

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 2875-2876

Hunter (Hamid) didn't have the time to take care of Zayne.

He smiled and said to Lilu: "Several people, I have made good black tea. Let's come in and have a few cups!"

People in the Middle East love to drink black tea. Generally, a very large amount of tea leaves are boiled into a very rich tea soup, which is then paired with a lot of sugar and refreshments with extremely high sugar content.

This point is quite different from the Huaxia people.

Seeing that Hunter (Hamid) was so hospitable, several people couldn't refuse for a while.

So, Lilu said: "Commander Hunter (Hamid), please arrange your subordinates first and take this Mr. Banks to his residence."

"Okay, no problem!" Hunter (Hamid) patted his chest and said, "Since Brother Wade ordered, I have asked people to prepare the yard.

The yard is next to my guard camp, except for my guards. All the rest are soldiers from the army.

There are people on patrols and guards 24 hours a day, and he will never let him run away!"

After speaking, he said with a smile: "And I have had people clean up the small courtyard again, and the conditions are good."

Zayne heard this all the time, only to breathe a sigh of relief.

Since he got on the plane, he never thought about running away.

Because it is impossible to escape.

This kind of place where birds don't shit, even if they are exhausted, they can't run out.

What's more, there are all soldiers with live ammunition around here. If the other party finds that a few bullets come over, there is no chance that I want to keep a whole body.

Therefore, he can only force himself to adapt.

As for the future, I can only hope that my daughter, Zara, can inherit the Banks Family as soon as possible.

But he changed his mind and thought again.

“Let Zhiyu inherit the Banks Family, and the possibility is almost zero...

Let's not talk about my old man who will never delegate power until death, even if he is willing to delegate power, my brothers and sisters, can be willing to let Zara A girl who inherits the Banks Family? I am afraid that it will start an unprecedented family battle...”

Thinking of this, he felt even more desperate.

I don't know how long and when my “Syria Journey” ended.

Soon, Zayne was taken by Hunter (Hamid)'s personal guards to a small farmhouse a few hundred meters away from the headquarters.

From the outside, this small courtyard is almost entirely made of loess, with earthen walls and earthen houses. Except for the roof tiles, which appear to be fired, there are almost no traces of modern processing.

The small yard is not big. The yard after entering is just the size of a basketball court. There is a cowshed on the right hand side of the entrance, but there are no animals in it.

As for the middle of the yard, there is no root grass except the soil.

As for the supporting houses in this small courtyard, there are only three earthen houses facing the courtyard.

It's not like the rural areas of China, where there is something like a wing house. There are only three earthen houses side by side, and the total is estimated to be less than 40 square meters.

What made him even more collapsed was that in the very central room, there was nothing but a dilapidated wooden chair.

On the left hand side, is an extremely simple bedroom. If it weren't for a pile of straw-like things in the middle of the bedroom, he wouldn't even know that the room was used for sleeping.

Like the room in the middle, in this so-called bedroom, there is only a pile of straw and a pile of rolled bedding.

Zayne stepped forward and spread out the quilt, which contained a quilt, a mattress and a pillow.

As soon as he saw this crude three-piece suit, he couldn't help but stomped his mother: “f*ck! I spent 100 million US dollars,
