

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 2959-2960

really!

Mai was immediately stopped by Isaac Cameron's rhetorical question.

He also thinks this thing is very strange.

Why did you steal yourself?

Why did you steal the compass from your own family?

If you are not a knowledgeable person, you will definitely choose to take cash. Who would take an old compass with no age and value?

Thinking of this, the first person Mai thought of turned out to be Felix.

He wondered if Felix secretly stole his ancestral compass?

This surname is proclaimed. Originally not good at Feng Shui mystery, maybe it was to make up for the shortcomings in this area, so I set my sights on my own ancestral compass!

Thinking of this, Mai didn't dare to directly question Felix, so he could only pin his hopes on the police, so he hurriedly asked Isaac Cameron: "How long will the police be there?"

Isaac Cameron checked the time and said, "I guess it will take up to three minutes. You can wait a little longer."

"Okay!" Mai could only nodded and agreed.

Three minutes later, a young man with extraordinary bearing stepped into his room.

This person is Charlie who has just arrived at Shangri-La.

Charlie stepped in, looked around the room for a week, then focused his gaze on Mai, and asked, "Is this Mr. Mai?"

Mai saw that Charlie's eyebrows were full of heroism. Thinking it was a police officer in plainclothes law enforcement, he hurriedly said: "Hello, police officer, this is Mai. I have something very important that has been stolen!"

Charlie nodded, and said to Isaac Cameron and other staff beside him: "I want to survey the scene. Other relevant people should go out first."

Isaac Cameron pretended not to know him and said hurriedly: "Okay."

After speaking, he greeted the other staff and left the room together, and brought the door to him before leaving.

In the room, only Charlie and Mai's grandparents were left.

Seeing that Isaac Cameron had closed the doors, Mai couldn't help asking Charlie: "Mr. Police Officer, are you the only one in your police this time?"

Charlie looked at Mai, and suddenly said with a somewhat grim expression: "Since there are no outsiders, then I will open the skylight to speak up. I am not a police officer. I am looking for you because I have something to tell you. Check it out."

Mai couldn't help frowning, and asked very vigilantly: "You are not a police officer?! Who are you?! Is my compass with you?!"

Charlie said coldly: "Still caring about your compass? I tell you, the next question I will ask, you'd better answer truthfully, otherwise don't talk about the compass, even your life will remain in my hands!"

When Mike on the side heard this, he immediately scolded: "I don't care who you are, but please pay attention to your words! Otherwise, don't blame me for being rude!"

Charlie glanced at Mike, and pointed a finger directly on his forehead!

Immediately afterwards, a trace of spiritual energy directly blocked his central nervous system. Mike didn't even have time to hum and immediately lost all control of his body. The whole person was like a high paraplegia, unable to move any minute.

Mike's expression was terrified, he wanted to speak, but he felt that he couldn't even open his mouth!

Charlie didn't bother to pay attention to him, but looked at the terrified Mai, and said coldly: "Master Mai, I know your details and the purpose of your coming to Aurous Hill. I even know that you saw you at Phoenix Mountain Cemetery last night. It's the Felix year, so you'd better not play tricks with me, otherwise, I will let your grandparents live together in Phoenix Mountain Cemetery tomorrow!"
