

The Amazing Son In Law ( Charlie Wade)

Chapter 3001-3002

"That's true." Doris Young sighed: "I also stayed in the United States for a while. The law and order there is indeed much worse than in China. After ten o'clock in the evening, except for the downtown area, I dare not go anywhere. People often rob with guns in the streets and alleys, which is especially dangerous for women."

Ziva Hank nodded in agreement, and said helplessly: "The security problem in the United States has always been a stubborn illness. When I was in the United States, I usually stopped going out after 9 o'clock in the evening."

Doris Young smiled and said, "But in China, you can rest assured, you can go out boldly at any time."

Ziva Hank nodded and asked Doris Young cautiously: "MR. Wade, is this person easy to get along with at work?"

Doris Young smiled slightly, and said: "Young Master is still very easy to get along with in life, but at work, he is not easy to get along with at all."

"Really?" Ziva Hank was a little nervous at once, and hurriedly asked: "Then the reason why he is not easy to get along with is because he is too strict with his work?"

Doris Young pursed his mouth and smiled, and said: "No, on the contrary, the reason why the young master is not easy to get along with at work is because he is completely a hand-off shopkeeper at work. After handing over the work to the people below, basically if you don't show up for a few months, you won't be able to get along with him at work at all. This is why I say that he is not good at work..."

Ziva Hank originally felt relieved, but when he heard the meaning of this sentence, he was a little disappointed in his heart, and he secretly thought: "If I can't see Charlie in the next few months, Charlie doesn't care about my work situation, then wouldn't it be difficult for me to see him?"

Ziva Hank was thinking. Someone knocked on the door, and a woman said, "mam, MR. Wade is here."

It was Doris Young's secretary who spoke.

Doris Young's secretary did not know Charlie's true identity, she only knew that Charlie was Doris Young's distinguished guest. Every time she came to the Emgrand Group, Doris Young paid great attention to it, so after Charlie came, she immediately brought Charlie over. .

Upon hearing that Charlie was here, Doris Young hurriedly stood up, walked to the door and opened the office door, looked at Charlie, and said respectfully: "MR. Wade, you are here, please come in."

Charlie nodded slightly and stepped in.

Doris Young hurriedly ordered her secretary again: "From now on, I will not receive any visitors. All meetings and visits will be delayed for a while, but if Miss Jasmin from the Moore family comes, I will take her directly to my office. Come to the office."

The secretary nodded immediately: "Okay Mam, I see."

Charlie entered the office at this time. Seeing Ziva Hank standing on the side of the sofa in the reception area somewhat restrained, he asked a little surprised: "Ziva, why don't you sit down?"

Ziva Hank said with some embarrassment: "MR. Wade, you sit first and then I sit..."

Charlie waved his hand: "You don't need to be so rigid in front of me, just be natural, sit down."

Ziva Hank nodded, and carefully sat on the sofa again.

At this time, Doris Young also closed the door and walked over, and said respectfully: "Master, would you like something to drink?"

"Just drink white water." Charlie said casually.

Doris Young hurriedly poured a glass of water for Charlie, and then sat opposite Charlie and smiled: "Master, before you came, I just talked about you with Miss Ziva."

"Oh? Really?" Charlie smiled and asked: "What are you talking about me?"
