

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 2895-2896

“Therefore, when the Elms family practices this internal family boxing method, there are many restrictions, and it is easy to cause internal force disorder and life-threatening.

“It is precisely because of this that the Elms family settled in the coldest place in China, because the colder, the less the chance of internal forces being disordered...”

Charlie nodded.

In fact, the way of martial arts has been in decline a lot since its development in ancient times.

In fact, from the Song Dynasty to the end of the Ming Dynasty and the beginning of the Qing Dynasty, the development of martial arts was at its peak.

After all, in the era of cold weapons, kung fu is very useful, not only to protect the home and the country, but also to make a living, so in addition to scholars, the rest of the people wanted to become martial arts masters.

However, in the Qing Dynasty, foreign powers opened the country with guns and suddenly let countless martial artists discover that they could hardly practice their skills for a lifetime, and they were even no match for a gun or a gun in the hands of foreigners.

At the beginning, many patriotic martial artists also had a heart to serve the country loyally, but their strength was not worth mentioning in the face of hot weapons.

The most sighing thing was that thousands of names and regiments besieged hundreds of foreigners in Dongjiaomin Lane, but they attacked for 56 days, but they didn't attack.

Since then, a large number of martial arts practitioners have become the biggest opponents of martial arts from their original love of martial arts. The reason is that they have seen a huge gap and realized that they have lost a bullet in their lifetime efforts. .

Since then, the country has been suffering from wars, internal and external troubles, and the speed of weapon development has been getting faster and faster, which has widened the gap between martial arts and weapons.

Therefore, from the beginning of the Qing Dynasty, martial arts began to go downhill, and it has not really re-emerged until now.

Originally, there were millions or even tens of millions of people in Huaxia, with a population of two to three billion, who practiced martial arts, but now, there are no more than hundreds of thousands of martial artists in Huaxia with more than a billion people.

Many internal martial arts have been gradually lost in this period of time, so that many martial arts practitioners do not have a complete internal martial arts to practice, which can be regarded as a great sorrow of the decline of martial arts.

However, the enthusiasm of martial arts professionals today is not at all inferior to those of their ancestors.

Take the Elms family as an example. In fact, the Elms family has always been eager to fill up their incomplete set of internal boxing, but unfortunately they have not found any relevant clues.

For Charlie, the internal boxing method was nothing remarkable.

The “Nine Profound Heavenly Scriptures” recorded a lot of internal martial arts, and he didn’t even bother to practice these, because he had already completely exceeded the level of martial arts practitioners. This internal martial arts was of no value to him.

However, if he casually took out one of the internal boxing techniques in the “Nine Profound Heavenly Scriptures”, I am afraid that the martial arts families in the world would be able to steal their heads.

What’s interesting is that nowadays, among the martial arts practitioners in the country, the only one who has mastered a complete internal martial arts is the little pepper Aurora who has just entered the industry and has no style.

The “Four Elephant Palms” she is now quietly practicing is a complete internal boxing technique that Charlie found out from the “Nine Profound Heaven Classics”.

Therefore, Charlie said to Xion: “If the time is right in the future, I can provide the Elms family with a complete internal boxing technique. By then, I may be able to help the Elms family to a higher level!”

Xion was shocked when she heard this, and she was equally excited.

She didn’t doubt that Charlie had a complete inner family boxing technique, but she did not expect that Charlie would be willing to take it out and give it to the Elms family.

Although Charlie did not say to give it immediately or definitely, Charlie also said that it would be given when the time is right, which means that Charlie is willing to give it to the Elms family as long as the time is right.
