

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 2941-2942

Twenty minutes later.

The taxi stopped in front of the largest Fenghuangshan Cemetery in the suburbs of Aurous Hill City.

The cemetery here occupies a few nearby hills and has a huge area. Usually many people come to worship during the day, but at night, you can't even see a dog.

After the taxi took the grandson and grandson to the gate of the cemetery, the accelerator slammed far away.

With the dim moonlight, Mike looked at the huge gate of the white marble in front of him, and said nervously: "Grandpa, why doesn't this place even have a staff member?"

Mai shook his head: "I don't know, the door is closed tightly, and I don't know if it is locked. You can help me to go over and see.

The two came to the door, and Mike pushed the door, but the iron door didn't move. Mike hurriedly said, "Grandpa, the door is locked."

Mai frowned and took out his cell phone to make a call to master Felix.

At this moment, a middle-aged man wearing a security uniform suddenly walked out of the darkness.

The middle-aged man walked very fast, but his walking posture was a bit strange. It seemed that his limbs and torso were a bit stiff.

Mike suddenly saw a person walking out of the dark. He was shocked. He hurriedly pulled Mai to move back, but Mai slapped his hand on the back of his hand and whispered: "Don't move!"

After speaking, his eyes were fixed on the security guard.

The security guard walked straight towards the grandfather and grandson, and when he approached him, Mai found that this person was black and bleeding, and his whole person was suddenly shuddered.

It was the first time for the Mike beside him to encounter such a situation. He was so frightened that he trembled unconsciously.

No matter how he saw this kind of formation, he felt that the security guard seemed to be a dead body, and also a tragic corpse.

Mai was also horrified in his heart, but fortunately he was also an old world, so the concentration was naturally much stronger than Mike.

So, he fixed his eyes on the security guard, not daring to relax a little, but he didn't step back and dodge.

At this time, the security guard mechanically took out the key and opened the iron fence door from the inside. After pushing the door open, he did not come out, but looked at the grandparents and grandchildren blankly, and waved at them.

Immediately, without saying anything, he turned and walked towards the cemetery.

Mike's frightened legs weakened, and asked Mai next to him: "Grandpa, he...what does he mean by beckoning us?"

Mai said solemnly: "Let's follow him in, let's go, go in and see!"

Mai went in and took a look, almost not scaring Mike's soul out!

He said in a panic: "Grandpa, I don't think he is a man or a ghost. We don't even know what's in it. In my opinion, we can't just go in!"

Looking at the stiff back of the security guard, Mai said indifferently: "This person is dead long ago, but he is just a puppet."

"Really dead?!" Mike was frightened when he heard this, and said nervously: "This...isn't this the zombie in the movie?!"

"No!" Mai waved his hand and said seriously: "This is the fate of being hit by the Gu worm. Now he is no longer driven by his own consciousness, but by the Gu worm."

"Gu worm?!" Mike asked dumbfounded: "What is the principle of that thing?!"
