

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 2929-2930

Although Fitz was so complaining in his heart, he was still somewhat worried.

He was afraid that Zara's words would pass into his grandfather's ears. If he made his grandfather think that all this was his idea for Zara, wouldn't he offend Grandpa again?

Although he is the eldest grandson of bank's family, if he really offends Lord Banks, Lord Banks can also make him lose everything immediately.

After all, he is different from Zara. Zara is now worth hundreds of billions. If all this is made public, she might already be the richest woman in China.

Thinking of this, Fitz felt even more uncomfortable.

However, the Thorne Family, including Lord Thorne, did not doubt what Zara said.

Lord Thorne even clapped his hands in applause and praised: "Zara, you did a beautiful job! You can't make it cheap. Lord Banks! He must pay a sufficient price! The previous exposure of the video by the mysterious man has already ruined him. We are based on this. It doesn't make much sense to fall into the hole, so it's better to force him to cut a piece of meat!"

Dalton, Zara's uncle, said with some worry: "The Banks Family's ocean transportation group has now been forced to terminate all business. It is said that the daily loss is a huge sum of money. In this case, you may also know the fish. It's hard to turn it back into profit!"

Zara deliberately looked at his brother on the side, and then said slightly lightly: "It doesn't matter, if I can't find a way to turn it back into profit, I will simply sell all its assets for cash. If the ship is not allowed to run away, it must be sold, right? All will be sold at a discount, and at least one or two hundred billion will be exchanged."

Dalton was stunned, then gave a thumbs up, and said in admiration: "Wonderful... Uncle did not expect that even if this business can't be done, the assets can still be sold... It just so happens that the uncle also has some network resources. , If you decide to sell it at any time, say hello to your uncle, and uncle will help you match the line for a good price!"

When Fitz heard this, his heart was bleeding like a pain.

Heaven Springs Diamond Box.

Charlie and everyone exchanged cups and a dozen bottles of Maotai. The guests and the host enjoyed themselves.

Charlie asked Isaac Cameron to arrange several cars in advance and send them to the Elms family, as well as Hank and Ziva Hank.

Out of the box, Charlie arranged: "Master Elms, you and the other brothers can go directly back to the villa. Let Ms. Kairi follow me in a car. I will send Professor Hank and the others back first, and then Ms. Kairi. Go to the hotel."

Lord elms hugged Charlie and said, "Then I will follow Master Wade's arrangement."

Everyone moved to the door, and Don Albert and Isaac Cameron worked together to let the ten people of the Elms family ride in three cars.

After the three cars left, Isaac Cameron arranged for his subordinates to drive a Lexus six-seater business to the front, and said to Charlie: "Master Wade, you and Ms. Kairi Professor Hank, and Ms. Ziva will take this business car. , I take the co-pilot."

Charlie nodded and was about to get in the car, when suddenly he heard someone shout in surprise: "Charlie!"

Charlie turned his head and saw that the one who walked out of Heaven Springs at this time was actually the first love of the old man Jacob, Matilda.

Today, Matilda and a few colleagues from the University of Senior Citizens happened to have a dinner in Heaven Springs. As soon as they came out and was about to take a taxi to leave, they saw Charlie standing in front of a commercial vehicle, so she came over to say hello.

Charlie didn't expect to meet Matilda here, so he smiled and said, "Auntie Han, are you eating here too?"

"Yes." Matilda said with a smile: "It just happened to have a meal with the old guys from the senior college."

At this moment, Charlie's Hank, whose back was facing Matilda, had already recovered. Seeing Matilda dressed in glamorous and moving clothes, he was pleasantly surprised and said: "Matilda, you are here too!"
