

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 2871-2872

After a day and night of flying, Zayne finally arrived in Syria.

Unlike Charlie, he has the benefits of taking a Concorde airliner. He can only fly all the way to the Middle East.

After landing in Turkey, he took the road traffic to cross the border overnight and into northern Syria.

When Zayne set foot on Syrian soil, he even had the desire to die.

Because he entered the country illegally, the vehicle dragged him all the way to avoid the city, so that he was shocked by this desolate country.

This devastated country is full of deserts, hills, and ruined villages and towns.

The endless deserts and mountains immediately reminded him of an ancient poem, the desert was lonely and smoked.

After going deep into Syria for a hundred kilometers, he realized in his heart that if Charlie didn't nod his head, then he would not be able to leave Syria in his life, not to mention that he didn't know anyone here. ,

Just because of the face that is very different from the surroundings, it is destined to be difficult to get out of this country.

Thinking of this, he was desperate deep in his heart.

He thought that his despair had penetrated into the Mariana Trench, and when it was impossible to be more desperate, he finally reached the armed zone occupied by Commander Hunter (Hamid).

When the car drove into the valley, the fortifications on the mountains on both sides were being built in full swing.

Hunter (Hamid)'s friend who worked in the construction team in Iraq, for the sake of money, arrived in Syria in just over ten hours.

He has now begun to command his workers and the engineering company that Hunter (Hamid) had just formed last night.

Work together and hurry up to build fortifications.

Zayne saw the desolate valley in front of him, the soldiers with live ammunition around him, and the permanent fortifications being actively built, and he was crying deep in his heart.

“What the hell is this place?!”

“Located in the middle of ten thousand mountains, traffic is extremely blocked, and the level of development is far less than that of a small mountain village in China...”

“I don’t know, I thought this was the base area behind enemy lines during the War of Resistance Against Japan...”

Zayne wanted to cry without tears, if the TV series “Bright Sword” were filmed here, it would definitely be more real than the version that is currently broadcast on TV!

Just when he was crying without tears, the convoy, led by a military convertible jeep, stopped in front of Hunter (Hamid)’s command.

As soon as the car stopped, Hunter (Hamid), wearing a camouflage uniform, walked out excitedly.

The person who escorted Zayne was Isaac Cameron’s men, but Hunter (Hamid) didn’t know any Isaac Cameron.

He only knew that among these people, Charlie wanted to “foster” with him. The rest, it must be Charlie’s men.

Charlie is not only his nobleman, but also his God of Wealth and his strategic commander.

Therefore, he is also full of enthusiasm and respect for Charlie’s men. Bring the passion and respect back to him.

Seeing Hunter (Hamid) stepping out like flying fast, Zayne felt a bit in his heart.

I thought: “This guy looks extraordinary, he should be the boss here.”

When Hunter (Hamid) came out, Zayne was also dragged down by Isaac Cameron’s men.

Seeing a few yellow people with East Asian faces, Hunter (Hamid) immediately smiled in his proficient Chinese and said,

“Several of them should be Charlie’s subordinates. It’s really a welcome, a warm welcome!”

Several people looked at each other and couldn’t help looking at each other.

In their impression, the slogans of welcome, warm welcome, are all slogans shouted by young pioneers with blush on their cheeks, red scarves around their necks, and wreaths in their hands.

But I never expected that these words would be yelled from a Middle Eastern warlord with a big beard and a big five.

The headed person is Isaac Cameron’s confidant, and his name is Lilu.
