

The Amazing Son In Law (Charlie Wade)

Chapter 2971-2972

Mai nodded, but said nervously, "Master Wade, you may not understand the person Felix. This person is extremely cruel. The last time I asked me to meet at Phoenix Mountain Cemetery, he made it clear that he wanted to give me a good start. , If I negotiate terms with him at this time and want to divide the money in his hand, then he will definitely move my heart..."

Charlie said, "Don't worry. Although I am a little shameless about your behavior, I am not going to use your life as a bait. As long as you cooperate with me to bring out Felix, I will naturally keep you safe."

Although Mai was not sure in his heart, he knew that he had no other choice at this time, so he could only agree and said, "Felix must be suspicious by nature. Where does Charlie plan to meet him? Too remote, I'm afraid he will be wary..."

Charlie waved his hand: "You ask him to come to Shangri-La directly. He must know that you live here, so it is safest for you to ask him to meet here."

Mai couldn't help but said, "Master Wade, Shangri-La is crowded with people and is located in a downtown area. If there is a fight against Felix nian here, will the movement be too big? It's too big to end, and there may be unexpected troubles..."

Charlie snorted and said: "I asked you to invite him to meet here directly, just to minimize his doubts, and you must also understand that it is impossible for this kind of person to agree to meet you here."

After speaking, Charlie said again: "He must also have the same concerns as you just mentioned. If he really wants to kill you, he will not dare to kill you directly at Shangri-La, so I believe he will ask you out. Meet, and he must choose the location, so that he won't have any unnecessary fear and suspicion."

Mai nodded, clasped his fist and said, "Master Wade is your best consideration, or I will call him!"

"No!" Charlie said coldly: "He just met you last night, and you didn't even go out of the hotel door today. Tell him directly that you have a clue. He will definitely not believe it."

Mai couldn't help but said, "Felix may not know everything about me, right?"

Charlie said calmly: "You and Felix are not the same kind of people. You make money by craftsmanship. He makes money by killing people. Just like a cook and a killer, you have nothing to do with each other, so you are not the same kind of people at all. \ It's not in one dimension at all, and you can't understand at all. How cautious is the personality of a person like him who makes money from murder and how careful his mind is, maybe he has been observing you in secret, maybe. So if you make a call, it might be all exposed."

Mai hurriedly asked: "So what do you mean, Master Wade?"

Charlie opened his mouth and said: "You follow your original plan, go to Thoren's old house, and call him after you come back."

Mai nodded, then looked at Mike, who was motionless next to him, and hurriedly said, "Master Wade, please let my great-grandson recover. I will go to Thoren's old house with him."

Charlie said calmly: "Mike stays here, and my people will naturally take care of him. If Felix asks about him, you would say that Mike was frightened at Phoenix Mountain last night and was uncomfortable today, so he didn't. Let him follow, I believe Felix will not doubt it."
