Yoel took a large group of Elms family to the airport by bus, the martial arts field suddenly set off an uproar!

The Elms family announced that Lord Elms (Wilfred), the head of the Elms family, successfully broke through the fourth meridian!

As soon as this news came out, it immediately detonated the entire domestic martial arts field!

At present, among the hundreds of thousands of martial arts practitioners in China, 90% have just opened up one meridian.

Those who can get through the two meridians account for 9.999% of the remaining 10%...

As for those who can get through the three meridians and become a three-star warrior, only five people are known in the country!

Moreover, these five people are all in the sequence of the four major families.

Except for the Northwest Huo family who owns two three-star warriors, there is only one of the remaining three families, including the Elms family.

As for the four meridians, there was no one before Lord Elms (Wilfred).

In other words, Lord Elms (Wilfred) is currently the only martial artist in China who has broken through the four meridians.

This also means that Lord Elms (Wilfred) became the first person in the martial arts field in the country.

Originally, everyone in the bus was still looking forward to a new life after arriving in Southaven. At this moment, I didn't know who shouted: "Second Uncle, he has broken through the four meridians!"

"what?!"

Everyone knows that Lord Elms (Wilfred) is the second among the brothers, so naturally the second uncle said he was!

In an instant, the Elms family in the bus suddenly exploded!

Before Yoel recovered, the phone exploded!

A large number of colleagues sent news to him and his father. Yoel saw the news and his whole body was struck by lightning!

He never dreamed that he had just broken with his father on the front foot, and his eighty-year-old father on the back foot broke directly!

Being very sensitive to money, he almost immediately realized that the Elms family was bound to rise to the top from then on!

Yoel was very annoyed at the thought of his father's announcement when he had just left on his front foot, and he thought to himself:

"No wonder the old guy repented temporarily! It turned out to be a breakthrough in martial arts! I am his eldest son.

He broke through such an important thing, but he didn't tell you. Me! Outrageous!"
